GAZETTE SUPPLEMENT.

HINGHAM.

The Town Brook Retention.

The attention of the Board of Health having been called to the very disagreeable and doubtless unhealthy odors arising from the town brook in the vicinity of the railroad station, an informal investigation of the trouble has been made, though no definite action, so far as we have heard, has been taken in the matter. One member of the board had thought of the same plan that was suggested by us two weeks ago—to make the brook, since it is actually used as such, a sewer along the length of its course. But he informed us that the State Board of Health in a similar case, published a statement that the endeavor to thus utilize a stream had been made and had not proved successful. One thing is very certain, the brook must be used wholly for drainage or drainage into it must be entirely forbidden, for our people are becoming seriously alarmed in regard to the danger with which they are threatened. We know of nothing which at the present time more impetively demands the attention of our town authorities than this nuisance of the brook.

Beautiful Grounds.

Since Hingham has become a fashionable summer resort much more attention is given to the appearance of gardens and lawns. One of the most attractive places in our town is that of Mr. Joseph B. Thaxter, a short distance south of the old church, on Main street. From the middle of June to the present time his garden has presented a beautiful display, which has been greatly admired and enjoyed by all who have roved or walked by his house. Gov. Long has we think, the finest location in Hingham, overlooking the entire harbor, Downer Landing and Melville Garden. The governor is constantly making improvements on his place, and it has never appeared so well before as it does this summer. Another garden which shows great care and which it is a pleasure to look at, is that of Mr. John S. Hooper on Ship street. Since Oct. 20, to Downer Landing, was opened for travel, the riding through Ship street has increased fivefold, and the improvements on Mr. Hooper's grounds have made the entire street more attractive.

Floral Display.

Mr. George Lincoln, at his store in Lincoln building, South street, makes daily a floral display which is worth one's while to walk a goodly distance to see. He makes a specialty of roses, of which he has many of the most rare and exquisite varieties, and he possesses the faculty of keeping them in bloom from the very opening of the season until frost comes. Mr. Lincoln, as is well known, is such an antiquarian that he is looked upon as a living history of our town, but in keeping records of the past, he has not been led to overlook the beauties of nature which make a joy of the present. Mr. Henry W. Cushing, secretary of the Hingham Mutual Ins. Co., and Mr. E. J. Pincano, the popular hairdresser, are also very much interested in rose culture, but we believe Mr. Lincoln rather excels them.

Those Gates.

The chairman of our board of selectmen, Mr. De Witt C. Bates, last week presented to Mr. Kendrick, Supt. of the Old Colony Railroad, the petition of a large number of our citizens to the selectmen to demand that gates shall be placed at all the crossings of the railroad at grade in Hingham. We understand that the demand as made by Mr. Bates covered only the most important as being the most dangerous crossings. Mr. Kendrick thought the demand pretty steep, but the result of the petition will undoubtedly be that immediate action will be taken to give us much greater safety.

Church Fairs.

The recent apron sale by the ladies of the New North society was, we are requested to state, more profitable than we noted and than they anticipated. The sale netted upwards of two hundred and seventy-five dollars. The sale by the ladies of the old church last week Thursday was well attended, and there was a brilliant party in the evening, music by Edmonds' band. We understand the sale was satisfactory in every respect, but have not been advised what was the pecuniary result.

The Whalen House.

That eyesore on South street known as the Whalen house, which was many weeks ago condemned as a nuisance and its removal ordered by our selectmen, still stands. The owner, or nominal owner, promised sometime ago to tear it down, but pleaded for a little time. That little time long since expired, and we hope the selectmen will not wait for Mr. Whalen much longer.

Accidents.

As Mr. Albert P. Hersey was taking a passenger to the depot on Thursday of last week, and before turning the corner of Elm street, near the Baptist Church, the horse from some cause or other fell down and broke both shafts.

While Mr. Reuben Hersey was engaged in the house on Friday, the horse and wagon being left standing outside, the animal became frightened at some obstacle, ran around the field bringing up against a well-curb, and broke both shafts.

House Breaking.

We learn that the residence of Mr. John Lewis, on Pleasant street, at the Centre, was entered by burglars on Thursday evening of last week, and between seven and eight dollars, belonging to the Niagara Engine Company, abstracted therefrom. We also learn that an attempt was made to break into the house of Mr. Charles H. Newcomb, on the same street, and on the above evening.

Excursion.

The Centennial Reform Club, together with the Women's Christian Temperance Union, made their annual excursion to Nantasket Beach last Friday afternoon, making their headquarters at the Ocean Home Cafe.

Transfer.

Miss Catherine H. Hobart has resigned her position as teacher of the West Intermediate school. Her place will be filled by Miss Edith Taggart, late teacher of the Canterbury street school. Miss S. Lizzie Bates will fill the vacancy at the Canterbury street school.

No services will be held at the Universalist church next Sunday, as was announced at the beginning of vacation. Services will be held on the following Sabbath, Rev. James Taylor will occupy the pulpit on that day.

