MESSRS. EDWIN FOX and BOUSFIELD, will SELL

as above (pursuant to an order of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, made in the cause of FAIR v. MAURAU, and with the approbation of His Lordship Vice-Chancellor MALINS, the Judge to whose Court the said cause is attached):—

ELY PLACE, Holborn.—FREEHOLDS.—A highly important and valuable FREEHOLD ESTATE, comprising Ten substantial and convenient Professional Residences, most advantageously situated in a remarkably central and convenient position for business, being Nos. 7, 8, 9, 11, 21, 24, 25, 26, 27, and 28, Ely Place, on the verge of the City of London, but just outside the liberties, and, therefore, free from many of the burdens of citizenship and taxation, close to Holborn Circus and the Viaduct, and the other important improvements that have been effected at this spot, midway between the City and the Law Courts, convenient also for the West End, and, by means of the Metropolitan Railway, the Snow Hill Station on which, as also on the London, Chatham, and Dover, places all other parts of town in immediate contiguity. The accommodation, as well as the position, admirably adapts the Houses to Solicitors and other Professions, while for Commercial purposes, they are equally suitable, the China and Glass Pottery, Precious Stone, Jewellery, Silversmith's, and Birmingham trades adopting this spot as the centre of their sample and Show Rooms; thus, highly remunerative Rents can always be relied on; and the Property may consequently be regarded as exceptionally sound and lucrative for investment, especially by trustees.

Lot 1.—The capital Freehold Professional Residence, with yard and premises, No. 7, on the west side of Ely Place, containing a superficial area of about 1,133 feet, and of the estimated annual value of £220.

Lot 2.—The corresponding Freehold House, No. 8, Ely Place, containing a ground area of 1,120 superficial feet, and of the estimated annual value of £220.

Lot 3.—The corresponding Freehold House, No. 9, Ely Place, containing a superficial area of 1,090 feet, and of the estimated annual value of £220.

Lot 4.—The corresponding Freehold House, No. 11, Ely Place, containing a superficial area of 1,116 feet, and of the estimated annual value of £220.

Lot 5.—The corresponding Freehold House, No. 21, Ely Place, containing a superficial area of 1,340 feet, and of the estimated annual value of £270.

Lot 6.—The corresponding Freehold House, No. 24, containing a superficial area of 1,498 feet, and of the estimated annual value of £300.

Lot 7.—The corresponding Freehold House, No. 25, containing a superficial area of 1,529 feet, and of the estimated annual value of £300.

Lot 8.—The corresponding Freehold House, No. 26, containing a superficial area of 1,538 feet, and of the estimated annual value of £300.

Lot 9.—The corresponding Freehold House, No. 27, Ely Place, containing a superficial area of 1,523 feet, and of the estimated annual value of £300.

Lot 10.—The corresponding Freehold House, No. 28, Ely Place, containing a superficial area of 1,520 feet, and of the estimated annual value of £300.

Vacant possession of each lot will be given on completion of the purchase; all the ground leases being about to expire, some of the present tenants are only holding on sufferance at nominal rents, and the houses will be surrendered in good repair. Ely Place is governed by its own Commission under a special Act of Parliament.

Particulars and conditions of sale may be had gratis at the Mart; of Messrs. A. F. and R. W. TWEDDES, Solicitors, 5, Lincoln's-inn-fields, W.C.; and of Messrs. EDWIN FOX and BOUSFIELD, 99, Gresham Street, Bank, E.C.

ASSISTED BY

CAPT. G. DE ST. CLAIR-STEVENSON.

"The book is one which will be constantly useful to all who are engaged in any military studies."—Volunteer Service Gazette.

"It is a handy and useful book, and it is a substitute for the larger and more expensive works of the same description, quite sufficient for the purpose of battalion officers."—Army and Navy Gazette.

"It would be difficult to find, in so handy a shape, so much valuable information of its kind as is given in this book. . . . The authors have shown fitness for the task they have undertaken, and have produced as the result a most useful book."—Scotsman.

THE ROYAL PHRASEOLOGICAL FRENCH-ENGLISH AND ENGLISH-FRENCH DICTIONARY.

By J. C. TARVER, LATE FRENCH MASTER, ETON COLLEGE.

"Most readily do we acknowledge the flood of light which has been thrown on French phrases by M. Tarver. . . . His work is really a valuable addition to our Dictionary shelf—the most important shelf in every man's library. The nice skill with which he has compared and contrasted the phrases of the two most influential of modern tongues can hardly be over-praised. Such a book might well deserve a distinct notice; but we are happy to take this opportunity, meantime, of saying that one of the volumes has now been in constant use with us for five years; and we should be at a loss to name another recent one of its class which we have found more useful. The idea was happy, and the execution has been most laudably careful. We have been infinitely obliged to it in reading the lighter French literature of this day—so full of vocabularies fresh from the mint of camp or galaquette, and lively audacious turns devenue excessives undreamt of by 'the forty'—which would have puzzled Voltaire as much as Johnson."—Quarterly Review.

Editor of "Hodges on Railways," "Woodfall's Landlord and Tenant," &c.

LONDON:

H. SWEET, 3, CHANCERY LANE;
STEVENS & SONS, 119, CHANCERY LANE.

The Publishers have endeavoured, and they trust with success, to supply by private enterprise an Expurgated Edition of the "Statutes" more practically useful to the Profession than the Government "Revised Statutes." The latter, in 16 vols. (with Index), published at about £20, was over eight years passing through the press, and has only been brought down to 1868. The New Edition of "Chitty's Statutes" comprises in 6 vols. royal 8vo. all that in ordinary practice would be required, and, complete to the end of 1880, will be obtainable at the net price of £10 2s.

The whole has been printed within Twelve Months; the Statutes are classified according to their subject-matter, under titles alphabetically arranged, with Notes of Decisions, and with the Rules of Court, Orders in Council, &c., incorporated where deemed expedient.

It is confidently hoped that this Edition will greatly increase the reputation enjoyed by the earlier ones.

THE ROYAL PHRASEOLOGICAL

FRENCH-ENGLISH AND ENGLISH-FRENCH DICTIONARY.

By J. C. TARVER, LATE FRENCH MASTER, ETON COLLEGE.

"Most readily do we acknowledge the flood of light which has been thrown on French phrases by M. Tarver. . . . His work is really a valuable addition to our Dictionary shelf—the most important shelf in every man's library. The nice skill with which he has compared and contrasted the phrases of the two most influential of modern tongues can hardly be over-praised. Such a book might well deserve a distinct notice; but we are happy to take this opportunity, meantime, of saying that one of the volumes has now been in constant use with us for five years; and we should be at a loss to name another recent one of its class which we have found more useful. The idea was happy, and the execution has been most laudably careful. We have been infinitely obliged to it in reading the lighter French literature of this day—so full of vocabularies fresh from the mint of camp or gossamer, and lively audacious turns de parole supercaricatures undreamed of by 'the forty'—which would have puzzled Voltaire as much as Johnson."—Quarterly Review.

