FORESEES CANADA BONE-DRY AREA

Spence, of Dominion Alliance, Speaks of Four Provinces' Votes

Toronto, Oct. 27.—That the "dry" victories in the Prairie Provinces and Nova Scotia are a definite pronouncement by the people of Canada for a "bone dry" Dominion and a demand for Federal action to bring about that end, was the opinion expressed by Rev. Ben Spence, secretary of the Dominion Alliance, when interviewed yesterday.

"It is an indication clear and unmistakable that the people of Canada not only want the Provincial Legislatures to exercise their powers, but want the Federal authorities to act in the last resort, in the event of a Federal vote, although taken by the Provinces, and the resultant action will be Federal action. This then is the campaign in the various Provinces," said Mr. Spence, "but rather the first broadside in the nation-wide battle."

STATEMENT FOR BOARD OF COMMERCE

Retiring Members Said Sugar Order Was Carrying Out of Undertaking

Ottawa, Oct. 27.—The letters of resignation of the members of the Board of Commerce, together with the resignations and providing that no pending the result of the appeal now before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, were made public yesterday afternoon. The resignation of Captain William White, Chief Commissioner, declared that in passing the sugar order, the Board merely implemented the undertaking of the former Commissioners. In view of present price conditions, he expressed serious doubts as to the ability of the Board to continue to fulfill any useful purpose in the future.

Letter.

Captain White's letter to Premier Meighen was in part as follows: "I am, myself, a question whether prices can be equally and effectively regulated by such a Board in normal times, which we are now approaching, or whether it is not better to leave them to be adjusted by the economic law of supply and demand."

Sugar.

"As the sugar order has been the subject of so much public criticism, I would ask to be permitted to point out on behalf of my fellow Commissioners and myself, that in passing the order, we merely implemented the undertaking of the then Commissioners, such undertaking being set out in an order on the 11th day of June, 1919, to which no exception was taken, and which reads as follows: "The Board will not recognize prices based on replacement values on a rising market. It will be its duty in good time, as it hopes, to as carefully protect the trader as a fair market by permitting him to average his cost down, as it must now carefully protect the consumer in compelling the trader to average his costs up."

Sale Restrictions.

"Then in another part of that order, as defining the powers of the Board, it says: "It will prohibit all refiners from selling to other than wholesalers; it will prohibit wholesalers from buying from other than refiners; it will prohibit speculators from buying or selling at all."

Mr. Acland.

Mr. Acland's letter of resignation, addressed to Senator Robertson, Minister of Finance, stated that he had taken a place on the Board with some reluctance, because of pressure of departmental work. He had asked on more than one occasion to be relieved of these duties.

TO WOMEN

This is a Short Letter, But It Proves the Reliability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Bothwell, Ont.—"I was weak and run down, had no appetite and was nervous. The nurse who took care of me told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I am getting strong. I recommend your medicine to my friends, and you may use my testimonial."

Mrs. W. J. Brady, R. 2, Bothwell, Ont.

Letter.

The reason why Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful in overcoming woman's ills is because it contains the tonic, strengthening properties of good old-fashioned roots and herbs, which act on the female organism. Women from all parts of the country are continually testifying to its strengthening, curative influence, and as it contains no narcotics or harmful drugs it is a safe medicine for women.

Order-in-Council.

The Order-in-Council making permanent the suspension of the sugar order covers practically the same ground as the official announcement from the Prime Minister's office. The Government disavows, however, with the contentions of the Acting Commissioners that the order followed along the line of similar orders by the former Commissioners, and it is possible that many of these are invalid for the same reason.

CANADIANIZING EFFORTS PLANNED
 Non-English-Speaking Settlements Need Attention, Says Ottawa Conference

Ottawa, Oct. 27.—(Canadian Press)—During the latter part of yesterday's conference on technical education, the important question of teacher shortage and its influence on the Canadianizing of non-English speaking settlements was discussed. The position in the western provinces was particularly in review. Hon. G. P. Smith, Minister of Education of Alberta, described the problem of teacher shortage as being at the root of all difficulties in Canadianizing the non-English speaking immigrants. Salaries had been increased and conditions had been improved, but enrollment at teachers' training schools was lower than ever. The conference unanimously passed a resolution strongly expressing the opinion that the Federal Government should without delay provide financial assistance to the provinces so that an adequate supply of specially-selected teachers may be trained for this work (in non-English-speaking settlements), and in rural districts provided with permanent and attractive homes.

senting voice, the Inter-Provincial Conference on Technical Education yesterday passed a resolution urging immediate action by the Federal and the various Provincial Governments with the object of establishing and maintaining a central institution for the training of special teachers for vocational education. The resolution sets forth that the supreme need in the proper and efficient development of technical education throughout the Dominion is an adequate supply of especially trained and skilled teachers, and that there is a very small number of thoroughly trained vocational instructors in all the Provinces. It states that the work of training these teachers can be done more economically and efficiently by inter-Provincial co-operation than by independent efforts.

EXCELLENT FISHING AT COWICHAN BAY

Shawigan Lake, Oct. 27.—Fishing is so good at Cowichan Bay just at present that one hardly even needs a net. On Sunday last, while W. D. Todd was fishing at the bay, a fourteen-pound salmon jumped in the net. Needless to say Mr. Todd lost no time in landing on him and succeeded in killing him. The bi-monthly meeting of the Shawigan Women's Institute was held on Thursday afternoon last at the home of Mrs. Bay Elford. A short business meeting was held first, Miss M. L. Clark reporting a most successful tag day on Wednesday in aid of the Navy League, the sum of $40.75 being collected. Several communications also were read. Following the business a most enjoyable social hour was spent, Mrs. Bloomquist winning the prize in a "Jumbled names" contest. Afternoon tea was then served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Todd and Miss W. Gibson.

A Pleasant Evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elford entertained a number of their friends at their home on Friday evening last. Progressive five hundred was the order of the evening, the prize-winners being Mrs. R. Elford and Mr. Phillips, first prizes; and Mrs. Cummins and Mr. Waterman consolation prizes. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, the remainder of the evening being devoted to music. The weekly whist drive of the Shawigan Lake Community Club was held on Thursday evening last in the S. L. A. A. Hall. These drives are proving very popular, there being a larger attendance each week. The cards are followed by refreshments and dancing. The preliminary steps have been taken in the formation of an up-Island Basketball League. Local players are very enthusiastic about it and are putting in some good practices.

MEIGHEN AND CALDER SPOKE IN MOOSE JAW

Moose Jaw, Oct. 27.—Premier Meighen and Hon. J. A. Calder, Minister of Immigration, spoke at a largely attended meeting here last night. Mr. Meighen, who met with a hearty reception, replied briefly to statements by Liberal leaders that the Premier was autocratic and that control of affairs by Parliament had been taken over by the Cabinet, and declared both to be without basis. Discussing the sugar situation, he said Canadian consumers saved $20,000,000 to $30,000,000 when prices for sugar were lower in Canada than in the United States. Mr. Calder said that when he went to Ottawa to join the Cabinet he had found me in the Cabinet whom he had looked upon as Liberals, were what had been called Tories, and he had found men he had thought old crusted Tories were as Liberal in their sentiment as he was himself. "It has been claimed," continued Mr. Calder, "that I have become a Tory. Well, I have not and don't intend to." "What are you?" shouted someone in the audience. "There is one thing I am not, and that is a Mackenzie King Liberal. On the other hand, I am a Liberal and as good a Liberal as I ever was." "I am inclined to think," continued Mr. Calder, "that many of the farmers have been badly advised and badly led, and I am inclined to think that when the time comes many thousands of them will refuse to follow those who are attempting to lead them at the present time. They have created a class movement (cries of "No, no.") that is bad for themselves and bad for Canada as a whole." The Minister asked Mackenzie King to be more explicit as to details in his quoted statement at Regina that a Minister of the Crown had proposed to split an unnamed riding to make a safe seat.

