CLOUDBURST RENDS IRRIGATION WORKS

Part of Canal and Syphon at Osoyoos Destroyed

An easy Summer cloudburst at Oliver, Thursday, precipitated from the skies such terrific quantities of water in a short time that the main canal which is being built to carry the irrigation supply into the B. C. Government's Osoyoos irrigated belt in the South-Okanagan was rent by the floods and 440 feet of the completed part torn away and destroyed.

About 50 feet of the main syphon, which is a 78-inch wired wood pipe, was also destroyed by the cloudburst.

News of the damage came through by telegraph late yesterday to the Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands.

No other details are yet known as to the extent of the damage. There were apparently no casualties.

E. A. Cleveland, water commissioner, left this afternoon for Oliver to make an immediate investigation, and get repair work started without delay. Hon. Mr. Pattullo will leave on Tuesday for Oliver to make a personal inspection of the damage.

At the Department of Lands it was said that the cloudburst will not likely delay the development of the irrigated area. The work is being rushed so that 2,500 acres more of irrigated land may be put on the market by the fall.

The cloudburst is set down as "an act of God" the coming of which could not be predicted or guarded against.

Mr. Moore endeavored to clear away any misunderstanding that the international-trades unions were detrimental to Canadian citizenship. Canadian Club members here to-day, declared that the policy of labor called for the acceptance of the three greatest principles of democracy. One was self-discipline, so as to harmonize the views of one class with those with whom they had to live. By education also could personal improvement be brought about.

The Ministry of Defence had given orders regarding disarmament as demanded by the Allies.

REPORT TO BE MADE ON "P. R." VOTING

Ottawa, May 21.—(Canadian Press)—C. G. Macneil, secretary of the Great War Veterans' Association, claimed that his association, numbering 200,000, entirely favored proportional representation, when he testified this morning before the House committee investigating this subject. He thought it would more fully reflect public opinion, and tend to obviate the need to seek redress of grievances by unconstitutional means. His association did not desire to separate soldiers in a body as distinct from other citizens.

Captain J. A. Hayden, representing the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, said that the present system played into the hands of direct taxionists, and that "P. R." would be a safeguard for the continuance of faith in constituted authority. This completed the evidence to be given by the committee, which will have an executive session to consider its report.

RECORD CLAIMS IN NORMAN OIL FIELD

Dawson, May 20.—A group of prospectors from the Fort Norman oil field, the first to arrive in this district since last fall, reached Selkirk today, 180 miles south of Dawson. Following the ice, they canoed from Ross Past down the Pelly River, making the trip in forty-three hours. Southward they will take the overland trail to Whitehorse, thence by train 150 miles to Skagway, where they will board a steamship for Vancouver. There they will turn northward again, their final destination being Edmonton, where they will record the claims they have staked. They think the strike at Fort Norman a good one. The party includes: J. McDonald, H. M. McKenzie, J. Beulac, J. Olsen, Fritz Etzel, J. Larue and two Indian guides.

An old Yukon trader named Tom Bee came with the party from Norman. He is going across country from Selkirk to Little Salmon, on the Yukon River.

McDonald, Olsen and Bee went to Fort Norman in the latter part of March via the Little Salmon River with dog teams, and picked up the others, including the guides, at Ross Post.

TO MAKE PROTEST.

Vancouver, May 21.—A popular indignation meeting against further immigration while unemployment is so acute, and particularly against immigrants who will not be assimilated, is to be called by the United Soldiers' Council in the near future.

Oriental immigration, as the problem that most affects British Columbia, was discussed at some length at a meeting of the council, but it was recognized that in order to obtain effective legislation from the Dominion Government, the question must be presented in such a way as to meet the situation all over Canada.

LOGANBERRY MEN DECIDE TO WAIT FOR FULL FACTS

Wine and Juice Urged As Marketing Method

GREAT TURNOUT DISCUSSES CROP

"We have had pessimism before when other crops have had to be marketed. There is some pessimism regarding the loganberry outlook today, but I maintain there is little ground for any such attitude," said Reeve Watson in opening a meeting of loganberry growers at Royal Oak last night, which eventually adjourned to receive the report of a delegation planned to visit loganberry districts of Oregon.

So great was the interest in the question of finding a market for the season's loganberry crop that the meeting had to be transferred from the Municipal Council Chamber to the Royal Oak Hall, where nearly 150 men and women overflowed into the gallery and had to find standing room around the walls.

