

SENATE RELEASES FALL FROM TESTIFYING!

HALF MILLION DOLLARS TO BE COST OF THEATRE

Plan to Break Ground in Few Days For Building, 220 North Brand

Within one week ground will be broken for a magnificent $500,000 Corinthian type theatre on the site at 220 North Brand boulevard, the seating capacity to be 2160 people and the edifice to be one of the finest in all the west, comparable with the very best to be found in Hollywood, Pasadena or Long Beach. Plans have been drawn and accepted by Arthur G. Lindley, of Lindley & Selkirk, Los Angeles architects, whose residence is in Glendale.

This announcement was made this morning by Claude Langley, president of the Southwest Theatres, Inc., a large chain of picture houses, among them the T. D. & L., also of Glendale. Six months will be required in the construction of this theatre, Mr. Langley states.

Luxurious Type
It will be of the most luxurious type, with a Corinthian front and pilasters, a promenade running back 145 feet to the theatre proper, with exclusive shops on the left and a decorative wall on the right, lined with palms and potteries, similar to a well known Hollywood theatre.

The site to be occupied by the new theatre fronts 50 feet on North Brand boulevard and runs back 154 feet to another lot 150 by 100 feet, running through to Maryland street. It is understood that a long term lease has been signed between the Southwest Theatres, Inc., and Dr. Jessie A. Russell and William McMillan of Glendale, owners of the property.

Latest Pictures
The new playhouse will show only the latest pictures, for long runs, all seats reserved, a special orchestra as fine as any in Los Angeles, being an added feature, according to Mr. Langley. There will be but two performances a day, one in the afternoon and one at night. Six months will be required to complete construction.

Chain of Theatres
In addition to the new Glendale link in the theatrical chain of the Southwest Theatres, Inc., playhouses will be built in Pasadena and in Huntington Park, bringing the total under this control to eighteen.

The fifteen theatres already acquired are: The Alvarado and De Luxe on Seventh street, the Roosevelt at Eighth and Vermont, Theatrum, 1024 Sunset boulevard, Los Angeles; Raymond, Florence, Egyptian and Strand in Pasadena; Huntington Park theatre, T. D. & L. in Glendale; Hippocrome and Sunshine in Taft and the Mission, Loring and Regent in Riverside.

The interests in these theatres acquired by the Southwest Theatres, Inc., were formerly held by the West Coast Theatres, Claude Langley, Turner & Dahnken, Frank Livingston, Merrill and Howe and the H. C. Jensen Theatres, Inc.

A first National franchise has been purchased from Gore, Ramish and Lesser for $225,000, which will give all the theatres First National pictures and stars. The theatre property under

REV. COOKMAN IS ACCIDENT VICTIM

Struck by Taxi on Alighting From Street Car, Arm and Rib Broken

When Rev. W. W. Cookman of 638 North Louise street stepped off a street car on Seventh street, Los Angeles, yesterday afternoon he was struck by a fast-moving taxicab and received a broken right arm and broken rib.

According to reports of the affair the street car on which Rev. Cookman was riding had come to a stop and he was alighting, when the taxicab driver, anxious to pass the car, continued his speed and, as a consequence, Rev. Cookman was knocked down and injured. He was taken to the receiving hospital in an ambulance, given first aid and later brought to his Glendale home, where it is reported he is resting as comfortably as possible.

New Member Of City Council May Be Chosen Today

According to reports at the City Hall, there is a probability that the City Council will this afternoon agree upon a successor to W. A. Horn, recently resigned as a councilman.

Rumor has it that the candidacy of S. S. Gilhuly, member of the real estate firm of Gilhuly & Russell of 212 South Brand is meeting with favor.

Mr. Gilhuly resides at 342 El Bonita and, it is reported, members of the City Council believe that a resident of the southern section of the city should be appointed to the council, if possible.

At the last city election Mr. Gilhuly was a candidate for the council and was defeated, by a small majority, by Mr. Horn.

It is also reported that R. E. Johnston, head of the Concrete Brick & Tile company, 440 South San Fernando road, is being considered.

However, the City Council is considering other available men, in executive session, but some of those discussed have refused, it is understood, to consider the appointment because of press of personal business affairs.

LETHAL GAS WILL TAKE TWO LIVES

Preliminary Tests Were Carried Out With Cat As Victim

BULLETIN
CARSON CITY, Nev., Feb. 7.—Efforts to test the efficiency of the hydrocyanic gas to be used here tomorrow in the work's first lethal gas executions, failed this morning.

A large white cat, which was to have been used in the test, claved his way from a heavy glass box and escaped just before it was to have been placed in the death chamber where Gee Jon, Chinese tong slayer, and Thomas Russell, Mexican, convicted of slaying his Indian girl sweetheart, will die early Friday.

CARSON CITY, Nev., Feb. 7.—The snuffing out of the life of a cat today will mark the last steps in the preparation here for the execution by lethal gas tomorrow of two men condemned as the first to die in the United States by this means of state execution.

The cat was the victim of a "dress rehearsal" held today in the new gas chamber in the prison yard. E. B. Walker, an expert in gas such as will be used in the execution tomorrow, conducted the test. The hydrocyanic gas reduced to a liquid will be sprayed in the cell, vaporizing instantly. Thirty seconds later the gas will reach the nostrils of the condemned and in five seconds more they will be dead, Walker estimated.

Gee Jon, Chinese, and Thomas Russell, American-born Mexican, who were to establish a world precedent in legal executions, were spending their last hours on earth quietly today.

The Chinese, according to Attorneys Frame and Raffet, who are waging a last minute fight to save his life, is insane.

WIRES RESTORED IN STORM AREAS

Linemen Battle In Blizzard To Re-Establish Touch With World Again

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—The mid-west today struggled to re-establish its regular channels of communication after three days of uncertain telegraph and no telephone service. Linemen, working on schedules that embraced 24 hours of the day, had set lines to the east and another to the northwest and the southwest.

Thousands of poles were carried down by sleet and ice-laden wires in the storm which turned Monday from sleet to snow and piled drifts blizzard-high to impede the work of restoring communication. Transcontinental trains, hours late because of snow piled tracks, today were getting back toward regular schedules.

Radio stepped into the break left by failure of the regular line of news communication. Westinghouse station, KYW, at the World Crier, co-operating with International News Service, broadcast news gathered in the same fashion and over the commercial line first re-established.

OFFICERS FOR CAMPBELL IS UNWILLING TO ACCEPT

Three Captains Chosen By Acting Chief Fraser; Recruits Secured

Following the acceptance yesterday of the resignations of the entire Glendale fire department, with the exception of one man, by Chief of Police John D. Fraser, who is acting head of the fire department, reorganization of the fire fighting force is proceeding today, according to Chief Fraser's statement this morning.

Three captains have been appointed. They are: E. C. Fairfield, former captain who was discharged by ex-Chief A. H. Lankford; Francis Lawler, 807 East Palmer avenue, with a record of 22 years' service with the New York City fire department, and Jesse Wilkes, the only man on the force who did not resign as a protest against the removal of Chief Lankford.

Instruct Recruits
Some six or eight recruits are being instructed in fire fighting and the use of the equipment at Engine House No. 2, Brand boulevard and Los Feliz road, this morning, under the direction of these three men.

With Councilman C. E. Kimlin present, but not voting, Mayor Spencer Robinson, with Councilmen Sam Davis and Asa Hall, this morning passed the following resolution, removing Fire Chief A. H. Lankford from office, by the necessary three-fifths vote. There were only four councilmen present, as a successor to W. A. Horn had not been named.

Resolution in Full
The resolution reads: "Whereas, the members of this council of Tuesday, February 5, requested the resignation of A. H. Lankford as chief of the fire department of the city of Glendale, and

"Whereas, such resignation has not been received by this council, and

"Whereas, for the reasons (first), that apparently authentic reports have come to this council that intoxicating liquors have been used by men of the fire department while on duty, and (second) that this council believes that the chief of the fire department has been derelict in his duty in not preventing such conditions from existing, and that in other respects he is not fully competent to hold this position, now, therefore, be it

"Resolved by the council of the city of Glendale, That A. H. Lankford be, and he hereby is, removed from office."

Plan Trip to Ireland
Daniel Campbell has definitely decided to decline the appointment of councilman, offered him unanimously by the City Council to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of W. A. Horn. He notified the City Council this morning that, after due deliberation, he had decided not to take the office, one of his main reasons being that, accompanied by Mrs. Campbell, he expects to soon make a trip to Ireland.

Following the notification, the City Council went into executive session, presumably to consider making the appointment of someone else to fill the vacancy.

"It is with regret that I feel compelled to decline the honor," said Mr. Campbell. "And I do consider it an honor. The present City Council is the ablest we have ever had. It has accomplished the 'impossible' in securing the sewer contract with Los Angeles and in obtaining the practically unanimous vote of confidence expressed by the people at the recent election, when a $1,600,000 bond issue was authorized to build the sewer."

"When I was first informed of my appointment, Tuesday noon, I promised to come down to the City Hall at once and talk it over. But on the way I decided it was a matter that concerned my wife as well, so I went to Los Angeles, where she is ill in a hospital, and we talked it over together."

Plan Trip to Ireland
The result is that I concluded to decline the appointment. We have both been active in fraternal, city and club affairs for over a decade. It seemed to me both had need of a vacation from burdens and responsibilities. I had arranged my affairs so that when Mrs. Campbell's term as president of the Tuesday Afternoon club expires in June, we were to take a four months' trip to Ireland. It seemed unfair to my wife to cancel these arrangements, even aside from my own health."

"Yesterday I was again undecided, however, owing to the extraordinary pressure brought by my friends that I accept the appointment, at least temporarily. So I again went to Los Angeles to see Mrs. Campbell and we talked it all over once more. As a result of that second conference with my wife, I have declined the appointment, both of us feeling that a temporary councilman would not be a good thing for Glendale and that for me to accept the position permanently would be to get back in harness."

WANTS TO SEE SWEETHEART, STEALS AUTO
OAKLAND, Feb. 7.—Police who arrested Orange Wirisk, 17, here today on the charge of stealing an automobile, said the boy was prompted in the theft by a desire to see his sweetheart who recently moved from Los Angeles to Olympia, Washington. He was attempting to drive from Los Angeles to Olympia, police said, when picked up here.

SENATOR REED IN ATTACK ON OIL LEASES
WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—The Sinclair and Doherty oil leases were characterized as the "most gigantic steal of history" by Senator James A. Reed, Democrat, of Missouri, in a speech on the floor of the Senate this afternoon. Reed branded Harry F. Sinclair as the "minor burglar" and Edward L. Doherty as having played the "star part" in the "oil steal." Reed demanded that every man connected with the oil leases be meted "criminal punishment."

MAN AND WOMAN DEAD IN SUICIDE PACT
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7.—Police declared today following a preliminary investigation that they believed a suicide pact resulted in the death of Miss Rose Dellanina, 20, and the probable fatal shooting of John Radloff, 20. The body of Miss Dellanina, with Radloff lying beside her in a pool of blood was discovered in a parked automobile early today on the highway between San Carlos and San Mateo by Stanley Wood, an officer.

RHINELAND PACT TO BE REVEALED

Wilson-Clemenceau Agreement to Be Bared in Article by Lloyd-George

LONDON, Feb. 7.—The Daily Chronicle, personal organ of former Premier David Lloyd George, announced today that, due to the widespread interest in the report of a secret compact between the late President Woodrow Wilson and Ex-Premier Georges Clemenceau of France, regarding occupation of the Rhineland, Lloyd George will write a detailed article upon the subject which will be printed one week from Saturday. This article is expected to reveal the text of the alleged secret compact.

The former premier is living in the country and has refused to give any interviews upon the reported agreement. His secretary called at the foreign office today and left documents which were believed to deal with the alleged Wilson-Clemenceau pact. Lloyd George confined comment to the following:

Says Facts Correct
"The facts as recorded in the statement are substantially correct, but I did not grant any formal interview."

Friends of the ex-premier said he was astonished when he learned that the story had been printed. Harold Spencer, the English journalist who printed the story, gave the following explanation: "I agree with what Mr. Lloyd George says. He did not grant any formal interview. I take all the blame."

The statements attributed to the ex-premier were made in the course of informal conversation while Spencer was on a week-end visit to Lloyd George's home.

Freighter May Sink After Crash In Fog

SHANGHAI, Feb. 7.—The United States shipping board freighter Edmore struck a reef on Quelpart island in a dense fog today. She was pulled off, but is believed to be in a sinking condition. The President Jefferson is standing by. The Lloyd Triestino steamer Persia is also ashore on Amherst island. The crews of both vessels are safe.

Bulgarians In Clash With Greek Forces

ATHENS, Feb. 7.—Bulgarian comitadjis (irregulars) today attacked the frontier station at Soumenje but were driven off by Greek guards.

Government Fund For Loan to Banks Proposed in Bill

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—A $50,000,000 government fund would be created for loans to banks and trust companies under terms of a bill introduced in the Senate this afternoon by Senator Bursum, Republican, New Mexico.

The measure would place the fund in the hands of the comptroller of the currency for distribution to all financial institutions requesting new funds, whether or not they were members of the federal reserve system. The interest rate would not exceed the current rediscount rate of the federal reserve banks.

Death of Executive Stirs Film Colony

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 7.—The sudden and unannounced death from "heart failure" of John M. Quinn, prominent here and in the east as general manager of the Vitaphone company, early Monday morning, was one of the Hollywood film colony's chief topics of discussion today as Quinn's demise became generally known for the first time.

Quinn died in a Hollywood sanitarium for nervous and mental cases at 1:15 a. m. Monday. Conflicting versions of the length of time he was ill were given by Charles J. Merley, manager of the local Vitaphone exchange, and Dr. I. M. Burnside, who attended Quinn.

Royalty Represented At Wilson Memorial

LONDON, Feb. 7.—Representatives of King George, the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Connaught attended a memorial service for Woodrow Wilson at St. Margaret's today. Frank B. Kellogg, American ambassador, and hundreds of American residents of London were present.

Ask Permit to Raise Money For Equipment

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—The New York, Chicago & St. Louis railroad today asked the Interstate Commerce commission for authority to issue $2,865,000 of six per cent equipment trust certificates to make partial payments on 1,300 freight cars and 20 locomotives.

DISCUSS POLITICS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—President Coolidge today discussed political conditions in Kansas with Frank P. MacClenan, editor of the Topeka State Journal. MacClenan was accompanied to the White House by Senator Curtis of Kansas.

COOLIDGE TO WIN ON FIRST BALLOT

Campaign Managers Predict President's Nomination By Large Majority

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—President Coolidge's campaign managers openly claimed today that the president will be nominated at Cleveland on the first ballot.

