

PERMITS TO DATE

APRIL SHOWS ITS USUAL LIMITED NUMBER OF HOUSES ERECTED

April has never been distinguished by the number of its permits. The first rush of building in March seems to exhaust for a time at least the building enterprise of the city. In the year 1914 there were 16 permits up to this date and their value was only $7195. That was by no means a bad showing for that month, as the next year, 1915, showed up to the same date only $530 and a total for the whole month of $9115.

April 1916 would have been a very poor showing up to date—only $825—were it not for the fact that one building alone, the Christian Science church, has a value of $8000. That will keep this April well ahead for some time. Altogether there are eight permits this month so far. Of course it is quite possible that there may be a great many more and there are reports that there is to be a good deal of building before long, so that as far as it has gone April is keeping up the hopes of everyone interested in seeing the city advance.

Following are the permits:

F. H. Sanford is erecting a garage at 117 N. Maryland at a cost of $50.

W. D. Clark is taking down an old building and reconstructing it at 1122 West Seventh street, at a cost of $150.

C. Farnham is building a garage at 528 S. Jackson street, at a cost of $50.

F. H. Houseman is building an addition at 410 W. Ninth street, at a cost of $375. May Brothers are the contractors.

C. M. Good is building at 695 S. Louise, a garage at a cost of $10.

The First Church of Christ, Scientist, has begun the construction of a very handsome frame building for church purposes at the corner of Maryland and Second. The cost of this building is $8000. It will have ten-rooms and will be one-story in height. Retts & Boyd are the contractors.

J. E. Aycock is building an addition at 504 Chestnut street at a cost of $10.

P. G. Martland is building a garage at 407 Geneva street at a cost of $100.

GET CHEAPER WATER

Since the annexation of the Remington district to Glendale the people of that section who had been supplied with city water before the annexation have been enjoying the exceedingly reasonable rates of the city. This is an immense advantage to them and they are appreciative of it. The other residents of the district who are at present supplied with water from other sources are anxious to make an exchange.

The Public Service Department of Glendale has now received seven carloads of the 20-inch pipe, which is being laid on Doran street. Five other carloads are on their way. Already 400 feet of this 20-inch pipe has been laid. The work has proceeded slowly as it has not been possible to put a full gang on but that will shortly be remedied and the work will be very rapidly pushed to completion.

SUBERB LOCAL FLORAL PRODUCT

It would be difficult to surpass in beauty, size and color, the magnificent Ulrich Bruner roses, produced by the Boal Specialty Rose Farm, 510 Rock Glen avenue, a large group of which may be seen in the window of the Glendale Evening News office. These wonderful blooms are ample evidence of what can be done with the prolific Glendale soil with knowledge and a little work. The owner of the farm, M. E. Boal, makes specialties of Ulrich Bruner and Cecile Bruner roses.

GLENDALE FLOWER SHOW

The live interest that is being taken in the Glendale Flower Show, which is to be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, under the auspices of the Glendale Garden society, is evidence that the event is meeting with the approval of the people of this community. A free flower show is something very unique for this section of the San Fernando valley.

FIVE SPECIAL NUMBERS

There will be an extra large distribution of the Evening News Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. The publication each day will comprise eight pages, and will be chock full of local reading matter and attractive advertisements.

FLOWERS AT LIBRARY

MRS. DANFORD GIVES INSTRUCTIVE TALK TO AUDIENCE OF CHILDREN

In connection with the work that is now being done to stimulate a love for flowers and gardening in the hearts of the young, Mrs. Danford, the librarian of Glendale library, inaugurated a series of talks on natural science, which will continue through the story hour when the vacation begins. Saturday more than fifty children were present to hear the lecture on wild flowers, which was illustrated by a large collection of wild flowers indigenous to Glendale, which was collected by the children themselves and was classified by Mrs. Sarah McLeab Mullen, who kindly gave her services for this purpose.

