P R E F A C E.

Messrs. S. LEIGH SOTHEBY and JOHN WILKINSON invite the attention of those Collectors with whom condition is the principal object, to the following Catalogue of GREEK, ROMAN, and ENGLISH COINS, collected, regardless of expense, by the late Mr. CHRISTOPHER EDMONDS; a collection not extensive, but comprising, in the several series, some of the choicest specimens in point of high artistic merit and superlative beauty of preservation.

In accordance with established custom, the terms “fine,” “very fine,” &c., are used throughout the Catalogue, but the examples thus indicated should be inspected to be duly appreciated, many being in a matchless state of preservation, and all in a condition that might entitle them to a place in the cabinet of the most fastidious collector.

Mr. Christopher Edmonds, like his late brother, Mr. Abraham Edmonds, (whose cabinet was disposed of by auction by Messrs. Sotheby, in the year 1834,) collected none but the most choice and perfect specimens brought to public sale for many years past, and it is confidently asserted that a more recherché cabinet has never been offered to public competition.