MUNICIPAL GARAGE NOW

Chicago, Oct. 27.—The municipal garage movement has taken firm hold in Chicago. The idea is to build two-level garage in Grant Park, to be paid for and maintained from fees charged for parking cars. Other cities also have taken up this plan for the city-owned and operated garages in their business districts.

 Metchoin, Oct. 27.—On Saturday next Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, will be in the Sooke District, and will address a meeting in the evening of the Sooke Farmers' and Women's Institutes. Mr. Barrow will be accompanied by the member of the Advisory Board, C. E. Whitney-Griffins, and most sections of the district will be visited. The Sooke Institutes, both Farmers' and Women's, are carrying on energetic work. MACDONALD'S

The Tobacco with a heart

More men smoke "Brier" than any other tobacco in Canada. It leads in quality --and leads in value. "Brier" has become a Canadian institution. Now "Brier" comes in new form --Macdonald's Cut "Brier"--the same tobacco--prepared under the Macdonald standards established in 1858. Among cut tobaccos "Brier" still leads in value. There is more tobacco for the money in the 1-12 lb. package at 15 cents. Half-pound tins 85 cents.

COSTLY COERCIVE POLICIES

Great Britain at least showed the courage to admit defeat of Lord Milner's attempt to produce a settlement with Egyptian nationalism, and her agreement to withdraw her army of occupation effectually ends her losses. An immense economy is the immediate promise and the substitution of peace throughout the country in which rule by coercion had provoked dangerous unrest and ineffectual massacre.

CHEAP AT THE PRICE.

With all his experience of public life in this Province the Leader of the Opposition in the local Legislature does not seem to be able to save himself from the consequences of his own folly. In the face of the tremendous interest taken in last Wednesday's vote and the very definite decision of the electorate he still contends that the double issue of politics and liquor should have been settled on the same ballot paper.

DOLLAR FOR DOLLAR.

Information of a semi-official nature already has been made public to the effect that Great Britain would be prepared to cancel the credits extended by her to European Allies on the understanding that the United States would agree to wipe out European obligations to herself. In other words Great Britain would assent to a dollar for dollar proposal for balancing the accounts of the two nations as far as Europe is concerned.

by long term notes could be re-funded and Great Britain's five billion dollar debt to the United States extended over a period that would not strain the treasury of the Republic, but which would relieve some of the burden now borne by the Motherland as a legacy of her gigantic war effort.

In any event there should be no obstacle to an understanding between Great Britain and the United States whereby a financial adjustment could be reached with an appropriate regard for the status of the two treasuries and the relative responsibilities which each have been called upon to bear on account of the war.

SOUTH VANCOUVER.

Irrespective of the issues that will enliven the election campaign in many of the Provincial ridings the quasi-municipality of South Vancouver intends to stir its own political pot with the Gillespie spoon. A certain section of the electorate has reached the conclusion that the time has arrived when the municipality's civic status should be restored and its affairs removed from the control of the Government.

JUTLAND'S SECRET.

It is seldom that the Northcliffe press is lacking in subjects upon which to attack the British Prime Minister. It has berated him upon most of the Government's policies, and it has just varied the monotony with a demand that the Admiralty's account of the battle of Jutland be published. It has informed the general public that the failure to annihilate the "weak" German fleet was the true cause of the Russian collapse and the origin of the submarine campaign. "It is vital, therefore, to learn how it was that the Germans escaped, and who was responsible for their escape," screams one of the Associated Newspapers' editorials.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Mr. Bowser has announced his intention of demanding a "Moderation Act" from Premier Oliver. Is he looking for pointers to include in the policy that the electorate will demand of him? The Manufacturers' Association of British Columbia has decided to postpone the discussion of the new liquor Act for the moment. We presume the action of the main body was taken with the consent of the "hardware" merchants.

LEAGUE'S DECISIONS

According to a dispatch from Luerzie to The London Times former King Constantine of Greece still regards himself as the occupant of the Greek throne. But as an exponent of absent treatment in respect of his subjects he has been a failure.

The Leader of the Opposition in the British Columbia Legislature has charged Premier Oliver and his party with trifling with the commonsense of the people. But Mr. Bowser did that in 1916 and he has failed to rid himself of the habit.

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS

The Signature of Documents. (The Westminster Gazette.) The correspondence in the Press about the discovery of a supposed signature of William the Conqueror leads one to ask how many people know why a man speaks of "signing" a document when he subscribes his name to it. The reason appears to be that in the Middle Ages it was a common custom for a person to authenticate a charter or deed by making a mark or the sign of the Cross.

WHY

WHY ARE SOME PENCILS SOFT AND OTHERS HARD? (Copyright, 1920, By The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.) In the manufacture of lead pencils a special grade of fine clay is mixed with particles of graphite after both substances have been thoroughly pulverized. The proportions of this mixture determine the relative "hardness" of the pencil itself—a preponderance of clay producing the hard variety and an extra amount of graphite making the lead softer.

WHERE IT STARTED

REINFORCED CONCRETE (Copyright, 1920, By The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.) The method of reinforcing concrete was patented by a man who had no idea of the use of his invention. Joseph Monier took out a patent on a method of making "fives" pots from concrete and used them for watering and his patent held till his expiration on all forms of reinforced concrete.

TWO ON TRIAL

IN VANCOUVER ON MURDER CHARGE Vancouver, Oct. 27.—Joseph Scanlon and Mike Molyneux, twenty-four and twenty-nine years of age, respectively, are on trial at the assizes here for the alleged murder of Daniel Morrison on May 17 last. Morrison was a logger, aged fifty-five, and came to Vancouver from Campbell River to be treated for stomach trouble. It is alleged that Scanlon and Molyneux inflicted injuries on Morrison at the Columbia Hotel here, as the result of which he died the following day in a hospital. The alleged motive of the attack on Morrison was robbery.

SPANISH AMBASSADOR TO FRANCE SPEAKS OF LEAGUE COUNCIL'S WORK

Brussels, Oct. 27.—(Associated Press)—Count Quinones, Spanish Ambassador to France, talking to a correspondent of the Associated Press on the work of the Council of the League of Nations, said: "Spain, which considers her representation on the Council as public recognition of the policy she followed during the war, takes great interest in the work of the League, which has combined subjects of such capital importance as to the constitution of a permanent international court and preparations for disarmament."

Referring to the forthcoming assembly of the League of Nations, the Count expressed satisfaction at the prospect of seeing side by side with the other nations the Latin-American republics, which he said are united to Spain by strong moral ties and identity of language. The Ambassador pointed out that these republics will represent about one-third of the nations comprising the Assembly of the League of Nations.

TALKS TO SCOTSMEN ON B.C.'S. RESOURCES

George Bell is Telling Public of Clydeside Opportunities Here

George Bell, late senior member for Victoria, and former city alderman, who brings his Scottish tour to an end this week, having been recalled by the dissolution of the Legislature, has had no opportunity in bringing the advantages of this country before the Scottish people from the standpoint of immigration of experienced business men and employees.

In a letter to The Times he says: "I was down the River Clyde last Friday, for miles there is nothing on either side but shipbuilding. I saw at least 500 ships in course of construction, including the Empress of Canada for the Pacific route.

The Clyde has made Glasgow, and shipbuilding would make our coast cities. I am pointing out at each of my meetings that we need Scottish experience and Scottish capital—that we have raw iron, coal and waterways together—and that Scotsmen would readily develop out in British Columbia a great steel and ship-building industry."