They declared that 866 of the 1199 delegates in the convention are already "sowed up" for Coolidge. Only 555 are necessary to nominate.

A survey made by a White House official names only ten states with a total of 233 delegates which cannot safely be counted on to "vote for Coolidge until nominated." These are Arizona, Arkansas, California, Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada and Wisconsin.

"Some of these states are expected to throw their strength to Mr. Coolidge," it was declared, "but no claims are being laid to them because of primaries, yet to be held, and certain political factors which need smoothing out."

Claim Twelve States
Primaries are to be held in nineteen states between now and next June. Of these, twelve—Massachusetts, Michigan, New Hampshire, New Jersey, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Vermont and West Virginia—are claimed by the Coolidge backers; the remaining seven—California, Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Montana, Nebraska and Wisconsin—are held in "doubt."

"In New England, of course, there is no opposition to President Coolidge's candidacy," the White House official continued. "There is to be taken into consideration the fact that twenty-six states and the five territories have endorsed him, through their state committees—and in a few instances already through their state conventions."

"New York's delegations will be almost entirely for Coolidge; in Georgia and Mississippi there are two warring factions, but both are for the president; Alabama, Kentucky and Virginia have endorsed and instructed their delegates."

"All in all, we look for one of the greatest landslides ever witnessed in a national convention."

Phone Company Plans $3,000,000 Stock

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—The Kansas City Telephone company today asked the interstate commerce commission for authority to issue $3,000,000 of stock to sell to the Southwestern Bell Telephone company.

MIGHT GAIN IMMUNITY BY GIVING EVIDENCE, IS FEAR

Special Counsel Appointed By Coolidge Advises Committee's Act

BULLETIN
WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—E. L. Doherty, multi-millionaire oil operator, today advised the Senate public lands committee he erred in testifying he paid former Secretary of the Treasury William G. McAdoo $250,000 attorney's fees since his retirement from the cabinet.

In a letter to Chairman Lenroot of the committee, Doherty said his books showed McAdoo received only $150,000.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior and a central figure in the oil lease scandal, today was released from further appearances before the Senate public lands committee to testify concerning the turning over of navy reserves in Wyoming and California to Harry Sinclair and E. L. Doherty.

The committee decided that if Fall was compelled to testify with respect to the oil leases and the $25,000 and $100,000 loans he received from Sinclair and Doherty, such testimony might operate to gain immunity for him in the event of criminal action by the government.

Advice of Counsel
When called before the committee last week Fall declined to answer questions on the ground his testimony might tend to incriminate him.

The decision to release Fall was reached after the special counsel appointed by President Coolidge advised the committee that Fall, under the fifth amendment to the constitution, might claim immunity from prosecution if forced to testify under protest.

Motion in Full
Walsh's motion adopted by the committee follows: "The witness, Albert B. Fall, having refused to answer any questions that might be put to him (Continued on page 8)

URG E SET-BACKS ON CENTRAL AVE.
Petitions to Be Circulated To Secure Support of Property Owners

It was voted at a meeting of the Central Avenue Improvement association, held last night in the Harvard high school auditorium with President Charles B. Guthrie presiding, that a recommendation be made to the City Council to at once set back the curbs to the edges of the sidewalks, eliminating the present parkways and trees and bringing Central avenue to its full prospective width of 100 feet.

Petitions will be circulated among property owners for signatures, it was decided following the vote, and will be turned over to the City Council to expedite action. The plan, as outlined at last night's meeting, contemplates putting in sewer pipes, street lighting conduits and street improvements at the same time. This is an advance over the initial plan agreed upon by the association, which contemplated awaiting the outcome of condemnation proceedings on the inside property strips before widening and paving.

Hasten Improvement
Mr. Guthrie and others prominent in the association consider last night's vote indicates clearly that property owners along Central avenue are rapidly coming to realize no improvements they can make can be made any too soon for the tremendous development of the street and the role it is to play in the greater Glendale.

Benjamin F. Dupuy, city engineer, was present at last night's meeting and spoke briefly, telling the members of the Central Avenue Improvement association that he saw no reason why the desired improvements could not go through without delay.

Complaints Charge Young Men as Parties to Girls' Delinquency

POMONA, Calif., Feb. 7.—Turning loose the big guns of his investigation of alleged saturnalian revels here, in which erotic "love nests," strip poker games and heavy drinking were said to be the chief features, Deputy District Attorney J. W. Jeos today issued complaints against fifteen young business men and high school boys here charging them with contributing to the delinquency of two minor girls.

In addition, Jeos announced that twenty-two more complaints of a similar character would be issued later today against older men of Pomona, including a number of well-known business men.

Bail Fixed at $3000
George Trotter, son of the city clerk of Pomona, and a member of a pioneer family in this section, first among those accused in the first batch of complaints, bail on the persons named by Jeos was fixed at $3,000 each.

Two police officers alleged to have been involved in parties with the young girls are in the county jail at Los Angeles unable to furnish bond, and a third is under suspension while the investigation continues, according to the deputy district attorney.

DR. ROBERT M. VERMILYE

Botulinus Poisoning Takes Ten Lives, Eleventh Is Near Death

ALBANY, Ore., Feb. 7.—As the funeral hour for the eleven botulinus victims neared today, 2-year-old Horst Ruehling, whose parents are numbering among the dead, was approaching death at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Reits, six miles east of here.

Until this morning, the little boy had apparently escaped the infection from the home-canned beans served at a family reunion dinner last Saturday. Now hope for his life has been abandoned.

Today, under skies of mourning gray, many people were coming into Albany from surrounding farms to pay their last respects to the victims of the ill-fated meal.

Ten caskets were piled high with flowers at the First Presbyterian church, awaiting the funeral this afternoon. One casket contains two bodies—Mrs. Paul Gerbig and her 13-month-old girl, Esther.

An eleventh casket, smaller than all the rest, waited at the morgue to receive the body of little Horst Ruehling.

A SOCIAL EVENT

Honor Dickens
Dickens was the author whose memory was honored Wednesday afternoon by the members of the literature department of the Tuesday Afternoon club when they held their regular meeting in the tea room of the clubhouse.

Mrs. H. C. Wilcox, curator of the department, presided over the meeting when roll call was answered by the twenty-five members present with quotations from Dickens.

The life of Dickens was interestingly told by Mrs. Caroline B. Eager of Los Angeles, who was a special guest of the department. Mrs. Eager had the pleasure of being a personal friend and guest in the home of the famous author a few years ago, and she related many interesting experiences.

Mrs. Evelyn Straith-Miller of Pasadena favored those present with a group of old English songs. She sang "Shepherd, Play a Little Air" by William Stickles, and "Under the Greenwood Tree," by A. Buzzi-Pecchia.

The rest of the afternoon was devoted to an informal social time when refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mesdames H. S. Garlinghouse and C. J. Higgins.

Circle's Birthday
Another year has been added to the history of the Glendale Mutual Benefit Reading circle, and at the meeting yesterday at the public library announcement was made of the birthday celebration on March 5. All old members of the circle are specially invited and the committee arranging the affair includes Mrs. C. H. Crawford, Mrs. Rowe, Mrs. Wickert, Mrs. Mary Reese and Mrs. E. B. Moore.

Mrs. H. V. Henry, chairman of the circle, directed the meeting yesterday. In the morning Mrs. W. A. Saylor gave a review of "The Lincoln Memorial University" in the Cumberland mountains. She also read a peace plan, which was a concise plan for adjustments of the world's debts.

After the luncheon hour, during which a pie sale was held, Mrs. Henry read from the new book "Schools of Tomorrow" by Dewey. The book is proving very interesting because it is practical for home application with children. The chapters read yesterday were of the experimental school conducted by Mrs. Johnson of Fairhope, Ala.

Missionary Meet
"European Immigrants" was the subject presented yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the Missionary Society of the Central Christian church held in the church parlors. The program had been arranged by Mrs. J. H. K. Crawford and Mrs. J. E. Peters which was thoroughly enjoyed by the fifty-two women present.

The business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. R. C. Logan and Mrs. C. A. Cole led the devotional service.

Mrs. E. H. Learned gave an interesting talk pertaining to the subject and a vocal trio composed of Mrs. C. C. Stoler, Mrs. Floyd Mercer and Mrs. C. J. Weidman beautifully rendered "Invest for Today" (Ambrose). Mrs. M. G. Musser accompanied them on the piano. Another feature of the program included a reading and impersonation of a Russian peasant woman.

The rest of the afternoon was devoted to an informal social time.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Schuyler, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Person, Mrs. Hamilton Brown of Glendale, and William Sarrar of Hamilton, Canada.

Meets On Friday
The regular meeting of the Woman's Relief corps will be held tomorrow afternoon, Friday, February 8, at 2:15 o'clock, at the G. A. R. hall, it is announced.

The president, Mrs. Mary Bennett, will preside over the meeting and urge all members to be in attendance, as plans will be completed for the observance of the annual W. R. C. and G. A. R. memorial services to be held on Sunday, February 10.

Teachers' Guests
Miss Jennie Lacey of North Verdugo road entertained the members of the City Teachers' Choral club at her home Tuesday night. Following an hour of singing practice, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments served. Twenty-six were present. Miss Lacey was assisted by her mother.

Acting Chief Fraser Picks Three Appointees to Fill Vacancies

moved from the office of chief of the fire department of the city of Glendale, to take effect at once; and he is further

"Resolved, That the city clerk be instructed to immediately notify the said A. H. Lankford of his removal from office."

The adoption of the resolution was moved by Councilman Hall and seconded by Councilman Davis, after meeting in open session in the council chamber after a recess in committee of the whole.

Immediately following the adoption of the resolution Councilman Davis moved that John D. Fraser, chief of police, be appointed acting chief of the fire department. This was seconded by Councilman Hall. Councilman Kimlin refrained from voting on this motion, as he had the resolution.

The council then adjourned to meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock, when it is understood the matter of appointing a man to succeed W. A. Horn, who resigned last week, will be taken up.

"The resignation of chief will not be filled for some time to come," said Chief Fraser this morning, "I expect that with these three experienced men and several other old firemen who will join the department as hosemen and engine-men that we will be able to carry on as usual."

Lankford Refuses
"I tendered ex-Chief Lankford a position on the force as captain, but he refused to accept. His removal from the office of chief did not entail his discharge from the department. The council merely removed him as head of the department."

The twenty-one members of the department who resigned Wednesday still say that the property owners of the city will have protection if they have to serve beyond the limit of Monday morning, which they specified in their resignations.

Bridge Luncheon
Mrs. George B. Pratt of 356 Myrtle street was hostess yesterday to members of the Mid-Week Auction Bridge club, entertaining at luncheon and bridge at the Glendale Tavern on San Fernando road.

High score was won by Mrs. Paul Paulson of Fergus Falls, Minn., a special guest.

There were present, Mesdames E. Halstead, Chester Kling, James Appel, Walter Jones, Emma C. Batz, A. Thimm, H. C. Vandewater, Paul Paulson, H. L. Wilson, W. S. Rattray, R. A. Puffer, Sr.

The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Puffer, Sr.

Entertainers Club
Miss Henrietta Meek was hostess last night to the members of the Rodaire club when she entertained with an informal social affair at her home, 321 East Maple avenue.

A profusion of pink and white flowers were used effectively in decoration, and the same color scheme was carried over in the refreshment table appointments.

The evening was devoted to sewing and informal social time.

Those present included, Misses Eva Brehme, Zilda Cross and Mesdames F. M. Duffey, Ray Engle, Robert Godar, Paul McGowan, James McGowan and Herman Psenner.

Birthday Dinner
The eleventh birthday of Dorothy Thedaker was celebrated on Tuesday, February 5, by a birthday dinner given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Thedaker, 338 El Bonito street.

At the prettily-appointed table dinner with a beautiful birthday cake was served to Frances Van Etten, of Pasadena; Caroline Ashton, Rosemary Gilhuly and the honoree, Dorothy, and her sister, Betty Lee.

Royal Neighbors
Members of the Royal Neighbors of America will hold their regular meeting tomorrow night, Friday, February 8, in the K. P. hall, Park avenue and Brand boulevard.

Several matters of importance are to be discussed, and all members are urged to be present.

TONSILS REMOVED
Rhodora McKee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. McKee of 130 West Chestnut street, had her tonsils removed this morning at the Glendale Research hospital.

Remain On Duty
All of them are still on duty and there has been no talk of a walk-out or "strike," as stated in some circles. They gave the city the five days' notice required by their contracts.

Chief Fraser is today advertising for men to fill the places of some of those who have resigned. The men he needs most urgently are two telephone operators who possess an intimate knowledge of the streets of the city. Four good

COMMENT That's All

Boy, Page Solomon Mexico's Revolt at End Causes of Auto Deaths Sheiks and Shirtwaists

By Gil A. Cowan

Boy, page Solomon and all his wisdom. Glendale needs some one to tell it what all this "scandal" is about which has caused numerous resignations. In fact, the whole fire department is reported as having quit, effective February 11, but as yet there has been no public hearing as to the causes of the row.

The writer, fortunately, has not heard all of the facts, it would appear, and therefore cannot speak authoritatively, or publicly, and we find there are others who also are in the dark with the various versions of the situation making it a most impossible mess to comprehend.

Therefore, with the public, we shall watchfully await developments.

From Mexico City come the reports that the "revolution" is at an end, with only guerrilla warfare remaining to be stamped out. Vera Cruz, the rebel capital, was taken without a shot being fired soon after Adolfo de la Huerta and his rebel generals had evacuated the city.

It might be noted that President Obregon set about in a very determined way to crush the revolt and maintain peace, as best he could in a country such as Mexico. For, be it known, they do things differently in Mexico.

If the Mexican Congress were hearing charges such as those before the United States Senate at the present time, all participants in the Teapot Dome and Elk Hills leases would be shot, or half shot. It is very customary to kill off a few congressmen, also, in Mexico. And a good time is had by all, as the social reporter might say.

Startling revelations are made public today by the Auto Club of Southern California regarding the cause for motor car killings. As would be suspected, jay walking heads the list. Incompetent handling of automobiles by inexperienced drivers is second.

Far be it from the "snappy" driver to kill or maim anyone. Indeed, the alert chauffeur seldom is reported in an accident and speeders come to grief only when drunk or "showing off." But the jay walker and incompetent cause most of the grief and go scot free.

Personally, we are addicted to jay walking, yet we will admit it is far more dangerous than speeding. Also, it doesn't give the driver of a car the right-of-way to which he is entitled.