Notable.

The young ladies connected with the M. E. Society gave a social and ice cream festival, in the vestry of their church on Wednesday evening, giving a large number being in attendance. The exercises were opened at quarter of eight o'clock by the singing of "The Rose Bush," by Rev. H. M. Cole, of Boston, a former pastor, followed by the readings of "The Minister's Sermon," and "Caleb's Conquest," by Miss Lincoln, and the singing of a "Medley," by Mr. Ensign Lincoln; then came the reading of a piece entitled "Mrs. Parquise's Missionary Work," by Miss Helen Steele, of Philadelphia, and a select reading by Rev. Mr. Cole, and the reciting of "A Battle Scene," by Rev. Mr. Flemming, all of which was given in a satisfactory manner. One attraction of the evening was the Art Gallery, which was quite amusing and quite a take-off. We will mention a few of the articles and what they were represented by: 1. Decline of Greece, a tallow candle; 2. Skipper's Home, a piece of cheese; 3. Cook's Work, (for sale) represented by cookies; 4. Portrait of one we love, a looking-glass; 5. Old Maid's Comfort, a cup of tea; 6. Views of Red Sea and Plains beyond, by a red C and a carpenter's plane; 7. Century Plant, a cabbage; 8. View of Long Branch, a long stick; 9. A Tearful Subject, an onion; 10. View of Brussels, a door-mat; 11. Portrait of Wm. Penn, a pen; 12. The Best Thing Out, a tooth. There were 71 articles on the list, of which we have only given a few. The ice cream and fancy goods tables were well patronized. A pleasant evening was enjoyed by all who were present.

Excursion.

The Dillon Branch League, together with the St. Paul's Catholic society and Sabbath School, made their first annual excursion to Lovell's Grove, North Weymouth, yesterday.

BULL.

Three more championship regattas are to be held by the Yacht Club, the first of which commenced last Saturday; the second Saturday, Sept. 3d, and the third Monday Sept. 12th. The first and second prizes will be given in three classes to boats winning two out of the three races. The course is to be five and one-half miles from judge's boat. The first class will be for yachts measuring 21 feet and over; the second over 18 feet and under 21; the third class under 18 feet.

Tax-payers.

Hull's valuation since the year 1880 has an increase of over $400,000. The increase in personal property has been small but the progression in real estate amounts to $418,265, nearly one-third of the total valuation. There are four hundred tax-payers, of which only one hundred and fifty are residents. The largest property holder is the Nantasket Land Company, who own in the neighborhood of $150,000, and on which they pay a tax of $1,096.13. The Nantasket Hotel Company, the proprietors of the Rockland House, Rockland Cafe and Hotel Nantasket stand next, with a tax of $787.47. The largest individual taxpayer is Mr. Leonard Damon, who is taxed on Atlantic Hill and other property to the amount of $301.28.

The following is the assessors' report for the year 1880:

Number of polls, 114; personal estate, $50,905; real estate, $837,854; total valuation, $887,759; total tax for state, county and town purposes, $7,863; rate for $1000, $8.50; number of horses, 37; cows, 40; dwelling houses, 224; acres of land taxed, $1,351. For the year 1881: Number of polls, 112; personal estate, $60,935; real estate, $1,255,189; total valuation, 1,316,124; total tax for state, county and town purposes, $9,963.35; rate for $1000, 7.40; number of horses, 34; cows 48; dwelling houses, 206; acres of land taxed, 1,351. We give below a list of those paying a tax of $50 and upwards:

The Oregon House will remain open till the first of October, and after Monday, Sept. 5th boarders will be taken at reduced rates.

The Harbor Commissioners have given the selectmen leave to take gravel from the beaches for the repairs of roads till July 1, 1882.

An "Ethiopian entertainment" composed of local talent was given in the parlor of the Oregon House last Friday night for the benefit of the Yacht Club.

A Grand Display.

On Thursday of last week there was a brilliant display of fireworks, consisting of water-wheels, floating meteors, steamboats, etc., etc., at Hotel Pemberton. Reeves' American Band furnished fine music for the occasion. Between three and four thousand people were present to enjoy the beautiful scene.

NANTASKET.

Many residents of Plymouth and Norfolk Counties, and also from the city of Boston, availed themselves of the cars and boats to visit the hotel Nantasket at Nantasket Beach last Monday afternoon and evening, to witness the wonderful display of Japanese fireworks given by M. Sato. There will be another grand display of the above fireworks this afternoon and evening. The Boston Cadet band furnish fine music on both occasions.

A Big Time.

There is to be a grand illumination of cottages and hotels next Tuesday evening. Arrangements are being made for a grand display along the beach and on the adjacent water. A regatta will probably take place, and the steamer Empire State will add much to the beauty of the scene in the evening.

Invited.

Mr. Charles A. Ransom, who owns property on Sagamore Hill, has divided it into some sixty house lots of 5000 feet and more each.

Extension.

