GERMANY ON BRINK OF REVOLT

Outbreak Will Be Ruthlessly Spressed, Is Warning From Chancellor

BERLIN, Sept. 25.—The German government issued a proclamation this evening explaining to the people the necessity for abandoning passive resistance...

By S. D. WEYER For International News Service

BERLIN, Sept. 25.—Chancellor Stresemann today warned the German nation against an uprising in retaliation for the surrender to France.

"We will proceed ruthlessly against any attempts to resist," said the chancellor. "The existence and unity of the German state must be safeguarded at all costs. Now the ministers and myself have boarded a boat which is threatened with being engulfed by the waves, but so long as the boat remains afloat, the cabinet will do all in its power to steer a calm, orderly course."

News that the government has abandoned passive resistance in the Ruhr today intensified a situation which already was critical throughout Germany. It was reported that troops had been massed between Berlin and Bavaria to protect the capital from Bavarian fascists.

Russians Pay for Arms Two big caches of arms were found on the edge of Berlin. There is evidence that they were bought with funds supplied by Petroff, the military attache of the Russian embassy.

The arms included machine guns, rifles, mine throwers and mortars. Police admitted that the Russian embassy and the trade commission had close relations with the German communists, but they cannot be prosecuted owing to their diplomatic immunity.

Up to noon no disorders had been reported. Newspapers picture the tranquility as the "quiet before the storm."

Betrayal Is Charged Both communists and nationalists are accusing the Stresemann government of betraying the country into the hands of its enemies.

The government is busy working out measures to tide over the period of transition until passive resistance is completely ended. Funds will be sent to the Ruhr workers but not in large quantities. This will compel them to go to work for the French.

All the balloons are now accounted for. The English balloon Margaret fell into the North sea off the Danish coast, but the crew was picked up and landed at Gothenburg.

BULGAR CABINET QUILTS IN CRISIS

Troops Slowly Stamping Out Peasants' Revolution Dispatches Claim

PARIS, Sept. 25.—The Bulgarian cabinet has resigned as a result of agrarian revolution, said a Sofia dispatch to the foreign office today. The ministry was immediately reorganized by the old minister of justice, a national liberal.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—Due to the small number of troops at its disposal, the Bulgarian government is having difficulty in suppressing completely the peasant revolt, but is making headway, said a Central News dispatch from Sofia this afternoon.

Twenty thousand men were killed on both sides during an all day battle between Bulgarian revolutionaries and regular troops on Sunday, said a Belgrade dispatch to the Daily News today quoting the newspaper Politika.

The dispatch did not give the location of the fighting, but early dispatches indicated that it was near Sofia. According to foreign office dispatches, martial law is enabling the Bulgarian government to put down disorders throughout the country. They made no mention of casualties.

FORD LOSES ON SHOALS PURCHASE

Alabama Power Co. Secures Gorgas Plant Through Exercise of Option

By H. K. REYNOLDS For International News Service

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The south's dream of the development of a great industrial center at Muscle Shoals under the guidance of Henry Ford had apparently collapsed today.

The water power at Muscle Shoals will continue to be used for the manufacture of electricity, both by the government and by private corporations; and the nitrate plants will be made ready to function when needed, but it was the opinion of war department officials that Henry Ford had abandoned his ambitious plans for leasing the Alabama property and turning it into the greatest power project in the world.

Elimination of the Gorgas steam plant and transmission lines from the Muscle Shoals system through their sale to the Alabama Power company not only marks the first step in the dissolution of this war time industrial project, but it takes out of the government's hands one of the most complete units of the vast properties which Ford wanted to buy for $5,000,000.

Ask Ford's Bid When the government learned that the Alabama Power company proposed to foreclose its option on the Gorgas plant, Ford was advised of the situation and invited to submit a new bid for the Muscle Shoals property minus the Gorgas plant.

To enable Ford's engineers to revise the manufacturer's original offer, the power company agreed to an extension of its option, but no reply was received from Ford. There was nothing else then for Secretary of War Weeks to do but sell the plant and transmission lines in accordance with the option given at the time the plant was built. This was done with the understanding that Ford does not want the Muscle Shoals property without the Gorgas power plant.

Cost $125,000,000 The Muscle Shoals property cost the United States approximately $125,000,000 and the Ford offer to buy all of it for $5,000,000 was opposed in the last congress. There is no doubt that the Muscle Shoals fight will flame out again in the next congress, if the discussion does not advance any further than to give representatives of the south an opportunity to criticize the administration for not finding some way to turn the property over to Henry Ford.

London So Bloomin' Big, Kirk Reports, Natives Are 'Lost'

RECEIVING letters and copies of the Glendale Evening News from home was one of the pleasures of W. B. Kirk and family upon reaching London, England, according to a letter just received from Mr. Kirk. He also tells of visiting Oxford, the seat of English higher education.

W. B. KIRK

Mr. Kirk writes: "London, August 29.—Reaching here on Wednesday we had our first mail from home including copies of 'The News,' wherein we learn of the passing of John G. Huntley. How terribly sad that he should have to go. When we came away it seemed that he was out of danger but oh! the dark angel had marked him."

"We spent an afternoon and night in Oxford, that ancient and splendid seat of learning so much honored and venerated by all Britons. The university, of course, is the means and end of the community. Its buildings are not together but are scattered all over town, and all of similar material and age.

"Oxford" is supposed to have been founded by Alfred the Great in 841. Of the original buildings nothing remains. It has been remodeled and replaced England the present buildings date from the fifteenth century.

Following the advice of a friend who is familiar with London we came to the Kingsley hotel. It is on Hart street, near Oxford and Bloomsbury square in the Holborn section.

"It is close to the British museum and that is our guide post when we get out in this bloomin' town, which is so big that when you take a bus you are apt to land some place which is so far away that the natives there don't know any more about your street than they would about a street in Los Angeles. I have plenty of maps of the city, but I confess I don't know east from west, north from south.

Busses Have Upper Deck "I tell the porter where we want to go and he says take bus number so and so, or go to the corner, turn to the right, then to the left and take electric car 'the tube.' Double deck motor busses furnish the principal surface transportation. They make good time and run long distances.

"A conductor on one of them told me that his run takes three and a half hours from end to end, so that he makes less than one and a half round trips in his day of eight hours.

"As soon as possible after arrival I sought the office of the American Express company, where I secured my accumulated mail. I got a lot of it, not the least acceptable being 'The News,' which has been piling up here regularly. I am glancing through them when I have time at odd moments.

Tells 'Em About Glendale "There seems to be no cessation to the real estate and building activity in Glendale. It is marvelous. When I get into conversation with some of the natives over here they listen with wide-eyed wonder when I tell them of the growth of our cities. "In most of the towns we have been in in Britain, there is very little or no building at all. I see some building and improvement going on in London and noticed some fresh-looking new homes in the suburbs. But do you know, folks, the more I see and know of the staid, sturdy Briton in his own country the better I like him. "In my younger days, whether

BLAME WRECK ON SHORE OPERATOR

Wireless Bearing Said Ships Had Passed Arguello, Officer Claims

NORTH ISLAND, San Diego, Sept. 25.—In direct contradiction to testimony given by Point Arguello radio station operatives, Lieutenant Commander Donald T. Hunter, commander of the flagship Delphy, this morning declared on the stand before the board of inquiry that a wireless compass bearing report was received from the station at 8:35 p. m. on the evening of the disaster which caused the loss of 23 lives and seven destroyers, which showed the doomed squadron to be south of Arguello.

"I personally, with the two radio chiefs on board, received this southward bearing," testified Hunter. "It coincided with our dead reckoning and confirmed our belief that we were squarely in the mouth of the Santa Barbara channel. There has been a great deal of conflicting testimony regarding this bearing, which does not appear on the log of the Arguello station and which has been denied by the entire land station personnel."

Discovers Record "I wish, however, to state that three days after the wreck I saw a typewritten record of the distributed bearing in the office of Lieutenant-Commander Ashley, superintendent of communications at San Diego, and that Lieutenant-Commander Wild on the telephone was told of the record on the same day by Commander Ashley's office.

"Furthermore, the logs of the destroyers Kennedy, Stottert and Farragut show notations of the bearings, their radio operators having been listening in on that wave at the time."

Commander Hunter, who with his navigating officer, Lieutenant Blodgett, and the squadron commander, Captain Watson, plotted the course of the ill-fated squadron, told in detail the story of the cruise from San Francisco up to the time they crashed on the rocky shore near Point Arguello.

'SHOOT TO KILL' EDICT OF GOVERNOR AS BATTLE LOOMS AT STATE HOUSE

Throws Down Final Challenge In Fight On Klan Legislators Planning Impeachment Proceedings Tomorrow

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 25.—N. C. Jewett, grand dragon of the Ku Klux Klan, realm of Oklahoma, charged with rioting in connection with the alleged whipping of E. R. Merriman, a laundry driver, came before Judge Leo B. White in justice court for preliminary hearing today and his case was continued until October 9.

