THE ELECTIONS. 541 ft. $64.92.

The candidate at home to callers. Double bribery. An interrupted meeting. The rival bill-stickers. A small coin makes a big row. Nursing baby and the consequences. A very fine pig, and nice tasting food he is fed on. A visit to a laundry. A quarrel ends in a ducking. Black-balled. Meetings—Persons who greeted a prospective member enthusiastically now change sides, and the candidate has a very unpleasant time. Eventually he arrives home with a black eye and his clothes torn, and altogether in a very deplorable state.

A STRANGE ENGAGEMENT BOUQUET. 196 ft. $23.52.

A porter is hired to carry a bouquet, but on the way to his destination he unfortunately drops the bouquet in the road, where it is run over and quite spoiled. Wandering what he can do, his eye lights on a leg of pork, which strikes him as being the same shape as the bouquet. He steals this with assistance of a friend, and together they cover the pork with a few flowers, tie it up in paper, and duly present it at the lady's house. The pleasure of the lady and her father quickly changes to anger when they discover the make-up of the bouquet, and the poor lover has an unpleasant time.

THE TARGET. 164 ft. $19.68

A boy has a rifle and gives us an exhibition of his skill. A little comrade of his is willing to have an egg placed upon his head, and when this is shot, the breaking of the egg is quite disastrous to boy underneath. Now a target is made, pasted and placed on a bench. An old gentleman sits down on the target which sticks to the seat of his trousers. Bending down to do a bit of gardening, a full view of the target is given to a young lad who just happens to appear. The old man is wild with rage and the lad runs away. The little boy who comes back is caught by the old man and gets a severe thrashing. Very comic and highly recommended.

FOLLOWER OF WOMEN. 377 ft. $45.24.

A young man, who cannot resist of falling in love with every girl he meets, makes the acquaintance of many pretty blondes and brunettes but without any returns to his wooing. Some of the girls play him tricks but he does not get discouraged, and keeps up his game until late in the evening. He meets another beauty, and is so persisting, that finally the young girl makes him take off his boots, and tells him to walk quietly through the house. As soon as he enters, she closes the door and leaves him to his fate. Being left in the dark, he arouses the sleepers, who take him for a burglar, and in spite of his protests, our hero is brought to prison.

Height, 51 inches. Width, 24 inches.
Depth, 27 inches. Shipping weight, 266 lbs.

THE LATEST ADDITION TO OUR LARGE LINE OF SLOT MACHINES. This is absolutely one of the best machines we have ever offered. The mechanism is as nearly perfect as human skill can devise it. It is far superior to any other on the market, because with a 10-inch Record Machine our patrons can offer a larger variety of selections, songs by grand opera stars, etc., which are in demand, but cannot be satisfactorily produced on a 7-inch record.

The case is made of quarter-sawn golden oak, fine hand polish, and trimmed with massive fittings, highly nickel plated. The top and front are fitted with bevel plate glass, showing the mechanism underneath, which is fully nickel plated and greatly improved; also fitted with a larger and much more superior motor than the 7-inch machines. It can be operated by coins or fitted with a large horn, and arranged to play and repeat automatically. Just the thing to build up the patronage of an Arcade. Special prices to Parks and Arcades. OBSERVATIONS OF THE STROLLER On Theatrical Life and Environment STORIES AND ANECDOTES

So much press agents' stuff recounting the charitable acts of show managers appears in the daily papers that it rather palls on the Unique Initiated. There was an incident in Boston, however, upon the advent of the Barnum & Bailey Show to that hub of erudition and culture that, wanting the press agent's ubiquitous distribution, failed of the flamboyant publication usually given to such matter.

Upon arriving in Boston, Mr. George O. Starr, director-general of the "Greatest Show on Earth" received a letter from little Louis Wald, an inmate of the Children's Hospital on Huntington avenue, deploring the elimination of the street parade, and requesting Mr. Starr "to please send up one clown to perform on the sidewalk before the hospital." The appeal touched the heart of the great and busy showman. A queer feeling came into his throat at thought of the suffering children and the smallness of the joy that is their portion at that time of life, which Mr. Starr himself remembers as the happiest and most blissful of his own. "I'll send 'em all the clowns," he declared—and he did. His first call for volunteers brought out thirty of his funny fellows, together with director Carl Clair and his band, some acrobats and a trained dog. In fact all the performers of the great show would have gone if there had been room for them in the street to perform. "What is a circus without peanuts, flags and red balloons?" some one asked. That was enough. A store of these accessories was sent up to the hospital at once.

The children who were able were carefully wheeled to the three large balconies that overlooked the street, their wan little faces flushed with delight. To the throngs of people that crowded both sides of Huntington avenue, the flags and balloons held by the children gave the somber front of the building the gay appearance of a section of a circus tent. Sweet-faced nurses clad in their cheerful uniforms and dainty caps entered into the spirit of the occasion. The little sufferers in their cots and chairs with bandaged heads, with crutches and with cruel steel braces, were for once at least, supremely happy. Little Louis Wald, lying on a frame with a huge weight attached to the diseased little limb, was the hero of the day. Proud he was that he had written that letter!

Suddenly there came a crash of musical circus music, by a real circus band and a thrill went through every heart. The crowd parted, and there before the children stood the contingent of circus performers. The gorgeous beauty of the band uniforms, the multi-colored lights and spangles of the acrobats, the lullerous make-ups of the clowns—oh! it was glorious to those sick and suffering little prisoners. That, indeed, was a successful performance. The actors threw themselves into their work with such spirit and freedom animates them. The band is flipping out the gayest kind of music, and altogether the effect was such as to make awfully sick little boys and boys forget their pain. The performers themselves enjoyed it very much.

The Children's Hospital has a new anniversary. Talk of the circus performance goes round the white-dressed wards from day to day, and many beds are littered with toys in effigy of the event.

MISS LAURA DAVIS

She doesn't profess any relationship to the former singer of O Promise Me, but she does confess a great liking for summer "vaudeville" audiences, and we can't blame her. If musical comedy patrons were as responsive to her musical numbers as are "vaudeville" enthusiasts the subject of this sketch would make Marie Cahill look like a chorus girl. But keep your eyes on Laura Davis. She's going to be "it" in musical comedy, too. Last year her work in The School Girl attracted the attention of the management of The Empire and she was engaged to create a role in that successful musical comedy. This coming season she will probably create a role in one of Henry W. Savage's new musical comedies and The Billboard's phonologist says that she is bound to succeed. Miss Davis closed with The Empire recently to go on vaudeville stage by her own characteristic manner a number of musical numbers that invariably find their way into the good graces of her audiences. Miss Davis has a great many friends in the profession that wish her the best of success.

In a grubby little shop on Chicago's West Side, a butcher daily cleaves his meat in phlegmatic silence and stercoral forbearance. His hours are long. From early morn till evening he prosecutes the duties of his position. It is not his own shop. He works for hire; but Paul Berak regards his lonesome labor as only the means to an end. Being nearly deaf, the big Hungarian has found it well nigh impossible to acquire even a working knowledge of the English language. But he has his consolations.

Not far from the shop is his abode, a little inside room under the skylight of a large lodging house. It is here that he spends his evenings in seclusion and study. His small library of reference books is supplemented by a few of the standard works in his native language. His lamp burns late into the night. Cut off by his affliction from social pastimes, he has turned to books for solace and recreation.

The other day it was announced that the Hungarian Singing Society of Chicago will produce a play by Paul Berak. The piece is entitled The Judge's Daughter, and deals with the governmental affairs and society of Hungary. Those who have seen the rehearsals of the piece say that it is a master work, and already Secretary Stark of the society is translating several of Berak's earlier plays to be produced in English.

The butcher-playwright sees an end to his squalid distress.

Everyone who has visited New Orleans knows the Old Absinthe House. Like Madam Begue's, Ramo's and the Sazerac it is a landmark, only it is older than any of these. Four generations of show people have sipped its beverage from the same old fountain, by the same old counter. The clock that has looked down upon all our famous actors as well as all our greatest statesmen and authors still hangs on the wall, ticking away as assiduously as on the day, closely following the Revolution, when it was hung there. In the old French Creole quarter near the Opera, the Old Absinthe House has for nearly a century been the mecca of great singers in the Crescent City.

It will soon be no more. Its domicile is to be torn down to make space for a modern skyscraper. On account of all its associations, there is pathos in its passing.

Chas. A. Bailey, who has been guardian of the portal at Chas. Frohman's Empire Theatre for many years, retired at the close of the Peter Pan engagement. Bailey took tickets at the old Empire and his incumbency has covered the careers of many of the now famous Frohman stars who made their debuts with the Empire Stock. John Drew, William Faversham, Grace George, Margaret Blington and Maud Adams found Bailey at the Empire when, upon their first visits, they made the acquaintance of the attaches of the old house. Bailey has received many presents from the players at the Empire, who have always been attracted by his geniality and desire to please. His cozy little home is lined with souvenirs of performances that have marked crises in the careers of actors. He has seen them pale and trembling with uncertainty and anxiety of first performances; later flushed with the pride and exultation of success. He has seen them grow up in their art from fillers-in to leading men and leading women and then to stars with regular clientele. He has been at the door at the premiere of epoch-making plays, witnessed failures and record-making runs. His reminiscences cover a large part of New York's theatrical history.

And now Chas. A. Bailey is to retire. He has been faithful and if the competence he has laid by is not sufficient to see him through the remainder of his days there will be no necessity of appeal to public institutions. The actors who commenced their successful careers at the Empire and who have played there since with all the delights of stars with large followings will see Chas. A. Bailey through.

AMUSEMENT WEEK REVIEWED NEWS FROM THE BIG TOWNS

Symposium of Metropolitan Show Events

The Billboard's Correspondents Write of Shows in All Important Cities of the United States—Reviews of Plays—Descriptions of Parks and Park Attractions—Notes of Circuses, Fairs and Carnivals.

THE many admirers of John Craig in Boston and vicinity flocked to the Globe this week, where he opened with his new stock company. The Middleman is the vehicle Mr. Craig has put on and it is being received with much enthusiasm for the part of Cyrus Blenkarn is one of Craig's best characterizations. Two performances are given daily and the success of the venture is already assured, for the seat sale has been heavy and the subscription sale for the entire season has exceeded all expectations. The complete roster of the company is: John Craig, James L. Seeley, William Humphrey, William H. Everts, Thomas MacLaurie, Frederic Sullivan, Kendrick Hall, James Wilson, Arthur Butler, William Mason, Mary Young, Mary Sanders, Jennie Kendrick, Cordelia MacDonald, Kate Ryan, and Ethel Daggett. Next week, A Night Off.

It was good news for Boston's summer theatergoers that The Tourists would remain at the Majestic for a little longer time instead of the closing last week as had been announced. The remarkable success of this bright musical comedy in Boston caused the Shuberts to change their minds and hold it over here rather than send it to New York to the Lyric Theatre as had been planned. When the last week was announced the sale of seats became so brisk that not a performance passed but that the house was sold out long before the curtain went up. For what length of time the engagement has been extended has not been announced.

The revival of Carmen at the Castle Square this week drew crowded houses and the performance was first-class in every way. Miss Claudia Albright handled the title role with a power that gained immediate applause and her work as an actress won the audiences tremendously. Her voice is as clear as a bell and she is more than making good. Miss Mary Carrington joined the company this week and had the part of Micaela; she became a favorite from the very first. Hattie Belle Ladd, Emelie Gardner, George Shield and Harry Luckstone each made individual hits. Next week, H. M. S. Pinafore and Cavalieria Rusticana.

The old favorite, East Lynne, is the offering at the Bowdoin Square this week and it is proving to be its usual annual feature by bringing big houses. The staging is elaborate and the cast is headed by the charming Miss Hunt in the dual role of Lady Isabel and Mme. Vane. Miss Hunt has played these highly emotional roles many times, and each year she seems to do them better. The rest of the cast is admirably balanced. Next week, The Girl of the Streets.

Henry W. Savage's summer production, The Man From Now, with Harry Bulger, entered its second month at the Tremont last Monday and business still continues to be excellent. Several new scenes have been written into the play and to-day it stands as one of the most positive successes this city has known. It will remain at the Tremont until August, when it will be taken direct to New York for an indefinite run.

This is the final week of The Mayor of Tokio, with Richard Carie, at the Colonial, and the popularity of this eccentric comedian has been proven by the good houses he has drawn during his stay in Boston. After the company closes this week it will rest until the first of August when its regular road tour will begin.

The stock burlesque company at the Palace has been enlarged and strengthened, and their show this week is a winner. A laughable first part, with Frank Graham, is offered and the closing skit, Away Up East, gets the laughs every minute of the game. Among those in the olio are McKeever and Sander, the Bradfords, the Grahams, Morton and Deane, the Hayden Brothers and the Palacescope.

Down on the Old Plantation is this week's drawing card at Austin & Stone's, and it is made up of a remarkably clever company of colored comedians. Among those who make up the company are Billy Purcell, Willie Copes, Herbert Moxley, William Murphy, Odie Benson, Roger Wilson, George Henderson, Walter Greeley, Christmas Jones, Spencer Johnson, Edith Logan, Sadie Murray, Alma Diamond, Lillian Weathers, George Vigil, Rose Wilson, Hattie White, Gertrude Mitchell, Blanche Wallace, Jennie Hudson, the Herbert Lewis Quartet, Prof. John Topp's Orchestra and the Half-tone Sextette.

In spite of the cold and rainy weather during the first two weeks after the opening of Greater Paragon Park the attendance has been excellent and all those who have enjoyed the sea trip and taken in the many attractions that Manager Lodge has provided are enthusiastic with their praises of the pleasure resort. Boston's Animal Arena is proving to be one of the strongest attractions at the park and perhaps the most astonishing, clever and thrilling of the acts is that in which a trainer appears with twenty ferocious Nubian and African lions. From Hades to Paradise in an Airship is also proving a sensation. In the free circus are Will Hill, the high wire walker; Wolfing's trained horses and Lee Schuyler, the high diver.

Rain or shine, hot or cold, Wonderland Park at Revere Beach gets the crowds. It is truly surprising, and it certainly must be gratifying to Manager Floyd Thompson, to see the business being done at this magnificent city by the sea. I ran down during the afternoons of Wednesday and Thursday of this week and although the weather was not good the crowds that flocked through the place amazed me. The concessions are all making good and I did not find a dissatisfied man in the place. If there are any down there that are not making good it must be their own fault for they get the people—and the people they get are spenders. Among the clever novelties in the park none are more popular than Hell Gate, a new amusement device which was invented by Attilio Pusterla. It is magnificently housed in a large building with a huge and attractive front that can not fail to draw attention. The journey is made by water on a spiral river—the Styx. Slowly, at first, the boat with its burden of pilgrims, moves around the outer gates well for big success this season. The bill this week contains Ryan and Ritchfield, the Macarte Sisters, Prof. Burke with his trained dogs, Jackson and Hoan, Chalk Saunders, and moving pictures.

The headliner at Keltie's this week is Robert Hillard, supported by an excellent company in the playlet, As A Man Sows. This clever legitimate actor always makes good at this house, and this week he is drawing as never before. Of course, The Fallettes Woman's Orchestra is still with us, and is offering an attractive bill of fare of classical music, in which is sandwiched, for encores, popular melodies. Others in the bill are the Seldoms, Caron and Herbert, Fields and Wolley, Lassard Brothers, John and Bertha Rich, Stuart Barnes, Kelley and O'Brien, Young American Quintet, Alexis and Schall, Lalent and others.

Major Nutt, the Lilliputian, is working every day as a policeman at Wonderland. Jairus Joselyn is now under the management of J. W. Gorman with the Mr. Planet of Mars Co.

Andrew Mack has gone to his summer home in Buzzard's Bay, where he will remain during the rest of the hot season.

The Reid Sisters, in their equestrian act, have been booked for an early appearance in the fair circus at Paragon Park.

Vincent F. Fetherstone and his wife have left town for the summer. They are vacationing in Boothbay, Me.

Henry W. Savage has reengaged James A. Sheegreen as business manager of Raymond Hitecock, in the Galleon.

Charlie Waldron has already engaged his company, the Trocadero's, for the road season, and he will present two new burlesques.

VICTOR MOORE

rim of the whirlpool gradually gaining impetus as it nears the center, where it is suddenly drawn with a mad rush down the chute, out of sight of the spectators, into the under world. At first it passed through a region dark as Erebus, but soon the darkness is pierced by shafts of light that give a weird sensation. Then come the scenic effects. From vast caverns come the forms and faces of devils, imps and gnomes. Once more the dim caverns give place to a region of absolute darkness and the stillness is profound. A feeling of awe possesses the travelers when suddenly the banks of the Styx is reached where an embassy of his Satanic Majesty awaits you to conduct you through the last lap of the journey on foot. Several cloven-footed, horned denizens of Hades appear unexpectedly and suddenly you are brought face to face with Satan himself seated upon his gorgeous throne, surrounded by his viceroy court. He receives your bow and you pass out into daylight—or the glare of electric light—back to earth again. It is a sensational piece of work and a real twentieth century amusement.

The zoological exhibit at Norembea Park is growing in popularity each week and the bill that is being run at the covered open-air theatre is always made up of top liners. This week's program includes Alf and May Wilson, Donovan and Arnold, Irene LaTour with her dog, Zaza; the Tenji Japanese Troupe, and the komograph. Attendance is big.

The Medford Boulevard Theatre is showing an increase of attendance this year that ar-

It will be a novelty to see a stock company in a musical comedy, but John Craig is planning to present Hoyt's A Trip to Chinatown at the Globe in the near future. Mr. Craig will play the part of Welland Strong.

The Bohemian Girl stood first among the operas voted for by patrons of the Castle Square. It will be produced on July 9 and week.

This is the last week of the "Popa" concerts at Symphony Hall.

When she learned that the engagement of The Tourists would be extended in Boston Miss Julia Sanderson rented a cottage at Winthrop Beach for the summer.

William C. Masson will continue as stage director of the Castle Square, when the regular dramatic season opens.

Hugh P. McNally has booked his Dainty Dainty Mads for a long term over the Keltie-Proctor Circuit.

The Barnum & Bailey Circus broke its Boston record for business during its stay here this year.

Miss Mary Carrington and Harry Davies are two slingers added to the Castle Square company this week.

Manager Kennedy of the Wild West and Indian Congress at Wonderland tendered a reception and wild west luncheon to the newspaper men of Boston last Tuesday afternoon and evening.

A series of moving pictures is being made for Henry W. Savage, to be used in the Man

From Now, that are said to be unique. An entire company of French acrobata has been engaged for the work.

John Craig has been trying to sign Milton Lawrence for his stock company this summer, and it is said that she will probably accept his offer.

Last Tuesday 150 Harvard men, class of '06, visited Wonderland on Wednesday 200 of Boston's telephone girls made merry at the park and on Friday a party of 200 Dorchestertees took in the sights.

Richard Carie, Manager Lethman of the Colonial, J. B. Fitzpatrick, manager of The Tourists, and Richard Golden occupied boxes at the Barnum & Bailey Circus as guests of Manager Starr. FRANK C. VOORHIES, Boston, Mass.

BEARDSTOWN, ILL.

Promoter Swengel has finished arrangements with the local committee for the chautauqua to be held here week of July 2. The program is as follows: Monday—Frank S. Regan, chalk talk lecturer; Tuesday—the Menely Quartette and Chester Ricketts, impersonator; Wednesday—John Sobieski, lecturer; Thursday—Eugene W. Chadin, lecturer, and Friday, W. C. T. U. Day.

Chas. K. Mallory, formerly trap drummer on Price's Show Boat, has been in the city for a few days. He states that he has a five year contract to play in the orchestra on the Sily Excursion Boat, on which he is now engaged.

Harry Jackson and wife, Bertha Dalrymple, formerly of this city, are spending their summer here.

We will celebrate July 4 with two performances of the John Robinson Circus.

Chas. A. Carlson, trombone player, and Harry Smith, of the Bellare Repertoire Co., joined out with the Sily Excursion Boat on June 15.

Jessie Gibson, formerly of the Bellare Repertoire Co., is playing the first violin in the orchestra at Al. Fresco Park.

Band concerts started in the city park on June 13, when in spite of a heavy rain, a large crowd was present. The next one will be held on June 20.

DAVENPORT, IA.

On June 12 the Orphenm, a vaudeville house, had a $2,500 fire, which destroyed the stage and all the house scenery. The theatre will be rebuilt and will open in the fall as a burlesque house.

The Elite (vaudeville) is showing under a tent during the hot weather and is drawing big crowds every night.

The Family Theatre (vaudeville) has been closed for the summer after a very successful season, but will open again in August.

The Sells-Porepough Circus showed in Rock Island June 21 and did a good business.

The Ringling Shows are billed to appear here in July.

The report is out that the managers of White City are contemplating taking over Suburban Park and making it a first-class amusement place. Situated as it is on an island in the Mississippi it should be made to pay, for now any attraction will draw from 5,000 to 10,000 people, with money, on a Sunday.

The local lodge of Elks held a Denver picnic at Schuyler Park on June 28, and great preparations are being made for a big time.

Day's one horse circus is now playing the small towns in the county and is making a big hit everywhere. J. A. DEARMOND.

SEATTLE, WASH.

The Tollers, one of the strongest plays yet seen at the Third Avenue Theatre, did a capacity business all last week. Grace Ayresworth and Ted Brackett, in the leading roles, were even better than usual. Little Edith Raynor also made a big hit. Next week they open in A Struggle For Gold.

Henrietta Crossman opens to-night for three performances at the Grand Opera House in Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary.

One of the best shows ever given at the Orphenm was put on last week. With the extension of the great Sullivan-Considine Circuit from the Atlantic to the Pacific, it is becoming possible for this big chain of vaudeville houses to offer bills of constantly increasing merit.

Owing to the extremely cool weather, the parks are doing very little business, all theatres, however, are doing a better business than in the winter time, on account of the many tourists visiting Seattle.

LEM. A. SHORTBRIDGE.

OWENSBORO, KY.

Robert Wayne, late of the Lyceum Theatre, San Francisco, is spending the summer here with relatives. This coming season Mr. Wayne will be manager and leading man of the Wayne Stock Co. at the People's Theatre, Evansville, Ind.

Messrs. Pedley & Hurch, of the Grand, are booking many first class attractions. This house deserves the fine patronage it has been having.

The Crystal Theatre will open about Sept. 1 with high class vaudeville. This popular house is on the Ammons Circuit, and Geo. W. Laurie is the local manager.

Big preparations are being made for the Seven Hills Chautauqua to be held Aug. 12-13. Superintendent W. E. Arches says that the fifth season will surpass any previous one. E. PETTIT COX.

ALTON, ILL.

Manager Saurage is pleased with his new venture, the steamer Liberty. He has given a number of excursions.

French's New Sensation Floating Theatre plays here June 25.

Harry Moore is pianist on the steamer Liberty.

