Anti-Reds Demand Petrograd Soviet Surrender the City.

If Not Given Up They Will Bombard It, They Declare; Reports Say No Food Trains Have Reached Russia From Siberia For a Month.

London, March 11.—Revolutionary authorities at the fortress of Kronstadt have sent an ultimatum to the Soviet authorities in Petrograd demanding the surrender of the city before March 25. If the city is not given up, the ultimatum declares, there will be a general bombardment, it is asserted in an Abo, Finland, dispatch to The London Times.

Wholesale arrests and executions of workmen are said to have occurred at Petrograd, Oranienbaum and Systerbak. London, March 11.—Trustworthy news from the interior of Russia shows that anti-Soviet revolts are spreading throughout the country. The food situation is becoming catastrophic, no food trains have reached the country from Siberia since February 11. The situation is made more serious through the congestion of the transport system. On the main railway from Perm to Volozda 300 trains are held up. It is announced, the dispatch adds, that 40,000 Communist troops are approaching Petrograd, but that their loyalty is doubted.

Heavy Fighting. The Nikolavsk railway station has been bombed by aeroplanes from Kronstadt. A Helsingfors message reports the anti-Soviet peasant leader, Antonoff, has badly defeated the Red troops in the Kursk region.

Railway Destroyed. Stockholm, March 11.—(Associated Press)—A dispatch from Terioki, Finland, says: "The fortress of Kronstadt Wednesday shelled and completely destroyed the railway to Petrograd."

The Communist congress opened in Moscow March 8 in depressed spirits. "There is an open demand that the Soviet Government change its economic and foreign policies."

London, March 11.—The Bolsheviks received reinforcements and commenced a vigorous offensive in the Petrograd region. Heavy losses, says a dispatch to The London Times from Riga to-day.

War Minister Trotsky ordered the entire Bolshevik southwest army to the aid of the commander in the second (concluded on page 4).

NATIONS' DELEGATES MEET IN BARCELONA

Conference on Communications and Transport

Barcelona, March 11.—Delegates of thirty-eight nations attending the international Conference on Communications and Transport, in session here, were preparing this morning to begin serious consideration of the programme outlined yesterday by Gabriel Hanotaux, of France, the president of the meeting. The most important matter before the meeting was the appointment of a committee to draft a pact relative to transport.

It will be an attempt to settle international controversies relative to railroads, waterways and ports.

Regret regarding the absence of delegates from the United States and Argentina was expressed by many delegates yesterday. M. Hanotaux referred to the United States, saying: "Our thoughts are with the absent."

German delegates have arrived to attend the conference, but will act only in a consultative capacity.

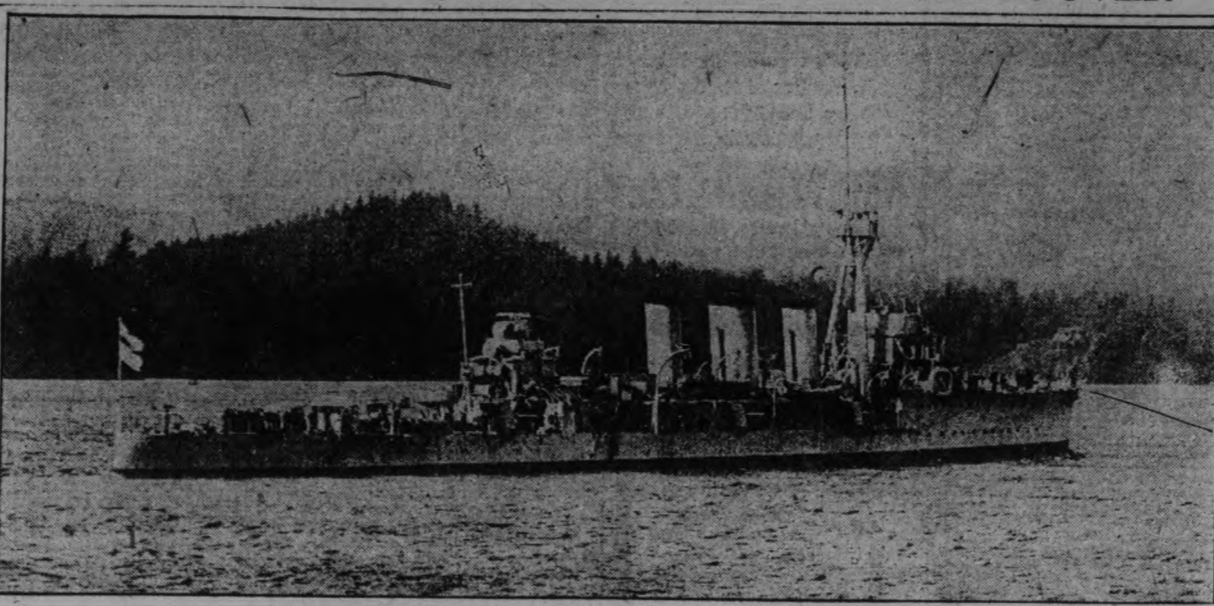

Los Angeles, March 11.—A merger of the Southern Pacific, the Rock Island and the El Paso & Southern Railroads is being considered, according to a statement by N. L. Amster, of Boston, a member of the board of directors of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad, made public here to-day. Mr. Amster said no formal proposal had been made by any of the lines. Southern Pacific officials here said they knew nothing of such a plan.

British to Investigate Importation of Cattle

London, March 11.—(Canadian Associated Press)—The British Government will institute an inquiry into the whole question of the importation of live cattle into the United Kingdom, both in its imperial and international aspects, according to information given the Canadian Associated Press. It is intended to rush the inquiry and have a report ready to be laid before the meeting of the Prime Ministers of the Empire to be held here in June.

The Daily News, a free trade paper, declares to-day that the only object in maintaining the cattle embargo is the ex-Minister of Agriculture admitted, to safeguard British breeders from the incognence of free competition. The embargo has been a device for foisting upon the nation a downright measure of protection under another name, the newspaper says.

CHINAMAN EXECUTED IN WYOMING TO-DAY

Rawlins, Wyo., March 11.—Yee Gow, a Chinese murderer, went to his death here early to-day with a smile on his face. Yee Gow was convicted of the murder of Thomas Holland at Cheyenne, September 10. Several requests for clemency were made to Governor Carey, who at the last moment appointed a committee of doctors to examine into his sanity. He was pronounced sane. He refused to make a statement.

REVENUE FIGHT ON IN EARNEST

Cities Plan Action if Petition to House Fails. The fight for more revenue for the cities and districts of British Columbia has started. F. A. McDiarmid, Parliamentary Agent for the Union of British Columbia Municipalities, arrived in Victoria to-day and made arrangements for the waging of vigorous contest among Members of the Legislature on behalf of the Union's taxation demands. In the first place, the municipalities are asking the Legislature for permission to appear before the bar of the House and present their case, but if this request is refused, it was learned to-day, the Union heads will renew their efforts in other directions.

Members of the Legislature this afternoon are considering the petition of the Union of B. C. Municipalities to be heard at the bar of the House. New Haven & Hartford Railroads, in the East, and virtually every railroad in the West, announced wage reductions yesterday.

Officials of various lines to-day were arranging conferences with employees in an effort to reach agreements on the proposed reductions. The plans affected only unskilled and semi-skilled labor. Men engaged in the actual operation of trains, telegraphers and station agents are not included.

New York, March 11.—A general move by railroads in the United States to cut war-time wage scales appeared to be in full swing to-day. Following the lead of several lines which earlier had announced cuts, the New York Central and New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroads, in the East, and virtually every railroad in the West, announced wage reductions yesterday.

Coal Dealers Are Granted No Rebates or Commissions

No rebates or discounts are allowed by the mines, Joshua Kingham and Dugald Gillespie, local dealers, informed Commissioner Henderson, K.C., at the Coal Inquiry this morning. A great deal more interest was shown in the inquiry this morning and it is likely that the sittings will have to be continued beyond to-day's sessions in order to hear all the evidence that will be offered.

Considerable argument was precipitated over the point raised by Gordon Duncan over the allowance claimed by the dealers for wastage, particularly in the cases of the dealers who were buying on the long ton basis from the mines and selling to the consumer on the short ton basis.

Experience of Mackay & Gillespie. Dugald Gillespie, of Mackay & Gillespie, told the Commission that his firm purchased on the long ton basis. The average cost per ton f. o. b. wharf Victoria was $8.95. Total expenses for handling and overhead amounted to $12.08 and which he claimed should be added 27 cents for loss in transit and shrinkage through storage, making the average all-round cost of coal $12.23, while the average all-round selling price for mix lump and slack was $12.73, giving an average net profit of 46 cents per ton.

If you buy meat from a butcher, you do not eat the meat and take the bones back to the butcher for a rebate, said Mr. Gillespie. "The coal business must be treated in much the same manner as any other business," he said.

Mr. Gillespie's firm handles about 12,000 tons of coal per annum. His firm and the Kirk Coal Company were the only people in Victoria handling the Ladysmith and Comox coal from the Canadian Collieries (Dunsmuir), Limited.

Not for Arbitration. Mr. Moore emphasized that both employers and employees and Senators and Representatives of the House agreed that the conference was not to be a board of arbitration for local disputes.

"It is expected," Mr. Moore said, "that the bringing together of thirty representatives of the chief organizations in the building industry will make for material progress toward stabilizing conditions and reaching an understanding that will be only of benefit to the industry itself, but to the entire country."

Solution of Problems. "A conference of this kind," he said, "can not help but be of benefit to the industry and the nation. Only questions of national importance will be discussed by the delegates, and while the programme has not yet been decided upon, it is understood that it will include resolutions on matters for which labor has been agitating for years."

At 11 p. m. Ottawa, March 11.—(Canadian Press)—Hon W. S. Fielding, formerly Minister of Finance, has given notice of a resolution which, if carried, would prevent many of the long night sessions in the House of Commons. Mr. Fielding's resolution proposed that the rules of the House should be amended to provide that the House meet at 2 o'clock on Wednesday afternoons, instead of 2 o'clock as at present, and that the House should adjourn at 11 p. m., unless exceptional circumstances recognized by the House generally require a later sitting.

Manila, March 11.—The Philippine Vegetable Oil Company was placed in the hands of a receiver to-day following complaint of P. C. Whitaker, the largest individual stockholder, who alleged the company to be in danger of insolvency. The assets of the company, according to Whitaker's complaint, are approximately $14,000,000, with liabilities of $15,000,000.

London, March 11.—(Canadian Associated Press)—A reprieve for Charles Tellett, Canadian ex-soldier under sentence of death in Bristol for the murder of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Ada Jane Woodbine Askew, was announced to-day by the Home Secretary, Rt. Hon. Edward Shortt.

London, March 11.—(Canadian Associated Press)—After four years' correspondence, the Admiralty has at last expressed its readiness to consider the right to claim salvage made by Lieut. Henry Bell-Irving, a member of a famous Vancouver fighting family, and another officer in connection with salvaging of a steamship valued at $120,000 from the Goodwin Sands. These two officers boarded the steamship in a heavy gale of wind in an effort to salvage her, but owing to the danger into which they were running were ordered by their superior officer to abandon the attempt. However, they persisted in their effort and succeeded in salvaging the ship and her valuable cargo.

Originally the Admiralty allowed their claim for salvage but later withdrew its assent. The Admiralty now acknowledges that there is no doubt of the gallantry and enterprise displayed by the two officers.

Halifax, March 11.—Owing to strong opposition from the labor unions the City Council last night decided not to put daylight saving into force in Halifax this year.

French Now Agree With Turkish Nationalists

London, March 11.—Premier Briand, before leaving for Paris this morning, conferred with the Turkish Nationalist delegation in London and reached an agreement with it on this question of evacuation of the French of Cilicia, Asia Minor. An agreement also was reached for the immediate exchange of prisoners, a cessation of hostilities between the French and Nationalists, on measures to insure the safety of the persons and property of Armenians and for the protection of minorities in the evacuated territory.

25,000 VETERANS IDLE IN NEW YORK

New York, March 11.—More than 25,000 war veterans are members of New York's army of unemployed, it was announced here to-day by an official of the Service Club, a rehabilitation organization. Fifteen thousand of the number are homeless, half-fed and poorly clothed, it was added.

MOTHER KILLED CHILDREN AND HERSELF

Lovell, Wyo., March 11.—Mrs. James Watters, wife of a prominent rancher in the Big Horn Basin, last night shot and killed three of her children, wounded three others, and reloading the revolver, killed herself. Mrs. Watters is believed to have been insane. One of the wounded children died this morning. The other two children will live, according to physicians.

Husband Away. Mrs. Watters' husband was visiting a neighbor when the tragedy occurred. Mrs. Watters' head nine babies, according to officers. The children were in bed when the shooting was done. Their ages ranged from five to twelve years.

When the husband returned home shortly before midnight he found all doors to the house locked and all window shades drawn.

MEIGHEN IS ASKED IF MOVIE TO MAKE GAUTHIER MINISTER

Ottawa, March 11.—(Canadian Press)—P. F. Casgrain has given notice that he will inquire of the Government if it has received a petition from the Montreal Progressive Club asking for the admission of L. J. Gauthier, member of St. Yvacin, to the Federal Cabinet, and if so what the Government intends doing in the matter.

OIL REGULATIONS ARE EXPLAINED

New Rules For the Northwest Territories. Ottawa, March 11.—(Canadian Press)—Brig-General Griesbach, member for Edmonton, who asked in the House of Commons for an interpretation of the new oil regulations for the Northwest Territories was informed by the Government "that citizens of any country, the laws, customs and regulations of which differ similar or like privileges to citizens or corporations of the British Empire, are debarred from acquiring a permit or lease under the regulations." A list of the nationals so debarred has not yet been prepared, it was further stated.

At 11 p. m. Ottawa, March 11.—(Canadian Press)—Hon W. S. German Exporters Admit Occupation Is Having Effect

Say Business Being Ruined; Workers' Unions Tell Allies Occupation Not Regarded As Hostile Act; Bill Introduced in British Commons To-day.

Duisburg, March 11.—(Associated Press)—Excitement arising out of confusing rumors that the Allies intended a further advance in the Ruhr country and to establish a new inland customs frontier, seize Essen and levy a heavy tribute on Rhine commerce, rocked the big German steel, coal and other exporting corporations to-day, and filled the streets with silent, staring crowds, which packed the spaces solidly around the French and British headquarters.

As the day wore on the crowds gradually dispersed, but the German exporters with whom the situation was discussed, continued to be violently agitated. They reiterated their assertions that business was being ruined and declared that further occupation, particularly of Essen, might precipitate a crisis among workmen which no business or industry could weather.

LABOR GOVERNORS TO MEET IN GENEVA

Canadian Representative Will Be There. Ottawa, March 11.—(Canadian Press)—The meeting of the Governing Body of the International Labor Office will be held in Geneva on April 12, and will probably last for two or three days. The Minister of Labor, Senator Robertson, who is Canada's Government representative in the Governing Body, will be unable to attend the meeting and W. L. Griffiths, secretary to the High Commissioner for Canada in London, has been appointed as his substitute.

