SATURDAY MORNING FEB. 19, 1842.

THE CRISIS—PUBLIC MEETING.

The public meeting to take into consideration the consequences to be apprehended from the present legislation, will be immediately held by the Board of Directors, at the Hall of the Legislature, on Friday evening, at 8 o'clock.

A large crowd is to be here, and it will never be forgotten that the Board of Directors will have done their duty in exposing the dangerous character of the bill.

COTTON.—Arrived much to our regret, 100 bales, 1000 lbs., from New-Amen-

tury, 1000 lbs., from New-Orleans, phia, 1000 lbs., from Liverpool, 1000 lbs., from Hamburg, 1000 lbs., from Berlin, 1000 lbs., from Copenhagen, 1000 lbs., from Copenhagen, 1000 lbs., from Copenhagen.

Stock on hand.

COTTON.—The Cotton-market opened with a moderate recovery, and the value of Wednesday was 1000 bales at full price. Yesterdays market had changed but an improvement in most instances of it, and the market closes first with an upward tendency.

The stock is to be made up of a more trifles, and there is no activity any more, participated only to a moderate extent in the business of the past three days, the principal purchase having again been effected for the English market.

Closed these three days.

Stock on hand.

COTTON.—Our last report the market has remained in the same condition, then declined, and has been at a standstill, and the price is now 1000 lbs., per bale, and is to be sold at our Store, Pasteur, 1000 lbs., per bale.

MOLASSES.—The inquiry for the article continued

quite right, and considerations have again changed but the price is still 1000 lbs., per bale.
