NEW COUNTERFEITS.

Every counterfeit that has ever been made has one or more mistakes in it. Our aim is to show what that mistake is.

50 CENT FRACTIONAL CURRENCY.
Latest Issue—Bust of Stanton on left end—poorly done.

New Issue—A very good counterfeit. The portrait of Lincoln is coarser and darker than the genuine, and the little work in the centre of the die is also darker.

NATIONAL SHOE & LEATHER B'K,
New York City.

20s. A good imitation. The face of the bill and the lettering is well done, while the engraving on the back of the note is rather coarse. Very likely to deceive.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY NAT. B'K,
Peckskill, N. Y.

2s. imitation. The general appearance of the bill is good, although the shading under the title of the bank is very irregular and dark. The vignette on left end is blurred and very rough.

10s. imitation. Well done.

5s. GREENBACKS.

The green ornamental engraving, lengthwise of the bill, in the counterfeit, is of a paler color than in the genuine, and has a brighter look than the dark green of the original. Seen under the microscope the engraving is coarse, but to the naked eye the bills have a very good appearance.

10s GREENBACKS.

The engraving is coarse. The vignette of Lincoln is a very indifferent engraving, and the scroll work around the medallion is poorly imitated. Letter C, twenty-third series.

10s. GREENBACKS.

An excellent imitation of the genuine. Note the following discrepancies. In the genuine, the shading around the 10 in the medallion appears like a fine net work, and runs close up to the figures. In the counterfeit, the shading is "picked up," and becomes coarser as it reaches the figures, forming a light streak or circular haze. Another test is on the figure 10 within the light circle. The genuine has three and one-third dots on the left on the fig. 10, while the counterfeit has but three. Thus:

GENUINE. COUNTERFEIT.

But the surest test is under the left wing of the eagle. The genuine has FOUR DISTINCT ROWS OF FEATHERS under the wing, while in the counterfeit the rows of feathers are undefined. One issue of this counterfeit is of the new series, letter D, No. 53; another is letter D, with a small 5 under the D, No. 23. These counterfeits are the best we have ever seen.

Newer issues have appeared lately, in which the defects above referred to have been corrected. We would advise our patrons to refuse all tens, greenbacks, unless they know the parties from whom they receive them.

20s. GREENBACKS.

A dangerous counterfeit. Green ink a good color, but the paper too yellow. Principal defect is the die. No clear and distinct lines around the 20. Looks more like a collection of several spots. Female well done, but the face rather coarser than the genuine.

50s. GREENBACKS.

Imitation. Observe the figures 50 on back of the bill around the margin. The 5 in the imitation runs into the 0 on the lower left corner, and reads 550 instead of 50. The buttons on Hamilton's vest which are very distinct in genuine are scarcely discernible in the counterfeit. Genuine has five while in the counterfeit you can hardly see four. The note is dated March 10th, 1863. We would advise our patrons to scrutinize carefully all $50 Treasury Notes, unless they know the parties from whom they receive them.

New York, October 27, 1870.

After a two weeks' artificially created by respective cliques, the various markets on the New York Stock Exchange have relapsed into their previous dullness.

The city banks held, on the 15th inst., about $7,000,000 in excess over their legal reserve; and though the weekly statement of the 22d revealed an increase in that item of about one and three quarter millions, the money market is left within easy control of the various cliques in stocks and gold. It has, therefore, of late, been alternately stringent or easy, according to their manipulations. Today, call loans on stock collaterals rule at 6 @7 per cent, and time loans on Governments are easier at 7. Commercial paper remains unchanged from what we last reported. In Foreign Exchanges little is doing to-day, and on the basis of sterling; commercial, 108½ @ 109; bankers', 109½ @ 109½; short sight, 109½ @ 110.