Washington Garden, of which A. J. Frost is manager, is doing nicely. Beginning June 30 he has engaged Bare Devil Conley for a week in his bicycle ride and dive into a net. Conley has only one leg.

John Robinson's Ten Big Shows are billed for an engagement at Carrollton, Ill., for July 2. Wish Dave Dedrick and all the bunch with the Ten Big the best of luck.

E. W. BEALL.

ROCHESTER, N. Y.

With the conclusion of The Silver Slipper engagement on June 27, the Baker Theatre will remain closed until Sept. 2, when the Moore Stock Co., now appearing at the Cook open this house for its third annual entertainment here.

Within the next three weeks two other shows here will close, leaving it all to the Moore Stock Co. As business at the outdoor resorts has been only fair for the past ten days because of inclement weather, they should now be a harvest.

The writer recently spent a very pleasant day at Ontario Beach Park as the guest of Manager Theo. A. Smythe and Amusement Director James F. Clancy, and so well did they succeed in making it enjoyable for The Billboard man, that the many happy hours spent at Ontario Beach will linger long in his memory.

The idea prevails at this resort to spend money on the interior rather than in street advertising, although quite a lot of advertising is done. At any rate, it is very evident that the management is endeavoring to attract patronage because of the fact that they have the best attractions to be found. For the first time in the history of the park, a really meritorious bill of six splendid and high-class vaudeville acts is given, twice daily and absolutely free. Free seats are provided to accommodate about 2,000 people. The stage is one of the largest in the state, being 300 ft. long and it is equipped with all the latest lighting effects.

I venture to state that nowhere in the country is the comfort of the performer so well looked after as at Ontario Beach, and if this is a forerunner of what the summer park of the future will be the writer is almost tempted to "butt into the business again." There is no attempt made to outshine White City or Coney Island in the display of electric lights, but the lighting facilities are well taken care of and are adequate for the purpose. The sight at night is decidedly a pretty one.

There is a splendid dining piazza at Ontario Beach which boasts of 220 rooms. Music is furnished by a Hungarian Orchestra of eight pieces. The Roller Skating Rink, Circle Swing, Figure Eight, the Hurdling Horses, an improved merry-go-round, Ureling the Earth, a new device which gives promise of becoming very popular, Indoor Carnival, under the management of E. W. Pierce; Vaudeville Casino, under the management of James Beardon; the House of Mystery, Curiosity Shop, Enchanted Illusion Gallery, Helter Skelter and other attractions complete the list of popular favorites. Concessions and booths are arranged in the shape of a horseshoe, beginning at the Band Stand and all seem to be doing a good business. Prof. Monk's Military Band of thirty-five pieces is a permanent feature of the park. Many special days have been booked for Ontario Beach.

For the week of July 1 the bill on the vaudeville stage was the Millman Trio, the Five Romances, the Dixie Serenaders and Kenyon and DeGarmo. For week of July 8 they were the Dixie Serenaders, Johnny LaFaire, Golden Russian Troupe and Diavolo in his loop the loop. As an extra feature, there will be Huss and his band.

Miller's Elephants, which appeared at Ontario Beach a few weeks ago, are being held by the custom officials for some fancied grievance. The writer is informed that they are being held for a payment of $1,000. As far as I can ascertain this is purely a case of governmental red tape due to the neglect of someone in the service. The fact is the more to be deplored as Miller had some good time and which had to be canceled costing him a loss of several thousands of dollars.

The Moore Stock Co. is presenting The Bonanza at Ontario Beach at the Cook's Opera House. It is doing a good business.

Wendie Kersawe has been engaged as leading woman for the Moore Stock Co. She begins her engagement this week. Lillian Sinton joins this company July 2 for Ingenues.

Gertrude Millington prima donna of the Grand Opera Co. is a Rochester girl, and was the guest of honor at many social functions during her engagement in this city.

The picture of the burned "Frisco" theatres was recently published in The Billboard caused considerable comment among theatrical circles in this city.

The week of Aug. 20 has been selected for the carnival at Ontario Beach Park, and the city of town advertising has already begun. Several companies that will play this season at that time would do well to correspond with Managers Smythe and Chaney.

The hall at Glen Haven Park the current week is as follows: The Valeno Brothers, Bert and Stevens, the Sawkards, the Lassalle Twins and Bert Lemon. Business continues good. CHAS. W. NELSON.

BALTIMORE, MD.

M. J. Lehmyer, manager of the Academy of Music received a telegram while sojourning at Atlantic City announcing the death of an uncle, Nathan Lehmyer, of York, Pa., on June 17. He left at once to attend the funeral. Mr. Lehmyer had been spending the week with S. F. Nixon, senior member of the firm of Nixon & Zimmerman, whose wife was recently ill at her home in Atlantic City. While attending his uncle's funeral, Mr. Lehmyer was notified of the death of Mrs. Nixon, and he left for Philadelphia to attend her funeral.

The continual dry spell in May caused much uneasiness among the farming interests in this county, but the theatres did well. Since the first of June there has been nothing but rain and the parks are suffering.

Royal Arcadium Day at Gaynor Oak Park, June 26, was celebrated by at least 4,000 people.

Thomas E. Ford, manager of Ford's Opera House, is a member of the new syndicate that was organized in the office of Frank McKee in New York last week, the plan of which is to produce musical and dramatic plays upon a large scale. The cost of bringing out plays has been so great that the managers have been obliged to take others into partnership in order to withstand the financial shock in case of failure. The new syndicate will finance the productions.

Ben Mar, the famous summer resort of the Western Maryland Railroad Co. in Washington County was opened for the season on June 21. A large crowd from this city attended. This resort has been open for twenty-nine years and is increasing in popularity each season.

The beautiful and natural scenery of the Blue Ridge Mountains is a feature. More than a thousand cottages have been built on the mountains. The park is brilliantly lighted with electricity. Daily excursions are run from Baltimore and a special train runs on Saturday afternoons. Moonlight excursions will be a feature this summer.

The Western Maryland Railroad, which is a part of the Wash System, has been completed and is now running cars between Baltimore and Cumberland. It will gradually be extended to Pittsburg.

Baltimore capitalists have incorporated in Virginia the Norfolk & Jamestown Exposition Railway Co. which will operate railway cars to the Jamestown Exposition. The Tidewater Ry. Co. owned and operated by H. H. Rogers, will operate cars in and about the grounds. SYLVAN SCHEIDT.

LOS ANGELES, CAL.

With a cast amounting in all to one hundred players Oliver Moroses gives The Sign of the Cross at the Burbank offering for the week of June 17. H. S. Duffield who retired also newcomers who take well; the Mexican Serenaders, Anita Allen and several others remain to round out the taking bill.

Holly Tolly is continued at the Mason through this week. The costumes are new and elaborate and the comedy appealing.

Secret Service Sam, with a number of new mechanical devices, is the offering by the Ulrich Stock Co., at the Grand Opera House, and it appears to please the large crowds it draws.

Did a "hooboo" hover above Cintas Park Wednesday, June 13? Manager Lehigh laughs at the idea, for a big crowd patronized the park and its various amusements. But some of the performers have a different opinion. Charles E. Colby, the "Great Comet," who leaps the gap of twenty-eight feet in a thrilling bicycle ride down an incline, is one, and LaBelle Carmen, the young Creole woman who handles a writhing mass of snakes as if they were ordinary playthings, is another, who does not laugh. LaBelle Carmen was bitten by a venomous copperhead and a boa constrictor pet coiled itself so tightly about her throat that it strangled her almost to death. Colby's which nearly ended fatally, was witnessed by

WRECKED OPERA HOUSE AT TUSCOLA, ILL.

Above is a representation of the wrecked Madison Opera House at Tuscola, Ill., caused by a severe wind and rain storm that passed over the city on May 30. It shows the rear of the theatre. The picture was taken by Manager H. S. Bassett's son, J. F., for The Billboard.

from the Burbank company some time ago, has a brief respite in this play. Business continues good.

Kob and Dell will put on their second tour lesque with a renovated chorus new costumes and new scenery at the Hotchkiss. The piece is The Rosary Shop, written by James Crawford for these comedians, and promises to prove of the taking order, judging from the packed houses of the opening performance.

A Stranger in a Strange Land, the funny farce presented by the Belasco Stock Co. served to introduce Will W. Walling as a comedian and he received quite an ovation from his old and new friends the opening performance. The Belasco management is making extensive preparations for The Heart of Maryland, which will next week reintroduce Amelia Gardner, the most popular leading lady yet stationed at the Belasco.

The show business throughout the city is at its height at present and all playhouses return first-class reports as to attendance. Music of several high-class varieties distinguishes the Deponemus bill this week. Julia Heinrich appears in concert selections with Karl Henrich, Linden Beckwith, soprano, is seen for the first time in her novelty musical act; The Majestic Trio in song and dancing are a large crowd. Whirling down the incline at a terrific rate he rose in the air and successfully cleared the intervening space to the other platform, but when he struck the rope attached to heavy sandbags to check his momentum broke and he was hurled against a wire. He suffered a severe laceration of the scalp, and was rendered unconscious. D. W. FERGUSON.

PITTSBURG, PA.

Sunday saw thousands seeking shady spots in the different parks, and thousands again driving automobiles, traps, bicycles, for the day was ideal. Dream City led insofar as crowds are concerned, as this park is our newest and aside from its beautiful location and attractiveness, it is offering numerous attractions that appeal to the public, and then again Luna Park is closed on Sunday. However, it is a toss up between the two parks as to their popularity, and then Kennwood and West View parks are also in the running and making strides that are satisfactory to the management and to the public as well. Manager McSwiggan, of Kennwood Park is going to give his patrons something to talk about in The Great Western Train Hold Up which begins next week, and for which everything preparatory is now in readiness.

The construction and flight of an airship will be the feature during the week at Luna Park. Mr. Ingersoll has made arrangements with the Reachy Bros. (aeronauts), and as soon as the airship is built an ascent will be made.

Highland Park with its Zoo, and Schenley Park with its conservatories and the new Tech buildings were other attractions sought by pleasure seekers.

The union of stock and vaudeville is the attractive feature this week at the Grand and has made a decided hit. In fact, with the favorites back again, Chas. Abbe, Marion Hallow, Alice Gale and Minna Phillips with the addition of Mr. Oscar Eagle, the success of the Davis Stock Co. is assured. The one act produced by the new stock company, The Spy, was well received and the fifteen vaudeville acts were up to the usual standard.

The new opera house now being erected at Luna Park promises to be an interesting addition to the many attractions now offered, and the opening is promised for the week of July 2. The opening attraction has as yet not been announced, but three performances will be given during the evening at 8, 9 and 10 o'clock, respectively. During the past week the DeKreko Bros. who conduct Mysterious Asia, on the Trail, have added a pair of camels. Mabel McKinley will be the feature at Luna for the 4th.

Rumor has it that Frederick Ingersoll, he of many parks, will next season put on the road one of the largest tented shows now traveling, and is at present negotiating with Hagenhecks for animals, and has lines out for features of note in this and foreign countries.

Ben Green and his famous English players are this week giving two performances at Sewickley for the benefit of the Sewickley Valley Hospital Association.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

The comedy-drama, Entitled Friends, was put on by the Mabel Page Co. at Phoenix Park Casino last week and proved one of the best hits of the season. Together with Earl P. Adams' catchy songs and new moving pictures between acts the bill drew exceedingly well.

On Saturday each lady was presented with a silver pin tray as a souvenir of the 125th performance at the Casino.

President J. M. Barra, of the Dixieland Amusement Co., is perfecting plans for the opening of the Dixieland Park this fall. No pains are being spared in the construction of the many amusement features, especially the theatre, which is well under way and will be one of the best of its kind in the south when completed.

Manager E. E. Cheney, of the Jacksonville Carnival Association, reports that interest in the carnival for 1906 is not confined to Florida alone as a large number of letters are received every day from all parts of the north and west, indicating that already the news has gone abroad, and people are preparing to come out way the time of the carnival. Some of the very best attractions have already been secured, including many never seen in the south before.

Now that the city council has refused the use of the city streets for the Homecoming week, all efforts are being concentrated to make one great success of the Jacksonville Carnival Nov. 5-10. A. V. GIBSON.

ALBANY, N. Y.

Despite the rainy week of June 18, Altro Park enjoyed a large patronage. Albanians are fast becoming acquainted with this attractive summer park, and have found that Manager Max Rosen has made good all his claims. Good vaudeville is being presented.

The contest for the most popular teacher in Albany or Troy is well under way. The winner will take a trip to "Erisco" at the expense of Altro Park. Each expenditure of five cents gives the patron one vote.

Thomas Starr, an Albany actress, who has been playing the leading role with David Warfield in The Music Master, is spending her vacation in Detroit, Mich.

The Melbourne McDowell Stock Co. which has been presenting Sardou plays here since May 28, closed on June 23 with Anthony and Cleopatra. Business was not up to expectations notwithstanding fine press notices and a good company. Manager H. B. Jacobs tendered the company a benefit on the 25th.

LOUISVILLE, KY.

Manager Simons of Dreamland will close that house in a few weeks to make room for a new ten and twenty-cent house, where good vaudeville will be presented.

The Mouton Arcadia has put in a five-cent moving picture theatre. Baby Barch is singing illustrated songs.

Jack Ropke has Tim Husi's auto car on Fourth avenue and is doing good business.

Harris and Woods say they have many good offers for next season.

The vaudeville team of Kelly and Taylor recently formed, report that they have booked some good western time.

The staff at Hopkins' Fontaine Ferry is as follows: Wm. Reichman, manager, C. C. Ousby, press agent; Pres. Carr, ticket agent; Greer Raymond, advertising agent, and Harry Cook, musical director. DRVILLE B. TAYLOR.

LEXINGTON, KY.

The third week of the Woodland Stock Co. at the Auditorium opened to capacity with The Gamblers' Wife. While sensational, the play is amusing and interesting, and it pleased large audiences all week. The similarities between the acts continue in great favor. Illustrated songs have been substituted for moving pictures. If business continues good Manager McNamara and his excellent company may remain with us throughout the summer.

Union Depot, a musical comedy, was presented at the opera house on June 22 by local talent to a large and fashionable audience. Mrs. Myrtle Jones staged and directed the play.

L. H. Ramsey secretary of the Lexington Amusement Co., is rapidly shaping arrangements for the big attractions which that company will present here on July 4. The street fair for the week of July 3 has been abandoned. J. F. A.

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Three burlesque houses are still open, all relying on catching a couple of rainy days or nights a week to help them make a little money. So far, they have been successful, but the margin of profit is so close that they will soon bow off. The Trocadero is to close this week, the Bijou will run at least two weeks more and the Lyceum will close down as soon as business falls below a profitable point.

Kelth's Chestnut Street Theatre, which never closes, is doing the best summer business in its history. The bills now on are the biggest and best ever presented in this place where stunning bills are the usual thing, and in consequence many people who formerly went to Parks are now patronizing this place. The condition of the Proctor & Kelth forces removes all possibility of there being a Proctor Theatre here next season, although that showman had been negotiating for the lease of a house. If a new vaudeville house is opened here it will be either by Hammerstein or Percy Williams. There is also room for a good one.

There is a scarcity of vaudeville performers for the smaller parks in this vicinity, and managers have been at their wits' end to provide amusement for the patrons of these resorts. The smaller theatres in the west have taken many of the performers who were formerly glad to get this work and in consequence salaries have gone up.

The Probst Trio who were west all last season are now at their home at Pottsville, Pa., and at the same time are rehearsing a new act which they will put on the big vaudeville circuits next season.

William F. Carroll, is the author of Painting the Town, a new musical comedy which Charles H. Tale will put on the road next season.

Nat M. Willis will star in a new musical farce next season. The title is A Lucky Dog.

Charles E. Blaney who will have thirteen companies on the road next season, announces that he will open his theatres in Philadelphia, Baltimore, Pittsburg, Newark and Brooklyn on Aug. 7. His shows also open early.

Dick Seligson, who has been traveling through Michigan for the Imperial Curtain Co., is now resting in Atlantic City. He makes another western tour in a few weeks.

The Eleventh Ward Theatre in Wilmington, Del., is doing well. All the profits of this house go toward street improvements in that vicinity.

Work is being pushed on the William Penn Theatre, and the new Jewish Theatre in this city. Nothing has yet been done on the other theatres, which were announced to open next season. The German Theatre is now finished and will open early in September.

Harry L. Carey, manager of the Philadelphia Billposting Co., has returned from a month's vacation in Clarence, Mo.

Reports from the different circuits in the East indicate that business has been slow lately. Kahu has cut down receipts, Pawnee Bill is doing fair at Brighton Beach.

Miss Jeanne Pryor, well known to thousands of professionals since she has been acting as secretary and stenographer at The Walnut Street Theatre, is mourning the loss of her twenty year old brother, Edward, who died on the eve of his graduation from St. Joseph's college, Homestead, Ill.

Freda Lancaster is resting in this city after a prosperous season in vaudeville. Next season she will produce a monologue, now being written for her, which will be entirely different from anything now on the stage.

The Bon Ton Theatre is still doing well with moving pictures at a nickel admission. This is getting to be such a popular craze in this city that small places, giving this style of entertainment, are opening every week.

It is authoritatively stated that both the Bijou and Trocadero theatres in this city will be under one management next season. Both houses play the Empire Circuit attractions and both did well the past season.

Plans were on exhibition in this city last week for the new Monumental Theatre to be erected in Baltimore this summer. It will be a handsome structure with a front that will surpass any theatre in the Monumental City.

Mrs. Harry Thaw, wife of the man who murdered Sanford White at the Madison Square Roof Garden this week, when a child posed as an artist's model in this city. She was then known as Evelyn Nesbitt. She made her first theatrical appearance here in The Wild Rose, and in consequence newspaper men were busy all week gathering information about her.

The newspapers were full of the combination alleged to have taken place between the heirs of James A. Bailey and Ringling Brothers on account of the latter purchasing the interest of the former in the Forepaugh-Sells Circus. Some of them even intimated that the Forepaugh Show was still controlled by the heirs of that man who was formerly a resident of this city. There is no truth in the statement. Adam Forepaugh, Jr., only child of the dead showman, is still a resident of this city, but has been an invalid for years. He has not been active in the circus business for many years.

Robert McIntyre, treasurer of the Walnut Street Theatre, is now acting in the same capacity at the Young Pier in Atlantic City, N. J.

A daring speculator is going to put on a very expensive vaudeville bill at Atlantic City week of July 2. Nat M. Willis, Peter Dalley, James J. Corbett and a number of other very high priced artists have been engaged.

Business is fairly good at Atlantic City and there is a howl for novel amusements that can run a short time and be put on for a dime or nickel admission. Rents are very high along the Boardwalk, but the business is there for those who have novelties.

Madison Park, near Philadelphia, is to be sold at public sale in a few weeks. It has not been running for several years.

Louis C. Miller, better known as "Dad" Miller, the oldest billposter in the world, has been taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital. He is nearly ninety years of age and is suffering from rheumatic gout. He will soon be on his feet again.

The police authorities are again arresting the owners of amusement places at Woodside Park, Philadelphia and closing them for every Sunday they keep open. This is really the only park within the city limits and for that reason the successions find it tough sledding. Several big Park projects that were outlined for this city have been held up on this account.

James Williams who was with the Pawnee Bill Show for a number of years, is now attached to one of the leading cafes of this city and is always ready to greet his old circus friends with a hearty handshake and a genial smile.

It has been found that the use of reinforced concrete for theatres is too slow in construction. Although a triple force of workmen are employed on Young's New Pier at Atlantic City that place will not be ready for a month after schedule time. Work was so slow on the new hippodrome there that the project was abandoned for the summer.

There is every indication that most of the popular price dramatic theatres in the East will next year give daily matinees and reduce their prices of admission. BOB WATT.

IOWA FALLS, IA.

M. M. Klockels, stage manager of the Metropolitan in this city, will resume that position next season and most of his able corps of assistants will be retained.

E. E. Meredith, well known as a "booster" for Raymond's Missouri Girl, is to go with one of Nixon & Zimmermann's attractions next season. However, he will continue the publication of The Missouri Breeze.

Tony Crandall, manager of Advance Car No. 3, for Norris & Rowe this season, has the following men for his assistants: Josh Billings, Elmer Brody, Fred Milton, Henry Danacher, Harry Mansfield, John Bagwell, Jos. Hyde, Harry Irving, James Smith, Chas. Burrell and Bob Brown.

F. Marion Shortridge, who has been in advance of Frank Mahara's Minstrels for many seasons, will sever his connection with that attraction at the close of the season, and will go with Melville B. Raymond.

Guy Stephens will teach water polo in Dreamland lake this week.

The Robinson and the Wallace Show gave each other a fight at Litchfield, Ill. PERCY E. EWING.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN.

The Casino Minstrels did so well at Olympia Park Theatre last week that Manager Y. C. Alley decided to hold them over another week.

Billy Beard and Gov. Bowen are prime favorites at Olympia.

The contract for the completion of the Shubert Theatre has been let to the Johnson Construction Co. of St. Louis, and it is to be completed by Nov. 1. The theatre will cost about $70,000. One of the features of the building will be the ease and rapidity with which it will be possible for an audience to get in and out, the entrance being arranged so that it will be possible in case of necessity for the full capacity of the house to reach the street in one and a half minutes.

Olympia will celebrate the Fourth.

Frank Reddow is making many friends in Chattanooga. He was Manager Alley's able representative at Glendale Park, Nashville, last season.

Will S. Albert, of the Orpheum Circuit, is expected home for a visit to his parents next month. Billy will be welcomed by his Chattanooga friends.

Dr. Boyd, owner and manager of the celebrated horse, King Phalaris, is resting here. He plays this city beginning July 15.

TORONTO, CAN.

It is reported that the new theatre, now being erected on King street by local capitalists, will be opened early in December. It will be controlled by the Shuberts.

Manager A. J. Small, of the Grand and Majestic theatres, is having the former house remodeled throughout. The Princess will also be given a thorough overhauling on the interior.

Strange to relate, none of the big tent shows have visited Toronto so far this season. Circuses always do immense business in this city.

Norm Bayne known as Miss Rose Wallace, of the Bayne Sisters, who have enjoyed a most successful season in a Yankee Circus on Mars, is spending the summer with her parents at Sunnyside in this city. Besides talent, Miss Bayne possesses an extremely charming personality and a bright future seems in store for her.

ONE OF THE FRONTS OF THE MUNDY SHOW

This picture was taken at Deatur, Ill., expressly for The Billboard. The gentleman reading the paper, which is, of course, Old Billy Roy, is L. C. Zelleno, who is doing the press work for Col. Whitney.

Francis J. Boyce, as the low comedian was successful because, really, Francis is so courtly and his wit so melodious that he always makes a hit.

Master's vandyville fill this week is composed of L. LeArden, in a combined musical and acrobatic act, Fern Melrose, soprano, and Mazzy, comedy and burlesque jugglers.

