We see no propriety in beslavering his Excellency with commendation because he protects the people of Louisiana from open robbery, as is his swern duty. Third, in the number of vetoed bills which we shall mention, is the act to aid the Louisiana Petroleum and Oil Company has upon the people of Louisiana for aid more than any other private corporation if dov. Warmorth had signed this bill, he would have deserved impeachment. The fourth and last act disapproved by the Governor, which we shall mention in the present article, is that "to incorporate the Louisiana Commercial, Agricultural and Emigrant Association, and to encourage direct ocean communication from the port of New Orleans to any port or ports of Great Britain and the continent ports of

The St. Charles.—The ever pepular favorite, Lotta, had a fine andicese last night, and, so soul, carried the house by storm. The Stella of Mrs. Albangh can not be too highly graised, and the Use of Miss O'Conner deceives special mention. To night Lotta has a benefit, and her being so well known and so great a favorite, further mention is unnecessary. The manti inde, to-morrow, will be remembered. Lotta's new play.