Mr. Bell had the honor of addressing a meeting in St. Andrew's Hall, Glasgow, famous throughout Great Britain for its political meetings, on October 3 in the presence of a distinguished gathering, on the subject, "Canada and its social problems." He was given a good hearing.

ANTON BERNICK, of St. Paul, Minn., who says he now eats better, sleeps better and works better, as a result of taking Tanlac. Says all his friends are talking about his improvement.

"There must be something wonderful about Tanlac for it has made me feel better, eat better, sleep better and work better," said Anton Bernick, of 136 East Congress Street, St. Paul, Minn., a well-known employee of Swift & Company.

"Tanlac has helped me so much that all my friends are stopping me on the street and asking me what it is that is making me look so well, and of course I am always glad to tell them it is Tanlac. I hadn't been down sick in bed exactly, but I hadn't felt just right for a long time. I was all run down, had indigestion, my appetite was poor and nothing agreed with me. In fact, I had to force down every mouthful. I would eat and I would always suffer from indigestion for an hour or so after every meal. I also had headaches and would get so dizzy at times I could hardly keep from falling. I simply had no ambition or energy to do anything.

"Just as I have already said, Tanlac has made a brand-new man of me and I am feeling fine. Now in every way. Of course I will always recommend Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Fort and Douglas, and Lang's Drug Store, Esquimalt Road.

In Germany eighteen industries are listed for the manufacture of motor vehicles.

MAN AND WIFE MAY NOT SERVE ON SAME JURY
London, Oct. 25.—The British Government does not intend to allow the new jury system to become the property of family juries in the jury box. They have issued a set of rules for the guidance of the court officials, among which is the following: "Husband and wife shall not both be summoned to serve on a jury on the same occasion." Another rule provides that the women on any panel of jurors shall be in the same proportion to the men as the total number of women on the jurors' books is to the total number of men.

TO-DAY'S JEWELS
This day was designed for lovers. If the gems which govern mortal destiny are read aright. The moonstone is the salient jewel. It has high rank as a gift for lovers, since, according to ancient superstition, it is believed to arouse the tender passion and to give the power to read the future. Its potency is more marked when the moon is full.
Another gem associated with love and marriage is today's natal stone. This is the diamond, emblem of betrothal. According to an old legend, this jewel, when given to a young man, will lose its brilliancy if love wanes. Blue is the hue most potent for wear to-day. It is a symbol of Venus, who smiles upon lovers.
The lily—the valley—is the special flower assigned to this day. It is particularly adapted to weddings and festivities designed for young people, since it is significant of the purity and unconscious sweetness of youth.

WORKING FOR SAILORS' HOME AT ESQUIMALT TO SPEAK HERE ON CANADIAN BOYHOOD.
Ladies Guild Arrange Whist Drive and Dance To-morrow
Women's Canadian Club to Hear Visiting Boy-Welfare Experts

In September a number of women in the Esquimalt district, interested in the Sailors' Club, formed a Ladies' Guild with the idea of working for the Club along similar lines to the work carried on by the parent body, the Ladies' Guild of the Connaught Seaman's Institute. Mrs. A. Thomson and Mrs. Moore are the honorary presidents, Mrs. Travis, the president, Mrs. A. White, secretary, and Mrs. Gaiger, treasurer. During Mrs. Travis's illness, Mrs. Caw is acting president of the organization.
One of the first undertakings of the newly-formed guild was to raise money for the purchase of a conveyance to the club of the wood which was felled and sawn by two sailors while on holiday. To raise the necessary money for this purpose, the ladies have arranged to hold a whist drive and dance at the Club to-morrow evening. Splendid prizes will be given to the winners of the card games, while music will be provided for the dancing, and it is hoped that the general public will show their sympathy with this work on behalf of the sailors by supporting the affair generously.
The ladies, recognizing that the Club fills a long-felt want in providing a place of rest and wholesome entertainment for the sailors visiting this port, are exerting every effort to keep the Club going and prevent its being closed for lack of maintenance. Only the men who have enjoyed its hospitality and the "mothering" of Mrs. Rance, the matron, can fully realize what such a Club means to the visiting sailor who, often without friends, would be at a loss without such a haven.
Letters to "Mother" Rance.
That the men retain pleasant memories of their stay here is shown by the letters which "Mother" Rance is constantly receiving from "her boys" as she affectionately calls them. Recently she received letters from a former sailor who is now stationed at Victoria, Hongkong, and who writes in part: "I must thank you for the excellent time we had while staying at the Sailors' Home at Esquimalt, thinking it was one of the best ten days I have ever spent. Two of my most cherished possessions are the two books you gave me before I left Esquimalt."
Another letter from an ex-naval man, now in Saskatchewan, after "I suppose you will be thinking that the boys have forgotten you, but they never will as long as they live. I am sure you will all miss you for your kindness to us when we were in the service in Esquimalt." The letter is signed "From one of your sons," a simple but eloquent tribute to the affection which the sailors have for Rance is regarded by the men who "go down to the sea in ships."

SUNDAY SCHOOL HOLDS PAGEANT
First Presbyterian Classes Give Entertainment With Reports of Progress
Last evening at the First Presbyterian Church the Sunday School students, and teachers, assembled in a novel pageant, reproducing the rally day ceremony of the summer camps. Each class of the Sunday School took part, and recited the progress that had been made during the year. The affair was organized under the direction of Miss. "Mother" Rance, the matron, whose duties she continued to guide for twenty-two years, when he entered upon his present international work for boys.

MACCABEES HOLD ANNIVERSARY DINNER
Celebrate 28th Year of Organization in Pleasing Ceremony Last Night
Celebrating the twenty-eighth anniversary of their organization, the Victoria Review No. 1 of the Maccabees, last night held a banquet at the Knights of Columbus Hall, at which thirty-five members were present. The tables and hall were decorated in a color-scheme of red and white, the color of the order, while on one of the tables was an enormous birthday cake, lighted with twenty-eight candles, the whole presenting a very pretty show.
In the after-dinner speeches that followed, Mrs. Leeman gave an address on the "History of the Association," while Mr. Coleman spoke of the toast of "The King." Mrs. Garrett proposed a toast to Miss Byna M. West, Supreme Commander, and Mrs. Hodson, Supervising Deputy of the One Year Members. At the close of the speeches Mrs. Leeman was presented with a huge basket of flowers tastefully arranged in the colors of the order. Dancing and music closed the entertainment of the evening.

Fill Your Blood With Iron If You Want To Be Strong WITH PLENTY OF ENERGY AND POWER
Says Physician—Explains How Organic Iron-Like Nutrient Iron Often Increases the Strength of Weak, Nervous, Run-down People in Two Weeks' Time.
You cannot expect to forge ahead in life with plenty of energy and power if your blood is thin and watery any more than you can hope to run an automobile on water instead of gasoline. It takes pure, red blood—rich in iron—to keep the human machine working right. Without iron your every action lacks power, your red blood corpuscles die by millions, the strength goes from your body and you drop among the weaklings and failures.
"But when such men and women supply the right kind of iron to their blood, a most surprising change often takes place."
See how long you can work or how far you can run, then test your iron in your system by taking two five-grain tablets of ordinary "Wells' Iron" for in your experience it is one of the best tonic and red blood builders known to medical science."
If you are not strong or well, you can win by taking the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can run, then test your iron in your system by taking two five-grain tablets of ordinary "Wells' Iron" for in your experience it is one of the best tonic and red blood builders known to medical science."
Manufacturers' Note: Nutrient Iron, which is recommended above, is not a secret remedy but one which will build up the blood. It is easily absorbed and does not irritate the stomach. It is not a "tonic" but a "nutrient" and it rebuilds the muscles and helps in the whole system with fresh vigor and endurance whether the person be young or old. I strongly advise every man or woman who is lagged out by worry, work and other strains to build up strength, and

COUNSEL EXPRESSES HIS SYMPATHY

Mr. Jackson Says One Witness's Money "Just Rolled Away"

Sympathy for T. W. Tedcastle, who put up $2,000, then, a little later, between $7,000 and $8,000 and a perfectly good Willys-Knight motor car, to join in business with Dr. Ralph Jepson and Mrs. Jepson in running motor cars of the Suburban Transportation Co. out to Sooke and Metehosin, was expressed by M. B. Jackson, K.C., before Judge Lampman and the assembled representatives of the many individuals and firms that are trying to divide the remaining assets of the company. Mr. Tedcastle swore that all his money was gone and he had never taken one cent out of the business. He alleged to the judge that Dr. Jepson had not been straightforward with him. Mr. Tedcastle swore that he and Mrs. Jackson constituted the company, although Dr. Jepson really ran everything, because it was said that it would be better to leave Dr. Jepson out.