In the gold market, which has of late been the chief attraction, an attempt was made to produce a scarcity of cash gold, in order to "squeeze the shorts." The clique succeeded only for a few days in obtaining exorbitant rates for the use of their coin—½ per cent per day on the 13th inst. The Secretary's of the Treasury order—24th inst.—for the payment of the November interest without rebate, relieved this market for the time being. Today, gold loans are easier, 1-64 @ 1-32 per cent being the borrowing rates. Gold is at the time of our writing, to-day, quoted at 111½; The lowest quotation during the month—since Sept 27th—was 111½, Oct. 24th. The highest, 111½, Oct. 13th. The various stock markets have been very unsettled of late, and quotations widely fluctuating, only the markets for Governments remaining comparatively steady and firm.

For to-day's quotations in the various branches of the New York Stock Exchange, see page 23.

Important Seizure of $20 Counterfeit Plates, Presses, Paper and Inks.

On the 17th inst. the detectives of Col. Whitney's staff of the United States Secret Service Bureau, succeeded in capturing a trunk containing three counterfeit $20 plates, on the Oneida National Bank of Utica, and the Market and Shoe and Leather Banks of this city, together with a printing press, inks and a large quantity of paper. The large amount of counterfeit $20s on the above banks that have been put in circulation, and the number of dealers who have been victimized thereby, make this one of the most important seizures that has been effected.

Heavy Bank Robbery.

On the 25th inst., the First National Bank of Grafton, was robbed by a gang of burglars of a large amount of treasure and valuables, including over $100,000 in Government bonds. The whole amount taken is estimated at from $200,000 to $300,000. The robbers attacked, gagged, and bound the watchman, and fastened him in the coal hoal, threatening him with death if he made a noise. The bank offers a reward of $10,000 for the capture of the thieves and the recovery of the property. George F. Slocum, one of the directors offers an additional reward of $5,000.

Receipts and Expenditures of the Government during 1869 and 1870. Annual Report.

The following statements will appear in the forthcoming annual report of United States Treasurer Spincer:

Comparative statement of receipts in the fiscal years ending with June 30, 1869, and June 30, 1870:

There was received in 1870, in excess of the receipts of 1869, from loans as per statement, $37,955,070: from internal revenue, $26,797,292; from miscellaneous sources; $4,033,371; from the army, $1,117,757; from customs, $14,502,294. Total, $84,405,604.

There was received less in 1870 than in 1869: from direct taxes, $765,685; from the sale of public lands, $662,886; from the navy, $1,121,833; from the treasury, $1,601,379; from the interior, $193,603; total, $4,345,339; total excess of receipts in 1870 over 1869, $80,060,215; receipts in 1870, $704,803,045; receipts in 1869, $624,747,829.

Comparative statement of expenditures in the fiscal years ending with June 30, 1869, and June 30, 1870:

There was paid in 1870, in excess of the payments made in 1869, on the public debt, $135,898,005; for the navy, $553,469; for the Treasury and Interior, $447,665; for foreign intercourse, $392,253; on account of customs, $914,605. Total, $138,240,997.

There was expended less in 1870 than in 1869: On account of the internal revenue, $12,681,405; for the army, $19,060,142; for the Treasury Department, $4,015,809; for the Interior Department, $3,950,281; for quarterly salaries, $533,380. Total, $27,159,080. Total excess of payments in 1870 over 1869, $111,081,916. Expenditures in 1870, $710,985,914. Expenditures in 1869, $599,903,997.

Statement of increase and decrease of receipts and of expenditures by items, with the increased receipts of customs in gold reduced to currency, excluding only loans which comprise simply an exchange of United States notes from the one side and payments on the public debt, which are represented by a corresponding increase of the sinking fund, from the other side, for the fiscal years ending respectively with the 30th days of June, 1869 and 1870, which are contrasted with each other:

Increased receipts from internal revenue, $26,797,292; from miscellaneous sources, $4,033,371; from the War Department, $1,117,577; from customs in gold, $14,562,294; from premiums on the last, say 12½ per cent. $1,812,786: total, $48,263,321. Decreased expenditures on internal revenue, $126,815; on the army, $19,060,142; on the Treasury Department, $4,015,809; on the Interior Department, $3,995,981; on quarterly salaries, $5,333. Total, $27,159,080. Total of increased receipts and decreased expenditures, $75,412,402. Decreased receipts from direct taxes, $765,685; from sales of public lands, $662,886; from the Navy Department, $1,121,832; from the Treasury Department, $1,601,379; from the Interior Department, $193,603; total, $4,345,289. Increased expenditures:—For the navy, $553,469; for the Treasury and Interior, $447,665; for foreign intercourse, $379,253; for customs, $914,605; total, $3,422,994. Total of decreased receipts and increased expenditures, $6,688,382.

