SIGNIFICANCE OF WARSAW CAPTURE

That the capture of Warsaw by the kaiser's forces is a severe blow to the allies cannot be denied, but it has been discounted for many weeks and the allies should be, even if they are not, prepared for what may follow.

At the same time it must not be lost sight of that the moral effect of this event must be considerable. Nations like Greece, already trembling on the verge of the plunge into the maelstrom of war, may suddenly pull up, look over the brink, and reconsider their decision.

Roumania may also take a thought and wonder what may be her fate should anything happen whereby the British allies may have to take a back seat in Europe.

The world is now likely to see a rapid swing of the kaiser's seasoned troops from the Warsaw region, by way of the numerous strategic German railways that touch the Russian frontier, to the direction of the allied French, Belgian and British troops in the West.

What may be the outcome of the capture of Warsaw, when viewed from the standpoint of the next few months, it is difficult to say. The Russian army is practically intact; it is not demoralized; it is not beaten in any real sense, and as far as can be seen the Russians—czar, douma and people—are just as determined as ever to keep up the fight.

RECENT GAME LEGISLATION

It has always been a matter of regret throughout the length and breadth of the land that measures for the protection of fish and game were not taken years ago.

It was the same with the game. Once the woods and hills were alive with game. Now you will traverse the northern woods of California and see but little animal life of any kind—a few deer, a few quail and occasionally a mountain lion.

Remembering such things as these hunters and others interested in the conservation of wild animal life will be interested to know that several bills favorable to game conservation recently passed the legislature.

It is interesting to learn that the Political Code has been amended so as to define the powers of the Fish and Game Commission and to make it the duty of that body to "see that the laws for the protection and preservation of wild mammals, wild birds, fishes, mollusks, crustaceans and all other forms of aquatic animals and plants are strictly enforced."

For several years it has been unlawful to use "any animal, or imitation thereof, as a blind" for the purpose of approaching ducks with a view to shooting them or killing them.

These are all wise provisions and will do much to increase the numbers of native California game birds and animals. Attempts to make longer seasons and larger bag limits on many of the game species, and the attempt to place meadowlarks, blackbirds and robins in the list of game birds deservedly met with failure.

and Mrs. F. G. Fulkerson, all of Little Rock, Ark.

Berna Martin has returned from a delightful outing enjoyed at Avalon.

Mrs. Frank I. Marsh of North Central avenue is spending a week or ten days in Burbank as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Wyckoff at their ranch home.

Mrs. William Richardson and her daughter, Miss Lois Richardson, of Nova Scotia, who are visiting in San Diego, will arrive shortly for a few days' visit as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic C. Richardson.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Henry will arrive the first of September from Truckee, where Dr. Henry occupies the pulpit of the Methodist church, and will visit at their home on North Central avenue, which their daughter, Mrs. W. H. Crawford, with Mr. Crawford and Miss Margaret Crawford, are now occupying.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Ayres and son, Stuart Ayres of West Park avenue, are enjoying a most delightful visit in San Francisco and attending the Panama-Pacific exposition.

Mrs. J. A. Richardson of Santa Paula, who has been the guest of her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic C. Richardson of North Central avenue, is at present the guest of her son, Will Richardson of Los Angeles.

HE PROFITS MOST WHO SERVES BEST

I believe—That we are living in a scientific age, one in which all lines of useful effort are rapidly becoming reduced to a scientific basis.

That we are living in the age of the survival of the fittest.

That it means more to be fit today than it did ten years ago.

That it will mean more to be fit ten years from now than it does today.

That we are living in a commercial age, and that commerce or business is a science.

That a science is simply classified common sense based upon proper seeing, grasping, comparing and recording of facts.

That a profession is a science practiced.

That the science of business is the science of service; he profits most who serves best.

That when business getting and business building are reduced to a science by organizing the knowledge pertaining to them, we thereby elevate business to a professional plane.

That the success of any institution is the sum of successes of the people engaged in its service.

That success in life in its broad sense is a matter not of luck or chance, but is governed by laws of nature—mental, moral, physical and spiritual.

That to work in harmony with all of these laws would mean success of the highest order.

If the oleomargarine makers have cheated the government out of $27,000,000, as affirmed, some of it ought to be coming back in the form of income tax.

A PROFITABLE PRACTICE

The reason that window panes are whitened in a building not yet completed is explained by a building contractor. He says: "We don't plaster them over with chalk to prevent the public from seeing the unfinished condition of the interior, but to keep the workmen from battering out the glass."