By Innocent Abroad

"I am sorry for Mr. Tedcastle," Mr. Jackson said in his summing up, just before the judge retired at noon to consider his judgment. "But I fear that he is an innocent abroad. Those automobiles carried away all his money. Poor Tedcastle! His dollars were cartwheels, all right. They just rolled away."
 Dr. Jepson went in the witness-box and swore that Mr. Tedcastle was to blame for all the company's troubles because he was responsible for bringing borrowed money into the company. He testified that the partnership to revolutionize the suburban transportation system around Victoria, which started out so well at first, had been started on only $12 cash.

Has Been "The Goat"

"I have been made the goat in this matter long enough," said Dr. Jepson. "I want the newspapers to print my side of the story as well."

Judge Lampman said he was not interested in what Dr. Jepson wanted to get into the newspapers. J. Y. Copeman, who represents the Greenwood interests in the concern, amounting to $1,100, argued that the seizure by James A. Griffith of three cars of the company was bad and because of that will not stand against the execution creditors. Mr. Griffith had seized the three cars because the Griffith Co. had lent a couple of thousand dollars to them.

BOARD OF TRADE TO INQUIRE INTO HOME CONDITIONS

Commencing to-day, the scientific rationing of the inmates of the Aged Men's Home, plans drawn up by the City Health Officer and recently approved by the City Council, will be put into effect. To-day's changes affect the meat supplies, these being drastically cut to conform with the new scale. There was some thought that the new system would meet with strong protest from the inmates, but nothing transpired other than some comment. As the month proceeds serious other changes will come into effect, especially when the new grocery scale is brought into operation at the beginning of next week.

The changes at the Aged Men's Home have been brought before the Board of Trade for attention, and at this morning's meeting a resolution was adopted to appoint a committee to investigate the statement that the diet of the inmates of the Aged Men's Home will be put on a scientific basis, after reference to the Medical Health Officer. The resolution asks the Civic Affairs Committee (George I. Warren, A. McCorkindale, P. Gloima, N. S. Stevenson and P. H. Scurrans) to hold an inquiry into the conditions at the home, and report to the Board regarding its findings.

As a result of a serious tussle in the Montrose Rooms last night G. O. Jameson was to-day charged in the city police court with stealing two razors, one cigar case, and some other articles the property of Thomas O'Farrell, civil engineer. The case was remanded.
 According to the evidence given by William Sheerst, the manager, the accused was found in the room of O'Farrell late last night, where witness saw accused turn out the light at his approach. Witness turned up the light and found the accused behind the door. Then ensued a tussle which lasted for some time, and the proprietor called reinforcements to his aid.

POISON GAS USED AGAINST WITNESSES

Reno, Nev., Oct. 27.—Phosgene gas, one of the most deadly developed during the war, was used in the alleged attempt to kill Fred Anderson and C. P. Jensen Saturday night, according to Dr. C. W. West, who made a report to the police to-day. Two other persons into white apartments the gas was thrown are recovering to-day. Jensen and Anderson, who were witnesses before the Federal grand jury during its whiskey investigations at San Francisco, were removed from Reno to an unknown destination last night by Federal officers.

OFFICERS APPOINTED TO CANADIAN WINNER

Articles Signed Preparatory to Departure of Ship on Maiden Voyage

Captain Walter Wingate, commander of the Victoria-built steamship Canadian Winner, is assembling his officers in readiness for the departure of the ship on her maiden voyage to Australia.

The deck officers have been signed on articles and are standing by as the ship is being made ready for her official trials early next month.

Going out as chief officer with Captain Wingate will be Frank Dudley, a mariner of considerable experience and boasting a splendid record at sea.

A. Thomas, third officer, was formerly mate of the salvage steamship Algerine.

The Canadian Winner, which is the first of the Harbor Marine freighters to be turned out at this port for the Canadian Merchant Marine, will run her trials over the measured mile course at Parry Bay, and if every thing goes satisfactorily she will immediately be accepted by the representatives of the Canadian Government and placed on berth without delay.

From here the Canadian Winner will go to Vancouver to load for New Zealand and Australia.

Commander Well Known. Captain Wingate, commander of the steamship, is a well known Victorian who saw much service afloat during the war. He was commander of the Grise when that vessel was almost engulfed off the Halifax station during a terrific storm, and later dramatically turned up when all had been given up for lost. He was also aboard the steamship Dulwich when that vessel was torpedoed.

Following the establishment of the Canadian Merchant Marine Captain Wingate acted as ship superintendent for the Government organization at Vancouver.

Whaler Blue Boasts Biggest Catch of British Columbia Fleet

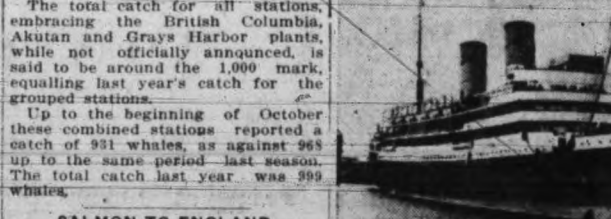

With the arrival of the steam whalers Orion, Green and Brown from the Rose Harbor station to-day, the 1920 whaling season comes to a close.

The biggest catch of the season on the British Columbia coast is credited to the whaler Blue, which, operating out of Nahcota Harbor, harpooned 98 mammals, the whaler William Grant coming next in point of catch.

The total catch for all stations embracing the British Columbia, Akutan and Grays Harbor plants, while not officially announced, is said to be around the 1,000 mark, equalling last year's catch for the grouped stations.

Up to the beginning of October these combined stations reported a catch of 931 whales, as against 969 up to the same period last season. The total catch last year was 999 whales.

WEST JESTER'S MASTER IS TRUE ADVENTURER

Vancouver, Oct. 27.—A true adventurer, the sea has attracted in port in the person of Captain Patrick J. Woods, master of the 3,900-ton steel Waterhouse freighter West Jester, and one of the best-known old-time skippers of the Pacific Coast. Captain Woods is a mariner, and a seaker after excitement. Since 1877 he has been rubbing against the raw parts of the world, until now his experience is rich in strange occurrences, and he hopes yet to add much to it.

Leaving home at the age of 13 years, he stepped on a square-rigged vessel bound for the River Plate. Arriving there he and another lad, son of the chief engineer of the British ship Agincourt, took to the land and made their way to Valparaiso. Then they took to the sea again and Woods worked up through various stages to a command. He was quartermaster under the famous Pacific Coast skipper Captain

MANUFACTURERS GIVE NO ADVICE ON LIQUOR ACT

Vancouver, Oct. 27.—Deciding that the time is premature for any discussion of the new liquor act, the Manufacturers Association of British Columbia has resolved to refrain from offering any suggestions to the Government on the question. The matter was discussed by the members last night.