Canada is also entitled to send a representative for the workmen, p. M. Draper, of Ottawa, having been selected at the Washington meeting as one of the employees' delegates. Mr. Draper will not attend the meeting this year. It is understood that the programme includes nothing of great interest to Canada and, as the second reading of the bill will occur Monday, when discussion on it will be allowed.

Bill in Commons. London, March 11.—The German reparations bill, to provide for the application of part of the prices paid on imported German goods toward the discharge of German obligations under the Treaty of Versailles, was formally introduced in the House of Commons to-day. The measure provides for a fifty per cent levy.

The second reading of the bill will occur Monday, when discussion on it will be allowed.

Dealing with the German reparations bill in the British Commons, a dispatch last night said that there was a duel in the House last evening between John Robert Clynes, Labor member and former Food Controller, and Premier Lloyd George. Mr. Clynes challenged the Premier's change of attitude in having previously declared reparations were only possible by restoring Germany's economic position, and agreeing to military coercion, a policy which could only mean greater unemployment, greater debt and greater taxation.

Mr. Clynes declared that the Allies had acted precipitately in refusing to grant Germany delay to make fresh proposals. He thought they might have invoked the aid of the United States as arbiter.

Defended Policy. Mr. Lloyd George defended his policy. He argued Germany's exports to Allied countries represented more than half her total exports and could not believe she would risk the loss of that trade by refusing to pay a fifty per cent levy, especially since she had lost her Eastern trade. Moreover, no German goods were essential to Great Britain except dyes, and of these Great Britain has a stock sufficient for a year or fifteen months. Three-quarters of the German dye factories, he said, were situated in the occupied territories and Germany was bound under the treaty to supply one-quarter of her output of dyes to the Allies.

Saskatchewan Case. An appeal by King, from a Saskatchewan court judgment in which the appellant was convicted of manslaughter on the charge of negligent driving of a motor car, was dismissed. The appeal raised the point of whether the trial judge properly instructed the jury in what constituted negligence.

Windsor, Ont., March 11.—Officials of the Ford Company of Canada refused to comment on the report current on the Detroit Stock Exchange yesterday to the effect that Henry Ford had disposed of his holdings in the Canadian company for $4,000,000.

MANITOBA WOMAN COMMITTED SUICIDE

Brandon, Man., March 11.—The body of Inez McRae, of Clearwater, Manitoba, who has been missing since February 26, was found hanging from a tree by a silk scarf near this city yesterday. Miss McRae, a former school teacher, left a note indicating her intention of taking her life. Despondency over a love affair is the cause given.

Trainload of 800 Teutons Arrives in Breslau. Breslau, Silesia, March 11.—The first contingent of voters for the plebiscite in Upper Silesia to determine whether the region shall be German or Polish, which will be held March 20, arrived here this morning. The train carrying the voters came from Duisburg and on board were 800 miners and their wives, who will be the guests of private citizens until the day of the voting.

Up to noon to-day 10,000 eligible voters had registered in the Breslau district. Stopped. Duisburg, March 11.—The French authorities, in the newly-occupied area have ordered the local bureau of the Upper Silesia Voters' League to cease its activities.

Credits. Paris, March 11.—Chancellor Mayer, of Austria, and the other members of the Austrian delegation on its way to London to discuss Austrian questions with the Allied Supreme Council passed through Paris to-day.

We are going to London with an entirely pacific object, to ask for credits so that we can commence work," said the Chancellor. "We do not wish to be the beggars of Europe, but we need aid."

Austria Appeals to League About Military Supplies

Vienna, March 10.—Three reservations have been made by the Government of the Austrian republic in accepting the Entente demand for the surrender of the military materials. The first would cover the guns de-fending the Danube at Vienna Krems, 88 miles northwest of this city, and Tulln, 17 miles northeast. The second would take exception to demands prohibiting the operation of military schools, and the third would relate to the demobilization of the Vienna arsenal. The Government is preparing an appeal to the League of Nations.

BRITISH CREDIT PLAN FOR DOMINIONS

London, March 11.—Sir Robert Horne, President of the Board of Trade, announced in the House of Commons yesterday an export credit scheme in a new form to be extended to the Dominions.

Instead of advancing 100 per cent of the cost to the manufacturer of exporting agent, as has been done up to the present, "we propose guaranteeing 50 per cent of the invoice of the goods on approved securities. The Government felt that the scheme ought not to be confined to derelict countries of Europe, but similar facilities ought to be given in trade with our Dominions. The security there is much safer, and business in every respect is quite as good."

MANY NEW BRITISH COMPANIES FLOATED

1920 Remarkable For Heavy Issues of Stock

Washington, March 11.—(Canadian Press)—The year 1920 was remarkable for the heavy issues of stock for company extension and promotion in Great Britain, according to information received here from London through official channels.

The desire for new capital to fill the arrears of demand created by four years' suspension during the war gave great stimulus to financial expansion, and 1920 proved a worthy successor to 1919 in the matter of heavy issues of stocks and bonds. Owing to the falling off in British government borrowings, the grand total for 1920 was below that of 1919, but when government borrowings are deducted, the total of new issues in the same market in 1920 approximated £230,000,000 as against £211,000,000 in 1919.

Government loans in 1919 were £28,300,000 as against only £27,530,700 in 1920.

Overseas Governments within the British Empire floated loans in London during last year, but no foreign Governments. The Government of New South Wales was in the market in June with £2,500,000 and in November with £4,000,000, six and a half per cent inscribed stock, 1930-1940, both issues being made at par and also in February floated £2,000,000, five and three-quarter per cent debentures at ninety-eight and a half. This loan was raised for the purpose of redeeming existing debentures for a similar account, and the proceeds, therefore, do not figure in the grand total of new issues given previously. The Gold Coast Government negotiated a loan of £4,000,000, six per cent, inscribed stock at par and Western Australia a loan of £1,500,000, five and three-quarter per cent, inscribed stock at par, both in January. The Government of Victoria also negotiated a conversion loan in July.

RE-ESTABLISHMENT COMMITTEE NAMED

Announcement Made by Premier Meighen in Commons

Ottawa, March 11.—The Prime Minister in the Commons yesterday afternoon announced the personnel of the Special Committee on Pensions and Re-establishment, and in answer to a question stated that the Government had not changed its attitude in regard to the matter of cash bonuses for returned soldiers.

CITIZENSHIP OF CANADA DEBATED

Ottawa, March 11.—While the Commons was in committee yesterday afternoon on the act to define a Canadian national, W. F. Maclean said the question of providing Canadians with a national ancestry was his chief reason for supporting the bill.

Lucien Cannon, Dorchester, was curious to learn whether the Minister of Justice had communicated with the British Government on the question, as the bill, if passed, would change the status of millions of British subjects in Canada. Mr. Doherty replied that he had not. Mr. Cannon was also told that Canadian nationals must first be British subjects.

D. D. McKenzie protested that the name "Canadian citizen or British subject," was good enough for him. Canada was not a nation and therefore could not have nationals.

20,000 CHILDREN KILLED EACH YEAR

Toll of Accidents in the United States

New York, March 11.—Twenty thousand children under fourteen years of age are killed by accidents each year in the United States, according to figures just made public by the American Red Cross.

Burns, falls, automobile and other vehicular accidents, drowning and poisoning exact the heaviest toll of child life. Forty per cent of the children who die before reaching their fifth birthday are killed accidentally, while almost twenty per cent of the deaths claiming those between five and fourteen, result from accidents, the compilation shows. After fourteen, accidents cause proportionately fewer deaths.

First aid instruction given swimmers throughout the United States by the Red Cross reduced drowning fatalities from 10,000 to 5,000 annually, the statement said.

PILES

Do not suffer another day with itching, bleeding, or protruding piles. No surgical operation required. SHOT GIRL, BUT FOUND NOT GUILTY

Interesting Legal Decision Made in Belgium

Brussels, March 11.—The question whether one person is guilty of a crime in hastening the death of another who is suffering from a mortal wound has been decided in the negative here in the case of a married man who shot and killed a girl who had attempted to commit suicide. His plea was that she was dying and that he killed her rather than to watch her suffer. He was arrested but acquitted of the charge of murder by the Brabant court of appeal.

The man in the case was Jerome Hermans, thirty-two years old, and the girl was Coline Vandeyck, age eighteen. She had attempted to commit suicide by shooting herself in the temple with a revolver. He had shot her into the temple but she was still alive. I could not see her suffer and I took her revolver and shot her in the neck. Then she was still, and I shot myself.

Hermans recovered from his wound and was in prison for eight months until acquitted.

Medical testimony given at the trial was to the effect that the girl's suicidal wound ultimately would have been fatal.

STEPS TO DEVELOP B. C.-MEXICO TRADE

Vancouver, March 11.—J. J. Favella, who has just assumed the duties of Mexican Consul here, is making every effort to promote trade between that country and Canada, and since April three weeks ago has been getting in touch with business men in many lines in an endeavor to stir up interest in mutual commercial relations.

Mexico, Mr. Favella says, has many products which Canada wants, but which now she gets through the medium of the United States or not at all, or at the other end of the world. He would find in Mexico a profitable field for many lines of export.

The lack of direct communication hinders the principal barrier to the building up of a great trade. If there was only one vessel a month carrying goods between Mexican ports and the British Columbia coast, he believes it would be the beginning of a trade which would be bound to grow to huge proportions.

ST. LAWRENCE ROUTE DISCUSSED

M. P.'s Expressed Views on Deep Waterway Scheme

Ottawa, March 11.—While the motion of F. H. Keefer, Port Arthur, for construction of a deep waterway from the Great Lakes to the St. Lawrence was being debated in the Commons last evening D. D. McKenzie, Cape Breton, North, gave it as his opinion that the completion of such a waterway would be of great assistance in reducing the price of food and other necessities, both in the West and East.

The deep waterway scheme was supported by K. Baldwin, St. John's, who said it would make for the future prosperity of Canada, which held the key to the great inland lakes.

F. F. Pardee, West Lambert, defended the commercial aspect of the project. "I do not say," he continued, "that at the moment, however, Canada is in a position to undertake the expenditure involved. But I will say the expenditure would mean a great reduction in freight rates and in the cost of electrical energy."

In a vigorous attack on the expenditure which would be entailed by the waterway scheme, J. E. Armstrong, East Lambert, recalled that some $400,000,000 already had been spent in buying, deepening and lighting harbors and waterways with a view to reducing freight rates. "The only result has been that our rates have been doubled, even quadrupled, yet Parliament has no control over these increases," he said.

Dr. J. F. Foran, Hull, who strongly opposed the motion, declared it would be an undertaking finished with Canadian money for the benefit of the United States. He urged the immediate development of the Georgian Bay routes, which he maintained was an essential national enterprise.

W. F. Maclean, York South, declared the Government should give the immediate attention to the consolidation of railways now under its control with the object of reducing the freight rates. At this time, when the country was saddled with an enormous debt, it might not be wise to make large canal expenditures.

Election? S. W. Jacobs, George Etienne Cartier, found the mistake in the introduction of a general election in the introduction of a resolution of this sort. Previously the Georgian Bay Canal had always come up on the eve of an election.

J. A. Maharg, Maple Creek, thought if there was any money to spare, it should be spent on improving railway facilities on the prairie. The difficulty with the prairie transportation lay between the prairie farm and the head of the lakes, and not east of Fort William.

Hon. Charles Murphy argued that it was unreasonable to propose another investigation while the International Joint Waterways Commission was looking into the question.

Withdrawn. F. H. Keefer said his idea was to gain the appointment of a commission of the House to deal with the report of the International Waterways Commission when it was brought down. He withdrew his motion.

DECLARE ONTARIO OUTLAY TOO GREAT

Liberal Members Attack Government's Proposals

Toronto, March 11.—The Ontario Legislature started on the last leg of its debate on the budget yesterday. H. H. Dewar, Liberal leader, at the end of a two-hour speech, moved, seconded by W. E. N. Sinclair, that:

"This House condemns the extravagant expenditures of the Government involving despite an increased revenue from ordinary receipts of $5,172,322 for the fiscal year, a deficit of $12,848, and further deploring the imprudent borrowing of large sums at excessive prices for long terms, notably the loans of $15,000,000 in December, 1920, and $10,000,000 in February, 1921, without any vote of this House appropriating the same to particular works or purposes, the last loan, which the House was in session, contrary to constitutional usage."

Running Riot. Mr. Stewart described the mounting expenditures in department after department as "extravagance run riot."

Mr. Dewar said the cardinal plank of the platform of the United Farmers of Ontario was to cut all expenditure that was not absolutely essential, and to abolish the system of patronage. He said the Government had violated both these principles.

CATTLE EMBARGO DEBATE ENDED

British Will Learn Canadian Commons' Views

Ottawa, March 11.—A sub-amendment supporting the attitude of the present and previous Canadian Governments in protesting against the implication of disease in Canadian cattle contained in the embargo against such cattle, as now maintained by Great Britain, carried without a division in the House last evening, thus disposing of a somewhat lengthy debate on the question of the British embargo against entry of live cattle into British ports.

The Prime Minister said, in answer to a question, that he would see that the decision of the Canadian Parliament was cabled to Great Britain. I. E. Pedlow, who had moved an amendment to Mr. Smith's motion that the Government should strongly protest against the reasons assigned by the British Government for maintaining the embargo, said he would support the sub-amendment, which was moved by Dr. M. Steele, South Perth.

During the discussion Dr. Steele took occasion to criticize Hon. Manning Doherty, Minister of Agriculture of Ontario, for going to England to protest against the embargo on Canadian cattle. Dr. Steele said the Minister would go down as a "meddlesome matey," or the man who interfered with a Federal political matter when it was not his place to do so.

MEIGHEN UPHOLDS DOHERTY ACT

Speaks of Prevention of Liquor Shipment

Ottawa, March 11.—H. H. Stevens, Vancouver Centre, questioned the Government in the Commons yesterday afternoon regarding a statement in the press credited to Hon. J. de B. Farris, Attorney-General of British Columbia, to the effect that the amendments to the Canada Temperance Act were worthless.

Mr. Stevens asked if it were true that several provinces having prohibitory laws had refused to take advantage of the Doherty Act provisions and if it were the opinion of the Prime Minister that the Doherty Act would prevent importation of liquor into any province which voted against such importation.

The Prime Minister said his attention had not been called to the statement of Mr. Farris. He had no hesitation in saying that no province having prohibitory laws had refused the provisions of the Doherty Act. This was a Federal act which became law whether the provinces desired it or not; once the people of that province had voted to prohibit the importation of liquor.

GARFIELD FOUND GUILTY OF MURDER

Woodstock, Ont., March 11.—The jury in the case of Norman Garfield, of Toronto, on trial for the murder of Benjamin Johnston, a local restaurateur keeper on the night of January 29, returned a verdict of murder at 8.43 o'clock last night.

Norman's younger brother, Denton, was convicted on Wednesday in connection with the same crime. Greater interest was manifested in the trial of Norman than in that of Denton, but he had been looked upon as the man who had done the actual shooting.

During his cross-examination yesterday by Crown Attorney Ball, Norman Garfield admitted having been arrested on November 18, 1914, for helping to hold up a coach near Spokane, Washington. Two men had been killed on that occasion, but he denied having any part in the shooting. He was sentenced that time to five to thirty years and was pardoned after serving four years and eleven months. Later in Winnipeg he was arrested for holding up a man. For this he was sentenced to three years, but made his escape.

