Essen, May 30.—The strike of workers throughout the Ruhr, which involved over 500,000 miners and others, was ended to-day, the men resuming work. LEO ROGERS ESCAPED FROM ONTARIO TOWN AFTER SHOOTING MAN

Sergt. Urquhart, of Ontario Provincial Police, Killed In Effort to Capture Outlaw In Father's House; Second Man Murdered; North Bay Men Advocate Use of Militia Force to Capture Desperado.

North Bay, Ont., May 30.—Reports this afternoon say that Leo Rogers, who shot and killed Sergeant Urquhart, of the Ontario Provincial Police, at the house of Rogers's father here early this morning, was seen at six o'clock this morning getting out of a skiff on the shore of Lake Nipissing and breaking into the woods ten miles away from North Bay.

Use of the militia to aid the police and other authorities in rounding up Rogers, who has held this district in terror for two weeks, was advocated at a combined meeting of the Board of Trade and the City Council to-day. Major-General V. A. Williams, Commissioner of Ontario Provincial Police, was asked to consider the advisability of requisitioning the Dominion Government for militia to aid in the capture of the desperado.

Sergeant Urquhart was the second policeman killed by the desperado, Detective Lefebvre having been shot and made his way down Metcalfe Street. He was seen at a railway crossing where he was challenged by the watchman. Replying with a foul epithet he became the target of the watchman's rifle, but both shots missed.

Councillor E. L. Banner declared that he had evidence that Rogers headed through the bush right down to the shore of Lake Nipissing where he tried to run Dr. Archie McCurrah's automobile with fire results to the car. Blood marks were later found on the instrument board and also on the seat and floor of the car.

The idea of asking for militia reinforcements will be to spread a veritable network of searchers along the "old Nipissing" roads that will eventually force the fugitive to seek food and shelter or submit to capture.

SHIPOWNERS' PROGRAMME COSLY, COURT INFORMED

Approximately 40 per Cent. of Work Completed At Excess Cost of 37 per Cent. Over Estimated Figures, Says Marine Surveyor; Some $600,000 of $700,000 Government Loan Expended When Work Shut Down.

Work on the programme of the Victoria, B.C., Shipowners, Ltd., on four wooden ships ceased at the Cholberg yards after $600,000 of the $700,000 promised by the Federal Government had been expended, with approximately only 40 per cent. of the programme completed. Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald was told in the Supreme Court action of the King Versus the Cholberg Shipyard, Ltd., in the resumption of the hearing this morning.

The major part of the morning was spent in the examination of Harry A. Barnett, marine surveyor, who held a watching brief for the Government to supervise the construction of the 'Simon F. Tolmie and her unbuild sister ships, J. H. Clearhugh and William Strath, appeared for the plaintiff, and H. A. Maclean, for the defendant.

Work stopped on the contract with an excess of 37 per cent in the estimated cost of construction. The stage reached, Mr. Barnett testified. Asked by the Court what the total cost would have been had the entire programme been finished, witness gave as his opinion that the cost would have been $1,400,000 in all, or $400,000 over the estimated cost that was to be met by the $700,000 loan from the Government and $300,000 by local subscription.

Excess Cost. The excess cost, witness was due in part, in his opinion, to conditions prevailing at the shipyards through defective equipment and consequent delays in which his witnesses claimed that they were employed at their special vocation. Witness said he made confidential reports to Dominion Inspector McCorkery at Ottawa dealing with the alleged defects, but that the reports were not received in the absence of Mr. Maclean, and that no action was taken. Witness testified that he drew the attention of the directors of the Shipowners to the phase. The cost of the Simon F. Tolmie, thought witness, was about $350,000, or $100,000 over the estimated cost. In addition, some $30,000 had been spent by the Government in closing the yard, he understood.

Builders' Agreement. Examined as to what the Cholberg Shipyard received, witness stated he understood the defendants to receive $20,000 in all. This was made up by advances of $5,000 on the Simon F. Tolmie, $6,000 on hull 5, $4,000 on hull 6, and $2,000, he understood, on hull 7. Asked by the Court if this were payment to correspond to the work done, witness gave it as his opinion that the defendants had been paid in advance by about $6,000.

Dealing with depreciation and the value of the plant if liquidated, witness stated depreciation would amount to about 5 per cent. of the market value. He would place the market value of the yard equipment now, exclusive of the buildings, at not more than $10,000. Instantly the cost of the Simon F. Tolmie, Court had fallen on hard times and there were more ships for sale than purchasers.

During examination by Mr. Maclean for the defence, witness stated without hesitation that the construction of the Simon F. Tolmie and the sister ships was good. It was good work and well put together, stated witness in answer to question. Witness understood, he did not know what he received operating and overhead costs from the Shipowners on a monthly basis. He did not know what the amount to, only that was his understanding of the matter.

Witness repeated he had made confidential reports to his superiors on the alleged defects of the yard, and added that his superior, Mr. McCorkery, had not been at Ottawa to receive these reports. No action was taken before the refusal of the Government to advance the last $100,000 and then work shut down. After the completion of his work for the Government at the yards, in the service of the Department of Marine, witness was transferred to the operating branch, the Canadian Government Merchant Marine.

The trial entered upon the third day of its hearing to-day, with two questions of a technical legal nature reserved for the decision of the Court later. The plaintiffs are suing to foreclose an $1,711 mortgage held on the chattels of the defendants' shipyards on the Indian Reserve. The defendants deny that there is anything due under the mortgage and set up that the balance is heavily the other way, about $50,000, according to the defendants, being due to the yards for the occupation of the premises by the Government and other charges. The hearing is continuing this afternoon.

Joy was written all over the faces of the members of the Industrial Committee of the City Council to-day. The Committee, which has been having a peaceful time since the beginning of the year, received news that set its members' eyes sparkling with anticipation. It's just this—several quarts of champagne cocktails, the best product of the Ka-Zu Beverage Company of Brooklyn, New York, will arrive here shortly, so that the Industrial Committee can sample it.

The drinks are to be made by the Ka-Zu people by a new patent process from holly shipped to them by the city some time ago. The holly is being ground up and made into potent cocktails which the Council members who do not belong to the Industrial Committee are envious of the committee's privileges to-day. It was thought that the champagne cocktails which will be on their way soon would put new life into the committee which has been concentrating on the possibilities of holly as a beverage maker.

ASK CHANGES IN HOSPITAL LAWS

City Wants Its Responsibility for So-Called "Indigents" Defined

Changes in the present system under which the City Council is made responsible for all people who fail to pay their bills at the Jubilee Hospital were urged by a delegation, led by Mayor Reginald Hayward, who met Hon. J. D. Maclean, Provincial Secretary, to-day.

It was explained to Dr. Maclean that the city's responsibilities in connection with indigent patients were not clearly defined in existing laws. At present, Dr. Maclean was told, the city must pay the hospital charges of any one who receives treatment at the Jubilee Hospital and then refuses to pay for this service himself. For this reason the city for years has been paying for many people, some of whom are well able to pay themselves.

"There was absolutely no feeling of antagonism towards the Jubilee Hospital," he stated, "in connection with the responsibility in connection with hospital treatment clearly and fully defined. Particularly we want a clear definition of an 'indigent patient,' as the situation exists now the city has to pay for anyone who refuses to pay himself, whether he can afford to pay or not."

Dr. Maclean was also asked to make clear whether the city can force a person to pay for treatment in the isolation hospital after it has forced the patient to receive attention in this institution.

Dr. Maclean promised full consideration of the proposals put forth by the city delegation.

ALL CANADA BACKS LIQUOR AMENDMENT MANSON LEARNS

Attorney-General Says Bill Expected to Pass Senate To-day

Every province in Canada has now joined in backing British Columbia and Quebec to get the Manson liquor amendment through the Senate to-day. The Hon. A. M. Manson, Attorney-General, said this afternoon, as he received final word of the situation at Ottawa before the bill comes up for disposal by the Senate. Ontario and the prairie provinces came in first and now the others have followed.

"From the latest word I get from Ottawa I think the bill is going through the Senate all right this time," Mr. Manson said.

The Manson amendment to the Canada Temperance Act is planned to prohibit private importation of liquor into provinces and would thus enable Governments to end bootlegging and cut off the rum-running across the international boundary.

Yes, my dear, it's those who come early to avoid the crowd that make the crowd.

LEO ROGERS ESCAPED FROM ONTARIO TOWN AFTER SHOOTING MAN

Toronto, May 30.—Sergeant John Urquhart, of the Ontario Provincial Police, was shot dead at North Bay early this morning, presumably by Leo Rogers, the hunted desperado.

Police were watching the house of Rogers's father at North Bay during the night and saw a man enter. They surrounded the place and Sergeant Urquhart went to the front door, where he was shot, dying instantly. The man escaped, but the police are hot on his trail.

Word was received at Provincial Police headquarters here this morning of this latest development in the chase for Rogers. This information bears out the contention of the police that the fugitive had not left the vicinity of North Bay. Reports of his having been seen in various parts of the province came in thick and fast during the past few days, but while they were investigated, the heads of the department held to the view that he had not left the district of North Bay.

Sergeant Urquhart was married and had been stationed at Cobalt, being brought down to North Bay in the chase after Rogers. Following his break from the North Bay police court room, Rogers shot two police officials, one, Constable Fred LeFebvre, of the North Bay force, dying as a result of his wounds, while Constable McEwen, shot through the thigh, is recovering.

Had the Drop.
Toronto, May 30.—"Owing to the fact that Rogers could see the police while he was inside the house, he had the drop on our men, who could not see him," Major-General Victor Williams, Commissioner of Police, stated this morning.

The Commissioner made arrangements for Deputy Commissioner Alfred Cuddy and twelve experienced Provincial officials from various points of the Province to leave for North Bay to-night. This force is to be equipped with tear gas bombs held in store by the Toronto police force.

Commissioner Williams to-day spoke with great regret of the shooting of Sergeant Urquhart. The sergeant, he said, was one of the most able men on the force, and he was in direct line for promotion.

A committee meeting was called this afternoon to arrange a programme for the Forum of the Chamber of Commerce in connection with the development of the West Coast. That part of the island has for some time been before the Victoria Chamber of Commerce with that organization's plans for development.

Only the approval of the provincial authorities is awaited before commencing work.

C. N. R. PURCHASE OF PARIS BUILDING AWAITS APPROVAL

Ottawa, May 30.—Hon. G. P. Graham, Minister of Railways, stated in the Commons that the approval of the Government had not yet been given for the purchase of a large block in Paris at a cost in the neighborhood of $2,000,000, for the Canadian National Railways. His attention was drawn yesterday afternoon by the Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, Conservative leader, to a press dispatch stating that Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian National Railways, had purchased the block.

Mr. Graham said the Canadian National Railway Board had been doing something toward obtaining suitable quarters in Paris, which would be used by branches of the Government as well as the railways.

CHURCH LEADERS TO DISCUSS UNION

Canadian Presbyterian General Assembly Will Have Resolution Brought It

Sessions Will Begin in Port Arthur June 6

Port Arthur, Ont., May 30.—(Canadian Press)—What will the Presbyterians do with church union? This is a question which is being discussed in church circles here, where the issue will be voted on at the annual gathering of the General Assembly, which will open June 6. The members of the church already have voted twice in favor of the proposal; presbyteries of the church have voted favorably three times, the General Assembly itself has approved the movement consistently since 1904, fifty presbyteries and four synods of the church have sent overtures to the coming General Assembly favorable to the movement, the union committee of the church is advising the coming General Assembly to approve the draft bills which counsel have prepared for Parliament, and still there are some who say that the coming Assembly will reject the movement. The opposition to the movement is strong, but in view of the developments of the past twenty years it would seem improbable that an adverse vote will be recorded at the meeting.

Important Meeting

The coming meeting of the Assembly is regarded as very important by Presbyterians people so far as the union question is concerned. It is the actual fight will be over and those congregations which are irreconcilable will have to prepare to withdraw and make what arrangements may seem desirable for the future.