BLIND PIGGER FINED

Stephen Bonizio, who resides in San Francisco canyon, was called up before Judge Harry M. Miller on Thursday morning for conducting a blind pig. Judge Miller fined the offender $300 or imprisonment in the county jail for six months.

Bonizio was fined for a similar offense in Judge Rives' court in 1912, the sentence being suspended. The case of John Ritter on a similar charge is now before Judge Miller.

It has come at last. A new fraternal order has been established to be known as the "Order of Cowboy Rangers." We wonder if they will give chase to the Buffaloes, the Elks, the Bisons, the Moose, the Eagles, and all the rest of the animal societies now roaming at large.—Sacred Heart Review.

A town in Ohio complains of rats so large that they eat cats. It would be interesting to know the status of that town as to the wet and dry problem. Still, almost anybody, drunk or sober, would find the presence of rats of such magnitude objectionable.

As San Pedro still has terminal rates, and also is an incorporated part of Los Angeles, it is not easy to understand just how and why Los Angeles is wiped off the commercial map.

There is nothing surprising in the fact that the new president of Haiti is anti-American. It is the custom of Haitian presidents to be anti-everything but their own precarious jobs.

Alton B. Parker, attending a religious convention at San Francisco, pleaded from the pulpit for more submarines and aeroplanes. Bryan not being among those present, there was no note of dissent.

Whichever side wins in the great war, the Poles are given assurance that they will have autonomy—which is about all they will have, even if they get this.

Bryan used to speak of the East as the "enemy's country." It still seems to be exactly that, but with the boundary rapidly extending in this direction.

General von Mackensen is described as a "man of few words," in this respect resembling every general any correspondent ever has had the pleasure of describing.

It seems almost mean to mention the fact that people dying of heat in New York doubtless held the opinion that California was too warm a place to be visited in summer.

One of Lowell's finest poems is dedicated to the dandelion. Obviously, he never had a lawn infested with this flowery pest.

That billion-bushel wheat crop estimate might be scaled down a hundred million bushels and still be huge beyond all comparison.

The aeroplane is called the eyes of the army, but the mule has the record for ears.

Public notice is hereby given that the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale did at its meeting on the 2nd day of August, 1915, fix the time and place for the hearing of the appeals to said Board against the diagram and assessment for the construction of a bridge on Opechee Way and for the grading of a channel in the Verdugo Canon Wash, on Monday evening at 8:15 P. M., August 9th, 1915, in the Council Chamber at the City Hall, Glendale. Said appeals offer objections to the acceptance of said work on the grounds of faulty workmanship, that work is not upon publicly owned property or right-of-way, that it is of benefit to whole city, that all needed rights-of-way are not secured, and that the diagram is erroneous. At present they have no cars in stock, having sold two new cars during the past week, besides making a re-sale of a Maxwell car and a motorcycle.

THE best Pneumatic Tire is only as strong as its weakest part. Strengthening its strongest parts is as useless as putting a fifth Wheel on a Wagon. Yet this is often done to provide "Selling-feature" and "Talking Point." The weakest part of every Pneumatic Tire is its Walls or Sides, not its Tread,—its Cotton Fabric or "Stocking," not its Rubber "Sole."

No price would be too high to pay for a material that, replacing Cotton in the Walls of Pneumatic Tires, would last as long as the Goodrich Rubber Tread could be made to wear. Neither Silk, nor Linen, nor any other known Fabric yet discovered is so good, for this purpose, as Cotton,—and choice long-fibred Cotton is the best material that money can buy for Tire Fabric.