More than seventy varieties were brought in by the children and after Mrs. Mullen had classified and named the flowers Miss Ormsby of the Glendale schools gave a talk on the wild flowers and their properties. In speaking of the collection before the children Mrs. Mullen told them of many others that are both interesting and rare that might be found by a little search. Mrs. Mullen and Miss Ormsby also spoke of the medicinal and domestic properties of various plants and shrubs of the neighborhood.

Not a little was contributed to the success of the demonstration by the collection of wild flowers that had been made by Paul Fromm, of E. Third street, and loaned to the library for the occasion. Paul is a little boy of about 12 years who has taken much pains to make a collection for competition in the Flower show. This collection, neatly arranged on cards, was spread out on the table rack for the children to study. Mrs. Mullen then named the flowers. Each child was presented with a carnation as a souvenir of the occasion and invited to return to these study and story hours when they are resumed.

Mrs. Danford also informed the children that as the library had purchased a new encyclopedia that the old one was to be placed on the children's shelves and that they would find it of valuable assistance in their studies. She then took the volumes and instructed the children in their use. The children were delighted with the new acquisition.

There has been a growing interest in the library and its valuable work on the part of the children who are beginning to realize that they have here an important assistance for the work they are doing at school. It is anticipated that there will be an increased attendance at the summer study hour this summer.

Interment will be in Forest Lawn cemetery. The funeral arrangements are in charge of the Jewel City Undertaking company.

MANY UNITED STATES RESIDENTS IN JUAREZ WHO KNEW MEXICAN LEADER LEAVE FOR CHIHUAHUA

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
EL PASO, April 17.—A train which left Juarez this morning conveyed a large number of Americans to Chihuahua. There they will meet the train which is bringing the body which is supposed to be that of Villa to that city. The body will be exhibited in public and every means for its identification employed. The people in Chihuahua, who have always been greatly devoted to Villa, are indignant and in a great state of excitement.

CRISIS BETWEEN GREECE AND THE TEUTONS

ALLIES' TRANSPORTATION OF SERVIAN TROOPS ACROSS GREEK TERRITORY ANGERS GERMANS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LONDON, April 17.—A new crisis has arisen in Athens as the result of the Allies' transportation of the newly equipped Servian troops across Greek territory. The Servian troops were being conveyed from the island of Corfu, a British base, where they had been re-equipped and given a complete rest. It was expected that they would be conveyed to Saloniki by sea; but the French and British resolved to land them on the Greek coast and convey them by rail to their destination, because they feared that the troopships might be submarined. The Germans have represented to Greece that they regard that country's permission of this transportation as an unfriendly act.

AVIATORS BOMBARD GERMAN WARSHIPS

FRENCH AIRMEN SHOW GREAT ACTIVITY BOTH ON SEA AND ALSO IN VERDUN REGION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PARIS, April 17.—French aviators have been particularly active on sea within the past few days. This morning they located some German warships in the North sea and immediately gave chase to them. The aviators descended to within 100 meters of the warships and dropped sixteen bombs. The warships managed to avoid them. French aviators also bombarded the German positions at Verdun. There have been no infantry attacks on either side at Verdun during the past few days.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
SAN ANTONIO, Texas, April 17.—Confirmation of the report that Villa is dead is lacking. Gen. Funston has ordered Gen. Pershing to send a sufficient detachment of troops to beat up the mountainous region west of Parral, where the bandit is said to be residing.

RESERVE RATIONS FOR AMERICAN SOLDIERS

COMMISSARIAT DEPARTMENT ISSUES SURPLUS PROVISIONS TO TROOPS IN MEXICO

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
COLUMBUS, N. M., April 17.—Reserve rations have been issued to Gen. Pershing's troops in Mexico. The expedition is but poorly supplied in this respect and up to this point has been living from hand to mouth. Provisions have not been easily obtained from the natives. The rations provided will be enough to last till May 15. The commissariat department calls this a "precautionary measure."

GEN. PERSHING GOES TO IDENTIFY BODY

AMERICAN LEADER WILL MEET SUPPOSED VILLA CORPSE AT CUSHUIRACHIC ON FUNSTON'S ORDERS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
SAN ANTONIO, Texas, April 17.—Gen. Pershing left for Cushuirachic this morning for the purpose of identifying, if possible, the body said to be that of Villa. It is hoped that he will be able to give Gen. Funston definite information regarding the identity of the body.