WILBY and SOX, Lincoln's Inn Archway, London, W.C.
Wednesday, July 14th, at the Auction Mart, at 2.—Mr. EDWARD HOLBORN BOUSFIELD, of the Firm of

MESSRS. EDWIN FOX and BOUSFIELD, will SELL as above (pursuant to an order of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, made in the cause of FAIR v. MAURAU, and with the approbation of His Lordship Vice-Chancellor MALINS, the Judge to whose Court the said cause is attached):—

ELY PLACE, Holborn.—FREEHOLDS.—A highly important and valuable FREEHOLD ESTATE, comprising TEN substantial and convenient Professional Residences, most advantageously situated in a remarkably central and convenient position for business, being Nos. 7, 8, 9, 11, 21, 24, 25, 26, 27, and 28, Ely Place, on the verge of the City of London, but just outside the liberties, and, therefore, free from many of the burdens of citizenship and taxation, close to Holborn Circus and the Viaduct, and the other important improvements that have been effected at this spot, midway between the City and the Law Courts, convenient also for the West End, and, by means of the Metropolitan Railway, the Snow Hill Station on which, as also on the London, Chatham, and Dover, places all other parts of town in immediate contiguity. The accommodation, as well as the position, admirably adapts the Houses to Solicitors and other Professions, while for Commercial purposes, they are equally suitable, the China and Glass Pottery, Precious Stone, Jewellery, Silversmith's, and Birmingham trades adopting this spot as the centre for their sample and Show Rooms; thus, highly remunerative Rents can always be relied on, and the Property may consequently be regarded as exceptionally sound and lucrative for investment, especially by trustees.

Lot 1.—The capital Freehold Professional Residence, with yard and premises, No. 7, on the west side of Ely Place, containing a superficial area of about 1,138 ft.

Lot 2.—The corresponding Freehold House, No. 8, Ely Place, containing a ground area of 1,120 superficial feet.

Lot 3.—The corresponding Freehold House, No. 9, Ely Place, containing a superficial area of 1,090 ft.

Lot 4.—The corresponding Freehold House, No. 11, Ely Place, containing a superficial area of 1,116 ft.

Lot 5.—The corresponding Freehold House, No. 21, Ely Place, containing a superficial area of 1,340 ft.

Lot 6.—The corresponding Freehold House, No. 24, Ely Place, containing a superficial area of 1,498 ft.

Lot 7.—The corresponding Freehold House, No. 25, Ely Place, containing a superficial area of 1,529 ft.

Lot 8.—The corresponding Freehold House, No. 26, Ely Place, containing a superficial area of 1,538 ft.

Lot 9.—The corresponding Freehold House, No. 27, Ely Place, containing a superficial area of 1,523 ft.

Lot 10.—The corresponding Freehold House, No. 28, Ely Place, containing a superficial area of 1,520 ft.

Vacant possession of each lot will be given on completion of the purchase; all the ground leases being about to expire, some of the present tenants are only holding on sufferance at nominal rents, and the houses will be surrendered in good repair. Ely Place is governed by its own Commission under a special Act of Parliament.

Particulars and conditions of sale may be had gratis at the Mart; of Messrs. A. F. and R. W. TWENTIE, Solicitors, 5, Lincoln's Inn-fields, W.C.; and of Messrs. EDWIN FOX and BOUSFIELD, 99, Gresham Street, Bank, E.C.

THE ROYAL PHRASEOLOGICAL FRENCH-ENGLISH AND ENGLISH-FRENCH DICTIONARY.

By J. C. TARVER, LATE FRENCH MASTER, ETON COLLEGE.

"Most readily do we acknowledge the flood of light which has been thrown on French phrases by M. Tarver . . . His work is really a valuable addition to our Dictionary shelf—the most important shelf in every man's library. The nice skill with which he has compared and contrasted the phrases of the two most influential of modern tongues can hardly be over-praised. Such a book might well deserve a distinct notice; but we are happy to take this opportunity, meantime, of saying that one of the volumes has now been in constant use with us for five years; and we should be at a loss to name another volume one of its class which we have found more useful. The idea was happy, and the execution has been most laudably careful. We have been infinitely obliged to him for the lighter French literature of this day—so full of vacillations from the mist of camp or gaiterette, and lively audacious turns de phrase ever-ready unshorn of by 'the forty'—which would have puzzled Voltaire as much as Johnson."—Quarterly Review.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the twentieth and twenty-first years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter 85, it is provided that there shall be a Court of Record to be called "The Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes": and whereas by section 53 of the said Act it is further provided that the said Court shall make such rules and regulations concerning the practice and procedure under the said Act as it may from time to time consider expedient, and shall have full power from time to time to revoke or alter the same: and whereas by another Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter 144, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Judge Ordinary of the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes alone to exercise all powers and authority whatever theretofore exercised by the full Court: and whereas by another Act passed in the thirty-eighth and thirty-ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter 77, it is enacted that the President for the time being of the Probate and Divorce Division of the High Court of Justice shall have the powers as to the making of Rules and Regulations conferred by the 53rd section of the 20th and 21st Victoria, chapter 85:

- 2nd. In cases in which damages are claimed that the cause be tried before the Court, with a Common Jury.

And any party to a cause may apply by summons for a direction that the cause may be heard or tried otherwise than is hereby provided.

207. Application to make absolute a Decree Nisi for dissolution or nullity of a Marriage need not hereafter be made to the Court by motion as directed by Rules 80 and 194, but it shall be a sufficient compliance with the said rules to file in the Registry, with the affidavit or affidavits therein required, a notice in writing setting forth that application is made for such Decree Absolute, which will thereupon be pronounced in open Court at a time appointed for that purpose.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENTS.

CHITTY'S COLLECTION OF STATUTES TO 1880.

In Six Volumes, royal 8vo., price £12 12s., cloth. (Bound in calf, £1 16s.; or half-calf, cloth sides, £1 10s. nett extra.)

THE STATUTES OF PRACTICAL UTILITY, ARRANGED IN ALPHABETICAL AND CHRONOLOGICAL ORDER, with Notes thereon; containing the Acts and Cases down to the close of the present Session of Parliament. Fourth Edition. By J. M. LELY, Esq., Barrister-at-Law. [Nearly ready.]

