C A P. IV.

An Act to amend an Act for guaranteeing the Interest on such Loans, not exceeding Five hundred thousand Pounds, as may be raised by the British Colonies on the Continent of South America, in the West Indies, and the Mauritius, for certain Purposes. [16th December 1852.]

WHEREAS in the Session of Parliament holden in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty's Reign an Act was passed, intituled An Act for guaranteeing the Interest on such Loans, not exceeding Five hundred thousand Pounds, as may be raised by the British Colonies on the Continent of South America, in the West Indies, and the Mauritius, for certain Purposes: And whereas by the said Act Her Majesty was enabled to guarantee the Interest on certain Loans thereafter to be raised by the Legislature, or other proper Legislative Authority of Her Majesty's Colonies and Possessions on the Continent of South America, in the West Indies, and the Island of Mauritius, and made chargeable on the respective Revenues of such Colonies and Possessions, for the Purpose of promoting the Introduction of Free Labourers, or the Formation of Roads, Railways, Works of Drainage or Irrigation, or other public Undertakings of a similar Character: And whereas Doubts have arisen whether any Monies that may be raised by means of such guaranteed Loans can be applied to the Conveyance back to India, China, or Africa of Free Labourers introduced therefrom into the said Colonies and Possessions: And whereas it is expedient to re-

Guaranteed Loans may be charged with Expense of conveying back to India, &c. Free Labourers introduced therefrom.

‘ move such Doubts :’ Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That any Monies the Produce of such guaranteed Loans which the Legislatures or other proper Legislative Authority of Her Majesty’s said Colonies and Possessions may have raised or charged, or hereafter may raise or charge, on the respective Revenues of such Colonies and Possessions, may be applied to the Conveyance back to India, China, and Africa of Free Labourers introduced therefrom into the said Colonies and Possessions, anything in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. V.

An Act to substitute Stamp Duties for Fees on passing Letters Patent for Inventions, and to provide for the Purchase for the public Use of certain Indexes of Specifications. [21st February 1853.]

15 & 16 Vict.
c. 83.

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient that the Fees payable in respect of Letters Patent for Inventions under the Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, and mentioned in the Schedule to such Act, be converted into Stamp Duties :’ Be it enacted, therefore, by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

§§ 17, 44, 45, 46, and 53, and Part of Schedule of recited Act repealed.

Letters Patent to be made subject to Avoidance on Non-payment of Stamp Duties expressed in Schedule to this Act annexed.

I. Sections Seventeen, Forty-four, Forty-five, Forty-six, and Fifty-three of the said Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, and so much of the Schedule to the said Act as relates to Fees and Stamp Duties to be paid under the said Act, shall be repealed.

II. All Letters Patent for Inventions to be granted under the Provisions of the said Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, (except in the Cases provided for in the Fourth Section of this Act,) shall be made subject to the Condition that the same shall be void, and that the Powers and Privileges thereby granted shall cease and determine, at the Expiration of Three Years and Seven Years respectively from the Date thereof, unless there be paid before the Expiration of the said Three Years and Seven Years respectively the Stamp Duties in the Schedule to this Act annexed expressed to be payable before the Expiration of the Third Year and of the Seventh Year respectively, and such Letters Patent, or a Duplicate thereof, shall be stamped with proper Stamps showing the Payment of such respective Stamp Duties, and shall, when stamped, be produced before the Expiration of such Three Years and Seven Years respectively at the Office of the Commissioners ; and a Certificate of the Production of such Letters Patent or Duplicate so stamped, specifying the Date of such Production, shall be endorsed by the Clerk of the Commissioners on the Letters Patent or Duplicate, and a like Certificate shall be endorsed upon the Warrant for such Letters Patent filed in the said Office.

Stamp Duties mentioned in the Schedule to this Act to be payable.

III. There shall be paid unto and for the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, for or in respect of Letters Patent applied for or issued under the Provisions of the said Patent Law Amendment Amendment Act, 1852, Warrants, Specifications, Disclaimers, Certificates, and Entries, and other Matters and Things mentioned in the Schedule to this Act, or the Vellum, Parchment, or Paper on which the same respectively are written, the Stamp Duties mentioned in the said Schedule; and no other Stamp Duties shall be levied in respect of such Letters Patent, Warrants, Specifications, Disclaimers, Certificates, Entries, Matters, and Things; and the Stamp Duty mentioned in the said Schedule on Office Copies of Documents shall be in lieu of such Sums as by the said Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, are authorized to be appointed to be paid for such Office Copies.

IV. Where Letters Patent for England or Scotland or Ireland have been granted before the Commencement of the said Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, or have been since the Commencement of the said Act, or hereafter may be granted for any Invention, in respect of any Application made before the Commencement of the said Act, Letters Patent for England or Scotland or Ireland may be granted for such Invention in like Manner as if the said Act had not been passed: Provided always, that in lieu of all Fees or Payments and Stamp Duties which were at the Time of the passing of the said Act payable in respect of such Letters Patent as last aforesaid, or in or about obtaining a Grant thereof, and in lieu of all other Stamp Duties whatsoever, there shall be paid in respect of such Letters Patent as last aforesaid on the sealing thereof Stamp Duties equal to One Third Part of the Stamp Duties which would be payable under this Act in respect of Letters Patent issued for the United Kingdom under the said Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, on or previously to the sealing of such Letters Patent as last aforesaid, and before the Expiration of the Third Year and the Seventh Year respectively of the Term granted by such Letters Patent for England, Scotland, or Ireland, Stamp Duties equal to One Third Part of the Stamp Duties payable under this Act before the Expiration of the Third Year and the Seventh Year respectively of the Term granted by Letters Patent issued for the United Kingdom under the said Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, and the Condition of such Letters Patent for England or Scotland or Ireland shall be varied accordingly.

V. The Stamp Duties hereby granted shall be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue; and the several Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties, Clauses, and Matters contained in any Act now or hereafter to be in force with reference to Stamp Duties shall be applicable thereto.

VI. The said Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall prepare Stamps impressed upon adhesive Paper, of the Amounts following, that is to say, Twopence, Fourpence, Eightpence, and One Shilling, to be used only in respect of the Stamp Duties on the Office Copies of Documents and on the Certificates of Searches and Inspections mentioned in the Schedule to this Act; such adhesive Stamps of proper Amounts to be affixed by the Clerk of the Commissioners of Patents for Inventions to such Office Copies of Documents and Certificates of Searches and Inspections as aforesaid; and immediately after such affixing he shall obliterate or deface such Stamps by impressing thereon a Seal to be provided for that

Duties to be under Management of Commissioners of Inland Revenue;

who are to provide the proper Stamps for the Purpose.

Purpose, but so as not to prevent the Amount of the Stamp from being ascertained ; and no such Office Copy or Certificate shall be delivered out until the Stamps thereon shall be obliterated or defaced as aforesaid.

Conditions of Letters Patent already granted under recited Act to be satisfied by Payment of Stamp Duties, &c. under this Act.

VII. The Condition contained in any Letters Patent granted under the said Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, and before the passing of this Act for making such Letters Patent void at the Expiration of Three Years and Seven Years respectively from the Date thereof, unless there be paid, before the Expiration of the said Three Years and Seven Years respectively, the Sums of Money and Stamp Duties by the said Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, required in this Behalf, shall be deemed to be satisfied and complied with by Payment of the like Stamp Duties as would have been required if such Letters Patent had been granted after the passing of this Act, and had been made subject to the Condition required by this Act in lieu of the said Condition therein contained ; and the Provision herein-before contained concerning the Endorsement on the Letters Patent or Duplicate, and on the Warrant for the same Letters Patent, of a Certificate of the Production of the Letters Patent or Duplicate properly stamped, shall be applicable in the Case of such Letters Patent granted before the passing of this Act.

Power to Commissioners to purchase the Indexes of existing Specifications prepared by Mr. Woodcroft.

VIII. ' And whereas by the said Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, the Commissioners are directed to cause Indexes to all Specifications heretofore or hereafter to be enrolled or deposited to be prepared in such Form as they may think fit, which Indexes are to be open to the Inspection of the Public : And whereas the existing Specifications so directed to be indexed as aforesaid are in Number Fifteen thousand and upwards, and it would require some Years to make Indexes thereof on a proper Arrangement and Classification : And whereas Mr. Bennett Woodcroft has already made complete Indexes of such Specifications, which the Commissioners have examined and approved of, and it is expedient that such Indexes be purchased for the Use of the Public :

It shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to purchase the said Indexes of the said Bennett Woodcroft for a Sum not exceeding One thousand Pounds, and to pay the Purchase Money for the same out of the Monies in their Hands which have arisen from Fees received in respect of Letters Patent under the said Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, and directed by the said Act to be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer ; and after the Purchase of such Indexes the Provisions of the said Act shall be applicable thereto as if such Indexes had been prepared under the said recited Enactment.

As to the Word "Duplicate."

IX. The Word "Duplicate" shall be construed to mean in this Act such Letters Patent as may be issued under the Twenty-second Section of the Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, in case of any Letters Patent being destroyed or lost.

This Act and 15 & 16 Vict. c. 83. to be construed together.

X. This Act and the Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, shall be construed together as One Act.

C A P. VI.

An Act to apply the Sum of Two Millions to the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

[21st February 1853.]

C A P. VII.

An Act to amend an Act relating to the Valuation of rate-able Property in Ireland.

[21st February 1853.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Sixteenth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to amend the Laws 15 & 16 Vict. relating to the Valuation of rateable Property in Ireland; and a. 63.
and the said Act, "for the Purpose of providing for the necessary Alteration and Revision of the Valuations made, completed, or revised under the said Act from Time to Time, in the Cases of those Tenements or Hereditaments the Limits whereof shall become altered, or whereof the Value shall be changed by any Building being erected thereon or thrown down or destroyed, as the Case may be, or in all Cases of Property the annual Value of which is liable to frequent Alteration, such as Fisheries, Railways, Canals, Tolls of Roads and Bridges, and Mines," enacted, "That within Ten Days after the First Day of February in each Year after any such Valuation or revised Valuation shall have been completed and in operation, every Collector of Poor Rates within each Poor Law Union within which such Valuation shall be completed and in operation shall make out and lay before the Board of Guardians of the Union for which he is a Collector a List of all the Tenements or Hereditaments situate within every Townland in the said Union, and within his District, the Valuation of which Tenements shall require Revision for any of the Reasons aforesaid,

‘ “ or in respect of any Property the annual Value of which is ‘ “ liable to frequent Alteration as aforesaid; and if any such ‘ “ Collector shall fail or neglect to make out, according to the ‘ “ best of his Ability, and lay before the respective Board of ‘ “ Guardians, such last-mentioned List of Tenements and Pro‘ “ perties, as hereby required, he shall for every such Neglect ‘ “ or Default be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds;
 ‘ “ and the Clerk of the Union shall prepare from the said Lists
 ‘ “ a full and complete List of all such last-mentioned Tenements ‘ “ and Property, and shall for Twenty Days after receiving the ‘ “ said Lists leave Copies thereof open for Inspection at the ‘ “ Workhouse of the Union, and permit Extracts to be taken ‘ “ from the same; and in case of such Default as aforesaid by ‘ “ a Poor Law Collector, any Ratepayer within the Union may ‘ “ lay before the Board of Guardians a List of any Tenements
 ‘ “ the Valuation of which shall in his Opinion require Revision, ‘ “ which List shall be dealt with as if returned by the Poor ‘ “ Law Collector, and shall transmit such List, within Twenty ‘ “ Days from such First Day of February, to the Commissioner ‘ “ of Valuation, with the Opinion of the said Board of Guardians ‘ “ whether a Revision is necessary on account of such Changes ‘ “ or Alterations, together with the Name of the Person whom ‘ “ the said Board of Guardians may recommend as a fit and ‘ “ proper Person to revise the same;” and it is expedient to ‘ amend the above-cited Provisions:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Certain Part of above-recited Section 29. of 15 & 16 Vict.
 c. 63. repealed,
 and other Provisions made in lieu thereof.

I. So much of the above-recited Provision as enacts, that “ the “ Clerk of the Union shall prepare from the said Lists a full “ and complete List of all such Tenements and Property, and “ shall for Twenty Days after receiving the said Lists leave “ Copies thereof open for Inspection at the Workhouse of the “ Union, and permit Extracts to be taken from the same; and “ in case of such Default as aforesaid by a Poor Law Collector, “ any Ratepayer within the Union may lay before the Board of “ Guardians a List of any Tenements the Valuation of which “ shall in his Opinion require Revision, which List shall be dealt “ with as if returned by the Poor Law Collector, and shall trans“ mit such List, within Twenty-one Days from such First Day of “ February, to the Commissioner of Valuation, with the Opinion “ of the said Board of Guardians whether a Revision is necessary “ on account of such Changes or Alterations, together with the “ Name of a Person whom the said Board of Guardians may “ recommend as a fit and proper Person to revise the same,” shall be and is hereby repealed; and in lieu thereof it shall be and is hereby enacted as follows :

Clerks of Unions to make out Lists of Tenements proposed for Revision in Lists received from Collectors,
 &c.

The Clerk of the Union shall prepare from the Lists so directed to be made out by the Collectors, and laid before the Board of Guardians, a full and complete List of all Tenements and Property mentioned in such Collectors Lists, and shall for Twenty Days after receiving the said Lists leave Copies thereof open for Inspection at the Workhouse of the Union, and permit Extracts to

to be taken from the same ; and in case of such Default as aforesaid by any Poor Rate Collector, any Ratepayer within the Union may lay before the Board of Guardians a List of any Tenements of which the Valuation shall in his Opinion require Revision, which List shall be dealt with as if it were made out and laid before the Board of Guardians by the Poor Rate Collector, and the Tenements named therein shall in like Manner be included in the List directed to be made out by the Clerk of the Union ; and the Clerk of the Union shall, within Twenty Days after such First Day of February, transmit the List so directed to be made out by him to the Commissioner of Valuation, with the Opinion of the said Board of Guardians whether a Revision is necessary on account of such Changes or Alterations, together with the Name of a Person whom the said Board of Guardians may recommend as a fit and proper Person to revise the same.

C A P. VIII.

An Act for enabling the Commissioners of Inland Revenue to dispose of certain Property in the City of London.

[18th March 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament
 ‘ holden in the Eighth Year of the Reign of His late ‘ Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for carrying 8 G. 3. c. 32.
 ‘ into execution an Agreement made between the Mayor and Com- ‘ monalty and Citizens of the City of London, and the Wardens
 ‘ and Commonalty of the Mystery of Mercers of the said City, and ‘ Stamp Brooksbank Esquire, Secretary to the Commissioners of ‘ His Majesty’s Revenue of Excise, for the Purchase of Gresham ‘ College, and the Ground and Buildings thereunto belonging, and ‘ for vesting the same unalienably in the Crown, for the Purpose ‘ of erecting and building an Excise Office there, and for enabling ‘ the Lecturers of the said College to marry, notwithstanding any ‘ Restriction contained in the Will of Sir Thomas Gresham Knight, ‘ deceased, it is enacted, that it should and might be lawful to
 ‘ and for all Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, and all ‘ Trustees, Mortgagees, and Feoffees in Trust, Guardians of ‘ Infants, and Committees of Lunatics and Idiots, Executors and ‘ Administrators whatsoever, and all and every other Person or ‘ Persons whomsoever, who were or should be seised, possessed, ‘ or interested in any Lands or Tenements standing or being con‘ tiguous or adjoining to the said College, to bargain and sell the ‘ same to such Person or Persons as the Commissioners of His ‘ Majesty’s Treasury then being, or any Three or more of them,
 ‘ or the High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty’s
 ‘ Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, ‘ should by Writing under his or their Hands appoint, to con‘ tract for the Purchase thereof for the Purpose aforesaid, and ‘ such Lands or Tenements so to be purchased should be con‘ veyed to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, by Deed or ‘ Deeds, to be enrolled in His Majesty’s Court of King’s Bench, ‘ and when so purchased should be and be deemed to be and ‘ were thereby declared to be vested in and annexed to the Im‘ perial Crown of this Realm, and should be and remain for ever ‘ unalienable

' unalienable from the same, and all Contracts, Agreements, and
 ' Sales, and all Conveyances by such Deeds, enrolled as aforesaid,
 ' which should be made by such Bodies Politic, Corporate, or ' Collegiate, or other Persons aforesaid, should be valid and ' effectual to all Intents and Purposes, any Law, Statute, or
 ' Usage, or any other Matter or Thing, to the contrary notwith-
 ' standing: And whereas after the passing of the said Act the ' said Messuage or Tenement called Gresham College was pulled ' down, and an Excise Office erected there: And whereas in the ' Year One thousand seven hundred and seventy-two one John
 ' Conyers sold to the then Commissioners of His then Majesty's ' Revenue of Excise (who had been previously appointed by the ' Commissioners of His then Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance ' of the said Act, to contract with him for the Purpose,) certain ' Land and Buildings, Stables, Coach-houses, and Vaults situate
 ' in Sun Yard in the Parish of Saint Helen's Bishopsgate, Lon- ' don, contiguous or adjoining to the said College called Gresham
 ' College, for the Purpose in the said Act mentioned, and under
 ' and by virtue of certain Deeds or Indentures of Lease and Re' lease, dated respectively the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth
 ' Days of March One thousand seven hundred and seventy-two,
 ' and duly enrolled in His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, as
 ' by the said Act is directed, the Release being made between ' the said John Conyers of the First Part, William Burton Esquire,
 ' John Wyndham Bowyer Esquire, David Papillon Esquire,
 ' George Lewis Scott Esquire, Thomas Bowlby Esquire, Richard
 ' Bagot Esquire, George Quarme Esquire, Richard Stonhewer
 ' Esquire, and Anthony Lucas Esquire, therein described, accord' ing to the Fact, as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue
 ' of Excise, of the Second Part, and the then King's most Excel' lent Majesty of the Third Part, the said Land and Buildings,
 ' Stables, Coach-houses, and Vaults were conveyed to the Use of ' His then Majesty, His Heirs and Successors for ever, to the ' End and Intent that the same might be vested and annexed to ' the Imperial Crown of this Realm, and be for ever held and ' enjoyed therewith, and be and remain for ever unalienable from ' the same, according to the Tenor, true Intent, and Meaning of ' the said Act of Parliament: And whereas the Property com' prised in the said Deed or Indenture of Release was afterwards
 ' thrown into and formed Part of the Site of the said Excise
 ' Office, and of the Yard and Outbuildings adjoining thereto, or
 ' some of them: And whereas by an Act passed in the Session
 ' of Parliament holden in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Her ' present Majesty, and intituled An Act to consolidate the Boards
 ' of Excise and Stamps and Taxes into One Board of Commis- ' sioners of Inland Revenue, and to make Provision for the Col- ' lection of such Revenue, it is enacted, that from and after the ' passing of that Act the several Persons then appointed and ' being Commissioners of Excise and Commissioners of Stamps
 ' and Taxes respectively should, without any further Commission
 ' or Authority than that Act, become and be One consolidated ' Board of Commissioners, and be called the "Commissioners of ' Inland Revenue," and from thenceforth all the several Revenues, ' Duties, Matters, and Things which at the Time of the passing of that Act were collected by or were under the Care and Management of the said Commissioners of Excise and of the said Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes respectively should respectively be collected by and should be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue constituted by that Act, or to be appointed as therein-after directed, in the same Manner as such Revenues, Duties, Matters, and Things respectively had theretofore been collected by or had been under the Care and Management of the said Commissioners of Excise and of the said Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes respectively, and that all such Revenues and Duties should be denominated and be deemed to be Inland Revenue : And whereas after the passing of such lastly-mentioned Act the said Excise Office became and was known as the Chief Office of Inland Revenue : And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for carrying into execution an Agreement for the Sale of Property belonging to Her Majesty in right of Her Crown and of Her Duchy of Lancaster to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and for enabling such Commissioners to dispose of their present Chief Office and other Property in the City of London, after reciting, as the Fact is, that the Commissioners of Inland Revenue were desirous of building Offices for carrying on the Business of the Inland Revenue, and with that Object the said Agreement had been entered into, and that the Property vested in and annexed to the Crown by the said Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, and the Property comprised in Two certain Indentures of Release therein-before mentioned, dated respectively the Twenty-second Day of December One thousand seven hundred and ninety-six and the Ninth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, would not be required for the Purposes of the said Commissioners after the Erection of their Chief Office on the Site comprised in the said Agreement, and it was expedient that they should have Power to dispose thereof, it is enacted, that the said Sale of the Hereditaments and Premises comprised in the said Agreement should be and the same was thereby confirmed, and that the same Hereditaments and Premises should be and the same were for all the legal and beneficial Estate and Interest of Her Majesty, as well in right of Her Crown as of Her said Duchy, thereby vested in the Secretary for the Time being of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, to hold the same to himself and his Successors in Office for ever as a Corporation Sole, subject nevertheless as in the said Agreement mentioned, and in trust for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, for the Use and Service of the Inland Revenue ; and it is also enacted, that the Property vested in and annexed to the Imperial Crown of the Realm by the said Act passed in the Eighth Year of His late Majesty King George the Third, and also the Property comprised in the said Two several therein and herein-before mentioned Indentures of Release, should be and the same were thereby vested in the Secretary for the Time being of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue and his Successors, for the same be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,
 ' of

Property conveyed to the Crown by Deed dated 24th March 1772 to be vested in the Secretary of Inland Revenue.

I. That the Property comprised in the said Deed or Indenture of Release dated the Twenty-fourth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and seventy-two shall be and the same is hereby vested in the Secretary for the Time being of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and his Successors, and that the same shall henceforth be held by him and his Successors in such and the same Manner and for the same Purposes, and shall and may be managed, dealt with, let, set, demised, sold, and disposed of, as if the same had been vested in the Secretary of Excise for the Time being, and his Successors, under and by virtue of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled
An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Collection and Management of the Revenue of Excise throughout Great Britain and Ireland.

C A P. IX.

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters.

[18th March 1853.]

[This Act is the same, except as to Dates and the Parts here inserted, as 15 & 16 Vict. c. 7.]

Numbers.

I. The Number of Forces to be One hundred and two thousand two hundred and eighty-three Men, exclusive of the Officers and Men belonging to the Regiments employed in the Territorial Possessions of the East India Company, but including the Officers and Men of the Troops and Companies recruiting for those Regiments.

VII. A General Court-martial convened in Saint Helena, the General Courts-martial.
 Settlements on the Western Coast of Africa, Honduras, New Zealand, the Australian Colonies, Hong Kong, and the Settlements on the Coast of China, and Prince of Wales Island, Singapore, and Malacca, shall consist of not less than Five Commissioned Officers; if convened in Jamaica, the Windward and Leeward Islands, British Guiana, Newfoundland, Bermuda, the Bahamas, the Cape of Good Hope or other Settlements in Southern Africa, or in any Part out of the Queen's Dominions excepting the Ionian Islands and the Parts before mentioned, it shall consist of not less than Seven, and if convened in any other Part of the Queen's Dominions, or in the Ionian Islands, or in the Settlements of the East India Company, it shall consist of not less than Thirteen Commissioned Officers; and shall have Power to sentence any Officer or Soldier to suffer Death, Transportation, or any other Punishment which shall accord with the Provisions of this Act.

XXI. Whosoever any General Court-martial by which any Commutation of Death for Transportation.
 Soldier shall have been tried and convicted of any Offence punishable with Death shall not think the Offence deserving of Capital Punishment, such Court-martial may adjudge the Offender, according to the Degree of the Offence, to be transported as a Felon for Life, or for a certain Term of Years, or may sentence him to general Service as a Soldier in any Corps and in any Country or Place which Her Majesty shall thereupon direct, or may, if such Offender shall have enlisted for a limited Term of Years, sentence him to serve for Life as a Soldier in any Corps which Her Majesty shall please to direct: Provided always, that in all Cases where a Capital Punishment shall have been awarded by a General Court-martial or Detachment General Court-martial it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, for the Officer commanding in chief the Forces in India, instead of causing such Sentence to be carried into execution, to order the Offender to be transported as a Felon, either for Life or for a certain Term of Years, or to suffer such Term of Imprisonment, either with or without Hard Labour, as shall seem meet to Her Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, to the Officer commanding as aforesaid.

XXIV. Whenever any Sentence of Transportation heretofore Execution of Sentences of Transportation in the Colonies. or hereafter passed upon any Offender by any Court-martial holden in the East Indies, or in any Part of Her Majesty's Foreign Dominions, is to be carried into execution for the Term specified in such Sentence or for any shorter Term, or when Sentence of Death has been or shall as aforesaid be commuted to Transportation, the same shall be notified by the Officer commanding Her Majesty's Forces at the Presidency or Station, or in his Absence by the Adjutant General for the Time being, to some Judge of One of the Supreme Courts of Judicature in the East Indies, or Chief Justice, or some other Judge, as the Case may be, in any Part of Her Majesty's Foreign Dominions, who shall make Order for the Transportation or intermediate Custody of such Offender, in like Manner as for the Transportation or intermediate Custody of any other Convict; and upon any such Order being made it shall be duly notified to the Governor of the Presidency if in the East Indies, or to the Governor of the Colony if in any of Her

Her Majesty's Colonies, or to the Person who shall for the Time being be exercising the Office of Governor of such Presidency or Colony, who, on Receipt of such Notification, shall cause such Offender to be removed to some Colony or Place in obedience to the Directions for the Removal of Convicts which shall from Time to Time be transmitted from Her Majesty through One of Her Principal Secretaries of State to such Presidency or Colony; and such Offender on being so removed shall undergo the Sentence of Transportation which has been passed upon him in the Colony or Place to which he has been so removed or sent, and whilst such Sentence shall remain in force shall be liable to be there imprisoned and kept to Hard Labour, and otherwise dealt with under such Sentence in the same Manner as if he had been sentenced to be imprisoned, with Hard Labour, during the Term of his Transportation, by the Judgment of a Court of competent Jurisdiction in the Colony or Place to which he has been so removed or sent: Provided always, that in any Case where a Sentence of Transportation shall have been awarded by a General Court-martial it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, for the Officer commanding in chief the Forces in India, instead of causing such Sentence to be carried into execution, to order that the Offender be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Two Years, either with or without Hard Labour, and Solitary Confinement not exceeding the Period herein-after prescribed.

Power to commute Corporal Punishment.

XXVII. In all Cases in which Corporal Punishment shall form the whole or any Part of the Sentence awarded by any Court-martial it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, or for the General or other Officer authorized to confirm the Sentences of Courts-martial, to commute such Corporal Punishment to Imprisonment, either solitary or with or without Hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding Forty-two Days, or to mitigate such Sentence, or to award Imprisonment, either solitary or with or without Hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding Twenty Days, and Corporal Punishment, to be inflicted in the Prison, not exceeding Twenty-five Lashes; provided that such Commutation of Punishment to Solitary Confinement shall in no Case exceed the Period herein-after prescribed.

Forfeiture of Pay and Pension by Sentence of Court-martial.

XXVIII. Any General Court-martial may, in addition to any other Punishment which it may be competent to award, sentence any Offender to Forfeiture of all Advantage as to additional Pay, Good-conduct Pay, and to Pension on Discharge, which might have otherwise accrued from the Length of his former Service, or to Forfeiture of such Advantage absolutely, whether it might have accrued from past Service or might accrue from future Service, according to the Nature of the Case; and any District or Garrison Court-martial may also, in addition to any Sentence which such Court may award, sentence any Offender to such Forfeiture for Desertion or for disgraceful Conduct,

In wilfully doing any Act, or wilfully disobeying any Orders, whether in Hospital or otherwise, thereby producing or aggravating Disease or Infirmary, or delaying his Cure:

In malingering or feigning Disease:

In stealing or embezzling Government Property or Stores, or in receiving the same knowing the same to have been stolen:

In

In stealing any Money or Goods, the Property of a Comrade, of a Military Officer, or of any Military or Regimental Mess or Band, or in receiving any such Money or Goods knowing the same to have been stolen :

In making any false or fraudulent Accounts, Returns, Matters, or Entries, or assisting or conniving at the same being made, or producing the same as true, knowing the same to be false or fraudulent :

In stealing or embezzling or fraudulently misapplying Public Money intrusted to him :

Or in committing any other Offence of a felonious or fraudulent Nature, to the Injury of or with Intent to injure any Person, Civil or Military :

Or for any other disgraceful Conduct, being of a cruel, indecent, or unnatural Kind.

XXIX. Every Soldier who shall be found guilty by a Court-martial of Desertion, of wilfully maiming or injuring himself or any other Soldier, whether at the Instance of such other Soldier or not, with Intent thereby to render himself or such other Soldier unfit for Service, of tampering with his Eyes with Intent thereby to render himself unfit for Service, such Finding having been confirmed, or of Felony in any Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction in England or Ireland, or of any Crime or Offence in any Court of Criminal Judicature in any Part of the United Kingdom, or in any Dominion, Territory, Colony, Settlement, or Island belonging to or occupied by Her Majesty out of the United Kingdom, which would, if committed therein, amount to Felony, shall thereupon forfeit all Advantage as to additional Pay, Good-conduct Pay, and to Pension on Discharge, which might have otherwise accrued from the Length of his former Service, in addition to any Punishment which such Court may award.

Forfeiture of Pay on Conviction of Desertion or Felony.

XXXIII. In addition to any other Punishment which the Court may award, a Court-martial may further direct that any Offender may be put under Stoppages until he shall have made good—

Stoppages.

Any Loss or Damage occasioned by him in any of the Instances of disgraceful Conduct herein-before specified :

Any Loss or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, any Property whatsoever, occasioned by his wilful or negligent Misconduct :

Any Loss or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, his Horse, Arms, Clothing, Instruments, Equipments, Accoutrements, or Regimental Necessaries, or any extra Article of Clothing or Equipment that he may have been put in possession of and ordered to wear on the Recommendation of the Surgeon for the Benefit of his Health, or making away with or pawning any Medal for Service in the Field or for general good Conduct which may have been granted him by Order of Her Majesty, or by Order of the East India Company, or any Loss or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, the Arms, Horse, Clothing, Instruments, Accoutrements, or Regimental Necessaries of any Officer or Soldier, occasioned by his wilful or negligent Misconduct :

Any

Any Expense necessarily incurred by his Drunkenness or other Misconduct :

Provided always, that, except in the Case of the Loss or Destruction of Accoutrements and Regimental Necessaries, in which Case the Court may by its Sentence direct that the said Stoppages shall continue till the Cost of replacing the same be made good, the Amount of any Loss, Destruction, Damage or Injury, or Expense, shall be ascertained by Evidence, and the Offender shall be placed under Stoppages for such an Amount only as shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Court : Provided also, that after satisfying the Charges for his Messing and Washing, so much only of the Pay of the Soldier may be stopped and applied as shall leave him a Residue at the least of One Penny a Day.

Apprehension of Deserters in the United Kingdom.

XLVI. Upon reasonable Suspicion that a Person is a Deserter it shall be lawful for any Constable, or if no Constable can be immediately met with then it shall be lawful for any Officer or Soldier in Her Majesty's Service, to apprehend or cause such suspected Person to be apprehended, and to bring or cause him to be brought before any Justice living in or near such Place, and acting for the County or Borough wherein such Place is situate, or for the County adjoining such first-mentioned County or such Borough ; and such Justice is hereby authorized and required to inquire whether such suspected Person is a Deserter, and if it shall appear by the Testimony of One or more Witnesses, taken upon Oath, or by the Confession of such suspected Person, confirmed by some corroborative Evidence, or by the Knowledge of such Justice, or by Evidence sufficient to satisfy such Justice that there are reasonable Grounds for believing, that such suspected Person is a Deserter, such Justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed in Civil Custody to the Head Quarters or Depôt of the Regiment to which he belongs, if stationed within Five Miles of the Place of Apprehension, or if such Head Quarters or Depôt shall not be stationed within Five Miles, then to the nearest or most convenient public Prison (other than a Military Prison set apart under the Authority of this Act) or Police Station legally provided as a Lock-up House for temporary Confinement of Persons taken into Custody, whether such Prison or Police Station be in the County or Borough in which such suspected Person was apprehended or in which he was committed or not ; or if the Deserter shall have been apprehended by a Party of Soldiers of his own Regiment in charge of a Commissioned Officer, such Justice may deliver him up to such Party, unless the Officer shall deem it necessary to have the Deserter committed to Prison for safe Custody ; and such Justice shall transmit an Account thereof, in the Form prescribed in the Schedule annexed to this Act, to the Secretary-at-War, specifying therein whether such Deserter was delivered to his Regiment or to the Party of his Regiment in order for his being taken to the Head Quarters or Depôt of his Regiment, or whether such Deserter was committed to Prison, to the end that the Person so committed may be removed by an Order from the Office of the said Secretary-at-War, and proceeded against according to Law ; and such Justice shall also send to the Secretary-at-War a Report, stating the the Names of the Persons by whom the Deserter was apprehended and secured; and the Secretary-at-War shall transmit to such Justice an Order for the Payment to such Persons of such Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings as the Secretary-at-War shall be satisfied they are entitled to, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and for such Information, Commitment, and Report as aforesaid the Clerk of the said Justice shall be entitled to a Fee of Two Shillings and no more; and every Gaoler and other Person into whose Custody any Person charged with Desertion is committed shall immediately upon the Receipt of the Person so charged into his Custody pay such Fee of Two Shillings, and also upon the Production of a Receipt from the Medical Practitioner who, in the Absence of a Military Medical Officer, may have been required to examine such suspected Person, a Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence, and shall notify the Fact to the Secretary-at-War, and transmit also to the Secretary-at-War a Copy of the Commitment, to the end that such Secretary-at-War may order Repayment of the same; and when any Person shall be apprehended and committed as a Deserter in any of Her Majesty's Colonies the Justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed to some public Prison, if the Regiment to which he is suspected to belong shall not be in the Colony, or, if the Regiment be in the Colony, the Justice may, if within reasonable Distance, deliver him into Custody at the nearest Military Post, although the Regiment to which such Person is suspected to belong may not be stationed at such Military Post; and such Justice shall in every Case transmit to the General or other Officer commanding in the Colony a Description Return in the Form prescribed, to the end that such Person may be removed by Order of such Officer, and proceeded against according to Law.

In the Colonies.

XLVIII. Any Recruit who shall desert prior to joining the Regiment for which he has enlisted shall, on being apprehended, and committed for such Desertion by any Justice of the Peace upon the Testimony of One or more Witnesses upon Oath, or upon his own Confession, be liable to be transferred to any Regiment or Depôt nearest to the Place where he shall have been apprehended, or to any other Regiment to which Her Majesty may deem it more desirable that he should be transferred: Provided always, that all Cavalry Recruits so committed for Desertion shall be transferred to Cavalry Regiments, and Infantry Recruits to Infantry Regiments; and that such Deserters thus transferred shall not be liable to other Punishment for the Offence, or to any other Penalty, except the Forfeiture of their personal Bounty, reserving only for them that Part of the Bounty which is applicable to and required for the Provision of Necessaries.

Desertion of Recruits.

LII. Any Person enlisted into Her Majesty's Service as a Soldier, or serving as a Non-commissioned Officer or Drummer on the permanent Staff of the Disembodied Militia, shall be liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service only by Process or Execution on account of any Charge of Felony or of Misdemeanor, other than the Misdemeanor of refusing to comply with an Order of Justices for the Payment of Money or on account of an original Debt proved by Affidavit of the Plaintiff or of some one on his Behalf to amount to the Value of Thirty Pounds at Soldiers liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service only for Felony, Misdemeanor, or for Debts amounting to 30l. and upwards.

Soldiers not liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service for Debts under 30L, or for not maintaining their Families, or for Breach of Contract.

the least, over and above all Costs of Suit in the Action or Actions, such Affidavit to be sworn, without Payment of any Fee, before some Judge of the Court out of which Process or Execution shall issue, or before some Person authorized to take Affidavits in such Court, of which Affidavit, when duly filed in such Court, a Memorandum shall, without Fee, be endorsed upon the Back of such Process, stating the Facts sworn to, and the Day of filing such Affidavit; but no Soldier or other Person as aforesaid shall be liable to be summoned before any Justice of the Peace or other Authority whatever, or to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service, by any Capias, Writ, Summons, Order, Judgment, Process, or Execution issued by or by the Authority of any Court or Inferior Court for any original Debt not amounting to Thirty Pounds, or for not supporting or maintaining, or for not having supported or maintained, or for deserting or having deserted, or for leaving or having left chargeable to any Parish, Township, or Union, any Wife, or any Child or Children, legitimate or illegitimate, or other Relation, which such Soldier or Person would, if not in Her Majesty's Service, be liable by Law to support or maintain, or for the Breach of any Contract, Covenant, Agreement, or other Engagement whatever, by Parol or in Writing, or for having left or deserted his Employer or Master, or his Contract, Work, or Labour; and all Summonses, Warrants, Commitments, Indictments, Convictions, Judgments, and Sentences, on account of any of the Matters for which it is herein declared that a Soldier or other Person as aforesaid is not liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service, shall be utterly illegal, and null and void to all Intents and Purposes; and any Judge of any such Court may examine into any Complaints made by a Soldier or by his Superior Officer, and by Warrant under his Hand discharge such Soldier, without Fee, he being shown to have been arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, and shall award reasonable Costs to such Complainant, who shall have for the Recovery thereof the like Remedy as would have been applicable to the Recovery of any Costs which might have been awarded against the Complainant in any Judgment or Execution as aforesaid, or a Writ of Habeas corpus ad subjiciendum shall be awarded or issued, and the Discharge of any such Soldier out of Custody shall be ordered thereupon; provided that any Plaintiff, upon Notice of the Cause of Action first given in Writing to any Soldier, or left at his last Quarters, may proceed in any Action or Suit to Judgment, and have Execution other than against the Body; provided also, that nothing herein contained, relating to the leaving or deserting a Master or Employer, or to the Breach of any Contract, Agreement, or Engagement, shall apply to Persons who shall be really and bonâ fide Apprentices, duly bound, under the Age of Twenty-one Years, as herein-after prescribed.

Enlisting and swearing of Recruits.

LV. Every Person who shall receive Enlisting Money, knowing it to be such, from any Person employed in the Recruiting Service, and being an Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, an attested Soldier, or an Out-Pensioner of Chelsea Hospital authorized to enlist Recruits, shall be deemed to be enlisted as a Soldier in Her Majesty's Service, and while he shall remain with the Recruiting Recruiting Party shall be entitled to be billeted ; and every Person who shall enlist any Recruit shall first ask the Person offering to enlist whether he does or does not belong to the Militia, and shall within Twelve Hours after the Receipt of the Enlisting Money cause to be taken down in Writing the Name and Place of Abode of such Recruit, and (if such Recruit shall not reside in or in the Vicinity of the Town or Place where he offered to enlist) the Place also at which he shall declare that he intends to sleep, in order that within Forty-eight but not sooner than Twenty-four Hours (any intervening Sunday not included) after his having received the Enlisting Money Notice of his having so enlisted be given to the Recruit in the Form prescribed in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or left at his usual Place of Abode, or at the Place where he stated that it was his Intention to sleep ; and when any Person shall be enlisted as a Soldier in Her Majesty's Land Service he shall, within Ninety-six Hours (any intervening Sunday not included), but not sooner than Twenty-four Hours after such enlisting, appear, together with some Person employed in the Recruiting Service of the Party with which he shall have enlisted, before any Justice or other Magistrate residing in the Vicinity of the Place where such Person shall have enlisted, or before any Justice or other Magistrate acting for the Division, District, or Place where such Recruit shall have been enlisted, and not being an Officer in the Army ; and if such Recruit shall declare his having voluntarily enlisted, the said Justice shall put to him the several Questions contained in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and shall then and there, and in the Presence of the said Recruit, record or cause to be recorded in Writing his Answers thereunto ; and the said Justice is hereby required forthwith to read over, or cause his Clerk in his Presence to read over, to such Recruit, the Fortieth and Forty-sixth Articles of the Articles of War against Mutiny and Desertion, and to administer to such Recruit the Oath in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or for Service in the Forces of the East India Company, as may be applicable to the Case of the Recruit, and no other Oaths ; and the Fee for administering each Oath shall be One Shilling and no more ; and the said Justice is hereby required to give under his Hand the Certificate in the Schedule to this Act annexed ; and if any such Recruit so to be certified shall refuse to take the Oath in the Schedule to this Act annexed before the said Justice, it shall be lawful for the Justice, at the Request of the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer with whom he enlisted, to detain and confine such Person until he shall take the said Oath of Fidelity.

LVI. Any Recruit appearing as aforesaid before such Justice shall be at liberty to declare his Dissent to such enlisting, and upon such Declaration, and returning the Enlisting Money, and also paying the Sum of Twenty Shillings as Smart Money, together with the full Amount of any Pay which shall have been paid to such Recruit subsequent to the Period of his having been enlisted, shall be forthwith discharged and set at liberty in the Presence of such Justice ; but if such Person shall refuse or neglect, within the Space of Twenty-four Hours after so declaring his Dissent, to return and pay such Money as aforesaid, he shall be deemed and taken to be enlisted, as if he had given his Assent thereto before the said Justice : Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any Justice to discharge any Person who shall have hastily enlisted, and who shall apply to him to declare his Dissent within such Ninety-six Hours as aforesaid, upon Payment of the Sum of Money required to be paid by any Recruit declaring his Dissent under this Act, notwithstanding no Person belonging to the Recruiting Party shall be with the Recruit, if it shall appear to such Justice, upon Proof to his Satisfaction, that the Recruiting Party has left the Place where such Recruit was enlisted, or that the Recruit could not procure any Person belonging to such Party to go with him before the Justice; and the Sum paid by such Recruit upon his Discharge shall be kept by the Justice, and after deducting One Shilling as the Fee to his Clerk for reporting the Payment to the Secretary-at-War, shall be paid to any Person belonging to the Recruiting Party entitled thereto demanding the same; and no Recruit who has been actually, though erroneously, discharged by the Justice before the Expiration of Twenty-four Hours after the Time of his Enlistment, shall be liable on that account to be proceeded against as having deserted from Her Majesty's Service; and the Justice who shall discharge any Recruit shall in every Case give a Certificate thereof, signed with his Hand, to the Recruit, specifying the Cause thereof.

Offences
connected with Enlistment.

LVII. If any Recruit shall receive the Enlisting Money from any Person employed in the Recruiting Service (knowing it to be such), and shall abscond or refuse to go before such Justice, or shall thereafter absent himself from the Recruiting Party or Person with whom he enlisted, and shall not voluntarily return to go before some Justice within such Period of Ninety-six Hours as aforesaid, such Recruit shall be deemed to be enlisted and a Soldier in Her Majesty's Service, or in the Service of the East India Company, as fully to all Intents and Purposes as if he had been duly attested, and may be apprehended and punished as a Deserter, or for being absent without Leave, under any Articles of War made for Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion; and such Recruit shall not be discharged by any Justice of the Peace after the Expiration of such Ninety-six Hours as aforesaid, unless it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of such Justice that the true Name and Residence of the Recruit were disclosed and known to the Recruiting Party, and that no Notice was given to the Recruit, or left at his usual Place of Abode, of his having so enlisted: Provided always, that in every Case wherein any Recruit shall have received Enlisting Money, and shall have absconded from the Party, so that it shall not be possible immediately to apprehend and bring him before a Justice, the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer commanding the Party shall produce to the Justice before whom the Recruit ought regularly to have been brought for Attestation a Certificate of the Name and Place of Residence of such Recruit; and the Justice to whom such Certificate shall be produced shall, after satisfying himself that the Recruit who had absconded cannot be found and apprehended, transmit a Duplicate thereof to Her Majesty's Secretary-at-War, in order that, in the event of such Recruit being afterwards apprehended and reported as a Deserter, the Facts of his having received Enlisting Money, and

and having absconded after having been enlisted, may be ascertained before he be finally adjudged to be a Deserter; and any Recruit who shall have enlisted into and been attested for Her Majesty's Forces, and who shall be discovered to be incapable of active Service by reason of any Infirmity concealed or not declared by such Recruit before the Justice at the Time of his Attestation, may be transferred to any Garrison or Veteran or Invalid Battalion or Company, notwithstanding he shall have enlisted for any particular Regiment, and shall be entitled to receive such Proportion or Residue of Bounty only as Her Majesty may allow in that Behalf, instead of the Bounty upon which such Man shall have been enlisted, anything in any Act or Acts, or any Rules and Regulations relating to Soldiers, to the contrary notwithstanding; and it shall be lawful for any Two Justices acting for the County, District, City, Burgh, or Place where any such Recruit shall at any Time happen to be when any such Recruit shall be brought, and shall be proved upon Oath before them upon being attested to have concealed his having been a Soldier and discharged, or to have concealed his having been discharged upon any prior Enlistment, or to have wilfully concealed any such Infirmity, or to have designedly made any false Representation, to adjudge such Recruit, if in England, to be a Rogue and Vagabond, and to sentence him to such Punishment as by any Law in force may be inflicted upon Rogues and Vagabonds, and to adjudge such Person, if in Scotland or Ireland, to be imprisoned, with Hard Labour, in any Prison or House of Correction for any Period not exceeding Three Months; and any Recruit who shall designedly make any false Representation of any Particular contained in the Oaths and Certificates in the Schedule to this Act annexed, before the Justice, at the Time of his Attestation, and shall obtain any Enlisting Money or Bounty for entering into Her Majesty's Service, or into the Service of the East India Company, or any other Money, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretences, within the true Intent and Meaning, if in England, of an Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in England relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith, and if in Ireland, of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in Ireland relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith, and such Recruit, if in Scotland, shall be deemed guilty of Falsehood, Fraud, and wilful Imposition; and any attested Recruit who shall in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions or elsewhere have committed any of the before-mentioned Offences regarding Enlistment may be summarily punished, or prosecuted, tried and convicted, for any such Offence, at any Time during the Continuance of the Service for which he shall have enlisted, and in any County or Place where he may happen to be when such summary Proceeding or Prosecution shall be instituted; and the Production of the Oath in the Schedule to this Act annexed, taken by the Recruit on his Attestation, and the Certificate then signed by the Justice before whom the Recruit was attested, certifying that the Questions and Answers contained in the At-testation were in his Presence put to and given by such Recruit, shall, in the Absence of Proof to the contrary, be deemed and taken to be sufficient Evidence of such Recruit having represented the several Particulars as in the Oath sworn by him; and Proof by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses that the Person so prosecuted hath voluntarily acknowledged that at the Time of his Enlistment he belonged to the Militia, or to any Regiment in Her Majesty's Service, or to Her Majesty's Ordnance, Navy, or Marines, or to the Forces of the East India Company, shall be deemed and taken as Evidence of the Fact so by him acknowledged, without Production of any Roll or other Document to prove the same; and such Proof of such Acknowledgment shall be certified to the Secretary-at-War by the Justice before whom such Proof shall have been given; and any Man having been enrolled as a Volunteer under the Act Fifteenth and Sixteenth Victoria, Chapter Fifty, to serve in the Militia at the Time of offering to enlist who shall deny that he is a Militia Man then actually enrolled and engaged to serve, or shall deny to the Justice before whom he shall be attested that he belongs to the Militia, shall, in lieu of and instead of the Penalties now imposed by Law for such Offence, on Conviction thereof before any One Justice in the United Kingdom, either upon Oath of One Witness or upon his own Confession, or upon the Production of the Attestation, and the before-mentioned Acknowledgment of such Person, certified by the Secretary-at-War or Deputy Secretary-at-War, or upon the Offence being proved before a Regimental Court of Inquiry, forfeit all Militia Bounty which would have become payable to him during the Period of his belonging to Her Majesty's Regular Forces if he had not therein enlisted, and be subjected to a Stoppage of One Penny a Day from his Pay for Eighteen Calendar Months, to be applied as the Secretary-at-War shall direct; or if enrolled in the Militia as a balloted Man or Substitute shall, if convicted before any One Justice as aforesaid, be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to remain without Bail or Mainprise for and during any Time not exceeding Six Calendar Months, over and above any Penalty or Punishment to which such Person so offending may be otherwise liable; and such Person, whether he shall have been enrolled as a Volunteer or as a balloted Man or Substitute, shall from the Day on which his Engagement to serve in the Militia shall end, and not sooner, belong as a Soldier to the Corps of Her Majesty's Regular Forces, or of the East India Company's Forces into which he shall have so enlisted: Provided always, that every such Person shall be liable to serve within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Her Majesty's Regular Forces, or of the East India Company's Forces, in which he has so enlisted, during all the Time the Militia to which he shall belong shall remain disembodied, or shall not be called out for Training or Exercise, and shall during all such Time be subject to all the Provisions of this Act, and liable to be apprehended and dealt with and punished as a Deserter from the Corps in which he shall have so enlisted if he shall neglect or refuse to join and serve in such Corps as aforesaid.

LIX. 'And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for enlisting and attesting of Soldiers desirous of re-enlisting and others desirous of enlisting abroad: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Warrant signed by the Secretary-at-War in that Behalf, to authorize the Governors of Colonies, and of the several Presidencies in India, to appoint any Person, not being a General Officer nor holding any Regimental Commission, to enlist and attest, out of Great Britain or Ireland, any Soldiers or Persons desirous of enlisting or re-enlisting into Her Majesty's Service; and any Person so appointed shall have the same Powers in that Behalf as are given to Justices in the United Kingdom for all such Purposes of Enlistment and Attestation: and all such Appointments, past and future, and everything done or to be done under them, shall be valid and of full Effect notwithstanding the Expiration of this Act or of any other Act of Parliament; and any Person so enlisted or re-enlisted shall be deemed to be an attested Soldier; and as often as any Corps shall be relieved or disbanded at any Station beyond the Seas it shall be lawful for any Officers thereunto authorized by the Officer commanding in chief at such Station to receive as Transfers as many of the Soldiers belonging to the Corps leaving the Station as shall be willing and fit for Service for any Corps appointed to remain; and every Soldier so transferred is hereby deemed to be discharged from his former Corps, and an attested Certificate of Transfer shall be delivered to the Soldier; and every Infantry Soldier consenting to be transferred to the Cavalry or Artillery shall upon such Transfer become liable to serve the limited Period prescribed for the Cavalry or Artillery, as the Case may be, notwithstanding his original Engagement to serve in the Infantry for a shorter Period.

LXVI. No Secretary-at-War, Paymaster General of the Army, Paymaster, or any other Officer whatsoever, or their under Officers, shall receive any Fees or make any Deductions whatsoever, out of the Pay of any Officer or Soldier in Her Majesty's Army, or from their Agents, which shall grow due from and after the Twenty-fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three other than the usual Deductions, or such other necessary Deductions as shall from Time to Time be required by Her Majesty's Regulations, or by Her Majesty's Order signified by the Secretary-at-War; and every Paymaster or other Officer having received any Officer's or Soldier's Pay who shall unlawfully detain the same for the Space of One Month, or refuse to pay the same when it shall become due, according to the several Rates and agreeably to the several Regulations established by Her Majesty's Orders, shall, upon Proof thereof before a Court-martial, be discharged from his Employment, and shall forfeit One hundred Pounds, and the Informer, if a Soldier, if he demand it, shall be discharged from any further Service; provided, as aforesaid, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Secretary-at-War to give Orders for withholding the Pay of any Officer or Soldier for any Period during which such Officer or Soldier shall be absent without Leave, or improperly absent from his Corps and from his Duty, or, in case of any Doubt as to the proper Issue of Pay, to withhold it from the Parties aforesaid

LXVII. ' And whereas by Petition of Right in the Third Year
' of King Charles the First it is enacted and declared, that the ' People of the Land are not by the Laws to be burdened with ' the sojourning of Soldiers against their Wills; and by a Clause
' in an Act of the Parliament of England, made in the Thirty-
' first Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, for granting ' a Supply to His Majesty of Two hundred and six thousand four ' hundred and sixty-two Pounds Seventeen Shillings and Three' pence, for paying and disbanding the Forces, it is declared and ' enacted, that no Officer, Civil or Military, nor other Person who' soever, should thenceforth presume to place, quarter, or billet
' any Soldier upon any Subject or Inhabitant of this Realm, of ' any Degree, Quality, or Profession whatsoever, without his ' Consent, and that it shall be lawful for any Subject or Inha' bitant to refuse to quarter any Soldier, notwithstanding any ' Warrant or Billeting whatsoever: And whereas by an Act ' passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Sixth Year of the ' Reign of Queen Anne, Chapter Fourteen, Section Eight, intituled
' An Act to prevent the Disorders that may happen by the marching
' of Soldiers, and providing Carriages for the Baggage of Soldiers
' on their March, it was enacted, that no Officer, Soldier, or ' Trooper in the Army, nor the Servant of any Officer, nor any ' Attendant on the Train of Artillery, nor any Yeoman of the ' Guard or Battle-axes, nor any Officer commanding the said
' Yeomen, nor any Servant of any such Officer, should at any ' Time thereafter have received or be allowed any Quarters in ' any Part of Ireland, save only during such Time or Times as ' he or they should be on their March as in the same Act is ' before mentioned, or during such Time as he or they should ' be and remain in some Seaport Town or other Place in the ' Neighbourhood of a Seaport Town in order to be transported,
' or during such Time as there should be any Commotion in any ' Part of Ireland, by reason of which Emergency the Army, or ' any considerable Part thereof, should be commanded to march
' from One Part of Ireland to another: But forasmuch as there ' is and may be Occasion for the marching and quartering of ' Regiments, Troops, and Companies in several Parts of the United ' Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the said several Pro' visions of the said recited Acts shall be suspended and cease to ' be of any Force or Effect during the Continuance of this Act:
' And whereas by the Eleventh Section of the said Act of the ' Sixth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, Chapter Fourteen, it
' is provided and enacted, that no Civil Magistrate or Constable
' should be obliged to find Quarters for or give Billets to more or ' other Soldiers than those only whose true Christian and Sur-
' names should be delivered to him in Writing under the Hand ' of the Officer desiring Quarters or Billets for such Soldiers at ' the Time such Quarters or Billets should be desired, and that ' all such Names should be written together and delivered in One ' Piece of Paper, signed as aforesaid, and that the Christian and ' Surnames of every Soldier to be quartered or billeted, together with the Name of the Person on whom he or they should be billeted or quartered, should be given in Writing by the Constable or Civil Officer billeting or quartering such Soldier, and be contained in the Billet given by such Civil Officer: And whereas it has been found inconvenient and difficult to comply with all the Requirements of the said Enactment: It shall not be necessary, so long as this Act shall continue in force, for any Officer, upon the Occasion of his requiring Quarters or Billets for any Soldiers in Ireland, to deliver to the Constable or other Person whose Duty it shall be to find or give the same any List of the Names of the Soldiers to be so quartered or billeted; and that it shall not be necessary for the Constable or other such Person as aforesaid to set forth in any Billet the Name of any Soldier to be billeted or quartered, but only to the Number of the Soldiers, or the Number of the Soldiers and Horses respectively, as the Case may require, to be billeted or quartered on the Person named in the Billet, and to whom the same shall be addressed.
' with

LXXI. The Innholder or other Person on whom any Soldier is billeted in England shall, if required by such Soldier, furnish him for every Day of the March, and for a Period not exceeding Two Days when halted at the intermediate Place upon the March, and for the Day of the Arrival at the Place of final Destination, with One hot Meal in each Day, the Meal to consist of such Quantities of Diet and Small Beer as may be fixed by Her Majesty's Regulations, not exceeding One Pound and a Quarter of Meat previous to being dressed, One Pound of Bread, One Pound of Potatoes or other Vegetables, and Two Pints of Small Beer, and Vinegar, Salt, and Pepper, and for such Meal the Innholder or other Person furnishing the same shall be paid the Sum of Tenpence; and all Innholders and other Persons on whom Soldiers may be billeted in England, except when on the March and entitled to be furnished with the hot Meal as aforesaid, shall furnish such Soldiers with Candles, Vinegar, and Salt, and shall allow them the Use of Fire, and the necessary Utensils for dressing and eating their Meat, and shall be paid in consideration thereof the Sum of One Halfpenny per Diem for each Soldier; and the Sum to be paid to the Innholder or other Person on whom any of the Horses belonging to Her Majesty's Forces shall be billeted in England, for Hay and Straw, shall be Ninepence per Diem for each Horse; and in Ireland the Sum to be paid for Forage to the Innholder or other Person, for Horses billeted by virtue of this Act, shall be the Rate established by the Lord Lieutenant or other sufficient Authority from Time to Time, the same to be regulated by the average Rate of Contracts for Forage in Ireland; and for the Use of Stables in Ireland, when such Horses are provided with Hay and Straw by Contract, and not by the Occupiers of the Houses on which they are billeted, the Sum of Fourpence per Week for each Horse shall be paid; and every Officer to whom it belongs to receive or who does actually receive the Pay for any Officers or Soldiers shall every Four Days, or before they shall quit their Quarters if they shall not remain so long as Four Days, settle the just Demands of all Victuallers or other Persons upon whom such Officers and Soldiers are billeted, out of their Pay and Subsistence, before any Part of the said Pay or Subsistence

Officers obstructing Civil Justice.

LXXXII. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to extend to exempt any Officer or Soldier from being proceeded against by the ordinary Course of Law, when accused of Felony or of Misdemeanor other than the Misdemeanor of refusing to comply with an Order of Justices for the Payment of Money; and if any Commanding Officer shall neglect or refuse, on Application being made to him for that Purpose, to deliver over to the Civil Magistrate any Officer or Soldier under his Command, or shall wilfully obstruct, neglect, or refuse to assist the Officers of Justice in apprehending any Officer or Soldier under his Command, so accused as aforesaid, such Officer shall, upon Conviction thereof in any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts at Westminster, Dublin, or Edinburgh, be deemed to be thereupon cashiered, and shall be thenceforth utterly disabled to to have or hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in Her Majesty's Service; and a Certificate thereof containing the Substance and Effect of the Indictment only, omitting the formal Part, with the Copy of the Entry of the Judgment of the Court thereon, shall be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General in London.

An Act for the Regulation of Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces while on shore. [18th March 1853.]

[This Act is the same, except as to Dates and the Sections here inserted, as 15 & 16 Vict. c. 7.]

I. That it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid, to make, ordain, and establish Rules and Articles of War, under the Hand of the said Lord High Admiral, or under the Hands of any Two or more of the said Commissioners, for the better Government of Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, and for the Punishment of Mutiny, Desertion, Immorality, Breach of Discipline, Misbehaviour, Neglect of Duty, and any other Offence or Misconduct of which they shall be guilty, in any Place on shore or afloat in or out of Her Majesty's Dominions, or at any Time when or under any Circumstances in which they shall not be amenable to the Laws for the Government of Her Majesty's Ships, Vessels, and Forces by Sea, which Rules and Articles shall be judicially taken notice of by all Judges and in all Courts whatsoever; and Copies of the same shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the same shall have been made, be transmitted by the Secretary of the Admiralty for the Time being (certified under his Hand) to the Judges of Her Majesty's Superior Courts at Westminster, Dublin, and Edinburgh respectively, and also to the Governors of Her Majesty's Dominions abroad; provided that no Person within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland or the British Isles shall by such Articles be subject to be transported as a Felon or to suffer any Punishment extending to Life or Limb, except for Crimes which are by this Act expressly made liable to such Transportation or to such Punishment as aforesaid, or shall be subject, with reference to any Crimes made punishable by this Act, to be punished in any Manner which shall not accord with the Provisions of this Act.

Lord High Admiral, &c. may make Articles for the Punishment of Mutiny, Desertion, &c.

IV. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to extend to exempt any Officer or Marine from being proceeded against by the ordinary Course of Law when accused of Felony, or when accused of any Misdemeanor other than the Misdemeanor of refusing to comply with an Order of Justices for the Payment of Money; and any Commanding Officer who shall neglect or refuse, when due Application shall be made to him for that Purpose, to deliver over to the Civil Magistrate any Officer or Marine, or who shall wilfully obstruct, neglect, or refuse to assist any Peace Officer in apprehending any such Offender, shall, upon Conviction thereof in any of Her Majesty's Courts at Westminster, Dublin, or Edinburgh, be deemed to be thereupon cashiered, and shall be utterly disabled disabled to hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment in Her Majesty's Service; and a Certificate of such Conviction shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Admiralty.

The ordinary Course of Law not to be interfered with.

General
Courts-martial.

VIII. A General Court-martial convened in Saint Helena, the Settlements on the Western Coast of Africa, Honduras, New Zealand, the Australian Colonies, Hong Kong, Prince of Wales Island, Singapore, and Malacca, and the Settlements on the Coast of China, shall consist of not less than Five Commissioned Officers; if convened in Jamaica, the Windward and Leeward Islands, British Guiana, Newfoundland, Bermuda, the Bahamas, the Cape of Good Hope or other Settlements in Southern Africa, or in any Part out of the Queen's Dominions, excepting the Ionian Islands and the Parts before mentioned, it shall consist of not less than Seven, and if convened in any other Part of the Queen's Dominions, or in the Ionian Islands, or in the Settlements of the East India Company, it shall consist of not less than Thirteen Commissioned Officers; and shall have Power to sentence any Officer or Soldier to suffer Death, Transportation, or any other Punishment which shall accord with the Provisions of this Act.

Commutation
of Death for Transportation.

XXIII. Whensoever any General Court-martial by which any Marine shall have been tried and convicted of any Offence punishable with Death shall not think the Offence deserving of Capital Punishment, such Court-martial may adjudge the Offender, according to the Degree of the Offence, to be transported as a Felon for Life or for a certain Term of Years, or may sentence him to general Service as a Marine or as a Soldier in any Corps and in any Country or Place which Her Majesty shall thereupon direct, or may, if such Offender shall have enlisted for a limited Term of Years, sentence him to serve for Life as a Marine or as a Soldier in any Corps which Her Majesty shall please to direct: Provided always, that in all Cases where a Capital Punishment shall have been awarded by a General Court-martial or by a Detachment General Court-martial it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, for the Officer commanding in chief the Forces in India, instead of causing such Sentence to be carried into execution, to order the Offender to be transported as a Felon, either for Life or for a certain Term of Years, or to suffer such Term of Imprisonment, either with or without Hard Labour, as shall seem meet to Her Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, to the Officer commanding as aforesaid.

Transportation
of Offenders in the Colonies.

XXVI. Whenever any Sentence of Transportation heretofore or hereafter passed upon any Offender by any Court-martial holden in the East Indies, or in any Part of Her Majesty's Foreign Dominions, is to be carried into execution for the Term specified in such Sentence, or for any shorter Term, or when Sentence of Death has been or shall as aforesaid be commuted to Transportation, the same shall be notified by the Officer commanding Her Majesty's Forces at the Presidency or Station to some Judge of One of the Supreme Courts of Judicature in the East Indies, or Chief Justice or some other Judge, as the Case may be, in any Part of Her Majesty's Foreign Dominions, who shall make Order for the Transportation or intermediate Custody of such Offender in like Manner as for the Transportation or intermediate Custody of any other Convict; and upon any such Order being made it shall shall be duly notified to the Governor of the Presidency if in the East Indies, or to the Governor of the Colony if in any of Her Majesty's Colonies, or to the Person who shall for the Time being be exercising the Office of Governor of such Presidency or Colony, who on Receipt of such Notification shall cause such Offender to be removed to some Colony or Place in obedience to the Directions for the Removal of Convicts which shall from Time to Time be transmitted from Her Majesty through One of Her Principal Secretaries of State to such Presidency or Colony; and such Offender on being so removed shall undergo the Sentence of Transportation which has been passed upon him in the Colony or Place to which he has been so removed or sent, and whilst such Sentence shall remain in force shall be liable to be there imprisoned and kept to Hard Labour, and otherwise dealt with under such Sentence, in the same Manner as if he had been sentenced to be imprisoned with Hard Labour during the Term of his Transportation by the Judgment of a Court of competent Jurisdiction in the Colony or Place to which he has been so removed or sent: Provided always, that in any Case where a Sentence of Transportation shall have been awarded by a General Court-martial or Detachment General Court-martial, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, for the Officer commanding in chief the Forces in India, instead of causing such Sentence to be carried into execution, to order that the Offender be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Two Years, either with or without Hard Labour and Solitary Confinement not exceeding the Period herein-after prescribed.

XXIX. It shall be lawful for any General, District, or Garrison Court-martial to award Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour, and with or without Solitary Confinement; and in case of a Marine in addition to Corporal Punishment.

Power to inflict Corporal Punishment and Imprisonment.

XXXI. Any General Court-martial may, in addition to any other Punishment which it may be competent to award, sentence any Offender to Forfeiture of all Advantage as to additional Pay, Good-conduct Pay, and to Pension on Discharge, which might have otherwise accrued from the Length of his former Service, or to Forfeiture of such Advantage absolutely, whether it might have accrued from past Service, or might accrue from future Service, according to the Nature of the Case; and any District or Garrison Court-martial may also, in addition to any Sentence which such Court may award, sentence any Offender to such Forfeiture for Desertion, or for disgraceful Conduct.

Forfeiture of Pay and Pension by Sentence of Court-martial.

In wilfully doing any Act, or wilfully disobeying any Orders, whether in Hospital or otherwise, thereby producing or aggravating Disease or Infirmity, or delaying his Cure:

In malingering or feigning Disease:

In stealing or embezzling Government Property or Stores, or in receiving the same knowing the same to have been stolen:

In stealing any Money or Goods the Property of a Comrade, of a Marine Officer, or of any Marine Mess or Band, or in receiving any such Money or Goods knowing the same to have been stolen:

In making any false or fraudulent Accounts, Returns, Matters, or Entries, or assisting or conniving at the same being made,
or

or producing the same as true, knowing the same to be false or fraudulent :

In stealing or embezzling or fraudulently misapplying Public Money intrusted to him :

Or in committing any other Offence of a felonious or fraudulent Nature, to the Injury of, or with Intent to injure, any Person, Civil, Marine, or Military :

Or for any other disgraceful Conduct, being of a cruel, indecent, or unnatural Kind.

Forfeiture of Pay on Conviction of Desertion or Felony.

XXXII. Every Marine who shall be found guilty by a Court-martial of Desertion, of wilfully maiming or injuring himself or any other Marine, whether at the Instance of such other Marine or not, with Intent thereby to render himself or such other Marine unfit for Service, of tampering with his Eyes with Intent thereby to render himself unfit for Service, such Finding having been confirmed, or of Felony in any Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction in England or Ireland, or of any Crime or Offence in any Court of Criminal Judicature in any Part of the United Kingdom, or in any Dominion, Territory, Colony, Settlement, or Island belonging to or occupied by Her Majesty out of the United Kingdom, which would, if committed therein, amount to Felony, shall thereupon forfeit all Advantage as to additional Pay, Good-conduct Pay, and to Pension on Discharge, which might have otherwise accrued from the Length of his former Service, in addition to any Punishment which such Court may award.

Stoppages.

XXXVI. In addition to any other Punishment which the Court may award, a Court-martial may further direct that any Offender may be put under Stoppages until he shall have made good—

Any Loss, Disposal of, or Damage occasioned by him in any of the Instances of disgraceful Conduct herein specified :

Any Loss, Disposal of, or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, any Property whatsoever, occasioned by his wilful or negligent Misconduct :

Any Loss, Disposal of, or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, his Arms, Clothing, Instruments, Equipments, Accoutrements, or Necessaries, or any extra Article of Clothing or Equipment that he may have been put in possession of and ordered to wear on the Recommendation of the Surgeon for the Benefit of his Health, or making away with or pawning any Medal for Service or for general good Conduct which may have been granted to him by Order of Her Majesty or by Order of the East India Company, or any Loss, Disposal of, or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, the Arms, Clothing, Instruments, Equipments, Accoutrements, or Necessaries of any Officer or Marine, occasioned by his wilful or negligent Misconduct :

Any Expense necessarily incurred by his Drunkenness or other Misconduct :

Provided always, that, except in the Case of the Loss, Disposal of, or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, Accoutrements and Necessaries, in which Case the Court may by its Sentence direct that the said Stoppages shall continue till the Cost of replacing or repairing the same be made good, the Amount of any Loss, Disposal, Destruction, Damage or Injury, or Expense, shall be ascertained by Evidence, and the Offender shall be placed under Stoppages for such an Amount only as shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Court: Provided also, that after satisfying the Charges for his Messing and Washing, so much only of the Pay of the Marine may be stopped and applied as shall leave him a Residue at the least of One Penny a Day.

LVI. Any Person enlisted into Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces as a Marine shall be liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service only by Process or Execution on account of any Charge of Felony, or on account of Misdemeanor other than the Misdemeanor of refusing to comply with an Order of Justices for the Payment of Money, or on account of an original Debt proved by Affidavit of the Plaintiff or of some one on his Behalf to amount to the Value of Thirty Pounds at the least over and above all Costs of Suit in the Action or Actions, such Affidavit to be sworn, without Payment of any Fee, before some Judge of the Court out of which Process or Execution shall issue, or before some Person authorized to take Affidavits in such Court, of which Affidavit, when duly filed in such Court, a Memorandum shall, without Fee, be endorsed upon the Back of such Process, stating the Facts sworn to, and the Day of filing such Affidavit; but no Marine or other Person as aforesaid shall be liable to be summoned before any Justice of the Peace or other Authority whatsoever, or to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service by any Capias, Writ, Summons, Order, Judgment, Process, or Execution issued by or by the Authority of any Court or Inferior Court for any original Debt not amounting to Thirty Pounds, or for not supporting or maintaining, or for not having supported or maintained, or for deserting or having deserted, or for leaving or having left chargeable to any Parish, Township, or Union, any Wife, or any Child or Children, legitimate or illegitimate, or other Relation which such Marine would, if not in Her Majesty's Service, be liable by Law to support or maintain, or for the Breach of any Contract, Covenant, Agreement, or other Engagement whatever, by Parol or in Writing, or for having left or deserted his Employer or Master, or his Contract, Work, or Labour; and all Summonses, Warrants, Commitments, Indictments, Convictions, Judgments, and Sentences, on account of any of the Matters for which it is herein declared that a Marine is not liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service, shall be utterly illegal, and null and void to all Intents and Purposes; and any Judge of any such Court may examine into any Complaints made by a Marine or by his Superior Officer, and by Warrant under his Hand discharge such Marine, without Fee, he being shown to have been arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, and shall award reasonable Costs to such Complainant, who shall have for the Recovery thereof the like Remedy as would have been applicable to the Recovery of any Costs which might have been awarded against the Complainant in any Judgment or Execution as aforesaid, or a Writ of Habeas corpus ad subjiciendum shall be awarded or issued, and the Discharge of any such Marine out of Custody shall be ordered thereupon; provided that any Plaintiff, upon Notice of the Cause of Action first given in Writing to any Marine or left at his last but not liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service for not maintaining their Families or for Breach of Contract.

Quarters, may proceed in any Action or Suit to Judgment, and have Execution other than against the Body: Provided also, that nothing herein contained relating to the leaving or deserting a Master or Employer, or to the Breach of any Contract, Agreement, or Engagement, shall apply to Persons who shall be really and bonâ fide Apprentices, duly bound, under the Age of Twenty-one Years, as herein prescribed.

Offences
connected with Enlistment.

LXI. If any Recruit shall receive the Enlisting Money from any Person employed in the Recruiting Service (knowing it to be such), and shall abscond or refuse to go before a Justice, or shall absent himself from the Recruiting Party or Person with whom he enlisted, and shall not voluntarily return to go before some Justice within such Period of Ninety-six Hours as aforesaid, such Recruit shall be deemed to be enlisted and a Private in Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces as fully to all Intents and Purposes as if he had been duly attested, and may be apprehended and punished as a Deserter, or for being absent without Leave, under any Articles of War made for the Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion; and such Recruit shall not be discharged by any Justice of the Peace after the Expiration of such Ninety-six Hours as aforesaid, unless it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of such Justice that the true Name and Residence of the Recruit were disclosed and known to the Recruiting Party, and that no Notice was given to the Recruit, or left at his usual Place of Abode, of his having so enlisted: Provided always, that in every Case wherein any Recruit shall have received Enlisting Money, and shall have absconded from the Party, so that it shall not be possible immediately to apprehend and bring him before a Justice, the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer commanding the Party shall produce to the Justice before whom the Recruit ought regularly to have been brought for Attestation a Certificate of the Name and Place of Residence of such Recruit; and the Justice to whom such Certificate shall be produced shall, after satisfying himself that the Recruit who had absconded cannot be found and apprehended, transmit a Duplicate thereof to the Secretary of the Admiralty, in order that, in the event of such Recruit being afterwards apprehended and reported as a Deserter, the Facts of his having received Enlisting Money, and having absconded after having been enlisted, may be ascertained before he shall be finally adjudged to be a Deserter; and it shall be lawful for any Two Justices acting for the County, Division, District, or Place where any such Recruit shall at any Time happen to be when any such Recruit shall be brought, and shall be proved upon Oath before them to have concealed his belonging or having belonged to the Militia, or any Regiment, or to the Marines, Ordnance, or Navy, or the Forces of the East India Company, and discharged, or to have deserted therefrom, or to have concealed his having been discharged on any prior Enlistment, or to have wilfully concealed any Infirmary, or designedly made any false Representation at or previously to the Time of receiving Enlisting Money or upon being attested, to adjudge such Recruit, if in England, to be a Rogue and Vagabond, and to sentence him to such Punishment as by any Law may be inflicted on Rogues and Vagabonds, and to adjudge such Person,

if in Scotland or Ireland, to be imprisoned with Hard Labour in any Prison or House of Correction for any Period not exceeding Three Months; and any Recruit who shall designedly make any false Representation of any Particular contained in the Oaths and Certificates in the Schedule to this Act annexed before the Justice at the Time of his Attestation, and shall obtain any Enlisting Money, or any Bounty for entering into Her Majesty's Service, or any other Money, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretences, within the true Intent and Meaning, if in England, of an Act passed in the Session holden in the Seventh and Eighth Years of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in England relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith, and if in Ireland, of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in Ireland relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith, and such Recruit, if in Scotland, shall be deemed guilty of Falsehood, Fraud, and wilful Imposition; and any attested Recruit who shall in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions or elsewhere have committed any of the before-mentioned Offences regarding Enlistment may be summarily punished, or prosecuted, tried, and convicted, for any such Offence, at any Time during the Continuance of the Service for which he shall have enlisted, and in any County or Place where he may happen to be when such summary Proceeding or Prosecution shall be instituted; and the Production of the Oath in the Schedule to this Act annexed taken by the Recruit on his Attestation, and the Certificate signed by the Justice before whom the Recruit was attested, certifying that the Questions and Answers contained in the Attestation were in his Presence put to and given by such Recruit, shall, in the Absence of Proof to the contrary, be deemed and taken to be sufficient Evidence of such Recruit having represented the several Particulars as in the Oath sworn by him; and Proof by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses that the Person so prosecuted hath voluntarily acknowledged that at the Time of his Enlistment he belonged to the Militia, or to any Regiment in Her Majesty's Service, or to Her Majesty's Navy or Marine or Ordnance, or to the Forces of the East India Company, or that he designedly made any false Representation of any Particular contained in the said Oaths and Certificates or either of them before the Justice at the Time of the Attestation of the Person being prosecuted, shall be deemed and taken as Evidence of the Fact so by him acknowledged, without Production of any Roll or other Document to prove the same; and such Proof of such Acknowledgment shall be certified to the Secretary of the Admiralty by the Justice before whom such Proof shall have been given; and any Man having been enrolled as a Volunteer under the Act Fifteenth and Sixteenth Victoria, Chapter Fifty, to serve in the Militia at the Time of offering to enlist into the Marines who shall deny that he is a Militia Man then actually enrolled and engaged to serve, or shall deny to the Justice before whom he shall be attested that he belongs to the Militia, shall, in lieu of and instead of the Penalties now imposed by Law for such Offence, on Conviction thereof before any One Justice in the United Kingdom, either upon the Oath of One Witness or upon his own Confession, or upon the Production of the Attestation and the before-mentioned Acknowledgment of such Person, certified by the Secretary of the Admiralty, or upon the Offence being proved before a Court of Inquiry, forfeit all Militia Bounty which would have become payable to him during the Period of his belonging to Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, if he had not therein enlisted, and be subjected to a Stoppage of One Penny a Day from his Pay for Eighteen Calendar Months, to be applied as the Secretary of the Admiralty shall direct, or if enrolled in the Militia as a balloted Man or a Substitute shall, if convicted before any One Justice as aforesaid, be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for and during any Time not exceeding Six Calendar Months, over and above any Penalty or Punishment to which such Person so offending may be otherwise liable, and such Person, whether he shall have been enrolled as a Volunteer or as a balloted Man or Substitute, shall from the Day on which his Engagement to serve in the Militia shall end be and serve as a Marine of the Division of Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces into which he has so enlisted: Provided also, that every such Person shall be liable to serve in Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces in which he has so enlisted during all the Time the Militia to which he shall belong shall remain disembodied, or shall not be called out for Training or Exercise, and shall during all such Time be subject to all the Provisions of this Act, and be liable to be apprehended and dealt with and punished as a Deserter from the Marines if he shall neglect or refuse to join and serve therein.

Exemption
from Tolls.

LXXVI. All Officers and Marines, being in proper Uniform, Dress or Undress, and their Horses, (but not when passing in any private or hired Vehicle,) and all Recruits marching by Route, and all Prisoners under Military Escort, and all Carriages and Horses belonging to Her Majesty, or employed in Her Service under the Provisions of this Act, or in any of Her Majesty's Colonies, when employed in conveying Persons or Baggage going thereto or returning therefrom, shall be exempted from the Payment of any Duties and Tolls on embarking or disembarking from or upon any Pier, Wharf, Quay, or Landing Place, or passing Turnpike Roads or Bridges, otherwise demandable by virtue of any Act already passed or hereafter to be passed, or by virtue of any Act or Ordinance, Order or Direction of any Colonial Legislature or other Authority in any of Her Majesty's Colonies; and if any Toll Collector shall demand or receive Toll from any Marine Officer or Marine who shall be in proper Uniform, Dress or Undress, or for their Horses, and who by this Act is exempted from Payment thereof, or from any Recruits marching by Route, or from any Prisoners under Military Escort, or for any Carriages or Horses belonging to Her Majesty, or employed in Her Service under the Provisions of this Act, when conveying Persons or Baggage, or returning therefrom, every such Collector shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds; provided that nothing herein contained shall exempt any Boats, Barges, or other Vessels employed in conveying veying the said Persons, Horses, Baggage, or Stores along any Canal from Payment of Tolls in like Manner as other Boats, Barges, and Vessels are liable thereto, except when employed in Cases of Emergency as herein mentioned; and that when any Officers or Marines on Service shall have Occasion in the March by Route to pass regular Ferries in Scotland, the Officer commanding shall be at liberty to pass over with his Marines as Passengers, paying for himself and each Marine One Half only of the ordinary Rate payable by Passengers, or he shall be at liberty to hire the Ferry Boat for himself and his Party, debarring all others for that Time, and shall in such Case pay only Half the ordinary Rate for such Boat.

An Act to apply the Sum of Eight Millions out of the Consolidated Fund to the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three. [18th March 1853.]

C A P. XIII.

An Act to revive certain temporary Provisions relating to the Collection of Grand Jury Cess in Ireland. [18th March 1853.]

11 & 12 Vict.
c. 26.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session holden in the ‘ Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty’s Reign, ‘ intituled An Act to remove Difficulties in the Appointment of ‘ Collectors of Grand Jury Cess in Ireland in certain Cases, and ‘ to remove Doubts as to the Jurisdiction of the Divisional Jus- ‘ tices of the Police District of Dublin Metropolis relating to the ‘ Recovery of Poor Rates and other Cases, it is amongst other ‘ things enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Grand ‘ Jury at any Assizes in Ireland held after the passing of the said ‘ Act, and before the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred ‘ and forty-nine, if they shall think fit, in Cases where Difficulties ‘ shall occur in the Collection of the Public Monies as therein
 ‘ mentioned, to present, without previous Application to Present‘ ment Sessions, a Sum not exceeding One Shilling in the Pound ‘ on the Amount of the Collection of such Monies from such ‘ Barony or Baronies where such Difficulties shall occur, to be ‘ paid to any High Constable or Collector for his Trouble in col‘ lecting the same; and the said Provision was by an Act of the ‘ Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty’s Reign further

' continued in force to the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one ; and the said Provision of the said first-recited Act was by an Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign further continued in force to the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two : And whereas it is expedient that the said Provision should be revived and further continued : ' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

I. That the said Provision of the said first-recited Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty's Reign shall be revived and continued and be in force to the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

II. ' And whereas by another Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to facilitate the Collection of County Cess in Ireland, Provision is made relating to the Collectors of Grand Jury Cess and the Payment of the same for a limited Time in Ireland: And whereas the said last-mentioned Act was by the before-mentioned Act of the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty further continued in force to the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and was again by an Act of the said Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign further continued to the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two ; and it is expedient to revive and continue the same for a limited Time : ' Be it therefore enacted, That the last-recited Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty shall be revived and continued to the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and that the Provisions of the said Act, and the respective Powers and Authorities by the said Act given to Grand Juries at the Assizes, and to Magistrates at any Sessions, shall be respectively applied and extended to Grand Juries at any Assizes and to Magistrates at any Sessions respectively, as the Case may be, within the Period for which the said Act is hereby revived and continued.

III. ' And whereas an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to make Provision during the present Year, and to the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, relating to the Collection of County Cess in Ireland, and to the Remuneration of the Collectors thereof ; and said last-recited Act of the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign was by said Act of the said Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign further continued to the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two ; and it is expedient that the Provisions of the said last-recited Act of the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign should be revived and further continued : ' Be it therefore enacted, That all the Provisions and Powers of the said last-mentioned Act of the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign shall be revived and further continued and be in force until the End of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

Certain Provision of 11&12 Vict. c. 26. continued by 12 & 13 Vict. c. 32. and 14 & 15 Vict. c. 65. revived and further continued by this Act.

Recited Act 11 & 12 Vict. c. 32. revived and continued to the End of the Year 1854.

Provisions of 12 & 13 Vict. c. 36. revived and further continued to the End of the Year 1854.

disabled to hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment in Her Majesty's Service; and a Certificate of such Conviction shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Admiralty.

General
Courts-martial.

VIII. A General Court-martial convened in Saint Helena, the Settlements on the Western Coast of Africa, Honduras, New Zealand, the Australian Colonies, Hong Kong, Prince of Wales Island, Singapore, and Malacca, and the Settlements on the Coast of China, shall consist of not less than Five Commissioned Officers; if convened in Jamaica, the Windward and Leeward Islands, British Guiana, Newfoundland, Bermuda, the Bahamas, the Cape of Good Hope or other Settlements in Southern Africa, or in any Part out of the Queen's Dominions, excepting the Ionian Islands and the Parts before mentioned, it shall consist of not less than Seven, and if convened in any other Part of the Queen's Dominions, or in the Ionian Islands, or in the Settlements of the East India Company, it shall consist of not less than Thirteen Commissioned Officers; and shall have Power to sentence any Officer or Soldier to suffer Death, Transportation, or any other Punishment which shall accord with the Provisions of this Act.

Commutation
of Death for Transportation.

XXIII. Whensoever any General Court-martial by which any Marine shall have been tried and convicted of any Offence punishable with Death shall not think the Offence deserving of Capital Punishment, such Court-martial may adjudge the Offender, according to the Degree of the Offence, to be transported as a Felon for Life or for a certain Term of Years, or may sentence him to general Service as a Marine or as a Soldier in any Corps and in any Country or Place which Her Majesty shall thereupon direct, or may, if such Offender shall have enlisted for a limited Term of Years, sentence him to serve for Life as a Marine or as a Soldier in any Corps which Her Majesty shall please to direct: Provided always, that in all Cases where a Capital Punishment shall have been awarded by a General Court-martial or by a Detachment General Court-martial it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, for the Officer commanding in chief the Forces in India, instead of causing such Sentence to be carried into execution, to order the Offender to be transported as a Felon, either for Life or for a certain Term of Years, or to suffer such Term of Imprisonment, either with or without Hard Labour, as shall seem meet to Her Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, to the Officer commanding as aforesaid.

Transportation
of Offenders in the Colonies.

XXVI. Whenever any Sentence of Transportation heretofore or hereafter passed upon any Offender by any Court-martial holden in the East Indies, or in any Part of Her Majesty's Foreign Dominions, is to be carried into execution for the Term specified in such Sentence, or for any shorter Term, or when Sentence of Death has been or shall as aforesaid be commuted to Transportation, the same shall be notified by the Officer commanding Her Majesty's Forces at the Presidency or Station to some Judge of One of the Supreme Courts of Judicature in the East Indies, or Chief Justice or some other Judge, as the Case may be, in any Part of Her Majesty's Foreign Dominions, who shall make Order for the Transportation or intermediate Custody of such Offender in like Manner as for the Transportation or intermediate Custody of any other Convict; and upon any such Order being made it shall

shall be duly notified to the Governor of the Presidency if in the East Indies, or to the Governor of the Colony if in any of Her Majesty's Colonies, or to the Person who shall for the Time being be exercising the Office of Governor of such Presidency or Colony, who on Receipt of such Notification shall cause such Offender to be removed to some Colony or Place in obedience to the Directions for the Removal of Convicts which shall from Time to Time be transmitted from Her Majesty through One of Her Principal Secretaries of State to such Presidency or Colony; and such Offender on being so removed shall undergo the Sentence of Transportation which has been passed upon him in the Colony or Place to which he has been so removed or sent, and whilst such Sentence shall remain in force shall be liable to be there imprisoned and kept to Hard Labour, and otherwise dealt with under such Sentence, in the same Manner as if he had been sentenced to be imprisoned with Hard Labour during the Term of his Transportation by the Judgment of a Court of competent Jurisdiction in the Colony or Place to which he has been so removed or sent: Provided always, that in any Case where a Sentence of Transportation shall have been awarded by a General Court-martial or Detachment General Court-martial, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, for the Officer commanding in chief the Forces in India, instead of causing such Sentence to be carried into execution, to order that the Offender be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Two Years, either with or without Hard Labour and Solitary Confinement not exceeding the Period herein-after prescribed.

XXIX. It shall be lawful for any General, District, or Garrison Court-martial to award Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour, and with or without Solitary Confinement; and in case of a Marine in addition to Corporal Punishment.

Power to inflict Corporal Punishment and Imprisonment.

XXXI. Any General Court-martial may, in addition to any other Punishment which it may be competent to award, sentence any Offender to Forfeiture of all Advantage as to additional Pay, Good-conduct Pay, and to Pension on Discharge, which might have otherwise accrued from the Length of his former Service, or to Forfeiture of such Advantage absolutely, whether it might have accrued from past Service, or might accrue from future Service, according to the Nature of the Case; and any District or Garrison Court-martial may also, in addition to any Sentence which such Court may award, sentence any Offender to such Forfeiture for Desertion, or for disgraceful Conduct.

Forfeiture of Pay and Pension by Sentence of Court-martial.

In wilfully doing any Act, or wilfully disobeying any Orders, whether in Hospital or otherwise, thereby producing or aggravating Disease or Infirmity, or delaying his Cure:

In malingering or feigning Disease:

In stealing or embezzling Government Property or Stores, or in receiving the same knowing the same to have been stolen:

In stealing any Money or Goods the Property of a Comrade, of a Marine Officer, or of any Marine Mess or Band, or in receiving any such Money or Goods knowing the same to have been stolen:

In making any false or fraudulent Accounts, Returns, Matters, or Entries, or assisting or conniving at the same being made,
or

or producing the same as true, knowing the same to be false or fraudulent :

In stealing or embezzling or fraudulently misapplying Public Money intrusted to him :

Or in committing any other Offence of a felonious or fraudulent Nature, to the Injury of, or with Intent to injure, any Person, Civil, Marine, or Military :

Or for any other disgraceful Conduct, being of a cruel, indecent, or unnatural Kind.

Forfeiture of Pay on Conviction of Desertion or Felony.

XXXII. Every Marine who shall be found guilty by a Court-martial of Desertion, of wilfully maiming or injuring himself or any other Marine, whether at the Instance of such other Marine or not, with Intent thereby to render himself or such other Marine unfit for Service, of tampering with his Eyes with Intent thereby to render himself unfit for Service, such Finding having been confirmed, or of Felony in any Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction in England or Ireland, or of any Crime or Offence in any Court of Criminal Judicature in any Part of the United Kingdom, or in any Dominion, Territory, Colony, Settlement, or Island belonging to or occupied by Her Majesty out of the United Kingdom, which would, if committed therein, amount to Felony, shall thereupon forfeit all Advantage as to additional Pay, Good-conduct Pay, and to Pension on Discharge, which might have otherwise accrued from the Length of his former Service, in addition to any Punishment which such Court may award.

Stoppages.

XXXVI. In addition to any other Punishment which the Court may award, a Court-martial may further direct that any Offender may be put under Stoppages until he shall have made good—

Any Loss, Disposal of, or Damage occasioned by him in any of the Instances of disgraceful Conduct herein specified :

Any Loss, Disposal of, or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, any Property whatsoever, occasioned by his wilful or negligent Misconduct :

Any Loss, Disposal of, or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, his Arms, Clothing, Instruments, Equipments, Accoutrements, or Necessaries, or any extra Article of Clothing or Equipment that he may have been put in possession of and ordered to wear on the Recommendation of the Surgeon for the Benefit of his Health, or making away with or pawning any Medal for Service or for general good Conduct which may have been granted to him by Order of Her Majesty or by Order of the East India Company, or any Loss, Disposal of, or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, the Arms, Clothing, Instruments, Equipments, Accoutrements, or Necessaries of any Officer or Marine, occasioned by his wilful or negligent Misconduct :

Any Expense necessarily incurred by his Drunkenness or other Misconduct :

Provided always, that, except in the Case of the Loss, Disposal of, or Destruction of, or Damage or Injury to, Accoutrements and Necessaries, in which Case the Court may by its Sentence direct that the said Stoppages shall continue till the Cost of replacing or repairing the same be made good, the Amount of any Loss, Disposal,

posal, Destruction, Damage or Injury, or Expense, shall be ascertained by Evidence, and the Offender shall be placed under Stoppages for such an Amount only as shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Court: Provided also, that after satisfying the Charges for his Messing and Washing, so much only of the Pay of the Marine may be stopped and applied as shall leave him a Residue at the least of One Penny a Day.

LVI. Any Person enlisted into Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces as a Marine shall be liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service only by Process or Execution on account of any Charge of Felony, or on account of Misdemeanor other than the Misdemeanor of refusing to comply with an Order of Justices for the Payment of Money, or on account of an original Debt proved by Affidavit of the Plaintiff or of some one on his Behalf to amount to the Value of Thirty Pounds at the least over and above all Costs of Suit in the Action or Actions, such Affidavit to be sworn, without Payment of any Fee, before some Judge of the Court out of which Process or Execution shall issue, or before some Person authorized to take Affidavits in such Court, of which Affidavit, when duly filed in such Court, a Memorandum shall, without Fee, be endorsed upon the Back of such Process, stating the Facts sworn to, and the Day of filing such Affidavit; but no Marine or other Person as aforesaid shall be liable to be summoned before any Justice of the Peace or other Authority whatsoever, or to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service by any Capias, Writ, Summons, Order, Judgment, Process, or Execution issued by or by the Authority of any Court or Inferior Court for any original Debt not amounting to Thirty Pounds, or for not supporting or maintaining, or for not having supported or maintained, or for deserting or having deserted, or for leaving or having left chargeable to any Parish, Township, or Union, any Wife, or any Child or Children, legitimate or illegitimate, or other Relation which such Marine would, if not in Her Majesty's Service, be liable by Law to support or maintain, or for the Breach of any Contract, Covenant, Agreement, or other Engagement whatever, by Parol or in Writing, or for having left or deserted his Employer or Master, or his Contract, Work, or Labour; and all Summonses, Warrants, Commitments, Indictments, Convictions, Judgments, and Sentences, on account of any of the Matters for which it is herein declared that a Marine is not liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service, shall be utterly illegal, and null and void to all Intents and Purposes; and any Judge of any such Court may examine into any Complaints made by a Marine or by his Superior Officer, and by Warrant under his Hand discharge such Marine, without Fee, he being shown to have been arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, and shall award reasonable Costs to such Complainant, who shall have for the Recovery thereof the like Remedy as would have been applicable to the Recovery of any Costs which might have been awarded against the Complainant in any Judgment or Execution as aforesaid, or a Writ of Habeas corpus ad subjiciendum shall be awarded or issued, and the Discharge of any such Marine out of Custody shall be ordered thereupon; provided that any Plaintiff, upon Notice of the Cause of Action first given in Writing to any Marine or left at his last but not liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service for not maintaining their Families or for Breach of Contract.

Marines liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's Service only for Felony and certain Misdemeanors, or for Debts amounting to 30l. and upwards;

Quarters,

Quarters, may proceed in any Action or Suit to Judgment, and have Execution other than against the Body: Provided also, that nothing herein contained relating to the leaving or deserting a Master or Employer, or to the Breach of any Contract, Agreement, or Engagement, shall apply to Persons who shall be really and bonâ fide Apprentices, duly bound, under the Age of Twenty-one Years, as herein prescribed.

Offences
connected with Enlistment.

LXI. If any Recruit shall receive the Enlisting Money from any Person employed in the Recruiting Service (knowing it to be such), and shall abscond or refuse to go before a Justice, or shall absent himself from the Recruiting Party or Person with whom he enlisted, and shall not voluntarily return to go before some Justice within such Period of Ninety-six Hours as aforesaid, such Recruit shall be deemed to be enlisted and a Private in Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces as fully to all Intents and Purposes as if he had been duly attested, and may be apprehended and punished as a Deserter, or for being absent without Leave, under any Articles of War made for the Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion; and such Recruit shall not be discharged by any Justice of the Peace after the Expiration of such Ninety-six Hours as aforesaid, unless it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of such Justice that the true Name and Residence of the Recruit were disclosed and known to the Recruiting Party, and that no Notice was given to the Recruit, or left at his usual Place of Abode, of his having so enlisted: Provided always, that in every Case wherein any Recruit shall have received Enlisting Money, and shall have absconded from the Party, so that it shall not be possible immediately to apprehend and bring him before a Justice, the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer commanding the Party shall produce to the Justice before whom the Recruit ought regularly to have been brought for Attestation a Certificate of the Name and Place of Residence of such Recruit; and the Justice to whom such Certificate shall be produced shall, after satisfying himself that the Recruit who had absconded cannot be found and apprehended, transmit a Duplicate thereof to the Secretary of the Admiralty, in order that, in the event of such Recruit being afterwards apprehended and reported as a Deserter, the Facts of his having received Enlisting Money, and having absconded after having been enlisted, may be ascertained before he shall be finally adjudged to be a Deserter; and it shall be lawful for any Two Justices acting for the County, Division, District, or Place where any such Recruit shall at any Time happen to be when any such Recruit shall be brought, and shall be proved upon Oath before them to have concealed his belonging or having belonged to the Militia, or any Regiment, or to the Marines, Ordnance, or Navy, or the Forces of the East India Company, and discharged, or to have deserted therefrom, or to have concealed his having been discharged on any prior Enlistment, or to have wilfully concealed any Infirmary, or designedly made any false Representation at or previously to the Time of receiving Enlisting Money or upon being attested, to adjudge such Recruit, if in England, to be a Rogue and Vagabond, and to sentence him to such Punishment as by any Law may be inflicted on Rogues and Vagabonds, and to adjudge such Person,

if

if in Scotland or Ireland, to be imprisoned with Hard Labour in any Prison or House of Correction for any Period not exceeding Three Months; and any Recruit who shall designedly make any false Representation of any Particular contained in the Oaths and Certificates in the Schedule to this Act annexed before the Justice at the Time of his Attestation, and shall obtain any Enlisting Money, or any Bounty for entering into Her Majesty's Service, or any other Money, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretences, within the true Intent and Meaning, if in England, of an Act passed in the Session holden in the Seventh and Eighth Years of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in England relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith, and if in Ireland, of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in Ireland relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith, and such Recruit, if in Scotland, shall be deemed guilty of Falsehood, Fraud, and wilful Imposition; and any attested Recruit who shall in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions or elsewhere have committed any of the before-mentioned Offences regarding Enlistment may be summarily punished, or prosecuted, tried, and convicted, for any such Offence, at any Time during the Continuance of the Service for which he shall have enlisted, and in any County or Place where he may happen to be when such summary Proceeding or Prosecution shall be instituted; and the Production of the Oath in the Schedule to this Act annexed taken by the Recruit on his Attestation, and the Certificate signed by the Justice before whom the Recruit was attested, certifying that the Questions and Answers contained in the Attestation were in his Presence put to and given by such Recruit, shall, in the Absence of Proof to the contrary, be deemed and taken to be sufficient Evidence of such Recruit having represented the several Particulars as in the Oath sworn by him; and Proof by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses that the Person so prosecuted hath voluntarily acknowledged that at the Time of his Enlistment he belonged to the Militia, or to any Regiment in Her Majesty's Service, or to Her Majesty's Navy or Marine or Ordnance, or to the Forces of the East India Company, or that he designedly made any false Representation of any Particular contained in the said Oaths and Certificates or either of them before the Justice at the Time of the Attestation of the Person being prosecuted, shall be deemed and taken as Evidence of the Fact so by him acknowledged, without Production of any Roll or other Document to prove the same; and such Proof of such Acknowledgment shall be certified to the Secretary of the Admiralty by the Justice before whom such Proof shall have been given; and any Man having been enrolled as a Volunteer under the Act Fifteenth and Sixteenth Victoria, Chapter Fifty, to serve in the Militia at the Time of offering to enlist into the Marines who shall deny that he is a Militia Man then actually enrolled and engaged to serve, or shall deny to the Justice before whom he shall be attested that he belongs to the Militia, shall, in lieu of and instead of the Penalties now imposed by Law for such Offence, on Conviction thereof before

‘ 3d.—All along the East Coast of Africa, from Latitude
 ‘ Ten Degrees North of the Equator to the Twenty-sixth ‘ Degree of South Latitude, and to the Extent of Thirty ‘ Leagues from that Coast.

‘ 4th.—The same Distance all round from the Coasts of ‘ the Island of Cuba.

‘ 5th.—The same Distance from the Coasts of the Island ‘ of Puerto Rico, and

‘ 6th.—The same Distance from the Coasts of Brazil.

‘ It is, however, understood that a suspected Vessel de‘ scribed and begun to be chased by the Cruizers, whilst ‘ within the said Space of Thirty Leagues, may be searched
 ‘ by them beyond those Limits if, without ever having lost ‘ Sight of her, they should succeed in coming up with her
 ‘ at a greater Distance from any of the above-mentioned ‘ Coasts.

‘ ARTICLE IV.—All Merchant Vessels of the Two Nations ‘ which shall be visited in virtue of this Treaty, and which ‘ shall be found either with Slaves on board or equipped for ‘ Slave Trade, shall be detained, and shall be sent or carried ‘ to One of the Ports under British Jurisdiction, if the ‘ Vessel detained should be British, or to One of the Ports of ‘ New Granada, if the Vessel detained should be Granadian, ‘ to be tried by the Courts which take cognizance of the ‘ Crime of Piracy, according to the Laws of their respective ‘ Countries.

‘ And such Vessels, with the whole of their Cargoes, shall ‘ be subject to the Penalty of Confiscation for having been ‘ found engaged in the Slave Trade.

‘ ARTICLE V.—Every Merchant Vessel, British or Grana-
 ‘ dian, which shall be visited in virtue of the Provisions ‘ contained in the Articles II. and III. of the present Treaty ‘ may lawfully be detained, and be sent or brought before ‘ the proper Tribunals, according to the Nation to which it ‘ may belong, if any One or more of the Things herein-after ‘ specified shall be found in her Outfit or Equipment :

‘ 1st.—Hatches with open Gratings, instead of the close ‘ Hatches which are usual in Merchant Vessels.

‘ 2d.—Divisions or Bulkheads in the Hold or on Deck
 ‘ in greater Number than are necessary for Vessels en‘ gaged in lawful Trade.

‘ 3d.—Spare Plank fitted for being laid down as a ‘ Second or Slave Deck.

‘ 4th.—Shackles, Bolts, or Handcuffs.

‘ 5th.—A larger Quantity of Water in Casks or Tanks ‘ than is requisite for the Consumption of the Crew of the ‘ Vessel as a Merchant Vessel.

‘ 6th.—An extraordinary Number of Water Casks, or
 ‘ of other Receptacles for holding Liquid; unless the ‘ Master shall produce a Certificate from the Custom ‘ House at the Place from which he cleared Outwards, ‘ stating that sufficient Security had been given by the ‘ Owners of such Vessel that such extra Quantity of Casks ‘ or of other Receptacles for holding Liquid should only ‘ be

' be used to hold Palm Oil, or for other Purposes of lawful ' Commerce.

' 7th.—A greater Quantity of Mess Tubs or Kids than ' are requisite for the Use of the Crew of the Vessel as a ' Merchant Vessel.

' 8th.—A Boiler or other Cooking Apparatus of an ' unusual Size, and larger or fitted for being made larger ' than requisite for the Use of the Crew of the Vessel as a ' Merchant Vessel, or more than One Boiler or other ' Cooking Apparatus of the ordinary Size.

' 9th.—An extraordinary Quantity of Rice, of the Flour
' of Brazil, Manioc or Cassada commonly called Farinha, ' of Maize, or of Indian Corn, or of any other Article of ' Food whatever, beyond what might probably be requisite
' for the Use of the Crew.

' 10th.—A Quantity of Mats or Matting greater than is ' necessary for the Use of the Vessel as a Merchant Vessel.

' The Articles enumerated in the 8th, 9th, and 10th Para' graphs, when found on board, shall not expose the Vessel
' to Detention or Trial, whenever such Articles shall appear
' as entered in the Manifest as Part of the Cargo for Trade.

' Any One or more of the several Things above enu' merated, if proved to have been found on board, shall be ' considered as prima facie Evidence of the actual Employ' ment of the Vessel in the Slave Trade; and the Vessel
' shall thereupon be condemned, and be declared lawful ' Prize, unless clear and indisputable Evidence on the Part ' of the Master or Owners shall establish to the Satisfaction ' of the Court that such Vessel was at the Time of her De' tention or Capture employed in some legal Pursuit; and ' that such of the several Things above enumerated as were ' found on board her at the Time of her Detention were ' needed for legal Purposes on that particular Voyage.

' ARTICLE VI.—In order to regulate the Mode of carrying ' into execution the Visit of Merchant Vessels of the Two ' Nations by the Cruizers charged with the Duty of prevent' ing the Slave Trade, it is agreed that the Commanders of ' such Cruizers shall be furnished with Copies of this Treaty
' in English and in Spanish, and with Copies of the Instruc' tions contained in the Appendix annexed thereto, which ' Instructions shall be considered as an integral Part of the ' present Treaty.

' ARTICLE VII.—If the Commanding Officer of any of ' those Ships of the Navies of Great Britain and of the ' Granadian Republic respectively, which shall be duly ' commissioned according to the Provisions of this Treaty,
' shall deviate in any respect from the Stipulations of the said
' Treaty, or from the Instructions annexed to it, the Govern' ment which shall conceive itself to be wronged thereby
' shall be entitled to demand Reparation; and in such Case
' the Government to which such Commanding Officer may ' belong binds itself to cause Inquiry to be made into the ' Subject Matter of the Complaint, and to inflict upon the ' said

‘ said Officer a Punishment proportioned to the Transgression ‘ committed.

‘ ARTICLE VIII.—The Two High Contracting Parties
‘ mutually engage to make good the Damages and Losses ‘ which may be incurred by the illegal Detention of the ‘ Vessels of their respective Subjects or Citizens, it being ‘ understood that the Government to which the capturing ‘ Ship belongs shall pay the Damages and Losses occasioned ‘ to the captured Vessel; and that this Payment shall be ‘ made within the Term of One Year, reckoning from the ‘ Day on which the proper Tribunal shall have pronounced ‘ a definitive Sentence on the Vessel for the Detention of ‘ which such Compensation is claimed.

‘ ARTICLE IX.—If any of the Things specified in Article V.
‘ of this Treaty shall be found in any Merchant Vessel de‘ tained under this Treaty, no Compensation for Losses, ‘ Damages, or Expenses consequent upon the Detention of ‘ such Vessel shall in any Case be granted either to her ‘ Master or to her Owner, or to any other Person interested ‘ in her Equipment or Cargo, even though the proper Tri‘ bunal should not pronounce any Sentence of Condemnation
‘ in consequence of her Detention.

‘ ARTICLE X.—It is hereby agreed between the Two High ‘ Contracting Parties, that in all Cases in which a Vessel ‘ shall be detained under this Treaty by their respective ‘ Cruizers as having been engaged in the Slave Trade, or ‘ as having been fitted out for the Purposes thereof, and shall ‘ in consequence thereof be adjudged and condemned by the ‘ proper Tribunal, the said Vessel shall, immediately after ‘ Condemnation, be broken up entirely into several Parts, so ‘ as to be useless as a Vessel, and shall be sold in separate ‘ Parts after having been so broken up.

‘ ARTICLE XI.—The Visit and Detention of Vessels in ‘ pursuance of Article II. of this Treaty shall be effected
‘ only by such of the Ships of the British and Granadian ‘ Navies respectively as shall be provided with the special ‘ Instructions contained in the Appendix annexed to this ‘ Treaty; and each of the Two High Contracting Parties ‘ shall from Time to Time communicate to each other the ‘ Names of the Ships of War which are furnished with such ‘ Instructions, the Force of each Ship, and the Names of their ‘ several Commanders.

‘ ARTICLE XII.—It is by no means to be understood that ‘ by the Provisions of the present Treaty New Granada shall ‘ be under any Obligation to fit out Cruizers expressly to aid ‘ in the Pursuit of Vessels engaged in the Slave Trade.

‘ ARTICLE XIII.—All the Slaves who are found on board
‘ a Merchant Vessel detained either by British or Granadian
‘ Cruizers in conformity with the Stipulations of this Treaty ‘ shall be placed at the Disposal of Her Britannic Majesty’s ‘ Government at the Time and at the several Ports which ‘ shall be stipulated in the Appendix annexed to this Treaty, ‘ and shall immediately be set at liberty, and shall be secured ‘ in the permanent Enjoyment of their Freedom.

‘ ARTICLE

‘ ARTICLE XIV.—The High Contracting Parties to the present Treaty mutually agree, that if at the Expiration of Twenty-four Years, reckoned from the Date of the Exchange of the Ratifications thereof, it shall appear desirable to either of the Contracting Parties, either on account of the Trade in Slaves having ceased, or for other Reasons, that the present Treaty should cease and determine, it shall be lawful for that One of the Contracting Parties to give Notice thereof to the other Contracting Party; and the Treaty shall cease and determine accordingly at the End of One Year from the Date of the Receipt of such Notice.

‘ And it is clearly understood, that if, in pursuance of the Right which the High Contracting Parties reserve to themselves by this Article, the present Treaty should be annulled at any Time anterior to the total and final Cessation of the Traffic in Slaves, the Obligations contracted towards Great Britain by the Republic of New Granada by Article XIII. of the Treaty of One thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, “to co-operate with Great Britain for the total Abolition of the Slave Trade,” will nevertheless remain in full Force until such total and final Abolition is effected.

‘ ARTICLE XV.—The present Treaty, consisting of Fifteen Articles, shall come into operation on the Seventh of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two. The Treaty shall be ratified, and the Ratifications thereof exchanged in Bogotá, within the Space of Nine Months from this Date, or sooner if possible.

‘ In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have thereunto affixed their respective Seals.

‘ Done at Bogotá this Second Day of April in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

‘ APPENDIX,

‘ Which contains the INSTRUCTIONS for the SHIPS of the BRITISH and GRANADIAN NAVIES employed in preventing the SLAVE TRADE.

‘ ARTICLE I.—The Commander of any Ship belonging to the Navy of Her Britannic Majesty or of the Republic of New Granada, which shall be furnished with these Instructions, shall have a Right to visit and search, within the Limits mentioned in Article III. of the Treaty signed this Day, any British or Granadian Merchant Vessel suspected of being engaged in Slave Trade, or of being fitted out for the Purposes thereof; and if from the Search it shall appear that the Suspicions entertained are well founded, such Commander shall have the Right of detaining such Vessel, and shall thereupon, as soon as possible, carry or send the Vessel so captured to any One of the Ports herein-after mentioned which shall be nearest to the Place where the Vessel was detained, or which such Commander shall, upon his own Responsibility, think can be soonest reached.

‘ reached from such Place, in order to be tried according to the Provisions of Article IV. of this Treaty.

‘ ARTICLE II.—Whenever a Ship of War of either of the Two High Contracting Parties, duly authorized as aforesaid, shall meet a Merchant Vessel liable to be visited under the Provisions of the said Treaty, the Search of such Vessel shall be conducted in the mildest Manner, and with every Attention which ought to be observed between allied and friendly Nations; and the Search shall in all Cases be made by an Officer holding a Rank not lower than that of Lieutenant in the British or Granadian Navies respectively (unless the Command shall by reason of Death or otherwise have devolved upon an Officer of inferior Rank), or by the Officer who at the Time shall be Second in command of the Ship by which the Search is made.

‘ ARTICLE III.—The Commander of any Ship of War of the Two Nations, duly authorized as aforesaid, who may detain any Merchant Vessel in pursuance of the present Instructions, shall leave on board the Vessel so detained the Master, the Mate, or Boatswain, and Two or Three at least of the Crew thereof, the whole of the Slaves, if any, and all the Cargo.

‘ The Captor shall at the Time of Detention draw up in Writing an authentic Declaration, which shall exhibit the State in which he found the detained Vessel; and such Declaration shall be signed by himself, and shall be given in or sent in, together with the captured Vessel, to the Court before which such Vessel shall be carried or sent for Adjudication.

‘ The Captor shall deliver to the Master of the detained Vessel a certified List of the Papers seized on board the same, as well as a Statement of the Number of Slaves, if any, found on board at the Moment of Detention.

‘ In the authenticated Declaration which the Captor is hereby required to make, as well as in the certified List of the Papers seized, the Captor shall insert his own Name, the Name of the capturing Ship, the Latitude and Longitude of the Place where the Detention shall have been made, and the Number of Slaves, if any, found on board the Vessel at the Time of her Detention.

‘ The Officer in charge of the Vessel detained shall, at the Time when he brings the Vessel’s Papers to the proper Tribunal, deliver in to the Court a Paper, signed by himself, and verified on Oath, stating any Changes which may have taken place in respect to the Vessel, her Crew, the Slaves, if any, and her Cargo, between the Period of her Detention and the Time of delivering of such Paper.

‘ ARTICLE IV.—The Slaves shall not be disembarked till after the Vessel which contains them shall have arrived at the Place of Adjudication, and even after the Vessel has arrived at such Place they shall not be landed without the Permission of the proper Tribunal, except in the Cases herein-after specified in respect to Slaves found on board Granadian Vessels.

‘ But

‘ But if urgent Reasons, deduced from the Length of the Voyage, from the State of Health of the Slaves, or from other Causes, should require that either the whole or a Portion of the Slaves should be disembarked, or should be transhipped before the Vessel can arrive at the Port at which the proper Tribunal is established, or after her Arrival there, and before Adjudication, the Commander of the capturing Ship may take upon himself the Responsibility of so disembarking or transhipping the Slaves : Provided that such Necessity, and the Causes thereof, be stated in a Certificate in proper Form, and that this Certificate be entered at the Time in the Log Book of the detained Vessel.

‘ ARTICLE V.—All such British Vessels as shall be detained on the Brazilian Station by Granadian Cruizers shall be carried and delivered up to the British Jurisdiction at the Colony of Demerara.

‘ All such British Vessels as shall be detained on the West India Station by Granadian Cruizers shall be carried and delivered up to the British Jurisdiction at Port Royal in Jamaica.

‘ All such British Vessels as shall be detained on the Madagascar Station, or on the East Coast of Africa, by Granadian Cruizers, shall be carried and delivered up to the British Jurisdiction at the Cape of Good Hope, or at the Mauritius, as may be most convenient.

‘ All such British Vessels as shall be detained on the African Station by Granadian Cruizers shall be carried and delivered up to British Jurisdiction at Bathurst on the River Gambia.

‘ All such Granadian Vessels as shall be detained on the Brazilian and West India Stations, as well as on those of Madagascar and Africa, by British Cruizers, shall be carried and delivered up to the Granadian Jurisdiction at any of the Ports belonging to the Republic of New Granada, except when Slaves shall be found on board at the Time of the Capture, in which Case the Vessel shall, in the first instance, be sent or carried to deposit the Slaves at the Port to which the Vessel would have been taken for Trial if she had been detained under the British Flag. The Vessel, with the rest of her Cargo and Crew, shall afterwards be sent on and delivered to the Granadian Jurisdiction at any of the Ports belonging to the Republic, as above stipulated.

‘ The undersigned Plenipotentiaries have agreed, in conformity with Article VI. of the Treaty signed by them on this Day, the Second Day of April in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, that the present Appendix, which contains Five Articles, shall be annexed to the said Treaty, and shall be considered as an integral Part thereof.

‘ The Second Day of April in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

‘ And

Ratifications of Treaty exchanged on the 16th December 1851.

‘ And whereas the said Treaty was ratified between Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the Republic of New Granada, and such Ratifications exchanged at Bogotá on the Sixteenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one: And whereas it is expedient and necessary that effectual Provision should be made for carrying into execution the Provisions of the said Treaty and Appendix thereto:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same:

Officers commanding Ships of Her Majesty, or of the Republic of New Granada, being duly authorized, empowered to visit, search, and detain Merchant Ships within certain Limits suspected of being engaged in the Slave Trade.

I. That it shall be lawful for any Officer commanding any Ship of War of Her Majesty, or of the Republic of New Granada, not below the Rank of Lieutenant of the Royal Navy (unless the Command shall by reason of Death or otherwise be held by an Officer of inferior Rank), or by the Officer who at the Time shall be Second in command of the Ship, and who shall be duly instructed and authorized, and furnished, according to the several Provisions of the said Treaty and Appendix, to exercise within the Waters described, and according to the several Provisions, Exceptions, and Conditions contained in the said Treaty and the Instructions thereto annexed, the Right of visiting and searching any Merchant Vessel of either of the said Two Nations liable to Suspicion, and suspected of having engaged in or of having been employed in the Slave Trade, or of having been fitted out for the Purposes of such Traffic, and upon sufficient Grounds to detain and send, or carry in and deliver over without Delay, any such Vessel, together with its Master, Crew, Slaves, Cargo, and Papers, to the Authorities appointed for the Purposes of the said Treaty by the respective Governments of the said Two Nations, and to One of the Jurisdictions in the said Instructions mentioned, in order that Proceedings may be instituted thereupon, conformably to the respective Laws of the said Two Countries; and all such Commanders of Her said Majesty’s Ships are hereby authorized and required, in the Exercise of such Rights of visiting, searching, detaining, sending, carrying in, and delivering as aforesaid, to execute, perform, and comply with the said several Provisions and Instructions of the said Treaty as apply thereto respectively.

In case of Granadian Officers detaining British Vessels, Proceedings to be conducted in Name of Her Majesty.

II. Where any such Officer of the Republic of New Granada shall send, carry, or deliver over as aforesaid any such Merchant Vessel, wholly or in part owned by any Subject or Subjects of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, all and every Proceeding instituted in the Tribunals herein-after mentioned in regard to such Merchant Vessel, and its Crew, Cargo, and Slaves, and in respect to the Cause, shall be conducted in the Name of Her said Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland by some Person duly thereunto authorized; (that is to say,) all Ships, Cargoes, and Slaves which shall be detained by the Cruizers of the Republic of New Granada, and delivered up to the Jurisdiction of Her Majesty, either at the Colony of Demerara, Port Royal in Jamaica, the Cape of Good Hope, or, if detained on the African Station, shall be carried and delivered up to British Jurisdiction at Bathurst on the River Gambia, and shall be proceeded against and adjudicated in the Vice Admiralty Court established in the said Colonies respectively; and the Judges and other Officers of the said Vice Admiralty Courts respectively are hereby authorized to take cognizance thereof accordingly; and all such Granadian Vessels as shall be detained on the Brazilian and West India Stations, as well as on those of Madagascar and Africa, by British Cruizers, shall be carried and delivered up to the Granadian Jurisdiction at any of the Ports belonging to the Republic of New Granada, except when Slaves shall be found on board at the Time of the Capture; in which Case the Vessel shall, in the first instance, be sent or carried to deposit the Slaves at the Port to which the Vessel would have been taken for Trial if she had been detained under the British Flag; and that the Vessel, with the rest of her Cargo and Crew, shall afterwards be sent and delivered to the Granadian Jurisdiction at any of the Ports belonging to that Republic, as above stipulated.

In case of Granadian Vessels being detained by British Cruizers.

III. It shall be lawful for the High Court of Admiralty of England, as also for the several Courts of Vice Admiralty hereinbefore mentioned, to take cognizance of and try any such Vessel which shall be detained or captured for the Violation of the said Treaty, and to condemn any such Vessel to Her Majesty, and adjudge as to the Slaves found therein, in like Manner and under such and the like Rules and Regulations as are contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in relation to the Suppression of the Slave Trade by British-owned Ships, as fully as if all the Powers and Provisions contained in such Acts were re-enacted in this Act as to such High Court of Admiralty or Courts of Vice Admiralty.

As to the Trial of Vessels seized.

IV. Every Person who shall wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence in any Examination or Deposition or Affidavit taken in any Proceeding under the said Treaty or this Act shall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and being thereof convicted shall be subject and liable to all the Pains and Penalties to which Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are liable; and every such Person may be tried for any such Perjury, either in the Place where the Offense was committed, or in any Colony or Settlement of Her Majesty near thereto in which there is a Court of competent Jurisdiction to try any such Offence, or in Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench in England; and in case of any Prosecution for such Offence in Her Majesty's said Court of Queen's Bench, the Venue may be laid in the County of Middlesex.

Persons giving false Evidence deemed guilty of Perjury.

V. The Pendency of any Suit or Proceeding instituted for the Condemnation or Restitution of any Ship or Cargo, or Slaves taken, seized, or detained by virtue of the said Treaty, or the final Adjudication, Condemnation, or Judgment or Determination thereupon, may be pleaded in Bar, or given in Evidence under the General Issue, and shall be deemed in any Court whatever to be a complete Bar in any Action, Suit, or Proceeding, whether instituted by any Person or Persons for the Recovery of any such Ship, Vessel, or Cargo, or of any Damage, or for any Injury sustained thereby, or by the Persons on board the same, in consequence of any Capture, Seizure, or Detention, or anything done under or in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Treaty.

Pendency of Suits to be a Bar to any Proceedings instituted for the Recovery of the Vessels detained.

Vessels equipped for Traffic in Slaves to be deemed engaged in the Slave Trade.

VI. If any of the Particulars specified in the Fifth Article of the said Treaty shall be found in the Outfit and Equipment of or on board any such Merchant Vessel engaged or to be engaged in such Traffic, and visited and detained in pursuance of the said Treaty, such Vessel, unless Proof be given to the contrary, shall be taken to have been engaged in the said Traffic, or to have been fitted out for the Purposes of such Traffic, and to be equipped and employed for the Purposes declared unlawful.

As to Distribution of the Portion of Proceeds belonging to Her Majesty of the Vessels condemned.

VII. In case any such Merchant Vessel, wholly or in part owned by British Subjects as aforesaid, shall be seized by any Officer of Her Majesty duly authorized, and, with the Goods, Wares, and Merchandise, be confiscated according to the Laws of this Country, and the Provisions of the said Treaty, the Portion of the Proceeds arising from the Sale thereof belonging to Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland shall be paid to such Person or Persons as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may direct or appoint to receive the same; and it is hereby directed that One Moiety thereof shall be paid to and for the Use of the Captors thereof; and that the same, after deducting all necessary Expenses, shall be distributed to and amongst the Officers and Crew of the Ship in the Manner hereafter directed for the Distribution of Bounties on Slaves taken on board the said Vessel.

Vessels condemned to be broken up.

VIII. Any Ship or Vessel which shall be condemned as aforesaid shall be broken up and demolished, and the Materials thereof shall be publicly sold in separate Parts, together with the Goods, Wares, and Merchandise laden therein.

Payment of Bounty on Tonnage of Slave Ships captured and demolished.

IX. Where any Ship or Vessel which shall have been seized and condemned under the Provisions of the said Treaty shall have been or shall be demolished, and the Materials thereof publicly sold in separate Parts, as well as her Cargo, there shall be paid to the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships authorized to make and making such Seizures, and in addition to the Amount which may be payable in respect of Her Majesty's Portion of the Proceeds of such Sale as herein-before mentioned, a further Bounty on the Tonnage of such Ship or Vessel, at the Rate of Thirty Shillings for every Ton of such Tonnage.

Where no Slaves are on board a Ship seized and condemned, an additional Bounty on the Tonnage to be paid.

X. Where any Ship or Vessel having no Slaves on board shall have been seized and condemned under the Provisions of the said Treaty, there shall be paid to the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships authorized to make and making such Seizure an additional Bounty upon the Tonnage of such Ship or Vessel, at the Rate of Four Pounds for every Ton; and the Tonnage of all such Vessels shall be ascertained according to the Mode of ascertaining the Admeasurement of British Vessels, either by the principal Officer of the Customs at the Port where the Vessel may be at the Time of Condemnation, or in default thereof by the best Evidence which can be obtained: Provided always, that in every Case in which any Ship or Vessel shall be seized with Slaves on board, in which the Bounty calculated upon the Number of Slaves shall be less than the Bounty calculated upon the Tonnage, the Commanders of Her Majesty's Ships making the Seizure may elect to take the Bounty calculated according according to Tonnage, instead of the Bounty which would be payable upon the Number of Slaves on board.

XI. In order to entitle the Captors to receive the said Bounty Money, the Tonnage of the Ship or Vessel so seized and condemned shall be proved to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by producing a Copy, duly certified, of the Sentence or Decree of Condemnation, or by such documentary or other Evidence as they may deem satisfactory. Proof of Tonnage.

XII. There shall be paid to the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships authorized to make Seizures under the aforesaid Treaty a Bounty of Five Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain for every Man, Woman, and Child Slave seized and found on board a British or Granadian Ship or Vessel taken and delivered over and condemned in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Convention and of this Act, such Bounty to be issued and paid by Order from the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and to be distributed to and amongst the Captors aforesaid in such Manner and Proportions as Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, shall think fit to order and direct by any Order or Orders in Council, or by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be made for that Purpose. Payment of Bounty.

XIII. All Bounties payable under this Act shall be paid, out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships; and such Bounties shall be issued and paid by Order from the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury. Bounties to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund.

XIV. In order to entitle the Captors to receive the said Bounty Money, the Numbers of Men, Women, and Children so taken, delivered over, and condemned shall be proved to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by producing a Copy, duly certified, of the Sentence or Decree of Condemnation, and also a Certificate under the Hand of the proper Officer or Officers, Military or Civil, who may be appointed to receive such Slaves. As to Mode of obtaining such Bounty.

XV. Where any Slaves, or Persons treated, dealt with, carried, kept, or detained as Slaves, shall be taken or seized on board any British or Granadian Ship or Vessel, in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Treaty and of this Act, but who shall not have been condemned, or shall not have been delivered over in consequence of Death, Sickness, or other inevitable Circumstance, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, if to their Discretion it shall seem meet, to direct Payment of One Moiety of the Bounty which would have been due in each Case respectively if the said Slaves had been delivered over and condemned. Where Slaves taken shall not have been condemned, or shall not have been delivered over, the Treasury may allow One Moiety of the Bounty.

XVI. Any Party or Parties claiming any Benefit by way of Bounty under the Provisions of this Act, or of any Share of the Proceeds of any Granadian Vessel confiscated in pursuance of the Provisions of the aforesaid Treaty, shall and may resort to the High Court of Admiralty for the Purpose of obtaining the Judgment of the said Court in that Behalf; and that it shall and may be lawful for the Judge of the said High Court of Admiralty to determine thereon, and also to hear and determine any Question of joint Capture which may arise upon any Seizure made in pursuance Parties claiming Benefit under this Act may resort to the Court of Admiralty for Judgment.

suance of this Act, and enforce any Decrees or Sentences of the said Vice Admiralty Courts relating to any such Seizure.

Regulations to which Prize Agents are liable, extended to Bounties, &c. under this Act.

XVII. All the Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Forfeitures, and Penalties respecting the Delivery by Prize Agents of Accounts for Examination, and the Distribution of Prize Money, and the accounting for and paying over the Proceeds of Prize, and the Per-centage due thereon to Greenwich Hospital, shall be and are hereby extended to all Bounties and Proceeds to be distributed under the Provisions of this Act to the Officers and Crews of any of Her Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War.

Where illegal Detention made, Treasury may award Compensation.

XVIII. Where any illegal Visit and Detention, or any Visit and Deention without sufficient Cause of Suspicion, or any Abuse or Vexation, shall have taken place and have been made by any Officer of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, as is mentioned in the Eighth Article of the said Treaty, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to direct Payment to be made out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland of any Costs and Damages which may be duly awarded, according to the Provisions of the said Article: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall exempt such Officer from his Liability to make good the Payments so made, when lawfully called upon by Order of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Where Judgment shall be given against the Seizor, or the Seizure shall be relinquished, the Treasury may direct Payment of the Seizor's Costs,

XIX. When any Seizure shall be made by any of the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships authorized to make Seizures under the aforesaid Treaty, and Judgment shall be given against the Seizor, or such Seizure shall be relinquished by him, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, if to their Discretion it shall seem meet, by Warrant, to direct Payment to be made out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland of such Costs and Expenses as the said Seizor may have incurred in respect of such Seizure, or any proportionate Part thereof.

C A P. XVIII.

An Act to authorize Advances out of the Consolidated Fund to discharge Monies borrowed on the Security of the Land Revenues of the Crown for the Purpose of Metropolitan Improvements, and providing for the Payment of such Advances and of certain Monies charged on the London Bridge Approaches Fund. [9th May 1853.]

WHEREAS, in order to provide Monies for the Execution of certain Improvements in the Metropolis, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, herein-after called "The Commissioners of Woods," were authorized to charge, and did by virtue of divers Acts charge, various Funds (which for the Purposes of this Act are intended to be included under the Denomination of "The London Bridge Approaches Fund," and by that Term are hereby described,) with the Payment of certain Sums of Money, by way of Principal and Interest thereon; but inasmuch as the Funds so charged were then subject to certain prior Charges, the Commissioners of Woods were authorized to raise and did raise certain Monies by Mortgage of certain Hereditaments, Part of the Hereditary Land Revenues of the Crown, in order to obtain the Means of immediately effecting such Improvements, and such last-mentioned Monies were so applied; and with Part thereof certain Lands and Hereditaments were purchased for the Purposes of such Improvements, of which Lands a Part not being wanted now remains and is liable to be sold: And whereas the Money so borrowed on the Security of the said Land Revenues, and the Amount since paid for Interest thereon, out of the Income of the said Land Revenues, are to be repaid out of the Monies charged as aforesaid on the London Bridge Approaches Fund, and out of the Monies to arise from the Sale and the Income till Sale of the surplus Lands and Hereditaments purchased as aforesaid, and out of a Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds and Interest secured by Mortgage from the Westminster Improvement Commissioners, but subject to the Charges herein-after mentioned, and it is considered that such Means of Repayment will be ample for such Purpose; but inasmuch as the Monies charged on the London Bridge Approaches Fund are only payable out of the accruing Produce thereof, and the other Monies so applicable are not yet realized, it is expedient to make Provision for the Discharge, out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain and Ireland, of the Monies charged on the Hereditaments belonging to the Crown, and the Monies from Time to Time paid out of the Income of the Land Revenues for Interest as aforesaid: And whereas the Monies so charged on the London Bridge Approaches Fund were made subject to the Payment of the Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds and Interest, borrowed and advanced as directed by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twenty-four, to the Westminster Improvement Commissioners, and also of the said Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds and Interest, raised and lent to the Westminster Improvement Commissioners as aforesaid: And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fourth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Twelve, and by another Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and three, Two several Sums of Thirty thousand Pounds and Thirty thousand Pounds and Interest were directed to be paid out of the Monies charged on the London Bridge Approaches Fund, as in the said Acts is mentioned, towards certain Improvements in Southwark, but the same have not yet been paid: And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Forty-two, the said Hereditaments purchased by the Commissioners of Woods with the Monies so borrowed for the Purposes of such Improvements as aforesaid, and which were not wanted for the Purposes of the new Streets, are now vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings,

'ings, and their Successors, as incorporated by such Act, and ' herein-after called "The Commissioners of Works:"' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Power to Treasury to make Advances out of the Consolidated Fund to Commissioners of Works for the Purpose of paying off Principal and Interest of Sums charged on the Land Revenues.

I. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and herein-after called "The Commissioners of the Treasury," shall make Advances, out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain and Ireland, to the Commissioners of Works, for the Purposes after mentioned, of any Monies not exceeding in the whole the Sum of One million two hundred and twenty thousand Pounds; that is to say,

Such Monies as shall be sufficient to pay all Monies which at the passing of this Act may have been paid or advanced out of the Income of the Land Revenues for the Payment of any Part of the Interest of the Monies so borrowed on the Security of the Land Revenues as aforesaid, the said Monies to be paid by the Commissioners of Works to the Commissioner of Woods having charge of the Land Revenues so charged as aforesaid, and to be by him carried to the Account of the Income of the Land Revenues of the Crown; and also such further Sum as shall be sufficient to pay and keep down all Interest to become due after the passing of this Act on the Principal Sums charged on the Land Revenues as aforesaid till the said Principal Monies shall be discharged; also such Monies as shall be sufficient to discharge the Principal Monies charged on the Land Revenues as aforesaid, such Monies so charged to be paid off according to such Priorities and at such Times as the Commissioners of the Treasury shall direct, so as that all such Principal Monies shall be discharged by the Means aforesaid within Two Years from the passing of this Act.

On Payment of Principal and Interest the Land Revenues to be released therefrom, and reconveyed.

II. Such Monies for the Discharge of the Principal Monies, and also such further Sums as shall be sufficient to pay and keep down all Interest to become due on such Principal Monies after the passing of this Act, shall be paid to the Commissioners of Works, to be applied in discharge of the said Principal Monies and Interest charged on the said Land Revenues; and on the Payment of any such Principal Monies and Interest as aforesaid the Land Revenues which were so charged with the Payment thereof shall be released therefrom, and reconveyed to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors.

Charges on the London Bridge Approaches Fund to be paid to Commissioners of Works, and carried to Consolidated Fund.

III. All the Monies so charged on the said London Bridge Approaches Fund as aforesaid, after paying the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, and Thirty thousand Pounds so borrowed and lent to the Westminster Improvement Commissioners as aforesaid, and Interest thereon as aforesaid, or so much as shall remain unpaid at the passing of this Act, shall be paid to the Commissioners of Works, and shall be paid by them into the Bank of England to the Account of the said Consolidated Fund, freed and discharged from all the said Monies directed to be paid or retained thereout in respect of the Southwark Improvements aforesaid.

Parties to account.

IV. The Parties liable to pay over the said London Bridge Approaches Fund so charged as aforesaid shall account to the Commissioners of Works for the same until all Monies charged thereon thereon shall be paid in all respects as may be directed by the Commissioners of the Treasury.

V. The said Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds and Interest so secured by the Westminster Improvement Commissioners shall from the passing of this Act be vested in the Commissioners of Works so incorporated as aforesaid, and their Successors, with full Power to call in and compel Payment thereof, and the said Monies, when received, shall be by them paid into the Bank of England to the Account of the said Consolidated Fund.

Sum due from the Westminster Improvement Commissioners vested in Commissioners of Works, &c.

VI. The Commissioners of Works shall sell, when and as the said Commissioners of the Treasury may direct, all the said Lands and Hereditaments so vested in them as aforesaid, and which were purchased in the Formation of the said Improvements as aforesaid, and not used for such Streets as aforesaid.

Property in Line of new Streets to be sold.

VII. The Commissioners of Works, with Consent of the Commissioners of the Treasury, till Sale, may lease, and may perform and compel the Performance of any Agreement for Sale or for Lease already entered into, and may recover all Rents and Monies due on any Contract or otherwise in respect of the said Hereditaments, in all respects as they might have done if this Act had not passed.

Until Sale the Commissioners of Works may let, and compel Performance of Covenants, &c.

VIII. The Commissioners of Works may sell, lease, or agree to lease, under any special Conditions as to Title, and may alter or rescind any existing or future Contract for Sale or for a Lease, and shall not be bound to prove that any Act hereby authorized to be done by them was done with the Assent of the Commissioners of the Treasury.

Commissioners of Works to sell, &c. subject to special Conditions as to Title.

IX. All Monies to arise from any Sale as aforesaid, or in respect of any Lease granted or to be granted, or to be received on rescinding any Contract, or in respect of any Damages or Penalty, and all Rents and Profits of the said Hereditaments due or to become due after the passing of this Act till sold, or in the Hands of the Commissioners of Works at the passing of this Act, in respect of any Sales or Rents or Profits of the said Hereditaments, or in respect of Interest on the Charges on the London Bridge Approaches Fund, shall be paid by the Commissioners of Works into the Bank of England to the Account of the said Consolidated Fund.

Monies arising from Sales, &c. to go to Consolidated Fund.

X. The Receipts of the First Commissioner of Works, or of any Two of the said Commissioners of Works, for all Monies payable to the Commissioners of Works under the Provisions of this Act, shall be sufficient Discharges to the Parties paying the same.

Receipts of Commissioners to be sufficient Discharges.

XI. Inasmuch as the whole of the said Monies so charged on the London Bridge Approaches Fund as aforesaid are hereby directed to be paid to the Account of the Consolidated Fund freed from the said Monies directed to be paid in respect of the Southwark Improvements, and the Interest thereof, the Commissioners of the Treasury shall, out of the Consolidated Fund, immediately after the passing of this Act, pay unto the Commissioners of Works such a Sum of Money as, under the Provisions of the aforesaid Acts, shall be payable for Principal and Interest in respect of the said Two Sums of Thirty thousand Pounds and Thirty thousand Pounds provided for the Southwark Improvements, and as if the same were then applicable and payable for such Improvements;

Principal and Interest provided for the Southwark Improvements to be invested in Government Securities until required for Improvements.

ments ; and such Monies shall be applied for such Improvements as aforesaid, according to the Provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act hereafter to be passed, and as if the said Monies were payable under the Provisions of the said Acts ; and such Monies, until required for the Purposes aforesaid, shall be invested by the Commissioners of Works either in the Purchase of Exchequer Bills, or in the Purchase of Three per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, or of some other of the Public Stocks or Funds of Great Britain, as the Commissioners of Works, with Consent of the Commissioners of the Treasury, shall determine, and such Stocks, Funds, or Exchequer Bills shall be sold when required for the Purposes of the aforesaid Improvements : Provided nevertheless, that in case, under the Provisions of the aforesaid Acts or of any other Act to be hereafter passed, the said Monies shall not be applicable or required for the Purposes of the Southwark Improvements within Seven Years from the passing of this Act, the said Exchequer Bills, Funds, or Stock, as the Case may be, shall be sold, and the Proceeds paid to the Account of the Consolidated Fund ; and the Income of the said Exchequer Bills, Funds, or Stock, until applicable as aforesaid, shall from Time to Time be invested as is herein-before provided as to the Principal Monies by way of Accumulation, and the Produce of such Investment applied as the Monies to arise from the first-mentioned Investment shall be applicable.

If not required within Seven Years the Securities to be sold, and the Produce paid to Consolidated Fund.

First or any Two Commissioners may act.

Annual Accounts to be presented to Parliament.

Short Title.

XII. All Acts hereby authorized to be done by the Commissioners of Works may be done by the First Commissioner of Works for the Time being, or by any Two of the said Commissioners of Works.

XIII. An annual Account of the Receipts and Disbursements of the Consolidated Fund under the Authority of this Act, made up to the First of January in each Year, shall be submitted by the Commissioners of the Treasury to both Houses of Parliament within Three Calendar Months after the Meeting of Parliament in every Year, specifying the Sources from which each Receipt has been derived.

XIV. It shall be sufficient for all Purposes to cite this Act as "The Metropolitan Improvements (Repayment out of Consolidated Fund) Act, 1853."

C A P. XIX.

An Act to amend an Act of the Fifteenth Year of Her present Majesty (New Forest Deer Removal), as regards the Publication of Claims and the preferring and delivering Objections thereto. [9th May 1853.]

WHEREAS divers Claims in, over, or upon the New Forest have been preferred and delivered to the Verderers of the said Forest, pursuant to the Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Victoria, Chapter Seventy-six, and such Claims exceed One thousand two hundred in Number, and an Abstract thereof has been published in the London Gazette as by the said Act is provided, and due Notice has been given by Advertisement that Copies of such Abstract as printed in the London Gazette may be

' be obtained on Application to the Clerk of the Verderers and others, but from the great Length and Number of such Claims it was found that the Publication of such Abstract in Two or more Newspapers of the County of Southampton, as directed by the said Act, would have entailed a very large and unnecessary Expense, to prevent which, and to afford further Time to make Objections to such Claims, and also to complete the Register of Claims and Objections as directed by the said Act, and for other the Purposes after mentioned, it is necessary that the same should be amended as follows: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

I. That so much of the said Act as directs that an Abstract of the said Claims shall be published for Two consecutive Weeks in some Two or more of the Newspapers usually published or circulated in the County of Southampton shall be and the same is hereby repealed in all respects as if such Direction had not been contained in the said Act, and the not having published such Abstract in such Newspapers as aforesaid shall in nowise prejudice the Claims made or the Right of objecting thereto.

II. That the Time for holding the First Meeting of the Verderers to receive Objections to such Claims as aforesaid shall be some Day, to be appointed by the said Verderers, within Six Calendar Months from the Twenty-fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, being the Date of the Insertion of the Abstract of such Claims in the London Gazette, anything in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding; and all Objections made before the Expiration of the Day to be appointed by the Verderers in pursuance of this Act for the receiving such Objections shall be as effectual as if made in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Act; and any Duplicate of an Objection to a Claim, if delivered at the Abode of the Claimant or his Agent as by the said Act is provided Seven Days at least before the Day of the Delivery of such Objections to the Verderers at an adjourned Meeting for receiving such Objections, shall be as valid as if such Duplicate had been delivered at least Seven Days before the First Meeting of the said Verderers to receive Objections to Claims; and it shall be lawful for any One or more of the Verderers, or for their Clerk in the Absence of the Verderers, if thereunto required by or on behalf of Her Majesty or of any Person interested, to adjourn the Meeting for receiving such Objections from Time to Time; provided always, that the last of such adjourned Meetings shall be held on some Day not later than the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

III. That the Time for completing the Register of Claims and Objections by the Verderers as by the said Act is provided shall be and is hereby extended to the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

C A P. XX.

An Act to alter and amend an Act of the Fifteenth Year of Her present Majesty for amending the Law of Evidence in Scotland. [9th May 1853.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

§ 2. of
15 & 16 Vict.
c. 27. repealed;
and so much of § 1. as to Agents in Actions not being Witnesses.

As to Examination of Witnesses, whether named in the Record or not.

I. The Second Section of the Act of the Fifteenth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter Twenty-seven, is hereby repealed.

II. So much of the First Section of the said Act as provides that "it shall not be competent to adduce as a Witness in any Action or Proceeding any Person who shall at the Time when he is so adduced as a Witness be acting as Agent in the Action or Proceeding in which he is so adduced, excepting in so far as the same may be competent by the existing Law and Practice of Scotland," is hereby repealed.

III. It shall be competent to adduce and examine as a Witness in any Action or Proceeding in Scotland any Party to such Action or Proceeding, or the Husband or Wife of any Party, whether he or she shall be individually named in the Record or Proceeding or not; but nothing herein contained shall render any Person, or the Husband or Wife of any Person, who in any Criminal Proceeding is charged with the Commission of any indictable Offence, or any Offence punishable on summary Conviction, competent or compellable to give Evidence for or against himself or herself, his Wife or her Husband, excepting in so far as the same may be at present competent by the Law and Practice of Scotland, or shall render any Person compellable to answer any Question tending to criminate himself or herself, or shall in any Proceeding render any Husband competent or compellable to give against his Wife Evidence of any Matter communicated by her to him during the Marriage, or any Wife competent or compellable to give against her Husband Evidence of any Matter communicated by him to her during the Marriage.

This Act not to apply to Cases of Adultery, &c.

IV. Nothing herein contained shall apply to any Action, Suit, or Proceeding instituted in Scotland in consequence of Adultery, or for dissolving any Marriage, or for Breach of Promise of Marriage, or in any Action of Declarator of Marriage, Nullity of Marriage, putting to Silence, Legitimacy, or Bastardy, or in any Action of Adherence or Separation.

Adducing of Party as a Witness not to have Effect of Reference to his Oath.

V. The adducing of any Party as a Witness in any Cause or Proceeding by the adverse Party shall not have the Effect of a Reference to the Oath of the Party so adduced: Provided always, that it shall not be competent to any Party who has called and examined the opposite Party as a Witness thereafter to refer the Cause or any Part of it to his Oath, and that in all other respects the Right of Reference to Oath shall remain as at present established by the Law and Practice of Scotland.

Not to affect Authority of Courts as to Judicial Examination.

VI. Nothing herein contained shall alter or affect the Authority or Practice of the Courts in Scotland as to Judicial Examination.

An Act to authorize the Legislature of the Province of Canada to make Provision concerning the Clergy Reserves in that Province, and the Proceeds thereof.

[9th May 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS the Act of the Session of Parliament holden in the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-eight, provides for the Sale of the Lands called Clergy Reserves in the Province of Canada, and for the Distribution of the Proceeds thereof; and it is expedient that the Legislature of the said Province should be enabled to make further Provisions in relation to such Reserves and Proceeds:’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

I. It shall be lawful for the Legislature of the Province of Canada, from Time to Time, by any Act or Acts to be for that Purpose made and enacted in the Manner and subject to the Conditions required by the Act of the said Session of Parliament holden in the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, Sections Thirty-seven, Thirty-eight, and Thirty-nine, in respect of Acts made and enacted by such Legislature, to vary or repeal all or any of the Provisions of the said first-mentioned Act of Parliament for or concerning the Sale, Alienation, and Disposal of the said Clergy Reserves, and for or concerning the Investment of the Proceeds of all Sales then made or thereafter to be made of such Reserves, and for or concerning the Appropriation and Application of such Proceeds and Investments, the Interest and Dividends thereof, the Interest accruing on Sales on Credit of such Reserves, the Rent of such Reserves for the Time being unsold, and all other the Profits of or accruing from such Reserves, and (notwithstanding the said first-mentioned Act of Parliament) to make such other Provisions for or concerning the Sale, Alienation, or Disposal of the said Clergy Reserves and such Investments as aforesaid, and for or concerning the Appropriation and Application of such Clergy Reserves, Proceeds, Investments, Interest, Dividends, Rents, and Profits, as to the said Legislature may seem meet.

II. Provided, That it shall not be lawful for the said Legislature, by any Act or Acts thereof as aforesaid, to annul, suspend, or reduce any of the annual Stipends or Allowances which have been already assigned and given to the Clergy of the Churches of England and Scotland, or to any other Religious Bodies or Denominations of Christians, in Canada, (and to which the Faith of the Crown is pledged,) during the natural Lives or Incumbencies of the Parties now receiving the same, or to appropriate or apply to any other Purposes such Part of the said Proceeds, Investments, Interest, Dividends, Rents, and Profits as may be required to provide for the Payment of such Stipends and Allowances during such Lives and Incumbencies.

3 & 4 Vict.
c. 78.

Power to the Legislature of Canada to alter the Appropriation of Clergy Reserves and the Proceeds thereof, and to make such other Provisions as shall seem meet.

The said Legislature not authorized to interfere with existing Interests.

sioners for Reduction of the National Debt.

of England and Ireland respectively, and of the said South Sea Company, of the Amount of Three Pounds per Centum Annuities which shall have been exchanged into such New Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities and Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities or Exchequer Bonds, or paid off under the Provisions of this Act, and of the annual Interest which shall have ceased thereby, and also of the Capital Amount of such New Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities and Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities created by such Exchange, and of the annual Interest thereon.

Bonds or Contracts to transfer the said 3l. per Cents to be deemed satisfied by Transfer of New 3l. 10s. per Cents or 2l. 10s. per Cents.

XXVI. In every Case in which any Person or Persons shall at the Time of the passing of this Act be or remain bound by the Condition of any Bond or Obligation, or by the Terms of any Instrument in Writing, or by any Agreement or Contract, to transfer any Amount of the said Capital Stocks of Old South Sea Annuities, New South Sea Annuities, Bank Annuities One thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, and Three Pounds per Centum Annuities One thousand seven hundred and fifty-one respectively, the Condition of such Bond or Obligation, or the Terms of such Instrument, Agreement, or Contract, shall, unless such Option and Notice be declared and given as herein-after provided, be deemed in Law and Equity to be satisfied by making a Transfer of such an Amount of Capital Stock, either in the New Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities or in the Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities created under this Act, as would upon an Assent by a Person entitled thereto be receivable in respect of such an Amount of the Capital Stock which under such Condition or Terms should be transferred; and where any Party is by the Condition of any such Bond or Obligation, or the Terms of any such Instrument in Writing, or Agreement or Contract, bound or required to pay half-yearly Sums equal to the Dividends on any specified Amount of any such Three Pounds per Centum Annuities respectively, every such Bond, Obligation, Instrument, Agreement, or Contract shall be satisfied by the Payment of half-yearly Sums equal to the Dividends of or upon such Amount of Capital Stock in the said New Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities as would upon an Assent by a Person entitled thereto be receivable in respect of such specified Amount of Three Pounds per Centum Annuities.

As to Payment of Dividends.

Lenders of 3l. per Cents re-deemed on Contract to replace may demand 100l. Money for every 100l. Stock.

XXVII. In every Case in which any of the said Old South Sea Annuities, New South Sea Annuities, Bank Annuities One thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, or Three Pounds per Centum Annuities One thousand seven hundred and fifty-one, shall have been transferred in the way of Loan, upon any Condition in any Bond or Instrument, or under or upon any Agreement or Contract, for the Repayment of such Loan, by the replacing the Amount of Stock so transferred, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons who shall have made any such Loan, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, to declare an Option, and give Notice thereof in Writing, and thereby require, but at the same Times and on the same Terms on which he might have required a Retransfer of the Stock so lent, the Repayment of One hundred Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain for every One hundred Pounds Capital Stock of such Annuities so transferred in the way of Loan as aforesaid, and so in proportion for any greater or less Amount; and every Bond, Obligation, Instrument, Agreement, or Contract given, entered into, or made upon any such Loan or Contract shall be deemed in every such Case in Law and in Equity to entitle the Person or Persons, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, to such Repayment in Money, and in the meantime to receive Interest according to the original Contract, and to demand and recover the same respectively in any Court in which any Action, Suit, Process, or Proceeding may be brought, instituted, or carried on upon any such Bond, Obligation, Instrument, Agreement, or Contract, anything in any such Bond or Obligation, Instrument, Agreement, or Contract, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXVIII. Every Power of Attorney in force at the Time of passing this Act for the Sale or Transfer of any of the said Old South Sea Annuities, New South Sea Annuities, Bank Annuities One thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, or Three Pounds per Centum Annuities One thousand seven hundred and fifty-one, in respect of which an Assent to accept other Securities may not have been signified under the Provisions of this Act, shall remain and continue in full Force, unless legally revoked for the Purpose of enabling the Attorney or Attornies therein named to give a legal Discharge for the Principal and Dividend of such Annuities, when paid off under the Provisions of this Act, or to assent to receive New Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, and Exchequer Bonds, or any of them, in lieu of the said Three Pounds per Centum Annuities; and all such Powers of Attorney deposited with the South Sea Company concerning any of the said Old South Sea Annuities, New South Sea Annuities, and Three Pounds per Centum Annuities One thousand seven hundred and fifty-one, shall, as soon as conveniently may be after Dividends thereon respectively shall cease to be payable, be transferred and delivered by the South Sea Company to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England.

XXIX. All Trusts, whether created by Will or otherwise, and which existed either in the whole or in part, and all Directions contained in any Will or Devise or testamentary Paper, which remain unexecuted at the Time of the passing of this Act, as to any Three Pounds per Centum Annuities which may under this Act be commuted into New Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities or Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, or as to the Payment or Distribution of any Dividends thereon, or as to the Transfer of any such Annuities in any Events specified in any such Trusts or Will or testamentary Paper, shall extend and be deemed and construed in all Cases, and in all Courts of Law and Equity in the United Kingdom or elsewhere in any Dominions or Territories belonging to Her Majesty, to extend and to apply to all such New Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities and Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities created in lieu of any Three Pounds per Centum Annuities subject to or affected by any such Trusts or Devises or Wills or testamentary Papers, for all Purposes and in all Cases in which such Trusts or to which any such Directions can be made Powers of Attorney for Sale or Transfer of 3l. per Cents redeemed to continue in force.

Trusts as to Stock commuted shall extend to newly created Stocks.

applicable: Provided always, that in all Cases in which any Proportions or Parts of any such Three Pounds per Centum Annuities are required to be transferred under any such Trusts, or under the Provisions of or Directions contained in any Will, Devise, or testamentary Paper, or any Proportion or Part of any Dividends arising from and out of any such Three Pounds per Centum Annuities, are required to be paid or distributed, the Transfer of an Amount of New Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities or Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, equivalent at the Rate of Commutation hereby authorized, and the Payment and Distribution of Dividends at the Rate of Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum and Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum, instead of Three Pounds per Centum, upon the Capital, shall be and be deemed and taken in all Courts and for all Purposes to be a due Execution of such Trusts, or of the Directions contained in any Will or testamentary Paper, and shall fully discharge the Trustee or Executor or Executors making the same, who are hereby declared to be and are hereby fully indemnified in respect of such Execution of any such Trusts and Executorship as aforesaid.

Questions as to Trusts arising on Commutations under this Act may be decided by Courts of Chancery in England or Ireland, or by the Court of Session in Scotland.

XXX. In every Case in which any Question may have arisen or may arise upon the Execution of any Trusts or upon any Distributions which may have been or may be made or may remain to be made by any Trustees, Executors, or Administrators of or in relation to or arising out of any such Three Pounds per Centum Annuities which may have been vested in any Trustees, or which may have been distributable by any Executors or Administrators, or as to the Application of any Residue thereof, or as to the Distribution or Application of any New Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities and Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities transferred under the Provisions of this Act, in lieu of any Annuities or Stock commuted hereunder, whether as to the Powers or Authorities of any such Trustees, Executors, or Administrators, or as to the relative Interest of any Persons entitled under any such Trusts or under Wills to receive any Annuities charged upon or arising or payable out of the Proceeds of any such Annuities or Stock, and of any Persons interested in any Residue of any of such Annuities or Stock, whether under any specific Provision relating to any such Trusts, or contained in any Wills, or arising out of the Execution of any Wills by any Executors, or the Distribution of any Estates by any Administrators, and in all other Cases whatsoever in which any Question may arise in consequence of Commutation under this Act, it shall be lawful for any such Trustees, Executors, or Administrators, and for Persons entitled to or interested in any Annuities or Stock extinguished or created under this Act, whether in reversion or otherwise, to make Application to the High Court of Chancery in England or to the High Court of Chancery in Ireland respectively, or to the Court of Session in Scotland, in a summary Way, either by Motion or Petition; and it shall be lawful for the said High Courts of Chancery in England or Ireland respectively, or for the Court of Session in Scotland, to make general Orders in relation to any such Question, or special Orders in a summary Way, upon any such Application, or as to any other Matter or Thing relating to any such Annuities or Stock, or to any Dividends thereof; and all Trustees, Executors, Administrators, and other Persons acting under any Orders made by any or either of such Courts respectively, or whose Acts shall be confirmed by any or either of such Courts respectively, if done before any Application made to any or either of the said Courts respectively, shall be and are hereby fully indemnified against all Actions, Suits, or Proceedings for or in respect of any Act, Matter, or Thing done by them respectively in pursuance of or under any such Order, or which shall be confirmed by any such Order; and in case any Action, Suit, or other Proceeding be commenced or instituted against any such Trustee, Executor, Administrator, or other Person, for or in respect of any such Act, Matter, or Thing, it shall be lawful for the Court in which such Action, Suit, or Proceeding shall be commenced or shall be pending, upon summary Application, to stay, and such Court is hereby required to stay, such Action, Suit, or Proceeding, and to make such Order relative to the Costs thereof as such Court shall think expedient.

XXXI. It shall and may be lawful for any Person who shall at any Time hold any Stock in the New Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities or Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities created by this Act, transferable at the Bank of Ireland, to transfer or cause to be transferred any such Annuities respectively, for the Purpose of having corresponding Sums written into and consolidated with and made Part of the Capital of the like Annuities respectively transferable at the Bank of England; and in like Manner it shall be lawful for any Person who shall at any Time hold any Stock in the said New Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities or in the Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities created by this Act, transferable at the Bank of England, to transfer or cause to be transferred any such Annuities respectively, for the Purpose of having corresponding Sums written into and consolidated with and made Part of the Capital of the like Annuities respectively transferable at the Bank of Ireland; and all such Transfers shall be made on the Terms and Conditions, and subject to all the Clauses, Directions, and Regulations contained in an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to permit the mutual Transfer of Capital in certain Public Stock or Funds transferable at the Banks of England and Ireland respectively, as the same is altered or affected by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to provide for the Assimilation of the Currency and Monies of Account throughout the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and all Clauses and Provisions of the said Acts relating to any Funds, Stocks, or Annuities shall extend and be construed to extend to the Annuities created by this Act, in like Manner as if the said Annuities had been specified in the said recited Acts or either of them.

XXXII. In respect of each Sum of One hundred and ten Pounds of Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities created under this Act, there shall be paid to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt on the Fifth Day of July in every Year, until and inclusive of the Fifth Day of July One thousand

This Act to be an Indemnity to Banks of England and Ireland and South Sea Company.

The Treasury may cause Exchequer Bonds to be issued.

Officers and Servants, and every of them, for all Things done or permitted to be done pursuant thereto, and that the same shall not be questioned or impeached in any Court of Law or Equity whatsoever to their Prejudice or Detriment.

XXXVII. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from Time to Time, between the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three and the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, by Warrant under their Hands, to cause or direct any Number of Exchequer Bonds for like Principal Sums, or different Sums not less in any Case than One hundred Pounds, bearing Interest, and conformable to the Terms and Provisions of this Act, to be made out at the Receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, for the Purposes of this Act, subject to the Limitation herein-after contained, which Exchequer Bonds, and the Interest accruing thereon respectively, shall be transferable by the Delivery of such Bonds, and of the Receipts or Certificates for accruing Interest thereon, which may be issued therewith under this Act respectively; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to provide for the Delivery to the Persons and Corporations entitled thereto of such Exchequer Bonds as may be due to them under the Commutation and Exchange by the Authority of this Act, or it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, after public Notice in the London Gazette, from Time to Time to sell such Exchequer Bonds or any Part thereof, and to apply the Proceeds in redeeming the Annuity or Interest payable on any Part of the said Trading or Capital Stock or Capital Stocks of Three Pounds per Centum Annuities to be paid off and redeemed, or in purchasing and cancelling any Exchequer Bills, or in exchanging such Bonds for Exchequer Bills, upon such Terms as the said Commissioners shall think proper, or in purchasing and cancelling any of the Consolidated Three Pounds per Centum Annuities or Reduced Three Pounds per Centum Annuities payable at the Bank of England or at the Bank of Ireland, as the Case may be: Provided always, that all Exchequer Bills which shall be purchased with the Proceeds of the Sale of any Exchequer Bonds, or taken in exchange for any Exchequer Bonds, under the Power herein-before contained, shall be cancelled, and no Exchequer Bills shall be issued in lieu of the Exchequer Bills so cancelled; and the Amount of Exchequer Bills which the Commissioners of the Treasury may be authorized to direct the Issue of at any One Time in pursuance of any Act of this Session of Parliament shall be diminished by the Amount of the Exchequer Bills which may be so cancelled as aforesaid.

Limitation of Amount of Exchequer Bonds to 30,000,000.

XXXVIII. The whole Amount of Principal Money to be secured by the Exchequer Bonds to be issued under the Authority of this Act shall not exceed the Sum of Thirty Millions: Provided always, that the said South Sea Company, and the Proprietors of the said Old South Sea Annuities, New South Sea Annuities, Bank Annuities One thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, and Three Pounds per Centum Annuities One thousand seven hundred and fifty-one, shall receive such an Amount of such Exchequer Bonds as they may be entitled to and claim under under the Terms of the Commutation or Exchange applicable to them respectively under this Act, in preference to the Proprietors desirous of commuting their Consolidated Three Pounds per Centum Annuities and Reduced Three Pounds per Centum Annuities respectively; and, subject to such Preference as aforesaid, such last-mentioned Proprietors shall be entitled, according to the Priority of Time of their respective Assents, to such Exchequer Bonds as may remain to be issued under the Authority of this Act, in the same Manner, as near as may be, as in the Case of Commutation into Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities under the Provisions herein contained.

XXXIX. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from Time to Time, subject to the Provisions herein contained, by Warrant under their Hands to prescribe and regulate the Method and Form in which Exchequer Bonds under this Act shall be made out and issued, and how and by what Officer or Officers such Exchequer Bonds may be signed or otherwise authenticated, and to provide for the Manner of Payment of the Interest accruing thereon, and for the Issue, if they think fit, of Receipts or Certificates of such Interest annexed to such Bonds or otherwise, and also to provide for the Issue of new Bonds in lieu of any such Bonds worn or defaced which may be delivered up to be cancelled, and for the Issue in lieu of such Exchequer Bonds as may be lost of new Bonds, at such Times, upon such Securities, and under such Conditions and Precautions as they may think fit, and generally to make such Regulations for the Safety and Convenience of the Holders of such Bonds, and the Payment of such Interest upon the Production or Delivery of such Receipts or Certificates, or otherwise, as they may think fit; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, by such Regulations as aforesaid, to provide for the Conversion of any such Bonds as may be delivered up to them by the Holders thereof for that Purpose into Bonds or other Securities for the like Amount of Principal Monies and Interest respectively, which shall be transferable by Entries in a Register which may be provided for that Purpose in such Manner and subject to such Conditions and Restrictions as the said Commissioners may see fit, and every such Warrant shall from Time to Time be published in the London Gazette.

XL. In case Proof shall be made, on the Oath or Oaths of One or more Witness or Witnesses, before the Lord Chief Baron and other the Barons of the Coif of Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer, or any of them, that any Exchequer Bond issued under this Act, and not redeemed, shall by Casualty or Mischance have been burnt or otherwise destroyed, and if by such Oath or Oaths the Numbers and Sums of such Bond or Bonds shall be ascertained, and the said Chief Baron and other Barons, or any of them, before whom such Oath or Oaths shall be made, shall certify that he or they are satisfied with such Proof, then and in every such Case the Commissioners of the Treasury are hereby authorized to cause another Bond or other Bonds of equal Amount to be issued, in lieu of such Bond or Bonds so burnt or destroyed; provided the Person or Persons so receiving such new Bond or Bonds do give Security to the Queen, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Treasury to regulate the Issue of Exchequer Bonds.

Relief in case Exchequer Bonds should be accidentally destroyed.

the Treasury, to deliver up to the Exchequer to be cancelled the Bond or Bonds so certified to be burnt or destroyed, if the same shall be thereafter found or produced, and to pay into the Receipt of the Exchequer, to the Use of the Public, all such Monies as shall have been paid out of the Exchequer as Principal or Interest on the new Bond or Bonds which may have been issued under this Provision.

Persons forging Exchequer Bonds, &c. guilty of Felony.

XLI. If any Person shall forge or alter, or shall offer, utter, dispose of, or put off, knowing the same to be forged or altered, any Exchequer Bond, or any Receipt or Certificate for Interest accruing thereon, issued under this Act, such Person shall be guilty of Felony, and upon Conviction thereof shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years nor less than Two Years.

Bank to continue a Corporation for Purposes of this Act until Annuities hereby granted are redeemed.

XLII. The said Governor and Company of the Bank of England and their Successors, notwithstanding the Redemption of all or any of their own Funds in pursuance of the Acts for establishing the same or any of them, shall continue a Corporation for the Purposes of this Act, until the Annuities by this Act granted shall be redeemed by Parliament as aforesaid; and the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or any Member thereof, shall not incur any Disability for or by reason of their doing any Matter or Thing in pursuance of this Act.

SCHEDULE.

WAKEFIELD.

Provisional Order for the Application of the Public Health Act to the Borough of Wakefield, in the County of York.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS it having been ascertained from the last Return, for the Time being, made up by the Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, that the annual Number of Deaths within the Boundaries of the Borough of Wakefield, in the County of York, as the same were fixed for the Purposes of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales," has on an Average of Seven Years exceeded during that Period the Proportion of Twenty-three to a Thousand of the Population of such Borough, the General Board of Health have, in pursuance of the Provisions of that Act, directed William Ranger, a Superintending Inspector, appointed for the Purposes of the said Act, to visit the said Borough, and to make public Inquiry, and to examine Witnesses as to the Sewerage, Drainage, and Supply of Water, the State of the Burial Grounds, the Number and sanitary Condition of the Inhabitants, and as to any Local Acts of Parliament in force within the said Borough for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with Water, or improving the said Borough, or having relation to the Purposes of the said Act; and also as to the natural Drainage Areas, and the existing municipal, parochial, or other local Boundaries, and the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the said Public Health Act.

And

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the Notices directed by the said Act, proceeded upon the said Inquiry, and hath reported in Writing to the said General Board upon the several Matters with respect to which he was directed to inquire, and upon certain other Matters in respect of which he deemed it expedient to report for the Purposes of that Act.

And whereas Copies of the said Report, accompanied by a Notice, stating that written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the said Public Health Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed, and all such Statements as have been received by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by the Act.

And whereas it appears upon such Report that there are certain Local Acts of Parliament in force within the said Borough, having relation to the Purposes of the said Public Health Act; (that is to say,

An Act passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the better paving, repairing, and cleansing the Streets, Lanes, Alleys, and other public Passages within that Part of the Town of Wakefield, in the County of York, which lies within the East End of Westgate Bridge, the South Side of Northgate Bar, the North End of Kirkgate Bridge (except so much thereof as is repaired by the West Riding of the said County of York), and the extreme Part of the Township of Wakefield aforesaid, leading from Wrengate towards East Moor; for preventing Nuisances and Annoyances therein, and for widening and rendering the same more commodious;" and also another Act passed in the Thirty-sixth Year of the same Reign, intituled "An Act for lighting and watching the Streets and other public Passages and Places within the Town of Wakefield, in the County of York, and for more effectually cleansing the same, and removing and preventing Obstructions, Nuisances, and Annoyances therein."

And whereas from such Report it appears that, although the Mortality of Wakefield is below that of some of the neighbouring Towns, it is still excessive, and that the real Cause of this excessive Mortality is to be found in the generally defective Nature of the existing sanitary Arrangements; that certain Localities contribute an undue Proportion of the Mortality of the whole Borough, and that in these Quarters there is the least Sewerage and Drainage, the largest Collection of offensive Refuse, and the scantiest Supply of Water; that the unsatisfactory Condition of the Borough in these respects may be accounted for by the defective Nature of the Local Acts, and the divided Jurisdiction exercised by the various public Bodies; that this divided Jurisdiction further causes unnecessary Expense, and effectually prevents the carrying out of general and comprehensive Measures; that the existing Water Supply requires Re-adjustment and Extension; that the present Sewerage and Drainage is much too limited in Extent, and that where Sewers or House Drains are laid down, they are, in many Cases, defective both in Construction and Arrangement; that the partial Provisions made for either Sewerage or House Drains have been carried out at various Periods and in various Ways, instead of on a combined and carefully arranged System, by which alone due Efficiency can be secured, and that the present Outfalls for the Sewage are also highly prejudicial to Health; that the present System of cleansing the Streets and removing the House Refuse is imperfect; that the existing Burial Grounds are insufficient, and some of them unfit to be longer used as Places of Interment; that many Portions of the Town are insufficiently lighted, particularly a great Number of the Courts and Lanes occupied by the poorer Classes; that it would be a Means of Health and Comfort to all, but particularly the poorer Classes of the Borough, if public Baths and Wash-houses were established.

And whereas it appears to the said General Board of Health to be expedient that the said Public Health Act, except as hereinafter mentioned, should be applied to the said Borough; and that Provision should be made with respect to the said Local Acts of Parliament, and the partial Repeal, Alteration, Extension, and further Execution thereof; but the same cannot be done without the Authority of Parliament.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the Power vested in the said Board by the Public Health Act, 1848, We the said General Board of Health, do, by this Provisional Order, under our Hands and Seal of Office direct:—

That from and after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order,—

1. In the Construction of this Order, and of the Sections of the several Acts of Parliament incorporated therewith, the same Meanings shall be assigned to certain Expressions which are assigned to them by the Section numbered 2 in the Copies of "The Public Health Act, 1848," printed by Her Majesty's Printer, unless such Meanings be repugnant to or inconsistent with the Context or Subject Matter in which such Expressions occur.
2. The "Public Health Act, 1848," and every Part thereof relating to Corporate Districts, except the Section numbered 50 in the Copies of that Act printed by Her Majesty's Printers, shall apply to the Area comprised within the Boundaries of the said Borough of Wakefield.
3. The Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said Borough shall be, by the Council of the said Borough, the Local Board of Health under the said Public Health Act.
4. Such Parts of the said Local Acts as are specified in the Schedule to this Order shall be repealed, except in so far as relates to anything done before the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, and except in so far as the same repeal any other Act or Acts of Parliament.
5. The Powers, Authorities, and Duties of the Commissioners for the Time being acting in execution of the said Local Acts.

Acts shall cease ; and such of them as are granted or imposed by the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Acts shall, so far as they are not repugnant to or inconsistent with the said Public Health Act, or this Order, or any Byelaw which shall be lawfully made under the said Public Health Act, be transferred to the said Local Board of Health, and the Officers and Servants of the said Local Board, and shall be exercised as if they had been granted or imposed by the said Public Health Act ; and for this Purpose the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Acts shall be incorporated with the said Public Health Act as applied to the said Borough, and all Places within the Limits of the said Borough shall be subject to the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Acts.

6. The said Local Board shall be the Commissioners for executing the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Acts.
7. All Property and Estate of the Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said Local Acts shall be transferred to the said Local Board of Health, and shall, as near as Circumstances will permit, be held by the said Local Board of Health upon the same Trusts, and for the same Purposes, as by such Commissioners.
8. All Debts, Monies, and Securities for Money contracted or payable by such Commissioners shall be satisfied by the said Local Board out of such Parts of the said transferred Property and Estate as would have been chargeable therewith if this Order had not been made ; and shall be paid and satisfied by the said Local Board, as by such Commissioners.
9. Provided always, that if such Property and Estate be insufficient for that Purpose, the Deficiency shall be charged upon the Rates leviable under the said Public Health Act, in the Parts only which would have been chargeable with such Deficiency if this Order had not been made.
10. Provided also, that if such Property and Estate be more than sufficient, the Surplus shall be applied to the exclusive Use of the same Parts and to the same Purposes as it would have been if this Order had not been made.
11. All Expenses which shall be incurred by the said Local Board of Health under the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Acts, and which shall not be defrayed out of Monies arising under such Local Acts, shall be deemed to be Expenses incurred by such Board under the said Public Health Act, and shall be defrayed out of the Rates under that Act (as the Nature of the Case may require) ; and the Monies necessary to be raised for the Purposes of such Local Acts may be raised as under the said Public Health Act.
12. The Sections of the Town Police Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to Obstructions and Nuisances in the Streets, and with respect to Fires, and with respect to Places of public Resort, and with respect to Hackney Carriages ; and the Sections of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to naming the Streets and numbering the Houses, and with respect to improving the Line of the Streets

Streets and removing Obstructions, and with respect to ruinous or dangerous Buildings, and with respect to Precautions during the Construction and Repair of Sewers, Streets, and Houses; and the Section with respect to the Prevention of Nuisances, numbered 104; and the Sections with respect to the Construction of Houses for Prevention of Fire; and the Sections with respect to supplying Buildings with fresh Air, numbered 110 and 111; and the Section with respect to Clocks; and so much of the Sections with respect to Things to be done by the Commissioners by special Order only, as relates to Baths and Wash-houses, except so much of the said last-mentioned Sections as requires any special Order in respect of the Matters contained therein, shall be incorporated with the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Acts, and with the said Public Health Act, as applied to the said Town, and any Act of Parliament confirming the same; and the Expression "the Special Act," used in the said Sections, shall be construed to mean the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Acts, and the said Public Health Act so applied; and the Expression "Limits of the Special Act," used in the same Sections, shall be construed to mean the District constituted by this Order, and any Act of Parliament confirming the same; and the Expression "the Commissioners," used in the said Sections, shall mean the said Local Board.

13. Provided always, that this Order, and the Repeal of the Parts of the said Local Acts mentioned in the Schedule thereto, shall not prejudicially affect anything done under those Acts before the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order; but notwithstanding this Order, and the Schedule thereto, all such Things shall be as valid with reference to the said Local Board of Health, as if the same had been done with reference to that Board, and may be dealt with in the same Manner, in all respects, as if they related to that Board, instead of such Commissioners.
14. Provided also, that this Order, and the Repeal of the Parts of the said Local Acts mentioned in the Schedule thereto, shall be without Prejudice to any Penalties incurred under the said Local Acts, but all such Penalties may be recovered by the said Local Board of Health according to the Provisions of this Order.

Given under our Hands and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this Twentieth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

Schedule to which this Order refers.

The Parts of the said Local Acts referred to in this Order to be repealed are as follows; (that is to say,)

All of the said Act of the Eleventh Year of the Reign of George 16 & 17 VICT. H the

the Third, except so much as excepts from Rates certain Property therein mentioned.

The Sections numbered respectively in the Copies of the said Act of the Thirty-sixth Year of the same Reign, printed by the King's Printers, 1 to 21, 23 to 35, all inclusive.

And so much of any unrepealed Part of the said Acts, or of any Act by this Order incorporated therewith or with the Public Health Act, 1848, as fixes the Amount of any Penalty for any Offence under any of the said Acts, wherever the Penalty for such Offence shall have been fixed by the Public Health Act, 1848, or by any Byelaw of the Local Board of Health, made under and by virtue of the said Public Health Act, at an Amount other than that fixed by any of the said first-mentioned Acts.

ELLAND.

Provisional Order for the Application of the Public Health Act to the District of Elland, in the County of York.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS the General Board of Health have, upon the joint Petition of not less than One Tenth of the Inhabitants rated to the Relief of the Poor of and within the Township of Elland-cum-Greeland, in the County of York, (the Number of the said Petitioners exceeding Thirty in the whole,) directed William Ranger, One of their Superintending Inspectors, to visit the said Township, and to make public Inquiry, and to examine Witnesses as to the Sewerage, Drainage, and Supply of Water, the State of the Burial Grounds, the Number and sanitary Condition of the Inhabitants, and as to any Local Acts of Parliament in force within the said Township for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with Water, or improving the said Township, or having relation to the Purposes of the said Act; also as to the natural Drainage Areas, and the existing parochial or other local Boundaries, and the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the said Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the Notices required by the said Act, proceeded upon the said Inquiry in the Manner directed by the said Act, and hath reported in Writing to the said General Board upon the several Matters with respect to which he was so directed to inquire as aforesaid, and upon certain other Matters in respect of which he deemed it expedient to report for the Purposes of the said Act.

And whereas Copies of the said Report, accompanied by a Notice, stating that, within the Time directed by the said Act, written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed; and all such Statements as have been received by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by that Act.

And

And whereas it having appeared to the said General Board that the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the Act were not the same as those of the said Township with respect to which the said Inquiry had been made, the said Board caused the said William Ranger to visit the Parts within the Boundaries proposed to be adopted for the Purposes of the said Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, after having given such Notice as is required by the said Act, did hear all Persons desirous of being heard before him on the Subject of the said Report, and did make further Inquiry and report according to the Directions of the said Board.

And whereas Copies of such further Report, accompanied by a Notice, stating that, within the Time directed by the said Act, written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said last-mentioned Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed; and all such Statements as have been received by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by that Act.

And whereas it appears to the said General Board to be expedient that the said Public Health Act, except as herein-after mentioned, should be applied to so much of the said Township as is included within the Boundaries described in the Schedule to this Order, being the same as the Boundary Line coloured Yellow in the Map accompanying the said First Report of the said William Ranger, and being the same within which the said Inquiry and further Inquiry have been made; but the same cannot be done without the Authority of Parliament.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the Powers vested in the said Board by the Public Health Act, 1848, We, the said General Board of Health, do, by this Provisional Order under our Hands and Seal, direct:—

That from and after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming the present Order,—

1. The Public Health Act, except the Section numbered 50 in the Copies of that Act printed by Her Majesty's Printers, shall apply to the Area comprised within so much of the said Township of Elland-cum-Greetland as is contained within the Yellow Line referred to as "proposed Boundary" in the Plan annexed to the said First Report of the said William Ranger, and described in the Schedule to this Order annexed.
2. The Local Board of Health for the said District shall consist of Nine Persons, and that the entire Number shall be elected for the whole of the said District.
3. One Third in Number of the Persons so elected shall go out of Office on the Twenty-fifth Day of March in each Year subsequent to that of the First Election of the said Local Board.
4. Every Person shall, at the Time of his Election as Member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in Office by virtue of such Election, be resident, as in the Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seized and possessed of Real or Personal Estate, or both, to the Value or Amount of not less than Three hundred Pounds, or shall be so resident and rated to the Relief of the Poor of some Parish, Township, or Place of which some Part is within the said District, upon an annual Value of not less than Seven Pounds Ten Shillings.

5. At the First Election of the said Local Board, David Meredith, Clerk, shall have the Powers and perform the Duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting the said First Election; and in case the said David Meredith, from Illness or other sufficient Cause, shall be unable to discharge such Duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then George Bayldon Baker, Esq. shall perform such of those Duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.
6. The Fourteen Days Notice of Qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by Owners of Property in order to entitle them to vote at the said First Election shall be given to the said David Meredith, at his Residence, Calder Cottage, within the aforesaid District of Elland; or in case he shall refuse or be unable to receive the same, then to the said George Bayldon Baker, at his Residence, South House, likewise within the District of Elland aforesaid.

Given under our Hands and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this Ninth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

Schedule.

The following is the Description of the Boundary of the District of Elland referred to in the above Order :

The Boundary of the District of Elland-cum-Greetland, in the Parish of Halifax, in the West Riding of the County of York, (as marked by a Yellow Line drawn on the Plan of the Township of Elland, prefixed to the First Report on Elland-cum-Greetland, made by Mr. Ranger to the General Board of Health, and dated 25th July 1851, and described on that Plan as the "proposed Boundary,") commences at an Angle formed by the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway and a Line running Southwards and coinciding with the Fence which forms the Western Boundary of a Field the Property of the Reverend J. Dine, and numbered on the Plan of the said Township 884 and 883, and thence taking a circuitous Direction to the North-west, and terminated at the North-west Extremity of a Field No. 882, and thence directly South to a Junction with the Road leading to Elland Lower Edge, meeting it at the North-east Corner of a Field No. 774, and thence along the North Fence of this Field; it then takes a direct Western Direction to the North-west Corner of a Field

Field numbered 783, the Property of Messrs. Sunderlands, along the North Fence of a Field No. 795, belonging to the said Parties; thence it continues a Westward Course to Canker Dyke, and meeting at the North-west Corner of a Field No. 793, the Property of Messrs. C. and A. Pitchforth, and turning Southwards to the North-west Corner of a Field No. 629, the Property of Mr. Jno. Hamerton, takes a North-westerly Direction to the Northern Extremity of a Field No. 622, the Property of Mr. David Garsed; it then bends again Southward to its Junction with the Halifax and Huddersfield Turnpike Road, meeting at the North-west Angle of a Field No. 621, and passing Southwards on the West Side of the Turnpike Road, diverts to a South-western Direction from the North-east Corner of a Field No. 593, to the East Corner of a Field No. 584, the Property of Mrs. Langdale; it thence continues on the North Fence of the said Fields numbered respectively 584 and 583, to the Northern Corner of a Field No. 601, the Property of Mr. Vickers; then turning in a North-eastern Direction along the Fence of a Field No. 602, the Property of the Executors of the late Mr. John Milner, runs on the Eastern Fence of the said Field to its Junction with South Lane, at the North-eastern Extremity of the said Field; thence it takes a Western Direction along the North Side of South Lane to the South-eastern Extremity of a Field No. 202, running along the Eastern Fence of the last said Field and half way on the Eastern Fence of the Field No. 203, turning to the South-eastern Corner of a Field No. 204, the Property of Mrs. Langdale, and continuing on the Eastern Fence of the said Field, and afterwards successively on the Eastern and Northern Fence of a Field No. 205, it turns directly North along Cross Lane to its Junction with Townfield Lane, at the North-eastern Angle of a Field No. 206, the Property of the Earl of Scarborough; it thence runs directly West on the North Side of the said Townfield Lane to the South-eastern Angle of a Field No. 260, and turns directly North along the Eastern Fence of the last said Field, and along the Eastern Fence of a Field No. 154, crossing the Road leading from Elland to Hullen Edge, at the North-east Corner of the said Field No. 154, continuing in the same Northern Direction across the Elland and Rochdale Turnpike Road, and across the Elland and Saddleworth Turnpike Road, and crossing a Field about the Middle of No. 152, called Pike Purse, the Property of Sir Joseph Radcliff, to the Middle of the River Calder; thence taking an Eastern Direction along the Middle of the said River Calder, it turns Northwards at the Eastern Extremity of the Property belonging to the Reverend John Ashworth, and runs across Bridge Field, the Property of the Earl of Scarborough, No. 983; then crosses the Calder and Hebble Navigation Company's Canal, and running across a Field called Long Lees and No. 990, the Property of the Earl of Scarborough, crosses the Halifax and Huddersfield Turnpike Road, running up to the Eastern Fence of Elland Wood, and continuing to the South-eastern Corner of a Field No. 1,046, the Property of the Earl of Scarborough; then turning Eastward along the South Fence of a Field No. 1,044, to its Junction with Exley Lane, it continues on the East Side of Exley Lane to its Junction with the Halifax and Wakefield Turnpike Road; thence running on the North Side of the said Halifax and Wakefield Turnpike Road to the North-eastern Side of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway, it continues on the North-eastern Side of the said Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway as far as the Western Fence of the Property of the Reverend J. Dine, Nos. 883 and 884 on the said Township Plan first described.

WALLASEY.

Provisional Order for the Application of the Public Health Act, 1848, to the District of Wallasey, in the County of Chester.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the Public Health Act, 1848, the General Board of Health, upon the joint Petition of not less than One Tenth of the Inhabitants rated to the Relief of the Poor of and within the Township of Poulton-cum-Seacombe, in the Parish of Wallasey, in the County of Chester, (the Number of the said Petitioners exceeding Thirty in the whole,) directed Robert Rawlinson, One of their Superintending Inspectors, to visit the said Township, and to make public Inquiry, and to examine Witnesses as to the Sewerage, Drainage, and Supply of Water, the State of the Burial Grounds, the Number and sanitary Condition of the Inhabitants, and as to any Local Acts of Parliament in force within the said Township for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with Water, or improving the said Township, or having relation to the Purposes of the said Act; also as to the natural Drainage Areas, and the existing parochial or other local Boundaries, and the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the said Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the Notices required by the said Act, proceeded upon the said Inquiry in the Manner directed by the said Act, and hath reported in Writing to the said General Board upon the several Matters with respect to which he was so directed to inquire as aforesaid, and upon certain other Matters in respect of which he deemed it expedient to report for the Purposes of the said Act.

And whereas Copies of the said Report, accompanied by a Notice, stating that, within the Time directed by the said Act, written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed, and all such Statements as have been received by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by that Act.

And whereas it having appeared to the said General Board that the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the said Act were not the same as those of the said Township with respect to which the said Inquiry had been made, the said Board caused the said Robert Rawlinson to visit the Parts within the Boundaries proposed to be adopted for the Purposes of the said Act.

And

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, after having given such Notice as is required by the said Act, did hear all Persons desirous of being heard before him on the Subject of the said Report, and did make further Inquiry and Report according to the Directions of the said Board.

And whereas Copies of such further Report, accompanied by a Notice, stating that, within the Time directed by the said Act, written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed, and all such Statements as have been received by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by that Act.

And whereas it appears upon such Reports that there is a certain Local Act in force within the said Township having relation to the Purposes of the said Public Health Act, that is to say,

An Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled " An Act for paving, lighting, watching, cleansing, and otherwise improving the Parish of Wallasey, in the County of Chester ; and for establishing a Police, and also a Market, within the said Parish ; and for other Purposes."

And whereas it appears to the said General Board to be expedient that the said Public Health Act should be applied to a District included within the same Boundaries as those of the herein-before recited Local Act, subject to the Extension hereafter mentioned, being the Boundaries within which the said Inquiry and further Inquiry have been made, and that Provision should be made in respect to the said Local Act of Parliament, and the Repeal, Alteration, Extension, and future Execution thereof ; but the same cannot be done without the Authority of Parliament.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the Powers vested in the said Board by the Public Health Act, 1848, We, the said General Board of Health, do, by this Provisional Order under our Hands and official Seal, direct, That from and after the Day appointed for the First Election of the Local Board of Health by any Act of Parliament confirming this Order :—

1. The Public Health Act, and every Part thereof, except the Sections numbered 50 and 109 in the Copies of that Act printed by Her Majesty's Printers, shall apply to the Area comprised within the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners under the herein-before recited Local Act, and to the Strand or Shore between High and Low Water Mark of the Irish Sea, bounding such Part of the said Area as is in the Township of Wallasey, subject to any Rights of the Crown therein ; and such Area so extended shall constitute a District called the Wallasey District, for the Purposes of the said Public Health Act.
2. The Local Board of Health shall consist of Fifteen Persons, of whom Six shall be elected by the Owners of and Rate-payers in respect of Property in the Township of Poultoncum-Seacombe, Six by the Owners of and Ratepayers in respect of Property in the Township of Liscard, and the remaining Three by Owners of and Ratepayers in respect of Property in the Township of Wallasey.

3. One Third in Number of the said Local Board shall go out of Office on the Day next after the Expiration of a Year from the Day appointed by Parliament for the First Election of the said Local Board, and so on annually; so that Two of the Members elected for the Townships of Poulton-cum-Seacombe and Liscard respectively, and One of the Members elected for the Township of Wallasey, shall go out every Year.
4. Every Person shall, when elected, and while he continues a Member of the said Local Board, be resident, as in the Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be possessed of Real or Personal Estate, or both, to the Amount of not less than One thousand Pounds, or shall be so resident and rated to the Relief of the Poor of the said Parish, or of some Township or Place of which some Part is within the said District, upon an annual Value of not less than Thirty Pounds.
5. At the First Election of the said Local Board, Isaac Penny, Esquire, of Poulton-cum-Seacombe, within the aforesaid District of Wallasey, shall perform the Duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting the said First Election; and in case the said Isaac Penny, from Illness or other sufficient Cause, shall be unable to discharge such Duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then Henry Pooley, Esquire, of Liscard, likewise within the District of Wallasey aforesaid, shall perform such of the said Duties as then remain to be performed.
6. The Fourteen Days Notice of Qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by Owners of Property in order to entitle them to vote at the said First Election shall be given to said Isaac Penny, at his Dwelling House in Poulton-cum-Seacombe, within the aforesaid District of Wallasey; or in case he shall refuse or be unable to receive the same, then to the said Henry Pooley, at his Dwelling House in Liscard, likewise within the District of Wallasey aforesaid.
7. The Parts of the said Local Act specified in the Schedule to this Order shall be repealed, except in so far as the same repeal any other Act or Acts of Parliament.
8. All the Powers of the Commissioners under the said Local Act shall cease, and those of their Officers shall cease from the Time appointed by Order under the Hands and Seal of Office of the said Local Board.
9. Such of the said Powers as are granted by the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Act shall, so far as the same are not repugnant to or inconsistent with the said Public Health Act, or this Order, or any Byelaw lawfully made under the said Public Health Act, be transferred to the said Local Board of Health, and the Officers of the said Local Board, and shall be exercised in the same Manner as if such Powers had been granted by the said Public Health Act.

10. The said Local Board shall be the Commissioners for executing the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Acts. And they shall have the like Powers of nominating and electing out of their own Body Persons to be Trustees of the Birkenhead Docks, under the Provisions of an Act of the 11th and 12th Vict. c. 141., intituled "An Act to amend the several Acts relating to the Birkenhead Commissioners " Docks, and to transfer the several Powers of the said " Commissioners to a Corporate Body to be entitled the " Trustees of the Birkenhead Docks, and for other Pur- " poses," as are thereby vested in the Commissioners under the said Local Act.
11. The Provisions (except as aforesaid) of the said Public Health Act may, whenever practicable, be applied to anything which shall arise under the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Act, and such unrepealed Parts shall be incorporated with the said Public Health Act.
12. All Property and Estate whatsoever of the Commissioners under the said Local Act shall be transferred to the said Local Board of Health, and shall be held by them upon the the same Trusts and for the same Purposes as by such Commissioners.
13. All Debts, Monies, and Securities for Money, contracted or payable by such Commissioners, shall be satisfied by the said Local Board out of such Parts of the said transferred Property and Estate as would have been chargeable therewith if this Order had not been made, and shall be paid and satisfied by the said Local Board as by such Commissioners.
14. Provided always, that if such Property and Estate be insufficient, the Deficiency shall be charged upon the Rates leviable under the said Public Health Act, in the Parts only which would have been chargeable with such Deficiency if this Order had not been made.
15. Provided also, that if such Property and Estate be more than sufficient, the Surplus shall be applied to the Use of the same Parts and to the same Purposes as it would have been if this Order had not been made.
16. All Expenses which shall be incurred by the said Local Board of Health under the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Act, and not defrayed out of the Monies arising under that Local Act, shall be deemed to be Expenses incurred under the said Public Health Act, and shall be defrayed out of the Rates under that Act (as the Nature of the Case may require); and the Monies necessary to be raised for the Purposes of such Local Act may be raised as under the said Public Health Act.
17. The Sections of the Towns Police Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to—

The Appointment and the Powers, Duties, and Privileges of Constables ;

And

- And Obstructions and Nuisances in the Streets, and Fires, and Places of public Resort, and Hackney Carriages;
 And with respect to public Bathing;
 And the Sections of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to—Naming the Streets and numbering the Houses, and improving the Line of the Streets and removing Obstructions;
 And ruinous or dangerous Buildings;
 And Precautions during the Construction and Repair of Sewers, Streets, and Houses;
 And the Section with respect to the Prevention of Nuisances, numbered 104;
 And the Sections with respect to the Prevention of Smoke;
 And the Sections with respect to the Construction of Houses for Prevention of Fire;
 And the Sections with respect to supplying Buildings with fresh Air, numbered 110 and 111;
 And Clocks;
 And so much of the Sections with respect to Things to be done by the Commissioners by Special Order only, as relate to Baths and Wash-houses, except so much of the said last-mentioned Sections as requires any Special Order in respect to the Matters contained therein;
 And the Sections of the Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the Construction of the Market or Fair and the Works connected therewith, except so much thereof as relates to Lands taken compulsorily;
 And the holding of the Market or Fair, and the Protection thereof;
 And Slaughter-houses;
 And with respect to weighing Goods and Carts;
 And Stallages, Rents, and Tolls;
 And Byelaws;

Shall be incorporated with so much of the said Local Act as remains unrepealed by this Order, and with the said Public Health Act, as applied to the said Town by this Order, and any Act of Parliament confirming the same; and the Expression "the Special Act," used in the said Sections, shall be construed to mean the unrepealed Part of the said Local Act, and the said Public Health Act so applied; and the Expression "Limits of the Special Act," used in the same Sections, shall be construed to mean the District constituted by this Order; and the Expression "the Commissioners," used in the said Sections, shall mean the said Local Board.

18. The said Local Board may exercise with regard to Horses, Mules, or Asses let for Hire the same Powers as to the licensing of the Owners, Drivers, or Persons attending upon the same, and as to their Regulation, and for imposing Penalties

Penalties upon such Persons, as they are empowered to exercise in the Case of Hackney Carriages and the Drivers thereof.

19. Provided always, that this Order, and the Repeal of the Parts of the said Local Act mentioned in the Schedule thereto, shall not prejudicially affect anything done under that Act before the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, but notwithstanding this Order and the Schedule thereto, all such Things shall be as valid, with reference to the said Local Board of Health, as if the same had been done with reference to that Board, and may be dealt with in the same Manner in all respects as if they related to that Board instead of such Commissioners.
20. Provided also, that this Order, and the Repeal of the Parts of the said Local Act mentioned in the Schedule thereto, shall be without Prejudice to any Penalties incurred under that Act, but all such Penalties may be recovered by the said Local Board of Health, according to the Provisions of this Order.

Given under our Hands and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this Ninth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

Schedule to which this Order refers.

The parts of the Local Act referred to in this Order to be repealed are as follows ; that is to say,

The Sections numbered respectively in the Copies of the said Act printed by the Queen's Printers, 1 to 5, 7 to 16, all inclusive ; 18 to 62, 64 to 68, 70 to 83, 90 to 117, 119 to 141, 143 to 152, 157 to 165, 172 to 181, 183 to 186, 189 to 191, and 199 to 235, all inclusive ; so much of 236 and 237 as relates to Drivers of Hackney Carriages ; 238, 239, so much of 240, 242, and 243 as relates to Drivers of Hackney Carriages ; 241, 244, 245, except so much as provides for the Regulation of Loads, Rates, Fares, and Prices of Errand, Message, or Luggage Porters, and their Behaviour and Conduct, and the Punishment of the same ; 247 to 250, 252 to 255, 258 to 277, 281 to 292, 295 to 299, 301 to 323, all inclusive ; 325, 326, and 328.

And so much of any unrepealed Part of the said Act as fixes the Amount of any Penalty for any Offence under the said Act, wherever the Penalty for such Offence is fixed by the Public Health Act, or any Act hereby incorporated therewith, or by any Byelaw of the Local Board of Health, at an Amount other than that fixed by the said Local Act.

DUDLEY.

Provisional Order for the Application of the Public Health Act, 1848, to the Parish of Dudley, in the County of Worcester.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS it having been ascertained from the last Return for the Time being, made up by the Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, that the annual Number of Deaths within the Boundaries of the Parish of Dudley has on the Average of Seven Years exceeded the Proportion of Twenty-three to a Thousand of the Population of such Parish, the General Board of Health directed William Lee, One of their Superintending Inspectors, to visit the said Parish, and to make public Inquiry, and to examine Witnesses, as to the Sewerage, Drainage, and Supply of Water, the State of the Burial Grounds, the Number and sanitary Condition of the Inhabitants, and as to any Local Acts of Parliament in force within the said Parish for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with Water, or improving the said Parish, or having relation to the Purposes of the said Act; also as to the natural Drainage Areas, and the existing parochial or other local Boundaries, and the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the said Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the Notices required by the said Act, proceeded upon the said Inquiry in the Manner directed by the said Act, and hath reported in Writing to the said General Board upon the several Matters with respect to which he was so directed to inquire as aforesaid, and upon certain other Matters in respect of which he deemed it expedient to report for the Purposes of the said Act.

And whereas Copies of the said Report, accompanied by a Notice, stating that, within the Time directed by the said Act, written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed, and no such Statements have been received by the said Board.

And whereas it appears upon such Report that there is a certain Local Act in force within the said Parish having relation to the Purposes of the said Public Health Act, that is to say,

An Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving, cleansing, lighting, watching, and otherwise improving the Town of Dudley, in the County of Worcester, and for better supplying the said Town with Water."

And whereas from such Report it appears that the official Registers show an excessive Rate of Mortality in the Parish, and that the Health of the Parish would be much improved by proper Supplies of Water for domestic and sanitary Purposes; by efficient Drainage of Houses and Courts; by the Abolition of open Cess-pools, pools, and the Substitution of Soil-pan Apparatus, with Water for carrying off House Refuse; by better paving and cleansing of Streets, Courts, and Alleys; and that such Improvements may be carried out with great pecuniary Saving to the Inhabitants.

And whereas it appears to the said General Board to be expedient that the said Public Health Act should be applied to the said Parish, and that Provision should be made in respect to the said Local Act of Parliament, and the Repeal, Alteration, Extension, and future Execution thereof; but the same cannot be done without the Authority of Parliament.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the Powers vested in the said Board by the Public Health Act, 1848, We, the said General Board of Health, do, by this Provisional Order under our Hands and official Seal, direct, That from and after the Day appointed for the First Election of the Local Board of Health by any Act of Parliament confirming this Order :—

1. The Public Health Act, and every Part thereof, except the Section numbered 50 in the Copies of that Act printed by Her Majesty's Printers, shall apply to the Parish of Dudley, in the County of Worcester.
2. The Local Board of Health for the said Parish shall consist of Fifteen Persons, all of whom shall be elected for the whole of the said Parish.
3. One Third in Number of the said Local Board shall go out of Office on the Day next after the Expiration of a Year from the Day appointed by Parliament for the First Election of the said Local Board, and so on annually.
4. Every Person shall, when elected, and while he continues a Member of the said Local Board, be resident as in the Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be possessed of Real or Personal Estate, or both, to the Amount of not less than One thousand Pounds, or shall be so resident and rated to the Relief of the Poor of the said Parish, or of some Township or Place of which some Part is within the said District, upon an annual Value of not less than Thirty Pounds.
5. At the First Election of the said Local Board, the Reverend James Caulfeild Browne, D.C.L., Vicar of Dudley, shall perform the Duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting the said First Election; and in case the said James Caulfeild Browne, from Illness or other sufficient Cause, shall be unable to discharge such Duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then Joseph Green Bourne, Esq., Solicitor, Dudley, shall perform such of the said Duties as then remain to be performed.
6. The Fourteen Days Notice of Qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by Owners of Property in order to entitle them to vote at the said First Election shall be given to the said James Caulfeild Browne, at his Residence, the Vicarage, Dudley; or in case he shall refuse or be unable to receive the same, then to the aforesaid Joseph Green Bourne, at his Residence, likewise within the District of Dudley aforesaid.

7. The

7. The Parts of the said Local Act specified in the Schedule to this Order shall be repealed, except in so far as relates to any Exemptions from Rates contained therein, and except so far as the same repeal any other Act or Acts of Parliament.
8. All the Powers of the Commissioners under the said Local Act shall cease, and those of their Officers shall cease, from the Time appointed by Order under the Hands and Seal of Office of the said Local Board.
9. Such of the said Powers as are granted by the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Act shall, so far as the same are not repugnant to or inconsistent with the said Public Health Act, or this Order, or any Byelaw lawfully made under the said Public Health Act, be transferred to the said Local Board of Health, and the Officers of the said Local Board, and shall be exercised in the same Manner as if such Powers had been granted by the said Public Health Act.
10. The said Local Board shall be the Commissioners for executing the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Acts.
11. The Provisions (except as aforesaid) of the said Public Health Act may, whenever practicable, be applied to anything which shall arise under the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Act, and such unrepealed Parts shall be incorporated with the said Public Health Act, and shall be extended to the whole of the said Parish.
12. All Property and Estate whatsoever of the Commissioners under the said Local Act shall be transferred to the said Local Board of Health, and shall be held by them upon the same Trusts and for the same Purposes as by such Commissioners.
13. All Debts, Monies, and Securities for Money, contracted or payable by such Commissioners, shall be satisfied by the said Local Board out of such Parts of the said transferred Property and Estate as would have been chargeable therewith if this Order had not been made, and shall be paid and satisfied by the said Local Board as by such Commissioners.
14. Provided always, that if such Property and Estate be insufficient, the Deficiency shall be charged upon the Rates leviable under the said Public Health Act, in the Parts only which would have been chargeable with such Deficiency if this Order had not been made.
15. Provided also, that if such Property and Estate be more than sufficient, the Surplus shall be applied to the Use of the same Parts and to the same Purposes as it would have been if this Order had not been made.
16. All Expenses which shall be incurred by the said Local Board of Health under the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Act, and not defrayed out of the Monies arising under that Local Act, shall be deemed to be Expenses incurred under the said Public Health Act, and shall be defrayed out of the Rates under that Act (as the Nature of the Case may require); and the Monies necessary to be raised raised for the Purposes of such Local Act may be raised as under the said Public Health Act.

17. Provided always, that this Order, and the Repeal of the Parts of the said Local Act mentioned in the Schedule thereto, shall not prejudicially affect anything done under that Act before the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, but notwithstanding this Order and the Schedule thereto, all such Things shall be as valid, with reference to the said Local Board of Health, as if the same had been done with reference to that Board, and may be dealt with in the same Manner in all respects as if they related to that Board instead of such Commissioners.
18. Provided also, that this Order, and the Repeal of the Parts of the said Local Act mentioned in the Schedule thereto, shall be without Prejudice to any Penalties incurred under that Act, but all such Penalties may be recovered by the said Local Board of Health, according to the Provisions of this Order.

Given under our Hands and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this Twenty-second Day of November, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

Schedule to which this Order refers.

The Parts of the Local Act referred to in this Order to be repealed are as follows; that is to say:—

The Sections numbered respectively in the Copies of the said Act printed by the King's Printers, 1 to 12, both inclusive; 14, 15, 31 to 51, both inclusive.

And so much of any unrepealed Part of the said Act as fixes the Amount of any Penalty for any Offence under the said Act, wherever the Penalty for such Offence is fixed by the Public Health Act, or any Act hereby incorporated therewith, or by any Byelaw of the Local Board of Health, at an Amount other than that fixed by the said Local Act.

BARNSLEY.

Provisional Order for the Application of the Public Health Act, 1848, to the District of Barnsley, in the County of York.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the Public Health Act, 1848, the General Board of Health, upon the joint Petition of not less than One Tenth of the Inhabitants rated to the Relief of the Poor of and within the Township of Barnsley, in the County of York, (the Number of the said Petitioners exceeding Thirty in the whole,) directed William Ranger, One of their Superintending Inspectors, to visit the said Township, and to make public Inquiry, and to examine Witnesses, as to the Sewerage, Drainage, and Supply of Water, the State of the Burial Grounds, the Number and sanitary Condition

Condition of the Inhabitants, and as to any Local Acts of Parliament in force within the said Township for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with Water, or improving the said Township, or having relation to the Purposes of the said Act; also as to the natural Drainage Areas, and the existing parochial or other local Boundaries, and the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the said Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the Notices required by the said Act, proceeded upon the said Inquiry in the Manner directed by the said Act, and hath reported in Writing to the said General Board upon the several Matters with respect to which he was so directed to inquire as aforesaid, and upon certain other Matters in respect of which he deemed it expedient to report for the Purposes of the said Act.

And whereas Copies of the said Report, accompanied by a Notice, stating that, within the Time directed by the said Act, written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed, and all such Statements as have been received by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by that Act.

And whereas it appears upon such Report that there is a certain Local Act in force within the said Township having relation to the Purposes of the said Public Health Act, that is to say,

An Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for lighting, paving, cleansing, watching, and improving the Town of Barnsley, in the West Riding of the County of York."

And whereas it appears to the said General Board to be expedient that the said Public Health Act should be applied to the said Township, and that Provision should be made in respect to the said Local Act of Parliament, and the Repeal, Alteration, Extension, and future Execution thereof; but the same cannot be done without the Authority of Parliament.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the Powers vested in the said Board by the Public Health Act, 1848, We, the said General Board of Health, do, by this Provisional Order under our Hands and official Seal, direct,

That from and after the Day appointed for the First Election of the Local Board of Health by any Act of Parliament confirming this Order:—

1. The Public Health Act, and every Part thereof, except the Section numbered 50 in the Copies of that Act printed by Her Majesty's Printers, shall apply to the said Township.
2. The Local Board of Health shall consist of Eighteen Persons, to be elected for the whole of the said Township.
3. One Third in Number of the said Local Board shall go out of Office on the Day next after the Expiration of a Year

Year from the Day appointed by Parliament for the First Election of the said Local Board, and so on annually.

4. Every Person shall, when elected, and while he continues a Member of the said Local Board, be resident, as in the Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be possessed of Real or Personal Estate, or both, to the Amount of not less than One thousand Pounds, or shall be so resident and rated to the Relief of the Poor of the said Township, or of some Township or Place of which some Part is within the said District, upon an annual Value of not less than Thirty Pounds. ;
5. At the First Election of the said Local Board, William Harrison Peacock, of Barnsley, Solicitor, shall perform the Duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting the said First Election ; and in case the said William Harrison Peacock, from Illness or other sufficient Cause, shall be unable to discharge such Duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then the Clerk for the Time being to the Guardians of the Poor for the Union of Barnsley, in the said County of York, shall perform such of the said Duties as then remain to be performed.
6. The Fourteen Days Notice of Qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by Owners of Property in order to entitle them to vote at the said First Election shall be given to the said William Harrison Peacock, at his Office in Barnsley ; or in case he shall refuse or be unable to receive the same, then to the said Clerk to the said Union, at his Office in Barnsley aforesaid.
7. The Parts of the said Local Act specified in the Schedule to this Order shall be repealed, except in so far as the same repeal any other Act or Acts of Parliament.
8. All the Powers of the Commissioners under the said Local Act, and those of their Officers and Servants, shall wholly cease.
9. Such of the said Powers as are granted by the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Act shall, so far as the same are not repugnant to or inconsistent with the said Public Health Act, or this Order, or any Byelaw lawfully made under the said Public Health Act, be transferred to the said Local Board of Health, and the Officers of the said Local Board, and shall be exercised in the same Manner as if such Powers had been granted by the said Public Health Act.
10. The said Local Board shall be the Commissioners for executing the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Act.
11. The Provisions (except as aforesaid) of the said Public Health Act may, whenever practicable, be applied to anything which shall arise under the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Act, and such unrepealed Parts shall be incorporated with the said Public Health Act, and shall extend to the whole of the said Township.
12. All Property and Estate whatsoever of the Commissioners under the said Local Act shall be transferred to the said Local Board of Health, and shall be held by them upon the same Trusts and for the same Purposes as by such Commissioners.

13. All Debts, Monies, and Securities for Money, contracted or payable by such Commissioners, shall be satisfied by the said Local Board out of such Parts of the said transferred Property and Estate as would have been chargeable therewith if this Order had not been made, and shall be paid and satisfied by the said Local Board as by such Commissioners.
14. Provided always, that if such Property and Estate be insufficient, the Deficiency shall be charged upon the Rates leviable under the said Public Health Act, in the Parts only which would have been chargeable with such Deficiency if this Order had not been made.
15. Provided also, that if such Property and Estate be more than sufficient, the Surplus shall be applied to the Use of the same Parts and to the same Purposes as it would have been if this Order had not been made.
16. All Expenses which shall be incurred by the said Local Board of Health under the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Act, and not defrayed out of the Monies arising under that Local Act, shall be deemed to be Expenses incurred under the said Public Health Act, and shall be defrayed out of the Rates under that Act (as the Nature of the Case may require); and the Monies necessary to be raised for the Purposes of such Local Act may be raised as under the said Public Health Act.
17. The Sections of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to—

Naming the Streets, and numbering the Houses ;
 Improving the Line of the Streets, and removing Obstructions ;
 Ruinous or dangerous Buildings ;
 Precautions during the Construction and Repair of the Sewers, Streets, and Houses ;
 The Abatement of Nuisances, numbered 104, 105, and 106 ;
 The Prevention of Smoke ;
 The Construction of Houses for the Prevention of Fire ;
 The supplying Buildings with fresh Air ;
 Public Bathing Places and Drying Grounds, except so much thereof as requires any Special Order for doing anything contained therein ;
 Clocks :

And also the Sections of Towns Police Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to—

The Appointment, Powers, Duties, and Privileges of Constables ; Obstructions and Nuisances in the Streets ;
 Fires ; Places of Public Resort ;
 Hackney Carriages ;
 Byelaws :

And

And (in the event of the Purchase by the said Local Board acting as Commissioners in the Execution of the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Act, of Market and Fair Rights, and other Matters and Things pertaining thereto under the 74th Section of the said Local Act) the Sections of the Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the Construction of the Market or Fair and the Works connected therewith, except so much thereof as relates to Lands taken compulsorily; and the holding of the Market or Fair, and the Protection thereof;

And Slaughter-houses,

And weighing Goods and Carts,

And Stallages, Rents, and Tolls,

And Byelaws;

Shall be incorporated with so much of the said Local Act as remains unrepealed by this Order, and with the said Public Health Act, as applied to the said Township by this Order, and any Act of Parliament confirming the same; and the Expression "the Special Act," used in the said Sections, shall be construed to mean the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Act, and the said Public Health Act so applied; and the Expression "Limits of the Special Act," used in the same Sections, shall be construed to mean the District constituted by this Order; and the Expression "the Commissioners," used in the said Sections, shall mean the said Local Board.

18. Provided always, that this Order, and the Repeal of the Parts of the said Local Act mentioned in the Schedule to this Order, shall not prejudicially affect anything done under that Act before the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, but notwithstanding this Order and the Schedule thereto, all such Things shall be as valid, with reference to the said Local Board of Health, as if the same had been done with reference to that Board, and may be dealt with in the same Manner in all respects as if they related to that Board instead of such Commissioners.

19. Provided also, that this Order, and the Repeal of the Parts of the said Local Act mentioned in the Schedule hereto annexed, shall be without Prejudice to any Penalties incurred under that Act, but all such Penalties may be recovered by the said Local Board of Health, according to the Provisions of this Order.

Given under our Hands and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this Ninth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

The Sections numbered respectively in the Copies of the said Act printed by the Queen's Printers, 1 to 34, 37 to 39, 43 to 60, all inclusive; 61, 62, 65 to 73, 75 to 92, 94 to 96, and 99 to 141, all inclusive.

And so much of any unrepealed Part of the said Act as fixes the Amount of any Penalty for any Offence under the said Act, wherover the Penalty for such Offence is fixed by the Public Health Act, or any Act hereby incorporated therewith, or by any Byelaw of the Local Board of Health, at an Amount other than that fixed by the said Local Act.

DORCHESTER.

Provisional Order for the Application of the Public Health Act to the Borough of Dorchester, in the County of Dorset.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS it having been ascertained from the last Return, for the Time being, made up by the Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, from the Deaths registered in a Period of not less than Seven Years, to wit, the Period commencing the First Day of September in the Year of our Lord 1838 and ending on the Thirty-first Day of August in the Year of our Lord 1844, that the Number of Deaths annually within the Boundaries of the Four Parishes of All Saints, St. Peter, Holy Trinity, and Fordington, in the County of Dorset, within which is situate the Borough of Dorchester, has on an Average exceeded during that Period the Proportion of Twenty-three to a Thousand of the Population of such Parishes, the General Board of Health have directed Robert Rawlinson, One of their Superintending Inspectors, to visit the said Parishes, and to make public Inquiry, and to examine Witnesses as to the Sewerage, Drainage, and Supply of Water, the State of the Burial Grounds, the Number and sanitary Condition of the Inhabitants, and as to any Local Acts of Parliament in force within the said Parishes, for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with Water, or improving the said Parishes, or having relation to the Purposes of the said Act; and also as to the natural Drainage Areas, and the existing municipal, parochial, or other local Boundaries, and the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the said Public Health Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the Notices directed by the said Act, proceeded upon the said Inquiry in the Manner directed by the said Act, and hath reported in Writing to the said General Board upon the several Matters with respect to which he was directed to inquire, and upon certain other Matters in respect of which he deemed it expedient to report for the Purposes of that Act.

And whereas Copies of the said Report, accompanied by a Notice, stating that written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the Public Health Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements

ments has now elapsed, and no such Statements have been received by the said Board.

And whereas it having appeared to the said General Board that the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the said Act were not the same as those of the said Town with respect to which the said Inquiry had been made, the said Board caused the said Robert Rawlinson to visit the Parts within the Boundaries proposed to be adopted for the Purposes of the said Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, after having given such Notice as is required by the said Act, did hear all Persons desirous of being heard before him on the Subject of the said Report, and did make further Inquiry and Report according to the Directions of the said Board.

And whereas Copies of such further Report, accompanied by a Notice, stating that, within the Time directed by the said Act, written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed, and no such Statements have been received by the said Board.

And whereas it appears upon such Report and further Report, that there is a certain Local Act of Parliament in force within the said Parishes, having relation to the Purposes of the said Public Health Act, (that is to say,

An Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for better paving, cleansing, lighting, watching, watering, and otherwise improving the Streets and other public Passages and Places within the Borough of Dorchester, in the County of Dorset, and the Tithing of Colliton Row, in the Town of Dorchester aforesaid."

And whereas the said Parishes wholly include the Municipal Borough of Dorchester, as the Boundaries thereof were fixed for the Purposes of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales."

And whereas, on such Report and further Report, it appears that in the said Borough epidemic, endemic, and contagious Diseases prevail, and the average Mortality is excessive; that the local governing Bodies of the Borough are limited as to the Area of their Jurisdiction, and deficient as to Power; that there is no proper System of Sewers nor Drains; that Streets are unpaved and in a dirty Condition; that lighting in the Suburbs is not so general as it ought to be for Safety and Comfort; that Streets are confined, Yards are without adequate Means of Ventilation, and that many of the Houses and Room Tenements inhabited by the Poor are in a most neglected, wretched, and filthy Condition; that Immorality, Dissipation, Disease, and Pauperism are the Consequences; that there is a high Rate of Mortality; and that the Cost to the Ratepayers consequent upon such a State is excessive; that there are many Middens crowded upon Dwelling Houses, and even under Sleeping Rooms; that the Graveyards yards are unduly crowded; that better Arrangements for paving, cleansing, and regulating the Streets should be made; that more stringent Regulations for the slaughtering of Cattle and Sheep will be an Advantage; that Power to close objectionable Dwellings and Room Tenements is needed, as also to regulate Common Lodging Houses; that Power to erect Baths, Wash-houses, and Model Lodging Houses may be exercised for the general Benefit of the Ratepayers.

And whereas for all these Reasons it appears to the said General Board of Health to be expedient that the said Public Health Act, except as herein-after mentioned, should be applied to the said Borough; and that Provision should be made with respect to the said Local Act of Parliament, and the partial Repeal, Alteration, Extension, and further Execution thereof; but the same cannot be done without the Authority of Parliament.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the Power vested in the said Board by the Public Health Act, 1848, We, the said General Board of Health, do, by this Provisional Order under our Hands and Seal of Office, direct:—

That from the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order,—

1. In the Construction of this Order, and of the Sections of the several Acts of Parliament incorporated therewith, the same Meanings shall be assigned to certain Expressions which are assigned to them in and by the Section numbered 2 in the Copies of "The Public Health Act, 1848," printed by Her Majesty's Printer, unless such Meanings be repugnant to or inconsistent with the Context or Subject Matter in which such Expressions occur.
2. So much of "The Public Health Act, 1848," as relates to Corporate Districts shall apply to the Area comprised within the Boundaries of the said Borough of Dorchester.
3. The Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said Borough shall be, by the Council of the said Borough, the Local Board of Health for the District hereby constituted.
4. The Parts of the said Local Act specified in the Schedule to this Order shall be repealed, except in so far as relates to any Matter or Thing done before the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, and except in so far as the same repeal any other Act or Acts of Parliament.
5. The Powers of the Commissioners for the Time being acting in execution of the said Local Act, and of their Officers, shall cease; and such of them as are granted by the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Act shall, so far as the same are not repugnant to, or inconsistent with, the said Public Health Act, or this Order, or any Byelaw which shall be lawfully made under the said Public Health Act, be transferred to the said Local Board of Health, and such of the Officers of the said Local Board as shall be appointed in that Behalf under the said Public Health Act, and shall be exercised in the same Manner, as nearly as may be, as if such Powers had been granted by the said Public Health Act.

6. The

6. The said Local Board shall be the Commissioners for executing the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Act.
7. All Property and Estate whatsoever of the Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said Local Act shall be transferred to the said Local Board of Health, and shall, as near as Circumstances will permit, be held by the said Local Board upon the same Trusts, and for the same Purposes, as by such Commissioners.
8. All Debts, Monies, and Securities for Money, payable by such Commissioners, shall be satisfied by the said Local Board within the same Times as they would have been by such Commissioners, out of such Parts of the said transferred Property and Estate as would have been chargeable in respect of the same if this Order had not been made.
9. Provided always, that if such Property and Estate be insufficient, the Deficiency shall be charged upon the Rates leviable under the said Public Health Act in the Parts only which would have been chargeable with such Deficiency if this Order had not been made.
10. Provided also, that if such Property and Estate be more than sufficient, the Surplus shall be applied to the Parts and Purposes to which the same would have been applied if this Order had not been made.
11. All Expenses which shall be incurred by the said Local Board of Health under the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Act, and not defrayed out of the Monies arising under such Local Act, shall be deemed to be Expenses incurred under the said Public Health Act, and shall be defrayed out of the Rates leviable under that Act (as the Nature of the Case may require); and the Monies necessary to be raised for the Purposes of such Local Act may be raised as under the said Public Health Act; and the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Act shall be incorporated with the said Public Health Act, and shall extend to all Parts comprised within the Boundaries of the said Borough.
12. The Sections of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to naming the Streets and numbering the Houses, and with respect to improving the Line of the Streets and removing Obstructions, and with respect to ruinous or dangerous Buildings, and with respect to Precautions during the Construction and Repair of the Sewers, Streets, and Houses, and the Sections with respect to the Abatement of Nuisances, numbered 104, 105, and 106 in the Copies of the said Act printed by the Queen's Printers, and the Sections with respect to the Prevention of Smoke, and with respect to the Construction of Houses for the Prevention of Fire, and with respect to supplying Buildings with fresh Air, and with respect to Clocks; and the Sections of the Towns Police Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to Obstructions and Nuisances in the Streets, and with respect to Fires, and with respect to Places of public Resort, shall be incorporated with so much of the said

Local Act as remains unrepealed by this Order, and with the said Public Health Act, as applied to the said Borough by this Order, and any Act of Parliament confirming the same; and the Expression "the Special Act," used in the said Sections, shall be construed to mean so much of the said Local Act as remains unrepealed, and the said Public Health Act so applied as aforesaid; and the Expression "Limits of the Special Act," used in the same Sections, shall be construed to mean the District constituted by this Order, and any Act of Parliament confirming the same; and the Expression "the Commissioners," used in the said Sections, shall mean the said Local Board.

13. Provided always, that this Order, and the Repeal of the Parts of the said Local Act mentioned in the Schedule thereto, shall not prejudicially affect anything done under the said Local Act before the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order; but all such Things shall be as valid with reference to the said Local Board as if the same had been done with reference to that Board instead of the Commissioners acting in execution of the said Local Act, and may be dealt with as if that Board, instead of such Commissioners, had been referred to therein.
14. Provided also, that this Order, and the Repeal of the Parts of the said Local Act mentioned in the Schedule, shall be without Prejudice to any Penalties incurred under the said Local Act, but all such Penalties may be enforced and recovered by the said Local Board of Health according to the Provisions of this Order.

Given under our Hands, and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this Ninth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

Schedule to which this Order refers.

The Parts of the said Local Act referred to in this Order to be repealed are as follows:—

The Sections numbered respectively in the Copies of the said Act, printed by the King's Printers, 1 to 26, 31 to 36, 38 to 65, 67 to 74, all inclusive.

And so much of any unrepealed Part of the said Act, or of any Act by this Order incorporated therewith, or with the Public Health Act, 1848, as fixes the Amount of any Penalty for any Offence under any of the said Acts, wherever the Penalty for such Offence shall have been fixed by the Public Health Act, 1848, or by any Byelaw of the Local Board of Health made under the said Public Health Act, at an Amount other than that fixed by any of the said first-mentioned Acts.

WELSHPOOL.

Provisional Order for the Application of the Public Health Act to the District of Welshpool, in the County of Montgomery.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Public Health Act, 1848, the General Board of Health, appointed for the Purposes of the said Act have, upon the Petition of not less than One Tenth of the Inhabitants rated to the Relief of the Poor of and within the Boundaries of the Parish of Pool, in the County of Montgomery, (the Number of the said Petitioners greatly exceeding Thirty in the whole,) directed George Thomas Clark, a Superintending Inspector, appointed for the Purposes of the said Act, to visit the said Parish, and to make public Inquiry, and to examine Witnesses as to the Sewerage, Drainage, and Supply of Water, the State of the Burial Grounds, the Number and sanitary Condition of the Inhabitants, and as to any Local Acts of Parliament in force within such Parish for paying, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with Water, or improving the said Parish, or having relation to the Purposes of the said Act; also as to the natural Drainage Areas, and the existing municipal, parochial, or other local Boundaries, and the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the said Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the Notices directed by the said Act, proceeded upon the said Inquiry in the Manner directed by the said Act, and hath reported in Writing to the said General Board upon the several Matters with respect to which he was so directed to inquire as aforesaid, and upon certain other Matters in respect to which he deemed it expedient to report for the Purposes of the said Act.

And whereas, it having appeared to the said General Board upon such Report that the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the said Act were not the same as those of the said Parish, the said General Board, in further pursuance of the said Act, caused the same Superintending Inspector (after having given the Notices required by the said Act in that Behalf) to visit the Parts within the Boundaries proposed to be adopted for the Purposes of the said Act, to hear all Persons desirous of being heard before him upon the Subject of the said Report, and to make further Inquiry and Report to the said Board thereon.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the Notices directed by the said Act in this Behalf, proceeded upon the said further Inquiry in the Manner required by the said Act, and hath made a further Report, as directed by the said General Board.

And whereas it appears to the said General Board to be expedient that the said Act, except as herein-after provided, should be applied to such Parts of the Parish of Pool and the adjoining Parish of Guilsfield as are respectively comprised within the dotted Line referred to and described as "proposed Boundary,"

Boundary," on the Plan appended to and forming Part of the said further Report of the said Superintending Inspector, the same being entirely included within the Boundaries of the Municipal Borough of Pool or Welshpool, as fixed for the Purposes of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to provide for the Regulation of "Municipal Corporations in England and Wales;" but the same cannot be done without the Authority of Parliament, by reason that the Boundaries to be adopted for the Purposes of the said Act are not the same as those of the Place from whence the said Petition proceeded.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the Power vested in the said Board by the said Act, We, the General Board of Health appointed for the Purposes of the said Act, do, by this Provisional Order under our Hands and Seal of Office, order and direct:—

1. That from and after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this present Order, the Public Health Act and every Part thereof, except the Section numbered 50 in the Copies of that Act printed by Her Majesty's Printers, shall apply to and be in force within and throughout the entire Area, Places, and Parts of Places comprised within the dotted Boundary Line on the aforesaid Plan, and the entire Area, Places, and Parts of Places within so much of the Parishes of Pool and Guilsfield as is contained within the dotted Boundary Line on the aforesaid Plan, shall be and constitute One District for the Purposes of the said Act.
2. That the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said Borough shall, by the Council of the said Borough, be the Local Board of Health for the said District.
3. That forthwith, after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, the said Local Board of Health shall, by Order under the Seal of the said Board, and referring or not to a Map or Plan of the said District, ascertain and fix the Part of the said District, within which the Streets, Lanes, Highways, Turnpike and other Roads, Squares, public Passages and Places, Markets, and public Buildings, are to be paved and lighted; and the said Local Board of Health shall and may from Time to Time thereafter, by Orders under the said Seal, and referring or not to a Map or Plan of the said District, vary and alter the Parts of the said District to be so lighted as aforesaid; and the said Parts of the said District so from Time to Time ascertained and fixed as aforesaid, may in all Rates, or legal or other Proceedings or Writings whatsoever, be called "The Welshpool Paved and Lighted District" of the District of Welshpool.
4. That from and after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, and when the said lighted District shall be ascertained and fixed as aforesaid, the Costs and Expenses of or relating to the paving and lighting of the said lighted District shall be defrayed out of a Rate in the Nature of a General District Rate, to be from Time to Time made and levied upon the Occupier and Occupiers of

of all such Kinds of Property, within the said paved and lighted District, exclusively of the rest of the said Borough, as by the Laws in force for the Time being are or may be assessable to any Rate for the Relief of the Poor, and shall be assessed upon the full net annual Value of such Property ascertained by the Rates (if any) for the Relief of the Poor made next before the making of the said Assessment; and the said Rate shall be called "The Welshpool Paving and Lighting Rate," and shall be carried to a separate Account, to be called "The Welshpool Paving and Lighting Fund Account;" and all the Provisions relating to General District Rates in such Part of the said Public Health Act, 1848, as is hereby ordered to be applied to the said District shall, so far as they are not inconsistent with this Order and the several Provisions thereof, apply to the Paving and Lighting Rates to be levied under and in pursuance of the aforesaid Provisions.

An Act for raising the Sum of Seventeen millions seven hundred and forty-two thousand five hundred Pounds by Exchequer Bills for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three. [13th May 1853.]

C A P. XXVI.

An Act to provide for the supplying of Vacancies in Town Councils of Burghs in Scotland consequent on null or irregular Elections. [14th June 1853.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to alter and amend the Laws for the Election of the Magistrates and Councils of the Royal Burghs in Scotland, it is enacted, "that no Irregularity or Nullity in the Election of any Councillor or Magistrate shall in any Case after the passing of this Act annul or affect the Election of other Councillors or Magistrates not liable to the same Grounds of Objection, but those particular Elections only in which such Irregularity or Nullity shall have occurred:" And whereas a like Enactment is contained in another Act of the same Years of the Reign of His said Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to provide for the Appointment and Election of Magistrates and Councillors for the several Burghs and Towns of Scotland which now return or contribute to return Members to Parliament, and are not Royal Burghs:

c. 77.

‘ Burghs : And whereas the Evils intended to have been obviated by the said recited Enactments have not been so obviated, by reason of no Provision having been made in the said Acts for the Election of Councillors or Magistrates in room of those whose Election may have been null or irregular, and it is expedient that this Defect should be supplied :’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

On Elections of Councillors being found null, Warrant to be granted for new Election.

I. In all Cases in which any Election of a Councillor or Councillors in any of the Royal Burghs, Burghs, or Towns comprehended in the said recited Acts, or either of them, shall have been legally reduced or found to have been null, the Court of Session in Scotland in either of its Divisions shall, on the Application by Petition on the Part of any One or more of the registered Electors of such Royal Burgh, Burgh, or Town, grant Warrant for a new Election of a Councillor or Councillors in room of the Councillor or Councillors whose Election shall have been so reduced or found null, to take place on a Day to be fixed by the said Court, not sooner than Ten nor later than Fourteen Days from the Date of such Warrant, and such new Election shall thereupon proceed on the Day so fixed in the Manner provided by the said recited Acts respectively for the annual Election of Councillors in such Royal Burghs, Burghs, or Towns ; and the Councillor or Councillors elected on such Day shall be, in regard to Tenure of Office and in all other respects, in the same Situation as if they had been elected at the annual Election at which the Councillor or Councillors whose Election shall have been reduced or found to have been null were elected.