DEMONSTRATE ENGINE

GLENDALE FIRE CHIEF AND CITY OFFICIALS VIEW POWERFUL MACHINE

The city of Pasadena has purchased a new Seagrave 750-gallon, centrifugal pump engine, for fire protection purposes. This puts that city in possession of four of such engines and adds greatly to the safety of property there. Knowing that Glendale is much in need of some such protection Mr. Fred Hirsch, Los Angeles agent for the Seagrave firm, bethought him of bringing the new engine round by way of Glendale to show it to the fire department and city officials here.

The engine was brought out Saturday and Fire Chief Lankford, Captain Emil Schroeder and other members of the fire department, along with the newly elected councilmen Jackson, Muhleman and Woodberry, inspected the engine and saw it in action. When attached to one of the hydrants, which under ordinary conditions develops a pressure of 42 pounds, the Seagrave pump developed a pressure of 225 pounds, sufficient to throw a powerful jet of water over any fire.

BARACA CAMPING TRIP

Under the supervision of their teacher, Harry Chase, the members of the Junior Baraca class of the First Baptist Sunday school enjoyed a very pleasing camping trip, throughout the week-end. The party went in automobiles about eight miles up the canyon, Saturday afternoon. Sunday school was held Sunday morning at the camp. A number of the party came back to Glendale Sunday evening while the rest of the campers will remain until Tuesday. The whole party enjoyed the magnificent scenery of the mountains and the silver stretches of the San Gabriel river. Nowhere are the scenic beauties of Southern California visible to greater effect than in this beautiful canyon.

Those who took part in the camping trip were: Earl Brown, John Losh, Harold Latter, Martin Abarta, Milton Brown, Robert Abarta, Ralph Dodsworth, Russell Stanton, Fred Sanford, Ed Seay, Hugh Freeman, Sloan Freeman and their teacher, Harry Chase.

"OH THE BEAUTIFUL HILLS"

By SAMUEL PARKER

Editor Glendale News:—The incidental publication by Mr. Gilhausen in the News, the other day, of this grand old song, "Beautiful Hills," brought to me a real pleasure, in the "revival" of the associations from memory of half a century ago, when uplifting songs like this, written and sung by poets like J. G. Clark, the Hutchinson family, and others, gave words and music a dignity, lifting both high in art as factors in creating genuine love for nature and in the family and social circles. Create and cultivate these more tender ties and feelings, the outgrowth of sentimental songs.

A happier combination of loftiest moral sentiment and love of nature in her most charming moods could hardly be found, than in this song, "Beautiful Hills" of Clark, and he wrote others equally good, notably, "Rock of Liberty," as full of patriotism as Smith's "America." My "memory" review of these masterpieces (suggested by Mr. Gilhausen) I do not recall a single song by any of these earlier song writers that was trivial, frothy, foolish or suggestive. I wish I could say as much of the songs in use today, which seem to get most use and eclat from the vaudeville stage, at the expense of higher ideals, surcharged with teachings of some possibly practical use at some point in lives lighted by desire to be useful.

But, really, I set out in this, mainly with the thought to suggest what a concert of the old-time songs could be arranged for by the musical talent in this city so full of it. What a compliment it would be to the memory of the old masters and what an audience would respond to such an announcement.

LITERARY SECTION

The Literary Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club will meet with Mrs. C. E. Anderson, 201 N. Louise, Tuesday afternoon. The afternoon will be given over to Biblical literature. Mrs. Adams will have a paper on the influence of the Bible on Civilization. There will be a paper on the Bible in the making in the light of modern research. Mrs. I. H. Durfee will discuss Bible stories and teaching for children.