* The Publishers have endeavoured, and they trust with success, to supply by private enterprise an Expurgated Edition of the "Statutes" more practically useful to the Profession than the Government "Revised Statutes." The latter, in 16 vols. (with Index), published at about £20, was over eight years passing through the press, and has only been brought down to 1868. The New Edition of "Chitty's Statutes" is intended to comprise in 6 vols. royal 8vo. all that in ordinary practice would be required, and, complete to the end of 1880, is published at the price of £12 12s.

FISHER'S CONSOLIDATED DIGEST, 1870-1880.

In Two Volumes, royal 8vo., price £3 3s. cloth. (In calf or half-morocco, 10s. nett extra.)

A DIGEST OF THE REPORTED DECISIONS IN ALL THE COURTS, WITH A SELECTION FROM THE LARKE; the Cases Overruled and Impeached; and References to the Statutes, Rules, and Orders of Court, from Hilary Term, 1870, to Easter Vacation, 1880. Consolidated and arranged by T. WILLESS CHITTY and J. MEWES, of the Inner Temple, Barristers-at-Law.

* This important Work, besides being a complete Digest of the Common Law and Equity Divisions for the past ten years, and (unlike the "Law Councils" Digests) giving references to all the current series of Reports, forms a valuable Supplement to Fisher's Common Law Digest (5 vols., 1870), and, bringing that Work down to the present time, gives the Profession an opportunity of buying a Digest at a lower price than has ever before been offered.

FISHER'S COMMON LAW DIGEST, 1756-1870.

In Five large Volumes, royal 8vo. (Reduced from £12 12s. to 26 6s. nett. (In calf or half-morocco, £1 5s.; or half-calf, £1 2s. 6d. nett extra.)

THE ROYAL PHRASEOLOGICAL
 FRENCH-ENGLISH AND ENGLISH-FRENCH DICTIONARY.

By J. O. TARVER, LATE FRENCH MASTER, ETON COLLEGE.

"Most readily do we acknowledge the flood of light which has been thrown on French phrases by M. Tarver . . . His work is really a valuable addition to our Dictionary shelf—the most important shelf in every man's library. The nice skill with which he has compared and contrasted the phrases of the two most influential of modern tongues can hardly be over-praised. Such a book might well deserve a distinct notice; but we are happy to take this opportunity, meantime, of saying that one of the volumes has now been in constant use with us for five years; and we should be at a loss to name another recent one of its class which we have found more useful. The idea was happy, and the execution has been most laudably careful. We have been infinitely obliged to it in reading the lighter French literature of this day—so full of vocabularies fresh from the mint of camp or guinées, and lively andacious turns passera overreous undreamt of by 'the forty'—which would have puzzled Voltaire as much as Johnson."—Quarterly Review.

THE ROYAL PHRASEOLOGICAL FRENCH-ENGLISH AND ENGLISH-FRENCH DICTIONARY.

By J. O. TARVER, LATE FRENCH MASTER, ETON COLLEGE.

"Most readily do we acknowledge the flood of light which has been thrown on French phrases by M. Tarver. . . His work is really a valuable addition to our Dictionary shelf—the most important shelf in every man's library. The nice skill with which he has compared and contrasted the phrases of the two most influential of modern tongues can hardly be over-praised. Such a book might well deserve a distinct notice; but we are happy to take this opportunity, meantime, of saying that one of the volumes has now been in constant use with us for five years; and we should be at a loss to name another recent one of its class which we have found more useful. The idea was happy, and the execution has been most laudably careful. We have been infinitely obliged to it in reading the lighter French literature of this day—to fill of words fresh from the mint of camp or guinguette, and lively audacious turns de phrase ou verve—undreamt of by the forty—which would have puzzled Voltaire as much as Johnson."—Quarterly Review.

THE ROYAL PHRASEOLOGICAL FRENCH-ENGLISH AND ENGLISH-FRENCH DICTIONARY.

By J. C. TARVER, LATE FRENCH MASTER, ETON COLLEGE.

"Most readily do we acknowledge the flood of light which has been thrown on French phrases by M. Tarver. . . . His work is really a valuable addition to our Dictionary shelf—the most important shelf in every man's library. The nice skill with which he has compared and contrasted the phrases of the two most influential of modern tongues can hardly be over-praised. Such a book might well deserve a distinct notice; but we are happy to take this opportunity, meantime, of saying that one of the volumes has now

RULES AND REGULATIONS

IN

DIVORCE AND MATRIMONIAL CAUSES.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

MADE UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF

20 & 21 Vict. Cap. 85. | 32 & 33 Vict. Cap. 62.
23 & 24 Vict. Cap. 144. | 38 & 39 Vict. Cap. 77.

RULES AND REGULATIONS, 26TH DECEMBER, 1865.

All rules and regulations heretofore made and issued for Her Majesty's Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes shall be revoked on and after the 11th day of January, 1866, except so far as concerns any matters or things done in accordance with them prior to the said day.

The following rules and regulations shall take effect in Her Majesty's Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes on and after the 11th day of January, 1866.

Petition

1. Proceedings before the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes shall be commenced by filing a petition.—A Form of Petition is given in the Appendix, No. 1.

2. Every petition shall be accompanied by an affidavit made by the Petitioner, verifying the facts of which he or she has personal cognizance, and deposing as to belief in the truth of the other facts alleged in the petition, and such affidavits shall be filed with the petition.

See also Rule 175.

3. In cases where the Petitioner is seeking a decree of nullity of marriage, or of judicial separation, or of dissolution of marriage, or a decree in a suit of jactitation of marriage, the Petitioner's affidavit filed with his or her petition, shall further state that no collusion or connivance exists between the Petitioner and the other party to the marriage or alleged marriage.

Co-respondents.

4. Upon a husband filing a petition for dissolution of marriage on the ground of adultery the alleged adulterers shall be made Co-respondents in the cause, unless the Judge Ordinary shall otherwise direct.

5. Application for such direction is to be made to the Judge Ordinary on motion founded on affidavit.

6. If the names of the alleged adulterers or either of them should be unknown to the Petitioner at the time of filing his petition, the same must be supplied as soon as known, and application must be made forthwith to one of the Registrars to amend the petition by inserting such name therein, and the Registrar to whom the application is made shall give his directions as to such amendment, and such further directions as he may think fit as to service of the amended petition.

7. The term "Respondent" where the same is hereinafter used shall include all Co-Respondents so far as the same is applicable to them.

Citation.

8. Every Petitioner who files a petition and affidavit shall forthwith extract a citation, under seal of the Court, for service on each Respondent in the cause. A Form of Citation is given in the Appendix, No. 2.