Problems of Past.
After re-creating the troubles experienced some years ago by strawberry growers and similar trials overcome five years ago in selling sour cherries, Reeve Watson declared that by all working together a solution for the present question would be found.

G. F. Devereux detailed some experiences of Oregon growers prior to attaining success. Dealing with shipment of loganberries he declared that growers at Sebastopol had last year shipped many carloads, "yet people say logans will not ship. Why, we haven't even tried as yet," he said.

Referring to shipments of fresh fruit in crates to the Prairies, Mr. Devereux advocated attachment to all crates of a label, pointing out that logans are not a table fruit, and also giving recipes for their serving. "We here all know this berry, but there are tens of thousands of people in other parts of Canada who must be educated," he said, and declared loganberries will ship in excellent condition if frozen properly.

Introduces Motion.

He then moved that the meeting name Reeve Watson, George Stewart and one other to approach the Deputy Minister of Agriculture to have the Markets Commissioners of the Province in the Prairies, Eastern centres and England seek markets for frozen loganberries. Failing a second, this motion was temporarily laid upon the table, and Mr. Devereux proceeded to explain that one carload of dehydrated berries equals 187 carloads of canned berries, with a resultant saving in freight.

Another suggestion he laid before the meeting was that the loganberry growers form an association devoted to the particular work of boosting loganberries through advertising, and also to collect data as to what is being done in other sections where loganberries are being cultivated.

H. H. Grist protested that there were already too many associations and it would be better to stimulate existing organizations to better work.

Outlook Not Good.

E. W. White, assistant Provincial Horticulturist, said the situation for marketing loganberries this year was "undoubtedly not favorable," but growers on the mainland were preparing to ship through the B. C. Berry Growers' Association the entire logan crop in the same cars that will take raspberries to the Prairies.

He pointed out that this course was not available to the Island growers, as the mainland growers have pre-cooling facilities.

H. H. Grist suggested that the Island berries would ship without pre-cooling because grown in a dryer climate. Mr. White doubted this, and while not prepared to deny the fact, pointed out that an additional thirty-six hours was required to transport Island logans.

Mr. Grist also suggested that logans should be shipped with the cherry crop, which Mr. White thought feasible.

Prairies Want Juice.

"Logan juice will have a big sale in barrels or bottled form in Prairie markets," was the gist of a telegram

WAS SUFFERING FROM INDIGESTION NO FEAR OF PAINS NOW

Indigestion is one of the worst forms of stomach trouble, and many people suffer terribly after every meal they eat. The rising and souring of the food, pains in the stomach, heartburn, water brash, belching of wind, vomiting shortly after eating, etc., are some of the symptoms.

There is no need for any person to be troubled with indigestion, dyspepsia or any other stomach trouble if they would only take Burdock Blood Bitters, which contains a combination of nature's roots, herbs, barks and berries; a combination that cannot help but put the stomach right.

Mr. H. H. Collins, Norton, N. B., writes: "I was with the overseas forces for four years and two months, and in October, 1916, I was unfortunate enough to be wounded and sent to a hospital. I was a prisoner for 2½ years, and the food they gave us was not good, at times, and after a few months I found I was suffering from indigestion. When I came home in July, 1919, I was nearly a wreck. I was told to use Burdock Blood Bitters. I did so and found great relief, and can now eat without fear of pains and sickness. I would recommend B. B. B. to all who suffer from indigestion."

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for over forty years, and during that time has made a reputation second to none for relieving all stomach troubles. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. (Adv't.)

from Markets Commissioner Grant, which Mr. White read to the meeting. The telegram also stated that the outlook for Island grown fresh logans was not favorable this season, and Mr. White declared that his personal opinion favored conversion of the fruit to juice, in view of the preferential position of Mainland growers, who have a crop as large as that grown on the Island.

In closing, Mr. White declared that Island acreage devoted to loganberries totalled 32 acres, of which 22 acres were planted last year. Practically the whole crop is in Saanich and North Saanich, the estimated crop to be sold being set at about 200 tons on a conservative basis.

J. G. Thomson, of the Victoria and Island Development Association, outlined the many inquiries which the Association had made as to the plant required for the manufacture of information received from the management of a successful co-operative fruit products association which has operated since 1908 at Eugene, Ore.

See Wider Field.

"If you start a juice plant it will merely be a safeguard for your crop, idle save for about six weeks. On the other hand, there is no reason why you should not organize and not only make loganberry juice, but possibly even go into putting up jams," said Mr. Thomson as various details of the growth of Eugene concern came up for note.