Says Liquor Laws Show Mistake of Electing Police Heads

Attorney-General Declares Some Contests Have Even Been Fought On Whether Laws of Country Should Be Enforced; Legislature Still Debates Details of New Measure.

Peaceful enough at times, but marked with occasional disputes and pointed remarks, the debate in committee on the new Liquor Control Act was continued for two hours on Thursday afternoon.

Repeated criticisms from the Leader of the Opposition led Attorney-General Farris to remark that the Conservative chieftain had a wonderful faculty for irrelevance, which he was displaying in a marked degree. Mr. Bowser was petitioning the Government to permit the Legislature to name the members of the Liquor Commission. This was the proper procedure, he said.

The Attorney-General pointed to instances where the Bowser and McBride Governments had made innumerable appointments through the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, and he questioned Mr. Bowser's consistency.

Hon. Mr. Farris also mentioned what he termed as Mr. Pooley's "change of heart." The Esquimalt member, he said, has shown signs of trying to assist the Government in perfecting the new act, but on Wednesday he apparently had been turned inside out by his leader, and judging by the subservient manner in which he had accepted the cracking of the party whip, he would be careful in the future.

Must Be Leeway
The Attorney-General declared that Mr. Bowser was pinning his faith upon the possible failure of the act. Some of the Opposition Leader's talk was "virtuous," he remarked, but the most of it was given over to the rolling of his tongue of empty, critical words and phrases, he added.

Hon. Mr. Farris agreed with Mr. Bowser that great care should be exercised in dealing with persons breaking the law. There should be the utmost caution exercised by magistrates and judges of the peace, he said, but there must be considerable leeway granted these officials in interpreting the act.
Mr. Bowser wished the word "shall" changed to the word "may" in Section 63, which deals with persons convicted for drunkenness and refusing to divulge the source of their liquor supply. Hon. Mr. Farris thought the clause should stand and that the law should be sufficiently severe to ensure its efficiency.

Bootleggers as Corporation
R. H. Pooley, Conservative member for Esquimalt, wanted to know what would be done with fines levied under the act. Mr. Farris replied that, under the Municipal Act, municipalities would have the money so obtained when they were prosecuting offenders, while the Provincial authorities would receive it when Provincial officers were prosecuting.
Referring to another section of the act which fixes the responsibility of corporation directors in connection with liquor offenses, Mr. Pooley remarked: "If bootleggers wanted to save their own skins they might carry on their operations as a corporation and in that case they would be liable only to fines instead of going to jail."
Consideration for Householders
Under an amendment of 1918 to the Summary Convictions Act if every person who takes part in the committing of an offense is subject to all penalties of the act and thus liable to imprisonment," Mr. Farris replied, "if we cannot show that a man is directly involved in the offense it would be a hardship to put him in jail for the act of some other member of the corporation."
Canon Hincliffe, Conservative member for Victoria, feared that Section 55, which makes occupants of premises liable for liquor offenses committed on such premises, would work injustices upon innocent householders. He felt that such householders deserved the same consideration as did the directors of corporations.

Fears for Innocent Man
The principle of this section is nothing new, Hon. Mr. Farris pointed out.
The Criminal Code, he said, provided that any person who appeared to have charge of gambling in a gambling house should be deemed to be the keeper of the establishment. The Prohibition Act, he stated, had been even more stringent in this connection.
"It looks to me as if an innocent man might be held liable for an offense," Canon Hincliffe persisted.
The Canon objected also to Section 58 which, he stated, took away from accused persons the right of appeal to the Supreme Court.

In replying Hon. Mr. Farris urged that the actions of the Liquor Control Board should not be put under any more restrictions than were absolutely necessary. It was not proposed, however, to take away the right of appeal. The only right of appeal removed was the right of appeal by certiorari.
"For every criticism we have for taking away this right we have a hundred criticisms of the injustice of the law which permits a man who may be absolutely guilty escaping because, perhaps, he has committed the offense on Government Street and the magistrate has overlooked the fact that it is within the Corporation of the City of Victoria," Hon. Mr. Farris said.

Can Have Re-Hearing
The liquor act, he said, asserted, gave accused persons full right of appeal and entitled them to a re-hearing before a County Court Judge. All that was required, he said, was that the accused person take an affidavit that he was innocent. A person who admitted his guilt by refusing to swear to his innocence, Hon. Mr. Farris felt, deserved little sympathy from the Legislature. If the old Prohibition Act had contained this force, he had no doubt, the new provision concerning appeals would have been inserted whether he or someone else was Attorney-General.
Ever since Confederation, he went on, appeals from summary convictions had been held before County Court judges who exercised the highest powers in all cases with the exception of a very few. Far more cases were tried to-day by County Court judges in Victoria and Vancouver than by Assize Courts, he said.

About Persons Searched
"Offenses under the liquor act are considered rather as misdemeanors or as quasi-criminal cases rather than as crimes," M. B. Jackson, Liberal member for the Islands said. "To make appeals in these cases to go to the Supreme Court would be to bring the offenses into the category of crimes."
Certiorari proceedings often were a travesty on justice, he added. Canon Hincliffe was not satisfied, however, and renewed protest against Section 63 which gives officers power to search suspected people for liquor. He felt that people who had been searched should have full right of appeal.

Wants Salaries Fixed
"Well, if a man is searched he is either convicted or he is not convicted," Hon. Mr. Farris answered. "If he is not convicted there is no need for appeal and if he is unjustly convicted he has the full right of appeal after he has sworn to his innocence. There is nothing of an embarrassing nature here."

Sections governing the appointment of the Liquor Control Board brought Mr. Pooley to his feet again. He wanted the salaries of the members of the Board fixed in the act. The salaries, he urged, should be substantial. He desired the appointment of these members by the House and suggested that the Board consist of judges.

Suggests Some Salaries
"My whole idea is to get ninety per cent enforcement," he said.
Mr. Henniger suggested that ministers of the gospel might be good commissioners.
Mr. Pooley was of the opinion that the payment of adequate salaries would ensure enforcement of the law. What did it matter? he asked, if the commissioners received $4,000 a year, so long as the law was obeyed.
Capt. Ian Mackenzie agreed with the member for Esquimalt, suggesting in addition that at least one judge should be a member of the commission.

Wants Lady On Board
Major Burdett appealed for the appointment of one returned soldier as a commissioner.
Mr. Catherwood added that the appointment of a lady on the board would have a "leavening effect."
Mr. Bowser took up the question of the fixing of the salaries of the commissioners. He quoted precedent to show that in the past the Legislature had retained this power and advised against leaving such a question to the board of commissioners. The Opposition Leader said that the salaries of the members of the Compensation Board, the Public Utilities Commission and the Sewerage Board were set by the Legislature and he thought it dangerous to leave such an important matter to the commission. The commission, he said, might decide upon an "outrageous" salary or one entirely too low.
"It is hybrid legislation, at best," replied the Leader of the Opposition.

Better Than Judges
Hon. Mr. Farris repeated that the new legislation was "experimental," and that a year hence the members of the House would have an opportunity in discussing the estimates to decide upon the question of salaries. It was true, he said, that the personnel of the board was an important issue.
There must be capable commissioners, he said, and while he did not wish to say anything about the efficiency of members of the judiciary, still he felt that there were men in private life, men of proven business experience and personal integrity who might be better qualified to administer the liquor laws than judges. In less than a year the public might be heartily sick of administration by judges, he said.

What Quebec Pays
"My opinion is this," added Hon. Mr. Farris. "Don't tie up the commission in this way. In Quebec they have fixed the salary of the chairman of the commission at $14,000 per year. There is only one man in the province that, if you decide upon a man whom you think is the one and only man for the position and he cannot be secured for a less amount, then there might be warrant for engaging him. But that sum is far more than the Premier of this Province gets. The Premier should get more, and making feelingly, the Attorney-General should get more than he receives, and also the Lieutenant-Governor."

Not Hard To
Thomas Pearson, member for Richmond, declared that it would not be necessary to appoint a purchasing agent to act under the Board and buy liquor supplies, because just as soon as the world knows that B. C. is in the market for liquor there will be agents from all parts sent here to offer their goods. He said that a Board of three could also supervise the buying and do so with more safety and more wisely than a special purchasing agent.

No Need of Purchasing Agent
"There is no jurisdiction for appointing another official," Mr. Bowser went on, "except to put in a man who will be controlled by the Government. One-fourth of the revenue of this Province already goes out in salaries to the civil service. It is time the Government took some control over the civil servants and showed some evidence of reform."
Hon. Mr. Farris said that it would be necessary for the official who is buying liquor to give his whole time to the business and from time to time he would have to leave the Province to do his buying.

Will Need All His Time
"I believe that as this business develops it will become more and more necessary for the official to give his exclusive time to the purchasing of liquor from original sources," the Attorney-General went on. "One purchase of liquor made to advantage will many times cover the salary of the official for many years. The appointment of this official is one of the important duties this Government should perform and for which they are responsible to this House."
In reply to a question from Mr. Bowser, the Attorney-General explained that Mr. Urquhart of Vancouver has already been sent to Britain to investigate opportunities for purchasing liquor for the Province, but he has no power to conclude purchases, only to gather information.

Moral Effect Aimed At
Capt. Mackenzie wanted to know just when the Control Board would feel called upon to step in to administer the liquor act in any municipality as provided for in the act when the municipality fails to carry out the provisions.
Hon. Mr. Farris: The chief effect of this section will be its moral effect. I am in the hopes that with very rare exceptions, the mere possibility of the commission exercising these powers will result in a more hearty co-operation from the municipalities in enforcing this act.

Against Police Elections
The Attorney-General declared that although the Liberal party advocated more local autonomy for municipalities, he believed that it is a mistake for municipalities to elect their police commissioners instead of them being appointed by the Government. He said that he came to this conclusion after his experience as Attorney-General in seeking to enforce the Prohibition Act.
"I believe that in the election of police commissioners it is not a very healthy condition to have municipal-

MUST EVEN UP.

One of the surest guarantees of success for the operation of the Liquor Control Act is a scale of penalties that will discourage abuse. If the private individual is found guilty of bootlegging he must go to jail on the first conviction.

EXPECTS CAPITULATION.

Mr. Lloyd George believes that when Germany realizes the meaning of her present attitude she will be reasonable and come to an agreement with the Allied Supreme Council.

A MARE'S NEST.

If The Vancouver World could have its way it would include a local option clause in the Liquor Control Act before it becomes the law of the land.

SOUND ADVICE.

During the late Spring of 1919 feeling ran high among a number of local merchants because the furnishings and equipment for Craigdarroch hospital had been imported by the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment from Eastern firms and manufacturers when the identical articles could have been obtained in British Columbia.

QUICK ACTION.

Following immediately upon the National Conference—which had been summoned by the Corporation of the City of London—and its unanimous decision in favor of the removal of the embargo against Canadian cattle, the British Government has decided to institute an inquiry into the whole question in its Imperial and international aspects and present a report to the meeting of Empire Premiers next June.

REGINA SPLITS.

There came into being at Regina yesterday a new municipal organization in the shape of a protest against what it has termed a lack of assistance to Western Canada by the Union of Canadian Municipalities.

Union lies in the work of its Parliamentary Agent and officials at Ottawa and their unceasing vigilance in respect of those phases of special privilege which would be costly to municipal governments were no effective challenge to be lodged at the proper time.

NOTE AND COMMENT

If there is oil in British Columbia it should be safeguarded against the depredations of outside monopolies.

It has been charged that the Liquor Control Bill now before the Legislature plays into the hands of the prohibitionists. This will be news to most people.

Differences have arisen between members of the Executive of the British Navy League. Some cling to the old idea of a big fleet and others favor an agreement towards limitation.

One of the Conservative newspapers is greatly alarmed by a report that the Government is about to rush the work of the Legislature and prorogue before Easter. Has it no faith in the Opposition?

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS

THE OTTAWA DIVORCE MILL

There are over a hundred and fifty applications for divorce bills to come before Parliament during the present session. The list is unusually long, and is the result of marital troubles in two Provinces only, the others having divorce courts to deal with pleas for dissolution of marriage.

REVENUE FROM TARIFF NEGOTIABLE

The tariff is not likely to be an important revenue raiser. Last year it yielded only about $225,000,000, a figure much larger than that of the high-water mark of former years.

HOROSCOPE

This should be a fairly fortunate day, according to astrology. The Sun, Uranus and Neptune are all in benefic aspect, while Saturn alone is adverse.

GERMAN EXPORTERS ADMIT OCCUPATION IS HAVING EFFECT

Referring to the bill to impose a fifty per cent. levy, he admitted that it would work with a vengeance.

Both the Board of Trade and the Customs Department said Mr. Lloyd George, were satisfied there would be no difficulty in tracing the origin of goods.

Vienna, March 10.—Official expression of the sympathy of the Austrian Republic for Germany because of the occupation of cities along the Rhine by Allied troops was expressed in an address before the National Assembly here to-day by the first President of the body.

He referred to the Germans as "our brothers in the north."

As his address coincided with the departure of the Premier and other officials for London, where they will try to secure credits and other aid for Austria, the speaker defended his remarks by saying:

"Austria would be unworthy of sympathy from her enemies and unworthy the respect which the official's journey is an expression of thanks for any help destined for this country should be returned in the coin of treacherous silence."

U. S. RAILROADS CUTTING WAGES

Reductions were announced throughout the country with a statement that "that charity conditions necessitate changed wage scales."

All reductions are based on the Federal Labor Board's awards of last July, when a $600,000,000 increase was granted to 1,800,000 workers.

Chicago, March 10.—The Chicago and Great Western Railroad, which yesterday announced that it would seek a conference regarding wage reductions for its unskilled employees, to-day announced it would propose a twenty per cent. reduction for all employees of the road, from the president down.

The Great Western is the first of the western roads to announce a proposed wage reduction for all employees.

COAL DEALERS ARE GRANTED NO REBATE OR COMMISSIONS. (Continued from page 1.) P. S. Fagan, secretary of the Canadian Collieries, Ltd., explained the point raised by Mr. Duncan regarding the difference in long and short handling by saying that dealers bought and sold coal on the basis of the quantity they received from the mines, whether it was 2,240 pounds or 2,000 pounds.

SPECIAL HONOR AT GRAND LODGE

A. O. U. W. Has Woman Delegate From Victoria

FOR CHILDREN THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TO-NIGHT

MISS POLLY'S ADVENTURE.

Vancouver, March 11.—The twenty-eighth annual session of Grand Lodge of British Columbia of the Ancient Order of United Workmen opened yesterday for a two days' session in the I. O. O. F. Hall, Hamilton and Pender Streets. Between twenty-five and thirty delegates from all parts of the Province were in attendance and more are expected later in the day.

The business of the day was the receiving of reports from the various districts and transacting general business. Fred N. E. Shakespeare, of Victoria, Grand Master, presided. The election of officers for the current year will take place this afternoon.

