SUBJECT: Update Recommendation to Transfer to the Control of Another Country for Continued Detention (TRCD) for Guantanamo Detainee, ISN: US9SA-000319DP (S)

For this update recommendation, detainee is assessed as an Islamic extremist who acknowledges going to Afghanistan for jihad. While in Afghanistan he trained and stayed at Taliban and Al-Qaida supported facilities. It is assessed this detainee is a medium risk, as he may pose a threat to the US, its interests and allies.

4. (S//NF) Detainee Background Summary: Unless otherwise noted, the following paragraphs are based solely on the detainee's statements.

a. (S//NF) Prior History: Detainee was born in Riyadh, SA. He attended high school and left in his senior year to answer a fatwa issued by Sheik Abdallah Al Jabari. While living in Saudi Arabia detainee attended a local Mosque called Sead AL-Nassar.

b. (S//NF) Recruitment and Travel: Detainee claimed that he heard a fatwa regarding the jihad in Afghanistan (AF) issued by Sheik Abdallah Al Jabari in Saudi Arabia. He met with an associate named Faisal Ibrahim Al-Dosari several times to discuss traveling to Afghanistan to support the jihad. Detainee stated he received a passport, a plane ticket (to Karachi, Pakistan (PK)), and was provided 5,000 Saudi Riyals for the trip from Al-Dosari. Detainee and Al-Dosari traveled from Riyadh, SA, to an unidentified location in Bahrain on 11 August 2001. Bahraini officials refused their right of passage to Karachi because they did not have visas, so the two spent the night to rearrange their travel. On 12 August 2001, detainee and Al-Dosari traveled to an unidentified location in the United Arab Emirates (UAE) and then on to Karachi where a man named Hassan met them.

c. (S//NF) Training and Activities: From 16 August 2001 thru 28 August 2001, detainee and Al-Dosari traveled to Quetta, PK, and Kandahar, AF. They were taken to an unidentified training camp under the command of Abdul Qudos. On 18 September 2001, detainee was issued a weapon and sent to the front lines of Kabul, AF. Three days later his group received orders to retreat and were transported to a guesthouse in Jalalabad, AF. On 12 October 2001, detainee was sent to the mountains of Tora Bora, AF, where he traveled from bunker to bunker and then on to the "Arab Center" (NFI) carrying out unknown activities.

d. (S//NF) Capture Information: Detainee crossed the Nangarhar province border in Afghanistan on 14 December 2001 and was subsequently arrested by Pakistani forces in an unidentified mosque. He was placed on the second bus of a three-bus convoy traveling from Parachinar, PK, to Kohat, AF, on 18 December. A riot broke out on the second bus and several Pakistani guards were killed. At least 14 other JTF-GTMO detainees were on the same bus with detainee. Detainee was eventually transferred to Peshawar, PK, and then to prison in Kohat, PK, before being transferred to US custody on 23 December 2001.

5. (S//NF) Detainee Threat:

a. (S) Assessment: It is assessed the detainee poses a MEDIUM risk, as he may pose a threat to the US, its interests and allies.

b. (S//NF) Reasons for Continued Detention:

- (S//NF) Detainee is assessed to be an Islamic extremist committed to jihad with ties to Al-Qaida. He traveled from Saudi Arabia to Afghanistan for jihad, stayed at Al-Qaida supported safehouses, and attended an Islamic extremist training camp run by Al-Qaida.
- (S//NF) Detainee admitted he traveled to Afghanistan from Saudi Arabia for jihad after he heard Sheik Abdallah Al Jabari's fatwa.
 - (S//NF) Detainee has claimed that 'jihad is a great thing' and that all non-Muslims are infidels. He stated the victims of the terrorist attacks on 11 September 2001 are collateral damage of a war initiated by the US.

 - (S//NF) Detainee and approximately 200 other people received instruction at a training camp near Kandahar during mid-2001. After he completed the training, he was assigned to the front lines of Kabul.
 - (S//NF) Tariqe Shallah Hassan al-Harbi, US9SA-000265DP, (ISN 265) stated that he attended the Al-Farouq training camp in mid 2001. ISN 265 stated that Abdul Qudos ran the camp.
 - (S//NF) Ibrahim Sulayman Muhammad Arbaysh, US9SA-000192DP, (ISN 192), stated that he attended the Al-Farouq training camp in September 2001. ISN 192 also claimed that Abdul Qudos was the commander of Al-Farouq while he was in attendance.
 - (S//NF) Analyst Note: Al-Farouq was the name of the Islamic extremist paramilitary training camp run by Al-Qaida near Kandahar, AF, during 2001. Although detainee admitted attending a training camp near Kandahar, he denied it was named Al-Farouq. ISN 192 and ISN 265 both identified Abdul Qudos as the commander of Al-Farouq during the period that detainee attended training camp.