The vandyville at Coney this week is very entertaining and it attracted large crowds. The mysterious Jacques are good in a magical act.

Amusement Manager Clark has something of a surprise for the patrons of the Lagoon in the Queen City Juvenile Co. which holds forth at its popular resort.

MUST HAVE BEEN REAL

Harry J. Elsworth, who is appearing at Coney this week with Mrs. Elsworth in their vaudeville act, entitled The Silk Stocking...

"The last night of our engagement in Seattle was a real one. A heavy state of intoxication informed the man in the box office that he wanted to see the presented husband. As the show was about over, they let him in and he took a seat well down front.

The scene was so real in appearance and I was so genuinely tickled that it was simply impossible to proceed.

At Professor's in New York one night a fellow about as drunk as my Seattle friend was sitting in the front row and when I came on to sing he at once for I have played this sketch for years in all parts of the country.

"Well, I'll be blessed," he ejaculated, "if that fellow didn't drink tea and I didn't see out in five years."

JUST FACTS

N... as usual name isn't March. I don't want unusual sounds. I don't want my weather. They want me to do something.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

The Orpheum's bill week June 18 included Nina Allen & Co., Cliff G. Hill, German comedian, Brothers Baum, acrobats, Russo's Grand Opera Quartet, Mosher, Broughn and Mosher, cycle experts; Bertha Krant and moving pictures. Miss Allen's clever sketch, Car No. 2, brings roars of laughter and gets much applause.

At the Mission Theatre an excellent bill was presented. Among the entertainers were Carlsson Sisters, a clever song and dance team; Brown, on the silver rings, The Jolly Princes, Nick Brown, the cartoonist; Mae Tomlin, in quartet selections, Rossley and Roselle, and motion pictures. Capacity business is the rule at this house.

Arthur Pelroy has begun an action against the North W. Tapaka and Santa Fe Railroad Co. for $6,000 damages. According to the complaint, Pelroy was to give vandyville entertainments at the "Santa Fe Reading Rooms."

The staff of the Mission Theatre is as follows: F. Field, manager; Tom Smith, stage manager; Nick Brown, leader of orchestra; Leon Spelman, doorman and H. J. Borgdahl, head usher.

The Brothers Lutz made a great hit at the Greater Novelty Tent during their recent engagement there. On their previous visit in this city they were featured at the Orpheum. Their act consists of a musical turn and fancy rifle shooting by one of the brothers, who is unexcelled in performing all the tricks with his feet.

Paul Leslie is hereby requested to contribute at once with Mickey Smith, National Idea the San Francisco bill. Very urgent.

"I want to supply the stage with a character, a type which it does not possess. The type is representative of the woman of 40, with her ardent joy of living because she knows how to live, knowing life. I shall not imitate those actresses who refuse parts which make them the mothers of girls of 20, under pretense that it ages them. I shall truly devote my face, my figure, my genius and my heart to an art that which I consider will not be perfect in the eyes of the public unless it is sincere and genuine.

"I shall make my debut in the part of a woman, a true woman. I am not 40, and so my part will give me five years over 40 and I shall have a son 26.

"Nor do I intend to limit myself to my specialty, for I am desirous of doing so dramatic art what I have done in song. I shall play both tragic and comic parts, all kinds of characters tempt me; in brief, I am going to attempt fine, true and sincere art. I give myself three years to become what I desire to be."

NEW FIRM LAUNCHED

A new firm has just been launched in New York, to be known as the Eldridge, Meakin & Co., General Theatrical Exchange. The object is to consolidate all the daily business needs of the theatrical business under one head. Entertainers have been established for looking and representing entertainers on one-night stands throughout the United States and Canada.

Frank M. Eldridge and Charles W. Meakin, who compose the firm, are well known as managers and press agents and have secured the services of competent men to represent them in the various departments of their exchange. The executive offices of the company are in the Knickerbocker Theatre Building.

SEASON OF COOL DRINKS AND BREEZY ENTERTAINMENT

Noted Old Woman Character Talks of Herself

Unique Features of Current New York Productions—Descriptions of the Costumes That Add to the Success of the Best—Personal Notes of Players and Analysis of the Special Qualities of Their Genius.

By CADY WHALEY.

JUST as we change our heavy tailor-made frocks for these light, fluffy, comfortable summer dresses and begin to order cool drinks, salads, iced fruits and anything that looks refreshing, so we seek entertainment of the lighter, breezier sort and this we certainly have in His Honor, the Mayor, that opened at the New York Theatre May 28. It is dimsy enough in plot and light enough in music, sufficiently airy in dancing to suit the rather silly recreative mental state of the average New Yorker in the carefree summer season. It might be called The Pony Ballet and His Honor, the Mayor for just when you begin to feel that a dull moment is approaching, the ballet trips on all smiles, daintiness and grace, in their intricate and pleasing dances delight the audience, the Mayor of Kankakee having bought his election and been found out as well, flees to Paris, as scene of Act I, and to Hungary in Act II. The latter scene is one of the most artistic and altogether with the picturesque Hungarian costumes makes a charming ensemble picture.

Blanche Ring, the star of the aggregation, has been fitted with some songs that are well adapted to her abilities and she as always wears some pretty clothes. The first of these is a French peasant costume of yellow satin made with a bodice of a deeper tone of velvet and a wide band of the same encircles the full skirt. There is just the right touch of white and shoes and stockings match. Mahel Holms' first dress is a rather unusual one of pale blue silk over a curtain of lilac and an underskirt of pink; a wide blue hat is trimmed with flowers of the three shades and the inevitable stockings and shoes in the same tints. The chorus in golf costumes of pink, blue and white makes a good appearance. Lois Tabor wears a lavender chiffon cloth en train with wide rucks at the bottom, a Louis XV. coat of brocaded satin, long white gloves, white chemisette, wide brimmed hat of the lilac tone, trimmed with handsome feathers underneath the crown. Lora Lieb looks well in a white linen suit, the skirt inset with Irish medallions, a long coat of Irish lace, a black hat with green feathers and white lilacs on the corsage.

When Blanche Ring appears in the second act for her imitations, she looks strikingly well in an all-over Cluny lace a la Princess, an exquisitely fitted gown slightly low in the neck, three-quarter sleeves and a very smart large black hat with plumes; a diamond brooch and diamond buckle at belt. Miss Hollins' second act dress is an embroidered white net over white satin, with many silver spangles. Miss Tabor wears a yellow velvet Princess, with white lace underdress showing, and the bodice finished with the same handsome lace. A dazzling bronze spangled net over white with large black hat is Miss Lieb's last gown and Miss Ring makes another change to a short white organdie trimmed with innumerable rows of pink satin ribbon and a cunning lenzerie hat trimmed with pink, this while she sings

THE CARL LAMY TROUPE

The above acrobatic act is this season one of the top line "big show" specialties with the Sun Brothers' World's Railroad Shows. In the vernacular, the act has "made good" and is daily the subject of much fine comment. Last season this troupe was the heavily featured oller card with the Great Barlow Minstrels. At the termination of their present engagement, the boys contemplate an extended European tour, as they have received several handsome offers from managers and agents abroad. They are Carl, Morris, Arthur and Eddie.

her best song of the evening, Waltz Me Around Again Willie. There are some good lines notably when May Flood tells the Mayor about a girl she met who had Princeton hair. He asks, "What is Princeton hair?" And she replies, "It's yellow on top and black at the roots." The Mayor makes a hit when he tells a story of a man, who fell overboard, was pursued by a shark and saved himself by making a noise like a fishhook. Also to the statement that a man in Japan can get a wife for a bridegroom and a couple of silver strings, he comically replies, "Well, a good wife is worth it."

SOMETHING ABOUT MRS. SOL SMITH

Mrs. Sol Smith, who is one of the best known and most distinguished of the so-called "old women" of the stage, has spent the past year (the first time for many years off the stage) in coaching pupils and teaching music, as the latter profession was originally her choice, but necessity drove her to the speediest way of making a living and the stage offered that opportunity. Her father was W. H. Sedley, known professionally as W. H. Smith. He was born in Wales and educated for the ministry, but coming to this country with W. H. Chipendale, he secured an engagement at the Walnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia. One of Mrs. Smith's mother's sisters married J. M. Field and was therefore the mother of Kate Field, inheriting her cleverness from her mother, who was revered in comedy.

Mrs. Smith's mother was at one time engaged to Edwin Forrest, but a more advantageous suitor presented himself and was accepted. She said: "For twenty-five years my father was director of the Boston Museum and when in my teens I was married in Boston to Wm. Henry Brown. There were three children, Alice, Sedley and Edwin, but prosperity did not follow the union. Mr. Brown was worth at one time many hundred thousand dollars, but lost it all. He died at an early age and I was forced into acting to provide the necessities of life for my three small children. I made my debut May 12, 1862, at the old Boston Theatre in The Rough Diamond, playing in a company with Jno. E. Owen and E. L. Havenport, Fanny Havenport's father. I also played Marie in The Child Regiment and while I made a great hit in it I also became so filled with the sentiment of the part that I broke down completely while singing it one evening, and my father said, 'My child, never again let me see you get so in earnest as to forget to act.' I also remember with pleasure playing Gertrude in The Loan of a Lover that same season, for the benefit of Honest Tom Comer, leader of the orchestra, and it was also the date of my father and mother's wedding anniversary, at which Mr. Comer had been groomsmen. I came to New York in 1862 and made my debut in Brother and Sister, and later signed for the season with Mrs. Jno. Wood, who had taken the Olympic Theatre.

"One incident in my life I shall never forget, when playing Elyne O'Connor in Colleen Bawn, the leading man, highly intoxicated, was determined on throwing me down the trap door instead of into the carefully prepared 'stream,' but the stage hands, hearing me scream, realized that something was wrong and getting a blanket held it under the apparatus, thus saving me from instant death. In my early days I played stuzzing and lay parts mostly. At the old Lyceum, New York, I first played the Nurse in Barlow and filled with the Adelle Nelson company. I mean that on I have had an excellent career playing with almost all the leading stars of the present generation."

SEEN IN THE MAN ON THE BOX

The short engagement of the clever comedy, Man on the Box, was greatly enjoyed, though it did return to us at a time when we had to keep frowning and fanning to be in condition to appreciate the humor as well as good acting. The play fits Henry F. Blaney as snugly as do the groom's clothes that he wears for a joke that is a joke embodied in the play explanation given for fear my readers wouldn't understand. His comedy is of the kind that reaches over the footlights so easily and naturally the auditors are carried merrily along with him and their hearty applause is sympathetic and enthusiastic. It is through out a very good cast and the women appeared in some charming new summer frocks. When they meet in the Magistrate's office in the next act, Marie Nordstrom wears a pretty gray English serge, a la Princess, with chemisette of Irish lace, gray straw hat trimmed with black feathers and black velvet, long gray silk gloves, gray low shoes with stockings to match. Rosa Trum has a black wide short tuckled skirt, Empire coat effect, with white hat and white gloves.

BREAKAWAY BARLOWS

The Well-known Quality Gymnasts.

In the second act Miss Nordstrom makes a dashing appearance in an all black riding habit, black sailor hat and the usual riding boots, crop, etc. As a change costume for the same act, she dons a pretty simple dotted Swiss, a girlish dress with many lace edged ruffles and white shoes. Her chum, played by Pauline Whitson, comes to visit her garbed in a blue liberty satin Princess with wide lace panel down the front, yoke of the lace and sleeve trimming of the same. Their choicest furbelows are reserved, however, for Act III, when Miss Nordstrom wears an exquisite blue Messaline silk, built a la Princess, with a plain perfectly fitting skirt en train and low-cut bodice that has handsome lace and silver embroidery inset and sleeves artistically draped with the same rich trimming. Blue satin slippers match the gown and a wreath of dainty flowers encircles the coiffure that is dressed low. This is decidedly one of the few perfect stage dresses of the season and the graceful carriage of the actress lends added charm. For the same act, Miss Whitson has a stylish costume of white chiffon built over white silk. The demitrained skirt is encircled with ruffles and the fabric edged with tiny daisies, a surplice bodice filled in with lace is finished as is the skirt by garlands of tiny pink roses—a most dainty, effective costume.

ZELDA SEARS HAS OPINIONS.

Zelda Sears, who recently closed with The Square Deal and who also played a character part with Francis Wilson in Cousin Billy in a charmingly natural manner, has signed with The Truth by Clyde Fitch in which Clara Roadgood will be starred and which opens in New York Oct. 1. Miss Sears holds an unique position in the profession, as she is also a business woman as well as a good comedienne. Her father was an Italian, a native of Rome, while her mother was an American born English woman. For a number of years she has devoted her time in the summer and when disengaged to stenography until she is now an expert median stenographer and by that means she has acquired an independence and accepts only gilt-edged professional engagements.

She says she thinks work is good for one's character as well as finances; that nothing is so demoralizing as idleness by which the mind grows sluggish and the purse emaciated, that girls adopting the stage must make their own opportunities. She says: "As for myself, I find more possibilities in character work. Women, I think, contrary to the oft repeated statement have a sense of humor, but they lack the knack of projecting it, which must be done clearly and with great precision, but at the same time delicately. I have absolutely no vanity and in the servant's part that I am to leave in the New Fitch play I want to make myself look as ugly and ridiculous as possible. Another opinion that I hold contrary to the estimate the old actor gives to his experience in stock. I had three years of it and for a certain time is good training, but in playing so many parts one loses the art of bringing out the points of character definitely enough. But it's no use to sermonize, the girls will just have to find out for themselves and learn by the best means at hand as did the little boy of seven, a child of a friend of mine, that I am very fond of and whom I took to the Hippodrome the other day—coming out he said, 'Zelda are you an acrobat, or just a plain actor?'

Brown of Harvard which has had such a long, successful run at the Princess, is, as all know, a college play, but possibly only a few realize how much of a boy's play it really is as to the members of the cast. It is very often said that the sons of actors rarely make good actors, but there are three members of a younger generation in this play that promise to become a credit to their talented parents. They are Arthur Shaw, who is the son of the talented actress Mary Shaw, J. Heron Miller, the offspring of Henry Miller, and Higon Heron and Douglas Wood, a male descendant of the first generation of Ida Jeffries Goddard. The chaplains did some very clever work, too, with but one exception, they yelled so loud all through the performance that one more strenuous season of that kind would certainly find them with very husky, if not entirely ruined voices. Slow down boys, and you will do better at the home stretch.

Edla Johnson Young, the wife of the actor James Young, succeeded so well with this her first pretentious effort at playwriting that she is spending the summer at a summer resort in Connecticut, writing plays for dear life.

TONY PEARL'S HOSTELRY

"Italy! My Italy! Open my heart and you will see, played inside of it Italy!" When the lights are brightest in the theatre district a little Italian restaurant just below Theatre Avenue (534 Seventh Avenue) will be filled with actor folks and others eating ravenously of spaghetti and different Italian dishes amid the good cheer of merry voices, laughter, and oftentimes snatches of popular airs. For the place—Tony Pearl's—is more of the nature of a small club for professionals than an everyday restaurant, as the souvenir photos on the walls and the general atmosphere tell their own story. From the misdirected efforts of the cheery after-theatre diners, it is evident few can eat the long stringy tubes with the deftness and skill that Wilton Mackaye displayed in Yippy. As for myself, I was pelted to resort to eating it behind my napkin held before my face as a screen and even then the contrary stuff trickled down my freshly laundered blouse and though I tried hard to hide it my friends found some in my lap. Your friends are often far too observant.

The enterprising Italian who is helping Link Venice to Broadway, is the same Tony Pearl of the successful vaudeville team, Montgomery and Pearl, whom we saw at Weber's Music Hall and with The Lew Field Co. He still finds time for engagements and is at present 'doing the Proctor Circuit' with Julius Steger, Forrest Robinson and Julie Herne in a sketch called The Fourth Commandment.

After you've heard Vesta Tilly, Or Waltz Me Around Again Willy, Don't forget Tony Pearl—Waltz for you and your girl, And in saying spaghetti? spaghetti?

NEW PLAY TO BE PRODUCED

The Duke and the Dancer is the name of a new play by Charlotte Thompson, author of The Strength of the Weak, that will be given its initial presentation upon any stage at the Parson Theatre, Hartford, Conn., on July 2. Julia Dean and Omre Caldarra will appear in the leading roles and Clarence Handybide, John Finley, Walter Hiltbeck, John Westley, Thomas Thorne, Eva Vincent, Aleda Cortelyou and Evelyn Wedding will appear in their support. Frank E. Lamb is staging the production.

PERFORMERS TO STAR

Owing to the illness of Miss Blanche O'Neil, the team of Russell and O'Neil has canceled its engagement with the Bentz Santley Co. for next season. Dan Russell has joined interests with Will B. Wheeler, and they will be starred in the three-act musical comedy, Looking For a Wife, under the management of Geo. B. Samuels.

MISS MABEL BARRISON

One of the peculiar features of the profession is the sudden talent which breaks out in the ranks of the untried. Opportunity is every where and wise is the manager who gives more than a great start a chance to make good.

The story of Mabel Barrison who appears in the chorus of two New York comedies without any indication visible to the managers of gaining headway in her profession. Born in Toronto and having at an early age to make her own way in the world her parents having died during her childhood, Miss Barrison made her way with a companion to New York City.

She applied for a position in one of the theatres and being rejected, but owing to the suggestion of a friend was rejected while the friend was successful.

Disappointed in her attempt to begin her professional career, Miss Barrison applied for a position as saleswoman in a large Broadway store and worked but a short time before her eyes were brightened one day when she met a prominent actress who promised to do what she could for the young miss.

Shortly afterwards Miss Barrison was one of the "front girls" of the Shollers Co. with William W. Mason.

One evening the comedian had responded to numerous choruses to a very enthusiastic audience. At a moment he grabbed the charming little and waltzed around the stage with her. The idea made an immediate hit, and she joined the Anna Held's company when she was with Mabel Barrison.

It was the first real chance that presented itself. Miss Barrison came in The Wizard of Oz and she was given a part in which she played an audience in Chicago. As Trixie she sang the little song which secured the greatest financial success of the piece. Another season with the same management, she found another opportunity to work with William Morris in Babes in the Wood.

Two weeks ago Miss Barrison celebrated her second year under the Knoll & Castle management. Her first appearance at the Chicago House was made in The Land of Nod with William Morris June 12, 1905. Since that date she has played in three productions, giving her experience opportunities, and in some cases more than a hundred times.

As Babes in the Land of Nod Miss Barrison secured the usual charming personality and singing voice, attracting large crowds of admirers for several consecutive weeks. She could sing and dance to the most important song hits of this season.

Her appearance at the Chicago Opera House was made in His Honor, the Mayor, with Miss Savoy. This piece, which just now is the greatest success of Broadway, is filled with beautiful songs and songs used by Miss Barrison. The latter actress gave her additional material and Miss Savoy she carried a part in the opera house.

Miss Barrison will rest this summer. Owing to her connection with George Musgrove's August 15, the opera house management was closed for the season. The Three Graces engagement on June 17 and Miss Barrison left to spend the summer with Blanche Rink in New York, the two having become close friends since the time of His Honor, the Mayor, in 1905.

A prominent instance of Miss Barrison's success is that in all of her productions she has had use of popular songs from the pen of the successful Will Gaston.

B. C. WHITNEY'S ATTRACTIONS

B. C. Whitney, whose headquarters are located in Detroit, Mich., will be largely interested in the coming season both in theatres and road attractions. In addition to managing the Detroit Opera House and the Princeton Theatre at Toronto, Ont., both of which are under his exclusive management, Mr. Whitney will manage the new theatre at Ann Arbor, Mich., having recently acquired by purchase, the old opera house in that city. The new theatre will be complete and modern in every respect, will seat about 1,000 people and will be ready to open about Jan 1.

Among Mr. Whitney's attractions for the coming season will be Captain Careless, a new musical comic opera in which John E. Hennessy will be starred. The book and lyrics are by R. Melville Baker and the music by George Crawford. Sumner & Landis have secured the contracts for two beautiful sets of scenery. The production and rehearsals will be under Mr. Whitney's immediate supervision.

The Show Girl, the musical tomfoolery featuring Hilda Thomas and Lou Hall; Piff, Paff, and two companies of The Isle of Spice, will be prepared for the road in Detroit and elsewhere will take place in the same city.

Mr. Whitney's general staff will be the same as the past Bert St. John, general manager; S. S. S. S., general stage director, and Frank Rowling, general auditor.

THEATRICAL PLAYBILLS

Programs reflect to a great extent the policy of the management of the house for which they are used. It is greatly to the manager's interest to put up as neat a playbill as possible. Some of the new features in the program of the leading managers have been attractive and favorable notices this season. The stereotyped jokes have been cut out. In their place two or three short stories and columns of news on men's and women's dress, chafing dish, running automobiles, caring for the complexion, besides short reviews of recent books and other gossip on matters of general interest. A few of the items are indirect advertisements, but the greater number are simply useful and entertaining.

GORYATOWSKY BROS. GETTING READY

Messrs. Goryatowsky Brothers, managers of Rawlin's Theatre, Albany, Ga., the Colonial at Athens, the Bailey at Waycross, the Valdosta at Valdosta and the Bijou at Griffin announce that they have booked a better class of attractions for the coming season than they have ever played before.

They advise that the new Colonial Theatre, now being built by Frank Cox at Athens, is nearing completion and will positively open in September. This theatre will when completed, seat 1,200 will be on the ground floor, have twenty four dressing rooms and a stage measuring 36 feet in width and 40 feet in depth. The seats and curtains will be of plush, and the general color scheme will be old rose and ivory. The lobby will be spacious, floors tiled and there will be a ladies' waiting room and gentlemen's smoking apartments.

The theatre at Albany will be overhauled before the season opens.

ENGAGED BY PEOPLE'S EXCHANGE

Recent engagements through the new People's Theatrical Exchange, Chicago, of which W. T. Gaskill is manager are Violet Edell, Rockfield and Vickers, Katherine Roberts and daughter, Frank Barrett, Irene Sanford, Barden Lefferts, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Moran, Lloyd Neal, Harry E. Dillon, Ida Stewart and daughter, John Gomers and May Eyre with Elmer Walters.

Beatrice Steward, James London, Leo C. Bell and Barton Gibson with Peterson's Poor Relations.

NORFOLK AND RICHMOND WILL HAVE NEW THEATRES

THE Shuberts will have new theatres in both Norfolk and Richmond, Va., next season. The new theatre at Norfolk was announced some time ago in this column and now J. G. Gordon, of Norfolk, has purchased the Sanger Hall property on Seventh street near Broad in Richmond, and a new theatre is to be built at once. The Shuberts will have the general direction of the new house, but a Richmond man will be the local manager. The new theatre will cost about $50,000. It had been reported that the Shuberts would get the Academy the coming season, but Jake Wells hoots at the idea and to prove that the Academy will be under his married, and on the morning of June 20 the ceremony took place. They returned and did not miss a performance. Mr. McCann is a hoop roller and Miss Williams plays Topsy. She will master the hoops with a view of the team entering vaudeville.

