MINISTER OF MARINE POINTS WITH PRIDE TO CANADA'S STATUS

Hon. Ernest Lapointe Preached Gospel of Optimism and Unity in Eloquent Address to Vast Audience at Royal Victoria Theatre

In a speech bristling with subtle humor and brilliant satire throughout, Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, held the vast audience at the Royal Victoria Theatre last night under the spell of his oratory for an hour and a half while he preached the gospel of optimism and Canadianism, and with facts and figures effectively championed the Government of which he is a member.

The delightful French accent of the speaker, his commanding figure and his personality proved wonderful assets, and although platform speaking in English is a comparatively recent accomplishment, the Minister possesses a remarkable command of language and was never at a loss for a word or phrase. He quoted figures on Canada's industry and financial standing in defiance of the "Death Whispers," vigorously upheld the principles of Liberalism and concluded with an eloquent peroration for a united Canada and the shattering of sectionalism.

Mr. Lapointe remarked that his trip to British Columbia was mainly of a business nature to consider departmental matters and he would have preferred to have made an address on political matters, but could not refuse the pressing invitation of his friends in Victoria.

After remarking that Dr. Toimie had now become one of the company with which he was dangerously flirting when the speaker was in Victoria previously, the speaker paid a glowing tribute to the Hon. John Oliver, a man sprung from the plain, ordinary people, fighting for the welfare of the people without sectional viewpoints.

He thanked the speakers for their complimentary remarks. "In politics," he said, "we hear two sides."

Trade Expansion The opening of the Panama Canal, the expansion of trade with the Orient, the expansion of trade with the other parts of the country, he pointed to as meaning ever-increasing business for British Columbia.

Country Recovering "Canada is recovering after passing through a crisis, as the other countries have done. Her heart is south. Her vitality is the vitality of youth. Canada is rich in resources. Agriculture is her great wealth. Last year Canada became the great wheat exporting country in the world. Her mineral resources are great and her fisheries are equal to any with perhaps the exceptions of those of the North Sea. Her industries are continually increasing.

KING, BALDWIN AND BRUCE GIVEN FREEDOM OF CITY OF LONDON TO-DAY

London, Oct. 12 (Special Cable to the Canadian Press by George Hambleton, Staff Correspondent)—"Into our conference we seek to carry the spirit of the freedom of London, knowing that so long as that spirit survives the British Empire will endure."

These words were used by Premier King of Canada to-day when in her ancient Guildhall of tradition and story, London conferred on him as on Premier Baldwin of Great Britain and Premier Bruce of Australia her honorary freedom, and the words were indicative of the tenor of his remarks both then and at the subsequent luncheon given by the Lord Mayor in the Mansion House.

On the first occasion Premier King showed wherein the "freedom of the community of nations which comprise the British Empire" was an expression on an Empire scale of the freedom of London. On the second he indicated how that freedom had been carried to different parts of the world.

GROUP SETTLEMENT PLANS DISCUSSED

Peopling of Vacant Areas of Empire London Conference Subject

Tariff Preference Offer Causes Controversy in Britain

London, Oct. 12 (Special Cable to the Canadian Press by George Hambleton, Staff Correspondent)—There was a lull in the activities of the Imperial Conference to-day to permit the delegates to attend the ceremony of the presentation of the freedom of the City of London.

The disappointing results of the Empire Settlement Scheme are giving point to suggestions for the adoption of some wide plan of group settlement. Premier Bruce is advocating this. The Times this morning observed that "in Canada the long winter during which the prairie farms are snowed up for months makes the need for some social intercourse all the more necessary if the settler is to remain in his 'new home.'"

Studied by Committee The whole problem of Empire settlement is now in the hands of a special committee of the Economic Conference.

A Controversy The fiscal controversy has been given impetus by the British Govt. (Concluded on page 2.)

STENGEL'S HOMERUN BRINGS VICTORY TO GIANTS ONCE AGAIN

Veteran Centre Fielder, Back In Game, Hits His Second Homerun of Series in Seventh Inning and Scored Only Run of Game; Jones and Nehf Enjoyed Wonderful Pitchers' Battle

New York, Oct. 12.—"Casey" Stengel did it again. The old warhorse who kissed the ball for a homerun in the ninth inning on Wednesday and won the opening game for the Giants, performed his thrilling trick again this afternoon for the edification of the fans, and the Yankees were beaten 1-0.

Looks Like the Hero It looks as though Stengel will be crowned the hero of the series despite the fact that Babe Ruth came forward with a rush yesterday. However, both Stengel's homeruns, hit in separate games, have produced the winning runs, whereas Ruth's four-play walkups, both coming in one game, only helped to swell the score.

Body Drifted Ashore with Gruesome Tale

Mystery Surrounds Finding of Body Weighted With Stones in Water

Startling Verdict Rendered by Jury at Inquest

That the body of an unidentified man was thrown into the water when already dead, and came there by other agency than the hands of the man himself, was the startling verdict rendered at the inquest to-day on the remains found at Fisher Bay, Melchosis, as reported in yesterday's issue of The Times.

Found Wreckage When the Comal and Saukee arrived at the position given by the Everett only a small amount of debris covered the high running sea. Throughout the night the search continued, and at daybreak this morning the navy yard reported it had heard nothing further from the Comal or Saukee.

INQUEST FOLLOWS KILLING OF MAN ON RUM CRAFT

MANY MEN HUNT TRAIN BANDITS

Four Murders Committed Near Oregon-California Line

Criminals Probably Were Employees of Southern Pacific

Ashland, Ore., Oct. 12.—The rough country on both sides of the Oregon-California line near here teemed with armed men to-day, all seeking some trace of the robbers who yesterday held up a southbound Southern Pacific passenger train in Tunnel No. 13, killed three trainmen and a mail clerk and wrecked the mail car with dynamite.

An inquest will be held to-day. While there was no indication in advance of the inquest that light would be shed on the identity of the culprits, the officers working on the case, as well as railroad men, expressed the opinion that they were either employees or former employees of the railroad and that they had killed the trainmen because they had been recognized.

Shotgun Used Examination of the body of Johnson, one of the victims, showed that he had been killed with a shotgun, a charge of buckshot having struck his body. The engineer and fireman apparently were killed with bullets.

One of the injured men is B. DeWine, Vancouver, B. C., a passenger who received cuts on the head from flying glass.

PEACE IS DESIRE OF ALL. "Union, confidence and peace to the whole Empire," continued Mr. King, "such are the objects of the conference which has brought together from beneath the Southern Cross and the North Star representatives of India and of the Self-governing Dominions to meet in London, the Prime Minister and other Ministers of the United Kingdom in conference upon matters of supreme importance which are of concern to all of us. ### STATES VIEWS ON CONFERENCE PLANS

Clynes, British Labor Leader, Sees Possible Disadvantages in Empire-Preference

London, Oct. 12 (Canadian Press Cable).—J. R. Clynes, M.P. and Labor leader, in a speech at Kirby yesterday, said there appeared to be danger of the Imperial Conference being turned into a trading bureau to arrange a fiscal bargain without electoral or parliamentary sanction. The best relationships with the self-governing countries must be cultivated, he said, but there was too great a tendency to imagine that the Dominions could afford markets big enough for the requirements of the United Kingdom. Great Britain, both economically and politically, he said, must remain a part of the continent of Europe, and for many purposes "we have more in common with the countries of Europe with its millions." An understanding with the Dominions for reasons of unified policy and natural Empire development was essential, but tinkering with the tariffs or trying to fix rates on imports of dried fruits as a stimulus to general trade or as a remedy for unemployment was like offering pills for an earthquake. The Empire could be cemented by greater development, ties of sentiment and by a common policy which would enable and elevate its authority in international relations, but they must avoid preferences or agricultural developments in one part of the Empire which would react against the efforts of British farmers and cause disappointment and friction.

NEW SILVER FIELD IN QUEENSLAND

Discovery in Australia Attracts Thousands of Fortune Hunters

Special to The Times Brisbane, Queensland, Oct. 11.—A silver field which the discoverer, a prospector named Robert Ching, claims will rival that of the world-famous Broken Hill, has been brought to light at Chingoo, in this state. The state Government, which owns most of the mining territory round about, is taking prompt steps to prove it.

Ching is a Chinese Hall caste. Already thousands of people are rushing to the new field and claims are being taken up rapidly. Government assays indicate huge reserves of silver.

URGING REDUCED IMMIGRATION TOTAL

Change in U.S. Law Suggested by American Federation of Labor

Portland, Ore., Oct. 12.—More stringent immigration laws, with reduction in present quotas, will be sought from the sixty-eighth Congress of the United States, according to action taken by the American Federation of Labor convention here yesterday.

A protest against importations of coolie labor into Hawaii was voiced by the convention, which adopted resolutions declaring there was no labor scarcity in Hawaii that would justify introduction of coolie labor.

The executive council was instructed to turn the batteries of publicity on the I.W.W., who were alleged to be in the employ of interests seeking to destroy organized labor.

Japanese Question The Japanese question was brought before the convention by Paul Scharenberg, San Francisco, of the Seaman's Union, and Jere L. Sullivan, Cincinnati, of the Hotel and Restaurant Workers' Union. Scharenberg referred to conditions in Hawaii and asserted that the same would have prevailed in California if the people of that state had not agitated against Japanese immigration.

Sullivan spoke of the rapid multiplication of Japanese in this country and said this was a real menace. Efforts to organize migratory workers and to assist hoboes to assist themselves were ordered by the convention after it had taken action denouncing the Industrial Workers of the World. The executive council was instructed to turn the batteries of publicity on the I.W.W., who were alleged to be in the employ of interests seeking to destroy organized labor.

The time for opening of the annual convention was changed from the first Monday in November to the third Monday in November so that the convention will not interfere with activities of Labor in political campaigns.

The executive council was given power to change any city selected for a convention if proper facilities and reasonable hotel accommodations cannot be obtained.

National and international unions were urged to recommend to their local affiliates "with city, central and federal state bodies" to make a compromise on a resolution which provided for compulsory affiliation.

TRADE PREFERENCE ISSUE IN POLITICAL CONTEST IN BRITAIN

London, Oct. 12.—Sir Donald Maclean, one of the leaders of the Independent Liberal wing, opened the Liberal free trade campaign by presiding yesterday at a record conference of the Scottish Liberal Federation, which opened at Perth and which is continuing to-day.

Sir Donald said the Imperial Conference preference developments had raised a vital issue. Preference was simply their old enemy—protection, disguised, and Liberals would give it no quarter.

The conference at which four resolutions, all against tariffs, will be considered, is the beginning of a flood of Liberal oratory planned months ago, which will be staged at Glasgow, then at meetings.

Officials of the Liberal quarters in London declare the Government's preference proposals will be fought with the whole force of the party. The Liberal newspapers are confident the nation will not tolerate tampering with food prices at a time when unemployment and distress are most acute and declare the Government's proposals may split the Conservative Party.

