CHAPTER IX—AGRICULTURAL MARKET-ING SERVICE (MARKETING AGREE-MENTS AND ORDERS; FRUITS, VEGE-TABLES, NUTS), DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

[Navel Orange Reg. 341]

PART 907—NAVEL ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

Limitation of Handling

This regulation fixes the quantity of California-Arizona Navel oranges that may be shipped to fresh market during the weekly regulation period Feb. 28-Mar. 6, 1975. It is issued pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and Marketing Order No. 907. The quantity of Navel oranges so fixed was arrived at after consideration of the total available supply of Navel oranges, the quantity currently available for market, the fresh market demand for Navel oranges, Navel orange prices, and the relationship of season average returns to the parity price for Navel oranges.

 \S 907.641 Navel Orange Regulation 341.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 907, as amended (7 CFR Part 907), regulating the handling of Navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Navel Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Navel oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) The need for this regulation to limit the respective quantities of Navel oranges that may be marketed from District 1, District 2, and District 3 during the ensuing week steps from the production and marketing situation confronting the Navel orange industry.

(i) The committee has submitted its recommendation with respect to the quantities of Navel oranges that should be marketed during the next succeeding week. Such recommendation, designed to provide equity of marketing opportunity to handlers in all districts, resulted from consideration of the factors enumerated in the order. The committee further reports that the fresh market demand for Navel oranges continues slower. Prices f.o.b. averaged $3.75 per carton on a reported sales volume of 1.110 carlots last week, compared with an average f.o.b. price of $3.69 per carton and sales of 1,366 carlots a week earlier. Track and rolling supplies at 627 cars were up 18 cars from last week.

(ii) Having considered the recommendation and information submitted by the committee, and other available information, the Secretary finds that the respective quantities of Navel oranges which may be handled should be fixed as hereinafter set forth.

(3) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this regulation until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this regulation is based became available and the time this regulation must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for Navel oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such Navel oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this regulation effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this regulation will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on February 25, 1975.

(b) Order. (1) The respective quantities of Navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period February 28, 1975, through March 6, 1975, are hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 1,218,000 cartons;

(ii) District 2: 182,000 cartons;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement."

(2) As used in this section, "handled," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order.

[Grapefruit Reg. 75, Amdt. 4; Tangerine Reg. 46, Amdt. 6]

PART 905—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, TANGERINES, AND TANGELOS GROWN IN FLORIDA

Limitation of Handling

Amendment 4 to Regulation 75 lowers the minimum diameter requirement applicable to domestic shipments of pink seedless grapefruit to 3 % inches on February 24, 1975. Amendment 6 to Regulation 46 lowers the minimum diameter requirement applicable to domestic shipments of tangerines to 2% inches on February 24, 1975. The specification of such lower minimum diameter requirements for Florida pink seedless grape-fruit and tangerines is necessary to satisfy the current and prospective demand for such fruit. The amended regulations recognize the size distribution of much of the pink seedless grapefruit and tangerines remaining for fresh shipment.

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 905, as amended (7 CFR Part 905), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, tangerines, and tangelos grown in Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the requirements applicable to grapefruit and tangerines, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) These amendments reflect the Department's appraisal of the current and prospective demand for fresh pink seedless grapefruit and tangerines by domestic market outlets. The less restrictive size requirement for pink seedless grapefruit is consistent with the remaining supply of and current and prospective demand for such grapefruit by fresh market outlets. Fresh shipments of Florida grapefruit for the season through February 16, 1975, totaled 16,748 carlots, and there were an estimated 10,252 carlots remaining for shipment. The lower minimum diameter requirement specified for shipments of tangerines is necessary to satisfy the demand for such fruit during the period of seasonally reduced supply. For the season through February 16, 1975, fresh shipments of Florida tangerines totaled 4,042 carlots and there were 58 carlots estimated to be remaining for fresh shipment.

(3) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rulemaking procedure, and postpone the effective date of these amendments until 30 days after publication thereof in the FED-ERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which these amendments are based became available and the time when these amendments must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; and these amendments lower requirements applicable to the handling of pink seedless grapefruit and tangerines grown Order. 1. In § 905.556 (Grapefruit Reg. 75; 39 FR 32976, 37186, 40745, 42899) the provisions of paragraph (b)(4) are amended to read as follows:

§ 905.556 Grapefruit Regulation 75.

(b) * * *

(4) Any seedless grapefruit, other than pink seedless grapefruit, grown in the production area, which are of a size smaller than 3½ inches in diameter, or any pink seedless grapefruit which are of a size smaller than 3½ inches in diameter, except that a tolerance for seedless grapefruit smaller than such minimum diameters shall be permitted as specified in § 51.761 of the United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit.

2. § 905.557 (Tangerine Reg. 46; 39 FR 32976; 37186, 40745, 41239, 42899, 44735) the provisions of paragraph (b) (2) are amended to read as follows:

§ 905.557 Tangerine Regulation 46.

(b) * * *

(2) Any tangerines, grown in the production area, which are of a size smaller than $2\%_{16}$ inches in diameter, except that a tolerance for tangerines smaller than such minimum diameter shall be permitted as specified in § 51.1818 of the United States Standards for Florida Tangerines.

(Secs. 1-19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; (7 U.S.C. 601-674))

[Grapefruit Reg. 15—Amdt. 2]

PART 944—FRUITS; IMPORT REGULATIONS

Limitation of Handling

This amendment lowers the minimum diameter requirement applicable to imported pink seedless grapefruit to $3\frac{1}{16}$ inches on February 24, 1975. The requirement is the same as that applicable to grapefruit produced in Florida and regulated pursuant to Marketing Order No. 905.

This amendment is consistent with section 8e of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674). This section requires that whenever specified commodities, including grapefruit, are regulated under a federal marketing order, imports of that commodity must meet the same or comparable requirements as those in effect for the domestically produced commodity. This regulation fixes the same size requirement on imported pink seedless grapefruit as is effective under Marketing Order No. 905, as amended (7 CFR Part 905), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, tangerines and tangelos grown in Florida.

Order. In § 944.111 (Grapefruit Regulation 15; 39 FR 33306, 37188) the provisions of paragraph (a) are amended to read as follows:

§ 944.111 Grapefruit Regulation 15.

(9) + + 1

(1) Seeded grapefruit shall grade at least U.S. No. 1 and be of a size not smaller than 3½6 inches in diameter except that a tolerance for seeded grapefruit smaller than such minimum size shall be permitted as specified in § 51.761 of the United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit;

(2) Seedless grapefruit shall grade at least Improved No. 2' ("Improved No. 2" shall mean grapefruit grading at least U.S. No. 2 and also meeting the requirements of the U.S. No. 1 grade as to shape (form) and color.); and

(3) Seedless grapefruit other than pink seedless grapefruit shall be of a size not smaller than 3% inches in diameter, and pink seedless grapefruit shall be of a size not smaller than 3% inches in diameter, except that a tolerance for seedless grapefruit smaller than such minimum sizes shall be permitted as specified in §51.761 of the United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit.

It is hereby found that it is impracticable, unnecessary and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rulemaking procedure, and postpone the effective time of this amendment beyond that hereinafter specified (5 U.S.C. 553) in that (a) the requirements of this amended import regulation are imposed pursuant to section 8e of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674), which makes such regulation mandatory: (b) this amendment fixes the same requirement for imports of pink seedless grapefruit as is applicable under amended Grapefruit Regulation 75 (§ 905.556) to the shipment of pink seedless grapefruit grown in Florida; and (c) this amendment lowers requirements for the importation of pink seedless grapefruit.

Dated: February 24, 1975, to become effective February 24, 1975.

Title 12—Banks and Banking CHAPTER V-FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK BOARD

SUBCHAPTER B-FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK SYSTEM

[No. 75-150]

PART 523-MEMBERS OF BANKS Liquidity Requirements

FEBRUARY 13, 1975.

The Federal Home Loan Bank Board considers it desirable to amend § 523.11 of the regulations for the Federal Home Loan Bank System (12 CFR 523.11) for the purposes of increasing the overall liquidity requirement of each Federal Home Loan Bank member from 5 percent to 51/2 percent of its liquidity base and of increasing each member's short-term liquidity requirement from 1 percent to 1½ percent of such base. Accordingly, the Federal Home Loan Bank Board hereby amends said § 523.11 by revising paragraph (a) thereof, to read as follows, effective April 1, 1975:

§ 523.11 Liquidity requirements.

(a) General. For each calendar month, each member, other than a mutual savings bank as to which there is in effect the election provided for in paragraph (e) of this section, shall maintain an average daily balance of liquid assets in an amount not less than 5½ percent of the average daily balance of the member's liquidity base during the preceding calendar month, except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (b) and (d) of this section. For each calendar month, each member, other than a mutual savings bank or an insurance company, shall maintain an average daily balance of short-term liquid assets in an amount not less than 11/2 percent of the average daily balance of the member's liquidity base during the preceding calendar month, except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (b) and (d) of this section.

Since members' recent reports to the Board show a substantial increase in cash flow, making funds more available for lending and for other purposes, the Board determines that it is prudent to increase members' liquidity requirements without the delay that would result if notice and public procedure were provided with respect to this amendment. Therefore, the Board hereby finds that notice and public procedure as to this amendment are impracticable and contrary to the public interest under the provisions of 12 CFR 508.11 and 5 U.S.C. 553(b).

(Sec. 5A, 47 Stat. 727, as added by sec. 1, 64 Stat. 256, as amended, sec. 17, 47 Stat. 736, as amended (12 U.S.C. 1425a, 1437). Reorg. Plan No. 3 of 1947, 12 FR 4981, 3 CFR, 1943-48, Comp., p. 1071).

PART 523-MEMBERS OF BANKS Definitions Relating to Liquidity

FEBRUARY 13, 1975.

The following summary of the amendments adopted by this resolution is provided for the reader's convenience and is subject to the full explanation in the following preamble and to the specific provisions of the regulation.

I. Regulations prior to present amendments. Obligations of the United States having a remaining period to maturity of not exceeding 7 years (also an exception of ½ of 1 percent of the liquidity base as to longer term obligations) may be counted as liquid assets. Both obligations of the United States and specified Federal agency obligations having a remaining period to maturity of not exceeding 18 months may be counted as short-term liquid assets.

II. Regulatory changes proposed in Board Resolution No. 74-1050, dated October 9, 1974 (39 FR 41263). (1) Reduce from 7 to 5 years the permissible maximum maturity of United States obligations which are includable as liquid as-

(2) Delete the ½ of 1 percent exception as to United States obligations having a remaining maturity exceeding 7 years: and

(3) Reduce from 18 to 12 months the permissible maximum maturity of United States and specified Federal agency obligations which are includable as short-term liquid assets.

A 6-month phase-in period was proposed as to these changes.

III. Final regulations. (1) Same as the proposed regulations, except that the phase-in period as to long term liquid ssets is changed from 6 to 24 months. The proposal's 6-month phase-in period as to short-term liquid assets is retained.

(2) Additional liberalizing changes permitting the following investments to be counted for liquidity purposes:

(a) Any liquid asset type investment which is subject to a repurchase agreement (prior to this resolution, the regulations as to repurchase agreements were applicable to only obligations of the United States, specified Federal agency obligations, time deposits and municipal obligations);

(b) Certain project notes of public housing authorities which are guaranteed by the United States (such project notes did not qualify under the regulations prior to this resolution because the notes are not "rated" in the market); and

(c) Non-negotiable certificates of deposit having a remaining period to maturity of not exceeding 90 days (the regulations prior to this resolution were applicable only to certain negotiable CDs and notice-type time deposits).

(3) Technical changes.(a) Delete obsolete language in definition of "liquid assets".

(b) Increase from $20,000 to $40,000 the amount specified in $523.10(g)(4)

(i) (b) (12 CFR 523.10(g) (4) (i) (b)) as to certificates of deposit and Federal funds.

IV. Reasons for changing the regulations. (1) Require that regulatory liquidity be invested in assets having minimum fluctuation in market value because of their short remaining maturities.

(2) Liberalize the laundry list of types of investments which can be counted for liquidity.

(3) Up-date the regulations, particularly as to the new statute increasing FDIC-insurance per account to $40,000.

By Resolution No. 74-1050, dated October 9, 1974, the Board proposed to amend Part 523 of the regulations for the Federal Home Loan Bank System (12 CFR Part 523) by revising certain portions of §§ 523.10 (g) and (h), relating to investments which qualify as liquid assets or as short-term liquid assets, for the principal purposes of (1) reducing from 7 to 5 years the permissible maturity of United States obligations which are includable as liquid assets, (2) deleting the general authority to include as liquid assets a certain amount of United States obligations having a maturity of more than 7 years, and (3) reducing from 18 to 12 months the permissible maturity of obligations of the United States, and agencies and instrumentalities thereof, which are includable as short-term liquid assets. The preamble in this proposal stated that the Board intended to delay the effective date of any final regulation regarding these matters for at least 6 months to reduce difficulties in complying with the changes. The Board also proposed to remove the obsolete distinction, presently in § 523.10(g), as to the definition of "liquid assets" before and after January 1, 1972.

Notice of such proposed rulemaking was duly published in the FEDERAL REG-ISTER on November 26, 1974 (39 FR 41263-41264), with an Invitation for interested persons to submit written comments by December 31, 1974. On the basis of its consideration of all relevant material presented by interested persons and otherwise available, the Board considers it desirable to amend certain portions of the regulations regarding liquidity. Accordingly, the Board hereby amends said Part 523 by (1) revising certain portions of §§ 523.10 (g) and (h) to read as set forth below and (2) adding a new § 523.10(1), immediately following § 523.10(h), to read as set forth below, effective April 1, 1975.

One type of change effected by this resolution concerns the remaining period to maturity of certain obligations of the United States and certain agencies of the United States which are counted as regulatory liquidity.

Prior to the changes effected as to "liquid assets" by this resolution, § 523.10 (g) (2) provided in substance that an unpledged obligation of the United States could be counted as a "liquid asset" if its remaining period to maturity did not exceed 7 years or if the obligation qualified under the regulatory exception providing that a member could include as liquid assets an amount equal to onehalf of one percent of the average daily balance of the member's liquidity base for the preceding calendar month obligations of the United States having a remaining period to maturity of more than 7 years. This resolution reduces from 7 to 5 years this remaining period to maturity and deletes the above one-half-of-onepercent exception. However, it is noted that although the proposal indicated that there would be a 6-month phase-in time, this resolution provides for a two-year phase-in time as to these changes (see new § 523.10(i)). This means that, beginning on April 1, 1975 all new purchases for liquidity purposes of obligations of the United States or certain agencies or instrumentalities thereof are restricted to such obligations having remaining maturities of not more than 5 years. Further, beginning on April 1, 1977, the regulatory requirement regarding the remaining period to maturity as to both obligations of the United States and obligations of certain agencies or instrumentalities of the United States will be the same, i.e. 5 years.

Prior to the changes effected as to "short-term liquid assets" by this resolution, § 523.10(h) (2) provided in substance that an unpledged obligation of the United States or of certain agencies of the United States could be counted as a "short-term liquid asset" if its remaining period to maturity did not exceed 18 months. This resolution reduces from 18 to 12 months this remaining period to maturity. The proposal indicated, and this resolution provides, for a six-month phase-in time as to this change (see new § 523.10(i)).

A second type of change effected by this resolution concerns the addition of several items to the laundry list of investments which qualify for regulatory liquidity. No such liberalizing changes were contained in the proposal. This resolution adds the following investments to the investments which may be counted for liquidity purposes: (a) Any asset which is subject to a repurchase agreement if the asset would be counted were there no loan and repurchase agreement as to the asset. This change applies at this time to Federal funds and bankers' acceptances. Other types of liquidity-qualified investments were covered prior to this resolution and this resolution makes no change as to such investments.

(b) Obligations issued by a public housing agency if the obligations have the full faith and credit of the United States pledged pursuant to sections 1421a(c) or 1437i(a) of Title 42 of the United States Code. These obligations are general obligations of a political subdivision of a State. However, such obligations did not qualify for liquidity prior to this resolution because the market does not "rate" securities guaranteed by the United States and general obligations of a State or a political subdi-vision thereof qualified for liquidity under the prior regulations only if the obligations were rated by a nationally recognized investment rating service in the four highest grades.

(c) Certain non-negotiable certificates of deposit having a remaining period to maturity of not exceeding 90 days. The regulations prior to this resolution permitted the counting for liquidity purposes of certain negotiable time deposits and certain time deposits which could be withdrawn only after giving not more than 90 days notice to withdraw.

The third type of change effected by this resolution concerns the following two technical matters:

(a) Prior to this resolution, § 523.10(g) contained a distinction as to the definition of "liquid assets" before and after January 1, 1972. The present amendments remove this distinction because the distinction is obsolete.

(b) Prior to this resolution, § 523.10(g) (4) (i) (b) contained the figure $20,000, relating to the maximum amount of a time deposit in the same bank, which was the statutory limit as to FDIC insurance of the same account in the same bank. Recent legislation increased from $20,000 to $40,000 the FDIC insurance limit. This chance conforms the regulations to the new statutory provision.

Section 523.10 (g) and (h) are amended and (i) is added as follows:

For the purposes of this section, §§ 523.11 and 523.12:

(g) The term "liquid assets" means the total of cash, accrued interest on unpledged assets which qualify as liquid assets under this paragraph, or would so qualify except for their maturities, and the book value of the following unpledged assets (including such assets held subject to a repurchase agreement):

(2) Except (1) as the Board may otherwise direct in a specific case or (ii) pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (i) of this section, obligations of the United States having a remaining period to maturity of not more than 5 years;

(3) Obligations issued, or fully guaranteed as to principal and interest, by the following agencies or instrumentalities of the United States and having a remaining period to maturity of not more than 5 years:

(4) Time deposits in an insured bank including loans of Federal funds to an insured bank which is a member of the Federal Reserve System, if:

(i) The total of all time deposits, including loans of Federal funds of the same member, in the same bank does not exceed the greater of (a) one-fourth of 1 percent of the total deposits of such bank (calculated on the basis of total deposits of such bank as shown by its last published statement of condition preceding the date each time deposit is made or acquired by a member), or (b) $40,000;

(iii) Except for loans of Federal funds, such deposits are (a) negotiable and have remaining periods to maturity of not more than 1 year, (b) not negotiable and have remaining periods to maturity of not more than 90 days, or (c) not withdrawable without notice and the notice periods do not exceed 90 days; and

(6) General obligations of any State, territory, or possession of the United States, or political subdivision of any of the foregoing, if:

(i) Such obligations are either (a) rated, at the time acquired by a member, in one of the four highest grades as shown by the most recently published rating made of such obligations by a nationally recognized investment rating service or (b) issued by a public housing agency and have the full faith and credit of the United States pledged pursuant to section 1421a(c) or section 1437i(a) of Title 42 of the United States Code, as amended; and

(h) The term "short-term liquid assets" means the total of cash, accrued interest on unpledged assets which qualify as liquid assets under paragraph (g) of this section, or would so qualify except for their maturities, and the book value of the following unpledged assets (including such assets held subject to a repurchase agreement):

(2) Obligations of the types specified in paragraphs (g) (2) and (g) (3) of this section either (i) having a remaining period to maturity of not more than 12 months or (ii) are qualified as short-term liquid assets under paragraph (i) of this section.

(3) Time deposits, including loans of Federal funds which qualify as liquid assets pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (g) (4) of this section and, except for such loans of Federal funds, are (i) negotiable and have remaining periods to maturity of not more than 6 months, (ii) not negotiable and have remaining periods to maturity of not more than 90 days or (iii) not withdrawable without notice and the notice periods do not exceed 90 days;

(4) Bankers' acceptances specified in paragraph (g) (5) of this section having a remaining period to maturity of not more than 6 months; and

(5) General obligations of the types specified in paragraph (g) (6) (i) (b) of this section having a remaining period to maturity of not more than 6 months.

(i) Before April 1, 1977, an invest-ment which is continuously held by a member and which is counted as a liquid asset at the close of business on March 31, 1975 continues to count as a liquid asset notwithstanding and without regard to the maximum remaining period to maturity specified in paragraph (g) of this section, Before October 1. 1975 an investment which is continuously held by a member and which is counted as a short-term liquid asset at the close of business on March 31, 1975 continues to count as a short-term liquid asset notwithstanding and without regard to the maximum remaining period to maturity specified in paragraph (h) of this section.

Title 13—Business Credit and Assistance
CHAPTER I—SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
[Rev. 13, Amdt. 1]

PART 121—SMALL BUSINESS SIZE STANDARDS REGULATION

Definition of Small Business Primarily Engaged in Ralsing Livestock; Disaster Financial Assistance

On April 25, 1974, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (39 FR 14615) a notice that the Small Business Administration proposed to establish a definition of a small business livestock producer for the purpose of obtaining a disaster loan under section 7(b) (4) of the Small Business Act. Such section provides for loans to persons who are engaged in the business of raising livestock (including but not limited to cattle, hogs, and poultry) and who suffer substantial economic injury as a result of animal disease. The proposal was that such a concern would be considered small if its annual receipts do not exceed $250,000.

Interested parties were given until May 10, 1974, to comment on the proposal.

On the basis of all information available, we have determined to adopt the proposal, subject, however, to a language change clarifying that the definition includes only producers of livestock for human consumption. Accordingly, Part 121 of Chapter I of Title 13 of the Code of Federal Regulations is hereby amended by adding new § 121.3–10(k) to read as follows:

§ 121.3-10 Definition of Small Business for SBA loans.

(k) Agricultural production (livestock). Any concern (except custom beef cattle feedlots) primarily engaged in raising livestock for human consumption such as cattle, hogs, sheep, goats, poultry of all kinds, and animal specialties such as horses, rabbits, bees, or fish in captivity, and which, as a result of animal disease, has suffered substantial economic injury due to its inability to market such livestock (or the product of such livestock) for human consumption, is classified as small for the purpose of receiving a disaster loan under section

7(b) (4) of the Small Business Act if its annual receipts do not exceed $250,000.

Effective date. February 27, 1975.

Dated: February 11, 1975.

CHAPTER V—REGIONAL ACTION
PLANNING COMMISSIONS
PART 570 PECIONAL EXCESS

PART 570—REGIONAL EXCESS PROPERTY PROGRAM

Administration Procedures

On December 16, 1974, there were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (36 FR 43534) regulations and procedures for the administration of the regional excess property program authorized to be carried out by the Federal Cochairmen of the Regional Action Planning Commissions established pursuant to title V of the Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965, as amended (42 U.S.C. 3182 et seq.).

The purpose of the regulations was to implement the provisions of section 514 of the Act so as to authorize the Federal Cochairmen to acquire and dispose of excess Federal property for the purpose of economic development.

The regulations apply only to those States or parts of States included within economic development regions established pursuant to title V of the Act.

Although the regulations were effective upon issuance on December 16, opportunity was afforded interested persons to comment by January 16, 1975. Section 570.8(b) as originally drafted authorized the Federal Cochairman and the regional commission property officer to screen excess property, but was not explicit on their authority to acquire such property. As a result of comments received, section 570.8(b) is revised to make clear that . the Federal Cochairman and the regional commission property officer are authorized to acquire excess property under this program through signing the requisite General Services Administration documents. A new section 570.8(c) is added to authorize persons, in addition to the Federal Cochairman and the regional commission property officer, to screen property. The former Paragraph 570.8(c) is redesignated 570.8(d).

The revised paragraphs are adopted, effective immediately, as set forth below.

§ 570.8 Procedures.

(b) Only the Federal Cochairman or the Regional Commission Property Officer will be authorized under this regulation to sign the Report of Excess Personal Property, Standard Form 120 and the Transfer Order, Excess Personal Property, Standard Form 122 for the Regional Commission.

A new paragraph 570.8(c) is added as follows:

(c) Only the following persons will be authorized to screen excess property for acquisition: the Federal Cochairman, the Regional Commission Property Officer. and such additional screening officers as may be designated by the Federal Cochairman and approved by the GSA.

The former paragraph 570.8(c) is redesignated 570.8(d).

Dated: February 11, 1975.

CHAPTER I—FEDERAL AVIATION ADMIN-ISTRATION, DEPARTMENT OF TRANS-PORTATION

[Docket No. 75-NW-5-AD; Amendment 39-21071

PART 39-AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES Certain Boeing Models

There have been several reports of broken and separated door mounted emergency escape slide latch release cables occurring on Boeing Model 727-200 series ariplanes that could result in ensuing inability to deploy escape slide and open emergency exit doors. Investigation revealed cause of cable failure attributed to corrosion. Since this condition is likely to exist or develop in other airplanes of the same type design, an airworthiness directive is being issued to require inspection and replacement of carbon steel cable assemblies in accordance with prescribed Boeing Service Bulletin instructions on all Boeing Model 727-200 series airplanes, and Boeing Model 727–100, Serial Numbers 18877, 18878, 18879, 19281 and 19279 only.

Since a situation exists that requires immediate adoption of this regulation, it is found that notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable and good cause exists for making this amendment effective in less than 30 days.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (31 FR 13697)

§ 39.13 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

BOHING. Applies to Boeing Model 727-200 series airplanes certificated in all categories, and Boeing Model 727-100, Serial Numbers 18877, 18878, 18879, 19281 and 19279 only. Compliance required as in-

To prevent escape slide latch cable failure and ensuing inability to open emergency exit and deploy escape slide, accomplish the following:

A. Within 25 hours time in service after effective date of this AD, unless already ac-complished, inspect door mounted escape slide latch cable at both entry and service doors (4 doors). If corrosion or breakage is found, replace prior to further flight with a carbon steel assembly of the same type design and reinspect at intervals not to exceed 500 hours time inservice, or replace with corrosion resistant assembly, per Boeing Alert Service Bulletin 727-25-223, or later FAA approved revisions, or replace in a manner approved by the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, FAA Northwest Region.

B. By September 1, 1975, unless already accomplished, replace carbon steel cable assembly with corrosion resistant assembly per Boeing Alert Service Bulletin 727-25-223, or later FAA approved revisions, or in a manner approved by the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, FAA Northwest Region.

The manufacturer's specifications and procedures identified and described in this directive are incorporated herein and made a part hereof pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552(a) (1)

All persons affected by this directive who have not already received these documents from the manufacturer may obtain copies upon request to Boeing Commercial Airplane Company, P.O. Box 3707, Seattle, Washington 98124. The documents may also be examined at FAA Northwest Region, 9010 East Marginal Way South, Seattle, Washington.

This amendment becomes effective March 25, 1975.

(Secs. 313(a), 601, and 603 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, and 1423) and of sec. 6(c) of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)))

Issued in Seattle, Washington on February 19, 1975.

C. B. WALK, Jr., Director, Northwest Region.

Note.—The incorporation by reference provisions in the document were approved by the Director of the Federal Register on June 19, 1967.