A. H. Stone, an actor, whose home is in Bedford City, Ind., and Miss Alice Marr, of Staunton, Va., were united in marriage on June 1.

Fairmont, W. Va., has long needed a show lot, and it will interest circus people to learn that the Tracton Company has purchased a plot of ground on the outskirts of the city, will grade it for a baseball park and circus lot and that the Barnum Show will play there in September.

William Rockey, the agent, who is spending the summer at Johnsonburg, Pa., has returned from a ten days' trip to Niagara Falls and Canadian points.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. MacArthur are spending the month of July in New York.

The Cutter Stock Co. opened at the Casino at Terrapin Park, W. Va., June 26 and M. A. Weston is the manager. Mrs. Weston and Miss Rita O'Neill are members of the company.

The Grand Opera House at Clarksburg, W. Va., is being repainted and redecorated under the direction of Manager Robinson, who came from his home at Wheeling to look after the work. He states that the attractions are the finest that have ever been booked to appear in that city.

The Harris Stock Co., which is at Olympia Park at McKeesport, Pa., includes Eugene Moore, Hugh Harper, Wilson Melrose, Wilton Taylor, Harry G. Hockey, Bernard Lyons, Dennis Harris, James Cooper, Ernest Oatman, Katherine Scott, Helen Whitman, Juliette Atkinson, Maida Reade, and Margaret Hills. Harris & Son are the managers.

Miss Maud Morris, who played Ethel Levey's role in Little Johnny Jones last season, will be prima donna with the Murray & Mack show the coming season.

Hugh Harper has signed to go with Rowland & Clifford again next season.

The Canadian Provinces will stick to Canadian actresses which will explain the big business Roselle Knott did in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. She charged $1.50 for more seats than Henrietta Crossman did last summer and still got big houses everywhere. She played to 1,200 people at Truro, Nova Scotia, and received the greatest ovation ever given a performer in that city. The Connors Stock Co., when Women Love, Utah, and The Vendetta are all doing well in the Maritime provinces.

The members of a carnival company have been in all kinds of trouble at Moundsville, W. Va., but at length all of them have gotten out of the town. One young lady tried to commit suicide by drinking bed bug poison but members of the company interfered by calling medical aid.

Frank E. Foster, of Iowa Falls, Ia., is the busiest man in the world. Besides being correspondent for fifteen daily papers in the north west, writing to the dramatic press, managing the electric light plant, being city clerk, cemetery superintendent and secretary of the board of water commissioners, he has assumed the editorship of the Hardin County Citizen, while the real editor is away on a month's vacation.

The writer is in receipt of copies of the Boston Globe, Herald and Transcript which contain reviews of the Barnum Show and these papers can not praise the performance too highly. It seems.

Mail for the writer can be sent to Fairmont, W. Va. E. E. MEREPIETH.

NEW THEATRE FOR ASTORIA

Astoria, Oregon, will have a new theatre next season, and R. E. Elvers will build it. It will seat 844 people and will open not later than Oct. 1. Mr. Elvers is well known in that city, also among the profession, being The Billboard's correspondent for Astoria, and he will undoubtedly make good in his new venture.

LAMSON SELLS PLAY

Ed. Lamson has sold his new comedy drama, The Gentleman From Prisco, to eastern managers, who will put it on the road this season. Mr. Lamson will devote his time to the launching of a new melodrama that has been arranged for a smaller cast. He will tour the northwestern country playing week and three-night stands.

LENGTHENED

The success attending Roselle Knott in When Knighthood Was in Flower and the guarantees offered her for return dates have warranted a continuance of her tour until Aug. 18. Next season Miss Knott will be seen in a new play by Mrs. Charles A. Lorenus, entitled The Duchess of Devonshire.

NEW PIECE FOR DIXEY

Cyrus Townsend Brady has sold the dramatic rights of his story, Richard the Brazen, to Walter N. Lawrence, who has entrusted Edward Peple, the author of The Prince Chap, with the task of turning the story into a comedy. The play is to be produced early in the fall, and Henry E. management he gives to the public the following list of the attractions booked: Simple Simon Simple, Frank Deshon, Noah's Ark, Buster Brown, The Lion and the Mouse, The Prince of Pilsen, Checkers, Roger Brothers, The Squaw Man, Lew Dockstader, Man and Superman, Ben Hur, Way Down East, The College Widow, The Student King, The Rollicking Girl, W. H. Crane, The Old Homestead, The Umpire, Joseph and William Jefferson in Playing the Game, The County Fair, Fisher Opera Co., The Sultan of Sulu, Forty-Five Minutes From Broadway, Sergeant Kitty, Little Bo-peep, Thomas Jefferson, a new Shipman attraction, Arthur Dunn, The Jungle, The One Woman, Her Own Way, Little Johnny Jones, It Happened in Nordland, Blanche Walsh, May Irwin, Primrose's Minstrels, Paul Gilmore, The Virginian, Florence Davis, Creston Clarke, Al. Wilson and Field's Minstrels. For several reasons the above list of attractions will be of more than usual interest.

Perce R. Benton's Comedians are in Oklahoma appearing under a tent and are doing a nice business. "Jack" Williams is directing the tour and can always be depended upon to get money. It seems, Mr. Benton sends the writer a folder that stands alone in its class for there is not a single misrepresentation; simply convincing statements. At one place it says: "Our attractions get the money because they are better than some." There's modesty for you, and it is the first the writer has ever run up against in the show business. Put that in your pipe and smoke it!

Frank G. McCann and Miss Dot Williams, both members of McCutcheon Uncle Tom's Cabin tried to get a marriage license at several West Virginia towns, but found it impossible, as she had not attained the acquired age. They were forced to jump to Oakland, Maryland, to get

RETIREES FROM SHOW BUSINESS

Harry Nye, formerly general agent for Al. W. Marlin and agent last season for Her Fatal Sin, announces that he has retired permanently from the show business and that he will henceforth devote his entire time to newspaper work. He is on the Times Recorder, Zanesville, one of the best papers in the Buckeye state.

THE PAYMASTER

LENGTH, 612 FEET.

THE HERO.

It is generally conceded that "The Paymaster" is to Motion Picture productions what "Shore Acres" is to the stage. Taken in a beautifully picturesque New England mill town, and enacted by a troupe of well known and very high class actors, it leaves nothing to be desired in the way of realism. Some of the great scenes: The Birthday Fete; the Heroine at Work in a Woolen Mill (the real thing); Robbery of the Pay Roll; Riot of the Mill Hands; Burial of the Money by Moonlight; THE DOG DETECTIVE, and, finally, THE GREAT RESCUE AT THE MILL DAM, the most thrilling and realistic stunt ever done for moving pictures.

performer must report at the theatre where his act has been canceled and announce that he is ready to go on with his turn.

The case was that of Bernard J. Fagin, of the team of Fagin & Byron, against Milton Aborn. According to the papers in the case, Fagin & Byron signed a contract with Milton Aborn to appear on a vaudeville circuit in Pennsylvania for the stipulated salary of $250 a week.

The dates were in Wilkesbarre, Harrisburg, Erie and Scranton. The contract contained the usual clause providing that either party might cancel by giving two weeks' notice. Two weeks before the time set for the first appearance of the team, Aborn notified them in writing that they would not be wanted at Wilkesbarre, Harrisburg or Scranton.

By an oversight, Erie was not named. Later, after the time at which they were to have appeared in Erie, Fagin brought suit for one week's salary, $250. According to Fagin's attorneys, who appeared as counsel for Fagin, he did not intend that he had even given Erie and offered his services. However, the Municipal Court, before Justice Lynn, awarded the full amount with costs, and the Appellate Division has been said to hold that there was no action.

Dorothy Dore, who did not work last season in The Case, in support of Blanche Waite's claim to the season play in Mrs. Pliske's room.

DEATHS

John F. Dougherty.—Notice of his death appears on the circus page of this issue.

Alberto Rosati, composer and bandmaster, and leader of Rosati's Royal Italian Band, which was playing an engagement at Forest Park, Kansas City, Mo., died unexpectedly after an operation for appendicitis, Saturday morning about 5:40, June 23. He was taken ill about June 19 after the evening performance and on Thursday his case was diagnosed as a severe form of appendicitis. An operation followed, but the bandmaster never recovered from the shock. Signor Rosati was born in Italy twenty-eight years ago. His native city was Venice, but his childhood was spent in America.
His parents leaving Italy when he was young.
However, Rosati returned to his native country and completed his education at the Conservatory of Naples, also taking a post-graduate course at the Conservatory of Rome. Three years ago he organized the Rosati Royal Italian Band and played exclusively in the east until this season. The deceased is survived by two sisters and a brother, all of whom reside in New York City. Miss Nellie Turn-wall, the soprano soloist with the band, took charge of the body and left with it for James town, N. Y., where the relatives will take charge. Arthur Turnwall, brother of Miss Turnwall, has taken charge of the band's affairs and Archelo DeCarlo, clarinet soloist, was chosen temporary leader to fill out the Kansas City engagement, ending June 30.

Annie May Lamond, wife of Gus Lamond, formerly of Keosau, and Lamond, died June 13, at her home in Fresno, Cal. She was professionally known as May Canada, and in the early seventies was engaged at the Deagles Va-city Theatre, in St. Louis, Mo. Mrs. Lamond was a sister to George E. Austin, the comedy wire artist. Besides her husband, two sons survive her.

Baby Louise Pitney, only child of Louise
Gunning, the well-known opera singer, died
June 23, of cholera infantum. Miss Gunning was so prostrated after her daughter's death that she was unable to witness the burial.

Pat-Chats

By WARREN A. PATRICK.

POWERS' Theatre, Sunday, June 24, was the scene of an unusually interesting event. It was the first performance on any stage of Marah Ellis Ryan's dramatization of her popular novel, Told in the Hills. There has been an obvious effort put forth by those concerned in this production to justify the impression that undoubtedly prevails that interest in it extends not only to theatrical centers throughout the country, but to the large numbers of people who have read the book. As a mere incident of the amusement season in Chicago this production naturally compels more than ordinary attention by reason of the company that has been assembled to play the piece and because the production is being put forth by a well-known Chicago management. The Will J. Block Amusement Co. has heretofore confined its attention to the production of musical comedy and this departure into the dramatic field exhibits a determination to achieve a result which shall be far reaching in its effect. The play is in four acts, all of which are laid in the Kootenai hills and Chinook forests in Montana, and their reproduction gives scope for extraordinary elaboration. All of the characters are of the type who live in the wild regions of the west, which gives opportunity for costumes very seldom seen in polite drama or in theatres like Powers'. Mrs. Ryan has been very active in her efforts to preserve the atmosphere of her story. Edwin Arden appears in the star part, Jack Genesee, and he has the support of such well-known people as Bruce Melne, Joseph Brennan, Edward Ellis, James Revis, Walter D. Greene, George Christie, R. R. Nell, John G. Edwards, Mabel Roebuck, Louise Galloway and Edna Dorman.

Sunday night began the third week of the new successful comic opera, The Alcayde, in the Grand Opera House. During the week just closed audiences of large dimensions have filled the playhouse at every performance, who showered their plaudits on the excellent company engaged in its presentation. The Alcayde shows a refreshing return to the days of genuine comic opera more than any other work produced in Chicago in many a day. The beauty of many of its melodies will help a great deal toward making the future reputation of its gifted composer, who, accepting the possibilities allowed by the Spanish-Moorish settings, in which land the author has placed the scenes of The Alcayde, has taken advantage to introduce tuneful suggestions in weird Moorish chants and songs and choruses. Among the surprises of this excellent company is Miss Ivy Clyde, the prima donna, who has achieved an instantaneous hit in her entrance song. Edlle Heron (who has succeeded Thomas Q. Seabroke), Eugene Cowles, Vonts Rensselaer Wheeler, Biele King and Miss Alice Hagaman also contribute to make The Alcayde the one positive musical success in Chicago. The chorus is pretty, youthful and one that can sing and dance. The Alcayde will remain the summer attraction at the Grand for many weeks to come.

Thomas Seabroke has withdrawn from the cast of The Alcayde. He was unable to appear on Monday last, and his retirement is said to be permanent. Manager James K. Hackett stated that Mr. Seabroke had been seriously ill shortly before the rehearsals for The Alcayde began, and he evidently had begun work too soon.

Henry Woodruff in Brown of Harvard is proving a mascot attraction at the Garrick. The fourth week of the run is just beginning, and business is continually on the increase.

The Clausman has achieved such a sensational success that the engagement in McVicker's stands out as the most remarkable theatrical event of the season.

The Lion and the Mouse commenced Sunday evening, 1, the sixth week of its remarkable engagement at the Illinois Theatre, making in all a run of ten weeks in this city. Large and enthusiastic audiences are still the rule and indications point to a continuance of prosperity for this remarkable play.

Forty-five Minutes From Broadway continues to astonish the wisecracks who predicted dire disaster from the interruption of its great run in this city, by retelling the full degree of popularity and prosperity which has attended its presentation in the Colonial Theatre. This appeals particularly to the out-of-town people who are coming to the theatre in great numbers, and the audiences invariably contain a large number of repeaters for the play in such a strong combination of heart interest, fine character work, melodramatic effectiveness and so tunately adorned that many people enjoy it again and again. Fay Templeton and Victor Moore in their roles of Mary and Kid Burns, respectively, have recently been adding little bits to their dialogue without marring the original finish and injecting a trifle of increased humor and cleverness to the satisfaction of every one. The play is to terminate the current engagement on July 28, and that wonderful young mime and impersonator, Elsie Janis, in The Vanderbilt Cup, will follow the Cohen play on July 29.

The appearance of Miss Nellie Stewart and the Musgrove company in the Chicago Opera House during the past two weeks has justly been proclaimed an artistic triumph. It is indeed a triumph of ensemble such as has seldom been seen in this country since the days when Augustin Daly was in his prime. Since that day there have been very few companies capable of presenting costume plays of historic periods, an extremely difficult feat in these times, and one for which most of the actors of the present day, whose experience is chiefly in modern clothes, are entirely unskilled. Mr. Musgrove brings with him in addition to Miss Stewart a company of actors trained on the English stage and quite able to wear the trappings of another period with ease and grace. Add to this equipment a most complete scenic investiture with all costumes and accessories complete down to the minutest detail, and one discovers the reason why this production of Sweet Nell has made such a profound impression. A revival of The Land of Nod is scheduled for an early production at the Chicago Opera House, following Miss Stewart's engagement.

Williams and Walker and their company of clever entertainers continue to play to capacity in the Great Northern, where they begin the sixth week of a so far highly successful engagement.

At the Studebaker the DeKoven-Ranken-Stange opera, The Student King concluded, Saturday night, its Chicago engagement. The six weeks' run has proved a profitable one. The Studebaker will remain closed for four weeks.

A one-act curtain-raiser, entitled The Reward, was played at the Columbus last week as an appetizer for Under Two Flags, which was the final offering of the season of Amne

McHUGH IS PRAISED

According to O. L. Hall, in the Journal, Morris McHugh, the heavy-weight comedian of the Players' Stock Co., whose name is a household word on the North side in Chicago, is now playing with Amelia Bingham's stock company in a St. Louis summer garden—prosit—and is praised as the funniest man that has struck the nite market city since the days when they sold slaves on the courthouse steps. They say he reminds them of Harry Conor, only more so—which in St. Louis, is the superlative expression.

CLAY CLEMENT OPENS SEPT. 17

Clay Clement's play of life in the southwest before the war, Sam Houston, is scheduled for production on Sept. 17 at the Metropolitan Opera House, Minneapolis. Mr. Clement has had the assistance of John Mc Govern and Jessie Edson, of Chicago, in writing Sam Houston. The first act transpires in the governor's mansion at Nashville, Tenn., where Houston's peculiar good fellowship with the Indians is used in a humorous yet dramatic way to bring about the sudden climax that changed his entire career. The second and third acts are an exterior and interior scene at old Washington, on the Brazos. The fourth and last act is laid in the executive chamber of the Governor of Texas at Austin.

ELKS HONOR BEN JEROME

In honor of Ben Jerome's debut as a producer of vaudeville novelties, 400 members of the local Elks lodge attended the Majestic fact that daily matinees were the rule throughout the south the six hundredth performance has been reached this early. In Kansas City three performances were given in one day after daily matinees had been given all the week.

RIVERVIEW'S BIG SPECTACLE

The Fall of the Golden Gate, the new fireworks spectacle at Riverview Park, has swung into excellent shape and is nightly drawing big crowds. The production is based on the recent San Francisco disaster, particularly pertaining to the destruction of Chinatown. It is presented with one of the largest scenic pictures ever shown in America, covering a stretch of more than 100 feet with nearly 10,000 square yards of canvas. The scene represented the streets of Chinatown on a fête night, introducing a ballet and other interesting specialties. In the midst of the merry-making the earthquake comes, starting with the explosion of rockets and dynamite and following with a configuration that apparently destroys the city.

ROWLAND & CLIFFORD'S PLANS

There is much activity in and about the general offices of Rowland & Clifford in the Grand Opera House Building, Chicago. This enterprising firm will exploit a long string of attractions, besides being active in the affairs of the Central States Theatre Co., which was recently incorporated and in which James Wingfield and Frank Gazzolo are also interested. The Rowland & Clifford theatrical attractions are entirely separate from the Central States Theatre company, however, and will include the following: A new musical melodrama written by Leon B. Parker and music by Clarence E. Sinn, called The Phantom Detective, will be the big new credit show, and it is understood to be something of a novelty. Two companies will present Thorns and Orange Blossoms; James Kyle MacCurdy will again go on tour in The Old Clothes Man; William V. Mong, in The Clay Baker, is another new one for the coming season under this management. Among the other road attractions are: Dora Thorne, Over Niagara Falls, The Minister's Daughters and The Game Keeper. Rowland & Clifford also have a finely appointed scenic studio where all of their productions are designed, built and painted. No less than three big show printing houses are patronized to turn out the license amount of printing for this firm. Harry Earl, is the general representative of the Rowland & Clifford enterprises.

Late advices indicate that Messrs. Thompson & Dundy are to have a music hall in Chicago. It is reported that the site has been engaged and that work on the structure will commence Sept. 1, the resort to open early next spring.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.

The warm weather is here at last and excursions from all over the country are bringing thousands of visitors to this world's famous resort. The various places of amusement are all running full blast and incidentally doing capacity business.

The new trolley line from Philadelphia to the seashore, will be completed by July 5, and it will be a great feature. People along this route can come and go as they desire. The coaches used on this new electric road will be the finest in the world, each costing $10,000.

Work is progressing rapidly on Young's New Palace Pier, and it will be one of the finest places of amusement in the country.

Young's Pier is attracting the multitudes with excellent band concerts, vaudeville, roller skating, etc.

All the various attractions at the Steeple Chase Pier are doing a rushing business.

Moore Brothers' new palace carousel opened for business June 23 and immediately caught the fancy of the public. This is an excellent attraction and represents an outlay of $25,000.

The Johnstown Flood continues to get its share of the receipts, while Bentzel's Amusement Palace and Galloping Horses and the Free Arcade are both doing a land office business.

Governor's Theatre is attracting S. R. O. houses with high-class vaudeville.

The Atlantic City Amusement Park, under the management of J. R. Taylor, opens its gates July 4 to the public. Attractions of every kind have been installed in this resort and it will undoubtedly be a big success.

Florida, the celebrated comic opera, will begin a brief season at Young's Pier, July 2.

Hale's Tours of the World are proving a great novelty and big crowds are visiting this attraction at all times.

The Big Tommaso-Sibley Carnival Co. will be at Chutes Park week July 2-5. Dr. De Arno Grey was in advance of his rivals in organizing and his masterly efforts have made a great impression in the way of publicity. The Tommaso-Sibley Co. comes highly recommended.

All the various moving picture shows, penny arcades, etc., are doing splendid business.

FRANK B. HUBBIN

ST. LOUIS, MO.

Amelia Bingham began her second week at the Suburban Garden with The Chambers to big business. She is giving a most excellent performance. The Frisky Mrs. Johnson will be the bill next week.

Ethel Fuller scored again at West End Heights this time as Gisela.

An excellent vaudeville bill, headed by Wilhelmina and Waitrose, is on at Mammoth Park. This park is making money with good shows.

Belmar Garden had another large Sunday when The Girl From Paris was the attraction. The receipts this week promise to be larger than ever before.

Dan S. Elshel writes me confining his appointment as manager of the Garrick Theatre for the winter season. But the "Greatest on Earth" will hold his attention for some time.

Forest Park Highlands has booked lots of picnics. Papluta heads the big vaudeville bill.

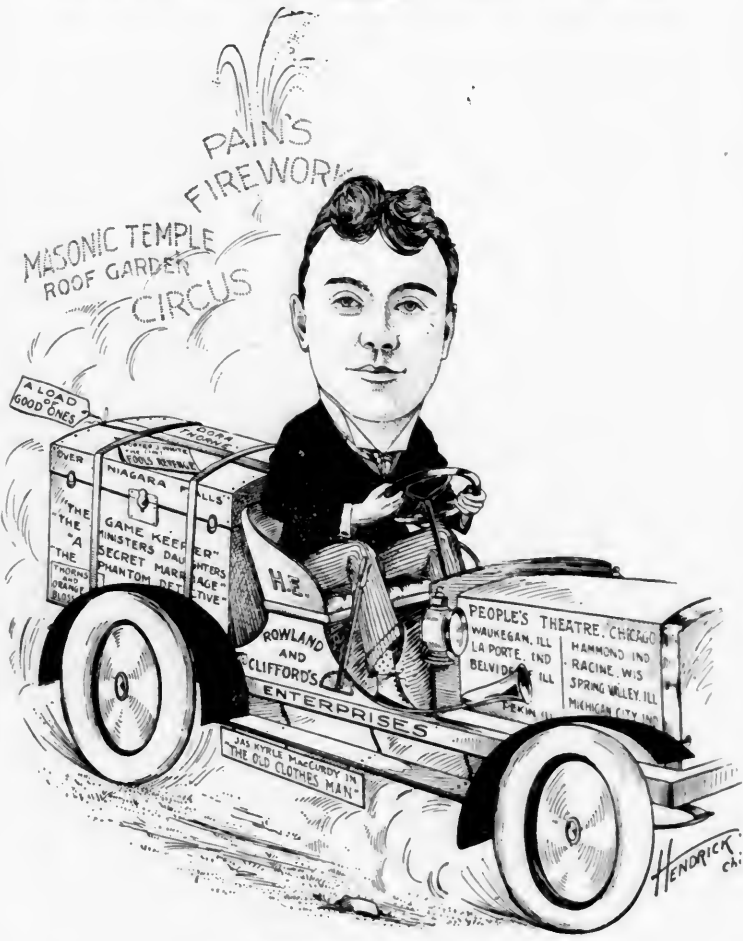

Erilmer and his band will play the Highlands next week. This band is of St. Louis origin and has received some excellent notices. Dan S. Elshel is manager.