So far as the great west is concerned, it is pointed out that union is already an accomplished fact. In the rural districts there are in some areas no Presbyterian or Methodist churches left. Churches and congregations have been merged and union charges have been established by the hundreds. These unions are not all of the same exact type and their relations to the parent churches vary, but they are not denominational institutions as they were. In the province of Saskatchewan, for instance, there are reported to be 481 union charges. Only in eight towns and cities and in twenty-one rural districts are there strictly Presbyterian charges, while the number of union charges has grown to 148. In Alberta there are reported to be 297 union charges of one kind or another. Most of the unions were made in the belief that the general union of the three negotiating churches would not be long deferred. In all Canada there are said to be over 1,200 union churches with a total of about 3,000 preaching stations, a fair denotation in itself.

Will Not Join
If union is consummated at the meeting here there will without any question be a number of Presbyterian churches which will not enter it. In all previous church unions in this country and in the Mother Country this has been the case. Just how many there will be on the present occasion in Canada no one can forecast. It is possible there may be quite a number, including possibly some of the larger churches. These will no doubt continue to constitute a Presbyterian church in Canada, but at the most this body will be small compared with the large body which will be constituted by the bulk of the Presbyterian churches and practically every one of the Methodist and Congregational churches. The loss of

SUGGESTIONS MADE BY FUEL BOARD

Canadians Advised to Depend on Resources of Own Country

Wider Use of B. C., Alberta and Eastern Coal Urged

Ottawa, May 30.—The ideal solution of Canada's fuel problem is dependence on its own fuel resources, states an interim report issued by the Dominion Fuel Board, organized by Order-in-Council in November last under the chairmanship of Charles Camsell, Deputy Minister of Mines.

After pointing out that in the ten-year period ended with 1921 Canada's bill for imported coal exceeded the sum of $50,000,000, the report suggests various methods of meeting the fuel problem.

The report urges: That utilization of the coals of British Columbia, Alberta and the Maritime Provinces. Investigation of the feasibility of establishing by-products. That peat should be utilized to supply a portion of the fuel needs of central Canada.

YOUTH TURNED KING'S EVIDENCE; FOUND GUILTY

Kamloops, B.C., May 30.—King's evidence proved a boomerang to Fred Rozell, aged eighteen, who was remanded yesterday for trial on the present charges for breaking and entering the Mount Oke postoffice last November. King's evidence against him was given by a young man, Frank Nelson, who pleaded not guilty. The jury, who convicted Rozell, acquitted Nelson of the charge of evidence, after Mr. Justice Murphy had warned them that it was not safe to convict a man on the evidence of a self-confessed accomplice.

HORACE M. KILBORN DIED IN NEW YORK

New York, May 30.—Horace M. Kilborn, retired senior vice-president of the National City Bank, with a Wall Street reputation for never having made a "bad loan," died at his home yesterday of heart disease. For fifteen years he had been in charge of loans for the bank.

In the financial panic of 1907 Mr. Kilborn was said to have been virtually the working head of the group of financiers who co-operated in bringing relief to the country and allaying the effect of the upheaval.

THORNTON DIRECTOR OF STEAMSHIP LINES

Ottawa, May 30.—The acceptance by Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian National Railways, of a seat on the board of the Canada Steamship Line was given for reasons obvious to men engaged in transportation. Hon. G. P. Graham, Minister of Railways, stated in the House yesterday afternoon.

SENATE DEALS WITH TREATY WITH FRANCE

Trade Pact Will Soon Be Up for Third Reading at Ottawa

Ottawa, May 30.—(Canadian Press)—The Senate yesterday gave second reading to the bill to give effect to the trade treaty with France and adopted in committee all clauses except three of the Combines Bill.

Speaking on the French treaty, Senator Beaubien said there were two conditions which made trade with France difficult at the present time, the depreciation in the value of the franc and the lack of knowledge of the French people of Canadian production. Once the franc regained its normal value—and there was a fair prospect of this being accomplished shortly—trade with France would be very valuable.

He instanced the development of Canada's canned salmon trade with France as an example of what could be done by educating the French people to the possibilities of Canadian trade.

The treaty, said Senator Beaubien, had removed an inequality between the United States and Canada in dealing with France. Under this treaty many valuable concessions were obtained and Canada was in a better situation in regard to nations not enjoying the favored-nations clause in 1921.

NEW AUSTRALIAN TAXATION PLAN

Federal Tax on Companies' Incomes; State Tax on Individuals

Melbourne, May 30.—(Canadian Press via Reuters)—The Melbourne Herald states that the Australian Federal and State Governments have adopted a scheme in principle whereby the Federal Government will tax companies' incomes and the state Governments will tax the incomes of individuals.

Under the new taxation scheme, the State Governments will forego the per capita payments by the Commonwealth. The taxation of companies will be limited to half a crown in the pound. The State Governments also will be enabled to tax the incomes of companies, but not higher than at present. The agreement will operate for five years.

The conference also adopted a scheme for delimitation of Commonwealth and state industrial jurisdiction. All state instrumentalities will be removed entirely from federal jurisdiction.

NO LIBERAL-FARMER FUSION IN ONTARIO

Toronto, May 30.—(Canadian Press)—The line of cleavage between the Liberal Farmers and Liberals in the province of Ontario has been more clearly defined during the past few days as a result of declarations made by Wellington Hay, Liberal leader, early last week. Mr. Hay emphasized that the Liberal forces would not countenance any form of fusion with the farmers, while at the same time he declared that the Liberal chief tactician struck hard at Premier Drury, declaring the Premier was "under the thumb of an occupational group."

Premier Drury, speaking in Carleton Place last night, did not deal with Wellington Hay's criticism, but delivered a broadside at G. H. Ferguson, Conservative leader. He vigorously defended the government administration of the Ontario Temperance Act.

It is possible that T. W. McGarry, who was Provincial Treasurer in the Healey Government, may receive the Conservative nomination in South Renfrew.

Continuing his Northern Ontario campaign, Wellington Hay spoke last night at Sudbury.

FUNDS FOR FEDERAL PARKS DEBATED

Ottawa, May 30.—A vote of $4,387,000 for the Dominion Lands and Parks Branch of the Interior Department was under discussion for some time just before adjournment of the House last evening. The vote was made up of a large number of small items, the first of which was an amount of $561,350 for salaries of the Dominion Lands Department outside service. This eventually carried. The remaining items were allowed to stand, and the committee rose and reported progress.

Before adjournment, Premier King intimated that the House would probably sit later at nights if progress were slow. There was a feeling among the members that the work of the session should be put through as quickly as possible. The House then adjourned.

MAN REARRESTED

Prince Rupert, May 30.—(Canadian Press)—Anthony Roscoe, sentenced at Stewart to six months imprisonment for vagrancy, escaped Monday night from the local hospital, where he was being treated for a broken arm. He was rearrested at noon yesterday, still wearing hospital dress, under a plank roadway in the city.

DR. KING FOR THE CONFERENCE.

Although it is now generally understood by the average citizen that Imperial Conferences are purely consultative, and that such understandings as may be reached between the British Government's representatives and the delegates from the Dominions are without force or effect until ratified by the respective overseas Parliaments, it goes without saying that the business of the British Commonwealth of Nations—from the Imperial and national and provincial standpoints—can be better and more properly understood and administered as a result of frequent interchanges of view at close range. For this reason there is everything to be gained by Western Canada if a special representative with full and intimate knowledge of conditions in this part of the Dominion shall be included in this Dominion's delegation to the October gathering.

In this respect we may assume that popular approval will support the recommendation of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce that Dr. J. H. King, Federal Minister of Public Works, assume this role for the object in view. His ability to look after the interest of the West in general and British Columbia in particular needs no emphasis. His experience as a successful member of the Oliver Government, and his conspicuous accomplishments in the larger field of public service at Ottawa, would serve him in all matters requiring special knowledge of the constituency that it is proposed he should represent at the Conference. And there are special problems engaging the attention of Western members of the Dominion House of Commons which are closely related to Imperial policy. With these Dr. King is thoroughly conversant.

HOUSES FOR BRITONS.

Great Britain's birth rate for 1921 was the lowest ever recorded except in the war years. The number of marriages for the same period was six thousand less than in the previous year.

This condition is obviously serious but not at all surprising. People who read Old Country newspapers and get an occasional letter from friend and relative will have become familiar with the many serious and some humorous allusions to the pitiable shortage of housing accommodation. Herein surely lies the trouble.

Publication of these statistics will no doubt give the Baldwin Ministry something to think about. There has been a growing fury among families crowded into attic and cellar because they have no room to live. Matters have been made worse by the uncertainty of the position in which municipalities have found themselves as a direct result of the somewhat indecisive and contradictory policies of the old Addison-Mond regime at the Ministry of Health.

The non-parlor house, with an annual grant of six pounds a year for twenty years, may meet the case in spite of the controversy which it has aroused. At the same time sincere advocates of fair conditions of life contend that the non-parlor house would act as a heavy handicap to any child undergoing secondary education or a young person working for an examination.

One prominent feminine politician takes the view that at every stage of human life the total absence of any "eranny of privacy" helps to brutalize and penalize self-respect and even modest ambition. There is positive logic in the argument and it may also be set down that the type of dwelling suggested as a remedy will not assist progress from the slum standard.

The controversy in respect of houses for Britons seems destined to remain a lively one for some time to come. Figures for births and marriages for 1921 endow the problem with new significance.

GOOD BUSINESS FOR THE CITY.

Those disciples of blue ruin who are ever ready to label Victoria in the eyes of the world must have received something of a shock when they learned that the City had no difficulty in disposing of its bonds at a price of which it need not be in the least ashamed. The financial world is not easily fooled. It is about the coldest and most calculating entity that occupies a niche in the general scheme of things and is not bamboozled by a comparatively small community like Victoria. Hence it follows that when this City goes into the market for a loan and sells its bonds at ninety-eight it establishes a reputation that is taken as a barometer of its condition. Its recent flotation is all the more satisfactory because of the fact that it is payable in Canadian and British funds and not in American dollars. This is highly important if only for the reason that it entirely eliminates the gambling element in exchange. We consider that the City has made a good bargain and the people of the community can turn the picture of blue ruin to the wall and let it remain in that position.

DR. BELAND'S BILL.

Until Dr. Beland's bill to amend the Pension Act has been introduced in the House of Commons it will not be possible to learn how far the proposed measure will give effect to the recommendations of the Ralston Commission. Preliminary announcements, however, indicate that the more important features of the report have been recognized and will be given force and effect by law.

This much information will be welcomed by the ex-service men of this country who are fighting a strenuous fight in behalf of the man whose case does not come within the category laid down by regulation. For it goes without saying that legal technicality must give way before moral right. The men whom Canada sent to the war were not observing Trades Union regulations in the trenches. Circumstances dictated their course of action.

Last night's meeting at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium furnished an opportunity to the people of this community to learn something of the anomalies in pensions matters. Mr. Twigg's clear presentation of the case was a model of reason and devoid of anything in the nature of demands that could not be substantiated.

DE VALERA GIVES UP.

Anyone would think that Eamonn de Valera obtained his pattern for fighting established law and order and decent government from the Third Internationale at Moscow. He has been talking about the ultimate success of the republican campaign in just such a cocksure fashion as the Moscow gentlemen have prophesied world revolution at an early date. But he now finds that his followers had better drop their rifles and give up the ghost. There is to be no formal surrender, but it goes without saying that if the fighting impediments is deposited in convenient places the Free State Government will have no difficulty in finding it. And after the lapse of time the self-styled "president" of a republic that does not and never will exist may make his peace with his former colleagues and enjoy the prosperity that should and will accrue to the land for which he pretends to show such intimate concern.

FRANCE DETERMINED.