[Docket No. 75-CE-3-AD; Amdt. 39-2100]

PART 39-AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES King Radio Corporation Model KCS-55 Pictorial Navigation System

There has been a report of an incident in which a King Radio Corporation Model KCS-55 Pictorial Navigation System el KCS-55 Pictorial Mariganian malfunctioned during flight. Specifically, this malfunction caused the loss of heading reference. Loss of this heading information would require the pilot to depend on the standby compass for maintaining a heading and the turn and bank gyro along with a clock to make turns, thereby making it very difficult for him to navigate during IFR conditions. Since the condition described herein is likely to exist or develop in other pictorial navigation systems of the same design, an Airworthiness Directive (AD) is being issued requiring either appropriate placarding and operational limitations prohibiting the use of the King Model KCS-55 Pictorial Navigation System for primary heading or IFR flight, or in the alternative, replacement of the King Models KI 525 indicator and KG 102 gyroconfigurations on all King Model KCS-55 pictorial navigation systems with modifled units identified herein as Mod 1 and Mod 6 respectively.

Since these conditions may exist or develop on other aircraft of the same type design, expeditious adoption of this amendment is required in the interest of safety. Consequently, compliance with the notice and public procedure provi-sions of the Administrative Procedure Act is impracticable and good cause exists for making this amendment effective in less than thirty (30) days.

In consideration of the foregoing and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator 14 CFR 11.89 (31 FR 13697), § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended by adding the following new AD.

King Radio Corporation. Applies to Model KCS-55 Pictorial Navigation System (magnetic stabilized compass) units, specifically the Gyro Model KG-102 (), Part Number 060-0011-0, Serial Numbers 1000 to 1999 and all serial numbers preceded by the letter "P" and Indicator Models KI-525 (), Part Number 066-3029-00/01, Serial Numbers 1000 to 1999 and all serial numbers preceded by the letter "P". The Model KCS-55 systems may be installed on various types of air-

Compliance: Required as indicated, unless already accomplished.

A) Within the next 25 hours' time in service after the effective date of this AD, check the aircraft compass system installed or the aircraft permanent maintenance record to determine if the KCS-55 pictorial navigation system is installed on the aircraft.

B) If, as a result of determination required in Paragraph A of this AD, a KCS-55 pictorial navigation system is installed, check the indicator KI-525 () to determine if the serial number falls within those noted in the applicability statement and if the unit has been modified and identified as Mod 1. Also, check the KG 102 gyro and determine if the serial number falls within those noted in the applicability statement and that the unit has been modified and identified as Mod 6. If both units are so identified with the modification number, make an appropriate entry in the aircraft records indicating compliance with this AD.

C) If as a result of the determinations required by Paragraphs A and B of this AD unmodified KCS-55 Pictorial Navigation System units are installed, prior to further flight, install a placard on the instrument panel in clear view of the pilot which indicates:
"KCS-55 PICTORIAL NAVIGATION SYSTEM IS NOT TO BE USED FOR PRIMARY HEADING OR IFR FLIGHT IF IT IS SOLE GYROSCOPIC HEADING SOURCE" and operate the aircraft in accordance with this

D) On or before November 15, 1975, replace any KCS-55 pictorial navigation system units which fall within the Part Number and Serial Number designations set forth in the applicability statement with modified units which are identified in accordance with King Afert Service Bulletins KT 525-1 and KC 102-6 dated January 2, 1975, or subsequent revisions, as Mod 1 and Mod 6 respectively. When this paragraph has been complied with, Paragraph C of this AD is no longer applicable.

E) Any alternative means of compliance with this AD must be approved by the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, FAA, Central Region.

This amendment becomes effective February 28, 1975.

Reinstatement of the Regulations Pertaining to Diethylstilbestrol for Use in Cattle and Sheep

On January 24, 1974, the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit handed down its decisions holding that the action of the Food and Drug Administration in withdrawing approval of the new animal drug applications (NADA's) for diethylstilbestrol (DES) for use in feed and implants in cattle and sheep was invalid. Chemetron Corporation et al. v. United States Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, 495 F.2d 995 (D.C. Cir. 1974); Hess & Clark, Division of Rhodia, Inc. v. Food and Drug Administration, 495 F.2d 975 (D.C. Cir. 1974). These decisions have the effect of reinstating the regulations for such uses.

By an order published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of December 9, 1972 (37 FR 26307), the Commissioner revoked regulations pertaining to the use of DES in feeds pursuant to section 512(i) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 360b(1)).

An order revoking regulations for use of DES in implant form was published in the Federal Register of May 3, 1973 (38 FR 10926).

The purpose of this order is to publish the regulations which were reinstated by the court as they were prior to the December 9, 1972 and May 3, 1973 orders.

Therefore, pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 512(i), 82 Stat. 347; 21 U.S.C. 360(i)) and under authority delegated to the Commissioner (21 CFR 2.120), Chapter I of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended as follows:

2. Section 121.241 is reinstated to read as follows:

§ 121.241 Diethylstilbestrol.

Diethylstilbestrol (3, 4-bis (p-hydroxyphenyl)-3-hexene) may be safely used in feed for animals raised for food production when incorporated therein in accordance with the following conditions:

(a) Permitted uses of diethylstilbestrol alone and with certain other additives are described in tabular form in this section, and these tables are to be read as follows:

(1) The numbered line items establish the required limitations and indications for use of the principal ingredient as the additive alone, or with an additional ingredient added for increased effectiveness.

(2) The lettered line items establish the required limitations and indications for use of secondary ingredients that may be added to the indicated principal ingredient. Where principal and secondary ingredients have been mixed, the applicable limitations and indications for use from both the numbered items and lettered items apply. If duplicate limitations occur, these may be appropriately combined.

(3) Permitted combinations of principal ingredient and secondary ingredients are individually listed. Unless specifically provided for by the regulations, the principal ingredient may not be mixed with two or more secondary ingredients.

(4) Where cross-references specify a particular table and item number of another section, use of only the principal ingredient of the numbered item is authorized thereby.

(5) The term "principal ingredient" as used in this section refers to the additive named in the title of this section and is not intended to imply that the ingredient is of a greater value than any other additive named in this section.

(b) It is used or intended for use as follows:

(c) To assure safe use, the label and labeling of the additive, any combination of additives, and any feed additive supplement, feed additive concentrate, feed additive premix, or complete feed prepared therefrom shall contain, in addition to the other information required by the act, the following:

(1) The name of the additive or additives.

(2) A statement of the concentration or strength of the additive or additives contained therein.

(3) Adequate directions and warnings for use.

(d) No residue of the additive shall be present in any edible portion of such animal after slaughter or in any food yielded by or derived from the living animal as determined by methods of examination prescribed in this section.

(e) The method of examination prescribed for the quantitative determination of estrogenic activity is the method of E. J. Umberger, G. H. Gass, and J. M. Curtis published in Endocrinology, volume 63, page 806 (1958).

(f) The method of examination precribed for the qualitative identification of estrogenic activity as diethylstilbestrol is as follows:

(1) (i) Extract the diethylstilbestrol with alkali from a suitably prepared sample of fat dissolved in isooctane; or

(ii) Extract the diethylstilbestrol with ethyl alcohol from lean meat or liver, followed by hydrolysis of the alcohol extractive with dilute hydrochloric acid.

(2) Either of the solutions of diethylstilbestrol described in paragraph (f) (1) of this section is next extracted with chloroform, and the chloroform extract is washed with 10 percent sodium carbonate to remove strongly acidic substances

(3) The chloroform extractive of diethylstilbestrol is then extracted with 1 percent sodium hydroxide, and the resulting solution is acidified.

(4) The hormone is reextracted from the acidified solution with chloroform. If the solution is colored, the extraction procedures may be repeated.

(5) The chloroform is evaporated and the remaining residue is dissolved in a suitable volume of methyl alcohol for identification of the diethylstilbestrol, as follows:

(i) Impregnate Whatman No. 1 filter paper with a solution of 40 percent formamide in methyl alcohol, blot it lightly, and dry for 5 minutes.

(ii) Spot an aliquot of the methyl alcohol solution on the paper.

(iii) Similarly, spot an aliquot of a methyl alcohol solution of Reference Standard diethylstilbestrol for identification comparison.

(iv) Place the paper in a chromatographic tank and develop, using the continuous ascending technique, either with the solvent system heptane:toluene:: 1:4 for 2.5 hours, or the solvent system cyclohexene:cyclohenzanol::98:2 for 45 minutes.

(v) Remove the paper from the tank and, while still wet, irradiate it with ultraviolet light from a 15-watt germicidal lamp for 1 minute.

(vi) Observe fluorescence through a black-light viewing apparatus.

3. Section 121.251(d) is amended in Table 2 by reinstating subitem a. As revised Table 2 reads as follows:

PART 1914—AREAS ELIGIBLE FOR THE SALE OF INSURANCE

Status of Participating Communities

Section 1914.4 of Part 1914 of Subchapter B of Chapter X of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended by adding in alphabetical sequence a new entry to the table. In this entry, a complete chronology of effective dates appears for each listed community. Each date appearing in the fourth column of the table is followed by a designation which indicates whether the date signifies (1) the effective date of the authorization of the sale of flood insurance in the area under the emergency or under the regular flood insurance program; (2) the effective date on which the community became ineligible for the sale of flood insurance because of its failure to submit land use and control measures as required pursuant to § 1909.24(a); or (3) the effective date of a community's formal reinstatement in the program pursuant to § 1909.24(b). The entry reads as follows:

PART 1915—IDENTIFICATION OF SPECIAL HAZARD AREAS

Insurance Rate Map; Correction

On June 5, 1970, in 35 FR 8733, the Federal Insurance Administrator published a list of communities with Special Flood Hazard Areas and the map number and locations where Flood Hazard Boundary Maps and Flood Insurance Rate Maps were available for public inspection. This list included Hilo, Hawaii and vicinity, as an eligible community and included Map No. I 15 001 1900 05 through I 15 001 1900 09 which designates the Special Flood Hazard Areas and elevations and zones for flood insurance in the above mentioned city.

It has been determined by the Federal Insurance Administration, after a technical review of the above map in view of additional recently acquired flood information, that a revision of the above map is in order. Accordingly, effective January 16, 1975, Flood Insurance Rate Map No. I 15 001 1900 05 through I 15 001 1900 09 is hereby amended. This action has the effect of converting the original designations of Zones AO to Zone D. By changing the Zone designation of Zone AO to Zone D, flood insurance is optional for property within Zone

D, and, therefore, can be obtained if desired.

(National Flood Insurance Act of 1968 (Title XIII of Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968), effective January 28, 1969 (33 FR 17804, November 28, 1968), as amended, 42 U.S.C. 4001-4128; and Secretary's delegation of authority to Federal Insurance Administrator 34 FR 2680, February 27, 1969, as amended by 39 FR 2787, January 24, 1974)

Title 25—Indians CHAPTER I—BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS

PART 221—IRRIGATION OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE CHARGES

Basic and Other Water Charges on the Fort Hall Irrigation Project

These final regulations are issued under the authority delegated to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs by the Secretary of the Interior in 230 DM 1 and redelegated by the Commissioner to the Area Directors in 10 BIAM 3. The authority to issue regulations is vested in the Secretary of the Interior by sections 161, 463, and 465 of the Revised Statutes (5 U.S.C. 301; 25 U.S.C. 2 and 9).

Beginning on page 787 of the FEDERAL REGISTER of January 3, 1975 (40 FR 2), there was published a notice of intention to modify 25 CFR 221.32 by changing the basic rates for annual operation and maintenance assessments on the Fort Hall Project for calendar year 1975 and subsequent years.

Interested persons were given 30 days in which to submit written comments, suggestions, or objections regarding the proposed regulations. During this period one protest was received from the Fort Hall Water Users Association and answered after due consideration. It was determined that sufficient justification exists for modifying the rate for basic and other water charges on the Fort Hall Irrigation Project. The proposed regulations are hereby adopted without change and are set forth below.

The modified § 221.32 shall become effective on March 31, 1975.

§ 221.32 Basic and other water charges.

(a) In compliance with the provisions of the Acts of March 1, 1907, (34 Stat. 1024), and August 31, 1954 (68 Stat. 1026), the annual basic water charges for the operation and maintenance of the lands in non-Indian ownership and Indian-owned lands leased to a non-Indian or a non-member of the Shoshone-Bannock Tribe of the Fort Hall Indian Reservation, Idaho, to which water can be delivered for irrigation are hereby fixed for the calendar year 1975 and subsequent years until further notice as follows:

Basic rate________15.50
Additional rate for sprinkler irrigation when pressure is supplied by the project______5.00
(3) Minor units, Fort Hall Resewa-

(b) In addition to the foregoing charges, there shall be collected a minimum charge of $5 for the first acre or fraction thereof on each tract of land for which operation and maintenance bills are prepared. The minimum bill issued for any area will, therefore, be the basic rate per acre plus $5.

Francis Briscoe, Area Director.

PART 223—SURETY COMPANIES DOING BUSINESS WITH THE UNITED STATES

Corrections

In the Federal Register of February 12, 1975, at page 6498, there was published a rule making document which amended 31 CFR Part 223, governing surety companies doing business with the United States. Several editorial corrections must, however, be made to those amendments for purposes of clarity and exactness.

1. In § 223.1 delete the comma after the word "insurers", in the last line of the section, and insert a comma after the word "of", in the last line of the section.

2. In § 223.3 the hyphenated word "certifi-lcate", in the second and third lines from the bottom of the section, is misspelled and should have the "i" either before or after the hyphen deleted.

3. In § 223.16 the paragraph beginning with "Prior to adoption . . ." and ending with ". . . been requested and approved." should be deleted.

§ 518.1 Purpose.

This part 518 prescribes policies and procedures for releasing outside of the Department of the Army information contained in Army records.

§ 518.2 Explanation of term "records".

(a) For the purpose of this part 518, the following explanation of "record" is taken from 44 U.S.C. 3301 (formerly 44 U.S.C. 366)

* * all books, papers, maps, photographs, or other documentary materials, regardless of physical form or characteristics, made or received by an agency of the United States Government under Federal Law or in connection with the transaction of public business and preserved or appropriate for preservation by that agency or its legitimate successor as evidence of the organization, functions, policies, decisions, procedures, operations, or other activities of the Government or because of the informal value of data in them.

(b) The term "records" does not include objects or articles such as structures, furniture, paintings, sculptures, three-dimensional models, vehicles, and equipment.

§ 518.3 General policies.

(a) Department of the Army policy is that the prompt maximum release will be made of Army records. Access to and copies of identifiable Army records which are requested in writing will be furnished, unless exempted from the requirement of disclosure by 5 U.S.C. 552 (the Freedom of Information Act) as described in § 518.14.

(1) Any reasonably segregable portion of a requested record will be furnished after deletion of the portions which are exempted from disclosure, for example, deletion of names or identity to preserve personal privacy, deletion or removal of properly classified portions, or deletion/ exclusion of information from a non-Army agency (e.g., FBI data).

(2) Unless otherwise directed by the Initial Denial Authority (IDA) concerned, the action command or office receiving a request will release any exempted records in its possession, or reasonably available, which originated within or were prepared by that command or office, or any subordinate element thereof (other than records containing national security information or information whose nondisclosure is required by statute), if no legitimate purpose exists for withholding it.

(3) The Initial Denial Authorities will release exempted records and documents in their designated specialization areas (§ 518.9), other than national security information or information whose nondisclosure is required by statute, if no legitimate purpose exists for withholding it.

(4) No official other than those cited in (a) (2) and (3) of this section and the Secretary of the Army may release exempted information.

(5) No official other than the IDA and the Secretary of the Army may deny a request for Army records.

(b) All requests for records will be acted upon fairly and completely within the following time periods, as specified in 5 U.S.C. 552(a) (6):

(1) The action command or office must respond to any request within 10 days (excepting Saturdays, Sundays, and legal public holidays) after it has been received by the office having the records, notifying the requester in writing of its determination. (See § 518.7 for a list of officials in the Department of the Army to whom requests for specified categories of records must be directed.) That office will date/time-stamp each request upon receipt. The action command or office will establish such other procedures as required to assure that each case receives priority treatment during all phases of its processing.

(2) If the request is totally or partially denied by an IDA, the requester will be notified of the basis for the denial, the name and titles or positions of each person responsible for the denial of his request, and of his right to appeal to the Secretary of the Army (see § 518.10). (Normally the person responsible for denial will be the IDA, that is, the head of the staff agency or command specified

(3) The Department of the Army must respond to any appeal within 20 days (excepting Saturdays, Sundays, and legal public holidays) after its receipt by the Office of the Secretary of the Army. If the initial denial of the request is upheld, in whole or in part, the requester will be notified of the provisions for judicial review of the denial under 5 U.S.C. 522(a) (6).

(4) In unusual circumstances, as set forth below, the time limits in either (b) (1) or (3) of this section may be extended by not more than an additional 10 working days by written notice to the requester (see 518.8). This notice must be sent within the time limits in (b) (1) or (3) of this section and will specify the reason for the extension and the date on which a determination is expected to be dispatched. The extension may be invoked only once during consideration of a request, either during the initial consideration period or during consideration of an appeal, but not both. Extension of the time limit during the initial consideration period may be invoked only by the responsible IDA, after coordination with the Army General Counsel. The unusual circumstances are:

(i) When there is a need to search for and collect the requested records from offices that are widely separated from the office processing the request; or,

(ii) When there is a need to search for, collect, and appropriately examine a voluminous amount of separate and distinct records demanded in a single request; or,

(iii) When there is a need for consultation with another agency having a substantial interest in the determination of the request, or among two or more widely separated elements of the Department of the Army having substantial subject matter interest.

(c) The fact that a record from Army files may reveal or suggest errors or inefficiency will not be a basis for withholding it from the public.

(d) Whenever it appears that possible public/press interest may be generated as a result of any release or denial action, appeal or court review, Freedom of Information Act cases will be discussed with the Chief of Information or field command/organization Information Officer to insure public affairs awareness of the issues to obtain advice and recommendations concerning such matters and their impact upon the Army. Point of contact for the Chief of Information is the Office for the Freedom of Information, DAIO-FOI, AUTOVON 22-74122 or Area Code 202, 697-4122.

(e) Records releasable by commands subordinate to HQDA may also be released by the HQDA agency primarily concerned.

§ 518.4 Scope.

This regulation applies to written requests received from any source outside the Department of the Army. It does not preclude release of records to agencies or individuals in the Federal Government whose official work and duties require access to the records concerned. Section 518.11 provides specific procedures for release of personal information to governmental organizations outside DOD. Except for information falling within the scope of 21 U.S.C. 1175 and 42 U.S.C. 4582 (see Cir. 600-85), requests for Army records will be denied only on the grounds authorized in this regulation, The Armed Services Procurement Regulation, and the Federal Personnel Manual, notwithstanding any limitations contained in other regulations. § 518.5 Requests for Army records.

(a) A request for Army records will be deemed to have been received, under the Freedom of Information Act, only if such a request:

(1) Indicates in writing, expressly or implicitly, that records are being requested under the Freedom of Information Act, and

(2) Reasonably describes the records, and

(3) Is made in accordance with requirements of this regulation, concerning the time, place to address, fees, and procedures to be followed. (See Appendix B for list of officials to whom requests for specified categories of records must be directed. See § 518.8 with regard to the requirement that a requester pay, or agree to pay, in advance, all fees assessed, incident to processing of his

(b) There is no obligation to create a record to satisfy a request for informa-tion. When the information requested must be released but exists in the form of several records at several locations, the applicant will be referred to those sources if gathering the information would be so burdensome as to interfere materially with the operations of the Army.

(c) If the requested record originated outside the Department of the Army, the request will be returned to the requester, advising him to send it to the appropriate agency, if he desires, and providing him with the name or title, address, and other appropriate information regarding such agency. An information copy of the request and the letter of referral will be forwarded promptly to the agency that may expect the request. A person who requests a copy of material primarily concerning a member of Congress or a Congressional Committee, or a copy of a transcript of testimony given before a Congressional Committee, will be advised to direct his request to the member or committee concerned.

§ 518.6 Examination and reproduction of records.

(a) Authority to release records includes authority to permit their examination. When authority to examine records is granted, the examination normally will be permitted at the place where the papers are maintained or stored, during regular business hours, and under such circumstances and procedures as are deemed appropriate by the custodian.

(b) Original and record copies of Army records will not be released. Copies will be furnished instead. A charge will be imposed in accordance with 518.19 for conducting a search and preparing copies of records. This charge may be imposed even where the search has been unsuccessful or unproductive.

§ 518.7 Use of expeditious communications.

The time limits imposed by 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(6) (see § 518.3) require that all personnel involved in processing a request from the public for records handle the case without delay. The use of telephone, priority message, facsimile transmission, or other expeditious means of communication is authorized for this purpose.

§ 518.8 Responsibilities of officials receiving initial requests.

(a) If a request has been misdirected by the requester, the following actions, as appropriate, will be taken as quickly as possible within the mandatory time limits:

(1) If the request is of proper concern to another Army element, it will be marked conspicuously on the forwarding envelope FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST and hand-carried or forwarded to that element by the most expeditious means. A notice of the referral will be furnished the requester. If feasible advance information concerning the request will be telephoned to the element receiving the referral. Upon receipt, that element will notify the requester that his request has been received by the proper authority and the 10-day initial period required by law commenced on date of receipt.

(2) If the request is of proper concern of an agency outside the Army, it will be returned to the requester, advising him to refer it to the appropriate agency if he desires; and providing him with the name or title, address, and other appropriate information regarding such agency. An information copy of the request and the letter of referral will be forwarded promptly to the agency that may expect the request.

(3) If the information requested is a combination of Army material and one or more identifiable sources other than Army, the Army portions will be reviewed and acted upon; if practicable, the other portions will be referred to the originatting agencies. Within the time limits imposed, the requester will be provided with releasable Army information, if any, and advised where to obtain release of the non-Army material.

(b) When a request is received by the proper official to whom such category of requests must be directed (see § 518.17), that official will commence processing the request, in accordance with this regulation and take one of the following ac-

(1) Unless the request specifically states that the requester will pay whatever cost is involved in processing the request, the official will estimate the total amount of fees expected to be assessed for processing the request (see § 518.19), and, if such estimate is $10.00 or more, will promptly notify the requester, in writing, of the estimate. Such notification will advise the requester that he must submit payment in advance to cover the amount of the estimate; that the time limit specified in § 518.3 will not begin to run until payment is received; and that should the final amount of fees assessed at the completion of the processing of his request be greater or less than the estimate, an additional fee will be assessed or reimbursement made, as appropriate; or

(2) If the request specifically states that the requesters will pay whatever cost is involved in processing the request, or if the total amount of fees expected to be assessed for processing the request (see § 519.19) is less than $10.00, the official will immediately commence processing of the request in accordance with this regulation.

(c) If a request conforms with the requirements of § 518.5, the action command or office receiving the request will, within 10 working days after receipt of the request, notify the requester in writing of favorable action on his request

- (1) The requested record does not fall under one or more exemptions in § 518.14; or or office, or any subordinate element thereof is in its possession or reasonably available, and no legitimate purpose exists for withholding it, even though such record may fall within one or more exemptions in § 518.14 (other than records containing national security information or information whose nondisclosure is required by statute). Favorable action may consist of forwarding a copy of the requested record if the provisions of § 518.19 authorize release without fees or if payment of fees has already been made: or forwarding a notice of the availability of the record and the amount of fees due, upon receipt of which, the documents will be furnished promptly. (This notification will be made within the 10 working day period even if preparing the requested record for examination or dispatch will require a period of time longer than ten working days. In such case, the notification will include the date on which the requested record is expected to be ready for examination or dispatch. Such notification will serve to satisfy the requirement for a determination within 10 working days, and no extension of the time limit will be neces-

(d) If in the judgment of the reviewing official, the request involves a record which falls under one or more of the exemptions cited in § 518.14, and that official either is not authorized to release the record, or determines that a legitimate purpose exists for withholding it.

he will:

(1) At the earliest possible moment, telephone or otherwise promptly notify the responsible IDA specified in § 518.9 to alert him of an impending referral of the request, and to discuss the case and mutual arrangements to expedite action, e.g., to assure availability to the IDA of copies of the requested docu-ments, the means of transmitting the case, and related matters.

(2) Mark the forwarding envelope FREEDOM OF INFORMATION RE-QUEST conspicuously, and forward the request to the IDA immediately, providing a citation of the appropriate exemption and stating the reasons release is or is not recommended. He will include copies of the requested documents if deemed necessary during telephonic coordination of the case. He will also include his opinion whether a legitimate purpose exists for withholding the Information.

(3) Advise the requester in writing within 5 working days, that his request has been forwarded to a higher authority for action and direct reply. The name or title and address of both the forwarding and the highre official will be provided so that the requester may communicate with either party. This notification will neither state nor imply release or denial, as denial decisions will be made and communicated solely by the IDA.

(e) If a request conforms with the requirements of § 518.5, but the requested record is not available, the requester will be notified within 10 working days after (2) The requested record originated receipt of the request. If there is an within or was prepared by such command explanation for the records, nonavailability, e.g., destroyed pursuant to approved records disposition standards or not located after thorough search, this information will be included in the reply. In all cases of negative replies of this nature, an information copy of the request and reply will be forwarded promptly to HQDA (DAAG-AMR), WASH DC 20314.

(f) If a request conforms with the requirements of § 518.5, but the official receiving the request estimates that it will require more than 10 working days to arrive at a determination regarding the request, he will, in addition to commencing processing of the request, immediately contact the responsible IDA who, after consultation with the Army General Counsel, may authorize the official to invoke the 10 working day extension period or direct other appropriate action.

(g) All Freedom of Information Act requests from representatives of the press or other mass communications media will be directed to the appropriate command/ organization information officer. Information officers receiving requests for records and documents will coordinate with appropriate officials, in accordance with guidances provided in this Part 518. to determine releasability of the information. In the event the documents requested fall under one or more of the exemptions, direct communication will be established with the Chief of Information, Public Information Division, AUTO-VON 22-75662 or Area Code 202, 697-5662 for referral of the request to appropriate TDA.

§ 518.9 Initial denial authorities (IDA).

(c) Exceptions. (1) IDA may release excepted records described in § 518.14(b) through (i) in accordance with § 518.3, unless nondisclosure is required by statute. Material exempted under § 518.14 may not be released under this paragraph, but must be declassified before release in accordance with the provisions of Department of Defense Regulation 5200.1-R and AR 380-5.

(2) Denial or approval by IDAs of the release of exempted records in response to requests from mass communications media representatives will be forwarded to the Chief of Information (DAIO-PID) for transmittal to the requester within statutory time limits.

§ 518.10 Responsibilities of IDA.

(a) Referral from other elements of DA. Where a request has been referred to an IDA under provisions of $518.8, he will:

(1) Immediately determine whether the request should be granted or denied, in whole or in part, accomplishing coordination, as necessary, on a personal contact basis. In arriving at this determination, he will apply the following guidance:

 Any reasonably segregable portion of a requested record will be furnished after deletion of the portions which are exempted from disclosure; and

(ii) Any exempted record or reasonably segregable portion thereof (other than portions containing national secutity information, information whose nondisclosure is required by statute, or information relating to matters in litigation), will be released if no legitimate purpose exists for withholding it.

(2) If the determination is favorable, the IDA will notify the requester in the manner described in § 518.8. Such notification must be made within 10 working days after receipt of the request by the official to whom it was properly directed. In those cases when the IDA is able to make a decision without the documents, the custodian will be directed to release the documents promptly to the requester.