9. Every citation shall be written or printed on parchment, and the party extracting the same, or his or her proctor, solicitor, or attorney, shall take it, together with a præcipe, to the Registry, and there deposit the præcipe and get the citation signed and sealed.—A Form of Præcipe is given in the Appendix, No. 3. The address given in the Præcipe must be within three miles of the General Post Office.

Service.

10. Citations are to be served personally when that can be done.
11. Service of a citation shall be effected by personally delivering a true copy of the citation to the party cited, and producing the original if required.

12. To every person served with a citation shall be delivered, together with the copy of the citation, a certified copy of the petition, under seal of the Court.

13. In cases where personal service cannot be effected, application may be made by motion to the Judge Ordinary, or to the Registrars in his absence, to substitute some other mode of service.

14. After service has been effected, the citation, with a certificate of service endorsed thereon, shall be forthwith returned into and filed in the Registry.—The Form of Certificate of Service is given in the Appendix, No. 4.

15. When it is ordered that a citation shall be advertised, the newspapers containing the advertisements are to be filed in the Registry with the citation.

16. The above rules, so far as they relate to the service of citations, are to apply to the service of all other instruments requiring personal service.

17. Before a Petitioner can proceed, after having extracted a citation, an appearance must have been entered by or on behalf of the Respondents, or it must be shewn by affidavit, filed in the Registry, that they have been duly cited, and have not appeared.

18. An affidavit of service of a citation must be substantially in the form given in the Appendix, No. 5, and the citation referred to in the affidavit must be annexed to such affidavit, and marked by the person before whom the same is sworn.

Appearance.

19. All appearances to citations are to be entered in the Registry in a book provided for that purpose.—The Form of Entry of Appearance is given in the Appendix, No. 6.

20. An appearance may be entered at any time before a proceeding has been taken in default, or afterwards, as hereinafter directed, or by leave of the Judge Ordinary, or of the Registrars in his absence, to be applied for by motion founded on affidavit.

See also Rule 185.

21. Every entry of an appearance shall be accompanied by an address, within three miles of the General Post Office.

22. If a party cited wishes to raise any question as to the jurisdiction of the Court, he or she must enter an appearance under protest, and within eight days file in the Registry his or her act on petition in extension of such protest, and on the same day deliver a copy thereof to the Petitioner. After the entry of an absolute appearance to the citation a party cited cannot raise any objection as to jurisdiction.

See Rules from 56 to 61 as to proceedings on act on Petition.

Interveners.

23. Application for leave to intervene in any cause must be made to the Judge Ordinary by motion, supported by affidavit.

24. Every party intervening must join in the proceedings at the stage in which he finds them, unless it is otherwise ordered by the Judge Ordinary.

Suits in formâ pauperis.

25. Any person desirous of prosecuting a suit in formâ pauperis is to lay a case before counsel, and obtain an opinion that he or she has reasonable grounds for proceeding.

26. No person shall be admitted to prosecute a suit in formâ pauperis without the order of the Judge Ordinary; and to obtain such order the case laid before counsel and his opinion thereon, with an affidavit of the party or of his or her proctor, solicitor, or attorney, that the said case contains a full and true statement of all the material facts, to the best of his or her knowledge and belief, and an affidavit of the party applying as to his or his income or means of living, and that he or she is not worth 25l., after payment of his or her just debts, save and except his or her wearing apparel, shall be produced at the time such application is made.

See also Rules 208 to 211.

27. Where a husband admitted to sue as a pauper neglects to proceed in a cause, he may be called upon by summons to shew cause why he should not pay costs, though he has not been dispaupered, and why all further proceedings should not be stayed until such costs be paid.

Answer.

28. Each Respondent who has entered an appearance may within twenty-one days after service of citation on him or her file in the Registry an answer to the petition.—A form of Answer is given in the Appendix, No. 7.

See also Rule 186.

29. Each Respondent shall on the day he or she files an answer, deliver a copy thereof to the Petitioner, or to his or her proctor, solicitor, or attorney.

30. Every answer which contains matter other than a simple denial of the facts stated in the petition, shall be accompanied by an affidavit made by the Respondent, verifying such other or additional matter, so far as he or she has personal cognizance thereof, and deposing as to his or her belief in the truth of the rest of such other or additional matter, and such affidavit shall be filed with the answer.

31. In cases involving a decree of nullity of marriage, or of judicial separation, or of dissolution of marriage, or a decree in a suit of jactitation of marriage, the Respondent who is husband or wife of the Petitioner shall, in the affidavit filed with the answer, further state that there is not any collusion or connivance between the Deponent and the Petitioner.

Further Pleadings.

32. Within fourteen days from the filing and delivery of the answer the Petitioner may file a reply thereto, and the same period shall be allowed for filing any further pleading by way of rejoinder, or any subsequent pleading.

33. A copy of every reply and subsequent pleading shall on the day the same is filed be delivered to the opposite parties, or to their proctor, solicitor, or attorney.

General Rules as to Pleadings.

34. Either party desiring to alter or amend any pleading must apply by motion to the Court for permission to do so, unless the alteration or amendment be merely verbal, or in the nature of a clerical error, in which case it may be made by order of the Judge Ordinary, or of one of the Registrars in his absence, obtained on summons.

See also Rules 181 to 184 and Rule 187.

35. When a petition, answer, or other pleading has been ordered to be altered or amended, the time for filing and delivering a copy of the next pleading shall be reckoned from the time of the order having been complied with.

36. A copy of every pleading shewing the alterations and amendments made therein shall be delivered to the opposite parties on the day such alterations and amendments are made in the pleadings filed in the Registry; and the opposite parties, if they have already pleaded in answer thereto, shall be at liberty to amend such answer within four days, or such further time as may be allowed for the purpose.

37. If either party in the cause fail to file or deliver a copy of the answer, reply, or other pleading, or to alter or amend the same, or to deliver a copy of any altered or amended pleading, within the time allowed for the purpose, the party to whom the copy of such answer, reply, or other pleading, or altered or amended pleading, ought to have been delivered, shall not be bound to receive it, and such answer, reply, or other pleading shall not be filed, or be treated or considered as having been filed, or be altered or amended, unless by order of the Judge Ordinary, or of one of the Registrars, to be obtained on summons. The expense of obtaining such order shall fall on the party applying for it, unless the Judge Ordinary or Registrar shall otherwise direct.

38. Applications for further particulars of matters pleaded are to be made to the Judge Ordinary, or to one of the Registrars in his absence, by summons, and not by motion.

See also Rules 181 to 184.

Service of Pleadings, &c.

39. It shall be sufficient to leave all pleadings and other instruments, personal service of which is not expressly required by these rules and regulations, at the respective addresses furnished by or on behalf of the several parties to the cause.