As for competent drivers, we would venture the guess that 20 per cent of those piloting cars about the streets would fall in any practical test of drivers' ability. Some are deaf, or half-blind, or unable to use the accelerator, or subject to heart and nerve attacks which render them totally unfit while at the wheel.

And many do not have the mechanical knowledge, or the money for repairs, to keep their car in order. Others are careless, which takes in most everyone. Now let us all get together on a "safety first" campaign, folks, and try to minimize accidents. The death rate keeps apace, forty-eight having been killed in the southland during January.

That's a shame. And many of them were children.

O! O! The sheiks have ruined the girly garmentworkers' union, so its Chicago chieftain says. On meeting nights, when strikes were to be discussed the employers had a gang of slicks take the girls to dances, and the mere 5 per cent of men workers couldn't do a thing but think—and not much of that, it seems.

"I can handle girls, or men, for that matter, when they're in the shop," said the union boss, "but I can't handle 'em when the sheiks have 'em skating."

And that's that.

Torturing by school fraternities is under investigation at Sacramento. Perhaps high school students do not know it, but it is against the law for them to be members of any secret orders.

Because of their immature judgment such things as physical torture results, and hardly a school doesn't have to fight such organizations which, under oath, bind members to utmost secrecy of all that goes on behind locked doors.

Sometimes we wonder if it is not imitative qualities on the part of youngsters that get them into this sort of stuff?

ONE-LEG TROUSER STYLE IS LATEST

Tujung Dog Launches New Fashion as Agent Hurdles Fence

There seems to be some controversy between Paris and Hollywood over which of those fashionable cities first advocated one-leg trousers for men. It happened this way.

Ira Walton is a solicitor. Celia is a policewoman dog, owned by Carrol Murchison. Walton called at the Murchison home, intending to sell some soap, or something.

Celia's pet aversion is salesmen and she came around the house just as Walton was about to step up to the front door.

Celia said something in canineish, which must have reminded Walton of a previous engagement, for he started for the front gate with alacrity.

In some way the left leg of Walton's trousers became entangled in Celia's teeth while she was nagging at him. When Walton reached the front gate it was closed, so he decided not to bother to open it and vaulted over the obstruction to the street.

Celia, like most of her sex, had the last word and decided to stay in the yard. The trouser leg was still entangled in her teeth when she made this decision so it, perforce, also stayed in the yard. Walton continued on his way.

At the corner of Pine and Michigan, Herb Brandstetter spied the abbreviated trousers. "Hey, stranger, did you lose part of your pants?"

Walton summoned all the dignity he could muster and replied, "Certainly not, Reuben! This is the latest style in the city and I'm looking for a tailor shop to order more."

"Get Me A Pair "Golly, is that so?" marveled the astonished Herb. "Tailor shop's right up the street there a ways. Guess I'll have to have me a pair to go with my wife's one-sleeve gown. Pretty nifty, I call it."

So Michigan avenue is expected to blossom out any time with one-leg trouser sheiks, especially among the boys who have been favored with well moulded calves.

POSTAL SALARIES RAISE APPROVED

Union Label League Admits Six New Members at Last Night's Meet

The Glendale Union Label League meeting last night in the Odd Fellows hall on West Broadway initiated six new members: W. H. Kruger, Otillia Kruger, Charles M. Pease, Leonard Pease, Marjorie Pease and F. F. Charles.

During the evening mention was made of the proposed raise in wages of postal employees and it was voted to send a telegram to Senator Hiram Johnson in Washington, D. C., urging him to support this measure.

The resignation of Mrs. Anna Baines as vice president was presented and Mrs. Thompson read a clever original poem complimenting Mrs. Baines and bidding her farewell upon her departure to Sawtelle. Later, Mrs. Black, on behalf of the league, presented her with a gift and another poem was read by Mrs. Charles.

Talks On Schools Mrs. Frances Noel of Los Angeles was one of the speakers, talking on the school system and big business interests.

Report was made that Mrs. G. H. Hall, who recently underwent an operation at the Glendale Research hospital, is now at her home, 134 North Belmont street, and will be happy to see any of her friends.

The members were also urged to call on Mrs. Loomis, wife of the late O. L. Loomis, who lives with her children, at 647 West Salem street.

Following the meeting, a banquet was served. The next meeting will be on February 20.

BEARS LOOK LIKE 3-TIME WINNERS

Track and Diamond Teams Expected to Duplicate Gridiron Victory

By COPELAND C. BURG For International News Service SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7.—Events happen in cycles, and it appears University of California athletes are riding tricycles.

The Bears copped the coast football title last fall, and it looks in the cards as though they would also come out on top this spring in track and baseball.

As during the gridiron season, Stanford and the University of Southern California will be lurking in the well-known offing and either may kick over the dope bucket.

One hundred youngsters are eagerly thawing out their arms at Berkeley to show their stuff to Baseball Coach Carl Zamocho.

Plenty of Talent Kelly and Toomey, star hurlers, are ready to cavort for the Blue and Gold nine, and Gerlack, third baseman; Thompson, catcher; King, short; and Sears and Spaulding, gardeners, are in shape as well as ten other less famous vets. Ben and Dixon of football fame and Kytte, basketball star, are also trying for the California nine.

Whether Coach Walter Christie's California track team goes east this year to smother big outfits of the effete Atlantic, depends on the showing of the tracksters on the Pacific coast, the word has been passed. At Stanford, Coach Templeton is known to have something up his sleeve, and in addition he has several veterans who may spring a surprise and wallop the Bears.

Track Stars in Trim U. S. C. has Otto Anderson, Martz and Starr, all ten-second flat men in the 100-yard dash, who will stack up with Hale, Miller, Gaspar and Campbell of Stanford or Dunbar, Farnsworth, Ryan and other Bear sprinters.

Stanford meets the Trojans in track on March 29 at Los Angeles and the Cardinals and California will pound each other in the oval at Palo Alto April 26. A week prior California meets the University of Illinois at Berkeley. U. S. C. athletes come to Berkeley to meet the Bears on March 22.

LA CRESCENTA ASSOCIATION IN REGULAR MEETING

Monthly Business Session to Be Held Tonight In School House

Tonight is the regular monthly meeting of the La Crescenta Improvement Association. This organization is for all valley improvements, and all one needs to do, to have a voice in its business progress, is to pay the small yearly dues, become a member and go to all meetings. The association is one for all and all for one community.

The members of the La Crescenta Improvement Association are responsible for numerous splendid improvements here, chief of which is the roads improvements. Speaking of roads, reminds the writer that it is only a matter of time till the road crews are through up in Tujunga and Montrose avenue is paved. The county is as anxious to get this thoroughfare done as the property owners are to have it accomplished.

The association is now directing its energies toward better telephone service, which is sadly needed in this district, better service and more phones, too. The improvement association is responsible for the lighting system on the highways, for the street signs, and chief of all for the installing of the fire truck and equipment, which, under the guidance of Fire Chief Young, was instrumental in quelling several severe conflagrations last year.

So, seeing what a splendid thing for the valley this organization is, why not come out tonight? Hear the various subjects discussed, then join, so you can vote. Tonight at 8 o'clock, in the school auditorium. Everyone welcome.

Si Slocum Coming
Si Slocum with his country store loaders, his acid-tongued sister Tilly, the school girls, the tramp and the summer boarder is preparing to take the town by storm.

A group of local adults, directed and trained by Miss Marie Walsh, that capable little dramatic reader of the Emerson School of Self Expression, is rehearsing and working on the country skit called "Si Slocum's Country Store." The play is a scream from the rising curtain till it falls again.

The play is given for a philanthropic cause, to raise money to help the school kiddies lift the debt on their new curtains in the auditorium.

Everyone is expected to attend, indeed, their curiosity won't allow them to stay away. Remember, on or about the first of March.

The real estate business has a new member, recruited from the ranks of demagogues. As his first deal Mr. Angier sold the A. H. Bruce property on Mayfield avenue. The Bruces will move on Saturday to reside at 1017 Virginia avenue, after having resided here for a period of six or more years.

Our own "Daddy" Carpenter is we are glad to state, slowly gaining ground in his struggle with the Grim Reaper. Mr. Carpenter, who has been so low as to be given up by two of the three attending physicians, has rallied, and now can see his friends for a mere nod—nothing more, as he is still too weak to talk. It would be hard to say whether the kiddies or their parents were the happiest over his recovery.

On Saturday night of this week there will be a splendid dance given by the community sing; the dance will, as usual, be given to raise funds. However, one always gets his 50 cents' worth at any civic betterment or Women's club dance, and so it will be with the sing dance.

There will be extra fine punch, cakes, sandwiches and coffee on Saturday night. Better come, and bring your slogan for an appropriate name for the community sing. A prize of $5 in gold to the lucky one is some inducement these days, the only rule is you cannot be an officer of the sing to enter into the contest. Apart from that, age is no bar. The name must be either Montrose or La Crescenta.

Verdugo Association Will Be Re-Organized

It is planned to reorganize the Verdugo Woodlands Improvement Association on a permanent basis and all concerned are cordially invited by President H. A. Graves to become members. The association is composed of property owners and taxpayers of the Verdugo valley.

Mr. Graves requests those desirous of enrolling to send name, place of residence and postoffice address (route and box) to himself or to Mrs. Della Mae Butler, secretary of the Verdugo Woodlands Improvement Association, R. F. D. No. 1, Box 340 or Box 310, respectively. Those responding will be given due notice regarding the date and place of the meeting.

The movement is felt by Mr. Graves to be one of vital importance to every resident and property owner in the section, and is believed to offer marked benefits. He trusts none will remain aloof from the association.

DANGEROUS HIGHWAY
SAN DIEGO, Feb. 7.—Police are today searching the Tia Juana highway in the vicinity of the Sweetwater valley for a mysterious person believed to be a fanatic. Passing motorists en route to Tia Juana have been fired at recently, the shots coming from a spot on the side of the road where a short time ago there stood a sign reading "This is the road to hell."

MAY FILE CHARGE OF MANSLAUGHTER

Boxer and Promoter Held In Fighter's Death From Fractured Skull

STOCKTON, Cal., Feb. 7.—District Attorney Van Vranken was attempting today to lodge a charge of manslaughter against Jesse (Pep) Webster, boxer, and Frank Bilecki, promoter, as a result of the death of Edgar Hollingsworth, known in the ring as Buck Holley. Holley died as a result of a knockout blow received in the third round of a bout with Webster here Tuesday night. He never regained consciousness and died 24 hours after the blow was struck, as he was about to be placed on the operating table at St. Joseph's hospital here. An X-ray showed a fractured skull, surgeons said.

Webster and Bilecki were arrested after the fight, the former being held for investigation and the latter for staging a fight without a permit. The promoter, it was said, had intended to test the law requiring a city permit. Failure to have this permit will result in the manslaughter charges, District Attorney Van Vranken declared.

Cornwell Will Head Community Athletics

Albert G. Cornwell has been appointed to head the athletic department of Glendale Community Service, according to the announcement of A. L. Baird, the president. Mr. Cornwell is a member of the hardware firm of Cornwell-Kelly, and is favorably known among the young people of the city. He is beginning active work by appointing his committee and will call a meeting as soon as he has completed the list. With Mr. Cornwell in charge of this department, community athletics are to receive a big boost this coming year. While the detailed program is not worked out yet, it is the intention of the chairman that activities be worked out that will give a chance to all the young men and women in the city who enjoy sports.

Coming-Of-Age Party Planned For Feb. 22

All young people of Glendale who will have a 21st birthday this year or last year are to be the guests of Community Service on Washington's birthday, February 22. Special features are being worked out that will be most entertaining. Because there is no census available, it will be necessary for all young men and women who were born in 1902 or 1903 to send in their names to the Community Service office at 150 South Brand boulevard or telephone Glendale 3070. There will be no expense or obligation to those who send in their names. They will be the honor guests in the celebration of their coming of age.

Eight Automobiles Lost In Garage Fire

RENO, Nev., Feb. 7.—Loss from a fire which destroyed eight automobiles and damaged ten others in a storage room of Gould Brothers' Sierra Garage, in the Semenza building last night, was declared today to be fully covered by insurance.

HANDICAPPED MAN PASTOR'S SUBJECT

Evangelistic Services Open With Song Program at Methodist Church

The evangelistic service held last night in the First Methodist church was opened promptly at the appointed hour with a song service in the real spirit of thanksgiving. During this time the Kerr brothers rendered one of their favorite duets.

There was a marked increase in attendance over that of the previous meeting. A noticeable feature of the assembly was the unusually large percentage of men present. The subject for the evening, "The Handicapped Man," that was no doubt created an influence in stirring up the interest of the men.

The sermon was delivered by Rev. H. W. Kerr who stated: "Medical science tells us that there are multitudes of children born into the world handicapped because of the sins of their parents. We are building continual sanitariums and hospitals for the afflicted ones, but who is doing the building? Not unbelievers, but the followers of the Christ are the world's benefactors. A Hindu scholar attributed the good things of the world to the teachings of the Christ. Many men are handicapped in a financial way and in many respects it is a good thing to have to work for a living. Labor is necessary in order to rightly develop the best interests. The world has little use for the lazy man. There is a job for every man."

"Other handicaps are to be dreaded, but the handicap of the soul is to be dreaded the most. It is God's will that we love Him with undivided hearts, and anything short of this is a calamity. The thing that put the handicap on a soul is sin. A night without a dawn is a good picture of a soul without God. By our acts we show to whom we belong. "It is possible to have all handicaps removed, especially that handicap that bears down the soul." Here the speaker gave the story of the life of Samuel Hadley in a most effective manner, the account being the redemption of a soul from death. He stated, "A Saviour that will save unto the uttermost is the Saviour mankind needs. Any man who received Jesus as his complete Saviour will have his sins all blotted out."

"The influences all about us and the influences of the other world are all urging us to accept Christ. He can save to the uttermost."

Enthusiasm Grows
At the close of the sermon, the Kerr brothers sang a beautiful duet selection.

The service last night was one of the most profitable during the week. Each evening more enthusiasm and interest are being created.

The service tonight will be of interest to all ages. The topic of the sermon will be based on "The Family Life Within Our Church and the Community."

State Official Faces Embezzlement Charge

PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 7.—David W. Johnson, state corporation commissioner, went on trial here today, facing charges that while acting as state treasurer ten years ago he fraudulently appropriated $1,800. Johnson was recently indicted by the county grand jury.

BURBANK NOTED LANDMARK IN NEW LOCATION

Charles Talley Moves Home from Boulevard Site to Verdugo Ave.

