DRAMATIC VAUDEVILLE MUSIC THEATRICAL MINSTREL BURLESQUE OPERA

JAMES O'NEILL

May Star in a Shakespearean Production Next Season.

Years ago, James O'Neill played Mercutio to the delight of Adelaide Neilson, and he has often expressed the desire to take up that part again. When, at the close of the New York engagement, May 30, Miss Eleanor Rossion broke down to such a degree that her physician ordered a complete rest for several days, word was at once given to all the members of the company that the tour would be suspended, but not for more than three or four days. The only member of the cast to take exception to this was Eben Tipton, who promptly fled himself to Silver Lake, in Massachusetts. George C. Tyler said: "Tipton's action amounts to sheer ingratitude. For four years he has been drawing a fat salary from us, and we have put up with a load of trouble simply for the sake of peace. He had a fat part in 'The Palace of the King,' and after the long engagement in this city it was looked for live weeks of one-night stunts. Tipton at once declared that he would not go on the road under such conditions and withdrew from the cast." When Tipton's recent declaration was received, O'Neill was in New York, Tyler's office, and, in expressing his sympathy, referred to the days when he played Mercutio. Tyler proposed that O'Neill should take the part but he declared that he didn't remember the lines in the first place, and that he meant to sail for Europe next week. Tyler consented, and finally O'Neill told him to send the part to his hotel. As a result of this, one of the objects of Tyler's visit to London next week will be to secure, if possible, a woman whom he can star with O'Neill in a Shakespearean revival in the fall. There is no play available for the actor, and he is more than anxious to try his hand at Shakespeare if the proper arrangements can be made. Tyler will spend but five weeks on the other side, being forced to return here by August 1, when rehearsals for his seven new productions will begin.

KILTIES' BAND HOME.

Belleville's Famed Touring Organization. The Pride of Canada.

After the longest tour in the history of any musical organization in America, The Kilties' Band (Gordon Highlanders, Belleville,) has returned to Canada for three weeks' rest. The dozen Hamilton members and bandmaster William F. Robinson were met on arrival in that city by a number of their old associates in the 13th Regiment Band, relatives and friends, and at Toronto, where the majority of the Kilties reside, a proportionate number of enthusiastic friends awaited the band's arrival. The remainder of the musicians, drummers, pipers, etc., who are from Montreal and Belleville, proceeded to Belleville in their private cars. The chief cause of the band's return was the fact that the forty-eight weeks' tour has included Canadian, United States and Mexican cities, has made the men's collection varied and interesting. During the year over 300 cities have been visited from coast to coast and south to the gulf, and 32,000 miles have been covered. Remarkable to state, not a single concert was missed nor delayed by accident or otherwise, which was a record in itself, and every man came home the picture of health, despite the varied climatic conditions and the arduous task of giving two concerts every day in order to cope with the demand for The Kilties' services. The tour closed in Boston, being the fourth appearance in that city. Cameron Brown, owner of the band, and T. P. J. Powers, director of tour, are now in Belleville completing arrangements for the next tour, which begins after four weeks' rest, on July 1. The chief summer engagements will be at Willow Grove Park, Philadelphia, where the band will appear fifty strong the greater part of July. The Kilties' attendance record of 150,000 at that great resort on July 4 last having led the park management to at once engage the "Pride of all Canada" for this year.

AN INNOVATION.

The Corwin H. Spencer, an excursion steamer of St. Louis, Mo., has been equipped with a stage and auditorium where vaudeville acts are put on, the bill changing weekly.

DRAMATIC.

The Lillian Dowd Company recently disbanded at Hagerstown, Md., leaving further dates unfiled.
Katherine Ward will begin her season in The Power Behind the Throne, at Plattsburg, N. Y., Sept. 2.
The engagement is announced of Howard Barrymore to Angela McCall, a daughter of the late John A. McCall.
Mother Goose will follow the Rogers Brothers at the New Amsterdam Theatre, New York City, in December.
James O'Neill succeeded Eben Tipton in Liebler & Co.'s production of Romeo and Juliet at Boston, Mass.
The Pike Theatre Company of Cincinnati, opened at the West End Theatre, New York City, June 8, and have been playing to good business.

The orchestra at the Salt Lake Theatre in Salt Lake City, Utah did not suit E. H. Sothern who cut it out entirely retaining only the pianist.

Miss Louise Barry was recently awarded an interlocutory decree of divorce from Kenneth Verbert who appeared with Blanche Walsh in The Resurrection.

The Sleeping Beauty and the Beast, which has already enjoyed two extraordinary successful seasons, will open its third tour, August 10, at Manhattan Beach.

Henry Savage has engaged Maelyn Arbuckle to play the leading role in The County Chairman, George Ade's new rural drama, which has been remained several times.

The company which will present Way Down East next season is composed of almost the best talent members who have appeared in the play during the past eight years.

Osoto Watanami's popular novel A Japanese Nightingale, which has been dramatized by William Young, will be presented as a dramatic spectacle at the City Theatre in November.

Mr. N. C. Goodwin will begin his season as "Bottom" in an elaborate production of A Midsummer Night's Dream, at the Kaleckerbocker Theatre in New York, October 2.

Harry Woodruff, who scored a hit in Mrs. Fisk's, Mary of Magdala, will next season appear in the role of Ben Hur when that production reappears in New York City for a long run.

Mr. Forbes Robertson and Miss Gertrude Elliott, in The Light That Failed, adapted by George Fawcett from Rudyard Kipling's novel, will begin their American tour in Buffalo, September 25.

Mr. John Crawford Fowler is now resting at his home in Bradford, Pa., having closed his season as leading man with the Desperate Chance Company. He is now booking his moving pictures and Passion Play.

Harry Iniger, the comedian who played "King Bardoni" in The Sleeping Beauty and the Beast during the past two seasons, will be presented as a star under Klaw and Erlanger's management early in January.

Lecher and Company's all star company canceled their dates for the presentation of Romeo and Juliet at Springfield, Mass., and Hartford and New Haven, Conn., on account of the indisposition of Eleanor Rossion.

Mr. John Buller will star next season in a new play by Wm. M. Johnson, entitled, Paul Levere, under the management of Henry B. Marks. He opens at the Columbus Theatre, Chicago, August 23, with a well-equipped production.

The following people are among those now appearing in Channing Pollock's melodrama, A Game of Hearts, which was produced at New Haven, Conn., June 1: Minnie Church, Alexander Pollock, Fletcher Harvey, Frank C. Hartwell and Mary Karr.

Quite a number of theatrical people called for Europe recently on the steamer Philadelphia. Among them were Mr. George Arliss and wife, Julia Marlowe, Frank Worthing, Mr. Joseph Herbert and wife, Harry Woodruff, Sam Bernard and Miss Hattie Williams.

Mr. Bluebird, which made the record run for attendance in the history of the Kaleckerbocker Theatre, New York City, will begin its season at this city, at the Pittsburg, September 21. This attraction will open the Iniquity Theatre in Chicago, October 5.

Ten years ago Annie Ward Tiffany starred in a drama called The Shadows of a Great City, under the management of Charles H. and Thomas Jefferson. Next season the Jefferson brothers are to revive that play, and they offered Miss Tiffany her original part of Biddy Bonan.

W. A. Brady received a telegram June 10, from Elizabeth Marbury, stating that if he would come to London to assist in the rehearsals, Beerholm Tree would produce Pretty Peggy at His Majesty's Theatre on the August bank holiday. Mr. Brady hurried to New York from Asbury Park, looked his passage on the Forest Bismarck and sailed June 11.

David Belasco has completed a play which he will produce in his theatre in New York the coming season. It will have no star, but a very strong general cast. The house opens with Blanche Bates in The Darling of the Gods for five weeks; then Mrs. Carter in Du Barry for the same length of time. After that Martha Morton's new play, The Truth Tellers, and then Belasco's new drama.

The company which originally produced Ben Hur at the Broadway Theatre, New York City, four years ago, and which has since been touring the country, will begin its fifth season in Grand Rapids, Mich., September 14. Up to this time Ben Hur has only been seen in thirty-one cities in the United States. The tour of this organization will include the principal western and Pacific Coast cities.

Mr. J. C. Lewis, (81 Plunkard) wife and baby Lewis, are spending the summer at St. Joe, Mich., and have as their guest Will H. Snyder, treasurer for Mr. Lewis. Mr. Bob Mack is busy at Indianapolis, getting matters in shape for their 18th annual tour which will begin at Benton Harbor, Mich., Aug. 28. The show is looked solid in the best houses. Mr. Lewis is sparing no expense to make St. Plunkard one of the foremost rural productions for the next season.

Channing Pollock, who left a newspaper position in Washington to venture into theatricals, as press agent with W. A. Brady, has just produced a melodrama called The Game of Hearts, which was well received at Asbury Park, New York City. It is a modern blood curdler with a sensational scene in which the heroine jumps upon a power belt in order to reach the hero on another belt that is carrying him to an ore crusher. A duel in the dark is another bit of sensationalism that is incorporated in the play.

PLAYHOUSES.

F. W. Blood will manage the opera house at Guthrie, Okla., next season.
The new Majestic theatre at Grand Rapids, Mich., is now in course of construction.
The Grand Opera House at Louisville, Ky., will remain open throughout the summer.
Preparations have been made for the building of an opera house at Marquette, Mich.
The new $23,937 vaudeville theatre at New Bedford, Mass., will be completed by October 1. Work has commenced on the new addition to the P. O. S. of A. Opera House at Berwick, Pa.

Harry J. Howard has resigned his position as manager of the Lyceum and Burt Theatres at Toledo, Ohio.

M. L. Crawford & Co., have leased the Baldwin Theatre Springfield, Mo., from Messrs. Brook & Houston.

J. H. Gilliam, manager of the Opera House at Little Falls, Minn., would like to hear from companies with bands.

It is rumored that Niles, Mich. is to have a new theatre, Thomas H. McKone having refused to finance or lease the old house.

A deal is now being consummated for a new theatre in Cincinnati. The deal will involve an expenditure of about $200,000.

W. E. Smith is building new dressing rooms and adding a few other improvements to the New Theatre at Missouri Valley, Ia.

A representative of the Orpheum Circuit was recently in St. Joseph, Mo., looking for a location on which to erect a new $100,000 theatre.

Mr. N. L. Hackett is manager of the Port Gibson, Miss. Opera House, a progressive town situated just thirty miles south of Vicksburg and forty miles north of Natchez. This is Mr. Hackett's second season with this house, the management of which last season having proved a perfect success to all who were concerned. This genial manager is also Alderman of the city and manager of the Postal Telegraph Co. of that city. During his career as manager, he has made a host of friends and all the professionals that have visited that locality can testify to his liberality and business integrity. This house is looking independently this season and expects big business.

It is settled that if Jake Wells wants a theatre in Mobile, Ala., he will have to build it. He has not been able to secure a ready made house.

H. J. Rowe, manager of the opera house at Athens, Ga., writes that The Billboard is a paper that no one in his business can afford to be without.

The Iniquity Theatre, Klaw & Erlanger's new house now in course of construction in Chicago, will be opened October 5 with Mr. Hine Beard as the attraction.

It is likely that the opera house at Princeton, Ind., will remain closed all next season, as Manager Kessler and the proprietors can not agree on a price for the house.

R. L. Crescy recently leased the Marjorie Theatre at Chicago. It will be booked by Messrs. Stair & Havlin. Sol. Brauning has been engaged as local manager.

It is said that three companies are planning to build a new theatre in St. Paul, Minn. One of the new houses is to cost $75,000 and negotiations for the site are now pending.

It is announced that Messrs. Stirling & Cornell, through their representative Harry C. Ferreu, have been negotiating for a site on which to build a theatre at Batavia, N. Y.

For the fourth time in four years rumors of a new opera house to come from Shelbyville, Ind. This time it is the independent order of Odd Fellows who intend to build and are looking for a site.

Wenger's Theatre at New Orleans, La. will be converted into a modern playhouse by Henry Lehman. It has been roughly estimated that the improvements will require an expenditure of $45,000.

Crumph's Theatre at Columbus, Ind., will be thoroughly renovated. The interior is also to be redecorated and improved. Manager Gottschalk is also considering the advisability of a new curtain.

J. E. Rodgers of Minneapolis, Minn., announces that the syndicate is negotiating with him for the purchase of property belonging to him in Minneapolis. He claims that they intend to build a theatre.

The Lyceum and Academy of Music, two new temples of amusement now in course of construction at Harrisburg, Pa., will be completed about September 1. If the expectations of the managers and contractors are realized, they will engage a stock company to appear through the summer at the Court Theatre.

The construction work on Ramsdell Theatre at Bear Lake, Nev., has been completed and the decoration begun. The seating capacity is 1,200. An asbestos curtain will be used to protect the drop. The flies are eighty feet in height.

Wm. Foster, manager of the opera house at Des Moines, Ia., is defendant in a suit for damages filed by Mrs. Habersack, who claims that on January 1, the ticket man at the Grand Opera House in Des Moines declined to sell her a ticket.

The contract for a new vaudeville theatre at New Bedford, Mass. has been awarded. It calls for completion by October 1, and is to cost a little less than $25,000. The new theatre will belong to Mr. Sidney proprietor of a circuit of houses in Mass.

Messrs. Milne and Elmer are having plans drawn for a new $15,000 opera house to be built at Miles City, Mont. As soon as plans are completed the work of excavation will commence. Work will be pushed on the house so as to have it ready for opening January 1.

The London Brury Lane production of Ben Hur will open the reconstructed New York Theatre early in September. Nothing now remains of this house but the four walls, the plans for its rebuilding and new decoration leaving nothing of the interior of the old structure.

One of the Wheeling, W. Va., Dailies recently stated that a new opera house costing $150,000 would be erected in that city and designated the location. The ground is now occupied by a bowling alley and pool room on which the proprietors have a two year lease, hence the report is without foundation.

The new $100,000 theatre at Charleston, Ill., is rapidly nearing completion and will be opened August 12, by Keely and Shannon in Sherlock Holmes. Bookings are being rapidly made and the house will be under the management of J. A. Parker. T. G. Chambers will be business manager.

The Home Theatre at Hutchinson, Kan., was recently badly damaged by the flood. The entire northwest corner of the building, which is alone, was piled into a mass. The Lyceum Stock Company was booked for June 15, so preparations were immediately made for repairing the damaged building.

Fred Felton, manager of the Bell Opera House at Benton Harbor, Mich., writes: "My season promises to be a good one and is practically booked up to Feb. 1. My greatest difficulty being to supply the demand for open time. I only play two per week however, thereby not sacrificing my patrons."

Negotiations were closed for the sale of the Titusville (Pa.) Opera House, to the Verlock Amusement Company June 5. The Verlock Amusement Company was formed this spring with headquarters at All City, Pa. The company proposes to establish a circuit of opera houses through northwestern Pennsylvania.

Improvements to the extent of $15,000 are to be made on the Capital Theatre at Little Rock, Ark. Six hundred new opera chairs are to be installed, and the dressing rooms, auditorium and entrance are to be remodeled. The new chairs will be used on the first floor and balcony and gallery are to be fitted up with the chairs which formerly occupied the orchestra.

Manager W. A. Miller is having the Rogers Opera House at Rogers, Ark., entirely remodeled and enlarged. The seating capacity has been increased to over 600. A new stage is being built, also a new balcony. Some scenery is being painted and new furniture has been installed. The building is lighted by electricity. Attractions are booked by The New York Booking Agency and Stair & Havlin.

In Havana, Cuba, the civic authorities wanted to tax something for the purpose of raising ready money, so they settled upon the theatres, and laid on an imposition of five per cent, on the entire receipts of each theatre. The council needed the money, but the managers had the same ardent desire to retain it. Finding that they could not in a legal way escape the tax they promptly closed their theatres. Then the city fathers, in response to public clamor, were compelled to yield.

The work of remodeling the Home Theatre at Hutchinson, Kan., has consumed a great deal of money. The damage was caused by the flood, water covering the entire auditorium within a few inches of the stage, ruining the chairs, carpet, furniture and all the apparatus which was stored under the stage. One wall of the opera house caved in and Mr. Casner, proprietor of the house, who was at work on the stage with a gang of men trying to save whatever could be moved, narrowly escaped injury. Mr. Casner has ordered 1150 new seats and the entire house except the gallery will be re-seated. The house is almost booked solid for next season and Manager Loe has reserved a few open dates for extra good attractions which he hopes to secure. The Lyceum theatre company is booked for an indefinite engagement during the summer.

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS.

Jyrome Skyes, in The Millionaire, will open his second season in New York, September 21. Arthur Gillette and Louis Lahan have written a very pretty libretto, entitled, in Georgia. It will soon be published.

George K. Fortenque and May McKenzie were recently secured to support Fay Templeton in The Infant Prodigy, by Clyde Fitch.

Harry and John Swor have been engaged to play the roles of the sexton and the tin woodman in The Wizard of Oz road company, which will open some time in August.

Manager Courled has engaged Miss Josephine Schaffer of Brooklyn and Miss Estelle Harris, principal soprano of the church of the Divine Patrons.

The Chaperons will be sent out next season under a new management. George H. Welty and Charles McCall have obtained the rights from Frank L. Perley.

The report that Paderewski is in bad health has been confirmed. He is suffering from acute neuritis at his home in Switzerland, and has canceled all engagements for three months.

After a successful season of 40 weeks the Canadian Jubilee Singers will close at Beeton, Ontario, Can., June 17, for a much needed rest. They will again take the road in September.

The Shuberts have engaged Helen Redmond, W. P. Carleton, Tom Daniels, Clarence Harvey and Joseph C. Miron for their production of Winsome Winnie in which Paula Edwards will star.

The Candy Man, a new musical comedy in three acts by Randolph Hartley and Arthur Nevin, has been delivered to R. L. Giffen, who will produce it in July. Next season the piece will be presented in New York.