(3) If the decision is unfavorable, in whole or in part, the IDA will:

(1) So advise the requester in writing within the same 10-day time period (see (a) (2) of this section), furnishing the reason for the denial, with reference to appropriate exemption set forth in § 518.14, citing the specific subparagraph of 5 USC 522(b); providing the name and title or position of the denial authority; and informing him of his right to appeal directly to the Secretary of the Army (ATTN: General Counsel).

(ii) Forward an advance information copy of the request and the denial to the Office of the General Counsel, Office of the Secretary of the Army.

(iii) Maintain, or be able to obtain and provide to the General Counsel within 48 hours, all pertinent material including copies of the requested documents.

(iv) Assist the Army General Counsel during his processing of any appeal from the denial.

- (b) Initial requests. When a request is received initially by an IDA who is the official to whom requests for such records must be directed (see § 518.17), he will process the request in accordance with the procedures in §§ 518.8 and 518.10 above.
- (c) Time limitations on responses. As indicated in § 518.3 above, the Freedom of Information Act imposes strict time limits on responses to requests. In acting upon requests, the IDA will apply the following procedures, as appropriate.

(1) During initial telephone coordination with elements receiving the request, the IDA will:

(i) Obtain all information concerning the request necessary to begin an immediate review from sources available to him, if possible, while awaiting referral.

(ii) Otherwise, will insure that documents are forwarded with the request by the fastest possible means.

(2) During review, he will insure that the case is handled on the highest priority basis, with an action officer effecting coordination on a personal contact, hand-carry basis.

- (3) The IDA may invoke the extension period only in circumstances specified in the statute (§ 518.3 (4) above) and only where an extension is deemed essential. The Army General Counsel will be consulted before invoking the extension period. When invoked, the minimum number of days will be used since every day of the extension expended during the initial review will be unavailable to the final appellate authority.
- (4) In those cases when a determination cannot be made within the prescribed time limit, or where a record cannot be found, the IDA may:

(i) Contact the requester by telephone or other expeditious means,

(ii) Explain to him why the request cannot be handled within the statutory time limit, and

- (iii) Inform him that he may treat this as an initial denial with a right to appeal, or that he may agree to await a substantive response by an anticipated date. If a voluntary extension is agreed upon, it will be formally documented by the IDA in written correspondence. The IDA must advise the requester, both during any informal oral discussions and in writing, that the further extension is entirely voluntary, that his agreement constitutes a waiver of the statutory time period, and that it does not prejudice his right to appeal the initial decision after it is made.
- (d) Denial based on national defense or foreign policy. Records denied in the interests of national defense or foreign policy (5 U.S.C. 552(b) (1)) must in fact be properly classified. The letter of denial will consequently cite the specific provision of Executive Order 11652 and DOD Regulation 5200.1–R relied upon as authority for classification of the records.

§ 518.11 Release of records to specified members of the public.

Even though the following records are exempt from disclosure to the general public, they will be released on request to the individuals specified below, within the mandatory time limits prescribed in § 518.3.

In the event he has been adjudged insane or is dead, the records are the proper and direct concern of the next of kin or patient's legal representative and will be released to the patient's next of kin or patient's legal representative on written request. - (1) The Department of the Army is required by statute to provide certain information relating to the service of an individual (statement of military service) to that individual or his legal representative. (Sec 601 of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended; 50 U.S.C. App. 581.)
- (2) Papers relating to applications for designation of beneficiaries under and allotments in payment of premiums of National Service Life Insurance or Servicemen's Group Life Insurance are the proper and direct concern of the applicant insured, and will be released to him. - (3) Copies of Army documents recording the death of a member of the military service, a dependent, or a civilian employee will be released to his next of kin, his life insurance carrier, and his legal representative. Civilian personnel officers having custody of papers relating to the pay and allowances or allotments of current or former civilian employees will release them to the individual to whom they pertain, his authorized representative, and, in the case of deceased employees, the next of kin or legal representative. Authority to release civilian personnel records does not include authority to release statements of witnesses, medical records, or other reports or documents pertaining to compensation for injuries or death of an Army civilian employee (para 1-4, Chapter 339, Federal Personnel Manual). Such information will be released only by appropriate officials designated in $ 518.9.

§ 518.12 Release to Congress.

(a) Congressional requests. Requests by members of Congress (or staffs of Congressional committees) for inspection or copies of official records will be handled as follows:

(1) National security classified rec-Applicable provisions of DOD 5200.1-R and AR 380-5 will be followed.

§ 518.13 Litigation, tort claims and contract disputes.

Release of information or records under this paragraph is subject to the time limitations prescribed in § 518.3 and to the requirements to advise the requester of the reasons for non-release or referral. (a) Litigation. (1) Each request for a record which relates to pending litigation involving the United States will be referred to the staff judge advocate or legal officer of the command who, in turn, will promptly communicate the substance of the request and contents of the record requested to the Litigation Division, Office of the Judge Advocate General.

suant to Chapter 2, AR 27-40.

(3) A request for information or records normally exempted, e.g., personnel and medical records, for use in litigation to which the United States is not a party, may be releasable to the judge or court concerned. If the request concerns an incident in which a claim is pending but in which a larger potential claim exists that has not yet been filed, the authority with monetary jurisdiction over the potential claim will receive the request.

(2) If no administrative tort claim has been filed, and the request is made by a potential claimant or his attorney under circumstances clearly indicating that he desires to obtain a record for use in connection with the filing of such a claim, the request will be referred to the authority named in (b) (1) of this section. That authority, when subordinate, will mation will be furnished promptly by in turn, communicate promptly the substance of the request and the contents of the record to Chief, US Army Claims Service, Fort George G. Meade, MD 20755 (AUTOVON 923-7860; commercial: area code 301-677-7860).

(3) IDA officials listed in § 518.9 (1) through (11) who receive such requests will refer them directly to Chief, US Army Claims Service, and will advise requester of the referral and the basis for it.

(4) The Chief, US Army Claims Service will process the request in accordance with this regulation and paragraph 1-6, AR 27-20.

(c) Contract disputes. Each request for a record which relates to a potential contract dispute or a dispute that has not reached "final decision" by the contracting officer shall be treated as a request for "procurement records" and not as "litigation", except that the officials listed in §§ 518.8, 518.9 and 518.11 shall consider the impact of release upon the potential dispute procedures and may consult with The Judge Advocate General, TTN: JAAJ-CAD, Nassif Building, 5611 Columbia Pike, Falls Church, VA 22041, AUTOVON 289-2460 or area code 202-756-2460. § 518.14 Exemptions.

The following categories of records are exempt under 5 U.S.C. 552(b) from mandatory release:

(a) Those properly classified in the interests of national security pursuant to DOD 5200.1-R and AR 380-5 (5 USC 552(b)(1)).

(b) Those containing rules, regula-tions, orders, manuals, directives, and instructions which provide only internal guidance to DOD personnel (5 USC 522(b)(2)). Examples are:

(1) Operating rules, guidelines, and manuals for investigators, inspectors, auditors, and examiners; and schedules or methods involved.

(2) Negotiating and bargaining techniques, positions, and limitations.

(3) Personnel and other administrative matters, such as examination questions and answers used in training courses or in the determination of the qualification of candidates for employment, entrance to duty, advancement, or promotion.

(c) Those containing information which statutes authorize or require to be withheld from the public (5 U.S.C.

552(b) (3)). Examples are:

(1) Trade and financial information provided in confidence by business (18 U.S.C. 1905).

(2) Technical data, including such data regarding munitions (50 U.S.C. 2023 and 22 U.S.C. 1934). (3) National Security Agency information (50 U.S.C. 402).

(4) Information relating to inventions which are the subject of patent applications on which patent Secrecy Orders have been issued (35 U.S.C. 181-188).

(5) Records of drug abuse/patients

(21 U.S.C. 1175, 42 U.S.C. 4582). (d) Those containing trade secrets or commercial or financial information which was received with the understanding that it will be retained on a privileged or confidential basis in accordance with customary handling of such records (5 U.S.C. 552 (b) (4)). Such records include those which contain:

(1) Information customarily considered privileged or confidential under the rules of evidence in Federal courts, such as information coming within the doctor-patient, lawyer-client, and priest-penitent privileges.

(2) Commercial or financial information received in confidence in connection with loans, bids, contracts, or proposals, as well as other information received in confidence or privileged, such as trade secrets, inventions and discoveries, or other proprietary data.

(3) Statistical data and commercial or financial information concerning contract performance, income, profits, losses and expenditures, if offered and received in confidence from a contractor or potential contractor.

(4) Personal statements given in the course of inspections, investigations, or audits, where such statements are received in confidence from the individual and retained in confidence because they cover trade secrets or commercial or financial information normally considered confidential or privileged, or because they are essential to an effective inspection or audit and could not otherwise be obtained.

(e) Except as provided in paragraph (e) (2) through (5) below, internal communications within and among agencies and commands (5 U.S.C. 552(b) (5)).

(1) Examples include:

(1) Staff papers containing staff advice, opinions, or suggestions.

(ii) Information received or generated by a command or office preliminary to a decision or action, including draft versions of documents, where premature disclosure would interfere with the authorized purpose for which the records were created.

(iii) Advice, suggestions, or reports prepared on behalf of the Army by boards, committees, councils, groups, panels, conferences, commissions, task commissions, task forces, or other similar groups that are formed by a command or office to obtain advice and recommendations, or by individual consultants.

(iv) Those portions of Army evaluations of contractors and their products which contain recommendations or advice by government employees about the contractor or product.

(v) Advance information on such matters as proposed plans to procure, lease, or otherwise acquire and dispose of materials, real estate, facilities, or functions when such information would provide undue or unfair competitive advantage to private personal interests.

(vi) Records which are exchanged among command or office personnel or within and among the military services, commands, or offices preparing for anticipated legal proceedings before any federal, state or military court or before any regulatory body.

(vii) Reports of inspections, legal opinions, audits, investigations, or surveys which pertain to safety, security, or the internal management, administration, or operation of the Department of the Army or one of its commands or offices.

(2) If any such intra- or inter-agency record, or reasonable segregable portion of such record would routinely be made available through the discovery process (the process by which litigants obtain information relevant to a case prior to a trial or hearing) in the course of litigation with the agency, then it should not be withheld from the general public. If, however, the information would only be made available through the discovery process by special order of the court based on the particular needs of a litigant balanced against the interests of the Army in maintaining its confiden-tiality, then the record or document should not be made available to a member of the general public.

(3) Factual records or segregable portions of intra- or inter-agency memorandums or letters are routinely made available through discovery, and should, therefore, be made available to a requester unless the factual material is otherwise exempt from release under $ 518.14.

(4) A direction or order from a superior to a subordinate, though contained in an internal communication, is generally not withholdable from a requester if it constitutes policy guidance or a decision, as distinguished from a discussion of prelminary matters that would compromise the decision-making process

(5) An internal communication concerning an event or decision which has subsequently been made a matter of public record, or was among officers or employees (or members of the armed forces) who no longer are actively employed by the Department of Defense or its components, should normally be made available to a requester, unless it is determined that because of special circumstances release would prejudice the current decision-making process.

(f) Information in personnel, medical, and similar files which, if disclosed to a member of the public, would result in a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy (5 U.S.C. 552(b) (6)). (When the sole and exclusive basis for withholding information from an individual is the protection of his own personal privacy, the information will not be withheld from him or from his designated legal representative. The requester may be required to furnish reasonable and appropriate identification.)

(1) Examples of files similar to medical and personnel files are those:

(i) Compiled to evaluate or adjudicate the suitability of candidates for civilian employment and the eligibility of civilian, military, or industrial individuals for security clearances.

(ii) Containing reports, records, and other material pertaining to individual cases in which administrative action may be taken.

(2) In determining whether the release of information would result in a clearly unwarranted invasion of privacy, consideration should be given in cases involving alleged misconduct, to the relationship of the alleged misconduct to an individual's official duties, the amount of time which has passed since the alledged misconduct, and the degree to which the individual's privacy has already been invaded by any investigation or proceedings which have taken place. For example, after completion of appellate review, unclassified records of court-martial proceedings should always be made available, since they represent a record of proceedings open to the public in which the relevant conduct of the member has been fully explored. (Records of court-martial proceedings may be made available at an earlier stage if to do so, in the judgment of The Judge Advocate General, would not adversely affect the appellate process.)

(3) Requests for access to, or release of, records of court-martial proceedings of general courts-martial or special courts-martial involving a bad conduct discharge, prior to completion of appellate review, should be processed in accordance with § 518.17.

(4) This guidance does not preclude the furnishing of records of trial to an accused.

(g) Investigatory files compiled for the purpose of enforcing civil, criminal, or military law (5 U.S.C. 552(b)(7)), including Executive Orders or regulations validly adopted pursuant to law, but only to the extent that release of such records would:

(1) Interfere with enforcement proceedings;

(2) Deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication;

(3) Constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy (subject to limitation set forth in § 518.14 above);

(4) Disclose the identity of a confidential source;

(5) Disclose confidential information furnished by a confidential source, but only in the instance of records compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation;

(6) Disclose nonroutine investigative techniques and procedures, or

(7) Endanger the life or physical safety of law enforcement personnel. This exemption includes statements of witnesses and other material based on the information developed during the course of the investigation and all materials prepared in connection with related Government litigation and adjudicative proceedings, to the extent such materials fall within one or more of the categories described above. The term "national security" as used above, includes military security, national defense, and foreign amount of fees collected during the prepolicy. The term "intelligence" as used above, includes positive intelligencegathering activities, counter-intelligence activities, and background security investigations by Government units which have authority to conduct such functions. Any rights conferred by existing law or regulation upon specified persons or classes of persons to obtain access to investigatory records are not hereby diminished.

(h) Records contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of any agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions (5 U.S.C. 552(b)(8)).

(i) Documents containing geological and geophysical information and data (including maps) concerning wells (5 U.S.C. 552(b)(9)).

§ 518.15 Annual reporting requirements.

(a) 5 U.S..C 552(d) requires that each agency will submit to the Congress on or before 1 March annually, a report covering the preceding calendar year's actions under the Act. The Adjutant General is responsible for compilation and submission of the report (Reports Control Symbol DD-PA (A) 1635). The Adjutant General will forward the report through the Chief of Staff, US Army, for transmittal to the Secretary of the Army not later than 20 January of each calendar year. An information copy of the report will be furnished to the Chief of Public Information and the General Counsel.

(b) The Initial Denial Authorities will submit feeder information covering the preceding calendar year to The Adjutant General, ATTN: DAAG-AMR, on or before 10 January annually as follows:

(1) An entry for each denial indicating in columnar form, the source of the request, the subject of the request, the basis for denial expressed by appropriate exemption number under 5 U.S.C. 552, and the name and title (or position) of the official responsible for the denial. Normally, the official responsible for denial will be the IDA, i.e., the commander or head of agency specified in 518.9.

(2) A copy of all internal rules or issuances made by the IDA regarding 5

U.S.C. 552.

(3) Data on costs to administer the FOIA.

(4) Any other information indicating efforts to faithfully administer 5 U.S.C. 552.

(c) The Army General Counsel will provide The Adjutant General on or before 10 January annually, data for the preceding calendar year on the number of appeals made as the results of denials, the result of such appeals, the reason for the action on each appeal that resulted in maintenance of the denial, and the name and title (or position) of the official responsible for the maintenance of the denial.

(d) The Comptroller of the Army will provide The Adjutant General on or before 10 January annually, the total ceding calendar year under FOIA.

Title 33—Navigation and Navigable Waters

CHAPTER II—CORPS OF ENGINEERS, DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY

PART 207-NAVIGATION REGULATIONS

St. Marys Falls Canal and Locks, Michigan

Pursuant to the provisions of section 7 of the River and Harbor Act of August 8, 1917 (40 Stat. 266; 33 U.S.C. 1) § 207.440 governing the use, administration and navigation of the St. Marys Falls Canal and Locks is hereby amended with respect to paragraph (v) to permit transit of vessels of a length up to 767 feet through the MacArthur Lock for the period from date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER through April 5, 1975.

Section 207.440(v) provides for a limit on the size vessels that will be permitted to transit the MacArthur Lock chamber. and also specifies the type deck equipment required on certain transiting vessels as follows:

(v) The maximum overall dimensions of vessels that will be permitted to transit Mac-

Arthur Lock are 730 feet in length and 75 feet in width. Further, any vessel of greater length than 660 feet must be equipped with deck winches adequate to safely control the vessel in the lock under all conditions including that of power failure.

For a number of years the Department of the Army, acting through the Chief of Engineers has worked as the lead agency with other Federal agencies, state agencies, industry organizations and others in conducting an Extended Navigation Season Demonstration Program on the Great Lakes. A major element of Corps of Engineers participation has been to provide for lockage through the St. Marys Falls Locks during a period extending beyond the normal navigation season which is from 1 April to mid-December. Due to improved fleet operation techniques, increased structural stability of vessels and favorable weather, it has been possible to sail without interruption to date this winter.

A private fleet of eight vessels has been dedicated to continue operations throughout the winter provided the Government will continue to provide passage through the locks at the St. Marys Falls Canal. Two of the ships involved in the program are 767 ft. long and six others are less than 730 ft. long.

In the past this fleet has been accommodated at the Poc Lock chamber which is presently authorized to transit vessels up to 1,000 ft. in length. The Poc Lock must be closed for repairs from March 1, 1975 through April 6, 1975 to assure that it will be in condition for full operation during the spring through fall months. The only other lock in the St. Marys Falls complex capable of handling ships of the necessary draft is the MacArthur Lock whose chamber is 80 ft. wide by 870 ft. long measured from the upper gate to the lower downstream gate. However, the above cited 33 CFR 207.440(v), restricts the maximum size vessel in the MacArthur chamber to 730 ft. in length.

Maintenance of a channel through the ice is dependent in large measure on the number of vessels plying the channel and the vessel horsepower. As traffic declines, maintenance becomes progressively more difficult. The number of low horsepower vessels that can move is directly correlated to the number of high horsepower vessels available to lead the traffic. In the eight vessel dedicated fleet only the two 767 ft. vessels are of suffi-cient horsepower to lead the traffic, so that it becomes essential to the continuation of the Demonstration Program that special arrangements be made to transit the 767 ft. vessels through the MacArthur chamber.

Since this amendment is only for a limited duration and is necessary to permit uninterrupted operation of the St. Marys Falls Canal Lock, notice of proposed rulemaking and public procedures thereto are considered unnecessary and impractical. Accordingly, the Department of the Army, acting through the Corps of Engineers is publishing the following amendment to 33 CFR 297.440.

Section 207.440 is amended by revising paragraph (v).

§ 207.440 St. Marys Falls Canal and Locks, Michigan; use, administration, and navigation.

(v) The maximum overall dimensions of vessels that will be permitted to transit MacArthur Lock are 730 feet in length and 75 feet in width; provided, however, that subject to a final decision by the Lock Master, vessels having an overall length up to a maximum of 767 feet will be permitted to transit the MacArthur Lock during the period 22 February 1975 through 5 April 1975 using special procedures to be posted at the lock. Further, any vessel of greater length than 660 feet must be equipped with deck winches adequate to safely control the vessel in the lock under all conditions including that of power failure.

Title 35-Panama Canal CHAPTER I—CANAL ZONE REGULATIONS SHIPPING AND NAVIGATION

vision of Navigation Regulations: Engine-Revolution and Rudder-Angle In-Revision dicators, Side Wall Transits, Advance Radio Information

This document revises three Parts of Title 35 dealing with navigation in the Panama Canal and other waters of the Canal Zone.

The Panama Canal Company has found that, over the years, a contributing cause of many marine accidents and incidents nearly resulting in accidents in the Canal has been the failure of vessels to have properly operating engine-revolution and rudder-angle indicators so located as to be readily visible to pilots. The problem is most serious with regard to vessels with beams in excess of 80 feet, which pilots must necessarily conn during the critical portions of the transit from the wings of the bridge. Many of these large ships have indicators only in the wheelhouse. This revision will require all vessels over 150 feet in length to have the aforementioned indicators installed in the wheelhouse and vessels over 80 feet in beam to have them installed both in wheelhouse and on each bridge wing.

Current regulations permit small vessels of up to 125 feet in length to be handled through the Canal Locks with their own lines instead of towing locomotive cables. Experience has shown that some towboats of up to 150 feet in length are of sufficiently heavy construction and fendering to permit this same method of handling. This revision would thus allow such vessels to be handled in the locks with their own lines.

Vessels approaching the Panama Canal are required to report by radio, among other things, their estimated draft upon arrival. To insure that these reports are uniform, this revision would specify that the draft figures reported be for Tropical Fresh Water.

The text of the amendments is set forth below.

PART 103—GENERAL PROVISIONS GOVERNING VESSELS

1. In Part 103, § 103.10 is revised to read as follows:

§ 103.10 Engine-revolution and rudder angle indicators.

(a) All vessels in excess of 150 feet in length shall be equipped with properly operating rudder-angle and engine-revolution indicators in the wheelhouse so located and illuminated as to be readily visible to a pilot.

(b) All vessels with beams in excess of 80 feet shall be equipped with properly operating rudder-angle and enginerevolution indicators in the wheelhouse and on each bridge wing so located and illuminated as to be readily visible to a pilot.

PART 109—ENTERING AND PREPARING TO ENTER THE LOCKS

AUTHORITY: Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552), as amended, 88 Stat. 1561.

§ 603.100 Purpose and scope.

The purpose of the provisions of this Part is to provide procedures to implement the Freedom of Information Act, Title 5, United States Code, section 552, as amended November 21, 1974 (Pub. L. 93-502).

§ 603.101 Information policy.

Section 552 of Title 5, United States Code, as amended November 21, 1974, by Pub. L. 93-502 requires that upon re quest therefor, made in accordance with published rules and procedures, reasonably described agency records be promptly made available. Subsection (b) of section 552 exempts several categories of records from the general requirements but does not require the withholding from inspection or copying of all records which may fall within the categories exempted. Accordingly, no request to inspect or for copies of a record shall be denied unless the Deputy Administrator shall determine (a) that the record falls within one or more of the categories exempted and (b) either that disclosure is prohibited by statute or Executive Order or that sound ground exists which requires the invocation of the exemption.

§ 603.102 Procedure for obtaining information.

(a) All persons or organizations requesting any record of the Administration (or in the custody thereof) shall submit such request in writing to the Deputy Administrator, American Revolution Bicentennial Administration, 2401 E Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20276.

(b) All such requests shall be clearly and prominently marked, both on the envelope and on the face of the request, with the legend "Freedom of Information Request."

(c) If a request does not comply with the provisions of the preceding subparagraphs, it shall not be deemed received by the Administration until the time it is actually received by the Deputy Administrator. On receipt by the Deputy Administrator of an improperly marked or addressed request, the requestor shall be notified of the date on which the time period set forth in 5 U.S.C. 552(a) 6(A) (i) commenced to run.

§ 603.103 Processing requests.

(a) The Deputy Administrator shall respond promptly to all requests to examine or for copies of records which are submitted in accordance with this regulation.

(b) A request that is expected to involve assessed fees in excess of $25.00 will not be deemed to have been received until the requestor is advised of the anticipated cost and agrees to bear it.

(c) A determination by the Deputy Administrator shall be made within 10 days (expecting Saturdays, Sundays and legal public holidays) after receipt of any such request whether to comply with such request and he shall immediately notify the person making such request of such determination and the reasons therefor, and the right of such person to appeal to the Administrator of the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration any adverse determination.

(d) Whenever any request to examine or for a copy of any record is denied by the Deputy Administrator in whole or in part, an appeal may be filed with the Administrator within 30 days (excepting Saturdays, Sundays and legal public holidays) after the requestor receives notification that the request has been denied.

(e) Appeals shall be in writing and shall be clearly and prominently marked both on the envelope and on the face of the appeal "Freedom of Information Appeal." On receipt by the Administrator of an improperly marked or addressed appeal, the appellant shall be notified of the date on which the time period set forth in 5 U.S.C. 552(a)6(A) (ii) commenced to run.

(f) A determination by the Administrator with respect to any appeal shall be made within 20 days (excepting Saturdays, Sundays and legal public holidays) after receipt of such appeal. If on appeal, the denial of the request for records is in whole or in part upheld, the Administrator shall notify the person making such request of the provisions for judicial review of that determination pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act.

(g) In unusual circumstances as specified herein, the time limit prescribed in § 603.103 (c) and (f) may be extended by written notice to the person making a request setting forth the reasons for such extension and the date on which a determination is expected to be dispatched. While more than one extension can be invoked, no such notice shall specify a date that would result in an extension for more than 10 working days in the aggregate.

(h) As used herein, "unusual circumstances" means, but only to the extent reasonably necessary to the proper processing of a particular request-

(1) The need to search for and collect the requested records from field facilities or other establishments that are separate from the office processing the request:

(2) The need to search for, collect, and appropriately examine a voluminous amount of separate and distinct records which are demanded in a single request;

(3) The need for consultation, which should be conducted with all practicable speed, with another agency having a substantial interest in the determination of the request, or among two or more com-ponents of the Administration having substantial subject-matter interest therein.

§ 603.104 Publication of current indices.

The American Revolution Bicentennial Administration has determined that periodic publication in the FEDERAL REG-ISTER of current indexes of any matter issued, adopted or promulgated after 1967 would be unnecessary and impractical due to the limited function and duration of the ARBA which terminates on June 30, 1977, or on the date of a final report to Congress, whichever is sooner.

Title 40 Protection of Environment CHAPTER I—ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY SUBCHAPTER B-GRANTS

[FRL 339-1]

PART 35-STATE AND LOCAL ASSISTANCE

Amendment to Final Construction Grant Regulations

The Environmental Protection Agency hereby amends regulations published February 11, 1974 (39 FR 5252), as amended, for the program of construction grants for waste treatment works to include an additional allotment of sums previously withheld from allotment, in compliance with the decision of the U.S. Supreme Court in Russell E. Train vs. City of New York, No. 73-1377, February 18, 1975. In that case, the court affirmed a lower court decision requiring the allotment of certain sums which were authorized for construction grants but which had been withheld pursuant to Presidential directive. The withheld sums amounted to $3 billion for each of the Fiscal Years 1973, 1974 and 1975.

By amendments published February 5, 1975 (40 FR 5363), the Environmental Protection Agency made an allotment of $4 billion from withheld sums. This amount represented a substantial portion of sums withheld from Fiscal Year 1973 and 1974 allotments. The amend-to a total of $9 billion, which represents all sums previously withheld from allotments for Fiscal Years 1973, 1974 and 1975. Thus, all $18 billion authorized by section 207 of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, as amended, has been allotted among the States on the basis of the allotment formulae applicable to the authorized sums.

Sections 35.910-3 and 35.910-4 of the regulations, as amended, set forth the basis for and amounts of construction grant sums allotted among the States for Fiscal Years 1973, 1974 and 1975. The amendment below adds a $ 35.910-5 setting forth similar information concerning the $9 billion herein allotted.