Moving of the Charles Talley house from the corner of San Fernando boulevard and Tujunga avenue to Mr. Talley's lots on Verdugo avenue near the boulevard, marks the passage of a landmark that for thirty-five years has been a familiar sight in the valley skyline.

When the Talley's built, San Fernando boulevard was no more than a country lane, it is said, and a very bad country lane at that. Today a myriad of cars go by daily, en route from Canada to Mexico and all intervening points.

The corner upon which the old house stood was recently sold to Roy L. Kent of Glendale, who plans to improve it with a business block. The house is being moved by Shurer & Sons of Glendale and will be remodeled into what Mr. Talley says is to be one of the finest residences in Burbank.

Thugs Get No Gold
Burglars broke into the dental offices of Dr. Philip E. Zeiss, 148 West San Fernando boulevard, evidently on a still hunt for gold or cocaine, but found neither, it is reported.

Dr. Zeiss attributes saving the gold to an old habit of putting in his pockets before leaving the office the gold he uses in his dental work. Hence the thieves, after breaking in, searched in vain for anything of value.

As for drugs, the doctor feels they were evidently less skilled in dentistry than in burglary, as they seemed unable to tell one bottle from another.

To date the police have been unable to run them to cover.

Real Estate Hear S. P. Man
On Monday night at the Women's clubhouse, members of the Burbank Realty board and their guests enjoyed an instructive talk by Joseph Light, district freight agent for the Southern Pacific Railroad company, on the subject of "Industrial Real Estate."

In view of the fact that Mr. Light is a local man, his remarks were particularly enjoyed. Many new members were at the meeting and a get-together spirit developed that served to further cement the spirit of co-operation held by the board as one of its chief tenets.

It is reported that Real Estate Commissioner Keiser will be called upon to arbitrate in the Vaihalla memorial park controversy. Oliver Clark, attorney for the company, says that a complete statement of financial condition will be placed in the hands of the commissioner.

SHRINERS RALLY AT BIG BANQUET

Address by County Official Feature of Program at Club Meeting

An address on Law, Order and the Constitution was the principal number on the program at the dinner of the Glendale Shrine club that was held at the Egyptian Village last night when eighty-seven members of the organization listened to H. S. G. McCartney, deputy district attorney of Los Angeles county, tell of the work that is being accomplished by the civil branch of this office before the Los Angeles county courts.

During the evening a handsome gold mounted gavel was presented to the past president of the club, D. Ripley Jackson, by the present president, P. J. Hayselden, who praised the work done by Captain Jackson during his administration.

The attendance prize, an embossed card case, was awarded to Frank Black.

A program of varied musical selections was presented during the banquet, and the members joined in the singing of a number of the songs. Many of those present delivered brief, impromptu addresses during the evening, dealing with subjects ranging all the way from national to fraternal.

Present Stone With Unique Testimonial

Adorning the desk of V. B. Stone, new city manager, in his office at the city hall, is a unique testimonial presented him by the entire personnel of the staff of Ben S. Dupuy, city engineer, where Mr. Stone was formerly employed prior to being appointed to his new position.

In a small frame, engraved on a replica of an engineer's steel tape, is the word "Congratulations," and a pen and ink drawing shows Mr. Stone at his desk. It is the work of Mr. Stone's former associates.

Underneath the picture of Mr. Stone are the signatures of Ben S. Dupuy, T. Ralph Goodman, H. W. Eccleston, Walter Ely, R. E. Prather, John F. Johnson, Jack Hayward, Fred R. Ullmann, Omer Summers, Harry E. Caddell, Albert G. Wheelon, H. J. F. Hanne-mann, John S. Roth, A. W. Cartledge, W. J. McIntyre, H. R. Bennett and R. G. McLane.

Priest Responds to Chicago Fire Alarm

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—Father William J. Gorman, assistant pastor of the Maternity Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic Church, here is Chicago's most ardent fire fan.

In addition to this, he enjoys the unique distinction of probably being the only priest in the United States who responds to all fire alarms and speeds to the scene aboard the apparatus with the firemen.

A special wire is installed in the parish house of Father Gorman, over which he receives all fire alarms, and he has a record of not having missed a 2-11 alarm since its installation.

At first it was merely a hobby of Father Gorman—this attending fires. But now he goes prepared to carry out the duties of his Church. Whenever he responds to an alarm he always carries out the last sacraments of the Church, ready to administer them to any fireman or other victim who may be injured seriously.

Father Gorman is attached to Engine Company No. 12 in an honorary capacity.

Honolulu Free From Thunder and Lightning

HONOLULU, Feb. 7.—This city along with its other climatic attractions, is practically safe from the dangers of lightning. This fact was pointed out recently by Thomas A. Blair, United States Weather Bureau Chief, following the first thunder storm here in years. The reason for this lack of electric storms, according to Blair, is that the island is swept almost continuously by a sea breeze, which serves to drive the charged thunder clouds against the central mountain range, from where they are deflected upward and discharge their electricity at high altitudes. The recent storm followed an unusual period of heat and calm.

Fat and Old Urged To Avoid Any Stopping

LONDON, Feb. 7.—If you are more than 50 years old and you drop anything, don't stoop to pick it up. Let it lie!

This is the advice of Ingleby Oddie, London coroner. Holding an inquest on a butler who had stooped to retrieve a fallen article and collapsed and died, Oddie declared it was inadvisable for men over 50 to stoop, as their blood vessels were often in such condition as to make stooping dangerous.

"Better long toe-nails than a short life," was Oddie's pithy way of pointing out the danger.

DENBY IS AGAIN SENATE'S TARGET

Secretary of Navy Under Fire as Result of Lease Inquiry

touching the matters under investigation by the committee on the ground that his evidence might tend to incriminate him, and the committee being advised by counsel that the statute providing that a witness should not be excused from testifying before a congressional committee on such ground being less broad in its scope than the constitutional guaranty, so that proceedings for contempt or by indictment against the witness for contumacy, would probably fail, and that if the witness proceeded to testify before the committee under protest he might gain immunity from prosecution and the committee being advised by the attorneys for the witness that his purpose to stand on his constitutional rights is irrevocable, I move that the subpoena issued for the witness, Albert B. Fall, be vacated and that he be released from further attendance on the committee."

DENBY BALKS AT RESIGNING POST

Edwin Denby

The resignation—voluntary or forced—of Edwin Denby of Detroit as secretary of the navy is now considered certain. It was testified in a hearing by the naval affairs committee of the House that he initiated the move which resulted in the transfer of the naval oil reserves to the interior department, making the exploitation of them by outside interests possible. He has refused to resign to date.

Secretary Denby Again Under Fire of Senators

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Warfare broke out in the Senate again today against the continuance in office of Secretary of the Navy Denby, because of his connection with the leasing of naval oil reserves to E. L. Doherty and Harry F. Sinclair.

Senator Robinson, Democrat, Arkansas, author of the resolution directing President Coolidge to request the ousting of Denby from the cabinet, charged in a formal statement that the secretary had broken "the trust reposed in him." The resolution called up for debate, set forth that the leases were made "under circumstances indicating fraud and corruption" and accused Denby of "misfeasance and malfeasance in office."

Meanwhile Denby, in a telegram to Roy D. Chapin of Detroit, declared "my connection with the transactions from the beginning to the end was dictated by a profound belief that they were for the benefit of the United States and was as clean and patriotic as any other act of my official and private life."

Up to Courts, Claim

"The leases were not held illegal until a court of competent jurisdiction has so declared," Denby said.

"They cannot be held not to have been in accordance with sound policy because the policy was so sound and obedient to the expressed will of congress. They will be shown to have been for the benefit of the United States."

The statement was taken as a reiteration of Denby's determination not to be forced out of the cabinet "under fire."

"Congress has unanimously voted that Secretary Denby's action in initiating the executive order (issued by the late President Harding) and the lease relating to the naval oil reserves was without authority of law and against the well-settled policy of the government," Robinson said.

"The secretary's want declaration that he would act regardless of the circumstances, discloses, not only a breach of trust reposed in him, but it also shows that if he continues in office, the naval oil reserves may again be dissipated."

To the Democratic onslaught against Denby today was added the strength of insurgent Republicans, headed by Senator La Follette, Republican, Wisconsin, who was prepared to deliver a characteristically fiery speech, one of the few he has made on the floor of the Senate this session. La Follette agreed with Robinson that Denby, in his handling of the oil leases, displayed "incompetency" in serving the best interests of the navy.

Start Counter Smash

Under the directorship of such administration leaders as Senator Lodge, Republican, Massachusetts; Curtis, Republican, Kansas, and Lenroot, Republican, Wisconsin, Republicans launched a counter smash to eliminate Denby's name from the roster of "officers" of the government found guilty of misfeasance or malfeasance in office.

Because of the large number of senators who announced intentions to assail and defend Denby, it was considered unlikely that a vote could be obtained before tomorrow or Saturday.

Meanwhile the Senate public lands committee, after days of tedious investigation of stock books, met and turned its attention to the numerous stock brokers of Washington, New York and Cleveland who are under subpoena. The committee requested the brokers to turn their books over to accountants of the Federal Trade Commission who are trying to run down persistent reports that senators themselves and other federal officials profited in deals in Doherty and Sinclair stocks.

The stock brokers were not examined this morning, although a number of them were on hand when the committee met.

Chairman Lenroot excused them for the time being and the committee went into an executive session behind closed doors.

William Gibbs McAdoo, who came to Washington to attend the Wilson funeral and testify voluntarily before the committee, probably will postpone his appearance on the stand until early next week.

McAdoo, spending much of his time at the Wilson home, does not desire to discuss the Doherty testimony that he had received $250,000 for services to the oil men until he goes before the committee, he said today.

ROYALTY WAITS ON ACTRESS' WHIMS

Officialdom and Theatre's Manager Are Victims of French Temperament

PARIS, Feb. 7.—The whims of a famous actress, Mlle. Cecile Sorel, almost caused an international diplomatic incident in Paris recently.

Andre Citroen, France's Henry Ford, had arranged an entertainment to be presented at court before the king and queen of England and Mlle. Sorel had agreed to participate.

For some reason the director of the Comedie Francaise was not informed and he billed Mlle. Sorel to take her usual part in "Poliche," the same night.

Mlle. Sorel was furious, but Director Emile Fabre of the theatre was firm in declaring he couldn't change the date of the performance, as the house was already half sold out. The actress took matters into her own hands and called on Premier Poincare, President Millerand and Lord Crowder, the British ambassador. All united in urging M. Fabre to make other arrangements, permitting Mlle. Sorel to appear before King George and Queen Mary.

Before such pressure M. Fabre could do nothing but yield.

"Very well, you may go to London," he told the actress.

"But what piece will you substitute for 'Poliche'?" she inquired.

"Nothing is changed," her director told her. "Mlle. Robinne has consented to play your role."

"Then I won't go to London," exclaimed the enraged actress—and she didn't.

At the last minute M. Citroen had to supply a substitute for Mlle. Sorel to appear at the English court.

East and West Finds Romance That Lasts

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7.—Despite Kipling's famous lines, the East and West sometimes do meet, as was shown here recently by the arrival from the Orient of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Baumfield on a tour of the world. Baumfield, an official of the South Manchurian railway, was married six years ago to a pretty young Japanese girl.

"We are very happy," said Baumfield.

"Intermarriage between the races is like marriage between any two persons—the success of the venture depending entirely upon the individuals."

While her husband talked, Mrs. Baumfield, whose Japanese name is Kanoko, hastily tucked in a stray wisp of blue-black hair, as she arranged to pose for photographers.

Baumfield was born in Vienna and has lived in Japan for more than sixteen years. He is studying economics and doing research work for the Manchurian railway.

Grandmother 'Thrice' In Three Days, Record

DANVILLE, Pa., Feb. 7.—Mrs. Clara Kinn of this city enjoys the unique distinction of having become a grandmother three times in three days. On the first day a daughter was born to Mrs. Myrtle Fallon, her daughter. The next day a son was born to her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Joseph Kinn, and on the third day a son was born to another daughter, Mrs. Peter Shragen. Mrs. Fallon, Mrs. Shragen and Joseph Kinn are Mrs. Kinn's only children.

Denver Court Attache Has Job of Fixing Up Marshall Rows

By MICHAEL F. DACEY
For International News Service

"What a lot of unimportant things husbands and wives hide from one another!"—The News-Item.

DENVER, Feb. 7.—Requiring the wisdom of a Solomon and the patience of a Job, Harry Ruffner, chief of the domestic relations department of Judge Ben Lindsey's juvenile court here, performs a Herculean task in handling the troubles and domestic rows of thousands of couples who seek means to prevent disruption of the home.

In submitting his annual report to the court for the last year Ruffner enumerated the following activities:

12,480 conferences with troubled husbands and wives.
6,240 telephone calls received.
3,120 telephone calls made from office.

Wrote 708 letters about complaints.
Made 780 visits to broken homes.
Listened to 624 family rows.
Heard 938 complaints about non-support.

Heard 600 complaints about children that were dependent.
Effected 837 reconciliations between husband and wife.
Collected $18,922.27 support money from unwilling husbands for needy wives.

Contributing Causes

While Ruffner declares that failure to conform to the "gospel of the Lord" is the fundamental cause for most broken homes, he maintains that behind much of the tribulation resulting in family rows are the "star boarder," the automobile and mothers-in-law.

"A star boarder, a mother-in-law, an automobile that is eating up the family income, but contributing to the pleasure of the husband alone; a dancing wife and a non-dancing husband, a pool-hall husband and a knitting wife, a niggardly husband and an extravagant wife, a caveman husband and an invalid wife," are some of the combinations pointed out by Ruffner as being responsible for breaking up families.

Ruffner reported, however, that tragedies in homes are often built upon trivialities. A baby's layette, in one case, started a family row that took on the aspects of a feud.

Wives Carry Burden

Ruffner also scoffed at the theory that marriage is a "50-50" proposition. "It is an arrangement," he says, "whereby wives, especially mothers, carry about 75 per cent of the family burdens and griefs."

Ruffner recommended that men found guilty of non-support— which is one of the chief contributing causes of unhappiness— should be sentenced to jail, and advocated a "workhouse" for the non-supporter, where he could earn money for his family.

"How long," he appeals, "must we wait for a workhouse where wife-beaters, non-supporters and deserters can pound rock at a dollar and two per day for the keep of their wives and little ones?"

STOP PRODUCING CRIMINALS, PLEA

Chicago Police Will Stop Herding All Arrested With 'Hardboiled'

By ROLAND KRESS
For International News Service.

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—The way to get at the root of crime is to prevent the breeding of new criminals.