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN For International News Service

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Sept. 25.—With the "zero hour" approaching—in fact not twenty-four hours away—G. H. Q. of Oklahoma's "lawless legislators" in room No. 1101 of Skirvin hotel, was in a tumult of excitement today.

The assembled legislators were "rarin'" to go—the march on the capitol—apparently couldn't begin too soon to suit any of them.

Governor J. C. (Iron Jack) Walton's latest edict to the military they had read—shoot to kill, if necessary, it said—but don't let them meet.

Newspaper "extras" had emblazoned the news, "all classes called to colors. Citizen soldiers between 21 and 45 ordered held in readiness to stop legislature from meeting."

The "war correspondents" had received instructions to obtain special military passes to permit them to enter the "battle lines" at the capitol tomorrow. The regular military passes which had permitted them to stay out after midnight with Oklahoma City under martial law will not do.

"Iron Jack," as commander of the military forces of Oklahoma, had thrown down his final challenge to what he termed the "Ku Klux legislature."

Not in its history, even in the days of the red man and the "old wild west" was Oklahoma experiencing such a thrill. "Lawless legislators," who up to now had treated the situation with some levity, had suddenly become deadly serious.

"I will walk into the mouth of a cannon for a principle," said Representative W. Cunningham.

Commandant W. D. McBe, who issued the call for the call for the legislative assembly, said: "We will meet or go to jail."

While twenty-four hours ago the legislators had intended going to the capitol singly and in small groups, they now plan to go en masse. They will hold a caucus tonight and arrange definitely their course of action.

Rush for Capitol At about 11:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, according to the plan, as outlined by Representative McBe, the legislators will leave general headquarters in automobiles—four or five in each car. There probably will be about fifteen or twenty machines.

They will proceed direct to the capitol, a distance of about three miles. If they are allowed to meet, they will at once go ahead with their plan to impeach the governor.

"What if you are stopped, and arrested?" McBe was asked. "Governor Walton has announced he is prepared to put the legislators in a stockade and keep them there."

"That Won't Work "We'll demand our release on writs of habeas corpus," McBe replied. "It was pointed out to McBe that the governor had already set a precedent by suspending the right of habeas corpus. "We'll go through with this thing, anyway," McBe countered. "No one has ever accused me of going before the show was over. Tomorrow Oklahoma's legislature is going to write history. I would like to see the man among us who would back down—we'd draw a line through his name that would mark him indelibly in the history of our great state."

Councils of war were held by the legislators late into the night and early today. After each one it was announced they were "more determined than ever to assemble." As for the "shoot to kill" order, said Representative Boyer, one of the leaders, "we have men who have been on both ends of a gun."

Wild Rumors Fly Wild rumors spread through the city. One report to the effect that the military was about to raid the headquarters of the "rebel" legislators so the leaders could be taken into custody was denied by Colonel W. S. Key. (Continued on page 7)

SANTA ROSA, Sept. 25.—An all night search of the hills back of Rincon valley by a posse failed to reveal Orland Wedgewood, alleged slayer of his brother, Glenn Wedgewood. Hoyte, in which he charged his brother with the shooting and said they had not quarreled prior to the fatal shot. SINGERS LAUNCH CHORAL SOCIETY

First Rehearsal Planned for October 8 to Prepare for Winter's Work

The Glendale Choral society, under the auspices of Community Service was enthusiastically launched last evening at a meeting of the group selected by Mrs. Alexander Mitchell.

Two months ago, Mrs. Mitchell was appointed by the Community Service chairman of music, A. L. Baird, to organize a choral society. J. Arthur Myers, a well known and experienced director of the city, had consented to direct the choral society throughout the coming winter.

All the members present last evening were very enthusiastic over the proposition, and after a discussion as to the type of program to be undertaken, it was definitely decided that the new organization should begin at once on very worthwhile music for the city of Glendale and recruit to its membership all experienced singers in the city.

Rehearsal October 8
The first rehearsal of this singing organization will be held Monday evening, October 8, at the high school. It is the intention of the committee in charge to begin work on choral numbers to be used in a concert in November and also to take up choruses from the Messiah for the community Christmas celebration.

The choral society will meet each week and the executive committee of Community Service at its meeting yesterday noon enthusiastically endorsed the work done by Mrs. Mitchell in forming the chorus and pledged its support.

W. B. Kirk Writes of London and Britain

(Continued from page 1) because of Celtic blood or of contact with Englishmen who mistakingly represented their country, I had a strong prejudice against the English. I know that there has been a great deal of that feeling among us. I was sorry to see some of our boys return from the war with that same feeling after contact with British troops, because we are now allies and the two great English speaking nations must stand together for the salvation of the world.

"They Need U. S. Friendship
'I am more than pleased at the way we are treated by the English people with whom we come in contact. They like us and want to cultivate our friendship, that is very evident. Whenever possible I put them straight as to our position and part in the war and when they get it they have no further argument.

"In their present situation, politically and financially, they know their need of the friendship and help of the United States and they don't hesitate to say so.
'England has suffered terribly in the war, and now the financial burden is great. One factor which is causing friction with France is that the English people are having such heavy financial burdens for the sake of France, whereas the latter seems to be prospering and getting ahead faster than she herself.
'I have heard several Englishmen remark that the taxation of Frenchmen is very much less than their own. Incomes in England corresponding to those of ours which pay 4 or 8 per cent are taxed 25 to 40 per cent. Imagine it! How would you fellows who are making $5000 a year like to put up $1250 for income tax?

McCormack, corresponding secretary of the federation; Mrs. R. W. Meeker, who was present as vice-president of the Reciprocity club of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Castles, a former Tuesday Afternoon club member, was present representing the Pacoima Women's club of San Fernando. Represent Thursday Club

They will go by the Ridge route to Bakersfield and thence up the San Joaquin valley to Sacramento and over the high Sierras via Reno and Lake Tahoe to Placerville, Salt Lake City, Utah, and Cheyenne, Wyo., where they will corral-ton, Wyo., Mrs. W. H. Holkenbrink, Mrs. Stewart's aunt.
From there they will drive to Denver, Colo., and on to St. Joseph, Mo., where Mr. Stewart will have the pleasure of seeing his mother once more, Mrs. B. I. Stewart.

They will visit other relatives in the vicinity, starting back to Glendale at last by a long run southward to New Orleans, La., from there west to El Paso, Texas, and on across New Mexico and Arizona into Needles, thence northeast through Barstow and home, where they expect to arrive by December 15.

Goes East to Escort Engine to Glendale

"I am on my way to Glendale, California, the fastest growing city in America!"
William Nagel of 311 Geneva street is now passing through the middle west by rail with two placards, sixteen feet long and three feet wide, bearing this inscription in blue lettering upon an orange-colored background.
The odd thing about the circumstance is the fact that Mr. Nagel, instead of being bound for the Pacific, is headed for the Atlantic. He is now en route to Atlantic City, New Jersey, as a representative of the Glendale and Montrose Railway. The two signs which he carries will be placed on either side of the new electric locomotive, which is now being assembled by the Westinghouse Electric company at Pittsburgh, and will be placed on exhibition at annual convention of the American Railroad association.
Afterwards, it will be started on its way to Southern California upon its own wheels. Mr. Nagel will ride in its cab in a freight train.

CHICAGO GRAIN REVIEW
CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Irregularly following a day of colorless domestic news and foreign reports of a slightly bullish nature marked the grain close today. Demand for current deliveries led corn to strength at midday, but it sloped off in the afternoon. Wheat closed 1/4 @ 1/2 c off. Corn was 1/8 @ 1/4 c off. Provisions were steady.

BUY CARLOAD OF POLES FOR CITY

Extension of Electric Lines Calls for Shipments at 2 Month Intervals

The purchase of a carload of poles for the use of the public service department was authorized last night by the City Council.
The bid of the Charles R. McCormick Lumber company of Los Angeles was accepted. This quoted a price of $17.20 apiece for the poles. The carload, which will be shipped down from the vicinity of Portland, Ore., will consist of between sixty and a hundred poles. The value of the contract, therefore, will range between $1,032 and $1,720.
'We are hoping to get these poles in three or four weeks,' said Peter Deiderich, superintendent of the public service department, this morning. 'We are now unloading an average of one carload of poles every two months.'

As the normal spacing for these poles is 150 feet, this means that between 9,000 and 15,000 feet of electric line is being struck each two months. At this rate the total for the year will be between nine and one-half and seventeen miles.