Two-thirds of the funds hereby allotted represent sums which were withheld from previous allotments for Fiscal Years 1973 and 1974. Therefore, these funds—$6 billion—are allotted on the basis of Table III of House Public Works Committee Print No. 92-50, which was used as the basis for the Fiscal Year 1973 and 1974 allotments. The remaining one-third of the funds hereby allotted represent sums which were withheld from the allotment for Fiscal Year 1975. Therefore, these funds-$3 billion—are allotted on the basis of the requirements of Pub. L. 93-243 (that is, based 50 percent on the ratios of Table I and 50 percent on the ratios of Table II of House Public Works Committee Print No. 92-28), which was used as the basis for the Fiscal Year 1975 allotments, adjusted to reflect differences arising from the application of the statutory formula to the total authorized $7 billion. (Such adjustments were required only for North Dakota and South Dakota).

The sums hereby allotted are available for obligation immediately and will remain available to each State through September 30, 1977, in order to make them available for approximately the same period of time originally contemplated by the statute. The cut-off date of September 30, 1977, was chosen in order to rationalize the reallotment requirements of the regulations with the end of the fiscal year newly established by title V of the Congressional Budget and Impoundment Control Act of 1974 (Pub. L. 93-344). Funds remaining unobligated at the end of this allotment period will be reallotted by the Administrator pursuant to § 35.910-2 of the regulations. Projects initially funded from this additional allotment will be subject to requirements for study of alternative waste management techniques and application of best practicable waste treatment technology and, as appropriate, provision for reclamation or recycling, consistent with the intent of section 201 (g) (2).

This amendment also reflects the fact that no reallotment of Fiscal Year 1973 funds was necessary after June 30, 1974. inasmuch as each State fully exhausted its Fiscal Year 1973 allotment on or before that date.

Effective date. This amendment shall be effective on February 27, 1975, in order ments below revise the latest allotment to comply with the order of Judge Oliver Gasch of the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, affirmed by the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit and the U.S. Supreme Court, that certain previously pounded" sums of construction grant funds be immediately allotted.

Dated: February 24, 1975.

RUSSELL E. TRAIN, Administrator.

Part 35 is amended as follows:

§ 35.910 [Amended]

Paragraph (d) of § 35.910-3, which was added by amendment dated February 5. 1975 (40 FR 5363), continues in effect, and reads as follows:

(d) No reallotment of sums allotted for Fiscal Year 1973 was made after June 30, 1974, inasmuch as each State had fully exhausted its Fiscal Year 1973 allotment on or before June 30, 1974, in accordance with section 205(b) of the Act.

§ 35.910-5, which was added by amendment dated February 5, 1975 (40 FR 5363), is amended to read as follows:

§ 35.910-5 Additional allotments of previously withheld sums.

(a) Effective immediately, a total sum of $9 billion is allotted from sums authorized, but initially unallotted, Fiscal Years 1973, 1974 and 1975, This additional allotment shall be available for obligation through September 30, 1977, before reallotment of unobligated sums pursuant to $ 35.910-2.

(b) Two-thirds of the sum hereby allotted ($6 billion) represents the initially umallotted portion of the amounts au-thorized for Fiscal Years 1973 and 1974. Therefore, the portion of the additional allotments derived from this sum were computed by applying the percentages set forth in § 35.910-36b) to the total sums authorized for Fiscal Years 1973 and 1974 ($11 billion) and subtracting the previously allotted sums, set forth in § 35.910-

3(c)

(c) One-third of the sum hereby allotted ($3 billion) represents the initially unallotted portion of the amounts authorized for Fiscal Year 1975. Therefore, the portion of the additional allotments derived from this sum were computed in a three-step process: first, by applying the percentages set forth in § 35.910-4(b) to the total sums authorized for Fiscal Year 1975 ($7 billion); then, by making adjustments necessary to assure that no State's allotment of such sums fell below its Fiscal Year 1972 allotment, pursuant to Pub. L. 93-243; and, finally, by subtracting the previously allotted sums set forth in § 35.910-4(c).

(d) Based upon the computations set forth in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, the total additional sums hereby allotted to the States are as follows:

In such case, a public hearing will be held, and notice of the time, place, and date will be published in a subsequent issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER, unless the person or persons who have requested a hearing withdraw their requests for a hearing before notice of the hearing has been filed with the Office of the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in section 7805 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (68A Stat. 917; 26 U.S.C. 7805).

This document contains proposed amendments to conform the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 1) to section 904(f) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by section 502(b) (2) of the Revenue Act of 1971 (85 Stat. 549), relating to the separate limitation on the foreign tax credit in the case of certain dividends received from a DISC or former DISC. The amendments apply for taxable years ending after December 31, 1971.

Section 901(d) of the Code, as amended by section 502(b) (1) of the Act, provides that dividends from a DISC or former DISC (section 904(f) dividends) are treated as dividends from a foreign corporation for purposes of the foreign tax credit to the extent that the dividends are treated as income from foreign sources under the source rules of sections .861 to 863 of the Code. Sections 861(a) (2) (D) and 862(a) (2) provide that such dividends are from foreign sources to the extent they are attributable to certain qualified export receipts described in section 993(a) (1). The general impact of these amendments is to permit a shareholder of a DISC or former DISC a foreign tax credit for the foreign income taxes paid, accrued, or deemed to be paid under section 902 of the Code, by the shareholder with respect to such divi-

Section 904(f) (1) provided that, in determining the limitation upon such credit under section 904, the limitation is to be determined separately with respect to such dividends and separately with respect to other income. Section 904(f) (3) provides that the overall limitation under section 904(a) (2) is not to apply with respect to the dividends, and section 904(f) (5) provides that the percountry limitation under section 904(a) (1) is to be applied to the aggregate of all such dividends from a DISC or former DISC. Section 1.902-4 of the Income Tax Regulations now provides that a DISC or former DISC shall not be treated as a less developed country corporation for purposes of section 902. Thus, the dividends here involved are required to be grossed up under section 78 of the Code.

An analysis of the statutory changes reveals that the same substantive result as was intended can be accomplished more simply by determining the separate limitation on these dividends in the same manner as the overall limitation under section 904(a) (2). In this way the separate limitation will be applied to the aggregate of the dividends from sources without the United States without going through the charade of treating the aggregate of the dividends and the applicable gross-up under section 78 as being derived from a fictional foreign country and the foreign income taxes as being paid or deemed paid to a fictional foreign country. Accordingly, the proposed amendments included in this document are modeled generally after the Income Tax Regulations under § 1.904-4 relating to section 904(f) interest, except for necessary changes required because of determining the separate limitation on the section 904(f) dividends in the same manner as the overall limitation.

The proposed amendments provide a definition of the types of income included as section 904(f) dividends, general rules for the carryback and carryforward of unused foreign tax with respect to section 904(f) dividends, and examples illustrating the application of the principles of the new provisions. It is also made clear that any carryback under section 904(d) of any unused foreign tax with respect to such dividends may not be carried to a taxable year ending on or before December 31, 1971. A number of technical amendments are also made in § 1.904-4, relating to separate limitation on section 904(f) interest. Also, a technical amendment of § 1.902-3 is provided in order to correct an inadvertent deletion made by T.D. 7294, as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER for November 30, 1973 (38 FR 33073).

In view of the foregoing considerations, the Income Tax Regulations are hereby amended as set forth below.

[SEAL] DONALD C. ALEXANDER, Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

PART 1—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1953

Paragraph 1. Section 1.78-1 is amended by revising paragraph (f) to read as follows:

§ 1.78-1 Dividends received from certain foreign corporations by certain domestic corporations choosing the foreign tax credit.

(f) Illustrations. The application of section may be illustrated by the examples provided in § 1.902-3, § 1.904-5, § 1.960-3, § 1.960-4, and § 1.963-4.

Par. 2. Section 1.902-3 is amended by revising paragraph (a) (1) to read as follows:

§ 1.902-3 Credit for domestic corporate shareholder of a foreign corporation (after amendment by Revenue Act of 1962).

(a) Domestic shareholder owning stock in a first-tier corporation—(1) In general. If a domestic shareholder (meaning for purposes of section 902 a domestic corporation owning at least 10 percent of the voting stock of a foreign corporation, such foreign corporation for purposes of section 902 being referred to a first-tier corporation) receives dividends in any taxable year from its first-tier corporation, the credit for foreign income taxes allowed by section 901 includes, subject to the conditions and limitations prescribed in paragraphs (a) (4) through (8) of this section, the foreign income taxes deemed, in accordance with paragraphs (a) (2) and (3) of this section, to be paid by such domestic shareholder for such year. For purposes of this section, § 1.902-4, and § 1.902-5, the term "foreign income taxes" means income, war profits, and excess profits taxes, and taxes included in the term "income, war profits, and excess profits taxes" by reason of section 903, imposed by a foreign country or a possession of the United States. For purposes of this section and § 1.902-4, a DISC or former DISC shall be treated as if it were a foreign corporation, but only with respect to dividends from the DISC or former DISC to the extent such dividends are treated under sections 861 (a) (2) (D) and 862(a) (2) as income from sources without the United States. For rules relating to reduction of the amount of foreign income taxes deemed paid or accrued with respect to foreign mineral income, see section 901(e) and § 1.901-3.

Par. 3. Section 1.904 is amended by revising the heading of paragraph (f) of section 904, by revising paragraph (1) of section 904(f), by revising paragraph (3) of section 904(f), by adding new paragraph (5) to section 904(f), and by revising the historical note, as follows:

§ 1.904 Statutory provisions; limitation on credit.

Sec. 904 Limitation on credit. * * *

(f) Application of section in case of certain interest income and dividends from a DISC or former DISC-(1) In general. The provisions of subsections (a), (c), (d), and (e) of this section shall be applied separately with respect to each of the following items

(A) The interest income described in paragraph (2),

(B) Dividends from a DISC or former DISC (as defined in section 992(a)) to the extent such dividends are treated as income from sources without the United States, and

(O) Income other than the interest income described in paragraph (2) and dividends described in subparagraph (b).

(3) Overall limitation not to apply. The limitation provided by subsection (a)(2) shall not apply with respect to the interest income described in paragraph (2) or to dividends described in paragraph (1)(B). The Secretary or his delegate shall by regulations prescribe the manner of application of subsection (e) with respect to cases in which the limitation provided by subsection (a) (2) applies with respect to income described in paragraph (1) (B) and (C).

(5) DISC dividends aggregated for purposes of per-country limitation. In the case of a taxpayer who for the taxable year has dividends described in paragraph (1) (B) from more than one corporation, the limitation provided by subsection (a) (1) shall be applied with respect to the aggregate of such

Par. 4. Section 1.904-1 is amended by revising paragraphs (a) (1) and (b) (1) to read as follows:

§ 1.904-1 Limitation on credit for foreign taxes.

(a) Per-country limitation—(1) General. In the case of any taxpayer who does not elect the overall limitation under section 904(a) (2), the amount allowable as a credit for income or profits taxes paid or accrued to a foreign country or a possession of the United States is subject to the per-country limitation prescribed in section 904(a)(1). Such limitation provides that the credit for such taxes paid or accrued (including those deemed to have been paid or accrued other than by reason section 904 (d) to each foreign country or possession of the United States shall not exceed that proportion of the tax against which credit is taken which the taxpayer's taxable income from sources within such country or possession (but not in excess of the taxpayer's entire taxable income) bears to his entire taxable income for the same taxable year. For special rules regarding the application of the per-country limitation when the taxpayer has derived section 904(f) interest or section 904(f) dividends, see § 1.904-4 or § 1.904-5.

(b) Overall limitation—(1) General. In the case of any taxpayer who elects the overall limitation provided by section 904(a)(2), the total credit for taxes paid or accrued (including those deemed to have been paid or accrued other than by reason of section 904(d)) shall not exceed that proportion of the tax against which such credit is taken which the taxpayer's taxable income from sources without the United States (but not in excess of the taxpayer's entire taxable income) bears to his entire taxable income for the same taxable year. For special rules regarding the application of the overall limitation when the taxpayer has derived section 904(f) interest or section 904(f) *dividends, see § 1.904-4 or § 1.904-5.

Par. 5. Section 1.904-2 is amended by revising paragraph (a) to read as follows:

§ 1.904-2 Carryback and carryover of unused foreign tax.

(a) Credit for foreign tax carryback or carryover. A taxpayer who chooses to claim a credit under section 901 for a taxable year is allowed a credit under that section not only for taxes otherwise allowable as a credit but also for taxes deemed paid or accrued in that year as a result of a carryback or carryover of an unused foreign tax under section 904(d). However, the taxes so deemed paid or accrued shall not be allowed as a deduction under section 164(a). The following paragraphs of this section provide rules for the computation of carryovers and carrybacks under section 904(d). For special rules regarding the application of section 904(d) and this section in the case of taxes paid or accrued with respect to section 904(f) interest see section 904(f) and § 1.904-4. For special rules regarding the application of section 904(d) and this section in the case of taxes paid, accrued, or deemed to be paid with respect to section 904(f) dividends see section 904(f) and § 1.904-5.

Par. 6. Section 1.904-3 is amended by revising paragraph (e) to read as fol-

§ 1.904-3 Carryback and carryover of unused foreign tax by husband and wife.

(e) Amounts carried from or through a joint return year to or through a separate return year. It is necessary to allocate to each spouse his share of an unused foreign tax or excess limitation for any taxable year for which the spouses filed a joint return if-

(1) The husband and wife file separate returns for the current taxable year and an unused foreign tax is carried thereto from a taxable year for which they filed a joint return;

(2) The husband and wife file separate returns for the current taxable year and an unused foreign tax is carried to such taxable year from a year for which they filed separate returns but is first carried through a year for which they filed a joint return; or

(3) The husband and wife file a joint return for the current taxable year and an unused foreign tax is carried from a taxable year for which they filed joint returns but is first carried through a year for which they filed separate re-

In such cases, the separate carryback or carryover of each spouse to the current taxable year shall be computed in the manner described in § 1.904-2 but with the modifications set forth in paragraph
(f) of this section. Where applicable, appropriate adjustments shall be made to take into account the fact that, for any taxable year involved in the computation of the carryback or the carryover, either spouse has interest income described in section 904(f)(2) with respect to which the provisions of section 904(f) and § 1.904-4 apply, or dividends described in section 904(f)(1)(B) with respect to which the provisions of section 904(f) and § 1.904-5 apply.

Par. 7. Section 1.904-4 is amended by revising the heading and paragraph (a) (1), by redesignating subparagraphs (3), (4), and (5) of paragraph (a) as sub-paragraphs (4), (5), and (6), by adding a new subparagraph (3) to paragraph (a), by revising paragraph (d)(1), by revising the introductory material in examples (5) and (6) in paragraph (e) (1) (iv), by revising paragraph (e)(2)(i) (b), and by revising the introductory material in example (3) in paragraph (e) (2) (iii), as follows:

§ 1.904-4 Separate limitation for section 904(f) interest.

(a) Separate limitation—(1) In general. (1) For taxable years beginning after October 16, 1962, but only with respect to interest resulting from transactions consummated after April 2, 1962, the provisions of subsections (a), (c), (d), and (e) of section 904 shall be applied separately with respect to the taxpayer's income consisting of-

(a) Section 904(f) interest (as defined in paragraph (a)(2) of this section), and

(b) Other income (as defined in paragraph (a) (3) of this section).

(ii) The provisions of section 904(f) and this section do not alter the rules provided by section 904(b) and paragraph (d) of § 1.904–1 for the election of the overall limitation upon the amount of the foreign tax credit.

(iii) If the taxpayer has not elected the overall limitation, the per-country limitation prescribed in section 904(a) (1) which is applicable to any foreign country or possession of the United States shall be applied separately with respect to the taxpayer's taxable income from sources within that country or possession which is attributable to the other income, and a separate limitation computed in the same manner shall be applied separately with respect to his taxable income from sources within that country or possession which is attributable to the section 904(f) interest.

(iv) If the taxpayer has elected the overall limitation prescribed in section 904(a)(2), such limitation shall be applied with respect to all of the taxpayer's taxable income from sources without the United States which is attributable to the other income, and, in addition, a separate limitation computed in the same manner as the per-country limitation prescribed in section 904(a) (1) shall be applied separately with respect to the taxpayer's taxable income from sources within each foreign country or possession of the United States which is attributable to the section 904(f) interest from sources within that country or pos-

(v) For purposes of this subparagraph, the separate limitation with respect to section 904(f) interest from sources within a foreign country or possession of the United States shall be applied only to the taxes paid or accrued to such country or possession with respect to such interest, and the separate limitation with respect to other income, whether the per-country or overall limitation, shall be applied only with respect to the foreign rucome taxes paid or accrued (including those deemed to have been paid or accrued other than by reason of section 904(d)) with respect to the other income which is taken into account for purposes of such separate limitation.

(vi) In no case may the overall limitation prescribed in section 904(a) (2) be applied with respect to section 904(f) interest or with respect to foreign income taxes paid or accrued with respect to such interest.

(vii) For special rules for determining the separate limitation for section 904(f) dividends, which is determined independently of the separate limitation for section 904(f) interest, see § 1.904-5.

(3) Other income defined. For purposes of this section, other income is all income of the taxpayer for the taxable year other than section 904(f) interest (as defined in paragraph (a) (2) of this section) and other than section 904(f) dividends (as defined in section 904(f) (1) (B) and § 1.904-5(a) (2)).

(d) General rules for carryback and carryover of unused foreign tax applicable to section 904(f) interest—(1) Modifications in use of $1.904-2. For purposes of applying the provisions of § 1.904-2 in conjunction with this section, and except as otherwise provided in paragraph (e) of this section-

(i) Unused foreign tax. The term "unused foreign tax", when used with respect to section 904(f) interest for any taxable year, means, with respect to a particular foreign country or possession of the United States, the excess of-

(a) The income, war profits, and excess profits taxes paid or accrued in such year to such foreign country or possession with respect to such interest, as determined under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, over

(b) The separate limitation for such year with respect to such interest.

Any unused foreign tax for such year with respect to other income shall be determined under § 1.904-2(b) (2) (i) or (ii), whichever applies, without taking into account any amounts used in applying the preceding provisions of this paragraph (b) (i). (ii) Tax deemed paid or accrued. The amount of an unused foreign tax for any taxable year with respect to section 904(f) interest, in the case of a particular foreign country or possession of the United States, which shall be deemed paid or accrued in any other taxable year to which such unused foreign tax may be carried under paragraph (b) of § 1.904-2 shall be equal to the smaller

(a) The portion of such unused foreign tax which, under paragraph (b) of § 1.904-2, is carried to such other taxable

(b) Any excess limitation for such other taxable year with respect to such unused foreign tax.

The amount of an unused foreign tax for any taxable year with respect to other income which is deemed paid or accrued in such other taxable year shall be determined under $1.904-2(c) (1) or (2), whichever applies, without taking into account any amounts used in applying the preceding provisions of this paragraph (b) (ii).

(iii) Excess limitation. The excess limitation for any taxable year (hereinafter called the "excess limitation year") applicable to an unused foreign tax with respect to section 904(f) interest, in the case of a particular foreign country or possession of the United States, for another taxable year (hereinafter called "year of origin") shall be the amount, if any, by which the limitation for the excess limitation year in the case of that foreign country or possession with respect to section 904(f) interest exceeds the sum of-

(a) The income, war profits, and excess profits taxes actually paid or accrued to such foreign country or possession in the excess limitation year with respect to section 904(f) interest, and

(b) The portion of the unused foreign tax with respect to section 904(f) interest, in the case of such foreign country or possession for any taxable year earlier than the year of origin, which is absorbed as taxes deemed paid or accrued in the excess limitation year under paragraph (b) (ii) of this section.

The excess limitation for such excess limitation year with respect to other income shall be determined under § 1.904-2(c), (1) (ii) or (2) (ii), whichever applies, without taking into account any amounts used in applying the preceding provisions of this paragraph (b) (iii).

(iv) Modification of restrictions on carrybacks and carryovers. Notwithstanding section 904(e)(2) and subparagraphs (1) (iii) and (2) (iii) of § 1.904-2 (c), but subject to the limitations of this section-

(a) An unused foreign tax with respect to section 904(f) interest for any taxable year may be deemed paid or accrued in another taxable year for which the overall limitation provided in section 904(a) (2) applies, even though the taxable year from which such tax is carried is a taxable year for which the percountry limitation provided in section 904(a) (1) applies.

(b) An unused foreign tax with respect to section 904(f) interest for any taxable year may be deemed paid or accrued in another taxable year for which the per-country limitation provided in section 904(a) (1) applies, even though the taxable year from which such tax is carried is a taxable year for which the overall limitation provided in section 904

(a) (2) applies, and

(c) An unused foreign tax for any taxable year with respect to other income may be deemed paid or accrued in another taxable year for which the separate limitation with respect to section 904 (f) interest applies, if the same limitation applies for both of such taxable years with respect to other income.

(v) Separation of limitations. In applying this subparagraph—

(a) No portion of an unused foreign tax with respect to section 904(f) interest for any taxable year may reduce the excess limitation for any other taxable year with respect to other income,

(b) No portion of an unused foreign tax for any taxable year with respect to other income may reduce the excess limitation for any other taxable year with respect to section 904(f) interest, and

(c) If an unused foreign tax with respect to section 904(f) interest for any taxable year is not deemed paid or accrued in another taxable year to which such unused foreign tax may be carried under paragraph (b) of $1.904-2, such other taxable year is to be counted as one of the years to which such unused foreign tax may be carried.

The application of this subdivision (v) may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. Domestic corporation D; a calendar year taxpayer, does not elect the overall limitation for 1963, 1964, and 1965, in each of which years it chooses the benefits of section 901. For 1965 D has an unused foreign tax of $100 with respect to section 904(f) interest. For 1965 D has an excess limitation of $200, but only with respect to other income. Since the unused foreign tax for 1965 consists only of income taxes imposed on section 904(f) interest and an excess limitation does not exist with respect to such taxes for 1963, the unused foreign tax for 1965 shall not be deemed paid or accrued under section 904(d) in 1963.

(e) Transitional rules for carrybacks and carryovers with respect to pre-1962 years—(1) Carrybacks to years before Revenue Act of 1962. * * * (iv) * * *

Example (5). N, a calendar year taxpayer using the eash receipts and disbursements method of accounting, pays foreign income taxes for the first time in 1962. N chooses the benefits of section 901 for each of the taxable years set forth below and for 1962 elects the overall limitation, which, with the Commissioner's consent, is revoked for 1966. N has section 904(f) interest only from foreign country X for the years involved. Based upon the taxes actually paid to foreign countries X and Y for each of the taxable years with respect to other income, and the taxes paid to country X with respect to section 904(f) interest, the unused foreign tax deemed paid under section 904(d) is as follows:

Example (6). B, a calendar year taxpayer using the cash receipts and disbursements method of accounting, pays foreign income taxes for the first time in 1962. For each of the taxable years set forth below. B chooses the benefits of section 901 and elects the overall limitation. B has section 904(f) interest only from foreign country X for the years indicated. Based upon the taxes actually paid to foreign countries X and Y for each of the taxable years with respect-to other income, and the taxes paid to country X with respect to section 904(1); interest, the unused foreign tax deemed paid under section 904(d), is as follows, after taking into account the prohibition provided in sub-division (iii) of this subparagraph against the apportionment of the unused foreign tax for 1964:

(2) Carryover to years after Revenue Act of 1962. (i)

(b) With respect to other income, an amount which bears the same ratio to the amount of such taxes deemed paid or accrued in the later year as the amount of the foreign income taxes paid or accrued to such country or possession for the later year with respect to other income bears to the total amount of the foreign income taxes paid or accrued to such country or possession for such later year.

(111) * * *

Example (3). C, a calendar year taxpayer using the cash receipts and disbursements mathod of accounting, pays foreign income taxes for the first time in 1962 and chooses the benefits of section 901 for each of the taxable years set forth below. For 1962, C uses the per-country limitation and in 1963 elects the overall limitation. C's only section 904(1) interest income for the years indicated is from foreign country X. Based upon the taxes actually paid for each of the taxable years with respect to other income, and the taxes paid to country X with respect to the section 904(f) interest, no unused foreign tax is deemed paid under section 904(d), determined as follows:

Par. 8. The following new section is added immediately after § 1.904-4:

§ 1.904-5 Separate limitation for section 904(f) dividends.

(a) Separate limitation—(1) In general. (i) For taxable years ending after December 31, 1971, the provisions of subsections (a), (c), (d), and (e) of section 904 shall be applied separately with respect to the taxpayer's income consisting of—

(A) Section 904(f) dividends (as defined in section 904(f) (1) (B) and paragraph (a) (2) of this section), and

(B) Other income (as defined in paragraph (a) (3) of this section).

(ii) The provisions of section 904(f) and this section do not alter the rules provided by section 904(b) and $ 1.904-1 (d) for the election of the overall limitation upon the amount of the foreign tax credit.

(iii) If the taxpayer has not elected the overall limitation, the per-country limitation prescribed in section 904(a).(1) which is applicable to any foreign country or possession of the United States shall be applied separately with respect to the taxpayer's taxable income from sources within that country or possession which is attributable to the other income, and a separate limitation computed in the same manner as the overall limitation prescribed in section 904(a) (2) shall be applied separately with respect to the taxpayer's entire taxable income from sources without the United States which is attributable to section 904(f) dividends.

(iv) If the tampayer has elected the overall limitation prescribed in section 904(a)(2), such limitation shall be applied separately with respect to all of the tampayer's taxable income from sources without the United States which is attributable to other income, and, in addition, a separate limitation computed in the same manner shall be applied separately with respect to the tampayer's entire taxable income from sources without the United States which is attributable to section 904(f) dividends.

(v) For purposes of this paragraph, the separate limitation with respect to section 904(f) dividends from sources without the United States shall be applied only with respect to the foreign income taxes paid or accrued (including those deemed to have been paid or accrued other than by reason of section 904(d)) with respect to such dividends, and the separate limitation with respect to other income, whether the per-country or overall limitation, shall be applied only with respect to the foreign income taxes paid or accrued (including those deemed to have been paid or accrued other than by reason of section 904(d)) with respect to the other income which is taken into account for purposes of such limitation. In the case of a taxpayer who for the taxable year has section 904(f) dividends from more than one corporation, the separate limitation shall be applied with respect to the aggregate of such divi-

(vi) In no case may the per-country limitation prescribed in section 904(a) (1) be applied with respect to section 904(f) dividends or with respect to foreign income taxes paid, accrued, or deemed to have been paid with respect to such dividends.

(vii) For special rules for determining the separate limitation for section 904 (f) interest, which is determined independently of the separate limitation for section 904(f) dividends, see § 1.904-4.

(2) Section 904(f) dividends defined. For purposes of this section, section 904(f) dividends shall be all income of the taxpayer for the taxable year consisting of dividends from a DISC or former DISC (as defined in section 992(a) (1) or (3), as the case may be) to the extent such dividends are treated under sections 861(a) (2) (D) and 862(a) (2), and the regulations thereunder, as income from sources without the United States.