Rumors that the Philadelphia Orchestra is to be abandoned for lack of support are denied by John H. Ingram, secretary of the board of managers. There is every expectation of increasing the guarantee fund from $40,000 to $80,000 or $100,000. Contracts with all the members of the orchestra have been renewed.

It is said that Mabelle Gilman has not been entirely satisfied with the way her tour in The Mocking Bird has been handled by the Shro Brothers. As a result there is talk of a split. Miss Gilman may next season venture forth under different management. Frank Robinson, a capitalist, who has figured in theatricals before, will finance the tour.

Richard Golden has signed a contract with Henry W. Savage by the terms of which he will be under Mr. Savage's management for five years. He will be starred next season in one of the King Isidore comedies and the year following he will be seen in a new comic opera which is now being written by a well known composer and writer.

Walter Jones will star next season in a new comic opera entitled, The Sleepy King, by Geo.

V. Hobart and Louis Contorno, leader of the Fourteenth Regiment Band of New York. He will be supported by Trixie Friganza, May Boley, May Stebbins, Edward Redway, Gustavus Henry Albert Farrington and other members of The Chaparron Company. The Sleepy King will be presented first in Minneapolis next September, going to New York later for a run.

Mr. De Angelis, Mr. Gerard Coventry and Mr. Sam S. Shubert will go to Europe the latter part of this month to look at a new comic opera production now playing the English provinces, of which the Messrs. Shubert have acquired the American rights. It is not settled that Mr. De Angelis is to play in this piece. It is more probable that he will become the star of an up-to-date musical comedy by an American librettist and composer.

Just to show how busy they can be at times, Messrs. Sam S. and Lee Shubert recently signed to star one comedian for a term of ten years, and engaged a dozen prominent players to support the companies to be headed by Miss Fay Templeton and Miss Paula Edwards next season. The star who was signed for ten years was Jefferson De Angelis, who has headed one of the companies of Mr. E. H. Reynolds for several seasons, playing the star roles in The Royal Rogue and The Emerald Isle.

George W. Lederer weakened at the last moment, and to avoid the danger of libel suits and other court proceedings changed the name of his new show from The Gibson Girl to The Gibson in Black. This, however, did not end his troubles. Miss Rose Beaumont, who has one of the most important roles, has been unable to report for rehearsal, because, her doctor says, she is threatened with appendicitis. Miss Violet Holt, who is principal in the cast, only recently left for the St. Louis Hospital suffering with the same malady.

Scott, the well-known baritone of the Metropolitan Opera Company, is to be married to Miss Mary Britton Leary of New York City next fall. They became acquainted at the home of a friend in New York City about three years ago and at the time Miss Leary was hardly past a word of English, and Miss Leary was hardly in need of an Italian tutor. Since then Scott has mastered sufficient English to make himself understood, tons doing away with all conversational difficulties. The wedding will take place next November upon Scott's return here with the Metropolitan Company.

J. Leslie Spahn, manager Helen May Butler's Ladies Military Band writes as follows:—We opened at the Garden exposition in Baltimore, last night (June 1) and it is the best show of its kind that the band has ever given concerts to. It is the first show that I have ever seen that opened ready to do business, and the industrial hall and grounds were packed, over 8,000 paid admissions being registered, in spite of the rain. The band is holding its own against the excellent shows and features provided by the exposition management. We stay here three weeks and then return to the South. The girls are all in need of a rest but I cannot find time to lay off.

The people engaged to support Miss Fay Templeton in Clyde Fitch's, The Infant Broth, are Mr. George K. Fortesque and Miss May McKenzie. Mr. Fortesque is now in San Francisco playing a summer engagement at the California Theatre with the Daly's Theatre Musical Comedy Company, under the management of J. C. Huff. Miss McKenzie has been with the Weber & Fields' forces several seasons, playing minor roles. Miss Templeton was particularly anxious to have Miss McKenzie in her company, because there is one part in the production which will fit her even better than the white knickerbocker she used to wear in Weber & Fields' Eddie Deebee, for the Pauls Edwards show, Winsome Winnie, Jacobowsky and Paulton, the Messrs. Shubert have secured the signed contracts of Miss Helen Redmond, Joseph C. Miron, W. P. Carleton, Tom Daniels and Clarence Harvey. Miss Helen Redmond was for two seasons the Dolores of Elmer & Ryley's No. 1 Florentine company, and previous to that she was with Frank Daniels, Joseph C. Miron was formerly of the Alice Nelson Opera Company, and year before last was one of the features of The Chaparron, and last season starred in The Princess Chic. W. P. Carleton, the son of W. T. Carleton, has been with Florodora for two years and previous to that had been seen in New York in The Belle of New York, and other productions. Tom Daniels is the big bass, who for two seasons past, did the principal role, next to Lulu Glaser, in F. C. Whitney's production of Dolly Varden. Clarence Harvey is the remarkable agile comedian, last season in The Country Girl, playing one of the principal roles and understudy to William Morris. Previous to that he had been the comedy feature of the Wilbur and Bennett & Moulton Opera Companies.

MINSTRELS.

G. D. Cunningham is to be the manager of the Ted E. Faust Superb Minstrels and Novelty Co. He has a tour of forty weeks booked.

E. H. Kohlman has been engaged as a feature with the Ted E. Faust Minstrels for next season. He will put on his Break-Away Ladder act and Tender Solos.

Arthur Rigby comedian and specialist, has been engaged for John W. Vogel's Big Minstrels for the coming season, this being his third season with the company.

"Boy" Bowen who is putting on Elk's Minstrels over a circuit in Kentucky which embraces Winchester, Paris, Frankfort and Mt. Sterling, will be with the Ted E. Faust Minstrels next season. He will do principal end and direct the dancing.

Notes from L. M. Royer's Who, What, When Minstrels: We just closed one of the most prosperous seasons of 41 weeks at Dayton, O. We have disposed of our old car for the sole purpose of building a new, all state room palace car, which will be one of the most comfortable and expensive show cars on the road. Besides this, we will carry two baggage cars and 65 people. We have already engaged the Brothers Watson, late of Honesdale, England, this being their first appearance in this country. They do a swimming act which necessitates a glass tank containing 20,000 gallons of water. We have also engaged the Terrill midgets, Mr. H. C. Wood is doing or rather finishing up our bookings.

Lee Wastell, general agent of the Ted E. Faust Superb Minstrels and Novelty Company writes as follows:—"There has never been a minstrel show that had the strength of organization possessed by the Ted E. Faust Minstrels. Ted E. Faust is a power as a bidder for public patronage. He and his family, known the world over as the Faust Family, have lifted minstrelism from the disgust and placed it on its present refined and elevated plane. They will be the big feature act of the Ted Faust Minstrels. That they are the recognized premier acrobats is attested by the fact that they have been especially engaged for six weeks with Dain's Fireworks at $1,000 per week, the highest salary ever paid for an acrobatic act. The first part of the new minstrels will be a revelation. The olio will be an ebb and flow of all that's unshakable; never seen before. The dancing will be in charge of "Boy" Bowen who last year made such a hit the country over. Castle & Collins are among the dancing teams engaged. I will be assisted in my advance work by three second men, a whole troupe, so to say, who will do stunts in the advertising line strictly up-to-date. The season's men will be in charge of Ted Gallbraith, who was with me last year ahead of the Quinlan and Wall minstrels, that never lost a performance and never missed a date. The bookings of the Faust Minstrels are the sweetest I ever was familiar with. Their route will simply astound. I look for the greatest success ever scored by a first season minstrel show.

VAUDEVILLE.

Amelia and Manolo have signed with the Pacific Amusement Co., at Seattle, Wash. Fudge & Stafford opened their summer tour at Fairview Park, Desator, Ill., June 7.

A finely painted miniature of Mile. Marie Duplessis, better known to fame as "La Dame aux Camellias," the real Camille and source of inspiration of Dumas' novel of that name, painted in 1847 by one of the best known miniature artists of that epoch, brought only $110 at a recent public sale in Paris.

Parisians are raising a great outcry because of an alleged slight to Otero, the famous Spanish dancer. While King Edward was in Paris he attended a theatrical performance, and Otero was prominently among the audience in which the king sat. She was asked to withdraw, and when she refused, was ejected. Parisians are highly indignant.

that is still housed at the Manhattan Theatre, ranks as the best of the light comedies. It is said to be one of the daintiest comedies ever written for the American stage, and the indications are that it will last for some months to come. Harry E. Dixey has also met with a success in the farcical comedy, Facing the Music, while A Fool and His Money is considered a success. Everything considered, however, it has not been a noteworthy season in the East, and as a great deal of what has been a hit there goes for but a short time, the outlook for next season in the provinces, as far as depending upon New York success might be considered, is not in any sense a rosy one.

FOREIGN.

Carmen has been produced at the Alhambra in London as a ballet, and is said to be remarkably effective.

Maeterlinck's first comedy, which is entitled, The Temptations of St. Anthony, will early next season be produced at Berlin.

Sir Charles Wyndham has accepted for production a new play by Louis N. Parker, dealing with the period of George III. of England.

Richard Strauss has been engaged as conductor for the commemoration concert in London on December 11, to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the birth of Berlioz.

Alice Jeffreys was recently granted a divorce from Hon. F. G. Curzon, who is the son of the late Lord Howe. She charged him with brutal treatment and misconduct.

Paris recently had a cake-walk open to public competition. Four thousand dollars was offered in prizes. A committee of prominent actresses were the umpires. Prices of admission ranged from $10 for boxes down to a dollar for standing room.

It is said that Charles Dickson has signed a contract for a long engagement at the Apollo Theatre in Vienna. He will translate several of the sketches in which he has scored a success into German and hopes to have a prosperous run.

Johannes Wolf, the violinist, has been the recipient of numerous marks of favor at the Russian court, where he has been playing almost daily to the piano accompaniment of the empress. The Grand Duchess Serge, who is the elder sister of the empress, also frequently accompanies the violinist.

Rome is to have a Theatre Libre. It will be called the Experimental Theatre, and under the patronage of certain Roman nobles and the Dramatic Authors' society will devote itself to the producing of plays by unknown authors, who are also to have the privilege of continuing the concealment of their identity if they so wish until after the play has been given.

Marie Tempest, who is coming to America next season, terminated her London engagement, May 30, at the Criterion Theatre. She devoted the week to giving a revival of Caste, in which she played Polly Eccles, and was announced to appear in a bill consisting of the first act of Caste, the first two acts of The Marriage of Kitty, and the second scene from the fifth act of Becky Sharp.

During the recent performance of Wagner's Ring of the Nibelung at the Covent Garden, London, special scenery was prepared and the rainbow bridge in Das Rheingold was given sufficient strength for Van Rooy who sang Wotan to cross it and disappear into Walhalla in a cloud of mist. The last scene of Die Gotterdaemmerung, however, is said to have been so complete a collapse of the Hall of the Gibichungens that the stage was littered with debris, and necessitated Hagen playing antelope in order to get out into the Rhine so the Rhine-daughters could drown him in time.

A musical event of great interest in Paris last month was an operatic representation of The Damnation of Faust by Hector Berlioz. It had a wonderful success, $12,000 being taken in at the theatre Sarah Bernhardt in two days. The event naturally has revived a number of anecdotes of the first representation of the opera in 1816. Like most composers Berlioz could not find a manager to put it on, and he finally tried the Opera Comique for one night himself, so confident was he of the success of his work. But he was doomed to bitter disappointment. It was received in the most lukewarm spirit, and the representations were discontinued to be renewed 57 years later.

Grant Allen's novel, The African Millionaire, has just been successfully produced in dramatic form at Manchester, England, with Mr. H. Reeves Smith in the leading role. The part requires Mr. Smith to assume no less than five disguises in the course of the play. The play is called Colonel Clay, and owing to the success of the Manchester production it is to be seen in London before the end of the present season.

Moriz Rosenthal has been invited by the Paris Conservatoire to act as one of the jurors in the contest for the Diemer prize of 4,000 francs offered for the best student in piano playing. It is said that this is the first time a foreigner has ever been invited to act in this capacity.

The English Final Court of Appeals recently reversed the decision forcing the editor of the Western Morning News of Plymouth to pay $500 because of an adverse criticism of a play and players which appeared in his paper. The author of the criticism was also to issue a matter of regret to well-wishers of the stage if an honest critic was deluded from commenting on a production. A well known newspaper in a prominent city of this country in commenting on the above, says the following: "It would be just as well if the enterprising gentlemen who pen the preliminary advertisements of theatrical productions were also to issue typewritten criticisms, ready-made, which could appear in the press the day after a first night and thus save time, labor and cost of unblasted and conscientious comment."

The Knickerbocker Girl Given its First Local Hearing. Fay Templeton Completes Her Engagement with Weber & Fields.

A musical entertainment was given its initial New York hearing last Monday night at the Herald Square Theatre, when the Walnut Street Theatre Company of Philadelphia presented the Alfred E. Arons' Musical Comedy Company in the Knickerbocker Girl, with Josephine Hall at the head of the organization. The book and lyrics are by George Totten Smith and the music by Alfred E. Arons. The story begins at an up-to-date golf club in Westchester County and winds up at Danero, South America. At the Grand Opera House a new production was made last Monday night by the Stewart Opera Company of The Smugglers, a comic opera in three acts by Frederic Ranken and Giack Mhowski. This was the first of several productions Mr. Stewart intends making this summer. The next one, which will follow in two or three weeks, will be The Golf Girl. The success of the summer season at the Grand is assured now, and preparations are being made now to keep the theatre open through the summer into the fall season.

Miss Fay Templeton completed her engagement with Weber & Fields, and last Monday started actively at work rehearsing the new play which has been written into the Broadway for her. In this role the requirements call for Miss Templeton singing what musical men say will be two of the catchiest songs which have been heard on Broadway in many years. They are named My Hindoo Belle and I'm the Same Girl. She will make her first appearance with the big company at the Casino this Monday evening. The story of the original play of The Runaways has been considerably altered and improved by Frederick Ranken.

The attractions at the Proctor theatres this week will be as follows: At the Fifty-eight Street, Who is Brown? at the Fifth Avenue, The Woman Hunter, and at the 125th Street, Khudred Souls.

This week will be the last of the season at the Murray Hill Theatre. The Donnelly Stock Company will play The Rivals, with Mr. Donnelly as Sir Anthony Absolute, Walter Allen as Sir Lauchlin O'Trigger, George Henry Trider as Tom Acres and Frances Starr as Lydia Langish.

At the West End Theatre the Pike Stock Company will play Thomson Howard's, The Banker's Daughter.

Joseph P. Adler, the tragedian, now appearing at the Academy of Music, will continue under the management of Messrs. Weber, Hush and Brennan next season.

The successful run of The Wizard of Oz at the Majestic Theatre, proves that this extravaganza has enduring qualities.

The ever popular Roccoco will be sung this week at Terrace Garden. Miss Jennie Reiffarth will be an addition to the cast.

The Gelsion, as played by the Stewart Opera Company at the Grand Opera House, has proved so successful that even a second week is not enough to supply the demands for seats.

The Earl of Pawtucket enters upon its 150th performance on Monday, June 22, at the Manhattan Theatre.

The Palace of Pilsen enters upon its fourteenth week at the Broadway Theatre on Monday.

Cable begins his summer season of pyrotechnic exhibitions at Manhattan Beach with a new creation of The Last Days of Pompeii, Wednesday, June 24.

At Hammerstein's Paradise Roof Garden, Punch, Judy & Co., heading a list of big vaudeville features, is the main feature.

An all star vaudeville bill is promised for the coming week at Hurlst & Seamon's Music Hall.

Albini's in Gay Manhattan Burlesques will be the next attraction at the Bowery Theatre. Melnytra and Heath, in The Georgia Minstrels, are the leading attraction promised to Keith's extensive bill.

CHICAGO.

Chinese Honeymoon has Caught Popular Fancy. Babes in Toyland Produced June 17. Prince of Quitters Produced by Stock Company.

Sunday being a very pleasant day, the parks were well patronized. Wednesday was so cool that overcasts and drags were in use. This gave the theatres an outing. Not much reliance can be placed on Chicago weather.

Hilods.—A Chinese Honeymoon, the English musical comedy, entered on its fourth week Sunday night in the Hilods. It has caught the fancy of Chicago playgoers.

Powers.—The clever little actress, Miss Millie James and her natural and attractive associates have succeeded so well in establishing The Little Princess in Powers, that the engagement may be lengthened.

Grand.—The first performance of Babea in Toyland in the Grand will be given on Wednesday evening, June 17.

McVickers.—When Johnny Comes Marching Home has drawn phenomenal audiences in numbers and in enthusiastic appreciation during the four weeks it has been seen in McVickers. Miss Sallie Lomas invented and introduced a novelty, the loop-the-loop ermine dance.

Dearborn.—The Tenderfoot is a bright, pleasing and original entertainment, well worth seeing. There are no changes in prospect as everything in the production has been thoroughly sifted.

Great Northern.—The engagement of Robert Emmett in the Great Northern will soon come to an end. It was intended to run all summer but fate decreed otherwise.

Wm Temple.—The Players' Stock Company are producing this week in the Bush Temple an original musical comedy, The Prince of Quitters, written by J. E. Brown, stage director of the company. The plot is on the order of farce comedy.

La Salle.—The attendance in the La Salle, Sunday evening at the opening of the fifth week of The Voyagers, showed decided interest in the fantastic piece among the clientele of the house. The performers all work loyally together to give the performance a dash and animation that make them greatly entertaining.

Chicago Opera House Vaudeville.—Hosa & Penton Co., Melville & Stetson, Ellmore Sisters & Co., Loria & Alina, Charles Harris, Dooley & Ten Brooke, Gallagher & Barrett, Maxwell

& Dudley, Young & Brooks, Aerial Shaws, Casmore & Florence, Itack Brewers, Fred Waddell and Kate McCracken.

