FUNERAL OF EX-GOV. ROBERT.—The funeral of the late and lamented Ex-Governor Robert C. Wickliffe took place yesterday afternoon in the usual imposing manner of the public as well as private appendages in which the funeral was held. The two Houses of the General Assembly were present, in connection with appropriate resolutions. A number of public functionaries were present, together with leading citizens and friends of the deceased, and the whole attended the procession to the cemetery, which left at 5 o'clock in carriages, from the late residence.
PLANTATION AND CITY PROPERTY AT AUCTION.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that Messrs. J. B. Walton & Deslonde, Auctioneers, will sell this day, at 12 o'clock m., at the Merchants and Auctioneers' Exchange, on Royal street, a very attractive and desirable list of city and country property. The "Bella Point" plantation, situated only 40 miles above New Orleans on the east of the Mississippi river, is one of the finest tracts known in this locality, is fertile and high, always producing a handsome return, and never having been overflown by overuns, offering rare inducements to those wishing to invest in planting interests. The extensive list of real estate, stores and valuable vacant property are too near in its appropriate columns, which full particulars, as regards terms, description, etc., etc.
LARGE SALE OF BATTERY PROPERTY.—Attention is called to the sale of this city steadily grows may be had by glancing at the advertisement of the sale to be made at auction of one of the finest 14 squares of ground, in the First and Second Districts, which have accrued to the city by means of the riparian formation known as batture. It may be counted on as a well-established source of city revenue, and on most favorable terms. Those who will be sure to buy, for the benefit of the city, by Messrs. McCarren & Lapsley, on the 15th Feb., at the Merchants and Auctioneers' Exchange.
MASONIC BALL AT SUMMIT, MISS.—We are politely invited to attend a ball to be given on the 12th proximo, at Summit, Miss., by the Masonic Fraternity of Lodge No. 231, in honor of dedicating them to fulfill their beautiful Masonic temple improved by the incendiary torch last month. Summit is a pleasant town on the Jackson Railroad, and an excursion either combined with the proposed ball either or ordinary contemplation, of course.
RETURN OF MR. BARRETT.—Taken altogether, it was, perhaps the most intelligent and brilliant house of the season which attended the reappearance of the Varietian last night of Mr. Lawrence F. Barrett. And the welcome he received was really a fine ovation, which must have been gratifying to an actor of the merit and solid merits than Mr. B. We will say no-ver the performance of "Money," but will observe that all its chief parts were well executed, and that it was throughout received with marks of high satisfaction.
The British ship Thos. Knoop, Capt. Leard, while lying upward of the Pass, as the Steamship Texas, was run into by the steamship Sharpshin, Capt. Sargent, from Boston, on the evening of the 26th inst. The Sherman struck on the stern, cutting her nearly to the water's edge, and it was feared for a time that Capt. Leard undoubtedly made sufficient repair to bring her from sinking, but after lightening sufficiently to get over the Bar, will come up to the city. The Sherman was not slightly damaged.
Announcements.
VARIETIES THEATRE.—Mr. Lawrence Barrett will appear this evening in "Richelieu," the Cardinal's character, as drawn by Bulwer, has probably afforded the best field for histrionic delineating for any in the range of the finest dramatic—as it is one of the purest historical—conceptions we modern have. We have looked over the cast and find it a capital one.
ST. CHARLES THEATRE.—The "Webb Sisters" not having yet reached our city, the St. Charles remains open with the delightful and popular company of "Jack Cade," with the musical drama of "Pan Jones," in both of which Mr. Eddy will appear. We learn that it is possible that the Sisters will arrive in time to open their engagement to-morrow evening.
ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The new programme, and the new members, Miss Hadley, Mr. Emery, Mr. Hughes, Mr. James Sheldon, Mr. Morrison, and Mr. Ryan, were welcomed last night. The new programme is on the bill for this evening, and we have no doubt that the popular "Refugee" will be given to-night.
NEW ORLEANS HOUSE.—To-night (a saturday night) will be the last but two of the Gibson and Hadley Opera Troupe in this city. Bonfanti's fine opera of La Favorita will be given by a cast including Ghioni, Errani, Mancusi and Susini.
THEATRE & HOUSES' GREAT CIRCUS TROUPE. It must not be forgotten, give their last entertainment this evening. A powerful bill is promised, including a variety of attractions sufficient to please all tastes, and bringing out all the favorites.
Arrival of the Fanny Sherry.
The steamship Fanny Sherry arrived yesterday morning. We are delighted to her Purser, Mr. Silas. Le Roy, for the expressed report, and for favors.
The Fanny Sherry, Jas. Goodspeed, Master, from New York January 20th, at 4 P. M., via Sandy Hook at 11:30 P. M., with merchandise and passengers to Geo. A. Pondick. She was obliged to discharge at Sandy Hook the Pilot in lieu of her own his boat, it being extremely cold and blowing very hard at the time and no pilot was out.
January 23d, at 7 A. M., 30 miles south of Hatteras, met steamship R. R. Cuyler, bound North; January 25th, at 6 A. M., off Cape Fear, passed steamship Star, steering South.
The Fanny Sherry experienced light head winds the entire passage; she arrived off the Bar at 10 P. M., January 27th, but got aground, during the run from the Bar in six days and twenty-one hours.
Passengers by the Fanny Sherry:
T H Dykers, J E Abbott, T Reade, A Miller, Mrs Sarah E Berry, Mrs G W Riddell, Miss Ella Riddell, Miss Annie Riddell.
