BUILDING UP BUSINESS

The mission of the Glendale Evening News in Glendale is to build up a substantial and well equipped printing and publishing plant, a plant that will give excellent service to all who might wish to patronize it.

Our ambition is to do everything well, and it is not our desire to cater to the patronage that is satisfied with a poorly printed job.

We want the trade that appreciates good printing. The quality and style of printed stationery a man uses largely indicates his standing in the business world.

If any kind of smeary job of printing will suit you, there is not much pleasure in doing work for you.

We like to do printing for people who appreciate the skill of good workmen. We want the name Glendale Evening News to stand for high-class service in everything.

We now have a large number of regular customers who patronize us because they get a superior class of work.

LET A LITTLE SON SHINE IN

If perchance you see L. G. Scovern of the Scovern-Letton-Frey Undertaking company wearing a broad grin that is unseemly for one of his profession, don't judge too hastily, for the smile is all on account of the brand new son that arrived at the Scovern home, 1010 Maple avenue, this morning. The young man weighs 10½ pounds and is already asserting his rights as the first son of the family.

THE WHITE STORE UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

Frank Meneley recently sold his interests in the White Store to Ed. Clouthier, formerly of Douglas, Ariz., who is now at the helm of this busy establishment. Mr. Clouthier is a merchant of many years' experience and a native of the Golden West and will without doubt continue the business in a successful manner.

IOWANS CELEBRATE

LOYAL HAWKEYES ARE NUMEROUS IN SUNNY SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

The Iowa contingent in Southern California is never at a loss to provide well-known speakers for all occasions and can if necessary supply candidates for most of the offices as well as elect the candidates thereto. Just now interest centers in the wonderful Iowa picnic reunion to be held in Eastlake park Monday, February 22nd. This is the all-day annual gathering that calls the Hawkeyes in from all over the Southland, as well as from many parts of Iowa, and sees the biggest thing of the kind in the world. One of the main things this year will be the presence of General David James Palmer, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, who will be one of the speakers. An effort will be made to have all the old "boys" who served from Iowa meet General Palmer at the picnic and give him the greeting of his life. The plan of county registration so each may find his friends will be carried out as usual and there will also be set aside a section for the college quarters, where all the former students may meet from 3 to 4 o'clock.

All the Hawkeyes will want to come in with big baskets of old-time Iowa dinners and spend a jolly, happy day with old friends.

Glendale people will have a chance to see the stage settings and scenes at the Palace Grand tonight when real drama takes the place of pictures.

"The Tyranny of Tears," a most delightful and sparkling comedy of the emotions, is most ingeniously constructed along the simplest lines; it is a triumph of everyday life. The play is refreshing, free from theatrical expedients, and save perhaps for the somewhat accelerated wooing in act four, knots which we are accustomed to see snipped by the scissors of an erratic fate are here gently untangled by the fingers of probability. The germ of it, a matter of fortunate selection, is a human foible so universal that if a man is not conscious of it in his own proper person, he has not failed to smile over it among his neighbors; that combination of fondness and egotism out of which tyranny is legitimately born.

This is the keynote and it announces itself speedily upon the raising of the curtain, and it is never for a moment obscured afterward by those modern subtleties calculated to provoke discussion among the elect. The hearer equipped with ordinary experience finds himself listening to it with an acquiescent stream of running comment. He knows this alphabet. It spells familiar words, and they come frequent.

A sly humor runs through the piece like a warm colored thread, a humor always faithful to those universal traits that make us all akin. It asserts itself robustly from time to time, once, for a notable instance in the fact that Parbury is moderately well content in his fools paradise until Gunning appears to beckon him out of it.

The role of the worldly wise Gunning is smoothly and easily handled by Mr. Ormsby, who never for a moment fails to invest the part with a delightfully sly humor all his own; so easy and natural does this young actor appear as Gunning that it is difficult to believe other than that surely this must be the original character before us whom the playwright with his "minds eye" as he penned the lines of this delightful play.

Mr. Ormsby's supporting cast, too, is all that could be desired. Miss Katherine Wallace's Mrs. Parbury is a delightful and refreshing interpretation of a very difficult role and it is doubtful if a more charming actress could have been found for the part. Miss Woodward, the original and piquant secretary, is charmingly played by Miss Edna Thomas, a native Californian, so well and favorably known for her clever work in the "Mission Play" during its first season. The role of Parbury is taken by Mr. Pierre Hungate, an actor of undoubted ability and resourcefulness in a difficult role. Other characters are equally well portrayed by clever people and the result is an extremely well balanced company and a performance of "The Tyranny of Tears" long to be remembered by those fortunate enough to witness its presentation.

