IMPERIAL ORDINANCE No. 1 of 1947

Promulgated on 4 January 1947

Article I. Removal and exclusion from public service of undesirable personnel in pursuance of the Memorandum of the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers dated 4 January 1946 on the removal and exclusion of undesirable personnel from public office (including extension of scope and criteria of screening as supplemented thereafter in the form of additional interpretations of the Memorandum: called the Memorandum hereafter) shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

Article II. The term "public service" as used in this Ordinance shall mean and include positions of members of National Diet, personnel of the national government entity, assembly members and personnel of the local public organizations (including To, Do, Fu, Ken, Shi, Ku, Machi, Mura and Cho-Son Kumiai), and positions of specific personnel of specific companies, associations, mass communication media and other organizations, and shall be classified into the principal public office and the ordinary public office.

The "principal public office" and the "ordinary public office" shall be defined by the Prime Minister.

Article III. Any person who falls under the provisions of Appendix "A" to the Memorandum, in case he holds any principal public office, shall and, in case he holds any ordinary public office, may be removed therefrom.

Any person, holding any position in the public service, who has been designated as falling under the provisions of the Memorandum (called the person who falls under the Memorandum hereafter) shall in case he does not retire from the position within twenty days from the day of the designation or the day of designation of positions as the public service, forfeit, regardless of the provisions of other laws and ordinances, his position automatically on the twenty-first day from the said day. However, the Prime Minister or the prefectural governor (including governors of To, Do, Fu and Ken; ditto hereafter), in case he deems it specifically necessary, may approve the person to stay at his position till the thirtieth day from the said day.

Any person who falls under the Memorandum shall be excluded thereafter from any position in the public service.

When it is impossible to obtain a suitable replacement, person who falls under the Memorandum may, in spite of the provisions of the preceding three paragraphs, be temporarily retained or reinstated in the principal or ordinary public office in accordance with the rule laid down by the Prime Minister.

Any person falling under the Memorandum whose temporary retention or reinstatement has been approved under the provisions of the preceding paragraph shall be defined, for the term of his approved retention or reinstatement and in connection with his approved position, not to be a person who falls under the Memorandum.

Article IV. The designation of a person who holds or is a candidate applicant for public office as a person who falls under the Memorandum shall be effected, according to classification of public offices laid down by the Prime Minister, by the Prime Minister or by the prefectural governor in accordance with the result of examination by the Public Office Qualifications Examination Committee. Besides persons mentioned above, the Prime Minister or the prefectural governor, based upon reasonable evidence that a person is subject to the provisions of the Memorandum, may, on the basis of the findings of the Public Office Qualifications Examination Committee, designate him as falling under the Memorandum in accordance with a rule laid down by the Prime Minister. (1)

Article V. Any person who receives at present or who is entitled to receive any public or private pensions, annuities or other emoluments or benefits, in case he is designated as a person who falls under the Memorandum and accordingly retires from or forfeits his position, shall be deprived of such right or title since the date of the designation.

With reference to the person provided in the preceding paragraph, the Prime Minister, when he deems it justified owing to special circumstances, may exempt the application of the provisions of the preceding paragraph in accordance with a rule to be laid down by the Prime Minister.

Article VI. Any person who falls under the Memorandum shall be disqualified from filing his candidacy for any elective position in the public service.

Any candidate for any elective position in the public service, when designated under the provisions of Article IV, shall be deemed to have withdrawn his candidacy.

IMPERIAL ORDINANCE No. 1 of 1947

Fromulgated on 4 January 1947

Article I. Removal and exclusion from public service of undesirable personnel in pursuance of the Memorandum of the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers dated 4 January 1946 on the removal and exclusion of undesirable personnel from public office (including extension of scope and criteria of screening as supplemented thereafter in the form of additional interpretations of the Memorandum: called the Memorandum hereafter) shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

Article II. The term "public service" as used in this Ordinance shall mean and include positions of members of National Diet, personnel of the national government entity, assembly members and personnel of the local public organizations (including To, Do, Fu, Ken, Shi, Ku, Machi, Mura and Cho-Son Kumiai), and positions of specific personnel of specific companies, associations, mass communication media and other organizations, and shall be classified into the principal public office and the ordinary public office.

The "principal public office" and the "ordinary public office" shall be defined by the Prime Minister.

Article III. Any person who falls under the provisions of Appendix "A" to the Memorandum, in case he holds any principal public office, shall and, in case he holds any ordinary public office, may be removed therefrom.