They anticipate that the women's vote, in the event of an election, would be overwhelmingly against food taxes.

"The preference on currants is a penal tax payable by every child eating a currant," said Sir John in the course of an interview on the Government's preference proposals.

The Free Trade Union addresses a letter to the overseas members of the Imperial preference, reminding them of the conditions under which the Motherland adopted free trade, and emphasizing that the very existence of the Motherland is dependent on the continuance of the system which the Great War vindicated in the most complete manner.

FORMER BANK DIRECTOR PARDONED

Seattle, Oct. 12.—Pardon of Gustaf Lindberg, director of the defunct Scandinavian-American Bank of Tacoma by Lieut. Governor W. J. Coyle on Wednesday cannot be revoked, but it will not prevent the retrial of Lindberg on other charges in connection with the wrecked institution.

The facts emerged yesterday from a storm which the Lieutenant-Governor's action raised in this city and Tacoma.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, said a well-known druggist here, because it restores the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks, aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days. (Adv.)

AUTOMATISM PLEADED IN MURDER TRIAL

Wellington, New Zealand, Oct. 11.—A plea of automatism, namely, that the accused did not know what he was doing and acted under compulsion from his own nervous system, was made in a remarkable murder trial just concluded here in which a farm laborer named Albert Kiesel was charged with the slaughter of James Mackenzie, a farmer who employed him.

Kiesel shot Mackenzie and then went to a neighbor's near Goldstream, Canterbury, describing what he had done and collapsing from fear and emotion. For the defence it was pleaded that modern science showed that minds such as Kiesel's were of a kind easily susceptible to influences from others and that they could be swayed in any direction. Kiesel, it was argued, had become a "mental slave" to his employer and in a moment of emotional stress had killed him in order to break free.

The crown prosecutor argued that such a defence was based on a new and undeveloped science of psychology and that it was too vague at present to be allowed to outweigh the clear and determinate criminal law.

The jury found Kiesel guilty but temporarily insane, in effect accepting the plea of automatism. The judge ordered him to be kept in custody until the Minister of Justice should decide what was to be done with him. The judge said that Kiesel had actually acquitted Kiesel, and such a verdict would have far-reaching effects.

In court the youth explained he thought he was doing nothing wrong and that he had not any intention to corrupt Mr. Levy. The magistrate let him off with a nominal penalty.

Only two years ago all the newspapers in Sydney accused Mr. Levy of being induced to take over the

THE CALL TO LIFE

If Canada's former Prime Minister had been a member of the audience at the Royal Victoria Theatre last night he would have been translated from the valley of "The Whisper of Death" by the good cheer which everybody must have experienced from the beginning to the end of the eloquent and sensibly optimistic address to which Mr. Lapointe treated a large and attentive gathering of Victorians.

Mr. Lapointe believes in Canada and he believes that this country's position has been improved by the policies which the King Administration has put into operation. And his audience found no difficulty in reaching the conclusion that if the trade of the country has increased and the people of Canada are content to lead the Minister of Finance more than $25,000,000 dollars in excess of the amount for which he asked if the operation of the Canadian National Railways since the beginning of the year 1922 has turned a working deficit of nearly $2,000,000 into a working surplus of something like $6,000,000; if the ordinary expenditure on the public services of the country has been reduced and the revenue increased; if the per capita debt of the country is very considerably lower than the per capita debt of any other British Dominion; if this part of the Commonwealth of Nations operating under the Union Jack is the richest gem of the whole family; if the Canadian dollar is worth one hundred cents in New York and a great deal more than one hundred cents in practically every other part of the world; if all these things are true—and not even Mr. Meighen would face any audience and contradict them—there is no earthly reason why Mr. Lapointe should not meet the people of Victoria with a smile and a word of good cheer instead of a "Whisper of Death."

NOT READY YET

Although British Liberalism and every Free Trade influence will be marshalled against all attempts to change in any material form the traditional policy of the country, it is fairly safe to predict that Premier Baldwin and his colleagues will tread very gingerly during the period in which preferences are under discussion at the gatherings that are now taking place in London.

It is very true that conditions have undergone a decided change since the Tariff Reform Party left office on the toe of an electorate that would have nothing to do with a policy that meant an increase in the cost of the necessities of life. Britain's European markets have almost vanished and the normal interchange of commerce between the Old Country and the markets which she has looked upon as her more or less special preserve is almost negligible. But it will not be argued that at a time of trade stagnation and in a period of economic dislocation that has resulted in unemployment of alarming proportions a remedy will be found in the imposition of a tariff that must increase the cost of commodities to the consumer.

Great Britain objects to the French occupation of the Ruhr because the trade which it paid her to do with Germany under normal conditions no longer exists. The objection is all the more emphatic because the condition thus created is by no means confined to the nation which rightly deserves the punishment which France is inflicting. Consequently it would seem to follow that the very Government which has not seen fit to cooperate with France—when, strangely enough, by so doing it might have brought Germany to time before this—is hardly likely to do anything calculated to curtail still further the trade which it is so anxious to restore. What other effect would protection have? And will either Parliament or people sanction a change in a fundamental policy to which the country has become wedded through its beneficial operation for many years?

Much as it would please the Empire if Great Britain would prepare for the future by paving the way for the curtailment of her dependence upon the markets of Europe—by sending her capital to unlock the doors of the vast storehouses of untold and untouched wealth that are owned by her own family—that can only be accomplished successfully by a combination of the old and traditional policy with an ambitious plan that will produce its own harvest by Empire development on a grand scale. Then we may look forward to the advent of free trade within the British Commonwealth—made possible by the more equal distribution of British peoples that would follow as a natural consequence of greater industrial opportunity.

REAL BRAVERY RECOGNIZED

At more than one session of the local Legislature several of the Labor members have found it difficult to justify any appropriation for the support of the Boy Scout movement in this Province. The main point of the objection on such occasion has been that the voting of public funds for the purpose in question amounted to something very little removed from the encouragement of militarism. It was always difficult to follow their reasoning and their failure to make out anything like a convincing case has always resulted in the vote being passed by a large majority.

It is not necessary, of course, to recite the many arguments in favor of doing everything possible to inculcate in the boyhood of the Province a desire to and capacity for "playing the game" in all its forms. But the Province may indulge its pride in the deed of one Boy Scout in particular—not that there are not many instances of youthful bravery on record—because the public announcement of recognition comes at a time so close to the annual consideration of this comparatively insignificant financial vote. His name is Davis Symons Hislop of the 14th Vancouver troop and he is to receive the highest honor that may be conferred on a scout—the Bronze Cross. This youthful hero-dropped fifty feet into a pool in the Capilano Canyon to save a girl companion who had slipped from the footpath. He first had to jump to the branch of an overhanging tree to steady himself. After that he made the plunge that might have terrified a full grown man. This deed alone, and the example it sets to hundreds of coming citizens, is worth more than all the votes that have been or will be made for the Boy Scout movement in British Columbia.

Note and Comment

If there is anything in the little ditty about ears burning those gentlemen who coined "The Whisper of Death" ought to be getting deaf from the heat and din that their own phrase of gloom has produced.

Premier King has made it quite clear—as Sir Wilfrid Laurier did before him—that the increase in the British preference as far as Canada is concerned was a voluntary concession without conditions of any kind. Consequently he will take what preference Britain is prepared to extend to this country without making anything in the nature of a demand for a quid pro quo.

Canada's Prime Minister has paid a visit to the exhibition buildings at Wembley and he very naturally took a practical view of the purposes which that important assembly of Empire products should be made to serve. In the few remarks that were permitted on the occasion in question Mr. King declared that the exhibition should represent the Empire in miniature. In other words he believes, in an exhibition of the acts of peace in contrast with the results of war.

In the course of his tour of the Province Mr. Bowser discovered that there is a good deal of discontent over the liquor law. He listened to narratives from the housewife who has to go without many things that she would like because too much of the breadwinner's pay cheque goes to the Government's vendor. The merchants of some of the smaller towns explain that their bills are not being paid as promptly as they used to be. There is nothing extraordinary about this state of affairs; but the Government will be powerless to alter the law of the land until instructions are given by the people. The Liquor Control Act represents the wish of a majority of the electorate and the Leader of the Opposition is right when he says that to blame the Administration for conditions that have arisen as a result of its operation is "extremely unfair."

Some Thoughts for To-day

I intend no modification of my oft-expressed wish that all men everywhere could be free. Abraham Lincoln.

It sounds like stories from the land of spirits. If any man obtain that which he merits, Or any merit that which he obtains. Coleridge.

The country hath his recreations, The city his several gymnics and exercises, May games, feasts, wakes and merry Meetings to solace themselves. Burton.

Think not the good, The gentle deeds of mercy thou hast done, Shall die forgotten all; the poor, the prisoner, The fatherless, the friendless, and the widow, Who daily owe the bounty of thy hand, Shall cry to Heaven, and pull a blessing on thee. Nicholas Rowe.

Our Contemporaries

ONLY TOO TRUE

The Australasian, Melbourne:—It is too commonly overlooked that an increased population will automatically spread the weight of debt over a larger number of shoulders, and will consequently diminish the per capita quota of responsibility, while at the same time increasing the capacity of the Commonwealth to bear the load. Every thousand immigrants who come to settle in this country assume a share of our obligations.

WASTING ENERGY

Granbrook Courier:—The marathon dancing craze has reached the British Columbia coast and contests of endurance are starting in many Pacific Coast cities. Seems a lot of energy wasted. Some of the same energy might be put to some good advantage developing our latent resources. An endurance test on clearing an acre of wild land and bringing it into a state of cultivation would appeal to most people of sound reasoning powers.

COST OF GOVERNMENT

To the Editor:—I note that, besides the reference in to-day's Colonist to the "exodus" both The Times and Colonist have frequently referred to the lack of capital offering for new enterprises or for the expansion of established industries. The Journal of the Citizens' Research Institute—issue of August 23—which I trust you will reproduce—is a practical if not a complete explanation and answer to the questions you raise. I am surprised that not more publicity is given by the local press to the findings of the "Citizens' Research Institute of Canada."

It is true that these facts, found by careful investigation, are a bad advertisement for the Province, but as the circulars are distributed all over Canada and reproduced and commented upon in the Eastern and foreign press, what is the good of suppressing them in British Columbia? Taxation, caused by useless extravagance, keeps desirable settlers out of the country, and also keeps capital from coming into the country for investment. British Columbia is widely advertised abroad as the only Province but one, and that one the small "Island of Prince Edward," imposing an income and poll tax, and as having collected from other sources, than by taxation, $16 per capita per annum for the year 1921, an amount which is in excess of the per capita revenue from all sources including taxation for the same year of her sister provinces, in addition to which she collects from her people another $16 per capita by direct taxation, thus extracting from her citizens by taxation alone, twice as much as either of the provinces of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick and three or four times as much as that of the larger provinces of Ontario and Quebec.