Officers' reports show satisfactory increase of membership and substantially increased balances in beneficiary reserve and sick benefit funds. The annual report of the actuary shows the Order to be fully solvent. A distinguishing feature of this session is the presence of Mrs. James Stansby as representative of Victoria Lodge No. 1, the oldest and largest lodge in the province. Mrs. Stansby is a native daughter of the Capital City and is proud of the distinction of being the first woman to be admitted to the chair of English at the meeting was the initiation of a large class of candidates by No. 11's crack degree team.

Miss Polly Parrot listened as he swung in her cage, for Mr. Dog and Mistress Puss were telling of their adventures. Mr. Dog told about being chased by a big Bear when he was out hunting once with his master, "but in the end," said he, "we captured that bear and the big rug in the hall was made from its skin."

"I guess you were pretty scared that time," giggled Mistress Puss. "Why did you go hunting bears, anyway? you are too small for that, I would say."

"We didn't go after a bear," said Mr. Dog; "we were hunting other game and the bear must have been lost, or he would not have wandered so far from his home."

"He was pretty hungry, Master said, and I think he was, too, by the way he chased me, but I guess he was pretty sorry when he found my Master had a gun."

"Well, that is some adventure, to be sure," said Puss; "but if you ever caught your foot in a trap you would think that was far worse than being chased by a bear."

"Once when I was chasing a mouse I stepped on a trap and I nearly lost

YOUR BOYS' CLOTHES

You Have a Right to Expect VALUE and at Wilson's You Receive Value

Boys are mighty hard on clothes. They are naturally somewhat restless, always on the go, kneeling, scrambling, scuffling, climbing and in a hundred and one pranks that knock clothes to pieces.

Our clothing is made by manufacturers who know the needs of boys. It is made to stand the strain of boyhood; it is cut in the latest fashion, and has all the "snap" admired by the "little men" and their elders.

my foot and I was so lame for a long time I could not run at all."

"You lost the mouse, too, I suppose," said Mr. Dog, with a laugh.

"Oh, I did not care anything about that," said Puss with a twitch of her tail. "There are plenty more mice, but if I had lost that foot where could I have found another, I should like to know."

"You and I have had some very exciting adventures," said Mr. Dog, "and how anyone can live shut up in a cage as Polly does, I am sure I cannot understand. She never had an adventure in her whole life, poor thing."

"How-wow," said Polly so plainly that Mr. Dog dropped his tail and walked out of the room, for more than once Polly had fooled him and made him think there was another dog around the house.

Mistress Puss began to laugh, but Polly called, "Come puss, puss," and off ran Puss, for she, too, had been fooled many times by thinking her mistress was calling her to eat her dinner when it was Polly just fooling her.

But the love for adventure was planted in Polly's mind and the next day when the cage door was opened and she was allowed to flit about the room, her keen eyes looked about for an open window. She did not see one in that room, but when someone opened the door, Polly, who was perched just over it, quick as a flash slipped out before she was noticed and then out she flew through the open window in the next room.

Up the top of a tree flew Polly, while everybody called and coaxed her to fly into her cage, which was hung on the tree.

Mr. Dog barked and Mistress Puss sat on the ground looking with envious eyes at Polly as she mimicked them both and then laughed loudly.

When some one at last climbed the tree Polly flew away to the very top of a tall telegraph pole and laughed as though she enjoyed the joke she had played.

By and by, with the help of a fireman and his ladder, Polly let herself

After an interval of nearly a year, Victorians will be approached to-morrow on the occasion of the first tag-day of the season, when members of the Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter, I. O. D. E., will appeal for practical support for their work of supplying ill-nourished children with milk.

This particular work was chosen by the Chapter as a memorial to the memory of the late surgeon whose name it bears and who, throughout the whole of his eminently useful career, took an especial interest in the welfare of the children. The prevalence of unemployment conditions during the Winter has effected a large increase in the number of children in need requiring milk to take out the slender nourishment obtainable in half-empty larders at home, and many a struggling family owe the health of its little ones to the daily ration of milk provided by the Chapter. During the past few months the Chapter's milk bill has ranged in the neighborhood of $150, increasing during the past month to $180, so that it will be evident that to-morrow's appeal to the ever-generous public is in the name of a most worthy cause.

The white enamelled milk cans in which the Chapter has been collecting through the local stores will be used for tag-boxes, while cardboard milk bottle tops will be used as tags. Supplies and boxes may be obtained by taggers at the headquarters in the Jones Building.

Conveners of stations for to-morrow include the Misses E. Johnson, Challoner, F. Johnson, M. Greig, Lady Douglas, Chapter, I. O. D. E., Marguerite Chapter, the Misses Herbert, Mackenzie, A. WEST SAANICH INSTITUTE

The West Saanich Women's Institute held their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the institute rooms. There was a large attendance, including three visitors. After the pleasure of watching Mrs. Macdonald of Victoria, demonstrate the art of spinning, she had many beautiful samples of wool on exhibition. After a community sing and dainty refreshments were served the meeting adjourned. The military 500 drive held under the auspices of the institute Wednesday last, proved a great success; eleven tables playing. The winners of the first prizes were: Mrs. J. Osborne, W. O. Wallace, T. Gold and A. Guy; consolation, Mrs. Gold, R. Anderson, W. Butler and Mr. Betts. A special feature of the evening was a guessing contest. The two guessing nearest to the weight of a bar of soap won prizes donated by W. O. Wallace. These were won by T. W. Walker and Miss G. Guy.

SABBATH, WHICH DAY IS IT, ANYWAY?

Pastor Wood Answers This Interesting Question From the Scriptures.

Taking as his text the words of Jesus, "Every plant which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up." Matt. 15:13; words which were spoken in connection with His conversation with the scribes and Pharisees concerning the commandments of God, Pastor Wood, Tuesday night at Orange Hall, made a critical examination of the Scriptures speaking of the seventh day Sabbath, and of the first day of the week, its ritual, to ascertain which day was really a plant of our heavenly Father's planting.

Referring to the institution of the Sabbath, Gen. 2:2, Mr. Wood pointed out that God himself made it, he rested on it, he blessed it, and he sanctified it. Continuing he said: "The only day upon which God has placed His blessing is the seventh day. He sanctified it, or set it apart as a memorial of His great creative work; and as long as the heavens and the earth remain, the seventh day memorial will remain. It would be just as easy to change your birthday to another day in the year, as to change the memorial of the birthday of the world to another day."

"In Ex. 16:4 we read that the Sabbath was a part of God's law before it was given on two tables of stone at Sinai. Before the children of Israel came to Sinai, God tested them concerning their loyalty to His great Sabbath memorial, by sending manna six days of the week, and withholding it on the Sabbath. When He spoke the commandments amid the thunders of Sinai, the same commandment was engrained in the heart of His law. And thus all through the Old Testament we find the seventh day Sabbath a plant of our heavenly Father's planting.

New Testament Testimony.

"Coming now to the New Testament, we read in Luke 4:16 that it was the custom of Jesus to observe the seventh day Sabbath; nor would we expect Him to do otherwise, for it was He who made, blessed, and sanctified it. Jesus, after the work of creation, rested on the first Sabbath day, for He was the Creator. John 1:3; Heb. 1:2; Col. 1:13-16. This gives significance to His words in Mark 2:28: "Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the Sabbath." It is His day because He made it; and is the day referred to in Rev. 1:10, when John says: "I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day." There is not one verse in all the Bible that states, or even hints, that Sunday is the Lord's day.

In Matt. 24:20, in referring to the destruction of Jerusalem, which would be accomplished in A. D. 70, Jesus said to his disciples: "But pray that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the Sabbath day." If the disciples were to pray for 33 years that they would not have to make their flight on the Sabbath day, it is the strongest kind of evidence that the seventh day Sabbath was not to give place to another day.

Example of Disciples.

"The women who had been with Jesus all through His ministry had been given no intimation that they were to observe another day after the crucifixion, for after He had been laid in the tomb, they returned and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the Sabbath day according to the commandment." Luke 23:56. Paul's manner was to observe the Sabbath. Acts 17:2, Acts 13:14. The Gentiles also assembled with the Jews on the seventh day Sabbath (Acts 13:42, 44) for there was no other day observed at that period. Thus in the New Testament we find the Sabbath a plant of our heavenly Father's planting.

1a. First Day Rest Institution of God's Planting?

"Jesus said to the Jews: 'My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.' He worked on the first day of the first week of time. Gen. 1:5. In Ez. 46:1, we read that there were six working days in the week, and not one of these was the seventh day Sabbath, so Sunday, as a Sabbath does not appear to be a plant of our heavenly Father's planting in the Old Testament.

New Testament Testimony.

"There are just eight verses in the New Testament that mention the first day of the week. If there is any Sunday command, or even an intimation that a change was to be made, we can readily find it. Let us examine them:

(1) "In the end of the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre." Matt. 28:1.

According to the best authorities, Matthew wrote his gospel at least six years after Christ's ascension, and he still calls the day that came before the first day of the week the Sabbath. There is no sign of the planting of a new Sabbath day here.

(2) "And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun." Mark 16:2. No evidence here for Sunday sacredness; but the preceding verse says: "The Sabbath was past," which indicates that no matter how early you get up Sunday morning, the Sabbath is past.

(3) "Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, He appeared first to Mary Magdalene, of whom He had cast seven devils." Mark 16:9. In this verse there is just the statement of His resurrection and appearance.

(4) "Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they come unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them." Luke 24:1. This is just the statement of the facts recorded by Matthew and Mark.

(5) "The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre." John 20:1.

John, according to the best authorities, wrote his gospel about 63 years after the resurrection of Christ, and the fact that he does not designate the first day of the week by any such title as the Lord's day, is positive proof that he did not recognize it as such. And remember John wrote these words by inspiration of God.

(6) "Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you." John 20:19.

This was the evening of the resurrection of Jesus. It does not state that the disciples were assembled to celebrate His resurrection by keeping a new Sabbath day; but that they were assembled "for fear of the Jews." The Jews had crucified their Saviour three days before, and they feared their turn might come next.

(7) "And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight." Acts 20:7. This verse is sometimes relied upon to uphold the Sunday institution; but the statement: "the disciples came together to break bread," does not indicate that they were celebrating the Lord's supper; not even if this were so, would it make the day a Sabbath day, for the ordinance is administered many times on other days than the Sabbath. It appears that the disciples had met together to break bread, which they did daily, like other people. Acts 2:46.

"This meeting was held upon the dark part of the first day (verse 8), which would correspond with our Saturday night. Paul preached until midnight and early Sunday morning walked from Troas to Assos, about 19 miles, showing that he did not recognize Sunday as a Sabbath. All the time Paul was preaching, Luke, who wrote the book of Acts, and his Christian companions were laboring on that Sunday, taking the heavy sailing vessel around the peninsula to Assos, where they were to meet Paul.

No Proof.

"Twenty-two years ago I wrote to ten ministers, bishops, and priests of the leading denominations—I was searching for the truth upon this question—asking what proof there was in the New Testament for the observance of Sunday. Every one who replied admitted that there was no proof; and a number referred to this text (Acts 20:7) as a text from which we could infer. We have found that the very strongest text quoted by these representative clergymen, does not even infer Sunday sacredness, but on the contrary we find Paul, Luke, and the other Christians, travelling with the company, working on that Sunday. There is just one more text where the first day is mentioned.

(8) "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God has prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come." 1 Cor. 16:2.

"Paul, on his missionary tour, had found some of the Christians in want, and he sent this order down to the more prosperous churches to make this collection—possibly of clothing and food. They were to collect on the first day of the week, and have it ready when he came (see verses 1 and 2). If taking up a collection would make a Sabbath day, we would have a good many.

"Now, we have carefully examined every text in the New Testament, which mentions the first day of the week; and we find that the Sunday institution is not a plant of our heavenly Father's planting. The substitution has been made by the little horn power mentioned in Dan. 7:25, which was to "change times and the law." (R.V.) Let us ponder again the words of our text, "Every plant which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up"; and also the words of the Great Teacher in Matt. 15:9, "But in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

To-night Mr. Wood's subject at the Orange Hall will be: "The Sabbath Day, A Vitally Important Question." The answering of the questions in the Question Box will be an interesting feature of this meeting.

"The Bull Called Emily"

By Irvin St. Cobb

"Thus, we continue on our way, me and Emily, in the midst of a vast but boisterous solitude—for while we can't see the inhabitants, we can hear 'em—until we arrive at the foot of Main Street, and there we behold the railroad freight depot looming before us. I can tell that Emily is wishful to pass through the structure. There ain't no opening on the high side of it, but that don't hinder Emily none. She gives one heave with her shoulders and makes a door and passes on in and out again on the far side by the same methods. I arrives around the end of the shed just in time to see her slide down a sleek grade through somebody's truck garden and sink down upon her heaving flank in a little hollow. As I halts upon the brow of the hill, she looks up at me very reproachful, and I can see that her prevalent complexion is beginning to turn very wan and pale. Son, take it from me, when a full-grown she-bull gets wan, she's probably the wannest thing there is in the world.

"Stand back, Scandalous," she moans to me in bull language. "I don't bear you no grudge—it was a mistake in judgment on the part of all of us—but stand back and give me room. Up till this time," she says, "I've been prory, but something seems to tell me that now I'm about to be what you might call real indisposed."

"Which she certainly was."

Puts Me Under Arrest

"So, after a while, a part of the police force came along stepping slow and cautious, and they halts themselves in the protecting shadows of the freight-shed or what's left of it, and they beckon to me to come near 'em, and when I responds they tell me I'm under arrest for inciting riots and disturbances and desecration of property and various other crimes and misdemeanors. I suggests to 'em that if they're really craving to arrest anybody they should oughter begin with Emily, but they don't fall in with the idea. They marches me up to the police station, looking over their shoulders at frequent intervals to be sure the anguished Emily ain't coming too, and when we get there, I find Windy in the act of being forcibly detained in the front office.

"Immediately after I arrived, the pay-off started and continued unabated for quite a period of time. First we settled in full with the little proprietors of them defunct peanut-roasting machines; and then the owner of the wrecked fruit-store, and the man that owned the opera house, and the stout lady who'd fainted from the waist up but was now entirely recovered, and the fleshy girl who'd climbed the telegraph pole, and the railroad agent and some several hundred others who had claims for property damages or mental anguish or shockages to their nervous systems or shortage of breath or loss of trade or other injuries—all these were in line, waiting.

"We was reduced to a case ten-spot before the depot agent, who came last, lined up for his'n; but he took one good look and said he wouldn't be a hog about it—we could keep that ten-specker, and he'd be satisfied just to take over our private car in consideration of the loss inflicted by Emily to his freight-shed. I was trying to tell him how much we appreciated his kindness, but the chief of police wouldn't let me finish—said he couldn't permit that kind of language to be used in a police station, said it might corrupt the morals of some of his young policemen.

"So everything passed off very pleasant and satisfactory at the police station, but Emily spent the evening and the ensuing night right there—she was voicing her regrets at frequent intervals. Along towards morning she felt easier, although sadly depleted in general appearance, and about daylight her and Windy bid me goodbye and went off across country afoot, aiming to catch up with Ringbold's Brothers' circus, which was reported to be operating somewhere in that vicinity. As for me, I'd had enough for the time being of the refined amusement business, I took my half of that lone sawbuck, which was all that was left to us from our frittered and dissipated fortunes, and I started east, traveling second class and living very frugally on the way. And that was about all that happened worthy of note, with the exception of a violent personal dispute occurring between me and a trail-butcher coming out of Astabula."

