

Mrs. Chapman:

Mary Anne and myself, having made an excursion to Brookline this morning before breakfast, were favored while there with the perusal of the enclosed letter from Sarah and Angelina to the Philbrick. They requested me to hand it to you for your private perusal, which I now ~~do~~ do, and subscribe myself, in jumping haste,

Mrs. for the cause,
E. Johnson.

Tuesday morning.

D. Johnson
Maria W. Chapman,
11 West-Street,
Boston.