Election thereupon to proceed as at annual Election of Councillors.

II. As soon as such Warrant shall have been granted the Principal Clerk of Session, being Clerk to the Petition on which it was granted, shall forthwith transmit a certified Copy thereof to the Town Clerk of such Royal Burgh, Burgh, or Town, and such Town Clerk shall immediately on receipt of such certified Copy give Intimation of the Election thereby appointed by Notices to be affixed to the Door of the Parish Church or Churches in such Royal Burgh, Burgh, or Town ; and the acting Provost or senior Magistrate, or, failing there being at the Time any Provost or Magistrate, One of the Councillors to be nominated by the Sheriff of the County or his Substitute, shall discharge the Duties and execute the Powers directed by the said recited Acts to be performed by the Provost or senior Magistrate at the annual Election of Councillors.

Expenses of Application for Warrant to be a Charge on Burgh Funds.

III. The necessary Expenses incurred by any Elector or Electors in obtaining such Warrant for a new Election as aforesaid as the same shall be taxed by the said Court shall be recoverable by such Elector or Electors from the Treasurer of such Royal Burgh, Burgh, or Town, and when paid shall be chargeable by the Treasurer on the Funds thereof.

On Election of Magistrate being found null, Council to elect a Magistrate.

IV. In all Cases in which the Election of a Councillor to the Office of Provost or Magistrate, or the Election of any Councillor who may have been thereafter appointed Provost or a Magistrate, shall have been legally reduced or found null, the Town Council shall shall at its First Ordinary Meeting thereafter, the full Number of the Council being always complete, elect a Provost or Magistrate who shall be, in regard to Tenure of Office and in all other respects, in the same Situation as if he had been elected when the Provost or Magistrate whose Election has been reduced or found null or has fallen was elected.

V. It shall not be lawful nor competent to institute any Action by way of Reduction, Declarator, Suspension, or otherwise for reducing any Election of a Councillor, Provost, or Magistrate, or for having the same found null, or for interdicting any Party who may have been elected Councillor, Provost, or Magistrate from acting as such, nor to execute any Summons, nor intimate any Suspension concerning the same, after the Lapse of One Month from the Date of his Election, and all such Summonses and Suspensions executed or intimated respectively within such Month shall be deemed summary Processes, and shall have Precedence as such in the Rolls of the said Court of Session.

VI. Be it enacted and declared, That the Acts and Proceedings of any such Town Council prior to the Date when the Election of any of the Councillors thereof shall have been legally set aside or found null shall be valid and effectual, notwithstanding the Nullity or Irregularity of the Election of any One or more of the Councillors, and that the Actings of any Provost or Magistrate whose Election may be set aside or found null prior to its being so set aside or found null shall not be liable to Challenge in respect thereof.

No Challenge of Election to be made after the Lapse of a Month.

Acts of Council to be valid, notwithstanding Nullity of any Election.

C A P. XXVII.

An Act for empowering the Sheriff and Commissary of Berwickshire to hold Courts at Dunse, and for other Purposes.

[14th June 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Parliament of Scotland ‘ held by King William at Edinburgh the Ninth Day of ‘ October in the Year One thousand six hundred and ninety-six, ‘ intituled Act declaring the Burgh of Greenlaw the Head Burgh
 ‘ of the Shire of Berwick, His Majesty, with Advice and Consent ‘ of the Estates of Parliament, statuted, ordained, and declared
 ‘ the said Town of Greenlaw to be the Head Burgh of the Shire ‘ of Berwick, and that thereafter all public Proclamations, Horn-
 ‘ ings, Inhibitions, Summonses, and all other legal Diligences ‘ whatsoever, which by Law and Custom ought to be proclaimed, ‘ used, and executed at the Head Burgh of the Shire of Berwick, ‘ should be proclaimed, used, and executed at the Market Cross of ‘ the said Town of Greenlaw as the Head Burgh of the Shire, and ‘ declared all Proclamations and legal Diligences published, used,
 ‘ and executed that should be otherways done to be null and void,
 ‘ and ordained the Sheriff Court of the said Shire to sit, be ‘ holden, and kept in the said Town of Greenlaw: And whereas ‘ by an Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King ‘ George the Fourth (Public General), Chapter Ninety-seven, it ‘ was enacted, that all Sherifffdoms, excepting as therein men‘ tioned, but including the said Sherifffdom of Berwick, should ‘ constitute Commissariats, and that the Sheriffs should become

' the Commissaries of their several Shires in room of the inferior ' Commissaries, whose Offices were thereby abolished: And
' whereas the Sheriff and Commissary Courts of Berwickshire
' have been and are held at the said Head Burgh of Greenlaw,
' but it would tend greatly to the public Convenience that Courts
' for the Despatch of Civil and certain Criminal Business should ' be held at the Town of Dunse in the said Shire as well as at ' the said Head Burgh, and that the Office of the Sheriff Clerk of ' the said Shire of Berwick should be situated at Dunse.' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Construction of Terms.

I. In construing this Act the Word "Sheriff" shall include
"Sheriff Substitute," the Word "Commissary" shall include "Commissary Depute," the Words "Sheriff Clerk" shall include "Sheriff Clerk Depute," and the Word "Shire" or "Sheriffdom" shall include "Commissariat."

Power to Sheriff and Commissary to hold Courts at Dunse.

II. From and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the Sheriff and Commissary of the said Shire to hold Ordinary Courts at Dunse, as well as at the Head Burgh of Greenlaw, for the Despatch of Civil and Consistorial Business, and also for trying and disposing of such Criminal Causes as may be tried without a Jury: Provided always, that the Sheriff shall hold an Ordinary Court at least Once in every Week during the Summer and Winter Sessions, either at Greenlaw or Dunse, which shall be deemed and taken to be sufficient Compliance with the Provision contained in the First Section of the Act of Sederunt of the Lords of Council and Session, dated the Tenth Day of July in the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, passed under Authority of an Act of the First and Second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to regulate the Constitution, Jurisdiction, and Forms of Process of Sheriff Courts in Scotland: Provided also, that all Courts for the Trial of Criminal Causes by Jury shall be held at the Head Burgh of Greenlaw.

1 & 2 Vict.
c. 119.

Lord Advocate to fix Time and Place of Sitting of Courts.

III. From Time to Time, Her Majesty's Advocate shall fix and appoint the Days on which Courts are to be held at Greenlaw and at Dunse respectively, and shall, at least Ten Days previous to such Arrangement coming into operation, cause a written or printed Notice thereof to be affixed to the Wall in the Court Houses at Greenlaw and Dunse, and in the Sheriff Clerk's Office, and to be inserted in a Newspaper of general Circulation in the Shire; and all Citations shall be in the Form prescribed by Act of Sederunt of the Court of Session, or other competent Authority, using the Words "Ordinary Court House at Greenlaw," or "Ordinary Court House at Dunse," or such other Form of Words as may be necessary, according as the Citation may be to a Court to be held at Greenlaw or at Dunse as fixed by the said Notice.

Sheriff Clerk's Office to be at Dunse.

IV. The Office of the Sheriff Clerk of the said Shire shall be situated and kept at the said Town of Dunse; and all Extracts of Judgments pronounced in Court given forth and subscribed by the said Sheriff Clerk shall severally bear the Place where such Judgments were pronounced: Provided always, that the Record of Deeds shall continue as at present to be kept at Greenlaw, under

under the Charge of a Depute to be appointed by the Sheriff Clerk, and which Depute shall reside in Greenlaw.

V. Nothing in this Act contained shall be held or construed to repeal or affect, as regards the said County of Berwick, any of the Provisions of an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the more effectual Recovery of Small Debts in the Sheriff Courts, and for regulating the Establishment of Circuit Courts for the Trial of Small Debt Causes by the Sheriffs in Scotland.

This Act not to affect Provisions of 7 W. 4. & 1 Vict. c. 41.

VI. Except in so far as inconsistent with or varied by the Provisions of this Act, the said recited Act of Date the Ninth Day of October One thousand six hundred and ninety-six shall remain in full Force, and the said Town of Greenlaw shall continue to be the Head Burgh of the Shire of Berwick.

Act of 1696 to remain in force, except as varied hereby.

C A P. XXVIII.

An Act to amend the Law as to taking the Poll at Elections of Members to serve in Parliament for Scotland.

[14th June 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to restrict the Continuance of the Polling at any contested Election for a County to One Day, and to provide for the Increase or Alteration of Polling Places, and also to repeal so much of the Act of the Second and Third Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-five, as enacts that no Poll, whether in Counties or Burghs, shall begin on a Saturday, and to amend the Regulations for taking the Poll in Counties and Burghs: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in the present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

I. That so much of the Act passed in the Session holden in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-five, as enacts that no Poll at any Election for a County or a Burgh shall be directed to begin on a Saturday, or shall be kept open at any Election for a County for more than Two Days, and limits the Hours of Polling on such Days, and so much of the same Act as enacts “that every Voter shall poll at the Polling Places of the District within which the Premises or any Part of them in respect of which he claims to vote may be situate, except only where such Polling Places shall be in an Island distant more than Ten Miles from the Mainland of any County, in which Case the Voters not resident in such Island may poll at the Polling Place for the District in which the County Town is included,” and also as enacts “that Polling Places shall in no Case be more in Number than Fifteen for any One County,” shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

So much of 2 & 3 W. 4. c. 65. as relates to the Duration of Polls, &c. at Elections repealed.

II. It shall be lawful for each Sheriff, with the Consent of Her Majesty’s Advocate for Scotland for the Time being, from Time to Time hereafter to increase or otherwise alter the Number, Situation, or Arrangement of the existing Polling Places and Districts, or Parts thereof, in his County, so that not more than

The Sheriff, with Consent of Lord Advocate, may alter Polling Places, so that not more than 300 Electors shall poll at One Place.

Notice of Objections by Ten Inhabitant Electors.

Three hundred Electors shall be allowed to poll at any such Election as aforesaid at any One Place: Provided always, that no such Increase or Alteration as aforesaid shall be made until Notice thereof shall have been publicly given by Advertisement for Six Weeks successively in the North British Advertiser and the Edinburgh Gazette, and in the several Newspapers published within the County in which the said Increase or Alteration is proposed to be made; and in case any of the Inhabitants, not less than Ten in Number, being registered Voters for such County, shall be desirous of opposing such Increase or Alteration as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for them, at any Time not later than One Week from the Publication of the last Advertisement, to lodge with the Sheriff Clerk of the County a written Notice, signed by such Inhabitants as aforesaid, being not less than Ten in Number, stating their Objections to such Increase or Alteration, or any Suggestions they may wish to offer for the Purpose of obtaining a different Arrangement of Polling Places or Districts from that proposed in such Advertisement as aforesaid, and the Sheriff Clerk shall thereupon transmit the same to Her Majesty's Advocate for Scotland for the Time being, who shall, within Fifteen Days from the Receipt thereof, notify his Decision thereon to the Sheriff; and thereupon, if the said Decision shall sanction the original or any Increase or other Alteration in the Number, Situation, or Arrangement of the existing Polling Places or Districts, the Sheriff Clerk shall forthwith, or, in the event of no such Notice of Objection as aforesaid being given, shall at the Expiration of One Week from the Date of the last Advertisement as aforesaid, make a distinct List of such new Polling Places and Districts so appointed, and shall cause Copies of the said Lists to be affixed to the Doors of all the Parish Churches in his County.

Inhabitant Electors, being not less than Ten, may petition for Increase or other Alteration of Polling Places.

III. Provided always, That in case any of the Inhabitants of a County, being registered Voters for the same, shall be at any Time dissatisfied with the then existing Number or Position of Polling Places or Districts, it shall be lawful for any of them to present to the Sheriff a Petition signed by not less than Ten such Inhabitants as aforesaid, representing that the Number of Polling Places or Districts is insufficient or excessive (as the Case may be), or that their Situation and Arrangement is inconvenient, and praying that the Place or Places mentioned in such Petition may be a Polling Place or Places for that County, or that the Alterations or other Changes mentioned in such Petition may be made in the Number, Situation, or Arrangement of the then existing Polling Places or Districts; and on the Receipt of such Petition the Sheriff shall, with the Consent of Her Majesty's Advocate for Scotland, proceed therein in the same Way as herein-before provided, and as though the Increase or Alterations in the said Petition mentioned had been originally proposed by the Sheriff.

Sheriff, if required, to provide more Booths.

No Poll to be taken at Inns, &c. except by Consent.

IV. At any contested Election the Sheriff shall, if required by any of the Candidates, on or before the Day of Nomination, direct Two or more Booths, Compartments, Halls, Rooms, or other Places for Polling, to be provided at each Polling Place: Provided always, that no Poll at any such Election shall be taken at any Inn, Hotel, Tavern, Public House, or other Premises licensed for the Sale of Beer, Wine, or Spirits, or in any Booth, Hall, Room, or other Place directly directly communicating therewith, unless by Consent of all the Candidates, expressed in Writing.

V. That every County Voter (except as herein-after provided) shall poll at the Polling Place of the District within which the Premises, or any Part of them, in respect of which he claims to vote, may be situate; provided that nothing herein contained shall be held to repeal or alter the Ninth Section of the Seventy-eighth Chapter of the Statute passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of His said Majesty, respecting Freeholders in Counties.

Where Voters shall poll.

VI. Any County Voter, not being a Freeholder, and not resident in the District containing the Premises in respect of which he claims to vote, may make Application, in Person or by Writing, to the Sheriff, at the Registration Court of the County, to be entitled to poll at the Polling Place nearest to his Residence; and the Sheriff, on being satisfied of the Truth of the Statements of such Voter, shall insert in the List against the Name of the Voter making such Application the Name of the Polling Place at which such Person shall be registered to vote; and such Voter shall thereafter be entitled to vote at such Polling Place, and shall not be at liberty to poll at any other Polling Place for the same County.

Voters may claim to vote in another District in certain Cases.

VII. Where the Polling Place for a District containing the Premises in respect of which any Voter claims to vote shall be in an Island distant more than Ten Miles from the Mainland of the County, such Voter, not being resident in the Island, may poll at the Polling Place for the District in which the County Town is included.

Provision for non-resident Voters, with Island Qualifications.

VIII. With respect to Section Thirty-three of the said first-mentioned Statute, be it enacted, That where the Sheriff shall not have received the Poll Books transmitted from any Island within the Time therein limited for the opening thereof, the Sheriff may adjourn the Court for the Declaration of the State and Result of the Poll from Day to Day, omitting Sunday, and shall either at the first of such adjourned Courts after the Receipt of such Poll Books, or at the Expiration of Twelve Days from the first Court so adjourned (whichever shall happen first) proceed to declare the Poll, and make Proclamation and a Return in the Manner therein mentioned.

Declaration of the Poll in certain Cases.

IX. No Poll at any Election for any County shall be kept open for more than One Day, and that only between the Hours of Eight in the Morning and Four in the Afternoon: Provided always, that at any Time after a Poll has been demanded the Poll at any One Place may be closed, if all the Candidates or their Agents and the Sheriff or his Substitute shall agree in so closing it: Provided also, that when the Proceedings at any Election shall be interrupted or obstructed by any Riot or open Violence, whether such Proceedings shall consist of the Nomination of Candidates, or of the taking the Poll, the Sheriff or his Substitute at the Place where the Riot or open Violence has occurred may adjourn the Nomination or the taking the Poll at the particular Polling Place or Places at which such Riot or open Violence shall have happened to the following Day or some other convenient Time, and if necessary may repeat such Adjournment till such Interruption or Obstruction shall have ceased, he always giving Notice to the Sheriff or his Poll to be kept open only One Day.

Order and Manner of Polling.

Substitute who is to make the Return of such Adjournment having been made; and the State of the Poll shall not be finally declared, nor the Result of the Election proclaimed, until the Poll so interrupted or obstructed shall be closed, and transmitted to the Sheriff or his Substitute who is to make the Return.

Poll to be kept open Two Days in Orkney and Shetland.

X. That in respect of the remote Situation of certain Parts of the County of Orkney and Shetland, and the occasional difficult Intercommunication therein, nothing in this Act contained shall alter the Provisions of the said recited Act so far as relates to the keeping open of the Poll for Two consecutive Days as heretofore; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to exclude the said County of Orkney and Shetland from any of the Benefits or Obligations of the other Portions of this Act.

Meaning of "Burgh."

XI. The Word "Burgh" in this Act shall include every City, Burgh, Town, or District of Cities, Burghs, or Towns, entitled to return or to contribute to return a Member to Parliament.

C A P. XXIX.

An Act for regulating the Weights used in Sales of Bullion.

5 G. 4. c. 74.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act of the Fifth Year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-four, it was amongst other things enacted, “ that the Standard Troy Pound “ thereby established or ascertained should be the Unit or only “ Standard Measure of Weight from which all other Weights “ should be derived, computed, and ascertained, and that One “ Twelfth Part of the said Troy Pound should be an Ounce:” And whereas by another Act passed in the Session held in the Fifth and Sixth Years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-three, further Provisions were made for establishing Uniformity of Weights, and for stamping the Weight thereby authorized to be used: And whereas the Weights now ordinarily used in Sales of Gold and Silver are the Troy Ounce and other Weights, being Multiples or Decimal Parts of such Ounce: And whereas none of the Weights so used have hitherto been stamped, and many of them which are Multiples of the Troy Ounce are not Multiples or Parts of the Troy Pound, and Doubts have arisen whether, under the Provisions of the said recited Acts, or One of them, such Weights are not liable to be seized as illegal, and Contracts and Sales made thereby are not illegal and void: And whereas it is expedient to remove such Doubts, and that Provisions should be made authorizing Contracts and Bargains for and Sale of Gold and Silver, Platina, and precious Stones to be made by the Troy Ounce and Weights being Multiples or Decimal Parts thereof:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; that is to say,

5 & 6 W. 4. c. 63.

Sales of Bullion and precious Stones by the

I. All Contracts and Bargains made or to be made for and Sales of Gold, Silver, Platina, Diamonds and other precious Stones, made and to be made by the Troy Ounce as ascertained and and fixed by the first above-recited Act, and by any Weights being Multiples or Decimal Parts of such Ounce, shall be deemed and reputed and are hereby declared to be good and valid in Law, and for the Purposes of such Contracts, Bargains, and Sales such Troy Ounce shall be taken to be the Standard or Unit of Weight.

Troy Ounce, &c. to be good and valid.

II. Within Three Months next after the passing of this Act Models of such Multiples and Decimal Parts of the said Troy Ounce as the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom for the Time being shall judge expedient, and from Time to Time after the Expiration of the aforesaid Period of Three Months Models of such further Multiples and Decimal Parts of the said Troy Ounce as the Lord High Treasurer or the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time think expedient, shall be carefully made and verified, under the Direction of the said Lord High Treasurer or the said Commissioners, and, when so made and verified, shall be deposited in the Office of the Chamberlain of the Exchequer at Westminster, and Copies of the Models so from Time to Time deposited, verified as aforesaid, shall be sent to the Lord Mayor of London and the Chief Magistrate of Edinburgh and Dublin, and to the Chief Magistrate of such other Cities, and to such other Places and Persons in Her Majesty's Dominions or elsewhere as the Lord High Treasurer or the aforesaid Commissioners may from Time to Time direct.

Models of Multiples and Decimal Parts of the Troy Ounce to be made and verified under Direction of the Treasury.

Models to be deposited.

III. No Person who heretofore or at any Time previous to the Expiration of Fifteen Months next after the passing of this Act shall, in any Contract, Bargain, or Sale for or of any Gold, Silver, Platina, Diamonds or other precious Stones, have used or shall have had in his Possession any Troy Pound, Troy Ounce, or any Weight being a Multiple or a Decimal Part of the Troy Pound or Troy Ounce, shall be liable to be convicted by reason of such Weight not being One of the Weights authorized by the said second above-recited Act, or an aliquot Part, as therein described, of any such Weight, or by reason of such Weight not being stamped as required by the said last-mentioned Act, nor shall any such Weight at any Time previous to the Expiration of Fifteen Months after the passing of this Act be seized by reason of its not being stamped as aforesaid.

Persons using Weights hereby authorized not liable to Penalties imposed by 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 63.

IV. The First and Second Sections of this Act shall be taken as Part of the second above-recited Act; and such last-mentioned Act shall be construed and applied in all respects as if the said First and Second Sections of this Act had formed Part of the said second above-recited Act, and had been inserted therein immediately after the Tenth Section thereof.

The 1st and 2d Sections of this Act incorporated with 5 & 6 W.4. c.63.

V. The Provisions contained in the Twelfth Section of the second above-recited Act shall not extend or be applied to any Weight made or used under the Provisions of this Act, although the same be of the Weight of One Pound Avoirdupois or more; but every Troy Ounce Weight, and every Weight being a Multiple or Decimal Part of the Troy Ounce, not being less than One Tenth of an Ounce, shall have the Number of such Ounces or Parts of an Ounce therein contained stamped or cast on the Top or Side thereof in legible Figures and Letters; and no Weight, being a Troy Ounce or any Multiple or Part thereof, shall be stamped Contents of Weights to be stamped thereon.

under the Provisions of the said second above-recited Act unless the Number of Troy Ounces or Parts of an Ounce therein contained shall be so stamped or cast thereon.

C A P. XXX.

An Act for the better Prevention and Punishment of aggravated Assaults upon Women and Children, and for preventing Delay and Expense in the Administration of certain Parts of the Criminal Law. [14th June 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS the present Law has been found insufficient for the Protection of Women and Children from violent Assaults:’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Extending the Power of punishing, on summary Conviction, Assaults on Females and Male Children under 14 Years of Age, occasioning bodily Harm.

I. When any Person shall be charged before Two Justices of the Peace sitting at a Place where the Petty Sessions are usually held, or before any Magistrate of the Police Courts of the Metropolis sitting at any such Police Court, or before any Stipendiary Magistrate elsewhere, with an Assault upon any Female whatever, or upon any Male Child whose Age shall not in the Opinion of such Justices or Police or Stipendiary Magistrates exceed Fourteen Years, either upon the Complaint of the Party aggrieved or otherwise, it shall be lawful for the said Justices or Police or Stipendiary Magistrate, if the Assault is of such an aggravated Nature that it cannot in their or his Opinion be sufficiently punished under the Provisions of the Statute Ninth George the Fourth, Chapter Thirty-one, to proceed to hear and determine in a summary Way, and if they shall find the same to be proved, to convict the Person accused ; and every Offender so convicted shall be liable to be imprisoned in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, with or without Hard Labour, for a Period not exceeding Six Calendar Months, or to pay a Fine not exceeding (together with Costs) the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and in default of Payment to be imprisoned as aforesaid, with or without Hard Labour, for a Period not exceeding Six Calendar Months unless such Fine and Costs be sooner paid, and if the Magistrate or Magistrates shall so think fit shall be bound to keep the Peace and be of good Behaviour for any Period not exceeding Six Calendar Months from the Expiration of such Sentence ; and such Conviction shall be a Bar to all future Proceedings, civil or criminal, for or in respect of the same Assault ; and no Person convicted under this Act shall be entitled to appeal against such Conviction to the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, anything to the contrary in any Statute notwithstanding.

No Appeal against such Conviction.

Court of General or Quarter Sessions may, upon Proof of Conviction and Notice to Parties, declare a Recognizance

II. Where any Recognizance to keep the Peace or to be of good Behaviour is entered into by any Person, as Principal or Surety, before the Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace of any County, Riding, Division, City, Borough, or Place, or before any Justice or Justices of the Peace of any County, Riding, Division, City, Borough, or Place, it shall be lawful for any such Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace as aforesaid, aforesaid, upon Applications made to such Court, to declare such Recognizance to be forfeited, upon Proof of a Conviction of the Party bound by such Recognizance of any Offence which is in Law a Breach of the Condition of the same; and upon further Proof that a Notice in Writing, signed by the Person seeking to put such Recognizance in force, has, Seven clear Days before the Commencement of such Sessions, been personally served upon or left at the usual Place of Abode of the Party or each of the Parties (if more than One) who entered into such Recognizances, that an Application will be made to the said General or Quarter Sessions, that the said Recognizance shall be declared forfeited, and if such Recognizance shall be declared forfeited all such Proceedings shall be had thereon as in the Case of a Recognizance forfeited at such Court of General or Quarter Sessions, and all the Provisions of the Act of the Third Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Forty-six, and of the Act of the Fourth Year of the said King, Chapter Thirty-seven, applicable to a Recognizance so forfeited at such Court, shall apply to a Recognizance which shall, upon such Application and Proof as herein-before mentioned, be declared to be forfeited; and upon Notice in Writing of such intended Application to the said General or Quarter Sessions being given to any Justice or Justices, before whom any such Recognizance shall have been taken, Four clear Days before the Commencement of the said Sessions, the said Justice or Justices shall transmit the said Recognizance to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, Riding, Division, City, Borough, or Place within which the said Recognizance shall have been taken, with a Certificate that the said Recognizance is sent to him by reason of such last mentioned Notice having been so given as aforesaid.

to keep the Peace or to be of good Behaviour, to be forfeited.

III. No Person committed to Prison under any Warrant or Order of One Justice of the Peace for or on account of not entering into Recognizances or finding Sureties to keep the Peace, or to be of good Behaviour, shall be detained under such Warrant or Order for more than Twelve Calendar Months from the Time of such Commitment.

Limiting Period of Detention for not entering into Recognizance.

IV. ' And whereas, by reason of the Establishment of a Court of Criminal Appeal, the Removal of Indictments by Writ of Certiorari is seldom necessary for the Decision of Questions of Law, but is nevertheless sometimes resorted to for Purposes of Expense and Delay: ' Be it enacted, That no Indictment, except Indictments against Bodies Corporate not authorized to appear by Attorney in the Court in which the Indictment is preferred, shall be removed into the Court of Queen's Bench, or into the Central Criminal Court, by Writ of Certiorari, either at the Instance of the Prosecutor or of the Defendant (other than the Attorney General acting on behalf of the Crown), unless it be made to appear to the Court from which the Writ is to issue, by the Party applying for the same, that a fair and impartial Trial of the Case cannot be had in the Court below, or that some Question of Law of more than usual Difficulty and Importance is likely to arise upon the Trial, or that a View of the Premises in respect whereof any Indictment is preferred, or a Special Jury, may be required for the satisfactory Trial of the same.

Indictments for Misdemeanor not to be removed by Certiorari, except on Affidavit that a fair Trial cannot be had.

No Certiorari to issue to remove Indictment, unless Recognizance given for Payment of Costs.

V. 'And whereas it is expedient to make further Provision for preventing the vexatious Removal of Indictments into the Court of Queen's Bench' Be it therefore enacted, That whenever any Writ of Certiorari to remove an Indictment into the said Court shall be awarded at the Instance of a Defendant or Defendants, the Recognizance now by Law required to be entered into before the Allowance of such Writ shall contain the further Provision following; that is to say, that the Defendant or Defendants, in case he or they shall be convicted, shall pay to the Prosecutor his Costs incurred subsequent to the Removal of such Indictment; and whenever any such Writ of Certiorari shall be awarded at the Instance of the Prosecutor, the said Prosecutor shall enter into a Recognizance (to be acknowledged in like Manner as is now required in Cases of Writs of Certiorari awarded at the Instance of a Defendant) with the Condition following; that is to say, that the said Prosecutor shall pay to the Defendant or Defendants, in case he or they shall be acquitted, his or their Costs incurred subsequent to such Removal.

How Costs to be taxed and recovered.

VI. The Costs herein-before respectively mentioned shall be taxed according to the Course of the Court of Queen's Bench; and for the Recovery thereof the Persons entitled thereto shall, at the Expiration of Ten Days after Demand made of the Person or Persons at whose Instance the Writ of Certiorari was awarded, and on Oath made of such Demand and Refusal of Payment, have a Writ of Attachment granted against him or them by the Court of Queen's Bench for such Contempt; and the said Court shall and may also order the said Recognizance to be estreated into the Exchequer.

If no Recognizance, Court to try as if no Certiorari awarded.

VII. If the Person or Persons at whose Instance any Writ of Certiorari shall be awarded shall not, before the Allowance thereof, enter into such Recognizance as is herein-before provided, the Court to which such Writ may be directed shall and may proceed to the Trial of the Indictment, as if such Writ of Certiorari had not been awarded.

Not to apply to certain Certioraris.

VIII. This Act shall not extend to any Writ of Certiorari awarded at the Instance of Her Majesty's Attorney General.

Secretary of State may issue his Warrant for bringing up a Prisoner (not in Custody under Civil Process) to give Evidence.

IX. It shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or any Judge of the Court of Queen's Bench or Common Pleas, or any Baron of the Exchequer, in any Case where he may see fit to do so, upon Application by Affidavit, to issue a Warrant or Order under his Hand for bringing up any Prisoner or Person confined in any Gaol, Prison, or Place, under any Sentence or under Commitment for Trial or otherwise, (except under Process in any Civil Action, Suit, or Proceeding,) before any Court, Judge, Justice, or other Judicature, to be examined as a Witness in any Cause or Matter, civil or criminal, depending or to be inquired of, or determined in or before such Court, Judge, Justice, or Judicature; and the Person required by any such Warrant or Order to be so brought before such Court, Judge, Justice, or other Judicature shall be so brought under the same Care and Custody, and be dealt with in like Manner in all respects, as a Prisoner required by any Writ of Habeas corpus awarded by any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law at Westminster to be be brought before such Court to be examined as a Witness in any Cause or Matter depending before such Court is now by Law required to be dealt with.

X. This Act shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland.

Extent of Act.

C A P. XXXI.

An Act to apply the Sum of Four Millions out of the Consolidated Fund to the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three. [14th June 1853.]

C A P. XXXII.

An Act to make further Provision for staying Execution of Judgment for Misdemeanors upon giving Bail in Error. [28th June 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to stay Execution of Judgment for Misdemeanors upon giving Bail in Error, it is amongst other things provided that no Execution upon any such Judgment shall be stayed unless and until the Defendant or Defendants shall become bound by Recognizance to prosecute the Writ of Error with Effect, and in case the Judgment shall be affirmed forthwith to render the Defendant or Defendants to Prison, according to the said Judgment, where Imprisonment shall have been adjudged: And whereas it is expedient to make further Provision for securing the Render of a Defendant to Prison, according to the Judgment given against him, when such Judgment shall have been affirmed, or such Writ of Error shall have been quashed:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

8 & 9 Vict.
c. 68.

L. In every Case in which a Writ of Error shall be brought to reverse any Judgment for Misdemeanor, except when the same shall be brought by Her Majesty’s Attorney General, no Execution thereupon shall be stayed, nor shall any Defendant be discharged from Imprisonment as to such Execution, unless and until he shall become bound by Recognizance, to be acknowledged in manner in the said Act mentioned, to prosecute the Writ of Error with Effect, and personally to appear in the Court wherein such Writ may be returnable on the Day whereon Judgment shall be given upon the said Writ of Error, and also, if so ordered by the Court or by a Judge thereof, Four Days Notice being given either to the Defendant or his Attorney or to the Bail personally, or by leaving the same at his or their last known Place of Abode on the Days and Times appointed for any Proceeding upon the said Writ, and so from Day to Day, and not to depart that Court without Leave, and forthwith to render the said Defendant to Prison, according to the said Judgment, in case the said Judgment shall be affirmed.

No Execution to be stayed or Defendant discharged from Custody till Recognizance given for Defendant’s Appearance, except when Writ brought by Attorney General.

II. In every Case in which a Defendant shall make Default in prosecuting such Writ of Error with Effect, or in personally appearing

In default of Appearance

the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same; That—

Persons desiring a Licence for a Hackney Carriage, &c. to apply to Commissioners of Police for a Certificate.

I. From and after the First Day of October next every Person desirous of obtaining a Licence to keep, use, and let to hire any Metropolitan Stage or Hackney Carriage within the Limits of this Act must apply in Writing to the Commissioners of Police of the Metropolis, in order that they may cause an Inspection to be made of every Carriage to be kept, used, or let to hire by virtue of such Licence, and upon such Application the said Commissioners shall cause an Inspection to be made of every such Carriage, and if such Carriage or Carriages shall be found by the said Commissioners to be in a fit and proper Condition for public Use they shall grant a Certificate to that Effect, and shall specify in such Certificate the Number of Persons to be carried in and by such Carriage, in the Form given in Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed, and upon Production of such Certificate at the Office of the Board of Inland Revenue, a Licence shall be granted; but it shall not be lawful for the said Board of Inland Revenue to grant or issue any Licence for any Metropolitan Stage or Hackney Carriage, within the Limits of this Act, unless the Person applying for the same shall produce such Certificate as aforesaid.

No Licence to be granted by Board of Inland Revenue without such Certificate.

Commissioners of Police may cause Carriages &c. to be inspected, and if not in fit Condition may suspend Licences, and recall Stamp Office Plate.

II. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Police to cause an Inspection to be made, as often as they deem it necessary, of all Metropolitan Stage and Hackney Carriages, and of the Horse or Horses used in drawing the same, within the Limits of this Act; and if any such Carriage, or the Horse or Horses used in drawing the same, shall at any Time be in a Condition unfit for public Use, the said Commissioners shall give Notice in Writing accordingly to the Proprietor thereof, which Notice shall be personally served on such Proprietor, or delivered at his usual Place of Residence; and if, after Notice as aforesaid, any Proprietor shall use or let to hire such Carriage as a Metropolitan Stage or Hackney Carriage, or use or let to hire such Horse or Horses whilst in a Condition unfit for public Use, the said Commissioners shall have Power to suspend, for such Time as they may deem proper, the Licence of the Proprietor of such Carriage, and to recall and take away the Stamp Office Plate belonging to the same, and to retain the same during the Suspension of such Licence; and a Notice shall be given to the Board of Inland Revenue, according to the Form in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, in every Case by the said Commissioners of the Suspension of any such Licence, and of the Time for which it is suspended.

Notice to be given to Inland Revenue.

Penalty for using Carriage not in fit Condition.

III. Every Proprietor or Driver of a Metropolitan Stage or Hackney Carriage who shall use or let to hire within the Limits of this Act any Carriage as a Metropolitan Stage or Hackney Carriage which has not been certified by the said Commissioners of Police to be in a fit and proper Condition for public Use, or who shall use or let to hire within the Limits of this Act any Carriage as a Metropolitan Stage or Hackney Carriage for which such a Certificate had been granted, after Notice given to him as herein-before required by the said Commissioners that such Carriage Execution) shall be reckoned to begin from the Day when such Defendant shall be in actual Custody in the Gaol or Prison in which he may have been adjudged to be imprisoned under such Judgment; and if the Defendant shall have been discharged from Imprisonment on giving Bail in Error, as is herein-before mentioned, such Defendant shall be imprisoned for such further Period in the same Prison as, with the Time during which such Defendant may already have been imprisoned under such Execution, shall be equal to the Period for which he was adjudged to be imprisoned as aforesaid.

VII. Whenever Default shall have been made in rendering a Defendant to Prison in execution of a Judgment for Misdemeanor, and a Warrant shall have been issued against such Defendant to enforce such Render to Prison, according to the Provisions of this Act, such Defendant shall be liable to pay the Costs and Charges of such Render; and if the Prosecutor shall, before the Expiration of the Defendant's Imprisonment, have caused the Amount of such Costs and Charges to be ascertained by One of the Masters or the Assistant Master on the Crown Side of the Court of Queen's Bench, and shall have left with the said Defendant, and with the Keeper of the Prison or his Deputy, a Certificate, under the Hand of such Master or Assistant Master, of the Amount of such Costs so ascertained, then and in every such last-mentioned Case the Defendant shall not be discharged out of Custody until such Costs and Charges have been paid, or until an Order has been made by the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, or of Bankruptcy for such Discharge.

If Default made in rendering Defendant to Prison, and Warrant be issued against him, he shall pay the Costs of the Render.

VIII. 'And whereas in Cases of Default made by Parties in performing the Conditions of Recognizances into which they may have entered to proceed to the Trial of Issues joined upon any Indictment or Information filed in Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench it hath been the Usage and Practice to enforce the Forfeiture of such Recognizances by Writ of Scire facias, and the Course of Procedure by Scire facias in such Cases is dilatory, inconvenient, and expensive: Be it therefore enacted, That in every such Case of Default it shall be lawful for the said Court, or a Judge thereof, to call upon the Parties who have entered into such Recognizance, by Rule or Order to show Cause why such Recognizance should not be estreated into the Exchequer, and thereupon, unless Cause shall be shown to the Satisfaction of the said Court or Judge, in excuse of such Default, such Court or Judge may order such Recognizance to be estreated into the Exchequer.

If Default made by Defendant in proceeding to Trial in Queen's Bench, Court may estreat Recognizance without Scire facias.

An Act for the better Regulation of Metropolitan Stage and Hackney Carriages, and for prohibiting the Use of advertising Vehicles.* [28th June 1853.]

[* See Cap. 127. post.]

'WHEREAS it is desirable to improve the Condition of the Metropolitan Stage and Hackney Carriages, and to alter and amend the System of licensing such Carriages: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the

the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That—

Persons desiring a Licence for a Hackney Carriage, &c. to apply to Commissioners of Police for a Certificate.

I. From and after the First Day of October next every Person desirous of obtaining a Licence to keep, use, and let to hire any Metropolitan Stage or Hackney Carriage within the Limits of this Act must apply in Writing to the Commissioners of Police of the Metropolis, in order that they may cause an Inspection to be made of every Carriage to be kept, used, or let to hire by virtue of such Licence, and upon such Application the said Commissioners shall cause an Inspection to be made of every such Carriage, and if such Carriage or Carriages shall be found by the said Commissioners to be in a fit and proper Condition for public Use they shall grant a Certificate to that Effect, and shall specify in such Certificate the Number of Persons to be carried in and by such Carriage, in the Form given in Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed, and upon Production of such Certificate at the Office of the Board of Inland Revenue, a Licence shall be granted; but it shall not be lawful for the said Board of Inland Revenue to grant or issue any Licence for any Metropolitan Stage or Hackney Carriage, within the Limits of this Act, unless the Person applying for the same shall produce such Certificate as aforesaid.

No Licence to be granted by Board of Inland Revenue without such Certificate.

Commissioners of Police may cause Carriages &c. to be inspected, and if not in fit Condition may suspend Licences, and recall Stamp Office Plate.

II. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Police to cause an Inspection to be made, as often as they deem it necessary, of all Metropolitan Stage and Hackney Carriages, and of the Horse or Horses used in drawing the same, within the Limits of this Act; and if any such Carriage, or the Horse or Horses used in drawing the same, shall at any Time be in a Condition unfit for public Use, the said Commissioners shall give Notice in Writing accordingly to the Proprietor thereof, which Notice shall be personally served on such Proprietor, or delivered at his usual Place of Residence; and if, after Notice as aforesaid, any Proprietor shall use or let to hire such Carriage as a Metropolitan Stage or Hackney Carriage, or use or let to hire such Horse or Horses whilst in a Condition unfit for public Use, the said Commissioners shall have Power to suspend, for such Time as they may deem proper, the Licence of the Proprietor of such Carriage, and to recall and take away the Stamp Office Plate belonging to the same, and to retain the same during the Suspension of such Licence; and a Notice shall be given to the Board of Inland Revenue, according to the Form in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, in every Case by the said Commissioners of the Suspension of any such Licence, and of the Time for which it is suspended.

Notice to be given to Inland Revenue.

Penalty for using Carriage not in fit Condition.

III. Every Proprietor or Driver of a Metropolitan Stage or Hackney Carriage who shall use or let to hire within the Limits of this Act any Carriage as a Metropolitan Stage or Hackney Carriage which has not been certified by the said Commissioners of Police to be in a fit and proper Condition for public Use, or who shall use or let to hire within the Limits of this Act any Carriage as a Metropolitan Stage or Hackney Carriage for which such a Certificate had been granted, after Notice given to him as herein-before required by the said Commissioners that such Carriage Carriage was no longer in a fit and proper Condition for public Use, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Three Pounds for each Day that he shall so use or let to hire such Carriage, or in default of Payment may be imprisoned for any Time not exceeding One Month.

IV. The Proprietor or Driver of any Hackney Carriage within the Limits of this Act shall be entitled to demand and take for the Hire of such Carriage the Fares set forth in the Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed: Provided always, that when the Proprietor or Driver of any Hackney Carriage to be paid a Fare calculated according to the Distance shall be required by the Hirer thereof to stop such Carriage for Fifteen Minutes, or for any longer Time, it shall be lawful for the Proprietor or Driver to demand and receive from the Hirer so requiring him to stop a further Sum (above the Fare to which he shall be entitled, calculated according to the Distance) of Sixpence for every Fifteen Minutes completed that he shall have been so stopped; and no Proprietor or Driver shall demand or receive over and above the said Fare any Sum, for or by way of Back Fare, for the Return of such Carriage from the Place at which such Carriage shall be discharged.

V. The Proprietor of every Hackney Carriage within the Limits of this Act shall put up, and at all Times keep, distinctly painted or marked, in such a Manner and in such a Position as shall be directed by the said Commissioners of Police, both on the Inside and Outside of such Hackney Carriage, the Amount of Fare according to Distance and Time which may legally be demanded and taken from the Hirer of such Carriage; and the Driver of every Hackney Carriage within the Limits of this Act shall have with him at all Times when plying for Hire a Book or Table, in such Form as shall be directed by the said Commissioners of Police, of the Fares for the Hire of such Carriage, which Book or Table the Driver shall produce when required for the Information of any Person hiring or intending to hire such Carriage.

VI. In case of Disputes as to the Fare to be calculated according to the Distance, any Table or Book signed by the said Commissioners of Police shall, on Proof of such Signature, be deemed and taken to be conclusive Evidence of all the Distances therein stated to have been measured by the Authority of the said Commissioners of Police; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to cause to be placed or erected at the several Standings for Hackney Carriages or elsewhere within the Metropolitan District, as they may deem convenient, Tables of Distances and Fares, and such other Information as may be useful to Persons hiring such Carriage.

VII. The Driver of every Hackney Carriage which shall ply for Hire at any Place within the Limits of this Act shall (unless such Driver have a reasonable Excuse, to be allowed by the Justice before whom the Matter shall be brought in question,) drive such Hackney Carriage to any Place to which he shall be required by the Hirer thereof to drive the same, not exceeding Six Miles from the Place where the same shall have been hired, or for any Time not exceeding One Hour from the Time when hired: Pro-

any Person, although not resident in any Part of the United Kingdom, from the Duties granted by this Act in respect of the Profits or Gains received from or out of any Possessions or Securities in Ireland, or to exempt any Person resident in any Part of the United Kingdom from the said Duties in respect of the Profits or Gains received from or out of any Possessions or Securities in any other of Her Majesty's Dominions, or any Foreign Possessions or Securities.

VII. Provided also, That the Duties in respect of Interest arising from Securities in Ireland, and in respect of Possessions in Ireland, which by the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, are directed to be charged and assessed respectively according to certain Rules prescribed for charging the Duties under the Head respectively of "Fourth Case" and "Fifth Case" of Schedule (D.), and in Section One hundred and six of the said Act, shall under this Act be charged and assessed in Ireland in the same Manner and under the same Schedules, Rules, and Regulations respectively as the Duties on Securities and Possessions of the like Nature in Great Britain are directed to be charged, except so far as such Schedules, Rules, and Regulations are altered or modified in regard to the assessing or charging of Duties in Ireland by the express Provisions of this Act.

VIII. Provided also, That notwithstanding anything in the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty contained, Persons holding Offices in Ireland and residing in Great Britain, and Persons usually residing in Ireland and serving in Parliament, shall be chargeable to the Duties by this Act granted, without regard to any Exemption from the Duties of Assessed Taxes; and that this Act shall extend to charge Persons resident in Ireland with the Duties under Schedule (E.) in respect of Public Offices or Employments, although the Duties thereof are necessarily and permanently performed in Ireland.

IX. The several Persons chosen or appointed under the Provisions of the said first-mentioned Act to be respectively Commissioners for the General Purposes of the said Act, and to be respectively Additional or other Commissioners, being respectively duly qualified in that Behalf, and also the several Persons appointed to be and who on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three were Commissioners for the Special Purposes of the said Act, shall, without any further or other Election, Nomination, or Appointment respectively, be such Commissioners as aforesaid for the like Purposes under this Act; and wherever in the said Act, or in any Act relating to the Duties thereby granted, Mention is made of the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, the same in relation to the Duties granted by this Act shall be construed and deemed to designate the Commissioners of Inland Revenue: Provided that no Persons shall be Commissioners to supply Vacancies amongst the said Commissioners for General Purposes except such Persons as shall after the passing of this Act be chosen for that Purpose in the Manner provided by the said first-mentioned Act.

X. The Provision made by the Act passed in the said Session of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty, receiving Profits from Possessions, &c. in Ireland, &c. or in Foreign Parts.

Duties in respect of Possessions, &c. in Ireland to be charged in the same Manner as similar Securities in Great Britain.

Persons holding Offices in Ireland, and Members of Parliament in Ireland, chargeable, notwithstanding 5 & 6 Vict. c 35.

Commissioners under former Acts to be Commissioners under this Act.

Persons intrusted with the Payment in the Section to do with relation to any other Duties under their Care and Management.

Duties to be assessed and raised under the Provisions of recited Acts.

V. The said Duties hereby granted shall be assessed, raised, levied, and collected under the Regulations and Provisions of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, and of the several Acts therein mentioned or referred to, and also of any Act or Acts subsequently passed explaining, altering, amending, or continuing the said first-mentioned Act; and for this Purpose all the said several Acts shall be revived, and shall be deemed to have been and to be continued in force from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three; and all such of the said Regulations and Provisions as have been enacted by the said Acts, or any of them, with reference to Great Britain or England, shall (so far as the same are or may be applicable consistently with the express Provisions of this Act) be and the same are hereby extended to Ireland; and all Powers, Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Directions, Penalties, Clauses, Matters, and Things contained in or enacted by the said several Acts before recited or referred to, or any of them, shall, notwithstanding that the same may have expired, severally and respectively be and become in full Force and Effect with respect to the Duties hereby granted, and shall in all Cases not expressly provided for by this Act, and so far as the same are not superseded by and are consistent with the express Provisions of this Act, severally and respectively be duly observed, applied, practised, and put in execution throughout the respective Parts of the United Kingdom, for raising, levying, collecting, receiving, accounting for, and securing the said Duties hereby granted, and for auditing the Accounts thereof, and otherwise relating thereto, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same Powers, Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Directions, Penalties, Clauses, Matters, and Things were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act with reference to the said Duties hereby granted, and respectively applied to the several Parts of the United Kingdom as aforesaid; and wherever in the said Acts, or any of them, the Term "England" is used or mentioned, the same, in relation to the Duties granted by this Act, shall be deemed to extend to and to mean also Ireland; and in like Manner the Term "Great Britain" shall be read as and deemed and construed to mean the United Kingdom; and where in the Provisions of the said Acts Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, or any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, is or are mentioned or referred to, such Provisions shall, with reference to the Duties under this Act to be assessed in Ireland, be construed and take effect as if Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Dublin, or Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Record at Dublin, were mentioned or referred to instead of the said respective Courts at Westminster, and the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, and the Acts explaining, altering, amending, and continuing the same, and this Act, shall be construed and read together as One Act.

5 & 6 Vict.
c. 35. not to exempt Persons

VI. Provided always, That nothing in the said first-mentioned Act contained shall be deemed or construed to extend to exempt any

any Person, although not resident in any Part of the United Kingdom, from the Duties granted by this Act in respect of the Profits or Gains received from or out of any Possessions or Securities in Ireland, or to exempt any Person resident in any Part of the United Kingdom from the said Duties in respect of the Profits or Gains received from or out of any Possessions or Securities in any other of Her Majesty's Dominions, or any Foreign Possessions or Securities.

receiving Profits from Possessions, &c. in Ireland, &c. or in Foreign Parts.

VII. Provided also, That the Duties in respect of Interest arising from Securities in Ireland, and in respect of Possessions in Ireland, which by the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, are directed to be charged and assessed respectively according to certain Rules prescribed for charging the Duties under the Head respectively of "Fourth Case" and "Fifth Case" of Schedule (D.), and in Section One hundred and six of the said Act, shall under this Act be charged and assessed in Ireland in the same Manner and under the same Schedules, Rules, and Regulations respectively as the Duties on Securities and Possessions of the like Nature in Great Britain are directed to be charged, except so far as such Schedules, Rules, and Regulations are altered or modified in regard to the assessing or charging of Duties in Ireland by the express Provisions of this Act.

Duties in respect of Possessions, &c. in Ireland to be charged in the same Manner as similar Securities in Great Britain.

VIII. Provided also, That notwithstanding anything in the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty contained, Persons holding Offices in Ireland and residing in Great Britain, and Persons usually residing in Ireland and serving in Parliament, shall be chargeable to the Duties by this Act granted, without regard to any Exemption from the Duties of Assessed Taxes; and that this Act shall extend to charge Persons resident in Ireland with the Duties under Schedule (E.) in respect of Public Offices or Employments, although the Duties thereof are necessarily and permanently performed in Ireland.

Persons holding Offices in Ireland, and Members of Parliament in Ireland, chargeable, notwithstanding 5 & 6 Vict. c 35.

IX. The several Persons chosen or appointed under the Provisions of the said first-mentioned Act to be respectively Commissioners for the General Purposes of the said Act, and to be respectively Additional or other Commissioners, being respectively duly qualified in that Behalf, and also the several Persons appointed to be and who on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three were Commissioners for the Special Purposes of the said Act, shall, without any further or other Election, Nomination, or Appointment respectively, be such Commissioners as aforesaid for the like Purposes under this Act; and wherever in the said Act, or in any Act relating to the Duties thereby granted, Mention is made of the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, the same in relation to the Duties granted by this Act shall be construed and deemed to designate the Commissioners of Inland Revenue: Provided that no Persons shall be Commissioners to supply Vacancies amongst the said Commissioners for General Purposes except such Persons as shall after the passing of this Act be chosen for that Purpose in the Manner provided by the said first-mentioned Act.

Commissioners under former Acts to be Commissioners under this Act.

X. The Provision made by the Act passed in the said Session of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty,

Persons intrusted with the Payment in Section

Section Two, for the assessing and charging the Duties on Dividends and Shares of Annuities payable out of the Revenue of any Foreign State, shall be and the same is hereby extended to the assessing and charging of the Duties granted by this Act, as well on such Dividends and Shares of Annuities as aforesaid as on all Interest, Dividends, or other annual Payments payable out of or in respect of the Stocks, Funds, or Shares of any Foreign Company, Society, Adventure, or Concern, or in respect of any Securities given by or on account of any such Company, Society, Adventure, or Concern, and which said Interest, Dividends, or annual Payments have been or shall be intrusted to any Person in the United Kingdom for Payment to any Persons, Corporations, Companies, or Societies in the United Kingdom, and all Persons intrusted with the Payment of any such Interest, Dividends, or other annual Payments as aforesaid in the United Kingdom, or acting therein as Agents or in any other Character, shall and they are hereby required to do and perform all such Acts, Matters, and Things, in order to the assessing and charging and paying of the said Duties on all such Interest, Dividends, or other annual Payments as aforesaid, and under and subject to the like Penalty or other Liability for any Neglect, Refusal, or Default in that Behalf, as by the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty, Persons intrusted with the Payment of Annuities or any Dividends or Shares of Annuities are required to do and perform, or are subject or liable to for any similar Neglect, Refusal, or Default; and the Assessments of the Duties on all such Interest, Dividends, and other annual Payments as aforesaid shall be made by the Commissioners for Special Purposes under Schedule (D.) of this Act, and the said Commissioners shall do and perform all such Acts, Matters, and Things in relation to such Assessments as by the said Act, Chapter Eighty, they are required to do or perform in relation to any Assessment under the said last-mentioned Act.

Governor, &c. of Bank of Ireland to be Commissioners for assessing Duties on Dividends, Salaries, &c. payable by the Bank, &c.

XI. The Governor and Directors of the Company of the Bank of Ireland shall be Commissioners for executing this Act, for the Purpose of assessing and charging the Duties hereby granted in respect of all Annuities, Dividends, and Shares of Annuities payable by the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland out of the Public Revenue of the United Kingdom to any Persons, Corporations, or Companies whatever, and in respect of all Profits and Gains of the said Company chargeable under Schedule (D.) of this Act, and in respect of all other Dividends, Interests, Annuities, Pensions, and Salaries payable by the said Company, and also in respect of all other Profits chargeable with Duty under this Act and arising within any Office or Department under the Management or Control of the said Governor and Company; and the said last-mentioned Commissioners shall have, use, and exercise all the Powers and Authorities of Commissioners for the General Purposes of this Act, so far as the same relate to the said Duties to be assessed and charged by the said Governor and Directors, and shall make their Assessments of the said Duties, under and subject to the Rules, Regulations, and Exemptions contained in the said first-mentioned Act in relation to the said Duties respectively: Provided always, that the Duties by this Act granted shall extend as the Amount of the said Poor Rate added to the Sum on which the Assessment is made shall exceed the actual Rent.

XVI. All Assessments of the said Duties under the said Schedules (A.) and (B.), in Ireland, shall be made by Surveyors of Taxes or other Officers of Inland Revenue acting in that Behalf under the Directions of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue; and every such Assessment shall be made for and comprise the respective Premises situate within a Union, or an Electoral Division, or such other District as the said last-mentioned Commissioners shall direct; and the same shall be signed by Two of the Commissioners for Special Purposes, who shall cause Duplicates thereof, together with their Warrants for the collecting and levying of the Sums thereby assessed, to be delivered to such Person or Persons as they shall appoint to be Collectors of such Assessments.

By whom Assessments under Schedules (A.) and (B.) in Ireland are to be made and collected.

XVII. Every such Assessment in Ireland of the Duties under the said Schedules (A.) and (B.) of this Act may be collected, levied, and recovered by Distress by the Person appointed in manner aforesaid to be the Collector thereof from the Person assessed, or from the Occupier of the Property assessed, or may be levied upon the particular Premises in respect of which the Assessment is made; and all Goods and Chattels, to whomsoever the same shall belong, found on such Premises in respect of which any Assessment is made of the said Duties under this Act, shall be liable to be distrained and sold for the Recovery of the said Duties; or such Duties as aforesaid, or any Arrears thereof, may be levied and recovered in the same Manner as other Duties assessed in Ireland under this Act may be levied and recovered: Provided always, that the Duty assessed under the said Schedule (A.) upon or in respect of any Tenement or Hereditament may be collected, recovered, and levied by the said Collector from the Landlord or immediate Lessor of the Premises assessed, whether he be named in the Assessment or not; and to that end such Collector is hereby authorized and empowered to use, exercise, and put in force against such Landlord or immediate Lessor all or any of the Remedies, Ways, and Means provided by an Act of the First and Second Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Fifty-six, and an Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-two, or either of the said Acts, by which any Rate made for the Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland may be collected, recovered, or levied from any immediate Lessor primarily liable to the Payment of Rates for Premises the Occupier of which is exempted from such Payment: Provided also, that where any Proceeding for the Recovery of any such Rate is by Law required to be had or taken in the Name of the Guardians of a Poor Law Union, or by the Direction or with the Consent of such Guardians or of the Poor Law Commissioners, or by or with any other Direction or Consent, the like Proceeding for the Recovery of the said Duties under this Act may be had and taken by and in the Name of such Collector as aforesaid, and without any such Direction or Consent; provided that where any Assessment under the said Schedule (A.) shall have been made upon the Tenant or Occupier of the Premises assessed, the Landlord or immediate Lessor shall be liable to be proceeded against in manner aforesaid said ; and if such annual Value at which such Property is worth to be let as aforesaid shall exceed the actual Rent payable yearly by the Tenant or Occupier of such Premises, the Landlord or immediate Lessor shall be assessed under Schedule (A.) upon the Amount of such actual Rent only, and the Tenant or Occupier shall be assessed under the said Schedule (A.) on the Difference between that Amount and the Amount of such last-mentioned annual Value, subject nevertheless to any Claim for Exemption which the Parties respectively may be entitled to : Provided also, that where any Person receiving Rent in respect of any Hereditament in Ireland exempt from being rated to the Relief of the Poor is liable to be rated in respect of such Rent to the Extent of One Half the Poundage of any Poor Rate, the said Duties in Ireland chargeable under the said Schedule (A.) shall be charged and assessed upon such Person by a Poundage Rate upon the full Amount of such Rent.

How Assessments in Ireland under Schedules (A.) and (B.) are to be collected and recovered.

Commissioners of Inland Revenue may direct Re-valuations where existing Valuations are incorrect.

XIV. Provided also, That if in any Case it appear to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue that any such Valuation as aforesaid for the Time being in force is not correct (having reference to the Principles according to which the same ought by Law to have been made,) with respect to all or any of the Tenements or rateable Hereditaments included therein, it shall be lawful for such Commissioners to direct the Commissioner of Valuation to make or cause to be made a Re-valuation of the Tenements or Hereditaments with respect to which the said Valuation is incorrect, and such Commissioner of Valuation shall forthwith, with all convenient Speed, make or cause to be made such Re-valuation accordingly, and sign the same and transmit it to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue ; and such Re-valuation shall be made according to the Principles or Rules according to which such incorrect Valuation ought by Law to have been made, and the Duties chargeable under the said Schedules (A.) and (B.) shall, after such Re-valuation, be charged and assessed according thereto ; provided that if any Person assessed to the last-mentioned Duties according to such Re-valuation deem himself aggrieved thereby, it shall be lawful for him to appeal against such Assessment on the ground of the Incorrectness of such Re-valuation, and upon such Appeal it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, Assistant Barrister, Chairman, or Recorder hearing or re-hearing such Appeal to alter as well such Re-valuation as the Assessment thereon, and make such Order in relation thereto as they or he may think fit.

Allowance for Poor Rates chargeable on the Landlord's Rent in Ireland.

XV. In assessing in Ireland the Duties chargeable under Schedule (A.) of this Act on the Landlord or immediate Lessor, in every Case where the Amount or annual Value on which the Assessment is made on him is not less than the annual Rent reserved or payable to him for the Premises in respect of which the Assessment is made, an Allowance or Abatement of a proportionate Part of the Duty shall be made in respect of the Amount of the Poor Rates which such Landlord or Lessor shall have paid or borne for the same Premises in the Year preceding ; and if the Amount or annual Value on which such Assessment as aforesaid is made shall be less than the said Rent, then such Allowance or Abatement as aforesaid shall be made only in respect of so much as the Amount of the said Poor Rate added to the Sum on which the Assessment is made shall exceed the actual Rent.

XVI. All Assessments of the said Duties under the said Schedules (A.) and (B.), in Ireland, shall be made by Surveyors of Taxes or other Officers of Inland Revenue acting in that Behalf under the Directions of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue; and every such Assessment shall be made for and comprise the respective Premises situate within a Union, or an Electoral Division, or such other District as the said last-mentioned Commissioners shall direct; and the same shall be signed by Two of the Commissioners for Special Purposes, who shall cause Duplicates thereof, together with their Warrants for the collecting and levying of the Sums thereby assessed, to be delivered to such Person or Persons as they shall appoint to be Collectors of such Assessments.

XVII. Every such Assessment in Ireland of the Duties under the said Schedules (A.) and (B.) of this Act may be collected, levied, and recovered by Distress by the Person appointed in manner aforesaid to be the Collector thereof from the Person assessed, or from the Occupier of the Property assessed, or may be levied upon the particular Premises in respect of which the Assessment is made; and all Goods and Chattels, to whomsoever the same shall belong, found on such Premises in respect of which any Assessment is made of the said Duties under this Act, shall be liable to be distrained and sold for the Recovery of the said Duties; or such Duties as aforesaid, or any Arrears thereof, may be levied and recovered in the same Manner as other Duties assessed in Ireland under this Act may be levied and recovered: Provided always, that the Duty assessed under the said Schedule (A.) upon or in respect of any Tenement or Hereditament may be collected, recovered, and levied by the said Collector from the Landlord or immediate Lessor of the Premises assessed, whether he be named in the Assessment or not; and to that end such Collector is hereby authorized and empowered to use, exercise, and put in force against such Landlord or immediate Lessor all or any of the Remedies, Ways, and Means provided by an Act of the First and Second Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Fifty-six, and an Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-two, or either of the said Acts, by which any Rate made for the Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland may be collected, recovered, or levied from any immediate Lessor primarily liable to the Payment of Rates for Premises the Occupier of which is exempted from such Payment: Provided also, that where any Proceeding for the Recovery of any such Rate is by Law required to be had or taken in the Name of the Guardians of a Poor Law Union, or by the Direction or with the Consent of such Guardians or of the Poor Law Commissioners, or by or with any other Direction or Consent, the like Proceeding for the Recovery of the said Duties under this Act may be had and taken by and in the Name of such Collector as aforesaid, and without any such Direction or Consent; provided that where any Assessment under the said Schedule (A.) shall have been made upon the Tenant or Occupier of the Premises assessed, the Landlord or immediate Lessor shall be liable to be proceeded against in manner aforesaid

only in default of Payment of such Assessment by the said Tenant or Occupier, and for the Recovery of so much only of the Duty assessed as shall be chargeable in respect of the Rent payable yearly to such Landlord or immediate Lessor for the Premises assessed.

Landlords in Ireland entitled to claim Return of Duty paid by them in respect of Rent lost by Bankruptcy or absconding of Tenant.

XVIII. When any Landlord or immediate Lessor of any Tenement or Hereditament in Ireland assessed to the Duty chargeable under Schedule (A.) of this Act shall have paid such Duty, and shall afterwards prove to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners for Special Purposes that the Rent due or payable to him in respect of such Tenement or Hereditament for the Period for which the said Duty was assessed, or any Portion of such Rent, has been wholly and irrecoverably lost by reason of the Bankruptcy, Insolvency, or absconding of the Tenant or Occupier by whom such Rent was payable, or by the fraudulent Assignment or Removal of his Goods, or by reason of such Tenement or Hereditament being left waste and unoccupied, then and in such Case the said Landlord or Lessor shall be entitled to be repaid such Proportion of the said Duty as he shall have paid in respect of the Rent so lost; and the said Commissioners shall order and direct the Repayment of such Proportion of Duty in like Manner as by the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, they are authorized to order and direct the Repayment of Duty in other Cases, provided that such Landlord or Lessor shall make his Claim for such Repayment to the said Commissioners within the Period of Six Calendar Months after the Expiration of the Year for which the said Duty was assessed.

Persons having Custody of Valuations under Poor Relief Acts in Ireland to produce same to Officers under this Act, and permit Copies to be taken.

XIX. Every Person having in his Custody or Possession any Survey or Valuation on which the Rates for any Union or Electoral Division shall be assessed or made, or any Rate or Assessment made under the Provisions of the Acts for the Relief of the Poor in Ireland, or any of them, shall, at the Request of any Inspector, Surveyor, or other Officer acting in the Execution of this Act in Ireland, produce and show every such Survey, Valuation, Rate, and Assessment to such Inspector, Surveyor, or other Officer, and permit him to inspect the same, and to take Copies thereof or Extracts therefrom without paying anything for the same; and in case the Person having the Custody or Possession of any such Survey, Valuation, Rate, or Assessment shall, on any such Request as aforesaid, refuse to produce the same to such Inspector, Surveyor, or other Officer, or to permit him to inspect the same, or to take Copies thereof or such Extracts as he may think fit to take therefrom, such Person shall, for every such Refusal, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

Penalty for Refusal, &c.

By whom Assessments under Schedules (D.) and (E.) to be made in Ireland.

XX. The Assessments of the Duties chargeable in Ireland under the several Schedules (D.) and (E.) of this Act shall be made by such Surveyors of Taxes, or other Officers of Inland Revenue as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall appoint in that Behalf; and such Assessments shall be allowed and signed by the Commissioners for Special Purposes, who shall also appoint the Times and Places for hearing Appeals against the same as herein-after mentioned, and shall also cause due Notice of every such Assessment, and of the Amount thereof, and of the Time and Place appointed for hearing any Appeal against the same, to be be given by some Officer of Inland Revenue to every Person so assessed.

XXI. All Appeals against Assessments under this Act in Ireland shall be heard and determined by the said Commissioners for Special Purposes, or any Two of them, whose Determination on any such Appeal shall be final and conclusive, unless the Person charged by the Assessment shall think himself aggrieved by such Determination, and shall require that such Appeal shall be re-heard as herein-after provided; and where any Person charged by any such Assessment as aforesaid, and to whom Notice thereof and of the Time and Place appointed for hearing any Appeal against the same shall be given as herein-before directed, shall neglect to appeal accordingly, such Assessment shall also be conclusive, and such Person shall be precluded from afterwards disputing or questioning the same.

XXII. If any Person charged by an Assessment in Ireland shall think himself aggrieved by the Determination of the said Commissioners for Special Purposes in any such Appeal as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for him, on giving Notice in Writing to the Inspector or Surveyor within Ten Days after such Determination, to require that such Appeal shall be re-heard by the Assistant Barrister for the County or Riding where such Person shall have been assessed, or in case he shall have been assessed in the County of Dublin, by the Chairman of the Sessions of the Peace of such County, or in case such Person shall have been assessed in the City of Dublin, by the Recorder of such City, or in case such Person shall have been assessed in the Borough of Cork, by the Recorder of such Borough; and where any such Appeal shall be so required to be re-heard, any Statement or Schedule in the Possession of the said Commissioners for Special Purposes, returned to them for the Purpose of such Appeal, shall be transmitted by them to the Assistant Barrister, Chairman, or Recorder (as the Case may require); and such Assistant Barrister, Chairman, or Recorder shall with all convenient Speed re-hear and determine such Appeal, and shall take the Oath or Affirmation required to be taken by a Commissioner for Special Purposes, and shall and may have and exercise the same Powers and Authorities in relation to the Assessment appealed against, and the Determination of the Matter thereof and in relation to all Matters consequent thereon, as any Two or more Commissioners for Special Purposes might have and exercise, and his Determination thereon shall be final and conclusive.

XXIII. After the respective Times for hearing Appeals against such Assessments as aforesaid in Ireland, then as to all Assessments against which Appeals shall have been heard and determined, leaving any Sum assessed or charged by any such Assessment, and as to all Assessments against which no Appeal shall have been made, the Commissioners for Special Purposes shall cause Duplicates thereof, together with Warrants under the Hands and Seals of Two of the said last-mentioned Commissioners, to be delivered to such Officers of Inland Revenue or other Persons as shall be named in such Warrants respectively, appointing such Persons to be Collectors of the Duties and Sums of Money assessed and charged in such Duplicates respectively, Appeals in Ireland to be heard by Commissioners for Special Purposes.

Persons assessed aggrieved by Determination of Commissioners may require Appeal to be re-heard by an Assistant Barrister, &c.

After hearing Appeals in Ireland, Duplicates of Assessments to be delivered to Collectors, with Warrants to collect same.

and requiring and empowering such Collectors respectively to collect, demand, levy, and recover all such Duties and Sums of Money.

Commissioners for Special Purposes, Inspectors and Surveyors of Taxes, &c., in executing this Act in Ireland, to exercise same Powers as similar Officers in England.

XXIV. The Commissioners for Special Purposes acting in the Execution of this Act in Ireland in relation to the allowing or signing of any such Assessment as aforesaid, and to the hearing and determining of any Appeal against the same, and to the making and signing of any Duplicate thereof and any Warrant for collecting and levying the Duties and Sums of Money charged or assessed thereby, and also all Inspectors and Surveyors of Taxes, and other Officers of Inland Revenue acting in Ireland in relation to the making of any such Assessment or to the assessing or charging of any Person therein or thereby, and also all Persons named or appointed by the said Commissioners to be respectively Collectors of the said Duties and Sums of Money in relation to the collecting, levying, distraining for, or otherwise recovering of the same, shall respectively be, and are hereby invested with, and shall have, use, and exercise all such and the like Powers and Authorities as any Commissioners, either for General or Special Purposes, or any additional Commissioners, and as any Inspectors, Surveyors, Collectors, or other Officers respectively have or are invested with, or can or may use or exercise in England in relation to the making or allowing of any Assessment of Duties under this Act, or to the assessing or charging of any Person to such Duties, or to the hearing or determining of any Appeal against any such Assessment, or to the collecting, levying, distraining for, or otherwise recovering of any such Duties, so far as such Powers and Authorities or any of them are applicable or may be adapted to the Performance of similar Acts, Matters, and Things in Ireland.

Unions, &c. in Ireland not to be responsible for Collectors.

XXV. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to make any Union, Electoral Division, or Place in Ireland in which any Assessment of any Duties granted under this Act shall be made, answerable for the Amount of Duties charged in such Place, nor for any Neglect or Default of the Collector in demanding or collecting same, nor shall any Re-assessment be made in Ireland upon any such Place for any Arrears or Loss occasioned by any such Neglect or Default.

Who to be Commissioners where there are not sufficient Officers in any Court or Department.

XXVI. Where in any Court or Department of Office there shall not be a sufficient Number of Officers proper to be appointed Commissioners for executing this Act in relation to the Duties on Offices and Employments of Profit in such Court or Department of Office, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to direct that the Commissioners for any other Department shall execute this Act in relation to the Offices and Employments of Profit in any such Court or Department as aforesaid; and in default of a sufficient Number of Commissioners being appointed in any such Court or Department, and of such Direction as aforesaid, the Commissioners for General Purposes in their respective Districts in England and Scotland respectively, and the Commissioners for Special Purposes in Ireland, shall respectively put this Act in execution in relation to the Duties on Offices and Employments in any such Court or Department as aforesaid; and wherever in the said Act of the Powers of Commissioners for General Purposes as to Duties on Offices to be executed in Ireland by Commissioners for Special Purposes.

Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, any Power or Direction is given to the Commissioners for executing the said Act in relation to the Duties on Lands and Tenements to execute the same in their several Districts in relation to the Duties on Offices and Employments of Profit, every such Power and Direction shall, in relation to the Duties on Offices and Employments of Profit in Ireland under this Act, be executed and carried out by the Commissioners for Special Purposes.

XXVII. It shall be lawful for any Person who shall be duly assessed by the Commissioners for Special Purposes for the Duties on the Profits and Gains described in Schedule (D.) of this Act, for the First Year for which the said Duties are by this Act granted, to compound for the charging of the Rate of Duty which shall from Time to Time be payable under this Act for each and every Year up to the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, on the same Amount of such Profits and Gains in which he shall have been so assessed; and it shall also be lawful for any Person who shall be duly assessed as aforesaid for the Year commencing from the said last-mentioned Day in like Manner to compound for the charging of the Rate of Duty which shall then be payable for each and every remaining Year of the Period for which the said Duties are by this Act granted, on the same Amount of such Profits and Gains in which he shall have been so assessed as last aforesaid; and the Consideration for every such Composition shall be the Payment, in each and every Year of the said Composition, of an Addition to the said Duties at and after the Rate of One Shilling for every Twenty Shillings of the said Duties; and every such Composition shall be entered into and made with the Commissioners for Special Purposes, under and subject to the Conditions, Rules, and Regulations (mutatis mutandis) contained in the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty five, in relation to Compositions under the said last-mentioned Act, and the Contract for the same shall be in such Form as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall provide in that Behalf.

XXVIII. The Exemption granted by the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, to Persons whose respective Incomes are less than One hundred and fifty Pounds a Year shall be limited and restricted under this Act to Persons whose whole Incomes from every Source are less than One hundred Pounds a Year respectively: Provided always, that any Person who shall be assessed or charged to any of the Duties granted by this Act, or shall have paid the same either by Deduction or otherwise, and who shall claim and prove, in the Manner prescribed by the said Act, that his total Income from every Source, although amounting to One hundred Pounds or upwards, is less than One hundred and fifty Pounds a Year for the Year of the Assessment of his Profits or Gains, shall be entitled to be relieved from so much of the said Duties assessed upon or paid by him as shall exceed the Rate of Fivepence for every Twenty Shillings of his Profits or Gains, and such Relief shall be given either by Reduction or Abatement of the Assessment upon such Person, or by the Repayment to him of so much of the said Excess as he shall have paid, or by both of those Means, as the Case may require;

Persons assessed under Schedule (D.) may compound.

Exemption of Persons whose Income is under 100*l.*, and Abatement to those whose Income is under 150*l.* a Year respectively.

require; and in Ireland the Income arising from the Occupation of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, by any Person claiming such Exemption or Relief as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be One Third of the annual Value on which the same shall be chargeable under Schedule (B.) of this Act; and all the Provisions, Rules, and Regulations contained in the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, in relation to the Exemption of Persons whose Incomes are less than One hundred and fifty Pounds a Year, and to the Reduction or Abatement of any Assessment upon such Persons, or to the Repayment to them of any Duties or Sums of Money, shall be observed and applied, so far as the same are applicable (mutatis mutandis), to the Exemption of Persons whose Incomes are less than One hundred Pounds a Year, and to the Claims for Relief in the Manner aforesaid to Persons whose Incomes are less than One hundred and fifty Pounds a Year.

In computing Income from Rent in Ireland Poor Rates to be deducted.

XXIX. Provided always, That in computing the Income of any Person for the Purposes of this Act, such Computation, so far as regards any Rent derived from Tenements or Hereditaments in Ireland chargeable under Schedule (A.), shall be made after allowing for the Amount of Poor Rates chargeable on such Rent by way of Deduction or otherwise.

Relief to Persons claiming Abatement of Assessment on proving their Incomes to be under 100*l.* a Year.

XXX. Where, on any Application for Relief or Abatement of Assessment in pursuance of the Provisions contained respectively in Section One hundred and thirty-three and Section One hundred and thirty-four of the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, and in the Third Section of an Act of the Fourteenth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter Twelve, it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners to whom such Application shall be made that the total Amount of the Income from every Source of the Person claiming such Relief or Abatement for the Year for which such Assessment was made was under One hundred Pounds, such Person shall be entitled to the same Relief and Repayment respectively as by this Act and the said first-mentioned Act is provided in the Case of Persons claiming Relief on the Ground of their respective annual Incomes being less than One hundred Pounds a Year.

Claims of Exemption or for Relief in Ireland to be made to Commissioners for Special Purposes.

XXXI. In Ireland all Claims of Exemption by reason of the Income of any Person being under One hundred Pounds a Year, and all Claims for Relief or Reduction of Assessment on the Ground of such Income being under One hundred and fifty Pounds a Year, and all Claims for Return or Repayment of any Duties on either of the Grounds aforesaid, or under any other of the Provisions of this Act or of the Acts herein mentioned or referred to, shall be made in such Manner and Form as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall direct and provide in that Behalf; and all such Claims shall be made to and shall be adjudicated and finally determined by the Commissioners for Special Purposes, or any Two of them; provided that there shall be a like Appeal as regards Claims for Exemptions in Ireland to the Assistant Barrister, Chairman, or Recorder (as the Case may require) as is herein-before contained in reference to Persons charged by an Assessment and feeling aggrieved thereby.

XXXII. In

Sums expended may not have been charged on such Lands by any public Rate or Assessment.

XXXVIII. Where in any Burgh in Scotland Tolls commonly known by the Name of Customs are levied under the Authority of any Act of Parliament or Charter, and are applied and expended in such Burgh in or towards defraying the Expenses of paving, lighting, or cleansing the same, or of the Police thereof, or in or towards discharging any other similar public Burdens, the Duty which may have been assessed and paid under this Act upon or in respect of such Tolls shall, so far as regards so much of the said Tolls as shall have been so expended as aforesaid, on due Proof of all the necessary Facts to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners for Special Purposes, be allowed and repaid under an Order of the said Commissioners, in like Manner as in other Cases where Duties are allowed and repaid under the Provisions in that Behalf contained in the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five.

Duties on Tolls called Customs levied in Burghs in Scotland and expended for public Purposes to be repaid.

XXXIX. Provided also, That notwithstanding anything in the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, contained, all Lands occupied for the Growth of Hops shall be charged to the Duties under Schedule (B.) of this Act according to the General Rules contained in Schedule (B.) of the said first-mentioned Act, and not by estimating the Profits of such Lands according to the Rules contained in Schedule (D.) of the said Act.

Hop Grounds to be charged under Schedule (B.) as other Lands.

XL. Every Person who shall be liable to the Payment of any Rent, or any yearly Interest of Money, or any Annuity or other annual Payment, either as a Charge on any Property or as a personal Debt or Obligation by virtue of any Contract, whether the same shall be received or payable half-yearly or at any shorter or more distant Periods, shall be entitled and is hereby authorized, on making such Payment, to deduct and retain thereout the Amount of the Rate of Duty which at the Time when such Payment becomes due shall be payable under this Act, that is to say, Sevenpence, Sixpence, or Fivepence, as the Case may be, for every Twenty Shillings of such Payment; and the Person liable to such Payment shall be acquitted and discharged of so much Money as such Deduction shall amount unto, as if the Amount thereof had actually been paid unto the Person to whom such Payment shall have been due and payable; and the Person to whom such Payment as aforesaid is to be made shall allow such Deduction, upon the Receipt of the Residue of such Money, under pain of forfeiting the Sum of Fifty Pounds for any Refusal so to do: Provided always, that no Tenant or Occupier of any Property chargeable under Schedule (A.) of this Act shall be entitled to deduct or retain out of the Rent thereof any greater Sum than the Amount of the Duty which shall have been assessed and charged upon or in respect of such Property, and actually paid by such Tenant or Occupier.

Deductions of Duty on Payment of Rent, Interest, &c.

XLI. Provided always, That whenever any Person liable to the said Duties chargeable in Ireland under the said Schedule (A.) shall be entitled to retain a proportionate Amount of such Duties from any annual Payment from which he is now by Law entitled to deduct any Sum on account of Poor Rates, he shall be entitled Deductions to be made from net Payment after allowing for Poor Rates in Ireland.

As to Deductions for the Repairs of Collegiate Churches and Chapels, Chancels, &c.

XXXIV. Provided also, That the Deduction allowed under Schedule (A.), No. V., of the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, for the Repairs of Collegiate Churches and Chapels and Chancels of Churches, or of any College or Hall in any of the Universities, by any Ecclesiastical or Collegiate Body, Rector, Vicar, or other Person bound to repair the same, shall, in respect of the Duties under Schedule (A.) of this Act, be the Amount of the Sum so expended in the Year preceding that in which the Assessment is made, instead of an Average of Twenty-one Years, as in the said Schedule (A.), No. V., is mentioned.

Tenants of Lands who are called upon to pay Arrears due from former Occupiers may deduct the Amount from their Rent.

XXXV. Where any Occupier for the Time being of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, being Tenant thereof, shall be called upon and required to pay, and shall have paid, any Sum or Sums assessed upon or in respect of such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments under the said Schedule (A.) of this Act, and which said Sum or Sums, or any Portion thereof, ought, under the Rules for charging the Duties under the said Schedule, to have been paid or to be paid by any former Tenant or Occupier of the same Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or his Executors or Administrators, it shall be lawful for the said Occupier for the Time being to deduct and retain, from and out of any subsequent Payment of Rent to his Landlord, the said Sum or Sums of Money, or any Portion thereof, which ought to have been or to be paid by such former Tenant or Occupier, or his Executors or Administrators as aforesaid: Provided that nothing in the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, or in this Act contained shall extend to authorize the levying upon any such Occupier for the Time being any Arrear of Duty assessed under Schedule (A.) or Schedule (B.) of this Act which ought to have been levied upon and ultimately paid and borne by any former Occupier of the same Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to alter, prejudice, or affect any Remedy given by the said Rules for the recovering and levying of any such Sum or Sums, or any Portion thereof, from or upon such former Tenant or Occupier, or his Executors or Administrators.

Houses let in several Tenements to be charged on Landlords.

XXXVI. Any House or Building let in different Apartments or Tenements, and occupied by Two or more Persons severally, shall nevertheless be charged to the Duty under this Act as One entire House or Tenement, and the Assessment thereof shall be made on the Landlord; but in default of Payment by him the Duty so charged and assessed may be levied on the Occupier or Occupiers respectively, and being paid by them or One of them shall be deducted and allowed out of the next or any subsequent Payment on account of Rent.

Deduction to be allowed under Schedule (A.) for Expenses of making Sea Walls, &c.

XXXVII. In charging the Duty under Schedule (A.) of this Act in respect of Lands, an Allowance and Deduction shall be made for the Amount expended by the Landlord or Owner thereof on an Average of the Twenty-one preceding Years in the making or repairing of Sea Walls or other Embankments necessary for the Preservation or Protection of such Lands against the Encroachment or overflowing of the Sea or any Tidal River, although the Sums

Sums expended may not have been charged on such Lands by any public Rate or Assessment.

XXXVIII. Where in any Burgh in Scotland Tolls commonly known by the Name of Customs are levied under the Authority of any Act of Parliament or Charter, and are applied and expended in such Burgh in or towards defraying the Expenses of paving, lighting, or cleansing the same, or of the Police thereof, or in or towards discharging any other similar public Burdens, the Duty which may have been assessed and paid under this Act upon or in respect of such Tolls shall, so far as regards so much of the said Tolls as shall have been so expended as aforesaid, on due Proof of all the necessary Facts to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners for Special Purposes, be allowed and repaid under an Order of the said Commissioners, in like Manner as in other Cases where Duties are allowed and repaid under the Provisions in that Behalf contained in the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five.

Duties on Tolls called Customs levied in Burghs in Scotland and expended for public Purposes to be repaid.

XXXIX. Provided also, That notwithstanding anything in the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, contained, all Lands occupied for the Growth of Hops shall be charged to the Duties under Schedule (B.) of this Act according to the General Rules contained in Schedule (B.) of the said first-mentioned Act, and not by estimating the Profits of such Lands according to the Rules contained in Schedule (D.) of the said Act.

Hop Grounds to be charged under Schedule (B.) as other Lands.

XL. Every Person who shall be liable to the Payment of any Rent, or any yearly Interest of Money, or any Annuity or other annual Payment, either as a Charge on any Property or as a personal Debt or Obligation by virtue of any Contract, whether the same shall be received or payable half-yearly or at any shorter or more distant Periods, shall be entitled and is hereby authorized, on making such Payment, to deduct and retain thereout the Amount of the Rate of Duty which at the Time when such Payment becomes due shall be payable under this Act, that is to say, Sevenpence, Sixpence, or Fivepence, as the Case may be, for every Twenty Shillings of such Payment; and the Person liable to such Payment shall be acquitted and discharged of so much Money as such Deduction shall amount unto, as if the Amount thereof had actually been paid unto the Person to whom such Payment shall have been due and payable; and the Person to whom such Payment as aforesaid is to be made shall allow such Deduction, upon the Receipt of the Residue of such Money, under pain of forfeiting the Sum of Fifty Pounds for any Refusal so to do: Provided always, that no Tenant or Occupier of any Property chargeable under Schedule (A.) of this Act shall be entitled to deduct or retain out of the Rent thereof any greater Sum than the Amount of the Duty which shall have been assessed and charged upon or in respect of such Property, and actually paid by such Tenant or Occupier.

Deductions of Duty on Payment of Rent, Interest, &c.

XLI. Provided always, That whenever any Person liable to the said Duties chargeable in Ireland under the said Schedule (A.) shall be entitled to retain a proportionate Amount of such Duties from any annual Payment from which he is now by Law entitled to deduct any Sum on account of Poor Rates, he shall be entitled to retain such proportionate Amount only upon the net Sum payable by him after the Allowance for Poor Rates.

Deductions to be made from net Payment after allowing for Poor Rates in Ireland.

Deduction of Duty to be allowed on Payment of Rent-charges under the Drainage Advances Acts.

XLII. 'And whereas under certain Acts of Parliament Advances of Public Money to promote the Improvement of Lands have been made by way of Loan, and in Ireland under an Act passed in the Tenth Year of Her Majesty, Chapter Ten, and any Acts amending the same, and under an Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty-nine, for River Drainage, and any Acts amending the same, and the Repayment thereof has been secured by a Rentcharge upon such Lands to be paid for a Term limited by the said Acts respectively; and by which the Principal Sums advanced will eventually be repaid with Interest thereon, and it is just that Provision should be made for deducting and allowing the Duty charged by this Act in proportion to such Interest on the Payment of such Rentcharge.' It shall be lawful for any Person paying any such Rentcharge from Time to Time to deduct and retain thereout in respect of the Duty chargeable under this Act One Third Part of the Sum which the Rate of such Duty computed on such Rentcharge will amount to and no more, and the Collectors and Receivers of such Rentcharges are hereby required to allow such Deduction upon Receipt of the Residue of such Rentcharge then due.

No Action of Ejectment in Ireland to be defeated on Ground of Deductions reducing the Amount due under a Year's Rent.

XLIII. No Action of Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent in Ireland shall be defeated on the Ground that the Person liable to pay such Rent is entitled, under the Provisions of this Act or any Act incorporated therewith, to a Deduction which would reduce the Amount due by him under a Year's Rent.

Occupiers of Lands, &c. having made true Returns of their annual Value not required to make further Returns until 1857.

XLIV. The Occupiers of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments who shall make true and correct Statements and Returns, as required by the said Acts, of the annual Value of all such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments in their respective Occupations, in order to an Assessment of the Duties chargeable thereon, under the respective Schedules (A.) and (B.) of this Act, for the Year commencing from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, shall not (unless they shall appeal against the Continuance of the same Assessment for any subsequent Year) be required to make any further Statements or Returns of such annual Value in respect of the same Premises until the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven; and in like Manner such Occupiers as aforesaid who shall make true and correct Statements and Returns in order to an Assessment of the said Duties for the Year commencing from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven shall not (unless they shall appeal against the Continuance of such last-mentioned Assessment) be required to make any further Statements or Returns in respect of the same Premises for any subsequent Year of the Period for which the said Duties are by this Act granted.

Assessments under Schedules (A.) and (B.) to continue in force for subsequent Years.

XLV. The Assessments to be made for the Year commencing from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three of the Duties chargeable under the respective Schedules (A.) and (B.) of this Act shall be and remain in force, and the several Sums charged and assessed therein shall be collected and levied also, for the Second Year for which the same Duties are by this Act granted, without altering the Names of the Parties charged, notwithstanding any Change in the Occupation of the Premises in respect of which any such Assessment may be made; and the same Assessments reduced and abated in proportion to the reduced Duties which will then be chargeable under this Act shall in like Manner be collected and levied for the Third and Fourth Years respectively; and in like Manner also the Assessments to be made of the said Duties for the Year commencing from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven shall be and remain in force, and the several Sums charged and assessed therein for the said last-mentioned Year shall also be collected and levied, for each and every remaining Year of the Period for which the said Duties are by this Act granted: Provided always, that the Continuance of any such Assessment for the Second or any subsequent Year shall be subject to the Conditions, Rules, and Regulations in that Behalf contained in Section Eighty-seven of the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, in relation to the Continuance of Assessments made under that Act.

XLVI. The Relief granted by the Third Section of the said Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Twelve, to Persons occupying Lands for the Purposes of Husbandry only, and obtaining their Livelihood principally from Husbandry, shall be extended and granted to every Person occupying Lands as Tenant thereof for the Purposes of Husbandry only, although he may not obtain his Livelihood principally from Husbandry, as well as to every Person occupying Lands for the Purposes aforesaid, being the Owner thereof, and obtaining his Livelihood principally as aforesaid.

Extending to Tenant Farmers the Relief granted by 13 & 14 Vict. c. 12. s. 3.

XLVII. 'Whereas by the Eighty-first Section of the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, if upon Appeal any Dispute shall arise touching the annual Value of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, the Commissioners are authorized, if they deem it necessary, to direct that a Valuation thereof shall be taken and made by a Person of Skill to be named by the said Commissioners: It shall be lawful for the Appellant, as well as the said Commissioners, upon any such Appeal, to require that such Valuation as aforesaid shall be made, and the said Commissioners, on being required so to do by the Appellant, as well as in Cases where they may deem it necessary, shall name a Person of Skill to make such Valuation; and upon such Valuation being verified on the Oath of the Person making the same, the Assessment shall be made according thereto.'

Appellants may require Commissioners to appoint a Valuer to value Lands.

XLVIII. The Duty to be charged under Schedule (D.) in respect of Professions, Employments, or Vocations not contained in any other Schedule of this Act shall be computed on a Sum not less than the full Amount of the Balance of the Profits, Gains, and Emoluments of such Professions, Employments, or Vocations upon a fair and just Average of Three Years, instead of the Amount of such Profits, Gains, and Emoluments within the preceding Year, as directed by the Rules of Schedule (D.) in the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, but subject in all other respects to the said last-mentioned Rules.

Duty on Professions to be charged on an Average of Profits of Three Years.

Friendly Societies legally established entitled to Exemption under Schedules (C.) and (D.)

XLIX. Any Friendly Society legally established under any Act of Parliament relating to Friendly Societies, and which does not assure or grant to any Individual any Sum or Annuity to an Amount which would debar such Society from the Benefit of the Exemption granted to Friendly Societies by the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-five, in respect of their Stocks, Dividends, and Interest chargeable under Schedule (C.) of the said Act, shall be entitled to Exemption under this Act, as well in respect of all their Interest and other Profits and Gains chargeable under Schedule (D.) as in respect of their Stocks, Dividends, and Interest chargeable under Schedule (C.) of this Act.

In estimating Profits under Schedule (D.) doubtful Debts to be valued.

L. In ascertaining, estimating, or assessing the Profits of any Person chargeable under Schedule (D.) of this Act, either upon Appeal or otherwise, it shall be lawful to estimate the Value of all doubtful Debts due or owing to such Person; and in the Case of the Bankruptcy or Insolvency of the Debtor, the Amount of the Dividend which may reasonably be expected to be received on any such Debt shall be deemed to be the Value thereof, and the Duty chargeable under the said Schedule shall be assessed and charged upon the estimated Value of all such doubtful Debts accordingly.

Expenses necessarily incurred in respect of a public Office to be deducted from the Amount to be assessed.

LL. In assessing the Duty chargeable under Schedule (E.) of this Act in respect of any public Office or Employment where the Person exercising the same is necessarily obliged to incur and defray out of the Salary, Fees, or Emoluments of such Office or Employment the Expenses of travelling in the Performance of the Duties thereof, or of keeping and maintaining a Horse to enable him to perform the same, or otherwise to lay out and expend Money wholly, exclusively, and necessarily in the Performance of the Duties of his Office or Employment, it shall be lawful to deduct from the Amount of the said Salary, Fees, and Emoluments to be assessed under this Act the Amount of all such Expenses and Disbursements necessarily incurred and defrayed in manner aforesaid.

Abatement to Clergymen for Expenses incurred in the Performance of their Duties.

LII. In assessing the Duty chargeable under any Schedule of this Act upon any Clergyman or Minister of any Religious Denomination in respect of any Profits, Fees, or Emoluments of his Profession or Vocation, it shall be lawful to deduct from such Profits, Fees, or Emoluments any Sum or Sums of Money paid or Expenses incurred by him wholly, exclusively, and necessarily in the Performance of his Duty or Function as such Clergyman or Minister; and if such Sum or Sums or Expenses shall not have been deducted as aforesaid, then a proportionate Part of the Duty charged and paid by such Clergyman or Minister shall, on due Proof to the Commissioners of such Sum or Sums having been expended as aforesaid, be repaid to such Clergyman or Minister.

Public Officers becoming entitled to increased Salaries, &c. to be charged by supplemental Assessment.

LIII. Where any Person who shall hold or exercise any public Office or Employment of Profit shall at any Time or Times during or for or in respect of any Year of Assessment become entitled to any additional Salary, Fees, or Emoluments beyond the Amount for which any Assessment may have been made upon him, or beyond the Amount for which at the Commencement of such Year he may have been liable to be assessed, an additional or supple-

supplemental Assessment shall from Time to Time, as often as the Case shall require, be made upon such Person for such additional Salary, Fees, or Emoluments, so that he shall be assessed and charged for the full Amount of the whole of the Salary, Fees, and Emoluments which he shall receive or become entitled to at any Time, and from Time to Time during or for or in respect of the said Year of Assessment.

LIV. Any Person who shall have made Insurance on his Life or on the Life of his Wife, or shall have contracted for any Deferred Annuity on his own Life or on the Life of his Wife, in or with any Insurance Company which shall become registered under any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament for that Purpose, and which shall comply with the Requirements of such Act, and any Person who shall under any Act of Parliament be liable to the Payment of an annual Sum, or to have an annual Sum deducted from his Salary or Stipend, in order to secure a Deferred Annuity to his Widow or a Provision to his Children after his Death, shall be entitled to deduct the Amount of the annual Premium paid by him for such Insurance or Contract, or the annual Sum paid by him or deducted from his Salary or Stipend as aforesaid, from any Profits or Gains in respect of which he shall be liable to be assessed under either of the Schedules (D.) or (E.) of this Act, or to have any Assessment which may be made upon him under either of the said Schedules reduced or abated by the Deduction of the Amount of the said annual Premium from the Amount of the Profits or Gains on which such Assessment has been made; or if such Person shall be assessed to Duties under any of the Schedules contained in this Act, and shall have paid such Assessment, or shall have paid or been charged with any of the said Duties by Deduction or otherwise, such Person, on Claim made to the Commissioners for Special Purposes, and on Production to them of the Receipt for such annual Payment, and on Proof of the Facts to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, shall be entitled to have repaid to him such Proportion of the said Duties paid by such Person as the Amount of the said annual Premium bears to the whole Amount of his Profits and Gains on which he shall be chargeable under all or any of the Schedules of this Act: Provided always, that no such Abatement, Allowance, or Repayment as aforesaid shall be made in respect of any such annual Premium beyond One Sixth Part of the whole Amount of the Profits and Gains of such Person so chargeable as aforesaid, nor shall any such Deduction or Abatement entitle any such Person to claim total Exemption or any Relief from Duty on the Ground of his Profits and Gains being thereby reduced below One hundred or One hundred and fifty Pounds, as the Case may be.

LV. Where any Person assessed or charged to any of the Duties under this Act shall have removed from the District within which the Assessment or Charge upon him was made without having appealed against such Assessment or Charge in such District, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, if they shall think fit, on the Application of such Person, to authorize and empower the Commissioners of the District to which such Person shall have removed as aforesaid to hear and determine his Appeal against such Assessment or Charge, and in every such Persons who have made Insurance or contracted for a Deferred Annuity on the Lives of themselves or Wives to be allowed an Abatement of Duty in respect of the annual Premiums made.

Persons who have removed before appealing may be allowed Appeal in the District to which they have removed.

Case the said last-mentioned Commissioners shall have full Power and Authority and they are hereby required to hear and determine such Appeal accordingly, and any Sum or Sums from which such Person may not be relieved on such Appeal shall be recovered and levied in the same Manner as if such Appeal had been heard and determined by the Commissioners of the District in which such Assessment or Charge was made.

Penalty for inducing Person to make false Returns.

LVI. If any Person shall knowingly and wilfully aid, abet, or assist, or incite or induce, any other Person to make or deliver any false or fraudulent Account, Statement, or Declaration of or concerning any Profits or Gains chargeable under this Act, or of the yearly Rent or Value of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or of any Matters or Things affecting such Rent or Value, such Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

Allowances to Clerks to Commissioners.

LVII. In lieu of the Allowances by the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her present Majesty directed to be granted to the Clerk of the respective Commissioners for the due Performance of the Duties of his Office, there shall be granted the following Allowances respectively; (that is to say,) the Clerk of the respective Commissioners who shall duly perform the Duties of his Office within the respective Times limited by Law in that Behalf, and shall have borne and sustained the incidental Expenses mentioned in the said Act, shall, by Warrant under the Hands of the said Commissioners, have and receive from the respective Officers for Receipt Twopence in the Pound on the net Amount of the Sums assessed and charged in the Duplicates of Assessment, after all Appeals heard and determined, and all just Reductions, Abatements, and Discharges made from such Assessments and Duplicates respectively; and the Clerk who shall not have borne and sustained such incidental Expenses shall by like Warrant have and receive One Penny in the Pound of such net Amount of the Sums assessed and charged as aforesaid, after all such Reductions, Abatements, and Discharges as aforesaid, provided he shall have duly performed the Duties of his Office in the Manner mentioned in the said Act, and not otherwise: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to cause such further Allowance to be made to such Clerk as aforesaid who shall have faithfully performed his Duty under this Act, and shall have borne and sustained such incidental Expenses as aforesaid, of any Sum not exceeding One Penny in the Pound on the Amount of such Part of the gross Assessment as shall have been discharged on Occasion of Claims for Exemption or Abatement made or allowed under this Act on the Ground of Income being below One hundred and fifty Pounds and One hundred Pounds a Year respectively, as the said last-mentioned Commissioners shall, on Consideration of the Extent and Population of the District and the Number of such Claims, think proper to direct; and the Certificate of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall be an Authority to the Officers for Receipt respectively to pay such further Allowance.

Remuneration to Collectors in Ireland.

LVIII. The several Collectors of the Duties granted by this Act in Ireland shall have and receive such Rate of Poundage on the Money of the said Duties which they shall respectively collect ‘ require) with a view to the Suggestion of such Measures as ‘ may make the said Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, and the ‘ Revenues thereof, available in aid of the Erection of new Sees,

 ‘ or of other Arrangements for the Discharge of Episcopal Duties :
 ‘ And whereas it is expedient that the Suggestion and Adoption ‘ of the Measures contemplated by the said Commission should ‘ not be interfered with by reason of Interests becoming vested ‘ under such Appointments as herein-after mentioned.’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Appointments
 to Preferments, in Cathedral Churches, &c. upon Vacancies between 3d March 1853
 and 1st. Jan.
 1855 not to give Title to Compensation
 in case of Abolition, &c.

I. Every Person who may be appointed to any Preferment or Office in or connected with any Cathedral or Collegiate Church in England or Wales upon any Vacancy which has happened since the Third Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, or which may happen before the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, shall be deemed to have taken and shall hold such Preferment or Office subject to such Regulations affecting the same as may hereafter be made by Authority of Parliament, or by any lawful Authority by which in case such Vacancy had continued such Preferment or Office might have been regulated ; and no such Person shall by reason of such Appointment be deemed to have acquired any Title or Claim to Compensation in case such Preferment or Office be hereafter regulated or altered.

To what Digni-ties, &c. this Act to extend.

II. This Act shall extend to every Nomination, Collation, Presentation, Election, Donation, and other Appointment whatsoever made or to be made (upon any such Vacancy as aforesaid) to any Deanery, or to any Canonry or other Dignity or Office in or connected with the Chapter of any Cathedral or Collegiate Church in England or Wales, or to any Office, Preferment, or Employment in any minor Corporation in any such Cathedral or Collegiate Church, or to any other Office or Employment in any such Cathedral or Collegiate Church, or to any Benefice (with or without Cure of Souls) in the Patronage or Gift of any such Dean, Chapter, or minor Corporation, or of any Member of any such Chapter or minor Corporation, to which any Dean, Canon, or other Officer in any Cathedral or Collegiate Church may be presented, or to any Office or Employment in the Patronage or Gift of any such Dean, Chapter, or minor Corporation, or of any Member of any such Chapter or minor Corporation, or to any Mastership, Wardenship, or other Office or Employment in or connected with any School, Hospital, or eleemosinary Foundation in the Gift of any such Dean, Chapter, or minor Corporation, or of any Member of any such Chapter or minor Corporation ; and this Act shall also extend to any Appropriation made or to be made upon or in consequence of any Vacancy after the said Third Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three of any Residential House to any Canon or other Person.

Saving Rights of the present Regius Professor of Ecclesiastical History

III. Provided always, That nothing in the Act shall affect the Rights of the Reverend Robert Hussey, Bachelor of Divinity, Regius Professor of Ecclesiastical History in the University of Oxford, to and in respect of the Canonry in the Cathedral Church of of Christ in Oxford annexed to his Professorship by the Act of the Session holden in the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and thirteen, and to which, under such Act and the Mandamus of Her Majesty in pursuance thereof, he is entitled to succeed on the next Vacancy of such Canonry, or the Rights of any other Person to or in respect of any Preferment or Office to which, on or before the Third Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, he was by Law entitled to succeed on the then next Vacancy thereof: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall affect the Rights of the Reverend William Hepworth Thompson, Fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge, Regius Professor of Greek elect in the University of Cambridge, to or in respect of the Canonry in the Cathedral Church of Ely annexed to his Professorship by the Act of the Session holden in the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and thirteen.

IV. ' And whereas by an Order in Council approving a Scheme of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and bearing Date the Eighteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, the Real Estates of the Dean and Chapter of York in the Schedule to the said Order described, and certain Personal Estate in the said Order described or referred to, were transferred to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners in consideration of a fixed permanent Annuity of Four thousand four hundred and ten Pounds, to be paid by the said Commissioners to the said Dean and Chapter and their Successors; and it was by the said Scheme and Order provided, that none of the Monies or Estates to be received or acquired under the Provisions of the said Scheme should be applicable to the Purposes of the Common Fund of the said Commissioners, except only so far as it might be necessary to reimburse such Fund any Advances made thereout under the Provisions of the said Scheme, until or unless, by and under the like Authority, the said Dean and Chapter should have been put into possession in Fee Simple of Real Estates sufficient to secure to them the above-mentioned Income, clear of all Charges and Outgoings, as therein mentioned: And whereas by an Order in Council approving a Scheme of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and bearing Date the Tenth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, divers Manors, Lands, Tithes, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and also certain Sums of Stock or Cash belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Carlisle, in the said Scheme and Order referred to, and more particularly described in certain Schedules thereto annexed, were transferred to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners in consideration, amongst other Considerations, of a permanent Annuity of Five thousand nine hundred Pounds, to be paid by the said Commissioners to the said Dean and Chapter and their Successors; and it was by the said last-mentioned Scheme and Order provided that none of the Monies or Estates to be received or acquired under the Provisions thereof should be applicable to the Purposes of the said Common Fund, except only so far as it might be necessary to reimburse such Fund any Advances made thereout under the Provisions of the said Scheme, until or unless by and under the like Transfers of Estates, &c. of the Chapters of York and Carlisle, appointed by Orders in Council dated 18th August 1852 and 10th Nov. 1852, not to take effect till 1st January 1855.

‘ like Authority the said Dean and Chapter should have been put ‘ into possession in Fee Simple of Real Estates within the Counties
 ‘ of Cumberland, Westmoreland, or Northumberland, any or either ‘ of them, sufficient to secure to the said Dean and Chapter a ‘ clear annual Income (after deducting Rates, Taxes, and other ‘ Outgoings, including Costs of Management,) of Five thousand ‘ nine hundred Pounds, or such other Sum as at the Date of such ‘ Transfer should, by the Decision of Arbitrators to be appointed ‘ in the usual Way, be equivalent to the Sum of Five thousand ‘ nine hundred Pounds at the then present Time, subject however
 ‘ as well to the Charges and Outgoings mentioned in the Schedule
 ‘ to the said Order marked C. as to all other Capitular Liabilities :
 ‘ And whereas it is expedient that none of the said Monies or ‘ Estates transferred by the said respective Orders or either of ‘ them, except as aforesaid, should be applicable to the Purposes ‘ of the said Common Fund until the said Commissioners acting ‘ under the said Commission of the Tenth Day of November One ‘ thousand eight hundred and fifty-two should have had sufficient ‘ Time to report their Opinion on the Matters referred to them :’
 Be it therefore enacted, That, notwithstanding anything in the said Orders in Council contained, none of the said Monies or Estates so transferred as aforesaid, nor any Monies or Estates accruing from similar Commutations with any other Chapters, shall, except as in the said Orders and herein-before is respectively excepted, be applied to the Purposes of the said Common Fund by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners previous to the First Day of January which will be in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

C A P. XXXVI.

An Act for disafforesting the Forest of Whichwood.

[8th July 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty in right of ‘ Her Crown is seized to Herself, Her Heirs and Succes‘ sors, of and in Whichwood Forest in the County of Oxford, and ‘ of and in the Soil thereof, and the Timber and other Trees, ‘ Bushes, and Underwood standing and growing thereon: And ‘ whereas the said Forest, together with certain detached Lands ‘ appendant or appurtenant thereto and herein-after more particu‘ larly mentioned, is computed to contain in the whole Three ‘ thousand seven hundred and thirty-five Acres or thereabouts, ‘ of which One thousand eight hundred and forty-one Acres or ‘ thereabouts are used as Coppice Land, and planted with Cop‘ pices, and One thousand seven hundred and forty-one Acres or ‘ thereabouts consist of open Ridings, Plains, Woods, and Waste ‘ Lands, One hundred and twenty-seven Acres Two Roods and ‘ Ten Perches or thereabouts consist of Two principal Lodges ‘ called the Ranger’s Lodge and South Lawn Lodge, and Three ‘ inferior Lodges for Keepers, with the Lawns and other Lands
 ‘ inclosed therewith, and the remaining Part of the said Forest ‘ consists of certain detached Lands situate at Shipton Ascot and ‘ Shorthampton, containing in the whole Twenty-five Acres Two ‘ Roods and Thirty-seven Perches or thereabouts: And whereas ‘ there

‘ there are adjacent or near to the said Forest several Coppices
‘ and other Lands known as Purlieus thereof: And whereas Her ‘ Majesty claims to be entitled to the Forestal Right of Herbage
‘ and Feed for Her Deer, as well over the said Purlieus as over ‘ the said Forest; but the Owners of the said Purlieus allege the ‘ same to be free under the Provisions of various Acts of Par‘ liament, and especially of an Act passed in the Sixteenth Year ‘ of King Charles the First, Chapter Sixteen: And whereas the ‘ said Owners claim to be entitled to Allowances of Venison in ‘ return for the Deer Feed over the said Purlieus or some of them:
‘ And whereas the said Purlieus as well as the said Forest are ‘ subject to divers Rights of Common, Sheepwalks, and other ‘ Rights and Interests: And whereas with respect to the said ‘ Coppices, as well within the said Purlieus as within the said ‘ Forest, the Custom has been to cut them at stated Periods, and ‘ after each Cutting to inclose them for Eight Years, and then ‘ to throw them open for the Deer and commonable Cattle until ‘ the next Cutting: And whereas the Right Honourable Lord ‘ Churchill is or claims to be entitled to the Offices of Ranger, ‘ Launder, and Four Bailiffs, under and by virtue of a Grant ‘ thereof made by His late Majesty King Charles the Second, in ‘ the Thirteenth Year of His Reign, and all Rights, Emoluments,
‘ and Privileges conveyed or intended to be conveyed by the said
‘ Grant: And whereas the said Lord Churchill and his Prede‘ cessors in the said Offices, and the Keepers of the said Forest ‘ for the Time being, have enjoyed the Use of the said several ‘ Lodges herein-before mentioned, with the said Lawns and other ‘ Lands herein-before mentioned inclosed therewith, and the said ‘ detached Lands at Shipton Ascot and Shorthampton held there‘ with, and the said Lord Churchill and his Predecessors in the ‘ said Offices have also received as the Emoluments of the said ‘ Offices certain annual Payments from Her Majesty’s Treasury, ‘ or out of the Rents payable to Her Majesty on Leases of the ‘ said several Coppices within the said Forest, and have also been ‘ accustomed to appoint not exceeding Five Keepers for the said ‘ Forest, whose Salaries are paid by the said Ranger for the Time ‘ being: And whereas the said Forest might be made much more ‘ valuable and productive if it were disafforested, and the Deer
‘ removed therefrom: And whereas the Continuance of the said
‘ Forest in its present State is injurious to the Neighbourhood ‘ thereof, and the Disafforestation thereof would be conducive ‘ to the Well-being of the said Neighbourhood; And whereas ‘ Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to signify Her Assent ‘ that the said Forest of Whichwood should be disafforested, and ‘ the Royal Deer therein removed or destroyed, with all con‘ venient Speed, and that the Officers of Her Majesty of and for ‘ the said Forest should be discharged, and that such Allotment ‘ should be made to Her Majesty, in respect of Her Forestal and ‘ other Estate, Rights, and Interests, except Rights of Common ‘ (if any) as a Proprietor of Lands entitled to such Rights of ‘ Common, in and over and in respect of the said Forest of ‘ Whichwood, and in respect of all Her Rights (if any) over the ‘ said Purlieus thereof, as is herein-after provided, and that such ‘ Allotment and Compensation should be made to the said Lord ‘ Churchill

‘ Churchill and the other Officers of the said Forest, and that such ‘ Allotment or Allotments out of the said Forest should be made ‘ for the exclusive Common and Pasturage of the several Persons, ‘ Parishes, and Hamlets entitled to Rights of Common or Sheep-‘ walks over the said Forest or Part thereof, and that such ‘ Allotment or Compensation should be made for any other ‘ Rights to which any Person or Persons are or may be entitled ‘ in, over, or in respect of the said Forest, as is herein-after pro‘ vided.’ May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords
 Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,—

Commissioners to be appointed for the Purposes of the Act :
One by the Treasury, One
by the Inclosure
Commissioners,
and the Third
by the Chief Justice of the Court of Queen’s Bench.

I. The Provisions of this Act (subject to the Provision hereinafter contained with respect to the said Lord Churchill) shall be carried into execution by Three Commissioners, of whom One shall be appointed in Writing by the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty’s Treasury, One other shall be appointed by the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales for the Time being, and the Third shall be appointed by the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Queen’s Bench for the Time being; and so often as any Vacancy shall occur by Death, Resignation, or Incapacity, a new Commissioner shall be appointed in like Manner as the Commissioner whose Vacancy is to be supplied was appointed; and all such Commissioners so appointed shall for the Time being be the Commissioners for carrying this Act into execution, hereinafter designated as “the Commissioners of this Act;” and all Acts and Powers to be performed by or given to the Commissioners of this Act, under the Provisions herein contained, may be performed or exercised by any
 Two of such Commissioners.

Commissioners to make and subscribe Declaration
before entering upon Execution of Office.

II. Every Commissioner shall, before he enter upon the Execution of his Office, make and subscribe the following Declaration before One of the Judges of Her Majesty’s Court of Queen’s Bench or Common Pleas, or One of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer; that is to say,

‘ I do solemnly declare, That I will faithfully, impartially, and ‘ honestly, according to the best of my Skill and Judgment, ‘ execute the Powers and Duties of a Commissioner under an Act ‘ passed in the Year of the Reign of Queen Victoria, ‘ intituled “An Act,” &c. [here set forth the Title of this Act].’

And every such Declaration shall, when made and perfected, be deposited in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Inrolments.

Commissioners
may appoint a Clerk, and employ Land Surveyors,
&c.

III. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of this Act from Time to Time to appoint a Clerk, and, if they shall think fit, to remove such Clerk, and on any Vacancy to appoint another Clerk, and also to employ from Time to Time One or more Land Surveyors and Valuers, in such Manner as they shall think necessary.

Land Surveyor
to make and subscribe Declaration
before entering upon Execution of Office.

IV. And every Land Surveyor and Valuer so to be appointed shall, before entering upon the Duties of his Office, make and subscribe before the Commissioners of this Act, or before One of such Commissioners (who are hereby severally authorized to administer or receive the same), the Declaration following :

‘ I A. B.

‘ I A. B. do solemnly declare, That I will faithfully, impartially, and honestly, according to the best of my Skill and Judgment, perform all the Duties which may devolve upon me as a Land Surveyor and Valuer in the Matter of an Act passed in the Year of the Reign of Queen Victoria, intituled “An Act,” &c. [here set forth the Title of this Act].’

And every such Declaration shall, when made and perfected, be deposited in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Inrolments.

V. The Commissioners of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury, shall, out of the Land Revenues of the Crown, subject to Repayment as herein-after mentioned, pay and allow to the Commissioners of this Act such Sum not exceeding the Sum of One thousand Pounds as shall be thought sufficient, and in proportion to the Time and Labour which may be bestowed by them respectively in carrying this Act into execution (such Proportion, in the event of any Difference of Opinion with regard thereto, to be finally determined by the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury), and to the Clerk of the Commissioners of this Act for the Time being such Salary not exceeding Two hundred Pounds a Year as shall be considered sufficient, and also shall allow to the Commissioners of this Act, and Clerk, all Costs and Expenses of employing such One or more Land Surveyors and Valuers as aforesaid, and all other reasonable Expenses incurred by them in the Performance of their Duties under this Act.

Commissioners of Woods, out of the Land Revenues, to pay the Commissioners and their Clerk, and their Expenses incurred in the Performance of their Duties.

VI. The Commissioners of this Act shall forthwith proceed to ascertain the Boundaries of the said Forest and Purlicus, and to determine all Claims relating thereto, and for the Purpose of determining the said Boundaries shall or may make use of any existing Maps, Plans, or Surveys, at their Discretion; and the Boundaries, as ascertained by the Commissioners of this Act, shall be held to be the true Boundaries of the said Forest and Purlicus for all the Purposes of this Act.

Commissioners to ascertain the Boundaries of the Forest.

VII. The Commissioners of this Act, so soon as they shall have ascertained the aforesaid Boundaries, shall proceed to ascertain how much of the said Forest ought to be set apart for the exclusive Pasturage of the commonable Cattle and Sheep of all Persons having Rights of Common of Pasture and Sheepwalks respectively over the said Forest, and shall by their Award allot and set out, ~~as~~ and for Common Fields, so much of the Lands of the said Forest as they shall find sufficient to afford an adequate Compensation for such Rights of Common and Sheepwalks as aforesaid, and out of the said Common Fields, when the same have been so ascertained and allotted as aforesaid, shall set out and appropriate such Portion or Portions thereof as they shall think fit as and for Sheepwalks, and shall allot distinct Sheepwalks and Commons for different Parishes, Districts, or Places now having such Rights of Common or Sheepwalk as aforesaid, and, subject to such Rights of Common and Sheepwalks, the said Common Fields shall be allotted to and vested in the said Lord Churchill as his Soil and Freehold, and as Part of the Allotment and Compensation hereinafter directed to be made to him, and when such distinct Sheepwalks walks and Commons shall be so allotted as aforesaid all Right of Intercommonage over the same shall cease.

On the making of the Award the Forest to be disafforested.

VIII. On the making of such Award as herein directed the said Forest shall be for ever disafforested, and the Right of Her Majesty to Herbage and Feed for Deer, and all other the Forestal Rights of Her Majesty in or over the Parts of the said Forest so to be allotted for such Common Fields and Sheepwalks aforesaid, shall absolutely cease, except as to Her Rights (if any) as Owner of Lands entitled to Rights of Common over the said Forest.

Commissioners, within Two Years from passing of Act, to remove Deer ;

IX. The Commissioners of Woods, or other the proper Officer or Officers of Her Majesty of or for the said Forest, shall with all convenient Speed, and within Two Years from the passing of this Act, under the Direction of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, remove or destroy, or cause to be removed or destroyed, all the Deer within the said Forest, and apply and dispose of the same as Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, shall direct.

and within Two Years from making of the Award, to cut down and sell Timber, &c. from Common Fields.

X. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Woods, on behalf of Her Majesty, with all convenient Speed, and within Two Years from the making of such Award, to cut down, sell, and remove, or cause to be cut down, sold, and removed, from the said Common Fields, and from such Portion of the said Forest as may be sold by the Commissioners of this Act for the Purposes herein-after mentioned, all such Timber and other Trees, Bushes, and Underwood growing thereon as they shall think fit : Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Woods to agree with the said Lord Churchill, upon such Terms as they shall think fit, for allowing any of such Timber and other Trees to remain on the said Common Fields for Ornament and Shelter.

In allotting Common Fields, Advantages derived from Extinction of Forestal Rights to be considered.

XI. The Commissioners of this Act, in ascertaining the Extent proper to be allotted as such Common Fields as aforesaid, shall take into consideration the Advantage which will be derived by the Commoners aforesaid from the Extinction of Her Majesty's Forestal Rights, and the Rights of the Officers of the said Forest, and from the Removal of the said Deer.

In ascertaining Extent of Common Fields, Her Majesty to be considered as representing Rights of Ranger and Forest Officers.

XII. For the Purpose of such Allotment as aforesaid as between Her Majesty and the Commoners, Her Majesty shall be considered as having and representing all the Rights and Privileges of the said Lord Churchill and of all other the Officers of the said Forest, and of all Persons entitled to Rights and Privileges (other than Rights of Common) over the said Forest by this Act directed to be extinguished and destroyed, which Rights and Privileges shall be taken into consideration by the Commissioners of this Act, in the same Manner as if the same had been vested in possession in and in the actual Enjoyment of Her Majesty, and all such Rights and Privileges, as well as all other the Rights and Privileges of Her Majesty, shall be taken into consideration by the said Commissioners in ascertaining the Extent of such Common Fields, and so that the Residue of such Forest to be allotted to Her Majesty shall be a just and fair Compensation and Equivalent for and for the Extinguishment of such Rights and Privileges.

Her Majesty, and all Owners of existing Rights of

XIII. And with respect to the Parts so to be allotted as and for Common Fields and Sheepwalks, Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and all other Persons the Owners of Lands in respect of

of which Rights of Sheepwalk now exist in and over the existing Sheepwalks, their Tenants and Occupiers, shall respectively have the like Rights in and over the Sheepwalks so to be set out as aforesaid in respect of such Lands respectively, and Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and all other Persons the Owners of Lands in respect of which Rights of Common of Pasture other than Deer Feed now exist in and over the said Forest, their Tenants and Occupiers, shall respectively have the like Right of Common of Pasture over the said Common Fields set out in respect of such Lands respectively, and the said Common Fields and Sheepwalks so to be allotted as aforesaid shall be freed and discharged from all Rights of Herbage and Feed for Deer, and from all other the Forestal Rights of Her Majesty, and from all Rights of the Officers of the said Forest.

XIV. The said Forest, after the Disafforestation thereof, shall be a Parish, and called and known by the Name of Whichwood Parish, and shall have Parish Officers, and maintain its Poor and Roads, and do and provide all such other Things as by the Laws of England Parishes are bound to do and provide.

XV. The Commissioners of this Act shall allot such Land, Part of the said Forest, as they shall think fit, not exceeding Ten Acres, for a Site for a Church, and Burial Ground to be annexed thereto, and for a Parsonage House and Garden for the Incumbent thereof, and also for a School and Playground.

XVI. The said Parish shall be a Perpetual Curacy in the Gift of the Bishop of Oxford, and shall for Ecclesiastical Purposes be within the See of Oxford, and in all respects subject to the same Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction as other Parishes within the same See are or shall or may be subject, and the Church thereof, when erected, shall be to all Intents a Parish Church.

XVII. The Commissioners of this Act shall set out and allot such Roads and Ways through and over the said Forest and the Purlieus thereof, and, with the Consent of the Owners, through and over any inclosed Lands adjoining thereto, as they shall think fit, and they shall, if they shall think fit, agree to make Compensation to such Owners or Owner for making any such Roads or Ways, Road or Way, over such adjoining Lands; and such Roads and Ways shall be public Highways, and kept and maintained as such, and after setting out the same all other existing Roads or Ways over the Forest or Purlieus shall be shut up and discontinued.

XVIII. The Commissioners of this Act shall cause the said new Roads to be made and fenced, and shall, for the Purpose of defraying the Expense thereof, and also for the Purpose of making such Compensation (if any) as they shall agree to give to any such Owners or Owner of the adjoining inclosed Lands as aforesaid, sell so much of the said Forest as they shall find necessary for those Purposes, for which Purposes their Conveyance shall vest an indefeasible Estate of Inheritance in the Purchaser or Purchasers, and their Receipt shall be a sufficient Discharge for the Purchase Monies.

XIX. And with respect to the Residue of the said Forest, and the said detached Lands at Shipton Ascot and Shorthampton, the Commissioners of this Act shall by their Award allot thereout to the said Lord Churchill the Lodge called the Ranger's Lodge, with the Lawns and cultivated Lands inclosed therewith, and the Appurtenances and the said detached Lands, together with so much of the Land of the said Forest adjoining or near thereto, or to Cornbury Park, as shall in their Judgment be, together with the Soil and Freehold of the said Common Fields, a sufficient Compensation for the Emoluments and Privileges of his said Offices, and for all the Rights and Interests which he acquired under or by virtue of the said Grant of His late Majesty Charles the Second, which said Lodge, with the Appurtenances, and the said Lawns and cultivated Lands, and the said last-mentioned Allotments, shall thereupon become and be the absolute and exclusive Property of the said Lord Churchill and his Heirs, and shall be held and enjoyed freed and for ever discharged from all Rights and Claims of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and of all other Persons whomsoever, in or over the same; and in ascertaining the Extent of the Allotment so to be made to the said Lord Churchill, the Commissioners of this Act shall take into consideration the Value of the Timber and other Trees, Bushes, and Underwood left thereon, and on the said Lodge, Lawns, and cultivated Lands, as well as the Extinction of Her Majesty's Forestal and other Rights in and over the same; and the said Allotment of the said Lodge, with the said Lawns and cultivated Lands, and the said detached Lands, together with such Portion of the said Forest as aforesaid, and the said Soil and Freehold of the said Common Fields as aforesaid, shall be taken and be in full Discharge and Compensation of and for all Rights of the said Lord Churchill in or in respect of the said Forest or any Forestal Office whatsoever: Provided always, that nothing herein-before contained shall preclude the said Lord Churchill from claiming Compensation for the Loss of his Wall Acre within the said Forest, or for the Loss of Composition Venison in respect of his Purlieu Coppices; but the Commissioners of this Act shall determine upon the said last-mentioned Claims, and shall make such further Allotment (if any) to the said Lord Churchill in respect thereof as they shall think fit: Provided also, that nothing herein-before contained shall affect the Rights of the said Lord Churchill or his Heirs to Common of Pasture and Sheepwalks upon or over the said Common Fields when so allotted and set out as herein-before directed.

Sheepwalk, &c. to have same Rights over the Part allotted as Common Fields, and for Sheepwalks.

Lord Churchill
or any other Proprietor may charge Allotments towards Expense of fencing, &c.

XX. It shall be lawful for the said Lord Churchill, or for any other Person who may be or become a Proprietor of any Allotment or Allotments to be made by virtue of this Act, being Tenant for Life or in Tail or for any other Estate of Freehold or Inheritance (with the Consent of the Commissioners of this Act testified in Writing under their Hands and Seals), from Time to Time to charge as well such Allotment or Allotments as also any other Lands now being Parcel of the said Forest to which the said Lord Churchill or any such other Person as aforesaid may become entitled by Purchase or Exchange for any such Estate as aforesaid with any Money not exceeding Five Pounds per Acre, towards the Expenses of fencing and sub-dividing such Allotment or Allotments and other Lands, and for securing the Repayment of such Money, with Interest, to mortgage or demise

the said Allotment or Allotments and other Lands unto or in trust for any Person who shall advance such Money for any Term of Years, but so that every such Mortgage or Demise be made with a Condition to cease and be void, or with an express Trust to be surrendered or re-assigned, when the Money thereby to be secured, with all Interest thereon, shall have been fully paid and satisfied, and so that in every such Mortgage or Demise which shall be made by any Person entitled for Life there be contained a Covenant to pay and keep down the Interest of the Money to be secured during his Life, in such Manner that no Person afterwards becoming possessed of such Lands shall be subject or liable to pay any larger Arrears of Interest than for Six Months previous to the Time when the Title of such Person shall accrue or commence; and every such Mortgage or Demise shall be valid in the Law for the Purposes thereby intended; and every such Mortgagee and his Assigns shall have the like Remedies in case of Nonpayment of the Monies thereby secured as in the Case of other Mortgages of the like Nature.

XXI. The Commissioners of this Act shall set out and allot so much and such Part of the several Purlieu Coppices of the said Lord Churchill, or of any of them, as they shall think fit, as permanent Common, in lieu of the existing Right of Common upon the whole of such Coppices, during a certain Part of Ten out of every Eighteen Years, and the Residue of such Purlieu Coppices shall be thereupon freed and for ever discharged from all Rights of Common whosoever, and shall thenceforth be enjoyed by the said Lord Churchill as and for his own exclusive Property: Provided always, that the Soil and Freehold of the Parts of the said Purlieu Coppices to be set out and allotted as aforesaid, together with the Timber and other Trees and Underwood growing thereon, shall remain vested in the said Lord Churchill.

As to Lord Churchill's Purlieu Coppices.

XXII. For the Purpose of making such Allotment to the said Lord Churchill, it shall be lawful for him, if he shall think fit, under his Hand, to appoint a Commissioner in place of the Commissioner so to be appointed by the said Inclosure Commissioners as aforesaid, and in case of Vacancy in the Office of Commissioner so appointed by him to appoint another Commissioner to supply such Vacancy, and so from Time to Time as there shall be Occasion: and the Commissioner so to be appointed shall act in the Execution of this Act, so far as relates to such Allotment to the said Lord Churchill, in all respects with the same Powers, and be entitled to the like Emoluments, as if he had been appointed by the said Inclosure Commissioners.

Power to Lord Churchill, for the Purpose of his Allotment, to appoint a Commissioner.

XXIII. In case the said Lord Churchill shall die before the Completion of the said last-mentioned Allotment or Allotments, all the Provisions herein contained relating to the said Lord Churchill shall extend and be applied in all respects to any and every Person who, after his Decease, shall for the Time being be the Ranger or Rangers of the said Forest, or who but for this Act would be such Ranger or Rangers.

In case of Lord Churchill's Death before Allotment, Act to bind his Heirs.

XXIV. That when and so soon as the Commissioners of this Act shall have made their Award as herein-after provided, all Right of Intercommoning (if any) upon the Purlieus situated in

After Award all Right of Intercommon-

ing in Purlieus
to cross, &c.

different Parishes or Places shall cease and determine; and thenceforth neither the Purlieu Wastes nor the Portions of Purlieu Coppices of the said Lord Churchill to be so set out and allotted for permanent Common as herein-before directed, nor the Purlieu Coppices of other Persons, shall afterwards be commonable for any other Cattle or Sheep than those of Persons having a Right of Common in respect of Lands situated in the Parish or Place of which such respective Purlieus form Part.

On Allotment to Lord Churchill,
his Rights and Privileges to cease.

XXV. From and after the making of the said Allotment or Allotments to the said Lord Churchill the said Offices of Ranger, Launder, and Four Bailiffs, and all Letters Patent, Grants, and Appointments thereto, and all other Offices in and for the said Forest, and all Rights, Privileges, and Emoluments incident or annexed thereto, shall absolutely cease and determine.

Pecuniary Compensation to other Officers out of Land Revenues.

XXVI. Such pecuniary Compensation shall be made by the Commissioners of Woods, out of the Land Revenues of the Crown, to all Persons holding any such Offices as aforesaid, except the said Lord Churchill or other the Ranger for the Time being, as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall think fit and reasonable.

Compensation
in Land or Money to be made to all other Persons (if any) injuriously affected by the Act.

XXVII. If it shall appear to the Commissioners of this Act that there are or is any other Person or Persons whose Rights will be injuriously affected by the Operation of this Act, the Commissioners of this Act shall ascertain the Nature of their or his Rights, and of the Injury done thereto, and shall determine whether such Injury can be more conveniently and adequately compensated by an Allotment of Land out of the said Forest, or by a pecuniary Compensation, and such Determination shall be final; and in case they shall determine in favour of a Compensation by way of Allotment to any such Person, they shall forthwith allot so much of that Portion of the said Forest which, under the Provisions of this Act, shall not have been otherwise allotted, as to the Commissioners of this Act shall appear a reasonable and sufficient Compensation; and if the Commissioners of this Act shall determine in favour of a pecuniary Compensation, then they shall ascertain the proper Amount thereof, and the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be paid, and shall certify the same to the Commissioners of Woods, who shall pay the same out of the Land Revenues of the Crown; and in such Case the Commissioners of this Act shall take the same into consideration in making the Allotment hereby directed.

Allotments how to be held.

XXVIII. All Allotments and Compensation shall enure and be held to the same Uses and upon the same Trusts as the Estates in respect of which the same shall be so allotted and given.

After the Allotments aforesaid the Residue of the Forest to become absolutely vested in Her Majesty.

XXIX. After the Allotments aforesaid the Residue of the said Forest shall thereupon become and be absolutely vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in Her and their Demesne as of Fee, freed, exonerated, and for ever discharged from all Rights of Common, and all Rights, of what Nature and Kind soever, either of the said Lord Churchill or of any other Persons or Person whomsoever; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Woods to exercise all the same Powers over and in respect of the Lands to be allotted to Her Majesty in and by the said Award, as herein provided, as they are or at any Time hereafter shall be by Law

Law enabled to exercise over and in respect of other Lands of Her Majesty in right of Her Crown, not being Royal Forests, Parks, or Chases.

XXX. The Commissioners of this Act shall make their Award or Awards in Writing within Three Years from the passing of this Act, and every such Award shall be executed in Duplicate, and One Part of such Award shall be deposited in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments, and the other Part thereof with the Clerk of the Peace for the said County of Oxford, there to remain and be examined by all Persons at all reasonable Times on Payment of a Fee of One Shilling for each Examination.

Commissioners to make their Award within Three Years.
Deposit of Award.

XXXI. The Commissioners of Woods shall pay all the Costs, Charges, and Expenses herein-before directed to be defrayed out of the Land Revenues of the Crown, and all other Costs, Charges, and Expenses incurred by them in and about the Execution of this Act, in the first place, out of the Produce of the Timber and other Trees, Bushes, and Underwood to be cut down and sold or otherwise disposed of under or by virtue of this Act, and so far as that shall not be sufficient the same shall be paid as Part of the Costs of Management of the Land Revenues of Her Majesty.

Provision as to Costs in and about the Execution of this Act.

XXXII. The Commissioners of this Act may examine upon Declaration all such Persons as they may think fit, who attend before them for the Purpose of giving Evidence upon any Matter or Proceeding under the Authority of this Act, and for that Purpose may administer or receive Declarations, which Declarations may be in the following Form :

Commissioners may examine Witnesses upon Declaration.

‘ I A.B. do solemnly declare, That the Evidence I shall give before you touching the Matter in question shall be the Truth, the whole Truth, and nothing but the Truth.’

XXXIII. If any Person under the Provisions of this Act shall wilfully give false Evidence, or shall make or subscribe a false Declaration for the Purposes of this Act, he shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Persons giving false Evidence guilty of Misdemeanor.

C A P. XXXVII

An Act to impose additional Duties on Spirits in Scotland and Ireland; and to alter the Countervailing Duties on Spirits the Manufacture of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark, imported into Scotland or Ireland, and the Countervailing Duties and Drawbacks on the Removal of certain Mixtures and Compounds between Scotland, Ireland, and England respectively; and to amend the Laws relating to the collecting and securing the Duties of Excise upon Spirits. [8th July 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to impose additional Duties of Excise on Spirits in Scotland and Ireland respectively, and to increase the Countervailing Duties now chargeable on Spirits the Manufacture of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, and Sark respectively, imported into Scotland or Ireland, and also to alter the Countervailing Duties and Draw-

‘ backs of Excise now payable upon the several Mixtures, Com‘ pounds, Preparations, and Commodities mentioned and described ‘ in the respective Schedules (A.) and (B.) to this Act annexed ‘ on the Removal of the same between Scotland, Ireland, and ‘ England respectively; and it is also expedient to amend the ‘ Laws relating to collecting and securing the Duties of Excise ‘ upon Spirits? Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Grant of additional Duties of Excise on Spirits in Scotland and Ireland.

I. In addition to the Duties of Excise now payable under any Act or Acts in force on Spirits in Scotland and Ireland respectively, there shall be charged, raised, levied, collected, and paid, upon every Gallon of Spirits of the Strength of Hydrometer Proof which shall on or after the Twenty-first Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three be distilled in Scotland and Ireland respectively, or be in the Stock, Custody, or Possession of any Distiller in Scotland or Ireland, or which, having been distilled in England, Scotland, or Ireland, shall, on or after the said Day, be in Warehouse in Scotland or Ireland, and be taken out of Warehouse for Consumption in Scotland or Ireland, or which, having been taken out of Warehouse in England for Removal to Scotland or Ireland, shall, on or after the said Day, be brought into Scotland or Ireland, the additional Duty following; that is to say, in Scotland the additional Duty of One Shilling, and in Ireland the additional Duty of Eightpence, and so in proportion for any greater or less Degree of Strength or any greater or less Quantity.

 vailing Duties
 on Spirits the Manufacture of the Channel Islands, imported into Scotland and Ireland.

II. On and after the said Twenty-first Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in lieu of the Countervailing Duties now chargeable under any Act or Acts in force on Spirits of the Nature or Quality of plain British Spirits manufactured or distilled in the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, and Sark respectively, and imported from any of the said Islands into Scotland or Ireland, there shall be charged and paid the following Countervailing Duties; that is to say,

For and upon every Gallon of such last-mentioned Spirits of the Strength of Hydrometer Proof imported into Scotland, the Sum of Five Shillings and Tenpence;

And for and upon every Gallon of such last-mentioned Spirits of the like Strength imported into Ireland, the Sum of Four Shillings and Sixpence;

and so in proportion for any greater or less Degree of Strength or any greater or less Quantity of such Spirits imported into Scotland and Ireland respectively.

New Countervailing Duties and Drawbacks on Removal of Spirit Mixtures and Compounds between England

III. In lieu of the respective Duties and Drawbacks of Excise now payable under any Act or Acts in force upon the several Mixtures, Compounds, Preparations, and Commodities mentioned and described in the respective Schedules (A.) and (B.) to this Act, on the Removal of the same respectively, as herein-after annexed, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, upon the said several Mixtures, Compounds, Preparations, and Commodities which on the said Twenty-first Day of April One thousand eight hundred

hundred and fifty-three shall be removed from Scotland or Ireland to England, or from Ireland to Scotland, the several Sums of Money and Duties of Excise as they are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in the Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed; and there shall be allowed and paid, in respect of all such Mixtures, Compounds, Preparations, and Commodities, which on or after the said last-mentioned Day shall be removed from England to Scotland or Ireland, or from Scotland to Ireland, the several Drawbacks of Excise inserted, described, and set forth in the Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed.

IV. The said several Duties and Drawbacks of Excise by this Act granted and imposed and allowed respectively shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and shall be charged, raised, levied, collected, recovered, paid, applied, and allowed respectively in such and the like Manner, and by the same Means, Ways, or Methods, by which other Duties and Drawbacks of Excise on and in respect of Spirits, and Spirit Mixtures, Compounds, and Preparations, are or may be respectively charged, raised, levied, collected, recovered, allowed, paid, and applied, and all Acts relating to the Duties and Drawbacks of Excise respectively, and all Fines, Forfeitures, Pains, and Penalties for any Offence against or in breach of any Act or Acts for securing the Duties of Excise or any of them, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof, and the several Clauses, Provisions, Powers, and Directions contained in such Acts, shall and are hereby directed and declared (except as altered by this Act) to extend to and shall respectively be applied, practised, and put in execution for and in respect of the said Duties and Drawbacks hereby granted, imposed, and allowed respectively, in as full and ample a Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and every the said Acts, Clauses, Provisions, Powers, and Directions, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act with reference to the said Duties and Drawbacks hereby respectively granted, imposed, and allowed as aforesaid.

Additional Duties and Drawbacks to be under Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and be raised and allowed under same Provisions as former Duties, &c.

V. From and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, no Spirit Receiver shall be used in any Distillery which shall not be made, placed, and fixed to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and be of a Depth sufficient to admit of the Gauge of the Spirits in such Receiver being taken of the Depth of Fifteen Inches at the least in the Centre of such Receiver, and every such Receiver shall be so filled with Spirits that at the Time of gauging the same for the Purpose of charging the Duty thereon the Depth of Spirits therein shall not be less than Fifteen Inches; and if any Spirit Receiver shall be made use of in any Distillery which shall not be so made, placed, and fixed as aforesaid, or which shall not be of a Depth sufficient to admit of the Gauge of the Spirits therein being taken of the Depth aforesaid, or if any Distiller shall neglect or refuse to cause any Spirit Receiver used in his Distillery to be so filled with Spirits that at the Time of gauging the same as aforesaid the Depth of Spirits therein shall not be less than as aforesaid, unless from any unavoidable Cause or Circumstance he shall be unable so to do, he shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

Spirit Receivers to be filled to the Depth of 15 Inches.

Commissioners may allow Spirit Receivers already erected of a less Depth than 15 Inches to be used.

Mode of charging Spirits in such Case.

Commissioners may order more than One Dipping-place to be made in Spirit Receivers.

Spirits to be removed from Receiver into entered Store Vat or Cask.

VI. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue to allow the Use of any Receiver which before the passing of this Act shall have been erected and in use in any Distillery, although the same may be of so large an Area that the Spirits distilled from the Wash contained in the respective Wash Backs of such Distillery may be insufficient to fill such Receiver to the Depth aforesaid, and in such Case, as well as in any other Case in which the Depth of Spirits in any Spirit Receiver shall be less than Fifteen Inches, the Charge of Spirits in any such Receiver shall be made on the next Tenth Part of an Inch marked on the graduated Scale on the Dipping-rod above the Point which the Dip of such Spirits in such Receiver shall indicate thereon, and the said next Tenth on such graduated Scale shall be deemed to be the actual Dip of such Spirits, and the proper Officer shall enter the same in his Survey Book, and charge the Duty accordingly, making an Allowance to the Distiller of One Half of a Gallon in every One hundred Gallons of the Quantity so charged, computed at the Strength of Hydrometer Proof.

VII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, in any Case in which they shall see fit, to order and direct that there shall be Two or more Dipping-holes of the Form and Dimensions prescribed by Law in that Behalf in the Cover of any Spirit Receiver, and in the Cover of any Store Cask or Vat, used in any Distillery, and such Dipping-holes shall be made in such Places in the Cover of such Receiver, Store Cask, and Vat respectively, as the said Commissioners shall direct in that Behalf, and in One of such Dipping-holes in the Spirit Receiver there shall be placed such Dipping-rod as shall be provided by the proper Officer, who shall secure the same in such Manner as to him shall seem expedient to prevent the Removal thereof out of any such Vessel as aforesaid, and each of the other Dipping-holes in the Spirit Receiver, and also the Dipping-holes in the Store Cask or Vat shall be secured in such Manner as the Supervisor of Excise shall think proper; and if any Distiller shall refuse or neglect to cause such Dipping-holes or any additional Dipping-hole to be made pursuant to any Order or Direction of the said Commissioners in any Spirit Receiver, or in any Spirit Store Cask or Vat, used in his Distillery, or if any Distiller shall remove any such Dipping-rod out of any such Receiver, or remove any Fastening from any such Dipping-hole, or otherwise gain Access to the Spirits in any such Vessel as aforesaid by means of any such Dipping-hole, such Distiller shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

VIII. All Spirits distilled in any Distillery shall, after the proper Officer shall have taken an Account of the Quantity and Strength thereof, be forthwith removed and conveyed through a close Metal Pipe from the Spirit Receiver into an entered Store Cask or Vat in the entered Spirit Store of such Distillery, and every such Store Cask and Vat respectively shall be a close covered Vessel, and shall be secured with proper and sufficient Fastenings for securing the Spirits therein to the Satisfaction of the proper Supervisor or other superior Officer, which said Fastenings shall be provided and kept in proper Repair by and at the Expense of the Distiller; and if any Distiller shall refuse or neglect to cause all such Spirits to be removed and conveyed in manner aforesaid into such entered Store Cask or Vat as aforesaid, or shall refuse or neglect to provide and fix and maintain such Fastenings as aforesaid for securing such Store Cask or Vat, and the Spirits therein, in manner aforesaid, he shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

IX. There shall be a proper Spirit Store in every Distillery for keeping and securing the Spirits distilled thereat, and every such Spirit Store shall be a secure Room or Place approved by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and provided with proper Fastenings for the Purpose of locking up and securing the same to the Satisfaction of the proper Supervisor or other superior Officer, all which Fastenings shall be provided and fixed and from Time to Time maintained by and at the Expense of the Distiller; and every such Spirit Store shall be kept locked up by the proper Officer in charge of such Store, at all Times, except when such Officer shall be in attendance; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue to refuse to grant and to prohibit the granting of any Licence to keep a Still for the distilling of Spirits to any Person until he shall have provided and made in his Distillery a proper Store approved as aforesaid, and it shall also be lawful for the said Commissioners to suspend or revoke any such Licence which may at any Time have been granted to any Distiller, unless and until he shall have provided and made such Store, and until he shall have provided and fixed such Fastenings for securing the same in manner aforesaid.

X. If any Spirits shall be lost or destroyed by Fire or other unavoidable Accident while such Spirits are deposited in the Spirit Store of any Distillery or whilst such Spirits are being received into or delivered out from such Store, or if any Spirits or any Wash or other exciseable Materials for making Spirits in any Distillery shall be lost or destroyed in manner aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, on Proof of such Loss or Destruction being given to their Satisfaction, to remit the Duty payable or paid in respect of such Spirits, Wash, or other Materials so lost or destroyed, as well as the Duty on any Malt which may have been used in the making of any such Spirits or Wash.

XI. The Officer in charge of every such Spirit Store shall attend thereat daily (Sundays excepted) from the Hour of Five o'Clock in the Morning until Eight o'Clock in the Evening, and all Spirits in any such Spirit Store shall be filled into the Casks in the Presence of such Officer, in such Manner and under such Regulations as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall in that Behalf direct, and such Officer shall take an Account of the Weight or Measure and Strength of all such Spirits.

XII. Every Distiller shall cause to be legibly cut, branded, or painted on the Outside of both of the Heads or Ends of every rolling or moveable Cask used in his Distillery for keeping or delivering out Spirits, and shall at all Times keep thereon so cut, branded, or painted, the full and true Number of Gallons, and also any Quarter or Quarters of a Gallon over and above any Number of entire Gallons, which any such Cask shall be capable of containing; provided that where the Contents of any Cask shall exceed Eighty Gallons, then in lieu of such Quarter or Quarters of a Gallon any fractional Part amounting to Three Fourths or more of a Gallon which any such Cask shall be capable of containing over and above any Number of entire Gallons shall be reckoned as a whole Gallon, and included in the Number of Gallons to be so cut, branded, or painted as aforesaid on such Cask; and if any such Cask which shall be used for the Purpose aforesaid shall not have so cut, branded, or painted thereon in manner aforesaid the full and true Number of Gallons as aforesaid, and in the Case of a Cask not exceeding Eighty Gallons the Quarter or Quarters of a Gallon, according to the Directions of this Act, such Cask, together with any Spirits contained therein, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise.

Officer not to grant Permit for Removal of Spirits from the Distillery until Collector's Receipt for the Duty be produced.

XIII. It shall not be lawful for any Officer of Excise to grant any Permit for the Removal of any Spirits from the Stock of any Distiller, except for such Spirits as shall be sent or delivered into Warehouse, pursuant to the Provisions of the Acts in that Behalf, unless such Distiller shall produce to such Officer the Receipt of the Collector of Excise for the Duty on such Spirits, nor unless such Distiller shall suffer such Officer to endorse on such Receipt the Quantity of Spirits for which such Permit is required, and the Date of such Permit; and every such Officer is hereby required to make such Endorsement accordingly.

Spirits distilled during distilling Period to be removed from entered Spirit Store within Six Days after Termination of such Period.

XIV. All the Spirits which shall be distilled at any Distillery during One distilling Period shall be removed from the entered Spirit Store, and the Duty thereon paid for Consumption, or shall be conveyed to and deposited in a Warehouse, under the Provisions of the Acts in that Behalf, within Six Days after the Termination of such distilling Period, and before any Spirits of a succeeding distilling Period are brought into such Store; and if any Spirits of One distilling Period (other than a Quantity not exceeding One hundred and fifty Gallons, and in One Ullage Cask,) shall be and remain in any such Store at any Time after Six Days from the Termination of such distilling Period, or if within the said Term of Six Days any Quantity of the Spirits of One distilling Period (other than such Quantity and in such Cask as aforesaid) shall be and remain in any such Store at any Time after any Spirits of any succeeding distilling Period are brought into the same Store or into any other such Store at the same Distillery, the Distiller shall forfeit for every Gallon of Spirits of such former Period so remaining in such Store in either of the Cases aforesaid the Sum of Twenty Shillings.

Balance to be struck in Stock Account, and Allowance made for Deficiency occasioned by natural Waste.

XV. When all the Spirits distilled at any Distillery in any One distilling Period shall have been removed from the Spirit Store, as herein-before required, or at the Expiration of Six Days after the Termination of such distilling Period, a Balance shall be struck by the proper Officer in the Stock Account kept by him for such Distillery, and in the Return to be made by such Officer of the Quantity of Spirits for which the Distiller shall have become chargeable during the preceding distilling Period an Allowance shall be made to such Distiller of any Deficiency in Stock occasioned by natural Waste, not exceeding the Proportion of One Gallon for every One hundred Gallons at Hydrometer Proof of the Spirits removed from the Spirit Receiver to the Spirit Store ; and if the Deficiency shall exceed such Proportion, then an Allowance shall be made in respect thereof to the Extent of the Rate and Proportion aforesaid ; provided that if the Deficiency shall exceed the Proportion of Three per Cent. on such Spirits so removed as aforesaid, no Allowance whatever shall be made in respect thereof.

XVI. No Spirits shall be placed in the entered Spirit Store of any Distillery other than such Spirits as shall be conveyed directly from the Spirit Receiver of such Distillery into such Store, nor shall any Spirits which have been removed from any such Store be again brought into the same from any Place whatever.

No Spirits but from the Receiver to be placed in Spirit Store.

XVII. The proper Officer of Excise shall, as often and at such Time and Times as he shall think fit, take and keep an Account by way of Debtor and Creditor of the Stock of Spirits in the Distillery and Store of every Distiller, and shall in such Account debit such Stock with the full Quantity of Spirits computed at Hydrometer Proof which shall be from Time to Time duly conveyed, pursuant to this Act, into such Stock from the Spirit Receiver in such Distillery, and shall credit such Stock with the full Quantity of Spirits computed at Hydrometer Proof which shall be from Time to Time sent out of such Stock under legal Permit ; and if at any Time the Quantity of such Spirits which shall be found in the Stock or Possession of any such Distiller shall be greater than the Quantity of Spirits which by the Stock Account so kept by such Officer ought to be in the Stock or Possession of such Distiller, all such excess Quantity of Spirits shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise, and every such Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Shillings for each and every Gallon of such excess Quantity of Spirits ; and if at any Time the Quantity of Spirits in the Stock or Possession of any Distiller shall be less than the Quantity of Spirits which by the Stock Account so kept by such Officer ought to be in the Stock or Possession of such Distiller, every such Distiller, whenever such Deficiency shall appear, shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Shillings for every Gallon of Spirits which shall be so deficient ; which said respective Penalties of Twenty Shillings for every Gallon of Spirits in excess or deficiency in the Quantity of Spirits which ought to be in the Stock or Possession of such Distiller shall not be mitigated or reduced to any less Sum by the Court before which the Complaint or Information for Recovery thereof shall be heard and determined, anything in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding : Provided always, that no Distiller shall be liable to such Penalty or Forfeiture in any Case where such Excess shall not exceed One Half per Centum, or where such Decrease or Deficiency shall not exceed Three per Centum, on the Quantity of Spirits formed by the Balance left on the last stocking, and the Quantity of Spirits since duly brought into Stock from the Spirit Receiver, nor in any Case where such Distiller shall prove to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue that such Decrease did not result from any Fraud practised or intended ; but in any Case of Excess where no Penalty or Forfeiture shall be be incurred and prosecuted for, the Duty on such Excess shall be charged against the Distiller.

Spirits may be warehoused in Casks of not less than Nine Gallons.

XVIII. It shall be lawful for any Distiller to warehouse any Spirits distilled in his Distillery in Casks containing not less than Nine Gallons each, subject to and under in all other respects the Provisions, Rules, and Regulations, Penalties and Forfeitures, in force relating to the distilling, warehousing, and Removal of such Spirits.

Spirits may be sent out from Distillery in Casks containing not less than Ten Gallons, and of the Strength specified.

XIX. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Act passed in the Fourth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Ninety-four, and the Act passed in the Sixth Year of the said King, Chapter Eighty, and in the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter One hundred and twenty-two, or any of the said Acts respectively, it shall be lawful to send out or remove from any Distillery, either for Consumption or into any Warehouse, Spirits in any Quantity not less than Ten Gallons in any One Cask, provided such Spirits be of the respective Strengths, or One of them, specified in the said Acts respectively, or within Six Tenths of One per Centum over or under the said Strengths specified in the said Acts respectively of the Fourth and Sixth Years of the said King, or within the like Degree under the Strength specified in the said Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty, and provided that the true and exact Quantity and Strength of all such Spirits be expressed in the Permit accompanying the same; and no Spirits shall be sent out or removed from any Distillery in any Cask containing a less Quantity than as aforesaid, or in any other Manner than as prescribed by the said respective Acts (save as herein provided), under the Penalties and Forfeitures contained in the said Acts in that Behalf.

Spirits may be sent out in Casks either full or on Ullage.

XX. Notwithstanding anything contained in any Act in force to the contrary, it shall be lawful to send out Spirits from any Spirit Store for Consumption or to be warehoused in Casks either full or on Ullage; provided always, that the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall have Power to make such Orders for regulating such Ullage as may appear to them to be necessary.

Spirits in Warehouse may be racked off into other Casks.

XXI. On Payment of the Duty on the full Quantity of Spirits contained in any One or more Casks in any Warehouse, it shall be lawful for the Distiller or Proprietor of such Spirits, under such Rules and Regulations as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall make in that Behalf, from Time to Time to rack or draw off such Spirits into any other Cask or Casks, provided that no less Quantity than Ten Gallons shall be racked into any One of such last-mentioned Casks: Provided always, that after the Duty shall have been paid on any such Spirits, and any Portion thereof shall have been racked or drawn off from any Cask, no further Abatement or Allowance for Deficiency shall be made in respect of such Spirits for any further Period the same may remain in such Warehouse.

Warehoused Casks to be numbered progressively.

XXII. Upon the Outside of both of the Heads or Ends of every Cask of Spirits which shall be warehoused by any Distiller under the Provisions of this Act or of any other Act in force in that Behalf there shall be legibly cut, branded, or painted the progressive progressive Number of such Cask, according to the Number of Casks warehoused by such Distiller, and the Year when the same was warehoused, such progressive Numbers for every Distiller to begin with No. 1. on the First Day of January in each Year; and no Two or more Casks warehoused in the same Year by the same Distiller shall be marked with the same Number; and it shall be lawful for the proper Officer in charge of any Warehouse to refuse to receive therein any Cask of Spirits not having cut, branded, or painted thereon all the several Particulars by this Act required to be cut, branded, or painted thereon, and in the Manner required by this Act.

XXIII. No Distiller shall have or use any Warehouse for the warehousing of Spirits without Payment of Duty situated at any other Place than his own entered Distillery Premises, nor until such Warehouse has been approved of by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue; provided that any Distiller may warehouse Spirits in any general Warehouse appointed by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and for which Security by Bond shall have been given as directed by the Acts in force in that Behalf.

Distiller's Warehouse to be on Distillery Premises.

XXIV. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue and they are hereby empowered to revoke the Approval at any Time heretofore given by the Commissioners of Excise or the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, or which may at any Time hereafter be given by the said last-mentioned Commissioners, of any Warehouse for the warehousing of British Spirits under the Provisions of the Laws in force in that Behalf; and after such Revocation no Abatement of Duty or Allowance shall be made in respect of the Spirits which may be contained in such Warehouse at the Time of such Revocation for any Deficiency of the Quantity or Strength of such Spirits which shall be occasioned or which shall occur after Notice of such Revocation shall have been given to the Proprietor of such Warehouse.

Commissioners of Inland Revenue empowered to revoke Approval of Warehouses.

XXV. Every Order made by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue appointing or approving of any general Warehouse or Warehouses for the warehousing of British Spirits, and every Order revoking any such Approval, shall be published in the London Gazette for such Warehouses as shall be situated in England and Wales, in the Edinburgh Gazette for such Warehouses as shall be situated in Scotland, and in the Dublin Gazette for such Warehouses as shall be situated in Ireland.

Approval of Warehouses, and Revocation thereof, to be published in Gazette.

XXVI. It shall be lawful for any licensed Rectifier of Spirits in England, Scotland, or Ireland to warehouse, for Exportation or for Ships Stores, any Spirits by him rectified from Spirits on which the Duties of Excise shall have been charged and paid in any Customs Warehouse of special Security, or in any Warehouse approved for that Purpose by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, such Customs Warehouse or other Warehouse being situate within that Part of the United Kingdom in which such Spirits were rectified, although such Spirits may be sweetened or may be Spirits to which any colouring Matter has been added; and the Strength of such sweetened or coloured Spirits as denoted by Sykes's Hydrometer shall be deemed and taken to be the true Strength thereof, anything in the Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twenty-

Rectified Spirits may be deposited in Customs Warehouse, although sweetened or coloured.

two, to the contrary notwithstanding; provided always, that the Strength of such Spirits before being sweetened or coloured shall not exceed Twenty-five per Centum over Proof as denoted by Sykes's Hydrometer; and such sweetened or coloured Spirits shall be subject to all the Rules and Regulations in this or any other Act relating to the Removal and Warehousing of Spirits.

Stowage of Casks in Warehouse to afford easy Access.

XXVII. All Casks of Spirits which shall be warehoused under the Provisions of this or any other Act in that Behalf shall be arranged and stowed in the Warehouse in such Manner as that Access may easily be had to every Cask therein; and if any Distiller, or the Proprietor or Occupier of any such Warehouse, shall refuse or omit to cause all such Casks to be so arranged and stowed, he shall for every such Refusal or Omission forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds.

Allowances for Deficiencies of Spirits in Warehouse.

XXVIII. Upon all British Spirits which shall have been warehoused without Payment of Duty under the Provisions of the Acts in that Behalf, and which shall be in any Warehouse at the Time of the passing of this Act, and also upon all such Spirits which shall at any Time hereafter be so warehoused, the following Abatement in respect of the Deficiencies which may have occurred in such Spirits shall be made on the Quantity of Spirits warehoused on which the Duty is by Law payable, which Abatement shall be made after the several Rates of Allowance following; that is to say,

For every One hundred Gallons of such Spirits at Hydrometer Proof, where such Spirits shall have been in Warehouse for any Time not exceeding Seven Days, One Quarter of a Gallon:

For any Time exceeding Seven Days and not exceeding Fourteen Days, One Half of a Gallon:

For any Time exceeding Fourteen Days and not exceeding One Calendar Month, Three Fourths of a Gallon:

For any Time exceeding One Calendar Month and not exceeding Two Calendar Months, One Gallon:

For any Time exceeding Two Calendar Months and not exceeding Three Calendar Months, One Gallon and One Fourth of a Gallon:

For any Time exceeding Three Calendar Months and not exceeding Six Calendar Months, One Gallon and Three Fourths of a Gallon:

For any Time exceeding Six Calendar Months and not exceeding Nine Calendar Months, Two Gallons and One Fourth of a Gallon:

For any Time exceeding Nine Calendar Months and not exceeding Twelve Calendar Months, Two Gallons and Three Fourths of a Gallon:

And for any Time exceeding Twelve Calendar Months, the additional Allowance of Three Quarters of a Gallon for every Six Calendar Months, or any fractional Part of Six Calendar Months above Twelve Calendar Months, or any other Multiple of Six Calendar Months, provided that no Allowance shall be made in respect of any Time that such Spirits may have been in Warehouse beyond the Period of Five Years:

And

And any Spirits which shall be removed from one Warehouse to another shall, for the Purpose of such Abatement and Allowance as aforesaid, be deemed to have been in Warehouse during the Period occupied by such Removal.

XXIX. Every Distiller, and every Proprietor of a general Warehouse for warehousing British Spirits, under the Provisions of the Laws in force, and every Rectifier of Spirits, and every Dealer therein, shall and is hereby required to provide sufficient and just Scales and Weights and a Set of Standard Measures for the Purpose of weighing, measuring, and taking an Account of the Spirits distilled by such Distiller, or in any such Warehouse, or in the Stock of any such Rectifier or Dealer as aforesaid, and of any Casks or Vessels used for the Purpose of containing Spirits, and such Weights and Measures shall be of such Denominations respectively as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall order and require in that Behalf, and such Distiller, Proprietor, Rectifier, and Dealer respectively shall maintain and keep such Scales and Weights and Measures conveniently placed in his Distillery or Warehouse. and at all Times ready for Use, and shall permit and suffer any Officer or Officers of Excise to use the same for the Purpose aforesaid ; and if any Distiller or Proprietor of such Warehouse, or Rectifier, or Dealer in Spirits, shall not provide and keep and maintain such Scales and Weights and Measures as aforesaid, and of such Denominations respectively as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall order and require in that Behalf, or if such Distiller, Proprietor, Rectifier, or Dealer shall refuse to permit and suffer any Officer or Officers of Excise to use the same as aforesaid, or if any such Distiller, Proprietor, Rectifier, or Dealer shall use or cause or procure or suffer to be used any false, unjust, or insufficient Scales or Weights or Measures, or shall practise any Art, Device, or Contrivance by which any such Officer or Officers may be hindered or prevented from taking the just and true Weight or Measure of any such Spirits, or any Casks or Vessels used for the Purpose of containing Spirits, then and in every such Case such Distiller, Proprietor, Rectifier, or Dealer shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and all false, unjust, or insufficient Scales or Weights and Measures respectively shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise.

XXX. Every Distiller, and every Proprietor of such general Warehouse as aforesaid, and every Rectifier and Dealer respectively, shall, when and so often as he shall be thereunto required by any Officer of Excise, and with a sufficient Number of Servants, weigh and measure in the Presence of such Officer all or any Spirits, and all or any Casks or Vessels used for keeping, conveying, or removing Spirits, in the Possession of such Distiller, Rectifier, or Dealer, or in any such Warehouse, and aid and assist to the utmost of his Power such Officer in taking an Account thereof, on pain of forfeiting for every Neglect or Refusal so to do the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XXXI. Every Distiller and every Proprietor of any such Warehouse as aforesaid shall, when and as they shall be respectively required by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue so to do, provide Accommodation at the Distillery Store and at such Warehouse Distillers and Warehouse Keepers, Rectifiers, and Dealers, to provide sufficient Scales, Weights, and Measures for taking account of Spirits.

Assistance given to the Officer in weighing, &c.

Warehouse for the Officer in charge thereof respectively to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners; and every Distiller and Proprietor of such Warehouse respectively who, on being so required to provide such Accommodation as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect so to do, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

Commissioners may require Apparatus to be applied to Spirit Receiver to prevent Fraud.

XXXII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue and they are hereby authorized and empowered to require every Distiller to erect and apply, at his own Expense, in his Distillery, any Apparatus or Machine which the said Commissioners may think proper for the Purpose of preventing the Supply Pipe and the Discharge Cock of the Spirits Receiver being both open at the same Time; and if such Distiller shall neglect or refuse to provide and apply any such Apparatus or Machine, on being required so to do by the said Commissioners, he shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

Four Hours Notice to mash, or to remove Wash from Fermenting Back.

XXXIII. It shall be sufficient for any Distiller to give to the proper Officer from Time to Time Four Hours Notice in Writing before beginning to mash or brew or to make Bub, or any other Composition for inducing or increasing Fermentation, and the like Notice before any Wash shall be conveyed from any Fermenting Wash Back in the Distillery, such Notices respectively being given in the Manner and containing the several Particulars prescribed respectively by the several Acts in force in that Behalf, anything in the said Acts requiring a longer Notice for any such Purpose as aforesaid notwithstanding.

Officer may open Stills Four Hours after Declaration delivered to him of the Wash being collected into the Fermenting Backs.

XXXIV. And it shall be lawful for the Officer in charge of any Distillery, and he is hereby authorized and required, at any Time after the Expiration of Four Hours from the Time that a Declaration in Writing shall have been delivered to him as required by the said Acts respectively that the whole of the Wort and Wash in such Distillery is collected into the Fermenting Wash Backs therein, to open any Still or Stills in such Distillery, by removing such Fastenings as prevent such Still or Stills from being used, notwithstanding anything contained in the said Acts of the Fourth and Sixth Years of King George the Fourth respectively requiring the Lapse of a longer Period before the opening of any such Still or Stills.

Low Wines distilled from Wash of One Brewing, contained in Two or more Backs, may be mixed.

XXXV. And, notwithstanding anything in the said Acts respectively contained to the contrary, it shall be lawful for any Distiller to collect in the Low Wines Receiver at his Distillery the Low Wines produced by the Distillation of the Wash of the same Brewing contained in all or any of the Fermenting Backs of such Distillery; provided that such Low Wines produced by the Distillation of the Wash of One Brewing shall be kept separate and apart from and unmixed with any Low Wines produced by the Distillation of any Wash of any other Brewing, or with any other Matter or Thing whatever, until an Account of the Quantity and Strength of such Low Wines so collected shall have been taken by the proper Officer; and provided also, that all the Spirits and Feints produced by the Re-distillation of such Low Wines shall be collected in the Spirits and Feints Receivers respectively, and kept therein, separate and apart from and unmixed with any other Matter or Thing (save as is provided and allowed by the said said Acts respectively,) until an Account of the Quantity and Strength of such Spirits and Feints respectively shall have been taken by the proper Officer; and, for any Neglect or Refusal to keep such Low Wines and Spirits and Feints respectively separate and apart and unmixed as herein directed, the Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

XXXVI. Provided always, That, notwithstanding anything contained in the said Act of the Fourth Year of King George the Fourth, Section One hundred and thirty-two, to the contrary, it shall be lawful for any Distiller taking out a proper Licence in that behalf to carry on the Trade of a Wholesale Dealer in Spirits at a Place within the Distance of Two Miles from the Distillery of such Distiller, provided such Place be approved by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue; but in any Case in which a Distiller shall carry on such Trade of a Wholesale Dealer in Spirits at any Place within the Distance aforesaid from his Distillery no Spirits shall be sold, sent out, delivered, or removed from his Stock, Custody, or Possession, either as a Dealer or a Distiller, without being accompanied by a Permit granted by the proper Officer of Excise, on pain of Forfeiture of such Spirits, and of such Penalty as by the Laws in force is imposed on a Distiller for sending out or removing Spirits without such Permit as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for any Officer of Excise, although of less Rank than a Supervisor of Excise, to take or cause to be taken an Account of the Quantity of the Spirits in the Stock, Custody, or Possession of such Dealer, anything contained in the Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twenty-one, Section Twenty, to the contrary notwithstanding; and all the Powers, Provisions, and Penalties contained in the said last-mentioned Enactment in relation to any Account taken by any Supervisor of Excise, or other Officer of not less Rank, shall be deemed to apply in relation to the taking of any Account hereby authorized to be taken by an Officer of less Rank than a Supervisor of Excise.

XXXVII. For the Purpose of ascertaining the Quantity of Spirits contained in any Cask by weighing the same, the Table in Schedule (C.) annexed to this Act shall be referred to and used in connexion with Sykes's Hydrometer, and any Spirits which shall indicate on such Hydrometer any Number in Column (A.) of such Table shall be deemed to be of the Weight per Gallon in Pounds and Decimal Parts of a Pound denoted by the Number in Column (B.) of the same Table set opposite to the said Number in Column (A.), and the total net Weight of the Spirits contained in any Cask divided by the said Number in Column (B.) shall be deemed to give the true Quantity of Spirits contained in such Cask in Gallons and Decimal Parts of a Gallon.

XXXVIII. And whereas the proper Officer of Excise is authorized by the said Acts respectively of the Fourth and Sixth Years of King George the Fourth to take Samples of the Wash from any Wash Back in a Distillery, and to cause such Wash to be distilled as in the said Acts respectively is mentioned: It shall be lawful for such Officer to take such Samples of Wash from the Wash Back or Wash Charger in any Distillery, or from both of such Vessels, as he may think proper; and in order to ascertain

Distiller may carry on the Trade of a Wholesale Dealer in Spirits within the Distance of Two Miles from his Distillery.

Commissioners may require Apparatus to be applied to Spirit Receiver to prevent Fraud.

XXXII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue and they are hereby authorized and empowered to require every Distiller to erect and apply, at his own Expense, in his Distillery, any Apparatus or Machine which the said Commissioners may think proper for the Purpose of preventing the Supply Pipe and the Discharge Cock of the Spirits Receiver being both open at the same Time; and if such Distiller shall neglect or refuse to provide and apply any such Apparatus or Machine, on being required so to do by the said Commissioners, he shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

Four Hours Notice to mash, or to remove Wash from Fermenting Back.

XXXIII. It shall be sufficient for any Distiller to give to the proper Officer from Time to Time Four Hours Notice in Writing before beginning to mash or brew or to make Bub, or any other Composition for inducing or increasing Fermentation, and the like Notice before any Wash shall be conveyed from any Fermenting Wash Back in the Distillery, such Notices respectively being given in the Manner and containing the several Particulars prescribed respectively by the several Acts in force in that Behalf, anything in the said Acts requiring a longer Notice for any such Purpose as aforesaid notwithstanding.

Officer may open Stills Four Hours after Declaration delivered to him of the Wash being collected into the Fermenting Backs.

XXXIV. And it shall be lawful for the Officer in charge of any Distillery, and he is hereby authorized and required, at any Time after the Expiration of Four Hours from the Time that a Declaration in Writing shall have been delivered to him as required by the said Acts respectively that the whole of the Wort and Wash in such Distillery is collected into the Fermenting Wash Backs therein, to open any Still or Stills in such Distillery, by removing such Fastenings as prevent such Still or Stills from being used, notwithstanding anything contained in the said Acts of the Fourth and Sixth Years of King George the Fourth respectively requiring the Lapse of a longer Period before the opening of any such Still or Stills.

Low Wines distilled from Wash of One Brewing, contained in Two or more Backs, may be mixed.

XXXV. And, notwithstanding anything in the said Acts respectively contained to the contrary, it shall be lawful for any Distiller to collect in the Low Wines Receiver at his Distillery the Low Wines produced by the Distillation of the Wash of the same Brewing contained in all or any of the Fermenting Backs of such Distillery; provided that such Low Wines produced by the Distillation of the Wash of One Brewing shall be kept separate and apart from and unmixed with any Low Wines produced by the Distillation of any Wash of any other Brewing, or with any other Matter or Thing whatever, until an Account of the Quantity and Strength of such Low Wines so collected shall have been taken by the proper Officer; and provided also, that all the Spirits and Feints produced by the Re-distillation of such Low Wines shall be collected in the Spirits and Feints Receivers respectively, and kept therein, separate and apart from and unmixed with any other Matter or Thing (save as is provided and allowed by the said said Acts respectively,) until an Account of the Quantity and Strength of such Spirits and Feints respectively shall have been taken by the proper Officer; and, for any Neglect or Refusal to keep such Low Wines and Spirits and Feints respectively separate and apart and unmixed as herein directed, the Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

XXXVI. Provided always, That, notwithstanding anything contained in the said Act of the Fourth Year of King George the Fourth, Section One hundred and thirty-two, to the contrary, it shall be lawful for any Distiller taking out a proper Licence in that behalf to carry on the Trade of a Wholesale Dealer in Spirits at a Place within the Distance of Two Miles from the Distillery of such Distiller, provided such Place be approved by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue; but in any Case in which a Distiller shall carry on such Trade of a Wholesale Dealer in Spirits at any Place within the Distance aforesaid from his Distillery no Spirits shall be sold, sent out, delivered, or removed from his Stock, Custody, or Possession, either as a Dealer or a Distiller, without being accompanied by a Permit granted by the proper Officer of Excise, on pain of Forfeiture of such Spirits, and of such Penalty as by the Laws in force is imposed on a Distiller for sending out or removing Spirits without such Permit as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for any Officer of Excise, although of less Rank than a Supervisor of Excise, to take or cause to be taken an Account of the Quantity of the Spirits in the Stock, Custody, or Possession of such Dealer, anything contained in the Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twenty-one, Section Twenty, to the contrary notwithstanding; and all the Powers, Provisions, and Penalties contained in the said last-mentioned Enactment in relation to any Account taken by any Supervisor of Excise, or other Officer of not less Rank, shall be deemed to apply in relation to the taking of any Account hereby authorized to be taken by an Officer of less Rank than a Supervisor of Excise.

Distiller may carry on the Trade of a Wholesale Dealer in Spirits within the Distance of Two Miles from his Distillery.

XXXVII. For the Purpose of ascertaining the Quantity of Spirits contained in any Cask by weighing the same, the Table in Schedule (C.) annexed to this Act shall be referred to and used in connexion with Sykes's Hydrometer, and any Spirits which shall indicate on such Hydrometer any Number in Column (A.) of such Table shall be deemed to be of the Weight per Gallon in Pounds and Decimal Parts of a Pound denoted by the Number in Column (B.) of the same Table set opposite to the said Number in Column (A.), and the total net Weight of the Spirits contained in any Cask divided by the said Number in Column (B.) shall be deemed to give the true Quantity of Spirits contained in such Cask in Gallons and Decimal Parts of a Gallon.

Table in Schedule (C.) to be used in ascertaining the Quantity of Spirits in a Cask by weighing the same.

XXXVIII. 'And whereas the proper Officer of Excise is authorized by the said Acts respectively of the Fourth and Sixth Years of King George the Fourth to take Samples of the Wash from any Wash Back in a Distillery, and to cause such Wash to be distilled as in the said Acts respectively is mentioned: It shall be lawful for such Officer to take such Samples of Wash from the Wash Back or Wash Charger in any Distillery, or from both of such Vessels, as he may think proper; and in order to ascertain ascertain and determine the original Gravity of the Worts from which such Wash was made or prepared before Fermentation had taken place in such Worts, a definite Quantity by Measure of such Wash shall be distilled, and the Proportion of Alcohol contained therein ascertained, and the Specific Gravity of such Wash deprived of its Alcohol by such Distillation, and made up with pure Water to its original Measure, shall also be ascertained, and from such Proportion of Alcohol and such Specific Gravity as last aforesaid the original Gravity of the Worts from which such Wash was made before Fermentation shall be computed and determined by means of the Table contained in Schedule (D.) annexed to this Act; and if the original Gravity of such Worts as found and determined in the Manner aforesaid shall exceed by more than Three Degrees the Gravity thereof as declared by the Distiller, pursuant to the said Acts respectively, such Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and also the Sum of Sixpence for every Gallon of Wort or Wash contained in the Wash Back or Wash Charger from which such Wash so distilled was taken: Provided always, that such Distiller, or any Person acting on his Behalf, shall and may, if he shall so desire, be present at the Distillation of any such Wash, and at the Performance of any such Process as aforesaid for ascertaining the said original Gravity.

Persons who have contracted for Sale of Spirits may add additional Duties to the Price.

XXXIX. It shall be lawful for every Person who, on or before the said Twenty-first Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, has sold or made or entered into any Contract or Agreement for the Sale of Spirits on which any additional Duty by this Act imposed will attach, to add so much Money as will be equivalent to such additional Duty to the Price of such Spirits, and such Person shall be entitled by virtue of this Act to be paid and to sue for and recover the same accordingly.

Repealing Sect 79. of 4 G. 4. c. 94., Sect. 88. of 6 G. 4. c. 80., and all Clauses of Acts inconsistent herewith.

XL. The Seventy-ninth Section of the said Act passed in the Fourth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Ninety-four, and Section Eighty-eight of the said Act of the Sixth Year of the said King, Chapter Eighty, shall be and the same are hereby repealed; and all Clauses, Provisions, and Regulations contained in any Act or Acts that are inconsistent with or are superseded by the Clauses, Provisions, and Regulations of this Act shall, so far and to such Extent as the same are so inconsistent or superseded as aforesaid, be and the same are hereby also repealed, save and except as to any Penalty or Forfeiture which shall have been incurred under the said Sections, Clauses, and Provisions, or any of them.

Commencement of Act.

XLL. The several Provisions of this Act shall commence and take effect at the respective Times herein-after mentioned; (that is to say,) as to the said Duties and Drawbacks by this Act granted and imposed and allowed respectively, from and after the Twenty-first Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three; and as to the said Abatement or Allowance to be made in respect of the Deficiencies in Spirits warehoused, from and after the passing of this Act; and as to all other Provisions contained herein, from and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

An Act for altering the Mode of Repayment of Advances by the Public Works Loan Commissioners under the Public Health Act, 1848, and other Acts. [8th July 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS by the One hundred and thirteenth Section of the Public Health Act, 1848, it was enacted, that the Interest secured by any Mortgage authorized to be made under that

11 & 12 Vict. c. 63.

‘ that Act should, unless otherwise provided, be paid half-yearly ;
 ‘ and in order to pay off any Monies borrowed and secured by ‘ any such Mortgage, the Local Board of Health should in every ‘ Year, until the same should be paid off, appropriate and set ‘ apart as a Sinking Fund such Sum as, together with the Interest ‘ from Time to Time to accrue thereon, would in the Period of ‘ Thirty Years amount to a Sum sufficient to repay the Monies ‘ borrowed and secured by any such Mortgage, and should from ‘ Time to Time cause such Sinking Fund and the Interest thereon
 ‘ to be invested in the Purchase of Exchequer Bills or other ‘ Government Securities, and to be increased by Accumulation in ‘ the way of Compound Interest or otherwise ; and whenever the ‘ said Local Board should be enabled to pay off One or more of ‘ the Mortgages charged upon the same Property or Rate, and ‘ should not be able to pay off the whole of the Mortgages so ‘ charged, they should, in default of Arrangement between the ‘ Local Board of Health and the Mortgagees, decide by Lot the ‘ Order in which the same should be paid off.’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Advances by Public Works Loan Commissioners to be repaid by Instalments within Twenty Years, instead of by a Sinking Fund in Thirty Years.

57 G. 3. c. 34.

I. Notwithstanding the said One hundred and thirteenth Section of the said Act, or any other Provisions therein, any Monies thereby authorized to be borrowed and secured by way of Mortgage may be borrowed from the Commissioners acting in execution of an Act passed in the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to authorize the Issue of Exchequer Bills and the Advance of Money out of the Consolidated Fund to a limited Amount, for the carrying on of Public Works and Fisheries in the United Kingdom, and Employment of the Poor in Great Britain, in manner therein mentioned, and in execution of any Act or Acts for amending or continuing the same Act or Acts or any of them ; and on any such Loan by the said Commissioners called “ The Public Works Loan Commissioners ” the Repayment of the Monies borrowed, with Interest thereon, shall be secured so as that the same, with the Interest thereon, shall be fully repaid by Instalments within the Period of Twenty Years from the advancing thereof, instead of by forming such accumulating Fund for the Payment of Monies borrowed as by the said Act is provided ; and all the Powers and Provisions in the said Act contained for raising Rates for the forming a Fund for the Repayment of Monies to be borrowed under the Provisions of the said Act shall apply and extend to the raising and paying any Monies which may be borrowed of the said Public Works Loan Commissioners, and the Interest thereon.

Securities for Advances to be taken under the Powers of Public Works
 Loan Acts.

II. In all Cases of Loans under the Public Health Act, 1848, and in all other Cases where any Loans or Advances shall hereafter be made or have already been made by the said Public Works Loan Commissioners to any Persons or Bodies having Power to borrow the same, or to any Persons or Bodies to whom the said Commissioners were, are, or shall be authorized or directed to lend any Monies under the Provisions of any Act or Acts whatsoever, then, notwithstanding the Provisions of the Public Health

Act,

Act, 1848, or of any local or other Act, to the contrary, all Loans or Advances made or to be made shall be taken to have been made or to be made by the Public Works Loan Commissioners under the Provisions of the several Acts in force authorizing Loans, by the said Public Works Loan Commissioners; and the Securities for such Loans shall be taken to have been made, and shall have such Priorities, and shall be subject to the same Powers, Authorities, and Remedies in all respects whatsoever, as if such Loans, Advances, and Securities had been made under the Authority of the several Acts in force relating to Loans to be made by the Public Works Loan Commissioners, and notwithstanding any Provision in any other Act now passed or to be passed contained as regards the Priorities or Mode of Payment of any Monies authorized or directed by any such Act to be borrowed, except so far as the same may by any such Act be altered, varied, or repealed by express Reference to this Act.

III. From and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Public Works Loan Commissioners and they are hereby authorized to make Advances at such Rate of Interest as they in their Discretion may think fit, not being less than the Rate of Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, except that in case at the Time at which the said Commissioners shall resolve to make any Loan it shall appear that the Rate of Interest to be produced by an Investment in the Purchase of the Stock called the Three per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities would be above Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, then no such Loan shall be granted at a Rate of Interest less than the Rate which would be produced by an Investment in the Purchase of the said Stock; and such Rate of Interest for the Purpose aforesaid shall be ascertained by the said Commissioners by the average Price of such Stock on the Day before the resolving to make such Loan, if the Transfer Books shall on that Day be open, if not, then by the average Price of such Stock on the Day next before the closing of such Transfer Books; provided that if the Rate of Interest upon any Advances to be made by the said Commissioners be less than the Rate which by the Act or Acts herein-before recited or referred to the said Commissioners are now authorized or required to take, or in case any Loan the Interest whereof is so as aforesaid to be regulated by the Price of such Stock, then the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being shall be obtained previously to resolving to make such Loan.

IV. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to alter, lessen, or abridge the Powers given to or vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to reduce the Rate of Interest on any Loan advanced or to be advanced by the said Public Works Loan Commissioners, in the Manner and under the Circumstances in any of the Acts herein-before referred to particularly stated or mentioned.

V. In citing this Act for any Purpose whatsoever it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Public Works Loan Act, 1853."

An Act for making further Provisions with respect to Common Lodging Houses. [4th August 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to extend the Provisions of “The Common Lodging Houses Act, 1851:” Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Short Title.

I. This Act may be cited for any Purpose as “The Common Lodging Houses Act, 1853.”

Recited Act and this Act to be as One.

II. The Common Lodging Houses Act, 1851, and this Act shall be construed and executed as if they were One Act.

All Common Lodging Houses to be registered, and kept only by registered Keepers.

III. After Three Months after the passing of this Act a Person shall not keep a Common Lodging House or receive a Lodger therein until the House have been inspected and approved for that Purpose by some Officer appointed in that Behalf by the local Authority, and have been registered as by the recited Act provided; and a Person shall not keep a Common Lodging House unless his Name as the Keeper thereof be entered in the Register kept under the recited Act: Provided always, that when the Person so registered dies, his Widow or any Member of his Family may keep the House as a Common Lodging House for not more than Four Weeks after his Death without being registered as the Keeper thereof.

Local Authority may refuse to register Houses,
&c.

IV. The local Authority may refuse to register as the Keeper of a Common Lodging House a Person who does not produce to the local Authority a Certificate of Character in such Form as the local Authority shall direct, signed by Three Inhabitant Householders of the Parish respectively rated to the Relief of the Poor of the Parish within which the Lodging House is situate for Property of the yearly rateable Value of Six Pounds or upwards.

Evidence of Register.

V. A Copy of an Entry made in a Register kept under the recited Act, certified by the Person having the Charge of the Register to be a true Copy, shall be received in all Courts and before all Justices and on all Occasions whatsoever as Evidence, and be sufficient Proof of all Things therein registered, without Production of the Register or of any Document, Act, or Thing on which the Entry is founded; and every Person applying at a reasonable Time shall be furnished gratis by the Person having such Charge with a certified Copy of any such Entry.

Supply of Water to Common Lodging
Houses.

VI. Where it appears to the local Authority that a Common Lodging House is without a proper Supply of Water for the Use of the Lodgers, and that such a Supply can be furnished thereto at a reasonable Rate, the local Authority may by Notice in Writing require the Owner or Keeper of the Common Lodging House, within a Time specified therein, to obtain such Supply, and to do all Works necessary for that Purpose; and if the Notice be not complied with accordingly, the local Authority may remove the Common Lodging House from the Register until it be complied with.

VII. When

VII. When a Person in a Common Lodging House is ill of Fever or any infectious or contagious Disease the local Authority may cause such Person to be removed to an Hospital or Infirmary, with the Consent of the Authorities thereof, and on the Certificate of the Medical Officer of the Parish, Place, or District that the Disease is infectious or contagious, and that the Patient may be safely removed, and may, so far as the local Authority think requisite for preventing the Spread of Disease, cause any Clothes or Bedding used by such Person to be disinfected or destroyed, and may, if the local Authority think fit, award to the Owners of the Clothes and Bedding so disinfected or destroyed reasonable Compensation for the Injury or Destruction thereof, and such Compensation shall be paid to such Owners by the proper Officer of the Parish or Union in which the Common Lodging House is situate, out of the Rates applicable to the Relief of the Poor of such Parish, the Amount of such Compensation being first certified in Writing upon a List of such Articles.

As to Removal of sick Persons from Common Lodging Houses to Hospitals, &c.

VIII. The Keeper of a Common Lodging House in which Beggars or Vagrants are received to lodge, or other Person having the Care or Management thereof, shall from Time to Time, if required by any Order of the local Authority served on such Keeper or Person, report to the local Authority, or to such Person or Persons as the said local Authority shall direct, every Person who resorted to such House during the preceding Day or Night, and for that Purpose Schedules shall be furnished by the local Authority to the Persons so ordered to report, which Schedules they shall fill up with the Information required, and transmit to the local Authority.

Power to order Reports from Keepers of Common Lodging Houses kept for Beggars and Vagrants.

IX. The Town Council, Trustees, Commissioners, Guardians, and other Officers and Boards specified in the First Section of the "Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, 1848," shall, on the Receipt of a Certificate of any Police Constable or of any Officer appointed for the Inspection of Common Lodging Houses by the local Authority, stating the Existence in or about any Common Lodging House of any of the Causes of Complaint specified in that Section, take all such Proceedings as by that Section are required to be taken by the Town Council, Trustees, Commissioners, Guardians, and other Officers and Boards specified therein on a Notice signed by Two Inhabitant Householders, and in like Manner as nearly as may be as if such Notice had been given; and the local Authority shall have the like Powers, and shall take all such Proceedings, on Receipt of any such Certificate of the Existence of any such Cause of Complaint, as the Town Council, Trustees, Commissioners, Guardians, and other Officers or Boards have and are empowered and required to take under the Provisions of that Act.

Power to Town Councils, &c. to remove Causes of Complaint certified under Nuisances Removal, &c. Act.

X. Provided always, notwithstanding any Provision contained in this Act, That within the City of Oxford, or the Parts within the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners for amending certain Mileways leading to Oxford, and making Improvements in the University and City of Oxford, the Suburbs thereof, and the adjoining Parish of Saint Clement, (which Commissioners are herein-after called the Oxford Commissioners,) the several Powers and Duties assigned by this Act to any local Authority shall, in so far as they are consistent with the Laws under which the said Oxford Commissioners act, be exercised by the said Oxford Commissioners; and within the Borough of Cambridge, or the Parts within the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners acting under an Act of the Thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, for amending and enlarging the Powers of a former Act of the same Reign, for the better paving, cleansing, and lighting the Town of Cambridge, for removing and preventing Obstructions and Annoyances, and for widening the Streets, Lanes, and other Passages within that Town, (which Commissioners are herein-after called the Cambridge Commissioners,) the several Powers and Duties aforesaid shall, in so far as they are consistent with the Laws under which the said Cambridge Commissioners act, be exercised by the Cambridge Commissioners.

As to Offences against this Act.

XI. The Fourteenth Section of the recited Act extends to Offences against any of the Provisions of this Act, so as to render the Offenders liable to the Penalties therein expressed, and any Person convicted of any Offence against the recited Act and this Act, or either of them, may, in default of Payment of the Penalty imposed, be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Three Months in the Manner provided by Law in that Behalf.

Conviction for Third Offence to disqualify Persons from keeping Common Lodging House.

XII. Where a Keeper of a Common Lodging House, or a Person having or acting in the Care or Management of a Common Lodging House, is convicted of a Third Offence against the recited Act and this Act, or either of them, the Justices before whom the Conviction for such Third Offence takes place may, if they think fit, adjudge that he shall not at any Time within Five Years after the Conviction, or within such shorter Period after the Conviction as the Justices think fit, keep or have or act in the Care or Management of a Common Lodging House without the previous Licence in Writing of the local Authority, which Licence the local Authority may withhold or may grant on such Terms and Conditions as they think fit.

Acts may be executed by Justices at Petty Sessions.

XIII. In a Case in which there are not Petty Sessions for a Place fifthly mentioned in Section Three of the recited Act, that Act and this Act may be executed within and for all and any Part of such Place by the Justices of the Peace acting in Petty Sessions in the Petty Sessional Division within which such Place is comprised.

As to Expenses of executing Act by Justices.

XIV. Where in any Place the recited Act and this Act are executed by Justices in Petty Sessions, the expenses of and incident to the executing of the recited Act and this Act with respect to such Petty Sessional Division shall be borne by and paid out of the Rates for the Relief of the Poor of the several Parishes or other Places comprised therein in which any Common Lodging House is situate (except so far as there are other Monies applicable to the Purpose), and the Amount of such Expenses shall be ascertained and apportioned by such Justices, and shall be paid accordingly as they order.

An Act for disafforesting the Forest of Whittlewood otherwise
Whittlebury. [4th August 1853.]

WHEREAS the Queen's most Excellent Majesty in right of Her Crown is seized to Herself, Her Heirs and Successors, of and in the Royal Forest of Whittlewood otherwise Whittlebury in the Counties of Northampton, Oxford, and Buckingham, or in some or one of the said Counties, and of and in the Soil thereof, and all Timber and other Trees, and all Saplings likely to become Timber, growing thereon, with the Right of Herbage and Feed for Deer, subject to certain Rights of the Most Noble Henry Duke of Grafton in and over the same, and subject also to Portions thereof to certain Rights of Common in and over the same: And whereas the said Forest now consists of Four Walks: viz., Wakefield Walk, Hanger Walk, Sholbrook Walk, and Shrob Walk, and is computed to contain Four thousand and eleven Acres and Fourteen Perches or thereabouts, consisting partly of Coppices and Ridings within them, partly of Plains and open Ridings, partly of Lawns and Lodge Yards, and partly of Inclosures to the Lodges: And whereas with respect to such of the Coppices as are not constantly inclosed the Custom has been to cut them in rotation every Twenty-one Years, and after each Cutting to inclose them for Nine Years, and then to throw them open for the Deer and Commonable Cattle until the next Cutting: And whereas the said Duke of Grafton, under and by virtue of certain Letters Patent of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, made in the Twenty-fifth Year of His Reign, is or claims to be entitled to the Coppices within the Limits of the said Forest, "excepting to the Crown all great Trees and Timber Trees, and all Oak Saplings, growing or to grow in the said Coppices, Woods, Underwoods, and Woodlands, to be reserved and left on the same for Stadles or Samplers, and which shall seem most fit and proper according to the Form in the Statute in that Case made and provided, and also all the fairest Stadles or Samplers of Oak, Ash, Elm, or Beech in or upon the said Coppices, Woods, Underwoods, and Woodlands, growing, coming, happening, or arising, and also excepting and reserving all Herbage and Pannage of the same:" And whereas the said Duke of Grafton, under and by virtue of certain Letters Patent of His said late Majesty King Charles, made in the Thirty-second Year of His Reign, and of certain other Letters Patent of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, made in the Eleventh Year of Her Reign, or One of them, is or claims to be entitled to hold and enjoy the Office of Warden, Master Forester or Ranger, and Master of the Game of the said Forest, with the Right of appointing a Deputy Forester and all the Under Foresters and Page Keepers, and at pleasure to remove them and appoint others, with certain Emoluments and annual Payments, and with the other Rights, Emoluments, and Privileges to the said Office belonging, and in virtue of such Office or Offices also claims to have Possession of the chief Lodge of the said Forest called Wakefield Lodge, and also of the Lodge called Sholbrook Lodge, with

‘ with the Gardens, Pleasure Grounds, and inclosed Meadow ‘ Lands, with the Pasture for Cattle in common with the Deer in ‘ certain inclosed Lawns called Wakefield and Sholbrook Lawns:
 ‘ And whereas there are certain other Lodges for Keepers and ‘ other Officers of the said Forest, with Lands inclosed therewith:
 ‘ And whereas the said Forest might be made much more valuable ‘ and productive if it were disafforested and the Deer removed ‘ therefrom: And whereas Her Majesty has been graciously ‘ pleased to signify Her Consent that the said Forest of Whittle- ‘ wood otherwise Whittlebury should be disafforested, and the ‘ Royal Deer therein removed or destroyed with all convenient ‘ Speed, and that the Officers of Her Majesty of and for the said ‘ Forest should be discharged, and that such Allotment should be ‘ made to Her Majesty in respect of Her Forestal and other ‘ Estate, Rights, and Interests, except Rights of Common (if any)
 ‘ as a Proprietor of Lands entitled to such Rights of Common, in ‘ and over the said Forest, as is herein-after provided, and that ‘ such Allotment or Allotments and Compensation should be made ‘ to the said Duke of Grafton in respect of all his Rights as ‘ Warden, Master Forester or Ranger, and Master of the Game ‘ of the said Forest, and in respect of his Rights and Interests in ‘ the Coppices of the said Forest, and all other his Rights and ‘ Interests under or by virtue of the said recited Letters Patent, ‘ or any of them, and such Compensation to the other Officers of ‘ the said Forest as herein-after is also provided; and that such ‘ Allotment should be made for the exclusive Common of Pasture
 ‘ of the several Persons entitled to Rights of Common of Pasture ‘ over the Portions of the said Forest subject to such Rights, and ‘ that such Allotment or Compensation should be made for any ‘ other Rights to which any Person or Persons are or may be ‘ entitled in, over, or in respect of the said Forest, as is herein‘ after provided:’ May it therefore please Your Majesty that it ‘ may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent ‘ Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords
 ‘ Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament ‘ assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; (that is ‘ to say,)

Commissioners to be appointed;
 One by Commissioners of Treasury, One
 by Inclosure
 Commissioners,
 and the Third
 by the Chief Justice of the Queen’s Bench.

I. The Provisions of this Act (subject to the Provision hereinafter contained with respect to the said Duke of Grafton) shall be carried into execution by Three Commissioners, of whom One shall be appointed in Writing by the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty’s Treasury, One other shall be appointed by the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales for the Time being, and the Third shall be appointed by the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Queen’s Bench for the Time being; and so often as any Vacancy shall occur by Death, Resignation, or Incapacity, a new Commissioner shall be appointed in like Manner as the Commissioner whose Vacancy is to be supplied was appointed; and all such Commissioners so appointed shall for the Time being be the Commissioners for carrying this Act into execution, hereinafter designated as “the Commissioners of this Act;” and all Acts and Powers to be performed by or given to the Commissioners of this Act under the Provisions herein contained may be performed or exercised by any Two of such Commissioners.

II. Every

II. Every Commissioner shall before he enter upon the Execution of his Office make and subscribe the following Declaration before One of the Judges of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench or Common Pleas, or One of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer; that is to say,

' I DO solemnly declare, That I will faithfully, impartially, and honestly, according to the best of my Skill and Judgment, execute the Powers and Duties of a Commissioner under an Act passed in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act," &c. [here set forth the Title of this Act].'

And every such Declaration shall, when made and perfected, be deposited in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments.

III. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of this Act from Time to Time to appoint a Clerk, and, if they shall think fit, to remove such Clerk, and on any Vacancy to appoint another Clerk, and also to employ from Time to Time One or more Land Surveyors and Valuers in such Manner as they shall think necessary; and every Land Surveyor and Valuer so to be appointed shall before entering upon the Duties of his Office make and subscribe before the Commissioners of this Act, or before One of such Commissioners, (who are hereby severally authorized to administer or receive the same,) the Declaration following:

' I A.B. do solemnly declare, That I will faithfully, impartially, and honestly, according to the best of my Skill and Judgment, perform all the Duties which may devolve upon me as a Land Surveyor and Valuer in the Matter of an Act passed in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act," &c. [here set forth the Title of this Act].'

And every such Declaration shall, when made and perfected, be deposited in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments.

IV. The Commissioners of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall, out of the Land Revenues of the Crown, subject to Repayment as herein-after mentioned, pay and allow to the Commissioners of this Act such Sum, not exceeding the Sum of One thousand Pounds, as shall be thought sufficient and in proportion to the Time and Labour which may be bestowed by them respectively in carrying this Act into execution (such Proportion, in the event of any Difference of Opinion with regard thereto, to be finally determined by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury), and to the Clerk of the Commissioners of this Act for the Time being such Salary, not exceeding Two hundred Pounds a Year, as shall be considered sufficient, and also shall allow to the Commissioners of this Act, and Clerk, all Costs and Expenses of employing such One or more Land Surveyors and Valuers as aforesaid, and all other reasonable Expenses incurred by them in the Performance of their Duties under this Act.

V. The Commissioners of this Act shall forthwith proceed to ascertain the Boundaries of the said Forest, and to determine all Claims relating thereto, and for the Purpose of determining the said Boundaries shall or may make use of any existing Maps, Plans, or Surveys, at their Discretion; and the Boundaries, as ascertained by the Commissioners of this Act, shall be held to be Commissioners to make and subscribe Declaration before entering upon Execution of Office.

Commissioners may appoint a Clerk, and employ Land Surveyors and Valuers.

Land Surveyor to make and subscribe Declaration.

Commissioners of Woods, out of the Land Revenues of the Crown, (subject to Repayment,) to pay Salary, &c. of Commissioners and their Clerk.

Commissioners to ascertain the Boundaries of the Forest.

the true Boundaries of the said Forest for all the Purposes of this Act.

Commissioners to set out and award a Common Field or Common Fields for Common of Pasture.

VI. The Commissioners of this Act, so soon as they shall have ascertained the aforesaid Boundaries, shall proceed to ascertain how much of the Lands of the said Forest ought to be set apart for the exclusive Pasturage of the Commonable Cattle of all Persons having Rights of Common of Pasture over the Portions of the said Forest subject to such Rights, and shall by their Award allot and set out as and for a Common Field or Common Fields so much of the Lands in the said Forest as they shall find sufficient to afford an adequate Compensation for such Rights of Common as aforesaid, and, if and so far as they shall find it expedient so to do, shall allot distinct Commons for different Parishes, Districts, or Places, and, subject thereto, the Soil and Freehold of such Commons shall be vested in the Right Honourable Charles Lord Southampton and the Right Honourable Augustus Charles Lennox Fitzroy commonly called Lord Augustus Charles Lennox Fitzroy, and their Heirs and Assigns, in trust for all Persons having such Rights of Common as aforesaid, until any Inclosure or Subdivision of such Common Field or Common Fields shall be legally made amongst such Persons; and upon the Confirmation of any Award upon any such Subdivision and Inclosure the Soil and Freehold of the said several Allotments which shall be thereupon made shall vest in the several Persons to whom such Allotments shall be made, upon and for such and the same Estates, Uses, Trusts, and Interests in all respects upon and for which the Rights of Common in respect of which such Allotments shall be made as aforesaid are held by or vested in such Persons.

On making of Award, the Forest to be disafforested, and Forestal Rights of Her Majesty to cease.

VII. On the making of such Award as herein directed the said Forest shall be for ever disafforested, and the Right of Her Majesty to Herbage and Feed for Deer, and all other the Forestal Rights of Her Majesty in or over the Parts of the said Forest so to be allotted for such Common Field or Common Fields as aforesaid, shall absolutely cease, except as to Her Rights, if any, as Owner of Lands entitled to Rights of Common over the said Forest.

Commissioners of Woods to remove Deer within Two Years from passing of Act;

VIII. The Commissioners of Woods or other the proper Officer or Officers of Her Majesty of or for the said Forest shall with all convenient Speed, and within Two Years from the passing of this Act, under the Direction of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, remove or destroy or cause to be removed or destroyed all the Deer within the said Forest, and apply and dispose of the same as Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, shall direct.

and within Two Years from the Award may remove Timber, &c. from Common Fields.

IX. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Woods, on behalf of Her Majesty, with all convenient Speed, and within Two Years from the making of such Award, to cut down, sell, and remove, or cause to be cut down, sold, and removed, from the said Common Field or Fields, and from such Portion of the said Forest as may be sold by the Commissioners of this Act for the Purposes herein-after mentioned, all such Timber and other Trees, and Saplings likely to become Timber, growing thereon, as they shall think fit.

Commissioners of Act, in allot- to consider

X. The Commissioners of this Act, in ascertaining the Extent proper to be allotted as such Common Field or Common Fields as aforesaid, aforsaid, shall take into consideration the Advantage which will be derived by the Commoners aforsaid from the Extinction of Her Majesty's Forestal Rights and the Rights of the Officers of the said Forest, and from the Removal of the said Deer from the said Forest.

Advantages derived by Commoners.

XI. For the Purpose of such Allotment thereof as aforsaid as between Her Majesty and the Commoners, Her Majesty shall be considered as having and representing all the Rights and Privileges of the said Duke of Grafton under the said recited Letters Patent as aforsaid, and of all other the Officers of the said Forest, and of all other Persons entitled to Rights and Privileges (other than Common Rights) over the said Forest, by this Act directed to be extinguished and destroyed, which Rights and Privileges shall be taken into consideration by the Commissioners of this Act in the same Manner as if the same had been vested in possession in and in the actual Enjoyment of Her Majesty, and all such Rights and Privileges, as well as all other the Rights and Privileges of Her Majesty, shall be taken into consideration by the said Commissioners in ascertaining the Extent of such Common Field or Common Fields, and so that the Residue of such Forest to be allotted to Her Majesty shall be a just and fair Compensation and Equivalent for and for the Extinguishment of such Rights and Privileges.

For Purpose of Allotment, Her Majesty to be considered as representing Rights of Warden and Forest Officers.

XII. And with respect to the Part or Parts so to be allotted as and for such Common Field or Common Fields as aforsaid by Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and all other Persons the Owners of any Lands in respect of which any Right of Common of Pasture (other than Deer Feed) now exists in and over the said Forest, their Tenants and Occupiers, shall have the like Right of Common of Pasture other than Deer Feed over the said Common Field or Common Fields so to be allotted as aforsaid; and the said Common Field or Common Fields when allotted as aforsaid shall be freed and discharged from all Rights of Herbage and Feed for Deer, and from all other the Forestal Rights of Her Majesty, and from all Rights of the Officers of the said Forest and of the said Duke of Grafton, other than his Rights as a Commoner.

Her Majesty and all Persons Owners of existing Rights of Common of Pasture to have same Rights over the Common Fields.

XIII. The Commissioners of this Act shall set out and allot such Roads and Ways through and over the said Forest, and, with the Consent of the Owners, through and over any inclosed Lands adjoining thereto, as they shall think fit, and such Roads and Ways shall be public Highways, and kept and maintained as such, and after setting out the same all other existing Roads or Ways over the Forest shall be shut up and discontinued.

Commissioners to set out Roads.

XIV. The Commissioners of this Act shall cause the said Roads when so set out and allotted to be made and fenced, and shall, for the Purpose of defraying the Expense thereof, sell so much of the said Forest as they shall find necessary for those Purposes, for which Purposes their Conveyance shall vest an indefeasible Estate of Inheritance in the Purchaser or Purchasers, and their Receipt shall be a sufficient Discharge for the Purchase Monies.

Roads to be made and Expense thereof to be defrayed by Sale of Land.

XV. And with respect to the Residue of the said Forest, the Commissioners of this Act shall by their Award allot thereout to the said Duke of Grafton the Chief Lodge called Wakefield Lodge, Allotments out of Residue to Warden in respect of his

with the Gardens, Pleasure Grounds, inclosed Meadow Lands, and Lawns hitherto possessed therewith, and the Head Keeper's Lodge, and the Close called Rushmore Close possessed therewith, together with Steer Copse and the Piece of Land covered with Water on the North Side thereof, the Hay Mead, and the Southern Division of South Water Slade Copse lying on the East Side of Hay Mead aforesaid, together with such further Portion of the said Forest adjoining or near thereto as shall in their Judgment be a sufficient Compensation to the said Duke of Grafton for all his Rights, Emoluments, and Privileges as Warden, Master Forester or Ranger, and Master of the Game in the said Forest, and for his Right and Interest in the Coppices of the said Forest, and the Underwood and Bushes in the same, and for his Right of appointing the Deputy Forester and other Under Foresters and Page Keepers, and all other his Rights and Privileges, if any, under the said herein-before recited Letters Patent or any of them; and the said Lodge, with the Appurtenances, and such other Allotment or Allotments, as aforesaid, shall, upon the same being made, become the absolute and exclusive Property of the said Duke of Grafton, and shall be held and enjoyed freed and discharged from all Rights and Claims whatsoever of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and of all other Persons whomsoever, in or over the same, and the same shall be vested in and held by him in the same Manner and for the same Estate Tail, and with the same Reversion in the Crown, as if the same were held under the said first-mentioned Letters Patent; and in ascertaining the Extent of the Allotment so to be made to the said Duke of Grafton the Commissioners of this Act shall take into consideration the Value of the Timber and other Trees, and Saplings likely to become Timber, left thereon, as well as the Extinction of Her Majesty's Forestal and other Rights in and over the same; and the said Allotment or Allotments shall be taken and be in full Discharge and Compensation of and for all Rights of the said Duke of Grafton in or in respect of the said Forest or any Forestal Office whatsoever: Provided always, that nothing herein-before contained shall affect the Rights of the said Duke of Grafton as a Commoner upon or over the said Common Field or Common Fields when so allotted and set out as herein-before directed.

Duke of Grafton or any other Proprietor may charge Allotments towards the Expense of fencing.

XVI. It shall be lawful for the said Duke of Grafton, or for any other Person who may be or become a Proprietor of any Allotment or Allotments to be made by virtue of this Act, being Tenant for Life or in Tail, or for any other Estate of Freehold or Inheritance, (with the Consent of the Commissioners of this Act, testified in Writing under their Hands and Seals,) from Time to Time to charge as well such Allotment or Allotments as also any other Lands now being Parcel of the said Forest to which the said Duke of Grafton, or any such other Person as aforesaid, may become entitled by Purchase or Exchange for any such Estate as aforesaid, with any Money not exceeding Five Pounds per Acre towards the Expenses of fencing and subdividing such Allotment or Allotments and other Lands, and for securing the Repayment of such Money, with Interest, to mortgage or demise the said Allotment or Allotments and other Lands unto or in trust for any Person

Person who shall advance such Money for any Term of Years, but so that every such Mortgage or Demise be made with a Condition to cease and be void, or with an express Trust to be surrendered or re-assigned, when the Money thereby to be secured, with all Interest thereon, shall have been fully paid and satisfied, and so that in every such Mortgage or Demise which shall be made by any Person entitled for Life there be contained a Covenant to pay and keep down the Interest of the Money to be secured during his Life, in such Manner that no Person afterwards becoming possessed of such Lands shall be subject or liable to pay any larger Arrears of Interest than for Six Months previous to the Time when the Title of such Person shall accrue or commence; and every such Mortgage or Demise shall be valid in the Law for the Purposes thereby intended; and every such Mortgagee and his Assigns shall have the like Remedies in case of Nonpayment of the Monies thereby secured as in the Case of other Mortgages of the like Nature.

XVII. For the Purpose of making such Allotment or Allotments to the said Duke of Grafton, it shall be lawful for him, if he shall think fit, under his Hand, to appoint a Commissioner in the Place of the Commissioner so to be appointed by the said Inclosure Commissioners as aforesaid, and in case of Vacancy in the Office of the Commissioner so appointed by him to appoint another Commissioner to supply such Vacancy, and so from Time to Time as there shall be Occasion; and the Commissioner so to be appointed shall act in the Execution of this Act, so far as relates to such Allotment or Allotments to the said Duke of Grafton, in all respects with the same Powers and be entitled to the like Emoluments as if he had been appointed by the said Inclosure Commissioners.

Power to Duke of Grafton, for Purpose of his Allotment, to appoint a Commissioner in place of the one appointed by Inclosure Commissioners.

XVIII. If it shall appear to the Commissioners of this Act that there are or is any other Persons or Person whose Rights (other than the Rights of Forestal Officers as such) will be injuriously affected by the Operation of this Act, the Commissioners of this Act shall ascertain the Nature of their or his Rights, and of the Injury done thereto, and shall determine whether such Injury can be more conveniently and adequately compensated by an Allotment of Land out of the said Forest, or by a pecuniary Compensation, and such Determination shall be final; and in case they shall determine in favour of a Compensation by way of Allotment to any such Person, they shall forthwith allot so much of that Portion of the said Forest which under the Provisions of this Act shall not have been otherwise allotted as to the Commissioners of this Act shall appear a reasonable and sufficient Compensation; and if the Commissioners of this Act shall determine in favour of a pecuniary Compensation, then they shall ascertain the proper Amount thereof, and the Persons or Person to whom the same shall be paid, and shall certify the same to the Commissioners of Woods, who shall pay the same out of the Land Revenues of the Crown, and in such Case the Commissioners of this Act shall take the same into consideration in making the Allotments hereby directed.

Compensation in Land or Money to be made to all other Persons (if any) injuriously affected by the Act.

Allotments how to be held.

After the Allotments aforesaid, the Residue of the Forest to become absolutely vested in Her Majesty.

Compensation to be made to the Poor of certain Parishes, &c. in respect of Right to gather sere and broken Wood.

XIX. All Allotments and Compensation shall enure and be held to the same Uses and upon the same Trusts as the Estates in respect of which the same shall be so allotted and given.

XX. After the Allotments aforesaid the Residue of the said Forest shall thereupon become and be absolutely vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in Her and their Demesne as of Fee, freed, exonerated, and for ever discharged from all Rights to Underwood growing thereon, and from all Rights of Common, and all Rights, of what Nature and Kind soever, either of the said Duke of Grafton or of any other Persons or Person whomsoever; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Woods to exercise all the same Powers over and in respect of the Lands to be allotted to Her Majesty in and by the said Award, as herein provided, as they are or, at any Time hereafter, shall be by Law enabled to exercise over and in respect of other Lands of Her Majesty in right of Her Crown, not being Royal Forests, Parks, or Chases.

XXI. ' And whereas certain poor Inhabitants of the Parishes, Townships, Liberties, Hamlets, or Precincts of Whittlebury, Potterspury with Yardley Gobion, Passenham with Denshanger, (which Parishes and Places are usually known as In-towns,) and of the Parishes, Townships, Liberties, Hamlets, or Precincts of Paulerspury with Heathencote, Grafton Regis, Alderton, Wickin, Lillingston Lovell, and Lillingston Dayrell, (which last-mentioned Parishes and Places are usually known as Out-towns,) claim to be entitled to a Right to gather sere and broken Wood in the said Forest on certain Days: Be it enacted, That the Commissioners of this Act shall inquire and ascertain whether any and what pecuniary Compensation should in their Opinion be made unto the poor Inhabitants of the said several Parishes, Townships, Liberties, Hamlets, or Precincts in lieu of any Rights that they may establish to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of this Act to sere and broken Wood within the said Forest, and the said Commissioners shall report the Amount or Amounts thereof to the Commissioner or Commissioners of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues for the Time being in charge of the said Forest, who upon receiving such Report shall out of the Land Revenues of the Crown advance and pay the Amount or Amounts of such pecuniary Compensation so found and reported as aforesaid, and shall invest the same in the Names of the respective Rectors and Churchwardens of the said several Parishes or Places respectively in the Purchase of Three per Cent. Consolidated Bank Annuities, to be held by the respective Rectors and Churchwardens of the said respective Parishes or Places for ever in trust to pay and apply the Dividends thereof in the Purchase of Coals or other Fuel, to be by them distributed yearly at Christmas among the poor Inhabitants of the said respective Parishes or Places; and a proper Declaration or proper Declarations of Trust shall be executed by the Trustees of the respective Parishes or Places in whose Names the same Stocks shall be invested, and Memorials of such Declarations of Trust shall be enrolled with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Northampton, and on the Investment or Investments of such Sums as aforesaid all such Right and Claim to sere or broken Wood within or over the said Forest shall absolutely cease.

XXII. That in setting out and making the Allotment to Her Majesty as aforesaid the Commissioners of this Act shall take into consideration the pecuniary Payments to be made out of the Land Revenues of the Crown in respect of such Rights or Claims to sere or broken Wood, and shall give to Her Majesty such an Allotment from the said Forest as in their Opinion shall be a full and fair Equivalent for the Amount so to be paid out of the Land Revenues of the Crown for such Rights and Claims as aforesaid.

XXIII. And whereas an Award of a total Sum to be paid by way of Rentcharge in lieu of the Tithes of the Parish or Township of Whittlebury (by the Description of the Township of Whittlebury in the Parish of Green's Norton in the County of Northampton) hath been confirmed by the Tithe Commissioners for England and Wales, in which Sum was included the Value of the Tithes of the said Coppices of the said Forest, and the Underwood and Bushes in the same within the said Parish or Township of Whittlebury, and in making the said Award the said last-mentioned Tithes were estimated at the Sum of Fifty Pounds per Annum, subject to the Provisions of the said Acts for the Commutation of Tithes: And whereas the Instrument of Apportionment of the total Sum so awarded by way of Rentcharge has not been confirmed: And whereas it may be expedient to apportion such last-mentioned Sum of Fifty Pounds per Annum on the Hereditaments and Premises by this Act directed to be allotted to the said Duke of Grafton, or a sufficient Portion thereof: Be it enacted, That for the Purposes of such Apportionment, but for no other Purpose or Purposes whatsoever, the Hereditaments and Premises by this Act directed to be allotted to the said Duke of Grafton as aforesaid, or such Portion thereof as the Commissioners of this Act shall by any Certificate under their Hands direct, shall be and be deemed to be within and to be Part and Parcel of the said Parish or Township of Whittlebury, and of the titheable Lands or Places thereof.

XXIV. The Commissioners of this Act shall make their Award or Awards in Writing within Three Years from the passing of this Act, and every such Award shall be executed in Duplicate, and One Part thereof shall be deposited in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments, and the other Part thereof shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said County of Northampton, there to remain, and be examined by all Persons at all reasonable Times, on Payment of a Fee of One Shilling for each Examination.

XXV. After the Award aforesaid all and every Letters Patent, Grants, Appointments, and Warrants of and all and every other Rights to or in any Offices, Bailiwicks, Walks, or Lodges in and for the said Forest of Whittlewood otherwise Whittlebury, and all Salaries, Gratuities, Fees, and Allowances whatsoever lawfully payable or allowed in respect of the same, and all Privileges and Emoluments incident or annexed thereto, shall thenceforth cease and determine, and pecuniary Compensation shall be made by the Commissioners of Woods out of the Land Revenues of the Crown to all Officers holding such Offices as aforesaid, except the Warden,

In setting out Allotment to Her Majesty Consideration to be taken of certain Payments out of Land Revenues.

As regards the Tithes of the Coppices in Whittlebury.

Hereditaments allotted to Duke of Grafton to be deemed (for Purposes of the Tithe Apportionment) Part of Whittlebury Parish.

Commissioners to make Award within Three Years.

Deposit of the same.

After Award all Letters Patent, Offices, &c. to cease and determine.

Master Forester or Ranger, and Master of the Game, (whether holding Lodges and Land within the said Forest by virtue of their several Offices or not,) in consideration of the Cessation of their said several Offices, and on their relinquishing and giving up the Possession of the said Lodges and Land respectively, and all Claim and Interest therein or thereto, under any Grant, Letters Patent, or Appointment or Warrant as aforesaid, which Compensation shall in every distinct and separate Case be referred to and ascertained by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Her Majesty and the Duke of Grafton to make and maintain Boundary Fences round their Allotments.

XXVI. Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and the said Duke of Grafton, shall respectively make and at all Times thereafter maintain sufficient Boundary Fences where necessary, round all the Parts so to be set out and allotted or awarded to and to become the Property of Her Majesty and the said Duke of Grafton respectively as aforesaid: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall operate to exonerate or discharge any Person or Persons from the Liability (if any) which at or before the passing of this Act he or they are or were under to make and maintain the Fences of such Part or Parts of the said Forest as may be allotted or awarded to Her Majesty or the said Duke of Grafton respectively as aforesaid.

In case of the Duke of Grafton's Death, Act to bind Persons entitled in remainder.

XXVII. In case the said Duke of Grafton shall die before the Completion of the said Allotments herein-before provided to be made to him, all the Provisions herein contained relating to the said Duke of Grafton shall extend to and be applicable in all respects to the Person or Persons entitled in remainder or reversion upon his Decease, and the Warden, Master Forester or Ranger, and Master of the Game of the said Forest for the Time being, or the Person who but for this Act would have been Warden, Master Forester or Ranger, and Master of the Game of the said Forest.

Commissioners may, if they think fit, examine Witnesses upon Declaration.

XXVIII. The Commissioners of this Act may examine upon Declaration all such Persons as they might think fit, who attend before them for the Purpose of giving Evidence upon any Matter or Proceeding under the Authority of this Act, and for that Purpose may administer or receive Declarations, which Declarations may be in the following Form:

' I A. B. do solemnly declare, That the Evidence I shall give before you touching the Matter in question shall be the Truth, the whole Truth, and nothing but the Truth.'

Persons giving false Evidence guilty of Misdemeanor.

XXIX. If any Person, under the Provisions of this Act, shall wilfully give false Evidence, or shall make or subscribe a false Declaration for the Purposes of this Act, he shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Act not to affect Hasleborough Walk.

XXX. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend to or in anywise affect that Portion of the ancient Forest of Whittlewood otherwise Whittlebury called Hasleborough Walk, nor any Title, Right, or Claim of Her Majesty, or any other Person or Persons, under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for dividing, allotting, and inclosing that Portion of the Forest of Whittlewood called Hasleborough Walk in the Parish of Whitfield, and Liberties and Precincts of Silston otherwise

Silverston otherwise Silveston Burnham in the County of Northampton, and of the open Fields of Silston otherwise Silverston otherwise Silveston Burnham aforesaid.

XXXI. The Commissioners of Woods shall pay all the Costs, Charges, and Expenses herein-before directed to be defrayed out of the Land Revenues of the Crown, and all other Costs, Charges, and Expenses incurred by them in and about the Execution of this Act, in the first place, out of the Produce of the Timber and other Trees and Saplings to be cut down and sold or otherwise disposed of under or by virtue of this Act, and so far as that shall not be sufficient the same shall be paid as Part of the Costs of Management of the Land Revenues of Her Majesty. Provision as to Costs.

XXXII. It shall be sufficient for all Purposes to cite this Act as the "Whittlewood Disafforesting Act, 1853." Short Title.

C A P. XLIII.

An Act for enabling the Justices of Counties to contract in certain Cases for the Maintenance and Confinement of convicted Prisoners in the Gaols of adjoining Counties.

[4th August 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for effecting greater Uniformity of Practice in the Government of the several Prisons in England and Wales, and for appointing Inspectors of Prisons in Great Britain, it was enacted, that it should be lawful for His said Majesty, by an Order to be notified in Writing by One of His Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State, to direct that any Persons in Prison within England and Wales under Sentence of any Court or of any competent Authority for any Offence committed by them should be moved from the Prison in which they were confined to any other of His Majesty’s Prisons or Penitentiaries within England or Wales, there to be imprisoned for and during their respective Terms of Imprisonment: And whereas it is expedient to extend the Provisions of the said Act by enabling the Justices of any County to enter into Contracts in certain Cases for the Maintenance and Confinement of convicted Prisoners in the Prison of an adjoining County:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That whenever it shall appear to Her Majesty’s Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Report of the Justices assembled at any General Quarter Sessions of the Peace or Adjournment thereof, held for any County, or Riding or Division of a County, in England or Wales, that any Gaol or House of Correction for such County, Riding or Division of a County, is either permanently or occasionally insufficient for or inadequate to the safe Confinement of the Number of Prisoners committed thereto, or to give effect to the Rules prescribed and then in force under any Acts for the Government and Discipline of such Gaol or House of Correction, and that the Justices of the Peace

c. 38.

When Gaol of any County is insufficient for the Custody of Prisoners, the Secretary of State may authorize Justices of any adjoining County to contract for the Maintenance, &c. of such Prisoners.

Peace of any adjoining County, or Riding or Division of a County, possess the requisite Accommodation, and are willing to receive into and maintain in the Gaol or House of Correction of such adjoining County, or Riding or Division of a County, any specified Number of such Prisoners, it shall be lawful for the said Secretary of State, if he shall think proper so to do, by Writing under his Hand, to authorize the Visiting Justices, or any Three of them, of such adjoining Counties, or Ridings or Divisions of Counties respectively, by Writing under their Hand, to enter into such Contracts for the Reception, Maintenance, and Confinement of such Prisoners in the Gaol or House of Correction of any adjoining County, or Riding or Division of a County, for such Period and upon such Terms as may be mutually agreed upon between the Visiting Justices of such adjoining Counties, or Ridings or Divisions of Counties respectively, and when in pursuance of such Authority any such Contract shall have been entered into, the same or a Counterpart shall be submitted to the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the respective Counties, or Ridings or Divisions of Counties, Parties thereto, and filed among the Records of the said Counties, Ridings, or Divisions respectively; and all Payments to become due under such Contract shall be payable out of the County Rates or out of such other Fund as but for such Contract would have been chargeable with the Cost of Maintenance and Confinement of the said Prisoners in the Gaol or House of Correction from which they may be so removed or transferred as aforesaid.

C A P. XLIV.

An Act to enlarge and extend the Powers of an Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her present Majesty, for enabling the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings to complete Improvements in Pimlico, and in the Neighbourhood of Buckingham Palace.

[4th August 1853.]

15 & 16 Vict.
c. 78.

‘ WHEREAS by the Seventy-eighth Chapter of the Statutes ‘ made in the last Session of Parliament certain Powers ‘ were vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and ‘ Public Buildings, to enable them to complete such Improvements ‘ in Pimlico and in the Neighbourhood of Buckingham Palace as ‘ are shown on the Plan in the said Act referred to, and to purchase and take and appropriate certain Hereditaments therein ‘ mentioned or referred to: And whereas it is expedient that the ‘ Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings ‘ should be empowered to make a certain Deviation from the Line ‘ of the said Improvements so by the said Act authorized to be ‘ made and therein referred to, and the Limits of which Deviation ‘ are shown on the Plan which was deposited on or before the ‘ Thirtieth Day of November last with the Clerks of the Peace for ‘ the County of Middlesex and for the City and Liberty of Westminster, and with such last-mentioned Plan so deposited were ‘ deposited Books of Reference thereto containing the Names of ‘ the Owners or reputed Owners, Lessees or reputed Lessees, and ‘ Occupiers

‘ Occupiers of the Lands and Property shown on the said Plan ;
 ‘ and it is expedient that the said Commissioners of Her Majesty’s ‘ Works and Public Buildings should have vested in them further ‘ Powers for the purchasing and taking the Property by the said ‘ Act and this Act authorized to be purchased and taken :’ May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted ; and be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal,
 and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

I. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Works and Public Buildings, herein-after styled “the Commissioners,” to make such Improvements as aforesaid, within the Line of Deviation shown on the said Plan so deposited with the Clerks of the Peace for the County of Middlesex and for the City and Liberty of Westminster, in all respects as they shall think fit.

Commissioners of Works and Public Buildings empowered to make Improvements.

II. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, for the Purpose of effecting the said Improvements, to alter the Levels of existing Streets, Ways, Paths, or Passages comprised and exhibited in the said last-mentioned Plan, and to cross, divert, widen, alter, or stop up, either temporarily or permanently, all such Streets, Ways, Paths, Passages, Sewers, Drains, or Pipes as it may be necessary or expedient to cross, divert, widen, alter, or stop up for the Purposes of the said Improvements ; and any Streets or Roadways made or opened in pursuance of the said Act or this Act shall, when made and opened, be used by the Public.

Power to alter Levels of existing Streets, &c. and to alter and stop up Streets, Ways, Sewers, or Drains.

III. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Purposes of the said Act and this Act to purchase all such of the Hereditaments comprised in the Schedule to this Act, or any Estate or Interest therein, as in their Opinion may be necessary for the effecting the said Improvements, and such Hereditaments may be purchased out of such Funds and in all respects as is by the said Act provided ; and all Hereditaments purchased by virtue of this Act may be held, appropriated, leased, sold, and exchanged in all respects as is by the aforesaid Act provided with respect to Hereditaments to be purchased under the Provisions of the aforesaid Act ; and such Hereditaments, when purchased, shall be conveyed and assured in such Manner as is by the said Act provided with respect to the Hereditaments by the said Act authorized to be purchased, and particularly any Hereditaments purchased or acquired under the Powers of this Act or the said Act may be sold, leased, and exchanged in all respects as by the said Act is provided with respect to the Hereditaments thereby authorized to be purchased.

Power to purchase Hereditaments mentioned in the Schedule, and to lease, sell, and exchange the same.

IV. For the Purposes of this Act the following Sections of the Thirty-ninth Chapter of the Statutes made in the Session of Parliament held in the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty (being an Act for the Construction (amongst other Works) of a Bridge over the River Thames near Chelsea Hospital), namely, 11, 13, 16, 17, 18, 20, 23, 24, 25, 26, and 28 to 56 both inclusive, and 63 and 65, shall be deemed to be herein repeated with the Alterations necessary to make the same applicable to the Provisions of this Act, and to the Purchase of the Hereditaments by this Act or the said Act authorized to be purchased, and to the said said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, except that the Power to take and purchase any Hereditaments for the Purposes of this Act shall not be exercised by the said Commissioners after Four Years from the passing of this Act.

Certain Provisions of 9 & 10 Vict. c. 39. extended to this Act.

Provisions of 15 & 16 Vict.
c. 78. extended to this Act.

V. All the Provisions contained in the aforesaid Statute, Chapter Seventy-eight, shall apply to all and every the Matters and Things to be done under this Act, and as if the same were herein repeated.

C. A P. XLV.

An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws and to grant additional Facilities in relation to the Purchase of Government Annuities through the Medium of Saving Banks, and to make other Provisions in respect thereof,

[4th August 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient that the existing Acts of Parliament relating to the Purchase of Government Annuities through the Medium of Savings Banks should be repealed, in order that the same may be consolidated and amended:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

So much of 3 W. 4. c. 14. and 7 & 8 Vict. c. 83. as relates to Purchase of Government Annuities through the Medium of Savings Banks, &c. repealed.

I. So much of the Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, Chapter Fourteen, as relates to the enabling Depositors in Savings Banks and others to purchase Government Annuities through the Medium of Savings Banks and Parochial Societies, and so much of another Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-three, as relates to the Purchase of Government Annuities through the Medium of Savings Banks, shall be repealed, except as to anything heretofore done, or which shall hereafter be required to be done, in respect to any Annuities granted under the said Acts or either of them, and except also so far as may be necessary for the Purpose of any Proceedings to be taken under or by virtue of the same Acts or either of them, such Repeal to commence and take effect on and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

Commissioners for Reduction of National Debt may receive Money from Depositors, &c. for Purchase of Annuities.

