

THE TERMS. We again call the attention of our readers to the following...

THE NATIONAL ERA.

WASHINGTON, JUNE 21, 1849.

WANTED. Subscribers, who do not file their papers, and who have copies of numbers 110 and 113, will do us a favor by sending them to our address.

EXTRA NUMBERS.

Of the Rev. containing Mr. Benton's speech, and Fisher's Lecture, with the reply to it, can be obtained by application at our office. Those ordering them to be sent by mail, shall have them at three cents a piece. They are sterling documents in their own right.

SUBSCRIPTIONS RUNNING OUT.

Adhering strictly to the cash system, which obliges us to cut off all subscribers, as the time for which they have paid, expires, unless they renew their subscriptions, it is important to remind them from time to time, of the necessity of compliance with the rules, and of the necessity of sending us, and we suffer as little loss as possible.

LAND LIMITATION—SOME HISTORICAL FACTS.

Mr. Greeley, in his late issue, is reported to have said, in reference to the Land Limitation, that it was an idea of the nineteenth century. That it had been tried in the Hebrew Commonwealth, and that it had failed.

THE ROMAN REPUBLIC.

The first number of "The Republic," the new Whig paper in this city, appeared Wednesday last week. Its dimensions are the same as the old National Era. It is under the editorial control of C. B. Felt.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

THE REPUBLIC.

The first number of "The Republic," the new Whig paper in this city, appeared Wednesday last week. Its dimensions are the same as the old National Era. It is under the editorial control of C. B. Felt.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

that he would ever raise his hand in ruinously aggressive war. For Clay! he has fallen a victim to that brutal code which is always associated with slaveholding institutions. He had committed errors—he had failed sometimes to see clearly the consequences of his own principles.

THE ROMAN REPUBLIC. The first number of "The Republic," the new Whig paper in this city, appeared Wednesday last week. Its dimensions are the same as the old National Era.

SUBSCRIBERS AND COLLECTORS.

The papers have been filled lately with several notices of a discovery by Dr. Bird, of Chicago, of the specific remedial power of sulphur in cholera.

LAND LIMITATION—SOME HISTORICAL FACTS.

Mr. Greeley, in his late issue, is reported to have said, in reference to the Land Limitation, that it was an idea of the nineteenth century. That it had been tried in the Hebrew Commonwealth, and that it had failed.

THE ROMAN REPUBLIC.

The first number of "The Republic," the new Whig paper in this city, appeared Wednesday last week. Its dimensions are the same as the old National Era.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

THE REPUBLIC.

The first number of "The Republic," the new Whig paper in this city, appeared Wednesday last week. Its dimensions are the same as the old National Era.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

remant. A more ridiculous caricature of a hero, saint or martyr, or of a great public movement, than is furnished in the extract just quoted, we have rarely seen. Gracchus, and the reformer he proposed, are alike misrepresented. The Land Reformers of our times contemplated, first, the abolition of the land monopoly; secondly, the appropriation of the public lands in limited quantities to actual settlers, who are landless. It was not limitation on the acquisition of private property, by individual industry, that the Land Reformers had in view.

THE ROMAN REPUBLIC. The first number of "The Republic," the new Whig paper in this city, appeared Wednesday last week. Its dimensions are the same as the old National Era.

SUBSCRIBERS AND COLLECTORS.

The papers have been filled lately with several notices of a discovery by Dr. Bird, of Chicago, of the specific remedial power of sulphur in cholera.

LAND LIMITATION—SOME HISTORICAL FACTS.

Mr. Greeley, in his late issue, is reported to have said, in reference to the Land Limitation, that it was an idea of the nineteenth century. That it had been tried in the Hebrew Commonwealth, and that it had failed.

THE ROMAN REPUBLIC.

The first number of "The Republic," the new Whig paper in this city, appeared Wednesday last week. Its dimensions are the same as the old National Era.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

THE REPUBLIC.

The first number of "The Republic," the new Whig paper in this city, appeared Wednesday last week. Its dimensions are the same as the old National Era.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

from her most enlightened and far-seeing statesmen, and laid the foundation of her future greatness. The Atlas, in subsequent articles on this subject, has sought to say against such measures on the ground that they would be a violation of the sacred rights of the people, and would be a violation of the sacred rights of the people.

THE ROMAN REPUBLIC. The first number of "The Republic," the new Whig paper in this city, appeared Wednesday last week. Its dimensions are the same as the old National Era.

SUBSCRIBERS AND COLLECTORS.

The papers have been filled lately with several notices of a discovery by Dr. Bird, of Chicago, of the specific remedial power of sulphur in cholera.

LAND LIMITATION—SOME HISTORICAL FACTS.

Mr. Greeley, in his late issue, is reported to have said, in reference to the Land Limitation, that it was an idea of the nineteenth century. That it had been tried in the Hebrew Commonwealth, and that it had failed.

THE ROMAN REPUBLIC.