Helen Bertrane began an engagement as soloist at the Alps Sunday. She is very popular here and is proving a great attraction with Banda Rossa.

Sutherland's stock company. The Reward is a keen-ent playlette, written by Otis Colburn of Chicago. The action occurs in a cabin in the mountains of Colorado. There are three characters, an easterner, who is dying, his patient young wife, and a rugged young chap who is driven to the cabin by a storm. The play is decidedly realistic in tenor, and the situation is rather startling. Leon McKeonolds played the role of the easterner with good effect. Arling Aline was a breezy young westerner, and Grace Hamilton played the part of the wife in an unusually pleasing manner.

DUCE EDITS PLAYGOER

The first number of the Playgoer, a weekly publication devoted to the Schubert interests, edited by Herbert C. Duce, manager of the Garrick Theatre, will make its appearance next week. The publication will be circulated free of charge and a list of over 5,000 playgoers who desire to receive it has already been compiled through the tedium of a blank form inserted in the Garrick program.

WITH TWO OF THE GRACES

Trixie Friganza, who quit the cast of The Three Graces to go into vaudeville, will probably succeed Blanche King in his honor, the Mayor, which still is able to keep all Gotham silly. Miss King already has the reputation of being the most general predecessor on the American stage. She has been succeeded in about all the roles running loose and she now has a repertoire of musical comedy parts that would shame a singer brought up on an Italian opera diet.

Edna Wallace Hopper, also recently of The Three Graces company, is being invited to star next season. She has not yet sent her regrets. Theatre, Monday night, 2. The playhouse was decorated in honor of the occasion and a warm welcome was given Mr. Jerome, who has made a name for himself in the musical line. The Isle of Spice and The Royal Chef are examples of his compositions. The new field in which the clever composer has entered gives him an opportunity to introduce six new melodies. The effort brings out William Beck as a vaudeville comedian, with William McArty, a prima donna, who has appeared in several Chicago productions. Since Mr. Rock's connection with Richard Carle's musical comedies he has become a popular player and his new venture gives him additional opportunities for his singing and dancing specialties.

BALLPLAYERS SEE ALCAYDE

The members of the Alcayde company entertained the Chicago and Cincinnati National League baseball clubs Friday evening at the Grand Opera House. All the boxes were reserved for the players.

CLOTHES PRODUCED IN MILWAUKEE

Clothes, a play founded upon the truths of Thomas Carlyle's Sartor Resartus, written by Channing Pollock and Avery Hopwood, was produced for the first time on any stage by the Brown Baker Stock Co. in the Davidson Theatre, Milwaukee, on Monday, July 2. Mr. Pollock, who conducted the rehearsals, and Messrs. Wagenhals & Kemper, who control the rights, attended the premiere.

THE CLANSMAN'S WONDERFUL RECORD

Monday 2 occurred the six hundredth performance of The Clansman in McVicker's. Handsome souvenirs of the play were presented. The Clansman has been played by two companies this season, and owing to the

Routes Ahead

Wild West

As we anticipated, the announcement of a proposed increase in circus transportation rates in the Southwest has awakened considerable interest among circus proprietors and managers. The letter printed in last week's issue of The Billboard, and another that appears in the columns of this issue, are an evidence of this.

The question is indeed of paramount importance to the one and two-car shows. The passage of a new ruling effecting the material increase in rates proposed would be effectual in sending those who depend on the territory in question back to their wagons or in driving them either to other parts of the country or out of the business entirely.

So it behooves the circus people to take some concerted action in their own defense.

Let some of those interested may have missed the issue of The Billboard containing the first announcement of the increase proposed, we append a copy of the article:

"There is now before the Board of Southwestern Passenger Agents a proposition to increase the transportation rates as affecting the small shows. Action will be taken in September and the matter will be definitely determined. It is essential, therefore, that any action on the part of the managers interested, looking to a defeat of these inimical designs, must be taken at once.

"The present rate, as regulated by the association, is even now a serious tax upon the shows in a territory where towns are few and far between. Fifteen dollars is the minimum at 2 1/2 cents a mile per head covering one car. Twenty-five tickets at two cents per mile carry twenty-five people and two cars with a minimum charge of twenty-five dollars.

"It is proposed to increase this to twenty-five dollars on one car and forty dollars on two cars—an advance of 66 2/3 percent in the former instance and 60 percent in the latter.

"Printed sheets outlining the proposed increases are in the hands of all members of the association and may be seen upon application from those entitled to the information.

"It would be strongly recommended that all managers of one and two-car shows, who contemplate playing the Southwest, get together on the matter. Only concerted action can prevail. A meeting should be held at some central and convenient rendezvous and plans discussed. Representatives from all the small shows should be present.

"It must all be done before September, 1906. The railroads will take action then.

"The Billboard will cheerfully publish letters on the subject from all interested parties."

BUFFALO BILL LEAVES VIENNA

(Special to The Billboard.)

On Sunday, June 5, the members of the Wild West placed a wreath of flowers on the grave of Frank Trowbridge, who was killed in Vienna during the engagement of the Barnum & Bailey Show, Christmas, 1900. He took part in the seventy horse act and was killed to death by one of the stallions.

The Grand Duke Frederick and family occupied the royal box Tuesday, June 5, for the second time during our Vienna engagement.

The Order of Tigers held its annual banquet at the Hotel Webber on June 6. It was a most enjoyable affair throughout. Following an excellent repast, Thomas True, master of ceremonies, offered a toast to popular President Posey, who responded in his usual happy style. He was followed by Charles Mercer, Nory Drinkwater, Leon Champagn, Charles Ordover, Chris. Bauer, Chas. E. Griffin and others. There was also singing and music by the Hungarian orchestra.

On June 8 one hundred and twenty-one motor cars, competing for the Herkomer Trophy, arrived in Vienna from Frankfurt, Germany. They stopped at the Rotunda, which adjoins our grounds, and many of them visited the show.

On June 9 Charles Spencer Francis, the American Ambassador, and his attaches watched the performance from behind the scenes. Major McIntock, military attaché of the embassy, is from the Fifth U. S. Cavalry, the regiment to which Col. Cody belonged and which enjoyed equal distinction with Custer's famous seventh. The Colonel and the Major spent several hours in recalling old times. On this same day 1,200 children from the orphan asylum attended the performance by special request of Col. Cody and Manager Fred. Bailey Hutchinson.

On Sunday, June 10, Frank Small showed up in his 1676 regimentals, which signified to those who knew that royalty was expected.

We were not surprised, for promptly at three o'clock the Arch Duke Franz Salvator, the favorite son-in-law of Emperor Franz Josef, and his three children, drove up, and as they alighted Prof. Sweeney's Band struck up the national anthem. Thereupon the audience arose and remained with unswerving head until the royal visitor was seated. After the performance Col. Cody personally escorted the party through the camp much to their delight.

On June 12 Fred Bailey Hutchinson, Edw. L. White and Ben Prud received special permission to fish in the Little Danube, the emperor's favorite preserves, but they did not find fish as plentiful as they found ducks at Marzelles.

Our paper is in sixteen different languages, so that our general agent, Clarence L. Bean is a veritable linguistic ambassador. Every time we change a language we must undergo a custom house inspection, but these things are so fully arranged in advance that we have experienced no inconvenience whatever. As the money is different, it is easily to be seen that our poor ticket sellers have a time. Some of the border towns use as many as four different languages. During Barnum & Bailey's last European tour they made a record of thirteen languages in two years, so that our sixteen changes beats the record.

The constant turnarounds in Italy and Austria this season made it unnecessary to raise the price of the cheap seats. The cheapest seat is now one Golden (40 cents), whereas last year in France we got fifty cents.

The privileges, side-shows, concert and refreshment stands are all in full blast and the natives delight in seeing a real American big show with all the trimmings. They are getting a world of money, too, notwithstanding the fact that within two minutes from our gates you can take a trip to Heaven, Hell, the North Pole, or most any old place for four cents.

Since the advent of Buffalo Bill's Wild West on the Prater, everything is proclaimed Americanish. American shows, carousels, bars selling American beer, wieners-wursts and sauer kraut, and some even display American flags or what appears to be American. I saw one that was laughable. It had four white and browned red stripes and seven eight-pointed stars on a green field.

Although we have had abominable weather (fourteen days of rain out of twenty-one), our three weeks in Vienna has been a great success. To-night we go to Budapest, the Hungarian capital, for ten days, with five weeks of one night stands to follow. PYRAMUS. Vienna, Austria, June 14, 1906.

ROSTER OF AITON & ANDERSON SHOW

The roster of the Great Aiton & Anderson Show is as follows: Thos. Aiton and C. E. Anderson, sole owners and managers; C. W. Black, general agent; N. C. Jackson, press agent; Frank Woods, manager Car No. 1; N. W. Jones, manager Car No. 2; Mrs. C. E. Anderson, treasurer; H. Yockey and R. C. Hanks, ticket sellers; N. J. Kelley, twenty-four hour man; R. C. Stewart, manager of dining tent; "Whity" Ross, boss canvasman; Fred Jones, manager kid top; Jack Rose, train man; Hart and Adlr, Roman rings; Chas. Johnson, singing clown; Stafford Sisters, bareback riders; Edith Johnson, traps and bounding wire; Geo. Aeton, mule hurdle rider; Dan St. Leon, four horse rider; Millie LaToure, calliope player; Rose and Rose, impalement act; Hilt and Hilt, song and dance artists; Ada Moulton, aerial bars and traps; Nellie Adams, contortionist; Homer Hall, principal clown, with Chas. Yorkie, Chas. Adams, Frank Tate and Bob Kester, comedy producers; Fred James, stunts; Carrie James, Edna Conroy, Anna Hall and Lottie Lomas, society acrobats; Anderson's troupe of dogs and ponies; Harris & Woods' troupe of performing elephants; a white band of twelve pieces under the management of Jack Sampson, and a colored band of ten pieces under the management of Chas. Brown.

It is a twelve car show and since the opening in Utica, N. Y., on May 14 it has played three weeks in New York, two in Canada and then back to U. S. A—all to good business. The show show is now headed for the coast.

A WELCOME HOME

The home-coming of the great Sells-Floto Shows was the signal for a grand ovation, and the big tent was filled twice daily at Denver.

All the Colorado towns showed up big and enormous business and good luck was had at each stand. Cheyenne, Greeley and Ft. Collins turned out en masse, but the two day's engagement at Denver was the record-breaker in the history of the show.

The grounds at Denver were in the heart of town, independent, almost, of the street car lines. The lot was most too small, consequently the stables and cook tent were placed nearby. The side-show also did a record business.

At Colorado Springs the real Prince of India, the Maharajah of Gokak, India, was a visitor guest of the Hotel Antlers, and with his retinue of sixty he enjoyed the performance. Now he wants to buy one. The menagerie did not seem to interest him so much, but the sawdust department, the clowns and the aerobats, held his interested attention throughout.

At Cripple Creek and Pueblo business was greater than last season. The Daily Star Journal at Pueblo purchased six thousand children's tickets at the regular price and gave them away.

Chester J. Monahan and "Kid" Lewis joined J. C. Mitchell Bremer's forces in the privilege department of the Sun Brothers Show at Franklin, Ind., recently.

COUNTY LICENSE REDUCED

At a special meeting of the county court of Carroll County, Mo., at Carrollton, recently, the circus license was reduced from $50 to $10. This adjustment was brought about by L. E. Tuttle, the local correspondent of The Bill board.

OLD CIRCUS DRIVER DEAD

John F. DeBorty, who was with the Barnum Circus long before it became a railroad show and who drove the personal carriage of the great showman, died Friday, June 22, at his home in Bangor, Mo., at the age of eighty-two years.

NATIONAL ALLIANCE NOTES

Notes from Local No. 4, Philadelphia. John Ryan surprised his brothers and friends by slipping off to a New Jersey town and marrying Miss Georgia Leade, of Philadelphia. He is wearing a broad smile. Brother Chas. Hoff and wife are spending their honeymoon in the Catskill Mountains. National Pres. John Supplee is in town again hard at work for the Alliance. Brother Cochran, of the Chicago Local, left town after a week's stay. He is at the head of the Swift Brothers soap department and is better known perhaps as "Bubbies." Walter Kuntzow, secretary of Local No. 1, would like to hear from all road members. Brother Roberts, please write. Address 1230 Summer street.

National Secretary William J. Murray, desires to notify all members of the Alliance that National President John Supplee has revoked the Charter held by Local No. 20, of St. Joseph, Mo. All members of this Local who are on the road will kindly communicate immediately with Mr. Murray, Box 74, Tap pan, N. Y.

Harry A. Johnson, secretary of Local No. 21, Albany and Troy, N. Y., reports that there is a good demand for Alliance bill posters in those cities and that all the members of the local are employed.

C. A. Morrow, please send to National Secretary Wm. J. Murray the name of the show you are with, so he can answer your recent inquiry. Also send route.

Tony Clarke, of Denver Local No. 6, would like to hear from Frank Metzger, care Marley Bath House, Hot Springs, Ark. Some thing important.

R. D. Leister, Alliance member, has been engaged as billposter with the Forepaugh-Sells Circus and has been assigned to Car No. 3.

Will Nut McCormick, who sent National Secretary Murray money order, kindly send to that gentleman his route.

It is reported that John E. Lyons resigned from the Ringling Show, when Car No. 1 was in Philadelphia.

Wm. Porter, Alliance member, is employed at the Park Theatre, Rocky Springs, Lancaster, Pa.

John May, Alliance member, is billposter on car No. 1 of the Ringling Brothers' Show.

Miley Edwards, of Local No. 10, Minneapolis, Minn., is with the Cole Brothers' Show.

C. O. Damon has been elected steward on car No. 1 of the Ringling Brothers' Show.

W. A. Lane, Alliance member, has transferred to Local No. 20, Sioux City, Ia.

James Ward, Alliance member, has transferred to Local No. 13, Omaha, Neb.

Bert Foster, of Local No. 5, St. Louis, is with the Cole Brothers' Show.

CIRCUS GOSSIP

Jas. A. Morrow's Big Pavilion Shows is doing a good business in New York State. The show carries twenty-four head of stock, eight baggage wagons, two passenger wagons, one advance wagon and manager Manager Morrow's private carriage. There are forty-two people with the show.

Mrs. F. Bichel, better known as Dollie Bancroft, and now in the sideshow of the Jones Enormous Shows, celebrated her twenty-first birthday one day last week and the attendees of the show presented her with a handsome diamond pin.

Dennis Folman, known to showmen as Denny the watchman and who is serving a short sentence in the Auburn, N. Y., prison, wishes to thank his many friends for their liberal donations.

Wapakoneta, Ohio, is also in the market for a big circus. Will donate lot. Haven't had a big one for twelve or fifteen years. Write Ed. F. Puetz.

Cherterville, Ill., wants a circus sometime in July or August. The billposter says he can furnish free license to the right one.

Foolish Ford, the clown, closes with the Cummins' Wild West and joins the Great Cole Show on July 9.

The McDonald & Campbell Show is preparing for a tour of Texas under a fifty by eighty top.

M. L. Man has joined Mackay's European Circus band as solo tina.

The Gentry Brothers played Fairmont, W. Va., July 4.

Enquirer.
As for the dog and pony show that has been booked for the Zoo, the performance of animal act in the garden is to be looked upon as something quite to be expected and in place. It is certain that there would be no animal act in the Zoo but a first-class one. This is the case in the present instance most decidedly. Professor N. Rice has ten ponies and eight dogs and his monkeys thoroughly drilled, and there isn't a draggy moment during the performance. Everything moves along as if the little actors had learned their part to perfection, and they appeared to take as much pleasure in the acting as people do in seeing it. The continuance of the show at the Zoo will be marked by appreciative audiences at every performance. The show is entirely free to everybody in the garden and the acts go on at 3:30 in the afternoon and 9-15 in the evening.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

enough of the comical in them to entertain the show and put the spectators in a good humor.—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

Commercial Tribune.

Another added attraction at the Zoo is Rice's dog and pony show that began an engagement at the garden yesterday. This aggregation of performing dogs, ponies and monkeys is just the kind that is full of interest for Zoo crowds. There are ten as well drilled ponies in the show as ever walked the stage, and the eight dogs that make up the canine end of the performance are not only well taught, but their acts have

Times-Star.

Rice's Dog, Pony and Monkey Show is one of the neatest, cleanest and best attractions that ever found place in any park, and now that it is being offered as a free attraction at the Zoo it is greatly strengthening the program at that aristocratic resort. Two performances are given daily, and crowds of crowd folks as well as children are always found encouraging it by their presence and applause.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

All arrangements for the two weeks' engagement of the Carl Hagenbeck Greater Shows, under canvas, opening on Sixty-third street and Cottage Grove avenue lot, July 16, have been completed. Billing will commence this week and the management is determined to make the greatest preliminary showing ever seen in the Windy City for any circus. As an innovation of considerable magnitude the publicity department of the Hagenbeck Shows is arranging a banquet for the Chicago newspaper men. General Agent W. E. Fuller, through his association with the late James A. Bailey has learned the value of the motto—"Never mind the expense—get results," and the way in which he has opened the Chicago campaign is opening the eyes of other general agents. Nothing has been overlooked, and it will be no fault of the advance if the Hagenbeck Shows do not do a great business in the City by the Lake. The Barnum & Bailey Shows were the last to appear under canvas in Chicago, and on the Thirty-fifth street and Wentworth avenue lot, in 1903. Chicago people are hungry for a big tent show and with anything like desirable weather the Hagenbeck aggregation is sure of a splendid engagement. There is magic in the name of Hagenbeck—the business being done all along the route proves it. The result of their Chicago campaign will be awaited with considerable interest by showmen generally, and particularly by certain interests who feel that Chicago is their particular territory.

Arthur Fitchett, chef; Edw. Tolles, waiter, and L. A. Ward, porter.

As the Robbins Show train pulled into Woodsville, N. H., June 22 a baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Al. G. Belford, sketch artists. The little lady was christened Lottie Winona Belford. In honor of Mrs. Jack Cousins and Winona G. Robbins. The performers raised a purse of $152 and presented it to little Lottie, who seemed very much pleased, at least she didn't say she wasn't. Mother and baby are doing nicely.

Geo. W. Rollins writes that his Wild Animal Show is going well at Riverview Park, Chicago, Ill. At the close of his engagement at this resort Mr. Rollins will split up his show and play fair dates, after which he goes to Havana, Cuba, for the winter. Mr. Rollins was recently visited by John Ringling, Col. Hopkins, Sky Clarke, E. M. Burk and Contracting Agent Warner.

Nine circuses were represented on the register of the Windsor-Clifton Hotel, Chi-

The Schuyler-Morrow Show is playing Kansas to satisfactory business. At Norton, Kan., the Norton Brothers Show gave them opposition, but they succeeded in packing their tent.

June 26 the Carl Hagenbeck Greater Show, attracted 21,000 people at two performances in Wausau, Wis. This is probably a new record for this season.

company $1,000 per month. It is very often that your jump will exceed your minimum, and it will be over $1,000 per month, and two agents ahead all the time.

In regard to a meeting of managers of two car shows, I think that would be out of the question, as we could not leave our attractions now, as this is harvest time. Would suggest that The Billboard come to our aid with a proposition, or have the two car show managers contribute to a fund to send a representative to be present at the time of this meeting of the passenger agents. I admire The Billboard for its suggestions and ask that you repeat the articles in your paper as sometimes the two-car show manager doesn't get his mail (moving every day) and papers are lost. I call attention to this matter again, as it means a great deal to them.

I wish you would kindly state the date of this meeting of the passenger agents. In conclusion, let me state that the show people are not without their friends in some of the passenger agents in the southwest and that all the roads will not adopt this raise as one railroad not only gives us a minimum of $25 but lets my advance agent go free, to and from each town. This passenger agent is an old showman. If the railroads were shown that they would lose in the long run by the proposed increase, I think they would let the $25 minimum stay where it is. In case the railroads raise it I will have a few cars for sale, for look at the fun I can have on that extra $15 raise of the railroad.

Yours truly,
THOMAS F. NYE,
The Tom Franklin Nye Big Shows.
P. S.—All one car shows should give this matter their attention as the rates will affect them also.

MME. SAREMA AND HER TRAINED ANIMALS

Mme. Luba de Sarema has one of the best animal acts now playing the parks, and she is booked solid for the season. This picture was taken for The Billboard upon the boardwalk at Chester Park Cincinnati.

ago, last week. Among well-known circus agents making their headquarters there were Ed. Burk, W. E. Franklin, P. J. Fagan, E. C. Knupp, Pete Snn, L. B. Williams, S. H. ("Pop") Semon, A. G. Ringling, and Mr. Warner, of the Norris & Rowe Shows.

The Carl Hagenbeck Show base ball team played the Forrest team at Appleton, Wis., June 24, and won by a score of two to one. Manger Johnson, of the Hagenbeck team, made a flying trip to Chicago, June 23, and ordered new uniforms, etc. He would be pleased to hear from any circus line in the territory the show is now playing.

The Clements have joined the Scofield Show, which they report to be doing a good business in Kansas. With the show are Ben and Clara Scofield, E. C. Miller, Herman Bacon, J. J. and Rilla Clements, Catherine Scofield, B. Bacon, a troupe of dogs and the diving dog, Glenea.

The Clowns with the Great Cole Show are as follows: Billy and Robert Winslow, Tom Long, Eugene Ritchie, Ed. Srylow, Richard Williams, Billy Langer, Frank F. LaVell, Sam. Nelson, Wm. Roseman, Wm. Robinson, George Hill, Roy Earl, Tim Sweeney and Ruba Derker.

A good circus could reap a harvest at Beaver Falls, Pa., this summer. That town has not had a circus for some time and the people are hungry for one. Two wild west shows have already visited there this season and had big results. There is a drawing population of 50,000 people.

Eddie Jackson, for several years advance man with Geny Dog & Pony Show, visited friends in Goshen, Ind., last week. He will have a company of his own on the road again next season.

Petro Florenz, acrobat, and Miss Olga LaMont, of the LaTroupe Carmen, both of the Barnum & Bailey Show, were married June 23, at Boston, Mass.

CIRCUS RATES IN THE SOUTH-WEST

Editor The Billboard.

