THE LEGISLATURE.

Tureday, Jan. 6th, 1835. IN SENATE. The senate convened at II o'clock; and the journal of the proceedings of the previous day having been read, the clerk of the chamber informed the senate that the chamber of representatives had appointed four of their members (whose names are given elsewhere) to form a joint committee with that appointed yesterday by the senate to make preparations to celebrate the 6th day of January next. On motion of Mr. Nichotas, it was resolved, That the senators meet at I o'clock, in the chamber of representatives, to elect the governor. Mr. Moons, from St. Helena, requested that the senste would permit him to break through the usual formalities and introduce a hill repealing so much of the acts of March 20th, 1817, and of February 11th, 1825, which ordered that the appointments of the state of seers should be made in the 3d Monday in January; and substituting the 2d Monday of F, breary. This bill is in conformity with the recommendation of the governor to his message, (as faid yester. day in extense before our readers;) and the hon; sensor said that the change denoted had his hearty concurrence and would rectify the anomaly of the executive govern

The bill was read for the first time, and committed for a ferond readingsto-morrow. During an intermediate recess, Mr. Pitot appeared three resolutions from the chamber—the first agreeing to the time and place appointed to ballot for governor; the second secommending that both bouses meet together on Wednesday (to-day) at 1 P. M. to elect a state printer; and the third that the joint committee appointed to celebrate the 9th of January, be instructed to assign a particular place in the procession on that day, and a peculiar badge of distinctions to the surviving heroes of the 23d of December, 1814, and the 8th of January, 1815. These resolutions were unanimously adopted. On motion of Mr. Hoa, it was resolved that that gor tion of the governor's message which refers to the drain ing of the swamp between New Orleans and lake Ponchartrain, be referred to a special committee of three members. After the election of governor, the members of the senate returned; and the president nominated Messrs. Hos. Nicholas and Labouve as the special committee to which was referred that part of the governor's message relating to the draining the swamps between this city and lake Ponchar-

Netwithstanding his goile was clearly showr, under the most agravating circumstances. the jury returned a verdict of and guilty. Upon which decaration loud burst of applause escaped from the audience, and the house for a few minutes recounded with the claps and stampings of the assembly. Some of the officers sprang without the bar and arrested one John Flanders, and one ther person named Joseph M. Ford, who stood at the time near the bench-shoth of whom were brenght to the har and put upon their outlies to answer for the offence. The fire named stated that he was not aware of having committed any impropriety, and did not know the regulations of the Court in this respect. Ford when called to answer stated that he was never in court before when a verdiet was declared, and seing others doing the same that was done by hin self, thought it proper. The Cou t under these c neiderations, and it being the first offence of the kind, ordered them to be discharged: At the same time Chief Justice Shaw remarked that any expression of applause or disapprobation made by any person present on the declaration of a verdict hereafter, would cause such measures to be taken against the offenders as the law provided. The prisoner was the incharged, and left the Court Room. The Attorney Generat then renewed his motion to have the remaining cases continued till the next term and urged so a reason the recent expression of the public feeling on the subject,-This was overfuled by the Court, and Marvis Mercy, Jr. Wm Maron,
