TRUESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 20, 1005 To one course supplement. We had leave to deform

A mosting of the N A Association has been convoked for this evening. We beg that the public will seriously consider the abject of this moticity, which has avowedly in view the conventional disfranchisement of a large portion of our most neeful cidzenes and we trust that those who have unconactionally been led into the saure prepared for them, will do themselves and the public an act of justice by withdrawing altegether from it.

This we learn has already been the case with Judge Sham burg and others, who had mistaken the objects of this un" constitutional and illegal society. But, we regret to find that Drs McCarlene and Pearles still continue their allegiance to the distance of those whose sinister schemes of pecuniary and elentioneering tactics may lead to the greatest enormities of officere. They cannot suppose that naturalized citizens are more indifferent to their constitutional privilege than they themselver; and that those will tarnely or placidly submit to any violation of them in the conventional manhet proposed by that association. Nor can they believe that the hostile appearance evinced by themselves against naturalised cirizens, can produce any influence on the national legislature in procuring a repeal of the present terms of naturalizat tion in our laws; and if not, they must be aware that they ously subject themselves to the adjum of the more in elligent of native Americans who understand the principles of our constitutional government; and to the hatred or suspicion of those whose privileges as naturalized citizens the would arbitrarily violate. A dominearing oppression of this kind cannot lightly be regarded.

We may remonstrate for the present with Dr McFarland He is a native of South Carolina; and can scarcely be ignorant of the noble conduct of Carolinians during the conterconcerning the alien and sedition laws-which he is now colicitous to enforce. He cannot but be aware of the friendly feeling always evinced by South Carolinians to naturalize citizens -- some of whom, like Dr Thomas Cooper, occupy distinguished stations in that state; and he can scarcely b ignorant that the fast war with England was greatly in protection of the naturalized citizens of this country. No can he forget that the negociation with that country since that period on the part of the American minister at the cour of St James, has been principally on the rights of naturalized citizens in our naval service. Surely then he cannot be in norant that the rights and privileges of universitized citizens form a subject of the utmost importance to the nation; and here can invalidate such claims on the public.

And we believe the doctor is a democratic republican. If so, does he not know that the defaceracy of the nation has invariably been in favor of the privileges of naturalised

But as the city costnoid is talled upon to admit the claim of the Designdes, and to enter into what is politely called a compromise; and thus waive the rights of the public to a large and valuable portion of lands devoted to public purposes—lands which if in market would be worth $3,000,000—it is becoming that a free and orient discussions hould take place.