The comparison, or rather the contrast between the two last fiscal years then stands as follows:—Increased receipts, $48,263,321; decreased expenditures, $27,159,080. total, $75,422,402. Decreased receipts, $4,355,380; increased expenditures, $312,992; total, $6,608, 382, being a clear gain by larger collections and reduced expenditures of $68,734,020.

In order to give a clearer view to such persons as are not in the habit of thinking of money by millions of dollars of the great saving that has been made to the Treasury of the United States in the last fiscal year over the one preceding it, the statement is here made that, after deducting fifty-two Sundays and four legal holidays from the 365 days—leaving 309 executive days in the year—a saving of $68,734,020 were made; that the average saving on the working of the fiscal year, that closed with June 30, 1870, over those of the year preceding, was over $224,240 per day, being over $9,268 per hour, over $154 per minute, being more than equal to the extra dropping of $2.50 into the coffers of the Treasury in every second of time. These facts sufficiently explain how the administration, by thorough action and economical course, was enabled to purchase so large an amount of the stocks of the United States for a sinking fund.

The following is a statement of all moneys paid on the purchase of United States fifty-two stocks for the special fund and for the sinking fund in the fiscal year commencing with July 1, 1869, and ending with June 30, 1870, and which now constitutes a part of the sinking fund:—For coupon bonds, $75,093,900; for registered stocks, $39,644,200; for premium paid on same, $16,731,551; for accrued interest on the same, $1,425,153. Total, $132,894,814.

First National Bank of Springfield, Ills., to $150,000.

First National Bank, Washington, Iowa, to $50,000.

The Court of Appeals at its recent session decided a case of much general importance, being that of the Corn Exchange Insurance Company vs. Babcock. The action was brought on a note made by Edward Babcock of Troy, and indorsed by his wife substantially as follows: "For value received I make the payment of this note a charge upon my individual property. Arminia Babcock." Judge Ingalls, who tried the case as referee, gave judgment against Mrs. Babcock. This judgment the general term reversed: holding that the endorsement of Mrs. Babcock was not sufficient to charge her separate estate—that to do it should have specifically described the property and have been executed and recorded like a mortgage. The case was then taken to the Court of Appeals, and that Court has now reversed the general term decision, holding that a simple declaration by a married woman in the indorsement of latent to charge her separate estate is sufficient.

Counterfeiters.

The United States Courts have been doing a large business with the counterfeiters lately, quite a large number of them having been found guilty.

On the 20th inst., Alex's Nichols was found guilty of issuing counterfeit 50 cent fractional currency notes, and William Johnson and Michael Monahan of passing counterfeit money.

On the 21st James Fitzpatrick was found guilty of passing $20s on the Shoe and Leather Bank of this city. It appeared from the evidence that the prisoner had succeeded in passing a counterfeit $20 on Mr. J. B. Croft since, and not satisfied the first time, thought he would try it again; but Mr. Croft was too wide awake for him on the second trial, and had him arrested.

John Morton plead guilty to an attempt to pass counterfeits, and was remanded for sentence.

Michael O'Brien was brought up for attempting to pass two counterfeit $5s—advertising bills—on William Walker of the ship Orwell, in payment for some birds, but as Walker could not identify him he was discharged.

On the 24th inst. Peter McCloskey was found guilty of attempting to pass counterfeit $20s on Mr. Richard Jones, for carriage hire.

John Bowden was also found guilty of attempting to pass counterfeit money.

The Tax on Manufacturers' Sales.