"What was the cause?" I asked as Scandalous stood up and smoothed down his waistcoat.

"I had just one thin dime left," said Scandalous, "and I explained my predicament to the butcher, saying as how I wanted what was the most filling thing he had for the price—and he offered me a sack of peanuts!"

COMPETITION FOR AMUSEMENT SCHEME

Chamber of Commerce Forum Hears Many Views on Amusement Centre

Prizes will be offered for the best plans for an amusement centre in Victoria. This course was decided upon last night after one of the most animated meetings yet held by the Forum of the Chamber of Commerce.

One of the first needs of the city, said Chairman J. F. Scott, who gave the address of the evening on the subject, "is a proper civic spirit. This is the foundation of all things."

Prizes will be offered for the best plans for an amusement centre in Victoria. This course was decided upon last night after one of the most animated meetings yet held by the Forum of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Scott outlined a scheme which included swimming baths, auditorium, country club, golf links and other attractions, his idea being that the auditorium should be the first unit, as this could be made use of for the reception of conventions.

Mr. Lee spoke of the wonderful advancement of Portland as a convention city. He advocated, however, the use of some of the present buildings, such as those at the Willows, for the holding of smaller conventions until such time as a suitable centre could be established.

Should Study Citizens as Well, Messrs. Cook, Corbett and Dixon spoke of the lack of entertainment, the latter emphasizing the fact that the interests of local people should be studied as well as those of visitors, and therefore it would be well to consider the salt-water swimming bath as the first unit of the scheme.

Mr. Webb and Mr. Wood outlined the scheme carried out at Harrogate, where municipal music was made the centre of attraction at all hours of the day, and where the scheme was started off with the aid of the people's money, but eventually proved a great paying proposition.

Importance of Music, George J. Dyke also emphasized the importance of music at a chief attraction, and spoke of the Casino idea as embracing music, dancing, exhibits, refreshments, sale of flowers and souvenirs, library and other features so centralized as to cater to the pleasure of the tourist and prove an added attraction for the local people as well.

Both Mr. Abell and Mr. Cameron made stirring speeches in the interests of what-Victoria already possessed in the way of attractions. These gentlemen, with other members of the Forum, were emphatic in their statements that what Victoria needs first is the proper spirit, and that those who cannot appreciate the splendid features with which the city is favored should move out.

Baths Question, W. F. Best explained that in the case of the Seattle baths, which Mr. Cameron said were a failure, the cause of the failure was that the water was pumped into the baths from a dirty harbor and chlorine lime was used to purify the water, hence there was an unpleasant odor to the water.

Mr. Cross spoke on a resolution presented by the Real Estate Exchange endorsing the idea of an amusement centre and urging the Chamber of Commerce to go ahead with the scheme.

Victoria can afford to go into debt for the time being if the population can be doubled and the money assured that will eventually pay off the indebtedness, he contended. He favored the designing of the scheme in its entirety as funds available permitted. Mr. Cross moved the resolution that a competition should be held, and it was endorsed unanimously.

P.G.E. DEFICITS ARE BLAMED ON "POLITICAL REFUGEE"

Mr. Bowser Attacks Spending on Government Railroad; Premier to Reply

W. J. Bowser, Opposition Leader, in speaking on the bill of the Minister of Finance to borrow $4,000,000 with which to complete the Pacific Great Eastern into Fort George, attacked the Government and its management of the railway for the increasing operation deficits.

Mr. Bowser also brought up the question of the change in the route into Queenol, which, he declared, was of doubtful value, as the curves at the lower levels may not be able to hold in as has been the case with similar railway construction in other places.

"I think that my honorable friend, the Premier, knows as much about building railways as he does about constructing statues," said Mr. Bowser. "The people who suffer from the railway building vagaries of the Premier are the taxpayers who are getting tired of it all."

"They didn't vote that way," the Attorney-General interjected. Mr. Bowser replied that Hon. Mr. Farris had no justification to make that statement as only 39 per cent of the electors voted for the Government at the last election.

Should Have Told All, He went on to assert that the Government when it came to the Legislature last year for more money for the P. G. E. should have come out and told what it would cost to complete the railway into Fort George instead of holding back from the people. Mr. Bowser declared that it was reprehensible constitutional practice for the Government just after the election, secretly to slip through a warrant for $500,000 for a continuation of the P. G. E. after keeping quiet about it before the election.

The present $4,000,000 loan Mr. Bowser criticized because not a dollar of it was set aside for rolling stock.

Makes a Prediction, "And, you mark my words," he went on, "in the early days of the session of 1922 the Minister of Finance will stand up and ask us for still another loan to complete the railway to Fort George and to tell us that it would cost $8,000,000 to complete the railway into Fort George."

Mr. Bowser attacked the Minister of Finance because he should have told the House last year that it would cost $8,000,000 to complete the railway into Fort George.

Mr. Bowser: "We are not responsible for the operation of the railroad now."

Just Political Scandal, The appointment of A. B. Buckworth as general manager of the P. G. E. at a salary of $8,000 a year, Mr. Bowser asserted was nothing but a political scandal.

There never was a bigger scandal than the picking up of a real estate man, a political friend of my honorable friend, the Attorney-General, because he had been a political supporter of his in Ward Two, Vancouver, and putting him in charge of this railway," Mr. Bowser went on.

On "Hot Air Line", He said that Mr. Buckworth's only railway experience consisted of his holding the office of receiver or bailiff of the "hot air line" which ran from the boundary line into Grand Forks once upon a time.

Mr. Bowser attacked the Government because the operation deficit of the railway has risen from $115,000 in 1918 to $24,318 in 1920.

Premier Oliver: "Will my friend tell us the mileage in operation at these different times."

Knows Nothing of Management, Mr. Bowser: "Yes, but the greater mileage the more revenue you get. You necessarily increase the revenue of the railway as you proceed with the building, or you should not go on with it at all."

Mr. Buckworth knows nothing about railway management," Mr. Bowser went on. "There should be some way of placing some manager in charge who knows something about railways. This Government could have taken a man in its own department who was well trained."

Hon. Mr. Farris: "D'Arcy Tate?"

Just Want Politics, Mr. Bowser: "My honorable friend is very prone to throw out cheap suggestions. But I refer to Mr. Kilpatrick, who has had very long experience; but that didn't suit my honorable friends. They wanted to get a political friend and give him $8,000 a year. The last thing that I think of doing would be to put hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of property in the hands of ward politicians."

Mr. Bowser went on to take up the three engines bought at $7,000 each, which are now lying at Squamish and cannot be used because they are too heavy for the sixty-pound rails and too long for the curves as they spread the rails.

Premier Oliver: "The expert who went East and bought these engines was an appointee of my honorable friend's own Government and has no superior as a mechanic in this Province."

A Mechanical Expert, Mr. Bowser replied that this man, William Rae, was only an inspector of tramways under the Conservative Government.

Premier Oliver: "Does my honorable friend wish to infer that Mr. Rae, his own appointee is not a competent mechanic?"

Mr. Bowser: "If my facts are correct that William Rae went to Kingston and bought three engines that were too heavy for the sixty-pound steel, then if Mr. Rae is responsible for that he is not competent."

Got Only Mud?, The Government was also attacked by the Opposition Leader for spending $20,000 on putting a line into a gravel pit at Lac La Pêche, where, he said, nothing was taken out except a few carloads of mud that squashed out when it was put under the ties.

Hon. Mr. Farris: "Did you get any of it?"

Mr. Bowser charged that the Premier had changed the station at the townsite of Williams Lake and that this change had cost the P. G. E. $42,000.

"It seems to me now that the election is over and that the Pacific Great

TAKES SCIENCE INTO HEART OF CHINA

Noted Canadian Research Professor Sails Under $80,000 Rockefeller Fund

Dr. A. B. Macallum, noted research scientist who worked with the formula in Canada for salvarsan, neo-salvarsan and diarsonal with which venereal diseases were kept under control in the Canadian, American and parts of the British armies, after the supply of the secret German product was shut off from the outside world at the outbreak of war, sailed last night on the Empress of Russia. He is the first Canadian chosen to go to the Orient from the Rockefeller Institute of New York, which is spending $80,000,000 of American money and putting to work the most skilled scientists in the world on bettering health conditions for humanity irrespective of race.

Dr. Macallum is on his way to Peking, once the "forbidden city," but which now even has a university modelled on western lines. It is planned to turn out Chinese doctors by the hundreds and thousands from this institution, and send them to all parts of China to practice and control some of the plagues which periodically sweep the country. The faculty at the university will be Chinese, most of them educated at American and some at Canadian colleges. Dr. Macallum will give a course of lectures at Peking extending over six months.

Return to Research. When he returns to Canada he will delve into research work at McGill University, where he recently accepted the professorship of biochemistry. Research work has always been his dream, he said, and at McGill he will have to give only three lectures a week, so that his investigations into some of the mysteries of animal life will be little interfered with.

Protect From Syphilis Plague. Three sons of Dr. Macallum are following their father and devoting their lives to medical research. They are at present producing salvarsan and its derivatives for Canada and the United States. They have established an American branch of their Toronto laboratories which is taking the place of German laboratories in protecting the American people against a venereal plague. Their product is the only product of the kind that can be imported into England. Other countries are also relying on it instead of the German supply.

When the United States entered the war 200,000 German treatments were sent from the Canadian laboratory to France with the American troops to protect them against the blighting venereal conditions in all European countries.

Product Proved Faultless. Dr. Macallum last night told of the death of the two women in Toronto recently after they had been treated with injections. This was not the fault of the preparation, he explained, as the coroner investigated the treatment, with the result that the doctor has been indicted and will be tried for manslaughter. The doctor was not in a proper condition to administer the treatment and in handling the neo-salvarsan and diarsonal tubes got them mixed and used the wrong dilutant with the result that the injections were not neutralized and the patients died. This doctor, court evidence also showed, then destroyed the empty tubes and broke other tubes to camouflage his mistake and throw suspicion on the product. But the ruse was discovered.

Two thousand injections of the Canadian product have been made in Toronto and there has been no trouble with one," said Dr. Macallum. "The Rockefeller Foundation, Dr. Macallum explained, "at present is centering most of its energies on conquering yellow fever and sleeping sickness and wiping malaria out entirely."

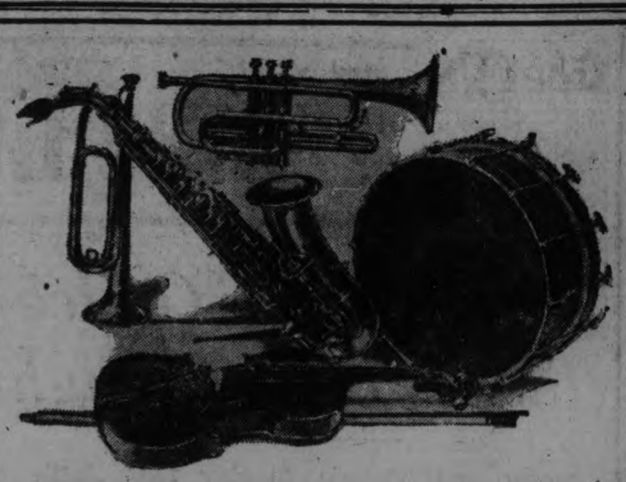

During the war Dr. Macallum was taken from the University of Toronto, where he was a professor in the faculty of medicine, and made chairman of the National Research Council of Canada.

RETURNED MEN SEARCH FOR GOLD. Province Provides Money, But They Quit and Leave Outfit in Woods.

Delving further into the mining operations of Sam Gothard and returned soldiers and associates in the Stikine country a report that the committee of the Legislature to-day learned that these men had applied to the Department of Industries for a loan of $21,000, with which to carry on hydraulic operations, to find gold. They were granted only $6,000, according to the information furnished by D. B. Martyn, Deputy Minister of Industries.

A party was accordingly organized of Comrades Squair Righty, Oliver, Thompson and Gothard. Their outfit, purchased at Vancouver, cost $1,454. In addition they were given credit on a merchant named Callibrath at Telegraph Creek, first for $2,000 and later for $1,000. The first credit they spent $1,959.34, and of the second $449.92. They left Vancouver in April and were back in August with a report that they had reached the location and had erected a shack, but a man named Edgett had refused to let them bring water across his claim and they were therefore unable to do anything. The total cost of the expedition was $4,233, which the industries department charged to central work. The four hydraulic leases are now held by the Premier as Minister of Industries. The Department has also a mortgage on the claim which is in seven packing cases somewhere in the vicinity of Dease Lake. The Department has also the joint note of the syndicate, but this note was given with the understanding that if the expedition was a failure the note would not be collected, while if the expedition were successfully finding gold the note would not need to be collected.

Smelting Tests Failed. The committee also looked into an expenditure of $1,968.90 for experi-

ROTARIANS READY TO START FOR SEATTLE. Final preparations for the Seattle Rotary Convention were made by the Rotary Club at its luncheon to-day. Registrations filed with Secretary Capt. T. J. Goodlake make certain that a large party of Victoria Rotarians will attend the conference.

Convention songs, written by the "Rotary Poet Laureate," E. J. Down, were rehearsed for the last time to-day. The Club will give the convention a surprise with some of these lively ditties. The Rotarians' singing was much improved by the presence of their wives at the luncheon. Many of the ladies will attend the convention.

night any more. It spoils the play for the next day on the greens if you sit in.

"Some of the golfers have a shower at the locker house while waiting for their turn. Then they take breakfast and a walk. We plan to start our play at seven, but I've known foursomes to tee off when you couldn't see more than a hundred feet. That's too early. The grass is so wet then every ball cuts a channel through the dew. It's too dark and damp to be comfortable.

Just Have To Get Up.

Confirmation of the popularity of this 18-hole course of which the enthusiast spoke was not hard to obtain. A glance at the register showed great pains were taken to make it a really first-class first served playground. Not only do you sign your name to get a place in the line, but just before driving off, you have to sign again in the same book on the same line. The signatures are then compared. You are not allowed to buy or bribe a substitute to line up in the dim damp dawn and inscribe your name while you still snuggle under the eiderdown.

If Wrong, Don't Fight.

Neither need you strive to enter by any way but the prescribed book. An official watcher on the grounds first demand your ticket any time. He punches the pasteboard of any he suspects are playing out of turn and pinches those who cannot produce a properly numbered card. Stores where professional golfers abound in the vicinity of municipal links, sell, make and mend clubs, but you are not allowed to use such implements on the puncher. He and all public park officials are endowed with police authority.

How Doctors Did It.

Doctors in the Windy City who want an early game on the Sabbath morn or holiday have been known to motor to the links at midnight or later, in their sedans, there trundle out a collapsible cot and roll themselves in an auto rug and sleep beside the greens.

Sign A Day Ahead.

At two of the very popular links a charge of 15c for playing was instituted last year, or, for 5c more you could reserve your right to play at a stated hour, provided you so arranged the day before.

Golf has shattered the remnant of Chicago's Sabbath observance, but then it is a long day since this city had more than a bargain-counter portion of that commodity. Toronto need not follow her lead in the pursuit of pleasure any more than she does in many other practices.

Shoved In Like Shells.

