WHICH MAN MEETING IN ALBION.

At a meeting of the Whig friends of the State, held at Albion, on Monday evening last, the following resolutions were adopted: That the Whig friends of the State, in view of the approaching election, do hereby resolve to hold a meeting in Albion, on Monday evening next, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of discussing the merits of the candidates for President and Vice President of the United States.

The meeting was held in the hall of the Albion Hotel, and was attended by a large number of the friends of the Whig cause in that town. The meeting was opened by the reading of a paper, in which the merits of the candidates for President and Vice President were discussed. The paper was read by Mr. J. B. Smith, and was well received by the audience.

The meeting then proceeded to discuss the merits of the candidates for President and Vice President. The first speaker was Mr. J. B. Smith, who spoke in favor of Mr. Clay for President and Mr. Freilinghusen for Vice President. He argued that Mr. Clay was the only candidate who was worthy of the honor of the Presidency, and that Mr. Freilinghusen was the only candidate who was worthy of the honor of the Vice Presidency.

Mr. J. B. Smith's speech was well received by the audience, and he was followed by Mr. J. C. Jones, who spoke in favor of Mr. Clay for President and Mr. Freilinghusen for Vice President. Mr. Jones argued that Mr. Clay was the only candidate who was worthy of the honor of the Presidency, and that Mr. Freilinghusen was the only candidate who was worthy of the honor of the Vice Presidency.

The meeting closed at 10 o'clock, and the audience dispersed. The Whig friends of the State in Albion are to hold another meeting on Monday evening next, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of discussing the merits of the candidates for President and Vice President of the United States.