Discuss Contract
A large portion of last night's council meeting was devoted to a discussion of the subcontract for the installation of water pipe the entire length of Colorado street. Mr. Diederich believes that the work can be done by the city for about $23,500, while the bid of the Charles Thompson and the Heuser-Packer company, who are about to be given the contract for the street work, is $33,000. They maintain that it is illegal for a municipality to bid on a subcontract. Settlement of the controversy, upon motion of Councilman C. E. Kimlin, was postponed until Thursday night.
Jobs recently completed by the public service department include the installation of pipe as follows: Between three and four miles in the Bellehurst Tract, and in addition, on Dryden street, between Columbus and Pacific avenues, on Milford and Alexander streets between Pacific avenue and Chester street; on Cypress and Palmer streets between San Fernando road and Los Angeles street, and on Wing street from Colorado street to Windsor road.
Within a few days installation of pipe will be commenced on Kenneth road between Allan and Alameda streets. This will be an eight-inch main.

CHANCE TO GET BOSTON RED SOX

Jesse E. Smith, C. of C. Head, Hears They Want Camp in South

By RALPH A. LYND
Of The Evening News Staff.
The possibility of bringing a major league baseball team to Glendale to do its spring training preparatory to the opening of the pennant race in 1924 is agitating members of the local fans since the receipt of a message by Jesse E. Smith, president of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce and a thirty-third degree baseball enthusiast, that the Boston Red Sox are looking for a training ground in Southern California.

The authority for this statement, according to Mr. Smith, is Oscar Reichow, business manager of the Los Angeles baseball club, who dropped the hint yesterday in a telephone conversation and urged Smith and the rest of the Glendale fans to get into action at once in an effort to secure this attraction for Glendale.

"With the Pittsburgh Pirates training at Paso Robles and the Chicago Cubs getting into shape at Catalina island," said Mr. Smith, "the advantage of bringing another major league club to Glendale can readily be seen by anyone."

Would Gain Publicity
"For one thing, it would bring Glendale more publicity than any other sporting event that could be imagined, for a corps of special sporting writers, traveling with the Red Sox and filing their stories every day from Glendale, would turn the eyes of the entire country to this city and would advertise its advantages to millions of readers throughout the country for several months without a break. Would that help Glendale?"

Small Investment
"The investment required to prepare training quarters for a major league team would not be a heavy one for a city as prosperous as Glendale is. All that would be required would be a baseball park, with a grandstand, dressing room and showers, as well as adequate housing facilities for the men while they are here, and the sum total of the requirements would not represent a very heavy outlay. Even if we only established a park of a temporary nature, the presence here of a major league team would mean inevitably that Glendale would soon demand a permanent baseball park, something that this city needs badly as an outlet for the young men who are followers of athletics."

The establishment of a training grounds for a major league team in Glendale, it is claimed, would result in this city's becoming the home of a Class C league team that would be a feeder for the big league, and that would do much to foster first-class baseball in Glendale, turning out men who might easily battle their way into the main tent at Howard Ehmke did a few years ago.

Would Bring Athletes
The possibility of a pre-season series between the major league teams that will train in Southern California is another factor that is stressed by those who are boosting for the establishment of a training grounds here, and the fact that Glendale would be the place where a large number of athletes and other eastern residents would spend a part of the winter would undoubtedly result in many new additions to the population of this city as its fame became known.
"If we are going to land this asset," declares President Smith, "we have got to get busy immediately, for the Red Sox will make their arrangements for a training ground within the next sixty days. Glendale can come pretty near bringing these players here if she tries, and it is a prize well worth going after."

Glendale High Boys Will Be 'Marked Men'

All boys at the Glendale Union High school are soon to be "marked men." In order to do away with lost suits and shoes, N. C. Hayhurst, head of physical education, has conceived the idea of numbering every boy and then marking his gym clothes with the same numeral. Each boy will be given a certain number and his shirt, pants and shoes will be stamped accordingly on them with indelible ink.
All gym teachers are to be very strict with anybody wearing a suit that does not have his number stamped on it.

Close-up on Bears' Team Shows Worth

By J. EVERT SMITH
Written for The Evening News.
BERKELEY, Sept. 25.—The California Varsity kept the three year no defeat record clean by chalking up a 3 to 0 victory over the All-Star Alumni eleven Saturday, and conclusively proved to all doubters that it will take mighty good football playing to keep that record from becoming "No defeats in four years."

"No defeats in four years" is the contest was marked by the absence of fumbles and injuries. Every man in the backfield handled the ball like a veteran and knew how to fall so as to avoid being hurt. Another surprise of the game was the manner in which the varsity line held against the crushing attack of the experienced All-Star backfield. The Alumni eleven put up a fight that very few college teams could equal and in withstanding it the Bears can be doped for another successful season; undoubtedly, many will say a championship.

One perfectly executed dropkick from Spaulding's educated place the Bruins in the lead during the early stages of the game, and neither team was able to do further scoring. In the first half the Alumni outfit was very evidently handicapped by lack of signal practice and it appeared that the Bears would gain an easy victory, but gradually the former California stars got their machine running smoothly and things took on a different aspect. Seeing that the first string men were able to hold the All-Stars, Andy Smith began sending in substitutes early in the second quarter. In the final half the Alumni struck their gait and Andy was forced to send the first team men back into the fray.
It was evident that Smith is still anxious about the wing positions and quarter. He tried out every possibility in these three berths at some time during the game.
The game as a whole was a rather listless affair until the final quarter when the Alumni came to life with some of the old California trick plays which brought the fans to their feet.

Tennis begins at Occidental this week with a freshmen and sophomore tournament scheduled to start Wednesday afternoon. The eight best players in each class will be allowed to continue tennis for gym credit, others will have to take some other form of physical education for credit.
The aim is to have the courts in use for the prospective frosh and varsity tennis teams every afternoon, so they may improve their game and be able to get the jump on the other college teams.

The Tiger varsity tennis squad has been practicing much of late and will be in excellent condition early enough this year to give the conference teams a run for their money. Oxy came near to winning the title last season, and, with Busch of S. B. U. C. gone, the Tigers look forward to clinching the championship.
Finnell, Palmer, Boice, and probably Raymond, will complete the varsity squad.

Bummers Scatter Dust

Cross-country practice was started at Oxy yesterday afternoon, when twenty-five aspirants of the cinder path answered Coach Pipal's war whoop for long-winded and long-distance runners. Phil Ellsworth, captain of the cross-country team this season, is confident that the Tigers can win honors in this event. Ernest Griffin, Nick Carter, Hurb Morey, Kenny Montgomery and La Velle are all showing up well on the hilly course. Some of the less prominent runners are York, Scott, Bueley, Weaver, King, Roberts, Milos, Shearing, Sheldon, Greg, Folts, Miller, Barnes, Moeller, Boone and Dorne.
Several meets are scheduled with the city high schools for the near future.

Pinweight Pigskinners to Play Mixed Games

Coach Eugene Wolfe has formed a new football team at Glendale Union High school, which will be composed of players not weighing more than 110 pounds. Several aspirants have turned out already, a good many where they were too light to make the team.

This eleven will not be in the Central league schedule as there are no other schools in the league that have a pinweight team. Pasadena High school is the nearest one with such a crew of pigskin chasers, and it is expected that some of the Los Angeles schools will also have one.
This forces the Red and Black fleawrights to play a rather mild season of games, but it gives everybody a chance to get in some pigskin fracas, even if they are light in weight.

Skeeter Eleven Plays at Van Nuys Today

Glendale Union High school's lightweight football team goes to Van Nuys this afternoon for a practice game. This game was scheduled for last Friday, but was postponed on account of the heavyweight game the same day. Enough material has turned out to form four "skeeter" elevens. Several veterans have come out also, and the midget hopes look brighter than they did at the start of school. Coach "Nuco" Butterfield has been training the pigskinners at every available moment, even dragging them out on the field between halves in heavy-weight games.
On account of their defeat at the hands of the high school varsity, the Van Nuys players are all the more determined to avenge themselves. So the game should be a fight from start to finish.

Glendale High Boys Will Be 'Marked Men'

All boys at the Glendale Union High school are soon to be "marked men." In order to do away with lost suits and shoes, N. C. Hayhurst, head of physical education, has conceived the idea of numbering every boy and then marking his gym clothes with the same numeral. Each boy will be given a certain number and his shirt, pants and shoes will be stamped accordingly on them with indelible ink.
All gym teachers are to be very strict with anybody wearing a suit that does not have his number stamped on it.

Paddock to Compete at Legion Convention

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—Charlie Paddock, the "human flash," will defend his laurels in all sprints up to the 440-yard dash at the athletic meet to be held during the American Legion's national convention in San Francisco October 15-19, it has been announced by the convention's athletic committee. Paddock, who is scheduled to return to his home in Pasadena within the next two weeks, will start training at once for the Legion meet, which has been called the "American Olympiad." He hopes to smash some of his present world's records.