A thousand golfers tried to get in a game between daylight and dark at Edgemoor Park, on the Sabbath following the Fourth of July, and these links were only made public last year. It is a wonder the crowd did not sink the pretty natural bowl. Helldiver ducks swim there not so very long ago before modern engineering turned the flow of Chicago River from Lake Michigan to the Mississippi. Now the river through the links is not much more than a ditch where, for a dime, small boys wade and recover balls that fall to clear the bank.

No Locks Needed Now.

Time and the mind of man work many changes. In the little locker house at Edgemoor Park the "18th hole" is now a shop—a regular shop truly, but for inanimate implements not for the convivial congregation of mankind wont to meet there in the days when the club was private property and the Windy City was "wet" in all weathers. Once a lake filled the land where the links now lie, and long before firewater was known as a possible flavoring for its fluid contents, Potawatomi Indians used the place as a rendezvous.

Waves of Lake Michigan marched in their might, frothy whitecaps frolicked and fish swam serenely where mangled and to-day provides the bunkers, fairways, tees and Chicago, March 11.—(By Mail)—If you can't get him up, if you can't get him up, if you can't get him up in the morning—try golf! Not an ironshod club—that might be dangerous. Try the game itself. It gets Chicago enthusiasts out before 4 a.m. They are players on the municipal links, of which the windy city has seven, but finds even that lucky number all too few.

ROMANO
The secrets of Paris police methods, made famous in French detective stories, are revealed in "L'Apache," the latest Dorothy Dalton picture, which Thomas H. Ince produced for Paramount-Artcraft release. The picture, which will be shown at the Roman Theatre again to-day, involves the murder of a profligate American millionaire in the French capital. Miss Dalton, who has the role of an Apache dancing girl, is suspected of the crime and imprisoned. The police investigation reveals an astonishing tale of deception and adventure that, it is said, will thrill audiences. The picture was directed by Joseph De Grasse.

VARIETY
Dorothy Gish's latest picture, "Flying Pat," is the merry story of a young husband who conducted a nation-wide search for his runaway wife and found her in his own kitchen, which is now showing at the Variety Theatre. In the role of the bride, Miss Gish is urged by her screen husband to choose a "career" for herself and decides to become a flyer. But this leads to complications, when her teacher turns out to be of a flirtatious disposition. Following an accident in the air, there is a smash-up at home, and the bride leaves in haste and tears.

PRINCESS
To-night and the balance of the week the Mildred Page Players are presenting "Sick-Abed," that wonderful farce which is said to be the greatest laughing success of recent years, and with the splendid acting and scenic effects given by Victoria's popular stock company it is an offering well worth the seeing.

The next play at the Princess will be "The Country Cousin," a comedy drama, which is too well known to require much introduction. This charming play is by Booth Tarkington, author of "Penrod," "Seventeen" and "Clarence," all creations so well known that they are in themselves a big boost for any other play or book bearing the same author's name. At the Wednesday night performance of "The Country Cousin," another large framed portrait of James Cohan will be presented to the one guessing nearest the correct number of words spoken by Byron Alden in the part of Reggie Jay in "Sick-Abed," this week.

ROYAL-VICTORIA
Sidney A. Franklin's initial independent production, "Not Guilty," is the first Harold MacGrath story that he has directed. Franklin is a great admirer of MacGrath's novels and considers that they are of the finest picture material. The feature will be seen at the Royal Victoria Theatre again to-night.

He is a Parisian, forty-six years old, and has been identified with motion pictures in Europe and this country since 1903. He directed Mme. Nazimova in "Out of the Fog," "Eye For Eye" and "The Red Lantern." His latest production, "The Inside of the Cup," manifests his genius in every scene. It is a beautiful picturization of Winston Churchill's celebrated novel the publication of which in 1913, occasioned a world-wide controversy. The leading players include William P. KATHLEEN PARLOW
TO GIVE RECITAL
World-renowned Violinist Is Coming Shortly to Victoria

Music lovers will welcome with enthusiasm the announcement that Kathleen Parlow, the eminent violinist, is to appear in recital in Victoria in the near future in the course of a continental tour. Undoubtedly the greatest woman violinist of the day, Kathleen Parlow has a world-wide reputation which places her in the foremost ranks of the world's great musicians and her forthcoming visit should prove the musical sensation of the year.

A New York criticism recently says: Although supremely equipped with virtuosity she never made it her business, even when she came here on her first tour, to be a virtuoso alone.

Last week she presented a programme which in the main was of distinguished musical quality. Where are the violinists who concentrate through our land who devote a prominent place on their programmes to new sonatas? Miss Parlow indicated her attitude by her calling in playing with Howard Brockway the Sonata in A of Ildebrando Pizzetti. Abroad she has played it with Ernesto Consolo. Not only in European capitals has she given it—it caused a flurry in London—but before the composer himself in Florence. She is thus an authentic interpreter of its message, and it has one. It has been rated high by several noted critics, some calling it the best sonata for piano and violin since the Cesar Franck.

In his three movements, Signor Pizzetti manages to build an im-

ing structure, in which his very intense personality—not always as original as it might be desired—has full play. Thematically the first and last movements are best; while the second movement, called "Pregheira per gli innocenti," has fine moments, moments that recall the music of Montemezzi in his "L'Amore del Tre Re"; it is too long and needs pruning. Striking rhythms are dashed up in the quick movements and the harmonies are vital, though not at all in a Malipiero, Casella and Co. There were many present who were thankful for this. The sonata was very well received by the audience and Miss Parlow and Mr. Brockway were called out to bow several times after their memorable performance.

Glazunov's Concerto in A Minor remains a disappointing work. Begging ideally, with a genuine violin concerto main theme, it becomes less and less interesting as it thins itself out to its stupid close. Miss Parlow delivered it with technical and interpretative skill and made much of it sound far better than it really is. Following it came the Beethoven G Major Romance, the Mozart-Kreisler Rondo, and two compositions of the Bohemian, Josef Suk. His "Quasi Ballata" is one of the finest of modern violin pieces and was played gloriously. Then there were Rogu Quilter's charming setting of "Drink to Me Only With Thin Eyes," Frank Bridge's "Moto Russet" at the end. The Beethoven and Mozart were joys to listen to, their classic lines chiselled finely, the cadenza in the Mozart stunningly played. Of course the encore fiends had their extras after the Wieniawski. They always do. Walter Golde played the accompaniments beautifully. We have heard him do nothing finer than his playing in the Suk "Quasi Ballata."

It was an afternoon of noteworthy violin playing. Kathleen Parlow is often spoken of as the greatest living woman violinist. She is more. She is one of the greatest violinists of our day; irrespective of sex.

He was unaware of the eccentricities to be found in the Wild West. He entered what was apparently the only hotel in the place. After ushering him to a table and giving the stranger the usual glass of cold water, the waiter inquired: "Will you have sausages on toast?" "No, I never eat 'em!" "In that case, sir," replied the waiter, moving away, "dinner is over!"

Letting Go of the Shoes

THE era of high shoe prices is over. Competition, lowering costs of materials and production have again entered into the shoe industry, and the day of reasonable retail prices is again dawning. This means that every retail merchant is compelled and must be willing to take a heavy loss on present stocks. This store proposes to be in the foreranks in taking advantage of and giving its patrons the advantage of lowering prices. In order to do so it is imperative that this entire stock be turned into cash in the shortest possible time. This is going to be done, no matter what the cost. The stock has been placed in my hands for that purpose, with explicit instructions to mark every shoe at a price that will sell it. I have paid no attention to costs or replacement prices in the pricing of this great stock. You know the quality of the merchandise sold here as well as I do, and you will recognize in every price a genuine reduction—a value worth while. The store's reputation for careful and competent fitting will be upheld throughout the sale. No matter what kind of shoe you want, the price is much less. New Spring goods—everything is included. All sales are for cash only. Exchanges forenoons only.

Naval Squadron Leaves Esquimalt for Mainland

H. M. C. S. Aurora and Destroyers Patriot and Patrician Will Anchor in English Bay For Night, Entering Burrard Inlet Early To-morrow; Return Here Wednesday.

Unostentatiously making its departure from Esquimalt Harbor, the Canadian fleet sailed at 10 o'clock this morning for Vancouver. As the guests of Lieutenant Charles T. Beard, the Navy League representatives from the four Western Provinces left here on the destroyer Patriot. The Navy League conference is being held aboard this craft. In the same formation that marked the arrival of the fleet on Wednesday, the flagship Aurora leading, a course was shaped up the Gulf.

Captain Walter Hose, R. C. N., director of the Canadian Naval Service, did not accompany the fleet. He proposes to join the ships at Vancouver during the week-end.

To Anchor Overnight.

The fleet is due to reach English Bay at 6 o'clock this evening, remaining at an anchorage in the bay for the night, and steaming through the First Narrows early to-morrow morning. An elaborate entertainment programme has been planned for the officers and men of the fleet at Vancouver to be wound up with a grand ball at the Hotel Vancouver.

To Return Wednesday.

On Wednesday next the Aurora, Patriot and Patrician will return to the Esquimalt naval base to outfit for the return trip to Halifax. It is improbable that a cruise will be made to Prince Rupert.

While on the Atlantic station the Canadian fleet will co-operate with the British North Atlantic squadron in naval manoeuvres.

LINER HAWAII MARU HERE FROM ORIENT

Japanese Ship Arrives With Light Cargo; Fair Passage Reported

Reporting a fair passage across the Pacific, the Osaka Shosen Kaisha liner Hawaii Maru, Captain T. Suruga, docked at Pier 1 at 8.35 o'clock this morning, fourteen days out from Yokohama. Arriving in quarantine at 4.30 o'clock, the ship was passed at sunrise. Three days of heavy weather were experienced after crossing the 18th meridian, but apart from this stiff blow, Captain Suruga reported good sailing conditions.

Three hundred miles in one day was the best steaming time credited to the Japanese liner.

Aboard the Hawaii Maru were 236 passengers, all Japanese. Seventy-six steerage came ashore here. Among the through passengers were S. Kawai and T. Kanasaki, Japanese students en route from Japan to the Columbia University.

Sailed at Noon.

The liner cleared about noon after discharging mails and about 100 tons of general freight. She carried 1,100 tons for Seattle and 1,200 tons for Tacoma.

The Seattle freight included 500 tons of bean oil, which was taken aboard at Dairen. Ninety tons of frozen poultry from Shanghai also was destined for the East via Puget Sound.

The raw silk cargo amounted to 106 tons.

The Empress carried 260 saloon, 75 second, 32 third class and 400 Asiatic steerage passengers.

Prominent among those sailing by the Empress were J. P. Molson, of London, England, financier; J. P. Molson, returning to Yokohama, where he has extensive business; Bishop Trolope, of New York; C. A. Saunders, banker, of New York; William

Western General Manager on Tour of C. P. R. System

"Business is looking up," declared Charles Murphy, general manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway Western Lines, who has arrived in Vancouver on a tour of inspection. Mr. Murphy will inspect Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway lines while on the Coast. "When we notice a distinct upward trend in the receipts from our freight and passenger-carrying traffic, this is significant of a general improvement of conditions all over the West, and for the past two weeks it has been observed that there has been a steady change for the better."

"Of course, the process of revision to normal is slow, and this is natural following a period of acute depression, but it is none the less sure for all that. I hope and am confident that by the end of Spring the tide

Williams Steamship Company Considering Extension of Route to Montreal

The idea at the back of the new project is believed to be that high railway freight rates, at present in prospect, furnish the ideal opportunity to enterprising steamship lines; and in this connection it should be pointed out that the Williams Steamship Company already had its boats

B. C. FLYING BOAT CARRIES MANY ON WEST COAST TRIP

Port Renfrew Visited by Forestry Official to Inspect Damage

Prior to the escort flight in which an F-3 flying boat from Jericho Beach met and welcomed the Canadian Squadron on the arrival here, the huge twin-engine machine was flown to Port Renfrew. The object of the trip to Port Renfrew was to inspect the damage to the timber that had occurred as a result of the recent severe storms.

Many Passengers. On board were Major MacLaurin, superintendent of the B. C. Air Station; Major L. R. Andrews, district forester, Department for Forestry; Major J. A. Motherwell, Dominion inspector of fisheries at Vancouver; Pilot Officer E. L. McLeod; Photographer Duncan; with a rigger and fitter from the air station.

It was intended to take photographs of the timber limits at Port Renfrew and to survey the extent of the damage by storm. Owing to the overcast and stormy weather still prevailing the object of the trip was not attained on this occasion. Returning to Esquimalt, the machine discharged some of her complement and went off to meet the Canadian squadron, escorting the ships into the harbor.

George R. Naden, Deputy Minister of Lands and Norman Yarwood, civilian member of the B. C. Executive Council of the Air Board, made the flight over the naval vessels. The machine returned later to Jericho Beach.

ORIGINAL OF "KIM" DIED IN OBSCURITY

A. M. Jacob Rose From Slave Boy to Diamond Merchant; Ascetic Tastes

A. M. Jacob, the "Lurgan Sahib" of Rudyard Kipling's "Kim" and the hero of Marion Crawford's novel "Mr. Isaacs," has died in obscurity and poverty at Bombay at the age of 71. Mystery surrounds the origin, as well as many features of the career, of a man generally believed to be either a Polish or Armenian Jew, but who claimed to be a Turk and was born near Constantinople. At any rate, he was of the humblest origin, and when ten years old was sold as a slave to a rich pasha, who, discovering that the boy had uncommon abilities, made a student of him. It was thus that he acquired the foundation of that wide knowledge of Eastern life, language, art, literature, philosophy and the social and administrative capital of India for the greater part of the year.

Mr. Jacob's unrivalled knowledge of precious stones gave him a remarkable clientele of the highest in the land, such as British satraps and Indian princes; but he was much more than a keen man of business. He was endowed by nature with a wonderfully handsome face and form, and there was about him a compelling magnetism, a power and mystery, which led to his being sought for conversation and advice by viceroys and princes as well as men only less exalted.

A Rich Ascetic. Belvedere, his Simla home, furnished in the most lavish Oriental style and filled with priceless ornaments, was thronged by a succession of notable visitors. Yet his own habits of life were ascetic almost to the verge of sternness. So far from using his immense wealth for the gratification of luxurious tastes, he was a vegetarian, a teetotaler, and a non-smoker, and with good horses in his stables he rode only a shaggy hill pony.

A Ruined Man. But the day came when this bright star suffered eclipse. Hearing that the "Imperial diamond" was for sale in this country, he went to the late Nizam of Hyderabad, Sir Mahbub Ali Khan, and obtained an offer of Rs. 45 lakhs, then the equivalent of over £300,000. He obtained Rs. 20 lakhs on account, and finding by cable that he could obtain the stone for £150,000, he at once paid the amount.

Mr. Jacob always alleged that it was owing to a personal intrigue against him that a high dignitary in Hyderabad, acting for the Government of India, brought pressure to bear on the Nizam, whose finances were at that time in an unsatisfactory state, to renounce the transaction.

Mr. Jacobs was sued for return of the Rs. 20 lakhs and was criminally indicted on a charge of cheating. After a trial at the Calcutta High Court lasting 57 days he was acquitted; but he had incurred enormous legal expenses.