Any suggestion that France is becoming weary of her "sojourn" in the Ruhr will have been negated by the vote taken in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday afternoon. Premier Poincare said that if Germany's resistance is prolonged into next Winter his country will at once begin considering means of applying greater pressure. After the Chamber had been so informed it proceeded to vote the requisite financial grant for the June programme at the rate of 505 to 67. In addition to this Premier Poincare was able to take away an overwhelming vote of confidence in the Government and a general impression from among the Deputies that Germany would be unable to resist much longer. There is nothing niggardly about a vote of this kind. It most represent the attitude of the people. And as long as there is this volume of expression in favor of continued pressure it is hardly likely that outside interference will be either accepted or proffered.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Those who think Victoria is on the financial rocks should take a look at the price at which the City has just sold its bonds.

Premier Baldwin says that Great Britain must exert herself in order to avert a collapse in Europe. This seems to be a peculiar charge for Great Britain; but it is none the less true.

New South Wales and Victoria have the right idea about immigration. They propose to take seven thousand British families a year. This means roughly thirty thousand new people every twelve months.

Broadcasting information about the City of Victoria and immediate neighborhood ought to be good business. Considering the popularity of the radio it is likely that messages of this sort would get a bigger audience than even the printed word would get.

Malcolm Bruce will appear before a Magistrate and hear more about his desire to see the Union Jack "trampled in the mud and the Red Flag flying in Canada as the standard of freedom for the workers." Why on earth doesn't Lenin or Trotsky pay this gentleman's fare to Moscow one way?

This week marks a new campaign in behalf of British Columbia products. Following this plan ought to be simple for us if it is simple for the women of Winnipeg to purchase British Columbia fruit in preference to that canned on the other side of the line. We suggest that our people remember at all times the goods that are manufactured in Victoria.

OUR CONTEMPORARIES

CLEANING THE CLOCKS.

London Telegraph:—Officialism has sent out an order for all the clocks around Whitehall to be cleaned, and strange facts are coming to light. The works of St. James's Palace clock are still in working order, though 200 years old. Big Ben is a child to his neighbors. But the greatest puzzle of all is the famous astronomical clock at Hampton Court. It was taken down some time ago, and its system was so complicated that the clock-makers couldn't put it up again and had to get astronomers from Greenwich to aid them!

A GOOD BUDGET.

Quelph Mercury:—The Progressive party says the Fleeting Budget is protective. The Conservative party, avowed protectionists, say it leans heavily toward free trade. How is one to know that either of these views is right or anything but the expression of party bias? If divided, are unquestionably wrong. The general consensus of opinion among the army of consumers is that it meets the needs of the country better than any other Budget heretofore presented.

A MOTHER'S HELP.

Kingston Whig:—There's something in sickness that breaks down the pride of manhood, that softens the heart and brings it back to the feelings in infancy. Who has languished, even in advanced life, in sickness and dependency; who that has pined on a weary bed in the neglect and loneliness of a foreign land, but has thought on the mother that looked upon his childhood, that smoothed his pillow and administered to his helplessness. Thus said Washington Irving many years ago, and his conclusions apply to to-day as they did in his time.

VANCOUVER ISLAND MINE FLOURISHING

Tidewater Copper Company Has Output of 200 Tons Per Day

Extensive Developments Are Planned; $30,000 Engine Installed

One of Vancouver Island's most valuable resources is of its mineral deposits. At Sidney Inlet on the West Coast, the Tidewater Copper Company is engaged in operating what is believed to be one of the wealthiest mines on the island. This has been developed for several years passed along the most modern lines.

Although, in the past, there has been some trouble with a water supply during the dry months, that difficulty has been overcome by the installation of a Diesel engine, 200 horse power, which will keep the mill going with a constant supply of energy. This engine was supplied by the Fairbairn-Morse Company, and is worth $30,000.

Some interesting data has been compiled by S. P. Moody agent for the Tidewater Copper Company with its offices in this city. In connection with the output of the mine, every day, the agent stated 200 tons of ore are mined. Of this, 12,000 pounds is pure copper. For this copper the company receives 14 1/2 cents per pound.

Gold and silver values are also present with this copper ore. With every 100 tons of copper shipment $1,500 worth of gold and silver is obtained.

Every twenty days the company ships 4,000 tons of concentrated copper to Tacoma, and this amounts to about $25,000. The company's fleet includes the Princess Maguina, and other vessels carry the ore shipments.

One hundred men are employed at the Tidewater Copper Company's mine. Of these, 20 are in the concentrating mill and the remainder are on the mountain where the ore is dug out. The drift giving the greatest amount of ore at the present time is 150 feet long and 15 to 40 feet wide.

The company is planning development operations. The tunnelling will continue in a northerly direction towards a particularly rich deposit of mine. "While I was at the mine a short time ago," to-day stated S. P. Moody, who has only just returned from the scene of operations, "I inspected the north side of the mountain. It is just as rich as the place we are working now. We are gradually driving through to this body of ore."

The Tidewater Copper Company has every faith in its location, at Sidney Inlet, and is continuing to improve the property.

ARMSTRONG, EDMONTON POSTMASTER, NOT GUILTY OF THEFT OF $50,000

Edmonton, May 29.—"Not guilty" was the verdict brought in by the jury at the Assizes here yesterday afternoon, and to the sound of loud applause, former Postmaster George S. Armstrong was absolved of the charge of theft of $50,000 in Merchant's Bank bills from the registration department of the Edmonton Postoffice in August, 1919.

After the charge to the jury by Mr. Justice Simmons and the retirement of the jury at 2:25 p.m., but ten minutes elapsed before the jurors once more were ushered in by Sheriff John Rae and took their places. When the foreman announced the verdict, the court became filled with a hurricane of handclapping, this demonstration being speedily quelled by the sheriff.

No rider was added to the verdict by the jury. The postmaster, who throughout the trial had sat at his counsel's table, was ordered to stand, Mr. Justice Simmons announcing, "You are discharged, Mr. Armstrong. The court is adjourned." Then the man who all through the long, nerve-racking trial had maintained his composure, broke down, as with his wife standing at his side, friends crowded around to congratulate him. From then on it was a triumphal procession through the crowded corridors and lobbies where, hat in hand, man after man came up to offer his congratulations to both the postmaster and Mrs. Armstrong, a crowd still thronging the entrance to the courthouse to catch a glimpse of the central figure of the case which has aroused interest all over the Dominion.

Loose System.

In his charge to the jury, Mr. Justice Simmons said, "The loose system at the postoffice must have impressed you, and no doubt all the officials from the postmaster down were under a cloud of suspicion."

Later the judge said, "There is no evidence which directly connects Armstrong with the stolen property. The evidence is purely circumstantial."

He then touched on the matter of the card in the pigeon holes, and in the connection with the money packages in the vault and read to the jury at length the evidence of the various witnesses in respect to the time when the parcels disappeared. "No one can make a very intelligent guess as to when the parcels disappeared," he commented in connection with this phase.

Touching on the evidence as to the Postmaster getting on a street car with a parcel, the judge said: "Assuming against the defendant that the evidence of Rayner, McAllough and Coles might create suspicion, we must have more than that."

Satisfactory Explanation. The judge stated that Mr. Woods had made a satisfactory explanation of the accused's financial affairs, while Mr. Armstrong's explanation of his changing bills at the money order department, if true, was a reasonable one.

The judge characterized the action of having Rayner and Rosser clean out the vault as one which might create suspicion, drawing attention to the fact that fingerprints were now

IN WOMAN'S DOMAIN SOCIAL AND PERSONAL. LACK OF HOSPITALS EMPHASIZES NEED OF V. O. NURSES. Local Branch to Appeal for Funds on Saturday. The recent statement by Dr. McEachern after his survey of hospital work to the effect that the hospitals of Canada lack 250,000 of the necessary beds to care for sick patients, brings home forcibly the value of the Victorian Order of Nurses which ministers to the sick in their own homes. It is obvious that with the shortage of hospital accommodation many thousands of sufferers would each year be handicapped in their struggle for health were it not for this modern band of blue-uniformed Florence Nightingales.

YOUR HOME AND YOU. A Boon for Bridget. The shady suburban street was very quiet, with the tranquil warmth of mid-afternoon. Far away down the road some boys could be heard playing baseball. A delivery automobile trundled by. Two boys in pretty sweaters walked past. It was just such a peaceful scene as you may find in any friendly residence section on a sunny afternoon.

"I realized that Biddy didn't have any really cozy place to rest in, and no very comfortable one either. Her own room is small and naturally stuffy, and she used to sit on the hard back steps, until I thought of this. I suppose our servants have a right to be as comfortable as we like to be ourselves, but I'm afraid we don't always think about them that old saying that we had on the porch last Summer. We had to have a new one, you know, but Tom tinkered with this one till he got it strong enough to hold her, and I

WILL CONCENTRATE ITS EFFORTS ON NEW BUILDING. Y. W. C. A. Hears Encouraging Reports at Annual Meeting. Continuation of the concerted effort to reach the much-desired goal of a new building adequate to the many needs of the Association in its aim of protecting the girlhood of its city was pledged in the various reports and addresses given before the annual meeting last evening. Mrs. Chas. Bishop, the president, was in the chair, and the attendance of members and interested friends filled the spacious dining room to capacity.

Reports of the various committees were received with much satisfaction. Each was a record of splendid work, but each revealed the handicap imposed by the present inadequate accommodation. While the committees are forced to make their headquarters in outside buildings owing to lack of space. The general confidence of the membership in the Board of Directors was expressed by the unanimous re-election of the present directorate, two new members being appointed to fill vacancies occurring through resignations. The personnel of the directorate for the year is as follows: Hon. president, Mrs. Frank Adams; president, Mrs. Charles Bishop; vice-president, Mrs. Percy; second vice-president, Mrs. J. L. Beckwith; third vice-president, Mrs. Colman; fourth vice-president, Mrs. McNaughton; recording secretary, Miss Fawcett; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Young; treasurer, Mrs. Nivin.

Mrs. Bishop, in her annual address, reiterated the need of more adequate quarters, with club rooms, a gymnasium and a swimming pool. She briefly reviewed the work of the staff, to whom she paid collective and individual tribute. A special word of thanks was paid to the Agnes Deans Cameron Chapter, I. O. O. F., for the generous gift of a trust fund amounting to $523 towards the proposed new building. Mrs. Moore was also warmly commended for her energy in directing the successful membership drive.

Miss Hunsberger, the general secretary, briefly reviewed the work since entering the position last December. Mrs. Nivin, the treasurer, presented the financial statement, showing that the income from all sources last year amounted to $19,917.67, with expenditure $19,977, leaving a balance of $41.67. The building fund now stands at $4,427.43, while the Association also possesses two lots valued at $15,917.40. Travellers' Aid. Miss Schofield gave a recital of most effective social service work in her report as Travellers' Aid secretary. During the year she met 1,961 boats and 53 trains, and assisted 427 people. This department costs $550 per annum to maintain. Of this sum $151 is subscribed in the form of contributions, the Association paying the balance.

The membership committee's report was given by Mrs. Young for Mrs. Macdonald. The Religious Committee's report was given by the hon. president, Mrs. Frank Adams, showing that progress had been made in organizing the religious classes and activities of the Association. The report of the Publicity Committee was given by Mrs. MacNaughton, who referred to the relationship of the "Y" and the churches, the former being an auxiliary of the latter. Other Reports. The report of the social committee, given by Mrs. Mitchell, dealt with the entertainment of different groups of girls in the city. She also referred to the formation of a "Joy" club for junior members, this being under Miss Marjory Hillary's direction. The educational committee's report was included in that read by Miss Hunsberger.

Mrs. George Percy gave the House Committee's report, expressing much appreciation of the work of Mrs. Bromble, the house superintendent, and her able staff. During the year there had been 286 permanent residents, 842 transients and 37,103 meals had been served. Short commendatory addresses were given by the Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick and the Rev. A. de R. Owen, both of whom wished the association every success in its effort to secure the new building. Mr. Owen paid warm tribute to Miss Schofield, the Travellers' Aid Secretary, in her unselfish work. The meeting passed a resolution to the effect that the life membership fee in future should be $25 instead of $100.

