

less, for our steady perseverance in pleading their cause. This extract from our Discipline shows conclusively that we place our opposition to Slavery on the ground of a religious principle...

that the population of Worcester is about 135,000. It is said that there are 100,000 slaves in the United States...

will, to some extent, with some amendments. [Laughing.] I do not need to extend my remarks upon the content of this distinguished man...

We have wrung from party politicians their opinion in the point of the return of fugitive slaves and we intend to hold them to it.

NATIONAL ANTI-SLAVERY STANDARD. WITHOUT COMPROMISE—WITHOUT COMPROMISE. NEW YORK, THURSDAY, JULY 25, 1850.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE NEW ENGLAND ANTI-SLAVERY CONVENTION. [Photographic Report by Dr. Stone.] SPEECH OF WENDELL PHILLIPS.

MR. PRESIDENT: I wish to say one word in regard to the remarks which have been made in relation to the Convention...

Now, the friend who has just spoken will, I think, grant this, that no speaker, unless it be Mr. Foster, was hindered beyond the just limits of Anti-Slavery Convention...

Remember, that although we feel there is enough in man humanity, without the Bible, to condemn Slavery, yet we have no objection to the Bible being used to destroy the title of any book to be thought illegitimate which sanctions such a system; still, so far from bringing any such objection against the Bible...

Because the error of our little day and neighborhood pervert the Scriptures, shall that make us disbelieve them? No matter for the text; enough for us to know that the Bible contains the word of God...

But not till then shall a few petty priests shut us out from sympathy and aid. In the recognition of their own guilt, they are ready to open their arms to all intents and purposes personal, and this is the main ground of my opposition to the whole system of Slavery...

Adjourn of S. M. JANNEY. I hereby certify to the Court, that in the publication in the "Washingtonian," for which I have been prosecuted by the United States Attorney...

In the month of July, 1849, two publications were made in the paper (the Washingtonian) on the signature of S. M. Janney, in relation to the subject of Slavery...

The Grand Jury of the County of Loudoun having been called to do its duty on the 20th of July, 1849, and on the 21st of the same month, and on the 22nd of the same month...

When referred to answers to Mr. Smith's speech were handed to me for publication in my paper, by Mr. Janney, I testified, because I was told by the law, but I never thought that the Grand Jury (who had had her agitation as little as possible) would be a person who had come amongst us and published a statement of the proceedings of the Convention...

C. C. McINTYRE. C. C. McINTYRE this day made oath before me, a Justice of the Peace for the County of Loudoun, that the above statement of the proceedings of the Convention is true, substantially true. Given under my hand this 25th day of July, 1850.

MR. PHILLIPS—I will be necessary that we present without reading the resolutions, suppose the Convention can be read at some future stage of the meeting...

I differ little from one of the speakers that afternoon in regard to the degree of conciliatory and concession of rights which should be attributed to the slaveholder...

MR. PHILLIPS—What I understood the speaker to allude to was the fact that the Convention had not yet decided upon the point of the public meeting upon this point. Let us not allow it to be diverted to other questions...

MR. PHILLIPS—What I understood the speaker to allude to was the fact that the Convention had not yet decided upon the point of the public meeting upon this point. Let us not allow it to be diverted to other questions...

MR. PHILLIPS—What I understood the speaker to allude to was the fact that the Convention had not yet decided upon the point of the public meeting upon this point. Let us not allow it to be diverted to other questions...

MR. PHILLIPS—What I understood the speaker to allude to was the fact that the Convention had not yet decided upon the point of the public meeting upon this point. Let us not allow it to be diverted to other questions...

MR. PHILLIPS—What I understood the speaker to allude to was the fact that the Convention had not yet decided upon the point of the public meeting upon this point. Let us not allow it to be diverted to other questions...

MR. PHILLIPS—What I understood the speaker to allude to was the fact that the Convention had not yet decided upon the point of the public meeting upon this point. Let us not allow it to be diverted to other questions...

MR. PHILLIPS—What I understood the speaker to allude to was the fact that the Convention had not yet decided upon the point of the public meeting upon this point. Let us not allow it to be diverted to other questions...

MR. PHILLIPS—What I understood the speaker to allude to was the fact that the Convention had not yet decided upon the point of the public meeting upon this point. Let us not allow it to be diverted to other questions...

MR. PHILLIPS—What I understood the speaker to allude to was the fact that the Convention had not yet decided upon the point of the public meeting upon this point. Let us not allow it to be diverted to other questions...

MR. PHILLIPS—What I understood the speaker to allude to was the fact that the Convention had not yet decided upon the point of the public meeting upon this point. Let us not allow it to be diverted to other questions...

MR. PHILLIPS—What I understood the speaker to allude to was the fact that the Convention had not yet decided upon the point of the public meeting upon this point. Let us not allow it to be diverted to other questions...

MR. PHILLIPS—What I understood the speaker to allude to was the fact that the Convention had not yet decided upon the point of the public meeting upon this point. Let us not allow it to be diverted to other questions...

MR. PHILLIPS—What I understood the speaker to allude to was the fact that the Convention had not yet decided upon the point of the public meeting upon this point. Let us not allow it to be diverted to other questions...

MR. PHILLIPS—What I understood the speaker to allude to was the fact that the Convention had not yet decided upon the point of the public meeting upon this point. Let us not allow it to be diverted to other questions...

MR. PHILLIPS—What I understood the speaker to allude to was the fact that the Convention had not yet decided upon the point of the public meeting upon this point. Let us not allow it to be diverted to other questions...

MR. PHILLIPS—What I understood the speaker to allude to was the fact that the Convention had not yet decided upon the point of the public meeting upon this point. Let us not allow it to be diverted to other questions...

MR. PHILLIPS—What I understood the speaker to allude to was the fact that the Convention had not yet decided upon the point of the public meeting upon this point. Let us not allow it to be diverted to other questions...