The Truth? About Louvain
Upton Sinclair's Illusion

By R. L. O.

[From The European Press, a paper published in Bremen, Germany, in English—a journal devoted to the furtherance of international understanding—a copy of which has just reached a former captain in the Great War, resident here.]

An American friend of mine has sent me a copy of "The Freeman" (New York, Dec. 1, 1920) and I have read it with great delight from cover to cover. Among the "Letters to the Editors" I find one from Upton Sinclair reviewing his reviewer, Mr. Edwin Bjorkman. What ever may be thought of the good taste or expediency of reviewing one's reviewer, it may be conceded that Mr. Sinclair is entitled to his somewhat insistent not to say slightly hysterical protest against what he considers the misrepresentation or misrepresentation of Mr. Bjorkman. But in an ever greater degree am I entitled to protest against a sudden and glaring fallacy on the part of Mr. Sinclair. He writes—and in writing once more confirms his peculiar attitude . . . "I thought as little about the question of taste as Edwin would have thought if he had been in Louvain and had been trying to keep the Germans from burning the library."

In order, however, to appreciate the entire grotesqueness of this utterance of Mr. Sinclair's, and all it implies, one must not forget that this gross fiction of the propagandistic-capitalistic-militaristic press, is soberly repeated and regarded as self-understood by a man to whom the falsity of that press is known as to few others and who has just been exposing its fathomless corruption and dishonesty in his "Brass Check." In other words, Mr. Sinclair, who has been warning us against the doctored news and poisoned reports of the capitalistic press, publicly proclaims himself a victim of one of the crudest myths which it succeeded in launching during the war.

This is the less pardonable in Mr. Sinclair's case, since he is one of the few American authors in touch with intellectuals on the Continent, and one who quotes with gusto their favorable criticism or commendation of his works. One would think that before he repeated this reckless and long-explored charge against a country which, whatever its faults, possesses at least the superlative virtue of extending a particular hospitality to his books, this dweller in the journalistic jungle, would have taken the trouble to inform himself. By his own warning it was his business to take nothing which he had read in the papers for granted.

"Physician, Heal Thyself!"

If it happens that he is unfamiliar with Continental tongues it must be pointed out that the truth about Louvain has appeared in quite a number of liberal English weeklies with which one would suppose, an internationalist such as Upton Sinclair would keep in touch. Therefore if one cannot hand a "brass check" to this emancipator of our press-fodder, one would at least be entitled to hand him a brass-fathoming-for-his-accuracy, or a leather medal with the inscription: "Physician, Heal Thyself!"

I have read the "Brass Check" and hailed it as a brave feat, even though the author, as H. L. Menckon pointed out in "The Appeal to Reason," obviously shied from the greatest masterpiece achieved by this press up to the present—the predominant part it enacted in forcing our country into the war. Mr. Sinclair might as well have overlooked a volcano in full blast. What inhibition kept him from assailing the picturesque myths beloved of the mob? What fear kept him from pursuing the relentless logic of his own disclosures?

I do not know whether Mr. Bjorkman or Mr. Sinclair have ever been in Louvain or what either of them would have done had he been there during the German occupation. It happened, however, that I was there during the German occupation, in company with a number of neutral correspondents towards the close of 1918. And it may possibly serve the ends of general enlightenment and understanding if I try to keep Mr. Sinclair from burning the truth. Since the liberation of the intellect from the ban of organized superstitions and fetishes, I take it, one of the functions of an enlightened journal, I hope I may be accorded space for presenting certain observations and investigations I made on the spot—after listening to both the German and the Belgian versions of the disaster that befel the unfortunate city.

"A German Lie or Error?"

There is an element of irony in the myth about Louvain in view of the fact that the first accounts of its absolute destruction were due to a German lie, or error. The stupidity or vainglory of a German general or bombastic official saw to it that the accounts of the reprisals against the franc-tireurs were heralded to an appreciable world by Wolff's Telegraph Agency in the following words: "Lowe ist dem Erdboden gleich gemacht worden." Louvain has been razed to the ground. The imbecility of this falsehood or bit of braggadocio can be properly felt only by those who, like myself, have stood on the terrace of the Capuchin Monastery on Mont Cesar and gazed down upon the sea of roofs and spires of the city beneath and searched in vain for a sign of destruction from this point of view.

The Germans declared that less than one-sixth of the city had been destroyed. Others said it was less than one-eighth, many Louvainese, who rather resented the rush poured forth upon their city, declared it was only a tenth or a twelfth. The German official account was so large an extent substantiated by Monsignore Dr. Coenraeds, the Vice-rector of Louvain University.

HEAVY MEAT EATERS HAVE SLOW KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat If You Feel Back-ache or Have Bladder Trouble.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clear and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

LADIES Do you want good quality materials for your new dress or suit? We have thousands of yards to be sold as low as $2.50 per yard. This is 1/2 regular price; width 54- and 56 inches. This is an exceptional opportunity to get materials of better quality than is usually found in women's fabrics. Take care of the children's needs.

DON'T FUSS WITH MUSTARD PLASTERS!

Musterole Works Without the Blister—Easier, Quicker

There's no sense in mixing a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole. Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of the present white ointment. It takes the place of mustard plasters, and will not blister. Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

Extension of Stadium.—At a meeting of the Streets Committee of the City Council under Alderman Sangster to-day, a request from the Foundation Organizations Athletic Association for permission to extend the southern fence of the Stadium some eighteen feet to the edge of the roadway on Belleville Street was approved. City Engineer Preston recommended that permission be granted if the corner of Belleville and Douglas Streets be rounded off. The committee also passed on the acceptance of a tender for a National truck, to cost some $5,760. City Engineer Preston recommended that a Packard at $7,487 would prove more economical in the end, but the decision to take the National was reached.

TWO-YEAR TERM FOR ALDERMEN GIVES APPROVAL

Municipal Elections to Be Held in December

HOUSE COMMITTEE APPROVES CHANGES

A two-year term for aldermen and various alterations in the present civic election system were approved by the Private Bills Committee of the Legislature this morning, when nearly every member of the Victoria Private Bill was considered and passed.

While the committee, without a dissenting voice, agreed to give Victoria a two-year term, it would not make the term retroactive, as suggested in the Private Bill. "We should not attempt to take away the electors' prerogative," R. H. Pooley, Conservative Member for Esquimalt, warned the committee.

The committee was much impressed with the city's plan to hold its elections earlier in future than under the present system. As Vancouver is asking for a similar change it is planned to amend the Municipal Act and set the date of nominations for municipal office all over the Province in the first week of December, so that the new mayors and councils may start work on January 1.

Approval was given to the city's request that householders should not have to register each year to have their names placed on the voters' list, provided they are otherwise qualified. Their names will go on the list automatically each year. It was decided, also, that the voters' list should be closed on October 31, so that city officials will have plenty of time to get the list in order. By a decision of the committee, however, voters' names have been left off the list through an error may secure their votes if their qualifications are certified to by the City Assessor and City Clerk.

Discussions.—A long discussion of taxes and assessments centred around a clause which provides that the sale price of reverted lands shall not affect, for assessment purposes, the value of adjoining lands.

Mr. Jackson took the opportunity to attack the present "false, fictitious and rotten assessment" which, not in any sense, represented the market value of property, he asserted.

"Hear! hear!" exclaimed Alderman Todd.

"Why should we disturb the assessment up and down, up and down?" asked Mr. Pringle.

"Because it is supposed to be an honest statement of fact," Mr. Johnson replied. "The cities have asked us without blushing to put a false, fictitious value on land and have told us it would help their financing but history shows that it has raised taxes."

FATE OF ZEPPELINS

Germany Lost 66 Out of 83 in Commission During War.

According to the Berlin correspondent of the "Handley-Page Bulletin," the "Flieler" quotes the official records relating to the eighty-three Zeppelins in commission during the war, of which sixty-six are accounted for by the German Government department as follows:

- 1 shot down and destroyed.
- 2 accidentally destroyed in entering or leaving the hangars.
- 13 caught fire accidentally.
- 18 destroyed through emergency landing.
- 4 stranded and destroyed owing to failure of engines.
- 1 destroyed by lightning.
- 1 broke loose from her mooring and disappeared entirely.
- 1 fell into the North Sea.

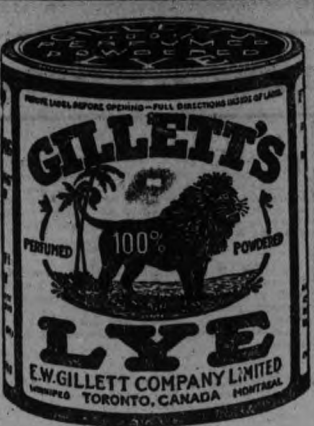

The paper reminds the Allies that the German authorities decided to give them up as a bad job for military purposes before the war ended.

A sailor was one of about a dozen occupants of the gallery. He got so noisy that the manager sent word, "We will throw you out if you don't keep quiet."

"Don't you think you ought to go out and throw a few in?" he replied.

Professor: "Wonderful, is it not, how Nature provides for the needs of mankind?"

Foolish Friend: "Oh, rather! What, for instance, could be more convenient than cars to hook one's spectacles over?"

plan to license bicycles and suggested that the civic authorities stamp numbers on bicycles instead of providing them with removable license tags.

Hospital Question.—The committee stood over a clause which provides that the city shall not be liable for the expenses of indigent hospital patients who have lived in the city less than twelve months. The members felt that this matter should be deferred as the hospital question had become one of provincial concern, and was being considered by the provincial authorities.

Daylight Saving.—The cities request for power to establish daylight saving time, and prosecute people who refused to observe it provoked some discussion, but in the end the plan was approved.

"The change of time in Victoria affects the outlying districts," said Kenneth Duncan, member for Cowichan. "I would suggest that instead of changing the time you change your closing bylaws, making the shops open and close an hour earlier."

The city representatives, however, felt that such an arrangement would not work out satisfactorily.

"Saanch has refused to adopt daylight saving, and Oak Bay and Esquimalt have made no decision on the matter," Alderman Todd pointed out.

"Do you propose to let the tail wag the dog?" Mr. Jackson demanded.

"That often happens, Alderman Todd replied, and we often find that out when we come before House committees."

Power Over Cabarets.—The committee gave the city full power for "prohibiting or regulating amusements and entertainments commonly known as cabarets and for defining or declaring what shall constitute a cabaret, and for limiting or prohibiting all or any amusements carried on in such cabarets."

A clause giving the city power to keep down to eight miles an hour the speed of automobiles travelling over bridges was approved.

The committee also approved a clause which allows motorists to park their cars on cluster lighted streets after dark without tail lights burning. Without discussion the committee approved the city's request that the recent Police Commission election here be declared legal, and decided that Police Commission candidates should possess the same qualifications as Mayorality candidates.

MEMBERS OF HOUSE TO GO TO MOVIES

Members of the Legislature are to go to the movies in a body next Tuesday afternoon, Speaker Manson announced before the House adjourned yesterday afternoon.

The show will consist of the films taken by the Government's moving picture department. They will be shown at the Royal Victoria Theatre. The House will adjourn early in the afternoon so that everybody can go.

The members have been invited to visit the Provincial Girls' Home in Vancouver some Saturday and have much with the superintendent.

More Time for Lunch

There was applause from all factions in the House for Attorney-General Farris when he moved the adjournment of the House yesterday afternoon. In order to speed up business the House has a meeting at 2 o'clock for the last week or more.

"I would suggest that the House on rising stand adjourned until 2:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon," said Hon. Mr. Farris, pausing and emphasizing the half hour. There was a ready response of appreciation to this concession on the part of the Government as many members have said.

ASAMA BEAUTIFUL IN NIGHT ERUPTION

Sending forth a column of black smoke several thousand feet and roaring like thunder, Mount Asama in Japan, says The Japan Advertiser, erupted at about 10 o'clock one morning last month, again about two hours later, and a third time about 4 o'clock the same day. Smaller eruptions continued throughout the night.

The view of the Asama in eruption at night was reported to have been a splendid sight. About five minutes after the first eruption on Tuesday morning, the black smoke which had risen to the sky was blown by wind above Maebashi, where it arrives after about half an hour. In the direction of Asama a large quantity of ashes fell. For a time the light of the sun was intercepted and the day grew suddenly dark. No serious damage was done.

A dispatch from Uyeda reported that the view of the eruption from 25 miles was splendid and the bright clear outline of mountains was suddenly darkened and made obscure by the smoke and ashes which enveloped them. A Kumagae dispatch reported that even at so great a distance as 50 miles ash fell in showers by the quakes caused by the Asama eruption. The smoke could be seen from that district. The view of Asama when it erupted late in the afternoon and at night was splendid, says a Nagano dispatch, as columns

Secret, Reprehensible Orders

In moving the second reading of the bill which he introduced to ratify loans made to municipalities for the purpose of relieving unemployment, Premier Oliver Thursday afternoon in the Legislature hurled back at the Leader of the Opposition the statement that this act affected "one of those secret, reprehensible orders-in-council" which the Government was said to be in the habit of passing.

"The act is to provide the municipalities whereby the municipalities affected may make repayment," explained the Premier. The loans are repayable in five annual instalments, with interest at 6 per cent, payable half-yearly. The municipalities did not have the requisite power to make these repayments, so this act had to be introduced.

Second reading was given the bill without further comment.

What Voting Cost of fire were shot high into the sky from the crater.

The eruptions were registered by the Imperial University seismograph, whereas the eruption at the end of last year was not. Doctor Omori is of the opinion that the recent eruption must have been much more violent than before. But the nature of the eruptions was simpler this time and they are not so continuous.

THOUGHT THE ROOF HAD FALLEN.

An amusing story is told of the wonderful hitting power of Bob Fitzsimmons, the famous boxer. He met one man who had an idea that Bob's punch was not such a serious affair as it was supposed to be. The optimist dashed in and bustled about the ring for a round or two. Robert dodged around for a while, and then, without the slightest warning, banged his right across. They carried the unconscious boxer from the ring, and on recovering he looked anxiously around. "Were many injured?" he inquired. "Injured? What do you mean?" asked his second. "The beaten man gazed at his friend and said: 'Why, when the roof fell in.'"

Beauty Secrets Revealed.

Anna Q. Nilsson the Popular Actress Tells How

To Instantly Have a Beautiful Rosy-White Skin and Complexion.

ANNA Q. NILSSON

New York—"The secret of beauty is the proper care of the skin," says Miss Nilsson, the popular Metro star. "It only requires a few moments a day and anyone is more than paid for the little effort it takes. In the first place the skin should be kept scrupulously clean. Use a good cleansing cream (Alaska cold cream I have found to be the best), follow this by bathing the face with warm water then rinse with cold water and dry thoroughly with a coarse towel. After this process select a beautifier which in addition to being a beautifier has a healing effect on the skin. Put derwillo on one side of your face, then look in your mirror and compare it with the other side—you will find no further argument to convince you that nothing beautifies like derwillo. It imparts a youthful appearance and if you would keep your complexion as lovely as mine all the time make derwillo a part of your toilet as you now do face powder and note the favorable comments of your friends. Short sleeves are now in vogue, use derwillo to beautify your hands and arms and protect them from roughness and redness, which always follows exposure to sun, dust and wind. It is guaranteed absolutely harmless on the most delicate skin and will positively not stimulate or produce a growth of hair. Never be without it. Accept no substitutes as there is nothing "better," "just as good" or "just like it."