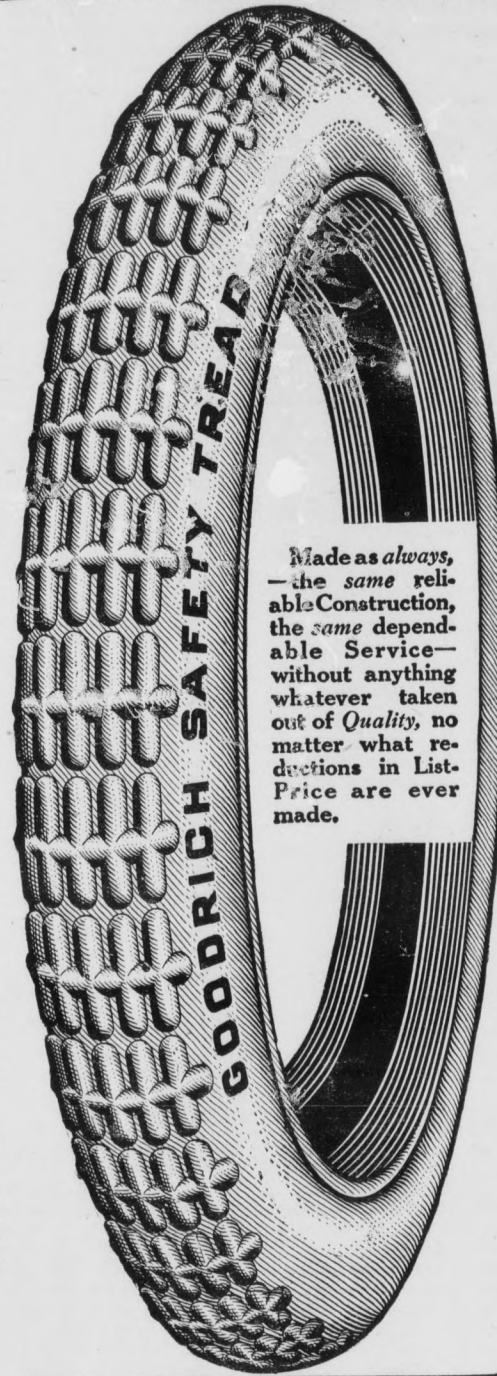

WE use nothing less in Goodrich Tires, and test every foot of it up to 380 lbs. to the Square Inch, before we percolate it with the most adhesive Rubber Compound ever made for this purpose.

We then shape this rubberized Fabric into Tires, with scrupulous care to have the tension on each square inch of fabric precisely the same,—that tension being controlled by a machine as sensitive as the eye, and infinitely more precise than the handwork of the most skilled Operative could make it.

To do this work we have the most highly-trained men in the Rubber Industry,—trained in the Precision that practice and our 45-year EXPERIENCE make perfect.

NO Tire Manufacturer, if he received a price of $200 per Tire, could put better Fabric into the Walls of his Tires, use greater care, more sensitively adjusted Tension devices, or more adhesive Rubber between each layer of fabric.

Because, we know the vital importance of THE BEST in this part of the Tire, and use it there unsparingly.

Made as always, —the same reliable Construction, the same dependable Service—without anything whatever taken out of Quality, no matter what reductions in List-Price are ever made.

Only 5% Plus for this Best Non-Skid Tire

Note following comparative prices. "A," "B," "C" and "D" represent four Wide-Base Old Non-Skid Tires:

Size	Goodrich Safety Tread	OTHER MAKES
		"A"	"B"	"C"	"D"
30 x 3	$9.45	$10.55	$10.95	$16.35	$18.10
30 x 3 1/2	12.20	13.35	14.20	21.70	23.60
32 x 3 1/2	14.00	15.40	16.30	22.85	25.30
34 x 4	20.55	22.30	23.80	31.15	33.55
36 x 4 1/2	28.70	32.15	33.60	41.85	41.40
37 x 5	33.90	39.80	41.80	49.85	52.05

But,—notwithstanding all this,—the FABRIC is the part of the Tire which goes first.

Because the sides of the Tire do most of the work in running,—bending and stretching a million times an hour, in scores of different directions.

This bending of the sides causes Friction between the layers of Canvas working against each other,—Friction causes Heat—the Heat over-cures and dries out the Rubber Adhesive between layers, which then separate from each other, in spots, the threads weakening or wearing out chafing against each other.

Then you have, in due time, the incipient blow-out, or other form of Tire-Death.

PUT more layers of Fabric than we do in the walls, to strengthen them, and the friction increases, with faster deterioration of the Rubber through the greater heat engendered.

Put fewer layers, and the walls would not be strong enough to carry the load of the Car.

So there you are—Mr. Tire User!

Why put MORE layers of Fabric in the Walls of the Tire than will properly carry the load, when each additional layer is an additional developer of that FRICTION-HEAT which is to Tires what Old Age is to Man?

THAT is the reason we build, in the Goodrich Tire, a carefully BALANCED Tire, emulating the famous example of "The Deacon's One-Hoss Shay" in which "the Sills were just as strong as the Thills and the Thills as strong as the floor."

The Maximum Fabric efficiency and THEN,—the rest of the Tire built up to that.

Result,—The most RESILIENT Tire that can be made with Fabric Walls,—at the fairest price per Mile of performance.

Why pay more for any Tire?

CELEBRATED DWARFS

Early in the eighteenth century a brother and sister attracted great attention for smallness of stature. They were of Polish birth and were people of great accomplishments and elegant manners. When the brother, Count Berowlaski, was one year old he measured fourteen inches in height.

Five years after he had gained but three inches, but at the age of twenty the measurement was six inches more, and then the growth ceased. The sister, Anastasia, seven years younger, could stand under her brother's arm. The count lived over ninety years.