(3) Other income. For purposes of this section, other income is all income of the taxpayer for the taxable year other than section 904(f) dividends (as defined in paragraph (a)-(2) of this section) and other than section 904(f) interest (as defined in section 904(f) (2) and § 1.904-(a)-(2)

(b) General rules for carryback and carryover of unused foreign tax applicable to section 904(f) dividends—(1) Modification in use of $ 1.904-2. For purposes of applying the provisions of $ 1.904-2 in conjunction with this section, and except as otherwise provided in panagraph (b) (3) of this section—

(i) Unused foreign tax. The term "unused foreign tax", when used with respect to section 904(f) dividends for any taxable year, means the excess of—

(A) The income, war profits, and excess profits taxes paid or accrued (or deemed paid or accrued other than by reason of section 904(d)), as determined under paragraph (b) (2) of this section, in such year to all foreign countries and possessions of the United States with respect to such dividends, over

(B) The separate limitation for such year with respect to such dividends.

Any unused foreign tax for such year with respect to other income shall be determined under § 1.904-2(b) (2) (i) or (ii), whichever applies, without taking into account any amounts used in applying (A) and (B) of paragraph (b) (i).

(ii) Tax deemed paid or accrued. The amount of an unused foreign tax for any taxable year with respect to section 904(f) dividends which shall be deemed paid or accrued in any other taxable year to which such unused foreign tax may be carried under paragraph (b) of $1.904-2 shall be equal to the smaller of—

(A) the portion of such unused foreign tax which, under paragraph (b) of § 1.904-2, is carried to such taxable year, or

(B) Any excess limitation for such other taxable year with respect to such unused foreign tax.

The amount of an unused foreign tax for any taxable year with respect to other income which is deemed paid or accrued in such other taxable year shall be determined under § 1.904–2(c) (1) or (2), whichever applies, without taking into account any amounts used in applying (A) and (B) of this paragraph (b) (ii).

(iii) Excess limitation. The excess limitation for any taxable year (hereinafter called the "excess limitation year") applicable to an unused foreign tax with respect to section 904(f) dividends for another taxable year (hereinafter called the "year of origin") shall be the amount, if any, by which the limitation for the excess limitation year with respect to section 904(f) dividends exceeds the sum of—

(A) The income, war profits, and excess profits taxes actually paid or accrued to all foreign countries and possessions of the United States in the excess limitation year with respect to section 904(f) dividends,

(B) The income, war profits, and excess profits taxes deemed paid or accrued other than by reason of section 904(d) in such year to all foreign countries and possessions of the United States with respect to section 904(f) dividends, and

(C) The portion of the unused foreign tax with respect to section 904(f) dividends, for any taxable year earlier than the year of origin, which is absorbed as taxes deemed paid or accrued in the excess limitation year.

The excess limitation for such excess limitation year with respect to other income shall be determined under § 1.904-2 (c) (1) (ii) or (2) (ii), whichever applies, without taking into acount any amounts used in applying (A), (B), and (C) of this paragraph (b) (iii).

(iv) Modification of restrictions on carrybacks and carryovers. Notwithstanding section 904(e) (2) and subparagraphs (1) (iii) and (2) (iii) of § 1.904-2 (c), but subject to the limitations of this subparagraph-

(A) An unused foreign tax with respect to section 904(f) dividends for any taxable year may be deemed paid in another taxable year for which the overall limitation provided in section 904(a) (2) applies, even though the taxable year from which such tax is carried is a taxable year for which the per-country limitation provided in section 904(a)(1) applies,

(B) An unused foreign tax with respect to section 904(f) dividends for any taxable year may be deemed paid or accrued in another taxable year for which the per-country limitation provided in section 904(a) (1) applies, even though the taxable year from which such tax is carried is a taxable year for which the overall limitation provided in section 904(a) (2) applies, and

(C) An unused foreign tax for any taxable year with respect to other income may be deemed paid or accrued in another taxable year for which the separate limitation with respect to section 904(f) dividends applies, if the same limitation applies for both of such taxable years with respect to other income.

(v) Separation of limitations. In applying this paragraph—

(A) No portion of an unused foreign tax with respect to section 904(1) dividends for any taxable year may reduce the excess limitation for any other taxable year with respect to other income.

(B) No portion of an unused foreign tax for any taxable year with respect to other income may reduce the excess limitation for any other taxable year with respect to section 904(f) dividends, and

(C) If an unused foreign tax with respect to section 904(f) dividends for any taxable year is not deemed paid or accrued in another taxable year to which such unused foreign tax may be carried under paragraph (b) of § 1.904-2, such other taxable year is to be counted as one of the years to which such unused foreign tax may be carried.

The application of this paragraph (v) may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. Domestic corporation D, a calendar year taxpayer, does not elect the overall limitation for 1973, 1974, and 1975, in each of which years it chooses the benefits of section 901. For 1975, D has an unused foreign tax of $100 with respect to section 904(f) dividends. For 1973, D has an excess limitation of $200, but only with respect to other income. Since the unused foreign tax for 1975 consists only of income taxes paid, accrued, or deemed paid with respect to section 904(f) dividends and an excess limitation does not exist for 1973 with respect to section 904(f) dividends, the unused foreign tax for 1975 may not be deemed paid or accrued in 1973 under section 904(d).

(2) Amount of taxes with respect to section 904(f) dividends—(i) In general. Except as provided in paragraph (b) (2) (ii) of this section, the amount of taxes paid or accrued with respect to section 904(f) dividends includes primarily the amount of foreign income taxes which a shareholder of a DISC or former DISC is deemed to have paid under section 902(a) on receipt of section 904(f) dividends from the accumulated profits of such corporation. Thus, it includes the portion determined under section 902(a) of the income, war profits, or excess profits taxes paid, or deemed under section 902(b) to be paid, by the DISC or former DISC to any foreign country or possession of the United States on or with respect to the accumulated profits of such corporation from which the section 904(f) dividends are paid, or deemed paid under section 995(b) (1) (D) or (E) or section 995(c). See § 1.995-1(b) for amounts treated as being received for purposes of this subdivision. However, it also includes foreign income taxes, if any, actually paid or accrued to any foreign country or possession of the United States by the shareholder with respect to section 904(f) dividends from such corporation.

(ii) Taxes not specifically allocable to dividends. If a taxpayer has paid or accrued for a taxable year an amount of foreign income taxes with respect to income which consists only in part of section 904(f) dividends, but such taxes cannot be specifically allocated to the section 904(f) dividends, the amount of such taxes which is to be taken into account for purposes of paragraph (b) (2) (i) of this section is that amount which bears the same ratio to the total of such foreign income taxes as the net section 904(f) dividends bear to the total net amount of such income. For purposes of such apportionment the net section 904(f) dividends and the total net income are to be determined by deducting any credits, expenses, losses, and other deductions which are properly allocable to the gross amount of such income under the law of the foreign country or possession of the United States to which the foreign income taxes have been paid or accrued. If the taxpayer determines that because of the facts and circumstances in a particular case the application of the two preceding sentences does not result in a proper allocation of the foreign income taxes to the section 904(f) dividends, he may make such other reasonable allocation as will, in the opinion of the district director, more clearly reflect the proper allocation of the foreign income taxes to the section 904(f) dividends. For purposes of this section, the term "foreign income taxes" means income, war profits, and excess profits, taxes and taxes included in the term "income, war profits, and excess profits taxes" by reason of section 903, imposed by a foreign country or a possession of the United States.

(3) Transitional rules for carrybacks and carryovers with respect to pre-1971 years—(1) Carryovers to years ending after December 31, 1971. Where, under the provisions of section 904(d), taxes paid, accrued, or deemed to be paid to any foreign country or possession of the United States in any taxable year ending on or before December 31, 1971, are deemed paid or accrued in one or more taxable years ending after December 31, 1971, no amount of such taxes shall be deemed paid or accrued in any such taxable year with respect to section 904(f) dividends.

(ii) Carrybacks to years ending on or before December 31, 1971. In applying the provisions of section 904(d) and $1.904-2(b) to taxes paid, accrued, or deemed to be paid to any foreign country or possession; of the United States with respect to section 904(f) dividends in any taxable year ending after December 31, 1971, the terms "second preceding tax-able year" and "first preceding taxable year" do not include any taxable year ending on or before December 31, 1971. Thus, no portion of the unused foreign tax with respect to section 904(f) dividends, as determined under paragraph (b) (1) (i) of this section, for any taxable year ending after December 31, 1971, shall be absorbed as taxes deemed paid or accrued in any taxable year ending on or before December 31, 1971.

(c) Illustrations. The application of this section may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example: (1).. Domestic corporation M, a calendar year taxpayer to which the per-country limitation under section 904(a)(1) applies, in 1973 receives a dividend of $50,000 from corporation N, which is a DISC, and a dividend of $150,000 from corporation P, which is a DISC. Under § 1.902-4(a), both N and P are treated as foreign corporations which are not less developed country corporations. Of the dividend from N; $40,000 is a section 904(f), dividend under paragraph (a) (2) of this section; and of the dividend from P, $140,000 is a section 904(f) dividend. In addition, M receives $30,000 of section 904 (f) interest (as defined in $1.904.4(a) (2)) from sources: in foreign country $300,000 of other income, consisting of $100,-000 from sources in country X and $200,000 from sources in foreign country Y. has no other income (or loss) from sources without the United States in 1973 and has total taxable income from all sources of $2 million. M pays income taxes for 1973 to country X of $3,000 with respect to section 904(f) interest and $35,000 with respect to other income; and $100,000 income tax to country. Y. It is assumed that the foreign income taxes deemed paid by M under section 902(a) (1), with respect to the section 904(f) dividends from N are $10,000 and that the foreign income taxes deemed paid by M under section 902(a) (1) with respect to the section 904(f) dividends from P are $35,000. Thus, the total foreign income taxes paid or deemed to be paid by M for 1978 amount to $183,000. M's U.S... tax (before foreign tax credit) is assumed to be $960,000. Based upon such assumptions, M's foreign tax credit limitation under section 904, and the tax allowable as a credit, are determined as follows for 1973:

(i) Separate limitation with respect

| to sec; 904(f) dividends: | |

Example (2). The facts are the same as in example (1) except that M elects the overall limitation under section 904(a) (2) for 1973. Based upon such assumptions, M's foreign tax credit limitation under section 904, and the tax allowable as a credit, are determined as follows for 1973:. (i) Separate limitation with respect to sec. 904(f) dividends; Sec. 904(f) dividends from N_____ $40,000 Gross-up under sec. 78______ 10,000

Example (3) Domestic corporation M, a calendar year taxpayer using the cash re-ceipts and disbursements method of accounting; pays foreign income taxes for the first time in 1970. For each of the taxable years set forth below M chooses the benefits of section 901 and elects the overall limitation under section 904(a) (2). M has section 904(f) dividends only from DISC corporations N and P for each of the years 1972 to 1975. Based upon the taxes deemed paid under section 902(a) (1) with respect to section 904(f) dividends for each of the years involved, and the foreign income taxes paid with respect to the other income from sources without the United States, the unused foreign tax deemed. paid under section 904(d) is as follows:

[7 CFR Part 59] EGGS AND EGG PRODUCTS

Proposed Inspection Exemptions

Notice is hereby given that the U.S. Department of Agriculture is considering amendments to the regulations governing the inspection of eggs and egg products (7 CFR Part 59) under authority con-

Act. (84 Stat. 1620 et seq., 21 U.S.C. 1031-1056):

Statement of Considerations, The Egg Products Inspection Act authorizes the Secretary to exempt the sale of eggs by any poultry producer from his own flocks directly to a household consumer. Current regulations under the Act limit such sales to those occurring at the site of production or on a door-to-door retail route. Amendments being proposed would broaden this exemption to include the 48,000 tained in the Egg Products Inspection sale of eggs by producers from their own flocks directly to household consumers at an established place of business away from the site of production, provided such outlets are owned and managed by the producer and provided further that such eggs move directly from the producer to the retail premises. Experience in administering the producer exemption granted under the Act indicates that this broadening of the exemption is reasonable in that it would tend to mitigate certain economic losses incurred by some producers by providing them more flexibility in the sale of their eggs without posing any health problems sought to be resolved by the Act. The broadened exemption will, of course, be continuously reviewed to assure that it does not result in conditions which are inconsistent with the policy of the Act.

Another proposed amendment would provide that the exempted product described above which is sold away from the site of production or away from the premises of the packing plant could not contain more loss or leakers than allowed in the official standards for U.S. Consumer Grade B shell eggs.

These amendments being proposed supersede other proposed amendments published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on January 9, 1975 (40 FR 1709) to amend the opening text and § 59.100(c) of 7 CFR Part 59.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or comments in connection with this proposal shall file the same in duplicate with the Hearing Clerk, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Room 112, Administration Building, Washington, D.C. 20250, no later than April 1, 1975.

All written submissions made pursuant to this notice will be made available for public inspection at the Office of the Hearing Clerk during regular business hours (7 CFR 1.27(b)).

The proposed amendments are as follows:

In § 59.100, the opening text and paragraph (c) would be revised to read as follows:

§ 59.100 Specific exemptions.

The following are exempt to the extent prescribed as to the provisions for control of restricted eggs in section 8(a) (1) and (2) of the Act and the provision for continuous inspection of processing operations in section 5(a) of the Act: Provided, That as to paragraphs (c) through (f) of this section, the exemptions do not apply to restricted eggs when prohibited by State or local law: And provided fur-ther, That the sale of "hard-cooked shell eggs" or "peeled hard-cooked shell eggs" prepared from checks is subject to the conditions for exemption in paragraphs (c), (d), and (f) of this section: And provided further, That the conditions for exemption and provisions of these regulations are met:

(c) The sale at the site of production, on a door-to-door retail route, or at an established place of business away from the site of production, by a poultry producer of eggs from his own flock's production directly to a household consumer exclusively for use by such consumer and members of his household and his nonpaying guests and employees, and the transportation, possession, and use of such eggs: Provided, That each such sale of restricted eggs shall be limited to no more than 30 dozen eggs; And provided further, (1) That eggs sold directly to consumers at an established place of business away from the site of production be moved directly from the producer to such place of business; (2) That such business away from the site of production be owned and managed by the producer; and (3) That such eggs which are sold on a door-to-door route or at an established place of business away from the site of production shall contain no more loss and/or leakers than allowed in the official standards for U.S. Consumer Grade B shell eggs.

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 24th day of February, 1975.

[7 CFR Part 984]

WALNUTS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA, OREGON, AND WASHINGTON

Proposed Revision of Administrative Rules and Regulations

Notice is hereby given of a proposal to revise § 984.437 of Subpart—Administrative Rules and Regulations (7 CFR 984.437-984.480). Section 984.437 specifles a method for proposing names of additional candidates to be included on grower's nomination ballots. The ballots are used to propose names of additional grower candidates for nomination to the Walnut Marketing Board. The subpart is operative pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 984, as amended (7 CFR Part 984; 39 FR 35327; 35999), regulating the handling of walnuts grown in California, Oregon, and Washington. The amended marketing agreement and order (hereinafter referred to collectively as the "order"), are effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674). The proposal was recommended by the Walnut Marketing Board.

The order was amended October 1, 1974. The amendment revised, among other things, the grower representation on the Walnut Marketing Board and established two grower districts covering the production area relatively equal in respect to walnut acreage and production. District 1 encompasses the States of Oregon and Washington and the counties in the State of California that lie north of a line drawn on the southern boundaries of San Mateo, Alameda, San Joaquin, Calaveras, and Alpine Counties. District 2 consists of all other walnut producing counties in the State of California south of that boundary line.

Before the October 1974 amendment of the order, grower representation on the Board from California was treated as one group, and grower representation from Oregon-Washington as another group. Hence, the two geographic areas (California and Oregon-Washington) specified in the current provisions of § 984.437 are not the same as the geographic areas comprising the two grower districts established by the recent order amendment. The proposed revision of § 984.437 recognizes this change.

The amendment of the order also provided a grower position for either California independent growers or cooperative growers, depending upon the volume of walnuts handled by independent or cooperative handlers in California during a specified period. The proposed revision of § 984.437 also provides a method for proposing additional candidates for this position when it is assigned to independent growers.

Consideration will be given to any written data, views, or arguments pertaining to the proposal which are received by the Hearing Clerk, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Room 112, Administration Building, Washington, D.C. 20250, not later than March 10, 1975. All written submissions made pursuant to this notice should be made in quadruplicate and will be made available for public inspection at the office of the Hearing Clerk during regular business hours (7 CFR 1.27(b)).

The proposal is to revise § 984.437 of Subpart—Administrative Rules and Regulations (7 CFR 984.437-984.480) to read as follows:

§ 984.437 Methods for proposing names of additional candidates to be included on walnut growers' nomination ballots.

(a) Whenever the grower member position specified in § 984.35(a) (4) is assigned to California growers who marketed their walnuts through independent handlers in California, any ten or more such growers who marketed an aggregate of 500 or more tons of walnuts through those handlers during the marketing year preceding the year in which Board nominations are held, may petition the Board to include on the nomination ballot the name of an eligible candidate to fill this position, and the name of an eligible candidate to serve as his alternate. The names of the eligible candidates proposed pursuant to this paragraph shall be included on the ballot together with the names of any incumbents who are willing to continue serving on the Board.

(b) Any ten or more growers eligible to serve in the grower member position specified in § 984.35(a) (5) and who marketed an aggregate of 500 or more tons of walnuts as provided in subparagraph (5) during the marketing year preceding the year in which Board nominations are held, may petition the Board to include on the nomination ballot the name of an eligible candidate to fill this position and the name of an eligible candidate to serve as his alternate. The names of the eligible candidates proposed pursuant to this paragraph shall be included on the ballot together with the names of any incumbents who are willing to continue serving on the Board.

(c) Any ten or more growers eligible to serve in the grower member position specified in §2984.35(a)(6) and who marketed an aggregate of 500 or more tons of walnuts as provided in subparagraph (6) during the marketing year preceding the year in which Board nominations are held, may petition the Board to include on the nomination ballot the name of an eligible candidate to fill this position, and the name of an eligible candidate to serve as his alternate. The names of the eligible candidates proposed pursuant to this paragraph shall be included on the ballot together with the names of any incumbents who are willing to continue serving on the Board.

(d) Petitions made pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section shall be on forms supplied by the Board and filed no later than April 1 of the nomination year.

Dated: February 24, 1975.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH. EDUCATION, AND WELFARE

Food and Drug Administration [21 CFR Part 29] FRUIT BUTTERS

Standard of Identity Revision

Notice is given that the National Preservers Association (NPA), 64 Perimeter Center East, Atlanta, GA 30346, has filed a petition proposing to amend the standard of identity for fruit butter (21 CFR 29.1).

The proposed amendment would be patterned after the recent amendments of the standards for fruit jellies and jams. The principal changes would be: (1) Removal of the proportionality limitations on the use of sweeteners other than sugar; (2) provision for the use of "safe and suitable" ingredients set out simply as classes instead of the present limiting "recipe" listing; and (3) a requirement for label declaration of optional ingredients. Further, the option to add antifoaming agents and pectin is proposed. All interested persons are invited to comment on the proposal by April 28, 1975.

The NPA urges promulgation of its proposal and states that it is a natural sequel to the amendments to the standards for fruit jellies (21 CFR 29.2) and preserves, jams (21 CFR 29.3) published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of August 28. 1974 (39 FR 31304). The grounds in support of the proposal are similar to those set out in the NPA petition to amend the jellies and jams standards. That petition is on file with the Hearing Clerk, Food and Drug Administration, Rm. 4-65, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20852, as are the issues of the FEDERAL REGISTER CATTYing the proposal (November 14, 1973; 38 FR 31450) and the subsequent order ruling on that proposal (August 28, 1974; 39 FR 31304). Arguments supporting the proposal and the order ruling on the proposal to amend the fruit jellies and jams standards (21 CFR 29.2, 29.3), and thereby applicable to this petition, include the following:

1. Alternative procedures such as freeze concentration or use of partial vacuums produce as good a product or, in most cases, a superior product to that obtained by using heat to achieve concentration.

2. The provision for essence recovery, its concentration, and its return to the fruit butters reflects current industry

3. In view of recent technological innovations, a larger number of corn sweeteners providing a wide range of sweetness is now available. Consumer tastes for less sweet preserves and, on the other hand, a desire for a more economical approach to all levels of sweetness in preserves may now be met.

4. The use of antifoaming agents during concentration would not alter the taste or physical characteristics of the

5. The provision for the use of "safe and suitable" optional ingredients, instead of the traditional specific listing of ingredients, would allow for ready adoption of new technological developments as they occur, without the burdensome procedure for amending the standard.

The proposed changes from the existing fruit butter standard are:

1. To delete the 25 percent limitation on the use of certain sweeteners. The present standard limits the use of corn sweeteners to no more than 25 percent of the total sweetening ingredients used.

2. To permit corn sweeteners with a minimum D.E. (dextrose equivalent) of 20 that would conform with those listed in 21 CFR Part 26. The present standard specifies a minimum dextrose equivalent of 40 for corn sweeteners.

3. To provide for the use of safe and suitable nutritive carbohydrate sweeteners, acidifying agents, preservatives, pectin, and antifoaming agents, except those derived from animal fats. The present standard specifies by name only certain ingredients in these classes, but it does not list pectin or any antifoaming agents.

4. To require the declaration of all optional ingredients on the label with the two following exceptions:

a. Other than in the case of dried (evaporated) fruit, the name(s) of the fruit or fruits used, which shall be declared as such, may be declared without specifying the particular form of the fruit or fruits used.

b. If sugar or invert sugar is used the term "sugar" may be used; and if the nutritive sweetener is derived from corn, the term "corn sweetener" may be used.

5. To provide for (a) essence recovery and its return to the fruit butters and (b) the use of techniques other than heat to effect concentration, i.e., freeze concentration or drawing a partial vacuum so as to cause vaporization without the application of heat.

The Commissioner is aware that chemical textbooks and scientific dictionaries differ in their definition of the term "carbohydrate." However, for purposes of clarification, he wishes to state that mannitol and sorbitol are sugar alcohols and are not "carbohydrates." considered

It should be noted that the proposal would eliminate the optional substitution of fruit juice for sweetening ingredient. The present standard specifies that not less than 5 parts by weight of fruit ingredient shall be used for each two parts by weight of sweetening ingredient, except that the sweetening ingredient is not required when fruit juice is used in a quantity not less than onehalf the weight of the fruit ingredient. However, the Commissioner has been advised that those packers who use fruit juice continue to use a sweetening ingredient.

It should be further noted that the petitioner's proposed § 29.1(e) (2) (i) sets out certain labeling requirements applicable to different forms of fruits. However, the petitioner appears to have inadvertently omitted to carry over the need to specify how the use of a dried (evaporated) fruit shall be declared. Therefore, the Commissioner proposes, on his own initiative, that the language in paragraph (g) (6) in the present standard be retained and incorporated into the petitioner's proposed paragraph (e) (2) (i).

Therefore, pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 401, 701, 52 Stat. 1046, 1055, as amended, 70 Stat. 919, 72 Stat. 948; 21 U.S.C. 341, 371) and under authority delegated to him (21 CFR 2.120), the Commissioner proposes to revise § 29.1, incorporating both NPA's and the Commissioner's proposal, to read as follows:

§ 29.1 Fruit butter; identity; label statement of optional ingredients.

(a) The fruit butters for which definitions and standards of identity are prescribed by this section are the smooth. semisolid foods each of which is made from a mixture of one or a permitted combination of the optional fruit ingredients specified in paragraph (b) of this section and one or any combination of the optional ingredients specified in paragraph (c) of this section, which meets the specifications in paragraph (d) of this section, and which is labeled in accordance with paragraph (e) of this section. Such mixture is concentrated with or without heat. The volatile flavoring materials or essence from such mixture may be captured during concentration, separately concentrated, and added back to any such mixture, together with any concentrated essence accompanying any optional fruit ingredient.

(b) (1) Each of the optional fruit ingredients referred to in paragraph (a) of this section is prepared by cooking one of the following fresh, frozen, canned, and/or dried (evaporated) mature fruits, with or without added water, and screening out skins, seeds, pits, and cores:

Factor referred to in paragraph (d)(2) of this section

| lame of fruit: | |
|-------------------------|------|
| Apple | 7.5 |
| Apricot | 7.0 |
| Grape | 7.0 |
| Peach | 8. 5 |
| Pear | 6. 5 |
| Plum (other than prune) | 7.0 |
| Prune | 7.0 |
| Quince | 7. 5 |

(2) The permitted combinations are of two, three, four, and five of the fruit ingredients specified in paragraph (b) (1) of this section; the weight of each is not less than one-fifth of the weight of the combination. Each such fruit ingredient in any such combination is an optional ingredient.

(c) The following safe and suitable optional ingredients may be used:

(1) Nutritive carbohydrate sweeteners.

(2) Spice.

(3) Flavoring (other than artificial flavoring).

(4) Salt.

(5) Acidifying agents.

(6) Fruit juice or diluted fruit juice or concentrated fruit juice, in a quantity not less than one-half the weight of the optional fruit ingredient.

(7) Preservatives.

(8) Antifoaming agents except those derived from animal fats.

(9) Pectin, in a quantity which reasonably compensates for deficiency, if any, of the natural pectin content of the fruit ingredient.

(d) For the purposes of this section:

(1) The mixture referred to in paragraph (a) of this section shall contain not less than five parts by weight of the fruit ingredient as measured in accordance with paragraph (d) (2) of this section to each two parts by weight of nutritive carbohydrate sweetener as measured in accordance with paragraph (d) (4) of this section.

(2) Any requirement with respect to the weight of any optional fruit ingredient, whether concentrated, unconcentrated, or diluted, means the weight determined by the following method: (1) Determine the percent of soluble solids in the optional fruit ingredient by the method for soluble solids referred to in paragraph (d) (3) of this section; (ii) multiply the percent so found by the weight of such fruit ingredient; (iii) divide the result by 100; (iv) subtract from the quotient the weight of any nutritive sweetener solids or other added solids; and (v) multiply the remainder by the factor for such ingredient prescribed in paragraph (b) (1) of this section. The result is the weight of the optional fruit ingredient.

(3) The soluble solids content of the finished fruit butter is not less than 43 percent, as determined by the method prescribed in "Official Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Analytical Chemists," 11th Ed., 1970, p. 371, sec. 22.019, under "Soluble Solids (by Refractometer) in Fresh and Canned Fruits, Jams, Marmalades, and Preserves—Official First Action," except that no correction is made for water-insoluble solids.

(4) The weight of any nutritive carbohydrate sweetener means the weight of the solids of such ingredient.

(5) The weight of fruit juice or diluted fruit juice or concentrated fruit juice (optional ingredient, paragraph (c)(6) from a fruit specified in paragraph (b) (1) of this section is the weight of such juice, as determined by the method prescribed in paragraph (d) (2) of this section, except that the percent of soluble solids is determined by the method prescribed in "Official Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Analytical Chemists," 11th Ed., 1970, p. 526, sec. 31.011, under "Solids by Means of Refractometer—Official Final Action"; the weight of diluted concentrated juice from any other fruit is the original weight of the juice before it was diluted or concentrated.