II. From and after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to grant to or for the Benefit of any Depositor in a Savings Bank, or other Person whom the said Commissioners shall think entitled to be or to become a Depositor in a Savings Bank, any Immediate or Deferred Life Annuities depending on single Lives, or Immediate Annuities depending on joint Lives with Benefit of Survivorship or on the joint Continuance of Two Lives, to any Amount not less than Four Pounds nor more than Thirty Pounds in the whole, to or for the Benefit of any One Person, and to receive Payment for such Immediate Life Annuities in One Sum, and for such Deferred Life Annuities either in One Sum or in annual Sums payable for fixed Periods: Provided always, that no such Annuities shall be granted to or for the Benefit of any Person under the Age of Ten Years.

Annuity may be granted to Husband and Wife.

III. Such Annuity may be granted to or possessed by any married Man or Woman, although an Annuity to the same or a less Amount may have been granted to or possessed by the Wife or Husband of such Party.

Deferred Annuities may be granted with a

IV. The said Commissioners may grant such Deferred Life Annuities on condition that the Purchase Money shall be returnable, but without Interest, in which Case such Purchase Money without without Interest shall be returnable at any Time on the Application of the Person beneficially interested in such Annuity, or after his Death on the Application of his Executors or Administrators; provided always, that in no Case whatever shall such Purchase Money or any Part thereof be returned after the first Payment of the said Annuity shall have actually become due, and the Monies so returnable shall be charged, paid, and defrayed out of the Monies standing in the Names of the said Commissioners at the Bank of England under the Provisions of this Act.

Condition that Purchase Money shall be returnable;

V. The said Commissioners may grant in like Manner and to the like Persons Deferred Life Annuities, of not less than One Pound or some Multiple thereof, not exceeding Thirty Pounds in the whole, to any One Person, and receive Payment for such Annuity in One Sum on condition that the Purchase Money shall not be returnable.

or with a Condition that Purchase Money shall not be returnable.

VI. Where a Party who has contracted under the Acts hereby repealed or shall contract under this Act for the Purchase of a Deferred Life Annuity by annual Payments shall, after having made One or more of such Payments, be unable to pay the Residue thereof, the said Commissioners may, at the Option of the Party beneficially interested in such Annuity, grant to such Party a Life Annuity, immediate or deferred, equivalent to the Amount of the several Payments so made by him, instead of returning the Amount of such Payments in Money.

Parties unable to keep up Payments may have an Annuity granted in lieu of Money returned.

VII. Where a Party has already contracted under the Acts hereby repealed, or shall hereafter contract under this Act, by Payment in One Sum for a Deferred Life Annuity, the said Commissioners may, at the Option of the Party, grant an Immediate Life Annuity in place and instead of the Deferred Life Annuity, which shall forthwith be cancelled.

Power to convert Deferred into Immediate Annuity.

VIII. No Annuity shall be granted under the Authority of this Act unless the Name of the Party on whose Life and for whose Benefit the Purchase is proposed to be effected shall be inserted in the Grant as a joint Proprietor of the said Annuity.

Name of Party to be always inserted in Grant.

IX. No such Annuity shall be granted otherwise than in the sole Name of the Person on whose Life and for whose Benefit the said Annuity is granted, except in the Case of Females, Infants under the Age of Twenty-one Years, Idiots, Persons of unsound Mind or incapacitated by bodily or mental Infirmary from taking care of themselves, of which Proof shall be afforded at the Time of making the Contract to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, or Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller acting under them, in which Cases it shall be lawful to grant such Annuities as are authorized by this Act upon the Life of any such Person to such Person and to any Two or more Persons not interested therein as Trustees for such Person, under such Regulations as shall be prescribed by the said Commissioners or Comptroller General.

Cases in which Grants of Annuities may be to Trustees.

X. The said Commissioners may contract with any such Person or Persons for the Payment of a Sum of Money on his or her Death, provided that the Party contracting for such Payment on Death shall at the same Time purchase a Deferred Annuity depending upon his or her own Life, as the Case may be, and that the Money payable on Death do not exceed the Amount of the Sum Power to grant Money on Death of Persons purchasing Deferred Annuities.

paid down for the said Payment on Death and Annuity taken together, and shall in no Case exceed One hundred Pounds in the whole

Contracts may be made at National Debt Office, or through the Medium of Savings Banks, &c.

XI. The said Commissioners may make such Contracts with such Parties for the Grant of any Annuities under the Authority of this Act, either directly at their own Office or through the Medium of Savings Banks or Parochial or other Societies, or Agents duly authorized by the said Commissioners for such Purpose, and under such Regulations as the said Commissioners shall prescribe, and in such last-mentioned Cases may authorize the said Savings Banks and Societies and Agents to take and demand the like Fees as are sanctioned in respect to such Annuities by the Act of the Seventh and Eighth Victoria above referred to.

Money paid on account of Purchase of Annuity to be kept distinct, and paid to Account of Commissioners.

XII. The said Annuities and Payments on Death herein referred to are hereby made chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, and all Sums of Money from Time to Time paid on account of such Contracts under this Act, or under the Acts hereby repealed, shall be paid into the Bank of England or into the Bank of Ireland to the Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, under such Regulations as the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time prescribe in that respect; and the Cashiers of the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland are hereby required to receive all such Monies, and to place the same to the Accounts of the said Commissioners to be entitled "The Fund for purchasing Life Annuities or for Payments on Death, on the Account of Depositors in Savings Banks (as the Case may be);" and the said Commissioners shall in like Manner keep distinct and separate Accounts of all Monies so placed to the said Accounts, pursuant to the Provisions of this Act.

Commissioners to make Rules, Regulations, &c.

XIII. The said Commissioners, or the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller acting under the said Commissioners, may require such Proofs of Age and of Identity, and such Certificates, and make such Rules and Regulations in respect to the Grant of all Annuities, and for securing Payments on Death, under the Authority of this Act, and to the Payment thereof, and also to the Payment of all Annuities granted under the Acts hereby repealed, as may appear to them to be necessary and proper for carrying out the Purposes of this Act; and may decline or refuse to contract for any Annuity or for any Payment on Death, under the Provisions of this Act, in any Case where there shall be in the Opinion of the said Commissioners, or of the said Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller, sufficient Grounds for refusing or declining so to do.

Commissioners, &c. may decline to contract for Annuities, &c.

Penalty on Persons making false Declaration, &c.

XIV. If any One Individual shall by his own direct Act have or hold or be possessed of or entitled to any Annuity or Annuities granted under the Provisions of this Act or of the Acts hereby repealed, exceeding in the whole the Sum of Thirty Pounds per Annum, or shall make a false Declaration in relation to any Matter or Thing required by the Regulations of the said Commissioners, all the said Annuity or Annuities and Payments on Death shall be forfeited.

Persons contracting for Payments of

XV. If any Person having contracted for the Payment of a Sum of Money on Death in the Manner herein-before provided shall at any Time, in Writing, in a Form approved of by the said Commissioners, sioners, and deposited with them during his Life, direct that the Sum payable at his or her Death be commuted for an Annuity for Life, to commence at his or her Death, and to be paid to any Persons nominated in the said Writing, such Commutation shall take effect, when approved of by the said Commissioners, or by the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller acting under the said Commissioners, and the Person so nominated shall be entitled to such Life Annuity as shall be the Equivalent to such Sum of Money so payable after Death as aforesaid, such Annuity to commence and take effect on and from the Sixth Day of January, Sixth Day of April, Sixth Day of July, and Eleventh Day of October, as the Case may be, next immediately following the Death of the Party nominating, and be payable and paid at the next following half-yearly Period.

XVI. For the better carrying this Act into execution it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from Time to Time as they shall think fit, to direct the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to use and adopt such Tables as shall from Time to Time be authorized and approved of by the said Commissioners of the Treasury for determining the Values of all Annuities, of whatsoever Kind, which may be granted according to the Provisions of this Act, as well as Tables for Payment of Sums of Money at Death, and such respective Tables shall be valid and effectual for the Purposes of this Act; and all Annuities for Lives, of whatsoever Kind, to be purchased under the Provisions of this Act shall be purchased, and all Payments for Sums to be secured at Death shall be contracted for, according to the Values stated in such Tables respectively, so long as the same shall remain in force; and the said Commissioners of the Treasury may alter, revoke, and recall all or any of the said Tables from Time to Time, and direct the Use and Adoption of such other Tables in lieu thereof as shall be approved of by the said Commissioners of the Treasury, and also discontinue, by any Warrant under their Hands addressed to the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, the granting of any Annuities for Lives, or of Sums payable at Death, under the Provisions of this Act, if they shall think it fit and expedient so to do: Provided always, that the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall, previous to the Adoption and using of any such Tables, and discontinuance of the granting of such Annuities and Payments at Death as aforesaid, give Notice thereof from Time to Time in the London, Edinburgh, and Dublin Gazettes, in such Form and Manner as to the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall seem fit and proper: Provided also, that the Tables now in force in respect to Annuities grantable under the Authority of the Acts hereby repealed shall be valid and effective for the Purchase and Grant of any Annuities under this Act, so far as they are applicable thereto, until altered, revoked, and recalled by the said Commissioners of the Treasury.

XVII. In every Case when any Sum of Money shall be paid as the Consideration for the Purchase of any Annuity for Lives of whatsoever Kind, under the Provisions of this Act, or for securing a Payment on Death, the Person or Persons purchasing any such Annuity Sums of Money at Death may commute the same into an Annuity payable after Death to Nominees.

Treasury shall direct Use of Tables of the Value of Annuities as approved by them.

Purchasers of Annuities for Lives shall be entitled to such Amount of Annuity as shall be specified in the Tables.

Annuity for Lives or for securing such Payment on Death, shall be entitled to receive from the Period at which the said Annuity is to commence and take effect an Annuity for a Life, or for joint Lives with Benefit of Survivorship, or on the joint Continuance of Two Lives, as the Case may be, of such annual Amount as shall be specified in any such Table or Tables respectively as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall from Time to Time authorize and approve in manner herein-before directed, to be calculated and ascertained according to the Age of the Party; and every Payment to be made on Death shall in like Manner be ascertained and settled according to the said Tables so to be approved and adopted from Time to Time as aforesaid.

Life Annuities under this Act, and Payments at Death, to be carried to separate Accounts.

XVIII. All Life Annuities, of whatsoever Kind, which shall be purchased and granted under the Provisions of this Act, (whether such Life Annuities shall commence immediately or not,) and all Payments at Death, shall, in their due Course as the same shall fall due and become payable, be carried to a new and separate Account in the Books of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt.

Life Annuitants may make further Purchases without fresh Certificates.

XIX. Whenever Proof of the Age of any Person shall have been once produced to the said Commissioners under the Provisions of any Act for the Purchase of any Annuity or Annuities on the Life of such Person, the original Proof of the Age of such Person, produced at the Time of the Purchase of the First Annuity upon the Life of such Person, shall be deemed sufficient in the Case of any proposed Purchase of a further Annuity on such Life under the Provisions of this Act, or of any other Act or Acts now in force authorizing the Grant of Annuities, without the Production of any further Proof of Age.

Amount of Annuities from Time to Time, and Sums payable on Death, to be certified to the Treasury, who shall issue their Warrant for Payment thereof.

XX. The said Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller acting under the said Commissioners shall, within Fourteen Days preceding the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of April, the Fifth Day of July, and the Tenth Day of October in each and every Year, certify to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury the Amount of Annuities for Lives, and Sums payable at Death, which will become payable under this Act out of the said Consolidated Fund on each of such Days respectively, and the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall thereupon order and direct the Comptroller General of the Exchequer to issue out of the said Consolidated Fund from Time to Time to the Account of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt the Sums specified in such Certificates, to be applied in paying such Annuities and Sums payable at Death respectively.

Time of Payment of Annuities granted under this Act.

XXI. All Annuities for Lives, of whatsoever Kind, which shall be purchased under the Provisions of this Act, shall be payable by Two equal half-yearly Payments, to become due respectively on the Fifth Day of January and on the Fifth Day of July, or on the Fifth Day of April and the Tenth Day of October, in each and every Year, according to the respective Periods, as herein-after mentioned, within which any Money shall be paid for the Purchase of any such Annuities for Life, of whatsoever Kind respectively; and the First half-yearly Payment of every such Annuity so purchased shall be made at the Times following; (that is to say,) on the Fifth Day of January in respect of all such such Purchases completed by the actual Payment of Money into the Bank of England or into the Bank of Ireland to the Account of the said Commissioners herein-after mentioned at any Time during the Quarter ending on the Tenth Day of October preceding such Fifth Day of January; on the Fifth Day of April in respect of all such Purchases so completed at any Time during the Quarter ending on the Fifth Day of January preceding the Fifth Day of April; on the Fifth Day of July in respect of all such Purchases so completed at any Time during the Quarter ending the Fifth Day of April preceding such Fifth Day of July; and on the Tenth Day of October in respect of all such Purchases so completed at any Time during the Quarter ending on the Fifth Day of July preceding such Tenth Day of October; and all future half-yearly Payments of every such Annuity shall be made with reference to the Time of such First half-yearly Payment; and upon the Death of any Annuitant in respect of any Life Annuity a Sum equal to One Fourth Part of the Annuity depending upon the Life of such Annuitant (over and above all half-yearly Arrears thereof respectively) shall be payable to the Person or Persons entitled to such Annuity, or his or her or their Executors or Administrators, (as the Case may be,) on the half-yearly Days of Payment next succeeding the Production of Proof to the said Commissioners certifying the Death of such Annuitant, if such Proof shall be produced to the said Commissioners not less than Thirty Days next preceding the Fifth Day of January, Fifth Day of April, Fifth Day of July, and Tenth Day of October respectively in every Year, and that such last-mentioned Payment shall be claimed within Two Years after the Death of such Annuitant, but not otherwise; but the Fourth Part of any expired Life Annuity payable under the Provisions of this Act shall not be payable or be paid upon or in respect of any Deferred Life Annuity unless One half-yearly Payment of such Deferred Life Annuity shall have been actually paid or become due at the Time of the Decease of such Annuitant; and all Sums payable at Death shall become due and payable on the Fifth Day of January, Fifth Day of April, Fifth Day of July, and Tenth Day of October next immediately following the Day on which such Death shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, or the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller: Provided always, that Proof of such Death shall have been given Thirty Days previously to such Fifth Day of January, Fifth Day of April, Fifth Day of July, and Tenth Day of October, as the Case may be, and if not, then and in such Case such Payment shall not be made until the next succeeding Quarter Day.

XXII. All Monies becoming due as aforesaid on account of such Annuities already granted or to be granted hereafter, and all Payments on Death, shall be paid to the several Parties respectively entitled thereto by the said Commissioners, at the Office of the said Commissioners, or by Savings Banks, or Parochial Societies, or other Agents specially authorized by the said Commissioners to make such Payment, under such Regulations as shall from Time to Time be issued by the said Commissioners, or the said Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller acting under them.

On Death of Annuitant a Quarter's Payment to be made in addition to half-yearly Arrears.

Proviso as to Deferred Annuities.

Annuities, &c. to be paid at National Debt Office, or at Savings Banks, &c.

Contracts for Annuities not to be made for 14 Days after quarterly Day of Payment.

Monies paid to Commissioners on account of this Act to be invested in Bank Annuities, Annuities for Terms of Years, or Exchequer Bills.

Commissioners may reserve a Part of such Sums to repay Money claimed in case of Death, &c. of Party purchasing Annuity.

Annuities granted under this Act not assignable, except in case of Bankruptcy or Insolvency.

XXIII. For the Space of Fourteen Days next after any of the said quarterly Days for Payment of the said Annuities respectively no Contract shall be made by or on behalf of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt for the Grant or Purchase of any Annuity or Sum payable at Death under this Act, anything herein-before contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

XXIV. The said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall cause all Monies placed to their said Accounts for the Purchase of Annuities or for securing Payments on Death, in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act or of the Acts hereby repealed, to be invested from Time to Time, under such Regulations as the said Commissioners shall direct, in the Purchase of any Bank Annuities, or Annuities for Terms of Years, or Exchequer Bills, or in either of them, and to be carried to the Accounts herein-before provided; which said Bank Annuities, Annuities for Terms of Years, and Exchequer Bills (as the Case may be) shall be forthwith cancelled, and all Interest or Dividends on such Bank Annuities, Annuities for Terms of Years, or Exchequer Bills shall cease to be charged upon or to be issued out of the Consolidated Fund from and after the Day upon which any such Bank Annuities, Annuities for Terms of Years, or Exchequer Bills shall have been purchased by the said Commissioners: Provided nevertheless, that the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt may retain and reserve from Time to Time so much of such Monies as shall be necessary for the Purpose of enabling the said Commissioners to return and pay back any Sum of Money, as herein-before directed, to such Person as shall have contracted for the Purchase of any Annuity under the Provisions of this Act, or of the Acts hereby repealed, by annual or other Payments, but who may not make good and keep up the same, and who is entitled to receive back the same, or to his, her, or their Executors or Administrators, as well as to the Executors or Administrators of such Person who may die before the Annuity which he, she, or they may have contracted for becomes payable, or for Re-purchase of any Annuity or Annuities in manner herein-after provided.

XXV. The Right, Title, Interest, and Benefit in and to any Annuity, of whatsoever Kind, which has been purchased under any Act now in force for the Grant of Annuities through Savings Banks or Parochial Societies, or which may be purchased under the Provisions of this Act, shall not be assignable by the original Proprietor thereof so as to enable the Assignee to receive the same during the Lifetime of the said Proprietor; except in case of the Insolvency or Bankruptcy of an individual Proprietor, when the same shall become the Property of his or her Assignee or Assignees, for the Benefit of his or her Creditors; and in case of any such Bankruptcy or Insolvency the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall re-purchase the said Annuity according to the Value thereof, the same being computed upon the same Tables upon which the said Annuity was originally purchased; and the Receipt of the Assignee or Assignees shall be a sufficient Discharge to the said Commissioners, who shall forthwith cancel the said Annuity.

XXVI. When

XXVI. When any Annuity for Life, immediate or deferred, shall have been purchased under the Acts hereby repealed or this Act, in the Names of more Parties than One, the said Commissioners may permit the Party or Parties not beneficially interested therein, jointly with the Party who is beneficially interested, whether such Party be of the Age of Twenty-one Years or not, to transfer the said Annuity or Annuities to other Parties, of whom the Party beneficially interested shall always be One, under such Regulations as the said Commissioners shall prescribe in that respect, for the Purpose of securing that no Assignment shall thereby be made of the Interest of the said Party to any other Person or Persons whatsoever: Provided always, that where the Party beneficially interested is incapable, from any of the Causes set forth in Section Nine of this Act, from joining in such Transfer, the said Commissioners may permit such Transfer, notwithstanding, under such Regulations as shall appear to them to be necessary to secure the Interest of the Party beneficially interested in such Annuity.

Transfer may be made by Trustees to secure Interest of Party beneficially interested.

XXVII. Life Annuities purchased under the Provisions of this Act shall be free from all Taxes, Charges, or Impositions whatever; and all such Annuities shall be deemed Personal Estate.

Life Annuities to be free from Taxes, &c.

XXVIII. An Account shall be made up on the Fifth Day of January in every Year, by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, of all Annuities of whatsoever Kind granted in pursuance of any of the Acts hereby repealed or under this Act which shall have remained unclaimed for the Space of Three Years then next preceding, and all such Annuities so remaining unclaimed, together with the unclaimed half-yearly Arrears thereof, and also all such Annuities of whatsoever Kind which shall have expired; and all half-yearly Arrears thereof shall cease to be charged upon and shall not be issued or issuable out of the said Consolidated Fund from and after the Day upon which such Annuities shall have remained so unclaimed or shall have expired; but nothing in this Act contained shall extend to defeat or prejudice the Rights of any Persons entitled to such unclaimed Annuities who shall at any subsequent Period give Proof of their Title to such Annuities to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, or the said Comptroller General.

Yearly Account to be made up of unclaimed Annuities, &c.

Arrears, &c. of Three Years standing to cease to be charged on Consolidated Fund.

XXIX. No Stamp Duty whatever shall be paid or payable upon or in respect of any Copy of any Register of Birth or Baptism or Marriage or Burial, or upon or in respect of any Certificate or Declaration to be made or taken in pursuance of this Act, or any Certificate or other Instrument whatsoever respecting the Payment of Money for the Purchase of any Annuity or Sum payable at Death under this Act, or any Power of Attorney authorizing the Receipt or any Receipt for the Payment of any such Annuity or any Part thereof, or for the Payment of any Sum of Money payable at Death.

Registers, Receipts, &c. exempt from Stamp Duty.

XXX. If any Certificate or Declaration shall be produced to the Officer of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt which shall contain any untrue Statement of the Age of any Person to whom an Annuity has been granted under this Act, or of any Person who has contracted for a Sum payable at Death,

If Certificate or Declaration contain any untrue Statement of Age, &c. the Money paid to with Contracts for Annuities not to be made for 14 Days after quarterly Day of Payment.

XXIII. For the Space of Fourteen Days next after any of the said quarterly Days for Payment of the said Annuities respectively no Contract shall be made by or on behalf of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt for the Grant or Purchase of any Annuity or Sum payable at Death under this Act, anything herein-before contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Monies paid to Commissioners on account of this Act to be invested in Bank Annuities, Annuities for Terms of Years, or Exchequer Bills.

XXIV. The said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall cause all Monies placed to their said Accounts for the Purchase of Annuities or for securing Payments on Death in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act or of the Acts hereby repealed, to be invested from Time to Time, under such Regulations as the said Commissioners shall direct, in the Purchase of any Bank Annuities, or Annuities for Terms of Years, or Exchequer Bills, or in either of them, and to be carried to the Accounts herein-before provided; which said Bank Annuities, Annuities for Terms of Years, and Exchequer Bills (as the Case may be) shall be forthwith cancelled, and all Interest or Dividends on such Bank Annuities, Annuities for Terms of Years, or Exchequer Bills shall cease to be charged upon or to be issued out of the Consolidated Fund from and after the Day upon which any such Bank Annuities, Annuities for Terms of Years, or Exchequer Bills shall have been purchased by the said Commissioners: Provided nevertheless, that the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt may retain and reserve from Time to Time so much of such Monies as shall be necessary for the Purpose of enabling the said Commissioners to return and pay back any Sum of Money, as herein-before directed, to such Person as shall have contracted for the Purchase of any Annuity under the Provisions of this Act, or of the Acts hereby repealed, by annual or other Payments, but who may not make good and keep up the same, and who is entitled to receive back the same, or to his, her, or their Executors or Administrators, as well as to the Executors or Administrators of such Person who may die before the Annuity which he, she, or they may have contracted for becomes payable, or for Re-purchase of any Annuity or Annuities in manner herein-after provided.

Commissioners may reserve a Part of such Sums to repay Money claimed in case of Death, &c. of Party purchasing Annuity.

Annuities granted under this Act not assignable, except in case of Bankruptcy or Insolvency.

XXV. The Right, Title, Interest, and Benefit in and to any Annuity, of whatsoever Kind, which has been purchased under any Act now in force for the Grant of Annuities through Savings Banks or Parochial Societies, or which may be purchased under the Provisions of this Act, shall not be assignable by the original Proprietor thereof so as to enable the Assignee to receive the same during the Lifetime of the said Proprietor; except in case of the Insolvency or Bankruptcy of an individual Proprietor, when the same shall become the Property of his or her Assignee or Assignees, for the Benefit of his or her Creditors; and in case of any such Bankruptcy or Insolvency the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall re-purchase the said Annuity according to the Value thereof, the same being computed upon the same Tables upon which the said Annuity was originally purchased; and the Receipt of the Assignee or Assignees shall be a sufficient Discharge to the said Commissioners, who shall forthwith cancel the said Annuity.

XXVI. When any Annuity for Life, immediate or deferred, shall have been purchased under the Acts hereby repealed or this Act, in the Names of more Parties than One, the said Commissioners may permit the Party or Parties not beneficially interested therein, jointly with the Party who is beneficially interested, whether such Party be of the Age of Twenty-one Years or not, to transfer the said Annuity or Annuities to other Parties, of whom the Party beneficially interested shall always be One, under such Regulations as the said Commissioners shall prescribe in that respect, for the Purpose of securing that no Assignment shall thereby be made of the Interest of the said Party to any other Person or Persons whatsoever: Provided always, that where the Party beneficially interested is incapable, from any of the Causes set forth in Section Nine of this Act, from joining in such Transfer, the said Commissioners may permit such Transfer, notwithstanding, under such Regulations as shall appear to them to be necessary to secure the Interest of the Party beneficially interested in such Annuity.

Transfer may be made by Trustees to secure Interest of Party beneficially interested.

XXVII. Life Annuities purchased under the Provisions of this Act shall be free from all Taxes, Charges, or Impositions whatever; and all such Annuities shall be deemed Personal Estate.

Life Annuities to be free from Taxes, &c.

XXVIII. An Account shall be made up on the Fifth Day of January in every Year, by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, of all Annuities of whatsoever Kind granted in pursuance of any of the Acts hereby repealed or under this Act which shall have remained unclaimed for the Space of Three Years then next preceding, and all such Annuities so remaining unclaimed, together with the unclaimed half-yearly Arrears thereof, and also all such Annuities of whatsoever Kind which shall have expired; and all half-yearly Arrears thereof shall cease to be charged upon and shall not be issued or issuable out of the said Consolidated Fund from and after the Day upon which such Annuities shall have remained so unclaimed or shall have expired; but nothing in this Act contained shall extend to defeat or prejudice the Rights of any Persons entitled to such unclaimed Annuities who shall at any subsequent Period give Proof of their Title to such Annuities to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, or the said Comptroller General.

Yearly Account to be made up of unclaimed Annuities, &c.

XXIX. No Stamp Duty whatever shall be paid or payable upon or in respect of any Copy of any Register of Birth or Baptism or Marriage or Burial, or upon or in respect of any Certificate or Declaration to be made or taken in pursuance of this Act, or any Certificate or other Instrument whatsoever respecting the Payment of Money for the Purchase of any Annuity or Sum payable at Death under this Act, or any Power of Attorney authorizing the Receipt or any Receipt for the Payment of any such Annuity or any Part thereof, or for the Payment of any Sum of Money payable at Death.

Arrears, &c. of Three Years standing to cease to be charged on Consolidated Fund.

Registers, Receipts, &c. exempt from Stamp Duty.

XXX. If any Certificate or Declaration shall be produced to the Officer of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt which shall contain any untrue Statement of the Age of any Person to whom an Annuity has been granted under this Act, or of any Person who has contracted for a Sum payable at Death,

If Certificate or Declaration contain any untrue Statement of Age, &c. the Money paid to be forfeited, and Right to Annuity to cease.

with Intent to obtain an Annuity on the Continuance of the Life of any Person under the Age of Ten Years, or to obtain any higher Rate or Amount of Annuity or any Payment on Death greater than would or might be allowed under the Provisions of this Act, according to the true Age of such Person, then and in every such Case all Money which may have been paid for or on account of the Purchase of such Annuity or Payment on Death shall be forfeited to the said Commissioners, and all Right and Title to any Annuity or to any Payment on Death which would or might otherwise have been payable in respect thereof shall cease and determine.

Persons forging Register, Certificate, Transfers, &c. liable to Punishment for Forgery.

XXXI. If any Person or Persons shall forge, counterfeit, or alter, or shall cause or procure to be forged, counterfeited, or altered, or shall knowingly or wilfully act or assist in the forging, counterfeiting, or altering, any Register or Registers of Birth or Baptism or Death or Burial required under the Provisions of this Act, or any Copy or Certificate of any such Register, or the Name or Names of any Witness or Witnesses to any such Certificate, or any Declaration required to be taken for any of the Purposes of this Act, or any Certificate of any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, or of any Officer acting under the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, of any such Declaration having been taken before him, or any Certificate of any Governor, or Person acting as such, or Minister, or Consul, or Chief Magistrate of any Province, Town, or Place, or other Person authorized by this Act to grant any Certificate of the Life or Death of any Annuitant; or shall forge, counterfeit, or alter, or shall cause or procure to be forged, counterfeited, or altered, or shall knowingly or wilfully act or assist in the forging, counterfeiting, or altering, any Certificate or Certificates of any Officer of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, or of any Cashier or Clerk of the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland, or the Name or Names of any Person or Persons in or to any Certificate or other Instrument for the Payment of Money for the Purchase of any Annuity, or Sum payable at Death, under the Provisions of this Act, or in or to any Receipt or Discharge for any such Annuity, or in or to any Receipt or Discharge for any Payment or Payments due or to become due thereon, or for any Sum payable at Death, under the Provisions of this Act, or authorizing or purporting to authorize the Receipt of any Life Annuity, or any Annuity for Years, of whatsoever Kind, or Sum payable at Death, granted under this Act, or under either of the Acts hereby repealed, or any Payment or Payments due or to become due thereon; or if any Person or Persons shall wilfully, falsely, and deceitfully personate any true and real Annuitant, or shall wilfully utter, or deliver or produce to any Person or Persons acting under the Authority of this Act, any such forged Register or Copy of Register, or any such forged Certificate or Declaration, knowing the same to be forged, counterfeited, or altered, with Intent to defraud Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, or with Intent to defraud any Person or Persons whomsoever; then and in every such Case all and every Persons and Person so offending, and being duly convicted thereof, shall be and is hereby declared to be subject and liable to such Pains and and Penalties as by any Laws in force any Persons convicted of Forgery are subject and liable to.

XXXII. If any Person in any Declaration to be made before any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, or before any Officer acting under the said Commissioners, under the Provisions of this Act, shall wilfully or corruptly declare to any Matter or Thing which shall be false or untrue, every such Person so offending, and being duly convicted thereof, shall be and is hereby declared to be subject and liable to such Pains and Penalties as by any Laws in force any Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to.

Penalty on Persons guilty of Perjury.

XXXIII. If any Person or Persons shall for his, her, or their own Use, or for the Use of any other Person or Persons, receive any One or more Payment or Payments (otherwise than as authorized by this Act) upon or in respect of any Annuity granted under the Provisions of this Act or of the Acts hereby repealed, after the Death of any Annuitant on the Continuance of whose Life such Annuity was payable, or after the Death of either Annuitant, in case the Annuity shall have been granted upon the joint Continuance of the Lives of Two joint Annuitants, and after and beyond the Time on which such Annuity ought wholly to cease in consequence of the Death of such Annuitant, by virtue of this Act or the Acts hereby repealed, knowing such Annuitant to be dead, and contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, every Person so offending shall forfeit to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, treble the Amount of all Money so received.

Penalty on receiving Annuity after Death of Nominee, treble the Amount received.

XXXIV. All pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act shall be recoverable (if incurred in England) in the Name of Her Majesty's Attorney General, on the Part of Her Majesty, by Information in the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, or (if incurred in Ireland) in the Name of Her Majesty's Attorney General in the Court of Exchequer at Dublin, or (if incurred in Scotland) in the Name of Her Majesty's Advocate General in the Court of Exchequer in Edinburgh; and such Penalty and Forfeiture shall be payable and paid to the said Commissioners, and shall go and belong to and shall become Part of the Consolidated Fund; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to cause such Reward as they shall think fit, not exceeding One Moiety of any such Penalty or Forfeiture so recovered, after deducting all Charges and Expenses incurred in recovering the same, to be paid to any Person or Persons who shall appear to them to be entitled thereto as Informer or Informers in respect of such Penalty or Forfeitures so recovered.

Recovery and Application of Penalties.

Power to cause Reward to be paid to Informers.

XXXV. The Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may order and direct to be issued and paid, out of the Fund upon which the Establishment of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt is chargeable, any Sum or Sums of Money for the Payment of Salaries to Officers and Clerks, and for any incidental Expenses incurred by the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt in carrying into execution this Act, in such Manner as the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury shall from Time to Time think fit and reasonable.

Provision for defraying Expenses attending the Execution of this Act.

XXXVI. There

Account to be laid annually before Parliament of Annuities granted, and of Money paid for Annuities.

XXXVI. There shall be prepared and annually laid before both Houses of Parliament on or before the Twenty-fifth Day of April in every Year, if Parliament shall be then sitting, and if Parliament shall not be then sitting, then within Fourteen Days after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament, an Account, made up by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to the Fifth Day of January preceding, of the gross Amount of all Sums of Money paid to the said Commissioners, and the gross Amount of Annuities for Lives which shall have been granted for the same, and Contracts for Payment at Death which may have been made, under the Provisions of this Act, within the Year ending on the Fifth Day of January aforesaid.

Powers of Attorney granted under recited Acts to be available under this Act.

XXXVII. All Powers of Attorney which shall have been granted for the Purpose of receiving any Annuity purchased under the said recited Acts or either of them, and which shall be in force on the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, shall continue of like Validity with respect to any Payment on account of such Annuities to be thereafter made by the said Commissioners under the Authority of this Act so long as such Powers of Attorney shall continue in force.

C A P. XLVI.

An Act to transfer Westminster Bridge and the Estates of "The Commissioners of Westminster Bridge" to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings; and to enable such last-mentioned Commissioners to remove the present Bridge, and to build a new Bridge on or near the Site thereof. [4th August 1853.]

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Provisions of the following Acts of Parliament, made in the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, namely, an Act of the Ninth Year, Chapter Twenty-nine, an Act of the Tenth Year, Chapter Sixteen, an Act of the Eleventh Year, Chapter Twenty-five, an Act of the Twelfth Year, Chapter Thirty-three, an Act of the Thirteenth Year, Chapter Sixteen, an Act of the Fourteenth Year, Chapter Forty, an Act of the Fifteenth Year, Chapter Twenty-six, an Act of the Seventeenth Year, Chapter Thirty-two, an Act of the Eighteenth Year, Chapter Twenty-nine, an Act of the Twenty-ninth Year, Chapter Thirty-eight, and an Act of the Thirtieth Year, Chapter Thirty-four, the present Bridge over the Thames at Westminster was constructed by certain Commissioners appointed for that Purpose: And whereas by an Act of Parliament of the Fifty-fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and thirty-two, (Local,) the last-mentioned Commissioners were constituted a Body Politic and Corporate by the Name of "The Commissioners of Westminster Bridge:" And whereas by an Act of Parliament of the Session held in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter One hundred and twelve, (Local,) the said Commissioners of Westminster Bridge were empowered to construct

‘ a temporary Bridge adjoining Westminster Bridge aforesaid ‘ during certain Repairs thereof then contemplated, but no such ‘ temporary Bridge has been constructed, and the Plan of repair‘ ing the Bridge contemplated as aforesaid has been abandoned :
‘ And whereas, for the Purpose of constructing and maintaining ‘ the said Bridge, divers Sums of Money were raised by the said ‘ Commissioners of Westminster Bridge, under the Authority of ‘ the aforesaid Acts or some of them, by way of Lottery, and ‘ other Sums were advanced to the same Commissioners out of ‘ the Public Revenues, and the Residue of such Monies, after dis‘ charging the Cost of the Construction of the said Bridge, was ‘ invested by the said Commissioners in the Purchase of divers ‘ Lands and Hereditaments commonly called the Westminster
‘ Bridge Estate, and the Expenses of maintaining and repairing
‘ the said Bridge, together with certain Improvements in the ‘ Streets and Roads leading to the same Bridge, also authorized ‘ by the said Acts or some of them, have from Time to Time been ‘ defrayed by and out of the Rents, Issues, and Profits of the said ‘ Estate, or by Sale of Parts thereof by the said Commissioners :
‘ And whereas the said Westminster Bridge, and the Stairs, ‘ Landings, and Abutments thereof, and also all the Lands and ‘ Hereditaments now constituting the Westminster Bridge Estate
‘ are now, under and by virtue of the said Acts or some of them, ‘ absolutely vested in the said Commissioners of Westminster ‘ Bridge and their Successors, subject only to such Leases or ‘ other Interests of or in the same as are now subsisting, and ‘ which said Hereditaments are set forth in the First Schedule ‘ to this Act : And whereas the said Bridge at Westminster has ‘ become insecure, and cannot be effectually repaired, and it is ‘ therefore necessary that a new Bridge should be constructed :
‘ And whereas it is expedient that the Construction of such new ‘ Bridge, and of the necessary and proper Approaches thereto, ‘ should be intrusted to the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s ‘ Works and Public Buildings, and for that Purpose that the ‘ present Bridge, together with all the said Westminster Bridge ‘ Estate, should be transferred to and vested in the said Commis‘ sioners of Her Majesty’s Works and Public Buildings : And ‘ whereas, on or before the Thirtieth Day of November One thou‘ sand eight hundred and fifty-two, the said Commissioners of ‘ Her Majesty’s Works and Public Buildings caused to be pre‘ pared a Plan of a new Bridge and of the Approaches thereto,
‘ and also deposited Copies of such Plan at the respective Offices ‘ of the Clerks of the Peace for the Counties of Middlesex and ‘ Surrey, and at the Office of the Clerk of the Peace for the City ‘ and Liberty of Westminster, and with the Parish Clerks of the ‘ Parishes of Saint Margaret Westminster and Saint Mary Lam‘ beth, and at the Parliament Office of the House of Lords, the ‘ Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, and the Office of ‘ the Board of Admiralty, and also gave Notice of the Deposit of ‘ such Plan as aforesaid to all the Owners, Lessees, and Occupiers ‘ of the Property which it would be necessary to take or affect ‘ for the Purpose of constructing a new Bridge and Approaches
‘ according to such Plan, together with Notice of their Intention ‘ to apply to Parliament for an Act to enable them to construct ‘ such

‘ such new Bridge and Approaches accordingly, and the Property
 ‘ proposed to be taken from such Owners, Lessees, and Occupiers ‘ is set forth in the Second Schedule to this Act: And whereas ‘ since the Deposit of the said Plan as aforesaid the said Commis‘ sioners of Her Majesty’s Works and Public Buildings have ‘ found it expedient to make certain Alterations in the Width and ‘ Elevation of the said intended Bridge: And whereas the said
 ‘ Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Works and Public Buildings
 ‘ have caused an amended Plan to be made of the said intended ‘ Bridge and the Approaches thereto, according to such proposed ‘ Alterations as aforesaid, and have deposited Copies of the said ‘ amended Plan in the Parliament Office of the House of Lords ‘ and in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, but ‘ the same were not deposited until after the Thirtieth Day of ‘ November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, such pro‘ posed Alterations not having been determined on until after that ‘ Day: And whereas such proposed Alterations will not render ‘ it necessary to take or affect any Property not included within ‘ the Limits of Deviation laid down in the said original Plan.’
 May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Acts repealed.

I. All and singular the Acts of Parliament herein-before mentioned shall be and hereby are absolutely repealed.

II. The Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Works and Public Buildings for the Time being shall be and they are hereby constituted a Corporation by the Name and Style of “The Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Works and Public Buildings,” in order to enable them to carry into effect and execute the several Objects, Powers, and Purposes of this Act, and by that Name, and for the Purposes of this Act, they shall have perpetual Succession and use a Common Seal, which may be by them from Time to Time altered as they shall think fit, and shall and may sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, and take Lands and Hereditaments to them and their Successors for ever, for the Purposes of this Act.

The Bridge, or so much thereof as belonged to the Commissioners, either in trust or otherwise, before the passing of Act, to be vested, without further Conveyance, &c. in the Commissioners of Works, &c.

III. The said Bridge at Westminster, with all and singular the Abuttals, Stairs, Streets, and Approaches thereto belonging, or so much thereof as at or immediately before the passing of this Act and Hereditaments, Monies, Funds, and other Real or Personal Estate, whatsoever and wheresoever, which, at or immediately before the passing of this Act, are vested or belonging, either at Law or in Equity, and either in possession, reversion, or remainder, in or to the said Commissioners of Westminster Bridge, or in any Persons in trust for them, or in or to which they have any Estate, Claim, or Demand whatsoever, shall, without any further Conveyance or Assignment, forthwith be and hereby are absolutely vested in the said Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Works and Public Buildings for the same Estate or Interest and to the same Extent as the same at the passing of this Act were vested in the said Commissioners of Westminster Bridge, but

but not further or otherwise, and subject to all such and the same Estates, Conditions, Covenants, Exceptions, Reservations, and Liabilities as the same were subject to in the Hands of the said Commissioners of Westminster Bridge.

IV. The said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings shall be absolutely entitled, both at Law or in Equity, to the Benefit of all Covenants, Conditions, and Reservations entered into with or made or reserved by the said Commissioners of Westminster Bridge, or to the Benefit whereof the same Commissioners of Westminster Bridge are at the passing of this Act entitled; and all Actions, Suits, Claims, and Demands which, if this Act had not been passed, might have been instituted or made by or against or upon the said Commissioners of Westminster Bridge, may be instituted or made by or against or upon the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings; and Payment to the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings of any Monies now due or which shall or otherwise would at any future Time become due to the said Commissioners of Westminster Bridge shall absolutely discharge the Persons making such Payment from any further Liability in respect of such Monies.

V. From and immediately after the passing of this Act the said Body Politic and Corporate of the Commissioners of Westminster Bridge shall cease and be dissolved.

VI. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings and their Successors, as and when they shall think fit, to make sale and dispose of and convey the said Hereditaments and Premises hereby vested in them as aforesaid, and also all and every or any Messuages, Buildings, Pieces of Ground, and Hereditaments which shall or may hereafter be purchased by or conveyed to them and their Successors, under the Provisions of this Act, and which shall not be required for the Purposes of this Act, and the Fee Simple thereof, or other their Estate or Interest therein, including all the Materials of Westminster Bridge aforesaid, and of all other Buildings, so soon as they shall be empowered to pull down or remove the same, as herein-after mentioned, either entirely or in Parcels, and by Public Sale or Private Contract, unto any Person or Persons who shall be willing to become the Purchaser or Purchasers thereof, for such Price or Prices as can be reasonably obtained for the same, and upon Payment of the Monies for which the same Premises or any Part or Parts thereof shall be sold, then to convey and assure the same unto and to the Use of the Purchaser or Purchasers thereof, and his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns respectively, or as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and also to give, sign, and execute proper and effectual Receipts and Acquittances for such Monies, which shall exonerate such Purchaser or Purchasers from all Responsibility with regard to the Application of the same Monies.

VII. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and their Successors, from Time to Time as they shall think fit, to raise any Sum or Sums of Money by way of Mortgage, either in Fee or for any Term of Commissioners to be entitled to the Benefit of all Covenants, &c. entered into with the Commissioners of Westminster Bridge.

Corporation of Westminster Bridge to be dissolved.

Applicability of certain Sections of 9 & 10 Vict. c. 39. to this Act.

Section

Section One hundred and sixteen, shall be deemed to be herein repeated with the Alterations necessary to make the same applicable to the new Bridge and Approaches authorized by this Act, and to the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and so that all Provisions in the said Act referring to or affecting any particular Commissioners of Sewers, or Persons or Bodies having the Control of any Sewers, shall be held to apply to the Commissioners or Body or Person or Persons having the Control or Management of the Sewers to which such Provisions became applicable, and so also that all the Provisions in the said Act relating to Sheriffs, Under Sheriffs, Coroners, Juries, and Justices shall be held to extend to and include Sheriffs, Under Sheriffs, Coroners, Juries, and Justices of the County of Surrey, as well as of the County of Middlesex, as the Case may require, and so as the Space of Seven Years mentioned in the said Thirty-ninth Chapter of the Statutes shall commence from the passing of this Act.

Punishment of Persons guilty of wilful Damage.

XIV. That if any Person shall wilfully or maliciously damage or injure the present Bridge, or any Pier, Stairs, Hard, or Landing Place belonging thereto, or shall wilfully or maliciously damage or injure the said intended new Bridge, or any Pier, Stairs, Hard, or Landing Place, or any Works, Matters, or Things to be constructed or provided under the Provisions of this Act, or any Part thereof respectively, or shall wilfully or maliciously, and without Authority from the said Commissioners, remove or take away any Works, Matters, or Things thereunto respectively belonging, or in any way direct or procure the same to be done, or shall be aiding or assisting therein, whereby the said Bridges or either of them, or the Piers, Stairs, Hards, or Landing Places, or the Works, Matters, or Things thereof respectively, may be damaged, any Person so offending shall be judged guilty of Felony; and every such Person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be subject to the like Punishments and Penalties as in Cases of Felony; and the Court by or before whom such Person shall be tried and convicted shall have Power and Authority to cause such Person to be punished in like Manner as Felons are directed to be punished by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, or, in mitigation of such Punishments, such Court may award such Sentence as the Law directs in Cases of Petty Larceny.

Owners of Vessels liable for Damage done to the Bridges,
&c.

XV. That in case any Damage or Mischief shall be done to the said Bridges, or either of them, or to any such Piers, Stairs, Hards, or Landing Places as aforesaid, or any of the Works, Matters, or Things to be constructed or provided under the Provisions of this Act, or any Part thereof respectively, by any Ship, Lighter, Barge, Boat, Float, Raft, or Vessel, through the wilful Negligence of any Person having the Command of any such Ship, Lighter, Barge, Boat, Float, Raft, or Vessel, or any of the Mariners or Persons employed therein, then and in every such Case the Owner of such Ship, Lighter, Barge, Boat, Float, Raft, or Vessel shall be and is hereby made answerable to the said Commissioners for the Amount or Value of any such Damage or Mischief; and the same, provided it shall not exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, if not forthwith paid and satisfied, shall and may be recovered in such Manner

Manner as the Penalties and Forfeitures hereby imposed are in and by this Act directed to be recovered.

XVI. That in case the Owner of any such Ship, Lighter, Barge, Boat, Float, Raft, or Vessel shall be compelled to pay any Penalty, or to make Satisfaction for any Damages, by reason of any Neglect or Default done or committed by his Servants or Mariners, or any of them, such Servants or Mariners and each and every of them shall be liable to pay such Penalty or Damages (with the Costs thereof) to such Owner; and in case of Nonpayment upon Demand thereof, and Oath made by such Owner of the Payment made by him of such Penalty, Satisfaction, or Damages, and that the same and the Costs thereof have not been repaid to him by such Servants or Mariners or any of them, although demanded, (such Oath to be made before any One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County or Place where such Penalty or Satisfaction shall have been recovered,) the Amount thereof, provided the same shall not exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, shall be recovered in the same Manner as any Penalty is hereby directed to be recovered.

Masters to recover from their Servants any Damages paid for their Neglect, &c.

XVII. That if any Person shall wilfully break, throw down, or damage any of the Benches or Requisites erected on the present Bridge, Piers, Stairs, Hards, or Landing Places or any Benches or Requisites to be erected on the said intended new Bridge, Piers, Stairs, Hards, or Landing Places, or any Works, Matters, or Things to be constructed or provided for the Purpose of effectually carrying out the Purposes of this Act, or for the Convenience of the Passengers on the said Bridges, Piers, Stairs, Hards, or Landing Places, or wilfully break, throw down, damage, or destroy any Lamp Posts or Lamps on the same or any of them, or any of the Approaches thereto, or the Furniture of any of the said Lamps, or extinguish any of the said Lamps when lighted, or if any Person shall occasion any Obstruction, Annoyance, or Hindrance of any Description to Passengers on or along the said Bridges, Piers, Stairs, Hards, or Landing Places, or any of them, he shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and shall also make Satisfaction to the said Commissioners, or to any such Person or Persons as they shall appoint to receive the same, or to the Party injured, for the Damage so done as aforesaid, which Satisfaction shall be received as Part of and in the same Way as the said Penalty is by this Act authorized to be recovered; and if any such Injury as aforesaid shall be done negligently or by Accident, the Person doing or causing the same shall make Satisfaction to the Party injured, which shall and may be recovered in the same Manner as Penalties are by this Act directed to be recovered.

Penalty for Injuries, &c. or Obstructions to Passengers.

XVIII. When the several Roadways and Approaches and Streets shown and laid down in the said Plans shall be made in pursuance of this Act, all the Ground, Land, and Hereditaments which shall be laid open into the said Roadways and Approaches and Streets shall form Part of the said Roadways, Approaches, and Streets, and shall be used by the Public accordingly, and the same, and the sole Power, Authority, and Duty of paving, repair-

Ground laid into the Streets to form Part of the Roadways, and may be used by the Public.

ing, cleansing, lighting, and watering thereof, and of rating the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments situate and being within the same, or the Occupiers thereof for the Time being, shall be under the Care, Management, Control, and Jurisdiction of the Trustees or Commissioners of the Parishes or Places respectively after mentioned, that is to say, such Parts of the said Roadways, Approaches, and Streets as will be situate on the Westminster Side of the said intended Bridge shall be under the Care, Management, Control, and Jurisdiction of the Commissioners for paving and improving the Parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John Westminster, and such Parts thereof as will be situate on the Lambeth Side of the said intended Bridge shall be under the Care, Management, Control, and Jurisdiction of the Trustees or Commissioners or other Persons or Bodies for the Time being having the Charge of paving the Parish of Saint Mary Lambeth, in like Manner in all respects as if they were included in the Acts giving Authority to the Bodies respectively; but all such Roadways, Approaches, and Streets shall in the first instance be well and sufficiently constructed and completed by and at the Costs of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings.

No Houses, &c. to be taken without Consent, unless mentioned in Schedule.

XIX. Provided always, That no Houses, Buildings, Lands, or Hereditaments shall be taken or made use of for the Purposes of this Act, except such as are mentioned in the said Second Schedule hereunto annexed, or as are situated within the Limits of the Line of Deviation marked on the said original Plan, without the Consent in Writing of the Owner or Owners thereof, being capacitated to sell, being first had and obtained for that Purpose.

Until new Bridge completed, Commissioners to keep up a Communication between the Middlesex and Surrey Shores.

XX. Until the said intended new Bridge and the Approaches thereto shall be completed and thrown open to the Public, the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings shall maintain and keep up the Means of a sufficient Communication between the Middlesex and Surrey Shores of the said River on or near the Site of the present Bridge at Westminster, and shall leave sufficient Access for the Public thereto along the Streets and Approaches leading to the same; and the said Commissioners shall as soon as conveniently may be take down and entirely remove the present Bridge, and the Stairs, Hards, and Piers thereto belonging, and shall sell or cause to be sold all the Materials thereof, and such Parts of the said Streets and Approaches not wanted for the Purposes of this Act in like Manner as is hereby provided with respect to the Sale of the Hereditaments and Materials of Houses to be pulled down by them, and hereby authorized to be sold.

So much of present and intended Bridge as lies to the West shall be in the Parish of St. Margaret, and so much as lies to the East

XXI. So much of the said intended Bridge and of the said present Bridge, until removed, as lies or shall lie to the West of the Line dividing the Counties of Middlesex and Surrey, shall be in the Parish of St. Margaret in the City of Westminster and County of Middlesex, and so much as lies or shall lie to the East of the same Line shall be in the Parish of Lambeth in the County of Surrey, nevertheless no Part of either of the said Bridges shall be rated or assessed for or towards the Land Tax, the Repairs of Highways, Highways, Sewers Rate, Poor's Rate, Church Rates, or any other Parish or County Rate whatsoever; and neither of the said Bridges shall be deemed or taken to be a County Bridge, so as to subject the Counties of Surrey and Middlesex, or either of them, to the repairing or supporting the same; and on the said intended Bridge being built the said Commissioners shall mark on some conspicuous Part thereof the Boundaries of the said Two Counties, and that Mark shall be conclusive Evidence of such Boundaries; and until the said present Bridge shall be removed the said Commissioners hereby incorporated shall, as regards the present Bridge, and all the Streets, Piers, Landing Places, Hards, and Approaches, have all and every the Powers and Authorities which before the passing of this Act were vested in the Westminster Bridge Commissioners.

XXII. In all Cases wherein Damages or Charges in respect of Acts or Offences done or committed upon or relating to the said Bridge, Piers, Stairs, Hards, or Landing Places are by this Act directed or authorized to be paid, and the Manner of ascertaining the Amount thereof is not specified or provided for, such Amount, in case of Nonpayment thereof, or of any Dispute respecting the same, shall be ascertained and determined by some Justice of the Peace for the said County of Surrey or the County of Middlesex, according to the Part of the Bridge where the Act or Offence was committed (such Justice not being interested in the Matters in question); and where by this Act any such Damages or Charges are directed to be paid, in addition to any Penalty for any Offence, the Amount of such Damages and Charges, in case of Nonpayment thereof, or of any Dispute respecting the same, shall be settled and determined by the Justice by or before whom any Offender shall be convicted of such Offence; and such Justice is hereby authorized and required, on Nonpayment of the Damages, in any of the Cases aforesaid, to levy such Damages and Charges by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, in manner by this Act directed for the levying of any Penalties or Forfeitures.

XXIII. With respect to the Recovery of Damages and Penalties and Forfeitures not hereby otherwise specially provided for, all and singular the Clauses and Provisions in "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," relating to the Recovery of Damages, Penalties, and Forfeitures, and the Application thereof, shall, so far as the same are applicable to Damages, Penalties, and Forfeitures imposed or made recoverable by this Act, be considered as incorporated with this Act, and for that Purpose the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings shall be considered to be a Company; provided nevertheless, that it shall not be necessary for the said Commissioners to publish any List or Particulars of the Penalties hereby imposed, as required by the said "Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" And provided also, that the Share of Penalties and Forfeitures which by the said Act are directed to be applied for the Benefit of the Poor shall in lieu thereof be paid to the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings for the Purposes of this Act.

shall be in the Parish of Lambeth; and the Bridges not to be liable to Land Tax, &c., nor to be deemed County Bridges.

Damages, &c., in case of Dispute, to be settled by a Justice of the Peace.

Damages not otherwise provided for, Provisions of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 16. to apply.

Application of Penalties.

As to Receipts,
&c.

XXIV. Receipts in Writing, signed by any Two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, or by the First Commissioner alone, for any Monies payable to the said Commissioners hereby incorporated, under or by virtue of this Act, shall be good and sufficient Discharges to the Person or Persons paying the same; and all Contracts in Writing made by the First Commissioner in the Execution of any of the Powers by this Act given to the said Commissioners shall be valid, and shall be binding on the said Commissioners, as if the same had been under their Corporate Seal.

Compensation
to Officers by reason of Abolition of Offices.

XXV. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Treasury to order and direct whether any and what Compensation shall be made to the Secretary, Clerk, or other Officers of the Westminster Bridge Commissioners by reason of the Abolition of their Offices, or the Discontinuance of their Services, which Compensation may be made either by a Sum or Sums of Money in gross or by an annual Payment or Payments, as the Commissioners of the Treasury shall think fit to determine, and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings are hereby authorized to pay such Compensation, pursuant to such Order, out of any of the Public Stocks or Funds, or the Dividends thereof, for the Time being belonging to the said last-mentioned Commissioners, and applicable by them to the Purposes of this Act: Provided always, that such Compensation shall not operate as, or be deemed or taken to be, any Charge or Incumbrance upon the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments mentioned in the First Schedule to this Act, or upon any Part or Parcel thereof, nor shall any Purchaser, Mortgagee, Lessee, Tenant, or Occupier of such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Part thereof, be liable to the Payment of such Compensation, or bound to see whether any such Compensation has or has not been made or paid.

For Protection of Wharf, &c. in the Occupation of Mr. Simmonds.

XXVI. Nothing in this Act contained shall authorize or empower the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings to erect any Structure within Twenty-five Yards on a Line drawn at a Right Angle from the Front of the Wharf and Flour Mills in the Occupation of Mr. John Simmonds, situate on the said River Thames at Lambeth, adjoining the Foot of the present Westminster Bridge on the Northern Side thereof.

Short Title.

XXVII. It shall be sufficient for all Purposes to cite this Act as the "Westminster Bridge Act, 1853."

C A P. XLVII.

An Act to provide for the Purchase and Extinguishment of all rights of Common and Lammias and other Commonable Rights over the Site of Battersea Park in the County of Surrey. [4th August 1853.]

9 & 10 Vict.
c. 38.

14 & 15 Vict.
c. 77.

‘ WHEREAS under and by virtue of the Enactments, Powers, and Provisions contained in the Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Thirty-eight, and the Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Seventy-seven, the Battersea Park Commissioners were authorized and empowered to purchase and hold divers Lands and Hereditaments specified in a Schedule annexed to the first-mentioned Act, situate in Battersea Fields in the Parish of Saint Mary Battersea in the County of Surrey, for the Purpose of forming a public Park there, to be called Battersea Park, and for other Purposes: And whereas, in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Acts or One of them, certain of the aforesaid Lands and Hereditaments have been purchased and are now vested in the said Battersea Park Commissioners for the Purposes aforesaid, and the said Commissioners purpose from Time to Time hereafter to purchase such further Portions of the aforesaid Lands and Hereditaments as they may consider requisite for the Purposes aforesaid: And whereas by the first-mentioned Act it was amongst other things enacted, that in all Cases where there should be Occasion to cut through, take, or use for the Purposes aforesaid any Part or Parts of any Commons or Waste Grounds or other Lands or Hereditaments which should be charged with or subject to any Right or Rights of Common, whether of Pasture, Turbary, Estover, or Piscary, or other Easements whatsoever, appendant, appurtenant, or in gross, or whether created or subsisting by Grant, Prescription, Custom, or otherwise howsoever, the Conveyance thereof by any Body Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, or other Person or Persons, having such and the like Estate and Interest of and in the Manor wherein such Lands, Commons, Waste Grounds, or Hereditaments should be situate or (if the same should not be the Waste of any Manor) then having such and the like Estate and Interest of and in the Soil of such Lands, Commons, Wastes, and Hereditaments, as the Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, or Persons, who by virtue of the said Act were enabled to sell and convey other Lands and Hereditaments, should be a good and sufficient Conveyance of the Fee Simple and Inheritance of such Waste Grounds or Common or other Lands or Hereditaments for the Purposes aforesaid, as fully and effectually as if every Person having such Right or Rights of Common upon such Common or Waste Ground, Lands, or Hereditaments were seised thereof in Fee Simple in possession, and had joined in and executed such Conveyance, and that the Compensation to be paid for any Right of Common upon any such Common or Waste Ground, Lands, or Hereditaments to be settled in the Manner by the said first-mentioned Act directed should be paid to the Churchwardens of the Parish or respective

‘ Parishes

Parishes in which such Common or Waste Lands should lie, and should be by such Churchwardens applied for such general and public Purposes within such Parishes respectively as a Vestry of such respective Parishes to be convened by such Churchwardens for that Purpose should direct : And whereas the Inhabitants of the said Parish of Saint Mary Battersea, at a Vestry Meeting held on the Eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, unanimously resolved that the Churchwardens should be authorized, on the Part of the Parishioners, in respect of their Common Rights, either as Freeholders, Copyholders, or Tenants, or Parishioners, of all the said Lands named in the Schedule to the first-mentioned Act, to accept the Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds by way of Compensation for the Extinguishment of such and all other Rights over all such said Lands : And whereas it was intended by the said Parishioners that the said Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds should include the Purchase or Compensation Money to be paid in respect of all Lammas Rights and other Commonable Rights existing or alleged to exist in, over, or upon all the Lands mentioned in the said Resolution, although not Common or Waste Lands ; but it is doubtful whether the Terms of the aforesaid Provisions of the first-mentioned Act include such last-mentioned Lammas and other Commonable Rights : And whereas Doubts are also entertained as to how the Monies to be paid as the Price or Compensation for such Rights of Common and Commonable Rights as aforesaid ought to be paid and applied under the Provisions of the said first-recited Act : And whereas it is just and necessary, for the Purpose of effecting the Purposes of the said Acts, that on Payment of the Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds by the said Battersea Park Commissioners all Rights of Common and Commonable Rights whatsoever in, over, or upon all the Lands comprised in the said Schedule to the first-mentioned Act, and which have been purchased as aforesaid, or which shall hereafter be purchased, should be absolutely extinguished ; but it is apprehended that the same cannot be completely effected without the Authority of Parliament : May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted ; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

I. It shall be lawful for the said Battersea Park Commissioners, out of any Monies coming to their Hands applicable to the Purposes of the said Acts, to pay to the Churchwardens for the Time being of the said Parish of Saint Mary Battersea the Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds, to be by such Churchwardens or their Successors applied for such general and public Purposes within the said Parish as a Vestry of the same Parish, to be convened by such Churchwardens for that Purpose, shall direct ; and immediately on such Payment all Rights of Common whatsoever, and all Lammas Rights and other Commonable Rights whatsoever existing or claimed by any Body Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, or any Person or Persons whatsoever, Battersea Park Commissioners to pay 1,500*l.* to Churchwardens of St. Mary Battersea, to be applied to such Purposes as a Vestry shall direct, and thereupon all Rights of Common to cease.

soever, in, upon, or over all or any Part or Parts of the said Lands and Hereditaments specified in the Schedule to the said first-mentioned Act, and already purchased by the said Commissioners, shall absolutely cease and be extinguished; and as regards any other of the said Hereditaments which shall hereafter be purchased, then from the Date of such Purchase such Rights shall also cease and be extinguished, and whether the same be Common or Waste Lands or not.

Receipt of the Churchwardens to be a sufficient Discharge for the 1,500*l*.

II. The Receipt or Receipts in Writing of the Churchwardens for the Time being of the said Parish of Saint Mary Battersea shall be a full and sufficient Discharge to the said Battersea Park Commissioners for the said Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds or any Part thereof, and they shall not be in anywise bound to see to the Application thereof.

Short Title.

III. It shall be sufficient for all Purposes to cite this Act as "The Battersea Park Act, 1853."

An Act for the Punishment of Offences in the Colonies in relation to the Coin. [4th August 1853.]

2 & 3 W. 4. c. 34.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Second Year of King William the Fourth, "for consolidating and amending the Laws against Offences relating to the Coin," and such Act has been amended by an Act passed in the First Year of Her Majesty, "to amend the Law relative to Offences punishable by Transportation for Life:" And whereas it is expedient to extend the Provisions of the said first-mentioned Act (as so amended) to Her Majesty's Colonies and Possessions abroad in which Provision may not have been already made for the like Purpose: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

7 W. 4. & 1 Vict. c. 90.

2 & 3 W. 4. c. 34. as amended, extended to the Colonies.

I. The Provisions of the said first-mentioned Act, as amended as aforesaid, shall, except as herein-after otherwise provided, extend to and be in force in all Her Majesty's Colonies and Possessions abroad.

Punishment for importing counterfeit Coin into the Colonies.

II. If any Person shall import into any of Her Majesty's Colonies or Possessions abroad any false or counterfeit Coin resembling or apparently intended to resemble or pass for any of Her Majesty's current Gold or Silver Coin coined in any of Her Majesty's Mints (whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere), knowing the same to be false or counterfeit, he shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported for Life, or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Time not exceeding Four Years.

Not to apply in any Colony to any Offence for Punishment whereof local Provision is already made.

III. Provided always, That where by the Law now in force in any such Colony or Possession Provision is made for the Punishment of Offences relating to the Coin, or relating to specified Descriptions of the Coin, the said Act and this Act respectively, so far as respects any Offence punishable under the Provisions of the Law now in force as aforesaid, shall not extend to such Colony or Possession, but such Offence shall be punished in such Colony or Possession as if this Act had not been passed.

IV. Provided also, That it shall be lawful for the local Legislature of any such Colony or Possession, by any Act, Law, or Ordinance to be passed or made in the Manner and subject to the Conditions in and subject to which Acts, Laws, or Ordinances may be passed or made by such local Legislature, to alter or repeal, as regards such Colony or Possession, all or any of the Provisions by this Act extended or made applicable to the said Colonies or Possessions, and generally by such Acts, Laws, or Ordinances to make such Provision as they see fit in relation to the Matters to which the said first-mentioned Act and this Act extend, in like Manner as if this Act had not been passed.

Power to local Legislature to vary Provisions of this Act.

An Act to extend the Provisions of an Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to enable Colonial and other Bishops to perform certain Episcopal Functions, under Commission from Bishops of England and Ireland. [4th August 1853.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to enable Colonial and other Bishops to perform certain Episcopal Functions, under Commission from Bishops of England and Ireland, it is enacted, that all Admissions, Institutions, and Inductions to Benefices in the United Church of England and Ireland, and all Appointments to act as Curates and Chaplains therein, of Persons admitted into Holy Orders in pursuance of a Request and Commission from the Bishop of any Diocese in England or Ireland, within the Limits of his Diocese, by any Bishop who by virtue of Her Majesty's Royal Letters Patent shall exercise or have exercised the Office of Bishop within the British Territories in India, or in any of Her Majesty's Colonies or Foreign Possessions, shall be to all Intents and Purposes good and valid in Law, notwithstanding anything contained in Two several Acts therein recited, passed respectively in the Fifty-ninth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third and in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty: And whereas it is expedient to extend the Provisions of the said Act to Dioceses in Her Majesty's Foreign and Colonial Possessions: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows: Notwithstanding anything in the said recited Acts or either of them contained to the contrary, all Persons who have been or hereafter shall be ordained Deacon or Priest by any of the said Bishops in or for the Diocese of the Bishop of any other of Her Majesty's Foreign or Colonial Possessions, upon his Request in Writing, shall be entitled to all the same Rights, Privileges, and Advantages as if he had been ordained by such Bishop within the Limits of a Diocese over which he was at the Time himself actually exercising Jurisdiction, and residing therein.

15 & 16 Vict.
c. 52.

Ordination of Persons by Colonial Bishop other than the Bishop of the Diocese valid.

An Act to effect Exchange of Patronage by Archbishops, Bishops, and other Ecclesiastical Corporations.

6 & 7 W. 4.
c. 77.Order in Council, dated
4th June 1852.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-seven, Provision is made for effecting by the Authority therein named, that is to say, a Scheme prepared by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and ratified by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, and duly gazetted, such Alterations in the Apportionment or Exchange of Ecclesiastical Patronage among the several Bishops as should be consistent with the relative Magnitude and Importance of their respective Dioceses : And whereas by an Order in Council ratifying a Scheme of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners in pursuance of the said Act, and gazetted the Fourth June One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, certain Alterations in the Apportionment or Exchange of Ecclesiastical Patronage have been duly made, and the same have been found beneficial, and it is expedient to extend the Benefit thereof, and in many Cases the Patronage so assigned may be advantageously exchanged for Patronage in other Hands : Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Power for Archbishop, &c. by Authority of a Scheme of Ecclesiastical
Commissioners, to exchange Patronage.

I. It shall be lawful for any Archbishop, Bishop, or any other Ecclesiastical Corporation, sole or aggregate, by the Authority of a Scheme of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, ratified by Her Majesty in Council, and duly gazetted, to assign and transfer the Patronage of any Benefice or Benefices of which he shall be seised in right of his See, or other Preferment held by him by way of Exchange only, and not otherwise, to any Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ecclesiastical Corporation, sole or aggregate, who is and are hereby authorized to accept and acquire and hold the same, or to any other Person, for the Patronage of any other Benefice or Benefices ; and from and after the Publication of the Scheme and Order in Council effecting such Transfer the Benefice or Benefices and Patronage thereby purporting to be transferred and exchanged shall be and remain thereby duly vested in the respective Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ecclesiastical Corporation, sole or aggregate, or other Person, Party to such Exchange, without any Transfer, Conveyance, or Assurance in the Law other than the said Scheme and Order so published in the Gazette as aforesaid.

Commissioners,
before submitting Scheme for Approval, to inquire into and certify Particulars.

II. Provided that in every such Case the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall, before submitting such Scheme for the Consideration and Approval of Her said Majesty in Council, make due Inquiry into the Circumstances of the proposed Exchange, and into the equal or relative Value of the Benefice or Benefices and Patronage proposed to be thereby transferred, and shall certify the same to Her Majesty, with such Particulars thereof as may be necessary necessary to show that such Exchange is made in conformity with the Intentions of the said recited Act.

III. The Word "Person" shall include any Corporation, and the Master, Provost, Warden, or Head of any College or Collegiate Establishment, and the Master, Guardian, or Head of any Hospital, and the governing Body respectively entitled in his or their Corporate Capacity to any such Patronage, and shall also extend to and include the Queen's Majesty as well in respect of Patronage vested or to be vested in or exercised by Her Majesty in right of the Crown as in right of the Duchy of Lancaster or of the Duchy of Cornwall; and in every Case of Exchange in right of the Crown where the Benefice is above the yearly Value of Twenty Pounds in the Queen's Books the Assent of Her Majesty shall be testified by the Signature of the Lord High Treasurer or First Commissioner of the Treasury for the Time being, and when such yearly Value shall be Twenty Pounds or under such Assent shall be testified by the Signature of the Lord High Chancellor, and the Assent of Her Majesty when the Patronage is in respect of the Duchy of Lancaster shall be testified by the Signature of the Chancellor of the Duchy, and when the Patronage is in respect of the Duchy of Cornwall such Assent shall be testified by Two or more of the principal Officers of the said Duchy, to be appointed in manner provided for Appointment of Officers to grant Leases under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Session held in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Five, which Assent they are hereby authorized and empowered to give; and in every Case of Exchange in right of the Duchy of Cornwall, when there is a Duke of Cornwall, the Assent of the said Duke shall be testified in Writing under the Privy Seal of the said Duke first had and obtained for that Purpose.

IV. Where the Patronage of any Benefice or Benefices given in exchange by the Crown, the Benefice or Benefices respectively taken in exchange for the same shall follow and be subject to the Course of Patronage of the Benefice or Benefices so given by the Crown.

V. All the Provisions and Powers of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the First and Second Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, Chapter Forty-five, relating to the Annexation by the Owner or Owners of any Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments whatsoever to any Church or Chapel under the Patronage of such Owner or Owners, shall apply to and may be exercised by any Archbishop or Bishop in reference to any Church or Chapel the Patronage whereof shall have been transferred from such Archbishop or Bishop under the said Order in Council gazetted the Fourth June One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, or by any Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ecclesiastical Corporation, Person or Persons, whose Patronage shall be the Subject of any Exchange under this Act in reference to such Patronage, notwithstanding such Patronage may have been so transferred by such Exchange.

As to Meaning of the Word "Person."

Who to assent in Cases of Exchange of Benefices in right of the Crown.

As to Patronage of Benefices taken by the Crown, &c.

Provisions of 1 & 2 W. 4. c. 45. respecting the Annexation of Lands, &c. to any Church, &c. extended to this Act.

An Act for granting to Her Majesty Duties on Succession to Property, and for altering certain Provisions of the Acts charging Duties on Legacies and Shares of Personal Estates. [4th August 1853.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies for defraying Your Majesty's Public Expenses, and making a permanent Addition to the Public Revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to grant unto Your Majesty the Duties herein-after mentioned; and do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Interpretation
of certain Terms
in this Act.

I. In the Construction and for the Purposes of this Act, The Term "Real Property" shall include all Freehold, Copyhold, Customary, Leasehold, and other Hereditaments, and Heritable Property, whether corporeal or incorporeal, in Great Britain and Ireland, except Money secured on Heritable Property in Scotland, and all Estates in any such Hereditaments:

The Term "Personal Property" shall not include Leaseholds, but shall include Money payable under any Engagement, and Money secured on Heritable Property in Scotland, and all other Property not comprised in the preceding Definition of Real Property:

The Term "Property" alone shall include Real Property and Personal Property:

The Term "Succession" shall denote any Property chargeable with Duty under this Act:

The Term "Trustee" shall include an Executor and Administrator, and any Person having or taking on himself the Administration of Property affected by any express or implied Trust:

The Term "Person" shall include a Body Corporate, Company, and Society:

The Term "Legacy Duty Acts" shall denote the Acts now in force for charging Duties on Legacies and Shares of the Personal Estates of deceased Persons.

What Dispositions and Devolutions of Property shall confer Successions.

II. Every past or future Disposition of Property, by reason whereof any Person has or shall become beneficially entitled to any Property or the Income thereof upon the Death of any Person dying after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, either immediately or after any Interval, either certainly or contingently, and either originally or by way of substitutive Limitation, and every Devolution by Law of any beneficial Interest in Property, or the Income thereof, upon the Death of any Person dying after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, to any other Person, in possession or expectancy, shall be deemed to have conferred or to confer on the Person entitled by reason of any such Disposition or Devolution a "Succession;" and the Term "Successor" shall denote the Person so entitled; and the Term "Predecessor" shall denote Settlor, Disposer, Testator, Obligor, Ancestor, or other Person from whom the Interest of the Successor is or shall be derived.

Definition of the Terms "Successor," "Predecessor."

III. Where any Person shall at or after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, have any Property vested in them jointly, by any Title not conferring on them a Succession, any beneficial Interest in such Property accruing to any of them by Survivorship shall be deemed to be a Succession; and every Person to whom any such Interest shall accrue shall be deemed to be the Successor; and the Person upon whose Death such Accrue shall take place shall be deemed to be the Predecessor; and where any Persons after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act shall take any Succession jointly, they shall pay the Duty, if any, chargeable thereon by this Act in proportion to their respective Interests in the Succession; and any beneficial Interest in such Succession, accruing to any of them by Survivorship, shall be deemed to be a new Succession, derived from the Predecessor from whom the joint Title shall have been derived.

Joint Tenants taking by Survivorship to be deemed Successors.

IV. Where any Person shall have a general Power of Appointment, under any Disposition of Property taking effect upon the Death of any Person dying after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, over Property, he shall, in the event of his making any Appointment thereunder, be deemed to be entitled, at the Time of his exercising such Power, to the Property or Interest thereby appointed as a Succession derived from the Donor of the Power; and where any Person shall have a limited Power of Appointment, under a Disposition taking effect, upon any such Death, over Property, any Person taking any Property by the Exercise of such Power shall be deemed to take the same as a Succession derived from the Person creating the Power as Predecessor.

General Powers of Appointment to confer Successions.

V. Where any Property shall at or after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act be subject to any Charge, Estate, or Interest, determinable by the Death of any Person, or at any Period ascertainable only by reference to Death, the Increase of Benefit accruing to any Person or Persons upon the Extinction or Determination of such Charge, Estate, or Interest shall be deemed to be a Succession accruing to the Person, or the Persons if more than One, then entitled beneficially to the Property or the Income thereof, according to his or their respective Estates or Interests therein, or beneficial Enjoyment thereof; and the Person or Persons from whom such Successor or Successors respectively shall have derived Title to the Property so charged shall be deemed to be the Predecessor or Predecessors, as the Case may be.

Extinction of determinable Charges to confer Successions.

VI. Provided that no Person entitled, at the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, to the immediate Reversion in any Real Property expectant upon the Determination of any Lease for Life or for Years determinable on Life, shall be chargeable with Duty in respect of such Determination, in the event of the same occurring in his Lifetime.

Persons now beneficially entitled to Real Property subject to Leases for Life, not liable to Duty.

VII. Where

Dispositions accompanied by the Reservation of a Benefit to the Grantor, &c. to confer Successions.

VII. Where any Disposition of Property, not being a bonâ fide Sale, and not conferring an Interest expectant on Death on the Person in whose Favour the same shall be made, shall be accompanied by the Reservation or Assurance of or Contract for any Benefit to the Grantor, or any other Person, for any Term of Life or for any Period ascertainable only by reference to Death, such Disposition shall be deemed to confer at the Time appointed for the Determination of such Benefit an Increase of beneficial Interest in such Property, as a Succession equal in annual Value to the yearly Amount or yearly Value of the Benefit so reserved, assured, or contracted for, on the Person in whose Favour such Disposition shall be made.

Dispositions to take effect at Periods depending on Death, or made for evading Duty, to confer Successions.

VIII. Where any Disposition of Property shall be made to take effect at a Period ascertainable only by reference to the Date of the Death of any Person dying after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, such Disposition shall be deemed to confer a Succession on the Person in whose Favour the same shall be made; and where any Disposition of Property shall purport to take effect presently, or under such Circumstances as not to confer a Succession, but by the Effect or in consequence of any Engagement, secret Trust, or Arrangement capable of being enforced in a Court of Law or Equity, the beneficial Ownership of such Property shall not bonâ fide pass according to such Disposition, but shall in fact devolve to any Person on Death, or at some Period ascertainable only by reference to Death, then such last-mentioned Person shall be deemed to acquire the Property so passing as a Succession derived from the Person making the Disposition as the Predecessor; and where any Court of competent Jurisdiction shall declare any Disposition to have been fraudulent and made for the Purpose of evading the Duty imposed by this Act, it shall be lawful for such Court to declare a Succession to have been conferred on such Person at such Time and to such an Extent as such Court shall think just; and such last-mentioned Person shall be deemed to have taken a Succession accordingly derived from the Person making such Disposition as Predecessor.

Duties to be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

IX. The Duties herein-after imposed shall be considered as Stamp Duties, and shall be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, herein-after called "The Commissioners;" who, by themselves and their Officers, shall have the same Powers and Authorities for the Collection, Recovery, and Management thereof, as are by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter One, or by any other Act or Acts, vested in them for the Collection, Recovery, and Management of any Stamp Duties; and shall provide proper Stamps for denoting the Rate per Centum of the Duties payable under this Act; and shall have all other Powers and Authorities requisite for carrying this Act into execution.

Duties on Successions.

X. There shall be levied and paid to Her Majesty in respect of every such Succession as aforesaid, according to the Value thereof, the following Duties; (that is to say,)

Where the Successor shall be the lineal Issue or lineal Ancestor of the Predecessor, a Duty at the Rate of One Pound per Centum upon such Value :

Where

Where the Successor shall be a Brother or Sister, or a Descendant of a Brother or Sister of the Predecessor, a Duty at the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum upon such Value :

Where the Successor shall be a Brother or Sister of the Father or Mother, or a Descendant of a Brother or Sister of the Father or Mother of the Predecessor, a Duty at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum upon such Value :

Where the Successor shall be a Brother or Sister of the Grandfather or Grandmother, or a Descendant of the Brother or Sister of the Grandfather or Grandmother of the Predecessor, a Duty at the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum upon such Value :

Where the Successor shall be in any other Degree of collateral Consanguinity to the Predecessor than is herein-before described, or shall be a Stranger in Blood to him, a Duty at the Rate of Ten Pounds per Centum upon such Value.

XI. Where any Person chargeable with Duty under this Act in respect of any Succession, or chargeable with Duty under the Legacy Duty Acts in respect of any Legacy bequeathed to him or her by a Testator dying after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, or in respect of the Personal Estate of any Person dying after the same Period, shall have been married to any Wife or Husband of nearer Consanguinity than himself or herself to the Predecessor, Testator, or deceased Person, then the Person taking such Succession, Legacy, or Personal Estate shall pay in respect thereof the same Rate of Duty only as such his or her Wife or Husband would have been chargeable with if she or he had taken the same.

XII. Where any Person shall take a Succession under a Disposition made by himself, then, if at the Date of such Disposition he shall have been entitled to the Property comprised in the Succession expectantly on the Death of any Person dying after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, and such Person shall have died during the Continuance of such Disposition, he shall be chargeable with Duty on his Succession at the same Rate as he would have been chargeable with if no such Disposition had been made ; but a Successor shall not in any other Case be chargeable with Duty upon a Succession taken under a Disposition made by himself, and no Person shall be chargeable with Duty upon the Extinction or Determination of any Charge, Estate, or Interest created by himself, unless at the Date of the Creation thereof he shall have been entitled to the Property subjected thereto expectantly on the Death of some Person dying after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act.

XIII. Where the Successor shall derive his Succession from more Predecessors than One, and the proportional Interest derived from each of them shall not be distinguishable, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to agree with the Successor as to the Duty payable ; but if no such Agreement shall be made, the Successor shall be deemed to have derived his Succession in equal Proportions from each Predecessor, and shall be chargeable with Duty accordingly.

XVII. No Policy of Insurance on the Life of any Person shall create the Relation of Predecessor and Successor between the Insurers and the Assured, or between the Insurers and any Assignee of the Assured, and no Bond or Contract made by any Person bond fide for valuable Consideration in Money or Money's Worth, for the Payment of Money or Money's Worth after the Death of any other Person, shall create the Relation of Predecessor and Successor between the Person making such Bond or Contract and the Person to or with whom the same shall be made; but any Disposition or Devolution of the Monies payable under such Policy, Bond, or Contract, if otherwise such as in itself to create a Succession within the Provisions of this Act, shall be deemed to confer a Succession.

XVIII. Where

XVIII. Where the whole Succession or Successions derived from the same Predecessor and passing upon any Death to any Person or Persons shall not amount in Money or Principal Value to the Sum of One hundred Pounds, no Duty shall be payable under this Act in respect thereof or of any Portion thereof; and no Duty shall be payable under this Act upon any Succession, which, as estimated according to the Provisions of this Act, shall be of less Value than Twenty Pounds in the whole, or upon any Monies applied to the Payment of the Duty on any Succession according to any Trust for that Purpose, or by any Person in respect of a Succession, who, if the same were a Legacy bequeathed to him by the Predecessor, would be exempted from the Payment of Duty in respect thereof under the Legacy Duty Acts; and no Person shall be charged with Duty under this Act in respect of any Interest surrendered by him or extinguished before the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act; and no Person charged with the Duties on Legacies and Shares of Personal Estate under the Legacy Duty Acts, in respect of any Property subject to such Duties, shall be charged also with the Duty granted by this Act in respect of the same Acquisition of the same Property. Exemptions.

XIX. No Legatee or other Person shall, after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, be chargeable under the Legacy Duty Acts with Duty, not then already due, in respect of any Leasehold Hereditaments of any Testator or deceased Person, as belonging to the Personal Estate of the Testator or Deceased. Leasehold Estates not to be charged with Legacy Duty as Personal Estate.

XX. The Duty imposed by this Act shall be paid at the Time when the Successor, or any Person in his Right or on his Behalf, shall become entitled in possession to his Succession, or to the Receipt of the Income and Profits thereof; except that if there shall be any prior Charge, Estate, or Interest, not created by the Successor himself, upon or in the Succession, by reason whereof the Successor shall not be presently entitled to the full Enjoyment or Value thereof, the Duty in respect of the increased Value accruing upon the Determination of such Charge, Estate, or Interest shall, if not previously paid, compounded for, or commuted, be paid at the Time of such Determination; and except that in case of an Annuity, or Property hereby made chargeable as an Annuity, the Duties shall be paid by such Instalments as are herein-after directed or referred to; provided that no Duty shall be payable upon the Determination of any Lease purporting at the Date thereof to be a Lease at Rackrent, in respect of the Increase accruing to the Successor upon such Determination. Duties to be paid on Successor be coming entitled in possession, but in case of outstanding Interests, on Determination thereof.

XXI. The Interest of every Successor, except as herein provided, in Real Property, shall be considered to be of the Value of an Annuity equal to the annual Value of such Property, after making such Allowances as are herein-after directed, and payable from the Date of his becoming entitled thereto in possession, or to the Receipt of the Income or Profits thereof during the Residue of his Life, or for any less Period during which he shall be entitled thereto; and every such Annuity, for the Purposes of this Act, shall be valued according to the Tables in the The Interest of a Successor in Real Property to be considered as an Annuity.

Schedule annexed to this Act; and the Duty chargeable thereon shall be paid by Eight equal half-yearly Instalments, the First of such Instalments to be paid at the Expiration of Two Months next after the Successor shall have become entitled to the beneficial Enjoyment of the Real Property in respect whereof the same shall be payable, and the Seven following Instalments at half-yearly Intervals of Six Months each, to be computed from the Day on which the First Instalment shall have become payable; provided that if the Successor shall die before all such Instalments shall have become due, then any Instalments not due at his Decease shall cease to be payable, except in the Case of a Successor who shall have been competent to dispose by Will of a continuing Interest in such Property, in which Case the Instalments unpaid at his Death shall be a continuing Charge on such Interest, in exoneration of his other Property, and shall be payable by the Owner for the Time being of such Interest.

Rules for valuing Lands, Houses, &c.

XXII. In estimating the annual Value of Lands used for Agricultural Purposes, Houses, Buildings, Tithes, Teinds, Rentcharges, and other Property yielding or capable of yielding Income of a fluctuating Character, an Allowance shall be made of all necessary Outgoings.

Rule as to Timber.

XXIII. Where Timber, Trees, or Wood, not being Coppice or Underwood, shall be comprised in any Succession, the Successor shall be chargeable with Duty upon his Interest in the net Monies after deducting all necessary Outgoings for the Year, which shall from Time to Time be received from any Sales of such Timber, Trees, or Wood, and shall account for and pay the same year by year, provided that no Duty shall be payable on the net Monies received from the Sale of Timber, Trees, or Wood in any One Year unless such net Monies shall exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds; provided that if the Successor shall be desirous of commuting the Duty, he shall deliver to the Commissioners an Estimate of the net Monies obtainable by him from the Sale of such Timber, Trees, or Wood as may, in a prudent Course of Management of such Property, be felled by such Successor during his Life, the Commissioners, if satisfied with such Estimate, shall accept the same, and assess the Duty accordingly.

Rule as to Advowsons.

XXIV. A Successor shall not be chargeable with Duty in respect of any Advowson or Church Patronage comprised in any Succession, unless the same, or some Right of Presentation or some other Interest in or out of such Advowson or Church Patronage, shall be disposed of by or in concert with him for Money or Money's Worth, in which Case he shall be chargeable with Duty upon the Amount or Value of the Money or Money's Worth for which the same, or any such Presentation or Interest, shall be so disposed of at the Time of such Disposal.

Rule as to Property subject to beneficial Leases.

XXV. Where a Successor, entitled to any Real Property, shall be entitled to any Lease by reason whereof he shall not be presently entitled to the full Enjoyment thereof, shall not have paid Duty in respect of the full yearly Value of such Property, he shall be chargeable with Duty upon his Interest in any Fine or Grant or other Consideration which may be received during his Life for the Renewal of any such Lease, or the Grant of any Residuary Lease of the same Property.

XXVI.

XXVI. The yearly Value of any Manor, open Mine, or other Real Property of a fluctuating yearly Income shall either be calculated upon the average Profits or Income derived therefrom, after deducting all necessary Outgoings, during such a Number of preceding Years as shall be agreed upon for this Purpose between the Commissioners and the Successor, before the first Payment of Duty on the Succession shall have become due, or, if no such Period shall be agreed upon, then the principal Value of such Property shall be ascertained, and the annual Value thereof shall be considered to be equal to Interest calculated at the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum on the Amount of such principal Value.

Rule as to Manors, Mines, &c.

XXVII. Where any Body Corporate, Company, or Society shall become entitled, as Successors, to any Real Property, the Duty in respect thereof shall be assessed upon the principal Value of such Property, but shall be payable by such Instalments, at such Times, and in such Manner as the same would be payable if assessed in respect of Property devolving on a Successor in Fee Simple; and it shall be lawful for such Body Corporate, Company, or Society, or any Trustee thereof, to raise the Amount of any Duty due in respect of their Succession upon the Security thereof, at Interest, with Power for them to give effectual Discharges for the Money so raised.

Duty payable by Corporations, &c. taking Real Estates.

XXVIII. If a Successor, or any Person on his Behalf, upon becoming entitled to any Copyhold or other Real Property, shall be subject to any Fines, Casualties of Superiority, Compositions, Reliefs, or Charges incident to the Tenure thereof, and due in respect of his Succession, he shall be entitled to have a Deduction allowed to him of the Amount of such Fines, Casualties, Compositions, Reliefs, or Charges from the assessable Value of his Interest in such Copyhold or other Real Property.

Allowance for Fines, &c. paid by Successor

XXIX. The Interest of any Successor in Monies to arise from the Sale of Real Property under any Trust for the Sale thereof, so far as the same shall not be chargeable with Duty under the Legacy Duty Acts, shall be deemed to be Personal Property chargeable with Duty under this Act; provided that where such Monies shall be subject to any Trust for the Re-investment thereof in the Purchase of other Real Property, to which the Successor would not be absolutely entitled, such Monies shall be deemed to be Real Property, and for the Purpose of this Act each Successor's Interest therein shall be considered to be of the Value of an Annuity, payable during his Life, or for any less Period during which he shall be entitled, equal in Amount to the annual Produce of the actual Trust Property at the Time of his becoming entitled in possession, whether the same shall then be the Real Property subject to the Trust or Direction for Sale, or any Property purchased in substitution for it, or any intermediate Investment of the Produce of the Sale of the original Property.

Real Property directed to be sold to be charged as Personalty.

XXX. The Interest of any Successor in Personal Property subject to any Trust for the Investment thereof in the Purchase of Real Property to which the Successor would be absolutely entitled shall, so far as the same shall not be chargeable with Duty under the Legacy Duty Acts, be chargeable with Duty under this Act

Personal Property to be invested in Real Property how to be charged, as Personal Property; and Personal Property subject to Trust for the Investment thereof in the Purchase of Real property to which the Successor would not be absolutely entitled, shall, so far as the same shall not be chargeable with Duty under the Legacy Duty Acts, be chargeable with Duty under this Act as Real Property; and for the Purposes of this Act each Successor's Interest therein shall be considered to be of the Value of an Annuity, payable during his Life, or for any less Period of Years, to which he shall be entitled, equal in Amount to the annual Produce of the actual Trust Property at the Time of his becoming entitled in possession, whether the same shall be the Real Property directed to be purchased, or any intermediate Investment, or the Personal Property directed to be invested in such Purchase.

Annuities under this Act and Legacy Duty Acts to be valued according to the Tables annexed to this Act.

XXXI. Where it shall be required to calculate, for the Purposes either of this Act or of the Legacy Duty Acts, the Value of any Annuity, or of any Interest chargeable with Duty under this Act, such Value shall, after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, be calculated according to the Tables in the Schedule annexed to this Act, and not according to the Tables in the Schedule annexed to the Act of the Thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, Chapter Fifty-two, and any Annuity or Interest shall be chargeable with Duty according to the said Tables.

Provisions as to the Assessment of Personality.

XXXII. The following Provisions relating to the Assessment and Payment of Duty on Personal Estate, and the Exemption thereof from Duty in certain Cases, namely, the Eighth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Fourteenth, and Twenty-third Sections of the said Act of the Thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, Chapter Fifty-two, shall be applicable to the Personal Property comprised in any Succession, and to the Assessment and Payment of Duty thereon, as if such Personal Property were Legacy bequeathed by the Predecessor to the Successor, and were subject to the said Provisions, and as if the Tables in the said Act referred to were the Tables in the Schedules annexed to this Act.

Allowance to Donee of general Power of Appointment.

XXXIII. Where the Donee of a general Power of Appointment shall become chargeable with Duty in respect of the Personal Property appointed by him under such Power, he shall be allowed to deduct from the Duty so payable any Duty he may have already paid in respect of any limited Interest taken by him in such Property.

What Allowance to be made for Incumbrances.

XXXIV. In estimating the Value of a Succession no Allowance shall be made in respect of any Incumbrance thereon created or incurred by the Successor, not made in execution of a special Power of Appointment, but an Allowance shall be made in respect of all other Incumbrances, and also in respect of the Monies which the Successor may previously to his Possession have laid out in the substantial Repairs or permanent Improvement of Real Property comprised in his Succession; provided upon any Successor becoming entitled to Real Property subject to any prior principal Charge, an Allowance shall be made to him in respect only of the yearly Sums payable by way of Interest, and otherwise on such Charge as reducing the annual Value pro tunc of such Real Property.

XXXV. In estimating the Value of a Succession no Allowance shall be made in respect of any contingent Incumbrance thereon; but in the event of such Incumbrance taking effect as an actual Burden on the Interest of the Successor, he shall be entitled to a Return of a proportionate Amount of the Duty so paid by him in respect of the Amount or Value of the Incumbrance when taking effect.

No Allowance to be made for contingent Incumbrances; unless they take effect.

XXXVI. In estimating the Value of a Succession no Allowance shall be made in respect of any Contingency upon the happening of which the Property may pass to some other Person; but in the event of the same so passing the Successor shall be entitled to a Return of so much of the Duty paid by him as will reduce the same to the Amount which would have been payable by him if such Duty had been assessed in respect of the actual Duration or Extent of his Interest.

Duty on Successions to be calculated without regard to Contingencies.

XXXVII. Where a Successor shall not have obtained the whole of his Succession at the Time of the Duty becoming payable, he shall be chargeable only with Duty on the Value of the Property or Benefit from Time to Time obtained by him; and whenever any Duty shall have been paid on account of any Succession, and it shall afterwards be proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners that such Duty, not being due from the Person paying the same, was paid by Mistake, or was paid in respect of Property which the Successor shall have been unable to recover, or from or of which he shall have been evicted or deprived by any superior Title, or that for any other Reason it ought to be refunded, the Commissioners shall thereupon refund the same to the Person entitled thereto.

Provision for Allowance or Return of Duty.

XXXVIII. Where any Successor upon taking a Succession shall be bound to relinquish or be deprived of any other Property, the Commissioners shall, upon the Computation of the assessable Value of his Succession, make such an Allowance to him as may be just in respect of the Value of such Property.

Allowance to be made to Successor in respect of relinquished Property.

XXXIX. Where, in the Opinion of the Commissioners, any Succession shall be of such a Nature, or so disposed or circumstanced, that the Value thereof shall not be fairly ascertainable under any of the preceding Directions, or where, from the Complication of Circumstances affecting the Value of a Succession, or affecting the Assessment or Recovery of the Duty thereon, the Commissioners shall think it expedient to exercise this present Authority, it shall be lawful for them to compound the Duty payable on the Succession upon such Terms as they shall think fit, and to give Discharges to the Successor, upon Payment of Duty according to such Composition; and it shall be lawful for them, in any special Cases in which they may think it expedient so to do, to enlarge the Time for Payment of any Duty.

Power for Commissioners to compound Duties.

XL. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners to receive any Duty tendered to them in advance, and to allow Discount thereon at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, or at such other Rate as may from Time to Time be directed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury; and no Person, by reason of his having made any Payment of Duty in advance, shall be prejudiced prejudiced in his Right to have any Repayment of Duty made to him to which he may become entitled under any of the provisions of this Act.

Power of Commissioners to receive Duty in advance.

Power for Commissioners to commute future Duties.

XLII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in their Relation, upon Application made by any Person who shall be entitled to a Succession in expectancy, to commute the Duty presumed payable in respect of such Succession for a certain Sum presently paid, and for assessing the Amount which shall be payable they shall cause a present Value to be set upon the presumptive Duty, regard being had to the Contingencies attending the Liability to such Duty, and the Interest of Money involved in such Calculation being reckoned at the Rate for the Time being allowed by the Commissioners in respect of Duties paid in advance, and upon the Receipt of such certain Sum they shall give Discharges to the Successor accordingly.

Duty to be a First Charge on Property.

XLIII. The Duty imposed by this Act shall be a First Charge on the Interest of the Successor, and of all Persons claiming in his Right, in all the Real Property in respect whereof such Duty shall be assessed; and such Duty shall also be a First Charge on the Interest of the Successor in the Personal Property in respect whereof the same shall be assessed, while the same shall remain in the Ownership or Control of the Successor, or of any Trustee for him, or of his Guardian or Committee, or Tutor or Curator, or of the Husband of any Wife who shall be the Successor; and the said Duty shall be a Debt due to the Crown from the Successor, having, in the Case of Real Property comprised in such Succession, Priority over all Charges and Interests created by the Successor, but such Duty shall not charge or affect any other Real Property of the Successor than the Property comprised in such Succession; provided, that where any settled Real Property comprised in such Succession shall be subject to any Power of Sale, Exchange, Partition, exercisable with the Consent of the Successor, or of the Successor with the Consent of another Person, he shall not be bound to qualify by the Charge of Duty on his Succession from effecting such Power, or authorizing by his Consent the Exercise of such Power, or exercising any Power with proper Consent, as the Case may be, in such Case the Duty shall be charged substitutively upon the Successor's Interest, in all Real Property acquired in substitution for the Real Property before comprised in the Succession, during the meantime upon his Interest also in all Monies arising from the Exercise of any such Power, and in all Investments of such Monies.

Provision for the separate Assessments of Properties.

XLIII. The Commissioners shall, at the Request of any Person, Successor, or any Person claiming in his Right, accept or cause to be made so many separate Assessments of the Duty payable in respect of the Interest of the Successor in any separate Properties or defined Portions of the same Property, as shall be reasonable and required; and in such Cases the respective Properties shall be chargeable only with the Amount of Duty separately assessed in respect thereof; and it shall be lawful also for the Commissioners, by their Certificates, to be issued in such Form as they shall think fit, from Time to Time to declare that any Duties already assessed, whether collectively or distributively, in respect of any Succession, shall thenceforth be charged, as to any unpaid Instalments, according to any further Distribution thereof, upon separate Parts only of the Property in respect of which such Assessment shall have been made, in which Case the Charge of such Duties shall be thenceforth limited according to such further Distribution.

XLIV. The following Persons, besides the Successor, shall be personally accountable to Her Majesty for the Duty payable in respect of any Succession, but to the Extent only of the Property or Funds actually received or disposed of by them respectively after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act; that is to say, every Trustee, Guardian, Committee, Tutor, or Curator, or Husband in whom respectively any Property, or the Management of any Property, subject to such Duty, shall be vested, and every Person in whom the same shall be vested by Alienation or other derivative Title at the Time of the Succession becoming an Interest in possession; and all such Trustees, Guardians, Committees, Tutors, Curators, Husbands, and Persons shall be authorized to compound or pay in advance or commute any Duty, and retain out of the Property, subject to any such Duty, the Amount thereof, or to raise such Amount, and the Expenses incident thereto, at Interest on the Security of such Property, with Power to give effectual Discharges for the same, and such Security shall have Priority over any Charge or Incumbrance created by the Successor; and in the event of the Nonpayment of such Duty as aforesaid every Person hereby made accountable shall be a Debtor to Her Majesty in the Amount of the unpaid Duty for which he shall be so accountable.

What Persons accountable for Duty.

XLV. The Persons hereby made accountable for the Payment of Duty in respect of any Succession, or some of them, shall, in the Case of Personal Property, at the Time of the first Payment, Delivery, Retainer, Satisfaction, or other Discharge of the same or any Part thereof to or for the Successor or any Person in his Right, and in the Case of Real Property when any Duty in respect thereof shall first become payable, give Notice to the Commissioners or to their Officers of their Liability to such Duty, and shall at the same Time deliver to the Commissioners or to their Officers a full and true Account of the Property for the Duty whereon they shall respectively be accountable, and of the Value thereof, and of the Deductions claimed by them, together with the Names of the Successor and Predecessor, and their Relation to each other, and all such other Particulars as shall be necessary or proper for enabling the Commissioners fully and correctly to ascertain the Duties due; and the Commissioners, if satisfied with such Account and Estimate as originally delivered, or with any Amendments that may be made therein upon their Requisition, may assess the Succession Duty on the Footing of such Account and Estimate; but it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, if dissatisfied with such Account and Estimate, to cause an Account and Estimate to be taken by any Person or Persons to be appointed by themselves for that Purpose, and to assess the Duty on the Footing of such last-mentioned Account and Estimate, subject to Appeal, as herein-after provided; and if the Duty so assessed shall exceed the Duty assessable according to the Return made to the Notice of Succession to be given to the Commissioners, and a Return of the Property made.

the Commissioners, and with which they shall have been defied, and if there shall be no Appeal against such Assessment it shall be in the Discretion of the Commissioners, having regard to the Merits of each Case, to charge the whole or any Part of the Expenses incident to the taking of such last-mentioned Account and Estimate on the Interest of the Successor in respect of the Duty shall be due, in increase of such Duty, and to the same forthwith accordingly; and if there shall be an Appeal against such last-mentioned Assessment, then the Payment of such Expenses shall be in the Discretion of the Court of Appeal after appointed.

Penalty on not giving Notices of Succession.

XLVI. If any Person required to give any such Notice or such Account as aforesaid shall wilfully neglect to do so prescribed Period, he shall be liable to pay to Her Majesty a Sum equal to Ten Pounds per Centum upon the Amount of Duty payable by him, or in the Case of a Succession chargeable with a Rate of Duty than One Pound per Centum upon the Value of the Succession upon such less Sum as such Duty, if assessable at the Rate of One Pound per Centum upon the Value of the Succession, would amount to, and a like Penalty for every Month after the First Month in which such Neglect shall continue; and if any Person liable under this Act to pay any Duty shall, after such Duty shall have been finally ascertained, wilfully neglect to do so within Twelve Calendar Days, he shall also be liable to pay to Her Majesty a Sum equal to Ten Pounds per Centum upon the Amount of Duty so payable or upon such less Sum as such Duty, if assessable at the Rate of One Pound per Centum upon the Value of the Succession, would amount to, and a like Penalty for every Month after the First Month during which such Neglect shall continue.

Proceeding if Return not made.

XLVII. If any accountable Party required by the Commissioners to deliver any such Account as aforesaid shall be in default in doing so, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to sue, out of Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer in England, Ireland, or Ireland, as they shall think expedient, according to the Circumstances of the Case, and for such Court to issue, a Writ of Summons in such Form as the Judges of such Court shall think proper, from Time to Time frame, commanding the Party so in default to deliver such Account within such Period as may be appointed in the Writ or to show Cause to the contrary, and on Cause being shown a Writ of Order shall be made as shall be just.

Power to enforce Returns from Executors and Administrators.

XLVIII. The Commissioners shall for the Purposes of the Legacy Duty Acts be empowered to require and enforce the Delivery of Accounts from Executors, Administrators, and Trustees of Property and Legatees chargeable with Duty under such Acts, and for the Duty whereon they shall be accountable, in the Manner as they are by the last preceding Section of this Act empowered to require and enforce the Delivery of Accounts for the Purposes of this Act.

Accounting Party to verify his Account by Production of Books, &c.; and Commissioners

XLIX. Every Person who under the Provisions of this Act may deliver any Account or Estimate of the Property comprised in any Succession shall, if required by the Commissioners, produce before them such Books and Documents in the Custody or Possession of such Person, so far as the same relate to such Account or Estimate.

Est

Estimate, as may be capable of affording any necessary Information for the Purpose of ascertaining such Property and the Duty payable thereon; and the Commissioners may, without Payment of any Fee, inspect and take Copies of any public Book; but all such Information shall be deemed to be confidential, and the Commissioners shall not disclose the same, or the Contents of any Document or Book, to any Person, otherwise than for the Purposes of this Act.

may inspect and take Copies of public Books.

L. It shall be lawful for any accountable Party dissatisfied with the Assessment of the Commissioners, upon giving, within Twenty-one Days after the Date of such Assessment, Notice in Writing to the Commissioners of his Intention to appeal against such Assessment, and a Statement of the Grounds of such Appeal, such Statement to be furnished within the further Period of Thirty Days, to appeal by Petition accordingly to Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer in England, Scotland, or Ireland, according to the Place in which the Appellant shall be resident; and every such Court, or any Judge thereof sitting in Chambers, shall have Jurisdiction to hear and determine the Matter of such Appeal and the Costs thereof, with Power to direct, for the Purposes of such Appeal, any Inquiry, Valuation, or Report to be made by any Officer of the Court, or other Person, as such Court or Judge may think fit: Provided, that where the Sum in dispute in respect of Duty on such Assessment does not exceed Fifty Pounds, the accountable Party may, having given Notice of Appeal and delivered a Statement of the Grounds thereof as herein-before directed, appeal to the Judge of the County Court in England, the Sheriff Court in Scotland, or the Assistant Barrister's Court in Ireland, for the District, County, or Division in which the Appellant shall be resident, or the Property be situate; and every such Judge shall have Jurisdiction to hear and determine the Matter of such last-mentioned Appeal, with the like Power and Authority as are by this Section given to a Judge of Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer.

Power for accountable Party to appeal.

LL Whenever any Payment of Duty shall be made under this Act, the same shall be entered in a Book to be kept by the Commissioners for this Purpose, and the Receiver General of Inland Revenue, or other proper Officer appointed by the Commissioners, shall give a Receipt for the same in such Form as they shall think fit, and stamped with the proper Stamp for denoting the Rate of Duty, and the Commissioners shall from Time to Time deliver to any Person interested in any Property affected by such Duty, on applying for the same for any reasonable Purpose approved by the Commissioners, a Certificate, in such Form as they may think fit, of such Payment.

Duty to be entered by the Commissioners in a Book, and a stamped Receipt to be given.

LII Every Receipt and Certificate purporting to be in discharge of the whole Duty payable for the Time being in respect of any Succession or any Part thereof, shall exonerate a bonâ fide Purchaser for valuable Consideration, and without Notice, from such Duty, notwithstanding any Suppression or Mis-statement in the Account upon the Footing whereof the same may have been assessed, or any Insufficiency of such Assessment; and no bonâ fide Purchaser of Property for valuable Consideration under a Protection to bonâ fide Purchasers.

Title

Title not appearing to confer a Succession shall be subject to any Duty with which such Property may be chargeable under the Provisions of this Act, by reason of any extrinsic Circumstances of which he shall not have had Notice at the Time of such Purchase.

LIII. Whenever any Suit shall be pending in any Court for the Administration of any Property chargeable with Duty under the Act or the Legacy Duty Acts, such Court shall provide, out of any Property which may be in the Possession or Control of the Court, for the Payment of Duty to the Commissioners.

LIV. This Act shall be taken to have come into operation on the Nineteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, and shall take effect accordingly.

Short Title. LV. This Act may be cited for all Purposes as "The Succession Duty Act, 1853."

The Value of an Annuity of 100*l. per Annum*, held on the longest of Two Lives :

Also, The Value of an Annuity of 100*l. per Annum*, held on the joint Continuance of Three Lives :

Also, The Value of an Annuity of 100*l. per Annum* held on the longest of Three Lives.

RULE for determining the Value of an Annuity of 100*l. per Annum*, held on the longest of Two Lives.

THE Values of an Annuity of 100*l. per Annum* held on each of the single Lives, to be added together, (from Table I.,) and from this Sum the Value of an Annuity held on the joint Continuance of the Two Lives (from Table II.) to be subtracted ; the Result is the Value of an Annuity of 100*l. per Annum*, held on the longest of the Two Lives.

RULE for determining the Value of an Annuity of 100*l. per Annum*, held on the joint Continuance of Three Lives.

THE Value of an Annuity of 100*l. per Annum* on the joint Continuance of the Two elder Lives is to be found from Table II. The Age of a single Life of the same (or nearest) Value, with the Annuity on the said joint Lives, to be found from Table I. The Value of an Annuity of 100*l. per Annum* on the joint Continuance of this Life and the younger Life from Table II., Five Pounds being deducted from this Sum, the Remainder is the Value of an Annuity of 100*l. per Annum* held on the joint Continuance of the Three Lives.

RULE for determining the Value of an Annuity of 100*l. per Annum*, held on the longest of Three Lives.

THE Values of an Annuity of 100*l. per Annum* for each of the Three single Lives to be extracted from Table I., and to be added together. The Value of an Annuity of 100*l. per Annum* on the joint Continuance of the Two youngest Lives, also the Value of an Annuity of 100*l. per Annum* on the joint Continuance of the Two eldest Lives, also the Value of an Annuity of 100*l. per Annum* on the joint Continuance of the oldest Life and the youngest Life, (all found by Table II.,) to be subtracted from the Sum or Addition of the Annuities on the Three single Lives : To the Result is to be added the Value of an Annuity of 100*l. per Annum* held on the joint Continuance of the Three Lives ; the Amount is the Value of an Annuity of 100*l. per Annum* on the longest of the Three Lives.

FURTHER RULE.

And in all Cases where the Annuity shall be for more than Three Lives, the same shall be valued as an Annuity for the Three youngest of such Lives : And where the Annuity shall be given for a longer Term of Years than Ninety-five Years, or in perpetuity, the same shall be valued as an Annuity for Ninety-five Years only.

C A P. LII.

An Act to extend the Time for constructing a new Street from Spitalfields to Shoreditch, and to amend the Acts relating thereto. [4th August 1853.]

9 & 10 Vict.
c. 34.

‘ WHEREAS by the Thirty-fourth Chapter of the Statutes made in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her present Majesty, certain Powers were vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings to enable them to construct a new Street from Spitalfields to Shoreditch in the County of Middlesex, and by the said Act the said Commissioners were authorized to purchase and take certain Hereditaments in the Schedule to the said Act mentioned : And whereas the Powers of the said Act were enlarged by another Act, being Chapter One hundred and nine of the Statutes passed in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty : And whereas under and by virtue of the Provisions of the Forty-second Chapter of the Statutes made in the Session of Parliament held in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her said Majesty, the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Works and Public Buildings are now substituted for the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Purposes of the said recited Acts : And whereas the Hereditaments mentioned in the Schedule to this Act are Part of the Hereditaments which by the said Two first-recited Acts were authorized to be purchased for the Purpose of such new Street, but which have not yet been purchased ; and it is expedient that the Time for purchasing or taking the same should be extended, and that the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Works and Public Buildings should have such further Powers as are after mentioned :’ May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted ; and be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

13 & 14 Vict.
c. 109.

14 & 15 Vict.
c. 42.

Power to purchase Hereditaments mentioned in the Schedule.

I. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Works and Public Buildings, for the Purposes of the said Two first-recited Acts and this Act, to purchase and take all such of the Hereditaments comprised in the Schedule to this Act, or any Estate or Interest therein as in their Opinion may be necessary for making the said Street and otherwise carrying into effect the Provisions of the said Two first-recited Acts ; and such Hereditaments may be purchased out of such Funds and in all respects as by the said Two first-recited Acts is provided, so that no such Purchase shall be made after the Period of Three Years to be computed from the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three ; and all and singular the Powers and Authorities by the said Two first-recited Acts granted to or vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, and their Successors, to purchase, take, and use any Hereditaments or Parts thereof or Rights or Interests therein required for the Purposes of the said last-mentioned Acts, and the new Street and Improvements thereby authorized to be made,

made, and also the Powers for enabling Persons and Bodies to sell and convey, shall remain in force and be exercised by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings for the Time being for the Purposes of this Act.

II. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings to sell or mortgage the whole or any Part of the Hereditaments which have been purchased or acquired under the Powers of the said Two first-recited Acts or which may be purchased or acquired under this Act; and further that any Purchases of the said Hereditaments may be made out of any Monies in the Hands of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings applicable to the Purposes of the said Two first-recited Acts; and also that any Monies borrowed on Mortgage under the aforesaid Powers in that Behalf shall be applied for the Purposes of the said Two first-recited Acts at the sole Discretion of the said Commissioners, and any Monies borrowed on Mortgage may be paid off out of the Monies for the Time being at the Disposal of the said Commissioners for the Purposes aforesaid.

Commissioners empowered to sell or mortgage the Hereditaments purchased under the Two first-recited Acts and this Act.

III. And whereas a Plan showing the Line of the said Street as proposed to be made adjoining to the Station of the Eastern Counties Railway Company has been signed by the Chairman of the Committee of the House of Commons to whom this Act when a Bill was referred: Be it therefore enacted, That nothing in this or the recited Acts contained shall authorize the said Commissioners to make the said Street otherwise than according to the said last-mentioned Plan, or to take any of the Lands belonging to the Eastern Counties Railway Company except such as are shown on the said Plan and marked with the Letter A as intended to be taken for the Purposes of the said Street, and the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby required to convey to the said Company, free of Expense, the Lands shown on the said Plan and marked with the Letter B. as proposed to be thrown into the Yard or Approach to the Station of the said Company, and which last-mentioned Land shall be given in exchange and as an Equivalent for the Land of the said Company which on the said Plan is shown as intended to form Part of the said Street, and which last-mentioned Land shall be conveyed to the Commissioners, free of Expense, by the said Company.

Street to be made according to a Plan agreed upon.

IV. That the said last-mentioned Plan shall be deposited and remain at the Office of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and the Map or Plan so deposited at the Office of the said Commissioners shall remain at the said Office to the end that all Persons may at all reasonable Times have Liberty to inspect and peruse the same at their Will and Pleasure, paying the Sum of One Shilling for every such Inspection.

Plan to be deposited.

V. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, or any Two of them, or the Chief Commissioner for the Time being, to give sufficient Discharges for any Monies payable to them under or by virtue of this Act, or the said Two first-recited Acts.

Receipts of Commissioners.

VI. It shall be sufficient for all Purposes to cite this Act as the "Spitalfields and Shoreditch New Street Act, 1853."

C A P. LIII.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to Bankruptcy in Scotland.
[4th August 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating the Sequestration of the Estates of Bankrupts in Scotland; and it is expedient that the said Act be in some respects altered and amended, and that further Provision be made for the due Management and more speedy Distribution of the Estates of Bankrupts under Sequestration in Scotland:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. The Interim Factor, in place of being elected, as at present, shall be appointed by the Lord Ordinary by whom Sequestration shall be awarded, or by the Sheriff of the County, upon a Remit to that Effect by the Lord Ordinary; and such Interim Factor shall as soon as may be after his Appointment take possession of the Bankrupt’s Estate and Effects, and of his Title Deeds, Books, Bills, Vouchers, and other Papers and Documents, and also make up an Inventory of such Estate and Effects, and a Valuation showing the estimated Value and the annual Rental or Revenue thereof; and every such Interim Factor shall find Caution for his Intrusions to such Amount as the Lord Ordinary, or the Sheriff, where such Factor shall be appointed by the Sheriff, shall fix; and on such Caution being so found and received such Interim Factor shall be entitled to act, and a certified Copy of the Interlocutor containing his Appointment shall be equivalent to a formal Extract thereof; and such Interim Factor shall be entitled to make such Arrangements for the carrying on of the Trade of the Bankrupt as he may think beneficial for the Estate.

Interim Factor to be named by the Lord Ordinary, and to take immediate Possession of Bankrupt’s Estate.

Deliverance awarding Sequestration to appoint Meeting to elect Trustee.

II. The Deliverance awarding Sequestration shall appoint a Meeting of the Creditors, to be held at a specified Hour on a specified Day, being not earlier than Twelve nor later than Twenty-one Days from the Date of such Deliverance, to elect a Trustee or Trustees in succession, and Commissioners, and to do the other Acts provided by the said recited Act to be done at the Meeting for electing a Trustee.

Not to be imperative on Lord Ordinary to grant personal Protection.

III. It shall not be imperative upon the Lord Ordinary, when awarding Sequestration, to grant to the Debtor or Partners of the Company against whom or which Sequestration is awarded a Warrant of Protection against Arrest or Imprisonment for Civil Debt until the Meeting of the Creditors for the Election of Trustee, but the Lord Ordinary may, while awarding Sequestration, refuse to grant such Warrant of Protection; and every such Warrant of Protection which may be granted in any Sequestration that shall not be advertised in the London and Edinburgh Gazettes in Terms of the said recited Act within One Week after the Date of such Sequestration shall be ineffectual, and incapable of being pleaded in Bar of personal Diligence: Provided always, that, notwithstanding the Lord Ordinary shall refuse to grant Interim Warrant of Protection as aforesaid, it shall be competent to the Creditors, on the Occasion of their Meeting to elect a Trustee, or at the Meeting after the Examination of the Bankrupt, or at any Meeting called for the Purpose of receiving an Offer of Composition, to resolve that personal Protection ought to be granted to the Bankrupt for such Time as they may think fit, and the Trustee shall thereupon apply to the Sheriff, who shall grant the Protection.

Deliverance of Sheriff as to the Election of Trustee, final.

IV. The Deliverance of the Sheriff or Sheriff Substitute, declaring the Person or Persons elected to be Trustee or Trustees in succession, shall be final, and in no Case subject to Review in any Court or in any Manner whatever.

Trustee to send Circular to Creditors.

V. It shall be the Duty of the Trustee, immediately after the Examination of the Bankrupt, to notify, by circular Letter transmitted through the Post Office to every Creditor mentioned in the State of Affairs which by the said recited Act is directed to be made up by the Bankrupt, the Period within which Claims should be lodged.

Certain Provisions repealed.

VI. All Provisions of the said recited Act requiring any Creditor to specify separately in his Oath or Claim for his Debt the Amount of any Interest due thereon, or of any Interest deducted therefrom, or to specify any accumulated Sum of Principal and Interest, are hereby repealed.

Errors in framing Oath and Claim may be corrected.

VII. Where it shall appear to the Sheriff or to the Trustee that the Oath and Claim of any Person, produced with a view to voting or to ranking and drawing a Dividend on the Sequestration, is not framed in the Manner required by the said recited Act, the Sheriff or the Trustee, as the Case may be, shall call upon such Person, or his Procurator or Mandatory, to rectify his Oath and Claim, pointing out to him wherein it is defective; and unless such Person shall thereupon make such Alteration upon his Oath and Claim as may be necessary in order to rectify the same, the Sheriff or Trustee, as the Case may be, shall disallow or reject such Oath and Claim: Provided always, that where the Failure to comply comply with the Provisions of the said recited Act shall appear to have been made for some improper or fraudulent Purpose, or where Injury can be qualified by the other Creditors or any of them in respect thereof, it shall not be incumbent upon the Sheriff or Trustee to give such Person an Opportunity to rectify his Oath and Claim as aforesaid.

VIII. The Day to be fixed by the Sheriff for the Examination of the Bankrupt shall be not sooner than Seven Days nor later than Fourteen Days from the Date of the Sheriff's Warrant for such Examination; and the Meeting of Creditors appointed by the said recited Act to be held after the Examination of the Bankrupt shall be held on a Day not sooner than Seven Days nor later than Fourteen Days from the Day appointed for such Examination.

Time for Examination of Bankrupt, and for Meeting of Creditors.

IX. Wherever it is by the said recited Act or by this Act directed that a Meeting of Creditors shall or may be called or held, a Notice of the Day, Hour, Place, and Purpose of the Meeting shall be advertised in the Edinburgh Gazette Seven Days at least before the Day of the Meeting, in place of Fourteen Days, as at present; and such Meeting may be adjourned till the following Day.

Notice on which Meetings may be called, shortened.

X. In place of the Times appointed by the said recited Act for Payment of Dividends, the Periods for Payment of Dividends shall be as follows; that is to say, where there are sufficient Funds realized, the First Dividend shall be payable on the First lawful Day after the Expiration of Six Months from the Date of Sequestration, and a Dividend shall always be payable on the First lawful Day after the Expiration of Three Months from the Date of the Payment of the immediately preceding Dividend, until the whole Funds of the Bankrupt be distributed, subject always to the Provisions in the said recited Act and in this Act contained: Provided always, that after the Second Dividend is made, a Majority of the Creditors, at any General Meeting called for the Purpose, may determine that future Dividends shall be made after shorter Intervals, and the Affairs of the Estate brought to a more speedy Close; and even before the Period assigned for the First Dividend as aforesaid, it shall be competent to Three Fourths in Number and Value of the Creditors present at the Meeting after the Bankrupt's Examination, or at any after Meeting called for the Purpose, to direct the Trustee to apply to the Lord Ordinary or the Sheriff for Authority to make the First Dividend at an earlier Period than the Expiration of Six Months from the Date of the Sequestration, but not earlier than Four Months from such Date, if upon Cause shown it shall be found expedient so to do, and also to accelerate the Time for making the Second and other Dividends; and where the Lord Ordinary or the Sheriff shall, upon such Application, accelerate the First or any subsequent Dividend, he shall also make the requisite Provision for the Acceleration of any other Matters which he may find it necessary to accelerate in consequence thereof.

Provision for Payment and Acceleration of Dividends.

XI. To entitle any Creditor to Payment of the First Dividend, he shall produce, as directed by the said first-recited Act, his Oath and Grounds of Debt at least Two Months before the Time fixed for Payment of the First Dividend where such Time of Payment shall not have been accelerated, or One Month before the

Time for lodging Oaths and Grounds of Debt in order to Divider

Time fixed for Payment of the First Dividend where such Time shall have been accelerated; and to entitle any Creditor to Payment of any of the subsequent Dividends, he shall produce, aforesaid, his Oath and Grounds of Debt at least One Month before the Time fixed for Payment of the Dividend which he means to claim.

Time for making up State of Bankrupt's Affairs, and of the Trustee's Intro-missions, &c.

XII. The State of the whole Estate of the Bankrupt, of the Funds recovered and outstanding, and of the Trustee's Intro-missions and Management, directed by the said recited Act to be made up, shall be so made up immediately on the Expiration of Four Months from the Date of the Sequestration, in place of Six Months, as at present; and all Things directed by the said recited Act to be done by the Trustee, or Commissioners, or any other Person, within Fourteen Days after the Expiration of the said Six Months from the Date of the Sequestration, or within any Period calculated from the Expiration of the said Fourteen Days, shall be done within Fourteen Days after the Expiration of the said Four Months from the Date of the Sequestration, and within the like Period calculated from the Expiration of the said last-mentioned Fourteen Days respectively; and the Notice which by the said recited Act is directed to be given in the Edinburgh Gazette published next after the Expiration of the said first-mentioned Fourteen Days shall in lieu thereof be given in the Edinburgh Gazette published next after the Expiration of the said last-mentioned Fourteen Days.

Time for making up Scheme of Division by the Trustee, and State of Affairs, &c., in order to Second Dividend.

XIII. The Scheme of Division directed by the said recited Act to be made up by the Trustee before the Expiration of Eight Months from the Date of the Sequestration shall be made up before the Expiration of Six Months from the said Date, and the State directed by the said recited Act to be made up by the Trustee on the Expiration of Ten Months from the Date of the Sequestration shall be made up on the Expiration of Seven Months from the said Date; and the Trustee shall, within Fourteen Days after the Expiration of the said Seven Months, exhibit the said State to the Commissioners, and thereupon such Procedure shall take place with reference to the said State, and to the Second Dividend, as is provided by the said recited Act.

Like Procedure to be followed on Occasion of subsequent Dividends.

XIV. The like Procedure shall be followed out as to subsequent Dividends at similar Intervals of Time thereafter, in order that a Dividend may be made on the First lawful Day after the Expiration of every Three Months from the Day of the Payment of the immediately preceding Dividend, until the whole Funds of the Bankrupt shall be divided.

Where Foreign Creditor lodges Oath and Grounds of Debt at any Time previous to a Dividend, Fund to be laid aside.

XV. Where any Creditor not resident within Great Britain or Ireland at the Date of the Deliverance awarding Sequestration, or at any Time within Four Months thereafter, shall lodge his Oath and Grounds of Debt Fourteen Days previous to any Time fixed for Payment of a Dividend, though not in Time to entitle such Creditor to participate in such Dividend, the Trustee shall make such Deduction from the divisible Fund as shall be equal to the Dividend which would have been payable to such Foreign Creditor had his Oath and Grounds of Debt been timeously lodged and his Claim been sustained; and the Sum so deducted shall form Part of

of the Fund for Division on the Occasion of Payment of the next Dividend.

XVI. The Bankrupt may, on the Expiration of Six Months from the Date of the Sequestration, in place of Eight Months, as at present, present a Petition to the Lord Ordinary or the Sheriff, to be finally discharged of all Debts contracted by him before the Date of the Sequestration, provided a Majority in Number and Four Fifths in Value of the Creditors who have produced Oaths concur in the Petition; and the Bankrupt may also present such Petition on the Expiration of Twelve Months from the Date of the Sequestration, provided a Majority in Number and Two Thirds in Value of the said Creditors concur in the Petition; and the Bankrupt may also present such Petition on the Expiration of Eighteen Months from the Date of the Sequestration, provided a Majority in Number and Value of the said Creditors concur in the Petition; and the Bankrupt may also present such Petition on the Expiration of Two Years from the Date of the Sequestration, without any Consents of Creditors; and the Lord Ordinary or the Sheriff, as the Case may be, shall, in each of the Cases aforesaid, order the Petition to be intimated in the Edinburgh Gazette; and if, at the Distance of not less than Twenty-one Days from the Publication of such Intimation, and on Evidence being produced of Concurrence as aforesaid, there be no Appearance to oppose the same, the Lord Ordinary or the Sheriff, as the Case may be, shall pronounce a Deliverance finding the Bankrupt entitled to a Discharge; but if Appearance be made by any of the Creditors, or by the Trustee, the Lord Ordinary or the Sheriff, as the Case may be, shall judge of any Objections against granting the Discharge, and shall either find the Bankrupt entitled to his Discharge, or refuse the Discharge, or defer the Consideration of the same for such Period as he may think proper, and may annex such Conditions thereto as the Justice of the Case may require: Provided always, that it shall not be competent for the Bankrupt to present a Petition for his Discharge, or to obtain any Consent of any Creditor to such Discharge, until the Trustee shall have prepared a Report with regard to the Conduct of the Bankrupt, and as to how far he has complied with the Provisions of the Statute, and in particular whether the Bankrupt has made a fair Discovery and Surrender of his Estate, and whether he has attended the Diets of Examination, and whether he has been guilty of any Collusion, and whether his Bankruptcy has arisen from innocent Misfortunes or Losses in Business, or from culpable or undue Conduct; and such Report shall be prepared by the Trustee, upon the Requisition of the Bankrupt, at any Time after the Expiration of Five Months from the Date of the Sequestration; and such Report shall be produced in the Proceedings for the Bankrupt's Discharge, and shall be referred to by its Date or by other distinct Reference in any Consent to his Discharge.

to direct in what Manner and Proportion such Business shall be divided between and transacted by the said Two Officers; and in all and every Case where any Party or Person is dissatisfied or feels himself aggrieved by the Decision of the Assistant Taxing Officer, it shall and may be lawful for such Party or Person, before the Bill of Costs shall be certified, to bring the Item, Question, or other Matter by way of Appeal from the Decision of the Assistant Officer before the Principal Officer, who shall with all convenient Despatch dispose of the Item, Question, or other Matter so brought before him on such Appeal.

Taxing Officers to have the same Powers and be subject to the same Regulations as Taxing Officers created under recited Acts.

IV. The said Two Officers appointed or to be appointed under the Provisions of this Act shall have the same Power and Authority, and be subject to the same Regulations as to Duties and Attendance, as are given and contained with reference to Taxing Officers in and by the said herein-before recited Acts of the First and Second Years of the Reign of King George the Fourth and of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria; and all and every the Provisions, Powers, Authorities, and Directions contained in the said recited Acts or either of them, with reference to the Taxing Officers created thereby, so far as the same shall be consistent with the Alterations hereby effected, shall be and be deemed applicable to the Taxing Officers appointed or to be appointed under this Act, and to the Taxation of Costs by them or either of them, and all Matters and Proceedings belonging to or connected with the Business thereof.

Appointment of Clerk.

V. The said Taxing Officers shall have the Assistance in their said Business of One Clerk, for the Purpose of issuing of Summons, Entries of Costs, and keeping the Books and Records of their said Offices, to be appointed by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being during his or their Pleasure.

Salaries.

VI. The said Principal Taxing Officer, Assistant Taxing Officer, and Clerk shall be entitled to receive respectively (out of the same Fund and at the same Periods as the Salaries in and by the said recited Acts directed to be paid to the Taxing Officers in Common Law) the Salaries set forth in the Schedule A. to this Act annexed, which shall grow due from Day to Day.

Superannuations.

VII. The said Principal Taxing Officer, Assistant Taxing Officer, and Clerk shall be entitled respectively to receive, with the Approbation of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, as and for Superannuation or Retiring Allowances, Sums not exceeding the following Proportions with reference to the Amount of their Salaries and the Period of their Services respectively; videlicet,

For Ten Years Service and under Fifteen Years, One Fourth of the Salary fixed by the Schedule A. to this Act annexed:

For Fifteen Years Service and under Twenty Years, One Third of such Salary:

For Twenty Years Service and under Twenty-five Years, One Half of such Salary:

C A P. LVI.

An Act to facilitate the Redemption of certain Charges on the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, and to make other Provisions in regard to the Management of such Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues. [4th August 1853.]

WHEREAS under or by virtue of certain Letters Patent or Deeds, and ultimately by virtue of a certain Deed or Instrument in Writing dated the Fifth Day of June in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, and by other Instruments or Ways and Means, the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in England, Wales, and the Isle of Man, now under the Management or Control of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or certain Parts thereof, are charged with or liable to the Payment of divers perpetual Pensions or yearly Sums of Money: And whereas it is apprehended that it would be advantageous, not only to the said Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues, but also to the Recipients of such of the said Pensions as do not amount to a larger annual Sum than Ten Pounds, if the Persons to whom the same are payable were empowered to make such Arrangements for the Sale of the same as are herein-after mentioned: And whereas the said Pensions, or some of them, are by virtue of the Deeds or Instruments granting or creating the same made payable on different Feast Days and other Days throughout the Year, and it is desirable that in future the whole of the said Pensions should become due and payable on Two certain Days of Payment only in each Year: And whereas the said Pensions or yearly Sums have been heretofore paid subject to Deductions on account of Land Tax and certain accustomed Fees, and it has been the Custom to pay such Pensions on the Tenth of October annually: And whereas it is expedient that such other Provisions in regard to the Management of the said Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown should be made as are herein-after contained: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

The Recipients of Pensions not exceeding 10*l.* per Annum may, with the Consent of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, sell the same to the Crown.

On Payment of Purchase Money to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and Conveyance being made, Pension purchased to be extinguished.

Application of Purchase Money.

I. Any Bishop, Rector, Vicar, or other Ecclesiastical Person or Collegiate Body for the Time being in the Receipt of any of the said Pensions which does not exceed the annual Sum of Ten Pounds may, with the Consent of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and of the Patron of any Living or Preferment in respect of which the same is payable, sell and convey, or enter into any Agreement with the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or either of them, for the Sale and Conveyance to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, of the same Pension, for such Price and subject to such Stipulations and Conditions as may be agreed upon; provided that in any Case when the Purchase Money shall exceed the Sum of One hundred Pounds the Purchase shall not be completed without the previous Authority of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to be signified by some Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands.

II. The Purchase Money to be paid for any of the said Pensions shall be paid by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, whose Receipt shall be a sufficient Discharge for the same, and on such Payment being made, and on the Execution by the Person for the Time being entitled to the Receipt of the Pension purchased of a Surrender or Conveyance to Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, such Pension shall cease and be extinguished, and the said Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown shall be wholly and for ever freed and discharged therefrom: Provided always, that the Receipt of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners under their Corporate Seal for any such Purchase Money shall be sufficient Evidence of such Purchase Money having been paid to them, and of the Sale having been made with their Consent: Provided also, that when any such Deed of Surrender or Conveyance or Receipt shall have been enrolled, either by the Deposit of a Duplicate thereof or otherwise, in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments, the same Deed or Receipt, or an authenticated Copy of the Enrolment thereof, shall be admissible in Evidence, without Proof of the Execution of such Deed or Receipt, and the Enrolment of such Deed shall also be conclusive Evidence that the Provisions of this Act have been complied with.

III. The Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall, at their Discretion, apply the Purchase Money to be paid to them on any such Sale as aforesaid in any One or more of the following Modes; (namely,) in the Purchase of Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Annuities or Three Pounds per Centum Reduced Annuities, or in the Purchase of Land of Freehold Tenure to be annexed or conveyed or otherwise appropriated to or for the Purposes of the Living, Preferment, or Collegiate Body in respect of or to which the Pension was payable previously to the Purchase thereof, or in the Purchase or Redemption of any existing Charges, Incumbrances on or Outgoings from the same Living or Preferment or the Property of such Collegiate Body, or in the substantial or permanent Improvement of the Parsonage House or Glebe Land or other Buildings or Land annexed or belonging to or appropriated for the Use of any such Living, Preferment, or Collegiate Body:

Body : Provided also, that the Dividends or Interest on any such Stock and the Rents and Profits of any Land which may be so purchased as aforesaid shall belong and be paid to the Person or Persons or Collegiate Body who or which for the Time being would have been entitled to receive the Pension in case the same had not been extinguished : Provided also, that if in any Case the Purchase Money shall be laid out in the Purchase or Redemption of any such Charge, Incumbrance, or other Outgoing as aforesaid, the same shall not be kept on Foot, but shall be released or extinguished.

IV. From and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, the several Pensions or yearly Sums charged upon or payable in respect of any Part of the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in England, Wales, or the Isle of Man shall from Time to Time respectively become due half-yearly, that is to say, on the Fifth Day of April and the Tenth Day of October in every Year only ; and the Person who on any Fifth Day of April or Tenth Day of October shall be in possession of the Preferment, Appointment, or Office in respect of which any such Pension is payable shall be entitled to receive the whole net Amount of One Half Year's Pension, after making all lawful Deductions, notwithstanding he may not have been in the Enjoyment of such Preferment, Appointment, or Office during the whole of such Half Year, and his Predecessor, or the Representatives of his Predecessor, shall not be entitled to any apportioned Part of the same Half Year's Pension ; and no Person to whom any half-yearly Payment of any such Pension as aforesaid shall fall due, or would, if this Act had not passed, have fallen due on any Day after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and before the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, shall be entitled to receive on the said Fifth Day of April or at any other Time more than One Half Year's Amount of such Pension.

V. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or either of them, may, with the Consent of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, to be signified in Writing under the Royal Sign Manual, and of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, to be signified by Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands, make such Arrangements as may be from Time to Time considered expedient for the Adjustment or Settlement of any doubtful or disputed Rights or Claims of the Crown in or to any Real or Personal Property or any Forestal Right, the Management or Control whereof would, if such Rights or Claims were established in favour of the Crown, be vested in or devolve upon the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and in making any such Arrangement it shall be lawful for the same Commissioners or either of them (with such Consents as aforesaid) either to give up or relinquish the Rights or Claims of the Crown to any Portion or Portions of any such Real or Personal Property or Forestal Right, or to accept on behalf of Her Majesty any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Sum or Sums of Money, in lieu and satisfaction of such Rights or Claims generally ; and it shall also be lawful for the Commis-

Pensions to become due and payable on 5th April and 10th October in each Year.

Provision for the Settlement of disputed Claims.

sioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues or either of them (with the like Consents) to enter into any Agreement for the Payment from Time to Time to any Person or Persons of any Rents or other Profits to be derived from, or any Purchase Monies to be received on account of the Sale of, any such Real or Personal Property or Forestal Right as aforesaid, or any Portion thereof respectively; and any Person claiming to be entitled in possession, either for Life or for any greater Estate, and either at Law or in Equity, to the Rents and Profits or the Interest or Income or the Use and Enjoyment of any such Real or Personal Property or Forestal Right as aforesaid may enter into any Agreement with either of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues for any of the Purposes aforesaid; and when any Deed, Agreement, or Writing effecting or purporting to effect any such Arrangement as aforesaid shall have been enrolled in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments, the same shall be binding and conclusive on all Parties in anywise interested or claiming to be interested, and such Enrolment shall be sufficient Evidence of the Arrangement purported to be effected by any such Deed or Writing being authorized by this Act, and of the Provisions of this Act having been complied with. When it shall be made to appear to the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury that any Debt or Sum or Sums of Money due or claimed to be due either to the Capital or to the Income of the Hereditary Land Revenues of the Crown under the Management or Control of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues is or are irrecoverable, either in whole or in part, or that it is inexpedient to take Proceedings for the Recovery of the same or of any Part thereof, it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, from Time to Time, by any Order under his or their Hand or Hands, to direct that such Debt or Sum or Sums of Money shall, either in whole or in part, be released or discharged, either absolutely or subject to such Conditions as may be thought expedient; and any such Order shall, when enrolled in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments, either by the Deposit of a Duplicate thereof or otherwise, if the same shall relate to the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in England and Wales, or if the same shall relate to the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland when the same shall be enrolled in pursuance of the Provisions to that effect contained in an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, Chapter Fifty, be binding and conclusive: Provided always, that no Debt, Sum or Sums of Money, due to the Capital of the Land Revenue of the Crown, shall be released or discharged without the Consent of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, to be from Time to Time signified in Writing under the Royal Sign Manual; provided also, that when any Proceedings at Law or in Equity shall have been commenced by Her Majesty's Attorney General for England or Ireland, as the Case may be, for the Purpose of establishing the Title of Her Majesty to or recovering any such Real or Personal Property

Property or Forestal Right, or such Debt or Sum of Money, as aforesaid, or when any Petition of Right shall have been presented to Her Majesty or Her Heirs or Successors touching or concerning any Real or Personal Property or Forestal Right of or to which Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, may claim to be seized or entitled, any Arrangement for the Settlement of the Matter in difference, or any such Discharge as aforesaid, shall be subject to the Approval of the Attorney General for the Time being of England or Ireland, as the Case may be.

VI. 'And whereas, under the Provisions of the Act passed in the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and twenty-one, and of the Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter One, any Deed, whereby any Lands or Hereditaments may be mortgaged, purchased, sold, exchanged, leased, or demised, under the Authority of the first-mentioned Act, is, when enrolled in the Office of the Land Revenue Records and Enrolments, and entered in the Office of the Commissioners of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, as good and available as if the same had been enrolled in any of the Courts at Westminster, or as if a Memorial had been registered in the Office appointed for registering Deeds; and it is expedient that the Provisions of the other Acts of Parliament relating to the Enrolment of Deeds affecting the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown should in manner and as far as herein-after mentioned be assimilated to the Provisions of the said Acts, Chapter One hundred and twenty-one and Chapter One: Be it therefore enacted, That any Deed, Instrument, or Writing to which either of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, or either of them, is a Party, or which is signed by either of them the said Commissioners, or which may in any Manner affect or relate to any Part of the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, or any other Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments for the Time being under the Management or Control of the same Commissioners or either of them, situate or being in England or Wales, shall, when enrolled in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments, without any Enrolment or Acknowledgment thereof in any Court or Courts of Law or Equity, and without any Registration thereof, be as good and available and of the like Force and Effect, in all respects, and to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been or was enrolled in any of Her Majesty's Courts at Westminster, or as if a Memorial had been entered or registered in the Office appointed for registering Deeds in the County or Counties in which the same Possessions, Land Revenues, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any of them, are situate, any Act, Law, Practice, or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

VII. 'And whereas, under and by virtue of the Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth, and Nineteenth Sections of the Act of Parliament passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter Ninety-seven, and divers subsequent

Deeds enrolled in Land Revenue Record Office not to require Enrolment in Courts of Law, &c.

Form of Conveyance of W.H. White's Fee-farm Rents.

sioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues or either of them (with the like Consents) to enter into any Agreement for the Payment from Time to Time to any Person or Persons of any Rents or other Profits to be derived from, or any Purchase Monies to be received on account of the Sale of, any such Real or Personal Property or Forestal Right as aforesaid, or any Portion thereof respectively; and any Person claiming to be entitled in possession, either for Life or for any greater Estate, and either at Law or in Equity, to the Rents and Profits or the Interest or Income or the Use and Enjoyment of any such Real or Personal Property or Forestal Right as aforesaid may enter into any Agreement with either of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues for any of the Purposes aforesaid; and when any Deed, Agreement, or Writing effecting or purporting to effect any such Arrangement as aforesaid shall have been enrolled in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments, the same shall be binding and conclusive on all Parties in anywise interested or claiming to be interested, and such Enrolment shall be sufficient Evidence of the Arrangement purported to be effected by any such Deed or Writing being authorized by this Act, and of the Provisions of this Act having been complied with. When it shall be made to appear to the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury that any Debt or Sum or Sums of Money due or claimed to be due either to the Capital or to the Income of the Hereditary Land Revenues of the Crown under the Management or Control of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues is or are irrecoverable, either in whole or in part, or that it is inexpedient to take Proceedings for the Recovery of the same or of any Part thereof, it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, from Time to Time, by any Order under his or their Hand or Hands, to direct that such Debt or Sum or Sums of Money shall, either in whole or in part, be released or discharged, either absolutely or subject to such Conditions as may be thought expedient; and any such Order shall, when enrolled in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments, either by the Deposit of a Duplicate thereof or otherwise, if the same shall relate to the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in England and Wales, or if the same shall relate to the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland when the same shall be enrolled in pursuance of the Provisions to that effect contained in an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, Chapter Fifty, be binding and conclusive: Provided always, that no Debt, Sum or Sums of Money, due to the Capital of the Land Revenue of the Crown, shall be released or discharged without the Consent of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, to be from Time to Time signified in Writing under the Royal Sign Manual; provided also, that when any Proceedings at Law or in Equity shall have been commenced by Her Majesty's Attorney General for England or Ireland, as the Case may be, for the Purpose of establishing the Title of Her Majesty to or recovering any such Real or Personal Property

Property or Forestal Right, or such Debt or Sum of Money, as aforesaid, or when any Petition of Right shall have been presented to Her Majesty or Her Heirs or Successors touching or concerning any Real or Personal Property or Forestal Right of or to which Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, may claim to be entitled or entitled, any Arrangement for the Settlement of the Matter in difference, or any such Discharge as aforesaid, shall be subject to the Approval of the Attorney General for the Time being of England or Ireland, as the Case may be.

VI. 'And whereas, under the Provisions of the Act passed in the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and twenty-one, and of the Act passed in the Second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter One, any Deed, whereby any Lands or Hereditaments may be mortgaged, purchased, sold, exchanged, leased, or demised, under the Authority of the first-mentioned Act, is, when enrolled in the Office of the Land Revenue Records and Enrolments, and entered in the Office of the Commissioners of Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, as good and available as if the same had been enrolled in any of the Courts at Westminster, or as if a Memorial had been registered in the Office appointed for registering Deeds; and it is expedient that the Provisions of the other Acts of Parliament relating to the Enrolment of Deeds affecting the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown should in manner and as far as herein-after mentioned be assimilated to the Provisions of the said Acts, Chapter One hundred and twenty-one and Chapter One: Be it therefore enacted, That any Deed, Instrument, or Writing to which either of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, or either of them, is a Party, or which is signed by either of them the said Commissioners, or which may in any Manner affect or relate to any Part of the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, or any other Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments for the Time being under the Management or Control of the same Commissioners or either of them, situate or being in England or Wales, shall, when enrolled in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments, without any Enrolment or Acknowledgment thereof in any Court or Courts of Law or Equity, and without any Registration thereof, be as good and available and of the like Force and Effect, in all respects, and to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been or was enrolled in any of Her Majesty's Courts at Westminster, or as if a Memorial had been entered or registered in the Office appointed for registering Deeds in the County or Counties in which the same Possessions, Land Revenues, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any of them, are situate, any Act, Law, Practice, or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

VII. 'And whereas, under and by virtue of the Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth, and Nineteenth Sections of the Act of Parliament passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fifty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter Ninety-seven, and divers subsequent Acts

Deeds enrolled in Land Revenue Record Office not to require Enrolment in Courts of Law, &c.

‘ Acts of Parliament, the Parts still remaining unsold of certain ‘ Rents heretofore Crown Rents, Chief Rents, Fee Farm and ‘ Quit Rents, and other Rents, formerly the Property of William ‘ Henry White, deceased, in the said Act of the Fifty-seventh ‘ Year of King George the Third more particularly mentioned, ‘ are now vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Woods, ‘ Forests, and Land Revenues, in trust to sell and dispose thereof
 ‘ in manner in the said Act of the Fifty-seventh Year of King ‘ George the Third directed: And whereas it is considered ex‘ pedient that the Course of Proceeding in regard to the Sale of ‘ the said Rents, and the Form of Conveyance thereof, should be ‘ respectively assimilated to the Course of Proceeding and Form
 ‘ of Conveyance of other Fee Farm or other dry or unimprovable ‘ Rents under the Management or Control of the Commissioners

 ‘ that Purpose that the said Rents formerly the Property of the ‘ said William Henry White should be vested in Her Majesty,
 ‘ Her Heirs and Successors, and be from Time to Time managed ‘ and sold by the said Commissioners in like Manner as such ‘ other Rents as aforesaid:’ Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act all such and such Parts of all the Rents which were formerly Crown Rents, Chief Rents, Fee Farm Quit Rents, and other Rents, formerly the Property of the said William Henry White, remaining unsold, which by virtue of the Enactment herein-before recited or referred to are now vested or expressed to be vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues for the Time being, shall henceforth become and be vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, as if the same were Part of the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown under the Management or Control of the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and shall be from Time to Time recoverable, dealt with, and be subject to be sold in like Manner and by the same Forms of Proceeding and Conveyance generally as other Parts of the said Possessions and Land Revenues under the Management or Control of the same Commissioners or either of them: Provided always, that if any Surplus shall remain from the Sale of the said Rents after the Debt in the said Act of the Fifty-seventh Year of King George the Third mentioned to be due from the said William Henry White to the Crown shall be fully satisfied and discharged, such Surplus shall be paid over to the Heirs or Assigns of the said William Henry White.

 6 & 7 Vict. c.23.
 15 & 16 Vict.
 c. 51.
 14 & 15 Vict.
 c. 104.

‘ WHEREAS Doubts have arisen as to the Construction of ‘ “The Copyhold Acts,” and also of the Act of the Four‘ teenth and Fifteenth Years of Her present Majesty, “to facili‘ tate the Management and Improvement of Episcopal and ‘ “Capitular Estates in England,” and as to the Powers under the Provisions of the first-recited Acts of Ecclesiastical Corporations, sole or aggregate, to enfranchise Lands, and of the Copyhold Commissioners to confirm or consent to such Enfranchisements, and to nominate Trustees to receive and apply Money paid for such Enfranchisements; and it is expedient to remove such Doubts, and further to amend the said Copyhold Acts: Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:
 ‘ the

I. The Provisions of the Copyhold Acts concerning the Commutation of Manorial Rights in Lands and the Enfranchisement of Lands, and concerning the Payment of Monies to be paid for Enfranchisement where the Lord is only entitled to a limited Estate or Interest or is under legal Disability, shall be deemed to have extended, and subject to the Provisions herein contained shall continue to extend to Lands holden of any Ecclesiastical Corporation, sole or aggregate, and Lands parcel of any Manor belonging to any such Corporation, and the Application of the said Provisions, or any of them, to such Lands, shall not be deemed to have been interfered with by the said Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty.

II. No Commutation or Enfranchisement by any Ecclesiastical Corporation sole or aggregate already made or purporting to be made under the Copyhold Acts or any of them, or to be made in pursuance of any Agreement already approved of by the Copyhold Commissioners, shall be impeached by reason of the Consideration or Part of the Consideration for the same having been or being a Surrender of any Lands held for a Life or Lives or Years without Right of Renewal, or for any terminable or limited Estate or Interest.

III. All Lands, except as herein-after excepted, which are capable of Enfranchisement by the Exercise of any Powers contained in any other Act of Parliament, or which may be otherwise enfranchised irrespectively of the Copyhold Acts, shall also be capable of being enfranchised under the Powers and Provisions of the Copyhold Acts, and by the sole Authority of those Powers and Provisions, and without any other Consent or Authority than such as is required by the Provisions of the same Acts: Provided always, that Lands held for a Life or Lives or for Years of any Manor belonging either in possession or reversion to any Ecclesiastical Corporation, where the Tenant of such Lands hath not a Right of Renewal, shall not hereafter be dealt with under the Copyhold Acts, except in the Cases herein-after particularly mentioned.

IV. Whenever Proceedings which have been or shall be commenced under the Provisions of the Copyhold Acts for the Enfranchisement of any Lands shall terminate in Enfranchisement, and it shall appear to the Copyhold Commissioners that the Enfranchisement was One which might have been effected under the Provisions of the said Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth of Her Majesty, the Monies or Rentcharges which form the Consideration

Removing Doubts as to Enfranchisement, &c. of Lands holden of Ecclesiastical Corporations.

Commutations or Enfranchisements in consideration of Surrender of limited Interests confirmed.

Enfranchisements that may be effected under other Acts may also be effected under Copyhold Acts.

Application of Consideration Money in Cases where Enfranchisement might have been effected under 14 & 15 Vict. c. 104.

sideration of such Enfranchisement shall be paid and applied to the same Account and in the same Manner as if such Enfranchisement had been effected under the said Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty, and all the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act which affect the Application of Enfranchisement Monies under that Act shall be applicable to such Enfranchisements as aforesaid made under the Provisions of the Copyhold Acts, and the Church Estates Commissioners and Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall respectively have the same Powers over such Consideration Monies, or the Interest accruing thereon, or upon Land, Rentcharges, or Securities acquired in respect thereof, and also over or against any Ecclesiastical Corporation interested therein, as such Commissioners respectively would have had if such Enfranchisement had been effected with the Consent of the said Church Estates Commissioners, and under the Provisions of the said Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth of Her Majesty; and where the Consideration Money for any such Enfranchisement has been paid into the Bank of England to the Credit of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery ex parte the Copyhold Commission, and has not been invested, the said Accountant General shall, upon the Order of the Court of Chancery to be made upon a Petition to be presented to the said Court by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, cause such Money to be paid or transferred to such Account in the Bank of England as the said Church Estates Commissioners shall in each Case appoint: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the said Court to order that all the Costs and Expenses incurred in the obtaining of such Order shall be paid out of such Money previous to its Payment or Transfer to the Account appointed by the said Church Estates Commissioners, and in case of various Funds being included in the said Order to direct the Distribution of such Costs amongst the several Funds in such Manner as the said Court shall think fit.

Trustees appointed by Commissioners to have all such Powers as if within the Scope of Sect. 14. of 6 & 7 Vict. c. 23.

V. 'And whereas in Cases of Enfranchisement by Ecclesiastical Corporations effected or purporting to be effected under the Copyhold Acts the Monies paid for Enfranchisement for the Lords Rights have been paid into the Hands of Trustees nominated under the Hands and Seal of the Copyhold Commissioners, to be applied by the said Trustees, with the Consent of the said Commissioners, in the Manner directed and specified in the said Copyhold Acts of and concerning any Money to be paid for enfranchising under the said Acts into the Bank of England in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery: Be it enacted, That in all Cases where Trustees have been so appointed by the said Commissioners, such Appointments shall be deemed to be and the same are hereby declared to be valid and effectual, and within the Scope and Intent of the Fourteenth Section of the Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Twenty-three, and such Trustees are hereby declared to have and to have had all such Powers and Liabilities, and all Acts done by such Trustees, and all Consents and Confirmations by the Copyhold Commissioners in relation to the Acts of such Trustees, shall be and are declared declared to have been as valid and effectual, as in the Case of other Trustees nominated according to the Scope and Intent of the said Section of the said last-mentioned Act.

VI. Provided always, That in all Cases wherein Trustees have been so appointed by the said Copyhold Commissioners, and shall stand possessed of Monies paid for Enfranchisement of Lands subject to Manorial or other Rights of Ecclesiastical Corporations, or of Land or Securities in respect thereof, the Copyhold Commissioners shall, by an Order under their Hands and Seal, direct such Trustees to pay over the Monies of which they may so stand possessed, or to convey such Land or transfer such Securities, to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, who are hereby required to accept the same, and to apply such Monies; Land, or Securities respectively, and the Land or Securities to be purchased with such Money respectively, in the Manner directed and specified in the Copyhold Acts of and concerning any Money to be paid for enfranchising under the said Acts into the Bank of England in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery.

Trustees appointed by Copyhold Commissioners to transfer the Funds to Ecclesiastical Commissioners.

VII. When such Trustees shall have paid over, conveyed, or transferred to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners in pursuance of this Act the whole of the Monies, Land, or Securities of which they may so stand possessed as aforesaid, their Liabilities as such Trustees in respect of any such Monies, Land, or Securities shall cease and determine, and the Expenses of all such Payments, Conveyances, or Transfers shall be paid by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners out of any Monies that may come into their Possession in respect of the Money, Land, or Securities so to be paid over, conveyed, or transferred.

Liability of Trustees to cease.

VIII. All Agreements for the Enfranchisement of Lands held of any Ecclesiastical Corporation for a Life or Lives or for Years, where the Tenants thereof have not a Right of Renewal, which have been entered into with the Consent of the Copyhold Commissioners before the passing of this Act, shall be valid and effectual, and such Enfranchisements shall be capable of being completed under the Copyhold Acts, notwithstanding the Proviso herein-before contained, but the Money to be paid for such Enfranchisements shall be paid and applied in the Manner herein-before particularly mentioned; and a Recital in the Instrument of Enfranchisement or an Endorsement thereon, under the Seal of the Copyhold Commissioners, that the Agreement for such Enfranchisement was entered into, with such Consent as aforesaid, before the passing of this Act, shall be conclusive Evidence thereof.

Pending Proceedings to be completed.

Recital or Endorsement to be Evidence.

IX. In all Cases where any Trustees as aforesaid shall have paid over, conveyed, or transferred any Monies, Land, or Securities to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners in pursuance of any Order under the Hands and Seal of the Copyhold Commissioners, or when any Money shall be paid to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for Enfranchisements, the Proceedings in respect of which were commenced before the passing of this Act, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall, at the Request of the Copyhold Commissioners, deliver to the Copyhold Commissioners a Memorandum of the Payment of the Monies or the Conveyance of the Land, or the Transfer of the Securities, Ecclesiastical Commissioners to give Memorandum of Payment, Conveyance, or Transfer.

Memorandum to be evidence.
Costs how to be settled.

Securities, as the Case may be, and such Memorandum shall be Evidence of the Fact of such Payment, Conveyance, or Transfer.

X. That in all Cases of Enfranchisement under the Copyhold Acts all Costs properly payable by any Persons interested in the Enfranchisement of any Land shall be settled and ascertained by the Commissioners or Assistant Commissioners (pursuant to the Provisions of the Act passed in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her present Majesty); and that no Costs or Expenses shall be recoverable from any Person whomsoever of or relating to or by reason of any Enfranchisement, until the same shall have been certified under the Hands and Seal of the said Commissioners or of an Assistant Commissioner to have been reasonably and properly incurred.

Act to be Part of Copyhold Acts.

XI. This Act shall be taken and construed as Part of the recited Copyhold Acts.

An Act to authorize the Appointment of Barristers for the Purpose of effecting a complete annual Revision of Lists and Registry of Voters for the City of Dublin, and to remove Doubts as to the Rate Books for the Purposes of such Registry. [4th August 1853.]

2 & 3 W. 4. c. 88.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-eight, the Chairman of Sessions for the County of Dublin was authorized and empowered to register Voters for Dublin City, and it was thereby enacted, that it might be lawful for him to discharge the Duties of all Registries subsequent to the First by Deputy, qualified and approved of as therein mentioned, whose Acts were to be of the same Efficacy as if done by the said Chairman, and who was to be remunerated in manner therein mentioned: And whereas by another Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Sixty-nine, the said Chairman and his Deputy having Jurisdiction under the said recited Act for the Registry of Voters were and each of them was authorized and empowered to hold a Court for the Purposes of the new Registration and the annual Revision of the Lists therein particularly specified, which Court was to be held at the Times and during the Periods therein specified, and for such Services the said Chairman and the Deputy so appointed by him as aforesaid were to be remunerated as in the said last-mentioned Act specified: And whereas Conway E. Dobbs, Esq., Barrister-at-Law, was appointed such Deputy of the said Chairman, for the Purpose of discharging the Duties imposed on the said Chairman by the said Acts: And whereas by reason of the great Numbers of Persons claiming to be registered in and for the said City of Dublin it is expedient to empower the said Chairman of Sessions for the County of Dublin to appoint additional Deputies: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the 13 & 14 Vict.

c. 69.

he Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

I. For the Purpose of having henceforward a complete annual Revision and Registration of the Parliamentary Voters for the City of Dublin, it shall and may be lawful for the said Chairman of Sessions of the County of Dublin, with the Consent of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, and he is hereby authorized and required, by Warrant under his Hand, to nominate and appoint any Number of Barristers of the Irish Bar, not exceeding Three, of Six Years standing at the least, to be in the Place and Stead of the said Chairman of Sessions of the County of Dublin, in order, by Sub-division between them, to discharge the Duties imposed on the said Chairman by the said recited Acts; and the Barristers so appointed for the said City shall attend at the same Place, but shall sit apart from each other, and hold separate Courts at the same Time, for the Despatch of Business, such Courts to be Courts of Record, and to be held for and during such Period in each Year as may be limited and prescribed in such Warrant of Appointment.

II. All the Powers, Duties, Rights, and Privileges given and imposed by the said Acts or either of them to or upon the said Chairman and his Deputy, or to the Court which they were authorized to hold, are and shall be by virtue of such Warrant given to and imposed upon such Substitutes and the Courts they are respectively by this Act authorized to hold, save only the Power of appointing any Deputy under them or any of them; and all Acts to be done by such Substitutes, or any or either of them, shall be of the same Efficacy in Law as if done by the said Chairman upon whom such Duties would have otherwise devolved under the said Acts, or by his Deputy duly appointed; and each of such Substitutes shall receive in the same Manner the same Amount of Remuneration in all respects as the Deputy of such Chairman duly appointed under the said Acts would have been entitled to receive.

III. The Register which shall be so annually made, revised, and corrected by the Substitutes so to be appointed as aforesaid shall be so made, revised, and corrected between the Eighth Day of September inclusive and the Twenty-fifth Day of October inclusive in each Year, and shall be the true and only annual Register for the Time being of Parliamentary Voters for the City of Dublin; subject only to such Appeal as is provided for by the said recited Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty.

IV. The Barristers so to be appointed as aforesaid shall be called by the Name of "Revising Barristers;" and that in citing this Act in any Instrument, Document, Pleading, Proceeding, or Act of Parliament it shall be sufficient Designation to use the Expression "The Dublin Parliamentary Revising Act (1853)."

V. And whereas Doubts have arisen as to whether the Books of the Collectors General of Rates in the City of Dublin, or the Books of the Boards of Guardians of the North and South Dublin Unions of the said City, are the Rate Books contemplated by the Appointment of Barristers to discharge Duties imposed on Chairman of Sessions of the County of Dublin.

Removal of Doubts respecting Rate Books.

' said Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, and it is expedient to remove such Doubts: Be it therefore enacted, That the Books of the said Collector General of Rates shall be deemed and taken to be the Rate Books contemplated by the said last-mentioned Act as regards all Portions of the City comprehended within the Municipal District of the said City, and that the Tender or Payment of the Poor's Rate by the said Act directed to be made, and the Notice of Claim to be rated, in like Manner directed to be served upon the said Guardians, shall, in respect of any Property situated within the Municipal District of the said City, in future be made to and served upon the said Collector General of Taxes, either in Person or through the Clerk in the public Office of the said Collector General, in manner as directed by the said Act.

C A P. LIX.

An Act to repeal certain Stamp Duties, and to grant others in lieu thereof, to amend the Laws relating to Stamp Duties and to make perpetual certain Stamp Duties in Ireland.

[4th August 1853.]

' WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the Stamp Duties now payable in respect of the several Instruments, Matters, and Things mentioned or described in the Schedule to this Act, annexed, and to impose other Stamp Duties in lieu thereof; and it is also expedient to amend the Laws relating to the Stamp Duties: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. From and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three the several Stamp Duties now payable in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament for or in respect of the several Instruments, Matters, and Things mentioned or described (otherwise than by way of Exception) in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and whereon other Duties are by this Act granted, shall respectively cease and determine, and shall be and the same are hereby repealed; and in lieu and instead thereof there shall be granted, raised, levied, collected, and paid in and throughout the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to and to the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, for and in respect of the several Instruments, Matters, and Things described or mentioned in the said Schedule, or for or in respect of the Vellum, Parchment, or Paper upon which any of them respectively shall be written, the several Duties or Sums of Money set down in Figures against the same respectively, or otherwise specified and set forth in the said Schedule, which said Schedule, and the several Provisions, Regulations, Directions, and Exemptions therein contained with respect to the said Duties, and the Instruments, Matters, and Things charged therewith or exempted therefrom, shall be deemed and taken to be Part of this Act, and shall be applied, observed, and put in execution accordingly: Provided always that the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

Stamp Duties on Instruments in the Schedule annexed repealed, and others granted in lieu.

I. For the Purpose of having henceforward a complete annual Revision and Registration of the Parliamentary Voters for the City of Dublin, it shall and may be lawful for the said Chairman of Sessions of the County of Dublin, with the Consent of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, and he is hereby authorized and required, by Warrant under his Hand, to nominate and appoint any Number of Barristers of the Irish Bar, not exceeding Three, of Six Years standing at the least, to be in the Place and Stead of the said Chairman of Sessions of the County of Dublin, in order, by Sub-division between them, to discharge the Duties imposed on the said Chairman by the said recited Acts; and the Barristers so appointed for the said City shall attend at the same Place, but shall sit apart from each other, and hold separate Courts at the same Time, for the Despatch of Business, such Courts to be Courts of Record, and to be held for and during such Period in each Year as may be limited and prescribed in such Warrant of Appointment.

II. All the Powers, Duties, Rights, and Privileges given and imposed by the said Acts or either of them to or upon the said Chairman and his Deputy, or to the Court which they were authorized to hold, are and shall be by virtue of such Warrant given to and imposed upon such Substitutes and the Courts they are respectively by this Act authorized to hold, save only the Power of appointing any Deputy under them or any of them; and all Acts to be done by such Substitutes, or any or either of them, shall be of the same Efficacy in Law as if done by the said Chairman upon whom such Duties would have otherwise devolved under the said Acts, or by his Deputy duly appointed; and each of such Substitutes shall receive in the same Manner the same Amount of Remuneration in all respects as the Deputy of such Chairman duly appointed under the said Acts would have been entitled to receive.

III. The Register which shall be so annually made, revised, and corrected by the Substitutes so to be appointed as aforesaid shall be so made, revised, and corrected between the Eighth Day of September inclusive and the Twenty-fifth Day of October inclusive in each Year, and shall be the true and only annual Register for the Time being of Parliamentary Voters for the City of Dublin; subject only to such Appeal as is provided for by the said recited Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty.

Barristers to have the same Powers, &c. as the said Chairman.

Barristers to revise Register of Parliamentary Voters for City of Dublin.

Short Titles.

Removal of Doubts respecting Rate Books.

for any Receipt, Draft, or Order, or any Paper whereon any such Receipt, Draft, or Order shall be or be intended to be written; or if any Person shall do or practise or be concerned in any fraudulent Act, Contrivance, or Device whatever, not specially provided for by this or some other Act of Parliament, with Intent or Design to defraud Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, of any Duty by this Act granted upon Receipts or upon Drafts or Orders, every Person so offending in any of the said several Cases shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

VI. For better securing the Stamp Duties by Law chargeable on Policies of Insurance upon Lives, and for preventing Frauds in respect of any such Insurances:

In case of any Insurance for Lives, a Stamp Policy to be made out.

Every Person who shall make or agree to make, or shall receive any Premium or valuable Consideration for making, any Assurance or Insurance upon any Life or Lives, or upon any Event or Contingency relating to or depending upon any Life or Lives, shall, within One Calendar Month after the Payment or giving of any such Premium or Consideration, make out and sign or execute, or cause and procure to be made out and signed or executed, upon Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, duly stamped, a Policy of such Assurance or Insurance, and have the same ready to be delivered to the Party entitled thereto, and shall upon Demand made by any such Party, or any Agent in that Behalf duly authorized, deliver the same to him, or in default in any of the Cases aforesaid shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds:

Officers of Insurance Companies to be answerable for Default.

Every Person who at the Time of the Payment or giving of any such Premium or Consideration shall be a Managing Director or of the Secretary to or other principal Officer of any Society or Company receiving any such Premium or Consideration, shall be deemed to be a Person making or agreeing to make such Assurance or Insurance, and shall be subject and liable to the Penalty by this Act imposed for any such Default as aforesaid.

Articles of Clerkship to Attorneys of the County Palatine Courts may be stamped for Admission of the Clerk into Superior Courts on Payment of the additional Duty only.

VII. 'Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and eighty-four, certain Stamp Duties are imposed on any Articles of Clerkship or Contract whereby any Person shall first become bound to serve as a Clerk in order to his Admission as an Attorney or Solicitor in any Court; that is to say, in order to Admission in any of the Courts at Westminster, the Stamp Duty of One hundred and twenty Pounds, and in order to Admission in any of the Courts of the Counties Palatine, the Stamp Duty of Sixty Pounds: And whereas where any Person has become bound and has served as a Clerk under any such Articles or Contract stamped with the said Duty of Sixty Pounds in order to his Admission as an Attorney or Solicitor in any of the Courts of the Counties Palatine, he is capable of being admitted in any of Her Majesty's Courts at Westminster, but only upon the Payment of the further Stamp Duty of One hundred and twenty Pounds; and it is expedient to afford Relief in such Cases:

Where any Person shall have become bound as a Clerk in order to his Admission as an Attorney or Solicitor in any of the Courts of the Counties Palatine by Articles or Contract stamped with the said Duty of Sixty Pounds, then upon Payment of such further

Sum

Sum of Money as with the said Duty of Sixty Pounds will make up the full Stamp Duty which, at the Date of such Articles or Contract, was payable by Law on Articles of Clerkship in order to Admission in any of the Courts at Westminster, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue and they are hereby required to stamp the said Articles or Contract with a Stamp or Stamps to denote such further Duty, and thereupon such Articles or Contract shall be as valid and effectual for enrolling such Person to Admission in any of the Courts at Westminster as if the same had been duly stamped with such full Duty in the first instance.

VIII. ' And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty-eighth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and forty-nine, Section Thirty-eight, Persons introducing with or entering upon the Possession or Management of any Personal or Moveable Estate or Effects in Scotland of any Person dying, are required to exhibit a full and true Inventory, duly stamped, to be recorded as in the said Act is provided, of all the Personal or Moveable Estate and Effects of the Deceased already recovered or known to be existing; and if at any subsequent Period a Discovery shall be made of any other Effects belonging to the Deceased, an additional Inventory of the same is in like Manner to be exhibited and recorded; and every such additional Inventory is chargeable by Law with the full ad valorem Stamp Duty payable in respect of the total Amount or Value of the Estate and Effects specified therein, and in any such former Inventory; and thereupon the Party exhibiting the same is entitled to receive back the Amount of the Stamp Duty paid on such former Inventory; and it is expedient to prevent the Inconvenience attending the Over-payment of the Stamp Duty in such Cases by charging on any such additional Inventory the deficient Stamp Duty only.'

Every such additional Inventory to be made and recorded as aforesaid shall be chargeable only with such Amount of Stamp Duty as, together with the Stamp Duty charged upon any former duly stamped Inventory of the Estate and Effects of the same deceased Person already exhibited and recorded, shall make up the full Amount of Stamp Duty chargeable by Law in respect of the total Amount or Value of all the Estate and Effects of the said deceased specified in the said additional and any such former Inventory.

IX. No Licence granted to any Spiritual Person to perform Divine Service in any Building approved by the Bishop in lieu of any Church or Chapel whilst the same is under Repair or is rebuilding, or in any Building so approved for the Convenience of the Inhabitants of a Parish resident at a Distance from the Church or consecrated Chapel, shall be chargeable with any Stamp Duty.

X. ' And whereas by the said Act passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, it is provided that where any Property is sold and conveyed subject to any Debt or Sum of Money to be afterwards paid by the Purchaser, the same shall be deemed to be Purchase or Consideration Money in respect whereof the said ad valorem Duty charged upon the Additional Inventories in Scotland to be chargeable with additional Duty only.

Licences to perform Divine Service in certain Cases free from Stamp Duty.

‘ Sale and Conveyance of Property is to be paid: And whereas ‘ it has been held and determined that the said ad valorem Duty chaser or not.

Where any Lands or other Property shall be sold and conveyed subject to any Mortgage, Wadset, or Bond, or other Debt, or to any gross or entire Sum of Money, such Sum of Money or Debt shall be deemed the Purchase or Consideration Money, or Part of the Purchase or Consideration Money, as the Case may be, in respect whereof the said ad valorem Duty shall be paid, notwithstanding the Purchaser shall not be or become personally liable or shall not undertake or agree to pay the same or to indemnify the Vendor or any Person against the same, anything in any Act or otherwise to the contrary notwithstanding.

13 & 14 Vict.
 c. 97.

XI. ‘ And whereas it has been adjudged and determined by ‘ Law that upon the Sale of Property, where the Consideration ‘ expressed in the Conveyance is a Rentcharge or an Annuity
 ‘ made subject to Redemption or Repurchase, ad valorem Stamp
 ‘ Duty is chargeable under the Act passed in the Session of Par‘ liament held in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her ‘ Majesty, Chapter Ninety-seven, only where such Redemption or ‘ Repurchase may be enforced at the Option of the Vendor, and ‘ where such Rentcharge or Annuity is made redeemable.’

Where Property is sold in consideration of a redeemable Annuity, the Redemption
 Money to be deemed Purchase Money.

In any Case where Property shall be sold and conveyed in consideration of any Rentcharge or Annuity, or any annual or periodical Payment to be made permanently or for any indefinite Period, so that the total Amount of the Money to be paid for such Property cannot be previously ascertained, which Rentcharge, Annuity, or other Payment shall be made subject to Redemption or Purchase upon Terms and Conditions specified in the Deed or Instrument whereby the Property sold shall be conveyed to or vested in the Purchaser, or any Person by his Direction, the Money or the Consideration mentioned in the said Deed or Instrument as that on Payment or Transfer, Delivery or Satisfaction, of which the said Rentcharge, Annuity, or other Payment shall be redeemed or purchased or repurchased, or shall cease to be payable, shall be deemed to be the Purchase Money or Consideration on the Sale of the said Property so sold and conveyed, and in respect of which last-mentioned Purchase Money or Consideration the ad valorem Duty shall be chargeable; and where any such last-mentioned Consideration shall consist wholly or in part of any Stock or Security mentioned in the said Act, the Value thereof shall be ascertained as in such Act is in that Behalf provided; and where any such Annuity, Rentcharge, or other Payment aforesaid shall be made subject to Redemption or Purchase or Repurchase or Discontinuance upon Payment or Satisfaction of any Money or Value to be ascertained or calculated in manner provided in the said Deed or Instrument, the Amount of such Money or Value shall, for the Purpose of charging the said ad valorem Duty, be ascertained or calculated as in such Deed or Instrument shall be so provided.

XII. ' And whereas by the said Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-seven, a Stamp Duty of Five Shillings was granted and imposed upon the Duplicate or Counterpart of any Deed or Instrument chargeable with Stamp Duty (exclusive of progressive Duty) to the Amount of Five Shillings or upwards; and it is provided that in such Case the Duplicate or Counterpart shall not be available unless stamped with a particular Stamp for denoting or testifying the Payment of the full and proper Stamp Duty on the original Deed or Instrument; and it is expedient to dispense with the said particular Stamp on Counterparts of Leases :

Notwithstanding anything contained in the said Act, the Counterpart of any Lease of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, being duly stamped with the said Stamp Duty of Five Shillings, or any other Stamp Duty (exclusive of progressive Duty), and not being executed or signed by or on the Behalf of any Lessor or Grantor, shall be available as a Counterpart without being stamped with particular Stamp for denoting or testifying the Payment of the Stamp Duty chargeable on the original Lease.

Counterparts of Leases not required to be impressed with the denoting Stamp.

XIII. ' And whereas by the said Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, when any Deed or Instrument shall be presented to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and the Fee of Ten Shillings shall be paid to them for their Opinion as to the Stamp Duty with which such Deed or Instrument in their Judgment is chargeable, the said Commissioners are required to assess and charge the Stamp Duty on such Deed or Instrument, and, on the same being duly stamped, to impress thereon a particular Stamp to signify and denote that the full Amount of Stamp Duty with which such Deed or Instrument is by Law chargeable has been paid: And whereas the said Commissioners are not authorized to impress a particular Stamp upon any Deed or Instrument not chargeable with any Stamp Duty in order to denote that the same is not so chargeable; and it is expedient that Provision should be made for that Purpose :

It shall be lawful for any Person to present to the said Commissioners any Deed or Instrument, and upon Payment of the Fee of Ten Shillings, as in the said Act is mentioned, to require their Opinion whether or not the same is chargeable with any Stamp Duty, and if the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that such Deed or Instrument is not chargeable with any Stamp Duty, it shall be lawful for them and they are hereby required to impress thereon a particular Stamp, to be provided by them for that Purpose, with such Word or Words, or Device or Symbol thereon as they shall think proper in that Behalf, which shall signify and denote that such Deed is not chargeable with any Stamp Duty; and every such Deed or Instrument upon which the said Stamp shall be impressed shall be deemed to be not so chargeable, and shall be receivable in Evidence in all Courts of Law and Equity, notwithstanding any Objection made to the same as being chargeable with Stamp Duty, and not stamped to denote the same: Provided always, that if the said Commissioners shall assess and charge any Stamp Duty upon or in respect of any such Deed or Instrument, and the Party presenting the same and paying such Duty shall declare himself dissatisfied with their Commissioners may adjudge Deeds not liable to Stamp Duty.

Appeal from the Determination of the Commissioners.

‘ Sale and Conveyance of Property is to be paid: And whereas

 chaser or not.

Where any Lands or other Property shall be sold and conveyed subject to any Mortgage, Wadset, or Bond, or other Debt, or to any gross or entire Sum of Money, such Sum of Money or Debt shall be deemed the Purchase or Consideration Money, or Part of the Purchase or Consideration Money, as the Case may be, in respect whereof the said ad valorem Duty shall be paid, notwithstanding the Purchaser shall not be or become personally liable or shall not undertake or agree to pay the same or to indemnify the Vendor or any Person against the same, anything in any Act or otherwise to the contrary notwithstanding.

13 & 14 Vict.
 c. 97.

XI. ‘ And whereas it has been adjudged and determined by ‘ Law that upon the Sale of Property, where the Consideration ‘ expressed in the Conveyance is a Rentcharge or an Annuity
 ‘ made subject to Redemption or Repurchase, ad valorem Stamp
 ‘ Duty is chargeable under the Act passed in the Session of Par‘ liament held in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her

 a redeemable Annuity, the Redemption Money to be deemed Purchase Money.

In any Case where Property shall be sold and conveyed in consideration of any Rentcharge or Annuity, or any annual or periodical Payment to be made permanently or for any indefinite Period, so that the total Amount of the Money to be paid for such Property cannot be previously ascertained, which Rentcharge, Annuity, or other Payment shall be made subject to Redemption or Purchase upon Terms and Conditions specified in the Deed or Instrument whereby the Property sold shall be conveyed to or vested in the Purchaser, or any Person by his Direction, the Money or the Consideration mentioned in the said Deed or Instrument as that on Payment or Transfer, Delivery or Satisfaction, of which the said Rentcharge, Annuity, or other Payment shall be redeemed or purchased or repurchased, or shall cease to be payable, shall be deemed to be the Purchase Money or Consideration on the Sale of the said Property so sold and conveyed, and in respect of which last-mentioned Purchase Money or Consideration the ad valorem Duty shall be chargeable; and where any such last-mentioned Consideration shall consist wholly or in part of any Stock or Security mentioned in the said Act, the Value thereof shall be ascertained as in such Act is in that Behalf provided; and where any such Annuity, Rentcharge, or other Payment aforesaid shall be made subject to Redemption or Purchase or Repurchase or Discontinuance upon Payment or Satisfaction of any Money or Value to be ascertained or calculated in manner provided in the said Deed or Instrument, the Amount of such Money or Value shall, for the Purpose of charging the said ad valorem Duty, be ascertained or calculated as in such Deed or Instrument shall be so provided.

XII. ' And whereas by the said Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-seven, a Stamp Duty of Five Shillings was granted and imposed upon the Duplicate or Counterpart of any Deed or Instrument chargeable with Stamp Duty (exclusive of progressive Duty) to the Amount of Five Shillings or upwards; and it is provided that in such Case the Duplicate or Counterpart shall not be available unless stamped with a particular Stamp for denoting or testifying the Payment of the full and proper Stamp Duty on the original Deed or Instrument; and it is expedient to dispense with the said particular Stamp on Counterparts of Leases :

Notwithstanding anything contained in the said Act, the Counterpart of any Lease of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, being duly stamped with the said Stamp Duty of Five Shillings, or any higher Stamp Duty (exclusive of progressive Duty), and not being executed or signed by or on the Behalf of any Lessor or Grantor, shall be available as a Counterpart without being stamped with a particular Stamp for denoting or testifying the Payment of the Stamp Duty chargeable on the original Lease.

Counterparts of Leases not required to be impressed with the denoting Stamp.

XIII. ' And whereas by the said Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, when any Deed or Instrument shall be presented to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and the Fee of Ten Shillings shall be paid to them for their Opinion as to the Stamp Duty with which such Deed or Instrument in their Judgment is chargeable, the said Commissioners are required to assess and charge the Stamp Duty on such Deed or Instrument, and, on the same being duly stamped, to impress thereon a particular Stamp to signify and denote that the full Amount of Stamp Duty with which such Deed or Instrument is by Law chargeable has been paid: And whereas the said Commissioners are not authorized to impress a particular Stamp upon any Deed or Instrument not chargeable with any Stamp Duty in order to denote that the same is not so chargeable; and it is expedient that Provision should be made for that Purpose :

It shall be lawful for any Person to present to the said Commissioners any Deed or Instrument, and upon Payment of the Fee of Ten Shillings, as in the said Act is mentioned, to require their Opinion whether or not the same is chargeable with any Stamp Duty, and if the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that such Deed or Instrument is not chargeable with any Stamp Duty, it shall be lawful for them and they are hereby required to impress thereon a particular Stamp, to be provided by them for that Purpose, with such Word or Words, or Device or Symbol thereon as they shall think proper in that Behalf, which shall signify and denote that such Deed is not chargeable with any Stamp Duty; and every such Deed or Instrument upon which the said Stamp shall be impressed shall be deemed to be not so chargeable, and shall be receivable in Evidence in all Courts of Law and Equity, notwithstanding any Objection made to the same as being chargeable with Stamp Duty, and not stamped to denote the same: Provided always, that if the said Commissioners shall assess and charge any Stamp Duty upon or in respect of any such Deed or Instrument, and the Party presenting the same and paying such Duty shall declare himself dissatisfied with their Commissioners may adjudge Deeds not liable to Stamp Duty.

Appeal from the Determination of the Commissioners.

their Determination, it shall be lawful for him to appeal against the same to Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer, on the Terms and in the Manner in the said Act provided; and the said Court shall hear and determine the Appeal, and decide whether the said Deed or Instrument is chargeable with any, and if any, what Stamp Duty; and if the Court shall be of opinion that the same is not so chargeable, or is chargeable with a less Amount of Duty than shall have been assessed and charged thereon, then the Amount of such Duty or of the Excess (as the Case may be) shall be returned to the Appellant, together with the Sum deposited as in the said Act mentioned; and if the Court shall be of opinion that any further Duty is chargeable on the said Deed or Instrument, such further Duty shall be paid to the said Commissioners, and the Court shall order and enforce the Payment thereof accordingly.

XIV. ' And whereas it would facilitate the Transfer of the ' Bonds and Mortgages given by Public Companies under the Pro- ' visions of Acts of Parliament as Securities for Money which ' such Companies are by the said Acts expressly empowered or ' authorized to borrow, if the Transfers or Assignments of such ' Bonds or Mortgages were endorsed thereon, and were exempted ' from Stamp Duty, and it is expedient to grant such Exemption ' in consideration of a Composition Stamp Duty being paid on ' such Bonds and Mortgages on the original making and issuing ' thereof, in lieu of the Stamp Duty with which such Transfers ' or Assignments would otherwise be chargeable.'

Transfers of Mortgages of Public Companies exempted from Stamp Duty on Payment of a Composition.

Where on the original making and issuing of any such Bond or Mortgage as aforesaid, and before any Transfer or Assignment thereof, the same shall be stamped with an Amount of Stamp Duty equal to Three Times the Amount of the ad valorem Stamp Duty chargeable thereon by Law, and over and above the said ad valorem Duty, then every Transfer or Assignment thereafter made of such Bond or Mortgage by Endorsement thereon shall be deemed to be exempt from the Stamp Duty which would otherwise be payable in respect of such Transfer or Assignment: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to exempt any such Transfer or Assignment from any Stamp Duty to which it may be liable as a Settlement of the Money or Stock secured by such Bond or Mortgage, or any Portion thereof.

XV. ' And whereas it is desirable to facilitate the Purchase of ' stamped Paper, Covers, or Envelopes, and of other Stamps for ' expressing or denoting the Rates or Duties of Postage (all of ' which are herein-after designated as Postage Stamps, and for ' that Purpose to enable certain Persons in the Service of the ' Post Office to sell Postage Stamps without having any such ' Licence as the Laws now in force require in that Behalf, and ' without being subject or liable to any Penalty for carrying ' about Postage Stamps for Sale.'

XVI. ' And whereas by an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, Chapter Eighteen, granting Stamp Duties upon Playing Cards made fit for Sale or Use in the United Kingdom, such Duties to be denoted on the Ace of Spades of each Pack of Cards, it is enacted, that no Playing Cards shall be sold as Waste Cards unless a Corner of each Card shall be cut off at least Half an Inch in Depth, and other Provisions are therein contained for securing the said Duties: And whereas Packs or Parcels of Cards fit and intended for Use and Play, but not containing an Ace of Spades duly stamped, are commonly sold under the Pretence of being Waste Cards, each of such Cards having a Corner cut off, whereby the said Duties are evaded; and it is expedient to prevent such Practice: '

No Playing Cards, except such as shall be bonâ fide spoiled and rendered unfit for Use as Playing Cards in the Process of Manufacture, and which shall have a Corner cut off as in the said last-mentioned Act is provided, nor any Cards commonly called or known as Picture Cards or Court Cards, shall be deemed to be Waste Cards; and no Playing Cards except Waste Cards shall be sold otherwise than in Packs, each Pack containing Fifty-two Cards of the Four usual Suits of Thirteen Cards each, including an Ace of Spades duly stamped for denoting the Duty by the said Act granted on a Pack of Cards, and tied up together in manner directed by the said Act; and if any Person shall sell or expose or keep for Sale any Playing Cards, not being a Pack of Cards as aforesaid, and the same not being bonâ fide Waste Cards within the Meaning of this Act, he shall for every Pack, Parcel, or separate Quantity of Cards so sold or exposed or kept for Sale forfeit, if he shall not be a licensed Maker of Playing Cards, the Sum of Ten Pounds, and if he shall be such licensed Maker the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and all Cards so sold or exposed or kept for Sale shall be forfeited, and may be seized and taken by any Officer of Inland Revenue, and be disposed of as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall direct; provided that if in any Proceeding any Question shall arise whether any Cards are or were bonâ fide Waste Cards or not, Proof of the Affirmative thereof shall lie on the Party selling the same or having or keeping the same for Sale.

For preventing the Evasion of the Duties on Playing Cards.

XVII. ' And whereas by an Act passed in the Session held in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of King George the Fourth, Chapter Fifty-three, Officers of Excise and Persons employed in the Collection or Management of or accounting for the Revenue of Excise are exempted from serving as Mayor or Sheriff, or in any corporate or parochial or other public Office or Employment, or on any Jury or Inquest, or in the Militia; and it is expedient to extend the same to all other Officers appointed by or under the Commissioners of Inland Revenue: '

No

Exemption of Excise Officers from serving public Offices extended to Officers of Inland Revenue.

No Officer or Person appointed by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, or employed by them or under their Authority or Direction in any way relating to any of the Duties under their Care or Management, shall, so long as he shall continue in and exercise such last-mentioned Office or Employment, be compelled to serve as Mayor or Sheriff, or in any of the Offices, Employments, or Capacities in the said Act and herein-before in that Behalf mentioned.

Allowance for Receipt Stamps on hand.

XVIII. Where any Person shall be possessed of any Stamps rendered useless by this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, on Application to them or to their proper Officer in that Behalf, at any Time within Six Calendar Months after the Commencement of this Act to cancel and make Allowance for the same, as in the Case of spoiled Stamps, after deducting the Discount by Law granted on the Purchase of Receipt Stamps.

Drafts on Bankers payable to Order on Demand sufficient Authority for Payment without Proof of Endorsement.

XIX. Provided always, That any Draft or Order drawn upon a Banker for a Sum of Money payable to Order on Demand which shall, when presented for Payment, purport to be endorsed by the Person to whom the same shall be drawn payable, shall be a sufficient Authority to such Banker to pay the Amount of such Draft or Order to the Bearer thereof; and it shall not be incumbent on such Banker to prove that such Endorsement, or any subsequent Endorsement, was made by or under the Direction or Authority of the Person to whom the said Draft or Order was or is made payable either by the Drawer or any Endorser thereof.

XX. ' And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter Eighty-two, certain Rates and Duties denominated Stamp Duties were granted and made payable in Ireland for a limited Term; and by Four several Acts passed respectively in the Eighth, Eleventh, Fourteenth, and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign the same Rates and Duties were continued for Four other several and successive Terms, the last of which will expire on the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three; and it is expedient to make the said Rates and Duties perpetual:'

Stamp Duties in Ireland granted by 5 & 6 Vict. c. 82. and continued by 8 & 9 Vict. c. 2. 11 & 12 Vict. c. 9. 14 & 15 Vict. c. 18. 15 & 16 Vict. c. 21. made perpetual. Acts continued in force.

All the several Sums of Money and Duties and Composition for Duties granted and made payable in Ireland by the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty-two, and not repealed by any subsequent Act, and also all Duties now payable in lieu or instead of any of the said Duties which may have been so repealed, shall be and the same are hereby continued and made perpetual, and shall be charged, raised, levied, collected, and paid unto and for the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors for ever: The said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, and all and every other Act and Acts now in force in relation to the Duties and Composition for Duties which are continued by this Act, shall severally be continued and remain in full Force in all respects in relation to the said Duties and Composition for Duties hereby continued and granted, and all and every the Powers and Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things contained in the said Acts or any of them, and in force force as aforesaid, shall severally and respectively be duly observed, practised, applied, and put in execution in relation to the said Duties and Composition for Duties hereby continued and granted, for the charging, raising, levying, paying, accounting for, and securing of the said Duties and Composition for Duties, and all Arrears thereof, and for the preventing, detecting, and punishing of all Frauds, Forgeries, and other Offences relating thereto, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same Powers, Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act with reference to the said Duties and Composition for Duties hereby granted.

C A P. LX.

An Act to amend the Acts regulating the Salaries of Resident Magistrates in Ireland. [4th August 1853.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of King 6 W. 4. c. 13.
William the Fourth, Chapter Thirteen, it is enacted, that a. 34.
 every Magistrate appointed under that Act should have and receive such Salary by the Year, not exceeding the Sum of Four hundred Pounds, and rateably for any shorter Period, as the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland should think fit: And whereas it is expedient that the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland should be empowered to vary and classify the Salaries of the Magistrates appointed under the said Act, in like Manner as the Salaries of the Officers of the Constabulary Force in Ireland have been classified, for which Purpose it is necessary to authorize the Lord Lieutenant to fix the annual Salaries of a certain Number of such Magistrates at a Sum exceeding Four hundred Pounds per Annum: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

I. That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland to grant to any Magistrate heretofore appointed or hereafter to be appointed under the said recited Act a Salary not exceeding Five hundred Pounds by the Year: Provided always, that not more than Twenty of such Magistrates shall at any One Time be entitled to receive Salaries exceeding the annual Rate of Four hundred Pounds: Provided also, that the aggregate Amount of all the Salaries payable to all the Magistrates for the Time being appointed as aforesaid shall not at any Time exceed the Amount which would have been payable

Ld. Lieutenant may grant any Magistrate a Salary not exceeding 500*l.* per Annum.

Aggregate of Salaries not to exceed Average of 400*l.* unless in certain C able if the annual Salary of every such Magistrate had been Four hundred Pounds, and no more, unless such Excess shall have been caused by the Death, Resignation, or Removal of a Magistrate receiving a less annual Salary than Four hundred Pounds, and by a new Magistrate not having been appointed immediately thereupon.

A Certificate of Diligence and Fidelity to be given by the Chief Secretary, and not by Inspector General, on Superannuation of Magistrates under 10 & 11 Vict. c. 100.

II. ' And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred, it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, upon the Recommendation of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, supported by a Certificate from the Inspector General in the said Act named, that the Party had served with Diligence and Fidelity, to order and direct that any Magistrate theretofore appointed should and might be superannuated: And whereas, the Magistrates not being under the Orders or Control of the Inspector General of the Constabulary, he is unable from his official Knowledge to certify their Diligence and Fidelity: Be it therefore enacted, That in every Case of Superannuation of a Magistrate under the said last-recited Act the Certificate that the Party has served with Diligence and Fidelity shall be given by the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant, and not by the Inspector General of the Constabulary, and such Certificate of the Chief Secretary shall be in all respects conformable to and have the same Force and Effect as any Certificate of the Inspector General to be given under the said last in part recited Act.

An Act to extend and continue an Act of the Twelfth Year of Her present Majesty, to prevent the spreading of contagious or infectious Disorders among Sheep, Cattle, and other Animals. [4th August 1853.]

11 & 12 Vict.
c. 107.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty (Chapter One hundred and seven), for preventing, until the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the End of the then Session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious Disorders among Sheep, Cattle, and other Animals: And whereas the said Act has by sundry Acts been continued until the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and if Parliament be then sitting, then further until the End of the then Session of Parliament: And whereas it is expedient that the said Act should be extended and further continued: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Penalty on Persons bringing glandered Horses, &c. into Market, or turning them

I. Any Person bringing or attempting to bring for Sale any Horse or other Animal into any Market, Fair, or other open or public Place where Animals are commonly exposed for Sale, knowing such Horse or other Animal to be infected with or labouring under the Disease called Glanders, and any Person turning turning out, keeping, or depasturing any Horse or other Animal infected with or labouring under any such Disease in or upon any Forest, Chase, Wood, Moor, Marsh, Heath, Common, Waste Land, Open Field, Road Side, or other undivided or uninclosed Land, shall on Conviction of any such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds; and the said Act shall be read and construed as if this Enactment were incorporated therein, and all the Provisions of the said Act with respect to the Penalties or Forfeitures thereby imposed, and the Recovery and Application thereof, shall be applicable accordingly.

II. The said Act as extended by this Act shall continue and be in force until the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, or if Parliament be then sitting until the End of the then Session of Parliament.

Recited Act continued until 1st Sept. 1856, and End of then Session.

C A P. LXIII.

An Act to repeal certain Stamp Duties, and to grant others in lieu thereof, to give Relief with respect to the Stamp Duties on Newspapers and Supplements thereto, to repeal the Duty on Advertisements, and otherwise to amend the Laws relating to Stamp Duties. [4th August 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the Stamp Duties now payable in respect of the several Instruments, Matters, and Things mentioned or described in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and to impose other Stamp Duties in lieu thereof, and also to give Relief with respect to the Stamp Duties on Newspapers and Supplements thereto, and otherwise to amend the Laws relating to Stamp Duties, and to repeal the Duty charged on Advertisements:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. From and after the passing of this Act the several Stamp Duties now payable in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament for, or in respect of the several Instruments, Matters, and Things mentioned or described in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and whereon other Duties are by this Act granted, shall respectively cease and determine, and shall be and the same are hereby repealed; and in lieu and instead thereof there shall be granted, raised, levied, collected, and paid in and throughout the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to and to the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, for and in respect of the several Instruments, Matters, and Things described or mentioned in the said Schedule, or for or in respect of the Vellum, Parchment, or Paper upon which any of them respectively shall be written, the several Duties or Sums of Money set down in Figures against the same respectively, or otherwise specified and set forth in the said Schedule, which said Schedule, and the several Provisions, Regulations, and Directions therein contained with respect to the said Duties, and the Instruments, Matters, and Things charged therewith, shall be deemed and taken to be Part of this Act, and shall be applied, observed, and put in execution accordingly: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to repeal or alter any of the said Stamp Duties now payable in relation to any Deed or Instrument which shall have been signed or executed by any Party thereto, or which shall bear Date before or upon the passing of this Act.

The new Duties to be denominated Stamp Duties, and to be under the Care of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

Powers and Provisions of former Acts to be in force.

II. The said Duties by this Act granted shall be denominated and deemed to be Stamp Duties, and shall be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue for the Time being; and all the Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Regulations, Directions, Allowances, and Exemptions, Fines, Forfeitures, Pains, and Penalties contained in or imposed by any Act or Acts, or any Schedule thereto, relating to any Duties of the same Kind or Description heretofore payable in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, and in force at the Time of the passing of this Act, shall respectively be in full Force and Effect with respect to the Duties by this Act granted, and to the Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, Instruments, Matters, and Things charged and chargeable therewith, and to the Persons liable to the Payment of the said Duties, so far as the same are or shall be applicable in all Cases not hereby expressly provided for, and shall be observed, applied, allowed, enforced, and put in execution for and in the raising, levying, collecting, and securing of the said Duties hereby granted, and otherwise in relation thereto, so far as the same shall not be superseded by, and shall be consistent with the express Provisions of this Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been herein repeated and specially enacted, mutatis mutandis, with reference to the said Duties by this Act granted.

As to Duties on Newspapers and Supplements.

III. No higher Stamp Duty than One Penny shall be chargeable on any Newspaper printed on One Sheet of Paper containing a Superficies not exceeding Two thousand two hundred and ninety-five Inches.

A Supplement published with any Newspaper duly stamped with the Duty of One Penny, such Supplement being printed on One Sheet of Paper only, and together with such Newspaper containing in the aggregate a Superficies not exceeding Two thousand two hundred and ninety-five inches, shall be free from Stamp Duty:

Any other Supplement to any such duly stamped Newspaper shall not be chargeable with any higher Stamp Duty than One Halfpenny, provided it does not contain a Superficies exceeding One thousand one hundred and forty-eight Inches:

And any Two Supplements to any such duly stamped Newspaper shall not be chargeable with any higher Stamp Duty than One Halfpenny on each, provided each of such Supplements be printed and published on One Sheet of Paper only, and that they contain together a Superficies not exceeding in the aggregate Two thousand two hundred and ninety-five Inches:

The Superficies in all the Cases aforesaid to be One Side only of the Sheet of Paper, and exclusive of the Margin of the Letter Press.

Allowance for Newspaper Stamps on hand.

IV. Where any Person shall be possessed of any Stamps for Newspapers rendered useless by this Act, it shall be lawful for the

the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, on Application to them or to their proper Officer in that Behalf, at any Time within Six Calendar Months after the Commencement of this Act, to cancel and make Allowance for the same, as in the Case of spoiled Stamps.

V. 'And whereas it is expedient to repeal the Duties now payable on Advertisements: From and after the passing of this Act the Duties now payable under any Act or Acts in force for or in respect of any Advertisement contained in or published with any Gazette or other Newspaper, or contained in or published with any other periodical Paper, or in or with any Pamphlet or literary Work, and all Enactments, Clauses, Provisions, and Regulations for levying, collecting, and securing the said Duties, but so far only as they relate to such Duties, shall respectively cease and determine, and shall be and the same are hereby repealed, save and except as to any of the said Duties which shall have been charged or incurred on or before the Day of the passing of this Act, and any Arrear thereof, and as to all Fines and Penalties incurred or which may be incurred in respect of the said Duties or Arrears, all which said Duties and Arrears, Fines and Penalties, so excepted as aforesaid, shall respectively be sued for, recovered, levied, paid, and applied in the same Manner as if this Act had not been passed.

After passing of this Act all Duties on Advertisements to cease.

VI. 'Whereas it is expedient to remove Doubts which have arisen as to the Stamp Duties chargeable upon Assignments of Judgment in Ireland; and it is also expedient to reduce the Stamp Duties now chargeable in Scotland upon Writs of Acknowledgment by Persons infest of Lands in favour of the Heirs or Disponees of Creditors: In lieu of the Stamp Duties now payable upon the Instruments herein-after mentioned there shall be chargeable (besides any progressive Duties to which the same respectively may be liable by reference to the Head of Progressive Duty in the Schedule to the Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Ninety-seven,) the respective Stamp Duties following; (that is to say,)

Duties on Assignments of Judgment in Ireland, and Writs of Acknowledgment in Scotland.

For and upon every Assignment of any Judgment in Ireland,
One Pound Fifteen Shillings:

And for and upon any Writ of Acknowledgment by any Person infest of Lands in Scotland in favour of the Heir or Disponee of a Creditor fully vested in right of an heritable Security constituted by Infestment, Ten Shillings.

VII. 'And whereas under and by virtue of certain Acts of Parliament now in force the Governor and Company of the Bank of Scotland, and the Royal Bank of Scotland, and the British Linen Company in Scotland are respectively authorized and empowered to make and issue and re-issue their Promissory Notes payable to Bearer on Demand on unstamped Paper, giving Security, and keeping and producing true Accounts of all the Notes so issued by them respectively, and accounting for and paying the Stamp Duties payable in respect of such Notes: And whereas it is expedient to authorize and empower the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to compound with the said Banks, as well as all Bankers in Scotland, for the Power to Treasury to compound with Bankers in Scotland for the Stamp Duties on their Promissory Notes.

' Stamp Duties on their Promissory Notes payable to Bearer on Demand, as well as for Stamps payable on their Bills of Exchange.' It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three of them, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to compound and agree with the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Scotland, and the Royal Bank of Scotland, and the British Linen Company in Scotland, and all or any other Bankers in Scotland, or elsewhere, respectively, for a Composition in lieu of the Stamp Duties payable on the Promissory Notes of the said Banks and Bankers respectively payable to the Bearer on Demand, as well as for Stamps payable on their Bills of Exchange; and such Composition shall be made on such Terms and Conditions, and with such Security for the Payment of the same, and for keeping, producing, and rendering of such Accounts, as the said last-mentioned Commissioners may deem to be proper in that Behalf; and upon such Composition being entered into by such Banks and Bankers respectively it shall be lawful for them to issue and re-issue all Notes and to draw all such Bills for which such Composition shall have been made on unstamped Paper, anything in any Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Stamp Duty on Scrip Certificates.

VIII. From and after the passing of this Act the following Stamp Duty shall be charged and paid; (that is to say,)

On any Scrip Certificate, that is to say, any Document denoting or intended to denote the Right or Title of the Holder thereof or any Person to any Share or Shares in any Joint Stock or other Company, or proposed or intended Company, or any Certificate declaring or entitling the Holder thereof or any Person to be or become the Proprietor of any Share or Shares of or in any such Company, where such Certificate or the Right or Title to such Share or Shares shall be or be intended to be transferable by the Delivery of such Certificate, or otherwise than by Deed or Instrument in Writing - - - - - £ s. d.

An Act for continuing and amending the Act for facilitating the Sale and Transfer of Incumbered Estates in Ireland.

[15th August 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act further to facilitate the Sale and Transfer of Incumbered Estates in Ireland : And whereas under the Provisions of the said Act certain Commissioners were duly appointed during Her Majesty’s Pleasure for the Execution of the said Act : And whereas it is expedient to amend

' amend the said Act in certain Particulars, and to continue the Powers of the said Commissioners for the further Term herein-after mentioned : ' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

I. Where Application has been made under the said Act, or shall hereafter be made under the said Act and this Act, or either of them, for a Sale of any Land or of any Lease within Sections Sixteen and Seventeen of the said Act, and all or any of the Incumbrances affecting such Land or Lease also affects any Lease of Land in Ireland not within the said Sections Sixteen and Seventeen of the said Act, Application may be made for Sale of such last-mentioned Lease ; and the Jurisdiction and Powers of the Commissioners and all the Provisions of the said Act shall extend and be applicable to such last-mentioned Lease in like Manner as in the Case of a Lease within the said Sections Sixteen and Seventeen of the said Act.

Where Incumbrance affects any Land or Lease subject to be sold also affects a Lease not so subject, Commissioners Jurisdiction to extend to such Lease.

II. The Twenty-second Section of the said recited Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed, and in lieu thereof be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall not make an Order for Sale of any Land or Lease, or any Part thereof, upon Application by an Incumbrancer on such Land or Lease, in case it be shown to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners by the Owner of such Land or Lease that no Part of such Land or Lease is subject to any Receiver, or in the Possession of any Incumbrancer, and that the Amount of the yearly Interest on the Incumbrances, and other yearly Payments (if any) in respect of Charges payable out of the Income of such Land or Lease and the other Lands or Leases (if any) subject to the Incumbrance of such Incumbrancer, do not exceed One Half of the net yearly Income (after the Payment of all Tithe Rentcharge, such Part of the County Cess and Poor's Rate as is payable by the Owner, and all Crown, Quit, and Head Rent) of such Land or Lease, or of all the Lands or Leases so subject: Provided always, that the Decision of the said Commissioners thereupon shall in all Cases, so far as relates to the Power and Jurisdiction of the Commissioners over such Land or Lease, be final and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

The 22d Section of recited Act repealed, and other Provisions made in lieu thereof.

III. Where the Commissioners have ordered or shall order the Sale of any Lease in perpetuity, they may, if they shall think it expedient so to do, cause Notice to be given to the Owner or other Persons interested in the Reversion or any Person on behalf of such Owner or other Persons, and may thereupon proceed to convert such Lease in perpetuity into a Fee-farm Grant, according to the Principles prescribed in the Renewable Leasehold Conversion Act, but their Procedure in relation thereto shall be according to the general Rules and Practice of the Court of the said Commissioners, and in case such Conversion shall be ordered they shall have Power to convey the Land included in such Lease to the Purchaser in Fee, subject to the Fee-farm Rent ascertained as aforesaid, and to such Exceptions, Reversions, Covenants, and Clauses as shall be in conformity with the original Lease, and the Provisions of the Renewable Leasehold Conversion Act, and thereupon the Owner for the Time being shall have the same Rights and Remedies against the Purchaser, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, and against the Land, by Action, Distress, Entry, or otherwise, in respect of such Rent, and of any Exceptions, Reservations, Covenants, and Clauses contained in the said Deed, as belong by Law to the Owner of any Fee-farm Rent created under the said Acts.

Where a Lease in perpetuity is ordered to be sold, the Commissioners may convert it into a Fee-farm Grant.

Where a Grant amounts to an Assignment of a Lease the Rent reserved to be within Sections 16 and 17 of recited Act.

IV. Where any Instrument purporting to be a Demise or Lease or any other Grant or Assurance reserving Rent, executed or made by any Person entitled under any Lease of Land, is, in Construction of Law, an Assignment of such Lease, Sections Sixteen and Seventeen of the said recited Act, and all other the Provisions of the said Act and this Act, which would, in case such Instrument, Grant, or Assurance had passed less than the whole Term or Estate created by such Lease, have been applicable to or in respect of the Reversion created under such Instrument, Grant, or Assurance, shall extend and apply and shall be deemed to have extended and applied to and in respect of the Rent thereby reserved, and all Rights and Interests thereunder vested in Grantor or Assignor, in like Manner as such Provisions would have been applicable to or in respect of such Reversion.

Where Conveyance is made subject to a Lease, it shall not be necessary in pleading to allege prior Title to Reversion.

V. Where any Conveyance or Assignment has been made before the passing of this Act, or shall hereafter be made, by the Commissioners, subject to any Lease, Under-lease, or Tenancy, such Conveyance or Assignment shall be deemed to afford conclusive Proof that the Estate or Interest purporting to be conveyed or assigned thereby is the Reversion expectant upon such Lease, Under-lease, or Tenancy, and it shall not be necessary, in any Action arising out of or connected with such Lease, Under-lease, or Tenancy, or in any Pleadings in such Action, to allege or prove the Title of such Reversion prior to the said Conveyance or Assignment, and the Person to whom such Conveyance or Assignment is made, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, and every of them, shall and may have and enjoy like Advantages against the Lessees, Under-lessees, and Tenants, their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, Assigns, and Under-tenants, and against all other Persons, in possession or occupation of the Land comprised in such Conveyance or Assignment, by Distress or by Entry for Nonpayment of Rent or for doing of Waste, or other Forfeiture, and also shall and may have and enjoy like Advantages and Remedies by Action for not performing other Conditions, Covenants, and Agreements contained in such Lease or Under-lease, or in the parol Agreement for such Tenancy, against the said Lessees, Under-lessees, and Tenants, their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, as the Person granting such Lease or Under-lease or as the Landlord entering into the Agreement for such Tenancy, or his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, ought to have had and enjoyed at any Time or Times, in like Manner and Form as if the Reversion in such Land expectant on such Lease, Under-lease, and Tenancy had remained or continued in such Person granting such Lease or Under-lease, or as Landlord entering into such Agreement.

VI. Where

VI. Where there is or shall be an Application to the Commissioners for the Sale of any undivided Share of any Land or Lease it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, where they shall see fit so to do, upon the Application of the Owner of any other undivided Share or Shares of the same Land or Lease (and although such other undivided Share be not subject to any Incumbrance), or on the Application of any Incumbrancer on such other undivided Share or Shares, to include the same Share or Shares, upon such Terms as they shall see fit, with the Share so proposed to be sold as aforesaid, and in every such Case the Commissioners shall apportion the Purchase Money among the Owners according to their respective Shares so sold, and shall apportion the Expenses as they may see fit.

Power to consolidate Sale of different undivided Shares.

VII. The Thirty-seventh Section of the said recited Act shall apply and be deemed to have at all Times applied to any Rent reserved upon a Lease, where the Commissioners shall have sold or shall sell the whole Reversion expectant upon such Lease at different Times or in different Lots.

Clause explanatory of Section 37 of recited Act.

VIII. The Commissioners shall have Power upon any Application for Sale, whether now pending before them or to be hereafter made, to sell and convey any Land, subject to any Right, Title, or Estate to or in Dower.

Sale may be had, subject to Dower.

IX. Where a Sale is made by the Commissioners under the said Act or this Act of any Land or Lease, it shall be lawful for them, whenever it shall appear to them convenient so to do, to include in such Sale all or any Part of the Arrears of Rent, if any, which may at the Time of the Sale be owing from any Lessees or Tenants, subject to whose Leases or Tenancies the Sale is to be made, where such Arrears are subject to any Incumbrance in respect of which an Incumbrancer shall have obtained an Order for Sale, or where the Order for Sale has been obtained by the Owner, and in the Conveyance or Assignment of such Land or Lease to assign such Arrears to the Purchaser accordingly; and such Purchaser, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall, after such Assignment of the said Arrears, have for the Recovery and in respect of the Nonpayment thereof the same Rights and Remedies which the Person or Persons who would have been entitled to such Arrears would have possessed if no such Assignment thereof nor any Conveyance or Assignment of such Land or Lease had been made.

Commissioners may include Arrears of Rent in a Sale.

X. All General Rules or Orders heretofore made by the Commissioners shall apply and have reference to the Provisions of this Act as well as to those of the said recited Act; and that in the Construction of this Act the Words and Phrases to which a particular or extended Meaning is assigned by the Fifty-fourth Section of the said recited Act shall when used in this Act be understood to bear such particular or extended Meaning, except where the Context requires a different Construction; and that in the Construction of the said recited Act the Word "Lease" shall include and shall be deemed to have included any Term created by way of Use, as well as any Term created by way of Demise at Common Law, so as such Term be or have become a Term in gross.

As to Reference of General Rules, and Construction of Act.

XI. The

Limitation of Office of Commissioners, &c., and of Applications and Orders and Proceedings.

15 & 16 Vict. c. 67.

Costs of Petitioner for Sale shall not be paid out of Proceeds, otherwise than in same Order as Incumbrance shall be payable.

XI. The Fifth Section of the said Act, whereby it is enacted that no Commissioner, Secretary, or other Officer should hold his Office for a longer Period than is therein mentioned, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and every such Commissioner, Secretary, or other Officer may hold his Office for a Term not exceeding Four Years from the passing of this Act, and thenceforth until the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and all Applications which under the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Sections of the said Act, or under this Act, might be made to the said Commissioners within Three Years from the passing of the said Act, and which under the Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to continue the Powers of applying for a Sale of Lands under the Act for facilitating the Sale and Transfer of Incumbered Estates in Ireland, may now be made within Four Years from the passing of the said first-mentioned Act, may be made within Two Years from the Twenty-eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three; and all Orders and Proceedings by the said Acts or by this Act authorized, and which might be made, had, or taken upon any Application made within the said Period of Four Years, may be made, had, and taken within the further Period authorized by this Act.

XII. In the Case of any Petition for a Sale presented after the passing of this Act, the Costs of the Petitioner in respect of such Petition and of any Proceedings thereunder shall not (unless the Commissioners shall otherwise direct) be payable out of the Proceeds of the Sale otherwise than in the same Order of Priority in which the Incumbrance of the Petitioner shall be payable, anything in the said recited Acts, or any Rule or Practice of the Commissioners, to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. LXVII.

An Act for the better Regulation of Public Houses in Scot- land.

[15th August 1853.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled ‘ An Act to regulate the granting of Certificates by Justices of the Peace and Magistrates, authorizing Persons to keep Common Inns, Alehouses, and Victualling Houses in Scotland, in which Ale, Beer, Spirits, Wine, and other exciseable Liquors may be sold by Retail under Excise Licences ; and for the better Regulation of such Houses ; and for the Prevention of such Houses being kept without such Certificate : And whereas in Scotland great Evils have been found to arise from the granting of Certificates for Spirits, Wine, and exciseable Liquors, to be drunk or consumed on the Premises, to Dealers in Provisions and other such Commodities ; and it is expedient that a Remedy be applied to such Evils, and that further Provision be made for the regulating of Public Houses in Scotland :’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

9 G. 4. c. 58.

I. It

No Certificate to be granted unless with express Condition that no Groceries be sold on the Premises.

Grocers may obtain Certificates for the Sale of Porter, Spirits, &c. by Retail.

Certain Provision of 6 G. 4. c. 81., so far as regards granting Licences in Scotland, repealed.

Certificate to be granted under 9 G. 4. c. 58. to contain Conditions that no Porter, &c. be sold by

I. It shall not be lawful to the Justices of the Peace for any County or District nor to the Magistrates of any Royal Burgh in Scotland, whether acting under the said recited Act or this Act, to grant any Certificate for Spirits, Wine, or exciseable Liquors to be drunk or consumed on the Premises, in Terms of the said recited Act, with respect to any House or Premises not previously licensed, unless on the express Condition that no Groceries or other Provisions to be consumed elsewhere shall be sold in the House or Premises with respect to which such Certificate is granted within the Period to which such Certificate applies; and from and after the Term of Whitsunday next ensuing from the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful to such Justices or Magistrates to grant any Certificate, in Terms of the said recited Act, with respect to any House or Premises, whether previously licensed under the said recited Act or not, unless on the express Condition aforesaid.

II. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall prevent any Person or Persons obtaining a Certificate as a Grocer, according to the Schedule to this Act annexed, for the Sale of Porter, Ale, Beer, Cyder, or Perry, or Wines, Spirits, and other exciseable Liquors, by Retail, but not to be consumed on the Premises, at the same Rate as is exigible for a Certificate for a Public House.

III. ' And whereas by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the ' Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to repeal ' several Duties payable on Excise Licences in Great Britain and ' Ireland, and to impose other Duties in lieu thereof, and to amend ' the Laws for granting Excise Licences, it is enacted, that no ' Licence for the Sale of any Spirits or Foreign Wine, or Sweets ' or Made Wines, or Mead or Metheglin, by Retail, to be drunk ' or consumed in or upon the House or Premises where sold, shall ' be granted to any Person or Persons who shall not have and ' produce a Licence for the Sale of Beer, Cyder, or Perry, by ' Retail, to be drunk or consumed in or upon such House or ' Premises, in that Behalf granted; and if any Licence for the ' Sale of any Spirits or Foreign Wine, or Sweets or Made Wines, ' or Mead or Metheglin, by Retail, to be drunk or consumed in ' or upon the House or Premises where sold, shall be granted ' to any Person or Persons other than as aforesaid, such Licence ' shall be and is thereby declared to be absolutely null and void ' to all Intents and Purposes, and all and every such Person or ' Persons as aforesaid shall be subject and liable to all and every ' Penalty and Penalties imposed upon Persons selling Spirits or ' Foreign Wines, or Sweets or Made Wines, or Mead or Metheglin, ' by Retail, without Licence.' Be it enacted, That the said recited Enactment, so far as regards any such Licence as aforesaid to be granted in Scotland after the passing of this Act, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

IV. Every Certificate to be granted in Terms of the said recited Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth shall be granted under the express Condition that (unless by virtue of a separate Certificate) no Porter, Ale, Beer, Cyder, or Perry shall be sold by Retail in the House or Premises with respect to which such Certificate is granted, within the Period to which which such Certificate applies, or otherwise that (unless by virtue of a separate Certificate) no Spirits, Wine, or exciseable Liquors, other than Porter, Ale, Beer, Cyder, or Perry, shall be sold by Retail in such House or Premises to be consumed therein within such Period; and no One Certificate shall be granted having the Effect of enabling a Party to obtain a Licence to sell by Retail, in any Houses or Premises, to be consumed therein, not only Porter, Ale, Beer, Cyder, or Perry, but also Spirits, Wine, and other exciseable Liquors.

V. It shall not be lawful to the Justices of the Peace for any County or District, or the Magistrates of any Burgh, to grant any Certificate, in Terms of the said recited Act and this Act, for the Sale of any Spirits, Wine, Porter, Beer, Cyder, Perry, or other exciseable Liquors to be drunk on the Premises, with respect to any House or Premises not previously licensed, until a written Report shall have been made by a Justice of the Peace for such County or District, or a Magistrate of such Burgh, such Justice or Magistrate being entitled to grant a Certificate, that the same are suitable and proper to be licensed, in Terms of the Certificate applied for, and setting forth the Name of the Owner of such House, accompanied with a Certificate as to the Applicant's Character and Qualification, signed by Two Justices of the Peace, or Two Magistrates of such Borough.

VI. From and after Whitsunday One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four it shall not be lawful for the Justices of the Peace for any Shire or Stewartry, or the Magistrates of any Royal Burgh, to grant to any Blacksmith at his Smithy, or at any House occupied by him in the immediate Vicinity of the same, or to any Tacksman of Tolls, or Toll-gatherer, or to any Person occupying a House not hitherto licensed to sell exciseable Liquors situated at or near to any Toll Bar in Scotland, any Certificate to sell Wine, Beer, Spirits, or other exciseable Liquors, anything in any Act of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding, unless such Toll be situated more than Six Miles from any other House licensed to sell exciseable Liquors within the same County.

VII. No Licence for the Sale of any Spirits, Wine, Porter, Ale, Beer, Cyder, Perry, or other exciseable Liquors, by Retail, to be drunk or consumed on the Premises of the Person licensed, shall be granted by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, or by any Officer of Excise, to any Person in Scotland who shall not produce to the said Commissioners or Officer a Certificate, granted in Terms of the said recited Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth and of this Act, enabling the Party to obtain such Licence; and every such Licence which shall be granted without the Authority or contrary to the Terms of a Certificate in that Behalf shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes.

VIII. In lieu of the present Licences charged for the Sale of Beer and Spirits in Scotland, the following Licences shall be charged:

DUTIES.

Every Person who shall be duly authorized by the Justices of the Peace to keep an Inn, and who shall sell Beer, Cyder, or Perry by Retail (whether Provisions of former Acts in relation to Excise Licences to be applied to the Duties and Licences under this Act.

IX. The said Duties by this Act granted and made payable on such Licences as aforesaid shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and shall be charged, raised, levied, collected, paid, and applied in such and the like Manner as other Duties of Excise on Licences may by or under any Act or Acts in force be charged, raised, levied, collected, paid, and applied; and all and every the Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Regulations, Fines, Forfeitures, and Penalties contained in or imposed by any such Act or Acts as aforesaid, in relation to any other Duties of Excise on Licences, shall, so far as the same are consistent with the express Provision of this Act, and are not hereby repealed, be practised and put in execution in relation to the said Duties hereby granted, as fully and effectually as if the same were repeated and re-enacted by this Act in reference to the said last-mentioned Duties.

Not to alter or affect existing Licence Duties, or the Liability of Parties to take out such Licences.

X. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to repeal, alter, or affect any Duty or Duties payable under any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act, for or upon any Licence to be taken out for the dealing in or retailing of Wine or Spirits or Beer or any other exciseable Liquors in any Part of the United Kingdom, Kingdom, or the Liability of any Person under any such Act or Acts as aforesaid to take out any such Licence, or his or her Liability to any Fine or Penalty for omitting to take out the same.

XI. The Forms of Certificate contained in the Schedule to this Act annexed shall come in place of the Form of Certificate provided by the said recited Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth; and it shall not be lawful to the Justices of the Peace for any County or District, or to the Magistrates of any Burgh in Scotland, whether acting under the said recited Act or this Act, from and after the passing of this Act, to grant any Certificates in any other Forms than those contained in the said Schedule; but it shall be lawful to such Justices or Magistrates to grant Certificates in any of the Forms contained in the said Schedule according to the Circumstances of such Case; and the Penalties provided by the said recited Act for Contraventions of or Offence against the Terms, Provisions, and Conditions of Certificates, and the Recovery and Application thereof, and all Provisions of the said recited Act relating to the Terms, Provisions, and Conditions of Certificates, shall apply to Certificates granted under this Act: Provided always, that in Localities requiring other Hours for opening and closing Public Houses, Inns, and Hotels than those contained in the said Schedule, it shall be lawful for such Justices or Magistrates to insert in the said Schedule such other Hours, not being earlier than Six o'Clock or later than Eight o'Clock in the Morning for opening, or earlier than Nine o'Clock or later than Eleven o'Clock in the Evening for closing the same, as they shall think fit.

Form of Certificate.

XII. If any Certificate shall be granted contrary to the Provisions of this Act the same shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes.

Certificates contrary to Act null and void.

XIII. 'And whereas under and by virtue of the said recited Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth all Excise Licences taken out by any Person or Persons who shall be duly authorized by Justices of the Peace to keep a Common Inn, Alehouse, or Victualling House, and who shall take out a Licence for selling Beer, Cyder, or Perry by Retail, to be drunk or consumed in the House or Premises, or for selling Spirits or Foreign Wine, or Mead or Metheglin, are made to expire on the Tenth Day of October in each Year: And whereas it is expedient that all such Licences as aforesaid to be taken out in Scotland should be made to expire at the Term of Whitsunday, being the Period of the Year when the Certificates under which the same are granted will also expire: Be it therefore enacted, That all such Licences as aforesaid which shall be taken out in Scotland after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and before the Term of Whitsunday One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, shall be made to expire at the latter Term, and shall be granted respectively, upon Payment of a proportionate Part of the annual Duty chargeable thereon, from the Day of the Date to the Day of the Expiration thereof; and every such Licence which shall be taken out in Scotland at any Time after Whitsunday One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four shall expire at Whitsunday next after the granting thereof, anything in the said recited Act of the Sixth Year

Excise Licences taken out after 10th Oct. 1853 to retail excisable Liquors to expire at Whitsunday 1854.

Licences taken out after Whitsunday 1854 to expire at Whitsunday next following.

Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth or in any other Act contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Power to Police to enter Public Houses.

XIV. It shall be lawful for any Police Officer or Constable at any Time to enter into any Public House, or any House where Refreshments are sold to be consumed on the Premises; and any Person who refuses to admit or shall not admit such Police Officer or Constable into such Public House or House where Refreshments are sold as aforesaid, or shall offer Obstruction to his Admission thereto, shall be deemed guilty of an Offence; and every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Penalties herein-after mentioned, that is to say, for the First Offence the Sum of Five Pounds, with the Expenses of Conviction, and in case such Penalty and Expenses shall not be paid within the Space of Fourteen Days next after such Conviction shall have taken place, the Offender shall be imprisoned for a Period of One Calendar Month unless he shall sooner pay such Penalty and Expenses; and for the Second and every subsequent Offence, the Offender shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds, with the Expenses of Conviction; and in case such Penalty and Expenses shall not be paid within the Space of Fourteen Days next after such Second or subsequent Conviction shall have taken place, then the Offender shall be imprisoned for a Period of Two Calendar Months, unless he shall sooner pay such Penalty and Expenses; and it is hereby provided and declared, that the several Penalties and Terms of Imprisonment may be mitigated by the Court; provided always, that by such Mitigation such Penalties and Terms of Imprisonment respectively shall not be reduced to less than One Fourth thereof.

Penalty.

Penalty on Persons bartering or selling Spirits without having obtained a Certificate.

XV. Every Person bartering or selling Spirits without having obtained a Certificate, and every Dealer in Groceries or other Provisions to be consumed elsewhere than on the Premises supplying, whether gratuitously or otherwise, Spirits to be consumed on the Premises, shall be deemed guilty of an Offence, and shall for such Offence forfeit and pay the Penalties provided in the Thirtieth Section of the said recited Act of the Ninth Year of King George the Fourth, and upon Default of Payment thereof as therein mentioned, be imprisoned as therein provided: Provided always, that any Person who shall have been Three Times convicted of any Offence against this Act shall be incapable of holding a Licence for the Sale of exciseable Liquors in all Time coming; and provided also, that every Person who shall be convicted of bartering or selling Spirits without having obtained a Certificate shall, in default of immediate Payment of the Penalty imposed upon him for such Offence, be liable, in the Discretion of the Sheriff, Bailie, or Justices by whom he shall be so convicted, to be immediately imprisoned as prescribed by the said Thirtieth Section of the said recited Act in the Case of Default of Payment within Four Days after Conviction.

Offences to be tried, &c. under Provisions of Act 9 G. 4.
c. 58.

XVI. Every Offence committed against this Act shall be tried and determined, and all Penalties incurred under the Authority of this Act shall be recovered and applied, in the Manner and before the Courts, and subject to the Conditions provided in the said recited Act of the Ninth Year of King George the Fourth; but in the Case of any Person complained against for bartering or selling

elling Spirits without having obtained a Certificate, it shall be lawful for the Sheriff, Bailie or Justices to or before whom such Complaint shall have been made, instead of granting a Warrant to the Officers of Court to summon the Person complained against to appear to attend the Hearing of such Complaint, to grant Warrant or the Apprehension of such Person, and after such Apprehension to inquire into the Truth of the Allegations in such Complaint, and otherwise to proceed under such Complaint as if such Person had appeared under such a Summons.

XVII. In this Act the following Words and Expressions shall have the several Meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction ; that is to say,

Interpretation

The Writ for any Election hereafter to be directed to the Sheriff of any County in England or Wales (other than the County of a City or of a Town) shall require such Sheriff to cause Election to be made of a Knight or Knights to serve in Parliament or such County, and for any Riding, Parts, or Division thereof only, and not further or otherwise; the Writ for making any Election of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament for the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, and for every Borough, Town Corporate, Port, or Place returning Members to serve in Parliament in England and Wales, shall hereafter be directed to the Vice Chancellors of the said Universities, and to the Returning Officers of such Boroughs, Towns Corporate, Ports, and Places respectively, and such Vice Chancellors and Returning Officers shall thereupon in due Course of Law proceed to Election, and after such Election certify the same, together with the Writ, according to the Directions thereof; all such Writs hereafter to be issued, and all Mandates, Precepts, Instruments, Proceedings, and Notices consequent upon such Writs, shall be and the same are hereby authorized to be framed and expressed in such Manner and Form as may be necessary for carrying the Provisions of this Act into effect.

Sheriffs to make Election for their Counties only.

Writs for Election in Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, &c. to be directed to the Returning Officers thereof

Writs, &c. to be made conformable to this Act.

II. Whereas by the Fourth Section of the Act of the Twenty-fifth George the Third, Chapter Eighty-four, it is provided, that immediately after the Receipt of the Writ for making any Election of a Knight or Knights to serve in Parliament for any County or Shire in England or Wales, and endorsing on the back thereof the Day of receiving the same, as by Law required, it should and might be lawful for the Sheriff of such County and he is thereby required, within Two Days after the Receipt thereof, to cause Proclamation to be made at the Place where the ensuing Election ought by Law to be holden of a Special County Court to be there holden for the Purpose of such Election only on any Day (Sunday excepted) not later from the Day of making such Proclamation than the Sixteenth Day nor sooner than the Tenth Day: And whereas it is expedient to limit the Time for proceeding to such Elections: Be it therefore enacted, That hereafter any such Special County Court for the Purpose of the Election of a Knight or Knights to serve in Parliament for any County, Riding, Parts, or Division of any County in England or Wales shall be holden on any Day (Sunday, Good Friday, and Christmas Day excepted) not later from the Day of making such Proclamation than the Twelfth Day nor sooner than the Sixth Day; provided that this Section shall not apply to the Election for any County of a City or of a Town.

