Rev. presentation of a thesisand such petitions, we constead, would be a matter of less moment and apprehension to the spread of the doctrine of multification and its corollary secession. Entertaining such opinions, it would betray a most one sided and sectionel spirit to join in the anathemas against Mr. Anans, and pass over in silence a more formidable for the perpetuity of the government that has sprung up in our midst. The presentation of a patition praying for the dissolution of the Union is a small sfisit, when compared with the doctrine of nullification, which insists spen the right of the States to sepade from the confederacy at its pleasure.
