KAWAKITA, Teiichi

POSITION: Vice-President, Bank of Japan

STATUS UNDER SCAPIN 550: Not Purgeable

KAWAKITA was adviser of the Hokkaido Branch of the Imperial Rule Assistance Political Society (YOKUSAN SEIJI KAI) from 1941 to 1942. This post is not of sufficient importance to bring subject within the scope of the Purge Directive.

KAWAKITA was passed by the Japanese Government 21 January 1947.

BIOGRAPHICAL OUTLINE:

Born 1896 in Shimane Prefecture. KAWAKITA was clerk of the New York Office of the Bank of Japan from 1930 to 1932. He was Investigating Officer (Chosa-Yaku) of the Economic Research Department in 1933, the Banks Relation Investigation Department in 1935 and the Business Department in 1937. That same year, 1937, KAWAKITA was appointed Chief of the Funds Adjustment Division and two years later became Assistant Chief of the Business Department. KAWAKITA accepted the post of Manager of the Otaru and Sapporo Branches of the Bank of Japan in 1941. He returned as Chief of the Funds Adjustment Division in 1942 and in 1945 became Chief of the General Managing Department. Concurrent with the latter position KAWAKITA was appointed Director of the Bank of Japan and Advisory Director of the Industrial Bank of Japan, Ltd. in 1946 and still retains these positions.

KAWAKITA is currently a member of the Tokyo Banker's Club.

TSUCHIYA, Kiyoshi

POSITION: Member, Editorial Staff, Asahi Shimbun

STATUS UNDER SCAPIN 550: Not Purgeable

TSUCHIYA, according to his questionnaire, has never participated in any activities which would bring him within the purview of the Purge Directive.

BIOGRAPHICAL OUTLINE:

Born 1910 in Tokyo Metropolis. TSUCHIYA was employed as a copy reader for the Tokyo Asahi Shimbun in 1933 and continued in this post until 1941 when he was promoted to reporter of the Political and Economic Section. TSUCHIYA was placed on the editorial staff in 1945 and still retains his position.

TSUCHIYA contributed to several newspapers, magazines and pamphlets. In 1940 he wrote an analysis of the wartime agriculture of Japan. During 1941 TSUCHIYA edited treatises explaining the distribution of resources throughout the world, clarifying the causes which necessitate colonization and emigration and their economic influence, emphasizing the necessity for a planned economic program, commenting on Japan's Zaibatsu and criticizing the government's price policy and the economic changes which occurred after the outbreak of the Sino-Japanese conflicts. TSUCHIYA has published several books since 1942 on economics, politics and international affairs.

WAKIMURA, Yoshitaro

POSITION: Professor, Tokyo University

STATUS UNDER SCAPIN 550: Not Purgeable

WAKIMURA was screened and passed by the Japanese Government 26 May 1947. The Central Screening Committee's decision was approved by Government Section 24 June 1947.

BIOGRAPHICAL OUTLINE:

Born 1900 in Wakayama Prefecture. WAKIMURA has been a member of the professorial clique since 1926 when he became assistant professor at Tokyo Imperial University. He was appointed to the Ministry of Commerce and Industry and the Department of Communication in 1935 as a part-time commissioner. WAKIMURA traveled extensively throughout Europe and the United States from October 1935 to October 1937 studying Marine Transportation and Insurance, and attended the World Petroleum Congress in France during the summer of 1937. WAKIMURA was arrested in February 1938 during the round-up of liberal minded professors. He was indicted in December of the same year and suspended from Civil Service. WAKIMURA was employed by the Imperial Fuel Development Company in 1940 as a petroleum research expert and after he was cleared of charges during his first trial in 1941 became a temporary member of the Ministry of Commerce and Industry while reorganizing the accounting system of the Mining Industry. WAKIMURA was again suspended from Civil Service in 1944 prior to his second trial when the charges of 1938 were dropped because no connection between the Communist Party and WAKIMURA could be proven. He returned to government service in 1945 as a research expert for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and later that same year became research official for this Ministry and Liaison Official for the Central Liaison Office. WAKIMURA was appointed Professor of the Economic Faculty of Tokyo Imperial University in November 1945 and the following year became secretary of the Reparation Conference and of the Organization for the Reform of Government Officials. He was appointed commissioner of the Seamen's Central Labor Commission and of the Holding Company Liquidation Commission and still retains these positions.

WAKIMURA is the author of several treatises on economics, industry, natural resources and socialism. He is a member of various educational, economic and industrial clubs in Tokyo.

Investigation on Mr. YAMAKAWA, Ryoichi,
President of the Mitsui Mining Co., Ltd.

