MAY 28 1934

FRIDAY

ANNOUNCER: "Uncle Sam's Forest Rangers" --

ORCHESTRA: QUARTET

ANNOUNCER: Those of us who one day saw the vigorous youth of a nation marshalled away amid the flying of flags and the beating of drums now think sadly of those crosses row on row on Flanders Fields; and bitterly, too, upon the enmities of men which live while poppies grow. As Memorial Day approaches, we wonder if there is not some constructive way to hold secure those high ideals which war has sought to save; and we feel a need for honoring the dead with living tributes. Then let our tribute be to keep alive in wiser ways those worthy concepts for which they died. On Memorial Day, we bow in homage to all who have made the supreme sacrifice in the name of Patriotism, Honor, and Freedom. Among them are many who came from the faithful ranks of Uncle Sam's Forest Rangers.

And up on the Pine Cone Ranger District of our National Forest, our friends Ranger Jim Robbins and Jerry Quick have been helping the Decoration Day Committee of Winding Creek this week in their plan for Memorial Day. -- Here they are --

BESS: Oh Jim -- who was that just left?

JIM: That was old Doc Simpson.

BESS: Jim, you aren't sick are you?

JIM: (CHUCKLING) Not that I'd noticed. Can't poor old Doc Simpson make a friendly call without having to bring along his bag of pills and saws and chisels and start giving professional attention?

well they certainly ought to - I think I should not be asked to give evidence

10007

They were looking for a way to get rid of the evidence of having been asked to give evidence, other than to give

ALICE: In fact, Devonshire said to him that that woman might be pretty hot.

JERRY: (LAUGHING) Got old Harry in his uniform and he'll command the whole crowd.

JIM: (CONCERNED) I reckon that's right. - Well, now that we're going to have the exercises at the hall, the U.S. Army is going to be here and get the cases planned around the surrounding parts. (Pause then a knock) Well, that's all right - Harry Berger, and some of his men, down at the lumber mill, are going to be in the dining.

ALICE: Look - would this coming up the front porch? - Yes, it is Mrs. Berger.

(RING OF DOOR)

JIM: Come in.

(DOOR CLOSING)

JIM: Well, good, Mrs. Berger. Come right in.

JERRY: Hello Mrs. Berger!

MRS. BERGER: (CHEERFUL ACCENT) Thank you - I would talk with Mrs. Berger a little, first.