See also Rule 114.

Mode of Trial.

40. When the pleadings on being concluded have raised any questions of fact, the Petitioner, within fourteen days from the filing of the last pleading, or at the expiration of that time, on the next day appointed for hearing motions in this Court, or in case the Petitioner should fail to do so at such time, either of the Respondents on whose behalf such questions have been raised, may apply to the Judge Ordinary by motion to direct the truth of such questions of fact to be tried by a special or common jury.

See also Rule 205.

Questions of Fact for the Jury.

41. Whenever the Judge Ordinary directs the issues of fact in a cause to be tried by a jury, the questions of fact raised by the pleadings are to be briefly stated in writing by the Petitioner, and settled by one of the Registrars.—A Form is given in the Appendix, No. 8.

42. Should the Petitioner fail to prepare and deposit the questions for settlement in the Registry within fourteen days after the Judge Ordinary has directed the mode of trial, either of the Respondents on whose behalf such questions have been raised shall be at liberty to do so.

43. After the questions have been settled by the Registrar, the party who has deposited the same shall deliver a copy thereof as settled to each of the other parties to be heard on the trial of the cause, and either of such parties shall be at liberty to apply to the Judge Ordinary, by summons within eight days, or at the expiration of that time on the next day appointed for hearing summonses in this Court, to alter or amend the same, and his decision shall be final.

Setting down the Causes for Trial or Hearing.

44. In cases to be tried by a jury, the Petitioner, after the expiration of eight days from the delivery of copies of the questions for the jury to the opposite parties, or from alteration or amendment of the same, in pursuance of the order of the Judge Ordinary, shall file such questions as finally settled in the Registry, and at the same time set down the cause as ready for trial, and on the same day give notice of his having done so to each party for whom an appearance has been entered.

See also Rule 206.

45. In cases to be heard without a jury, the petitioner shall, after obtaining directions as to the mode of hearing, set the cause down for hearing, and on the same day give notice of his having done so to each party in the cause for whom an appearance has been entered.

See also Rules 205 and 206.

46. The fees payable on the taxation of any bill of costs shall be paid by the party on whose application the bill is taxed, and shall be allowed as part of such bill; but if more than one sixth of the amount of any bill of costs taxed as between practitioner and client is disallowed on the taxation thereof, no costs incurred in such taxation shall be allowed as part of such bill.

See also Rule 200.

157. If an order for payment of costs is required, the same may be obtained by summons, on the amount of such costs being certified by the Registrar.

See also Rules 178, 179 and 201.

Wife's Costs.—As amended 14th July, 1875.

158. After directions given as to the mode of hearing or trial of a cause, or in an earlier stage of a cause by order of the Judge Ordinary, or of the Registrars, to be obtained on summons, a wife who is Petitioner, or has entered an appearance as Respondent in a cause, may file her bill or bills of costs for taxation as against her husband, and the Registrar to whom such bills of costs are referred for taxation shall, when directions as to the mode of hearing or trial have been given, ascertain what is a sufficient sum of money to be paid into the Registry, or what is a sufficient security to be given by the husband to cover the costs of the wife of and incidental to the hearing of the cause; and shall thereupon issue an order upon the husband to pay or secure the said sum within a time to be fixed by the Registrar; provided that in case the husband should by reason of his wife having separate property, or for other reasons, dispute her right to recover any costs pending suit against him, the Registrar may suspend the order to pay the wife's taxed costs, or to pay or secure the sum ascertained to be sufficient to cover her costs of and incidental to the hearing of the cause, for such length of time as shall seem to him necessary to enable the husband to obtain the decision of the Court as to his liability.

159. When on the hearing or trial of a cause, the decision of the Judge Ordinary or the verdict of the Jury is against the wife, no costs of the wife of and incidental to such hearing or trial shall be allowed as against the husband, except such as shall be applied for, and ordered to be allowed by the Judge Ordinary, at the time of such hearing or trial.

See also Rule 201.

Summonses,

160. A summons may be taken out by any person in any matter or suit depending in the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, provided there is no rule or practice requiring a different mode of proceeding.

161. The name of the cause or matter, and of the agent taking out the summons, is to be entered in the Summons Book, and a true copy of the summons is to be served on the party summoned one clear day at least before the summons is returnable, and before 7 o'clock p.m. On Saturdays the copy of the summons is to be served before 2 o'clock p.m.

162. On the day and at the hour named in the summons the party taking out the same is to present himself with the original summons at the Judge's Chambers, or elsewhere appointed for hearing the same.

163. Both parties will be heard by the Judge Ordinary, who will make such order as he may think fit, and a minute of such order will be made by one of the Registrars in the Summons Book.

See also Rules 181 to 184.

164. If the party summoned do not appear after the lapse of half-an-hour from the time named in the summons the party taking out the summons shall be at liberty to go before the Judge Ordinary, who will thereupon make such order as he may think fit.

165. An attendance on behalf of the party summoned for the space of half-an-hour, if the party taking out the summons do not during such time appear, will be deemed sufficient, and bar the party taking out the summons from the right to go before the Judge Ordinary on that occasion.

166. If a formal order is desired, the same may be had on the application of either party, and for that purpose the original summons, or the copy served on the party summoned, must be filed in the Registry. An order will thereupon be drawn up, and delivered to the person filing such summons or copy.

167. If a summons is brought to the Registry, with consent to an order endorsed thereon, signed by the party summoned, or by his proctor, solicitor, or attorney, an order will be drawn up without the necessity of going before the Judge Ordinary; provided that the order sought is in the opinion of the Registrar one which, under the circumstances, would be made by the Judge Ordinary.

168. The same Rules and Regulations shall, so far as applicable, be observed in respect to summonses which may be heard and disposed of by the Registrars.

Payment of Money out of Court.

169. Persons applying for payment of money out of Court are to bring into the Registry a notice in writing setting forth the day on which the money applied for was paid into the Registry, the minute entered in the Court books on receiving the same, the date and particulars of the order for payment to the applicant. In case the money applied for be in payment of costs, the notice must also set forth the date of filing the bill for taxation, and of the Registrar's certificate.

170. The above notice must be deposited in the Registry two clear days at least before the money is paid out, and is, in that interval, to be examined by one of the Clerks of the Registry with the original entries in the Court books, and the bills of costs referred to in it, and certified by such Clerk to be correct.

171. When the Court is not sitting, payment of money out of Court will be made only on such day or days of the week as may be fixed by the Registrars, notice whereof will be given in the Registry.

Registries and Officers.

172. The Registry of the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, and the Clerks employed therein, shall be subject to and under the control of the Registrars of the Principal Registry of the Court of Probate.