Masonic Temple Theatre.—Manager Murdock has presented his patrons with another fine entertainment this week. Mary Norman, a Chicago favorite, heads the vaudeville bill. That Davis and McManley, two good comedians in a sketch; Press Edridge, jokes and parodies; Sacart's dogs and monkeys; the Three Dancing Dawsons; Warren & Blanchard, singers and dancers; C. H. Unthan, the armless man; the Juggling Normans. Coming—The Bauda Rossa.

Sam T. Jack's.—One of the season's most enjoyable shows is seen in Sam T. Jack's this week. The curtain raiser, The Ching Ching Girls, is a China-Japan-American combination of light and airy costumes. The finale, Lillies and Lobsters, with an excellent bill of specialties. The whole show is sensational and entertaining.

Tracadero.—This house will produce a new burlesque each week. During the same for this week The Trocadero Stock Company is seen in The High School Cadets, with a numerous force of pretty girls. The comedians are headed by Alex. Carr, Guy Rawson and Frank Damsel. Between the acts a good vaudeville bill is given.

Sage and Park.—Warner weather Sunday took much larger attendance than heretofore this season to San Souci. In the vaudeville were Hickey and Nelson, Brown, Harrison and Brown, Brazil and Brazil, May Estelle Belmont and Nancaria trained animals. The stage with its new hitting row ranks among the best equipped in town.

Tracadero Garden.—"Pop" concerts by Brooke and his band every night and Sunday afternoon. The Chutes Park.—The warm wave, much belated and in a very dragged condition, which straggled into Chicago to spend Sunday with us, brought good fortune to outdoor amusement places. The vaudeville bill for this week at The Chutes offers a dozen acts. All of the little intervals are filled up with popular music by Weldons' Band.

SWEETINGS.

Anne Sutherland, leading woman of Elliott's Stock Company, will spend her vacation in Europe.

Frank Flesher, manager Morey Stock Company, is visiting his friends in this city.

R. L. Crescy has leased the Marlowe Theatre. Stair & Haylin will book the house. Sol. Itamig has been engaged as local manager.

BOSTON.

Chinese Honeymoon Still Running at the Colonial. Peggy From Paris Doing Big Business.

Colonial Theatre.—A Chinese Honeymoon still holds forth, and John Henshaw and Toby Claude are making a great hit in their respective parts. Tremont Theatre.—George Ade's musical comedy, Peggy From Paris, is still running at this house and doing a great business.

Boston Theatre.—Third and last week of the musical opera, The Defender, with strong cast, including Dan McAvoy and Lizzie B. Raymond. Majestic Theatre.—Third and last week of Wright's York State. Folks Company. Business, notwithstanding the weather, has been phenomenal, playing to standing room only.

Music Hall.—Second week of Hagebeck's great animal show, attracting large audiences of women and children at every performance.

Palace Theatre.—The Entertainers' Women Orchestra, Herbert Lloyd, the King's Jester, Sam Ryan and Tom Lewis in a sketch, The Wireless Telephone, the Six Glycerettes, acrobats, and many other good specialties.

Howard Atheneum.—Manager Lothrop this week offers a good vaudeville show concluding with a musical comedy, and, under the title, and Kinetoscope pictures of Corbett and McGovern fight.

Lyceum Theatre.—The Gay Girls of Gotham in burlesque on Ermine and Trilly entitled, Our Atlantic, concluding with a musical comedy show. It is quite evident that the Barnum & Bailey Circus is the banner circus this year. They give one of the finest parades ever given by any circus that has visited Boston, and at the opening performance enormous crowds flocked to the grounds. They will no doubt do a record-making business.

Castle Square Theatre. The offering of the Stock Company this week is the comedy, Jaune, by Nicholas Leatoeg.

NOTES.

The Johnstown Flood, described as a very unusual and decidedly novel spectacle, will be presented at Revere, Boston, opening June 17. Mr. Richard Kann is the Boston representative.

All is ready for the Saengerfest. Thousands of People Flocking to the City. It will be a Gala Event.

The Saengerfest Association, composed of leading business men of this city, has been at work planning and making preparations for the coming Saengerfest. It was a great undertaking, and it is no easy matter to bring about such an affair. From indications, it promises to be one of the greatest musical events ever held in this city. The various societies that will participate have been training for months and will no doubt make an excellent showing. The musical programs, as they are arranged, are quite elaborate.

Visitors are flocking to the city in great numbers from all parts of the country. The merchants and citizens have made great preparations for their reception and entertainment. The "fest" will be held in the new Fifth Regiment Armory and the building has been handsomely decorated. The interior walls are hidden from view by a profusion of evergreen and flowers. Stores and business houses are handsomely decorated. Public buildings and leading thoroughfares will be brilliantly illuminated with strings of incandescent lights. From the city heights of skyscrapers, large searchlights sweep forth a ray of light. The inaugural concert will be held Sunday afternoon with a picked chorus of public school children of 3,000 voices. The principal concert will be held Monday evening and will be a gala event. President Roosevelt, with his Cabinet and foreign Ambassadors, will attend. The French cruiser Tige, the German cruiser Panther, and small fleet of American warships, are anchored in the harbor. The officers of the ships and the officers of nearly army posts will be present. This concert will consist of a chorus of 4,000 voices and a number of prominent soloists. The orchestra is composed of 135 pieces. The rest of the week will be devoted to prize singing contests in which the visiting societies will participate and for which a number of handsome prizes have been awarded. One was donated by Emperor William of Germany. This event marks the twenty-second annual Saengerfest of the Northeastern Saengerbund and takes place June 14-20.

The program for the second week at Electric Park contains some notable features which include Froebel and Ruge, acrobats; Charles Howell, comedian; Melville and Conway, comedy entertainers; The Musical Marine Klato, minor dancer. Very few changes have been made at the park. The lawns have been improved and a larger entrance to the park has been erected. The usual features on the promenade remain.

The second week of the Eagles' Exposition opens with increased interest and attendance. The attendance last week was about 100,000, and this week will be more. The Gaskill-Mundy-Levitt attractions are doing excellent business. Several new features were added to amusements for this week. The officers and crew of the French cruiser Tige visited the show Friday night on invitation of the manager.

The George Pawcett Stock Company closed its season at Ford's Opera House, Saturday, June 6. The house was filled completely with friends and admirers. The play each player was compelled to respond and make a speech. The absence of Miss Percy Haswell was greatly regretted owing to the death of her mother. The company resumes its season September 20, at Chase's.

The Monumental Theatre has closed for this season.

Forest Park is a delightful place to spend a summer evening and where fine vaudeville bills are presented. The bill this week contains Louise Sanford, contralto; Marguerite Clemons, soprano; Rooney Sisters, singing and dancing, and Cupero's Orchestra.

ST. LOUIS.

All Parks Doing Big Business. A Once-Was Weber & Fields' Burlesque Catches the Crowds at Delmar Garden.

This week in St. Louis opened under most favorable auspices. Sunday being an ideal day, business was unusually large. All the gardens drew big business and with Shaw's Garden open and the flood, the street car companies carried 384,000 people to and from the various places of amusement. While the weather has been to the disadvantage of the gardens the managers have kept a high standard of attractions. This week's offerings are all first-class and are drawing good business.

Forest Park Highlands turned them away from the Pavilion Sunday night where an exceptionally good vaudeville bill is on. The Alship Society, Italian vaudeville comedians, were kept busy handling the patronage. The vaudeville program comprises the following acts this week: Montrose Trompe, Satvachs, Ward and Curran, Elizabeth Murray, Dixon, Bowers and Dixon, Brawe. Manager John D. Hopkins states that beginning next week he will stop exclusively featuring the large bill, all week.

At Delmar Garden the "Cou-qui-ers" was put on by Weber & Fields' Company, and proved just as popular as last week's bill. It is equally as well staged and company appeared to good advantage. The weather being ideal an immense business was done on Sunday night and all after business was very good. The bill is doing good business. Next week, White-Gig will be given with an entire change of company.

West End Heights drew a large crowd at the opening Sunday night. The new scenic railway did a rushing business and the vaudeville bill succeeded in pleasing the large attendance.

Bill includes: Frederick Brothers and Burns World's Comedy Four, Lynn and Kennedy, Elizabeth Knight, Allison Brothers, Charles L. Mays and The De Monoes.

The bill at Mannon's Park this week includes Purcell and Brooks, Jerome, Armstrong and Wright, Fongo and Le Grand, Jimmie Collins, Trio, and others. Business has been exceptionally good here this week. Side attractions doing nicely.

Suburban Park, with Innes and his band, drew immense business Saturday and Sunday and greatly delighted his hearers with a well-selected program. This is the first good weather we have had in St. Louis since the beginning of the season. All the concessions did a good business.

Hastings' Coney Island of the West did a big business Sunday night and continues good. With a strong bill including the following acts to draw from: William and Arada, Jimmie Collins, French, Mazie Ritchie and others. The bill pleases and is a good one. Balloon ascension daily has been added to the free attractions.

Lemps Park has sacrificed minstrel to straight vaudeville this week, and judging from the attendance Monday night, this will be equally as popular. On the bill this week the following people appear: Smith and Arada, Jimmie Collins, Etel Lizette, Franklin Sisters, Thorne and Holworth, The Finnigans and Marie Irintrap. Business good.

Interest in the coming of the National Saengerfest to be held in St. Louis, June 17, 18, 19 and 20, is at its height. The first day's sale of seats amounted to $19,734.00, which is the largest by 50 per cent in the history of the organization. Festival Hall in the World's Fair grounds will be used for their concerts. It has a capacity of 60,000. Among the noted artists that will appear are Mme. Flescher-Etelle, soprano; Herr Willi Hrenken, tenor; Herr Max Lothig, basso; and Miss Louise Bauer, contralto. All indications point to a complete success of this enormous undertaking. Mr. Richard Spahr is handling the press end of the celebration.

NOTES.

The St. Louis Annual Fair has announced its dates and will open October 5, and continue until October 11. Efforts will be made to surpass all other fairs held here.

The Gaskill-Mundy Carnival Company which was to have opened a Carnival in East St. Louis this week, are completely surrounded by the flood which has covered most of the city. Everything pointed to a big week, financially and otherwise.

Everything points to an immensely successful carnival here for the Trades and Labor Unions. The date will be for nine days, commencing July 25. President D. R. Francis is to make an address on World's Fair Day, and both Presidents, Gompers and Mitchell, will make addressess. A demand already exists for 15,000 tickets and the local interest is at fever heat. The American Amusement Company will give the Carnival. Concessions are in big demand as an attendance of 200,000 is guaranteed.

Mr. R. C. Lehman is in town this week and is busy making preparations for the big Street Fair at Warrensburg, Mo., the last week in June. The World's Fair Midway and Carnival Company, of which he is president and manager, have been doing nicely and carry fourteen big features. This will be Warrensburg's first fair and is consequently creating much enthusiasm. Mr. Lehman states that he has a most profitable lot of bookings.

CINCINNATI.

Ludlow Lagoon Opens in a Blaze of Glory. Coney Island and Chester Park Draw Usual Sunday Crowds.

Last week the question asked by managers was, "water we going to do about it?" But the current week opened with most auspicious weather and large attendance at all resorts.

Ludlow Lagoon (J. J. Weaver, Mgr.)—After a period of inactivity extending over two years, the picturesque summer resort opened its season Sunday, June 14. Lovers of nature can here find an ideal home as the grounds are located in one of the most beautiful spots in the Ohio Valley. A background of the bold Kentucky hills is greatly relieved by the placid lake fed by natural springs and in the distance can be seen the Ohio river meandering on its way in graceful curves until it gets beyond the vision.

The natural beauty of the place has been greatly enhanced by skillful landscape gardeners. The Clubhouse has been remodeled and a new boardwalk encircles the lake which is covered with numerous boats. A steam launch, the Minnie Hay, has been brought from Louisville. Thimney's United States Band gave concerts and attract a large number of music lovers.

After the concert a brilliant display of fireworks was made. The vaudeville bill was headed by Nancy Rice and Tom Hardie. The outlook for the summer is good as many novelties are offered. Fishing is permitted.

Zoo Gardens.—John Weber's Military Band pleased the throngs and showed very marked improvement over the previous efforts in this city.

Large crowds were the rule at Coney Island last week with the following bill in the vaudeville theatre: Mauro, contortionist; Helena Pfeiffer, vocalist; Evans, Beveca and Evans, held over for one day awaiting the arrival of Arthur & Stock, rag-time millionaires; E. W. Bousley in clever foot juggling, and Miles & Mignon close the bill. This week's bill is as follows: Miles & Mignon and Arthur & Stock, holdovers; Harry Boyd, monologist; Koppe, hoop roller; Harry Scott, descriptive songs, and Murphy and Gano.

Chester Park (L. M. Martin, Mgr.)—Last week's bill followed: Edward Shyan, Novelty Co., Al. Waltz, The Klebats, Anne & Moore and The Gridlers. This week opened with packed grounds and a variety of weather. Rain on Saturday night caused a postponement of the fireworks exhibition and on Sunday night a pyrotechnic display intended for two evenings was greatly admired and such expressions as "Ah! isn't it lovely?" "It's gorgeous," and others were frequently voiced in the crowds. This week's vaudeville bill includes some very entertaining acts, among which are: Kitty Stevens, character dancer; Lew Wells, comedy musical act; George Austin, comedy wire artist; Fanny Donovan, vocalist, and closed with Young America Quintette, which made a decided hit.

The Queen City Bathing Beach opened its second season last week with a goodly number of bathers. The big pavilion contains one thousand dressing rooms.

NOTES.

Commencing June 6, the management of Chester Park arranged for the free admittance of all children under twelve years of age who are accompanied by an adult. The miniature railway at this resort has been extended to twelve feet former length. A large number of people have applied for swimming instructions at the beach.

The first ragtime concert of the season at the Zoo was given by Froehlich's Cincinnati Orchestra last week.

William A. Hackett of the Pike Stock Company returned to his home in this city last week, the road season of the company having closed. They opened in the Charity Hall at the West End Theatre in New York City with Angela Bolores Hunt as leading lady.

Mr. Hubert Heuck of the Heuck Opera House Company left several weeks ago for Lake Peconick, N. Y. Mr. Heuck expects to devote several weeks in a beautiful vacation, giving the major portion of his time to fishing.

Col. J. E. Fennessy of the Heuck Opera House Company was recently married to Miss Grace E. Morand of Indianapolis. Mr. Fennessy is a widower, his wife having died but a short time since. After an extensive tour of the east, west and north-west, they will return to their home in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Oliver Scott, wife of the manager of the Robinson Show, died recently of pneumonia at the home of her son-in-law, John Morris, at New Lexington, O. Mrs. Scott, who lived with her husband and son at Revere, O., was on a visit to her daughter when overtaken by what proved to be a fatal illness. Her death came as a great surprise as she was in the best of health when she left her home at Revere, O.

Max Fleibander and George Egner, musical and stage directors of the Chester Park Opera Company, arrived in this city and they will begin preparations for the opening of the opera season, June 28.

Barkout's Carnival Company made a week's stay in Dayton, Ky., opposite Cincinnati. The shows carried are up to the standard. The Kilben Family of acrobats, contortionists and acrobats had a very good act and in a better location would have been one of the features. They closed with the Barkout Company and will play parks.

WHEELING, W. VA.

Wheeling Park (Conrad Hirsch, Mgr.)—Zeda & Ella, in their new vaudeville contortion act, were well received by two large and appreciative audiences and they are certainly there with the goods.

The Firemen's Carnival given in Martin's Ferry, Ohio, promises to be a big success.

Dr. J. Cooper, who is selling his famous remedies in Wellville, Ohio, was in the city and says that his free show is larger now than it ever was and his hand is hard to beat. He reports big business.

Col. E. R. Carney, of Wheeling, W. Va., proprietor of the Hotel Windsor and Secretary and Treasurer of the H. M. R. A., left on June 6 to attend their convention given at the Chateau Frontenac Jubilee, Canada, which will be in session from the 6 to the 14.

Col. Ed. Mozart, manager of Wheeling's first labor carnival, reports everything in readiness for the opening June 15. The outlook is that it will eclipse anything given in the past.

Harry Tleke, assistant contracting agent of the Public Protective Company's Last Days of Pompeii, was in the city last week making contracts for their big production that will be given on the state fair grounds in October.

Who is Almy? Why, she is at the Elemen's Carnival at Martin's Ferry, Ohio, 20,000 persons paid admission to see her.

Last week in one of Wheeling's daily papers appeared a beautiful pipe dream by one of the reporters stating that a one hundred and fifty thousand dollar playhouse would be built this year but it is without foundation as the place designated is now occupied by a bowling and pool room. It is leased for two years.

Manager Ed. Frankheim, of the Court Theatre, and special representative Stahlaker, left last week for New York where they will engage a stock opera company for the summer months.

Mr. Wm. Bowers, secretary and treasurer of the Court Theatre, Wheeling, W. Va., leaves next month for Marquette, Mich., for a month's vacation.

Mr. Shellenbross, of the Court Theatre, Wheeling, W. Va., left last week for Alto, where he will take charge of some valuable privileges he has there.

MOBILE, ALA.—Mourner's Park Theatre (Mickey) Shellenbross, Mgr., opened June 1, with Boston Ideal Opera Company to capacity of the house. The audience composed of the elite of the city. This company will be at this place of amusement for 16 weeks, and Manager McDermott predicts a very successful season, and what "Mickey" says is sure to occur.

NOTES.

Miss Daley Thorne, the leading prima donna of the Boston Ideal Opera Company, by her charming voice and splendid acting, has won a place in the hearts of the opera loving public in the Gulf City.

The Billboarders about the city show much improvement under the personal management of A. A. McDermott, the representative of Consolvo & Chesbro.

DENVER, COL.

June 9.—Business has decreased at the playhouses on account of the weather being cold and rainy.

Broadway Theatre (Peter McCourt, Mgr.) The Jane Baker Stock Company are this week presenting Lord and Lady Algy. Miss Jane Baker appearing as Lady Algy, and Edward Ardwin as Lord Algy. Next attraction—An American Citizen.