Price Vital Factor.

Dr. E. C. Hart asked if any data was available as to prices paid growers. If it is merely a case of two or three cents a pound we would do better to pull out the logans and grow pears," he said, whereupon Mr. Thomson recited Eugene figures showing that prices paid farmers has ranged from 2½ cents a pound to as high as 7½ cents.

"The point is, gentlemen, the business men of Victoria are, I am sure, behind you in marketing your crop, but you are the men who must stand or fall by the existence or lack of a market, and you are the men who must take action in your own protection," he said, claiming that shipment of fresh logans to the Prairies was not practicable until the residents of those districts were educated to their use and the need of sugar in preparing their fruit.

Mr. Thomson claimed that Puyallup growers were doing well by co-operation, as the market price paid was no indication of the full returns after inclusion of profits from the co-operative association.

Profit in Juice.

"An acre of logans, converted into juice, pays just double the price netted for the fresh fruit, and I believe that you cannot do better than take

NEXT WEEK'S CELEBRATION.

The programme for the festivities which will commence here on Monday, printed elsewhere in The Times to-day, shows that there is going to be a revival of the Victoria Day celebration in all its old-time glory. Indeed, on no previous occasion has there been so generous a list of attractions, which includes almost every line of recreative and athletic activity for which this community is distinguished.

Additional interest attaches to the celebration this year from the fact that for the first time it bears the designation of a "Broom Festival" and marks the admission of Victoria's annual celebration to the calendar of festive events in the Pacific Northwest which have won continent-wide prominence.

SPECIAL LIQUIDS.

If the Liquor Control Board does not consider it worth while to stock the variety of liquor which appeals to the Oriental palate it may rest assured that the Chinese and Japanese population of British Columbia will import their own and the Government will lose that amount of business.

AN EASY DESCENT.

Ten years ago the British miner was badly paid. His agitation in 1911 brought him better conditions and an increase in pay. But it was not until after the findings of the Sankey Commission had been made public that the people of the Motherland really understood the true facts of his case.

The present strike was brought about by a proposal on the part of the operators to reduce wages to somewhere near a level that the industry could maintain without Government subsidy. In other words it was time to end the system of control and relieve the public treasury of the tremendous burden which had been imposed upon it by reason of the exigencies of the war and its relation to the coal mining industry.

savings from the highly prosperous period. Wage descents are not easy to make. But the miners find it harder because of the dizzy heights to which their wages have gone. Even in the worst area of the Pifeshire district the men were earning as much as twenty shillings and three pence per shift and the reductions would have taken them down to seventeen and six after the temporary subsidy suggested by the Government had been paid.

In the light of figures to which a good deal of prominence has been given in the Old Country the Government seems to have gone too far in offering to subsidize a lucrative trade at the expense of hard working men in other vocations. And it is more likely than not that the country is being held up by a majority of irresponsible youths who have caught the revolutionary fall of the hour and see a way to accomplish a world-shaking feat by extortion.

RATES GOING DOWN.

On account of the high ocean freight rates which obtain at the present time it has been argued that the removal of the British embargo on Canadian cattle would be nothing in the nature of a cure-all. But it seems to be forgotten that ocean rates are dropping daily and there is every likelihood that they will continue to fall for some time to come.

THOSE LOGANBERRIES.

Some indication of the interest which the community in general and Saanich in particular is manifesting in the loganberry question is reflected in the enthusiasm which attended last night's meeting at Royal Oak. While it was not possible to do anything more than come to an agreement to inquire into the possibilities of establishing a local plant the gathering itself appeared to suggest to all concerned the importance of placing more reliance upon local enterprise than has been customary heretofore.

JAPAN'S NEGATIVE ANSWER.

One of the first practical moves towards a limitation of armaments by the League of Nations was an appeal from its Secretariat to all the member states to refrain from increasing their armaments and navies during the next two years. This special communication went out several weeks ago and it was regarded at the time as a preliminary step towards universal disarmament because it would provide the basis for a genuine attempt to bring about a practical understanding.

The Japanese note just received at Geneva is described as polite but negative. It "heartily endorses the high principle involved in the League's proposal," but it is of the opinion that "the moment has not yet come when Japan can afford to adopt it." In other words the Island Kingdom intends to carry out her programme and think about disarming when she has a few more fighting ships in commission. It was not to be supposed that any country would act on its own; but it is a pity that in the first answer to be received there should be a complete absence of any suggestion of agreement to act in concert with all the members of the organization. Rather is Japan's reply a straight declaration of policy against any course which might prevent the completion of building contracts already earmarked. At the same time neither Japan nor any great power would be so blind to its own interest as to refuse to take part in an honest endeavor to reach a universal disarming agreement whether it considers it could afford to adopt it or not.