In the face of these disabilities how can you expect to succeed in inducing settlers—notwithstanding our many natural attractions—to take up their abode where taxation is so oppressive, or to keep those here who, finding no employment owing to the scarcity of money for investment in industries, depart for the South. It is futile to try and "pull ourselves up by our boot straps." Better to look things in the face, admit the facts and try and induce the Government to remove the causes.

Abandon and scrap the P.G.E., reduce the cost of administration by the use of the "Geddes axe," employ only efficient men and pay them well; discharge the parasites; cut the cost of legislation by reducing the number, and the pay of the legislators. Drastic methods of economy must be adopted or the "Whisper of Death" will announce in loud tones the demise of prosperity in this Province.

F. S. BARNARD, October 11, 1923.

HOW TO DEVELOP CANADA

To the Editor:—Mr. Robb right when he asserts that "what is required to bring greater prosperity to Canada" is to "open the doors for a wider influx of immigration." I think not.

There is much discussion of the policy of attempting to solve the unemployment problem in Britain by immigration to the Dominions. Under existing conditions I am of the opinion that such a policy would result in failure and, as the Right Hon. Arthur Henderson says, would transfer to countries overseas the problem of unemployment, which now confronts the home land. Canada needs immigrants of the right sort, but when one views the exodus which is taking place from this country, and reflects on the fact that during the past ten years the total of immigrants have been lost as well as some portion of the natural increase in population, it is clear that something more than an immigration is needed. What we need is a policy that will enable us to keep the immigrants we receive.

The fact is, that, despite access to virgin lands of great fertility, the basic industry is not remunerative. Until this condition is changed a policy of unrestricted and subsidized immigration cannot succeed. A prosperous agricultural industry means prosperity for manufacturing industry as well. If Canadian industry is to be put on a permanent basis of prosperity (Concluded on page 12)

OUTLINE NEW LAWS TO CURTAIL DEATHS
FROM AUTOMOBILES

Chicago, Oct. 12.—An intelligence test for the man or woman who drives a motor car is a possibility within the next two or three years. Representatives of thirteen middle western states attended the Conference of Motor Vehicle Administrators, representing state automobile licensing bureaus here, at which plans were made for working out safety-first laws for automobilists and pedestrians. The movement is being fostered by the National Safety Council. The convention was called by Fred M. Rossland, chief of the public safety division of the National Safety Council.

"The man who drives a car for somebody else must pass an examination," said Walter W. Miller, chief clerk of the automobile division of the Illinois Department of State. "But anybody can drive an automobile if he owns it, whether he has ordinary horse sense or not."

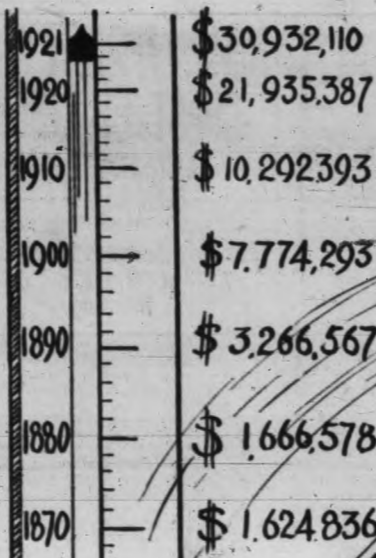

"The accidents do not happen to licensed chauffeurs. They happen to the unskilled drivers. The conference will make plans for uniform laws to govern the licensing of automobile operators to see if they are sufficiently competent mentally to handle a motor driven vehicle. Some form of intelligence test is likely to be devised."

There is a real need, according to officials for uniform laws of driving to lessen the death rate. One way suggested is to prevent a man who never has handled a car before from buying a machine and promptly setting forth as if he were an experienced driver. This prevalent custom could be prevented, they say, by forcing the dealer by law to see that everybody to whom he sells a car is thoroughly instructed before he is permitted to operate it on the public highways.

CANADA'S FIRE LOSS IN 1922 WAS $54,000,000

The report of the fire superintendent from Ottawa shows that the loss of property in 1922 has been $54,000,000, and 450 valuable lives, which all the money in the world cannot replace. Fire Prevention Week, October 7 to 13 inclusive—what is it? It isn't the clean-up week of old and odious memory derided alike by the press and city officials and civic leadership. Fire prevention means a thorough organized clean-up campaign. The successful clean-up campaign in any city, large or small, is the campaign that accomplishes its programme—this is the fact to remember when planning to clean up your premises and urge your neighbors to do likewise. Each year the fire marshals in various parts of the Dominion of Canada conduct a local clean-up campaign to reduce fire risks. They recognize the value of a clean-up in fire prevention and they know that organized prevention is the effective incentive towards keeping the premises free from fire hazards. Now is the opportunity for every woman in the city to demonstrate her interest in the community by assisting in this worthy cause. They want cleanliness and orderliness and beauty in every home; they know of a filthy black spot anywhere in town or the rubbish awaiting the spark in the yard across the alley; they have the instinctive feeling of clean homes, and it is their duty to see that they assist by interesting themselves and educating their children to do likewise and thereby bring about good results in the various phases of community sanitation, beautification and avoiding unnecessary fires and perhaps the loss of many valuable lives. The record of the city of New York shows that ninety per cent. of fires originate in cellars or the first story, and all those (except of incendiary origin) are caused by carelessness and neglect. The object of Fire Prevention Week is to educate the people in every community to see that all fire hazards are removed from their premises. Fire is more powerful than the combined armies of the world—its deadly bullets have wrecked many homes, it destroys every year millions of dollars, it spares no one, rich or poor, high or low, old or young. It arrives without notice, anywhere and everywhere, city, town, village or hamlet; it brings sickness, degradation, may destroy it, it destroys and crushes and maims everything in its path; it is the worst enemy to humanity; it takes all and gives nothing.

FORD OF CANADA
PUZZLES INVESTORS

Detroit Holders Have Sold
Stock After Failure to Pay
July Dividend

Detroit, Oct. 12.—Many local Ford of Canada stockholders regarded as "close" to the company have recently sold their stock. This is revealed by payment of loans on the stock at local banks. Bankers say these stockholders have disappeared of more than one dividend this year and feel even one is not a certainty. Two dividends of 15 per cent. each were paid during the fiscal year ended July 31, 1922, while but one was paid in October, 1922—during the year ended July 31, 1923. The lessening of dividends has come in spite of the fact that the company sold 70,323 cars in the past fiscal year, against 45,000 in the previous year. The $5,000,000 net earnings after charges in 1922 was at the rate of $111 a car. Thus sales of 70,323 during the fiscal year just closed, at the same rate a car, would indicate profits of at least $7,000,000. Placing profits as low as $50 a car, the net would figure about $3,500,000. With upwards of $5,000,000 cash and a probable surplus of $17,000,000 as of July 31, 1923, dividends totaling $2,100,000, the amount heretofore paid annually, would not embarrass the company. Reasons given by Detroiters who have sold their stock are rather surprising to financial circles. They declare the business depression in Canada has hit the Ford Co.'s immediate future prospects, and while the now overdue annual report will show large earnings and plenty of cash, they have concluded from information received in various ways that the cash will be conserved for the present. Brokers say most of the selling has been local and most of the buying from the outside. The strange part of the situation is the appearance for the first time of diverging opinion as to the future dividend policy. Virtual passing of what has come to be considered a July dividend started complications and delay in issuance of the annual report is further befuddling matters. But the magic which has always surrounded the name, brokers say, continues to bring in orders.

TO COMMEMORATE BIRTHDAY OF B.C.

On November 19, 1858, Governor Douglas with Mr. Justice Matthew Begbie and Charles Firew, police magistrate, arrived at Fort Langley, the presumptive capital, and within the palisades of the fort buildings publicly proclaimed the union of the mainland and Vancouver Island the colony of British Columbia, attended by all the pomp and formalities the occasion demanded.

To commemorate this important event and honor the memory of those splendid pioneers as well as to stimulate interest and help educate the younger generation in the history of their province, the Lady Douglas Chapter, I.O.D.E., will hold a carnival-dance and children's fancy dress party at the Empress Hotel Ballroom on Monday, November 19.

Special dances relative to the early Victorian period will feature the occasion, while other attractions are being tentatively planned. Prizes for both children and adults will be given for the best fancy dress costume.

Tickets may be obtained from the secretary, Mrs. R. L. Phillips, or any of the following committee: Mrs. Willis Dean, Mrs. T. Brown and Miss Gill.

A. AND N. SESSION

Secretary Deals With Business at Dominion Convention

The business of the Dominion convention of the Army and Navy Veterans in Calgary was thoroughly covered in a comprehensive report presented to the Victoria unit last night by the secretary, Capt. Money. The report in part reads:

"Major Crehan, specially requested that the association should take up the work of fostering, aiding and assisting the militia units of Canada in every way within their power."

"Since our organization in 1866, we have, to a certain extent, aided this work by taking part ourselves as militiamen, and also influencing our own people in becoming part of the militia system, so that they will be better able and better trained to protect our country and our homes in case required."

protect our country and our homes in case required.

Value of Militia

"Now I contend that Canada is not carrying the full insurance value of Canada, in the way it has cut down the militia, making it very difficult to efficiently train men, who, when required, will have to protect the country. It is my own sincere hope and earnest prayer that that time will never come when we will have to take up arms to defend our country. But there is always, where there is human nature and the elements of the imagination, a falling back on that policy. Consequently, I give you this thought for your consideration and I hope for your approval; and if you meet with your approval that you will go forth from this convention and do your duty in the regard sparing yourselves in no way which the interest of Canada requires it. Always having that thought predominating in your mind—that this Canada is ours an integral part of our glorious Empire, and while we hope we will never be called upon to defend it, still, should we be, we will be properly trained and ever ready to sacrifice our life, if necessary, for this wonderful heritage which is ours."

Old Age Pensions

Major Crehan went on to deal with the question of old age pensions for ex-service men. "As day by day the number of our old veterans are reaching the evening of their life, their earning powers have considerably diminished, and they are not able to compete on the labor market for a reasonable livelihood. I say that it is the duty of the country to look after these old soldiers, and pay part of the insurance premium of Canada to them for their work in the past."

Work of Last Year

"In his opening remarks, the president told the members of the association during the last year, especially with regard to the Royal Commission. He also touch briefly on the work of the association, and stated that the Army and Navy Veterans could not afford to wait much longer for the consummation of the scheme, and pay part of the insurance premium of Canada to them for their work in the past."

Following the president's address the Dominion secretary then proceeded to give his report. Capt. Colebourne stated at the commencement of his report that his file contained 400 documents.

"He went on to say that the association had passed through a very busy year. He referred to the part that the Army and Navy Veterans had taken in securing evidence to place before the Royal Commission, which toured the country recently."

"He said that most of the charges made by the C.W.A. against the Pensions Board had been sustained by the Ralston Commission. He spoke bitterly concerning the present personnel of the Pensions Board, and said that it was nothing short of a scandal that a man who had never worn the King's uniform should be appointed secretary of the Pensions Board. He considered that the Deputy Minister of Pensions should be relieved of his position."