We copy the following from the South Abington Times, which was taken from a recent Sunday Globe: "Talk again has been resumed by some of the avacious Abington people who are determined to have railroad communication via Brockton and Mansfield. The plan originated among influential parties interested in and around Nantasket beach, to extend the Nantasket Beach Railroad from the Old Colony House Station, through South Hingham, West Scituate, Rockland, the Abingtons, Brockton and the Eastons to Mansfield, and connect there with the Boston & Providence Railroad, opening up access to the latter place, and the cities in that locality, which under the present railroad arrangement it is so difficult to reach. The Nantasket Beach Railroad cannot possibly be made to pay if run in the winter, but by extending it through these towns which have long wanted railroad connection, the interest, capital, and labor of the individuals would at once be enlisted. The means furnished by the Beach Railroad which would be readily contributed by the business men of the towns through which the railroad would pass would give capital to push the scheme along. That the road could be made a paying one there seems not the least doubt, and when the right parties take hold of it, stock will be subscribed for in a way to demonstrate its probable success."

Disaster.

The steamer Rose Standish of the Boston and Hingham steamboat line met with quite a serious accident on Monday afternoon last, which rendered her incapable of running on her trips for a fortnight. She left her wharf at 5 o'clock, proceeded up through the North Channel, and had just passed No. 6 buoy when suddenly a crash was heard, throwing the passengers in a state of consternation. The captain of the steamer jumped from the pilot-house immediately, informing the passengers that there was no danger. The steamer Nahant was signalled and took the passengers from the ill-fated steamer, when she was afterward towed to India wharf, Boston, by the steaming Thomas J. York. Upon investigating the cause, it was found that the piston was broken by some unexplainable reason, splintering the cylinder top, slide and cross-head on the starboard side. The engineer who was on duty at the time says that during an experience of thirty-four years as a practical engineer on coastwise, inland and transatlantic steamers, he never saw such a singular accident. It is estimated that it will cost $1000 to repair her.

Arrest.

Sunday afternoon officer John Smith arrested Charles W. Cohen, an employe at the Ocean House, for the larceny of a silver watch valued at $15, the property of J. B. Evans of Boston, who was a boarder at the house about two weeks since. The stolen property was found upon him.

Drowned.

Mr. Thurston Boynton of the Charlestown District, employed by Harris & Reynolds at Nantasket Beach, while bathing at Crescent Beach, last Sunday evening, was seen to throw up his hands and plunge forward, disappearing from sight. Parties immediately went to his relief, but on taking him on shore life was extinct. Medical Examiner Gleason, of Rockland, pronounced the cause of death to be heart disease.

SCITUATE.

Three vessels arrived last week with stone for the breakwater, and are off for more. The contractor is now making good headway.

Repairs.

Several of the public schools in their respective districts have been repaired; some of them have been painted up in a neat and tasty manner, and the blackboards have also been repaired.

Schools.

All public schools in town will begin next Monday, the following teachers being assigned to the different schools: High, Prof. Stephen A. Snow, A. M.; West Grammar, Sarah R. Damon; East Grammar, Mrs. J. A. Neeley. Primary's—Greenbush, Myra L. Young; High Street, S. Alice Reed; Beach Street, Annie M. Vinal; Egypt, Gertrude Gardner; Grove, Mary L. Clapp; North Main, Josie Vinal; Central, Hattie Damon; Brook, Gertrude Vinal; Willow Carle Litchfield; Common, Emma Manson.

NORTH SCITUATE.

Serenade.

Since its organization it has been the custom of Bates' North Scituate Band to serenade members who have been so fortunate as to be tied in the matrimonial knot; accordingly, last Saturday evening, the president of the band, Mr. Everett Wilder, was serenaded. The band though laboring under a slight disadvantage discoursed some of its most excellent selections which, judging from the numerous encores, were well appreciated.

Assembly.

Quite a large number of people from this village attended the Sunday School Assembly, held at Framingham recently, under the direction of Dr. Vincent.

Mr. Barton Prouty.

Mr. Barton Prouty, who has been residing for the past nine or ten weeks on High street, has moved back again to North Weymouth, making in all we are told, thirty times that he has moved in sixteen years.

Beach Revivified.

It is stated to us that the Eureka Hook & Ladder Co., of East Weymouth, made their headquarters at the Minot's instead of the Centennial House, and the supper was gotten up by the proprietors of that house, Messrs. Watson & Co., instead of Mr. John Damon.

We learn that there will be a grand illumination at the beach, to-morrow. Black's calcium lights, of Boston, will be there, and will reflect a powerful light upon the beaches. The North Scituate Brass Band will discourse excellent music on this occasion. Mr. C. H. Mitchell will run his barges from all parts of North Scituate and the Centre; also from the depot to convey all who wish to attend the grand illumination.

Archbishop Williams and Rev. Henry Hough made a brief visit to this beach last week.

The cooling season has now arrived, and gunners wishing to find plenty of game, will do well to visit North Scituate beach, before going elsewhere, Mr. Benj. Merritt having shot a pair of coots last Friday.