173. The Record Keepers, the Sealer, and other officers of the Principal Registry of the Court of Probate, shall discharge the same or similar duties in the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, and in the Registry thereof, as they discharge in the Court of Probate and the Principal Registry thereof.

Proceedings under "The Legitimacy Declaration Act, 1858."

174. The above Rules and Regulations, so far as the same may be applicable, shall extend to applications and proceedings under "The Legitimacy Declaration Act, 1858."

ADDITIONAL RULES.—30TH JANUARY 1869.

Restitution of Conjugal Rights.

175. The affidavits filed with the petition, as required by Rule 2, shall further state sufficient facts to satisfy one of the Registrars that a written demand for cohabitation and restitution of conjugal rights has been made by the Petitioner upon the party to be cited, and that after a reasonable opportunity for compliance therewith such cohabitation and restitution of conjugal rights have been withheld.

176. At any time after the commencement of proceedings for restitution of conjugal rights the Respondent may apply by summons to the Judge, or to the Registrars in his absence, for an order to stay the proceedings in the cause by reason that he or she is willing to resume or to return to cohabitation with the Petitioner.

As to Costs.

177. In all cases in which the Court at the hearing of a cause condemns any party to the suit in costs, the proctor, solicitor, or attorney of the party to whom such costs are to be paid may forthwith file his bill of costs in the Registry, and obtain an appointment for the taxation, provided that such taxation shall not take place before the time allowed for moving for a new trial or re-hearing shall have expired; or, in case a rule nisi should have been granted, until the rule is disposed of, unless the Judge Ordinary shall, for cause shewn, direct a more speedy taxation.

178. Upon the Registrar's certificate of costs being signed, he shall at once issue an order of the Court for payment of the amount within seven days.

See also Rules from 151 to 158, and 201.

179. This order shall be served on the proctor, solicitor, or attorney of the party liable, [or if it is desired to enforce the order by attachment on the party himself,] and if the costs be not paid within the seven days a writ of fieri facias or writ of sequestration shall be issued as of course in the Registry, upon an affidavit of service of the order and nonpayment.

180A. In pursuance of "The Debtor's Act, 1869," it is ordered that, on and after this date, the following Rules shall be in force for regulating the practice under and carrying into effect the first part of the said "Debtor's Act, 1869."

1. All applications to commit to prison under Section 5 shall, in the first instance, be made by summons before the Judge Ordinary, which shall specify the date and other particulars of the order for nonpayment of which the application is made, together with the amount due, and be endorsed with the name and place of abode or office of business of the proctor or attorney actually suing out the summons, and in case such attorney shall not be an attorney of this Court, then also with the name and place of abode or office of business of the attorney in whose name such summons shall be taken out, and when the attorney actually suing out such summons shall sue out the same as agent for an attorney in the country, the name and place of abode of such attorney in the country shall also be endorsed upon the said summons, and in case no attorney shall be employed to issue the summons then it shall be endorsed with a memorandum expressing that the same has been sued out by the Petitioner or Respondent or Co-Respondent in person, as the case may be, mentioning the city, town, or parish, and also the name of the hamlet, street, and number of the house of such Petitioner's, Respondent's or Co-respondent's residence, if such there be.

2. The service of the summons, whenever it may be practicable, shall be personal; but if it appear to the Judge Ordinary that reasonable efforts have been made to effect personal service, and either that the summons has come to the knowledge of the Debtor, or that he wilfully evades service, an order may be made as if personal service had been effected upon such terms as to the Judge Ordinary may seem fit.

3. Proof of the means of the Debtor shall, whenever practicable, be given by affidavit; but if it appear to the Judge Ordinary either before or at the hearing that a viva voce examination, either of the Debtor or of any other person, or the production of any document, is necessary or expedient, an order may be made commanding the attendance of any such person before the Judge Ordinary at a time and place to be therein mentioned for the purpose of being examined on oath touching the matter in question (or and) for the production of any such document, subject to such terms and conditions as to the Judge Ordinary may seem fit. The disobedience to any such order shall be deemed a contempt of Court, and punishable accordingly.

4. The order of committal (which may be in the Form A. in the Appendix, or to the like effect) shall before delivery to the sheriff be endorsed with the particulars required by Rule 1 of these Rules. Concurrent orders may be issued for execution in different counties. The sheriff shall be entitled to the same fees in respect thereof as are now payable upon a Ca. sa.

5. Upon payment of the sum or sums mentioned in the order (including the sheriff's fees in like manner as upon a Ca. sa.) the Debtor shall be entitled to a certificate in the Form B. in the Appendix or to the like effect, signed by the proctor or attorney in the cause, of the Petitioner, Respondent, or Co-respondent, as the case may be, or signed by the Petitioner, Respondent, or Co-respondent, as the case may be, and attested by an attorney or justice of the peace.

NEW WORK ON LIBEL.

Just published, crown 8vo., price 14s., cloth,

FLOOD ON LIBEL AND SLANDER.

A Concise and Practical Treatise on the Law concerning Libel and Slander, chiefly in regard to the Defamation of Individuals.

By JOHN C. H. FLOOD, Esq., of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law.

"Such publications as this of Mr. Flood are useful by popularising an important subject like this so as to bring it within the comprehension of the general public. His aim is not to instruct legal readers exclusively, and he has certainly succeeded in making a book which is readable by all who have any curiosity to know something of the law of libel and slander. . . . Regard being had to the author's aim and to the necessities of popular exposition, the book is a fairly complete and accurate explanation of this branch of law."—SCOTSMAN, Sept. 6, 1880.

"The author, justly considering that the large treatise of Starkie, now identified with the name of the 'learned Folkard,' is not sufficient to meet all the wants of the legal profession and the public, has sought to produce a concise and readable tractate, which, in his own words, will 'enable an intelligent person to obtain an insight into the mysteries surrounding the law of libel and slander, without a serious expenditure of time and trouble.' The result is a more or less popular sort of text-book, in which technical disquisition is mixed up with a somewhat small modicum of legal history, and a rather large amount of general information and allusion."—PALL MALL GAZETTE, Sept. 29, 1880.

MAXWELL (Sir P. BENSON) on the INTERPRETATION OF STATUTES.

"This is an admirable book, excellent in its method and arrangement, and clear and thorough in its treatment of the different questions involved. . . . The work will be found of great practical utility, as affording a key to the method adopted by our Courts in the construction of statutes, and it will be of much value as showing the uniformity which has in general marked the application of the principles of interpretation to a vast variety of legislative enactments."—Law Magazine.