Dear Sir—I note what you say in regard to an increase in rates for a two car show and beg to state that there are roads in Texas that are charging the increased rates now, viz.: $40 minimum for two cars. The only remedy is to keep away from such roads if you can. Some time ago I wrote the T. & P. R. R. for rates for a two car show and they wrote stating the rate was $25 for each move (minimum). After booking and advertising on their system, I reached their office at Paris, Tex., and was told that the move would be $40 and when I remonstrated, they told me that all roads in Texas had adopted this rule. I have since found that such is not the case, however. The Cotton Belt rates are even higher. Baggage cars are fifteen cents per mile and sleepers 2 1/2 cents per mile for eighteen fares. For those who do not understand why this is higher, I hereby illustrate:

On the Texas & Pacific R. R. you are to jump to a town one hundred miles away; the rate is 50 cents per mile or $50. The minimum, of course, being $40. The same move on the Cotton Belt will cost you fifteen cents per mile for your baggage car, or $15 and 24 cents per mile for your people 18 in number, or $45, making a total of $60. The result is that you find no shows on these roads. In fact the towns can't or won't turn out that much money for a manager to pay the railroad. I know whereof I speak, as I have, and do, play one night, and three, and week stands. If the rates go up on all the roads, the two-car shows will be a thing of the past. As what show carrying a company of twenty-five people playing small towns of 1,000 to 3,000 and even down to 400 population (in order to get your minimum jump) can afford it? Some of these shows carry as high as 33 and 35 people and have to pay the railroad $40 per day or $240 per week or $600 for a month of four weeks, and as every month has two or three days over a month, they will pay the railroad

Col. J. C. (Peanuts) Mitchell Bremer, the smiling manager of privileges with the Sun Brothers Show, is a pretty busy man these days meeting his old friends along the route. At Greenwood, Ind., he entertained Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wade, of Indianapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Burt Larden, of the Lemon Brothers; Chas. Cohen, of the Hall Show, and James Madden and John Van Pete of the Barnum Shows. At Madison, Ind., he entertained J. P. Fagan of the Wallace Show, and Al. Condon, formerly of the Ringling Brothers' Show, at Martinsville. Mrs. Elizabeth Saunders, of Indianapolis, visited the show, and at Greensburg John Rhyman, of the Barnum & Bailey Show, and Col. I. Groff, of Indianapolis, were visitors. Mr. Bremer is doing well this season, and he says he never made so much money in his life.

A roster of cook tent with the Carl Hagenbeck Greater Shows runs as follows: L. Lang, chef; H. Powers, J. Burgess, E. Thompson, C. Korning, E. George; J. Modermot, camp fire; W. Smith, repairs; T. LEIGH SECURES THE CHUTES

Chutes Park at Los Angeles, Cal., has been leased by Manager Leigh, who is giving his patrons the best there is in the way of free attractions. Gully, loop the loop artist; Big key, high diver; the Rosenbergs, acrobats; the Sylvesters, bar artists; the Great Garzer, Eph Adair, trapeze artist; Arnault, the Mexican tumbler, and Miferetta and Louisa are some of the attractions he has played.

EXPLOSION CAUSED INJURY

Gordon Wards, the aeronaut, sustained severe injuries to his left eye by an explosion of the gas tank at Wonderland Park, Milwaukee, Wis., on June 27.

OUR NEW PARK LIST

We beg to call attention to the innovation in the style of our Park List, instituted in this issue. The additional data makes the list the most complete and valuable ever printed. The "key" at the head of the list explains the references.

Managers, concessionaires and performers are invited to contribute additional data for those parks in the list where the characters of amusement resorts and the circuits they are on are not indicated. Every item of information will increase the value of the list just so much.

In those instances where all the information is given, correspondence between managers and concessionaires and performers, with all the waste of time it involves and the annoyances it carries with it, will be reduced to the minimum.

PARK NOTES

Pinehurst Park, at Worcester, Mass., is proving to be a most popular pleasure resort. The Worcester Auto Club gave the orphans of the city an outing at Pinehurst on June 23, and several of the attractions were free to the children. George C. Pierce, who was with the Malcolm Williams Stock Co. at Franklin Square Theatre for fifty-eight weeks last year, has set up a large merry-go-round in this resort and expects to do a rushing business. He will exhibit free moving pictures on the grounds every evening. J. D. Brinkerhoff, proprietor of the Penny Arcade, reports good business.

Lake Park, at Bloomington, Ill., is becoming more popular every year and this season it is a mecca for pleasure seekers. A new revolving swing has just been installed, and it is proving a novelty. It carries twenty-five people and has already established the fact that it is a money-maker. Manager Wolkau fact that it is a money-maker. Manager Wolkau fact that it is a money-maker. Manager Wolkau fact that it is a money-maker. Manager Wolkau fact that it is a money-maker.

Princess Corena opens at Sans Souci Park, Chicago, Saturday, June 30, with one of the most attractive and interesting shows presented in any park in this country. Everything in the way of costumes and electrical effects are up-to-date, new and novel. There are fourteen people with the Princess Corena show. A new style of red and blue tent is used—the outfit being made and erected by the U. S. Tent & Awning Co., Chicago. The banner fronts are especially attractive. Messrs. Newman and Driver designed the outfit for Princess Corena.

Geo. W. Middleton, formerly of the Park Opera House, Erie, Pa., is general manager of Point Gratiot at Dunkirk, N. Y., for the Point Gratiot Amusement Co. Like many others, this park has suffered somewhat by unfavorable weather, but business is bound to reach large proportions as soon as favorable weather sets in. This park has a large theatre, being the old Bostock Building that was used at the Pan-American Exposition, and fine vaudeville bills are being presented. There is a large number of concessions, and all are becoming popular.

Fully 20,000 people paid admission to Luna Park, Hartford, Conn., upon its opening day, June 23. Mayor William Henry delivered an opening speech and there were other introductory exercises. Among the biggest attractions are the Seaside Railway, Streets of India and the Old Mill. The new resort is located near the famous Charter Oak Driving Park and is reached by both steam and electric railways. Darcy and Speck are the managers.

The Eli Bridge Co., of Roodhouse, Ill., has shipped one of its large park wheels to Havana, Cuba, to be used by a New York firm in a park in Havana. It is one of the finest wheels ever turned out by this company, having a large electric motor and being provided with myriads of electric lights.

Lessee J. H. Boone, of Washington Park, which is owned by the city of El Paso, Tex., has turned his interest over to the El Paso Electric Ry. Co. and Frank Leake has been installed as manager. Mr. Leake has installed a stock company in the theatre and a good business is being done. Last week The Belle of Richmond was played and this week The Strange Adventures of Mr. Brown is being presented.

The new amusement park which the Breinlig Construction Co. of Terre Haute is building in Freeport, Ill., will be opened to the public about July 15. The park will be free, as the grounds, light and power is furnished to the park people free of charge for ten years.

Summer weather hit Chicago with a vengeance last week, and in consequence business at the parks showed a decided pickling up. White City and Sans Souci are doing nicely. It promises to be a great season for Chicago park people.

San Souci Park, at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., is enjoying a prosperous season under the management of George K. Brown. He has added some new attractions and built a skating rink which is drawing big business.

James B. Henry has installed a fine Old Plantation Show at Riverview Park, Chicago, and is taking big money. Riverview is proving a gold mine for all concessionaires.

Central Park, at Dixon, Ill., has closed.

Harry Breton, who leaps the gap in an automobile, reports that his time is rapidly filling up in the parks. He has greatly improved his act recently, and in spite of the additional weight he is landing thirty-five feet from the main incline.

Mark and Laura Davis are meeting with the best of success in their new singing and German comedy act, entitled Hans, the Grocery Boy. This week they are at Shady Side Park, Westport, Md.

Len Mantell's Marionette Hippodrome has been booked by J. K. Burke for his summer park circuit opening at Youngstown, Ohio, at Avon Park, July 22. The act is a big success in the parks.

Dorothy Bremer mourns the loss of her father, who died last week from the effects of a bursted blood vessel. Miss Bremer canceled this week's engagement at the Lagoon, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Madam La Blanche is introducing a new Slide the Slide in the parks. She slides half way down the cable and then drops into a lake. Her act is proving a big drawing card.

The Baker Troupe gave great satisfaction as the free attraction at San Souci Park, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., week of June 11. They are booked for a return date.

Sturant and Lavardo are making good in the parks with their cycle act on wire. They were at Eldora Park, Charleroi, Pa., week of June 25.

Al Lawrence began a six weeks' engagement in the park last week at Jamestown, N. Y. He has been resting on his farm near Kent, Ohio.

Clare Evans, the comedian, is playing a summer engagement with the Laura Hurlbert Co., at Kankakee, Ill.

Mlle. La Blanche's new water slide act was a fine drawing attraction for Wonderland Park, Milwaukee, Wis.

Stricklin's Dogs opened their park season, June 25, at Island Park, Sunbury, Pa.

THE FLYING MOORES

The above picture represents the Flying Moores, premier gymnasts, who have been and are now a big feature at all the large parks and state fairs. C. R. Miller, of Kankakee, Ill., says: "One of the strongest and most pleasing acts presented to our large crowds was the Moore Family in their wonderful aerial work. They gave afternoon and evening performance and never failed to please our people."

"Our business relations with Mr. Moore were very satisfactory, and we strongly recommend The Moores to any park or fair looking for strictly high-class and honest work."

Press Agent H. A. Warner, of Luna Park, Washington, D. C., has certainly reached the hearts of the local editors, for he is getting a large number of stories in the papers.

Fred T. Coley, excursion agent of Myer's Lake Park, Canton, Ohio, was in Wheeling, W. Va., recently, and while there he closed several contracts for picnics.

A combination skating rink and dance pavilion is being constructed at Lake View Park, Terre Haute, Ind., by the Breinlig Construction Co.

Mat Kussell, manager of the Kussell Park Circuit, reports that all theatres on his circuit are doing immense business.

The Roller Coaster at Lakeview Park, Lowell, Mass., is doing a rushing business under the management of Charles Mack.

Walter Hoffman reports great business as manager of the Ingersoll concessions.

James A. Damlin is manager of Olympia Park, Chattanooga, Tenn.

PARK ATTRACTIONS

As a special feature for the week of the Fourth Amusement Manager G. W. Englebreth of Coney Island, Cincinnati, engaged Norman, the Frog Man; the Four Ellsworths (re-engaged); Browning and Mitchell, Mine Louise, the Three LaMoles and others. It was Norman's only week open, as he has been engaged by the Gregory Burning of Moscow Co. for a long season.

Fully 15,000 people witnessed the free performance given by the Kinsners at Wonderland Park, Wichita, Kan., Sunday, June 24, and the press and public alike unite in declaring the act the most satisfactory exhibition ever given at the popular park.

Goode and Webb are playing a four weeks' engagement with the Merkle-Harder Stock Co., at Champaign, Ill. Their act is a hummer and is making good.

STREET FAIRS

CARNIVALS

GREAT COSMOPOLITAN SHOWS

Notwithstanding the frequent rains, cold weather and similar unfavorable conditions, the engagement of The Great Cosmopolitan Shows and Wild West at Dubuque, Ia., June 11-16, proved equal to the expectations of both management and local committees. Tautlinger's Wild West and Indian Congress was a great drawing attraction and received much praise.

The free attractions included Charles Strahl's remarkable high dive, The Wilsons, in their sensational looping the perpendicular loop; Leona, leaping the gap; Marinos' double aerial act and monkey balloon ascension and the Sykes Murray, Hatlaway and Crooka Comedy Four and they were all witnessed with much interest, and it was the consensus of opinion that the Cosmopolitan had furnished Dubuque with the largest and best number of free acts ever seen with a carnival company.

Charles City, Ia., June 18-25, also proved a profitable stand, and all attractions pleased immensely. Choice towns in Iowa and southern Minnesota will follow.

Bert Hoss, who has been special agent with the shows since November, closed June 19 and went to Canal Dover, Ohio, for a brief visit, after which he will embark in business for himself.

A. B. Miller, advertising agent, came back to the show at Charles City, and after a short visit, again went ahead to inform the prospective patrons of the show's merit.

Karl Kindred, formerly with the No. 1 Cosmopolitan, and later with No. 2, is ill in a Peoria hospital. His many friends with both companies have made it certain that he shall wait for nothing during his illness.

G. W. Hubbard, who has had the button privileges with the No. 1 show, closed at Dubuque, going to Chicago, after which he will enter business in a southern city.

With the addition of a slack wire juggling act by Grace Lafayette, Sykes and Murray, barrel jumpers; a combine band of Sioux Indians, Henry Jogg's band of cowboys, and Col and Mrs. D. V. Tautlinger's premier shooting act, the Cosmopolitan Shows and Wild West is regarded as one of the strongest street fair feature shows on the road.

Mrs. Josie Glah, wife of Frank Glah, chief electrician, has returned to the company after an extended visit with relatives in Duluth, Minn.

C. S. Baldwin, familiarly known as "Pop," who has been connected with the Cosmopolitan Shows for a number of years, closed June 23 and went to White City in Chicago, where he will be associated with the Big Otto Tatum Wild Animal Show. "Pop" has always been a prime favorite with the Cosmopolitan people, and his departure is regretted.

A. Peterson, A. L. Bays, W. F. Compton and Antonio Tripodi have been added to the Cosmopolitan's Military Concert Band. Under the direction of Harry McGowan, the excellent musical organization is establishing an enviable reputation with its repertoire of high-class music.

THE GREAT MUNDY SHOWS

The Mundy Shows had their usual amount of rain at Kewanee, Ill., June 18 and week. On the second day of their engagement in that city rain fell in torrents all day and night. However, the five remaining days brought good weather and big crowds turned out. This town proved to be the banner stand so far this season. The people seemed to have the money, and moreover they knew how to spend it.

J. Johnson, the alderman hillposter, came over from Galesburg, and visited the shows for a few days. During his visit he took tickets at the Society Circus.

Harry Condon and wife came down from Chicago. Mr. Condon is located at Riverview Park, in Chicago, for the summer. He was looking after the interests of the Swartz and Condon arcades.

While practicing on June 22, Henry Alton, of the Alton Troupe of Acrobats, fell heavily and fractured two bones in his left leg. He was sent to the St. Francis Hospital in Kewanee and will be well cared for.

W. J. Hanley, one of Carl Hagenback's contractors, was in Kewanee during the Mundy Show's engagement and he spent a pleasant evening with the shows and was surprised at the enormous business they solicited. G. Coleman and LeRoy Gilmore were also welcome visitors.

The Mundy Show's train was side tracked at Mendota, Ill., twenty minutes while on its way to Rockford, Ill., the next stand. D. Ward and his force of hustling hillposters were doing great work for Hale's Fire Fighters in Mendota and the members of the Mundy Shows had a chance to renew old acquaintances during the twenty minutes lay-over.

J. Hollander has the confetti and novelty privileges with the show.

GREAT PARKER AMUSEMENT CO.

The Great Parker Amusement Co., which opened its season eight weeks ago, has been doing phenomenal business at every stand. The amusement committees in the various towns have been showering praises unsparingly upon the management. The route of the company now lies through the great wheat belt of the northwest. The Sioux Falls, S. D., engagement occurs the same week of the State Firemen's convention, and the railroad has made a one-fare rate for the round trip all over South Dakota. After this stand the show goes to Minnesota and North Dakota, then into Canada where they are engaged for the state fair at Winnipeg, Man. Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky and the southern states follow.

From the boundaries of Maine comes requests for the Parker Attractions, and this is no less the case from Florida of the south and the Great Lakes of the north. The mantle of cleanliness that has sustained the popularity of the Parker Enterprises, demonstrates that the American amusement-loving public will not countenance sinit in any form.

If present plans do not miscarry, the No. 1 show of the Parker Enterprises will winter in Cuba, playing Georgia, Alabama, North and South Carolina and Florida on its tour through the south. The Great Parker Amusement Co. now carries twenty-four cars, six coaches and over three hundred people. No accidents have happened so far this season.

WALLACE DISMISSED

It is reported that on Sunday, June 24, Capt. H. Wallace, high diver, shot and instantly killed Rufus Myers, of Reed, W. Va. Myers was known as the village tough and only a year ago shot and killed a showman named Mitchell. Mr. Wallace ordered Myer off the grounds where the Oriental Amusement Co. was showing, and the man refused and attempted to use a knife on him. Wallace drew a revolver and shot Myers through the heart, killing him instantly. He was placed under arrest and taken to the Fayette County Jail where he appeared before Squire Kincaid with nearly thirty witnesses for the state and but one for the defendant. However, there was not sufficient evidence to hold Wallace to the grand jury, so he was dismissed.

About midnight, June 26, an incendiary fired the tent of LaBelle Fredi Show, which is in connection with the Oriental company, and it was burned to the ground. Rule Adams, who was sleeping in the dressing tent, was badly scorched in trying to save the canvas. The firebug was caught and bound over to the grand jury. LaBelle Fredi immediately wired a Cincinnati Tent company for another tent, and it will be ready for the engagement at Montgomery, W. Va., week July 4. The company is under the head of Capt. H. Wallace and LaBelle Fredi, and William Murray has charge of the advance.

FAIRYLAND CARNIVAL CO.

The Fairyland Carnival Co., under the management of Rapoport and Kirsch, opened its season at Mount City, Ill., June 29, to enormous crowds, and business was splendid.

Emerson's Floating Palace was showing on the river at Mount City, during the engagement of the Fairyland Co., and many old acquaintances were renewed.

TOMASSO-SIBLEY CO.

Notes from the Tomasso-Sibley Carnival Co.: Preparations are now being made for the above company's appearance in Atlantic City, N. J., July 27, at the City Festival and Water Carnival.

STREETMEN TAKE NOTICE!

The St. Louis Hutton Co., St. Louis, Mo., has gotten out a unique Street Fair Hutton Catalogue. It is replete with splendid illustrations of all sorts of buttons, and also contains the prices of different lots.

..FAIRS.. EXPOSITIONS TO BOOM JAMESTOWN FAIR

Charles W. Kohlssaat, formerly envoy of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition to Norway and Sweden, has been appointed commissioner general to Europe for the Jamestown Exposition.

OUR NEW FAIR LIST Attention is called to the modification of our Fair List as printed in this issue. By identifying the various fairs with the circuits to which they belong, and by indicating positively that certain fairs are not allied with any circuit, we have added a feature of great value to privilege people, performers, agents, and fair followers generally.

FAIR NOTES

A representative is now in the east securing the best of attractions for the Texas State Fair, to be held at Dallas in the fall. A splendid new poultry building will be erected at a cost of $5,000, and the premium lists in all departments have been overhauled and the classifications changed and the amounts increased.

Although it is not yet an assured fact it is reported that a lagoon is to be installed in the northwest corner of the State Fair grounds, at Fargo, N. D. It was found by survey that this portion of the grounds was very low and could easily be converted into a lake.

The Italian Government has accepted an invitation to participate in the Jamestown Exposition and will send a squadron of ships to Hampton Roads next year.

SKATING RINK ITEMS

D. W. Eaton Williams, who ran Conventual Hall Rink, Washington, D. C., is about to open a summer rink at Glen Echo, just outside of Washington.

WITH MOVING PICTURE SHOWS

The Chas. F. Meyers & Co., Frisco Earthquake and Vandeville Co. is meeting with profitable returns in Montana. The roster includes Chas. F. Meyers, general manager; C. Hays, business manager and treasurer; Laura H. DeWagat, M. Balanace, Geo. Watts, Wm. Wallace and J. Kouz.

PROPOSES RINK MANAGERS CLUB

C. W. Richardson writes from Baltimore as follows:

There is nothing doing in the rink line in Baltimore just now except the construction of a magnificent rink for the Mar Del Monde Co. The Garage, on Charles street and Mt. Royal avenue. This rink is being built on lines suggested by myself, and I have refused the management to go to Johnstown, Pa., to erect and manage a rink at that place.

I had a magnificent season at the Palace Rink, Westport, and made the change to get away from the Sunday end of it.

I wish that the various managers would communicate with The Billboard to the end that a managers' club be formed. It would benefit all managers by being able to keep in close touch with each other and a close watch could also be kept on floaters, who are a great detriment to the business.

I would also suggest that all the managers contribute to The Billboard articles of interest to people in the skating rink business.

In my system I have introduced basketball on skates, polo, six hours' endurance race, obstacle and wheelbarrow races (two men; one with skates on his hands) and many novelty races that take well and don't take up much time.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Louisville, Ky., June 28, 1906. Editor The Billboard.

My Dear Editor—I have for quite a long time past been a devoted reader of your publication, but my confidence in the truth of the news therein has been considerably shaken by reading an item on page 9 of your last issue, headed "Will Play the Eastern Attractions," which in sum and substance alleges that a beautiful new burlesque theatre has been erected in Louisville, Ky., and will open Aug. 20, playing the attractions of the Eastern Burlesque Wheel.

Now, a more erroneous statement could not be published. There is a new theatre going up which will be called the Mary Anderson, and which will play the Shubert attractions, but which will not open until quite late in the year.

I am a resident of this city, have lived here all my life and ought to know. A READER.

HOYT'S HOME

The Lambs Club has decided to drop the old homestead of Charles H. Hoyt, at Charleston, N. H., which the well-known playwright and manager willed to them before his death five years ago. By the terms of the will the property was to remain in the possession of the Lambs Club as long as that organization cared to keep it up.

This is the building in which Mr. Hoyt wrote A Black Sheep. Both the playwright and his father are buried near the place.

THE LANDLORD'S LAMENT

By E. W. Collins.

Old Bill Jones leaned back in his chair, And spit into the fire. "No sir, I don't want no actors A struttin' about hyar. I had a pack o' actors once, An' they was the darndest bunch, I didn't want to take 'em much; I kinder had a hunch.

"But the agent was a talker, An' he talked me into it." And here old Bill lets down his chair To take another spit. "Wal, I took 'em in and fed 'em Made 'em a six bit rate, But when I take another troupe, It'll be purty goldarned late.

"They wanted eggs fer every meal, An' you can't see 'em hild. If I don't think alry one of 'em Could 'a' eat two if they'd tried. All of 'em slept till eight o'clock; Our boarders leave at six. Oh when it comes to skinnin' you, Them actors does the tricks.

"The women all had little dogs A trottin' arter them, Allus wantin' somethin' to feed 'em, Some chicken, or beef, or ham. The dogs a wollerin' on the beds, An' them all full o' dirt; Afore I'd take another troupe, Hy gum, I'd eat my shirt.

"What, you're an agent for a show? Wal, now, I didn't mean That all actors was the same As some 'at I have seen. Why, sure, I'll lake keev up yer troupe; Be glad to have 'em here, Not three dogs; wal, that's all right; Come in and have a beer.

STREET FAIR NOTES

Fred S. Milligan, formerly of the Seaman & Milligan Mardi Gras Co., is now on tour with one of the best colored organizations ever seen under canvas. Milligan's Old Plantation and Minstrel Co. Combined is making a reputation and getting the money in each town it appears in. The hand and parade, which precedes each performance, is proving a good ballyho. The company consists of fifty people, including Dr. Horace Grant, the energetic advance agent, who is doing great work in front. The performance is given under a seventy-foot round top and the paraphernalia of the company is carried in two cars. The valuable dog, Rowdy, died in Indianapolis recently from an operation. Mr. and Mrs. Milligan send their kindest regards to friends.