Working and living conditions are reported to be of the best, the accommodation being modern, with many comforts for employees.

The underlying representation to a total investment of $7,000,000, and officials are confident that the corporation has a bright future. The recent copper production of the province fell off with the closing down of the large mines in the Boundary district, but it is expected that with steady operations at the new camp at Copper Mountain, which will be only a reasonably short time until British Columbia's output will exceed previous records.

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE MINES

Grubby Copper Output. The Grubby Consolidated Mining Smelting & Power Company produced 2,230,173 pounds of copper in September. This is comparable with 2,417,996 pounds in August and 2,400,000 in July.

Rare Metals in Ontario. In addition to being the premier mining province of Canada as regards gold and silver, Ontario produces other rare metals that are even more valuable than gold. During the past year platinum and palladium were recovered at Port Colborne, and also by the International Nickel Company at its Bayanore refinery. At the latter, according to Production and Export, 19,528 tons of Bessemer units were treated during the year, from which platinum, palladium, rhodium, osmium, iridium and ruthenium were recovered. In all, 2,770 fine ounces were obtained, the estimate being $290,909. Quotations on the rarer metals are difficult to obtain. The average price of platinum for the year was $114 per fine ounce. Palladium has been valued at $150. Iridium is now quoted nominally at $300 per ounce Troy. The average value of iridium imported into the United States in 1918 was $311, and for osmium it was $58 per ounce in 1917.

These include, mag-nesite, marble, and other economic substances come within the definition of the samples sought for this collection, which is the basis of research work, which it is hoped, may lead to useful developments in industry.

IT is the quality of your possessions rather than their quantity which gives the true index to your character. No more than you would consent to wear shabby, ill-fitting clothes, should you carry a watch of obscure make and unreliable performance.

When you carry a Waltham you have the satisfaction of knowing that you possess a high-grade watch that commands respect everywhere.

For more than sixty-five years the name "Waltham" has received universal acceptance as the World's highest standard of watch quality.

Ice Hockey Association Will Remain Simon-Pure

Decides to Have No Tickerings With Parties Who Would Set Up New Body to Control Sport; Supports Action of Delegate to B. C. A. A. U.; Officers Elected For Year.

Victoria's amateur ice hockey association has decided to remain simon-pure and to have nothing to do with the out-law organization which is attempting to break up the B. C. A. A. U. and establish a new central body to govern sport in this city. The puck-chasers were admitted to have within their hands the necessary power to swing either way the fight which has waged in amateur circles for the past six weeks. At a meeting held last evening the association decided to remain amateur in the strict sense of the word and besides endorsing the action of its delegate at the meeting of the B. C. A. A. U. when the decision to suspend the amateurs was made, passed a lengthy resolution condemning the way in which amateur hockey is being conducted on the prairies.

Much interest was taken in the attitude of the association towards the position assumed by the B. C. A. A. U. John Mowat, president of the association last year, was one of the prime movers in the effort to form the new central body, and it was not known whether or not the meeting last night would follow in his steps or not. There was little doubt left after the discussion as to what the ice kings wanted. Besides deciding to stand by the union, the association elected as president Dan O'Sullivan, the stalwart supporter of the J. B. A. A. and one of the most ardent advocates of genuine amateurism. The fact that Dan will control the affairs of the hockey league this year means that there will be no transgressing of the amateur rules.

The Resolution.

Darrell Spence, of the Elks, moved the resolution outlining the attitude of the association and it was seconded by J. A. Wikison of the Elks. It read as follows:

"Whereas during the past month or so certain trouble has arisen in conjunction with amateur sport in this city and whereas the Victoria Amateur Ice Hockey Association has been represented on the local body of the B. C. A. A. U. by an accredited delegate, and therefore resolved that the members constituting the Victoria Amateur Ice Hockey Association, hereby endorse the action of our delegate in remaining loyal to all laws governing the rules of an amateur in the recent deliberations of the local body of the B. C. A. A. U. Only one hockey player, Vic Graylin, is on the black list of the union at present. A number of the leading players in the city make it their duty to stand by the union in this respect, and they would not sacrifice their amateur standing to play out-law ice hockey.

Good Boosting Officers.

The association has the strongest state of officers it has ever had and this will mean much to the game during the coming winter. Dan O'Sullivan, a veteran sportsman of this city is the new president and can be counted upon working the league up to a very attractive drawing card.

The Officers.

The officers elected were as follows: President, Dan O'Sullivan; vice-president, J. A. Wikison; secretary, Percy Richardson; treasurer, W. C. Betschen; secretary-translator, J. A. Wikison; referee, W. C. Betschen; and referee-in-chief, W. C. Betschen. Mr. Watson reported to the meeting the deliberations of the B. C. A. A. U. and after his report the association decided to stand by the union in its efforts to protect the amateurs in this city.

Old Salts Hobnobbing With Monied Folks at a Real Game

Half-Million Purse Prepared to Defend For Heavies' Fight

Carpenter and Dempsey Will Make Big Haul Out of Match

Halifax, Oct. 27.—A great "jury" began assembling here to-day for the international fishermen's races off Halifax harbor beginning next Saturday. It is a critical assemblage, self-appointed and unofficial, comprised entirely of experts weather-beaten, sun-browned old salts from along the North Atlantic seaboard, most of them retired sea captains, and they expect a "real race."

Can't Score These Boys.

"No twenty-five-mile puff is going to call this race off," declared one old skipper, who frankly admitted he did not think much of America's Cup sloops that had to post one of their races because of a "bit of a blow."

Pass On Sails.

A committee of three, representing the two contenders and the sailing committee, has been named to pass upon the sails which will be used by the competing craft.

Unless the Orangeville team, amateur lacrosse champions of Ontario, insist upon early dates for the Mann Cup matches there will be no clash until the Spring.

Details Not Decided.

The number of rounds, the place of battle and the exact date are subject to discussion of the promoters, who are to inform the principals at least sixty days before the contest. Each fighter receives a $5-per-cent right in the motion picture profits, the other 50 per cent going to the promoters. The bout will be conducted by Tex Rickard, Charles Cochran, of London, and William A. Brady. The contract was agreed to after a long conference yesterday at which were present the joint promoters, Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, and Francois Descamps, manager of Carpenter, and four lawyers.

A Record Purse.

While the promoters refused to disclose the amount of the purse before the formal signing of the contract to-day, it is known that, including certain percentages, it will approach $500,000.

Can Fight in Canada.

Under the contract it will be possible to hold the fight in Canada, Mexico, Cuba or the West Indies. The place and date will not be finally arranged for some time.

Charge Big Prices.

While it is understood that the promoters are counting upon a record gate in order to carry the burden of the huge purse, the motion picture receipts are expected to produce the greatest revenue. It has been estimated that if the bout is held in Madison Square Garden, box seats around the ringside would sell for nearly $200 each, with other seats at positions ranging downward in proportion.

Home For Christmas.

Carpenter will leave for France within the next ten days to spend the Christmas holidays with his family, but it is his plan to return to America early in the new year and begin training for his contest with Dempsey. Neither boxer will be permitted under the contract to compete in the ring previous to the coming battle, although exhibitions of short duration will not be prohibited.

Looking for Good Year in Amateur Ice Hockey

President Dan O'Sullivan Thinks Standard of Play Will Be Better Than Last Season and Hopes For Bigger Attendances; Total of 18,000 People Saw Games Last Year.

"I look forward to a very good season and I have good reason to believe that the brand of hockey this year will be as good, if not better, than that which the boys served up to us last year. A meeting of the executive will be held immediately and we will proceed with the work of organizing for the season."