The Chicago police department is demonstrating its belief in this theory by taking every precaution, under a new policy framed by Morgan A. Collins, its chief, to protect young girls and boys arrested for first offenses.

Collins has ordered his force to cease acting "hard-boiled" to first offenders and to stop herding them into cells with toughened criminals.

Wisdom Needed

"It is the duty of policemen," the chief said, "to act with wisdom, not with severity, toward first offenders. Many young girls fall in with bad company in a big city like Chicago. They go to dances and to cabarets, ignorant of the character of the places in which they find themselves."

"When there is a raid a lot of youngsters are hauled off to a police station. That's bad. I do not subscribe to 'mollycoddling,' but neither do I believe in hard-boiled behavior toward young people, whose only 'crime' is that they do not realize what they are doing."

In announcing that policy, Collins figuratively banged his fist on his desk and told his policemen one or two other red-hot ones.

"One was that policemen need not think they are privileged persons. They were told quite plainly that they were servants of the people, not masters. Brutality, drunkenness, "pull" and special privilege are done with in Chicago police circles," he said.

No Longer Have Drag

Collins told his policemen to bring all violators of the law to police stations, regardless of any protests that they have "drag up above."

"I know the captain" no longer will be synonymous with immunity.

"If a man gets away with breaking the law because he knows the captain," the chief told his force, "the captain will be looking for work."

"It's going to be tough on the policeman who thinks this is a joke. There'll be no monkey business."

SEEK IMPROVED ARCH DAM PLAN

World Experts Launch Big Experimental Probe to Save Materials

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—Engineers of Europe and America are co-operating with the Engineering Foundation in a scientific inquiry into the arch dams of the Far West. Improved design and structure to promote social and industrial development and to cut the heavy costs of building, is sought.

The study is being made by leading engineers in New York, Colorado, California and Oregon, and touches problems to which, curiously, little attention has been paid for centuries.

Many millions of dollars have been spent on these dams in the mountainous regions, and before large additional expenditures are made it is proposed to uncover the real facts of the vast engineering force, "the captain will be looking for work."

"It's going to be tough on the policeman who thinks this is a joke. There'll be no monkey business."

neering questions involved. Dams selected for the initial tests include the Hubbard Dam, under construction in Montana; and the Clear Creek Dam (Yakima project) of the main committee in charge of the work. Fred A. Noetzel, of Los Angeles, is secretary. Other members are: H. Hawgood, Los Angeles; D. C. Henry, Portland, Ore.; M. M. O'Shaughnessy, San Francisco; H. Hobart Porter, New York; F. E. Weymouth, chief engineer of the United States Reclamation Service; Denver; Silas H. Woodard, New York; Paul Bailey, deputy division chief of the State Department of Public Works, Sacramento, Cal.; Wynn Meredith, San Francisco. All are members of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

Federal, state and city governments, as well as private enterprises, are aiding local committees of engineers in the work, and California, Stanford University and Massachusetts Institute of Technology have offered the use of their testing laboratories.

Later continuous and accurate measurements of dams located far up in the mountains will be made.

Plan Test Dam

A feature of the undertaking will be the erection in California of a test dam. One contribution of $25,000 toward the cost of constructing and testing this dam has been pledged, according to a statement by the Engineering Foundation. Experiments, to be witnessed by engineers of the East and West, are planned for this year.

Arch dams, according to the statement, have an important relation to water power development, irrigation and water supply projects.

For about two centuries some of the masonry dams, instead of being built straight across the stream, have been curved in the shape of an arch. Not all of these curved dams are true arch dams. Curved dams have varied in thickness at the top from two feet to fifty feet to more than 200 feet, and the highest rises more than 300 feet above its foundation, the statement explained.

Designs Differ

They have differed, also, greatly in the degree of their curvature and the shape of their cross-section. Some stand vertically, while others are inclined.

Arch dams are useful mostly in the mountainous regions of our Western States. Their advantage lies in the possibility of securing the necessary strength to resist the pressure of the water and of the ice, with less masonry than other

Church Thrown Into Panic By Madman

ROME, Feb. 7.—At a little village in the vicinity of Naples the usual ceremony was going on Christmas Eve when Gioacchino Paribelli, who for a long time past has been a sufferer from the mania of persecution, was present in the church. During the celebration of the mass he suddenly cried out: "The end of the world is come!" which caused a wild confusion among the congregation. Panic followed, and there was a wild rush for the door, Paribelli bringing up the rear, armed with a pitchfork. The crowd of worshippers scattered and returned to their homes in the darkness, while the madman appeared at the door of his own home, where his father met him and endeavored to calm him. But his son attacked him furiously with his weapon and struck him with such force in various parts of his body that his life was endangered. Paribelli then fell into convulsions.

Squirrel Plays Havoc With Nevada Ice Lake

ELKO, Nev., Feb. 7.—The mystery of the draining of a huge Western Pacific reservoir that sent tons of ice, clean ice to a muddy bottom, and a half dozen high officials of the company to the scene, has been solved.

A ground squirrel has been accused of sabotage.

General Manager Mason's dreams of a Nevada source of ice supply for his Pullman and refrigerator cars ripened into a fact when a big ice plant and artificial lake was built here. His dream was shattered when a telegram informed him in San Francisco that his ice was muddy, but unmelting. A ground squirrel had burrowed into the embankment to within a few inches of the water. The pressure caused seepage, and the seepage grew to a stream. In one night the lake was drained.

Returning to consciousness after a short time and realizing his position, he barricaded himself in the house to await the arrival of the carabinieri. He was arrested later only after a fierce struggle.

Order of Franciscan friars was instituted about 1209.

GAVEL PRESENTED TO PRES. HANSON

Realtors Inscribe Names on Gift; Solemn Tribute Paid to Wilson

The weekly meeting of the Glendale Realty Board yesterday in the Egyptian Village was devoted to the hearing of reports by the various committees, all of which were adopted as submitted. At the opening of the meeting President Peter Hanson was presented with a gavel by W. L. Twining and W. L. Truitt. The gavel was in reality a mallet of a size that would not be out of place in the croquet courts of West Broadway, and after it had been presented it was passed around to permit all the members to inscribe their names on it. In the past it has been necessary for Mr. Hanson to tinkle his fork against his water glass when he wanted to secure attention. The members stood at silent attention for a brief moment, as a tribute to Woodrow Wilson, whose funeral services were being conducted in the national capital at that moment, and the members joined in singing a verse of "America."

Plan Social Evening
Plans are under way for the holding of a social entertainment in the Odd Fellows hall on West Broadway on the night of Wednesday, February 27, according to an announcement by S. S. Gilhuly, and the details of the program will be made public later.

Secretary James W. Pearson is scheduled to deliver the next educational lecture on next Wednesday, February 13. The co-operation of the Glendale Realty Board was asked by Secretary E. F. Sanders of the Chamber of Commerce in solving the housing problem that confronts the city today, as well as securing definite data for prospective investors regarding the kind of house property that it is advisable to build here.

Fourth St. Residents Plan Permanent Body

Permanent organization of the Fourth Street Improvement association will take place tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Grand View school. During the meeting discussion will be heard on various matters of importance to residents of that section of the city. All Glendaleans interested in Fourth street and the northwest section of Glendale are cordially invited and urged to be present.

ARTISTS TO GIVE VARIED PROGRAM

Glendale Music Club Concert To Mark Anniversary of Charter Day

A convincing demonstration of just how far-reaching and talented an organization the Glendale Music club is will be given to Glendaleans and their guests tomorrow night at the annual charter night program given at 8:15 o'clock in the auditorium of the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse.

Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, club president, is greatly gratified to announce that the program will be given by artist members of the senior, junior and juvenile departments of the club. Over 200 invitations have been issued to musicians and heads of musical organizations in all parts of California, and these, with the club members, will make up a company of 700 or more persons who will enjoy the program. Mrs. Lillian Birmingham, president of the California Federation of Music clubs, will be honored guest.

To Hold Reception
Following the program an informal reception will be held in the lounge room of the clubhouse and refreshments will be served under the direction of Mrs. Colin Cabel, hospitality chairman.

Club members and specially invited guests will be admitted to the affair on regular tickets, while non-club members will be admitted at one dollar each.

The program to be presented will be in two parts. Included in the first part will be: Group of violin numbers by Miss Hazel Linkogel, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Pearl G. Curran, "Rondo Brillante" (Burlingame), "Gavotte Pompadour" (Spalding), and "Melody" (Dawes).

Song group by J. Arthur Myers accompanied by Mrs. Gertrude Champlain Erb, "The Silent World is Sleeping" (Dudley Buck), "Away, Pierrot!" (Dekoven), and "The Land of the Sky Blue Water" (Cadman).

Plano group by Miss Helene Morgan, "The Night" (Whit-horne), "The White Peacock" (Griffes), and "Song of the Sea" (Macdowell).
Song Pictures
The second part of the program will be most artistic and unique. It is entitled "Song Pictures" with songs by the Nevin quartet, composed of Miss Elizabeth Mottern and Mrs. Frank Arnold, sopranos, and Mrs. A. M. Draper and Mrs. Charles A. Arnold, contraltos, with Mrs. Perry Rogers as accompanist. They will give: "The Moon Drops Low" (Cadman). (Continued on Page 2)

ACADEMY INSISTS ON SCHOLARSHIP

Adventist School Emphasizes Honor System; Second Semester Opens

The new Glendale Academy conducted by the Seventh Day Adventist denomination of Glendale is proving a popular educational center for grammar and high school students. The second week of the second semester is showing a continual increase in registration. There are now four hundred and fifteen boys and girls enrolled in the academy, which has the regular eight year elementary course as well as a complete four year high school course.

The students are now in the new school house located in the canyon back of the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital building, being erected on the edge of the San Rafael Hills. They moved from their old location on Isabel street last September.

Honor System
The school puts great emphasis on scholarship and has devised an honor system. Each semester there is published an honor roll of all the students who have won distinction in their studies during that period. In order to receive first honors, a student must have an average of ninety per cent or better for the entire course.

Principal D. A. Ochs has just made known the winners for the first semester which ended January 28. The list numbers forty-eight students. Of this group there are forty girls and eight boys. Three girls tied for the highest place on the list. They are the Misses Clarice Chalmers, Hazel Green, and Wanda Kunhelman, each with an average grade of 98 per cent. Miss Suzanne Williams was fourth with a record of 97 per cent.

Give Compete List
The complete honor list is as follows: Hazel Brothers, Clarice Chalmers, Millie Corbin, Edna Falhenburg, Harry Gavin, Hazel Green, May Gotfredson, Adele Jones, Nona Kellow, Wanda Kunhelman, Leland Lovell, Robert Martin, Evelyn Meyers, Zelpha Miller, Hulda Neufeld, John Abey, Marcia Banta, Gladys Bates, Keoneth Brandstater, Rhoda Christy, Velda Dew, Anna Engen, Alfreda Foster, Gladys Gavin, Alma Gruenwald, Rosalyn Halls, Wilbur Hartley, Ralph Hickey, Ethel Iden, Evelyn Johnson, Enez Johnson, Margaret Johnson, Mary Place, Anna Richard, Harriet Ringstrom, Grace Robbins, Lorene Rogers, Ruth Schindler, Eugene Rogers. FAT FAMILY AT BANQUET
Six Carns Like Nothing Better Than Food

"Pa," "Ma" and Jack Carn, just after they left the birthday dinner party tendered the people of the Wortham shows by Violet and Daisy Hilton, Tuesday, on the occasion of the young ladies' seventeenth birthday anniversary. They certainly look pleased, and probably made a large dent in the roast turkey.

For surface to capture, and capacity to absorb California sunshine, the Carn family with the Wortham shows certainly should be awarded the crocheted bathtub.

The six members, including "ma" and "pa," weigh well over a ton, and are one of the chief attractions at the exposition which the local post of the American Legion is staging this week at Brand boulevard and San Fernando road.

And they are partial to Glendale's winter weather in proportion to their ability and opportunity. Just how much it would cost to encircle this family with wraps of sufficient warmth to protect them from the blizzard sweeping the east is a hazardous guess, but from appearances the six wraps laid together would make a very fair top for the wild west show.

Another factor also is the decreased quantity of food needed in California. Just how much the actual savings per day in this line would be between Glendale and Denver, is not made public, but suffice it to say that the margin would financially embarrass an ordinary working man. "Pa" Carn's normal dinner, it is said, consists of six ordinary loin steaks, with a relative amount of trimmin's, and as this is but one meal with five other hungry members of the family to be looked after, it must be a busy time for the show caterer when their meal time rolls around.

The Carns sing, dance, and even go so far as to put on a boxing exhibition for the entertainment of their customers, although their foot work is not exactly up to the par of Bennah Leonard's. But what a punch. With the dad to referee and the two boys to fight, it is probably the heaviest heavyweight scrap ever put on in America.

W. C. T. U. JUBILEE TO BE OBSERVED

Celebration Scheduled For Feb. 12-13 Endorsed by Local Branch

Mrs. Ruby J. Smart, president of the Glendale W. C. T. U., voices the sentiment of the organization when she states that Glendale members heartily endorse the big W. C. T. U. jubilee birthday celebration in Los Angeles February 12 and 13 at the Trinity Methodist Church, South, at Twelfth and Flower streets.

Of this affair Mrs. Smart says, "The national W. C. T. U. is holding fifty meetings in fifty cities of the United States, sending national speakers. It is the good fortune of Southern California W. C. T. U. to have one of these meetings in Los Angeles, with Mrs. Ella Alexander Boole, a woman of great ability and a logical, forceful speaker, as chief speaker."

Fills Three Posts
Mrs. Boole is national vice-president and world treasurer, also president of New York state and fills all places well. "There are other interesting features: a children's welcome and crusade demonstration. Tuesday night there will be a banquet with a big birthday cake bearing fifty symbolic candles."

Reservations for places must be in the hands of Miss Ada Cummings by Saturday, February 9. All counties are sending delegations to this unique event and Glendale officers and other members will attend.

Committee to Report On P. E. Track Change

An important meeting of the Brand Boulevard Improvement association is called for tonight at 7:30, sharp, in the office of J. F. Stanford, 108 West Broadway, which all persons owning, leasing or being in any other way interested in Brand boulevard property, from the north to the south city limits, are strongly urged to attend.

Mattison B. Jones, president of the association, states that the committee that was appointed to confer with Pacific Electric officials regarding the terms on which the tracks could be lowered and the right-of-way improved from California avenue to the north limits of the city, will submit their report at 10 o'clock. This report, Mr. Jones declares, should be known to and carefully considered by all the members of the association.