Any person, holding any position in the public service, who has been designated as falling under the provisions of the Memorandum (called the person who falls under the Memorandum hereafter) shall in case he does not retire from the position within twenty days from the day of the designation or the day of designation of positions as the public service, forfeit, regardless of the provisions of other laws and ordinances, his position automatically on the twenty-first day from the said day. However, the Prime Minister or the prefectural governor (including governors of To, Do, Fu and Ken; ditto hereafter), in case he deems it specifically necessary, may approve the person to stay at his position till the thirtieth day from the said day.

Any person who falls under the Memorandum shall be excluded thereafter from any position in the public service.

When it is impossible to obtain a suitable replacement, person who falls under the Memorandum may, in spite of the provisions of the preceding three paragraphs, be temporarily retained or reinstated in the principal or ordinary public office in accordance with the rule laid down by the Prime Minister.

Any person falling under the Memorandum whose temporary retention or reinstatement has been approved under the provisions of the preceding paragraph shall be defined, for the term of his approved retention or reinstatement and in connection with his approved position, not to be a person who falls under the Memorandum.

Article IV. The designation of a person who holds or is a candidate applicant for public office as a person who falls under the Memorandum shall be effected, according to classification of public offices laid down by the Prime Minister, by the Prime Minister or by the prefectural governor in accordance with the result of examination by the Public Office Qualifications Examination Committee. Besides persons mentioned above, the Prime Minister or the prefectural governor, based upon reasonable evidence that a person is subject to the provisions of the Memorandum, may, on the basis of the findings of the Public Office Qualifications Examination Committee, designate him as falling under the Memorandum in accordance with a rule laid down by the Prime Minister. (1)

Article V. Any person who receives at present or who is entitled to receive any public or private pensions, annuities or other emoluments or benefits, in case he is designated as a person who falls under the Memorandum and accordingly retires from or forfeits his position, shall be deprived of such right or title since the date of the designation.

With reference to the person provided in the preceding paragraph, the Prime Minister, when he deems it justified owing to special circumstances, may exempt the application of the provisions of the preceding paragraph in accordance with a rule to be laid down by the Prime Minister.

Article VI. Any person who falls under the Memorandum shall be disqualified from filing his candidacy for any elective position in the public service.

Any candidate for any elective position in the public service, when designated under the provisions of Article IV, shall be deemed to have withdrawn his candidacy.

Article VII. In connection with designation provided in Article IV, the Prime Minister or the prefectural governor, shall collect the questionnaire prescribed by the Prime Minister.

The questionnaire collected under the preceding paragraph shall be forwarded immediately to the Public Office Qualifications Examination Committee concerned.

The Prime Minister or the prefectural governor, at the request of the Public Office Qualifications Examination Committee concerned may cause persons who are concerned to present materials or to give explanations of facts to the Committee.

Article VII-II. The Prime Minister may, regarding persons whom he deems, based upon sufficient evidence, as coming within the purview of the Memorandum, effect provisional designation in accordance with decision of the Central Public Office Qualifications Examination Committee, as falling under the Memorandum without collecting questionnaire prescribed in paragraph 1 of the preceding Article.

In the above case the Prime Minister shall forward relevant documentary evidence to the Central Public Office Qualifications Examination Committee.

The Prime Minister, when he considers necessary in connection with the provisional designation as prescribed in the paragraph 1 above, may cause persons concerned to present materials or give explanation of facts. (2)

Article VII-III. Any person who was designated provisionally in accordance with paragraph 1 of the preceding Article may, in case he deems that an error exists in connection with evidence based upon which he was designated provisionally, file letter of complaint with the Prime Minister attached with the questionnaire prescribed in paragraph 1 of the preceding Article within thirty days from the day of provisional designation.

The Prime Minister, when he accepts the letter of complaint in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph, shall forward immediately documents relative to the case to the Central Public Office Qualifications Committee.

In the above case, the Prime Minister shall, in accordance with the result of examination of the Central Public Office Qualifications Examination Committee, designate formally as falling under the Memorandum or certify as not falling thereunder.

In the case prescribed in paragraph 1 of the preceding Article, in case the letter of complaint is not filed in accordance with paragraph 1 above, it shall be deemed that the designation prescribed in Article IV above shall have taken place on the thirty first day from the day of provisional designation. (2)

Article VIII. When a notification of candidacy or a notification of recommendation for a candidate is required for running for election for elective position in the public service, any person who desires to file the notification or the notification of recommendation shall present, attach thereto, to the presiding officer of election or an official corresponding to the above a duplicate of certificate of eligibility to certify that the candidate is not a person who falls under the Memorandum.