Elections in Counties to be not later than the Twelfth nor sooner than the Sixth Day after the Sheriff's Proclamations.

III. That the Act of the Third and Fourth Victoria, Chapter Eighty-one, be and the same is hereby repealed, and in every City or Town being a County of itself, and in every Borough, Town Corporate, Port, or Place, returning or contributing to return a Member or Members to serve in Parliament in England and Wales, the Officer to whom the Duty of giving Notice for the Elections in Cities, &c. to be within Six Days after Receipt of Writ, 3 Days Notice being given.

Election of such Member or Members belongs shall proceed to Election within Six Days after the Receipt of the Writ or Precept, giving Three clear Days Notice at least of the Day of Election, exclusive of the Day of Proclamation and the Day of Election.

Polling at the Universities to continue Five Days only.

IV. At any Election of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament for either of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge the Polling shall not continue for more than Five Days at the most, Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, and Ascension Day being excluded.

Vice Chancellors to appoint additional Polling Places, and appoint Pro Vice Chancellors, &c. for conducting the Poll.

V. At every such Election the Vice Chancellor shall have Power to appoint any Number of Polling Places not exceeding Three, in addition to the House of Convocation or Senate House, and to direct at which of such Polling Places the Members of Convocation and of the Senate according to their Colleges shall vote, and also to appoint any Number of Pro Vice Chancellors, any one of whom may receive the Votes and decide upon all Questions during the Absence of such Vice Chancellor; and such Vice Chancellor shall have Power to appoint any Number of Poll Clerks and other Officers, by One or more of whom the Votes shall be entered in such Number of Poll Books as shall be judged necessary by such Vice Chancellor.

Polls not to be taken at Inns, &c. without Consent of all the Candidates.

VI. No Poll at any Election for Members of Parliament in England and Wales shall be taken at any Inn, Hotel, Tavern, Public House, or other Premises licensed for the Sale of Beer, Wine, or Spirits, or in any Booth, Hall, Room, or other Place directly communicating therewith, unless by Consent of all the Candidates expressed in Writing.

Power for Her Majesty, on Petition of Justices, to direct that Polling Places in Counties shall cease to be such, and that other Places be substituted in lieu thereof.

VII. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the Advice of Her Privy Council from Time to Time hereafter, on Petition from the Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled of any County, Riding, Parts, or Division of any County, other than any County of a City or of a Town, in England and Wales, representing that it would be expedient that any Polling Place or Places mentioned in the said Petition should cease to be such, and that any other Place or Places mentioned in the said Petition should be substituted in lieu thereof, and praying that such Alteration and Substitution might be made, to declare that the said Alteration and Substitution shall be made in respect of all or any of the Places mentioned in the said Petition; and the said Declaration shall be certified under the Hand of One of the Clerks in Ordinary of Her Majesty's Privy Council, and when so certified shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall then be of the same Force and Effect as if the same had been expressly made by the Authority of Parliament.

Proceedings upon the said Petition to be as provided by s. 2. of 6 & 7 W. 4 c. 102.

VIII. Provided always, That the Notice of and Proceedings to be had upon any such Petition shall be according to the Provisions of the Second Section of the One hundred and second Chapter of the Statute of the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth in respect of the Petition therein mentioned.

C A P. LXIX.

An Act to make better Provision concerning the Entry and Service of Seamen, and otherwise to amend the Laws concerning Her Majesty's Navy. [15th August 1853.]

WHEREAS by an Act of the Session holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Twenty-four, it was enacted, that no Person should be liable to be detained against his Consent in the Naval Service of His Majesty for a longer Period than Five Years, to be computed from the Day of his being entered into the same, unless he should have voluntarily entered for a longer Term, and except as therein-after provided, and Provisions are therein contained having reference to such Term of Five Years: And whereas by an Act of the Session holden in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty, it was enacted, that every Boy who, when under the Age of Sixteen Years, should enter the Service of Her Majesty's Navy, should be liable to be detained in the said Service for any Period not exceeding Seven Years, to be computed from the Day of his being entered into the same: And whereas by an Order made by Her Majesty in Council on the First Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three Her Majesty has been pleased, by and with the Advice of Her Privy Council, to approve Recommendations of the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Encouragement of Men entering the Navy for continuous and general Service, and Regulations have been and may be issued by the said Commissioners of the Admiralty offering increased Rates of Pay and other Advantages to Men entering the Navy for Ten Years continuous and general Service, or re-entering for continuous and general Service for such a Term as with such Time as may be allowed in respect of their previous Service will make up a Term of Ten Years or thereabouts, and for the Benefit of Boys entering Her Majesty's Navy: And whereas it is expedient to make Provision concerning the Service of the Persons who may be entitled to the Benefits of the said Regulations, and to extend the Period of Service of Boys hereafter entering the Navy, and otherwise to amend the Law concerning the Manning and Discipline of the Navy: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

1. Where, under the Regulations or Directions of the Lord High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, Men willing so to enter or re-enter into the Naval Service of Her Majesty have already been or may hereafter be entered or re-entered for Ten Years continuous and general Service, or entered or re-entered for such other Term of continuous and general Service as under such Regulations or Directions may be authorized, such Men shall be liable to serve accordingly; and all the Provisions of the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth, as amended by this Act, shall extend

10 & 11 Vict.
c. 30.5 & 6 W. 4. c. 24.
as amended by this Act, to extend to Men entering for 10 Years, or any other Term of continuous and general Service.

to every such Man as if the Term for which he has already been or may hereafter be so entered or re-entered were throughout substituted for the Term of Five Years.

Repeal of 10 & 11 Vict.
c. 30,

Provision as to Boys hereafter entering into the Naval Service of Her Majesty.

II. The said Act of the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty shall be repealed; and every Boy hereafter entering when under the Age of Eighteen Years into the Naval Service of Her Majesty shall be entered and liable to serve until he attain the Age of Twenty-eight Years; and every Person who, when of the Age of Eighteen Years or upwards, shall be hereafter entered into such Naval Service as a Boy, shall be entered for Ten Years continuous and general Service from the Time of his entering, and shall be liable to serve accordingly; and the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth, as amended by this Act, shall be applicable to every such Boy as if the Term for which he shall be liable to serve were throughout substituted therein for Five Years; and the Statement by any Boy of his Age at the Time of his entering as aforesaid shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be conclusive Evidence of his Age at that Time.

As to Grant of Extra Pay to Men detained in Service in Cases of Emergency.

III. So much of the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth as provides that every Person detained in the Service in consequence of any special Emergency after the Expiration of his Period of Service shall be entitled to receive for such extra Service One Fourth in addition to the Pay of his Rating, shall be repealed; and every such Person so detained shall be entitled to receive for such extra Service Twopence a Day in addition to the Pay of his Rating.

S.ct. 4. of 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 24.
repealed.

Persons entering the Navy to be entitled to such Bounty as may be fixed by Royal Proclamation, &c.

IV. The Fourth Section of the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth, entitling to Double Bounty Seamen, seafaring Men, and other Persons entering the Navy within the Time and in manner therein mentioned, after the Issue of any Royal Proclamation calling for the Services of seafaring Men, shall be repealed; and all Persons entering or re-entering the Navy after the issuing of any such Proclamation (whether general or restricted as herein-after mentioned,) shall be entitled to such Bounty or respective Bounties according to their Classes, as may be offered by such Proclamation, with such Increase, if any, as Her Majesty may in the Case of all or any such Persons think fit to direct, in respect of their entering within such Times or in such Manner as in such Proclamation may be in that Behalf appointed.

Sections 5 and 6.
of 5 & 6 W. 4.
c. 24. repealed.

V. The Fifth and Sixth Section of the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth, requiring the Service for a Period of Five Years, in case their Services should be so long required, of the Seamen serving on board the Fleet in case of such Proclamation as therein mentioned, and fixing the Bounty to be paid in consideration of such Service, and the Sixth Section of the said Act, concerning the re-entering of Persons whose Period of Service shall expire when any such Proclamation shall be in force, shall be repealed.

Not to affect Rights of Persons now serving.

VI. Provided always, That nothing herein-before contained shall affect the Rights or Liabilities under the said Acts of the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth and Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty incident to or consequent upon the existing Terms of Service of the Persons now serving in the Navy, except such Persons as may have entered under the Regulations for continuous and general Service, or may have become or may hereafter become entitled to the Benefit of such Regulations.

VII. Any Proclamation of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, calling for the Services of seafaring Men, either during the Time of Peace or War, shall, at the Pleasure of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, apply to all seafaring Men, or be restricted to any particular Class or Classes of seafaring Men, either according to their Ages, the Numbers of their Register Tickets, or otherwise; and every such restricted Proclamation shall be as valid and effectual in Law as any such Proclamation calling for the Services of all seafaring Men, and as to the Men within such Class or Classes shall and may be enforced accordingly.

VIII. When any such restricted Proclamation shall have reference to Ages it shall be incumbent on any seafaring Man claiming in respect of Age not to be within such Proclamation to prove his Age by the Production of his Register Ticket, or other Evidence.

IX. In case Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, shall by Proclamation call upon the Seamen or any Class or Classes of Seamen serving in Her Majesty's Navy, or such of them as may be required so to do, to extend the Term of their Services, any Seaman to whom such Proclamation shall extend, and whose Term of Service shall have expired at the Date of such Proclamation, or may expire while such Proclamation shall continue in force, may be required to serve for a Period of Five Years from the Expiration of such Term, if his Services be so long required, and shall be liable to serve accordingly, and shall for such Extension of Service be entitled to such Bounty as may be given by such Proclamation.

X. Nothing in this Act contained shall control or diminish the Authority vested in the Lord High Admiral or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral to enter or cause to be entered Seamen and others for Her Majesty's Navy for any Period or Periods of Service for which they may volunteer, and to detain them in such Service accordingly; and nothing in this Act contained shall control or diminish the Authority vested in the said Lord High Admiral or the said Commissioners to discharge, as he or they may think fit, or to authorize the Discharge of any Seaman or other Person whatever from Her Majesty's Naval Service.

XI. So much of the Act of the Eleventh Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Twenty, as provides that no Petty Officers, Seamen, or Marines, (except those wounded in Action with the Enemy,) who shall be discharged from Hospitals or Sick Quarters at home, either to a Ship or from the Service, shall be allowed Wages for more than Thirty Days of the Time they shall remain in such Hospital or Sick Quarters, shall not apply to Petty Officers or Seamen entered for continuous and general Service in the Navy, or to Boys entered under this Act, and any such Petty Officer, Seaman, or Boy who may be sent to any Hospital or Sick Quarters at home shall be allowed his Pay for the whole Time he shall remain in such Hospital or Sick Quarters, subject to such Deduction therefrom, after the Expiration of Thirty Days, as the Lord Proclamation for Seamen may be general or restricted.

Register Ticket Evidence of the Age of Seamen.

Service of Seamen in the Navy may be extended by Royal Proclamation.

Nothing to diminish Power of the Admiralty to enter Seamen for any Periods and to discharge them.

Men entering for continuous and general Service, and Boys, to be entitled to Pay while in Sick Quarters at home, subject to such Deduction after Thirty Days as Admiralty may direct, &c.

High

High Admiral or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral may from Time to Time direct, and the Time such Petty Officer, Seaman, or Boy may be in such Hospital or Sick Quarters shall reckon as Part of his Time of Service: Provided that no such Deduction as aforesaid shall be made in any Case where such Petty Officer, Seaman, or Boy would have been entitled to his full Pay, under the said Act.

Spirituos or fermented Liquors not to be brought on board Her Majesty's Ships without the Commander's Consent.

XII. It shall not be lawful for any Person to bring on board any of Her Majesty's Ships or Vessels any spirituos or fermented Liquor of any Description, without the previous Consent of the Officer commanding the Ship or Vessel on board of which the same may be brought; and it shall be lawful for any Officer in Her Majesty's Service, or Warrant or Petty Officer of the Navy, or Non-commissioned Officer of Marines, with or without Seamen or Persons under his Command, to search any Boat or Vessel hovering about or approaching or which may have hovered about or approached any of Her Majesty's Ships or Vessels, and if any spirituos or fermented Liquor be found on board such Boat or Vessel to seize such spirituos or fermented Liquor, and the same shall be forfeited to Her Majesty; and if any Person shall bring any spirituos or fermented Liquor on board any of Her Majesty's Ships or Vessels without such previous Consent as aforesaid, or shall approach or hover about any of Her Majesty's Ships or Vessels for the Purpose of bringing any spirituos or fermented Liquor on board the same, without such previous Consent, or for the Purpose of giving or selling, without such previous Consent, spirituos or fermented Liquor to Men in Her Majesty's Service, or of aiding or assisting any Officer, Seaman, or Marine in Her Majesty's Service to desert or improperly absent himself from his Ship or Vessel, every such Person shall, upon a summary Conviction thereof before a Justice or Justices of the Peace, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds for every such Act or Offence; and it shall be lawful for any Officer in Her Majesty's Service, or any such Warrant or Petty Officer, or Non-commissioned Officer as aforesaid, or for any Constable or Peace Officer, with or without any Warrant or other Process, to apprehend or cause to be apprehended any such Offender or Person so acting, and to bring him or cause him to be brought before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, for the Purpose of having the Offender summarily convicted of the same; and any pecuniary Forfeiture under this Provision shall and may be recovered, with Costs, and paid and applied, in manner provided by the Act of the Session holden in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Sixty-two, concerning Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by that Act.

Penalty on Offenders.

Men absent for 48 Hours without Leave to forfeit Pay during their Absence.

XIII. Every Officer, Seaman, Marine, or other Person serving in Her Majesty's Navy, who shall wilfully, or by reason of Imprisonment under any Commitment by any Civil Magistrate or other Civil Authority, or under any Civil Process, be absent from his Ship for Forty-eight Hours or upwards, without Leave of his Commanding Officer, shall thereby, if such Commanding Officer so direct, lose and forfeit all Wages, Pay, and other Allowances (any Portion allotted to Wife or Relatives commonly called Allotments only excepted) to which he would have been entitled in respect respect of his Services during the Period of such his Absence without Leave; and for the Purposes of this Provision any Part of a Day included in the Period of such Absence shall be deemed the whole Day, and the Wages, Pay, and Allowances in respect of such Day shall be forfeited accordingly: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be taken to lessen or affect any Liability of such Officer, Seaman, Marine, or other Person as aforesaid for or in respect of Desertion, or otherwise to affect any Provision, Law, or Regulation applicable to Deserters or Persons sentenced by Court-martial.

XIV. In any Case of Desertion of a Petty Officer or Seaman, or Non-commissioned Officer of Marines or Marine, from Her Majesty's Navy, or from any One of Her Majesty's Ships, it shall be lawful either to try the Offender by Court-martial, or, instead of so trying him, for any Flag Officer of Her Majesty's Navy on Full Pay, or for the Officer commanding the Ship to which the Deserter may belong, or the Ship to which he may be brought or on the Books of which he may be borne, upon any such Flag Officer or Officer commanding being satisfied of the Identity of the Offender, and of the Offence having been committed, to order the Offender to be imprisoned for any Period not exceeding Six Calendar Months from the Date of such Order in any public Prison, Gaol, or House of Correction in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions, or in any Naval Prison appointed or to be appointed under the Act of the Session holden in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Sixty-two; and such Imprisonment may be with or without Hard Labour, as any such Order shall direct; or in any such Case of Desertion as aforesaid it shall be lawful for any such Flag Officer or Officer commanding to order the Offender to be disgraced if a Petty Officer or a Non-commissioned Officer of Marines, or if a Seaman or Marine to be summarily punished, in the same Manner as such Offender would be liable to be punished according to the Custom of the Service for being absent without Leave, without Trial by Court-martial; but when any such Order as aforesaid is not made by the Senior Naval Officer present the same shall not have any Force or Effect until the same shall have been approved of by Writing under the Hand of such Senior Officer; and in all Cases upon the Home Station no such Order when made by any such Officer commanding shall have any Force or Effect until the same shall have been approved of by Writing under the Hand of the Commander-in-Chief under whom the Officer making such Order shall be serving; and all the Provisions of the said Act of the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty relating to or concerning Governors, Gaolers, or Keepers of any public Prison, Gaol, or House of Correction, and Officers having Charge of Naval Prisons, receiving and confining Offenders, and to Orders for the Discharge or Removal of Offenders, to the Subsistence of Prisoners, as to Prisoners not being entitled to Pay or Wages, or to reckon Time for Pay, Wages, or Pension, while in Confinement, and as to Penalties which may be incurred by any such Governor, Gaoler, Keeper, or Officer, and as to the Recovery and Application of such Penalties, shall be applicable to all Cases of Offenders imprisoned under or by virtue of any such Order as herein-before provided.

Power to try or punish Persons guilty of Desertion summarily.

XV. In

Imprisonment under Sentence of Naval Courts-martial may be with or without Hard Labour.

Persons making fraudulent Representations on entering Navy to be punished as Rogues and Vagabonds under 5 G. 4. c. 83.

Courts-martial may try Offences committed by Persons in full Pay in the Navy in Dockyards or Victualling Yards.

Railway Companies to convey Naval Forces upon the same Terms as Military and Police.

XV. In all Cases in which Naval Courts-martial are or may be authorized to adjudge Imprisonment they may adjudge the same with or without Hard Labour at their Discretion, and with or without any other Punishment which they are competent to award; and the Term of Imprisonment under Sentence of such Courts-martial shall be reckoned as commencing on the Day on which the Sentence was passed.

XVI. Every Person who, upon entering or offering himself to enter the Naval Service of Her Majesty, shall make or give any false Statement, whether orally or in Writing, with Intent to deceive any Officer or Person authorized to enter or enlist Seamen or others in or for such Naval Service, shall be deemed a Rogue and Vagabond within the Intent and Meaning of the Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-three, and shall upon Conviction thereof be punished accordingly; and all the Provisions of the said Act, and of any Act amending the same, shall take effect and apply as if a Person so offending as aforesaid had, by the said Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth, been declared a Rogue and Vagabond within the true Intent and Meaning of that Act.

XVII. 'And whereas under the Act of the Twenty-second Year of King George the Second, Chapter Thirty-three, Courts-martial constituted by virtue of that Act have Authority for the Trial and Punishment of Offences committed upon the Main Sea or in great Rivers only beneath the Bridges of the said Rivers nigh to the Sea, or in any Haven, River, or Creek within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty, by Persons in actual Service and Full Pay in the Fleet or Ships of War of Her Majesty :'

Any Court-martial constituted by virtue of the said last-mentioned Act shall have the same Power for the Trial and Punishment of Offences committed in any of Her Majesty's Dockyards or Victualling Yards by such Persons as at the Time of the Offence committed shall be in actual Service and Full Pay in the Fleet or Ships of War of Her Majesty as if such Offences had been committed upon the Main Sea or in any Haven within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty, and all Persons in actual Service and Full Pay in any of the Ships of War of Her Majesty shall while within any of Her Majesty's Dockyards or Victualling Yards be subject to the same Discipline, Laws, and Customs as if on board such Ships of War of Her Majesty upon the Main Sea or in any such Haven as aforesaid.

XVIII. Whenever it shall be necessary to move any of the Officers or Men in Her Majesty's Navy, or belonging to any Naval Coast Volunteers, or any other Officers or Men under the Command or Government of the Admiralty, every Railway Company shall, upon the Production of a Route or Order for the Conveyance of such Officers or Men, signed by any Officer or Person authorized by the Lord High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral in that Behalf, be bound to provide Conveyance for such Officers or Men and their personal Luggage, and also any public Baggage, Stores, Arms, Ammunition, and other Necessaries and Things, by the Railway of such Company, at the usual Hours of starting, in like Manner and at the like Fares and Rates of Charge, and upon the like Conditions, as under the Act of the Session holden in the Seventh and Eighth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty-five, or any other Act applicable to such Company, such Company would be bound to provide such Conveyance for the Officers and Men of Her Majesty's Forces of the Line, Ordnance Corps, Marines, Militia, and Police Force, and their personal Luggage, and any public Baggage, Stores, Arms, Ammunition, and other Necessaries and Things of the said Forces.

XIX. ' And whereas by the Eighth Section of the Act of the Session holden in the Fourth and Fifth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Twenty-five, Provision is made to facilitate the obtaining by the Relations of Persons deceased of small Sums payable to them in the Naval Department: And whereas it is expedient to make more effectual Provision for that Purpose: '

The said Eighth Section of the said Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of King William the Fourth shall be repealed; and where upon the Death (either before or after the passing of this Act) of any Commissioned, Warrant, or Petty Officer, Seaman, Commissioned or Non-commissioned Officer of Royal Marines, or Private Marine, or of any Widow entitled to a Pension on the Establishment of the Navy, or of any Person entitled to an Allowance from the Compassionate Fund, or of any Person having been employed in any of Her Majesty's Dockyards, Naval, Victualling, or Medical Establishments, or in any of the Civil Departments of the Navy, or of any Person entitled to any Prize Money, Bounty, Grant, or other Money in the Nature of Naval Prize, the whole Amount of Monies payable in the Naval Department which may be due to the Deceased shall not exceed the Sum of Fifty Pounds, it shall be lawful for the Inspector of Scamen's Wills in the Admiralty Office, after having satisfied himself by due Investigation of the Right of any Claimant to Probate of the Will (if the Deceased shall have left a Will), or in case of Intestacy to Letters of Administration, to issue a Certificate in Admission of the Claim, which Certificate shall be in such Form as by the Lord High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral shall be deemed expedient, and shall, so far as regards any Monies payable in the Naval Department, and not exceeding Fifty Pounds, have the same Force and Effect as a Probate of the Deceased's Will or a Grant of Administration of the Deceased's Effects; and Payment under the Authority of such Certificate of any Monies, not exceeding in the whole the said Sum of Fifty Pounds, due to the Deceased on account of any Naval Pay or Wages, or Pay or Wages of the ordinary or any Marine Pay, or of any Half Pay, Pension, or Prize, or Bounty, Grant, or other Money in the Nature of Prize, or of any Allowance from the Compassionate Fund, or Monies due on account of the Deceased's Services, or Superannuation Allowances granted on Retirement from any Services in any of Her Majesty's Dockyards, Naval, Victualling, or Medical Establishments, or in any of the Civil Departments of the Navy, or any Department under the Direction of the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners, shall be valid and conclusive against all Parties as effectually as if the same had been paid under Probate or Letters of Administration.

Sect. 8. of 4 & 5 W. 4. c. 25. repealed, and other Provisions made for Payment of Monies to a certain Amount due in the Naval Department to Persons deceased, without requiring Probate or Letters of Administration.

C A P. LXX.

An Act for the Regulation of Proceedings under Commissions of Lunacy, and the Consolidation and Amendment of the Acts respecting Lunatics so found by Inquisition, and their Estates. [15th August 1853.]

FOR removing or diminishing the Delays and Expenses now attending on the Execution of Commissions in the Nature of Writs De lunatico inquirendo, and the Proceedings consequent on Inquisitions taken thereon, and for regulating and amending the Practice and Course of Procedure in Matters of Lunacy, and for consolidating and amending the several Acts of Parliament respecting the Care and Management of the Persons and Estates of Lunatics so found by Inquisition, and the Appointments, Duties, and Salaries of Officers in Lunacy, be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Acts and Parts of Acts named in First Schedule repealed, but Validity of Proceedings, &c. not to be affected.

I. The several Acts of Parliament mentioned in the First Schedule hereunder written shall be and the same are hereby repealed, to the Extent specified concerning the same Acts respectively in the Third Column of the same Schedule, but so that the Validity of any Proceeding taken or pending under the said Acts or any of them, before or at the Commencement of this Act, or any Appointments, Salaries, Annuities, Compensations, or Allowances made or given by or under the said Acts or any of them, before the Commencement of this Act, shall not be taken away, diminished, or in anywise injuriously affected by the Repeal aforesaid ; and no new or further Order, Minute, or Direction whatsoever shall be deemed to be necessary by reason or in consequence of the Repeal aforesaid, respecting any such Appointment, Salary, Annuity, Compensation, or Allowance as aforesaid, except where by this Act any Salary or other Payment is made payable out of a Fund not heretofore chargeable therewith ; and all Proceedings respecting the Person or Estate of every Person before the Commencement of this Act, found by Inquisition idiot, lunatic, or of unsound Mind, and incapable of managing himself or his Affairs, or any Proceedings for the Purpose of procuring such a Finding, shall be carried on, as far as may be practicable, according to the Provisions of this Act, and, subject thereto, according to the Provisions of the said Acts or any of them, which shall for that Purpose be deemed to continue in force notwithstanding the Repeal aforesaid, or in case of Doubt as to the Mode of Procedure in such of the Modes aforesaid as the Masters in Lunacy shall direct.

Mode of Proceeding in existing Cases.

Interpretation of Terms.

II. In this Act, unless there be something in the Subject Matter or Context repugnant to the Construction,—

The Expression "the Lord Chancellor" shall be construed to mean the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the Time being, and to include or be applicable to the Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of the United Kingdom for the Time being ;

And

And the Expression "the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid" shall be construed to mean the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the Time being intrusted by virtue of the Queen's Sign Manual with the Care and Commitment of the Custody of the Persons and Estates of Persons found idiot, lunatic, or of unsound Mind; and when and so long as the Lords Justices of the Court of Appeal in Chancery for the Time being shall be intrusted as aforesaid concurrently with the Lord Chancellor, then and so long the last-mentioned Expression shall be construed to include or be applicable to the Lords Justices aforesaid, so that all the Powers, Authorities, and Duties to be had, exercised, and performed under this Act by the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall and may be had, exercised, and performed as well by the Lord Chancellor acting either alone or jointly with both or either of the Lords Justices aforesaid, as by both of the Lords Justices aforesaid acting jointly apart from the Lord Chancellor;

And the Expression "the Lords Justices" shall be construed to mean the Lords Justices aforesaid for the Time being, or One of them;

And the Expression "the Lord Chancellor of Ireland" shall be construed to comprehend the Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Ireland for the Time being;

And the Expression "the Masters" shall be construed to mean the Masters in Lunacy for the Time being, jointly or severally;

And the Expression "the Registrar" shall be construed to mean the Registrar in Lunacy for the Time being;

And the Word "Commission" shall be construed to mean a Commission in the Nature of a Writ De lunatico inquirendo, and to comprehend the General Commission by this Act authorized to be issued;

And the Word "Land" shall be construed to comprehend any Manor, Messuage, Tenement, Hereditament or Real Property of whatsoever Tenure, and also Property of every Description transferable otherwise than in Books kept by any Company or Society, or any Share thereof or Charge thereon, or Estate or Interest therein;

And the Word "Stock" shall be construed to comprehend any Fund, Annuity, or Security transferable in Books kept by any Company or Society, or any Money payable for the Discharge or Redemption thereof, or any Share or Interest therein;

And the Word "Dividends" shall be construed to comprehend Interest or other annual Produce;

And the Provisions relating to "the Bank of England" shall be construed to extend and be applicable to the East India Company, the South Sea Company, and every other Company or Society established or to be established;

And the Word "Conveyance" shall be construed to comprehend any Release, Surrender, Assignment, or other Assurance, including all Acts, Deeds, and Things necessary for making and perfecting the same;

And

And the Word "Transfer" shall be construed to comprehend any Assignment, Payment, or other Disposition ;

And the Word "Lunatic" shall be construed to mean any Person found by Inquisition idiot, lunatic, or of unsound Mind, and incapable of managing himself or his Affairs ;

III. The Schedules hereunder written shall be deemed to be Parts of this Act.

Extent of Act.

IV. This Act shall extend to England and Wales, and to Ireland where the same is specifically mentioned.

Commencement and Short Title of Act.

V. This Act shall take effect from the 28th Day of October 1853, and may be cited as "The Lunacy Regulation Act, 1853."

Officers.

And with respect to the several Officers in Lunacy, be it further enacted as follows :

Power to Lord Chancellor to appoint Two Masters in Lunacy, who before acting shall take Oath in the Second Schedule.

VI. There shall be Two Masters in Lunacy, who shall hold their Offices during good Behaviour, and the present Masters in Lunacy shall be continued and be the Masters in Lunacy during good Behaviour, and the Lord Chancellor shall, from Time to Time as any Vacancy shall occur in the Office of Master in Lunacy, appoint a fit Person, being a Serjeant or Barrister-at-Law of not less than Ten Years standing at the Bar, to fill the Vacancy, and the Person to be so appointed shall, before being capable of acting as Master in Lunacy, take before the Lord Chancellor, in the Manner now used, the Oath set forth in the Second Schedule hereunder written, and the Masters in Lunacy for the Time being shall have the same Rank and Precedence as the present Masters now take.

Masters to have Powers of Commissioners.

VII. The Masters in Lunacy shall have, perform, and execute all the Powers, Duties, and Authorities which were at the Time of the passing of the Act of the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty-four, had, performed, and executed by Commissioners named in Commissions in the Nature of Writs De lunatico inquirendo.

All References
connected with Lunatics to be made to Masters.

VIII. All the Inquiries and Matters connected with the Persons and Estates of Lunatics which were at the Time of the passing of the last-mentioned Act of Parliament usually referred to the Masters in Ordinary of the High Court of Chancery (except Inquiries and Matters which may be or might have been referred under the Trustee Act, 1850, or any Act thereby repealed,) shall henceforth, where References shall be made, be referred to the Masters in Lunacy, who shall have, perform, and execute all the Powers, Duties, and Authorities relating to the Inquiries and Matters so to be referred to them as aforesaid which were at the Time last aforesaid had, performed, and executed by the Masters in Ordinary of the High Court of Chancery, and shall perform such other Duties for the Security and Advantage of Lunatics

and

and their Estates as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall from Time to Time direct.

IX. All the Powers and Authorities by or under this Act vested or to be vested in the Masters shall be joint and several, and they shall execute Commissions and conduct Inquiries connected with Lunatics or their Estates, and perform all other Duties committed or to be committed to them by or by virtue of any Act hereby repealed or this Act, either separately or together, and at such Places, within such Times, and in such Manner as any General Order in Lunacy, and subject thereto, as any Special Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, shall from Time to Time direct.

Masters to perform Duties under Regulations of the Lord Chancellor.

X. The Lord Chancellor shall have, as at present, an Officer called "The Registrar in Lunacy," who shall perform the Duties committed to him by or by virtue of this Act, and such other Duties connected with Lunatics and their Estates, at such Places, within such Times, and in such Manner, as the Lord Chancellor shall from Time to Time direct.

Registrar to perform Duties under Regulations of Lord Chancellor.

XI. The Masters and the Registrar respectively shall continue to discharge all Duties which formerly belonged to the Office of Clerk of the Custodies of Idiots and Lunatics, and which were under the Provisions of the Act of the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty-four, on the Abolition of that Office, transferred to them respectively, so far as the same may be necessary to be discharged, according to the Practice for the Time being subsisting in Lunacy.

Duties of Clerk of the Custodies to be performed by Masters and Registrar.

XII. The Masters shall receive Salaries of Two thousand Pounds per Annum each; and the Lord Chancellor may, on a Petition presented to him for that Purpose, order (if he shall so think fit) Annuities, not exceeding the Sum of One thousand two hundred Pounds each, to be paid to the Persons continued and to be appointed Masters respectively, if and when they respectively shall be afflicted with some permanent Infirmary disabling them respectively from the due Execution of their respective Offices, and shall be desirous of resigning the same.

As to the Masters Salaries and retiring Annuities.

XIII. The Lord Chancellor may by Order remove any One of the Masters in Lunacy to be appointed after the Commencement of this Act, who shall be afflicted with any permanent Infirmary disabling him from the due Execution of his Office, and who shall refuse to resign or be incapable of resigning the same, and may, upon such Removal, order to be paid to him an Annuity or retiring Allowance not exceeding in Amount Two equal Third Parts of his yearly Salary.

Power to Lord Chancellor to remove, and grant Annuities to future Masters, if afflicted with Infirmary.

XIV. The Registrar shall receive such Salary as the Lord Chancellor, with the Approbation of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, has directed or shall from Time to Time direct.

Salary of Registrar.

XV. Such Officers, Clerks, and Messengers shall and may be from Time to Time appointed by the Masters and the Registrar respectively in their respective Offices as the Lord Chancellor, with the Approbation of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, has directed or shall from Time to Time direct, but the Appointment of the Chief Clerk of the Masters shall be made with the Approbation of the Lord Chancellor; and the present Officers, Clerks, and Messengers shall be continued as if this Act had not been passed, and without Prejudice to any Right or Claim of them or any of them in respect of Length of Service or otherwise; and the Officers, Clerks, and Messengers for the Time being shall respectively receive such Salaries as the Lord Chancellor, with the Approbation of the said Commissioners of the Treasury, has directed or shall from Time to Time direct.

Power to Lord Chancellor to appoint Visitors.

XVI. There shall be Two Medical Visitors and One Legal Visitor of Lunatics, who shall hold their Offices during Pleasure; and the present Visitors shall be continued and be the Visitors during Pleasure; and the Lord Chancellor shall, from Time to Time as any Vacancy shall occur in the Office of Medical Visitor or Legal Visitor, appoint, by Writing under his Hand, a fit Person, being a Physician in actual Practice, to succeed a Medical Visitor, and a fit Person, being a Barrister of not less than Five Years standing, to succeed a Legal Visitor.

Masters to be ex-officio Visitors.

XVII. The Masters for the Time being shall, by virtue of their Appointments to be Masters, become and be Visitors of Lunatics jointly with the Visitors for the Time being.

Visitors not to be interested in Houses for Reception of Insane Persons.

XVIII. No Person shall be appointed to be a Visitor who shall be or shall have been within the Two Years then next preceding directly or indirectly interested in the keeping of any House licensed for the Reception of Insane Persons; and if any Person shall after his Appointment become so interested, his Appointment as Visitor shall ipso facto become null and void, and thereupon his Salary shall cease.

Salaries of Visitors.

XIX. The Medical Visitors shall receive such Salaries, not exceeding the Sum of Five hundred Pounds per Annum each, and the Legal Visitor to be appointed after the Commencement of this Act shall receive such Salary, not exceeding the like Sum, as the Lord Chancellor, with the Approbation of the said Commissioners of the Treasury, shall from Time to Time order; and the Salary of the present Legal Visitor shall remain at its present Amount.

The Visitors and Masters to form a Board.

XX. The Medical and Legal Visitors and the Masters, or so many of them, not being less than Three in Number, as may from Time to Time be able, consistently with the Discharge of their other Duties, to attend, shall from Time to Time form themselves into a Board for their mutual Guidance and Direction on Matters connected with the visiting of Lunatics; and the Board shall be at liberty to report to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid upon any Matter connected with the Duties of the Visitors or of the Board, as they think proper.

Medical or Legal Visitor may appoint a Substitute during his Illness, &c.

XXI. Where a Medical or a Legal Visitor is temporarily prevented from discharging his Duty by Illness or unavoidable Absence, but not otherwise, he may, with the Approbation of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, appoint a Physician in actual Practice, or a Barrister of not less than Five Years standing, (as the Case may require,) to act in his Stead during his Illness or unavoidable Absence; and the Physician or the Barrister so appointed shall, while his Appointment remains in force, have, perform, and execute all the Powers, Duties, and Authorities belonging to the Office of Medical Visitor or of Legal Visitor

(as the Case may be) with full Validity and Effect to all Intents and Purposes.

XXII. There shall be a Secretary to the Visitors, who shall hold his Office during Pleasure; and the present Secretary shall be continued and be the Secretary during Pleasure; and the Lord Chancellor shall, from Time to Time as a Vacancy shall occur in the Office of Secretary, appoint, by Writing under his Hand, a fit Person to fill the Vacancy.

Lord Chancellor to appoint a Secretary to Visitors.

XXIII. The Secretary shall receive such Salary, not exceeding the Sum of Three hundred Pounds per Annum, as the Lord Chancellor has ordered or shall from Time to Time order; and a Clerk to the Secretary may be appointed by him, with the Approbation of the Lord Chancellor, who shall receive such Salary, not exceeding the Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds per Annum, as the Lord Chancellor shall from Time to Time order.

The Salary of the Secretary and his Clerk.

XXIV. Such Allowances as the Lord Chancellor, with the Approbation of the said Commissioners of the Treasury, shall from Time to Time order, shall be made to the Masters and the Visitors for their respective travelling and other Expenses, and to the Masters and the Registrar, and the Secretary to the Visitors, (but in the latter Case under the Direction of the Visitors,) for providing and maintaining suitable Offices, and for the other Expenses incident to the Discharge of the Duties of their respective Offices.

Masters, Visitors, &c. to be allowed travelling and other Expenses.

XXV. All Salaries and Annuities continued or given by or under this Act (inclusive of the Salaries of the Visitors and their Secretary, as from the Day on which the Account entitled "The Account of the Board of Visitors for the better Care and Treatment of Lunatics" shall be closed as herein-after mentioned,) shall grow due from Day to Day, and the same, with all Allowances continued or given by or under this Act, (inclusive of the Allowances to the Visitors and their Secretary as from the same Day,) shall be payable and paid under Order of the Lord Chancellor to the several Persons entitled thereto, or to their respective Executors or Administrators, out of the Fund standing in the Name of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery to the Account entitled "The Suitors Fee Fund Account," on the Third Day of February, the Third Day of May, the Third Day of August, and the Third Day of November in every Year, or on such other Days as the Lord Chancellor shall from Time to Time direct, free from Deduction; and all such Salaries, Annuities, and Allowances as aforesaid which are continued by or under this Act shall be payable out of the aforesaid Fund in such Priority as they respectively would have had if the several Acts hereby repealed had not been repealed; and all such Salaries, Annuities, and Allowances as aforesaid which are or shall be originally by or under this Act charged upon the aforesaid Fund shall be payable and paid out of the same Fund, subject and without Prejudice to the Payment of all other Sums of Money by any former Act or Acts now in force directed or authorized to be paid thereout.

Salaries, &c. to be paid quarterly out of Suitors Fee Fund.

' And whereas it would greatly facilitate the Simplification
' and Improvement of the Practice in Lunacy, and would be ' attended with Convenience, and with a Saving of Expense to Per-centage and Fees.

' the Estates of Lunatics, that the Charges incident to the ' Administration of the Estates of Lunatics under the Authority ' of the Lord Chancellor should be defrayed in part by means ' of a Per-centage, graduated in an equitable Manner as between ' the richer and poorer Estates, and in part by means of Fees on ' Proceedings : Be it therefore enacted as follows :

Per-centage on clear Incomes to be paid according to the Scale herein specified.

XXVI. A Per-centage on the respective clear annual Incomes of all Lunatics shall be paid according to the several Rates following ; that is to say,

The Rate of Four per Centum for each clear annual Income amounting to One hundred Pounds and not amounting to One thousand Pounds, but so that no larger Sum be payable in any such Case in any One Year than Thirty Pounds ;

The Rate of Three per Centum for each clear annual Income amounting to One thousand Pounds and not amounting to Five thousand Pounds, but so that no larger Sum be payable in any such Case in any One Year than One hundred Pounds ; and

The Rate of Two per Centum for each clear annual Income amounting to Five thousand Pounds or upwards, but so that no larger Sum be payable in any such Case in any One Year than Two hundred Pounds :

And in every Case the fractional Parts less than One Moiety of the Pound Sterling shall be disregarded in the Calculation of the Amount payable for Per-centage, and shall not be levied or paid.

Masters to certify Amount, &c., which shall be paid out of Income of the Lunatic.

XXVII. The Masters shall from Time to Time certify what is the Amount of each such clear annual Income as aforesaid, and of the Per-centage payable thereon, and who is the Committee or other Person who is to pay the same, and thereupon such Committee or other Person as aforesaid shall pay the same out of the first Monies coming to his Hands in respect of the Income of the Lunatic.

Per-centage to be paid notwithstanding Death, &c. before Payment.

XXVIII. The Per-centage aforesaid, or a proper proportionate Part thereof, (as the Case may require,) shall be chargeable and charged upon the Estate of a Lunatic, and be payable thereof, although before Payment thereof he die, or the Inquisition in his Case be superseded, or be vacated and discharged on a Traverse ; but in either of the Two Cases last aforesaid the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may, if he see fit, remit or reduce the Amount of the Sum to be paid ; and the Payment of the Amount in every Case shall be enforced in such Manner and under such Regulations as the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance of the Lords Justices, being intrusted as aforesaid, shall from Time to Time direct.

Present Fees abolished, and new Fees substituted.

XXIX. All Fees now payable in relation to Proceedings in Lunacy shall be and the same are hereby abolished, and in lieu thereof there shall be paid the following Fees only ; that is to say,

For each Order or Fiat of the Lord Chancellor in- £ s. d. trusted as aforesaid - - - - - 2 0 0

For each Report or Certificate of the Masters and Taxing Masters respectively (other than a Certificate of the Masters respecting Income and Per-centage only) - - - - - 1 0 0

For attending any Court by the Clerk, per Diem - 1 0 0

And

And for all Engrossments, Transcripts, and Copies of Documents and Papers, the actual Amount of the Stationer's Charges paid by the Masters and Registrar respectively for the same.

XXX. The Lord Chancellor may, with the Advice and Assistance aforesaid, by Order, from Time to Time reduce the several Rates of Per-centage aforesaid or any of them, and again, if it shall seem to him expedient, from Time to Time raise the same several Rates or any of them, but not to Rates higher than those respectively herein-before prescribed, and also may, with the like Advice and Assistance, by Order, from Time to Time vary or abolish the Fees aforesaid or any of them, or other the Fees for the Time being payable in relation to Proceedings in Lunacy, or any of them, and, if and when it shall seem to him necessary or expedient, fix and impose other Fees, or Fees of altered Amount.

XXXI. The Per-centage and the Fees for the Time being payable under this Act shall be collected by means of Stamps, which shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue; and the Provisions of the Act of the last Session of Parliament for "The Relief of the Suitors of the High Court of Chancery," respecting Stamps, and the Monies arising from the Sale thereof, shall be and are and every of them is hereby extended so as to be applicable and applied, mutatis mutandis, to Stamps to be used under this Act, and the Monies arising from the Sale thereof.

XXXII. Where it is made to appear to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid that the net Amount or net estimated Value of the Property of a Lunatic does not exceed the Sum of Seven hundred Pounds Sterling in respect of the Corpus thereof, or the Sum of Fifty Pounds Sterling per Annum in respect of the Income thereof, he may order (if he shall think fit) that no Fee shall be taken or paid, or Per-centage be levied or paid, in relation to the Proceedings in the Matter or the Property, as from the Date of the Order or such other Time as he shall direct, during the Continuance of the Lunacy or until further Order.

XXXIII. All the foregoing Provisions respecting Fees and Per-centage shall be applicable to the Proceedings in the Matter of and to the Property of a Lunatic under the Protection of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid by virtue of Proceedings taken under the Provisions of the Act of the Session of Parliament holden in the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred, Section Ninety-five, and also to the Proceedings in the Matter of and to the Property of a Lunatic under the Protection of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid by virtue of the Transmission of the Record of an Inquisition from Ireland, and its Entry of Record in the Chancery of England, and also to the Proceedings in the Matter of and to the Property of a Person residing out of England and Wales, and declared idiot, lunatic, or of unsound Mind according to the Laws of the Place where he is residing, where the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid makes an Order affecting the Stock or any Portion of the Capital Stock or Shares of such Person as last aforesaid, or the Dividends thereof; and the aforesaid Provisions shall be applied to the several Classes of Cases mentioned in this present Section in such Manner and under such Regulations as the Lord Chan-

c. 36. imposing a Per-centage for Visitors of Lunatics.

‘ And whereas the Per-centage which is now, under the Provisions of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, Chapter Thirty-six, imposed upon the Estates of Lunatics, and paid into the Bank of England, in the Name and with the Privy of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to an Account entitled “ The Account of the Board of Visitors for the better Care and Treatment of Lunatics,” will be discontinued under this Act.’ Be it therefore further enacted as follows :

Sums due for this Per-centage to be paid

XXXIV. Every Committee, Receiver, or other Person who is or shall be liable to pay any Money in respect of the Per-centage last aforesaid shall, notwithstanding this Act, pay the same into the Bank, in the Manner now used, either to the Account last aforesaid, or, after it has been closed as herein-after provided, to the said “ Suitors Fee Fund Account,” and be allowed the same on passing his Accounts before the Masters.

Salaries, &c. charged on this Per-centage to be payable thereout for a limited Time.

XXXV. All Salaries and other Sums of Money payable out of the Monies standing to the Credit of the “ Account of the Board of Visitors for the better Care and Treatment of Lunatics” shall continue to be payable thereout, until the Account shall be closed as herein-after is provided, and shall be paid thereout accordingly in the Manner now used.

Account to be closed and Balance carried to Suitors Fee
Fund.

XXXVI. The last-mentioned Account shall be closed on the Third Day of December next after the passing of this Act, or on such other Day as the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance aforesaid, shall order, and the Balance which shall then be remaining on the same Account shall be carried over to the said “ Suitors Fee Fund Account,” under Order of the Lord Chancellor.

Account to be audited.

XXXVII. The Account of Monies received and paid on the “ Account of the Board of Visitors for the better Care and Treatment of Lunatics,” not previously audited, shall, as soon as may be after the closing of the Account, be made out by the Secretary to the Visitors, and be audited and signed by the Master in Ordinary of the High Court of Chancery, or other Officer to whom the Matter of the Account shall then stand referred, and shall be afterwards filed with the Registrar in Lunacy, and no Fee shall be charged or taken upon, for, or in respect of the auditing or filing thereof.

Inquisition.

Commissions may be directed to fewer than Three Persons, and shall be directed to Masters.

And with respect to the Inquisition, be it further enacted as follows :

XXXVIII. Any Commission in the Nature of a Writ De lunatico inquirendo directed to One Person or to Two Persons, and the Inquisition returned thereon, shall be as valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if directed to and returned by more than Two Persons ; and every Commission shall (subject to the Provision herein-after contained) be directed to the Masters, or

One of them, and may be varied in Form from that now in use in such Manner as to the Lord Chancellor may seem necessary or expedient.

XXXIX. In lieu of the Commission now issued specially in each Case of alleged Lunacy, a General Commission to the like Effect, with such Variations as may be necessary or expedient, may from Time to Time be issued in Duplicate under the Great Seal, directed to the Masters by Name, jointly and severally, who shall by virtue thereof proceed, in each Case of alleged Lunacy concerning which the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall order them to inquire, in like Manner and with all the like Powers and Authorities (subject to the Provisions herein-after contained) as if a Commission had issued specially in such Case, and every Inquisition found and returned thereon shall be as valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been found and returned on a separate Commission.

General Commission may be issued directed to Masters.

XL. Where the alleged Lunatic is within the Jurisdiction, he shall have Notice of the Presentation of the Petition for Inquiry, and may, by a Notice, signed by him, and attested by his Solicitor, and filed with the Registrar, either before the Presentation of the Petition or within Seven Days after such Notice had by him as aforesaid, or at or within such other Time as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall order in the particular Case, demand an Inquiry before a Jury.

Alleged Lunatic, within Jurisdiction, to have Notice, and may demand Inquiry before a Jury.

XLI. Where the alleged Lunatic demands an Inquiry before a Jury, the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall in his Order for Inquiry direct the Return of a Jury, unless he be satisfied, by personal Examination of the alleged Lunatic, that he is not mentally competent to form and express a Wish for an Inquiry before a Jury; and the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may, where he shall deem it necessary, after Presentation of the Petition for Inquiry, and for the Purpose of personal Examination, require the alleged Lunatic to attend him at such convenient Time and Place as he may appoint.

Where alleged Lunatic demands a Jury, Lord Chancellor may examine him as to Competency, and order a Jury.

XLII. Where the alleged Lunatic does not demand an Inquiry before a Jury, or the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid is satisfied by personal Examination of him that he is not mentally competent to form and express a Wish in that Behalf, and it appears to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, upon Consideration of the Evidence adduced before him on the Petition for Inquiry, and of the Circumstances of the Case, so far as they are before him, to be unnecessary or inexpedient that the Inquiry should be before a Jury, and he accordingly does not in his Order for Inquiry direct the Return of a Jury, then the Masters shall, by virtue of their General Commission, and under such Order for Inquiry, but without a Jury, personally examine the alleged Lunatic, and take such Evidence, upon Oath or otherwise, and call for such Information, as they may think fit or the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may direct, in order to ascertain whether or not the alleged Lunatic is of unsound Mind, and shall certify their Finding thereon.

Cases where a Jury may be dispensed with.

XLIII. Where the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, under such Circumstances as herein-before mentioned, does not in his Order for Inquiry direct the Return of a Jury, but the Masters Jury to be had, if Masters certify that it is expedient.

ceed and be conducted as nearly as may be in all respects as is herein-before directed upon the Presentation of a Petition for Inquiry.

*Proceedings
after Inquisition.*

Evidence may be oral, &c.

And with respect to certain of the Proceedings after Inquisition, be it further enacted as follows :

LV. The Masters may direct that the Evidence in the Matter of a Lunatic or on any particular Proceeding in the Matter be taken orally, or partly orally and partly by Affidavit, and it shall be so taken accordingly.

Masters may administer Oaths and take Recognizances.

LVI. The Masters may, in the Matter of a Lunatic or alleged Lunatic, administer an Oath to any Witness, whether his Deposition or Affidavit is to be used before themselves or not, and Recognizances may be taken and acknowledged before them.

Swearing of Affidavits in the Colonies, &c.

LVII. The Provisions of the Act of the last Session of Parliament, Chapter Eighty-six, Sections Twenty-two, Twenty-three, and Twenty-four, respecting Affidavits made in Causes or Matters depending in the High Court of Chancery, shall be and the same are hereby extended so as to be applicable, mutatis mutandis, to Affidavits made in Matters in Lunacy.

Form of Affidavits.

LVIII. Every Affidavit to be used in a Matter in Lunacy shall be taken and expressed in the First Person of the Deponent, and shall be divided into Paragraphs numbered consecutively, and respectively confined, as nearly as may be, to distinct Portions of the Subject Matter.

Short Form of Affidavit for Verification of Documents, as in Schedule III.

LIX. Where an Affidavit is required for verifying all or some of the Statements contained in a Petition, State of Facts, Proposal, or other Document, the Affidavit may be annexed or underwritten thereto, and may be in the Form set forth in the Third Schedule hereunder written, with such Variations as the Circumstances may require ; and where the aforesaid Form is, in the Opinion of the Taxing Master, applicable, no further or greater Costs of any Affidavit shall be allowed on Taxation than would be allowed for an Affidavit in the aforesaid Form.

Witnesses may be cross-examined orally.

LX. Every Person giving Evidence by Affidavit shall be liable to oral Cross-examination by or before the Masters, in the same Manner as if the Evidence given by him in his Affidavit had been given by him orally before the Masters, and after Cross-examination may be re-examined orally by or on behalf of the Person filing the Affidavit ; and every Person giving Evidence by Affidavit shall be bound to attend before the Masters, to be so cross-examined and re-examined, upon receiving due and proper Notice, and Payment or Tender of his reasonable Expenses, in like Manner as if he had been duly served with a Writ of Subpoena ad testificandum before an Examiner of the High Court of Chancery ; and the Expenses attending on such Cross-examination and Re-examination shall be paid in the first instance by the Parties respectively, in like Manner as if the Witness cross-examined were the Witness of the Party cross-examining, and shall on Taxation be ultimately borne and paid by the Estate, or the Parties respectively, or One of them, as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall direct.

How Expenses to be paid.

LXI. The Masters shall be at liberty to cause to be issued from Time to Time such Advertisements as may to them seem expedient with reference to the Subject Matter of a Proposal or Inquiry.

Masters may issue Advertisements.

LXII. The

LXII. The Masters shall, instead of Her Majesty's Attorney General, approve, on behalf of Her Majesty, of the Security to be from Time to Time given by the Committee of the Estate, under Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid; and the Acts of the Masters with respect to the Security and to the Grant of the Custody shall have the same Force and Effect to all Intents and Purposes as the Acts of Her Majesty's Attorney General with respect to the same Matters now have.

LXIII. In case Her Majesty shall think fit to authorize the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid to make Orders from Time to Time for the Custody of Persons already found or who may hereafter be found Idiots or Lunatics as aforesaid, and of their Estates, without requiring that any Grant or Commitment of such Custody should be passed under the Great Seal, then any Order to be made by the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid in pursuance of such Authority shall (as to the Custody of the Person immediately, and as to the Custody of the Estate upon the Masters Certificate of Completion of the Committee's Security,) have the same Force and Validity as a Grant and Commitment of the Custody of such Idiots or Lunatics and their Estates would have had in case the same had been made under the Great Seal, by virtue of any Authority for that Purpose given by Her Majesty to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, and the Provisions of this Act respecting the Grant shall be deemed to extend to any Order to be made as aforesaid.

LXIV. Where it is desired and the Masters allow that the approved Committee of the Estate should, in lieu of giving Security in the Manner now usual by Bond or Recognizance with Sureties, give Security, in the whole or in part, by bringing into Court an adequate Sum of Money or Stock, the Masters may by Certificate direct or give Liberty for the Payment into the Bank of England, with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to the Credit of the Matter of the Lunatic, of any Sum of Money, or the Transfer into the Name and with the Privity of the said Accountant General, in trust in the Matter of the Lunatic, of any Sum of Stock, and may specify the Account to which the Sum of Money or Stock is to be placed, and may direct how any Money is to be invested, or how any Dividends are to be applied, and such Payment, Transfer, Investment, and Application, as the Case may require, shall be made by virtue of such Certificate, and the said Accountant General shall declare the Trust of the Sum of Money or Stock when so paid or transferred accordingly, subject to the Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid.

LXV. Where it appears expedient, either with a view to the Reduction of the Amount of the Security of the Committee of the Estate, or for any other Reason, the Masters may without Order receive or deliver out any Deed or Security belonging to the Lunatic, and may by Certificate direct or give Liberty for the Payment into the Bank of England, with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to the Credit of the Matter of the Lunatic, of any Sum of Money belonging to the Lunatic, or the Transfer into the Name and with the Privity of the said Accountant General, in trust in the Matter of the Lunatic, Masters to approve of Security to be given by Committee of Estate.

If Her Majesty do not by Her Warrant direct Grant of Custody to be under Great Seal, Order of Lord Chancellor shall have the same Effect.

Masters may authorize Payment or Transfer into Court of Money or Stock as Security for Committee.

Masters may receive and deliver out Deeds, &c. of Lunatic, and authorize Payment or Transfer into Court of Money or Stock belonging to Lunatic.

of

of any Sum of Stock belonging to the Lunatic, and such Payment or Transfer, as the Case may require, shall be made by virtue of such Certificate, and the said Accountant General shall declare the Trust of the Sum of Money or Stock when so paid or transferred accordingly, subject to the Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid.

Grant of Custody may be extended to surviving or continuing Committees in certain Cases.

LXVI. Where the Masters find and report that several Persons are the most fit Persons to be appointed the Committees of the Estate or of the Person, and they are of opinion that it is expedient that One or more of the same several Persons should continue to be the Committee or Committees after the Death or Discharge of the others or other of them, and such Persons are willing so to continue, the Masters may report accordingly; and where the Report is confirmed the approved Committees of the Estate may perfect their Securities in such Form as to extend to the Acts and Defaults of One or more of them, in accordance with the Report, and thereupon the Grant of the Custody of the Estate or of the Person (as the Case may be) shall be made conformably with the Order of Custody; and the continuing or surviving Committee or Committees to whom separately the Grant extends shall and may continue until further Order to act after the Death or Discharge of the others or other of them, with all the like Powers, Authorities, and Discretions, and subject to all the like Liabilities, as the original Committees.

Form of Allowance of Accounts.

LXVII. The Masters Allowance of the Account of a Committee for Receiver shall be signified under their Hands and be written under the Account, but no Certificate shall be made, except where it may be specially required with a view to Payment of Money into Court or for some other Purpose.

Masters to distinguish Items in Account which they cannot allow, and the Account to be submitted to Lord Chancellor.

LXVIII. Where the Masters are of opinion that any small Expenses included in the Committee's or Receiver's Account have been properly and reasonably incurred for the Benefit or Enjoyment of the Lunatic, or the Improvement, Security, or Advantage of his Estate, and there is no Opposition to the Allowance thereof, but it may not be competent to them to allow the same to the Committee or Receiver without the Sanction of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, they shall distinguish the Items by some Mark in their Allowance of the Account, which shall be made subject to the Approval of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, and the Account as passed by the Masters shall be submitted by them to the Lord Chancellor, without Petition, for his Allowance or Disallowance in respect of the Items so distinguished by them.

Masters to receive Proposals in certain Cases.

LXIX. The Masters shall be at liberty, without an Order of Reference, to receive any Proposal and conduct any Inquiry respecting the managing, repairing, setting, or letting of the Estate, and to report thereon.

Masters may receive Proposals in other Cases.

LXX. The Masters shall also be at liberty, without an Order of Reference, to receive any Proposal and conduct any Inquiry relating to the Estate, not respecting the managing, repairing, setting, or letting thereof, and any Proposal or Inquiry whatsoever relating to the Person, and to report thereon respectively, if and when they shall be of opinion that if Application were made to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid concerning the Matter of any any such Proposal or Inquiry a Reference thereon would be made to the Masters.

LXXI. Where the Masters, without an Order of Reference, receive any Proposal or proceed in any Inquiry relating to the Estate, not respecting the managing, repairing, setting, or letting thereof, or any Proposal or Inquiry whatsoever respecting the Person, any Person attending before them shall be at liberty to apply by Petition to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, as he may be advised; and thereupon the Masters shall, pending the Application, cease from proceeding on the Proposal or in the Inquiry, unless the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid otherwise direct.

Persons objecting to Masters receiving Proposal may apply to Lord Chancellor.

LXXII. Where the Masters, without an Order of Reference, receive and proceed on a Proposal or conduct an Inquiry, but arrive at the Opinion that the Proposal ought not to be adopted and carried into effect, or that the Inquiry was unnecessary, they shall be at liberty to certify whether or not, regard being had to the Circumstances, the Proposal or Inquiry was proper to be made; and if they certify in the affirmative, usual and proper Costs of the Proposal or Inquiry and Proceedings thereon shall be allowed on Taxation by virtue of their Certificate, but if they certify in the negative the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall direct by whom and in what Manner the Costs shall be paid and borne.

Masters may certify as to Propriety of Proposal with regard to Costs.

LXXIII. Where any Person requires that the Masters should report on a Proposal which they have received and proceeded on without an Order of Reference, notwithstanding their Opinion that it should not be adopted and carried into effect, the Masters shall report on the Proposal, and the Report shall be brought before the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid by Petition, who shall make such Order upon the Report and respecting the Costs as to him shall under the Circumstances seem just.

Person insisting on Report liable to Costs.

LXXIV. Where an Application is made by Petition to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, either concerning a Matter which might have been brought before the Masters in the first instance, or in consequence of the Masters receiving any Proposal or proceeding in any Inquiry relating to the Estate or the Person, the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may make such Order respecting the Costs of the Application and of the consequent Proceedings as to him shall, under the Circumstances, seem just.

On Application not being made to Masters, Costs may be ordered to be paid.

LXXV. Subject to the Provisions herein-after contained, the Masters shall, as soon as may be after the Return of the Inquisition, and may afterwards from Time to Time as they may think it expedient, inquire and certify who are the next of Kin, and, subject to the Provisions herein-after contained, due Notice of attending on the Proceedings in the Matter shall be given to the Persons for the Time being found to be the next of Kin.

Masters to inquire as to next of Kin, and they are to have Notice of Proceedings.

LXXVI. Where the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, by virtue of the Power herein-before given, exempts the Property of a Lunatic from Payment of Fees and Per-centage, the Masters shall not during the Continuance of the Exemption inquire respecting his next of Kin, without special Order.

No Inquiry as to next of Kin where Property exempted from Fees.

LXXVII. The Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may in any Case by Order defer an Inquiry respecting next of Kin, or direct direct that the Inquiry shall be carried on to such limited Extent only, and under such Restrictions and Provisions, and in such Manner, as he may under the Circumstances of the Case think expedient, and may, where he deems it just and expedient, order that Persons alleging themselves to be next of Kin be left to make out their Claim at their own Expense, and may in any Case, if from the Smallness of the Property of the Lunatic (although it be not such as to entitle it to Exemption from Payment of Fees and Per-centage) he think it safe and just, by Order wholly dispense with the Inquiry.

Masters to report where Inquiry as to next of Kin inexpedient.

LXXVIII. Where the Masters are of opinion that by reason of the Smallness of the Property of a Lunatic or for any other Reason an Inquiry or a subsequent Inquiry (as the Case may be) respecting next of Kin should be dispensed with or deferred, or be carried on to a limited Extent only, they shall report accordingly.

Masters may dispense with strict Proof of Pedigree in certain Cases.

LXXIX. Where the Masters, in conducting an Inquiry respecting next of Kin, without any special Direction of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid concerning the Mode of conducting the same, are of opinion that the Circumstances of the Case render it expedient and safe that strict Proof of Pedigree should not be gone into, they may dispense with the same to such Extent and in such Manner as may to them seem expedient, and may require and receive such Evidence as may appear to them sufficient and satisfactory respecting the Family and the next of Kin, and shall certify the Mode in which they have conducted the Inquiry.

Lord Chancellor may dispense with Attendance of next of Kin.

LXXX. The Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may, by Order, dispense with and disallow the Attendance on the Proceedings in the Matter of all or some of the next of Kin either wholly, or except at their own Expense, or except upon special Leave first obtained, as he shall under the Circumstances think expedient; and such Notice only of attending on the Proceedings shall be given as shall be conformable with the Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid.

Masters to determine which of next of Kin to attend before them, and to certify, and the same only to attend before Lord Chancellor.

LXXXI. Subject to the Provisions herein-before contained, the Masters shall once in the Matter of each Lunatic, and may afterwards from Time to Time as they think it expedient, determine whether any One or more, and if any, how many and which, of the next of Kin is or are to attend on the Proceedings or on any particular Proceeding before them in the Matter (but exclusively, as at present, of the Heir-at-Law, with respect to Notice of or Attendance on the Account of the Committee of the Estate), and the Person or Persons alone (if any) to whom the Masters have given Liberty to attend shall be entitled to Notice of or shall be allowed to attend, at the Cost of the Estate, on any Proceeding, or on such particular Proceeding as aforesaid, (as the Case may be.) before the Masters, except upon their special Leave first obtained; and the same Person or Persons alone (if any) to whom the Masters have given Liberty to attend on the Proceedings before them in the Matter generally shall be entitled to Notice of or shall be allowed to attend, at the Cost of the Estate, on any Proceeding before the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, except upon his special Leave first obtained, and for that Purpose the Masters shall, shall, from Time to Time as Occasion may require, certify who is or are the Person or Persons (if any) to whom they have given Liberty to attend on the Proceedings before them in the Matter generally.

LXXXII. Where an Infant, being One of the next of Kin, and being at liberty to attend on the Proceedings, has no Guardian, the Masters may from Time to Time, by Certificate, appoint a fit Person to be his Guardian for the Purposes of the Lunacy, who shall thereupon, for the Purposes of the Lunacy only, and not further or otherwise, have all the same Powers, Authorities, and Discretion as if he had been duly constituted Guardian by the Court of Chancery; and the Masters may, from Time to Time, by Certificate, revoke any such Appointment, and appoint another fit Person to be the Guardian, toties quoties.

Masters may appoint Guardian for Lunacy.

LXXXIII. The Masters may, where it seems expedient, consolidate or carry on together similar Proceedings before them in the Matters of several Persons being Members of the same Family, and may in that Case, and also where it does not seem expedient that the Proceedings should be consolidated or carried on together, use in the Matter of One Member of a Family Evidence filed or taken in the Matter of another Member or other Members of the same Family, when and so far as it may be applicable.

In Cases of Members of same Family, Proceedings may be consolidated, &c.

LXXXIV. The Masters may, on being satisfied of a Lunatic's Death, without Order, open and read any Paper Writing deposited with them, and purporting or alleged to be his Will, for the Purpose of ascertaining who is therein nominated Executor thereof, and also whether or not there is any and what Direction therein contained concerning his Funeral or Place of Interment, and then deliver the same to the Registrar or other proper Officer of the Prerogative or other proper Ecclesiastical Court, to the Intent that the same may be exhibited in the usual Course, and dealt with according to Law, and shall certify the Death, and the opening and delivering out of the Paper Writing accordingly.

Masters may open and deliver out Will.

LXXXV. The Masters shall be at liberty, without Order of Reference, to inquire and report whether or not any Person residing out of England and Wales, and where, has been declared idiot, lunatic, or of unsound Mind, and whether or not his Personal Estate, or some and what Part thereof, has been vested in a Curator or other and what Person appointed for the Management thereof, according to the Laws of the Place where the Person is residing, and whether or not any and what Stock, Portion of the Capital Stock, or Share of any and what Company or Society, is standing in the Name of or is vested in that Person, and what is his Interest therein.

Masters may inquire respecting Interest in Stock of Lunatic residing out of Jurisdiction.

LXXXVI. Subject to the Provisions of this Act, and to the General Orders in Lunacy for the Time being in force, and to any Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, the Masters may, if they think fit, dispense with any Summons ordinarily taken out in the Course of the Proceedings before them, and direct and require any Party attending before them to take out a Summons for a particular Purpose or within a particular Time, and fix the Time at which any particular Summons shall be returnable before them, or at or within which any Proceeding necessary or proper to be taken before them shall be taken, and may proceed de die

Masters may direct Times, &c. of proceeding before them.

in diem or adjourn the Proceedings before them, as they may see fit.

Masters to inquire into Delays.

LXXXVII. The Masters shall from Time to Time inquire into the Circumstances of any Delay in the Conduct of Proceedings before them, or in proceeding upon their Reports, Certificates, or Decisions, and for that Purpose may call before them all Parties concerned, and may report accordingly, where it seems expedient.

Masters may disallow Costs.

LXXXVIII. The Masters may, by Certificate, disallow, wholly or in part, the Costs of any Proceeding or Document taken or used or proposed to be taken or used before them; and the Costs of the Attendance of Counsel before them shall not be allowed on Taxation, unless they certify that such Attendance was proper, and for the Security or Advantage of the Lunatic or his Estate.

Documents not to be of unnecessary Length.

LXXXIX. The Affidavits, Petitions, and other Documents brought in to the Offices of the Masters or Registrar shall not contain unnecessary Recitals or Statements of Proceedings or Documents previously taken or used in the Matter; and the Taxing Masters shall look into all such Affidavits, Petitions, and other Documents as aforesaid, and deal in such Manner as to them seems just with the Costs of any Affidavit, Petition, or other Document appearing to them to be unnecessary or improper, in the whole or in part, or of unnecessary Length.

Masters may report Decision pending Inquiry.

XC. The Masters shall be at liberty to report specially to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid any Decision at which they may arrive, or any other Matter relating to any Inquiry or Proposal pending before or under Consideration by them, in order to obtain a Decision or Direction by or from him for their Guidance in the further Prosecution of the Inquiry or Consideration of the Proposal.

Form of Reports.

XCI. The Masters Reports shall be divided into Paragraphs numbered consecutively, and respectively confined, as nearly as may be, to distinct Portions of the Subject Matter, and with such appropriate Headings prefixed to all or any of the Paragraphs as may be convenient.

Reports to be filed with Registrar in Lunacy only.

XCII. The Reports of the Masters, whether confirmed by Fiat or not, under the Provisions herein-after contained, and their Certificates, and all other Reports and Certificates made in Matters in Lunacy, (except the Reports of the Visitors herein-after provided for,) shall be left by the Masters, Taxing Masters, and other Officers making the same respectively, with the Registrar in Lunacy, by whom the same shall be filed, and it shall not be necessary that they or any of them should be filed elsewhere; and the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, and all other Persons, and the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, shall, as Occasion may require, act upon or in relation to any Report, and the Fiat thereon (if any), or any Certificate so filed, in like Manner as if the Report or Certificate had been filed also in the Report Office of the Court of Chancery, according to the Practice formerly used.

Objections to Report may be brought in.

XCIII. Any Person objecting to a Draft Report of the Masters, and desiring to prosecute the Objection, shall bring in before the Masters a Statement of Objections in Writing, and thereupon the Masters shall be at liberty to review the Draft objected to; and after Review, or the Refusal of the Masters to review, the Person objecting objecting may bring in before the Masters a Notice in Writing, stating that he insists on the Objections or any One or more of them; and all the Objections not so insisted on shall be considered as abandoned.

XCIV. No Person shall, except upon special Leave of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid first obtained, present a Petition against the Confirmation of a Report, but in every Case, on the Hearing of the Petition for Confirmation of the Report, any Objections insisted on as aforesaid may be brought forward in opposition to the Confirmation of the Report, without any Exceptions or Cross Petition.

No Petition against Confirmation of Report.

XCv. Where no Statement of Objections is brought in, or all the Objections contained in a Statement brought in are abandoned, the Report shall be submitted to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, for Confirmation, without Petition, and without the Attendance of Parties, except where from the special Nature or Circumstances of the Case the Masters are of opinion that the Report ought to be brought before the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid by Petition, and by Endorsement on the Report under their Hands shall so direct accordingly.

Reports not objected to may be confirmed without Petition.

XCvI. Where a Report is to be submitted for Confirmation without Petition it shall contain the Directions consequential on the Confirmation thereof, and the Fiat of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid on the Report shall give it the Operation of an Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, made upon Petition, subject to such other Directions and Provisions (if any) as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may think fit.

Such Reports to contain consequential Directions, &c.

XCvII. The Reports of the Masters shall be brought before the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, for Confirmation, by Petition, in each of the Cases following:—

Cases in which Reports shall not be confirmed without Petition.

1. Where the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, on referring a Matter to the Masters to inquire and report, so directs;
2. Where a Statement of Objections is brought in, and all the Objections are not abandoned;
3. Where the Masters, having regard to the special Nature or Circumstances of the Case, as herein-before provided, so direct;
4. Where no Order is made on the Report being submitted for Confirmation without Petition;

And in such other Cases as are herein mentioned, and as the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance aforesaid, shall from Time to Time by General Order direct.

And with respect to Orders in Lunacy, be it further enacted as follows:

Orders.

XCvIII. Every Petition shall be filed before an Order thereon shall be passed, and the Order shall not recite any Part of the Statements contained in the Petition, and only such Part (if any) of the Prayer as may be necessary, and an Order shall not state any Part of a Report, except the Masters Conclusion or Opinion, or so much thereof as may be necessary; and the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance aforesaid, may and shall from Time to Time make such General Orders as to him shall seem meet for embodying (as far as may be) such Provisions and Directions as are now commonly or frequently inserted in Orders, and are not provided for by this Act, and for dispensing (as far as may be) with the formal Parts of Orders as now drawn up.

Form of Orders.

Orders to be communicated to Masters.

XCIX. Every Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid in a Matter in Lunacy shall be communicated by the Registrar to the Masters, whether any Matter is thereby referred to them or not.

Orders to be entered by the Registrar, and Office Copies to be furnished and signed by him.

C. Every Order made in a Matter in Lunacy by the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, when drawn up by the Registrar in Lunacy, and signed by the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, shall be entered by the Registrar in Lunacy in a proper Book to be provided by him for that Purpose. and he shall furnish Office Copies of any Order or of any Report, confirmed by Fiat, or of any Part thereof respectively, signed by him, and sealed or stamped with the Seal of his Office, to every Party in the Matter or other Person entitled thereto who shall require the same; and every Office Copy of the whole of an Order or Report confirmed as aforesaid, purporting to be so signed and sealed or stamped with such Seal, shall at all Times, and on behalf of all Persons and whether for the Purposes of this Act or otherwise, be admitted as Evidence of the Order or Report confirmed as aforesaid of which it purports to be a Copy, without any further Proof thereof.

Money Orders to be acted upon by Accountant General as if drawn up by the Registrar of the Court of Chancery.

CI. Where an Order or a Report confirmed by Fiat relates to the Payment, Transfer, carrying over, or depositing of any Cash, Stocks, Funds, Annuities, Securities, or other Effects to or into the Name of or in the Custody of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to the Credit of the Matter of a Lunatic, or to the Payment, Transfer, or carrying over or other Disposal by the said Accountant General of any Cash, Stocks, Funds, Annuities, Securities, or other Effects standing in his Name or deposited in his Custody to the Credit of the Matter of a Lunatic, or of any Cash, Stocks, Funds, Annuities, Securities, or other Effects to or in which a Lunatic is entitled or beneficially interested, and which are not standing in trust in a Cause or Matter depending in the Court of Chancery, the said Accountant General, and all other Persons, and the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall act upon the Order signed by the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, after the same has been entered as herein-before provided, or upon an Office Copy of the Report confirmed by Fiat, and thence receiving the Operation of an Order after the same has been filed as herein-before provided, in the same Manner as if an Order had been drawn up by the Registrar of the Court of Chancery, and passed and entered in the Court of Chancery according to the Practice formerly used; and the Registrar in Lunacy in case of an Order, and the Masters in case of a Report confirmed by Fiat, shall certify under their Hands respectively to the said Accountant General what Stocks, Funds, Annuities, Securities, or other Effects are by virtue of any such Order or Report confirmed as aforesaid (as the Case may be) to be sold, transferred, or delivered out, in the same Manner as the Registrars of the Court of Chancery were formerly accustomed to do.

Registrar to certify to Accountant General.

Persons forging the Signature or Seal of the Registrar guilty of Felony.

CII. If any Person shall forge the Signature of the Registrar in Lunacy, or shall forge or counterfeit the Seal of his Office, or knowingly concur in using any such forged or counterfeited Signature or Seal, or shall tender in Evidence any Document with a false

a false or counterfeit Signature of such Registrar, or with a false or counterfeit Seal, knowing the same Signature or Seal to be false or counterfeit, every such Person shall be guilty of Felony, and shall be liable to the same Punishment as any Offender under an Act of the Session of Parliament holden in the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and thirteen.

CIII. The foregoing Provisions "with respect to certain of the Proceedings after Inquisition," and "with respect to Orders," shall be applicable and applied, as far as may be, to the Proceedings in the Matters of Lunatics under the Protection of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, by virtue of Proceedings taken under the Act of the Session of Parliament holden in the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred, Section Ninety-five.

And with respect to the visiting of Lunatics, be it further enacted as follows :

CIV. Each Lunatic shall be personally visited and seen by One at the least of the Visitors, according to the Provisions of the next following Section, once at the least in each Year, or oftener, and at such Times as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may direct, or, in the Absence of his Directions, as the Board of Visitors may think expedient.

CV. The Medical Visitors shall continue to visit Lunatics as at present, and the Legal Visitors to be appointed after the Commencement of this Act shall also respectively visit Lunatics ; and the Visits of the several Visitors shall be from Time to Time regulated as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may direct, or, in the Absence of his Directions, as the Board of Visitors may deem necessary or advisable, in such Manner that, as far as Circumstances will admit, every Lunatic may from Time to Time and in due Succession be visited by the Legal Visitor either alone or in Company with One of the Medical Visitors.

CVI. The Visitors shall respectively, within a convenient Time after each Visit, make a Report in Writing to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid of the State of Mind and bodily Health and of the general Condition and also of the Care and Treatment of each Person visited and seen by them respectively, which Reports shall, annually or oftener, as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may direct or the Board of Visitors may think expedient, be submitted to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid ; and the Visitors respectively shall make separate or special Reports on any Case to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid as and when they or the Board of Visitors may think expedient, and in particular shall report to him, without Delay, any Instance in which they respectively, on proceeding to visit, have been unable to discover the then Residence of or have been by any other Circumstance prevented from actually seeing on that Occasion the Lunatic whom they intended to visit.

CVII. The Reports of the Visitors shall be filed and kept secret in their Office, and shall be open to the Inspection of no Person save the Members of the Board of Visitors, their Secretary and his Clerk, and the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid,

These Provisions to apply to Cases under 8 & 9 Vict. c. 100. s. 95.

Visiting,

Lunatics to be visited at least once a Year.

Medical Visitors and future Legal Visitors to visit either together or in succession.

Visitors to report to Lord Chancellor.

Visitors Reports to be kept secret and destroyed on Death, &c.

said, and such Persons as he may specially appoint; and all the Reports relating to any particular Patient shall be destroyed on the Death of the Patient, and shall also be destroyed on the Inquisition in his Case being superseded, or being vacated and discharged on a Traverse, unless the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, within Fourteen Days after the Supersedeas, or the vacating and Discharge on a Traverse, specially order that the same be not destroyed until the Death.

And with respect to the Management and Administration of the Estates of Lunatics, be it further enacted as follows :

CVIII. Where a Lunatic is entitled to be admitted Tenant of Copyhold Land, the Committee of his Estate may appear at One of the Three next Courts holden for the Manor (for the holding whereof the usual Notice shall be given), and there offer himself to be admitted Tenant in the Name and on behalf of the Lunatic; and in default of his Appearance, or of his Acceptance of Admittance, the Lord or his Steward may, after Three Courts duly holden, and Proclamations thereat regularly made, at any subsequent Court appoint any fit Person to be Attorney for the Lunatic for that Purpose only, and by that Attorney admit the Lunatic Tenant of the Land, according to such Estate as the Lunatic shall be legally entitled to therein.

CIX. The Lord or his Steward may upon the Admittance impose such Fine as might have been legally imposed if the Lunatic had been of sound Mind, which Fine may be demanded by the Lord's Bailiff or Agent, by a Note in Writing signed by the Lord or his Steward, to be left with the Committee of the Estate, or with the Tenant or Occupier of the Land.

CX. If the Fine be not paid or tendered to the Lord or his Steward within Three Months after Demand, then the Lord may enter upon and hold the Land, and receive the Rents and Profits thereof, (but without Liberty to fell any Timber standing thereon,) until he be thereby fully paid the Fine, with his reasonable Costs and Charges of raising the same, and of obtaining the Possession of the Land; although the Lunatic die before the Fine and Costs and Charges have been raised; of which Rents and Profits received by the Lord, his Steward, Bailiff, or Servant, the Lord shall yearly, on Demand by the Person entitled to the Surplus thereof, after Payment of the Fine and Costs and Charges, or by the Person then entitled to the Land, render a just and true Account, and shall pay the same Surplus, if any, to the Person entitled thereto; and as soon as the Fine and Costs and Charges have been fully paid, or if, after the Lord's Entry, the Fine and Costs and Charges be lawfully tendered to him, then the Lunatic, by the Committee of his Estate or other the Person entitled, may enter upon and hold the Land, according to his Estate or Interest therein; and the Lord shall deliver Possession thereof accordingly, and if he refuse so to do he shall make Satisfaction to the Person kept out of Possession for all the Damages which he shall thereby sustain, and all his Costs and Charges of recovering Possession.

CXI. If the Committee pay the Fine and Costs and Charges, then he, his Executors and Administrators, may enter upon and hold the Land, and receive the Rents and Profits thereof to his and their own Use, until he and they be thereby fully paid the Amount

Amount disbursed upon that Account, although the Lunatic die before his and their Reimbursement.

CXII. If the Fine imposed be not warranted by the Custom of the Manor, or be unlawful, the Lunatic may controvert its Legality, as if this Act had not been made; and no Lunatic shall forfeit any Land for his Neglect or Refusal to appear at any Court, or to be admitted thereto, or to pay the Fine imposed upon his Admittance.

Unlawful Fines may be controverted; and no Forfeiture in certain Cases.

CXIII. Where a Lunatic is entitled to a Lease for a Life or Lives or for a Term of Years, either absolute or determinable on a Death, or otherwise, the Committee of his Estate may, in his Name and on his Behalf, under an Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, by Deed surrender the Lease, and in the Name and on behalf and for the Benefit of the Lunatic accept a new Lease of the Premises comprised in the Lease surrendered, for such Number of Lives, or for such Term of Years, either absolute or determinable as aforesaid, as was mentioned or contained in the Lease surrendered at the making thereof, or otherwise as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall order.

Committee may surrender Lease, and accept Renewal.

CXIV. Every Sum of Money and other Consideration paid by a Committee or other Person, in the Nature of or as a Fine, Premium, or Income upon Renewal, and all reasonable Charges incident thereto, may be paid out of the Lunatic's Estate, or may, with Interest, be a Charge upon the Leasehold Premises, as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall order.

Charges of Renewal to be charged on Estates.

CXV. Every Lease renewed shall operate and be to the same Uses, and be liable to the same Trusts, Charges, Incumbrances, Dispositions, Devises, and Conditions, as the Lease surrendered was subject to, or would have been subject to if the Surrender had not been made.

New Leases to be to the same Uses.

CXVI. Where it appears to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid to be just and reasonable, or for the Lunatic's Benefit, he may order that any Estate or Interest of the Lunatic in Land or Stock, either in possession, reversion, remainder, contingency, or expectancy, be sold, or charged by way of Mortgage, or otherwise disposed of, as may to him seem most expedient, for the Purpose of raising Money to be applied, and may accordingly order that the Money when raised may be applied, for or towards all or any of the Purposes following:

Lunatic's Property may be sold, mortgaged, &c. for Debts, Maintenance, &c.

1. The Payment of the Lunatic's Debts or Engagements;
2. The Discharge of any Incumbrance on his Estates;
3. The Payment of any Debt or Expenditure incurred or made after Inquisition, or authorized by the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid to be incurred or made, for the Lunatic's Maintenance or otherwise for his Benefit;
4. The Payment of or Provision for the Expenses of his future Maintenance;
5. The Payment of the Costs of applying for, obtaining, and executing the Inquiry, and of opposing the same;
6. The Payment of the Costs of any Proceeding under or consequent on the Inquisition, or incurred under Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid; and
7. The Payment of the Costs of any such Sale, Mortgage, Charge, or other Disposition as is hereby authorized to be made:

And the Committee of the Estate may and shall, in the Name and on behalf of the Lunatic, execute, make, and do all such Conveyances, Deeds, Transfers, and Things relative to any such Sale, Mortgage, Charge, or other Disposition as aforesaid, and for effectuating this present Provision, as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall order.

Modes in which future Maintenance may be charged when Interest not in possession.

CXVII. In case of a Charge or Mortgage being made under this Act upon an Interest in contingency, or in reversion, remainder, or expectancy, for the Expenses of future Maintenance, the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may direct the same to be payable and paid either contingently, if the Interest charged be a contingent one, or upon the happening of the Event, if the Interest be depending on an Event which must happen, and either in a gross Sum or in annual or other periodical Sums, and at such Times, in such Manner, and either with or without Interest, as he shall deem expedient; and any Charge already made which would have been valid if made after this Act shall be and is hereby declared to be valid.

Expenses of Improvements may be charged on Estate.

CXVIII. Where it appears to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid to be for the Lunatic's Benefit, he may order that the whole or any Part of any Monies expended or to be expended under his Order for the permanent Improvement, Security, or Advantage of the Land of the Lunatic or of any particular Part thereof, shall, with Interest, be a Charge upon and be raisable out of the Lunatic's Estate and Interest in the Land or such particular Part thereof as aforesaid, but so that no Right of Sale or Foreclosure during the Lifetime of the Lunatic be given or acquired under or by virtue of the Charge; and the Interest shall be kept down during the Lunatic's Lifetime, out of the Income of his general Estate, as far as the same shall be sufficient to bear it; and the Committee of the Estate may and shall, in the Name and on behalf of the Lunatic, execute and do all such Conveyances and Things for effectuating this present Provision as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall order; and such Charge may be made either to some Person advancing the Money, or, if the Money is paid out of the Lunatic's general Property, to some Person as a Trustee for him, as Part of his Personal Estate.

Surplus of Monies to be of the same Nature as the Estate.

CXIX. On any Monies being raised by Sale, Mortgage, Charge, or other Disposition of Land made in pursuance of any of the foregoing Provisions, the Person whose Estate is sold, mortgaged, charged, or otherwise disposed of, and his Heirs, next of Kin, Devises, Legatees, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, shall have such and the like Interest in the surplus Monies remaining after the Purposes for which the Monies have been raised shall have been answered as he or they would have had in the Estate if no Sale, Mortgage, Charge, or other Disposition thereof had been made, and the surplus Monies shall be of the same Nature and Character as the Estate sold, mortgaged, charged, or otherwise disposed of; and the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may make such Orders, and direct such Conveyances, Deeds, and Things to be executed and done (which may and shall accordingly be executed and done), as may be necessary for the effectuating this present Provision, and for the due Application of the surplus Monies.

CXX. Where it is made to appear to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid that the net Amount or net estimated Value of the Property of a Lunatic does not exceed the Sum of Five hundred Pounds Sterling, and it appears to him, having regard to the Situation and Condition in Life of the Lunatic and his Family, and the other Circumstances of the Case, to be expedient that the Amount or Value of his Property should be made available for his Maintenance in a direct and inexpensive Manner, and that the same can be safely and properly done, he may, instead of proceeding to order a Grant of the Custody of the Estate, order or allow that the Amount of the Property, if in Money or Stock, or if of any other Description the Produce thereof when realized, be paid or transferred to such Relative of the Lunatic, or such other Person as he may think proper to intrust with the Application thereof, to be by him applied in or towards the Maintenance of the Lunatic, either at his Discretion or in such Manner and subject to such Control as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may direct; and for the Purpose of giving effect to any such Order, the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may order any small Real Estate or other Property of the Lunatic to be sold, and a valid Conveyance or Transfer thereof to be executed or made by such Person as he shall direct.

Where Property very small, Lord Chancellor may apply same directly for Lunatic's Maintenance, without Grant, &c.

CXXI. Where it appears to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, upon a Report of the Masters, that there is Reason to believe that the Unsoundness of Mind of any Lunatic so found by Inquisition is in its Nature temporary, and will probably be soon removed, and that it is expedient that temporary Provision should be made for the Maintenance of the Lunatic, or of the Lunatic and the Members of his immediate Family who are dependent upon him for Maintenance, and that any Sum of Money arising from or being in the Nature of Income or of ready Money belonging to the Lunatic, and standing to his Account with a Banker or Agent, or being in the Hands of any Person for his Use, is readily available and may be safely and properly applied in that Behalf, the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may allow thereout such Amount as he may think proper for the temporary Maintenance of the Lunatic, or of the Lunatic and the Members of his immediate Family who are dependent upon him for Maintenance, and may, instead of proceeding to order a Grant of the Custody of the Estate, order or give Liberty for the Payment of any such Sum of Money as aforesaid, or any Part thereof, to such Person as he may, under the Circumstances of the Case, think proper to intrust with the Application thereof, and may direct the same to be paid to such Person accordingly, and when received to be applied, and the same shall accordingly be applied, in or towards such temporary Maintenance as aforesaid; and the Receipts in Writing of the Person named in the Order to whom Payment is to be made for any Monies payable to him by virtue thereof shall effectually discharge the Banker, Agent, or other Person paying the same from the Monies therein respectively expressed to be received, and they respectively are hereby directed to act upon and obey every such Order; and the Person so receiving any Monies by virtue of this present Provision shall pass an Account thereof before the Masters, when required.

Where Lunacy temporary, Lord Chancellor may apply Cash arising from Income for temporary Maintenance, without Grant, &c.

Committee may convey Land in Performance of Contracts.

CXXII. Where a Person having contracted to sell, mortgage, let, divide, exchange, or otherwise dispose of any Land afterwards becomes Lunatic, and the Contract is not disputed, and is such as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid thinks ought to be performed, or a specific Performance of the Contract, either wholly or so far as the same remains to be performed, has been decreed or ordered by the Court of Chancery, either before or after the Lunacy, the Committee of the Estate may, in the Name and on behalf of the Lunatic, under an Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, on the Application of the Party claiming the Benefit of the Contract with the Lunatic, or any Plaintiff in the Suit, receive and give an effectual Discharge for the Money payable to the Lunatic, or so much thereof as remains unpaid, and make such Conveyance of the Land to such Person and in such Manner as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may order.

Lord Chancellor may dissolve Partnership, and Committee may convey Partnership Property.

CXXIII. Where a Person, being a Member of a Copartnership Firm, becomes Lunatic, the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may, by Order made on the Application of the Partner or Partners of the Lunatic, or of such other Person or Persons as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall think entitled to require the same, dissolve the Partnership; and thereupon, or upon a Dissolution of the Partnership by Decree of the Court of Chancery, or otherwise by due Course of Law, the Committee of the Estate, in the Name and on behalf of the Lunatic, may join and concur with such other Person or Persons in disposing of the Partnership Property, as well real as personal, to such Persons, upon such Terms, and in such Manner, and may and shall execute and do such Conveyances and Things for effectuating this present Provision, and apply the Monies payable to the Lunatic in respect of his Share and Interest in the Copartnership, in such Manner as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall order.

Committee may make Sale, Partition, or Exchange.

CXXIV. Where a Lunatic is seized of or entitled to an undivided Share of Land, and it appears to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid to be for his Benefit and to be expedient that a Sale of the Land, or Part thereof, or a Partition of the Land, should be made, and where a Lunatic is seized of or entitled to Land, and it appears to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid to be for his Benefit and to be expedient that an Exchange thereof, or of Part thereof, for other Land, should be made, the Committee of the Estate, in the Name and on behalf of the Lunatic, under an Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, may concur with such other Person in making such Sale or Partition, or may make such Exchange, and receive such Monies payable on the Sale, and give or receive such Monies for Equality of Partition or Exchange, or otherwise in relation thereto, as the Order may direct; and all Monies received by the Committee of the Estate upon any such Sale, Partition, or Exchange as aforesaid shall be applied and disposed of in manner directed in Section One hundred and thirty-five of this Act respecting the Fines, Premiums, and Sums of Money therein mentioned; and the Land taken in Exchange shall be held and assured (as nearly as may be) to the same Uses, and upon the same Trusts, and subject to the same Powers and Provisions (if any).

any), to, upon, and subject to which the Land given in Exchange was held; and the Committee of the Estate may and shall, in the Name and on behalf of the Lunatic, execute and do all such Conveyances and Things for effectuating this present Provision as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall order.

CXXV. Where a Lunatic is seized of or entitled to Land in Fee Simple, and it appears to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid to be for his Benefit that the same or any Part thereof should be made available for Building Purposes, and that to that end the same should, in lieu of being demised for long Terms of Years, be absolutely sold, he may order the same to be sold accordingly, to such Persons, in such Quantities, upon such Terms, and in such Manner as to him may seem expedient, and the Monies arising thereby shall be applied and disposed of in manner directed in Section One hundred and thirty-two of this Act respecting the surplus Monies therein mentioned; and the Committee of the Estate may and shall, in the Name and on behalf of the Lunatic, execute and do all such Conveyances and Things for effectuating this present Provision as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall order.

Committee may sell Land for Building Purposes.

CXXVI. Where a Lunatic has been engaged in a Trade or Business, and it appears to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid to be for the Benefit of the Lunatic or his Estate that the Business Premises should be disposed of, the Committee of the Estate may, in the Name and on behalf of the Lunatic, under Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, make such Conveyance of the Messuages, Buildings, or Hereditaments of or belonging to the Trade or Business, or used in connexion therewith, according to the Lunatic's Estate and Interest in the same, to such Person, and shall apply the Monies arising thereby in such Manner, as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall order.

Committee may assign Business Premises.

CXXVII. Where a Lunatic is entitled to a Lease for a Life or Lives or for a Term of Years, either absolute or determinable on a Death or otherwise, or to an Under-lease, of whatsoever Nature, and it appears to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid to be desirable and for the Benefit of the Lunatic or his Estate that the Lease or Under-lease should be disposed of, the Committee of the Estate may, in the Name and on behalf of the Lunatic, under Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, surrender, assign, or otherwise dispose of the Lease or Under-lease, to such Person, for such valuable or nominal or other Consideration, upon such Terms, by such Conveyances, and in such Manner, and shall apply the Monies (if any) arising thereby in such Manner, as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall order.

Committee may dispose of undesirable Lease.

CXXVIII. The Committee of the Estate of a Lunatic may, with the Approbation of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, signified by Order on the Application of the Committee, enter into any Agreement for or on behalf of the Lunatic which the Guardian of an Infant might have entered into for or on behalf of the Infant by virtue of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the First Year of the Reign of King George the First, Chapter Ten, if so much of that Act as related to Agreements of Guardians for or on behalf of Infants or Idiots under Committee may make Agreements under 1 G. 1. c. 10.

under their Guardianship had not been repealed by the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the First Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-five, Section Twenty-five.

Committee may make Building and other Leases, subject to such Covenants as Lord Chancellor shall order.

CXXIX. Where a Lunatic is seised or possessed of or entitled to Land in Fee or in Tail, or to Leasehold Land for an absolute Interest, and it appears to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid to be for his Benefit that a Lease or Under-lease should be made thereof for Terms of Years, for encouraging the Erection of Buildings thereon, or for repairing Buildings actually being thereon, or otherwise improving the same, or for farming or other Purposes, the Committee of the Estate may, in the Name and on behalf of the Lunatic, under Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, make such Lease of the Land or any Part thereof, according to the Lunatic's Estate and Interest therein, and to the Nature of the Tenure thereof, for such Term or Terms of Years and subject to such Rents and Covenants as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall order.

Committee may make Leases of Mines already opened.

CXXX. Where a Lunatic is seised or possessed of or entitled to Land in Fee or in Tail, and it appears to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid to be for his Benefit that any Mine or Quarry already opened in, upon, or under the Land should be worked, the Committee of the Estate may, in the Name and on behalf of the Lunatic, under Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, make such Lease of the Mines, Quarries, Minerals, Stones, and Substances, in, upon, or under the Land, either with or without any Land convenient to be held therewith, and with or without the Surface, to such Person, for such Term or Terms of Years, and subject to such Rents, Royalties, Reservations, Covenants, and Agreements, and in such Manner and Form, as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall order.

Committee may, where necessary for Maintenance of Lunatic, or expedient, make Leases of Mines unopened.

CXXXI. Where a Lunatic is seised or possessed of or entitled to Land in Fee or in Tail, and it appears to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid either to be necessary for the Maintenance of the Lunatic and the Members of his immediate Family for whom Provision is directed to be made, or to be expedient in a due Course of Management, that any Mine or Quarry, being in, upon, or under the Land, should be opened and worked, the Committee of the Estate may, in the Name and on behalf of the Lunatic, under Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, make such Lease of the Mines, Quarries, Minerals, Stones, and Substances in, upon, or under the Land, although not already opened or worked, and either with or without any Land convenient to be held therewith, and with or without the Surface, to such Person, for such Term or Terms of Years, and subject to such Rents, Royalties, Reservations, Covenants, and Agreements, and in such Manner and Form, as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall order.

Produce of newly-opened Mines, where necessary for Lunatic's Maintenance, to be so applied ;

CXXXII. Where the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid makes any such Order as in and by the last preceding Section is authorized to be made, by reason of its appearing to him to be necessary for the Maintenance of the Lunatic and such Members of his immediate Family as aforesaid, that the Mine or Quarry should be opened and worked, then the Monies arising thereby shall shall be applied in or towards such Maintenance as aforesaid, in such Manner as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall direct; but in such Case the Surplus thereof, and in every other Case all the Monies so arising, shall be carried to a separate Account, and may be applied for or towards all or any of the Purposes for which Monies are herein-before authorized to be raised by Sale of the Lunatic's Estate, or in such other Manner for the Lunatic's Benefit as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall direct; and upon the Lunatic's Death the Monies remaining on the Credit of such separate Account shall, as between the Representatives of his Real and of his Personal Estate, be considered as Real Estate.

otherwise to be carried to separate Account, and be considered Real Estate.

CXXXIII. Where a Lunatic has a limited Estate only in Land, and any Power whatsoever of leasing the same is vested in him, the Committee of his Estate may and shall from Time to Time, in the Name and on behalf of the Lunatic, under Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, execute the Power, to such Extent and in such Manner as the Order shall direct; and all Fines, Premiums, and Sums of Money (if any) received for or upon the granting of any Lease under this present Provision shall be applied and disposed of in manner directed in Section One hundred and thirty-five of this Act respecting the Fines, Premiums, and Sums of Money therein mentioned.

Committee may execute leasing Powers of Lunatic having limited Estate.

CXXXIV. Where a Lunatic is entitled or has a Right to renew, and either it would be for his Benefit to renew, or he might, in pursuance of any Covenant or Agreement, if not under Disability, be compelled to renew, a Lease made for a Life or Lives, or for a Term of Years, either absolute or determinable on a Death or otherwise, the Committee of his Estate may, in his Name, under an Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, upon the Application of the Committee, or of any Person entitled to the Renewal, accept a Surrender of the Lease, and make and execute a new Lease, of the Premises comprised in the Lease surrendered, for such Number of Lives, or for such Term or Terms of Years determinable upon such Number of Lives, or for such Term or Terms of Years absolute, as was or were mentioned or contained in the Lease surrendered at the making thereof, or otherwise as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall order, but so that no renewed Lease be executed by virtue of this Act, in pursuance of any Covenant or Agreement, unless the Fine (if any) or such other Sum of Money (if any) as ought to be paid on Renewal, and such Things (if any) as ought to be performed in pursuance of the Covenant or Agreement by the Lessee or Tenant, be first paid and performed, and a Counterpart be duly executed by the Lessee.

Committee may accept Surrender, and make new Lease.

CXXXV. All Fines, Premiums, and Sums of Money received upon Renewal shall, after Deduction of all necessary incidental Charges and Expenses, be paid to the Committee of the Estate, and be applied for the Lunatic's Benefit as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall order; but upon the Lunatic's Death all such Monies as have arisen by such Fines, Premiums, or Sums of Money, or so much thereof as then remains unapplied for his Benefit, shall, as between the Representatives of his Real and of his Personal Estate, be considered as Real Estate, unless the Lunatic

Fines, how to be paid.

On Death of Lunatic, Quality of Money arising by Fines.

Lunatic be Tenant for Life only, and then the same shall be considered as Personal Estate.

Committee may exercise Power vested in Lunatic for his own Benefit, or give Consent.

CXXXVI. Where a Power is vested in a Lunatic for his own Benefit, or the Consent of a Lunatic is necessary to the Exercise of a Power, and such Power of Consent is in the Nature of a beneficial Interest in the Lunatic, and it appears to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid to be for the Lunatic's Benefit, and also to be expedient, that the Power should be exercised or the Consent given (as the Case may be), the Committee of the Estate may, in the Name and on behalf of the Lunatic, under an Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, made upon the Application of the Committee of the Estate, exercise the Power or give the Consent, as the Case may be, in such Manner as the Order shall direct.

Committee may exercise Power vested in Lunatic in Character of Trustee or Guardian, &c.

CXXXVII. Where a Power is vested in a Lunatic in the Character of Trustee or Guardian, or the Consent of a Lunatic to the Exercise of a Power is necessary in the like Character, or as a Check upon the undue Exercise of the Power, and it appears to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid to be fit and expedient that the Power should be exercised or the Consent given (as the Case may be), the Committee of the Estate, in the Name and on behalf of the Lunatic, under an Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, made upon the Application of any Person interested in the Exercise of the Power, may exercise the Power or give the Consent, as the Case may be, in such Manner as the Order shall direct.

Appointment of new Trustees under Power to have Effect of Appointments by Court of Chancery, and like Orders may be made as under Trustee Act, 1850.

CXXXVIII. Where under this Act the Committee of the Estate, under Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, exercises, in the Name and on behalf of the Lunatic, a Power of appointing new Trustees vested in the Lunatic, the Person or Persons who shall, after and in consequence of the Exercise of the Power, be the Trustee or Trustees, shall have all the same Rights and Powers as he or they would have had if the Order had also been made by the Court of Chancery, under the Trustee Act, 1850, or any Act amending the same, or if he or they had been appointed by Decree of that Court in a Suit duly instituted; and the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may in any such Case, where it seems to him to be for the Lunatic's Benefit, and also expedient, make any and every such Order respecting the Land or Stock or Choses in Action subject to the Trust as might have been made in the same Case under the Provisions of the Trustee Act, 1850, or any Act amending the same, on the Appointment thereunder of a new Trustee or new Trustees.

Deeds, &c. executed under this Act to be as valid as if Lunatic of sound Mind.

CXXXIX. Every Surrender, Lease, Agreement, Deed, Conveyance, Mortgage, or other Disposition granted, accepted, made, or executed by virtue of this Act shall be as valid and legal to all Intents and Purposes as if the Person in whose Name or Place or on whose Behalf the same was granted, accepted, made, or executed had been of sound Mind, and had granted, accepted, made, or executed the same.

Stock belonging to Lunatic may be ordered to be transferred.

CXL. Where any Stock is standing in the Name of or is vested in a Lunatic beneficially entitled thereto, or is standing in the Name of or vested in a Committee of the Estate of a Lunatic, in trust for the Lunatic, or as Part of his Property, and the Committee mittee dies intestate, or himself becomes lunatic, or is out of the Jurisdiction of or not amenable to the Process of the Court of Chancery, or it is uncertain whether the Committee be living or dead, or he neglects or refuses to transfer the Stock, and to receive and pay over the Dividends thereof, to a new Committee, or as he directs, for the Space of Fourteen Days next after a Request in Writing for that Purpose made by a new Committee, then the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may order some fit Person to transfer the Stock to or into the Name of a new Committee, or into the Name of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, or otherwise, and also to receive and pay over the Dividends thereof, or such Sum or Sums of Money, and in such Manner as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may order.

CXLL. Where any Stock, or any Portion of the Capital Stock, or any Share of any Company or Society, whether transferable in Books or otherwise, is standing in the Name of or vested in a Person residing out of England and Wales, the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, upon Proof to his Satisfaction that the Person has been declared idiot, lunatic, or of unsound Mind, and that his Personal Estate has been vested in a Curator or other Person appointed for the Management thereof, according to the Laws of the Place where he is residing, may order some fit Person to make such Transfer of the Stock, or such Portion of the Capital Stock or Share as aforesaid, or any Part or Parts thereof respectively, to or into the Name of the Curator or other Person appointed as aforesaid, or otherwise, and also to receive and pay over the Dividends thereof, as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may think fit.

Stock in Name of Lunatic residing out of England and Wales may be ordered to be transferred.

CXLII. Where an Order is made under this Act for the Transfer of Stock, the Person to be named in the Order for making the Transfer shall be some proper Officer of the Company or Society in whose Books the Transfer is to be made; and where the Transfer is to be made in Books kept by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, the Officer to be named shall be the Secretary or Deputy Secretary, or Accountant General or Deputy Accountant General for the Time being, of the said Governor and Company.

Who shall be appointed to make Transfer.

CXLIII. All Transfers and Payments made in pursuance of this Act shall be valid and binding to all Intents and upon all Persons whomsoever.

Transfers, &c. to be binding.

CXLIV. This Act shall be a full Indemnity and Discharge to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, their Officers and Servants, and all other Persons respectively, for all Acts and Things done or permitted to be done pursuant thereto, which Acts and Things respectively shall not be questioned or impeached in any Court of Law or Equity to their Detriment.

Indemnity to Bank of England, &c.

CXLV. The Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may order the Costs and Expenses of and relating to the Petitions, Applications, Orders, Directions, Conveyances, and Transfers to be made in pursuance of this Act, or any of them, to be paid and raised out of or from the Land or Stock, or the Rents or Dividends in respect of which the same respectively shall be made, in such Manner as he may think proper.

Costs may be paid out of Estate.

CXLVI. Nothing

Act not to subject Lunatic's Property to Debts.

Powers to extend to Colonies, &c.

Traverse.

Petitions for Traverse to be presented within a limited Time.

Persons not petitioning, or not proceeding to Trial within limited Time, barred.

Lord Chancellor may direct new Trials.

Lord Chancellor may, notwithstanding Traverse, make Orders for Management of Person and Estate.

CXLVI. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend to subject any Part of a Lunatic's Property to the Debts or Demands of his Creditors, further or otherwise than as the same is now subject thereto by due Course of Law.

CXLVII. The Powers and Authorities given by this Act to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall extend to all Land and Stock within any of the Dominions, Plantations, and Colonies of Her Majesty (except Scotland and Ireland).

And with respect to the Traverse of an Inquisition, be it further enacted as follows :

CXLVIII. Any Person desiring to traverse may, within the Three Months next after the Day of the Return of the Inquisition, present a Petition for that Purpose to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, who is hereby required to hear and determine the Petition, and shall, in his Order upon it for a Traverse, limit a Time, not exceeding Six Months from the Date of the Order, within which the Person desiring to traverse and all other proper Parties are to proceed to Trial of the Traverse, and who may by the same or any other Order direct that the Person desiring to traverse, not being the Person the Object of the Inquisition, shall, within the Three Weeks next after the Date of the Order, give sufficient Security to and to the Satisfaction of the Masters for all proper Parties proceeding to Trial within the Time to be limited as aforesaid.

CXLIX. Every Person having Right to traverse who shall not within the Time herein-before limited present his Petition for that Purpose, or who shall refuse or neglect to give such Security as aforesaid, or who shall not proceed to Trial within the Time to be limited as aforesaid, and his Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, and all others claiming by, through, or under him, shall be absolutely barred of his and their Right of Traverse, unless the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall, under the special Circumstances of any particular Case, think fit, upon Petition for that Purpose, to allow the Traverse to be had or tried after the Time by this Act limited, in all which special Cases the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may make such Orders as to him shall seem just.

CL. If the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid be dissatisfied with the Verdict returned upon a Traverse, he may order One or more new Trial or Trials thereon, as to him shall seem meet, and as is usual in Cases of Issues directed by the Court of Chancery; but no Person shall be admitted to traverse oftener than once.

CLL. The Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid and the Masters may from Time to Time, after the Return of the Inquisition, and notwithstanding a Petition or Order depending relative to a Traverse thereof, make such Orders and do such Acts relative to the Custody and Commitment of the Person, and the Commitment, Management, and Application of the Estates and Effects of the Person, the Object of the Inquisition, as he or they shall think necessary or proper (inclusive of the Imposition and levying of Fees and Per-centage as herein-before provided); and all Things done by any Person appointed Committee of the Person or Estate, or by any other Person, shall be as valid and effectual, and all Committees and other Persons respectively, and their respective Heirs, Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, are hereby indemnified in respect of all such Things as aforesaid from and against all Actions, Suits, and Proceedings, Damages, Costs, Charges, and Expenses, to be brought, commenced, had, or recovered by the Person the Object of the Inquisition, his Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, or any other Person whomsoever, as fully and effectually as if the Inquisition had not been traversable, but not further or otherwise.

And with respect to the Supersedeas of an Inquisition, be it further enacted as follows :

CLII. Where any Person has been found of unsound Mind by Inquisition, but the Question of Unsoundness of Mind is disputed, and Liberty to traverse has been applied for, and whether granted or not, and it appears to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid to be for the Lunatic's Benefit and also to be expedient that the Inquisition should be superseded on Terms and Conditions, and subject to an Arrangement respecting the Lunatic's Estate, he may, upon the Consent of the Lunatic and of the Person entitled or claiming to traverse, and of such other Persons, if any, whose Consent he may deem necessary, order the Inquisition to be superseded on such Terms and Conditions to be fulfilled by the Lunatic or such other Person, and subject to such Arrangement respecting the Lunatic's Estate, as he may under the Circumstances of the Case think proper, and may by the same or any other Order direct the Lunatic and any other Persons, being consenting Parties to the Arrangement, to execute, make, and do, before or after the issuing of the Writ of Supersedeas, and he and they shall accordingly execute, make, and do, all such Conveyances, Transfers, and Things as may to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid seem necessary or proper for or for securing the Fulfilment of such Terms and Conditions and the Completion of such Arrangement as aforesaid, and generally may make such Orders as to him may seem proper for effectuating this present Provision ; and all Conveyances, Transfers, and Things executed, made, and done under any such Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, either before or after the issuing of the Writ of Supersedeas, shall be as valid and binding to all Intents and upon all Persons whomsoever as if the Lunatic had not been found or had not been of unsound Mind, but not further or otherwise.

And be it declared and further enacted as follows :

CLIII. The Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance aforesaid, may from Time to Time make such Orders as to him shall seem meet for carrying into effect the Purposes of this Act, and for regulating the Form and Mode of Proceeding before and by the Masters and the Practice in Matters in Lunacy, and for regulating the Duties of the several Officers in Lunacy, and, so far as to him may seem expedient, for altering the Course of Proceeding herein-before prescribed in respect of the Matters to which this Act relates, or any of them ; and any such Order as aforesaid may be from Time to Time rescinded or varied by the like Authority ; and every such Order as aforesaid which shall alter the Course of Proceeding herein-before prescribed in respect of the Matters to which this Act relates, or any of them, shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Fourteen Days after the Supersedeas.

Inquisition may be superseded upon Terms.

General Orders.

Power to Lord Chancellor to make General Orders.

the making thereof, if Parliament be then assembled, and if not then within Fourteen Days after the Meeting of Parliament then next following; and if either House of Parliament shall, by Resolution, passed within Thirty-six Days next after any such Order as aforesaid has been laid before it, resolve that the whole or any Part thereof ought not to continue in force, in that Case the whole Order or the Part of the Order specified in the Resolution (as the Case may be) shall from and after the passing of the Resolution cease to be binding.

An Act for the Establishment of a Body of Naval Coast Volunteers, and for the temporary Transfer to the Navy, in case of Need, of Seafaring Men employed in other Public Services. [15th August 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to establish and train a Body of Volunteers, who may be called forth and employed when the Defence of the Realm may require with or in aid of Her Majesty’s Naval Forces, and to provide for the Service in the Navy upon the like Emergency of Seafaring Men who may be employed in any Department of the Public Service:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Power to Admiralty to raise “Royal Naval Coast Volunteers,” not to exceed 10,000 Men.

I. It shall be lawful for the Lord High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral to raise and from Time to Time to keep up a Number of Men, not exceeding Ten thousand, to be called “The Royal Naval Coast Volunteers,” such Men to be raised by voluntary Entry (from among Seafaring Men and others who may be deemed suitable for the Services in which such Volunteers may be employed), and to be so raised and entered at such Times, in such Places in the United Kingdom, and the Islands of Man, Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, and Sark, or any of them, by such Persons, and in such Manner as such Lord High Admiral or Commissioners shall from Time to Time direct.

Volunteers to be entered for Five Years.

II. Every Volunteer raised under this Act shall be entered for the Term of Five Years, and shall continue subject as a Volunteer to the Provisions of this Act during such Term, and no longer, save as herein-after otherwise provided.

III. The

III. The Lord High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral may cause the Volunteers under this Act to be instructed, trained, and exercised in Seamanship, Gunnery, and the Use of Arms, and generally in such Manner as to the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners may seem most suitable for rendering such Volunteers fit to be employed in aiding the Regular Naval Forces of Her Majesty, and may cause all or any of such Volunteers to be instructed, trained, and exercised on shore or on board any Ships or Vessels, or partly on shore and partly on board any Ships or Vessels, and at and for such Time or Times as the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners may think fit; and for the Purpose of such Instruction, Training, and Exercise, all or any of such Volunteers may be called out together at the same Time or Times of any Year, or in different Parts and at different Times of any Year, and may be required to attend at such Times and Places, and may be placed under and shall be subject to the Command of such Officers, as the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners may think fit and direct, and may appoint for that Purpose, and where he or they so direct shall for such Purpose form Part of and be under the like Command as the respective Crews of any of Her Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War which the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners may see fit to cause them to join for such Purpose: Provided always, that no Volunteer shall under this Enactment be required to attend more than Twenty-eight Days in the whole in any Year, or be taken or sent beyond Fifty Leagues from the Shore of some Part of the United Kingdom.

IV. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty in case of imminent National Danger or of great Emergency (the Occasion being first communicated to Parliament if Parliament be sitting, or declared in Council and notified by Proclamation if Parliament be not sitting or in being,) to order and direct that the Volunteers under this Act, or so many or such Part of them as Her Majesty may deem necessary, shall be called into actual Service.

V. Whenever Her Majesty shall as aforesaid order all or any Number or Part of the Volunteers under this Act to be called into actual Service, the Lord High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral shall cause the said Volunteers, or such Number or Part of them as Her Majesty may have ordered, to be called into actual Service accordingly; and the Volunteers so called into actual Service shall be liable to serve on shore, or on board any Ships or Vessels, or partly on shore and partly on board any Ships or Vessels, as the Lord High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral may direct, but so that no such Volunteer be taken or sent beyond One hundred Leagues from the Shore of some Part of the United Kingdom; and such Volunteers may be placed under the Command of such Officers as the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners may direct, and where he or they so direct shall form Part of and be under the like Command as the respective Crews of any of Her Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War which the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners may see fit to cause them to join; and every such Volunteer so called into actual Service shall be liable to such Service for One Year from the Time of Volunteers may be trained and exercised for 28 Days in each Year, and on shore or on board Ship.

In case of imminent National Danger, &c. Her Majesty may order the Volunteers into actual Service.

Volunteers to be called into actual Service accordingly, not to be liable to be sent beyond 100 Leagues from the Shore of the United Kingdom.

Term of Service One Year, subject to being extended for another Year by Royal Proclamation.

Volunteers whose Service is extended entitled to extra Pay.

After required Period Volunteers entitled to Discharge; but may be continued for specified Period of actual Service, notwithstanding Expiration of 5 Years.

During Exercise and actual Service, Men to have the Pay of able Seamen and Allowances when afloat.

being so called into actual Service, and at the Expiration of such Service shall be entitled to be discharged: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, in case She see fit, by Proclamation to declare that such Volunteers as may at the Date of such Proclamation be in actual Service as aforesaid shall continue in such actual Service for One Year from such Date if their Services be so long required, and every such Volunteer who may be in actual Service at the Date of such Proclamation shall be liable to such Service accordingly; and every Volunteer whose Period of actual Service is extended under or in consequence of such Proclamation, shall be entitled to receive for his Services during the extra Period for which they are required Twopence a Day in addition to his ordinary Pay: Provided also, that in case any such Volunteer be called into actual Service and be not at any One Time detained in such Service for a Period exceeding Six Months, he shall be and remain liable to be again called into actual Service during the Remainder of his Term of Five Years, in the same Manner and to serve for the like Term as if he had not before been called into such Service, and any Volunteer having been called into actual Service and discharged therefrom after having continued therein for more than Six Months and less than a Year shall be liable to be again called into actual Service as such Volunteer, and to serve for such further Term only as, with the Term during which he may have continued in actual Service as last aforesaid, will make up One Year, subject nevertheless to such Extension of Service as herein-before mentioned under Her Majesty's Proclamation.

VI. Provided also, That in case any such Volunteer be discharged from actual Service after having completed such a Period of such Service as under the foregoing Provision would exempt him from being again called into the like Service, he shall be entitled to be also discharged from all other Service and Liability as a Volunteer, although his Term of Five Years may not have expired; but, except as aforesaid, every Volunteer whose Term of Five Years shall not have expired at the Date of Her Majesty's Order directing Volunteers to be called into actual Service may be called into actual Service under such Order, and shall (notwithstanding the Expiration of such Term of Five Years) be liable to be continued in such actual Service for such Period or extended Period as herein-before provided, and shall remain subject to the Provisions of this Act accordingly.

VII. The Volunteers under this Act shall for such Time as they shall be called out for and shall attend Instruction, Training, and Exercise, and for such Time as they shall be in actual Service under this Act, be entitled when on shore to the Pay of able Seamen in the Royal Navy entered for Ten Years continuous and general Service, and when afloat to the same Pay and Allowances as such able Seamen, and shall be entitled to such Conduct Money in respect of travelling to and from any Place at which they may be required to attend for Instruction, Training, and Exercise, or for the Purpose of entering into actual Service as aforesaid, as may be allowed by the Regulations made under this Act: Provided always, that any such Volunteer who may be appointed to be or perform the Duties of a Petty Officer shall be entitled when on shore to the Pay, and when afloat to the Pay and Allowances, of a Petty Officer in the Royal Navy of the same Rank in lieu of the Pay or Pay and Allowances of an able Seaman in the Navy.

VIII. Every Volunteer under this Act shall while he shall be such Volunteer be protected from Service in the Royal Navy, save under the Circumstances and for the Time and in the Manner herein expressly provided, and be exempt from Service in the Militia, and from serving as a Peace Officer or Parish Officer.

IX. All Provisions for the Time being in force for and in relation to the billeting of the Royal Marines shall extend and be applicable to the Volunteers under this Act during such Time as they shall attend Instruction, Training, and Exercise, or be in actual Service; and all Powers and Authorities for or in relation to the billeting of the Royal Marines which may be exercised by any Colonel Commandant or Commanding Officer of any Division of Royal Marines may, for the Purpose of billeting such Volunteers, be exercised by any Officer in the Royal Navy holding the Rank of Commander or any higher Rank authorized in this Behalf by the Regulations made under this Act.

X. It shall be lawful for the Lord High Admiral or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral from Time to Time to make Regulations as to the Sums to be paid to Volunteers under this Act by way of Bounty or periodical Payment or Allowance in consideration of their entering under this Act, and to Volunteers or Persons who may have served as Volunteers in consideration of their re-entering under this Act, (such Bounty in no Case to exceed Six Pounds, and such periodical Payment or Allowance in no Case to exceed after the Rate of Two Shillings and Sixpence per Month during the Term of Service for which the Volunteer is entered), and as to the Time or respective Times, Conditions, and Manner of the Payment thereof, and as to the Manner and Form in which such Volunteers shall be entered to serve, and generally as to the entering and re-entering of Men as such Volunteers, and as to the Arms, Clothing, and Accoutrements with which such Volunteers are to be provided, and for forming such Volunteers into Divisions or other Bodies, and as to the Manner in which Notices of the Times and Places at which such Volunteers may be required to attend Instruction, Training, and Exercise, and for the Purpose of entering into actual Service under the Provisions of this Act, shall be published or given, and for securing and enforcing Attendance, good Conduct, and Discipline of and among such Volunteers, and imposing Fines, or Forfeitures of Bounty, Pay, and Allowances, for Misconduct and Breach of Discipline or of any such Regulations, and as to the Pay and Allowance to Officers commanding such Volunteers, and generally as to all other Matters and Proceedings under this Act; and the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners may, if he or they so think fit, provide by such Regulations that Volunteers under this Act shall be protected from Service in the Royal Navy for such Term or different Terms after the Determination of their Services as Volunteers under this Act as, with reference to the Circumstances or Duration of their Services, may be mentioned in such Regulations.

Volunteers protected from Service in the Navy.

Provisions relating to billeting Marines to extend to Volunteers.

Power to Admiralty to make Regulations as to Sums to be paid by way of Bounty, &c.

Regulations to be laid before Parliament.

XI. All Regulations made under this Act shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Twenty-one Days next after the making thereof if Parliament be sitting, or if Parliament be not sitting, then within Twenty-one Days after the next Meeting of Parliament.

Admiralty may discharge Volunteers.

XII. It shall be lawful for the Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, in his or their Discretion at any Time to discharge all or any of the Volunteers raised under this Act.

In case of Emergency Officers and Men of the Coast Guard, Revenue Cruisers, and Seamen-Riggers may be required to serve in the Navy for a limited Period.

XIII. Whenever any Emergency shall arise which in the Opinion of the Lord High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral renders it advisable to require the Services in Her Majesty's Navy of all or any of the Officers and Men of the Coast Guard, and of Her Majesty's Revenue Cruisers, and Seamen-Riggers employed under the Crown, it shall be lawful for such Lord High Admiral or Commissioners to order such Officers and Men of the Coast Guard, and of Her Majesty's Revenue Cruisers, and Seamen-Riggers, or any of them, to join Her Majesty's Navy, and those so ordered shall join such of Her Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War as the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners may at any Time or Times direct, and shall form the Crews or Parts of the Crews of such Ships or Vessels, and shall continue to serve in Her Majesty's Navy during such Time as such Emergency may in the Opinion of the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners continue, but in no Case without their Consent for a longer Period than Five Years, and while so serving shall be entitled to the same Pay and Allowances according to their respective Ratings on board such Ships or Vessels as Officers in Her Majesty's Navy and Men in Her Majesty's Navy entered for Ten Years continuous and general Service.

Upon Invasion or Danger thereof, Seafaring Men in Public Departments liable to temporary Service in the Navy.

XIV. Upon the making by Her Majesty of any such Order as herein-before provided in case of actual Invasion or imminent Danger thereof, it shall be lawful for the Lord High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral to require and direct all or any of the Out-door Officers and Boatmen in the Employment of the Board of Customs receiving daily Pay, and all or any other Seafaring Officers and Men holding Appointments under the Crown or in the Public Service, and in active Service, not being Officers or Men of the Coast Guard, or of Her Majesty's Revenue Cruisers, or Seamen-Riggers, to join Her Majesty's Navy, and those so ordered shall join such of Her Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War as the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners may at any Time or Times direct, and shall form the Crews or Parts of the Crews of such Ships or Vessels, and shall be entitled to the same Pay and Allowances according to their respective Ratings on board such Ships or Vessels as Officers in Her Majesty's Navy and Men in Her Majesty's Navy entered for Ten Years continuous and general Service, provided that no such Person shall be liable to be detained in the Naval Service of Her Majesty for a longer Period than One Year, to be computed from the Time of his joining any of Her Majesty's Ships or Vessels in pursuance of any such Requisition or Direction as aforesaid.

XV. Pro-

XV. Provided always, That where the Pay according to his Rating in the Navy received by any Officer or Man of the Coast Guard, of Her Majesty's Revenue Cruizers, Seaman-Rigger, Outdoor Officer, or Boatman in the Employment of the Board of Customs, or other Seafaring Officer or Man holding any Appointment under the Crown or in the Public Service, while serving in Her Majesty's Navy under either of the Two last preceding Sections, shall be less than what he would be entitled to in respect of his respective Appointment or Employment if he had not been so required to serve in Her Majesty's Navy, the Excess of the Pay to which he may or would have been entitled in respect of such Appointment or Employment over the Pay of his Rating in the Navy shall be from Time to Time paid to such Person or Persons as he may direct; and no such Officer or Person shall be deprived of his former Employment under the Crown at the End of such Servitude if he shall have conducted himself in a proper Manner and not be incapacitated by bodily Infirmity, and such Service in the Navy shall count in regard to Pensions for the Service from which he may have been taken.

Pay of Coast Guard Men and others required to serve in the Navy not to be diminished.

XVI. Whenever any Emergency shall arise which, in the Opinion of the Lord High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, renders it advisable to require the Services in Her Majesty's Navy of any of the Persons who may have served as Petty Officers or Seamen in Her Majesty's Navy and may be in the Receipt of Pensions in respect of such Service, it shall be lawful for such Lord High Admiral or Commissioners to order any of such Persons to join Her Majesty's Navy; and those so ordered shall join such of Her Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War as the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners may at any Time or Times direct, and shall form the Crews or Parts of the Crews of such Ships or Vessels, and shall continue to serve in Her Majesty's Navy during such Time as such Emergency may in the Opinion of the said Lord High Admiral or Commissioners continue, and while so serving shall be entitled to the same Pay and Allowances, according to their respective Ratings on board such Ships or Vessels, as Officers in Her Majesty's Navy and Men in Her Majesty's Navy entered for Ten Years continuous and general Service, and shall also continue to receive their Pensions.

In case of Emergency Pensioners may be required to serve in the Navy.

XVII. All the Laws and Customs for the Time being in force for the Government of Her Majesty's Ships, Vessels, and Forces by Sea, and applicable to any Person in or belonging to the Fleet, or to any Person being in actual Service and Full Pay, and Part of the Crew of any of Her Majesty's Ships or Vessels, shall be applicable in like Manner to every Volunteer during such Period as he shall be on board any Ship or Vessel for the Purpose of Instruction, Training, and Exercise, or shall be otherwise under Instruction, Training, and Exercise, and to every such Volunteer, and to every Officer and Man of the Coast Guard, of Her Majesty's Revenue Cruizers, Seaman-Rigger, or other Person required to serve in the Navy under this Act during such Time as he shall be in actual Service either on board any Ship or Vessel or otherwise under this Act, and to all Officers having any Command over any such Volunteers during the Time of Instruction, Laws relating to the Government of the Navy extended to Volunteers during Exercise, and to such Volunteers and others when in actual Service.

Training, and Exercise, or while in actual Service; and the said Volunteers and Officers and Men of the Coast Guard, of Her Majesty's Revenue Cruizers, Seamen-Riggers, and other Persons required to serve in the Navy under this Act, shall, while in actual Service, have the same Privileges of making Allotments of Wages to Relatives, and of making Remittances, and otherwise have the Benefit of and be subject to the Provisions of the Laws relating to the Pay of the Royal Navy, in like Manner as Officers and Men of their respective Ratings in Her Majesty's Navy; and the Laws concerning the Discharge of Seamen serving on board Her Majesty's Ships, and becoming entitled to be discharged, shall be applicable to and for the Discharge of any of the said Volunteers, Officers, and Men of the Coast Guard, of Her Majesty's Revenue Cruizers, Seamen-Riggers, and others serving on board any of Her Majesty's Ships under this Act, and becoming entitled to be discharged.

Enlistment of Volunteers
under this Act
in Her Majesty's Regular Forces,
&c., and entering of Militia Men as Volunteers under this Act, to be void.

XVIII. In case any Officer, Sergeant, or other Person enlist any Man to serve in Her Majesty's Regular Forces, or in the Forces of the East India Company, or in the Militia, who at the Time of such enlisting is entered to serve as a Volunteer under this Act, such enlisting, and in case any Person enter any Man to serve as a Volunteer under this Act who at the Time of such entering is enrolled to serve in the Militia, such entering, shall be null and void, and any such Volunteer offering himself to be enlisted in Her Majesty's Regular Forces, or in the Forces of the East India Company, or be enlisted or enrolled as a Militia Man, and every Militia Man offering himself to be entered as a Volunteer under this Act, shall, on Conviction thereof upon the Oath of One Witness before any Justice of the Peace, be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for any Term not exceeding Six Months; and any Officer or other Person knowingly enlisting or enrolling any Volunteer under this Act to serve in Her Majesty's Regular Forces, or in the Forces of the East India Company, or in the Militia, or knowingly entering any Militia Man to serve as a Volunteer under this Act, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Punishment of Persons offending.

Penalty on selling or buying Arms, &c.
of Volunteers.

XIX. Any Volunteer who shall sell, pawn, or lose any of his Arms, Clothes, Accoutrements, or Ammunition; or refuse or neglect to return the same in good Order to any Person appointed by or under the Authority of the Lord High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral to receive the same, shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Three Pounds; and any Person who shall knowingly and willingly buy, take in exchange, receive in Pledge, or otherwise receive or conceal any Arms, Clothes, Accoutrements, or Ammunition belonging to any such Volunteer, and provided for him under this Act, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds and the Treble Value of all or any of the Articles so bought, taken in exchange, received, or concealed.

Penalty on Volunteer for not attending Training and Exercise.

XX. Every Volunteer under this Act (not labouring under any Infirmary incapacitating him) who shall not appear at any Time and Place at which he shall be appointed to attend for the Purpose of Instruction, Training, and Exercise according to the Provisions of this Act, Notice of his being required so to attend having been given in such Manner as may be provided by any Regulations made under this Act, and any Volunteer who having so appeared afterwards deserts or absents himself during the Time of such Instruction, Training, and Exercise, shall be subject to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

XXI. If any Volunteer under this Act, or any Officer or Man of the Coast Guard, or of any of Her Majesty's Revenue Cruizers, Seaman-Rigger, or other Person required to serve in the Navy under this Act, shall not, at or within such Time as may be appointed by any Order of the Lord High Admiral or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral made under this Act, appear for the Purpose of entering into actual Service, or join any of Her Majesty's Ships or Vessels which he may be required to join for that Purpose, every such Person so offending shall be liable to be apprehended and punished in the same Manner as any Person belonging to Her Majesty's Navy, and deserting or improperly absenting himself from Duty.

XXII. Any Person who by Words or other Means shall persuade any Volunteer under this Act, or any Officer or Man of the Coast Guard, or of any of Her Majesty's Revenue Cruizers, Seaman-Rigger, or other Person required to serve in the Navy under this Act, improperly to absent himself from his Duty, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and every Person who shall assist or procure any such Volunteer, or any such Officer or Man, Seaman-Rigger, or such other Person as aforesaid, improperly to absent himself as aforesaid, or shall conceal, employ, or continue to employ any such Volunteer, Officer or Man, Seaman-Rigger, or other Person, knowing him to be so improperly absent, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Thirty Pounds.

XXIII. All Offences for which any pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture is by this Act imposed shall and may be heard and determined by any Justice of the Peace in or near to the Place where the Offence shall be committed, or where the Offender may at any Time happen to be; and all such Penalties and Forfeitures, and any Forfeiture of Treble Value, and also the reasonable Costs attending the Prosecution, to be duly ascertained and awarded by such Justice, shall and may be enforced and recovered in the same Manner as any pecuniary Penalties may be recovered in England or Wales under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to facilitate the Performance of the Duties of Justices of the Peace out of Sessions within England and Wales with respect to summary Convictions and Orders: Provided always, that in all Cases in which there shall not be sufficient Goods whereon any Penalty or Forfeiture can be levied, the Offender may be committed and imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding Six Months; which said Act shall be used and applied in Scotland and in Ireland for the Recovery of all such pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures, and Forfeiture of Treble Value, as fully to all Intents as if such Act had extended to Scotland and Ireland, anything in the said Act, or in an Act passed in the Session Persons not attending when called into actual Service may be apprehended and punished as Deserters from the Navy.

An Act to reduce the Terms on which the Land Tax in Great Britain may be redeemed or purchased.

[15th August 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to reduce the Terms on which the Land Tax in Great Britain may be redeemed or purchased under the several Acts in force in that Behalf:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Consideration for the Redemption of Land Tax to be less by 17l. 10s.
per Cent. than the Consideration fixed by 42 G. 3. c. 116.
ss. 22. and 23.

From and after the passing of this Act, in lieu of the Consideration mentioned in the Act passed in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and sixteen, Sections Twenty-two and Twenty-three, and the Table in the Schedule marked (L.) to the said Act annexed, to be given or paid for the Redemption of the Land Tax in Great Britain under the Provisions of the several Acts in force in that Behalf, the Consideration for such Redemption shall be a Sum of the Capital Stocks or One of them mentioned in Section Twenty-two of the said Act less by and at the Rate of Seventeen Pounds Ten Shillings per One hundred Pounds than the Amount of the Stock Consideration calculated and ascertained according to the said last-mentioned Enactment, or a Sum of Money less by and at the like Rate than the Amount of the Money Consideration calculated and ascertained according to the said Section Twenty-three and the said Table in Schedule (L.) of the said Act; and the Consideration for the Purchase of Land Tax under the several Provisions contained in the said Act in that Behalf shall be such Sum of Capital Stock or Money at the least as is herein-before directed to be given or paid for the Redemption of Land Tax.

An Act for the Remission of the Consolidated Annuities charged upon Districts in Ireland. [15th August 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS by an Act of the Thirteenth Year of Her Majesty, “to authorize a further Advance of Money to certain distressed Poor Law Unions, and to make Provision for the Repayment of Advances made and authorized to be made to Poor Law Unions and other Districts in Ireland,” the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury were empowered, where they thought it expedient that the Debts and Liabilities of any of the several Unions and Electoral Divisions and other Districts in Ireland in respect of the Loans and Advances of Public Money made under several Acts therein recited, and also in respect of any Loans for building Workhouses, and of any Advances under the Authority of the Act now in recital, should be consolidated and repaid as therein mentioned, to inquire into and cause to be ascertained the whole Amount of such Debts and Liabilities upon an Account taken up to such Time as they might think fit; and the said Commissioners were thereby empowered after such Inquiry to adjust and fix the proportionate Amount which would have been borne by each Townland or other Denomination or Place comprised in any such Union, Electoral Division, or other District, and to cause to be charged on such Townland or other Denomination or Place an Annuity which they should deem equivalent to such proportionate Amount, or (in such Cases as therein mentioned) instead of causing to be charged separate Annuities on the several Townlands, Denominations, or Places in any Electoral Division, to cause to be charged One Annuity on such Electoral Division; and every Annuity to be charged under the Act now in recital was to commence in such Year, and be payable for such Number of Years and on such Day in every Year, as the said Commissioners should think fit; and it was thereby provided, that in case the Board of Guardians should not sooner pay the same, the Treasurer of every Union in Ireland should, from all Lodgments made with him from Time to Time of the First or any subsequent Rate or Rates on account of each such Electoral Division in the Union, after every yearly Day of Payment of such Annuities, reserve One equal Third Part thereof, and place the same to the Credit of the Electoral Division in an Account to be entitled the “Loans Repayment Account,” until the aggregate Amount which should become payable from Time to Time on account of the Annuity charged on such Electoral Division, or, as the Case might require, the Annuities charged on all the Townlands and other Denominations and Places, if any, in such Electoral Division, and all Arrears, if any, in respect of any previous Year or Years, should have been received and placed to such Account as aforesaid, and that the Treasurer of the Union should pay over from Time to Time all Sums so reserved as aforesaid into the Bank of Ireland, to be there placed to a separate Account in the Name of the Paymaster of Civil Services in Ireland, to be entitled the “Loans Repayment Account”: And whereas the said Commissioners,

15 & 16 Vict.
c. 16.

‘ Commissioners, in pursuance of the Provisions of the said recited ‘ Act, caused to be ascertained the Amounts of the said Debts
 ‘ and Liabilities of the several Unions and Electoral Divisions
 ‘ and other Districts in Ireland up to the Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty, and caused to be ‘ charged in respect thereof on Electoral Divisions, or the Town-‘ lands and other Districts therein, Annuities herein-after referred ‘ to as Consolidated Annuities: And whereas under the Act of ‘ the last Session of Parliament, Chapter Sixteen, the Sums or ‘ Parts of the Sums payable in the Year One thousand eight hun‘ dred and fifty-one in respect of the Consolidated Annuities ‘ charged on certain Electoral Divisions, or the Townlands or ‘ other Districts therein, have been remitted on account of the ‘ Pressure upon the local Resources of such Electoral Divisions ‘ of the necessary Expenditure for the Relief of the Poor: And ‘ whereas it is expedient that the said Consolidated Annuities ‘ payable in respect of the Year commencing from the Thirtieth ‘ Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two and ‘ in respect of all subsequent Years be remitted, and that, on ‘ account of the continuing Pressure of the Expenditure for the ‘ Relief of the Poor in certain Electoral Divisions, the Sums or ‘ Parts thereof herein-after mentioned, payable in respect of the ‘ Year ending on the said Thirtieth Day of September One thou‘ sand eight hundred and fifty-two, should also in the Cases herein‘ after mentioned be remitted:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

All Sums payable in respect of the Year commencing from the 30th Sept. 1852, and in respect of all subsequent Years, remitted.

I. All the said Consolidated Annuities charged under the said Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty shall be deemed to have ceased as from the Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and all Sums which have accrued due in respect of Payments of the said Annuities subsequent to the Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, or which if this Act had not been passed would hereafter become due in respect of such Annuities, shall be remitted and deemed to be discharged without further Payment; and where any Sums payable in respect of the Year commencing from the said Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two have been already paid by the Treasurer of any Union to the said Account standing in the Name of the Paymaster of Civil Services in Ireland, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury to cause the said Paymaster of Civil Services in Ireland to repay the said Sums so paid to the said Account to the Treasurers of the several Unions in Ireland from whom the same shall have been received; and all Sums which may have been or ought to have been reserved by the Treasurer of any Union on account of any Payment hereby remitted of the Annuity charged on such Electoral Division, or of the Annuities charged on Townlands and other Denominations and Places therein, and which shall not have been paid over to the said Account in the Name of the Paymaster of Civil Services, and all such Sums which shall have been so paid over, and shall be be repaid by the Paymaster of Civil Services to such Treasurers as aforesaid, shall be carried by such Treasurer to the Credit of the Electoral Division from the Rates of which such Sums may have been reserved or lodged.

II. In any Case where the Commissioners for administering the Laws for the Relief of the Poor in Ireland shall ascertain, and report to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, that the Expenditure for the Relief of the Poor and for the Medical Relief of poor Persons under an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Sixty-eight, in any Electoral Division in Ireland for the Year ending on the Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two amounted to Four Shillings in the Pound or upwards on the Valuation then in force, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to remit the whole of the Sum payable in respect of such Year on account of any such Annuity or Annuities as aforesaid charged on such Electoral Division, or on any District or Districts therein; and in case the said Commissioners for administering the Laws for the Relief of the Poor shall ascertain and report as aforesaid that the Expenditure aforesaid in any such Electoral Division in the said Year ending on the said Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two did not amount to the Sum of Four Shillings in the Pound on such Valuation, but amounted to such a Sum as, with the Payment to be made in respect of such Year on account of the Annuity or Annuities charged as aforesaid on such Electoral Division, or on the District or Districts therein, would exceed the Sum of Four Shillings in the Pound on such Valuation, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to remit such Portion of the Sum payable in respect of such Annuity or Annuities as will reduce the aggregate Amount of such Expenditure, and of the Payment on account of such Annuity or Annuities, to such Sum of Four Shillings in the Pound on such Valuation, and to authorize the said Commissioners for administering the Laws for the Relief of the Poor to issue an Order under their Seal to the Treasurers of the several Unions, specifying the Sums and Portions of Sums so remitted in respect of the said Annuities; and all Sums which have been or ought to have been reserved by the Treasurer of any Union out of the Rates of any Electoral Division on account of any Sum or Portion of a Sum so remitted shall be carried by such Treasurer to the Credit of the Electoral Division from the Rates of which the same may have been reserved.

Annuities payable previously to 30th Sept. 1852 may be remitted, in whole or in part, in distressed Districts.

Acts for making,
&c. Turnpike Roads in Ireland which will expire on 31st July 1853, &c.,
continued.

I. Any Act for making, amending, or repairing any Turnpike Road or Roads in Ireland which will expire on the said Thirty-first Day of July in the present Year, or at or before the End of the present or next ensuing Session of Parliament, or before the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, shall be and the same is hereby continued, as amended by the said recited Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of Her Majesty’s Reign, until the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, or, if Parliament be then sitting, until the End of the then Session of Parliament.

Nothing in this Act to apply to 38 G. 3. c. 22.
and 39 G. 3.
c. 52.

II. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend or apply to an Act of the Thirty-eighth Year of His late Majesty George the Third, intituled An Act for improving and repairing the Turnpike Roads leading from the City of Cork to the Brook which bounds the Counties of Cork and Tipperary, near the Foot of Kilworth Mountain, and for repealing the several Laws heretofore made relating to the said Act, or to an Act of the Thirty-ninth George the Third, to explain and amend the said Act.

An Act relating to the Appointment of Persons to administer Oaths in Chancery, and to Affidavits made for Purposes connected with Registration. [15th August 1853.]

BE it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

“Masters Extraordinary” to cease to be so styled, and to be designated “Commissioners.”

I. The Persons now styled “Masters Extraordinary in Chancery” shall cease to be so styled, and they and all Persons hereafter appointed by the Lord Chancellor to execute like Duties in England shall be designated “Commissioners to administer Oaths in Chancery in England,” and shall possess and exercise all such Powers and and discharge all such Duties as now appertain to the Office of Master Extraordinary in Chancery by virtue of any Statute or Order of the Court of Chancery or of the Lord Chancellor, or Usage in that Behalf, or otherwise.

II. It shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor from Time to Time to appoint any Persons practising as Solicitors within Ten Miles from Lincoln's Inn Hall at their respective Places of Business to administer Oaths and take Declarations, Affirmations, and Attestations of Honour in Chancery, and to possess all such other Powers and discharge all such other Duties as aforesaid; and such Persons shall be styled "London Commissioners to administer Oaths in Chancery"; and they shall be entitled to charge and take a Fee of One Shilling and Sixpence for every Oath administered by them, and for every Declaration, Affirmation, or Attestation of Honour taken by them, subject to any Order of the Lord Chancellor varying or annulling the same.

Power to appoint Solicitors to administer Oaths and take Declarations in Chancery, and to be styled "London Commissioners."

III. It shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, from Time to Time, to appoint any Persons practising as Solicitors in the Ile of Man, in the Channel Islands, or any of them, to administer Oaths and take Declarations, Affirmations, and Attestations of Honour in Chancery, and to possess all such other Powers and discharge all such other Duties as aforesaid; and such Persons shall be styled "Commissioners to administer Oaths in Chancery for the Channel Islands," and they shall be entitled to charge and take the same Fees as the said "Commissioners to administer Oaths in Chancery."

Commissioners may be appointed to administer Oaths in Chancery for the Channel Islands.

IV. The Fiat or Document by which any such Commissioners as aforesaid shall be appointed shall bear a Chancery Stamp of One Pound, in lieu of the Stamp of Five Shillings now required; but no other Charge or Fee shall be made or payable in respect of such Appointment, or of anything requisite to be done in order to perfect the same; and it shall not be necessary that any such Appointment should be published in the London Gazette.

Commissioners Appointment to bear a Chancery Stamp of 1l.

V. Nothing herein contained shall abridge or lessen the Power of the Lord Chancellor as it now exists to appoint fit Persons to administer Oaths and take Declarations, Affirmations, and Attestations of Honour in Chancery, or to regulate the Fees to be taken by them; and where any Act of Parliament refers to the Masters Extraordinary in Chancery, or to their Powers or Duties, the Reference shall be held to apply to and include the Commissioners herein-before mentioned, or to their Powers or Duties, as the Case may be.

Not to lessen Power of Lord Chancellor.

Reference to Masters Extraordinary in Acts to apply to Commissioners.

VI. And whereas by the Twenty-second Section of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-six, it is enacted, that "all Pleas, Answers, Disclaimers, Examinations, Affidavits, Declarations, Affirmations, and Attestations of Honour in Causes or Matters depending in the High Court of Chancery, and also Acknowledgments required for the Purpose of enrolling any Deed in the said Court, shall and may be sworn and taken in Scotland or Ireland, or the Channel Islands, or in any Colony, Island, Plantation, or Place under the Dominion of Her Majesty in Foreign Parts, before any Judge, Court, Notary Public, or Person lawfully authorized “ davit, or other judicial or official Document with a false or “ counterfeit Signature or Seal of any such Judge, Court, “ Notary Public, or other Person authorized as aforesaid attached “ or appended thereto, knowing the same Signature or Seal to “ be false or counterfeit, every such Person shall be guilty of “ Felony, and shall be liable to the same Punishment as any “ Offender under an Act passed in the Eighth and Ninth Years “ of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to “ facilitate the Admission in Evidence of certain official and “ other Documents:” And whereas it is expedient to extend “ the recited Provisions of the said first-mentioned Act for the “ Purpose of diminishing the Expense of and incident to Regis“ tration of Deeds, Wills, and other Documents or Things: Be it “ enacted, That such Provision shall extend to the Isle of Man,

 “ and that all Affidavits, Declarations, and Affirmations to be used “ before any Registrar or other Officer of any Registry Office in “ Great Britain or Ireland, for any Purpose connected with Regis“ tration of Deeds or Wills, or other Documents or Things, under “ the Authority of Parliament, may be sworn and taken in Scotland “ or Ireland, the Isle of Man, or the Channel Islands, or in any “ Colony, Island, Plantation, or Place under the Dominion of Her “ Majesty in Foreign Parts, before any Court, Judge, Notary Public, “ or Person hereby or otherwise lawfully authorized to administer “ Oaths in such Country, Colony, Island, Plantation, or Place re“ spectively, or before any of Her Majesty’s Consuls or Vice-Consuls

An Act for making sundry Provisions with respect to Municipal Corporations in England. [15th August 1853.]

WHEREAS the following Acts, to wit, the Acts of the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth, Chapters One hundred and four and One hundred and five, of the Seventh Year of King William the Fourth and the First Year of Queen Victoria, Chapter Seventy-eight, of the Second and Third Years of Queen Victoria, Chapter Twenty-eight, of the Third and Fourth Years of Queen Victoria, Chapter Twenty-eight, of the Fourth and Fifth Years of Queen Victoria, Chapter Forty-eight, and of the Sixth and Seventh Years of Queen Victoria, Chapter Eighty-nine, or some of the Provisions thereof respectively, which might properly be made applicable as well to all the Municipal Corporations in England which have been erected since the passing of the Act of the Sixth Year of William the Fourth for regulating Municipal Corporations in England as to the Municipal Corporations specified in the Schedules to that Act, do not apply to such recently erected Municipal Corporations by reason of those Acts or Provisions being restricted in Terms to the Municipal Corporations specified in those Schedules: And whereas it is expedient that all Acts relating generally to the Municipal Corporations in England specified in those Schedules should apply as well to all Municipal Corporations in England erected after the passing of that Act, and that further Provision be made with respect to Municipal Corporations in England: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. This Act may be cited for any Purpose as "The Municipal Corporation Act, 1853." Short Title.

Acts applying to Corporations specified in Schedule of 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 76. to extend to Corporations erected after passing of that Act.

For the Validity of Matters to which newly erected Corporations are party or privy.

As to Actions commenced before 18th March 1853.

Boroughs appointing Inspectors of Weights and Measures not to be liable to contribute to County Rate in respect of Weights and Measures in Counties.

Town Councilors not disqualified from serving on Grand

II. In every Case in which an existing or future Act, passed after the Act of the Sixth Year of William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy six, for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations, or any Provision of any such Act, applies generally to the Municipal Corporations specified in the Schedules to that Act, or applies generally to Municipal Corporations in England, every such Act and every such Provision shall (except only so far as by any Act hereafter passed is otherwise expressly provided) extend and apply, not only to every Municipal Corporation in England specified in those Schedules, but also to every Municipal Corporation in England erected after the passing of that Act of the Sixth Year of William the Fourth, and whether erected by Charter under that Act or otherwise.

III. Every Matter to which any Municipal Corporation erected after the passing of that Act of the Sixth Year of William the Fourth has at any Time heretofore been or now is party or privy, and which would have been or would now be valid, if any Act, or any Provision of any Act passed after that Act, applying generally to the Municipal Corporations specified in the Schedules to that Act, or applying generally to Municipal Corporations in England, but not applying expressly to the Municipal Corporations then or thereafter so erected, had applied expressly to all Municipal Corporations then and thereafter so erected, shall to all Intents and Purposes, both in favour of and against such Municipal Corporations so erected, be as valid as if every such Act and every such Provision had applied expressly to every such Municipal Corporation then or thereafter so erected.

IV. Provided always, That this Act or anything therein contained shall not affect any Action, Suit, or other Proceeding at Law commenced at any Time before the Eighteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

V. Every City, Borough, and Town Corporate in which an Inspector or Inspectors of Weights and Measures is or are now or hereafter lawfully appointed by the Recorder, Justices, or others having Jurisdiction in this Behalf, shall be exempt from contributing to the Expense of providing or transmitting for the Use of the County, Riding, Division, or Parts within which such Borough or Town Corporate is situate, Copies of the Imperial Standard Weights and Measures, or of the Stamps to be used by the Inspectors, or to the Remuneration to the Inspectors of Weights and Measures appointed for such County, Riding, Division, or Parts; and the Treasurer of every such County, Riding, Division, or Parts shall, out of the Account required by that Act of the Sixth Year of William the Fourth to be kept by him of all Sums of Money expended out of the County Rate for other Purposes than such Costs as therein mentioned, exclude such Expense and Remuneration as aforesaid, in like Manner as if the same had been by that Act excepted out of such Account; and the Amount to be paid to the Treasurer of such County, Riding, Division, or Parts by such Borough or Town Corporate shall be varied accordingly.

VI. So much of that Act of the Sixth Year of William the Fourth as exempts or disqualifies Members of the Council for the Time being of every Borough in and for which a separate Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace is holden, from serving on the Grand Jury at the Quarter Sessions held in and for such Borough, is hereby repealed, so far as respects every Borough which shall not contain Twelve thousand Inhabitants according to the last Census.

Juries in certain Boroughs.

VII. The Mayor of every City, Borough, and Town Corporate may from Time to Time appoint an Alderman or Councillor of such City, Borough, or Town Corporate to act as the Deputy Mayor during the Illness or Absence of the Mayor, and every such Appointment shall be signified in Writing to the Council, and shall be recorded in the Minutes of their Proceedings.

Power to Mayors to appoint Deputies in certain Cases.

VIII. Every Deputy appointed by a Mayor under the Provisions of this Act may, during the Illness or Absence of the Mayor, lawfully do and perform all Acts which the Mayor in his official Capacity might himself do and perform: Provided always, that no such Deputy not being a Justice of the Peace shall act as a Justice of the Peace or in any Judicial Capacity, nor shall he preside at any Meeting of the Council unless specially appointed by the Meeting so to do.

Power of Deputy appointed by a Mayor.

IX. If it shall be necessary by reason of the Death, Resignation, or lawful Removal of the Mayor to convene a Meeting of the Council to supply the Vacancy, the Notice for such Meeting shall be signed by the Town Clerk.

On Death, &c. of Mayor, Town Clerk to convene Meeting.

X. If in any City, Borough, or Town Corporate the Number of Aldermen does not exceed the Number of Wards, the Mayor shall, in case of the Illness or Incapacity to act of any Alderman at an Election, appoint a Councillor (not being a Councillor representing or enrolled on the Burgess List for the Ward within which the Election is to take place) to preside at such Election.

In certain Boroughs Mayor may appoint a Substitute for presiding Alderman.

XI. If an extraordinary Vacancy shall happen in the Office of Councillor, Auditor, or Assessor, the Election to supply such Vacancy shall take place not later than Ten Days after Notice shall have been given to the Mayor or Town Clerk by any Two Burgesses, anything to the contrary notwithstanding.

Extraordinary Vacancy how to be filled up.

XII. If an extraordinary Vacancy shall happen in the Office of Assessor, the Election to supply such Vacancy shall be held before the Alderman of the Ward, the continuing Assessor, and such Burgess (not being a Burgess representing or enrolled on the Burgess List for that Ward) as the Mayor shall by Writing under his Hand appoint.

Mayor may appoint Substitute for a deceased Assessor.

XIII. At every Election of Aldermen the Persons, not exceeding the Number of Aldermen then to be chosen, who shall have the greatest Number of Votes according to the Voting Papers signed by the Persons entitled to vote at such Election, and delivered to and openly read by the Mayor, shall be declared by the Mayor to be and thereupon shall be duly elected Aldermen: Provided always, that in every Case of an Equality of Votes the Mayor shall have a Casting Vote.

Result of Election of Aldermen how to be declared.

XIV. Every Matter by that Act of the Sixth Year of William the Fourth, or by any Act amending the same, directed to be done by the Overseers of the Poor of any Parish, Township, or Place, may be lawfully done by the major Part of such Overseers; and whenever any Notice is by that Act, or any Act amending the same, required to be given to the Overseers of the Poor of any Parish, Township, or Place, such Notice may be delivered to any One of such Overseers, or may be left at his Place of Abode, or at his Office for transacting Parochial Business.

As to Matters required to be done by Overseers under 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 76.

Act to extend to Cities, &c.

XV. This Act applies to every City, Borough, and Town Corporate in England specified in the Schedules to the Act of the Sixth Year of William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-six, and to every Municipal Corporation in England erected after the passing of that Act, and whether erected by Charter under that Act or otherwise, and shall be construed and executed as if its Provisions formed Part of that Act, and the Acts from Time to Time in force amending or extending that Act.

An Act to facilitate Procedure in the Sheriff Courts in Scotland.
[15th August 1853.]

7 W. 4. &
1 Vict. c. 41.

‘ WHEREAS an Act was passed in the First Year of the ‘ Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the ‘ more effectual Recovery of Small Debts in the Sheriff Courts,
‘ and for regulating the Establishment of Circuit Courts for the ‘ Trial of Small Debt Causes by Sheriffs, in Scotland; and ‘ another Act was passed in the Session of Parliament held in the ‘ First and Second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, ‘ intituled An Act to regulate the Constitution, Jurisdiction, and ‘ Forms of Process in Sheriff Courts in Scotland: And whereas ‘ it is expedient to facilitate Procedure in the Sheriff Courts in ‘ Scotland, and to make further Provision for the cheap and ‘ speedy Administration of Justice in the said Courts: Be it ‘ therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and
‘ with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Tem‘ poral, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and
‘ by the Authority of the same, as follows :

1 & 2 Vict.
c. 119.

Proceedings in ordinary Causes.

I. With respect to Cases in the Sheriff Court, other than those provided for by the first-recited Act as extended by this Act, be it enacted as follows :

Short Form of Summons.

The Summons shall be in the Form, as nearly as may be, of the Schedule (A.) annexed to this Act, and such short Form shall be equally effectual to all Intents and Purposes, including Arrestment on the Dependence where the Summons contains a Warrant to arrest in Terms of such Schedule, as the Forms at present in use.

Decree in absence.

II. Where no Appearance shall be entered for the Defender the Sheriff may, at any Court held after the Day of Compareance, give Decree in Terms of such Summons, in like Manner as at present where no Appearance is made for the Defender, and such Decree shall be in all respects equivalent to a Decree in absence obtained under the Forms at present in use : Provided always, that the Defender may obtain himself reponed against such Decree, whether extracted or not, at any Time before Implement has followed thereon, or against such Part thereof as may not have been implemented, by lodging with the Sheriff Clerk a Reponing Note in the Form in Schedule (B.) annexed to this Act, and consigning therewith the Sum of Expenses decerned for, a Copy of which Note shall at the same Time be delivered or transmitted through Provision for reponing.

through the Post Office to the Pursuer or his Agent in the Action, and a Certificate by the Sheriff Clerk that such Note has been lodged shall operate as a Sist of Diligence; and where such Note shall have been lodged and Consignation made as aforesaid, the Sheriff shall pronounce a Judgment reponing the Defender, and shall also appoint the consigned Money to be paid over to the Pursuer, unless special Cause be shown to the contrary, and the Cause shall thereafter proceed in all respects as if Appearance were made therein, in manner herein-after provided, of the Date of such Judgment: Provided always, that where a Charge has been given, or any Step of Diligence has been taken, on the Decree, prior to the Application to be reponed, it shall be competent to the Sheriff in the course of the Proceedings in the Cause to decern in favour of the Pursuer for the Expense of such Charge or Diligence, or such Part thereof as shall be just.

III. Where the Defender intends to state a Defence, he shall enter Appearance by lodging with the Sheriff Clerk, at latest on the Day of Compareance, a Notice in the Form of Schedule (C.) annexed to this Act; and on the First Court Day thereafter, or on any other Court Day to which the Diet may be adjourned, not being later than Eight Days thereafter, the Sheriff shall hear the Parties in Explanation of the Grounds of Action and the Nature of the Defence to be stated thereto, and if satisfied that no farther written Pleadings are necessary he shall cause a Minute in the Form of the Schedule (D.) annexed to this Act to be written on the Summons, setting forth concisely the Ground of Defence, which Minute shall be subscribed by the Parties or their Procurators, and the Sheriff shall thereupon close the Record by writing under the said Minute "Record closed," and signing and dating the same; but if the Sheriff shall be satisfied that the Record cannot properly be made up without Condescence and Defences, he shall pronounce an Order for the same; and in such Event the Pursuer shall, within Six Days thereafter, lodge with the Sheriff Clerk a Condescence setting forth articulately, and as concisely as may be, without any Argument or unnecessary Matter, the Facts necessary to found the Conclusions of the Summons which he avers and is ready to prove, together with a Note of Pleas in Law; and the Defender shall, within Ten Days after the lodging of such Condescence, lodge his Defences, setting forth articulately his Answers to such Condescence, and also, where necessary, setting forth articulately, under a separate Head, any counter Statements necessary for his Defence which he avers and is ready to prove; and there shall be appended to such Defences a Note of the Defender's Pleas in Law, and such Defences shall be framed as concisely as may be, without any Argument or unnecessary Matter.

IV. The Sheriff Clerk shall, as soon as Defences are lodged, transmit the Process to the Sheriff, who shall consider the same, and shall as soon as may be, and at latest within Six Days after the Date of lodging the Defences, appoint the Parties or their Procurators to meet him, and shall at such Meeting, if dilatory Defences have been stated, dispose at once, where possible, of such dilatory Defences, or may reserve Consideration of them till a future Stage of the Cause; and unless where the Pursuer is willing to close on Summons and Defences, the Sheriff may, if he thinks fit, order One Revisal of the Condescendence and Defences respectively, which Revisal shall be made upon the original Papers, unless the Sheriff, for special Cause assigned, shall direct to the contrary; and as soon as revised Defences are lodged, the Sheriff Clerk shall transmit the Process to the Sheriff, who shall thereupon appoint the Parties or their Procurators to meet him as soon as may be, and at latest within Six Days after the Date of the lodging of the revised Defences; and at such Meeting after the lodging of the Defences, or the revised Defences as the Case may be, or at an adjourned Meeting, if the Sheriff has seen fit to adjourn (which he is hereby authorized to do, where necessary, but for no longer Period than Eight Days), the Sheriff shall allow the Pursuer or his Procurator to put upon Record, in concise and articulate Form, where this has not been already done, his Answers to the Defender's Statement of Facts, or a simple Minute of Denial where that shall be deemed by the Sheriff to be sufficient, and shall allow each Party to adjust his own Part of the Record, and shall strike out of the Record any Matter which he may deem to be either irrelevant or unnecessary; and the Record shall then be closed by the Sheriff writing upon the Interlocutor Sheet the Words "Record closed," and signing and dating the same.

After Record is closed Sheriff to hear Parties, or to appoint Diet for Proof, and to dispose of Case.

V. After the Record is closed the Sheriff shall hear the Parties or their Procurators upon the Merits of the Cause, and upon their respective Pleas, or, where he deems Proof to be necessary, shall appoint a Diet for Proof on an early Day, and shall hear the Parties or their Procurators after such Proof is led; and after such Hearing or such Proof and Hearing, as the Case may be, the Sheriff shall pronounce Judgment with the least possible Delay: Provided always, that it shall be competent to the Sheriff, on the written Consent of both Parties, to dispose of the Cause upon the Papers without further Statement or Argument.

Periods for lodging Papers peremptory; but Prorogations may be granted of Consent, and once on Cause shown.

VI. Where any Condescendence or Defences, or revised Condescendence or revised Defences, or other Paper, shall not be given in within the Periods prescribed or allowed by this Act, the Sheriff shall dismiss the Action, or decern in Terms of the Summons, as the Case may be, by Default, unless it shall be made to appear to his Satisfaction that the Failure to lodge such Paper arose from unavoidable or reasonable Causes, in which Case the Sheriff may allow the same to be received, on Payment of such Sum in Name of Expenses as he shall think just: Provided always, that the Periods appointed for lodging any Paper, or for transmitting any Process to the Sheriff, or for closing a Record, may always be once prorogated by the Sheriff without Consent on special Cause shown, and may always be prorogated by written Consent of Parties, with the Approbation of the Court; and in every Interlocutor prorogating on special Cause shown the Time for lodging any Paper the Nature of such Cause shall be set forth, and a definite Time shall be therein fixed within which the Paper is to be lodged.

Provision for Causes commenced by Petition.

VII. In all Applications before the Sheriff which are at present commenced by Petition, and are not otherwise regulated by this Act, the Petition shall be as nearly as may be in the Form of Schedule (E.) annexed to this Act; and thereafter the Procedure under under such Petition shall, as nearly as may be, be the same as herein-before provided in regard to ordinary Actions.

VIII. In Actions of Multiplepointing, the Party raising the Summons shall set forth in the Body thereof who is the real Raiser of the Action; and the Sheriff shall, at the First Calling of the Cause, where no Defences are stated, or where Defences are stated and repelled at the First Calling thereafter, pronounce an Order for Claims within a short Space; and it shall be competent for any Number of Parties whose Claims in such Action depend upon the same Ground to state such Claims in the same Paper; and as soon as the Parties who shall appear and claim an Interest in the Fund shall have lodged their Claims, or had Opportunity allowed them for doing so, the Sheriff shall appoint the Parties or their Procurators to meet him; and at such Meeting he shall allow each Party to adjust his own Part of the Record, and to meet the Averments of any other Claimant or Claimants so far as necessary, and the Procedure at such Meeting, and in the after Progress of the Cause, shall be as nearly as may be the same as is herein-before provided with reference to ordinary Actions after Defences have been lodged.

IX. Every Execution of a Summons, and every Execution of Service of a Petition, shall be written at the End of the Summons or Petition itself, and where necessary on continuous Sheets, but not on a separate Paper; and such Execution shall be in the Form, or as nearly as may be in the Form, of Schedule (F.) annexed to this Act, which Form shall be equally valid and effectual in all respects as the longer Form of Execution at present in use.

X. Where Proof shall be allowed, a Diet of Proof shall be appointed, at which the Evidence shall be led before the Sheriff, who shall with his own Hand take a Note of the Evidence, setting forth the Witnesses examined, and the Testimony given by each, not by Question and Answer, but in the Form of a Narrative, and the Documents adduced, and any Evidence, whether oral or written, tendered and rejected, with the Ground of such Rejection, and a Note of any Objections taken to the Admission of Evidence, whether oral or written, allowed to be received; which Note of the Evidence shall be forthwith lodged in Process, and the Sheriff Clerk shall mark the Documents admitted in Evidence, and also, separately, any Documents tendered and rejected; and the Diet of Proof shall not be adjourned, unless on special Cause shown, which shall be set forth in the Interlocutor making the Adjournment; and the Proof shall be taken as far as may be continuously, and with as little Interval as the Circumstances or the Justice of the Case will admit of; and the Note of the Evidence given by each Witness shall be read over to him by the Sheriff, and signed by the Witness (if he can write) on the last Page in open Court before the Witness is dismissed: Provided always, that in the event of the Sheriff being unavoidably prevented from taking such Notes with his own Hand, he shall dictate the same to any competent Person he may select: Provided always, that it shall be competent to the Sheriff, where any Witness or Haver is resident beyond the Jurisdiction of the Court, or by reason of Age, Infirmary, or Sickness is unable to attend the Diet of Proof, to grant

Certified Copy Interlocutor of Proof to be Warrant for citing Witnesses and Havers, and to be operative, by simple Indorsation, in other Counties.

Written Argument abolished, and oral Pleadings substituted.

Sheriff in deciding to state the Grounds of his Judgment.

Decree for Expenses to include Expense of Extract.

Action not prosecuted dismissed.

Commission to any Person competent to take and report in Writing the Evidence of such Witness or Haver; provided also, that it shall be competent to the Sheriff to remit to Persons of Skill or other Persons to report on any Matter of Fact, and where such Remit shall be made of Consent of both Parties the Sheriff shall hold the Report to be final and conclusive with respect to the Matter of such Remit.

XI. When a Diet of Proof shall be appointed by the Sheriff, a Copy, certified by the Sheriff Clerk of the Interlocutor fixing such Diet, or of that Portion of such Interlocutor which relates to that Matter, shall be a sufficient Warrant to any Sheriff Officer in Scotland (acting within his own County) to cite Witnesses and Havers, at the Instance either of the Pursuer or Defender, to attend such Proof; and such Warrant shall have the same Force and Operation in any other County as in the County in which it was issued, the same being, in every Case in which it is executed in another County from that in which it is issued, indorsed by the Sheriff Clerk of such other County, who is hereby required to make and date such Indorsation; and the Citation and Execution thereof shall be in the Form of Schedule (G.) annexed to this Act; and if any Witness or Haver duly cited on a Citation of at least Forty-eight Hours shall fail to appear, he shall forfeit and pay a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings, unless a reasonable Excuse be offered and sustained by the Sheriff, for which Penalty Decree shall be given by the Sheriff in favour of the Party on whose Behalf he was cited; and it shall be further competent to the Sheriff to grant Second Diligence for compelling the Attendance of such Witness or Haver, the Expense whereof shall in like Manner be decreed for against the Witness or Haver against whom the same has been issued, unless a special Reason to the contrary be stated, and sustained by the Sheriff.

XII. The Parties or their Procurators shall be entitled to be heard orally when the Cause shall be ripe for Judgment, and on the Import of any concluded Proof, and at any other Stage of the Cause when Argument may be necessary and shall be appointed by the Sheriff; and it shall not be competent, at any Stage of the Cause, to receive any written argumentative Pleading, excepting as herein-after provided; but the Sheriff shall, if required by either of the Parties, take a Note of the Authorities cited in the course of the oral Argument, and also where he shall see fit of the Argument, and such Note shall form Part of the Process.

XIII. In all Cases where a Sheriff Substitute or Sheriff pronounces an Interlocutor disposing of a dilatory Defence or sisting Process, or deciding on the Admissibility of Evidence or any Plea of Confidentiality, or giving any Interim Decree, or disposing in whole or in part of the Merits of the Cause, it shall be the Duty of such Sheriff Substitute or Sheriff, as the Case may be, to set forth in such Interlocutor, or in a Note appended to and issued along with it, the Grounds on which he has proceeded.

XIV. Every Decree for Expenses pronounced after the passing of this Act shall be held to include a Decree for the Expense of extracting the same.

XV. Where in any Cause neither of the Parties thereto shall during the Period of Three consecutive Months have taken any Proceeding Proceeding therein, the Action shall at the Expiration of that Period (eo ipso) stand dismissed, without Prejudice nevertheless to either of the Parties within Three Months after the Expiration of such First Period of Three Months, but not thereafter, to revive the said Action on showing good Cause to the Satisfaction of the Sheriff why no Procedure had taken place therein, or upon Payment to the other Party of the preceding Expenses incurred in the Cause, whereupon such Action shall be revived and proceeded with in ordinary Form, with Power to the Sheriff, if he shall see fit, to disallow such Expenses or any Part thereof in the Accounts of the Agent of either Party against his Client: Provided always, that nothing herein-contained shall apply to Cases in which the Right under such Action has been acquired by a Third Party, by Death or otherwise, within such Period of Six Months.

XVI. Where any Judgment shall be pronounced by the Sheriff Substitute, which under this Act may be brought under the Review of the Sheriff, the Party who proposes to appeal against the same shall, within Seven Days from the Date thereof, engross and sign by himself or his Agent under the Interlocutor appealed against the Words "I appeal against this Interlocutor," and thereafter it shall be competent for such Party to lodge with the Sheriff Clerk within Eight Days a Reclaiming Petition against the said Judgment and any prior Judgment which may under this Act be then appealed, which Reclaiming Petition the Sheriff Clerk shall forthwith transmit to the Sheriff, who may order Answers thereto, and shall thereafter dispose of such Appeal, or otherwise the Party appealing may intimate by Notice lodged with the Sheriff Clerk within the Period aforesaid his Desire to be heard orally before the Sheriff on such Judgment or Judgments, in which Case the Sheriff shall hear the Parties or their Procurators on such Appeal, and shall dispose of the same; and the Sheriff shall have Power in Cases requiring extraordinary Despatch to order a Reclaiming Petition and Answers instead of hearing the Parties orally; but it shall not be competent in any Case in reviewing such Judgment both to receive a Reclaiming Petition and to hear the Parties orally: Provided always, that if no Reclaiming Petition shall have been lodged, and if neither Party shall within the Period above mentioned require to be heard before the Sheriff, he may proceed to dispose of such Appeal without farther Argument, and it shall be competent for the Sheriff, where the Cause is before him on Appeal on any Point, to open up the Record ex proprio motu, if it shall appear to him not to have been properly made up.

XVII. It shall not be competent, prior to the closing of the Proof, to appeal to the Sheriff against any Interlocutor of the Sheriff Substitute, on the Admissibility of Evidence pronounced during the leading of the Proof; but it shall be competent, on the Proof being declared closed, or within Seven Days thereafter, to appeal against all or any of such Interlocutors; and the Sheriff shall pronounce such Judgment on the Appeal as shall be just, and shall appoint any Evidence which he may think ought not to have been rejected, to be taken before the Case shall be advised on its Merits.

XVIII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall preclude any Person, whether Party to the Cause or not, who may plead Confidentiality, whether with reference to documentary or oral Evidence, or any Person, not being a Party to the Cause, who may object to produce Writings, whether on Pleas of alleged Hypothec or otherwise, from taking to review any Judgment of the Sheriff Substitute or Sheriff disposing of such Pleas, in whole or in part; but the Judgment of the Sheriff Substitute disposing of such Pleas shall only be reviewable by such Person taking an Appeal at the Time in open Court, which Appeal shall be minuted by the Sheriff Substitute, and thereupon such Part of the Proceedings as may be necessary for the Disposal of such Appeal, or as the Sheriff may require, shall be transmitted by the Sheriff Clerk to the Sheriff, who shall dispose of the same summarily, but may appoint a Hearing before giving Judgment: Provided also, that no such Appeals by any such Person pleading Confidentiality as aforesaid, or by any such Person objecting to produce Writings as aforesaid, shall be held to remove the Cause from before the Sheriff Substitute as regards any Point or Points not necessarily dependent on the Interlocutor or Judgment appealed from; but, as to all such Points, the Cause may be proceeded with before the Sheriff Substitute as if no such Appeal had been taken.

No Appeal allowed (except in certain Cases)

may be corrected.

XX. It shall be competent to any Sheriff Substitute or Sheriff to correct any merely clerical Error in his Judgment at any Time before the Proceedings have been transmitted to the Judge or Court of Review, not being later than Seven Days from the Date of such Judgment.

Procedure in Consistorial, &c.
Causes.

XXI. The Procedure in Consistorial and Maritime Causes shall be as nearly as may be the same as is herein-before provided with reference to ordinary Actions.

Judgment of Sheriff in Causes not exceeding 25*l.* to be final.

XXII. It shall not be competent, except as herein-after specially provided for, to remove from a Sheriff Court, or to bring under Review of the Court of Session, or of the Circuit Court of Justiciary, or of any other Court or Tribunal whatever, by Advocation, Appeal, Suspension, or Reduction, or in any other Manner of Way, any Cause not exceeding the Value of Twenty-five Pounds Sterling, or any Interlocutor, Judgment; or Decree pronounced or which shall be pronounced in such Cause by the Sheriff.

XXIII. It

XXIII. It shall be competent in all Civil Causes above the Value of Twelve Pounds, competent before the Sheriff, for the Parties to lodge in Process a Minute, signed by themselves or by their Procurators, setting forth their Agreement that the Cause should be tried in the summary Way provided in the said first-recited Act, and the Sheriff shall thereupon hear, try, and determine such Action in such summary Way, and in such Case the whole Powers and Provisions of the said first-recited Act shall be held applicable to the said Action: Provided always, that the Parties, or any of them, shall be entitled to appear and plead by a Procurator of Court.

Proceedings in ordinary Causes.

Causes of any Value may be tried in a summary Way by Consent of all the Parties.

XXIV. It shall be competent, in any Cause exceeding the Value of Twenty-five Pounds, to take to review of the Court of Session any Interlocutor of a Sheriff sisting Process, and any Interlocutor giving Interim Decree for Payment of Money, and any Interlocutor disposing of the whole Merits of the Cause, although no Decision has been given as to Expenses, or although the Expenses, if such have been found due, have not been modified or decerned for; but it shall not be competent to take to review any Interlocutor, Judgment, or Decree of a Sheriff, not being an Interlocutor sisting Process, or giving Interim Decree for Payment of Money, or disposing of the whole Merits of the Cause as aforesaid; and the Provisions of an Act passed in the Fiftieth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for abridging the Form of extracting Decrees of the Court of Session in Scotland, and for the Regulation of certain Parts of the Proceedings of that Court, and also the Provisions of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for the better regulating of the Forms of Process in the Courts of Law in Scotland, are, in so far as inconsistent with this Enactment, hereby repealed: Provided always, that when any Interlocutor shall be brought under Review of the Court of Session, it shall be competent for that Court also to review all the previous Interlocutors pronounced in the Cause.

In Cases exceeding 25*l.*, Review limited to final Judgments, &c.

50 G. 3. c. 112.

6 G. 4. c. 120.

XXV. All Cases of Advocation which shall come to depend before the Court of Session may be brought in the first instance before One or other of the Divisions of the Court of Session, or by Consent of both Parties before any Lord Ordinary in the Outer House, in which last Case the Judgment to be pronounced by such Lord Ordinary shall be final, and shall not be subject to Review by the Inner House, or by Appeal to the House of Lords.

Where either Party desires it, Case to go at once to the Inner House.

XXVI. And with respect to Small Debt Cases not exceeding Twelve Pounds:

Small Debt Jurisdiction extended to Causes not exceeding 12*l.*

The Provisions of the said first-recited Act shall be extended to all Causes, Prosecutions, Applications for Sequestration and Sale, and other Actions and Proceedings of the Nature set forth in the said first-recited Act, wherein the Debt, Demand, or Penalty in question, or the Fund in medio, shall not exceed the Value of Twelve Pounds, exclusive of Expenses and Fees of Extract; and the said first-recited Act shall be read and construed as if the Words "Twelve Pounds" were substituted for the Words "Eight Pounds Six Shillings and Eightpence," wherever these latter Words occur in the said first-recited Act: Provided always, that

in

in any Case in which a Decree pronounced by the Sheriff in the Small Debt Court for any Sum exceeding Eight Pounds Six Shillings and Eightpence shall have been put to execution by Imprisonment, the Party so imprisoned shall be entitled to bring such Decree under Review of the Sheriff by way of Suspension and Liberation, and such Suspension and Liberation shall proceed in the Form provided for summary Petitions by this Act.

Proceedings in Sequestrations for Rent.

Petition for Sequestration may also conclude for Payment.

XXVII. And with respect to Proceedings before the Sheriff Court for Sequestration and Sale for Recovery or in Security of Rents, be it enacted as follows:

Every Petition for Sequestration and Sale for Recovery or in Security of Rents, whether such Petition be presented after the Term of Payment or currente termino, may contain a Prayer for a Decree for Payment of the Rent with reference to which the Petition is presented, and it shall be competent to the Sheriff to pronounce, under such Petition, Decree for Payment of such Rent or any Part thereof, and every such Decree shall be extractable in ordinary Form, and shall otherwise have the same Force and Effect in every respect as any Decree for Payment pronounced in any Petition for Sequestration and Sale in which a Decree for Payment of Rent might be competently inserted before the passing of this Act.

Operation of Provisions in first-recited Act extended.

XXVIII. The Provisions of the said first-recited Act for the summary Trial and Determination of Sequestrations for Rent where the Rent or Balance of Rent does not exceed the Sum of Eight Pounds Six Shillings and Eightpence (and which Provisions are made applicable by this Act to Sequestrations for Rent where the Rent or Balance of Rent does not exceed the Sum of Twelve Pounds), are declared to extend, and the same are hereby extended to all Sequestrations applied for currente termino or in Security.

Proceedings in Actions of Removing.

When Summons
may be raised.

XXIX. And with respect to Actions of Removing before the Sheriff Court, be it enacted as follows:

It shall be competent to raise a Summons of Removing at any Time, provided there be an Interval of at least Forty Days between the Date of the Execution of the Summons and the Term of Removal, or where there is a separate Ish as regards Land and Houses or otherwise, between the Date of the Execution of the Summons and the Ish which is first in Date.

Lease, containing Obligation to remove, equivalent to Decree of Removing, provided Forty Days Notice be given.

XXX. Where any Lands or Heritages are held under a Probative Lease, specifying a Term of Endurance, such Lease, or an Extract thereof from the Books of any Court of Record, shall have the same Force and Effect in every respect as any Extract Decree of Removing obtained in any ordinary Action of Removing at the Instance of the Party, Granter of such Lease, or in the Right of the Granter of such Lease, against the Party in possession under such Lease, whether such Party in possession be the Lessee named in such Lease or not, decerning such Party in possession, his Family, Sub-tenants, Cottars, and Dependants, with their Goods and Gear, to be removed and ejected from the said Lands or Heritages at the Term or Terms corresponding to the Expiration of the Term or Terms of Endurance specified in such Lease; and such Lease or Extract thereof shall, along with a written Authority signed by the Landlord or his Factor or Agent, be a sufficient Warrant to any Sheriff Officer or Messenger at

Arms

Arms of the County within which such Lands or Heritages are situate to remove and eject such Party in possession, and his foresaids, from such Lands or Heritages on the Elapse of such specified Term or Terms respectively, and to return an Execution thereof in common Form: Provided always, that previous Notice to remove shall be given to such Party in possession, at least Forty Days before the Expiration of the Term of Endurance specified in such Lease, or where the Lease has a separate Ish as regards Land and Houses or otherwise, at least Forty Days before that Ish which is first in Date, by causing to be delivered to such Party in possession, or to be left at his ordinary Dwelling House, or to be transmitted to his known Address through the Post Office, previous to the Commencement of such Period of Forty Days, a Notice by a Sheriff Officer of the County in which such Lands or Heritages are situate, or Messenger at Arms, in the Form in Schedule (I.) annexed to this Act; and a Certificate endorsed on such Lease or Extract that such Notice has been duly given, signed by a Sheriff Officer of such County, or Messenger at Arms, and attested by One Witness, in the Form in Schedule (J.) annexed to this Act, or an Acknowledgment to that Effect endorsed thereon by such Party in possession himself, or by his known Agent on his Behalf, shall be sufficient Evidence that such Notice has been given: Provided also, that no such Removal or Ejectment by virtue of this Enactment shall be competent after Six Weeks have elapsed from the Expiration of the Term of Endurance specified in such Lease, or where the Lease has a separate Ish as regards Land and Houses or otherwise, after Six Weeks have elapsed from that Ish which is last in Date; and provided further, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any Proceedings under this Enactment from being brought under Suspension in common Form.

XXXI. Where any Tenant in possession of any Lands or Heritages shall, whether at the Date of entering upon his Lease or at any other Time, grant a Letter of Removal, either holograph or attested by One Witness, in the Form in Schedule (K.) annexed to this Act, such Letter of Removal shall have the same Force and Effect in every respect as any Extract Decree of Removing obtained in any ordinary Action of Removing at the Instance of the Party to whom such Letter of Removal is granted, or of the Party in his Right, against the Party Granter of such Letter of Removal, or the Party in his Right as Tenant, decerning such Party Granter of such Letter, or such Party in his Right, as the Case may be, his Family, Sub-tenants, Cottars, and Dependants, with their Goods and Gear, to be removed and ejected from the said Lands and Heritages at the Term or Terms of Removal respectively specified in such Letter of Removal; and such Letter of Removal shall be a sufficient Warrant to any Sheriff Officer of the County within which such Lands or Heritages are situate to remove and eject such Party Granter of such Letter of Removal, or such Party in his Right, and his foresaids, from such Lands and Heritages, on the Elapse of such specified Term or Terms respectively, and to return an Execution thereof in common Form: Provided always, that where such Letter of Removal shall bear Date more than Six Weeks before the Term of Removal, or the

Ish first in Date, specified in such Letter of Removal, previous Notice to remove shall be given to the Party Granter of such Letter of Removal, or to such Party in his Right, at least Forty Days before such Term of Removal, or where such Letter of Removal specifies a separate Ish as regards Lands and Houses or otherwise, at least Forty Days before that Ish which is first in Date, by causing to be delivered to such Party Granter of such Letter of Removal, or to such Party in his Right, or to be left at his ordinary Dwelling House, or to be transmitted to his known Address through the Post Office, previous to the Commencement of such Period of Forty Days, a Notice by a Sheriff Officer of the County in which such Lands or Heritages are situate, in the Form of Schedule (I.) annexed to this Act; and a Certificate endorsed upon such Letter of Removal that such Notice has been duly given, signed by a Sheriff Officer of such County, and attested by One Witness, in the Form of Schedule (J.) annexed to this Act, or an Acknowledgment to that Effect endorsed thereon by the Granter of such Letter of Removal, or other Party in his Right, or by the known Agent of the Granter of such Letter of Removal, or other Party on his Behalf, shall be sufficient Evidence that such Notice has been given: Provided also, that no such Removal or Ejection by virtue of this Enactment shall be competent after Six Weeks have elapsed from the Expiration of the Term of Endurance specified in such Letter of Removal, or where such Letter of Removal has a separate Ish as regards Lands and Houses or otherwise, after Six Weeks have elapsed from that Ish which is last in Date; and provided further, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any Proceedings under this Enactment from being brought under Suspension in common Form.

Arrears of Feu Duties for Subjects of small Amount may be sued for in Sheriff Court.

XXXII. 'And whereas it is desirable that the Jurisdiction of the Sheriff should be extended to Questions relating to Nonpayment of Feu Duties for real Subjects of small Amount, wherever, in Subjects not exceeding in yearly Value the Sum of Twenty-five Pounds, the Vassal shall have run in arrear of his Feu Duty for Two Years: It shall be competent for the Superior to raise an Action before the Sheriff, in ordinary Form, setting forth that the Subject is of the Value, and that the Feu Duty has run in arrear as aforesaid, and concluding that the Vassal should be removed from his Possession, and that Warrant to that Effect should be granted, and thereafter the Cause shall proceed in the Manner herein provided in ordinary Actions; and if the Defendant shall fail to appear, or if it shall be proved to the Sheriff by such Evidence as he may require that the Subject is of the Value, and that the Feu Duty is in arrear as aforesaid, he shall grant Warrant in Terms of the Conclusions of the Summons, which Warrant shall be executed at the First Term of Whitsunday or Martinmas, which shall first occur, Four Months after the same is issued by the Sheriff, and such Warrant, so executed, shall have the Effect, in relation to the said Possession, of a Decree of Irritancy ob non solutum Canonem: Provided always, that it shall be competent to the Vassal, at any Time within One Year from the Date of such Removal, to raise an Action of Declarator in the Court of Session for Vindication of such Subject on any Ground proceeding on Challenge of the Title of the Superior, which which shall not be called in question before the Sheriff except on Grounds instantly verified by the Titles of the Superior, and that it shall be competent to the Vassals, at any Time before such Warrant is executed, to purge the Irritancy incurred by Payment of the Arrears pursued for with the Expenses incurred by the Superior in such Proceedings; provided also, that in Leases for a longer Endurance than Twenty-one Years the Landlord shall have the like Remedies against his Tenant, in case of the Nonpayment of Rent, mutatis mutandis, that are hereby given to the Superior against his Vassal.

XXXIII. And in respect of Criminal Prosecutions before the Sheriff, be it enacted as follows:

The Principal or Record Copies of all Criminal Libels before the Sheriff Courts may be either written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, provided that the same shall be authenticated in the same Manner as the written Criminal Libels now in use are authenticated.

XXXIV. When a Criminal Libel in any Sheriff Court is either wholly or partly printed, a Copy of it, either wholly or partly printed, shall, instead of being copied in Writing into the Record Book of Court, as at present, be inserted in such Book, either in its proper Place in the Body thereof or at the End of the Volume wherein the relative Procedure is recorded, in which last Case it shall be distinctly referred to as so appended.

XXXV. In the Prosecution of all Criminal Offences which shall not be tried summarily the Will of the Criminal Libel shall contain Two Diets of Compareance in the Form of the Schedule (L.) hereunto annexed; and at the First of such Diets, which shall not be sooner than Five Days from the Service of the Libel, the Court sitting in Judgment shall call upon the accused Party to plead Guilty or Not Guilty to the Crime of which such Party may be therein accused; and if such Party shall plead Guilty the Court shall forthwith pronounce Sentence upon such Party according to the Form now in use; and if the Party accused shall plead Not Guilty the Trial of such Party shall take place on the Second Diet of Compareance set forth in the Will of the Libel, which Second Diet shall not be sooner than Nine clear Days after the First Diet, and at such Second Diet the Party accused shall again be called upon to plead as aforesaid, and if such Party shall then plead Guilty the Sentence of the Law shall be forthwith pronounced according to the Form now in use; and if such Party shall plead Not Guilty a Jury shall then be empannelled, and the Trial shall proceed and be followed out according to Law, unless the Diet shall be further adjourned or deserted according to the existing Law and Practice.

XXXVI. It shall not be necessary for the Sheriff at each such Diet to ask the Party accused more than once whether such Party pleads Guilty or Not Guilty.

XXXVII. And with respect to the Salaries and Remuneration of Sheriffs and Sheriff Substitutes, be it enacted as follows:

It shall be lawful to grant to any Sheriff such Salary as to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may seem meet, not being less than Five hundred Pounds by the Year, and to any salaried Sheriff Substitute now in Office, or to his Successor, or to any Sheriff Substitute who may be hereafter appointed by virtue of this Act, such Salary as to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may seem meet, the same not in any Case exceeding One thousand Pounds by the Year, and not less than Five hundred Pounds by the Year; and every Salary payable to such Sheriff or Sheriff Substitute shall be paid by Four equal quarterly Instalments out of the Funds from which the Salaries of Sheriffs are payable; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty and Her Heirs and Successors, upon the joint Recommendation of the Lord President of the Court of Session, Her Majesty's Advocate, and the Lord Justice Clerk, all for the Time being, to grant Authority to any Sheriff to appoint One or more additional Sheriff Substitutes: Provided always, that such joint Recommendation shall expressly bear that the Appointment of such additional Officer or Officers is essentially necessary for the Public Service; and provided also, that no more than Two additional Sheriff Substitutes in each County shall be appointed under the Powers hereby conferred.

XXXVIII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to grant to any Person who has held, now holds, or may hereafter hold the Office of Sheriff Substitute such Annuity as is by the said second-recited Act authorized to be granted in respect of long Service for One or other of the Periods specified in the said second-recited Act, notwithstanding such Service may not have been continuous, and may have been in different Counties; and the said Commissioners shall have the same Powers of granting Annuities to Sheriffs in respect of long Service as are conferred by the said second recited Act and by this Act with reference to Sheriff Substitutes, and such Annuities shall be payable out of the Funds from which the Salaries of Sheriffs are payable: Provided always, that no such Annuity shall be granted to any Sheriff or Sheriff Substitute, unless the Periods of his actual Service as Sheriff or Sheriff Substitute, as the Case may be, shall, when taken together, extend to One or other of the Periods of Service specified in the said second-recited Act; and that in computing the Amount of Retiring Allowance of such Sheriffs the Emoluments drawn by them on Average of the Five preceding Years shall be held to constitute their Salary.

XXXIX. The Salaries henceforth to be paid to the Sheriffs and Sheriffs Substitute shall be in full of all Fees and Emoluments whatever.

XL. The Commissions already granted or to be granted by all Sheriffs to the Sheriffs Substitutes shall extend over the whole County.

XLI. In case the Operation of this Act shall affect the Emoluments of any Sheriff Clerk not now paid by Salary, it shall be competent to such Sheriff Clerks to apply to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of Great Britain and Ireland, who shall have Power, upon Proof to their Satisfaction of the Diminution of the Emoluments of such Sheriff Clerks through the Operation of this Act, to award such Compensation to such Sheriff Clerks respectively as to the said Commissioners shall seem just; and it shall be in the Power of any such Sheriff Clerk to require that he should be paid by Salary, in Terms of the said recited at First and Second Victoria, Chapter One hundred and nine-en ; and it shall be lawful to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's treasury to adjust the Salary of every Sheriff Clerk now in Office, and who is paid by Salary, regard being had to the Expenses of each Office, as may seem to them just.

XLII. And with respect to the Sittings of the Sheriff Courts, and the more efficient Operation of this Act, be it enacted as follows :

Each Sheriff Court, except those held at a Place where an ordinary Sheriff Substitute does not reside, shall sit for the despatch of ordinary Civil Business for such Number of Days weekly during the Session as shall be fixed by each Sheriff by a Regulation of Court, to be approved of by the said Lord President and Lord Justice Clerk, and to be advertised at least once a Year in a Newspaper published in the County, or where there is no such Newspaper, in a Newspaper published in some County immediately adjoining.

XLIII. Each Sheriff shall hold Three Sessions in each Year, the First of which shall commence on the Fifteenth Day of January, or the First ordinary Court Day thereafter, and shall continue until the Fifteenth Day of March following, and the second shall commence on the Third Day or the Fourth Day of April, and shall continue until the Thirty-first Day of July following, and the Third shall commence on the First Day of October, or the First ordinary Court Day thereafter, and shall continue until the Fifteenth Day of December following ; and in case at any Time there shall be any Arrear of Business undisposed of, it shall be the Duty of the Sheriff from Time to Time to appoint additional Court Days, whether in Time of Session or Vacation, for the Purpose of disposing of such Arrear.

XLIV. All summary Causes may proceed equally during Vacation as during Session ; and it shall be competent to the Sheriff, if he thinks fit, to pronounce Interlocutors in Time of Vacation, in all Causes, whether summary or not.

XLV. The Sheriff shall, before the Termination of each Session, appoint at least One Court Day during each Vacation for the Despatch of all ordinary Civil Business, including the calling of new Causes, and the Receipt of Condescendences, Defences, and other Papers, which, if the Court had not been in Vacation, would have required to be previously lodged.

XLVI. Every Sheriff shall, unless prevented by Indisposition or other unavoidable Cause, hold annually in his County Sittings for the Discharge of the Judicial Business of the County ; that is to say, the Sheriffs of Sutherland, Caithness, and Inverness, Ross and Cromarty, Argyle, Banff, and Elgin and Nairn, shall hold Three such Sittings, and the Sheriffs of the other Counties shall hold Four such Sittings, in the Course of the Year ; and such Sittings shall continue until the Causes ready for Trial or Hearing when such Sittings commence be disposed of ; and such Sittings shall, except as regards the Counties of Ross, Inverness, and Argyle, be held at each of the Places within his County at which the ordinary Courts of the Sheriff Substitutes are held, and such other Places as the Sheriff, with Approval of the Secretary of State for the Home Department, may appoint, and as regards the

An Act to reduce the Salary and Emoluments of the Registrar of Meetings of the Court of Bankruptcy.

[15th August 1853.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session holden in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth it was among other Things enacted; that it should be lawful for the Lord Chancellor for the Time being to appoint some competent and proper Person to the Office of Registrar of the Meetings of the Commissioners of Bankruptcy, who should be resident in such Part of the Building to be erected under the said Act as the Commissioners should direct, and who should also have an Office in some convenient and public Part of the said Building, and that there should be paid and allowed to the Registrar to be appointed as aforesaid, during his Continuance in the said Office, the clear yearly Salary or Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and that there should be taken from and charged to the Estates of the Bankrupts, the Business under whose Commission should be transacted in the said Building, to the said Registrar for his own Use, for the Registry of every Meeting in Bankruptcy holden in the said Building, the Sum of One Shilling, and for every Search out of Office Hours that might be made in the said Registry, unless by or by the Order of the Commissioners under any Commission of Bankruptcy, the like Sum of One Shilling, to be paid by the Party making such Search: And whereas in the Month of March last the said Office of Registrar of Meetings having become vacant by the Death of Jeremiah Hodgson, the then Holder thereof, John Frederic Buccleugh was appointed to the said Office, but on the express Condition that he should hold the same subject to any Reduction which might thereafter be made in the Emoluments to be received by him as such Registrar: And whereas the Fees receivable by the said Registrar for his own Use have on an average of the last Four Years produced a Sum of between Two hundred and forty Pounds and Two hundred and fifty Pounds, and it is expedient that the Salary and Emoluments of the said Office should be reduced in manner herein-after mentioned: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows: From and after the passing of this Act the yearly Salary payable to the said Registrar of Meetings shall be the Sum of One hundred Pounds only instead of Two hundred Pounds, and the Fee receivable

C A P. LXXXII.

An Act to provide for the future Regulation and Management and the permanent Endowment of "The College of Christ of Brecknock," founded by King Henry the Eighth with permissive Powers to unite the same with Saint David's College.
[15th August 1853.]

WHEREAS the College of Christ of Brecknock in South Wales was founded by King Henry the Eighth by his Royal Charter bearing Date the Nineteenth Day of January in the Thirty-third Year of His Reiga, whereby, after stating that His Majesty's Subjects dwelling in the Southern Part of Wales were unable by reason of their Poverty to educate their Sons in good Letters, and by reason of their Ignorance of the English Language were unable to understand those Laws and Statutes which they were bound to obey, and that the said Foundation was intended to comprise a Grammar School and Divinity Lectureship, for providing Instruction, both in Letters and Divinity, by competent Instructors, His said Majesty did establish a Grammar School and Divinity Lectureship, and provide thereby gratuitous Instruction, both in Letters and Divinity, by competent Instructors, and by the aforesaid Charter the House or Priory of the Preaching Friars at Brecknock, and all Edifices, Lands, and Property which belonged to that Priory at the then late Dissolution thereof, were given and confirmed by His Majesty to the Bishop of Saint David's and his Successors, and Power and Authority were given to the Bishop and all Prebendaries or Ministers of the College then existing at Abergwilly within the Diocese of Saint David's, of which the Bishop was Dean, and all Schoolmasters, Preachers, and other Persons, to frequent, inhabit, and abide in the Possessions of the Priory, and Power and Authority were also given to the Bishop of Saint David's to transfer the Prebendaries and other Ministers of the College of Abergwilly to the College of Christ of Brecknock, and His Majesty did grant that all Lands, Advowsons, Hereditaments, and Rights belonging to the College of Abergwilly or the Fabric thereof should be held and enjoyed by the Bishop and Prebendaries, to the Use, Support, and Maintenance of the College of Christ of Brecknock; and shortly after the Date of the said Charter the College of Abergwilly, with its Possessions and the Prebendaries and the Ministers thereof, were duly transferred to the College of Christ of Brecknock: And whereas for many Years before and up to the Time of the passing of the Act of the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, herein-after recited, the Collegiate Body of the said College of Christ of Brecknock consisted of a Dean, being the Bishop of Saint David's for the Time being, and holding the Prebend of Llangadock and the Church or Parsonage

' of Mothney in right of such Deanery, a Treasurer, formerly
 ' holding in right of that Office the Prebend of Llangamarch,
 ' but which Prebend by an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of ' the Reign of Queen Anne, was severed from the said College,
 ' and annexed to the See of Saint David's, a Precentor, holding
 ' in right of that Office the Prebend of Llanfynydd, a Chancellor,
 ' holding in right of that Office the Prebend of Llanbister, and ' Nineteen other Prebendaries, holding certain Prebends in right
 ' of their respective Offices, a Particular of all which said several ' Dignities, with the Endowments thereof, and of several yearly
 ' Pensions accustomed to be paid thereout for the Purposes of the ' said College, and which have been latterly applied in Payment ' of the Stipend of a Schoolmaster and Lecturer in Divinity for ' the said College, is set forth in the First Schedule to this Act :
 ' And whereas in process of Time the Church and Buildings
 ' belonging to the said College have fallen into and are now in a ' State of Decay, and the annual Payments accustomed to be made ' by the said Dean and Prebendaries for the Purposes of the College
 ' are inadequate to place the Foundation upon an efficient Footing :
 ' And whereas by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Third ' and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act 3 & 4 Vict.
 ' to carry into effect, with certain Modifications, the Fourth Report c. 113.
 ' of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues, the ' Deanery of the said College will on the next Vacancy thereof
 ' become suppressed, and all the Lands, Tithes, Tithes Rent-' charges, and other Hereditaments (excepting any Rights of ' Patronage), and all other Emoluments and Endowments belong' ing to the said Deanery, will on such Avoidance become abso' lutely vested in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and all the ' Lands, Tithes, and other Hereditaments (excepting Rights of ' Patronage) belonging to the respective Dignities or Offices of ' Treasurer, Precentor, Chancellor, and the several Prebendaries ' or other Officers of the said Collegiate Church (except as to ' such Parts thereof as are permanently annexed to the said
 ' Bishopric) have already, as to such of the said Dignities and ' Offices as were vacant at the passing of this Act or have since ' become vacant, and as to all others will immediately upon the ' next Vacancies thereof respectively, become vested absolutely
 ' in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and their ' Successors, for the Purposes of the said Act, subject neverthe' less to such Leases as at the respective Times of such Vacancies
 ' occurring were or shall be subsisting and in force ; but in the ' said Act is contained a Proviso that nothing therein contained
 ' should in any Manner apply to or affect any Dignity, Office, or
 ' Prebend which was permanently annexed to any Bishopric,
 ' Archdeaconry, Professorship, or Lectureship, or to any School,
 ' or the Mastership thereof : And whereas Eleven of the Prebends
 ' in the said Collegiate Church have become vacant, and are so ' distinguished in the First Schedule to this Act, and all the ' Lands, Tithes, and other Hereditaments constituting or belong' ing to the said last-mentioned Prebends (excepting Rights of ' Patronage) have become vested (subject to the subsisting Leases ' affecting the same) in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, for ' the Purposes of the said Act : And whereas, in order to provide
 ' for

‘ for the Restoration of the Fabric of the said Collegiate Church
 ‘ and Buildings to a proper Condition of Repair, and for aug‘ menting the Endowment of the said College, with a view to ‘ carry out in an efficient Manner, and with greater Advantage,
 ‘ the Purposes for which the said College was founded by the ‘ said Royal Charter, as in this Act is before expressed, a Pro‘ posal has been agreed upon by the said Ecclesiastical Commis‘ sioners and the Right Reverend Connop Thirlwall D.D., the ‘ present Bishop of Saint David’s and Dean of the said Collegiate ‘ Church, that the Lands and Hereditaments situate at Brecknock, ‘ described in the First Part of the Second Schedule to this Act,
 ‘ at present held by the said Bishop, and also the said Prebend of ‘ Llangadock, and Parsonage of Mothvey, respectively described ‘ in the Second Part of the said Second Schedule to this Act, ‘ (whether the same respectively be held by the said Bishop in ‘ right of his said Bishopric of Saint David’s or of the said ‘ Deanery,) should be relinquished and given up by him, in ‘ consideration of his receiving such Compensation for the same
 ‘ as is herein-after provided for, and that the same Lands and ‘ Hereditaments, Prebend, and Parsonage, with the annual Pen‘ sions in the First Schedule mentioned as accustomed to be ‘ paid in respect of the said several Prebends therein set forth
 ‘ until the same shall respectively become vacant, and also a ‘ Portion, to be ascertained as herein-after mentioned, of the ‘ annual Revenues of the said Estates belonging to the said ‘ Prebends, or a specific Portion of the same Prebends, subject to ‘ the Interests of the present Holders thereof, should be per‘ manently settled as an Endowment for the said College: And ‘ whereas it is expedient that the said College should be put upon
 ‘ a proper Footing of Government and Regulation, and be subject
 ‘ to suitable Constitutions, Ordinances, Statutes, and Regulations.”
 But inasmuch as the aforesaid Objects cannot be carried into effect without the Aid and Authority of Parliament, may it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice
 and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

Constitution of College of Christ of Brecknock.

I. That the said College of Christ of Brecknock, shall from and after the passing of this Act, and at all Times for ever thereafter, continue and be constituted a College and Collegiate School, to be called “The College of Christ of Brecknock,” for affording Instruction, in Letters and Divinity according to the Articles and Formularies of the United Church of England and Ireland, and in other Branches of useful Knowledge, by competent Instructors, including a Divinity Lectureship, and for Encouragement to meritorious Scholars for their Advancement in Learning.

 tions affecting or relating to the said College of Christ of Brecknock, whether under or by virtue of the aforesaid Royal Charter, or otherwise, shall be and the same are hereby repealed; and the said College, and all and singular its Endowments, Property, and Revenues, and the Government and Management of the said College, shall, on the due Appointment of a governing Body

Body as herein-after provided, be vested in such Persons, of whom the Bishop of the Diocese shall be One, and their Successors, possessing such Qualifications and to be nominated in such Manner and under and subject to such new or other Ordinances, Statutes, Rules, and Regulations respectively as, having regard to the fundamental Principles and Constitution of the said College in this Act before expressed, shall from Time to Time be expressed and contained in any Scheme or Schemes which shall be approved of and confirmed by an Order or Orders of the High Court of Chancery to be obtained under the Provisions in this Act contained; and the Persons so nominated, and their Successors, shall be a Body Corporate by such Name or Style as shall be declared by such Order, and shall have and use a Common Seal, and by that Name shall have perpetual Succession, and shall and may sue and be sued in all Courts and Places, and shall and may take, purchase, and hold Lands and Real Estates and other Property in trust for the Purposes of the said College and School, according and subject to the Powers and Provisions of this Act, and all the Powers of the said Corporation may be exercised so long as there shall be Three Members thereof; provided that notwithstanding the Incorporation of the Persons so to be nominated as aforesaid the individual Members of such Corporate Body shall in the Exercise of the Powers and Trusts to be vested in them be responsible in like Manner as other Trustees for the due Execution of the Trust reposed in them: Provided also, that until the Appointment of such governing Body, the said College, its Endowments, Property, and Revenues, shall be and continue vested in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, subject to the Provisions of this Act.

III. The Lands and Hereditaments described in the First Part of the Second Schedule to this Act, including the Site of the Church, Schoolhouse, Buildings, Ground, and Premises belonging to the said Collegiate Church of Christ of Brecknock, and also the said Prebend or Portion of the Prebend of Llangadock and Parsonage of Mothvey, described in the Second Part of the said Second Schedule, and all and singular other the Lands, Tithes, Tithe Rentcharges, Tenements, and Hereditaments belonging to the said Collegiate Church, or to any One or more of the respective Dignities or Offices of Dean, Treasurer, Precentor, Chancellor, Prebendaries, or any other Dignity or Office, Dignities or Offices, in or connected with the said Collegiate Church, shall from and after the passing of this Act (but subject and without Prejudice as to the Prebendaries of the respective Prebends not vacant at the passing of this Act to the Rights and Interests of the present Holders thereof so long as they continue to hold the same, and subject and without Prejudice to such Leases as shall then legally affect the same respectively) be absolutely and for ever discharged of and from all the Uses, Trusts, or Purposes to or for which the same Hereditaments and Estates are or may be subject or liable to be held or applied pursuant to the said Royal Charter of the Thirty-second Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, or any other Royal Charter or Charters, or Act or Acts of Parliament, or otherwise howsoever, and of and from all Right, Title, or Interest of the said Connop Bishop of Saint David's, and his Successors, Lands and Hereditaments to be discharged from Uses and Trusts of Charter of Henry 8.

‘ for the Restoration of the Fabric of the said Collegiate Church
 ‘ and Buildings to a proper Condition of Repair, and for aug‘ menting the Endowment of the said College, with a view to ‘ carry out in an efficient Manner, and with greater Advantage,
 ‘ the Purposes for which the said College was founded by the ‘ said Royal Charter, as in this Act is before expressed, a Pro‘ posal has been agreed upon by the said Ecclesiastical Commis‘ sioners and the Right Reverend Connop Thirlwall D.D., the ‘ present Bishop of Saint David’s and Dean of the said Collegiate ‘ Church, that the Lands and Hereditaments situate at Brecknock,
 ‘ described in the First Part of the Second Schedule to this Act,
 ‘ at present held by the said Bishop, and also the said Prebend of ‘ Llangadock, and Parsonage of Mothvey, respectively described ‘ in the Second Part of the said Second Schedule to this Act, ‘ (whether the same respectively be held by the said Bishop in ‘ right of his said Bishopric of Saint David’s or of the said ‘ Deanery,) should be relinquished and given up by him, in ‘ consideration of his receiving such Compensation for the same
 ‘ as is herein-after provided for, and that the same Lands and ‘ Hereditaments, Prebend, and Parsonage, with the annual Pen‘ sions in the First Schedule mentioned as accustomed to be ‘ paid in respect of the said several Prebends therein set forth
 ‘ until the same shall respectively become vacant, and also a ‘ Portion, to be ascertained as herein-after mentioned, of the ‘ annual Revenues of the said Estates belonging to the said
 ‘ Prebends, or a specific Portion of the same Prebends, subject to ‘ the Interests of the present Holders thereof, should be per‘ manently settled as an Endowment for the said College: And ‘ whereas it is expedient that the said College should be put upon
 ‘ a proper Footing of Government and Regulation, and be subject
 ‘ to suitable Constitutions, Ordinances, Statutes, and Regulations.’
 But inasmuch as the aforesaid Objects cannot be carried into effect without the Aid and Authority of Parliament, may it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice
 and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

Constitution

be obtained and made and given respectively by Order of the said Court made in a summary Way upon a Petition entitled "In the Matter of the College of Christ of Brecknock;" and it shall also be lawful for the said Court of Chancery from Time to Time to hear every such Petition, and to make such Order or Orders thereon, and (except so far as is otherwise provided by this Act) as to the Parties to be served therewith or to appear thereon, and as to the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of the Petitioner or Petitioners and all other Parties incurred by reason or in consequence thereof, as the said Court shall think fit.

Costs.

XV. The Costs, Charges, and Expenses incurred or to be incurred in or by the obtaining or passing of this Act, and of preparing the aforesaid Scheme by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and also the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of all necessary Parties in or about the preparing of or consenting to any Petition or Petitions or other Proceedings for obtaining the Approval and Confirmation of the said Court of Chancery thereto, and of any Order or Orders to be made thereupon, shall be borne and paid in the first instance by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners out of the Common Fund placed at their Disposal for the Purposes of the said Acts, and One equal Third Part of the Money which shall be applied in Payment of the said Costs, Charges, and Expenses by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall be repaid to them or retained by them out of the Monies or Income belonging to the said College; and all the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of or incident to the carrying into execution any of the Powers and Authorities created or conferred by this Act or by any such Scheme as aforesaid, and not required to be exercised with the Approbation of the Court of Chancery, shall and may be retained and paid and discharged in the first place out of the Monies or Income belonging to the said College.

Residue of Property, except Lands in Second Schedule and Pensions, to remain vested in Ecclesiastical Commissioners and other Holders of same for the Time being.

XVI. All the Messuages, Lands, Tithes, Tithe Rentcharges, and Hereditaments belonging to or constituting the Corps of the several Prebends or Offices mentioned in the First Schedule to this Act, and all other, if any, the Lands, Tithes, Tithe Rentcharges, Hereditaments, and Premises belonging to or held in trust for the said Collegiate Church, or all or any One or more of the Dignities or Offices of Dean, Treasurer, Precentor, Chancellor, Prebends, or other Dignity or Office, Dignities or Offices in the said College (other than and except the Lands and Hereditaments, Prebend and Parsonage, described in the Second Schedule to this Act, and except the Pensions and annual Sums payable by the present Holders of the said Dignities and Offices respectively,) shall from and after the passing of this Act (but subject and without Prejudice, as to such of the said Prebends as have not yet accrued to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to the Rights and Interests of the present Holders thereof, and to the subsisting Leases thereof,) remain and be absolutely vested in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, their Successors and Assigns, freed and discharged from the Uses, Trusts, or Purposes for or to which the same are or may be liable to be applied under the said Royal Charter of the Thirty-second Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, or any other Royal Charter or Charters, or Act or Acts of Parliament, or otherwise howsoever, but charged and chargeable nevertheless with the Payment to the Persons to be nominated and incorporated as aforesaid of the annual Pensions, Portion of Rents reserved on Leases, and Part of the net Rents and Profits of the said Lands, Tithes, Tithe Rentcharges, Hereditaments, and Premises herein-before declared to be and made a Part of the general Endowment and Property of the said College, and which net Rents and Profits shall be estimated after deducting all the usual Outgoings, and the proper and necessary Expenses attending the Management of the Property, and the Collection or Receipt of the said Rents and Profits; and, subject and chargeable as aforesaid, the said Prebends, Estates, and Property so vested in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners as aforesaid shall be by them held, possessed, and administered for the Purposes and under and according to the Provisions contained in the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, or other Act or Acts relating to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners which apply to Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments vested or liable to be vested in them under the same Acts or any of them, subject only to such Leases or Grants heretofore made thereof, or of any Part thereof, as may be now legally subsisting and not void or voidable at Law or in Equity: Provided nevertheless, that, notwithstanding the Right of the Persons so to be incorporated as aforesaid to receive such Pensions and Portions of and out of the Rents and Profits of the Estates lastly herein-before declared to be vested in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners as are herein-before mentioned, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall have and may exercise all the same Powers of granting Leases of the same Estates at Rack-rent (but not in consideration of Fines or Premiums, except with the Consent of the Persons so to be nominated and incorporated as aforesaid, or their Successors,) as they the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, by virtue of their said Acts or otherwise, might have had and exercised in respect of the same Estates in case such Persons had not been entitled to any such Pensions or Portions; provided also, that it shall be lawful for the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in exercise of the Powers vested in them under any of their said Acts, and by the Authority and for the Purposes therein expressed, with the Consent of the Persons so to be nominated and incorporated as aforesaid, or their Successors, to be testified by Writing under their Common Seal, to sell or otherwise dispose of any Part or Parts of the same Estates absolutely freed and discharged of and from the Rights and Interests of such Persons as last mentioned, or their Successors, therein or thereto.

XVII. It shall be lawful for the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, at any Time hereafter, by a Scheme prepared by them with the Consent of the Bishop of the Diocese for the Time being, and sanctioned by the Order of Her Majesty in Council, and published in the London Gazette, and also with the Approbation of the Court of Chancery to be previously obtained for the Purpose, to appropriate and set apart for the Use and in part of the Endowment of the said College and School, in lieu of the One Moiety of the Rents reserved on such Leases as aforesaid, and of the One Sixth Part of the clear Rents and Profits of the said Estates and Hereditaments by this Act declared to be vested in them as aforesaid, such specific Prebend or Prebends, or such specific Part or Parts of any One or more of the said Prebends as, according to the Certificate of Two competent Surveyors, one to be appointed by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners and the other by the governing Body of the said College and School to be incorporated as aforesaid, shall appear to be equivalent at least to such equal Moiety and Sixth Part or Share of the gross Value of the whole of the said Estates and Hereditaments subject to the Lease or Leases then subsisting therein; and from and after the Time which shall be fixed for that Purpose by the said Scheme, and after the same Scheme shall have come into operation, the Lands and Hereditaments so appropriated to the Use of the said College and School shall by force of this Act, and of such last-mentioned Scheme or Schemes so sanctioned as aforesaid, without any further Conveyance, be vested in the Persons so to be nominated and incorporated as aforesaid, and their Successors, as Part of the Endowment thereof, for the Uses and Purposes aforesaid, and the Remainder of the said Prebends, Estates, and Hereditaments shall thenceforth and at all Times for ever thereafter be and remain vested in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners and their Successors, freed and discharged from all Trusts, Claims, and Demands for or on behalf of the said College and School.

Compensation
for Relinquishment of Lands,
&c.

XVIII. In consideration of the Relinquishment by the said Connop Bishop of Saint David's in favour of the said College of the Lands and Hereditaments, Prebend and Parsonage, respectively described in the Second Schedule to this Act, Compensation shall be made to the said Bishop for the said Lands, Hereditaments, Prebend, and Parsonage under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and by the Authority thereby provided in like Manner, as is by the Twenty-second Section of the said Act directed in the Case of the Severance of certain Benefices from the Sees therein respectively mentioned.

13 & 14 Vict.
c. 94.

Offices of Lecturer, Treasurer,
&c. to cease on passing of Act.

XIX. The present Lecturer and Schoolmaster of the said College and School shall cease to hold Office, and the said Offices be suppressed on the Appointment and Incorporation of such governing Body as herein-before is mentioned; but the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, with the Sanction of the Court of Chancery, may, if they think fit, assign out of the Pension herein-before mentioned to both or either of such Officers any yearly Sums not exceeding the Stipends which have been accustomedly paid to such Lecturer and Schoolmaster, and shall fix the Duration of such Payments, which shall form a Charge on the Endowment and Property of the said College; and the several Dignities or Offices of Treasurer, Precentor, Chancellor, Prebendaries, and other Dignities or Offices in or connected with the said Collegiate Church, shall, as to such of them as are vacant at the passing of this Act immediately upon its so passing, and as to all others immediately upon the next Vacancies thereof respectively, be suppressed.

Charter for
St. David's College, Lampeter,
Feb., 9 G. 4.

XX. ' And whereas His Majesty King George the Fourth, by His Royal Charter bearing Date the Sixth Day of February in the Ninth Year of His Reign, after reciting that His Majesty ' being

' being informed that the Majority of Persons intended for Holy ' Orders in South Wales were unable by reason of their Poverty
 ' to pursue their Studies in the English Universities, and willing ' that there should be founded and established at Lampeter in the ' County of Cardigan One perpetual College for the Reception ' and Education of Persons destined for Holy Orders, which ' should be called Saint David's College, and should consist of One ' Principal, Two or more Tutors, and Two or more Professors, did
 ' appoint the Bishop of Saint David's for the Time being Visitor
 ' of the said College, and declared that the Principal, Tutors, and ' Professors, and their Successors, should be a Body Corporate by ' the Name of "The Principal, Tutors, and Professors of Saint
 ' David's College in the County of Cardigan in the Principality
 ' of Wales," and His Majesty granted to the said Corporation cer' tain Advowsons with Cure of Souls and Sinecure Rectories or ' Parsonages mentioned in the said Charter : And whereas by the ' said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her present Majesty's 3 & 4 Vict.
 ' Reign it was enacted, that, if it were deemed fit, any Part of c. 113. s. 62.
 ' the Lands, Tithes, or Hereditaments which should vest in or ' accrue to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners from or in re' spect of the Cathedral Church of Saint David or the Collegiate ' Church of Brecon might, by the Authority therein provided,
 ' be transferred to the said College of Saint David's, in exchange ' for Benefices with Cure of Souls then connected with the said
 ' College ; and the said College was empowered, upon the Com' pletion of any such Arrangement, to convey any such Benefices
 ' to such Person or Body Corporate and in such Manner as should ' be directed by the like Authority : And whereas by an Act passed
 ' in a Session holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign ' of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating the 6 & 7 Vict.
 ' Cathedral Churches of Wales, it was enacted, that so much of c. 77. s. 13.
 ' the last-mentioned Act as related to the said College of Saint
 ' David should be repealed, and that Arrangements might be ' made by the Authority mentioned in the said Act (that is to say,
 ' by a Scheme prepared by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners,
 ' and an Order of Her Majesty in Council confirming the same,)
 ' for effecting the Sale of the Advowsons of the several Benefices ' with Cure of Souls then annexed to the said College, and in' vesting the Proceeds of such Sale for the Benefit of the said
 ' College ; and that if it should be made to appear to the said
 ' Ecclesiastical Commissioners that the said College should after' wards not be competently endowed, it should be lawful, by the ' like Authority, to transfer to the said College, in augmentation
 ' of the Endowment thereof, any of the Lands, Tithes, Tenements,
 ' or Hereditaments in the Principality of Wales vested or to be ' vested in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England by or ' under the Provisions of the several Acts of Parliament men' tioned in relation thereto : And whereas the said Ecclesiastical ' Commissioners have made Arrangements in pursuance of the ' said Act for effecting the Sale of the Advowsons of certain
 ' Benefices with Cure of Souls annexed to the said College, and ' it is expedient that Her Majesty should be empowered, if She ' should see fit, to make further Provision for the College of Saint David's

Power to transfer Prebends of College of Christ of Brecknock to College of St. David's, Lampeter.

Power to transfer St. David's College to Brecknock.

Power to annex College of Christ of Brecknock to College of St. David's.

' David's in augmentation of the Endowment thereof out of any ' of the Lands, Tithes, and other Hereditaments belonging to or ' constituting Endowments of the College of Christ of Brecknock
' vested in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners by virtue of this ' Act or otherwise: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council ratifying a Scheme or Schemes of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to be prepared and published in the Manner directed by the said last-recited Act, at any Time after the passing of this Act, but without Prejudice to any Act, Deed, Matter, or Thing before done, executed, or performed under the Provisions of this Act, to transfer to or vest in the Principal, Tutors, and Professors of the said College of Saint David's, and their Successors, any of the Prebends or any specific Portions of the Prebends of the said College of Christ vested in the said Commissioners by this Act or otherwise, or any Lands, Tithes, or Hereditaments belonging to or constituting the Corps of such Prebends, and charged in such Manner and subject to such Conditions as may be described or imposed by any such Scheme of the said Commissioners whereby such Augmentation shall be made, and that either in exchange for any of the said Benefices with Cure of Souls annexed to the said College, or otherwise; and that Her said Majesty may at any Time hereafter, if She shall think fit, in and by any such Order or Orders in Council ratifying any such Scheme or Schemes as aforesaid, such Scheme or Schemes being prepared with the Consent of the Bishop of the Diocese for the Time being to be testified by the Signature of the said Bishop, order and direct that Saint David's College shall be transferred from Lampeter in the County of Cardigan to Brecknock, and the same shall thereupon and with all convenient Speed be transferred accordingly; and the Principal, Tutors, and Professors of Saint David's College shall become Principal, Tutors, and Professors of the College of Saint David's in the County of Brecknock, by that Name, or by such other Name as shall be directed in such Scheme; and the said College so transferred shall hold and enjoy all the same Endowments and Privileges, and be under and subject to the same Government, Visitation, Statutes, Rules, and Regulations, as the said College may at the Time of such Transfer hold, enjoy, and be under and subject to at Lampeter, unless and until Her Majesty, in and by such Order, or any other such Order as aforesaid, shall order otherwise under the Authorities herein-after contained; and Her said Majesty is hereby authorized and empowered, if She shall see fit, in such Manner but subject to such Provisions as the High Court of Chancery shall by any Scheme to be settled by such Court approve, to annex the said College and Collegiate School of Christ of Brecknock to the said College of Saint David's, when the same shall have been so transferred to Brecknock, with a view either to their becoming separate Parts of One University, and under One System of Government and Visitation, or to their being placed in such Relation to each other as separate Colleges, or otherwise, as Her said Majesty shall think fit, having regard to the distinctive Characters and Objects of the Two Institutions.

XXI. Provided always, in case of the Removal of the said College of Saint David's to Brecknock Provision shall be made for the Reception and Education not only of Persons destined for Holy Orders but also Persons intended for secular Employments. As to Education if College removed to Brecknock.

XXII. The Powers of Augmentation given to Her Majesty in respect of Saint David's College may be exercised either before or after the Transfer thereof to Brecknock, or the Annexation thereof to the said College of Christ of Brecknock. Powers of Augmentation how to be exercised.

XXIII. For all Purposes of Recital or Reference it shall be sufficient in all Cases to mention this Act as "The Christ College of Brecknock Act, 1853." Reference to Act.

C A P. LXXXIII.

An Act to amend an Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Victoria, Chapter Ninety-nine. [20th August 1853.]

WHEREAS the Law touching Evidence requires further Amendment: Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. On the Trial of any Issue joined, or of any Matter or Question, or on any Inquiry arising in any Suit, Action, or other Proceeding in any Court of Justice, or before any Person having by Law or by Consent of Parties Authority to hear, receive, and examine Evidence, the Husbands and Wives of the Parties thereto, and of the Persons in whose Behalf any such Suit, Action, or other Proceeding may be brought or instituted, or opposed or defended, shall, except as herein-after excepted, be competent and compellable to give Evidence, either vidæ voce or by Deposition according to the Practice of the Court, on behalf of either or any of the Parties to the said Suit, Action, or other Proceeding.

Husbands and Wives of Parties to be admissible Witnesses;

II. Nothing herein shall render any Husband competent or compellable to give Evidence for or against his Wife, or any Wife competent or compellable to give Evidence for or against her Husband, in any Criminal Proceeding, or in any Proceeding instituted in consequence of Adultery.

except in Criminal and other Cases;

III. No Husband shall be compellable to disclose any Communication made to him by his Wife during the Marriage, and no Wife shall be compellable to disclose any Communication made to her by her Husband during the Marriage.

and not compellable to disclose Communications.

IV. So much of Section One of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-five, as provides that the said Act shall not render competent the Husband or Wife of any Party to any Suit, Action, or Proceeding individually named in the Record, or of any Lessor of the Plaintiff or of the Tenant of Premises sought to be recovered in Ejectment, or of the Landlord or other Person in whose Right any Defendant in Replevin may make cognizance, or of any Lessor in whose immediate and individual Behalf any Action may be brought or defended, either wholly or in part, is hereby repealed.

So much of Section 1, of 6 & 7 Vict. c. 85. as relates to Husbands and Wives, repealed.

V. In citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament, or in any Instrument, Document, or Proceeding, it shall be sufficient to use the Expression, "The Evidence Amendment Act, 1853."

Short Title.

VI. This Act shall commence on the Eleventh Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

Commencement of Act.

C A P. LXXXIV.

An Act to amend the Passengers Act, 1852, so far as relates to the Passages of Natives of Asia or Africa, and also Passages between the Island of Ceylon and certain Parts of the East Indies. [20th August 1853.]

15 & 16 Vict.
c. 44.

‘ WHEREAS by the Twelfth Section of the Passengers Act of 1852 it is provided that no Ship shall convey a greater Number of Passengers, exclusive of bonâ fide Cabin Passengers, than after the Rate of One Passenger for every Fifteen superficial Feet of the Passenger Deck if such Ship be intended to pass within the Tropics: And whereas it is expedient to enable the Governors of Her Majesty’s Possessions abroad to alter this Provision in the Case of Natives of Asia or Africa:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Governors of Possessions abroad may alter certain Rates prescribed by s. 12. of recited Act.

I. It shall be lawful for the Governors of Her Majesty’s Possessions abroad, if they shall think fit, to declare by Proclamation that Ships intended to pass within the Tropics from any Ports within their respective Governments may convey Passengers, being Natives of Asia or Africa, after the Rate of One for every Twelve superficial Feet of the Passenger Deck instead of One for every Fifteen such superficial Feet as required by the Section aforesaid.

Exempting Vessels carrying Passengers between certain Ports from Operation of said s. 12.

II. ‘ And whereas it is expedient to exempt from the Operation of the whole of the said Twelfth Section Vessels carrying Passengers between the Ports of Ceylon and the Ports of the Territories under the Government of the East India Company which lie within the Gulf of Manar and Palks’ Straits:’ Be it therefore enacted, That the Restrictions in the said Twelfth Section of the Passengers Act, 1852, shall not apply to Vessels proceeding on any Voyage from any Port or Place in the Island of Ceylon to any Port or Place in the Territories under the Government of the East India Company in the Gulf of Manar or Palks’ Straits, but that it shall be lawful for the Governor and Legislative Council of Ceylon, if they shall so think fit, to regulate by Ordinance the Number of Persons or Passengers who may be carried on board of Vessels proceeding on any such Voyage as last aforesaid.

This and recited Act to be One.

III. The Passengers Act of 1852 and this Act shall be construed together as One Act.

C A P. LXXXV.

An Act for removing Doubts as to the Powers of the Registrar of Her Majesty’s Privy Council to administer Oaths, and for providing for the Performance of the Duties of such Registrar in his Absence. [20th August 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS Doubts are entertained as to the Extent of the Powers of the Registrar of Her Majesty’s Privy Council appointed under an Act of the Session holden in the Third

‘ Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth, intituled
 ‘ An Act for the better Administration of Justice in His Majesty’s 8 & 4 W. 4. c. 41.
 ‘ Privy Council, for taking Evidence and administering Oaths :
 ‘ And whereas it would be for the public Convenience if such ‘ Registrar were empowered to take Affidavits and other Evidence
 ‘ and administer Oaths in all Matters pending before Her Majesty
 ‘ in Council or before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, ‘ and if Provision were made for the Appointment of a Person to ‘ act in the Absence of such Registrar :’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice
 and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

I. It shall be lawful for the Registrar for the Time being of Her Majesty’s Privy Council appointed under the said Act, or such other Person or Persons as shall be appointed for this Purpose by Her Majesty in Council or by the said Judicial Committee, to examine Witnesses and take Affidavits and Depositions upon Oath in all Appeals, Causes, and Matters whatsoever pending before Her Majesty in Council or before the said Judicial Committee, and to administer Oaths accordingly.

