The Locos had quite a large meeting on Monday might at Washing'on Square. Their leaders had drunmed the city diligently for the purpose, and succeeded in arraying a goodly number of the "firree democracie" around the platform. We are glad of this, for it proves that Locos focusing still enough a space policy post of the Comanches have made overtures for neace, to which Gen. Brooke has responded. From Weard are cry are reminded that a MANN MINE TONG with the held This Evenge in Weard begin to far, from the spirit would be no conest at all in the cry, and that a MANN MINE TONG WE SEED AND TONG WEARD W exertions, sided by those of his friends, have galvanized the party into some manifestations of activity. They show fight now, and like Yankee Scillivas, in his battle with Tox Hyrn, still prove game to the last, however dreadfully "punished" they may be. We perceive, too that they intend to get up a torch-light proces, among other means of remninating the that they intend to get up a torch-light proces, aton, among other means of reanimating the drooping spirits of the democracy.