Mr. John C. Sharpe, proprietor of the Glades House, has bought the Merritt Place, and has given him a notice of thirty days to move the house, and on the lot Mr. Sharpe is intending to erect a large hotel.

DUXBURY.

A Good Work.

Two years ago, two Christian women named Mrs. Mary Ransom and Miss Mattie Hillman, of East Pembroke, started to hold religious services at Target Hill, of the Advent persuasion, and met with success, and on Sunday, July 17th, Elder L. I. Leslie, of Newmarket, accompanied by Rev. W. H. Crockett, of North Weymouth, by request organized a Society composed of thirty members according to the apostolic example of the New Testament, all of them having been baptized in that faith, a greater portion by Rev. Mr. Crockett. In the evening all the proper officers were chosen. The Covenant adopted was the one recommended by the Conference at Worcester and Foreston. Probably this is the first body of Christians that has accepted this form of Covenant. There are others to be baptized soon and unite with the society.

ALL AROUND THE HUB.

A BIG IMPROVEMENT.
The Boston & Albany Railroad Company has finally completed its new passenger station, and the dreadfully poor accommodations furnished for many years by that great corporation have at last been abandoned. It is a matter of surprise that the traveling public endured so long as they did such limited and miserable arrangements for their comfort and convenience, and that the people of Boston did not year ago ask the company to remove its tracks from across Kneeland street, which made that street under the greater part of every day virtually impassable. We believe it was more the demand that was made that Kneeland street should be open to travel than any great anxiety on the part of the Boston & Albany Railroad Co. to give better accommodations to its patrons that has brought about the change. Other railroad companies years ago made great and very expensive improvements in their passenger depot buildings. Those of the Lowell, East Barn, Providence and Old Colony were, long since, palaces compared to the building which was the terminus of our line; and it was no more than our people had a right to expect that, after such great delay and with the experience of the example of others as a guide, the last company to meet the wants of the public should do it in a superior manner. The new building is an ornament to that portion of our city and a credit to the company. As we have examined it and admired its perfectness in every way, we have been reminded of an old saying—"Better late than never."

We do not consider it necessary to give a description of the building; it must be seen inside and outside to be thoroughly appreciated, and a large portion of our readers can easily avail themselves of an opportunity to visit it. But we do most heartily congratulate the citizens of Boston on the removal, which will result—and the sooner the better—in ridding them of a nuisance which has been submitted to altogether too long, the blockade of an important thoroughfare by a railway company. The old depot building occupies a site which is very valuable, and which will doubtless be utilized, though we have not heard as yet for what purpose. The building itself, we surmise, is of no great value except as a pile of bricks and stones. We trust it will be taken down and something erected in its place that will be a credit to our city. With the immense increase in cases of influenza in that vicinity over Boston, Albany and Old Colony roads, this site, bounded by Lincoln, Beach, Albany and Kneeland streets, would be a splendid one for a hotel—the United States directly opposite on Beach street is always overlooking; or a fine block of stores built upon the site would be taken up by them they could be ready for occupancy.

PRESIDENTIAL OCCUPANCY.
Most if not all of our Boston papers have had something to say in regard to the course to be pursued in case our new seems probable. President Garfield shall continue to improve in health with a fair prospect that he will ultimately wholly recover, but also slowly that eventually will not be able to attend for many weeks, perhaps for many months, to his official duties. Some of the suggestions made have been quite sensible while others have been not only wildly absurd but wickedly cruel in provisions the circumstances by which our now universally beloved chief magistrate was disabled. The clause in the constitution in regard to the succession is doubtless familiar to most of our readers. It is not entirely clear—not so clear as it could have been and should have been made. But no instrument of human hands is found to be perfect. Even the Bible, believed by some Christians to have been written originally by divine inspiration, has not been so manipulated by translators that honest, sincere seekers after the truth differ very materially as to the real meaning of some of its most important passages. It is not to be wondered at therefore, that our constitution, which it was intended by those who framed it should be as near perfect as possible, is found lacking in provisions to meet some emergencies that may arise.

But while the clause to which we refer is open to doubt and argument, one thing is very certain, and that is, the people now living have a clear, undoubted right to decide for themselves what they want done in this present emergency. We believe from our reading of the constitution the intention of those who framed it was, that in case there should be any question as to the inability of a president to discharge his duties, the lieutenant-governor should decide it. We believe that it would be perfectly right as it surely would be perfectly sensible, the president being temporarily disabled, for the Vice-president to become for the time acting-president. We do not believe that his becoming so for a time would or should prevent the president on his recovery from resuming the duties of the office.

In our state the governor being absent or unable to attend to his official duties, the lieutenant-governor acts for the time as governor. In all associations and corporations the vice-president acts in the absence of the president. Therefore it seems to us perfectly plain, first, that it is properly in the power of congress to decide whether it is necessary for the president to assume the duties of president, and second that he can with perfect propriety act as president without deposing the one elected to that office.