Loss of Funds Fails To Halt His Wedding

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—When two "friends" stole his wedding outfit and his money, it looked for a time as if John Schroeder, a hospital nurse, might not be married after all. However, Schroeder proved an ardent votary of the saying that faint heart ne'er won fair lady. He borrowed enough money to pay the fare of his fiancée, Miss Lillian Elssner, from Beatrice, Neb., to Chicago, and then married her here.
He and his bride are on their honeymoon. The two perfidious friends are on their way to jail, having been captured in Vandalia, Ill., in a stolen automobile in which they were going to Mexico with Schroeder's money.

BALLOONISTS RESCUED

Four Members In One Family All Embalmers

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, Ohio, Sept. 25.—To the Johnston family, of this place, goes the honor of having the greatest number of embalmers of any family in Ohio. Albert Johnston and his two sons, Lowell and Faris, and the latter's wife are licensed embalmers, using the firm name of Albert Johnston & Sons, furniture dealers and embalmers.
The business was established here two-thirds of a century ago by the late Benjamin Ruggles Johnston, Civil War veteran. At his death his son, Albert, took charge of the business, which is now in its 66th year.

Vets Exchange Photos After 58 Years Apart

ELYRIA, Ohio, Sept. 25.—For the first time since they met on the battlefield, fifty-eight years ago, L. A. Adams, Civil War veteran, has just heard from D. G. Tennyson, also a veteran of the 1861-1865 conflict. The two men are exchanging photographs with a view to seeing whether either of them can recognize the other after a lapse of nearly three-score years.

Johnson Gets Renewed Assurance of Support

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 25.—Given renewed assurance of support from all factions of the Republican party in Los Angeles and Southern California by friends who called at his hotel today and yesterday, Senator Hiram Johnson was expected to fire another broadside into his political foes when he speaks tonight at the opening of the Orange county fair at Santa Ana.
The senator's address tonight will be informal, but is awaited with interest because of his defiance yesterday to his political enemies in California.

Firemen Aid Convicts Battle Prison Flames

SALEM, Ore., Sept. 25.—More than 100 convicts and many firemen battled a menacing fire which broke out shortly after noon yesterday in the flax mills at the state penitentiary here. Flax valued at $100,000 and several small buildings were endangered.
While trustees fought the flames other convicts were being watched in their cells by armed guards. Flax straw and flax seed worth $20,000 was destroyed. Spontaneous combustion was given as the cause of the fire.

Climbers Saved When Glacier Freezes Rope

GENEVA, Sept. 25.—An extraordinary incident unique for annals of alpine climbing is reported from the Bernese Oberland, where a woman climber and her guide were saved from certain death by their rope freezing into the glacier in which they were trapped.
The woman, Mme. Coninx, with a guide named Bischoff, was ascending the Monch when the guide slipped and fell into a deep crevasse.
Mme. Coninx had the presence of mind to throw herself flat on the snow, saving herself from being dragged over, but she was unable to pull up the guide.
Thus they remained for several hours until finally the guide, despairing of help, decided to sacrifice himself to save the woman, and begged her to cut the rope.
She at first refused, but at last yielded to his entreaties and severed it.
To the great astonishment of both he did not fall. The cord had cut deeply into the ice and had frozen to the glacier and the guide remained suspended three hours longer until help arrived, when they were both got out by means of ropes.
Firpo has taken agency in the Argentine for an expensive auto. It might be a trifle difficult to convince him one wasn't ready to buy.—Rickford Republic.

TUJUNGA MORE STORES FOR FOOTHILL FOLKS

Seelig Market Obtains Site
on Michigan Avenue;
Other News Notes

Tujunga is to have one of the links in the Sam Seelig chain of grocery stores. Details of the transaction are not available at this time, but the information comes from a reliable source.

The site selected is one on Michigan avenue at Hillhaven road, just west of the building occupied by the Tujunga Drug store, and adjoining the grounds of the Artists' and Authors' Guild clubhouse.

The establishment in Tujunga of a Seelig chain store is considered by residents as irrefutable evidence of the growth and progress and recognition of the field.

Tujunga is growing so fast that people who knew it a few months or a year or two ago return and are amazed at the progress and enterprise evident on all sides.

Several pioneer business men of surrounding cities, including Pasadena and Los Angeles, have recently disposed of their businesses elsewhere to locate in Tujunga or are opening branches here.

Opening Furniture Store

Leonard Rowe is one of the latest business men to locate in Tujunga. He has an interest in a large furniture business conducted by his brother in Los Angeles and is building a store on Michigan avenue, near Marshall street, to carry a full line of furniture.

Mr. Rowe bought the property about twelve months ago and his observation of the conditions in Tujunga has convinced him that a business venture launched there will prosper.

The new store is scheduled to open on Saturday, September 29. The building will include a basement and a mezzanine floor.

C. H. Bloodgood and Paul Moe have the contract for the building and expect to have it completed this week.

Grape growers of the valley believe that the crop will not be seriously damaged by the recent radical changes in the weather. Rainy and hot weather days following each other in rapid succession.

Mr. Petrotta of East Tujunga said he thought the grapes could all be saved in good condition if picked at once.

Orchestra Practice

The Manzanita orchestra will resume concert practice tonight at the home of Leo Smith under the leadership of S. H. Adams, according to an announcement by Mrs. Adams, who has charge of the musical program for the coming entertainment of the Glendale Art association by the Artists' and Authors' Guild of Tujunga.

An eight-pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Forester of Blanchard canyon on Monday, September 17, 1923.

George Henry Hewes died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Eleanor Elwood, 512 George street, last Tuesday, at the age of seventy years. He had been ill several weeks. Charles E. Hewes, a son of the deceased, and other relatives, arrived and attended the funeral. Interment was in the Tujunga cemetery.

Hi-Y Here Organizes, Hears Talk by Coach

The Glendale Hi-Y organization met last night at the First Methodist church for the first time this season to discuss plans for the coming year. At the Hi-Y training camp, held the first week of September at Catalina, various topics were talked over and these were brought up at the meeting last night.

The meeting was opened by singing and Theodore Haig, president of the local organization, spoke on the coming season. Howard Butterfield, lightweight football coach, also gave a talk on how the Hi-Y could aid the high school.

The groups this year are all going to meet together for about an hour every Monday night and following that the different divisions will hold separate sessions. Following the big meeting, Rex C. Kelley, district secretary, assigned the fellows to their individual groups. Officers were elected for these divisions in the separate meetings.

All Under 18 Must Get Day School Work

All persons under eighteen years of age, who have not graduated from a high school, are required by law to take some work in the day high school. Announcement of this fact was made recently by A. L. Ferguson, vice-principal of Glendale Union High school. He added that this rule applied whether the young people are employed or not.

"It is unlawful for them to be employed unless they can present a working permit issued by the day high school," he asserted. "They may take night school work in addition to the part-time day school work, but may not, by law, substitute such work for the day school work."

Registration of part-time pupils will be accomplished between the hours of 7 and 9 p. m. tonight and tomorrow night at the high school.

Petitioners Win Water Main in N. W. Section

The City Council last night started proceedings for the installation of an eight-inch water pipe on San Fernando road between Raymond and Allen avenues and the installation of a six-inch pipe on Allen between San Fernando road and the Southern Pacific. City Attorney Ray L. Morrow and Peter Diederich, superintendent of the public service department, were instructed to prepare the necessary specifications.

The petition, which stated that these mains are needed for domestic water service and for fire protection, was signed by the following property owners: George H. Orme, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Gordon, John D. Radcliff and Joseph Radcliff of Burbank; R. O. Church, Edwards & Wildey, Goodrich & Wildey, F. M. Preston, Charles H. Kline, Genevieve E. Stuart, W. A. Blanchard, Thomas N. Williams, A. Henderson and Gust Anderson.

COMMENT That's All

Little Favors Come First
Organized Hospitality
Elder Gilbert's Address
Evening News Features
By Gil A. Cowan

BENJAMIN Franklin was a wise hombre. Everybody admits it who has read history. He used to cut his own type, write his own editorials, set 'em up, and then sit down and read what he wrote with the rest of his other 197 fellow townsmen who understood English.

Yes, s'ree, Benny was clever. He believed in getting small favors first granted, then asking for something worth while. The Glendale Evening News for years has asked that the city establish a public comfort station. As we recollect, it has been considered, voted upon, passed up, forgotten and brought up again and again.

A public comfort station in the city of Glendale—why, two or three of them are absolute necessities in this community of grand distances and many newcomers. They should be placed in little parks of a block or square or so, where people could stop a moment and rest on a Sunday afternoon while surveying the beauties of this city.

So we have asked for public comfort stations, and we believe that they are of first consideration. Not until we see this little scheme carried favorably can anyone think of any community building on a larger scale. Let us be practical and not dream our days away when there are many little things to accomplish.

