

The Mystery Of The Medieval Period

Once upon a time in Saudi Arabia, the great king Mohammed Ben Esaif Ali Khan lived in shurif kali, the land of treasures. These treasures belong to the great king Mohammed Ben. So, the opposite kingdom in Saudi Arabia, the land lords first captured 3 treasures. Totally they were 10 in numbers. One day Mohammed Ben died in a under ground way which is from shurif kali to Megi kotsowa. Then the son of Muhammad ben mullah vallahala became the king in 1222. The nobles' who said that he will not alive more than thirty years has came to his mind.

Then, he called the nobler "Botsi kali khan" and asked what should be done for it to live long years. Botsi said that he should not become the King until he gets 30 years old. The prince asked that he should be the prince for 10 years. Botsi said 'yes'.

Then the kingdom of land lords got the information, they decided to capture their place.

Vallahala was not a king but he is a intelligent and thinking minded prince. He stopped the army of the land lords at the Arania Arabs which is in south of shurif kali.

Then, the message giver said that they stopped such a small army but many types of armies and thousands of marching soldiers were entered into shurif kali. They defeated most of the soldiers of shurif kali, the prince is the only man who escaped from the palace. After a long period of time, the land lords came to know were the prince is?

The prince came to the arts and crafts town in Saudi Arabia, 'the Azard Akline'. But the prince did not think that the soldiers of land lords are here. One of the land lords soldiers saw him and tried to capture him. The prince jumped onto a wall and climbed the first floor of the building. The soldiers came from the steps suddenly, vallahala walked on the walls of the floor and jumped to the next building, which is about 2 meters wide from this building to that. But the soldiers left him.

Then, he reached the port, From Saudi Arabia, he travelled to India for his protection. The cruel Shamsuddin Iltutmish was one of Mohammed Ben's friend. They joined together and captured lot of kingdoms. The kingdom which they captured first was the "Shurif Kali".

The land lords kingdom was Shurif Kali. They became landless. So, they captured small kingdoms and created a big empire.

The prince asked help to Iltutmish. But he ignored because he did not become a king. So, Iltutmish wanted the money or on small empire as a reward. So, the prince stayed with a small boy friend who lived in the market road. They became friends and for days they lived together. Vallahala thought various martial arts such as sword fighting, prince's secret warrior fighting to the small boy Irana Shamsunh. But Irana was not a normal person. He was the grand son's grand son of pharaohs, but he did not know such things. But vallahala had the doubt that he saw his face before one week of his father's death. Irana replied 'yes I was there to see your father because I want know who I am?' The prince said the truth. Irana excited.

Then vallahala said all the secret to him. Then, Iltutmish got the news that vallahala has to be found by land lords. The person who informs will get 3 design cut diamonds and 1kg of gold coins.

Then, Iltutmish reported to land lords that vallahala is in India. Then, the prince came to know the truth that Iltutmish was a cruel friend who had been covered all the ruby diamonds.

Then, the princess Razziya met Vallahala and said all his father's bad things that he had done and vallahala asked where should he live?. Razziya replied that he can live in the secret tower room.

Then, after 2 years Iltutmish has been dead. So, the sons of Iltutmish divided all the properties and treasury coins. So, Razziya had to rule the empire because her brothers had escaped with all the properties.

Then, Razziya and vallahala married. So, Razziya became king in 1236 and vallahala became king. Then, land lords searched Vallahala in India. Irana went to the pyramid and mourned. He had the thought to go inside and search for some evidences. It happened he found a manuscript and a sword. He did not able to read the words because he does not know to read. He took the script and sword to Vallahala to read. Razziya read all the things that the sword is a magic powered sword. When it is kept in sunlight, it will activate its powers.

The land lords finally found Vallahala in the mid night. Vallahala and Razziya slept but Irana thought something. That time a soldier aimed at Vallahala's left leg which is already a wound there. Suddenly, Irana jumped from 2nd floor of the tower and stopped the arrow. Vallahala and Razziya awaken and started fighting. Irana jumped but he got wound in the right leg. Razziya used her master karate to defeat the land lords. It was 6:00 am that time. So, Vallahala used the sword with his full powers but before that the chieftain killed Vallahala and Razziya with the sword that he owned.