Perhaps in order to avoid any doubt on these matters in the future it may be better for congress, when it meets, to pass some law or propose an amendment to the constitution which shall apply to any future case. In the meanwhile should it be found absolutely necessary that some one shall act for President Garfield, the people who made Mr. Arthur the second officer in the government will be satisfied to have him assume the duties of his superior. We cannot forbear from expressing our thorough disgust with all who have, before there was any pressing necessity for any presidential action, urged that Mr. Garfield should acknowledge himself unfit for the duties of his office, and take measures to put himself out of office. We think an overwhelming majority of the people of this country prefer that their wounded president should be deprived for a day of any of the honors of the office which he was elected. It will be time enough to think of President Arthur when President Garfield shall be no more.

LOCAL TOPICS.
Old Folks Parade.
By invitation of Wompatuck Encampment, L. O. F. No. 1, Mount Washington, a parade of uniformed patriots, of Boston, (the latter being the parent of Wompatuck), visited Weymouth Wednesday last, and received a hearty welcome from their brethren. Station's Weymouth Band took the 8 o'clock train to the city, and escorted the South Boston Encampment to the depot in season for the 11 A. M. train to East Weymouth, where they were met by the brethren and a line of march was immediately taken up, the organization of the procession being as follows:
Chief Marshal, Alonzo H. Leonard, and aids.
Temple Drum Corps, of East Weymouth.
Wompatuck Encampment, Frank Brackett, Chief Patriarch.
Delegation of members of Crescent Lodge, L. O. F. No. 3, N. G., Ben. Shurtiff, Station's Weymouth Band.
Mount Washington Encampment.
Owing to the extreme heat of the day, which rendered the South Boston parade very much shortened, the column moving from the depot to the residence of Patriarch Totman and countermarching to Patriarch Bailey's. Three carriages were used to convey the brethren and the organization of the procession being as follows:

We are pleased to see our friend Mr. Ed. Chapman with us once more, and that his sojourn among the New Hampshire hills has been of so much benefit to his health.
Rev. Harvey Wood gave a very interesting lecture on temperance in the Methodist church last Sunday evening. He was not, but he was very interesting in his remarks, and he was very careful what he says to the editor about his family matters. J. W. A.

Shoo Fly.
Gambler's Retreat, in the shady grove of the Common, was the scene of a rapid transit last Sunday of a party of card players, who had announced themselves to the officers, and were engaged in playing a "friendly game," when officers Lord and Macaulay happened in upon them. A stampede quickly followed, in which the players did not manifest half the bravery of a friend of the editor who expressed their indignation at the late accident at East Weymouth and coolly stopped to pick up all the cards which had been hurled from the table at which he and others were playing, before he made any move to escape from impending danger. The Sunday gambler's flight to the grove, Sunday evening, was not so late, leaving cards, money, etc., behind, in their effort to avoid the officers. They are all known, however, but no arrests have been made.

Check.
Mr. Nahum Curtis was awakened from sleep one night last week, by the noise made by his horse, and going to the stable to see what was the matter, he found the animal loose, and the latter being with sweat. The mystery was not solved until Sunday, when in taking his carriage out he found the animal strapped off one of the wheels, and another wheel so tight that it would not turn, showing that the horse had been tampered with. These circumstances indicate that some scamp had taken the team out of the stable in the night and driven it recklessly, and the scamp may possibly be connected with the mysterious muffled wheel team which was seen on Washington street one night last week.

New Bakery.
The bakery which was removed by Mr. Cavagnari from the L. W. Hobart estate in East Braintree last week, to the Nat'l Blanchard lot on Commercial St. is now being fitted up for a bakery, the business to be conducted by Mr. Arthur L. Hobart. Mr. Loring is doing the work.

Weymouth Landing. had no bakery for over forty years, the business being commenced in 1834 by Mr. Wm. Totman, who belonged in Scituate. He occupied a building which stood on the present Baptist church lot, and not being successful he was succeeded by Messrs. Greely & Lane, who came from Norton, and continued here but a brief period. The bakery building, which was afterward removed to the stand in front of the church, was built by Messrs. Curtis & Porter, from the material of the Old North Church, when it was taken down to erect a new structure. The former store building of Mr. Elbridge G. Tirrell, which was burned some years ago, was also constructed in part of the same material.

The Bath.
Each Tuesday night produced a lively demand for vehicles, all of Baker & Son's and Bourke's pleasure carriages being chartered by parties who preferred to ride over the road instead of taking the cars.

Mr. Chas. T. Crane, Treasurer of the Weymouth Savings Bank, and his wife, have returned from a sojourn at the Bradford Springs Hotel, New Hampshire.

Widening.
The widening of the avenue from Front St., near the residence, has been commenced, a strip of land 17 feet in front and running back to 10 feet width, having been taken from Mr. Hunt's premises, several front and ornamental trees, with shrubs, being removed.