A good-natured real estate dealer, a most agreeable fellow, called the writer on the telephone and told about getting "pinched" at Columbus avenue and Doran street, where an intersection "but-ton" has been purposely misplaced to slow up traffic.

Now this friend of ours didn't mind the tag so much, for he knows that the officers will likely show good judgment by dismissing his case, but the circumstances under which he was arrested were quite provoking. And it is a tolerable state when our jovial realtors become provoked by the police.

It seems that a woman and child were crossing the street, and they got in this driver's path. He very politely drove out of his way to avoid striking them, and he missed the button. The very watchful motorcycle officer, lolling in the shade of a tree jumped up and hailed our friend for such a deed. Which provoked his victim to ask:

"Why couldn't that cop drag that woman out of the middle of the road when she was jay walking with her offspring. He would have saved me from getting pinched."

Really, we thought it was a pretty good point, and we are passing the problem on to Police Chief J. D. Fraser to find out if his policemen will not help the poor motorists rather than harass them.

The writer has ridden down Market street, San Francisco, with a party of legislators and newspapermen, at thirty miles an hour, the police aiding in this purposeful disregard of all regulations.

Such organized hospitality is not to be forgotten, folks.

Undoubtedly you read Elder F. C. Gilbert's description of the catastrophe which overcame Yokohama before his very own eyes on September 1. The several columns devoted to his address, accompanied by pictures, was well worth the effort, and The Glendale Evening News has to thank the Pacific Union Conference of the Seventh Day Adventist church here for having several of their stenographers obtain such a complete account.

Scores of extra copies of The Glendale Evening News were sold because of this superior story, one of the most graphic yet published, and it demonstrated how the paper renders a service to its readers which even metropolitan publications do not essay.

The Glendale Evening News actually carries more local news, more telegraph news, more features than the majority of Los Angeles newspapers. It has attained a standard among Southern California dailies with its feature articles that is not only unusual, but worthy of respect.

The Glendale Evening News is an institution.

Today we have another letter from W. B. Kirk, special correspondent of The Evening News, who is now touring Europe. He writes from London. In Friday's issue there will be another letter about English customs, food, money and morals which all of you will want to read.

And Mr. Kirk's letters are only one of the many good things in store for readers of The Glendale Evening News.

H. B. Goldsborough on Ten-Day Hunting Trip

H. B. Goldsborough, of 1937 East Gardnera street, returned Saturday night from a ten days' hunting and fishing trip in the Sierras. In company with C. T. Van Etten, of Pasadena, he motored to Coleville, about 400 miles from Glendale, and from Coleville they "packed-in" about twelve miles farther. They had great success fishing, but neither one succeeded in getting a deer, although members of the party were more successful and venison steaks were added to the camp fire and brought home to their friends.

An Open Letter to the Citizens of the City of Glendale

Glendale, Calif., Sept. 24, 1923.

It is reported in the daily press that the industrial leaders of Los Angeles—the men who have changed their City, in the short space of ten years, from "A Playground for the Idle Rich" to the leading manufacturing City of the Pacific Coast, recognize that it is vitally essential to stabilize the city's present prosperity and have determined that the creation of new industrial enterprise is the most important depression insurance which can be provided. Accordingly, they will shortly launch an intensive drive to attract new and worthwhile enterprises to their city. This campaign will last over a period of three years, and will involve an expenditure of over $300,000.00.

If it is necessary for Los Angeles business men to take this step to increase their industrial enterprises, what about Glendale, which has not as yet an industrial plant of any size?

Many cities of the East and Middle West, no larger than Glendale have payrolls, earned in industries located within their midst, of upwards $250,000.00 monthly.

WHY SHOULDN'T THIS COMMUNITY ENJOY THE SAME PROSPERITY?

We need industries whose products will find a ready market on the entire Pacific Coast, the West Coast of South America, the Orient, Mexico and the Countries of Central America.

We want enterprises which will employ only the highest grade of intelligent American labor.

The location of just one large factory in Glendale will attract others. Human nature is all alike—we hate to pioneer, but we rush in eagerly when the trail has been blazed.

A large and substantial business firm, manufacturing a line of heavy duty motor trucks, located in Northern California for the past three years, and desiring to expand has looked with favor upon Glendale as a location for their new $300,000.00 plant. Their product is well and favorably known, and is especially adapted for service in rough, mountainous country, in sandy desert work, and wherever the roads are of a negligible quality.

The Rogers Una-Drive Motor Truck Corporation has negotiated a ninety-eight year lease for a nine-acre site, on San Fernando Boulevard at the foot of Colorado Street. On this magnificent industrial site will be built the three units of their immense new factory. The contract for the first unit of this plant has already been awarded, and the actual construction work will be commenced about the middle of October.

We have carefully investigated the Corporation's plans for expansion and have found them to be safe and conservative. We believe that the volume of their sales will be governed only by their ability to produce, and we have, therefore, heartily endorsed their plans and the project by becoming identified with them, both financially and as members of their Board of Directors.

Briefly the plan of expansion provides for a moderate increase of liquid capital to take care of further building, the purchase of additional machinery and the necessary working capital. This money is to be raised by the sale of their securities and a limited amount is to be offered to Glendale and the surrounding community. Therefore, upon the showing which they have made and backed up by our own investigations, we do not hesitate to commend this project from an investment standpoint to all of our citizens.

THIS IS OUR GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY TO SECURE OUR FIRST BIG INDUSTRIAL ENTERPRISE. Shall we look up, over and beyond the horizon of our present vision, put our shoulder to the wheel, give this worthy enterprise the assistance and help which they are entitled to, and secure a monthly payroll of $75,000.00 for Glendale? The Company has shown their faith in Glendale, let us show an equal amount of faith in them.

Let us make this a Glendale enterprise, financed largely by Glendale capital, giving employment to a large number of our citizens, a Company to be managed and directed by a Board of Directors, a majority of whom are Glendale business men.

We feel certain that this enterprise is bound to become one of the biggest industries of its kind on the Pacific Coast, a credit to Glendale and a source of considerable revenue to the holders of its securities.

Respectfully yours,
A. L. BAIRD,
JAS. M. RHOADES,
J. R. BENTLEY,
L. H. WILSON,
C. W. INGLEDEE,

Canada Boulevard Is Going Right Along

Canada boulevard is to be extended from Glorieta avenue to Verdugo road so that Montrose and the up-country soon will have another direct connection with Glendale.

This project, which has been quietly promoted for a number of months by far-sighted persons acquainted with its possibilities last night was endorsed by the City Council.

City Clerk A. J. Van Wie reported that a petition requesting this action, which was filed last week, had been checked by City Engineer Ben F. Dupuy, who found that it represented the wishes of seventy-four per cent of the property owners.

Without comment Councilman Sam Davis moved that City Attorney Roy L. Morrow and City Engineer Ben F. Dupuy should draft the necessary proceedings. The motion was passed unanimously without discussion.

TODAY—England Plans Retrenchment; Cancer Alarms British; Droll "Death" of Drunken Ducks.

By F. A. WRAY
For International News Service

LONDON, Sept. 25.—British domestic politics at the present moment are almost confined to the discussion of unemployment, and the necessity for national economy is becoming so apparent that efforts are being made to cut down expenditure on the fighting services.

For some time the navy and air services have been able to obtain from Parliament almost any sums they liked to ask. But this is to be stopped. It is now proposed to ration the three services—army, navy and air—and to fix a total sum, which they can allocate among themselves, but which they must in no case exceed. And it will be no use going to Parliament for emergency or exceptional allowances.

It was hoped last year to make a saving of thirty million pounds on these departments, but the effort failed, only half that sum being saved, the total amount spent being £167,000,000, without supplementary grants.

The amazing spread of cancer in Britain has driven the health authorities in London to appeal to the medical officials of every district in England for assistance in preventing and stamping out the disease.

It is pointed out that the most insidious aspect of cancer is that the disease is painless in its early stages and often throughout its entire course. On this ground the appeal asks for the utmost vigilance on the part of doctors generally and stresses the need of early treatment.

Rough stumps of teeth, badly fitting dentures, smoking of clay pipes, clothing which causes irritation of particular regions of the body are designated as among the

CORRECTING "WILD" STEERING

The Removal of Lost Motion from all points in the steering gear, so that the hand wheel cannot be turned more than half an inch or so, measured at its rim, without deflecting the front wheels, is the obvious remedy for wild steering. This will not only remove the danger which exists in extreme cases of loose steering gears, but eliminates the constant and fatiguing "grinding" of the wheel required to keep the car in the road. Some new pins and bushing for the knuckles and tierod ends, to take the places of worn out ones, are usually required, as well as readjustment of the ball joints at the drag link ends, and, possibly the renewal of the buffer springs. As to the removal of backlash from the steering device itself, the method varies with the several types, but all modern ones embody means for so doing. In the case of the worm and worm-wheel type, so largely used, the pitman or steering-arm is usually squared onto the worm and replacing it in a position 90 degrees removed from its former setting, will cause the worm to mesh with unworn teeth of the worm-wheel and the gear will be as tight as originally. Correct alignment of the front wheels is another important factor in securing stability of direction control.

