Excerpts from: "Fuehrer Conferences - German Navy 1940

Conferences of the Commander in Chief,
Navy with the Fuehrer on 14 November
1940 at 1300

10. Regarding Russia:

Russia will not attempt the showdown on her part in the next few years, since she is at present building up her Navy with the assistance of Germany. She attaches great importance to the 38 cm. turrets for battleships; therefore she will remain dependent on German support in the years to come. *****

4. Q. What kind of instructions did you issue at the time of the rebellion of the Burmese and guerrilla troops around April, 1945?

A. On approximately 30th March I was near Myiangan and early in April retreated South to Kalaw and after this I was only in the mountains. On May 11th I was in Mawchi. On May 28th I arrived at Moulmein. I only heard then of things that had happened. I issued no instructions concerning this.

5. Q. Were the Kachin tribes residing in Kalagon village wild natured?

A. As I was never in Kalagon I do not know anything about these people.

6. Q. Was not the reason of the military operation against the Kalagon vicinity for the purpose of pacifying the wild tribes?

A. The object of this operation was to attack light parachutists who were in the Kalagon area and was nothing to do with the people.

7. Q. Did you get any report from your subordinate officers who actually went to Kalagon village to pacify these tribes?

A. No reports. I first heard of this case when I was in the Moulmein jail.