District Court.
Before Judge Bumpus, Thursday, Sept. 1st, Jeremiah Barron, assaulting Deputy Sheriff Geo. W. White, was fined $100, and was held in $700 for appearance before the Grand Jury, Saturday, John Connolly, for assaulting his wife, was sent to the House of Correction for two months.

SOUTH WEYMOUTH.
So. Weymouth, Aug. 31, 1881.
Mr. Editor—On Tuesday evening of last week, between 9 and 10 o'clock, as two respectable young ladies of this village were returning to their homes on Park Avenue, after attending the singing school at the Central St. School House, they were met on Pleasant St. by a party who acting on the pretext of being drunk, obstructed the sidewalk, and would not allow them to pass. Being much alarmed, they retraced their footsteps in quick haste, closely pursued by the same individual for some distance, but who finally disappeared. In the meantime the young ladies continued their flight until they reached the residence of Mr. Joseph Delaney, in the employ of E. S. Beale, Esq., planted one eye of an "Early Rose" potato in a hill, and a few days ago the hill was dug and eight pounds of large potatoes were taken from it. That's the boss eye.
In North Weymouth Aug. 20, Leonard S. Smith, aged 71 years 4 months, Funeral services were held at the residence of his brother, Joseph Smith, on Thursday, Sept. 1, Rev. Mr. Leavitt, of East Weymouth, officiating. The deceased had lived with his brother 37 years, and was a native of New York. At the age of five years he was taken from his parents and placed in the hands of a man who was a member of the same religious principles, honest and upright in all his dealings.
Capt. Bob's Bitch, a well known dealer in fish, relates to us a singular incident which some might term a fore-runner. Twenty years ago his son Robert went to California and accompanied quite a little fortune, but his health failing he decided to return to Weymouth and wrote to that effect to his parents. The captain had an old clock, which had laid in an unfinished chamber for many years, and had not been running during the time. While sitting one evening last week below, just after receiving the letter, the captain and his wife were startled by hearing the old clock commence to strike and continuing up to thirty times. Robert arrived home and died of consumption about a year after, aged thirty years.

Home-coming.
Mrs. H. F. Cushing and Mrs. L. B. Curtis arrived home last Thursday from a sojourn at Champlain, N. Y., where they had a very pleasant visit with relatives, the exception being a fight from a nocturnal visit of burglars, who were heard in an endeavor to turn the doorknob. The lady of the house arose and took hold of the key, holding it firmly, while another lady came to her assistance, and their conversation caused the burglars to depart. The ladies retired to bed again, but when the family arose in the morning it was found that the burglars had entered and ransacked nearly every room, trunks, valises, etc., being open and the contents scattered about the floor. They were evidently in search of money, as they only took one of Mr. L. B. Curtis' watches, which they had taken belonging to Mrs. Cushing, though they made dead work in the pantry, everything eatable being taken, and the family were compelled to go to the neighbors to obtain something for breakfast. Three other houses were burglarized the same night.

Postponed.
E. S. Beale Esq. has postponed his visit to the White Mountains to the 19th, when with his wife and J. W. Bartlett and wife, a week will be spent there.

Killed.
On Saturday George T. son of Thomas Soddard, went to Quincy Point to look for coal, and on his way back several boys followed the team, jumping on the hinder part of the cart, when the plow holding the forward part came out, upsetting the cart, and the boys were hurled to the ground. E. Porter Keen was with the boys and happened to be under the tail of the cart, and the poor canine being killed by the overturn. He was a valuable watch dog.

Excursion.
The Weymouth Empire State took a large party down the harbor yesterday, and notices were posted announcing religious services on board, in accordance with Gov. Long's proclamation. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Bates, of Boston, and comprised "Sing my God, to Thee," "The Lord is my strength," and "The Lord is my strength." The Rev. Mr. Bates was reading in the cars while on the way from Weymouth to Long Branch; singing, followed by impressive remarks from Rev. Mr. Bates, who was stopped at the depot, and perfect quiet prevailing. Then he offered a fervent and affecting prayer for the President, and a new song, "God save our President," with the doxology and benediction, closed the service.

Collector's Notice.
THE owners of the following described parcel of real estate, situate in the Town of Weymouth, County of Norfolk and State of Massachusetts, to-wit: the premises bounded by the sea on the west, by the lot of the late John H. White, on the east, by the lot of the late John H. White, on the south, and by the lot of the late John H. White, on the north, and containing about one acre and one-half, and known as the lot of the late John H. White, do hereby give notice that the same is subject to a mortgage in favor of the late John H. White, and that the same is now being sold by the sheriff of the County of Norfolk, at public sale, on the 19th day of September, 1881, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at the Court House in the Town of Weymouth, County of Norfolk, State of Massachusetts, for the purpose of satisfying the mortgage. The Pulpit.
Rev. Mr. Voorhees occupied the Pilgrim pulpit last Sabbath, preaching a very able and interesting sermon from Luke 21. Every one seemed to be pleased to welcome the Rev. gentleman once more to his old pulpit and listen to his eloquent presentation of sacred truths.
Gene West.
The advice of George Hovey was "Young men, go west," and a great many have followed this advice. Last Saturday Mr. Frank Cushing, son of H. F. Cushing, left Weymouth to fill a situation in Canton, in the northern part of Ohio. A Boston party has opened a large dry and fancy goods store there, and Mr. Cushing has taken a position with this firm as head clerk, and in the absence of the firm the whole management of the business will be left with him. He is honest, enterprising, and possesses marked ability for the position, which he has assumed, and the company could have made no better selection.