A letter was read to Mrs. Roberts from the members of the Board expressing their deep appreciation of the tremendous work which they had done and the fine results which they had achieved through their membership drive, and she was presented with a badge and bouquets. Too surprised to speak herself, she asked Mr. Chadwick to express her thanks and gratitude for the mark of appreciation. There were some musical numbers in the course of the evening. Miss Eva Anderson giving a piano solo and Miss Mary Percy singing two solos. Refreshments and the singing of the Doxology concluded the proceedings.

NATURAL TURBAN. Mrs. Betty Rettenmar has two feet of hair and when she coils it it looks like a turban. She's very proud of her "crowning glory," but she says it created a jealousy that brought about deportation proceedings against her at Ellis Island.

THE TEST. An old fishman was sitting in front of his house puffing away and pulling heroically at his pipe. He would continually light a match and pull and pull at his pipe, then throw the match away and light another. "Come in to dinner, Pat," said his wife at the door. "Faith an' Oi will in a minute, Biddy," said he. "Moike has been tellin' me that if Oi smoked a bit of the sun, Oi don't know whether Moike's been foolin' me or whether Oi've got hold of the wrong kind of glass."

Of two friends staying at a hostelry where most keys fit most doors, one went off to bed, undressed, and turned in, mistaking his friend's room for his own. Half an hour later the friend followed, saw his bed occupied, and returned to the coffee-room. "Did you see me go to my room just now?" he said to the night porter. "Yes, sir," was the reply. "Well, then, why didn't you tell me I'd gone to bed already?" he grunted, and continued to finish the night on a chair in front of the fire.

Mary Pickford in "Daddy Long Legs" Is Screen Offering for Rest of Week

The programme of music selected for Music Lover's Night at the Royal to-night should stand up to the most popular that has ever been rendered. The feature picture, Mary Pickford, in "Daddy Long Legs," gives the leader, Mr. A. Prescott, an unfortunate enough to be living in an institution, the founder of which obtained his ideas of discipline at a penitentiary where he made his money through convict labor, is shown in detail in "Daddy Long Legs," screen version of the famous story by Jean Webster, in which Mary Pickford will be seen at the Royal to-day and all week.

Miss Pickford has the part of Judy Abbott, the little asylum girl, who got her chance to go to college through the generosity of a man who later fell in love with her.

Directed by Marshall Neilan.

The picture was directed by Marshall Neilan, who became one of the foremost directors of the day through his ability to put appealing humor into screen action. Miss Pickford is supported in "Daddy Long Legs" by Mr. Neilan, who has the part of a young college man in love with Judy; by Mahlon Hamilton, who has the part of Jarvis Pendleton, Judy's benefactor; by Milla Davenport, as the tyrannical head matron of the asylum; by Fay Lempert, as Angelica Wyckoff, an ill-mannered little girl reared in luxury; and by one of the most charming groups of child actors ever seen on the screen, as well as half a dozen other adult actors.

The first half of the picture is laid in the John Grier Orphan Asylum. Mr. Neilan has filled it with a surprising succession of humorous and pathetic incidents. The millions of admirers of Miss Pickford will agree when they have seen this picture that the favorite star never had a better or more appealing role.

than that of the orphan, Judy Abbott, who, as an infant, is picked out of an ash can by a policeman. Given a name from a telephone book by a hard-hearted matron; whipped, starved, and cruelly treated until she reaches the age of twelve, when she begins to spread among the stripe-dressed little motherless babes a sunshine which later is the means of helping them all to better times.

Portrays Many Emotions.

As a madcap child whose resilient personality overcomes even the most sordid surroundings; as a girl tasting eagerly the good things for which she so longed in her childhood captivity; and at last as a lover, coquettish and capricious, Miss Pickford's characterization is a masterpiece.

DOMINION

The great fire of London constitutes one of the most thrilling and intensely dramatic spectacles in "The Glorious Adventure," produced in Prisma colors with an all-star cast by J. Stuart Blackton for Allied Producers and Distributors Corporation, and now showing at the Dominion Theatre. Readers of history will recall that this London fire was forecast by a religious fanatic who wandered about the city predicting that he would wipe out the sins of the city and its citizens.

In "The Glorious Adventure" this role of Solomon Eagle as played by Tmo Henswood, is a most picturesque figure and one of the most striking actors of costume and unusual roles in England. Mr. Henswood began his stage career with the late Laurence Irving. He then appeared with Weedon Grossmith in modern comedies, next joining Ben Great and for some years played the principal parts in Shakespeare's plays. Then he appeared as Nero in the first production of "The Sign of the Cross."

The late Lewis Walker selected him for the role of Richelieu in the first production of "The Three Musketeers."

A notable cast of screen artists portray the various difficult roles in this sensational story of rural life, including Jack Columbus, who has played featured roles in a number of William Fox special productions; Ben Grauer, a young actor who started his career with David Warfield in his re-creation of "The Return of Peter Grimm"; Warren Kreech, Harry Benham, Grace Barton, Francis Healy, Edwin Dennison, James Devine and others of equal note.

"The Town That Forgot God" is from a scenario by Paul H. Sloane, who wrote the scenarios for a number of recent Fox successes.

PANTAGES PUTS ON SPLENDID COMPANY TO WIN SUPPORT

Vaudeville Programme Has Many Headline Grade Turns

Alexander Pantages last night earned the support of two crowded houses of Victorians for the splendid show with which he has resumed operation of the Pantages Theatre.

According to Manager Jamieson the continuance of Victoria in the Pantages circuit is dependent, from week to week, upon the patronage given, and the management has certainly made a hit with the current week's bill.

Last week the theatre was opened with a special bill, as the Pantages contribution towards the success of the Maytime Frolic, the present show being the first under the new arrangement of three days' billings.

He's a Fine Girl.

Francis Renault and his impersonation of famous feminine stage and operatic characters is the headline on the bill, and is a whole show in himself. A delightful demoiselle he is, with a flair for "taking off" Gertrude Farrow and her temperament, Ruth St. Denis in Oriental dances or soprano singers of Parisian fame.

Real New Jugglery.

Martinet, a magician of high attainments and a pretty wit, has the honor of opening the show, his skillful work being the more remarkable in that he abandons the usual flow of chatter, wherewith his fellow mystifiers are accustomed to aid their nimble fingers.

Plain Clothes Laughs.

George Mayo gives a monologue marked by a Jewish tinge, which drew a steady flow of laughter, while Klass and Brilliant justified their names, they supported excellent patter with musical ability. Brilliant being in addition the most amusing idiot the local stage has seen for a long time.

Clever Dancing.

Vlasta Maslova and Company are an aggregation of dancers, who present a series of Oriental and modern dances marked by speed and color, their contribution making a strong bid for primacy on the bill. Throughout the entertainment the audience get hints of the happy relations existing in the company, almost every turn being featured by hilarious or helpful interjections by other members of the show, to the delight of the spectators and the success of the reopening.

In addition Pantages offers a picture of high merit in "The Prisoner," starring Herbert Rawlinson and a strong supporting cast.

PLAYHOUSE OPENS TO-NIGHT WITH MARRIAGE OF KITTY

Playhouse patrons will this evening have the pleasure of witnessing "The Marriage of Kitty." Cosmo Gordon-Lennox' famous comedy, an offering well suited to the Compton Comedy Company.

Victoria is doubly fortunate in being able to witness the production of a current London attraction, and one presented by so able a company of artists as the present aggregation at the Playhouse.

"The Marriage of Kitty" is one of the cleverest comedies of recent years, and contains all the elements necessary to the making of a good play and a successful drama.

It is the play in which Miss Marie Tempest made the greatest success of her career, and which has called forth the most enthusiastic adulation from critics all over the world. Miss Tempest is at present delighting crowded houses nightly with the piece at one of the principal London theatres, and its popularity is as pronounced as ever. The Compton Comedy Company will be very much at home in this comedy, as the various members find themselves peculiarly well suited to their roles. Miss Peggy Dundas will play Kitty, and her charm will be well suited to the part. Mr. Francis Compton will be the rather vacillating baronet, Sir Reginald Belsize, a role that should thoroughly suit his natural style, and those of his favorites, Miss Agnes Barton and Mr. Herbert Leslie, will be seen as Mme de Simiano and John Travis, parts that will give these clever character actors full

SUCCESSFUL RECITAL

At the Emmanuel Baptist Church last evening, the pupils of Miss Eiler's dramatic class gave a talented recital. There were several recitations, vocal numbers and violin solos, all of which were much enjoyed. The entertainment was given on behalf of the Ladies' Aid.

Some of the most interesting and amusing features of the programme were the recitations by the very young pupils. Billy Simpson, 7, was one of the smallest who appeared on the platform. He recited, "Soap, the Oppressor," with much feeling.

There were many other equally well executed recitals. Particularly the little skit, "The Crystal Gazer," enjoyed, for in it Misses Silvers and Gladys Thorpe both displayed talent.

FESTIVAL OF ART RATED VERY HIGH

The Festival of Art, which had its finale at the Royal Victoria Theatre last night before a large house, was highly rated by theatre and art experts who saw it.

Production of all the scenes was carried out with great detail of lighting, colors and settings. Persons from other cities said it was the finest thing of its kind they have ever seen anywhere.

It is not known yet just how much the Gonzales Chapter, I. O. D. E., which put on the affair, will realize from it for the sunroom for the new wing of the Jubilee Hospital.

There was rejoicing when it became known that Mrs. Bolden Dunsmauir, Humphreys intended to bear personally all the costs of the elaborate Egyptian frieze, "Adoration of Isis," which she produced. Because of the costly scenery and

(Editor's Note.—This article was compiled by five of the most experienced fur traders, all in charge of company posts.)

The finest furs are obtained in the most densely wooded districts, the most notable exception being the white fox skin of the far northern Barren Lands and Arctic Coasts. The depth of coloring and lustre of a pelt increase in direct relation to the degree of forest cover in the locality where they are taken. This is, of course, a matter of food supply which can be had only in the deep forest.

The fur trade returns from fire swept districts declines rapidly. Fur bearing animals cannot survive the loss of shelter and food. A great migration of the animals takes place and posts far distant from a forest fire will soon register a falling business. In any great conflagration in the forests, thousands of the most valuable fur-bearing animals are burned to death. Those able to take to water, such as beaver, more frequently escape, but are soon forced to migrate to better feeding grounds. The older men in the fur industry, the trappers and others who understand woods life from close contact are usually extremely careful to keep in check their archnemy, fire. It is the newer generation, the amateur camper, gunnerman, and other transients who under-estimate the treacherous power of fire in a forest. Will the fur trade of Canada survive?

LUMBER VESSEL IN SINKING CONDITION Schooner Vigilant Is Being Towed to San Pedro By Steamer Cascade

San Pedro, Cal., May 30.—The American schooner Vigilant, in command of Captain Matt Penney, was towed into port early today in a sinking condition by the steam schooner Cascade, in command of Captain Adolph Johannessen.

The Vigilant, bound from Vancouver, B.C., for San Pedro with a full cargo of lumber, struck a submerged object forty miles off Ventura late yesterday. At the time of the mishap the Vigilant was in a storm which carried away her forward topmast. When the Vigilant began to roll over to starboard and take water rapidly, Captain Penney sent out an S.O.S. call, which was picked up thirty-five miles from the scene of the mishap by the Cascade, steaming to San Pedro from Bellingham.

They are the Edridge, Edmore, Hancey, Cuprum, Wheatland, Montana, City of Spokane, Cross Keys and Pomona. The Pomona and Hanley on their arrival will be delivered to the Weyerhaeuser Timber Company, of Everett, which purchased them from the Shipping Board.

It is reported that the spruce is being used in Australia for airplanes and for the manufacture of paper.

FIGHT TO A DRAW

Seattle, May 30.—The decision was a draw at the close of six rounds of boxing here last night between Jimmy Sacco, of Boston, and Young Carmen, of Oakland, lightweights. Carmen led in the early rounds, and in the first seemed on the point of landing a knockout. Sacco began to gain in the second round and had the better of it in the closing minutes.