UNIVERSAL JOINTS THROW GREASE

J. W. E. writes: During this hot weather, the grease is thrown out of both universals of my car and makes an awful mess on the underside of the car as well as flying onto the muffler and its piping, where it smokes and smells. I have wondered whether enough grease stays on the parts of the universals to keep them from wearing out. What is the thing to do in a case like this?

Answer: The hemispherical steel dust covers, which enclose the working parts may have worn at their edges, so they fit loosely, or the felt washer which is supposed to make the joint tight may need renewal. These covers can be adjusted along the shaft for a tighter fit by loosening and moving the collars which hold them in place, but they should not be fitted too tight. Possibly you could use a little stiffer grease in summer and return to the light-grade in cold weather. A leather boot, laced tightly but flexibly around each joint will keep escaping grease from scattering and still will permit access for replenishing the supply.

Margaret is only seven years old, but sometimes quite naughty. On one occasion her mother, hopping to be particularly impressive, said:

"Don't you know that if you keep on doing so many naughty things your children will be naughty, too?"

Margaret dimpled and cried triumphantly:

"Oh, mother! Now you've given yourself away."—Everybody's.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

BY HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE SOUR MILK

"Oh, my goodness! Burr-r-r-r! Zippie! Zippie!" Uncle Wiggily made funny noises like this at the breakfast table in the hollow stump bungalow one morning.

"Whatever is the matter?" asked Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy in surprise, and she set down her cup of carrot coffee. "Oh, Wiggily! What a face!" the muskrat lady housekeeper went on. For the rabbit gentleman certainly made the funniest face you can imagine.

"Why do you do it?" asked Nurse Jane. "There are no animal children here now to laugh at you and be amused."

"I'm not trying to make anyone laugh," said Uncle Wiggily. But this time he screwed his pink, twinkling nose around toward his left ear, one eye was shut and the other open, and his chin went quiggle squabble, making altogether such an odd face that Nurse Jane had to laugh and cough and sneeze and have the hiccoughs all at once.

"Oh, Wiggy, Wiggy! What is it?" gasped the muskrat lady. "Why did you make such a queer face?"

"Because the milk is sour!" answered the rabbit gentleman. "I guess you'd make a funny face, too, if you had a mouthful of sour milk. Burr-r-r-r! Zippie zippie!"

"Oh, dear! Is the milk sour?" asked Nurse Jane. "I didn't know, because I never take any in my carrot coffee. Let me taste."

The muskrat lady housekeeper put some milk in a spoon and touched the tip of her red tongue to it most daintily.

"Oh, it is sour!" exclaimed Nurse Jane. "This is yesterday's milk, and Mrs. Moo Cow hasn't been along yet with any fresh. What are you going to do, Wiggily?" she asked, as she saw the rabbit gentleman getting up from the breakfast table.

"I'm going to throw this sour milk away, so I won't be fooled on it again," he answered. "Out you go, sour milk!" he cried, as he took the pitcher in his paws.

"No, don't do that!" cried Nurse Jane. "Don't throw away the sour milk!"

"Why not?" asked Uncle Wiggily. "What good is it?"

"It's just wonderful for making a Johnnie cake," said the muskrat lady housekeeper. "Of course I haven't time to make a Johnnie cake today, but—"

"Well, Johnnie cake of Jimmie cake," said Uncle Wiggily. "I want no sour milk in my hollow stump bungalow. Out she goes!" And he started for the door with the pitcher.

"Wait! Wait!" begged Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy. "If you don't want to keep the sour milk until I have time to make it into a Johnnie cake, let's give it to Mrs. Twisty-tail."

"What would the lady pig do with sour milk?" asked Uncle Wiggily, twinkling his pink nose thoughtfully.

"Why, pigs—little and big—like sour milk more than anything else," said Nurse Jane. "It makes them strong and fat. If you must get rid of the sour milk, please take it over to Mrs. Twisty-tail."

"All right," said Uncle Wiggily. "I will."

So, a little later, he hopped over the fields and through the woods, carrying the sour milk.

"Zippie! Zowie!" said Uncle Wiggily to himself as he hopped along, holding the pitcher as far

"I guess I know milk when I see it!"

"One moment!" said Uncle Wiggily. "I want to be fair and honest with you. This milk isn't what you suppose. It is—"

"Never mind supposing anything," growled the Gator. "I guess I know milk when I see it!"

With that he most impolitely grabbed the pitcher of sour milk from Uncle Wiggily and poured it into his big Alligator mouth at once.

And then—oh, I wish you could have seen the funny face the Gator made! It was worse than Punch and Judy made into one.

"Oh, Zippie! Zippie! Zoopie! Zoop!" howled the Gator. "My mouth is all puckered up! Oh, I must run and get a drink of water!" Then away he ran, nibbling no ears that day. Of course, there was no sour milk for Mrs. Twisty-tail, but Nurse Jane gave her the next batch that curdled, so it was all right.

And if the needle doesn't pull the thread all around after it, like a cow's tail in the bramble bushes, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and Bobby stuck in the mud.

Turin, the great manufacturing center of Italy. They were planning to seize the industrial machinery and run it on Bolshevik lines. Mussolini swooped down on the town in an airplane, rallied the war veterans and other conservative elements and ended the Bolshevik menace.

It is said that there are 1,000,000 men ready to respond to Mussolini's call at any moment. Not only the army but the entire intellectual community of Italy looks to him for orders.

Adventures of Billy Whiskers

By Frances Trego Montgomery

Yesterday we heard about Button's adventures, now you will hear Stubby's experiences while trying to find Nannie.

Stubby has just come out of what they call the Creation, where they show pictures which try to depict the story in the Bible of how God created the earth in six days and rested on the seventh. Stubby thought he saw Nannie squeezed in the crowd on the opposite side of the Zone, going through the gate to an exhibit called the AerpSCOPE.

Now Stubby had no idea what an aeroplane was, but he thought he had seen Nannie, and that was enough for him. He was going to catch up to her even if he was supposed to stay on the north side he pushed on toward Nannie. But at last when he pressed through the gate and passageway onto a large platform dimly lighted, where he could look around, he saw no Nannie. Presently, when his eyes had grown accustomed to the light, he saw a flight of steps leading to an upper platform, up which the crowd was going, passing into a little room. He followed after and here he got a glimpse of long, silky, white goat's hair. But a single glance told him it was not the hair on Nannie's back, but it was a coat worn by a little girl. He was so disgusted to think how easily he had been fooled that he was going back to his own side of the Zone when he heard a door slam and round himself in what appeared to be a small room with glass sides. A row of stools ran all around the room. The next thing he noticed was a trembling motion, and he gave a bark of fright and sprang straight at one of the windows, trying to break through it and escape.

(Tomorrow the story will tell the rest of Stubby's adventure.)

Dinner Stories

A tired business man was spending his vacation in the country, says Judge. He had been fishing for several hours in very shallow water in a picturesque stream without success. A farmer boy came along with a fine string of trout.

The tired business man was astonished, and said: "Son, I have been fishing here for five hours, and only baited my hook once, when I started. What is the matter with the poor fish?"

The boy scratched his head and replied: "Huh! The poor fish is on the wrong end of the pole!"

A visitor from across the line who had been imbibing a little too freely of Quebec hospitality, happened to pass one of the churches on which were twelve large bronze statues, representing the twelve apostles, says Judge. A small fire close by somewhat confused him, and looking up at these statues he shouted: "Don't jump, boys! The firemen will be here in a minute with the nets."

From a charter membership of twenty-seven at the time of their organization in October to a membership of 350 in less than eleven months, is the remarkable record of the Elks' lodge of Glendale. The entire second floor of the Central building on Broadway has been modeled to meet the needs of the lodge. They will spend $75,000 on the new clubhouse on Colorado street. The building committee includes J. W. Usilton, George T. Paine, F. J. Showalter, Peter L. Ferry and Charles L. Evans. John W. Lawson is elected ruler.

H. W. Gray and family, formerly of La Crescenta, have the distinction of being the first residents of Montrose.

W. E. Evans, city attorney for the city of Glendale, has been granted a month's vacation.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters, MD.
Author of "Diet and Health, with Key to the Calories"

Calories
Definition—Calorie (symbol C) is a heat and energy value unit. Technically, it is that amount of heat necessary to raise one pound of water four degrees Fahrenheit. A calorie is not heat, it is not food, it is simply the standard unit to measure the energy value of heat and food, just as the yard and quart are measures of length and of liquid.