NOTE AND COMMENT

According to a Constantinople dispatch the Angora Cabinet has resigned. Apparently somebody got it—by the beard.

It is announced from Paris that the Franco-British "quarrel" over Upper Silesia will be settled privately by the Premiers of Great Britain and France when they meet next week. Exactly; neither country is ready to let Germany get behind the smoke of an Entente explosion.

The London Daily Telegraph believes that the "loose bond of common sentiment and tradition" is a great deal better than an Imperial constitution. It was marvellous how it worked in the August days of 1914 and through the eventful days that followed.

If one may depend upon the news emanating from Moscow these days there is a split in the Soviet camp because Premier Lenin is desirous of extending the representation in his Cabinet. Trotsky objects. If Nikolai plays his cards properly he may yet make a name for himself and hang on to his job.

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS

CANADA TO SEND A MINISTER (The New York World) Premier Meighen's announcement that Canada will send a Minister to Washington puts our Government in a position of responsibility by placing a diplomatic representative in Ottawa. How the new Canadian diplomat will work with the British Embassy is not for us to conjecture. The fact that for a century has left Canada a self-governing nation promises cordial co-operation. However, that may be, there is no doubt of our cordiality in seeing Canada grow to a nation of power and promise on our northern border with the keenest interest, without thought of jealousy, in an army rarely and nearly long disturbed by serious quarrel. In a war-saddened world Canada and the United States present the memorable example of peace maintained unbroken for more than a century on the longest unscientific boundary in history. Mountain ranges, big lakes, valleys grooved by ancient glaciers, protected by natural law to throw trade and travel across this highly artificial line; yet no fort or gun or armed guard is needed to maintain the peace. Such a line the new envoy will be welcomed almost as our own.

Although Jupiter and Venus are in benefic aspect to-day, astrologers read it as not altogether auspicious for Jupiter, Uranus and Saturn are adverse. Under this aspect women should be able to accomplish much in public work, especially if associated with men who are in places of authority. College professors should benefit by the rule of the stars and those who are young should make the best of this day's opportunities. Notwithstanding the superstition concerning Friday this should be a lucky wedding day, since it promises prosperity as well as faithful love. Business initiative should be delayed or unsuccessfull, unless they are of international scope. Embarrassing dilemmas for the United States will develop during the coming months and much misunderstanding between nations is forecast. Congress this month will have much important legislation about which there may be a divergence of opinion even among party lines. Many deaths of the aged who have attained fame will be announced in the course of the coming Summer. Saturn gives warning to farmers that the Summer will be time of test for them, as disappointments are presaged by the stars. Storms that destroy crops will be frequent. Mercury gives promise of the development of our commerce and trade should be exceeded satisfactory during the Summer months. The West Indies will have a time of trouble, many unforeseen conditions developing. Persons whose birthdate it is may experience business reverses in the coming year. In love affairs they will be fortunate. The young may court and marry. Children born on this day will gain respect and popularity but they may be restless and fond of change. LOGANBERRY MEN DECIDE TO WAIT FOR FULL FACTS (Continued from page 3.) advantage of the efforts Mr. Grant is making to market your crop in juice form is "fair," said Mr. Thomson in closing. Reeve Favors Drinks. Reeve Watson observed that he had come to the conclusion that the only way to assure prosperity for loganberry growers was to take up the manufacture of juice and kindred products. He then investigated the organization and plant required for cooperative production of juice and wine, as so many people had given information which proved to have no genuine foundation.

Refusing to give any figures, Mr. Bushby stated that the delegation returned from Salem they would lay before the growers a written report, showing accurate figures in place of estimates and guesses. Displace Grape Juice. Touching upon the market, Mr. Bushby declared that the prohibition question revolutionized conditions for the loganberry grower. "Grape juice has a sort of mawkish taste which loganberry juice has not, and if you can back off the map a product which a million dollars of advertising money has been spent, and I believe you can, then, gentlemen, I believe you will find in your loganberry vines a better money market than you have in your strawberries. There has been," he said in conclusion, taking his seat amid much applause. Reeve Watson commented on the appointment of a resident of Victoria, called A. C. Westgate, of the Laurel Brand Company, who operates a plant at Lake Hill, to give his firm's product, to which a million dollars of pack canned fruit of the crop without sugar or any preservative. Mr. Westgate claimed to be able to handle two tons a day, the process consisting of squeezing the berries, straining the juice while leaving the fruit practically a fresh product as to flavor. His estimates were on a basis of paying eight cents per pound for fruit, to be in six months at a Prairie retail price of 25 cents per pound, after paying an extensive advertising bill and freight charges. In closing he declared his firm was ready to operate on either a per can basis or co-operatively, and welcomed inspection of the plant at Lake Hill by a delegation of loganberry growers.