Many New Players.

There is no doubt but that the amateurs will have a splendid season. Eight clubs have made application for places in the League. Last year there were but four clubs. Whether these clubs will expand and take in all these clubs will only be decided after the officials of the Association look over the roster of players of the various clubs and to see what material is on hand. The Association is not anxious to have a big league and sacrifice the brand of hockey which has been going on in the city for some weeks.

Nurses Appreciated
Thoroughly

"Oh! we don't call the doctor, we call the nurse, and she rounds up a doctor if it is necessary. If it isn't necessary she tells what to do. Our nurses are the best economical institution to us in Saanich," was the information volunteered to Mrs. H. C. Hanington, Chief Superintendent of the Victorian Order for Canada when attending a Women's Institute meeting in the district.

This works both ways: it saves doctors many unnecessary trips into the country and it allays the anxiety of the members of the household, besides being a financial saving.

of all is the fact that disease is detected in its earliest stages before it has had time to make headway, and thus taken in time disease is prevented, which is the great object in medical science to-day.

This can be done so easily because the small fee puts this service within reach of any resident, while if there is any question the nursing service can be had by any individual without price, but the nurse's salaries must be paid, and though they were busy with bedside care every hour of the working day the fee would not be sufficient to pay the salaries and upkeep of the cars, therefore this appeal to the people of Saanich to keep this nursing service within reach of those in need, is being made on November 4. By donating liberally the residents are helping the nurses fight a deadlier enemy than ever the Germans were with all their gas, bombs and bullets.

Superintendent Denison Re-views Records of Past Two Years

That the abnormal weather conditions of the last two years have not been restricted to this locality was demonstrated to a large audience last evening by E. Napier Denison, Superintendent of the Dominion Meteorological Service for British Columbia, in his address on "Abnormal Weather of 1919 and 1920," at the Girls' Central School. He spoke optimistically of the future, looking to more normal conditions in the climate.

Dr. R. K. Young, president of the Victoria branch of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada, occupied the chair. The lecture was given under the auspices of that body.

Mr. Denison said that abnormal conditions had been reported throughout the world, and were not peculiar to this Province.

The following notes bear out the above statements, said Mr. Denison, 1919.

In 1919, January, February and March, abnormally wet months in Great Britain, this quarter wettest in 50 years.

January to April, wettest since 1877.

May, driest and hottest on record.

At Bagdad in 1919, maximum temperature in June, 114 degrees; July, 118 degrees; August, 118 degrees; September, 113 degrees.

June, fine and dry in Great Britain. July, abnormally cool, Kew minimum temperature, the lowest back to 1871.

August, abnormally dry in B.C., Nova Scotia, abnormally rainy. In Britain fine and warm. Intense heat in France, highest temperature in 20 years.

September, abnormally early and severe frosts in Okanagan and Kootenay. Greenwich reports minimum on 29th as 21 degrees, three degrees colder for that date than in any year back to 1841. Sept. 9th, typhoon and tidal wave, 25 feet high at Fuchow, 200 killed. Hurricane in Gulf of Mexico, several hundred killed in Texas. September 23rd, abnormally heavy ice reported in Arctic and extending far south.

October, abnormally cold and dry Central and Eastern B.C. Alberta temperature 18 degrees below average, also abnormally cold across Canada to Labrador. 22nd, heavy snow in Prairies. 4th, heavy floods in Spain; 2nd, severe floods in Mexico; 4th, severe storm in Bengal.

October 9th, temperature down to zero, two weeks earlier than usual. 24th, South Africa reports worst drought in 50 years; 27th, zero in Cariboo and in Northern Alberta; 31st, world's wheat yield below average. Abnormally cold in Britain, minimum temperature at Kew, lowest in 50 years.

November, abnormally cold in B.C. and Prairies. 11th, earliest blizzard at Winnipeg in 14 years; 11th, wolf packs driven south in Manitoba by cold; 12th, snowstorms stop ship-building on Clyde and Tyne; 15th, Paris reports six to ten inches of snow, and earliest blizzard on record; 17th, record cold in North Alberta for this date; 19th, worst drought on record in New South Wales; 28th, severe storm on California coast, and two inches of snow at Riverside. Abnormally cold in Britain, temperature nearly down to zero in Scotland, and London mean temperature lowest in 52 years.

December, one of the coldest December on record across Canada. Abnormally mild and rainy in Britain. 11th, floods in Alabama, worst since 1886; 18th, zero at New York; 27th, drought severe in Hawaiian Islands.

January, abnormally cold from Pacific to Atlantic Oceans. Mild and rainy in Europe with severe floods. Rhine highest in 40 years, River Seine highest on record. Severe floods in Italy and on Danube. St. Lawrence River heaviest ice blockade on record. New York temperature down to zero. Australian drought broken early in month.

February, abnormally mild in Canada, fine and very dry in B.C. Mild and stormy in Europe, more floods. Palestine, cold and stormy. Jerusalem reports 39 inches of snow, heaviest in 50 years. Heavy rains in South Africa. Abnormally heavy snow in New York, streets blocked for nearly two weeks.

March—Temperature normal, heavy snow in B.C. mountains. Abnormally mild and wet in Britain; London mildest March in 63 years. Europe abnormally mild. Heavy gales in U. S. A. and 70 miles an hour gale at New York. Florida reports $5,000,000 loss by frost on 2nd.

April—Abnormally cold in Alberta and cold in B. C. and eastward to Ontario. Stormy, mild and wet in Great Britain.

May—Temperature below average in B. C. and Alberta. Abnormally heavy rains in Britain. In Lincolnshire one station reported 4.89 inches in three hours.

June—Abnormally cool and wet in B. C. and Alberta. Fine and dry in Britain.

July—Abnormally hot month; severe frosts in the Lower Fraser River Valley. Prairies abnormally hot. Abnormally wet and cool in British Isles. London heaviest rains in 40 years.

August—Abnormally hot and dry in B. C. with severe forest fires. All Canada above average temperature. British Isles abnormally cloudy and cool. U. S. A. abnormally hot, and hottest in 40 years in some sections. Bombay reports abnormal rains and floods. Australia abnormally cold with snow reported as far north as Albany. Japan had severe floods with much loss of life.

September—Abnormally heavy rains both on Vancouver Island and the Lower Mainland. Victoria reported 2.62 inches and Vancouver 10.37 inches. Much land under water and crops seriously damaged on Lower Mainland.

October—Abnormally wet month and mild weather general in B. C. and the prairies, while in Eastern Canada abnormally high temperatures have prevailed for days.

Causes For Weather.

The above unusual conditions are largely dependent upon the distribution of atmospheric pressure, and from a close study of the daily weather charts made here and others furnished from the central office in Toronto it appears this distribution has been decidedly abnormal," said Mr. Denison.

"In the Autumn and Winter of 1919 vast areas of high barometric pressure spread southward over this Province and the prairies, accompanied by unusually cold weather, while during the past September and this month of October areas of low pressure accompanied by these abnormally heavy rains have spread inland from the Pacific. In fact, the latter type of areas in a less accentuated form usually appear during November and December, which are the wettest months on this coast.

"These areas of high and low air pressure are largely controlled by the great primary air currents, which rise over the heated areas of the Equator to a great height, then spread rapidly north and south in vast spirals towards their respective poles.

"Certain researchers, being carried on in various parts of the globe point to a connection between sun spot frequency and weather cycles, and already it has been shown that during years of maximum sun spots there is a slight decrease in the earth's temperature and abnormal meteorological condition frequently occur about that period.