Samples of all foods have been burned in the nutrition laboratories in a small apparatus called a calorimeter, and the amount of heat which they give off has been definitely measured.

With very complicated apparatus known as the respiration calorimeters, which are large enough for a child or an adult to live in for a certain period, while under observation, it has been shown that food in the body, while burned in an entirely different way than by ordinary fire, does give off approximately the same amount of heat or energy as it does when burned in the calorimeter. Very many experiments have demonstrated just how much food is needed at all ages, while at rest, sleeping, and while at work.

Approximate Table of Calories Needed Daily
(From "Chemistry of Food and Nutrition" by Sherman; Courtesy of The Macmillan Company)

Under 1 year,	45 C. per lb. per day
1-2 years,	45-40 C. per lb. per day
2-5 years,	40-36 C. per lb. per day
6-9 years,	36-32 C. per lb. per day
10-13 years,	34-27 C. per lb. per day
14-17 years,	30-22 C. per lb. per day
18-25 years,	25-18 C. per lb. per day

"Children who are very active or growing very rapidly require even more food than the table just given suggests.

"Assuming average size at the different ages, the allowances in Calories per day becoming about as follows:

Children 1-2 yr. inc.	1000-1200 C. per day
" 2-5 "	1200-1500 "
" 6-9 "	1400-2000 "
Girls 10-13 "	1800-2400 "
Boys 10-13 "	2300-3000 "
Girls 14-17 "	2200-2600 "
Boys 14-17 "	2800-4000 "

"Above the age of 17 years, although there is still some growth, differences in activity due to occupation become so great that the food requirement will usually depend as much upon occupation as upon age."

Now from these tables find out how many calories your children need. Then from the table of foods which I will give tomorrow and the next day, reckon how many they are getting. It is not difficult. It may be illuminating. Remember, if a child is undernourished he probably needs the highest allowance or over, and if he is over-nourished he needs the lowest amount or under.

TOMORROW'S MENU

Newly Married: "My husband and I rent now, but dream of building a little home of our own. I am writing to ask you what kind of a kitchen sink you think gives the best results? We want all these details settled in advance, so that we shall make no mistakes when the time does come for us to build."
Answer: A porcelain sink gives the best results, but they are expensive. The next best kind, in my estimation, is an iron sink enameled ware. A white sink is more attractive than a dark, and is more easily kept clean. Sinks of cement composition are good, provided that they are well glazed. A great many housewives like slate and soapstone sinks, but I personally do not care for either kind, because they are dark in color and have seams. So if you cannot afford a porcelain one, I strongly advise an iron sink enameled white. Clean it with kerosene and whiting (kerosene cuts grease), and flush it often with hot water. I am sure you will have your little home soon. Determination makes our dreams come true! Write again if I can be of use.

Beginner: "How is zinc polished?"
Answer: With a woolen cloth moistened with either kerosene or vinegar, and dipped in either whiting, baking soda or bath brick.

Tomorrow—"Just How" to Make Hot Milk Cake.
All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their own time. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question. Be sure to use your full name, street number, and the name of your city and state.—The Editor.

YOUTHFUL FROCKS FOR AFTERNOON WEAR
The tiered and paneled frocks are the ones that have the smart touch of originality, and the model to the left is typical of what Paris is wearing. It is fashioned of Egyptian blue Georgette crepe, the soft grade of self-material being finished with a band of sapphire-blue ribbon velvet. Six narrow flounces adorn the skirt, and the kimono sleeves are lengthened with deep extensions gathered into narrow cuff-bands. Medium size requires 4 1/2 yards of 40-inch Georgette.

Crepe satin or Georgette in cinnamon brown may be used for the second model. The lower edges of the gathered side panels are outlined with fancy stitching in silk of the same color as the dress. A vest of dainty net is set into the V-shaped front, and the stitching introduced on the skirt is repeated on the sleeves and about the neck. Medium size requires 4 3/4 yards of 36-inch material.
First Model: Pictorial Review Dress No. 1552. Sizes, 34 to 44 inches bust. Price 35 cents.
Second Model: Dress No. 1565. Sizes 16 to 20 years, and 34 to 44 inches bust. Price 35 cents.

Heart and Home Problems

Dear Mrs. Thompson:—I am 19 years old and am very much interested in a girl of 16. The fellow who wrote that "sweet sixteen stuff" hit it just about right. To make a long story short, I like a certain girl very much and she knows it. What's more, I think there are no hard feelings on her part toward me, but her mother and father do not allow her to get acquainted with me, but she is a friend of the family, but is not cared for so much by the daughter as by the mother. To me it appears to be a forced match. This young lady goes with this fellow because she likes to go places and he will take her. If she refuses to go with him she is allowed to go with no other fellow.
I have a date promised if she is ever allowed to have any except with this one fellow.
How may I get a date with this young lady? I could get a date easily enough with her without the parents knowing it, but I want to play square and have the parents' consent. GEORGE F.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl in my teens. One night a boy friend of mine whom I have known for five years put his arms around me and I didn't protest. Today I saw him and he just looked at me and turned away. Do you think he will respect me as he used to? BLUE.

Lionel Barrymore, Richard Bennett, Bert Lytell and several other American movie actors have been making a picture in Rome, says Karl Kitchen in the New York World.
"What do you think of this place?" Bennett asked Barrymore the day after their arrival. "It reminds me of South Brooklyn, N. Y.," replied Lionel, adding, "but I must say that the spaghetti is much better."

Countess Antoinette Khevenhuller-Metsch
The manner in which so many of the former aristocratic and moneyed classes of the old world have met their reverses of fortune and used their talents to make names for themselves in the business world is especially appealing to us of the new world. It reminds us once more that in spite of artificial class distinctions we are all just humans underneath—poets and peasants, workers and kings—all display the "one touch of nature that makes the whole world kin."

BEAUTY CHATS

ANSWERED LETTERS

M. N. P.: There is a time-honored belief, based upon generations of experience, that elderly persons should not sleep in the same bed with younger ones, because there is a loss of vitality to the younger person. This, however, does not always apply to people with a great difference in age, for there are people who radiate vitality, generating it as fast as they give it out; while others draw upon the strength of every one about them, either waking or sleeping, age having nothing to do with either case.

S. Sixteen: I will be glad to mail you the formula for the hair tonic if you request it and send a stamped, self-addressed envelope in which to forward it. When using either an egg or a henna shampoo the soap would be included in either, so you have no need for anything further. You are correct in massaging a little olive oil into the scalp when the scalp is very dry after a shampoo. If this treatment darkens your hair, you are using too much oil and getting it on the hair instead of just into the scalp. To do this properly, separate the hair into strands, and with only a few drops of oil on the tips of the fingers massage into the scalp along the parts between the strands. If you use only a few drops at a time you will not get any of it distributed over the hair.
You can trim off the broken ends of hair, which is quite as effective as singeing. For hair that packs like yours, there is nothing more helpful than a daily, vigorous scalp massage.

Viola Edith A.: Advice to S. Sixteen applies equally well to your case.
S. Sue: A depilatory will remove the hair under the arms, but

2 Women Make 5300 Mile Motor Trip West

Interesting visitors last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brooks, Mrs. J. E. Schermerhorn, of 327 El Bonito street, all former residents of Schenectady, N. Y., were Miss Belle Page and her mother, Mrs. M. Page of that city who are touring Southern California, having motored 5300 miles the past summer in their journey to the coast. They camped along the way. Leaving Schenectady in June, Miss Page, who is connected with the General Electric company, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. M. Page, who is nearly seventy years of age, leisurely motored across the continent, visiting friends and relatives and many places of interest along the route. From Salt Lake they went north to Seattle and later came down the coast to Los Angeles, stopping at San Francisco, Big Trees and other scenic points on the way. They will start their motor trip east this week by the southern route.

MOVE TO SO. CALIFORNIA

The importance of Southern California as a business center has been recognized by the Central Brass Company of Cleveland, Ohio, whose representative, J. Frank Donovan, was in Glendale yesterday calling on his customers. The Central Brass Company, which has maintained its offices in San Francisco, has moved its entire coast headquarters to Los Angeles and will work the western territory from that city.

Subdivision Menaced by Tujung Floods

Declaring that a real estate subdivision in the vicinity of Big Tujung Wash is subject to danger from torrential floods from a watershed forty miles in extent, Hugh R. Pomeroy, secretary of the Regional Planning commission, has asked the Board of Supervisors to correct the situation, declaring that the land is in the path of floods and that purchasers of the property are being jeopardized.