Too Many Associations! Reeve Watson then appealed for motions, suggesting whether Mr. Devereux's motion for a new association was acceptable. From the gallery a resident of North Saanich declared that an organization already existed and advocated one big machine be created for all fruits and districts. Reeve Watson said he understood such a body existed in the B. C. Berry Growers' Association, whereupon Mr. Grist declared that the Berry Growers' Association was "nothing save another raking on the back of the growers, taking the money they get from the association has done the selling work for them."

"All this being neither here nor there, what does this meeting wish to do?" Then Reeve Watson, suggesting that action be laid over until Mr. Bushby and his fellow delegates to Oregon return and make their report. Mr. Grist so moved and the meeting unanimously supported delay until more information as to organization and equipment was received. Minister Favors Wine. Before the meeting adjourned Mr. Devereux read a letter from the Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, in which he regretted inability to be present, but stated steps to get together to solve marketing problems and approved of the proposed conversion of loganberries into British Columbia wine.

She holds the true secret of facial rejuvenation who has learned how to remove the dead skin particles as fast as they appear. It's a secret anyone may possess. The aged, faded, or discolored surface skin may be gradually absorbed, in an entirely safe and rational manner, by the nightly application of ordinary mercolized wax. Within a week or two the underlying skin, youthful and beautiful to behold, has taken the place of the discarded cuticle. So little of the old skin is absorbed each day there's no inconvenience at all, and no one suspects you are putting anything on your face. The mercolized wax, procurable at any drug store, can be used in sufficient quantity to remove freckles, moths, patches, liver spots and fine surface wrinkles. For the deeper wrinkles, an excellent recipe is: Powdered saxolite, one ounce, dissolved in one-half pint witch hazel. Rubbing the face in the solution produces quick and wonderful results.

The Safety of Mutual Insurance THERE is no safer investment than life insurance. If the Mutual Life of Canada were to stop selling life insurance and just continued in force the policies now on the books, the resources of the Company would not only pay all claims as they occurred, but there would remain a splendid surplus to be distributed in the form of dividends. As a proof of the safety of Mutual Life Insurance, let us see how the immense assets of the Company are invested. THREE SOLOISTS

DELIGHT AUDIENCE

Willows Camp Chapter Brings Notable Musicians Here

A rare musical treat was offered a large audience at the Empress Hotel ballroom last night when Sonya Medvedeff, Lee Cronican and Philip Sevasta gave a programme that was noted for its quality and variety. These talented artists will appear at the Empress again to-night with an entirely different programme to that given last night and it is safe to say that they will be greeted by as large and appreciative an audience as that which enjoyed the first offering.

many music lovers of his audience. Mendelssohn's Andante and Rondo Capriccioso, a substituted number in the programme, proved a successful choice, and his whole performance was marked by very striking technique and brilliant executive ability. Philip Sevasta, the harpist, provided an exceptional feast in his delicate and effective performance on this old world instrument. His choice of selections well displayed his remarkable talent and demonstrated the potentialities of the harp as a solo instrument, including as it did a Schubert Impromptu, Caprice, and Old Pastorale by Pergolesi, and Schumann's Traumerli. His performance to-night will be looked forward to with particular pleasure. The recital is one of the most enjoyable ever given in Victoria and last night's audience gave ample assurance of their appreciation and the Willows Camp Chapter, I. O. D. is to be congratulated on the bringing of the artists to this city.

GRADUATION EXERCISES HELD Successful Function For 14 Jubilee Hospital Nurses

The Jubilee Hospital graduation exercises form each year, one of the most popular social events of the season, and last night's function was especially noticeable for the interest and enthusiasm shown by the large audience.

The picturesque ceremony had fourteen participants, who, in their snowy caps and uniforms, and each carrying a sheaf of scarlet and white carnations, symbolic of the class colors, made a striking picture as they lined up in front of the platform for the opening and the starting of the Rev. F. F. Fatt delivered the invocation, after which Miss Dorrell charmed the audience with two exceptionally beautiful songs, "Home-Ing," and "Waters of Minnetonka."