"Explorations of the upper air by kites, balloons and aeroplanes carrying recording instruments, indicate in many cases that the beginning of many of our great storms and cold waves are to be found at heights of from five to six miles. It is therefore hoped as these explorations develop that the study of weather forecasting on the earth's surface may be greatly improved."

Illustrated With Charts.

Mr. Denison's address was illustrated with a number of charts. He paid a tribute to the valuable data secured by airmen in recent years during their flights at high altitudes. It was curious, he remarked, that here in Victoria there was a cycle in the weather conditions which brought back the more or less extreme conditions every seven years or so. There were a number of observed weather cycles, however, and investigations were being carried out by experts in connection with these phenomena. Some had traced an apparent relation between these cycles and the recurrence of maximum sun-spot occurrences, these latter taking place every eleven years. In the matter of sunshine and precipitation there had been observed still another cycle, general as to world conditions, which recurred at periods of 35 years. There was another twenty-one year period, and still shorter ones.

Another chart illustrated the movements in the "shell of air" with which the earth is encrusted, and which is estimated at from six to eight miles in thickness. From the equator, where the sun's rays struck the earth almost parallel, the air flowed pole-wards in spiral fashion, there cooling, contracting, and coming down across the continents as northeast trade winds.

Victoria, Oct. 27.—5 a. m.—The barometer remains low over Northern B. C. and the Yukon, and mild weather is general eastward to the Rockies, while in the prairies sharp frosts prevail.

CALLED "MESSIAH" OF MUSICAL WORLD

New York Tribute to Benno Moiseiwitsch, to Play Here November 4

Benno Moiseiwitsch the Russian pianist, who is to appear in recital under the auspices of the Ladies' Musical Club on November 4, has been hailed by New York critics as "the Messiah" of the musical world.

Benno Moiseiwitsch gave his second New York concert of music for the piano Sunday afternoon in Carnegie Hall before an audience that trembled with excitement, applauded vehemently when there was an opportunity, and listened with an intensity that was positively appalling whenever the boy was playing.

DAINTY COMEDY ACT
 FEATURES PANTAGES

"Sweet Sixteen" is Effective Mixture of Music, Dance and Mirth

"Sweet Sixteen," a smart revue with musical comedy tendencies, is the headline feature at Pantages Theatre this week, and Joe Whitehead, super comedian, is billed as the added attraction.

"Sweet Sixteen" is a comedy playlet of the musical order, with six young girls and a pair of snappy comedians as the principal entertainers. Attractive gowns and superb scenery are features of the production. The plot is woven around the doing of a couple of traveling men who hit their old home town and reveal in its slowness until—well, until something happens. Jack Collins and Bert Morrissey are a good combination for creating mirth and in "Sweet Sixteen" they are at their best. There is an abundance of dancing and catchy music in the act. Joe Whitehead is billed as "A Fool There Was." He is said to be so nutty that he dares not venture into the woods for fear the squirrels might get him, but on the vaudeville stage he is safe and always gets the big hand with his rapid-fire monologue that is always replete with humor of the imitable Whitehead brand. He dances, too.

Margaret Strain, billed as "The Child Wonder," is a remarkable little musician and combines her talent with an interesting personality and bright stage appeal. She plays a number of selections on the concertina ranging from opera to rag time.

Edna Earl Andrews appears in "Saint and Sinner," a problem playlet with heart throbs and thrills. It is said to be a strong story powerfully acted. The plot is of intense interest. It tells the story of a wife who accepts all and gives nothing in return; and recognition of the part she has played is brought out in a series of gripping situations.

Wilson and McEvoy offer a comedy act entitled "Eugenically Speaking" and there is said to be a laugh tucked away in every line of it. They sing as well as talk, and their songs are reported to be as funny as their chatter.

Charles Morati and Grace Harris, operatic singers, will present a diversified programme of classical and popular melodies. There is some light and breezy comedy in the act, and Miss Harris incidentally wears some striking gown creations.

Another instalment of "Trailed by Three," the Pathe serial, concludes the bill.

"I Am Having a Terrible Time, I Simply Cannot Sleep"

"PERHAPS" it is something you have been eating?
 "No, it is not. I am always careful about what I eat, particularly in the evenings."
 "Are you often that way?"
 "Yes, two or three nights a week, and I am getting worse all the time."
 "Is it your nerves?"
 "Yes, I suppose it is, for after any little excitement I am sure to have a sleepless night, and I do not know anything much worse than tossing in bed, unable to sleep."
 "Do you have headaches?"
 "Yes, often, more especially after a restless night."
 "Why don't you try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food? That is what nearly everybody uses for nervous troubles these days."
 "I don't know just why, unless because I have a dread of taking any drug that is strong enough to produce sleep."
 "But, my dear, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food will not produce sleep in that way. It is only after using it for a time and after the restorative influence is felt by the nerves that you will find yourself sleeping well and naturally. "So many of my girl friends have told me about using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for sleeplessness, headaches, nervousness and such troubles that I have the greatest confidence in it."

 "How does it act?"
 "It is a restorative, makes the blood rich, feeds the nerves and builds up your system in every way so that the benefits are lasting."
 "How long will I have to use it?"
 "Oh, I suppose two or three months. It takes time, you know, to get exhausted nerves fully restored. It will not be long, though, before you find yourself sleeping well, enjoying your meals and entirely free from headaches."
 "Say, I believe I will try it, for I do suffer most terribly when I cannot sleep, and then I am so tired out next day."

ANITA STEWART
 Fine Picture Will Be Screened For Three Days Here With Dramatic Thrills
 How a city youth who wouldn't take a dare until an entire community in condemnation of a defenseless girl for whom the fates had provided nothing better than a memory of a distressing early life serves as the basis for the exciting human story that is told in "The Fighting Shepherdess," starring Anita Stewart and which will begin a three day engagement at the Royal Victoria Theatre, commencing to-night.
 As Kate Prentice, a daughter of the proprietress of a roadhouse about whom the sheep-herding community of western California knew very little, Miss Stewart is called upon to display a characterization which in vigor and power has not been equaled in her screen career to date. Picture a girl in whom Nature has bestowed the elements of refinement, struggling against the advances of uncouth men who frequent the tavern of which her mother was the proprietor.
 A most novel plot has been provided for this picture. Kate is taken away from the tavern as a result of a kindness on the part of a recluse sheep herder who saves her from the approach of a notorious character. It is through this opportunity that Kate is enabled to meet Hughie Dission an easterner who befriends her. Suspected as a murderer of the man who enabled her to leave the unwholesome atmosphere of the tavern, battling against out-law cattle-men who are determined to make her leave the district, finally as the wealthy owner of a big sheep ranch and the person to whom the community is thankful for alleviating their difficulties, Miss Stewart has a role of splendid possibilities that given ample opportunity for the display of her histrionic ability.
 A cast of eleven principals supports Miss Stewart in this production. Among those who appear in the picture are: Wallace MacDonald, Noah Berry, Walter Long, Eugenie Besserer, John Hall, Gibson Gowland, Calbert Carter, Billy DeWall, Maude Wayne, Ben Lewis and Will Jeffries.

DOMINION
 It happens in the best of movie studios. "Humoresque," the picture now at Dominion Theatre, abounds in heart interest and little human touches. At one point during the making of the picture the director thought it would be nice to have a little kitten follow its mistress from room to room. He shot a scene showing the kitten making its exit from one room. The co-related scene, depicting the feline's further progress into the next room, was not made until several weeks later. When the completed picture was flashed on the screen in the studio private projection room, it showed a kitten coming out of one room and

AN OVERLOOKED PRINCIPLE.