(e) (1) The name of each fruit butter for which a definition and standard of identity is prescribed by this section is as

(i) In case the fruit butter is made from a single fruit ingredient, the name is "Butter," preceded by the name whereby such fruit is designated in paragraph (b) (1) of this section.

(ii) In case the fruit butter is made from a combination of two, three, four, or five fruit ingredients, the name is "Butter," preceded by the words "Mixed fruit" or by the names whereby such fruits are designated in paragraph (b) (1) of this section, in the order of predominance, if any, of the weight of such fruit ingredients in the combination.

(2) Each of the optional ingredients specified in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section shall be declared on the label as required by the applicable sections of Part 1 of this chapter, except that:

(i) Other than in the case of dried (evaporated) fruit the name(s) of the fruit or fruits used may be declared without specifying the particular form of the fruit or fruits used. When the optional fruit ingredient is prepared in whole or in part from dried fruit, the label shall bear the words "prepared from" or "prepared in part from," as the case may be, followed by the word "evaporated" or "dried," followed by the name whereby such fruit is designated in paragraph (c) of this section. When two or more such optional fruit ingredients are used, such names, each preceded by the word "evaporated" or "dried," shall appear in the order of predominance, if any, of the weight of such ingredients in the combination.

(ii) If sugar or invert sugar is the sweetener used, the term "sugar" may be used, and if the sweetener used is derived from corn the term "corn sweetener" may be used.

Interested persons may, on or before April 28, 1975, file with the Hearing Clerk, Food and Drug Administration, Rm. 4-65, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20852, written comments (preferably in quintuplicate) regarding this proposal. FEDERAL AIRWAYS

Proposed Alteration

The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) is considering an amendment to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations that would alter the vertical extent of V-70 between Vienna, Ga., and Allendale, S.C.

Interested persons may participate in the proposed rule making by submitting such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should identify the airspace docket number and be submitted in triplicate to the Director, Southern Region, Attention: Chief, Air Traffic Division, Federal Aviation Administration, P.O. Box 20636, Atlanta, Ga. 30320. All communications received on or before March 31, 1975 will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

An official docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Federal Aviation Administration, Office of the Chief Counsel, Attention: Rules Docket, 800 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, D.C. 20591. An informal docket also will be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Division Chief.

The proposed amendment would establish the upper vertical limit of V-70 between Vienna and Allendale at 9,000 feet MSL to provide airspace for an operational training area to be used by flights originating from Beaufort, S.C., MCAS. Only six aircraft transited this segment of V-70 on the 1974 IFR peak day. The proposed action would promote safety by segregating the area to be used by en route airway aircraft from the area to be used by military training aircraft.

This amendment is proposed under the authority of sec. 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1348(a)) and sec. 6(c) of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on February 21, 1975.

F. L. CUNNINGHAM, Acting Chief, Airspace and Air Traffic Rules Division.

[FRL 337-5]

APPROVAL AND PROMULGATION OF IMPLEMENTATION PLANS

Kentucky: Approval of Compliance Schedules

Section 110 of the Clean Air Act and the implementing regulations of 40 CFR Part 51 require each State to submit a plan which provides for the attainment and maintenance of the national ambient air quality standards throughout the State. Each such plan is to contain legally enforceable compliance schedules setting forth the dates by which all sources must be in compliance with any applicable requirements of the plan. On August 15, 1974 (39 FR 29357), the Administrator approved the resubmitted Kentucky plan with the exception of its alternate control strategy provision. The Administrator's original approval of the Kentucky plan on May 31, 1972 (39 FR 10842), had been vacated by the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit on June 28, 1973.

On April 23, 1974, pursuant to 40 CFR 51.6 and 51.15, the Commonwealth of Kentucky submitted for the Agency's approval a number of individually negotiated compliance schedules. The purpose of this notice is to offer those schedules as proposed rulemaking and to solicit public comment on them.

Each of the proposed compliance schedules identified below establishes a date by which an air pollution source must attain compliance with an emission limitation or other regulation of the State implementation plan. This date is indicated in the table under the heading "Final Compliance Date". In many cases the schedule includes incremental steps toward compliance, with interim dates for achieving those steps. While the table does not list these, the actual schedules do. The notation "Immediately" under the heading "Effective Date" means that the schedule will become Federally enforceable immediately upon its approval by the Administrator.

All of the compliance schedules listed here are available for public inspection at the following locations:

Air Programs Office, Environmental Protection Agency, Region IV, 1421 Peachtree Street, NE, Atlanta, Georgia 30309.

Division of Air Pollution, Department for Natural Resources and Environmental Protection, 311 East Main Street, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601.

Freedom of Information Center, Environmental Protection Agency, 401 M Street, SW, Washington, D.C. 20460.

In addition, the schedules for sources located in Jefferson County may be inspected at the office of the Jefferson County Air Pollution Control District, 400 Reynolds Building, 2500 South Third Street, Louisville, Kentucky 40208.

Each schedule was adopted by the Department for Natural Resources and Environmental Protection, Commonwealth of Kentucky, after notice and public hearing, and was submitted to the Agency in accordance with the procedural requirements of 40 CFR 51.4. Each also satisfies the substantive requirements of 40 CFR 51.6 and 51.15 pertaining to plan revisions and compliance schedules respectively. In addition, each schedule has been determined to be consistent with the control strategies of the resubmitted Kentucky implementation plan. Several of these schedules replace schedules previously adopted by the State and published as proposed rulemaking in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

An evaluation of any of the schedules may be obtained by consulting personnel of the Agency's Region IV Air Programs Office at the Atlanta address given above.

Interested persons are encouraged to submit written comments on the proposed schedules. To be considered, comments must be received on or before March 28, 1975, and should be directed to John Eagles of the Agency's Region IV Air Programs Office at the Atlanta address given above. After carefully weighing relevant comments and all other available information in the light of requirements set forth in section 110 (a) of the Clean Air Act and in the implementing regulations of 40 CFR Part 51, the Administrator will take approval/disapproval action on the proposed Kentucky compliance schedules listed below.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON INTERNA-TIONAL INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

The International Copyright Panel of the Department of State's Advisory Committee on International Intellectual Property will meet in open session April 2, 1975, at the Department of State in Conference Room 1107 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The purpose of this open meeting will be to discuss three topics:

(a) The forthcoming meeting of the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) and the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) Subcommittees on Reprographic Reproduc-tion, which will be held in Washington, D.C., June 16-21, 1975;

(b) US-USSR Copyright Relations; and,

(c) Report on the Convention relating to Distribution of Programme-Carrying Signals Transmitted by Satellite which was held in Brussels May 6-21, 1974.

Most of this meeting will be devoted to the subject of reprographic reproduction (agenda item (a)).

As background information, the meeting of the UNESCO/WIPO Subcommittees was arranged by the Berne Copyright Convention Executive Committee of WIPO and the Universal Copyright Convention (UCC) Intergovernmental Copyright Committee of UNESCO at Paris in 1973. At that time it was decided that the question of reprographic reproduction (i.e., facsimile reproduction by photocopying, xerox, etc.) of copyrighted works should be studied jointly by these two subcommittees to develop possible solutions to a problem that has considerable importance to both users (educators and librarians) and owners (publishers and authors) worldwide. The United States has a special interest in finding solutions to this problem because a large number of U.S. publications are reprographically copied abroad. Furthermore, the U.S. probably has more methods of reproduction and legal copyright problems arising from these reproductions than any other country in the world.

Members of the general public who desire to attend the meeting will be admitted up to the limits of the capacity of the meeting room. Entrance to the Department of State building is controlled and entry will be facilitated if arrangements are made in advance of the meeting. It is requested that prior to April 2, 1975, members of the general public who plan to attend the meeting inform their name and affiliation and address to Mr. Damon V. LaBrie, Office of Business Practices, Department of commence at 9 a.m. each day.

State; the telephone number is area code 202, 632-0307. All non-government attendees at the meeting should use the C Street entrance to the building.

Dated: February 20, 1975.

HARVEY J. WINTER, Executive Secretary.

The Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act of December 18, 1971 (Pub. L. 92-203, 92nd Congress; 85 Stat. 688-716), provides for the settlement of certain land claims of Alaska Natives and for other purposes.

Accordingly, the Director, Juneau Area Office, Bureau of Indian Affairs, pursuant to the authority delegated him in the regulations in 43 CFR Part 2650, authorizing him to make final decisions on behalf of the Secretary of the Interior on the eligibility of Native villages for benefits under the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act, subject to appeal to the Ad Hoc Board, published on February 26, 1974, his Final Decision determining the eligibility of the unlisted Native village of Caswell, said decision appearing in 39 FR. 7467.

The decision was appealed by the State of Alaska, Department of Natural Resources; the Sierra Club, Alaska Chapter; the Matanuska-Susitna Borough; the Alaska Wildlife Federation & Sportsmen's Council, Inc.; and Philip R. Holdsworth.

The Ad Hoc Board, also known as the Alaska Native Claims Appeal Board then notified the Director, Juneau Area Office, Bureau of Indian Affairs, by an "Order" dated 'October 21, 1974 dismissing the appeals that his final decision certifying the unlisted Native village of Caswell as eligible for benefits pursuant to section 11(b) (3), 43 U.S.C. 1610(b) (3) of the Act, shall become not eligible to receive land benefits under section 14(a), 43 U.S.C. 1613(a), and be properly published in the FEDERAL REGISTER upon the personal approval of the Secretary of the Interior.

In accordance with the Ad Hoc Board's decision, approved on November 1, 1974 by the Secretary of the Interior, Rogers C. B. Morton, and by telegram dated September 16, 1974 from Assistant Secretary of the Interior, Royston C. Hughes, authorized the Director, Juneau Area Office, Bureau of Indian Affairs to certify the unlisted Native village of Caswell as ineligible for benefits under the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act, said Director hereby certifies the unlisted Native village of Caswell to be ineligible for benefits under said Act, said decision being not further appealable, therefore issues to the unlisted Native village of Caswell a certification of ineligibility.

Proposed Withdrawal of a Portion of the Sheldon Antelope Range from Mineral

The Bureau of Land Management has filed a request to withdraw the Federally owned lands and interest in the lands described below from location under the mining laws. 30 U.S.C. Ch. 2, but not from leasing under the mineral leasing laws. The lands involved are now withdrawn and reserved from appropriation under the public land laws as the Charles Sheldon Antelope Range by Executive Order 7522 of December 21, 1936.

The proposed withdrawal of these lands, and corollary segregative effect, are designed to maintain mineral values status quo pending completion and evaluation of a mineral survey of the Range. The recognized wilderness values will be protected and the President and Congress will be afforded adequate opportunity to make reasonable determinations between wilderness and other resource values. The President asked Congress in his December 4, 1974 wilderness message to delay action on wilderness designations on this Range until a minerals inventory is completed.

The segregation effected by the notation of this application on the public land records will terminate one year after receipt by the Secretary of the Interior of a mineral evaluation-report if the Secretary fails to act on the withdrawal application within that year. Notice of any such termination will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER

On or before March 31, 1975, all persons who wish to submit comments, suggestions or objections in connection with the proposed withdrawal may present their views in writing to the undersigned officer of the Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior, 300 Booth Street, Reno, Nevada 89502. The authorized officer of the Bureau of Land Management will undertake such investigations as are necessary to determine the existing and potential demand for the lands and their resources.

After receipt of the mineral report, the authorized officer will also prepare a report for consideration by the Secretary of the Interior who will determine whether or not the lands will be withdrawn as requested.

If the Secretary makes a determination on the application within the time specified above, it will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. A separate notice will be sent to each interested party of record. If circumstances warrant, a public hearing will be held at a convenient time and place, which will be announced.

The purpose of the project is to provide a secondary underground electrical power line (14,400 volts) extending from existing lines to service the Boulder Lake Country Estates Subdivision (containing 120 acres) being part of Homestead Entry Survey No. 159 of T33N, R107W, Sublette County, Wyoming.

This environmental statement is concerned only with that portion of the proposal which involves National Forest lands. COMPAGNIE GABONAISE d'AFFRETEMENT AERIEN (AFFRETAIR) Order Denying Export Privileges for an Indefinite Period

In the matter of Compagnie Gabonaise d'Affretement Aerien (Affretair) B.P. 484 Libreville Republic of Gabon, Respondent.

By an Order effective October 21, 1974, (39 F.R. 39486) the Director, Office of Export Administration, Bureau of East-West Trade, Domestic and International Business Administration, United States Department of Commerce, denied the U.S. export privileges of the respondent for 60 days. The action was found reasonably necessary to protect the public interest and until final deposition of the investigation based upon evidence supporting a reasonable belief that: In October 1972, Export License No. 016075 was issued authorizing the sale and export of a U.S.-origin Douglas "Jet Trader" aircraft, Serial DC-8 55F Number 45821 to the Compagnie Gabonaise d'Affretement Aerien (Affretair), Libreville, Republic of Gabon. Prior to the issuance of the export license, written assurances were re-ceived from the General Manager of Affretair to the effect that the aircraft would not be utilized in any traffic with Southern Rhodesia or in any activity contravening the United Nations sanctions against that territory. In the sixth report of the Security Council Committee Established in Pursuance of Resolution 253 (1968) Concerning the Question of Southern Rhodesia, dated January 9, 1974, from Pages 96 to 128, there is cataloged and documented a series of activities which support the conclusion that the aircraft was being used regularly in Rhodesian trade, despite the assurances to the contrary, and is continuously involved in transactions clearly violative of both UN sanctions against Southern Rhodesia and the export regulations of the United States.

The Director, Compliance Division, Office of Export Administration, has applied to the Hearing Commissioner for an order against the above-named respondent indefinitely denying all United States export privileges. The basis for the the application is the failure of the respondent to answer interrogatories duly issued in the furtherance of the investigation; pursuant to § 388.6 of the Export Administration Regulations (hereinafter, the export regulations). Section 388.15 of the export regulations provides that failure to answer interrogatories within 20 days of their service upon a respondent may result, without prior notice, in the denial of export privileges.

The Hearing Commissioner has reviewed the application and the evidence presented in support thereof and has submitted his report, together with a recommendation that the application be granted. On the basis of the Hearing Commissioner's submission and the supporting evidence, I find that: Relevant and material interrogatories and a request to furnish documents were properly served on the Director of the respondent company on October 9, 1974. Answers to the interrogatories and requested documents have not been provided, without good cause having been shown.

It is, therefore, ordered. I. All outstanding validated export licenses concerned with or affecting any transaction in which the respondent has any interest, direct or indirect, are hereby revoked and are ordered to be returned forthwith to the Office of Export Administration.

II. The respondent, its successors or assigns, partners, representatives, agents and employees are hereby denied the privileges of participating, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, in any transaction involving commodities or technical data exported from the United States in whole or in part, or to be exported, or which are otherwise subject to the Export Administration Regulations. Without limitation of the generality of such denial of export privileges, participation prohibited in any such transaction either in the United States or abroad shall include participation directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity:

A. As a party or as a representative of a party to any validated export license application:

B. In the preparation or filing of any export license application or reexport authorization, or any document to be submitted therewith;

C. In the obtaining or using of any validated or general export license or other export control document;

D. In the carrying on of negotiations with respect to, or in the receiving, ordering, buying, selling, delivering, storing, using, or disposing of any commodities or technical data in whole or in part exported from the United States;

E. In the financing, forwarding, transporting, or other servicing of such commodities or technical data.

III. Such denial of export privileges shall extend not only to the respondent, but also, to his agents and employees and to any successor, and to any persons, firm, corporation, partnership or other business organization with which the respondent now or hereafter may be related by ownership, control, position of responsibility, affiliation, or other connection in the conduct of trade or related services.

IV. No person, firm, corporation, partnership or other business organization, whether in the United States or elsewhere, without prior disclosure to and specific authorization from the Bureau of East-West Trade, shall do any of the following acts, directly or indirectly, or carry on negotiations with respect thereto, in any manner or capacity, on behalf of or in any association with the respondent or any related party, or whereby the respondent or related party may obtain any benefit therefrom or have any interest or participation therein, directly or indirectly:

A. Apply for, obtain, transfer, or use any license, Shipper's Export Declaration, bill of lading, or other export control document relating to any exportation reexportation, transshipment, or diversion of any commodity or technical data exported or to be exported from the United States, by, to, or for the respondent or related party;

B. Order, buy, receive, use, sell, deliver, store, dispose of, forward, transport, finance, or otherwise service or participate in, any transaction which may involve the respondent or related party in any exportation, reexportation, transshipment, or diversion of any commodity or technical data exported or to be exported from the United States or which is otherwise subject to the Export Administration regulations.

V. A copy of this order shall be served on respondent.

VI. This order shall remain in effect until the respondent provides respon-sive answers, written information, and documents, in response to the interrogatories heretofore served upon it, or gives adequate reasons for not doing so, except insofar as this order may be amended or modified hereafter in accordance with the export regulations.

VII. In accordance with the provisions of § 388.15 of the export regulations, the respondent may move at any time to vacate or modify this indefinite denial order by filing with the Hearing Commissioner, Bureau of East-West Trade, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C., 20230, an appropriate motion for relief, supported by substantial evidence, and may also request an oral hearing thereon, which if requested shall be held before the Hearing Commissioner at Washington, D.C. at the earliest convenient date.

VIII. This order shall become effective on: February 19, 1975.

Dated: February 19, 1975.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket 266031

AIRLIFT INTERNATIONAL, INC.

Increased Container Rates; Order of Suspension

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C. on the 24th day of February, 1975.

By tariff revisions issued January 27 and marked to become effective February 26, 1975, Airlift International, Inc. (Airlift) proposes to increase local container rates and charges applicable to general commodities between points in the United States, on the one hand, and San Juan, on the other, by between 4 and 18 percent.

In support of its proposal, Airlift asserts, inter alia, that the proposed in-creases are intended to establish rate levels that will partially offset increases in costs, primarily increased fuel costs, while maintaining competitiveness by not exceeding approved rates for American Airlines, Inc. (American); that in U.S.-Puerto Rico operations, based on contractual agreements for fuel, the carrier will experience a 48.1 percent rise in fuel costs per gallon, representing an increase of $971,440 over 1974 fuel costs; that it expects to generate approximately $125,000 in added revenue over the next twelve months, representing a 5.5 percent increase in total revenue; and that the added revenue will recover only 12.8 percent of the projected cost increase. Furthermore, the carrier asserts that it is currently suffering losses in this market and, even with the proposed increases, it would experience a loss for the year ending September 30, 1975.

All of the proposed rates and charges are revisions to rates and charges under investigation in Puerto Rico/Virgin Islands Freight Rates, Docket 26603, and, accordingly, are within the scope of that proceeding. The issue before the Board is whether to suspend the proposal or to permit it to become effective pending final decision in the investigation.

The Board has reviewed Airlift's proposed rates in the light of industry-average costs of carrying air freight (including a full return on investment),1 and

It is true, as Airlift alleges, that the rates proposed in a number of markets are equal to American's. Airlift's rates would, however, exceed industry-average costs, based upon its own shortest-authorized route mileages in some of those markets, while American's are below costs, based upon its own shortestauthorized mileages. For example, in the Dallas-San Juan market, Airlift is authorized to operate via Miami, involving a distance of about 2,166 miles, while American's shortest-authorized route is via Washington, D.C., a distance of approximately 2,751 miles.

Our conclusion to suspend these rates, pending investigation, is consistent with our decision in the Domestic Passenger-Fare Investigation, Phase 9 (Fare Structure), Docket 21866-9, affirmed on reconsideration in Order 74-12-109, December 27, 1974.

Accordingly, pursuant to the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, and particularly sections 204(a), 403, 404, and 1002

It is ordered, That:

1. Pending hearing and decision by the Board, the rates and charges described in Appendix A hereto are suspended and their use deferred to and including May 26, 1975, unless otherwise ordered by the Board, and that no changes be made therein during the period of suspension, except by order or special permission of the Board; and

2. Copies of this order shall be filed with the tariff.

This order will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[Docket 25280; Agreement C.A.B. 24843; Order 75-2-681

INTERNATIONAL AIR TRANSPORT ASSOCIATION Order Relating to Specific Commodity Rates

Agreement adopted by the Traffic Conferences of the International Air Trans- compliance with Order 74-11-153; and port Association relating to specific commcdity rates.

Issued under delegated authority February 14, 1975.

An agreement has been filed with the Board pursuant to section 412(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (the Act) and Part 261 of the Board's Economic Regulations between various air carriers, foreign air carriers and other carriers, embodied in the resolutions of the Joint Fraffic Conferences of the International Air Transport Association (IATA). The agreement was adopted at the 18th meeting of the Joint Specific Commodity Rates Board held in San Diego on October 14-17, 1974 and has been assigned the above C.A.B. agreement number.

With respect to air transportation as defined by the Act, the agreement proposes revisions to the specific commodity rates structures applicable on the North Atlantic, North/Central Pacific and South Pacific market areas. Revisions in the North Atlantic and North/Central Pacific areas are outlined in Attachments I and II hereto, reflect reductions from the otherwise applicable general cargo rates and will be approved. Revisions in the South Pacific area are outlined in Attachments III and IV hereto. We will approve those revisions outlined in Attachment III since they all represent deletions of rates judged by the carriers to be no longer necessary. However, revisions detailed in Attachment IV reflect the general 5 percent fuel-related increase in South Pacific rates disapproved by the Board in Order 74-12-23 of December 6, 1974 and will be disapproved consistent with that order.

Pursuant to authority duly delegated by the Board in the Board's regulations

14 CFR 385.14:

1. It is not found that Agreement C.A.B. 24843, except those revisions detailed in Attachment IV hereto, is adverse to the public interest or in violation of the Act, provided that approval is subject to the conditions hereinafter ordered:

2. It is found that Agreement C.A.B. 24843 to the extent detailed in Attachment IV hereto is adverse to the public interest and in violation of the Act:

Accordingly, it is ordered, That: 1. Agreement C.A.B. 24843, except those revisions detailed in Attachment IV hereto, be and hereby is approved, provided that approval shall not constitute approval of the specific commodity descriptions contained therein for purposes of tariff publication; provided further that tariff filings shall be marked to become effective on not less than 30 days' notice from the date of filing;

2. With respect to the North/Central Pacific market area, specific commodity rates established pursuant to Resolution 590 with any United States point as an origin or destination, shall be available to and/or from any other United States city having an intermediate position based on shortest operated mileages at levels no greater than those established for the more distant point, and that all specified commodity rates shall be in rates and charges exceed costs: rates and charges for Types A, B, and B-2 containers between Dallas and Houston, on the one hand, and San Juan, on the other, and for Type D containers between Chicago, Cleveland, and Detroit, on the one hand, and San Juan, on the other. In view of this and upon consideration of all other relevant factors, the Board concludes that the latter rates should be suspended.

¹ These cover industry-average online and interline noncapacity costs (which include transfers from one plane to another) plus online capacity costs. These costs have been adjusted for recent increases in unit operatcosts, ing costs, through the period January-September 1974. Although the foregoing costs essentially cover airline operations between the 50 states, we believe that they may be considered reasonable approximations of costs between the Mainland and San Juan for the purpose of resolving the suspension issue, pending our decision in Docket 26603.

3. Those revisions detailed in Attachment IV hereto be and hereby are disapproved.

Persons entitled to petition the Board for review of this order pursuant to the Board's regulations, 14 CFR 385.50, may file such petitions within ten days after the date of service of this order.

This order shall be effective and become the action of the Civil Aeronautics Board upon expiration of the above period, unless within such period a petition for review thereof is filed or the Board gives notice that it will review this order on its own motion.

This order will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[SEAL] EDWIN Z. HOLLAND, Secretary.

NORTH CENTRAL AIRLINES, INC.

Application for Realignment of Route 86; Order Amending Certificate

Correction

In FR Doc. 75-3667 appearing at page 6219 in the issue for Monday, February 10, 1975, makes the following changes, footnotes 14, 27 should read as set forth below:

14. Omaha-Grand Rapids, 2240; Omaha-Lansing, 1510; Omaha-Muskegon, 470; Omaha-Saginaw, 1320; Omaha-South Bend, 1860. See Order 74— 7—63, Appendix B.

27. We will, however, eliminate the requirement that South Bend-New York flights serve a second intermediate point in addition to Milwaukee. Since North Central will have unrestricted authority between South Bend and Milwaukee and between Milwaukee and New York, the imposition of an additional stop requirement on flights serving both South Bend and New York over Milwaukee would be anomalous and obviously, is unnecessary.

AMCHEM PRODUCTS, INC.

Establishment of Temporary Tolerances

Amchem Products, Inc., Ambler, PA 19002, submitted a petition (PP 5G1597) requesting establishment of temporary tolerances of 0.1 part per million for negligible residues of bromoxynil (3,5-dibromo-4-hydroxybenzonitrile) in or on the grain, green forage, and straw of wheat, and in the meat, fat, and meat byproducts of cattle, goats, hogs, horses, and sheep.

It has been determined that these temporary tolerances will protect the public health. They are therefore established on condition that the herbicide be used in accordance with the temporary permit being issued concurrently and which provides for distribution under the Amchem Products, Inc. name.

This temporary tolerance expires February 24, 1975. Residues remaining in or on the above raw agricultural commodity after expiration of this tolerance will not be considered actionable if the pesticide is legally applied during the term, and in accordance with provisions of the temporary permit/tolerances.

This action is taken pursuant to provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 408(j), 68 Stat. 516; (21 U.S.C. 346a(j))), the authority transferred to the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency (35 FR 15623), and the authority delegated by the Administrator to the Deputy Assistant Administrator for Pesticide Programs (39 FR 18605).

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. 73-42, 73-61, 73-69, 74-4]

BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF THE PORT OF NEW ORLEANS V. SEATRAIN INTERNATIONAL S.A.

Order on Submission of Environmental Memoranda

Hearings in the above referenced proceedings have been completed and briefs filed, but no environmental impact issues were raised by the parties nor considered in the course of the proceeding. The matter is otherwise ready for initial Nonetheless the Commission believes it is required by the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA) to provide an environmental analysis of the subject matter of this proceeding and issue an Environmental Impact Statement therefor. Under section 102(C) of said Act, the Commission is required to:

(C) Include in every recommendation or report on proposals for legislation and other major Federal actions significantly affecting the quality of the human environment, a de-tailed statement by the responsible official

(i) The environmental impact of the proposed action,

(ii) Any adverse environmental effects which cannot be avoided should the proposal be implemented.

(iii) Alternatives to the proposed action, (iv) The relationship between local shortterm uses of man's environment and the maintenance and enhancement of long-term productivity, and

(v) Any irreversible and irretrievable commitments of resources which would be involved in the proposed action should it be implemented.

The Commission believes that the nature of this proceeding renders any decision hereon a "major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment." Consequently the broad scope of environmental factors involved warrant most careful consideration and evaluation before decision making is undertaken. As the presiding Administrative Law Judge is cognizant of NEPA's statutory requirements, it is assumed no Initial Decision will be rendered until such time as the Commission submits an Environmental Impact Statement for his consideration in this proceeding.

Therefore it is ordered, That to aid the Commission in its environmental evaluation, all parties shall submit memoranda to the Commission within 45 days which include their evaluations and positions regarding predictable environmental effects resulting from the eventual resolution of this proceeding. Parties shall consider all alternative decisions in this case and use the above-cited section 102(C) of NEPA as a guide in preparing their environmental memoranda.