"An examination of the work has convinced us that it really supplies a man of fresh material which every conveyancer will find a most useful addition to his library. . . . We can thoroughly recommend the book to both branches of the profession, but more especially to solicitors, who will find it a valuable aid for ready use in all ordinary conveyancing practice."—Law Magazine, February 1879.

Crimes and the Criminal Law and Process.

Students are expected themselves to read the text-book, as the reader, owing to the time at his disposal being limited, must necessarily confine himself to pointing out, elucidating, and illustrating such difficulties as the subject may present, and emphasizing what is of practical importance.

Students who attend both on Tuesdays and on Fridays will be able, in one year, to gain a complete introductory knowledge of law and of all the branches of law and practice. Those Students who have it in their power to give a longer time to the study of Elementary Law will have the opportunity of so doing affording to them by attending, in one year, the Lectures on Tuesdays only, and attending those on the Fridays in the following year. It is recommended that all Students, who can do so, will thus extend their studies over two years, instead of compressing their consideration of so large and many-sided work as Stephen's Commentaries into the space of one legal year.

The subscription payable for the Elementary Law Classes is as follows:—

	For the Classes on Tuesdays or Fridays.	For all the Classes.
By Clerks of Members	£ s. d. 3 3 0	£ s. d. 5 5 0
By Clerks of Gentlemen not Members	4 4 0	6 6 0
By all others persons not being Members	5 5 0	7 7 0

THE ROYAL PHRASEOLOGICAL

FRENCH-ENGLISH AND ENGLISH-FRENCH DICTIONARY.

By J. C. TARVER, LATE FRENCH MASTER, ETON COLLEGE.

"Most readily do we acknowledge the flood of light which has been thrown on French phrases by M. Tarver. . . . His work is really a valuable addition to our Dictionary shelf—the most important shelf in every man's library. The nice skill with which he has compared and contrasted the phrases of the two most influential of modern tongues can hardly be over-praised. Such a book might well deserve a distinct notice; but we are happy to take this opportunity, meanwhile, of saying that one of the volumes has now been in constant use with us for five years; and we should be at a loss to name another recent one of its class which we have found more useful. The idea was happy, and the execution has been most laudably careful. We have been infinitely obliged to it in reading the lighter French literature of this day—so full of vocabularies fresh from the mint of camp or guinguette, and lively audacious turns deux-à-deux overgrown with the dream of 'the forty'—which would have puzzled Voltaire as much as Jobson."—Quarterly Review.

FLOOD ON LIBEL AND SLANDER.—A Concise and Practical Treatise on the Law concerning Libel and Slander, chiefly in regard to the Defamation of Individuals. By JOHN C. H. FLOOD, of the Middle Temple, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

"Such publications as this of Mr. Flood are useful by popularising an important subject like this so as to bring it within the comprehension of the general public. His aim is not to instruct legal readers exclusively, and he has certainly succeeded in making a book which is readable by all who have any curiosity to know something of the law of libel and slander. . . . Regard being had to the author's aim and to the necessities of popular expositions, the book is a fairly complete and accurate explanation of this branch of law."—Scotsman, Sept. 6, 1880.

"As the author justly observes, individual calumination has become the offence of the day; it is, therefore, evident that a short, clear, and concise statement of the law of libel and slander, such as is contained in the book before us, will undoubtedly meet a want often felt. . . . Mr. Flood has produced a useful volume, which will, as it certainly deserves, be received by the legal community in the spirit of the purpose in which it is written."—Law Journal, Oct. 30, 1880.

Just published, royal 8vo., price 15s., cloth.

WESTLAKE ON PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW.—A Treatise on Private International Law, with Principal Reference to its Practice in England. Being in lieu of a Second Edition of the Work published in 1858. By JOHN WESTLAKE, Q.C., late Fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge; Hon. LL.D. Edinburgh; Member of the Institute of International Law.

"No doubt can be entertained that international questions will, day by day, as the intercourse between different States increases, occupy a more prominent position in our jurisprudence; and it is hence, with a feeling of satisfaction, that we find men of the scholarly accomplishments possessed by Mr. Westlake devoting their best energies to this subject. . . . We lay down a volume which has, in its perusal, afforded us great satisfaction and rarely wearied the brain, though the strain has been continuous."—Law Journal, Oct. 23, 1880.

By J. C. TARVER, LATE FRENCH MASTER, ETON COLLEGE.

"Most readily do we acknowledge the flood of light which has been thrown on French phrases by M. Tarver . . . His work is really a valuable addition to our Dictionary shelf—the most important shelf in every man's library. The nice skill with which he has compared and contrasted the phrases of the two most influential of modern tongues can hardly be over-praised. Such a book might well deserve a distinct notice; but we are sorry to take this opportunity, meantime, of saying that one of the volumes has now been in constant use with us for five years; and we should be at a loss to name another recent one of its class which we have found more useful. The idea was happy, and the execution has been most laudably careful. We have been infinitely obliged to it in reading the lighter French literature of this day—so full of vocabularies fresh from the mint of camp or guinguette, and lively audacious turns phrases originales undreamt of by 'the forty'—which would have puzzled Voltaire as much as Johnson."—Quarterly Review.

INCORPORATED LAW SOCIETY.

SUGGESTIONS OF THE COUNCIL OF THE INCORPORATED LAW SOCIETY AS TO THE PRESENT LAW OF BANKRUPTCY, AND ON THE ALTERATIONS AND AMENDMENTS WHICH SHOULD BE MADE THEREIN.

Adopted by the Council, Friday, November, 26, 1880.

1. It is desirable that when a person becomes insolvent there should be one uniform mode of proceeding, viz. by Bankruptcy.
2. Proceedings in Bankruptcy ought to be commenced by a debtor by petition, accompanied by an account of his assets and debts, verified by affidavit; or by a creditor by petition, with proof of debt, and that the debtor has failed to pay the same within 14 days after demand, or has committed some other act of bankruptcy; and the filing of any such petition shall be a stay of all proceedings against the debtor unless and until the Court shall otherwise direct.
3. On a debtor being declared bankrupt, or previously, after petition, if the Court shall so order, his estate ought at once to be taken possession of by a receiver appointed by the Court, until the appointment of a trustee.
4. Trustees ought to give security in all cases, whether or not this be required by the creditors, but the Court should have power to regulate the amount of the security, or to dispense with it altogether.
5. Such remuneration only ought to be paid to trustees as is allowed by general or particular order of the Court.
6. Trustees ought to render accounts to a proper officer of the Court of Bankruptcy, and pay their balances into Court, as now done by receivers in Chancery, under a penalty for neglect.
7. Any creditor ought to be able, at his own expense, by leave of the Court, to summon the bankrupt before the Court, and to examine him as to his assets, debts, and dealings, and also to examine his books and accounts.
8. The holders of bills of exchange, drawn or indorsed by the bankrupt, ought to be treated, for the purpose of voting, as secured creditors.
9. A bankrupt should remain liable for his debts until the Court of Bankruptcy, after hearing the creditors in open Court, has given a discharge. Such discharge not to be granted unless a dividend of at least five shillings in the pound has been declared, or unless it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the bankruptcy has been occasioned by misfortune or accident; and such discharge not in any case to be granted if the Court shall find that the bankrupt has been guilty of overtrading, or reckless speculation, or of conduct of a fraudulent character, or that he has not kept proper books, or has not made a complete surrender of his estate, or has not given full information relating thereto.