VALLEY ASSOCIATION

IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY HOLDS INTERESTING AND SUCCESSFUL MEETING

La Canada association held a very successful meeting Saturday evening, in the association hall. The hall was crowded with an interested audience. The Rev. Mr. Brooks, chairman of the association, presided. Among the business of the evening was a report on the condition of Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan, who made a profound impression on the La Canada people at an entertainment she gave there some time ago. It was unanimously resolved that a letter of condolence should be sent to Mrs. Sloan on behalf of the association. It was also agreed that they would purchase tickets for Mrs. Sloan's production of "Ben Hur" whenever she is able to put on that presentation.

Miss Dawson of Los Angeles sang several songs, which were heartily applauded and a vote of thanks was tendered her for her services.

Mr. St. Clair, of the Glendale Evening News, gave an address on "Life in Alaska." The lecturer gave a graphic description of the vast territory acquired by the United States almost fifty years ago. He told of its enormous area, 590,000 square miles; of its varied climates; of its vast natural resources in gold and other precious metals and also in coal, oil, timber and fisheries. He gave a description of mining life in the Nome region and told of the vicissitudes and hardships of mining life in the days of 1900 and the succeeding seven years. The lecturer received a hearty reception and an enthusiastic vote of thanks.

SINGLE TAX MEETINGS

Two very appreciative assemblies met Saturday afternoon and evening at the Robinson home on Maryland avenue to discuss the prime cause of lack of employment, and poverty. The arguments of the speakers tended to demonstrate that idle lots and acres caused idle men. Five-billion-dollar holdings meant disinherited millions of people. Lands held at a prohibitive price send crowds to the cities looking for jobs at wages lowered to the starvation limit.

It was pointed out that the loosening up of the lands for public occupation would draw off the surplus of unemployed from the cities and place them where they could live comfortably on their own lands. Various speakers showed that the only way to investigate under the title deeds to the vacant lands held for speculation was by increasing the tax on those lands until the owners could no longer afford to hold them idle. Such a tax, it was shown, by making all taxes on homes, store buildings, pianos, stationary tubs etc., unnecessary, would be the single tax.

The speakers were: Edgcomb Pinchon, E. E. Kirk, G. W. Patterson, and Dr. Ada Patterson. A number of the audience signed the petition for a single tax amendment. Six took petitions to get signatures. Other meetings are to follow at the homes of Miss Edith Tyler on Maryland avenue and of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Durham, W. Seventh street.

WHITTON CONFECTIONARY CHANGES OWNERSHIP

Saturday of last week Geo. Whitton sold his confectionary at 411 Brand Blvd. to Mrs. E. T. Otis, N. E. Otis and Mrs. L. G. Spink, all of Portland, Oregon, the new owners taking immediate possession of the establishment. The Whitton Confectionary had been built up by Mr. and Mrs. Whitton to the leading sweet shop in the valley, and it is the policy of the new owners to continue to merit the patronage of the public and to make certain improvements, such as free delivery of all phone orders and to extend the ice cream and candy business. The name of the place has been changed to the "Dolly Varden" Confectionary and the new owners promise to conduct a first class sweet shop.

AMERICAN GAME CONDITIONS

Nothing can be more widely different than the game laws of Britain and the game laws of the United States; yet recently a San Francisco newspaper advocated that the Fish and Game Commission should study game conditions under the Scottish practice of breeding and killing game, presumably with a view to the adoption of some such system.

Britain's game preserve system is the modified inheritance of past ages. The Normans introduced the most severe game laws ever known. It was death to kill a deer and death to shoot a partridge in the preserved forests.

Fifty years ago a man could be transported for life for shooting a hare or snaring a few partridges. The English squire was at once owner of the game and judge of the poacher.

Up to the end of the eighteenth century the common law of Great Britain was framed "for the preservation of deer and game for the recreation of persons of fortune and of preventing persons of inferior rank from squandering, in pursuit of game, time, which their stations in life required to be more profitably employed."

In Great Britain "The right to take or kill wild animals is treated as a profit incidental to the ownership or occupation of the land on which they are found, and there is no public right to take them on private land or even on a highway, nor is there any method known to law where the public at large, or an undefined body of persons, can lawfully acquire the right to take wild animals in land belonging to another person."