The certificate of eligibility prescribed in the preceding paragraph shall be issued, in accordance with the rule laid down by the Prime Minister, <sup>by the Prime Minister</sup> or by the prefectural governor, according to the result of examination conducted by the Public Office Qualifications Examination Committee on the questionnaire submitted by the person in question. (3)

Article IX. The Prime Minister or the prefectural governor, when he designates a person as falling under the Memorandum or issues the certificate of eligibility in accordance with result of the examination conducted by the Public Office Qualifications Examination Committee shall publish it immediately.

Article X. Any person who is a relative within the third degree by blood, marriage or adoption of any person who falls under the Memorandum shall be ineligible, for a period of ten years from the day of the designation, to succeed or to be appointed to any position or positions in the public service from which the latter has been removed as falling under the Memorandum (including position in connection with which a person be designated as falling under the Memorandum after his retirement therefrom and any principal public office from which the latter has been barred specifically) and, further, to exercise any of the power of the latter.

However, the provisions of the preceding paragraph shall not be applied to any elective position in the public service.

Article XI. Any person in the public service shall neither establish nor maintain, in connection with his handling of official affairs or political activities, the continuity of influence of a person falling under the Memorandum on behalf of the latter by receiving instruction, advice or compensation from or communicating in any means with the latter.

Any person in the public service, when prosecuted, pertaining to violation of the provisions of the preceding paragraph, shall not, regardless of the provisions of other laws and ordinances, carry out his official activities. In that case, when he holds position regarding which "temporary retirement or suspension from the office" is provided by law or ordinance, he shall be defined to have temporarily retired or to have been suspended from his office at the date of the prosecution.

Article XII. Any person falling under the Memorandum shall not cause a person in the public service, in connection with handling of official affairs or political activities of the latter, to establish or maintain, on behalf of him, the continuity of his influence by giving instruction, advice or compensation to or by communicating in any means with the latter.

Article XIII. Any person who has been removed from the public service as falling under the Memorandum shall neither make entry into nor retain or set up his dwelling or office in the place of business of government entity, company or other organization from which he was removed or the place in the same premises which is under management of such organization. However, the provisions above shall not be applied to such entry as may be necessitated by his conduct of his private life or as to be established legally.

Article XIV. Any person who falls under the Memorandum who holds any position in an executive, staff or other capacity, in addition to those designated as public office, in any newspaper company, magazine or other publishing company, broadcasting corporation, company producing motion pictures, or in any other media of mass communication shall retire therefrom without delay.

Any person who falls under the Memorandum shall be excluded from any position prescribed in the preceding paragraph.

Article XV. Any person who falls under the Memorandum shall be prohibited from filing a notification of recommendation for any candidate for any elective position in the public service (including the signing of notification of candidacy or notification of recommendation of any candidate) or to engage in any election campaign or other form of political activity.

The Prime Minister or the prefectural governor shall, in case a person regarding whom he possesses reasonable evidence that the person is subject to the provisions of the Memorandum is engaging in any form of political activity, issue an injunction prohibiting such activity and require, in accordance with a rule laid down by the Prime Minister, the person to submit the questionnaire prescribed in Article VII, paragraph 1 above, which shall be forwarded immediately to the appropriate Public Office Qualifications Examination Committee for screening.

In this case, the Prime Minister or the prefectural governor, shall, on the basis of the findings of the committee, designate the person as falling under the Memorandum or certify the person as not falling under the Memorandum.

Any person whose political activities have been suspended under the provisions of paragraph 2 above shall be prohibited from engaging in any form of political activity until he is certified, in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph, as not falling under the Memorandum.

Article XVI. Any person who comes under any one of the headings below shall be liable to penal servitude or imprisonment for not exceeding three years or to a fine of not exceeding 15,000 yen. ( )

(1) Any person who has made false entries or entries lacking full and complete disclosure on relevant or material matters in the questionnaire prescribed in Article VII, paragraph 1.

(2) Any person who has been asked for presentation of the questionnaire prescribed in Article VII, paragraph 1, but failed to do so.