FOR Better PASTRY BAKING POWDER FEATHER LIGHT BRAND "THE NAME IS THE BRAND" MAGNESIA FINE FOR ACID STOMACH Quickly Neutralizes Acidity, Stops Fermentation, Sweetens the Stomach. Nine people in ten, when food upsets the stomach causing distress, think they have indigestion. In reality they are suffering from "acid stomach." An excess of acid in the stomach causes gas, heartburn, bloating and sourness. To have a strong healthy stomach capable of easily and normally digesting this hearty meal a day you simply must keep these stomach acids neutralized and the stomach contents sweet. No artificial digestants are necessary. Just get a few ounces of Bisulphate Magnesia from any good drug store and take a teaspoonful of the powder or two tablets in a half glass of water right after eating or whenever the slightest pain is felt. The result is amazing and you will be delighted with the almost instant relief it brings. This famous stomach sweetener combines Magnesia and Bismuth in desirable proportions and is not only splendidly effective, but perfectly harmless. Its regular use keeps the stomach sweet, strong and healthy all the time. Bisulphate Magnesia is well-known to druggists everywhere and is used annually by more than a half million people who now eat as they please, in reason, with no more fear of indigestion. (Adv.)

NEWS IN BRIEF A roof fire at 76 Menzies Street at 6:33 last night gave the fire department a run to extinguish the blaze. The damage was slight. Edwin S. Adams, William Bryce, Harry McK. Clark, Benjamin E. Nickells, Peter A. Sweeney, Cecil W. Thibodeau were all successful in obtaining discharges at the North Pacific College, of Fortland, this year. The Victoria Women's Institute held a very successful quilting bee Monday afternoon. A large number of members and friends assisted with the work. On Wednesday, June 6, there will be a silver tea at the home of Mrs. Campbell, Fort Street. The Church of the Holy Saviour, Victoria West, will celebrate the anniversary of its dedication on Sunday next. The Rev. C. Reed, will preach at the morning service and the Rev. W. Carroll, of St. Luke's, in the evening. Special music will be rendered by the choir. Leaving a note for her parents that she had secured work in Nanaimo at $50 a month, a young girl left her home yesterday and boarded the boat for the mainland. The girl was taken up by the police at Vancouver last night at the request of the authorities here and will be returned to her home to-day. John W. McKenzie, steward of the Victoria Yacht Club, was this morning charged in the city police court with having pointed a revolver at his wife in the early hours of May 29 last. He denied the charge, but was fined the minimum of $10 and bound over in $200 bonds to keep the peace for the next six months. Charles Ferguson and William Merston were assessed $20 each for speeding on the George Road last week. The former pleaded guilty. Mr. Merston denying the charge against him and being supported in his denials by the testimony of Dr. C. Wace, Municipal Constable. Tom Palmer stated that a speed of thirty miles per hour was being made. The city Building By-Law will be amended immediately to allow certain buildings here to remain standing. These buildings are quite safe, according to the City Council's information, but are not exactly in accordance with present regulations covering the fire area. The building which is causing the city to change its rules was constructed by the Lemon, Gonnason Lumber Company for storage purposes. At a meeting of the Esquimalt School Board last night, discussion over the attendance of the Lampson Street cadets at the cadet camp this year took place. Mr. Hutchison, inspector of cadets, informed the board that he would be unable to attend. No action was taken. A vote of thanks was passed thanking the Reeves and Councilors for the hoster, which the school children had taken part in the May 24. Other minor business matters were discussed. Ralph Reop, described as 40 years of age, 175 pounds weight and dark complexion, is being sought by Hon. W. J. O'Hearn, Attorney-General of Nova Scotia. The missing man served overseas as an engine driver and it is thought that he will be similarly employed in this country. The local police would be glad to hear information bearing on the missing man. C. A. Mahony, Commissioner of Provincial Police at Regina, offers $100 for information as to the whereabouts of John W. Phillippi, last seen in Toronto on February of this year. Phillippi made his home at Donwell, Sask., and is described as of 53 years of age, 5 feet 10 inches in height, weight 160 pounds, and fair complexion. Captain Powell, who is residing at Brentia Lodge, near Brentwood, last Saturday made a splendid catch of salmon in the waters, adjacent to his home. The fishermen used the latest patent contrivance of a Victoria man, V. J. Bomber, 4153 Yates Street, instead of the old trolling spoon. This invention is something very novel in the fishing line. When it is used there need be no lead weights attached to the line, and as soon as a fish strikes the whole affair rises immediately to the surface, drawing the fish with it. Capt. Powell expresses the utmost satisfaction with his new fishing tackle. He caught twenty-four fish, averaging about ten pounds, the heaviest of which was sixteen and a half pounds. This is not a record, but it is a good catch, and Capt. Powell, who believes implicitly in the worth of Bomber's invention, will henceforth use nothing else. This metal and wood disc attachment is a very simple arrangement, easily adjusted and giving infinite satisfaction. It is neither cumbersome to use nor awkward to handle. It works automatically and goes to a good depth at once, and trolling speed, as far even as ten pounds of lead. NEW PILOT APPOINTED The appointment of Captain E. Jordan to the staff of the Vancouver Pilots Ltd., has been officially announced. Capt. Jordan is one of the most competent shipmasters on the coast, having had years of experience in the C. P. R. coast service. Capt. Jordan served overseas in the Inland Water Transport and his overseas record was an important factor in his selection from many applications. The staff of the Vancouver Pilots Ltd. is composed almost entirely of returned men, being the only association of pilots employing returned men. The new appointment is a source of great satisfaction to the various veteran associations in British Columbia, who have on several occasions made representation to Ottawa on behalf of returned naval men. NANAIMO MAN NAMED Appointment of E. C. McIntyre, of Nanaimo, with the status of commissioner for taking affidavits, was announced to-day by Premier Oliver. An Order-in-Council is being put through establishing the appointment. GIRLS' CORNER CLUB The club will meet as usual on Thursday at the club rooms, Liberal Hall, Government Street. Supper will be served at 6.15 with the kind assistance of ladies from the St. Paul's Presbyterian Church. Rev. J. S. Patterson will be present, and will give an address, and Mrs. Patterson has kindly consented to sing a solo. Arrangements will be made to hold a garden party and tea in aid of the Shaftesbury Society for crippled children. It is expected that this will take place the last week in June at Clovelly, North Quadra Street, in residence of Mrs. A. J. Woodard.

MANAGER SCHEME NOT LOSING OUT, SPONSORS STATE Official Needed to Maintain New Reforms, Aldermen Declare Aldermen who are shaping plans for re-organizing the civic service under the general direction of a business manager denied emphatically to-day that their proposal was losing support. It was learned that the scheme was not pressed to a final decision at the Council's meeting Monday night simply because complete unanimity on the proposal was expected within a few days after members had considered the whole idea more fully. The chief function of the proposed manager would be to see that all the various departments of the city service smoothly together and that the important reforms effected at the beginning of this year were maintained. The city's affairs at last have been put on a sound basis and a manager, by exercising general direction over all departments, would be able to keep them on this basis, it is felt. Reforms Might Slip. If no manager is appointed all the value of the Council's reform work this year may be lost, it is feared. It is realized, however, that the success of the plan will depend to a great extent on the personality of the manager. For that reason it is intended to exercise the utmost care in the selection of the new official. His duties by his superior and the scheme that it will be possible to secure the services of a suitable man in Victoria and that it will be unnecessary to go outside the city for him. Naturally city department heads do not look with much favor upon the manager scheme. They object to having any other official than the aldermen who are sponsoring the project explain that the new official would not interfere with the technical work of the departments, but would exercise only a general supervision of all city-business, co-ordinating it and seeing that the most stringent economy prevailed.

SCHOOL SALARIES IN SAANICH DISTRICT Trustees and Teachers to Lay Differences Before Ratepayers At the Royal Oak School this evening the Saanich School Board will explain to a general meeting of the ratepayers of the municipality, the reasons underlying the recent action of the Board in sending a pro forma discharge to all the members of the teaching staff. Reeve J. O. Welch, President of the Saanich Branch of the Teachers' Association, that they will have a delegation present at the meeting of judges, but with data wherewith to present their side of the case to the public. Trustees and teachers are agreed in asking that a large attendance of ratepayers be present, the Trustees feeling their efforts to lessen the tax but unable to do so, while the teachers consider that they will be losing the position of salary, by other Trustees Boards. Upon present status of affairs it is, too teachers have each been served with notice that their existing contracts expire on June 30, 1923, and that they yet received the announced following letter, wherein re-employment at a salary of $1,000 per annum was offered. Because this re-employment letter has not yet been received the Teachers' Federation has been asked to advise to decide upon a general course of action.

COMING DUEL TO LECTURE IN CITY "Recent Psychic Evidence" Subject at Capitol Theatre on June 14 Sir Arthur Conan Doyle is coming to give one of his wonderful lectures in this city and arrangements have been completed to have Sir Arthur give his lecture here at the Capitol Theatre, on June 14, the subject being "Recent Psychic Evidence," which will be illustrated by a collection of spirit photographs. The latest and most convincing collection of spirit photographs recently in New York, many women in the audience at Carnegie Hall sobbed upon seeing the picture of the London crowd surrounding the cenotaph on Armistice Day. In this picture, taken by a celebrated London medium, innumerable ghostly figures are seen swimming over the crowd, and are believed to be the spirits of dead soldiers. The audience cheered when Sir Conan showed some of his spirit portraits, obtained under the most exacting conditions. "We can only refer to them as angels," he said, "for by what other terms could we describe those who have come from the other side to prove the truth of immortality." These wonderful pictures are to be shown by Sir Conan's friend and co-worker, the Rev. G. Vale Owen, who has arranged to visit a number of cities which could not be included in Conan Doyle's tour. Sir Conan, who is an eminent Church of England clergyman and a foremost authority on psychic science, became world-famous about three years ago upon the publication of his own remarkable spirit messages. He is presenting the Doyle photographs in connection with a series of lectures on the spirit world that he is now delivering. One of the most striking spirit photographs shown by Mr. Owen is a portrait of the daughter of Dr. Cushman, the Washington scientist, taken by a London medium. There are also pictures of shadowy forms appearing in various places, and also materialized spirits. Ecstasms of various types is shown, including reproductions of a woman's hands. This, it is explained, was produced by means of ectosms evolved by a medium, which dipped itself into boiling paraffine and then into cold water, leaving molds perfect in every detail.

MAY MAKE MORE TAX REDUCTIONS Council Confers With Local Improvement Commission on Main Streets Important new adjustments of local improvement charges will be considered at a round-table conference between the Local Improvement Commission and the City Council late to-day. While Council members have not been informed of the exact purpose of the conference, they understand that further adjustment of local improvement charges on Pandora Avenue and Fort Street will be discussed. These levies already have been adjusted in the past but Council members are pressing for further reductions in the widening charges on Fort Street in the so-called semi-business area. Much Fort Street property, east of Quadra Street, has fallen into the city's hands as the result of tax sales and it is felt that the city should be able to pay the people who would pay taxes, and again if the local improvement levies were reduced.