The drastic laws of Britain supported this absurd contention for centuries. Pursuit of game on another man's land rendered the pursuer liable criminally and civilly. The owners, occupiers and gamekeepers on the land where game is preserved had the right to arrest. To kill deer is a felony even in the act of 1861.

It is laws such as these that certain American newspapers are recommending to the country at present. The old countries indeed preserve the game and the fish far better than the people of the United States have done but the "common people" get none of the game and but little of the fish.

While the United States has much need to enact stringent laws for the protection of game and fish of all kinds and while it would have been better for the food problem of the land had that been done long ago, the people have need to watch lest the English system of protecting game and fish for landlords alone creep in.

PROTECTING ADVERTISED ARTICLES

Can a buyer of advertised goods do as he pleases with them. That question is seriously agitating the business world throughout the country at the present moment. Decisions in the United States Supreme court and the lower Federal courts, under the Sherman law, prohibit maintenance of resale prices, as a contract in restraint of trade.

Very recently, however, United States Judge Hough rendered a decision in this disputed field of regulating trade that interests advertisers and manufacturers of all sorts. The manager of a chain of price-cutting stores was refused certain goods when he applied to the manufacturers. He took the case to the courts to compel them to sell to him.

One would think at first sight that a buyer could resell goods as he pleased. It seems reasonable to say that the goods belong to the man who purchases them after he has paid for them.

In the case of special articles that have a national reputation established by a long course of expensive advertising which has been paid for by the manufacturer it would be manifestly unjust to permit purchasers of such goods to sell them at prices less than those the manufacturer charges.

By running this below-cost sale long enough to make every other dealer stop handling the articles he might ruin the manufacturer. Purchasing dealers would turn their attention to some rival product, which the price-cutter is not cutting. Suddenly the price-cutter drops his cutting. The public drops buying the article, but the original manufacturer finds that his field is gone.

Judge Hough declares that the owner of goods that have been widely advertised and are known to be sold at a certain standard price cannot be compelled to sell to a corporation which by cutting prices is really acting against the interests of the manufacturer.

inheres only in its lawful trade mark. Anyone can make the same article, but may not sell it under the trade-mark name, the chief value of which comes from a long term of expensive advertising.

This seems a just decision. The man or company who creates a demand for a certain article has a right to the financial reward he has earned and ought not to be compelled to ruin his own business to please a single customer. It secures to the advertiser rights which no unfair competitor may secure.

GAS SAVERS

An old saucepan lid, put over the iron when it is heated on the gas stove, will make it become hot in half the time.

A small cushion, covered with some strong material and kept handy near the gas stove, can be put on covered saucepans while contents are boiling, and this means more concentrated heat and less gas. In cooking a boiled pudding or making soups and stews, bring to the boil, lower the smallest gas ring "to a bead" and put the cushion on top of lid. The food then boils briskly all the morning and cannot boil over or burn. An old cozy can be used for the kettle in the same way, says an English contributor.

A sheet of tin, or the oven shelf, put over a gas ring, will heat several irons at the same time.

INEXPENSIVE HATS

A famous house where hats are a great feature have decided to show this season only inexpensive hats, to copy reasonably what they have got over from Paris, and to offer a much bigger range in the type of hat known as semi-trimmed. By the way, writes the Gentlewoman, London, these simple hats are benefiting immensely from the soft-textured straws; indeed, they entered on a new era when a certain well-known manufacturing firm launched, a year or so back, a straw in which a mixture of wool gave a charmingly soft, becoming texture, and demonstrated with emphasis how the hat that is very simple, in which the drawing of the shape is left clear, should have its surface or texture soft and sympathetic.

Miss Fredonia Borthick of West Seventh street, who is an instructor in the Los Angeles city schools, is spending her vacation week at Glenn ranch, in the San Bernardino mountains.

Miss Sierra Richardson, a member of the Sierra club, is enjoying a four days' hike in the San Bernardino mountains. Miss Lillian Easton, Miss Lefton and Miss Margaret Knepper accompanied Miss Richardson.