By the Commission.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Project No. 2146]

ALABAMA POWER CO.

Order Instituting Investigation and Providing for Hearing

FEBRUARY 20, 1975.

On February 10, 1975, the 64-foot high earthfill dam at the Bouldin Dam of the Coosa River Project No. 2146 falled. This failure occurred in the earth dike east of the power plant and resulted in a flow through the dike which was estimated at approximately 50,000 cfs.

The Bouldin Dam obtains its water from a reservoir of the Jordan Project No. 618. Because flows from this reservoir to the Bouldin Dam are not regulated, the failure of the dam resulted in a substantial decrease in the level of the reservoir at the Jordan Project No. 618, adding flows in the river downstream from the dam.

The dam failure occurred at 1:30 a.m. on February 10, 1975. During the morning of February 10, 1975 the Atlanta Regional Engineer and an assistant visited the site. The Head of the Section on Inspections of the Bureau of Power and an assistant plus two engineers from the Atlanta Regional Office visited the dam site last week and met with a Board of Consultants retained by the licensee in connection with the dam failure.

We believe the failure of this dam raises questions about the safety and adequacy of project works subject to our jurisdiction under the terms and conditions of the Federal Power Act (Act) and the conditions of the license for this project, particularly Articles 2, 3, and 4.1 Section 10(c) of the Act expressly provides:

That the Heensee shall maintain the project works in a condition of repair adequate for the purposes of navigation and for the efficient operation of said works in the development and transmission of power * * and shall conform to such rules and regulations as the Commission may from time to time prescribe for the protection of life, health, and property.

We are therefore ordering a further formal investigation pursuant to the Act into the causes of this dam failure in order to determine the proper remedial actions which should be taken to assure that life, health, and property are adequately protected at this dam and other dams under the control of the licensee. The formal investigation should also determine whether the provisions of this Act or any rule, regulation, or order of the Commission have been violated and, if so, which may have caused or contributed to the dam's failure.

Following the completion of the present Staff field investigation and the formal investigation, an evidentiary hearing pursuant to section 10(c) and 308° of the Act shall be held to document and determine the cause of this dam failure and any remedial actions which may be warranted to correct any violations of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order thereunder or to assure that this dam failure or the potential for failure of any other related dams under control of the licensee will not occur or reoccur.

The Commission further finds. It is appropriate and in the public interest for the purposes of administration of the Federal Power Act that a formal investigation and hearing be ordered concerning the failure of the Bouldin Dam of the Coosa River Project No. 2146, any matters related thereto, and the potential for failure of any other related dams under the control of the licensee.

The Commission orders. (A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by the Federal Power Act, particularly section 10, 307, 308, and 309, an investigation and hearing shall be instituted into matters involved and issues presented in this proceeding.

(B) As a part of the investigation, the Commission staff is hereby directed to conduct an examination into the Bouldin Dam failure and the potential for failure of any other related dams under the licensee's control; to obtain such facts and information from the books, records, facilities, and properties of the Alabama Power Company, its parents, affiliates, or subsidiaries as may be necessary or appropriate to conduct this investigation; and to furnish such recommendations as may be necessary or appropriate in light of the investigation.

(C) Alabama Power Co., its parents, affiliates, or subsidiaries, shall cooperate and assist Commission staff in its investigation.

(D) The Commission's Secretary shall issue notice of the time and place of the hearing. The procedure for the hearing shall be prescribed by the Presiding Administrative Law Judge in conformance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(E) The Commission's Secretary is hereby directed to issue a notice of this investigation and hearing with provision for the filing of protests or petitions to intervene.

By the Commission.

CENTRAL ILLINOIS PUBLIC SERVICE CO. Filing of Revised Fuel Clause and Supporting Materials .

FEBRUARY 20, 1975.

Take notice that on January 20, 1975, Central Illinois Public Service Co. (Central Illinois), tendered for filing copies of a revised fuel clause for substitution in Rate Schedule W-1; and Statement O-Period II (Revised). Also tendered, as supporting material, was Working Paper I which the company describes as a computation of the fuel clause cost per kwh for the months May 1974 through June 1975, based upon the formula contained in the revised fuel clause; and Appendix 1 which the company describes as a comparison of fuel clause billing for Period II to cooperative customers for the fuel clause contained in Rate Schedule W-1 filed November 29, 1974, and for the revised fuel clause which is the subject of this notice.

Central Illinois states that this filing is made pursuant to the Commission order in this docket of December 31, 1974. The company states further that the revised fuel clause conforms with Commission Order No. 517, issued November 13, 1974, in Docket No. R-479 and that its application would produce $3,786 less fuel adjustment revenue than the fuel clause filed November 29, 1974.

The company requests an effective date of January 2, 1975. Central Illinois states further that it does not anticipate any revenues to be collected prior to January 31, 1975, under Rate Schedule W-1, and therefore, requests that the Commission accept the revised fuel clause and terminate the refund obligation imposed by the Commission's order of December 31, 1974.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said application should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, D.C. in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before March 10, 1975. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this application are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

CITIES SERVICE GAS CO.
Proposed Changes in FPC Gas Tariff

FEBRUARY 20, 1975.

Take notice that on February 13, 1975, Citles Service Gas Co. (Citles) tendered Cities further states that the above-referred to tariff sheet will be effective for only one day, namely January 23, 1975, after which Substitute Ninth Revised Sheet PGA-1 (issued December 2, 1974) reflecting a current adjustment of 4.29¢ per Mcf and a cumulative adjustment of 10.70¢ per Mcf will be effective on January 24, 1975, after suspension, as provided by the Commission's January 22, 1975 order. According to Cities, of the 10.70¢ per Mcf cumulative adjustment. 0.79¢ per Mcf is being collected subject to possible refund as of January 24, 1975.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with §§ 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). [Docket No. RP75-62]

CITIES SERVICE GAS CO.

Tariff Filing

FEBRUARY 21, 1975.

Take notice that on February 10, 1975, Cities Service Gas Co. (Cities), P.O. Box 25128, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73125, filed in Docket No. RP75-62 revised Article 13 to its FPC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, pursuant to Section 4 of the Natural Gas Act, part 154 of the Commission's regulations thereunder, and sections 2.70 and 2.78 of the Commission's general policy and interpretations thereunder (18 CFR 2.70 and 2.78) reflecting revised curtailment categories and establishing curtailment procedures said to be in substantial compliance with those of the Commission, all as more fully set forth in the tariff filing on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Cities maintains that during recent periods it has experienced increasingly severe reductions in the gas supply available to its system as a result of the inability of Cities' suppliers to deliver the volumes Cities needs in order to fulfill its customers' needs. Accordingly, although Cities believes that its present curtailment plan has been effective and just and reasonable, the increased curtailment which Cities anticipates will be necessary in the future justifies the substitution of the proposed plan.

Cities states that the priority-of-service categories in its proposed curtailment plan depart from those specified in Order No. 467-B as modified by the Commission's Opinion No. 647-A in United Gas Pipe Line Company, 49 FPC 1211, 1213-14, in certain respects. While Cities has adopted the modification of category (2) to include small industrial customers (up to 3,000 Mcf per month) for the reasons stated by the Commission in Opinion No. 647-A, Cities has subdivided FPC category (2) as set forth in Order No. 467-B into categories (2) and (3) and has shifted large commercial customers using 3,000 Mcf per month or more and industrial feedstock or process requirements from category (2) to a new category (3). Category (3) specified in Order No. 467-B thus becomes category (4) under Cities' curtailment plan.

Additionally, the proposed plan departs from the priority categories of Order No. 467-B by not differentiating between "firm" and "interruptible" service, thus eliminating FPC categories (4) and (5) as separate categories. As a result of these changes, Cities' proposed curtailment plan has eight categories instead of the nine categories of Order No. 467-B.

Cities explains that it subdivides FPC category (2) to differentiate between customers in category (2) which have never been curtailed or required to have alternate fuel capability and hence do not have alternate fuel capability from those customers placed in category (3) which have historically been curtailed and hence do have the requisite alternate fuel capability. The result, says Cities, is that its large commercial and industrial feedstock and process customers are separated out of category (2) and placed in category (3). Cities claims that this result is also dictated by administrative reasons in that there are only about 350 customers with relatively large volumes in Cities' category (3), while there are approximately 1,900 customers with much smaller volumes in Cities' category (2).

Cities further explains that its customers which have heretofore used gas for high priority uses have historically been designated or "firm" customers and those which have low priority uses as "interruptible" customers. Cities concludes that no purpose would be served by distinguishing between "firm" and "interruptible" service.

Cities points out that for categories (1) and (2), its proposed plan utilizes a volumetric limitation of 1,000 Mcf in a peak month as the equivalent for the 50 Mcf on a peak day set forth in Order No. 467-B. Similarly, category (2) in said plan utilizes a volumetric limitation of 3,000 Mcf in a peak month rather than 300 Mcf per day refiected in Opinion No. 647-A. Cities claims the 3,000 Mcf per month limitation in its categories (2) and (3) is appropriate because Cities' tariff has historically provided for a different classification of commercial and industrial sales of less than 3,000 Mcf per month from those of more than 3,000

Mcf per month.

Cities' proposed curtailment plan provides that all customers served under the various rate schedules in Cities' tariff and all customers served under direct sale contracts are subject to curtailment under the plan. Cities state that allocation will be made by curtailing the lowest priority category (category (8)) and successively to each higher priority category, until the total volume available has been allocated. Each customer will then be notified, with as much advance notice as possible, of the quantity of gas which he is entitled to receive under such allocation and the curtailment period during which it will apply.

While Cities anticipates that it will be able generally to utilize its system and storage flexibility so that required gas supply curtailment can be accomplished by allocation over a month or period of months under the allocation procedure described above, the plan also provides for curtailment for a period of a day or several consecutive days under the same allocation procedures when such curtailment is required for operating reasons when customers' total requirements exceed capacity or to meet short-term gas supply conditions.

The curtailment plan also contains a provision for emergency relief as required by Orders Nos. 467-A, 467-B and 467-C, including payback provisions. Further, Cities states that its proposed plan prescribes an unauthorized-overrun penalty of 115 Mcf of gas, applicable alike to jurisdictional and direct customers.

Cities requests an effective date coincident with the beginning of the expected summer curtailment season of June 23, 1975, for its filing and requests waiver of the 60-day notice provision required by section 154.22 of the Commission's regulations.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said tariff filing should on or before March 7, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Application for Change in Land Rights

FEBRUARY 19, 1975.

Public Notice is hereby given that application for approval of Change in Land Rights was filed December 23, 1974 under the Federal Power Act (16 U.S.C. 791a-825r) by the City of Seattle (Correspondence to: Mr. Gordon Vickery, Superintendent of Lighting, The City of Seattle, Department of Lighting, 1015 Third Avenue, Seattle, Washington 98104) for Skagit River Project No. 553 located in Whatcom County, Washington near the Towns of Newhalem and Diablo on the Skagit River, partly on lands of the United States (The Skagit River Project No. 553 boundary is entirely surrounded by the Ross Lake National Recreation Area).

Applicant seeks Commission approval of the issuance of a permit to the State of Washington which would allow for the construction of a microwave terminal building and the installation of radio transmitter equipment within the project boundary. The proposed microwave terminal building would be a 16 x 19 foot concrete block building with a 10 foot diameter circular microwave antenna and three radio antennas mounted on the roof and would be located within the Gorge Development Boundary of Project No. 553. The site would be connected by underground cable to an existing State Highway Department Newhalem Maintenance Building (outside the project boundary) which would house a control

The proposed radio transmission equipment would be installed in the City of Seattle's existing radio transmitter building near Ross Dam within the Ross Development boundary of Project No. 553. Should the existing radio tower prove to be inadequate, a new 20 foot steel webbed self-supporting tower would be erected adjacent to the existing tower.

These proposed facilities are a part of the State Planned Skagit Valley Communications System to provide radio communication service along Sign Route 20 from Mount Vernon, Washington to the vicinity of Granite Creek near Ross Dam. The system will be a joint system for use by the Washington State Patrol and the Department of Highways, with growth potential for use by other governmental agencies such as the National Park Service and the County Sheriff's Department.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make protest with reference to said application should on or before April 3, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, petitions to intervene or protests in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). Commercial's filing was noticed on August 16, 1974, with September 3, 1974 established as the deadline for the filing of comments, protests, or petitions to intervene. No comments, protests or petitions to intervene were filed in this proceeding.

On December 16, 1974, Staff Counsel filed a motion to terminate the docket in this proceeding. Staff Counsel stated that recent submittals of data by Commercial reviewed by the Commission Staff Indicate that the requested rate relief has been justified. Staff Counsel's Motion To Terminate Docket was noticed on December 20, 1974. No protests, comments, or answers have been filed pursuant to Staff Counsel's motion.

Upon further evaluation of Commercial's tendered filing, this Commission is of the opinion that the proposed rates are just and reasonable. We shall therefore, grant Staff Counsel's motion to terminate this docket and provide that Commercial's proposed rate be made effective without refund obligation as of September 16, 1974.

The Commission finds. It is in the public interest that Staff's motion of December 16, 1974 be granted and that Commercial's proposed rates be made effective as of September 16, 1974 without refund obligation as hereinafter ordered and conditioned.

The Commission orders. (A) Staff Counsel's December 16, 1974, Motion To Terminate this proceeding is hereby granted and Commercial's proposed rates are hereby made effective as of September 16, 1974, without refund obligation, (B) The Secretary shall cause prompt publication of this order to be made in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

DAYTON POWER AND LIGHT CO.

[Docket No. E-9216]

Order Accepting for Filing and Suspending Proposed Rate Increase, Allowing Interventions, Denying Motion To Reject, and Establishing Procedures

FEBRUARY 19, 1975.

On January 15, 1975, Dayton Power and Light Co. (Dayton) tendered for filing proposed changes in its FPC Electric Service Tariff, Original Volume No. 1 1 for service to municipal customers for resale. In addition, Dayton filed a fuel adjustment clause purporting to conform with Commission Order No. 517.

Notice of the filing was issued on January 21, 1975 with comments and petitions to intervene due on or before February 3, 1975. Timely petitions to intervene were received from certain of Dayton's municipal customers.2 The Cities petition to intervene also contained a request that the Commission reject the filing. On February 13, 1975, Dayton filed an answer to the pleadings of the Cities and the Villages, opposing the request for rejection.

Dayton filed the changes in its tariff pursuant to section 205 of the Federal Power Act. The supporting material is in the form of a Period I, actual data for the twelve months ended April 30, 1974, and a Period II, projected data for twelve months ending December 31, 1975. Based on estimates of billing for Period II, the changes will increase Dayton's wholesale revenue by $1,756,930 (24.2 percent). In addition, under the new tariff Dayton would bill under a three energy block system rather than the current five block system. No change would be made in the KVA demand steps. The base for the tax adjustment clause would be changed to December 31, 1974. As noted above the fuel clause in the filing is in purported conformance with Opinion No. 517.

The Cities base their request for rejection on the alleged meagerness of Dayton's filing and an allegation that Volume II of the filing was never served on Dayton's customers. With regard to the Cities' first point, such an allegation does not meet the standards for the rejection of a filing as set out in Municipal Light Boards of Reading and Wakefield, Massachusetts v. F.P.C., 450 F. 2d 1341, 1345-46, 146 U.S. App. D.C. 294, 298-99, cert. den. 405 U.S. 989 (1971), where the Court stated that rejection of a filing is proper in the "clear case of a filing that patently is either deficient in form or a substantive nullity." Our review of Dayton's filing reveals that it complies with the applicable regulations related to filing proposed rate increases. There is no need "for calling on Dayton to put its papers in proper form and order." Municipal Light Boards, supra, at 1346. Nor can Dayton's filing be considered a patent, substantive nullity. Rather, the Cities allegations of meagerness go to the issue of whether Dayton can sustain its burden of proof in the hearings we herein order pursuant to section 205 of the Federal Power Act. Arguments on the sufficiency of the support should be saved for those proceedings. With regard to the Cities' second point, we note that our regulations, 18 CFR 35.2(d) do not require that Dayton mail the documents contained in Volume II to their customers until a customer. makes a request for the material. Moreover, Dayton states in its answer filed on February 13, 1975 that it has now mailed Volume II to its customers. Accordingly, we cannot accept the Cities second point as an adequate basis for rejection.

However, our review of the proposed changes indicate that the proposed changes may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential or otherwise unlawful within the meaning of the Federal Power Act. Accordingly, we will accept Dayton's filing, suspend it for thirty days, and allow the proposed rates to become effective subject to refund. Furthermore, we shall order a hearing to be held on the lawfulness of Dayton's proposed changes in its FPC

Tariff.

The Commission finds. (1) It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the Federal Power Act, particularly sections 205, 206, 307, 308 and 309 thereof, that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the proposed rates, charges and conditions of service contained in Dayton's FPC Electric Service Tariff, Original Volume No. 1 as proposed to be affrended herein. (2) Good cause exists to accept for filing and suspend Dayton's proposed revised tariff sheets for thirty days, to become effective March 31, 1975, subject to refund. (3) Good cause exists and it would be in the public interest to permit the intervention of the above named parties. (4) The disposition of this proceeding should be expedited in accordance with the procedures set forth below.

The Commission orders. (A) The Cities' request for rejection of Dayton's filing is denied. (B) Pursuant to the authority of the Federal Power Act, particularly sections 205 and 206 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Federal Power Act (18 CFR Chapter I), a public hearing shall be held on July 29, 1975, at 10 a.m., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street NE., Washington, D.C. 20426, concerning the lawfulness of the rate charges and conditions of service contained in Dayton's FPC Electric Service Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, as

(D) On or before June 10, 1975, the Commission Staff shall serve its prepared testimony and exhibits. On or before July 1, 1975, the Intervenor shall serve their testimony and exhibits. (E) A Presiding Administrative Law Judge to be designated by the Chief Administrative Law Judge for that purpose, (See Delegation of Authority, 18 CFR 3.5(d)), shall preside at the hearing in this proceeding, shall prescribe relevant procedural matters not herein provided, and shall control this proceeding in accordance with the policies expressed in the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.

(F) The above mentioned petitioners are hereby permitted to intervene in this proceeding, subject to the rules and regulations of the Commission; Provided, however, That the participation of such intervenors shall be limited to matters affecting the rights and interests specifically set forth in the respective petitions to intervene; and Provided, further, That the admission of such intervenors shall not be construed as recognition that they or any of them might be aggrieved because of any order or orders issued by the Commission in this proceeding.

(G) Nothing contained herein shall be construed as limiting the rights of parties to this proceeding regarding the convening of conferences or offers of settlement pursuant to section 1.18 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(H) Prior to any rate change under the proposed tax adjustment clause, Dayton shall file, 30 days in advance, appropriate data and calculations showing the basis for the change in rate.

EAST TENNESSEE NATURAL GAS CO. Proposed PGA Rate Adjustment

FEBRUARY 19, 1975.

Take notice that on February 12, 1975, East Tennessee Natural Gas Co. (East Tennessee) tendered for filing proposed changes to Sixth Revised Volume No. 1 of its FPC Gas Tariff to be effective on March 15, 1975, consisting of the following revised tariff sheets:

Eleventh Revised Sheet No. 4 and Alternate, Eleventh Revision Sheet No. 4.

East Tennessee states that the sole purpose of these revised tariff sheets is to adjust East Tennessee's rates pursuant to the PGA provision in section 22 of the General Terms and Conditions to reflect increased purchased gas costs resulting from a rate increase by its sole supplier, Tennessee Gas Pipeline Company, a Division of Tenneco Inc. (Tennessee). East Tennessee further states that Eleventh Revised Sheet No. 4 reflects the rate increase resulting from Tennessee's filing of February 12, 1975, and that East Tennessee's filing of Alternate Eleventh Revised Sheet No. 4 reflects Tennessee's alternate filing of February 12, 1975.

East Tennessee states that copies of the filing have been mailed to all of its jurisdictional customers and affected state regulatory commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, NE., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with sections 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). [Docket No. RM74-12; Order No. 521-A]

INVESTIGATION OF RATES CHARGED FOR NONJURISDICTIONAL SALES OF NAT-URAL GAS

Order Denying Stay and Maintaining Non-Public Status of Data Pending Rehearing

FEBRUARY 19, 1976.

On January 9, 1975, we issued Order No. 521, which promulgated a reporting system whereby jurisdictional companies would submit to the Commission information concerning their intrastate sales during a set period of time. On February 10, 1975, we granted rehearing for purposes of further consideration based on the petitions filed by Atlantic Richfield Co., Texaco Inc., and Union Oil Company of California.

Several of the parties that petitioned for rehearing also requested a stay of the effectiveness of Order No. 521, either until the Commission issues its final order on rehearing or through any period necessary for judicial review. The effect of a stay would be that the information sought by the Commission in Order No. 521 would not be forthcoming. This result is inconsistent with our urgent need for the data, as expressed in Order No. 521, and is, therefore, denied.

Mobil Oil Corp. (Mobil) has requested that we stay the effect of Order No. 521 until ten days after the issuance of any final order on rehearing and Union Oil Company of California has requested that the data filed pursuant to Order No. 521 be kept confidential pending rehearing. One of the reasons expressed by the parties seeking a stay is that the material to be submitted is claimed to be confidential, and we expressly provided in our order that said information would be placed in the public files. This issue is presently being considered by us in our deliberations on rehearing.

Under the provisions of our order, prior to the issuance of our final order on rehearing intrastate rate information filed under the direction of Order No. 521 would be placed in the public files. Such a result would prejudice those companies that chose to comply with the provisions of Order No. 521 and favor those companies that failed to comply pending rehearing. Accordingly, material filed pursuant to Order No. 521 will not be placed by the Commission in the public files until ten days following the issuance of a final order on the petitions on rehear-ing. Within ten days following the issuance of such order, all reports covering the period during rehearing that have been or should have been filed will be placed in our public files.

1 In addition to the parties mentioned in the February 10, 1975 order, petitions for rehearing have been filed by Mitchell Energy Corp., Continental Oil Co., Mapco, Inc., Cities Service Oil Co., The California Co., a Division of Chevron Oil Co., Mobil Oil Corp., Exxon Corp., Superior Oil Co., Tenneco Oil Co., TransOcean Oil, Inc., National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners (NARUC), and Certain Small Producers (Clark Fuel Producing Co., Robert Mosbacher, et al., Reserve Oil and Gas Co., P. R. Rutherford, P. R. Rutherford, Jr., Michael Rutherford, and Wrightsman Investment Co.).

Requests for a stay were submitted by:
Union, Mobil, Exxon, Superior, Atlantic
Richfield, Continental, Tenneco, TransOcean, NARUC, and Certain Small Producers.

²This order is not in contravention of $2.72 of our regulations which deals with the availability of data acquired by staff investigation. Our order of August 23, 1974 in Docket No. RM74-24, which modified $2.72, made it clear that that order, Order No. 509, applied only to contested cases where the information sought to be kept confidential was acquired through a staff investigation. Order No. 521 is clearly not a staff investigation, since the material to be submitted by the companies will be filed at the direction of the Commission, nor is it a contested case, since this proceeding was begun by the Commission. Therefore, $2.72 does not apply to the instant proceeding.

The Commission orders. Requests by petitioners for rehearing for a stay of the effect of Order No. 521 pending rehearing and/or judicial review are hereby denied. Information submitted in compliance with Order No. 521 will not be placed in the public files until ten days following the issuance of a final order on the petitions for rehearing.

NORTHERN STATES POWER CO. (MINNESOTA)

Order Approving Settlement Proposal

FEBRUARY 21, 1975.

Northern States Power Co. (Northern States) on June 1, 1973, filed an application for a rate increase which would raise the rates of its Minnesota and South Dakota total requirements municipal customers by $1,400,610 on a 1972 test year basis. By our order issued July 30, 1974, we suspended the proposed rates until October 1, 1973, and permitted the intervention of the 14 municipals.

On October 3, 1974, the Presiding Judge certified to us a settlement proposal which would reduce the impact of the proposed rate increase by $302,388. Existing terms and conditions of service would be amended with respect to notice of termination, restrictions on service to certain retail loads, and the availability of firm service power in the event of customer interconnection and operation in parallel with a system other than Northern States' system (subject to a reservation of the Municipals to contest the justness and reasonableness of the amendment). All parties except Commission Staff support the proposal. Staff filed comments objecting only to the proposal's overall rate of return of 8.35 percent (12.8 percent return on equity).

We believe that the record in this present proceeding establishes a zone of reasonableness within which falls the settlement proposal's rate of return. We also believe that the proposed rate of return is appropriate particularly when sufficient weight is given to the effect of the trend of cost of capital in recent years on utility earnings rates, which we recently examined in Consolidated Gas Supply Corporation, Opinion No. 703, Docket RP71-77. Since the settlement proposal provides an appropriate and reasonable resolution of the issues raised in this proceeding, we find that it is in

The Commission finds. Approval of the proposed settlement agreement is just and reasonable in the public interest in carrying out the provisions of the Federal Power Act.

(B) Within 30 days from the date of this order. Northern States shall file with the Commission revised tariff sheets in conformity with the terms of the settlement agreements herein approved.

(C) Within 30 days of the filing of the revised tariff sheets, Northern States shall refund to its customers the difference between the amounts collected since October 1, 1973, under the rates currently in effect and the amount which would have been collected under the proposed settlement rates, with interest at 7 percent per annum.

(D) Northern States shall file with the Commission, concurrently with the refunds ordered in Paragraph (C), a schedule of such refunds.

[Docket No. RP72-154; PGA 75-41 NORTHWEST PIPELINE CORP. Change in Rates Pursuant to Purchased Gas Cost Adjustment

FEBRUARY 20, 1975.

Take notice that Northwest Pipeline Corp. (Northwest), on February 14, 1975, tendered for filing a proposed change in rates applicable to service rendered under rate schedules affected by and subject to Article 16, Purchased Gas Cost Adjust-ment Provision ("PGAC"), contained in its FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. I. Northwest states that such change in rates is for the purpose of compensating Northwest for (1) increases in the cost of purchased gas which will become effective on or before March 31, 1975; (2) producer increases for the period June 21, 1974 through March 31, 1975 as provided in Opinion No. 699-H; and (3) interest cost attributable to unrecovered pur-ton import point for the period November 1-17, 1974.

Specifically, Northwest states, the current PGAC adjustment aggregates an increase of .726¢ per therm in all rate schedules contained in Northwest's Original Volume No. 1 Tariff. The annualized increase in Northwest's purchased gas costs aggregates $15,169,272. In addition, Northwest will recover, through a surcharge, the balance of $7,289,959 in its Account 191 as of December 31, 1974, the producer increases allowed under Opinion No. 699-H amounting to $652,250, and an interest cost of $239,000 for the period November 1-17, 1974, in which Northwest was not allowed to track increased purchased gas costs from its Canadian supplier at Sumas, Washington. The proposed change in rates would increase revenues from jurisdictional sales and service by $23,156,659.