South Australia Record Broken by Fast Overland (Canadian Pacific Cable). Melbourne, Australia, May 29. —A stripped stock model Overland established new record Melbourne to Adelaide. JOHN F. LANGAN JOHN F. LANGAN Prominent Resident of St. Thomas, Ont., Was Well-Known Here The Times-Journal, of St. Thomas, Ontario, carries the account of the sudden death of John F. Langan, who was very well-known on this Coast through his work under the British Columbia Government. John F. Langan, a St. Thomas man who gained much prominence in the business world and in governmental circles, died very suddenly at the home of his brother, George H. Langan, 100 Hibernia Street, Stratford, on Tuesday night. Mr. Langan had not been in the best of health for some time. On the occasion of his last visit to his mother in St. Thomas—New Year's Day—he slipped and fell while on his way to the depot, straining the ligaments of his back. A few days later he was in the hospital, and it was while he was on a visit at the Liberal Club rooms that he was stricken with an attack of heart failure and died half an hour later. Mr. Langan's career had been marked with success. Born in St. Thomas 23 years ago, the son of the late E. R. Langan, St. George Street, he attended school here and had his first position as clerk in the grocery store of the late Alexander Lindsay. Later he went to Chicago and took up the study of law, graduating as an attorney-at-law and becoming prominent in the practice of commercial law in that city. Led U. S. Migration to Canada. In the early part of the twentieth century his interest turned to Western Canada, and in the movement for greater immigration to that part of the Dominion he had the distinction of organizing in Chicago and taking across the border the first trainload of United States settlers to the Canadian prairies. He remained in the West after this, and was active in development and colonization work on the Pacific coast. He held important positions with both Dominion and British Columbia Governments. More recently he had been engaged in the brokerage business and held a leading position in financial circles. The latest movement Mr. Langan came to be identified with was the colonization scheme of which Sir John Willison had been the head. Mr. Langan was only waiting the development of more aggressive plans by the Government before taking up active work in this respect. His headquarters, it is understood, were to have been at Fort Arthur, in recent letters to St. Thomas friends he spoke in glowing terms of the prospects of the scheme, and was looking ahead to great things in this respect. Friend of Laurier and Macdonald. Mr. Langan was also prominent outside of business and legal circles. He was a member of the Royal Geographical Society of England, and had, as a pastime and in furtherance of his desire to be in Canadian affairs, contributed largely to magazines and newspapers. One of these articles, a description of the character of the Islands, attracted considerable attention. Mr. Langan was an after-dinner speaker of much eloquence. He was a close friend of the late Rev. Dr. J. A. Macdonald, editor of the Globe and former pastor of Knox Church, St. Thomas, who died only last week. He was also a personal friend of the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and was a member of the Laurier party to the coronation of King George.

MAY MAKE MORE TAX REDUCTIONS Council Confers With Local Improvement Commission on Main Streets Important new adjustments of local improvement charges will be considered at a round-table conference between the Local Improvement Commission and the City Council late to-day. While Council members have not been informed of the exact purpose of the conference, they understand that further adjustment of local improvement charges on Pandora Avenue and Fort Street will be discussed. These levies already have been adjusted in the past but Council members are pressing for further reductions in the widening charges on Fort Street in the so-called semi-business area. Much Fort Street property, east of Quadra Street, has fallen into the city's hands as the result of tax sales and it is felt that the city should be able to pay the people who would pay taxes, and again if the local improvement levies were reduced.

LECTURE IN CITY "Recent Psychic Evidence" Subject at Capitol Theatre on June 14 Sir Arthur Conan Doyle is coming to give one of his wonderful lectures in this city and arrangements have been completed to have Sir Arthur give his lecture here at the Capitol Theatre, on June 14, the subject being "Recent Psychic Evidence," which will be illustrated by a collection of spirit photographs. The latest and most convincing collection of spirit photographs recently in New York, many women in the audience at Carnegie Hall sobbed upon seeing the picture of the London crowd surrounding the cenotaph on Armistice Day. In this picture, taken by a celebrated London medium, innumerable ghostly figures are seen swimming over the crowd, and are believed to be the spirits of dead soldiers. The audience cheered when Sir Conan showed some of his spirit portraits, obtained under the most exacting conditions. "We can only refer to them as angels," he said, "for by what other terms could we describe those who have come from the other side to prove the truth of immortality." These wonderful pictures are to be shown by Sir Conan's friend and co-worker, the Rev. G. Vale Owen, who has arranged to visit a number of cities which could not be included in Conan Doyle's tour. Sir Conan, who is an eminent Church of England clergyman and a foremost authority on psychic science, became world-famous about three years ago upon the publication of his own remarkable spirit messages. He is presenting the Doyle photographs in connection with a series of lectures on the spirit world that he is now delivering. One of the most striking spirit photographs shown by Mr. Owen is a portrait of the daughter of Dr. Cushman, the Washington scientist, taken by a London medium. There are also pictures of shadowy forms appearing in various places, and also materialized spirits. Ecstasms of various types is shown, including reproductions of a woman's hands. This, it is explained, was produced by means of ectosms evolved by a medium, which dipped itself into boiling paraffine and then into cold water, leaving molds perfect in every detail.

Amateur Home Run Hero Knocks Two Four-Ply Wall-pops and Saves C. P. R. From Defeat; Forbes Twirled Good Ball But Automotives Made Things Interesting

C. P. R. 5; AUTOMOTIVES 3. The mighty war club of Haley Jackson was all that saved the C. P. R. ball team from a trimming last night when they stacked up against the fast stepping Automotives at the Stadium.

A Good Game. All things considered, including the weather, the game was a good one. Parfitt heaving good ball all the way for the motormen, but the failure of his team-mates to connect more frequently with Forbes' twisters caused another defeat to be chalked up against the lowly five-fiver.

advanced around the bags on three passed balls by Townsley, scoring the first run of the battle. Advance into Lead. In the third stanza the C. P. R. scored three counters when Gravelin singled to right field and Chambers was safe on Gandy's wild throw to the first sack. Jackson then poked out his first homer over the right field fence.

In the fourth the Motormen tied the score when Dunn and George Copas grabbed safe hits and Prescott walked. An error by Gravelin allowed Copas and Dunn to romp across the rubber.

In the fifth the railroaders came back strong and enlarged their total to five when Chambers singled and Jackson clouted his second drive out of the lot.

This ended the scoring on both sides the two pitchers settling down to their work and not allowing a lone hit during the rest of the game. As a result of their win last night the C. P. R. have again advanced into the leadership of the amateur league while the Eagles are trailing close behind with the Automotives holding down the cellar berth with three straight losses.

Stands Fare Chance of Smashing Homerun Record Made in 1921 by Battering Babe

In 1923 to see a new home-run king crowned? Is Rogers Hornsby, the man who dethroned Babe Ruth, destined to hold his laurels only one short year? Fred Williams, better known as Cy, who covets in the outfield for the lowly Phillies, is the latest athlete to aspire to the slug title.

Babe Ruth in setting his mark of 59 home runs in 1921 averaged a home run a trifle better than every third game. That in itself is a most remarkable feat. Williams, however, is hot on the trail of the Ruth record, and in the first 21 games played he has outdone the remarkable performance of the Yankee star.

Thirteen home runs in 22 games is the record hung up by Williams during the first three weeks of play.

Hot on Ruth's Trail. In compiling his first dozen home-run clouts, Williams on May 11, in the game with the St. Louis Cardinals, jumped his mark from nine by clouting out three home runs in five times at bat. In so doing he tied the modern record for home runs by Ken Williams of the St. Louis Browns and later equaled by Walter Henline of the Phillies. On May 12 Williams reached the so-called unlucky 13.

What's in a name? Nothing perhaps, yet it is rather singular that Cy Williams of the Phillies and Ken Williams of the Browns should now be showing the way in the two majors as far as home-run hitting is concerned.

St. Louis still before Pat Donohue three to two, giving Cincinnati an even break so far on the series. The American League race was kept hot by New York Yankees and Athletics, both whom won, the former over Washington four to two and the latter over the Red Sox three to one.

Detroit kept on the toboggan, going down before St. Louis six to five, while Cleveland beat Chicago six to four.

Society Sees Fight Which Ends in Riot

Chicago's Fashionably Gowned Society Matrons Watched Benny Leonard Drop Pinkey Mitchell in Tenth Round Last Night and Were Thrilled With Mix-Up at Close

Chicago, May 30.—Chicago's society gathered up its skirts last night and invaded the famous stockyards to watch Benny Leonard, in his contest with Pinkey Mitchell, the Milwaukee boy, staged for charity.

The Dexter Park pavilion was packed with approximately 9,000 spectators apparently hungry for boxing, an illegal sport in Illinois. The gate receipts, with the price at $5, $10 and $14 were about $85,000.

The match was Leonard's first since last August, when he boxed Ever Hammer in Chicago City. The champion after that bout suffered from infected teeth and did no boxing for ten months.

The fighting Irish from the stockyards district, hemmed in the fashionably-gowned society matrons from Chicago's gold coast, jamming every seat in the huge structure.

They Learned Something. Society's first introduction to boxing was full of thrills. Polite ears attuned to tea table gossip were shocked with the raucous shouts of "bust him in the breaser, Benny" and similar shouts from boxing fans.

Last night's bouts, staged without interference, probably will be the last for Chicago for some time, as the city administration wants a test made of the state law prohibiting the sport.

James C. Mullen, promoter of last night's charity show had arranged to be arrested in Chicago City, violating the stringent boxing law, and if convicted, planned to carry the case to the state supreme court, which will be asked to pass on the validity of the statute.

In the opening bout of eight rounds, Sammy Mandell, of Rockford, Ill., had a shade the better of Frankie Garcia, of Memphis, Tenn., at 124 pounds.

Low Hurley a New York bantam, scored a technical knockout over Harold Smith of Chicago in the fifth round of a scheduled eight-round bout. A right swing to Smith's ear ruptured a blood vessel causing a steady flow of blood, and the referee stopped the contest. Smith previous to the fifth had the better of his opponent. They boxed at 118 pounds.

Joe Burman, of Chicago, knocked out Patsy Flannigan, of St. Louis, in the third round of a scheduled 10-round bout. Flannigan was floored with a left and right to the chin, staggered to his feet with a count of five and then went down again without being hit. Referee Benny Yaneger gave Flannigan to his corner and awarded the bout to Burman. They weighed in at 120 pounds.

The Chicago Tribune says: "Theoretically the result was a technical knockout, and it goes down on the record books as a knockout. There was no question of a foul."

Riot Starts. The fight ended in a riot, which started when Ritchie Mitchell, brother of the Milwaukee challenger, flew into referee Davey Miller, hitting him with a right and a left to the head. Ritchie claimed Leonard hit Pinkey while the Milwaukee boxer was resting on one knee while referee Miller was counting over him.

In less than thirty seconds the ring was swarming with frantic spectators, and thirty or forty fist fights set in before the police could clear the ring with their clubs.

In the first round Leonard and Mitchell feinted for at least thirty seconds before the champion led with a left hook to the chin. Mitchell boxing defensively declined to lead, Leonard connected solidly with two lefts and a right to the chin.

Mitchell remained on the defensive in the second, forcing Leonard to do all the leading, but neither landed effectively.

In the third, Leonard reached Mitchell with a right hand punned the chin and received two solid rights to the chin in return.

Mitchell Shaken. Leonard shook Mitchell with a jolting right to the chin in the fourth and Mitchell returned it, only to receive a left and right to the head. Leonard ripped into Mitchell's body in an attempt to draw his guard out.

Leonard was ahead and boxing nicely in the fifth. He tried for a left and a right to the chin, but Mitchell backed out of danger, continuing his defensive battles. Mitchell boxed cautiously in the sixth, waiting to nail Leonard with the right hand. Leonard outscored his opponent in body punching in this round. Leonard started the seventh, landing a left to the chin, and Mitchell forced him into the ropes for an exciting rally but did no damage.

Mitchell opened up the eighth and traded right left hands with the champion. Leonard missed in his attempts to knock left to the body.

Leonard Backs Away. Mitchell had Leonard backing away and in danger in the ninth round as a result of landing four straight left hands with the champion. Leonard missed in his attempts to knock left to the body.

Mitchell had Leonard backing away and in danger in the ninth round as a result of landing four straight left hands with the champion. Leonard missed in his attempts to knock left to the body.

FIRPO RECEIVES BIG OFFER TO TAKE ON ITALIAN CHAMPION. Havana, May 30.—Louis Firpo has received an offer of $250,000 from Buenos Aires promoters for a bout in that city with Ermisiro Spalla, of Italy, heavyweight champion of Europe.

