SUBJECT: Illegal Remittances from China

1. Reference is Memorandum for the Imperial Japanese Government from General Headquarters, Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers, AG 091.3(22 Sep 45)ESS, dated 22 September 1945, subject: Controls over Exports and Imports of Gold, Silver, Securities and Financial Instruments.

2. Information received by the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers indicates that a Mr. Fukuta Kazuzo, on 29 September 1945 and 19 December 1945, purchased demand drafts from the Tsingtao, China Branch of the Yokohama Specie Bank, in the amount of F.R.B. $1,000,000 and F.R.B. $7,670,000 respectively. These drafts were subsequently imported into Japan and presented for payment by Mr. Kazuzo at the Osaka Branch of the Yokohama Specie Bank. The importation into Japan of these drafts constitutes a violation of the provisions of the Memorandum referenced in paragraph 1 above.

3. The Imperial Japanese Government is hereby directed to seize the above mentioned draft against receipt and hold in safe custody pending further directions from the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers.

4. A report, indicating compliance with the instructions contained herein and the means by which these drafts were imported into Japan, will be submitted to the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers within thirty days from the date of this memorandum.

MEMORANDUM FOR: IMPERIAL JAPANESE GOVERNMENT

THROUGH: Central Liaison Office, Tokyo

SUBJECT: Surrender of Foreign Exchange Assets

1. Reference is Memorandum for the Imperial Japanese Government from General Headquarters, Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers, AG 123(6 Oct 45)ESS, (SCAPIN 96), dated 6 October 1945, subject: Report of Foreign Exchange Assets and related matters.

2. The Imperial Japanese Government will take immediate and appropriate action in conformance with directions contained herein to require all persons within Japan, except non-Japanese nationals, to surrender to the Bank of Japan against individual receipt all foreign currencies, including Bank of Chosen and Bank of Taiwan notes, and foreign exchange instruments. Foreign currencies and foreign exchange instruments surrendered will be placed in special custody by the Bank of Japan for ultimate disposition by the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers. The term "persons" shall include Koreans, Formosans, and any individual, partnership associations, corporations, or other Japanese organizations including the national and local governments, political subdivisions, agencies or instrumentalities thereof.

3. Japanese military notes, Central Reserve Bank of China, Federal Reserve Bank of China, Southern Regions Development Bank, Bank of Mongolia and Bank of Manchou notes are excepted from the surrender program.

4. After 31 December 1946, possession of foreign currencies and foreign exchange instruments by all persons in Japan, except non-Japanese nationals, will be declared unlawful. Such items will be confiscated and penalty imposed upon the offender.

5. The Imperial Japanese Government is directed to obligate the Bank of Japan to issue against each surrender transaction of foreign currencies and foreign exchange instruments individual receipts similar to Form CPC/A and CPC/B, submitted herewith. Two (2) copies of each receipt issued

THROUGH : Central Liaison Office, Tokyo

SUBJECT : Remittances from United States to Japan

1. The United States Government has established special remittance facilities from the United States to Japan primarily for the use of charitable and religious organizations. The dollar proceeds of such remittances will be available for payment of essential imports into Japan and other approved purposes.

2. The following procedure has been established for effecting such remittances to Japan:

a. Funds in United States dollars will be accepted for remittance to Japan and will be deposited with the United States Secretary of Treasury in a special account in the name of the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers. Advice of deposits will be forwarded to Japan and will include all pertinent information necessary to locate, properly identify, and effect payments to the remittee in Japan.

b. The Bank of Japan, as Fiscal Agent for the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers, will make payment to the remittee in yen at the prevailing military conversion rate to the debit of the "Special Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers' Account for Remittances from the United States."

3. At the close of each month the Bank of Japan will submit a statement in triplicate to the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers showing:

a. Total yen amount of remittances effected under the above procedure prior to the month covered by the report.

b. List of individual remittances effected during the month covered by the report.