"The following resolution was unanimously passed, calling upon the Federal Government to concentrate its emigration policy to Great Britain:

"Whereas it is recognized that Canada must have a larger population in the near future to insure success, therefore be it resolved that this convention views with alarm the influx of Southern Europeans and Orientals, and would welcome any efforts made to increase the number of emigrants of British birth and those who would readily assimilate British ideals and aspirations."

Resolutions

The following resolutions were passed, dealing with matters of special interest to ex-service men.

"Re Civil Service Complaints—Whereas the fact was brought out that a large number of ex-service men in the civil service are on the temporary list, while there are many men on the list without war service, it was resolved that the authorities be requested to draft such regulations as will permit of war service being counted as service in the civil service."

"Resolved that the financial statement of the Dominion association be placed before the session at the commencement of each convention, and that the secretary's report be printed and placed in the hands of the delegates at the next and each succeeding annual convention at their opening session."

"That whereas the number of ex-service men who die in indigent circumstances is increasing, it was resolved that the Government be requested to bear the expenses of their funerals."

"On this resolution it was reported that the Last Post Fund would receive a grant of $10,000."

"Whereas it is often necessary for medical reasons for tuberculous patients to move from one part of the country to another, therefore be it resolved that the Government be urged to pay the expenses of removal of the patients' dependents."

"Resolved that this convention goes on record that they are opposed to the patronage system, and that all ex-service men, providing all things being equal, should be given preference. This was moved, seconded and carried."

"Seniority—Resolved that the board of directors of the Canadian National Railways be requested to give credit for service when seniority of service is a deciding factor."

"A resolution dealing with the depletion of the forests of Canada through indiscriminate cutting and through fires was brought before the convention. It was resolved that the Army and Navy Veterans' Association should give its support to the Government in its efforts to ensure an adequate supply of timber for future generations."

"Resolved that the celebration of Armistice Day be held on November 11, and on no other day."

"Resolved that the Dominion secretary be rendered assistance to bring up to date the report of the Dominion Veterans' Alliance."

"Resolution by the Montreal unit regarding the Housing Law and amendment to the Land Settlement Act. It was resolved that this stand over until the next report of the Royal Commission is published."

"Resolution regarding the amended Pensions Act by the Dominion Parliament. It was resolved to refer same to the executive."

"Resolution by the Victoria unit that the Dominion Government be requested to hold an investigation to ascertain how it happened that two sections of the amendment to the Pensions Act were withdrawn while in transit from the Senate to the Commons at the last session, and that the official or officials responsible for the deletion of the same be dismissed."

"Resolution that there be granted an increase of pension to the permanent force prior to 1919, as subsequent to that date those who are now drawing pensions had same based on their pay and allowances."

"Resolution regarding emigrants being British born. It was resolved that it be impressed upon the Dominion Government that emigrants entering the Dominion be of British birth."

"A resolution was passed regarding old veterans and R.C.M.P. veterans receiving a pension on attaining the age of sixty-five."

"It was resolved that at future conventions all resolutions must be submitted to the Dominion secretary thirty days before the convention, and that six copies be forwarded, typewritten."

"Whereas soldier settlement lands were bought while prices were at a very high peak, and whereas by reason of physical inability numerous settlers are forced to give up farming as a vocation, and whereas such settlers find it impossible to obtain anything like the prices paid for their farms; therefore be it resolved that the Government be specially requested to arrange that the Soldier Settlement Board make a revaluation of the property of all such soldiers so relinquishing farming, in order that such settlers may be able to obtain some return for the improvements effected by them."

"Resolution by Victoria unit that, when appointments are made by the Civil Service Commission, heads of departments should not be permitted to refuse a successful candidate admission on account of age, without referring first to the commissioner."

At the close of the debate, Major Ryan, of Calgary, withdrew his amendment, and, on the following day, at the morning session, the chairman of the amalgamation committee read and handed in the full resolution:

"Whereas the Army and Navy Veterans in Canada, in convention assembled at Toronto, 1921, went on record in favor of the amalgamation of all ex-service men, subject to certain conditions, namely: That the organization be non-political, non-partisan and non-sectarian, and that the qualifications of membership be not below the standard set by the Army and Navy Veterans in Canada, and that the best interests of the older members of the said Army and Navy Veterans be fully conserved, and

"Whereas, in the guarantee of the said resolution, the board of directors proceeded to carry out same, and although certain progress along these lines has been made, especially in regard to the good work accomplished by the Dominion Veterans' Alliance, provincial and sub-provincial councils in the matters pertaining to legislation, yet such amalgamation has not been consummated, and

"Whereas the Army and Navy Veterans in Canada are still in favor of amalgamation as above set forth, and are willing to co-operate and discuss the question with other veterans' organizations;

"Be it resolved that this convention is of opinion that the activities of this association should be pressed energetically, with a view to increasing their usefulness, and enlarging their scope of influence, in order to further the aims and objects of the association in the interests of ex-service men."

"On this being put to the convention, it was unanimously carried."

Amalgamation

"At the close of the debate, Major Ryan, of Calgary, withdrew his amendment, and, on the following day, at the morning session, the chairman of the amalgamation committee read and handed in the full resolution:

BRITISH WIG ETIQUETTE

London, Oct. 12. — The etiquette which here governs the wearing of the legal wig is weird and mysterious, and awful things may happen to the lawyer who disregards this etiquette, for a judge may then refuse to hear him and order him out of court.

H. F. Macmillan is one of the for-temporarily wigged lawyer and gave an amusing exhibition the other day of his thorough mastery of the etiquette of the wig.

He had to argue an appeal at the bar of the House of Lords. He also had to oppose a private bill in committee upstairs. At the bar of the House of Lords it is essential that a K.C. should wear his full bottom wig, otherwise he would be refused a hearing. But before a committee he must wear his bob wig to command a hearing.

At one moment Mr. Macmillan was at the bar of the Lords wearing his full bottom wig, and holding his small bobbed wig in his hand. Presently he appeared upstairs before the committee with his bobbed wig on his head, holding his full bottom wig out of sight behind his back. Four times the change had to be made as the K.C. ran up or down the stairs. He proved himself to be a lightning change artist as well as something of a sprinter. When he had finished, however, he was convinced that he had well earned his fee.

FOG TIES UP LAKE SHIPPING

Navigation at Thunder Bay Practically Suspended

Fort William, Ont., Oct. 12.—On account of fog, navigation in and about Thunder Bay and in the harbors of Fort William and Port Arthur and generally over Lake Superior was practically suspended early yesterday morning and shipping was still marking time at a late hour yesterday afternoon.

Of the cargoes reported cleared yesterday most of them are in ships sounding their fog sirens at anchor in Thunder Bay. Of thirteen reported loading the ones that can load without shifting between the elevators are being loaded. On others operations are suspended because the fog has been so dense that skippers have generally refused to move from the wharves.

Wireless reports are to the effect that similar conditions prevail generally over the lake and in the reaches that ships are merely feeling their way. Along the south shore smoke from scores of forest fires is adding to the density of the prevailing fog.

Grain to the amount of 2,560,000 bushels was technically cleared yesterday. In the list were 1,000,000 States boats with cargoes totalling 942,000 bushels. The W. Grant-Morden's cargo of 495,000 bushels was the big one of the day. The only one United States boat was in the due light for grain section.

Pacific Line to Have Connections With Other Lines

Seattle, Oct. 12.—With the opening of the intercoastal service of the Panama Pacific Line, starting with the sailing from New York City of the passenger liner Kronland October 15, Seattle and other coast points will be brought into closer touch with the Atlantic Coast, European, Mediterranean ports, and connections made by the Panama-Pacific Line with other routes. It was stated in shipping circles here yesterday.

Frank J. Stapleton, formerly agent for the Admiral Line at Tacoma, has been named general freight agent for the McCormick Steamship Company at Seattle, it was announced yesterday.

The steamship Queen, with 260 passengers and 25,000 cases of canned salmon, arrived from southern Alaska points last night, and after discharging, will be retired from service for the winter period.

In the service of the Isthmian Line, the steamship Steel Engineer will reach here from New York Monday, according to advices received yesterday. The vessel has about 1,500 tons of freight for Seattle, including a consignment of steel for a new hotel under construction.

WIRELESS MEN SAW FEDERAL MINISTER

Delegation Complains to Hon. Ernest Lapointe Over Pay

Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, met a delegation of the Government wireless operators of the coast on Wednesday and promised full consideration of their troubles when he returned to Ottawa.

The principal cause of complaint among the wireless men is that concerning the regular yearly increase that have been expected. Some of the men—nearly all being those who served in the war—claim that their wages have not come. In some cases the delay extends over two years.

Many protests have been made recently, and the Government informed the old service men that they would be considered as of the civil service since April last. Such action at once deprives them of the "increase" that has been expected for year of two, and the interview with the Minister was the result.

The pay of the Government wireless operators is not high in some cases it is less than that of ordinary railway or commercial telegraphers, though the wireless men are required to know both the wireless and the wire codes, and to understand fully all the operations of gas engines used in operating wireless plants. The highest wages paid any of the coast government wireless men is not equal to that which a longshoreman would receive for a full day handling wheat.

TRANSPACIFIC CONFERENCE ENDS

San Francisco, Oct. 12.—Addition of the West Manwah, a shipping board freighter to the Struthers & Barry line, will give that company nine cargo carriers in the trans-Pacific service. The West Manwah recently was allocated to the line.

The transpacific passenger conference has adjourned after a two-day session without settling the question of whether liners will stop at Yokohama. The case of tickets for that city is to be optional with each line, but for the present bookings for Japan will continue to be sold for Kobe, it was decided.

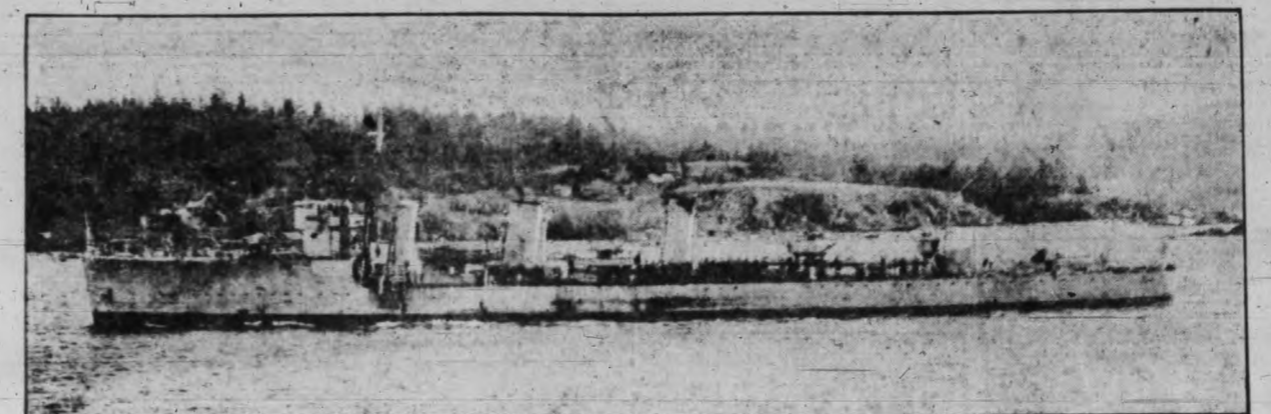

The steamer Admiral Evans, which arrived here Wednesday from Seattle, will go on the Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles run, sailing for the north on her new schedule to-day. She replaces the steamer Admiral Schuyler, which will be taken up a week here undergoing repairs.