Meanwhile a hurry call has been sent to Tex Rickard to find an opponent for Firpo for next Sunday. Joe White was scheduled to meet Firpo here on that day, but the Cuban boxing commission yesterday decided that inasmuch as the New York man was knocked out twice in a sparring match he was an unsuitable opponent for Firpo.

SAMMY KELLY, NOTED SPORTSMAN, PASSES. New York, May 30.—Sammy Kelly, known internationally in sporting circles, but best remembered as a leading featherweight boxer of the earlier nineties, died yesterday of pneumonia at his home just three days after the death of his mother, from whom he had been inseparable throughout a long career. News of his mother's death had been kept from him.

For several years Kelly had been associated with Charles A. Stoneham, president of the New York Giants, in the management of Stoneham's racing interests in Cuba. Two of the stable owner's horses were named after his friend and employee.

Kelly never reached the peak of his pugilistic ambitions, quitting the ring at the request of his mother after defeating Patsy Proderic, November 6, 1877.

CANADIAN CHAMP DRAWS. Youngstown, Ohio, May 29.—Teddy Joyce, Canadian bantamweight champion, and Mog Pugh, champion of Wales, boxed a 12-round draw here last night, according to newspapermen.

Trenton, N. J., May 29.—Pat Mills, Irish lightweight, outpointed Ray Mitchell, of Philadelphia, here last night in 19 rounds, according to ring-side sports writers. Mills weighed 141 pounds and Mitchell 135 1/2.

Sarazen Warns Against Lifting Right Foot in Making Swing

Lesson 28 By Gene Sarazen

We now come to some incorrect methods in hitting the ball. These vary with each shot. For instance, the average beginner is prone to lift the right foot on the back swing of the drive. The upper photo in the accompanying layouts shows this fault.

Lifting the right foot not only throws you off balance, but prevents you from hitting a solid blow. For when you lift the right foot on the back swing you are then swinging against the natural movement of the body. In other words, the body instead of lending power to the swing is hindering the stroke.

You will notice also in this in straight line with the left leg on the start of the swing.

Another fault with the position in the top picture is that I am standing too far away from the ball. Stand solidly on both feet with the arms not held out stiffly as pictured here, but in natural position and rather close to the body.

In the lower picture is shown the correct way of addressing the ball for a drive.

"incorrect" picture that I have turned my head, which is a common fault. The head should always be kept in fixed position until the follow through.

Note also that my arms are held very stiffly—too much so here. It is well to have the left arm in straight line with the club throughout the swing, but the right arm should be held in an easy, natural position and as stiffly as the left. You will note also that lifting my right foot has caused my body to sag on the right side. The left side of the body should be practica

THE TIMES DAILY PICTURE PAGE

ARCHIBALD SMITH HALL of Weatherford, Texas, recently celebrated his ninety-second birthday by getting a haircut and shave—the first he's had since the close of the Civil War.

Hardly had the boom of the last cannon died away, than Hall swore by the beard he wore that never again would he near a barber shop until a Democratic president was chosen who suited him.

Election after election followed. But whenever an incumbent was ushered into the White House, Hall would turn thumbs down. Until Woodrow Wilson, non passed inspection.

But by that time the veteran's children had become so endeared to their dad's facial adornment that they dissuaded him from keeping his half-century pledge.

A birthday, however, when one gets up in the nineties is an event. So Hall decided there was no better way to celebrate than to renew his acquaintance with clippers and razor.

OFFICIAL TESTER—This is another of President Harding's recent nominees. The president has named him chief of the Bureau of Standards in Washington. He is Dr. George K. Burgess.

STRANGE COLONY NOW UNDER PROBE—Keen interest throughout America has been taken in the present investigation of the House of David Cult, at Benton Harbor. On the upper left are three members of the baseball team, which has played in many Canadian cities and has always been a big drawing card on account of the unusual appearance and skill of the players. Mooney, the long-haired lad in the centre, was offered a contract with the Chicago White Sox, last year, but he refused to cut his hair, a condition demanded by Comiskey. He has since left the colony. On the upper right is another of the House of David attractions, the Ukulele Band. Lower left, Miss Edythe Meldrin, an official of Shiloh House, who denies the allegations of her sister, Mrs. Miles. Lower right, Mrs. Hazel Mae Wuerth, of Hammond, Ind., who told the Michigan State investigators that she was once a real Shiloh House girl, but left the colony several years ago. She made complaints to the Department of Justice, and is now assisting the state officials in investigating the affairs of the cult.

GETS DIVORCE—Broadway has just learned that Irene Fenwick, stage favorite, won a decree of divorce from John Jay O'Brien a month ago.

Alice Bishop Reilly announced that on April twenty-first she was granted a divorce by Judge Lynch from Leonard W. Reilly of Kansas in Washington, D.C.

VERY LATEST FOR DIVORCEES!—Alice Bishop Reilly of Chicago (above) wanted all her friends to know she had been granted a divorce from Leonard W. Reilly, and so she adopted and mailed the unique announcement, a reproduction of which is shown above in lower left-hand corner.

MRS. MYRTLE B. HAYES, released on $10,000 bond after being indicted on a forgery charge, was granted a continuance when the case was called for trial. She said she would plead "not guilty."

DREAM COME TRUE—Miss Nanette Guilford has dreamed of being an opera singer ever since she was a little tot. In 1921 she sang in a Broadway show. She was 16 then. Now she has joined the Metropolitan Opera, being the youngest soprano in the company.

DARING DEBUTANTES AS BOMBERS—These two New York debutantes flew over the city in an aeroplane throwing bombs into crowded streets. No one was injured. The bombs were circulars for the Park Avenue street fair. The girls were Miss Edythe McCoon (left) and Miss Margaret Hennessey.

$100,000,000 ESTATE TANGLE—The utmost secrecy guards details of the suit filed by Lady Hyde (above) for an accounting of the $100,000,000 estate of the late Levi Z. Leiter, pioneer Chicago merchant. In her suit she names as defendants her brother, Joseph Leiter, of Chicago, and her sister, Mrs. Nancy Carver Campbell, of Santa Barbara, Cal. Others, high in British royalty, are said to be involved.

BUNKERED—Dr. O. F. Willing, sensation of the American golfers at Deal, England, shown here when bunkered at the 14th hole.

IN FLOOD AND FIRE'S WAKE—View of Hot Springs, Ark., a big section of which city is now a mass of ruins from fire, flood and tornado. Lives are believed lost, but exact estimate cannot be made for several days. Property damage will run nearly to $2,000,000.

GEORGES CONNECTS! ZOWIE!—Georges Carpentier (left) regained the heavyweight championship crown of Europe when he knocked Marcel Nilles out in the eighth round. The fight was held at Paris on May 5. The photographer snapped this just as Nilles was falling after Georges drove home a terrific uppercut.

TWO HUNDRED AND THREE YEARS OF ACTIVITY—Jonathan Mills (left) is 103 years old, and Mrs. Harriet Hubbard (right) has just reached her 100th birthday. Mills lives near Washington Courthouse, O. He shaves himself with a straight-edged razor, and reads without aid of glasses. Mrs. Hubbard, born in Pompey, N. Y., recalls how her father bartered with Indians. At 100, she continues to make her own dresses.

A MYSTERY OF SEA AND FIRE—Captain G. F. Morin, of the Coast Guard, investigates the half-burned launch from which he rescued one man off Belle Harbor, Long Island, and in which another man died. The rescued man was too weak to explain the accident or the presence of a gun found in the boat by Captain Morin.

BLASPHEMY LAW LEFT UNCHANGED

British House of Lords Rejects Earl of Russell's Bill

London, May 30.—The House of Lords made short work last night of the Earl of Russell's bill to amend the blasphemous law, refusing second reading by a majority of sixty-eight votes. The object of the measure was to provide that no criminal proceedings should be instituted for libel, heresy, blasphemy or atheism. "Abolish the blasphemous law," the Earl of Russell said, "and there will still be protection against offensive language used in public and calculated to endanger the peace." Lord Phillimore, arguing from his legal experience, pointed out that the present law was a protection for ordinary occasions. He was not afraid of any practical effects which the bill might have on organized Christianity, but thought it might be extremely mischievous in an indirect fashion. On the advice of the Marquis of Salisbury, speaking for the Government, second reading was refused.

MOTOR VEHICLE TAX CHANGES IN QUEBEC PLANNED

Sherbrooke, Que., May 30.—Proposed changes in the taxing of motor vehicles and mention of a possible tax on railroads were the features of an address by Hon. Jacob Nicol, Provincial Treasurer, here last night. The proposed changes in the motor vehicle taxation will be according to horsepower. The taxation on railroads was merely casually mentioned, reference being made to the procedure in British Columbia. In addition to discussing general matters of finance, Mr. Nicol observed that the time was coming when the province would have to assume the responsibility of direct taxation for school purposes.

these Presbyterian churches is the price which must be paid for union. How large the price will be and whether it ought to be paid is the great question which the commissioners to the Assembly will be required to answer at the gathering here.

Regarded as Duty. Briefly stated, the reasons why its advocates believe that church union will be effected are: 1. There are scores of thousands of Presbyterian people who believe it is their duty to effect union. They were willing to wait for twenty years to see whether those opposed would alter their viewpoint. They give those opposed to union full credit for sincerity, if they cannot agree the only thing to be done is to part company.

2. The recent vote of the presbyteries may be regarded as decisive. Of the seventy-nine presbyteries, fifty voted for immediate action. Only one presbytery voted against union and only two voted to defer action.

3. To adopt union is the course of least apparent difficulty. There is a danger of disruption of the church if union is not adopted. If the movement for union was interrupted now the break would be still worse.

Votes of Presbyteries. The following presbyteries voted in favor of immediate action—Sydney 18-6, Inverness unanimous, Truro unanimous, Miramichi unanimous, Montreal 44-24, Glangarry unanimous, Ottawa all but two, Lanark and Renfrew unanimous, Orangeville 11-3, Kingston 20-10, Kawartha 19-11, Owen Sound 23-1, Sauguen unanimous, Sudbury 10-1, London 20-10, Chatham 25-7, Sarnia unanimous, Huron 15-4, Bruce 17-7, Portage la Prairie 22-1, Minnedoua unanimous, Brandon unanimous, Kamourout unanimous, Qu'Appelle carried, Alameda unanimous, Weyburn unanimous, Regina unanimous, Moose Jaw unanimous, Saskatoon unanimous, Prince Albert 7-3, Battleford 7-1, Kindersley unanimous, Swift Current 4-1, Vermilion unanimous, Edmonton 20-10, Peace River 4-2, Lacombe unanimous, Castor 6-3, Calgary 12-4, High River 4-2, Kamloops unanimous, New Westminster 42-14, Victoria 12-11, Hontan unanimous.

Against immediate action—Barry 33-1, Hamilton unanimous, and Red Deer 1-1.

Movement Began in 1899. The movement for the union of the Methodist, Congregational and Presbyterian churches in Canada had its origin in 1899. At that time settlement was going forward very rapidly in Canada and the various denominations found it difficult to do their work in the new areas. It was therefore suggested by the Presbyterian Church that a plan for union be drawn up. In 1902 the General Conference of the Methodist Church at its quadrennial meeting in Winnipeg approved of this and also made the suggestion that it might be possible to solve the problem of the time by an organic union of the various churches.

As a result of this deliberation of the Methodist Church a joint committee representing Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational churches was formed in 1904 and after a conference issued a statement in which it was declared that organic union was desirable and practicable. This statement was presented to the General Assembly of the same year and a committee was named to consider a basis of union. This new committee met with representatives of the two other churches and such meetings continued for several years. In 1910 the General Assembly approved of the basis of union, and in 1911 sixty-seven presbyteries voted on the proposal, fifty-three reporting a favorable vote. In the same year a general vote of the members of the church was taken on the issue, which resulted in 113,000 for union and 50,000 against. In 1915 a second vote of the people was taken and 113,000 voted for the proposal and 74,600 against.