The Chamber of Commerce of Seneca, S. C., has raised $2,500 for a gala week to be held some time in October. Some big attractions will be booked.

The Monarch Carnival Co., under the able management of Mr. M. Mitchell, exhibited at Mendota, Ill., week June 25-30, and its attractive appearance drew big crowds each day of its engagement. The electric display for the shows, and a top-notch in his line, was largely responsible for the big business done by all of the shows. Jay Fitz is manager of twenty select concessions and is kept busy at all times. The Italian Banda Rossa, under the direction of Prof. Poggiani Proser, was a big feature and its daily concerts were delightful. Dare Devil Nevada is the feature free attraction and thrilling feat is drawing immense crowds. He leaps a gap of fifty feet. Le-Grande Heaton, on the balancing trapeze, and Somnis, contortionist, are also interesting attractions. The entire company is in the best of health and everyone is looking for a bright season.

Notes from the Patterson-Brainerd Carnival Co.: This company did immense business both at Fremont, Neb., and Boone, Ia., and the Fire Department at the former town made enough money to practically entertain the Nebraska Tournament in August. Minnie Ha Ha is the name of a show recently added to the company and it carries twenty people. It has made a big hit and bids fair to get top money from now on. Mr. Porter, of moving picture fame, has added two thousand feet of new film to his show, which always does big business at every stand. James Patterson, leaves for Dallas, Tex., June 9. He will remain there for some time laying out the pike for the Texas State Fair. Mose Epstein is the new manager of the Navajo Girls and he is making good. Mrs. J. B. McKenna, of the Ferris wheel, is visiting Chicago, after which she will tour the Olympic Circuit.

Hale's Fire Fighters are doing a fine business in Wisconsin despite the opposition of Hazenbeck's Greater Shows in several towns along the line. The more the merrier seems to be the motto in the good state of Wisconsin. The advance force consists of twenty-five people, including W. N. Nichols, railroad contractor; Charles Ellis, local contracting agent; D. S. Ward, manager of Advertising Car No. 2 and a host of first-class hilltoppers.

Princess Flora, the great English palmist with the Barkot Carnival Co., has been seriously ill for some time past in the Mt. Vernon (Ohio) Sanitarium, where she was taken to undergo a delicate operation. However, she is slowly recovering and expects to be back with her friends soon. Princess Flora's Gypsy Camp is one of the features of the Barkot Carnival Co.

The attractions with the Gem Amusement Co. are Harry Arras' Twentieth Century Merry-go-round, Fred Luse's Escaped From Sing Sing, The Bijou, manager by Capt. O. Willis; Willis' Ferris Wheel and O. Gasal's Old Plantation. The free acts include The Seymours, double acrobats and contortionists, and Marvelous Scott, the human comet.

We are in receipt of a card which runs as follows: Notice is hereby given that Harry R. Moore, formerly employed by the T. I. Cash Carnival Co., and who is now advertising manager of "Cash Carnival Co.," and securing contracts, is not now employed and has no connection whatever with the T. I. Cash Carnival Co., of St. Paul, Minn.

Clark's Dog and Pony Show is meeting with great success as one of the attractions with Shipley's Carnival Co. Mr. Clark is featuring his high-diving pony, Countersell, as the free attraction and also the baby monkey born at Pawnee, Neb. Mr. Clark closes with this company July 6, and will join the National Amusement Co.

Capt. Stewart and his animal show joined the Hoosier Amusement Co. at Coldwater, Mich., June 20, and has been getting big money ever since. Leroy McKay and wife both joined Mr. Stewart's show and will work on the ballyho. Walter Lyons is also with the show, this being his fifteenth season with Stewart.

The Davis Amusement Co. came in contact with a revival meeting at Chelsea, I. T., recently, and the preachers complained saying that the company affected their business. They went to the mayor of that town with a petition to have the show people ousted, but they failed.

Ed Lisberger's Glass Blowers closed with Shipley's Carnival Co. and are booked at Seneca, Kan., July 3-4. An electric show and 'Frisco Fire Pictures are also carried in connection. Lisberger will soon join the National Amusement Co.

Walter Van Horn, formerly of 769 Market street, San Francisco, Cal.—Nat Tullich and Leslie Dilliver, care of Hale's Tons, Idora Park, Oakland, Cal., would like to hear from you immediately, as it may be to your interest.

William Gross, German comedian, of Russell, O'Neil and Gross, is no longer one of the above trio, but is working singly, playing parks. Next season he will be with Harry Hastings' Burlesques.

The United Exhibition Co. showed at Marlinsburg, W. Va., week June 18-23, under the auspices of the Eagles Social Club. Their attractions were all good and big business was solicited.

Billy Southworth now has charge of the Museum with the Davis Amusement Co., and is spelling on the front. His wife is handling the serpents in the snake den and is making quite a hit.

The Interstate Amusement Co. recently played a splendid engagement at New Kensington, Pa. All shows were highly appreciated and deserved all the praise bestowed on them.

Billy Mann and wife closed with the Pierce Amusement Co., at New Brunswick, N. J., and will spend a month at Asbury Park, N. J., with Mrs. Mann's mother.

De Velde and Zeld, artistis equilibristas, are one of the feature acts with the Patterson-Brainerd Carnival Co., and are making a hit at every stand.

J. H. Hayden joined the Robinson Amusement Co., at Mt. Sterling, Ky.

A HINT TO CARNIVAL MANAGERS

Charles W. Tyler, proprietor and manager of C. W. Tyler's Big Jubilee Minstrels writes as follows: Kentucky is another Georgia for license on shows. June 11 a new state and county tax law went into effect wherein any show, exhibition or concert not devoted exclusively to religious, benevolent or educational purposes is to pay five dollars license and one dollar and a half clerk fee for each performance. This means a carnival carrying eight or ten shows and concessions will have to play the above amount for each. With the supposition that each show gives six performances an evening the license would be thirty-nine dollars per day. How many carnival companies can stand this? I went into Kentucky ignorant of this new law and have showed in three towns already staying two nights in each town, and have been shook down for state and county as well as city for each performance. The new law is worded in such a way that the court officials or county clerk can construe it in any way to suit their taste, and you know these people never given the showman the benefit of the doubt. I am writing this so that carnival people and showmen contemplating a trip through Kentucky will have a chance to send their men ahead and post them about this new law.

ALTRO PARK A SUCCESS

Altro Park, the big amusement resort, mid way between Albany and Troy, N. Y., is no longer an experiment, but a magnificent success. Manager Max Rosen has made good every declaration made before the opening of the park. He announced that he would furnish the people of the above cities and vicinity, with one of the best amusement resorts in that section of the country and the manifest satisfaction of the thousands who have visited the popular resort is encouraging to the management, and the best commendation Mr. Rosen could receive for his energy and faithful efforts. The big free show, which has proved one of Altro's greatest features, has been of such character as to entertain the thousands who have visited the park daily since its auspicious opening on Memorial Day. Despite the inclement weather during the past few weeks, the various concessions about the grounds have been well patronized and everyone seems thoroughly pleased with the park conditions. Manager Rosen has had a pronounced success with the attractions he has brought to the park and the flattering praises of him and his management are indeed well deserved.

NEW TOLEDO THEATRE

Owing to an injunction secured by the lessee of Bellevue Park, Toledo, Ohio, J. W. McCormick's new vaudeville house that was already half completed and which was advertised to open June 3, was not finished. Mr. McCormick, with his usual enterprise, immediately secured a lease on the property opposite Bellevue Park and incorporated the Walbridge Amusement Co., of which he is the general manager. This company is now erecting a handsome playhouse which will be completed by the middle of this month and devoted to fine vaudeville, catering especially to women and children with three shows daily. E. F. Christy will be the manager of the new theatre.

WILL HURT SUMMER PARKS

The summer amusement park business in New Jersey is expected to suffer greatly during the remainder of the season as a result of the new state law which goes into effect July 4, and which prohibits the sale of all spirituous liquors on the Sabbath. It is believed that the enforcement of this law will have the effect of driving the vast majority of Sunday pleasure seekers to Coney Island and other out-of-state resorts, thus ruining New Jersey amusement promoters who have large sums invested.

NEW PARK FOR CHICAGO

Recent advice from Chicago would seem to indicate that the Windy City is to have another amusement park next year. Several prominent financiers are said to be back of the project. Negotiations are said to be under way for the purchase of property on the West side for the park, the outlay for which to be in the neighborhood of $400,000. It is understood that two well known park managers are interested in the deal. If the park is installed it will necessitate the closing of several streets.

PARK NOTES

So far, this has been the banner season for Greater Electric Park at Newark, N. J., which seems to be enjoying all of its old-time popularity. General Manager C. A. Dunlap has introduced several new and novel attractions which are in a great measure responsible for the renewed interest that the public has taken in this popular resort. The big spectacular pyrotechnic production, Eruption of Mt. Vesuvius, is proving a big drawing card. This summer the vaudeville theatre is a big paying proposition and the seating capacity has been materially increased. A variety of high-class talent is being furnished by Myers and Keller, of New York, and the work of the performers is aided by Edw. Mueller and his incomparable orchestra from Waldmann's Opera House in Newark.

Hillside Pleasure Park, Newark, N. J., is soliciting a prosperous business this season. This increase of business is mostly due to the efficient management of William E. Thaller, and his able assistant, Thomas Crowley, who directly assumed the command of the business affairs of this resort last spring. This resort can justly boast of one of the finest roller coasters in the country, besides a number of other strong attractions. Balloon ascensions and equestrian exhibits on the hippodrome track are also big features.

Leon Evans, assistant treasurer of J. Waldmann's Opera House, Newark, N. J., is in charge of the box office of the summer theatre at Olympic Park in that city, where the best grand and comic operas are being produced by a capable company of artists. Mr. Evans was located at Greater Electric Park for the past two seasons. He was chief executive in the box office.

PARK ATTRACTIONS

Charles F. Rhodes, manager of Big Otto's Trained Wild Animal Show at White City, is undergoing treatment at the Englewood Hospital, Chicago, as the result of a bad cut he received last week while handling a carving knife. Big Otto was rather seriously injured one day last week by the Wallace lion, necessitating a two-day lay off from his duties at White City. The animal show and Jewell's Minstrels are making big money.

Pain's Last Days of Pompeii opened a ten weeks' engagement in Chicago, July 2. The spectacle is being produced on a six acre reservation immediately adjoining White City. An amphitheatre has been erected and seats 1,200 people. The spectacle is one of the most pretentious that Mr. Pain has ever produced. H. B. Thearle, general manager for the Pain enterprises, is in active management.

Billy Beard, the party from the south, is at present filling an engagement with Y. C. Alley's Casino Minstrels which are playing the Southern Circuit of parks. Mr. Beard has been re-engaged for next season with Haverly's Minstrels as principal comedian.

Irvin B. Walton has joined the Canobie Lake Opera Co., Canobie Lake, Haverhill, Mass., as comedian, for the summer season.

Whren S. Smith doubled with Karo at Forest Park, Mississippi City, Miss., week June 30, and both made a big hit.

Dramatic

Notes from Maxam & Sights' Comedians: We opened our eighth season under tent at Kenyon, Minn., May 14, with the following people: J. W. Sights, manager; Pauline Sights, treasurer; B. L. Sights, stage carpenter; J. T. McGovern, stage manager; F. C. Priest, stage director; H. Huyke, leader of band and orchestra; S. Ashworth, advance man; O. M. Young, R. Marlon Osborn, Ernest Taylor, A. Dodson, B. B. Garfield, Geo. Fairchild, Richard Furne, Jay Orcutt, Lillie Osborn, Marie Sights and Mrs. F. C. Priest. Our big top is a sixty foot round top with a thirty foot middle and a stage 15 by 20 feet. We have twelve 10x12 living tents and a cook and dining tent. Our band is composed of ten pieces and our orchestra of six pieces. Our company is considered one of the best in the northwest and we are making good, in spite of the very bad weather. At Austin, Minn., week of May 28 we used the S. R. O. sign every night. The company is an old favorite in Austin, as Messrs. Maxam and Sights are both members of the Elks' Lodge in that city. W. K. Maxam has been under medical care in St. Louis, Mich., for three weeks, but joins us June 17 to take the advance. We have leased a baggage car from the Chicago Great Western Railway and will cover the territory of that road this summer, playing three night and week stands.

Edward A. Braden has secured the American and European rights to Stanley Park's new society play, Alan and His Angel, and will produce it the coming season. The play is in a prologue and four acts, and the scene is laid in London and vicinity. Mr. Park, the author, is an actor well known to New York audiences. The principal male part, that of David Tryne, is a cripple who possesses all the cowardly craftiness of a deformed person. Mr. Braden has selected Holbrook Blinn to play this part. The principal female part is that of Sonia Stepanak, the beautiful eighteen-year-old daughter of a Russian baron, possessed of a wonderful voice. To play Sula, Mr. Braden has selected Miss Frances Ring.

The roster of the May Stewart Co., which opened at Waxahatchie, Tex., on June 20 for a southern tour under the management of J. E. Cline is composed of the following people: May Stewart, Archibald Hotchkiss, Gilmore Brown, Wm. Peart, Ernest Shields, Chas. Holmes, Ray Thompson, Lon Jackson, Prof. J. C. Carsey, George Carnell, Win. Jordan, Edward Zietz, Jno. Barnes, Mrs. Jane Sylvester, Louis Fisher, Clayton Whitson, Lottie Carsey and Master Phil. The repertoire includes Ingomar, As You Like It, Romeo and Juliet and The Merchant of Venice. The performances will be given in the open air.

A Colorado Wolf, the successful western comedy drama which Belle Gold used as a starring vehicle, can be leased for repertoire or stock. The play has been favorably compared with M'Liss and is conceded to be the best western sourette play written since Bret Hart's masterpiece. The play requires a small cast and has a full line of special paper and mechanical effects. Information can be obtained of A. W. Cross, 1437 Broadway, New York City.

C. S. Williams, treasurer of the Standard Amusement Co., writes as follows from Centre Square, Pa.: J. A. Leighton, Wm. Vico, Nellie Leighton and Baby Leighton, Gora Lee Jefferson, and A. E. Ward, agent, have signed with the Siles Stock Co. (Southern) for next season. Ted Davis, agent, J. M. Shepard, A. Allison, Ethel Gilbert, Ida Fabor, Chas. H. Brown, Jennie Brown, Tom Baker and W. C. Cohan have signed with the northern company.

A roster of the Myrtle Harder Stock Co., now playing summer engagements is as follows: Lathmore and Leigh, managers; Chas. Lanmans, stage director; Leslie Webb, agent; Tom White, orchestra leader; Edwin Schrliner, Wayne Nunn, Fred. Valn, Glen Burt, Oscar Wheeler, Lillian Morris, Alice Hilton, Grace Valentine, Marie Reel and Good and Webb, vaudeville artists.

The Depew-Burdette Stock Co. will open its season July 29 for a tour of the south and west. Among the vaudeville features already signed are Pepper Twins, Winnie Dupree and the Barton Trio. C. A. Clark has signed as representative. There will be eighteen people in the cast. This is the thirteenth season for this popular organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jackson will leave Beardstown, Ill., on July 25 for Chicago, where they will join a new company, entitled Four Corners of the Earth. Mr. Jackson is well known as a clever actor and was recently a member of the Hickman-Fessley Stock Co.

The roster of the Garrick Theatre Stock Co., Burlington, Ia., is as follows: William and Belle Morris, Bob and Mable Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Adams, Chas. R. Phipps, J. J. Shedd, Harry C. Lutz, H. Wellender and Chas. E. Hay, manager.

Wilbur M. Bates has secured the rights to Edward Elmer's latest play, entitled Ingratitude, and will produce it in November. Mr. Bates has given us a Voice From the Wilderness, the Marie Walworth version of Amy Robsart, and a version of Under Two Flags.

Jack W. Vollmer, for five years The Billboard's correspondent at New Haven, Conn., has just received his degree of M. D. from Yale and has been appointed as house physician at the New York City Children's Hospital on Randall's Island.

Miss Fairy Plumb, sourette for the past two seasons with Gordon & Bennett's A Royal Slave Co., is spending her vacation at her home in Gosport, Ind. Next season she will probably appear in musical comedy.

The Truesdale Theatre Co. (East-ern) will open its season on Aug. 16 at Fiberville, Ia., carrying all royalty plays, special paper and a carload of scenery. There will be fourteen people in the company.

Lee Willard, the well known leading man, is now at the head of his own company playing the west, presenting Monte Christo and Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde under the management of Arthur C. Fox.

The engagement is announced of Miss Bessie Gillespie, an actress of Toledo, Ohio, and Arthur F. Roney. The marriage will take place in October. Miss Gillespie was known on the stage as Elizabeth Gillespie.

The Hypocrites will be the name of Henry Arthur Jones new play that is to open the Hudson Theatre, New York City, in September. Mr. Jones will come to America to direct the rehearsals.

Lorena Atwood, Kyle Bellows' leading lady in Rattles last season, has been engaged for a leading part in The Shepherd King for the coming season.

The Kingsley-Russell Co. were engaged for a second week at Central Park, Dixon, Ill., making their engagement from June 10-23.

Marie Corelli has dramatized her novel, Barabbas, and it will be produced next season with Tyrone Power in the leading role.

The Lulu Sutton Co. in A Man of Mystery did record-breaking business at the Grand Opera House, Butte, Mont., on June 11.

The Rich Stock Co. is playing in an open-air theatre in El Paso, Tex. This week the bill is A Texas Steer. Business is good.

The Carroll Comedy Co., under canvas made good at Grafton, W. Va., doing nice business. They carry twenty people.

Paul Hervien's Le Revell is a pronounced hit at the vaudeville Theatre, Paris, and its run has been extended.

Orrin Johnson will appear in a new play by Chas. Klein next season under the direction of Henry B. Harris.

Miss Gohlen Beane has closed with the Whyte Dramatic Co. and is visiting with her mother in Wichita, Kan.

Giles W. Harrington is with the stock company at Wallace Park, Paducah, Ky., for the summer.

Wadsworth Harris has been engaged as leading man for Robert Mantell next season.

E. E. Meredith has signed to go with one of Nixon and Zimmerman's attractions next season.

Olga Nethersole's Parisian season has been postponed until October.

The first of the ten Elmer Walters' attractions will open July 29.

LESLIE CARTER HONORED

While in Williamsport, Pa., June 23, Mrs. Leslie Carter was the recipient of a handsome Loving Cup from the members of her company. Acting Manager Deal made the presentation speech and Mrs. Carter personally thanked each member of the company for their kind remembrance.

Playhouses

The installment of a Keith theatre in Alton, Ill., is now an assured fact; a large force of men are rushing the work on the structure so that it will be completed early in September. Since 1886 it has been used for theatrical purposes, being built as a grand floor theatre in 1887 and was opened by the Hanna Abbott Opera Co. Up until 1887 it passed only first-class attractions. It was then leased by Harry Davis and run as a ten-cent vaudeville house.

Myers' Grand Theatre, at Janesville, Wis., closes its season July 5 and will re-open in August. The prospect for next season looks better than ever before, as all factors are running full blast and money will be plentiful in that section. The new interurban railway will also add to the facilities. Manager Myers' bookings this season were far better than those of any previous season. He leaves for Buffalo and New York City, July 10, and will be absent for about three weeks.

On June 25 a banquet was given in Kokomo, Ind., in honor of the first anniversary of the Crystal Theatre in that city. It was established in June 25, 1905, by Ammons and Dubess. The guests at the affair included the performers at the theatre that week, the employees of the house and others connected with the drama. Toasts were given and a general good time was had.

A. A. Kenney, of Muskogee, and Bert Essex, of South McAlester, are planning to establish a circuit of summer theatres in Indian Territory. They are negotiating for houses in Muskogee, South McAlester, Sulphur, Ardmore and Sawnee, Okla.

The Ottawa Theatre Co., of Peoria, Ill., has purchased the opera house at Ottawa, Ill., and has added it to the Chamberlain Harrington Circuit. The company is composed of S. B. Harrington, Bert L. Heyleman and Chas. Bunker.

The Bijou Theatre, at Canton, Ohio, will be altered and improved considerably before it opens again in September. Managers Dotts & Thomas state that business has been satisfactory this season. The house plays vaudeville.

D. E. Reeves, one of the managers of the Casino Theatre, Keokuk, Ia., is assuming a new role this summer by acting as agent for several small towns when in want of suitable attractions for their celebrations.

A new opera house is to be erected in Linton, Ind., and the Linton Opera House Co. has been incorporated with a capital stock of $25,000. Plans will soon be completed and work will begin.

Work on the new vaudeville house, the Star, which Frank Thelen is building on Main street in Aurora, Ill., is nearing completion. It will seat seven hundred people, and will probably open on July 16.

A new opera house is under construction at Sulphur, I. T. The stage will be 72x50 and the seating capacity will be 1,200. The house will be completed and opened by July 15. It is modern in every detail.

H. D. Clarke, of the Western Theatre Construction Co., Chicago, Ill., is building the Boulder Opera House at Boulder, Col., and has a contract to build a new theatre at Trinidad, Col.

J. B. Leuch, a business man of Comanche, Okla., began the erection of a two-story brick theatre at Lawton, Okla., on July 1. It will have a seating capacity of 800.

Reuby Coon and C. M. Haughey have secured the management of McCarthy's Opera House at Mason City, Ill., and are looking for the coming season.

B. Dudley South, formerly of Carpenter's at Cripple Creek Co., is now successfully managing the new Electric Family Theatre at St. Cloud, Minn.

There is a bright outlook for a new auditorium in Milwaukee, Wis. A number of large donations have already been received for that purpose.

The opera house at Kent, Ohio, may be reopened this coming season. Several well-known managers are reported to be negotiating for it.

The Family Vaudeville Theatre, Lafayette, Ind., continues to do excellent business. Three performances are given each day.

During the summer season the Andover Theatre, Danversville, Ind., will be greatly improved and many features added.

The Elks of Tusculouma, Ala., are building an up-to-date auditorium. It will be completed by Nov. 1.

The Auditorium Theatre, Mineral Wells, Tex., has been placed upon the Greenwood Circuit.

MINSTREL

Frank C. Morville, of Marquette, Mich., is the composer of a clever song, entitled May I Be Your Beau, the indications for which are exceedingly good. Morville has written a number of songs, among them being Susie, My Brown-Eyed Susie, Tell Me Will You Be Mine, My Heart's Longing For You Sweet Fannie, Fear Will You Think of Me When I Am Gone, Sweetheart, I Long to Hear Your Sweet Voice Again, I Often Long For My Dear Old Minstrel Home, and I Don't Want You Hanging Round.

Brown of Harvard has been booked by Manager J. Fred Given to open his theatre Powers Opera House, at Decatur, Ill., this coming season. Manager Given returned to Decatur last week to prepare for the Fourth at his park, Arcanum, and on July 7 left again for New York to complete his bookings. It is said that he is booking both the syndicate and the independent attractions.