WOMAN HURT IN CRASH SUCCUMBS

Street Car Accident Victim Dies of Injuries In Local Hospital

Mrs. Alma H. Swift of Glassell Park died at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital at 7 o'clock in an accident in Los Angeles.

Detective Sergeant Charles P. Blake and Officer H. A. Stanford, who investigated the matter, reported that she was brought there by C. L. Stevenson, 4666 Glassell avenue, Los Angeles, following a street car accident. He was unable to give any details.

After her death the body was turned over to the L. G. Scovron company and the Los Angeles coroner notified. As the accident occurred in Los Angeles, the investigation will be conducted by the police of that city.

Strikes Hand Car
While driving east on Broadway last night, shortly after 7 o'clock, Lennie L. Byers struck an unidentified Mexican, who was proceeding south on a handcar.

In a collision at Brand and Broadway shortly before 6 o'clock last night between a car driven by H. S. McConnell, 125 West Broadway, and Wallace Hodge, a newsboy, of 433 Riverdale drive, the latter's bicycle was partially wrecked, but the boy escaped unhurt.

No blame has been fixed for the accident. McConnell states that the boy could not control his bicycle owing to the weight of the papers he was carrying on the machine.

RECOVER STOLEN CAR

Chief of Police John D. Fraser was notified yesterday by Chief Harry Williams of Monterey Park that he had recovered a Chevrolet touring car belonging to L. H. Hill, 552 West Elk street, Glendale. This car was stolen last week and evidently abandoned in Monterey Park. Mr. Hill will go there to claim his property.

REPORTS CAR THEFT

Paul Butler, 613 East Palmer avenue, reported at police headquarters last night the theft of his Ford touring car from 627 1/2 East Palmer, about 10 o'clock. The car carried license No. 84148.

$800,000 HOSPITAL NEARLY COMPLETE

Work on Local Sanitarium Plant is Rushed by Contractors

The beautiful new $800,000 Glendale Hospital and Sanitarium being erected by a corporation bearing that name, is to be one of the Pacific coast's finest homes for the sick and injured. Construction is continuing at a rapid pace and the large building about 500 feet in length with its three immense wings will be ready for occupation by March 1. The huge structure has three stories and a basement, a main section having three parallel wings at one end, each equipped with the very best accommodations. The center wing contains a large parlor, dining room, lobby, and the medical offices of the directors and superintendent. At the far end is the medical wing. The hospital pharmacy, experimental laboratories, operating rooms, and individual doctors' offices are located in this section. Between these two wings is the hydrotherapy division. In this section the specialization and extensive treatment by hydrotherapy will be carried on.

Comfort for Patients
There are one hundred and thirty-one rooms each with a separate toilet and lavatory and hot and cold running water. Twenty-three of the wards have private baths. In every room there will be a telephone and a radio set, connecting with a powerful radio receiving set to be installed in the main lobby.

The grounds of the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital cover thirty acres. Mr. Dodson, landscape architect for the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco in 1915, will have personal charge of the beautification of the grounds. All the old ornamental trees, plants, and shrubs at the present Sanitarium location on East Broadway will be moved to the new home. The old grounds and buildings have already been sold and the land will be subdivided as soon as the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital move to their new quarters.

Modern Appliances
The special features of the modern building being erected include such equipment as a private laundry, ice manufacturing plant, cold storage house, and the latest medical devices for the treatment of patients. The very newest X-ray machines will be installed. A model cement tennis court is being constructed for the use of patients, and the formation of

D. A. R. IN SOLEMN WILSON TRIBUTE

Eulogy on Dead Executive Is Delivered by Regent as Members Stand

General Richard Gridley chapter, D. A. R., shared yesterday afternoon in the reverence of the nation upon the funeral and interment, in Washington, D. C., of Woodrow Wilson, America's wartime president, for the Daughters and guests, meeting in the Congregational church, stood while the regent, Mrs. C. W. Houston, read a fitting eulogy.

This tribute to the memory of the late ex-president was a most fitting part of yesterday's meeting, for the program was devoted to the American flag, and Mrs. May Smith, state chairman of flags, was guest, and gave a splendid paper on the flag.

During the business hour there were many things of interest and importance taken up for discussion and action. Special mention was made of the national congress, in the spring, in Washington, D. C., and the state conference, March 13, 14 and 15, in Pasadena.

Conference Delegate
It is the hope of the chapter that Mrs. Lida Border, who is now in Iowa, will be able to go on to Washington to represent the chapter at the national congress. Mrs. C. W. Houston is to be the official delegate to the Pasadena conference, and she will be accompanied by many of the chapter members.

The General Richard Gridley chapter is to have a special part in the state conference, for, on Saturday afternoon, March 15, the members will be hostesses at a reciprocity tea at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse honoring the incoming state officers. There will be more than 200 Daughters in attendance.

Another matter very close to the Daughters' hearts is the preservation of trees and the planting of new trees. Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker is circulating a petition to be presented to the Glendale City Council asking that as many trees be preserved in Glendale as possible. Furthermore, the chapter yesterday voted $10 to assist in planting trees on the area on the northeast hills made barren by the recent fire.

Mark Historical Spot
It was also voted that the chapter give the 10 cents per capita asked by the state organization for marking historical spots in various parts of California. Contributions of $5 were voted to the Philippine scholarship fund and to the immigration work at Angel island.

Upon the suggestion of Miss Ida D. Myers, the chapter voted unanimously to send a note of love and appreciation to Mrs. Lyman Stookey, retiring state regent. Mrs. S. C. Leppelman had arranged the program and, in addition to Mrs. Smith's paper, Mrs. T. W. Preston read "The Star-Spangled Banner" and Mrs. W. A. Saylor "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Many Soloists Appear At Free Show Tonight

Community Service invites all Glendale to the Harvard street high school auditorium tonight to hear the Rotarians' program, which is free. It includes vaudeville and radio stars, as well as church orchestras and quartets, so there should be something for all. Community singing will be led by Alexander Stewart. A. K. Lewis, Hawaiian tenor and instrumentalist; Albert Bryant, wonder boy radio star; Bill Bode, saxophone soloist; Ole Andersen, singer and Dan Kelly, talkologist, are stellar performers not already mentioned twice. The Rotarian chorus will sing three songs in uniform, also uniform, with Paul Carson at the piano. Mrs. Gertrude Champlain-Erb will accompany the other numbers.

About 210,000 acres of land are used in Japan for raising tea and 1,000,000 Japanese are employed in the tea-raising industry.

Realtors to Attend El Centro Farm Meet

A strong delegation from the Glendale Realty Board is planning to attend the farm lands conference that is to be held at El Centro on Saturday, February 16, when, in addition to the business that is to be brought up for discussion by the realtors, the delegates present will be taken for a trip over the Colorado river irrigation system in the Imperial valley, in order that they may have a clearer knowledge of the necessity for the conservation and storage of the waters of the river by the proposed Boulder canyon dam.

It is pointed out by Peter Hanson, president of the Glendale Realty Board, that the local organization has already established an enviable reputation for its attendance at these and other regional conferences, and he urges that as many members of the board as possible attend the El Centro meet.

A Last Plea to the Citizens of Glendale

On Sunday morning, Feb. 3rd, cards were passed to you, asking you to write to Senators Hiram Johnson and Samuel Shortridge; Representatives Capt. J. D. Fredericks and Walter F. Lineberger; Senator Thomas Sterling, Rep. Wm. W. Griest; Rep. Martin B. Madden, asking them to vote for house bill 4123.

Many have complied with this request. Many, many more letters are needed. This is of vital interest to you, as well as simple justice to the Postal employees. Better salaries will attract better men to the service, as well as retain the capable and experienced men we now have.

Do you know that a letter carrier in the first year receives $3.65 a day, and in 5 years reaches the highest of $4.87? The postal employees are required to provide their own uniforms, and appear neat at all times. When off duty they are expected to be exemplary citizens, and maintain a decent standard of living.

This bill, H. R. 4123, is now before Congress, therefore prompt action on your part is imperative.

Daily News Letter

General News and Gossip from Staff Writers at Home and Abroad.

By DANIEL O'CONNELL
For International News Service.

DUBLIN, Feb. 7.—Mrs. Mary MacSwiney, arch foe of the Free State, may be compelled to recognize the Free State courts in order to settle a grievance against the Bishop of Cork. She is endeavoring to have her case tried before an ecclesiastical court, but without apparent hope of success, and may be forced as a last resort to seek justice in the courts of the government she has fought so bitterly.

Last November the Bishop, Most Rev. Dr. Cahan, issued a letter to the press in which he forbade the clergymen in his diocese from officiating at the funeral of a hunger striker, pointing out that each hunger striker who died was in reality taking his own life and did so without contrition. In the course of his letter the Bishop blamed Miss MacSwiney for much of the trouble in Ireland, declaring she was then opposing the men who had helped in the fight against England and that her republicanism was a sham. The Bishop also made reference to large sums of money alleged to have been stolen from the Cork custom house during the irregulars' occupation, linking the custom house money by intimation with $25,000 alleged to have been found in a bag deposited in a convent by Mary MacSwiney's sister a short time before Free State troops captured Cork.

Miss MacSwiney is understood to have applied to the Archbishop of Cashel for an ecclesiastical court to try the action she contemplates against the Bishop and falling this is said to be planning an appeal to the Pope. As the issue is personal between herself and the Bishop, however, the church authorities are not expected to intervene. Her only resort will then be to the hated tribunals of the Free State.

Reports are current in authoritative circles that President Coolidge intends to take a long vacation as soon as his official duties will permit and that he contemplates a visit to the United States. The only "vacation" the President has had since 1916 was the period he spent in jail for his connection with the Sinn Fein movement when Ireland was still under British rule.

With the release of hundreds of political prisoners from Irish jails the forthcoming campaign for the election of local boards throughout Ireland is expected to be a lively one. Owing to political troubles there has been no election of local boards for six years, which means that the present boards have over-stayed their term of office by three years. Since the local boards control civic expenditures the positions are vitally important to taxpayers and there has been much protest against alleged extravagance by the boards now in office. It is expected that not many incumbents will be returned to power in the next elections.

Many Irish families are again being victimized by the old swindle known as the "Flynn millions." The scheme works like this: A well-dressed stranger appears at a humble Irish cottage and asks the head of the family if he had an uncle who went to America many years ago. Nearly all Irishmen have uncles in America, so when the stranger informs an Irishman that his long-lost uncle has died and left a huge fortune there is no disbelieve but exceeding joy in the household.

Then the secret comes out. The stranger says that funds are needed to cover attorney's fees, the cost of searching the records, etc. The trusting Irishman parts with a sum of money and the plausible stranger is never seen again.

Time was when the swindle was worked only on the country folk. Now, however, the city dwellers are falling for it and four or five instances of Dublin residents who have been thus victimized have come to light within the last few weeks.

SINGER HEARD ON TWO COASTS

Radio Audiences Enjoy Chicago Vocalist

Florence Macbeth.

By KENNETH HARRIS
For International News Service
CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—Not so many years ago a "vast" audience for a singer who had attained prominence consisted of something like 5,000 persons. It's a different story today, though, now that the radio is being utilized so extensively by such artists. A "vast" audience for radio performers easily reaches the million mark.

That this is a fact is borne out by the thousands of letters which Miss Florence Macbeth, coloratura of the Chicago Civic Opera company, received recently from radio fans, following her rendition of several songs on a Sunday evening program broadcasted from a Chicago station. This deluge of mail contained letters of appreciation from persons in all walks of life.

Miss Macbeth's efforts that evening elicited a quick response from Helen E. Velor of Huntington, Long Island, which told of the "remarkable clearness" with which the soprano's voice was carried by the ether waves. B. G. Cassett of San Jose, Cal., wrote that he "got" Miss Macbeth's concert "perfectly."

Fifty per cent of the letters received referred to Miss Macbeth, well known coloratura soprano, as "the girl with the radio voice." Hundreds of those who "penned" their thanks to Miss Macbeth were elderly persons who said the radio and the earnestness of those who do their "stuff" evening program broadcasted from a Chicago station. ### FRANCE MOST DOMINANT POWER IN EUROPE SINCE PETER THE GREAT

"France is the most dominant power in Europe since Peter the Great," Newton D. Baker, secretary of war under Woodrow Wilson, declared in an address recently.

"With millions of black troops which they can draw from Morocco, the French are formidable. I don't know that I blame them. Were I a Frenchman, with the memories they have reared on I probably would I prob a b l y would be wholly in sympathy with their policy."

"Battleships are useless," Mr. Baker said. "France objected to the only two limitations that seem essential. France is superior in the air to any power in Europe. Germany, at her best, could drop only 20 tons of high explosive in twenty-four hours. France today can drop 2000 tons in the same period. I might be accused of betraying military secrets—but they're not my secrets."

"Doubles National Debt. The most prodigious financial fact in the modern world is that since the armistice France has doubled her national debt, Mr. Baker said.

Much of this money has been used to support the armies of Roumania and Czecho Slovakia.

he said. "I can't prove it, but I believe the Separatist movement in Bavaria was instigated by the French. Because of her debt, France has no sale for national bonds outside her own country. French banks, backed by French financiers, must take the bonds. The franc is dropping in value along with the mark. The population will stand for no further taxation."

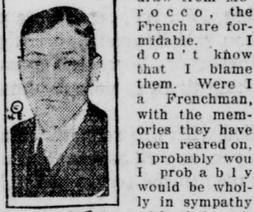

"There are but three things that can save France: First, more taxation, or a cut in the size of the army; second, continental security, and third, the use of her army while it is at its best. There is danger in the knowledge that the army is at its best today."

"If, true to traditions, the countries she is aiding financially come next year and find empty coffers they will say, 'Oh, well, if France can't help us we had better make friends with some one who can appreciate our needs.' The result will be a formation of new alliances."

Speaking of conditions in other countries of Europe, he declared the condition of the world as a whole is worse today than it has ever been.

"In Germany 4,000,000 men will be out of work by spring," he said. "Twenty thousand will starve—but not in silence. Hunger leads in turn to madness and crime."

"The Turks, readmitted to Europe, threaten the peace of the Balkans. Italy is overcrowded. Four-fifths of the countries of Europe are governed by dictators and the people are losing faith in 'stuffed with straw' men and institutions."