Tabor Grand (Peter McCourt, Mgr.) This house is dark until the 11, Amelia Bingham opens for ten performances.

Elitch Gardens (Mrs. John Long, Mgr.) The Bellows Stock Company are presenting A Gentleman of France to fair business on account of cold weather. Next—Lyers.

Empire Theatre (W. Thompson, Mgr.) The popularity of this house continues to grow, judging from the increase of business. Frank Got, illustrated songs; Lesinger Bros., acrobats; 2 Kukus, musical trio; Mr. & Mrs. Robt. Carroll, comedy sketch; Walter Theron, monologue.

Crystal Theatre (Geo. Adams, Mgr.) Business continues good at this house. Kirafa Bros., acrobats; Bertha Lang, singer; The Tharbocks, comedians; Morris Jones, singer; Weaver & Lambert, comedy team, and the Biograph.

Alexander Theatre (Frank Ripfel, Mgr.) The Two Tramps is produced as a curtain raiser; Stag Sisters, singers; Mamie Lawers, singer; Garberry & Stanton, comedy team; Marjorie Goodwin, singer; Wm. De Loe, aerial act. Business is fair.

NOTES.

Colonel Wm. Thompson, manager of the Empire Theatre, has secured a lease on Union Park and will open June 21, with a midway and vaudeville show. It will be christened the White Tented City. Saturday and Wednesday the amateur baseball league of the city will play. The Santa Fe Carnival Company have signed as the opening attraction, the admission price will be 10c, the various attractions will be the same price.

The city is filled with Sells and Downs paper for the appearance of the show June 15.

Curran and Co., report business rushing.

Manhattan Beach opens June 14 as a vaudeville house under the management of J. E. Clifford.

NEW BEDFORD, MASS.

New Bedford Theatre (H. W. Rosenthal, Mgr.)—Rosenthal's Opera Company gave a rendition of Sals Padua, June 4-5-6, to good sized audiences. Bill of $-0-10. Rosenthal's Dramatic Company presenting The Corsican Brothers. Rosenthal's Opera Company in the Mikado, 11-12-13.

Sheddy's Theatre (P. R. Huntington, Mgr.)—The Huntington Stock Company presents Resurrection week of June 8. Full houses ruled the past week at every performance of Woman Against Woman. The Edison Vitasec and illustrated songs are given between the acts.

NOTES.

Theodore R. Beckwith's Circus closed a six days' stand here June 10 and turned people away at nearly every evening performance. The show is an old-time one-ring concern and presents some novel features well worth the price of admission, 20 cents. The show has two cars. Barnum and Halley's advance car No. 2 arrived here June 3. Al. Reid is in charge, assisted by Vic Cook. The car carries twenty men and they proved themselves hustlers in attacking bills. The complete roster of the car is: Al. Reid, general manager; Vic Cook, secretary; Wm. Shea, boss billposter; Gus Berk, assistant boss billposter; W. Dupont, lithographer; James Davis, chef; H. Blattery, assistant chef; M. Murphy, porter. The posters are: J. Harrington, H. Harris, E. Shaw, J. Green, P. McLaughlin, Gus Miller, A. Cohen, R. Laferre, P. Dunn, H. White, P. Blair, E. Carter. The show comes here June 13.

The Girard Sisters, after 52 weeks' of constant travel and work in the vaudeville line, are taking a much needed rest at their home in this city.

The local contractor for the building of Sheddy's new local theatre house has been awarded by a local contractor, C. O. Hightman, for $21,007. The contract calls for its completion by October 1.

Manager Rosenthal has drafted several amateurs into his stock dramatic company.

Only $1,000 has been appropriated by the local city fathers to make the eagle scream. (Independence day), July 4. If all reports are true, the present city fathers could get that amount out of sight on ginger pop and cigars among themselves.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

The theatrical season of 1902-03, locally, expired May 29, when Richard Mansfield presented Julius Caesar. We were to have had a masterpiece performance of Romeo and Juliet by Liebler and Company's "all star" company 2, but as it was decided to give Eleanor Gibson a rest the first three days of the week, Springfield, Hartford, New Haven and Worcester were cut out of the route.

Memorial Day found all the parks in Springfield and vicinity open for the public, and things look favorable for a very successful summer season.

Hampden Park, under P. F. Shea & Co., and the active management of J. E. Burke, opened with all the skillful devices for catching the elusive dime, from the tin type tent for the "dime" dimes. Al. Meyer's colored entertainers furnished the entertainment in the summer theatre, which has been partly rebuilt.

An entertaining vaudeville bill occupied the summer theatre at Forest Lake, Palmer, Memorial Day and week following, and this pretty little resort proved as popular as in years past.

P. F. Shea & Co. also manage this resort. This week James O'Neill's colored entertainers at Mercurio in Liebler & Co.'s Romeo and Juliet.

Helena Phillips closed with David Warfield in The Auctioneer, May 30, and is visiting at her home in Chillicothe, one of Springfield's suburbs.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

One of the great big attractions that head for the Coast after the New York season is over, and which we get to see for being the half-way house to San Francisco, is the production of If I Were King, given at the Salt Lake Theatre by E. H. Southern. The engagement was for three nights and matinee and the business done broke the house record, the receipts for the performance footing up over $10,000. The production was immense, the scenic details being most elaborate. Our theatre-going public is willing to pay for what they like and two dollar seats were scrambled for, the house being literally jammed at each presentation. Southern is winning and clever, but fast becoming eccentric. Because the music between the acts and also during the performance was either too soft or loud, too fast or slow, at the last performance here he cut out the orchestra entirely with the exception of the piano, which instrument accompanied his love scenes and triumphant entries.

At the Grand Theatre (Jones & Hammer, Managers) The Warde Company, with Charles D. Herman and Anna Roberts doing leads, is in its fifth week, the present bill being the Effie Elster version of Hazel Kirke. This company has continued to please audiences at the Grand and the greatest compliment that could be paid them in the good business being done, when most playhouses have closed their doors for the summer season.

NOTES.

We are soon to have Nat Goodwin, to be followed by Amelia Bingham, at the Salt Lake Theatre.

The Salt Palace here opened to the public, May 30, with cycle races on the sancer track, and high class vaudeville in the theatre.

ATLANTA, GA.

June 1 at 3 p. m. the great amusement resort in the entire South opened to the public. In the afternoon and evening thousands of people thronged the grounds. The theatre is showing and having a good time in general. Open air concerts will be given twice daily by Ponce de Leon's Military Band, under the direction of W. T. Hallowell. Ponce de Leon summer theatre opened with a rush, having as the opening bill, The Lady Slave, by the Griffen Musical Comedy Company. The theatre is under the management of Mr. H. L. DeGives, also manager of the Bijou Theatre, the Bijou being closed for the summer.

One of the features of the park are the Electric Launches. Among the other attractions to be seen at this park are, The Cave of Winds; The House Up-side Down, both owned and operated by Mr. F. L. Barber. There are also The Show the Chutes, Miniature Railway, The Toboggan Slide, The Parisian Maze and one of the finest carousels ever seen here.

The grounds are lighted with about 8,000 electric lights, making one of the prettiest sights imaginable. Mr. J. G. Rossman, the lessee of the park, has spent $100,000 in beautifying the place.

Manager Wm. Sharpe has worked untiringly in his efforts to have everything in readiness for the opening day.

DECATUR, ILL.—June 7, The Goodman Fourth Infantry Band of Decatur, Ill., held memorial services at Greenwood cemetery in honor of four former members. This band was the only one from Illinois that was at the dedication of the World's Fair at St. Louis recently.

Prof. L. R. Shockey of Wilson, N. C., is in the city visiting with his parents.

The latest by Arthur Gillespie and Louis Lehman is a very pretty ballad, entitled, "In Georgia." The lyrics are by Mr. Gillespie, who has written many clever song hits, and musical end was arranged by Lehman. The song will soon be published.

A big crowd was at Fairview Park, Sunday, June 7, and the concert at Turner Park given by Goodman Fourth Infantry Band was well attended.

Fudge & Stafford opened their season at Fairview Park, June 7. They report good business. Some new features have been added recently.

OTTUMWA, IA.—New Market Street Theatre (J. Frank Jersey, Mgr.) Dark, June 1-6.

Grand Opera House (Dr. Lloyd T. Dorsey, Mgr.) The Merchant of Venice, June 3, by the Ottumwa High School graduating class. Production was of unusual merit. Miss Holden reached the class last year in As You Like It. The Grand was well filled. Cast included John Coen, R. E. Malon, Harry H. Wheaton, O. W. Jordan, H. M. Slaughter, D. J. Weeks, Ira T. Walker, R. M. Hale, Hattie F. Powell, Edna M. McElroy, Hazel Fry, Nellie Hodrick, Grace Shier, Elfreda Graves, Ethel Tophart and Myra Greenwood. The hit of the evening was made by Robert Hale as Lamerbot Gobbs. The New World Extravaganza (local) S.O. The Oratorio of Eliza by the Iowa State Music Teachers' Association, 33-25.

J. Frank Jersey, manager of the New Market Street Theatre, returned from his trip east June 8.

EMMETT A. WORK, proprietor of the Springfield Merchants' Spring Carnival was opened June 1.

The Gaskill-Mundy Carnival Company pitched their tents on the public square and started their shows Monday evening. In spite of the down-pour of rain the people visited the show, and the carnival will surely be a success. The Girl from Up There is one of the leading features of the carnival. Etta Hake performs her magnificent all-over dance. There are also many other attractive features. Corita, "the doll lady," was marveled at and the spectators were delighted to shake hands with the small lady.

At the Crystal Maze, large numbers of visitors met confusion in its most mysterious form. The Halls of Laughter and Caves of the Winds are well named. Especially true is this of the Halls of Laughter, where peal after peal of hilarious approval of the sights to be seen within the show rolled out in a continuous wave.

The Stadium is a place of interest. The Johnstown Flood was well patronized. The Electric Theatre presents many amusing features, of which the best is unquestionably, Mile. Roberts, in her Poses Plastique.

Dolling Park Theatre (R. L. Dolling, Mgr.)—The Drew Stock Company, June 1-6. Streets of New York; June 7-9. Arabian Knights.

ARTHUR I. SCHWIEDER, CANTON, O.—Harris' Nickel Plate Shows showed here May 30 to good business.

Park Theatre (T. K. Albaugh, Mgr.) Brown and Hartlogg, Reumann and Freeman, W. G. Williams, Allen Wightman, Lucella Wilson, Viola Napp and the O'Brien Troupe of Acrobats. Next week—Lane and Lane, Kelley and Reno, Warsaw Bros., Jessie Babb, Harriet Langdon and Joliet's performing dogs. Business at this house is improving.

A. Elbert has leased the American Village from Al. Hest and will run it as Olive Garden. L. T. Cooper's Medicine Company opened June 2 for two weeks and is drawing enormous crowds.

M. C. Barber, of the Grand Opera House, has purchased the outcropping stock and is renovating the house.

Garden Theatre (Ira Davis, Mgr.) presents Camus & Schumacher cycle whirl, Etieel Collins, Miss Ernestine Weidman, James Puvvis and the Louver Sisters. Business good.

BUSH, SANDUSKY, O.—Cedar Point (Geo. A. Boeckling, Mgr.) The season of 1903 at Cedar Point, the Coney Island of the West, opened May 30. The Elka Mustrals gave the first performance in the new theatre. Many novel amusements have been added this season, among which are, Laughing Gallery, Roller Coaster, Toboggan Slide and Scenic Railway. The new theatre, located west of the pavilion, is a beauty, has a seating capacity of 1,500, and is complete from foyer to stage. Tons of new scenery have been installed and so arranged that dramatic as well as vaudeville shows can be given most efficiently.

The vaudeville bill at the theatre week of May 31 is composed of the following artists: Prevost and Prevost, comedy acrobats; Gardner, Weal and Sunshine, singers and dancers; George Austin, comedy wire act; Jessie Babb, the Kansas City Nightingale, and the popular Kinodrome, presenting interesting pictures. James A. Ryan retains his old position as press agent, and Jos. F. Singler, assistant manager.

EDWIN C. LeCLAIR, NASHVILLE, TENN.—Cole Younger and Frank James' Historical Wild West Show pitched its tents in the West End, June 1, and gave two performances, evening and night, to packed tents. It is not been for the steady down-pour of rain it would have been impossible to accommodate the crowds. This is one of the best and cleanest shows of its kind that was ever seen here. Every act is up to the standard.

E. L. TOBIAS, MT. CARMEL, PA.—G. A. R. Opera House (J. R. Gould, Mgr.) The John Robinson Big Circus was here last Friday and showed to their wide seating capacity, and their performances were well received, both afternoon and evening, with appreciation from all. It was a clean and deserving performance. The show at the opera house last evening was very good but played to a poor house. It was Railroad Jack, by James Deuger, and deserved a better house.

J. G. YOUNG, TIFFIN, O.—Pawnee Bill's Wild West Show gave two creditable performances, May 28. Their parade was up to the standard. They had immense crowds both at the afternoon and evening performances. They have improved greatly since they showed here some years ago.

The High School Commencement Exercises will be held in Nobles' Opera House, June 11.

RANDOLPH HOPKINS, PRINCETON, IND.—The Opera House is closed. Manager Keiser and the owner have been unable to agree on lease price and the house may remain dark for the entire season.

Herbs of Life Medicine Company are giving a street show here and will remain two weeks yet. A good circus would make a great hit in this territory.

A. R. BURTON, TITUSVILLE, PA.—Gentry Brothers United Shows, May 27, to poor business.

Titusville Opera House (John Gaham, Mgr.)—Laura Hulbert & Co. opened June 1 to good business. This company expects to remain here for several weeks, if business guarantees it.

MAX GOLDSTEIN, MT. CARMEL, PA.—G. A. R. Opera House (J. R. Gould, Mgr.) Railroad Jack was a fine play with good people and showed to a slim house. Coming—June 8, Welsh Brothers Show.

J. G. YOUNG, ROUTES AHEAD.

The Billboard forwards mail to all professionals free of charge. Members of the professions are invited while they are on the road to send their mail address to The Billboard and it will be promptly forwarded.

MASON'S FORTY.

Some anger has immortalized the sidewalks of New York:
We honor him and love him for that bit of faulty verse.
Good Father Prout has told us of the beauties of Old Cork,
Likewise of decent Passage, in his manner bright and terse.
"That vacant lot of Kelly's," and "The Sunny Side of State,"
Chicago's poet laureate has sung with love and flame;
But still I'm glad it's left to me, a bard nor known nor great,
To place one more beloved spot upon the roll of fame.

Dear old Mason's Forty, you're not now as of yore;
Dear old Mason's Forty, a forty now no more;
But ever we'll remember you with affection twice a score,
And still you ever will be Mason's Forty.

Out on Mason's Forty, I remember when a lad I saw a city built in the twinkling of an eye.

'Twas peopled by the strangest beasts a city ever had—
Big elephants and grinning apes and hippopotami;
I saw men hurt themselves through air and yet escape alive,
I saw a band of Indians attack a loaded stage.
I saw—oh, will I ever forget when at the age of five,
I saw "the Great Colossal Show, the Grandest of the Age?"

Out on Mason's Forty no more they pitch their tents;
Out on Mason's Forty the festive fifty cents is gathered by the ticket man no more as my expense,
As it was in boyhood days on Mason's Forty.

The ghost of famous Barnum and Adam Forepaugh eid,
I think must linger sometimes about that hallowed spot.

Like that memory so dear to me of when I first beheld
Their wonders rare displayed upon that mammoth vacant lot.
The hoofmarks of the horses and the track where chariots wheeled
Have been swallowed in time's vortex and smothered by grass green,
Where once three myrtle circles marked the torn and trampled field.
Where once that canvas city each summertime was seen.

Out on Mason's Forty no more within the shade
Out on Mason's Forty we buy pink lemonade,
They've builded stately mansions where the show musicians played
With the circus I saw out on Mason's Forty.
Douglas Malloch.

FROM OVER THE SEAS

News from Buffalo Bill's Wild West. Col. Cody Fully Recovered.

Birmingham, Eng., June 1.—Our road tour was launched in a snow storm at Manchester, Eng., April 13. At the first performance, Col. Cody was thrown from his horse and his foot was injured so badly that he remained out of the saddle for four weeks, making his reappearance in the program at Liverpool, May 11. He was, however, driven around the arena at every performance in his laudatory. We are happy to say that he has fully recovered.

Sunday afternoon, May 10, the good Bishop of Liverpool, assisted by a large choir, held services in the arena of the show. His Lordship spoke quite eloquently and his sermon was highly appreciated by Col. Cody and his motley assemblage of Indians, cowboys, Mexicans, Cosacks, soldiers, not forgetting the midket, giant, snake charmer, blue man, sword swallower, human ostrich, man with wheels, and other anomalies of nature. May 11, the Lord Mayor of Liverpool and family visited the Wild West and were highly entertained. During our second week at Liverpool, beginning May 11, we had the Lord George Sanger Show as opposition (1). This is the leading tented aggregation of Great Britain and corresponds in size with a "one hundred and forty horse" wagon show in the States. Personally, Lord George is a fine gentleman of seventy-eight years, but looks twenty years younger.

Miss Octavia recently received a large consignment of rattlesnakes and Gila monsters from the States, and they create a sensation here.

Mrs. McCuen and Mrs. Francis sailed for America, 23, on the R. M. S. Umbria. Mrs. Pusey will follow on next trip. Jake Pusey has a fine lot of horses as ever "trouped" with a tented aggregation and the "Horse Fair" after Rosa Bonheur's famous painting is one of the features of the show.

Prof. Griffin, Charles Diamond, Miss Beatrice, Prof. Isell and the Royal Shanghai Chinese troupe appeared at a "smoker" for the Liverpool Press Club, May 15.

The Wild West has caught on big with the people here and it looks as though we would duplicate the success of the Barnum & Bailey Shows on this side of the big pond.

FAKE AGENT ON THE COAST.