(3) Any person who has been asked for presentation of material or explanation of facts under the provisions of Article VII, paragraph 3, or paragraph 3 of Article VII-II, but failed to do so or presented false materials or explanations, or materials or explanations lacking full and complete disclosure on relevant or material matters.

(4) Any person who has committed wrongful act in connection with presentation of duplicate of the certificate of eligibility under the provisions of paragraphs 1 to 3 of Article VIII.

(5) Any person who has made false entries or entries lacking full and complete disclosure in a report to be submitted to the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers in pursuance of the provisions of the Memorandum.

(6) Any person who has violated the provisions of Article XI, paragraph 1, Article XII, XIII or Article XIV.

(7) Any person who has violated the provisions of paragraph 1 or 4 of the preceding article.

Any person who has been sentenced to penalties provided in the preceding paragraph who does not fall under the Memorandum shall be removed, in addition to cases provided in other laws or ordinances, from any position in the public service which he occupies and be excluded thereafter from any position in the public service.

Any person coming under the preceding paragraph shall be ineligible for any elective position in the public service. Concerning a person who has filed his candidacy already he shall be defined to have withdrawn his candidacy. (5)

Supplementary Rule

The present Imperial Ordinance shall come into force as from the day of its promulgation.

The provisions of Article V shall be applied correspondingly to any person, while having retired during the time between 4 January 1946 and the promulgation of this Imperial Ordinance from public positions which come under the provisions of former Articles I and IV and which correspond to any of the public offices prescribed in this revised provisions, who will be designated hereafter as falling under the Memorandum regarding positions from which he has retired.

Any person who retires from any public office after the day of the promulgation of this Imperial Ordinance, in case he is designated, regarding the position from which he retires, as a person falling under the Memorandum, shall be defined, in connection with application of the provisions of Article V, as a person who has been removed from public office as falling under the Memorandum.

With reference to elections to be held under the Imperial Order issued prior to the promulgation of this Imperial Ordinance, in accordance with Article 39, paragraph 1 of the Rule for Cooptation of High Tax Payer member of the House of Peers, the former provisions concerned shall be applied in spite of revised provisions of Article VIII.

The provisions of Article VIII, paragraphs 3 and 4 shall not be applied to election of members of City, Town or Village Land Committees (including those corresponding to the above) and to cooptation of members of the Prefectural Land Committee to be held in pursuance of paragraph 2 of the Supplementary Rule of the Imperial Ordinance No. 556 of 1946.

IMPERIAL ORDINANCE No. 2 of 1947

Promulgated on 4 January 1947

Article I. With a view to conducting examination concerning matters necessary for designation as a person who falls under the Memorandum in accordance with the provisions of the Imperial Ordinance No. 1 of 1947 (called the Ordinance hereafter) and other matters prescribed in this Imperial Ordinance, there shall be established the Public Office Qualifications Examination Committee.

The Public Office Qualifications Examination Committee shall be the Central Public Office Qualifications Examination Committee (called the Central Committee hereafter), the To, Do, Fu or Ken Public Office Qualifications Examination Committee (called the Prefectural Committee hereafter) and the Municipal Public Office Qualifications Examination Committee (called the Municipal Committee hereafter). Article III. The Municipal Committee shall conduct examination on matters which come under its jurisdiction and submit a report, together with the questionnaire prescribed in Article VII, paragraph 2 of the Ordinance, to the Prefectural Committee on the proceedings and consequence thereof together with its recommendation concerning actions to be taken resultantly.

Article IV. The Prefectural Committee shall conduct examination concerning matters which come under its jurisdiction, review the consequence of examination by the Municipal Committee and submit a report to the prefectural governor on the proceedings and consequence of its examination or review, and its recommendation together with a copy of the questionnaire, concerning actions to be taken resultantly.

Article V. The Central Committee shall conduct examination concerning matters which come under its jurisdiction and submit a report to the Prime Minister on the proceedings and consequence thereof and its recommendation, together with a copy of the questionnaire, concerning actions to be taken resultantly.

The Central Committee, besides with the above, may post-review the consequence of examinations conducted by the Prefectural or the Municipal Committee.

The Central Committee, when it post-reviews in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph, shall submit a report thereon to the Prime Minister, together with its recommendation.

Article VI. Upon receipt of the report from the Prefectural Committee under the provisions of Article IV above, the prefectural governor shall give decision and take, in accordance therewith, necessary actions such as designation of persons who fall under the Memorandum, issuance of the certificate of eligibility or other actions, publish the result thereof and make the questionnaire immediately available for public inspection, and, at the same time, submit a report thereon to the Prime Minister.

