NEW-ORLEANS, WEDNESDAY, (MORNING.) MARCH 2, 1831

" WESTEPHEN MAZUREAU, Esq. at the solicitation of a number of his friends, has consented to become a candidate for the Legislature, in place to Gen. Gainnié, resigned.

We stated yesterday, on the authority of the Journal of Commerce, that the ship Louis This proves to be a mistake; as she brought no later dates than the 17th of December.

EX-PRESIDENT MONROE. A gentleman in Mobile, of the highest respec tability, thus writes his correspondent in this ci-

"Morne, Feb. 26th, 1831." My Dear Sir:—The public spirited citizens of Mobile have set on foot a plan to pay the venerable Monioe the debt we owe him, and take from the nation the reproach of allowing one of her most faithful servants and greatest benefictors to go with sorrow to the grave. He has spent his life in our service, and his fortune while Ambassador to Paris, to sustain the honor of the nation. It is possible that a stern regard to the constitution, may compel our representatives in Congress to vote against the claims of this empowerished and time worm veteran. Let then the people, in their individual capacities, step to ward and pay the debt; and thus shall we preserve our constitution inviolate.

A paper was circulated here this morning. hundred names were obtained in an hour; nobothere are men in the city. Can you not set the thing a going in New-Orleans? I know you reasonable delay, that the Head of the departwill most ardently co-operate in promoting the object. If the plan takes well in your city, it will go most triumphantly throughout the United States. God grant it may! Let New-Orleans do as well as Mobile, and you will easily raise $5000."

The scheme here  $\operatorname{pro}_{t} \gg t_{t}$  appears to us, not zens of New-Orleans.

Charse Reincerp. We have been informed that it is the intention of the proprietor of this magnificent picture to close its exhibitism nex week. It is hoped that those of our citizens who have hitherto denied themselves the pleasure of a master pione of genius and taste has never before been exhibited in this country, nor is it likely we shall soon see an object.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12. In the Senate yesterday, Mr. Ellis, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported a bill granting a township of land for the use of Jefferson College, in Mississippi; which was read, and ordered to a second reading. The bill from the House of Representatives, making appropriations for the support of Government for the year 1831, was read & referred to the committee on fi nance. Mr. Hayne, from the select committee to which had been referred the bill from the House of Representatives for the settlement of the accounts of James Mouroe, reported the 'for public services, losses and sacrif'es." The bili for the completion and support of the Penitentiary in the District of Colombia, and for other purposes, was read the third time, and pas-sed. The Seprete resumed as unfinished business, the consideration of the resolution submitted by Mr. Grundy, prohibiting the select committee appointed to inquire into the condition o the Post Office Department, from calling before them the persons who have been dismissed from office, for the purpose of ascertaining the reasons or causes of their removal. Mr. Woodbury, who had the floor, then resumed his argument in favor of the resolution, and coachided at about two o'clock. Messrs. Sprague, Livingston, and tional Convention. Holmes, subsequently addressed the Senate.-Mr. Livingston offered, as an amendment, a substitute to part of the resolution, declaring that the committee should not make inquiry into the reasons which have induced the Postmaster General to make any romovals of his deputies.

Mr. Holmes then addressed the Stane in opposition to the manufacent, for about half an hour, when he gave way to a motion to adjourn. In the House of Representatives, Mr. White of New-York, from the committee on Naval Affairs, reported a bill for the construction of mayal hos pitals at Charlestown, Massachureus, Brooklyn New-York, and Pensacola; which was read twice, referred to a Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union, and together with the paper not having come to hand by yesterday's documents, ordered to be printed. Washington, Jan. 16. Post office Investigation .- The Senate yesterday adopted the resolution of Mr. Grundy, abridging the powers of the select committee appointed to examine into the management of the Post office Department, and casting a foul although indirect imputation on the characters of all those individuals who, in conformity to the policy of proscription introduced into our system w the present administration, have been removed from that Department. Enough, however, ms been disclosed in the debate which has taken place, to show that the Department has been reduced to the verge of insolvency, by the mismanagement of its Head, or of those who direct and control his movements. Every obstacle and difficulty which could be devised have been presented to embarrass the progress of this investigation, and to prevent it from producing those and at the same time, the national honor from exects on the public mind, which must result from a thorough exposition of the affairs of the Department Information called for from the subscription limited to our del'ar; two or three Postmaster. The city continues quiet, if quiet can be called that state where there exists general anxiety and great dissatisfaction in the public mind. Beaven grant that the Chambers may act hon estly-if they do not, three-fourths of the Peer may lose their heads .. This has been openly and repeatedly threatened.

The Prince of Saxe Coburg seems to have waited to some purpose, when he rejected the sovereignty of Greece. He is confidently spoken of as the future sovereign of Belgium, and it is said, is to marry Mary, the daughter of Louis Philippe.

Private Note.—The rumor, or rather the ws in relation to Lafatte, seemed to be of so much importance, that I thought it best to send this letter over to England, to be conveyed to you in the Liverpool packet. I shall also send a duplicate down to Hayre.