FURTHER DEPRESSION IN WALL STREET

(By Burdick Brothers, Ltd.)

New York, March 11.—Another exhibition of weakness in the so-called high grade rail issues had a very depressing effect on sentiment today. Steady pressure in the way of liquidation and activities of the bear element were in evidence as the group through the entire session. Recent weakness in the railroad stocks grows out of the reports coming to hand that the carriers are contending with a very difficult situation. Traffic has fallen off considerably and the carriers are distinctly soft to-day, selling being insisted in this group by the reported sales of copper metal at 15 cents a pound and offerings of lead at 10 cents a pound. The sharp reduction in the Phelps Dodge dividend also had its effect on the red metal group.

MANITOBA FARM LOAN DEBATE

Government Would Raise Interest Rate; Opposition

Winnipeg, March 11.—What an evening newspaper terms a political crisis in the Government of Manitoba has developed through the attempt of the Norris administration to increase the interest rate on farm loans from 6 to 7 per cent. Conservative and Labor groups, and some of the independent farmer members, are determined, it is said, that the proposed increase shall not go into effect, and Cabinet Ministers are reported to hold the view that defeat of the measure would involve the Government's resignation.

Opponents of the measure take the ground that the interest rates charged by the Manitoba Farm Loans Association tend to keep rates of banks and mortgage companies at a minimum.

LIQUOR RULING GIVEN IN ALBERTA

Appeal Court Upholds Prohibition of Importation

Calgary, March 11.—The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of Alberta has by a judgment written by Chief Justice Harvey, in which Mr. Justice Stuart concurs, but from which Mr. Justice Beck dissents, held that the Dominion legislation and proclamations thereunder by which the importation of liquors into the province is prohibited in intra vires of the Dominion Government, and that the Dominion Express Company can be compelled to carry liquor into the province of Alberta.

As to the duty of the company to carry liquor out of Alberta to the provinces of Saskatchewan and Manitoba, the Chief Justice says: "As far as concerns the right to carry it into either the province of Saskatchewan or the province of Manitoba I decline to express an opinion."

He also declares that the provincial liquor act is good.

The case arose out of a refusal by the Dominion Express Company to carry liquor into Alberta for the Gold Seal Ltd., and refusal by it to carry liquor out of Alberta into Saskatchewan and into Manitoba. A special appeal was referred by Mr. Justice Scott to the Court of Appeal.

Held invalid.

Mr. Justice Beck, in dissenting from the majority judgment, holds first, that the act of 1919 is invalid because the express condition of its effectiveness is the existence of a provincial law prohibiting the sale of liquor for beverage purposes, and that there exists no such law, second, that the act of 1919 is ultra vires of the Dominion Parliament, and third, that the proclamation preliminary to the voting under the act of 1919 was invalid in not fixing a precise date upon which the act was to come into force.

It is understood that an appeal will be taken at once to a higher court.

MURDER TRIAL IN OKLAHOMA TOWN

Armore, Okla., March 11.—Allegations that Clara Smith Hamon, a trial charged with the murder of Jake L. Hamon, oil man and politician, had once pressed a pistol against Hamon's body and had frequently quarrelled with him during their years of association, were made by S. P. Freeling, Attorney-General of Oklahoma, in his opening statement to the jury to-day.

PRICE OF NEWSPRINT.

Montreal, March 11.—The J. P. Booth Company has notified a subscriber that newspaper from April 1 to December 31 this year will be five cents per pound. The present price is six and a half cents, and last year it was six cents.

Before the war newspaper was bought for less than two cents per pound.

Ottawa, March 11.—Hon. R. G. Wignmore, Minister of Customs, informed the House of Commons yesterday afternoon, that customs collectors were still estimating the American dollar at par in reference to goods imported from the United States.

Sir Henry Drayton, replying to a question, said none of the Government departments had overdrawn at the banks since the end of the last fiscal year.

TO-DAY'S TRADING IN WINNIPEG MARKET

Winnipeg, March 11.—A sharp break occurred on the local wheat market to-day, prices declining from 2 to 3 cents during the session. This was attributed to the Argentine Government's decision not to place a surtax on wheat exports, making it possible for European buyers to obtain wheat at a considerably lower price than here. Futures closed 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 cents lower. An excellent demand for cash wheat continued, but offers were scarce and premiums hardened by another half-cent, being 3 cents over for No. 1 Northern.

Grain prices were all lower in sympathy with wheat. Oats closed 1 to 1 1/2 lower. Barley 3/4 to 1 cent lower. Flax 1 1/2 to 2 cents lower, and rye 3/4 cent lower.

PROVIDE FUNDS FOR FOUR NEW ROOMS

Saanich Council Agrees to Additional Rooms at Cloverdale and Tillicum

The Saanich Council yesterday afternoon, after hearing the School

Cuticura Talcum is Fragrant and Very Healthful
Sole Distributor: The T. Milburn Co., Limited, 91, St. Michael's Street, Victoria, B.C.

Trustees authorized extraordinary estimates amounting to $18,900 for the present year. Speaking for the Board, Chairman Holloway urged that there should be no restrictions upon the expenditure, confining the work to toilet fixtures and extensions to Cloverdale and Tillicum schools. He pointed out that, when active work was commenced, the Board might find that four rooms at Tillicum might prove the best plan after all, the intention to add to Cloverdale possibly being abandoned.

Trustee Mrs. Humphries urged the Council to be more generous and if possible restore the amount granted to the original $26,000, even though other expenditures had to be pruned. "I never knew a Winter like this," said a voice in a railway carriage, addressing the world in general. "I have," said a cynical-looking man in one corner. "You have? When?" came a surprised chorus from the passengers. "Last Summer," said the cynic.

SAANICH TO CHARGE FOR INFORMATION FROM TAX ROLLS

Council Decides Inquirers Must Pay For Service Required

Commencing immediately, persons inquiring at Royal Oak for information regarding Saanich lands will be required to pay fifty cents per property inquired about, according to a resolution passed yesterday afternoon by the Saanich Council.

This action was taken because the recent increase in demands for information of all descriptions has been taking most of the time of one of the clerks in the Municipal Hall, and have frequently prevented the municipal officials from completing their ordinary business within the usual office hours, necessitating either the employment of a larger staff or the performance of additional night work, which the Council considered was out of reason.

It was stated to the Council that frequently parties desiring to graze cattle on subdivided lands have required the names of scores of lot owners at one time, in order that grazing permission might be obtained. Another aspect of this extra work is involved in the rapid growth of interest by home-sites in Saanich lands, which has caused the real estate firms of Victoria to demand facts as to assessment, tax payments, and many other details which cause much work. It was considered by the Council, if information was worth having at all, it was worth having in writing, and hereafter applications for such information from the assessment rolls of Saanich must be in writing, accompanied by the fee of fifty cents per property, whether that property be a ten acre ranch or one lot, and the information required will be submitted in writing by the Assessor.

SAANICH DOUBLES GRANT IN AID OF PUBLICITY BUREAU

Estimates Closed Yesterday by Saanich Council Show Remarkable Condition

The Saanich Council yesterday afternoon voted $1,000 to the Victoria and Island Development Association, this being double the grant made last year.

In the discussion Reeve Watson was outspoken in support of granting an amount nearer to the $2,500 asked for, being upheld by Councillor Ormond.

Councillor Simpson opposed any grant whatever until an official inquiry into the cost of living in Saanich had been made, and because he favored preference to school needs. Councillor Kingwell also opposed the raising of the grant.

Councillor Brooks thought that, as Saanich provided the main arguments used by the Development Association in obtaining new settlements, the proposed grant was ample, this view being also held by Councillor Horner, who seconded the motion of Councillor Vantreight authorizing the grant.

HOW WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

May Escape the Dreaded Sufferings of That Period by Taking Mrs. Block's Advice.

Hopkins, Minn.—"During Change of Life I had hot flashes and suffered for two years. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the paper and got good results from taking it. I recommend your medicine to my friends and you may publish this fact as a testimonial." — Mrs. ROBERT BLOCK, Box 542, Hopkins, Minn.

It has been said that not one woman in a thousand passes this perfectly natural change without experiencing a train of very annoying and sometimes painful symptoms. Those dreadful hot flashes, sinking spells, spots before the eyes, dizzy spells, nervousness are only a few of the symptoms. Every woman at this age should profit by Mrs. Block's experience and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., about your health.

COUNCIL SPENDS LESS IN YEAR THAN SCHOOL TRUSTEES

Estimates Closed Yesterday by Saanich Council Show Remarkable Condition

The Saanich Council yesterday afternoon passed the annual expenditure by-law, appropriating $131,120 for ordinary purposes. By a remarkable coincidence this agrees almost dollar for dollar with the School Board estimates, which this year require the slightly larger total of $131,410, part of which will be contributed by the Provincial Government in the form of grants towards teachers' salaries.

After passing the appropriations the Council deferred the striking of the tax rate because of the possibility that there will be a contribution in aid of taxation relief from the provincial treasury.

No Tax Rate. Should there be no such relief, the Council has so arranged matters that, within a fraction of a mill, there will be no raise in the tax rate of Saanich this year, while if the Government makes any grant, such a sum would be available towards rendering easier the striking of a lower rate.

Although there have, during the past few weeks, been a number of suggestions that the ward appropriations should be changed from the $9,000 allotted this year to a figure closer to the $4,000 mentioned in last year's estimates, the Council considered that, as the roads of Saanich had not been kept up of late as they should have been, even though an additional $1,000 per ward was expended last year, there was urgent need for the spending of more money on highways this year. Reeve Watson estimated that Saanich had $108,000 available this year it could all be spent to a good profit on the roads. The appropriation was therefore reduced to $9,000, practically one-half of the entire funds available to the Council, which includes the balance of $35,000 on hand from last year.

A newly married couple were entertaining their friends, and amongst the guests was one whose rudeness made him extremely objectionable to the rest of the company. His conduct was tolerated for some time, until at supper he held up in his fork a piece of meat which had been served to him. In a vein of intended humor, he looked around and remarked, "Is this pig?" This drew forth the remark from a quiet looking man sitting at the other end of the table, "To which end of the fork do you refer?"

HEARTBURN LIVER TROUBLE

When the liver becomes torpid and inflamed, it cannot furnish sufficient bile to the bowels, thus causing them to become constipated.

The stomach is also affected. In the case heartburn there is a gnawing and burning pain in the stomach, attended by disturbed appetite, caused by great acidity. Whenever too much food is taken, it is liable to ferment, and become extremely sour, vomiting often occurs; and what is thrown up, is sour and sometimes bitter.

Other liver trouble symptoms are pain under the right shoulder, yellowness of the skin and eyes, floating specks before the eyes, coated tongue, bad taste in the morning, foul breath, water brash, jaundice, constipation, etc.

Keep your liver active by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and you will have no heartburn or other liver troubles. Being purely vegetable they do not gripe the bowels or clog like the old-fashioned purgatives generally do.

Mrs. Mary Strome, Glenside, Sask., writes: "I have used Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and they have cleared me of heartburn and liver trouble. I don't think they can be beaten by any other medicine, and I can highly recommend them." Price 25c. a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

LEGAL SNAGS STAY WATER EXTENSION PLANT IN SAANICH

Scheme to Proceed in Anticipation of Bylaw Held Up

The Saanich Council yesterday found that, owing to possible legal difficulties, it will not be practical to proceed immediately with the proposed installation of water connections within the present area served, and adjourned discussion until next week in order that the opinion of the municipal solicitors may be secured on the question.

"This is a bomb-shell, you should not have sprung it on us in this manner," protested Councillor Simpson yesterday afternoon, when Councillor Horner, after a lengthy preamble, moved that the Council rescind as illegal its motion passed on Monday evening, appropriating $5,000 for needed water service connections within the area at present tributary to the water mains of Saanich.

Councillor Horner maintained that the proposal to appropriate $5,000 for purchase of pipe was entirely illegal, as the monies available from the 1914 by-law were not expended and the expressed intent that the money should be advanced in anticipation of a by-law was a true source on which to base such an expenditure.

He also maintained that as the alternative to the passage of the by-law was to keep the waterfrontage rate at its present rate, which is anticipated to produce a surplus this year of $5,000, and as none of this is at present in the hands of the Council, but is merely hoped for, it would be illegal to touch such possible funds under the circumstances. Councillor Kingwell seconded the motion to rescind, whereupon Councillor Kingwell said the whole matter was a farce anyway. Councillor Vantreight again: any such meaning being read into the proposal to rescind.

On Later Date. Reeve Watson said that, since the meeting held on Monday, he had discovered that there was a possibility that the Councilors would be taking some risk.

Councillor Simpson wanted to know where the water profits of previous years had gone to, as he considered that the Council had as much right to vote them to construction as had previous Councils. Reeve Watson reiterated the statement made at many previous meetings, that up to the present there had been no profits for expenditure, and that the present year would have to wipe out a small deficit from last year before there would be expendable profits available.

Councillor Ormond did not wish to see the result of previous discussions rescinded at short notice, and moved that the whole question lay on the table for one week, in order that inquiry may be made as to whether the action came within the scope of the resolutions relied upon by the Council.

BEWARE OF BRONCHITIS

Bronchitis is generally caused by neglecting a cold, or exposure to wet and inclement weather. It begins with a tightness across the chest, difficulty in breathing, and a wheezing sound comes from the lungs. There is a raising of phlegm, especially the first thing in the morning. This is at first a thin, watery mucus, but becomes a greenish or yellowish color and is occasionally streaked with blood.

On the first sign of bronchitis you should check it immediately by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, thereby prevent it becoming chronic, and perhaps developing into some more serious lung trouble.

Mrs. Eric Culham, Sheffield, Ont., writes: "In December, 1919, I was very sick with bronchitis, and had to stay in the house all winter. One day I saw Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup advertised, so I got a small bottle which helped me very much; I then got a 60c. size, and it completely relieved me. I cannot praise 'Dr. Wood's' enough for what it did. Two of my neighbors are now using it for colds."

Don't accept a substitute for Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup; the genuine is put up in a yellow wrapper, three blue stars, trade mark; price 35c. and 60c.; manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

SCHOOL BOARD WELCOMES INQUIRY

Trustees Refuse Arbitration; Assert Teachers Break Contract by Quitting

The Saanich School Board yesterday afternoon went on record as welcoming an impartial inquiry into the controversy with the teachers, especially favoring a suggestion from the Teachers' Institute that ex-Reeve George McGregor should make such an investigation, but refusing to take part in any arbitration proceedings. In taking this action the Board decided that any recommendation should not be binding upon either the Board or the teachers. Another feature of the discussion was the unanimous opinion that, as the existing scale of salaries were binding upon the Board until June 30, the end of the school year, it was likewise binding upon the teachers as a matter of equity.

Therefore, should the staff carry out the threat of ceasing work, the Board would consider such action a breach of an agreement made for the year ending June 30.

As a consequence of these arguments the Board decided it was unable to agree to negotiate with the teachers for any raise of pay to take effect prior to the commencement of the new school year. A quilt made of newspapers and covered with muslin is very warm and also light over the invalid.
