THE JOHN WANAMAKER STORES 1905 CHRISTMAS CATALOGUE

Have you ever visited Wanamaker's? If you have you know it is the most famous store in the world. At Christmas time the store is doubly attractive. We wish everybody could come and see it in its Holiday beauty. But as for buying, you could scarcely do it yourself better than we will do it for you with your written order before us, and so we print this catalogue for the thousands of people throughout the country who send orders to us by mail. We have carefully selected nearly 1000 articles that seem to us especially suitable for gifts and have illustrated them in this catalogue. When you order from this catalogue please give number, name and price of article.

THE WANAMAKER ILLUSTRATED LIBRARY EDITIONS OF STANDARD SETS

The works of many of the leading authors in a more attractive form than usual and, at the same time, at a moderate price. This was accomplished by having them manufactured to our especial order; and we have no hesitation in saying that these sets are by far the best ever offered at anything approaching these prices.

12mo. size. Well printed on good paper, and embellished with illustrations of merit, they make most desirable library editions; something between the very expensive and the cheap, carelessly put-together editions. We have them in two unusually attractive styles of binding—handsome silk cloth with gilt tops, and genuine half calf with gilt tops. Neatly boxed.

BULWER-LYTTON, SIR EDWARD.

Complete edition of the novels and tales of Lord Lytton. Printed from large type, with 108 full-page etchings, photogravures and wood engravings. 15 vols. Cloth, $9.75. Half calf, $17.50.

CARLYLE, THOMAS.

Complete works. Printed from good type, with 74 etchings, photo-etchings and wood engravings. 10 vols. Cloth, $7.00. Half calf, $11.50.

DICKENS, CHARLES.

Whether for shopping, for travel, or just for companionship, a bag of some sort is indispensable to every woman. It is her portable pocket and she feels lost without it; indeed it is even more requisite in these days than it was in the days when women wore capacious pockets in their dresses.

The many shapes and leathers in which these bags are now made are a proof of the permanence of the fashion, which is more than a fashion in this, that with all its variations of styles, it serves a useful and practical purpose.

The larger shopping bags are quite capacious, and these will be much in request for the remainder of the year, at which time more of the shopping for knick-knacks and parcels of a portable size is usually done.

WOMEN'S NECKWEAR

No feature of the dress is more important than the neckwear, and it is because of this fact that the making of neckwear, once almost wholly a domestic art, has become an important industry, in the productions of which fashion has very much to say. Neckwear may be very simple or very elaborate; it can give a touch of elegance to a costume otherwise severely plain; and there is no other item of the dress which can be made so effective for the amount expended.