To the Editor:—Neither the principle nor the application of communal control of the liquor trade is new to British Columbia. The present proposal, though differing in minor respects, is similar in method to an earlier experiment, which it may be well to recall.

was to eliminate the element of private profit from the sale of alcohol and to encourage temperance. It was intended that, after the initial capital was paid off (without interest), the North Vancouver store, and such other stores as were to have been opened, would become public property and be administered by a board of elected trustees.

The principle of offering employees a commission on the sale of non-intoxicants might well be adopted by the government, in addition to the inducement existed to push the sale of alcohol—a vast improvement on the old bar-room system. The entire profit of the business were to be devoted to the promotion of counteractive educational agencies.

But the great principle making the liquor traffic support agencies for the promotion of temperance is the feature that distinguishes the Dundarave system alike from the Gotheridge plan and the proposal of our own Government. It was adopted on the suggestion of Messrs. Rowntree and Sherwell, by whom it is advocated in "The Temperance Problem and Social Progress."

The construction and maintenance of playgrounds and places of public social intercourse—attended by the subsidizing of temperance (not abstinence) educational organizations were methods by which the diversion of the profits of the liquor trade from private to public funds was to be taken advantage of in the interests of the community.

The North Vancouver experiment failed without a fair test, but the principles which it embodied are worthy of further development. The great majority of the people of this province want government control to be a success. Unrestricted private exploitation of alcohol had its day, and resulted in such conspicuous abuses that it drove popular sentiment towards prohibition. Prohibition, the panacea of the extremist, had remained for just long enough to become as repugnant as the old bar-room system was. Now it, too, has sustained a wholesome setback, and a trial is at last to receive a trial. We may be sure that those who do not wish it well. It will be difficult indeed for any government to administer a liquor business without, reproach, and many will be looking for a way to escape the responsibility for instances of laxity in its operation.

British Columbia has an opportunity to show the advantages of temperance as contrasted with prohibition. This oasis will be visited by pilgrims from all corners of the great North American desert. Some will come to refresh themselves, and to rebuke the dignity of human liberty; others will come to study an "awful example." There is still much work, then, for moderationists to do if government control is to last. They would do well to examine the Dundarave system of Professor Macnaghten, and to procure the insertion of provisions in the new temperance legislation by which a portion of the profits of the liquor trade may be devoted to counter-active measures. And an effort should be made to incorporate the desirable features of the "Swedish" laws of Norway and of the Gotheridge system of Sweden. The promotion of sobriety must be part of the policy of communal control if that policy is to be successful, and if the present triumph for moderation is to mark the beginning of the end of prohibition on this continent.

OUTLINES ATTITUDE OF UNITED FARMERS TO THE ELECTION

R. A. Copeland Declares Any Action Taken Will Be By Individual Unions.

"In supporting primarily the cause of the farmer we are acting in the best interests of the whole community. The political organization of the farmers cannot be prejudicial, as some profess to think, to the general body of citizens. The farmer of late years has learned to think, and therein we have the political farmer movement." This opinion summarizes a statement made to The Times last evening by R. A. Copeland, of Lumby, President of the United Farmers of British Columbia.

Mr. Copeland has been on the island with Mr. Humphrey, the organizer of the movement, during the last few days, and on his arrival at the Dominion Hotel yesterday he was able to report substantial progress in the organization of the new locals on Vancouver Island. Among the points visited were Duncan, Ladysmith, Nanaimo, Courtenay, Denman Island and Parksville, and while the organizer stayed to speak at South Cedar, Mr. Copeland came on to Victoria in order to speak

In the First Place His Appointment Was Favored By Sir Auckland Geddes

Province owed it to them to recognize that their services were for the general good, and not for class domination—as was sometimes represented.

WHY GENERAL CURRIE WENT TO M'GILL

Ever since the appointment of General Sir Arthur Currie to the post of president of McGill University, a great many people have wondered just why and how he came to be appointed. Joseph Lister, in MacLean's Magazine, says that after Sir Auckland Geddes, who was first appointed, had become British Ambassador at Washington, he was asked by a representative of the McGill Board of Governors if he did not think the war had produced someone for McGill. He mentioned General Currie. Geddes thought it over for a moment. "That's the man for McGill," he said, and it is to be remembered that Geddes knew the university and its peculiar needs. "Yes," he said, "the more I think of it the more confident am that he is the right man."

Consulting again with Professor W. G. S. Adams, of Oxford, in the consideration of the various names he had suggested, the representative brought up Currie. "Without hesitation Professor Adams agreed that he was the best choice.

General Currie, himself, has little to say with reference to his appointment. "I cannot say that I have thought of any policy in regard to the principalship of McGill," he stated, in answer to an enquiry. "I mean to spend some time in studying the history of the university, and not only that but what it has stood for, and still stands for, not only in Montreal, or in Canada, but in the Empire. Of course, I know something of McGill, many of the boys over in France came from there. I remember once in France passing a lot of the boys coming from the front line. I happened to stop beside a peculiarly muddy and dishevelled private. He wasn't clean and he was evidently dog tired, but he was cheerful. "Well, how are things going?" I asked him. "Fine, sir, fine," he replied. Then came the conventional question, "What were you doing before you came out here?" "Well, sir," he replied with a grin, "I used to be a lecturer at McGill University."

"I can say this much, that I am glad to get this opportunity, because it seems to me a large opportunity."

To Combat Materialism.

"I came back from the war, as I think most of those who returned did come, with a feeling that we must be coming to a world that had changed for the better, that all the suffering and sacrifice must have meant something. But I found, as men have found, that there was no change; that there was at any rate no change of heart. Men were fighting for the dollar with the same passion and the same disregard of the suffering of others as they had years before. There was little difference in the viewpoint towards life. There was little indication of a growth of a national spirit.

"I took my position with the Canadian Army in Canada, thinking that I could bring into use some of the things I had learned overseas. But I found out that I was hedged around by limitations, set by people who saw in all military organization a growing menace. With the circumscribed conditions prevailing it took little persuasion to make me leave the military life, though I have learned to love it. But it seemed to me that perhaps in McGill there might be a real opportunity for me to work out some of my ideas, that would help to develop a more sane and wholesome ideal of nationhood. I might help to maintain an esprit de corps and might be in a measure instrumental in turning out good citizens with an appreciation of what good citizenship means.

"I do not believe that a university is merely a factory for turning out doctors and lawyers, and engineers and teachers. I want to see it a great seat of learning where students could not only come to get their certificates, but where they could get a vision of citizenship, where they could learn to better serve their fellow-men, where they can develop high character, good morals, and sound health as well as intellectual abilities, and where a diploma is only the milestone on the road to a better type of citizenship."

CANADIAN TEXTILES.
The Canadian textile industry is to be congratulated upon the expert report which Mr. Alfred F. Barker, professor in textile industries at the University of Leeds, has been able to make of their business after two months' tour through Canada and the United States. "On the whole," says Professor Barker, "the Canadian wool mills come up to the best of the Yorkshire mills. Some few Yorkshire mills are better, and many much worse. The machinery employed is frequently up-to-date. Labor was obviously considerably treated. From four to sixteen automatic looms were being followed by a weaver, according to the type of work being dealt with. The styles produced in Canada are often quite satisfactory, but developed cloth structure and color skill, which plays such an important part in the Yorkshire and Scottish woollen trade, is not markedly in evidence. This, however, would be one of the easiest difficulties to overcome if Canada seriously set out to improve on the excellent start already made by her pioneer manufacturers."

Regarding the cotton industry, Professor Barker reports that it is a mistake to suppose that this industry is restricted in Canada by climatic conditions. The atmosphere is favorable in many districts. "In fact, there may be greater differences between the valleys and hilltops in Yorkshire as concerns spinning atmosphere than there is between many Yorkshire and Canadian mills."