Registrar may examine Witnesses upon Oath.

II. In case of the Absence of the said Registrar it shall be lawful for the President of Her Majesty’s Privy Council to appoint a Person to act for the said Registrar during such Absence, and such Person while so acting shall have the same Powers in all respects as are vested in the said Registrar.

Who to act for Registrar in his Absence.

III. Nothing herein contained shall be taken to affect the Power of Her Majesty under the said Act or otherwise, to direct or limit the Duties to be performed by the said Registrar, or any other Authority which might have been exercised by Her Majesty or by Her Privy Council or the said Judicial Committee in case this Act had not been passed.

Saving of existing Powers of Her Majesty,

C A P. LXXXVI.

An Act to remove Doubts as to the Rights of the liberated Africans in Sierra Leone. [20th August 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS Doubts have been entertained whether Africans ‘ who have been liberated, or taken and received under the ‘ Protection of the Crown, under the Provisions of the Acts for ‘ the Abolition and Suppression of the Slave Trade, and are ‘ domiciled in the Colony of Sierra Leone and its Dependencies, ‘ are British Subjects, and Doubts have been also entertained as ‘ to the Authority of the local Legislature of that Colony in ‘ legislating in relation to the Rights and Obligations of such ‘ Africans :’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

I. All liberated Africans domiciled or resident, or who hereafter may be domiciled or resident, in the Colony of Sierra Leone or its Dependencies, shall be deemed to be and to have been for all Purposes as from the Date of their being brought into or of their Arrival in the said Colony natural-born Subjects of Her Majesty,

C A P. LXXXVII

An Act to give to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings extended Time and further Powers for completing the Embankment of the River Thames between Vauxhall and Battersea Bridges, and a new Street from Lower Sloane Street in connexion therewith. [20th August 1853.]

WHEREAS by the Thirty-ninth Chapter of the Statutes made in the Session of Parliament held in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, and which received the Royal Assent on the Third Day of August One thousand eight hundred and forty-six, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings were empowered to construct and complete an Embankment and Roadway along the North Bank of the River Thames from Battersea Bridge to Vauxhall Bridge, and to construct and complete a Bridge across the said River from a Point near to Chelsea Hospital to a Point near the Public House called the Red House, with convenient Approaches thereto, together with convenient Piers, Stairs, Harbours, and Landing Places; and also a Street from the South End of Lower Sloane Street to the Northern Extremity of such Bridge, in manner therein mentioned, and according to certain Surveys, Plans, and Designs therein referred to; and which Plans and Designs, in pursuance of a Provision in that Behalf in the Sixth Section of the said Act contained, were duly deposited for public Inspection at the Office of the said Commissioners: And whereas in a Schedule to the said Act was contained a List of the Houses and Buildings, Lands and Hereditaments, which would probably be required for the Purposes thereof; and it was by the Eighth Section of the said Act provided that the said Commissioners, in making the said Roadway and Street and the Approaches to the said Bridge, should not deviate more than Fifty Feet from the Lines described in the aforesaid Plans and Designs, without the Consent and Approbation of the Person through whose Lands or Tenements such Deviation should be made, or the Use and Enjoyment of whose Tenements should be affected by such Deviation; and that in respect to the Soil or Freeholds of the Reverend Joseph George Brett Clerk, no Deviation should take place without adequate Compensation in reference to the same being made to him in manner therein mentioned; and by the Twenty-first Section of the said Act it was provided that no Houses or Buildings, Lands or Hereditaments, other than the Bed of the said River, should be taken or made use of for the Purposes of the said Act, except such as were mentioned in the said Schedule thereunto annexed, or as were situated within the Limits of the Line of Deviation therein-before authorized, without the Consent in Writing of the Owner or Owners thereof being first had and obtained for that Purpose; and it was by the Twenty-seventh Section of the said Act also enacted, that if the said Commissioners for executing the said Act should not within the Space of Seven Years, to be computed from the passing be obtained and made and given respectively by Order of the said Court made in a summary Way upon a Petition entitled "In the Matter of the College of Christ of Brecknock;" and it shall also be lawful for the said Court of Chancery from Time to Time to hear every such Petition, and to make such Order or Orders thereon, and (except so far as is otherwise provided by this Act) as to the Parties to be served therewith or to appear thereon, and as to the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of the Petitioner or Petitioners and all other Parties incurred by reason or in consequence thereof, as the said Court shall think fit.

Costs.

XV. The Costs, Charges, and Expenses incurred or to be incurred in or by the obtaining or passing of this Act, and of preparing the aforesaid Scheme by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and also the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of all necessary Parties in or about the preparing of or consenting to any Petition or Petitions or other Proceedings for obtaining the Approval and Confirmation of the said Court of Chancery thereto, and of any Order or Orders to be made thereupon, shall be borne and paid in the first instance by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners out of the Common Fund placed at their Disposal for the Purposes of the said Acts, and One equal Third Part of the Money which shall be applied in Payment of the said Costs, Charges, and Expenses by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall be repaid to them or retained by them out of the Monies or Income belonging to the said College; and all the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of or incident to the carrying into execution any of the Powers and Authorities created or conferred by this Act or by any such Scheme as aforesaid, and not required to be exercised with the Approbation of the Court of Chancery, shall and may be retained and paid and discharged in the first place out of the Monies or Income belonging to the said College.

Residue of Property, except Lands in Second Schedule and Pensions, to remain vested in Ecclesiastical Commissioners and other Holders of same for the Time being.

XVI. All the Messuages, Lands, Tithes, Tithe Rentcharges, and Hereditaments belonging to or constituting the Corps of the several Prebends or Offices mentioned in the First Schedule to this Act, and all other, if any, the Lands, Tithes, Tithe Rentcharges, Hereditaments, and Premises belonging to or held in trust for the said Collegiate Church, or all or any One or more of the Dignities or Offices of Dean, Treasurer, Precentor, Chancellor, Prebends, or other Dignity or Office, Dignities or Offices in the said College (other than and except the Lands and Hereditaments, Prebend and Parsonage, described in the Second Schedule to this Act, and except the Pensions and annual Sums payable by the present Holders of the said Dignities and Offices respectively,) shall from and after the passing of this Act (but subject and without Prejudice, as to such of the said Prebends as have not yet accrued to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to the Rights and Interests of the present Holders thereof, and to the subsisting Leases thereof,) remain and be absolutely vested in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, their Successors and Assigns, freed and discharged from the Uses, Trusts, or Purposes for or to which the same are or may be liable to be applied under the said Royal Charter of the Thirty-second Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, or any other Royal Charter or Charters, or Act or Acts of Parliament, or otherwise howsoever, but charged and chargeable nevertheless

 ‘ the said proposed Embankment and Roadway, and it is expedient ‘ that the said Commissioners should now be authorized to pro‘ ceed with and complete the whole of the said proposed Embank‘ ment and Roadway and new Street, and for that Purpose it is ‘ necessary that the Time limited by the said first-recited Act
 ‘ should be extended, and that the Powers by the said first-recited ‘ Act conferred with reference to the said original Plans and ‘ Designs, and to the Houses and Buildings, Lands and Here‘ ditaments, comprised in the Schedule to the said first-recited ‘ Act, should be extended to the said amended Plans and Designs,
 ‘ and to the Houses and Buildings, Lands, and Hereditaments ‘ comprised in the Schedule to this Act annexed:’ May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

I. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Works and Public Buildings, subject as after mentioned, to construct and complete an Embankment and Roadway along the North Bank of the River Thames from Battersea Bridge to Vauxhall Bridge, or any Part or Parts of such Embankment and Roadway, according to the said amended Plans and Designs, and also to complete such new Street as in the said first-recited Act is mentioned.

Commissioners to complete Embankment and Roadway
 according to the amended Plans.

II. For the Purposes of this Act all the Enactments of the said recited Acts, except so far as the same are varied by or inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, shall be considered as herein repeated, with the Substitution of the said amended Plans and Designs for the Plans and Designs mentioned in the said first-recited Act, and of the Schedule annexed to this Act for the Schedule annexed to the said first-recited Act, and of the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Works and Public Buildings for the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings: Provided nevertheless, that if the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Works and Public Buildings shall not, within the Space of Four Years, to commence and be computed from the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, purchase and take the Tenements and Hereditaments or Parts thereof respectively which they are by this Act, by Reference as aforesaid, empowered to take, use, and purchase, then the compulsory Powers for such Purpose shall cease.

Powers of recited Acts extended to this Act.

If Property

 within Four Years the compulsory Powers to cease.

III. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Works and Public Buildings, with the Consent of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, and of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, to construct the said Embankment and Roadway on certain Portions of the Bed and Shore of the River Thames, between Cadogan Pier and Battersea Bridge, beyond the Limits of Deviation on the said deposited Plans: Provided always, that the Embankment and Roadway so constructed beyond the said Limits of Deviation shall not project, encroach

XVIII. In consideration of the Relinquishment by the said Connop Bishop of Saint David's in favour of the said College of the Lands and Hereditaments, Prebend and Parsonage, respectively described in the Second Schedule to this Act, Compensation shall be made to the said Bishop for the said Lands, Hereditaments, Prebend, and Parsonage under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and by the Authority thereby provided in like Manner, as is by the Twenty-second Section of the said Act directed in the Case of the Severance of certain Benefices from the Sees therein respectively mentioned.

13 & 14 Vict.
c. 94.

Offices of Lecturer, Treasurer,
&c. to cease on
passing of Act.

XIX. The present Lecturer and Schoolmaster of the said College and School shall cease to hold Office, and the said Offices be suppressed on the Appointment and Incorporation of such governing Body as herein-before is mentioned; but the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, with the Sanction of the Court of Chancery, may, if they think fit, assign out of the Pension herein-before mentioned to both or either of such Officers any yearly Sums not exceeding the Stipends which have been accustomedly paid to such Lecturer and Schoolmaster, and shall fix the Duration of such Payments, which shall form a Charge on the Endowment and Property of the said College; and the several Dignities or Offices of Treasurer, Precentor, Chancellor, Prebendaries, and other Dignities or Offices in or connected with the said Collegiate Church, shall, as to such of them as are vacant at the passing of this Act immediately upon its so passing, and as to all others immediately upon the next Vacancies thereof respectively, be suppressed.

Charter for
St. David's College, Lampeter,
6th Feb., 9 G. 4.

XX. ' And whereas His Majesty King George the Fourth, by His Royal Charter bearing Date the Sixth Day of February in the Ninth Year of His Reign, after reciting that His Majesty ' being

being informed that the Majority of Persons intended for Holy Orders in South Wales were unable by reason of their Poverty to pursue their Studies in the English Universities, and willing that there should be founded and established at Lampeter in the County of Cardigan One perpetual College for the Reception and Education of Persons destined for Holy Orders, which should be called Saint David's College, and should consist of One Principal, Two or more Tutors, and Two or more Professors, did appoint the Bishop of Saint David's for the Time being Visitor of the said College, and declared that the Principal, Tutors, and Professors, and their Successors, should be a Body Corporate by the Name of "The Principal, Tutors, and Professors of Saint David's College in the County of Cardigan in the Principality of Wales," and His Majesty granted to the said Corporation certain Advowsons with Cure of Souls and Sinecure Rectories or Parsonages mentioned in the said Charter: And whereas by the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her present Majesty's Reign it was enacted, that, if it were deemed fit, any Part of the Lands, Tithes, or Hereditaments which should vest in or accrue to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners from or in respect of the Cathedral Church of Saint David or the Collegiate Church of Brecon might, by the Authority therein provided, be transferred to the said College of Saint David's, in exchange for Benefices with Cure of Souls then connected with the said College; and the said College was empowered, upon the Completion of any such Arrangement, to convey any such Benefices to such Person or Body Corporate and in such Manner as should be directed by the like Authority: And whereas by an Act passed in a Session holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating the Cathedral Churches of Wales, it was enacted, that so much of the last-mentioned Act as related to the said College of Saint David should be repealed, and that Arrangements might be made by the Authority mentioned in the said Act (that is to say, by a Scheme prepared by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and an Order of Her Majesty in Council confirming the same,) for effecting the Sale of the Advowsons of the several Benefices with Cure of Souls then annexed to the said College, and investing the Proceeds of such Sale for the Benefit of the said College; and that if it should be made to appear to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners that the said College should afterwards not be competently endowed, it should be lawful, by the like Authority, to transfer to the said College, in augmentation of the Endowment thereof, any of the Lands, Tithes, Tenements, or Hereditaments in the Principality of Wales vested or to be vested in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England by or under the Provisions of the several Acts of Parliament mentioned in relation thereto: And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners have made Arrangements in pursuance of the said Act for effecting the Sale of the Advowsons of certain Benefices with Cure of Souls annexed to the said College, and it is expedient that Her Majesty should be empowered, if She should see fit, to make further Provision for the College of Saint

Penalty on Owners, &c. of certain Lands erecting Steam Engines, or Structures thereon.

X. If the Owner or Occupier for the Time being of any of the Lands coloured Brown on the said Plan shall erect or permit or suffer any Steam Engine or Structure (except Cranes or Travellers) to be erected on the said Lands coloured Brown on the said Plan, contrary to the Provisions of this Act, then and in every such Case such Owner or Occupier shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings for each and every Day during which such Steam Engine or Structure shall remain on the said Lands or any Part thereof, One Moiety whereof shall be paid to the Informer, and the other Moiety whereof shall be applied in such Manner as other Penalties and Forfeitures are by this or by the firstly herein-before recited Act directed to be applied.

Thomas Cubitt to complete a certain Portion of the Embankment at his own Expense.

XI. The said Thomas Cubitt shall at his own Expense, and within Eighteen Months from the passing of this Act, complete and finish the said Embankment between King's Scholars Pond Sewer on the East and Distillery Lane on the West, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings in all respects.

Thomas Cubitt, with Consent, may make Laybyes for Vessels on a Portion of the Lands coloured Brown on the Plan.

XII. It shall be lawful for the said Thomas Cubitt, with the previous Consent in Writing of the Commissioners or Chief Commissioner for the Time being of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, to convert a certain Portion or certain Portions of the Lands coloured Brown on the said Plan into a Recess or Recesses to be used as a Laybye or Laybyes for Barges and other Vessels: Provided always, that such Consent may be given subject to such special Stipulations and Conditions for the Use and Maintenance of such Laybye or Laybyes as the said Commissioners or

Chief

Chief Commissioner for the Time being shall from Time to Time order or prescribe.

XIII. It shall be sufficient for all Purposes to cite this Act as Short Title, the "Thames Embankment Act, 1853."

III. The said Duties by this Act granted shall be denominated and deemed to be Duties of Excise, and shall be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue for the Time being ; and all Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Regulations, and Directions, Fines, Forfeitures, and Penalties, contained in or enacted by any Act or Acts in force for securing the Duties of Excise, or any of them, or otherwise in relation thereto, shall in all Cases not herein expressly provided for, and so far as the same are not superseded or expressly repealed by and are consistent with the express Provisions of this Act, be duly observed, applied, practised, and put in execution for charging, raising, levying, collecting, collecting, and securing the said Duties hereby granted, and otherwise relating thereto, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Regulations, Directions, Fines, Forfeitures, and Penalties were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act with reference to the said Duties hereby granted.

Duties granted to be Duties of Excise under the Care of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

Persons who let Horses for Hire to take out Licences under this Act.

IV. Every Person who shall let any Horse for Hire to be used either as a Saddle Horse or for drawing any Carriage conveying any Person or for drawing any Hearse shall, before he shall let any such Horse for Hire, take out a proper Licence for that Purpose under this Act to be granted by the Collector or other Person having charge of the Collection, and the Supervisor of Excise within the Collection and District in which the Person requiring such Licence shall reside or carry on the Business of letting Horses for Hire, or by such other Person or Persons as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall appoint or authorize in that Behalf, on Payment of the Duty chargeable on such Licence.

Not to extend to Horses used in licensed Stage or Hackney Carriages.

V. Provided always, That no Person shall be required to take out any such Licence as aforesaid in respect of any Horse used in drawing any public Stage Carriage duly licensed by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, or their proper Officer, or in respect of any Horse used in drawing any Hackney Carriage duly licensed by the like Authority, such Hackney Carriage being regularly and constantly used for the Purpose of standing or plying for Hire in the public Streets or Roads within the Limits of the Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, Chapter Thirty-three, for the better Regulation of Metropolitan Stage and Hackney Carriages, provided such Hackney Carriage shall be hired within and shall not be used to go beyond such Limits.

Persons applying for Licence to sign a Requisition containing certain Particulars.

VI. Every Person applying for any such Licence as aforesaid shall, before the same shall be granted to him, fill up and sign a printed Form of Requisition for such Licence to be provided by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue for that Purpose, and shall insert and set forth therein his full and true Christian Name and Surname and Place of Abode, and the Place or Places where he carries on or intends to carry on the Business of letting Horses for Hire, and shall also specify and set forth in such Form fully and truly the greatest Number of Horses and Carriages respectively which such Applicant has at any One Time within the Space of One Year immediately preceding such Application kept to be let for Hire, and the Duty on the Licence to be granted on such Requisition shall be charged according to the greatest Number of such Horses or Carriages so kept, whichever may give the higher Rate of Duty: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any Person applying for such Licence as aforesaid to require a Licence to be granted to authorize him to keep and let for Hire at One Time a greater Number of Horses and Carriages respectively than the greatest Number thereof which he so kept in the previous Year, and in such Case the Duty chargeable under this Act upon such Licence shall be charged in respect of the Number of Horses or Carriages which such Licence shall authorize to be so kept; and it shall also be lawful for any Person applying for such Licence as aforesaid who shall not within the

Year

Year preceding have kept any Horses or Carriages to be let for Hire to specify in the Requisition for such Licence any Number of Horses and Carriages intended to be kept by him to be let for Hire, and to require a Licence to be granted to authorize him to keep and let for Hire such Number of Horses and Carriages, and upon Payment of the Duty chargeable under this Act in respect of such Number of Horses or Carriages such Licence shall be granted to him accordingly.

VII. There shall be specified in every such Licence to be granted under this Act the true Christian Name and Surname and Place of Abode of the Person to whom the same shall be granted, the Sum paid for such Licence, and the greatest Number of Carriages and Horses respectively which the same will authorize to be kept at One Time to be let for Hire, and the Place or several Places where such Person shall carry on or intend to carry on the Business of letting Horses or Carriages for Hire.

Particulars to be specified in Licences.

VIII. Every Licence to let Horses for Hire which shall be granted under this Act shall have effect and continue in force from the Day of the Date thereof until the Day herein-after appointed for the Expiration thereof, both Days inclusive; and every such Licence which shall be granted before the Sixth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four shall expire on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and every such Licence which shall be granted upon or at any Time after the said Sixth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four shall expire on the Fifth Day of April next after the Day of the granting thereof, or if granted on the Fifth Day of April in any Year such Licence shall expire with the Day on which the same shall be granted.

Commencement and Expiration of Licences.

IX. Every Person to whom any such Licence as aforesaid shall be granted, and who shall be desirous of continuing the Business of letting Horses for Hire after the Expiration thereof, shall take out a fresh Licence for that Purpose for the following Year, to expire on the Day herein-before appointed in that Behalf, and shall so renew the same from Year to Year so long as he shall desire to continue such Business and shall pay the Duty by this Act charged on every such Licence; and every such Person shall give Notice in Writing Twenty-one Days at least before the Expiration of the current Licence to him granted of his Intention to renew the same to the Collector or Supervisor or other Person authorized to grant such Licences for the District or Place at which such Business is intended to be carried on; and where such Notice shall have been given the new Licence shall bear Date on the Day next after the Day of the Expiration of the former Licence, but if such Notice shall not have been given the Licence shall bear Date on the Day of the Application for the same.

Renewal of Licences.

X. Provided always, That upon any Licence to let Horses for Hire which shall be taken out before the Sixth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four a proportionate Part only of the annual Duty by this Act charged on a yearly Licence shall be paid in respect of the Portion of a Year for which such Licence will be granted; (that is to say,) if such Licence shall be taken out before the Sixth Day of January One thousand eight eight hundred and fifty-four there shall be paid for the same One Half of the said annual Duty, and if such Licence shall be taken out upon or after the said Sixth Day of January and before the Sixth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four there shall be paid for the same One Fourth Part of the said annual Duty.

A proportionate Part of the yearly Duty to be paid on Licences taken out before 6th April 1854.

Licences to Persons commencing Business to be granted on Payment of a proportionate Part of the Duty according to the Quarter in which they are taken out.

XI. Provided also, That when any Person shall be desirous of beginning to exercise the Business of letting Horses for Hire at any Time after the said Sixth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, such Persons not having before taken out any Licence in that Behalf, it shall be lawful to grant such Licence for the Remainder of the current Year ending on the Fifth Day of April next after the granting of such Licence, upon Payment of the full annual Duty by this Act imposed on such Licence, or a proportionate Part only of such Duty, according to the Directions herein-after given in such Case; (that is to say,) if such Licence shall be taken out at any Time within the Quarter of a Year ending on the Fifth Day of July in any Year, the same shall be granted upon Payment of the whole of the said annual Duty; and if such Licence shall be taken out at any Time within the Quarter ending on the Tenth Day of October in any Year, the same shall be granted upon Payment of Three Fourth Parts only of the said annual Duty; and if such Licence shall be taken out at any Time within the Quarter ending on the Fifth Day of January in any Year, the same shall be granted upon Payment of One Half only of the said annual Duty; and if such Licence shall be taken out at any Time within the Quarter ending on the Fifth Day of April in any Year, the same shall be granted upon Payment of One Fourth Part only of the said annual Duty.

Persons before Licence shall not be entitled to take out Licence on Payment of less than the annual Duty unless former Licence expired One Year previously.

XII. Provided always, That no Person who shall at any Time have taken out, either under this or any former Act, a Licence to let Horses for Hire, and who shall after the Expiration of such Licence apply for a new Licence to let Horses for Hire under this Act, either on the same or on other or different Premises from those on which he before carried on the Business of letting Horses for Hire, shall be deemed to be a Person beginning to exercise the said Business within the Meaning of this Act so as to entitle him to take out such Licence upon Payment of a proportionate Part only of the annual Duty by this Act thereon imposed, but every such Person shall pay the whole of such annual Duty, unless the Period between the Expiration of the former Licence and the taking out of the new Licence shall be at least a Period of One Year.

Persons desirous of keeping to let for Hire a greater Number of Horses or Carriages than specified in Licence may take out a supplemental Licence.

XIII. Provided always, That if any Person to whom any Licence to let Horses for Hire shall have been granted under this Act shall be desirous during the Existence of such Licence of keeping to let for Hire any greater Number of Horses or Carriages than such Licence shall authorize him to keep for that Purpose, it shall be lawful for him to apply for and require to be granted to him a supplemental Licence to authorize him to keep and let for Hire such additional Number of Horses or Carriages, or both, as shall be specified in the Requisition to be signed by him in that Behalf, and such supplemental Licence shall be granted accordingly on Payment of such Sum for the Duty thereon thereon as would be payable by a Person then beginning the Business of letting Horses for Hire for a Licence to keep and let for Hire the Number of Horses and Carriages respectively specified in such supplemental Licence for the Remainder of the current Year ending on the Fifth Day of April next following.

XIV. Before any such Licence as aforesaid shall be granted to any Person, and before any Person shall let any Horse for Hire for any of the Purposes mentioned in this Act, such Person shall make a true and particular Entry in Writing signed by him of every Stable, Coach-house, Shed, or other Building in which he shall keep or intend to keep any Horse or Carriage to be let for Hire, and shall deliver such Entry to the proper Officer of Excise, and in default thereof such Person shall forfeit for every unentered Stable, Coach-house, Shed, or other Building in which he shall keep any Horse or Carriage to be let for Hire, or any Horse or Carriage which he shall let for Hire, the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Persons intending to let Horses for Hire to make Entry of their Stables and Coach-houses.

XV. If any Person shall let any Horse for Hire, to be used for any of the Purposes in this Act mentioned, without having obtained a proper Licence in that Behalf, or if any Person shall at any One Time keep to be let for Hire a greater Number of Horses or Carriages than he shall by such Licence be authorized to keep at One Time to be let for Hire, such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Penalty for letting Horses for Hire without Licence, &c.

XVI. From and after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Person, other than the Solicitor or some other Officer of Inland Revenue, to inform or prosecute before any Justice of the Peace for the Recovery of any Penalty imposed by or incurred under any Act or Acts now in force or this Act, with relation to Horses let for Hire or the Duties thereon.

None but Officers of Inland Revenue to prosecute before Justices for Penalties.

C A P. LXXXIX.

An Act to regulate the Admission of Professors to the Lay Chairs in the Universities of Scotland.

[20th August 1853.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. From and after the passing of this Act it shall not be necessary for any Person who shall have been or shall be elected, presented, or provided to the Office of Professor, Regent, Master, or other Office in any of the Universities or Colleges in Scotland, such Office not being that of Principal or a Chair of Theology, to make and subscribe the Acknowledgment or Declaration mentioned in an Act passed in the Fourth Session of the First Parliament held in Scotland by Her Majesty Queen Anne, intituled Act for securing the Protestant Religion and Presbyterian Church Government.

Professors, &c. not required to subscribe Confession of Faith.

II. Every Person hereafter to be elected, presented, or provided to any such Office shall make and subscribe, in Presence of the Senatus Professors, &c. to make Declaration previous to Admission.

Senatus Academicus of such University or College, the Declaration following :

‘ I A.B. do solemnly and sincerely, in the Presence of God, profess, testify, and declare, That as Professor of _____, and in the Discharge of the said Office, I will never endeavour, directly or indirectly, to teach or inculcate any Opinions opposed to the Divine Authority of the Holy Scriptures, or to the Westminster Confession of Faith as ratified by Law in the Year One thousand six hundred and ninety, and that I will not exercise the Functions of the said Office to the Prejudice or Subversion of the Church of Scotland as by Law established, or the Doctrines and Privileges thereof.’

Declaration to be registered.

And such Declaration shall be recorded by the Senatus Academicus of the University or College in which the Office is held, before any such Person shall enter on the Functions of such Office.

Professor sued for Noncompliance with Act may offer, in Defence, to take Declaration.

III. If any Action or Proceeding at Law shall be raised against any Professor who at the Date of the passing of this Act shall be in the Exercise of the Functions of, or has been elected, presented, or provided to, any such Office, on the Ground that such Professor had not complied with the Provisions of the said Act, it shall be a sufficient and conclusive Defence or Answer to such Action or Proceeding that such Professor is prepared to make and subscribe the Declaration above provided.

On Failure to make Declaration the Lord Advocate to apply to the Court of Session.

IV. In case any Person shall enter on the Functions of any such Office without having made such Declaration, or in case any Person shall enter on or continue to exercise the Functions of any Chair of Theology without having complied with the Provisions of the said Act, it shall be competent to the Lord Advocate, upon Information to that Effect lodged with him, to present a Petition and Complaint to the Court of Session in either of the Divisions thereof, whereupon the said Court, after such Notice to the Party complained against as the Court shall deem adequate, shall inquire into the Matter of such Complaint in such Manner as they shall think fit; and if it shall be found that such Complaint is well founded, the said Court shall interdict such Professor or other Officer from exercising the Functions of such Office unless the Provisions of this Act or the said Act (as the Case may be) shall be forthwith complied with, and do otherwise therein as to the said Court shall seem just; and if such Person fails to comply with such Provisions within Two Months after such Interdict shall be granted, he shall ipso facto lose and amit all Right to such Office or Chair (as the Case may be) without any legal Proceeding.

Lord Advocate may present Complaint against Professor violating Declaration, &c.

V. It shall be competent to the Lord Advocate, in the event of Information being laid before him charging any Professor with having wilfully violated the Declaration provided by this Act, and after due Inquiry, to present a Complaint against any such Professor to Her Majesty, and it shall be lawful to Her Majesty in Council thereupon to issue a Commission to inquire into the said Charge, and on the Report of such Commission to censure, suspend, or deprive such Professor, as may seem just.

As to the Expression “Chair of Theology.”

VI. The Words “Chair of Theology” shall for the Purposes of this Act mean the Chairs of Divinity, Church History, of Biblical Criticism, and Hebrew, in any of the said Universities or Colleges, Colleges, and the Office of Principal in the same, excepting that of Marischal College, Aberdeen, or the United College of Saint Leonard's and Saint Salvator's, Saint Andrew's.

VII. The said Act, and all other Laws, Statutes, and Usages now in force, respecting Admission to the Lay or Secular Chairs and Offices in such Universities and Colleges, shall be and the same are hereby repealed in so far as inconsistent with this Act, but the same shall remain in full Force and Effect in all other respects whatsoever: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall alter or affect the relative Rights of any Patron or Patrons, or any Senatus Academicus in such Universities or Colleges, excepting as herein-before provided.

All Laws and Statutes, so far as inconsistent with this Act, repealed.

C A P. XC.

An Act to repeal certain Duties of Assessed Taxes, and to grant other Duties of the same Description; and to amend the Laws relating to the Application of the Monies arising from the Redemption and Purchase of the Land Tax.

[20th August 1853.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the several Duties of Assessed Taxes herein-after described or mentioned, and to grant other Duties of the like Description in lieu thereof: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. From and after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four in England, Wales, and Berwick-upon-Tweed, and from and after the Twenty-fourth Day of May in the same Year in Scotland, the several Duties of Assessed Taxes now payable in Great Britain under or by virtue of any Act or Acts now in force, for or in respect of Male Servants, Carriages, Horses, Mules, Dogs, Hair Powder, and Armorial Bearings or Emblems respectively, and also all the Provisions, Rules, and Regulations relating to such Duties contained in the several Schedules marked respectively (C.), (D.), (E.), (F.), (G.), (L), (K.), and (M.), annexed to an Act passed in the Forty-eighth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, Chapter Fifty-five, and the several Schedules marked respectively (C.), (D.), (E), (F.), (G.), and (M.), annexed to an Act passed in the Fifty-second Year of the said King's Reign, Chapter Ninety-three, shall respectively cease and determine, and shall be and the same are hereby repealed, save and except as to all Arrears of the said Duties, or any of them, and as to all Assessments thereof made or which ought to be made for any Year prior to the Year commencing from and after the respective Times aforesaid, and as to any Penalties incurred in relation to the said Duties or any of them, all which said Arrears, Duties, Assessments, and Penalties shall and may respectively be recovered, levied, and applied in the same Manner as if this Act had not been passed.

From and after 5th April 1854 in England, &c., and 24th May 1854 in Scotland, certain Duties of Assessed Taxes repealed.

II. In lieu of the Duties so repealed by this Act, there shall be assessed, raised, levied, and paid unto and for the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in and throughout Great Britain,

Duties of Assessed Taxes granted in lieu of Duties repealed.

Britain, for or in respect of Male Servants, Carriages, Horses, Mules, Dogs, Hair Powder, and Armorial Bearings or Ensigns respectively, the several Duties of Assessed Taxes described or mentioned and set forth in the several Schedules to this Act annexed marked respectively (C.), (D.), (E.), (G.), (I.), and (K.), subject only to the Exemptions contained in the said Schedules respectively, and in the Schedule marked (M.) also annexed to this Act, which said several Schedules, and the Duties therein set forth, and the Rules, Regulations, and Exemptions therein contained in relation to the said Duties, shall be deemed and construed to be a Part of this Act, and as if the same were incorporated therewith under a special Enactment.

Duties to be under the Management of Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and to be assessed under the Provisions of the Acts relating to Assessed Taxes.

III. The Duties granted by this Act shall be under the Direction and Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and shall be assessed, raised, levied, paid, and accounted for under the Regulations and Provisions of the several Acts in force in relation to the Duties of Assessed Taxes; and all Powers, Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Directions, Penalties, Clauses, Matters, and Things contained in or enacted by the said Acts respectively, and not expressly repealed by this Act, shall, in all Cases not expressly provided for by this Act or the several Schedules hereto annexed, and so far as the same are not superseded by and are consistent with the express Provisions of this Act and of the said Schedules, be duly observed, applied, practised, and put in execution for assessing, raising, levying, collecting, receiving, accounting for, and securing the said Duties hereby granted, and otherwise relating thereto, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Powers, Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Directions, Penalties, Clauses, Matters, and Things were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act with reference to the said Duties hereby granted.

No Exemption, except those contained in this Act, to be allowed.

IV. Provided, That no Exemption from the Duties granted by this Act, except such Exemptions as are expressly contained in and given by this Act or the respective Schedules hereto annexed, shall be granted or allowed; and every Exemption given by this Act or the said respective Schedules shall be duly returned, together with a Declaration of the Cause thereof, by the Person claiming the same, in the Manner directed by the Thirty-sixth Section of the Act passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and sixty-one, or in default thereof such Exemption shall not be allowed.

Persons keeping or using Articles exempted under existing Acts not liable to be assessed under this Act on ceasing to keep or use such Articles before a certain Period.

V. Provided, That no Person retaining or employing any Servant, or keeping or using any Carriage, or any Horse or Mule, after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in respect of which Servant, Carriage, Horse, or Mule Exemption from the Duties of Assessed Taxes is granted by any Act in force immediately before the passing of this Act, shall be liable to be assessed or charged with the Duties granted by this Act in respect of such Servant, Carriage, Horse, or Mule for the Year commencing from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, provided such Person shall not retain or employ such Servant, or keep or use such Carriage, Horse, or Mule, at any Time after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three in England, Wales, or Berwick.

Berwick-upon-Tweed, or after the Twenty-second Day of November in the same Year in Scotland.

VI. Nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed or construed to annul or affect any Contract of Composition for the Duties of Assessed Taxes made under the Provisions of the Acts in that Behalf, and which shall be in force at the Time of the passing of this Act, but every such Contract shall continue in force until the Expiration of the Term for which the same was made, as if this Act had not been passed: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any Person who has entered into Composition for the said Duties by any such Contract as aforesaid, if he shall think fit, to determine the same on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, by giving Notice in Writing, signed by him, of his Intention so to determine such Contract, to the Surveyor of Taxes for the District in which he shall reside, on or before the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three; and if such Person shall at the same Time and in the like Manner give Notice to the said Surveyor of his Intention to discontinue the Use of any increased Establishment, or any Part thereof, not included in such Composition, and shall actually cease to keep the same One Calendar Month before the said Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, he shall not be chargeable in the Assessment of the said Duties for the Year commencing from the said last-mentioned Day for such increased Portion of his Establishment respecting which he shall have given such Notice of his Intention to discontinue, and which he shall actually have discontinued as aforesaid.

VII. In construing this Act and the Schedules hereto annexed respectively the Term "Horse" shall be construed and deemed to mean and include a Mare or Gelding as well as a Horse.

VIII. From and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt from Time to Time to lay out the Monies arising from the Redemption or Purchase of the Land Tax under any Act or Acts in force in that Behalf in the Purchase and cancelling of any Parliamentary Stocks or Annuities chargeable upon and payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

This Act not to annul Contracts of Composition, but Persons who have compounded may determine such Contracts on giving Notice.

"Horse" to include Mare or Gelding.

Monies arising from Land Tax Redemption how to be applied.

SCHEDULES to which this Act refers.

C A P. XCI.

An Act to extend for a limited Time the Provisions for Abatement of Income Tax in respect of Insurances on Lives.
[20th August 1853.]

WHEREAS by the Act of the present Session (Chapter Thirty-four), "for granting to Her Majesty Duties on Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades, and Offices," (Section Fifty-four), Provision is made for Deduction, Abatement, Allowance, or Repayment in favour of any Person (assessed or charged with the Duties therein mentioned) who should have made Insurance on his Life, or on the Life of his Wife, or should have contracted for any Deferred Annuity on his own Life, or on the Life of his Wife, in or with any Insurance Company which should become registered under any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament for that Purpose, and which should comply with the Requirements of such Act (in respect of the annual Premiums paid by him for such Insurance or Contract): And whereas (as it may happen that an Act for the Registration of Insurance Companies may not be passed in the present Session of Parliament) it is expedient that the Benefit of the recited Provision should for a limited Time be extended to Persons insuring or contracting with such Insurance Offices as herein-after mentioned: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. Any Person who shall have made any such Insurance or contracted for any such Deferred Annuity as in the said Provision mentioned, in or with any Insurance Company existing on the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and forty-four, or in or with any Insurance Company registered pursuant to the Act of the Session holden in the Seventh and Eighth Years of Her Majesty (Chapter One hundred and ten), "for the Registration, Incorporation, and Regulation of Joint Stock Companies," shall be entitled to all the Benefits and Advantages which by the said Provision are expressed to be given in respect of the like Insurance or Contract in or with any Insurance Company which shall become registered under any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament for that Purpose.

II. This Act shall continue in force until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

An Act to diminish the Number of Sheriffs in Scotland, and to unite certain Counties in Scotland in so far as regards the Jurisdiction of the Sheriff. [20th August 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient that the Number of Sheriffs in Scotland should be diminished, and that Provision should be made for uniting certain Counties in so far as regards the ‘ Jurisdiction of the Sheriff:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Counties specified in Schedule to be united, and Provision for Discharge of the Functions of Sheriff of the united Counties.

I. Whenever a Vacancy shall occur in the Office of Sheriff of any Counties or County specified in the Schedule hereunto annexed, such Counties or County and the other Counties or County named and included therewith in the said Schedule shall be united into One Sheriffdom, under the Title specified in the said Schedule, and the Functions of the Sheriff of the Counties or County in which the Vacancy shall occur shall thereupon devolve on and be discharged by the Sheriff of such other Counties or County so included therewith; and such Sheriff shall thereafter be and be denominated the Sheriff of the said united Counties and Sheriffdom, without the Necessity of any new Commission being issued in his Favour, and shall have and exercise all the Jurisdiction, Powers, Privileges, and Authority competent to the Sheriffs of the said Counties respectively.

County of Peebles to be united with County of Mid-Lothian.

II. Whenever a Vacancy shall occur in the Office of Sheriff of the County of Peebles the said County shall be united with the County of Mid-Lothian into One Sheriffdom, to be called the Sheriffdom of Mid-Lothian and Peebles, and the Functions of the Sheriff of the said County of Peebles shall thereupon devolve on and be discharged by the Sheriff of Mid-Lothian, who shall be and shall be denominated the Sheriff of Mid-Lothian and Peebles, without the Necessity of any new Commission being issued in his Favour, in like Manner and to the like Effect as is herein-before provided.

No separate Appointments to Office of Sheriff of Peebles, &c.

III. No separate Appointment shall hereafter be made to the Office of Sheriff of the said County of Peebles, or of any of the Counties specified in the said Schedule, but Appointment shall only be made to the Office of Sheriff of such united Counties or Sheriffdoms as Vacancies shall occur after such Union as aforesaid.

Saving Rights, &c. of Counties.

IV. Provided always, That, excepting as regards the Person by whom the Office of Sheriff shall be held and discharged, nothing herein contained shall affect or alter in any way the Rights, Privileges, or Liabilities of the said Counties respectively.

Sheriffs of united Counties not to have additional Salary.

V. Provided also, That nothing herein contained shall give any Right to the Sheriff of any such united Counties to any additional Salary beyond that enjoyed by him as Sheriff of any Counties or County prior to any Vacancy occurring as aforesaid.

SCHEDULE referred to in the foregoing Act.

An Act to enable Burghs in Scotland to maintain and improve their Harbours. [20th August 1853.]

WHEREAS the Harbour and other Dues leviable at the Harbours belonging to many of the Royal Burghs in Scotland have, by reason of the Change of the Value of Money and other Causes, become inadequate for the Maintenance of such Harbours, and it is expedient that further Provision should be made for the Extension, Improvement, and Regulation of such Harbours, and for the Increase of the Rates and Duties leviable thereat: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. This Act may be adopted and applied in manner hereinafter provided in any Royal Burgh in Scotland possessing a Harbour which at the Time of passing this Act is not under the Regulation of any Local Act of Parliament.

Act how to be adopted and applied.

II. The following Words and Expressions in this Act shall have the several Meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction; that is to say:

Interpretation of Terms.

The Word "Burgh" shall mean any Royal Burgh in Scotland possessing a Harbour which is not under the Regulations of any Local Act of Parliament:

The Word "Harbour" shall mean the Harbour of any such Burgh, and shall extend to and include the whole Limits assigned to such Harbour by the Charter of such Burgh, or by any Law, Statute, or Usage, and all Docks, Piers, Quays, Yards, Works, Buildings, Creeks, and Anchorages within such Limits:

The Expression "Town Council" shall mean the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors, or the Magistrates and Councillors, as the Case may be, of any such Burgh for the Time being:

The Words "Treasurer" and "Town Clerk" shall mean the Treasurer and Town Clerk respectively of any such Burgh for the Time being:

The Expression "Board of Trade" shall mean the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council for Trade and Foreign Plantations:

The Expression "Improvement" shall mean deepening, lighting, buoys, or any other Work approved by the Lords of the Admiralty.

Short Title.

III. In citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament, and in legal Instruments, Deeds, and Proceedings, it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Burgh Harbours (Scotland) Act, 1853."

8 & 9 Vict. c. 19.
incorporated with this Act.

IV. In so far as not inconsistent with or not otherwise provided or not altered and varied by this Act, "The Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845," shall be incorporated with and form Part of this Act: Provided always, that nothing in the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, or in this Act, contained shall authorize any Town Council to purchase or take Lands for the Purposes of this Act otherwise than by Agreement.

may resolve that this Act shall be adopted,

VII. It shall be lawful for the Town Council of any Burgh, by a Majority of the Members of the Council who are present at a Meeting specially called for that Purpose, to resolve that this Act shall shall be adopted in and applied to the Burgh, and to appoint a Day, not earlier than the Third and not later than the Thirtieth lawful Day after the Completion of the then next ensuing annual Election of Councillors for the Burgh, for holding a Second Special Meeting of the Town Council to resume Consideration of such Resolution; and a Copy of the Minute of the Town Council, containing such Resolution and Appointment, shall be inserted once in each Newspaper published in the Burgh One Month at least before such next annual Election; and if there be no Newspaper published therein a Copy of such Minute shall be delivered or transmitted through the Post Office to each Municipal Elector of the Burgh, and to the Sheriff Clerk and Clerk of the Peace of the County within which such Burgh is situated, and shall be inserted once in a Newspaper published in such County, or in an adjoining County, One Month at least before such next annual Election.

VIII. It shall be lawful for the Town Council, at such Second Special Meeting, or at any adjourned Special Meeting (of which adjourned Meeting Four Days Notice in Writing shall be given to each Member of the Council), on resuming Consideration of such Resolution, either to approve or disapprove of the same; and if such Resolution shall be approved of by a Majority of Two Thirds at least of the Members of the Council who are present at such Second Special Meeting or at such adjourned Meeting, this Act shall thereupon be held as adopted in the Burgh; and a Copy of the Minute of the Meeting at which such Resolution shall be so approved of shall, within Fourteen Days thereafter, or within Fourteen Days after the Dismissal of the Appeal against the said Resolution, herein-after provided for, be registered in the Sheriff Court Books of the County in which the Burgh is situated, and another Copy of the said Minute shall be within the like Period of Fourteen Days transmitted to the Office of the Secretary to the Admiralty; and the Provisions of this Act shall be in force in respect to the Burgh and the Harbour thereof from and after such Registration and Transmission, the Date of which or of the last of which shall be held as the Date of the Adoption of this Act.

IX. It shall be lawful for any Five or more Municipal Electors, Shipowners, or Traders within such Burgh, or for any Ten or more registered Electors of the County within which such Burgh is situated, who may be dissatisfied with the said Second Resolution of the Town Council resolving that this Act shall be adopted in and applied to the Burgh, to appeal to the Board of Trade against the said Resolution; and the Board of Trade shall, as soon as conveniently may be, after making such Investigation as to the Board shall seem fit, determine whether this Act shall be adopted in and applied to the said Burgh or not; provided that Notice of said Appeal, signed by the said Appellants, shall be lodged with the Town Clerk of said Burgh within Seven Days after the Resolution of the said Town Council.

X. 'And whereas in certain Cases it may be expedient that this Act should be adopted at an earlier Period in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three than would be competent under the Provisions herein-before contained.' Be it enacted, That in case the Town Council of any Burgh shall think it expedient that this Act should be adopted at an earlier Period than and cause such Resolution to be published.

If Resolution approved of, this Act to be adopted, and Minute to be registered in Sheriff Court Books.

Appeal to the Board of Trade.

The Act may be adopted earlier than before provided in certain Cases.

the annual Election of Councillors in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, it shall be lawful for such Town Council to resolve accordingly, by a Majority of at least Two Thirds of the Members present at a Special Meeting called for the Purpose; and the Council shall thereupon convene a Public Meeting of the Municipal Electors of the Burgh, by public Advertisement on Fourteen Days Notice, to consider such Resolution; and in case such Resolution of the Town Council shall be approved of by a Majority of the Municipal Electors present at such Public Meeting, the said Resolution shall have the like Force and Effect as if the same had been approved of by a Second Meeting of Council held after the annual Election in manner herein-before provided.

If Act not adopted, Two Years to elapse before Consideration again had.

XI. If at such Second Special Meeting or adjourned Meeting of Council, or at such Public Meeting of Municipal Electors, the Resolution to adopt this Act shall not be approved of, the Town Council may, after the Expiration of Two Years from the Date of such First Special Meeting, but not sooner, by such and the like Meetings, Notices, and Proceedings as are herein-before mentioned, again take this Act into consideration, and adopt or determine not to adopt the same, and so on from Time to Time thereafter.

Schedule of Rates to be prepared and published.

XII. The Town Council shall, within One Month after the Date of the Adoption of this Act, prepare a Schedule of the Rates (not exceeding the Rates specified in the Schedule (A.) hereunto annexed) which they may think reasonable and proper to be levied at the Harbour of the Burgh, in lieu of the Rates or Dues then leviable thereat, and shall insert the said Schedule once in each Newspaper published in the Burgh, and, if there be no Newspaper published therein, once in each of Two successive Weeks in a Newspaper published in the County in which the Burgh is situated, or in an adjoining County, and shall also cause a printed Copy of such Schedule to be delivered or transmitted to each Municipal Elector of the Burgh, and to the Sheriff Clerk and Clerk of the Peace of the County within which such Burgh is situated; and it shall be competent to any Municipal Elector, or to any Ship-owner or Trader within the Burgh, or to any registered Elector or Landowner in the County in which the Burgh is situated, or in any adjoining County, who may be dissatisfied with such Schedule, to lodge Objections thereto in Writing with the Town Clerk within Fourteen Days after the First Insertion of such Schedule in any Newspaper as aforesaid, or within Fourteen Days of the Transmission of a printed Copy of the said Schedule to the Sheriff Clerk and Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid; and the Town Council shall, on resuming Consideration of such Schedule, and of any Objections thereto which may have been lodged with the Town Clerk, dispose of such Objections (if any), and adjust such Schedule, as to them shall seem expedient.

A Copy of the Schedule and a Statement as to the Harbour to be sent to the Admiralty and the Board of Trade.

XIII. A Copy of such adjusted Schedule, certified by the Town Clerk, with Copies of any Objections thereto which may have been lodged as aforesaid, and a Statement signed by the Provost or Acting Chief Magistrate of the Burgh, showing the State of the Harbour, the existing Rates or Dues leviable thereat, the average Revenue of the Harbour for the Three Years preceding the Adoption of this Act, and the probable or estimated Amount of the Rates proposed to be levied under such Schedule, shall, within Fourteen Days after such Schedule has been adjusted as aforesaid, be transmitted by such Provost or Acting Chief Magistrate to the Lords of the Admiralty and to the Board of Trade respectively.

XIV. The Board of Trade shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the Receipt of such Schedule and Statement, take the same into consideration, and make such Inquiries and obtain such further Information in reference to the several Matters therein set forth as they may deem expedient, and shall either approve or disapprove of such Schedule, or modify the same in such Manner and in such Particulars as in the special Circumstances of each Case they shall think fit, and shall finally adjust such Schedule, and certify the same under the Hand of One of their Secretaries or Assistant Secretaries as containing the maximum Rates to be levied at the Harbour of the Burgh in which this Act has been adopted as aforesaid, and from and after the Date of such Certificate it shall be lawful for the Town Council to demand and take any Sums not exceeding the Rates specified in such Schedule: Provided always, that the Rates in such Schedule shall not in any Case exceed the Rates specified in the Schedule (A.) hereunto annexed.

Board of Trade to consider and finally adjust the Schedule.

XV. From and after the Adoption of this Act in any Burgh, all exclusive Rights or Privileges possessed or claimed by the Freemen or Burgesses of such Burgh, of Exemption from Payment of Harbour Rates or Dues, or of paying a lower Rate of Harbour Dues than Persons not Freemen or Burgesses, shall cease and determine, and the Rates by this Act authorized to be levied shall be at all Times charged equally to all Persons in respect of the same Description of Vessel and the same Description of Goods.

Exclusive Privileges of Burgesses abolished, and Rates to be charged equally.

XVI. The annual Account in Abstract required by the said Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act to be prepared and sent to the Sheriff Clerk shall be made up for the Year ending on the Fifteenth Day of October, and in addition to such annual Account in Abstract the Town Council shall annually cause a Statement to be prepared showing the Total Revenue of the Harbour for the Year ending on the said Fifteenth Day of October; and shall on or before the Expiration of One Month from that Day transmit such annual Account in Abstract, and such Statement, duly audited and certified by the Town Clerk, to the Sheriff Clerk of the County in which the Burgh is situated; and along with the First Statement so transmitted the Town Council shall also send a Copy, certified by the Town Clerk, of the Statement of the average Revenue of the Harbour for the Three Years preceding the Adoption of this Act, transmitted to the Lords of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade, as herein-before directed; and such Statements and certified Copies of Statements shall be open to the Inspection of the Public at all reasonable Hours, on Payment of the Sum of One Shilling for every such Inspection; and if the Town Council omit to prepare and send such Annual Accounts or Statements, or certified Copies of Statements, as aforesaid, they shall for every such Omission forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Accounts and Statement of the Revenue of the Harbour to be sent to the Sheriff Clerk annually.

Increase of Revenue to be applied in extending and improving the Harbour.

XVII. From and after the Adoption of this Act in any Burgh, the whole future Revenue of the Harbour shall be applied and expended by the Town Council in the Maintenance, Improvement, and Extension of the Harbour, and in no other Way and for no other Purpose whatsoever: Provided always, that a Sum equal to the average annual Revenue of the Harbour for the Three Years preceding the Adoption of this Act shall be applicable and may be applied in Payment of the Principal and Interest of the existing Debt, if any, incurred in the Maintenance, Improvement, and Extension of the said Harbour prior to the passing of this Act, and after the same shall have been extinguished and paid off then the whole Sums raised in virtue of this Act shall be applied and expended by the Town Council in the Maintenance, Improvement, and Extension of the said Harbour, and in no other Way and for no other Purpose whatever.

Town Council may borrow Money on the Security of the Rates.

XVIII. It shall be lawful for the Town Council from Time to Time to borrow, for the Purposes of extending or improving the Harbour, such Sum or Sums as they shall deem expedient, or to accept and take from any Bank or Banking Company Credit to such Amount as they shall deem expedient on a Cash Account, to be opened and kept with such Bank or Banking Company in the Name of the Town Council, according to the Usage of Bankers in Scotland, and to assign the Rates by this Act authorized to be levied in security of the Repayment of the Sum so borrowed, or of the Amount of such Credit, or of the Sums advanced from Time to Time on such Cash Account, with Interest thereon respectively: Provided always, that Intimation shall be given by the Town Council of their Intention to borrow Money or to take a Cash Credit, by the Insertion of a Notice to that Effect, and stating the Sum proposed to be borrowed, or the Amount of the Credit proposed to be taken, once in a Newspaper published in the Burgh, or if there be no Newspaper published therein, once in a Newspaper published in the County in which the Burgh is situated, or in an adjoining County, One Month at least before the Meeting of the Town Council at which it is intended to authorize the borrowing of such Sum or the taking of such Cash Credit: Provided also, that the Resolution to borrow any Sum of Money or to take any Cash Credit shall be approved of by at least Two Thirds of the Members of the Council who are present at such Meeting; and that the whole Sums so borrowed or advanced shall be applied and expended in the Extension and Improvement of the Harbour, and in no other Way and for no other Purpose whatsoever.

Bonds and Assignations may be granted for Sums borrowed or advanced.

XIX. The Bonds and Assignations to be granted for securing the Repayment of the Sums to be borrowed or advanced as aforesaid shall be in the Form of the Schedule (B.) hereunto annexed, or as near as may be, and shall be signed by the Provost or acting Chief Magistrate of the Burgh, and by the Treasurer and Town Clerk at an open Meeting of the Town Council, and Two of the Councillors present shall sign as Witnesses thereto: and such Bonds and Assignations shall be recorded in the Minute Books of the Town Council, and a Certificate of such Registration shall be indorsed on such Bonds and Assignations, and signed by the Town Clerk; and in case of Competition such Bonds and Assignations

An Act to extend the Benefits of the Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her present Majesty, for the Amendment of the Law of Entail in Scotland.

[20th August 1853.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the Amendment of 11 & 12 Vict.
the Law of Entail in Scotland, the Provisions of which Act c. 36.
have been found to be highly beneficial, and it is expedient to extend the Benefits and to facilitate the Operation of the said Act, and still further to simplify the Procedure under the same: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

* [If it shall appear at the Trial that no sufficient Poinding can be made within the Jurisdiction of the Magistrate, say here, "and in respect it appears that no sufficient Poinding and Sale can be had whereon to levy the said as may be required for the Extension and Improvement thereof, and by themselves, or their Officers and Servants or others employed by them, to extend, enlarge, and improve the Harbour, to repair, deepen, and cleanse the same, and to make and maintain additional Piers, Quays, and Docks, and all other Works and Buildings connected therewith which may be necessary for the Reception and Accommodation of Ships and Vessels resorting to the Harbour, and for the Protection and Storage of Goods, and to make, widen, and maintain all necessary Roads and Accesses to the Harbour and Works.

Plans and Working Drawings of the Works to be deposited at the Admiralty Office for Approval.

XXIV. Previous to extending or improving the Harbour or constructing any Works connected therewith, the Town Council shall deposit at the Admiralty Office, Whitehall, Plans and Working Drawings of the Harbour and the proposed Works connected therewith, for the Approval of the Lords of the Admiralty; and notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, the Harbour and Works connected therewith shall be extended and improved only according to such Plan as shall be previously approved of by the Lords of the Admiralty, such Approval to be signified in Writing under the Hand of the Secretary of the Admiralty; and if any Works shall be commenced or completed contrary to the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Lords of the Admiralty to abate and remove the same, and to restore the Site thereof to its former Condition, at the Cost and Charge of the Town Council, and the Amount thereof shall be a Debt due to the Crown, and be recoverable accordingly.

Forms of Proceedings against Offenders.

XXV. The Complaint and Proceedings before the Sheriff or Justice or Justices before whom any Person shall be complained of or proceeded against, for any Offence under the Provisions of this Act, or the Acts incorporated herewith, may be raised and prosecuted at the Instance of the Procurator Fiscal of the Burgh, or of the Collector of the Harbour Rates, or of any other Officer or Person thereto authorized by any General or Special Order of the Town Council; and such Complaint and Proceedings, and the Sentence or Conviction thereon, may be in the Form of the Schedule (D.) hereunto annexed, or as near as may be; and, except that such Complaint, and the Sentence to be pronounced in relation thereto, shall be in Writing, no other Writing or written Record of Evidence or Procedure shall be necessary, unless the Sheriff or Justice or Justices at the Hearing of the Complaint shall cause or allow the Procedure or Evidence to be taken down in Writing.

Transient Offenders may be apprehended and taken before the Sheriff or a Justice of the Peace.

XXVI. It shall be lawful for the Officers or Persons appointed and acting under the Authority of this Act to seize and detain any transient Persons unknown to them who shall commit any Offence against the Provisions of this Act or the Acts incorporated herewith, and to convey such Persons before the Sheriff or any Justice without any other Warrant than this Act for so doing, and such Sheriff and Justice respectively are hereby empowered to proceed with all convenient Despatch, and without the Necessity of serving a Copy of the Complaint, to the summary hearing and determining of the same.

Saving the Rights of the Crown.

XXVII. Nothing contained in this Act or in the Acts incorporated herewith, shall extend to authorize any Town Council to purchase, purchase, take, or use any Land or Soil, or any Rights in respect thereof, belonging to Her Majesty in right of Her Crown, without the Consent in Writing of the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or any One of them, first had and obtained for that Purpose, and which such Commissioners, or any One of them, are hereby authorized and empowered to give ; or to prejudice, diminish, alter, or take away any of the Rights, Privileges, Powers, or Authorities vested in or enjoyed by Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors.

Exclusive Privileges of Burgesses abolished, and Rates to be charged equally.

XVI. The annual Account in Abstract required by the said Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act to be prepared and sent to the Sheriff Clerk shall be made up for the Year ending on the Fifteenth Day of October, and in addition to such annual Account in Abstract the Town Council shall annually cause a Statement to be prepared showing the Total Revenue of the Harbour for the Year ending on the said Fifteenth Day of October; and shall on or before the Expiration of One Month from that Day transmit such annual Account in Abstract, and such Statement, duly audited and certified by the Town Clerk, to the Sheriff Clerk of the County in which the Burgh is situated; and along with the First Statement so transmitted the Town Council shall also send a Copy, certified by the Town Clerk, of the Statement of the average Revenue of the Harbour for the Three Years preceding the Adoption of this Act, transmitted to the Lords of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade, as herein-before directed; and such Statements and certified Copies of Statements shall be open to the Inspection of the Public at all reasonable Hours, on Payment of the Sum of One Shilling for every such Inspection; and if the Town Council omit to prepare and send such Annual Accounts or Statements, or certified Copies of Statements, as aforesaid, they shall for every such Omission forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Accounts and Statement of the Revenue of the Harbour to be sent to the Sheriff Clerk annually.

Increase of Revenue to be applied in extending and improving the Harbour.

XVII. From and after the Adoption of this Act in any Burgh, the whole future Revenue of the Harbour shall be applied and expended by the Town Council in the Maintenance, Improvement, and Extension of the Harbour, and in no other Way and for no other Purpose whatsoever: Provided always, that a Sum equal to the average annual Revenue of the Harbour for the Three Years preceding the Adoption of this Act shall be applicable and may be applied in Payment of the Principal and Interest of the existing Debt, if any, incurred in the Maintenance, Improvement, and Extension of the said Harbour prior to the passing of this Act, and after the same shall have been extinguished and paid off then the whole Sums raised in virtue of this Act shall be applied and expended by the Town Council in the Maintenance, Improvement, and Extension of the said Harbour, and in no other Way and for no other Purpose whatever.

Town Council may borrow Money on the Security of the Rates.

XVIII. It shall be lawful for the Town Council from Time to Time to borrow, for the Purposes of extending or improving the Harbour, such Sum or Sums as they shall deem expedient, or to accept and take from any Bank or Banking Company Credit to such Amount as they shall deem expedient on a Cash Account, to be opened and kept with such Bank or Banking Company in the Name of the Town Council, according to the Usage of Bankers in Scotland, and to assign the Rates by this Act authorized to be levied in security of the Repayment of the Sum so borrowed, or of the Amount of such Credit, or of the Sums advanced from Time to Time on such Cash Account, with Interest thereon respectively: Provided always, that Intimation shall be given by the Town Council of their Intention to borrow Money or to take a Cash Credit, by the Insertion of a Notice to that Effect, and stating the Sum proposed to be borrowed, or the Amount of the Credit proposed to be taken, once in a Newspaper published in the Burgh, or if there be no Newspaper published therein, once in a Newspaper published in the County in which the Burgh is situated, or in an adjoining County, One Month at least before the Meeting of the Town Council at which it is intended to authorize the borrowing of such Sum or the taking of such Cash Credit: Provided also, that the Resolution to borrow any Sum of Money or to take any Cash Credit shall be approved of by at least Two Thirds of the Members of the Council who are present at such Meeting; and that the whole Sums so borrowed or advanced shall be applied and expended in the Extension and Improvement of the Harbour, and in no other Way and for no other Purpose whatsoever.

Bonds and Assignations may be granted for Sums borrowed or advanced.

XIX. The Bonds and Assignations to be granted for securing the Repayment of the Sums to be borrowed or advanced as aforesaid shall be in the Form of the Schedule (B.) hereunto annexed, or as near as may be, and shall be signed by the Provost or acting Chief Magistrate of the Burgh, and by the Treasurer and Town Clerk at an open Meeting of the Town Council, and Two of the Councillors present shall sign as Witnesses thereto; and such Bonds and Assignations shall be recorded in the Minute Books of the Town Council, and a Certificate of such Registration shall be indorsed on such Bonds and Assignations, and signed by the Town Clerk; and in case of Competition such Bonds and Assignations

Assignations shall have Priority and Preference according to the Dates of such Registration ; and until Repayment of the Sums so borrowed or advanced, and Interest thereon, such Sums, and the Bonds and Assignations granted therefor respectively, shall form a Lien on the Rates by this Act authorized to be levied preferable to all other Debts and Claims against the Burgh, and the Creditors in right of such Sums shall be entitled to receive the same from the Town Council and their Officers out of the first and readiest of such Rates.

XX. Such Bonds and Assignations may be transferred by Indorsation in the Form of the Schedule (C.) hereunto annexed, or as near as may be ; and every Transfer shall be produced to the Town Clerk, who shall forthwith enter in the Minute Book of the Town Council a Memorandum of the Date of such Transfer, the Names of the Parties thereto, and the Amount, Number, and Date of the Bond and Assignation so transferred ; and a Certificate of such Entry shall be indorsed on such Bond and Assignation, and signed by the Treasurer and Town Clerk, and thereupon the Person to whom the same has been so transferred, and his Heirs, Executors, or Assignees, shall have full Right thereto, and to the whole Sums, Principal and Interest, therein contained.

Bonds and Assignations may be transferred by Indorsation.

XXI. If it shall at any Time appear to the Town Council that the Revenue of the Harbour arising from Rates specified in a Schedule certified by the Board of Trade as before mentioned is not adequate to the necessary Extension and Improvement of the Harbour, it shall be lawful for the Town Council to prepare an amended Schedule of Rates (not exceeding the Rates specified in the Schedule (A.) hereunto annexed), and on the like Notices being given, and the like Procedure in all respects being adopted, as is herein-before provided in regard to the Adjustment of the Schedule of Rates prepared by the Town Council on the Adoption of this Act, to transmit such amended Schedule, with Copies of any Objections thereto, and a Statement showing the several Particulars herein-before mentioned, to the Lords of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade in the Manner herein-before directed, and on such amended Schedule being adjusted and certified by the Board of Trade under the Hand of their Secretary as aforesaid it shall be lawful for the Town Council to demand and take any Sums not exceeding the Rates therein specified : Provided always, that the Schedule of Rates to be levied at any Harbour shall not be altered until the Expiration of at least Five Years from the Date of each Adjustment and Certification thereof by the Board of Trade.

Town Council may apply for a further Increase of Rates.

XXII. It shall be lawful for any Five or more of the said Municipal Electors, Shipowners, Traders, Landowners, or registered County Electors, after the Expiration of the said Five Years, to apply to the Board of Trade to reduce or alter and vary the said Rates ; and they shall thereupon make such Inquiries and obtain such Information in reference thereto as they may deem expedient, and shall thereafter make such Order thereon as in the special Circumstances of the Case they shall see fit.

Board of Trade may inquire into and regulate Rates.

XXIII. Subject to the Provisions of this Act and the Acts incorporated herewith, it shall be lawful for the Town Council to purchase and acquire such Lands contiguous to the Harbour

An Act to provide for the Government of India.

[20th August 1853.]

3 & 4 W. 4. c. 85. WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for effecting an Arrangement with the East India Company, and for the better Government of His Majesty's Indian Territories till the Thirtieth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, the Territories therein mentioned were continued under the Government of the East India

India Company until the Thirtieth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, with the Powers and subject to the Superintendence, Direction, and Control therein mentioned; and the Property and Rights in the said Act mentioned were continued in the Possession of the said Company in trust for the Crown for the Service of the said Government: And whereas it is expedient to provide for the Government of the Territories now in the Possession and under the Government of the said Company after the Expiration of the Term limited by the said Act? Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. Until Parliament shall otherwise provide, all the Territories now in the Possession and under the Government of the East India Company shall continue under such Government in trust for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, with and under the Powers and Restrictions, and subject to the Superintendence, Direction, and Control now by Law applicable to such Government, and subject also to the Provisions of this Act; and all the Provisions now in force of the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth, and all other Enactments whatsoever now in force with relation to the said Company and Government and Territories respectively, shall, save so far as the same are altered by or are repugnant to this Act, continue in force after the said Thirtieth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, as if the said Term had not expired; and no Appointments, Arrangements, or Acts made or done under the Provisions and Enactments hereby continued, shall, by reason only of the Expiration of the said Term, cease or be affected.

II. From and after the Second Wednesday in the Month of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four there shall be Eighteen Directors and no more of the said Company, to be from Time to Time appointed and elected as herein-after mentioned; and such Directors, or any Ten or more of them, shall be and shall be called a Court of Directors, and such Directors and Court of Directors respectively shall have the same Powers and Privileges as the Directors and Court of Directors of the said Company now have, save so far as such Powers and Privileges are altered by this Act; and in every Case where the Presence, Signature, Consent, or Concurrence of Thirteen Directors of the said Company, or of any greater Number of such Directors, is now requisite, the Presence, Signature, Consent, or Concurrence (as the Case may be) of Ten Directors under this Act, shall be sufficient; and in all Despatches and written Documents proceeding from the said Court of Directors the Signatures of the Chairman and Deputy Chairman and of the Senior Member of the said Court, or of any Two of them, countersigned by the Secretary or Deputy Secretary for the Time being of the said Company, shall be sufficient in lieu of the Signatures of the Majority of the said Directors.

III. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Warrant under the Royal Sign Manual, at any Time before the said Second Wednesday in April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, to appoint Three Persons to be, from the said Second Wednesday in April One Until Parliament shall otherwise provide, the British Territories in India to be continued under the Government of the Company, subject to the Provisions of this Act.

After the Second Wednesday in April 1854, there shall be Eighteen Directors of the Company.

Her Majesty to appoint Three of the first Directors for Two, Four, and Six Years.

All Directors appointed to have served Ten Years in India.

The present Directors and the Directors out by Rotation, to appoint from their own Body Fifteen of the first Directors under this Act, Five for Two Years, Five for Four Years, and Five for Six Years.

On casual Vacancies, Directors appointed by the Crown to be increased to Six, those not so appointed to be reduced to Twelve.

IV. On the Second Wednesday in the Month of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four the present Directors of the said Company, or such of them as may then remain in Office, and the Persons, or Survivors of the Persons, heretofore Directors of the said Company, who in the Month of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three ceased to be such Directors by the Expiration of the Term for which they were elected, or the major Part of the said Directors and Persons, shall, from among the said Directors and Persons heretofore Directors as aforesaid, appoint Fifteen Persons to be, with the Three Persons to be appointed by Her Majesty, the first Directors of the said Company under this Act from the said Second Wednesday in April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four; and of such Fifteen Persons Five shall be appointed for the Term of Two Years, Five others for the Term of Four Years, and the remaining Five for the Term of Six Years; and for the Purposes of such Appointment as aforesaid, as well the said Persons heretofore Directors, as the said present Directors remaining in Office, shall meet and act together as a Court of Directors of the said Company on the said Second Wednesday in March, and the Names of the Directors who shall be appointed at such Court, together with the respective Terms for which they are appointed, shall be certified to the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, under the Seal of the said Company.

V. To the Intent that the Number of the Directors of the said Company to be appointed by Her Majesty under this Act be increased to Six, and the Number of other Directors reduced to Twelve, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, upon the First, Second, and Third Vacancy respectively among the Directors under this Act not appointed by Her Majesty which may happen otherwise than by the Expiration of the Term of Years for which a Director may have been appointed or elected, to appoint by Warrant as aforesaid a Person to be a Director of the said Company to fill each of such Vacancies.

VI. Every Vacancy happening from Time to Time in the Office of any Director who shall have been appointed by Her Majesty under any Provision herein contained shall be filled up by Her Majesty by Warrant under the Royal Sign Manual; and, subject to the Provisions herein contained for increasing the Number of Directors to be appointed by Her Majesty, every Vacancy among the Directors not appointed by Her Majesty shall be filled up by Election by the General Court of the said Company, in the Manner in which Directors are now elected.

VII. Every Director appointed by Her Majesty or elected by the said General Court to fill a Vacancy occasioned by the Expiration ation of the Term of Office of a Director shall be appointed or elected for the Term of Six Years; and every Director appointed by Her Majesty or elected by the said General Court to supply the Place of any Director whose Office shall have become void otherwise than by the Expiration of his Term of Office, shall be appointed or elected for the Remainder of the Term of Office of such last-mentioned Director; and every Person who shall, or but for Re-appointment or Re-election would, cease to be a Director at the Expiration of his Term of Office, shall be capable of being re-appointed or of being re-elected at the Election holden on the Day of the Expiration of such Term.

VIII The Terms of Two Years, Four Years, and Six Years respectively, for which the Directors first appointed under this Act shall be appointed, shall be taken to expire at the End of the Year on the Second Wednesday in the Month of April in the Second, Fourth, and Sixth Years respectively after the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and the Term of Office of every Person appointed or elected to supply a Vacancy upon the Expiration of any Term shall be taken to expire at the End of the Year on the Second Wednesday in April in the Sixth following Year; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty from Time to Time, upon or after the Expiration of the Term of Office of any Director or Directors appointed by Her Majesty by Warrant under the Royal Sign Manual, to appoint or re-appoint a Person or Persons to fill such Vacancy or Vacancies; and biennial Elections shall be holden on the Second Wednesday of the Month of April in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and in every alternate Year, for filling up such Vacancies among the Directors at the Expiration of any Term of Office as the General Courts of the said Company may be authorized to fill up, and all the Provisions applicable to the General Annual and other Elections of Directors by the said General Court shall be applicable to the biennial and other Elections of Directors by such General Court under this Act, so far as Circumstances will admit.

IX. Of the Fifteen Directors first appointed under this Act by the present Directors and Persons heretofore Directors of the said Company, Six shall be Persons who shall have resided for Ten Years at the least in India; and all such Vacancies happening from Time to Time in the Offices of any of the Six Directors so qualified as the General Court may be authorized to fill up shall be filled up by Persons qualified in like Manner; and in case by the Vacancies among the Directors not appointed by Her Majesty, which Her Majesty is authorized to fill up, or any of such Vacancies, the Number of Directors so qualified as aforesaid (exclusive of those appointed by Her Majesty) be reduced below Six, every Person thereafter elected by the General Court to be a Director upon any Vacancy, except any of the Directors first appointed under this Act who may be elected at the Expiration of their Term of Office, shall be a Person qualified in like Manner until the Number of Directors so qualified, exclusive of those appointed by the Crown, be restored to Six, and every casual Vacancy henceforth happening among such Six Directors so qualified shall be filled up by the Election of a Person qualified in like Manner; and when at the Time of any biennial Election there-

It shall be lawful for the Court of Directors of the said Company, under such Direction and Control, if and when they think fit, to constitute One new Presidency within the Territories subject for the Time being to the Government of the said Company, and to declare and appoint what Part of such Territories shall be subject to the Government of such new Presidency; and unless and until such new Presidency be constituted as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Court of Directors, under such Direction and Control as aforesaid, if and when they think fit, to authorize (in addition to such Appointments as are herein-before authorized to be continued and made for the Territories now and heretofore under the said Presidency of Fort William) the Appointment by the said Governor General in Council of a Lieutenant Governor for any Part of the Territories for the Time being subject to the Government of the said Company, and to declare for what Part of the said Territories such Lieutenant Governor shall be appointed, and the Extent of his Authority, and from Time to Time to revoke or alter any such Declaration.

Power to alter from Time to Time the Limits of Presidencies and Lieutenant Governorships.

XVIII. It shall be lawful for the said Court of Directors, under such Direction and Control as aforesaid, from Time to Time to declare and appoint what Part or Parts of the Territories for the Time being subject to the Government of the said Company shall be or continue subject to each of the Presidencies and Lieutenant Governorships for the Time being subsisting in such Territories, and to make such Distribution and Arrangement or new Distribution and Arrangement of such Territories into or among such Presidencies and Lieutenant Governorships as to the said Court of Directors, under such Direction and Control as aforesaid, may seem expedient.

The Enactments as to existing Presidencies to extend to new Presidencies.

XIX. The Provisions of the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth, as amended by this Act, and all other Provisions now in force for the Administration of the Executive Government of the Presidencies of Fort Saint George and Bombay respectively, and authorizing the Revocation and Suspension of the Appointment of Councils and the Reduction of the Number of Councillors in such Presidencies respectively, and as to the Powers, Duties, Functions, and Immunities of the Governors of such Presidencies respectively, and of such Governors in their respective Councils, and concerning or applicable to the Appointment and provisional Appointment of Governors and Members of Council of the said Presidencies respectively on Vacancies, and otherwise providing for Vacancies in the Office of any such Governor, and concerning the Removal and Dismissal of such Governors and Members of Council, and the Revocation of Appointments

Appointments and provisional Appointments of Governors and Members of Council of such Presidencies, and concerning the Salaries and Emoluments of such Governors and Members of Council, shall extend and be applicable in like Manner to and in the Case of any new Presidency to be established as aforesaid under this Act, and also to and in the Case of the Presidency of Agra, in case the same be constituted under the Provisions of the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth; and the said Provisions concerning Appointments of Governors and Members of Council on Vacancies, as amended by this Act, shall extend and be applicable to and for the first Appointment of a Governor and Members of Council of such new Presidency and the Presidency of Agra aforesaid.

XX. Every Appointment by the Court of Directors of any ordinary Member of the Council of India, or of any Member of the Council of any Presidency in India, shall be subject to the Approbation of Her Majesty, to be signified under Her Royal Sign Manual, countersigned by the President of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India.

All Appointments of Members of Council to be approved of by Her Majesty.

XXI. So much of the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth as provides that the Fourth ordinary Member of the Council of India shall not be entitled to sit or vote in the said Council, except at Meetings thereof for making Laws and Regulations, shall be repealed.

As to excluding Fourth ordinary Member from certain Meetings.

XXII. For the better Exercise of the Powers of making Laws and Regulations, now vested in the Governor General of India in Council, the several Persons herein-after mentioned shall, in addition to and together with such Governor General and the Members of the said Council, under the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth, be Members of the said Council of India for and in relation to the Exercise of all such Powers of making Laws and Regulations as aforesaid, and shall be distinguished as Legislative Councillors thereof; (that is to say,)

Legislative Councillors added to the Council of India for making Laws and Regulations;

One Member for each Presidency and Lieutenant Governorship for the Time being established in the said Territories, to be appointed from Time to Time by the Governor of such Presidency and the Lieutenant Governor of such Lieutenant Governorship respectively, from among the Persons having been or being at the Time of their Appointment in the Civil Service of such Company within such Presidency or Lieutenant Governorship, and who shall have been Ten Years in the Service of the said Company:

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, or the Chief Justice or Chief Judge of any Court of Judicature hereafter to be constituted in the said Territories to or in which the Powers of such Supreme Court may be transferred or vested:

One of the other Judges of such Supreme Court, or One of the Judges appointed by Her Majesty of any such future Court as aforesaid, to be named by the said Governor General:

And it shall be lawful for the Court of Directors, if they think it expedient, under the Direction and Control of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, to authorize and direct the Governor but only to vote at Meetings for that Purpose.

Appointment of a Vice President of Council to preside at Meetings in Absence of Governor General;

Quorum for Legislative Business.

Governor General's Assent requisite to Validity of Laws.

Time for Meeting of Council with new Legislative Councillors to be fixed by Governor General by Proclamation.

No Law, &c. invalid by reason of its affecting any Prerogative of the Crown.

All Fines, Penalties, &c. to belong to the East India Company.

Governor General of India to appoint from Time to Time, in addition to such Legislative Councillors as aforesaid, Two Persons, to be selected by the said Governor General, having been Ten Years in the Service of the Company, to be Legislative Councillors of the said Council under this Act: Provided always, that the Legislative Councillors added to the Council of India by or under this Act shall not be entitled to sit or vote in the said Council, except at Meetings thereof for making Laws and Regulations.

XXIII. It shall be lawful for such Governor General to appoint any Member of the said Council to be Vice President thereof at Meetings of the said Council for making Laws and Regulations, who shall preside therein at such Meetings in the Absence of such Governor General, and in the Absence of such Vice President the senior ordinary Member of the Council of India there present shall preside therein; and the Powers of making Laws or Regulations vested in the said Governor General in Council shall be exercised only at Meetings of the said Council, at which such Governor General or Vice President or some ordinary Member of Council, and Six or more Members of the said Council, shall be assembled, the Chief Justice or Chief Judge, or such other Judge of the Supreme Court or such other Court as aforesaid, or the Fourth ordinary Member of the said Council of India, being One; and in every Case of Difference of Opinion at Meetings of the said Council for making Laws and Regulations, where there shall be an Equality of Voices, the Governor General, or in his Absence the Vice President, and in the Absence of the Governor General and the Vice President such senior ordinary Member of Council there present and presiding, shall have Two Votes or the Casting Vote.

XXIV. Provided always, That no Law or Regulation made by the said Council shall have Force or be promulgated until the same has been assented to by the said Governor General, whether he shall or shall not have been present in Council at the making thereof.

XXV. Provided also, That the said Governor General shall by Proclamation appoint a Time, not being later than Six Months from the Commencement of this Act, for the First Meeting of the said Council of India for making Laws and Regulations under this Act, and summon thereto as well the Legislative Councillors appointed by and under this Act as the other Members of such Council; and until such First Meeting the Powers now vested in the said Governor General of India in Council of making Laws and Regulations shall and may be exercised in like Manner and by the same Members as before the passing of this Act.

XXVI. No Law or Regulation made by the Governor General in Council shall be invalid by reason only that the same affects any Prerogative of the Crown, provided such Law or Regulation shall have received the previous Sanction of the Crown, signified under the Royal Sign Manual of Her Majesty, countersigned by the President of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India.

XXVII. All Fines and Penalties incurred by the Sentence or Order of any Court of Justice within the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, and all Forfeitures for Crimes of any Real or Personal Estate within the said Territories, and all Real and Personal Estate within the said Territories wanting or lapsing for Want of an Heir or Successor, and all Property within the said Territories devolving as Bona vacantia Want of a rightful Owner, shall (as Part of the Revenues of India) belong to the East India Company in trust for Her Majesty the Service of the Government of India: Provided also, that the Governor General in Council, and any other Person or Persons who may be authorized by any Act passed in that Behalf by the Governor General in Council, shall have Power (in Cases where the same may appear suitable and proper) to make any Grant or Disposition of any Property so accruing by Forfeiture, Sale, or otherwise to or in favour of any Relative or Connection of the Person from whom the same shall have accrued; to or in favour of any other Person or Persons.

XXVIII. And whereas by the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth it was provided, that Commissioners to be appointed thereunder, and to be styled the Indian Law Commissioners, should inquire into the Jurisdiction, Powers, and Rules of the existing Courts of Justice and Police Establishments in the said Territories, and all existing Forms of Judicial Procedure, and into the Nature and Operation of all Laws, whether Civil or Criminal, written or customary, prevailing and in force in any Part of the said Territories, and should from Time to Time make Reports, in which they should fully set forth the Result of their Inquiries, and should from Time to Time suggest such Alterations as might in their Opinion be beneficially made in the said Courts of Justice and Police Establishments, Forms of Judicial Procedure, and Laws, due Regard being had to the Distinction of Castes, Difference of Religion, and the Manners and Opinions prevailing among different Races and in different Parts of the said Territories: And whereas the Indian Law Commissioners from Time to Time appointed under the said Act, have, in a Series of Reports, recommended extensive Alterations in the Judicial Establishments, Judicial Procedure, and Laws established and in force in India, and have set forth in detail the Provisions which they have proposed to be established by Law for giving effect to certain of their Recommendations, and such Reports have been transmitted from Time to Time to the said Court of Directors; but on the greater Part of such Reports and Recommendations no final Decision has been had:

It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, at any Time after the passing of this Act, by Commission under the Royal Sign Manual, to appoint such and so many Persons in England as to Her Majesty may seem fit to examine and consider the Recommendations of the said Indian Law Commissioners, and the Enactments proposed by them for the Reform of the Judicial Establishments, Judicial Procedure, and Laws of India, and such other Matters in relation to the Reform of the said Judicial Establishments, Judicial Procedure, and Laws, as may, by or with the Sanction of the Commissioners for the Affairs of India, be referred to them for their Consideration, and to authorize and direct the Persons so appointed, or such Number as may be limited by their Commission in this Behalf, to report their Opinion to Her Majesty on the

Recital of Provisions of 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 85. as to Appointment of Indian Law Commissioners.

Her Majesty may appoint Commissioners in England to consider and report on the Reforms proposed by the Indian Law Commissioners.

Matters aforesaid, and especially to report from Time to Time what Laws or Regulations should be made or enacted in relation to the Matters aforesaid, but so that every such Report be made within Three Years after the passing of this Act; and for the Purposes of such Examination it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to authorize the Persons so appointed, or the Number limited by the Commission in this Behalf, to call before them and examine in England such Persons in the Service of the Crown and the said Company respectively, and to require the Production of such official Documents in the Possession of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, or of the said Company, as they may think fit.

Approval of Advocate General by Board of Control.

XXIX. No Appointment of any Advocate General of the said Company shall be valid without the Approbation of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India.

Her Majesty's Commander-in-Chief to be Commander-in-Chief of Company's Forces.

XXX. Any Person who shall be hereafter appointed by Her Majesty to be the Commander-in-Chief of Her Forces in India shall by virtue of such Appointment be also the Commander-in-Chief of all the Company's Forces in India, and any Person who shall be hereafter appointed by Her Majesty to be the Commander-in-Chief of Her Forces in any Presidency in India shall by virtue of such Appointment be also the Commander-in-Chief of the Company's Forces in such Presidency.

Limit of European Troops of the Company and of their Troops in training at home extended.

XXXI. So much of the Act of the Twenty-eighth Year of King George the Third, Chapter Eight, as limits the Numbers of the European Forces of the said Company to Twelve thousand two hundred Men, and so much of the Act of the Thirty-ninth Year of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and nine, as limits the Number of Non-commissioned Officers and Private Men which the said Company are authorized to enlist and have in Pay at any One Time, or to train or discipline at any One Time, in Great Britain and the Islands of Guernsey and Jersey, by virtue of that Act, to Two thousand Men, shall, from the passing of this Act, be repealed; and it shall be lawful for the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, at any Time after the passing of this Act, and from Time to Time, to give or approve such Directions as they may think fit for raising and maintaining out of the Revenues arising from the said Territories such Number of European Forces as they may judge necessary, so that the Number of European Forces of the said Company at any One Time do not amount in the whole to more than Twenty thousand Men, including the Commissioned and Non-commissioned Officers; and it shall be lawful for the said Company to enlist and have in Pay and train and discipline under the said last-mentioned Act any Number of Non-commissioned Officers and Private Men not exceeding at any One Time Four thousand.

Sick Leave or Furlough Regulations may be extended as to Residence out of the Limits of the Company's Charter.

XXXII. Nothing in any Enactment now in force, or any Charter, relating to the said Company, shall be taken to prevent the Establishment, by the Court of Directors (under the Direction and Control of the said Board of Commissioners), at any Time after the passing of this Act, and from Time to Time, of any Regulations which they may deem expedient in relation to the Absence on Sick Leave or Furlough of all or any Officers and Persons in the Service of the said Company in India, or receiving Salaries salaries from the said Company there, under which they respectively may be authorized to repair to and reside in Europe or elsewhere out of the Limits of the said Company's Charter, without forfeiture of Pay or Salary, during the Times and under the Circumstances during and under which they may now be permitted (while absent from their Duty) to reside in Places out of India within the Limits of the said Company's Charter, or during such Times and under such Circumstances as by such Regulations may be permitted.

XXXIII. 'And whereas by the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth it is enacted, that the President of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, but no other Commissioner, as such, and the Secretaries and other Officers, shall be paid by the said Company such fixed Salaries as His Majesty shall, by any Warrant or Warrants under His Sign Manual, countersigned by the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the Time being, direct: ' Be it enacted, That such fixed Salary of the said President of the Board of Commissioners shall in no Case be less than the Salary which shall be paid to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and that only one of the said Secretaries to the said Board shall be capable of being elected or sitting and voting Parliament.

Salary of President of Board of Control.

XXXIV. Instead of the yearly Sums allowed under the By-laws of the said Company to the Chairman, Deputy Chairman, and other Directors, for their Attendance upon the Business of the said Company, there shall be allowed to the Chairman, Deputy Chairman, and Directors, under this Act, the yearly Sums following; (that is to say,) to the Chairman One thousand Pounds a Year, to the Deputy Chairman One thousand Pounds a Year, and to every other Director Five hundred Pounds a Year.

Allowances to Chairman, Deputy Chairman, and Directors.

XXXV. There shall be paid to the several Officers herein-after named the several annual Salaries set against the Names of such Officers respectively, subject to such Reduction as the Court of Directors, with the Sanction of the said Board, may from Time to Time think fit; (that is to say,)

Salaries.

To the Commander-in-Chief of the Forces in India, One hundred thousand Company's Rupees, in lieu of all other Pay and Allowances :

To each Lieutenant Governor, One hundred thousand Company's Rupees :

To each ordinary Member of the Council of India, Eighty thousand Company's Rupees :

To each Legislative Councillor of the Council of India (not holding any other Office), Fifty thousand Company's Rupees :

The several Salaries aforesaid to be subject to the Provisions and Regulations of the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth, concerning the Salaries thereby appointed: Provided always, that the Salary of any such Officer appointed before the passing of this Act shall not under this Enactment be reduced.

XXXVI. The Provisions herein-after mentioned, respecting the Appointment of Persons to the Civil Service of the said Company, and the Admission of Students into the College of the said Company at Haileybury, (that is to say,) Section Forty-six

Provisions of 53 G. 3. c. 155. and 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 85. repealed, and existing of Rights of Patronage of Appointments to cease.

of the Act of the Fifty-third Year of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and fifty-five, and Sections One hundred and three, One hundred and four, One hundred and five, One hundred and six, and One hundred and seven of the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth, shall be repealed, and all Powers, Rights, or Privileges of the Court of Directors of the said Company to nominate or appoint Persons to be admitted as Students or Candidates for such Admission, or as Assistant Surgeons in the Forces of the said Company, shall cease as regards all Vacancies which shall occur on or after the Thirtieth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

Candidates for Haileybury, or as Assistant Surgeons, to be admitted for Examination.

XXXVII. Subject to such Regulations as may be made by the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, any Person being a natural-born Subject of Her Majesty who may be desirous of being admitted into the said College at Haileybury, or of being appointed an Assistant Surgeon in the said Company's Forces, shall be admitted to be examined as a Candidate for such Admission or Appointment respectively.

Board of Control to make Regulations.

XXXVIII. It shall be lawful for the said Board of Commissioners at any Time after the passing of this Act, and from Time to Time, to frame and make Regulations not inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act concerning such Examinations, Admissions, and Appointments, and concerning the Examination of Persons to be admitted as Students into the Military Seminary of the said Company at Addiscombe, and for such other Purposes as herein-after mentioned, and the said Board may from Time to Time alter or vary such Regulations as to the said Board may seem expedient: Provided always, that all Regulations to be made by the said Board under this Act shall be laid before Parliament within Fourteen Days after the making thereof, if Parliament be sitting, and if Parliament be not sitting, then within Fourteen Days after the next Meeting thereof.

Regulations to be laid before Parliament.

Regulations as to Admission to Haileybury and Addiscombe, and for Examination of Candidates.

XXXIX. It shall be lawful for the said Board, by such Regulations as aforesaid, to determine the Age and Qualifications in all respects of Persons to be admitted Students into the said College and Seminary respectively, and of Persons who may be examined as Candidates for such Admission, and to make Provisions for admitting such qualified Candidates to Examination, and prescribing the Branches of Knowledge in which such Candidate shall be examined, and generally for regulating and conducting such Examinations, and for admitting into such College and Seminary respectively qualified Persons from among Candidates who shall have been examined as aforesaid.

Regulations as to Admission into the Civil and Military Service, and of Assistant Surgeons.

XL. It shall be also lawful for the said Board, by such Regulations as aforesaid, to determine the Age and Qualifications of Persons to be appointed to the Civil Service of the said Company in India, or to their Military Service there, or as Assistant Surgeons in the said Company's Forces, and to prescribe the Branches of Knowledge in which Candidates for Appointment to the Civil and Military Service respectively of the said Company in India, and for Appointment as such Assistant Surgeons as aforesaid, shall be examined, and generally to provide for regulating and conducting such respective Examinations.

XL I. Such Persons only shall be appointed or admitted by the Court of Directors to the Civil and Military Service of the said Company in India, or as such Assistant Surgeons as aforesaid, as shall be qualified and entitled to Admission according to the Regulations for the Time being in force under this Act, and the Court of Directors shall from Time to Time appoint such Persons as may become entitled to Appointments under such Regulations.

Persons qualified and entitled according to the Regulations only to be appointed.

XLII. It shall be lawful for the said Board of Commissioners from Time to Time to appoint such Persons as they may see fit, to be respectively Examiners for conducting the Examinations, under the Regulations to be made under this Act, of Persons desirous of being admitted as Students into the said College at Haileybury and Seminary at Addiscombe, and of Candidates for Appointment to the Civil and Military Service respectively of the said Company, and of Persons desirous of being appointed Assistant Surgeons in the said Company's Forces.

Board of Control to appoint Examiners.

XLIII. This Act shall, save as herein otherwise expressly provided, commence and take effect on the Thirtieth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

Commencement of Act.

C A P. XCVL

An Act to amend an Act passed in the Ninth Year of Her Majesty, "for the Regulation of the Care and Treatment of Lunatics." [20th August 1853.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Ninth Year of Her Majesty, "for the Regulation of the Care and Treatment of Lunatics:" And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Act as herein-after mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

8 & 9 Vict. c. 100.

I. Section Twenty-five of the said recited Act shall be repealed, and any One Licence to be granted for the Reception of Lunatics may, in the Discretion of the Commissioners or Justices granting such Licence, include Two or more Houses belonging to One Proprietor or to Two or more joint Proprietors, provided that no One of such Houses be separated from the other or others of them otherwise than by Land in the same Occupation, and by a Road, or by either of such Modes; and all Houses, Buildings, and Lands intended to be included in any Licence shall be specified, delineated, and described in the Plan required by Section Twenty-four of the said recited Act.

Section 25. of recited Act repealed, and Provision as to what may be included in One Licence.

II. No Person having, after the passing of the said recited Act, received for the First Time a Licence for the Reception of Lunatics, or hereafter receiving for the First Time such Licence, shall receive a Licence unless he shall reside on the Premises licensed; and no Two or more Persons having after the passing of the said recited Act received for the First Time a joint Licence for the Reception of Lunatics, or hereafter receiving for the First Time such Licence, shall receive such Licence unless they or One of them shall reside on the Premises licensed.

The Person or One of the Persons receiving a Licence to reside on the Premises.

Sections 45, 46, 47, 48, and 49. of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 100. repealed.

III. Sections Forty-five, Forty-six, Forty-seven, Forty-eight, and Forty-nine of the said recited Act shall be repealed; but such Repeal shall not prevent or defeat any Prosecution for any Offence committed before the Commencement of this Act, and every such Offence shall and may be prosecuted, and every pending Prosecution continued, as if this Act had not been passed.

No Person not a Pauper to be received into a Hospital or licensed House without a certain Order and Certificates.

IV. Save as herein-after otherwise provided, no Person (not being a Lunatic) for or in respect of whom any Money shall be paid or agreed to be paid shall be boarded or lodged in any licensed House; and, save where otherwise provided or authorized under this or any other Act, no Person (not being a Pauper) shall be received as a Lunatic into any licensed House or Hospital without an Order under the Hand of some Person according to the Form in Schedule (A.) No. 1. annexed to this Act, together with such Statement of Particulars as is contained in the same Schedule, nor without the Medical Certificates, according to the Form in Schedule (A.) No. 2. annexed to this Act, of Two Persons, each of whom shall be a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, and shall not be in Partnership with or an Assistant to the other, and each of whom shall separately from the other have personally examined the Person to whom the Certificate signed by him relates not more than Seven clear Days previously to the Reception of such Person into such House or Hospital; and such Order as aforesaid may be signed before or after the Medical Certificates or either of them; and every Person who shall receive any such Person as aforesaid into any such House or Hospital as aforesaid (save where otherwise provided or authorized under this or any other Act) without such Order and Medical Certificates as aforesaid shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

proviso that in certain Cases any Person may be received on a Certificate signed by One Medical Practitioner only.

V. Provided always, That any Person (not a Pauper) may, under special Circumstances preventing the Examination of such Person by Two Medical Practitioners as aforesaid, be received as a Lunatic into any licensed House or any Hospital upon such Order as aforesaid, and with the Certificate of One Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary alone, provided that the Statement accompanying such Order set forth the special Circumstances which prevent the Examination of such Person by Two Medical Practitioners; but in every such Case Two other such Certificates shall, within Three clear Days after his Reception into such House or Hospital, be signed by Two other Persons, each of whom shall be a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, not in Partnership with or an Assistant to the other or the Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary who signed the Certificate on which the Patient was received, and not connected with such House or Hospital, and shall within such Time and separately from the other of them have personally examined the Person so received as a Lunatic; and every Person who, having received any Person as a Lunatic into any House or Hospital as aforesaid upon the Certificate of One Medical Practitioner alone as aforesaid, shall keep or permit such Person to remain in such House or Hospital beyond the said Period of Three clear Days without such further Certificates as aforesaid, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Any Person discharged may, with Assent of

VI. Provided also, That it shall be lawful for the Proprietor or Superintendent of any licensed House, with the previous Assent

Medical Certificate to specify Facts upon which Opinion of Insanity has been formed.

X. Every Physician, Surgeon, and Apothecary signing any Certificate under or for the Purposes of this Act shall specify therein the Facts upon which he has formed his Opinion that the Person to whom such Certificate relates is a Lunatic, an Idiot, or a Person of unsound Mind, and distinguish in such Certificate Facts observed by himself from Facts communicated to him by others; and no Person shall be received into any registered Hospital or licensed House, or as a single Patient, under any Certificate which purports to be founded only upon Facts communicated by others.

Orders and Medical Certificates may be amend. d.

XI. If after the Reception of any Lunatic it appear that the Order or the Medical Certificate, or (if more than One) both or either of the Medical Certificates, upon which he was received, is or are in any respect incorrect or defective, such Order and Medical Certificate or Certificates may be amended by the Person signing the same at any Time within Fourteen Days next after the Reception of such Lunatic; provided nevertheless, that no such Amendment shall have any Force or Effect unless the same shall receive the Sanction of One or more of the Commissioners.

Who not to sign Certificates, &c.

XII. No Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary who, or whose Father, Brother, Son, Partner, or Assistant, is wholly or partly the Proprietor of, or a regular Professional Attendant in, a licensed House or a Hospital, shall sign any Certificate for the Reception of a Patient into such House or Hospital; and no Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary shall himself, or by his Servants or Agents, receive to board or lodge in any unlicensed House, or take the Charge or Care of any Person upon or under any Medical Certificate signed by himself or his Father, Brother, Son, Partner, or Assistant, and no Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary having (either before or after the passing of this Act) signed any Certificate for the Reception of any Person shall be the regular Professional Attendant of such Person while under Care or Charge under such Certificate; and no Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary who, or whose Father, Brother, Son, Partner, or Assistant shall sign the Order herein-before required for the Reception of a Patient, shall sign any Certificate for the Reception of the same Patient.

Giving false Certificates, &c. and a Person not being a Medical Man giving Certificates as such, guilty of a Misdemeanor.

XIII. Any Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary who shall sign any Certificate, or do any other Act (not declared to be a Misdemeanor) contrary to any of the Provisions herein contained shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds; and any Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary who shall falsely state or certify anything in any Certificate under this Act and any Person who shall sign any Certificate under this Act shall which he shall be described as a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, not being a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary respectively within the Meaning of this Act, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

XIV. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners, by an Order under their Common Seal, where they see fit so to do, to permit the Visitation of any single Patient by a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary less frequently than once in every Two Weeks, as required by Section Ninety of the said recited Act, and to prescribe from Time to Time how often any single Patient shall be visited by such a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary as therein mentioned; but where such Visitation of any single Patient so often as once in every Two Weeks is so dispensed with, and such Patient is in the Care or Charge of a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, such Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary shall once at the least in every Two Weeks make an Entry in a Book to be kept for that Purpose, to be called "The Medical Journal," of the Condition of the Patient's Health, both mental and bodily, together with the Date of such Entry, and such Book shall be produced to the Visiting Commissioner on every Visit, and shall be signed by him as having been so produced, and every such Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary who shall make an untrue Entry in the said Book shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

XV. It shall be lawful for One or more of the Visitors appointed in or for any County or Borough under the said recited Act, upon the Request in Writing of the Commissioners, or any Two of them, under their Hands, so to do, to visit any Person detained in any unlicensed House in such County or Borough as a single Patient, and to inquire into and report to the Commissioners on the Treatment and State of Health, bodily and mental, of such Patient, and to inspect the Order and Certificates on which such Person was received; and the Provisions of the said recited Act for and concerning the Remuneration or Payment of any such Visitor, being a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, in respect of the Execution of the Duties of that Act, and for the Payment of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses incurred by any Visitor in Proceedings under that Act, shall extend and be applicable to and for the Remuneration or Payment of any Visitor, being a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, visiting as aforesaid any single Patient, and to and for the Payment of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses incurred by any Visitor in or about such Visit as aforesaid.

XVI. Every Physician, Surgeon, and Apothecary who visits any single Patient, or under whose Care or Charge any single Patient shall be, shall on the Tenth Day of January, or within Seven Days from that Time, in every Year report in Writing to the Commissioners the State of Health, bodily and mental, of such Patient, with such other Circumstances as he may deem necessary to be communicated to the Commissioners; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, at any other Time and from Time to Time as they see occasion, to call for and require from any such Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary a Report in Writing relative to any single Patient visited by him or under his Care or Charge in such Form and specifying such Particulars as the Commissioners may direct.

Commissioners may permit Medical Visitation of any single Patient less frequently than once a Fortnight, but if Patient be in the Care of a Medical Man he is to make an Entry once a Fortnight as to Patient's Health.

Visitors of licensed Houses may visit single Patients on Request of Commissioners.

Annual Report to be made to the Commissioners by every Medical Man visiting or having Charge of a single Patient.

XVII. The

Provisions concerning Discharge of Patients from licensed Houses by Relatives extended to single Patients.

XVII. The Provisions contained in Sections Seventy-two and Seventy-three of the said recited Act for the Discharge of Patients (not being Paupers) from licensed Houses shall extend and be applicable to and for the Discharge of any single Patient: Provided always, that this Enactment shall not extend to authorise the Discharge of any single Patient, if the Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary who has the Care or Charge of or visits such Patient certify in Writing under his Hand that in his Opinion such Patient is dangerous, and unfit to be at large, together with the Grounds on which such Opinion is founded, unless One of the Commissioners shall consent in Writing to the Discharge of such Patient.

Lord Chancellor, upon Report of Commissioners, may order Discharge, &c. of any single Patient.

XVIII. It shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, upon the Report of the Commissioners in Lunacy, to order the Discharge of any Person received or detained as a single Patient, or to give such Orders and Directions in reference to such Patient as the Lord Chancellor shall think fit; and any Person detaining any such Patient for the Space of Three Days after a Copy of such Order for his Discharge shall have been served on him, or left at the House in which such Person so ordered to be discharged is detained, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

On Recovery of a Patient Notice to be given to Friends, and in the Case of a Pauper to Guardians, &c., and in default of Discharge or Removal, to Commissioners and Visitors.

XIX. The Superintendent or Proprietor of every registered Hospital and licensed House, and every Person having the Care or Charge of any single Patient, shall forthwith, upon the Recovery of any Patient in such Hospital or House, or of such single Patient, transmit Notice of such Recovery in the Case of a Patient not a Pauper to the Person who signed the Order for his Reception, or by whom the last Payment on account of such Patient was made, and in the Case of a Pauper to the Guardians of his Union or Parish, or if there be no such Guardians to One of the Overseers of the Poor of his Parish, or if such Pauper be chargeable to any County to the Clerk of the Peace thereof, and in case such Patient be not discharged or removed within Fourteen Days from the giving of such Notice, such Superintendent, Proprietor, or Person as aforesaid shall immediately after the Expiration of such Period transmit Notice of the Recovery of such Patient to the Commissioners, and also, in the Case of a licensed House within the Jurisdiction of any Visitors, to the Clerk of such Visitors, with the Date of the Notice firstly in this Enactment mentioned, and where Notice is so given to the Clerk of any Visitors he shall forthwith communicate the same to the Visitors, or Two of them, One of whom shall be a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary; and in case of the Death of any Patient in any Hospital or licensed House, a Statement setting forth the Time and Cause of the Death, and the Duration of the Disease of which such Patient died, shall be prepared and signed by the Medical Person or Persons who attended the Patient during the Illness which terminated in Death, and such Statement shall be entered in the "Case Book," and a Copy of such Statement, certified by the Superintendent or Proprietor, shall, within Two Days of the Date of the Death, be transmitted to the Coroner for the County or Borough, and in case such Coroner, after receiving such Statement, shall think that any reasonable Suspicion attends the Cause and requisite, the Presence, Signature, Consent, or Concurrence (as the Case may be) of the Majority of such of the said Directors as for the Time being may remain in Office shall be sufficient.

XIII. Every Person who shall hereafter be appointed or elected a Director of the said Company shall, before he shall act in that Office, take the following Oath, instead of the Oath now appointed to be taken by a Director; that is to say,

‘ I A.B. do swear, That I will be faithful to Her Majesty Queen Victoria, and will to the best of my Ability perform the Duty assigned to me as a Director of the East India Company in the Administration of the Government of India in trust for the Crown.
So help me GOD.’

Directors before acting to take the Oath herein named.

XIV. If at any General Court of the said Company, after the Transaction of such Business as by any Act of Parliament or any Byelaw of the said Company may be required to be transacted at such Court, the Number of Proprietors assembled and qualified to vote, exclusively of any Directors then present, shall not amount to Twenty, it shall be lawful for the Chairman of the said Court, and he is hereby required, upon the Fact of the Number of Proprietors so assembled not amounting to Twenty being brought to his Notice, to declare the Court adjourned without putting the Question.

Quorum of General Courts of the Company.

XV. The Provisions of the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth, relating to the Division of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal into Two Presidencies, and to the Measures consequent thereupon, which have been suspended under the Authority of the Act of the Session holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Fifty-two, shall remain suspended until the Court of Directors, under the Direction and Control of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, shall otherwise direct; and during the Continuance of such Suspension the Provisions of such last-mentioned Act, authorizing the Appointment of a Lieutenant Governor for the North-western Provinces, then under the Government of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, and the Appointments and Arrangements made thereunder, shall remain in full Force.

The Provisions of 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 85. for creating a Presidency of Agra, which has been suspended by 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 52., to remain so until the same be revoked.

XVI. It shall be lawful for the said Court of Directors, under such Direction and Control as aforesaid, if and when they think fit, at any Time after the passing of this Act, to declare that the Governor General of India shall not be Governor of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, but that a separate Governor shall be appointed for such Presidency, and in such Case a separate Governor shall be from Time to Time appointed for such Presidency accordingly, in manner provided by the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth, in the Case of Vacancies happening in the Offices of the Governors of the Presidencies of Fort Saint George and Bombay; and from and after the Appointment of such Governor, the Power by the said Act vested in the Governor General of India of appointing a Deputy Governor of the said Presidency of Fort William in Bengal shall cease; and unless and until a separate Governor of such Presidency shall be constituted as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the

A separate Governor may be appointed for the Presidency of Benga;

in the meantime a Lieutenant Governor may be appointed.

Court

whom the last Payment on account of such Patient was made, shall be produced to such Commissioners, unless they shall, on Cause being shown, dispense with the same.

On Representation of Commissioners Lord Chancellor may require Statement of Property of Lunatic.

XXIII. Where any Person has already been received as a Lunatic under Order and Certificates, and shall be detained thereunder, and where any Person shall hereafter be in like Manner received and detained, and the Commissioners represent to the Lord Chancellor that it is desirable that the Extent and Nature of his Income should be ascertained, and the Application thereof, the Lord Chancellor may, if he think fit, through the Registrar in Lunacy, require that the Person signing the Order, or other the Person paying for the Care and Maintenance of the Lunatic or having the Management of the Property, shall transmit to the Lord Chancellor a Statement in Writing, to the best of his Knowledge, of the Particulars of the Property and Income of the Lunatic and of the Application of the Income.

Form of Notice of Admission.

XXIV. The Notice of Admission and Statement mentioned or referred to in Section Fifty-two of the said recited Act shall hereafter be according to the Form mentioned in Schedule (C.) annexed to this Act, in lieu of the Form set forth in Schedule (F.) to the said recited Act; and such Statement shall be signed by the Medical Superintendent, Proprietor, or Attendant of the Hospital or licensed House from which the same is sent, and the said Notice and Statement shall be accompanied by a Copy of the several Documents mentioned in the said Notice.

Form of Medical Visitation Book.

XXV. The Medical Visitation Book mentioned in Section Fifty-nine of the said recited Act shall henceforth be kept in the Form set forth in Schedule (D.) annexed to this Act, in lieu of the Form set forth in Schedule (H.) to the said recited Act: and the said Section shall be construed as if the Particulars mentioned in the several Heads of the said Form in the said Schedule (D.) had by the said Section been required to be entered in the said Book in lieu of the Particulars mentioned in the said Section.

Notice of Dismissal for Misconduct of Attendants to be sent to Commissioners.

XXVI. The Superintendent or Proprietor of every registered Hospital or licensed House shall, within One Week after the Dismissal for Misconduct of any Nurse or Attendant employed in such Hospital or House, transmit to the Commissioners, by the Post, Information in Writing under his Hand of such Dismissal, and of the Cause thereof; and every Superintendent or Proprietor neglecting to transmit such Information to the Commissioners, within the Period aforesaid shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds.

Powers vested in Private Committee to be vested in the Commissioners.

XXVII. Section Eighty-nine of the said recited Act, constituting from among the Commissioners a Private Committee for the Purposes in the said Act mentioned, shall be repealed, and all the Powers vested in, and all the Provisions of the said Act applicable to, the said Private Committee, or One or Two Members thereof, shall be vested in and be applicable to the Commissioners, or One Commissioner, or Two Commissioners, (as the Case may require,) as if, where in the said Act the said Private Committee, or One Member or Two Members thereof, (as the Case may be,) is or are mentioned or referred to, the Commissioners, or One Commissioner, or Two Commissioners, (as the Case (Case may require,) had been mentioned or referred to, instead hereof.

XXVIII. Section One hundred and eleven of the said recited Act shall be repealed, and any One or more of the Commissioners shall and may on such Day or Days, and at such Hours in the Day, and for such Length of Time as he or they shall think fit, visit all such Parish and Union Workhouses in which there shall be or be alleged to be any Lunatic, as the Commissioners shall by any Resolution or Resolutions of the Board direct, and shall inquire whether the Provisions of the Law as to Lunatics in such Parish or Union have been carried out, and also as to the Dietary, Accommodation, and Treatment of the Lunatics in such Workhouses, and shall report in Writing thereon to the Poor Law Board.

XXIX. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners, where, for any Reasons to be entered upon the Minutes of the Board, any Case appears to them specially to call for immediate Investigation, to authorize and direct, by an Order under their Common Seal, any competent Person or Persons to visit and examine and report to them upon the mental and bodily State and Condition of any Lunatic or alleged Lunatic in any Asylum, Hospital, or licensed House, or of any Pauper Lunatic in a Workhouse or elsewhere, or of any Lunatic or alleged Lunatic under the Care or Charge of any Person as a single Patient, and to inquire into and report upon any Matters into which the Commissioners are authorized to inquire; and every such Person shall, for the special Purposes mentioned in such Order, have all the Powers of a Commissioner; and the Commissioners may allow to every such Person a reasonable Sum for his Services and Expenses, such Sum to be paid in manner provided by the said recited Act with regard to Expenses incurred by or under the Authority of the Commissioners in Proceedings thereunder; but this Enactment shall not be taken to exonerate the Commissioners from the Performance of any Duty by Law imposed on them.

XXX. The Committee having the Management or Government of every registered Hospital shall, within Three Months after the passing of this Act in the Case of every Hospital now registered, and within Three Months after the Registration of every Hospital hereafter to be registered under the said recited Act, submit the existing Regulations, or Regulations to be framed by such Committee, to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, for his Approval, and any such Committee may, with the like Approbation, alter and vary such Regulations as they think necessary; and all such Regulations so approved shall be printed, abided by, and observed, and a Copy thereof shall be sent to the Commissioners, and another Copy thereof kept hung up in the Visitors Room of the Hospital.

XXXI. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the sanction and Approbation of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Time to Time to make Regulations for the Government of any House licensed for the Reception of Lunatics; and such Regulations of the Commissioners, or a Copy thereof, shall be transmitted by their Secretary to the Proprietor or resident Superintendent of every licensed House to which the same relate, and shall be abided by and observed therein.

XXXII. The

Repeal of Section 111. of recited Act, and Provision as to Visitation of Workhouses.

Commissioners may in any special Case employ Persons to make the necessary Inquiries, and report to them thereon.

Regulations for Hospitals to be submitted to Secretary of State.

Commissioners may make Regulations for Government licensed Houses.

Time at which Reports to Lord Chancellor as to State of Asylums, &c. are to be made.

XXXII. The Report required by Section Eighty-eight of the said recited Act to be made by the Commissioners to the Lord Chancellor in the Month of June in every Year of the State and Condition of the several Houses, Hospitals, Asylums, and other Places visited by them under that Act, and of the Care of the Patients therein, and of such other Particulars as they think deserving of Notice, shall be made in or before the Month of March in every Year, and shall be made up to the End of the preceding Year.

Provision for paying Persons to inspect Places where Lunatics are confined extended to Persons visiting under 8 & 9 Vict. c. 100. s. 112.

XXXIII. The Provision in Section One hundred and thirteen of the said recited Act, for and concerning the Payment for Attendance and Trouble of any Person (not being a Commissioner) employed under that Enactment, and of the travelling or other Expenses of any Person so employed, and as to the Fund out of which such Payment is to be made, shall extend and be applicable to and in the Case of any Person (not being a Commissioner) required to visit and examine any Lunatic or supposed Lunatic under Section One hundred and twelve of the said recited Act.

Obstructing Execution of Orders of Lord Chancellor or Secretary of State, made under s. 112. or 113. of recited Act, or of Commissioners under this Act.

XXXIV. Any Person who wilfully obstructs the Commissioners or any of them, or any other Person authorized by an Order in Writing under the Hand of the Lord Chancellor or Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, pursuant to the Provisions of Section One hundred and twelve or One hundred and thirteen of the said recited Act, to visit and examine any Lunatic or supposed Lunatic, or to inspect or inquire into the State of any Asylum, Hospital, Gaol, House, or Place wherein any Lunatic or Person represented to be lunatic is confined or alleged to be confined, in the Execution of such Order, and any Person who wilfully obstructs any Person authorized under this Act by any Order of the Commissioners to make any Visit and Examination or Inquiry in the Execution of such Order, shall (without Prejudice to any Proceedings, and in addition to any Punishment to which such Person obstructing the Execution of such Order would otherwise be liable,) forfeit for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Sect. 116. of recited Act repealed, and Bethlehem Hospital to be subject to this Act.

XXXV. Section One hundred and sixteen of the said recited Act shall be repealed, and the Royal Hospital of Bethlehem shall henceforth be subject to the Provisions of the said recited Act and of this Act, in the same Manner as if the same had not been exempted from the said recited Act, and shall be forthwith registered as an Hospital accordingly, in pursuance of Section Forty-three of the said recited Act.

Interpretation of Terms.

XXXVI. In the Construction of the said recited Act and of this Act the Words "Physician," "Surgeon," and "Apothecary" shall respectively mean a Physician, Surgeon, and Apothecary duly authorized or licensed to practice as such by or as a Member of some College, University, Company, or Institution legally constituted and qualified to grant such Authority or Licence in some Part of the United Kingdom, or having been in Practice as an Apothecary in England or Wales on or before the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and being in actual Practice as such Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary; the Expression "Officiating Clergyman of the Parish" shall include the

and all Real and Personal Estate within the said Territories escheating or lapsing for Want of an Heir or Successor, and all Property within the said Territories devolving as Bona vacantia for Want of a rightful Owner, shall (as Part of the Revenues of India) belong to the East India Company in trust for Her Majesty for the Service of the Government of India: Provided also, that the Governor General in Council, and any other Person or Persons who may be authorized by any Act passed in that Behalf by the Governor General in Council, shall have Power (in Cases where the same may appear suitable and proper) to make any Grant or Disposition of any Property so accruing by Forfeiture, Escheat, or otherwise to or in favour of any Relative or Connection of the Person from whom the same shall have accrued; or to or in favour of any other Person or Persons.

XXVIII. ' And whereas by the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth it was provided, that Commissioners to be appointed thereunder, and to be styled the Indian Law Commissioners, should inquire into the Jurisdiction, Powers, and Rules of the existing Courts of Justice and Police Establishments in the said Territories, and all existing Forms of Judicial Procedure, and into the Nature and Operation of all Laws, whether Civil or Criminal, written or customary, prevailing and in force in any Part of the said Territories, and should from Time to Time make Reports, in which they should fully set forth the Result of their Inquiries, and should from Time to Time suggest such Alterations as might in their Opinion be beneficially made in the said Courts of Justice and Police Establishments, Forms of Judicial Procedure, and Laws, due Regard being had to the Distinction of Castes, Difference of Religion, and the Manners and Opinions prevailing among different Races and in different Parts of the said Territories: And whereas the Indian Law Commissioners from Time to Time appointed under the said Act, have, in a Series of Reports, recommended extensive Alterations in the Judicial Establishments, Judicial Procedure, and Laws established and in force in India, and have set forth in detail the Provisions which they have proposed to be established by Law for giving effect to certain of their Recommendations, and such Reports have been transmitted from Time to Time to the said Court of Directors; but on the greater Part of such Reports and Recommendations no final Decision has been had: '

It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, at any Time after the passing of this Act, by Commission under the Royal Sign Manual, to appoint such and so many Persons in England as to Her Majesty may seem fit to examine and consider the Recommendations of the said Indian Law Commissioners, and the Enactments proposed by them for the Reform of the Judicial Establishments, Judicial Procedure, and Laws of India, and such other Matters in relation to the Reform of the said Judicial Establishments, Judicial Procedure, and Laws, as may, by or with the Sanction of the Commissioners for the Affairs of India, be referred to them for their Consideration, and to authorize and direct the Persons so appointed, or such Number as may be limited by their Commission in this Behalf, to report their Opinion to Her Majesty on the

Recital of Provisions of 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 85. as to Appointment of Indian Law Commissioners.

Her Majesty may appoint Commissioners in England to consider and report on the Reforms proposed by the Indian Law Commissioners.

C A P. XCVII

An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws for the Provision and Regulation of Lunatic Asylums for Counties and Boroughs, and for the Maintenance and Care of Pauper Lunatics, in England. [20th August 1853.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

8 & 9 Vict.
c. 126.,
9 & 10 Vict.
c. 84., and
10 & 11 Vict.
c. 49. repealed,
but not to affect Appointments,
&c.

I. The following Acts relating to Lunatic Asylums for Counties and Boroughs, and the Maintenance and Care of Pauper Lunatics, in England, (that is to say,) an Act of the Session holden in the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twenty-six, an Act of the Session holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty-four, and an Act of the Session holden in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Forty-three, shall be repealed; but such Repeal shall not interfere with or affect any Appointment, Salary, or Annuity made or granted, or Act done, or Agreement or Contract entered into or made, or prevent or defeat any Prosecution or Proceeding for any Offence committed or any Penalty or Forfeiture incurred before the Commencement of this Act, but every such Agreement or Contract shall and may (subject to the Provisions herein-after contained in relation thereto) be carried into effect and enforced, and every such Offence prosecuted, and every such Penalty and Forfeiture sued for, recovered, and applied, and every pending Prosecution or Proceeding continued, in like Manner as if this Act had not been passed.

As to providing Asylums and Appointment of Committees of Visitors.

Justices of County and Borough not having a Lunatic Asylum to provide one, and before a certain Time give Notice of Intention to appoint a Committee for that Purpose.

II. The Justices of every County and (save as herein-after otherwise provided) of every Borough not having an Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics thereof, shall provide an Asylum in manner herein directed, (that is to say,) the Justices of every such County and the Recorder of every such Borough shall at or before the General or Quarter Sessions for such County or Borough next after the Twentieth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three direct public Notice to be given by the Clerk of the Peace of such County or Borough in some Newspaper or Newspapers commonly circulated in such County or Borough, of the Intention of the Justices of such County or Borough to appoint at the then next General or Quarter Sessions for such County, or (in the Case of a Borough) at a Special Meeting of the Justices of such Borough to be fixed in such Notice, and to be holden within Three Months from the Date thereof, a Committee of Justices to provide an Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics of such County or Borough, under the Provisions of this Act; and the Clerk of the Peace of such County or Borough shall, within Ten Days after being so directed as aforesaid, cause such Notice to be given accordingly.

Justices to appoint a Committee to superintend the providing of an

ther themselves determine in which of the Modes herein-after mentioned an Asylum shall be provided for such County or Borough, or shall refer the Selection to the Committee to be appointed as herein-after mentioned, and shall elect some Justices of such County or Borough to be a Committee to provide such Asylum, and may authorize such Committee to provide such Asylum, in such of the Modes herein-after mentioned as the said Justices shall have determined, (that is to say,) to superintend the erecting or providing of an Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics of such County or Borough for such County or Borough alone, or to treat and enter into an Agreement for uniting with any County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs, alone or together with the Subscribers to any Hospital for the Reception of Lunatics, established or in course of Erection, or afterwards to be established, or for uniting with any County or Counties and Borough or Boroughs jointly, or jointly and also together with the Subscribers to any such Hospital as aforesaid, in erecting or otherwise providing an Asylum under or for the Purposes of this Act, as the Justices appointing such Committee may have determined, or in case the said Justices appointing such Committee think fit to refer the Selection of the Mode in which such Asylum shall be provided to the Committee, they may authorize such Committee to provide such Asylum in such of the Modes aforesaid as to the Committee may seem best ; and any Committee so authorized to treat and enter into an Agreement may treat and enter into such Agreement with any Committee or Committees having due Authority in that Behalf under this Act, or any former Act, for any County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs, or on behalf of any such Subscribers as aforesaid, and with any Committee of Visitors of any existing Asylum, and whether or not any previous Agreement for uniting may have been already entered into between some of the Parties under this Act or any former Act ; and by any such Agreement to be entered into as aforesaid the several Committees, Parties thereto, may, to the Extent of their Authority, in lieu of agreeing to erect or provide an Asylum, or in addition thereto, and in consideration of any Payment in gross or of the Payment of any Sum in the Nature of Rent or otherwise, agree for the joint Use of any existing Asylum or Hospital, and, where they think fit, for enlarging the same.

IV. It shall be lawful for the major Part of such of the Subscribers to any such Hospital as aforesaid as shall be present at any Meeting of such Subscribers called together expressly for this Purpose by Advertisement in a Newspaper commonly circulated in the Place where such Hospital is or is intended to be situate, to elect any Number of such Subscribers not exceeding Five to be a Committee to treat and enter into an Agreement for uniting with any County or Counties or Borough or Boroughs alone, or any County or Counties and Borough or Boroughs jointly, under and for the Purposes of this Act ; and where any such Agreement has been or shall be entered into under any former Act or this Act, nothing in this Act shall prevent the Reception into the Asylum provided under such Agreement, or the Discharge therefrom, of so many of any Lunatics other than Asylum, or to treat for uniting with some County, &c., or to effect one or other of such Purposes.

Subscribers to any Hospital empowered to appoint a Committee to treat for uniting with any County or Borough, &c.

Pauper Lunatics as might have been received into such Hospital or Asylum if this Act had not been passed.

Committees of Visitors of existing Asylums may enter into Agreements to unite.

V. It shall be lawful for the Committee of Visitors of any Asylum already provided for any County or Borough, alone or otherwise, to enter into an Agreement for uniting for the Purposes of this Act with any County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs, alone or together with the Subscribers to any such Hospital as aforesaid, or for uniting with any County or Counties and Borough or Boroughs jointly, or jointly and also together with the Subscribers to any such Hospital.

Saving where a Committee is already appointed, or Proceedings for the Appointment of a Committee have been commenced.

VI. Provided always, That where a Committee has been appointed before the Commencement of this Act for any County or Borough for any of the Purposes aforesaid, or Proceedings have been taken for or towards the Appointment of a Committee for any of the said Purposes, nothing herein contained shall render it necessary to proceed afresh to the Appointment of a Committee for any of such Purposes; and any Proceedings already taken as aforesaid shall remain in force and be continued; and all the Provisions of this Act shall be applicable to any such Committee already appointed, or to be appointed under such Proceedings, in like Manner as if such Committee had been appointed under the Provisions of this Act.

Justices of Boroughs may contract with Committees of Visitors, &c. for Reception of the Pauper Lunatics of the Borough.

VII. Provided also, That it shall be lawful for the Justices of any such Borough as aforesaid, at such Special Meeting, if they think fit, in lieu of electing a Committee to superintend the erecting or providing of an Asylum, or to treat for uniting, as hereinbefore mentioned, or to effect either of such Purposes, to elect a Committee of Justices of such Borough to contract with any Committee of Visitors of any existing Asylum, or any Committee providing or about to provide an Asylum, whether for any County or Borough, alone or otherwise, for the Reception of the Pauper Lunatics of such first-mentioned Borough into such Asylum, in consideration of such Payment in gross, or such annual or periodical Payment, and upon and subject to such Terms, Stipulations, and Conditions as to the Duration and Determination of the Contract, and otherwise, as may be agreed upon; and it shall be lawful for any Committee of Visitors of any existing Asylum, or any other such Committee as last aforesaid, to contract with the Committee for any such Borough accordingly; and during the Continuance of such Contract the Justices of such Borough shall, at a Special Meeting of such Justices to be holden within Twenty Days after the Twentieth Day of December in every Year, appoint a Committee of such Justices to visit the Pauper Lunatics sent from such Borough to such Asylum, and Two at least of the Members of such Committee shall together once at the least in every Six Months visit such Asylum, and see and examine as far as Circumstances will permit every Lunatic received into such Asylum under such Contract, and shall after each such Visit report the Result thereof, with such Remarks as they think fit, to the Justices of such Borough at a Special Meeting of such Justices; and the Justices making any such Visit may, if they see fit, be accompanied by some Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, other than a Medical Officer of the Asylum; and such Justices and Circumstances of the Death of such Patient, he shall summon a Jury to inquire into the Cause of such Death.

XX. Any Person, having Authority to order the Discharge of any Patient (not being a Pauper) from any Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House, or of any single Patient, may, with the previous Consent in Writing of Two of the Commissioners, direct, by an Order in Writing under his Hand, the Removal of such Patient to any Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House, or to the Care or Charge of any Person mentioned or named in such Order; and every such Order and Consent shall be made and given respectively in duplicate, and One of the Duplicates shall be delivered to and left with the Superintendent or Proprietor of the Asylum, Hospital, or House from which or the Person from whose Care or Charge the Patient is ordered to be removed, and the other Duplicate shall be delivered to and left with the Superintendent or Proprietor of the Asylum, Hospital, or House into which or the Person into whose Care or Charge the Patient is ordered to be removed; and such Order for Removal, together with such Consent in Writing, shall be a sufficient Authority for the Removal of such Patient, and also for his Reception into the Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House into which or by the Person into whose Care or Charge he is ordered to be removed: Provided always, that a Copy of the Order and Certificates upon which such Patient was received into the Asylum, Hospital, or House from which he is removed, or as a single Patient, by the Person from whose Care he is removed, certified under the Hand of the Superintendent or Proprietor of such Asylum, Hospital, or House, or of such Person as last aforesaid, to be a true Copy, shall be furnished by him free of Expense, and shall be delivered, with One Duplicate of the said Order of Removal and Consent, to the Superintendent or Proprietor of the Asylum, Hospital, or House to which or to the Person to whose Care or Charge such Patient is removed.

Provision authorizing Transfer of private and single Patients.

XXI. Every Person from whose Care or Charge any single Patient shall be discharged shall transmit to the Commissioners a written Notice of such Discharge within the like Period, and under the like Penalty for Default, as by the said recited Act is required and provided in the Case of the Discharge of a Patient from a licensed House.

Notice of Discharge of single Patients to be sent to the Commissioners.

XXII. It shall be lawful for any Person having the Care or Charge of a single Patient to change his Residence, and remove such Patient to any new Residence of such Person, in England, provided that Seven clear Days before such Change of Residence he give Notice in Writing thereof, and of the Place of such new Residence, to the Commissioners and to the Person who signed the Order for the Reception of such Patient, or by whom the last Payment on account of such Patient was made; and it shall be lawful for any Person having the Care or Charge of any single Patient, having first obtained the Consent of Two of the Commissioners, to take or send such Patient, under proper Control, to any specified Place or Places, for any definite Time, for the Benefit of his Health: Provided always, that before any such Consent shall be given, the Approval in Writing of the Person who signed the Order for the Reception of such Patient, or by whom Provisions as to Change of Residence of Persons having Charge of single Patients, and temporary Removal of such Patients for Benefit of Health.

Members of Committee of Visitors.

to be Members of the Committee of Visitors of the Asylum of the County to which such Borough is or shall be annexed; and the Justices of every County to which any Borough is or shall be annexed as aforesaid shall, at their General or Quarter Sessions, from Time to Time fix the Sum to be contributed by such Borough towards the Expenses of and incident to erecting, providing, and maintaining the Asylum of such County, according to the comparative Population of such Borough and County as stated in the then last Returns made of the same under the Authority of Parliament, and cause Notice thereof in Writing to be given to the Treasurer of such Borough, and such Sum shall be raised by a Borough Rate to be made by the Council of the Borough in manner directed by the Act of the Session holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth, "to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales" or out of the Borough Fund, if the Council think fit, and shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Borough to the Treasurer of the Asylum.

5 & 6 W. 4.
c. 76.

Boroughs neglecting to provide an Asylum or to contract for Care of their Pauper Lunatics may be annexed by Secretary of State to the County.

X. If at any Time after the Expiration of One Year after the passing of this Act it appear to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, upon the Report of the Commissioners in Lunacy, that the Justices of any Borough by this Act required to provide an Asylum, or contract for the Care of the Pauper Lunatics thereof, have not provided an Asylum, or entered into an Agreement for that Purpose, or into a subsisting Contract making adequate Provision for the Care of the Pauper Lunatics thereof in some Asylum, and that any Asylum belonging wholly or in part to the County or any of the Counties (if more than One in which such Borough is locally situate, either wholly or in part, is capable of affording Accommodation for the Pauper Lunatics of such Borough, or may be conveniently enlarged so as to afford such Accommodation, it shall be lawful for such Secretary of State, with the Consent of the Committee of Visitors of such Asylum, by Writing under his Hand, to annex such Borough for the Purposes of this Act to such County; and the Justices of every Borough so annexed under this Provision shall, at a Special Meeting of such Justices to be holden within Twenty Days after the Twentieth Day of December in every Year, appoint Two Justices of such Borough to be Members of the Committee of Visitors of the Asylum of the County to which such Borough shall be annexed; and the Provision in the Enactment lastly herein-before contained in relation to the Contribution by a Borough annexed to a County under such Enactment to the Expenses of the Asylum of such County, shall extend to any Borough so annexed under this Provision.

Justices of Borough so annexed shall appoint Two Justices to be Members of Committee of Visitors.

Powers of Committees may be enlarged.

XI. Where any Committee has been appointed for any County or Borough (whether before or after the passing of this Act) for any of the Purposes herein-before mentioned, it shall be lawful for the Justices of such County or Borough, if they think fit, at any General or Quarter Sessions for such County, or (in the Case of a Borough) at any Special Meeting of the Justices of such Borough, after like public Notice as is required in the Case of the first Appointment of the Committee, to enlarge or alter the Powers of the Committee, so as to vest in the Committee any such Powers

Powers as might be vested in any Committee on the original Appointment thereof under this Act, and, if the Justices see fit so to do, to appoint additional Members of the said Committee, and every such Committee shall have the like Powers, and the Provisions of this Act shall be applicable to such Committee in like Manner as if such Committee had been originally appointed with the Powers so vested in them under such Enlargement or Alteration of their Powers.

XII. Where any Committee appointed for any County or Borough (either before or after the passing of this Act) for any of the Purposes herein-before mentioned has ceased or shall hereafter cease to exist, without carrying into effect the Purposes for which it was appointed, or, if appointed for the Purpose only of treating for uniting or of contracting as aforesaid, has reported or shall hereafter report that it is not practicable or expedient to enter into an Agreement for uniting or into the proposed Contract, or to that Effect, the Justices of such County or the Recorder of such Borough shall, at or before the General or Quarter Sessions next after the passing of this Act, or next after the Occasion has arisen, cause public Notice to be given, in manner herein directed in the Case of the Original Appointment of a Committee under this Act for any of the said Purposes, of the Intention of the Justices of such County or Borough to appoint at the then next General or Quarter Sessions for such County, or (in the Case of a Borough) at some Special Meeting of the Justices of such Borough to be fixed in the Notice and to be holden within Three Months from the Date thereof, a Committee in lieu of the Committee previously appointed as aforesaid; and such Notice having been so given, the Justices of such County or Borough shall, at the then next General or Quarter Sessions for such County, or at such Special Meeting as aforesaid of the Justices of such Borough, appoint a Committee accordingly, and shall have the like Discretion and Authority for determining the Purposes for which such Committee shall be appointed as in the Case of an original Appointment of a Committee under the Provisions herein-before contained; or such Justices may, if they think fit, in lieu of appointing a new Committee in the Place of any such Committee appointed only for the Purpose of treating for uniting or of contracting as aforesaid, and which may have reported that it is not practicable or expedient to enter into an Agreement for uniting or into the proposed Contract, or to that Effect, enlarge or alter the Powers of such Committee as herein-before provided, and, if such Justices think fit, appoint additional Members of such Committee.

XIII. Provided always, That where the Justices of any County or the Recorder of any Borough have or has not, in pursuance of any of the Provisions herein-before contained, at or before such General or Quarter Sessions as in that Behalf required, caused Notice to be given of the Intention of the Justices of such County or Borough to appoint a Committee under this Act, it shall be lawful for the Justices of such County or the Recorder of such Borough, at or before any subsequent General or Quarter Sessions, to cause such Notice to be given in manner required by this Act; and the Appointment of a Committee in pursuance of such Notice, or the Enlargement or Alteration of the Powers of any existing

New Committees to be appointed in lieu of Committees which have ceased or shall hereafter cease to exist, &c.

Notice for Appointment of a Committee given at a Time subsequent to that required by this Act, and such Appointment to be valid.

viding of an

elves determine in which of the Modes herein-after an Asylum shall be provided for such County or shall refer the Selection to the Committee to be herein-after mentioned, and shall elect some Justices of the Peace of the County or Borough to be a Committee to provide such Asylum, or to authorize such Committee to provide such Asylum of the Modes herein-after mentioned as the said Justices may have determined, (that is to say,) to superintend the providing of an Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics of such County or Borough for such County or Borough alone, or to enter into an Agreement for uniting with any County or Borough or Boroughs, alone or together with the Justices of the Peace of any Hospital for the Reception of Lunatics, establishment or course of Ereption, or afterwards to be established, or to agree with any County or Counties and Borough or Boroughs, singly, or jointly and also together with the Subscribers of such Hospital as aforesaid, in erecting or otherwise providing an Asylum under or for the Purposes of this Act, as the Justices appointing such Committee may have determined, or in which the Justices appointing such Committee think fit to refer to the Mode in which such Asylum shall be provided; and the Committee, they may authorize such Committee to provide such Asylum in such of the Modes aforesaid as to the Committee may seem best; and any Committee so authorized to treat and enter into such Agreement may treat and enter into such Agreement with any County or Counties, or with any Committee or Committees having due Authority under this Act, or any former Act, for any County or Borough or Boroughs, or on behalf of any such County or Counties aforesaid, and with any Committee of Visitors of such Asylum, and whether or not any previous Agreement may have been already entered into between some County or Counties under this Act or any former Act; and by any Agreement so entered into as aforesaid the several Commissions thereto, may, to the Extent of their Authority, agree to erect or provide an Asylum, or in addition to the same, in consideration of any Payment in gross or of the receipt of any Sum in the Nature of Rent or otherwise, agree to the Use of any existing Asylum or Hospital, and, where necessary, for enlarging the same.

It shall be lawful for the major Part of such of the Subscribers of any such Hospital as aforesaid as shall be present at any Meeting of such Subscribers called together expressly for the Purpose of this Act by Advertisement in a Newspaper commonly circulated in the Place where such Hospital is or is intended to be erected, or at any Number of such Subscribers not exceeding a Quarter of the whole of such Subscribers, to appoint a Committee to treat and enter into an Agreement for the providing of an Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics of any County or Counties or Borough or Boroughs, or for the Purposes of this Act; and where any Agreement has been or shall be entered into under any Act in relation to this Act, nothing in this Act shall prevent the carrying into effect of the same to the Asylum provided under such Agreement, or the admission of any Pauper theretofrom, of so many of any Lunatics other than

Asylum, or to treat for uniting with some County, &c., or to effect one or other of such Purposes.

Subscribers to any Hospital empowered to appoint a Committee to treat for uniting with any County or Borough, &c.

Pauper Lunatics as might have been received into such Hospital or Asylum if this Act had not been passed.

Committees of Visitors of existing Asylums may enter into Agreements to unite.

V. It shall be lawful for the Committee of Visitors of any Asylum already provided for any County or Borough, alone or otherwise, to enter into an Agreement for uniting for the Purposes of this Act with any County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs, alone or together with the Subscribers to any such Hospital as aforesaid, or for uniting with any County or Counties and Borough or Boroughs jointly; or jointly and also together with the Subscribers to any such Hospital.

Saving where a Committee is already appointed, or Proceedings for the Appointment of a Committee have been commenced.

VI. Provided always, That where a Committee has been appointed before the Commencement of this Act for any County or Borough for any of the Purposes aforesaid, or Proceedings have been taken for or towards the Appointment of a Committee for any of the said Purposes, nothing herein contained shall render it necessary to proceed afresh to the Appointment of a Committee for any of such Purposes; and any Proceedings already taken as aforesaid shall remain in force and be continued; and all the Provisions of this Act shall be applicable to any such Committee already appointed, or to be appointed under such Proceedings, in like Manner as if such Committee had been appointed under the Provisions of this Act.

Justices of Boroughs may contract with Committees of Visitors, &c. for Reception of the Pauper Lunatics of the Borough

VII. Provided also, That it shall be lawful for the Justices of any such Borough as aforesaid, at such Special Meeting, if they think fit, in lieu of electing a Committee to superintend the erecting or providing of an Asylum, or to treat for uniting, as hereinbefore mentioned, or to effect either of such Purposes, to elect a Committee of Justices of such Borough to contract with any Committee of Visitors of any existing Asylum, or any Committee providing or about to provide an Asylum, whether for any County or Borough, alone or otherwise, for the Reception of the Pauper Lunatics of such first-mentioned Borough into such Asylum, in consideration of such Payment in gross, or such annual or periodical Payment, and upon and subject to such Terms, Stipulations, and Conditions as to the Duration and Determination of the Contract, and otherwise, as may be agreed upon; and it shall be lawful for any Committee of Visitors of any existing Asylum, or any other such Committee as last aforesaid, to contract with the Committee for any such Borough accordingly; and during the Continuance of such Contract the Justices of such Borough shall, at a Special Meeting of such Justices to be holden within Twenty Days after the Twentieth Day of December in every Year, appoint a Committee of such Justices to visit the Pauper Lunatics sent from such Borough to such Asylum, and Two at least of the Members of such Committee shall together once at the least in every Six Months visit such Asylum, and see and examine as far as Circumstances will permit every Lunatic received into such Asylum under such Contract, and shall after each such Visit report the Result thereof, with such Remarks as they think fit to the Justices of such Borough at a Special Meeting of such Justices; and the Justices making any such Visit may, if they see fit, be accompanied by some Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, other than a Medical Officer of the Asylum; and such

by Writing under their Hands order the Payment of such reasonable Services on any such Visit as they may think fit, shall, upon the Production of such Order, be paid to the Justice, or Justice of the Peace, or Justice of the Peace, or Apothecary by the Treasurer of the County; and every Report of such Justices so visiting and made among the Records of the Court of Quarter Sessions for each Borough, and shall be open to the Inspection of the Commissioners in Lunacy; and such Commissioners shall, if they think fit, require a Copy of every or any such Report made and returned to them by the Clerk of the Peace of such County, while any such Contract making adequate Provision for the Support of Pauper Lunatics of such Borough is in force such Contract shall not be required to provide an Asylum for itself, but as herein-before mentioned.

And also, That every Borough situate within a County, which at the passing of the said Act of the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty contributed and still contributes to such County, shall be considered as having an Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics of such County; but it shall be lawful for any such Borough, at any Time hereafter, upon giving Six Months Notice in Writing to the Hand of the Town Clerk, in pursuance of the Order of the Council of such Borough, to the Clerk of the County, to separate itself, so far as relates to the Maintenance of a Lunatic Asylum for such County, and the Support of the Lunatics therein, from such County, and from and the Operation of such Notice such Borough shall for the future be deemed a Borough not having an Asylum for the Support of Lunatics thereof; and from and after the Expiration of such Notice, and the Withdrawal from such County of all Lunatics from or belonging to such Borough, such Borough shall not be liable to pay or contribute towards the Maintenance or Establishment of such Asylum, or the Maintenance of the Lunatics therein, but until the Withdrawal from such County of all Lunatics from or belonging to such Borough, such Borough shall be liable to contribute towards the Expenses of such County, in the same Manner and to the same Extent as if such County had not been given.

And also, That every Borough in which at the passing of the said Act of the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty there were not Six Justices besides a Recorder or Justice of the Peace, for the Purposes of this Act, be annexed to and be Part of such County, in which it is wholly situate, or in case it be not wholly situate in any One County shall for the Purposes of this Act be annexed to and be Part of such One of the Counties in which it is situate as such Borough may have been annexed to at the passing of the said Act of the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty, and if not so annexed then the same shall be annexed to such One of the said Counties as One of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State shall by Writing under the Hand of the Recorder of every such Borough shall, at the next Quarter Sessions next after the Twentieth Day of January in every Year, appoint Two Justices of such Borough

Boroughs now contributing to a County Asylum deemed to have an Asylum, but upon Notice may separate from the County.

Every Borough not having Six Justices, besides the Recorder, to be annexed to the County or One of the Counties in which it is situate, for Purposes of this Act.

Recorder to appoint Two Justices to be

Visitors.

to be Members of the Committee of Visitors of the Asylum of the County to which such Borough is or shall be annexed; and the Justices of every County to which any Borough is or shall be annexed as aforesaid shall, at their General or Quarter Sessions, from Time to Time fix the Sum to be contributed by such Borough towards the Expenses of and incident to erecting, providing, and maintaining the Asylum of such County, according to the comparative Population of such Borough and County as stated in the then last Returns made of the same under the Authority of Parliament, and cause Notice thereof in Writing to be given to the Treasurer of such Borough, and such Sum shall be raised by a Borough Rate to be made by the Council of the Borough in manner directed by the Act of the Session holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth, "to provide for the "Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales" or out of the Borough Fund, if the Council think fit, and shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Borough to the Treasurer of the Asylum.

5 & 6 W. 4.
c. 76.

Boroughs neglecting to provide an Asylum or to contract for Care of their Pauper Lunatics may be annexed by Secretary of State to the County.

X. If at any Time after the Expiration of One Year after the passing of this Act it appear to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, upon the Report of the Commissioners in Lunacy, that the Justices of any Borough by this Act required to provide an Asylum, or contract for the Care of the Pauper Lunatics thereof, have not provided an Asylum, or entered into an Agreement for that Purpose, or into a subsisting Contract making adequate Provision for the Care of the Pauper Lunatics thereof in some Asylum, and that any Asylum belonging wholly or in part to the County or any of the Counties (if more than One) in which such Borough is locally situate, either wholly or in part, is capable of affording Accommodation for the Pauper Lunatics of such Borough, or may be conveniently enlarged so as to afford such Accommodation, it shall be lawful for such Secretary of State, with the Consent of the Committee of Visitors of such Asylum, by Writing under his Hand, to annex such Borough for the Purposes of this Act to such County; and the Justices of every Borough so annexed under this Provision shall, at a Special Meeting of such Justices to be holden within Twenty Days after the Twentieth Day of December in every Year, appoint Two Justices of such Borough to be Members of the Committee of Visitors of the Asylum of the County to which such Borough shall be annexed; and the Provision in the Enactment lastly herein-before contained in relation to the Contribution by a Borough annexed to a County under such Enactment to the Expenses of the Asylum of such County, shall extend to any Borough so annexed under this Provision.

Justices of Borough so annexed shall appoint Two Justices to be Members of Committee of Visitors.

Powers of Committees may be enlarged.

XI. Where any Committee has been appointed for any County or Borough (whether before or after the passing of this Act) for any of the Purposes herein-before mentioned, it shall be lawful for the Justices of such County or Borough, if they think fit, at any General or Quarter Sessions for such County, or (in the Case of a Borough) at any Special Meeting of the Justices of such Borough, after like public Notice as is required in the Case of the first Appointment of the Committee, to enlarge or alter the Powers of the Committee, so as to vest in the Committee any such Powers might be vested in any Committee on the original intent thereof under this Act, and, if the Justices see fit to appoint additional Members of the said Committee, such Committee shall have the like Powers, and the Provisions of this Act shall be applicable to such Committee in the same manner as if such Committee had been originally appointed, and the Powers so vested in them under such Enlargement or Alteration of their Powers.

Where any Committee appointed for any County or Borough (whether before or after the passing of this Act) for any of the Purposes herein-before mentioned has ceased or shall hereafter cease to exist, without carrying into effect the Purposes for which it was appointed, or, if appointed for the Purpose only of treating for uniting or of contracting as aforesaid, has reported hereafter report that it is not practicable or expedient to enter into an Agreement for uniting or into the proposed Contract to that Effect, the Justices of such County or the Recorder or Recorder of Borough shall, at or before the General or Quarter Sessions next after the passing of this Act, or next after the Occasion has been given of public Notice to be given, in manner herein directed of the Original Appointment of a Committee under the Provisions of any of the said Purposes, of the Intention of the Justices of such County or Borough to appoint at the then next General or Quarter Sessions for such County, or (in the Case of a Borough) at some Special Meeting of the Justices of such Borough, public Notice to be given in the Notice and to be holden within Three Months next after the date thereof, a Committee in lieu of the Committee previously appointed as aforesaid; and such Notice having been so given, the Justices of such County or Borough shall, at the then next General or Quarter Sessions for such County, or at such Special Meeting as aforesaid of the Justices of such Borough, appoint a Committee accordingly, and shall have the like Discretionary Authority for determining the Purposes for which such Committee shall be appointed as in the Case of an original Appointment of a Committee under the Provisions herein-before contained; and the Justices may, if they think fit, in lieu of appointing a Committee in the Place of any such Committee appointed as aforesaid, for the Purpose of treating for uniting or of contracting as aforesaid, and which may have reported that it is not practicable or expedient to enter into an Agreement for uniting or into the proposed Contract, or to that Effect, enlarge or alter the Powers of such Committee as herein-before provided, and, if such Justices think fit, appoint additional Members of such Committee.

Provided always, That where the Justices of any County or Borough or Recorder of any Borough have or has not, in pursuance of the Provisions herein-before contained, at or before such Special Meeting or Quarter Sessions as in that Behalf required, caused public Notice to be given of the Intention of the Justices of such County or Borough to appoint a Committee under this Act, it shall be the Duty of the Justices of such County or the Recorder of such County or Borough at or before any subsequent General or Quarter Sessions next after the giving of such Notice to be given in manner required by this Act of the Appointment of a Committee in pursuance of such Provisions, and the Enlargement or Alteration of the Powers of any Committee so appointed, existing

New Committees to be appointed in lieu of Committees which have ceased or shall hereafter cease to exist, &c.

Notice for Appointment of a Committee given at a Time subsequent to that required by this Act, and such Appointment to be valid.

existing Committee, and the Appointment of any additional Members of such Committee, at the Sessions or Meeting for which such Notice has been given, shall be valid.

Committees uniting to enter into Agreement in the Form in Schedule (A.)

XIV. When Two or more Committees agree to unite for the Purposes of this Act, an Agreement shall be entered into and signed by the several Committees uniting, or the major Part of such Committees respectively, in the Form or to the Effect set forth in Schedule (A.) to this Act; and such Agreement, when signed by the major Part of each such Committee, and not before, shall be binding upon every County and Borough, and the Subscribers (if any) for or on behalf of which or whom such Agreement has been entered into; and every such Agreement shall specify the Proportion in which the Expenses necessary for carrying into execution the Purposes of this Act shall be charged upon each County and Borough, and the Subscribers (if any) so uniting; and the Proportions of the Counties and Boroughs uniting shall be calculated and fixed with reference to their respective Populations as stated in the then last Return made of the same under the Authority of Parliament; and where under any such Agreement a Right to the joint Use of any existing Asylum or Hospital is required by any County or Borough, or the Subscribers to any Hospital, such Agreement shall fix the Sum to be paid by such County, Borough, or Subscribers towards the Expenses already incurred in erecting or providing such Asylum or Hospital.

Additional Stipulations or Conditions may be inserted in Agreement, but not so as to subject Acts of Visitors to Control of General or Quarter Sessions.

XV. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for such Committees to insert in the Agreement to be entered into by them any Stipulations or Conditions, in addition to the Matters by this Act required to be specified in such Agreement, so that such additional Stipulations or Conditions do not in any way subject the Acts of the Committee of Visitors to the Approval or Control of any Court of General or Quarter Sessions, or of any Justice, in any Case not provided for by this Act, and the additional Stipulations and Conditions so inserted in the said Agreement shall be of the same Force and Effect as the Matters so required to be specified, notwithstanding that such additional Stipulations or Conditions may control in any other Manner than as hereinbefore specified and excepted the Discretion and Acts of the Committee of Visitors as regulated by this Act, or may require the Consent or Approval of, or may subject the Acts or Orders of the Visitors to be disallowed, modified, or controlled by, One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in Cases not provided for by this Act; but any Stipulations or Conditions subjecting the Acts of the Committee of Visitors to the Approval or Control of any Court of General or Quarter Sessions, or of any Justice, in any Case not provided for by this Act, shall be void and of none effect.

With Consent of Visitors, Stipulations or Conditions may be repealed.

XVI. Provided also, That with the Consent in Writing under the Hands of the greater Number of Visitors of each County and Borough, and of the greater Number of Visitors of any Body of Subscribers united under any Agreement entered into under this Act or any former Act, and with the previous Consent in Writing under the Hand of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Committee of Visitors may from Time to Time repeal or alter any of the Stipulations or Conditions of such Agreement,

but

to subject the Acts of the Committee of Visitors to the Control of any Court of General or Quarter Sessions or any Justices, in any Case not provided for by this

Where any Agreement for uniting has been entered into under this Act or any former Act, and the Union effected is added to by an Agreement for further Union, the Proportions of Expenses and of Visitors may be varied on any further Union being effected.

in which any Expenses are under any former Agreement to be charged on the Counties or Boroughs, or on the Towns and Boroughs, and the Subscribers, if any, uniting, and the Proportions in which Visitors are to be elected for and on the Counties or Boroughs, or Counties and Boroughs, or Towns and Boroughs (if any), may be altered as may be agreed upon.

Where under an Agreement for Union any Money is to be paid towards the Expenses already incurred by any County or Borough in erecting or providing any Asylum, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of such County or Borough, and shall be applied in Liquidation and Payment, pro tanto, of the Monies, if any, which shall have been raised by such County or Borough for the purposes of this Act or the Acts hereby repealed, or any of them, in such Manner as the Justices of such County at any Quarter Sessions for the same, or the Council of such County, shall respectively order and direct, or if all such Monies have been paid, then the same shall be applied in diminution of the Money to be made in pursuance of this Act.

When any Agreement has been entered into and signed under this Act, the Committee for each County and Borough in which the same has been entered into shall report the same to the Justices of such County or the Recorder of such County at the then next General or Quarter Sessions; and the original of the Agreement shall, at such Sessions for the County or Borough in which the Asylum to which the same relates is situated, be delivered to the Clerk of the Peace of such County or Borough, to be by him entered among the Records thereof; and a Copy of such Agreement shall at such Sessions for each other County or Borough on behalf of which the same has been entered into be delivered to the Clerk of the Peace of such County or Borough, to be by him entered among the Records thereof; and a Copy of every such Agreement shall be sent by the Clerk of the Peace to whom the original of the same is delivered, within Twenty Days after the Delivery thereof, to the Commissioners in Lunacy; and any of the Justices of any County or Borough on behalf of which such Agreement has been entered into, and any Commissioner in Lunacy, shall be bound, without Payment, to inspect the original Agreement so delivered to the Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid; and any Justice of the Peace hereby required to send to the said Commissioners a Copy of any Agreement, who shall neglect so to do, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, and the same Penalty shall extend and be applicable to and in respect of any Agreement by which any of the Stipulations or Conditions

As to Payment and Application of Money paid towards prior Expenses, or becoming repayable under Agreement for further Union.

Committees of Justices to report Agreement to Quarter Sessions, and the Original to be delivered to Clerk of the Peace of the County or Borough in which the Asylum is situate, and a Copy to Clerk of the Peace of each other County and Borough.

ditions in any Agreement entered into under this Act or any former Act shall be repealed or altered.

After Agreement for uniting is reported, Visitors to be elected for carrying same into effect.

XX. When any Agreement for uniting has been entered into, signed, and reported as aforesaid, the Justices of every County to which the same relates shall, at the General or Quarter Sessions to which such Agreement is reported, elect from among the Justices of such County the Number of Visitors allotted to such County in the Agreement; and the Justices of every Borough to which such Agreement relates shall, at a Special Meeting of such Justice to be holden within Twenty Days after such Agreement has been reported to the General or Quarter Sessions for such Borough, elect from among the Justices of such Borough the Number of Visitors allotted to such Borough in the Agreement; and the Majority of such of the Subscribers to any Hospital to which such Agreement relates as shall be present at a Meeting of such Subscribers to be holden within Twenty-eight Days after the signing of such Agreement, and of which Meeting public Notice shall have been given by Advertisement in some Newspaper circulated in the Place in which such Hospital is situate or is intended to be situate, shall elect from among such Subscribers the Number of Visitors allotted to the Subscribers to such Hospital in such Agreement; and the Visitors so elected as aforesaid shall together form and be the Committee of Visitors for carrying such Agreement into effect.

Committee superintending Erection of Asylums to be the Committee of Visitors.

XXI. Every Committee elected for any County or Borough as herein-before provided, and authorized to superintend the erecting or providing of an Asylum for such County or Borough, shall, until the Election of Visitors or a Committee of Visitors for such County or Borough, or the Asylum thereof, under any of the Provisions herein contained, be deemed the Committee of Visitors for such County or Borough.

Visitors to be elected annually for Asylums.

XXII. At the General or Quarter Sessions to be held next after the Twentieth Day of December in every Year the Justices of every County, and at a Special Meeting to be held within Twenty Days after the Twentieth Day of December in every Year the Justices of every Borough, having for the Time being an Asylum (whether provided before or after the passing of this Act) either for the sole Use of such County or Borough or under any Agreement for uniting as aforesaid, shall elect some Justices of such County or Borough to be Visitors on behalf of such County or Borough for the said Asylum during the Year next ensuing the Election; and where such Asylum has been provided under any Agreement for uniting entered into with any such Subscribers as aforesaid, the Majority of such of the Subscribers as shall be present at a Meeting to be holden in the Month of January in every Year, of which Notice shall have been given by public Advertisement in some Newspaper circulated within the Place in which such Asylum is situate, shall elect some of such Subscribers to be Visitors for such Asylum during the Year then next ensuing; and where such Asylum is for the sole Use of any One County or Borough, the Visitors elected for such County or Borough as aforesaid shall be "the Committee of Visitors" of such Asylum; and where such Asylum has been provided under any Agreement for uniting, the Visitors elected

d on behalf of every County and Borough, and the Sub-(any) to which the Asylum belongs, shall together form the Committee of Visitors" of such Asylum: Provided that the Number of the Committee of Visitors of any Borough having an Asylum for its sole Use shall not be more than Seven; and that in all other Cases the Number of to be elected on behalf of every County and Borough, by a Body of Subscribers, to form and be the Committee of shall be the Number provided for in the Agreement.

1. Where any County or Borough has more than One a separate Committee of Visitors shall be appointed as for every such Asylum, each of which Committees shall have the Powers and be subject to all the Provisions of this Act in regard to the Asylum for which it is appointed, as if it were only an Asylum for that County or Borough: Provided that it shall be lawful for the Justices of the County or Borough if they think fit, with the Approval of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to appoint the same Committee Two or more such Asylums.

2. The several Persons elected Members of any Committee of Visitors shall within One Month after their Election meet at some convenient Place to be named in a Notice in Writing given by Two or more of such Visitors, or by the Clerk of the outgoing Committee by the Direction of Two or more of such Visitors, to the several Members so elected, such Notice to be given to each Member personally, or left at his Place of Residence or transmitted to him through the Post Office, Seven Days at least before the Time appointed for such Meeting; and the said Visitors may adjourn the said Meeting from Time to Time from Place to Place, and meet where and as often as may be necessary; and the said Visitors shall at their First Meeting after their Election elect One of their Members to be their Chairman, who shall preside at all Meetings at which he is present, and in case of the Absence of the Chairman from any Meeting the Members of the Committee then present shall elect one of their Members to be Chairman for the Meeting, who shall preside at the Meeting; and to constitute a Meeting of a Committee there shall be present not less than Three Members thereof, and the adjournment, which may be made by less than Three;
 and every Question shall be decided by a Majority of Votes (the Chairman, whether permanent or temporary, having a Vote), and in the Event of an Equality of Votes on any Question the Chairman of the Time being shall have an additional or casting Vote.

The Clerk of any Committee of Visitors shall, whenever required in Writing by the Chairman or Two of the Visitors, or the Superintendent of the Asylum, and the Chairman of any Committee may, whenever he shall see fit, convene a Meeting of such Committee by a Notice in Writing to each Visitor of the said Asylum and Place of such Meeting, such Notice to be delivered, and transmitted as aforesaid by such Clerk or Chairman Seven Days at least before the Time appointed for the Meeting.

3. Every Committee of Visitors shall appoint a Clerk to attend the Meetings of the said Visitors for the Purposes of this Act, at such Salary or Allowance as such Visitors think fit, and may, if and when they think fit, remove any Clerk appointed by them, and in any such Case, or in case of the Death or Resignation of any such Clerk, shall appoint a new Clerk; and the Clerk to any Committee of Visitors of any Asylum may also be the Clerk of such Asylum; and any Clerk to any Committee of Visitors shall, unless he sooner die, resign, or be removed, continue in Office so long as such Committee continue in Office.

Committee of Visitors to continue until First Meeting of new Committee, and in default of Election of new Committee to continue as if re-elected.

XXVII. The Powers of any Committee of Visitors and of the Members of such Committee, whether appointed or elected before or after the Commencement of this Act, shall continue until the First Meeting of the Committee by which such first-mentioned Committee is to be succeeded, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding; and if the Justices of any County, or the Justices or Recorders of any Borough, or any Body of Subscribers, neglect in any Year to make such Election or Appointment as required by this Act, then the Committee of Visitors lastly before elected, or the Members of such Committee elected or appointed for such County or Borough, or on behalf of such Body of Subscribers, or such of them as shall continue to act, shall be deemed and taken to be the Committee of Visitors, or to form Part of the Committee of Visitors, as if such Committee or Members had been re-elected or re-appointed in such Year, and so from Time to Time so often as the said Justices, Recorder, or Subscribers so neglect.

Provision for supplying Vacancies in Committees.

XXVIII. In case any Member of any Committee or any Visitor, elected or appointed under this Act or any Act hereby repealed, die, resign, or become incapable to act, the Justices for the County or Borough for which such Member or Visitor was elected or appointed, at any General or Quarter Sessions for such County, or at a Special Meeting of the Justices of such Borough, or where such Visitor was appointed by the Recorder of a Borough, then the Recorder of such Borough, shall elect or appoint some other Justice in his Place; and where any such Member or Visitor has been elected on behalf of any Body of Subscribers, the Majority of such of the said Subscribers as shall be present at some Meeting called in manner provided with respect to the annual Election of Visitors shall elect some other Subscriber in his Place; but, notwithstanding any Vacancy in any Committee, the continuing Members or Visitors may act as if no such Vacancy had occurred.

Continuing Members may act.

Secretary of State may require any County or Borough not having an Asylum to provide one.

XXIX. In case at any Time after the Expiration of One Year from the Commencement of this Act it appear to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, upon the Report of the Commissioners in Lunacy, that any County or Borough has not an Asylum for the Pauper Lunatics thereof, it shall be lawful for such Secretary of State, by Writing under his Hand, to require the Justices of such County or Borough forthwith to provide a fit and sufficient Asylum for so many Pauper Lunatics as upon the Report of the said Commissioners such Secretary of State may think fit and direct, and such Justices shall forthwith proceed as herein-before mentioned to cause such Asylum to be provided: Provided always, that no Borough annexed to any County by virtue of this Act or any former Act, or on behalf of which a subsisting Contract making adequate Provision for the Care of the Pauper procure and determine on Plans and Estimates, and to contract for the Purchase of Land and Buildings, and for erecting, &c. the necessary Buildings.

Provision for the Appointment of new Trustees of Land purchased or acquired for Asylum.

XXXVII. When and so often as any Land purchased or acquired under this Act or any former Act, for the Purposes of an Asylum, shall be vested in less than Three Trustees, or there shall not be any Trustee thereof living, it shall be lawful for the Committee of Visitors of such Asylum, or any Three or more of them, by an Instrument in Writing under the Hands of such Visitors or any Three or more of them, to appoint such Number of new Trustees of such Land as such Visitors may think fit; and such Appointment shall be deposited and kept among the Records of the County or Borough, or, where more than One County or Borough is interested in such Land, then among the Records of the County or Borough having the largest Interest therein; and all the Estate and Interest in such Land which at the Time of such Appointment may be vested in any Trustee or Trustees, in trust for the Purposes aforesaid, or in any other Person, as Heir or Devisee, or otherwise, subject to such Trust, shall by virtue of such Appointment vest in the Trustees so appointed, either alone, or if there be any continuing Trustees or Trustee jointly with such continuing Trustees or Trustee, as the Case may require, without any Conveyance or Assignment for that Purpose.

Visitors to order all ordinary Repairs of Asylums, provided they do not exceed 400*l.* per Annum.

XXXVIII. The Committee of Visitors of every Asylum may of their own Authority from Time to Time order all such ordinary Repairs as may be necessary for such Asylum, and any Additions, Alterations, or Improvements to or in such Asylum, or the Offices, Outbuildings, Yards, Courts, Outlets, Grounds, Land, and Appurtenances thereto belonging, which to them may seem necessary or proper for the further or better Accommodation of the Pauper Lunatics who may be received or taken care of therein, provided that the Expense of all such Additions, Alterations, and Improvements shall not exceed Four hundred Pounds in any One Year; and if such Asylum belong to One County or Borough only, they shall cause the Expense of such Repairs, Additions, Alterations, or Improvements to be paid by making an Order upon the Treasurer of such County or Borough for the Payment thereof, but if otherwise they shall apportion such Expense in the Proportion in which each County or Borough has contributed to the Erection thereof, or where any other Proportion is fixed by any Agreement for the Time being in force, then in such other Proportion, and where any such Agreement only provides in what Proportion the Expense of Repairs shall be defrayed, the said Committee shall apportion the Expense of such Additions, Alterations, and Improvements in the same Proportion unless it be otherwise provided by such Agreement, and the said Committee shall make an Order on the Treasurer of each County or Borough for the Payment of the Proportion to be paid by such County or Borough, and such Treasurer shall pay the same accordingly out of any Money of such County or Borough then in his Hands, or which may thereafter come to his Hands, not specifically appropriated to any other Purpose, and the same may be recovered from him, for the Benefit of such Asylum, by the Visitors empowered to contract for the Reception of Pauper Lunatics into Asylums of other Counties or Hospitals or licensed Houses.

Period of such Contract limited.

As to Money payable under Contract for Reception of Lunatics into any Asylum.

such Contract, although the Term for which such Contract was entered into has not expired by Effluxion of Time: Provided also, that any Money which may be payable under such Contract for the Reception of the Lunatics of any County or Borough into any Asylum beyond the weekly Sums which may be charged under this Act for the Lodging, Maintenance, Medicine, Clothing, and Care of Lunatics in the Asylum belonging to the County or Borough to which such Lunatics shall belong, shall be paid, defrayed, and raised by such County or Borough out of any Monies in the Hands of the Treasurer for the County which shall be applicable for the Repairs or other ordinary Expenses of such Asylum; provided also, that any Hospital or licensed House with the Subscribers or Proprietor of which any such Committee so contract as aforesaid shall be subject to the Visitation of any of the Members of such Committee for the Time being.

When any Asylum can accommodate more than the Lunatics of the County or Borough, Visitors may order the Admission of other Lunatics.

XLIII. Whenever it appears to the Committee of Visitors of any Asylum that such Asylum is more than sufficient for the Accommodation of all the Pauper Lunatics of the County or Borough or each County and Borough to which the same wholly or in part belongs, and of any County or Counties, Borough or Boroughs with which any existing Contract for the Reception of all or any of the Pauper Lunatics thereof in such Asylum has been entered into, or which shall otherwise contribute to such Asylum, it shall be lawful for the Committee of Visitors, if they think fit, to give Notice thereof by Advertisement in some Newspaper commonly circulated in such County or Borough, or every such County or Borough as aforesaid, and (subject nevertheless and without Prejudice to any Agreement with any voluntary Subscribers), by a Resolution of the said Committee, to permit the Admission of so many Pauper Lunatics of any other County or Borough, and (if such Committee think fit) Lunatics not Paupers but who, in the Opinion of such Committee, may be proper Objects to be admitted into a public Asylum, as to such Committee may seem expedient, and at any Time to rescind or vary any such Resolution; and such Committee may, if they think fit, by such Resolution require that no Pauper Lunatic shall be admitted into such Asylum thereunder without an Undertaking by the Minutes of the Guardians of the Union or Parish, or signed by Two of the Overseers of the Parish, to which such Lunatic is chargeable, or in the Case of a Lunatic not a Pauper by the Person signing the Order for the Admission of such Lunatic, for the due Payment of the weekly Charge for the Lodging, Maintenance, Medicine, Clothing, and Care of such Lunatic during his Continuance in such Asylum, and of the Expenses of his Burial in case he die therein, as well as for the Removal of such Lunatic from such Asylum within Six Days after due Notice given in Writing by the Superintendent of such Asylum; and such Lunatic not being a Pauper shall have the same Accommodation in all respects as the Pauper Lunatics.

No Visitor to have any Interest in any Contract or Agreement.

XLIV. No Visitor of any Asylum shall have or take, or be capable of having or taking, any Interest or Concern whatsoever, either in his own Name or in the Name of any other Person, in any Contract or Agreement to be made under the Authority of this Act, or in anywise relating to or connected with such Asylum.

shall either alone or jointly pay or contribute: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Council of any Borough, if they think fit, to direct that any Monies payable for the Purposes of this Act, or any Part thereof, shall be paid out of the Borough Fund of such Borough, and such Monies shall be paid by the Treasurer of such Borough out of such Fund accordingly.

Power for Justices of Counties and Councils of Boroughs to raise Money by Mortgage of the Rates.

XLVII. It shall be lawful for the Justices of every County in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, or the major Part of them, such major Part not being less than Five, and for the Council of every Borough, from Time to Time to borrow and take up on Mortgage of the Rates to be made under this Act for such County or Borough, or on Mortgage of such Rates together with all other Rates or Funds, or any of them, of the same County or Borough, all or any of the Monies required for paying and defraying any such Monies, Costs, and Expenses, as aforesaid, payable by such County or Borough; and such Money may be so raised at any Rate of Interest not exceeding Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, and every such Mortgage may be made by an Instrument in the Form contained in the Schedule B. hereunto annexed, or to that or the like Effect, and shall be executed in the Case of a County by the Chairman, and Two or more other Justices present at the Time of making such Mortgage, and in the Case of a Borough by affixing the Common Seal of the Borough thereto; and every such Mortgage shall be effectual for securing to the Person advancing the Sum of Money in such Mortgage expressed to be advanced, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, the Repayment thereof, with Interest for the same, after such Rate and at such Time and in such Manner as in such Mortgage provided; and the said Mortgages shall be numbered in the Order of Succession in which they are granted; and Copies or Extracts of all such Mortgages shall be kept by the Clerk of the Peace, or other proper Officer having the Custody of the Records of the Quarter Sessions of such County or of the Records of such Borough, as the Case may be; and every Person to whom any such Mortgage has been made under the Act hereby repealed or any former Act, or is made under this Act, his Executors or Administrators, is hereby empowered, by endorsing his or their Name or Names on such Mortgage, to transfer the same, and his and their Right to the Principal Money and Interest thereby secured, unto any Person, and every Assignee under this Act or any former Act of any such Mortgage, his Executors and Administrators, may in like Manner transfer the same again, and so toties quoties; and the Persons to whom such Mortgages or such Transfer thereof are made, their Executors and Administrators, shall be Creditors upon the Rates and Funds thereby expressed to be mortgaged in an equal Degree one with another, and shall not have any Preference or Priority other than is provided under the Powers of this Act.

Power to Public Works Loan Commissioners to lend Money for Purposes of this Act.

XLVIII. It shall be lawful for the Justices and Council of any County and Borough respectively to make Application for any Advance of any Sum necessary for the Purposes of this Act, or the said Acts hereby repealed, to the Commissioners acting in the Execution of an Act of the Session holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Twenty-three. "to authorize for a further Period the Advance of Money out of a limited Fund to a limited Amount for carrying on Works and Fisheries, and Employment of the Poor," or Acts amending or continuing the same, and the Justices are hereby empowered, if they think fit, to Advance upon the Security of such Mortgage as the said Justices or Council, as the Case may be, shall charge the Rates or Funds of such County or the Sum for the Time being required to pay the Money borrowed on any Mortgages under this Act or Act, or such of them as for the Time being remain also with the Payment of a further Sum, not less than the fortieth Part of the whole of such Mortgages at the same being first made, and such Sums shall be paid in the Direction of the said Justices or Council in the Interest on the said Mortgages or such of them as being remain unpaid, and of so many of the Principal Monies on the said Mortgages for the Time being unpaid, as such Sums after Payment of the Interest will extend to discharge, until the whole of the Monies for which such Mortgages shall have been made, or the Interest thereof, shall be fully paid and discharged; and the said Justices and Council, as the Case may be, are and is authorized to fix One or more Days in each Year on which such Payments shall be made, and shall make Orders for Assessing the Rates, so as to provide for such Payments being made; and the said Justices of Council, as the Case may be, by Agreement with the Parties, or others advancing Money for the Purposes of this Act, determine the Order or Orders in which the several Sums advanced shall be repaid; and the Justices of every County and the Justices of every Borough so borrowing Money on Mortgage as aforesaid are and is hereby required to appoint a proper Person to keep an exact and regular Account of all Receipts and Payments in respect of Principal Monies borrowed or taken up under this Act or any former Act, and the Interest thereon, in a Book or Books separate and apart from all other Books, and the said Book and Books, duly adjusted and corrected, to deliver annually, in the Case of a County into Court at some General or Quarter Sessions for the County, and in the Case of a Borough to the Council of the Borough, at such Time as such Council shall appoint; and the Justices for every such County at such Sessions, and the Justices for every such Borough, are and is hereby required to inspect all such Accounts, and to make such Orders as shall be necessary for the several Purposes aforesaid into execution as to them shall seem meet.

Provided always, That the Justices of every County and the Justices of every Borough borrowing Money as aforesaid shall be authorized by means of the Rates which they are hereby authorized to make, and by the Orders and Directions which they are hereby authorized to give, that the whole Principal Money to be borrowed under the Authority of this Act by such Provision for the Payment of the Interest on the Mortgages, and of a Portion of the Principal in each Year.

Provision to be made for paying Money borrowed within a limited Time not exceeding Thirty Years.

such County or Borough, and all Interest for the same, shall be fully paid and discharged within a Time to be limited by such Justices or Council, not exceeding Thirty Years from the Time of borrowing the same.

Persons lending Money on Mortgage of Rates, &c. not bound to give Proof that Notices have been given, &c.

LII. No Person lending Money to any Justices of any County or the Council of any Borough, and taking a Mortgage for securing Repayment of the same, executed in manner directed by this Act, and purporting to be made under the Authority of this Act, shall be bound to require Proof that the several Provisions of this Act or of any former Act or Acts have been duly complied with; and if there be an Order of the Justices of any County in General or Quarter Sessions, or of the Council of any Borough making Application for the Loan, and any Mortgage have been thereupon duly executed, either before or after the passing of this Act, as by any Act then in force or this Act is provided, the Justices or Council (as the Case may be) shall have and be deemed to have had full Power to levy the Rates so mortgaged for Repayment of the Money so borrowed with Interest, notwithstanding that the Provisions of this Act or any former Act or Acts may not have been complied with; and it shall not be competent to any Ratepayer or other Person to question the Validity of any such Rate or Mortgage on the Ground that such Provisions had not been complied with."

Power to raise Money to pay off Sums already borrowed.

LII. Provided also, That in every Case in which any Monies have been borrowed under the Powers of any former Act or this Act, it shall be lawful for the Justices of the County or Council of the Borough for which such Monies shall have been borrowed, (with the Consent of the Parties to whom the same shall be owing,) to pay off the Monies so borrowed, and to raise and borrow the Monies necessary for that Purpose, and also to repay the said last-mentioned Monies and the Interest thereof under the Powers of this Act, as if such Monies were borrowed under the Powers herein before contained; but so, nevertheless, that all Monies borrowed shall be discharged within Thirty Years from the Time of first borrowing the same.

Regulation and Management of Asylums, and Appointment of Officers.

Visitors to submit General Rules to the Secretary of State, and, subject to such General Rules, to make Regulations and determine Diet of Lunatics.

LIII. Every Committee of Visitors shall, within Twelve Months after the passing of this Act, in the Case of every Asylum already established, and General Rules for the Government whereof have not been already submitted to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and within Twelve Months after the Completion of every Asylum hereafter established, submit the existing General Rules, or General Rules to be prepared by such Committee, for the Government of the Asylum under their Superintendence to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for his Approval; and such Rules when approved by him, shall be printed, abided by, and observed; and every such Committee shall have Power, with the like Approbation, to alter and vary such Rules from Time to Time as they think necessary; and every such Committee shall make from Time to Time such Regulations and Orders as they think fit, not inconsistent with the General Rules for the Time being in force for the Management and Conduct of the Asylum, and in such Regulations there shall be set forth the Number and Description of Officers and Servants to be kept, the Duties to be required of and the Salaries to be paid to them respectively; and the Committee shall from Time to Time determine the Diet and Allowances; and in and by such Regulations such Committee shall determine what any Number of Beds in such Asylum, and in such Parts thereof as such Committee may think fit, shall be reserved for such Cases as in and by such Regulations are provided for in this Behalf mentioned; and in such Case such Asylum shall be deemed full when there are no vacant Beds in such Asylum except those so reserved, but nevertheless it shall be the Power of the Committee of Visitors of such Asylum for the Time being to fill the Beds so reserved as they may deem proper, and any such Committee may, if they see fit, by any Regulations or Order, exclude from Admission into the Asylum Persons afflicted with any Disease or Malady which such Committee may deem contagious or infectious, and Persons coming from any distant Part or Place in which any such Disease or Malady is prevalent.

Every Committee of Visitors shall fix a weekly Sum to be paid for the Lodging, Maintenance, Medicine, Clothing, and other Expences of each Pauper Lunatic confined in such Asylum, of such Amount that the same may be sufficient to defray the whole of the Lodging, Maintenance, Care, Medicine, and other Expences requisite for each Pauper Lunatic, and the total Amount of such weekly Sums, after defraying the Salaries of the Attendants, may also be sufficient to pay the Salaries of the Attendants, and such Committee may from Time to Time determine the Amount of such weekly Sum as Occasion may require, and may provide always, that any such Committee may, if they see fit, charge a greater weekly Sum to be charged as aforesaid in such Asylum for Pauper Lunatics other than those sent to such Asylum from any Part of the County to which such Asylum belongs; provided also, that such Sum shall in no Case exceed the Rate of Fourteen Shillings and Sixpence, but if the aforesaid Rate of Fourteen Shillings and Sixpence be insufficient for the Purposes aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace for the County or Borough, or any Part of the County or Borough to which such Asylum may belong, to make such Addition to the Rate as they may think fit, and to cause the same to be published in any General or Quarter Sessions for such County, or at any Special Meeting of the Justices of such County, or at any Meeting of the Justices of such Borough, or each Ward or Parish or Borough respectively, to make such Addition to the Rate as to them respectively shall seem fit and necessary, and to cause the same to be published in any Order or Orders accordingly, which Order or Orders shall be signed by the Clerk of the Peace for the County, or by the Justices for the Borough, and forthwith published in the Newspaper commonly circulated within such County.

Every Committee of Visitors of every Asylum shall appoint for the same, who shall be in Priest's Orders, and shall be approved by the Bishop of the Diocese, and the Licence of any such Chaplain as aforesaid shall be revocable by the Bishop when he shall think fit; and such Chaplain, or his Substitute appointed by the Visitors, shall perform and celebrate, in the Chapel

Visitors to fix weekly Rate to be paid for Maintenance of each Lunatic, not to exceed 14s. per Week.

If the Rate be found insufficient, Justices in Quarter Sessions may increase it.

LXVII. Every Medical Officer of a Parish or Union who shall have Knowledge that any Pauper resident in such Parish, or in any Parish within the District of such Medical Officer, is or is deemed to be a Lunatic, and a proper Person to be sent to an Asylum, shall within Three Days after obtaining such Knowledge give Notice thereof in Writing to a Relieving Officer of such Parish, or if there is no Relieving Officer then to One of the Overseers of such Parish, and every Relieving Officer of any Parish within a Union or under a Board of Guardians, and every Overseer of a Parish of which there is no Relieving Officer, who shall have Knowledge, either by such Notice or otherwise, that any Pauper resident in such Parish is or is deemed to be a Lunatic, and a proper Person to be sent to an Asylum, shall within Three Days after obtaining such Knowledge give Notice thereof to some Justice of the County or Borough within which such Parish is situate: and thereupon the said Justice shall, by an Order under his Hand and Seal, require such Relieving Officer or Overseer to bring such Pauper before him, or some other Justice of the said County or Borough, at such Time and Place within Three Days from the Time of such Notice being given to such Justice as shall be appointed by the said Order; and the said Justice before whom such Pauper shall be brought shall call to his Assistance a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, and examine such Person; and if such Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary shall sign a Certificate with respect to such Pauper, according to the Form in Schedule (F.) No. 3. to this Act annexed, and such Justice be satisfied, upon View, or personal Examination of such Pauper or other Proof, that such Pauper is a Lunatic, and a proper Person to be taken charge of and detained under Care and Treatment, he shall, by an Order under his Hand according to the Form in the said Schedule (F.) No. 1. to this Act annexed, direct such Pauper to be received into such Asylum as hereinafter mentioned, or, where herein-after authorized in this Behalf, into some Hospital registered or some House duly licensed for

of Lunatics ; and such Relieving Officer or Overseer immediately convey or cause the said Lunatic to be such Asylum, Hospital, or House, and such Lunatic removed and detained therein : Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any Justice, upon Notice being given to the said Pauper, or upon his own Knowledge, without any such Certificate as aforesaid, to examine any Pauper deemed to be lunatic at his own Abode or elsewhere, and to proceed in all respects as if he were brought before him in pursuance of an Order as aforesaid ; provided also, that in case any Pauper deemed to be lunatic cannot, on account of his Health or other Reasons, conveniently be taken before any Justice, such Pauper may be examined at his own Abode or elsewhere by an Officiating Clergyman of the Parish in which he is resident, together with the said Justice, or if there be no Relieving Officer or Overseer in the Parish, and such Officiating Clergyman, together with the said Justice, or Officiating Clergyman or Overseer, shall call to their Assistance the said Justice, Surgeon, or Apothecary ; and if such Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary shall sign a Certificate with respect to the said Pauper according to the said Form in the said Schedule (F.) No. 1. and if upon View or Examination of such Pauper by the said Officiating Clergyman and such Relieving Officer or Overseer it shall appear that such Pauper is a Lunatic, and a proper Person to be taken into Charge of and detained under Care and Treatment, the said Officiating Clergyman, together with such Overseer or Relieving Officer, shall, by an Order under their Hands according to the said Form in the said Schedule (F.) No. 1., direct such Pauper to be taken into such Asylum as herein-after mentioned, or, if he shall be authorized in this Behalf, into some such Hospital or licensed House as aforesaid, and such Justice, or Overseer shall immediately convey or cause the said Pauper to be conveyed to such Asylum, Hospital, or House, and the said Pauper shall be received and detained therein ; provided that the said Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary by whom any such Pauper shall be examined shall certify in Writing that he is of sound Mind, and fit to be removed, his Removal shall be suspended until he shall be examined by some other Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, and the said Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary shall sign in Writing that he is fit to be removed ; and every Justice, Surgeon, and Apothecary is required to give such Certificate as soon as in his Judgment it ought to be given ; provided also, that where a Certificate in the Form in the said Schedule (F.) No. 3. is signed by the Medical Officer of the said Parish or Union in which the Pauper named therein is detained, as well as by some other Person being a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary called to the Assistance of the Justice or Overseer or Relieving Officer, as herein-before mentioned, such joint Certificate, or such Two Certificates, (as the Case may be,) shall be received by the Justice or Clergyman, or Officiating Clergyman or Relieving Officer by whom such Person is examined, as aforesaid, as conclusive Evidence that the said Pauper named therein is a Lunatic, and a proper Person to be taken into Charge of and detained under Care and Treatment, and he shall be taken into Charge of and detained accordingly.

Two Justices be satisfied that such Person so brought before them is a Lunatic, and is not under proper Care and is cruelly treated or neglected by any Person having Charge of him, and that he is a proper Person to be removed and detained under Care and Treatment, and every such Person so brought either before One Justice or Justices, according to the Form in the Schedule (F.) of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Justice or Justices by an Order under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands according to the Form in the Schedule (F.) No. 1. to direct such Person to be received into such Asylum or Hospital after mentioned, or, where herein-after authorized in this Act, into some Hospital registered or House licensed for the Reception of Lunatics, and the said Constable, Relieving Officer or Overseer who may have brought such Person before the Justice or Justices, or any Constable whom such Justice or Justices may require so to do, shall forthwith convey such Person to such Asylum, Hospital, or House accordingly: Provided that it shall be lawful for any Justice, upon such Injunction Oath as aforesaid, or upon his own Knowledge, and the Case of any such Person as aforesaid wandering at large, or deemed to be a Lunatic, or with some other Justice, in any of the Cases aforesaid, to examine the Person deemed to be a Lunatic, at his own Abode or elsewhere, and to proceed in all respects as if such Person were brought before him or them in any of the Cases before mentioned; provided also, that it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices to suspend the Execution of any Order for removing any such Person as aforesaid to any Asylum, Hospital, or House for such Period not exceeding Four Months as he or they may deem meet, and in the meantime to give such Directions or make such Arrangements for the proper Control of such Person as he or they shall consider proper: provided also, that if the Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary by whom such Person is examined certify in Writing that such Person is not in a fit State to be removed, the Removal of such Person shall be suspended until the same or some other Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary certify in Writing that such Person is fit to be removed; and every such Physician, Surgeon, and Apothecary is hereby required to give such last-mentioned Certificate as in his Judgment it ought to be given; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to or prevent any Relation or Friend from retaining or having the Care of such Lunatic under his own Care, if such Relation or Friend shall satisfy the Justice or Justices before whom such Person shall be brought, or the Visitors of the Asylum in which such Person is or is intended to be placed, that such Lunatic is properly taken care of.

It shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices causing any Person to be examined by any Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, under the Provisions herein-before contained, if he think fit so to do, to make an Order under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands upon the Guardians of the Parish or the Overseers of the Parish to which such Person

Funds, the Dividends of which have not been received for Fifteen Years, may be transferred to the Suitors Fee
Fund Account.

Dividends to accrue due on such Stock, or such Part of such Dividends as he shall be of opinion may safely and properly be so appropriated, as the same shall accrue, for the Benefit of the Suitors of the said Court, and for the carrying the same over to the Credit of an Account to be entitled "The Suitors Unclaimed Dividend Account," and for the carrying from Time to Time such Part of the Cash standing to the last-mentioned Account as he may think fit over to the Credit of the Account in the Books of the said Accountant General called "The Suitors Fee Fund Account," and such Dividends when so carried over shall thereupon become Part of the Fund standing to such Account.

Rights of Suitors to Stock or Dividends transferred not to be affected, but to be satisfied out of the Suitors Fee Fund.

II. The Right of any Suitor of the said Court to the Stock the Dividends of which shall be appropriated by any such Order or Orders as aforesaid, or to the Dividends so directed to be appropriated, shall not be in anywise prejudiced or affected by such Order or Orders, or by such Appropriation in pursuance thereof as aforesaid, but the Claims of such Suitor or Suitors shall be made good and satisfied out of the Fund standing to the Credit of the Accounts called "The Suitors Fee Fund Account," and "The Suitors Unclaimed Dividend Account," or either of them, by virtue of any Order or Orders to be from Time to Time made by the said Court for that Purpose; and if and when it shall become necessary for the Purposes aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, by any Order or Orders to be from Time to Time made for that Purpose, to impose such Fees in relation to Proceedings in the said Court of Chancery as to him shall seem meet, and to direct that such Fees shall be collected by means of Stamps, to be provided and used in the Manner now adopted with reference to Fees collected by means of Stamps in the said Court, and to alter, diminish, or abolish such new or additional Fees, as Circumstances may from Time to Time warrant him in so doing.

Periodical Investigations and Transfers to be made of Accounts the Dividends of which have not been received for Fifteen Years.

III. At the Expiration of every Five Years from such First Investigation as aforesaid it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor to cause a similar Investigation to be made into the several Accounts standing in the Name of the said Accountant General to the Credit of any Cause or Matter the Dividends of which shall not have been received for Fifteen Years or upwards prior to such Time, and thereupon the same Course shall be pursued in every respect with respect to such Accounts as is herein-before directed with respect to the Investigation so to be made within Nine Calendar Months after the passing of this Act; and the Provisions herein-before contained saving the Rights of the Suitor to any Dividends which may have been appropriated upon or in consequence of such Investigation, and giving Power to the Lord Chancellor to impose, alter, diminish, or abolish Fees in consequence thereof, shall extend and be applicable to every successive Investigation so to be made as aforesaid.

Dividends, &c. issued from Monies placed out to provide for Chancery Officers to be transferred to

IV. ' And whereas there is now standing in the Name of the Accountant General of the said Court, to the Credit of the Account intituled "Account of Monies placed out to provide for the Officers of the High Court of Chancery," the Sum of Two hundred and one thousand and twenty-eight Pounds Two Shillings and Threepence Bank Three Pounds per Cent. Annuities, s in the Name of the said Accountant General, to be placed to the Credit of the said last-mentioned Account:

 reas it is unnecessary to continue the Accumulation of lends on the Funds so as aforesaid standing to the of the said last-mentioned Account, and it is expedient Dividends should from Time to Time be applied in e Fund called the Suitors Fee Fund.' Be it therefore hat the Dividends and annual Produce which have which shall arise from the Monies placed out on the titled "Account of Monies placed out to provide for s of the High Court of Chancery" shall be carried e said Accountant General, and be placed to the said titled "The Suitors Fee Fund Account," and shall become Part of the Fund standing to such Account, and th accordingly.

Suitors Fee
Fund.

And whereas it is expedient to reduce the Stamp Duties on Letters or Powers of Attorney to be used in the the said Accountant General upon the Receipt of Notes, or Drafts for small Sums of Money: Be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act Duties which if this Act had not been passed would payable on Letters or Powers of Attorney to be used ce of the said Accountant General for the Receipt of Notes, or Drafts for gross Sums of Money not exceeding Twenty Pounds, or periodical Payments not exceeding Sum of Five Pounds, shall cease to be payable, and d the same are hereby repealed, and in lieu and instead ere shall be granted, raised, levied, and collected in every such Letter or Power of Attorney, or for or in the Vellum, Parchment, or Paper upon which the same ritten, the Sum of Five Shillings.

payable hereafter on Powers of Attorney, &c.

the said Duties hereby directed or authorized to be raised, collected shall be denominated and deemed to be Stamp
 d shall be under the Management of the Commissioners Revenue for the Time being; and all the Powers, Pro-auses, Regulations, Directions, Exemptions, Fines, For-Pains, and Penalties contained in or imposed by the ts relating to any Stamp Duties now payable in Great d Ireland respectively shall respectively be in full Force t with respect to the Duties by this Act directed or to be raised, levied, or collected, and to the Vellum, t, and Paper, and to the Persons liable to the Payment
 d Duties, so far as the same are or shall be applicable, be observed, applied, allowed, enforced, and put in for and in the raising, levying, and collecting of the s, and otherwise in relation thereto, so far as the same e superseded by and shall be consistent with the express

Stamp Duties to be under the Management of Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

Provisions of this Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been herein repeated and specially enacted.

Accountant General may be empowered to act on Powers of Attorney in Receipt of future Monies.

VII. It shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, whenever it shall seem expedient to him so to do, to empower and direct the Accountant General of the said Court to receive and act upon Letters or Powers of Attorney granted by any Person to whom any Sum or Sums of Money shall by any Order in any Cause or Matter be directed to be paid, authorizing the Attorney of such Person to receive, not only a Cheque, Note, or Draft for the Sum or Sums of Money so ordered to be paid, but all Cheques, Notes, or Drafts for any further or other Sum or Sums of Money which by any Order or Orders to be thereafter made in the same Cause or Matter, or any Cause or Matter connected therewith, shall be ordered to be paid to such Person or Persons by or out of any Fund then or thereafter to be standing to the Credit of such Cause or Matter; and the Lord Chancellor shall by Order make such Provision as he may deem necessary for satisfying the Accountant General of the Identity of the Person named in Two or more Orders.

Compensation Allowances may be applied to making good Monies improperly withheld or abstracted by Parties entitled to such Allowances.

VIII. ' And whereas under various Acts of Parliament now in force, or under Orders made in pursuance of such Acts, Compensation Allowances have been granted and are payable to various Officers of the said Court, which have been made to cease upon such Officers obtaining other Offices or Employments, during the Continuance of such Officers in the same: And whereas it has happened that Officers of the said Court entitled to Compensation Allowances have obtained other Offices or Employments in the said Court or the Offices thereof, and by reason of Malversation in such Offices or Employments have been dismissed therefrom or have resigned the same, and it is expedient that any Monies improperly withheld by any such Officer should be made good to the Fund to which the same ought to have been applied: It shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, by any Order or Orders to be by him from Time to Time made for that Purpose, to direct that the whole or any Part of the Compensation Allowance payable to any Person who shall have held any Office or Employment in the said Court by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament heretofore passed or hereafter to be passed, or any Order or Orders in pursuance thereof, shall be applied in Payment to the Fund from which such Monies as aforesaid shall have been abstracted, for the Purpose of making good the same, with such Interest thereon from the Time the same may have been received as the Lord Chancellor may think proper, and with the Costs of making and acting upon the said Orders; and any Order or Orders so to be made shall overreach any Assignment or Assignments which after the Tenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three shall have been made of any such Compensation Allowance, whether made voluntarily or for a good and valuable Consideration.

Orders may be annulled or altered.

IX. Any Order or Orders for the Time being made under this Act may from Time to Time be annulled, altered, or varied by the like Authority by which any such Order or Orders shall have been made, and new Orders from Time to Time be made for any poses of this Act by the Authority by which Orders are authorized to be made.

The Construction of this Act, unless such Meaning be to or inconsistent with the Context, the Expression shall mean and include the Lord High Chancellor Great Britain and the Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal of the United Kingdom for the Time

As to the Term "Lord Chancellor."

And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Five, Section Forty-six, Provision was made for grant-annuation Allowances to any Person holding any Office or Appointment in the Court of Chancery who should be afflicted with a permanent Infirmary disabling him from the due Exercise of his Office, or should have continued in any Office for Twenty Years, and should be desirous of resigning the same: And whereas by the Act of the Fifth Year of the said Her present Majesty, Chapter Five, certain of the Sworn Clerks and Side Clerks of the Court of Exchequer were appointed Registrars and Clerks to Registrars of the Court of Chancery, and it is expedient that the Time during which they have held the Offices of Sworn Clerks and Side Clerks of the Court of Exchequer should for the Purposes herein-after mentioned be added to the Time during which they have been Sworn Clerks and Clerks to Registrars of the Court of Chancery: Therefore enacted, That the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Exchequer in ascertaining and awarding the Amount of any Pension Allowance under the Authority of the said Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Victoria, Chapter Eighty-seven, shall have been Sworn Clerks and Side Clerks in the Court of Exchequer, shall take into consideration the whole Period during which they shall have been such Sworn Clerks and Side Clerks, and the same shall be added to the Time during which they have held the Offices of Registrars and Clerks to the Court of Chancery.

Officers of the Court of Chancery, who were formerly Officers of the Court of Exchequer, enabled to compute the Period during which they were such Officers for the Purposes of retiring Pensions.

C A P. XCIX.

To substitute, in certain Cases, other Punishment in lieu of Transportation. [20th August 1853.]

WHEREAS by reason of the Difficulty of transporting Criminal Offenders beyond the Seas it has become expedient to substitute, in certain Cases, other Punishment in lieu of Transportation: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

That from the Commencement of this Act no Person shall be liable to Transportation who if this Act had not been passed would have been liable to be transported for Life, or for a Term of Fourteen Years or upwards; and no Person shall be liable to Transportation for any Term less than Fourteen

No Person to be transported, except for Life or for 14 Years or upwards.

II. Any

Sentence of Penal Servitude.

II. Any Person who if this Act had not been passed might have been sentenced to Transportation for a Term of less than Fourteen Years shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be kept in Penal Servitude for such Term as herein-after mentioned.

Persons liable to Transportation for 14 Years, &c. may still be sentenced to Transportation, &c.

III. Any Person who if this Act had not been passed might have been sentenced to Transportation for a Term of Fourteen Years or upwards or for Life shall, after the Commencement of this Act, be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be sentenced either to such Transportation for Fourteen Years or upwards or for Life, or to be kept in Penal Servitude for such Term as under this Act may be awarded instead of such Transportation.

Terms of Penal Servitude which are to be awarded instead of the present Terms of Transportation.

IV. The Terms of Penal Servitude to be awarded instead of the Transportation to which any Offender would have been liable if this Act had not been passed shall be as follows ; (that is to say,)

Instead of Transportation for Seven Years or for a Term not exceeding Seven Years, Penal Servitude for the Term of Four Years :

Instead of any Term of Transportation exceeding Seven Years and not exceeding Ten Years, Penal Servitude for any Term not less than Four and not exceeding Six Years :

Instead of any Term of Transportation exceeding Ten Years, and not exceeding Fifteen Years, Penal Servitude for any Term not less than Six and not exceeding Eight Years :

Instead of any Term of Transportation exceeding Fifteen Years, Penal Servitude for any Term not less than Six and not exceeding Ten Years :

Instead of Transportation for the Term of Life, Penal Servitude for the Term of Life :

And in every Case where, at the Discretion of the Court, One of any Two or more of the Terms of Transportation herein-before mentioned might have been awarded, the Court shall have the like Discretion to award One of the Two or more Terms of Penal Servitude herein-before mentioned in relation to such Terms of Transportation.

Conditional Pardons to be allowed with reference to the substituted Punishment, as in Cases of Pardons on Condition of Transportation.

V. Whenever Her Majesty, or the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, shall be pleased to extend Mercy to any Offender convicted of any Offence for which he may be liable to the Punishment of Death upon Condition of his being kept to Penal Servitude for any Term of Years or for Life, such Intention of Mercy shall have the same Effect and may be signified in the same Manner, and Courts, Justices, and others shall give Effect thereto and to the Condition of the Pardon in like Manner, as in the Cases where Her Majesty, or the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time, is or are now pleased to extend Mercy upon Condition of Transportation beyond Seas, the Order for the Execution of such Punishment as Her Majesty, or the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, may have made the Condition of Her, his, or their Mercy being substituted for the Order for Transportation.

Persons under Sentence or Order of Penal Servitude how to be dealt with.

VI. Every Person who under this Act shall be sentenced or ordered to be kept in Penal Servitude may, during the Term of the Sentence or Order, be confined in any such Prison or Place of Confinement in any Part of the United Kingdom, or in any River.

harbour of the United Kingdom, in which Persons under Order of Transportation may now by Law be confined in any other Prison in the United Kingdom, or in any other Majesty's Dominions beyond the Seas, or in any Port or thereof, as One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries may from Time to Time direct; and such Person may at each Term be kept to Hard Labour and otherwise dealt with in all respects as Persons sentenced to Transportation may now by Law be dealt with while so confined.

All Acts and Provisions of Acts now applicable with respect to Persons under Sentence or Order of Transportation or as may be consistent with the express Provisions of this Act, shall be construed to extend and be applicable to Persons under Sentence or Order of Penal Servitude under this Act; and the Powers and Provisions contained in the Act of the 11th Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-four, relating to the Appointment by Her Majesty from Time to Time of Places of Confinement as therein mentioned for Male Offenders under Sentence or Order of Transportation, and authorizing Her Majesty to order Male Offenders convicted in Great Britain and under Sentence or Order of Transportation to be kept to Hard Labour in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions in England, shall extend and be applicable to and for the use and intent by Her Majesty of like Places of Confinement in any Part of the United Kingdom for Offenders (whether Male or Female) sentenced under this Act in any Part of the United Kingdom, and to and for the ordering of such Offenders to be kept to Hard Labour in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions out of England; and all the Provisions of the said Act concerning the use of or from and Confinement in the Places of Confinement in England, appointed under the said Act, of the nature therein mentioned, and all Acts and Provisions of Acts now in force concerning or relating to the Regulation and Management of such Places of Confinement, and the Custody, Management, and Control of or otherwise in relation to Offenders confined therein, shall, so far as the same may be consistent with the express Provisions of the Act, extend and be applicable to and for the Removal to and from and Confinement in any Part of the United Kingdom, and for the use and intent by Her Majesty of such Places of Confinement appointed under this Act of the nature therein mentioned, and be applicable to and in respect of such Places of Confinement and the Offenders to be confined therein.

Provided always, That all the Powers vested under this Act, or by reference to any other Act, in One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, shall in relation to the use and intent by Her Majesty of such Places of Confinement in Ireland, or where such Powers are to be exercised in Ireland, be exercised by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland; and the Signature of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State would be necessary in relation to the Exercise of such Powers, the Signature of such Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor or Governors, or his or their Chief Secretary, shall be sufficient in the Case of the Exercise of such Powers by such Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor or Governors.

All Acts, &c. concerning Convicts sentenced to Transportation, made applicable for the Purposes of this Act.

Powers of Secretary of State to be exercised in Ireland by Lord Lieutenant.

Her Majesty may grant Licences to be at large to Convicts under Sentence of Transportation.

Holder of Licence not to be imprisoned, &c.

If Licence revoked, the Convict may be apprehended, and committed to Prison.

On Conviction for Larceny after previous Conviction for Felony.

Queen's Prerogative.

Discretion of Courts as to alternative

IX. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by an Order in Writing under the Hand and Seal of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to grant to any Convict now under Sentence of Transportation, or who may hereafter be sentenced to Transportation, or to any Punishment substituted for Transportation by this Act, a Licence to be at large in the United Kingdom and the Channel Islands, or in such Part thereof respectively as in such Licence shall be expressed, during such Portion of his or her Term of Transportation or Imprisonment, and upon such Conditions in all respects as to Her Majesty shall seem fit ; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to revoke or alter such Licence by a like Order at Her Majesty's Pleasure.

X. So long as such Licence shall continue in force and unrevoked, such Convict shall not be liable to be imprisoned or transported by reason of his or her Sentence, but shall be allowed to go and remain at large according to the Term of such Licence.

XI. Provided always, That if it shall please Her Majesty to revoke any such Licence as aforesaid it shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to signify to any One of the Police Magistrates of the Metropolis that such Licence has been revoked, and to require such Magistrate to issue his Warrant under his Hand and Seal for the Apprehension of the Convict to whom such Licence was granted, and such Magistrate shall issue his Warrant accordingly, and such Warrant shall and may be executed by the Constable to whom the same shall be delivered for that Purpose in any Part of the United Kingdom, or in the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, or Sark, and shall have the same Force and Effect in all the said Places as if the same had been originally issued or subsequently endorsed by a Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, or other lawful Authority having Jurisdiction in the Place where the same shall be executed ; and such Convict when apprehended under such Warrant shall be brought, as soon as he conveniently may be, before the Magistrate by whom the said Warrant shall have been issued, or some other Magistrate of the same Court, and such Magistrate shall thereupon make out his Warrant under his Hand and Seal for the Recommitment of such Convict to the Prison or Place of Confinement from which he was released by virtue of the said Licence, and such Convict shall be so recommitted accordingly, and shall thereupon be remitted to his or her original Sentence, and shall undergo the Residue thereof as if no such Licence had been granted.

XII. No Person shall, after the Commencement of this Act, be liable to be transported by reason only of a Conviction for Larceny after a previous Conviction for Felony, but every such Person so convicted may be punished by Penal Servitude for any Term not less than Four Years and not more than Ten Years.

XIII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall in any Manner affect Her Majesty's Royal Prerogative of Mercy, or any Prerogative of Mercy vested in the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being.

XIV. Provided also, That nothing herein contained shall interfere with or affect the Authority or Discretion of any Court in respect Punishment which such Court may now award or tender other than Transportation, but where such punishment may be awarded at the Discretion of the Court, Transportation, or in addition thereto, the same may be awarded of or (as the Case may be) in addition to the punishment substituted for Transportation under this Act.

Punishments not to be affected.

Purposes of this Act, the Term "Transportation" shall signify Punishment beyond the Seas.

"Transportation."

This Act shall commence from and after the First Day of August one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

Commencement of Act.

An Act to extend the Public Libraries Act, 1850, to Ireland and Scotland. [20th August 1853.]

15 & 16 Vict.
c. 65.

‘ WHEREAS by the Public Libraries Act, 1850, Town Councils of Municipal Boroughs in England the Population of which exceeds Ten thousand Persons are enabled to adopt certain Proceedings for establishing Public Libraries and Museums: And whereas it is expedient that Town Councils of the same Class of Boroughs in Ireland and Scotland should have the same Powers as are by that Act conferred on Town Councils in England: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That

Provisions of
13 & 14 Vict.
c. 65. extended to Ireland and Scotland.

I. The “Public Libraries Act, 1850,” shall extend to the Municipal Boroughs in Ireland, and the Royal and Parliamentary Burghs in Scotland, the Population of which, according to the last preceding Census taken by Authority of Parliament, exceeds or shall exceed Ten thousand Persons.

Proviso in Scotland to act instead of Mayor.

II. In Scotland the Chief Magistrate shall exercise the Powers and perform the Functions appointed by the said recited Act to be exercised and performed by the Mayor; and the Parties entitled to vote shall be the registered Electors entitled to vote for the Election of Members of Parliament within the Parliamentary Boundaries of or attached to such Burghs.

An Act to prevent the defacing of the current Coin of the Realm. [20th August 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS a Practice has arisen of defacing the Coin of the Realm by stamping the same for advertising Purposes, and bending the same, and it is expedient to make Provision for preventing the Coin from being so defaced and bent: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Penalty for defacing the Coin by stamping Words thereon or bending the same.

I. If any Person shall deface any of the Queen’s current Gold, Silver, or Copper Coin, by stamping thereon any Names or Words whether such Coin shall or shall not be thereby diminished or lightened, or shall use any Machine or Instrument for the Purpose of bending the same, every such Offender shall in England and Ireland be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and in Scotland of a Crime or Offence, and being convicted thereof shall be liable to Fine or Imprisonment, or Fine and Imprisonment, at the Discretion of the Court.

Tender of Coin so defaced not to be a legal Tender, and Penalty for uttering same.

II. No Tender of Payment in Money made in any Gold, Silver, or Copper Coin so defaced or stamped as aforesaid shall be allowed to be a legal Tender; and if any Person shall tender, utter, or put off any Coin so defaced, stamped, or bent as aforesaid, he shall, on summary Conviction thereof before Two Justices, be and pay any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings : that it shall not be lawful for any Person to incur any Penalty as last aforesaid without the Consent (in Ireland) of Her Majesty's Attorney General for England respectively, or (in Scotland) of the Lord

c. 103.

7 & 8 Vict.
c. 15.

10 & 11 Vict.
c. 29.

13 & 14 Vict.
c. 54.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to regulate the Labour of Children and young Persons in Mills and Factories of the United Kingdom, and an Act passed in the Seventh Year of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws relating to Labour in Factories, and an Act passed in the Tenth Year of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to limit the Hours of Labour of young Persons and Females in Factories, and an Act passed in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Acts relating to Labour in Factories, the Labour of Children, young Persons, and Females in Factories has been regulated, and by the said last-recited Act no young Person, and no Female above the Age of Eighteen Years, can be employed in any Factory before Six of the Clock of the Morning or after Six of the Clock of the Evening, save as therein otherwise provided: And whereas it is expedient that Children should not be employed in Factories at Times during which young Persons and Women may not now by Law be employed therein:’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

No Child to be employed before Six in the Morning nor after Six in the Evening.

I. After the Commencement of this Act no Child shall be employed in any Factory before Six of the Clock in the Morning or after Six of the Clock in the Evening of any Day (save to recover lost Time, as herein-after provided), and no Child shall be employed in any Factory either to recover lost Time or for any other Purpose on any Saturday after Two of the Clock in the Afternoon.

Power to employ Children in the Hours between Seven in the Morning and Seven in the Evening from 30th Sept. to 1st April, under certain Regulations.

II. Provided always, That during all or Part of the Period between the Thirtieth Day of September of any Year and the First Day of April of the following Year Children may be employed in any Factory, except on Saturday, after Six until Seven of the Clock of the Evening, under the following Regulations and Conditions; (that is to say,) Notice signed by the Occupier of any Factory or his Agent of the Intention to employ Children under this Provision, specifying the Period, not being less than One Month, during which they are to be so employed in such Factory, shall be given to One of the Inspectors of Factories; and a Notice to the like Effect, in such Form as shall be approved by such Inspector, and signed by such Occupier or his Agent and by such Inspector, hung or fixed up, according to the Directions in the said secondly-recited Act, in such Factories the Period specified in such Notice Children in such Factory after Six of the Clock and not of the Clock of any Day except Saturday, and specified in such Notice (save to recover lost provided,) no Child shall be employed in such even of the Clock in the Morning of any Day as by the said Act of the Seventh and Eighth Majesty it was enacted, that in any Factory in which of the Machinery was moved by the Power of which should have been lost by Stoppages from or from too much Water might be recovered the next after the Stoppage between the Hours said firstly-recited Act as those within which might or Excess of Water might be recovered, to recover Time so lost any Child or young employed One Hour in each Day more than than the ordinary daily Labour of Children and respectively was restricted by Law, except on therefore enacted, That no Child shall, in order lost as aforesaid, be employed after Seven of evening of any Day; and the Times before Six e Morning and after Six of the Clock in the which any such Child is so employed in any Day exceed One Hour.

this Act shall be construed to authorize the Children in any Factory for any longer Time as now authorized under the said recited Acts, or affect the Provisions of the said Acts as Holidays, or any other Provisions whatsoever have so far as the same authorize the Employment between any other Hours of the Day than are

shall commence and take effect on the First Day thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

I. In lieu and instead of all other Duties and Drawbacks of Customs there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, upon Goods imported into or exported from any Part of the United Kingdom, the several Duties of Customs, and there shall be allowed the several Drawbacks, as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Table (A.) to this Act annexed.

II. All Manufactures of Gibraltar, Malta, and Heligoland made of Materials of Foreign Produce liable to Duty upon Importation into the United Kingdom, upon which no such Duty has been paid, or upon which Drawback of such Duty has been allowed in the United Kingdom, shall, for the Purposes of Duty, be deemed and taken to be the Produce of and imported from a Foreign Country.

III. For facilitating the due Assessment of Duties on White-clayed Sugar, or Sugar rendered by any Process equal to White-clayed, with reference to Colour, Grain, and Saccharine Matter, and on Brown-clayed Sugar or Sugar rendered by any Process equal in Quality to Brown-clayed Sugar, the Commissioners of Customs shall provide and renew from Time to Time Samples of White-clayed and Brown-clayed Sugar respectively, which shall be deemed to be standard Samples, for the Purpose of comparing therewith Sugars entered for Home Consumption ; and no Sugar shall, as regards the Payment of Duty, be deemed to be White-clayed Sugar, or Sugar rendered by any Process equal to White-clayed Sugar, unless equal to the standard Sample of White-clayed Sugar, or be deemed to be Brown-clayed Sugar, or Sugar rendered by any Process equal to Brown-clayed Sugar, unless equal to the standard Sample of Brown-clayed Sugar.

IV. In lieu of all Duties of Customs now payable by Law upon the Importation of Goods into the Isle of Man, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively set forth in Figures in Table (B.) to this Act annexed.

V. The Commissioners of the Treasury may from Time to Time, by any Order or Orders under their Hands, declare that all or any Articles legally importable into the Isle of Man, and not enumerated in the said Table, and upon which the said Duty of Fifteen Pounds for every Hundred Pounds Value is hereby imposed, shall and may, from and after any Day or Days named in such Order or Orders, be imported from the Places and in the Manner therein mentioned into the Isle of Man Duty-free during such Time or Times as shall be therein named, or until such Order or Orders respectively, or any of them, shall be rescinded, and such Articles shall be imported Duty-free accordingly so long ch Order or Orders, or any of them, shall continue id; and the said Commissioners may at any Time, by under their Hands, revoke the whole or any Part of us Order or Orders, or any of them, for such Time and nner as they may see fit; and all Orders of the Com-of the Treasury made in pursuance of this Enactment

And such Shipping Bill shall be the Entry for the Goods contained therein; provided, that at Liverpool, and (with the Sanction of the Commissioners of Customs) at any other Port where the Docks, Quays, and Wharfs are in like Manner wholly or principally under the Control and Management of one and the same Corporate Body, the Owner, Charterer, Consignee, Broker, Agent, or other Person acting in the loading and Clearance of the exporting Ship shall also prepare a full and accurate List or Manifest of all such Goods from the Bills of Lading and Freight List thereof, and shall sign and leave with the Collector of the Customs, within Fourteen Days after such Ship shall have cleared Outwards, a correct Transcript of such last-mentioned List or Manifest, with the Addition of the Value of such Goods, if any, as shall have been previously chargeable with Duty, at Value, and of British Goods, distinguishing therein the Names of the several Shippers of such Goods, according to the Bills of Lading; and on Failure to prepare such List or Manifest, and to sign and deliver such Transcript as aforesaid, such Owner, Charterer, Consignee, Broker, or other Person as aforesaid shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Shipping Bill signed by Searcher to be the Clearance for the Goods.

CXXVI. The Shipping Bill or Bills, when filled up, and signed by the Exporter or his Agent, or the Consignee of the Ship, as the Case may be, in such Manner as the proper Officer may require, and countersigned by the Searcher, shall be the Clearance for all the Goods enumerated therein; and if any of such Goods shall consist of Tea, Spirits, or Tobacco, the Exporter or his Agent shall furnish to the Searcher an Account thereof, containing the Number and Description of the Packages, and the respective Quantities contained therein, which, when certified by the Searcher, shall accompany the Ship, and have the same Force and Effect as the Cocket in use prior to the passing of this Act; and if the Exporter or his Agent shall require a similar Certificate in respect of any other Goods shipped for Exportation, the Searcher shall, on its being presented to him for that Purpose, certify the same in like Manner: Provided always, that if any such Certificate be required to be in any particular Form for Goods destined for the Zolverein or any other Foreign State, or under the Name of Cocket, such Certificate may be so prepared and denominated.

Licensed Lighterman to carry Goods.

CXXVII. If any Goods cleared for Drawback or from the Warehouse shall be carried or water-borne to be put on board any Ship for Exportation by any Person not at the Time duly licensed and authorized to act as a licensed Lighterman, either in the Port of London or any other Port at which Lightermen are required to be so licensed, or by any Person not being in the Employ of such Lighterman at the Time duly authorized to act as such, every such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Warehoused Goods removed or shipped, &c. without Authority, forfeited.

CXXVIII. If any Goods taken from the Warehouse for Removal or for Exportation shall be removed or shipped, except with the Authority or under the Care of the proper Officer of Customs, and in such Manner, by such Persons, within such Time, and by such Roads or Ways as such Officer shall permit or direct, such Goods shall be forfeited.

CXXIX. If any Goods duly entered for Delivery from the Warehouse for Removal or Exportation shall be lost or destroyed by unavoidable Accident, either in the Delivery from the Warehouse or the shipping thereof, the Commissioners of Customs may remit the Duties due thereon.

Commissioners may remit Duty on warehoused Goods lost or destroyed, &c.

As to the Issue of Debentures for and Payment of Drawback on Goods exported :

Payment of Drawback.

CXXX. For the Purpose of computing and paying any Drawback claimed and payable upon any Goods duly entered, shipped, and exported, a Debenture shall in due Time after such Entry be prepared by the Collector or Comptroller, certifying in the first instance the Entry Outwards of such Goods, and so soon as the same shall have been duly exported, and a Notice containing the Particulars of the Goods shall have been delivered by the Exporter to the Searcher, the Shipment and Exportation thereof shall be certified to the Collector or Comptroller upon such Debenture by the Searcher, and the Debenture shall thereupon be computed and passed with all convenient Despatch.

Issuing and passing Debenture.

CXXXI. The Person entitled to any Drawback on any Goods duly exported, or his Agent duly authorized by him for that Purpose, shall make and subscribe a Declaration upon the Debenture that the Goods mentioned therein have been actually exported, and have not been relanded, and are not intended to be relanded, in any Part of the United Kingdom, and that such Person at the Time of Entry and shipping was and continued to be entitled to the Drawback thereon, and the Name of such Person shall be stated in the Debenture, which shall then be delivered to such Person or his Agent, and the Receipt of such Person on the Debenture, countersigned by the Holder of such Debenture, if the same shall have been transferred in the meantime, shall be the Discharge for such Drawback when paid.

Provided always, that the Commissioners of the Customs may, whenever it shall appear to them expedient, permit General Transires to be given, under such Regulations as they may direct, for the Lading and Clearance and for the Entry and Unlading of any Coasting Ship and Goods, and the same may be revoked by Notice in Writing under the Hand of the proper Officer delivered to the Master or Owner of any Ship, or any of the Crew on board.

CLVII. Within Twenty-four Hours after the Arrival of any Coasting Ship at the Port of Discharge and before any Goods be unladen, the Transire, with the Name of the Place or Wharf where the Lading is to be discharged noted thereon, shall be delivered to the Collector or Comptroller, who shall note thereon the Date of Delivery; and if any of the Goods on board such Ship be subject to any Duty of Excise, the same shall not be unladen without the Authority or Permission of the proper Officer of Excise; and if any Goods on board any Coasting Ship arriving in Great Britain or Ireland from the Isle of Man shall be the Growth or Produce of that Isle, or Manufactures of that Isle from Materials the Growth or Produce thereof, or from Materials not subject to Duty in Great Britain or Ireland, or from Materials upon which the Duty shall have been paid and not drawn back in Great Britain or Ireland, the same shall not be unladen until a Certificate be produced to the Collector or Comptroller, from the Collector or Comptroller at the Port of Shipment, that Proof had there been made in manner required by Law that such Goods were of such Growth, Produce, or Manufacture, as the Case may be; and if any Goods shall be unladen contrary hereto the Master shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and if any Goods shall be laden on board any Ship in any Port or Place in the United Kingdom, and carried Coastwise, or having been brought Coastwise shall be unladen in any such Port or Place contrary to this or any other Act relating to the Customs, such Goods shall be forfeited.

CLVIII. Any Officer of the Customs may go on board any Coasting Ship in any Port or Place in the United Kingdom, or at any Period of her Voyage search such Ship, and examine all Goods on board, and all Goods then lading or unlading, and demand all Documents which ought to be on board such Ship; and the Collector or Comptroller may require that all or any such Documents shall be brought to him for Inspection, and the Master of any Ship refusing to produce such Documents, on Demand, or to bring the same to the Collector or Comptroller when required, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

As to particular Provisions relating to the Channel Islands and British Possessions abroad:

CLIX. Gunpowder, Ammunition, Arms, or Utensils of War, except from the United Kingdom or any British Possession, and base or counterfeit Coin, are hereby absolutely prohibited to be imported or brought, either by Sea or Inland Carriage or Navigation, into the British Possessions in America and the Mauritius.

Sugar (not being refined in Bond in the United Kingdom) and Molasses until Fifth of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and Rum, such Sugar, Molasses, and Rum being the Produce

Produce or Manufacture of any British Possession within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter (except as hereinafter provided), or being of Foreign Produce or Manufacture, are hereby prohibited to be imported or brought into any of the British Possessions in the Continent of South America or in the West Indies (the Bahama or Bermuda Islands not included), or into the Mauritius, except to be warehoused for Exportation only, and may also by Her Majesty's Order in Council be prohibited to be imported into the Bahama and Bermuda Islands; and if any Goods shall be imported or brought into any of the British Possessions in America or the Mauritius, contrary hereto, the same shall be forfeited: Provided always, that it shall be lawful to import into any British Possessions in the West Indies and South America, and into the Mauritius, any Sugar or Rum the Produce of any British Possession within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter into which the Importation of Sugar or Rum the Produce of any Foreign Country, or of any British Possession into which Foreign Sugar or Rum may be legally imported, has been prohibited; provided that no such Sugar or Rum shall be so entered unless the Master of the importing Ship shall deliver to the proper Officer of Customs a Certificate of Origin under the Hand of the proper Officer at the Place where the same shall have been taken on board, stating the Name of the District in which such Sugar or Rum was produced, the Quantity and Quality or Strength thereof, as the Case may be, the Number and Denomination of the Packages containing the same, and the Name of the Ship in which they were laden, and of the Master thereof, and of the Officer giving the same; the Shipper of such Sugar or Rum shall likewise certify that there had been produced a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of the Collector or Assistant Collector of the Land or Customs Revenue of the District within which such Sugar and Rum was produced, that such Sugar or Rum was the Produce of such District, and that the Importation into such District of Foreign Sugar and Rum, or Sugar and Rum the Growth of any British Possession into which any Foreign Sugar or Rum can be legally imported, is prohibited, and the Master shall subscribe a Declaration that such Certificate was received by him at the Place where the Goods were taken on board, and that they are the Goods therein-mentioned.

CLX. Any Books wherein the Copyright shall be subsisting, first composed or written or printed in the United Kingdom, and printed or reprinted in any other Country, shall be and are hereby absolutely prohibited to be imported into the British Possessions abroad: Provided always, that no such Books shall be prohibited to be imported as aforesaid unless the Proprietor of such Copyright, or his Agent, shall have given Notice in Writing to the Commissioners of Customs that such Copyright subsists, and in such Notice shall have stated when the Copyright will expire; and the said Commissioners shall cause to be made, and to be publicly exposed at the several Ports in the British Possessions abroad, from Time to Time, printed Lists of Books respecting which such Notice shall have been duly given, and all Books imported contrary thereto shall be forfeited; but nothing herein contained shall be taken to prevent Her Majesty from exercising the Application of Penalties.

CLXXXIV. All Penalties and Forfeitures recovered in the Channel Islands or in any of the British Possessions abroad under this or any Act relating to the Customs shall be paid into the Hands of the Collector, Comptroller, or other proper Officer of the Port or Place where the same shall have been recovered, and shall be divided, paid, and applied as follows; (that is to say,) after deducting the Charges of Prosecution from the Produce thereof, One Third of the net Produce shall be paid to or for the Use of Her Majesty, One Third to the Governor or Commander-in-Chief of the Colony or Plantation, and the other Third Part to the Seizor, Informer, and Prosecutor; excepting such Penalties and Forfeitures as are from Seizures made at Sea by the Commanders or Officers of Her Majesty's Ships of War duly authorized to make Seizures, One Moiety of which, first deducting the Charges of Prosecution from the gross Produce, shall be paid as aforesaid to and for the Use of Her Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Seizor, Informer, and Prosecutor, subject nevertheless to such Distribution of the Produce of the Seizures so made at Sea, as well with regard to the Moiety herein-before granted to Her Majesty as with regard to the other Moiety given to the Seizor, Informer, or Prosecutor, as Her Majesty shall think fit to direct by Order in Council or by Proclamation.

Bail may be given for Seizures.

CLXXXV. If any Goods or any Ship or Vessel shall be seized as forfeited under this or any Act relating to the Customs, and detained in any of the British Possessions in America, the Judge or Judges of any Court having Jurisdiction to try and determine such Seizures may, with the Consent of the Chief Officer of Customs, order the Delivery thereof, on Security by Bond, with Two sufficient Sureties, to be first approved by such Officer, to answer Double the Value of the same in case of Condemnation; and such Bond shall be taken to the Use of Her Majesty in the Name of the Officer of Customs in whose Custody the Goods or the Ship or Vessel may be lodged, and such Bond shall be delivered and kept in the Custody of the Officer; and in case the Goods or the Ship or Vessel shall be condemned, the Value thereof shall be paid into the Hands of such Collector or Officer, who shall thereupon cancel such Bond.

Suits to be commenced in Name of Officers.

CLXXXVI. No Suit shall be commenced for the Recovery of any Penalty or Forfeiture in the Channel Islands or in any of the British Possessions abroad under this or any Act relating to the Customs, except in the Name of some Officer of the Customs or Navy, or other Person employed as herein-before mentioned, or of Her Majesty's Advocate or Attorney General for the Place where such Suit shall be commenced; and if a Question shall arise whether any Person is an Officer of the Customs or Navy, or such other Person as aforesaid, visâ voce Evidence may be given of such Fact, and shall be deemed legal and sufficient Evidence.

CLXXXVII. No

CLXXXVII. No Appeal shall be prosecuted from any Decree or Sentence of any of Her Majesty's Courts in America touching any Penalty or Forfeiture imposed by this or any Act relating to the Customs, unless the Inhibition shall be applied for and decreed within Twelve Months from the Time when such Decree or Sentence was pronounced.

CLXXXVIII. If any Proceedings shall have been or shall hereafter be instituted in any Court of Vice Admiralty or other competent Court in any of Her Majesty's Possessions abroad, against any Ship, Vessel, Boat, Goods, or Effects, for the Recovery of any Penalty or Forfeiture under this or any Act relating to the Customs, the Execution of any Sentence or Decree restoring such Ship, Vessel, Boat, Goods, or Effects to the Claimant thereof, which shall be pronounced by the said Vice Admiralty Court in which such Proceedings shall have been had, shall not be suspended by reason of any Appeal which shall be prayed and allowed from such Sentence; provided that the Party or Parties Appellate shall give sufficient Security, to be approved of by the Court, to render and deliver the Ship, Vessel, Boat, Goods, or Effects concerning which such Sentence or Decree shall be pronounced, or the full Value thereof, to be ascertained either by Agreement between the Parties, or, in case the said Parties cannot agree, then by Appraisement under the Authority of the said Court, to the Appellant or Appellants, in case the Sentence or Decree so appealed from shall be reversed, and such Ship, Vessel, Boat, Goods, or Effects be ultimately condemned.

CLXXXIX. All Persons authorized to make Seizures under an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend and consolidate the Laws relating to the Abolition of the Slave Trade, shall, in making and prosecuting any such Seizures, have the Benefit of all the Provisions granted to Persons authorized to make Seizures under this Act; and all Penalties and Forfeitures created by the said Act, whether pecuniary or specific, shall (except in Cases specially provided for by the said Act) go and belong to such Persons as are thereby authorized to make Seizures, in such Shares, and shall and may be sued for and prosecuted, tried, recovered, distributed, and applied, in such and the like Manner, and by the same Ways and Means, and subject to the same Rules and Directions, as any Penalties and Forfeitures incurred in Great Britain and in the British Possessions in America respectively now go and belong to, and may be sued, prosecuted, tried, recovered, and distributed respectively in Great Britain or in the said Possessions, under and by virtue of this Act.

As to making and signing false Declarations relating to the Customs, falsely answering Questions, and counterfeiting Documents :

CXCVIII. If any Person shall make and subscribe any false Declaration, or make or sign any Declaration, Certificate, or other Instrument required by this Act to be verified by Signature only, the same being false in any Particular, or if any Person shall make or sign any Declaration made for the Consideration of the Commissioners of Customs, on any Application presented to them, the same being untrue in any Particular ; or if any Person required by this or any other Act relating to the Customs to answer Questions put to him by the Officers of Customs shall not truly answer such Questions ; or if any Person shall counterfeit, falsify, or wilfully use when counterfeited or falsified, any Document required by this or any Act relating to the Customs, or by or under the Directions of the Commissioners of Customs, or any Instrument used in the Transaction of any Business or Matter relating to the Customs, or shall fraudulently alter any Document or Instrument, or counterfeit the Seal, Signature, Initials, or other Mark of or used by the Officers of the Customs, for the Verification of any such Document or Instrument, or for the Security of Goods, or any other Purpose in the Conduct of Business relating to the Customs, or under the Control or Management of the Commissioners of Customs or their Officers ; every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit the Penalty of One hundred Pounds.