Article VII. Upon receipt of the report provided in Article V, paragraph 1 from the Central Committee, the Prime Minister shall make decision and take, in accordance therewith, necessary actions such as designation of persons who fall under the Memorandum, issuance of the certificate of eligibility or other actions, publish the result thereof and make the questionnaire immediately available for public inspection.

Upon receipt of the report from the Central Committee on post-review provided in Article V, paragraph 3, the Prime Minister, in accordance therewith, may make necessary recommendations or take other necessary actions to the prefectural governor concerned.

Article VIII. The Committee shall consist of, in the case of the Central Committee, of not more than nine members and, in the case of the Prefectural or the Municipal Committee, of not more than five members.

In case it is found necessary for investigating and examining special matters Temporary Commissioners may be appointed, provided that they shall not vote in the final decision of the Committee.

Article IX. The Chairman of the Committee shall be coopted from among the Commissioners.

Commissioners and Temporary Commissioners shall be appointed or commissioned, in the case of the Central Committee, by the Cabinet, in the case of the Prefectural Committee, by the prefectural governor and, in the case of the Municipal Committee, by the mayor.

Article X. A quorum, in case of the Central Committee, of seven members and, in case of the Prefectural or the municipal Committee, of three members, including Chairman respectively, is required for holding the Committee.

The final decision of the Committee shall be given by majority of attending members including Chairman.

In the events of tie, the Chairman shall cast a second and deciding vote.

Article XI. The Chairman, Commissioners and Temporary Commissioners shall neither publish nor disclose any information concerning matters connected with the official duties of the Committee, except information published by the Prime Minister or the prefectural governor.

Article XII. In order to deal with miscellaneous matters, the Central Public Office Qualifications Committee shall have a Secretariat.

The Secretariat shall be composed of the following personnel.

IMPERIAL ORDINANCE NO. 3 of 1947

Promulgated on 4 January 1947

Persons who have held position of mayor or deputy-mayor consecutively from the day of or prior to 1 September 1945 till 1 September 1946 shall be barred, even though they do not fall under the provisions of the Memorandum as prescribed in Article III of the Imperial Ordinance No. 1 of 1947, from being candidate for mayorship and also from being appointed to deputy-mayor, at the first election to be held in pursuance of the provisions of the Law No. 28 of 1946 (Law to Amend a part of the Law for the organization of Cities) and furthermore during four years beginning with the day of the said election.

Persons who have held position of mayor or deputy-mayor prescribed in the preceding paragraph who hold the office of deputy mayor at the day of assumption of office by new mayors elected by the election mentioned in the preceding paragraph shall be removed from their offices on that day.

Provisions of the preceding two paragraphs shall be applied correspondingly to ward headmen of wards in Tokyo Metropolis, headmen or deputy-headmen of towns or of villages and those corresponding to the above.

SUPPLEMENTARY RULE

The present Imperial Ordinance shall come into force as from the day of its promulgation.

CABINET and HOME AFFAIRS MINISTRY ORDINANCE
No. 1 of 1947

Promulgated on 4 January 1947

Article 1. The criteria under which any person will be designated as a person who falls under the Memorandum in accordance with the provisions of Articles III and IV of the Imperial Ordinance No. 1 of 1947 (called the Ordinance hereafter) are defined in Appendix 1.

Article 2. Positions of the principal public office and the ordinary public office prescribed in Article II of the Ordinance are designated as in Appendix II. However designation as public service of positions which are not mentioned specifically shall be effected by a notification to each company, association or other organization concerned.

Article 3. The retention or reinstatement of persons who fall under the Memorandum under the provisions of Article III, paragraph 4 of the Ordinance shall be made only in such cases as are prescribed in the proviso of paragraph 8 or 9 of the Memorandum.

Article 4. Classification of positions in public service according to which the Prime Minister or the prefectural governor will make designation as a person who falls under the Memorandum in accordance with the provisions of Article IV of the Ordinance are defined in Appendix III.

Article 5. The designation prescribed in Article IV or the provisional designation prescribed in paragraph 1 of Article VII-II of the Ordinance shall be effected by a notification to the person in question.