10. The 125th and 126th sections of the Bankruptcy Act, 1869, as to liquidation by arrangement and composition, should be repealed, and all such arrangements ought to have the sanction of the Court of Bankruptcy, after full disclosure and examination of the bankrupt.

11. As in the Probate and Divorce Court, a Judge ought to be appointed to give his whole time to Bankruptcy, and the hearing of all important matters, and appeals from the Registrars and County Court Judges; and the Court of Bankruptcy ought to form a division of the High Court of Justice.

12. In country cases, applications for discharge, and for allowance of arrangement, composition, or liquidation, at all events, and any other proceedings, if required by a creditor, should be heard by the County Court Judge himself.

13. Subject to the foregoing resolutions, and to modification of some details, legislation in accordance with the Report of the Select Committee of the House of Commons appointed in the last Session of Parliament, is desirable.

A COMPENDIUM OF PRECEDENTS IN CONVEYANCING; Comprising the Forms required in Ordinary Practice.

By THOMAS KEY, one of the Editors of "Davidson's Precedents;" and HOWARD WARBURTON ELPINSTONE, formerly Lecturer to the Incorporated Law Society; both of Lincoln's Inn, Barristers-at-Law.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"It is obvious that the book is intended primarily to meet the wants of the solicitor's office, and there can be no question that it constitutes one of the most elaborate and, at the same time, considering its range and character, the most handy books of precedents for this purpose which has appeared in recent times. . . . The strongest part of vol. I. seems to be that devoted to leases, which strikes us as very satisfactory. . . . The collection of forms is very extensive, and many are very carefully framed. Thus there is a good form of underlease of business offices on p. 538; a very complete form of lease of public-house on p. 560; and a proviso on p. 591, with reference to the sale under a distress of things covenanted to be consumed on the premises, with reference to Hawkins v. Walron (22 W. R. 824, L. R. 1 C. P. D. 280). Of course nothing but actual use can effectually test the merit of a book of precedents; but, so far as we can judge from an examination of this work, we think it will stand the test, and be found of very great value."—Solicitors' Journal.

"An examination of the work has convinced us that it really supplies a mass of fresh material which every conveyancer will find a most useful addition to his library. . . . We can thoroughly recommend the book to both branches of the profession, but more especially to solicitors, who will find it a valuable aid for ready use in all ordinary conveyancing practice."—Law Magazine.

"This book might perhaps have been more aptly termed 'compendium of forms and precedents in conveyancing,' for the forms are the conspicuous features of it. The work is built on a different system to most conveyancing precedents, a very large number of forms being given in it, and the precedents being worked out by reference to and not by incorporation of the forms. . . . It has another advantage, viz., that concise as well as full forms are thus given; and as conciseness is, we are pleased to say, the habit among conveyancers of the modern school, the abbreviations will be more appreciated. . . . Apart from other merits, the large variety and immense number of forms and precedents comprised in these two compendious volumes of Messrs. Key and Elphinstone must make them valuable auxiliaries to the conveyancer; in fact, they are worthy to be placed by the side of Mr. Davidson's and Mr. Pridcaux's standard conveyancing books."—Law Journal.

"Many legal documents of considerable moment are prepared in solicitor's offices, and never settled by counsel; and a trustworthy guide for work of this kind, sufficiently copious in its variety of matter and adequate to the modern standard of conveyancing style, was certainly a desideratum. The names of the editors are of themselves enough to warrant the quality of the work; and the expectation they naturally raise is confirmed by such examination as we have been able to make."—Saturday Review.

"What Story and Wharton have already done for American jurisprudence, with regard to the subject of Private International Law, has at length been effected for English Law by the treatise now before us, which will, no doubt, at once take its place as the standard authority on this branch of law. . . . The general history of the development of the study of Private International Law in England and on the continent will be of especial value to students, who will find the book a very readable one."—Law Times, Nov. 13, 1880.

A Concise and Practical Treatise on the Law concerning Libel and Slander, chiefly in regard to the Defamation of Individuals.

"A valuable work. . . . It is conscientiously and carefully written, and evidently great pains have been bestowed upon it. . . . A USEFUL VOLUME, which will, as it certainly deserves, be received by the legal community," &c., &c.—Law Journal, Oct. 30, 1880.

"Able, comprehensive, well-arranged, easy of reference, and intelligible in its statements and distinctions."—Liverpool Daily Post, Oct. 27.

"Readable by all who have any curiosity to know anything of the Law of Libel and Slander."—Scotsman, Sept. 6.

"If any unscientific person desires to taste of the learning upon this branch of the law, he will find enough of it for his purpose in Mr. Flood's book."—St. James' Gazette, Oct. 25.

A TREATISE ON THE LAW OF MORTGAGE.

By RICHARD HOLMES COOTE, Esq. Fourth Edition, by W. WYLLIS MACKESON, Esq., of the Inner Temple, one of Her Majesty's Counsel.

"Thirty years have elapsed since the last edition of this work. In the interval vast alterations have been made in almost every branch of the law of mortgages. To show how completely the whole subject has been revolutionised, reference need only be made to the Judgment, Registration, and Bills of Sale Acts, to the Bankrupt Laws, to the Acts relating to Married Women, to Locke King's, Lord St. Leonard's, and Lord Cranworth's Acts, to the Railway and Merchant Shipping Acts, and the numerous statutes which have materially changed the order of the administration of assets. The present work is, therefore, necessarily not so much a new edition as a new book."—Extract from Preface.

By J. O. TARVER, LATE FRENCH MASTER, ETON COLLEGE.

"Most readily do we acknowledge the flood of light which has been thrown on French phrases by M. Tarver. . . . His work is really a valuable addition to our Dictionary itself—the most important shelf in every man's library. The nice skill with which he has compared and contrasted the phrases of the two most influential of modern tongues can hardly be over-praised. Such a book might well deserve a distinct notice; but we are happy to take this opportunity, meantime, of saying that one of the volumes has now