Inquiry having been made at the Revenue Office at Washington whether manufacturers are entitled to deduct from the gross amount of their sales for the quarter ending September 30 the balance of legal deductions for the entire year, Commissioner Delano decides that inasmuch as the law imposing this tax is repealed, to take effect from the 1st of October, in making returns of the amount of manufacturers sales for the quarter ending September 30, in excess of the rates on $5,000 per annum, only a deduction of $1,250 from the gross amount of sales per quarter can be allowed.

Liquor Dealers' Tax.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue at Washington decides that a liquor dealers' tax for the first $25,000 of his sales is a special tax, and not a tax on sales, and that in making up that $25,000 he should include his sales of malt liquors and all other sales, except his sales of tobacco. He also decides that the tax on malt liquors, on and after October 1, 1870, was repealed by the act of July 14, 1870, and that in rendering their monthly returns of sales liquor dealers should hereafter be required to report only their sales of foreign and domestic distilled spirits and wine.

Counterfeit Tobacco Stamps.

The points of difference between the counterfeit and the genuine stamp are so marked as to be easily detected by the glass. They are as follows:

FIRST; The imprint in the counterfeit is badly engraved, and a trifle larger than the genuine. The words "Continental Bank Note Co., New York," in the genuine are small, distinct, and not connected, each letter standing separate, while in the counterfeit the letters are heavier, and more crowded, larger, and closer together, and in the word "Continental" the "l" joins the "n," making the "l" and "n" look like an "m," with a period at the end of the imprint in the counterfeit, which is omitted in the genuine.
 SECOND; In the sky of the counterfeit, over the mane of the horse, will be observed four small dots; in the genuine the sky is made of straight lines.
 THIRD; The ornamentations resembling small stars on each side of the vignette in the lathe work of the counterfeit look imperfect and blurred, while in the genuine they appear bright.
 FOURTH; Over the white faced figure "6" on the left side of the stamp in the genuine is a small black figure, a part of the lathe work pattern which is wanting in the counterfeit, and the imitation lathe work of the counterfeit has a muddy appearance, while in the genuine the patterns are clear and distinct.

GREENBACKS.

50s left centre, oval portrait of Hamilton; Treasury die in pink on right of die; 50 on die on each end of note.

COUNTERFEIT GREENBACKS.

1s, (1st kind) can be readily detected by the inferior style of the engraving, particularly the head of Chase. The mouth is crooked, the eyes imperfect, and the hair on the top of the head resembles side hair brushed over to cover baldness. The back is of a lighter green than the genuine.

1s, (2d kind) the general appearance is very coarse and may readily be detected; green ink is very pale. On the imitation there is a black strip of lathework under the red figures on the upper part of the bill; none in gon.

2s, imit., well executed. Coat of Hamilton badly done. The shirt bosom of Hamilton is very dark and uneven, but in the genuine white and plain. The shading of the words "UNITED STATES" light and broken.

5s, 10s, genuine notes without the red seal, and others reported without the usual number being printed upon them.

5s, imit., words "United States" heavily shaded. Gon. are clear, lightly shaded and plain. The words "Patented 20th June, 1857," under the words N. York are not on the counterfeit bill. All the counterfeits are letter A, and are 1/4 inch shorter than the genuine.

On the new series of letter "A," around the figure of Liberty on left end is a plain black line. On the counterfeits, this line along the bottom of the figure running towards the right of the note forms two distinct lines, on gen. only one. But this may be a counterfeiter's dodge to have it described and alter it afterwards.

5s, imit., this bill is well calculated to deceive, and the only difference we can detect is in the die on the right end enclosing the figure 5. The genuine has three black circles enclosing the 5. The imit. has only two, and on lower right end figure 8, and on left end series 90.

10s. Paper very light, and the green ink of a lighter shade. Dated March 10th, 1862.

10s imit. There are 16 small Xs on upper right margin, and only 15 on the genuine. The words "Printed by the National Bank Note Co." on lower left margin extends over 9 of the Xs on imit. and 8 on the genuine.

10s, imit., has 14 small x's on upper right margin—16 on left. The gen. has 15 x's each side of engravers name. Portrait of Pres. Lincoln is very coarse and pale looking; imit. are dated Washington, March 10, 1862, letter C.