A man posing his name as Cyrus A. Noble, recently humbugged several of the merchants in San Francisco and neighboring towns, by claiming to be an agent of the Ringling Brothers' Shows, securing advance money on the pretense of being temporarily embarrassed after a long overland trip.

He secured considerable money from the grain, grocery, meat and bakery dealers and was so glib of speech that even C. I. Norris of the Norris and Howe shows did not suspect him of being an impostor.

He wears Elk ruff buttons and pin and carries an Elk grip, but has no card, claiming to belong to Leslie No. 1, of New York, and that members of No. 1 lodge do not need cards. He has not yet been apprehended.

CIRCUS GOSSIP.

C. C. Wilson was a Billboard caller, June 11, Hough and Howard are playing lots in Chicago.

Edw. Arlington is expected in Cincinnati shortly.

Mr. Louis E. Cooke is now making his headquarters in the West.

J. P. Fagan spent a couple of days in Cincinnati last week.

Thos. Ferris, boss animal man, can be addressed to Clark St., Chicago, Ill.

Sells and Howes lost seven stands on account of the recent floods in the West.

Norris and Rowe are over $30,000 to the good so far, and the season is yet young.

Reports from the shows in Canada do not indicate that country in extra good shape.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Phillips, May 25, a daughter. Mr. Phillips is connected with the Younger-James Wild West.

Mr. W. W. Scott, boss hostler with the Walter L. Main shows was presented with a beautiful cane by his drivers last week.

St. Simon has left the Forepaugh Wild West and accepted a position as contracting agent with the Forepaugh-Sells Brothers Shows.

The Great Barlow Show reports good business where the weather permits. They had rain for ten successive days from June 1. They expect good business until Sept. 1.

The Billboard now publishes more privilege ads than all other papers put together. This paper is now recognized as the privilege man's organ.

The Wallace Shows have a new big top. The side show under the management of Phil Elsworth, is highly commended by the press. Gerald Fitzgerald is working the press very efficiently.

American's Favorite Pavilion Show was blown down at Aurora, Kansas. No one was seriously hurt. The show will not reorganize until next season, when it will be under the management of Higmer Brothers.

After three weeks of very bad business at Fishing, Long Island, Williams & Fennessey's Circus recently went to pieces, after a riot among the spectators caused by dissatisfaction with the performance.

Welsh Brothers were unable to show Bethlehem, Pa., June 9, owing to a cloud burst, which made it impossible for them to get the wagons to the lot. The show has been playing to remarkable business all season.

Mrs. Margaret E. Welsh, the aged mother of the Welsh Brothers, who has been enjoying show life with the Newest Great Shows, for the past few weeks, has returned to her home in Lancaster, Pa., much improved in health.

Notes from Rippel's Big 10 and 15 cent shows: After eighteen days of rain we are once more doing business the same old way. At Montpelier we turned away over five hundred people. The show has been five weeks out and in that time we have met six stranded companies. They are all trying to get in the show.

The French negro, the sole survivor of the Mt. Pelee eruption who has been a feature of the Barnum & Bailey side show, is liable to spend the rest of the season in the workhouse at Albany, N. Y., where he is now detained on a charge of cutting with intent to maim.

The Sparks Shows are in possession of three big lions which were born at Mechanicsburg, Pa., May 29. They are doing nicely and appear to be healthy. Charles Sparks says that as soon as they are old enough they will be worked into an act with the big lions which will be made the special feature of the show.

Following is the roster of the opposition brigade No. 1 of Walter L. Main shows:—W. T. Murphy, manager; V. Loren, asst.; Chas. Koster, special lithographer; Howard Diamond, Harry Butler, Frank Tracy, Sam Mona, bannerman; H. M. McCauley, W. Hausman, K. Tyler, lithographers. All are members of the Union.

A correspondent writes as follows:—"Newton Marks who took Ed. Davis' place ahead of J. H. Finn's Show lasted just five days. Last Tuesday night he was selling tickets. When the house was pretty near full, he put a canvasman in the wagon and jumped away with the receipts. Mr. Finn says that the amount taken was $125.00 and that Marks was short in other ways also."

The side show with the Miles Orton Shows reports big business. Following are the acts carried:—Alex. fire eater and sword swallowing act, "Punch" Bag's Punch & Judy; John T. Mack, sleight of hand artist; Miss Marie Cunningham, snake charmer, and Prof. George, Illinois Box Mystery. The main show is doing big business. John W. Berry is in charge of advance car No. 1.

The Inella Forepaugh-Fish Wild West Show lost several dates in the floods, the first of the month on account of the floods. At Des Moines no night performance was given, and the show did not get out of town until the next noon. Just before the delayed train started J. W. Lynch, the side show man, was sent up town to buy a beefsteak for Mrs. Fish; the flood cut him off and he traveled just one week before he caught up with the show.

Following the roster of car No. 2, Forepaugh, Sells Bros. United Shows:—F. W. Husey, car manager; W. F. Adams, boss billposter; John Leibel, Andy Stouch, Chas. McKee, E. I. Bishop, Clint Hie, Geo. Thatcher, John Reynolds, Emil Leehr, R. A. Tomis, R. I. Tuttle and J. F. Read, billposters; B. H. Millie, Louis Gowers and I. D. MacIntosh, lithographers; E. Pepper, H. Mervler, bannermen; Frank O'Hara, programmer and James Brand, porter.

Following is the corrected roster of advertising car No. 2 of the Great Wallace Shows:—Karl Einfeldt, car manager; Geo. Praalun, boss billposter; W. M. Scott, lithographer; W. D. Clifford, programmer; G. W. Spiller, C. B. Wilson, Fred Shick, Joe Cors, H. J. Fisher, Joe Horton, Clem Hubbs, Paul Weaver, Ben Horton, W. M. Davis, Thomas Serrin, Al. Hall, W. H. Harris, C. Pravey, J. M. Bagwell, billposters; J. W. Munger and C. E. Stain, banner, and Ray Crist, paste-maker.

Notes from The Great Cole Younger and Frank James Historical Wild West:—Mitchell Goldstone is in charge of the privilege car. McGinley is in the connection, and sells big show tickets. Dan Heley Yokes, reserved seat tickets. Dan McCarty and Mrs. H. E. Allott are on the front door. P. A. Dutch and wife are in the side show. Joe Gorman is the right man in the right place; we could not get along without our Uncle Joe. Harry Hall is in the ticket wagon; P. C. O'Brien is the adjuster with the show.

W. W. Cole, accompanied by Mr. Peter Sells, recently proceeded to Columbus where a conference was held with Mr. Lewis Sells. The incident set all kinds of rumors afloat. One of those has it that the joint agreement was signed for another term of five years. Still another says that negotiations were declared off and that the Messrs. Sells Bros. will go it alone hereafter. One can get almost any kind of a story he likes for the asking. It is likely however that nothing was definitely done. No one knows except the gentlemen most chiefly concerned and they will make it known when it suits their good pleasure.

The roster of advertising car No. 2, Barnum and Bailey Shows follows:—Al. Itell, car manager; Vic Cook, Wm. Shea, boss billposters; Gus Bork, assistant boss billposter; W. Du Pont, lithographer James Davis, chief; with H. Glattey as assistant; M. Murphy, porter; J. Harrington, H. Harris, E. Shaw, J. Green, P. McLaughlin, Gus Miller, A. Cohen, H. Laferne, P. Dunn, H. White, P. Bahr and E. Carter, billposters.

Johnny Nelson, the trick violinist who was with the Walter L. Main show last season, has been seriously ill with typhoid pneumonia for the last ten weeks at his home in New London, Conn. He is now convalescing and expects to resume work on a park circuit in July.

C. I. Norris of the Norris and Rowe shows is in Oakland, Cal., taking treatment for his eyes. He has not been with the show since April 15, but will return in a few weeks as his affected organs are regaining their normal condition. Mr. Norris has not been idle however, as he has been negotiating for the purchase of a tract of land just outside of Oakland which will be converted into winter quarters for the show. The tract is situated conveniently near the S. P. Railroad, and everything will be built in apple pie order. The show has been doing a very large business. Twelve cream white parade horses, three parades with animals and one stock car were added in Portland, Ore.

Chas. Koster, genial lithographer with the Walter L. Main Shows has a faculty for juggling which got him into trouble at Cleveland, O., recently. Koster entered the place of a Hebrew merchant and asked to be allowed to place a lithograph in that gentleman's window. The Jew asked him what the litho advertised, and Koster replied that it was a Jewish plea. As soon as the Hebrew noted the deception however, he became incensed and made for Koster with a chair for a weapon, with the result that both were taken into custody. The judge who tried the case dismissed the gentlemen with a fine of costs to Koster who says the next time he hangs up a lithograph in a Jew's establishment he will know it.

Whitney Family Shows are now in their fifth week, doing their old standard business and living excellent satisfaction over their old route. Following is the roster:—A. V. Whitney, Prop.; C. A. Whitney, Mgr.; L. P. Whitney, equestrian director; W. Walbourn, gen. contracting agent; John Peach, advertising agent; Lee Whitney, leader of band; John C. Phillips, director orchestra; Gabe Lemons, boss announcer; Clarence Alford, boss property man; Seaton Newberry, boss hostler; Stanley, Brobst & Stanley; Lester & Mack; Pacard, The Os's; The Two Cudworths, Millie Sisters, L. P. Whitney, John S. Phillips Chas. Klefer, Jack Heap, C. M. Bowman, Frank Adams, Moses Strong, Geo. Lambert, Chancey Homer, John Wike and "Miggins."

Notes from Walter L. Main's Combined Railroad Shows:—A baby came into the world in Batavia, N. Y. The local branch of Damascus Temple Strliners of Rochester, attended the show in a body and with appropriate speechmaking the infant was christened, Damascus Batavia, with a bottle of champagne, which Mrs. Camell got the benefit of by licking it off the kid. John Henry Rice, general agent of the Hargreaves Shows was a visitor at Lockport, N. Y. Since playing Syracuse, N. Y., May 26, we have not locked horns with Ringling Bros. Al Ringling was a visitor to the circus that day. Major Reinbeck spent Sunday, May 24 at his bantam rooster farm near Buffalo. The Oriskany troupe of acrobats and head balancers joined at Cleveland, O., May 29. Harry Green and Harry Hodge are doing some good work as rimes. Geo. Holland and wife, (Rose Dockrill) joined the show May 25, at Rochester. "The Billboard" was not in error when it predicted success for the shows in Canada. While the military spectacle was a success in the States it was something more than that in King Edward's Domain. Savage South Africa is a hit and the Canadian soldiery receives much applause. The reception has been little short of phenomenal. Opposition has been big from the opening until the present writing. We do not have any trouble in securing fences for the posters, the natives offering the use of their space on fences and outbuildings for "gangs," never mention the word ticket or "comp." Manager W. R. Peck of the No. 1 car says we do not carry enough paper to cover all the space he has thrust upon him. General Agent Ed. C. Knupp has picked the cream of Canadian towns and we have been first in, in nearly every instance. We have received some very favorable newspaper notices.

Following is the corrected roster of advertising car No. 2 of the Great Wallace Shows:—Karl Einfeldt, car manager; Geo. Praalun, boss billposter; W. M. Scott, lithographer; W. D. Clifford, programmer; G. W. Spiller, C. B. Wilson, Fred Shick, Joe Cors, H. J. Fisher, Joe Horton, Clem Hubbs, Paul Weaver, Ben Horton, W. M. Davis, Thomas Serrin, Al. Hall, W. H. Harris, C. Pravey, J. M. Bagwell, billposters; J. W. Munger and C. E. Stain, banner, and Ray Crist, paste-maker.

Notes from The Great Cole Younger and Frank James Historical Wild West:—Mitchell Goldstone is in charge of the privilege car. McGinley is in the connection, and sells big show tickets. Dan Heley Yokes, reserved seat tick-

CHARLES ROSENCRANS.

The theatrical and billposting career of Charles Rosenkrans dates from 1890, from which time until 1892, he was local manager of the Broadway Theatre at Long Branch, N. J. In 1894 he purchased the billposting plant in that city from W. H. Bennett for $50.00, an old suit of clothes, and an open-faced silver watch. The plant was in a very dilapidated condition, being built principally of box boards. He immediately began to make extensive improvements.

In 1895, Mr. Rosenkrans accepted a position with the Atlantic Coast Trolley Company as advertising manager of Pleasure Bay Park. Mr. Rosenkrans and Mr. George M. Chattle formed a co-partnership in 1896, their business being conducted under the name of The American Billposting Company, which name it has continued to bear ever since. In 1898, Mr. Rosenkrans purchased the interest owned by Mr. Chattle and has since been the sole owner of the plant, his brother, Irving, having joined him in the management, and is still connected with him.

In the summer season of 1897 he was promoted from advertising manager to assistant manager, and in 1898, to general manager, serving in that capacity until 1900.

In 1899 he joined Mr. James H. Wallack's forces, acting as business manager for three seasons, after which he organized The Vera De Nole Stock Company.

Since 1900, Mr. Rosenkrans has directed all his attention to the billposting business, and with the aid of his brother, has built one of the best plants in the country, his boards consisting with few exceptions, of sheet steel. He has a perfect paste mixing outfit.

Last fall he became associated with J. F. O'Malley, president of the New Jersey Billposters and Distributors' Association, of which Mr. Rosenkrans is secretary. They have built first-class steel plants in Lakewood, Farmingdale, Freehold, Keyport and Matawan. In connection with this he has accepted the management of the Astor Park Billposting Company.

MARRIAGES.

Miss Kate Condon was married last month to Edward Burke Scott, at New Haven, Conn. The wedding was to have occurred this month but certain business arrangements of Mr. Burke, who is the representative of Dan Daly, interfered and the marriage was hastened. Miss Condon, who was a member of the Jefferson De Angelis company the past season will continue on the stage.

Miss Jessica Waugh, formerly with the King Plug Opera Company, eloped from her home at Tipton, Ind., recently, and was married to John Adams, (non-professional).

Miss Marie Hazen of the Great Wallace Circus and Mr. P. J. Coyle, of Peru, Ind., were married quietly at Fort Wayne, Ind., May 22.

OBITUARY.

Theodore Reichman, the well known baritone, died recently in Vienna, Austria, of apoplexy. He came to this country for the first time in 1889 and attained immense popularity. He was chosen to portray the role of Amfortas in the first presentation of Parsifal, at Itaruth, and his greatest successes were achieved in Wagnerian roles. His greatest roles were, Wolfram in Tannhauser; and the title roles in the Flying Dutchman, Don Giovanni, Hans Sachs and Wotan. He attended several different schools. In Italy he studied under Lamperti at Milan, with Hess in Pargue and under Mantius and Ellsler in Berlin. In 1882 he became a member of the Imperial Opera at Vienna and up to the time of his death was connected with that institution. It is said that while Reichman was a good fellow he possessed a big streak of vanity and it pleased him greatly when that streak was satisfied. A story is told of him, how at a performance of Walkure, he was singing the role of Wotan and the prompter forgot to give him the paper one as he began with the recital to Brunnhilde during the second act. He could not go on and in language which would not look well in print he jabbed his spear into the prompter's box. At the end of the scene the prompter was called to Reichman's dressing room where he was struck with an avalanche of words. Reichman finished with the trade, and the prompter replied: "Viennese! Give him a golden—he's a good fellow" and the offender was dismissed.

Miss Nettie Robinson died recently at her home in Detroit, Mich., of pneumonia. She was a promising young songstress and only recently made her debut. Miss Robinson was only nineteen years of age at the time of her death.

Norfolk, Va., May 29, '03.

The Billboard Pub. Co.

Gentlemen—I have been a regular weekly reader of your Billboard for many months and consider it not only one of the best, but put it at the head of all amusement papers of the day. It is THE paper for the "knights of the road." Long may it flourish and make happy the hearts of the boys and girls who strive to entertain and instruct the public.

Every person who is in any way concerned in any of its branches—theatricals, circuses, parks, seashore or mountain resorts, fairs, street fairs or carnivals, billposting or distributing, etc., should be staunch friends and supporters of The Billboard, which as evidenced by each and every issue, is making such honest and untiring efforts to promote the interests of them for whom it is published.

TOMBSTONE

For George Castello's Grave.

George Castello's grave in Mt. Carmel Cemetery, Chicago, is unmarked. It has been suggested that The Billboard start a subscription for the purpose of buying a simple headstone.

It is believed that all of his friends and many of his acquaintances would gladly contribute to the object in a worthy one. The Billboard cheerfully complies with the request. The fund to be raised is only a modest one. But little is required, hence it has been decided not to accept over one dollar from any one contributor.

CROP REPORT.

The Weather Bureau's weekly summary of crop conditions is as follows: Excessive rains in the Lower Missouri, Central Mississippi and Ohio Valleys, Tennessee, the Carolinas and Georgia have interrupted farm work, caused great damage to crops, especially in the Central Mississippi and Lower Missouri Valleys, the flood stage in the Mississippi River at St. Louis being the highest since 1888, and that in the Missouri River, at Kansas City, since 1814. The protracted and probably unprecedented spring drought continues unbroken in Northern New England and in Eastern New York (the weather map of June 9 shows light rains, have fallen over much of this drought area in the 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. of this date). Portions of the upper lake region, Central and West Gulf states, North Dakota and Montana are in need of rain. Highly favorable temperature conditions prevailed in the Rocky Mountain states, but on the Pacific Coast the week was very hot and dry, especially in California and Oregon, while the entire part of the week in the Central and West Gulf states was too cool.

Wheat corn remains to be planted in the Missouri, Mississippi and Ohio Valleys, where the early planting is greatly in need of cultivation and much has drowned. Planting was resumed in Nebraska and Iowa during the latter part of the week where, under the most favorable future conditions, the acreage will be reduced. Under more favorable conditions planting in the Middle Atlantic States has been finished. Rust in winter wheat is very generally reported on the Ohio, Central Mississippi and Lower Missouri Valleys, and in the two last named districts the crop has sustained much damage from floods. In the lake region, Middle Atlantic States and over the northern part of the Southern States improvement is generally noted. Harvesting is progressing rapidly in Texas, and has begun in California, where early wheat promises good yields. In Washington and Oregon winter wheat has made favorable advancement, but short heads are reported from Oregon and poor stands from portions of Washington.