As to the Restrictions on small Craft, and the Regulations for the Prevention of Smuggling :

CXCIX. The Commissioners of Customs may from Time to Time, by Order under their Hands, make such General Regulations as they shall deem expedient in respect of Vessels and Boats not exceeding One hundred Tons Burden, for the Purpose of prescribing, with reference to the Tonnage, Build, or Description of such Vessels or Boats, the Limits within which the same may be employed, the Mode of Navigation, the Manner in which such Vessels or Boats shall be so employed, and, if armed, the Number and Description of Arms, the Quantity of Ammunition, and such other Terms, Particulars, Conditions, and Restrictions as the said Commissioners may think fit, and also from Time to Time may revoke, alter, or vary such Regulations ; and the General Regulations made under any former Act, and in force at the Time of the passing of this Act, shall remain and continue in force until altered, varied, or revoked.

CC. Every Ship or Boat which shall be used or employed in any Manner contrary to the Regulations prescribed by the Commissioners of Customs shall be liable to Forfeiture, unless the same shall have been specially licensed by the Commissioners of Customs to be so used or employed, as next herein-after provided.

CCI. The Commissioners of Customs may, if they shall so think fit, grant Licences in respect of any Vessels or Boats not exceeding One hundred Tons Burden, upon such Terms and Conditions, and subject to such Restrictions and Stipulations, as in such Licences mentioned, notwithstanding any General Regula-

- Commissioners may revoke Licences. CCII. The Commissioners of Customs may revoke, alter, or vary any Licence or Licences granted under any former Act, or which may hereafter be granted under this or any other Act relating to the Customs.
- Vessels used in Removal of uncustomed or prohibited Goods forfeited. CCIII. If any such Vessel or Boat shall be used in the Importation, Landing, Removal, Carriage, or Conveyance of any uncustomed or prohibited Goods, the same shall be forfeited, and the Owner and Master of every such Vessel or Boat shall each forfeit and pay a Penalty equal to the Value of such Vessel or Boat, not in any Case exceeding Five hundred Pounds.
- Regulations to extend to Channel Islands. CCIV. All the Regulations which shall be so made by the said Commissioners of Customs relating to Vessels and Boats, and the Power to grant, revoke, or vary such Licences, shall extend to the Channel Islands.
- Ships not to sail from Channel Islands without Clearance. CCV. No Ship or Boat belonging wholly or in part to Her Majesty's Subjects shall sail from the Channel Islands without a Clearance, whether in Ballast or having a Cargo; and if with Cargo, the Master shall give Bond to Her Majesty in double the Value of such Cargo for the due landing thereof at the Port for which such Ship or Boat clears; and every such Ship or Boat not having such Clearance, or which, having a Clearance for her Cargo, shall be found light, or to have discharged any Part of her Cargo before Arrival at the Port or Place of Discharge specified in the Clearance, shall be forfeited.
- Forfeiture. CCVI. The Owner of every Ship belonging wholly or in part to any of Her Majesty's Subjects shall paint or cause to be painted upon the Outside of the Stern of every Boat belonging to such Ship the Name of such Ship and the Port or Place to which she belongs, and the Master's Name within the Transom, in White or Yellow Roman Letters, not less than Two Inches in Length, on a Black Ground, on pain of the Forfeiture of every such Boat not so marked, wherever the same shall be found.
- Boats of Vessels to have thereon the Name of Vessel, Port, and Master. CCVII. The Owner of every Boat not belonging to any Ship shall paint or cause to be painted upon the Stern of such Boat in White or Yellow Roman Letters, of Two Inches in Length, on a Black Ground, the Name of the Owner of the Boat and the Port or Place to which she belongs, on pain of the Forfeiture of such Boat not so marked, wherever the same shall be found.
- Boat not belonging to Ships to have Name of Owner and Port thereon. CCVIII. All Ships and Boats belonging wholly or in part to Her Majesty's Subjects having false Bulkheads, false Bows, double Sides or Bottoms, or any secret or disguised Place whatsoever, adapted for the Purpose of concealing Goods, constructed in such Ships or Boats, or having any Hole, Pipe, or Device in or about such Ships or Boats adapted for the Purpose of running Goods, shall be forfeited; and all Foreign Ships or Boats coming into any Port of the United Kingdom having on board any Goods liable to the Payment of Duties, or prohibited to be imported into the United Kingdom, concealed in false Bulkheads, false Bows, double Sides
- British Vessels having secret Places for concealing or Devices for running Goods, &c. forfeited.

Sides or Bottoms, or in any secret or disguised Place whatsoever, constructed in such Ships or Boats, shall be forfeited.

CCIX. If any Goods liable to the Payment of Duties shall be unshipped from any Ship or Boat in the United Kingdom (Customs or other Duties not being first paid or secured), or if any prohibited Goods whatsoever shall be imported or brought into any part of the United Kingdom, or if any Goods whatever which shall have been warehoused or otherwise secured in the United Kingdom, either for Home Consumption or Exportation, shall be clandestinely or illegally removed from or out of any Warehouse or Place of Security; or if any Goods which are prohibited to be exported shall be put on board any Ship or Boat, with Intent to be laden or shipped for Exportation, or shall be brought to any Quay, Wharf, or other Place in the United Kingdom, in order to be put on board any Ship or Boat for the Purpose of being exported; or if any Goods which are prohibited to be exported shall be found in any Package produced to any Officer of Customs as containing Goods not so prohibited; or if any Goods subject to any Duty or Restriction in respect of Importation, or which are prohibited to be imported into the United Kingdom, shall be found or discovered to have been concealed in any Manner on board any Ship or Boat within the Limits of any Port of the United Kingdom, or shall be found either before or after landing to have been concealed in any Manner on board any such Ship or Boat, within such Limits as aforesaid; then and in every of the foregoing Cases all such Goods shall be forfeited, together with any Goods which shall be found packed with or used in concealing them.

CCX. All Spirits and Tobacco which shall be found removing without a legal Permit or Certificate for the same shall be deemed to be Spirits or Tobacco respectively liable to and unshipped without Payment of Duty, unless the Party in whose Possession the same shall be found or seized shall prove to the contrary.

CCXI. All Goods the Importation of which is in any way restricted, which are of a Description admissible to Duty, and which shall be found or seized in the United Kingdom under any Law relating to the Customs or Excise, shall, for the Purpose of proceeding for the Forfeiture of them, or for any Penalty incurred in respect of them, be described in any Information exhibited on account of such Forfeiture or Penalty as and on the Trial or Hearing thereof be deemed and taken to be Goods liable to and unshipped without Payment of Duties, unless the contrary be proved.

CCXII. If any Ship or Boat, belonging wholly or in part to Her Majesty's Subjects, or having Half the Persons on board Subjects of Her Majesty, shall be found or discovered to have been within Four Leagues of that Part of the Coast of the United Kingdom which is between the North Foreland on the Coast of Kent and Beachy Head on the Coast of Sussex, or within Eight Leagues of any other Part of the Coast of the United Kingdom, or if any Foreign Ship or Boat having One or more Subjects of Her Majesty on board shall be found or discovered to have been within Three Leagues of the Coast of the United Kingdom, or if any Foreign Ship or Boat shall be found or discovered to have

As to Offences committed by and Penalties attaching to Persons :

Persons may be searched if Officers have Reason to suspect smuggled Goods are concealed upon them.

CCXXIX. Any Officer of Customs, or of the Army, Navy, or Marines, duly employed in the Prevention of Smuggling, and on Full Pay, may search any Person on board any Ship or Boat within the Limits of any Port in the United Kingdom or the Channel Islands, or any Person who shall have landed from any Ship or Boat, provided such Officer shall have good Reason to suppose that such Person has any uncustomed or prohibited Goods secreted about his Person; and if any Persons shall obstruct any such Officer in going, remaining, or returning from on board or in searching such Ship or Boat or Person, every such Person shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and if any Passenger or other Person on board any such Ship or Boat, or who may have landed from any such Ship or Boat, shall, upon being questioned by any such Officer whether he has any Foreign Goods upon his Person or in his Possession, deny the same, and any such Goods shall after such Denial be discovered to be or to have been upon his Person or in his Possession, such Goods shall be forfeited, and such Person shall forfeit Treble the Value of such Goods.

Penalty on Persons denying having Foreign Goods about them.

CCXXX. Before

CCXXX. Before any Person shall be searched by any such Officer as aforesaid, such Person may require such Officer to take him or her before any Justice, or before the Collector, Comptroller, or other acting principal Officer of the Customs, who shall, if he see no reasonable Cause for Search, discharge such Person, but if otherwise, direct such Person to be searched, and if a Female she shall not be searched by any other than a Female.

CCXXXI. Any Officer required to take any such Person before such Justice, Collector, Comptroller, or other superior Officer of Customs shall do so with all reasonable Despatch; but if such Officer shall require any Person to be searched, not having reasonable Ground to suppose that he has uncustomed or prohibited Goods about his Person, such Officer shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds.

CCXXXII. Every Person who shall be concerned in importing or bringing into the United Kingdom any prohibited Goods, or any Goods the Importation of which is restricted, contrary to such Prohibition or Restriction, and whether the same be unshipped or not; and every Person who shall unship or assist or be otherwise concerned in the unshipping of any Goods which are prohibited or of any Goods which are restricted and imported contrary to such Restriction, or of any Goods liable to Duty, the Duties for which have not been paid or secured; or who shall knowingly harbour, keep, or conceal, or shall knowingly permit or suffer or cause or procure to be harboured, kept, or concealed, any such Goods, or any Goods which shall have been illegally removed without Payment of Duty from any Warehouse or Place of Security in which they may have been deposited; or to whose Hands and Possession any such Goods shall knowingly come; or who shall assist or be concerned in the illegal Removal of any Goods from any Warehouse or Place of Security in which they shall have been deposited as aforesaid; or who shall be in any way knowingly concerned in conveying, removing, depositing, concealing, or in any Manner dealing with any Goods liable to Duties of Customs, with Intent to defraud Her Majesty of such Duties or any Part thereof; or who shall be in any way knowingly concerned in any fraudulent Evasion or Attempt at Evasion of such Duties or any Part thereof; shall in each and every of the foregoing Cases forfeit either Treble the Value of the Goods or the Penalty of One hundred Pounds, at the Election of the Commissioners of Customs.

CCXXXIII. Every Person who shall remove any Goods imported into the United Kingdom from any Ship, Quay, Wharf, or other Place previous to the Examination thereof by the proper Officer of Customs, unless under the Care or Authority of such Officer, or who shall remove or withdraw from any Quay, Wharf, or other Place any Goods entered to be warehoused after the landing thereof, so that no sufficient Account is taken thereof by the proper Officer, or so that the same are not duly warehoused, and every Person who shall assist or be otherwise concerned in such Removal or Withdrawal, or shall knowingly harbour, keep, or conceal, or shall knowingly permit or suffer or cause or procure to be harboured, kept, or concealed, any such Goods, or to whose Possession any such Goods shall knowingly come, every such Person shall forfeit either Treble the Value thereof or the Penalty of of One hundred Pounds, at the Election of the Commissioners of Customs.

CCXXXIV. Every Person who shall unship or be aiding or concerned in the unshipping of any Spirits, Tobacco, Snuff, Tobacco Stalks, Tobacco Stalk Flour, or Snuff Work, or of any Tea or Silk, such Tea or Silk being of the Value of Ten Pounds or upwards, liable to Forfeiture under this or any other Act relating to the Customs or Excise, or who shall carry, convey, or conceal, or be aiding, assisting, or concerned in the carrying, conveying, or concealing of any such Spirits, Tobacco, Snuff, Tobacco Stalks, Tobacco Stalk Flour, or Snuff Work, or of any such Tea or Silk as aforesaid, shall forfeit for each such Offence Treble the Value of such Goods, or the Sum of One hundred Pounds, at the Election of the Commissioners of Customs; and every such Person may be detained, to be dealt with as herein-after directed.

CCXXXV. Every Subject of Her Majesty who shall be found or discovered to have been on board any Ship or Boat liable to Forfeiture under this or any Act relating to the Customs for being found or discovered to have been within any of the Distances in this Act mentioned from the United Kingdom or the Channel Islands, having on board or in any Manner attached thereto, or having had on board or in any Manner attached thereto, or conveying or having conveyed in any Manner, such Goods or Things as subject such Ship or Boat to Forfeiture, or who shall be found or discovered to have been within any such Distances as aforesaid on board any Ship or Boat from which any Part of the Cargo or Lading shall have been thrown overboard, or staved or destroyed, to prevent Seizure, and every Person, not being a Subject of Her Majesty, who shall be found or discovered to have been on board any Ship or Boat liable to Forfeiture for any of the Causes last aforesaid within One League of the Coast of the United Kingdom or of the Channel Islands, shall, upon being duly convicted of any of the said Offences before any Justice, be adjudged by such Justice, for the First of such Offences to be imprisoned in any House of Correction, and there kept to Hard Labour, for any Term not less than Six nor more than Nine Months, and for the Second of such Offences for any Term not less than Nine nor more than Twelve Months, and for the Third or any subsequent Offence for Twelve Months; and every such Person may be detained, and taken before any Justice, to be dealt with as herein-after directed.

CCXXXVI. Every Person who shall be found or discovered to have been on board any Ship or Boat liable to Forfeiture under this or any other Act relating to the Customs for being found or discovered to have been within any Port, Bay, Harbour, River, or Creek of the United Kingdom or of the Channel Islands, having on board or in any Manner attached thereto, or having had on board or in any Manner attached thereto, or conveying or having conveyed in any Manner, such Goods or Things as subject such Ship or Boat to Forfeiture, or who shall be found or discovered to have been on board any of Her Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or on board any Ship or Vessel in Her Majesty's Employment or Service, or on board of any Foreign Post Office Packet, being a national Vessel, employed in carrying the Mails between any Foreign foreign Country and the United Kingdom, such last-mentioned Ships, Vessels, or Packets being found or discovered to have been within any Port, Bay, Harbour, River, or Creek of the United Kingdom or the Channel Islands, having on board or in any Manner attached thereto, or having had on board or in any Manner attached thereto, or conveying or having conveyed in any Manner, any Spirits, not being in a Cask or other Vessel capable of containing Liquids of the Size or Content of Twenty Gallons at the least, or any Tobacco or Snuff, not being in a Cask or Package containing Two hundred Pounds Weight of such Tobacco or Snuff at least, or being separated or divided in any Manner within any Cask or Package, shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and every such Person shall and may be detained, and taken before any Justice, to be dealt with as herein-after directed.

CCXXXVII. Where any Person or Persons, being Part of the Crew of any of Her Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or of any Ship or Vessel in Her Majesty's Employment or Service, and liable to Detention, shall have been detained under any Law relating to the Customs, such Person or Persons, upon Notice thereof by the detaining Officer to the Commanding Officer of the Ship or Vessel, shall be placed in Security by such Commanding Officer on board such Ship or Vessel, until such detaining Officer shall have obtained a Warrant from a Justice for bringing such Person or Persons before him or any other Justice or Justices, to be dealt with according to Law, which Warrant such Justice is required to grant upon Complaint made to him by such Officer of Customs stating the Offence for which such Person or Persons is or are liable to Detention.

CCXXXVIII. If any Person liable to be detained under this or any other Act relating to the Customs shall not be detained at the Time of committing the Offence for which he is so liable, or shall after Detention make his Escape, such Person shall and may at any Time afterwards be detained, and taken before any Justice, to be dealt with as if detained at the Time of committing such Offence.

CCXXXIX. Whenever any Person shall have been detained, and taken before any Justice, for being found or discovered to have been on board any Ship or Boat within any Port, Bay, Harbour, River, or Creek of the United Kingdom or the Channel Islands, such Ship or Boat having on board or having had on board Spirits or Tobacco in such Casks or Packages as would under this or any other Act relating to Customs subject the same to Forfeiture, or for unshipping or for aiding or being concerned in the unshipping of any Spirits or Tobacco liable to Forfeiture under this or any other Act relating to the Customs or Excise, or for carrying, conveying, or concealing, or for aiding or being concerned in the carrying, conveying, or concealing of any such Spirits or Tobacco, and it shall appear to such Justice that the Quantity of Spirits in respect of which such Person has been so detained does not exceed Two Gallons, or that the Quantity of Tobacco in respect of which such Person has been so detained does not exceed Ten Pounds Weight, such Justice may proceed summarily upon the Case without any Information, and although no Direction shall have been given by the Commissioners of Customs, and convict such Person of such Offence, and adjudge that such Person shall, in lieu of any other Penalty, forfeit any Sum not less than the single Value nor more than Treble the Value of such Goods, including the Duties of Importation due thereon, and in default of Payment of such Sum of Money commit such Person to any of Her Majesty's Gaols for any Time not exceeding One Month.

Where Persons are taken before a Justice for any Offence under any Act relating to the Customs, such Justice may order them to be detained, &c.

CCXL. When any Person shall have been detained for any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs, and taken before any Justice, such Justice may, if he see reasonable Cause, order such Person to be detained in Gaol, or in the Custody of the Police or Constabulary Force, a reasonable Time, to obtain the Order of the Commissioners of Customs or Inland Revenue, and to prepare the necessary Informations, Convictions, and Warrants of Commitment, and at the Expiration of such Time to be brought before him, or any other Justice or Justices, who may then finally hear and determine the Matter; but any Person so detained may be liberated, on giving, by Recognizance, Security to the Satisfaction of such Justice in the Sum of One hundred Pounds, or in the Amount of the Penalty sought to be recovered, to appear at such Time and Place as shall be appointed by such Justice for hearing the Case.

Penalty on Persons offering Goods for Sale under Pretence of being run, &c.

CCXLI. If any Person shall offer for Sale any Goods under Pretence that the same are prohibited, or have been unshipped and run on Shore without Payment of Duties, all such Goods (although not liable to any Duties or prohibited) shall be forfeited, and every Person so offering the same for Sale shall forfeit Treble the Value of such Goods.

No Persons, except Officers, to take up Spirits in small Casks sunk or floating.

CCXLII. No Subject of Her Majesty, other than Officers of the Navy, Customs, or Excise, shall intermeddle with or take up any Spirits, being in Casks of less Content than Twenty Gallons, which may be found floating upon or sunk in the Sea within One hundred Leagues of the United Kingdom; and if any Spirits shall be so intermeddled with or taken up the same shall be forfeited, together with any Ship or Boat in which they are found.

Commissioners may mitigate or remit Punishments, &c.

CCXLIII. The Commissioners of the Treasury or Customs may mitigate or remit any Penalty or Fine, or any Part of any Penalty or Fine, incurred under this or any Act relating to the Customs, or release from Confinement any Person committed under this or any Act relating to the Customs, on such Terms and Conditions as to them shall appear proper.

Persons signaling Smuggling Vessels may be detained, and forfeit 100*l.*, or be kept to Hard Labour for One Year.

CCXLIV. No Person shall, after Sunset and before Sunrise between the Twenty-first Day of September and the First Day of April, or after the Hour of Eight in the Evening and before the Hour of Six in the Morning at any other Time of the Year, make, aid, or assist in making any Signal in or on board or from any Ship or Boat, or on or from any Part of the Coast or Shore of the United Kingdom, or within Six Miles of any Part of such Coast or Shore, for the Purpose of giving Notice to any Person on board any Smuggling Ship or Boat, whether any Person so on board of such Ship or Boat be or not within Distance to notice any such Signal; and if any Person, contrary to this Act, shall make or cause to be made, or aid or assist in making, any such Signal, such Person so offending shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor; and any any Person may stop, arrest, and detain the Person so offending, and convey him before any Justice, who, if he see Cause, shall commit the Offender to the next County Gaol, there to remain until delivered by due Course of Law; and it shall not be necessary to prove on any Indictment or Information in such Case that any Ship or Boat was actually on the Coast; and the Offender, being duly convicted, shall, by Order of the Court before whom he shall be convicted, either forfeit the Penalty of One hundred Pounds, or, at the Discretion of such Court, be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be kept to Hard Labour for any Term not exceeding One Year.

CCXLV. If any Person be charged with or indicted for having made or caused to be made, or for aiding or assisting in making, any such Signal as aforesaid, the Burden of Proof that such Signal so charged as having been made with Intent and for the Purpose of giving such Notice as aforesaid was not made with such Intent and for such Purpose shall be upon the Defendant against whom such Charge is made or such Indictment is found.

CCXLVI. Any Person whatsoever may prevent any Signal being made as aforesaid, and may go upon any Lands for that Purpose, without being liable to any Indictment, Suit, or Action for the same.

CCXLVII. All Persons assembled, to the Number of Three or more, for the Purpose of unshipping, carrying, conveying, or concealing any Spirits or Tobacco, or any Tea or Silk (such Tea or Silk being of the Value of Ten Pounds or more), liable to Forfeiture under this or any other Act relating to the Customs or Excise, and every Person who shall by any Means procure or hire, or shall depute or authorize any other Person to procure or hire, any Person or Persons to assemble for the Purpose of being concerned in the landing or unshipping, or carrying, conveying, or concealing any Goods which are prohibited to be imported, or the Duties for which have not been paid or secured, and every Person who shall obstruct any Officer or Officers of the Army, Navy, or Marines, being duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, or any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise, or any Person acting in his or their Aid or Assistance, or duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, in the Execution of his or their Duty, or in the due seizing of any Goods liable to Forfeiture by this Act or of any Act relating to the Customs, or who shall rescue, attempt or endeavour to rescue, or cause to be rescued, any Goods which have been duly seized, or who shall before or at or after any Seizure stave, break, or otherwise destroy, or attempt, or endeavour to break, stave, or otherwise destroy, any Goods, to prevent the Seizure thereof or the securing of the same, shall, upon being duly convicted of any of the said Offences before any Justice of the Peace, be adjudged by such Justice for the First Offence to be imprisoned in any House of Correction, and there kept to Hard Labour, for any Term not less than Six nor more than Nine Months, and for the Second Offence for any Term not less than Nine nor more than Twelve Months, and for the Third or any subsequent Offence for Twelve Months.

if in Scotland, for which Purposes the said Courts respectively shall have Jurisdiction in such Cases to the Extent of One hundred Pounds, with Power to enforce or mitigate any Penalty sought to be recovered, unless upon Consideration of the Facts and Circumstances of, or the Questions of Law involved in, any Case so excepted from the Jurisdiction of the Superior Courts of Common Law, it shall appear to the Commissioners of Customs desirable that such Case should be tried in a Superior Court, in which Case the said Commissioners shall certify their Opinion that it is a proper Case to be tried in the said Superior Court: the Commissioners of the Treasury, who may thereupon make and issue an Order to the said Commissioners of Customs, authorizing them to bring such Case in such Superior Court, and the Purport of such Order shall be endorsed on any Process to be issued out of such Court in such Case at the Suit or Prosecution of the Crown in the Words following: "By Order of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, this Case appearing to them to be a fit Case to be tried in Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer," and the same shall confer Jurisdiction on such Superior Court to try such Case.

CCLXIV. It shall be optional for the Defendant in any Case, except as herein-after provided, where the Amount of Duties or Penalties claimed by the Crown shall not exceed the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to require that, instead of proceeding against him on account thereof by Information before any Justice or Justices as aforesaid, the Proceedings shall be brought in a Superior Court of Law, and upon the Request in Writing of such Defendant, delivered to the Officer by whom the Goods shall have been seized, or to the Solicitor of Customs, such Proceedings may be instituted in a Superior Court, for which Purpose, on Notice by the Defendant to the Justice or Justices if Proceedings have been already commenced before them, such Justice or Justices shall adjourn the Case for One Week to afford the Defendant an Opportunity of delivering such Request; and in order to confer Jurisdiction on such Superior Court it shall be sufficient to state such Request on the Back of any Process to be issued in such Case, in the Words following, "On the Requisition of Defendant, who prefers a Trial by One of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law to a Trial before Justices," and such Endorsement on the Process, signed by the Solicitor of Customs, shall be Evidence to the Court of the same, notwithstanding the Provisions herein-before contained: Provided that in any Case where Proceedings shall have been already commenced before any Justice or Justices, and the Defendant shall be under Bail or Recognizance to appear before such Justice or Justices, or in Custody for Default of such Bail, such Proceedings shall not be removed, but such Justice or Justices shall hear and determine the Case.

CCLXV. If any Suit or Prosecution for the Recovery or Enforcement of any Penalty or Forfeiture, in which the Amount of Duties or Penalties claimed by the Crown shall exceed the Sum of One hundred Pounds, shall have been commenced in any of the said Superior Courts, the Commissioners of Customs, at their Discretion, may, on the Defendant's Request in Writing to the Solicitor of Customs, order such Suit or Prosecution to be brought by Information before any Justice or Justices, whereupon such Suit

Suit or Prosecution in such Superior Court shall cease, and on the Production of an Order of any Two or more Commissioners of Customs directing the bringing such Proceeding before such Justice or Justices, they shall receive such Information, and in due Course proceed to hear and determine the same,

CCLXVI. Whenever the Commissioners or the proper Officer of Customs shall in any Case proceed by Information against any Person or Persons for any Offence under this or any other Act relating to the Customs before any Justice or Justices, instead of instituting such Proceedings in the Court of Exchequer, and in which Case, if such Proceedings were had in such Court, a Capias might issue for the Purpose of arresting and holding the Offender or Offenders to Bail, any such Justice or Justices shall and may, on sufficient Information on Oath being given before him that the Offence charged has been committed, issue his or their Warrant to apprehend and bring such Offender or Offenders before him or any other Justice, and on his or their being so brought to require him or them to give by Recognizance Security to the Satisfaction of any such Justice in such Amount as he may deem sufficient to appear before him or any other Justice or Justices at a Time and Place appointed by him or them for the Hearing of the Case, and in the meantime in default of such Security to commit such Offender or Offenders to Gaol, or to the Custody of the Police or other Constabulary Force.

CCLXVII. When by any Act relating to the Customs a Penalty jointly and severally incurred by any Number of Persons, such Persons may be proceeded against jointly by One Information, or severally by separate Informations, as Her Majesty's Attornies General for England and Ireland, and as the Lord Advocate of Scotland, or the Commissioners of Customs, may deem expedient; and in case of a Proceeding against such several Persons by joint Information for Recovery of the Penalty or Penalties so severally incurred by each, the Penalty or Penalties shall be recoverable against each, notwithstanding that any One or other of such Persons so jointly proceeded against may have allowed Judgment to go by Confession or Default, or that the Penalty adjudged to be paid by any One or other of the Defendants so jointly sued may be for a different Amount from that of the Penalty in which any One or other of such several Persons may be convicted, or that any One or other of such several Persons so jointly prosecuted may be acquitted, and no Judgment on any such Information shall be reversed or avoided, or Error in Law alleged therein, on the Ground of any such Judgment being obtained by Confession, or Default of any of the Persons, nor on account of any Difference in the Amount of the Penalty or Penalties in which any One or more of such Persons may be convicted, or the Acquittal of any such Persons; but every such Judgment shall be valid and effectual against any or all of the said several Persons so jointly proceeded against, and for the full Amount of the Penalty or Penalties in which such Person or Persons shall have been severally or respectively convicted.

CCLXVIII. When any Verdict shall pass against any Person in any Court of Record for any Offence for which any pecuniary Penalty shall have been inflicted by any Act relating to the Legal Proceedings generally.

Where Proceedings in the Court of Exchequer by Capias is waived in favour of the Subject, Justices may issue Warrant and admit to Bail

Penalties joint and several may be sued for by joint and several Information.

Persons previously convicted may, on Verdict, be imprisoned in House of Correction.

Customs, and it shall be made to appear that such Person had been previously convicted of any similar Offence, the presiding Judge or Judges may order that such Person shall, in lieu of Payment of any Penalty, be imprisoned in any House of Correction for a Period not less than Six nor more than Twelve Months, and the Governor or Keeper of such House of Correction is hereby required to receive any Person committed under such Order.

*Proceedings
before Justices.*

Informations, Convictions,
&c. to be in Form, &c. in Schedule.

As to Proceedings before Justices for Recovery of Penalties and Forfeitures, and the Prosecution of Offences :

CCLXIX. All Informations exhibited before any Justice or Justices for any Offence committed against or Forfeiture incurred under this or any other Act relating to the Customs, and all Summonses, Convictions, and Condemnations for such Offences, and Forfeitures, and all Warrants of any Justice or Justices founded upon such Convictions, may be in the Form or to the Effect in Schedule (B.) to this Act ; and the Form of Information given in the said Schedule, and the Counts therein contained, with reference to any Offences created by or punishable under the several Sections of this Act to which the same or any of them relate, shall be applicable to and sufficient for all Purposes in the Prosecution of such Offences and Forfeitures ; and where Two or more Counts are given upon the same Section those Counts may be used which apply most nearly to the Circumstances of the Case ; and any One or more of the said Counts may be included in the same Information together with any other Count or Counts ; and in any Case or for any Offence or Forfeiture for which no Count is given in the said Schedule, such Count or Counts may be substituted or added as Circumstances may require ; and every such Information and every Conviction and Warrant of Commitment or Condemnation for such Offence or Forfeiture shall be deemed valid and sufficient in which the Offence or Forfeiture is set forth either in the Words of the Act or Acts by which the Penalty for such Offence has been inflicted or under which any Forfeiture has been incurred, or in the Words of the Information by this Act prescribed, and where in any such Forms the Word " Customs " is used to describe the Commissioners or Officers of Customs, the Words " Inland Revenue " or " Excise " may be substituted, as the Case may require, and the like Counts shall be applicable to and sufficient for the like Purposes, and be used in like Manner in any Information filed in any Court having Jurisdiction in such Cases under this or any Act relating to the Customs ; and no Conviction, Warrant of Commitment, or Condemnation shall be held void by reason of any Defect therein ; and no Party shall be entitled to be discharged out of Custody on account of such Defect, provided it be alleged in such Warrant that the said Party has been convicted of such Offence, and that it shall appear to the Court or Judge before whom such Warrant is returned that such Conviction proceeded upon good and valid Grounds ; and every such Warrant may be executed by any Officer of Customs, and in any Part of the United Kingdom, without further Endorsement or Sanction than that of the Justice issuing the same ; and no Objection shall be taken or allowed to any Information, Complaint, or Summons for any alleged Defect therein in Substance or

or in Form, or for any Variance between such Information, Complaint, or Summons and the Evidence adduced on the Part of the Informant or Complainant at the hearing of such Information or Complaint.

Legal Proceedings generally.

CCLXX. Upon the exhibiting of any Information or Complaint before any Justice or Justices for any Offence against this or any Act relating to the Customs, for which Offence the Party charged is not liable to be detained, or by which Information any Penalty or Forfeiture shall be sought to be recovered, or any Punishment of Hard Labour sought to be inflicted, and where such Information shall have been exhibited before such Justice or Justices within Three Years next after the Date of the Offence committed, such Justice or Justices or any other Justice or Justices having Jurisdiction in that Behalf from Time to Time and at any Time afterwards may issue his or their Summons directed to such Party, stating shortly the Matter of such Information or Complaint, and requiring him personally to appear at a certain Time and Place before the same or any other Justice or Justices to answer to the said Information or Complaint, and to be further dealt with according to Law; and every such Summons shall be served by any Officer of Customs or Excise, or by any Person to whom the same shall be delivered for that Purpose, upon the Party to whom it is so directed, by delivering the same to the Party personally, or by leaving the same at his last known Place of Abode, or on board any Ship or Vessel to which such Party may belong or may have lately belonged, and every such Summons so served shall be deemed sufficiently served.

Justices may summon Offender.

Summons how to be served.

CCLXXI. If on the Day and at the Place appointed in such Summons as aforesaid the Party so summoned shall appear before the Justice or Justices who are to hear and determine such Complaint or Information, then such Justice or Justices shall proceed to hear and determine the same, and upon Proof of the Matter contained in such Complaint or Information, either upon the Confession of the Party or upon the Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses, shall convict the Party charged in such Complaint or Information.

On Attendance of the Party on the Day and at Place appointed, Justices may hear and determine the Case.

CCLXXII. If upon the Day and at the Place appointed in and by such Summons for the Appearance of the Party so summoned, in case he shall fail to appear in obedience to such Summons, then and in every such Case, if it be proved upon Oath or Affirmation to the Justice or Justices then present that such Summons was duly served upon such Party a reasonable Time before the Time appointed for his Appearance as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices to proceed ex parte to the Hearing of such Information or Complaint, and to adjudicate thereon as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if such Party had personally appeared before him or them in obedience to such Summons.

If Party summoned to answer do not appear, Justice to proceed as if he had appeared.

CCLXXIII. When any Information shall have been exhibited before any Justice for the Forfeiture of any Goods whatsoever seized under this or any Act relating to the Customs, it shall be lawful for such Justice and he is hereby required to summon the Party to whom such Goods belonged, or from whom they were seized, to appear before him or any other Justice or Justices, and such Summons directed to the Party being left at his last Place of Abode, or on board any Ship to which such Party may belong or have lately belonged, shall be deemed to have been sufficiently served, and upon his or their Appearance or Default such Justice or Justices may proceed to the Examination of the Matter, and upon due Proof that the Goods are liable to Forfeiture under this or any Act relating to the Customs may condemn the said Goods.

Justices may summon Witnesses.

CCLXXIV. Any Justice before whom any Complaint or Information under this or any other Act relating to the Customs shall be judicially brought may summon any Person required as a Witness, wherever in the United Kingdom such Person shall be or reside, to appear before him or any other Justice or Justices to testify what he shall know concerning the Matter of such Complaint or Information; and if any Person so summoned shall refuse or neglect to appear at the Time and Place appointed by such Summons, and no just Excuse shall be offered for such Neglect or Refusal, then, after Proof upon Oath or Affirmation that such Summons was duly served upon such Person, either personally or by leaving the same at his last or usual Place of Abode, or on board any Ship to which such Person may belong, or who having appeared according to the Exigency of such Summons shall refuse to take Oath, or, if a Quaker or other Person having legal Power to make Affirmation, refuse to affirm, or shall refuse to give Evidence or to answer according to the best of his Knowledge and Belief any legal Question required of him, such Person shall for every such Default or Offence forfeit such Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds as such Justice shall see fit.

Penalty for neglecting to attend.

Offences on the Waters, &c., and Jurisdiction.

CCLXXV. Where any Offence shall be committed in any Place upon the Water not being within any County of the United Kingdom, or where the Officers have any Doubt whether such Place is within the Boundaries or Limits of any such County, such Offence shall for the Purposes of this Act be deemed and taken to be an Offence committed on the High Seas; and for the Purpose of giving Jurisdiction under this Act every Offence shall be deemed to have been committed, and every Cause of Complaint to have arisen, either in the Place in which the same actually was committed or arose, or in any Place on Land where the Offender or Person complained against may be or be brought Justice of adjoining County may act when required.

CCLXXVI. When the Attendance of a Justice having Jurisdiction in the County where the Offence is committed cannot be conveniently obtained, it shall be lawful for any Magistrate of any neighbouring or adjoining County to that in which the Offence was deemed to have been committed to hear and determine any Information exhibited before him, and to have the same Powers and Authorities in all respects as to any Proceedings under this or any other Act relating to the Customs as if he were a Justice for the County in which the Offence was committed or deemed to be committed.

Justice of Counties to have concurrent Jurisdiction in Cities, Boroughs, &c.

CCLXXVII. Where any Offence against this or any Act relating to the Customs shall be committed in any City, Borough, Liberty, Division, Franchise, or Town Corporate, any Justice or Justices having Jurisdiction therein, and any Justice or Justices of any County within which the same is or are situated, shall have Jurisdiction

Jurisdiction to hear and determine the same; and all Powers vested in any Justice or Justices of the Peace by virtue of this Act shall be and the same are hereby vested in and may be exercised in the Isle of Man or the Channel Islands by any Governor, Deemster, or other Magistrate of the said Isle or Islands; and for the Purposes of this Act the Jurisdiction of the Magistrates of the Borough of Gravesend in the County of Kent shall be deemed to extend on the River Thames from Yantlet Creek to Broadness Point in the Northfleet Hope, and shall include every Part of the said River between those Limits respectively.

situate in such Counties.

CCLXXVIII. In case of the Nonpayment of any Penalty incurred for any Offence in respect of which the Offender is not liable to Detention, such Justice or Justices or any other Justice or Justices may, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, commit such Party to any of Her Majesty's Gaols within his or their Jurisdiction, there to remain until the Penalty shall be paid.

Justice may commit in default of Payment of Penalty until paid.

CCLXXIX. Such Warrants may be executed in any Part of the United Kingdom by any Officer of Customs, and such Justice or Justices are hereby also authorized and required, when such Party is convicted of any Offence for which the Punishment of Hard Labour is inflicted, to commit such Party by such Warrant to any House of Correction, there to be kept to Hard Labour for such Time as may be authorized by this or any other Act relating to the Customs.

Officers of Customs may execute Warrants of Commitment.

CCLXXX. Where any Person shall or may be convicted before any Justice or Justices as aforesaid in any Penalty or Penalties incurred as aforesaid, and except as is herein-after provided, the said Justice or Justices may, in Cases where upon Consideration of the Circumstances they shall deem it expedient so to do, and for a First Offence only, mitigate the Payment of the said Penalty or Penalties so as the Sum to be paid by such Person be not less than One Fourth Part of the Amount of the Penalty in which such Person shall have been convicted.

Justices may mitigate Penalties in certain Cases to One Fourth.

CCLXXXI. Any Justice or Justices before whom any Person liable to be detained and who shall have been detained for any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs shall be brought may either on the Confession of such Person of such Offence, or on Proof thereof upon Oath, convict such Person of any such Offence, and every Person so convicted shall immediately upon such Conviction pay, without any Mitigation, into the Hands of such Justice or Justices, for the Use of Her Majesty, the Penalty imposed for such Offence, or in default thereof the said Justice or Justices shall, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, commit such Person so convicted as aforesaid and making such Default as aforesaid to any Gaol or Prison, there to remain until such Penalty shall be paid; and such Justice or Justices may also, when any such Person is convicted of any Offence for which the Punishment of Hard Labour is inflicted, commit such Person to any House of Correction, there to be kept to Hard Labour for such Time as they shall be authorized to do by this or any other Act or Acts relating to the Customs.

Persons detained and convicted to be committed to Gaol for Non-payment without Mitigation, or to Hard Labour where required by this Act.

CCLXXXII. All Penalties and Forfeitures recovered under this or any other Act relating to the Customs shall be paid to the Commissioners of Customs, and all Penalties and Forfeitures recovered under any Act relating to the Excise shall be paid to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, or to the Persons appointed by such Commissioners respectively to receive the same, and such Penalties and Forfeitures shall be applied by such Commissioners respectively in such Manner as the Law directs.

Commitment and Punishment.

As to the Commitment and Punishment of Offenders after Conviction, and the Mitigation or Increase of such Punishment under certain Circumstances :

Any Person committed in default of Payment of a Penalty less than 100*l.* to be discharged in Six Months.

CCLXXXIII. Where any Person shall have been committed by any Justice or Justices to any Prison for Nonpayment of any Penalty incurred under this or any other Act relating to the Customs less than One hundred Pounds, the Gaoler or Keeper of such Prison is hereby authorized and required to discharge such Person at the End of Six Months from the Commencement of his Imprisonment.

Justices may imprison in default of Payment of Penalty, and if Party previously convicted may sentence to Hard Labour.

CCLXXXIV. Where any Person shall have been convicted before any Justice or Justices of any Offence for which any Penalty of One hundred Pounds or upwards shall have been inflicted by this or any other Act relating to the Customs, the said Justice or Justices may, if he or they shall think fit, adjudge that such Person shall in default of paying such Penalty be imprisoned for such Offence, if it be a first one, in any Gaol within his or their Jurisdiction for a Period of not less than Six nor more than Nine Months ; and if it shall appear that such Party had been before convicted of any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs, it shall and may be lawful for the said Justice or Justices, if he or they shall think fit, to order and adjudge that such Person shall in lieu of such Penalty be imprisoned in any House of Correction, and there kept to Hard Labour for any Period not less than Six nor more than Twelve Months.

Justices may commit to nearest House of Correction, if none in their Jurisdiction.

CCLXXXV. When any Person shall have been convicted of any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs for which such Person is liable to be sentenced to Hard Labour, and such Conviction shall take place before any Justice or Justices within whose Jurisdiction there is no House of Correction, such Justice or Justices shall and may, by Warrant under his or their Hands and Seals, commit such Offender to any Gaol within his or their Jurisdiction wherein the Sentence of Hard Labour is or can be executed, or to the House of Correction nearest to the Place where such Offender is convicted, for such Time as has hereinbefore been limited for a first or subsequent Offence respectively and the Governor or Keeper of such Gaol or House of Correction is hereby required to receive such Offender and to obey such Warrant in all respects as if such Gaol or House of Correction was within the Jurisdiction of such Justice or Justices.

Justices may commute Hard Labour where Offender is a Female, &c.

CCLXXXVI. Where any Person shall have been convicted of any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs for which such Person would be liable to be committed to Hard Labour, it shall and may be lawful for the Justice or Justices before whom such Person is so convicted, if such Person be a Female or if a Male from physical Infirmity incapable of Hard Labour, Labour, to order and adjudge that such Person shall, in lieu of being subjected to Hard Labour, be imprisoned in any Gaol within their Jurisdiction for the Period during which such Person would have been liable to be kept to Hard Labour, but in all such Cases the Cause of Mitigation shall be stated in the Warrant of Commitment.

CCLXXXVII. Where any Person shall have been convicted before any Justice or Justices of any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs for which such Person is liable to be committed to Hard Labour, and it shall at any Time during the Imprisonment of such Person be made to appear to the said or any other Justice or Justices that such Person had before been convicted of a similar Offence, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices and he and they are hereby required to commit such Offender to some House of Correction to be kept to Hard Labour for any Period not less than Nine nor more than Twelve Months in the whole from the Date of the First Commitment, and to amend the Warrant of Commitment accordingly, and without including in such Amendment any Reference to the former Conviction; and any Gaoler in whose Custody such Person shall be is hereby required upon a written Order, signed by any Justice, to produce such Person before such last-mentioned Justice.

CCLXXXVIII. Where any married Woman shall be convicted before any Justice or Justices of any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs she shall, in default of paying any Penalty she may have incurred, be liable to be committed to Prison.

CCLXXXIX. The actual Expenses incurred by any County, City, Borough, Liberty, Division, Franchise, or Town Corporate, in consequence of the Commitment of any Person to Hard Labour under this or any Act or Acts relating to the Customs, shall be repaid out of the Consolidated Customs by an Order of the Commissioners of Treasury in such Manner and to such Amount as they shall direct; and for the necessary Subsistence of any poor Person confined in any Prison in the United Kingdom under or by virtue of any Exchequer or other Process for the Recovery of any Duties or Penalties, either upon Bond or otherwise, under this or any other Act relating to the Customs, the Commissioners of Customs may allow any Sum, not exceeding Sevenpence Halfpenny per Diem, to be made for any such poor Person out of any Money in their Hands arising from the Duties of Customs.

As to the Removal of Proceedings before Justices under the Customs Laws:

CCXC. No Writ of Certiorari shall issue to remove any Proceedings before any Justice or Justices under this or any other Act relating to the Customs, nor shall any Writ of Habeas corpus issue to bring up the Body of any Person who shall have been convicted before any Justice or Justices under this or any other Act relating to the Customs, unless the Party against whom such Proceeding shall have directed, or who shall have been so convicted, or his Attorney or Agent, shall state by Affidavit in Writing duly sworn the Grounds of Objection to such Proceedings or Conviction; and upon the Return to such Writ of Certiorari or Habeas corpus, no Objection shall be entertained by the Court, other other than such as shall have been stated in such Affidavit; and any Justice or Justices shall and may amend any Information, Conviction, or Warrant of Commitment for any Offence under this or any such Act at any Time, whether before or after Conviction.

No Writ of Habeas without Notice to Solicitor of Customs.

CCXCI. No such Writ shall issue without Notice in Writing to the Solicitor for the Customs, and no Return to any such Writ shall be considered by any of Her Majesty's Courts at Westminster, Dublin, or Edinburgh, or the Judges thereof, unless there shall be produced to such Court or Judge an Affidavit in Writing duly sworn stating that Notice of the issuing of such Writ was given to the Solicitor of Customs or left at his Office Four clear Days before the Return of such Writ; and with respect to all such Writs there shall be an Interval of Four clear Days at least between the Day of Issue and the Day of the Return thereof, and any such Writ issuing without Notice, or not in conformity with the Directions herein contained, shall be void to all Intents and Purposes.

Justices Clerks Fees.

As to Justice Clerks Fees in Prosecutions under the Customs Laws:

Justices Clerks Fees.

CCXCII. The Fees to Justices Clerks shall be regulated and governed by the Table of Fees to this Act annexed, and shall be allowed to and taken by such Clerks in respect of the Matters therein mentioned, in lieu of all other Fees heretofore chargeable for the like Matters.

Superior Courts.

Procedure for Subpœna.

As to Proceedings in the Superior Courts for Penalties:

CCXCIII. All Suits, Prosecutions, or Informations for Recovery of Penalties under this or any Act relating to the Customs in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, Dublin, or Edinburgh may be commenced either by Writ of Subpœna or Capias as the First Process at the Election of the Commissioners of Customs, in which shall be specified the Amount of the Penalty or Penalties sued for, and if by Capias the Person against whom such Capias shall issue shall be bound with Two sufficient Sureties to the Party to whom such Capias shall be directed to appear in the Court out of which such Capias shall issue at the Day of the Return of such Writ to answer such Information, and shall likewise at the Time of such appearing be bound to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, with Two sufficient Sureties, or, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, more than Two, to be acknowledged in the same Court, to answer and pay all the Penalties so sued for, or such other Sum, not exceeding the Penalty or Penalties sought to be recovered, as the Commissioners of Customs, or the Judge upon whose Fiat such Capias shall issue, may see fit, in case such Person shall be convicted thereof, or to yield the Body of such Person to Prison, and in default of being bound by such respective Sureties the Person against whom such Capias shall issue shall be taken to Prison.

Service of Subpœna.

CCXCIV. In any Case where the Commissioners shall waive the Right of issuing Writ of Capias, and elect to proceed by Subpœna, Service of a Copy of such Subpœna, either on the Defendant personally or by leaving the same at his last known Place of Abode, or on board any Ship or Vessel to which such Defendant

Defendant may belong or have lately belonged, shall be deemed to be sufficiently served.

CCXCV. Any Person arrested under such Capias and imprisoned for Want of sufficient Bail shall be served with a Copy of the Information filed against him either personally or by Delivery of a true Copy thereof to the Gaoler, Keeper, or Turnkey of the Prison in which such Person shall have been confined; and in default of such Person's appearing or pleading to such Information for the Space of Twenty Days, to be computed from the Date of such Service, Judgment shall be entered by Default; and in case Judgment shall be obtained against any such Person by Default, Verdict, or otherwise, and such Person shall not pay the Sum recovered against him, Execution shall thereupon issue, not only against the Body of the Person so imprisoned as aforesaid, but against all the Real and Personal Estate of such Person, or any other Person in trust for him, for such Sum or Sums of Money so as aforesaid recovered against him, together with the Costs, Poundage, Fees, and Expenses of Execution over and above the Sum recovered.

CCXCVI. Every such Execution may be directed in the first instance to the Sheriff of any County or County of a City or other Shrievalty as the Party suing out the same may think fit, without reference to the County in which the Venue is laid, and without any Suggestion of the issuing of any prior Writ of Execution into such County.

CCXCVII. Where any Person so arrested and imprisoned as aforesaid by virtue of any Writ of Capias shall be disabled by Poverty from making Defence to any such Information, it shall be competent for such Person to petition the Court on Affidavit verifying such Disability; and the Court on being satisfied of the Truth of the Facts alleged in such Affidavit may assign Counsel and Attorney to such Person, and the Counsel and Attorney so assigned are hereby required to act for such Person without Fee.

CCXCVIII. Every Sheriff, Mayor, Bailiff, and other Person accustomed to execute the Process of the Courts, and every Under Sheriff, Deputy, or Agent of such Sheriff, Mayor, or Bailiff, is hereby required (on the Request of the Solicitor or Assistant Solicitor of Customs, or of any Person acting on his Behalf, such Request to be endorsed on the Back of any Writ of Capias or other Process issuing as aforesaid, and signed by such Solicitor or by such other Person stating his Authority,) to grant a special Warrant to such Persons as shall be named to them by such Solicitor or other Person for apprehending the Person against whom such Process shall issue, or in default thereof every such Sheriff, Mayor, Bailiff, Under Bailiff, and other Person shall be liable to such Process of Contempt, Fines, and Penalties as they or any of them are now by any Law or Custom liable to in case of refusing to execute similar Process where the Defendant might have been taken thereupon in the usual Course of proceeding.

When Offenders are arrested and give Bail to the Sheriff, the Bail Bond to be assigned to Her Majesty.

CCC. If any Person shall be arrested under or by virtue of any Writ of Capias ad respondendum, and the Sheriff or other Officer shall take Bail from such Person, such Sheriff or other Officer, at the Request and Costs of the Prosecutor, shall assign to the Queen's Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, the Bail Bond taken from such Person, by endorsing and attesting the same under his Hand and Seal in the Presence of Two or more credible Witnesses, which may be done without any Stamp, provided the Assignment so endorsed be duly stamped before any Suit be commenced thereupon, and if such Bail Bond be forfeited such Process shall thereupon issue as on Bonds originally made to the Queen's Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors.

Prosecutions,
§c.

As to Prosecution by Indictment or Information for Offences against the Customs Laws :

Indictment to be preferred by Order of the Commissioners, and Suits to be in the Name of the Attorney General, &c.

CCCI. No Indictment shall be preferred for any Offence against this or any other Act or Acts relating to the Customs or Excise, nor shall any Suit be commenced for the Recovery of any Penalty or Forfeiture for any such Offence, except in the Cases of Persons detained and carried before One or more Justices in pursuance of such Act or Acts as aforesaid, unless such Indictment shall be preferred under the Direction of the Commissioners of Customs or Inland Revenue, or unless such Suit shall be commenced in the Name of Her Majesty's Attorney General for England or Ireland, or in the Name of the Lord Advocate of Scotland, or in the Name of some Officer of Customs or Excise, under the Direction of the said Commissioners respectively.

The Attorney General or Lord Advocate may enter a Nolle prosequi.

CCCII. In any Prosecution for Recovery of any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture incurred under this or any other Act relating to the Customs or Excise, Her Majesty's Attorney General for England, Her Majesty's Attorney General for Ireland, or the Lord Advocate of Scotland, if satisfied that such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture was incurred without any Intention of Fraud, or that it may be inexpedient to proceed in the said Prosecution, may enter a Nolle prosequi or otherwise on such Information as well with respect to the Share of such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture to which any Officer or Officers may be entitled as to the Queen's Share thereof.

Within what Time Suits, &c., are to be exhibited.

CCCIII. All Suits, Indictments, or Informations brought or exhibited for any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs in any Court, or before any Justice or Justices, shall be brought or exhibited within Three Years next after the Date of the Offence committed.

Indictments or Informations may be tried in any County in England, Scotland, or Ireland respectively.

CCCIV. Any Indictment, Prosecution, or Information which may be instituted or brought under the Direction of the Commissioners of Customs relating to the Customs shall and may be inquired of, examined, tried, and determined in any County of England when the Offence is committed in England, and in any County

County of Scotland when the Offence is committed in Scotland, and in any County in Ireland when the Offence is committed in Ireland, in such Manner and Form as if the Offence had been committed in the said County where the said Indictment or Information shall be tried.

As to Proofs in Proceedings under the Customs Laws in any of the Courts or before Justices :

CCCV. If in any Prosecution under the Direction of the Commissioners of Customs in respect of any Goods seized for Nonpayment of Duties, or any other Cause of Forfeiture, or for the recovering any Penalty or Penalties under this or any Act relating to the Customs, any Dispute shall arise whether the Duties of Customs or Excise have been paid in respect of such Goods, or the same have been lawfully imported or lawfully unshipped, or concerning the Place from whence such Goods were brought, then and in every such Case the Proof thereof shall be on the Defendant in such Prosecution.

CCCVI. The Averment that the Commissioners of Customs or Inland Revenue have directed or elected that any Information or Proceedings under this or any other Act relating to the Customs or Excise shall be instituted, or that any Ship or Boat is Foreign or belonging wholly or in part to Her Majesty's Subjects, or that any Person detained or found on board any Ship or Boat liable to Seizure is or is not a Subject of Her Majesty, or that any Goods thrown overboard, staved, or destroyed were so thrown overboard, staved, or destroyed to prevent Seizure, or that any Goods thrown overboard, staved, or destroyed when chased by any Ship or Boat in Her Majesty's Service, or in the Service of the Revenue, were so thrown overboard, staved, or destroyed to avoid Seizure or that any Person is an Officer of Customs or Excise, or that any Person was employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, or that the Offence was committed within the Limits of any Port, or where the Offence is committed in any Port of the United Kingdom the naming of such Port in any Information or Proceedings, shall be deemed to be sufficient, without Proof of such Fact or Facts, unless the Defendant in any such Case shall prove to the contrary.

CCCVII. If upon any Trial a Question shall arise whether any Person is an Officer of the Army, Navy, or Marines being duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, and on Full Pay, or an Officer of Customs or Excise, his own Evidence thereof, or other Evidence of his having acted as such shall be deemed sufficient, and such Person shall not be required to produce his Commission or Deputation unless sufficient Proof shall be given to the contrary; and every such Officer and any Person acting in his Aid or Assistance shall be deemed a competent Witness upon the Trial of any Suit or Information on account of any Seizure or Penalty as aforesaid, notwithstanding such Officer or other Person may be entitled to the whole or any Part of such Seizure or Penalty, or to any Reward upon the Conviction of the Party charged in such Suit or Information.

CCCXVI. In case any such Officer or other Person as aforesaid shall neglect to tender Amends, or shall not have tendered sufficient Amends, before the Action brought, it shall be lawful for him, by Leave of the Court in which such Action shall be brought, at any Time before the Trial of the said Action, to pay into Court a Sum of Money by way of Amends, and such Proceedings shall be had and taken thereupon, and in relation to the Monies so paid into Court, as are prescribed by the Seventieth, Seventy-first, Seventy-second, and Seventy-third Sections of an Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter Seventy-six.

Actions against Officers to be brought within Two Months after Cause arises.

CCCXVII. Every such Action against any Officer of Customs or other such Person as aforesaid shall be commenced within Two Months after the Cause of Action shall have arisen; and if such Action be brought in respect of any Seizure made by such Officer or other Person, such Cause of Action shall not be deemed to have arisen until the Day after the Trial of the Information with respect to such Seizure, and the Venue in such Action shall be laid in the County or Place where the Cause thereof is alleged to have occurred; and the Defendant may plead the General Issue, and give the special Matter in Evidence on the Trial thereof; and if the Plaintiff shall be non-suited or discontinue, or if upon a Verdict or Demurrer Judgment shall be given against him, the Defendant shall be entitled to Costs, and have such Remedy for recovering the same as any other Defendant now has in other Cases where Costs are legally recoverable Actions for illegal Seizures may be tried in County Court.

CCCXVIII. Any Party complaining of any illegal Seizure of any Boat, Vessel, or Goods may, after Service of the Notice in Writing to the Effect, and within the Time herein-before provided in respect to the bringing of any Action or Actions in the Superior Court of Common Law, and in case no such Amends as herein-before provided shall have been tendered, proceed against the Officer by whom such Seizure shall have been made by Plaint in the County Courts in England, or by Civil Bill in the Assistant Barrister's Court in Ireland, or by Summons in the Sheriff's Courts in Scotland: Provided always, that the Sum claimed for Damages by the Party so complaining, shall not exceed the be Amount to which the Jurisdiction of the said Courts respectively is limited.

CCCXIX. In the event of any Party so complaining as aforesaid resorting for Redress to the County Courts in England, the Action shall be brought within the District where the Cause of Action shall have arisen, and the Proceedings and Conduct of the Suit shall be regulated as nearly as the Circumstances of the Case shall allow in conformity with the Provisions of the Acts and Orders which govern the Procedure and Practice of the said Courts; and such Right of Appeal shall be allowed to the Parties as is provided by the County Courts Acts in other Actions now triable by such Courts: Provided always, that in every such Suit or Plaintiff the County Court Judge shall hear and determine such Case without the Assistance of a Jury, and that no Order for the Trial thereof by a Jury shall be made by any County Court Judge, except upon the written Consent of the Plaintiff and Defendant.

CCCXX. Where the Party so complaining as aforesaid shall be desirous to bring his Suit in the Civil Bill Court in Ireland, he shall bring the same at a General Sessions of the Peace for the Division of the County within which the Cause of Action shall have arisen, and the Proceedings and Conduct of the Suit shall in like Manner be regulated as nearly as the Circumstances of the Case will allow in conformity with the Provisions of the Acts and General Rules and Orders which govern the Procedure and Practice of the Civil Bill Courts: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for any Party who shall think himself aggrieved by any Decree or Decision pronounced by any Assistant Barrister on the Hearing of any such Civil Bill to appeal therefrom to the next or any other Judge of Assize, but in lieu of such Right of Appeal it shall be lawful for the Chairman, Recorder, or Assistant Barrister, in case he shall be of opinion that a Question of Law only is involved in such Proceeding, by Consent of the Parties respectively, to state a Special Case under his Hand for the Opinion of the Chief or any other Baron of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland upon any Question of Law, and thereupon like Proceedings shall be had and a like Decision given upon such Appeal and Special Case, and subject, as nearly as the Circumstances will allow, to the like Provisions as in other Cases of Appeal, save that without further Proof of the Facts of the Case the Decision of the Judge shall be given upon such Special Case.

CCCXXI. In case the Party so complaining as aforesaid shall desire to bring his Action in the Sheriff's Court in Scotland, it shall be lawful for him to proceed in the said Court, in which Case the Proceedings and Conduct of the Suit shall be regulated as nearly as may be in accordance with the Provisions of the Acts and Orders of Court which govern the Procedure and Practice of the said Court.

CCCXXII. If in any Action commenced after the passing of this Act in any of the Superior Courts of Record in England, Ireland, or Scotland, in which the Plaintiff shall seek to recover Damages for any alleged illegal Seizure or Detention of any Ship or Goods, the said Plaintiff shall recover a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, such Plaintiff shall have Judgment to recover

Any Person appointed to be Solicitor or Assistant Solicitor of Her Majesty's Customs, or any Clerk duly appointed to act on his Behalf or under his or their Directions, shall and may in any Case relating to the Customs, or under the Direction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury or Customs, act as Counsel, Solicitor, Attorney at Law, Advocate, or Writer to the Signet in the Prosecution, Conduct, or Defence of any such Case in any Court, Jurisdiction, or Place in which such Case may be instituted, and any such Solicitor, Assistant Solicitor, or Clerk, and any Officer or Officers of Customs, under the Order and Directions of the Commissioners of Customs, may prosecute, defend, or conduct any Proceeding before any Magistrate or Magistrates, Justices or Justice of the Peace, in any Matter relating to the Customs, to be heard or determined by him or them.

X.
Reciprocity.

Queen may restrict the Privileges of Foreign Ships in certain Cases.

As to Reciprocity in Commerce between British and Foreign Countries :

CCCXXIV. If it shall be made to appear to Her Majesty that British Vessels are subject in any Foreign Country to any Prohibitions or Restrictions as to the Voyages in which they may engage, or as to the Articles which they may import into or export from such Country, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty (if She think fit), by Order in Council, to impose such Prohibitions or Restrictions upon the Ships of such Foreign Country, either as to the Voyages in which they may engage or as to the Articles which they may import into or export from any Part of the United Kingdom or of any British Possession in any Part of the World, as Her Majesty may think fit, so as to place the Ships of such Country on as nearly as possible the same Footing in British Ports as that on which British Ships are placed in the Ports of such Country.

And may impose additional Duties.

CCCXXV. If it shall be made to appear to Her Majesty that British Ships are either directly or indirectly subject in any Foreign Country to any Duties or Charges of any Sort or Kind whatsoever from which the national Vessels of such Country are exempt, or that any Duties are imposed upon Articles imported or exported in British Ships which are not equally imposed upon the like Articles imported or exported in national Vessels, or that any Preference whatsoever is shown either directly or indirectly to national Vessels over British Vessels, or to Articles imported or exported in national Vessels over the like Articles imported or exported in British Vessels, or that British Trade and Navigation is not placed by such Country upon as advantageous a Footing as the Trade and Navigation of the most favoured Nation, then

and

and in any such Case it shall be lawful for Her Majesty (if She think fit), by Order in Council, to impose such Duty or Duties of Tonnage upon the Ships of such Nation entering into or departing from the Ports of the United Kingdom, or of any British Possession in any Part of the World, or such Duty or Duties on all Goods or on any specified Classes of Goods, imported or exported in the Ships of such Nation, as may appear to Her Majesty justly to countervail the Disadvantages to which British Trade or Navigation is so subjected as aforesaid.

CCCXXVI. And in every such Order Her Majesty may, if She so think fit, specify what Ships are to be considered as Ships of the Country or Countries to which such Order applies, and all Ships answering the Description contained in such Order shall be considered to be Ships of such Country or Countries for the Purposes of such Order.

CCCXXVII. Her Majesty, by and with the Advice of Her Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from Time to Time, may give such Directions and make such Regulations touching the Trade and Commerce to and from any British Possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter (excepting the Possessions of the said Company), as to Her Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and if any Goods shall be imported or exported in any Manner contrary to any such Order of Her Majesty in Council, the same shall be forfeited, together with the Ship importing and exporting the same.

CCCXXVIII. If the Legislature or proper legislative Authority of any of the British Possessions abroad shall present an Address to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to authorize or permit the Conveyance of Goods or Passengers from One Part of such Possession to another Part thereof in other than British Ships, or if the Legislatures of any Two or more Possessions, which for the Purposes of this Act Her Majesty in Council shall declare to be neighbouring Possessions, shall present Addresses or a joint Address to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to place the Trade between them on the Footing of a Coasting Trade, or of otherwise regulating the same, so far as relates to the Vessels in which it is to be carried on, it shall thereupon be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, so to authorize the Conveyance of such Goods or Passengers, or so to regulate the Trade between such neighbouring Possessions, as the Case may be, on such Terms and under such Conditions as to Her Majesty may seem good.

CCCXXIX. And with regard to the Coasting Trade of India, it shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to make any Regulations authorizing or permitting the Conveyance of Goods or Passengers from One Part of the Possessions of the East India Company to another Part thereof in other than British Ships, subject to such Restrictions or Regulations as he may think necessary; and such Regulations shall be of equal Force and Effect with any Laws and Regulations which the said Governor General in Council is now or may hereafter be authorized to make, and shall be subject to Disallowance and Repeal in like Acquisition of Lands, &c.

As to the Acquisition and Disposal of Lands, &c. for the Service of the Customs :

Acquisition and Disposal of Lands, &c.

CCCXXXII. All Lands which have heretofore been or which shall hereafter be purchased or taken for the Use of Her Majesty's Customs, together with the Rights, Members, Easements, and Appurtenances to the same respectively belonging, except such Lands as may be of Copyhold Tenure, shall be and continue vested in the Secretary for the Time being to the Commissioners of Customs and his respective Successors in such Service, according to the respective Nature and Quality of the said Lands, and the several Estates and Interests in the same respectively, in trust for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, for the Use and Service of Her Majesty's Customs ; and upon the Death of any Secretary, Collector of Customs, or other Officer or Person in whom any Lands or Interest therein were vested as a Trustee for the Crown, all the Estate and Interest therein of such deceased Trustee shall vest in the Secretary for the Time being, and be held and dealt with by him upon the same Trusts and for the same Purposes as if he had been the Trustee originally appointed ; and whenever any Act or Deed shall be required to be done by, or the Attendance, Assent, or Concurrence of the Heir-at-Law or legal Representative of such deceased Trustee shall become necessary in order to the Conveyance, Assignment, Surrender, or other Disposition of any such Lands, under the Direction of the Commissioners of Customs, the Secretary of Customs for the Time being shall be deemed to be the Heir-at-Law of such deceased Trustee for such Purpose.

Lands and Buildings to be vested in the Secretary of the Customs and his Successors.

Secretary, under Authority of Commissioners, may sell or let Lands vested in him ;

CCCXXXIII. The Secretary of Customs may, under the Direction of the Commissioners of Customs, (testified by Writing under their Hands and Seals,) sell, exchange, or in any Manner dispose of, as well any of the Freehold and Leasehold Lands which shall be so vested in him as also any of the Copyhold Lands which shall have been surrendered to and vested in any Person or Persons, and his, her, or their Heirs and Assigns, in trust for Her said Majesty or any of Her Predecessors, his, her, or their Heirs or Successors, for the Use and Service of Her Majesty's Customs or any Part thereof, in such Manner, for such Considerations, and to such Persons as the Commissioners of Customs may think fit, and may purchase other Lands for the like Purposes; and afterwards sell the same, and for that Purpose may execute all such Conveyances, Assignments, and Agreements as may be necessary for effectually conveying and assigning the same.

CCCXXXIV. The Monies produced by Sales or Exchange of any of the said Lands, including the Monies already paid by way of Deposit for the Purchase of any Lands already contracted to be sold and the Residue of the Monies to be received in respect or on account of such Contract, shall be paid by the respective Purchaser or Purchasers thereof, or the Person or Persons making such Exchange to the Receiver General of Customs for the Time being, or to such Person as the said Commissioners for the Time being, or any Two or more of them, shall appoint to receive the same, in trust for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, for the Use of the said Customs; and the Receipt of the said Receiver General, or such other Person as aforesaid, for such Monies (such Receipt to be endorsed on every such Conveyance, Surrender, or Assignment,) shall effectually discharge the Purchaser or Person by whom or on whose Account the same shall be paid.

CCCXXXV. The Commissioners of the Treasury may, from Time to Time, by any Writing under their Hands, authorize any Person to survey and make out any Lands, not exceeding One Half Acre at any One Station, which may be wanted for the Purpose of erecting Watch-houses, Dwelling Houses, and other Buildings requisite for the Security and Protection of the Revenues of Customs and Excise, with all necessary Ways unto and from the same, such Lands being situated within Half a Mile of the Sea-shore or of the Tideway of any navigable River, and may authorize any Person, by Warrant to treat and agree with the Owner or Owners of or any Person or Persons interested in any such Lands as aforesaid for such Estate or Interest therein, or for the absolute Purchase thereof, or for the Possession thereof for such Term of Years as the Public Service may require.

CCCXXXVI. When Parties, being seised, possessed of, or entitled to any such Lands, or any Estate or Interest therein, labour under any Disability to sell, release, convey, or assign the same, or to contract for the Grant of any Lease of such Lands, either for any Term of Years or for such Periods as the Public Service shall require, the Seventh Section of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845 (England), and the Seventh Section of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845 (Scotland), shall apply to the Cases of the Parties so disabled or incapacitated, in whatever Part of the United Kingdom the said Lands may be situate; and the said Sections are hereby respectively made a Part of and incorporated with this Act, and shall be applicable to Parties so seised or entitled as aforesaid in any Part of the United Kingdom; and for the Purpose of this Act the Expression "the Promoters of the Undertaking," wherever used in the said Clauses of the Lands Clauses Acts, shall mean the Person authorized as aforesaid by the Commissioners of the Treasury.

of the said Courts of Exchequer respectively, under his Hand, signifying that such Money was received by him for the Use of of such Person who shall be named in such Certificate, and the said Certificate shall be filed in the said Court of Exchequer at Westminster, Edinburgh, or Dublin respectively, as the Case may be, and a Copy thereof, signed by such Officer, shall be read and allowed as Evidence for the Purposes herein-after mentioned, and such Officer is hereby required, upon Receipt of any such Sum of Money as aforesaid, to pay the same into the Bank of England, or Bank of Scotland, or Royal Bank of Scotland, or Bank of Ireland, as the Case may require, and immediately upon the filing of such Certificate the said Lands shall be vested in or to the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors.

CCCXLIII. Upon the Application by Petition of any Party making claim to the Money so deposited, or any Part thereof, or to the Lands in respect whereof the same shall have been so deposited, or any Part of such Lands, or any Interest in the same, the Barons of the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, Edinburgh, or Dublin may in a summary Way, as to them shall seem fit, order such Money to be invested in the Public Funds, or may order Distribution thereof, or Payment of the Dividends thereof, according to the respective Interests of the Parties making claim to such Monies or Lands or any Part thereof, and may make such other Order in the Premises as the Court shall deem fit.

CCCXLIV. Upon the Death, Removal, or Resignation of any such Officer of the said Courts of Exchequer, all Stocks and Securities vested in him by virtue of this Act shall vest in the succeeding Officer of the Exchequer for the Purposes herein-before mentioned, without any Assignment or Transfer; and all Monies paid in the said Banks respectively in pursuance of this Act, or remaining in the Hands of any such Officer at his Death, Resignation, or Removal, and not vested in the Funds or placed out on Securities, as aforesaid, shall be paid over to the succeeding Officer for the like Purpose for the Time being.

And as the Costs of Conveyances or Leases of Lands under this Act :

CCCXLV. Sections Eighty-one, Eighty-two, and Eighty-three of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, shall be and are hereby incorporated with this Act, so far as the same shall relate to the Conveyance or Demise of Lands in England and Ireland; and Sections Eighty, Eighty-one, and Eighty-two of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act (Scotland), shall be and are hereby incorporated with this Act, so far as the same shall relate to the Conveyance or Demise of Lands in Scotland; the Expression of "the Promoters of the Undertaking," wherever used in the said Acts respectively, to mean the Persons so authorized as aforesaid by the Commissioners of the Treasury.

AS TO THE ISLE OF MAN.

CCCXLVI. The Isle of Man shall be deemed and taken to be Part of the United Kingdom for all the Purposes of this Act, but nothing herein contained shall prejudice or affect, or be construed in any way directly or indirectly to prejudice or affect, any of the Rights Rights or Privileges legally exercised or enjoyed by the said Isle at the Time of the passing of this Act.

CCCXLVII. No Foreign Goods upon which a higher Duty is payable on their Importation into Great Britain or Ireland than on their Importation into the Isle of Man shall, after the same have been cleared and delivered out of Charge of the proper Officer of Customs for Consumption or otherwise in the said Isle, be carried or shipped or be water-borne or be brought to any Quay, Wharf, or other Place to be shipped or water-borne to be carried from the said Isle into Great Britain or Ireland; nor shall any such Goods which may be brought to the said Isle, though not cleared and delivered as aforesaid, be removed or carried from thence into Great Britain or Ireland until the same shall have been duly cleared for that Purpose by the proper Officer of Customs, nor (unless reported for Removal in the same Ship and in continuation of the Voyage to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland;) until sufficient Security by Bond or otherwise shall have been given, in such Manner and on such Terms and Conditions as the Commissioners of Customs may direct, for the due Delivery thereof at some Port or Place in Great Britain or Ireland; and all Goods carried, brought, shipped, removed, or water-borne to be shipped, removed, or carried contrary hereto shall be forfeited, and every Person who shall carry, ship, bring, remove, or water-bear to be shipped, removed, or carried any Goods contrary hereto, or who shall aid or be concerned therein, shall forfeit Treble the Value of such Goods, or the Sum of One hundred Pounds, at the Election of the Commissioners of Customs.

CCCXLVIII. Any Goods, the Growth of the Isle of Man, or here manufactured from Materials the Growth of the said Isle, or from Materials not subject to Duties in Great Britain or Ireland, or from Materials upon which the Duty has been paid in Great Britain or Ireland and upon which no Drawback has been subsequently granted, may be brought from the said Isle into Great Britain or Ireland without Payment of any Duty: Provided always, that such Goods may nevertheless be charged with such Proportion of such Duties as shall fairly countervail any Duties of Excise payable on the like Sort of Goods the Produce of that Part of the United Kingdom into which they shall be brought, and any Articles, either wholly or in part manufactured in the said Isle from any Materials upon which a higher Duty is payable upon their Importation into the United Kingdom than on their Importation into the Isle of Man, may be brought from the said Isle into Great Britain or Ireland on Payment of the Duty payable on such Goods in that Part of the United Kingdom into which they shall be so brought.

CCCXLIX. Before any Goods shall be shipped in the Isle of Man to be carried to Great Britain or Ireland, as the Growth or Produce of that Isle, or as Manufactures of that Isle from Materials the Growth and Produce thereof, or from Materials not subject to Duty in Great Britain or Ireland, or from Materials upon which the Duties shall have been paid and not drawn back in Great Britain or Ireland, Proof shall be made by the written Declaration of some competent Person, to the Satisfaction of the Collector or Comptroller of Customs at the Port of Shipment, that

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to appoint Commissioners for carrying into execution several Acts granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain, and continuing to His Majesty certain Duties on Personal Estates, Offices, and Pensions in England: And whereas another Act was passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled An Act for rectifying Mistakes in the Names of the Land Tax Commissioners, and for appointing additional Commissioners, and indemnifying such Persons as have acted without due Authority in the Execution of the Acts therein recited: And whereas another Act was passed in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for appointing additional Commissioners to put in execution the Acts for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax, and continuing the Duties on Personal Estates, Offices, and Pensions: And whereas another Act was passed in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled An Act to appoint additional Commissioners for executing the Acts for granting an Aid by a Land Tax, and for continuing the Duties on Personal Estates, Offices, and Pensions: And whereas another Act was passed in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to appoint additional Commissioners for executing the Acts for granting an Aid by a Land Tax, and for continuing the Duties on Personal Estates, Offices, and Pensions: And whereas another Act was passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to appoint additional Commissioners for executing the Acts granting a Land Tax, and Duties on Personal Estates, Offices, and Pensions: And whereas another Act was passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to appoint additional Commissioners for executing the Acts for granting a Land Tax and other Rates and Taxes: And whereas another Act was passed in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to appoint additional Commissioners for executing the Acts for granting a Land Tax and other Rates and Taxes: And whereas it is expedient to appoint additional Persons to put in execution the several Acts for granting an Aid to Her Majesty by a Land Tax in Great Britain, and several other Acts for continuing original Term by such Licence granted bears to the total Number of Half Years contained in such original Term : Provided always, that such Deduction or Deductions shall in no Case be made or allowed except when the new Licence upon which such Reduction of Duty shall be demanded shall be required for a Carriage or other Vehicle of the same Class and Description as the Carriage or other Vehicle described in the former Licence, and unless such former Licence, together with the Figure or Mark of Distinction appertaining thereto, shall be produced and delivered up to the said Commissioners, or to the Officer appointed for that Purpose, or the Non-production of same accounted for to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners.

Licence Duties to be paid as in Schedule (B.).

V. From and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four there shall be paid, as herein-after provided, in each and every Year, to the Officer duly appointed for that Purpose, for and in respect of every Licence to be granted under this Act for every Hackney Carriage, Job Carriage, Stage Carriage, Cart, and Job Horse mentioned and described in the Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed, and which shall be deemed a Part of the same, the several annual Duties or Sums of Money set down in Figures against the same respectively.

How Duties are to be applied.

VI. All Duties to be levied under this Act shall be paid to the Receiver for the Time being for the Police District of Dublin Metropolis, by all and singular the Person or Persons who shall be appointed to receive the same, at such Time or Times in each and every Year as shall be fixed and appointed by the Commissioners of Police, and shall be by him placed to the same Account and applied to the like Purposes as the other Public Monies of or belonging to the said Police District now received by and paid into the Hands of such Receiver.

The Duties fixed by this Act may be altered or abolished, with the Consent of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor.

VII. Provided always, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall think proper, from Time to Time, in each and every Year, to alter and diminish or to annul and abolish all or any of the several Duties, Sum or Sums of Money, specified in the said Schedule (B.), or which shall hereafter under this Act be charged as Duties for and upon the respective Hackney and Stage Carriages, Job Carriages, Job Horses, and Carts, as described in the said Schedule, but so as that in case of any Alteration of the said Duties, whether the same be by Diminution or wholly annulling the same, or whether the same shall affect all or any One or more of the said Duties, such Alteration shall be approved of by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and that wherever any of the said Duties shall be altered a Schedule of the new Duties shall, immediately after such Alteration shall have been approved of as aforesaid, be published once in the Dublin Gazette, and Three Times in any of the Newspapers published in Dublin, within Seven Days next after the Publication of the Schedule last mentioned in the Dublin Gazette; and the said last-mentioned Schedule, after the Expiration of such Period of Seven Days, shall be deemed and taken to be a Part of this Act in lieu of so much of Schedule (B.) hereunto annexed, as often as any Duties shall be altered, in the Manner herein provided.

VIII. Before

VIII. Before any such Licence as aforesaid shall be granted, under the Provisions of this Act, a Requisition in Writing for the required Licence, in such Form as the said Commissioners shall direct, shall be made and signed by the Proprietor or One of the Proprietors of the Carriage, Cart, or Horse in respect of which such Licence shall be applied for, or, in the Case of a Body Corporate or public Company, by a public Officer thereof; and in every such Requisition there shall be truly specified and set forth whether the Licence shall be required for a Hackney Carriage, Stage Carriage, Job Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse, and if required for a Job Carriage, whether it is intended the same shall be drawn by One or more than One Horse; and there shall be also truly specified and set forth the Christian Name and Surname of every Person who shall be a Proprietor or Part Proprietor of such Carriage or Cart, Horse or Horses, in respect of which such Licence shall be applied for, or, in the Case of a Body Corporate or public Company, the proper Title thereof, and in the Case of a Partnership the proper Firm thereof, and in every Case the Name of the Place of Residence or Office of Business of such Proprietor, Body Corporate, public Company, or Firm; and should such Licence be required for a Stage Carriage, there shall be set forth the fixed Route or Line of Way by which it is intended such Carriage shall proceed to its Destination; and such Requisition shall be left at such Office or Place as the said Commissioners shall direct, and shall be received as Evidence, and be deemed Proof of all Matters contained therein, as against the Party serving such Requisition; and in case any Person so applying shall wilfully neglect to specify truly in such Requisition any of the Particulars hereby required to be set forth therein, he shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to revoke any Licence issued on a false Requisition: Provided always, that nothing herein shall extend to subject any Cart to a Licence on account of its being employed in bringing Hay, Straw, Corn, Vegetables, or Potatoes to Market, or Manure from Town.

Licence to Proprietors to be applied for by Requisition in Writing.

Not to apply to certain Carts.

IX. Within Ten Days after such Requisition shall have been left at such Office or Place as aforesaid the said Commissioners, unless, in pursuance of the Powers by this Act vested in them in that Behalf, they reject such Application, shall endorse or cause to be endorsed upon such Requisition their Approval of the Application thereby made; and upon Payment of the Amount of Duty chargeable for such Licence the Person applying for such Licence shall be entitled to receive the same from the proper Officer authorized in that Behalf, without further Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, except the Cost of the Dublin Plate, to be used in the Case of any Carriage or Cart, or Horse, as herein-after mentioned; and no Licence shall in any Case be issued until the Requisition so endorsed by the Commissioners or other Officer acting on their Behalf shall have been first filed in such Office or Place as the said Commissioners shall appoint.

Approval of Commissioners to be endorsed on the Requisition, and Duty paid before Issue of Licence.

X. The said Commissioners shall and may grant Licences, under their Hands, upon the Terms and Conditions and in the Manner and Form herein-after mentioned, to keep, ply, use, or let to Hire any Hackney Carriage, Stage Carriage, Job Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse,

Commissioners to grant Licences to Proprietors.

Horse, within the Limits of this Act; and every such Licence shall take Effect from the Date thereof, and shall continue in force so long as the annual Duty payable thereupon under the Provisions of this Act, to be computed from the First Day of January of each Year, shall be paid in manner as herein directed, or until the same shall be voluntarily surrendered by the Party named therein, or otherwise be determined or revoked under the Provisions of this Act; and every such Payment of Duty shall be made at an Office provided for the Purpose by the said Commissioners, in One annual Payment or in Two equal half-yearly Instalments, at a Time or Times or within a Period or Periods to be specified in such Licence as and for such Payment; and such Payment or Payments of the said annual Duty in respect of the Carriage, Cart, or Horse described in the said Licence shall be certified by the Officer duly appointed for that Purpose, whose Certificate thereof shall be received as sufficient Evidence of the Existence or Continuance in force of said Licence: Provided always, that in regard of any such Carriage it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall think proper, to refuse to grant any such Licence, or to revoke any such Licence which may have been theretofore granted, in case it shall appear to the said Commissioners upon Inspection or otherwise, that the Carriage, in respect of which such Licence shall be applied for or granted, or any Horse or Harness used with any such Carriage, is unserviceable or unsafe, or otherwise unfit for public Accommodation or Use, or that the Person applying for or in possession of any Licence is an unfit Person to hold the same by reason of his having been convicted of any Theft or Felony, or of his having been convicted of any Assault, or of Drunkenness, or of any Breach of the Provisions of this Act, or of the Rules, Orders, or Byelaws made in pursuance thereof; but in all such Cases of Refusal or Revocation the said Commissioners shall endorse upon or annex in Writing to such Licence or the Requisition therefor the Grounds for such Refusal or Revocation: Provided also, that a Licence shall not on any Account be granted to any Person under the Age of Eighteen Years, otherwise than jointly with some Person of full Age who shall be appointed to act as Trustee, Executor, Guardian, or Administrator of the Will or Personal Estate of a Proprietor dying while licensed, and in any such Case the Trustee, Executor, Guardian, or Administrator named in the Licence shall, during the Minority of any Person or Persons named in such Licence with him, be accountable in all respects as if Proprietor of such Carriage, Cart, or Horse: Provided also, that there shall be obtained a separate and distinct Licence for using or letting to Hire every Hackney Carriage, Job Carriage, Stage Carriage, Job Horse, and Cart; but no Licence so obtained shall authorize the Use of any such Carriage or Cart in any Manner contrary to the Import of the Licence appertaining to such Carriage or Cart within the Meaning of this Act: Provided also, that in every Case in which a Licence is to be obtained the proper Duty in respect of the Carriage, Cart, or Horse, to be described therein, shall be first paid, as herein required, and shall be paid in every Year thenceforward, while in force, according to the General Regulations which the said Commissioners of Police shall require to be ob-

Commissioners
may refuse or revoke Licence.

VIII. Before any such Licence as aforesaid shall be granted, under the Provisions of this Act, a Requisition in Writing for the required Licence, in such Form as the said Commissioners shall direct, shall be made and signed by the Proprietor or One of the Proprietors of the Carriage, Cart, or Horse in respect of which such Licence shall be applied for, or, in the Case of a Body Corporate or public Company, by a public Officer thereof; and in every such Requisition there shall be truly specified and set forth whether the Licence shall be required for a Hackney Carriage, Stage Carriage, Job Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse, and if required for a Job Carriage, whether it is intended the same shall be drawn by One or more than One Horse; and there shall be also truly specified and set forth the Christian Name and Surname of every Person who shall be a Proprietor or Part Proprietor of such Carriage or Cart, Horse or Horses, in respect of which such Licence shall be applied for, or, in the Case of a Body Corporate or public Company, the proper Title thereof, and in the Case of a Partnership the proper Firm thereof, and in every Case the Name of the Place of Residence or Office of Business of such Proprietor, Body Corporate, public Company, or Firm; and should such Licence be required for a Stage Carriage, there shall be set forth the fixed Route or Line of Way by which it is intended such Carriage shall proceed to its Destination; and such Requisition shall be left at such Office or Place as the said Commissioners shall direct, and shall be received as Evidence, and be deemed Proof of all Matters contained therein, as against the Party serving such Requisition; and in case any Person so applying shall wilfully neglect to specify truly in such Requisition any of the Particulars hereby required to be set forth therein, he shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to revoke any Licence issued on a false Requisition: Provided always, that nothing herein shall extend to subject any Cart to a Licence on account of its being employed in bringing Hay, Straw, Corn, Vegetables, or Potatoes to Market, or Manure from Town.

IX. Within Ten Days after such Requisition shall have been left at such Office or Place as aforesaid the said Commissioners, unless, in pursuance of the Powers by this Act vested in them in that Behalf, they reject such Application, shall endorse or cause to be endorsed upon such Requisition their Approval of the Application thereby made; and upon Payment of the Amount of Duty chargeable for such Licence the Person applying for such Licence shall be entitled to receive the same from the proper Officer authorized in that Behalf, without further Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, except the Cost of the Dublin Plate, to be used in the Case of any Carriage or Cart, or Horse, as herein-after mentioned; and no Licence shall in any Case be issued until the Requisition so endorsed by the Commissioners or other Officer acting on their Behalf shall have been first filed in such Office or Place as the said Commissioners shall appoint.

X. The said Commissioners shall and may grant Licences, under their Hands, upon the Terms and Conditions and in the Manner and Form herein-after mentioned, to keep, ply, use, or let to Hire any Hackney Carriage, Stage Carriage, Job Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse,

Commissioners to grant Licences to Proprietors.

be carried in the Inside of such Carriage; and in every Licence there shall be specified a Period or Periods of Time, to be fixed by the said Commissioners, within which Payment of Duty shall be made, as herein-before required; and every Licence shall bear Date on the Day and Year during which the same shall be granted, and shall be produced to the said Commissioners at all Time and Times, and from Time to Time, as the same shall be required or ordered by the said Commissioners to be produced.

Entries of all Licences to be made in a Book to be kept in the Office of the Commissioners, and certified Extracts to be Evidence in all Proceedings for Penalties or otherwise.

XII. The Particulars of every Licence which shall be granted under any of the Provisions of this Act, and of all Endorsements thereupon, shall be entered, in such Manner and Form as the said Commissioners of Police shall direct, in a Book or Books to be kept at the Office of said Commissioners; and in all Courts, and before any Justice, and upon all Occasions whatsoever, an Extract from or a Copy of any of the Entries made or contained in such Book or Books, certified under the Hand of the principal Officer in charge thereof, in Presence of the Person who shall produce and verify the same, shall be received as Evidence and be deemed to be sufficient Proof of all Matters and Things registered and contained in any such Book relating to any such Licence as aforesaid, without requiring the Production of any such Book, or of the original Licence, or of any Requisition, Notice, or other Document upon which any such Entries may be founded, and without any further Proof than the Production of the certified Extract or Copy aforesaid.

Penalty on Persons procuring Licences in a fictitious Name.

XIII. If any Person, for the Purpose of procuring any Licence under any of the Provisions of this Act, shall use or employ any false or fictitious Name or Place of Abode, or other false or fictitious Description of any Person or supposed Person, or shall wilfully or knowingly insert or cause to be inserted in any Requisition for any such Licence, or in any such Licence, any false or fictitious Name or Place of Abode, or other false or fictitious Description of any Person or supposed Person, or shall wilfully or knowingly insert or cause to be inserted in any such Requisition or in any such Licence as aforesaid the Name of any Person as being a Proprietor or Part Proprietor of any Hackney Carriage, Job Carriage, Stage Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse, who shall not at the Time of the Application for such Licence be in fact such Proprietor or Part Proprietor thereof respectively, the Person so offending shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof he shall forfeit such Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, or suffer an Imprisonment in the Common Gaol or House of Correction for such Term of Time not exceeding Two Months, and either with or without Hard Labour, as the Court shall think fit and adjudge; and the Licence shall be revoked.

Notice to be given of Change of Place named in Licence and Change to be endorsed.

XIV. As often as the Place named in any Licence to be granted under this Act as the Place of Residence or Office of Business of such Proprietor or Proprietors as aforesaid shall be changed, the Proprietor or One of the Proprietors thereby licensed shall, within Four Days next after such Change, give Notice thereof in Writing, signed by him, to the said Commissioners, and to be delivered at the Office which shall be appointed by them as the Place at which Licences shall be issued; and in such Notice there shall be specified the new Place of Residence or Office of Business of such Proprietor.

Proprietor or Proprietors, and such Proprietor shall at the same Time produce such Licence at the said Office, whereupon an Officer duly authorized thereto shall endorse thereon and sign a Memorandum specifying the Particulars of such Change, and in the Case of every Stage Carriage shall in like Manner notify or Endorsement any Change required to be made in the Route of such Carriage to the Destination named therein; and if any Person named in any such Licence as the Proprietor or One of the Proprietors of any such Carriage or other Property as aforesaid shall neglect or omit to give Notice of any such Change, or to produce such Licence, in order that such Memorandum as aforesaid may be endorsed thereon, within the Time and in the Manner herein limited, he shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and if any of the Particulars entered or endorsed upon any such Licence, in pursuance of the Directions of this Act, shall be erased or otherwise defaced, every such Licence shall be wholly void and of none Effect.

Penalty for Neglect, 40s.

XV. The said Commissioners shall, at the Time of granting a Licence for any such Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse, deliver to the Person or Persons applying for such Licence a numbered Plate, upon which there shall be painted or marked, in such Manner as the said Commissioners shall direct, a Number corresponding with the Number which shall be inserted in such Licence, together with such Letter, Word, or other Device or Devices (if any) as the said Commissioners shall think fit to cause to be painted or marked thereon according to the Nature of the Licence granted; and such Plate shall be known and distinguished from all other Plates, Labels, and Marks required by this Act, or which the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to require, by the Name of the Dublin Plate.

Commissioners to issue Plates with Licences.

XVI. There shall be charged upon and in respect of every such Plate to be issued under the Authority of this Act a Sum of One Shilling, to be paid to the Officer duly appointed to issue such Plate, and to be applied by the Receiver of the Dublin Metropolitan Police, after Payment of the Expense of such Plate, to the Funds of the Police Establishment.

A Fee of 1s. to be paid for every Dublin Plate.

XVII. Whenever any Licence granted under this Act with which a Dublin Plate is hereby directed to be delivered shall be revoked by the said Commissioners, or whenever the Amount of Duty payable in respect thereof shall not be duly paid at the Time or within the Period as herein-before required, the Licence so revoked or in respect of which the Duty shall not have been paid as aforesaid, and the Dublin Plate corresponding to the Number mentioned therein, shall be delivered up to the said Commissioners; and every Person in whose Possession the Carriage, Cart, or Horse specified in any such Licence shall be who shall neglect or refuse so to deliver up such Plate within Three Days after the Revocation of such Licence, or the Expiration of the Time or Times, Period or Periods in any Year, fixed for the Payment of the Duty in respect thereof, as aforesaid, shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

Plates to be delivered up on Expiration of Licences.

XVIII. Whenever the Number of any Dublin Plate shall become obliterated or defaced, so that the same shall not be distinctly visible and legible, and also whenever any such Plate shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners to have been lost or mislaid, the Person to whom the Licence relating to any such Plate shall have been granted shall surrender and deliver up such Plate (if he shall have the same in his Possession), and shall produce such Licence to the said Commissioners or their proper Officer, for Endorsement, and such Person shall then be entitled to have a new Plate delivered to him in lieu of the Plate so delivered up, or lost or mislaid, upon the Payment of the Sum of One Shilling for each Plate, and such new Plate may bear the same or a different Number, as to the said Commissioners may seem fit; and in all Cases, in order to allow Time for the Manufacture or procuring of any Dublin Plate, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, in their Discretion, or their proper Officer, on the Payment of the said Sum, and according to the Exigency of the Case, to grant a printed or written Permission to the Person or Persons named in the Licence relating to such Dublin Plate to use or ply for Hire without a Dublin Plate being affixed thereto, and for such Time as the said Commissioners shall deem requisite, any Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse for which such Plate shall be required: Provided always, that if any Plate which shall have been proved as aforesaid or represented to have been lost or mislaid shall afterwards be found, the same shall forthwith be delivered up to the said Commissioners or their proper Officer; and if any Person into whose Possession any such Plate as last aforesaid shall be or come shall refuse or neglect for the Space of Three Days to deliver up the same to the said Commissioners or their proper Officer, or if any Person licensed under the Authority of this Act shall use the Plate granted to him after the Number thereof shall be in any Manner obliterated, defaced, or obscured, so that the same shall not be distinctly visible and legible, he shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, and it shall be lawful for any Constable or Police Officer, without Warrant, to seize and take away any such Plate, in order that the same may be produced in Evidence against such Offender, or be disposed of as the said Commissioners shall direct.

New Dublin Plates to be delivered in lieu of those defaced or lost.

Penalty for not delivering up lost Plate when found, or for using a Plate after it has been defaced, 40s.

Drivers of Carriages, Carts, &c., without Plates, may be apprehended, and Carriages or Carts may be detained.

XIX. It shall be lawful for any Constable or Officer of the Dublin Police, without any Warrant for that Purpose, to apprehend, within the Limits of this Act, the Driver or other Person plying for Hire with or having the Care of any Hackney Carriage, Job or Stage Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse, on which the Plates and Marks required under the Provisions of this Act shall not be affixed, and to convey him before any Justice; and it shall also be lawful for such Constable or Police Officer to drive or take the Carriage, Cart, or Horse not having such Plates and Marks as aforesaid, or any Carriage, Cart, or Horse which shall be subject to a Licence by virtue of this Act which shall be found plying or employed contrary to the Intent and Meaning of this Act, with the Horse or Horses harnessed to such Carriage or Cart, or drawing the same, or to cause the same to be driven or taken to some Livery Stables or other Place of Safety, and there to lodge the same until the Determination of such Justice shall be known, and the Justice before whom such Driver or other Person shall be brought shall hear and determine such Offence; and in case of a Conviction, if the Penalty inflicted, together with the Costs and Expenses, and the Expenses of taking such Carriage or Cart and Horse and Horses to and keeping the same at such Yard, Livery Stables, or other Place shall not be fully paid or discharged within Five Days after such Conviction, such Carriage or Cart and Horse or Horses, and also the Harness used therewith, shall be sold, by Order under the Hand of such Justice, and the Surplus, if any, of the Produce of such Sale shall, after deducting therefrom the said Penalty, Expenses, and Costs, and the Expenses of such Sale, be rendered to the Proprietor of such Carriage or Cart.

XX. In any Complaint or other Proceeding for the Recovery of any Penalty incurred under this Act in respect of or with relation to any such Carriage or Cart, if Evidence shall be given that the Carriage or Cart in respect of which or in any Manner relating to which any such Proceeding shall be commenced or prosecuted was seen having thereon any Dublin Plate by this Act directed to be fixed upon such Carriage or Cart respectively, or having thereon any Plate resembling or intended to resemble any such Plate as aforesaid, such Carriage or Cart shall be deemed and taken to be a Hackney Carriage, Stage Carriage, Job Carriage, or Cart, according to the descriptive Letter, Word, or other Device or Devices appearing on such Plate, and such Evidence as aforesaid shall be received as sufficient Proof that such Carriage or Cart was kept for Use or let to Hire as such Carriage or Cart respectively, according to the Purport of the said Plate within the Meaning of this Act; and that in all such Proceedings as aforesaid the Person named or described in the Licence granted with or relating to the Number of the Dublin Plate fixed or placed upon such Carriage or Cart, whether such Licence shall be in force or not, shall for the Purposes of this Act be deemed to be the Proprietor of such Carriage or Cart, unless the contrary be proved.

XXI. If any Person shall forge or counterfeit, or shall procure to be forged, counterfeited, or resembled, any Licence to be granted as aforesaid, or any Dublin Plate by this Act directed to be provided for the Purpose of being fixed upon Hackney Carriages, Job Carriages, Stage Carriages, Carts, or Job Horses, or if any Person shall wilfully fix or place, or cause or permit or suffer to be fixed or placed, upon any Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse any such forged or counterfeited Plate as aforesaid, or if any Person shall make or cause to be made, sell, or exchange or bestow, or expose to Sale or utter, any such forged or counterfeited Plate, or if any Person shall knowingly, and without any lawful Excuse, the Proof of which shall be on the Person accused, have or be possessed of any such forged or counterfeited Plate, every Person so offending, and every Person knowingly and wilfully aiding, abetting, or assisting any Person in committing any such Offence as aforesaid, shall be adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being thereof convicted shall be punished by Imprisonment in the Common Gaol or House of Correction for a Term not exceeding Two Months, and either with or without Hard Labour, as the Court shall think fit; and it shall be lawful for any Constable or Police Officer, without Warrant, to seize and take away any such Plate, in order that the same may be produced in Evidence against such Offender, Carriages having Dublin Plates to be deemed Hackney, &c., according to the Evidence of Plata.

Forgery of any Licence or Dublin Plate a Misdemeanor.

Offender, or be disposed of as the said Commissioners of Police shall think proper.

Commissioners empowered to recall Dublin Plates for the Purpose of being changed.

XXII. Whenever, in the Opinion of the said Commissioners, it shall be expedient to recall any Dublin Plate, for the Purpose of changing the same for any other Dublin Plate bearing the same or a different Number, the said Commissioners shall cause Notice to be given to the Person or to any One of the Persons to whom the Licence relating to such Plate shall have been granted, signifying that the said Commissioners do thereby recall such Plate; and the Person or Persons to whom such Licence shall have been granted shall, within One Week after such Notice, deliver up such Plate, and produce the Licence relating to the same, to the said Commissioners, or to their Officer appointed to issue Licences and Plates, and also apply to the said Commissioners for a new Plate, and thereupon the said Commissioners or such Officer shall deliver to the Person so applying for the same, at the Expense of the Applicant, a new Dublin Plate, in lieu of the Plate so recalled; and if any new Plate issued under the Provisions of this Act shall bear a Number different from the Number mentioned in the Licence belonging thereto, the said Commissioners or such Officer as aforesaid shall endorse upon such Licence a Memorandum of the granting of such new Plate, with the Number thereof, and from thenceforth such Licence shall be deemed to relate to such new Plate, in the same Manner as if the Number thereof had been originally inserted in the Body of such Licence; and if any Person shall not within One Week after Notice given to him in the Manner herein directed, deliver up the Plate mentioned in such Notice according to the Terms thereof, and produce the Licence relating to such Plate, and apply for a new Plate, and fix such new Plate upon his Carriage or Cart, as the Case may be, in such Place and Manner as the said Commissioners shall direct, he shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall think proper, to revoke the Licence to which such Plate shall relate: Provided always, that if it shall appear to the said Commissioners that the Number upon such Plate so delivered up as aforesaid shall have been wilfully obliterated or rendered illegible by any other Means than by regular and proper Use and Wear thereof, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to refuse to deliver any Plate in lieu of the Plate so surrendered and delivered up as aforesaid, unless the Person applying for the same shall also surrender and deliver up the Licence relating to such surrendered Plate, and shall take out and pay for a new Licence relating to the Plate to be delivered in lieu thereof.

Commissioners to give Notice of Revocation of Licence.

XXIII. Whenever the said Commissioners shall revoke any Licence granted under the Authority of this Act to the Proprietor of any Hackney Carriage, Job or Stage Carriage, Job Horse, or Cart, or the Licence of any Driver or Conductor licensed under this Act, they shall forthwith cause a Notice of such Revocation, in such Form as they shall think fit, and signed by any One of them, to be given to the Person named in such Licence as the Person licensed, or left for him at the Place mentioned in such Licence as the Place of his Abode; and in case he shall have quitted quitted such Place, or the same shall be a false or fictitious Place of Abode, then the said Commissioners shall cause such Notice to be posted up in some public Place at the Office appointed for the issue of such Licences, which shall be deemed a good and sufficient Notice of such Revocation to all Intents and Purposes.

XXIV. In any Case where any such Licence shall have been discontinued or revoked, or where any such Licence shall have become null and void, under the Provisions of this Act, and the numbered Plate or Figure in respect of the same shall not have been delivered up to the said Commissioners or their proper Officer, or where any Hackney Carriage, Job or Stage Carriage, Horse, or Cart Plate shall have been recalled by the said Commissioners, and the same shall not have been delivered up as by Law required, and in any Case where any Hackney Carriage or other such Plate shall be in the Possession of or be used by any Person who shall not have a Licence in force relating to the same, it shall be lawful for any Constable to seize and take away any such Plate, wheresoever the same may be found, in order to deliver the same to the said Commissioners; and for the Purpose of seizing and taking away any such Plate, or any forged or counterfeit Plate, it shall be lawful for any such Constable to stop any Carriage or Horse upon which the same may be; and any Person who shall molest, obstruct, or hinder any such Constable in seizing or endeavouring to seize or take away any such Plate shall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds; and if in any such Case where any such Plate shall be found in the Possession of any Person who shall not have a Licence in force relating to the same it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners that the said Plate is or was so possessed by such Person for the Purpose of being used, or that such licensed Person had parted with the same for the Purpose of being used by any other Person, contrary to the Provisions of this Act, and also in any Case where any Plate shall have been recalled as aforesaid and not delivered up, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall think proper, to revoke the Licence to which such Plate shall relate.

XXV. It shall not be lawful for any Person to use or let to Hire any Hackney Carriage, Job Carriage, Stage Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse, at any Place within the Limits of this Act, unless such Person shall have a Licence in force for the same under the Hands or Hand of the said Commissioners or One of them, nor unless there shall be fixed on such Carriage and Cart, and upon the Harness of every such Job Horse respectively, in such Place and Manner as the said Commissioners shall in relation thereto respectively from Time to Time order and direct, the Dublin Plate belonging to or corresponding with every such Licence respectively, and likewise all and every such other Plates, Labels, and Marks as the said Commissioners shall think proper to be fixed, painted, or marked thereon, pursuant to the Provisions herein-after in that Behalf contained; and if any Person shall use or let to Hire, or shall be concerned, as Proprietor or Part Proprietor, in using or letting to Hire, at any Place within the Limits of this Act, any Hackney Carriage, Job Carriage, Stage Carriage, Cart, or any Job Horse, without having a Licence in force for the Plates may be seized where the Licence is discontinued or revoked, or where the same are used without Licence.

the same or without having paid the annual Duty for such Licence, in manner as by this Act provided, or without having such Plate fixed as aforesaid, such Person shall forfeit as a Penalty for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds for every Carriage, Cart, or Horse so used or let to Hire as aforesaid: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall interfere with the Power herein-before given to the said Commissioners, at their Discretion, to grant a written or printed Permission to any Person to use or ply for Hire any Carriage, Cart, or Horse without a Dublin Plate being affixed thereto, where such Permission shall be deemed necessary by the said Commissioners: Provided also, that it shall not be necessary in any Case where any Carriage, and Horse or Horses, are used or let for Hire, that there shall be a Licence for such Carriage or for such Horse or Horses separate and distinct from each other respectively, but that One Licence shall be deemed sufficient to authorize the using and letting for Hire of any such Carriage and Horse or Horses.

Property left in licensed Carriages to be deposited at Police Station.

XXVI. The Proprietor or Driver of every Carriage licensed under the Provisions of this Act, wherein any Property whatever shall be left by any Person hiring or using the same, shall, within Twenty-four Hours next after the same shall have been so left, restore such Property, in the State in which the same shall have been found, to the Owner thereof, or if the Owner cannot be traced within said District, shall convey the Property to the Office of the said Commissioners, or if found in any Carriage usually employed in conveying Passengers to and from the Stations of the Dublin and Kingstown Railway outside the City of Dublin, thence to the Police Station nearest to the Railway Station at which such Carriage shall take up and set down Passengers, and shall in such Places respectively deposit such Property; and if any Proprietor or Driver shall make any Default herein he shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, and such further Sum as shall, in the Judgment of the Justice before whom Complaint shall be made, appear to be a reasonable Compensation for such Property, if the same shall not be restored, and which Compensation shall be recoverable in like Manner as a Penalty under this Act, and be payable to the Owner of the Property detained; and when any such Property shall be found and duly deposited as aforesaid, the Officer receiving the same shall forthwith give an Acknowledgment to the Depositor, and make an Entry and Return thereof, according to the Regulations of the said Commissioners, which they are hereby required to make, for the Custody, Restoration, or Disposal of all such Property; and the Property so deposited shall be returned to the Person who shall prove Ownership to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, such Person previously paying all Expenses incurred, together with such Sum to the Person who shall have been actually driving the Carriage, or shall have been employed in or about it, and, having found the Property, shall deposit the same as herein directed, as with reference to the Value of the Property the said Commissioners shall award: Provided always, that if any Property so found and deposited shall not be claimed by some Person proving Ownership as aforesaid within One Year after fter the Date of Deposit (the Property having been advertised 1 such Manner as the said Commissioners may direct), such 2 Property shall be, in default of such Claim within the Time so

 3 mitted, sold or otherwise disposed of, and the Proceeds thereof
 4 aid over to the said Receiver, to be carried to the Account of 5 lonies for defraying the Expenses of the Police Establishment of 6 the said District of Dublin Metropolis, after deducting such Sum 7 as the Commissioners may award to the Person who shall have 8 been actually driving the Carriage, or shall have been employed 9 for or about it, and having found the Property shall deposit the 10 same as herein directed: Provided also, that nothing herein shall 11 be deemed to extend to Property found in a Stage Carriage at 12 any Place not within the Limits of this Act.

XXVII. On the Application of the Minister or Churchwardens of any Church, Chapel, or other Place of Public Worship within the Police District of Dublin Metropolis to the said Commissioners, shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to make Orders for regulating the Route and Conduct of Persons who shall drive any Carriage, Cart, or other Vehicle, within such Parish or Place, during the Hours of Divine Service on Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or any Day appointed for a Public Fast or Thank-giving; and any Orders which shall be so made shall be printed and affixed on or near the Church, Chapel, or Place of Public Worship to which the same shall refer, and in some conspicuous Places leading to and contiguous thereto, and elsewhere, as the said Commissioners shall direct; and every Breach of any such Order shall be deemed a separate Offence.

Commissioners
 may regulate the Route and Conduct of Persons driving Carriages, Cattle, &c. during the Hours of Divine Service.

XXVIII. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners from Time to Time and as Occasion may require to make Regulations for the Route to be observed by all Carriages, Carts, or other Vehicles, Horses, and Persons, and for preventing disorderly Conduct, Contention, Obstruction, or accidental or intentional Damage within Her Majesty's Park of the Phoenix, or upon the Roads, thoroughfares, and Passages therein or thereto adjoining, and so to give Directions to the Constables of said District for keeping Order, and for preventing Obstructions of the Roads and thoroughfares in the immediate Neighbourhood thereof, and in any Case when the said Roads or Thoroughfares may be thronged, they may be liable to be obstructed, and for preventing disorderly Conduct, Contention, Obstruction, or accidental or intentional Damage in the said Park of the Phoenix.

Commissioners to make Regulations for preventing Obstructions by Carriages, &c. in the Phoenix
 Park, &c.

XXIX. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners from Time to Time and as Occasion shall require to make Regulations for the Route to be observed by all Carriages, Carts, or other Vehicles, or Horses and Persons, and for preventing Obstruction of the Streets and Thoroughfares within the said District, and so to give Directions to the Constables for keeping Order, and for preventing any Obstruction of the Thoroughfares in the immediate Neighbourhood of any Place or Places of public Resort, and in any Case when the Streets or Thoroughfares may be thronged they may be liable to be obstructed.

Commissioners
 may make Regulations for preventing Obstructions in the Streets, &c.

XXX. Proof upon Oath that a Copy of any such Regulations made by the Commissioners has been published in any daily Newspaper in the City of Dublin, or that such Regulations have

When Proprietors not liable to Penalties for deviating from Route.

XXXI. No Proprietor of any Stage Carriage duly licensed to carry Passengers for Hire shall be liable to any Penalty for any Deviation from the Route or Line of Route specified in his Licence which the Driver of such Stage Carriage shall make by virtue of any Regulations or Direction made or given by the said Commissioners.

Compensation for Hurt or Damages.

XXXII. In every Case where any Hurt or Damage shall have been caused by the Negligence, wilful Misbehaviour, or other Misconduct of the Driver of any Carriage or Vehicle of any Kind whatsoever, or of the Person in charge thereof, or in charge of any Horse within the Limits of this Act, every Person so offending shall further pay such a Sum as shall appear to the Justice to be a reasonable Compensation to the Person so aggrieved or injured, and the Evidence of such Person shall be admitted in proof of the Offence: Provided always, if the Person so aggrieved or injured shall have been the only Witness examined in proof of the Offence, such Sum so ordered as Compensation shall be paid and applied in the same Manner as a Penalty, and in default of Payment of such Penalty and of such Compensation, if ordered, together with the Costs attending such Conviction, immediately or within such Time as such Justice shall appoint, such Justice shall and may commit such Offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, to be there imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Months, unless such Penalty, together with the Costs and Compensation, if ordered, be sooner paid; and every such Offender shall and may by the Authority of this Act, with or without any Warrant, be apprehended by any Person who shall see such Offence committed, and shall be immediately conveyed or delivered to a Constable, in order to be conveyed before some Justice.

Penalty on Persons acting as Drivers, &c. without having Licence and Badge;

XXXIII. It shall not be lawful for any Person to act as Driver of any Hackney or other Carriage as aforesaid, or of any Job Horse, or as Driver or Conductor of any Stage Carriage, whether such Person shall or shall not be the Proprietor of such Carriage or Horse within the Limits of this Act, unless in each Case such Person shall have a Licence so to do, and a numbered Badge granted to him under the Authority of this Act and remaining in force; and every Person who shall act as such Driver or Conductor without such Licence and Badge, and also every Person to whom a Licence and Badge shall have been granted who shall sell or exchange, bestow or transfer, or let upon hire such Licence, or permit any other Person to use or wear such Badge, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and every Proprietor who shall knowingly suffer any Person not duly licensed under the Authority of this Act to act as Driver of any Hackney or other Carriage as aforesaid, or as Driver or as Conductor of any Stage Carriage of which he shall be the Proprietor, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings: Provided always, that nothing herein-before contained shall subject to any Penalty any Proprietor who shall employ any unlicensed Person to act as such Driver or Conductor and on Proprietors suffering Persons to act as Drivers or Conductors not being licensed. Proviso as to Persons being employed temporarily.

Conductor as aforesaid for any Time not exceeding Twenty-four Hours, or any unlicensed Person who shall be so employed for the said Time, upon Proof being adduced by the Proprietor to the Satisfaction of the Justice before whom such Proprietor, Driver, or Conductor shall be required to attend to answer for such Offences respectively that such Employment was occasioned by unavoidable Necessity; and that every Proprietor who shall so employ such unlicensed Driver or Conductor, and every such unlicensed Driver or Conductor, shall be subject to all the Powers, Provisions, and Proceedings of and under this Act for any Act done by such Driver or Conductor during such Employment in like Manner as if such Driver or Conductor had been duly licensed.

XXXIV. When any Complaint, verbal or written, shall be made before any Justice against the Driver of any Hackney Carriage, Job Carriage, Stage Carriage, Cart, or of any Job Horse or Horses, or any Person having the Care thereof or plying for Hire therewith respectively, for any Offence committed by him against any of the Provisions of this Act, such Justice shall forthwith summon the Proprietor of such Carriage, Cart, Horse or Horses, and by the said Summons require the said Proprietor personally to be and appear, and to produce such Driver or other Person so complained against, together with the Licence and Badge (if any) theretofore granted to said Driver, to answer such Complaint, and for such Purpose every Proprietor who shall obtain any Licence under this Act, and who shall permit or employ any licensed Person to act as a Driver of any such Carriage or Horse, or as a Conductor of any such Stage Carriage, shall require to be delivered to him and shall retain in his Possession the Licence of such Driver or Conductor while such Driver or Conductor shall remain in his Service; and if any such Proprietor being duly summoned shall neglect or refuse personally to appear, or to produce such Driver or other Person so complained against, together with the said Licence and Badge, according to the Exigency of such Summons, without a reasonable Excuse to be allowed by the Justice before whom he and the said Driver ought to appear according to such Summons, such Proprietor shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, and so from Time to Time as often as he shall be so summoned until such Driver or other Person so complained against shall be produced by him to answer such Complaint: Provided always, that if such Proprietor shall neglect or refuse to appear or produce such Driver or other Person so complained against, together with the said Licence and Badge, in obedience to any Summons requiring him so to do, without a reasonable Excuse to be allowed as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Justice to proceed to hear and determine the said Complaint in the Absence of the said Proprietor and Driver or other Person complained against, or either of them, and upon Proof of such Offence by the Oath of One or more than One credible Witness to give Judgment against such Proprietor for a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings, and thereupon the said Justice is required to cause a Return of the said Judgment to be made forthwith to the said Commissioners, or to a Person duly authorized by them to receive the same.

Proprietors to be summoned to appear and produce Drivers and their Licences, &c.

Penalty on Persons acting as Drivers, &c. without having Licence and Badge;

XXXIII. It shall not be lawful for any Person to act as Driver of any Hackney or other Carriage as aforesaid, or of any Job Horse, or as Driver or Conductor of any Stage Carriage, whether such Person shall or shall not be the Proprietor of such Carriage or Horse within the Limits of this Act, unless in each Case such Person shall have a Licence so to do, and a numbered Badge granted to him under the Authority of this Act and remaining in force; and every Person who shall act as such Driver or Conductor without such Licence and Badge, and also every Person to whom a Licence and Badge shall have been granted who shall sell or exchange, bestow or transfer, or let upon hire such Licence, or permit any other Person to use or wear such Badge, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and every Proprietor who shall knowingly suffer any Person not duly licensed under the Authority of this Act to act as Driver of any Hackney or other Carriage as aforesaid, or as Driver or as Conductor of any Stage Carriage of which he shall be the Proprietor, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings: Provided always, that nothing herein-before contained shall subject to any Penalty any Proprietor who shall employ any unlicensed Person to act as such Driver or Conductor and on Proprietors suffering Persons to act as Drivers or Conductors not being licensed, Proviso as to Persons being employed temporarily.

Conductor as aforesaid for any Time not exceeding Twenty-four Hours, or any unlicensed Person who shall be so employed for the said Time, upon Proof being adduced by the Proprietor to the Satisfaction of the Justice before whom such Proprietor, Driver, or Conductor shall be required to attend to answer for such Offences respectively that such Employment was occasioned by unavoidable Necessity; and that every Proprietor who shall so employ such unlicensed Driver or Conductor, and every such unlicensed Driver or Conductor, shall be subject to all the Powers, Provisions, and Proceedings of and under this Act for any Act done by such Driver or Conductor during such Employment in like Manner as if such Driver or Conductor had been duly licensed.

XXXIV. When any Complaint, verbal or written, shall be made before any Justice against the Driver of any Hackney Carriage, Job Carriage, Stage Carriage, Cart, or of any Job Horse or Horses, or any Person having the Care thereof or plying for Hire therewith respectively, for any Offence committed by him against any of the Provisions of this Act, such Justice shall forthwith summon the Proprietor of such Carriage, Cart, Horse or Horses, and by the said Summons require the said Proprietor personally to be and appear, and to produce such Driver or other Person so complained against, together with the Licence and Badge (if any) theretofore granted to said Driver, to answer such Complaint, and for such Purpose every Proprietor who shall obtain any Licence under this Act, and who shall permit or employ any licensed Person to act as a Driver of any such Carriage or Horse, or as a Conductor of any such Stage Carriage, shall require to be delivered to him and shall retain in his Possession the Licence of such Driver or Conductor while such Driver or Conductor shall remain in his Service; and if any such Proprietor being duly summoned shall neglect or refuse personally to appear, or to produce such Driver or other Person so complained against, together with the said Licence and Badge, according to the Exigency of such Summons, without a reasonable Excuse to be allowed by the Justice before whom he and the said Driver ought to appear according to such Summons, such Proprietor shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, and so from Time to Time as often as he shall be so summoned until such Driver or other Person so complained against shall be produced by him to answer such Complaint: Provided always, that if such Proprietor shall neglect or refuse to appear or produce such Driver or other Person so complained against, together with the said Licence and Badge, in obedience to any Summons requiring him so to do, without a reasonable Excuse to be allowed as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Justice to proceed to hear and determine the said Complaint in the Absence of the said Proprietor and Driver or other Person complained against, or either of them, and upon Proof of such Offence by the Oath of One or more than One credible Witness to give Judgment against such Proprietor for a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings, and thereupon the said Justice is required to cause a Return of the said Judgment to be made forthwith to the said Commissioners, or to a Person duly authorized by them to receive the same.

Proprietors to be summoned to appear and produce Drivers and their Licences, &c.

XXXV. In

Justices to determine Disputes between Proprietors and Drivers.

XXXV. In case of any Dispute between the Proprietor of any Hackney Carriage, Job Carriage, Stage Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse kept for Use or let to Hire within the Limits of this Act, and the Driver of any such Carriage, Cart, or Horse, or any Person having the Care thereof, or plying for Hire therewith, respectively, as to any Matter relating to or connected with the Business or Employment of such Driver or Proprietor, then upon Complaint made before any Justice by such Proprietor against such Driver or other Person as aforesaid, or by such Driver or other Person as aforesaid against such Proprietor, such Justice shall inquire into and determine the same, and shall award and order such Compensation, whether the same shall be demanded by way of Wages or otherwise, to be made to either Party as to such Justice shall seem proper; and in case of Nonpayment of the Amount of the Compensation so ordered by such Justice within Seven Days after the same shall be so awarded, such Justice shall cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Party refusing or neglecting to make Payment thereof.

Agreements between Drivers, &c. and Proprietors to be in Writing.

XXXVI. It shall not be lawful either in any Court of Law or before any Justice to enforce the Payment of any Sum of Money claimed from any Driver or Conductor by any Proprietor on account of the Earnings of any Hackney Carriage or other Carriage as aforesaid, or Stage Carriage, or by reason of any Neglect or personal Misconduct of such Driver or Conductor, unless under an Agreement in Writing which shall have been signed by such Driver or Conductor in the Presence of a competent Witness.

Proceedings with respect to Licences on quitting Service.

XXXVII. When any licensed Driver or Conductor shall leave the Service of any Proprietor, such Proprietor shall, upon Demand thereof, return to him his Licence: Provided always, that if the said Proprietor shall have any Complaint against the said Driver or Conductor, it shall be lawful for such Proprietor to retain the Licence for any Time not exceeding Two Days after the Demand thereof, and within that Time to apply to the Police Court of the District in which the said Proprietor shall dwell for a Summons against him; and the said Proprietor at the Time of applying for the Summons shall deposit the Licence with the Clerk of such Police Court or Justice; and in case any Proprietor who, upon Demand thereof, shall have refused or neglected to deliver to any Driver or Conductor his Licence, shall not within Two Days, exclusive of Sunday, or any Day on which the Police Court shall not sit, apply for such Summons, and deposit the Licence as aforesaid, or shall not appear to prosecute his Complaint at the Time mentioned in the Summons, it shall be lawful for such Driver or Conductor to apply at the same Police Court, or to some Justice as aforesaid, for a Summons against such Proprietor; and upon hearing and deciding the Case the Justice, if he shall think there was no just Cause for detaining the Licence, or that there has been needless Delay on the Part of the Proprietor in bringing the Matter to a Hearing, shall have Power to order the said Proprietor to pay such Compensation to the said Driver or Conductor as the said Justice shall think reasonable, and Payment of such Compensation shall be enforced in the same Manner as any Penalty may be enforced under the Provisions of this Act; and

the Justice shall cause the Licence to be delivered to the said Driver or Conductor, unless any Misconduct shall be proved against him by reason whereof the Justice shall think that such Licence shall be revoked or suspended; and so long as any Proprietor shall neglect to apply for such Summons and deposit the Licence after such Demand thereof as aforesaid, any Justice may in like Manner from Time to Time order Compensation to be paid by him to the same Driver or Conductor; and no Proprietor shall, under any Pretence or by virtue of any Claim whatever, retain beyond the Time aforesaid the Licence of his Driver or Conductor.

XXXVIII. Every Driver of a Hackney Carriage within the Limits of this Act shall, on each Occasion when such Carriage shall be hired, deliver, if required, to the Hirer thereof a Card, on which shall be printed, in legible Letters and Figures, the Words "Hackney Carriage," and the Number of the Dublin Plate fixed on such Hackney Carriage, or such other Words or Figures as the said Commissioners of Police may direct.

XXXIX. If the Driver of any Hackney Carriage shall, on Tender of the legal and proper Fare, refuse to go with any Person desirous of hiring such Carriage to any Place within the Limits of this Act, or to any Place within Ten Statute Miles of the General Post Office in the City of Dublin, or shall, when conveying any Person for Hire, occupy more than Ten Minutes in performing the Distance of any One Mile, except by the express Desire of such Person, or in case of Accident or Obstruction, or if the Driver of any Hackney Carriage shall exact or demand for the Hire thereof more than the legal and proper Fare, the Person so offending in any Case shall forfeit for such Offence a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

XL. Every Carriage having thereon the Dublin Plate required by this Act to be fixed on Hackney Carriages which shall be found standing in any Street or Place within the Limits of this Act, or within Ten Statute Miles of the General Post Office in the City of Dublin, having a Horse harnessed thereto, and being equipped for Use, shall, unless actually hired, or unless such Driver have a reasonable Excuse to be allowed by the Justice before whom the Matter shall be brought in question, be deemed to be plying for Hire, although such Hackney Carriage shall not be on any Standing or Place usually appropriated for the Purpose of Hackney Carriages standing or plying for Hire; and the Driver of every such Hackney Carriage which shall not be actually hired shall be obliged and compelled to go with any Person desirous of hiring such Hackney Carriage to any Place within the Limits of this Act, or to any Place within Ten Statute Miles of the General Post Office in the City of Dublin; and upon the hearing of any Complaint against the Driver of any such Hackney Carriage who shall refuse Hire on Tender of the legal Fare he shall be obliged to adduce Evidence of having been and of being actually hired at the Time of such Refusal, and in case he shall fail therein he shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

XLI. If the Driver of any Hackney Carriage shall in civil and explicit Terms declare to any Person desirous to hire such Hackney Carriage that it is actually hired, and shall afterwards, Driver to deliver a Ticket to Hirer of Carriage.

Penalty on Drivers of Hackney Carriages refusing to hire, or exacting more than legal Fare.

Compensation to be made to Party improperly summoned for refusing to hire.

notwithstanding such Reply, be summoned to answer for his refusal to carry such Person in or upon the said Hackney Carriage, and shall upon the hearing of the Complaint produce sufficient Evidence to prove that such Hackney Carriage had been previously hired by an actual and bond fide Engagement for a Period of Time then to come, which Engagement could not have been fulfilled if the Carriage had been let to Hire to the Person so complaining, and it shall not appear that the said Driver used uncivil Language, or that he improperly conducted himself towards the Person complaining, or in case such Person so complaining shall not appear at the Time and Place specified in such Summons for the hearing thereof, the Justice before whom such Complaint shall be heard or such Default of Appearance shall be made shall order the Person who shall have summoned such Proprietor or Driver to make to him such Compensation for his Loss of Time in attending to make his Defence to such Complaint as such Justice shall deem reasonable, and in default of Payment thereof within Seven Days after the making of such Order shall cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Person adjudged to owe such Compensation.

Penalty for demanding, in any Case, more than Sum agreed for.

XLII. If the Proprietor of any Hackney Carriage, or any Person usually acting for the Proprietor or the Driver of such Carriage, shall agree beforehand with any Person requiring such Carriage to accept any Sum less than the proper Rate of Fare allowed by Law, and such Proprietor, Person, or Driver shall nevertheless exact or demand subsequently for the said Carriage on such Occasion more than the Sum agreed for, the Proprietor, or if such Exaction or Demand shall be made by the Driver, then the said Driver, shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings for such Offence.

Agreement to pay to Driver more than legal fare not binding.

Extra Sum so paid may be recovered.

XLIII. No Agreement whatever made with the Proprietor or Driver of any Hackney Carriage for the Payment of more than his proper Fare as fixed or limited by Law shall be binding or held to authorize any Overcharge whatsoever; and in case any Person shall be required to pay and shall pay to the Proprietor or Driver of any Hackney Carriage, whether in pursuance of an Agreement or not, any Sum exceeding the proper Fare, the Person paying the same shall be entitled, on Complaint made against such Proprietor or Driver before any Justice, to recover back the Sum paid beyond the proper Fare; and moreover such Proprietor or Driver shall forfeit, as a Penalty for such Exaction, a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and in default of the Repayment thereupon of such Excess of Fare, or of Payment of the said Penalty, the Amount of such Excess and of such Penalty or of both, as the Case may be, shall be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Proprietor of such Hackney Carriage: Provided always, that if the Exaction in any such Case shall appear to have been made by a Driver he shall be responsible to the Proprietor for the Amount of the Exaction and the Penalty, which shall be recoverable from him in the Manner herein-before provided for Recovery by Proprietors of Penalties paid for Drivers.

Drivers not to charge more than Sum agreed for, when XLIV. It shall and may be lawful for any Person to require the Driver of any Hackney Carriage to drive such Hackney Carriage for a stated Sum of Money a Distance, in the Discretion of the

the

the Driver, the Fare for which shall be the Worth or Value of the Sum so stated, without specifying any Place at which he is to stop; and in case the said Driver shall exceed such Distance without Authority or Direction for so doing, and shall exact or demand more than the Sum for which he was so engaged to drive, he shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings for such Offence.

the Distance stated shall be exceeded without Direction.

XLV. When any Hackney Carriage, hired and taken to any Place, shall be required to be kept there in waiting, it shall be lawful for the Driver to demand and receive a reasonable Sum as a Deposit, over and above the proper Fare for driving to such Place, which Sum so demanded and received shall be accounted for by the Driver when such Hackney Carriage shall be finally discharged; and if any such Driver shall refuse to remain in waiting on Payment of the Fare earned and the Tender of a Deposit sufficient to pay the further Fare for a specified Time of waiting, or shall after receiving a Deposit go away, or permit such Hackney Carriage to be driven or taken away, without the Consent of the Person making such Deposit, before the Expiration of the Time for which the Sum so deposited shall be a sufficient Compensation, according to the Fares then by Law payable, or if any Driver, on the final Discharge of such Hackney Carriage, shall refuse to refund any Portion of such Deposit which may exceed the Fare ultimately payable, in addition to the original Fare paid upon the making of such Deposit, he shall in any of such Cases forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed an Authority to any Person to detain a Hackney Carriage beyond such Period of Time as shall be fixed by the Commissioners of Police in any Rule, Order, or Byelaw to be made under the Direction of this Act.

Deposit to be made for any Hackney Carriage kept waiting.

XLVI. It shall be lawful for the Proprietor or Driver of any Hackney Carriage which shall be licensed under the Authority of this Act to stand and ply for Hire with such Carriage, and to drive the same, on the Lord's Day, any former Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding; and that such Proprietor or Driver who shall so stand and ply for Hire as aforesaid shall be liable and compellable to do the like Work on the Lord's Day as by this Act liable or compellable to do as such Proprietor or Driver on any other Day of the Week.

Carriages may ply on Sundays, and shall be then subject to all the Regulations in force.

XLVII. If any Person shall refuse or omit to pay the Proprietor or Driver of any Hackney Carriage, Stage Carriage, Job Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse the Sum justly due for the Hire of such Carriage, Cart, or Horse, or if any Person, either by himself or by the Negligence or Misconduct of any Person in his Employment, shall break, deface, or in any Manner injure any such Carriage or Cart, or the Harness thereof, or shall injure any Horse used with any such Carriage or Cart, or shall injure any Job Horse, in either Case the Person so offending shall, on Conviction before a Justice, forfeit such Sum as to the said Justice shall seem reasonable for any and every such Offence; and it shall be lawful for any Constable of Police, upon a Charge of any such Offence, to apprehend and hold to Bail to appear before a Justice the Person so charged; and upon Proof upon Oath before such Persons refusing to pay for any Carriage or Cart, &c., or for Damage, may be committed.

Justice of the Nonpayment of the proper Fare, or of any Injury or Loss so suffered through the Negligence or Misconduct of such Person, the said Justice shall adjudge the Sum to be paid, and shall award reasonable Satisfaction to the Party so complaining or injured for his Fare or for the Damage suffered, with Compensation for his Loss of Time in attending to make and establish such Complaint; and if the Sum awarded shall not be thereupon paid, or if the Offender shall not also pay at the same Time the Sum which shall be awarded as Satisfaction to the Owner or Driver, it shall be lawful for such Justice to commit the said Offender to Prison, there to remain for any Time not exceeding Two Calendar Months, unless the Amount of the said Fine and Satisfaction shall be sooner paid; and it shall also be lawful for such Justice, if he shall think fit, to order such Offender to be kept to Hard Labour during such Imprisonment.

Commissioners, with Consent of Recorder of the City of Dublin, may alter Fares of Hackney Carriages.

XLVIII. It shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners from Time to Time and at all Times hereafter, as often as they shall consider it expedient so to do, to vary and alter each or any of the Rates and Fares now by Law payable for the Use of Hackney Carriages, and to fix and appoint the Rates and Fares to be taken and demanded for the Use of Hackney Carriages to be licensed under this Act, and to increase or diminish the same; provided that every such Alteration, whether by way of Increase or Diminution, shall be approved of by the Recorder of the City of Dublin, and shall be published in the Manner herein-before directed with respect to any Alteration which shall be made in the Duties to be taken under this Act.

Commissioners to appoint or alter Places for Carriage Stands, and limit the Number of Carriages at each.

XLIX. It shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to order and direct the Route of Hackney Carriages, when proceeding from One Stand to another, and from Time to Time to appoint proper Places or Stations within the Limits of this Act, where Hackney Carriages, Stage Carriages, and Carts licensed for that Purpose may stand for Hire; and from Time to Time to alter any Stands or Stations, and to limit the Number of Hackney Carriages, Stage Carriages, and Carts to stand in each of such Places, and to direct and regulate the Spaces and Intervals to be left between the Carriages and Carts at such Stands and Places, and in all respects to regulate the Manner in which Carriages and Carts shall stand thereat respectively; and it shall also be lawful for the said Commissioners to inspect or cause to be inspected by such Person or Persons as they shall appoint in that Behalf all such Carriages and Carts to be licensed under this Act, and the Horses and Harness employed to draw such Carriages and Carts respectively, at such Times and Places as the said Commissioners shall for that Purpose appoint, and to that End require that all Carriages and Carts, Horses and Harness, to be inspected as aforesaid, shall be produced before them or before such Person or Persons as they shall appoint, at such Times and Places as they shall direct; and in case any Person shall refuse or neglect to obey or comply with any Order or Direction made or given by the said Commissioners in pursuance of the Powers hereby vested in them, every Person so offending shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

L. It shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners from Time to Time and at all Times to make such General Rules, Orders, and Byelaws for the better ordering and regulating of all and singular the Persons, Carriages, Carts, and Horses required to be licensed under this Act, as in the Judgment of the said Commissioners may be required for public Propriety, Safety, Accommodation, or Convenience, and from Time to Time to alter, vary, amend, or repeal all or any of such Rules, Orders, and Byelaws provided that such Rules, Orders, and Byelaws, when so made or altered, shall not be repugnant to the Provisions of this Act; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to fix and ordain therein such reasonable Penalties and Forfeitures as to them may seem fit for all Offences against and Breaches of such Rules, Orders, or Byelaws, and to subject Offenders against same to Imprisonment in the Common Gaol or House of Correction for the Breach of any such Rule, Order, or Byelaw, there to be kept (either with or without Hard Labour) for any Time not exceeding Thirty Days; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, in their Discretion, to make void or suspend the Licence or Licences of every Offender who shall be convicted of any Offence against the same, unless the Magistrate before whom such Conviction shall be had against such Offender shall at the Time of such Conviction state in Writing on his Licence that such Punishment as he has adjudged against such Offender shall be "without Prejudice to his Licence:" Provided always, that such new Rules, Orders, and Byelaws, and every Alteration, Amendment, and Repeal of the same, shall be approved of by the Recorder of the City of Dublin, and that after such Rules, Orders, and Byelaws, or any Alterations, Amendment, or Repeal of the same, shall have been so made and approved of, the same shall be published in the Manner herein-before directed with respect to any Alterations which shall be made in the Duties to be paid under this Act; and all such Rules, Orders, and Byelaws, and every Alteration, Amendment, and Repeal of the same, when approved of as aforesaid, shall be good and valid, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the same were particularly mentioned, expressed, and enacted in this present Act.

Commissioners to make Rules for the Regulation of Hackney Carriages and Conduct of Drivers, &c.

LL. Every Driver or Conductor authorized by any Proprietor to act as Driver of any Hackney Carriage as aforesaid, or as Driver or Conductor of any Stage Carriage, who shall suffer any other Person to act as Driver of such Hackney or other Carriage, or as Driver or Conductor of such Stage Carriage, without the Consent of the Proprietor thereof, and also every Person, whether duly licensed or not, who shall act as Driver or as Conductor of any such Carriage without the Consent of the Proprietor thereof, shall forfeit the Sum of Forty Shillings; and every Driver or Conductor charged with such Offence who, when required by any Justice so to do, shall not truly make known the Name and Place of Abode of the Person so suffered by him to act as Driver or Conductor without the Consent of the Proprietor, and also the Number of the Ticket of such Person (if licensed), shall be liable to a further Penalty of Forty Shillings; and it shall be lawful for any Police Constable, without any Warrant for that Purpose, to take into Custody any Person unlawfully acting as a Driver or as a Conductor, ductor, and to convey him before any Justice, to be dealt with according to Law, and also, if necessary, to take charge of the Carriage and every Horse in charge of such Person, and to deposit the same in some Place of safe Custody until the same can be applied for by the Proprietor.

Commissioners to grant Licences to act as Driver, &c., on Production of Certificate.

LII. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to grant to any Male Person more than Sixteen Years of Age, on producing a satisfactory Certificate of Ability to drive, and of good Character, a Licence to act as Driver of any Hackney Carriage, Stage Carriage, or Job Carriage, or Horse, and also to grant to any such Male Person, upon the Production of a Certificate of good Character, a Licence to act as Conductor of any Stage Carriage; and for every such Licence and for every Renewal thereof there shall be paid the Duty appropriated thereto in the Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed, and there shall be specified in it the proper Name and Surname, Place of Abode, Age, and Description of the Person to whom such Licence shall be granted; and every such Licence shall bear a distinctive Number, and be dated on the Day upon which the same shall be granted, and shall thence continue in force until voluntarily surrendered by the Party named therein, or until otherwise determined or revoked under the Provisions of this Act, and except for the Time (if any) during which the same shall be suspended by the said Commissioners or by any Justice; and in every such Licence there shall be specified a Period within which the same shall while in force be surrendered annually at the Office which the said Commissioners shall appoint, for the Purpose of the same being renewed or re-granted: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to refuse to grant any such Licence or Renewal thereof, or to revoke any such Licence, in case it shall appear that the Person applying for or in possession of such Licence is an unfit Person to hold the same, by reason of his having been convicted of any Theft or Felony, or of his having been convicted of any Assault, or of Drunkenness, or of any Violation of this Act, or the Rules and Regulations or By-laws relating to Hackney Carriages: Provided also, that it shall not be necessary for the Guard of any of Her Majesty's Mails to obtain a Licence under this Act.

What shall be specified in the Licence.

Drivers, &c. applying for Licences to sign Requisition for the same.

LIII. Before any such Licence as last aforesaid shall be granted or renewed a Requisition for the same, in such Form as the said Commissioners shall prescribe for that Purpose, and accompanied (except in Cases of Renewal) with such Certificate as herein-before is required, shall be made and signed by the Person to whom such Licence is requested to be granted, and in every such Requisition there shall be truly specified and set forth the proper Name and Surname and Place of Abode and Age of the Person applying for such Licence, with all such further Particulars as the Commissioners may require; and if any Person applying for, and procuring or attempting to procure, any such Licence as last aforesaid, or any Renewal thereof, shall make or cause to be made any false Representation in any such Requisition as aforesaid, or if he shall not truly answer all Questions which shall be demanded of him in relation to such Application for a Licence or Renewal, or if any Person to whom Reference shall be made shall in regard to such Application wilfully or knowingly make any Misrepresentation with the Intention of deceiving the said Commissioners, each and every Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, upon Proof of any such Offence, to revoke any Licence which shall have been granted upon any such false Representation; and it shall be also lawful for the said Commissioners to proceed for recovering of such Penalty before any Justice at any Time within One Calendar Month after the Commission of the Offence, or during the Currency of the Licence so improperly obtained.

Persons making false Representations to forfeit 40s., and Licence may be revoked.

LIV. It shall be lawful for any such Justice before whom any Driver or Conductor shall be convicted of any Offence, whether under this Act or any other Act, or under any Rule, Order, or Byelaw duly made by the said Commissioners as herein-before provided, if such Justice, in his Discretion, shall think fit, to revoke the Licence of such Driver or Conductor, and also any other Licence which he shall hold under the Provisions of this Act, or to suspend the same for such Time as the Justice shall think proper; and if any Driver or Conductor complained of shall be adjudged guilty of the Offence alleged against him, the Justice before whom he shall be convicted shall in every Case endorse upon the Licence of such Driver or Conductor the Nature of the Offence and the Penalty or other Punishment which shall be so inflicted; and if the said Licence shall not be produced, on Demand thereof, it shall be lawful for the Justice to detain in Custody such Driver or Conductor until the Proprietor or Person in whose Possession such Licence shall then be shall deliver up the same, or until such Proprietor or Person shall be summoned in manner as herein-before directed; and the Justice shall forthwith send such Licence, and the Badge thereunto belonging, to the Commissioners, who shall cancel such Licence if it has been revoked by the Justice, or if it has been suspended shall at the End of the Time for which it shall have been suspended re-deliver such Licence, with the said Badge, to the Person to whom it was granted.

LV. The said Commissioners shall at the Time of granting any such Licence cause to be delivered to the Driver or Conductor to whom the same shall be granted an Abstract of any Law, Byelaw, and Regulations in force specifically relating to such Employment, and of the Penalties for any Misconduct therein, and also such Badge of Distinction as the said Commissioners shall cause to be provided and shall require to be worn; and every such Driver or Conductor shall at all Times during his Employment, and when he shall be required to appear before any Justice, wear such Badge in such Manner as shall be required by any Rule, Order, or Byelaw made in relation thereto, so that the Number thereon shall be distinctly visible and legible; and if any licensed Driver or Conductor shall act as such or shall attend before any Justice, without having and wearing such Badge in manner aforesaid, or shall when thereunto required refuse to produce such Badge for Inspection, or to permit any Person to note the Number thereon, he shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

LVI. If in any Year any such Licence as last aforesaid shall not be renewed within the Period specified therein for the Purpose, or shall be revoked for any of the Causes herein-before mentioned, Licences may be revoked or suspended by Justices.

mentioned, the Person to whom such Licence shall have been granted shall deliver up such Licence and the Badge belonging thereto to the said Commissioners, or the Officer appointed by them for that Purpose; and if after such Licence shall have been revoked, or shall not have been renewed in any Year within the Period prescribed for the Purpose, such Person shall use or wear the Badge thereto belonging, or shall neglect or refuse for the Space of Three Days to deliver the same and the Licence to the said Commissioners, or the Officer appointed by them for that Purpose, or if any Person shall use or wear or detain any Badge without being named and described in a Licence in force relating thereto, he shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, and so from Time to Time until such Badge shall be delivered up in manner herein specified; and it shall be lawful for any Constable to seize and take away any Badge so worn unlawfully, wheresoever the same may be found, and thereupon deliver the same to the said Commissioners.

New Badges to be delivered in lieu of defaced or lost Badges.

LVII. Whenever the Number of any Badge shall become obliterated or defaced, so that the same shall not be distinctly visible and legible, and also whenever any Badge shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners to have been lost or mislaid, the Person to whom the Licence relating to any such Badge shall have been granted shall produce such Licence to the said Commissioners or their proper Officer, and in the Case of a Badge with the Number obliterated or defaced shall at the same Time deliver up such Badge, and such Person shall then be entitled to have a new Badge delivered to him in lieu of the Badge so lost or mislaid or delivered up, upon the Payment of the Sum of Two Shillings, to be applied as aforesaid: Provided always, that if any Badge which shall have been proved as aforesaid to have been lost or mislaid shall afterwards be found, the same shall forthwith be delivered up to the said Commissioners or their proper Officer; and if any Person into whose Possession any such Badge as last aforesaid shall come shall neglect for the Space of Three Days or refuse to deliver up the same to the said Commissioners or their proper Officer, to be disposed of as the said Commissioners may think proper, or if any Person licensed under the Authority of this Act shall use or wear the Badge granted to him after the Number thereon shall be in any Manner obliterated, defaced, or obscured, so that the same shall not be distinctly visible and legible, every such Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

Penalty for not delivering up lost Badge when found, or for wearing a Badge after it has been defaced, 40s.

Forgery of Licence or Badge, or knowingly uttering a forged Licence or Badge, a Misdemeanor.

LVIII. If any Person shall forge or counterfeit, or shall cause or procure to be forged, counterfeited, or resembled, any Licence or Badge by this Act directed to be provided for each Driver or Conductor as aforesaid, or if any Person shall sell or exchange or expose to Sale, or utter or bestow, any such forged or counterfeited Licence or Badge, or if any Person shall knowingly and without lawful Excuse (the Proof whereof shall lie on the Person accused) have or be possessed of such forged or counterfeited Licence or Badge, knowing such Licence or Badge to be forged or counterfeited, every Person so offending, and every Person knowingly and wilfully aiding, abetting, or assisting any Person committing any such Offence as aforesaid, shall be adjudged guilty of a Misa Misdemeanor, and being thereof convicted shall be punished by Imprisonment in the Common Gaol or House of Correction for a Term not exceeding Two Calendar Months, and either with or without Hard Labour, as the Court shall think fit; and it shall be lawful for any Person to detain any such Licence or Badge, or for any Constable to seize and take away any such Licence or Badge, in order that the same may be produced in Evidence against such Offender, or be disposed of as the said Commissioners shall think proper.

LIX. As often as any Driver or Conductor, if licensed under this Act, shall change his Place of Abode, he shall, within Four Days next after such Change, give Notice thereof in Writing signed by him to the said Commissioners, specifying in such Notice his new Place of Abode, and shall at the same Time produce his Licence to the said Commissioners, or to an Officer appointed by them for that Purpose, who shall endorse thereon a Memorandum specifying the Particulars of such Change; and if any such Driver or Conductor shall make any Change as aforesaid, and shall neglect or omit to give Notice of such Change, or to produce his Licence, in order that such Memorandum as aforesaid may be endorsed thereon, within the Time and in the Manner herein limited and directed, he shall forfeit for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and in case any of the Particulars entered or endorsed upon any Licence in pursuance of this Act shall be erased or otherwise defaced, every such Licence shall be wholly void and of none effect.

LX. It shall not be lawful for any Person to carry about on any Carriage or on Horseback or on Foot, in any Thoroughfare or public Place within the Limits of this Act, to the Obstruction or Annoyance of the Inhabitants or Passengers, any Picture, Placard, Notice, or Advertisement, whether written, printed, or painted upon or posted or attached to any Part of such Carriage, or on any Board or otherwise.

LXI. All Duties, Penalties, Fines, and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, or which may be incurred under any of the Provisions of this Act, or under any Byelaw, Order, Rule, or Regulation made pursuant thereto, and all and every Sum and Sums of Money whatsoever which may be payable or recoverable thereunder in the Nature of Compensation or Damages, Costs, Expenses, or otherwise, wheresoever the Contract, Offence, Act, or Matter by which the same may have originated or become payable or recoverable shall be committed or done, or have happened or terminated, may be inflicted by or be sued for and recovered before any One or more of the Divisional Justices of the Police District of Dublin Metropolis, whether the Subject Matter of the Complaint preferred before him in relation thereto took place within the Limits of this Act or beyond the same; and One or more of the said Justices shall attend for the Purpose of hearing and determining Complaints respecting the Premises at such Place or Places within the said Police District, or for any Division thereof, although the same may not be One of the Divisional Offices of Police for the District, and at such Time or Times, as shall be appointed for the Purpose by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or according according to any general Directions to be from Time to Time given by the Chief or Under Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant; and in case of any Dispute between the Hirer and Driver of any Hackney Carriage, the Hirer may require the Driver forthwith to drive to the nearest Metropolitan Police Court, where Complaint may be made to the Magistrate then sitting, who shall hear and determine the same, without requiring any Summons to be issued for that Purpose; and if such Dispute should arise at a Time when the Police Court shall not be open, the Hirer may require the Driver to drive to the nearest Police Station, where the Complaint shall be entered, and Notice given to both Parties that the Matter in Dispute shall be heard by the Magistrate at his next Sitting; and it shall be lawful for any Divisional Justice by whom any Person shall be convicted of any Offence under this Act, or under the Byelaws, Orders, or Regulations made pursuant thereto, to lessen the Penalty or Term of Imprisonment in such Manner as he may think fit.

LXII. In every Case where there shall be more than One Proprietor of any Hackney or other Carriage as aforesaid, or Stage Carriage, or Job Horse, or Cart, it shall be sufficient in any Information, Summons, Order, Conviction, Warrant, or any other Proceeding under the Provisions of this Act, to name One of such Proprietors, without reference to any other or others of them, and in the Case of a Body Corporate or public Company the public Officer thereof, and to describe and proceed against him as if he were sole Proprietor.

LXIII. Such Fees as are contained in the Schedule hereunto annexed marked (E.), and no other or greater Fees, shall be taken by any Justice for any Business done or Proceedings had before him under this Act.

LXIV. Any Summons issued by any Justice requiring the Appearance of any Defendant, or of any Witness or other Person with reference to any Information, Complaint, or other Proceeding pending for the Recovery of any Forfeiture, Penalty, or Sum of Money, or otherwise howsoever under this Act, shall be deemed to be well and sufficiently served in case either the Summons or a Copy thereof shall, Forty-eight Hours at least before the Time appointed for the Hearing of the Complaint, or other the Cause of such Summons, be served personally on any such Person as aforesaid, or be left at his usual or last Place of Abode, or at his Counting-house or Office, or other Place of Business, or (in case such Person be a licensed Proprietor of a Hackney Carriage, Job Carriage, Job Horse, Stage Carriage, or Cart,) at the Place registered as aforesaid as the Place of Abode or Business of such Proprietor, as the Case may be; and if such Place cannot be found, or if such Proprietor shall not be known thereat, then such Summons shall be deemed to be well and sufficiently served, if the same or a Copy thereof be fixed up in some conspicuous Place in the public Office or Place appointed for the hearing of Causes under this Act within the said Police District of Dublin Metropolis: Provided always, that in all Cases in which the Places of Abode, Counting-house, Office, or other Place of Business of such Proprietor shall be at a greater Distance than Two Miles from the General Post Office, such Proprietor shall be required, required, prior to the Issue of any Licence to him under this Act; to specify in his Application for the same a Place of Address within the Municipal District of the City of Dublin; and every Summons as aforesaid, or a Copy thereof, shall be deemed well and sufficiently served if served personally upon the known or reputed Driver of such Proprietor, or left at the usual Place of Abode of any such Driver, or if left at such Place of Address of such Proprietor, Forty-eight Hours at least before the Time appointed for the hearing of the Complaint or other Cause of Summons.

LXV. Upon the Trial or Hearing of any Information or Complaint exhibited or made under any of the Provisions of this Act, or under any Rule, Order, or Byelaw made in pursuance thereof, any Informant or Complainant or other Person shall be deemed and is hereby declared to be a competent Witness, notwithstanding that he may be entitled to any Part of any pecuniary Penalty or to any pecuniary Compensation or Reward on the Conviction of any Offender upon any such Information or Complaint, or liable to any Police Rate or Tax; provided nevertheless, that it shall also be lawful to and for the Divisional Justice by and before whom any Information or Complaint is to be determined, if in his Discretion he shall think fit so to do, to admit the Respondent or Party accused in any such Case to be examined upon Oath, and give Evidence touching the said Complaint and the Matters relating thereto.

LXVI. If any Person who shall be summoned as a Witness to give Evidence before a Justice touching the Matters alleged in or relating to any Information, Complaint, or other Proceeding depending before such Justice under the Authority of this Act, shall neglect or refuse to appear before such Justice at the Time and Place to be for that Purpose appointed, without a reasonable Excuse, to be allowed by such Justice, or if any Person so summoned shall appear and refuse to be examined and give Evidence before such Justice touching the Matters aforesaid, every Person so offending shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and if any such Witness or any Complainant shall make any Statement in Evidence which shall be proved to be untrue, and to be a wilful and known Misrepresentation of the Circumstances or Occurrences connected with the Complaint, Information, or other Proceeding depending before such Justice, it shall be lawful for the said Justice to commit the Person so offending to Prison for any Period not exceeding Two Calendar Months, with or without Hard Labour, as the said Justice shall direct: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent a Prosecution for Perjury against any such Witness or Complainant, if such Justice shall so direct; and if any Complainant, Witness, Defendant, or other Person shall, by any disrespectful or disorderly Conduct before the said Justice, in the Use of violent, abusive, or indecorous Language, to whomsoever applied, or of any Imprecation, Threat, or slanderous Imputation, or of any menacing Gesture, or of any Act, Gesture, or Language tending to provoke a Breach of the Peace, or of any other Means of Disturbance or Disorder, it shall be lawful for the said Justice to inflict for every such Offence a Fine not exceeding Forty Shillings, and in default of Justices empowered to award Compensation to Persons for Loss of Time in attending to answer unfounded Complaints.

LXVII. If any Person shall be summoned or brought before any Justice to answer any Complaint made against him by any Person, other than a Police Officer or Constable, touching or concerning any Offence committed or alleged to have been committed by the Person so summoned or brought before such Justice against the Provisions of this Act, or any Byelaw, Order, Rule, or Regulation made pursuant thereto, and such Complaint or Information shall afterwards be withdrawn, or quashed, or dismissed, or if the Defendant shall be acquitted of the Offence charged against him, it shall be lawful for the said Justice, if he shall think fit, to order and award that the Person making such Complaint shall pay to the Defendant such Costs for making or preparing for his Defence, and also such Compensation for the Loss of his Time, and for the Time of his Witnesses (if any), in attending the said Justice, touching or concerning such Complaint or Information, as to the said Justice shall seem reasonable; and in default of immediate Payment of the Sum so awarded it shall be lawful for the said Justice to cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person ordered to pay the Sum so awarded, together with the Costs of such Distress and Sale; and if Goods and Chattels of such Person sufficient to answer the Sum so awarded, with such Costs as aforesaid, cannot be found, then it shall be lawful for such Justice to commit such Person to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for any Time not exceeding Two Calendar Months, unless the Sum so awarded, together with all Costs and Expenses, shall be sooner paid and satisfied.

Penalty on false Oaths.

LXVIII. If any Person or Persons who shall take any Oath in pursuance of this Act shall wilfully swear falsely therein, and shall be thereof lawfully convicted, by Verdict or Confession, any such Person so offending shall for any such Offence incur and suffer such Penalties, Pains, and Disabilities as Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are or shall be liable to by any Law then in force in Ireland; and if any Person or Persons shall procure or suborn any other Person to take such false Oath, and shall be thereof convicted, by Verdict or Confession, (whether the Person having taken such false Oath shall be previously convicted or not,) any such Person so procuring or suborning shall for every such Offence incur and suffer such Penalties, Forfeiture, Pains, and Disabilities as Persons convicted of Subornation of Perjury are or shall be liable to by any Law then in force in Ireland.

Appeal.

LXIX. In case any Person or Persons who shall be refused a Licence, or whose Licence shall be revoked under the Provisions of this Act, or against whom any Information or Complaint shall have been exhibited under this Act, shall feel aggrieved by such Refusal or Revocation, or by the Judgment given upon such Information or Complaint, where such Judgment shall be for the Payment of any penal or other Sum exceeding Twenty Shillings, or for any Term of Imprisonment exceeding One Month, but in no other Case, it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons, upon giving such Notice as herein-after mentioned, to appeal therefrom to the Recorder of the City of Dublin at his next Sessions, or if there be not One Week between the Time of such Refusal, Revocation, or Adjudication and the next Sessions, then to the next succeeding Sessions after the Expiration of such Week to be holden in and for the said County of the City of Dublin; and it shall be lawful for the said Recorder to hear, adjudge, and finally determine such Appeal; and if upon any such Appeal any Defect in Form shall be found in any Part of such Proceedings, every such Defect of Form shall and may thereupon be immediately rectified and amended by Order of such Recorder, anything in this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that such Refusal or Revocation of any such Licence shall be valid until the final Decision of any such Appeal.

Appellant or Appellants, and the Recognizance or Recognizances so entered into as aforesaid shall be estreated, unless such Expenses are so paid by such Appellant or Appellants; and it shall not be necessary, at the hearing of such Appeal, to return or produce to the Court of Quarter Sessions any Record of the Conviction of the Defendant or Appellant before any Divisional Justice, but it shall be deemed sufficient for the Clerk of the convicting Justice to attend at such Court of Quarter Sessions, and produce the Book containing the Entry of such Conviction; and such Clerk shall enter in such Book the Judgment of said Court of Quarter Sessions in reference to such Appeal, and thereupon such Judgment shall be held to be final and conclusive between the Parties to such Appeal.

Court of Quarter Sessions, on Appeal, to examine only the Evidence before given, &c.

LXXII. Upon every such Appeal as aforesaid it shall be lawful for the Court of General or Quarter Sessions to re-hear upon Oath the Merits of the Case whereon the original Judgment appealed against shall have been given, and to reverse or confirm in the whole or in part the Judgment appealed against, or to give such new or different Judgment as they in their Discretion shall in that Behalf think fit; and such Court shall in such new or different Judgment have the same Power of mitigating as is herein-before by this Act given to Justices in Judgments given by them: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for such Court as aforesaid, at its Discretion, to state specially the Facts of any Case on which such Appeal shall be made, for the Opinion of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench in Ireland.

Court to adjudge Costs in case of Dismissal or Abandonment of Appeal.

LXXIII. When any Appeal under this Act shall be dismissed, or the Adjudication appealed against shall be affirmed, or such Appeal shall be abandoned, it shall be lawful for the Court to which such Appeal shall have been made or intended to be made to adjudge and order that the Party appealing shall pay such reasonable Costs as shall in the Opinion of such Court be meet, to be recovered in like Manner as the Penalties given by this Act are recoverable.

In what Manner Goods distrained shall be sold.

LXXIV. In all Cases where any Goods or Chattels distrained or otherwise seized or taken under any of the Provisions of this Act shall be sold for the Purposes thereof, the same shall be sold by public Auction, and Notice of the Time and Place of such Sale be given to the Owner of such Goods or Chattels, or left at his last known Place of Abode or of Business, Five Days at the least prior to such Sale: Provided always, that if the Owner of any such Goods or Chattels shall give his Consent in Writing to the Sale thereof at any earlier Period than is by this Act or shall be by any such Notice appointed for such Sale, or in any other Manner than is by this Act directed, it shall be lawful to sell such Goods and Chattels according to such Consent; provided also, that if the Owner of such Goods or Chattels shall at any Time before Sale thereof pay or tender to the Person who by any Warrant or other Process shall be directed or authorised to cause such Goods or Chattels to be sold the Sum which shall by such Warrant or Process be required to be levied or raised by the Sale of such Goods or Chattels, together with all reasonable Costs and Expenses incurred, no Sale of such Goods or Chattels shall be made.

LXXV. It

LXXV. It shall be lawful for any Justice, upon any Complaint being lodged before him under the Provisions of this Act against the Proprietor or Driver of any Hackney Carriage, Job Carriage, Stage Carriage, Job Horse, or Cart, to issue a Warrant for the Apprehension of such Proprietor or Driver, or a Summons for his Appearance to be examined touching the said Complaint, or to answer the same, as to such Justice shall seem fit:

LXXVI. If any Person or Persons whatsoever shall assault, molest, resist, or obstruct the said Commissioners, Divisional Justices, or any of them, or any Person acting under the Authority of them or any of them, in the Execution of his or their Duty under this Act, it shall and may be lawful for such Commissioners, Divisional Justice or Justices, or Persons so acting under his or their Authority, and for all and every Person or Persons acting in his or their Aid and Assistance, to arrest all and every Person or Persons so offending, and him, her, or them to convey before any One of the said Divisional Justices, or, if apprehended in the Night-time, to lodge him, her, or them in the Station House or other Place for safe Custody until the Morning, and then to carry and convey such Person or Persons before any One or more of the said Divisional Justices; and such Justice or Justices shall and may, if upon due Examination he or they shall find Cause, commit every such Person to Gaol, there to remain until he, she, or they shall be delivered by due Course of Law.

LXXVII. All pecuniary Penalties which shall be recovered before any Justice under the Provisions of this Act shall respectively be divided and distributed in manner following; (that is to say), One Moiety thereof to the said Receiver of the said Police District of Dublin Metropolis, to be placed by him to the Account of the Public Monies of the Revenue of the Metropolitan Police District, and to be applied accordingly, and the other Moiety thereof to the Person who shall give Information of the Offence and prosecute the Offender: Provided nevertheless, that in case the Person who shall so give Information and prosecute shall be at the Time of the Commission of the Offence, or of the hearing of the Complaint, employed in the Dublin Metropolitan Police Service, the whole Penalty so forfeited shall be paid to the said Receiver for the Purposes aforesaid.

LXXVIII. Any Action or Prosecution which shall be brought or commenced against any Person for anything done in pursuance or under the Authority of this Act shall be commenced and prosecuted within Three Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be brought and tried in the District, County, or Place where the Cause of Action shall arise, and not elsewhere; and Notice in Writing of such Action, and the Cause thereof, shall be given to the Defendant One Calendar Month at least before the Commencement of the Action; and the Defendant in such Action may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and any other Matter or Thing in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if the Cause of Action shall appear to arise from any Matter or Thing done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act, or if any such Action shall be brought after the Expiration of such Three Calendar Months, or shall be brought in any other County or Place than as aforesaid, or if Justices may issue Warrants to apprehend in certain Cases.

Persons obstructing the Execution of this Act to be committed until duly discharged.

Distribution of Penalties.

Limitation of Actions.

Notice

Notice of such Action shall not have been given in manner aforesaid, or if Tender of sufficient Amends shall have been made before such Action commenced, or if a sufficient Sum of Money shall have been paid into Court after such Action commenced by or on behalf of the Defendant, the Jury shall find a Verdict for the Defendant; or if a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant, or if the Plaintiff shall become nonsuited, or shall discontinue any such Action, or if, on Demurrer or otherwise, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff, the Defendant shall recover his full Costs of Suit as between Attorney and Client, and shall have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant may have for Costs of Suits in other Cases at Law; and although a Verdict shall be given for the Plaintiff in any such Action, such Plaintiff shall not have Costs against the Defendant, unless the Judge before whom the Trial shall be had shall signify his Approbation of the Action and of the Verdict obtained thereupon.

Security to be given by Officers, &c. employed under this Act.

LXXIX. Every Officer employed under the said Commissioners who in the Execution of his Duty shall be engaged in the Receipt of Money payable in pursuance of this Act shall, in respect of any Money to be received by him under this Act, and any other Act in the Execution of which he shall be employed, give Security in such Amount as the said Commissioners, with the Approval of the said Chief or Under Secretary, shall direct, in like Manner and Form as is required to be given by each Clerk of Petty Sessions under the Provisions of "The Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851."

Interpretation of certain Words in this Act.

LXXX. And be it enacted, That the Words and Expressions herein-after mentioned shall in this Act and the Schedules thereto annexed (except where the Nature of the Provisions or the Context of the Act shall exclude such Construction) be interpreted as follows; that is to say, the Words "Commissioners of Police" shall be understood to mean the Justices of the Police District of Dublin Metropolis for the Time being, appointed by virtue of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for improving the Police in the District of Dublin Metropolis; the Word "Justice" shall be understood to mean any of the Divisional Justices duly appointed for the Police District of Dublin Metropolis; the Word "Gaol" shall include any House of Correction or Bridewell, or other legal Place of Imprisonment within the Police District of Dublin Metropolis; the Word "Oath" shall include Affirmation or solemn Declaration, as the Case may be; the Words "Hackney Carriage" shall include every Carriage for Passengers (except a Stage Carriage, or a Carriage drawn or impelled by the Power of Steam or otherwise than by Animal Power,) which shall be used for the Purpose of standing or plying for Hire in any Street or Road or any Place within the Limits of this Act; the Words "Job Carriage" shall include every Hearse and Mourning Coach, and also every Carriage which shall not ply publicly for Hire, or stand for the soliciting of Passengers, but shall be let out to Hire for the Purpose of conveying from or to any Place within the Limits of this Act to or from any Place within or beyond the said Limits any Person or Persons engaging the same by the Hour, Day, or otherwise by way of Job; the Words "Stage Carriage" shall include every

An Act to amend the Procedure in the Superior Courts of Common Law in Ireland. [20th August 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to simplify and amend the Course ‘ of Procedure as to the Process, Practice, Pleadings, and ‘ Evidence in the Superior Courts of Common Law in Ireland, ‘ so as to make the same less dilatory and expensive, and to ‘ prevent substantial Justice from being defeated by reason of the ‘ Variety of Forms of Action, and the Technicalities and Prolivity ‘ of Pleadings, and the unnecessary Length of Records, and to ‘ consolidate the Provisions of several Statutes and Rules of Court ‘ relating to such Proceedings:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

I. The Provisions of this Act shall come into operation on the Commencement
First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four. of Act.

II. In citing this Act in any Instrument, Document, Pleading, Short Title of Proceeding, or Act of Parliament, it shall be sufficient Designation Act.
to use the Expression “The Common Law Procedure Amendment Act (Ireland), 1853.”

III. From and after the Commencement of this Act, the several Repeal of Acts and Parts of Acts set forth in the Schedule A. to this Act former Acts.
annexed, so far as the said Acts or Parts of any Act relate to Personal Actions or Actions of Ejectment in the Superior Courts of Law in Ireland, and no further or otherwise, and to the Extent to which such Acts or Parts of Acts are by such Schedule expressed to be repealed, are hereby repealed, except as to anything done before the Commencement of this Act, and except so far as may be necessary for the Purpose of supporting and continuing any Proceeding heretofore taken upon any Action brought before the Commencement of this Act, and except as to the Recovery or Application of any Penalty for any Offence which shall have been committed before the Commencement of this Act.

With respect to the Interpretation of Words in this Act :

IV. In the Construction of this Act the Word “Court” shall Interpretation be understood to mean any One of the Superior Courts of Common of Terms.
Law at Dublin in which any Action is brought ; and the Word “Judge” shall be understood to mean a Judge or Baron of any of the said Courts ; and the Word “Master” shall be understood to mean a Master of any of the said Courts ; and the Word “Action” shall be understood to mean any Personal Action brought in any of the said Courts ; and no Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, nor the Islands of Man, Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark, nor any Islands adjacent to any of them, being Part of the Dominions of Her Majesty, shall be deemed to be “beyond the Seas” within the Meaning of this Act ; and the Word “County” shall be taken to extend to and include, where necessary and consistent, any City, County of a City, or County of a Town or City, and County of any Place, as the Case may be ;
and the Word “Party” or “Person” shall extend to and include any

any Corporation or other public Body; and the Word "Affidavit" shall include an Affirmation or Declaration made by any Person who is empowered to give Evidence by Affirmation or Declaration in lieu of Oath; and no Provision requiring the Affidavit of or any Act to be done by the Attorney, or the Signature of Attorney or Counsel, or Service on the Attorney, shall apply to Cases where the Plaintiff or Defendant shall sue or defend in Person, but all such Acts shall be done by and Notices given to the Party so suing or defending in Person; and wherever in this Act, in describing or referring to any Person or Party, Matter or Thing, any Word importing the Singular Number or Masculine Gender is used, the same shall be understood to include and shall be applicable to several Persons and Parties as well as One Person or Party, and Females as well as Males, and Bodies Corporate as well as Individuals, and several Matters and Things as well as One Matter or Thing, unless it otherwise be provided, or there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction.

*Form of Action
mencement.*

With respect to the Forms of Action, and the Manner of commencing them :

*Special Forms
of Personal Actions abolished.*

V. The special Forms of Personal Actions heretofore used shall not be necessary, and it shall be sufficient in the Summons and Plaint hereinafter mentioned to state a Cause or Ground of Action good in Substance, according to the Provisions of this Act, without framing the Statement in any particular Form, as formerly used or known, such as of Assumpsit, Account, Debt, Covenant, Detinue, Trespass, Trespass on the Case, Trover, or Replevin.

*One Form of Personal Action
and Action of Ejectment.*

VI. The Right to recover any Debt or Damages or Personal Chattel, in respect of any Matter of Contract or of Tort, or Taking or Detention, which might have been heretofore the Subject of any Action of Debt, Covenant, Assumpsit, Account, Trespass, Trespass on the Case, Trover, Replevin, or Detinue, shall and may be enforced in an Action to be called a "Personal Action;" and all Actions of "Ejectment" shall henceforth be commenced and prosecuted in the Manner herein-after provided.

*Court to have like Jurisdiction
as heretofore.*

VII. The Court, or any Judge thereof, shall have and exercise, in and about any Matter brought before such Court or Judge, in any such Personal Action or Action of Ejectment, under the Provisions of this Act, the same Jurisdiction, Power, Authority, and Discretion, to all Intents and Purposes, as such Court or Judge could have exercised in an Action for the same Purpose instituted in the Manner heretofore used; and all Orders and Judgments of the said Court or Judge may be enforced by the same Process, and shall be subject to Review by a Court of Error, in the same Manner in all respects, except as herein provided, as if the same had been made in an Action instituted as heretofore used.

*Actions to be commenced by Writ of Sum-
mons and Plaint.*

VIII. All such Personal Actions, whether brought by or against any Person entitled to the Privilege of Peerage or of Parliament, or of the Court in which the Action shall be brought, or of any other Court, or to any other Privilege, or by or against any Corporation or incorporated Body or Company, or by or against any other Persons, shall be commenced by a Writ of Summons and Plaint, according to the Form marked No. 1. in the Schedule B.

to this Act annexed, and which shall be called a "Writ of Summons and Plaint," and shall be authenticated by the Common Seal of the said Superior Courts, to be thereunto set by the Clerk of the Writs, who shall not be required to sign such Writ, but shall enter the Particulars thereof in the Book to be kept for that Purpose, at the Time of sealing thereof, and such Writ shall bear Date of the Day on which it shall be sealed, and may be sued out at any Time, notwithstanding any Privilege.

IX. In every such Writ of Summons and Plaint, and Copy thereof, the Names of the Plaintiff and Defendant, the Place of Residence of the Plaintiff, and the Place of Residence or supposed Residence or last known Residence of the Defendant, and such Designation or Description of the Parties respectively as the Plaintiff or his Attorney may be able to give, shall be mentioned, and such Writ shall contain the Names of all the Defendants, and shall not contain the Name or Names of any Defendant or Defendants in more Actions than One.

Residence and Description of Parties to be mentioned in Writ.

X. Such Summons and Plaint shall contain a true and succinct Statement of the Plaintiff's Cause or Causes of Action, and if the Plaintiff shall sue, or the Defendant be sued, otherwise than in his own Right, shall also state the Character in which and the Title by which he sues, or in respect of which the Defendant is sued, and shall also state the Relief which the Plaintiff requires, and the Venue or County in which he proposes to have any Issues in Fact tried.

Form of Plaint.

XI. The Particulars of the Plaintiff's Demand, where the same shall be a liquidated or Money Demand, and of all Credits to which the Defendant may be entitled, and of the Balance, if any, claimed by the Plaintiff, shall be endorsed on the Summons and Plaint, and on the Copies thereof for Service, unless a detailed Statement of the said Particulars shall have been furnished to the Defendant previously, in which Case it shall be sufficient to make reference to the Statement so furnished, and to mention the Balance claimed to be due on Foot thereof, or unless the said Demand shall consist of so many Items or Particulars that they cannot be conveniently endorsed thereon, in which Case the Plaintiff shall cause Particulars engrossed on Parchment to be annexed to said Summons and Plaint, and Copies thereof, on Parchment or Paper, to be annexed to the Copies of such Summons and Plaint intended for Service, to be incorporated therewith by proper Reference, and shall cause the same to be served on the Defendant, together with the Summons and Plaint, and such Endorsement or Paper annexed shall be considered as Particulars of Demand, and no further or other Particulars need be delivered, unless ordered by the Court or a Judge.

Particulars of Demand and Credits to be endorsed.

XII. Every Writ of Summons and Plaint shall contain or be endorsed with the Name and Place of Abode of the Attorney actually suing out the same, and in case no Attorney shall be employed to issue the Writ, then it shall contain or be endorsed with a Memorandum expressing that the same has been sued out by the Plaintiff in Person, mentioning the City, Town, or Parish, and also the Name of the Street and Number (if any) of the House of such Plaintiff's Residence, and also, in case the said Plaintiff shall not reside in the City of Dublin, mentioning some Place in the Writ to be endorsed with Name and Abode of Attorney, or of Plaintiff in Person.

the said City at which the Debt may be paid, and all Notices and other Proceedings in the Cause may be served.

Attorney, on Demand, to declare whether Writ issued by his Authority, and to declare Name and Abode of Plaintiff.

XIII. Every Attorney whose Name shall be mentioned in or endorsed on any Writ of Summons and Plaintiff issued by Authority of this Act shall, on Demand in Writing made by or on behalf of any Defendant, declare forthwith whether such Writ has been issued by him or with his Authority or Privy, and if he shall answer in the Affirmative, then he shall also, in case the Court or a Judge shall so order, declare in Writing, within a Time to be allowed by such Court or Judge, the Profession, Occupation, or Quality, and Place of Abode of the Plaintiff, on pain of being guilty of a Contempt of the Court into which such Writ shall be returnable; and if such Attorney shall declare that the Writ was not issued by him or with his Authority or Privy, all Proceedings upon the same shall be stayed, and all further Proceedings taken thereupon, without Leave of the Court or a Judge, shall be deemed irregular, and may be set aside accordingly.

Duplicates of Plaintiff.

XIV. One Duplicate or more of such Summons and Plaintiff shall be sealed with the Seal of the said Superior Courts, by the said Clerk of the Writs, on Application of the Plaintiff or his Attorney.

Writs for Commencement of Actions to be issued in rotation for the several Courts.

XV. All Writs of Summons and Plaintiff for the Commencement of Actions in the said Courts shall, by the Clerk of the Writs, be entered and appropriated to the several Superior Courts of Law in rotation by Twenty-fives, that is to say, the First Twenty-five for the Queen's Bench, the Second Twenty-five for the Common Pleas, and the Third Twenty-five for the Exchequer, and so on in continuous Rotation of Twenty-fives for the several Courts, so as to produce and keep up an equal Distribution of such Writs; and all subsequent Proceedings in any Action so commenced shall be had and taken in the Court to which the said Writ shall be in the Course of Rotation appropriated, and shall be the Business of the said Court and the Offices thereof: Provided always, that no Objection on the Ground of any Privilege possessed or claimed by any Defendant to be sued in any particular Court shall be valid in any such Action.

No Objection on ground of Privilege to be valid.

XVI. No Writ of Summons and Plaintiff issued under the Authority of this Act, or Copy thereof, shall be treated or considered as invalid on account of any verbal or technical Error or Omission in the same, or in any Endorsement on the same; and it shall be lawful for the said Superior Courts of Law respectively, or any Judge thereof, to decide and determine, on any Application respecting such Error or Omission, what is a verbal or technical Error or Omission in any such Writ or Copy, and to amend or authorize the Amendment thereof, or to set aside the same as irregular; but all Errors or Omissions which have not a manifest Tendency to mislead the opposite Party shall in all Cases be deemed merely verbal or technical.

No Writ of Summons to be invalid on account of verbal or technical Error or Omission.

To prevent Doubts from Abolition of Forms of Action.

‘ And whereas the Disuse of the technical Forms of Action heretofore used may give rise to Doubts respecting the Validity of Warrants of Attorney and other Writings wherein Reference is made to such Forms of Action, and also as to the Operation of Statutes of Limitation and other Statutes wherein Actions are described or referred to by the like technical Forms, and it is

' is expedient that such Doubts should be precluded by express
' Enactment : ' Be it therefore enacted as follows :

XVII. Nothing in this Act contained shall interfere with or affect the Provisions of any Act relating to the Arrest of any Defendant on Mesne Process or before Judgment. Arrest on Mesne Process.

XVIII. Warrants of Attorney and other legal Documents of every kind, wherein Reference is made to any particular Form of Action, may be acted upon and enforced by signing Judgment or otherwise, in the Form or Manner authorized by this Act, instead of the Form and Manner agreed upon between the Parties thereto. Warrants of Attorney and other Writings to remain in force.

XIX. All Statutes relating to Actions, or the Pleadings or other Proceedings therein, or preliminary to the bringing of the same, not hereby repealed, or inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, shall apply and be in force with reference to Actions brought after the Commencement of this Act, notwithstanding that such Actions or the Causes thereof may be described or expressed therein by reference to any particular Form of Action hereby abolished, or that some particular Form or Cause of Action be required to be specified or contained in the said Pleading or Proceeding. Statutes relating to Actions to remain in force.

With respect to the Period of Limitation within which Personal Actions shall be brought :

XX. All Actions for Rent upon an Indenture of Demise, all Actions upon any Bond or other Specialty, or upon any Judgment, Statute Staple, Statute Merchant, or Recognizance, shall be commenced and sued within Twenty Years after the Cause of such Actions or Suits, or the Recovery of such Judgment, but not after ; all Actions grounded upon any Lending or Contract, expressed or implied, without Specialty, or upon any Award, where the Submission is not by Specialty, or for any Money levied on Fieri facias ; all Actions of Account or for not accounting, other than for such Accounts as concern the Trade of Merchandise between Merchant and Merchant, their Factors or Servants ; all Actions for direct Injuries to Real or Personal Property ; Actions for the taking away, Detention, or Conversion of Property, Goods, and Chattels ; Actions for Libel, malicious Prosecution and Arrest, Seduction, Criminal Conversation ; and Actions for all other Causes which would heretofore have been brought in the Form of Action called Trespass on the Case, except as herein-after excepted, shall be commenced and sued within Six Years after the Cause of such Actions, but not after ; and all Actions for Assault, Menace, Battery, Wounding, and Imprisonment shall be commenced and sued within Four Years after the Cause of such Actions, but not after ; and all Actions for Words, and for Penalties, Damages, or Sums of Money given to the Party grieved, by any Statute now or hereafter to be in force, shall be commenced and sued within Two Years after the Words spoken or the Cause of such Action or Suit, but not after ; and with respect to every Cause of Action not herein specifically provided for, being the Subject Matter of a Personal Action, such Actions in respect thereof shall be brought within the same Period of Limitation now applicable thereto, notwithstanding that such Cause of Action may be described or expressed in such Statutes by reference to any Limitation of Action.

reversed.

XXI. If in any of the said Actions Judgment be given for the Plaintiff, and the same be reversed by Error, or a Verdict pass, or upon Judgment by Default, Damages be assessed for the Plaintiff, and upon Matter alleged in Arrest of Judgment the Judgment be given against the Plaintiff that he take nothing by his Plaint, in all such Cases the Party Plaintiff, his Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, as the Case shall require, may commence a new Action or Suit from Time to Time within the Period of Limitation herein-before provided for in such Action, or within a Year after such Judgment reversed or Judgment given against the Plaintiff, and not after.

Remedy for Disabilities.

XXII. If any Person that is or shall be entitled to any such Action is or shall be at the Time of any such Cause of Action accrued within the Age of Twenty-one Years, a Married Woman, of unsound Mind, or beyond the Seas, then such Person shall be at liberty to bring the same Action, so as he commence the same within such Time after the Cessation of such Disability or his Return from beyond the Seas, as other Persons having no such Impediment should, according to the Provisions of this Act, have done ; and if any Person or Persons against whom there shall be any such Cause of Action is or shall be at the Time such Cause of Action accrued beyond the Seas, then the Person entitled to any such Cause of Action shall be at liberty to bring the same against such Person, within such Time as is before limited, after the Return of such Person from beyond the Seas.

tract.

XXIV. In Actions grounded upon any Simple Contract no Acknowledgment or Promise shall be deemed sufficient Evidence of a new or continuing Contract, whereby to take any Case out of the Operation of the Provisions of this Act in relation to the Limitation of Actions, or to deprive any Party of the Benefit thereof, unless such Acknowledgment or Promise shall be made or contained by or in some Writing to be signed by the Party chargeable thereby; and where there shall be Two or more Joint Contractors, or Executors or Administrators of any Contractor, no such Joint Contractor, Executor, or Administrator shall lose the Benefit of this Act so as to be chargeable in respect or by reason only of any written Acknowledgment or Promise made and signed by any other or others of them: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall alter or take away or lessen the Effect of any Payment of any Principal or Interest made by any Person whomsoever.

XXV. No Endorsement or Memorandum of any Payment written or made upon any Promissory Note, Bill of Exchange, or other Writing, by or on behalf of the Party to whom such Payment shall be made, shall be deemed sufficient Proof of such Payment so as to take the Case out of the Operation of the Provisions of this Act in relation to the Limitation of Actions.

XXVI. This Act shall be deemed and taken to apply to the Case of any Debt alleged by way of Set off on the Part of any Defendant.

XXVII. No Memorandum or other Writing made necessary by this Act shall be deemed to be an Agreement within the Meaning of any Statute relating to the Duties on Stamps.

With respect to the Duration and Continuance of Writs to prevent the Operation of any Statute of Limitation:

XXVIII. No Writ of Summons and Complaint shall be in force for the Purpose of Service for more than Six Calendar Months from the Day of the Date thereof, including the Day of such Date; but if any Defendant therein named shall not have been served therewith, the original or duplicate Writ of Summons and Complaint may be renewed at any Time before its Expiration for Six Calendar Months from the Date of such Renewal, and so from Time to Time during the Currency of the renewed Writ, by being marked with the Common Seal of the Superior Courts, with a Memorandum, signed or initialed by the Officer, of the Date of the Day, Month and Year of such Renewal: Provided always, that no Writ of Summons and Complaint so renewed shall be available to prevent the Operation of any Statute whereby the Time for the Commencement of the Action may be limited, unless such Renewal shall be had by Leave of the Court or a Judge on an Affidavit to satisfy the said Court or a Judge that reasonable Diligence was used to effect Service thereof.

XXIX. Where any Writ of Summons shall have been issued in any Action before and shall be in force at the Commencement of this Act, such Writ may, at any Time before the Expiration thereof, be renewed under the Provisions of and in the Manner directed by this Act; and where any Writ of Summons, or Capias ad respondendum issued in continuation of a preceding Writ according to the Provisions of an Act passed in a Session of Parliament holden in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty the Queen, shall be in force and unexpired, or where One Calendar Month next after the Expiration thereof shall not have elapsed at the Commencement of this Act, such continuing Writ may, without being returned non est inventus,

Affidavits in certain Cases may be sworn before a Consul.

XXXVI. Any Affidavit to be used in any of the said Courts may be sworn before any Consul General, Consul, Vice-Consul, or Consular Agent for the Time being appointed by Her Majesty at any Foreign Port or Place; and every Affidavit so sworn by virtue of this Act may be used and shall be admitted in Evidence, saving all just Exceptions, provided it purport to be signed by such Consul General, Consul, Vice-Consul, or Consular Agent, upon Proof of the official Character of the Person appearing to have signed the same; provided, that if any Person shall forge the Signature of any such Affidavit, or shall use or tender in Evidence any such Affidavit with a false or counterfeit Signature thereto, knowing the same to be false and counterfeit, he shall be guilty of Felony, and shall, upon Conviction, be liable to Transportation for Seven Years, or to Imprisonment for any Term not exceeding Three Years nor less than One Year, with Hard Labour; and every Person who shall be charged with committing any Felony under this Act may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and, if convicted, sentenced, and his Offence may be laid and charged to have been committed, in the County or Place in which he shall be apprehended or be in Custody; and every Accessory before or after the Fact to any such Offence may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and, if convicted, sentenced, and his Offence laid and charged to have been committed, in any County or Place in which the principal Offender may be tried; provided also, that if any Person shall wilfully and corruptly make a false Affidavit before such Consul General, Consul, Vice-Consul, or Consular Agent, every Person so offending shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of Perjury, in like Manner as if such false Affidavit had been made in Ireland before competent Authority, and shall and may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and if convicted, sentenced, and his Offence may be laid and charged to have been committed, in any County or Place in which he shall be apprehended or be in Custody, as if his Offence had been actually committed in that County or Place.

Filing Plaint.

XXXVII. The original or duplicate Summons and Plaint, or a Copy thereof and of the Endorsements thereon, and of the said Particulars, certified by the Attorney for the Plaintiff to be a correct Copy, shall, in order to enforce a Defence thereto within the Period of Time in such Writ mentioned, Four Days at least before the Time for Pleading thereto has expired, be filed with the Pleadings Assistant of the Court in which the Action shall be depending, and such Document shall be deemed to be a Pleading of the Plaintiff, and in lieu and stead of a Declaration; provided, however, that no Summons and Plaint, or Duplicate or Copy, shall be filed as a Pleading, unless the same shall be on Parchment, and sufficiently legible, and in a fit State and Form to be received as a Pleading of the Court; provided also, that in case such Summons and Plaint shall not be filed within the Time aforesaid, it shall be sufficient, for the Purpose of enforcing a Defence thereto
after

after the Filing of the same, to give Notice of the Filing to the Defendant, and such Defendant shall have Eight Days from the Service of such Notice to file his Defence thereto; but in no Case shall the Plaintiff be at liberty to proceed to enforce a Defence after the Expiration of Six Months from the Service of such Summons and Plaintiff.

XXXVIII. In case the Plaintiff shall neglect to file the original or duplicate Summons and Plaintiff, or Copy thereof, within Two Months after the Service thereof on the Defendant, unless the Time for filing such Summons and Plaintiff shall have been extended, such Defendant may, on an Affidavit of the Service thereof and a Certificate of no Summons and Plaintiff, or Copy, filed, enter a Rule that the Plaintiff do file his Summons and Plaintiff within Four Days after the Service thereof, or pay to the Defendant such Sum as shall be fixed by the Taxing Officer, subject to the Approval of the Three Chief Judges of the said Courts, as and for his Costs occasioned by being served with such Summons and Plaintiff, and such Order shall be in lieu and stead and have the Effect of a Judgment of Non Pros for not declaring; and in case the Plaintiff shall, after the Entry of such Rule, file his Summons and Plaintiff, or Copy, he shall pay to the Defendant his Costs occasioned thereby, upon Demand, not exceeding the Sum of One Pound, or in default thereof the Defendant may obtain a Rule for the Payment of such Sum and the Costs of such Rule.

With respect to the Appearance and Defence to the Summons and Plaintiff :

Appearance and Defence.

XXXIX. The Defendant may, within the Time specified in the said Summons and Plaintiff, or within Eight Days from the Service of the Notice of filing the said Summons and Plaintiff in manner aforesaid, or at any Time before Judgment, or within such Time as the Court or a Judge may permit, file with the Pleadings Assistant an Appearance and Defence or Demurrer to the said Writ of Summons and Plaintiff; and such Defence may be according to the Form No. 2. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, and shall contain at Foot thereof the Name and registered Residence of the Defendant's Attorney, where the same is pleaded by Attorney, and where it is pleaded in Person the Residence of the Defendant, and in case such Residence shall not be in the City of Dublin, shall specify by the Name of the Street and Number of the House some Place within the said City whereat all Notices and Papers relating to the Suit may be served and delivered for the Defendant.

Appearance and Defence to be filed together.

XL. In any Case in which there are mutual Debts between the Plaintiff and Defendant, or if either Party sue or be sued as Executor or Administrator where there are mutual Debts between the Testator or Intestate and either Party, One Debt may be set off against the other, and such Matter may be pleaded in bar of the Action, or of the further Maintenance thereof, or so much of the Debt as it covers, and the Account upon which it became due shall be alleged as in a Summons and Plaintiff for the same Debt.

Defence by way of Set-off.

XLI. In case the Defence shall insist upon any Payment or Set-off, the full Particulars of the same shall be endorsed on the said Defence and on the Copies for Service, unless they are so many that they cannot be conveniently introduced therein, in which any Corporation or other public Body; and the Word "Affidavit" shall include an Affirmation or Declaration made by any Person who is empowered to give Evidence by Affirmation or Declaration in lieu of Oath; and no Provision requiring the Affidavit of or any Act to be done by the Attorney, or the Signature of Attorney or Counsel, or Service on the Attorney, shall apply to Cases where the Plaintiff or Defendant shall sue or defend in Person, but all such Acts shall be done by and Notices given to the Party so suing or defending in Person; and wherever in this Act, in describing or referring to any Person or Party, Matter or Thing, any Word importing the Singular Number or Masculine Gender is used, the same shall be understood to include and shall be applicable to several Persons and Parties as well as One Person or Party, and Females as well as Males, and Bodies Corporate as well as Individuals, and several Matters and Things as well as One Matter or Thing, unless it otherwise be provided, or there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction.

and Commencement.*

With respect to the Forms of Action, and the Manner of commencing them:

*Special Forms
of Personal Actions abolished.*

V. The special Forms of Personal Actions heretofore used shall not be necessary, and it shall be sufficient in the Summons and Plaint hereinafter mentioned to state a Cause or Ground of Action good in Substance, according to the Provisions of this Act, without framing the Statement in any particular Form, as formerly used or known, such as of Assumpsit, Account, Debt, Covenant, Detinue, Trespass, Trespass on the Case, Trover, or Replevin.

*One Form of Personal Action
and Action of Ejectment.*

VI. The Right to recover any Debt or Damages or Personal Chattel, in respect of any Matter of Contract or of Tort, or Taking or Detention, which might have been heretofore the Subject of any Action of Debt, Covenant, Assumpsit, Account, Trespass, Trespass on the Case, Trover, Replevin, or Detinue, shall and may be enforced in an Action to be called a "Personal Action;" and all Actions of "Ejectment" shall henceforth be commenced and prosecuted in the Manner herein-after provided.

*Court to have
as heretofore.*

VII. The Court, or any Judge thereof, shall have and exercise, in and about any Matter brought before such Court or Judge, in any such Personal Action or Action of Ejectment, under the Provisions of this Act, the same Jurisdiction, Power, Authority, and Discretion, to all Intents and Purposes, as such Court or Judge could have exercised in an Action for the same Purpose instituted in the Manner heretofore used; and all Orders and Judgments of the said Court or Judge may be enforced by the same Process, and shall be subject to Review by a Court of Error, in the same Manner in all respects, except as herein provided, as if the same had been made in an Action instituted as heretofore used.

*Actions to be commenced by Writ of Sum-
mons and Plaint.*

VIII. All such Personal Actions, whether brought by or against any Person entitled to the Privilege of Peerage or of Parliament, or of the Court in which the Action shall be brought, or of any other Court, or to any other Privilege, or by or against any Corporation or incorporated Body or Company, or by or against any other Persons, shall be commenced by a Writ of Summons and Plaint, according to the Form marked No. 1. in the Schedule B.

to this Act annexed, and which shall be called a "Writ of Summons and Plaint," and shall be authenticated by the Common Seal of the said Superior Courts, to be thereunto set by the Clerk of the Writs, who shall not be required to sign such Writ, but shall enter the Particulars thereof in the Book to be kept for that Purpose, at the Time of sealing thereof, and such Writ shall bear Date of the Day on which it shall be sealed, and may be sued out at any Time, notwithstanding any Privilege.

IX. In every such Writ of Summons and Plaint, and Copy thereof, the Names of the Plaintiff and Defendant, the Place of Residence of the Plaintiff, and the Place of Residence or supposed Residence or last known Residence of the Defendant, and such Designation or Description of the Parties respectively as the Plaintiff or his Attorney may be able to give, shall be mentioned, and such Writ shall contain the Names of all the Defendants, and shall not contain the Name or Names of any Defendant or Defendants in more Actions than One.

Residence and Description of Parties to be mentioned in Writ.

X. Such Summons and Plaint shall contain a true and succinct Statement of the Plaintiff's Cause or Causes of Action, and if the Plaintiff shall sue, or the Defendant be sued, otherwise than in his own Right, shall also state the Character in which and the Title by which he sues, or in respect of which the Defendant is sued, and shall also state the Relief which the Plaintiff requires, and the Venue or County in which he proposes to have any Issues in Fact tried.

Form of Plaint.

XI. The Particulars of the Plaintiff's Demand, where the same shall be a liquidated or Money Demand, and of all Credits to which the Defendant may be entitled, and of the Balance, if any, claimed by the Plaintiff, shall be endorsed on the Summons and Plaint, and on the Copies thereof for Service, unless a detailed Statement of the said Particulars shall have been furnished to the Defendant previously, in which Case it shall be sufficient to make reference to the Statement so furnished, and to mention the Balance claimed to be due on Foot thereof, or unless the said Demand shall consist of so many Items or Particulars that they cannot be conveniently endorsed thereon, in which Case the Plaintiff shall cause Particulars engrossed on Parchment to be annexed to said Summons and Plaint, and Copies thereof, on Parchment or Paper, to be annexed to the Copies of such Summons and Plaint intended for Service, to be incorporated therewith by proper Reference, and shall cause the same to be served on the Defendant, together with the Summons and Plaint, and such Endorsement or Paper annexed shall be considered as Particulars of Demand, and no further or other Particulars need be delivered, unless ordered by the Court or a Judge.

Particulars of Demand and Credits to be endorsed.

XII. Every Writ of Summons and Plaint shall contain or be endorsed with the Name and Place of Abode of the Attorney actually suing out the same, and in case no Attorney shall be employed to issue the Writ, then it shall contain or be endorsed with a Memorandum expressing that the same has been sued out by the Plaintiff in Person, mentioning the City, Town, or Parish, and also the Name of the Street and Number (if any) of the House of such Plaintiff's Residence, and also, in case the said Plaintiff shall not reside in the City of Dublin, mentioning some Place in the Writ to be endorsed with Name and Abode of Attorney, or of Plaintiff in Person.

the said City at which the Debt may be paid, and all Notices and other Proceedings in the Cause may be served.

Attorney, on Demand, to declare whether Writ issued by his Authority, and to declare Name and Abode of Plaintiff.

XIII. Every Attorney whose Name shall be mentioned in or endorsed on any Writ of Summons and Complaint issued by Authority of this Act shall, on Demand in Writing made by or on behalf of any Defendant, declare forthwith whether such Writ has been issued by him or with his Authority or Privity, and if he shall answer in the Affirmative, then he shall also, in case the Court or a Judge shall so order, declare in Writing, within a Time to be allowed by such Court or Judge, the Profession, Occupation, or Quality, and Place of Abode of the Plaintiff, on pain of being guilty of a Contempt of the Court into which such Writ shall be returnable; and if such Attorney shall declare that the Writ was not issued by him or with his Authority or Privity, all Proceedings upon the same shall be stayed, and all further Proceedings taken thereupon, without Leave of the Court or a Judge, shall be deemed irregular, and may be set aside accordingly.

Duplicates of Plaintiff.

XIV. One Duplicate or more of such Summons and Complaint shall be sealed with the Seal of the said Superior Courts, by the said Clerk of the Writs, on Application of the Plaintiff or his Attorney.

Writs for Commencement of Actions to be issued in rotation for the several Courts.

XV. All Writs of Summons and Complaint for the Commencement of Actions in the said Courts shall, by the Clerk of the Writs, be entered and appropriated to the several Superior Courts of Law in rotation by Twenty-fives, that is to say, the First Twenty-five for the Queen's Bench, the Second Twenty-five for the Common Pleas, and the Third Twenty-five for the Exchequer, and so on in continuous Rotation of Twenty-fives for the several Courts, so as to produce and keep up an equal Distribution of such Writs; and all subsequent Proceedings in any Action so commenced shall be had and taken in the Court to which the said Writ shall be in the Course of Rotation appropriated, and shall be the Business of the said Court and the Offices thereof: Provided always, that no Objection on the Ground of any Privilege possessed or claimed by any Defendant to be sued in any particular Court shall be valid in any such Action.

No Objection on ground of Privilege to be valid.

No Writ of Summons to be invalid on account of verbal or technical Error or Omission.

XVI. No Writ of Summons and Complaint issued under the Authority of this Act, or Copy thereof, shall be treated or considered as invalid on account of any verbal or technical Error or Omission in the same, or in any Endorsement on the same; and it shall be lawful for the said Superior Courts of Law respectively, or any Judge thereof, to decide and determine, on any Application respecting such Error or Omission, what is a verbal or technical Error or Omission in any such Writ or Copy, and to amend or authorize the Amendment thereof, or to set aside the same as irregular; but all Errors or Omissions which have not a manifest Tendency to mislead the opposite Party shall in all Cases be deemed merely verbal or technical.

To prevent Doubts from Abolition of Forms of Action.

‘ And whereas the Disuse of the technical Forms of Action heretofore used may give rise to Doubts respecting the Validity of Warrants of Attorney and other Writings wherein Reference is made to such Forms of Action, and also as to the Operation of Statutes of Limitation and other Statutes wherein Actions are described or referred to by the like technical Forms, and it

' is expedient that such Doubts should be precluded by express Enactment : ' Be it therefore enacted as follows :

XVII. Nothing in this Act contained shall interfere with or affect the Provisions of any Act relating to the Arrest of any Defendant on Mesne Process or before Judgment.

Arrest on Mesne Process.

XVIII. Warrants of Attorney and other legal Documents of every kind, wherein Reference is made to any particular Form of Action, may be acted upon and enforced by signing Judgment or otherwise, in the Form or Manner authorized by this Act, instead of the Form and Manner agreed upon between the Parties thereto.

With respect to the Period of Limitation within which Personal Actions shall be brought :

Limitation of Action.

XX. All Actions for Rent upon an Indenture of Demise, all Actions upon any Bond or other Specialty, or upon any Judgment, Statute Staple, Statute Merchant, or Recognizance, shall be commenced and sued within Twenty Years after the Cause of such Actions or Suits, or the Recovery of such Judgment, but not after ; all Actions grounded upon any Lending or Contract, expressed or implied, without Specialty, or upon any Award, where the Submission is not by Specialty, or for any Money levied on Fieri facias ; all Actions of Account or for not accounting, other than for such Accounts as concern the Trade of Merchandise between Merchant and Merchant, their Factors or Servants ; all Actions for direct Injuries to Real or Personal Property ; Actions for the taking away, Detention, or Conversion of Property, Goods, and Chattels ; Actions for Libel, malicious Prosecution and Arrest, Seduction, Criminal Conversation ; and Actions for all other Causes which would heretofore have been brought in the Form of Action called Trespass on the Case, except as herein-after excepted, shall be commenced and sued within Six Years after the Cause of such Actions, but not after ; and all Actions for Assault, Menace, Battery, Wounding, and Imprisonment shall be commenced and sued within Four Years after the Cause of such Actions, but not after ; and all Actions for Words, and for Penalties, Damages, or Sums of Money given to the Party grieved, by any Statute now or hereafter to be in force, shall be commenced and sued within Two Years after the Words spoken or the Cause of such Action or Suit, but not after ; and with respect to every Cause of Action not herein specifically provided for, being the Subject Matter of a Personal Action, such Actions in respect thereof shall be brought within the same Period of Limitation now applicable thereto, notwithstanding that such Cause of Action may be described or expressed in such Statutes by reference to any any particular Form of Action: Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall alter the Period of Limitation of any Action given by any Statute where the Time for bringing such Action is or shall be by any Statute specially limited.

Limitation
after Judgment arrested or reversed.

XXI. If in any of the said Actions Judgment be given for the Plaintiff, and the same be reversed by Error, or a Verdict pass, or upon Judgment by Default, Damages be assessed for the Plaintiff, and upon Matter alleged in Arrest of Judgment the Judgment be given against the Plaintiff that he take nothing by his Plaintiff, in all such Cases the Party Plaintiff, his Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, as the Case shall require, may commence a new Action or Suit from Time to Time within the Period of Limitation herein-before provided for in such Action, or within a Year after such Judgment reversed or Judgment given against the Plaintiff, and not after.

Bremedy for Disabilities.

XXII. If any Person that is or shall be entitled to any such Action is or shall be at the Time of any such Cause of Action accrued within the Age of Twenty-one Years, a Married Woman, of unsound Mind, or beyond the Seas, then such Person shall be at liberty to bring the same Action, so as he commence the same within such Time after the Cessation of such Disability or his Return from beyond the Seas, as other Persons having no such Impediment should, according to the Provisions of this Act, have done; and if any Person or Persons against whom there shall be any such Cause of Action is or shall be at the Time such Cause of Action accrued beyond the Seas, then the Person entitled to any such Cause of Action shall be at liberty to bring the same against such Person, within such Time as is before limited, after the Return of such Person from beyond the Seas.

XXIV. In Actions grounded upon any Simple Contract no Acknowledgment or Promise shall be deemed sufficient Evidence of a new or continuing Contract, whereby to take any Case out of the Operation of the Provisions of this Act in relation to the Limitation of Actions, or to deprive any Party of the Benefit thereof, unless such Acknowledgment or Promise shall be made or contained by or in some Writing to be signed by the Party chargeable thereby; and where there shall be Two or more Joint Contractors, or Executors or Administrators of any Contractor, no such Joint Contractor, Executor, or Administrator shall lose the Benefit of this Act so as to be chargeable in respect or by reason only of any written Acknowledgment or Promise made and signed by any other or others of them: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall alter or take away or lessen the Effect of any Payment of any Principal or Interest made by any Person whomsoever.

XXV. No Endorsement or Memorandum of any Payment written or made upon any Promissory Note, Bill of Exchange, or other Writing, by or on behalf of the Party to whom such Payment shall be made, shall be deemed sufficient Proof of such Payment so as to take the Case out of the Operation of the Provisions of this Act in relation to the Limitation of Actions.

XXVI. This Act shall be deemed and taken to apply to the Case of any Debt alleged by way of Set off on the Part of any Defendant.

As to Debts alleged by way of Set-off.

XXVII. No Memorandum or other Writing made necessary by this Act shall be deemed to be an Agreement within the Meaning of any Statute relating to the Duties on Stamps.

Memorandums not to require Stamps.

With respect to the Duration and Continuance of Writs to prevent the Operation of any Statute of Limitation:

Continuance of Writs.

XXVIII. No Writ of Summons and Plaint shall be in force for the Purpose of Service for more than Six Calendar Months from the Day of the Date thereof, including the Day of such Date; but if any Defendant therein named shall not have been served therewith, the original or duplicate Writ of Summons and Plaint may be renewed at any Time before its Expiration for Six Calendar Months from the Date of such Renewal, and so from Time to Time during the Currency of the renewed Writ, by being marked with the Common Seal of the Superior Courts, with a Memorandum, signed or initialed by the Officer, of the Date of the Day, Month and Year of such Renewal: Provided always, that no Writ of Summons and Plaint so renewed shall be available to prevent the Operation of any Statute whereby the Time for the Commencement of the Action may be limited, unless such Renewal shall be had by Leave of the Court or a Judge on an Affidavit to satisfy the said Court or a Judge that reasonable Diligence was used to effect Service thereof.

Renewal of Writs of Summons to save the Statute of Limitation, and for other Purposes.

XXIX. Where any Writ of Summons shall have been issued in any Action before and shall be in force at the Commencement of this Act, such Writ may, at any Time before the Expiration thereof, be renewed under the Provisions of and in the Manner directed by this Act; and where any Writ of Summons, or Capias ad respondendum issued in continuation of a preceding Writ according to the Provisions of an Act passed in a Session of Parliament holden in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty the Queen, shall be in force and unexpired, or where One Calendar Month next after the Expiration thereof shall not have elapsed at the Commencement of this Act, such continuing Writ may, without being returned non est inventus, or entered of Record, according to the Provisions of the said Act of Her Majesty the Queen, be filed in the proper Office of the Court within One Calendar Month next after the Expiration of such Writ, or within Twenty Days after the Commencement of this Act; and the original Writ of Summons or Capias in such Action may thereupon, but within the same Period of One Month next after the Expiration of the continuing Writ, or within Twenty Days after the Commencement of this Act, be renewed, under the Provisions of and in the Manner directed by this Act; and every such Writ shall after such Renewal have the same Duration and Effect for all Purposes, and shall, if necessary, be subsequently renewed, in the same Manner as if it had originally issued under the Authority of this Act.

Renewal of Writs issued before this Act.

Production of renewed Writ Evidence of Commencement of Action.

XXX. The Production of the Writ of Summons and Plaint, purporting to be marked with the Common Seal of the said Superior Courts, and initialed by the said Officer, showing the same to have been renewed according to this Act, shall be sufficient Evidence of its having been so renewed, and of the Commencement of the Action as of the First Date of such renewed Writ, for all Purposes whatsoever.

Service of Writs.

With respect to the Service of such Writs of Summons and Plaint:

Writ may be served in any County.

XXXI. The Writ of Summons and Plaint may be served in any Place or County in which the Defendant may be found within the Jurisdiction of the Court, and not out of said Jurisdiction, unless by an Order of the Court or Judge; and the Person serving the same is hereby required, on the Day of such Service, or at latest on the Day next after, to endorse on the Writ the Place and Day of the Month and Week of the Service thereof, otherwise the Plaintiff shall not be at liberty, in case of no Appearance and Defence, to proceed under this Act; and every Affidavit of Service of such Writ shall mention the Day on which such Endorsement was made.

Service of Summons in ordinary Cases.

XXXII. Service of any Writ of Summons and Plaint on the Defendant shall be effected either by Delivery of a Copy of such Writ to the Defendant in Person, if it be reasonably practicable, and in other Cases, and where it shall appear by the Affidavit of Service herein-after mentioned that such Defendant is personally within the Jurisdiction, and that due and reasonable Diligence has been exercised in endeavouring to effect such Personal Service, and without Effect, in such Case it shall be sufficient to make Service of such Writ by leaving such Copy at the Defendant's House or Place of Residence, or at his Office, Warehouse, Counting-house, Shop, Factory, or Place of Business, with the Wife, Child, Father, Mother, Brother, or Sister of the Defendant, or with any Servant or Clerk of the Defendant, (the Person with whom such Copy shall be left being of the Age of Sixteen Years or upwards,) and showing to such Person the Original or duplicate Original of such Summons and Plaint.

Service on Corporations.

XXXIII. Service of any such Writ of Summons and Plaint issued against a Corporation Aggregate may be effected either by Delivery of a Copy of such Writ to the Mayor or other Head Officer in Person, or to the Town Clerk, Treasurer, or Secretary of

or contained by or in some Writing to be signed by the Party chargeable thereby; and where there shall be Two or more Joint Contractors, or Executors or Administrators of any Contractor, no such Joint Contractor, Executor, or Administrator shall lose the Benefit of this Act so as to be chargeable in respect or by reason only of any written Acknowledgment or Promise made and signed by any other or others of them: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall alter or take away or lessen the Effect of any Payment of any Principal or Interest made by any Person whomsoever.

XXV. No Endorsement or Memorandum of any Payment written or made upon any Promissory Note, Bill of Exchange, or other Writing, by or on behalf of the Party to whom such Payment shall be made, shall be deemed sufficient Proof of such Payment so as to take the Case out of the Operation of the Provisions of this Act in relation to the Limitation of Actions.

XXVI. This Act shall be deemed and taken to apply to the Case of any Debt alleged by way of Set off on the Part of any Defendant.

XXVII. No Memorandum or other Writing made necessary by this Act shall be deemed to be an Agreement within the Meaning of any Statute relating to the Duties on Stamps.

With respect to the Duration and Continuance of Writs to prevent the Operation of any Statute of Limitation:

XXVIII. No Writ of Summons and Plaintiff shall be in force for the Purpose of Service for more than Six Calendar Months from the Day of the Date thereof, including the Day of such Date; but if any Defendant therein named shall not have been served therewith, the original or duplicate Writ of Summons and Plaintiff may be renewed at any Time before its Expiration for Six Calendar Months from the Date of such Renewal, and so from Time to Time during the Currency of the renewed Writ, by being marked with the Common Seal of the Superior Courts, with a Memorandum, signed or initialed by the Officer, of the Date of the Day, Month and Year of such Renewal: Provided always, that no Writ of Summons and Plaintiff so renewed shall be available to prevent the Operation of any Statute whereby the Time for the Commencement of the Action may be limited, unless such Renewal shall be had by Leave of the Court or a Judge on an Affidavit to satisfy the said Court or a Judge that reasonable Diligence was used to effect Service thereof.

XXIX. Where any Writ of Summons shall have been issued in any Action before and shall be in force at the Commencement of this Act, such Writ may, at any Time before the Expiration thereof, be renewed under the Provisions of and in the Manner directed by this Act; and where any Writ of Summons, or Capias ad respondendum issued in continuation of a preceding Writ according to the Provisions of an Act passed in a Session of Parliament holden in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty the Queen, shall be in force and unexpired, or where One Calendar Month next after the Expiration thereof shall not have elapsed at the Commencement of this Act, such continuing Writ may, without being returned non est inventus, depending, in case it shall become necessary to mark Judgment by Default.

Affidavits in certain Cases may be sworn before a Consul.

XXXVI. Any Affidavit to be used in any of the said Courts may be sworn before any Consul General, Consul, Vice-Consul, or Consular Agent for the Time being appointed by Her Majesty at any Foreign Port or Place; and every Affidavit so sworn by virtue of this Act may be used and shall be admitted in Evidence, saving all just Exceptions, provided it purport to be signed by such Consul General, Consul, Vice-Consul, or Consular Agent, upon Proof of the official Character of the Person appearing to have signed the same; provided, that if any Person shall forge the Signature of any such Affidavit, or shall use or tender in Evidence any such Affidavit with a false or counterfeit Signature thereto, knowing the same to be false and counterfeit, he shall be guilty of Felony, and shall, upon Conviction, be liable to Transportation for Seven Years, or to Imprisonment for any Term not exceeding Three Years nor less than One Year, with Hard Labour; and every Person who shall be charged with committing any Felony under this Act may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and, if convicted, sentenced, and his Offence may be laid and charged to have been committed, in the County or Place in which he shall be apprehended or be in Custody; and every Accessory before or after the Fact to any such Offence may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and, if convicted, sentenced, and his Offence laid and charged to have been committed, in any County or Place in which the principal Offender may be tried; provided also, that if any Person shall wilfully and corruptly make a false Affidavit before such Consul General, Consul, Vice-Consul, or Consular Agent, every Person so offending shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of Perjury, in like Manner as if such false Affidavit had been made in Ireland before competent Authority, and shall and may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and if convicted, sentenced, and his Offence may be laid and charged to have been committed, in any County or Place in which he shall be apprehended or be in Custody, as if his Offence had been actually committed in that County or Place.

With respect to the Filing of the Summons and Plaint:

Filing of Plaint.

Filing Plaint.

XXXVII. The original or duplicate Summons and Plaint, or a Copy thereof and of the Endorsements thereon, and of the said Particulars, certified by the Attorney for the Plaintiff to be a correct Copy, shall, in order to enforce a Defence thereto within the Period of Time in such Writ mentioned, Four Days at least before the Time for Pleading thereto has expired, be filed with the Pleadings Assistant of the Court in which the Action shall be depending, and such Document shall be deemed to be a Pleading of the Plaintiff, and in lieu and stead of a Declaration; provided, however, that no Summons and Plaint, or Duplicate or Copy, shall be filed as a Pleading, unless the same shall be on Parchment, and sufficiently legible, and in a fit State and Form to be received as a Pleading of the Court; provided also, that in case such Summons and Plaint shall not be filed within the Time aforesaid, it shall be sufficient, for the Purpose of enforcing a Defence thereto

after

after the Filing of the same, to give Notice of the Filing to the Defendant, and such Defendant shall have Eight Days from the Service of such Notice to file his Defence thereto; but in no Case shall the Plaintiff be at liberty to proceed to enforce a Defence after the Expiration of Six Months from the Service of such Summons and Plaintiff.

XXXVIII. In case the Plaintiff shall neglect to file the original or duplicate Summons and Plaintiff, or Copy thereof, within Two Months after the Service thereof on the Defendant, unless the Time for filing such Summons and Plaintiff shall have been extended, such Defendant may, on an Affidavit of the Service thereof and a Certificate of no Summons and Plaintiff, or Copy, filed, enter a Rule that the Plaintiff do file his Summons and Plaintiff within Four Days after the Service thereof, or pay to the Defendant such Sum as shall be fixed by the Taxing Officer, subject to the Approval of the Three Chief Judges of the said Courts, as and for his Costs occasioned by being served with such Summons and Plaintiff, and such Order shall be in lieu and stead and have the Effect of a Judgment of Non Pros for not declaring; and in case the Plaintiff shall, after the Entry of such Rule, file his Summons and Plaintiff, or Copy, he shall pay to the Defendant his Costs occasioned thereby, upon Demand, not exceeding the Sum of One Pound, or in default thereof the Defendant may obtain a Rule for the Payment of such Sum and the Costs of such Rule.

Rule for Costs of not filing Summons and Plaintiff.

With respect to the Appearance and Defence to the Summons and Plaintiff :

Appearance and Defence.

XXXIX. The Defendant may, within the Time specified in the said Summons and Plaintiff, or within Eight Days from the Service of the Notice of filing the said Summons and Plaintiff in manner aforesaid, or at any Time before Judgment, or within such Time as the Court or a Judge may permit, file with the Pleadings Assistant an Appearance and Defence or Demurrer to the said Writ of Summons and Plaintiff; and such Defence may be according to the Form No. 2. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, and shall contain at Foot thereof the Name and registered Residence of the Defendant's Attorney, where the same is pleaded by Attorney, and where it is pleaded in Person the Residence of the Defendant, and in case such Residence shall not be in the City of Dublin, shall specify by the Name of the Street and Number of the House some Place within the said City whereat all Notices and Papers relating to the Suit may be served and delivered for the Defendant.

Appearance and Defence to be filed together.

XL. In any Case in which there are mutual Debts between the Plaintiff and Defendant, or if either Party sue or be sued as Executor or Administrator where there are mutual Debts between the Testator or Intestate and either Party, One Debt may be set off against the other, and such Matter may be pleaded in bar of the Action, or of the further Maintenance thereof, or so much of the Debt as it covers, and the Account upon which it became due shall be alleged as in a Summons and Plaintiff for the same Debt.

Defence by way of Set-off.

XLL. In case the Defence shall insist upon any Payment or Set-off, the full Particulars of the same shall be endorsed on the said Defence and on the Copies for Service, unless they are so many that they cannot be conveniently introduced therein, in which Particulars of Set-off to be endorsed.

Case they shall be annexed thereto and incorporated therewith by a proper Reference.

Rule to plead abolished.

XLII. No Rule to plead shall be necessary, and the Requisition to plead contained in the Summons and Pleint shall be sufficient for that Purpose.

Time for pleading, where Defendant is within Jurisdiction, to be Twelve Days.

XLIII. Where the Defendant is within the Jurisdiction, the Time for Appearance and Defence to the Summons and Pleint shall be Twelve clear Days from the Days of the Service thereof, exclusive of Holidays, or Eight Days from the Service of a Notice of filing the Summons and Pleint, whichever Period shall last expire, unless the Court or a Judge shall extend the Time; and the Days for appearing to said Summons and Pleint shall run as well in Vacation as in Term Time, excepting the Days from the First Day of August to the Twentieth Day of October inclusive.

Time for pleading after Amendment.

XLIV. Where an Amendment of any Summons and Pleint hereby directed to serve as a Declaration is allowed, no new Requisition to plead thereto shall be necessary, but the Defendant shall be bound to plead to the amended Pleading within the Time specified in the original Requisition, or within Two Days after Notice of the Amendment, whichever shall last expire, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or a Judge; and in case the amended Summons and Pleint had been pleaded to before Amendment, and is not pleaded to de novo within Two Days after Notice of the Amendment, or such other Time as the Court or a Judge shall allow, the Defence originally pleaded thereto shall stand and be considered as pleaded in answer to such amended Summons and Pleint.

Copies to be served.

XLV. Notice of filing such Defence, together with a correct Copy thereof, shall be served on the Plaintiff's Attorney, or on such Plaintiff in case no Attorney shall be employed, and such Defence shall be considered as filed as on the Day on which such Notice and Copy shall be served, pursuant to the Provisions of this Act.

Further Particulars.

XLVI. The Court or a Judge may, in any Case, by an Order made on Motion, direct a further or more detailed Particular of the Items of Demand or Credits referred to in any Summons and Pleint, or of any Payments or Set-off referred to in any Defence, to be furnished; and in any Action for an Injury to Person or Property, the Court or a Judge may order Plans of the Place in which the Injury is alleged to have been committed, or as to which any Justification is pleaded, to be given or exchanged between the Parties; and the Court or a Judge may extend the Time for pleading or making up the Issue, in consequence of the Necessity of such Particulars or further Particulars, on such Terms as shall appear to be just; and where any Party shall require to amend his Particulars, he shall apply to the Court or a Judge for the Purpose.

Inspection and Examination of Premises or Chattels may be ordered by the Court on behalf of either Party.

XLVII. In any Case in which it shall appear to the Court or Judge that it would be necessary, for the Purpose of ascertaining the Truth of any Matter in dispute between the Parties in the Action, that an Inspection or Examination of any Premises or Chattels in the Possession or Power of either Party, and in respect of which or some Right or Injury connected with which the said Action shall be brought, should be had by the opposite Party, his Attorney

Attorney, Agent, Witnesses, or by the Jury, it shall be lawful for such Court or Judge to order that the Party in whose Possession or Power the same shall be shall permit an Inspection and Examination of the said Premises or Chattels by the Jury, or by such Person or Persons on behalf of the Party applying, and at such Times and under such Regulations, as to the said Court or Judge shall seem fit.

With respect to the general Form and Character of Pleadings :

XLVIII. There shall be no further Pleading after the Defence, except a Demurrer to the Defence or a Replication to a Defence of Set-off or Plea of Matter occurring subsequently to the Commencement of the Action, unless by the special Leave of the Court or a Judge on an Application to allow such further Pleading, which shall only be allowed in case the real Question or Questions, whether of Fact or Law, between the Parties cannot conveniently be raised and put in Issue by the Amendment of the previous Pleadings.

XLIX. Every Replication and subsequent Pleading shall be pleaded, and Notice of the Filing, with a Copy thereof, shall be served, and the Particulars of any Payments relied upon shall be endorsed or annexed thereto in a similar Manner to that hereinbefore prescribed in respect of the Defence, so far as the same shall be applicable thereto.

L. In any Case in which the Plaintiff shall be a Minor or Lunatic, and before the filing of the Summons and Plaint as a Pleading, a Consent in Writing, signed by some fit and proper Person, to act as next Friend to such Minor or Lunatic, together with an Affidavit to verify the Signature of such Person, shall be lodged in the Office of the Clerk of the Rules, who shall thereupon enter a Rule that such Person shall be at liberty to sue as next Friend for such Minor or Lunatic, and the Name of such next Friend shall be mentioned in the said Summons and Plaint as next Friend to said Minor or Lunatic : Provided always, that the Court or a Judge shall and may alter or discharge such Rule in case it shall seem necessary or proper.

LI. In any Case in which a Defendant served with any Summons and Plaint shall be a Minor or Lunatic, the like Proceeding shall be taken to appoint a Guardian to defend for such Minor or Lunatic before filing any Defence or Demurrer, and the Name of the Person so appointed shall be mentioned in the Defence as Guardian to such Minor or Lunatic.

LII. Any Defendant served with any Writ of Summons and Plaint in any Action shall thereupon be deemed to be in Court for the Purpose of making Application to the Court or a Judge to compel the Plaintiff to give Security for Costs, and for other like Purposes : Provided that no Order for Security for Costs shall be made by reason of any Plaintiff being resident out of the Jurisdiction of the Court, at the Instance of any Defendant, unless upon a satisfactory Affidavit that such Defendant has a Defence upon the Merits.

LIII. The Forms of Pleading contained in the Schedule C. to this Act annexed shall be sufficient in the Cases to which they apply, apply, and these and the like Forms may be used, with such Modifications as may be necessary to meet the Facts of the Case; but nothing herein contained shall render it erroneous or irregular to depart from the Letter of such Forms, so long as the Substance is expressed without Prolivity.

Different Causes of Action may be joined, but separate Trials may be ordered.

LIV. Causes of Action, of whatever Kind, (except in Ejectment,) may be joined in the same Summons and Pliant, provided they be by and against the same Parties and in the same Rights, except as herein-after mentioned; but the Court or a Judge shall have Power to prevent the Trial of different Causes together, if such Trial would be inexpedient, and to order separate Records to be made up and separate Trials had.

Joinder of Claims by Husband and Wife, with Claims in right of Husband.

LV. In any Action brought by Husband and Wife for any Cause of Action accruing in respect of the Wife and in respect of which she is necessarily joined as Co-Plaintiff, it shall be lawful for the Husband to add thereto Claims in his own Right, and separate Actions brought in respect of such Claims, if in the same Court, may be consolidated, if the Court or a Judge shall think fit; provided that in the Case of the Death of either Plaintiff such Suit, so far only as relates to the Causes of Action, if any, which do not survive, shall abate.

Form and Nature of Defence and subsequent Pleadings.

LVI. The Defence and Replication and subsequent Pleadings, if any, shall state all Facts which constitute the Ground of the Defence or Reply in ordinary Language, and without Repetition, and as concisely as is possible consistent with Clearness; and if such Defence or subsequent Pleading is only applicable to a Portion of the preceding Pleading, the Portion to which it is applicable shall be shortly referred to.

Several Matters may be pleaded at any Stage of the Pleadings.

LVII. The Plaintiff in any Action may, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, plead in answer to the Defence or the subsequent Pleading of the Defendant as many several Matters as he shall think necessary to sustain his Action; and the Defendant in any Action may, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, plead in answer to the Summons and Plaint or other subsequent Pleading of the Plaintiff as many several Matters as he shall think necessary for his Defence, upon an Affidavit of the Party making such Application or his Attorney, if required by the Court or a Judge, to the effect that he is advised and believes that he has just Ground to traverse the several Matters proposed to be traversed by him, and that the several Matters sought to be pleaded as aforesaid by way of Confession and Avoidance are respectively true in Substance and in Fact.

Certain Defences may be pleaded together without Leave.

LVIII. The following Defences, or any Two or more of them, may be pleaded together as of course, without Leave of the Court or a Judge; that is to say, a Defence denying any Contract or Debt alleged in the Declaration, a Defence of Tender as to Part, a Defence of the Statute of Limitations, Set-off Bankruptcy of the Defendant, Discharge under an Insolvent Act, Plenè administravit, Plenè administravit præter, Infancy, Coverture, Payment, Accord and Satisfaction, Release, a Denial that the Property an Injury to which is complained of is the Plaintiff's, Leave and Licence, Son assault demesne, and any other Pleas which the Judges of the said Superior Courts, or any Eight or more of them, of whom the Chief Judges of the said Courts shall be
Three,

Three, shall by any Rule or Order to be from Time to Time by them made in Term or Vacation order or direct.

LIX. The Defendant may, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, plead and demur, or the Plaintiff may reply and demur, to the same Portion of the Summons and Plaint or Defence at the same Time upon an Affidavit by the Party pleading, or his Attorney, if required by the Court or a Judge, that he is advised and believes all the Objections raised by Demurrer are good and valid Objections in Law, and it shall be in the Discretion of the Court or a Judge to direct which Issue, whether of Fact or Law, shall be first disposed of.

Double Pleas
and Demurrer.

LX. The Costs of every Issue, whether of Fact or Law, shall follow the Finding or Judgment upon such Issue, and be adjudged to the successful Party, whatever may be the Result of the other Issues; and the Costs of all Issues found for the Defendant shall be deducted from the Plaintiff's Costs, if the Defendant shall proceed with due Diligence to tax the same; and the Costs of all Issues found for the Plaintiff shall be deducted from the Defendant's Costs, if the Plaintiff shall proceed with due Diligence to tax the same; and if said Costs so to be deducted shall not in either Case be taxed in Time for the Purpose of deducting the same from the Costs of the opposite Party they shall be separately recoverable by Execution, when taxed and ascertained.

Costs of several Issues.

LXI. No useless Form or Fiction, such as Express Colour or Special Traverse, shall be used, nor shall it be necessary to allege any Matter that need not be proved, regard being had to the Substance and Ground of the Action or Defence.

Forms and Fictions
abolished.

LXII. The Venue in any Personal Action may, except as herein-after stated, be laid in any County which the Plaintiff thinks proper, and the Name of such County shall be stated in the Margin of the Summons, and shall be taken to be the Venue intended by the Plaintiff, and no Venue shall be stated in the Body of the Summons or in any subsequent Pleading; provided it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge to order such Venue to be changed by an Amendment of such Summons and Plaint to any other County or County of a City or Town in which the Trial can be more conveniently or properly had, on special Grounds only, and not merely because the Cause of Action accrued in any particular Place or County.

Venue to be stated only in Margin of Summons and Plaint.

LXIII. It shall not be necessary for any Party, in his Summons and Plaint or Defence or other Pleading, to set forth more of any Deed or Document than such Parts thereof as are material to his Action or Defence, or the Purport and Effect thereof; and it shall not be necessary to make Profert of such Deed or Document, and if Profert be made it shall not entitle the opposite Party to crave Oyer of or to set out upon Oyer such Deed or other Document.

Setting out of Deeds in Pleading.

LXIV. When any Party shall rely on any Deed or Document, or any Portion thereof, in his Pleading, the said Deed or Document shall be produced upon every Trial and Argument in the Cause, unless its Nonproduction can be satisfactorily excused; and in default thereof it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge before whom such Trial or Argument shall be had to exclude the said Party so in default from all Benefit or Advantage of the said

Production, Inspection, and
Copy of Deeds.

Deed or Document, or to make such Order for the Postponement of the Trial or Argument, and the Payment of the Costs occasioned by the said Postponement, as shall seem to be just; and the opposite Party shall be at liberty, by Notice in Writing, to demand of the Party so relying on the said Deed or Document an Inspection or Copy, or both an Inspection and Copy of the same, including the Names of the Witnesses by whom it was attested, if any, and any Endorsement or Defeasance thereon, and the Production of it for the Purpose of its being stamped, if necessary, and also the Production, Inspection, or Copy of any other Deed or Instrument whereof Inspection could be obtained by a Bill of Discovery; and such Copy, when furnished, shall be certified to be a correct Copy by the Attorney furnishing the same; and in case such Copy shall not be delivered, or such Inspection or Production shall not be granted, the Party demanding the same shall be at liberty to apply to the Court or a Judge for an Order for such Copy or Inspection or Production, or Copy and Inspection and Production, as such Judge shall think fit, but such Demand, Notice, or Order shall in no Case operate as a Stay of Proceedings, except when a special Order shall be made by a Judge to that Effect.

Summons and Plaint for Libel or Slander.

LXV. In Actions of Libel and Slander the Plaintiff shall be at liberty to aver that the Words or Matter complained of were used in a defamatory Sense, specifying such alleged defamatory Sense, without any prefatory Averment to show how such Words or Matter were used in that Sense.

Performance of Conditions precedent may be averred generally.