50s, very close imit. of gen., the engraving is good, in the center figure the foot of the female can scarcely be seen. On the left end bottom are the words "Payable at the Treasury of the U. S. at New York." The A's in payable are too small and unoven. The letter 'x' in the word 'The' is not crossed in the centre. The imprint is defective; the green ink is of too light a color.

50s, alt'd from 2s, portrait of Hamilton on left centre. The vignettes of the two-dollar and fifty-dollar Treasury note are the same. Ingenious persons are counterfeiting the body of the fifties and using the vignettes of the twos, producing a note that deceives experts.

50s, imit. observe the figures 50 on back of the bill around the margin, the 5 in the imit. runs into the 0, gen. does not. The word 'FIFTY' around the above 50 can scarcely be read. Words 'LEGAL TENDER' is very much blurred. Letter C dated March 2, '63. On the left lower corner the No. 550 instead of 50 enclosed in one circle.

50s, imit. observe the head of Hamilton, upon the face of the note, which represents the line of the waistcoat crossing the white collar at the neck. The acute angle formed by the shape of the collar, so far as it is shown, is perfect in the counterfeit note; but in the genuine the lines of the flesh were drawn by the engraver across the point of the collar at its junction with the waistcoat, for the purpose of relieving the angle of the sharpness it would otherwise have exhibited. This difference is not readily observed unless the notes are perfectly clean. The other discrepancy is in the shape of the ornaments in the border on each end of the face of the bills, and in the whole border on the back. The figures "50" are engraved on a green ground, of which the rim, in the genuine bill, is in octagonal form, rather well defined, though the angles are not sharp. The eight sides of what at first view appeared to be circles, may be easily discerned. In the counterfeit bill the border ornaments, containing the "50" are octagonal in only a very slight degree, and seem to be perfect circles. The general appearance of the counterfeit gives no indication of its true character.

100s, imit. the red figures are much larger than the figures of any Treasury Notes, the wings of the eagle are very coarse—the double rule running from it is heavier, and the curve twice as large, while there is a diagonal shading at the joint of the imprint with the rule, which does not appear on the genuine. On the right end of the back of the bill, the 100 in the circles are inverted, thus, 001. In the genuine this inversion is on the left end. The imprint, American Bank Note Co., is very uneven, and too large.

100s, imit., (2d kind) of the notes issued under the act of February, 1862, well executed. The spurious note is smaller, and the coloring on the back is paler than on the genuine bill. The words "one hundred dollars" on the right hand side of the counterfeit are smaller than on the genuine note.

100s, imit., (3d kind) the note is smaller than the genuine, the spread eagle is very coarse, and the shading of UNITED STATES is badly done. The bill is calculated to deceive.

COUNTERFEIT COUPONS.

The following are the words on the coupons: "Acts of July 17 and August 5, 1861. The United States of America will pay to bearer fifteen dollars for six months' interest due 1st January, 1867, upon bond No. 736, for $500. L. E. Chittenden, Register United States Treasury."

FIVE CENT COIN COUNTERFEITS

Are in circulation. They may be distinguished from the genuine by the softness of the metal

COUNTERFEIT

FRACTIONAL CURRENCY.

Old Issue.

50s, imit., the portraits of Washington differs one from another; in the genuine they are all alike; the green color looks light and pale.

25s, imit., well executed. Look out.

2d Issue.

10s, imitation. All gen. on the top has the word "Depositories," the imitation reads "Depositorics."

50s, imit., have a pale slate color. The small barrels on lower right corner are very indistinct. The gen. have six barrels perfectly clear and plain. Three on lower row, two on next, and one on top. The counterfeit barrels are black, and gen. are white.

50s raised from 5s.

3d Issue.

50c. imit.: two kinds of the new long 50 cent currency. The imitation of one kind has DESIGNATED on upper right corner instead of DESIGNATED. The second kind has designated correctly spelt, but on the little American Shield, under the Eagle, there is a black line drawn across the upright bars of the Shield. Not so on the genuine.

25s, imit., are very pale and coarse. The letter C in cents on left end is smaller than the other letters, and too far off.