LOCAL TOPICS.

The Annual Session of the Weymouth High School Association will be held at the Town Hall, on Wednesday evening, Oct. 6, when the usual business will be transacted.

Any former or former member of either High School may become a member of the Association by the payment of $1. This payment entitles the member to one of the tickets to this year's reunion and to one of the tickets to the next year's reunion.

It is earnestly hoped by the officers of the Association that members will be more ready and prompt in the payment of their dues.

The committee on water supply for the town of Weymouth met at the Town Hall last Wednesday evening, and were called to order by the chairman, Thomas H. Humphrey, Esq. A. J. Richards, Esq., presented a statement of the action of the Engineer, Q. L. Reed, Esq., concerning the water supply.

EAST WEYMOUTH.

Having pursued a course of study in the Art Schools of Boston, is desirous of forming a class in Weymouth for instruction in Oil and Water Color Painting, Chinese Decoupage, etc.

An ecclesiastical council met at East Weymouth on Friday evening last, to advise in relation to the resignation of Rev. J. W. Malcom, pastor of the Congregational Church, Rev. L. Spry, pastor of the Methodist Church, and Rev. G. H. Smith, pastor of the Baptist Church.

A large number of the friends of Mr. J. M. Whitcomb assembled at his residence last evening, to offer their congratulations and good wishes, on the occasion being the twentieth anniversary of his marriage.

At a late hour last evening, our village was aroused by the martial notes of the Weymouth drum corps and jubilation voices of the Gen. Putnam Engine Company, returning from a victorious contest at Milford, with a "first prize" of $50.

OCEAN GEMS.

Who sells fish good as ever were caught? Who sells fish fresh as ever were bought? Who sells them too, at the lowest price? That ever was paid for fish so nice? Who has all kinds that the market can show.

From fish that are blue to cod white as snow. All in their turn, as the seasons pass? The C. W. STEVENS, of Weymouth, Mass.

He sells mackerel, the best to be had; Firmest of haddock, finest of shad; Salmon, as rich in flavor as hue; Swordfish, which is equalled only by blue, And halibut, which you have but to try To find out its fitness to boil or to fry.

These in their turn, as the seasons pass, Has C. W. STEVENS, of Weymouth, Mass. A word to the wise is surely enough! If you want good fish for roasting to stuff.

If you want fish to bake or fish to boil, If you want fish to fry or fish to broil, You'll be sure to be suited if you try The excellent ones that you can buy, Of various kinds, as the seasons pass, From C. W. STEVENS, of Weymouth, Mass.

"A household treasure," THE "HOUSEHOLD" Sewing Machine. It is manufactured by the PROVIDENCE TOOL COMPANY, of Providence, R. I.

MR. WHELAN will continue the business of REPAIRING BOOTS & SHOES at his old stand, over S. W. Pratt's store, Washington St., WEYMOUTH LANDING, 1411.

Removal of the Thirty-fifth Regiment. The sixteenth annual reunion of the Thirty-fifth Massachusetts Regiment Association was held on Saturday last at the Atlantic House, Nantasket Beach, the Association being the guests of Co. H, of Weymouth. The attendance was large and the occasion was one of great enjoyment to all present. The exercises met at Rowe's wharf, Boston, and proceeded by steamer to Hotel Pemberton, Hull, thence by rail to the beach, where they were met by Co. H, under command of Capt. George P. Lyon, with the Company's Drum Corps, and escorted to the Atlantic House.

The business meeting was held soon after arrival at the hotel, Vice President Lieut. C. J. Bayley presiding, and the following were elected as officers for the ensuing year: President, Capt. George P. Lyon, Boston Highlands; Vice President, Capt. George P. Lyon, Weymouth; Sergeant Henry A. Willis, Brockton; Lieut. W. H. P. Plumer, Cambridgeport; Secretary and Treasurer, Lieut. Thomas E. Cutter, Newburyport.

Executive Committee, Capt. E. G. Hood, Nahant; Capt. George N. Fannington, Everett; Comrade C. H. Call, Boston Highlands; Comrade Charles M. Nason, Boston; Sergeant Kimball Hayden, Boston. Chaplain, Rev. David B. Murray, Manchester, N. H.

The report of deaths during the past year was as follows: Comrades Frederic F. Blakey, Co. C; David S. Wright, Co. D; Michael C. Teel, Co. G.

By invitation of members of Co. A, the next reunion will be held at Nahant, Monday, Sept. 15th, 1892. A committee, consisting of two from the field and staff and one from each company, was appointed to prepare a regimental history.

