

In 1905 the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts will have rounded out a century devoted to the public good, and to the encouragement and development of high artistic aims ; but it is only with the continued and disinterested support of the community which it seeks to serve that the highest usefulness can be achieved.

The Academy requires enlarged area, increased facilities, and chiefly, the continued addition to its collections, by gift, bequest, or purchase, of examples of the best masters and works of the highest class, in painting, sculpture, and decoration. It now holds a leading place among art institutions, and its Annual Exhibitions are in the foremost rank. The influence of the Schools steadily increases, and is a far-reaching one.

That these standards may be maintained, and that progress may be ensured, our appeal is made to each individual who is interested in the advancement of art and culture in the city and the nation—stockholders of the Academy, as well as others—to join with the Academy in its every-day work.

The annual contribution of Ten Dollars entitles the subscriber to Membership for the year following, and for this the Academy returns :

Member's Annual Card of Admission.

Free access to Special Exhibitions for which fees may be charged.

The use of the Reference Art Library and the Print Collection.

Free attendance on the Lectures given by the Academy.

The names of all subscribers are published each year in the Annual Report.

By the payment of One Hundred Dollars, a subscriber may become a Life-Member of the Academy.

AWARDS OFFERED TO EXHIBITORS BY THE ACADEMY OF THE FINE ARTS

TEMPLE FUND AND MEDAL.

The Temple Trust Fund, created by the late Joseph E. Temple, yields an annual income of Eighteen Hundred Dollars for the purchase of works of American art at the discretion of the Directors of the Academy and for the issue of a gold medal by the Painters' Jury of Selection. The competition is open to all American Artists.

WALTER LIPPINCOTT PRIZE.

The Walter Lippincott Prize of Three Hundred Dollars, with an option on the part of the founder to purchase the painting chosen, will be awarded for the tenth time.

The conditions governing the award for this exhibition are : that the picture selected shall be, all its qualities considered, the best figure painting in oil by an American citizen, and that Mr. Lippincott shall have the option, for one week after the announcement of the award, of purchasing the chosen painting at the price named by the Artist in the memorandum of entry.

MARY SMITH PRIZE.

The Mary Smith Prize of One Hundred Dollars, founded by the late Russell Smith, will this year be awarded by the Exhibition Committee for the twenty-fifth time. According to the modified terms, the prize will be awarded : to the Painter of the best painting (not excluding portraits) in oil or water colors exhibited at the Academy, painted by a resident woman Artist, for qualities ranking as follows: 1st, Originality of Subject; 2d, Beauty of Design or Drawing; 3d, Color and Effect; and, lastly, Execution. The Academy will have no claim on the painting. The same Artist may not receive the prize twice in succession, nor more than twice in all.

GOLD MEDAL
OF THE ACADEMY.

The Gold Medal of the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, founded in 1893 by John H. Converse, Esq., will be at the disposal of the Academy. It will be awarded, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, in recognition of high achievement in their profession, to American Painters and Sculptors who may be exhibitors at the Academy or represented in the permanent collection, or who, for eminent services in the cause of art or to the Academy, have merited the distinction.

JENNIE SESNAN
GOLD MEDAL.

The Jennie Sesnan Prize, a Gold Medal endowed by Miss Elizabeth W. Roberts, will this year be available for the first time. The medal will be awarded by a Jury of Artists for the best landscape in the Exhibition, but the Jury of Award may withhold the prize if in its judgment no work should merit it.

HONORS AWARDED BY THE TEMPLE FUND

From 1884 until 1890 the Temple Gold Medal was awarded by the Directors of the Academy to the best figure picture; and the Temple Silver Medal to the best landscape and marine. In 1891 and 1892 the medals were awarded by the Jury of Selection and Hanging Committee of Artists to the best and second-best pictures, irrespective of subject. From 1893 to 1899 two Gold Medals were awarded annually. For the years 1900 to 1902 one Gold Medal was awarded, and for the present year there will be one Gold Medal.

$3500 in Prizes to Artists

It is our purpose to combine in Osborne Art Calendars the qualities that appeal alike to the connoisseur and the layman; Osborne Calendars must be good art and they must be popular. As each year's line is WHOLLY new, we require annually several hundred high-class original paintings and designs. These prizes are offered for the purpose of stimulating the production of the kind of picture we want.

Leading artists take satisfaction in having their work reproduced by this Company, knowing that Osborne Art Calendars annually go into millions of homes and that they exert a wide and constant influence in raising the popular appreciation of good art.

The following are only a few of the artists whose recent paintings are reproduced in 1903 Osborne calendars:

J. G. Brown, N.A.	James M. Hart, N.A.
George R. Barse, Jr., N.A.	W. Verplanck Birney, A.N.A.
Charles C. Curran, A.N.A.	Harry Roseland
Carleton Wiggins, A.N.A.	J. L. G. Ferris
Francis C. Jones, N.A.	A. F. Tait, N.A.
H. R. Poore, A.N.A.	J. H. Dolph, N.A.
Louis Moeller, N.A.

There are five prizes of $500 each, to be awarded by a jury of three well-known critics, and a popular prize of $1000 to be awarded by the vote of about forty thousand calendar buyers in the United States. All satisfactory pictures or designs that do not win prizes will be purchased at a fair price.

Artists and designers may obtain full particulars upon application.