New Issue.

25, imitation. Above the words "Treasury Department," on the bottom of the bill in the genuine there is a fine notched line—the counterfeit's have a straight line.

Notice the shading of the "25" on the back of the note. The genuine is dark, while the counterfeits is very pale, and very little darker than the other green. The word "of" on the face of the genuine appears thus—"of"—on the counterfeit "of."

25s, imit., well executed, but may be detected by the absence of a period (.) after the word Treasurer under Spinner's name; the work is better than any we have previously seen and liable to deceive unless carefully examined.

25s, well executed; head of Chittenden; where it reads "Furnished only by the Assistant Treasurers" the Assistant is spelt "Assistata." In the genuine the shading of the letter "E" in "Five" is unbroken, while the counterfeit has a little notch in it.

50s, well executed. The engraving on the face of the note is excellent. The reverse is slightly blurred. The notes are an eighth of an inch narrower than the genuine.

50s, the "y" in "Colby's" name crosses a line of the coat in the genuine, but not in the counterfeit.

50s, the line of stars on counterfeit between the figures "50" at the top and bottom of the back of the note have white centres, while the entire stars on genuine are in green. The reading in black on the genuine note clear and distinct, while on the counterfeit the bronze is printed on the black, the words "FIFTY CENTS" being almost obliterated.

50s, well done. The last "e" in the signature of F. E. Spinner is omitted in some, and the (.) after print, on one end, and the d. after March 30.

50s. New and dangerous counterfeits of the last issue of the fifty cent fractional currency notes, which bear upon their face the head of Treasurer Spinner, have been detected by the Treasury Department. It can be detected by the absence of a period (.) after the word print on the right end, and also under the letter "d" in "March 30," on the left end. The paper is thicker than that of the genuine notes, and the general appearance is calculated to deceive unless closely inspected.

COUNTERFEIT 7.30 BONDS.

The seal is slightly larger than the genuine; the red ink with which it is stamped is a shade lighter, and the points projecting from the seal are blurred and a little longer than the genuine. The imprint at the bottom of the face of the bond is set different in the margin, there being more space given it than in the genuine. The borders of the coupon which are attached to the counterfeit bonds are larger, while the red figures are finer than in the genuine. The borders of the ornamental lathework are blurred and somewhat indifferently executed. The figures denoting the bond are slightly uneven, while the blue ink in which they are printed is a duller blue and lacks the metallic glossy appearance of the genuine.

20s, imit. The engraving good, but darker than the genuine. The woman's face, arms and neck in the engraving of the Battle of Lexington are black—in the genuine they are white; the clouds back of the soldier's heads are heavy and dark in the counterfeit—in the genuine they are scarcely to be seen. Well calculated to deceive.

A counterfeit coupon for three dollars, purporting to belong to a one hundred dollar 5.20 bond, has been received at the Treasury Department, which had been sent from Germany to New York, cashed here and forwarded to Washington for collection. The counterfeit is a lithograph, and when compared with the genuine coupon it could be easily detected by the most inexperienced persons; as the execution is rough and inartistic, the paper thin and common, and a trifle shorter than the genuine coupon. It assumes to belong to the 5.20s of 1862, fourth series, and bore the stamp of some German house on the back, but too indistinctly to be deciphered fully.

EXTRACT JUNIPER.

Dr. Guilmette, Physician and Chemist of forty years' experience, after many costly trials, has succeeded in producing a pure JUNIPERINE EXTRACT, warranted free from the deleterious oils usually found in foreign and domestic Gins, and which, by their action upon the fluids and tissues of the body, aggravate the disease, rather than effect a cure.

It is an infusion of the berries of the celebrated Italian Juniper in the best quality of Gin. The result is a PLEASANT STIMULATING, CHEMICALLY PURE, HEALTH GIVING PREPARATION, which has received the endorsement of eminent Physicians and Chemists, as well as the general public. A SAFE, SURE REMEDY FOR ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE KIDNEYS AND URINARY ORGANS IT HAS NO EQUAL. It entirely counteracts the ill effects produced by impure water. Try it and be convinced.