1. Personal relations with the Mitsuis

His relations with members of the Mitsui family are mearly confined to his acquaintance with the three persons specified below, and this connection, too, has almost ceased to exist since.

a) Mr. MITSUI, Takanaga

While in service about 1921 as Vice-Superintendent of the Manda mine of the Miike Colliery, he got acquainted with Mr. MITSUI, Takanaga, who arrived there to inspect the mine for a period of about one month.

b) Mr. MITSUI, Takahiro

While serving about 1934 as Manager of the Yamano mine, he made acquaintance with Mr. MITSUI, Takahiro who visited the place to take up the study of coal-mining.

c) Mr. MITSUI, Takaatsu

While at the Kamioka mine on business in July, 1945, he formed acquaintance with Mr. MITSUI, Takaatsu who had been there to have his teeth treated.

2. Circumstances at the time of his transference to the Coal Controlling Association and of his return to the Mitsui Mining Co., Ltd.

He had to be transferred in November, 1941 to the Coal Controlling Association under pressure from the President, though he occupied the third position among the personnel (Shokuin) and was naturally a candidate for directorship. When he wanted to return to the Mitsui Mining Co., Ltd. in November, 1949, at the expiration of the term of office, the President tried to check his reappointment in the Mining Co. by entreating Mr. MATSUMOTO, Kenjiro, President of the Coal Controlling Association to have him remain in office. The above facts prove that he was not highly respected by the Mitsui family. In addition, Mr. YAMAKAWA, being technician ont-and-ont, took charge of technical matters exclusively in the Coal Controlling Association.

3. Situation at his appointment as director

The fact that when a vacancy occurred in the board of directors in June, 1945, after his return to the Mitsui Mining Co., Ltd., Mr. MATSUMOTO, Kisashi of the Mitsui Holding Co. was elected to the vacancy upon the initiative of the Mitsui family in spite of his recommendation by the President clearly shows that he was not in favour with the Mitsuis as before. When he was elected Managing Director in December, 1945, the statement that "the Mitsui family will never participate in the transaction of company business hereafter" had been already published on Nov. 8 in accordance with the directive concerning dissolution of Zaibatsu. So his appointment as Managing Director is likely to have had no inner connection with the Mitsuis. His nomination to the Presidency, too, was owing greatly to the will of the Employees Union of the company when re-election of board took place as a result of the Purge Directive, thus having nothing to do with the Mitsui family.

The above facts testify that Mr. YAMAKAWA, Ryoichi, having no special connection with the Mitsui family, performs his functions on his own authority, whereas the Mitsui family wields no power over his transaction of business as President of the Mitsui Mining Co., Ltd. Such being the case, we are of the opinion that this state of things does not infringe the Purge Memorandum.

Cabinet Secretary

Murai Shichiro

19 February 1948

Gentlemen:

Yours is a great responsibility, not only to the Japanese People, but to the world at large. In the first place, you have been chosen to execute the provisions of a law enacted by the Diet. You are public servants and your primary duty and responsibility is to enforce without fear or favor the provisions of that law, letter and spirit. You are answerable to the whole people for what you do. In the second place, you are aiding in a great national reform and a necessary one, if democracy is to be established on a sound basis in Japan. Democracy in the economic field means equal opportunity. It means free enterprise. It means advancement by merit. It means prohibition of slave labor and starvation wages. It means equal access to materials and fair distribution of products. In order to ensure these things, something more than new legislation is necessary. It is common knowledge that that small group that controlled the economic life of Japan was interested not in the welfare of the people but in preserving and promoting the private interests of themselves and their friends. It is common knowledge that labor was a commodity to be used but not recognized as having rights. Any consideration of the dignity of man was completely lacking. In order that the influence of the old leaders may be completely eradicated, in order that the economic life of Japan may be infused with new blood and young vision, it is essential that this program be carried out fully and effectively. Yours is a great opportunity to serve your country.

Re. activities of OSHIMA, Yoshio
as a non-regular official (Shokutaku)
of the Metropolitan Police Board

29 January 1948

In order to execute effectively principal commodities control then under enforcement, the Metropolitan Police Board commissioned a certain numbers of persons as Shokutaku so that the Board could obtain necessary knowledge-particularly technical-concerning materials which are objectives of the control. Mr. OSHIMA was commissioned as the Shokutaku in charge of iron matters. He did not know who were other shokutakus.

His duties were furnishing technical knowledge to the Board. For example, when a case happened in connection with violation of the fixed price system, he was asked if the objective in question falls under what classification of list of commodities. He has never entered the investigation of the case itself.

Besides with the above, he was asked about the general situations of iron and steel industries. In 1940, an order instructing all-out stop of prices was promulgated. He recalls that he was requested his opinion concerning the actual effect of the order to the business activities.

All through his tenure of office extending for one year, he was consulted once or twice a month. He received as commutation allowance 40 - 50 yens a month. However he has never had his desk at the Board and a member of the Board used to come to his office asking for his opinion.