The 1916 Resolution. As a result of the votes of the communicant and presbyteries the General Assembly at a meeting held in Winnipeg in 1916 fully committed the church to union, the terms of the motion being as follows: "This General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Canada does now resolve to unite with the Methodist Church of Canada and the Congregational Church of Canada to con-

DISMISSAL OF PENSION BOARD MEMBERS URGED

Twenty-Five Public Organizations Represented At Meeting in Chamber Auditorium Last Night; Grave Injustice to Pensioners Charged by Speakers.

With a fund of restraint that nevertheless carried with it a quiet conviction that brought 300 present to their feet to urge the dismissal of the members of the Dominion Pensions Board from office, the case for the returned pensioner and his dependents was laid before a public meeting in the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium last night by H. D. Twigg, President of the Canadian Legion, as spokesman for the united service organizations of the city.

In an address lasting for nearly two hours, in which he set the findings of the Royal Commission on Pension matters before the meeting, Mr. Twigg covered the subject in such a clear cut manner that the meeting called for immediate action without further explanation of the case.

Bombard Ottawa.
A resolution moved by Bishop Schofield and seconded by Alderman Eugene Woodward was carried requesting the Federal Government to remove the members of the Pension Commission from office. This request, representatives of twenty-five civil organizations affirmed before the meeting adjourned, would be further supported by a flood of telegrams from these organizations to the same end. The resolution and telegrams in support were dispatched at once, to be backed up by concerted action later when each organization has time to ratify the action taken by its representatives.

In opening the meeting B. C. Nicholas, chairman, announced that the Hon. J. H. Bennett, Minister of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment in the Federal Cabinet, gave assurance in the House yesterday that to-day legislation would be laid before the House embodying almost in entirety the recommendations of the Royal Commission. The purpose of the meeting, a public one called to impress citizens of the city with the justice of the claims of the returned men, would be to support the fight for needed reforms in the administration of the Pension Act. The rulings of the Pension Board were supreme and subject to no appeal, continued the chairman, and while he had every regard for the sanctity of regulations, this was a case, he felt, where the sanctity of the country's moral debt to those who served overseas should reign paramount to all other considerations. If there was an error in administration of pension matters it should be on the side of the pensioner, and in his favor, concluded Mr. Nicholas, introducing H. D. Twigg to the meeting.

History of Pensions.
Rehearsing the history of war-time and post war pension matters, and leading on to the organization of the returned men's movements throughout the country, Mr. Twigg waived aside all emotional pleas to deal with facts and figures. Previous to 1919 pension matters had been arranged in Canada by order-in-council, and very successfully so. In 1919 the Pension Act was passed. It was a good Act and its only failing had been in its administration, for that the Royal Commission found that the Pension Board had adhered rigidly to the very letter of the law, where it should have regarded the spirit of the measure designed for the welfare of those who served, held the speaker. Broadly the Pension Act was intended to provide for those who served should have the benefits of the principle of insurance involved in the measure.

The Royal Commission, appointed following grave charges against the Pension Board personnel by C. G. MacNeill of the Great War Veterans' Alliance, had completed the first part of its findings. The second part dealing with conditions through Canada in pension matters, was yet to be rendered. In the portion of the report handed down the charge of criminal abuse of office had been found not proven, but the Commission found that conditions were far from right, in that the Pension Board had misled Parliament in 1921 and 1922 by the use of amendments to the Pension Act, and had deprived service men of the benefits allowed them in the Act.

The Board had ruled, continued Mr. Twigg, that a man who died of cancer five minutes before midnight on the official day of peace was declared entitled his dependents to a pension, but that if he died five minutes after midnight no pension could be given. That was the interpretation put on the Act by the Pension Board, stated the speaker. Col. Thompson, chairman of the Pension Board, took the extreme legal position and this found the Royal Commission was not interpreting the spirit of the Act.

Charge Against Board.
The charge laid against the Pension Board had been that they practically committed a fraud against the returned men, and this charge was not proven, though the Royal Commission found the Board had taken the Act and strained its provisions against the pensioner, said Mr. Twigg.

Losses in War.
Turning to Canada's losses in the war, Mr. Twigg said that 599,000 men joined the colors in Canada, 418,000 men were overseas, 250,000 men were sent to France, and of these 212,276 were killed in action, died on service, or were wounded; there being 62,500 killed in action. In spite of the fact that 212,276 men were killed or wounded in 1914 and 1915, 73,900 pensions only in effect. In 1922 there were even less, the number being 65,000, of which 45,000 were direct war disability cases. The years following the war should have seen a rise in the number of pensions granted as neuroathetic and post war development of disabilities increased, held Mr. Twigg. The number of disability cases was increasing still, and instead of $35,000,000 being allotted each year the figure should have risen to take care of the actual needs of the returned men eligible for pensions. Disabilities were evident on every hand to private doctors that were not recognized by the doctors of the Board, held Mr. Twigg.

Pensions Refused.
Pension after pension had been refused by three men at Ottawa, continued the speaker, because the Board's list of ten medical advisers reported there was "no record" on the medical history sheet. Often in the rush of getting back to Canada men took their discharges without complaining of their ailments. How did the Pension Board expect the field doctors in France in the middle of an engagement to stop and call for the wounded men, asked the speaker.

The finding of the Royal Commission was that in many cases pension applications were refused by the Pension Board. In 75 per cent of the cases he would be safe in saying, continued Mr. Twigg, the decision was given by Dr. Arnold, head of the S.C.R. or someone just under him, and the fate of the applicants decided by men who had nothing to do with the Pension Board—so far as the statute was concerned.

Living on Charity.
Citing another actual case, the speaker told of a man who enlisted in Victoria with the 88th Fusiliers to go later to take a commission in an English regiment. He was doing well with the sinking of the Lusitania. Through a mistake in regimental orders here the man was cited and struck off the strength instead of being transferred. Friends of the widow took the matter up with the Pension Board, which ruled that no pension could be given as the man was "no longer in the C.E.F." Then were righted to make the soldier a member of the C.E.F. until his death, and still the Pension Board refused pension. This notwithstanding the fact that the Department of Militia and Defence recognized the claims of the widow for pay, allowances, and gratuity during the time of his death. The widow and her family were still in this city and living on charity, continued the speaker.

Funds Running Low.
The Patriotic Fund authorities, said Mr. Twigg, warned that their funds were running out. "What was to become of such cases when the funds were no more? There were men in Victoria and all through the Dominion to-day entitled to pensions as a benefit allowed by the Act, but who were too many to crawl through the indignities now prevailing to advance their claims, held the speaker; pensions that were theirs as a matter of right."

Concrete Cases.
Turning to concrete cases in support of his argument Mr. Twigg selected three authentic cases from 400, which he pleaded before the Royal Commission on Pension at Vancouver recently. Gassed at the Second Battle of Ypres a soldier made his way to the unit medical officer, saying he had a cough. He was told, in the stress of the times, to carry on, that many others had done so. His medical history sheet, nor was there time such entries actually in the field. A few days later the man was carried out on a stretcher to a hospital, where he died. Back in Canada and in ill-health the man applied for a pension, and was refused because, said Mr. Twigg, there was no entry on his medical history sheet.

Remedial Measures.
"If remedial measures are carried into effect it is going to add to Canada's bill, but remember that when the men went overseas they did not stop to make a bargain with the country with you. There is no use enlarging on the matter. I am tired of it all, but there it is," concluded the speaker. An ovation greeted the speaker at the conclusion of his address.

Convicted of Injustice.
"I venture to say that no one in this audience remains unconvinced that steps are necessary to right the injustice being done," stated Very Rev. Bishop C. de V. Schofield, "but what are the steps to be taken—what can we do?"

Replying to the question, Mr. Twigg explained that a resolution calling for the dismissal of the Board members was the first action. Bishop Schofield thereupon expressed his desire to move a resolution to that effect. A committee composed of C. T. Cross, Bishop Schofield, Alderman Woodward, and Esparado Twigg was drawn to draft the wording of the resolution.

The Resolution.
Carried unanimously by a standing vote the resolution was as follows: "Whereas the findings of the Royal Commission on Pensions constitute a grave indictment of the Pension Board in their administration of the Pension Act, and shows that the members thereof are unfit to fairly administer the Act; and whereas it is in the opinion of this meeting of representative public men and women of Victoria the Government forthwith take the necessary steps to remove the members of the Pension Board from office; and further be it resolved: That copies of this resolution be sent to the Premier, members of the Cabinet, and the members for British Columbia in the Senate and House of Commons."

Appeal Tribunals.
Lindley Crease, pointing out the absence of the right of appeal from the present pension system, advocated that Dominion and District appeal tribunals be created, with the permission of Parliament, to remedy this defect. Mr. Twigg explained that provision for appeal was made in the findings of the Royal Commission which Hon. Dr. Beland proposed to introduce into the Federal House to-day.

Citizen Committee.
F. C. Hartwig suggested the formation of a permanent committee of citizens representing the various organizations to act in support of the pension reforms advocated. The idea was adopted by the meeting, and the appointment of the committee left to the chair.

Pulpit Appeals.
Frederick Landsberg suggested that the Ministerial Association be asked to invite a returned man to speak on pension matters from their respective pulpits on Sunday next. The suggestion was left to the members of the Ministerial Association present to take up with their own organization. The meeting opened with a silent tribute to those who gave their lives in the late war and closed with the National Anthem.

Representative Meeting.
Leading representatives from twenty-five separate organizations of Victoria and vicinity appended their names to a roll left at the entrance. The roll showed that the Chamber of Commerce, Canadian Club, Women's Club, Liberal and Conservative Associations, Victoria City Council, Esquimalt Reeve and Council, Oak Bay Reeve and Council, Saanich Reeve and Council, Navy League of Canada, Kumtuka Club, Royal Society of St. George, Trades and Labor Council, Lodge No. 2 I.O.O.F., Salvation Army, Y.M.C.A., and Ministerial Association had all sent able representatives to the mass meeting. Bishop Schofield attended at the head of a large representation from the focal churches of all denominations. These formed only the list of organizations attending outside of the ex-Service organizations themselves. The ex-Service organizations were fully represented. In all three hundred people assembled in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium, and it was with a standing vote of three hundred present that the resolution of the evening was passed.

Representation from the several organizations was further enhanced by implication when requests for failure to attend were read from a further list of organizations which, by resolution, supported the stand taken by the returned men in seeking redress against the policy of the Pensions Board.

This natural fresh food is freeing thousands from all the ills of constipation

IN place of drugs which upset digestion and actually increase the trouble—instead of cathartics which have to be taken in larger and larger doses—

Physicians and hospitals today are prescribing Fleischmann's Yeast! It is not a medicine, but a fresh corrective food which simply assists nature to restore normal, healthy conditions.

Every cake of Fleischmann's Yeast consists of millions of tiny living plants, which help to increase the bulk of our concentrated modern diet, and stimulate the intestinal muscles to act regularly and naturally.

Your own physician will heartily endorse this principle of treating constipation by gently encouraging the intestinal muscles to act for themselves.

Hundreds of thousands of men and women are being freed from all the evils of constipation by the regular eating of Fleischmann's Yeast. It is in no sense a purgative, and produces no sudden violent action. It must be eaten regularly to achieve results.

Eat two or three cakes a day—plain, or dissolved in water, milk or fruit juices—preferably half an hour before a meal or the last thing at night.

If you eat it plain, follow with a glass of water. Get several cakes at a time—they will keep several days in a cool, dry place. Be sure you get Fleischmann's Yeast! All grocers have it. Send for free booklet, "The New Found Value of Fleischmann's Yeast in Building Health." The Fleischmann Company, 1166 Burrard Street, Vancouver, B. C., Canada.

"Assured perfect regularity"

"Since I was eleven years old," a New Yorker wrote us recently, "I had used everything that could be suggested for constipation—without a cure. Three operations had been necessary. And then three cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast a day for a period of one month not only assured perfect regularity, but brought me back to my normal weight."