The land is said to lie in the district of major floods above the point where the Big Tujung Wash divides, just outside the city limits of Los Angeles, south of Monte Vista avenue along Michigan avenue. The greater portion of the water from the Big Tujung passes over the property during the flood season, it is claimed, and it is said that a large portion of the tract has been sold and that the remainder is going rapidly. The tract has been disapproved by the flood control division and by the City Planning commission because of its location.

OPEN NARCOTIC WAR

The opening gun in the crusade launched by the International Narcotic Education Association was fired yesterday at Lankers, when Captain Richmond P. Hobson, one of the leaders in the organization, presented William G. McAdoo to a meeting at which the aims of the association were outlined. Jesse E. Smith, president of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, was among those present at the meeting.

SUNLAND

BIG MONTE VISTA PARK PLANS TOLD

Chamber Commerce Hears About Additions for Scenic Spot

With B. F. Mears, president, absent through illness, the Sunland Chamber of Commerce deferred most of its business until the next meeting on Tuesday, October 2.

Numerous important questions were discussed and made ready for action at the next meeting, one being a plan for an entertainment which the chamber will give in the course of a month for the purpose of raising sufficient funds to complete payment on a piano that was recently purchased for the hall from Mrs. Akin. G. L. Notting and Mr. Springer were appointed, a committee in charge of arrangements for the entertainment. A report was made by Homer Rice on the effort the chamber is making to get the county to install more lights in Monte Vista park. The report was favorable and the new lights will be placed to illuminate both the park grounds and the streets around it in order to make night travel along the dark drives safer.

Other Lighting Plans
The chamber is also working out a plan to form a street lighting district that will be presented for approval next year, it being too late to get action this year.

Options on property adjoining Monte Vista park have been filed with the county supervisors. A condemnation suit is under way to have other property properly priced so that it may all be added to the park grounds, should the county act favorably on the petition that was presented by the residents of Sunland.

The property desired includes a meadow opposite the park and the lots formerly owned by the Sunland Baptist church, which have been sold to George Huse. Money from the sale of these lots will go into the building fund for the new church to be erected in the Lancaster tract.

Monte Vista park as it stands is not large enough to accommodate the ever-increasing crowds that picnic there throughout the year, and it is desirable that it be enlarged.

Plan to Build Plunge
Water is practically on the surface of the ground in part of the proposed addition and an effort will be made to have a swimming pool installed for the use of visitors.

With many important business matters accumulated since the last meeting, the Monte Vista Valley Improvement League will resume its meetings the first Friday in October, at the home of Mr. Shaffer on Walnut drive.

The league has recently undertaken to have trees planted along the highway from the eastern boundary of Tujung to the western boundary of Sunland. Development of the vicinity of Walnut drive and Michigan avenue as a business center is one of the chief purposes of the league, and the purchase of property there by C. N. Perry, pioneer grocer of Pasadena, for a market building is hailed as an indication that this development is beginning.

The league aims to co-operate with the Chambers of Commerce of Sunland and Tujung for the betterment of the entire valley.

$25 PRIZES FOR DAHLIA EXHIBITS

'The Homeland's' Prettiest Bloom Will Blush on October 4

Prizes of $25 each for the second annual dahlia show have been contributed by the Women's Twentieth Century club, realty board and Chamber of Commerce, while the Parent-Teacher Association has offered two prizes and the Improvement Association and other local organizations are planning contributions to Eagle Rock's most distinctive event.

The dahlia show is scheduled for Thursday, October 4, and will be open to the public at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and again at 8 o'clock at night, with hundreds of beautiful exhibits of "the homeland's" famous bloom.

Many merchants and individuals of the community will donate prizes, and the P-T-A is lining up awards for the children's division. Inasmuch as no experts are allowed to enter exhibits, all local lovers of "the queen of flowers" will have an opportunity to carry off honors at the year's biggest horticultural event.

Local Notes
The lecture by G. R. Pollock at the Women's Twentieth Century clubhouse last night was well attended. The speaker chose for his topic Judge Rutherford's slogan, "Millions now living will never die," and talked very forcefully. Mr. Pollock lectured under the auspices of the International Bible Students' Association.

The Business and Professional Women's club, under the leadership of Miss Katherine Bessolo, 155 Ellenwood drive, is organizing a Spanish class. Full details will be announced following the club's opening meeting of the fall season, scheduled for early in October.

There will be held a meeting of all directors and chairmen of committees of the Women's Twentieth Century Club Thursday afternoon, September 27, at the home of Mrs. A. G. Reilly, 550 East Colorado boulevard.

Social and Personal
Charles McLaughlin recently returned from a hunting trip with a 150-pound deer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Rhodes of 116 East Park avenue will be the guests of Mrs. Rhodes' mother, Mrs. E. E. Hamilton, of Central and Adams avenues, for the next few months, owing to the serious illness of Mr. Rhodes' mother, at the Park avenue address.

Albert Curtis of Royal drive, who was seriously injured a week ago Thursday when his car struck a boulevard button and crashed into another machine, is now out of danger, it is reported.

The regular monthly meeting of the Occidental-York Boulevard Association, held last night in the Occidental Presbyterian church, produced some interesting discussions and instituted plans for improvements in the district, particularly with regard to streets and transportation.

A. L. Pearson, Eagle Rock's plumbing inspector, has returned from his vacation at Murrietta Hot Springs, relieving Mr. Coats, who filled his place during his absence.

Reginald Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Marshall of 135 Eddy avenue, is on an eastern xylophone tour.

L. A. PRISON FARM BRINGS PROTEST

Too Near City and Unsanitary Are Grounds Set Forth by Petitioners

Immediate removal of the Los Angeles city prison farm on Vine avenue near the north entrance to Griffith park, and close to the Burbank city limits, has been demanded by local residents in a petition to the City Council of the metropolis operating the farm.

Attorney Walter Fisher presented the petition, appearing before the department and presenting a petition demands removal of the prison farm on the grounds that it is a menace to the population living in the vicinity, citing that prisoners ramble through the woods, appearing to come and go at will.

Instances are cited where prisoners hide their good clothes in the woods and at night go there, put them on and make their way to San Fernando boulevard, where they quickly get into the city. After enjoying every freedom of free men they return to camp.

With such a condition existing, the petition states, it is obviously unsafe for women and girls to be out alone in the vicinity. The sanitation of the camp is also attacked, it being alleged that cows, goats and hogs are pastured in the bed of the Los Angeles river, polluting what waters there are in that stream.

be so great that it immediately sprang into fame.
For two years these machines have been in highly successful operation in Chicago and other eastern cities, where permanent reductions have been made with them in innumerable cases, Dr. Hurt states. Among the institutions using the apparatus are sanitariums, colleges, health resorts, gymnasia, hotels, training schools, beauty parlors and bath establishments.

Dr. and Mrs. Hurt maintain, in addition to the reducing room, an examining and treating room, special mercury quartz and deep therapy ray room and comfortable reception rooms and private dressing rooms.

CHEST TO RAISE FUNDS IS URGED

Organization Delegates Favor Community Method for Welfare Work

Sentiment strongly in favor of the organization of a Community Chest to have charge of the work of raising the money needed to carry on charitable and welfare work in Glendale was expressed at the meeting held last night in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, when representatives of various organizations met at the call of W. E. Hewitt, who had been appointed as a temporary chairman to determine the advisability of proceeding further with the plans that have already been outlined.

Dr. Warren Z. Newton, who had been chairman of the first committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to assemble and submit data on the subject, explained at length the functions of a Community Chest, describing what it is supposed to do, how it operates, the need of educating the public to realize the field that the organization would occupy, bringing out the statement that campaigns carried out by individual organizations cost anywhere from fifteen to forty per cent of the amounts collected, while the average cost of Community Chest campaigns, as taken from figures supplied by various cities over the country, run from two to six per cent.

Opinions Differ
A wide divergence of opinion was brought out during the discussion, and it was finally decided to appoint a committee of five to suggest the personnel of the various committees that would be required to handle the different branches of the work and to perfect the organization, that would later be made permanent. This committee, to be appointed by W. E. Hewitt, will report later at a time to be set by the chairman.

The various organizations represented at the meeting were: Tuesday Afternoon club, Mrs. Dan Campbell, W. C. T. U., Mrs. Edith S. Dockey; Ministerial Union, Dr. Henry I. Rasmus, Sr. and Dr. Ernest E. Ford; West Glendale Improvement association, Rudolf Street; Glendale Welfare Council Mrs. E. D. Yard; Business Women's club, Miss E. G. Gibbs; Red Cross, Mrs. E. E. Bartlett; Verdugo Woodlands Improvement Assn., H. A. Graves; Women's Relief corps, Mrs. Flora Pixley; Parent-Teacher association, Mrs. Eustace Moore; Rotary club, George B. Karr; Community Service, Mrs. John R. Case and Mrs. Hollister; Central Avenue Improvement association, Charles B. Guthrie; Chamber of Commerce,