NEWTON D. BAKER

Baker said the objection of the French to the limitation of airships and submarines was because both were essential to bringing troops from Morocco to France in time of war.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE ELECTRIC LIGHT
"Uncle Wiggily," squeaked Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy one day in the hollow stump bungalow. "don't you think we are a bit old-fashioned?"
"Perhaps we are, my dear Nurse Jane," answered the bunny rabbit gentleman to his muskrat lady housekeeper. "But what of it? We get a great deal of fun out of life."
"Yes, I know," said Nurse Jane. "But take it in the matter of lights, now. Mrs. Twistytail, the lady pig, just had electric lights put in her pen. All we have after dark is a candle, or perhaps some lightning bugs in a bottle during the summer, when the fireflies are flitting about."
"But, Nurse Jane," went on Mr. Longears kindly. "Those are very good lights, indeed."
"Pooh! Nonsense!" sniffed the muskrat lady. "The candle is smelly and smoky. As for the lightning bugs, when we use them in summer they often fly out of the bottle and leave us in the dark."
"What do you want to do?" asked the bunny gentleman with a sigh as he looked at his newspaper, only half read.
"I want you to put in electric lights," spoke the muskrat lady. "They will be much more stylish and elegant."
"All right—we'll put in the electric lights," agreed the bunny uncle. "But, after all, I think a candle is best."
"Pooh! Nonsense! It's too old-fashioned!" sniffed Nurse Jane.
So, in the course of time, Uncle Wiggily called on Grandpa Whackum, the beaver gentleman carpenter, and asked to have the hollow stump fixed for electric lights.
"Candles are good enough for me, when I want a light, which is seldom," grunted Grandpa Whackum. "I go to bed at sun down."
"Well, Nurse Jane wants electric lights and she must have them," sighed the bunny gentleman.
So the electric lights were put in the hollow stump bungalow and Nurse Jane invited all the neighbors to see them. Aunt Lettie, the goat, wouldn't come.
"Why not?" asked Nurse Jane.
"Oh, I'm so nervous and afraid of shocks," bleated Aunt Lettie. "And electricity gives one shocks! I touched an electric wire one day and it made me feel as if I were funny bones all over. It's just like when your leg wakes up after going to sleep—full of pins and needles."
So Aunt Lettie didn't go to the hollow stump bungalow to see Uncle Wiggily's new electric lights. But all the other friends of Woodland were there.
Seeing the hollow stump bungalow so well lighted, the Fox, who was out in the woods with the Wolf, looking for something to eat, growled:
"Uncle Wiggily must be having a party!"
"Yes," agreed the Wolf. "And it would be a good time for us to slip over there and see if we can find any ears to nibble."
So, over they went.
Now, as it happened, after the new electric lights in Uncle Wiggily's hollow stump bungalow had glowed brightly for a time, some of them went out.
"I wonder what's wrong?" asked Nurse Jane.
"Oh, some of the wires are crissed or crossed, or something like that," answered Uncle Wiggily, twinking nose with a grin. "I'll unscrew one of the glass bulbs from a socket and see what is wrong."
"Oh, no, you had better not do that," cried Nurse Jane.
"Why not?" asked the bunny.
"Because you may get one of those electric shocks that Aunt Lettie told me about," answered Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy. "Your pink, twinkling nose will feel as if it were full of pins and needles."
"Nonsense," laughed Uncle Wiggily. "I guess I know how to fix an electric light. Why, I can catch lightning bugs."
So he took out one of the glass bulbs that had gone dark and stuck his paw up inside the socket. Then all of a sudden—
"Whizz! Ziss! Boom!"
There was a flash of light, a shower of sparks, and Uncle Wiggily was knocked across the room. He went flying against a chair, and he sat down in the chair so hard that he smashed it.

This Pretty Girl Who Defies Age Discloses Great Beauty Secret

Says It's Nothing More Than Old Fashioned Ordinary Buttermilk in the Form of a Wonderful Cream. Is Guaranteed by All Good Drug and Department Stores.

The first application of Howard's Buttermilk Cream will astonish you. It creates beauty almost like magic. The most wonderful thing about it is the fact that whilst it turns the dull, most lifeless complexion to radiant beauty and makes red or rough hands or arms snow white, yet there is not the slightest sign of its use after application. It actually vanishes from sight and the most heated atmosphere will not produce the least shininess or greasiness of the skin.
No matter whether you are troubled with a poor complexion, wrinkles, puffiness around the eyes, freckles, crows' feet or lines around the mouth, ugly finger nails, or just a simple roughness of the face, hands or arms caused by wind or sun, you will find that any or all of these troubles will quickly disappear with the use of Howard's Buttermilk Cream. To prove this to your complete satisfaction, get a small quantity today at your toilet goods counter with the understanding that they will freely return the purchase money should you be dissatisfied.

MUNICH (via Paris), Feb. 7.—The pot of political passion is boiling over again in Bavaria. Ludendorff, who, after the collapse of his rathskeller revolution, gave his word of honor to abandon all political activity, is again engaged in preparation for another drive intended to restore the monarchy.

The charges made against Frau Cosima are based on the discovery of money in intercepted letters declared to have been sent by her to Ludendorff. Before Ludendorff can strike at the republic, however, he must settle scores with Dictator von Kahr, who keeps him a virtual prisoner at the Ludendorff villa near Munich, surrounded by an army of spies and gunmen, who watch every movement of the former commander-in-chief of the Teuton armies.

Coolidge's Letters Pass Scrutiny of Ira Smith First

Ira Smith

By JOHN T. LEWING, JR. WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—If you should write a letter to President Calvin Coolidge, Ira Smith will see it first. Smith opens all of the president's mail. He has sat at the same desk for 15 years in the White House executive offices opening the mail for presidents. What he could tell—if he would! But he is discretion personified.

The job of Smith's is not an easy one. The presidential mail runs from 500 to 1000 letters a day. Sometimes it is much larger. There probably are only two men in the United States who have as large or larger "personal" mail. These are Henry Ford and John D. Rockefeller. Most of the letters are "begging letters," although the president is not so much appealed to in this respect as the manufacturer of automobiles and the man who enables them to run.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters, M.D.
Author of "Diet and Health, with Keys to the Calories"

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

"Mrs. B.—If you follow our directions for reducing you will not have that awful faint, gossamer feeling and headaches, and you will not ruin your disposition, as well as those of the rest of the family. If you haven't the directions, send a fully self-addressed, stamped envelope and four cents in stamps to me in care of this paper. Allow three weeks for it to reach you if you are far from New York.

You ask if young girls are going to regret the present day posture and slumped over shoulders and humped up stomachs. Yes, they are—for correct posture has a very great bearing on the health. In the so-called debutante slouch posture the chest is crowded, not leaving sufficient room for the very necessary good lung and heart action, the stomach and intestines, are pushed downward, and the direction of pressure in the abdomen is so charged that the pelvic organs may be forced out of place and disorders of menstruation may result.

Miss R.—I regret it is impossible for me to give individual diet or other advice through the mails or otherwise. If you have my book or pamphlet on reducing you can safely follow those. We have had two or three million letters, more or less, from those who have followed them, saying what good results they have had. I often run some of them in the column.

Mrs. P.—Your little girl certainly must be taken to a skilled physician for diagnosis and treatment. Meanwhile put her on the diet that I have suggested in Diet for Children, including at least three glasses of milk a day (better more for her); a full cup of vegetables, especially the green leaf vegetables, (a small part raw, grated fine); a full cup of fruit, part fresh if possible; two or three egg yolks; whole wheat bread and cereals; nuts and some simple desserts.

Mrs. L. D.—We will be glad to send you the age-height-weight information that will show you how to judge how nearly normal your baby and your little girl are, if you will send a stamped and self-addressed envelope to me in care of this paper, with your request for these two tables.

Year before last, when beads suddenly rose in popularity, a great many people said: "This is a fad that will not last. Beads will go out soon." Yet instead of beads losing in favor, they seem to be gaining. Today we see not only myriads of bead chains, but beaded gowns, beaded slippers, and handbags, beaded on almost any kind of garment.

And now it seems as if the bead, after conquering the field of dress, has declared: "I will also conquer the field of house-decoration!" For among the latest fads we find the beaded lampshade. There is no doubt about it, beads produce an effect of

MODISH IN EVERY DETAIL

The frock in cinder (gray) crepe faille pictured to the left is the latest expression of the Russian style. The blouse fastens at one side and is held in at the waist with a belt of self-material. The round neck, long sleeves and lower edge of the blouse are edged with narrow fur. For later-season wear the fur could be replaced with bands of moire ribbon put on with tagging. Medium size requires 4 3/4 yards 36-inch material, with 2 yards 36-inch lining for waist and upper part of gores.

The second model is a straightline frock in Mexico brown, with tiers of self-material—a fine twill. The open neck is finished with a round collar, which may be of lace if preferred. There are upward-turning plaits at the underarm seams, which take up the slight fullness which would ordinarily be confined under a belt. Deep turn-back cuffs finish the long, close-fitting sleeves. Medium size requires 4 yards 54-inch material.

First model: Pictorial Review dress No. 1967. Sizes 34 to 46 inches bust and 16 to 20 years. Price 45 cents.

Second model: Dress No. 1954. Sizes 34 to 46 inches bust. Price 45 cents.

Heart and Home Problems

By MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

PROCEED WITH CAUTION

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young widower of thirty-four with a little daughter three years old. My wife died three years ago. I thought then I could not love another woman, but I know a pure, sweet, clean woman, one who is contented to enjoy her home in preference to "joy riding" and dancing, and I love her dearly. Her husband is chasing "butterflies" deserted her and their two children. She is the kind of a wife a good many men today would be proud to own.

Is it correct that I should try to win her in marriage? I love her with all my heart.

SWEET WILLIAM.

It is correct to try to win the woman in marriage. Be very sure that you are choosing wisely, however, because inharmonious is so apt to result because of the children of former marriages. Occasionally such a marriage proves a success, but only too often great unhappiness results.

THE PROPER WAY TO ASK FOR A DATE

Dear Mrs. Thompson: What is the proper way in which to ask a girl for a date? I have met the girl to whom I refer but once and then was only introduced to her. She is very attractive and good-looking and I wish to secure her steady friendship. Please tell me how to go about it.

What should I say to her the next time we meet? In asking her for a date where would you suggest taking her?

I think she is a girl of high standing and refinement. I have never gone with a girl so you can see that I would not know what to say and how to act.

If she refuses my friendship, how can I become acquainted with some other girl? I am very bashful, but good-looking.

INEXPERIENCED.

BEAUTY CHATS

EDNA KENT FORBES

BRIEF SUGGESTIONS

Really good beauty preparations cost so much that every woman should know of some inexpensive substitutes for the more costly articles in her toilet cabinet. Almost everyone, for instance, needs a good tissue-building cold cream. Personally, I have never found a satisfactory one under a dollar a jar, though I can make an excellent one for myself for 50 to 75 cents. A cream so expensive should never be used for cleansing the skin. Large jars of excellent cleansing cream can be purchased for 50 cents, and made up at home for less than that. But if you wish only a cleanser 25 cents' worth of white mineral oil will last three times as long as a 50-cent jar of cold cream, and is even better for cleansing the skin. If the skin is dry and needs a little nourishing as well as cleansing, olive oil should be used. While more expensive, it is still cheaper than cleansing cream.

If you like bath powders and cannot afford any of the good kinds now on the market, a 15-cent package of corn starch, mixed with 5 cents' worth of sachet powder, will make a bath powder as silky and smooth in texture and as delicately perfumed as any you could purchase. The same amount in a fancy box would cost 75 cents to $1.50. This is excellent to powder the arms and shoulders and neck, and is particularly soothing on a hot day, but it does not cling to the skin sufficiently to be a good face powder.

We mentioned lard yesterday for treating chapped hands. Another excellent substitute for expensive beauty aids is mutton fat.

Car couplings and drawbars are tested by subjecting them to blows from a two-ton hammer, and if they stand the impact of this weight they are considered safe enough to prevent railway accidents.

Tomorrow—How to Have a Bad Skin.

HAYHURST HOLDS 1924 HOPES HIGH

Chances in Football for G. H. S. Never Brighter, Says Mentor of Eleven

By AL DIX
Of The Evening News Staff.
As time for spring practice draws near, Coach Normal Hayhurst is waxing enthusiastic about the chances of another championship football team for Glendale this year.

"I really have more material to start with this year than I did last season," he said yesterday. "Conditions, however, are just reversed. Last year I had a backfield and no line. This year I have a good line and half a backfield. I realize, probably more than anyone else, how hard it is going to be to fill the shoes of Howard Elliott and Horii. But I honestly look for another wonderful season."

The Red and Black mentor believes that in Muff he has a man that will capably fill Walton's place. Walton graduates next June, and the squad thereby loses one of its fastest men. The only thing that kept him off of the all-state team was the fact that his defensive ability was not on a par with his offensive strength. In open field running he was a demon.

Muff, one of the 130-pound stars last season, will be ready for the heavyweights this fall, according to Hayhurst. He runs splendid interference and is good with the ball. His main department of learning will be in defensive formations.

Good Prospects
Coach Hayhurst does not think that the opposition will be as strong this year as it was last season, especially in the post-season games after the Central League pennant winner is decided.

According to his way of thinking, the Red and Black should win the league flag without a great deal of undue difficulty, as they ran through all opposition last year, and he believes the team will be stronger in 1924.

Taking Long Beach, San Bernardino, Bakersfield and Santa Monica as the standard of competition last year, Coach Hayhurst appears to be on the right track when he says that opposition will not be so strenuous. All these teams, especially Long Beach and Bakersfield, lost most of their stars by graduation.

Discusses Players
The same thing might be said of Glendale by some people. But interest was centered so closely last season on the work of Elliott that spectators were prone to overlook the sterling work of Zahn, Brucker, Morrison, Bud Elliott and Ryan. The latter, who is captain-elect, improved his game wonderfully during the end of the season, and with Bud Elliott, who will be quarter again this year, form one of the best interference teams in Southern California.

The chief problem that is worrying Hayhurst now is the selection of an end to fill Horii's place. Lavelle will be back again this year, so one flank is well cared for. It's a long time until the referee's whistle blows next fall, however, and during that time just the man for the place may transfer or be developed from the material on hand.

The Yankees may send Lou Gehrig to the minors another year for more experience, but Miller Huggins has made it plain he will not turn the kid first baseman loose. Gehrig, former Columbia University star, went great games with Hartford in the Eastern league last season. He will report to the Yanks at New Orleans next spring, so Huggins can look him over and note his progress.

Statistics show Philly short-stop made forty-nine errors last season, but failed to include greatest error of all—that of signing a contract with the Sleepy City boys in the first place.

Glenn B. Porter Goes to National Horseshoe Meet

Glenn B. Porter, furniture dealer of 124 West Broadway, who left this morning, on an extended tour of southern and eastern cities, will represent the Glendale Horseshoe club in the National Horseshoe Shoe Pitchers' tournament to be held at Lake Worth, a suburb of Palm Beach, Florida, on February 18-23.

