Remymemo, 10/29/86.

Referenced memo established a series of subfiles for the ARYAN NATIONS (AN) case and were created so as to provide ready access for investigative results to be utilized in pending prosecution. However, the AN case has OO: Butte and will be used primarily to gather intelligence and cover leads for Butte. Thus, the various subfiles created for AN will serve no active purpose and can be better utilized in the WATPAC or CSA investigation. Therefore, the following action is being taken:

1. With reference to my memo of 10/29/86, SUBS F and G and SUBS 1 through 76 will be renumbered from 100A-4864 to 100A-4858.
2. SUB A of 100A-4858 will be consolidated into SUB 30.
3. 100A-4858 SUB B will be consolidated into 100A-4858 SUB H.

Re Charlotte teletype to Director, 7/25/86.

For information of receiving offices, on 7/25/86, FRAZIER GLENN MILLER, JR., aka Glenn Miller, Leader of the White Patriot Party (WPP), Angier, North Carolina, and _____ were convicted of _____ in _____

Charges stemmed from a Civil Class Action suit which had been brought against MILLER and the WPP (formerly known as the CAROLINA KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN) on behalf of all black citizens in North Carolina. The suit was initiated by _____

_____ The suit was settled by Consent Decree Agreement on 1/18/85, when MILLER agreed that neither he nor his group would violate a North Carolina general statute which prohibited paramilitary training operations to further civil disobedience or unrest.

_____ later argued that MILLER and the WPP violated this agreement by stockpiling weapons and continuing to conduct paramilitary training. U.S. District Court Judge W. EARL BRITT, Raleigh, N.C., ordered that the WPP, GLENN MILLER, and _____ all be tried for Criminal Contempt under the provisions of Title 18, USC, Sections 402 and 3691. U.S. Attorney, Raleigh, N.C., was also ordered to assist with the prosecution. GLENN MILLER was found guilty on two counts of Contempt, and the WPP and _____ were found guilty of Contempt, one count each. Each count carries a maximum sentence of six months in jail and/or a $1,000-fine. _____ were released on a $10,000 bond pending sentencing on 9/8/86.

It should be noted that there were several conditions set for release on bond. Neither is to leave the Eastern District of North Carolina, and _____ to the U.S. PROBATION OFFICE. Both agreed

WILLIAM PIERCE

William Pierce, 48, has been a longtime leader and prime mover in the National Alliance, a racist and anti-Semitic extremist group based in Washington, D.C. whose propaganda primarily has been aimed at white youth. As leader of the National Alliance, William Pierce has promoted and distributed an extensive array of anti-Semitic and Holocaust-denying tracts.

A native of Atlanta, Georgia, Pierce relocated to Colorado where he received a Ph.D. in physics from the University of Colorado in 1952. Ten years later, "Doctor" Pierce, as he prefers to be called, became an assistant professor of physics at Oregon State University where, he has stated, he briefly joined the John Birch Society, a major right-wing political organization based in Belmont, Massachusetts. In the summer of 1965, Pierce quit his teaching position and the John Birch Society to join the American Nazi Party (subsequently renamed the National Socialist White People's Party, and; recently, the New Order) based in Arlington, Virginia and then headed by George Lincoln Rockwell.

At this time he became editor of National Socialist World, a neo-Nazi quarterly aimed at intellectuals and the academic community that was published by Rockwell's World Union of National Socialists. Rockwell praised Pierce at the time as "an idealist" and said that he was "working for what he believes in rather than for money."

Pierce was one of the principal leaders of the American Nazi Party, which was taken over by Matt Koehl after Rockwell's assassination in 1967. Pierce served as assistant executive officer and ideological officer of the party and also prepared and presented the group's taped telephone messages.

In 1970, Pierce left Koehl's group to become affiliated with the National Youth Alliance, which had recently broken away from Willis Carto's influence and was being reorganized "in part by defectors from the old American Nazi Party" according to the Washington Post. In 1971, Pierce was involved in a dispute with Carto's organization, Liberty Lobby, concerning Pierce's use of its mailing list. According to Liberty Lobby, Pierce's group had used the mailing list to send "poison pen" letters to its own adherents criticizing the leaders of Liberty Lobby.

For the past decade, Pierce has run the National Alliance and has edited its monthly tabloid, National Vanguard (formerly titled Attack!) as well as an internal party periodical called National Alliance Bulletin (formerly called Action). Pierce's neo-Nazi group has distributed thousands of copies of a flyer entitled Who Rules America? which charges that "the media masters have become the de facto rulers of America" and declares that "this Jewish control of the American mass media is the single most important fact of life, not just in America, but in the whole world today." He also offers for sale a wide range of anti-Semitic books, including Hitler's Mein Kampf and The International Jew.

The principal book promoted by National Alliance has been The Turner Diaries by Andrew Macdonald, a pseudonym used by William Pierce. It is a novel about guerrilla warfare and violence against Jews and others that the National Alliance has called a "Handbook for White Victory." One chapter of the book deals with a so-called "Day of the Rope," concerning the hanging of "Jews, blacks, or mongrels of various sorts. . ."

As head of the National Alliance, Pierce has cooperated with other racist and anti-Semitic groups. His periodical, National Vanguard, has been distributed in recent years at "Freedom Festivals" sponsored by John Harrell's Christian Patriots Defense League in Illinois. In 1978, according to Pierce's publication, neo-Nazi Manfred Roeder, now in prison in West Germany for his role in a fatal terrorist bombing, visited the National Alliance Office.