Fire in No. 2 hold of the freighter steamer Vessel Dollar, which caused the vessel to turn back here Tuesday night, is under control, according to radio advices received here from Captain Wilkes, master of the vessel. The Stanley Dollar is expected to arrive here some time to-day.

With the sailing next Tuesday of the steamer Arakani, which arrived yesterday from Sourabaya and other Far Eastern ports, for the return trip via Portland, the services of the Java-Pacific Company will be discontinued on the Pacific Coast as far as sailings to Pacific ports on the coast are concerned.

The Newport News Shipbuilding Company has been awarded the contract for reconditioning the steamer Woonsocket, recently purchased from the United States Shipping Board by the Matson Navigation Company for service out of San Francisco to Hawaii. It was announced here yesterday. The work, it is understood, will cost approximately $100,000.

KENNECOTT IS A TOTAL LOSS

Algerine Will Salvage Only the Cargo; Vessel's Hull is Damaged

Seattle, Oct. 12.—Messages to the Alaska Steamship Company yesterday announced the virtual abandonment of the motorship Kennecott, which went ashore on Hippa Island Tuesday night, and the vessel is given up as a total loss. A message from Capt. John A. Johnson, master, reported the position of the vessel, such as to prevent salvage owing to the great damage done by the action of the tides, together with the weight of the ship, laden as she is with 6,000 tons of copper ore. According to Captain Johnson he and eight men are standing by the ship awaiting the coming of the Canadian salvage motorship Algerine, which will attempt the salvaging of some of the Kennecott's copper.

CONTRABAND WAS FOUND ON EMPRESS OF AUSTRALIA

Customs Officers Make Big Seizure Before Vessel Left For Orient. Liner Left at 6 o'Clock This Morning; Was Held up by Fog Last Night.

Outbound for the Orient the Canadian Pacific passenger liner Empress of Australia left Victoria this morning with a large passenger list and her holds containing a capacity cargo. This is her first trip to the Orient since her experience in the Japanese earthquake. Before leaving Vancouver yesterday a seizure was made by customs officials. The largest seizure of contraband arms that has been seized on any outgoing vessel for months was made when the Empress of Australia was loading. Fifty-six pistols and 40,000 rounds of ammunition were collected in the net that was being loaded with cargo to go aboard the liner. The smuggled arms were found in baggage packages bearing names of fictitious persons. This is the second seizure of this kind that has been made on the Empress of Australia. The last was made in Victoria when ammunition was discovered packed in orange boxes. The Empress of Australia got away from Victoria at 6 o'clock this morning having remained at the Outer Wharf all night owing to fog in the straits. No contraband was encountered in loading the vessel on account of the longshoremen's strike.

The following are the prominent passengers which left on the vessel this morning: The Rt. Rev. John Holden, M.A., D.D.; Mrs. Allan Cameron, wife of the Oriental manager of the Canadian Pacific, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Beatrice Grant; Judge and Mrs. Edward Gray, of Dallas, Texas; Hon. T. Ohta, Japanese consul at Ottawa; Messrs. E. S. H. and L. Kadoore, Shanghai business men, and Professor S. J. Schofield, of the University of British Columbia, who will begin geological survey work at Hongkong by arrangement with Dean Brock of the university, who has been commissioned by the Hongkong government to make such survey of the colony.

The system by which each organization is associated with the Armories Period Committee is working splendidly and the patients there know which organization will visit them in turn and are ready to receive them.

FRASER MUST BE CLOSED TO SAVE FISH, SLOAN SAYS

United States Largely Responsible For International Crime of Sockeye Depletion, He Tells Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Urging Negotiations For International Protective Treaty

By its failure to agree to protective measures the United States is largely responsible for the "international crime" of allowing the huge sockeye run of the Fraser River to be almost entirely depleted, Hon. William Sloan, Commissioner of Fisheries for British Columbia, told Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Federal Minister of Marine and Fisheries, at a lengthy conference this morning.

The only way to save the sockeye of the Fraser is to forbid fishing on the river for twenty or twenty-five years by an international agreement, Mr. Sloan assured Mr. Lapointe. As far as sockeye are concerned the Fraser is fished out, and this year the spawning beds are unseeded, he declared. He strongly urged Mr. Lapointe to continue negotiations with the United States for a fisheries protection pact.

The run of salmon in the Fraser River, it was pointed out to the Federal Minister, no longer is a leading factor in the salmon industry of the Province. This year the combined sockeye salmon in British Columbia and adjacent waters was less than 75,000 cases, Mr. Sloan stated. In 1913 the run of sockeye gave a combined provincial and American sockeye catch of over 2,500,000 cases, he pointed out.

These figures, Mr. Sloan said, were sufficient to substantiate his assertion that the Fraser River, as far as sockeye are concerned, is fished out. There was no doubt, Mr. Sloan agreed, that the Americans were largely responsible because of their failure to accede to overtures from this side of the line, having in view the fact that the Americans were permitted to develop, and even now, Mr. Sloan declared, nothing should be overlooked in the endeavor to come to an understanding with the American authorities. Restriction of sockeye fishing in American and Canadian western waters even yet, in the case of the Fraser, is a necessary condition for the restoration of the "run," while persistency in the present policy would sound the death knell of the sockeye salmon industry in a very near future, Mr. Sloan added.

Herring Fisheries

In regard to the herring fisheries which are being developed by great numbers of residents in some parts of Vancouver Island, Mr. Lapointe was reminded that some agitation was developing for the opening of the waters of Departure Bay to purse seine nets. These waters had been closed as a result of the recommendation of a recent Royal Commission which had come to the Province and investigated the matter. If the Department of Marine and Fisheries was disposed to reconsider this decision Mr. Sloan would be glad to discuss the matter with the Provincial Department of Fisheries.

Atlantic Salmon Used

Mr. Sloan also directed attention to the catching last year of eight adult Atlantic salmon in the Cowichan River, and expressed the view that the Dominion should increase its efforts to establish these great game and food fish in all island streams. It was important, too, that action should be taken, Mr. Sloan said, towards establishing eastern whitefish in the Okanagan, Kootenay and of the great lakes of the Fraser River basin. The adoption of such a policy, he said, would be likely to stimulate the development of an important food industry in the mainland interior without risk of damage to the native fish of these waters.

Quotes Harding's Warning

Mr. Sloan directed the attention of Hon. Mr. Lapointe to a striking statement made by the late President Harding shortly before his death with reference to the salmon fisheries of the Pacific Northwest. This statement follows:

"The greatest Alaskan industry stands in an entirely different relation than either gold or copper. It is not a resource which can be exhausted. It is a resource which produces wealth producing potency far beyond the mines. In fact the fisheries produce is now in value more than the entire output of Alaska's minerals. It is too great for the good of the territory, for if it shall continue without more general and effective regulation, it will presently exhaust the fish and leave no basis for the industry."

"The progressive disappearance of salmon is a constant from California northward is a story whose repetition ought to warn us to protect it in Alaska before it is too late. The salmon pan is not only represents nine-tenths of the output of Alaska's commercial fisheries, but it is an important contribution to our national food supply."

"It is vastly more easy to declare for protection and conservation of such a resource than to formulate a practicable and equitable programme. Fish hatcheries have been established to restore the depleted stocks, but still conjectural and controversial. Argument is advanced for the abolition of one method of fishing in one spot, the condemnation of another type in another, and so on until there is a confusion of local controversies which no specific and exclusive prohibition will solve."

MAKE DONATION TO JUBILEE HOSPITAL

Army and Navy Veterans Grant $100; Form Sub-Committee of Alliance

The formation of a Vancouver Island branch of the Dominion Veterans' Alliance was endorsed at a meeting of the Victoria unit of the Army and Navy Veterans' Alliance last night. An address on the subject had been given by Commander Despard Twigg, of the Victoria unit, and the formation of the branch was the result of the discussions which followed. The sub-committee of the Dominion Veterans' Alliance, which was formed at the meeting, will be in charge of the collection of the $100 grant.

The same two delegates were also named to represent the Victoria unit at the Provincial convention of the organization to be held in Vancouver, B.C., when delegates from each of the seven branches in British Columbia will meet. The delegates from the Victoria unit are G. H. Sedger, as soldier advocate for the island, but the matter was left in abeyance until the meeting of the sub-committee of the Dominion Veterans' Alliance.

A donation of $100 was made to the Jubilee Hospital building fund.

PATRICIAN WILL GO ON CRUISE

Taking A. Johnston to Barkley Sound Before Leaving For Prince Rupert

Nearing the end of their season, the R.C.N.V.R. men from the Pacific Islands, who came here for the training period, will take a last cruise before breaking up until the next year's training season.

The H.M.C.S. Thiepsal left at 9 o'clock this morning on her cruise up the west coast of Vancouver Island and across Queen Charlotte Sound to Prince Rupert. After a short stay at Prince Rupert, the Thiepsal will return to the Esquimalt base, coming down by the inside channel. While on this cruise the R.C.N.V.R. men will go through various exercises and will be given gunnery practice.

Patrician To Sail

H.M.C.S. Patrician, before leaving on the same trip, will take Alexander Johnston, deputy minister of marine, on a trip to Barkley Sound. It is expected that the Patrician will leave on Sunday for her cruise around Vancouver Island and to Prince Rupert.

Some changes have been made since the first plans were formulated. The Armentieres will not go on the H.M.C.S. Patrician, neither will the Thiepsal accompany the Patrician.

Leaves To-Morrow

The Deputy Minister will commence his trip to Barkley Sound on the H.M.C.S. Patrician tomorrow morning and will arrive in Victoria again on Saturday night.

PRETTY WEDDING AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

Nuptials of Miss Marie Meiss and R. N. Penman on Wednesday

One of the prettiest of the Fall weddings was solemnized at St. John's Church on Wednesday when Miss Marie Meiss and Mr. Robert Penman were united in the bonds of matrimony. The Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick performed the ceremony and Mr. G. Jennings Burnett presided at the organ.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Mr. Roy Shields, looked lovely in a gown of white georgette crepe embroidered in pearls, over satin. Her veil was of embroidered tulle held in place with a coronet of orange blossoms, and her bouquet was a shower of bridal roses.