Paired with A. V. Austey, another Glendale man, Mr. Porter was instrumental in winning the team championship of the state of California at Santa Monica last September, and is recognized as one of the best pitchers in this section.

Accompanied by his wife, they will first stop at New Orleans to see the sights, and after visiting Palm Beach, Jacksonville and Washington, will journey to New York. On the way home they will stop off at Niagara Falls, Chicago and Alamo, Ill., where Mrs. Porter will visit her mother.

They expect to be gone about three months. Mr. Porter expects to visit several of the larger furniture and linoleum manufacturing establishments in the east.

YOUR DICE, MR. WRIGLEY

In view of the fact that the ball club is backed by the Wrigley millions, it is more than passing strange that the Chicago Cubs have made little effort to keep step with the Giants in the matter of minor league purchases. A great plenty has been spent since Wrigley came into baseball—$500,000 for his controlling interest, $250,000 for the renovation of the ball park, and $300,000 for the Los Angeles franchise—but the outlay for new players has been comparatively light. Wrigley seems to think more of his ball park than of the club itself.

In other words, millions for the fence, but not one cent for human bric-a-brac.

At that, the Cubs have done pretty well with young players who have come up without fear or fanfare.

BEDTIME STORY

Once upon a time there was a biter who fought every day in the month at the rate of $1 a day. He was caught in the drat.

Quite a few fans may go out to the ball park to see Heinie Groh, but the little fellow never does.

The following slogan has been adopted by the Volstead Society for the Preservation of Lemonade:

"The Scowflaw Shall Not Wring Tonight."

"Obviously," remarked the official announcement, "no scowflaw can wring or be wrung with any degree of accuracy unless thorough moist. We intend to see that he shall be kept in a cool, dry place."

DIDST?

Didst ever start to take and cart? Your troubles out before your friends? With vast distaste, unseemly haste? They'll quit you cold without amends.

Didst ever slip your hand toward hip?

A gesture, fraught with consequence? With mouths agape, as you escape, They'll chase you over yonder fence.

GROGGY BUT GAME

A Japanese engineering firm has written to officials of the New York Yankees asking for blue print plans of the Yankee Stadium, the largest and most commodious ball park in the country. It is the intention of the Japanese to erect a similar structure at Kobe.

This might sound like so much hokum, garnished with apple sauce, if it wasn't for the fact that it is the same nation that took up lawn tennis in an odd moment, produced Knibbe and Shimizu, and in a few years was contesting America's possession of the Davis cup in the challenge round, after all other nations were eliminated.

Only a nation of this kind could think in terms of sport stadiums with the country just staggering its economic feet from the effects of a great earthquake.

Tiger Coach Tells Football Schedule

Coach Pipal, head of the physical education department of Occidental, has just given out the complete Tiger varsity football schedule for 1924, including a return game with Stanford at Palo Alto October 4. Six games will be played, five of which are conference contests.

The Tiger schedule is as follows:
October 4—Occidental vs. Stanford at Palo Alto.
October 18—Occidental at Redlands.
October 25—Occidental at southern branch of U. C.
November 1—Whittier at Occidental.
November 11—Occidental vs.

Rumors, Denials, Alibis

By F. A. GRAHAM

Whoa, Napoleon! Here we are at the reading room of the Jabbone League. The first headline tells us that the "Pipes Hang 7 to 2 Defeat on Howard Auto Club." That sounds reasonable. If there is anyone who can beat a garage man it must be the plumber.

Under the caption "Important Boxing Bout This Week" we read—"Floyd Johnson vs. Jack Douglas, 12 rounds in N. Y. Still, that may be important in New York."

"Hundred Golf Clubs for Windy City Fans." All of which won't reduce the wind in either the city or the fans.

By the way, that gussie who said that one about "tempests in teapots" knew something, eh?

Coming closer home, we find this: "The Walnut Drive Service Station is Sporting a New Coat of Pain—Blue and Yellow." Personally, we believe black and blue more appropriate as a coat of pain, but tastes differ.

"The score stood 21 to 13 in favor of La Canada. Prof. Axe was umpire. It was a hit game. The first five innings were played without a hit."

Didst ever slip your hand toward hip? A gesture, fraught with consequence? With mouths agape, as you escape, They'll chase you over yonder fence.

With their showrooms decorated with floral offerings from business firms in Glendale and Los Angeles, significant of well-wishes for their success, the new firm of A. E. Bryan and J. A. Campbell, proprietors of the new sporting goods store and golf school at 223 South Brand boulevard, are well pleased with the interest manifested in their opening held Tuesday night.

A large crowd was on hand to wish them bon voyage on their business venture. The rooms are fitted up very neatly, with everything of high class. A full line of sporting goods is carried, especial attention being given to golf equipment. In the rear of the store is a golf net where clubs may be tried out, and a putting green will be constructed in the rear of the building in the near future.

Mr. Bryan is well known in Southern California circles as a noted football referee, and Mr. Campbell has for some years been associated with the pro's at some of the most famous golf courses in America.

Citars for the men and sonenirs for the ladies were passed out at the opening, and the new business men expect to be of great assistance to the many golfers of Glendale who play at Griffith park, Annandale, Flintridge, and those who have joined the Oakmont club.

BASEBALL STARS ARE WARMING UP

Candidates Show Paces In Effort to Land Berths On Oxy's Team

Baseball will soon be in full swing at most of the Southern California Conference colleges. Already many of the players are out warming up every afternoon. Practice will officially start February 15. Occidental will not be slow to answer Coach Wilkie Clark's call of the diamond. The prospects of another Tiger championship arise with the return of Coach Clark, who turned out marvelous teams in '11 and '12 when the Tiger baseball nine knocked both California and Stanford for a goal. A host of candidates will try out for the Oxy varsity and the competition for all positions will keep each player doing his best, and there will be no stalling around. The fellows will have to work hard or get off the squad.

Manager McDonald is lining up some peppy practice games and the conference season opens April 12 with Whittier meeting the Tigers on the Oxy diamond.

Plenty of Material
The varsity players returning are Fulton, Powers, DeMandel, Lindquist, Tanaka, Norton, Argue, Ebers and others. Lindley, Smith, Link, McInnis, Wheeler, Hazeltine and Cherrie were on the frosh team last year and will be out for varsity practice. The freshman team looks like a conference winner with Bud Teachout, Rats Brobst, Hoch, Gode, Mshkin, Condie, Hammersley, Deaver, Neely, Gregory and some more prep stars around which to build a machine. Bud Teachout hails from Franklin high and ranks as the best prep twirler in this state.

Frank Kerwin tells us that the winner of the A A division in the winter league cannot be determined until all postponed games have been played. Here we thought the thing was decided last Sunday. The suspense is killing us.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—Old time baseball fans were much interested today in the news that Joe M'Ginnity and Roger Bresnahan, star battery of the Giants in the championship days of 1904 and 1905 were again to work for M'Graw. M'Ginnity who pitched winning ball in the Mississippi valley league last season at the age of 51 is to act as pitching coach.

Manager of Phillies says he has pitcher who will win twenty games next season. Three more like that and the team will climb out of last place.

ROLLIN

1924 Debutantes

The fashionable Rollin enclosed models are replicas of the smart French designs shown at the great Parisian Automobile Salon just passed.

In addition to a dignified beauty and pure simplicity of body lines, there is a sufficient sport tendency to give these models a decided air of originality and exquisite charm.

Powered by the nimble, small displacement, high compression, European type, light weight motor, the Rollin is bound to take its rightful place as one of America's most finely fashioned and highly developed automobiles.

- 4-wheel brakes—internal type.
- Firestone Balloon Tires.
- 4-bearing crankshaft.
- Force feed lubrication to all rotating motor bearings.
- New manifold and new carburetor development.
- 25 to 30 miles per gallon of gas.
- Touring Car De Luxe, $975*; Three Seated Coupe Roadster, $1175; Five Passenger Sedan, $1275.
- *This same model with wood wheels, cord tires and 4-wheel brakes but without De Luxe equipment, $895. Prices f. o. b. factory.

Let us show you how the Rollin will out-demonstrate anything in its class. Beginning today we are giving demonstrations. Get yours early and you will get your delivery that much quicker.

CLUBS ALL WANT WINNING HURLERS

American League Managers Would Swap Anything For Slabmen

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service.
NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—No deal got beyond the rumor stage at the American league schedule meeting in Boston owing to the fact that seven clubs in an eight club circuit are seeking one and the same thing, vise, to wit and namely, pitchers.

This was the opinion expressed today by Edward G. Barrow, business manager of the New York Yankees, upon his return from the scene of activities, if any. Barrow can take a philo-sophic view of the situation. He happens to be hooked up with the only club in the league that is immune from the great drought.

"They have even tried to get some of our pitchers away from us," Barrow said. "But Huggins has no intention of breaking up an all-star staff. It looks as though young pitchers must be developed."

A glance over the seven remaining clubs in the league confirms Barrow's analysis. The Detroit Tigers claim they would run one-two this season if they could fall heir to a real second

1924 THOUGHTS OF RIP VAN WINKLE

Lewis W. McGee, Away For Eleven Years, Tells of Our New Ideas

By GIL A. COWAN
Of The Evening News Staff.

Rip Van Winkle left Sleepy Hollow and slept for twenty years, according to the story book of Washington Irving. And twenty years in those good old days was equal to ten years, or less, in this modern age—particularly in Southern California.

So it is that Lewis W. McGee, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. McGee of 128 South Isabel street, who has been touring "round the world for eleven years, can return to his home here with the philosophy of a twentieth century Rip Van and a couple of winks.

Sojourning in the Far East, not to forget Paris and Vienna, he has not been asleep, but the psychology of the Southland in its transformation is not a part of him. He has to learn how it all happened, as the view he expresses would indicate. He says:

Motors, Oil, Real Estate

"The three subjects of never-fading interest to the Southern California seem to be real estate, motorcars and oil stocks, at least that is the impression one has after holding a conversation with anyone living in the 'Riviera of America.'"

The writer must admit that when we interviewed Mr. McGee on his return we talked of motor cars and real estate, but not about oil stock. We have been burned, thank you, and someone else can be a Rockefeller, Doheny, Sinclair or Julian, for all we care.

"Everyone here is interested in real estate, even though living in a hotel," continues Mr. McGee's comment. "The unbelievable increase in real estate values can only be appreciated by leaving the place for ten years and then return to find whole cities laid out where only yesterday sage brush and jack rabbits ruled supreme.

All Have Prospered

"Yes everyone here, it seems, who had the foresight to invest even a small sum in real estate a few years ago is independent. And the end is as far away as ever.

Real estate seems to have only started on the upward path. With the never-ending influx of tourists, who come only to look, and remain charmed by the beauties of Southern California, it is easy to foresee the future of the landowner. He would make a Ponzil look like a piker.

"Following close to real estate comes motors as a subject in conversation. This interest can easily be understood after once seeing the beautiful highway system linking and interlinking the cities of Southern California. Ford surely must have heard about the road here before he planned his production campaign.

"There are beautiful drives from the foothills to the beach enjoyed by the motorist, but they seem to be totally inadequate to handle the traffic. At least the sightseer finds them so.

"And last, but not least, there is the oil. Everyone with whom I have come in contact has either made money or lost money in oil. Yes, oil makes its appeal to all from the conservative business man to the highest and wildest of the gamblers. Oil holds forth the charms so that even the diplomats of the world's greatest powers fall for her vamping ways.

"So in Southern California you have in the air the celebrated trio—subject of all conversations—real estate, motors, and oil."

The young people of the various church organizations, including the Christian Endeavor and Epworth League societies, are already making plans for a part in the service. Plans were also discussed relative to the observance of Passion week, the week preceding Easter, a fine program, including vocal and musical selections and short addresses, is being arranged for the Easter services, it is announced by the secretary of the association, Rex C. Kelley.

CANADIANS WILL PRESENT PROGRAM

Famous Toronto Singer Will Render Vocal Numbers During Concert

Canadians living in Glendale declare themselves 100 per cent Glendallians and tonight just to show their local friends what a live group the Glendalian Canadian club is, an all-Canadian program is to be given at 8 o'clock in the K. P. hall at the corner of South Brand boulevard and Park avenue.

A special feature of the program will be vocal numbers by James Cranney of Toronto, Can., who won a gold medal from the Toronto Conservatory of Music, and who has studied extensively in Canada, England and the United States.

The program is announced as: Baritone solo, "Heart Bowed Down" (Balfe), by James Cranney; reading, selected, by Miss Alice Patterson; Glendale booster song, composed and played by Mrs. S. S. Gilhuly; male quartet, "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes" (Jonson), by Messrs. Munro, Reed, Wright and Campbell; baritone solo, "Melisande in the Wood" (Goetz), by James Cranney; song and dance by Miss Carolynne Cantanwine; soprano solo, selected, by Mrs. Smith; baritone solo, "Somewhere Over the Rainbow" (Tate), by James Cranney; trio, "Memories of Home" (Gutman), by violin, flute and piano, Messrs. Rushton, Eby and Mrs. Brode; tenor solo, "Nirvana" (Adams), by John Wright; soprano solo, selected, by Mrs. Batsford; address, by W. E. Hewitt; baritone solo, "Bandolero" (Stuart), by James Cranney.

By adding 12 per cent of chromium and a minute quantity of tungsten or manganese to nickel steel a Swiss scientist has invented an alloy that does not expand or contract under temperature changes.

Mothers You Can Prevent Children From Taking Cold

Next Time They Come in Wet and "Sniffling" Rub This Vapor Salve Over Throat and Chest

When children come in from play with feet wet, noses blue and hands like lumps of ice, you feel sure that they are "in for a cold."

But the next time try Vicks. At bedtime rub this vaporizing salve well in over throat and chest and cover with a warm flannel cloth.

The body heat, releases the ingredients—Menthol, Camphor, Eucalyptus, Juniper Tar, etc.—in the form of vapors, and these vapors go directly to the air passages, stimulating the mucous membrane to repel germ attacks.

At the same time Vicks increases the circulation of the blood through the chest region, thus helping to prevent any congestion developing.

If applied in time, Vicks will prevent many colds from getting a start and its use doesn't disturb the child's digestion as constant internal dosing is so apt to do.

CLEAN KIDNEYS BY DRINKING LOTS OF WATER

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers or Back Hurts

Eating too much rich food may produce kidney trouble in some form, says a well-known authority, because the acids created excite the kidneys. Then they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of disorders, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, begin drinking lots of good water and also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity; also to neutralize the acids in the system so that they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year—Advertisement.