Billy Clark, who recently closed his second season with the M. G. Field's Minstrels as principal comedian and monologist, is putting in the warm months playing the parks.

Harry De Forest, a member of Lew Dockstader's band, is spending his vacation at his home, in Janesville, Wis. He has already signed with Mr. Dockstader for the coming season.

Chas. M. Jacobs, the singing and talking comedian has signed to do principal end and his specialty with Gorton's Minstrels this season. He joins them about July 9.

Dr. Karl Mueck, one of the conductors of the Royal Opera, Berlin, has accepted the position of conductor of the Boston Symphony Orchestra for one year.

MUSICAL COMEDY

The roster of the Chester Park Comic Opera Co., now playing a ten weeks' engagement at Chester Park, Cincinnati, is as follows: James McElhern, Charles Fulton, Tom Ince, Sam J. Mylle, Francis J. Boyle, Ed. A. Reader, W. Meyer, Joe Bingham, C. M. Hood, Ralph Nichols, Blanche Rae Edwards, Claire Palmer, Sylvester (Genick), Ethel Pennington, Edna Remond, Cecil Wiltmer, Olette Te Mayne, Lillian McIntyre, Mildren Cecil, Alna Stetler, Jantie Willis, Marcella Moray, Ina Moulton and May O'Neil.

Klaw & Erlanger will next season star Frank Moulton in a new musical piece by Frank Pixley and Gus Luders, entitled The Grand Mogul. It will open in November.

Joseph Coyne, Harry Kelly, Mabel Hollins and Thomas A. Wise are among the principals of the company engaged to support Hattie Williams in A Little Cherub.

Uncle Sam adds another star to the flag this Fourth, and the firmament of musical comedy is brightened by a brilliant addition—Mabel Harrison.

Rudolph Aronson has secured the American rights to The Youth of Figaro, by Leoncavallo and Sardou.

The Paris Model is to be Anna Held's next starring piece.

A new one is called The Cat and the Cheroke.

BURLESQUE

Frank Milton and the DeLong Sisters have signed with the Campbell & Drew Colonial Belle Show for next season. At present this team is enjoying a four weeks' rest in Colorado.

The roster of the Lake Brady Stock Co., at Kent, Ohio, is as follows: Chester Bishop, E. D. McMillan, Arthur Blackaller, Richard Maddox, Will J. Olio, Frank A. Harris, Florence Randall, Nellie Manning and Bessie Sheldon. D. G. Hartman is manager; F. E. Johnson, business manager; Chester Bishop, stage director and Joe Fitzpatrick, musical director. Two plays are put on each week and business since the opening on June 11 has been phenomenal. The season closes the last week in August. Richard Maddox leaves on July 15 for Chicago to join the Nettle, the News Girl Co., which opens early in August at Kansas City. F. E. Johnson leaves on Aug. 1 for Van Wert, Ohio, to assume the management of the Auditorium Theatre.

MAKING GOOD EVERYWHERE

YOU realize the success of the LAUGHING GALLERY at the Summer Parks. Maybe you have thought of its possibilities as a traveling attraction but have given up the idea on account of the enormous cost of the glass mirrors, as well as the great weight and risk of breakage.

OUR METAL MIRRORS HAVE SOLVED THE PROBLEM

Inexpensive, light in weight, easily handled. Made of a highly polished composition metal that cannot rust and is wonderfully durable. Have same appearance, produce same effects, and will answer the purpose as well as the most costly glass. Increase of sales has enabled us to sell better mirrors for less money than ever before. Write now. Don't delay.

Vaudeville

Tom Hefron writes that he was treated most royally during his ten weeks' engagement over the J. E. Jackson Circuit and that all the local managers are fine fellows to meet. During his engagement last week at the Air Dome Theatre, Excelsior Springs, the LaBell Brothers, hand to hand balancers; Haji Leswik, gun spinner, and Harry Work, black-face artist, completed the bill. Tom is at Crystal Park, Sessalia, Mo., this week.

Jos. R. Ketter & Co. opened in a new sketch, entitled A Rural Substitute, at Idora Park, Youngstown, Ohio, week of June 18, and were the hit of the bill. The new act made a decided hit and the papers speak well of it. It is said to be decidedly funny, yet devoid of all roughness, and with sufficient touches of pathos to give it true dramatic atmosphere. It will be put on the road shortly.

Next season it will be Casad, DeVerne & Co. as this popular musical act will take on two more people, making it one of the biggest as well as the best musical acts on the road. It will be well dressed and will use all novelty instruments. Casad and DeVerne rested three weeks at their home in Dayton, Ohio, before opening last week at Coney Island, Cincinnati, with the Hawn Circuit of parks to follow.

Thorne and Holdsworth will return to vaudeville at the close of the Gagnon-Pollock Stock Co., on July 15. They have played North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Louisiana, Texas and put in a ten weeks' engagement at Lake Minnequa Park, Pueblo, Col. The troupe opens in Denver on July 16 at the Novelty Theatre.

The Three Taylors Traveling Troupe now playing Kentucky, featuring Karon Todd and her pickaninies, is composed of Gladys Brooks, Emma Mauder, Stella Fox, Karon Todd, Schopie Taylor, Preston Taylor, Turner Taylor, Thomas Harris, Thaddeus Parre, Richard Hess, Louis Saunders and Robert King.

Harry E. Valois writes that his engagements in the west have been very pleasant, and that he has postponed his eastern work as a result. He just recently finished eleven weeks' work over the Sullivan & Conbilline Circuit, and is now playing a ten weeks' engagement for Loverich & Lubelski.

Lena Thurber and her Four Black Birds will rest until Aug. 20, when they open a thirty-eight weeks' engagement under the management of M. S. Bentham, opening at Brighton Beach with Poll and Proctor time to follow. Miss Thurber will spend most of her vacation in the west.

Manager E. J. Lasserre of the Bijou Air-Dome Theatre, at Oklahoma City, Okla., is putting on splendid vaudeville and is making a success out of his venture. On the bill last week were The Murray Sisters, Ahern and Baxter, the Devon Sisters, Frank A. Voerg and Jack Benson.

The Bison City Trio are resting for two weeks at their home in Sheldon, Ia., enjoying the first good rest they have had for nineteen months. One of their diversions was a five days' visit to the Sheetz Ranch, where they were the honored guests at a barn dance.

Nat Blossom, who just closed on the Empire Circuit and opened on the Bijou Circuit at Wichita, Kan., June 18, is making a pronounced hit in his grotesque dancing and monologue specialty. He has offers for stock for next season.

That dancing act of Brown and Wilmore is going some though it is only three weeks old. They appear to have become a permanent fixture at the Happyland Theatre, Brandon, Man., Canada. At least they are there indefinitely.

Eddie Carroll and Agnes Clarke closed a pleasant five weeks' engagement over the Hopkins Park Circuit on June 23 and on the following day opened on the Morris Circuit at Little Rock. They are booked solid for the summer.

Mora, the Mystic, is on his eighth week with the Gay Paree Co. and is engaged for the summer season. Next season Mora will have three new illusions in his act. His wife, Violet Dale, is making a hit with her hal-lads.

Stepner and Appel have been in Indiana for the past fifteen weeks and they closed the show in almost every house with their popular singing, talking and dancing act. This team was formerly known as Trask and Murray.

Mabel Keith has been engaged by Lasky-Rouff & Co. for their big vaudeville novelty, The Military Octet. Miss Keith is considered one of the best cornet players in the country and she will undoubtedly make good.

George Neville & Co. presented a new sketch at Keith's Theatre, Philadelphia, Pa., on June 20, entitled Marlon's Santa Claus. It made a favorable impression, and was kept on the boards all week.

John T. Hunniford, novelty magician, writes that he is meeting with unqualified success in the west in his up-to-date act, into which he has introduced some strikingly original features.

If good comic songs make a comic act, then Stutsman and Crawford, Chas. and Joel, are the goods. They are playing the parks and the papers speak in glowing terms of their act.

Maxzeffo and Vansilve, sharpshooters, have been making good this season with their rifle and pistol shooting act. The turn borders on the sensational, and never fails to make good.

The Musical Adams are a hit in the parks. When they finish their fourteen weeks' engagement over the Melville Circuit they go west and open for the Western Vaudeville Association.

Willard and Hughes, who recently closed a forty weeks' engagement with The Dainty Paree Co., are now playing the Harry Hawn Circuit of parks. Their act is going well.

The Nugents, Howard and Margaret, are in their eighth week doing characters with the California Stock Co. at Sacramento, Cal. Business is great.

Franklin A. Brooks, song illustrator, is growing more popular every week at Point Gratiot Park, Dunkirk, N. Y., where he is now in his fifth week.

Will Eske, the "Sphinx Wizard," is at his home in Milwaukee, enjoying a brief rest. He begins work again July 2, playing westward.

Chas. Powers joined the Luclus Minstrels at Onset, Mass., for the summer, and reports that he is doing well with his musical specialty.

Greiner and Walton write that their new sketch, entitled A Picnic For Two, scored a pronounced hit at Saginaw, Mich., week of June 17.

Jennings and Jewell are booked solid until Aug. 1, when they go to New York to join Robie's Knickerbockers for the coming season.

Rainy weather has kept business up at the Bijou Theatre, Winnipeg, Can. Happyland Park, the only park open, suffered somewhat.

Earl Flynn writes that he is doing nicely in the western houses.

The Tasmanian Troupe, gymnasts and acrobats, have finished a twenty-seven weeks' tour of Cuba, and are resting in New York.

The Ammons Vaudeville Theatre at Goshen, Ind., is playing to splendid business. It has celebrated its sixteenth consecutive week.

Winters and Bissett, now playing the Melville parks, have signed with the D. W. Dinkins Burlesque Co. for the coming season.

The Campbells write from Winnipeg, Can., that they closed an exceptionally strong bill at the Bijou week of June 18.

Brown and Brownie write that they are booked until September. They are now making them laugh over the Nash Circuit.

Golden and Collins are being featured in the summer parks. They opened Herman's Park, Baltimore, Md., recently.

The Great Bunkers opened a ten weeks' engagement over the Novelty Circuit at Cripple Creek, Col., on June 10.

The Murray Sisters—Salma and Josie—are scoring heavily in their refined singing and dancing act in the west.

Vaudeville is going great at the Carlsbad Theatre, Mineral Wells, Tex., under the management of R. F. Duke.

The Cycling Cogswells are making a hit in Mexico and will not return to the States until December.

J. Colwell Murphy is now managing the Dancing Girl Show with Prof. Zeno's Vaudeville Combination.

Pat Kelly, the old time minstrel man, is doing a pleasant engagement at Grayson Springs, Va.

Miss Florence Gibbs, the soubrette, is making a big hit with her song called 'It's Movin' Day.'

The Marvelous Rousell will remain on the park circuits until Sept. 11. He is going great.

King Kollins, the banjoist, will shortly join Miss Mabel Clifton in a high-class banjo act.

Chas. Crossman has signed with the John L. Sullivan Co. for the balance of the season.

Miss Bertha Mack, the skatorial princess, is doing well in the roller skating rinks.

Mrs. Julie Levy and family rested at Excelsior Springs, Mo., week of June 24.

The Richards Sisters are making good over the Novelty Circuit.

NEW ORLEANS, LA.

West End Park is drawing record-breaking crowds nightly. It plays the Orpheum attractions. Fischer's Military Band is a big hit.

Athletic Park is getting its share and the big open-air attractions and vaudeville in the Casino seem to please. The Circle Swing, Tours of the World, Figure Eight, Katzenjammer Castle and other concessions report very good business. Maud Daniel took possession of the Casino on June 24, presenting the Maud Daniel Novelty Co. in productions similar to those formerly produced by Welser and Fields.

The Audubon Skating Rink reports big business for the week of June 18. Elmer Burt is giving an exhibition in fancy skating.

There were over 20,000 people at the City and Audubon Park on Sunday, June 17. The attractions were Spenser's Military Band, Brann's Naval Brigade Band and Orchestra, and vaudeville and animated scenes.

The Southern College of Music, of which Mrs. Gabrielle David is president, will give its eleventh annual recital at the Tulane Theatre on Friday, June 22.

The Frederick Family, acrobats supreme, are headliners in their line and have been a big hit at West End Park for the past two weeks.

Signor Faranta, the well-known theatrical manager, has been appointed manager of Athletic Park.

Walter S. Baldwin has leased the Crescent Theatre from Klaw & Erlanger beginning Aug. 26 until Oct. 1. He will present the Baldwin-Melville Stock Co. until Oct. 1, when he will open the new Baldwin Theatre.

The famous tenor, Constantine, of the Royal Opera at Madrid, has been engaged for the French opera for the coming season.

WILLIAM A. KOEPE.

ALL UP IN THE AIR

An aerial contest between prominent actresses is one of the interesting possibilities in New York for the near future. On behalf of Elizabeth Bree, prima donna of The Social Whirl, at the Casino, an expert balloonist, the Messrs. Shubert have challenged Rose LaHarte, the Hippodrome aeronaut, through her managers, Messrs. Thompson & Dundy, to a balloon contest. Miss La Harte has been offered by the Messrs. Thompson & Dundy $5,000 in cash and a contract for five years at a fat salary if she can negotiate the distance between Manhattan Island and Luna Park in a balloon. The Casino managers will give Messrs. Thompson & Dundy an opportunity to win the amount of the bonus, for they are ready to wager $5,000 that Miss Bree can beat Miss La Harte over the course indicated.

Did You Make Good on the 4th? If You Had a SAYSO You Did.
 Too busy to write a long ad., as it keeps me humping to fill orders. Sayso Ovens and Cupolas are certainly winners. Note the 3 burner, 3 iron oven to the left. You can make 250 to 300 cones an hour on this oven. Price $29. Two iron oven, proportionate capacity, $21. One iron oven, $12.

CUPOLAS SEPARATE.
 Operate on any gas, gasoline or oil stove or charcoal pan. Each iron will produce 25 to 100 cones per hour. Three, $19.50; Two, $14.50; one, $8.50. Terms—One half the amount with the order, balance on receipt of goods. I include with each order a copy of my 40-page book of instructions, covering the whole business of making and marketing cones, etc., an ice cream dipper, a ladle for the batter, a cone shaper, pyramid form, 16 different signs a large two color banner, and a lot of other things too numerous to mention. The real cone season has not yet opened—the big business will begin about the 15th, so get ready.

PIERS, BEACHES, SUMMER THEATRES

OUR NEW PARK LIST

We beg to call attention to the innovation in the style of our Park List, instituted in this issue. The additional data makes the list the most complete and valuable ever printed. The "key" at the head of the list explains the references. Managers, concessionaires and performers are invited to contribute additional data for those parks in the list where the characters of amusement resorts and the circuits they are on are not indicated. Every item of information will increase the value of the list just so much. In those instances where all the information is given, correspondence between managers and concessionaires and performers, with all the waste of time it involves and the annoyances it carries with it, will be reduced to the minimum.

[x indicates no circuit. (1) indicates Park plays vaudeville. (2) indicates Park does not play vaudeville. (3) indicates Park plays bands. (4) indicates Park does not play bands. (5) indicates Park plays both bands and vaudeville. (6) indicates Park plays neither bands nor vaudeville. (xx) indicates Park plays stock. Where no character is given, the information has not been contributed. When a park does not play either bands or vaudeville and still appears in this list, it is because privileges are sold or let on various occasions.]

LIST OF FAIRS

OUR NEW FAIR LIST

Attention is now called to the modification of our Fair List as printed in this issue. By identifying the various fairs with the circuits to which they belong, and by indicating positively that certain fairs are not allied with any circuit, we have added a feature of great value to privilege people, performers, agents, and fair followers generally. Reference to the list of FAIR CIRCUITS, printed for the first time in this issue, will prove of service in associating dates.
Neither list is by any means complete, so far as the minor details are concerned, and we solicit contributions of the information omitted, from all who may be interested in seeing the list more comprehensive.

This list is revised and corrected weekly. Readers will confer a favor by calling our attention to any errors or omissions.

"WHIRLWIND",
The Famous Trotting Ostrich.

THE GREATEST ATTRACTION and BEST DRAWING CARD for STATE and COUNTY FAIRS

New Central Kentucky Fair Association

DANVILLE, KY., Aug. 5th, 1905.
TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:
This is to certify that we had the Famous Trotting Ostrich, "Whirlwind", owned by Thomas A. Cockburn, Hot Springs, Ark., to trot the three days of our Fair this year, and can candidly say that the attraction proved the best drawing card that we have ever put out, as we had the largest attendance at our fair this year that we have had in years, and we largely attribute same to this attraction. The Ostrich trotted on our half mile track and several time keepers certify that he went the quarter in 30 seconds and the half mile in one minute and five seconds. We heartily recommend the attraction to anyone seeking a genuine drawing card. H. C. BRIGHT, Sec'y & Treas. The Ostrich Farm, Hot Springs, Ark., THOMAS A. COCKBURN, Prop.

 Making all Kinds, Sizes and Styles.

THE KING OF MONEY GETTERS
 —1906 MODEL—

Automatic Parisian Ice Cream Cone Ovens
 SWEEPING THE COUNTRY FROM COAST TO COAST.

10,000
 Parisian
 Ovens
 In Use

All over the World,
 Getting Big Money.

WHY? BECAUSE—No more measuring out batter; no more burning fingers; no more rolling cones; no more cones of all sizes, shapes and thickness—does away with disagreeable method of shaping the cones on the hot irons and holding them in the hands until sufficiently crystallized to turn loose. No opening up or flattening out.
HOW? Dip core in batter, insert in oven and PRESTO, out comes a true cone ready for use. OTHER REASONS—Positively cooks cones crisp and brown. Built scientific. Requires only 1/2 amount of batter needed to make a cone in the old way. This item alone, in a season, will pay for several ovens and go a long way towards paying for your privileges. Sample Cone—5c. or 10c. cone can be made by simply inserting cone in batter the proper depth. The ice cream cone industry is too big a bonanza to hang back on a few paltry dollars. Buy an up-to-date outfit and get in on the big money that is made this season. Write for Catalogue.

WARNING—We are the inventors and sole manufacturers of these Automatic Ovens—we have complied with all the requirements of law; and we warn the public these ovens are only sold by us and our authorized agents.

N. SHURE CO.,

Is the Largest and Most Reliable Wholesale Streetmen's Supply House in the Country

OUR LEADING LINES

JEWELRY, PLATED and SOLID GOLD

WATCHES, SILVERWARE, CLOCKS, CUTLERY, RAZORS.

OPTICAL GOODS, NOTIONS, STATIONERY, CHENILLE and TAPESTRY, COVERS and CURTAINS

RUGS and LACE CURTAINS, HANDKERCHIEFS and HOSIERY, CELLULOID GOODS, RUBBER GOODS, CANES, NOVELTIES, UMBRELLAS, TOILET ARTICLES and PREPARATIONS.

We make a specialty of Premium Goods of all kinds.

YOU CANE RACK MEN

Buy Your Canes Direct From Factory

AND MAKE THE JOBBER'S PROFIT YOURSELF.

A wide awake Streetman can easily be taught a good thing. We noticed that, for since we announced that we manufacture our own canes, every cane-rack man within "knowledge" took a tumble and sent us an order. Naturally, everyone on receiving our canes was fairly "tickled to death", so to speak, with the quality of the new finish we put on and the general high grade make-up of our canes. The result of this is duplicate orders from every one who had a trial. We are now turning out in our factory, and all these go to cane-rack men who are now doing a larger and more successful business because they handle our attractive, high grade, piano finish canes.

500 DOZEN CANES PER DAY

We Have the New Japanese Bamboo Canes. Crook Handles, Wine Color, Enamel Finish. We have New Finishes in Maple Stick Canes.

We make them now in all attractive colors. Also in Mottled Marble and Polka Dot Patterns.

WE SUPPLY STREETMEN

FAIR WORKERS, CIRCUS MEN, CARNIVAL PEOPLE, CANE RACK and KNIFEBOARD MEN, PICNIC WORKERS, DOLL RACK MEN, SHOOTING GALLERIES, FISH POND MEN and SCHEMERS, MEDICINE CRIERS and VENDERS, PREMIUM GIVERS, AUCTIONEERS, PEDDLERS, MERCHANTS and MAIL ORDER HOUSES.

"IT'S ALL TO THE CANDY"

The Biggest Money-maker for Park Managers and Concession Men.

Hundreds of hustlers made hundreds of dollars last season from our wonderful machine, but the field was not one-tenth covered. Wake up and get in line—it's the biggest bit of all—a money-copier from the first minute. It's the EMPIRE Candy Floss Machine.

It turns a pound of sugar into 30 nickel tags of candy in eight minutes, while the crowd looks on, and they shell out their nickels as fast as you can sack the candy. Many EMPIRE machines are taking in from $50 to $125 daily. A dead sure proposition for Parks, Resorts, Summer Gardens, Circuses, Race Tracks, Carnivals, Street Corners, Show Window or wherever there are crowds of people.

Operated by hand or power. No gas or electricity required. No candy-maker needed. Anyone can run it. THE EMPIRE makes a better candy and makes it more rapidly than any machine ever saw. It is of perfect mechanical construction, very simple, will not get out of order, but is Johnny on the Spot at all times. We guarantee the construction and you can depend on 30 bags in eight minutes—and it's nearly ALL PROFIT.

THE EMPIRE CANDY FLOSS MACHINE is fully covered with patents. We will protect all purchasers and prosecute all infringers. Don't be fooled by cheap imitations.

SEND TO-DAY FOR PARTICULARS and get in line with the winner. Sold outright, without restrictions, as to where it shall be used.

PRICES:
 Hand Power Machine, with Gas Attachment $150.00
 Hand or Power Machine, with Gas Attachment and equipped with Electric Motor and Attachments complete 200.00
 This machine may be operated by hand or by Electric Motor. Gasoline Generator for either of the above machines 12.00
TERMS—Cash with order. If desired, either machine will be shipped C. O. D. with privilege of examination, on receipt of $25.00. Write for catalogue and full information.

MAKE MONEY WHILE THE SUN SHINES. THE HIT OF THE WORLD'S FAIR. Privilege Men, Circus and Park Proprietors, Road Men, ATTENTION.

Serve your patrons with Cornucopia Ice Cream Sandwiches, the greatest repeating sellers of the age. Are fresh, crisp, baked cakes in the shape of a cone, and when filled with ice cream, sold readily at five cents, at enormous profits. They were the rage at the St. Louis World's Fair, and will prove equally so at all Summer Resorts, Street and County Fairs, Festivals, Picnics, etc., this season. We will furnish Ovens and Irons for baking same, or will supply Cornucopias, 250 in case, securely packed at $3.75 per case F. O. B. Write for prices and exclusive territory. We are the originators in this line; are protected by patents, and will prosecute all infringements.