Northwest is concurrently filing, pursu-Commission order ant to issued March 29, 1974 at Docket No. RP74-72, a notice of change in rates applicable to section 13.4. Both the PGAC Adjustment and Demand Charge Credits Adjustment are reflected on the tendered Seventh Revised Sheet No. 10, which is proposed to become effective on April 1.

OTC Margin Stock List

Regulation U, there is set forth below a supplement to the list of stocks traded over-the-counter, current as of February 24, 1975, that the Board of Governors has found that meet the criteria specified above and thus have the degree of national investor interest, the depth, breadth of market, and the availability of information respecting the stock and its issuer to warrant subjecting such stocks to the requirements of Regulations G, T, and U, and Regulation X, 12 CFR Part 224, which makes Regulations G, T, and U applicable to borrowers of securities credit.

It is unlawful for any person to make, or cause to be made, any representation that the inclusion of a security on the OTC Margin Stock List is evidence that the Board has in any way passed upon the merits of, or given approval to, such security or any transaction therein.

The requirements of 5 U.S.C. 553 with respect to notice and public participation were not followed in connection with the issuance of this supplement to the list because following such requirements is unnecessary due to the objective character of the criteria for inclusion on the list, specified in 12 CFR 207.5 (d) and (e), 220.8 (h) and (i), and 221.4 (d) and (e). No additional useful information would be gained by public participation. The requirements of 5 U.S.C. 553 with respect to deferred effective date have not been followed in connection with the issuance of this supplement to the list, because following such requirements would allow speculators to reap unfair profits and would not aid other persons affected thereby.

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON REACTOR SAFEGUARDS

Meeting

In accordance with the purposes of sections 29 and 182 b. of the Atomic Energy Act (42 U.S.C. 2039, 2232 b.), the Advisory Committee on Reactor Safeguards' Fast Flux Test Facility (FFTF) Subcommittee will hold a meeting on March 14 and 15, 1975 in Arena #1 and #2 rooms of the Sheraton Inn-Denver Airport, 3535 Quebec Street, Denver, Colorado for the purpose of obtaining information to aid the continuing ACRS review of the project.

The following constitutes that portion of the Subcommittee's agenda for the above meeting which will be open to the public:

SATURDAY, MARCH 15, 1975—8 A.M. UNTIL THE CONCLUSION OF BUSINESS

The Subcommittee will hear presentations by representatives of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission Staff and the Energy Research and Development Administration and its contractors, and will discuss with these participants matters pertinent to the current status of the FFTF project and related research, the proposed post accident heat removal system, the hypothetical core disruptive accident, development and analytical programs and plans and schedules for future work required to accomplish the objectives for the construction and operation of this facility.

In connection with the above agenda item, the Subcommittee may hold Executive Sessions, not open to the public, at 8 p.m. on March 14, 1975 and at the end of the day on March 15, 1975 to consider matters relating to the above project. These sessions will involve discussion of preliminary views and will consist of an exchange of opinions and recommendations of Subcommittee members and consultants and internal deliberations for the purpose of formulating recommendations to the ACRS.

I have determined, in accordance with subsection 10(d) of Pub. L. 92–463, that the executive sessions at the beginning and end of the meeting will consist of an exchange of opinions and formulation of recommendations, the discussion of which, if written, would fall within exemption (5) of 5 U.S.C. 552(b). Further, any non-exempt material that will be discussed during the above closed sessions will be inextricably intertwined with exempt material, and no further separation of this material is considered practical. It is essential to close such porinterchange of internal views and to avoid undue interference with Committee operation.

Practical considerations may dictate alterations in the above agenda or sched-

tions of the meeting to protect the free

The Chairman of the Subcommittee is empowered to conduct the meeting in a manner that, in his judgment, will facilitate the orderly conduct of business.

With respect to public participation in the open portion of the meeting, the following requirements shall apply:

Such comments shall be based upon documents which are on file and available for public inspection at the Nuclear Regulatory Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street, NW, Washington, D.C. 20555.

(b) Those persons submitting a written statement in accordance with paragraph (a) above may request an opportunity to make oral statements concerning the written statement. Such requests shall accompany the written statement and shall set forth reasons justifying the need for such oral statement and its usefulness to the Subcommittee. To the extent that the time available for the meeting permits, the Subcommittee will receive oral statements during a period of no more than 30 minutes at an appropriate time, chosen by the Chairman of the Subcommittee, between the hours of 10:30 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. on March 15, 1975.

(c) Requests for the opportunity to make oral statements shall be ruled on by the Chairman of the Subcommittee who is empowered to apportion the time available among those selected by him to make oral statements.

(d) Information as to whether the meeting has been cancelled or rescheduled and in regard to the Chairman's ruling on requests for the opportunity to present oral statements, and the time allotted, can be obtained by a prepaid telephone call on March 13, 1975 to the Advisory Committee on Reactor Safeguards (telephone 202-634-1371) between 8:15 a.m. and 5 p.m., Eastern Time.

(e) Questions may be propounded only by members of the Subcommittee and its onsultants.

(f) Seating for the public will be available on a first-come, first-served basis,

ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON REACTOR SAFEGUARDS' HYPOTHETICAL CORE DISRUPTIVE ACCIDENT (HCDA) WORK-ING GROUP

Meeting

In accordance with the purposes of sections 29 and 182 b. of the Atomic Energy Act (42 U.S.C. 2039, 2232 b.), the Advisory Committee on Reactor Safeguards' Working Group on HCDA will hold a meeting on March 14, 1975 in Arena #1 and #2 rooms of the Sheraton Inn-Denver Airport, 3535 Quebec Street, Denver, Colorado.

The purpose of the meeting will be to discuss the VENUS and PAD Computer Codes being developed by Argonne National Laboratory and Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory, respectively. The VENUS Code is a two-dimensional, hydrodynamics code for calculating dynamic behavior of an LMFBR core during a super prompt-critical disassembly excursion. The PAD Code is a one-dimensional neutronics - hydrodynamics code which describes the behavior of a fast reactor subjected to a large reactivity addition with an accompanying relatively short period.

The following constitutes that portion of the Working Group's agenda for the above meeting which will be open to the public:

FRIDAY, MARCH 14, 1975, 9 A.M.-4 P.M.

Presentations will be made on the various aspects of the VENUS and PAD Computer Codes. Discussions with representatives of the Argonne National Laboratory, the Energy Research and Development Administration, the Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory, and the Nuclear Regulatory Commission Staff.

In connection with the above agenda, the Working Group will hold executive sessions prior to, and at the close of, the public session, which will involve a discussion of its preliminary views, and exchange of opinions of the Working Group members, and internal deliberations and formulation of recommendations to the ACRS.

I have determined, in accordance with subsection 10(d) of Pub. L. 92-463, that the executive sessions at the beginning and end of the meeting will consist of an exchange of opinions and formulation of recommendations, the discussion of which, if written, would fall within exemption (5) of 5 U.S.C. 552(b). Further, any non-exempt material that will be discussed during the above closed sessions will be inextricably intertwined with exempt material, and no further separation of this material is considered practical. It is essential to close such portions of the meeting to protect the free interchange of internal views and to avoid undue interference with Working Group operation.

Practical considerations may dictate alterations in the above agenda or schedule.

The Chairman of the Working Group is empowered to conduct the meeting in a manner that, in his judgment, will facilitate the orderly conduct of business.

With respect to public participation in the open portion of the meeting, the following requirements shall apply:

(a) Persons wishing to submit written statements regarding the agenda items may do so by mailing 25 copies thereof, postmarked no later than March 7, 1975, to the Executive Secretary, Advisory Committee on Reactor Safeguards, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20555. Such comments shall be based upon documents which are on file and available for public inspection at the Nuclear Regulatory Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20555.

(b) Those persons submitting a written statement in accordance with paragraph (a) above may request an opportunity to make oral statements concerning the written statement. Such requests shall accompany the written statement and shall set forth reasons justifying the need for such oral statement and its usefulness to the Working Group. To the extent that the time available for the meeting permits, the Working Group will receive oral statements during a period of no more than 30 minutes at an appropriate time, chosen by the Chairman of the Working Group, between the hours of 1:30 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. on March 14, 1975.

(c) Requests for the opportunity to make oral statements shall be ruled on by the Chairman of the Working Group who is empowered to apportion the time available among those selected by him to make oral statements.

(d) Information as to whether the meeting has been cancelled or rescheduled and in regard to the Chairman's ruling on requests for the opportunity to present oral statements, and the time allotted, can be obtained by a prepaid telephone call on March 12, 1975 to the Advisory Committee on Reactor Safeguards (telephone 202/634-1371) between 8:15 a.m. and 5 p.m., Eastern Time.

(e) Questions may be propounded only by members of the Working Group and its consultants.

(f) Seating for the public will be available on a first-come, first-served basis.

(g) The use of still, motion picture, and television cameras, the physical installation and presence of which will not interfere with the conduct of the meeting, will be permitted both before and after the meeting and during any recess. The use of such equipment will not, however, be allowed while the meeting is in session.

DAVIS-BESSE POWER STATION (UNITS 2 & 3), TOLEDO EDISON COMPANY, ET AL., NEC DOCKET NOS. 50-500A AND 50-501A

You have requested our advice pursuant to the provisions of Section 105 of the Atomic Energy Act, as amended, in regard to the above-cited application.

I. The Applicants. Units 2 and 3 of the Davis-Besse Nuclear Power Station will be located at the site of the Davis-Besse Nuclear Power Station, Unit 1, in north-central Ohio on the shore of Lake Erie, approximately 21 miles east of the City of Toledo. Each of the two units will have an output of 906 mw. The units will be jointly owned by the following investor-owned utilities: The Cleveland Electric Illuminating Company (24.47 percent), Duquesne Light Company (13.74 percent), Ohio Edison Company (35.60 percent), Pennsylvania Power Company (6.28 percent), and The Toledo Edison Company (19.91 percent). The total estimated cost of the units at completion will be $1,219 million. Unit 2 is scheduled to go into operation between 1981 and 1982; Unit 3, between 1982 and 1983. The units will be constructed and operated on behalf of the Applicants by The Toledo Edison Company.

Duquesne Light Company ("Duquesne") is an investor-owned integrated electric utility which serves an 800 square mile area in the northwestern part of Pennsylvania which has a population of approximately 1,600,000 people. At present, Duquesne supplies the fuil bulk power requirements of one municipal electric utility. In 1973, Duquesne's total electric operating revenues were in excess of $241,753,000; the company has a net generating capacity of 2,518 mw.

Ohio Edison Company ("Ohio Edison") is a fully integrated investor-owned utility serving an area approximately 7,400 square miles with a population of approximately 2,337,000 people in central and northeastern Ohio. Ohio Edison's net generating capacity is 3,658 mw; it supplies the full bulk power requirements of 20 municipal electric ties. In 1973, Ohio Edison and its subsidiaries had electric operating revenues in excess of 8383,238,000.

Pennsylvania Power Company ("PPC"), a subsidiary of Ohio Edison, provides electrical service throughout an area of approximately 1,500 square miles in western Pennsylvania which has a population of 324,000 people. PPC supplies the full bulk power requirements of five municipal systems. In 1973, PPC had operating revenues of $53,201,000 and a net generating capacity of 608 mw.

The Cleveland Electric Illuminating Company ("CEI") is a fully integrated investor-owned utility which serves an area in and surrounding the City of Cleveland of ap-proximately 1,700 square miles which has a population of approximately 2,100,000 people. CEI does not provide fuil or partial requirements wholesale electric service to any municipal or cooperative electric utility. In 1973, CEI had electric operating revenues in excess of $322,931,000 and a net generation capacity of 4,000 mw.

The Toledo Edison Company ("Toledo Edison") is a fully integrated investor-owned electric utility serving an area of 2,500 square miles, including the City of Toledo and territory to the west, south and east thereof, with a population of approximately 719,000 people. Toledo Edison supplies the full bulk power requirements of 15 municipal electric utilities and the partial bulk power requirements of one such system at wholesale. In 1973, Toledo Edison had electric operating revenues of $126,415,000 and a net generating capacity of 1,046 mw.
II. The CAPCO Pool. The Applicants are all members of a five-company power pool, known as CAPCO, which was organized in 1967. CAPCO provides the framework within which the members coordinate their operations, interchange power and share reserves. Generation and associated transmission facilities for the CAPCO members are planned on the basis of the requirements of the pool as a single system. The Davis-Besse Nuclear Power Station, Units 2 and 3, as well as certain other nuclear facilities subto NRC (formerly AEC) licensing,1 are nuclear generating units jointly planned and constructed by members of CAPCO to meet these requirements. The CAPCO members serve approximately two million customers within a 14,000 square mile area in northern Ohio and western Pennsylvania.

III. Competitive Considerations, Two of the Applicants, CEI and Toledo Edison, have made three previous applications on which the Department was requested to render antitrust advice: Davis-Besse Unit 1, Beaver Valley, and Perry; the other Appli-cants here were parties to the latter two applications. The Davis-Besse Unit 1 and Perry applications are presently the subjects of a consolidated proceeding before an NRC Atomic Safety and Licensing Board.

In the course of the Department's in-quiries concerning Applicants' activities, we received additional evidence that each of the Applicants has engaged in anticompetitive activities.2

At the present time in the electric power industry, all electric utilities have recognized the importance of obtaining access to the lowest cost electric generating facilities and of increasing system reliability, without substantially increasing costs. The principal instruments for achieving these goals have been interconnection, reserve sharing, and other types of coordination with other systems. uch coordinated operation almost invariably also includes the purchase and sale of economy energy and the wheeling of bulk power. While such coordinated operation and development is commonly effectuated through the mechanism of a multi-utility power pool, agreements between individual utilities sometimes provide the basis for some aspects of such coordination. A small utility which is denied the benefits of coordinated operation and development cannot effectively compete with larger systems, which can and do, engage in such activities. There is reason to believe that Applicants have engaged in a continuing course of anticompetitive conduct which forecloses third parties from membership in the CAPCO Pool and from participation in the benefits of coordinated operation and development with pool members. This conduct is discussed below.

A. Access to the CAPCO Pool

As indicated above, the Applicants utilize the CAPCO Pool as a vehicle for coodinated operation and development of bulk power supply. On several occasions, smaller utilities have attempted to seek access to the benefits flowing from Pool membership. These attempts have been uniformly rejected by the Applicants.

In 1968, the Borough of Pitcairn, Pennsylvania, a smali municipal electric system, requested of each of the Applicants that it be admitted to membership in the CAPCO Pool. Each of the Applicants, save CEI, expressly refused this request; CEI never responded. Pitcairn has never become a member of CAPCO. In addition, in 1973, the City of ² This evidence involved certain additional matters which were not known to the Department at the times when it previously rendered antitrust advice with respect to the Applicants or at the time the issues were framed by the Atomic Safety and Licensing Board in the pending Perry proceeding.

Cleveland sought to become a member of the CAPCO Pool. Duquesne and CEI explicitly refused to allow Cleveland to join the pool. The other applicants did not respond to Cleveland's request. Since unanimous approval of all CAPCO members would be required for a new member to join the Pool, Cleveland's participation was blocked.

These refusals to allow other utilities to join CAPCO clearly have an adverse impact upon the smaller utilities' sbiffity to compete with CAPCO members. Taken together with Applicant's activities outlined below, they represent a foreclosure of any opportunity to engage in coordinated operation and in the joint development of large-scale generating resources.

B. Other Refusals to Engage in Coordinated Operation

Our review has disclosed that when the CAPCO members have been requested to establish interconnections with smaller systems and to engage in coordinated operation with them on a bilateral basis, CAPCO members have generally refused to do so. In view of their collective refusals to allow amali systems to obtain interconnection and coordination benefits via CAPCO pool membership, we believe that the Commission should determine whether the CAPCO members in their purported individual actions are in fact extending their boycott of the smaller systems.

Duqueene appears to have frustrated Pitesirn's attempts to engage in coordinated operations with Duqueene over a long period. Pitesirn asserts that prior to 1968, Duqueene refused to sell or exchange bulk power with Pitesirn on terms comparable to those on which Duqueene dealt with larger utilities.

which Duquesne dealt with larger utilities. CET's dealings with smaller utilities raise serious questions as to the extent to which it has foreclosed its direct competitors, the Cities of Painesville and Cleveland, from receiving the benefits of coordinated operation. (Painesville attempted to negotiate an interconnection agreement with CEI for over five years; such an agreement was finally executed on January 13, 1975.) Although CEI never directly refused to allow Painesville to engage in interconnection plus coordinated operation with the Company, CEI's practice of conducting prolonged negotiations had the effect of preventing the timely effectuation of the requested coordination. Similarly, CEI resisted Cleveland's attempts over a number of years to conclude an interconnection agreement comparable to those which CEI maintains with other electric utilities. CEI's course of conduct in these and other respects has had the cumulative effect of significantly weakening the ability of the City to compete with the Company.

C. Other Refusals to Engage in Coordinated Development of Generating Resources
There is evidence that attempts by the Napoleon municipal system to join with Toledo Edison in coordinated development of generating resources, and particularly in the large-scale generating resources which are most economical, were frustrated. The Cleveland municipal system has sought to obtain participation in various of CEI's nuclear generating projects. Although CEI has not flatly refused such participation, there has been a pattern of lengthy negotiation without agreement comparable to the pattern of interconnection discussions.

D. Refusals to Wheel Bulk Power
Each of the CAPCO members is clearly dominant in the ownership of transmission facilities and in the transmission of bulk power in the respective areas in which they do business. Collectively, they are dominant in the transmission of bulk power in their combined service areas. Thus, any smaller utility located within one of these areas must secure access to the Applicant-owned transmission network which surrounds it in order to engage in any meaningful type of continuing descriptions or development.

ordinated operations or development. Within the last few years and at the present time, Ohio Edison is alleged to have made unreasonable demands concerning the establishment of four new delivery points pursuant to an Ohio Power Company Ohio Edison contract under which Ohio Power Company transmitted bulk power on behalf of Buckeye Power, Inc. for its member cooperatives; Ohio Edison's practices have reportedly necessitated the construction of substantial transmission facilities at Buckeye's expense.

Two municipal systems (Bryan and Napoleon, Ohio) in Toledo Edison's area have separately alieged that in the period from 1970 through 1972, Toledo Edison repeatedly refused to wheel bulk power which was available to each of these municipal systems from Buckeye. In each case, Toledo Edison had been supplying the municipals with bulk power and the refusal to wheel prevented Buckeye from competing with Toledo Edison for a wholesale customer.

Since 1973 CEI has continually refused to wheel power from the Power Authority of the State of New York to the City of Cleveland. The asserted ground for this refusal has been that the City's access to low-cost government power would enable it to undercut CEI in their retail competition. CEI is now exploring means of acquiring the city sys-

E. Territorial Allocation

Toledo Edison and Ohio Power Company have allegedly entered a wholesale territorial allocation agreement which eliminates any competition between the two companies in supplying bulk power to municipal systems for resale.

IV. Legal Principles. The types of activities outlined above, including refusals to allow participation by others in CAPCO, refusals to engage in coordinated development with others, and refusals to allow meaningful access to vital facilities, must be considered under the antitrust principle requiring those who control an essential resource to grant access on equal and nondiscriminatory terms to all others engaged in the given business. See, e.g., United States v. Terminal R.R. Ass'n, 224 U.S. 383 (1912); Associated Press v. United States, 328 U.S. 1 (1945); Gamco, Inc. v. Providence Fruit & Produce Bidg., 194 F. 2d 484 (1st Cir. 1952), cert. denied 344 U.S. 817 (1952). As we have indicated in past advice letters, this principle applies to bulk power supply arrangements. United States v. Otter Tail Power Co., 331 F. Supp. 54 (D. Minn. 1971), aff'd 410 U.S. 366 (1973).

The Applicants' refusals to wheel power, to interconnect and to energy in coordinated.

The Applicants' refusals to wheel power, to interconnect and to engage in coordinated operation with smaller utilities raise problems which should be considered in the perspective of their monopoly control of the transmission facilities surrounding the smaller systems of their competitors. Anti-trust principies have evolved which place distinct limits upon a supplier's exercise of monopoly power at one level of distribution to adversely affect competition at another level. The District Court in United States v. Otter Tail Power Co., supra, clearly held that a utility could not use the power deri-ed from a lawful monopoly at the bulk power supply level (in that case a monopoly of subtransmission facilities) to impair competition at the retail level.

V. Conclusion. Based upon our review, the Department of Justice concludes that the conduct described above, if supported by evidence to be produced at a hearing, would constitute a situation inconsistent with the antitrust laws. Construction and operation of the Davis-Besse Nuclear Power Station, Units 2 and 3, and marketing of its power output would maintain such an anticompetitive situation, Granting the Heense applied for without adequate antitrust conditions will generate new opportunities for the Applicants to engage in coordinated operation with each other and will provide them with a new source of relatively low-cost power and energy at the same time they are effectively foreclosing any possibility of their competitors sharing in the benefits of coordinated operation and development. Extensive discussions have been held between Applicants and the Department, but there is no indication that they are willing to remedy the anticompetitive situation which appears to exist. White a number of the allegations of restrictive conduct outlined above are presently being examined by the Commission in the Perry proceeding, others are beyond the presently established scope of that proceeding. Accordingly, the Department of Justice recommends that the Commission hold an antitrust hearing concerning the conduct and policies of each of the Applicants in the respects referred to above.

RAILWAY ASSOCIATION

[USRA Docket No. 75-70]

PENN CENTRAL TRANSPORTATION CO.

Proposed Interim Abandonment of a Branch

The Trustees in Bankruptcy of the Penn Central Transportation Company (Olean Branch, Sixteenth St. Track) (Cattaraugus County, New York) ("Penn Central") propose to abandon the Olean Branch, Sixteenth St. Track, a line of railroad in Cattaraugus County, New York, and have made a request to the United States Railway Association ("USRA") for the authorization required for that purpose under section 304(f) of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 ("the Act"), Pub. L. 93-236.

Section 304(f) provides:

"After [January 2, 1974], no railroad in reorganization may discontinue service or abandon any line of a railroad other than in accordance with the provisions of [the Act], unless it is authorized to do so by the Association and unless no affected State or local or regional transportation authority reasonably opposes such action, notwithstanding any provision of any other Federal Law, the constitution or law of any State, or decision or order of or the pendency of any proceeding before any Federal or State court, agency, or authority."

The Olean Branch, Sixteenth St. Track sought to be abandoned extends from Valuation Station 9+15 to Valuation Station 68+20, a distance of 1.1 miles, all in the City of Olean, Cattaraugus County, New York.

There are no stations on the line. In support of its request, Penn Central asserts that:

(1) The line is in poor condition. Continued use of the line would require considerable restoration and renewal work due to progressive wear and tear.

(2) The Olean School Board seeks to purchase railroad right of way in connection with the construction of a new school. (3) The volume of traffic has decreased drastically over the past couple of years.

(4) Alternate rail service in the future will be provided by applicant's team track on its mainline through Olean and by a line of the Erle-Lackawanna Railway serving Olean.

(5) The area is amply served by motor common carriers, as well as by private carriers which will also adequately accommodate any demand for freight service in the area.

(6) No passenger service is provided on the line involved.

(7) The line is not operated as a joint facility.

The request is accompanied by exhibits providing more detailed information.

To assist USRA in its analysis and disposition of this request, all affected or interested parties are invited to submit written statements, views, arguments or comments either favoring or opposing the discontinuance proposal.

Any such submissions must identify, by its Docket No., the request to which it relates, and must be filed with the Docket Clerk, United States Railway Association, Room 2222, Trans Point Building, 2100 Second Street SW., Washington, D.C. 20595, by April 1, 1975, to enable timely consideration by USRA. The docket containing the original application and all submissions received shall be available for public inspection at that address, at the offices of the New York State Department of Transportation, Room 313, 1220 Washington Avenue, Albany, New York, between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m., at the Division Superintendent's Office, Penn Central Transportation Company, Room 204, Penn Central Terminal, 495 Paderewski Drive, Buffalo, New York 14212, at the Division Superintendent's Office, Penn Central Transportation Company, Union Station, 325 East Main Street, Utica, New York, both between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, and at the General Manager's Office, Penn Central Transportation Company, Room 408, 466 Lexington Avenue, New York, New York, between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m.

In addition to this publication, Penn Central, shall by March 1, 1975, furnish a copy of this notice and invitation for written submission, to know shippers on the Olean Branch, Sixteenth St. Track, sought to be abandoned, to each creditor holding an obligation secured by that property, and to each labor union whose members are employed on that part of its line. It shall also post and prominently display a copy of this notice at each station along the line, continually during the period from March 1, 1975 to April 1,

This action is taken pursuant to section 304(f) of the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973, Pub. L. 93-236.

The Association will consider the application in the light of the public comments received and the requirements and purposes of the Act before making a decision. The Association will deny any application which a State or local or regional transportation authority reasonably opposes, or where the authorization requested is inconsistent with the requirements and purposes of the Act; it will grant the application if that action is consistent with the requirements and purposes of the Act.

(NOTICE NO. 16)

MOTOR CARRIER, BROKER, WATER CAR-RIER AND FREIGHT FORWARDER AP-PLICATIONS

FEBRUARY 21, 1975.

The following applications (except as otherwise specifically noted, each applicant (on applications filed after March 27, 1972) states that there will be no significant effect on the quality of the human environment resulting from approval of its application), are governed by Special Rule 1100.247 of the Commission's general rules of practice (49 CFR, as amended), published in the Federal Register issue of April 20, 1966, effective May 20, 1966. These rules provide, among other things, that a protest to the granting of an application must be filed with the Commission within 30 days after date of notice of filing of the application is published in the Federal Register. Failure seasonably to file a protest will be construed as a waiver of opposition and participation in the proceeding. A protest under these rules should comply with section 247(d)(3) of the rules of practice which requires that it set forth specifically the grounds upon which it is made, contain a detailed statement of protestant's interest in the proceeding (including a copy of the specific portions of its authority which protestant believes to be in conflict with that sought in the application, and describing in detail the method-whether by joinder, interline, or other meansby which protestant would use such authority to provide all or part of the service proposed), and shall specify with particularity the facts, matters, and things relied upon, but shall not include issues or allegations phrased generally. Protests not in reasonable compliance with the requirements of the rules may be rejected. The original and one (1) copy of the protest shall be filed with the Commission, and a copy shall be served concurrently upon applicant's representative, or applicant if no representative is named. If the protest includes a request for oral hearing, such requests shall meet the requirements of section 247(d) (4) of the special rules, and shall include the certification required therein.

Section 247(f) of the Commission's rules of practice further provides that each applicant shall, if protests to its application have been filed, and within 60 days of the date of this publication, notify the Commission in writing (1) that it is ready to proceed and prosecute the application, or (2) that it wishes to withdraw the application, failure in which the application will be dismissed by the Commission.

Further processing steps (whether modified procedure, oral hearing, or other procedures) will be determined generally in accordance with the Commission's general policy statement concerning motor carrier licensing procedures, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of May 3, 1966. This assignment will be by Commission order which will be served on each party of record. Broadening amendments will not be accepted after the date of this publication except for good cause shown, and restrictive amendments will not be entertained following publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of a notice that the proceeding has been assigned for oral hearing.
