

REPRESENTATIVE U. S. TREASURY,
FRED A. STOCKS.

WORLD'S COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT EXHIBIT.

BOARD OF MANAGEMENT.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 10th, 1893.

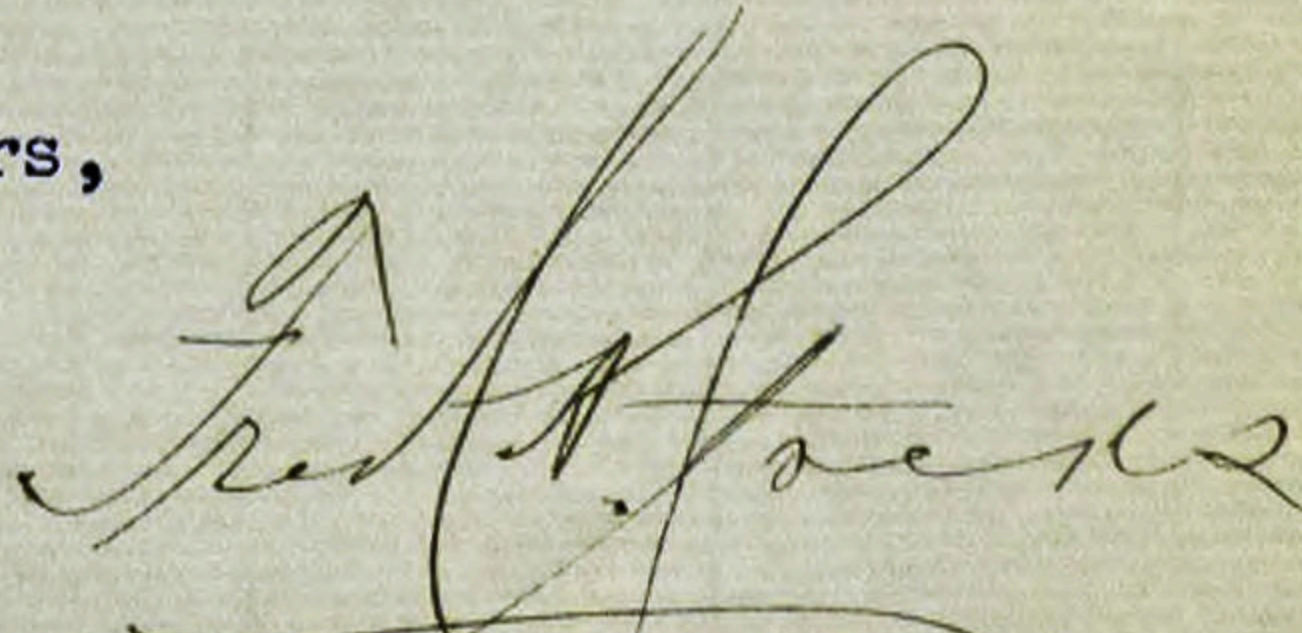

Colonel O. C. Bosbyshell,
Superintendent U. S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

My dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of Oct. 8th, I would state that in view of the explanation contained therein, and also of a similar statement made by Mr. N. S. Beekley, I will reconsider my decision in regard to the detail of Messrs Heim and Elvidge to this extent---I will recommend to the Honorable, The Secretary of the Treasury that Mr. Heim be detailed for duty here in connection with the re-packing of the Mint Exhibit, on Oct. 31st. Mr. Beekley thinks, and I concur with him, that with Mr. Heim's directions and assistance the cabinet, etc. can be packed expeditiously and securely. I trust that this will be entirely satisfactory to you.

In regard to the badges of the Board of Control. I would be pleased if you could furnish one for Mr. Cecil Clay, who succeeds Mr. Foster as Representative of the Department of Justice.

Very truly yours,

Representative,
Treasury Department.
