THE MAYFLOWERS.

The trading steamer, or schooner, proceeds abundantly in the vicinity of Plymouth, and was the first down that greeted our eyes on the morning of the 5th.

And Mr. Dowder wanted to winter away with a winter party.

What had he in his thirty three hours? Which he got on board?

Yes, "Go to bed!" "The English maid, to have the diamonds perished, above the brown leaves, dry and dead."

"Go with us, here our rest shall be, for us the Mayflower of the sea."

"Oh! I've been down of late and hope to be soon down to a brimble shore, in many a pine-branch bow."

"Behind the trees will I range length, and you will see me in the night, to take leave the many strength of the brave hearts of old."

"So live the father in your name, and do not do as I do, and once the law that overrules in rocky strength will bow down."

The Pilgrim's wild and wondrous day, and you will see me in the night, to take leave the many strength of the brave hearts of old."

WASHINGTON, D. C. THURSDAY, JUNE 5, 1856. FIRST SESSION.

House of Representatives, of the assault committed by one of its members, the Hon. Preston S. Brooks, upon the Hon. Charles Sumner, a member of the same body.

The committee submit, herewith, certain affidavits taken by them in the case, and the following resolution:

Resolved, That the above report be accepted, and that a copy thereof, and the affidavits accompanying the same, be transmitted to the Hon. Charles Sumner.

Mr. Mason suggested that the report had better be referred to the Senate for their consideration.

Mr. Toombs thought the report had better pass, as it came from the committee; and the following resolution was concurred in, and ordered to be printed:

Resolved, That the committee on the District of Columbia, report a bill to provide for the removal of the schools throughout the county of Washington, in the District of Columbia, without the limits of the city of Washington and to incorporate...

The bill relating to the removal of the obstructions to navigation at the mouth of the Potomac River, and the President with his objections, was then taken up, when Mr. Mason directed the Senate at length, and the President at length.

After some remarks from Mr. Butler and Mr. Bell of Tennessee...

Mr. Mason obtained the floor, and the further consideration of the report was postponed until to-morrow.

And the Senate adjourned.

Numerous bills were introduced in pursuance of notice, read twice, and appropriately referred.

Mr. Tappan, of New Hampshire, presented resolutions of the Legislature of that State on the subject of Slavery in the Territories and the removal of the same from the same.

Mr. Cambach, of Indiana, from the Committee for the District of Columbia, reported Senate bills to amend an act to incorporate the State Library, in the District of Columbia, was taken up, and read twice, and passed.

Mr. Estlin, of Massachusetts, asked the House to consider the resolution of the Senate, authorizing the Commissioner of Public Buildings to contract with the State of Massachusetts...

his, a subscription is circulating, for the purpose of getting up a testimonial for presentation to Preston S. Brooks, whose course is very generally approved in this locality.

Brooks at Home. From the Cincinnati Enquirer. A telegraph dispatch, to be found in another column, under the date of Washington, May 23d, informs the people of South Carolina, that the Hon. Charles Sumner, a member of the Senate, has been incarcerated in a common jail at Washington, for chastising a Massachusetts slave-driver, who had been guilty of an outrage in his abuse and slander of Senator Butler.

Mr. Sumner in Washington suffers such a gentleman to remain a prisoner for discharging his duty.

The hall has been opened; and we hope that Southern members are determined to meet every assault which may be made by Northern members, promptly and efficiently, and teach them the rights of the South, as well as the persons of Southerners.

The Voice of the Ancient Dominion. From the Pittsburgh Intelligencer. We were very sorry to read the following article in the Standard of the 2d inst. of the blackguard, Sumner. We regret that he did so, not because Sumner got a kick that he did not want, but because he has done it to all get and more beside, but because the nasty scound and his co-scamps will make capital out of it, and will raise a howl which will split the public ear about the violation of the privileges of debate, &c.

WHO WANTS A GREAT DOCUMENT!

Our readers will recollect that so great was the demand for our old series of Vistas for the People, that the surplus edition left of it, after the supply of regular subscribers, was soon exhausted.

We have now to announce that, having on hand about 3,000 copies of the first volume of Vistas for the People, (just closed), we have had them stitched and bound in paper, and will send them, free of postage, to any who may order them, for 25 cents a copy. The new forms a new volume of 192 pages. It contains a "Decade of the Slave Power"—complete in ten chapters.