EASTER WEEK AT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

The first of the special services will be held tomorrow evening at 7:45 o'clock, with Rev. J. H. Lash of Pasadena as speaker. All services yesterday were well attended. The pastor made an earnest plea for a life of deeper consecration at the morning service.

Mr. W. B. Weber and Mr. Herbert Wood of Los Angeles at the evening service gave a remarkable account of their wonderful conversions. Both of these men had been born slaves of sin but were saved by Jesus Christ. Wood two and a half years ago was "down and out," today he is giving much time to religious work. Through the generosity of a man in Pasadena, Mr. Wooy is going to enter school and prepare for mission work.

HER GIFT TO THE WORLD

A tribute to Mrs. Isabelle Hoffman, who died April 12, 1916, by a friend.

We laud the men who with their life, Have caused their names to shine In the halls of fame, after the strife, And honored to the end of time;

And we praise the men who with their gold, Have comforted human woe;

Who have stooped to lift a fallen man From the depths, where he'd fallen so low.

True, these are worthy our honor and praise;

All the love our hearts can give, And in our memory write their names As long as we shall live; But the world is crying for other gifts As it trudges along the way;

'Tis a smile and a cheery word that lifts The burdens we bear today.

And this was her gift to all she knew, A bright and cheery word; No doubt, she had sorrows all her own.

But of these we never heard. So our tribute we bring to this mother and wife,

And all honor to her name, For the gift of a bright and sunny life,

Is more than wealth or fame. Mrs. W. R. Berry, Glendale, Apr. 14, 1916.

WEATHER FORECAST—Unsettled tonight and Tuesday; south-westerly winds.

GLENDALE FOOTHILLS

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hewitt, 728 N. Louise street, were among the numerous guests at the home of Mr. C. M. Walker, of Walkerville, Canada, who has a large residence in Pasadena, presided over by some of his female relatives.

Mrs. Hartley, manager of the new branch office of the Glendale laundry, which Mr. Hewitt has installed on W. Seventh street, Los Angeles, in the fashionable Westlake district, reports that business is remarkably good. Incidentally Glendale is getting an excellent ad through this new establishment.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wouters, of N. Central avenue, who recently went north to Monterey for a three weeks' vacation, received notice by telegram shortly after their arrival there that Mrs. Wouters' father, had fallen on the ice at Chicago and seriously injured himself. They were compelled to cancel their reservations at the hotel and hasten to Chicago. Monterey hotel is filled with guests and it is difficult to get rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis Beck of Kenneth road were among those who attended the opening of the new Presbyterian church at Burbank Sunday morning. The new building takes the place of the church recently burned down. The Rev. Robert Freeman of Pasadena preached the dedicatory sermon.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Dorothy Matthiesen, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Matthiesen, 702 W. Fifth street, celebrated her first birthday, Sunday afternoon. The Matthiesen home was beautifully decorated with red roses and yellow chicadees. A large yellow chicken was suspended by means of red ribbons above the table. One of the forms of entertainment was an Easter egg hunt on the lawn. The children who were Miss Dorothy's guests all helped to blow out the solitary candle that adorned the birthday cake. Those present were:

Lucille McNeely, Harriet Cammack, Lazina Thede, Marian Clewett, Robert Clewett, Phillip Goff, William Goff, Esther McNeely, Arthur Raymond Tarr. Mrs. Matthiesen was assisted in entertaining the youthful guests by Mrs. Fred Tarr.

Seaman, a most popular and entertaining reader, will give a paper on "Pictorial Photography." A paper on "California Resources" will be read by Miss Cora Hickman. Mrs. W. W. Hamilton of West Tenth street is spending a few weeks in Berkeley and visiting her daughter, Miss Pauline Hamilton, who is a student at Mills College.

The Tropico Thursday club is arranging to give a dancing party in the near future.