Her only attendant was Mrs. Roy Shields, who made a charming matron of honor in a gown of apricot taffeta and silver lace with hat en suite. Her bouquet was of pale pink carnations. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. William Penman, and Mr. W. D. Todd and Mr. Charles Ely were the ushers.

During the signing of the register Mrs. W. D. Todd sang sweetly "Oh, Promise Me."

Following the ceremony a reception was held at 2615 Blackwood Street when many friends extended their felicitations to the happy pair. The rooms were effectively arranged with roses, chrysanthemums and Autumn foliage with the music of the strings occupying the place of honor in the dining-room. Mrs. Emily Meiss, becomingly attired in black satin, assisted in receiving the guests.

During the evening vocal selections were given by Mrs. E. Patterson, Mrs. David Leeming and Mrs. W. D. Todd.

The groom's gift to the bride was a leather traveling case, to the matron of honor, a dinner ring, to the best man and ushers, cuff links.

Mr. and Mrs. Penman left on the midnight boat for Vancouver, the latter wearing a gown of blue crepe de Chine with wrap of grey tulle and feathered toque of blue, and on their return will take up their residence at 2615 Blackwood Street.

Many beautiful presents evidenced the popularity of the young couple, among them being an electric reading lamp from Colfax Rebekah Lodge, No. 1, and a case of silver from Columbia Lodge, No. 2, I.O.O.F.

SISTER OF ST. ANN DIES SUDDENLY

Sister Mary Romuald Had Been Member of Order For Forty-Five Years

Sister Mary Romuald, one of the most beloved members of the Order of St. Ann, passed away suddenly at St. Ann's Academy yesterday afternoon. For forty-five years a member of the Order, which she entered as Miss Anna Lyons, daughter of a well-known pioneer family, Sister Mary Romuald was one of the most efficient educators in the Order. She taught at various centers in the Province and in Alaska before coming to St. Ann's Academy many years ago, where she continued on the teaching staff until failing health necessitated the relinquishment of her duties.

While she had been in excellent health for some time, the end came with unexpected suddenness from heart failure yesterday afternoon. Sister Mary Romuald, besides a wide circle of friends throughout the Province, is survived by two sisters, Sister Sister Mary Etheldreda and Sister Mary Priscilla, as well as relatives in Seattle and other American cities. Her funeral will take place to-morrow morning, High Requiem Mass, sung by Monsignor Lacombe, chaplain of the Academy. Interment will be made in the Sisters' plot in Ross Bay Cemetery.

Speaking as Minister of Marine, Mr. Lapointe used the warning and beckoning beacon lights along the coast as allegory for the Canadian Club.

"Let your clubs be lights to show the road to honest, loyal and patriotic citizenship," he said in closing.

RUMOR BEATTY MAY BE AMBASSADOR

Report Admiral May Succeed Geddes as British Representative in U.S.

London, Oct. 12.—A rumor that Earl Beatty, First Sea Lord, is to be offered the post of British Ambassador to the United States in succession to Sir Auckland Geddes is current in naval circles. According to The Daily Mirror, the story is that the authorities want the Earl out of the way because of his strong opposition to the proposal for a reduction in the pay of the navy next year.

Another report that Sir Eustace Fiennes, Governor of the Leeward Islands, is likely to replace Sir Auckland appears in The Daily Sketch. This newspaper asserts, however, that the Ambassador's health has so much improved that he probably will return to Washington in December, although the possibility that he will not gives room for speculation as to his successor.

World's Tennis Champion Discusses International Tennis Ranking

By William Tilden
What is the logical basis for a world ranking in tennis? The more I see of international competition, or even of inter-sectional competition in a big country, the more I realize how hard it is to use comparative scores as a sound basis. Consider for a moment the 1923 season. Billy Johnston goes to Europe and wins the hard and turf court championships of the world. Yet the team of English girls comes to America, after sweeping the Americans of English courts, and cannot win even one match in the international tie for the "Weightman Cup."

Why did Johnston win and the English girls lose? My answer is summed up in this: A player must surpass his field, yet Mrs. Mallory has an imagination that inspires him under the new conditions. Little Bill Johnston outclassed the field at St. Cloud, N.Y., "Wimbledon," only Richards and Norton even approached him. Even at that, Johnston had great difficulty at St. Cloud, losing sets to men he should and would easily defeat abroad.

frankly believe that no player should be seriously considered until he has swept the field under the old conditions. That is why I would discount the first weeks of the Californians in the East or the Easterners on the hard courts of the Golden Gate. That is why I would not rank any Californian who does not play East.

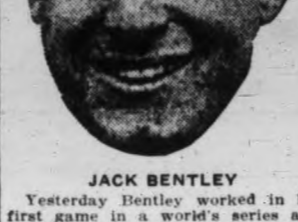

Does Not Agree With Suzanne
Miss Suzanne Lenglen did not consider that Mrs. Mallory was in the class of Miss McKane and Mrs. Beamsish, of the head of our national champion, who has beaten Miss McKane four times and Mrs. Beamsish three, all in straight sets since they arrived in America. What does Miss Lenglen want? Doubtless, she also feels Miss Helen Wills is hardly first class since our little national champion swept all before her here, yet Mrs. Mallory would journey to America and meet Miss Wills and Mrs. Mallory on their home courts before making such sweeping statements. I do not believe any woman can defeat Miss Lenglen on her own courts, a matter which has been borne in on me and forced me to change my opinion of some years ago, by Miss Lenglen's great record, but I do think she would meet worthy opposition and defeat in America at the hands of both Miss Wills and Mrs. Mallory.

If I were ranking the American women, I would place Helen Wills at the head of our national champion, with all congratulations to a magnificent tennis player. If I were to make a world's ranking, I would be forced to give precedence to Mrs. Mallory over Miss Wills, as I am convinced that she would do better abroad than Miss Wills, and her record against the English team was far superior. Might I suggest the following world's ranking:

- 1. Miss Lenglen.
2. Mrs. Mallory.
3. Miss Wills.
4. Miss B. McKane.
5. Miss Ryan.
6. Miss Gossh.
7. Mrs. Beamsish.
8. Mrs. Satterthwaite.
9. Mrs. Wills.
10. Mrs. Clayton.

Jack Bentley
Yesterday Bentley worked in his first game in a world's series and he showed that he has the stuff. During the last five innings of the game he let the Yankees down with five hits and one run, which is good enough pitching for any one. Bentley joined the Giants late this Spring after refusing to report owing to salary differences with McGraw. He did not show much in his early starts but as the season wore along and he got into shape he began to bring the Giant's through. Not only is he a good pitcher but he can soak the ball. He may come through with a win in this series yet.

Gibson Will Refuse To Come to Victoria

Calgary Centre Ice Man Who Figured In Trade For Eddie Oatman Changes His Mind After Signing Contract With Lester Patrick; Cougar Manager Awaits Official Word

Calgary, Oct. 12.—The first big muddle in the hockey trading whirl that has created so much interest throughout the West in the course of the past few weeks has come to light in the refusal of Jimmy Gibson, centre man of the Calgary Tigers, to go to Victoria, where he has been traded for Eddie Oatman, former Cougar captain.

Gibson stated definitely here yesterday afternoon that he would not go to the coast. He has a good position in Calgary and has decided to stay with it, rather than to quit his post for the Winter months and lose his place in business.

That is definite and final so far as I am concerned," he declared. "I am not going to Victoria, even if it means that I am through with professional hockey for good."

Has Changed His Mind
Gibson signed a contract with Lester Patrick when the coast promoter was here recently, but since that time he has changed his mind, and even if it means permanent expulsion from organized hockey, Gibson is prepared to accept the verdict.

Last Winter Gibson stood second in the scoring averages of the Tigers in the Western Canada League. He turned pro to play with Calgary, coming here from Brandon, where he headed the Manitoba League scorers in amateur circles. He is a young player, clever with the stick, an accurate and fast shot, and a very promising prospect.

The news of Gibson's refusal to report to Victoria came as a surprise to Lester Patrick, manager of the Cougars, when he was informed by The Times this morning of the contents of the above wire.

"I have not time to make a present," remarked Lester. "Gibson signed his contract and was quite satisfied with all the terms. I had a conference with him in Calgary and both he and Speck offered no objections, Gibson particularly being anxious to come to Victoria. I will await word from Lloyd Turner, manager of the Cougars, before commenting on this matter."

Simonich substituted for Sailor Friedman of Chicago, who was to have boxed Mitchell, but was confined to a hospital recovering from the effects of a beating he received here at the hands of three men, none of whom have been located by the police. Friedman's condition was reported much improved last night.

GREB OUTPOINTED
Boston, Oct. 12.—Tommy Loughran, of Philadelphia, was awarded the decision over Harry Greb, world's middleweight champion, after a ten-round bout here last night. The men fought at catch weight in the first round, but Loughran weighed 185 pounds and Greb 165.

VICTORIA CHESS CLUB LOSES TO VANCOUVER
On Wednesday six members of the Victoria Chess Club played a match with six of the North Vancouver club. The latter, which lost to Victoria last year, this time completely reversed matters and won by five games to one. The Victoria players were: Dr. Young, who lost to Mr. Stark; Mr. Gonnason, who lost to Mr. Ewing, the British Columbia champion, who put up a strong fight; Mr. Barker, who lost to Mr. Miller; Mr. Erout, of Victoria, who his game easily; Messrs. Meyers and Marchant, who also lost their games, have not yet received the names of their opponents.

It was announced that Mr. Gonnason, who has for many years been such a liberal and consistent supporter of the game, would present a challenge cup to be called the Gonnason Cup, to be played for every year by teams of not less than six, or more than ten members of British Columbia chess clubs, the first games to be played in Victoria. It is confidently expected that this generous action will help to encourage this game and stimulate interest in the game in this Province.

Horrible Breaks Have Decided Some Series

Christy Mathewson Was Victim of One of Toughest Breaks in History of World's Series; Detroit Club's Chances Ruined in 1907 When Catcher Dropped Third Strike and Allowed Batter to Reach First

Speaking of tough breaks in a world series, give me your ear. The 1912 world series between the Boston Red Sox and the New York Giants will go down into history as one of the greatest of all baseball events. The Red Sox got away to a flying start and it seemed as if the series would be over in five games at the most. Then the Giants, with their backs to the wall, shifted from tight baseball to a running game and evened up the series.

The final game of the series, eight games being played, one resulting in a tie, was staged at Boston. The Red Sox won the game and with it the series, but never in all baseball did a pitcher get a tougher break than did the great Christy Mathewson.

It was in that series that Smedgrass muffed fly ball that gave the Sox the chance to tie. A moment later Catcher Myers and First Baseman Merkle permitted a foul fly to drop safe and gave the Sox another opportunity. Then a pinch hitter, with two strikes on him, sent a rounder down the third base line that was fair by inches only, deciding the ball game.