The outlook for oats in New York and Pennsylvania is poor; in the Ohio Valley a general improvement is indicated; in the Upper Mississippi and Missouri Valleys, where not damaged by floods, the crop is in a promising condition. The week, as a whole, has been very favorable for transplanting tobacco, which is nearly completed over about three fourths of the tobacco area, having made favorable progress in all districts. Good stands are generally indicated and the plants are starting nicely.

The general outlook for apples in New England and the Middle Atlantic States, except in Pennsylvania, is promising, and favorable reports are also received from Tennessee, Iowa and Wisconsin. Excessive falling has impaired the outlook in Ohio, Indiana and Missouri, and a short crop is indicated in Arkansas and Nebraska. The previously reported promising condition of grass in the central valleys continues, and a decided improvement is indicated in the southern portion of the Middle Atlantic states, but in the northern portion of the last-named district and in New England the hay crop will be very short.

STREET FAIRS & EXPOSITIONS

IRELAND

Will be Represented at World's Fair. Comprehensive Exhibit.

William Redmond, M. P., the brother of the leader of the Irish party in the House of Commons, is making a supreme effort to have Ireland sufficiently and separately represented at the St. Louis exhibition next year, and if he succeeds in convincing the government of the necessity of such an exhibit, it probably will be made one of the most interesting at the show.

Mr. Redmond is at present in communication with the Irish chief secretary and the Irish board of agriculture on the subject, and says he is satisfied they will grant what he is asking for. He does not mind if the exhibit he proposes is placed in the British section of the exhibition, but it must be distinctly labeled "Ireland." "We want to show the world," he says "what Ireland is capable of under a sound and economic industrial development."

The proposed exhibit is intended to show what Ireland can produce under natural conditions. There will be specimens of coal from the Arigna district in Kilkenny admitted by experts to be the finest steam coal of its kind in the world; gold and silver are from Wicklow, granite and marble from Donegal and Conemara. Slate and iron from Clare and Wexford, and peat from the bog of Allen. Specimens of linen and woollen goods will also be included. Irish poplin, which is a society luxury, will have a corner entirely to itself, and in this connection it is proposed to send over a weaver with his old-fashioned loom, of which a few still flourish in Dublin. An attempt to reproduce an Irish cabin will be made from materials, some of which will be sent from Ireland, and one or two Gaelic speakers will be installed to explain in the vernacular the names of the various articles to those who are students of Celtic in the United States.

One of the most interesting features of the exhibit will be a panoramic view which it is hoped will give some idea of the industrial activity of Ireland about sixty years ago, just before the famine had commenced to denude the country of its population. A well known Irish artist has been engaged on this work for some months.

OLD GUARD FAIR

Its Objects and the Plans Through Which They are to be Carried.

The Old Guard Fair in October at Madison Square Garden, will be the first distinctively military fair seen in New York City since that of the Seventh Regiment held at the old Madison Square Garden in 1879.

The Old Guard's object in creating this fair is to obtain funds for the purpose of a site and the erection thereon of a new and suitable armory. The Old Guard's present "gun-shop" at Broadway and 49th Street is not their own and not adequate to the needs and dignity of the organization.

The Honorary Fair Committee has for its Chairman, Governor Odell. Its Vice-Presidents are the Hon. Seth Low, the Hon. Elinor Root, the Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, Bishop Potter, Major General Chas. F. Roe, Adm. Gen. Nelson H. Terry, Brig. Gen. George Moore Smith and Brig. Gen. James McAuer. Besides these eminent men the list includes the Colonels commanding all the regiments of the National Guard in Greater New York and the Commanders of the three Batteries, of Squadron A, of the First Battalion of the Naval Militia and the First Signal Corps. Besides the good will evinced by the Commanders of these National Guard organizations a considerable amount of active co-operation and aid is already indicated by the military commanding these various commands of our local militia.

The star feature of the Fair will be the presence as guests of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of London, escorted by its name-sake of New England, the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston. The minut, famous and picturesque London Company is for several years past the chief command of a military nation. On its rolls are the names of men of high rank and a long line of ancestors who have distinguished themselves in fields all over the world in a manner that has made their names historic and household words in England. The Colonel commanding the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of London is the reigning sovereign, His Majesty, King Edward VII.

The celebrated Massachusetts organization has long been on terms of fraternal friendship with New York's Old Guard, and the two companies have visited and re-visited each other and interchanged social amenities until they are strongly united. The Massachusetts men have received a lively interest in seeing the Fair a social and financial success, and will leave no stone unturned to aid their New York comrades in making it so.

The hospitality extended by the Old Guard and its Fair will embrace other organizations besides the English and Massachusetts Companies and any one of these visitors at any time would receive a greater amount of attention from the press and public if interest was not certain to be focused on the English soldiers on their first visit to the United States.

The following influential independent organizations will attend the fair: The Richmond Blues of Providence, Light Infantry of Philadelphia, Amassack Veterans of Manchester, Washington Light Infantry of Charleston, Bristol Train Artillery of Bristol, Cleveland Greys of Cleveland, Gate City Guards of Atlanta, Minute Men of Washington, First Company Foot Guards of Hartford, Second Company Foot Guards of New Haven, United Train Artillery of Worcester, Newport, Worcester Continentals of Worcester, Putnam Militia of Hartford.

The headquarters of the Fair until shortly before it opens at the Garden are in St. James Building, 1131 Broadway, New York City, where Manager Alfred Chasmond representing the Old Guard's Executive Fair Committee, directs its business. The plan for the installation of the Fair indicates that it will be an exceptionally attractive spectacle. There will be a lavish decoration in the National colors of the whole interior of the garden and the floor itself will present the appearance of an army camp. The allied conventional booths of the average large fair will in this military fair have as a substitute marquees and various tents, regulation and otherwise, of military pattern. A larger tent will represent the several separate commands of the National Guard in Greater New York, and will bear the insignia of the organization and the arm of the service that the tent represents. The tent will be the storehouses of fancy goods and valuable articles of all descriptions donated to the Fair, which will be sold at fair prices by the ladies who have volunteered their important aid, without which no fair can ever succeed.

The officers of the Ladies Committee are: President, Mrs. William B. Smith, 250 Riverside Drive; Treasurer, Mrs. William H. Search, 78 Riverside Drive; Assistant Treasurer, Mrs. Charles E. Johnson, 72nd Street and Broadway; Secretary, Mrs. E. S. Joyce, 66 West 84th St.

The Ladies Fair Committee was organized and at work almost as soon as their relatives

Above is an excellent picture of Captain F. J. Clark, manager of the Western Agricultural and Arts Association and also of Western Manitoba's Big Fair. He was born in Nottingham, England, in December, 1861 and came to Manitoba, Canada, in the month of March, 1882. Here he started as a farmer and it has proven a most successful venture. He still owns about six acres of excellent land. In 1897 he assumed the management of Western Manitoba's big fair and can now proudly look back and survey a field of unbroken success and well directed fairs.

and friends in the Old Guard had decided that the Fair was to be. The ladies have already provided a working fund of nearly a thousand dollars for the development of their plans by organizing euchre parties, musicales and other affairs which proved socially and artistically successful.

A grand Military Lawn Fete on Riverside Drive is planned for later in September upon the most beautiful grounds for this purpose in town, and one of the leading Broadway Theatres has promised a monster benefit in September in aid of the Armory Building Fund.

FAIR NOTES

The annual St. Louis Fair will be held October 5-11, inclusive.

The Macou (via.) Fair Association has secured Sigmund Lucians, commander of the Ninth Regiment Band of New York City for ten days at the Georgia State Fair.

An ordinance was recently passed at Noblesville, Ind., permitting C. M. Rajohn and Walter Brown to hold a fair and live stock show in that city, August 10-15.

Albany County and International Fair Association was recently incorporated at Cheyenne, Wyo., with a capital stock of $15,000. They propose to hold an annual fair at Laramie, Wyo.

The directors of the Northeast Georgia Fair Association met at Athens, Ga., June 2nd and completed the organization of the association. The date was fixed for Oct. 5 to 10. The track, which is to be one of the best in the south is nearly completed and work on the buildings will commence at once. Mr. B. F. Holder, Jr., Athens, Ga., is acting secretary.

The Western Manitoba Big Fair will be held at Brandon, Manitoba, July 28, 29, 30 and 31. Captain F. J. Clark is manager. Large additions have been made to the building. The list of attractions has not yet been completed. Improvements have been made on the grounds and a large number of trees and shrubs have been planted. Many new walks and roads have been laid out.

Street Fairs & Carnivals

STREET FAIR NOTES

J. S. Berger is on top again.

Tiffin, Ohio, will hold a Carnival week of July 29.

There will be no street fair at Rusville, Ind. this season.

And now it is Golden Rule Berger. Mayor Jones had better look to his laurels.

The daily papers of Owatonna, Minn., lauded Rice's Carnival Company to the skies.

The Robinson Amusement Company has secured Coldwater, Mich., for August 24-29.

The marvelous Gilmour Family of aerialists have joined Fernal Bros.' Carnival Company.

Dr. Horace Grant promoted New Lisbon, O., for the Robinson and Seaman Amusement Co.

Salem, Mass., will hold a street fair in connection with its Fourth of July celebration June 29-July 4.

A hon of the Hall Carnival Company escaped at Rockport, Ind., and killed a mule. Nobody was injured.

C. Braden has severed his connection with the Cosmopolitan Carnival Company and can be addressed at Cairo, Ill.

Clinton, Ia., will have a carnival June 29-July 4. The attractions will be furnished by the Gaskill-Sturdy company.

Katy Gray of the American Girl show will with the Hall Carnival Company, was recently left $18,000 by her brother who died.

Berger lauded Toledo, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding, and he deserves a great deal of credit for winning the fight.

Since J. S. Berger, the well-known promoter has been breathing the atmosphere of Toledo, he has acquired a new sobriquet. They now call him Golden Rule Berger.

The Gaskill-Mundy-Levitt Carnival Company will furnish the attractions for street fair and carnival to be held at Johnstown, Pa., in July.

The Gaskill-Mundy-Levitt Carnival Company heard rumors of Showman's Dread at Cumberland, Md., and canceled their dates for that city forthwith.

E. E. Freitag, president of the Iroquois Club of Decatur, Ill., says that the street fair there is a sure go, although no arrangements have as yet been made.

Phoebe, the feature of the Alpine theatre with Wright's Carnival Company is reported to be dangerously ill and an operation will probably be necessary.

The corner stone of the new Mason's Home at Sullivan, Ill., will be laid June 24. All the names of Decatur, Ill., besides the Knights Templars, will go to Sullivan.

The Gaskill-Mundy-Levitt Carnival Company have canceled their date at Cumberland, Md. The carnival may be held in September. The original date was June 29-July 4.

The Gaskill-Mundy-Levitt Carnival Company will furnish the attractions for the street fair to be held at Erie, Pa., August 2-8, under the auspices of the Erie Labor Temple corporation.

The last day of the Gaskill-Sturdy Company at Springfield, was devoted to securing aid for the relief fund of the Kansas flood sufferers. The main entrance receipts for the entire day were $1,000.00. That same flood now looms thru at East St. Louis.

The Hall Carnival Company had a week of rain at their opening stand at Cameron, Ind., and four days of wet weather the next week in Rockport, Ind. One of the members of the company writes:—Everybody has as nice a pair of us growing as any sucker that ever swam the dark blue sea.

Townsmen, like poets, are born. You cannot make them. The peculiar gifts, abilities and traits of character together with the creative faculty necessary must be inherent. This is strikingly exemplified in the case of J. S. Berger. His record this year is brilliant indeed. It is certain it has ever been equaled, let alone excelled.

The "Herald-Transcript" of Peoria, Ill., published a large gaudy column cut of Dan. S. Finkel with the following caption:—The gentleman who culminating head of the publicity department of the carnival and advance agent for Fernal Bros.' Great London Carnival Company, a man who has made thousands of friends during his stay in Peoria, and who has made scores every journey to the patrons of the Midway.

The Gaskill-Mundy company failed to show in East St. Louis last week on account of the flood. All the mate members of the shows were pressed into service in an attempt to save the levee. They worked all day under the direction of Charles Franklin, boss carpenter. However, it was "toes labor lost" as the levee gave way under the strain Tuesday night, June 9. The entire apparatus is now flooded and the company is at a standstill, being unable to get out of the town.

Of all the promoters now in the field, and there are a lot of good ones, it is a safe bet to say that J. S. Berger has done the most wonderful work. At the beginning of this season he had literally nothing to start on. His sole capital consisted of a breach-of-promise suit, an empty purse and an engaging manner, nothing counted however he went to work and won out. The story of his success is written in the following string of towns, viz.: Pittsburg, Wheeling, Cleveland, Toledo and Grand Rapids.

Notes from Rice's Street Fair and Carnival Co.:—We opened at Owatonna, Minn., June 3, to good business and the weather was fine all week. Jim Sturgis' Electric Theatre was totally destroyed by fire, June 5. We carry the following attractions:—Crandall Military Band of eighteen pieces; Lunette, the flying lady; Electric Theatre, House up side down, Vaudeville Theatre, Snake show, Crocodile Boy, Tricycle, the fat boy; Merry-go-round, Glass Blowers and various shows and the following free attractions:—Hayes, Parks and Van Hook, return act; Sig Frisco, revolving ladder, Cabot Shepard, trick bicyclist, Burnett and Nelson, aerial artists, Frankie, courtjester; Slide for Life and Denby, fire dancer. Sturgis will have a new Electric theatre to replace the one lost by fire.

The item in our issue of June 6 stating that the United Labor Carnival at Toledo, Ohio, had been abandoned is erroneous. It will be held in Toledo, July 6-11, under the auspices of the outgoing Trades Council. Eighteen thousand posters have been put up in and around Toledo. The Morris & Berger United Carnival Company will furnish the attractions. They have forty-one paid shows and eight free attractions headed by the Bickett Family, the Granadas, Farves' Loring Elks and Marvets Starsh. Following are a few of the people with the show: Capt. Soroto, Jack Shields, Cora Beckwith and Sigfried. Among the attractions are: Temple of Fame, Swanson's Electric Theatre, Millie Christie, Streets of Cairo, The Arctee Twins, Trixy, the talking horse, City of Jerusalem, American Theatre, Roman Stallion, Congress of Dancers, Leona Village, Grand Wild Animal Show, Glass Pavilion, House of Illusions, Smallest Horse on Earth, Cligot, dancing doll, Ferris Wheel, Miniature Railway, Ghost Show, Merry-go-round, Sampson, the big snake. The company opened in Pittsburg, May 30, to big business.

There's pleasure in the summer woods, and by the rippling stream,
There's pleasure in a moonless night, when stars are all a gleam,
There's pleasure on the ocean beach when billows thunder loud,
But the pleasure of all pleasures, is the pleasure of a crowd.

PARKS

PLEASURE RESORTS & SUMMER GARDENS

PONCE DE LEON'S OPENING.

Ponce de Leon Park, the new amusement resort at Atlanta, Georgia, opened the season June 1 with an immense crush in attendance. W. T. Hallowell is director of the park and and as the first strains floated through the grounds the many attractions were thrown open to the public. The Atlanta newspapers describe the place as a veritable land of nymphs and fairies. The theatre is a beauty and the ventilation is perfect. The stage is large and has every appliance used in a first class opera house. Everything on the inside is painted white while the chairs are all dark. Jake Wells has leased the Casino and opened it with the Giffen Musical Comedy Company in The Lady Slave. The capacity of the house was tested and the management was satisfied at the interest manifested. The bill will be changed every week and after each performance the park band will give concerts. The band stand is in the central and most beautiful part of the grounds and the two concerts daily draw large crowds. A large pavilion in front of the band stand has been set aside for picnic parties. Among the best patronized amusements are, Show the Chutes, Miniature Railway, Cosmorama, Aerial Swings, Long Track and Crystal Maze. The Midway, with its cue racks, shooting gallery, etc., did big business. There is also a three-way, figure eight toboggan and a cave of the winds. A new Club House has been erected near the spring which, tradition says, is the place where Ponce de Leon gave up his hunt for the Fountain of Youth. No admission fee is charged to the grounds. James G. Rossman is president of the amusement company which controls the resort. The largest holders of concessions are, Jake Wells, and the Wells, Dunn, Harlan Company, are personally represented by Hugh Carozza.

PARK NOTES.

Beaumont, Tex. is to have a new summer theatre shortly.

A band stand is being erected on the base ball diamond of Columbia Gardens at Batte, Mont.

The Welner Brewing Company will build an amusement park at Dayton, O., for next season.

J. T. Doyle writes laconically from Manhattan Beach, N. Y.: "All going out and nothing coming in."

Wheeling Park at Wheeling, W. Va., under the management of Conrad Hirsch is doing big business.

Owing to the continued rain Fudge & Stafford's vaudeville under canvas has not yet opened at Decatur, Ill.

The new summer theatre in Calhoun Park at Chattanooga, Tenn., is almost completed. It has a seating capacity of 500.

Matt Kneiss who controls a circuit of parks in Illinois reports good business all along the line notwithstanding the rainy weather.

Felix's Grove at Portsmouth, O., will book no attractions nor sell any privileges this season. It will only occasionally be let for picnics.

The City Park and Recreation Company will put on a Street Fair and Carnival at Pryor Creek, Ind. Ter., the last week in September or the first week in October.

Frank's Opera House, Washington Park, Berkeley, Cal., has been greatly increased in capacity since last season. The house will now seat 2200 and is playing to excellent business.

Col. Wm. Thompson, manager of the Empire Theatre at Denver, Col., has leased Union Park in that city. The park will be opened June 21, and a first class vaudeville bill has been booked.

