SUBJECT: Translation and Distribution of Documents

TO : See Distribution

1. It is reported that some military government teams are engaged in the translation and subsequent distribution to the Japanese of various documents, including SCAPIN's, letters, summaries, studies, operational directives, memoranda, etc. This headquarters desires to study the extent of and necessity for such work with a view towards alleviating any unjustifiable burden on military government teams.

2. It is therefore desired that each military government team conduct a survey of all translations into Japanese, exclusive of press releases, during the month of December 1947. Results of the survey will be forwarded to this headquarters prior to 10 January 1948, showing, for each separate translation:

- a. Title or description of document translated.
- b. Extent of translation (complete or partial).
- c. Distribution made (including number of copies).
- d. Source of paper.
- e. Purpose of translation and distribution.