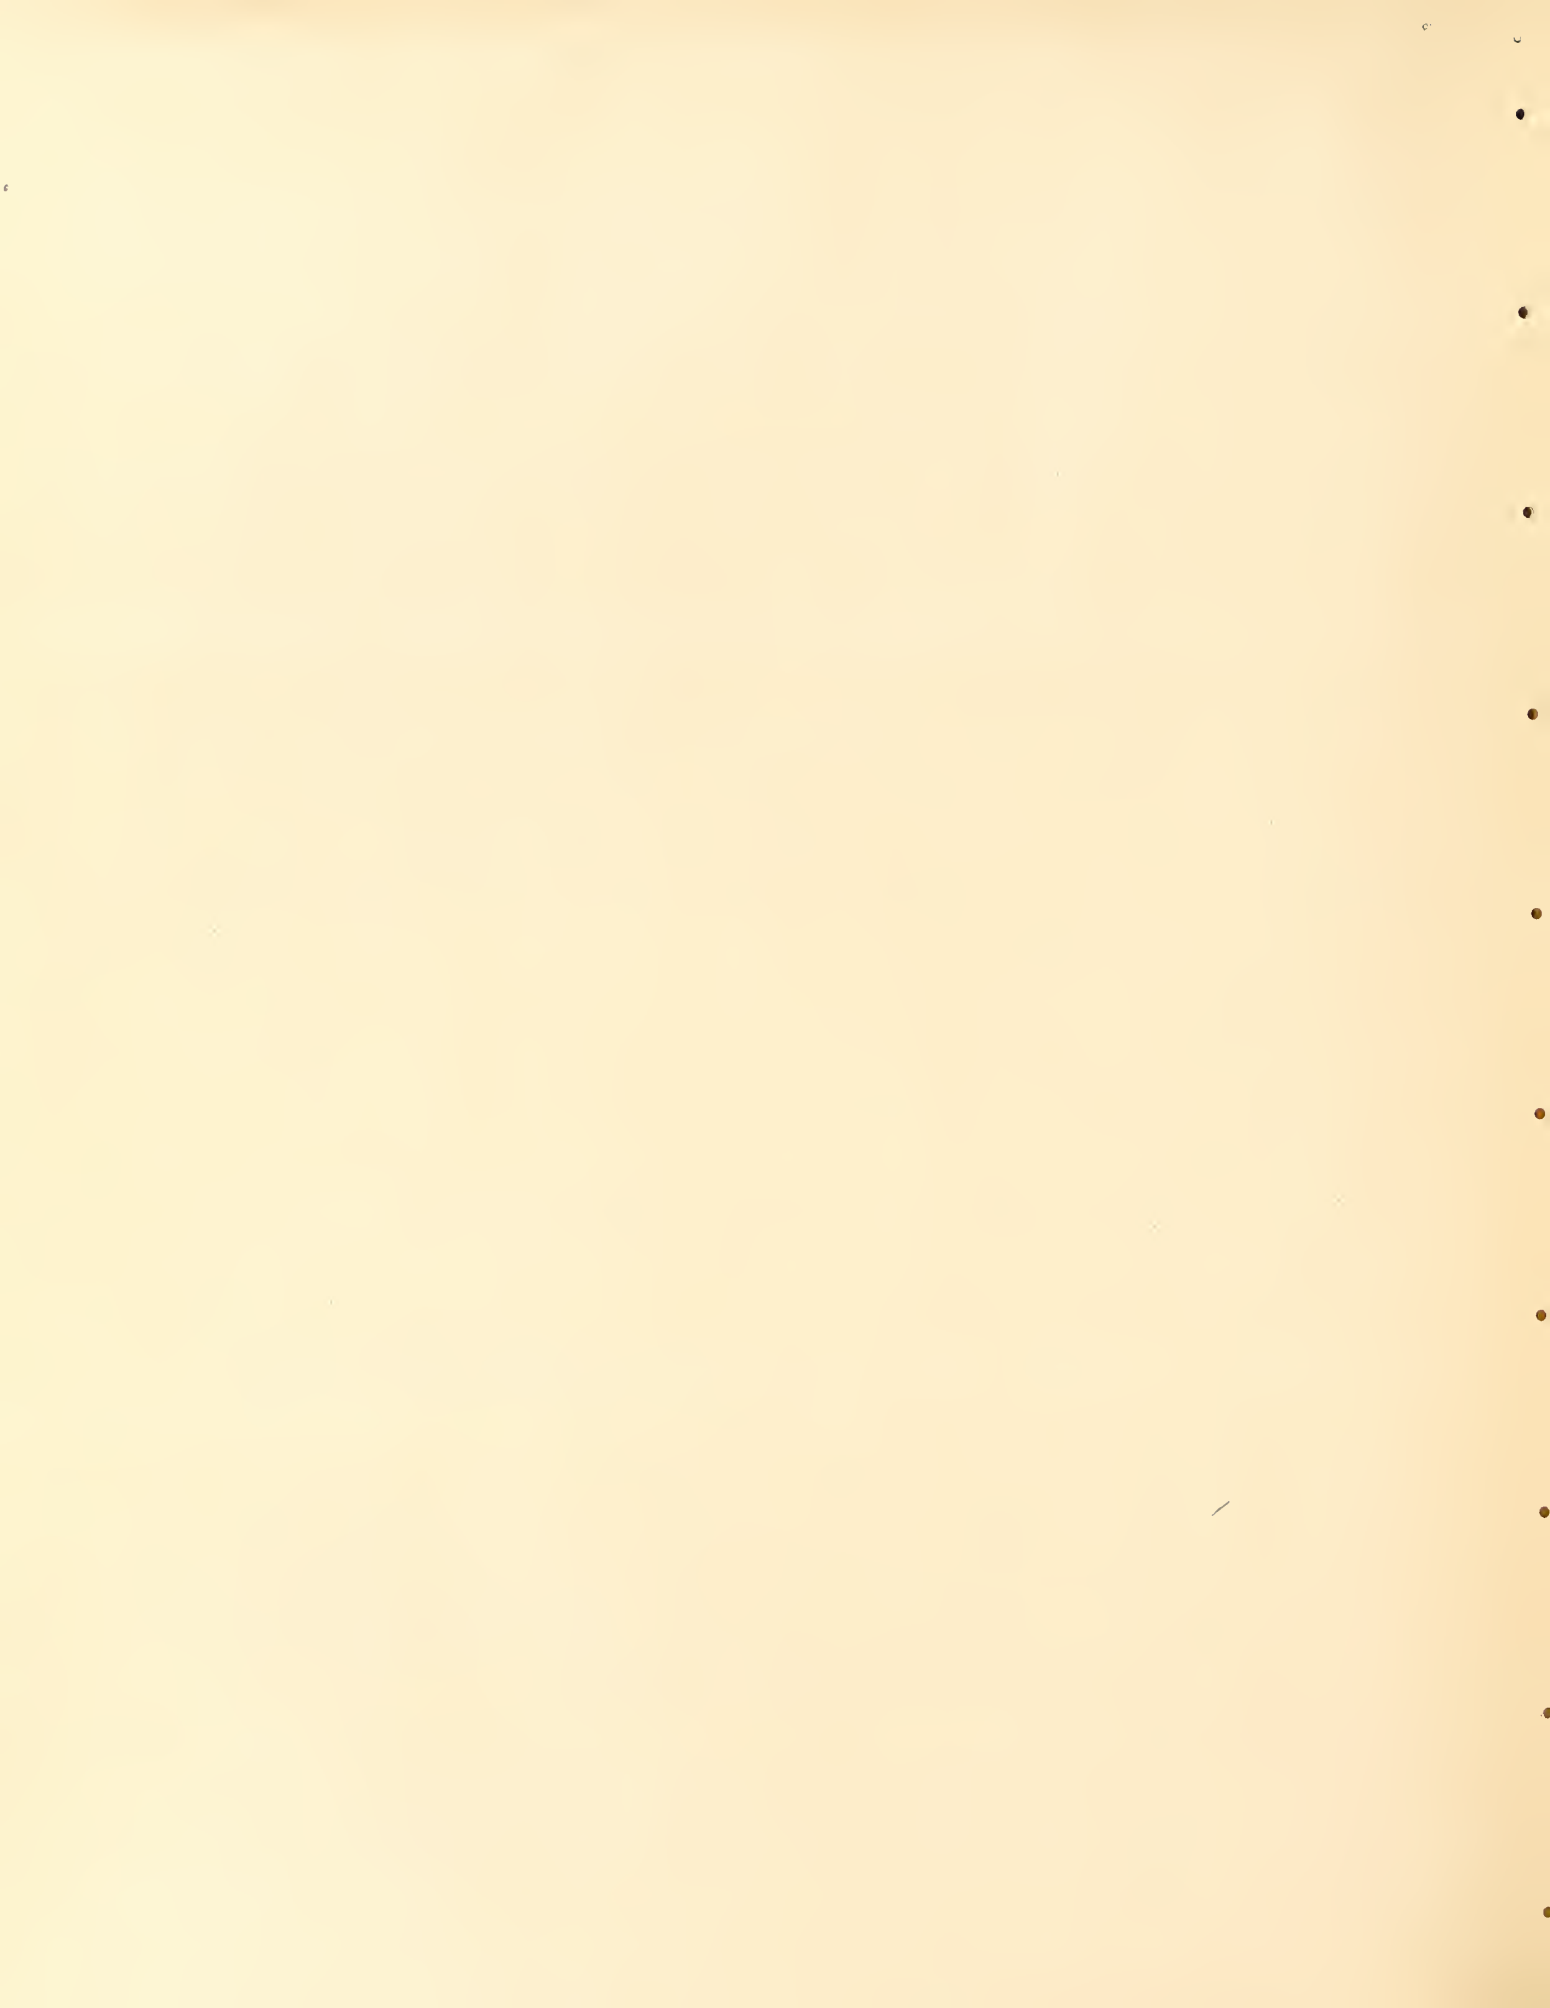

ALICE: Mr. or course, Mrs. Berger.

JIM: We're got to do some work on that land around here. Jerry, so you sit down right here, Mrs. Berger and you ladies and talk to your heart's content.

MRS. BERGER: Thank you.

JIM: It's better go in the office, now Jerry!

JERRY: Okay.

DEAN: I don't -- Tell me, Mrs. Rogers, how did you --

MRS. ROGERS: You see, he was born in the old country, you know, and he -- all those Irish boys, they don't fight in Germany, they -- they don't boys they get killed. Only Emil, he's the only one -- he stays at home. By all the saints, a big one. He was --
I don't know, but he must have been before he got --
-- that's the name of the boy, the name. That's the name --

DEAN: I see, well I'm sorry -- and you must have --

MRS. ROGERS: The fact all these, Mrs. Rogers, of her presence -- you --
-- that's the name of the boy, the name. That's the name --

DEAN: Of course it would be all right to have --
Mrs. Rogers. They can't fight in the other place -- four boys, that's -- and we have --

MRS. ROGERS: Thank you Mrs. Rogers.

DEAN: Thank you, I'm sorry --

MRS. ROGERS: Oh, I'm sorry, to hear you --

DEAN: Thank you Mrs. Rogers, but I will --

MRS. ROGERS: Is that all? -- and I --
They want that the name --

DEAN: Yes, I see.

MRS. ROGERS: I would stand --

DEAN: Of course, I'll stand right with you --