Mrs. R. C. Kennedy of West Tenth street is entertaining as her house guests this week her mother and sister, Mrs. Harriet Weir of Long Beach and Miss Gertrude Weir of Santa Barbara.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The quarterly Communion service was administered at this church Sunday morning by Rev. W. E. Edmonds, assisted by Rev. F. A. Field and a large number of elders. Previous to the administration of the Sacraments a number of new members were taken into the church, both by Baptism and Confession, and by letters from other churches.

ALCOHOL FOR MOTORS

A recent newspaper report from Madison, Wisconsin, holds out hope of cheap fuel for autos, as a substitute for "gas."

"That grain alcohol may be used as a substitute for gasoline, because of the soaring price of the latter, is predicted by Howard F. Weiss, director of the Forest Products Laboratory here.

The government has been conducting experiments along this line for the last three years. Gasoline is selling at from 27 cents to 30 cents in New York. Grain alcohol can be produced at from 13 cents to 15 cents a gallon.

Mr. Weiss is submitting the complete details of the results of the experiments to the Federal Government and also to large manufacturers in the United States. From one ton of sawdust the laboratory produced 25 gallons of 95 per cent alcohol.

What will S. O. do about it?

Napoleon was a penniless second lieutenant in 1785; in 1804 he was crowned an emperor.

WEEDING THE HOUSE

"Once a month or so," said an efficient housekeeper, "I weed my house, just as carefully as I weed my garden in spring and summer. I feel that the one thing that makes home least restful and charming is the accumulation of small useless things in its corners and on its walls. Piles of magazines and papers appear on tables and book shelves. The desk gets choked up with pamphlets, notices, answered letters and catalogues. Worn out gloves that will never be donned again remain in bureau drawers, and emptied bottles are allowed to stay and take up shelf room.

"As I say, I weed. I take a big waste basket and go around the house, discarding all the unnecessary things I can find. Many closets are cluttered up with old shoes—replaced by new ones, but not banished; garments that will probably never be used again and that might be doing some one else good if wisely given; hat boxes with no hats in them; calendars with last year's dates on them; a thousand and one weeds that should be rooted out, leaving room for things in actual use."

STOOD UP TO BE COUNTED

A good omen for the suffrage vote in Iowa, in June, 1916, is the fact that after an equal franchise sermon, 90 per cent of the men and 95 per cent of the women present in the Des Moines Congregational church on March 12 stood up to be counted for suffrage.

VALLEY VIEW

Mrs. H. W. James, who recently moved back to Balboa to join her husband, a P. E. mortuary, was here this week to visit her mother, Mrs. Sibley, 1521 Penn street.
Mrs. C. M. Black of 1618 West Fifth street, is entertaining old friends, a Mr. Emerson and wife of Peoria, Ill.
Wild oats covers the vacant lots and parkways along Vine and other streets in this section. It is a pity they could not be gotten rid of before they ripen and cast their seed.

A 14-foot spite fence recently erected on West Fifth street by a cross grained foreigner who despises the land that gives him shelter and sustenance and refuses to even consider taking out citizenship papers, is strongly condemned by nearby residents. It is a sad pity that California is so far behind many Eastern states in having no law against the erection of such monstrosities.

Ed Owen, who moved about 2 months ago from 1444 West Colorado to a small ranch near Ivanhoe, moved again this week, to a place on Arden avenue.

A Los Angeles milk company retailing milk in Glendale is proving a public nuisance. Its obsolete auto trucks make as much noise as an ordinary threshing machine and wake the residents with their horrible noises from midnight on to 5 o'clock. Valley View residents protest.

J. E. Bellue has traded his property at 1641 Oak for a place at 1452 Myrtle and they moved Saturday.

F. C. Herron, 1440 Vine street, was called to Missouri Saturday by news of the fatal illness of his father.

ON THE SPRING

Where'er the oak's thick branches stretch
A broader, browner shade,
Where'er the rude and moss-grown beech
O'er-canopies the glade,
Beside some water's rushy brink
With me the Muse shall sit and think
(At ease reclined in rustic state)
How vain the ardor of the Crowd,
How low, how little are the Proud,
How indigent the great!

