New Orleans, 2d June, 1835.—20

NOTICE.—The public is informed that the partnership between Edd. L'hotte and A. Marais was dissolved by mutual consent, on the 1st of June 1835.

Ed. L'hotte is alone empowered to settle the accounts of the partnership.

He has recently opened in Bay St. Louis, opposite the wharf establishment known by the appellation of Bel air Hotel.

The advantageous situation of this hotel, its proximity to the landing place are too well known to require further explanations.

Madame L'hotte justly appreciated by the great care always taken of her business, and the attention she paid to her visitors in every house she has superintended, has obtained the confidence of the revenue, a department of the interior department of the establishment.

Mr. L'hotte will endeavour to give satisfaction to persons visiting his hotel, when he pleases himself if they will find comfort, cleanliness, good fare and attention.

He has engaged a good French cook, manager and permanent boarders admitted. Table d'Hôte with wine at every meal.

E. L'hotte.

MANDEVILLE HOTEL.

Understandings, friends and the like, that on the 2d June, he will be ready to receive in his establishment all persons who may favor him with their visits, and receive boarders. To persons accustomed to the above, the convenience of the room, a dormitory, a dining room, and a large Marine Hotel in New Orleans, will take the place of Mandeville and come back from the last said place at 9 A.M. reaching Mandeville every Wednesday and Friday.

On Saturday the Delta will start from Lake Ponchartrain for Mandeville no later than 5 P.M. precisely and be back immediately so as to start again on Sunday at the appointed time.

The price for passage on Saturdays, and Sundays will be $1.00, and other days $1.20. Proprietors in Mandeville will be given $1.00.

Passengers are requested to take the 8 o'clock cars.

(For) The steamboat will regularly start at the appointed time and will never wait for any person.