PRINCE OF WALES WENT SHOPPING IN CITY OF MONTREAL

Montreal, Oct. 12.—Lord Renfrew went shopping here yesterday and his excursion into the uptown retail district formed one of the features of his day's programme. He also paid some informal calls, made a brief visit to the Royal Victoria Hospital, took a walk, played racquets, dined at the Mount Royal Club as a guest of E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and afterward went to a dance. At the racquet court his opponent was Major Arthur Chipman, with whom he engaged in several sets of squash. After this he returned to lunch at the Ritz-Carlton, taking a table in the main restaurant. Later in the afternoon he motored to various points of interest with Commander J. K. L. Ross. No golf was played.

Always ready—always as rich and as good as the day it is drawn from fine, healthy cows. Your grocer can supply you any time. There are four convenient sizes.

KENTUCKY SUE IS PAINTAGES OFFERING

Miss Phyllis Betteridge in Singing and Dance Number, Will be Added Attraction

Between acts at the Macy and Boney show to-night at the Pantages Theatre Miss Phyllis Betteridge, a local artist of promise, will appear as an added attraction to the regular performance of "Kentucky Sue." Miss Betteridge will introduce a singing and dancing number that will be quite an addition to the regular programme.

"Kentucky Sue" tells the story of a New York Society man who, while on a hunting trip in the Kentucky mountains, meets and falls in love with an unsophisticated little mountain girl.

He marries her and takes her to New York, but she is snubbed at every turn by his society friends, and even her husband tires of her un-south manners, and in desperation she leaves him and goes back to Kentucky.

After she leaves the husband realizes how much he cares for her and follows, although he knows her mountain friends will shoot him on sight.

The climax is very interesting and exciting, and altogether "Kentucky Sue" will provide an entertaining evening.

A bargain matinee to-morrow at 15c for children and 25c for adults will also prove quite an added drawing card.

There will have to be a radical adjustment of the financial system. Money, which is at present the master of industry, will have to become the servant. The national credit resources will have to be made available so that the full potentialities of production may be drawn upon and industry be enabled to fulfill its primary purpose of satisfying the needs of the community.

We have, within the borders of the Dominion, all the prime essentials to a considerable expansion, with the exception that the banking system is defective. Credit is the great energizer of industry. It is the life blood of the system. Restricted credit and the industrial circulation becomes stagnant, followed by unemployment and bankruptcy.

The creation of credit is a banking monopoly, and one which often functions detrimentally to the public interest. The banker sells money and, desirous of securing the greatest profit from the operation, always keeps it in scarce supply so that he may obtain the greater price for its use. But this policy is not in accord with the best interests of the community, which lie in easy access to all the credit necessary for the full utilization of industrial facilities at a low rate.

In his evidence before the British House of Commons in 1858, Mr. Neave, governor of the Bank of England at that date, frankly admitted this opposition of interests. He said: "The Bank of England's profits are greatest when the distress of the mercantile classes is greatest. This is a very candid admission by a great banker and ought to prove illuminating."

Inflation and deflation are two phases of a policy by means of which the banks are rapidly expanding their control of industry, and the instruments by which the powerful banks are gaining possession of the assets of members and forcing consolidation. Lending cheap money and demanding to be repaid in dear money may be said to be the bank's "trick" of certainty bad for industry. But the defects in the financial system go deeper than this.

The remedy lies in a democratic control of industrial policy—as distinct from administration—which is to-day resident in finance, may be placed in the hands of consumers. Were the financial system so adjusted, agriculture and all other essential industries would be put on a permanently remunerative basis. Expansion would take place naturally and progressively. Capital would be available to meet requirements, and there would be no difficulty experienced in getting our immigrants, as Canada would then truly be a land of great opportunities.

One feels somewhat ashamed to read of our Premier almost begging for British capital in London when, if he only realized it, and had courage to face the issue, we have all the essentials for the production of all the capital we need within the country.

It is high time our financial house was put in order so that we might free ourselves from the vicious habit we have got into of going borrowing to London and New York. The success of the recent Dominion loan gives a slight indication of what might be done, but under existing conditions this capacity is limited.

HERBERT MILNE,
121 Oswego Street, October 10, 1923.

REFORM PLANS

Seattle, Oct. 12.—The Seattle Council of Churches yesterday scored a victory when the Board of County Commissioners, through Commissioner Tom Dobson, announced it would revoke all outstanding permits allowing road houses to operate after 1 o'clock and that no further permits would be issued. A committee from the Ministerial Council appealed to the commissioners Wednesday.

FEWER STUDENTS SPURN HIGH SCHOOL, STATISTICS SHOW

Chicago, Oct. 12.—If the boy or girl who formerly "quit school" at the end of the seventh or eighth grade is not actually becoming extinct his ranks are being decimated annually, according to reports covering an average ten-year period compiled from the offices of public instruction in ten central states.

The percentage of increased high school attendance for the period was taken as the medium for estimate. The average increase figure for the decade was found to be 55.4 per cent, with extremes ranging between 1,000 per cent, the figure reported by Oklahoma, to forty per cent, that of Iowa.

While the figures do not unqualifiedly represent the increased proportion of grade school students entering high schools—the factor of increasing population applying largely in newer states—they do indicate that the former gulf existing between the eighth grade and high school gradually is being eliminated.

In Oklahoma, according to a statement issued by Luther Russell, state high school inspector, the increase in eleven years from 1910 to 1921 was from 6,125 to 62,021, or 1,000 per cent. Figures supplied by the department of education of Kentucky set the increase from 11,856 in 1913, to 26,000 in 1923—an advance of 203 per cent, while in South Dakota the total number of high school students in 1922, 19,683, represented a jump of 182 per cent from the 7,509 enrolled in 1912.

Vernon M. Reigel, state director of education for Ohio, gave the increase in that state as 120 per cent, an advance from 80,669, the figure for 1912, to 178,705, that for 1922.

Voicing the belief that the showing in his state was particularly good in view of the strong call of the many industries of the state "for boys to get out of school into work," Thomas

E. Johnson, superintendent of public instruction of Michigan, reported the increase there at from 49,466 in 1912, to 106,486 in 1922, an increase of 115 per cent.

High school attendance in Kansas has increased 86 per cent during the last ten years, according to J. W. Miley, state superintendent of public instruction, who placed the figure for total attendance in 1913 at 39,032 compared with 72,774 in 1922.

A jump of seventy per cent in high school attendance from 1913 to 1923 was reported by Leonard E. Job, assistant state superintendent of public instruction in Indiana. The exact increase was given as from 59,822 in 1913 to an estimated total of 101,425 in the latter year. Compulsory attendance up to the age of sixteen years was given principal credit for the good showing.

The per cent of increase during the last decade for Illinois was set at forty-two by Francis G. Blair, state superintendent of public instruction. Total high school enrollment in 1912 was 74,663 and in 1922, 107,097.

"Bringing the high school to the pupil" by means of establishing rural high schools in connection with consolidated schools and merging the eighth grades with the high school by creation of junior high schools is noted by Miss May E. Francis, state superintendent of public instruction of Iowa, as influencing the greater proportional gain in high school attendance in that state during the last decade. Between 1910 and 1920 the enrollment grew from 45,235 to 63, 217, an advance of forty per cent, she said.

Texas proved no exception. In the five-year period since 1918 the increase in high school attendance has been thirty-five per cent, or a growth from 125,000 to 175,000 in the period, according to S. M. N. Marra, state superintendent of public instruction. Figures issued by the state department of education of Wisconsin, with offices in Madison, set the increase there at 81 per cent, or a gain of from 40,912 in 1912 to 74,422 in 1922.

Among the many noted stars appearing in Daniel Carson Goodman's great production "What's Wrong With the Women" now thrilling big audiences at the Royal Theatre with its powerful and unusual treatment of the greatest of human problems, is Hedda Hopper, wife of the noted star, De Wolf Hopper.

Fresh from her triumphs on the stage in "Six Cylinder Love," one of the outstanding Broadway hits of the year, Miss Hopper's finished playing gives a touch of distinction to the Goodman drama. As an adventuress whose honeyed promises lure the wife of a young business man into the fast set of New York, Miss Hopper invests her role with all the skill that has established her as one of the important young stars of the metropolitan stage. Others in the cast are Constance Bennett, beautiful young daughter of Richard Bennett, Montague

Three years ago Mary Phibin was a little Chicago High School girl. A beauty contest was being conducted by the Edna and a boy friend entered Mary's picture. When the final vote was taken Mary was awarded second place, but she won something more, a chance to show what she could do on the screen.

Carl Laemmle, president of Universal Pictures Corporation, looked over her screen test, then gave orders to put her through a careful course of study. Three years of hard work and then she was given her chance—the leading feminine role in "Merry-Go-Round"—and she made good! Well, just drop into the Dominion Theatre where "Merry-Go-

IF WINTER COMES

The WILLIAM FOX screen version of A.S.M. Hutchinson's famous novel
A HARRY MILLARDE Production

Filmed in England on the exact locations in the story

"Round" is having its local engagement this week and judge for yourself.

The stellar male role is ideally handled by Norman Kerry, while an imposing list of talent is seen in the featured parts. The scene of the picture is laid in "The Prater" of Vienna, which is in the same class as America's famous Coney Island. It is a production that you will regret missing.

BIG DRURY LANE
SUCCESS COMING TO
ROYAL ON MONDAY

"The Sporting Earl," which is the attraction at the Royal next week, is one of the big English Drury Lane melodramas. The story centres around Sir Horace Pilkington, baronet, who leaves his nephew a racing stable without a penny to run it on. The horse included in the stable is Cheerio 'Arf a Mo, known throughout English sporting circles as the fastest and gamest horse that ever went over the Ascot water jump.

NEW ATMOSPHERE
IN STAGING OF
"IF WINTER COMES"

Harry Millarde, who went to England to direct the William Fox screen version of "If Winter Comes," which comes to the Capitol Theatre next week, hoped to make this, his first picture set in any but American atmosphere, his best. With this end in view he conferred with author, A. S. M. Hutchinson, on the scenario, and fully mastered the atmosphere of the book before starting on the actual filming.

Several times he wished he could master the English "atmosphere," as the weather was frequently far from suitable for exterior scenes. Taking advantage of a clear morning, Millarde, accompanied by Percy Marnont and his assistants, set off for a little village which was to be the Pennygreen of the picture.

On arriving at the chosen location—a quiet little village which dates back several centuries—Millarde instructed the cameraman to take up his position in front of the inn and proceeded to rehearse a scene. Before it could be "shot," the sky became overcast and a downpour of rain sent the moving picture people scurrying into the taproom. Director Millarde, impatient at the delay, paced nervously up and down and was advised by his companion to sit down and make himself comfortable until the storm was over.

The director indignantly refused and added a caustic comment to the effect that he was aware that the others would not mind how often they were driven to cover by the rain—so long as the nearest harbor of refuge was the taproom of well-stocked inn.

