SUBJECT: Release of Printing Machines Belonging to the Arsenal

TO: CG, I Corps, APO 301

1. The printing machines listed in the attached application are now being being stored in the shionawate school gymnasium and are the property of the arsenal. The school is very anxious to have the material moved, and this can be accomplished by returning these items to the arsenal.

2. Osaka Library and the Ministry of Finance are desirous of using this equipment in their work, and will be responsible for the maintenance of this equipment should it be requested for reparations. Both the library and the Finance Ministry use this equipment in the printing forms for taxation etc. and also publishing pamphlets and other typographical work.

3. This headquarters interposes no objection to letting the Osaka Library and the Ministry of Finance use these items temporarily.