LXVI. The Plaintiff or Defendant in any Action may aver Performance of Conditions precedent generally, and the Defendant shall not deny such Averment generally, but shall specify in his Pleading the Condition or Conditions precedent the Performance of which he intends to contest.

The Process or Adjudication of an inferior Jurisdiction may be pleaded generally.

LXVII. In pleading any Process, Decree, Judgment, or Adjudication of a Court or Officer of special or inferior Jurisdiction it shall not be necessary for the Party pleading or relying on such Process or Adjudication to state in his pleading the Facts or Matters conferring Jurisdiction on such Court or Officer to entertain the Question, or issue such Process, or make such Adjudication, but the same respectively may be stated in such pleading to have been duly entertained or made by such Court or Officer; and if such Statement be controverted, the Party so pleading or relying on such Process, Decree, Judgment, or Adjudication shall on the Trial establish by Proof the Facts and Matters necessary to confer Jurisdiction on such Court or Officer to entertain the Question, or issue such Process, or make such Adjudication so pleaded as aforesaid.

Facts not traversed admitted.

Character of Assignees to be taken as admitted, unless denied.

LXVIII. All Facts stated in any Summons and Plaint, and not denied in the Defence, shall be deemed to be admitted for the Purpose of the Suit; and in Actions by and against Assignees of a Bankrupt or Insolvent Debtor, or Executors or Administrators, or Persons authorized by Act of Parliament to sue or be sued as nominal Parties, the Character in which the Plaintiff or Defendant is stated to sue or be sued shall not in any Case be considered as in Issue, unless specially denied.

LXIX. So

LXIX. So much of any Act of Parliament as entitles or permits any Person to plead the General Issue only, and to give special Matter in Evidence, without pleading the same, is hereby repealed, except as to pending Actions: Provided always, that in any Case in which a Defendant by any Act of Parliament is now enabled to plead a Plea of Tender or other Matter, together with a Plea of the General Issue, such Defendant may plead the like Matter separately or with any Defence under this Act.

General Issue
by Statute
abolished.

LXX. In Actions upon Contract, every Defence by way of Denial must traverse some One or more than One material Matter of Fact, as, for instance, the drawing, or making, or endorsing, or accepting, or presenting, or Notice of Dishonour of a Bill or Note; and every Defence which admits a Contract in Fact, but relies upon Matter of Avoidance or Discharge, or Illegality on the Ground of Fraud or otherwise, as, for instance, Infancy, Coverture, Release, Payment or Performance, Illegality of Consideration, either by Statute or Common Law, drawing, endorsing, accepting Bills or Notes by way of Accommodation, Set-off, mutual Credit, Misrepresentation, Concealment, Deviation, shall be so expressly pleaded.

Defence by way of Denial to traverse some particular Fact.

Defences which admit a Contract in Fact to be pleaded specially.

LXXI. In Actions for Wrongs, Defences by way of Denial shall take issue on some One or more than One material Matter of Fact alleged in the Summons and Plaint; and all Defences which admit the Matter complained of, but rely on Matter of Avoidance, Excuse, or Justification, shall be so expressly pleaded.

Plea in Actions for Wrongs.

LXXII. A Defence arising after the Commencement of the Action shall be pleaded according to the Fact; and any Defence which does not state whether the Matter therein relied upon arose before or after Action shall be deemed to be a Defence of Matter arising before Action.

Defence of Matter subsequent to Action.

LXXIII. In Cases in which a Plea Puis darrein continuance has heretofore been pleadable in Banco or at Nisi Prius, the same Defence may be pleaded with an Allegation that the Matter arose after the last Pleading, and such Defence may, when necessary, be pleaded at Nisi Prius; but no such Defence shall be allowed unless accompanied by an Affidavit stating that the Matter thereof arose within Eight Days next before the pleading of such Defence, unless the Court or a Judge shall otherwise order.

to be pleaded.

LXXIV. Payment, whether before Action brought or when made into Court, shall not in any Case be allowed to be given in Evidence in reduction of the Amount to be recovered without being pleaded.

Payment not to be proved in Reduction of Amount.

LXXV. Any Defendant, in any Personal Action whatsoever, except Actions for Assault and Battery, false Imprisonment, Libel, Slander, malicious Arrest or Prosecution, Criminal Conversation, or debauching the Plaintiff's Daughter or Servant, and in any Proceeding by Scire facias or Writ of Revivor to have Execution of any Judgment, may pay into Court a Sum of Money by way of Compensation or Amends, or in discharge of the Plaintiff's Demand, or upon any Defence of Tender; and such Payment shall be made by lodging the Money in the Bank of Ireland on behalf of the Defendant who shall make such Lodgment, with the Privity of the Master of the Court, and to the Credit of the Cause; and such Master, on the Certificate of such

Payment of Money into Court.

Lodgment

Lodgment being delivered to him, shall give a Receipt for the Amount in the Margin of the Defence.

Drawing Money
so lodged.

LXXVI. At any Time before Verdict or Judgment for the Defendant, or peremptory Order for Payment of Costs for not proceeding to Trial, the Plaintiff may, in any Case in which Money has been lodged in Court in discharge of the Plaintiff's Demand, or on a Defence of Tender, apply to the Master of the Court to draw on the Bank of Ireland in favour of the Plaintiff for the Sum lodged by the Defendant; and the said Master, on being satisfied by Affidavit or otherwise that a Verdict or Judgment, or peremptory Order for such Payment as aforesaid, for the Defendant has not been had, shall thereupon draw accordingly; but after Verdict or Judgment or peremptory Order aforesaid for the Defendant, the Money shall remain in Court to answer the Defendant's Costs, and the Plaintiff shall not be at liberty to draw the same unless by Order of the Court on Motion.

Taxation of Costs where Money accepted in full Satisfaction.

LXXVII. In case the Plaintiff shall accept the Amount lodged in full Satisfaction of his Demand, the Receipt for the Money given to the Master shall state that it has been so accepted, and the Plaintiff's Costs of Suit shall be taxed and ascertained by the proper Officer; and in case of Nonpayment thereof within Forty-eight Hours after Taxation and Demand the Plaintiff shall be at liberty to enter a peremptory Order for Payment of his Costs of Suit so taxed, and for such further Sum as shall be fixed by the Taxing Officer, subject to the Approval of the Three Chief Judges of the said Courts, as and for his Costs of obtaining such Order.

Issue to try Sufficiency of Payment when declined.

LXXVIII. In case the Plaintiff declines to accept the Sum paid into Court to satisfy the Claim of the Plaintiff in respect of the Matter to which the Plea is pleaded, the Sufficiency of the Payment shall be tried upon the Issue raised for that Purpose by the said Defence, and in case of such Issue being found for the Defendant the Defendant shall be entitled to Judgment and his Costs of Suit.

Certain Defences not objectionable.

LXXIX. Any Defence which shall be good in Substance shall not be objectionable on the Ground of its treating the Summons and Plea as framed either for a Breach of Contract or for a Wrong.

Objections
by Demurrer.

With respect to Objections to Pleadings for formal and other Matters:

Objections by Demurrer.

LXXX. Either Party may object by Demurrer to the Pleading of the opposite Party, for that such Pleading does not set forth sufficient Ground of Action, Defence, or Reply, as the Case may be; and every such Demurrer shall state concisely and explicitly the legal Points or Objections to be relied on, and may be according to the Form No. 3. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed; and to such Demurrer there shall be no further Pleading.

Pleadings good in Substance sufficient.

LXXXI. No Objection by way of General or Special Demurrer for formal Matter only shall be allowed, and no Pleading shall be deemed insufficient for any Defect which could heretofore be objected to only by Special Demurrer; and wherever Issue shall be joined on any Demurrer the Court shall proceed and give Judgment according to the very Right of the Cause, without regarding regarding any Imperfection, Omission, Defect in or Lack of Form; and every Summons and Plea and Defence or other Pleading which shall, with reasonable Clearness and Distinctness, state all such Matters of Fact as are necessary to ground the Action, Defence, or Reply, as the Case may be, shall be sufficient, and it shall not be necessary that such Matters shall be stated in any technical or formal Language or Manner.

LXXXII. Judgment on Demurrer for the Defendant, and also for the Plaintiff, in all Cases in which the Action is for a liquidated or Money Demand, shall be final, unless the Court shall give Liberty to amend the Pleading demurred to, or to plead de novo on the Argument of the Demurrer, or by any subsequent Order.

Judgment on Demurrer final.

LXXXIII. If any Pleading or Demurrer be so framed as to prejudice, embarrass, or delay the fair Trial of the Action, the opposite Party may apply to the Court or a Judge to strike out or amend such Pleading, and the Court or a Judge shall make such Order respecting the same, and also respecting the Costs of the Application, as to such Court or Judge shall seem fit.

Pleadings framed to embarrass may be amended.

With respect to the Joinder of Parties to Actions:

Joinder of Parties.

LXXXIV. No Plea in Abatement for the Nonjoinder of any Person as a Party, Plaintiff or Defendant, shall be filed without the Leave of the Court, but such Defect, or the Misjoinder or Misnomer of any Party, may be pointed out by either Party by Notice before the Trial, and such Notice may be followed by a summary Application to the Court or a Judge in respect thereof; upon which Application the said Court or a Judge may make such Order therein, and touching the Costs thereof, as shall seem to be just.

Nonjoinder or Misjoinder of Parties.

LXXXV. It shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, at any Time before the Trial, to order that any Person or Persons not joined as Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in the Action shall be so joined, or that any Person originally joined as Plaintiff shall be struck out of the Pleadings in the Action, if it shall appear to such Court or Judge that Injustice will not be done by such Amendment, and that the Person to be added consents, either in Person or by Writing under his or her Hand, to be so joined, or that the Person to be struck out was originally introduced without his or her Consent, or that he or she consents in the Manner aforesaid to be so struck out; and such Amendment shall be made upon such Terms as to the Amendment of the Pleadings, Postponement of the Trial, and otherwise, as to the Court or Judge shall seem proper; and when any such Amendment shall have been thereby made, the Liability of any Person who shall have been made Co-Plaintiff shall, subject to any Order to the contrary, be the same as if such Person had been originally joined in such Action.

Amendment before Trial of Nonjoinder or Misjoinder of Plaintiff.

LXXXVI. In case it shall appear at the Trial of any Action that there has been a Misjoinder of Plaintiffs, or that some Person or Persons not joined as Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ought to have been so joined, and the Defendant shall not at or before the Time of Pleading have given Notice in Writing that he objects to such Misjoinder or Nonjoinder, specifying therein the Name or Names of such Person or Persons, such Misjoinder or Nonjoinder may be Amendment at Trial.

be amended by the Court or the Judge or presiding Officer at the Trial, by an Order endorsed on the Abstract of Nisi Prius or Writ of Inquiry, signed by any Member of the Court, or by the said Judge or Officer, if it shall appear to such Court, Judge, or Officer that such Misjoinder or Nonjoinder was not for the Purpose of obtaining an undue Advantage, and that Injustice will not be done by such Amendment, and that the Person or Persons to be added consent, either in Person or by Writing under his, her, or their Hand or Hands, to be so joined, or that the Person or Persons to be struck out were originally introduced without his, her, or their Consent, or that such Person or Persons consent in manner aforesaid to be so struck out in the Manner aforesaid; and such Amendment shall be made upon such Terms as the Court, Judge, or Officer shall think proper; and when any such Amendment shall be made the Liability of any Person or Persons who shall be added as a Co-Plaintiff or Co-Plaintiffs shall, subject to any Order to the contrary, be the same as if such Person or Persons had been originally joined in such Action.

Upon Notice of Nonjoinder of Plaintiffs Proceedings may be amended.

LXXXVII. In case such Notice be given by the Defendant of the Nonjoinder of a Person as Co-Plaintiff, the Plaintiff shall be at liberty to enter a Side-bar Order, to amend the Summons and Plaint, and other Proceedings, by adding the Name or Names of the Person or Persons named in such Notice, and to proceed in the Action, on Payment of the Costs of and occasioned by such Amendment only; and in such Case the Defendant shall be at liberty to plead de novo when he has pleaded already, and shall have Four Days from the Service of the Notice of such Amendment for the Purpose of pleading as aforesaid.

Proceedings when Nonjoinder of Defendant objected to.

LXXXVIII. Upon any Objection for Nonjoinder of a Defendant being taken by Plea in Abatement, or by Motion to the Court in consequence of such Nonjoinder, it shall be competent to the Plaintiff to show that such Person so omitted is not a necessary Party, or is not resident within the Jurisdiction of the Court, or has been discharged by Bankruptcy or Insolvency, or that the Statute of Limitations would be a Bar to any Action against him.

Upon Notice of Nonjoinder of Defendants Proceedings may be amended.

LXXXIX. In any Action on Contract where the Nonjoinder of any Person or Persons as a Co-Defendant or Co-Defendants has been objected to by Notice or Plea in Abatement, the Plaintiff shall be at liberty to enter a Side-bar Order to amend the Writ of Summons and Plaint by adding the Name or Names of the Person or Persons named in such Notice as Joint Contractors, and to serve the amended Writ upon the Person or Persons so named in such Notice, and to proceed against the original Defendant or Defendants, and the Person or Persons so named in such Notice, provided that the Date of such Amendment shall, as between the Person or Persons so named in such Notice and the Plaintiff, be considered for all Purposes as the Commencement of the Action.

Subsequent Proceedings against the Persons named in a Notice for Nonjoinder of Defendant.

XC. In all Cases after such Notice of Objection or Plea in Abatement in respect of the Nonjoinder of a Party as Defendant, and Amendment in pursuance thereof, if it shall appear upon the Trial of the Action that the Person or Persons so named in such Notice was or were jointly liable with the original Defendant or Defendants, the original Defendant or Defendants shall be entitled, as against the Plaintiff, to the Costs of such Notice and Amendment; but if at such Trial it shall appear that the original Defendant or any of the original Defendants is or are liable, but that One or more of the Persons named in such Notice is or are not liable as a contracting Party or Parties, the Plaintiff shall nevertheless be entitled to Judgment against the other Defendant or Defendants who shall appear to be liable, and every Defendant who is not so liable shall have Judgment, and shall be entitled to his Costs as against the Plaintiff, who shall be allowed the same, together with the Costs of the Notice and Amendment, as Costs in the Cause against the original Defendant or Defendants who shall have so objected to the Nonjoinder of such Person: Provided always, that any such Defendant who shall have so objected shall be at liberty on the Trial to adduce Evidence of the Liability of the Defendants named by him in such Notice.

XCI. It shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge in the Case of the Joinder of too many Defendants in any Action on Contract, at any Time before the Trial, to order that the Name or Names of One or more of such Defendants be struck out, if it shall appear to such Court or Judge that Injustice will not be done by such Amendment; and the Amendment shall be made upon such Terms as the Court or Judge by whom such Amendment is made shall think proper; and in case it shall appear at the Trial of any Action on Contract that there has been a Misjoinder of Defendants, such Misjoinder may be amended, as a Variance, at the Trial, in like Manner as the Misjoinder of Plaintiffs has been herein-before authorized to be amended, and upon such Terms as the Court, or Judge or other presiding Officer, by whom such Amendment is made, shall think proper.

And for the Determination of Questions raised by Consent without pleading, be it enacted as follows:

XCII. The Parties may, after Writ issued, and at any Stage of the Proceedings before Judgment, by Consent and Order of a Judge, state any Question or Questions of Law in a Special Case for the Opinion of the Court, without any further Pleading.

XCIII. The Parties may, if they think fit, enter into an Agreement in Writing, which shall not be subject to any Stamp Duty, and which shall be embodied in the said or any subsequent Order, that Error may or may not be brought upon the Judgment of the Court on such Special Case, and that upon the Judgment of the Court being given in the Affirmative or Negative of the Question or Questions of Law raised by such Special Case, a Sum of Money, fixed by the Parties, or to be ascertained by the Court, or in such Manner as the Court may direct, shall be paid by One of such Parties to the other of them, either with or without Costs of the Action, such Agreement to be filed in the Master's Office within Ten Days after the making thereof; and the Judgment of the Court may be entered for such Sum as shall be so agreed or ascertained, with or without Costs, as the Case may be, and Execution may issue upon such Judgment forthwith, unless otherwise agreed, or unless stayed by Proceedings in Error.

XCIV. In case it is not agreed that Error may not be brought upon the Judgment of the Court upon such Special Case, either Misjoinder of Defendants may be amended before or at the Trial.

Special Cases.

Questions of Law raised by Consent without pleading.

Agreement as to Error and Payment of Money and Costs, according to Judgment upon Special Case.

Proceedings in Error upon Special Case.

Party

Party may take such Judgment into a Court of Error, in the same Manner, and with all such Proceedings and Consequences, as to Bail, Costs, Restitution, and otherwise, as in the Case of Error brought upon an ordinary Judgment, and the Court of Error before which such Judgment shall be brought shall have the same Power to proceed and give Judgment upon the Question or Questions of Law raised by the Special Case as the Court in which the original Judgment shall have been given.

Costs to follow the Event unless otherwise agreed.

XCV. In case no Agreement shall be entered into as to the Costs in any such Special Case, the Costs shall follow the Event, and be recovered by the successful Party, who shall have Execution for the same.

Judgment by Default.

With respect to Judgment by Default and to Judgment on Demurrer for the Plaintiff, and the Mode of ascertaining the Amount to be recovered thereupon :

Final Judgment may be marked where Demand liquidated.

XCVI. No Rule to compute shall be necessary or used ; but where the Plaintiff's Claim is for a Debt or liquidated Demand in Money, with or without Interest, arising upon a Contract, express or implied, in default of such Defence or Demurrer filed within the Time aforesaid by the Defendant, it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff, on filing an Affidavit of the Service of the Writ of Summons and Plaint in the Manner herein-before prescribed, or of such substituted Service as may be authorized as aforesaid, and of the Notice of filing the Summons and Plaint, if any, and Certificate of no Defence filed, to sign final Judgment in the Form No. 4. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, on which Judgment no Proceeding in Error shall lie, for any Principal Sum not exceeding the Sum claimed by the said Writ, with legal Interest thereon, and a Sum for Costs, to be fixed by the Taxing Master of the said Superior Courts, subject to the Approval of the Lord Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench, and the other Two Chief Judges of the said Courts, unless the Plaintiff claims more than such fixed Sum, in which Case the Costs shall be taxed in the ordinary Way ; but no Costs of such Taxation shall be allowed unless the Costs so taxed shall exceed the Sum so settled and approved of ; and the Plaintiff may, upon such Judgment, issue Execution : Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge to let in the Defendant to defend upon such Terms as to such Court or Judge shall seem proper.

Where only some of the Defendants take Defence.

XCVII. In any Action brought against Two or more Defendants, where the Claim is for a Debt or liquidated Demand in Money, with or without Interest, as last aforesaid, if One or more of such Defendants only shall appear to defend or demur, and another or others of them shall not appear to defend or demur, it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff to sign Judgment against such Defendant or Defendants only as shall not have appeared to defend or demur, and before Issue joined against the other Defendant or Defendants to issue Execution thereupon, in which Case he shall be taken to have abandoned his Action against the Defendant or Defendants who shall have defended or demurred ; or the Plaintiff may, before issuing such Execution, proceed against such Defendant or Defendants as shall have filed a Defence or Demurrer, stating, by way of Suggestion, the Judgment obtained obtained against the other Defendant or Defendants who shall not have filed a Defence or Demurrer, in which Case the Judgment so obtained against the Defendant or Defendants who shall not have taken Defence or demurred shall operate and take effect in like Manner as a Judgment by Default obtained before the Commencement of this Act against One or more of several Defendants in an Action of Debt before the Commencement of this Act.

XCVIII. In default of such Defence or Demurrer filed as aforesaid, and in case of Judgment for the Plaintiff on Demurrer, where the Plaintiff's Claim is not for a Debt or liquidated Demand in Money, but it shall appear to the Court or a Judge that the Amount of Damages sought to be recovered by the Plaintiff, although not liquidated in its Nature, is substantially a Matter of Calculation, it shall not be necessary to issue a Writ of Inquiry, but the Court or a Judge may direct that the Amount for which final Judgment is to be signed shall be ascertained by the Master of the Court on Affidavit or by oral Evidence and the Attendance of Witnesses; and the Production of Documents before such Master may be compelled by Subpœna, in the same Manner as before a Jury upon a Writ of Inquiry; and it shall be lawful for such Master to adjourn the Inquiry from Time to Time as Occasion may require: Provided always, that in case the said Master upon any such Reference shall think it proper to have any Fact controverted on the Reference tried by a Jury, in such Case the said Master may sign a Requisition to that Effect, entitled in the Cause, and direct the same to be delivered to the Sheriff of the County of the City of Dublin Two Days before the Time when such Jury shall be required, and the Jurors shall be summoned and taken from the List of Persons liable to serve as Jurors in the County of the City of Dublin, and the Sheriff shall cause so many of the Jurors as in his Opinion he shall deem sufficient to be summoned, but not less than Six, and such Persons shall attend, and either Party shall be entitled to his lawful Challenge against all or any of the said Jurors, and a Jury consisting of not less than Three shall be returned to try such Fact or Facts as shall seem doubtful to such Master, who shall proceed to make his Report on the Verdict of such Jury as he shall see fit, and such Jury shall be sworn and paid as a Common Jury at Nisi Prius; and the Master shall endorse upon the Rule or Order for referring the Amount of Damages to him the Amount found by him, and shall deliver the Rule or Order, with such Endorsement, to the Plaintiff, and such and the like Proceedings may thereupon be had as to Taxation of Costs, signing Judgment, and staying the signing thereof, and otherwise, as upon the Finding of a Jury upon a Writ of Inquiry.

Inquiry of Damages before the Master, where the Claim is Matter of Calculation.

XCIX. It shall be the Duty of the Master of the Court, before he permits any such Judgment by Default to be marked, to see that a proper Affidavit of the Service of the Writ of Summons and Plaint has been filed, and that according to such Affidavit Service of such Writ has been effected in the Manner prescribed by this Act, or in the Manner substituted by the Order of the Court or a Judge as aforesaid.

Master shall examine the Affidavits of Service.

C. In Default of such Defence or Demurrer, and in case of Judgment for the Plaintiff on Demurrer, when the Plaintiff's Demand

Ordinary Writ of Inquiry in other Cases

Demand is not for a Debt or liquidated Sum in Money, and where the Amount of Damages sought to be recovered cannot be calculated as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff to issue a Writ of Inquiry to the Sheriff of the proper County, or other Person thereunto lawfully authorized, and such Inquiry shall be holden at the Chief Town in the County, or such other Place as shall be agreed on between the Sheriff and the Party delivering the Writ to him, who shall have Ten Days Notice in Writing of the Time and Place of holding such Inquiry; and Notice of the holding of such Inquiry shall also be given by the Plaintiff to the Defendant, or if Judgment be given on Demurrer to his Attorney, Ten Days before the holding of same; and the said Writ of Inquiry may be made returnable and be returned on any Day certain in Term or in Vacation, to be named in such Writ, and upon the Return thereof, and without any Rule for Judgment thereon, the Costs may be taxed and Judgment signed and Execution issued forthwith, unless the Sheriff or other Officer before whom such Writ shall be executed shall certify under his Hand upon such Writ that Judgment ought not to be signed until the Defendant or Plaintiff shall have had an Opportunity to apply to the Court to set aside the Execution of such Writ of Inquiry, or unless One of the Judges of the said Superior Courts of Law shall think fit to order the Judgment to be stayed until a Day to be named in such Order; provided that where a Writ of Inquiry shall have been sped before a Judge, the Proceedings from the Finding to issuing Execution shall be the same as in the Case of ordinary Trials at Nisi Prius.

Inquiries may be holden before Master of the Court when Venue in Dublin.

CL. It shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, in any Case in which the Venue in the Action shall be laid in the County or County of the City of Dublin, instead of a Writ of Inquiry to the Sheriff to ascertain the Amount of Damages, to direct that the Amount for which final Judgment shall be marked shall be ascertained by the Master of the Court, and thereupon such Damages shall be ascertained by the Master in like Manner as such Damages have been heretofore ascertained under Writ of Inquiry by the Sheriff; and for such Purpose it shall be the Duty of the Sheriff to summon Jurors to attend before the said Masters, who shall have the like Jurisdiction and Authority as have been heretofore exercised by Sheriffs in holding such Inquiries: Provided always, that whenever there is any such Trial by Jury Six Jurymen shall be impanelled and sworn as Occasion shall require to give their Verdict according to the Evidence, and the Verdict of the said Jurymen shall, if unanimous, be sufficient; and it shall be lawful for the Master to adjourn such Inquiry from Time to Time as Occasion may require; and the Master shall endorse on the Rule or Order of Reference the Finding of the said Jury, and shall deliver the same to the Plaintiff, and such and the like Proceedings may thereupon be had as to Taxation of Costs, signing Judgment, and otherwise, as upon a Finding of a Jury upon a Writ of Inquiry to the Sheriff.

With respect to the Settlement of the Issues and Abstract for Nisi Prius:

CII. After Defence or last subsequent Pleading filed, and together with the Notice of Trial, the Plaintiff's Attorney shall furnish Issues and Abstract for Nisi Prius.

Abstract of for Nisi

furnish to the Defendant's Attorney a Draft of the Abstract of the Pleadings and of the Issues in Fact to be tried at Nisi Prius, according to the Form No. 5. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed; and in case the Defendant shall not return the same, approved of, within Four Days from the Delivery thereof, the Plaintiff may take out a Summons to settle the same before a Judge, who shall, subject to an Appeal to the Court, settle the same, and shall have Power to adjudicate on the Costs of such Settlement; and such Abstract, so agreed upon or settled, shall be lodged with the Pleadings Assistant of the Court, and an En-grossment of such Abstract, so agreed on or settled, and prepared by the Plaintiff's Attorney, shall be in place of the Record of Nisi Prius, and the Postea and all other Proceedings at the Trial shall be endorsed thereon, and shall be returnable in the like Manner as heretofore in respect of the Nisi Prius Record.

Prius to be settled by a Judge.

CIII. Ten Days Notice of Trial or Inquiry shall be given, and shall be sufficient in all Cases, whether at Bar or Nisi Prius, in Town or Country, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or a Judge; and the Expression "Short Notice of Trial" in any Order or Consent shall be taken to mean Four Days.

Time for Notice of Trial and Inquiry.

CIV. A Countermand of Notice of Trial or Inquiry may be given Four Days before the Time mentioned in the Notice, unless Short Notice of Trial or Inquiry has been given, and then Two Days before the Time mentioned in the Notice of Trial or Inquiry, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or a Judge, or by Consent.

Notice of Countermand.

CV. A Rule for Costs of the Day for not proceeding to Trial or Inquiry pursuant to Notice, or not countermanding in sufficient Time, may be drawn up on Affidavit, without Motion, at any Time within One Month after the Day of Trial or Inquiry fixed by the Notice of Trial or Inquiry, and if such Rule be not entered within said Period such Costs shall be Costs in the Cause; provided however that such Rule shall, so long as it remains in force, be an Answer to any Application in respect of any Default in proceeding to Trial.

Costs of the Day.

With respect to Default in not proceeding to Trial :

Default in going to Trial.

CVI. The Plaintiff shall proceed to Trial within Three Terms from that in which, or the Vacation of which, the Defence or other subsequent Pleading is filed; and in default thereof the Defendant may enter a Rule that the Plaintiff do proceed to Trial at the Assizes or Sittings next after the Expiration of Twenty Days from the Service of such Rule, and that in default the Defendant shall be dismissed with his Costs of the Suit; and if the Plaintiff neglects to proceed to Trial in pursuance thereof, the Defendant, on filing an Affidavit of the Service of such Rule, and that the Plaintiff has failed to proceed to Trial in pursuance thereof, may enter a peremptory Order for the Payment of his Costs of the Suit, which Order shall be in lieu and shall have the Effect of a Judgment as in case of a Nonsuit; and the Defendant on producing such Order shall have the Pleadings in the Cause removed into the Office of the Master of the Court for the Purpose of having Execution thereon, and shall have Execution accordingly; provided, however, that the Court or a Judge shall have Power to extend the Time for proceeding to Trial, with or without Terms.

Order for Costs for not proceeding to Trial.

Defendant's Right to try upon Default of the Plaintiff.

CVII. Nothing herein contained shall affect the Right of a Defendant to take down a Cause for Trial, after Default by the Plaintiff to proceed to Trial as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the Defendant, after such Default, to proceed to have the Abstract of the Issues settled in the same Manner as the Plaintiff might have done.

Notice of Trial
by Defendant

CVIII. When a Defendant shall be entitled to go to Trial as aforesaid, he may proceed without any Rule or Order for that Purpose, and the same Notice of Trial shall be given as in ordinary Cases, and if Abstracts are entered for Trial both by the Plaintiff and the Defendant, the Defendant's Abstract shall be treated as standing next in order after the Plaintiff's Abstract in the List of Causes, and the Trial of the Cause may take place accordingly.

Jury Process.

With respect to Juries and Jury Process :

Precept by Judges to summon Jurors for Civil as well as Criminal Trials.

CIX. No Jury Process shall be necessary or used in any Action; but the Precept issued by the Judges of Assize to the Sheriff to summon Jurors for the Assizes shall credit that the Jurors be summoned for the Trial of all Issues, whether civil or criminal, which may come on for Trial at the Assizes, and the Jurors shall thereupon be summoned in like Manner as at present.

A printed Panel to be prepared, and annexed to the Abstract.

CX. A printed Panel of the Jurors summoned shall, Seven Days before the Commission Day, be made by the Sheriff, and kept in the Office of the Returning Officer in Dublin for Inspection; and a printed Copy of such Panel on Parchment shall be delivered by the Sheriff to any Party requiring the same, on Payment of a Fee of One Shilling, and such Copy shall be annexed to the Abstract for Nisi Prius.

Sheriffs of Dublin to summon Common Jurors, and prepare a Panel to be annexed to the Abstract.

CXI. The Sheriffs of the County and County of the City of Dublin respectively shall, pursuant to a Precept under the Hand of a Judge of any of the said Superior Courts, and without any other Authority, summon a sufficient Number of Common Jurors for the Trial of all Issues in the Superior Courts of Common Law and the Consolidated Nisi Prius Court in like Manner as before this Act; and Seven Days before the First Day of each Sittings a printed Panel of the Jurors so summoned for the Trial of Causes at such Sittings shall be made by such Sheriff, and kept in his Office for public Inspection; and a printed Copy of such Panel shall be delivered by the said Sheriff to any Party requiring the same, on Payment of a Fee of One Shilling, and a Copy on Parchment shall be annexed to the Abstract for Nisi Prius; and the said Precept shall and may be in like Form as the Precept issued by the Judges of Assize, and One thereof shall suffice for each Term and after Sittings, and for all the Superior Courts and the said Consolidated Nisi Prius Court; and it shall be the Duty of the said Sheriffs respectively to apply for and procure such Precept to be issued in sufficient Time before each Term to enable them to summon the Persons in manner aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the several Courts or any Judge thereof at any Time to issue such Precept or Precepts to summon Jurors for disposing of the Business pending in such Courts and in the Consolidated Nisi Prius Court, and to direct the Time and Place for which such Jurors shall be summoned, and all such other Matters as to such Court or Judge shall seem requisite.

CXII. The

XII. The Precept issued by the Judges of Assize, and by Judge of any of the said Superior Courts for Cases in the County and City of Dublin, as aforesaid, shall direct the Sheriff to summon a sufficient Number of Special Jurymen to be mened therein, not exceeding in Country Cases Forty-eight in all to try the Special Jury Causes at the Assizes, or in the several Superior Courts of Common Law in Dublin respectively; and the Jurors summoned in pursuance of such Precept shall be the Jury trying the Special Jury Causes at the Assizes or after Sittings respectively, subject to such Right of Challenge as the Parties are by Law entitled to in the like Cases, and subject to the like Liability as to the Payment of the Costs of obtaining such Special Jury; and a printed Panel of the Special Jurors so summoned shall be made, kept, delivered, and annexed to the Abstract of Nisi Prius, in like Time and Manner and upon the same Terms as hereinbefore provided with reference to the Panel of Common Jurors; and upon the Trial the Special Jury shall be balloted for and called in the Order in which they shall be drawn from the Box, in the same Manner as Common Jurors; provided that the Court or a Judge, in such Case as they or he may think fit, may order that a Special Jury be struck according to the present Practice, and such Order shall be a sufficient Warrant for striking such Special Jury and making a Panel thereof for the Trial of the particular Cause.

Special Jurors summoned to try all Special Jury Cases.

CXIII. The Plaintiff in any Action, except for the Replevin of Goods, shall be entitled to have the Cause tried by a Special Jury, upon giving Notice in Writing to the Defendant at such Time as would be necessary for a Notice of Trial of his Intention that the Cause shall be so tried, and the Plaintiff in an Action for the Replevin of Goods, and the Defendant in other Cases, shall be so entitled, on giving the like Notice, within Six Days before the First Day of the Assizes or after Sittings respectively; provided that the Court or a Judge may at any Time order that a Cause shall be tried by a Special Jury, upon such Terms as they or he shall think fit.

Mode of obtaining a Special Jury.

CXIV. Where the Defendant in any Case, or Plaintiff in an Action for the Replevin of Goods, gives Notice of his Intention to try the Cause by a Special Jury, the Court or a Judge, if satisfied that such Notice is given for the Purpose of Delay, may order that the Cause be tried by a Common Jury, or make such other Order as to the Trial of the Cause as such Court or Judge shall think fit.

Remedy for Delay by Notice of Trial by Special Jury.

CXV. Where Notice has been given to try by Special Jury, either Party may, Six Days before the First Day of the Sittings in Dublin, or Commission Day of the Assizes, give Notice to the Sheriff that such Action is to be tried by a Special Jury; and in case no such Notice be given, or the Notice has not been given in sufficient Time, no Special Jury need be summoned or attend, and the Cause may be tried by a Common Jury, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or a Judge.

Notice to Sheriff of Trial by Special Jury.

CXVI. A Writ or Clause of View shall not be necessary or used, but whether the View is to be had by a Common or Special Jury it shall be sufficient to obtain a Rule of the Court or a Judge's Order directing a View to be had, and directing the Sheriff to have Six or more of the Jurors named in the Panel chosen by

View to be by Rule.

Consent, or, if the Parties cannot agree, nominated by the proper Officer of the Court at the Place in question some convenient Time before the Trial; and the Viewers shall have the Place shown to them by Two Persons to be named in the Order, and to be appointed by the Court or a Judge; and the Sheriff, upon Request, shall deliver to either Party the Names of the Viewers, and shall also return their Names to the Registrar, for the Purpose of their being called as Jurymen upon the Trial.

Proceedings
before Jurors so returned same as before this Act.

CXVII. The Jurors whose Names are contained in such Panel as aforesaid shall be the Jurors to try the Causes at the Assizes and Sittings for which they shall be summoned respectively; and all such Proceedings may be had and taken before such Juries in like Manner and with the like Consequences in all respects as before or in respect of any Jury summoned in pursuance of any Writ or Writs of Venire facias juratores, Distringas juratores or Habeas corpora juratorum, before this Act, and also in respect of Persons summoned to appear upon such Juries, and in the event of an insufficient Attendance of Persons summoned and competent to act as Jurors.

Evidence.

With respect to Matters of Evidence and the Admission of Documents, be it enacted as follows:

Admission of Documents.

CXVIII. Either Party may call on the other Party, by Notice, to admit any Document, or a Copy thereof, saving all just Exceptions; and in case of Refusal or Neglect to admit within a reasonable Time, the Costs of proving the Document or Copy shall be paid by the Party so neglecting or refusing, whatever the Result of the Cause may be, unless at the Trial the Judge shall certify that the Refusal to admit was reasonable; and no Costs of proving any Document or Copy shall be allowed unless such Notice be given, except in Cases where the Omission to give the Notice is, in the Opinion of the Taxing Officer, a Saving of Expense.

Proof of Admissions.

CXIX. An Affidavit of the Attorney in the Cause, or his Clerk, of the due Signature of any Admissions, made in pursuance of such Notice, and annexed to the Affidavit, shall be in all Cases sufficient Evidence of such Admissions.

Proof of Notice to produce.

CXX. An Affidavit of the Attorney in the Cause, or his Clerk, of the Service of any Notice to produce, in respect of which Notice to admit shall have been given, and of the Time when it was served, with a Copy of such Notice annexed to such Affidavit, shall be sufficient Evidence of the Service of the Original of such Notice, and of the Time when it was served.

Bills of Exceptions.

With respect to Bills of Exception, be it enacted as follows:

Bill of Exceptions not to set forth Pleadings.

CXXI. Every Bill of Exceptions may be according to the Form No. 6. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed; and it shall be lawful, by Consent of the Parties, or Order of the Judge, to incorporate any Deed or Document therewith, by an appropriate Reference to such Deed or Document, without setting forth the same.

Judgment.

With respect to the Form and Manner of entering Judgment:

Judgment not to be arrested on technical objections.

CXXII. No Judgment shall be arrested or stayed or reversed by reason of any Imperfection, Omission, Defect in or Lack of Form in any Summons and Plea, Defence, or other Pleading or Proceeding, ceeding, nor by reason that the Venue is misplaced, or the Trial had in a wrong County or Place, nor by reason of any Misnomer of any of the Jurors who tried the Case in Name, Surname, or Addition, so as it appear to the Court to be the same Man that was meant to be returned, nor by reason that the Plaintiff or Defendant, being under the Age of Twenty-one Years, did sue or defend by Attorney.

CXXIII. It shall not be necessary, before issuing Execution upon any Judgment under the Authority of this Act, to enter the Proceedings upon any Roll, but on producing, and lodging with the proper Officer, a Certificate of the Name, Description, and Address of the Parties, an Entry shall be made in the Judgment Book, signed by the Master, shortly stating the Nature of the Judgment, and thereupon the Costs shall be taxed, and Execution issued, according to the Practice heretofore used, and the Effect of every such Entry of a Judgment shall be the same as that of a Judgment in an Action in the Form heretofore used; and such Entry in the said Judgment Book shall contain a Reference to the Number of the Roll on which such Judgment shall be enrolled, and shall contain a Column in which any Satisfaction of the said Judgment may be afterwards entered, if necessary.

Entry of Judgment on the Roll unnecessary for Execution.

CXXIV. When it shall be required to sign any Judgment, the Attorney requiring the same shall deliver to the proper Officer a correct Summary or Recital of the Proceedings, briefly stating the several Pleadings, and the Nature thereof, written fairly on Parchment, and signed by the Attorney, and thereupon the Officer shall take off from the Pleadings File the several Pleadings in the Cause in which such Judgment shall be required to be made up, and shall place them, together with the said Summary prefixed, in consecutive Order upon the File of Judgments, in the Manner now used, or as may be hereafter directed by any General Order of the Judges, there to be kept as the permanent Records of the Court, and shall upon the said Summary give the proper Award of Judgment; and it shall in all Cases of enrolling Judgments be sufficient to place on the Roll a correct Copy of the said Summary or Recital of the Proceedings according to Fact, together with the Award of Judgment in proper Form, with a Reference to the original Pleadings on the Judgment File, whereby the same may be immediately found and inspected; and no Judgment so enrolled under the Authority of this Act shall be liable to be disturbed on the Ground of Error, on account of any Omissions hereby authorized: Provided always, that if it shall be deemed necessary, for the Prosecution of any Proceeding in Error or for any other Purpose, it shall be lawful for the Court to order that the whole or any Part of the Pleadings shall be transcribed upon the Roll, and the same shall be transcribed by the proper Officer accordingly.

When Judgment to be made up, Summary of Pleadings to be lodged, and Judgment marked thereon.

CXXV. In all Actions where the Plaintiff recovers a Sum of Money, the Amount which he is entitled to may be awarded to him by the Judgment generally, without any Distinction being therein made as to whether such Sum is recovered by way of a Debt or Damages.

Judgment without Distinction between Debt or Damages.

CXXVI. In all Actions for a Trespass on Lands or Tenements, Assault and Battery, or for Slander, the Plaintiff in such Action, Award of Costs in vexatious Actions.

in case the Jury shall find the Damages to be under the Value of Forty Shillings, shall not recover or obtain more Costs of Suit than the Damages so found shall amount unto, unless the Judge at the Trial shall certify under his Hand, on the Back of the Abstract for Nisi Prius, that the Assault and Battery was sufficiently proved by the Plaintiff against the Defendant, or that the Freehold or Title of the Land mentioned in the Plaint was chiefly in question, or that the Trespass was voluntary or malicious.

Execution.

With respect to Execution :

Execution after Trial.

CXXVII. A Plaintiff or Defendant, having obtained a Verdict or Nonsuit in a Cause tried out of Term, shall be entitled, without any Rule on the Postea or Inquisition, to mark Judgment and to issue Execution in Fourteen Days, and in a Cause tried in Term in Four Days, unless the Judge who tries the Cause, or some other Judge, or the Court, shall order Execution to issue at an earlier or later Period, with or without Terms ; and it shall be lawful for the said Judge before whom the Trial has been had, or any other Judge, or the Court, to make such Order accordingly : Provided that, notwithstanding any Judgment signed or recorded or Execution issued by virtue of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Court in which such Action shall have been brought to order such Judgment to be vacated, and Execution to be stayed or set aside, and to enter an Arrest of Judgment, or grant a new Trial or new Writ of Inquiry, as Justice may appear to require, and thereupon the Party affected by such Execution shall be restored to all he may have lost thereby in such Manner as upon the Reversal of a Judgment by a Proceeding in Error, or otherwise as the Court may think fit to direct.

Execution may issue to any County.

CXXVIII. Any Writ of Execution, except a Writ of Habere facias possessionem, or other Writ of Possession, may be directed, in the first instance, to the Sheriff of any County, or County of a City, or other Shrievalty, as the Party suing out the same may think fit, without Reference to the County in which the Venue is laid, and without any Suggestion of the issuing of a prior Writ into such County.

Execution to issue for the Amount really due.

CXXIX. When any Execution is demanded, the Party demanding the same shall lodge with the Officer required to issue such Writ a Certificate signed by the Party or his Attorney containing such Sum as the Party demands to be in good Conscience due to him after all just and equitable Deductions, which Certificate shall be filed in the Office, and the Sum mentioned therein entered in the Book wherein Executions are entered, and also in the Body of the said Execution that shall issue, as the Sum to be levied on Foot of the Sum adjudged by the Judgment or Order of the Court ; and if the Party at whose Suit such Execution issues shall appear wilfully, fraudulently, and maliciously to have overcharged the Party against whom such Execution issues, in such Case he shall forfeit to the Party grieved Treble Damages.

Expenses of Execution.

CXXX. In every Case of Execution, the Party entitled to Execution may levy the Poundage Fees and Expenses of the Execution by Law payable over and above the Sum recovered.

Sheriff empowered to seize Money, Bank

CXXXI. Under any Writ of Fieri facias may be seized and taken any Money or Bank Notes (whether of the Governor and Company Company of the Bank of Ireland, or of any other Bank or Bankers), and any Cheques, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, Bonds, Specialties, or other Securities for Money, belonging to the Person against whose Effects such Writ of Fieri facias shall be sued out; and the Sheriff or other Officer shall pay or deliver to the Party suing out such Execution any Money or Bank Notes which shall be so seized, or a sufficient Part thereof, and shall hold any such Cheques, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, Bonds, Specialties, or other Securities for Money as a Security or Securities for the Amount by such Writ of Fieri facias directed to be levied, or so much thereof as shall not have been otherwise levied and raised, and may sue in the Name of such Sheriff or other Officer for the Recovery of the Sum or Sums secured thereby, when the Time of Payment thereof shall have arrived; and the Payment to such Sheriff or other Officer by the Party liable, with or without Suit, or the Recovery and levying Execution against the Party so liable, shall discharge him to the Extent of such Payment, or of such Recovery and Levy in Execution, as the Case may be, from his Liability on any such Cheque, Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, Bond, Specialty, or other Security; and such Sheriff or other Officer may and shall pay over to the Party suing out such Writ the Money so to be recovered, or such Part thereof as shall be sufficient to discharge the Amount by such Writ directed to be levied; and if, after Satisfaction of the Amount so to be levied, together with Sheriff's Poundage and Expenses, any Surplus shall remain in the Hands of such Sheriff or other Officer, the same shall be paid to the Party against whom such Writ shall be so issued: Provided that no such Sheriff or other Officer shall be bound to sue any Party liable upon any such Cheque, Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, Bond, Specialty, or other Security, unless the Party suing out such Execution shall enter into a Bond, with Two sufficient Sureties, for indemnifying him from all Costs and Expenses to be incurred in the Prosecution of such Action, or to which he may become liable in consequence thereof, the Amount of such Bond or the Sufficiency of such Sureties, or such Amount and such Sufficiency, to be determined by the Master of the Court in which such Action shall be brought, or, if the Court shall so order, by a Commissioner of such Court authorized to take Special Bail, and the Expense of such Bond to be deducted out of any Money to be recovered in such Action.

Notes, &c., and to pay Money or Bank Notes to Execution Creditor.

CXXXII. If any Person against whom such Judgment shall be entered as aforesaid shall have any Government Stock, Funds, or Annuities, or any Stock or Shares in any public Company in Ireland, whether incorporated or not, and standing in his own Name and in his own Right, or in the Name of any Person in trust for him, or any Interest in the Dividends, Interest, or annual Produce of such Stock, Funds, Annuities, or Shares, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, on Application of the Party having recovered such Judgment, to make an Order ex parte in the Form No. 7. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, to attach such Stock, Funds, Annuities, or Shares, and such Dividends, Interest, or annual Produce shall be attached in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland or any public Attachment of Government and Public Stock and Shares.

Company, to answer the Purposes of such Execution, and such Stock, Funds, Annuities, and Shares shall not be suffered to be transferred, nor shall such Dividends, Interest, or annual Produce be paid, until such Order of Attachment shall be withdrawn or discharged or disposed of, and no Disposition in the meanwhile of such Debtor shall be valid or effectual as against such Party recovering such Judgment and obtaining such Order of Attachment.

Order for Transfer and Payment.

CXXXIII. A Copy of such Order of Attachment shall be served on the Debtor or his Attorney or Agent, and unless the said Debtor or some other Person interested shall within the Space of Twenty Days from the Service of such Order of Attachment and Copy, or from the Date of the last Service, or such other Time as the Court or a Judge may think reasonable, show sufficient Cause to the contrary, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, if he shall so think fit, on Proof of the Service of such Order of Attachment and Copy, to make an Order on all Persons, Corporations, and public Companies whose Act or Consent is thereto necessary, to transfer the said Government Stock, Funds, Annuities, or Shares belonging to the said Judgment Debtor, and standing in his own Name, or in the Name of any Trustee for him for his own Benefit, into the Name of the said Sheriff or other Officer as aforesaid, or to make Payment of such Dividends, Interest, and annual Produce to said Sheriff, and all such Persons whose Act or Consent is so necessary as aforesaid are hereby required to obey such Order, and are indemnified for all Things done or permitted pursuant to such Order: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for such Court or a Judge, on the Application of the Debtor or any Person interested, to discharge or vary such Order for Attachment, and to award such Costs, on such Application, as to the said Court or a Judge shall seem just.

Charging Order on contingent and future Interests.

CXXXIV. If such Debtor shall have an Interest in any such Stock, Funds, Annuities, or Shares, or the Dividends, Interest, and annual Produce thereof, not vested or in possession, but contingent or in remainder or reversion, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, on a like Application, to be made by the Party obtaining such Judgment, to make an Order ex parte that such Stock, Funds, Annuities, Shares, Dividends, Interest, or annual Produce, or a competent Part thereof, shall stand charged with the Payment of the Amount for which such Judgment shall have been recovered, and Interest on so much as shall remain unsatisfied, unless satisfactory Cause shall be shown to the contrary by the said Debtor or some other Person interested, within a Time to be named in said Order, and a Copy of such Order shall be served on the Debtor or his Attorney or Agent; and unless Cause shall be shown to the contrary within the Time specified in such Order, or such Time as the Court or a Judge may think proper, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, if it shall so think fit, on Proof of the Service of such Order, to make same absolute; and such Order shall entitle the Creditor to all such Remedies as he would have been entitled to if such Charge had been made in his Favour by the Debtor: Provided that such Court or a Judge shall, on the Application of such Debtor, or any Person interested, have have full Power to discharge or vary such Order, and to award such Costs, upon such Application as the Court or a Judge may think fit.

CXXXV. If such Debtor shall have an Estate or Interest in any Stock, Funds, Annuities, or Shares, or Money, which shall be standing in the Name of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, or of the Court of the Commissioners for the Sale of Incumbered Estates in Ireland, or of the Master of any such Superior Court of Common Law, or in the Dividends, Interest, or annual Produce thereof, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge to make such Order as to such Stock, Funds, Annuities, Shares, and the Dividends, Interest, and annual Produce thereof, as if the same had been standing in the Name of a Trustee for such Judgment Debtor; but no such Order shall prevent the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland or any such public Company from permitting any Transfer of such Stock, Funds, Annuities, and Shares, or Money, or the Payment of the Dividends, Interest, or annual Produce thereof, in such Manner as the said Court of Chancery, or the Commissioners for the Sale of Incumbered Estates in Ireland, or the Court of Common Law may direct: Provided, however, that it shall be lawful for the said Court of Chancery or Court of Common Law, or the said Court of the Commissioners for the Sale of Incumbered Estates, on the Application of the Judgment Creditor, to make such Order in respect of same as shall be just.

Order in respect of Money in Name of Accountant General.

CXXXVI. Where to a Writ of Fieri facias issued against a Beneficed Clergyman the Sheriff shall have returned Nulla bona, and that the Defendant is a Beneficed Clerk having no Lay Fee, the Plaintiff may as of course issue a Writ of Execution De bonis ecclesiasticis, directed to the Bishop of any Diocese in which the Defendant may have a Benefice, and at any Time after a Writ of Execution De bonis ecclesiasticis shall have been delivered to any Bishop the Plaintiff may apply to the Court by Motion for an Order that the Bishop do certify what has been done under the Writ, and that the Sequestrator do account; and where, in obedience to any such Writ of Fieri facias, De bonis ecclesiasticis, a Sequestration of the Ecclesiastical Benefice shall be issued by any Bishop, it shall be lawful for any Court in which any Judgment shall be had against the same Defendant, and Execution issued and returned Nulla bona, to make an Order extending the said Sequestration to the Matter of the said last-mentioned Judgment, without any further Writ or Proceeding; and the said last-mentioned Creditor shall have the Benefit of such Sequestration, and with Priority as from the Date of such Order of Extension, as if it were a Sequestration issued at his own Instance.

Execution against Beneficed Clergymen.

CXXXVII. No Sheriff or other Officer shall return a Devastavit against any Defendant, being an Executor or Administrator, in any Action, but upon an Inquisition taken on the Oaths of Twelve lawful Men of his County, to whom Challenge may be taken; and the Plaintiff shall give the Defendant Ten Days previous Notice of the taking of such Inquisition, and of the Time and Place of taking same; and upon the Return of such Devastavit the Plaintiff shall be entitled to immediate Execution De bonis propriis, without further Rule or Judgment.

Return of Devastavit not to be made but on Finding of Jury.

CXXXVIII. It

Detainer of a Prisoner in Execution.

CXXXVIII. It shall not be necessary in any Case to sue out a Writ of Habeas corpus ad satisfaciendum to charge in Execution any Person already in the Prison of the Court, but such Person may be so charged in Execution by a Side-bar Order upon an Affidavit that Judgment has been signed and is not satisfied, and the Service of such Order upon the Keeper of the Prison for the Time being shall have the Effect of a Detainer.

Discharge of a Prisoner from Execution.

CXXXIX. A Plaintiff or Defendant arrested under any Writ of Capias ad satisfaciendum shall be entitled to his Discharge from such Arrest, on Payment or Tender to the opposite Party or his Attorney in the Cause, or to the Sheriff or Gaoler in whose Custody such Person may be under such Writ, of the Amount directed to be levied by such Writ.

Sheriff or Gaoler may discharge Prisoner by Authority of Attorney in the Cause.

CXL. A written Order under the Hand of the Attorney in the Cause, by whom any Writ of Capias ad satisfaciendum shall have been issued, shall justify the Sheriff, Gaoler, or Person in whose Custody the Party may be under such Writ in discharging such Party, unless the Party for whom such Attorney professes to act shall have given written Notice to the contrary to such Sheriff, Gaoler, or Person in whose Custody the opposite Party may be, but such Discharge shall not be a Satisfaction of the Debt, unless made by the Authority of the Creditor; and nothing herein contained shall justify any Attorney in giving such Order for Discharge without the Consent of his Client.

Renewal of Execution.

CXLI. A Writ of Execution, after the Commencement of this Act, if unexecuted, shall not remain in force for more than One Year from the Date of such Writ, unless renewed in the Manner herein-after provided, but such Writ may at any Time before its Expiration be renewed by the Party issuing it for One Year from the Date of such Renewal, and so on from Time to Time during the Continuance of the renewed Writ, by being marked with the Seal of the Court, and with a Memorandum, signed or initialed by the Officer, of the Date of the Day, Month, and Year of such Renewal, such Seal to be provided and kept for that Purpose in the Office of the Master of the Court out of which such Writ issued, or by such Party giving a written Notice of Renewal to the Sheriff, signed by the Party or his Attorney, and bearing the like Seal of the Court, and Memorandum signed or initialed by the Officer as aforesaid; and a Writ of Execution so renewed shall have Effect and be entitled to the same Priority as the original Writ would have had: Provided, however, that no Writ of Habere shall be renewed without the special Leave of the Court or a Judge.

Production of renewed Writ Evidence of Renewal.

CXLII. The Production of a Writ of Execution, or of the Notice renewing the same, purporting to be marked with such Seal, and initialed as aforesaid, showing the same to have been renewed according to this Act, shall be sufficient Evidence of its having been so renewed.

Satisfaction of Judgments by Party.

CXLIII. When any Party who shall have recovered Judgment in any of the said Courts, or his personal Representative or legal Assignee, shall be willing to cause an Entry of Satisfaction thereof, or a Memorandum of part Payment, to be entered on the Record, such Party shall execute a Satisfaction Piece according to the Form No. 8. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed (which Satisfaction Piece shall not be subject to any Stamp Duty); and such Satisfaction

Satisfaction Piece shall be executed in the Presence of One Witness, who shall attest by Affidavit the Execution of the same; and thereupon it shall be lawful for any Attorney of the said Court employed for that Purpose to require the proper Officer to enter Satisfaction or a Memorandum of part Payment on the Record of such Judgment; and such Officer shall, on having such Satisfaction Piece verified as aforesaid, and such Requisition lodged with him, enter such Satisfaction or a Memorandum of part Payment on the Record accordingly.

CXLIV. It shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge to order a Memorandum of Satisfaction to be entered upon the Record of any Judgment, Judgment Roll, or Judgment Book, if it shall clearly appear to the said Court or Judge that the Debt or Damages for which the said Judgment was obtained have been fully satisfied and discharged.

Court may order Satisfaction to be entered on Judgment fully paid.

With respect to the Assignment and Suggestion of Breaches on Covenants and Agreements for Payment of any penal Sum :

Assignment of Breaches.

CXLV. In any Action on any Bond, Covenant, or Agreement for Payment of any penal Sum for Nonperformance of any Covenant or Agreement contained in any Deed or Writing, and whether accompanied by Warrant of Attorney or not, the Plaintiff may assign One or more than One Breach of such Covenant or Agreement in his Summons and Plaint.

Assignment of Breaches on penal Covenant.

CXLVI. In all such Actions as last aforesaid the Jury or the Master shall ascertain the Damages in respect of such Breach or Breaches as shall be proved or admitted, and Judgment shall be entered for the full Amount of such Penalty, with an Award of the Payment of the Damages assessed, if any; and in case the Defendant shall pay into Court to the Credit of the Cause the Damages so assessed by the Jury or the Master, with the Costs of Suit, a Stay of Execution shall be entered on the Record of such Judgment for that Time; and in case the Plaintiff shall be paid or satisfied the said Damages so assessed, or the penal Sum aforesaid, at the Election of the Defendant, with the Costs of Suit aforesaid, and of Execution, the Defendant shall be discharged from such Execution entirely, or for that Time, and for the Amount so paid according as the Case may be, and such Discharge may be entered on the Record of said Judgment; but in case the said Damages do not amount to the said penal Sum, such Judgment shall still remain in full Force as a further Security to answer the Plaintiff, his Executors and Administrators, all such Damages as may be afterwards sustained by reason of any further Breach of any Covenant or Agreement in said Deed or Writing, as far as the Remainder of such penal Sum, after the Payment of the Damages formerly recovered out of the same, will reach.

Damages on Breaches to be ascertained.

CXLVII. In all such Actions as last aforesaid, in case Judgment shall pass for the Plaintiff, and the full Amount thereof and the Costs of Suit shall not have been paid or levied, and afterwards any further Breach or Breaches shall happen, the Plaintiff shall be at liberty to file One or more than One Suggestion of such Breaches in the Form No. 9. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, and such Suggestion shall be pleaded to, and the Truth of the Matters therein suggested shall Suggestion of further Breaches and Execution on same.

be

be tried and Damages awarded, and Judgment and Execution shall be given in like Manner, as if the same were on Summons and Plaintiff; and upon Payment or Satisfaction of such further Damages and Costs further Proceedings shall be stayed for that Time; and so from Time to Time, as often as Occasion may require, on every new Breach, the said Judgment may be resorted to, so far as aforesaid, and no further; and upon Payment or Satisfaction made to the full Amount of said penal Sum and Costs as aforesaid the said Defendant, his Body, Lands, and Goods, shall be discharged of all Execution in respect of the same.

Proceedings to revive.

And with respect to the Time within which Execution may be issued, and the Proceedings for the Revival of Judgments and other Proceedings by and against Persons not Parties to the Record, be it enacted as follows:

Execution without Revival.

CXLVIII. Writs of Execution may be issued, at any Time within Six Years after the Recovery of the Judgment, by or against the Plaintiffs or Defendants, or the Survivors of them, without any Revival of such Judgment.

Judgment to be revived by Suggestion.

CXLIX. In case it shall become necessary to revive a Judgment by reason of Lapse of Time or of a Change, by Death or otherwise, of the Parties entitled or liable to Execution, the Party alleging himself to be entitled to Execution may apply to the Court or a Judge, on an Affidavit ascertaining the Amount due, for Leave to enter a Suggestion upon the Record of the Judgment to the Effect that it manifestly appears to the Court that such Party is entitled to have Execution of the Judgment for the said Sum, and to issue Execution thereupon for the same, such Leave to be granted by the Court or a Judge upon such Terms and in such Manner as to the Court or a Judge shall seem fit.

Application for Suggestion.

CL. Upon such Application, in case it manifestly appears that the Party making the same is entitled to Execution, the Court or Judge shall allow such Suggestion as aforesaid to be entered in the Form No. 10. contained in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, and Execution to issue thereupon for the Amount actually due, and shall order whether or not the Costs of such Application shall be paid to the Party making the same; and in case the said Costs shall be so ordered to the Party making the Application they shall be Costs in the Cause; and in case it does not manifestly appear, the Court or Judge shall refuse such Application, with or without Costs: Provided nevertheless, that in such last-mentioned Case the Party making such Application shall be at liberty to proceed by Revivor or Action upon the Judgment.

*Writ of Revivor, and Proceedings
thereunder.*

CLI. In all Cases in which it shall become necessary to revive a Judgment the Party alleging himself to be entitled to Execution may sue out a Writ of Revivor, and such Writ of Revivor shall be directed to the Party called upon to show Cause why Execution should not be awarded for the Amount claimed to be due, and shall bear Date on the Day of its issuing, and after reciting the Reason why such Writ has become necessary it shall call upon the Party to whom it is directed to appear, within Eight Days after Service thereof in the Court out of which it issues, to show Cause why the Party at whose Instance such Writ has been issued should not have Execution against the Party to whom such Writ is directed for the Amount claimed to be due, and shall give Notice that in default of Defence the Party issuing such Writ may proceed to Execution for such Amount, together with the Costs of such Proceeding; and such Writ may be in the Form No. 11. contained in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, and may be served in any County, and otherwise proceeded upon, whether in Term or Vacation, in the same Manner as a Writ of Summons and Plaint; and the Venue in such Writ may be laid in any County, and the Pleadings and Proceedings thereupon, and the Rights of the Parties respectively to Costs, shall be the same as in an ordinary Action, so far as the same may be applicable.

CLII. In any Action on a Judgment, or in any Proceeding by Writ of Revivor to revive a Judgment, or to have Execution for the Sum remaining due and unsatisfied on Foot of such Judgment, if the Defendant hath paid the Money due on such Judgment or the Balance claimed on Foot of same, such Payment shall and may be pleaded in bar of any such Action or Proceeding by Writ of Revivor.

Plea of Payment of Judgment.

CLIII. All Writs of Scire facias issued out of any of the Superior Courts of Law at Dublin, against Bail on a Recognizance; against Members of a Joint Stock Company or other Body upon a Judgment recorded against a public Officer or other Person sued as representing such Company or Body, or against such Company or Body itself; by or against a Husband to have Execution of a Judgment for or against a Wife; for Restitution after a Reversal in Error, or for Recovery of Land taken under an Elegit, or for Execution against a personal Representative on a Judgment of Assets quando acciderint, shall be dated, directed, and proceeded upon in like Manner as Writs of Revivor.

Writs of Scire facias in other Cases.

CLIV. A Writ of Revivor to revive a Judgment less than Ten Years old shall be allowed without any Rule or Order; if more than Ten Years old, not without the Order of the Court or a Judge.

As to Writ of Revivor.

With respect to the Effect of Death, Marriage, and Bankruptcy upon the Proceedings in an Action:

Death, Marriage, Bankruptcy.

CLV. The Death of a Plaintiff or Defendant shall not cause the Action to abate, but it may be continued as herein-after mentioned.

Action not to abate by Death.

CLVI. In case there be Two or more Plaintiffs or Defendants, and One or more of them shall die, if the Cause of Action shall survive to the surviving Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or against the surviving Defendant or Defendants, the Action shall not be thereby abated; but such Death being suggested upon the Record, the Action shall proceed at the Suit of the surviving Plaintiff or Plaintiffs against the surviving Defendant or Defendants.

Proceedings on Death of One of several Plaintiffs or Defendants.

CLVII. In case of the Death of a sole Plaintiff or sole surviving Plaintiff, the legal Representative of such Plaintiff may, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, enter a Suggestion of the Death, and that he is such legal Representative, and the Action shall thereupon proceed; and if such Suggestion be made before the Trial the Truth of the Suggestion shall be tried thereat, together with the Title of the deceased Plaintiff, and such Judgment shall follow upon the Verdict in favour of or against the Proceeding in case of sole Plaintiff.

Person

Person making such Suggestion as if he were originally the Plaintiff.

Proceeding upon Death of sole or sole surviving Defendant.

CLVIII. In case of the Death of a sole Defendant or sole surviving Defendant, where the Action survives, the Plaintiff may file a Suggestion of the Death, and that a Person named therein is the Executor or Administrator of the Deceased, and may thereupon serve such Executor or Administrator with a Copy of the Summons and Plaint and Suggestion, and with a Notice signed by the Plaintiff or his Attorney, requiring such Executor or Administrator to file a Defence within Twelve Days after Service of the Notice, inclusive of the Day of such Service, and that in default of his so doing the Plaintiff may sign Judgment against him as such Executor or Administrator; and the same Proceedings may be had and taken thereon after such Notice as upon a Writ against such Executor or Administrator in respect of the Cause for which the Action was brought; and in case the Plaintiff shall have issued his Summons and Plaint, but the Defendant shall not have pleaded before the Death, the new Defendant shall plead at the same Time to the Summons and Plaint and Suggestion; and in case the Defendant shall have pleaded before the Death the new Defendant shall be at liberty to plead to the Suggestion only by way of Denial, or such Plea as may be appropriate to and rendered necessary by his Character of Executor or Administrator, unless, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, he should be permitted to plead fresh Matter in answer to the Summons and Plaint, and in case the Plaintiff shall recover he shall be entitled to the like Judgment in respect of the Debt or Damages sought to be recovered, and in respect of the Costs prior to the Suggestion; and he shall be entitled in respect of the Costs of the Suggestion and subsequent thereto to the same Judgment as in an Action originally commenced against the Executor or Administrator.

Death between Verdict and Judgment.

CLIX. The Death of either Party between the Verdict or Nonsuit and the Judgment shall not hereafter be alleged for Error, so as such Judgment be entered within Two Terms after such Verdict or Nonsuit.

Death after interlocutory and before final Judgment.

CLX. If the Plaintiff in any Action happen to die after an interlocutory Judgment and before a final Judgment obtained therein, the said Action shall not abate by reason thereof, if such Action might be originally prosecuted or maintained by the Executor or Administrator of such Plaintiff; and if the Defendant die after such interlocutory Judgment and before final Judgment therein obtained, the said Action shall not abate, if such Action might be originally prosecuted or maintained against the Executor or Administrator of such Defendant; and the Plaintiff, or if he be dead after such interlocutory Judgment, his Executors or Administrators, shall and may have a Writ of Revivor, in the appropriate Form No. 13. contained in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, against the Defendant, if living after such interlocutory Judgment, or if he be dead, then against his Executors or Administrators, to show Cause why Damages in such Action should not be assessed and recovered by him or them; and if such Defendant, his Executors or Administrators, trators, shall not appear and defend at the Return of such Writ, or shall not show or allege any Matter sufficient to arrest the final Judgment, a Writ of Inquiry of Damages shall be awarded, or the Amount for which final Judgment is to be signed shall be referred to the Master, as herein-before provided ; and upon the Return of the Writ, or Delivery of the Order with the Amount endorsed thereon to the Plaintiff, or his Executors or Administrators, final Judgment shall be given for the said Plaintiff, his Executors or Administrators, prosecuting such Writ of Revivor against such Defendant, his Executors or Administrators respectively.

CLXI. The Marriage of a Female Plaintiff or Defendant shall not cause the Action to abate, but the Action may notwithstanding be proceeded with to Judgment ; and such Judgment may be executed against the Wife alone, or, by Suggestion or Writ of Revivor pursuant to this Act, Judgment may be obtained against the Husband and Wife, and Execution issue thereon ; and in case of a Judgment for the Wife recovered before or after her Marriage in an Action commenced by her when sole, upon which she would be entitled to Execution if she had continued sole, Execution may be issued thereupon by the Authority of the Husband without any Writ of Revivor or Suggestion ; and if in any such Action the Wife shall sue or defend by Attorney appointed by her when sole, such Attorney shall have Authority to continue the Action or Defence, unless such Authority be countermanded by the Husband, and the Attorney changed according to the Practice of the Court.

Marriage not to abate Action.

CLXII. The Bankruptcy or Insolvency of the Plaintiff in any Action which the Assignees might maintain for the Benefit of the Creditors shall not be pleaded in bar to such Action, unless the Assignees shall decline to continue, and give Security for the Costs thereof, upon a Judge's Order to be obtained for that Purpose, within such reasonable Time as the Judge may order, but the Proceedings may be stayed until such Election is made ; and in case the Assignees neglect or refuse to continue the Action, and give such Security within the Time limited by the Order, the Defendant may, within Eight Days after such Neglect or Refusal, plead the Bankruptcy or Insolvency.

Bankruptcy and Insolvency of Plaintiff, when not to abate Action.

With respect to the Proceedings upon Motions to arrest the Judgment, and for Judgment non obstante veredicto :

Arrest of Judgment.

CLXIII. No Judgment shall be arrested, nor shall Judgment be given non obstante veredicto, by reason of the Non-averment of any alleged material Fact or other Cause, unless the Party insisting on the Objection shall satisfy the Court that there has been an Omission of some substantial Matter of Fact whereby the said Party may have been prejudiced in the Merits of his Case, and in such Case the Party whose Pleading is alleged or adjudged to be therein defective may, by Leave of the Court, suggest the Existence of the omitted Fact or Facts, or other Matter, which, if true, would remedy the alleged Defect ; and such Suggestion may be pleaded to by the opposite Party within Eight Days after Notice thereof, or such Time as the Court or a Judge may allow ; and the proceeding to Trial of any Issue joined on such Suggestion shall be the same as in an ordinary Action.

Upon Motion in arrest of Judgment or for Judgment non obstante veredicto, Suggestion of Facts.

CLXIV. If

Costs to follow Result of Issue.

CLXIV. If the Fact suggested be admitted or found to be true, the Party suggesting shall be entitled to the like Judgment as he would have been entitled to if such Facts or Allegations had been originally stated in the Pleading, and proved or admitted at the Trial, together with the Costs of and occasioned by the Suggestion and Proceeding thereon; but if such Fact or Facts be found to be untrue, the opposite Party shall be entitled to his Costs of and occasioned by the Suggestion and Proceeding thereon, in addition to any other Costs to which he may be entitled.

Costs of abortive Issues.

CLXV. Upon an Arrest of Judgment, or Judgment non obstante veredicto, the Court shall adjudge to the Party against whom such Judgment is given the Costs occasioned by the Trial of any Issues of Fact arising out of the Pleading for Defect of which such Judgment is given upon which such Party shall have succeeded; and such Costs shall be set off against any Money or Costs adjudged to the opposite Party, and Execution may issue for the Balance, if any.

Error.

With respect to Proceedings in Error:

Error to be brought within Six Years.

CLXVI. No Judgment in any Action shall be reversed or avoided for any Error or Defect therein, unless the Proceedings in Error be commenced, or brought and prosecuted with Effect, within Six Years after such Judgment signed or entered of Record, or within Six Years after the Time when this Act shall have come into operation.

Error may be brought by legal Representative of a deceased Party.

CLXVII. If any Person is or shall be entitled to bring Error as Heir or personal Representative of any Party, Plaintiff or Defendant, such Person may, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, enter a Suggestion of the Death, and that he is such legal Representative, which Suggestion shall be embodied in the Memorandum of Error herein-after mentioned, and shall not be traversable, but shall only be subject to be set aside on Application to the Court or a Judge, on Motion, if untrue, and the like Proceedings in Error may thereupon be taken at the Suit of such legal Representative.

Proviso for Disabilities.

CLXVIII. If any Person that is or shall be entitled to bring Error as aforesaid is or shall be, at the Time of such Title accrued, within the Age of Twenty-one Years, Feme Covert, non compos mentis, or beyond the Seas, then such Person shall be at liberty to bring Error as aforesaid, so as such Party brings or commences and prosecutes the same with Effect within Six Years after coming to or being of full Age, Discovert, of sound Memory, or Return from beyond the Seas; and if the opposite Party shall at the Time of the Judgment signed or entered of Record be beyond the Seas, then Error may be brought, provided the Proceedings be commenced and prosecuted with Effect within Six Years after the Return of such Party from beyond Seas.

Writ of Error abolished.

CLXIX. A Writ of Error shall not be necessary or used in any Action, and the Proceeding to Error shall be a Step in the Cause, and shall be taken in manner herein-after mentioned; but nothing in this Act contained shall invalidate any Proceedings already taken or to be taken by reason of any Writ of Error issued before the Commencement of this Act.

CLXX. Either

CLXX. Either Party alleging Error in Law may deliver to the Master of the Court a Memorandum in Writing in the Form No. 12. contained in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, entitled in the Court and Cause, and signed by the Party or his Attorney, alleging that there is Error in Law in the Record and Proceedings, whereupon the Master shall file such Memorandum, and deliver to the Party lodging the same a Note of the Receipt thereof; and a Copy of such Note, together with a Statement of the Grounds of Error intended to be argued, may be served on the opposite Party or his Attorney.

Error in Law
how brought.

CLXXI. Proceedings in Error in Law shall be deemed a Supersedeas of Execution from the Time of the Service of the Copy of the Note of the Receipt by the Master of the Memorandum alleging Error, together with the Statement of the Grounds of Error intended to be argued, until Default in putting in Bail, or Affirmance of the Judgment, or Discontinuance of the Proceedings in Error, or until the Proceedings in Error shall be otherwise disposed of without a Reversal of the Judgment; provided that if the Grounds of Error shall appear to be frivolous the Court or a Judge upon Motion may order Execution to issue.

Error no

Copy of the Note and Ground of Error.

CLXXII. Upon any Judgment given or to be given in any of the said Superior Courts of Common Law in any Personal Action or Ejectment, Execution shall not be stayed or delayed by Proceedings in Error, or Supersedeas thereupon, without special Order of the Court or a Judge, unless the Person in whose Name such Proceedings in Error be brought shall, within Four clear Days after lodging the Memorandum alleging Error, or after the signing of the Judgment, whichever shall last happen, or before Execution executed, be bound with Two, or, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, more than Two sufficient Sureties, such as the Court wherein such Judgment is or shall be given, or a Judge, shall allow of, unto the Party for whom any such Judgment is or shall be given, by Recognizance, to be acknowledged in the same Court, in double the Sum adjudged to be recovered by the said Judgment, except in Case of a Penalty, and in case of a Penalty in double the Sum really due, and double the Costs, and in the Case of a Plaintiff in double the Costs adjudged to be paid to the Defendant, and also, except in case of Error brought by a Defendant in Ejectment, and in such Case in double the yearly Value of the Property adjudged to be recovered and double the Costs, to prosecute the Proceedings in Error with Effect, and also to satisfy and pay (if the said Judgment be affirmed, or the Proceedings in Error be discontinued by the Plaintiff therein,) all and singular the Sum or Sums of Money and Costs adjudged or to be adjudged upon the former Judgment, and all Costs and Damages and Interest to be awarded on such Writ of Error, or on any further Writ returnable into Parliament, for the delaying of Execution, and also the Mesne Rates of such Lands, if any be adjudged in any Action to be brought for the same, and give Notice thereof to the Defendant in Error or his Attorney.

Bail in Error.

CLXXIII. The Assignment of and Joinder in Error, in Law shall not be necessary or used, and instead thereof a Suggestion to the Effect that Error is alleged by the one Party and denied by the other may be entered on the Judgment Roll in the Form

Suggestion of Joinder in Error.

No. 18. contained in Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect; provided that in case the Defendant in Error intends to rely upon the Proceeding in Error being barred by Lapse of Time, or by Release of Error, or other like Matter of Fact, he may give Four Days written Notice to the Plaintiff in Error to assign Error as heretofore, instead of entering the Suggestion, and shall plead thereto within Eight Days the Bar by Lapse of Time, or Release of Error, or other like Matter of Fact, upon which such Proceedings may be had as heretofore.

Entry of Suggestion to be made by Plaintiff in Error.

CLXXIV. The Suggestion last aforesaid shall be entered by the Plaintiff in Error within Ten Days after the Service of the Note of the Receipt of the Memorandum alleging Error, or such other Time as the Court or a Judge may order; and in default thereof, or of Assignment of Error in Cases where an Assignment is required, the Defendant in Error, his Executors or Administrators, shall be at liberty to sign Judgment of Non-pros.

Error by One of several Persons.

CLXXV. In case Error be brought upon a Judgment given against several Persons, and One or some only shall proceed in Error, the Note of the Receipt of such Memorandum shall state the Names of the Persons by whom the Proceedings are taken; and in case the other Persons against whom Judgment has been given decline to join in the Proceedings in Error, the same may be continued, and the Suggestion last aforesaid entered, stating the Persons by whom the Proceedings are brought, without any Summons and Severance; or if such other Persons elect to join, then the Suggestion shall state them to be and they shall be deemed as Plaintiffs in Error, although not mentioned as such in the previous Proceedings.

Judgment Roll to be brought into Court of Error.

CLXXVI. Upon such Suggestion of Error alleged and denied being entered, the Cause may be set down for Argument in the Court of Error in the Manner heretofore used; and the Judgment Roll shall, without any Writ or Return, be brought by the Master into the Court of Error in the Exchequer Chamber, before the Judges of the said Court, on the Day of its Sitting, at such Time as the Judges shall appoint, either in Term or in Vacation; and the Court of Error shall and may thereupon review the Proceedings, and give Judgment as they shall be advised thereon; and such Proceedings and Judgment as altered or affirmed shall be entered on the original Record; and such further Proceedings as may be necessary thereon shall be awarded by the Court in which the original Judgment was given: Provided, however, that in case of Error to the High Court of Parliament, a Transcript of the Record shall be prepared and forwarded in the Manner heretofore used.

Jurisdiction of Courts of Error.

CLXXVII. Courts of Error shall have Power to quash the Proceedings in Error in all Cases in which Error does not lie, or where they are taken against good Faith, or in any Case in which Proceedings in Error might heretofore have been quashed by such Courts; and such Courts shall in all respects have such Jurisdiction over the Proceedings as over the Proceedings in Error commenced by Writ of Error, and shall be enabled to give the like Order for Payment of Interest for Delay of Execution in giving any Judgment of Affirmance.

CLXXVIII. Courts of Error shall in all Cases have Power to give such Judgment and award such Process of Repleader and Writ of Inquiry as the Court from which Error is brought ought to have done, without regard to the Party alleging Error.

Court of Error to have like Powers with Court below.

CLXXIX. Either Party alleging Error in Fact may deliver to the Master of the Court a Memorandum in Writing in the Form No. 14. contained in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, entitled in the Court and Cause, and signed by the Party or his Attorney, alleging that there is Error in Fact in the Proceedings, together with an Affidavit of the Matter of Fact in which the alleged Error consists, whereupon the Master shall file such Memorandum and Affidavit, and deliver to the Party lodging the same a Note of the Receipt thereof; and a Copy of such Note and Affidavit may be served on the opposite Party or his Attorney; and such Service shall have the same Effect, and the same Proceedings may be had thereafter, as heretofore had after the Service of the Rule for Allowance of a Writ of Error in Fact.

Proceedings in Error in Fact.

CLXXX. The Plaintiff in Error, whether in Fact or Law, shall be at liberty to discontinue his Proceedings by giving to the Defendant in Error a Notice, headed in the Court and Cause, signed by the Plaintiff in Error or his Attorney, stating that he discontinues such Proceedings, and thereupon the Defendant in Error may sign Judgment for the Costs of and occasioned by the Proceedings in Error, and may proceed upon the Judgment on which the Error was brought.

Plaintiff may discontinue Proceedings in Error.

CLXXXI. The Defendant in Error, whether in Fact or Law, shall be at liberty to confess Error, and consent to the Reversal of the Judgment, by giving to the Plaintiff in Error a Notice, headed in the Court and Cause, signed by the Defendant in Error or his Attorney, stating that he confesses the Error, and consents to the Reversal of the Judgment, and thereupon the Plaintiff in Error shall, on an Affidavit of the Service of such Notice, be entitled to and may forthwith sign a Judgment of Reversal.

Defendant may confess Error, and consent to Reversal of Judgment.

CLXXXII. The Death of a Plaintiff in Error after Service of the Note of the Receipt of the Memorandum alleging Error, with a Statement of the Grounds of Error, shall not cause the Proceedings to abate, but they may be continued as herein-after mentioned.

Death of Plaintiff in Error no Abatement.

CLXXXIII. In case of the Death of One of several Plaintiffs in Error, a Suggestion may be made of the Death, which Suggestion shall not be traversable, but shall only be subject to be set aside if untrue, and the Proceedings may be thereupon continued at the Suit of and against the surviving Plaintiff in Error, as if he were the sole Plaintiff.

Death of One of several Plaintiffs in Error.

CLXXXIV. In case of the Death of a sole Plaintiff or of all the Plaintiffs in Error, the legal Representative of such Plaintiff or of the surviving Plaintiff may, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, enter a Suggestion of the Death, and that he is such legal Representative, which Suggestion shall not be traversable, but shall only be subject to be set aside on Application to the Court or a Judge on Motion, if untrue, and the Proceedings may thereupon be continued at the Suit of and against such legal Representative of the Plaintiff in Error; and if no such Suggestion shall be made, the Defendant in Error may proceed to an Affirmance of the Judgment according to the Practice of the Court, or take such other Proceedings thereupon as he may be entitled to.

Death of sole Plaintiff or of all the Plaintiffs in Error.

Death of Defendant in Error no Abatement.

CLXXXV. The Death of a Defendant in Error shall not cause the Proceedings to abate, but they may be continued as herein-after mentioned.

Death of One of several Defendants in Error.

CLXXXVI. In case of the Death of One of several Defendants in Error, a Suggestion may be made of the Death, which Suggestion shall not be traversable, but only be subject to be set aside if untrue, and the Proceedings may be continued against the surviving Defendant.

Proceedings upon Death of sole Defendant or of all the Defendants in Error.

CLXXXVII. In case of the Death of a sole Defendant or of all the Defendants in Error, the Plaintiff in Error may proceed, upon giving Ten Days Notice of the Proceedings in Error, and of his Intention to continue the same, to the Representatives of the deceased Defendants, or if no such Notice can be given, then, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, upon giving such Notice to the Parties interested as he or they may direct.

Marriage not to abate Proceedings in Error.

CLXXXVIII. The Marriage of a Female Plaintiff or Defendant in Error shall not abate the Proceedings in Error, but the same may be continued in like Manner as herein-before provided with reference to the Continuance of an Action after Marriage.

Injunctions to have a specific Operation.

CLXXXIX. In case any Action, Suit, or Proceeding in any of the said Superior Courts of Law or in a Court of Equity shall be commenced, sued, or prosecuted in disobedience of any Writ of Injunction, Rule or Order of the Court of Chancery or of any of the Superior Courts of Law, upon Production of such Writ of Injunction, Rule or Order, to the Court in which such Action, Suit, or Proceeding shall be commenced, prosecuted, or taken, or any Judge thereof, the said Court or a Judge shall stay all further Proceedings contrary to such Injunction, Rule or Order, and thenceforth all further and subsequent Proceedings shall be utterly null and void: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be held to vary or abridge the Liability of any Person commencing, suing, or prosecuting such Action, Suit, or Proceeding, contrary to such Injunction, Rule, or Order aforesaid, to any Attachment, Punishment, or other Proceeding to which such Person shall or may be liable in case of Contempt of the Court of Chancery or Superior Court of Law aforesaid, in regard to the commencing, suing, or prosecuting such Action, Suit, or Proceeding.

General Matters.

Pleadings dated of Time of pleading.

With respect to general Matters connected with the Action CXC. Every Defence and Demurrer and other Pleading shall be entitled of the proper Court, and of the Day of the Month and the Year when the same was pleaded, and shall be entered on the Abstract for Nisi Prius, and on the Judgment Book or Roll under the Date of the Day of the Month and the Year when the same respectively took place.

Writs to be tested and returnable in Vacation as well as in Term.

CXCI. Every Writ of any Description whatsoever to be hereafter issued out of the said Superior Courts of Common Law or the Court of Exchequer Chamber may be issued and tested or made returnable on any Day, not being One of the Days hereby appointed as Holidays, whether such Day shall be in Term Time or Vacation, and every such Writ so issued, tested, or returnable shall be of the like Validity, Force, and Effect as if the Day of the issuing, testing, or Return of such Writ were actually a Day in Term: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall affect the Process and Practice of the Revenue Side of the Court of Exchequer.

CXCII. Every Rule or Order in the said Superior Courts and the Court of Exchequer Chamber may be made, entered, or issued on or as of any Day except the Days hereby appointed to be observed and kept as Holidays, whether such Day shall be in Term Time or Vacation; and the Days limited for Compliance with such Rules or Orders shall, with the Exception of the Days hereby appointed to be observed and kept as Holidays, and of the Days between the First Day of August and Twentieth Day of October, run in Vacation as well as in Term Time.

Rules shall issue and run in Vacation as well as in Term Time,

CXCIII. In all Cases upon interlocutory Applications where the Court or a Judge shall deem it proper to award Costs to either Party, it shall be optional with the Court or Judge either to refer the Costs to the Taxing Officer to be taxed, or by the Order direct the Payment of a Sum in gross in lieu of taxed Costs, and also to direct by and to whom such Sum in gross shall be paid.

Court on Motion may order a fixed Sum to be paid in lieu of taxed Costs.

With respect to the Action of Ejectment:

CXCIV. Where any Party shall claim Possession of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, and shall be desirous of proceeding by Ejectment for the Recovery of the same in any of the said Superior Courts of Law, such Party shall commence any Action for such Purpose by a Writ of Summons and Plaint, which Writ shall be directed to the immediate Tenant or any One Tenant in possession, as Defendant, with the addition of the Words "and all Persons concerned," and shall, in addition to any Particulars herein-before required, contain the Description of the Property sought to be recovered with reasonable Certainty, and the County, Barony, or Parish in which the same is situated: Provided, however, that no Want of "reasonable Certainty" in the Description of the Property, or Part of it, in the Summons and Plaint or Copy, shall nullify them, but shall be Ground for an Application to the Court or a Judge for better Particulars of the Land claimed, which the Court or a Judge shall have Power to give in all Cases, upon the Application of any Person named as a Defendant or interested in the Lands claimed or supposed to be claimed.

Action of Ejectment.

Ejectment to be commenced by Writ of Summons and Plaint.

CXCV. The Writ of Summons and Plaint in Ejectment shall state the Names of all the Persons in whom the Title is alleged to be, and command the Persons to whom it is directed to appear, within Twelve Days after the Service thereof, in the Court into which such Writ is returnable, to defend the Possession of the Property sued for, or such Part thereof as they may think fit; and the Writ shall be dated and endorsed, and continue in force, and be renewed, and shall be filed after Service thereof, in like Manner as herein-before enacted with reference to the Writ of Summons and Plaint in a Personal Action; and in Cases of Ejectment on the Title it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff by such Writ to claim Damages for the Loss of the Mesne Rates and Profits of the Lands sought to be recovered; and in case of Ejectment for

Form and Duration of Writ of Summons in Ejectment.

Nonpayment of Rent such Writ shall be endorsed with the full Particulars of the Rent due, and of all Credits to which the Defendant shall be justly entitled, and may be in the Form No. 15. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect; and the same Proceedings may be had to ascertain whether the Writ was issued by the Authority of the Attorney whose Name was contained in; or endorsed thereon, and who and what the Plaintiff are, and their Abode, and as to staying the Proceedings upon Writs issued without Authority, as in the Case of Writs in Personal Actions.

Trial may be ordered to take place in any County.

CXCVI. The Venue shall be laid in the County in which the Lands are situate, but the Court or a Judge may, on the Application of either Party, order that the Trial shall take place in any County or Place other than that in which the Venue is laid; and such Order being suggested on the Abstract, the Trial may be had accordingly.

Service of Ejectment.

CXCVII. The Writ shall be served in the same Manner as an Ejectment has heretofore been served, or in such Manner as the Court or a Judge shall order; and in case of vacant Possession, by posting a Copy thereof upon the Door of the Dwelling House or other conspicuous Part of the Premises.

Form of Defence in Ejectment.

CXCVIII. Every Defence to a Summons in Ejectment on the Title shall be in the Form No. 16. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, and every Defence to an Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent shall set forth the substantial Ground of the Defence, as, for Example, whether the Title of the Plaintiff as Landlord is disputed, or the Fact of the Rent being due if in Dispute; and such Defence shall be endorsed with the Particulars of any Payments made, and may be according to the Form No. 17. in the said Schedule B.

Partial Defence.

CXCIX. Any Person taking Defence as aforesaid to an Ejectment on the Title shall be at liberty to limit his Defence to a Part only of the Property mentioned in the Writ, describing that Part with reasonable Certainty, otherwise the Defence shall be deemed to apply to the whole; but a Defence to an Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent shall be a Defence for all the Lands and Premises in the Summons mentioned; and in case a Defendant shall desire to take Defence for Part only of the Premises, upon the Ground that such Part was not included in the Lease or other Instrument sought to be evicted, he shall make a special Application to the Court for that Purpose.

Defence of Persons not named or in possession.

CC. Any other Person not named in or served with such Writ shall, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, be allowed to defend, or filing an Affidavit showing that he is in possession of the Land, either by himself or his Tenant; and the Court or a Judge shall have Power to strike out or confine any Defence set up by a Person not in possession by himself or his Tenants.

Judgment by Default for Want of Defence.

CCI. In case no Defence be filed within the Time appointed, or if the Defence filed be limited to Part only, the Plaintiff shall, on filing an Affidavit of the Service of the Summons and Plaint, be at liberty to sign a Judgment that the Plaintiffs shall recover Possession of the Land, or of the Part thereof to which the Defence does not apply; and such Judgment, if for all, may be in the Form No. 18. contained in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, without any Award of Costs, but without Prejudice to the Plaintiff's Right to have the Costs taxed by the proper Officer, and to proceed by Action for Recovery of Mesne Rates and Costs, or either of them; and the said Judgment for Part may be in the Form No. 19. contained in the said Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect; and a Memorandum of such Judgment shall be recited in the Abstract for Nisi Prius or Judgment there-after to be made up.

CCII. In case a Defence shall be filed, an Abstract of the Issue for Nisi Prius may at once be made up by the Plaintiffs or their Attorney, setting forth the Writ, and stating the Fact of the Defence, with its Date, of each of the Persons taking Defence, so that it may appear for what Defence is made; and such Abstract may be in the Form No. 20. contained in Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, and such Abstract shall be lodged with the Pleadings Assistant in the Manner herein-after provided; and the Question at the Trial, except in the Case herein-after mentioned, shall be whether the Statement of the Title of the Plaintiffs in the Summons and Plaint is true or false, and if true, then which of the Plaintiffs is entitled, and whether to the whole or Part, and if to Part, then to which Part of the Property in question, and whether to any, and, if any, to what Damages by way of Compensation for Loss of Mesne Rates and Profits; and upon the Trial of any Issue in an Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent the Amount of the Rent due to the Plaintiff shall be found by the Jury.

Abstract of Issues.

CCIII. The Proof of Title in any One or more of several Plaintiffs in Ejectment shall be sufficient to entitle a Verdict to be entered for such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, and it shall not be necessary to produce or prove upon any Trial of an Ejectment the Affidavit of Service of the Writ of Summons.

Proof of Title.

CCIV. In case the Title of the Plaintiff shall appear to have existed as alleged in the Writ at the Time of Service thereof, but it shall also appear to have expired before the Time of Trial, the Plaintiff shall, notwithstanding, be entitled to a Verdict, according to the Fact that he was so entitled at the Time of bringing the Action and serving the Writ, and to a Judgment for his Costs of Suit.

Verdict when Title appears to have expired before Trial.

CCV. If the Defendant appears, and the Plaintiff does not appear at the Trial, the Plaintiff shall be nonsuited; and if the Plaintiff appears, and the Defendant does not appear, the Plaintiff shall be entitled to a Verdict, without any Proof of his Title, and in case of Ejectment on the Title shall be entitled to prove the Amount of Damages sustained by reason of the Loss of the Mesne Rates and Profits, and in case of an Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent shall be entitled to prove the Amount of Rent actually due, and to have a Verdict for the same.

Nonappearance at Trial.

CCVI. In Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent, where Judgment shall have gone by Default, or the Defendant shall not appear at the Trial, it shall be sufficient for the Purpose of ascertaining the Amount of the Rent due, and to satisfy the Provisions of the Statutes with respect to the ascertaining the Rent, that an Affidavit of the Plaintiffs, or One of them, or their or his Agent, to the Effect that an Amount of Rent not less than One Year's Rent, and specifying the same, was due at the Time of the Commencement of the Action, after all just Allowances shall have been made.

Ascertainment of Rent.

Judgment and Execution upon finding for Plaintiff.

CCVII. Upon a Verdict for the Plaintiff, Judgment may be signed, and Execution issued for the Recovery of Possession of the Property, or such Part thereof as the Jury shall find the Plaintiff entitled to, and in case of an Ejectment on the Title for such Damages for Loss of Mesne Rates and Profits as shall be found by the said Jury, and in case of Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent for Recovery of so much Rent as shall be found to be due, and Costs, within such Time, not exceeding the Fifth Day in Term after the Verdict, as the Court or Judge before whom the Cause is tried shall order, and if no such Order be made, then on the Fifth Day in Term after the Verdict, or within Fourteen Days after such Verdict, whichever shall first happen.

Judgment and Execution upon finding for Defendant.

CCVIII. Upon a Verdict for the Defendants, or any of them, or upon a Nonsuit, Judgment may be signed, and Execution issued for Costs against the Plaintiffs named in the Writ, within such Time, not exceeding the Fifth Day in Term after the Verdict or Nonsuit, as the Court or Judge before whom the Cause is tried shall order, and if no such Order be made, then on the Fifth Day in Term after the Verdict or Nonsuit, or within Fourteen Days after such Verdict, whichever shall first happen.

Execution in Ejectment.

CCIX. Upon any Judgment in Ejectment there may be either One or several Writs of Execution for the Recovery of the Possession, and for the Damages or the Rent ascertained to be due, and Costs, at the Election of the Plaintiff.

Defence by joint Owners.

CCX. In case of such an Action being brought by some or One of several Persons entitled as Joint Tenants, Tenants in Common, or Coparceners, any Joint Tenant, Tenant in Common, or Coparcener in possession may set forth in his Defence that he is such Joint Tenant, Tenant in Common, or Coparcener, and defends as such, and admits the Right of the Plaintiff to an undivided Share of the Property, stating what Share, but denies any actual Ouster of him from the Property, and upon the Trial of such an Issue the additional Question of whether an actual Ouster has taken place shall be tried.

Judgment against joint Owners.

CCXI. Upon the Trial of such Issue as last aforesaid, if it shall be found that the Defendant is Joint Tenant, Tenant in Common, or Coparcener with the Plaintiff, then the Question whether an actual Ouster has taken place shall be tried, and unless such actual Ouster shall be proved the Defendant shall be entitled to Judgment and Costs; but if it shall be found, either that the Defendant is not such Joint Tenant, Tenant in Common, or Coparcener, or that an actual Ouster has taken place, then the Claimant shall be entitled to such Judgment for the Recovery of Possession and Costs.

Action not to abate by Death.

CCXII. The Death of a Plaintiff or Defendant in Ejectment shall not cause the Action to abate.

Suggestion of Death of Plaintiff.

CCXIII. In case the Right of a deceased Plaintiff shall survive to another Plaintiff, a Suggestion may be made of the Death, which Suggestion shall not be traversable, but shall only be subject to be set aside if untrue, and the Action may proceed at the Suit of the surviving Plaintiff; and if such a Suggestion shall be made before before the Trial, then the Plaintiff shall have a Verdict, and recover such Judgment as aforesaid, upon its appearing that he was entitled to bring the Action either separately or jointly with the deceased Plaintiff.

CCXIV. In case of the Death before Trial of One of several Plaintiffs whose Right does not survive to another or others of them, where the legal Representative of the deceased Plaintiff shall not become a Party to the Suit in the Manner herein-after mentioned, a Suggestion may be made of the Death, which Suggestion shall not be traversable, but shall only be subject to be set aside if untrue, and the Action may proceed at the Suit of the surviving Plaintiff for such Share of the Property as he is entitled to, and Costs.

CCXV. In case of the Death of a sole Plaintiff or before the Trial of One of several Plaintiffs whose Right does not survive to another or others of them, the legal Representative of such Plaintiff may, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, enter a Suggestion of the Death, and that he is such legal Representative, and the Action shall thereupon proceed; and if such Suggestion be made before the Trial the Truth of the Suggestion shall be tried thereat, together with the Title of the deceased Plaintiff, and such Judgment shall follow upon the Verdict in favour of or against the Person making such Suggestion as herein-before provided with reference to a Judgment for or against such Plaintiff; and in case such Suggestion in the Case of a sole Plaintiff be made after a Verdict for the Plaintiff, and before Execution, executed by Delivery of Possession thereupon, and such Suggestion be denied by the Defendant within Eight Days after Notice thereof, or such further Time as the Court or a Judge may allow, then such Suggestion shall be tried, and if upon the Trial thereof a Verdict shall pass for the Person making such Suggestion he shall be entitled to such Judgment as aforesaid for the Recovery of Possession, and for the Costs of and occasioned by such Suggestion, and in case of a Verdict for the Defendant such Defendant shall be entitled to such Judgment as aforesaid for Costs; and in case the said Suggestion shall not be denied within the Time aforesaid the said personal Representative shall, on producing an Affidavit of the Service of the Notice, be entitled to proceed to Judgment and Execution in his own Name.

Death of sole Plaintiff where Right does not survive.

CCXVI. In case of a Verdict for Two or more Plaintiffs, if One of such Plaintiffs die before Execution executed, the other may, whether the legal Right to the Property shall survive or not, suggest the Death in manner aforesaid, and proceed to Judgment and Execution for Recovery of Possession of the Entirety of the Property and the Costs; but nothing herein contained shall affect the Right of the legal Representative of the deceased Plaintiff, or the Liability of the surviving Plaintiff to such legal Representative; and the Entry and Possession of such surviving Plaintiff under such Execution shall be considered as an Entry and Possession on behalf of such legal Representative in respect of the Share of the Property to which he shall be entitled as such Representative, and the Court may direct Possession to be delivered accordingly.

Death of One of several Plaintiffs after Verdict.

CCXVII. In

Death of One of several joint Defendants.

CCXVII. In case of the Death before or after Judgment of One of several Defendants in Ejectment who defend jointly, a Suggestion may be made of the Death, which Suggestion shall not be traversable, but only be subject to be set aside if untrue, and the Action may proceed against the surviving Defendant to Judgment and Execution.

Upon Death of all the Defendants before Trial.

CCXVIII. In case of the Death of a sole Defendant or of all the Defendants in Ejectment before Trial, a Suggestion may be made of the Death, which Suggestion shall not be traversable, but only be subject to be set aside if untrue; and the Plaintiffs shall be entitled to Judgment for Recovery of Possession of the Property, unless some other Person shall take Defence within a Time to be appointed for that Purpose by the Order of the Court or a Judge, to be made upon the Application of the Plaintiffs; and it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, upon such Suggestion being made, and upon such Application as aforesaid, to order that the Plaintiffs shall be at liberty to sign Judgment within such Time as the Court or a Judge may think fit, unless the Person then in possession, by himself or his Tenant, or the legal Representative of the deceased Defendant, shall within such Time defend the Action; and such Order may be served in the same Manner as the Writ; and in case such Person shall take Defence, the same Proceedings may be taken against such new Defendant as if he had originally appeared and defended the Action; and if no Defence be made, then the Plaintiff shall be a liberty to sign Judgment pursuant to the Order.

Death before Trial of Defendant in Ejectment who defends for Part.

CCXIX. In case of the Death before Trial of One of several Defendants in Ejectment who defends separately for a Portion of the Property for which the other Defendant or Defendants do not defend, the same Proceedings may be taken as to such Portion as in the Case of the Death of a sole Defendant, or the Plaintiffs may proceed against the surviving Defendants in respect of the Portion of the Property for which they defend.

Death of Defendant defending separately for Property, in respect of which others also defend.

CCXX. In case of the Death before Trial of One of several Defendants in Ejectment who defends separately in respect of Property for which surviving Defendants also defend, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, at any Time before the Trial, to allow the Person at the Time of the Death in possession of the Property, or the legal Representative of the deceased Defendant, to defend, on such Terms as may appear reasonable and just, upon the Application of such Person or Representative; and if no such Application be made or Leave granted, the Plaintiff suggesting the Death in manner aforesaid may proceed against the surviving Defendant or Defendants to Judgment and Execution.

Death of all Defendants after Verdict.

CCXXI. In case of the Death of a sole Defendant or of all the Defendants in Ejectment, after Verdict, the Plaintiffs shall nevertheless be entitled to Judgment as if no such Death had taken place, and to proceed by Execution for Recovery of Possession, without Suggestion or Revivor, and to proceed for the Recovery of the Costs in like Manner as upon any other Judgment for Money against the legal Representatives of the deceased Defendant or Defendants.

Plaintiff may discontinue by Notice.

CCXXII. The Plaintiff in Ejectment shall be at liberty at any Time before Verdict or Judgment against him to discontinue
the

the Action as to One or more of the Defendants, by giving to the Defendant or his Attorney a Notice, headed in the Court and Cause, signed by the Plaintiff or his Attorney, stating that he discontinues such Action; and thereupon the Defendant to whom such Notice is given shall, by filing an Affidavit of the Service of such Notice, be entitled to and may forthwith sign Judgment for Costs in the Form No. 21. contained in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect; and any One of several Plaintiffs desirous to discontinue may apply to the Court or a Judge to have his Name struck out of the Proceedings, and an Order may be made thereupon upon such Terms as to the Court or Judge may seem fit, and the Action shall thereupon proceed at the Suit of the other Plaintiffs.

CCXXIII. A sole Defendant or all the Defendants in Ejectment shall be at liberty to confess the Action as to the whole or Part of the Property, by giving to such Plaintiff a Consent for Judgment, headed in the Court and Cause, signed by the Defendant or Defendants, such Signature to be attested by his or their Attorney; and thereupon the Plaintiff may forthwith sign Judgment and issue Execution for the Recovery of Possession and Costs in the Form No. 22. contained in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect; and in case One of several Defendants in Ejectment, who defends separately for a Portion of the Property for which the other Defendant or Defendants do not defend, shall be desirous of confessing the Plaintiff's Title to such Portion, he may give a like Consent for Judgment to the Plaintiff; and thereupon the Plaintiff may forthwith sign Judgment and issue Execution for the Recovery of Possession of such Portion of the Property, and for the Costs occasioned by the Defence relating to the same, and the Action may proceed as to the Residue.

Defendant
may confess the Action.

CCXXIV. In case One of several Defendants in Ejectment who defends separately in respect of Property for which other Defendants also defend shall be desirous of confessing the Plaintiff's Title, he may give a like Consent for Judgment; and thereupon the Plaintiff may sign Judgment against such Defendant for the Costs occasioned by his Defence, and may proceed in the Action against the other Defendants to Judgment and Execution.

Confession by One Defendant.

CCXXV. The Effect of a Judgment in Ejectment under this Act shall be the same as that of a Judgment in an Action of Ejectment heretofore used.

Effect of Judgment in Ejectment.

CCXXVI. If the Judgment in Ejectment shall be affirmed by the Court of Error, or the Proceedings in Error be discontinued by the Plaintiff therein, it shall be lawful for the Court wherein Execution ought to be granted, upon such Affirmation or Discontinuance, upon the Application of the Plaintiff, to issue a Writ to inquire as well of the Mesne Profits as of the Damage by any Waste committed after the First Judgment in Ejectment, which Writ may be dated on the Day on which it shall issue, and be returnable immediately after the Execution thereof, and upon the Return thereof Judgment shall be given, and Execution awarded for such Mesne Profits and Damages, and also for Costs of Suit.

Inquiry as to Mesne Rates after Writ of Error.

General Provisions to apply to Ejectments.

CCXXVII. All other Provisions herein contained shall extend to Ejectments, mutatis mutandis, unless where the same shall not be applicable, or where the Subject Matter thereof shall have been herein otherwise provided for.

Action for Replevin of Goods.

With respect to the Proceedings for Recovery of Goods and Chattels by way of Replevin :

Action for Replevin to be commenced by Writ of Summons and Plaint.

CCXXVIII. Where any Party whose Goods or Chattels have been taken or distrained shall dispute the Validity of such Taking or Distress, and shall be desirous of proceeding for the Recovery of such Goods and Chattels in any of the said Superior Courts, such Party may commence a Personal Action for the Recovery of the Goods or Chattels so taken or distrained by a Writ of Summons and Plaint, which Writ of Summons shall, in addition to any Particulars herein-before required in an ordinary Writ of Summons, state the Particulars of the Property taken or distrained, and the Place where such Taking, Seizure, or Distress shall have been made, and shall be served by delivering a Copy or Copies thereof to the Defendant or Defendants, or to any Agent or other Person acting for him or them in making such Seizure or Distress, or in keeping the Goods and Chattels so taken or distrained, in the Manner herein-before provided in respect of an ordinary Writ of Summons.

Plaintiff may sue out also a Writ of Replevin.

CCXXIX. When any such Personal Action shall have been so commenced it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff therein to sue out of the Court in which such Action shall be instituted a Writ, to be called a Writ of Replevin, in the Form No. 23. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, directed to the Sheriff of the County in which such Goods and Chattels shall be under Seizure or Distress, requiring him to replevy the said Goods and Chattels, and the said Sheriff shall and he is hereby required, upon good Security (by the Bond of the Plaintiff, and Two responsible Persons as Sureties, conditioned as usual in such Cases,) being given to him, in double the Amount of the Value of the Property taken or distrained, to execute such Writ, and to return the said Writ, with a correct and proper Statement endorsed thereon of the Manner in which the same shall have been executed, or the Cause why the same has not been executed, to the Court out of which the same shall have issued, within Eight Days, exclusive of any Days hereby appointed to be observed and kept as Holidays, next after such Writ shall have been delivered to him : Provided always, that the Value of the Property so taken or distrained shall be ascertained by the said Sheriff in like Manner as the Value of Goods distrained is now ascertained by Law by the Sheriff in taking Security in Replevins, and that the said Bonds shall be assignable by the Sheriff under like Circumstances and in like Manner, and shall be available to the Assignee thereof, as by Law now or hereafter authorized in respect of Replevin Bonds.

If Plaintiff in Replevin be non-prossed or nonsuited, Defendant entitled to Judgment and CCXXX. If the Plaintiff in any such Action for Replevin of a Distress made for Rent shall be non-prossed for not filing his Summons and Plaint as aforesaid it shall be lawful for the Defendant to file a Suggestion in the Nature of a Plaint for Rent, and praying the Court to inquire the Cause of the Distress ; and thereupon, or in case Judgment be given for the Defendant on Demurrer, Demurrer, it shall be lawful for the Court to issue a Writ of Execution for his Rent. Inquiry to the Sheriff of the County wherein the Distress was taken, or to the Master of the Court, to inquire touching the Amount of Rent in arrear at the Time of such Distress being taken, and the Value of the Goods or Chattels distrained, and such Inquiry shall be taken in the Manner herein-before provided upon Judgment by Default; and upon the Return of such Inquisition the Defendant shall have Judgment and Execution to recover against the Plaintiff the Arrears of Rent in case the Goods and Chattels shall amount to the Value, and in case they shall not amount to that Value then for so much as the Value of the said Goods and Chattels shall amount to, with his Costs of Suit in that Behalf incurred; and in case the said Plaintiff shall be nonsuit after Issue joined, or if the Verdict shall be given against the Plaintiff, then the Jurors empannelled to try such Issue shall, at the Prayer of the Defendant, inquire the Amount of the Rent due, and the Value of the Goods and Chattels distrained, and the Defendant shall have Judgment and Execution for such Arrears, or so much thereof as the Value of the Goods and Chattels distrained shall amount unto, together with his Costs of Suit in that Behalf incurred.

With respect to the Power of Amendment, so as to enable the said Courts and the Judges thereof to prevent the Failure of Justice by reason of Mistakes and Objections of Form :

Amendment.

CCXXXI. It shall be lawful for the Superior Courts of Common Law, and every Judge thereof, and any Judge sitting at Nisi Prius, at all Times to amend all Defects and Errors in any Writ, Pleading, Record, or other Proceeding in Civil Causes, whether there is anything in Writing to amend by or not, and whether the Defect or Error be that of the Party applying to amend or not; and all such Amendments may be made in such Manner as shall be thereby directed, and with or without Costs, and upon such Terms as to the Court or Judge may seem fit; and all such Amendments as may be necessary for the Purpose of determining in the existing Suit the real Question in controversy between the Parties shall be so made; and when such Amendment shall be made at Nisi Prius or upon any Inquiry, the Order shall be endorsed on the Abstract or Writ, and all Pleadings or other Records of the Court which it may be necessary to amend in conformity therewith shall be amended accordingly.

Amendment.

With respect to the general Regulation of Business in the said Superior Courts of Law :

Regulation of Business.

CCXXXII. The following, and none other, shall be observed and kept as Holidays in the said Superior Courts and the Offices thereof, and the Court of Exchequer Chamber, and in the Office of Registrar of Judgments; that is to say, every Sunday, Christmas Day, and the Seven Days following that Day, Good Friday, Easter Eve, Monday and Tuesday in Easter Week, Whit Monday and Whit Tuesday, any Day appointed for a Public Fast or Thanksgiving, and when they do not occur in Term Time the Day appointed to be kept as the Birthday and the Day of the Accession of Her Majesty the Queen or of any of Her Successors; and the said Holidays shall not be reckoned or included in any Notices or other Proceedings, Holidays.

Proceedings, except Notices of Trial and Notices of Inquiry in any of the said Courts; and Sunday shall not be reckoned or included in any Notice or Proceeding whatsoever; and where the last Day included in any such Notice of Trial or Notice of Inquiry shall happen to fall on any of the Days hereby appointed to be observed and kept as Holidays, in such Case the following Day, or, when there shall be consecutive Holidays, the Day following the last of such Holidays, shall be considered as the last of such Days; and the Days from and including the First Day of August to the Twentieth Day of October inclusive, in each Year, shall not be reckoned Days within which any Summons and Plein, Defence, or other Pleading should be filed, nor shall any such Pleading be filed or received upon such Days except a Plea of Confession or Consent for Judgment.

General Rules may be made by the Judges.

CCXXXIII. It shall be lawful for the Judges of the said Courts, or any Seven or more of them, whereof Two shall be Chief Judges, from Time to Time to make all such General Rules and Orders for the effectual Execution of this Act, and for establishing a simple Code of Practice, Pleading, and Evidence in the said Courts, and in the Court of Error, in accordance with the Intention and Object of this Act, and for apportioning the Costs of Issues, and for fixing the Costs to be allowed for and in respect of the Matters herein contained, or prescribed by such General Orders, and the Performance thereof, and for the Purpose of enforcing Uniformity of Practice and Pleading in the said Courts and the Offices thereof, and of ensuring, as far as may be practicable, an equal Division of the Business amongst the said Courts, as in their Judgment shall be necessary or proper, and for that Purpose to meet from Time to Time as Occasion may require; and all such Rules and Orders as they shall so make shall be valid and effectual, and shall be observed in each of the said Courts and the Offices thereof, until varied or altered by the like Authority, anything in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and any Expenses which the Judges shall certify (as now required with reference to incidental Expenses) to have been properly incurred in giving Effect to the Provisions of this Act shall be charged and paid in like Manner and as Part of the incidental Expenses of the said Courts: Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to restrain the Authority or limit the Jurisdiction of the said Courts, or the Judges thereof, to make Rules or Orders, or otherwise to regulate and dispose of the Business therein.

Consolidated
Court of Nisi Prius for the Trial of Issues arising in any of the Superior Courts.

CCXXXIV. The Nisi Prius Courts of the said Superior Courts of Common Law sitting at Dublin shall continue to be consolidated, and there shall be but One Common Court of Nisi Prius for the Trial at Dublin of Issues in Fact arising in any of the Courts, except as herein-after provided, which Court of Nisi Prius shall consist of One Judge or Baron of either of the said Superior Courts, to be chosen for that Purpose by the said Judges and Barons according to such Arrangement as they shall think proper, and in such Order of Rotation that each Court shall by One of its Judges or Barons take the Duty in Turn by Terms, and all Jurors, Witnesses, and other Persons shall be summoned or required to attend, and shall give their Attendance at or for the Trial of any Cause depending in any such Court, before such Judge as shall be be sitting for the Trial thereof by virtue of this Act: Provided always, that all Causes intended to be tried at any Sittings at Nisi Prius at Dublin shall be entered for Trial with the Registrar of the Chief Judge of that Court of which One of the Judges is to sit, and all other Process and Proceedings for or relating to the Trials thereof shall be made and issued as herein-before required, but nevertheless the Trial of every Cause which shall be tried by virtue of this Act shall be entered and made of Record, as having been had and made before the Judge before whom such Cause shall happen to have been actually tried.

CCXXXV. Such Consolidated Nisi Prius Court shall sit continuously, or by Adjournment, as Occasion may require, on the Second Day of each Term, and thence continuously until the End thereof, or so much longer as may be necessary for the Completion of any Trial then in progress before the said Court; and Notice of Trial may be served for any Day within the said Period, subject, however, to such Regulations as to the Class of Cases to be tried in the said Court, or otherwise, as is herein-after expressed, or as the Judges, or any Seven of them, of whom Two shall be Chief Judges, may by any General Order make from Time to Time in that Behalf: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to interfere with the Duty of the Chief Judge of each Court, as now discharged, of sitting after Term for the Trial of Issues at Nisi Prius, but that each of the said Chief Judges, or some other Judge of the Court in his Stead, shall, notwithstanding the Sittings at Nisi Prius herein provided, sit after Term as heretofore, for the Trial of any Issues at Nisi Prius arising in his Court which shall be entered as heretofore for such after Sittings; and provided also, that if any Issue or Issues entered for Trial in the said Consolidated Nisi Prius Court shall remain undisposed of at the Termination of the Sittings of the said Court for any Term, the same shall be transferred to and be deemed to have been entered for such after Sittings, and shall be taken up and disposed of respectively by the Chief Judge of the Court in which such Issues respectively shall have arisen as if the same had been originally entered for such after Sittings.

CCXXXVI. The Duty of attending such Consolidated Nisi Prius Court as Clerk of Nisi Prius shall be discharged by the Town Registrar of the Chief Justice or Chief Baron of the Court to which the Judge sitting at Nisi Prius shall belong; and if it shall happen that such Sitting at Nisi Prius shall not have terminated at any Time when the Chief Justice or Chief Baron shall require the Attendance of his said Registrar for the Purpose of such Nisi Prius Sittings in his own Court as aforesaid, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the said Nisi Prius Judge to require the Attendance of any of the Assistants or Clerks belonging to his Court who can at such Time be spared from his Office Duties, to act as his temporary Clerk of Nisi Prius; and the Lords Chief Justices and Chief Baron, or any Two of them, shall, in case of a Vacancy in the Office of Crier, appoint a fit and proper Person to act as Crier of the said Nisi Prius Court, who shall be paid such Salary as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall direct, the same to be charged and included in the quarterly Accounts of incidental Expenses of the said Courts respectively,

Such Court to sit continuously.

Officers of Consolidated Nisi Prius Court.

in like Manner and Proportions as the Salary of the Court Keeper of the Nisi Prius Court and other incidental Expenses common to the Three Courts are now charged.

Cases to be tried in Consolidated Nisi Prius Court.

CCXXXVII. The following shall, until otherwise provided by any General Order made as aforesaid, be the Class of Cases to be tried in the Consolidated Nisi Prius Court :

Actions for Rent ; Actions on Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes ; Actions of Debt upon and to revive Judgments ; Actions for Use and Occupation ; Goods sold and delivered ; Goods bargained and sold ; Work and Labour ; Money lent, Money paid, Money had and received, and on Account stated ; Ejectments for Nonpayment of Rent, and against overholding Tenants, whether on Notice to quit or otherwise.

Judges of either Court may do Business depending in any of the Courts.

CCXXXVIII. Every Judge of the said Superior Courts of Common Law shall have full Power and Jurisdiction to sit in Dublin, as well in Term as in Vacation, for the Trial of Issues in Fact arising in any of the said Courts, and to transact in Chamber or elsewhere such Business depending in any of the said Courts as relates to Matters over which the said Courts have a common Jurisdiction, and as may, according to the Course and Practice of the Courts, be transacted by a single Judge.

Courts may hold Sittings in Vacation.

CCXXXIX. The said Superior Courts shall and may, at their Discretion, hold Sittings in Banco in Time of Vacation for the Purpose of disposing of Business therein pending and undecided in such Courts respectively, and such Sittings in Vacation may be holden by virtue of a Rule or Order of the said Courts respectively, to be made in or out of Term, whereof a Week's Notice (in such Form as the said Courts respectively shall direct) shall be published in the Dublin Gazette, and affixed in some conspicuous Place at the Entrance of such Court respectively making such Order ; and that all Judgments to be pronounced at such Sittings in Banco, and all Rules and Orders in respect thereof to be made by virtue of this Act, shall have the same Effect to all Intents and Purposes as if they had been pronounced or made in Term Time.

Alteration of Forms.

New Forms of Writs and other Proceedings.

CCXL. Such new or altered Writs and Forms of Proceedings may be issued, entered, and taken as may by the Judges of the said Courts, or any Seven or more of them, of whom Two shall be Chief Judges, be deemed necessary or expedient for giving Effect to the Provisions herein-before contained, and in such Forms and such Variation from the Forms in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed as the Judges of such Courts respectively shall from Time to Time think fit to order ; and such Writs and Proceedings shall be acted upon and enforced in such and the same Manner as Writs and Proceedings of the said Courts are now acted upon and enforced, or as near thereto as the Circumstances of the Case will admit ; and any existing Writ or Proceeding the Form of which shall be in any Manner altered in pursuance of this Act shall nevertheless be of the same Force and Virtue as if no Alteration had been made therein, except so far as the Effect thereof may be varied by this Act.

Schedules to form Part of Act.

CCKLI. The Schedules to this Act annexed shall be deemed to be a Part of this Act, and the Forms therein given may be used with with such Modification and Departures as the particular Facts of the Case may render necessary, but no verbal or technical Error or Omission in the following of the same shall be fatal; and all Departures, Errors, or Omissions, which have not a manifest Tendency to mislead or prejudice the opposite Party in the Merits of his Case, shall be deemed to be technical and immaterial.

CCXLII. The several Duties set forth in the Schedule D. to this Act annexed shall be the respective Law Fund Duties on the Proceedings in Actions in the said Superior Courts of Law in Ireland, and shall be in lieu and stead of the existing Duties in respect of the same Subject Matter; and the like Penalties, Forfeiture, and Remedies for the Enforcement and Recovery of the same, shall attach upon the said Duties as previously existed in respect of the Law Fund Duties heretofore in force.

Schedule of Law Fund
Duties.

CCXLIII. The several Fees mentioned and set forth in the Schedule E. to this Act annexed shall be the Fees chargeable against any Party, Plaintiff or Defendant, in respect of the specified Items of Proceedings to which the same shall be applicable until the same shall be altered or amended by any General Rule of the Judges under the Powers herein-before given; and the said Judges are hereby required, by a General Order, to settle a Schedule of Fees to be allowed in Taxation of Costs of Proceedings under this Act, having regard to the said Schedule E. to this Act annexed: Provided always, that in case the Plaintiff in any Action of Contract (except for Breach of Promise of Marriage) shall recover, exclusive of Costs, less than Twenty Pounds, or in any Action for any Wrong or Injury disconnected with Contract (except Replevin, or for Slander, Libel, malicious Prosecution, Seduction, or criminal Conversation,) a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, the Plaintiff in any such Action shall be entitled to no more than One Half of the ordinary Costs, unless the Action has been brought for the Purpose of trying a Right to Property more extensive than the Sum sued for.

No. 3.—Demurrer to a Plaint or Defence.

Court of Queen's Bench,
Saturday, the 26th Day of February 1854.

John James,
Plaintiff,
Richard Roe, Executor of Henry Roe,
Defendant.

The said Richard Roe, the Defendant, appears and says, that the Summons and Plaint does not disclose any Cause of Action good in Substance, because that no sufficient Consideration for the alleged Promise of the Defendant as Executor of the said Henry Roe is stated therein, to render the said Defendant liable to pay the Debt of the said Henry Roe.

EDWARD MOLONEY, Attorney for the Defendant,
No. 14, Capel Street, Dublin.

No. 4.—Judgment by Default for Want of Defence.

Court of Queen's Bench, on Monday, the 20th Day of June,
A.D. 1854 (Day of signing Judgment).

County of the City of Dublin. } John James, by William Thompson, his Attorney, sued out a Writ of Summons and Plaint against Richard Roe, claiming the Sum of £140 for Debt on account of a Bill of Exchange drawn by Henry Jasper, dated the 15th Day of October 1853, and endorsed by the said Richard Roe.

And the said Richard Roe has not appeared to take Defence; but the Service of such Writ and the Contents of said Plaint have been duly verified.

Therefore it is considered that the said John James do recover against the said Richard Roe the Sum of £140, together with for Costs.

No. 5.—Abstract for Nisi Prius.

Court of Queen's Bench,
Monday, the 20th Day of March, A.D. 1854.

County of Sligo, to wit.

John James,
Plaintiff.
Richard Roe,
Defendant.

Whereas John James, the Plaintiff, has sued Richard Roe, the Defendant, and demanded the Sum of £150 as the Price and Value of 130 Barrels of Wheat sold and delivered to the Defendant;

And the said Richard Roe has taken Defence, and admits the Delivery of the Wheat, but has alleged that he paid the Sum of £130 to the Plaintiff before the Commencement of this Action, and that such Payment was a full Satisfaction of the Value of said Wheat, and that said Wheat was not sound and merchantable at the Time of its Delivery to the Plaintiff :

Therefore let the Jury try—

- 1st. Whether the said Wheat was sound and merchantable at the Time of its Delivery.
- 2d. Whether the Value of said Wheat exceeded the Sum of £130.

ROBERT JONES, Attorney for Plaintiff.
HENRY GREEN, Attorney for Defendant.

No. 6.—Bill of Exceptions.

Court of Queen's Bench,
Monday, 20th Day of July, 1854.

John James,
Plaintiff.
Richard Roe,
Defendant.

The Issues in Fact in the annexed Abstract of Nisi Prius having come to be tried by a Jury on this Day, the Plaintiff produced and examined as a Witness one G. H. to prove the Fact of [&c. &c.]; and the said G. H. deposed that [&c. &c.], which Evidence the Defendant objected to as not being legal Evidence of the Fact; and the Plaintiff insisting to the contrary the Judge at Nisi Prius admitted the Evidence to be received accordingly, and therefore the Defendant excepts, and prays that his Exception shall be placed upon the Record for the Examination of the Court above.

(Signed) L.M., Counsel for Defendant.
L.P., Judge.

No. 7.—Order of Attachment of Stock.

Court of Queen's Bench,
Monday, 20th Day of June 1854.

John James,
Plaintiff.
Richard Roe,
Defendant.

By the Right Honourable Mr. Justice Moore.
It appearing to the Court that the Plaintiff hath recovered Judgment against the Defendant in the Sum of £300, and that such Judgment is still unsatisfied; and it also appearing that the Defendant is possessed of a Sum of £200 Government 3½ per Cent. Stock, standing in his own Name in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland;

The said Sum of £200, and all Dividends thereon, are hereby attached to answer the said Debt until further Order; and the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland are hereby ordered and required not to suffer the same, or any Part thereof, to be transferred, paid, or dealt with until further Order.

RICHARD MOORE, Justice.
CHRISTOPHER DUFF, Clerk of the Rules.

No. 9.—Suggestion of Breaches.

Queen's Bench,
 Monday, the 20th Day of June 1854.

And now on this Day the said John James, the Plaintiff, comes and informs the Court that after the Recovery of the said Judgment, and on the 1st Day of April 1853, another half-yearly Gale of the said Annuity, amounting to the Sum of £100, became due and payable to the Plaintiff, and that the Defendant has neglected and refused to pay the same, in breach and violation of the Conditions of the said Bond upon which the Plaintiff recovered such Judgment, and therefore the Plaintiff prays Execution of the said Judgment for the further Sum of £100.

No. 10.—Suggestion for Execution against the Judgment Debtor.

And now, on the 26th Day of June 1854, it is suggested, and manifestly appears to the Court, that the said A.B.
 [or C.D., as such Executor of the last Will and Testament of the said A.B. deceased, or as the Case may be] is entitled to have Execution of the Judgment aforesaid against the said E.F. [or against G.H., as Executor of the last Will and Testament of the said E.F., as the Case may be]:
 therefore it is considered by the Court that the said A.B. [or C.D., as such Executor as aforesaid, or as the Case may be], ought to have Execution of the said Judgment against the said E.F. [or against G.H., as such Executor as aforesaid, or as the Case may be.]

No. 11.—Form of Writ of Revisor.

In the Queen's Bench,

Victoria, &c. &c. to the said Richard Roe, greeting.

County of Clare.

John James,

Plaintiff.

Richard Roe,

Defendant.

Richard Roe, the Defendant, is summoned to appear and show Cause wherefore Edward Jones, Executor of the said John James, shall not * have Execution against the said Richard Roe, of a Judgment whereby John James, on the 1st Day of June 1850, in the said Court of Queen's Bench, recovered against the said Richard Roe the Sum of £300, and of which Sum the said Edward Jones alleges that there remains due and unsatisfied the Sum of 100*l*.

Therefore the said Richard Roe is hereby required to appear in the said Court within Eight Days after the Service hereof, and show Cause wherefore Execution should not be had accordingly; or in default thereof the said Edward Jones may proceed to Execution for said Sum of £100 and his Costs.

Witness the Lord Chief Justice and other Justices of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench at Dublin.

Dated Monday, the 26th Day of April 1854.

WILLIAM THOMPSON, Attorney for the said Edward Jones,
No. 12, Clare Street, Dublin.

No. 11 A.—Like in case of Interlocutory Judgment.

[*Proceed as in last Form to the Asterisk , and then as follows:]—assess and recover [or recover] the Damages in respect of a Judgment whereby the said John James on the 1st Day of June 1850, in the said Court of Queen's Bench, was adjudged in that Behalf entitled, and which Inquiry of Damages as yet remains to be made [if the Case be so].

Therefore the said Richard Roe is hereby required to appear in the said Court within Eight Days after the Service hereof, and show Cause wherefore the said Assessment should not be made [if not made] and Recovery had as aforesaid, or in default thereof the said Edward Jones may proceed to assess and recover [or to recover] such Damages against the said C.D.

Witness, the Lord Chief Justice and other Justices of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench at Dublin.

Dated Monday the 4th Day of April 1854.

WM. THOMPSON, Attorney for the said E.F.—

No. 15.—Summons and Plaint in Ejectment.

Court of Queen's Bench.

Victoria, &c. &c. to the said G.H. and I.K. and all Persons concerned, greeting.

A.B., C.D., and E.F., Plaintiffs.

G.H. and others,
Defendants.

County of Leitrim.

G.H. and I.K., the Defendants, have been summoned to answer the Complaint of A.B., C.D., and E.F., the Plaintiffs, who complain that* the Plaintiffs, or some or One of them, on the 1st Day of July 1853, became and were and are still entitled to the quiet and peaceable Possession of the Lands of Black acre in the County of Leitrim, and the Defendant wrongfully assumed the Possession thereof, and still withholds the same from the Plaintiffs.

And therefore the Plaintiffs pray Judgment against the said Defendants to recover the Possession of said Lands or Premises ; [and in case of Ejectment on the Title where the Plaintiffs seek to recover Mesne Rates, add and Compensation in Damages for the Loss of the Mesne Rates and Profits of the said Premises while the Possession thereof was withheld from the said Plaintiffs, to the Amount of £]. Therefore [&c. &c., as in Form 1.]

In case of Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent copy last Form to the Asterisk (), and then say, that the Defendant holds the Lands of Blackacre, in the County of Leitrim, as Tenant to the Plaintiffs under a Lease, at the yearly Rent of £50, and that the Sum of £80, being for One Year and upwards of such Rent, due and ending on the 1st Day of January 1854, is due to the Plaintiffs. And therefore [&c. &c., as in last Form.]*

C A P. CXIV.

An Act to extend the Municipal Boundaries of the Borough of Belfast, and to reduce the Scale of rating upon certain Property within the said Borough. [20th August 1853.]

3 & 4 Vict.
c. 108.

6 & 7 Vict. c. 93.

8 & 9 Vict.
c. cxlii.

‘ WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Third and Fourth ‘ Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An ‘ Act for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in Ireland, ‘ which Act was amended by another Act passed in the Sixth and ‘ Seventh Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled ‘ An Act to amend an Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her ‘ present Majesty, for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in ‘ Ireland: And whereas a Local and Personal Act was passed in ‘ the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of Her said Majesty, ‘ intituled An Act for the Improvement of the Borough of Belfast, ‘ which last-recited Act was amended by the Local and Personal
 ‘ Acts

' Acts following, that is to say, Ninth and Tenth Victoria, Chapter Two hundred and ninety-four, Tenth and Eleventh Victoria, Chapter Two hundred and fifty-four, and Thirteenth and Fourteenth Victoria, Chapter One hundred and eight; and the said several Acts are now in operation in the Borough of Belfast: And whereas it is expedient that the Boundaries of the said Borough, as defined by the said first-recited Act, should be extended, and that the Boundaries of the several Wards into which the same is divided should be altered, and that the maximum Scale of rating upon Property above the annual Value of Eighty Pounds liable to be rated under the said thirdly-recited Act should be reduced: And whereas the same cannot be effected without the Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

I. In citing this Act for any Purpose it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Belfast Borough Extension Act, 1853." Title of Act.

II. So much of the said firstly-recited Act as relates to the Boundaries of the Borough of Belfast, and to the Boundaries of the Wards into which the said Borough is divided, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and in lieu thereof the Boundaries of the said Borough, and of the Five Wards into which the same is divided, shall for the Purposes of this Act be according to the Description of such Boundaries respectively set forth in Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed; and all the Houses, Lands, and Hereditaments within the Boundaries therein specified shall, from and after the Commencement of this Act, be Parts of the said Borough, to all Intents and Purposes as if the said Boundaries had been fixed and specified in the said firstly-recited Act, and in the Construction of the Description of such Boundaries the Rules in the said last-mentioned Act contained shall be observed. Limits of the Borough altered and extended.

III. All the Powers and Provisions of the said recited Acts and of all other Acts altering, amending, or enlarging the same or any of them, shall, so far as they are now in force and are unrepealed by and are not inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, extend and apply to the Borough of Belfast, and to the several Wards thereof, and to the Inhabitants of the said Borough as extended and defined by this Act. Acts in force relating to Belfast to apply to the Borough as extended by this Act.

IV. Provided always, That it shall and may be lawful, within so much of the Manor of Belfast as lies beyond the Boundaries of the said Borough as defined by the said first-recited Act, for any Person to sell or expose for Sale any Butter, Milk, Eggs, Poultry, Fruit, Fish, or Vegetables for the domestic Consumption of the Buyer at or near to the Premises of either the Owner of such Commodity or of the Person to whom the same may be sold or offered for Sale. Provisions as to buying and selling outside the Borough.

V. So much of the said thirdly-recited Act as authorizes the Council, once in every Year, to be computed from the First Day of January in each Year, or oftener if they shall think it necessary, to make One or more Rate or Rates, Assessment or Assessments, upon the Occupiers of all Houses, Buildings, Tenements, Repeal of so much of 8 & 9 Vict. c. cxlii. as enables the Council to rate Property exceeding 80l.

annual Value at 4s. 6d. in the Pound.

Rate on such Property not to exceed 3s. in the Pound.

Quays, Wharfs, and other Hereditaments within the Limits of the said Act exceeding Eighty Pounds annual Value, so as such Rates or Assessments do not exceed in any One Year the Sum of Four Shillings and Sixpence in the Pound on the annual Value of the same, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and in lieu thereof, it shall be lawful for the Council, once in every Year, from and after the Commencement of this Act, to be computed from the First Day of January in each Year, or oftener if they shall think it necessary, to make One or more Rate or Rates, Assessment or Assessments, upon the Occupiers of all Houses, Buildings, Tenements, Quays, Wharfs, and other Hereditaments within the Limits of the Borough for the Time being, exceeding Eighty Pounds annual Value, so as such Rates or Assessments do not exceed in any One Year the Sum of Three Shillings in the Pound on the annual Value of the same; and the said last-mentioned Rate, and the other Rates authorized to be laid by the said last-mentioned Act and not hereby repealed, shall be diminished or varied in the Proportions, and applied in the Manner, and be subject to the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be deemed to extend to repeal, alter, or in any Manner affect the Provisions of the said recited Acts or any of them relating to the making, collecting, and recovering of the Rates thereby authorized, save as to the Rate by this Act repealed, and that all such Provisions, and all other Provisions therein contained relating to the Rates or Exemption from Rates shall extend and apply to the Rate hereby authorized to be made in lieu of the Rate so repealed as aforesaid.

Exempting Demesnes in certain Cases from Payment of Rates.

VI. Provided always, That so long as any Demesne situate within the said Borough shall be of an Extent of not less than Forty Acres, and shall be in the Occupation of the Owner thereof or his Under-tenant, and in which Streets shall not have been laid out and formed, and on which Dwelling Houses shall not have been built, the Owner or Tenant of such Demesne shall not be rated in respect of such Demesne, or in respect of any Mansion House or other Building situate therein and occupied therewith, unless such Tenant or Owner shall by Notice in Writing require to be rated in respect of such Demesne and Mansion House under the said recited Acts or any of them: Provided also, that until such Tenant or Owner shall be so rated, he shall not be placed upon any Burgess List or Burgess Roll to be formed under the firstly or secondly recited Acts, or either of them, in respect of such Demesne, or in respect of such Mansion House or other Building, or be liable or entitled to fill any Office, or to vote in any Election under the said Acts, or either of them, in respect of such Premises as aforesaid.

Not to prevent burning Bricks, &c. in Places not lighted and watched.

VII. Nothing in the said recited Acts or in this Act contained shall in any Manner prevent or hinder the burning of Bricks or Lime, or the building of Kilns for such Purpose, within any Part of the Borough as defined by this Act which shall not for the Time being be lighted and watched under the Provisions of the said thirdly-recited Act.

Extending 10 & 11 Vict. c. ccliv. s. 37. to

VIII. The Provisions in the said Local and Personal Act of the Tenth and Eleventh Victoria, Chapter Two hundred and fifty-four, Section

Section Thirty-seven, contained, relating to the Royal Belfast Academical Institution and the Belfast Academy, shall extend and apply to the Queen's College at Belfast, and to the Belfast District Lunatic Asylum and the Grounds attached thereto, and to the College erected for the Education of Ministers in connexion with the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, and to the Court House and Gaol of the County of Antrim, and to the Lands held with such Court House and Gaol, so long as the same shall be held and occupied by the Grand Jury of the said County for County Purposes.

Queen's College and Court House and Gaol of Antrim.

IX. That the Roman Catholic Seminary, situate upon the Turnpike Road leading to Antrim, shall for the Purposes of this Act be considered within the Boundaries by this Act authorized; and that the Provisions in the said last-mentioned Act contained relating to the Royal Academical Institution and the Belfast Academy shall also extend and apply to the said Roman Catholic Seminary at Belfast.

Roman Catholic Seminary to be exempt from Effect of Act.

X. That in construing the Seventy-second Section of the said recited Act, Eighth and Ninth Victoria, Chapter One hundred and forty-two, the Words "formed or set out" shall be held to mean formed or set out for building.

As to Meaning of certain Words in 8 & 9 Vict. c. cxlii, s. 72.

XI. That no House or Building hereafter to be built, rebuilt, or new roofed in or near any Street within the Limits of this Act shall, without the Permission of the Council, be thatched wholly or in part, and in case any such House or Building shall be so thatched without such Permission as aforesaid the Owner thereof shall forfeit the Sum of Forty Shillings for each and every Month during which the same or any Part thereof shall continue to be thatched.

No House to be thatched without Permission of Council.

XII. This Act shall commence and have effect on and from the First Day of December next after the passing of this Act.

Commencement of Act.

XIII. The Costs, Charges, and Expenses of applying for, obtaining, and passing this Act, or preparatory or incident thereto, shall be paid and discharged by the Treasurer of the Borough of Belfast out of the Borough Fund.

Expenses of Act.

C A P. CXV.

An Act to amend certain Provisions of the Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, in respect of the Transmission of certified Copies of Letters Patent and Specifications to certain Offices in Edinburgh and Dublin, and otherwise to amend the said Act. [20th August 1853.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend certain Provisions of the Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, in respect of the Transmission of certified Copies of Letters Patent and Specifications to certain Offices in Edinburgh, and Dublin, and otherwise to amend the said Act: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

15 & 16 Vict.
c. 83.

I. Section Thirty-three of the said Act, and such Part of Section Twenty-eight of the said Act as directs that in case Reference is made to Drawings in any Specification deposited or filed under the said Act an extra Copy of such Drawings should be left with such Specification, shall be repealed.

Sect. 33. and Part of Sect. 28. of recited Act
repealed.

II. The Commissioners shall cause true Copies of all Provisional Specifications left at the Office of the Commissioners to be open to the Inspection of the Public, at such Times, after the Date of the Record thereof respectively, as the Commissioners shall by their Order from Time to Time direct.

Copies of Provisional Specifications to be open to Inspection.

III. A true Copy, under the Hand of the Patentee or Applicant, or Agent of the Patentee or Applicant, of every Specification and of every Complete Specification, with the Drawings accompanying the same, if any, shall be left at the Office of the Commissioners on filing such Specification or Complete Specification.

Copy of Specification, &c., under Hand of Patentee, &c. to be left.

IV. Printed or Manuscript Copies or Extracts, certified and sealed with the Seal of the Commissioners, of Letters Patent, Specifications, Disclaimers, Memoranda of Alterations, and all other Documents recorded and filed in the Commissioners Office, or in the Office of the Court of Chancery appointed for the filing of Specifications, shall be received in Evidence in all Proceedings relating to Letters Patent for Inventions in all Courts whatsoever within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Channel Islands, and Ile of Man, and Her Majesty's Colonies and Plantations abroad, without further Proof or Production of the Originals.

Copies or Extracts of Letters Patent, &c., to be received in Evidence.

V. Certified printed Copies, under the Seal of the Commissioners, of all Specifications and Complete Specifications, and Facsimile printed Copies of the Drawings accompanying the same, if any, Disclaimers, and Memoranda of Alterations filed or hereafter to be filed under the said Patent Law Amendment Act, shall be transmitted

Certified printed Copies of Specifications, &c. under Seal of Commissioners, to be sent to Director of Chancery in Scotland and Court of Chancery in Ireland, which shall be Evidence.

transmitted to the Office of the Director of Chancery in Scotland and to the Enrolment Office of the Court of Chancery in Ireland within Twenty-one Days after the filing thereof respectively, and the same shall be filed in the Office of Chancery in Scotland and Ireland respectively, and certified Copies or Extracts from such Documents shall be furnished to all Persons requiring the same, on Payment of such Fees as the Commissioners shall direct; and such Copies or Extracts shall be received in Evidence in all Courts in Scotland and in Ireland respectively in all Proceedings relating to Letters Patent for Inventions, without further Proof or Production of the Originals.

Lord Chancellor, in certain Cases, may seal Letters Patent after the Expiration of provisional Protection.

VI. Where Letters Patent have not been sealed during the Continuance of the provisional Protection on which the same is granted, provided the Delay in such sealing has arisen from Accident, and not from the Neglect or wilful Default of the Applicant, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, if he shall think fit, to seal such Letters Patent at any Time after the Expiration of such provisional Protection, whether such Expiration has happened before or shall happen after the passing of this Act, and to date the sealing thereof as of any Day before the Expiration of such provisional Protection, and also to extend the Time for the filing of the Specification thereon; and where the Specification, in pursuance of the Condition of any Letters Patent, has not been filed within the Time limited by such Letters Patent, provided the Delay in such filing has arisen from Accident, and not from the Neglect or wilful Default of the Patentee, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, if he shall think fit, to extend the Time for the filing of such Specification, whether the Default in such filing has happened before or shall happen after the passing of this Act: Provided always, that, except in any Case that may have arisen before the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for the Lord Chancellor to extend the Time for the sealing of any Letters Patent, or for the filing of any Specification, beyond the Period of One Month.

Removing Doubts as to Provision of 15 & 16 Viet. c. 83, respecting the making and sealing of new Letters Patent for a further Term.

VII. ' And whereas Doubts have arisen whether the Provision of the Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, for the making and sealing new Letters Patent for a further Term, in pursuance of Her Majesty's Order in Council, in the Cases mentioned in Section Forty of the said Act, extends to the making and sealing of new Letters Patent in the Manner by such Act directed where such new Letters Patent are granted by way of Prolongation of the Term of Letters Patent issued before the Commencement of the said Act: And whereas it is expedient that such new Letters Patent granted by way of Prolongation shall be granted according to the Provisions of the said Patent Law Amendment Act: Be it declared and enacted, That where Her Majesty's Order of Council for the sealing of new Letters Patent shall have been made after the Commencement of the said Act, the said Provision of the said Act for making and sealing in manner aforesaid of new Letters Patent shall extend, and shall as from the Commencement of the said Act be deemed to have extended, to the making and sealing in manner aforesaid of new Letters Patent for a further Term, as well where the original Letters Patent were made before as where such original Letters Patent ment have been issued since the Commencement of the said Act.

VIII. This Act, and the Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, shall be construed together as One Act.

15 & 16 Vict.
c. 83. and this Act to be construed as One.

C A P. CXVI

An Act to defray the Charge of the Pay, Clothing, and contingent and other Expenses of the Disembodied Militia in Great Britain and Ireland; to grant Allowances in certain Cases to Subaltern Officers, Adjutants, Paymasters, Quartermasters, Surgeons, Assistant Surgeons, Surgeons Mates, and Serjeant Majors of the Militia; and to authorize the Employment of the Non-commissioned Officers.

[20th August 1853.]

WHEREAS it is necessary that Provision should be made for defraying the Charge of the Pay, Clothing, and contingent and other Expenses of the Regular Militia, and of the Miners of Cornwall and Devon, when disembodied, in Great Britain and Ireland, and for making in certain Cases Allowances of Reduced Pay to Subaltern Officers and Surgeons Mates and Assistant Surgeons of the Regular Militia, and of the Miners of Devon and Cornwall, while disembodied, and Allowances to Adjutants, Paymasters, Surgeons, Quartermasters, and Serjeant Majors of the Regular Militia who have been or may be reduced, and to Adjutants, Surgeons, and Quartermasters disabled after long Service: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in his present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. The Secretary-at-War for the Time being shall cause to be issued and paid the whole Sum required for the Regular Militia of Great Britain and Ireland (when disembodied), in the Manner and for the several Uses herein-after mentioned; (that is to say,) for the Pay of the said Regular Militia at the daily Rates following; (that is to say,)

Secretary-at-War to issue the Money required for Pay of Regular Militia.

For each Adjutant of Infantry, Eight Shillings, and of Artillery, Nine Shillings:

Rates of Pay.

For each Serjeant Major of Infantry, where One is appointed in Corps consisting of Two or more Companies, One Shilling and Tenpence, and of Artillery, Three Shillings:

For each Quartermaster Serjeant and Paymaster Serjeant (in Corps whose Establishment exceeds Four Companies) of Infantry, One Shilling and Eightpence, and of Artillery, Two Shillings and Sixpence; and to the Serjeant performing the Duty of both Quartermaster Serjeant and Paymaster Serjeant (in Corps consisting of Four Companies or less) of Infantry, One Shilling and Eightpence, and of Artillery, Two Shillings and Sixpence:

For each Serjeant of Infantry, One Shilling and Sixpence, and of Artillery, Two Shillings and Twopence:

For

sent to Director of Chancery in Scotland and Court of Chancery in Ireland, which shall be Evidence.

transmitted to the Office of the Director of Chancery in Scotland and to the Enrolment Office of the Court of Chancery in Ireland within Twenty-one Days after the filing thereof respectively, and the same shall be filed in the Office of Chancery in Scotland and Ireland respectively, and certified Copies or Extracts from such Documents shall be furnished to all Persons requiring the same, on Payment of such Fees as the Commissioners shall direct; and such Copies or Extracts shall be received in Evidence in all Courts in Scotland and in Ireland respectively in all Proceedings relating to Letters Patent for Inventions, without further Proof or Production of the Originals.

Lord Chancellor, in certain Cases, may seal Letters Patent after the Expiration of provisional Protection.

VI. Where Letters Patent have not been sealed during the Continuance of the provisional Protection on which the same is granted, provided the Delay in such sealing has arisen from Accident, and not from the Neglect or wilful Default of the Applicant, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, if he shall think fit, to seal such Letters Patent at any Time after the Expiration of such provisional Protection, whether such Expiration has happened before or shall happen after the passing of this Act, and to date the sealing thereof as of any Day before the Expiration of such provisional Protection, and also to extend the Time for the filing of the Specification thereon; and where the Specification, in pursuance of the Condition of any Letters Patent, has not been filed within the Time limited by such Letters Patent, provided the Delay in such filing has arisen from Accident, and not from the Neglect or wilful Default of the Patentee, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, if he shall think fit, to extend the Time for the filing of such Specification, whether the Default in such filing has happened before or shall happen after the passing of this Act: Provided always, that, except in any Case that may have arisen before the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for the Lord Chancellor to extend the Time for the sealing of any Letters Patent, or for the filing of any Specification, beyond the Period of One Month.

Removing Doubts as to Provision of 15 & 16 Vict. c. 83. respecting the making and sealing of new Letters Patent for a further Term.

VII. ' And whereas Doubts have arisen whether the Provision of the Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, for the making and sealing new Letters Patent for a further Term, in pursuance of Her Majesty's Order in Council, in the Cases mentioned in Section Forty of the said Act, extends to the making and sealing of new Letters Patent in the Manner by such Act directed where such new Letters Patent are granted by way of Prolongation of the Term of Letters Patent issued before the Commencement of the said Act: And whereas it is expedient that such new Letters Patent granted by way of Prolongation shall be granted according to the Provisions of the said Patent Law Amendment Act: Be it declared and enacted, That where Her Majesty's Order of Council for the sealing of new Letters Patent shall have been made after the Commencement of the said Act, the said Provision of the said Act for making and sealing in manner aforesaid of new Letters Patent shall extend, and shall as from the Commencement of the said Act be deemed to have extended, to the making and sealing in manner aforesaid of new Letters Patent for a further Term, as well where the original Letters Patent were made before as where such original Letters Patent Patent have been issued since the Commencement of the said Act.

VIII. This Act, and the Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, shall be construed together as One Act.

15 & 16 Vict. c. 83. and this Act to be construed as One.

C A P. CXVI

An Act to defray the Charge of the Pay, Clothing, and contingent and other Expenses of the Disembodied Militia in Great Britain and Ireland; to grant Allowances in certain Cases to Subaltern Officers, Adjutants, Paymasters, Quartermasters, Surgeons, Assistant Surgeons, Surgeons Mates, and Serjeant Majors of the Militia; and to authorize the Employment of the Non-commissioned Officers.

[20th August 1853.]

WHEREAS it is necessary that Provision should be made for defraying the Charge of the Pay, Clothing, and contingent and other Expenses of the Regular Militia, and of the Miners of Cornwall and Devon, when disembodied, in Great Britain and Ireland, and for making in certain Cases Allowances of Reduced Pay to Subaltern Officers and Surgeons Mates and Assistant Surgeons of the Regular Militia, and of the Miners of Devon and Cornwall, while disembodied, and Allowances to Adjutants, Paymasters, Surgeons, Quartermasters, and Serjeant Majors of the Regular Militia who have been or may be reduced, and to Adjutants, Surgeons, and Quartermasters disabled after long Service: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. The Secretary-at-War for the Time being shall cause to be issued and paid the whole Sum required for the Regular Militia of Great Britain and Ireland (when disembodied), in the Manner and for the several Uses herein-after mentioned; (that is to say,) for the Pay of the said Regular Militia at the daily Rates following; (that is to say,)

Secretary-at-War to issue the Money required for Pay of Regular Militia.

For each Adjutant of Infantry, Eight Shillings, and of Artillery, Nine Shillings: Rates of Pay.

For each Serjeant Major of Infantry, where One is appointed in Corps consisting of Two or more Companies, One Shilling and Tenpence, and of Artillery, Three Shillings:

For each Serjeant of Infantry, One Shilling and Sixpence, and of Artillery, Two Shillings and Twopence:

For

For each Drummer, Trumpeter, or Bugler above Sixteen Years of Age, One Shilling, and under Sixteen Years of Age, Tenpence :

Rates of Pay when absent on Furlough.

Provided always, that when any Serjeant Major or Serjeant shall be absent on Furlough or Licence he shall during such Absence receive Sixpence per Diem less than the above-mentioned Rates respectively :

Clothing.

And also for the Clothing of the Regular Militia (when disembodied), in Cases in which full Clothing shall be provided by the Colonel or Commandant, at the Rate of Five Pounds Twelve Shillings and One Penny for each Serjeant Major, Three Pounds for each Serjeant, and Two Pounds Eighteen Shillings and Sevenpence for each Drummer, and so in proportion in the Cases in which only Part of the Clothing shall be provided by the Colonel or Commandant, together with the actual Expense of Package and Carriage, and such Charges for altering and fitting the Clothing as shall have been sanctioned by the Secretary-at-War : Provided always, that Serjeant Majors, Serjeants, and Drummers on the Disembodied Staff of the Militia of England and Wales, and such Serjeant Majors and Serjeants as were serving on the Disembodied Staff of the Militia of Ireland and Scotland, on the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, and shall be resident at Head Quarters, shall be entitled to be clothed once in Two Years ; and that such as shall have been subsequently appointed to serve or promoted on the Disembodied Staff of the Militia of Ireland and Scotland shall be entitled to be clothed once in Four Years :

Contingent Fund.

And also at Rates varying from Two Shillings to Sixpence per Annum for each Private Man for defraying the contingent Expenses of each Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, when enrolled.

Adjutant, &c. to reside where the Secretary-at-War shall appoint.

II. Except when employed as herein-after provided, every Adjutant and Non-commissioned Officer on the Staff of the Regular Militia, when disembodied, shall reside in such Places as shall be sanctioned by the Secretary-at-War ; and every such Adjutant and Non-commissioned Officer shall forfeit his Pay for any Period during which he shall be absent, except when employed as herein-after provided, or when absent by Leave from the Colonel or Commandant of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, which Leave shall not, except in case of certified Sickness, extend beyond Three Calendar Months in One Year, nor to a greater Proportion than One Third of the Non-commissioned Officers at the same Time.

Adjutants and Non-commissioned Officers of Militia may be employed in their Counties.

III. Every Adjutant and Non-commissioned Officer of the Regular Militia, when disembodied, and not called out for Training or Exercise, shall be liable to be employed within the County to which the Regiment, Battalion, or Company of the said Militia Staff belongs, under the Officers appointed to pay and superintend the Out-Pensioners of Chelsea Hospital, in such Manner as One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may determine.

Adjutant to have Charge of the Arms and Clothing, and to issue the Money for contingent

IV. The Adjutant of each Regiment of Militia shall have the Charge and Care of the Arms, Accoutrements, Great Coats, Clothing, Necessaries, and other Stores thereof, under the Superintendence of the Colonel or Commandant, and shall, out of the Allowance directed by this Act to be issued and paid for defraying

Mate, or Assistant Surgeon, who may be so permitted to be absent, and have such Leave in Writing, to demand and receive the said Allowances and every Part thereof in like Manner as if he had attended during the whole of the said Exercise : Provided always, that the Reason for such Absence, as well as the Duration thereof, shall be carefully and truly specified in a Certificate (in lieu of that before mentioned) to be signed by the Commanding Officer, and to be furnished as soon as conveniently may be to the Paymaster General.

XVI. Provided always, in case any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia shall not, before the Time fixed for the Payment of the said Allowances, be called out for the Exercise and Training thereof, every Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, and Assistant Surgeon belonging to any such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, and coming within the aforesaid Benefits of this Act, who shall have made and subscribed the Declaration herein-before mentioned before any Justice of the Peace or other Person as aforesaid, shall be entitled to the said Allowance as if he had regularly attended the Exercise and Training of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps during the whole of the Time by Law appointed for that Purpose, and as if a Certificate of such Attendance, signed by the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, had been furnished.

XVII. Upon such Declarations and Certificates as aforesaid, or where any Regiment of Militia shall not have been called out to their Exercise as aforesaid, upon the said Declarations being produced to the Paymaster General, the Paymaster General shall pay to the said Paymasters, Surgeons, Quartermasters, Subaltern Officers, Surgeons Mates, and Assistant Surgeons their respective Allowances above mentioned for the usual quarterly or other proper Periods, without any Deduction whatsoever, except Income Tax.

XVIII. The Paymasters, Surgeons, Quartermasters, Subaltern Officers, Surgeons Mates, and Assistant Surgeons of Militia, entitled or claiming to be entitled to the aforesaid reduced or disembodied Allowances, shall at all Times be liable to serve in the respective Regiments, Battalions, or Corps to which they belong whenever the same shall be embodied and called out upon active Service ; and in case of Neglect or Refusal to attend when called upon, on such Occasion, or on such other Occasions as may be required in pursuance of the Laws in force respecting the Militia when disembodied, every such Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, and Assistant Surgeon shall, on such Neglect or Refusal being certified to the Secretary-at-War, and in respect of the Militia of Great Britain, to the Lord Lieutenant of the County, by the Colonel or other Commandant of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to which such Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon shall belong, forfeit his Claim to the said Allowance and every Part thereof, and shall also be considered as having resigned and vacated his Commission to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

XIX. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to entitle any Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon as aforesaid

If the Regiment be not called out before Time fixed for Payment, Allowance to be paid, on making the Declaration, without Certificate of Attendance.

Allowances to be paid quarterly.

On Neglect of Attendance, Subalterns, &c. shall forfeit Allowance.

Allowance not to be paid while the Militia embodied.

And to a Surgeon's Mate or Assistant Surgeon, Two Shillings and Sixpence per Diem :

Rank of certain Officers.

Provided always, that for the Purposes of this Act all Officers of the Militia serving with the Rank of Captain Lieutenants shall be deemed to be Lieutenants, and all Officers serving with the Rank of Second Lieutenant shall be deemed to be Ensigns; and that the Supernumerary Subalterns and Assistant Surgeons of Regiments of Militia in Ireland as aforesaid shall be deemed to have belonged to such Regiments when they were last disembodied, and to have continued to serve therein from that Time.

Certain Persons not entitled to Allowances.

IX. Provided also, no Person who is or shall during the Continuance of this Act become possessed of such an Estate or Income as would by Law qualify him to hold the Commission of Captain of a Company in the said Militia, or who is or shall be appointed Adjutant in any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, nor any Officer on Full Pay of the Navy, Army, or Marines, shall have or be in any way entitled to the said Allowances, or any Part or Share thereof.

A Declaration to be taken to entitle Officers, &c. to such Allowances.

X. The Subaltern Officers, Surgeon's Mates, and Assistant Surgeons of the Militia, who shall claim under the Authority of this Act to receive any Part of the said Allowances, shall, previous to receiving the same, and in order to entitle themselves thereto, take and subscribe a Declaration before some One of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the United Kingdom, Notary Public, or other Officer now by Law authorized to administer or receive such Declaration, or before some One of Her Majesty's Ministers, Secretaries of Embassy, of Legation, or Consuls abroad, in the Words or to the Effect following; (videlicet.)

Providing Place for Arms, &c.
42 G. 3. c. 90.

XXXVII. In all Cases where any Place provided under an Act passed in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act for amending the Laws relating to the Militia in England, and for augmenting the Militia, for the Purpose of keeping therein the Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, and other Stores belonging to any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, when not embodied, and the Hire or Cost of which Place may have been paid or is payable out of the County Rates by the Treasurer of the County in which such Place is situated, is or may become from any Cause insecure, insufficient, or unfit for the safe Custody of such Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, and other Stores; or in case the Public Service or Convenience require the Site of the same to be changed, or in case no such Place has been provided, the Deputy Lieutenants of such County, at any General Meeting duly convened for this Purpose, upon the Representation of the Lord Lieutenant of such County, and the Colonel or Commandant of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of the County within which such Place is or is proposed to be situated, to the Effect that no such Place has been provided under the aforesaid Act, or that the Place provided is unfit, or insecure, or inefficient, and upon Evidence thereof, may and are hereby required to provide a suitable and secure Place, or to enlarge or alter and make secure and convenient the Place already provided, for the Purpose of keeping in proper Order and in safe Custody therein the Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, and other Stores belonging belonging to any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia of the County within which such Place is or is to be provided, and the Purchase, Hire, or Cost of which Place, in case the same shall be approved by the Lord Lieutenant and Colonel or Commandant of the Militia of such County, Riding, or Place, and the necessary Cost of Fuel for keeping it dry, shall be paid for by the Treasurer of such County, Riding, or Place, out of the County Rates: Provided always, that with a view to such safe Custody the Place so altered, enlarged, or provided shall contain an Orderly and Guard Room, and Quarters for the Serjeant Major, and such Proportion of the Non-commissioned Officers of the permanent Staff as may be a sufficient Guard for such Arms, being not less in any Case than One Half of the whole Number, nor less than Six, except in Corps consisting of less than Three Companies in which Corps all the Staff shall be provided with Quarters, and there shall be also provided a sufficient Yard or Parade Ground wherein the Men may be mustered for the Issue and Return of such Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, and other Stores.

XXXVIII. For the Purpose of spreading over a Term of Years the Expense of altering, enlarging, or providing such Place, Orderly Room, and Quarters, the Justices of the County, Riding, or Place, or the major Part of them, such major Part not being less than Five, upon Representation from the Treasurer of the County, may borrow, on the Mortgage of the Rates of such County, Riding, or Place, all or any of the Money necessary for the Purpose of defraying such Expenses, and such Money may be so raised at any Rate of Interest not exceeding Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, and any such Mortgage shall be executed by the Chairman and Two or more other Justices present at the Time of making such Mortgage; and every such Mortgage shall be effectual for securing to the Person advancing the Sum of Money in such Mortgage expressed to be advanced, his Executors, Administrators, and, Assigns, the Repayment thereof, with Interest for the same, after such Rate and at such Time and in such Manner as in such Mortgage provided; and every Person to whom any such Mortgage is made his Executors or Administrators. is hereby empowered, by endorsing his or their Name or Names on such Mortgage, to transfer the same, and his and their Right to the Principal Money and Interest thereby secured; and every Assignee of any such Mortgage, his Executors and Administrators, may in like Manner transfer the same again, and so toties quoties; and the Persons to whom such Mortgages or such Transfers thereof are made, their Executors and Administrators, shall be Creditors upon the Rates and Funds thereby expressed to be mortgaged in an equal Degree one with another, and shall not have any Preference or Priority other than is provided under the Powers of this Act.

XXXIX. The said Justices shall in every Year charge the Rates of such County with the Sum for the Time being required to pay the Interest of the Money borrowed on any Mortgages under this Act, or such of them as for the Time being remain unpaid, and also with the Payment of a further Sum, not less than One Thirtieth Part of the whole of such Mortgages at the Time of the same being first made, and such Sums shall be applied under

Power to borrow Money for providing Places for Stores, &c.

Justices to provide annually for Payment of Interest on Mortgages, and not less than One Thirtieth Part of the Principal.

under the Direction of the said Justices in discharge of the Interest on the said Mortgages or such of them as for the Time being remain unpaid, and of so many of the Principal Sums owing on the said Mortgages for the Time being remaining unpaid, as such Sums after Payment of the Interest as aforesaid will extend to discharge, until the whole of the Principal Monies for which such Mortgages shall have been made, and the Interest thereof, shall be fully paid and discharged; and the said Justices are hereby required to fix One or more Days in each Year on which such Payment shall be made, and shall make Orders for Assessments in due Time, so as to provide for such Payments being regularly made; and the said Justices shall, by Agreement with the Parties, or others advancing any Money for the Purposes of this Act, determine the Order or Priority in which the several Sums advanced shall be respectively discharged.

Power to raise Money to pay off Sums already borrowed.

XL. It shall be lawful for the Justices of the County for which such Monies shall have been borrowed (with the Consent of the Parties to whom the same shall be owing) to pay off the Monies so borrowed, and to raise and borrow the Monies necessary for that Purpose, and also to repay the said last-mentioned Monies and the Interest thereof, under the Powers of this Act, as if such Monies were borrowed under the Powers herein-before contained, but so, nevertheless, that all Monies borrowed shall be discharged within Thirty Years from the Time of first borrowing the same.

Sale of Place which is not required.

XLI. In all such Cases as aforesaid the Persons or Person in whom such Place which may have become insecure, insufficient, unfit, or inconvenient as aforesaid for the Purposes aforesaid may be vested, upon Service upon them or him of an Order made at any Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, setting forth that another and more convenient and proper Place has been provided for the Purpose aforesaid, whereby the Place so purchased for the Purpose aforesaid has become useless, shall proceed forthwith, in such Manner as they shall think best, to sell and convey and assure the same to any Purchaser or Purchasers thereof, freed and discharged from the Uses or Trusts to which it had theretofore been liable and subject, and give Receipts and Acquittances for the Purchase Money or Purchase Monies thereof, and shall, upon Receipt of the Money arising therefrom, after deducting thereout all Costs and Charges attending such Sale or Sales, pay the same unto the Treasurer of such County, Riding, or Place, to be by him applied and paid towards the Cost of such Place to be so purchased as aforesaid, or the fitting up the same, and in case no such Place shall be so purchased, then toward the Expenses of fitting up such Place which may be so hired as aforesaid for the Purposes aforesaid, and the Residue of such Purchase Money (if any) shall be invested in the Public Funds, and the Interest thereof applied in aid of the Rate of such County or Riding, according as the Justices of the same in Quarter Session assembled may direct; and no Person purchasing any Place so sold as aforesaid shall be bound to inquire whether any of the Circumstances have arisen under which it has been determined to sell the same as aforesaid, nor shall he be bound to see to the Application or Nonapplication of his, her, or their respective Purchase Monies: and when and as soon as the Persons or Person in whom such Place

Place

Place shall have been so vested as aforesaid shall have paid to the said County Treasurer the clear Proceeds arising from such Sale or Sales, and shall have procured from such Treasurer his Receipt for the same, then and from thenceforth such Persons or Person shall be forthwith discharged from all Liability, Claim, or Demand in respect of the said Place so vested in him or them for the Purposes aforesaid, and also from all Liability, Claim, or Demand in respect of the Proceeds arising from the Sale of such Place; and such Receipt shall be a Bar to the Claim of any Person or Persons whatsoever in such County, Riding, or Place, or any Person or Persons claiming under them any Right, Title, or Estate to such Place or the Proceeds thereof.

XLII. Innkeepers and others who, according to the Provisions of the Mutiny Act, are liable to have Soldiers billeted upon them, shall in like Manner be subject to have the Permanent Staff of the Militia, when disembodied, billeted upon them, and in default of their providing convenient Lodging with Fire and Candle as prescribed in the Ninety-fourth Section of the Forty-second George the Third, Chapter Ninety, shall be liable to the Penalties imposed upon Civil Subjects offending against the Laws relating to Billets prescribed by the Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion.

Permanent Staff to be billeted.

XLIII. All Things in this Act contained relating to Counties, and to Regiments of Militia respectively, shall be construed to extend to all Ridings, Shires, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, and to all Battalions, Corps, and independent Companies respectively, and to the Corps of Miners of Cornwall and Devon.

All Things in this Act relating to Counties, &c.
shall extend to Ridings, &c.

XLIV. This Act shall take effect and continue in force from the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three until the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Redemption and Purchase of the Land Tax in Great Britain.

[20th August 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to restrict the Redemption and Purchase of the Land Tax in Great Britain to Persons having an Estate or Interest in the Lands or Hereditaments whereon such Land Tax is charged: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

I. From and after the passing of this Act the Redemption and Purchase of Land Tax in Great Britain shall be subject to the Provisions herein-after contained: No Body Politic or Corporate, nor any Person whatever, shall be entitled to redeem or purchase any Land Tax, except such Bodies Politic and Corporate and Persons respectively having an Estate or Interest in the Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments whereon such Land Tax is or shall be charged, and to whom Preference in the Redemption of Land Tax was given for a limited Period by the Act passed in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and sixteen.

Redemption of Land Tax restricted to Persons having an Interest in the Property.

II. Upon the Completion of any Contract entered into after the passing of this Act for the Redemption of Land Tax, and upon the Transfer or Payment of the Consideration for the same, the Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments comprised in such Contract shall be wholly freed and exonerated from the Land Tax charged thereon, and from all further Assessments thereof, and from any yearly Term, Rent, or Rentcharge in respect of any Consideration for such Contract.

An Act to amend an Act of the Seventh Year of Her Majesty for the better Apprehension of certain Offenders.

[20th August 1853.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of Her Majesty (Chapter Thirty-four), "for the better Apprehension of certain Offenders," it is provided, that it shall not be lawful for any Person to endorse his Name upon any such Warrant as therein mentioned, for the Purpose of authorizing the Apprehension of any Person under that Act, unless it shall appear upon the Face of the said Warrant that the Offence which the Person for whose Apprehension the said Warrant has been issued is charged to have committed is such that, if committed within that Part of Her Majesty's Dominions where the Warrant is so endorsed, it would have amounted in Law to a Treason, or some Felony such as the Justices of the Peace in General or Quarter Sessions assembled have not Authority to try in England under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to define the Jurisdiction of Justices in General and Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or unless the Depositions appear sufficient to warrant the Committal of such Person for Trial: And whereas it is expedient that the Provisions of the said Act should be extended to Persons charged with any Felony: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the recited Enactment shall hereafter be read and construed as if the Words "such as the Justices of the Peace in General or Quarter Sessions assembled have not Authority to try in England under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to define the Jurisdiction of Justices in General and Quarter Sessions of the Peace," had been omitted therein.

An Act for the Suppression of Betting Houses.

[20th August 1853.]

WHEREAS a kind of Gaming has of late sprung up tending to the Injury and Demoralisation of improvident Persons by the opening of Places called Betting Houses or Offices, and

' the receiving of Money in advance by the Owners or Occupiers of such Houses or Offices, or by other Persons acting on their Behalf, on their Promises to pay Money on Events of Horse Races and the like Contingencies : ' For the Suppression thereof, he is enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

No House, &c. to be kept for Purpose of Owner or Occu-pier betting with other Persons.

I. No House, Office, Room, or other Place shall be opened, kept, or used for the Purpose of the Owner, Occupier, or Keeper thereof, or any Person using the same, or any Person procured or employed by or acting for or on behalf of such Owner, Occupier, or Keeper, or Person using the same, or of any Person having the Care or Management or in any Manner conducting the Business thereof betting with Persons resorting thereto ; or for the Purpose of any Money or valuable Thing being received by or on behalf of such Owner, Occupier, Keeper, or Person as aforesaid as or for the Consideration for any Assurance, Undertaking, Promise, or Agreement, express or implied, to pay or give thereafter any Money or valuable Thing on any Event or Contingency of or relating to any Horse Race, or other Race, Fight, Game, Sport, or Exercise, or as or for the Consideration for securing the paying or giving by some other Person of any Money or valuable Thing on any such Event or Contingency as aforesaid ; and every House, Office, Room, or other Place opened, kept, or used for the Purposes aforesaid, or any of them, is hereby declared to be a common Nuisance and contrary to Law.

Betting Houses to be Gaming Houses within
8 & 9 Vict.
c. 109.

II. Every House, Room, Office, or Place opened, kept, or used for the Purposes aforesaid, or any of them, shall be taken and deemed to be a common Gaming House within the Meaning of an Act of the Session holden in the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and nine, "to amend the Law concerning Games and Wagers."

Penalty on Owner or Occu-pier of Betting
House.

III. Any Person who being the Owner or Occupier of any House, Office, Room, or other Place, or a Person using the same, shall open, keep, or use the same for the Purposes herein-before mentioned, or either of them ; and any Person who being the Owner or Occupier of any House, Room, Office, or other Place shall knowingly and wilfully permit the same to be opened, kept, or used by any other Person for the Purposes aforesaid, or either of them ; and any Person having the Care or Management of or in any Manner assisting in conducting the Business of any House, Office, Room, or Place opened, kept, or used for the Purposes aforesaid, or either of them, shall, on summary Conviction thereof before any Two Justices of the Peace, be liable to forfeit and pay such Penalty, not exceeding One hundred Pounds, as shall be adjudged by such Justices, and may be further adjudged by such Justices to pay such Costs attending such Conviction as to the said Justices shall seem reasonable ; and on the Nonpayment of such Penalty and Costs, or in the first instance, if to the said Justices it shall seem fit, may be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, with or without Hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding Six Calendar Months.

IV. Any Person, being the Owner or Occupier of any House, Office, Room, or Place opened, kept, or used for the Purposes aforesaid, or either of them, or any Person acting for or on behalf of any such Owner or Occupier, or any Person having the Care or Management or in any Manner assisting in conducting the Business thereof, who shall receive, directly or indirectly, any Money or valuable Thing as a Deposit on any Bet on condition of paying any Sum of Money or other valuable Thing on the happening of any Event or Contingency of or relating to a Horse Race or any other Race, or any Fight, Game, Sport, or Exercise, or as or for the Consideration for any Assurance, Undertaking, Promise, or Agreement, express or implied, to pay or give thereafter any Money or valuable Thing on any such Event or Contingency, and any Person giving any Acknowledgment, Note, Security, or Draft on the Receipt of any Money or valuable Thing so paid or given as aforesaid purporting or intended to entitle the Bearer or any other Person to receive any Money or valuable Thing on the happening of any such Event or Contingency as aforesaid, shall, upon summary Conviction thereof before Two Justices of the Peace, forfeit and pay such Penalty, not exceeding Fifty Pounds, as shall be adjudged by such Justices, and may be further adjudged by such Justices to pay such Costs attending such Conviction as to the said Justices shall seem reasonable; and on the Nonpayment of such Penalty and Costs, or in the first instance if to such Justices it shall seem fit, may be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, with or without Hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding Three Calendar Months.

V. Any Money or valuable Thing received by any such Person aforesaid as a Deposit on any Bet, or as or for the Consideration for any such Assurance, Undertaking, Promise, or Agreement as aforesaid, shall be deemed to have been received to or for the Use of the Person from whom the same was received, and such Money or valuable Thing, or the Value thereof, may be recovered accordingly, with full Costs of Suit, in any Court of competent Jurisdiction.

VI. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to any Person receiving or holding any Money or valuable Thing by way of Stakes or Deposit to be paid to the Winner of any Race, or lawful Sport, Game, or Exercise, or to the Owner of any Horse engaged in any Race.

VII. Any Person exhibiting or publishing or causing to be exhibited or published any Placard, Handbill, Card, Writing, Sign, or Advertisement whereby it shall be made to appear that any House, Office, Room, or Place is opened, kept, or used for the Purpose of making Bets or Wagers, in manner aforesaid, or for the Purpose of exhibiting Lists for betting, or with Intent to induce any Person to resort to such House, Office, Room, or Place for the Purpose of making Bets or Wagers, in manner aforesaid, or any Person who, on behalf of the Owner or Occupier of any such House, Office, Room, or Place, or Person using the same, shall invite other Persons to resort thereto for the Purpose of making Bets or Wagers, in manner aforesaid, shall, upon summary Conviction thereof before Two Justices of the Peace, forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Thirty Pounds, and may be further Penalty on Persons receiving Money on condition of paying Money on Event of any Bet.

Money so received may be recovered from Persons receiving the same.

This Act not to extend to Stakes due to Owner of Horse winning a Race.

adjudged by such Justices to pay such Costs attending such Conviction as to the said Justices shall seem reasonable; and on the Nonpayment of such Penalty and Costs, or in the first instance if to such Justices it shall seem fit, may be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, with or without Hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding Two Calendar Months.

Penalties and Costs may be levied by Distress.

VIII. If any Person convicted under this Act on Information before Justices shall be adjudged to pay any Penalty, or any Costs and Charges attending the Conviction, and shall fail to pay such Penalty or Costs, the same may be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of One of the convicting Justices: Provided always, that if any Person shall be committed to Prison for default of Payment of any Penalty and Costs, then the Costs alone may be levied by Distress as aforesaid.

Application of Penalties.

IX. One Half of every pecuniary Penalty which shall be adjudged to be paid under this Act shall be paid to the Informer, and the remaining Half shall be applied in aid of the Poor Rate of the Parish in which the Offence shall have been committed, and shall be paid for that Purpose to the Overseer or other Person authorized to receive Poor Rates in such Parish, or if the Place wherein the Offence shall have been committed shall be extra-parochial, then the Justices by whom such Penalty shall be adjudged to be paid shall direct such remaining Half thereof to be applied in aid of the Poor Rate of such extra parochial Place, or, if there shall not be any Poor Rate therein, in aid of the Poor Rate of any adjoining Parish or District.

On Neglect to prosecute any Summons Justices may authorize some other Person to proceed.

X. In case any Person who shall have laid any Complaint or Information in respect of any Offence against this Act shall not appear at the Time at which the Defendant may have been summoned to appear, or at any Time to which the Hearing of the Summons may have been adjourned, or, in the Opinion of any Justices having Authority to adjudicate with respect to the Offence charged in such Information or Complaint as aforesaid, shall otherwise have neglected to proceed upon or prosecute such Information or Complaint with due Diligence, it shall be lawful for such Justices to authorize any other Person to proceed on such Summons instead of the Person to whom the same may have been granted, or, if such Justices think fit, to dismiss the Summons already granted, and authorize any Person to take out a fresh Summons in respect of the Offence charged in such Information or Complaint, in like Manner as if the previous Summons had not been granted.

Justices may authorize Search of suspected Houses,

XI. It shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, upon Complaint made before him on Oath that there is reason to suspect any House, Office, Room, or Place to be kept or used as a Betting House or Office, contrary to this Act, to give Authority by special Warrant under his Hand, when in his Discretion he shall think fit, to any Constable or Police Officer, to enter, with such Assistance as may be found necessary, into such House, Office, Room, or Place, and, if necessary, to use Force for making such Entry, whether by breaking open Doors or otherwise, and to arrest, search, and bring before a Justice of the Peace all such Persons found therein, and to seize all Lists, Cards, or other Documents relating relating to racing or betting found in such House or Premises; and any such Warrant may be according to the Form given in the First Schedule annexed to the before-mentioned Act "to amend the Law concerning Games and Wagers."

XII. If any Superintendent belonging to the Metropolitan Police Force shall report in Writing to the Commissioners of Police of the Metropolis that there are good grounds for believing and that he does believe that any House, Office, Room, or Place within the Metropolitan Police District is kept or used as a Betting House or Office, contrary to this Act, it shall be lawful for either of the said Commissioners by Order in Writing to authorize the Superintendent to enter any such House, Office, Room, or Place, with such Constables as shall be directed by the Commissioner to accompany him, and, if necessary, to use Force for the Purpose of effecting such Entry, whether by breaking open Doors or otherwise, and to take into Custody all Persons who shall be found therein, and to seize all Lists, Cards, or other Documents relating to racing or betting found in such House or Premises.

Commissioner of Police may authorize Superintendent of Police to enter and search suspected Houses.

XIII. Any Person who shall be summarily convicted under this Act may appeal to the next General or Quarter Session of the Peace to be holden for the County or Place wherein the Cause of Complaint shall have arisen, provided that such Person at the Time of the Conviction give Notice of his Intention to appeal, and shall at the Time of such Conviction, or within Forty-eight Hours thereafter, enter into a Recognizance with Two sufficient Securities conditioned personally to appear at the said Session to try such Appeal, and to abide the further Judgment of the Court at such Session, and to pay such Costs as shall be by the last-mentioned Court awarded; and it shall be lawful for the Magistrate or Justices by whom such Conviction shall have been made to bind over any Party who shall have made Information against the Party convicted, and any Witnesses who shall have been examined, in sufficient Recognizances to attend and be examined at the Hearing of such Appeal; and every such Witness, on producing a Certificate of being so bound under the Hand of the said Magistrate or Justices, shall be allowed Compensation for his or her Time, Trouble, and Expenses in attending the Appeal, which Compensation shall be paid in the first instance by the Treasurer of the County or Place in like Manner as in Cases of Misdemeanor under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for improving the Administration of Criminal Justice in England; and in case any such Appeal shall be dismissed and the Order or Conviction affirmed, the reasonable Expenses of all such Witnesses attending as aforesaid, to be ascertained by the Court, shall be repaid to the said Treasurer by the Appellant.

Appeal to Quarter Sessions.

7 & 8 G. 4.
c. 28.

XIV. On any such Appeal no Objection shall be allowed to the Information whereon the Conviction has taken place, or to such Conviction, on any Matter of Form or on any Insufficiency of Statement, provided it shall appear to the Justices in Quarter Sessions that the Defendant has been sufficiently informed of the Charge intended to be made against him, and that such Conviction was proper on the Merits of the Case; and no Information, Conviction, or Judgment of the Justices in General or Quarter Sessions shall be removed by Certiorari into the Court of Queen's Bench.

No Objection in Matter of Form and Certiorari taken away.

Distress not unlawful for Want of Form.

XV. When any Distress shall be made for any Money to be levied by virtue of the Warrant of any Justice under this Act, the Distress shall not be deemed unlawful, nor shall any Party making the same be deemed a Trespasser, on account of any Defect or Want of Form in the Information, Summons, Warrant of Apprehension, Conviction, Warrant of Distress, or other Proceeding relating thereto, nor shall such Party be deemed a Trespasser from the Beginning on account of any Irregularity which shall be afterwards committed by him, but all Persons aggrieved by such Defect or Irregularity may recover full Satisfaction for the special Damage by an Action on the Case in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record.

Tender of Amends, &c.

XVI. No Plaintiff shall recover in any Action for any Irregularity, Trespass, or other wrongful Proceeding made or committed in the Execution of this Act, or in, under, or by virtue of any Authority hereby given, if Tender of sufficient Amends shall have been made by or on behalf of the Party who shall have committed such Irregularity, Trespass, or other wrongful Proceeding before such Action brought, and in case no Tender shall have been made it shall be lawful for the Defendant in any such Action, by Leave of the Court where such Action shall depend, at any Time before Issue joined, to pay into Court such Sum of Money as he shall think fit, whereupon such Proceeding, Order, and Adjudication shall be had and made in and by such Court as in other Actions where Defendants are allowed to pay Money into Court.

Limitation of Actions.

XVII. No Action, Suit, or Information, or any other Proceeding, of what Nature soever, shall be brought against any Person for anything done or omitted to be done in pursuance of this Act, or in the Execution of the Authorities under this Act, unless Notice in Writing shall be given by the Party intending to prosecute such Suit, Information, or other Proceeding to the intended Defendant One Calendar Month at least before prosecuting the same, nor unless such Action, Suit, Information, or other Proceeding shall be brought or commenced within Three Calendar Months next after the Act or Omission complained of, or in case there shall be a Continuation of Damage then within Three Calendar Months next after the doing such Damage shall have ceased.

Interpretation of Terms.

XVIII. In Ireland the Term "Metropolitan Police Force," and the Terms "Commissioners of the Police of the Metropolis," and the Terms "Metropolitan Police District" shall mean and include respectively the Dublin Metropolitan Police Force, the Commissioners of Police of Dublin Metropolis, and the Police District of Dublin Metropolis.

An Act for providing Places of Confinement in England or Wales for Female Offenders under Sentence or Order of Transportation. [20th August 1853.]

5 G. 4. c. 84.

‘ WHEREAS by Section Ten of an Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-four, it was enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty from Time to Time, by Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, to appoint Places of Confinement within England or Wales, either at Land, or on board Vessels to be provided by His Majesty in the River Thames or some other River or within the Limits of some Port or Harbour of England or Wales, for the Confinement of Male Offenders under Sentence or Order of Transportation, which should be under the Management of a Superintendent and Overseer to be appointed by His Majesty; and that it should be lawful for One of His Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State to direct the Removal of any Male Offender who should be under Sentence of Death, but who should be reprieved, or whose Sentence should be respited during His Majesty’s Pleasure, or who should be under Sentence or Order of Transportation, to any of the Places of Confinement so appointed; and by the said Act it was enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty to appoint a Superintendent of the said Places of Confinement, and, in case it should be deemed expedient, also an Assistant or Deputy to such Superintendent, at One or more of the said Places of Confinement, and also an Overseer of each such Place of Confinement: And whereas by an Act of the Session holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Twenty-six, it was enacted, that upon the next Vacancy in the Office of Superintendent of Convicts in England under Sentence or Order of Transportation, so much of the said Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth as provides for the Appointment of such Superintendent by Her Majesty, or any Overseer or Assistant or Deputy to such Superintendent, should be repealed, and that all Male Offenders in England under Sentence or Order of Transportation should be thenceforth in the Custody and Management of such Person or Persons as should be for that Purpose appointed by One of Her Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State, and that the Provisions of the said Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth, not altered by the Act now in recital, with respect to the Superintendent and Overseer having Custody of any Offenders under the said Act, should apply to the Persons severally having the Custody and Management of such Offenders under the said Act now in recital: And whereas by an Act of the Session holden in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-nine, all such of the Powers and Duties theretofore vested in and to be performed by the said Superintendent of Convicts as by the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty were transferred to the Person or Persons having the Custody and Management of such Offenders as aforesaid under that Act, were by the Act now in recital transferred to the Directors of Convict Prisons to be appointed

' appointed thereunder, and all or any of the Powers and Duties
' of the said Superintendent of Convicts thereby transferred to ' the said Directors were thereby authorized to be exercised and ' performed by any One of such Directors: And whereas it is ' expedient that Places of Confinement should be appointed in ' England or Wales for Female Offenders under Sentence or Order ' of Transportation: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. All the Powers and Provisions contained in Section Ten of the said Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth, authorizing the Appointment by Her Majesty from Time to Time of Places of Confinement as therein mentioned for Male Offenders
under Sentence or Order of Transportation, and concerning the Removal to or from and Confinement in such Places of Confinement of Male Offenders in the Cases therein mentioned, shall extend and be applicable to and for the Appointment by Her Majesty of like Places of Confinement for Female Offenders under Sentence or Order of Transportation, and the Removal to or from and Confinement in such Places of Female Offenders in the like Cases; and all the Provisions now in force of the Acts herein recited, and of any other Act, concerning or relating to the Regulation and Government of the Places of Confinement appointed under the Authority contained in Section Ten of the said Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth, and the Custody, Treatment, Management, and Control of or otherwise in relation to the Offenders confined therein, shall extend and be applicable to and in respect of the Places of Confinement appointed under this Act, and the Female Offenders to be confined therein.

 rizing the Appointment by Her Majesty from Time to Time of Places of Confinement as therein mentioned for Male Offenders
 under Sentence or Order of Transportation, and concerning the Removal to or from and Confinement in such Places of Confinement of Male Offenders in the Cases therein mentioned, shall extend and be applicable to and for the Appointment by Her Majesty of like Places of Confinement for Female Offenders under Sentence or Order of Transportation, and the Removal to or from
 and Confinement in such Places of Female Offenders in the like Cases; and all the Provisions now in force of the Acts herein recited, and of any other Act, concerning or relating to the Regulation and Government of the Places of Confinement appointed under the Authority contained in Section Ten of the said Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth, and the Custody, Treatment, Management, and Control of or otherwise in relation to the Offenders confined therein, shall extend and be applicable to and in respect of the Places of Confinement appointed under this Act, and the Female Offenders to be confined therein.

 Funds otherwise than as required by 13 & 14 Vict.
 c. 115.

I. Any Friendly Society duly established under any Act of Parliament, and which is empowered by its Rules to assure to or on the Death of any Person a Sum exceeding Two hundred Pounds, or to grant an Annuity on any Life exceeding Thirty Pounds per Annum, may invest the Funds of such Society after the passing of this Act, not only in the Manner and upon the Securities mentioned in the Twelfth Section of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her present Majesty, but also upon the Security of any Rates, Tolls, Duties, Assessments, Bonds, Debentures, or other Securities of any Body or Company incorporated by Act of Parliament

liament or Charter which such Body or Company is authorized by such Act or Charter to raise, levy, or mortgage, or on the Security of any Policy or Policies of Assurance effected upon a Life or Lives of adequate Value.

II. If any such Society shall invest any Portion of its Funds which may now by Law be invested with the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt in any of the Securities enumerated in this Act, it shall not be lawful for such Society to invest thereafter any further Portion of the Funds of such Society with the said Commissioners.

III. No such Friendly Society which previously to the passing of this Act has not opened on Account with the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall be allowed, after the passing of this Act, to invest its Funds or any Part thereof with the said Commissioners, Societies not to invest under this Act and with National Debt Commissioners.

If Societies have no Account with said Commissioners, none to be opened.

An Act to confirm certain Provisional Orders of the General Board of Health for Accrington, Bangor, and Uzbridge, and to provide for conducting the First Election of a Local Board of Health at Elland. [20th August 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS the General Board of Health have, in pursuance of the Public Health Act, 1848, made, published, and deposited, according to the Provisions of that Act, certain Provisional Orders contained in the Schedule annexed; and it is expedient that the said Orders should be confirmed: And whereas a Provisional Order applying the Public Health Act, 1848, to the District of Elland was duly confirmed by “The Public Health Supplemental Act, 1853 (No. 1.)” in which Order David Meredith, Clerk, and George Bayldon Baker were respectively named to conduct the First Election of a Local Board for the said District and discharge the other Duties pertaining to such Election: And whereas the said David Meredith died before the Time appointed for such Election, and the said George Bayldon Baker has left the said District, so as to be unable to conduct the said Election and perform the said Duties, by reason of which no such Election has or could legally have taken place: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Persons to conduct First Election of the Local Board of Health for Elland.

I. The Reverend Edward Sandford of Elland shall be substituted for David Meredith, Clerk, and Charles Musgrave Norris Esquire, of Elland aforesaid, for George Bayldon Baker, to conduct the First Election of the Local Board for the District of Elland, and to perform all Duties appertaining thereto, under the Public Health Act, and the Day of such First Election shall be the Thirty-first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, anything in the “Public Health Supplemental Act, 1853 (No. 1.)” contained to the contrary notwithstanding; and the Provisional Order applying the said Public Health Act to the said District shall be construed as if the Names of the said Edward Sandford and Charles Musgrave Norris stood in the Place of those of the said David Meredith and the said George Bayldon Baker respectively, in the Provisional Order hereinbefore recited.

II. The

' Fourpence, making together the Sum of Ninety-nine thousand
 ' six hundred and thirteen Pounds One Shilling and Fourpence :
 ' And whereas it is expedient that the Amount of the Money ' borrowed, raised, and taken up, and to be borrowed, raised, and ' taken up on the Security of the Rates by the said recited Acts
 ' and this Act authorized to be made, and of the Money so due
 ' and owing in respect of the said Securities, should be limited :
 Be it therefore enacted, That the Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds, including therein the said Sum of Ninety-nine thousand six hundred and thirteen Pounds One Shilling and Fourpence so due and owing by the said Commissioners as aforesaid, shall be the Limit and Extent of the Debt due and owing on the Security of the said Rates at any One and the same Period of Time : Provided always, that in case the whole or any Part of the said Debt shall at any Time be called in or required to be paid off and discharged, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners from Time to Time to borrow and take up, on the Security of the said Rates, any Sum or Sums in lieu of so much of the said Debt as shall have been so called in or required to be paid off and discharged; but so that, after Payment or Satisfaction of the Money so called in or required to be paid off and discharged, the said Limit of Three hundred thousand Pounds shall not be exceeded; and in estimating the Amount of Money at any Time due and owing upon the Security of the said Rates, the Amount due in respect of every Annuity granted by the said Commissioners, and then subsisting, shall be reckoned at the just Value of such Annuity, according to the Number of Years then remaining unexpired of the Term for which, or (as the Case may be), the increased Age of the Person upon whose Life the same shall have been granted.

III. No Person lending Money to the Commissioners shall be bound to see or obliged to inquire whether the Money so lent is required for the Purposes of the said recited Acts or this Act, nor to see to the Application of the Money so lent, but the Order of the Commissioners for borrowing such Money, and the Entry upon the Register of the Mortgage or Annuity which shall or may have been granted for securing the Payment thereof, shall be binding and conclusive upon all Parties.

Persons lending Money.

IV. Notwithstanding any Act shall not pass for the Renewal or Continuance of the said Acts, and this Act, or in case a Commission or Commissions of Sewers for the Limits aforesaid shall not be issued, all Mortgages and Annuities which shall or may have been granted under the Authority of the said Acts or this Act, and which shall for the Time being be existing and unredeemed, shall be and continue valid and in full force, and shall be and continue charged on the Districts upon which the same were originally charged; and the Justices of the Peace for the several Counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Kent, and Essex, in Quarter Sessions assembled, shall as to the Parts within the Limits of the Commission or Commissions aforesaid subject to their respective Jurisdictions, make, collect, demand, and levy, and exercise all and every the Powers and Authorities for and with reference to the making, demanding, collecting, and levying all and every such Rate and Rates, for the Payment of the Principal Money borrowed under

Securities to continue valid.

Areas, and the existing Municipal, Parochial, or other Local Boundaries, and the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the Act :

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given Notices directed by the said Act, proceeded upon the said Inquiry in the Manner directed by the said Act, and has reported in Writing to the said General Board upon the several Matters with respect to which he was directed to inquire, and upon certain other Matters in respect of which he deemed it expedient to report for the Purposes of that Act :

And whereas Copies of the said Report, accompanied by a Notice stating that within the Time directed by the said Act written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed, and all such Statements as have been received by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by that Act :

And whereas it having appeared to the said General Board that the Townships of Old and New Accrington might advantageously be included in One District, the said Board caused William Ranger, a Superintending Inspector, appointed for the Purposes of the aforesaid Act, to visit the Parts within the Boundaries so proposed to be adopted for the Purposes of the said Act, and to make further Inquiry and Report thereon according to the Provisions of that Act :

And whereas the said last-mentioned Superintending Inspector, after having given such Notice as is required by the said Act, did hear all Persons desirous of being heard before him on the Subject of the said Report, and did make further Inquiry and Report according to the Directions of the said Board :

And whereas Copies of such further Report, accompanied by a Notice stating that within the Time directed by the said Act written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said further Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed, and all such Statements as have been required by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by that Act :

And whereas it appears to the said General Board to be expedient that the said Public Health Act, except as herein-after mentioned, should be applied to a District comprising the Townships of Old and New, Accrington, such Townships being the Parts within and with respect to which the said Inquiry and further Inquiry have been made :

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the Powers vested in the said Board by the Public Health Act, 1848, We, the said General Board of Health, do, by this Provisional Order, under our Hand and Seal, order and direct :—

1. That from and after the Day fixed for the First Election and Selection of the Local Board of Health by any Act of Parliament confirming this present Order, the Public Health Act,

- Act, and every Part thereof, except the Section numbered 50 in the Copies of that Act printed by Her Majesty's Printers, shall apply to and be in force within and throughout the entire Area, Places, and Parts of Places comprised within the said Townships of Old and New Accrington in the County of Lancaster, and such Area, Places, and Parts of Places shall be and constitute a District, for the Purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly.
2. That the Local Board of Health, to be elected under the said Public Health Act, shall consist of Eighteen Persons, the whole of whom shall be elected for the whole of the said District.
 3. That One Third of the said Members shall go out of Office on the 1st Day of September in each Year subsequently to that in which the First Election of the said Local Board shall take place.
 4. That every Person shall, at the Time of his Election as Member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in Office by virtue of such Election, be resident as in the Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seised and possessed of Real or Personal Estate, or both, to the Value or Amount of not less than Five hundred Pounds, or shall be so resident and rated to the Relief of the Poor of some Parish, Township, or Place of which some Part is within the said District, upon the net annual Value of not less than Fifteen Pounds.
 5. That at the First Election of Members of the said Local Board, Robert Hargreaves of Bank House, Accrington, shall have the Powers and perform the Duties vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to any Election by Owners of Property and Ratepayers, and shall perform all other Duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said First Election ; and in case the said Robert Hargreaves, from Illness or other sufficient Cause, shall be unable to exercise or discharge such Powers or Duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then James Grimshaw, Plantation Mills, Accrington, shall exercise and perform such of the said Powers and Duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.
 6. That the Fourteen Days Notice of Qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by Owners of Property in order to entitle him to vote at the said First Election shall be given to the said Robert Hargreaves at the Court House, or in case he shall refuse or be unable to receive the same, then to the said James Grimshaw, at the Court House.

Given under our Hands and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this Twenty-third Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

BANGOR.

Provisional Order for altering the Boundaries of the District of Bangor in the County of Carnarvon, as constituted for the Purposes of the Public Health Act, 1848.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS by Order of Her Majesty, by and with the Advice of Her Privy Council, bearing date the 14th Day of August 1850, and made under the Provisions of the Public Health Act, 1848, the said Public Health Act has been duly applied to the Parliamentary Borough of Bangor in the County of Carnarvon, and within the Boundaries of the same Borough, as fixed for the Purposes of an Act passed in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to settle and describe the Divisions of Counties and the Limits of Cities and Boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the Election of Members to serve in Parliament:"

And whereas it appears to the General Board of Health appointed for the Purposes of the said Act, that the Boundaries of the said District, as determined by the said Order, should be altered and amended in the Manner prescribed by the said Act :

And whereas the said General Board have, in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Act, directed Thomas Webster Rammell, a Superintending Inspector appointed for the Purposes of the said Act, to visit the said District, and to make public Inquiry, and to examine Witnesses as to the Boundaries, not being the Boundaries of the said Borough so fixed as aforesaid, which might most advantageously be adopted for the Purposes of the said Act :

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the Notices directed by the said Public Health Act, proceeded upon the said further Inquiry in the Manner directed by the said Act, and hath reported in Writing to the said General Board upon the said Matter with respect to which he was directed to inquire :

And whereas Copies of the Report on such further Inquiry, accompanied by a Notice stating that written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the said Public Health Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed, and all such Statements as have been received by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by that Act :

And whereas the Alteration of the Boundaries of the said District cannot be effected without the Authority of Parliament :

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the Power vested in the said General Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, We, the said General Board of Health, do, by this Provisional Order under our Hands and Seal of Office, order and direct as follows; that is to say:—

That from and after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this present Order—

1. The Boundary of the said District for the Purposes of the said Public Health Act shall be the Boundary described in in the Schedule to this Order, and marked by the dotted Lines referred to as the "Existing Boundary of Borough," and "Proposed Extended Boundary" in the Plan appended to and forming Part of the Report of the said Superintending Inspector on such further Inquiry as aforesaid.

2. That from and after the Day appointed by the Act of Parliament confirming this present Order for the First Election of the Local Board of Health for the District hereby constituted, the Public Health Act, 1848, and every Part thereof, except the Section numbered 50 in the Copies of that Act printed by Her Majesty's Printers, shall apply to and be in force within and throughout the entire Area comprised within the Boundary aforesaid; and that the Parts within the said Boundary shall be and constitute a District for the Purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly, under the Name of the "Bangor District."
3. The present Local Board of Health for the Time being for the District of Bangor, as originally constituted by the herein-before recited Order in Council, shall, from and after the passing of the Act of Parliament confirming this Order, be the Local Board of Health for the District constituted by this Order and the Act of Parliament confirming the same.
4. At every Election of Members of the said Local Board which shall take place after the passing of the Act of Parliament confirming this Order, the Members to be elected shall be elected for the whole of the District constituted by this Order, and by the Votes of Owners of and Ratepayers in respect of Property situate within the said District; and any Person residing in the said District, or within Seven Miles thereof, may be elected a Member of the said Local Board; but the Number and Qualification of such Members, and the Day of such Election, shall remain as fixed by the herein-before recited Order in Council, bearing Date the 14th Day of August 1850.

Given under our Hands and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this Fourteenth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

EDWIN CHADWICK.
T. SOUTHWOOD SMITH.

Schedule to which this Order refers.

The Boundary of the District of the Local Board of Health of Bangor, constituted by the preceding Order, commences at the extreme North-western Point of the present District, being on the Sea Shore at or near Low-water Mark, and thence the Line runs Westward along the Sea Shore as far as the Old Bangor Ferry Road; thence in a South-eastern Direction along the Left-hand Side of that Road, as far as Penychwintan; thence along the Left-hand Side of the Road, passing by the Glanadda Brewery to the Junction of that Road with the Turnpike Road leading from Bangor to Carnarvon ; thence across such Turnpike Road, and along the Left-hand Side of the Road leading to Pentir, as far as the Cross Road at Minfordd ; thence along the Left-hand Side of such Cross Road to the Road leading from Bangor to Glasynfryn ; thence Southward along the Left-hand Side of that Road as far as the nearest Road leading down to the River Cegin ; thence along the Left-hand Side of that Road, and across the River Cegin ; thence Northward, along the Right Bank of the River Cegin, as far as the Intersection by that River of the present Boundary ; and thence towards the Sea Shore along the present Boundary to the first-mentioned Point.

UXBRIDGE.

Provisional Order for altering the Boundaries of the District of Uxbridge in the County of Middlesex, as constituted for the Purposes of the Public Health Act, 1848.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS by a Provisional Order of the General Board of Health, bearing Date the 23d Day of July 1849, made under the Provisions of the Public Health Act, 1848, and confirmed by the Public Health Supplemental Act, 1849, the said Public Health Act has been duly applied to the District of Uxbridge in the County of Middlesex :

And whereas it appears to the General Board of Health appointed for the Purposes of the said Act, that the Boundaries of the said District, as determined by the said Order, should be altered and amended in the Manner prescribed by the said Act :

And whereas the said General Board have, in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Act, directed William Ranger, a Superintending Inspector appointed for the Purposes of the said Act, to visit the said District, and to make further public Inquiry, and to examine Witnesses, as to the altered Boundaries which might most advantageously be adopted for the Purposes of the said Act :

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the Notices directed by the said Act, proceeded upon the said further Inquiry in the Manner directed by the said Act, and hath reported in Writing to the said General Board upon the said Matter with respect to which he was directed to inquire :

And whereas Copies of the Report on such further Inquiry, accompanied by a Notice stating that written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the said Public Health Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed, and all such Statements as have been received by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by that Act :

And whereas it appears to the said General Board to be expedient that the Boundaries of the said District should be altered, as recommended by the said Superintending Inspector, but the same cannot be done without the Authority of Parliament :

Now,

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the Power vested in the said General Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, We, the said General Board of Health, do, by this Provisional Order under our Hands and Seal of Office, order and direct as follows; that is to say:

That from and after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this present Order—

1. The Boundary of the said District for the Purposes of the said Public Health Act shall be the Boundary described in the Schedule to this Order.
2. That from and after the Day appointed by the Act of Parliament confirming this present Order for the First Election of the Local Board of Health for the District hereby constituted, the Public Health Act, 1848, and every Part thereof, except the Section numbered 50 in the Copies of that Act printed by Her Majesty's Printers, shall apply to and be in force within and throughout the entire Area comprised within the Boundary aforesaid; and that the Parts within the said Boundary shall be and constitute a District for the Purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly, under the Name of the "Uxbridge District;" and the firstly herein-before mentioned Provisional Order shall be and the same is hereby declared to be void and of none Effect, except as to the Re-enactment of any Part of any Local Act repealed by such Order, but that for Purposes of such Repeal the said Order shall continue effectual.
3. That from and after the Day fixed for the First Election of a Local Board of Health for the District hereby constituted by any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, the existing Local Board of Health for the District of Uxbridge, as constituted by the firstly herein-before mentioned Provisional Order, shall be dissolved, and the Powers, Authorities, and Duties of the Members of the said Board shall wholly cease and determine; and those of their Treasurer, Clerk, Surveyor, Inspector of Nuisances, Collector, or other Officers shall cease and determine from any Time appointed by the Local Board to be elected under this Order and the Act of Parliament confirming the same.
4. That the Local Board of Health for the District to be constituted by this Order, and the Act of Parliament confirming the same, shall consist of Eighteen Persons, to be elected for the whole of the said District by the Owners of and Ratepayers in respect of Property within the said District.
5. That every One of the Eighteen Persons so to be elected as last aforesaid shall at the Time of such Election, and so long as he shall continue in Office by virtue of such Election, be resident as in the Public Health Act is required, and be seised or possessed of Real or Personal Estate, or both, to the Value or Amount of not less than Five hundred Pounds, or shall be so resident and rated to the Relief of the Poor of some Parish, Township, or Place,

- of which some Part is within the said District, upon an annual Value of not less than Thirty Pounds.
6. That One Third of the Members of the said Local Board shall go out of Office on the Day after the Expiration of a Year from the Day fixed by the Act of Parliament confirming this Order for the First Election of a Local Board for the District hereby constituted, and so on yearly; but in case the Day so appointed shall fall on a Sunday, or on a Day appointed for public Fast or Thanksgiving, then such One Third shall go out of Office on the Day next following.
 7. That at the First Election of the Members of the said Local Board Thomas Hurry Riches of Uxbridge shall have the Powers and perform the Duties vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the said Public Health Act, in relation to the Election by Owners of Property and Ratepayers, and shall perform all other Duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said First Election; and in case the said Thomas Hurry Riches, from Illness or other sufficient Cause, shall be unable to exercise or discharge such Powers or Duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then Charles Woodbridge of Uxbridge shall exercise and perform such of the said Powers and Duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.
 8. That the Fourteen Days Notice of Qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by Owners of Property in order to entitle them to vote at the said First Election, shall be given to the said Thomas Hurry Riches, at the Office of the present Local Board of Health at Uxbridge; or in case he shall refuse or be unable to receive the same, then to the said Charles Woodbridge at the same Place.
 9. That from and after the Day fixed for the First Election of a Local Board for the District hereby constituted by the Act of Parliament confirming this Order, all Lands, Buildings, Works, Rates, Tolls, Duties, and Hereditaments, Utensils, Materials, Books, Plans, Maps, Deeds, Effects, Contracts, Papers, Monies, and Securities for Money, and all other Property and Estate whatsoever, belonging to or vested in the Local Board of Health elected under the firstly herein-before mentioned Provisional Order, shall be transferred to, vested in, belong to, and be recovered by the Local Board of Health to be elected under this Order and the Act of Parliament confirming the same, as fully as the same would or could have belonged to, been vested in, or recovered by the firstly herein-before mentioned Local Board of Health, and shall, as near as Circumstances will permit, be held by the Local Board of Health to be elected under this Order and the Act of Parliament confirming the same, upon the same Trusts, and for the same Uses, Intents, and Purposes as the same were or would be held by the said firstly herein-before mentioned Local Board.

10. That from and after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, all Bonds, Mortgages, Annuities, Contracts, Debts, Monies, and Securities for Money, made, given, contracted, or payable by the Local Board of Health elected under the firstly herein-before mentioned Provisional Order, shall be paid and satisfied by the Local Board to be elected under this Order and the Act of Parliament confirming the same, out of such Parts of the said transferred Property and Estate as would or ought to have been charged or chargeable in respect of the same, if this Order had not been made; and shall, as near as Circumstances will permit, have the same Priority, and be paid and satisfied within the same Times, and be recovered from the said last-mentioned Local Board as the same might have been recovered from the firstly herein-before mentioned Local Board.
11. Provided always, that this Order shall not annul, defeat, lessen, or otherwise prejudicially affect any Rate, Assessment, Imposition, Composition, Charge, Purchase, Sale, Conveyance, Grant, Demise, Lease, Mortgage, Annuity, Assignment, Bond, Contract, Covenant, Agreement, Security, Matter, or Thing whatsoever before the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order made, entered into, or done under or by virtue or in pursuance of the firstly herein-before mentioned Provisional Order, or with reference to the Purposes of the same; but, notwithstanding this Order, all such Acts, Deeds, Matters, and Things shall be as good, valid, and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, for, against, and with reference to the Local Board of Health to be elected under this Order and the Act of Parliament confirming the same, as if the same had been made, entered into, or done by, to, or with reference to that Board instead of the Members of the Local Board elected under the firstly herein-before mentioned Provisional Order, and may be proceeded on and enforced in the same Manner in all respects as if the Local Board to be elected under this Order and the Act of Parliament confirming the same, instead of the Local Board elected under the firstly herein-before mentioned Provisional Order, had been party or privy to the same, and had been named or referred to therein.

Given under our Hands and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this Fourteenth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

Commencement of Repeal and Grant of Duties.

III. The Repeal of the said several existing Duties, and the Grant in lieu thereof of the said several new Duties by this Act, shall respectively commence and take effect from and after the respective Times following; (that is to say,) as to the said several weekly Duties payable in respect of every such Hackney Carriage as aforesaid from and after the Tenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and as to the said Duty for and upon every such Licence as aforesaid from and after the passing of this Act.

Duties granted to be Duties of Excise under the Care of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

IV. The said Duties by this Act granted shall be denominated and deemed to be Duties of Excise, and shall be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue for the Time being; and all Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Regulations, and Directions, Fines, Forfeitures, and Penalties contained in or enacted by any Act or Acts in force for levying, collecting, and securing the said Duties hereby repealed or any other Duties of Excise, or otherwise in relation thereto in all Cases not herein expressly provided for, and so far as the same are not superseded or expressly repealed by and are consistent with the express Provisions of this Act, shall be duly observed, applied, practised, and put in execution for the granting of Licences under this Act, and for charging, raising, levying, collecting, and securing the said Duties hereby granted, and otherwise relating thereto, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Regulations, Directions, Fines, Forfeitures, and Penalties were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act with reference to the said Duties hereby granted.

Licences granted under 1 & 2 W. 4. c. 22.
to cease, and Hackney Carriages to be licensed under this Act.

V. From and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three every Licence granted and in force under the said Act of the First and Second Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Twenty-two, or any subsequent Act or Acts amending or altering the same, to keep, use, employ, and let to hire any Hackney Carriage at any Place within the Distance of Five Miles from the General Post Office in the City of London, shall cease and determine; and no Hackney Carriage shall be kept, used, employed, or let to hire at any Place within the said Distance or within the Limits of this Act without a Licence authorizing the same granted under this Act.

Persons possessed of Licences in force to keep Hackney Carriages to have new Licences granted to them in exchange.

VI. Provided always, That every Person who shall be possessed of any Licence or Licences granted to him to keep, use, or let to hire any Hackney Carriage within the Distance of Five Miles from the General Post Office in the City of London, and in force at the Time of the passing of this Act, shall be entitled, upon Production of the proper Certificate or Certificates required by Law in that Behalf, to have the same or any less Number of new Licences granted to him under this Act without Payment of the Duty by this Act imposed on every such Licence, provided he shall produce and deliver up to the proper Officers of Excise authorized to grant Licences under this Act the said Licence or Licences of which he shall be so possessed, together with the numbered Plate or Plates appertaining thereto, and shall apply for such new Licence or Licences within the Period of One Calendar Month next after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and such Person shall also be entitled, upon Production uction of such Certificate or Certificates as aforesaid, to have each Licence or Licences renewed under this Act without Payment of the said Duty imposed thereon until the First Monday in the Month of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-even.

VII. Every Licence which shall be granted under this Act to keep, use, and let to hire any Hackney Carriage shall have effect and continue in force from the Day of the Date thereof until the Day herein-after appointed for the Expiration thereof; and every such Licence which shall be granted before the Second Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, shall expire on the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four; and every such Licence which shall be granted upon or at any Time after the said Second Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four shall expire on the First Sunday in the Month of January in the Year next following that in which such Licence shall be granted; and every such Licence shall be renewed from Year to Year on Payment of the Duty by this Act chargeable thereon.

VIII. Provided always, That for and upon every such Licence as aforesaid which shall be taken out after the passing of this Act, and before the Second Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, there shall be charged and paid in respect of the Portion of a Year for which the same will be granted One-fourth Part only of the annual Duty by this Act charged on a yearly Licence.

IX. Every Person who shall be desirous of renewing any such Licence shall give Notice in Writing Twenty-one Days at least before the Expiration of the current Licence to him granted of his intention to renew the same to the proper Collector, Supervisor, or other Officer authorized to grant such Licences; and where such Notice shall have been given the new Licence shall bear Date on the Day next after the Day of the Expiration of the former Licence, but if such Notice shall not have been given the Licence shall bear Date on the Day of the Application for the same.

X. Provided always, That whenever any Licence granted under this Act shall cease or expire or be discontinued, the Person to whom such Licence shall have been granted shall, within Three Days next after the Expiration or Discontinuance thereof, deliver up to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, or to the proper Officers or One of them, by whom such Licence was granted, the numbered Plate mentioned in such Licence, or in default thereof such Person shall continue to be subject and liable to the Payment of the weekly Duty chargeable under this Act in respect of the Hackney Carriage mentioned in such Licence; and such Person shall be charged with the said Duty accordingly to the Time of delivering up the said Plate; and such Duty shall be recoverable by the same Ways and Means as if such Licence had continued in force.

XI. The numbered Plates to be provided by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and to be fixed on Hackney Carriages not authorized by Licence to be used or let to hire on Sundays, shall be distinguished in such Manner as the said Commissioners may think Commencement of Repeal and Grant of Duties.

III. The Repeal of the said several existing Duties, and the Grant in lieu thereof of the said several new Duties by this Act, shall respectively commence and take effect from and after the respective Times following; (that is to say,) as to the said several weekly Duties payable in respect of every such Hackney Carriage as aforesaid from and after the Tenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and as to the said Duty for and upon every such Licence as aforesaid from and after the passing of this Act.

Duties granted to be Duties of Excise under the Care of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

IV. The said Duties by this Act granted shall be denominated and deemed to be Duties of Excise, and shall be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue for the Time being; and all Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Regulations, and Directions, Fines, Forfeitures, and Penalties contained in or enacted by any Act or Acts in force for levying, collecting, and securing the said Duties hereby repealed or any other Duties of Excise, or otherwise in relation thereto in all Cases not herein expressly provided for, and so far as the same are not superseded or expressly repealed by and are consistent with the express Provisions of this Act, shall be duly observed, applied, practised, and put in execution for the granting of Licences under this Act, and for carrying, raising, levying, collecting, and securing the said Duties hereby granted, and otherwise relating thereto, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Regulations, Directions, Fines, Forfeitures, and Penalties were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act with reference to the said Duties hereby granted.

From and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three every Licence granted and in force under the said Act of the First and Second Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Twenty-two, or any subsequent Act amending or altering the same, to keep, use, employ, or let to hire any Hackney Carriage at any Place within the Distance of Five Miles from the General Post Office in the City of London, shall cease and determine; and no Hackney Carriage shall be used, employed, or let to hire at any Place within the said Distance or within the Limits of this Act without a Licence authorizing the same granted under this Act.

Provided always That every Person who shall be possessed of any Licence or Licences granted to him to keep, use, or let to hire any Hackney Carriage within the Distance of Five Miles from the General Post Office in the City of London, and in force at the passing of this Act, shall be entitled, upon Production to the proper Officers of Excise or Certificates required by Law in that behalf made to him under this Act without Payment of the Duty by Law imposed on every such Licence, provided he shall produce and deliver up to the proper Officers of Excise authorized to issue Licences under this Act the said Licence or Licences of which he shall be so possessed, together with the numbered Plate or Plates appertaining thereto, and shall apply for each new Licence or Licences within the Period of One Calendar Month after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and such Person shall also be entitled, upon Production action of such Certificate or Certificates as aforesaid, to have such Licence or Licences renewed under this Act without Payment of the said Duty imposed thereon until the First Monday in the Month of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

VII. Every Licence which shall be granted under this Act to keep, use, and let to hire any Hackney Carriage shall have effect and continue in force from the Day of the Date thereof until the Day herein-after appointed for the Expiration thereof; and every such Licence which shall be granted before the Second Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, shall expire on the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four; and every such Licence which shall be granted upon or at any Time after the said Second Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four shall expire on the First Sunday in the Month of January in the Year next following that in which such Licence shall be granted; and every such Licence shall be renewed from Year to Year on Payment of the Duty by this Act chargeable thereon.

Commencement and Termination of Licences.

VIII. Provided always, That for and upon every such Licence as aforesaid which shall be taken out after the passing of this Act, and before the Second Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, there shall be charged and paid in respect of the Portion of a Year for which the same will be granted One fourth Part only of the annual Duty by this Act charged on a yearly Licence.

A proportionate Part only of the yearly Duty to be charged on Licences taken out before 2d Jan. 1854.

IX. Every Person who shall be desirous of renewing any such Licence shall give Notice in Writing Twenty-one Days at least before the Expiration of the current Licence to him granted of his intention to renew the same to the proper Collector, Supervisor, or other Officer authorized to grant such Licences; and where such Notice shall have been given the new Licence shall bear Date on the Day next after the Day of the Expiration of the former Licence, but if such Notice shall not have been given the Licence shall bear Date on the Day of the Application for the same.

Renewal of Licences.

X. Provided always, That whenever any Licence granted under this Act shall cease or expire or be discontinued, the Person to whom such Licence shall have been granted shall, within Three Days next after the Expiration or Discontinuance thereof, deliver up to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, or to the proper Officers or One of them, by whom such Licence was granted, the Numbered Plate mentioned in such Licence, or in default thereof such Person shall continue to be subject and liable to the Payment of the weekly Duty chargeable under this Act in respect of the Hackney Carriage mentioned in such Licence; and such Person shall be charged with the said Duty accordingly to the Time of delivering up the said Plate; and such Duty shall be recoverable in the same Ways and Means as if such Licence had continued in force.

Numbered Plate to be delivered up on Expiration of Licences, or in default Duty to continue payable.

XI. The numbered Plates to be provided by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and to be fixed on Hackney Carriages not authorized by Licence to be used or let to hire on Sundays, shall be distinguished in such Manner as the said Commissioners may think

c. 120.

XII. 'And whereas, under and by virtue of the Laws in force, Licences for or in respect of Hackney Carriages and for or in respect of certain Stage Carriages are required to be granted at the Chief Office of Inland Revenue, and the Duties payable in respect of such Hackney Carriages and Stage Carriages respectively are required to be paid at the said Chief Office, and it is expedient to make other Provision in that Behalf:

Where Licences for Hackney and Metropolitan Stage Carriages are to be granted and the Duties paid.

It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, from Time to Time to order and direct that all or any of such Licences as aforesaid shall be granted, and that the Duties payable in respect of all or any of such Hackney Carriages and Stage Carriages as aforesaid respectively shall be paid, at such Place or Places within the Limits of this Act as the said Commissioners shall deem to be most proper and convenient for the Purpose, anything in any former Act or Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

1s. a Mile to be paid for every Mile beyond the Circumference of a Circle 4 Miles from Charing Cross.

XIII. It shall be lawful for the Driver of any Hackney Carriage within the Limits of this Act to charge One Shilling per Mile for every Mile (or Part of a Mile) which he shall be required to drive beyond the Circumference of a Circle the Radius of which shall be Four Miles from Charing Cross, provided such Carriage shall be discharged beyond such Circumference, anything contained in the Thirty-third Chapter of an Act of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty. or in the Schedule thereto, notwithstanding.

6d. in addition to Fare for each Person above Two for the whole Hiring.

XIV. An Act to abate the Nuisance arising from the Smoke of Furnaces in the Metropolis and from Steam Vessels above London Bridge. [20th August 1853.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to abate the Nuisance arising from the Smoke of Furnaces in the Metropolis and from Steam Vessels above London Bridge: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. From

Furnaces in the Metropolis to consume their own Smoke.

I. From and after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four every Furnace employed or to be employed in the Metropolis in the working of Engines by Steam, and every Furnace employed or to be employed in any Mill, Factory, Printing House, Dyehouse, Iron Foundry, Glasshouse, Distillery, Brewhouse, Sugar Refinery, Bakehouse, Gasworks, Waterworks, or other Buildings used for the Purpose of Trade or Manufacture within the Metropolis, (although a Steam Engine be not used or employed therein,) shall in all Cases be constructed or altered so as to consume or burn the Smoke arising from such Furnace; and if any Person shall after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four within the Metropolis use any such Furnace which shall not be constructed so as to consume or burn its own Smoke, or shall so negligently use any such Furnace as that the Smoke arising therefrom shall not be effectually consumed or burnt, or shall carry on any Trade or Business which shall occasion any noxious or offensive Effluvia, or otherwise annoy the Neighbourhood or Inhabitants, without using the best practicable Means for preventing or counteracting such Smoke or other Annoyance, every Person so offending, being the Owner or Occupier of the Premises, or being a Foreman or other Person employed by such Owner or Occupier, shall upon a summary Conviction for such Offence before any Justice or Justices, forfeit and pay a Sum not more than Five Pounds nor less than Forty Shillings, and upon a Second Conviction for such Offence the Sum of Ten Pounds, and for each subsequent Conviction a Sum double the Amount of the Penalty imposed for the last preceding Conviction: Provided always, that nothing in this Act shall extend or apply to any Glass Works or Pottery Works established and existing within the Metropolis before the passing of this Act, with the Exception however of all Steam Engine Furnaces and Slip Kiln Furnaces employed in and belonging to such Works respectively, to which Furnaces the Provisions of this Act shall extend and apply.

Steam Vessels on the Thames above London Bridge to consume their own Smoke.

II. From and after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four every Steam Engine and Furnace used in the working of any Steam Vessel on the River Thames above London Bridge shall be constructed so as to consume the Smoke arising from such Engine and Furnace; and if after the said First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four any Steam Engine or Furnace by which any Steam Vessel shall be worked while the same shall be above London Bridge shall not be constructed so as to consume or burn its own Smoke, or such Steam Engine or Furnace which shall be so constructed shall be wilfully or negligently used so that the Smoke arising therefrom shall not be effectually consumed or burnt, the Owner or Master or other Person having Charge of such Vessel shall, on a summary Conviction for such Offence before any Justice or Justices, forfeit and pay any Sum not greater than Five Pounds or less than Forty Shillings, and upon a Second Conviction for such Offence a Sum of Ten Pounds, and upon every other subsequent Conviction for such Offence a Sum double the Amount of the Penalty imposed for the last preceding Conviction.

III. Provided

III. Provided always, That the Words "consume or burn the smoke" shall not be held in all Cases to mean "consume or burn the Smoke," and that the Justice or Justices before whom any Person shall be summoned may remit the Penalties enacted by this Act if he or they shall be of opinion that such Person has so constructed or altered his Furnace as to consume or burn as far as possible all the Smoke arising from such Furnace, and has carefully attended to the same, and consumed or burned as far as possible the Smoke arising from such Furnace.

Penalty not to attach where only Fuel not emitting Smoke is used.

IV. If the Owner or Occupier of any Premises or the Commander of any Steam Vessel to which the Provisions of this Act shall apply shall refuse to allow their Premises or Steam Vessel to be inspected by a Person duly authorized by the Commissioners of Police for that Purpose, it shall be lawful for any Constable authorized by Warrant under the Hand of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, (or in the Metropolitan Police District) by the Order in Writing of the Commissioners of Police of the Metropolis, or (in the City of London or Liberties thereof) by the Order in Writing of the Commissioner of Police of the said City and Liberties, with or without any Assistant, to enter into and upon any Building or Premises in the Metropolis in which any Furnace may be, or in which such noxious Trade or Business may be carried on, or into any Steam Vessel on the River Thames between London Bridge and Richmond Bridge, and to examine into the Construction of such Furnace, into the Manner of carrying on such Trade or Business, or into the Construction of the Steam Engine and Furnace by which such Vessel shall be worked; and any Person obstructing any such Constable or his Assistant in the Execution of any such Warrant or Order shall, upon a summary Conviction for such Offence before any Justice or Justices, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Constables may be empowered to enter and inspect Furnaces and Steam Engines.

V. Provided always, That no Information shall be laid against any Person for the Recovery of any Penalty under this Act, except by the Authority of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or in the Metropolitan Police District by the Commissioners of Police of the Metropolis, or in the City of London or Liberties thereof by the Commissioner of Police of the said City and Liberties respectively acting under the Orders and Directions of such Secretary of State.

No Information to be laid except by Authority of Secretary of State or Police Commissioners.

VI. In this Act the Expression "the Metropolis" shall have the same Meaning and Construction as is assigned to such Expression for the Purposes of the Act of the last Session of Parliament, Chapter Eighty-five, "to amend the Laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in the Metropolis."

Definition of Metropolis.

VII. Nothing in this Act shall be held to alter or repeal any of the Provisions of the City of London Sewers Act, 1851, or of the Whitechapel Improvement Act, 1853.

15 & 16 Vict. c. 85.

Not to affect certain Local Acts.

VIII. All Penalties by this Act imposed shall be recoverable according to the Provisions of the Act of the Twelfth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter Forty-three.

Penalties recoverable under 11 & 12 Vict. c. 43.

C A P. CXXIX.

An Act further to amend the Law relating to Pilotage.

[20th August 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient that the Right of piloting Ships Outwards from the Port of London, and the Right of piloting Ships Inwards to the same Port, should be vested in One Body of Pilots, and that such Pilots should be subject to uniform Authority and Control:’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

*Union of Trinity House
and Cinque Port Pilots.*

So much of
6 G. 4. c. 125.
as relates to Cinque Port Pilots, and 9 G. 4. c. 86.,
repealed.

Power to the Trinity House
to license Pilots for the Passage from Dungeness Inwards as well as Outwards.

I. So much of the Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and twenty-five, as relates to the Society or Fellowship of the Trinity House of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, or to the Pilots of the said Society or Fellowship, commonly called the Cinque Port Pilots, and the whole of the Act of the Ninth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-six, shall be repealed, save as herein-after mentioned.

II. It shall be lawful for the Trinity House, after such Examination and in such Manner as by the Second Section of the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth is provided in respect of the Pilots to be licensed under the Authority therein contained, to license Pilots as well for the Purpose of conducting Vessels from or by Dungeness up the Rivers Thames and Medway to London Bridge and Rochester Bridge, and all the Channels, Creeks, and Docks of the same, and from the South Buoy of the Brake Westward as far as the West End of the Owers, as for the Purpose of conducting Vessels within the Limits and in the Manner within and in which Pilots may be licensed to act under the said Second Section of the said last-mentioned Act: and all the Provisions of the said Act and of any other Act now in force, and all Byelaws, Rules, Orders, or Ordinances, applicable to Pilots licensed under the said Section, shall be applicable to Pilots licensed under the Authority of this Act to the same Extent and in the same Manner as if such last-mentioned Authority had been contained in the said Section; and no Licences granted by any other Corporation, Body, or Persons to pilot any Vessel Inwards or Outwards within the Limits aforesaid shall be of any Force or Effect whatever: Provided always, that no such Licence shall be granted until Three Months after the Regulations herein-after provided to be made by the Trinity House shall have been published and sent to the Court of Loadmanage, and to the Society or Fellowship of Cinque Port Pilots.

Present Cinque
Port Pilots to be competent to pilot Vessels either Inwards
or Outwards
within the Limits for which they are now
licensed.

III. All Cinque Port Pilots duly licensed and authorized before this Act comes into operation to pilot any Vessels from Dungeness or the Downs up the Rivers Thames or Medway shall, notwithstanding the Repeal and Enactment herein-before contained, be authorized to pilot the like Vessels within the same Limits and in the same Manner within and in which they might have lawfully piloted the same before the passing of this Act according to the Terms of their existing Licences, and shall also by virtue such existing Licences (without any Licence from the Trinity House in that Behalf) be authorized to pilot the like Vessels down the said Rivers Thames and Medway, or from those Rivers to the Downs or Dungeness, or from the West End of the Owers to the South Buoy of the Brake, within the Limits within which such existing Licences authorize them to act in piloting such Vessels from the Downs to the said Rivers, and up the same, or from the South Buoy of the Brake to the West End of the Owers; and it shall be lawful for the Trinity House by a supplemental Licence to authorize any such Cinque Port Pilot to pilot any Vessels in any Parts of the Rivers Thames and Medway or in any of the Seas or Channels leading to or from such Rivers to which his existing Licence may not extend, after Examination in respect of the further Limits within which he is to be so licensed to act, and upon the Payment of such Fee, if any, as the said Trinity House may, with the Consent of the Board of Trade, appoint for the Purpose; and such supplemental Licence shall be taken to be Part of and to be held upon the same Conditions and subject to the same Regulations in all respects as such existing Licence.