"GREEN GODDESS"
MOST SPECTACULAR
SCREEN DRAMA

Oriental-atmosphere dominates "The Green Goddess," the spectacular photodrama coming to the Dominion next week with George Arliss starred and Alice Joyce in the leading feminine role. When Distinctive Pictures Corporation decided to make the screen version of this Broadway stage success, it employed Roshanara, interpreter of East Indian dances, as technical adviser for all of the Indian costumes, sets and customs which are essential to the piece. Roshanara had done this work for the Winthrop Ames stage production in which Mr. Arliss played for two years on Broadway and then toured for another year.

Though the daughter of English parents, Roshanara was born in India, where she spent the most of her life, studying the exquisite poise and grace of Eastern women, and learning beautiful dances.

Throughout Kipling's land of Kim, and within sound of the temple bells of Burma and Ceylon, she has danced, and she has the distinction of being the only European woman to perform the intricate dances of the country before Indian Rajahs.

MANY MEN HUNT TRAIN BANDITS

An hour after the holdup of Southern Pacific train No. 13 near Siskiyou and the killing of four members of the crew yesterday afternoon was received by the sheriff here to-day. According to those who said they saw the car, there were three men in the rear seat with their heads covered with a blanket, and two in the front seat.

When Southern Pacific train No. 13, en route from Portland, Oregon, to San Francisco, was held up at one o'clock yesterday afternoon at tunnel No. 14, near Siskiyou, California, four trainmen were killed by the bandits. The dead Sid Bates, engineer; Marvin Sing, fireman; C. O. Johnson, brakeman; and James Dougherty, mail clerk. The scene is fifteen miles south of Ashland.

It was declared afterwards that at least four bandits had participated in the part of them had boarded the train at Siskiyou. Apparently they flagged the train, bringing it to a standstill, just as the engine and cab merged from the south end of the tunnel. Passengers and trainmen had no intimation of what was taking place as the train slowed down and stopped. A bridge crew was employed in the vicinity and it was thought that possibly repair work was responsible for the train stopping.

Violent Explosion

The explosion, which took place in the mail car, and which was intended to open the safe, was of such force that it tore the car to pieces and all that remained of it was soon enveloped in flames. It was in the mail car that Clerk Dougherty met his fate. It is thought the explosion killed him instantly. Only bits of his body were found afterwards.

The engineer, fireman and brakeman were shot by the bandits. The two former were killed at the engine, while Brakeman Johnson was killed when the train and to the rear of the engine.

That the work of the bandits was bungled is the belief of Sheriff Terrill and railroad authorities. It is believed that the bandits intended to rob only the mail car but the passengers as well, but they lost their heads and the overcharge of explosives foiled their plan.

Search Quickly Started

Word of the holdup and murder was telegraphed to Ashland and within a few minutes a number of officers were pushed to the scene. Automobiles carrying doctors and nurses were also dispatched as quickly as possible.

A few minutes following the departure of the doctors and nurses an alarm was sent out for members of the Fourth Artillery Company, and within a few minutes a detachment of Adams and a detachment of men armed with rifles were en route.

Three of the bandits were seen. The alarm which is due to leave Ashland at 11.10 a.m. and to arrive at Siskiyou at 12.20 p.m., a station in the Siskiyou Mountains, was in charge of Conductor Merritt, who, with the regular brakeman, was at the rear of the train, and both escaped.

Passengers Injured

Several passengers sustained minor injuries from flying glass. Wounded were blown from every car by the force of the explosion, which was of such force that steel locks in the end doors of the express car near the mail car were forced.

Smoke from the burning mail car made it extremely difficult to work with dispatch and hindered the recovery of the remains of Brakeman Johnson.

The remains of James Dougherty, mail clerk, were all consumed by the flames from the ill-fated mail car.

Wounded Avenged

Sheriff Terrill, of Jackson County, and deputies formed several posse and last night scoured the dense mountains near the scene, and watched avenues of escape. It is believed the bandits made their exit from the tunnel through the north entrance.

AN INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE URGED

New York Herald Suggests Limitation of Aircraft and Submarines

Lloyd George's Speeches Create Discussion in U.S.

New York, Oct. 12—(Canadian Press)—The speeches made in Canada by Right Hon. David Lloyd George are being eagerly followed here and throughout the United States. His Toronto speech has created a great deal of discussion, being interpreted by several writers as a warning to Canada that another war is impending.

The Herald says to-day that in his Toronto speech Mr. Lloyd George practically served notice on Canada that another war is brewing in Europe, a war from which Great Britain will not be able to hold aloof.

"That means that Canada will march again, for when the British Empire is seriously threatened, the Dominion will be found, even though there be no conclusion in the equation," it says, adding: "That brings the armament race closer to the United States than it has been heretofore. What hurts Canada hurts the United States indirectly. Whatever hinders the progressive economic development of Canada injures our own economic development, so closely bound together are these two nations."

Conferees Urged

This paper urges the calling of another international conference similar to the Washington Conference, for the limitation of aircraft, poison gas and submarines.

The Times comments on the Toronto speech in a somewhat less pessimistic vein. It takes the view that despite the situation in Europe, the nations do not want a war and will not seriously consider it.

"The Canadian speeches of Mr. David Lloyd George," says The Times, "have thus far been a mixture of gratitude and warning. He exhorts Canada not to believe that the peril of war is forever removed. She may have to do again what she undertook in 1914. As an old observer in the watch tower, he thinks he discerns preparations for a new war which would be more destructive and more horrible than the last."

Sincerity Admitted

The Times believed Mr. Lloyd George is entirely sincere, and that if he has any ulterior motive at all it is in his desire to bring the British Empire together for "his utterances will doubtless have their echo in the Imperial Conference at London."

Imperial Plate Won by Arcade, Rothschild Horse

Kempson Park, Eng., Oct. 12—The Imperial Produce Plate of 3,000 sovereigns, at six furlongs, was won by Anthony de Rothschild's Arcade, by Trainer, out of Doro at 100-3. Aga Khan's Mumtaz Mahal, at 2-9, was second, and Sir Hedworth Meux's Tipsova was third.

It was the first time Mumtaz Mahal, the odds-on favorite, had been beaten. "This grey filly had earned the sobriquet 'The Spotted Wonder' owing to the ease with which she had come home in front in the past."

Dozens of Men Arrested by U.S. Customs Men at Niagara Falls

Niagara Falls, Ont., Oct. 12.—A curious feature has arisen with reference to the arrest by United States customs officials of Mrs. Ruth Dundas, a young married woman of this city, who was found with twenty small packages, believed to contain morphine, hidden under her clothes. She was held on $2,000 bail.

It has been proved, however, that the "dope" was baking soda.

She appeared before United States Commissioner Stockwell yesterday on a different charge—smuggling baking soda in an attempt to evade the tariff. The duty is one-quarter of a cent a pound, so Mrs. Dundas faces a possible sentence of five years in prison and a $100 fine for defrauding the United States Government out of five-sixteenths of a cent.

She was admitted to bail of $500.

Detectives believe that the woman and her fake dope was used as a decoy or "feeler" by the dope ring to test out possibilities of smuggling through a big consignment at the Niagara boundary.

Loss of Life and Damage in Storms

Violent Weather Disturbances in Eastern Asiatic Waters

Leon Choo and Saghalien Scenes of Losses

Tokyo, Oct. 12.—A dispatch from Tachihara, Saghalien, says a severe storm swept the west coast of the island on October 7, and four Japanese steamers anchored at night, and many were stranded. Two of them are reported to have been badly damaged. It has not been learned whether any lives were lost.

Dispatches received in Tokyo said a terrible storm had swept over the city of Naha, Leon Choo (or Liu-Kiu) Islands, Wednesday night, and many persons were missing. The breaker of the city, which is the principal port of the island, and the capital of the Japanese Okinawa Prefecture, was reported to have been destroyed, and all dwellings were surrounded by four feet of water.

The Leon Choo Islands are between Japan and Formosa.

BRITISH FARMERS ARE ASKING AID

Government Called on to Assist During Depression

Baldwin Wants More Information Before Stating Policy

London, Oct. 12—(Canadian Press Cable)—Premier Baldwin received an influential deputation today from the National Farmers' Union of England and Scotland. The deputation described the present plight of the farmers in the United Kingdom and requested Government aid to meet the depression.

An immediate statement of the Government's intentions in the matter was desired, said the leader of the deputation, and he suggested that, failing to obtain Government help, the farmers' unions would have to advise their members "to reduce their food production and resort to pasture or ranch farming wherever possible. He added that there was a tendency along this line already. Since June, 1921, he stated, there had been a decrease of eleven per cent in the number of agricultural workers in Great Britain.

Premier Baldwin requested further information on the subject before announcing the Government's policy on the question of assistance.

DR. SIPPRELL IS BACK FROM EAST

Metropolitan Church Pastor Attended Toronto Conference

Rev. Dr. W. J. Sipprell, pastor of the Metropolitan Church, returned to-day from the East, where he has been serving on the union committee and the mission board of the Methodist Church. Mrs. Sipprell, who attended the Women's Missionary Board in Toronto, accompanied Dr. Sipprell west as far as Cranbrook, where she had an engagement to give an address on missions. She will also speak at Nelson.

Dr. Sipprell states that the meeting of the union committee was a most important one, as it marked the final meeting of an effort that has been carried on for the past twenty years. The meeting of the mission board was of the greatest importance as it considered the work and policy of the church incident to union, of the calamity in Japan and the routine missionary work of the church both at home and abroad.

Dr. Sipprell will greet his congregation here on Sunday morning.

LIBERAL RALLY HEARD AT LONG RANGE OVER RADIO

Western Canada Radio Supply Ltd., Meet Success With "Remote Control"

Under the guidance of K. G. Moffatt, manager for the Western Canada Radio Supply, Ltd., wireless broadcasting by means of remote control was tried successfully in Victoria last night for the first time in the city's history.

Speeches made at the Liberal rally by the Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Federal Minister of Marine and Fisheries; the Hon. John Oliver, Premier of the Provincial Government; M. A. Macdonald, K. C., President of the Provincial Liberal Association; and William Ivel, chairman of the Liberal rally at the Royal Victoria Theatre last night were sent out into space.

Concealed microphones and relayed over a leased wire of the B. C. Telephone Company to the Fort Street broadcasting station of the Western Canada Radio Corporation. Here powerful wireless transmitters picked up the signals and sent crashing into the ether.

A close check was kept on the radio programme by Superintendent E. J. Haughton, of the Dominion Wireless staff, who pronounced the broadcasting by the remote control as excellent. The Gonzales Hill wireless men picked up the signals and enjoyed the programme. Hurlayed over a leased wire of the B.

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia to Overcome Trouble Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion.

Gas and wind in the stomach, accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating, are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion."

Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and acids, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bismarck Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and heat right out of the body, soothe the inflamed lining, neutralize the excess acid and prevent its formation and there is no sourness or pain. Bismarck Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and the best form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.