Still is the toiling hand of Care;
The panting herds repose:
Yet hark, how through the peopled air
The busy murmur glows!
The insect-youth are on the wing,
Eager to taste the honeyed spring,
And float amid the liquid noon:
Some lightly o'er the current skim,
Some show their gayly-gilded trim
Quick-glancing to the sun.
—Thomas Gray.

THE CASTLE BY THE SEA

Saw'st thou a castle fair?
Yon castle by the sea;
Golden and rosy there,
The clouds float gorgeously.

And faint it would descend
Into a wave below,
And faint it would soar and blend
With the evening's crimson glow.

Yon castle have I viewed,
Yon castle by the sea;
The moon above it stood
And the mists hung heavily.

The wind and the heaving sea,
Sounded they fresh and strong?
From the hall came notes of glee,
Harping the festive song?
—Johann Ludwig Uhland.

SWEET-SMELLING SACHETS

For a pretty gift is a set of tiny, heart-shaped sachets arranged on ribbon ends knotted together. This set comes in a miniature hatbox. The sachets are detachable from their ribbons, and are intended for lingerie. Little boxes to hold these sachets may be made for the dressing table by simply covering any small box of wood or pasteboard with a bit of silk or brocade.
Sachet pillows to tuck under one's bed pillows are about six or seven inches square, usually made of satin. When made for gifts, three of one tint are correct. These are delightful when filled with balsam, as they provide an outdoor fragrance.

HE'S INCONSISTENT
The Old Married One—You will learn my dear, that men are most contrary creatures.
The Young Married One—Oh, I know that already.
The Old Married One—Indeed?
The Young Married One—Yes; I cook things my husband likes, and yet he doesn't like the things I cook.—Life.

CURRY SAUCE
Fry a tablespoonful of chopped onion in butter, and add a tablespoonful of flour mixed with a desertspoonful of curry powder. Mix them thoroughly, add one half pint of cold water, and cook it until thick, stirring it constantly. Take it from the fire, season it with salt and onion juice, and serve it hot.—The Gentlewoman, London.

ORANGE BLOSSOM TRIMMING FOR MILLINERY
For one or two seasons it has been fashionable to trim millinery with orange blossoms, especially when these have been combined with other flowers. Such hats have been reserved for dress occasions, but this season every sort of hat, for any occasion and of any shape, may have the orange blossoms added with other trimming. An innovation has been made in that these small, waxy flowers are now tinted in all shades, as well as being left white, rose color being the favorite tone.
In new millinery fancies, some straws of a rough weave are shown entirely silvered over. These are trimmed with brilliant color effects.

LIKES ROUND BARN
A writer in the "Country Gentleman" devotes several columns, a picture, and a diagram, telling why he likes round barns. We know one good reason he didn't mention. You can't take a corner of turning too short, and that's a cinch.

PUTTING THINGS AWAY FOR THE SUMMER
This is the season when woolen garments, blankets and other household articles are packed away for the summer months. Newspaper is the housewife's best friend at this time. It is plentiful and at hand, and it shields from dust whatever is entrusted to it. After brushing and cleaning all garments, turning the pockets wrong side out to catch the shreds of dust there, fold them carefully and wrap them in several thicknesses of newspaper. Tie the bundles carefully and lay them away in a trunk that has been wiped out with a damp cloth.
After the blankets have been washed, fold them and incase them in newspaper; then tie them up in a linen cloth and lay them away. If pillows that are not regularly used are well aired and put away in this fashion, they will keep in excellent condition.
In putting away brasses, gate fixtures, or other brass ornaments, it is wise to clean them thoroughly, then tightly smear each piece with lard.

DIP DOWN UPON THE NORTHERN SHORE
Dip down upon the northern shore,
O sweet new-year delaying long;
Thou doest expectant nature wrong;
Delaying long, delay no more.
Can trouble live with April days,
What stays thee from the clouded noons.
Thy sweetness from its proper place?
Or sadness in the summer moons?
—Lord Tennyson.

SPORT BLOUSES
New linen sport blouses are made to slip on over the head. They are full and long, extending below the waist, have wide belts and collar, cuffs and binding of a contrasting color.
