HURRAH FOR GOOD OLD SANTA CLAUS!

CHRISTMAS SONG.

NOTE.— If this song is to be given in public, let some little child (the smaller the better) sing the verses, and have all the other children join in on the chorus. The more children there are in the chorus, the more effective the song.

When I was but a lit - tle tot, I went to sleep one night, And While play - ing with my dolls that day, I looked a - cross the way And woke up ear - ly in the morn Al - most be - fore 'twas light. I saw the lit - tle house where lived My play - mate, Jen - nie Ray. "O saw a tree, so tall and green, It stood up - on the floor, And ma - ma, may I go and give One doll to Jen - nie dear? Bescat-tered all a - round were toys I'd nev - er seen be - fore. I cause, you know, she's poor and lame, And can't come o - ver here." "Of said, "O ma - ma! see that tree! Who bro't those toys in here?" And course you may," my ma - ma said, "Poor Jen - nie has no tree; If ma - ma said 'twas San - ta Claus, Who comes to us each year; If you should be her San - ta Claus, How hap - py she will be! Just we have been real good, she said, And tried to do what's right, Good share your toys and nuts and cake, And fill her with de - light, And San - ta will re - mem - ber us On ev - 'ry Christ - mas night.

San - ta will re - mem - ber you On ev - 'ry Christ - mas night?"

CHORUS.

Hur - rah for good old San - ta Claus! He loves the girls and boys; He brings us lots of use - ful things And lots of pret - ty toys. And so we show our love for him By cheer - ing with - out pause, "Hur - cresc.

mf

rah, hur - rah, hur - rah, hur - rah For good old San - ta Claus!"