Congratulations Graduates. Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick then spoke a few simple and inspiring words, congratulating the graduates on their choice of a profession, and on having successfully attained the starting point of their career. He enjoined upon them three guiding principles: First, to live up to Ruskin's motto, "Fall in love with your work;" second, loyalty to their Alma Mater; and, third, fidelity to the ideals embodied in the life of Florence Nightingale—devotion, unselfishness and courage.

Prizes Training. Capt. George McGregor, chairman of the Hospital Board, next congratulated the class on the fact that they had received their training at a hospital of the standing of the Jubilee Hospital, and under so capable a head as Miss Mackenzie.

During the past year graduates of the hospital had testified to the quality of their training by carrying off two first class and two second class honors, in a competition open to graduates from all parts of the Dominion. These girls had taken a course in public health nursing at the University of British Columbia, which resulted in Miss Harmon winning the gold medal for Canada; Miss on Thursday evening, June 2. An energetic committee is working on plans which promise a good time to all who attend. Completed arrangements will be made known at a later date.

P. Sharkey, of William Lake; A. Blackburn, of Salt Spring Island; Mrs. E. Wheelton, and Mrs. E. Waterman, of Shawnigan Lake; Mrs. C. E. Baker, of Salt Spring Island; Mr. and Mrs. Barrington Foot, of This Island; Mrs. E. Graham, of Cumberland, are guests at the Strathcona Hotel.

The awarding of diplomas by Capt. McGregor was followed by the presentation of diplomas to the class, Miss Mackenzie officiating. Each recipient was accorded a salvo of applause from the audience as her name was announced. Those graduating were as follows: Miss Agnes Richmond Paterson, of Olds, Alberta; Miss Charlotte Ringrose, of Nelson; Miss Gertrude Helen James, of Silverton; Miss Ethel Newman, Victoria; Miss Margaret Ryan, Victoria; Miss Maud Mirfield, Vancouver; Miss Christine Allan, Nelson; Miss Georgian Tranfield, Ladysmith; Miss Aline Katherine Mackay, S. Fender; Miss Rosa Constance Nye, Kelso; Miss Winifred Alice Bellhouse, Galiano Island; Miss Caroline Fowler, Armstrong; Miss Mary Elvira Stirling, Salmon Arm; Miss Dorcas Miller, Peachland.

Diplomas were also awarded to three affiliation pupils, Miss Rose Constance Nye, of Yeroon, Jubilee Hospital; Miss Winifred Alice Bellhouse, of Ganges Harbor Hospital, and Miss Maud Mirfield, Roycroft Maternity Hospital. A very pleasing little ceremony was the presentation of the honorary to Miss Fullerton, the undergraduate who had proved most proficient in her first year's training.

Congratulations. Telegrams of greeting and congratulation were read from Miss Harmon, of New Westminster; Miss Wood, of Portland, Oregon; Miss graduates of the Jubilee Hospital, and Dr. Rogers, late resident medical superintendent of the hospital.

This closed the formal programme and after the singing of the National Anthem the floor was cleared for dancing. Professor Heaton's orchestra was in attendance, and before many bars of its inspiring strains a hundred and fifty couples were dancing until an early hour this morning.

Fatt and George Brown, of the board of directors, who were present on the platform; Mrs. Charles Rhodes, president of the Auxiliary; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clearburn, M.P.P.; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. GORDON HEAD TO HAVE CONCERT AND DANCE Gordon Head residents are making great preparations for the concert and dance at the Gordon Head Agricultural Hall on Monday next. The Canadian Squadron Concert Party and their five-piece orchestra have arranged an excellent programme. The lightning sketch artist will give an exhibition of some very laughable sketches, and Artificer Engineer Arnold and his partner will once again entertain the audience with their comic songs and stories. The other sailor artists have also prepared new songs, etc. for the occasion. The entertainment will commence at 8 p. m., and it is confidently expected that a great number of people will take this opportunity of enjoying such an excellent evening's entertainment.

"What is Education?"—On Sunday at 8 p. m. in their rooms, 101 Union Bank Building, the Theosophical Society will discuss the subject "What is Education?" Miss Bertha Winn, the special teacher of the city, has promised to speak. During the evening some phases of theosophical teaching will be presented. The meeting is free and a hearty invitation is extended to all.