The first number of "The Republic," the new Whig paper in this city, appeared Wednesday last week. Its dimensions are the same as the old National Era.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

THE REPUBLIC.

The first number of "The Republic," the new Whig paper in this city, appeared Wednesday last week. Its dimensions are the same as the old National Era.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

into effect this measure, he became a candidate for the Tribunate, and in defiance of the fierce opposition of the privileged classes, was triumphantly elected. Many of the most distinguished Romans, such as Aulus CLAUDIUS, and others, were his warm supporters, and he secured his efforts, though they have not been successful, to the success of the movement.

THE ROMAN REPUBLIC. The first number of "The Republic," the new Whig paper in this city, appeared Wednesday last week. Its dimensions are the same as the old National Era.

SUBSCRIBERS AND COLLECTORS.

The papers have been filled lately with several notices of a discovery by Dr. Bird, of Chicago, of the specific remedial power of sulphur in cholera.

LAND LIMITATION—SOME HISTORICAL FACTS.

Mr. Greeley, in his late issue, is reported to have said, in reference to the Land Limitation, that it was an idea of the nineteenth century. That it had been tried in the Hebrew Commonwealth, and that it had failed.

THE ROMAN REPUBLIC.

The first number of "The Republic," the new Whig paper in this city, appeared Wednesday last week. Its dimensions are the same as the old National Era.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

THE REPUBLIC.

The first number of "The Republic," the new Whig paper in this city, appeared Wednesday last week. Its dimensions are the same as the old National Era.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

which the Latin and Italian were allowed to take part. What was there in any of these measures, opposed to the "property, order, interest, and good sense of mankind"? They were as wise, as prudent, as necessary, as any measures that have ever been devised, for the benefit of the people.

THE ROMAN REPUBLIC. The first number of "The Republic," the new Whig paper in this city, appeared Wednesday last week. Its dimensions are the same as the old National Era.

SUBSCRIBERS AND COLLECTORS.

The papers have been filled lately with several notices of a discovery by Dr. Bird, of Chicago, of the specific remedial power of sulphur in cholera.

LAND LIMITATION—SOME HISTORICAL FACTS.

Mr. Greeley, in his late issue, is reported to have said, in reference to the Land Limitation, that it was an idea of the nineteenth century. That it had been tried in the Hebrew Commonwealth, and that it had failed.

THE ROMAN REPUBLIC.

The first number of "The Republic," the new Whig paper in this city, appeared Wednesday last week. Its dimensions are the same as the old National Era.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

THE REPUBLIC.

The first number of "The Republic," the new Whig paper in this city, appeared Wednesday last week. Its dimensions are the same as the old National Era.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

THE SPEECH OF SENATOR BENTON. We complete in this number the publication of the speech of Senator Benton. It will be read with much interest by the American People generally, and more particularly by those who are not yet fully conversant with the merits of the measures, by the friends of Freedom, particularly.

THE ROMAN REPUBLIC. The first number of "The Republic," the new Whig paper in this city, appeared Wednesday last week. Its dimensions are the same as the old National Era.

SUBSCRIBERS AND COLLECTORS.

The papers have been filled lately with several notices of a discovery by Dr. Bird, of Chicago, of the specific remedial power of sulphur in cholera.

LAND LIMITATION—SOME HISTORICAL FACTS.

Mr. Greeley, in his late issue, is reported to have said, in reference to the Land Limitation, that it was an idea of the nineteenth century. That it had been tried in the Hebrew Commonwealth, and that it had failed.

THE ROMAN REPUBLIC.

The first number of "The Republic," the new Whig paper in this city, appeared Wednesday last week. Its dimensions are the same as the old National Era.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

THE REPUBLIC.

The first number of "The Republic," the new Whig paper in this city, appeared Wednesday last week. Its dimensions are the same as the old National Era.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

DEATH OF MR. POLK.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, announcing the death of Mr. Polk, the late President of the United States, at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 6th of June, 1849.

Government, for the violation of such State into the Union, as an equal footing with the original States, no doubt is implied...

which enacts it. No citizen, of any State, can carry any property, derived from a law of that State, which is repugnant to the Constitution...

These resolves passed the General Assembly of Missouri on the 15th day of February, 1820...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

At the end of his popular movements to gain the Presidency, he expected to succeed Jackson, and to be elected to the office of President...

AGRICULTURAL WAREHOUSE, No. 33 and 35 Lower Market street, Cincinnati, O.

GRATE IMPROVEMENT IN PLANTING, FENCING AND GROOVING LUMBER.

DR. J. WOODRUFF, BOSTON, MASS.

AGENCY FOR PATENTS, WASHINGTON, D. C.

DR. J. WOODRUFF, BOSTON, MASS.

DR. J. WOODRUFF, BOSTON, MASS.

DR. J. WOODRUFF, BOSTON, MASS.

DR. J. WOODRUFF, BOSTON, MASS.

DR. J. WOODRUFF, BOSTON, MASS.