The Prime Minister or the prefectural Governor, when giving the notification of designation under the preceding paragraph, shall also notify to the same effect, concerning a candidate for any elective position in the public service, the electoral administration committee concerned or other person corresponding to the above.(11)

Article 6. The Prime minister or the prefectural governor, when giving the notification prescribed in the paragraph 1 above to a person who has the right or is entitled to receive public or private pensions, annuities or other allowances or benefits who comes under the provisions of Article V, paragraph I of the Ordinance, shall also notify to the same effect the person who is in charge of paying such pensions etc.

The Prime Minister, when exempting application of the provisions of Article V, paragraph 1 of the Ordinance in pursuance of the provisions of paragraph 2 of the same Article, shall also notify to the same effect the person in question and the person who is in charge of paying such pensions etc. prescribed in the preceding paragraph.

Article 7. The questionnaire prescribed in Article VII, paragraph 1 of the Ordinance shall be collected, in case by the Prime Minister, in three copies and, in case by the prefectural governor, in two copies according to the Form No. 1 attached hereto. The prefectural governor may ask for, concerning persons regarding whom he deems necessary, three additional copies of the questionnaire.

Any person who is in possession of a certificate of eligibility may submit a copy of its duplicate instead of the questionnaire prescribed in the preceding paragraph. However, regarding public offices to be designated by Prime Minister in accordance with the Appendix III, the certificate of eligibility issued by the Prefectural Governor shall be invalid.

Questionnaires to be submitted, in accordance with paragraph 1 of Article VII-III of the Ordinance, attached with the letter of complaint, shall be presented in triplicate.(12)

Article 8. A person who desires to file a notification of candidacy or a notification of recommendation for a candidate for any elective position in the public service shall apply, in the case of a candidate for positions to be designated by the Prime Minister as defined in Appendix III, to the Prime Minister, and, in the case of a candidate for positions to be designated by the prefectural governor as defined in the said Appendix, to the prefectural governor concerned, by the date to be set by them, for certification that the person to be the candidate does not fall under the Memorandum.

Any person who desires to apply for the certification prescribed in the preceding paragraph shall file the application, in the case of applying to the Prime Minister, with the Prime Minister through the prefectural governor having jurisdiction over the living place of the applicant, and, in the case of applying to the prefectural governor, with the competent prefectural governor of To, Do, Fu or Ken where the notification or the notification of recommendation will be filed, accompanied respectively, in the former case, with four copies, and, in the latter case, with two copies of the questionnaire, in the Form No. 1 attached hereto.

Upon acceptance of the questionnaire prescribed in the preceding paragraph, the Prime Minister or the prefectural governor shall forward them immediately to the competent Public Office Qualifications Examination Committee for its examination.

The Prime Minister or the Prefectural Governor, when he accepts the questionnaire prescribed in paragraph 2 above, may ask for additionally necessary copies of the questionnaire from candidates whom he deems necessary. (13)

Article 9. In connection with the application prescribed in the preceding Article, the Prime Minister or the prefectural governor, when satisfied, as the result of the examination by the Public Office Qualifications Examinations Committee, that the person in question does not fall under the Memorandum, shall issue to the person a certificate of eligibility in the Form No. 2 attached hereto.

Any person who has submitted the questionnaire in accordance with the provisions of Article 7, paragraph 1, and been established that he does not fall under the Memorandum, may apply to the Prime Minister or to the prefectural governor for issuance of the certificate of eligibility.

The certificate of eligibility prescribed in the first or the second paragraph above, in case entries false or lacking full and complete disclosure have been made in the questionnaire mentioned in the preceding two Articles shall be invalid. The certificate of eligibility shall be likewise invalid when the person, by virtue of facts not mentioned in the questionnaire, will be decided to fall under the Memorandum. The certificate of eligibility issued by the Prefectural Governor in accordance with the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs shall be invalid regarding public offices to be designated by the Prime Minister according to the Appendix III and candidates therefor.(14)

SUPPLEMENTARY RULE

The present Ordinance shall come into force as from the day of its promulgation. However, the following provisions in paragraph IV of Appendix I attached hereto shall not be applied, regarding those who hold, at the time of the promulgation of this Ordinance, governmental offices prescribed in Article I of the Imperial Ordinance No. 109 of 1946 for being appointed to which or for holding which they have been cleared under the previous stipulations as not falling under the Memorandum, until 3 May 1947, and regarding those who hold, at the said date, positions (excluding the mayors) prescribed in Article IV of the said Imperial Ordinance for being appointed to which or for holding which they have been cleared under the previous stipulations, until the next election:
