SUBJECT: PW Mail

TO : Adjutant General, GHQ, FEC, APO 500

1. Transmitted herewith are four letters from United Nations prisoners of war in Communist custody.

2. Since the four letter inclosures were addressed to foreign countries, namely: England and Ireland, they were initially placed in the foreign mail. They were returned by the British, have been processed by G-2, and are approved for release to postal channels.

3. The prisoner-of-war mail program is classified "Secret" until such time as the mail is released to APO channels for delivery to addressees. Casualty information obtained from the mail may be unclassified, however, the prisoner-of-war mail program conducted by the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2, GHQ remains "Secret".

4. Until the letters are placed in APO channels they will be transmitted as "Secret" material, wrapped accordingly, and a receipt system maintained.

FOR THE ASSISTANT CHIEF OF STAFF, G2:

1 Incl:
Pkg of four(4)ltrs.

MEMO FOR RECORD:

The four letters in question were received with mixed mail from UN PWs. Because the letters were addressed to foreign lands, they were placed in the foreign mail and delivered to the British where they were opened and discovered to be from US personnel. They were returned to AG by British and from AG to G-2 for processing. They have been photostated and may be released.

1. Transmitted herewith is one letter from a UN PW in Communist custody.

2. Since the letter is addressed to "The London Daily Worker", it was originally placed with the foreign mail. Upon learning that the letter was written by an American prisoner of War, the AG Casualty Branch returned the letter for processing. It has been processed and after it has served your purpose may be released.

3. The fact that G2 has had this mail is classified "Secret". All concerned in your section should be cautioned accordingly. Casualty information extracted by you may be unclassified, however, the fact that processing of letters at GHQ is being done remains "Secret". Until such time as the examined letters are placed in APO channels, letters will be transmitted by Secret packaging and a receipt system.
