REPORT FOR 1903.

During the year just closing the Gwynne Temporary Home for Children has carried on the work which has been its mission for fifty-seven years.

To provide a home for little boys and girls who come to us temporarily or permanently is our aim. Through temporary cases the Home offers relief and comfort to mothers and fathers out of work or ill, by taking children from them and caring for them through crises of temporary misfortune. It is our endeavor to make the children's stay such as to be a benefit to them as well as a help to their parents. In permanent cases the Home takes children under its charge and assumes the responsibility of providing them with a suitable home. Care is taken by the managers to assure themselves that any family adopting a child is one adapted to undertaking such a charge.

The records of past years show that, in a large majority of cases, children taken from unfortunate or even vicious surroundings grow up, in their new environment, to live good clean lives.

For several years we have boarded out our very young babies. This branch of our work has proved so successful that we shall be glad to extend it as fast as our funds will allow.

We earnestly beg all those who feel an interest in our work among the children to help us to carry it on by giving as generously as they can.

Our matron has motherly oversight of the children under her care. The managers heartily thank her and her assistants. Thanks are also due to Young Men's Christian Union, Barnard Memorial, and the Country Week for kindness to the children, and to our friends and subscribers.