This play, presented at the beginning of the season, ran for almost two years at the theater in which it first made its appearance.

God judges the heart; man judges the dress.

DON'T ASK FOR BIDS

DON'T WANT PATRONAGE OF THOSE WHO DOUBT OUR HONESTY

The management of the Glendale Evening News wishes to state to the churches, clubs and organizations which are given the free use of the columns of the Evening News for write-ups and announcements which are for the benefit of these organizations, that he will not submit a competitive bid for doing any job printing. If any of these organizations see fit to patronize us, paying us for the work at our regular rates, which includes stock used and time spent on job, all good and well.

If after accommodating you in various ways for twelve months, you have not sufficient confidence in us to trust us to make an honest charge for work done, we do not want to do business with you.

There are a few people in this world who connect themselves with what they call philanthropic work, and then they use the prestige given them by the position they hold to procure printed stationery at starvation rates.

The Glendale Evening News does not court the patronage of such people. The farther that class of beings stay away from us the better are we pleased.

The News courts the patronage of people who appreciate good service and courteous treatment. No one is overcharged for work. Paper stock used and time spent doing the work make the price charged.

Any organization referred to above will be given an approximate estimate of the cost of a job. We are ready to do anything that is fair and reasonable. We are thankful that there is little cause in Glendale for offering the complaint as stated above.

WILL MEET IN CHURCH—OTHER NOTES GLEANED BY OUR CORRESPONDENT

The Tropico Boy Scouts of America have been granted a new headquarters in the basement of the M. E. church by Rev. Smith. Plans are rapidly progressing for the finishing of their new headquarters. Formerly they have met in the social hall, but this was not quite what the boys wanted, because the Junior League holds meetings there. All the young scouts go or belong to this church, so on Sunday mornings the boys, with their teacher and scoutmaster, Prof. J. G. Goodsell, will hold their meeting here. On Friday nights of every week they will hold a business meeting beginning at 7:45 p. m. They are expecting to co-operate with the men's Brotherhood in constructing tennis courts, basketball courts and a gymnasium. The scouts are planning to give socials and entertainments to raise enough money for completing their headquarters.

GLENDALE'S RAINFALL

From the way the clouds were gathering together at the time of going to press, it would seem that Glendale is to receive some more rain before the day is over. Mr. Bartlett reports the total for this storm to be 2.42 inches, .67 of this amount having fallen since noon yesterday. This makes a total for the season of 14.36 inches, which is considerably above the average fall to this date.

READY FOR MEETINGS

WIDELY KNOWN EVANGELISTS ARE HERE FOR FINAL PREPARATIONS

(By Rev. J. H. Troy)

Rev. W. E. Edmonds, chairman of the executive committee of the Brown and Curry meetings to commence in Glendale next Sunday evening, recently received a letter from Rev. A. G. Fessenden, pastor First Presbyterian church, San Bernardino, where Brown and Curry held meetings before going to Long Beach. The letter speaks in glowing terms of the ability and success of the famous evangelistic team, as many as 250 men taking a stand for Christ at one service. A part of the letter reads:

"Brown and Curry are very able men. Brown has a splendid balance. He is a sane fellow and while he hits hard, there is a kindness about it all that gives him great influence over those who come.

"We hope to keep the tabernacle for another meeting in the fall, and I for one am in favor of having them back again."

Coming back is the regular thing with Brown and Curry, which goes to show how gratifying and permanent the results of their work. Thousands will learn to love these two noble, consecrated men during their sojourn here, and many will come to refer to the blessed occasion of their visit as the brightest spot in their lives.

Members of the music committee will do well to keep in close touch with the singers and to continue an aggressive campaign for a big showing Sunday afternoon at 2:30, when Mr. Curry will be on hand to meet the chorus. There may be a few singers waiting to be asked to join.

Judged by the announcements in the columns of the Glendale Evening News, the prayer meeting committee headed by Rev. Willisford of the First Congregational church is conducting an extensive prayer circle in all sections of the revival area, and too much cannot be said along the line of the importance of this work. Prevailing prayer is the greatest need of the church. The place of prayer in the local churches will find every earnest Christian present this evening.