TO DANCE IN FALLING SNOWSTORM AT BALL

Magnificent Electrical Effects For Carnival Ball at Empress May 24

Tickets are rapidly being taken up for the Queen of the Carnival Ball and Broom Festival that is to be held at the Empress Hotel on the evening of May 24, concluding the two-day celebrations that will be conducted in this city. Hundreds of tickets have already been disposed of, and many more will be taken up before the function commences. Large parties are coming to attend the affair from all parts of the Northwest, particularly from Vancouver and Seattle.

Wonderful Electrical Effects. Wonderful electrical effects have been secured from all parts of the continent and the electrical display on this occasion will be well worth a visit.

Unusual, sensational and beautiful effects will be presented throughout the evening. Every dance and every cabaret number will have some different effect.

Moonlight Dances. Especially for the moonlight dances have novel arrangements been made. In one the effect is given of the huge throng dancing in a farm yard, with a moon slowly passing over the roof tops. Another gives the impression of dancing under a starlit sky while the morning mists begin to fall. Pale blue floods with the moon twinkling will be another novel effect for the moonlight waltz, always enjoyable.

The most sensational effect of all will be one in which the dancers trip the light fantastic in a raging snowstorm, in the room flooded in blue light snow will descend from all directions, blown hither and thither by imaginary winds. This is perhaps the first time that this effect has been used in a ballroom in the West and is sure to prove decidedly novel.

By the use of an instrument with the unusual name of a Lobster-scope the entire mass of dancers will appear to be but a moving picture. This will therefore be an opportunity for those attending to take part in the "silverfish."

Broom Festival Song. What will be the most beautiful effect will be that used in the Broom Festival Song, in which Mrs. Charles Wilson will star. No matter where the eye might wander during the song, to ceiling, wall or mass of dancers surrounding the ballroom, one will see an exact counterpart of the artist's hand as he works in his Victoria's beauty. Beacon light in its number of brooms. This effect is a home product, being made locally by Mr. Maynard, while the song is being written by Mr. Down to be sung by a native daughter.

Another wonderful effect fills the ballroom with billowy clouds among which the many dancers will entice the artists will play in floods of light in Oriental shades, the charming number in which Mrs. D'Oyly Rochford stars will be shaded in lights of flower shades, while for the number in which the Ingledew stars an appropriate wine color will flood the room.

These wonderful effects will be presented with aid of four huge lamps and spotlights and a host of other machinery and effects. The display will be under the personal direction of Mr. L. C. Gordon and his staff of assistants.

Intending patrons who have not yet obtained their tickets are advised to do so at once as tickets are rapidly being reserved, telegrams and reservations daily from outside making reservations. Tickets will be on sale throughout to-day and Monday at the Empress Hotel only, but those who are in charge would advise to avoid disappointment tickets should be reserved at once.

Those in charge of the decorations to-day commenced the work of the charming decorations that will transform the Empress into a fairyland.

WHAT'S IN A NAME? Facts About Your Name: Its History, Its Meaning, Whence It Was Derived, Its Significance, Your Lucky Day and Lucky Jewel. By Mildred Marshall. (Copyright, 1921, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.) EUDORA

Eudora was transplanted direct from ancient Greece where the word for "happy gift" was a fern, and a name among Greek demes. Its quaint sound, as well as its pleasing significance, brought it to French romance as Eudora.

But the first Eudora and the one whom our adoption of the name commemorates, was one of the Nereids of Greek mythology. Like Amphitrite, Thetis and her sisters, she was the best known of the sea nymphs. According to mythology, the Nereids, fifty in number, were the daughters of Nereus and Doris, and were attendants upon Poseidon, god of the sea. They were represented as having entire human form and riding upon sea horses or other sea monsters.

Another form of the name Eudoria was much used by Greek Emperors, and imperial brides who bore a name unsuited to the Greek ear, assumed it voluntarily. Through the saints of the Greek Church the name reached Russia as Jevdokija.

Lapis lazuli is the stone assigned to Eudora. It will prove a talisman against depression and is said to protect against fever. Monday is her lucky day and seven her lucky number.