Lake Springs Park at Nevada, Mo., opened June 4, to big attendance. Messrs. Stettin and Hunt have charge of the stock company which played to over 2,000 people on the opening date.

Willard & Willard have closed with the Great American Water Circuit and are now playing parks. During the past week several appeared in St. Louis, earning many favorable press notices.

Under the direction of A. S. Graves and F. H. Robie a big fair, circus and carnival will be held at Combitation Park, Medford, Mass., week beginning Sept. 1. The fare from Boston to the park will be 5 cents.

Harry Fleke, assistant contracting agent Palus Pyrotechnic company was recently in Wheeling, W. Va., making arrangements for Pains spectacle, Last Days of Pompeii, which will be shown on the state fair grounds at Wheeling in October.

Riverside Park at Saginaw, Mich., opened the season June 1 with good attendance. Manager John E. McCarthy engaged a good bill for the Casino. The park has been greatly enlarged and the grounds have been beautified. A new roller coaster has been built.

Walter Hazelton, a balloonist, made an ascension from Olympia Park, McKeesport, Pa., June 8, at which his balloon was blown several miles away. He landed in a tree top and fearing to attempt descent in the darkness, remained there all night, yelling for help.

The Corwin H. Spencer, an excursion steamer of St. Louis, Mo., is equipped with a stage and all apparatus for presenting a big production. In addition to the regular attractions the manager puts on a big vaudeville show every week. George Gore manages the theatre and privileges.

A clever Frenchman, struck by the excitement the loop-the-loop is causing in Paris, has dug up an old illustration published in "L'Illustration" in 1867 which shows that practically the same thing was done at the Paris Hippodrome as long ago as that period. This will at least set at rest many claims of modern builders that they were the inventors of the idea.

Phalen Park, belonging to St. Paul, Minn., will be turned into an amusement resort by the park commissioners. A public bath-house will be built where bathing suits will be supplied for twenty-five cents. A sheet the chutes, roller coaster, miniature railway and a well equipped restaurant will be installed. Privileges will be leased and the lessee has the option of retaining the lease until 1904, if he so wishes.

Jos. Menchen, manufacturer and jobber of electrical appliances and supplies, 1237 Broadway, N. Y., has just produced some new moving clouds for Messrs. Swift and McNeill's Johnstown Flood at Coney Island. He has also completed an Aurora Bonoballs Machine for Twenty Thousand Leagues under the Sea at Luna Park, Coney Island. He will soon finish a new Johnstown Flood for E. C. Boyce at Revere Beach, Boston, Mass.

The Family Theatre, Iron Pier, Syracuse, N. Y., opened to the largest business in the history of the resort. The following people are booked for June 15 and week: Lassard Bros., Doyle & Granger, Morgan & Phillips, The Randolphs, Helen Tucker and Empire Comedy Four, Jos. Pundis is manager of the theatre and S. J. Boscoe is stage manager. Manager Dunfee is now engaged in filling his open time for the balance of the season.

The Rod Stock Company opened the season at Terrapin Park Casino, Parkersburg, W. Va., June 8, in Pink Dominoes for three nights, followed by Arabian Nights. The Casino has been remodeled and thoroughly renovated. Among the members of the company are Alfred Cervova, Frank Kendrick and wife, Helen Ware, Ethel Hland, Lola Hawthorne and George Irving, Frank Reicher, who was stage manager for Julia Marlowe, will stage the plays.

John W. Gorman has secured a lease on Wayside Park, located between South Framlingham and Saxtonville, Mass. The work of demolishing the old theatre has already commenced and it will be replaced by a modern summer theatre. The stage will be 30 x 40 feet, with dressing rooms and plenty of scenery. The house will have a seating capacity of 1,500 people. The same attractions which play Mercury in the Park at Brunswick, Me., will appear at Wayside Park. R. L. Gorman will manage the resort.

Lakeout Park Stock company opened the season June 8 at Lakemont Park, Altoona, Pa. The company is composed of members of the King Dramatic Companies number one and two and is under the management of William Denton. They opened in The Man of Mystery and after three days produced Jim, The Penman. The bill will be changed twice a week, reviving all the standard plays. The Park theatre is a most substantial structure, seating nearly 1,500 people. It is equipped with plenty of good scenery.

The new St. Nicholas Summer Garden, formerly known as the St. Nicholas Skating Rink, 565-567th street and Columbus avenue, opened June 1, with Lole Fuller. The Garden has undergone some remodeling and is handsomely decorated with Japanese lanterns, bunting, palms, etc., and the cooling plant which is installed thereon will adjust the temperature to suit the weather. Among others in the bill are: James Thornton, Edmund Hayes and company, Alice Shaw and twin daughters, Tom Lewis and Sam J. Ryan, Maud Huth, Four Emperors of Music, Jones, Grant and Jones, the Four Le Lucas, Gotham City Quartet and others.

Krug Park at Omaha, Neb., inaugurated its third season, May 11, under the management of W. W. Cole. Many new attractions have been added. Albin Huster's orchestra has been engaged for the season. The Geissler-Hirschlehn troupe of Alpine Yodlers rendered Tyrolean instrumental and vocal selections. A panoramic reproduction of Munkacsy's famous paintings drawn from the inspiration of the book of Revelations is an object of interest. The panorama comprises fifty-two large paintings on 13,000 square feet of canvas. The varied amusements in the form of the toboggan, zig zag alley, the cave of the winds and the laughing gallery did big business.

Olympia Park, Chattanooga, Tenn., has been playing high class vaudeville since May 11, and Manager James A. Lakin writes that the same policy will be continued throughout the season. Seven acts are put on each week, 2 single and five double. The theatre is up-to-date and seats 800 people. The amusements include Merry-go-round, shooting galleries, pool and billiards, haunted mine, bowling alley, etc. The park has a well kept half mile track on which races are held every week. Attendance has been big as a rule since the opening, notwithstanding the rainy weather. Mr. Dakin, the manager, would like to hear from vaudeville people and outside acts at all times.

During the past two weeks at Luna Park, Coney Island, N. Y., the attendance has been phenomenally large. Among the acts this week are Mme. Cleodora, who makes her American debut. Cleodora is credited with receiving $1,000 per week for her perilous slide along a wire cable suspended alone by the braids of her hair, beginning at an altitude of 315 feet, sliding a distance of 800 feet into the water. The feat of the Electric Tower. This act was never seen in America before and was given simultaneously with the "slide for life" of Camoroni, who, grasping a leather strap by his teeth, goes from the top of the electric tower to the Filipino village. The cycle walk is another new act, while among the other features are Ernest Mcville, Jostie Ashton, equestrian acts; Irwin, trapeze head balancer; Howard, single hand equilibrist; Gilbert and his goats; Stanton, the giant rooster; La Zelle, comedy wire act; the two Pecos, comedy clowns; Sie Haszen Ben All's troupe of Hindoos, and the Royal Japanese Troupe.

LANCASTER, PA.—Woolworth Roof Garden, (Capt. John B. Peoples, Mgr.) The bill presented June 8-13 was an exceptionally strong one, and attracted large business during the week. Haines and Vago were declared and scored heavily. Bumann and Nichols (old favorites) were very warmly received, as were also the Three Livingstons in their extraordinary acrobatic feats. Mead and Bennett, quietists; Harry R. Lester, Monogogue; Tommy Hayes, bone specialist and Jones and Sutton were also on the bill.

Rocky Spring Park, (H. B. Grinths, Mgr.) The Amused Oper Company presented the Chinese of Normandy of June 8-13. The company is a very capable one, and presented the opera in an excellent manner to fair business. Unfavorable weather has interfered with the attendance at the park.

Fulton Opera House, (Yecker and Gleim, Mgrs.) Richard Mansfield in Julius Caesar supported by very strong company drew a large audience 4th.

PADUCAH, KY.—Wallace Park-Casino Theatre (Jas. E. English, Mgr.) The Boston Ideal Company opened their second week night of May 31 with Chimes of Normandy, June 1, 2 and 3, Said Pasha, to fair business but rain kept many away. Pinafore opened 4 for a four night's run to big business. The company will present Mascott, 8, 9 and 10. The company shows considerable improvement over their first week.

CLINTON, IA.—The Great Wallace Shows had immense business, and gave a highly pleasing performance. Ringling Brothers Circus comes July 6. Great preparations are being made for the Mid-Summer Carnival to be given here week of July 29. The Carnival will be held on the beautiful River Front Park facing the Mississippi river. An ideal place for a carnival. The railroad have made reduced rates and an immense attendance is looked for. W. L. Busby, of the Busby Billposting Co., is secretary and manager. The Gaskill-Saunders Carnival Co. will furnish all attractions.

CHESTER, ILL.—The Tennessee Street Fair and Carnival Company is here this week with 8 shows and a merry-go-round. The best shows carried by the aggregation are the Temple of Art and the Electric Theatre, under the management of Rogers, Clifford and Gardner. They have a 50x24 foot top with two deors, Juliet balcony front. The people with the company are all ladies and gentlemen. The Old Plantation show is fair. The School of Physical Culture is good. C. L. STALEY.

MONTICELLO, IND.—Monticello Opera House (T. D. Johnson, Mgr.) House closed for balance of season. Among the bookings for next season which opens August 29, are—Lynn Twins, in At The Races, August 29; G. H. Local talent in Gilman pictures at Monumental Theatre on May 29. This closes both Academy and Monumental Theatres until Sept. 1. Mr. E. H. Baker will manage the Academy of Music and Roger Flint the Monumental Theatre next season. Both houses will be greatly improved. MILES GOODWIN.

OKLAHOMA CITY, O. T.—Delmar Garden (Oscar N. Mgr.) Located at Colcord Park, despite the unfavorable weather, continues to attract good audiences at every performance. Continuing over from last week are Raymond & Vack, Baby Lund, Cooke & Clinton, John West, La Fleur, A. Ferguson, of the well-known Harmony Four, singing illustrated songs, and the Rhodrome, with next September, are this week's additional features. W. D. BAKER.

CANANDAIGUA, N. Y.—Davidson Opera House (Harry Foran, Mgr.) May 28, Sisson's Barn Stormer, a local organization, composed of boys between 12 and 15, gave a very pre-actable musical performance for the benefit of Manager Foran. Hargreaves' Big R. R. Shows is billed for June 8.

DALLAS, TEX.—Cyclo Park Theatre (C. R. McAdams, Mgr.) Noble Dramatic Co. is still building the boards for the third week and are pleasing large audiences. The plays produced by the company so far, have been very good and so were the specialties, which were rendered by the 3 Moores and Mr. Frick.

AUGUSTA, GA.—Grand Opera House, (Schweizer and Lawrence, Mgrs.) Season closed. House will be thoroughly renovated before opening season next September. Monte Sano Pavilion, (Gaze Wells, Mgr.) Week of June 8 to 13, Robinson Comic Opera Company, 35 people, attendance fair, weather poor.

BENTON, ILLS.—The Military Band of this city are arranging to give a Fourth of July celebration and Street Carnival, one of the best in Southern Illinois. Have engaged a nice line of free attractions and will feature the 3 Kellogg Brothers in their Cycle Wind, Slack Wire and Barrel Jumping.

BRADFORD, PA.—Gentry's Dog and Pony Show played to two large crowds here on the 3d. It is a great deal better than the average dog show. Hargreaves' Big R. R. Show had an enormous business on June 1. They gave an excellent performance. JAKE BAKER.

BILPOSTERS DISTRIBUTORS & COMMERCIAL ADVERTISERS

IOWA STATE MEETING

E. M. Fritz, of Oskaloosa, Disfranchised. Fred Harden Exhonorated From Charges Preferred by O. J. Gude Company.

The sixth annual meeting of the Iowa State Billposters and Distributors' Association was held in the parlors of the Klubb House, Davenport, Iowa, May 28, 1903. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The first matter taken up was that of the complaints filed against James Coffey of Dubuque, Ia., and after the matter had been gone over, it was moved that a committee be appointed to investigate and make full report on the condition of the plant and report on same at the next National meeting which takes place at Atlantic City.

The committee appointed was Will Haas of Sabula and W. L. Busby of Marshalltown. The next matter taken up was that of the case of E. M. Fritz of Oskaloosa. It was proved that aside from running his business and plant in a careless manner, he had deserted the town.

On motion of W. L. Busby, the town was declared open and E. M. Fritz was disfranchised. The next case was that of the O. J. Gude Company of New York against Fred. Harden of Monticello, wherein the O. J. Gude Company claimed that Mr. Harden had misappropriated money sent him by the Gude Company. Mr. Harden explained that the check came to him addressed to the Monticello Billposting Company, and at that time the O. J. Gude Company owed him about this amount for posting "Force" paper and that he naturally thought the money sent him was intended for the payment of this posting. A motion was made and carried that he be exonerated from all blame. The case of E. C. Graves vs. the City of Malvern for exorbitant house was the next matter brought up.

This case was placed in the hands of an attorney by President C. W. Nichols. The City of Malvern had raised the license to $5 a day, which was appealed to the higher courts and decided in favor of Mr. Graves.

This was thoroughly explained by Mr. Nichols to those present and a vote of thanks was tendered the president for the successful manner in which he had conducted this case. The attorney bill and expenses for this case were allowed. The next matter which was taken up was that of the election of new members.

New members elected were: W. S. Heller, Avoca; E. O. Ellsworth, Iowa Falls; Iowa Post-Service, Keokuk; J. F. Jersey, Oskaloosa; Willard Secor, Forest City; Iowa Post-Service, Clinton; Wm. O. Conner, Columbus Junction; Ben Lupper, Spencer; Chas. E. Klug, Independence; L. P. VanWerde, Leau.

W. M. Busby having disposed of his plant at Clinton to the Iowa Post-Service, moved that the franchise be turned over to them on payment of fees and dues.

The next in order was the election of officers. Mr. Frank Chamberlain of Billings, Wis., spoke on the old days of paper being sent out by the Billposting Service of Omaha, Neb. He explained about the eight-sheets and the nine-sheets running the wrong way on the boards. Mr. Robert Campbell of the American Post-Service of Chicago also spoke on the matter and said that it had been brought up in other associations as well. On motion it was agreed that the Iowa Association refuse the posting of any paper which does not run regular size from eight-sheets up. The motion was carried.

The President then called upon Mr. Krackowitzer, manager of the Department of Promotion of the Milwaukee Sentinel, Milwaukee, Wis., who addressed the Association in an able manner and congratulated them on their success.

Next in order was the payment of bills and the following were allowed: Expense from Oct. to May 28, 1903: Treasurer's Expense $43.90 C. W. Nichols $19.00

There being no further business the meeting adjourned to convene at Marshalltown, Tuesday, May 25, 1904.

NEW JERSEY CONVENTION.

Routine Business Transacted, Officers Elected and New Members Admitted.

The annual meeting of the New Jersey Billposters and Distributors' Association was held at the offices of President O'Mealla, 104 Greene street, Jersey City, June 1. The meeting was called to order at 3 o'clock by the president and the roll-call showed the following cities represented: Jersey City, Weehawken, Guttenberg, West New York, Bayonne, Asbury Park, Ocean Grove, Bradley Beach, Belmar, Avon, by J. F. O'Mealla; Hoboken, West Hoboken and Union Hill by Harry O'Mealla; Hackensack, Lodi, Little Ferry, Englewood, Carlstadt, Bogota, Et. Lee, Secaucus and Tyler Park by Charles O'Mealla; Paterson, Passaic, Garfield, Rutherford, Ridgeway, Butler and Porton by H. E. Ayera, treasurer; Long Branch, Red Bank, Sea Bright, Elberon, by Charles Rosenberns, secretary.

The officers reports showed the Association to be in excellent condition with all dues paid up to July, 1903.

The following applications were acted upon, the applicants being elected to membership in the Association: Lakewood, Freehold, Keyport and Matawan, Mammoth Billposting Company, J. F. O'Mealla and Charles Rosenberns; Smith Rue, B. W. Snyder; New Brunswick Billposting Company; Point Pleasant and Manasquan, Asbury Park Billposting Company.

The secretary read the communications of inquirers after which came the election of officers, all of whom were re-elected as follows: President, J. F. O'Mealla, Jersey City; Vice-President, E. M. Slocumb, Newark; Secretary, Charles Rosenberns, Long Branch; Treasurer, H. E. Ayers, Paterson.

E. M. Slocumb, H. E. Ayers were elected to represent the Association at the National Convention at Atlantic City, July 11-17.

COUNTERFEITERS IN JERSEY. Charles Rosenberns sends us a copy of a letter which is being sent out to advertisers by the Jersey Coast Advertising and Distributing Company. Of this company, Mr. Rosenberns says: "This concern is what we call 'counter-felters' in the billposters' parlance. They do not own a single board. They have no rating whatsoever. And still they try to lead advertisers to believe that they are 'the' people. Advertisers should be warned through The Billboard to steer clear of this kind of sharks."

Following is a copy of the letter referred to: "Beware! Beware! Beware! The Jersey Coast Adv. Dist. Co., Licensed Billposters & Distributors & Tin & Card Tacklers, our country wagons cover a Jersey Coast Towns & Summer Resorts.

Main Office, Long Branch, N. J. H. J. Trebig, Gen. Mgr. L. H. Cawell, Supt. Dear Sir:—We beg to call your attention that this summer season will be the greatest the Jersey Seaside Resorts have ever had. The hundreds of hotels and boarding houses have made preparations for twice the amount of guests of any other season.

We are the licensed Billposters, Sign Tacklers and Distributors of Long Branch, Asbury Park, and surrounding towns. We will cover Ocean Grove, Red Bank, Atlantic Highlands, Sea Bright, West End, Allenhurst, Elberon, and surrounding villages.

Our distributing system is complete. We cover all the boarding houses, cottages, hotels, etc., by trustworthy men. We can make a great showing with your signs along the tracks of the railroad-companies, and also along the trolley lines.

If you are contemplating anything in our line through the Jersey Seaside Resorts, we will be pleased to have our representative call upon you. Hoping to hear from you we are, Yours very truly, Jersey Coast Advertising Co., H. J. Trebig, Gen. Mgr.