NORTH GLENDALE

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stanton of Arden avenue will be very glad to hear that Mrs. Stanton's mother, Mrs. Rogers, who resides with her daughter, is slowly recovering from a very serious illness of several weeks' duration and although very feeble, is able to see her friends for a very short time.

Mr. J. Dunn and family have returned from Coachella valley, where Mr. Dunn has been overseeing his extensive ranch property, and they are now visiting Mrs. Dunn's sister, Mrs. K. Hall of 1633 Ruth street.

Mrs. D. A. Watt of 1311 Valley View road, with her sisters, Mrs. W. W. Dobbins, Miss Maude Wilson and Miss Mattie Wilson, who are the house guests of Mrs. Watt at the present time, enjoyed a trip to San Gabriel Monday, witnessing the famous "Mission Play" while there.

Dr. Anna Josselyn, osteopathic physician, has leased a suite in the De Luxe apartments, Second street and Brand boulevard, and will occupy the same for an office and private apartment. Dr. Josselyn has for the past year lived in the home of her sister, Mrs. Kearns, on North Maryland avenue, and has many friends in this vicinity who wish her success in her new location.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl M. Mertens of 1109 North Louise street attended a descriptive picture lecture on the Yosemite valley at the Mozart theater in Los Angeles Tuesday evening.

Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Clem Brubaker entertained a party of friends at their attractive home on Patterson street. Progressive Five Hundred was played, four tables being used, and an exciting game was enjoyed. Delicious refreshments were served by the charming hostess at 11 o'clock to the following guests who had the pleasure of the delightful occasion: Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Maranville, Mr. and Mrs. J. Duane Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kimmell, Mr. and Mrs. William Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rathbone and Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Eastman, all of North Glendale.

HUMAN LIFE CHEAP

The awful suffering and death of Callaghan in Sunday's races should cause the public to pause and reflect and decide whether the game is worth the candle. In what way is humanity benefited or what good cause is promoted by this unnecessary risk of human life.

I have looked in vain for a protest from our moralists or ministers. Why has it been withheld? Is it because the amusement is so popular and there is so much money in it

WELL TRAINED INK

A short time ago a man walked into an office in Los Angeles. He was a vendor of ink. He showed the president and secretary of the company a bottle of ink, which he guaranteed to be the "ne plus ultra" of all inks made.

The American people have let it be known to political leaders that they want political action to be progressive, moderated with deliberation, but having the "punch" to it.

People Judge the Wealth of a Town

by its banks. If they are located in modern buildings, well equipped to give first-class service to their depositors and well organized to insure safety, people speak of such a city as a rich and prosperous one.

The First National Bank of Glendale has had a most successful growth and offers its depositors every advantage and convenience of a metropolitan bank, but could be a still greater factor in the upbuilding of Glendale, if every Glendale citizen transacted his or her banking business in Glendale, for the reason that the funds of this bank are loaned to Home People on Home Securities and are at all times engaged in the upbuilding of local interests.

PLAN BRILLIANT AFFAIR

The General Richard Gridley chapter, D. A. R., are meeting today with Mrs. T. W. Preston, 725 Adams street and are enjoying a fine program, Prof. Harry L. Howe giving the principal address of the afternoon.

EXCELLENT P. T. A. PROGRAM

The following program will be given by the Intermediate Parent-Teacher association on Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the Third street school, and will be in charge of Mrs. Vivian R. Webb, chairman of patriotism:

MODERN CITY AND TOWN PLANNING

City and town planning conserves human energy and protects life, especially child life. It fosters economy and introduces a scientific reality into a definite scheme of orderly development. Results in a material saving in the cost of all public improvements. Correlates various activities. Encourages commercial activities. Preserves historic buildings and sites.

SANITATION IN GREAT ARMIES

Ruthless and appalling as the great war is, viewed even in its least horrible aspects, there is one ray of light "mid 'the encircling gloom"—that is, the excellent sanitation on the firing line. It is little short of miraculous that such vast bodies of men should be so exposed to the elements in the dead of winter, under constant nervous tension, without fearful epidemics breaking out and decimating the armies.

BREAD UPON THE WATERS

The cost of business publicity does not properly belong in the expense account of any merchant; it is an investment which will return as bread upon the waters, if only it is done with care and by continuous effort.