At the conclusion of the business meeting the Association met down to a dinner, and at its close Serg. Waldo Turner, of Co. H, welcomed the members of the Association in a brief and pointed address, after which resolutions were introduced and passed by a rising vote expressing sympathy and respect for President Garfield and family. An original poem by Major Wm. A. Merve, of the 35th Regiment, was read by Adjutant J. D. Cobb, who supplemented the same with earnest and telling remarks, paying an eloquent tribute to the late Gen. Burnside.

Messrs. James Humphrey, J. I. Bicknell and Noah Vining, the board of selection during the year, were presented and responded to sentiments complimentary to the town. Gen. Wild. Col. Nat. Wales and other comrades were also called upon. About 4 o'clock, after singing the closing hymn of the Association, the comrades once more formed in line, and were escorted to the railroad by Co. H, and proceeded for Boston, arriving at 5:35, much pleased with the events of the day.

Deaths. The death of Mrs. Mary Perkins took place on Monday for the West on Wednesday. He has gone to Sherburne, Martin County, Southern Minnesota, to stay awhile with his son, Rev. Sidney Perkins, who is located there.

Deaths. Francis Mahoney, who was brought before the Superior Court at Dedham last week, charged with an assault on a young lady belonging in this town, and adjudged guilty of simple assault, was on Monday sentenced to six months in the House of Correction.

Deaths. The dam at the Hobart Mills having become somewhat out of repair, work has been commenced on it by Co. H, and will be made fit again. Albert Hobart is superintending the same.

Deaths. Mr. John Finnegan, whose familiar face has been seen for so many years at the South Beach station, has been removed because his increasing years had rendered him unable to properly fulfill the duties of the position. John W. Roberts, of Dorchester, has been appointed in his place.

Deaths. On Tuesday, while workmen on the dam at Hobart Mills were hoisting a stone weighing about 1500 pounds, preparatory to put it in position, in some way the derrick which they were using became unmanageable, and swung around in such a way as to break the boom. In its fall it struck a window in the blacksmith shop of W. L. Jordan, breaking it. A moment before this occurred Mr. J. and Gilbert Howditch stood looking out of the window, but fortunately had just turned and moved away. But for this circumstance we should probably have had to record an accident instead of an escape.

Deaths. Quia a job has been done in the direction of road repairs on the turnpike, so-called, and it appears to have been done to the satisfaction of the town authorities. It is thought that it will wear better than most of our repairs, as much more pains have been taken in its proper construction than is usual in such cases. Aljah Allen is surveyor and ostensibly it has been done under his supervision, but it seems that having so much to do in the shop he procured a substitute to superintend the work, William Allen, and to him much of the credit belongs for the workmanlike manner in which the repairs were made.

Deaths. The tenement house on Bowditch St. owned by N. L. White, Esq., which has been tenanted for a long time by Mrs. W. C. Lucas, a lady by the name of Lucas having moved in there this week.

Deaths. The first term of the fifth year of this Academy opened on Wednesday last. Fifty-two candidates presented themselves for examination, of which under twenty-five were found to possess the requisite qualifications. The following were admitted: To the Senior Class—Edmund T. Ford, Brockton, Little Dwight Leach, Randolph. To the Junior Middle Class—Lucy Baldwin, So. Canterbury, Conn. To the Junior Middle Class—Carrie A. Crane, Mary W. Holden, Quincy, Emily C. Damon, So. Hanson, William F. Whitman, So. Abington.

Deaths. To the Junior Class—Elija S. Arnold, Mabel H. Fernald, Lucy W. Gibbs, Annie C. Hale, George H. Howe, Mira I. Morrison, Samuel H. Sampson, Mira I. Morrison, Edith, So. Canterbury, Conn. To the Junior Middle Class—Elija S. Arnold, Mabel H. Fernald, Lucy W. Gibbs, Annie C. Hale, George H. Howe, Mira I. Morrison, Samuel H. Sampson, Mira I. Morrison, Edith, So. Canterbury, Conn.

Weymouth Gazette.
FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1881.

ALL AROUND THE HOB.
THE NATION'S LOSS.
Boston, like every city, town, village and hamlet throughout our land, has been the habitation of grief for the death of one who was loved, honored, respected, whose death is really mourned by fifty millions of people irreproachable of race, creed or party.

LOCAL TOPICS.
"The Nation Mourns" was a fitting heading to the programme of services held at the Union church last Monday afternoon, the day when all that was mortal of the martyred President, James A. Garfield, was committed to the silent tomb in the beautiful Lake View Cemetery at Cleveland, Ohio, with ceremonies of a most solemn and impressive character.

OUR SCHOOLS.
In our article last week on the English High School and the Latin school, we expressed the opinion that the two schools were not doing as well as they should. We stated that the English High School was not doing as well as it should, and that the Latin school was not doing as well as it should.

THE SERVICE.
The service was held at the Union church last Sunday evening, and was a most impressive one. The church was filled to the doors, and the services were conducted with the utmost solemnity.