IV. The said Cinque Port Pilots who have been so licensed as aforesaid before this Act comes into operation shall be subject to all the Provisions of the said Act of the Sixth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and Twenty-five, and of any other Act now in force, which relate to Pilots licensed by the Trinity House (except such of them as are contained in the Fourth Section of the said Act of the Sixth Year of King George the Fourth), and shall likewise be subject to the Government and Regulations of the Trinity House, and to all Byelaws, Rules, Orders, or Ordinances duly issued by it for the Purpose of insuring the good Conduct and constant Attendance of Pilots upon their Duty, and to such Penalties as may be duly annexed to the Breach of the said Regulations, Byelaws, Rules, Orders, or Ordinances, in the same Manner and to the same Extent in and to which Pilots licensed by the said Trinity House are subject thereto.

V. All Pilots licensed before this Act comes into operation by the said Trinity House to pilot any Vessels upon the Rivers Thames and Medway, or from London Bridge to the Downs, or from the Isle of Wight to London Bridge, shall be authorized to pilot the like Vessels from or by Dungeness up the Rivers Thames and Medway, and from the South Buoy of the Brake to the Westward to the End of the Owers, or within such or so much of the same Limits as under their present Licenses they might act within in piloting such Vessels down the said Rivers or Outwards or to the Westward: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to confer any Privilege of piloting above Gravesend and Stangate Creek respectively upon any Pilots by whatever Authority they may be licensed, except with the Concurrence of the Trinity House in the Case of each Pilot.

VI. A sufficient Number of duly qualified Pilots shall always be ready to take charge of Vessels coming from the Westward past Dungeness; and the Trinity House shall make such Regulations with respect to the Body of Pilots under its Control as may be necessary in order to provide for an unintermitted Supply of Pilots for such Vessels, and to insure their constant Attendance upon and

Trinity House
and Cinque Port
Pilots.

The above-mentioned Cinque Port Pilots to be subject to the same Rules, &c. as Trinity House Pilots.

Present Trinity House Pilots may pilot Ships Inwards within the Limits of their Licences.

Power to the Trinity House to make Regulations for a constant Supply of Pilots at Dungeness.

*Union of Trinity House
and Cinque Port

due Performance of their Duty, both by Night and Day, whether by cruizing between the South Foreland and Dungeness, or by going off from Shore upon Signals made for the Purpose, or by both of such Means, or by any other Means, and whether in rotation or otherwise, as the said Trinity House may think fit; and if any Pilots affected by the said Regulations, or any Masters or Owners or Insurers of Ships, being not less than Six in Number, consider themselves aggrieved by such Regulations, or by any Defect or Omission therein, they may appeal to Her Majesty in Council, and Her Majesty in Council may thereupon revoke or alter any of such Regulations, or may make Additions thereto, in such Manner as, having regard to the Object of this Enactment and to the Interests of the Persons concerned, may appear to be just and expedient, and every Order so made shall be conclusive in the Matter.

Vessels coming past Dungeness not having a Pilot already on board, to take the first qualified Pilot who offers.

VII. Every Master or other Person in command of any Vessel coming from the Westward and bound to any Place in the Rivers Thames and Medway (unless she has a duly qualified Pilot on board or is exempted from compulsory Pilotage), shall, on the Arrival of such Vessel off Dungeness, and thenceforth until she has passed the South Buoy of the Brake, or a Line to be drawn from Sandown Castle to the said Buoy, or until a duly qualified Pilot has come on board, display and keep flying the usual Signal for a Pilot; and if any Pilot duly qualified for the Passage to be made by such Vessel is within Hail, or is approaching and within Half a Mile, and has the proper distinguishing Flag flying in his Boat, such Master or other Person as aforesaid shall, by heaving-to in proper Time or shortening Sail, or by any practicable Means consistent with the Safety of his Vessel, facilitate such Pilot getting on board, and shall give the Charge of piloting his Vessel to such Pilot; or if there are Two or more of such Pilots offering at the same Time, to such One of them as may according to the Regulations for the Time being in force be entitled or required to take such Charge; and if any such Master or other Person as aforesaid fails to display or keep flying the usual Signal for a Pilot in manner herein-before required, or to facilitate any such duly qualified Pilot as aforesaid getting on board as herein-before required, or to give the Charge of piloting his Vessel to such Pilot as herein-before mentioned in that Behalf, he shall forfeit double the Sum which might have been demanded for the Pilotage of his Vessel, such Sum to be paid to the Trinity House, and to be recoverable in the same Manner in which Forfeitures are recoverable under the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth.

Penalty on Masters failing to display the usual Signal for a Pilot.

Rates to be demanded for Duties hitherto performed by Cinque Port Pilots.

VIII. Until any such Alteration as herein-after provided for be made, the Rates and Prices to be demanded and received by all Pilots performing the Duties hitherto performed by Cinque Port Pilots shall be such Rates and Prices as have immediately before this Act come into operation been lawfully demanded and received by such last-mentioned Pilots; and it shall be lawful for the said Trinity House to increase, reduce, alter, or modify all or any of the said Rates or Prices, or to substitute other Rates or Prices in lieu thereof, with the same Consent, in the same Manner, and subject to the same Conditions with, in, and subject to which the

the Trinity House is empowered to increase, reduce, alter, and modify the Rates and Prices to be demanded and received by Pilots licensed by it, or to substitute other Rates and Prices in lieu of such last-mentioned Rates and Prices, but so that in no Case shall any higher Rate be imposed or demanded than might have been imposed or demanded if this Act had not passed.

IX. All Rates and Prices which may be lawfully demanded or received by the said Cinque Port Pilots licensed before this Act comes into operation, or by any other Pilots licensed by or under the Government of the Trinity House, shall be recoverable in the same Manner in which Rates and Prices lawfully demanded or received by Pilots licensed by the Trinity House under the said Act of the Sixth Year of King George the Fourth are by that Act made recoverable; and all Rates or Prices which may be lawfully demanded or received by any Pilots under the Government of the said Trinity House for the Pilotage of Foreign Vessels, the Owners, Masters, Agents, or Consignees of which claim, by virtue of any Treaty of Reciprocity, to be entitled to the Privileges of British Vessels, shall be recoverable from the same Persons, in the same Manner, and subject to the same Conditions from whom and in and subject to which Pilotage Rates on British Vessels are recoverable under the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth Sections of the said Act.

X. All Property of every kind, whether real or personal, which may belong to or be held by the Court of Loadmanage or the said Society of Cinque Port Pilots, or any Branch thereof, or any Officer of the said Society, or any other Person as Trustee for the said Society, or any Branch thereof, or which may be legally applicable for the Benefit of the said Society or of the Members thereof, or for any Purposes connected with Pilotage, (including a Piece of Land near Dover which was by Indentures of Lease and Release, dated respectively [the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Days of August One thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, conveyed to Trustees therein named, upon certain Trusts, for the Poor of the Trinity House of Dover,) shall, upon the passing of this Act, belong to and become vested in the Trinity House of Deptford Strand; and the said Trinity House shall have Power to sell the same or any Part thereof as Occasion may require, and to give full Discharges for the Purchase Money of any Part thereof which may be sold; and all Monies which if this Act had not passed would have been paid for any Purpose connected with the Relief or Benefit of Cinque Port Pilots, their Appointees, Widows, or Issue, either in respect of surplus Duties on Foreign Vessels, or by way of Fees or Contributions from Cinque Port Pilots licensed before this Act comes into operation, and all Sums which would if this Act had not passed been payable by such Pilots as Trinity Money or Clerks Fees, and all Penalties or Fines payable by or in respect of such Pilots, shall, save as such Contributions, Trinity Money, or Clerks Fees may be varied or remitted under the Regulations to be made and approved as herein-after mentioned, and save also such of the said Contributions as may cease by reason of any such Purchases or Commutations of Claims as herein-after provided for, be paid to the Trinity House, and the

said Property and Monies shall be carried to and form Part of the Pilotage Funds of the Trinity House.

XI. The said Trinity House shall, out of their said Pilotage Fund, pay all Debts, if any, lawfully and properly incurred by the said Court of Loadmanage before this Act comes into operation, and also such Compensation or Superannuation Allowances (if any) as the Board of Trade may in its Discretion allow to any Persons now in the Employ or Service of the Court of Loadmanage, or of the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, or of the Society of Cinque Port Pilots, who may be deprived of Salaries or Emoluments by reason of the passing of this Act, so that no such Compensation or Superannuation Allowance shall exceed the Proportion of Salary or Emoluments which might be granted under similar Circumstances to a Person in the Public Civil Service under the Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Twenty-four; and may in the next place, subject to the Regulations to be made and approved as hereinafter mentioned, either purchase out of the said Funds the Claims of all or any of the Persons who, but for the passing of this Act, would have been in the Receipt of Pensions or other Relief either out of the said Cinque Port Pilots Fund, or under any Byelaws of the said Society now in force, or who have already paid Widows Dues, or have otherwise contributed to the Relief of superannuated Cinque Port Pilots, or of the Widows, Appointees, or Issue of Cinque Port Pilots, such Purchases to be made upon such Terms as may be determined by the said Regulations, or may, subject as aforesaid, continue to pay out of the said Funds Pensions or other Relief to all or any of the Persons who might if this Act had not passed have received the same out of the said Funds, or under any Byelaws of the said Society now in force, such Pensions or other Relief to be of such Amount as may be determined by the said Regulations to be made and approved as hereinafter mentioned; and the Trinity House may, subject to such Regulations, make Arrangements for enabling any Person who, but for the passing of this Act, would be entitled to a Pension or other Relief under the Byelaws of the said Society of Cinque Port Pilots now in force, or any Cinque Port Pilot licensed before this Act comes into operation, to purchase an Interest in the said Trinity House Pilots Fund; and the Terms of such Purchase, including the Amount and Nature of such Interest, and the Consideration payable for the same, shall be determined by such Regulations as aforesaid; and every Cinque Port Pilot who chooses to make such Purchase shall thereafter pay to the said Trinity House the same Contributions, whether by way of Poundage or otherwise, as are for the Time being payable by Pilots licensed by the Trinity House.

XII. The said Trinity House shall also out of their said Pilotage Funds pay all such Superannuation Allowances or other Relief to Pilots licensed by them before this Act comes into operation, or to the Widows and Children of such Pilots, as might have been payable by the said Trinity House if this Act had not passed; and, subject to the Charges aforesaid, the said Trinity House Pilots Fund shall be chargeable in the first instance with such Expenses as the said Trinity House may duly incur in the Performance of its Duties in respect of Pilots and Pilotage, so nevertheless that no Superannuation Allowance to any Person in the Employ of the said Trinity House which is included in such Expenses shall exceed the Proportion of his Salary which might be granted under similar Circumstances to a Person in the Public Civil Service under the Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Twenty-four, or under any other Act for regulating such Superannuation Allowances for the Time being in force; and, subject thereto, the said Trinity House Pilots Fund shall be administered by the said Trinity House for the benefit of such Pilots licensed by the said Trinity House after this Act comes into operation as are incapacitated for the Performance of their Duty by reason of Age, Infirmary, or Accident, and of the Widows and Children of Pilots so licensed, or of such incapacitated Pilots only, upon such Conditions and under such Regulations as the said Trinity House, with the Consent of the Board of Trade, may think fit to adopt; and if it appears to the said Trinity House that the Contributions for the Time being payable to the said Trinity House Pilots Fund are insufficient to enable them to grant Allowances of proper and adequate Amount, it shall be lawful for the said Trinity House, with such Consent and subject to such Regulations as aforesaid, from Time to Time to increase and alter the Amount of the annual Contribution, or of the Poundage upon the Sums earned by Pilots, which under the Fourth Section of the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and twenty-five, Pilots licensed by the said Trinity House are required to pay to the said Pilotage Fund.

*Union of Trinity House
and Cinque Port Pilots.*

XIII. ' And whereas it is intended that Cinque Port Pilots licensed before this Act comes into operation, their Widows and Appointees, shall, as a Body, receive, under the Provisions herein-before contained, Benefits equal in Amount to the Benefits which they might lawfully and properly have received out of the several Funds and Payments so transferred to the Trinity House as aforesaid if this Act had not passed: And whereas it has been estimated that the Funds and Payments so transferred, including the Principal as well as the Interest of the said Funds, would, if duly applied, be sufficient to carry the said Intention into effect; but in consequence of the numerous Contingencies involved it is impossible to calculate with Certainty the Amount which will be necessary for that Purpose, or to determine with Precision the Manner in which such Amount shall be applied, and it is therefore expedient that all due Claims of the said Cinque Port Pilots, their Widows, Appointees, and Issue, should be provided for by the said Trinity House out of their General Pilotage Funds as herein-before provided, and that the Board of Trade and the Trinity House should be intrusted with such Powers as are necessary for settling the said Claims, and for carrying into effect the Provisions herein-before contained in respect thereof: Be it enacted, That for the Purpose of carrying the said Intention and Provisions into effect the said Trinity House may, with the Approval of the Board of Trade, from Time to Time make Regulations for altering and determining the Pay-

Recital of Principles upon which Claims of Cinque Port Pilots are to be settled.

Licensing Masters and Mates.

Power to the Board of Trade to examine and grant Pilotage Certificates to Masters and Mates on the Pil tag. Authorities refusing to do so under 12 & 13 Vict. c. 88.

XIV. ' And whereas by the Act of the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-eight, Provision was made for enabling a Master or Mate to pilot his own Vessel without the Assistance of a licensed Pilot upon his passing an Examination before or under the Direction of the proper Pilotage Authorities, and obtaining a Certificate as therein mentioned, but the Institution of such Examination was left to the Option of the said Authorities: And whereas it is expedient to extend and amend the Provisions of the said Act: Be it enacted, That if upon Complaint to the Board of Trade it appear to such Board that any such Authority as aforesaid have without reasonable Cause refused or neglected to examine any Master or Mate who has applied to them for the Purpose, or after he has passed have without reasonable Cause refused or neglected to grant him a Certificate, or that the Examination of any such Master or Mate has been unfairly or improperly conducted, or that any Terms imposed or sought to be imposed by such Authority are unfair or improper, the Board of Trade may, if in their Judgment the Circumstances appear to require it, appoint Persons to examine such Master or Mate, and if he be found fit to pilot his Vessel within the Limits for which he is examined, may grant him a Certificate setting forth the Limits and the Vessel for which he is certified, upon such Terms and Conditions, and subject to such Regulations, as such Board may think fit; and such Certificate shall be in force for One Year, and may be renewed from Year to Year either by the said Authorities in the Manner and upon the Terms in the said Act mentioned, or by the Board of Trade, if such Board so think fit, such Renewal to be indorsed on the said Certificate either by such Person as the Board of Trade may appoint for the Purpose, or in the Manner by the said Act provided as to the Certificates therein mentioned; and all Certificates granted under this Act shall have the same Effect as Certificates granted under the said last-recited Act.

XV. All Masters or Mates to or for whom any such Certificates as aforesaid are granted or renewed by any Pilotage Authority shall shall pay to such Authority, or as it may direct, such Fees upon their respective Certificates and upon the Renewals thereof as may from Time to Time be fixed for that Purpose by the said Authority, with the Consent of Her Majesty in Council; and all Masters and Mates to or for whom any such Certificates are granted or renewed by the Board of Trade shall pay to such Board or as it may direct such Fees upon their Certificates and upon the Renewals thereof as may be fixed by such Board, so nevertheless that in the Case of Certificates granted or renewed by the Board of Trade such Fees shall in no Case be less than the Fees payable by the Pilots in the same District upon their Licences and the Renewal thereof; and such Fees shall in the Case of Certificates and Renewals granted by Pilotage Authorities be applicable either to paying the Expense of the Examinations, or any other general Expenses connected with Pilotage incurred by such Authorities, or to the Pilots Superannuation Fund (if any), or otherwise for the Benefit of the Pilots licensed by such Authorities, as such Authorities may think fit; and such Fees shall in the Case of Certificates granted or renewed by the Board of Trade be applicable to the Expense of the Examinations, and the Surplus (if any) shall be applied for the Benefit of the Pilots of the Port or District in such Manner as such Board may think fit.

Renewals thereof.

XVI. If at any Time it appears to the Board of Trade or to any Pilotage Authority that any Master or Mate to whom a Certificate has been granted by such Board or Authority under the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act or of this Act has been guilty of Misconduct, or has shown himself incompetent to pilot his Vessel, such Board or such Authority (as the Case may be) may thereupon withdraw his Certificate, and such Certificates shall thenceforth cease to be of any Effect whatever.

Power to withdraw Certificates.

XVII. And whereas it is expedient to make Provision for ascertaining and making public the Amount of Pilotage Rates levied on Shipping, with other Particulars relating to Pilotage: Be it enacted, That every Person duly authorized or licensed to act as a Pilot shall, before the Thirty-first Day of January in each Year, give to the Pilotage Authority by whom he is so authorized or licensed a full Account of all Sums of Money earned by him as a Pilot in the course of the preceding Year, with the Names and Descriptions of the Vessels in respect of which, and a Statement of the Services by means of which, the same have been earned; and if any such Pilot upon being applied to for such Account fail to deliver the same within One Month after such Application, the Pilotage Authority by whom he has been licensed or authorized is hereby empowered and required to withdraw his Licence, or to deprive him of his Authority to act as Pilot, until the said Account is delivered.

XXV. This Act shall, so far as the Context and Subject Matter admit, extend to all Ports and Districts in Great Britain or Ireland or the Isle of Man, or in the Rivers thereof respectively, or in the Seas or Channels adjacent thereto respectively, in which any Masters of Vessels are compelled by Law to employ Pilots, or in which any Persons are licensed or authorized to act as Pilots by or under the Authority of Law, or in which the Rates or Prices to be demanded or received for Pilotage Services are fixed by Law or under Authority derived from Law.

Interpretation of Terms.

XXVI. In the Construction of this Act the following Words and Expressions in this Act shall have the Meanings hereby assigned to them, if not inconsistent with the Context or Subject Matter; that is to say,

The Expression "Board of Trade" shall mean the Committee of Privy Council appointed for the Consideration of Matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations :

The Word "Trinity House" shall mean the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Guild, Fraternity, or Brotherhood of the Most Glorious and Undivided Trinity and of Saint Clement in the Parish of Deptford Strond in the County of Kent, commonly called the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond:

The Expression "Pilotage Authority" shall include the said Trinity House, and all other Bodies or Persons authorized to appoint or license Pilots, or to fix or alter Rates of Pilotage, or to exercise any Jurisdiction in respect of Pilotage :

The Expression "Cinque Port Pilots" shall mean the Pilots of the Society or Fellowship of the Trinity House of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet.

XXVII. This Act shall come into operation on the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

XXVIII. This Act may be cited as the "Pilotage Law Amendment Act, 1853."

XXIX. No Provision contained in the First Section of an Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter sixty-eight, and no Order or Certificate duly made and issued by virtue thereof, shall cease or become void by reason of the passing of this Act.

So much of the Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and twenty-five, as relates to the Society or Fellowship of the Trinity House of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, or to the Pilots of the said Society or Fellowship, commonly called the Cinque Port Pilots, and the whole of the Act of the Ninth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-six, shall be repealed, save as herein-after mentioned.

II. It shall be lawful for the Trinity House, after such Examination and in such Manner as by the Second Section of the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth is provided in respect of the Pilots to be licensed under the Authority therein contained, to license Pilots as well for the Purpose of conducting Vessels from or by Dungeness up the Rivers Thames and Medway to London Bridge and Rochester Bridge, and all the Channels, Creeks, and Docks of the same, and from the South Buoy of the Brake Westward as far as the West End of the Owers, as for the Purpose of conducting Vessels within the Limits and in the Manner within and in which Pilots may be licensed to act under the said Second Section of the said last-mentioned Act; and all the Provisions of the said Act and of any other Act now in force, and all Byelaws, Rules, Orders, or Ordinances, applicable to Pilots licensed under the said Section, shall be applicable to Pilots licensed under the Authority of this Act to the same Extent and in the same Manner as if such last-mentioned Authority had been contained in the said Section; and no Licences granted by any other Corporation, Body, or Persons to pilot any Vessel Inwards or Outwards within the Limits aforesaid shall be of any Force or Effect whatever: Provided always, that no such Licence shall be granted until Three Months after the Regulations herein-after provided to be made by the Trinity House shall have been published and sent to the Court of Loadmanage, and to the Society or Fellowship of Cinque Port Pilots.

Present Cinque
Port Pilots to be competent
to pilot Vessels either Inwards
or Outwards
within the Limits for which they are now
licensed.

III. All Cinque Port Pilots duly licensed and authorized before this Act comes into operation to pilot any Vessels from Dungeness or the Downs up the Rivers Thames or Medway shall, notwithstanding the Repeal and Enactment herein-before contained, be authorized to pilot the like Vessels within the same Limits and in the same Manner within and in which they might have lawfully piloted the same before the passing of this Act according to the Terms of their existing Licences, and shall also by virtue of such existing Licences (without any Licence from the Trinity House in that Behalf) be authorized to pilot the like Vessels down the said Rivers Thames and Medway, or from those Rivers to the Downs or Dungeness, or from the West End of the Owers to the South Buoy of the Brake, within the Limits within which such existing Licences authorize them to act in piloting such Vessels from the Downs to the said Rivers, and up the same, or from the South Buoy of the Brake to the West End of the Owers; and it shall be lawful for the Trinity House by a supplemental Licence to authorize any such Cinque Port Pilot to pilot any Vessels in any Parts of the Rivers Thames and Medway or in any of the Seas or Channels leading to or from such Rivers to which his existing Licence may not extend, after Examination in respect of the further Limits within which he is to be so licensed to act, and upon the Payment of such Fee, if any, as the said Trinity House may, with the Consent of the Board of Trade, appoint for the Purpose; and such supplemental Licence shall be taken to be Part of and to be held upon the same Conditions and subject to the same Regulations in all respects as such existing Licence.

IV. The said Cinque Port Pilots who have been so licensed as aforesaid before this Act comes into operation shall be subject to all the Provisions of the said Act of the Sixth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and Twenty-five, and of any other Act now in force, which relate to Pilots licensed by the Trinity House (except such of them as are contained in the Fourth Section of the said Act of the Sixth Year of King George the Fourth), and shall likewise be subject to the Government and Regulations of the Trinity House, and to all Byelaws, Rules, Orders, or Ordinances duly issued by it for the Purpose of insuring the good Conduct and constant Attendance of Pilots upon their Duty, and to such Penalties as may be duly annexed to the Breach of the said Regulations, Byelaws, Rules, Orders, or Ordinances, in the same Manner and to the same Extent in and to which Pilots licensed by the said Trinity House are subject thereto.

V. All Pilots licensed before this Act comes into operation by the said Trinity House to pilot any Vessels upon the Rivers Thames and Medway, or from London Bridge to the Downs, or from the Isle of Wight to London Bridge, shall be authorized to pilot the like Vessels from or by Dungeness up the Rivers Thames and Medway, and from the South Buoy of the Brake to the Westward to the End of the Owers, or within such or so much of the same Limits as under their present Licenses they might act within in piloting such Vessels down the said Rivers or Outwards or to the Westward: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to confer any Privilege of piloting above Gravesend and Stangate Creek respectively upon any Pilots by whatever Authority they may be licensed, except with the Concurrence of the Trinity House in the Case of each Pilot.

VI. A sufficient Number of duly qualified Pilots shall always be ready to take charge of Vessels coming from the Westward past Dungeness; and the Trinity House shall make such Regulations with respect to the Body of Pilots under its Control as may be necessary in order to provide for an unintermitted Supply of Pilots for such Vessels, and to insure their constant Attendance upon and due Performance of their Duty, both by Night and Day, whether by cruising between the South Foreland and Dungeness, or by going off from Shore upon Signals made for the Purpose, or by both of such Means, or by any other Means, and whether in rotation or otherwise, as the said Trinity House may think fit; and if any Pilots affected by the said Regulations, or any Masters or Owners or Insurers of Ships, being not less than Six in Number, consider themselves aggrieved by such Regulations, or by any Defect or Omission therein, they may appeal to Her Majesty in Council, and Her Majesty in Council may thereupon revoke or alter any of such Regulations, or may make Additions thereto, in such Manner as, having regard to the Object of this Enactment and to the Interests of the Persons concerned, may appear to be just and expedient, and every Order so made shall be conclusive in the Matter.

Vessels coming past Dungeness not having a Pilot already on board, to take the first qualified Pilot who offers.

VII. Every Master or other Person in command of any Vessel coming from the Westward and bound to any Place in the Rivers Thames and Medway (unless she has a duly qualified Pilot on board or is exempted from compulsory Pilotage), shall, on the Arrival of such Vessel off Dungeness, and thenceforth until she has passed the South Buoy of the Brake, or a Line to be drawn from Sandown Castle to the said Buoy, or until a duly qualified Pilot has come on board, display and keep flying the usual Signal for a Pilot; and if any Pilot duly qualified for the Passage to be made by such Vessel is within Hail, or is approaching and within Half a Mile, and has the proper distinguishing Flag flying in his Boat, such Master or other Person as aforesaid shall, by heaving-to in proper Time or shortening Sail, or by any practicable Means consistent with the Safety of his Vessel, facilitate such Pilot getting on board, and shall give the Charge of piloting his Vessel to such Pilot; or if there are Two or more of such Pilots offering at the same Time, to such One of them as may according to the Regulations for the Time being in force be entitled or required to take such Charge; and if any such Master or other Person as aforesaid fails to display or keep flying the usual Signal for a Pilot in manner herein-before required, or to facilitate any such duly qualified Pilot as aforesaid getting on board as herein-before required, or to give the Charge of piloting his Vessel to such Pilot as herein-before mentioned in that Behalf, he shall forfeit double the Sum which might have been demanded for the Pilotage of his Vessel, such Sum to be paid to the Trinity House, and to be recoverable in the same Manner in which Forfeitures are recoverable under the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth.

Penalty on Masters failing to display the usual Signal for a Pilot.

Rates to be demanded for Duties hitherto performed by Cinque Port Pilots.

VIII. Until any such Alteration as herein-after provided for be made, the Rates and Prices to be demanded and received by all Pilots performing the Duties hitherto performed by Cinque Port Pilots shall be such Rates and Prices as have immediately before this Act comes into operation been lawfully demanded and received by such last-mentioned Pilots; and it shall be lawful for the said Trinity House to increase, reduce, alter, or modify all or any of the said Rates or Prices, or to substitute other Rates or Prices in lieu thereof, with the same Consent, in the same Manner, and subject to the same Conditions with, in, and subject to which the

the Trinity House is empowered to increase, reduce, alter, and modify the Rates and Prices to be demanded and received by Pilots licensed by it, or to substitute other Rates and Prices in lieu of such last-mentioned Rates and Prices, but so that in no Case shall any higher Rate be imposed or demanded than might have been imposed or demanded if this Act had not passed.

IX. All Rates and Prices which may be lawfully demanded or received by the said Cinque Port Pilots licensed before this Act comes into operation, or by any other Pilots licensed by or under the Government of the Trinity House, shall be recoverable in the same Manner in which Rates and Prices lawfully demanded or received by Pilots licensed by the Trinity House under the said Act of the Sixth Year of King George the Fourth are by that Act made recoverable; and all Rates or Prices which may be lawfully demanded or received by any Pilots under the Government of the said Trinity House for the Pilotage of Foreign Vessels, the Owners, Masters, Agents, or Consignees of which claim, by virtue of any Treaty of Reciprocity, to be entitled to the Privileges of British Vessels, shall be recoverable from the same Persons, in the same Manner, and subject to the same Conditions from whom and in and subject to which Pilotage Rates on British Vessels are recoverable under the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth Sections of the said Act.

X. All Property of every kind, whether real or personal, which may belong to or be held by the Court of Loadmanage or the said Society of Cinque Port Pilots, or any Branch thereof, or any Officer of the said Society, or any other Person as Trustee for the said Society, or any Branch thereof, or which may be legally applicable for the Benefit of the said Society or of the Members thereof, or for any Purposes connected with Pilotage, (including a Piece of Land near Dover which was by Indentures of Lease and Release, dated respectively [the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Days of August One thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, conveyed to Trustees therein named, upon certain Trusts, for the Poor of the Trinity House of Dover,) shall, upon the passing of this Act, belong to and become vested in the Trinity House of Deptford Strond; and the said Trinity House shall have Power to sell the same or any Part thereof as Occasion may require, and to give full Discharges for the Purchase Money of any Part thereof which may be sold; and all Monies which if this Act had not passed would have been paid for any Purpose connected with the Relief or Benefit of Cinque Port Pilots, their Appointees, Widows, or Issue, either in respect of surplus Duties on Foreign Vessels, or by way of Fees or Contributions from Cinque Port Pilots licensed before this Act comes into operation, and all Sums which would if this Act had not passed been payable by such Pilots as Trinity Money or Clerks Fees, and all Penalties or Fines payable by or in respect of such Pilots, shall, save as such Contributions, Trinity Money, or Clerks Fees may be varied or remitted under the Regulations to be made and approved as herein-after mentioned, and save also such of the said Contributions as may cease by reason of any such Purchases or Commutations of Claims as herein-after provided for, be paid to the Trinity House, and the

XI. The said Trinity House shall, out of their said Pilotage Fund, pay all Debts, if any, lawfully and properly incurred by the said Court of Loadmanage before this Act comes into operation, and also such Compensation or Superannuation Allowances (if any) as the Board of Trade may in its Discretion allow to any Persons now in the Employ or Service of the Court of Loadmanage, or of the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, or of the Society of Cinque Port Pilots, who may be deprived of Salaries or Emoluments by reason of the passing of this Act, so that no such Compensation or Superannuation Allowance shall exceed the Proportion of Salary or Emoluments which might be granted under similar Circumstances to a Person in the Public Civil Service under the Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Twenty-four; and may in the next place, subject to the Regulations to be made and approved as hereinafter mentioned, either purchase out of the said Funds the Claims of all or any of the Persons who, but for the passing of this Act, would have been in the Receipt of Pensions or other Relief either out of the said Cinque Port Pilots Fund, or under any Byelaws of the said Society now in force, or who have already paid Widows Dues, or have otherwise contributed to the Relief of superannuated Cinque Port Pilots, or of the Widows, Appointees, or Issue of Cinque Port Pilots, such Purchases to be made upon such Terms as may be determined by the said Regulations, or may, subject as aforesaid, continue to pay out of the said Funds Pensions or other Relief to all or any of the Persons who might if this Act had not passed have received the same out of the said Funds, or under any Byelaws of the said Society now in force, such Pensions or other Relief to be of such Amount as may be determined by the said Regulations to be made and approved as hereinafter mentioned; and the Trinity House may, subject to such Regulations, make Arrangements for enabling any Person who, but for the passing of this Act, would be entitled to a Pension or other Relief under the Byelaws of the said Society of Cinque Port Pilots now in force, or any Cinque Port Pilot licensed before this Act comes into operation, to purchase an Interest in the said Trinity House Pilots Fund; and the Terms of such Purchase, including the Amount and Nature of such Interest, and the Consideration payable for the same, shall be determined by such Regulations as aforesaid; and every Cinque Port Pilot who chooses to make such Purchase shall thereafter pay to the said Trinity House the same Contributions, whether by way of Poundage or otherwise, as are for the Time being payable by Pilots licensed by the Trinity House.

XII. The said Trinity House shall also out of their said Pilotage Funds pay all such Superannuation Allowances or other Relief to Pilots licensed by them before this Act comes into operation, or to the Widows and Children of such Pilots, as might have been payable by the said Trinity House if this Act had not passed; and, subject to the Charges aforesaid, the said Trinity House Pilots Fund shall be chargeable in the first instance with such Expenses

as the said Trinity House may duly incur in the Performance of its Duties in respect of Pilots and Pilotage, so nevertheless that no Superannuation Allowance to any Person in the Employ of the said Trinity House which is included in such Expenses shall exceed the Proportion of his Salary which might be granted under similar Circumstances to a Person in the Public Civil Service under the Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Twenty-four, or under any other Act for regulating such Superannuation Allowances for the Time being in force; and, subject thereto, the said Trinity House Pilots Fund shall be administered by the said Trinity House for the benefit of such Pilots licensed by the said Trinity House after this Act comes into operation as are incapacitated for the Performance of their Duty by reason of Age, Infirmary, or Accident, and of the Widows and Children of Pilots so licensed, or of such incapacitated Pilots only, upon such Conditions and under such Regulations as the said Trinity House, with the Consent of the Board of Trade, may think fit to adopt; and if it appears to the said Trinity House that the Contributions for the Time being payable to the said Trinity House Pilots Fund are insufficient to enable them to grant Allowances of proper and adequate Amount, it shall be lawful for the said Trinity House, with such Consent and subject to such Regulations as aforesaid, from Time to Time to increase and alter the Amount of the annual Contribution, or of the Poundage upon the Sums earned by Pilots, which under the Fourth Section of the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and twenty-five, Pilots licensed by the said Trinity House are required to pay to the said Pilotage Fund.

XIII. ' And whereas it is intended that Cinque Port Pilots licensed before this Act comes into operation, their Widows and Appointees, shall, as a Body, receive, under the Provisions herein-before contained, Benefits equal in Amount to the Benefits which they might lawfully and properly have received out of the several Funds and Payments so transferred to the Trinity House as aforesaid if this Act had not passed: And whereas it has been estimated that the Funds and Payments so transferred, including the Principal as well as the Interest of the said Funds, would, if duly applied, be sufficient to carry the said Intention into effect; but in consequence of the numerous Contingencies involved it is impossible to calculate with Certainty the Amount which will be necessary for that Purpose, or to determine with Precision the Manner in which such Amount shall be applied, and it is therefore expedient that all due Claims of the said Cinque Port Pilots, their Widows, Appointees, and Issue, should be provided for by the said Trinity House out of their General Pilotage Funds as herein-before provided, and that the Board of Trade and the Trinity House should be intrusted with such Powers as are necessary for settling the said Claims, and for carrying into effect the Provisions herein-before contained in respect thereof: Be it enacted, That for the Purpose of carrying the said Intention and Provisions into effect the said Trinity House may, with the Approval of the Board of Trade, from Time to Time make Regulations for altering and determining the Payments

Licensing Masters and Mates.

Power to the Board of Trade to examine and grant Pilotage Certificates to Masters and Mates on the Pil tage Authorities refusing to do so under 12 & 13 Vict. c. 88.

XIV. ' And whereas by the Act of the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-eight, Provision was made for enabling a Master or Mate to pilot his own Vessel without the Assistance of a licensed Pilot upon his passing an Examination before or under the Direction of the proper Pilotage Authorities, and obtaining a Certificate as therein mentioned, but the Institution of such Examination was left to the Option of the said Authorities: And whereas it is expedient to extend and amend the Provisions of the said Act: Be it enacted, That if upon Complaint to the Board of Trade it appear to such Board that any such Authority as aforesaid have without reasonable Cause refused or neglected to examine any Master or Mate who has applied to them for the Purpose, or after he has passed have without reasonable Cause refused or neglected to grant him a Certificate, or that the Examination of any such Master or Mate has been unfairly or improperly conducted, or that any Terms imposed or sought to be imposed by such Authority are unfair or improper, the Board of Trade may, if in their Judgment the Circumstances appear to require it, appoint Persons to examine such Master or Mate, and if he be found fit to pilot his Vessel within the Limits for which he is examined, may grant him a Certificate setting forth the Limits and the Vessel for which he is certified, upon such Terms and Conditions, and subject to such Regulations, as such Board may think fit; and such Certificate shall be in force for One Year, and may be renewed from Year to Year either by the said Authorities in the Manner and upon the Terms in the said Act mentioned, or by the Board of Trade, if such Board so think fit, such Renewal to be indorsed on the said Certificate either by such Person as the Board of Trade may appoint for the Purpose, or in the Manner by the said Act provided as to the Certificates therein mentioned; and all Certificates granted under this Act shall have the same Effect as Certificates granted under the said last-recited Act.

XV. All Masters or Mates to or for whom any such Certificates as aforesaid are granted or renewed by any Pilotage Authority shall shall pay to such Authority, or as it may direct, such Fees upon their respective Certificates and upon the Renewals thereof as may from Time to Time be fixed for that Purpose by the said Authority, with the Consent of Her Majesty in Council; and all Masters and Mates to or for whom any such Certificates are granted or renewed by the Board of Trade shall pay to such Board or as it may direct such Fees upon their Certificates and upon the Renewals thereof as may be fixed by such Board, so nevertheless that in the Case of Certificates granted or renewed by the Board of Trade such Fees shall in no Case be less than the Fees payable by the Pilots in the same District upon their Licences and the Renewal thereof; and such Fees shall in the Case of Certificates and Renewals granted by Pilotage Authorities be applicable either to paying the Expense of the Examinations, or any other general Expenses connected with Pilotage incurred by such Authorities, or to the Pilots Superannuation Fund (if any), or otherwise for the Benefit of the Pilots licensed by such Authorities, as such Authorities may think fit; and such Fees shall in the Case of Certificates granted or renewed by the Board of Trade be applicable to the Expense of the Examinations, and the Surplus (if any) shall be applied for the Benefit of the Pilots of the Port or District in such Manner as such Board may think fit.

Renewals
thereof.

XVI. If at any Time it appears to the Board of Trade or to any Pilotage Authority that any Master or Mate to whom a Certificate has been granted by such Board or Authority under the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act or of this Act has been guilty of Misconduct, or has shown himself incompetent to pilot his Vessel, such Board or such Authority (as the Case may be) may thereupon withdraw his Certificate, and such Certificates shall thenceforth cease to be of any Effect whatever.

' And whereas it is expedient to give Facilities for amending the System of Pilotage, and for reducing or otherwise altering the Rates payable in respect thereof: ' Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for every Pilotage Authority, by Regulation or Byelaw made with the Consent of Her Majesty in Council, from Time to Time to do all or any of the following Things in relation to Pilots and Pilotage within their respective Districts; viz.

Power to make Alterations.

Pilotage Authorities, with Consent of Her Majesty, may—

To determine the Qualifications to be required from Persons applying to be licensed as Pilots, whether in respect of their Age, Skill, Time of Service, Character, or otherwise, and from Time to Time to alter any Regulations for the Time being in force with respect to such Qualifications:

Fix and alter Qualifications of Pilots:

To make and from Time to Time to alter Regulations for the Government of the Pilots licensed by them, and for insuring the good Conduct of such Pilots, and their constant Attendance on and effectual Performance of their Duty either at Sea or on Shore, and for licensing and regulating Pilot Boats; and to make, and from Time to Time to alter, the Terms, Conditions, and Regulations upon which such Certificates as herein-before mentioned are granted by such Pilotage Authority to Masters and Mates; and for punishing any Breach of such Regulations as aforesaid committed by such Pilots or by such Masters and Mates by the Withdrawal or Suspension of their Licences or Certificates, as the Case may be, or by the Infliction of Penalties, to be recoverable summarily before Two Justices, so that no such Penalty be made to exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and so that every such Penalty be capable of Reduction at the Discretion of the Justices by whom the same is inflicted:

Make and alter Regulations for the Government of Pilots, and of certificated Masters and Mates:

To fix and from Time to Time to alter the Rates and Prices or other Remuneration to be demanded and received by Pilots licensed by such Authority, or to substitute other Rates and Prices in lieu of those for the Time being demanded or received, or to alter the Mode of remunerating Pilots, in such Manner as such Authority may, with such Consent as aforesaid, think fit, so that no higher Rates or Prices be demanded or received from the Masters or Owners of Ships than the Rates and Prices which might, if this Act had not passed, have been demanded or received:

Alter and reduce Rates of Pilotage:

To exempt the Masters of any Ships or Vessels, or of any Classes of Ships or Vessels, from being compelled to employ Pilots, and to annex any Terms or Conditions to such Exemptions, and from Time to Time to revoke and alter any Exemptions so made, and to revise and extend any Exemptions now existing by virtue of any Act of Parliament or Charter, upon such Terms and Conditions and in such Manner as such Authority, with such Consent as aforesaid, may think fit:

Make and extend Exemptions from compulsory Pilotage:

Power to make Alterations.

Arrange the Limits of Pilotage Districts.

To make such Arrangements with any other Pilotage Authority in the same or any neighbouring Port or District for altering the Limits of their respective Districts, and for extending the Powers of such neighbouring Authority or the Privileges of the Pilots licensed by such Authority or any of them to all or any Parts of its own District, or for limiting its own Powers or the Privileges of its own Pilots or any of them, or for sharing the said last-mentioned Powers and Privileges with the said other Authority and the Pilots licensed by it, as may appear to such Pilotage Authorities to be desirable for the Purpose of facilitating Navigation, or reducing Charges on Shipping :

And every Regulation or Byelaw duly made by any Pilotage Authority in exercise of the Powers hereby given to it, and with such Consent as aforesaid, shall be valid and effectual, notwithstanding any Act of Parliament, Rule, Law, or Custom to the contrary.

No new Sub-Commissioners to be appointed, or Pilotage District extended, without Consent.

XXII. In Ports, Places, or Districts for which no Sub-Commissioners of Pilotage have hitherto been appointed, no such Sub-Commissioners shall hereafter be appointed without the Consent of Her Majesty in Council, and no Pilotage District under the Jurisdiction of any Sub-Commissioners of Pilotage shall hereafter be extended without such Consent.

Trinity House Regulations to be approved by Her Majesty in Council instead of by a Chief Justice under 6 G 4. c. 125.

XXIII. So much of the said Act of the Sixth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and twenty-five, as provides that no Byelaws, Rules, Orders, Regulations, or Ordinances to be made by the Trinity House as therein mentioned shall have Force or Effect before they have been examined, sanctioned, and approved by the Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench or of the Common Pleas, shall be repealed; and all Byelaws, Rules, Orders, Regulations, or Ordinances hereafter made by the Trinity House, in exercise of the Powers contained in the said Act or in this Act, shall be submitted to Her Majesty in Council for Approval, and shall, if so approved, but not otherwise, have the Force and Effect of Law.

All such Orders to be laid before Parliament.

XXIV. Every Order in Council made in pursuance of the Provisions herein-before contained shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament as soon as possible after the making thereof.

Proviso as to 3 & 4 Vict. c. 68. s. 1.

C A P. CXXX.

An Act to amend the Acts for promoting the Drainage of Lands and Improvements in connexion therewith in Ireland.
[20th August 1853.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to promote the Drainage of Lands, and Improvement of Navigation and Water Power in connexion with such Drainage, in Ireland, which Act was amended by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Sixty-nine, and an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Four, and an Act passed in the same Session of Parliament, Chapter Eighty-six, and an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-nine: And whereas various Works for the Drainage of Lands, and Improvement of Navigation and Water Power in connexion therewith, in Ireland, have been undertaken and carried on by the Commissioners appointed to act in execution of the said Acts both under the ordinary Provisions and the Provisions for summary Proceedings in the said Acts respectively contained: And whereas in many Instances the Estimates of the Expenses of such Works respectively have been exceeded, and many of the said Works are still unfinished, and in certain Cases the Assents requisite to authorize the Charge on the Lands to be improved, of the Sums necessary for completing the proposed Works have not been obtained: And whereas Inquiries have been already made under the Direction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury

5 & 6 Vict. c. 89.
8 & 9 Vict. c. 69.
9 & 10 Vict. cc. 4. and 86.
10 & 11 Vict. c. 79.

‘ Treasury in relation to certain of the said Works now remaining unfinished, and the said Commissioners have directed the Inquiries in relation to others of the said Works: And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for the Completion of the said Works, or such of them as upon the Inquiries already made as aforesaid, or upon the Inquiries to be hereafter made in relation thereto, the said Commissioners of the Treasury may think fit, and with such Modification (if any) as to them may seem proper, and that such Commissioners should be authorized to direct where they see fit that the Expense of such Work to be charged against the Proprietors of Land should be limited to such Amount as between such Proprietors and the Public may appear to the said Commissioners to be just, and that the said Acts should be amended as herein-after mentioned:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Treasury may give Directions concerning Completion of Works.

I. The said Commissioners of the Treasury may authorize and direct the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland to cause to be completed the Works commenced under the Provisions of the said Acts or any of them, or such of the same Works or such Parts thereof respectively as, upon the Inquiries already made as aforesaid, or to be hereafter made under the Directions of the said Commissioners of the Treasury, such Commissioners of the Treasury may think fit, and with any Modifications or Alterations which to the said Commissioners of the Treasury may appear expedient, or to make and execute any other Works which to them may seem fit for effecting all or any of the Objects intended to be effected by the said Works; and the said Commissioners of Public Works shall, without any Assents or further Assents of Proprietors, Notice, or other Preliminary or Proceeding by the said Acts required to be given or taken before the Execution of any Works, have full Power and Authority to cause to be executed or completed the Works so authorized and directed by the said Commissioners of the Treasury to be completed or executed, and for that Purpose to do and execute all Acts, and exercise all Powers and Authorities by the said Acts or this Act given for the Execution of any Work, and in and by an Award to be made in relation to such Works in manner provided by the said Acts upon the Completion of Works authorized to be executed thereunder to provide for the Repayment of the Amount of all Costs, Charges, and Expenses incurred under the said Acts and this Act, or any of them, in relation to such Works (inclusive of Interest on Money borrowed), or such lesser Sum as under the Provision herein-after contained may be authorized in this Behalf with Interest from the Date of such Award as provided by the said Acts, any Provision in the said Acts or any of them requiring or concerning Assents or any other Provisions therein to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Treasury may reduce the Amount to be charged against Proprietors of Lands.

II. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury, where, upon any Inquiries made or to be made as aforesaid, it appears to them just that the Proprietors to be charged under the Award in relation to any Works to be executed or completed pleted as aforesaid, or which have been completed before the passing of this Act, and in relation to which an Award has not yet been made, should be relieved from a Portion of the Amount of the Expenses incurred in relation to such Works, to authorize and direct the said Commissioners of Public Works in and by their Award to be made under the said Acts or any of them to charge upon the Lands made liable under such Award in respect of such Works such lesser Sum than the full Amount of the Expenses of and incidental to such Works (inclusive of Interest on Money borrowed) as to the said Commissioners of the Treasury may, under the Circumstances of each Case, appear just; and it shall also be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury to direct that the Rate of Interest which shall be charged in such Award on the Sum or Sums payable thereunder shall be Four Pounds per Centum per Annum: Provided always, that in all Cases the whole Amount of the Purchase Money or Compensation payable in respect of Land taken for or injuriously affected by any Works commenced and completed or executed under the said Acts or this Act shall be included in and charged under the Award to be made in relation to such Works.

III. Provided also, That before the said Commissioners of the Treasury give any Authority or Direction, in pursuance of the foregoing Provisions, to the said Commissioners of Public Works for the Execution or Completion of any Works, or as to the Amount of Principal Money to be charged under any Award as aforesaid, the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall cause a Copy of any Report which may have been made to them in pursuance of any Inquiries to be hereafter made under their Directions as aforesaid in relation to such Works or the Amount to be charged under such Award, to be deposited by the said Commissioners of Public Works with the Clerk of the Peace of each County in which the District shall be situate, who is hereby required to receive the same, and all Persons shall have Liberty to inspect the same on the Payment of Sixpence for each Inspection; and the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall limit a Time, not less than Twenty-one Days from the Time of the Publication of Notice of such Deposit, within which Objections to such Report may be made; and the said Commissioners of Public Works shall cause Notice of such Deposit, of the Time so limited for making Objections to such Report, and of the Manner in which such Objections are to be transmitted to the said Commissioners of the Treasury, to be forthwith published in some Newspaper circulating in such District: Provided also, that until Directions shall be given by the said Commissioners of the Treasury in relation to any Works now in progress, nothing herein-before contained shall be construed to prevent the said Commissioners of Public Works from proceeding with such Works in like Manner as if this Act had not been passed.

IV. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury, if they see fit, (upon the Recommendation of the said Commissioners of Public Works, or of such Persons as may be appointed by the said Commissioners of the Treasury to make Inquiries for the Purposes of this Provision,) in any Case where a final Award has been already made, whether the same has been enrolled Treasury to cause Reports on Inquiries to be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace, and Notice of Deposit published, and until Directions of the Treasury are given, Works may be continued as if this Act had not been passed.

Power to Treasury to reduce Amount charged under existing Awards.

enrolled of list; to reduce the total Amount of Principal Money charged upon the Lands under such Award, and also, if they see fit, where the Rate of Interest charged by such Award exceeds Four Pounds per Centum per Annum; to reduce such Interest to that Rate, and to direct the said Commissioners of Public Works to make a rateable Reduction in the respective Portions of such Amount charged by the said Award upon the several Lands charged thereunder, and for that Purpose to make such Alteration in the Amount or Duration of the Instalments payable under such Award, or as well in the Duration as in the Amount thereof, as the said Commissioners of the Treasury may think fit, and where the said Commissioners of the Treasury so direct, to reduce the Rate of Interest to be thereafter payable in respect of the Sums charged under such Award to such Rate as aforesaid, and the said Commissioners of Public Works shall make such Reduction accordingly, and shall forthwith proceed to frame and settle a supplemental or new Award in conformity with the Directions of the said Commissioners of the Treasury without any Meeting, Notice, or other Proceeding previously to finally settling the same, and such supplemental or new Award shall be enrolled in the Rolls Office of Her Majesty's Court of Chancery in Ireland, and a Copy thereof deposited with the Clerk of the Peace in manner directed by the said Acts concerning the final Award of the Commissioners, and a Copy of such supplemental or new Award certified by the proper Officer of the said Rolls Office shall be Evidence thereof: Provided always, that in case any Proprietor shall, under the Provisions of the said Acts, have paid off the Principal Sum charged upon his Lands by any such Award, he shall be entitled to the Benefit of any Reduction so directed by the Commissioners of the Treasury as aforesaid, and to be reimbursed accordingly.

Awards when enrolled to be conclusive.

V. All supplemental or new Awards to be made as aforesaid, when enrolled as aforesaid, shall be binding and conclusive, and, subject to the Provision lastly herein-before contained, all final Awards heretofore made or purporting to have been made by the said Commissioners of Public Works, and enrolled as by the said Acts required, shall be and be deemed to have been valid and binding and conclusive.

Commissioners may pay off Debentures on Notice.

VI. Anything in the said Acts to the contrary notwithstanding, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Public Works, by and with the Sanction and Direction of the said Commissioners of the Treasury, from Time to Time to pay off all or any of the Certificates or Debentures heretofore issued and granted under the said Acts or any of them, on giving a Notice in the Dublin Gazette of their Intention so to do, and fixing a Day not sooner than Two Months from the Date of such Notice in which the Certificates or Debentures therein referred to shall be paid off: and from and after the Day in such Notice mentioned for the Payment of any such Certificates or Debentures the Interest on the Principal Money secured thereby shall cease and determine.

Treasury may remit Amount not charged against Proprietors.

VII. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury where, under the Provisions of this Act, they authorize the Reduction of the Amount to be charged under any Award to be hereafter made, or the Amount charged under any Award already already made, to direct so much of the Monies which may be payable in respect of any Loan or Loans made by the said Commissioners of Public Works for the Purposes of any Works under the said Acts or this Act as may be equal to the Sums by which the Amount charged or to be charged under such Award shall be reduced, shall be remitted and cease to be payable.

VIII. Provided always, That where the reduced Amount which may be charged by any Award made under the Provisions of this Act may be less than the Monies which may be secured and remain unpaid on the Certificates or Debentures issued in respect of the Expenses of the Works to which such Award relates, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall cause to be paid off such Certificates or Debentures, or so much of the Monies secured thereby as will reduce the Amount which shall remain owing thereon to or below the Amount charged by such Award.

Saving for Creditors.

IX. The Commissioners shall cause detailed Accounts in Writing of the several Sums received by them as such Commissioners, and of the Sums expended by them, and the Mode of such Expenditure, and of the several Works made or in progress under the said Acts or this Act, to be made up to the Thirty-first Day of December in each Year, and such Accounts shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Thirty Days thereafter if Parliament be then sitting, or within Thirty Days after the First Meeting of Parliament subsequent to the Thirty-first Day of December; and the Commissioners shall, as often as they shall be required so to do by the Commissioners of the Treasury, transmit to them Accounts made up to such Period as such last-mentioned Commissioners shall direct, and shall also transmit to the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, Accounts of the Receipt of Monies which shall come to their Hands under the said Acts or this Act, and of its Application and Expenditure, for the Purpose of Examination and final Audit.

Commissioners to account and report annually to Parliament.

X. The several Parts of Acts set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed shall be repealed, except as to anything heretofore done, and except so far as the Provisions so repealed may be necessary for the Purpose of supporting any Proceedings heretofore taken.

Parts of Acts set forth in the Schedule to this Act repealed.

XI. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury from Time to Time to appoint Two or more Persons as Occasion shall require to be Arbitrators for the Purposes herein-after mentioned, and to remove, where such Commissioners see fit, any Person so appointed.

Treasury to appoint Persons as Arbitrators.

XII. The said Commissioners are hereby authorized to purchase any Lands which they shall think it necessary or proper to purchase for accomplishing any of the Purposes of the said Acts and of this Act, making such reasonable Satisfaction and Recompence to the Persons entitled to or interested in such Land as shall be settled and ascertained in manner herein-after mentioned.

Commissioners may purchase Lands for Works.

XIII. The said Commissioners of Public Works shall cause Notices in Writing, specifying therein with reasonable Certainty the Quantity of Land taken or required to be taken, or injured or liable to be injuriously affected, and the Nature of the Injury that may be done or proposed to be done thereto, to be delivered to or left at the usual Places of Abode of the Proprietors or Occupiers, Notice to be given to Proprietors and Occupiers of Land with respect to Purchase or Compensation.

or reputed Proprietors or Occupiers, and all Persons interested, (where the same may be known to the Commissioners,) of and in all such Land as may be or have been taken or required to be taken for, or be or have been injured or liable to be injuriously affected by, the Works made or proposed to be made under the said recited Acts and this Act, requiring such Proprietors, Occupiers, or other Persons, on or before a Day to be named in such Notice, to prefer their respective Claims to such Commissioners for the Value of such Land, or the Compensation to be allowed for any Loss, Damage, or Injury, together with a short Statement or Particulars of the Title of the Party making such Claim thereto, and that in case the Commissioners and the Parties making such Claim shall not agree as to the Amount thereof, that a Meeting will be held by the Arbitrator to be nominated for the Purpose as herein-after mentioned for inquiring into all such Claims; and the said Commissioners shall, if they see fit, cause a like Notice to be published in some Newspaper circulating in the County or Counties in which such Land as aforesaid shall be situate.

Arbitrator to be appointed where Parties do not agree.

XIV. In all Cases in which any Corporation, Trustee, or other Person interested in or authorized by the said recited Acts to contract for, sell, and convey any Lands, shall neglect or refuse to treat or not agree with the Commissioners, or by reason of Absence or Disability cannot agree or be not found or known, or shall not prove a clear Title to the Land or to the Estate or Interest which such Corporation, Trustee, or Person shall claim therein, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners to nominate One of the Persons so appointed by the said Commissioners of the Treasury Arbitrator as aforesaid to be an Arbitrator for the Purpose of ascertaining the Purchase Money or Compensation (if any) to be paid for or in respect of the Lands, or any Loss, Damage, or Injury thereto, mentioned in any such Notice so given by the Commissioners.

Arbitrator may call for Papers, &c. and examine Witnesses.

XV. Such Arbitrator may call for the Production of any Documents in the Possession or Power of the Commissioners, or of any Party making any Claim under the Provisions of this Act, which such Arbitrator may think necessary for determining any Question or Matter to be determined by him under this Act, and may examine any such Party and his Witnesses, and the Witnesses for the Commissioners or the Proprietors of Lands within the District referred to in any such Notice, on Oath, and administer the Oaths necessary for that Purpose.

Arbitrator to make a Declaration.

XVI. Before any Arbitrator shall enter upon any Inquiry he shall in the Presence of a Justice of the Peace make and subscribe the following Declaration; that is to say,

‘ I A.B. do solemnly and sincerely declare, That I will faithfully and honestly, and to the best of my Skill and Ability, bear and determine the Matters referred to me under the Provisions of the Act (naming this Act). ‘ A.B. ‘ Made and subscribed in the Presence of .

And such Declaration shall be annexed to the Award when made, and if any Arbitrator having made such Declaration wilfully act contrary thereto he shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

XVII. Upon

XVII. Upon Nomination of any such Arbitrator as aforesaid, the Commissioners shall deliver to the Person so nominated a Copy of the Notice given by them, together with a Map (if any) of the Premises referred to in the said Notice, and all Claims sent in to the Commissioners pursuant to such Notice, and such other Documents as the Commissioners shall think necessary, and thereupon such Arbitrator shall issue his Summons to all Parties concerned in the Matter so referred to his Arbitration, requiring them to attend before him at a Place and on a Day to be fixed by him in such Summons, not earlier than Fourteen Days from the Date thereof, and shall inquire and adjudicate on such Matter, and proceed to make his Award in the Premises as herein-after provided.

Documents to be delivered to Arbitrator, and Parties to be summoned to attend.

XVIII. The Arbitrator shall at the Time and Place mentioned in such Summons (and whether the Parties summoned, or any of them, attend before him or not,) proceed to inquire into and adjudicate upon the Value of the Lands required for the Purposes of the said Acts and this Act, or in respect of which a Claim for Compensation may be made for any Injury thereto, and the several Interests in such Lands in respect of which no Agreement shall have been come to between the Commissioners and the Parties entitled thereto, and the Purchase Money to be paid for such Lands, and the Compensation to be paid for Injury to any Lands injuriously affected by the Execution of the Works of the Commissioners; and the Arbitrator shall, after due Inquiry and Examination, frame a Draft Award setting forth the Price or Compensation to be paid by the Commissioners in respect of the several Interests in the Lands so required or injuriously affected, and also what Abatement (if any) shall be made in the Rents payable out of the Land named and described in the Award, or any Land held under the same Lease or Instrument in conjunction therewith; and where any Inquiry relates not only to the Value of the Lands to be purchased, but also to Compensation claimed for Injury done or to be done to any Lands, the Arbitrator shall award separate and distinct Sums to be paid for the Purchase of such Lands, or of any Interest therein, to which the Inquiry may relate, and for the Damage (if any) to be sustained by reason of the severing of the Lands taken from the other Lands, or otherwise injuriously affecting such other Lands by the Exercise of the Powers of the Commissioners; and such Draft Award and Copies thereof shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace of every County in which such Lands or any Part thereof may be situate; and the Arbitrator shall cause Notice of such Award to be given to all Persons entitled to Payment or Compensation under the same, or who shall have been heard before such Arbitrator as Claimants for Compensation, and shall in such Notice appoint a Time and Place or Times and Places for holding a Meeting or Meetings to hear Objections against such Draft Award (the first such Meeting to be not earlier than Fourteen Days after the last Day of giving such Notice), and shall hold such Meeting or Meetings accordingly, and thereat hear and determine any Objections which may then and there be made to such Draft Award by any Person interested therein, or adjourn the further Hearing thereof, if the Arbitrator see fit, to a future Meeting, and may take any Measures which he may deem proper for ascertaining Arbitrator to adjudicate upon Claims and make his Award.

the Value of any such Lands or Interests as aforesaid, or the Justice or Propriety of any other Matter of such Draft Award, and may from Time to Time, if he see Occasion, appoint and hold further Meetings for hearing and determining Objections to such Draft Award, of which further Meetings when not holden by Adjournment Notice shall be given in manner herein-before directed; and when the Arbitrator has heard and determined all such Objections, and made such Inquiries as he may think necessary in relation thereto, and made such Alterations (if any) as he may deem proper in the Draft Award, he shall make his Award under his Hand and Seal accordingly; and every such Award shall be binding and conclusive, subject to the Provisions concerning Traverse herein-after contained, upon all Persons whomsoever; and no such Award shall be set aside for Irregularity in Matter of Form; and every such Award shall be deposited with the Commissioners, and a Copy thereof shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for every County in which such Lands or any Part thereof may be situate; and the Commissioners shall thereupon, in all Cases where it shall appear to them necessary so to do, require all Persons claiming to have any Right to or Interest in the Lands, the Price or Compensation to be paid in respect of which is ascertained by such Award, to deliver to the Commissioners, on or before a Day to be named by them (such Day not to be earlier than Fourteen Days from the Date of such Requisition), a short Abstract of the Title to the Interest in respect of which the Award is made, and such Abstract shall be paid for by the Commissioners, and all Sums so paid shall form Part of the Expenses incidental to the Execution of the Works in the District to which the Arbitration may relate.

Remuneration
of Arbitrator.

XIX. The Salary or Remuneration, travelling and other Expenses of the Arbitrator, including all Costs reasonably and properly incurred by him, shall be paid by the Commissioners, and the Amount of such Costs, Charges, and Expenses shall from Time to Time be included in and form Part of the Expenses incidental to the Execution of the Works in the Districts in relation to which such Expenses shall be incurred, and shall be defrayed accordingly.

Arbitrator may direct by whom Costs to be paid.

XX. It shall be lawful for the Arbitrator, where he thinks fit, on the Application of the Commissioners or of the Claimant, to adjudicate by whom the Costs of such Arbitration shall be borne, and to certify the Amount of the Costs properly payable to the Party entitled thereto in relation to the Arbitration, and the Amount of the Costs so certified shall be paid by the Commissioners or the Claimant as the said Arbitrator may award.

Party dissatisfied with Award may enter a Traverse.

XXI. Where the Party named in any Award under the Provisions herein-before contained (or any Party claiming under the Party so named) shall be dissatisfied with the Amount in such Award stated to be payable, it shall be lawful for such Party, at the Assizes for the County in which the Lands are situate, or where the Lands are situate in the County of Dublin, or County of the City of Dublin, in the Term next following the making of the Award, or where such Assizes are holden or such Term begins within less than Thirty Days after the making of the Award then at the next subsequent Assize or in the next subsequent Term (as the Case may be), upon giving Fifteen Days Notice in Writing Writing previously to such Assizes or Term respectively to the Secretary of the Commissioners of the Amount intended to be claimed, to have a Traverse for Damages entered in the Crown Book in respect of such Claim, and which Traverse shall be entered as follows: "In the Matter of Traverser,

 " the Proprietors of Lands in the Drainage District of " Respondents," and thereupon such Traverse shall be tried in like Manner, and like Proceedings shall be had and subject to the like Provisions, as far as the same can be applied, as in the Case of Traverses entered for Damages under the Acts for consolidating and amending the Laws relating to the Presentment of Public Monies by Grand Juries in Ireland: Provided always, that the Sum to be awarded or allowed as the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of the Trial of every such Traverse for Damages shall in no Case exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds, and further, that no Party shall have any other Remedy for the Purpose of impeaching the Amount of any Price or Compensation ascertained by any such Award as aforesaid other than by means of such Traverse as aforesaid, anything in any Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided also, that the Jury which shall try such Traverse shall be sworn a true Verdict to give whether any and what Damages will be sustained by the Traverser, regard being had to the Value of the Lands of such Traverser required, and to the Injury to any Lands of such Traverser injuriously affected by the Works of the Commissioners, and also regard being had in Cases of Mills or Factories to any Benefit resulting or which may result from any Improvement which shall be effected by the Execution of the Works in the Water Power of or Constancy of Supply of Water to such Mill or Factory, or by Relief from Back Water afforded to it.

XXII. For the Purpose of the Protection of the Interests of the Proprietors in any Drainage District it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to call a Meeting of the Proprietors of the Land included in such District to make Choice of a Standing Committee to represent such Proprietors on any Arbitration, Trial of Traverse, or Proceeding under the said Acts or this Act, and such Meeting shall be convened by not less than Fourteen Days Notice in some Newspaper circulating in the County or Counties in which such District may be situate, and at such Meeting the Proprietors then present, or their known Agents, or such of the said Proprietors or Agents as may represent the greater Portion of the Lands belonging to the whole Number of Proprietors, who or whose Agents shall be present at such Meeting, shall elect not less than Three nor more than Thirteen Persons from among the Proprietors of Land in such District, or their known Agents, to be such Committee as aforesaid, and the Names of the Persons so elected shall be certified to the Commissioners under the Hand of the Chairman or Person presiding at such Meeting, and shall be transmitted to the Commissioners at their Office in Dublin, and there preserved; and any Document purporting to be a Copy of any such Certificate, signed by the Commissioners or their Secretary for the Time being, shall be received in Evidence as a true Copy of such Certificate, and of the Validity of the Original of which the same purports to be a Copy, and of the due Election according to this Act of the Persons named therein.

Commissioners may convene a Meeting of Proprietors for electing a Standing Committee.

In case of Default of Proprietors, Commissioners may appoint such Committee.

XXIII. In case of Default on the Part of the Proprietors to meet, pursuant to such Notice as aforesaid, or at such Meeting to elect such Committee as aforesaid, or in case such Certificate as aforesaid of such Election be not transmitted to the Commissioners within Seven Days after the Time appointed for such Meeting, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, if they see fit so to do, by Writing under their Hands, to appoint such Committee as aforesaid; and any Document purporting to be a Copy of any such Appointment, signed by the Commissioners or their Secretary for the Time being, shall be received in Evidence of such Appointment and of the Validity thereof.

Committee may appear upon Arbitration, Trial of Traverse, &c.

XXIV. In case any Member of a Standing Committee appointed as aforesaid shall die, resign, or become incapable to act, it shall be lawful for a Majority of the surviving or continuing Members of such Committee to appoint a Person to act in the Place and Stead of such Member so dying, resigning, or becoming incapable to act, and in default of such Appointment for the Space of Two Months it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to appoint a Person instead of the Member so dying, resigning, or becoming incapable to act.

On Neglect of Committee, Commissioners may appoint a Person to represent them.

XXV. The Commissioners or their Secretary shall, upon any Summons or Notice being served on or given to them or him in relation to any Arbitration, Traverse, or other Proceeding under the said Acts or this Act, forthwith communicate the same to the Committee elected or appointed for the District as herein provided; and such Committee may appear upon such Arbitration, or the Trial of such Traverse, or such other Proceeding, by any Counsel, Solicitor, or Agent to be appointed by them for such Purpose.

Filling up Vacancies in Committee.

XXVI. Upon any Arbitration or the Trial of any Traverse or other Proceeding under the said Acts or this Act, in case the said Committee neglect to appoint a Counsel, Solicitor, or Agent to represent them on such Arbitration, Trial of Traverse, or other Proceeding, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, if they see fit, to appoint some Counsel, Solicitor, or Agent for that Purpose.

Expenses of employing Counsel, &c., to be Part of the Expenses in the District.

XXVII. The Expenses attending the Employment of any Counsel, Solicitor, or Agent, or any Clerk, appointed by any such Committee as aforesaid, or by the Commissioners as herein-before provided, when taxed and ascertained by the Commissioners, may be paid by them, and the same shall form Part of the Expenses incidental to the Works in the District in respect of which such Employment may take place, and be paid for accordingly.

Receipt to be given for Purchase Money or Compensation, and Receipt for Purchase Money to operate as a Conveyance.

XXVIII. Anything in the said Acts to the contrary notwithstanding, in every Case in which any Monies are paid by the Commissioners under the Provisions of the said Acts or this Act for such Purchase or Compensation as aforesaid, the Party receiving such Monies shall give to the Commissioners a Receipt for the same; and such Receipt for any Purchase Money shall have the Effect of a Grant, Release, and Conveyance of all the Estate and Interest of such Party, and of all Parties claiming under or through him, in the Lands in respect of which such Monies are paid, so as such Receipt shall have an ad valorem Stamp of the same Amount impressed thereon in respect of the Purchase Monies mentioned in such Receipt (but exclusive of the Amount of Compensation for Damage by Severance, or other Injury) as would have been necessary if such Receipt had been an actual Conveyance of such Estate or Interest, every such Receipt to be prepared by and at the Costs of the Commissioners, and be charged and defrayed in like Manner as the Purchase Money or Compensation for which such Receipt shall be given.

XXIX. The Provisions herein contained for ascertaining the Amount of Purchase or Compensation Money to be paid in respect of Land taken for or injuriously affected by any Works made under the said Acts and this Act, shall extend and be applicable to and for the ascertaining the Amount of Purchase Money, Satisfaction, or Compensation, or Damages to be paid for or in respect of any Mill, Dam, River, Water Power, or other Matter or Thing which the Commissioners are by the said Acts or this Act authorized to purchase or interfere with for the Purpose of any Works executed by them.

XXX. For the Purposes of the said Acts and of this Act the Commissioners, or any Engineer, Workman, or other Person authorized by them, at any Time pending the Purchase or ascertaining of the Price or Compensation of any Land, Mill, or Hereditament, and after Three Days previous Notice in Writing given to the Party in Occupation, may enter upon and into such Land, Mill, or Hereditament for the Purpose of executing any Works by the said Acts or this Act authorized, or doing any other Act, Matter, or Thing required in the Opinion of the Commissioners for carrying fully into effect the Purposes of the said Acts or of this Act.

XXXI. The Commissioners, or any Engineer, Workman, or other Person authorized by them, after Three Days previous Notice in Writing given to the Party in Occupation, may enter into and search for, dig, take, and carry away Materials out of any Land for the Purpose of executing or repairing any Works, making such Compensation for the Surface Damage done to the Proprietors, Lessees, or Occupiers of such Lands according to their respective Interests therein as shall be agreed on; but in all Cases where the Commissioners shall take Materials from an open Quarry bona fide demised to any Person, with Liberty to raise, sell, and dispose of the Materials therein, the Value of such Materials shall be paid for by the Commissioners as shall be agreed on; and in case of Dispute concerning the Amount of such Compensation for Damages, or the Value of such Materials, such Compensation or Value shall be settled, on a Summons to be issued for that Purpose by the Party claiming such Compensation or Value by any One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for such County in which such Land is situate at Petty Sessions; and Service of such Summons on the Engineer of the Commissioners in charge of the Works in the District for the Purpose of which such Materials shall be taken shall be sufficient: Provided always, that no such Summons shall issue or be proceeded on until the whole Extent of the Damage to be done by the Commissioners, or the whole of the Materials to be taken by them, shall be ascertained.

Provisions concerning Compensation for Land to extend to Interference with Mills, &c.

Power of Entry for executing Works pending Proceedings for Purchase or ascertaining Compensation.

Power to dig for Materials.

Summary Proceedings to be deemed to authorize Interference with Mills.

XXXII. It is hereby declared, that all the Provisions contained in the said Acts of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Four, and of the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-nine, respecting the summary Course of Procedure by the said Acts provided, shall be deemed to authorize and justify and to have authorized and justified the Commissioners in interfering and dealing with all Mills and Factories, and the Water Power thereof, according to the said summary Course of Procedure by the said Acts provided, in such Manner as by the Commissioners may be or have been considered requisite for enabling them to carry on the Works under the said Acts and this Act, and for the due Execution thereof: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to prejudice or affect any Proceedings in any Court of Law or Equity had or commenced before the passing of this Act.

Remedy by summary Application to the Court of Chancery in the event of Commissioners failing to secure the due Amount of Water Power to the Owner of any Mill or Factory.

XXXIII. Any Person interested in any Mill or Factory permanently affected or proposed to be permanently affected by anything done or proposed to be done under the Provisions of the said Acts or of this Act may apply by Petition in a summary Way to the Court of Chancery, complaining that the due Amount of Water Power has not been properly secured to or for such Mill or Factory, or that any Act has been done or has been threatened or proposed to be done by the Commissioners, or by any Person acting or pretending to act under the Provisions of this Act, by which permanent Injury has been or may be sustained by such Mill or Factory, or by such Person so interested in respect thereof, and whether the Act complained of has been authorized by this Act or otherwise, and thereupon such Court shall make such Order directing such Proceedings as shall seem proper before One of the Masters of such Court in relation to the Matter of the said Petition; and upon the Report of such Master it shall be lawful for such Court to direct such Works to be made by such Commissioners as to such Court of Chancery shall seem necessary or proper, and to make from Time to Time such further or other Order, whether for Compensation to any Party interested in such Mill or Factory, or for restraining the Commissioners or any other Person from doing any Act or otherwise, as to such Court shall seem just, and to issue any Writ or Writs of Injunction for any of the Purposes aforesaid for which the same may be required, and such Court shall have Power to award Costs to either Party: Provided always, that such Petition shall be presented within Six Months after the Act complained of.

Commissioners and Trustees may proceed for Maintenance Rates.

XXXIV. The Commissioners and the Trustees having the Maintenance of any Works executed under the said Acts or this Act shall have the same Powers, Rights, and Remedies to enforce Payment of the Rates at any Time heretofore or hereafter to be imposed by the Commissioners or such Trustees under the Powers of the said Acts as are in and by the said Acts given to the Commissioners for Recovery of the Sums or Instalments charged under their final Award; and the Trustees in all Cases where it may be necessary to take any Proceedings in Recovery of any such Rate or otherwise may sue in the Names of Two of them.

XXXV. It

XXXV. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners where they see fit, on determining, under the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, the Amount of increased Rent to be paid in respect of any Land drained or improved as therein mentioned, to signify their Decision by a separate Instrument.

Rents may be increased by separate Instrument.

XXXVI. In all Cases where any Person shall consider himself entitled to be paid Compensation or Damages for or by reason of any Act or Omission by or on the Part of the Commissioners, or for or by reason of any Works or Acts whatsoever done or proposed to be done by the Commissioners under the Authority or in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Acts or of this Act, such Person (save as herein-before provided) shall not be entitled to proceed at Law or in Equity for or in respect of the same, but the Right to such Compensation or Damages, and the Amount hereof, shall be ascertained in the Manner herein-before provided, and not otherwise, anything in the said Acts contained notwithstanding.

Parties entitled to Purchase Money, Compensation, or Damages to have same ascertained as herein provided.

XXXVII. Anything in the said first-recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding, if any existing Bridge, Culvert, or Archway for the Discharge of Water under any public Road shall in the Opinion of the Commissioners be insufficient for the free Discharge of such Water, and shall by reason of such Insufficiency cause or tend to cause the flooding of any Land to be drained or improved by the Works of the Commissioners, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to take down and remove such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, the Commissioners constructing a temporary Bridge, Culvert, or Archway in the Place of that so to be taken down and removed, and supporting and maintaining the same for the Space of Twelve Months, the Expense of the taking down and Removal of such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, and constructing, supporting, and maintaining such temporary Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, to form Part of the Costs of the Works in the District within which any such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway may be situate: Provided always, that before proceeding to remove any such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway the Commissioners shall cause Thirty-one Days Notice to be given to the County Surveyor of the County or of each County (if more than One) in which such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway shall be wholly or in part situate, stating the Intention of the Commissioners to remove such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, and communicating such precise Information, including a detailed Plan and Cross Section of the River or Stream over which a new Bridge, Culvert, or Archway is to be built, as may be requisite to show the Dimensions of the Waterway of such new Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, for the Purpose of enabling the County Surveyor to prepare a proper Plan, Specification, and Estimate for such new Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, and the Surveyor of any such County to whom such Notice shall be given shall at the next Assizes after the Receipt of such Notice lay the same, together with a proper Plan, Specification, and Estimate for such new Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, before the Grand Jury of such County.

Commissioners may remove any insufficient Bridge, erecting a temporary Bridge.

XXXVIII. The Grand Jury of the County in which any such new Bridge, Culvert, or Archway shall be required to be built or constructed constructed is hereby authorized and required (without any Application to Presentment Sessions) to present the Amount necessary for the building of such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway according to such Plan, Specification, and Estimate as aforesaid, or such other Plan, Specification, and Estimate as such Grand Jury may approve, and the Grand Jury of such County shall thereupon appoint a Committee of not less than Three or more than Five Persons, any Three of whom shall be a Quorum, to contract and agree with any Party or Person willing to undertake the building of such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, or the said Grand Jury may authorize and direct that the said Bridge, Culvert, or Archway may be built and constructed, out of the Money so presented, under the immediate Superintendence and Direction of the County Surveyor of such County.

Grand Jury to present for new Bridge.

Where any new Bridge, &c. is formed over a Stream between Two Counties, each to pay equal Moieties.

XXXIX. Where any such new Bridge, Culvert, or Archway shall be over any River or Stream forming a Boundary between Two Counties, the same shall be built or constructed at the Expense of such Two Counties in equal Moieties; and the Grand Jury of each such County shall (without any Application to Presentment Sessions) present the Moiety of the Sum necessary for building or constructing such new Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, and appoint a Committee, as herein-before provided in the Case of One County; and the Committees so appointed shall meet and act as a joint Committee, for the Purpose of contracting as aforesaid for the building or constructing of such new Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, at the joint Expense of the said Counties, as aforesaid; and in case both or either of such Grand Juries shall neglect to make such Presentment and appoint such Committees as aforesaid, or in case both or either of such Committees shall neglect to contract for the Construction of such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, or if from any other Cause such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway shall not be built or constructed within Twelve Months after such Notice by the Commissioners to the Surveyor of each County, as herein-before provided, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to have such new Bridge, Culvert, or Archway built in such Manner as to them shall seem sufficient, and by a Certificate under their Hands and Seals to signify to the Secretary of the Grand Jury of each such County the Amount of the Moiety of the Expenses incurred by them in building or constructing such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, and the Secretary of the Grand Jury of each such County shall lay such Certificate before the Grand Jury of such County at the Assizes to be held for such Counties respectively next after the Receipt of such Certificate, and thereupon the Grand Jury of each such County shall (without any Application to Presentment Sessions) present the Amount mentioned in such Certificate, to be levied off such County immediately after such Assizes, and to be paid to the Commissioners; and in case the Grand Jury of any such County shall neglect or refuse to present the Sum so mentioned in such Certificate the Judge of Assize shall make an Order directing that the Treasurer for such County shall insert such Sum in his Warrant, and the same shall be levied off such County in the same Manner as if the same had been presented by such Grand Jury.

XL. In all Cases where before the passing of this Act any bridge, Culvert, or Archway has, in the Execution of any Works under the said Acts, been removed by the Commissioners, and a new permanent Bridge, Culvert, or Archway has not been built or constructed or commenced, the Commissioners shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, give Notice to the County Surveyor of any or every County in which any such bridge, Culvert, or Archway so removed was wholly or in part situated, containing the like Information, for the building or constructing of such new Bridge, Culvert, or Archway as hereinbefore required in the Case of a Bridge, Culvert, or Archway ereafter removed; and the Provision herein-before contained for rebuilding or re-constructing any Bridge, Culvert, or Archway upon Notice of any existing Bridge, Culvert, or Archway being about to be removed, shall be applicable for the rebuilding or re-construction of any such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway so already removed as aforesaid.

Foregoing Provisions applicable where Bridges have been already removed.

XLI. For the Purpose of more effectively preserving and maintaining the Works executed by the Commissioners under the said Acts, the Trustees for the Time acting under the said Acts for such Purposes in any District shall meet in the Month of February in every Year, and at such other Times as they think fit, and shall appoint the County Surveyor or any other competent Person to be the Superintendent of the Works in such District, at such Salary, to be paid out of the Rates imposed by such Trustees, as they may think proper, and such Superintendent shall, in the Month of February in each Year, and from Time to Time as Occasion may require, report to the said Trustees the State of the whole of the principal Rivers and Main Drains forming Part of the Works improved or executed in such District, and whether any and what Repairs or Works are necessary for cleansing and preserving the same, and shall generally direct the carrying into effect of such Works as the Trustees may from Time to Time direct and approve for the Purposes aforesaid.

Trustees having Maintenance of Works to appoint a Superintendent.

XLII. In case any Proprietor or Occupier of Land within any such District shall complain to such Superintendent of any Injury to the Works or Obstruction to the free Discharge of the Waters in such District, it shall be lawful for the Party so complaining to require such Superintendent to examine into the Matter so complained of, and to make his Report to the Trustees thereon; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the Trustees or any Two of them, if they see fit, on receiving such Report, to require that such Injury shall be remedied or such Obstruction removed by such Superintendent.

Proprietors or Occupiers may complain to Superintendent.

XLIII. In case the Trustees shall decline or refuse to have the necessary Works executed for the Removal of such Injury or Obstruction, it shall be lawful for the Party complaining to apply in a summary Way to the Justices assembled at the next Petty Session for the District in which the Cause of Complaint may arise, and thereupon such Justices shall proceed to hear the Matter of such Complaint and make such Order thereon as to such Justices shall seem proper, and thereby (if they see fit) to authorize and require such Superintendent to remove such Injury or Obstruction, and thereupon such Superintendent shall remove Parties may appeal to Petty Sessions.

‘ Thames with Ballast, receive certain Ballastage Rates under the said Act of the Seventh Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter Fifty-seven : And whereas the Board of Trade receive certain Fees and other Payments under “ The Mercantile Marine Act, 1850,” “ The Mercantile Marine Act Amendment Act, 1851,” and “ The Steam Navigation Act, 1851 :” And whereas the Trinity House have, so far as relates to the said Tolls and Rates so received by them, agreed that the Account thereof shall be kept at the Bank of England, and that certain Regulations shall be adopted for the Purpose of reducing the same from Time to Time as the Requirements of the Services for which they are levied will permit, and for the Purpose of subjecting the Receipt and Expenditure thereof to effective Supervision and Control : And whereas it is expedient that the whole of the aforesaid Tolls, Rates, Fees, and Payments should be made subject to similar Regulations with a view to the Supervision and Control of the Receipt and Expenditure thereof, and to the Application thereof to the several Services in respect of which they are paid, and to the Reduction thereof respectively whenever Circumstances will permit : Be it enacted, That all Lighthouse Tolls received by or on account of the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation respectively, and all Ballastage Rates received by the Trinity House, and all Fees or Payments received by the Board of Trade under the several Acts herein-before mentioned in that Behalf, shall be carried to One aggregate Fund, to be called “ The Mercantile Marine Fund ;” and such aggregate Fund shall be applicable to the Purposes of the Services in respect of which the said Tolls, Rates, Fees, and Payments are levied, and to the Execution of Works necessary or expedient for permanently reducing the Expense of such Services, and, save as herein-after specially mentioned, to no other Purposes whatever.

V. An Account of the said Fund, to be entitled “ The Mercantile Marine Fund Account,” shall be opened with Her Majesty's Paymaster General ; and the said Paymaster General shall keep separate Accounts of the several Monies so received as aforesaid by the said several Bodies respectively, and shall also keep separate Accounts of the Monies received by the Trinity House for Lighthouse Tolls and Ballastage Rates respectively, and shall keep the Accounts of all Monies received by the Trinity House in such Names as the Trinity House may from Time to Time appoint : and all Monies received on account of such Tolls, Rates, Fees, or Payments as aforesaid after the Time at which this Act comes into operation, and all Cash Balances arising from such Tolls, Rates, Fees, or Payments which at that Time are in the Hands of the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, the Port of Dublin Corporation, or the Board of Trade, shall, as the Board of Trade may direct, either be applied to defray Expenses, or be remitted to the said Paymaster General to be placed to the Credit of the said Mercantile Marine Fund Account ; and all Investments arising from any such Tolls as aforesaid which at the Time when this Act comes into operation are in the Hands of the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses or of the Port of Dublin Corporation shall be sold, and the Produce thereof shall be applied

plied and remitted in like Manner ; and all Monies so remitted all, so far as regards the Application thereof, be treated as being One aggregate Fund, and shall be from Time to Time transferred and applied as the Board of Trade may direct for all any of the Purposes specified in this Act.

VI. Her Majesty may from Time to Time, by and with the Advice of Her Privy Council, fix the Establishments to be maintained by the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation respectively on account of the Services of Lighthouses, and to be maintained by the Trinity House on account of the Services to which the said Ballastage Rates are to be applied aforesaid, or the annual or other Sums to be paid out of the said Mercantile Marine Fund in respect of such Establishments ; and if it appears that any part of the Establishments of the Trinity House, or of the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, or of the Port of Dublin Corporation respectively is maintained for the Purposes of this Act, and also for other Purposes, to fix and from Time to Time alter the Portion of the Expense of such Establishments to be paid out of the said Mercantile Marine Fund ; and no Increase of any Establishment or Part of an Establishment so fixed shall be made without the Consent of the Board of Trade.

VII. The Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation respectively shall from Time to Time submit to the Board of Trade Estimates of the Expenses in respect of the Services aforesaid, other than the Establishment Expenses for the Time being allowed by Order in Council as aforesaid ; and shall also, whenever in providing for any sudden Emergency it is necessary to incur Expense in respect of such Services without waiting until an Estimate can be sanctioned, as soon as possible send to the Board of Trade a full account of such Expense ; and the Board of Trade shall consider and may approve such Estimates and Accounts, either with or without Variation.

VIII. No Expense of the said Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, or the Port of Dublin Corporation in respect of the said Services shall be paid out of the said Mercantile Marine Fund, or allowed in Account, other than the Sums so allowed for Establishment Expenses as aforesaid, or included in Estimates of Accounts approved by the Board of Trade.

IX. For the Purpose of the Erection and Repairs of Lighthouses, and of other extraordinary Expenses connected with the said Services or any of them, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are authorized from Time to Time, upon the Application to the Board of Trade, to advance out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom such Sums of Money, upon such Terms, and at such Rate of Interest as they may think fit, and to pay the same into the said Mercantile Marine Fund and Account, so nevertheless that the whole Sum for the Time being due in respect of such Advances shall never at any One time exceed Two hundred thousand Pounds ; and upon any Advance being so made, the Sum so advanced and the Interest shall be a Charge on the said Mercantile Marine Fund, and upon the Sums, Rates, Fees, and Payments so to be carried thereto as aforesaid ; said; and the Board of Trade shall make such Provision for the Repayment thereof out of the said Fund, either by forming a Sinking Fund or otherwise, as the said Commissioners may require; provided that no such Advance shall prevent any lawful Reduction of any of the said Tolls, Rates, Fees, or Payments if such Reduction be assented to by the said Commissioners.

X. The Board of Trade may also, for the Purpose last aforesaid, raise Money by mortgaging the said Mercantile Marine Fund, and the several Tolls, Rates, Fees, and Payments so to be carried thereto as aforesaid, or any of them, or any Part thereof, to any Body Corporate or Person; and every such Mortgage shall be in such Form, and under the Hand and Seal of such Person or Persons, as the President of the said Board for the Time being may direct; and no Body Corporate or Person lending Money upon any such Mortgage shall be bound to see to the Purpose for which the same is raised, or to the Mode in which it is applied.

XI. Upon the Erection of any new Lighthouse Her Majesty may by Order in Council fix such Toll in respect thereof to be paid by the Master or Owner of every Ship which passes the same or derives Benefit therefrom as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, and may from Time to Time alter the Amount thereof; and such Toll shall be paid and collected in the same Manner, by the same Means, and subject to the same Conditions in, by, and subject to which the Lighthouse Tolls mentioned in the Act of the Seventh Year of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-nine, are paid and collected.

XII. All Debts and Liabilities which have been duly incurred or undertaken by the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation respectively, before the passing of this Act, and which are such as if this Act had not been passed ought to have been paid out of the said Tolls and Rates, shall be paid or provided for out of the said Mercantile Marine Fund; and all Expenses of the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation, in respect of any charitable or other Pensions, Superannuations, or other Allowances which have been lawfully granted or allowed by them respectively before the passing of this Act, and which are such as if this Act had not been passed ought to have been paid out of the said Tolls and Rates, shall be paid out of the said Mercantile Marine Fund during the respective Lives or Continuance in Office of the Persons receiving the same, or other Periods for which the same may have been granted or allowed; and if it appear that any Debts or Liabilities so incurred as aforesaid, or any of the Expenses in respect of charitable or other Pensions, and Superannuation or other Allowances, are Debts, Liabilities, or Expenses which if this Act had not been passed would have been paid partly out of the said Tolls and Rates and partly from other Sources, such Part thereof as the Board of Trade shall under the Circumstances of the Case think just shall be paid out of the said Mercantile Marine Fund; and the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation respectively shall submit to the Board of Trade Statements of all such Debts and Liabilities, and of all such Expenses or Parts of Expenses in respect of charitable or other Pen-

notified by them, and Public Notices shall also be sent to the Constables, Tithingmen, Headboroughs, and other Officers of the respective Parishes, Tithings, and Places in the County, Riding, or Place for which such Men are enrolled, with Directions to cause the same to be affixed on the Door or the outer Wall near the Door of every Church and Chapel in their respective Parishes, Tithings, or Places, including Places of Public Worship which do not belong to the Established Church; and if any Place have no Church or Chapel, then in such Manner as Public Notices are usually made known in such Places, and on the Doors or outer Walls as aforesaid of the Churches or Chapels of some Parish, Tithing, or Place adjoining; and every such Constable, Tithingman, Headborough, and other Officer as aforesaid shall, within Three Days after the Receipt of any such Notice, cause the same or Copies thereof to be affixed accordingly; and any such Constable, Tithingman, Headborough, or Officer who wilfully neglects so to do shall for every such Offence, on Conviction thereof before Two Justices, forfeit any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds; and such Notice shall be deemed a sufficient Notice to every Person enrolled by virtue of the Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Queen Victoria, Chapter Fifty, notwithstanding any Omission in the Notices by Post; and any such Man not appearing at the Time and Place appointed in any such Notice shall be subject to be punished and dealt with accordingly.

VII. Any Militia Volunteer who, before the Expiration of his Engagement as a Militiaman in any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, enrolls or offers to enrol himself in any other Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, or in the same Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, whether by the same or by different Names (save in the Way of lawful Renewal of his Engagement), shall upon a Conviction thereof, upon the Oath of One Witness, before any One Justice of the Peace, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds, and in default of such Payment shall be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for any Time not exceeding Three Months, and shall also be liable to the Deduction out of the Bounty which he might otherwise have received in respect of his original Enlistment of a Sum equal to what he may have received upon his fraudulent Re-enlistment, and of such further Sum as the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps in which he may have originally enlisted shall think proper, or as the Secretary-at-War may from Time to Time direct, not exceeding the Expenses of his Attestation and Enrolment on such fraudulent Re-enlistment.

XVI. Subject to all Liabilities duly incurred or undertaken by or with the Sanction of the Board of Trade before the passing of this Act, such Part of the said Mercantile Marine Fund as arises from Fees and Payments received by the Board of Trade under the Acts herein-before mentioned in that Behalf shall be applied exclusively in or towards the Payment of Expenses duly incurred in carrying on the several Services herein-before mentioned, and for no other Purpose whatever; and it shall be lawful for the Board of Trade from Time to Time to reduce or alter the said Fees in such Manner as such Board may think fit, so that no Fee be demanded of greater Amount than could have been demanded if this Act had not passed.

XVII. The Sixty-second Section of the Act of the Seventh Year of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-nine, shall be repealed; and the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation shall respectively account to the Board of Trade for their Receipts from the said Tolls and Rates so received by them as aforesaid, and for their Expenditure as regards Expenses paid out of the Mercantile Marine Fund, in such Form, and at such Times, and with such Details, Explanations, and Vouchers, as the Board of Trade may require, and shall, when required by the said Board, permit all Books of Accounts kept by or under their respective Direction to be inspected and examined by such Persons as the said Board may appoint for that Purpose.

XVIII. The Board of Trade shall render to the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts periodical Accounts of the whole of the Receipts and Expenditure of the said Mercantile Marine Fund, such Accounts to be signed and declared to by the Accountant appointed by the Board of Trade for that Purpose; and in case of Default it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to make or direct such Allowance as under the Circumstances of the Case they may think fit in respect thereof.

XIX. The Board of Trade shall as soon as practicable after the Meeting of Parliament in every Year cause the Account of the Mercantile Marine Fund for the then preceding Year to be laid before both Houses of Parliament.

XX. The Board of Trade may, upon Complaint to the Effect that any Lighthouse under the Management of the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, or the Port of Dublin Corporation, or any Work connected therewith, is inefficient, or improperly managed, or unnecessary, authorize Persons to inspect the same; and every Person so authorized may enter and inspect the same accordingly, and make such Inquiries in respect thereof, and of the Management thereof, as he may think fit; and all Officers and others having the Care of such Lighthouses or concerned in the Management thereof, shall furnish all such Information and Explanations in relation thereto as he may require; and the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation, and their respective Officers, shall at all Times give to the Board of Trade all such Returns, Explanations, or Information in relation to such Lighthouses and the Management thereof, and in relation to the several Services aforesaid, as such Board may from Time to Time require.

So much of 7 & 8 Vict. c. 112. as to Wages, instead of being paid at once, to be given to the Queen’s Officer on account of the Seaman, repealed.

XXXV. So much of the Fifty-first Section of the Act of the Eighth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twelve, as requires the proportionate Amount of the Wages of any Seaman who quits his Ship and enters Her Majesty’s Naval Service, up to the Time of such Entry, to be paid to him thereupon, shall be repealed; and in all such Cases such proportionate Amount of Wages shall be paid as follows; that is to say, the Master of the said Ship shall pay the same, either in Money or by Bill drawn upon the Owner and payable at sight, to the Officer in command of Her Majesty’s Ship into which the Seaman enters; and the Receipt of such Officer shall be a Discharge for the Money or Bill so given; and if such Wages are paid in Money, such Money shall be credited in the Muster Book of the Ship to the Account of the said Seaman, and if such Wages are paid by Bill, such Bill shall be sent home to the Accountant General of Her Majesty’s Navy, who shall present the same or cause the same to be presented for Payment, and shall credit the Produce thereof to the Account of the said Seaman; and such Money or Produce

III. It shall not be lawful, after the Time mentioned in any such Order in Council for the Discontinuance of Burials, to bury the Dead in any Church, Chapel, Churchyard, or Burial Place, or elsewhere, within the Parts to which such Order extends, or in the Burial Grounds or Places of Burial (as the Case may be) in which Burials have by any such Order been ordered to be discontinued, except as in this Act or in such Order excepted; and every Person who shall, after such Time as aforesaid, bury any Body, or in anywise act or assist in the Burial of any Body, contrary to this Enactment, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Burial not to take place after Order in Council for Discontinuance.

IV. Provided always, That notwithstanding any such Order in Council, where by virtue of any Faculty legally granted, or by Usage or otherwise, there is at the Time of the passing of this Act any Right of Interment in or under any Church or Chapel affected by such Order, or in any Vault of any such Church or Chapel, or of any Churchyard or Burial Ground affected by such Order, and where any exclusive Right of Interment in any such Burial Ground has been purchased or acquired before the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State from Time to Time, on Application being made to him, and on being satisfied that the Exercise of such Right will not be injurious to Health, to grant Licence for the Exercise of such Right during such Time and subject to such Conditions and Restrictions as such Secretary of State may think fit, but such Licence shall not prejudice or in anywise affect the Authority of the Ordinary, or of any other Person who, if this Act had not been passed, might have prohibited or controlled Interment under such Right, nor dispense with any Consent which would have been required, nor otherwise give to such Right any greater Force or Effect than the same would have had if this Act had not been passed.

Saving of certain Rights to bury in Vaults, &c.

V. The Provisions of this Act shall not extend to authorize the Discontinuance of Burials, or to prevent the Burial of the Body of any Person, in any Cemetery established under the Authority of any Act of Parliament, or in any Burial Ground or Cemetery to be hereafter provided with the Approval of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as herein mentioned.

Not to extend to certain Cemeteries or new Burial Grounds, &c.

VI. Where by any such Order in Council as aforesaid it is ordered that no new Burial Ground shall be opened in any City or Town, or within any Limits therein mentioned, without the previous Approval of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, no new Burial Ground or Cemetery (parochial or non-parochial) shall be provided and used in such City or Town, or within such Limits, without such previous Approval.

New Burial Grounds not to be opened contrary to Order in Council.

VII. All the Provisions contained in the said Act of the last Session of Parliament, Chapter Eighty-five, "to amend the Laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in the Metropolis," from Section Ten to Section Forty-two (both inclusive) of the said Act, and also in Sections Forty-four, Fifty, Fifty-one, and Fifty-two of the said Act, shall extend and be applicable to and in respect of any Parish not in the Metropolis, and for the Purpose of providing a Burial Ground for any such Parish, or otherwise providing for the Interment of the Bodies of Persons who would have had Right of Interment in the Burial Ground of any such Parish, and generally in Certain Provisions of Metropolitan Burial Act, 15 & 16 Vict. c. 85., extended to Parishes, &c. not in the Metropolis.

of Her Majesty's Navy; and such Accountant General shall, upon Delivery to him of the said original Certificate, together with a Receipt in Writing purporting to be a Receipt from the Master or Owner making the Application, pay to the Person delivering the same, out of the Monies applicable to the Naval Service of Her Majesty and granted by Parliament for the Purpose, the Amount mentioned in such Certificate; and such Certificate and Receipt shall absolutely discharge the said Accountant General and Her Majesty from all Liability in respect of the Monies so paid or of the said Application.

Desertion.

Seamen imprisoned for Desertion or Breach of Discipline may be sent on board before the Termination of the Sentence.

XXXVIII. If any Seaman or Apprentice is imprisoned in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions on the Ground of his having neglected or refused to join any Ship in which he is engaged to serve, or of having deserted or otherwise absented himself therefrom without Leave, or of his having committed any other Breach of Discipline, and if during such Imprisonment, and before his Engagement is at an end, his Services are required on board his Ship, any Justice may, at the Request of the Master or of the Owner or his Agent, cause such Seaman or Apprentice to be conveyed on board his said Ship for the Purpose of proceeding on the Voyage, or to be delivered to the Master or any Mate of the Ship, or the Owner or his Agent, to be by them so conveyed, notwithstanding that the Termination of the Period for which he was sentenced to Imprisonment has not arrived.

Contracts may be made with Natives in India under certain Conditions binding them to go to Australia, and thence to serve in other Ships to the United Kingdom.

XL. 'And whereas it is expedient to give Facilities for obtaining Seamen in the Australian Colonies:' Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Master of a Ship, or any Owner of a Ship, or his Agent, to enter into Contracts with Lascars or Natives of the Territories of the East India Company, binding them to proceed to any Port or Ports in the Australian Colonies either as Seamen or as Passengers, and there to engage themselves as Seamen in any Ship bound to the United Kingdom, or to any other Part of Her Majesty's Dominions; provided that every such Contract shall be in such Form, and shall contain such Provisions, and shall be executed in such Manner, and under such Conditions, for securing the Return of such Lascars or Natives to their own Country and for other Purposes, as the Governor General of India in Council, or the Governors of the respective Presidencies in which the Contract is made in Council may direct; and if any Lascar or other Person who has bound himself by any such Contract is, on arriving in any of the said Colonies, required to enter into an Agreement to serve as a Seaman in any Ship bound for the United Kingdom or to any other Part of Her Majesty's Dominions, and if it is certified by some Officer appointed for that Purpose by the Governor of the said Colony that such Agreement is a proper Agreement in all respects for such Lascar or other Person to enter into, and is in accordance with the original Contract, and that the Ship to which such Agreement relates is a proper Ship for such Lascar or other Person to serve in, and is properly supplied with Provisions, and that there is not in the Opinion of such Officer any Objection to the full Performance of the said Contract, such Lascar or other Person shall be bound to enter into the said Agreement, and to serve as a Seaman in the Ship to which it relates, and shall thereupon be deemed to be for all and Purposes One of the Crew of the Ship ; and if he refuses to enter into such Agreement he shall, notwithstanding such Refusal, be liable to the same Consequences, and be dealt with in all respects in the same Manner, as if he had voluntarily entered into the same ; and for every Lascar or other Person in respect of whom such Certificate is applied for, the Person applying for the same shall pay to such Officer as aforesaid such Fee as the Governor of the Colony may appoint.

Lascar Seamen for Australia.

XXXIX. In Cases where Salvage Services are rendered by any Ship belonging to Her Majesty, or by the Commander or Crew thereof, no Claim shall be made or allowed for any Loss, Damage, or Risk thereby caused to such Ship, or to the Stores, Tackle, or Furniture thereof, or for the Use of any Stores or other Articles belonging to Her Majesty supplied in order to effect the salvage Service, or for any other Expense or Loss sustained by Her Majesty by reason of such Services.

Salvage.

As to Salvage Services rendered by Her Majesty's Ships.

XLL. Whenever Services for which Salvage is claimed are rendered to any Ship or Cargo, or to any Part of any Ship or Cargo, or to any Appurtenances of any Ship, at any Place out of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the Four Seas adjoining thereto, by the Commander or Crew or Part of the Crew of any of Her Majesty's Ships, the Property alleged to be salvaged shall, if the Salvor is justified by the Circumstances of the Case in detaining it at all, be taken to some Port where there is either a Consular Officer or Vice-Admiralty Court ; and within Twenty-four Hours after arriving at such Port the said Salvor and the Master or other Person in charge of the Property alleged to be salvaged shall each deliver to the Consular Officer or Vice-Admiralty Judge there a Statement verified on Oath, specifying, so far as they respectively can, and so far as the Particulars required apply to the Case,

*Steps to be taken when Salvage Services have been rendered by Her Majesty's Ships
abroad.*

a. The Place, Condition, and Circumstances in which the said Ship, Cargo, or Property was at the Time when the Services were rendered for which Salvage is claimed ;

b. The Nature and Duration of the Services rendered :
And the Salvor shall add to his Statement,

c. The Proportion of the Value of the said Ship, Cargo, and Property, and of the Freight which he claims for Salvage, or the Values at which he estimates the said Ship, Freight, Cargo, and Property respectively, and the several Amounts that he claims for Salvage in respect of the same ;

d. Any other Circumstances he thinks relevant to the said Claim :

And the said Master or other Person in charge of the said Ship, Cargo, or Property shall add to his Statement,

c. A Copy of the Certificate of Registry of the said Ship, and of the Indorsements thereon, stating any Change which (to his Knowledge or Belief) has occurred in the Particulars contained in such Certificate ;

d. The Name and Place of Business or Residence of the Freighter (if any) of the said Ship, and the Freight to be paid for the Voyage she is then on ;

e. A general Account of the Quantity and Nature of the Cargo at the Time the Salvage Services were rendered ;

f. The Salvage.

- f. The Name and Place of Business or Residence of the Owner of such Cargo and of the Consignee thereof ;
- g. The Values at which the said Master estimates the said Ship, Cargo, and Property, and the Freight respectively, or, if he thinks fit, in lieu of such estimated Value of the Cargo, a Copy of the Ship's Manifest ;
- h. The Amounts which the Master thinks should be paid as Salvage for the Services rendered ;
- i. An accurate List of the Property saved, in Cases where the Ship is not saved ;
- j. An Account of the Proceeds of the Sale of the said Ship, Cargo, or Property, in Cases where the same or any of them are sold at such Port as aforesaid ;
- k. The Number, Capacities, and Condition of the Crew of the said Ship at the Time the said Services were rendered ;
- l. Any other Circumstances he thinks relevant to the Matters in question ;
- m. A Statement of his Willingness to execute a Bond, in the Form in the Schedule hereto annexed, in such Amount as the said Consular Officer or Vice-Admiralty Judge shall fix.

Consular Officer or Judge to fix Amount for which a Bond is to be given ;

XLII. The said Consular Officer or Vice-Admiralty Judge, as the Case may be, shall, within Four Days after receiving the aforesaid Statements, fix the Amount to be inserted in the said Bond at such Sum as he shall to the best of his Judgment think to be sufficient to answer the Demand for the Salvage Services rendered, but so that such Sum shall never exceed One Half of the Value which he puts upon the said Ship, Freight, and Cargo, or those of them or the Parts thereof in respect of which Salvage is claimed ; and the said Consular Officer or Judge may, if either of the aforesaid Statements is not delivered to him within the Time hereby required, proceed ex parte ; but he shall in no Case under this Act require the Cargo to be unladen ; and the said Consular Officer may in any Proceeding under this Act relating to Salvage take Affidavits and receive Affirmations.

and send Notice thereof to the Master.

On Master executing Bond, Right of Detention to cease.

XLIII. The said Consular Officer or Judge shall send Notice of the Sum which he has so fixed as aforesaid to the said Salvor and the said Master or other Person in charge as aforesaid ; and upon such Master or other Person executing a Bond in the Form in the Schedule hereto annexed, with the said Sum inserted therein, in the Presence of the said Consul or Judge (who shall attest the same), and delivering the same to the said Salvor, the Right of the said Salvor to detain or retain Possession of the said Ship, Cargo, or Property, or any of them, in respect of the said Salvage Claim, shall cease.

Provision for additional Security in the Case of Ships owned by Persons resident out of Her Majesty's Dominions.

XLIV. Provided, That if the Ship, Cargo, or Property in respect of which the Claim for Salvage is made, is not owned by Persons domiciled in Her Majesty's Dominions, the Right of the Salvor to detain or retain Possession thereof shall not cease unless the Master or other Person in charge thereof procures, in addition to the said Bond, such Security for the due Performance of the Conditions thereof as the said Officer or Judge considers sufficient for the Purpose, and places the same in the Possession or Custody of the said Officer or Judge, or, if the Salvor so desires, in the Possession possession or Custody of the said Officer or Judge jointly with any other Person whom the said Salvor may appoint for the purpose.

XLV. The said Consular Officer or Judge shall at the earliest opportunity transmit the said Statements and Documents so sent to him as aforesaid, and a Notice of the Sum he has so fixed as aforesaid, to the High Court of Admiralty of England, or if the said Salvor and the said Master or other Person in charge as aforesaid agree that the said Bond shall be adjudicated upon by any Vice-Admiralty Court, to such Court.

XLVI. The said Bond shall bind the respective Owners of the said Ship, Freight, and Cargo, and their respective Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, for the Salvage adjudged to be payable in respect of the said Ship, Freight, and Cargo respectively.

XLVII. The said Bond shall be adjudicated on and enforced by the High Court of Admiralty in England, or if the said Salvor and Master or other Person at the Time of the Execution of the said Bond agree upon any Vice-Admiralty Court, then by such Vice-Admiralty Court; and any such Vice-Admiralty Court shall and may, in every Proceeding under this Act, have and exercise full and singular the Powers and Authorities whatsoever which the said High Court of Admiralty now has or at any Time may have in any Proceeding whatsoever before it; and in Cases where any Security for the due Performance of the Conditions of the said Bond has been placed in the Possession or Custody of the said Consular Officer or Vice-Admiralty Judge, or of such Officer or Judge jointly with any other Person, they shall respectively deal with the said Security in such Manner as the Court which adjudicates on the Bond may direct.

XLVIII. The said High Court of Admiralty shall have Power to enforce any Bond given in pursuance of this Act in any Vice-Admiralty Court in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions; and all Courts in Scotland, Ireland, and the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man exercising Admiralty Jurisdiction shall upon Application aid and assist the High Court of Admiralty in enforcing the said Bonds.

XLIX. Any such Salvor as aforesaid of any Ship, Cargo, or Property who may elect not to proceed under this Act, shall have no Power to detain the said Ship, Cargo, or Property, but may proceed otherwise for the Enforcement of his Salvage Claim as if this Act had not been passed; and nothing in this Act contained shall abridge or affect the Rights of Salvors, except in the Cases by it provided for.

L. Whenever Services for which Salvage is claimed are rendered either by the Commander or Crew or Part of the Crew of any of Her Majesty's Ships, or of any other Ship, and the Salvor voluntarily agrees to abandon his Lien upon the Ship, Cargo, and Property alleged to be salvaged, upon the Master or other Person in charge thereof entering into a written Agreement, attested by Two Witnesses, to abide the Decision of the said High Court of Admiralty or of any Vice-Admiralty Court, and thereby giving Security in that Behalf to such Amount as may be agreed on by the Parties to the said Agreement, such Agreement shall bind the said Ship and the said Cargo and the Freight payable therefor respectively, respectively, and the respective Owners of the said Ship, Freight, and Cargo for the Time being, and their respective Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, for the Salvage which may be adjudged to be payable in respect of the said Ship, Cargo, and Freight respectively to the Extent of the Security so given as aforesaid, and may be adjudicated upon and enforced in the same Manner as the Bonds above mentioned; and upon such Agreement being made, the Salvor and the Master or other Person in charge as aforesaid shall respectively make such Statements as are herein-before required to be made by them in case of a Bond being given, except that such Statements need not be made upon Oath; and the Salvor shall, as soon as practicable, transmit the said Agreement and the said Statements to the Court in which the said Agreement is to be adjudicated upon.

Documents free from Duty.

LI. All Bonds, Statements, Agreements, and other Documents made or executed in pursuance of such Parts of this Act as relate to Salvage shall, if so made or executed out of the United Kingdom, be exempt from Stamp Duty, and shall be received in Evidence, though unstamped.

Penal Clauses.Punishment for Forgery and false Representations.

LII. Every Person who, in making or supporting any such Application as aforesaid to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, or who in any Proceeding under this Act in respect of Salvage, fraudulently forges, alters, or procures to be forged or altered, any Document, and every Person who in making or supporting any such Application or in any such Proceeding puts off or makes use of any such forged or altered Document, or who in making or supporting any such Application or in any such Proceeding gives or makes or procures to be given or made, or assists in giving or making or procuring to be given or made, any false Evidence or Representation, knowing the same to be false, or who in any such Declaration as herein-before required upon the Purchase of any Share or Shares in any Ship makes any false Statement or Representation, shall be punishable with Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour, for a Period not exceeding Two Years, or, if summarily prosecuted and convicted, by Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour, for a Period not exceeding Six Months.

Mode of Procedure in Criminal Cases.

LIII. All Criminal Proceedings under this Act shall be carried on in the same Manner as similar Proceedings under the said Mercantile Marine Act, 1850, and all Rules of Law, Practice, and Evidence which are applicable to such last-mentioned Proceedings shall be applicable to Criminal Proceedings under this Act.

Procedure in Scotland under Merchant Service Acts.

All Offences under 7 & 8 Vict. c. 112., 8 & 9 Vict. c. 116., 13 & 14 Vict. c. 93., 14 & 15 Vict. c. 96., 79., & 103., punishable as Misdemeanors,

LIV. All Offences which by the Act of the Eighth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twelve, the Act of the Ninth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and sixteen, "The Mercantile Marine Act, 1850," "The Mercantile Marine Act Amendment Act, 1851," "The Steam Navigation Act, 1851," "The Seamen's Fund Winding-up Act, 1851," or this Act, are described as Misdemeanors, or are made punishable by Imprisonment for Periods exceeding Six Months, may, in Scotland, be prosecuted by Indictment or Criminal Letters at the Instance of Her Majesty's Advocate before the High Court of Justiciary, or by Criminal Libel at the Instance of the Procurator Fiscal scal of the County before the Sheriff, and shall be punishable with Fine and with Imprisonment with or without Hard Labour in fault of Payment, or with Imprisonment with or without Hard Labour, or with both, as the Court may think fit ; and such Court may also, if it think fit, order Payment by the Offender of the Costs and Expenses of the Prosecution : Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be held or construed to extend to the Prosecution of Offences punishable by Transportation.

Procedure in Scotland.

LV. All Prosecutions, Complaints, Actions, or Proceedings, whether of a criminal or civil Nature, under any of the said last-mentioned Acts, other than Prosecutions for Offences described as misdemeanors or punishable by Transportation, may be brought in a summary Form before the Sheriff of the County, or before any Two Justices of the Peace of the County or Burgh where the Cause of such Prosecution or Action arises, or where the Offender or Defender may be for the Time.

Summary Proceedings.

LVI. All Penalties imposed by the said Acts may be sued for and recovered, with the Costs of Prosecution, before the Sheriff or any Two Justices as aforesaid, at the Instance of the Party to whom such Penalty is made payable in whole or in part, with the concurrence of the Procurator Fiscal of Court, or at the Instance of the Procurator Fiscal of Court where such Penalty is not made payable either in whole or in part to any private Party.

Penalties how to be sued for.

LVII. All Prosecutions, Complaints, Actions, or other Proceedings under the said Act may be brought either in a written or printed Form, or partly written and partly printed, and where such Proceedings are brought in a summary Form it shall not be necessary in the Complaint to recite or set forth the Clause or Clauses of the Act on which such Proceeding is founded, but it shall be sufficient to specify or refer to such Clause or Clauses, and to set forth shortly the Cause of Complaint or Action, and the Remedy sought ; and when such Complaint or Action is brought in whole or in part for the Enforcement of a pecuniary Debt or Demand, the Complaint may contain a Prayer for Warrant to arrest upon the Dependence.

Form of Complaint, &c.

LVIII. On any Complaint or other Proceeding brought in a summary Form under the said Acts being presented to the Sheriff Clerk or Clerk of the Peace, he shall grant Warrant to cite the Offender to appear personally before the said Sheriff or Justices of the Peace on a Day fixed, not less than Three Days after a Copy of the Complaint or other Proceeding has been served upon him, and at the same Time shall appoint a Copy of the same to be delivered to him by a Sheriff Officer or Constable, as the Case may be, along with the Citation ; and such Deliverance shall also contain a Warrant for citing Witnesses and Havers to compare at the same Time and Place, to give Evidence and produce such Writs as may be specified in their Citation ; and where such Warrant has been prayed for in the Complaint or other Proceeding, the Deliverance of the Sheriff Clerk or Clerk of the Peace shall also contain Warrant to arrest upon the Dependence in common Form : Provided always, that Service made on any Party or Witness by leaving a Copy of Citation for him on board of any Ship to which he may belong shall be of equal Force and Effect as Service made at his Dwelling House.

Mode of requiring Appearance of Defender and Witnesses.

c. 50. as relates to Deputy Lieutenants raising Volunteers for the Militia repealed.

III. Sections Eleven, Fifteen, and Seventeen of the Act of the last Session of Parliament, Chapter Fifty, so far as the same respectively relate to the raising and enrolling of Volunteers for the Militia by Deputy Lieutenants, and require Deputy Lieutenants to keep or cause to be kept Entries of Persons enrolled in the Militia, and to transmit Copies of such Entries to the Clerks of General Meetings, shall be repealed: Provided always, that the Deputy Lieutenants of Counties, Ridings, and Places shall severally aid the Colonels or Commanding Officers of the Regiments, Battalions, or Corps of Militia of their respective Counties, Ridings, or Places in raising and enrolling Volunteers for such Militia in the several Parishes where such Deputy Lieutenants may be resident, and otherwise as the Lieutenants of such Counties, Ridings, or Places may from Time to Time direct, but no General or Subdivision Meeting shall be holden for that Purpose, unless such Meeting be convened pursuant to any special Order made in this Behalf by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Notices of General and Subdivision Meetings to be sent to Deputy Lieutenants by Post in lieu of being published in Gazette and Newspapers.

IV. So much of Section Twenty-one of the Act of the Forty-second Year of King George the Third, Chapter Ninety, as requires Notices of the Days and Places of holding General Meetings of Lieutenancy to be given in the London Gazette and in such Newspapers as therein mentioned, shall be repealed; and Notices of such Meetings shall be sent by the Post by the Clerk of the General Meetings to the several Deputy Lieutenants of the County, Riding, or Division Seven Days at the least before the Days appointed for holding such Meetings respectively; and any Notices of Subdivision Meetings required to be given to Deputy Lieutenants or others shall sent by the Clerk of General Meetings by Post instead of being otherwise delivered or left as now by Law required.

Times and Places of Exercise to be appointed without General Meetings of Lieu-tenancy.

V. No General Meeting of Lieutenancy shall be holden for appointing the Times and Places of Training and Exercise of the Militia in England, except by the special Order of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; but the Times and Places of Training and Exercise of the Militiamen serving for each County, Riding, and Place in England shall be appointed, with the Approbation of Her Majesty, by the Lieutenant of such County, Riding, or Place, or by the Vice-Lieutenant in case of the Illness or Absence of the Lieutenant, or in case of the Non-appointment of any Vice-Lieutenant, then by Three Deputy Lieutenants authorized by Her Majesty to act as or in the Place of such Lieutenant when such Lieutenant is out of Great Britain, or when there is no such Lieutenant: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prejudice or affect the Powers vested in Her Majesty under Sections Twenty-six and Twenty-seven of the said Act of last Session.

How Notices of Times and Places of Exercise to be given.

VI. Sections Ninety and Ninety-one of the Act of the Forty-second Year of King George the Third shall be repealed, and Notices to Men who are enrolled in the Militia in England to attend Training and Exercise shall be sent, by the Order of the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to which such Men belong, by the Post to the Residences of the several Men as stated on their Attestations, or as subsequently notified notified by them, and Public Notices shall also be sent to the Constables, Tithingmen, Headboroughs, and other Officers of the respective Parishes, Tithings, and Places in the County, Riding, or Place for which such Men are enrolled, with Directions to cause the same to be affixed on the Door or the outer Wall near the Door of every Church and Chapel in their respective Parishes, Tithings, or Places, including Places of Public Worship which do not belong to the Established Church; and if any Place have no Church or Chapel, then in such Manner as Public Notices are usually made known in such Places, and on the Doors or outer Walls as aforesaid of the Churches or Chapels of some Parish, Tithing, or Place adjoining; and every such Constable, Tithingman, Headborough, and other Officer as aforesaid shall, within Three Days after the Receipt of any such Notice, cause the same or Copies thereof to be affixed accordingly; and any such Constable, Tithingman, Headborough, or Officer who wilfully neglects so to do shall for every such Offence, on Conviction thereof before Two Justices, forfeit any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds; and such Notice shall be deemed a sufficient Notice to every Person enrolled by virtue of the Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Queen Victoria, Chapter Fifty, notwithstanding any Omission in the Notices by Post; and any such Man not appearing at the Time and Place appointed in any such Notice shall be subject to be punished and dealt with accordingly.

VII. Any Militia Volunteer who, before the Expiration of his Engagement as a Militiaman in any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, enrolls or offers to enrol himself in any other Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, or in the same Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, whether by the same or by different Names (save in the Way of lawful Renewal of his Engagement), shall upon a Conviction thereof, upon the Oath of One Witness, before any One Justice of the Peace, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds, and in default of such Payment shall be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for any Time not exceeding Three Months, and shall also be liable to the Deduction out of the Bounty which he might otherwise have received in respect of his original Enlistment of a Sum equal to what he may have received upon his fraudulent Re-enlistment, and of such further Sum as the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps in which he may have originally enlisted shall think proper, or as the Secretary-at-War may from Time to Time direct, not exceeding the Expenses of his Attestation and Enrolment on such fraudulent Re-enlistment.

Penalties for fraudulent
Re-enlistment.

VIII. The Justice before whom a Militia Volunteer shall be convicted of having enlisted into the Regular Forces of Her Majesty or of the East India Company, by which he will be subjected to a Stoppage from his Pay while serving with such Forces, or of having enrolled or offered to enrol himself in another Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, or more than once in the same Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, shall send or cause to be sent to the Secretary-at-War a Report of such Conviction, stating the Name of such Volunteer, the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia to which he belongs, the Offence of which he has been convicted, and the Sentence or Decision of the Justice thereon, and,

The Justice before whom a Militiaman is convicted of Enlistment in the Regular Forces or Re-enlistment in the Militia, to send Report of Conviction to Secretary-at-War.

where such Volunteer shall be imprisoned in pursuance of such Conviction, the Period when the Imprisonment will expire ; and for such Report as aforesaid the Clerk of the said Justice shall be entitled to a Fee of Two Shillings and no more.

Power to discharge Men from the Militia who have enlisted in the Regular Forces.

IX. It shall be lawful for the Secretary-at-War at any Time to discharge any Militia Volunteer upon such Conditions as he may from Time to Time direct, and such Volunteer shall have no Claim to future Pay or Bounty, or to release from future Attendance in the Militia any Volunteer who may have enlisted into Her Majesty's Regular Forces or into the Forces of the East India Company, and who has been sentenced to Imprisonment, or to Forfeiture for a Period not exceeding Eighteen Calendar Months of One Penny a Day from his Pay in such Forces ; and any Man so released shall serve with the Force in which he may have enlisted in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, with the like Liabilities in all respects as any Soldier in such respective Force, and his Place in the Militia shall be supplied in like Manner as if his Term of Service as a Militiaman had expired by Efflux of Time.

Provision for withholding Payment of Bounty from Men wrongfully absent from Training.

X. Any Bounty which, under the Regulations made or to be made under the said Act of the last Session, may be payable during or in respect of Attendance at Training and Exercise shall be forfeited by any Man who wholly absents himself from such Training and Exercise without Leave lawfully granted, or Sickness, certified according to such Regulations ; and any such Bounty which would otherwise be payable to any Man who partially absents himself as aforesaid without such Leave, or Sickness, certified as aforesaid, or who misconducts himself during the Training, shall be wholly withheld, or issued only in such Manner and in such Portions as the Secretary-at-War, upon the Report of the Commanding Officer, shall determine.

Enrolment in Militia not to cause Forfeiture of any Interest in any Benefit Society.

XI. No Man by reason of his Enrolment or Service in the Militia, or in the Naval Coast Volunteers, shall lose or forfeit, or be deemed to have lost or forfeited, any Interest he may possess, or may have possessed at the Time of his so being enrolled or serving, in any Friendly or Benefit Society, any Laws, Rules, or Regulations of such Society to the contrary notwithstanding ; and in case any Dispute shall arise between any such Society and any such Man by reason of such Enrolment or Service, it shall be considered as being a Dispute directed by the Rules of such Society to be decided by Justices of the Peace, pursuant to the Provisions of the Acts in force relating to Friendly Societies.

Provision for Apprehension of Militiamen not attending or absenting themselves during Training.

XII. Sections One hundred and eight and One hundred and nine of the Act of the Forty-second Year of King George the Third, Chapter Ninety, shall be repealed ; and the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia shall notify to the Secretary-at-War, and to the Constables, Tithingmen, Headboroughs, or other Officers of the Parishes, Tithings, and Places in which Militiamen reside who have not attended Training and Exercise, or who may have absented themselves during the Time of Training and Exercise of their respective Regiments, Battalions, or Corps, the Names and Descriptions of all such Volunteers who have so absented themselves ; and it shall be lawful for any Constable, Tithingman, Headborough, or Officer, or for any Officer or Soldier in Her Majesty's Service or in the Militia, to apprehend or cause any such Volunteer to be apprehended, and to bring him or cause him to be brought before any Justice of the Peace, to be dealt with as herein-after mentioned, if the Battalion or Corps to which he belongs has ceased Training and Exercise, or to be committed to safe Custody until an Escort can be sent for him if such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps be then out for Training and Exercise; and such Justice shall transmit an Account thereof, in the Form prescribed in the Schedule annexed to this Act, to the Secretary-at-War, specifying whether the Deserter has been committed for Imprisonment under the aforesaid Section, or is only held in safe Custody until he can be sent to the Head Quarters of his Regiment, Battalion, or Corps for Trial: and such Justice shall also send to the Secretary-at-War a Report stating the Name of the Person or Persons by whom the Deserter was apprehended and secured, and the Secretary-at-War shall transmit to such Justice an Order for the Payment to such Person or Persons of such Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings as the Secretary-at-War may think fit.

XIII. Every Militiaman raised under the Act of the last Session of Parliament, Chapter Fifty, (not labouring under any certified Infirmary or Incapacity,) who shall not appear at the Time and Place appointed for his being exercised according to the Provisions of this Act (Notice having been given as hereby required), or who, having joined the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to which he belongs, or any Company or Companies or any Detachment or Division thereof, shall desert or absent himself during the Time of any such Exercise, shall be deemed a Deserter, and if not taken until after the Time of such Exercise, such Deserter shall, upon Conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace, be liable to forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds; and if such Penalty shall not be immediately paid, the Justice of the Peace shall commit such Militiaman to the House of Correction to Hard Labour or to the Common Gaol for any Period not exceeding Three Months, or until he shall have paid the said Penalty.

XIV. Any Person who by Words or other Means shall persuade any Militiaman improperly to absent himself from his Duty, and every Person who shall assist or procure any such Volunteer improperly to absent himself as aforesaid, or shall conceal, employ, or continue to employ any such Volunteer, knowing him to be so improperly absent, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

XV. All Offences for which any pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture is by this Act imposed shall and may be heard and determined by any Justice of the Peace in or near to the Place where the Offence shall be committed, or where the Offender may at any Time happen to be; and all such Penalties and Forfeitures, and also the reasonable Costs attending the Prosecution, to be duly ascertained and awarded by such Justice, shall and may be enforced and recovered in the same Manner as any pecuniary Penalties may be recovered in England or Wales, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to facilitate the Performance of the Duties of Justices of the Peace out of Sessions within England and Wales with respect to summary Convictions and Orders: Provided always, that in all Cases in which

An Act to amend the Laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in England beyond the Limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the Burial of the Dead in the Metropolis. [20th August 1853.]

15 & 16 Vict.
c. 85.

On Representation of Secretary of State, Her Majesty in Council may restrain the opening of new Burial Grounds, and order Discontinuance of Burials in specified Places.

‘ WHEREAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament “to amend the Laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in the Metropolis,” and it is expedient to make better Provision for and in relation to Burials beyond the Limits of the said Act:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. In case it appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the Representation of One of Her Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of State, that for the Protection of the Public Health the opening of any new Burial Ground in any City or Town, or within any other Limits, save with the previous Approval of One of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that Burials in any City or Town, or within any other Limits, or in any Burial Grounds or Places of Burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any Exception or Qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the Advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new Burial Ground shall be opened in such City or Town, or within such Limits, without such previous Approval, or (as the Case may require) that after a Time mentioned in the Order Burials in such City or Town, or within such Limits, or in such Burial Grounds or Places of Burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any Exceptions or Qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from Time to Time as Circumstances may require; provided always, that Notice of such Representation, and of the Time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the Doors of the Churches or Chapels of, or on some other conspicuous Places within, the Parishes affected by such Representation, One Month before such Representation is so considered: Provided also, that no such Representation shall be made in relation to the Burial Ground of any Parish until Ten Days previous Notice of the Intention to make such Representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such Parish.

Order not to extend to Burial Grounds of Quakers or Jews, unless expressly included.

II. No such Order in Council as aforesaid shall be deemed to extend to any Burial Ground of the People called Quakers, or of the Persons of the Jewish Persuasion, used solely for the Burial of the Bodies of such People and Persons respectively, unless the same be expressly mentioned in such Order; and nothing in this Act shall prevent the Burial in any such Burial Ground in which for the Time being Interment is not required to be discontinued of the Bodies of such People and Persons respectively; and no such Order in Council as aforesaid shall be deemed to extend to any non-parochial Burial Ground being the Property of any private Person, unless the same be expressly mentioned in such Order.

III. It

III. It shall not be lawful, after the Time mentioned in any such Order in Council for the Discontinuance of Burials, to bury the Dead in any Church, Chapel, Churchyard, or Burial Place, or elsewhere, within the Parts to which such Order extends, or in the Burial Grounds or Places of Burial (as the Case may be) in which Burials have by any such Order been ordered to be discontinued, except as in this Act or in such Order excepted; and every Person who shall, after such Time as aforesaid, bury any Body, or in anywise act or assist in the Burial of any Body, contrary to this Enactment, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

IV. Provided always, That notwithstanding any such Order in Council, where by virtue of any Faculty legally granted, or by Usage or otherwise, there is at the Time of the passing of this Act any Right of Interment in or under any Church or Chapel affected by such Order, or in any Vault of any such Church or Chapel, or of any Churchyard or Burial Ground affected by such Order, and where any exclusive Right of Interment in any such Burial Ground has been purchased or acquired before the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State from Time to Time, on Application being made to him, and on being satisfied that the Exercise of such Right will not be injurious to Health, to grant Licence for the Exercise of such Right during such Time and subject to such Conditions and Restrictions as such Secretary of State may think fit, but such Licence shall not prejudice or in anywise affect the Authority of the Ordinary, or of any other Person who, if this Act had not been passed, might have prohibited or controlled Interment under such Right, nor dispense with any Consent which would have been required, nor otherwise give to such Right any greater Force or Effect than the same would have had if this Act had not been passed.

V. The Provisions of this Act shall not extend to authorize the Discontinuance of Burials, or to prevent the Burial of the Body of any Person, in any Cemetery established under the Authority of any Act of Parliament, or in any Burial Ground or Cemetery to be hereafter provided with the Approval of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as herein mentioned.

VI. Where by any such Order in Council as aforesaid it is ordered that no new Burial Ground shall be opened in any City or Town, or within any Limits therein mentioned, without the previous Approval of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, no new Burial Ground or Cemetery (parochial or non-parochial) shall be provided and used in such City or Town, or within such Limits, without such previous Approval.

VII. All the Provisions contained in the said Act of the last Session of Parliament, Chapter Eighty-five, "to amend the Laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in the Metropolis," from Section Ten to Section Forty-two (both inclusive) of the said Act, and also in Sections Forty-four, Fifty, Fifty-one, and Fifty-two of the said Act, shall extend and be applicable to and in respect of any Parish not in the Metropolis, and for the Purpose of providing a Burial Ground for any such Parish, or otherwise providing for the Interment of the Bodies of Persons who would have had Right of Interment in the Burial Ground of any such Parish, and generally in

Burial not to take place after Order in Council for Discontinuance.

Saving of certain Rights to bury in Vaults, &c.

Not to extend to certain Cemeteries or new Burial Grounds, &c.

New Burial Grounds not to be opened contrary to Order in Council.

Certain Provisions of Metropolitan Burial Act, 15 & 16 Vict. c. 85., extended to Parishes, &c. not in the Metropolis.

in relation to every such Burial Ground to be so provided, and the Fees and Payments to be received in respect of Interment or other Rights therein and otherwise, as if such Sections were re-enacted in this Act, and the Words "in the Metropolis," wherever they occur in such Sections, or any of them, were omitted; and Section Forty-nine of the said Act shall extend to all Cemeteries already established and hereafter to be established under the Authority of Parliament in like Manner as to those mentioned in Schedule (B.) to that Act, and as respects the Cemeteries to which such Section is hereby extended, the same shall also apply in respect of Burials at the Expense of any Hospital or Infirmary in like Manner as to Burials at the Expense of a Union or Parish: Provided always, that in all Cases in which any Burial Board shall provide a new Burial Ground under the said Act of the last Session of Parliament or under this Act, that new Burial Ground shall be divided into consecrated and unconsecrated Parts in such Proportions, and the unconsecrated Part thereof shall be allotted in such Manner and in such Portions as may be sanctioned by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and when any Burial Board shall by virtue of Section Thirty of the said Act build on any Burial Ground provided by such Board a Chapel for the Performance of the Burial Service according to the Rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, they shall also build, on the Portion of such Ground set apart for Burials otherwise than according to the Rites of the said Church, such Chapel Accommodation for the Performance of Burial Service by Persons not being Members of the said Church as may be approved of by One of Her Majesty's Secretaries of State.

Any Burial Board building a Chapel for Burials according to the Rites of the Church of England also to build a Chapel for Persons not being Members of the Church of England.

Register of Burials to be kept in every Ground provided under 15 & 16 Vict. c. 85. or under this Act.

VIII. All Burials within any Burial Ground provided under the said Act of the last Session of Parliament or this Act shall be registered in a Register Book to be provided by the Burial Board providing such Ground (or where the same is provided by the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London then by such Commissioners), and kept for that Purpose according to the Laws in force by which Registers are required to be kept by the Rectors, Vicars, or Curates of Parishes or Ecclesiastical Districts in England; and such Register Book shall be so kept by some Officer appointed by the said Board or Commissioners to that Duty; and in such Register Books shall be distinguished in what Parts of the Burial Ground, and where the whole of such Burial Ground is not consecrated for Interments according to the Rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, whether in the Portion so consecrated or in the Portion not so consecrated the several Bodies (the Burials of which are entered in such Register Books) are buried; and in case such Burial Ground has been provided for more than One Parish, such Register shall be kept or indexed so as to facilitate Searches for Entries in such Books in respect of Bodies from the several Parishes; and such Register Books or Copies or Extracts therefrom shall be received in all Courts as Evidence of the Burials entered therein, and Copies or Transcripts of such Register Books, verified and signed by such Officer as aforesaid, shall be from Time to Time sent to the Registrar of the Diocese to be kept with the Copies of the other Register Books of the Parishes within such Diocese; and the said Register Books,

Entries to be Evidence.

Books,

Books, so far as respects Searches to be made therein and Copies and Extracts to be taken therefrom, shall be subject to the same Regulations as are provided by an Act passed in the Seventh Year of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for registering Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, so far as such Regulations relate to Register Books of Burials kept by any Rector, Vicar, or Curate. 6 & 7 W. 4.
c. 86.

IX. Nothing in this Act, except the Provisions in Sections Seven and Eight, shall extend to any Parish in "the Metropolis," as defined by the said Act of the last Session, or otherwise affect the Provisions of that Act. Act, except ss. 7. and 8., not to extend to the Metropolis.

X. This Act shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland. Extent of Act.

C A P. CXXXV.

An Act to continue certain Turnpike Acts in Great Britain, and to make further Provisions concerning Turnpike Roads in England. [20th August 1853.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to continue for limited Times the Acts herein-after specified, and to make further Provisions concerning Turnpike Roads in England: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. Every Act now in force for regulating, making, amending, or repairing any Turnpike Road in Great Britain which will expire on or before the End of the next Session of Parliament shall be continued until the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; except an Act of the Third Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-four, "for amending and maintaining the "Road from Whitchurch to Ternhill in the County of Salop," and except as herein-after mentioned. All Turnpike Acts expiring before End of next Session
continued to 1st Oct. 1854,
&c., with certain Exceptions.

II. The Acts mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed shall continue in force until the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and no longer, unless Parliament shall in the meantime continue the same respectively. Acts in Schedule continued till 1st Nov.
1854.

III. And whereas by an Act of the Session holden in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty-seven, it was enacted, that in every Case in which the Trustees or Commissioners of any Turnpike Road should thereafter borrow, charge, or secure any Money on the Credit of the Tolls arising on such Road, such Trustees or Commissioners should, out of the Tolls of such Road, and in priority to all other Payments except such Interest as therein mentioned, set apart a Sum of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum on the Amount of Money so borrowed, charged, or secured; and when and so often as the Sums so set apart should amount to Two hundred Pounds, the said Trustees or Commissioners should apply such Sum in Payment of a proportionate Part of the Monies borrowed, charged, or secured as aforesaid in manner therein mentioned: And 12 & 13 Vict.
c. 87.

whereas by the Act of the Session holden in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-nine, it 13 & 14 Vict.
c. 79.

‘ it was enacted, that where the Trustees or Commissioners of any Turnpike Road had, before the passing of the said Act of the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty, borrowed, charged, or secured any Money on the Credit of the Tolls arising on such Road, and any such Money should remain unpaid and unsatisfied at the Time of the passing of the Act now in recital, such Trustees or Commissioners should, out of the Tolls of such Road, after Payment thereof of the Interest on any Monies owing on the Security of the said Tolls, and such Sums as should be required to be set apart under the said herein-before recited Enactment of the said Act of the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty, and all such other Liabilities and Expenses as therein mentioned, set apart a Sum of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum on the Amount of Principal Money so borrowed, charged, or secured before the passing of the said Act, and remaining unpaid and unsatisfied as aforesaid, or such lesser Sum as might from Time to Time remain after such Payment as aforesaid; and when and so often as the Sum so set apart should amount to the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, the said Trustees or Commissioners should apply such Sum in or towards Payment of the Monies so borrowed, charged, or secured as aforesaid, and then remaining unpaid, in manner provided by the said Act of the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty with respect to the Application of Money arising from the Sums set apart as therein mentioned in or towards the Discharge of Monies borrowed, charged, or secured after the passing of such last-mentioned Act:’

Sinking Fund may be applied in Payment of Debts before it amounts to 200*l.*, or, with Consent, Application may be postponed.

Trustees may apply Surplus in Payment of Debts in manner provided by recited Acts with respect to Sinking Funds.

It shall be lawful for the Trustees or Commissioners of any Turnpike Road, where it appears to them convenient so to do, to apply any Money arising from Sums set apart as required by the said recited Acts or either of them in or towards the Discharge of Debts according to the Directions of such Acts respectively, although such Monies may not amount to Two hundred Pounds, or, with the Consent in Writing of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State under his Hand, to postpone such Application of such Monies until the same amount to any greater Sum than Two hundred Pounds, which the said Trustees or Commissioners, with such Consent as aforesaid, may determine.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Trustees or Commissioners of any Turnpike Road, where they have any surplus Monies applicable towards the Discharge of Principal Money secured on the Tolls of such Road beyond such Sums as under the said recited Acts or either of them, or under any Local Act, they are required to set apart or apply for that Purpose, to apply, if they think fit, such surplus Monies in or towards Payment of the Principal Money secured as aforesaid in manner provided by the said first-mentioned Act with respect to the Application of Monies arising from the Sums set apart as therein mentioned in or towards the Discharge of Monies borrowed, charged, or secured after the passing of that Act.

Power to Executors, &c. to consent.

V. All Executors, Administrators, Guardians, Trustees, and all Committees of the Estates of Idiots and Lunatics, who as such are for the Time being entitled to any Money charged or secured on the Tolls or Revenues of any Turnpike Road, may offer to accept accept and may accept under the said recited Acts or either of them, or this Act, or any Local Act, such Composition in respect of such Money or any Part thereof as they in their Discretion may deem expedient, and may in their Discretion accept any reduced or lower Rate of Interest in respect of such Money or any Part thereof, and also consent to or concur in the Extinction in whole or in part of any Arrears of Interest payable in respect of such Money or any Part thereof, as if they respectively were so entitled in their own Right, discharged of all Trusts in respect thereof; and all Executors, Administrators, Guardians, Trustees, and Committees so consenting are hereby severally indemnified for so doing.

VI. And whereas by the Act of the Session holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-eight, it was enacted, that the Words "Implements of Husbandry" in Section Thirty-six of Chapter One hundred and twenty-six of the Statute of the Third Year of King George the Fourth should be deemed to include "Threshing Machines:" And whereas Section Thirty-six of such last-mentioned Act was referred to by Mistake instead of Section Thirty-two of such Act:

The said Enactment of the said Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty shall be read and construed as if Section Thirty-two of the Act of the Third Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and twenty-six, had been mentioned instead of Section Thirty-six of such Act.

VII. In citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament and in legal Instruments it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, 1853."

VIII. This Act shall not apply to Ireland.

Erroneous Reference in 14 & 15 Vict. c. 38, to Sect. 36. of 3 G. 4. c. 126. instead of Sect. 32. corrected.

C A P. CXXXVI.

An Act for enabling Grand Juries in Ireland to borrow Money from private Sources on the Security of Presentment, and for transferring to Counties certain Works constructed wholly or in part with Public Money.

[20th August 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to enable Grand Juries in Ireland to raise Money on the Security of Presentments: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Money may be raised on the Security of Presentments repayable by Instalments, with Interest.

I. It shall be lawful for the Grand Jury of any County, County of a City, or County of a Town, at any Assizes, or if in the County of Dublin at any Presenting Term, to present any Sum or Sums of Money for the Purpose of any Public Work which by Law it is or may be competent for them to present, (the estimated Cost of which shall not be less than One thousand Pounds) in order to obtain Advances by way of Loan from Parties willing to make such Advances, and to set forth in such Presentment that such Sum or Sums of Money shall be raised and levied by half-yearly Instalments of not less than Ten Pounds per Centum per Annum of the whole Sum to be expended, and likewise to present a Sum sufficient to pay the annual Interest of such Sum or Sums to be so expended, and from Time to Time remaining due, at such Rate (not exceeding Five Pounds per Centum), and likewise to include in such Presentment a sufficient Sum to defray the Expenses attendant upon obtaining an Examination and Report for the Information and Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland for the Purpose herein-after mentioned, and to set forth in such Presentment what Part thereof shall be raised upon any Barony or Baronies in such County, or on the County at large ; and the Treasurer of such County, County of a City, or County of a Town, shall and he is hereby authorized and required from Time to Time, without further Authority or Presentment in that Behalf, to issue his separate Warrant for or include in his general

general Warrant, at each Assizes or Presenting Term (if in the County of Dublin), such Portion or Portions of the whole Sum so presented, together with such Sum for Interest thereon, as may be necessary for the Purpose of paying the Instalments and Interest as aforesaid to any Party or Person who may, with the Sanction of the Commissioners of Public Works as herein-after provided, have made any Advance on the Faith of such Presentment, and the Sum or Sums inserted in such Warrant shall be raised and levied from and off the Barony or Baronies or County at large named in such Presentment and Warrant, in like Manner, from Time to Time, and with like Remedy in case of Nonpayment, as other Monies directed by any Warrant of such Treasurer are by Law to be or may be levied; and it shall be lawful for any such Grand Jury in every such Presentment to nominate and appoint a Committee, of not less than Three or more than Five Persons, to treat and agree and contract for a Loan with any Party or Person willing to make the same on the Security of such Presentment, and for the Rate of Interest which shall be paid on any such Loan, and otherwise to carry the said Presentment into effect, and every such Presentment may be in the Form in the First Schedule to this Act annexed.

Grand Jury to appoint Committee to carry Presentment into effect.

II. Provided however, That it shall not be lawful for any Party or Person to make any Advance on the Faith of any such Presentment until the Work for which such Presentment shall be made shall be sanctioned and approved by the said Commissioners of Public Works, such Sanction and Approval to be signified under the Hand of the Secretary of the said Commissioners for the Time being, to the Secretary of the Grand Jury, and all Money advanced under the Authority of this Act on the Credit of any such Presentment shall entitle the Party or Person advancing the same or his legal personal Representative or Assignee to be repaid with Interest in the Manner herein-before mentioned; and such Advance shall be paid over to the County Bank to the Credit of the Treasurer of such County, County of a City, or County of a Town, and accounted for by him in like Manner as any other Monies by him received for the Use of such County, and all Securities given by him shall extend to such Monies: Provided always, that any such Presentment as aforesaid shall be subject to the like Conditions as regards the previous Application to and Approval of the Justices and Cesspayers at Presentment Sessions, and to the like Traverse and all other Proceedings thereon, as other Grand Jury Presentments, but that after such Presentment shall be made and stated it shall not be lawful for any Grand Jury to restrain the issuing of the Warrants which the Treasurer of such County, County of a City, or County of a Town ought from Time to Time to issue agreeably to the Provisions of this Act.

Such Presentment to be subject to the Approval of the Commissioners of Public Works.

III. When and so soon as any such Presentment as aforesaid shall have been duly certified by the Acting Clerk of the Crown, and the Sanction of the Commissioners of Public Works shall have been certified by the Secretary of the Grand Jury to the Committee so nominated and appointed therein, it shall be lawful for such Committee or any Three or more of them to treat, agree with, and contract for a Loan or Advance by any Party or Person Committee to treat and agree for Loan.

willing to make the same on the Faith of such Presentment, to the Amount thereof, or such Part thereof as may be necessary, and also to agree and contract for the Rate of Interest (not exceeding the Limit aforesaid) to be paid in respect of such Loan or Advance, and the Terms of every such Contract and Agreement shall be reduced to Writing, on a certified Copy of such Presentment, and signed by the said Committee, or any Three or more of them, and by the Party or Person making such Loan or Advance, and delivered over to such Party or Person, and held by him as Security for every such Advance, until the whole of the Sum actually advanced, with Interest thereon as agreed upon, shall be fully paid off and discharged.

Treasurer of County to pay
Party advancing on the Faith of Presentment.

IV. Every such Treasurer shall and he is hereby required to pay to the Party or Person who may have advanced Money on the Security of any such Presentment all and every such Sum as shall be received from the Baronial and other Collectors, by virtue of the Presentment and Warrants issued as aforesaid, until the whole Sum advanced shall be repaid, together with Interest thereon, to the Party or Person who may have advanced the same: Provided always, that all Monies in the Treasurer's Hands shall also be applicable and be applied to pay the Instalments of Principal, with Interest thereon, according to the Terms of any such Presentment and the Contract and Agreement as aforesaid, and if it shall happen that any Money shall have been raised by virtue of any such Presentment which will not be required for the Purposes for which it shall have been so raised, the same shall be carried to the Credit of the County, County of a City, or County of a Town, or Barony from which it shall have been raised.

Where the Powers of the Grand Jury for Presentment are transferred to the Council of a Borough, such Council shall have the same Powers as a Grand Jury
under this Act.

V. Provided always, That where under any Act of Parliament the Powers, Rights, and Duties of the Grand Jury of any County of a City or County of a Town in relation to the Appointment of Presentment Sessions, and the presenting and levying of Rates and Cesses for any Purpose, have been or shall hereafter be transferred to the Council of any Borough, the Council of such Borough shall have all the Powers and Authorities hereby vested in the Grand Jury of a County, and the Money included in any Presentment or Order to be made by such Council under this Act shall be raised in such Borough in manner by Law provided with respect to Money required for such Purposes in relation to which the Powers of the Grand Jury may be transferred as aforesaid to such Council; and the Certificate of the Town Clerk of such Borough on any such Presentment or Order shall be as effectual as the Certificate of the Acting Clerk of the Crown in the Case of a Presentment by the Grand Jury of a County.

Grand Jury
may present Expenses incurred in Matters of Business.

VI. That in addition to the Purposes for which Grand Juries may now by Law present, it shall be lawful for the Grand Jury of any County, County of a City, or County of a Town to present to be levied off the County at large, such Sum or Sums of Money as may be incurred in defending such County on the Trial of any Traverse or other Proceedings in which such Grand Jury may consider the Rights of the Cesspayers should be defended and protected, and also such Sums as may be necessary for any Costs incurred in the Conduct and Management of any Matter of Business which any such Grand Jury may consider right and proper proper for the Interests or Benefit of such County should be confided to and conducted by any Counsel, Solicitor, or Agent : Provided, however, that no such Presentment shall be made unless there shall have been laid before such Grand Jury a Bill duly taxed and certified by the proper Taxing Officer of the Costs incurred for any of the Purpose aforesaid for which such Presentment shall be required.

VII. 'And whereas under and by virtue of an Act of the Session holden in the First and Second Years of King William 1 & 2 W. 4. c. 33. the Fourth, Chapter Thirty-three, an Act of the Session holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the same Reign, Chapter 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 108. One hundred and eight, an Act of the Session holden in the Second and Third Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Fifty, an Act of the Session holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Three, and an Act of the Session holden in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-five, certain Harbours, Piers, Quays, Landing Places, and other Works in Ireland have been constructed or improved by the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland wholly or in part with Public Money : And whereas, under and by virtue of the said last-mentioned Act, and an Order made by the said Commissioners of Public Works, dated the Sixth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and published in the Dublin Gazette of Friday the Sixteenth of February in the same Year, several Harbours, Piers, Quays, Landing Places, and other Works on the Sea Coast of Ireland which within Forty-five Years before the passing of such Act had been made, wholly or in part, with Public Money advanced for the Improvement of the Fisheries, have become vested in such Commissioners, and the Counties liable to be charged with the Cost of the Repair and Maintenance of such Works (in case of the Insufficiency of the Tolls, Rates, or Rents accruing thereout,) are set forth in such Order : And whereas it is expedient to provide for the future Maintenance and Preservation of all the said Harbours, Piers, Quays, Landing Places, and Works constructed or improved by the said Commissioners of Public Works as aforesaid, and of the like Works which may be hereafter constructed or improved by such Commissioners under the said Acts, and also of the Works so vested in the said Commissioners as aforesaid, which said Harbours, Piers, Quays, Landing Places, and Works, heretofore constructed or improved as aforesaid, and vested in the said Commissioners as aforesaid, are respectively mentioned in the Second Schedule to this Act annexed :

It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Public Works (by and with the Consent and Direction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury), by Warrant under the Hands of the said Commissioners of Public Works or any Two of them, from Time to Time to direct that any Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work mentioned in the said Schedule, or which at any Time hereafter shall be erected, constructed, or made, altered or improved, by the said Commissioners of Public Works, out of the Sums of Fifty thousand Pounds and Forty thousand Pounds granted by the said Acts of the Ninth and Tenth and Commissioners of Public Works may transfer Harbours, Piers, Quays, &c. to Grand Juries of Counties.

Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty, or any Land at, about, or adjoining such Harbour, Pier, Quay, or Landing Place purchased by and vested in the said Commissioners under the Provisions of the said Acts or either of them, shall be deemed and become the public Property of the County in which such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work may be situate, and from and after the Date of any such Warrant such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work, together with all Ways, Rights, Members, and Appurtenances thereto belonging, and such Land, shall be deemed and taken to be the public Property of such County, and be held, maintained, and preserved by the Grand Jury of the County mentioned in such Warrant in like Manner as any public or County Road or Bridge within such County the Expense of which is or may be chargeable to such County or any Barony thereof: Provided always, that nothing in this Provision contained shall in any Manner affect, alter, or abridge the Powers of the said Commissioners of Public Works under the said Acts of the Ninth and Tenth and the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty, or either of them, for the raising, levying, and recovering the Amount specified in any Final Award made or to be made by the said Commissioners of Public Works, and therein stated to have been advanced by way of Loan, or the Interest thereof: Provided also, that the Tolls and Rates to be levied and paid for the Use of any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work shall be from Time to Time fixed by the said Commissioners of Public Works, with the Approbation of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury; but all such Tolls and Rates shall belong to the County in which such Work may be situate, and shall be levied, collected, and applied, under the Direction of the Grand Jury of such County, and Payment thereof may be enforced by such Person as they may appoint to receive the same, in like Manner as Payment of the Tolls or Rates for the Use of such Work as aforesaid may, under the said Acts or any of them, be enforced by the said Commissioners of Public Works, or their Lessees or Officers: Provided also, that nothing in this Provision, or in any Warrant of the said Commissioners for making any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work, the public Property of any such County as aforesaid, shall prevent the said Commissioners of Public Works from exercising the Powers contained in the said Acts of the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth and of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, in respect to the making, altering, or repealing of any Byelaws, Rules, Orders, and Regulations, as therein mentioned, or in anywise affect the Powers or Provisions of the said Acts in relation to such Byelaws, Rules, Orders, or Regulations, but such Powers may be exercised by the said Commissioners of Public Works, in respect to any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work, as if no such Warrant had been executed for vesting any such Pier, Harbour, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work in any such County as aforesaid.

Nothing to alter or abridge Powers of Commissioners for recovering Monies advanced by way of Loan, and Interest thereon.

Tolls and Rates to be fixed by Commissioners of Public Works, with Approbation of the Treasury.

Nothing to affect Powers of Commissioners of Public Works to make Byelaws, &c.

Grand Jury may present for Repairs of Har-

VIII. It shall be lawful for the Grand Jury of any County in which any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work may be situate to present to be raised off the County at large, large, or any Barony or Baronies therein, such Sum and Sums of Money as may from Time to Time be necessary for the Repair and Maintenance of any such Work which may become the Property of any such County as aforesaid, and to contract for the Maintenance and Repair of any such Work for any Term not exceeding the Term of Seven Years, and, without any Application to Presentment Sessions, to present to be raised off such County at large, Barony or Baronies, from Time to Time for the Amount necessary to pay the Person or Persons with whom any such Contract shall be made.

IX. It shall be lawful for the Grand Jury of the County in which any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work may be situate to appoint, from Time to Time as Occasion shall require, a proper Person, at such Salary as they may think fit, not exceeding the Sum of Twenty Pounds per Annum, for enforcing the Byelaws, Rules, Orders, and Regulations (if any) which shall or may be made by the Commissioners of Public Works respecting any such Work, and for the Purpose of settling all Disputes which may arise with respect to the Occupation or Use and the due and proper Care and Preservation of any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work; and such Person so to be appointed shall be called "the Harbour Constable," and shall have, for the Purposes aforesaid or any of them, in addition to the Powers hereby or by any such Byelaws given, the same Rights, Powers, and Authorities as if he had been appointed to and formed Part of the Constabulary Force established in and for any County in Ireland; and it shall be lawful for the Grand Jury of any such County to present for the Amount of the Salary so agreed to be paid to any such Harbour Constable, without any Application to Presentment Sessions.

X. One Half of every Sum of Money levied as a Fine or Penalty under the Provisions of the said Acts of the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth and the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, or either of them, or under or in respect of any Byelaw heretofore made or which shall be made by the said Commissioners of Public Works, in respect of any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Works, which shall become the Property of any such County, shall be paid to the Informer or Person who shall be the Means of bringing to Justice any Person offending against such Acts or either of them or such Byelaw as aforesaid, and the remaining Half shall be paid to the Treasurer of the County in which any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work shall be situate, to be by him brought to the Credit of such County.

XI. In case the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland shall signify to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury that any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work which may become the Property of any such County as aforesaid is not kept and maintained in good and proper Repair by the Grand Jury of the County in which any such Work may be situate, or that any sudden Breach or Damage has occurred to any such Work, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury in any such Case, if they think fit, on an Estimate being laid before them by the Commissioners hours, Piers, Quays, &c.; and enter into Contracts for Repairs of such Harbours, &c.

Grand Jury to appoint "Harbour Constable" for enforcing Byelaws, and for Care and Conservancy of Work; and may present for his Salary.

Application of Penalties in respect of Piers, Harbours, &c.

Commissioners of Public Works may execute Works of Repair of Harbours, Piers, Quays, &c. in certain Cases.

of Public Works or any Two of them, setting forth what Sum will be requisite and necessary from Time to Time for the Repair of any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work, and stating the Situation of such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work, and of the Repairs required for the same, to direct that any such Sum or Sums of Money required by such Commissioners of Public Works, or any Part thereof, be advanced and paid to such Commissioners out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to be applied, under the Directions of the said Commissioners of Public Works, in the repairing of any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work.

Mode of Repayment of Money expended on such Repairs.

XII. Whenever any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work shall be repaired under the Direction of the said Commissioners of Public Works, the said Commissioners or any Two of them shall certify to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland the total Amount of the Expense incurred by such Repair, and thereupon the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governor of Ireland, or in his Absence the Under Secretary, shall certify to the Secretary of the Grand Jury of any County within which any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work shall be situate, the Amount of Money which shall have been expended upon the Repair of such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work within any and every such County respectively out of the Advances authorized by this Act; and every such Certificate shall be laid before the Grand Jury of any and every such County at the next Assizes after the Date of such Certificate of the Chief or Under Secretary, and thereupon the Grand Jury shall present for the Amount of such Expenses as stated in such Certificate to be raised off such County at large, or any Barony or Baronies therein; and when and as soon as the Sum so to be presented as aforesaid shall be raised and received by the Treasurer of any such County, such Treasurer shall pay over the same to the Paymaster of Civil Services in Ireland, or in such Manner as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall direct.

So much of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 75. as relates to Proceedings previous to First Repairs of Piers, &c. repealed.

XIII. ' And whereas in and by the said Act of the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty it was enacted, that the said Commissioners of Public Works, with the Approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, might, if they thought fit, out of the Funds therein mentioned, advance by way of Grant any Part of the Expenses of the First Repair of any Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work vested in them under such Act, and previously to such First Repair such Proceedings should be had and taken as by the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty are required to be previously had or taken in the Case of any new Pier, Quay, Harbour, or other Work the Expense of which was partly to be paid by any County or District: And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Provision:'

So much of the said Act of the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty as directs that, previous to such First Repair of any Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work vested in the said Commissioners of Public Works, such Proceedings shall be had and and taken as by the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty are required to be previously had or taken in the Case of any new Pier, Quay, Harbour, or other Work the Expense of which is partly to be repaid by any County or District, shall be repealed, save as to any Matter or Thing heretofore done under such Provision.

XIV. Previously to the Time when any Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work shall become the public Property of any County as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Public Works, with the Sanction and Approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, if they think fit, out of the Residue now remaining unapplied of the several Sums of Fifty thousand Pounds and Forty thousand Pounds in and by the said Acts of the Ninth and Tenth and the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty granted for the Purposes of the said Acts, to apply such Sum of Money as may in the Opinion of the said Commissioners of Public Works be necessary for the Repair of such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work without charging such Sum or any Part thereof on such County.

Harbours, Piers, Quays, &c. may be repaired by Commissioners of Public Works at any Time previous to same being transferred to the County.

XV. ' And whereas in and by the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty it was enacted, that any Sum of Money which under the Final Award of the said Commissioners of Public Works should be payable by any County in respect of Monies advanced by way of Loan for or in respect of any Work under the Provisions of the said Act should be payable by the Grand Jury of such County, and the Secretary of the said Commissioners should certify to the Secretary of such Grand Jury the Amount of such Sum of Money, and the Instalments and Manner by and in which the same was payable under the Award of said Commissioners, and such Grand Jury was required, without Application to Presentment Sessions, to make Presentment of the Amount of such Costs, Charges, and Expenses, or of the Instalments from Time to Time payable in respect thereof, as stated in such Certificate, together with Interest, as therein mentioned, to be raised off the County at large; and it is by said Act also enacted, that any Sum of Money which under such Final Award should be payable by any District in respect of Monies advanced by way of Loan for or in respect of any Work under the Provisions of said Act, with Interest thereon, as therein mentioned, should be charged upon the Occupiers of and other Persons rateable in respect of Lands and Hereditaments within such District, and rated as therein mentioned, and should be payable either in One Sum, or by Instalments, as specified in such Award, by the Ratepayers therein mentioned, the same to be assessed and levied as therein mentioned: And whereas it is expedient to make other Provision for the Collection and Repayment of all Sums which under any Final Award of the said Commissioners should be payable by any County or by any District in respect of Monies advanced by way of Loan for or in respect of any Work executed under the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act:'

9 & 10 Vict. c. 3.

Where any Sum of Money under the Final Award of the said Commissioners already made, or hereafter to be made, is or shall be payable by any County and District, or either of them, in respect of Monies advanced by way of Loan for or in respect of any Har-

Monies payable by County or District under Award to be presented by Grand Jury, bour, bour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work, under the Provisions of the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, or of this Act, the same shall be payable by the Grand Jury of such County; and the Secretary of the said Commissioners shall certify to the Secretary of such Grand Jury the Amount of such Sum of Money, and the Instalments and Manner by and in which the same is payable, under the Award of the said Commissioners; and such Grand Jury are hereby required, without Application to Presentment Sessions, to make Presentment of the Amount mentioned in such Certificate to be payable at the Times and in the Manner stated in such Certificate, to be raised off the County at large and District, or either of them, as the Case may be; and in default of such Presentment, the Court, at such or the next Assizes, shall order the Amount mentioned in such Certificate to be raised off such County and District, or either of them, as the Case may be, and such Order shall have the Force and Effect of a Presentment; and the Treasurer of such County shall insert such Amount as shall be so presented or ordered as aforesaid in his Warrant or Warrants, and the same shall be apportioned, raised, and levied, sued for and recovered, by such and the same Ways and Means as any Grand Jury Cess; and when and so soon as such Amount as aforesaid shall be raised and received by the Treasurer of the County, such Treasurer shall immediately pay the same to the Paymaster of Civil Services in Ireland for the Time being, and the same shall be by him paid over and applied, in such Manner as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall from Time to Time direct, in discharge of the Loan mentioned in any such Award, and chargeable to such County and District, or either of them.

Monies payable under Awards by Proprietors to be paid to the Paymaster of Civil Services.

XVI. Any Sum of Money which under any such Final Award shall be payable by any Proprietor of Lands in respect of Monies advanced by way of Loan for or in respect of any Work under the Provisions of the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, together with Interest for such Sum, as by the said Act provided, from the Date of such Award, shall be paid and payable to the Paymaster of Civil Services in Ireland for the Time being, and the same shall be by him paid over and applied, in such Manner as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall from Time to Time direct, in discharge of the Loan, and Interest thereon, chargeable on the Lands of such Proprietor, as mentioned in any such Award: Provided always, that nothing herein contained (save as lastly herein-before mentioned) shall in any Manner alter or affect the Provisions of the said Act with respect to Repayment of such Loan or the Recovery thereof in case of Nonpayment of the same.

6 G. 4. c. 101.

XVII. 'And whereas by an Act of the Sixth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and one, Provision was made for the Repair and Maintenance of certain Roads and Bridges in Ireland made wholly or in part at the Public Expens. and by the said Act of the First and Second Years of King William the Fourth the said Act of King George the Fourth, which had expired, was revived, and the Repair and Maintenance of such Roads and Bridges placed under the Direction of the said Commissioners of Public Works: And whereas the several Roads ' and

‘ and Bridges which have been made by the said Commissioners of Public Works under the said Act of the First and Second Years of King William the Fourth, and the Acts amending the same, have hitherto been maintained by the said Commissioners of Public Works, and the Expenses incurred in such Maintenance have from Time to Time been repaid by means of Grand Jury Presentment by the Counties in which such Roads are respectively situate : And whereas it is expedient that the Maintenance of all the said Roads and Bridges should be transferred to the respective Counties in which such Roads or Bridges may be situate :’

All Roads and Bridges in Ireland heretofore maintained and repaired by the said Commissioners of Public Works, under the said Acts of the Sixth Year of King George the Fourth and the First and Second Years of King William the Fourth, and also all Roads and Bridges heretofore made by the said Commissioners, either wholly or in part at the Public Expense, by means of free Grants, under the said Act of the First and Second Years of King William the Fourth, or any of the Acts amending the same, and heretofore maintained by the said Commissioners of Public Works, shall from and after the First Day of July next ensuing be considered and deemed public County Roads and Bridges the Property of the Counties in which such Roads and Bridges shall be respectively situate, and the same Roads and Bridges respectively shall be kept in repair and maintained as public County Roads and Bridges within such Counties respectively are now kept in repair and maintained : Provided always, that when any such Bridge shall be situate partly in One County and partly in another, the Expense of repairing and maintaining such Bridge shall be borne and defrayed equally between such Counties, and Presentments made accordingly.

XVIII. ‘ And whereas Contracts or Agreements have been entered into by the said Commissioners of Public Works with certain Persons for the Maintenance and Repairs of certain of the said Roads and Bridges, and which Contracts are still subsisting, and it is expedient to make due Provision for the same :’

From and after the said First Day of July all the Benefit and Obligation to which the said Commissioners of Public Works may be entitled or subject under any Contract entered into with them, and then in force, for the Repair of any such Road or Bridge as aforesaid, and under any Bond or other Instrument as a Security for the Performance of any such Contract, shall, without any Act or Deed whatever to be done by the said Commissioners of Public Works or any other Person, become transferred to and vest in the Grand Jury of the County in which any such Road or Bridge to which such Contract shall relate shall be situate, and every such Contract, Bond, or other Instrument may be proceeded upon by or on behalf of such Grand Jury, or at their Instance, in the same Manner as if such Contract, Bond, or other Instrument had been entered into in pursuance of the Provisions of the several Acts relating to the Presentment of Public Monies by Grand Juries in Ireland for the Repairs of Roads or Bridges, and every Person who entered into such Contract shall be entitled to the full Benefit of such Contract, as against such Grand Jury, and the same shall Roads and Bridges hitherto maintained by Commissioners of Public Works vested in Grand Jury.

Existing Contracts for Maintenance and Repairs of Roads and Bridges transferred to Grand Jury.

be as binding on such Grand Jury as if the same were entered into with such Grand Jury, and from and after the said First Day of February the Liability of the said Commissioners of Public Works in respect to any such Contract shall cease and determine.

6 & 7 W. 4. c. 35.

XIX. ' And whereas by an Act of the Session holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Thirty-five, certain Roads therein mentioned or referred to passing to, from, and between the General Post Office in the City of Dublin and the Harbour at Howth, were, with the said Harbour and other Works and Matters therein mentioned, vested in the Commissioners acting in execution of the said Act of the First and Second Years of King William the Fourth, now the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, the same to be thenceforth repaired, maintained, and supported by the said Commissioners, as therein mentioned: And whereas it is no longer necessary or expedient that the said Roads should continue to be repaired and maintained by the said Commissioners of Public Works:'

Road from Dublin to Howth (save that Part commonly called the North Strand) vested in and to be maintained by the Trustees of the Road.

From and after the First Day of October next so much of the said Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth as vests in the said Commissioners of Public Works the said Road from Dublin to Howth, and enacts that the same shall be repaired, maintained, and supported by such Commissioners, and provides that Payments shall be made as therein mentioned to such Commissioners for the Repairs of such Roads, shall be repealed; and the said Road from Dublin to Howth (save that Part commonly called the North Strand, herein-after specially provided for,) shall be vested in and maintained and kept in repair by the Trustees respectively acting in execution of the several Acts passed by the Parliament of Ireland in the Twenty-sixth, Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth, Thirty-first, Thirty-second, Thirty-third, and Thirty-eighth Years of King George the Third, in the said Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Thirty-five, mentioned or referred to, and of the Act of the Fifty-sixth Year of King George the Third, in the same Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth also mentioned or referred to, and of any other Act or Acts of Parliament respecting the said Roads, in the same Manner, and with, subject to, and under the same Powers, Authorities, and Provisions, as if the Act of the Fourth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-four, relieving such Trustees from the Burden of the Repair of the said Road, and providing for the Repair thereof by the Commissioners therein mentioned, and any subsequent Act providing for such Repair by any other Commissioners, had not been passed.

Portion of Road from Dublin to Howth called North Strand to be deemed a public Road.

XX. From and after the said First Day of October the said Road commonly called and known as the North Strand, commencing at the Circular Road near to the City of Dublin, and ending at Annesley Bridge, shall be considered a public Road within the County of the City of Dublin, and be maintained and kept in repair in like Manner and subject to the like Provisions, as all other Roads being within the said County of the City of Dublin, and any Sum of Money which may appear by the Certificate of the said Commissioners of Public Works to be now due and

Presentment for Repairs and and owing to the said Commissioners for Repairs heretofore made to the said Road shall be presented for by the Council of the Borough of Dublin, in like Manner as they are now authorized to present for Monies for the Repairs of any Road within the County of the City of Dublin, to be paid to the said Commissioners of Public Works at such Times as shall be mentioned in such Certificate.

Maintenance thereof to be made.

XXI. The Term "Treasurer," when used in this Act, shall, as regards the County of Dublin, be held to signify the Finance Committee; and the Instalments herein directed to be raised half yearly shall, as regards the said County of Dublin, be held to signify yearly; and the Amount of each Instalment, exclusive of Interest, to be not less than Ten per Cent. of the whole Amount of the Sum presented.

C A P. CXXXVII.

An Act for the better Administration of Charitable Trusts.

[20th August 1853.]

‘ WHEREAS it is expedient to provide Means for securing the due Administration of Charitable Trusts, and for the more beneficial Application of Charitable Funds in certain Cases:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual

Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty and Her Successors, by Warrant under the Royal Sign Manual, to appoint Four Commissioners, and also One Secretary and Two Inspectors for the Purposes of this Act, and upon any Vacancy by the Death, Resignation, or Removal of any Commissioner, Secretary, or Inspector under this Act, from Time to Time in like Manner to appoint another Person to succeed to such Vacancy, and until a fresh Appointment shall be made it shall be lawful for the surviving or continuing Commissioners, in case of any Vacancy, to act as if no such Vacancy had occurred; and Three of the said Commissioners shall hold Office during good Behaviour; and the Fourth, and every Secretary and Inspector to be appointed under this Act, shall hold Office during the Pleasure of Her Majesty.

Her Majesty empowered to appoint Charity Commissioners, Secretary, and Inspectors.

II. The said Three Commissioners so holding Office during good Behaviour shall be paid as herein-after mentioned, and Two at least of the said paid Commissioners for the Time being shall be Barristers-at-Law of not less than Twelve Years standing at the Time of their respective Appointments, and One of such Barristers shall be the Chief Commissioner, and shall be so called and distinguished in his Appointment.

Qualification of Commissioners.

III. The said Commissioners, with the Sanction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall from Time to Time appoint such Clerks and Messengers as the said Commissioners may think fit, and all Persons appointed under this Provision shall hold their Offices during the Pleasure of the said Commissioners.

Officers of the Board.

IV. There shall be paid to the said paid Commissioners, and to the said Secretary, Inspectors, Clerks, and Messengers, such Salaries not exceeding for the Chief Commissioner the annual Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds, and for each of the other paid Commissioners the annual Sum of One thousand two hundred Pounds, and for the said Secretary the annual Sum of Six hundred Pounds, and for each of the said Inspectors the annual Sum of Eight hundred Pounds, as shall be from Time to Time allowed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, who may also allow to every Commissioner, Inspector, and other Person appointed for the Purposes of this Act such reasonable Travelling and other Expenses as may be incurred by him in the Execution of his Office, and the said Salaries and Expenses, and the incidental Expenses of the said Board, shall be paid out of any Monies which may be from Time to Time provided by Parliament for that Purpose: Provided always, that after the Thirty-first day of March in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, the said annual Salary shall be paid to One only of the said Commissioners besides the said Chief Commissioner.

Salaries.

V. No paid Commissioner, Secretary, or Inspector to be appointed under this Act shall be capable of sitting in the House of Commons during the Tenure of his Office.

No paid Commissioner, &c. to sit in House of Commons.

VI. The said Commissioners to be appointed under this Act shall be styled "The Charity Commissioners for England and Wales," and may have and use a Seal for authenticating Documents, and such Commissioners shall sit from Time to Time as a Board.

Style of Commissioners, &c. to sit as a Board.

Board for carrying this Act into execution ; and any Two of such Commissioners may form a Board, and may exercise all or any of the Powers conferred on the Commissioners or the Board by this Act.

Board to frame General Minutes.

VII. The said Board shall, by General Minutes, from Time to Time prescribe Regulations for their Proceedings, and the Proceedings of their Inspectors, and concerning the Form and Manner of Applications to the said Board, and the Conditions to be performed by Applicants, and for the Guidance of Applicants in relation thereto, and all such General Minutes shall be signed by Three of the said Commissioners at the least ; and Copies of all such General Minutes shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Fourteen Days after the making thereof if Parliament be sitting, or if Parliament be not sitting, then within Fourteen Days after the next Meeting thereof.

Minutes of Proceedings and Orders, &c. to be entered, and Copies of Entries signed by the Secretary to be received in Evidence.

VIII. The said Board shall cause Minutes of their Proceedings, and all Orders, Certificates, and Schemes, made or approved by them under this Act, to be entered in Books to be provided and kept for such Purpose, and all such Entries shall be signed by their Secretary, and all Copies purporting to be extracted from the Books of the said Board, and to be certified by their Secretary, of any such Minutes, Orders, Certificates, and Schemes entered as aforesaid, shall be received as Evidence of the Proceedings to which such Minutes shall relate, and of such Orders, Certificates, or Schemes, and of the making or Approval thereof (as the Case may require) by the said Board, without further Proof thereof.

Board to inquire into Condition and Management of Charities.

IX. It shall be lawful for the said Board from Time to Time, as they in their Discretion may see fit, to examine and inquire into all or any Charities in England or Wales, and the Nature and Objects, Administration, Management, and Results thereof, and the Value, Condition, Management, and Application of the Estates, Funds, Property, and Income belonging thereto ; and the said Board may cause Examinations and Inquiries in relation to the Matters aforesaid to be made and prosecuted by their Inspectors, acting together or separately, in such Cases and at such Times as the said Board may think fit ; and all such Inspectors shall from Time to Time report their Proceedings to the said Board.

Power to require Accounts and Statements.

X. The said Board may require all Trustees or Persons acting or having any Concern in the Management or Administration of any Charity, or the Estates, Funds, or Property thereof, to render to the said Board, or to their Inspectors, or either of them, Accounts and Statements in Writing in relation to such Charity, or the Funds, Estates, Property, Income, or Monies thereof, or the Administration, Management, and Application thereof, and may also require such Trustees and Persons to return Answers in Writing to any Questions or Inquiries addressed to them by the Direction of the said Board relating to the Matters aforesaid.

Officers having Custody of Records to furnish Copies and Extracts, if required by Board.

XI. All Officers having the Custody of Enrolments, Decrees, Reports, Records, and other Documents relating to or concerning any Charity shall furnish such Copies or Extracts as shall be required by the said Board ; and every Inspector, Secretary, and other Officer of the said Board for the Time being employed for the

the Purposes of this Act shall be at liberty, by the Authority and under the Directions of the Board, and subject to such Regulations as the Board may make in that Behalf, to examine and search the Registers and Records of every Court of Law and Equity, and every Ecclesiastical Court, and every public Registry and Office of Records, and to take Copies of and Extracts from any Decree or Document recorded or registered or deposited therein respectively, for any Purpose contemplated by this Act, without Fee or other Payment in respect thereof.

XII. Any Inspector acting under the Authority of the said Board may, by Precept under his Hand subject, to such Regulations as the said Board may make in that Behalf, require any Person, being a Trustee of any Charity or otherwise acting or having any Concern in the Management or Administration of any Charity, or of the Estates, Funds, or Property thereof, or in the Receipt or Payment of the Income or Monies thereof, or deriving any Income or Stipend therefrom, to attend before such Inspector for the Purpose of being examined by him touching or relating to such Charity, or the Estates, Funds, Property, or Income thereof, at any Time and Place mentioned or appointed by such Precept, and to bring and produce any Deed, Paper, Writing, Instrument, or other Document, being in the Custody, Possession, or Power of such Person, and relating to such Charity, or the Estates, Funds, Property, or Income thereof, and may examine upon Oath all Persons attending in pursuance of such Precept, and all Persons voluntarily attending before him, and may administer such Oath: Provided always, that no Person shall be obliged to travel in obedience to any such Precept more than Ten Miles from his Place of Abode.

to the Property so held or claimed adversely, or any Charitable Trust or Charge alleged to affect the same.

Board to entertain Applications for their Opinion or Advice.

XVI. The said Board shall receive and consider all Applications which may be made to them by any Trustee or other Person having any Concern in the Management or Administration of any Charity, for their Opinion, Advice, or Direction respecting such Charity, or the Management or Administration thereof, or the Estates, Funds, Property, or Income thereof, or the Application thereof, or any Question or Dispute relating to the same respectively, and, if they so think fit, may, upon any such Application, give such Opinion or Advice as they think expedient, subject to any Judicial Order or Direction which may be subsequently made or given by any competent Court or Judge; and such Opinion or Advice shall be in Writing, signed by Two or more of the said Commissioners, and sealed with the Seal of the said Commission; and every Trustee and other Person who shall act upon or in accordance with the Opinion or Advice given by the said Board shall in respect of so acting be deemed and taken, so far as respects his own Responsibility, to have acted in accordance with his Trust; and no such Judicial Order or Direction subsequently made or given by any Court or Judge shall have any such retrospective Effect as to interfere with or impair the Indemnity by this Act given to Trustees and other Persons who have acted upon or in accordance with such Opinion or Advice of the said Board: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to indemnify any Trustee or other Person for any Act done in accordance with the Opinion or Advice of the said Board, if such Trustee or other Person have been guilty of any Fraud or wilful Concealment or Misrepresentation in obtaining such Opinion or Advice.

Persons acting on Advice of Board to be indemnified.

Notice of legal Proceedings as to any Charity by any Person, except the Attorney General, to be given to the Board.

XVII. Before any Suit, Petition, or other Proceeding (not being an Application in any Suit or Matter actually pending) for obtaining any Relief, Order, or Direction concerning or relating to any Charity, or the Estate, Funds, Property, or Income thereof, shall be commenced, presented, or taken, by any Person whomsoever, there shall be transmitted by such Person to the said Board, Notice in Writing of such proposed Suit, Petition, or Proceeding, and such Statement, Information, and Particulars as may be requisite or proper, or may be required from Time to Time, by the said Board, for explaining the Nature and Objects thereof; and the said Board, if upon Consideration of the Circumstances they so think fit, may, by an Order or Certificate signed by their Secretary, authorize or direct any Suit, Petition, or other Proceeding to be commenced, presented, or taken with respect to such Charity, either for the Objects and in the Manner specified or mentioned in such Notice, or for such other Objects, and in such Manner and Form, and subject to such Stipulations or Provisions for securing the Charity against Liability to any Costs or Expenses, and to such other Stipulations or Provisions for the Protection or Benefit of the Charity, as the said Board may think proper; and such Board, if it seem proper to them, may by such Order or Certificate as aforesaid require and direct that any Proceeding so authorized by them in respect of any Charity, shall be delayed during such Period as shall seem proper to and shall be directed by such Board; and and every such Order or Certificate may be in such Form and may contain such Statements and Particulars as such Board shall think fit; and (save as herein otherwise provided) no Suit, Petition or other Proceeding for obtaining any such Relief, Order, or Direction as last aforesaid shall be entertained or proceeded with by the Court of Chancery, or by any Court or Judge, except upon and in conformity with an Order or Certificate of the said Board: Provided always, that this Enactment shall not extend to or affect any such Petition or Proceeding in which any Person shall claim any Property or seek any Relief adversely to any Charity.

Courts not to entertain Proceedings as to Charities, except upon Certificate of the Board.

XVIII. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Attorney General acting ex officio to make such Applications, and take and prosecute such Proceedings with respect to any Charity, in the Court of Chancery or otherwise as to him may seem fit, as if this Act had not been passed; and that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed as dispensing with the Fiat or Allowance of Her Majesty's Attorney General, with respect to any Proceeding not being an Application under the Jurisdiction created by this Act where such Fiat or Allowance was necessary before the passing of this Act.

Saving for the Attorney General acting ex officio.

XIX. Provided also, That where upon any Report of any Inspector under this Act or otherwise it appears to the said Board that any Suit, Petition, or other Proceeding concerning or relating to any Charity, or the Estate, Funds, Property, or Income thereof, would be proper or expedient, it shall be lawful for the said Board by their Order to authorize or direct such Suit, Petition, or Proceeding to be commenced, presented, or taken, and to give such Directions in relation thereto as the said Board may think proper; and thereupon such Suit, Petition, or Proceeding may be commenced, presented, or taken accordingly, without any such previous Notice in Writing as herein-before mentioned; and the said Board, before giving any such Opinion, Advice, or Direction upon any such Application as aforesaid, or making any such Order or Certificate after Notice to them as aforesaid, may, where local Inquiry appears to them to be requisite, cause such Inquiry to be made by One of their Inspectors; and the said Board may, in any Case where they see fit, before acting upon the Report of any Inspector, cause such Report to be deposited for local Inspection, and give Notice of the same being so deposited, and consider any Statements or Objections which may be transmitted to them in relation thereto.

Board may, upon Report of an Inspector, authorize Proceedings where no Notice has been given to them, and may in other Cases cause local Inquiries by their Inspector.

XX. In any Case in which it shall appear to the said Board that the Institution of legal Proceedings is requisite or desirable with respect to any Charity, or the Estates, Funds, Property, or Affairs thereof, and that under the Circumstances thereof it is desirable that such Proceedings should be instituted by the Attorney General, it shall be lawful for the said Board, if they so think fit, to certify such Case, in Writing under the Hand of the Secretary of the said Board, to Her Majesty's Attorney General, together with such Statements and Particulars (if any) as in the Opinion of the said Board may be requisite or proper for the Explanation of such Case; and thereupon the said Attorney General, if upon Consideration of the Circumstances he think fit, shall institute and prosecute such legal Proceedings as he shall consider requisite or proper under the Circumstances of such Case, by Information or Petition in the Court of Chancery, or by Application to a Judge thereof at Chambers, or to a District Court of Bankruptcy, or County Court under the Jurisdiction given by this Act.

Board may sanction Building Leases, working Mines, doing Repairs and Improvements;

XXI. If in any Case it appear to the Trustees or Persons for the Time being acting in the Administration or Management of any Charity, or the Estates or Property thereof, that any Part of the Charity Lands or Estates may be beneficially let on Building, Repairing, Improving, or other Leases, or on Leases for working any Mine, or that the digging for or raising of Stone, Clay, Gravel, or other Minerals, or the cutting of Timber, would be for the Benefit of the Charity, or that it would be for the Benefit of such Charity that any new Road or Street should be formed or laid out, or any Drains or Sewers made through any Part of the Charity Estates, or that any new Building should be erected, or that any existing Building should be repaired, altered, rebuilt, or wholly removed, or that any other Improvements or Alterations in the State or Condition of the Lands or Estates of such Charity should be made, it shall be lawful for such Trustees or Persons to lay before the said Board a Statement and Proposal in relation to any of the Matters aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the said Board, if they think that the Leases or Acts to which the Statement and Proposal relate (with or without Modifications or Alterations) would be beneficial to the Charity, to make such Order under their Seal for and in relation to the granting of such Leases, or the doing of any other such Acts as aforesaid, and any Circumstances connected therewith, as they may think fit, although such Leases or Acts respectively shall not be authorized or permitted by the Trust; and the said Board, by any such Order, may authorize the Application of any Monies or Funds belonging to the Charity for any of the Purposes or Acts aforesaid, and, if necessary, may authorize the Trustees to raise any Sum of Money by Mortgage of all or any Part of the Charity Estates; provided that compulsory Provisions be reserved in every such Mortgage for the Payment of the Principal Money borrowed by annual Instalments, and for the Redemption and Re-conveyance of the mortgaged Estates, within the Period of not more than Thirty Years.

and may authorize the Application of the Charity Funds or the raising of Money on Mortgage for those Purposes.

Commissioners to authorize Trustees to remove Officers.

XXII. It shall be lawful for the Board, upon Proof to their Satisfaction that any Schoolmaster or Schoolmistress or other Officer of any Charity has been negligent in performing his or her Duties, or that he or she is unfit or incompetent to discharge them properly, either from immoral Conduct, Age, or any other Cause whatsoever, to empower the Trustees of such Charity to remove such School Master or Mistress or other Officer, and to charge the Salary of his or her Successors, or any other Portion of the Revenues of the Charity, with such Retiring Pension or Allowance, if any, in favour of the Person so removed, and generally to impose such Conditions as to the said Board shall appear proper: Provided always, that where there shall be any special Visitor of the Charity, the Consent of such Visitor, in Writing under his Hand, shall be necessary in order to such Removal.

XXIII. I

XXIII. If in any Case it appear to the Trustees or Persons acting in the Administration of any Charity that any Claim or Demand or Cause of Suit against any Person in relation to such Charity may, with Advantage to the Charity, or should, under the special Circumstances of the Case, be compromised or adjusted without taking or without continuing any Proceedings at Law or in Equity, such Trustees or Persons may, or the Person against whom such Claim, Demand, or Cause of Suit exists or is alleged to exist, may, with the Consent of the Trustees or Persons acting in the Administration of such Charity, submit to the said Board a Statement and Proposal for such Compromise or Adjustment; and, if it appear to the said Board, after such Inquiry in relation thereto by one of their Inspectors as they may deem requisite, or otherwise, that such Proposal, either with or without any Modification, is fit and proper, and for the Benefit of the Charity, it shall be lawful for the said Board to make such Order for and in relation to such Compromise or Adjustment as they may think fit; and upon the due Performance of the Terms and Conditions of such Compromise or Adjustment as aforesaid, such Agreement shall be a final Bar to all Actions, Suits, Claims, and Demands by or on behalf of the Charity concerned therein, in respect to the Cause of Action, Suit, or Matter in respect to which such Compromise or Adjustment shall have been made.

Board may sanction Compromise of Claims on behalf of Charity.

XXIV. Upon Application to the said Board by the Trustees or Persons acting in the Administration of any Charity, representing to the said Board that, under the special Circumstances of any Land belonging to the Charity, a Sale or Exchange of such Land can be effected on such Terms as to increase the Income of the Charity, or would otherwise be advantageous to the Charity, such Board may, if they think fit, inquire into such Circumstances, and if after Inquiry they are satisfied that the proposed Sale or Exchange will be advantageous to the Charity may authorize the Sale or Exchange, and give such Directions in relation thereto, and for securing the due Investment of the Money arising from any such Sale, or by way of Equality of Exchange for the Benefit of the Charity, as they may think fit.

Board, under special Circumstances, may authorize Sale or Exchange of Charity Lands.

see note 26.

XXV. The said Board shall have Authority, upon such Application as aforesaid, to authorize the Sale to the Owners of the Land charged therewith of any Rentcharge, Annuity, or other periodical Payment charged upon Land and payable to or for the Benefit of any Charity, or applicable to Charitable Purposes, upon such Terms and Conditions as they may deem beneficial to the Charity, and to give such Directions for securing the due Investment of the Money arising from such Sale for the Benefit of the Charity, or for securing the due Application thereof to such Charitable Purposes, as they may think fit; and in like Manner the Trustees of any Charity, with the Consent of the Board, may purchase any Rentcharge or other yearly Payment to which the Charity Estate is or shall be liable.

Board may authorize the Redemption of Rentcharges.

XXVI. The Leases, Sales, Exchanges, and other Transactions authorized by such Board under the Powers of this Act shall have the like Effect and Validity as if they had been authorized or directed by the express Terms of the Trust affecting the Charity.

Leases, Sales, &c. authorized by the Board to be valid.

XXVII. Where

Trustees of Charities enabled to purchase Sites for building from Owners under Disability, &c., according to the Provisions of Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845.

XXVII. Where any Land shall be required for the Erection or Construction of any House or Building with or without Garden, Playground, or other Appurtenances, for the Purposes of any Charity, and the Trustees of the Charity shall be legally authorized to purchase and hold such Land, but by reason of the Disability of any Person having an Estate or Interest in such Land, or of any Defect in Title thereto, a valid and perfect Assurance of the same Land cannot be made to the Trustees of the Charity in the ordinary Manner, it shall be lawful for the Trustees of the Charity, with the Sanction of the said Board (such Sanction to be certified under the Hand of their Secretary), to take and purchase such Land according to the Provisions of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" and for that Purpose all the Clauses and Provisions of the last-mentioned Act with respect to the Purchase of Lands by Agreement, and with respect to the Purchase Money or Compensation coming to Parties having limited Interests, or prevented from treating, or not making a Title, and also with respect to Conveyances of Lands, so far as the same Clauses and Provisions respectively are applicable to the Cases contemplated by this Provision, shall be incorporated in this Act, and in all Cases contemplated by this Provision, the Expression "the Special Act" used in the said Clauses and Provisions of the said "Lands Clauses Consolidation Act" shall be construed to mean this Act; and the Expression "the Promoters of the Undertaking," used in the same Clauses and Provisions, shall be construed to mean the Trustees of the Charity in question.

In Cases of Charities the Incomes of which exceed 30*l.*, Master of the Rolls and Vice Chancellors, upon Applications to them at Chambers, to have the same Jurisdiction as the Court of Chancery or Lord Chancellor now has upon Information, &c.

XXVIII. Where the Appointment or Removal of any Trustee, or any other Relief, Order, or Direction relating to any Charity of which the gross annual Income for the Time being exceeds Thirty Pounds, shall be considered desirable, and such Appointment, Removal, or other Relief, Order, or Direction might now be made or given by the Court of Chancery, in respect either of its ordinary or its special or statutory Jurisdiction, or by the Lord Chancellor intrusted with the Care and Commitment of the Custody of Lunatics, it shall be lawful for any Person authorized in this Behalf by the Order or Certificate of the said Board, or for the Attorney General, to make Application (without any Information, Bill, or Petition,) to the Master of the Rolls or One of the Vice Chancellors sitting at Chambers, for such Order, Direction, or Relief as the Nature of the Case may require; and the Master of the Rolls or the Vice Chancellor to whom any such Application shall be made shall and may proceed upon and dispose of such Application in Chambers, save where he may think fit otherwise to direct, and shall and may have and exercise thereupon all such Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority, and make such Orders and give such Directions in relation to the Matter of such Application, as might now be exercised, made, or given by the Court of Chancery or by the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, in a Suit regularly instituted, or upon Petition, as the Case may require; and the Master of the Rolls and Vice Chancellors respectively shall, in relation to such Applications as aforesaid, and the Proceedings thereon, (subject to any Rules which may be made by the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Consent of them or any Two of them,) have all such Powers of directing
Matters

Matters to be heard in open Court, and of ordering what Matters shall be heard and investigated by themselves and their Chief Clerks respectively, and such other Powers and Authorities as by the Act of the last Session of Parliament, Chapter Eighty, are vested in or authorized to be exercised by them at Chambers, and the Provisions of the said Act applicable to Orders made by the Master of the Rolls or any of the Vice Chancellors at Chambers shall extend to all Orders so made under this Act: Provided always, that, save as may be otherwise provided by any Rules to be made by the Lord Chancellor, with such Advice and Consent as aforesaid, the Determinations of the Master of the Rolls and Vice Chancellors respectively upon and in relation to such Applications as aforesaid shall not be subject to Appeal in any Case where the gross annual Income of the Charity does not exceed One hundred Pounds: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Master of the Rolls or any Vice Chancellor, where under the Circumstances of any Application as aforesaid he may so see fit, to direct that for obtaining the Relief, Order, or Direction sought for by such Application an Information, Bill, or Petition, as the Case may require, shall be filed or presented and prosecuted as now by Law required, and to abstain from further Proceeding on such Application.

15 & 16 Vict.
c. 80.

XXIX. The Jurisdiction created and given by this Act to the Master of the Rolls and the Vice Chancellors sitting in Chambers, upon any Application to them respectively as aforesaid, shall extend concurrently to and may be exercised by the Chancellor of the Duchy and County Palatine of Lancaster, and the Vice Chancellor of the same County Palatine respectively for the Time being, as to every Charity within the Jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery of the said County Palatine whose gross annual Income for the Time being exceeds Thirty Pounds, upon Application being made to such Chancellor or Vice Chancellor respectively; and it shall be lawful for the Chancellor of the said Duchy and County Palatine, with the Concurrence of the Vice Chancellor of the same County Palatine, from Time to Time to make and issue any Rules and Orders for regulating the Modes of proceeding, and the Fees to be taken in respect of Proceedings under this Act.

Provision as to Charities within the Jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster.

XXX. Provided always, That the Provisions of this Act applicable to any Charity the gross annual Income whereof exceeds Thirty Pounds shall extend to any Charity established or administered or applicable to or for Objects or Purposes within the City of London the gross annual Income whereof does not exceed Thirty Pounds, in like Manner as if such Income exceeded that Amount.

Provisions as to Charities over 30*l.* per Annum to extend to Charities under 30*l.* in London.

XXXI. It shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Consent of the Master of the Rolls and Vice Chancellors, or any Two of them, to make and issue General Rules and Orders for regulating the Mode and Form of Applications at the Chambers of the Master of the Rolls and Vice Chancellors respectively under this Act, and the Proceedings thereon, and for determining in what Cases and under what Conditions and Restrictions the Determinations of the Master of the Rolls and Vice Chancellors respectively upon or in relation to such Applications shall Lord Chancellor, with the Advice of Master of the Rolls and Vice Chancellors, or Two of them, to make General Orders.

shall be subject to Appeal, and the Fees and Allowances to Solicitors of the Court of Chancery, and the Fees to be payable in Money or by Stamps to the Officers of the said Court in respect of such Applications and Proceedings thereon; and such Rules and Orders may from Time to Time be varied by the like Authority, and all such Rules and Orders shall be deemed General Orders of the said Court.

District Courts of Bankruptcy and County Courts to have Jurisdiction in Cases of Charities the Incomes of which do not exceed 30l.

XXXII. Where any Charity of which the gross annual Income for the Time being does not exceed Thirty Pounds shall be established or administered or be applicable wholly or partially to or for Objects or Purposes within the District or any Two or more of the Districts of any District Court of Bankruptcy or of any County Court or Courts holden under the Act of the Session holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-five, and the Appointment or Removal of any Trustee, or any other Relief, Order, or Direction whatsoever concerning such Charity, shall be considered desirable, and such Appointment or Removal, or other Relief, Order, or Direction, might now be made or given by the Court of Chancery in respect either of its ordinary or its special or statutory Jurisdiction, or by the Lord Chancellor intrusted with the Care and Commitment of the Custody of Lunatics, it shall be lawful for any Person authorized in this Behalf by the Order or Certificate of the said Board, or for the Attorney General, to make Application to such District or County Court, or, as the Case may be, to any One of such District or County Courts, for such Order, Direction, or Relief as the Nature of the Case may require; and such District or County Court shall entertain such Application, and shall hear the Matter in open Court, and shall give such Relief, and make such Orders and Directions in relation to the Matter of such Application, as might now be made or given by the Court of Chancery or by the Lord Chancellor, intrusted as aforesaid, in a Suit regularly instituted, or upon Petition, as the Case may require; and the Clerk of such County Court shall transmit a Copy of such Order or Direction to the Office in London of the Registrar of County Courts Judgments, to be there enrolled: Provided always, that no Judge of any District or County Court shall be authorized to vary any Decree, Order, or Direction of the Court of Chancery, or of any Judge thereof, or to make or give any Order or Direction inconsistent or conflicting with any such Decree, Order, or Direction: Provided also, that where Two or more District or County Courts shall have concurrent Jurisdiction with respect to any Charity under this Act, no Application in respect of such Charity shall be made to or entertained by more than One of such District or County Courts at the same Time.

County Court Judge's Deputy not to exercise Jurisdiction.

XXXIII. The Jurisdiction hereby created and conferred on the County Courts with respect to any Charity shall not be exercised by any Deputy or other Person who may for the Time being be appointed to sit and shall be sitting for any such Judge.

Where Courts have concurrent Jurisdiction, Board to direct to which Court Applications shall be made.

XXXIV. Where Two or more District Courts of Bankruptcy or County Courts shall concurrently have Jurisdiction under this Act with respect to any Charity, it shall be lawful for the said Board to order to which of such Courts any Application with respect to such Charity shall be made; and every such Order shall be conclusive as to the Jurisdiction with respect to the Application referred to in such Order.

XXXV. It shall be lawful for the said Board to direct that any Application as to any Charity within the Jurisdiction of any District Court of Bankruptcy or County Court shall be made before a Judge of the Court of Chancery, or as to any Charity within the Jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster, either before the Chancellor or the Vice Chancellor of the same County Palatine, or before a Judge of the High Court of Chancery, according to the Provisions herein contained applicable to a Charity the gross annual Income whereof exceeds Thirty Pounds, and in such Case such Application shall be made and may be heard and determined accordingly, in like Manner as if the gross annual Income of such Charity exceeded Thirty Pounds; and upon the Production of the Order or Certificate containing such Direction, or of a Copy thereof, the Application with respect to which such Order or Certificate shall have been made shall not be entertained or proceeded with by such District or County Court.

XXXVI. Whenever any Order or Decision is made by any District Court of Bankruptcy or County Court for the Appointment or Removal of any Trustee of any Charity, or approving of any Scheme for regulating or directing the Administration of any Charity, or the Estate, Funds, Property, or Income thereof, a Copy of every such Order or Decision shall immediately upon the making thereof be delivered or transmitted by the Deputy Registrar of such District Court or by the Clerk of the County Court, as the Case may be, together with all requisite Particulars, to the said Board, for the Purpose of being considered by them; and no such Order or Decision shall be valid or effectual until the same shall have been approved by the said Board, such Approval to be testified by a Certificate in Writing, signed by the Secretary of the said Board, and no such Approval shall issue from the said Board until One Calendar Month shall have elapsed after the Receipt by the Board of such Copy and Particulars.

XXXVII. In case any such Order or Decision as last aforesaid of any District Court of Bankruptcy or County Court shall not be approved by the said Board, it shall be lawful for such Board to remit the same for Reconsideration and Decision by such District or County Court, with such Remarks and Recommendations thereon (if any) as shall seem fit and expedient to such Board, or, in the Discretion of the Board, to order and direct that the Subject Matter to which such Order or Decision relates, together with such Order or Decision, shall be submitted to the Consideration and Decision of a Judge of the Court of Chancery, and in such last-mentioned Case no further Proceedings shall be had or taken in the District or County Court with respect to the Matter in question; and in case the Order or Decision of the District or County Court, on the Reconsideration of any Order or Decision so remitted for Reconsideration, be disapproved as aforesaid by the said Board, such Board shall refer such Orders and Decisions, and the Subject Matter thereof, to a Judge of the Court of Chancery, or, as to any Charity within the Jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster, either to the Board may direct Cases within the Jurisdiction of a District or County Court to be taken before a Judge of the Court of Chancery in the first instance.

No Order of District or County Court for the Appointment or Removal of Trustees or Approval of a Scheme to be valid unless confirmed by Board.

Board, if dissatisfied with the Order of District or County Court may remit the Case for Reconsideration, or may transfer the Matter to Judge of the Court of Chancery.

Trustees of Charities enabled to purchase Sites for building from Owners under Disability, &c., according to the Provisions of Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845.

XXVII. Where any Land shall be required for the Erection or Construction of any House or Building with or without Garden, Playground, or other Appurtenances, for the Purposes of any Charity, and the Trustees of the Charity shall be legally authorized to purchase and hold such Land, but by reason of the Disability of any Person having an Estate or Interest in such Land, or of any Defect in Title thereto, a valid and perfect Assurance of the same Land cannot be made to the Trustees of the Charity in the ordinary Manner, it shall be lawful for the Trustees of the Charity, with the Sanction of the said Board (such Sanction to be certified under the Hand of their Secretary), to take and purchase such Land according to the Provisions of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" and for that Purpose all the Clauses and Provisions of the last-mentioned Act with respect to the Purchase of Lands by Agreement, and with respect to the Purchase Money or Compensation coming to Parties having limited Interests, or prevented from treating, or not making a Title, and also with respect to Conveyances of Lands, so far as the same Clauses and Provisions respectively are applicable to the Cases contemplated by this Provision, shall be incorporated in this Act, and in all Cases contemplated by this Provision, the Expression "the Special Act" used in the said Clauses and Provisions of the said "Lands Clauses Consolidation Act" shall be construed to mean this Act; and the Expression "the Promoters of the Undertaking," used in the same Clauses and Provisions, shall be construed to mean the Trustees of the Charity in question.

In Cases of Charities the Incomes of which exceed 30*l.*, Master of the Rolls and Vice Chancellors, upon Applications to them at Chambers, to have the same Jurisdiction as the Court of Chancery or Lord Chancellor now has upon Information, &c.

XXVIII. Where the Appointment or Removal of any Trustee, or any other Relief, Order, or Direction relating to any Charity of which the gross annual Income for the Time being exceeds Thirty Pounds, shall be considered desirable, and such Appointment, Removal, or other Relief, Order, or Direction might now be made or given by the Court of Chancery, in respect either of its ordinary or its special or statutory Jurisdiction, or by the Lord Chancellor intrusted with the Care and Commitment of the Custody of Lunatics, it shall be lawful for any Person authorized in this Behalf by the Order or Certificate of the said Board, or for the Attorney General, to make Application (without any Information, Bill, or Petition,) to the Master of the Rolls or One of the Vice Chancellors sitting at Chambers, for such Order, Direction, or Relief as the Nature of the Case may require; and the Master of the Rolls or the Vice Chancellor to whom any such Application shall be made shall and may proceed upon and dispose of such Application in Chambers, save where he may think fit otherwise to direct, and shall and may have and exercise thereupon all such Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority, and make such Orders and give such Directions in relation to the Matter of such Application, as might now be exercised, made, or given by the Court of Chancery or by the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, in a Suit regularly instituted, or upon Petition, as the Case may require; and the Master of the Rolls and Vice Chancellors respectively shall, in relation to such Applications as aforesaid, and the Proceedings thereon, (subject to any Rules which may be made by the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Consent of them or any Two of them,) have all such Powers of directing

Bond executed under this Provision shall be exempt from Stamp Duty : Provided always, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Attorney General (acting ex officio), at any Time within Three Calendar Months after the making of any Order by a District Court or County Court under this Act, to lodge and commence and prosecute an Appeal against such Order, without giving any such Notice or becoming bound as aforesaid, and every such last-mentioned Appeal shall thereupon be allowed by the Order of such District or County Court, and shall have such other Effect as any other Appeal under this Act.

XL. Where any Order allowing an Appeal has been made as aforesaid, the Person thereby allowed to appeal shall within Three Calendar Months present a Petition to the Court of Chancery, setting forth the Order appealed against, and the Order allowing such Appeal, and praying such Relief as the Case may require ; and upon the hearing of such Petition the Court may confirm, vary, or reverse the Order appealed against, or may remit such Order to the District Court of Bankruptcy or County Court by which the same was made, with or without any Declaration or Directions of the Court of Chancery in relation thereto, or may proceed in relation to the Charity to which such Order relates as in the Case of an Application under this Act to a Judge of the Court of Chancery at Chambers, and any Judge of such Court sitting at Chambers or in open Court may make or give any such Orders or Directions in relation to the Matter of such Order as he may see fit, or the Court may make such other Order in relation to the Matter of any such Appeal as to the Court may seem just, and as might be made in the Case of a Suit regularly instituted, or a Petition, as the Case may require ; and in case the Party allowed to appeal do not within such Three Calendar Months present such Petition of Appeal, the Order against which such Appeal was allowed shall be final ; and in case any Costs adjudged on any such Appeal to be paid by the Party allowed to appeal be not paid, such Bond as aforesaid may be put in Suit, and the Money to be recovered on every such Bond shall be applied to indemnify the Charity Estate or the Person damaged, or otherwise in such Manner as the Justice of the Case may require, and the Court or Judge by whom such Appeal may have been heard shall think fit.

XLI. Provided always, That no Judge of the Court of Chancery, nor any District Court of Bankruptcy or County Court, shall upon any Proceedings under this Act have Jurisdiction to try or determine the Title at Law or in Equity to any Real or Personal Property, or any Term or Interest therein as between any Charity, or the Trustee thereof, and any Person holding or claiming such Real or Personal Property, Term, or Interest adversely to such Charity, or to try or determine any Question as to the Existence or Extent of any Charge or Trust.

XLII. Before any Application shall be made to any Judge of the Court of Chancery, or to any District Court of Bankruptcy or County Court, under any of the Provisions herein contained for the Establishment or Alteration of a Scheme or the Appointment or Removal of any Trustees or Trustee, Notice in Writing of such intended Application shall be given in such Form and Manner as the said Board shall have directed ; and if the Order be that such whether such Endowment for such particular or special Object or Purpose should, for the Purposes of Jurisdiction and Proceedings under this Act, be considered and treated as forming Part of the general Endowment of the Charity, or as a separate or independent Charity, and such Board shall frame their Certificate or Order accordingly.

XLV. The Lord Chancellor shall make such Orders for regulating Proceedings by and before the Judges of District Courts of Bankruptcy and County Courts under this Act, and for fixing and determining the Fees to be taken in respect of such Proceedings, as he may see fit; and, subject to such Orders, such Judges may regulate the Proceedings before them respectively so as to render them as summary and inexpensive as conveniently may be.

Lord Chancellor to make Orders for regulating Proceedings before District and County Courts.

XLVI. Nothing herein contained shall diminish or detract from any Right or Privilege which by any Rule or Practice of the Court of Chancery, or by the Construction of Law, now subsists for the Preference or the exclusive or special Benefit of the Church of England, or the Members of the same Church, in settling any Scheme for the Regulation of any Charity, or in the Appointment or Removal of Trustees, or generally in the Application or Management of any Charity.

Reservation of Rights, &c. of Church of England with respect to Charities.

XLVII. The Secretary for the Time being of the said Board shall by virtue of his Appointment be the Treasurer of Public Charities; and such Treasurer shall, for the Purposes of taking, holding, conveying, assigning, transferring, and transmitting Real Property, including Leaseholds for Lives or Years, be a Corporation Sole by the Name of "The Treasurer of Public Charities," and by that Name shall have perpetual Succession, and plead and be impleaded before all Courts, Justices, and others.

Secretary to be Treasurer of Charities; such Treasurer to be a Corporation.

XLVIII. Where any Land, or any Term or Estate therein, holden upon trust for any Charity, shall be vested in any Persons other than the Persons acting in the Administration and Application of the Rents; or where there shall be no Trustees thereof, or the Trustees, or any of them, shall be unwilling to act, or it shall be uncertain in whom such Land, Term or Estate, shall be vested, or all or any of the Persons in whom such Land, Term or Estate, shall be vested, cannot be found, or shall be under Age, lunatic, or unsound Mind, (whether found such by Inquisition or not), or otherwise incapable of acting, or shall be out of the Jurisdiction or not amenable to the Process of the Court of Chancery, or where by reason of the reduced Number of Trustees or other Causes a valid Appointment of new Trustees cannot be made, or where by reason of the Expenses incident to the Appointment of new Trustees, and the Conveyance or Assignment of such Land, Term or Estate, to such new Trustees, it shall appear to the Court of Chancery, or to any Judge of such Court or of any Court having Jurisdiction with respect to such Charity under this Act, desirable so to do, such Court or Judge may order that such Land, Term or Estate, be vested in such Treasurer, and thereupon the same shall vest in such Treasurer and his Successors for all the Estate and Interest holden in trust for the Charity as aforesaid, without any Conveyance or Assurance thereof; but no such Vesting Order as aforesaid shall be made in respect of any Land, or Term or Estate as aforesaid, holden in trust as aforesaid, vested Land holden upon trust for a Charity, subject to Jurisdiction of Court of Chancery and of Judge, may be vested in Treasurer.

in a Corporation, without the Consent of the Corporation; and no such Vesting Order shall take effect in respect of any Copyhold Land without the Consent of the Lord of the Manor; and the Court of Chancery, or such Judge, may direct such periodical or other Payment, as such Court or Judge may think fit, to be made to the Lord of the Manor, in compensation for Fines or other Profits which would have become due upon Death or Admittance of Tenants.

Orders may be made re-vesting Land, &c. in the Trustees of the Charity.

XLIX. It shall be lawful for any Court or Judge by whom respectively any such Vesting Order may have been made, or for any other Court or Judge having Jurisdiction in the Matter, if it shall so seem fit to such Court or Judge, from Time to Time to order that all or any Part of the Land, Term or Estate, which shall for the Time being be vested in the said Treasurer by virtue of any such Vesting Order as aforesaid, shall be divested, and that the same shall be vested in the acting Trustees or Trustee for the Time being of the Charity; and such last-mentioned Order shall operate to vest such Land, Term and Estate, in the Trustees or Trustee therein named without any Conveyance or Assurance.

Treasurer to be a Bare Trustee.

L. Subject to the Orders and Directions of the Court of Chancery or of any such Judge, such Treasurer shall be deemed a Bare Trustee, and shall permit the Persons acting in the Administration of the Charity to have the Possession, Management, and Control of the Trust Estates, and the Application of the Income thereof, as if the same had been vested in them.

Judge may order Trustees, &c. holding Stock, &c. belonging to a Charity subject to his Jurisdiction to transfer same to official Trustees.

LI. The Secretary for the Time being of the said Board, and such other public Officer or Officers as the Lord Chancellor shall appoint, shall be official Trustees of Charitable Funds, and where Trustees or other Persons having in their Names, or in the Name of any deceased Person of whom they are Representatives, in the Books of the Bank of England, or of the East India or South Sea Company, or of any other public Company, any Annuities, Stock, or Shares, or holding any Government or Parliamentary or other Securities in trust for any Charity, shall be desirous to transfer or deposit the same to or with the said official Trustees in trust for such Charity, or where any Persons shall be desirous of transferring or depositing as aforesaid any Annuities, Stocks, Shares, or Securities, for discharging any Legacy or Charge given or made to or for the Benefit of any Charity, or where it shall appear to the Court of Chancery, or to any Judge of such Court, or of any District Court of Bankruptcy, or County Court having Jurisdiction under this Act, that any Annuities, Stock, Shares, or Securities held in trust for any Charity ought, for the Purpose of Security or convenient Administration, to be transferred or deposited as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Court or Judge to order the Transfer or Deposit of such Annuities, Stocks, Shares, or Securities to or with such official Trustees.

Secretary to keep separate Accounts of Funds of each Charity.

LII. The Secretary of the said Board shall keep separate Accounts of the Annuities, Stock, Shares, and Securities belonging to each separate Charity, and the said official Trustees shall pay the Dividends or Interest or Income thereof to the Trustees or Persons acting in the Administration of such Charity, or otherwise dispose thereof, and transfer such Annuities, Stock, Shares, or Securities securities (when Occasion shall require), as the Court of Chancery, or any Judge of such Court, or of any District Court of Bankruptcy, or County Court having Jurisdiction under this Act, or other lawful Authority, shall direct.

LIII. It shall be lawful for any Trustees or other Persons having the Custody of any Deeds or Muniments of or relating to any Charity to deposit the same for Security in a Repository which may be provided by the said Board, subject to any Regulations to be made by the said Board under this Act.

Deeds, &c. may be deposited in Repository provided by Board.

LIV. Where upon the Application of any Trustees or other Persons concerned in the Management or Administration of any Charity, or interested in the Benefits thereof (and after such Examination or Inquiry as the Board may think necessary in relation thereto), or upon any Report of an Inspector, or Information otherwise obtained by the said Board under this Act, with relation to any Charity, it shall appear to the said Board to be desirable to have a new Scheme for the Application or Management of the Charity, and such new Scheme as contemplated or considered desirable by the Board cannot be, or it shall in the Opinion of the Board be doubtful whether it can be carried into complete effect by the Court of Chancery, or by any District or County Court under the Jurisdiction created by this Act, or otherwise than by the Authority of Parliament, it shall be lawful for the said Board in every such Case provisionally to approve and certify such new Scheme in the Manner and subject to the Regulations herein-after mentioned.

Power to Board to frame Schemes for the Appropriation of Charitable Property to varied Trusts.

LV. One Month at least before any such new Scheme shall be provisionally approved, Notice thereof shall be given in such Manner as the Board may in each Case consider proper or expedient for ensuring due Publicity, and every such Notice shall contain such Particulars of the proposed Scheme as the said Board think fit, and as shall be deemed by the said Board sufficient to show the Nature of such Scheme, and where the Nature thereof cannot conveniently be shown in the said Notice, such Notice shall refer to some convenient Place within the Parish or District, and to the Office in London of the Registrar of County Courts Judgments, where a Copy of the proposed Scheme shall be deposited and may be inspected, and every such Notice shall require any Objections to such Scheme to be stated or transmitted to the said Board or their Secretary within One Month from the Time when the Notice shall have been given.

Notice to be given before Approval of Schemes, and Objections may be submitted for the Consideration of the Board.

LVI. If after such Notice as aforesaid any Objections or Suggestions shall be made, the Board shall consider the same, and may thereupon, if to them it shall seem fit, alter or modify the Scheme according to any such Objections or Suggestions; and after all such Objections and Suggestions, if any, have been disposed of, or if no such Objections or Suggestions shall have been made, the Board, in case they shall not think fit to refer such Scheme to an Inspector under the Provision next herein-after contained, may proceed to approve such Scheme, and to certify the same in manner herein-after mentioned.

Board may alter or modify or approve of Schemes.

LVII. Upon the Requisition of any Person interested in the Charity in question (in case the said Board after due Consideration shall be of Opinion that there are sufficient Grounds for complying

The Matter of Schemes may be referred to an Inspector for local Inquiry.

plying with such Requisition), or in any other Case, if the said Board shall consider it desirable, the Matter of any Scheme in question may be referred by the said Board to One of their Inspectors, and such Inspector shall thereupon proceed to make a local Inquiry and Examination into the Matter of the Scheme in question, and for the Purposes of such Inquiry, such Inspector may hold a Sitting or Sittings in some convenient Place in the Parish or One of the Parishes or the District to or in which respectively the Charity in question is wholly or partially situated or is administered, and may take and receive any Evidence and Information, and hear and inquire into any Objections or Questions relating to the Scheme or Charity in question, and may from Time to Time adjourn any such Sitting, and public Notice shall be given by such Inspector of every such Sitting (except an adjourned Sitting) Fourteen Days at the least before the holding thereof, in such other Mode as in the Judgment of the said Board shall be sufficient to ensure Publicity.

Inspectors to report the Result of Inquiry to the Board.

LVIII. Every Inspector to whom any such Matter shall be referred shall report in Writing to the said Board the Result of his Inquiry, and whether in his Opinion the Scheme in question should be approved with or without any Alteration or Modification thereof, and such Report shall specify or indicate the Alterations (if any) which such Inspector shall consider desirable, with the Reasons for the same and also the Nature of the Objections (if any) which shall have been made to the Scheme, and the Opinion of the said Inspector thereon, and the said Board shall consider such Report, and if, as the Result of such Report or after further Inquiry, they shall be satisfied therewith, they may proceed to approve the Scheme in question either with or without any Alteration, and to certify the same in manner herein-after mentioned.

Schemes when approved to be certified by the Board.

Copy of such Certificate to be deposited in the Parish or District and Notice given.

LIX. Every Scheme to be approved by the said Board shall be certified by them, and for that Purpose shall be embodied in a Certificate to be made by the said Board, and sealed with their Seal; and in every Case a Copy of such Certificate shall be deposited in some convenient Place within the Parish or One of the Parishes or the District in which the Charity in question shall wholly or partially be situated or administered, and at the Office in London of the Registrar of County Courts Judgments, and a Notice shall also be given, in such Manner as the Board shall direct, which Notice shall refer to the Certificate so deposited, and shall state the Intention of the Board to proceed with the Scheme thereby certified.

Annual Report to be laid before Parliament, which shall set forth all the Schemes approved.

LX. The said Board shall in the Month of February in every Year make a Report to Her Majesty of all their Proceedings during the preceding Year up to the Thirty-first Day of December then last, and such Report shall, within Fourteen Days after the making thereof, be laid before both Houses of Parliament, if Parliament be then sitting, or otherwise within Fourteen Days after the Meeting thereof; and in such Report the said Board shall specially distinguish and set forth in full all the Schemes (if any) approved by them under the Provisions lastly herein-before contained, together with the Grounds of such their Approval, and the Objections (if any) which have been made thereto, and all Proceedings

Proceedings had in respect of such Objections and the Grounds on which any such Objections have been over-ruled ; and in case it shall be enacted by any Act of Parliament that any such Scheme or Schemes so certified shall be confirmed and take effect, either with or without any Alterations or Modifications thereof respectively, every such Act shall be deemed a Public General Act.

LXI. The Trustees or Persons acting in the Administration of every Charity shall, in Books to be kept by them for that Purpose, regularly enter or cause to be entered full and true Accounts of all Money received and paid respectively on account of such Charity, and on or before the Twenty-fifth Day of March in every Year, or on or before such other Day as shall or may be fixed and appointed for that Purpose by the said Board, shall cause a Statement in Writing to be made of the Income and Revenues, whether actually paid or then due, and the actual Receipts and Expenditure of such Charity for the Year ending on the Thirty-first Day of December then next preceding, or on some other convenient Day to be fixed and appointed for that Purpose by the said Board, and also a Balance Sheet containing a clear Statement of the Balance of such Account, which Statement and Balance Sheet respectively shall be certified under the Hand of some One or more of such Trustees or Persons (and audited by the Auditor of such Charity, if any there be) ; and as to every Charity whose gross annual Income for the Time being shall not exceed Thirty Pounds, every such Statement and Balance Sheet respectively, or a Duplicate or true Copy thereof respectively, shall be delivered or sent by such Trustees or Persons free of Charge to the Clerk of the County Court or some one of the County Courts (if more than One) to whose Jurisdiction such Charity may be subject under this Act (in case such Charity be subject to the Jurisdiction of any County Court under this Act), or if such Charity be not subject to the Jurisdiction of any County Court, then to the Clerk of the County Court for the District or any One of the Districts (if more than One) wherein or nearest adjoining whereto such Charity is established, or the Property thereof (in whole or in part) is situate or administered and distributed ; and as to every Charity whose gross annual Income for the Time being shall exceed Thirty Pounds, every such Statement and Balance Sheet or a Duplicate or true Copy thereof respectively (unless the said Board shall otherwise direct), shall be delivered or sent free of Charge to the Clerk of the Peace for the County or the Division of the County, or some One of the Counties or Divisions of Counties (if more than One) in which the Charity is established, or the Property thereof is wholly or partially situated or administered and distributed ; and every such Statement and Balance Sheet, or a Duplicate or true Copy thereof respectively, shall be kept and registered without Fee or Reward by the Registrar of County Courts Judgments or the Clerk of such County Court, and the Clerk of the Peace of such County or Division respectively, and shall be open to the Inspection of all Persons, at all reasonable Hours, on Payment of the Sum of One Shilling to the Registrar or Clerk for every such Inspection ; and any Person may require and have a Copy of any such Statement and Balance Sheet, or of any Part thereof, paying therefor to such Accounts of Trustees of Charities to be delivered to the Clerks of County Courts, Clerks of the Peace, and to the Board.

Registrar or Clerk after the Rate of Twopence for every Seventy-two Words or Figures; and a Duplicate or Copy of every such Statement and Balance Sheet to be made according to the foregoing Provision, so certified and audited as aforesaid, shall be delivered or transmitted, through the Post or otherwise, free of Charge, by such Trustees or other Persons, to the said Board, on or before the said Twenty-fifth Day of March in every Year, or such other Day as may be fixed and appointed by the said Board as aforesaid; and the said Board may from Time to Time by any Order direct that the Statement and Balance Sheet, or a Duplicate or true Copy thereof respectively, of the Accounts of any Charity whose gross annual Income exceeds Thirty Pounds shall be delivered or sent to the Clerk of the County Court in the same Manner as if the Income of such Charity did not exceed Thirty Pounds; and the said Board may make and give such further and other Orders and Directions in relation to the Delivery and Publication of such Accounts, and the Form thereof, as they may think fit, which Directions and Orders shall be obligatory on and obeyed by all such Trustees and Persons as aforesaid.

WHEREAS by Letters Patent under the Great Seal, bearing Date the Eighth Day of September, in the Tenth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Anne, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament therein referred to, Her said Majesty did appoint that all Persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, therein mentioned or referred to, should be One Body Corporate, by the Name of "The Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South Seas and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery:" And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, Chapter Twenty-eight, it was enacted, that after Midsummer One thousand seven hundred and thirty-three the One Fourth Part of the Stock therein mentioned, amounting to Three million six hundred and sixty-two thousand seven hundred and seventy-five Pounds Seventeen Shillings and One Farthing, should continue and be in the said Company as a Trading or Capital Stock in their own Right: And whereas, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament passed in the present Session of Parliament, Chapter Twenty-three, the said Trading or Capital Stock of the said Company which was subscribed by them for the public Use, and which now amounts to Three million six hundred and sixty-two thousand seven hundred and eighty-four Pounds Eight Shillings and Sixpence, will, on or by the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, be paid off and redeemed or commuted: And whereas by the said Letters Patent it was ordained that no Person or Persons should be capable of being an Elector to vote at any General Court of the said Company who should not, at the Time of such General Court, have in his, her, or their own Name and Right, and for his, her, or their own Use, and not in trust for any other, the Sum of One thousand Pounds or more Share or Interest in the Capital Stock of the said Company;

pany; and by the said Act of the Sixth Year of King George the Second the Amount of Qualification was reduced to the Sum of Five hundred Pounds of the said Stock; and by reason of such Provisions all fiduciary Proprietors of Shares in the said Trading or Capital Stock, and all Proprietors of less Stock than Five hundred Pounds, were incapable of signifying, through the said Company, their Assent to commute and exchange their respective Shares of the Annuity or Interest now payable on the said Trading or Capital Stock into any One or more of the Annuities of New Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum
 Annuities, Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, and Exchequer Bonds, into which the said Annuity or Interest is authorized to be commuted or exchanged by the said Act of the present Session of Parliament, Chapter Twenty-three: And whereas the said Company have not, within the Time limited by the said Act, signified their Assent to commute and exchange the Annuity or Interest now payable on the said Trading or Capital Stock of the said Company, or any Part thereof, into any One or more of the said New Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, and Exchequer Bonds, upon the Terms and Conditions in the said Act mentioned: And whereas it is expedient, in case Parliament should offer, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury should be authorized by Parliament to offer, such Commutation or Exchange as herein-after mentioned, that the said Company should be enabled to accept the same; but this Purpose cannot be effected without the Authority of Parliament: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, in manner following; (that is to say,)

Company empowered, with the Assent of certain Proprietors, to accept Government Securities, in lieu of Money, for Shares of such Proprietors of Stock redeemed by Parliament.

I. It shall be lawful for the said Company, and they are hereby authorized, to accept by way of Commutation or Exchange to accept from the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in case Parliament should offer, or such Commissioners should be authorized by Parliament to offer, such Commutation or Exchange, in lieu of the Money which under the Provisions of the said Act will, by reason of such Non-assent by the said Company, be payable on the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in respect of the Annuity or Interest on such Part of the Trading or Capital Stock of the said Company as shall, at the Time of the Authority herein-after mentioned being given by the respective Proprietors thereof, be standing in the Books of the said Company in the Names of, or be held by, such respective Proprietors of the said Capital Stock as are herein-after empowered to and as shall authorize the Assent thereto in manner herein-after mentioned, such One or more of the said New Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, and Exchequer Bonds, and any other Parliamentary or Government Stocks, Funds, or Securities, if any there be, which Parliament or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may be authorized by Parliament to offer for this Purpose, as such respective Proprietors shall assent to receive;

the said New Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, and such Bonds respectively, to be accepted upon the Terms and subject to the Conditions upon and subject to which, under the said Act of the present Session, Chapter Twenty-three, the same might have been taken in Commutation or Exchange, under an Assent signified within the Time by the said Act limited; and such other Stocks, Funds, or Securities, if any, to be accepted upon such Terms, and subject to such Conditions, as Parliament, or the said Commissioners under the Authority of Parliament, shall offer, and the said Company shall, in pursuance of such Assent, accept on behalf of such Proprietors: Provided that the respective Proprietors in respect of whose Shares of the said Trading or Capital Stock the said Company shall propose to accept such Annuities, Bonds, Stocks, Funds, or Securities, as aforesaid, do, either in Person or by some Agent or Agents duly authorized for that Purpose, and within such Time as may be limited by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Writing under the respective Hands of such Proprietors, or the Hand or Hands of such Agent or Agents respectively, authorize the said Company, in manner herein-after mentioned, to assent to such Commutation or Exchange.

II. After such Commutation or Exchange as aforesaid shall have taken place, the Annuities, Bonds, Stocks, Funds, or Securities received on such Commutation or Exchange shall be held by the said Company in lieu of the Shares of the Annuity or Interest on the said Trading or Capital Stock in respect whereof such Commutation or Exchange shall be made, and shall be appropriated and divided by the said Company amongst or held by the said Company on behalf of the Persons only in whose Names respectively the respective Shares of the said Trading or Capital Stock the Annuity or Interest on which is so commuted or exchanged were standing, or by whom the same were held, at the Time of such Commutation or Exchange, and so that each Proprietor so authorizing such Assent, or his Executors or Administrators, or his or their Assigns in case of any Transfer of such Share or Shares subsequent to such Authority being given, may have his or their Share of the said Annuities, Bonds, Stocks, Funds, or Securities, received in Commutation or Exchange as aforesaid, placed to his or their Credit in the Books of the said Company, in like Manner in every respect as if such Shares of the said Annuity or Interest on the said Trading or Capital Stock had been paid off or redeemed in Money under the Provisions of the said Act of the present Session, Chapter Twenty-three, exclusive of such Proprietors of the said Trading or Capital Stock as shall not assent to such Commutation or Exchange; and, subject thereto, such Annuities, Bonds, Stocks, Funds, and Securities shall be deemed to be Part of the Capital Stock of the said Company.

III. It shall be lawful for the Accountants General of the Courts of Chancery in England and Ireland respectively, and for the Accountant in Bankruptcy in England, to authorize the said Company, on behalf of any Suitor or Suitors, or others interested in the said Trading or Capital Stock standing in the Names of Securities received in Commutation to be held for those Proprietors who authorize such Commutation.