A merchant's advertising must be done with the same care and constant attention that is given to his other investments, otherwise the cost may become an expense rather than an investment and the money expenditures may become a dead loss after a period of neglect.

But there is no form of investment that will bring a larger percentage of profit to the business man who really has attractive offers to make to the people than judicious advertising. This is a rule to which there are no exceptions.

In Los Angeles the most successful merchant is the most liberal advertiser. He employs a corps of highly skilled ad writers who keep the attractions of the merchandise he has to sell constantly before the public. It pays him big returns, and he attributes his prosperity to his judicious advertising.

There is little travel to the store which does not offer special inducements to the public. Get the people in the way of going to your store. You MUST get them there somehow, else you cannot sell to them, and there is no way to do that so cheaply and so effectively as by the offering of inducements through the columns of a daily newspaper which is taken and read by the people of your city.

Consider your own faults and you will see less of others' faults.

The Philathea class of the First Methodist church held a very pleasant meeting Monday evening at the home of Miss Elsie Thede, 221 South Isabel street. A most enjoyable picnic supper came first at 6:30 and after that the time was given over to a business meeting. There were thirteen of the class present.

The legislative section of the Tuesday Afternoon club has been very fortunate in securing Mrs. E. K. Foster to address them at their next regular meeting on the "Personnel of Our Present Legislature." Mrs. Foster is at Sacramento at present lobbying in the interest of the bills favoring women and children.

The Cinderella Sewing club was very happily entertained by Mrs. H. V. Everly of Oak street this time, and a very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by the ladies of the club and by their special guests, Mrs. Blake Franklin and Mrs. Mable Ocher. The Valentine idea was carried out very prettily in pink hearts and flowers and the dainty two-course luncheon. There was also a heart game in which Mrs. L. H. Frazee won the prize, and the rest of the afternoon was passed in needlework and conversation.

Mrs. William Harvey of 151 West Tropic avenue entertained the Tropic Bridge-Luncheon club on Tuesday. Mrs. Herbert Smith of Tropic was the special guest of the day. Violets were the flowers used and a low bowl of the dainty blossoms

The "county fair" held at the high school on Friday and Saturday of last week was a decided financial success, the young people having cleared over $240.

Dr. Anna R. Joselynn, an osteopath physician, has taken a suite of rooms in the De Luxe apartments at Second street and Brand boulevard and will take up practice in Glendale. Dr. Joselynn's work is well known to Dr. T. C. Young and others of this city and will no doubt meet with the success it so well deserves.

P. E. DONATES CROSSINGS

Frank Carr, attorney for the Pacific Electric, has assured City Manager T. W. Watson of Glendale that there will be no expense to the property owners as far as the Pacific Electric company is concerned in acquiring the crossings over the right-of-way at Seventh and Chestnut streets on Brand. Within ten days Mr. Carr states he will prepare an easement for the city of Glendale for street purposes for the same.

Property owners in the Lomita park district were under the impression that they would be assessed in order to acquire these crossings, but Mr. Carr assures Mr. Watson this will not be the case.

A girl, reading in a paper that fish was excellent brain-food, wrote to the editor:

To this the editor replied: "Dear Miss: Judging from the composition of your letter, I would advise you to eat a whale."—Tit-Bits.

WANT CLUBHOUSE

One hundred and fourteen users of the golf links and other facilities at Griffith park have petitioned the park commission to make provision for a clubhouse at the golf links. The commission at its last meeting decided to ask the city council to give this consideration in the preparation of the 1915-16 budget.

Only one bid was received for the refectory concession at the golf links that being an offer to pay $11 per month for this privilege. The commission decided this was not sufficient to warrant the necessary expenditure on the "ramada" to put it into condition for such purpose and rejected the bid.

THE REASON WHY
Do you know that practically every article of your wearing apparel was sewn on a SINGER Machine? De-partment Stores use SINGER Ma-chines in their Factories and Fitting Rooms.

Ask your modiste, your corsetiere, your shoemaker, your furrier, what sewing machines they use. They will say "THE SINGER." "There's a reason"—superior excellence. Possibly you have an old sewing machine or one that is not satisfac-tory. Do you know that a fair al-lowance will be made for it in ex-change for an up-to-date SINGER at the Singer Store, 1020 West Broad-way? E. J. Upham, Sunset phone 656W.

Every resource of government, state and national, should be brought into play to prevent the inflation of food prices burdensomely.