DAUBS.

Ho! for Atlantic City. Go early if you want to be on hand when the state is made up.

Get your scythe and cut those weeds away from the front of your boards.

Harry B. Bussing writes from Norwalk, Conn., that he has his boards filled with commercial and Harum & Halley paper.

Thos. M. Young reports having paluted ten 2x4 signs, posted 200 sheets and distributed 3000 books in Stamford, S. C., the past ten days.

Mr. Stanley is featuring My Little Belle of Japan in The Goddess at the Grand Opera House, New York City, with a chorus of forty people.

The National Convention of the Associated Billposters will take place at Atlantic City, N. J., July 14-17. A big attendance is assured.

Col. Futterer reports good business at Hagerstown, Md. He says that May was a record-breaking month and that at the present writing his boards are all covered.

Joe, M. Bird of Local No. 3, of the Bill Posters & Billers' Union, Pittsburg, Pa., has been specially engaged to take charge of the paper on car No. 1, Pawnee Hill's Wild West.

C. A. Barnols of Butte, Mont., recently advertised in this city by crossing ten men as sunny Jim to parade the streets of Butte. He has 8,000 running feet of boards in Butte and all the space is covered.

F. W. Wood has purchased the plant at Guthrie, Okla., from Bentley and Faulkner. Henry Charvat, the city billposter at Cincinnati, Ohio, has posted the following paper: Cream Cakes, Jas. G. White Cakes, Bag Pipe Smoking Tobacco, Knox Soap and Looney Hat.

The Lagoon at Ludlow, Ky., has one of the prettiest 16-sheet posters ever displayed on the billboards in Cincinnati. They will bill all territory within a radius of 125 miles of Cincinnati. Billposters within this territory should write them.

R. E. Fisher, proprietor of the plant at Fairmont, W. Va., is sick in the Wheeling Hospital. Escott Fleming is managing the bill posting plant for him, and has all the work he can do. They are building 6 new 50 foot boards of tongue and groove lumber. Have on their boards 12 sheets for Bag Pipe Tobacco through the American Tobacco Co.; 12 sheets for Tom Kean's cigars through D. J. Gude, 100 sheets for Coca Cola.

M. W. Lowry of Local No. 11, of Local No. 2, and E. Dockstader, of Local No. 11, visited with the members of Local No. 13, Pittsburg, Pa., June 7. An open meeting was held after which refreshments were served.

The convention will be held in the Auditorium of the Hotel Randolph, which has been kindly tendered by the managers of that well known tavern. They also extend the following special rates, viz.: American plan, one person in room, $5 per day, two in room, $7.50 per day; two in room, $10 each per day.

On June 5, the N. A. B. V. & B. of A. of Local No. 13, of Omaha and Council Bluffs, Neb., initiated the following six members of the advertising crew on car No. 1, Great Wallace Shows: Andrew Du France, Harry Graham, Jas. G. Barlow, Harry E. Johnston, Chas. E. Matthews, Chas. McDonald. Al Osborn, manager of the car was made an honorary member. This makes the car of 26 men thoroughly union.

A bill poster in advance of the Nickel Plate Show recently "disfranchised" the paper given him for a country route and spent the day at a road house with convivial companions, instead of slinking paste. He was apprehended, tried, convicted and sent to prison for three months on condition of destruction of property. Charleying himself is a crime, and the man who stoops to it is a criminal.

R. E. Fisher, proprietor of the plant at Fairmont, W. Va., is sick in the Wheeling Hospital. Escott Fleming is managing the billposting plant for him and has all the work he can do. They are building six new 50 foot boards of tongue and groove lumber. Have on their boards the 12 sheets for Bag Pipe Tobacco through the American Tobacco Co.; 12 sheets for Tom Kean's cigars through D. J. Gude, 100 sheets for Coca Cola.

M. M. Irwin writes as follows from Natchez, Miss. I have just completed my billposting plant and have twenty-nine brand new billboards all tongue and groove, covering a radius of three square miles in the best locations in the city. Excellent business is my share in spite of the fact that my plant is only three months old. I have posted, Tremo Cigars, Premio Cigars, Lisco Cigars, Bull Durham Tobacco, Scotch Oats and Old North State Tobacco, 1970 sheets in all. I have applied for membership in the association.

T. D. Johnson, billposter at Monticello, Ind., writes that his business is booming and that his boards are full nearly to the last sheet. He has some C. M. D. but the tendency seems to be in favor of guaranteed service. He has rebuilt a number of his boards recently and now they are all in A1 condition, and has posted in the last four months 1,200 sheets of commercial paper besides the opera and local business. He makes his own paste adding two gallons of molasses to a barrel of paste, which he says gives the best results.

Mr. J. E. Williams, with the John McVoy Co., formerly the billposter at Rockford, Ill., and who was also connected with the American

W. S. Bliss, Oakland, Cal., is distributing for the following firms:—Allis Medical Co., 88-88, S. Co., Rosalco Med. Co., Shorerated Co., Dr. W. S. Burkhardt, Peruna Drug Co., Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co., G. A. Boat & Co., Collins Brothers, besides considerable local work. He covers San Francisco, Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda.

The Rogers Advertising and Distributing Agency at Fond du Lac, Wis., are sending out the following circular letter to advertisers who patronize distributors:—"We are fully aware of the great difficulty advertisers have in securing distributors, who will give them an honest distribution. We know in order to secure and hold the patronage of the live advertiser we must first convince them of our reliability and competency. To do this we refer you to any bank in this city. We are rated in Dunn's and Bradstreet's Commercial Agencies. We realize the cost of producing advertising matter and use the utmost effort to bring the advertiser good results, well knowing if his returns are satisfactory he will continue to advertise through us. We are right in the midst of great prosperity, the Wisconsin Central R. R. having recently moved its division headquarters here and Chicago North Western to immediately establish its terminal headquarters here. We are the best advertised city in the state. Our new city directory estimates our city population at 29,000. Watch us grow. Population of county 47,589. We have the county seat and are in one of the richest farming and dairy counties in the state. I am now a member of the W. A. Molton Agency. I am ready to receive propositions and orders and guarantee the distributing to be done right. Why take chances on any distributor outside of these agencies? Both agencies will make good any failure of the distributor to carry out his part of the contract. Give us a trial order and be convinced that we conduct an honest and money making agency. Yours very truly, Rogers Advertising Agency, 583 & 585 Main St., Fond du Lac, Wisconsin.

COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING.

Rhodes Bros., Cincinnati, are contemplating entering the posting field with a 16 sheet poster.

The West Baden Springs Mineral Waters and Salt Company of West Baden, Ind., are advertising widely by posters.

Fleishman & Co., of Cincinnati, are placing large contracts for painting and posting throughout the different sections of the county.

The Neat-Richardson Drug Company of Louisville, Ky., are distributing extensively and contemplate going on the boards at a very early date.

E. F. Ronnie & Co., of Louisville, Ky., have just placed an order with Clarence E. Roney for 5,000 stands of paper to be posted in the

The above is a very good likeness of Mr. Paul Gallia, well known to show people and advertisers, having been in the theatrical and billposting business in Galveston, Texas, for the past twenty years. He says, "I have billed all sorts of shows, from Harum and Halley's Circus down to a snake eater, and furnished them advertising from a 32-sheet to a one-line local, and I am still here to boost them some more."

Mr. Gallia was born in Little Rock, Ark., where he received his schooling. He spent about nine years in St. Louis, Mo., and landed in Galveston, Texas, about July 1, 1880, and having been interested in the show business all his life he naturally turned his attention in that direction.

He leased (what was then called) an opera house over a store for one year, from Aug. 1 to Aug. 1, and up to Christmas Day did a fine business and had the satisfaction of having the owners of the property tell him that he was the only person that had made the house pay since it was built. Then a large wholesale druggist company wanted to locate in Galveston and there was not a building in the city large enough for them except the opera house property. The owners pleaded with Gallia to forfeit the remainder of the lease, which he did, with the promise of having a new house for him when the next season opened. He canceled his remaining dates for the season, but during the summer he looked plays for the coming season with no house to play them in, and the opening date was close at hand. He rented a vacant store room, 50 x 100 feet, and with his own hand and brush converted it into a playhouse (which everybody called a barn).

Mr. Gallia managed this house for 12 years, adding to it each year and building up quite a local show business. All these years he was planning for a new theatre, fine, up-to-date, high rigging, etc. Then the people got after him to invest his money in a new theatre, and so it was that Galveston got one of the best and finest ground floor opera houses in the state. There had been many plans and schemes by which to secure a new theatre but none of them materialized until the one proposed by Mr. Gallia developed.

Mr. Gallia says that he will give this plan or scheme that he worked to raise the money and company to build this house, from start to finish, to anyone suitably interested in getting a good opera house in their town, where the town needs it, if they will write for it, "without money and without price."

After having been a member of the A. B. P. & D. of the U. S. & C., and several other associations for a number of years and realizing the need of a State Association in Texas, Mr. Gallia spent his own time and money to attend the National Association Convention which met in Buffalo, N. Y., for the sole purpose of organizing a State Association of B. P. & D. and while there he met Mr. George Robinson of Dallas, and Mr. J. E. Howard of Galveston, and together they talked the matter over with Mr. Charles Bernard and several other officers of the National and arranged to organize the Texas State Billposters and Distributors' Association. Accordingly the billposters all over Texas were called to meet at Dallas on October 10, 1901. They responded promptly and organized, electing Mr. Gallia their president, which office he has retained.

He is also the founder and manager of the "Messenger," the best daily and weekly paper published in the city of Galveston.

Above we publish a portrait of Chas. Joseph, the energetic and popular President of the National Alliance of Billposters and Billers of America. Mr. Joseph was born in Cincinnati, O., June 15, 1875, and became a newsboy at an early age. Whatever education Mr. Joseph possesses he gained by studying at home and through experience as he never attended school. His first situation was at the Fountaine Theatre (now the Columbia) Cincinnati, under G. H. Hartford. In July 1896 he located in Pittsburg, where he now resides. In that city his sterling qualities were soon recognized and it was owing to the personal efforts of Mr. Joseph that the local lodge of the Billposters Union was organized in Pittsburg. This was the first establishment of the organization not only in Pittsburg but in the state of Pennsylvania. The local started with a membership of eight, which owing largely to the untiring activity of Mr. Joseph has increased to one hundred and twenty-five. The date of its first meeting was in June 1901. Mr. Joseph is a genial hearty man with a magnetic presence and his friends are legion. He is a prominent member of the K. of P., being Past Chancellor of Oakland Lodge No. 421 and lieutenant of Smoky City No. 54, of the Uniform rank of the order. He was chosen delegate to the last convention of the R. P. U. and at the meeting was elected president of the National Alliance. It is such members as Mr. Joseph that make successful organizations which like the R. P. U. are largely dependent upon the individual efforts of the workers in the ranks. The Billers' Union of Pittsburg is growing at a rapid rate and its possibilities are numerous. Mr. Joseph is the youngest National President of a labor organization in the United States.

middle West and Pacific Coast. H. J. Kramer, treasurer and general manager of the Sterling Remedy Company, Kramer, Ind., has offered G. Roney and Son, Waukegan, Ill., $15 cash for six shares of the Sterling Company's stock which they hold. A new proprietary medicine company has been organized by Jackson, Mich., capitalists to be known as the Watson Remedy Company. The company incorporates at $40,000 with 47 1/2 per cent of the capital stock paid in. S. M. Watson (Prof. Harnden) and H. E. Carter are to be general managers of the concern.

INKLINGS.

Up to the hour of going to press, there was no definite news regarding the proposed strike of the poster artists.

We have again been requested to compile the statistics of poster printing in the United States and we again announce that we will undertake to do so if the printers will furnish the information.

C. F. Foteberg and Co., is the name of a new aspirant for honors in the show printing field. They are located at 133-291 S. Clark St., Chicago, Ill. They will cater to both the theatrical and circus trade.

The Detroit Printing Co. is turning out some beautiful work. Some of their creations are simply exquisite. They are peculiarly happy in their choice of color schemes and also have more new and novel combinations of odd tints to their credit than any other house in the business.

LOUISVILLE, KY.—Jockey Club Park, (M. J. Wynn, Mgr.) June 7 to 13, John C. Webers, Band began the 2nd week's programme at this popular hot weather resort and has proven a good crowd drawer. Mr. Weber will play this week for the first time in any city the famous tour picture the Civil War, which is one of the biggest hits in his entire repertoire. June 14 to 28, Liberator's Band.

Fountain Ferry Park, (Tony Landerwich, Mgr.) June 7 to 13, The Hungarian Band of 12 pieces will furnish excellent music during the week with many other features. Next: June 24, Dramatic Company.

Boulevard Park, (Louisville Amusement Co., Mgrs.) June 7 to 13 Prof. Andy Siebert's 1st Regt. Band.

Riverside Park, (Inn Simons, Mgr.) June 7 to 13, The K. G. Barkout Carnival Co., closed a successful engagement last week. Starting today the Hungarian Band and Orchestra have been engaged for a week concert. Coming shortly, English Circus.

Woodland Grove (Billie Robinson, Mgr.) The Best Gun Club opens this popular place today with their picnic and the evening. Robinson's Vandeville Company will give a high class show with Prof. Jack Castle as a special attraction. Part of next week.

Music Hall, (Boyd Wilson, Mgr.) June 15, Selub & Simms Fight.

NOTES.

James L. Grace is in town.

The Kilian family late of the Barkout Carnival Co. will play Parks and fairs the summer season.

ORVILLE B. TAYLOR.

ALTOONA, PA.—Lakemont Park Stock Company opens their summer engagement at Lakemont Park Theatre, June 8. The company is under the management of Will Deshon, a brother of Frank Deshon, of comic opera fame. The opening bill will be the Man of Mystery, three days, and the following three days they will play Jhn, the Penman. The company is furnished by Natian Appell, of Harrisburg, Pa., who is owner of a circuit of six theatres and two dramatic companies, which have toured the principal towns and cities for the past six years under the name of King Dramatic Companies Nos. 1 and 2. The Lakemont Stock Company is composed of people from above named companies. They will change their bill twice a week during the summer, giving all good standard plays. The Park Theatre is a first-class structure and is fitted with good scenery and seats nearly 1,500 persons. June 8 begins their seventh successful season. The theatre is situated in Lakemont Park, which is the garden spot of the state.

NOTES.

Mr. Harry Baker, of Altoona, Pa., who is an inventor of most of his musical instruments used in his novelty musical act, left Altoona for Seattle, Wash. He has booked his act in California through Edwin R. Lang and Archie Levy solid until January, 1904.

BERWICK, PA.—P. O. S. of A. Opera House (E. R. Kitchen, Mgr.) House dark. Work on the new addition to the opera house was commenced, May 25, and will be rapidly pushed to completion. At the National Commandery General Meeting of the P. O. S. of A. held here recently, Manager Kitchen was elected Jr. Vice Commander. No dissenting vote.

Lowry Brothers Tent Show gave two performances here June 1, and turned people away at night. Show gave satisfaction. Bord Brothers Tent Show booked here for June 3, failed to appear.

Hatch-Adams Carnival Company have contracted with the local fire companies for a street fair here week of July 6. J. W. DETRICK.

JACKSON, TENN.—The Dayton Sisters Company, owing to the prevailing rains and cool nights, is playing at the Marlowe Theatre to phenomenal crowds. The S. R. O. sign was out every night. This company was engaged to play several weeks at Highland Park, where they will be seen after next week. Good business is assured. S. F. TAMM.

DISTRIBUTORS' NOTES.
T. D. Johnson has distributed about 10,000 pieces in Monticello, Ind., in the last few months.

Posting Service and R. J. Gunning is now selling galvanized sheet iron in car loads to billposters. There are 30,000 pounds in a car load and it comes to about $1200 a car. The sheets are each about 28x120 inches and are 28 gauge. Mr. Williams is meeting with great success and finds that the billposters are turning to galvanized iron in place of the old wooden boards. He thinks that it will only be a question of a few years when wooden boards will be done away with entirely, and all billboards will be built of sheet iron.

THIRD WEEK! TREMENDOUS SUCCESS!

The Great Bucklin-Darnaby Carnival Co.

Quincy—Macon—Bloomfield

Have Asked a Return Date.

Read what They Say at Macon:

Macon, Mo. May 29, 1905.
Messrs. Darnaby-Bucklin Carnival Co.
Gentlemen—We the undersigned merchants and citizens of Macon, take pleasure in congratulating you upon the success of your carnival attractions in our city, and cheerfully say to you that we do not hesitate to recommend your methods and attractions to any community anticipating a Street Carnival. Our city has passed the severest criticism upon Street Carnivals, and it was with considerable reluctance that our streets were given over to such an event. We now believe that out of the thousands of people who have been daily attending, you could scarcely find one who would not pronounce it a success, and universal praise is given to you in your persistence to keep off of our streets and away from your attractions all immoral slideshows, gamblers, and gambling devices which usually attempt to lull the cities and events congregating large masses of people. Your free attractions are excellent, and far superior to the average; your pay attractions are all more than worth the small admissions, and pleasing to the strongest critics, as to the worth and morality of the attractions. We can bespeak for you increased success with your organization if you succeed in keeping it as it now is, and believe, you will improve it. Respectfully signed: John J. Davis, Mayor; R. A. Guthrie, First National Bank; H. E. Logan, Manager Opera House; Philip Gause, Editor; J. J. Helfner, Editor; Councilmen and over seventy business men.

Everything New. Magnificent Wagon Fronts. Our Free Attractions Draw the Crowds and Please the People. The Florence Troupe (7), Baader and La Velle, Master Van Nor, Harry La Fay. Our pay attractions are excelled by none and get the money. Oskaloosa, Iowa, week June 15; Burlington, Iowa, Galesburg, Illinois, to follow. Useful people wanted at all times. Cities contemplating holding Carnivals write.