"See How REGAL FREE RUNNING Table Salt It Runs" The Ideal Salt for home use. Eudora was transplanted direct from ancient Greece where the word for "happy gift" was a fern, and a name among Greek demes. Its quaint sound, as well as its pleasing significance, brought it to French romance as Eudora. But the first Eudora and the one whom our adoption of the name commemorates, was one of the Nereids of Greek mythology. Like Amphitrite, Thetis and her sisters, she was the best known of the sea nymphs. According to mythology, the Nereids, fifty in number, were the daughters of Nereus and Doris, and were attendants upon Poseidon, god of the sea. They were represented as having entire human form and riding upon sea horses or other sea monsters. Another form of the name Eudoria was much used by Greek Emperors, and imperial brides who bore a name unsuited to the Greek ear, assumed it voluntarily. Through the saints of the Greek Church the name reached Russia as Jevdokija. Lapis lazuli is the stone assigned to Eudora. It will prove a talisman against depression and is said to protect against fever. Monday is her lucky day and seven her lucky number.

A GAMBLE IN BEAUTY

By NANCIBELLE MALE.

ONE LOVE STORY YOU NEVER CAN FORGET.

The Romances of Two Sisters, Both Beautiful, One Demure, the Other Vampish—With Thrills in Every Chapter and an Unexpected Denouement.

"No!" Varia answered, her lips parted, her wide blue eyes on Molly's excited little face.

Molly nodded her head vigorously. "You see, Varia, it's all your fault! Oh, don't look like that and tell me about it. It was after your wedding breakfast. We'd thrown rose leaves and confetti at you and I stood on the steps watching you go off and somehow something about your face—you were so white—and so sweet—Varia, I knew I was just going to cry, so I ran back into the Rose Room and wept into the curtains and—Jim Cather was there."

"I always thought Jim was a dear and somehow he was so understanding and all—and he kissed me, and—and I never thought any more of it."

Molly poured out the tea in the white and gold cups, and lifted the silver cover that held the crumpets.

"Then that evening Rupert Hamlin— isn't that the most stunning name— came to see me. He's an Englishman. He never says a word, but he has the most wonderful manners, and such a quiet, something masterful, like an Englishman in a novel. Anyway, he began telling me about his place in England, said it was a box of a house, and he wondered if a girl could live on five thousand a year? I didn't realize he meant five thousand pounds!"

"Could you?" he said and I answered, "Yes," and blushed so that he knew what I meant. And, Varia, he brought out a lovely old ring, a diamond with tiny pearls about it, and said it had been his mother's. Here it is," Molly felt about in her beaded bag and drew out the ring and passed it across the table.

Varia held it on the palm of her hand and read the tiny engraving on the inner band, "Alice May—June 6 1882."

"It all sounds romantic, Molly," Varia said. "I'm so glad."

"Don't be glad yet," Molly warned. "There's nothing to be glad about."

The next morning a special messenger came and he had tiny white boxes with this in it:

"Molly held out her hand with the great shining diamond on it."

"Jim wrote me that he'd been crazy about me all these years, at least four, but he'd never dared to say anything. Of course I was horrified! I didn't know he was proposing when he kissed me. I would have refused him and told him it was all a misunderstanding, but Jim is such a dear and I hated to hurt his feelings, and besides, Varia," Molly leaned forward and spoke in a tragic whisper, "I don't know which of them I am in love with!"

Varia started her friend by leaning back and breaking out into a delicious laugh.

"Molly Stilwell, you're nothing but a baby vamp!" she said wickedly.

"But I'm not, that's just it! I tell you the truth, I've known lots of men but these are the first two who ever proposed—and in the same day!"

She opened her box of cigarettes and selected one with a frown.

"All the women in Rupert's family smoke, you know, and I've simply got to begin. But if Jim could see me! Suddenly the funny side of the situation came over her and she chuckled to herself. Jim likes the clinging vine type, and I can be that to perfection, but Rupert believes in the modern woman and I have to be that for him."

"Varia, you're married, and you can help me. I want you to meet Rupert and then Jim, and tell me what I'm going to do. I'd hate to hurt Jim. I really would, and I don't know how I'd get along without him, but Rupert is so stunning!" She sighed.

Varia consulted the watch on her wrist. "I'll have to go or else!"

"If you could do just this thing for me, it's the last thing I'll ever ask! Come home with me and meet Rupert to-night."

"But dinner?"

"I'll telephone John and tell him I've carried you off and he's to have dinner at the club. It'll be good for him to see he can't have you every minute!"

Molly rose and pushed back her chair and Varia saw her darting across the room. Varia sat there very quietly, for she knew that she was giving in to Molly's whim for the very reason that she was afraid to go home. Afraid to face John, who might be sullen or angry or curt. And yet—and yet Molly clung to her and wanted her to help. Perhaps John would turn to her soon, and tell her it had all been a mistake, that he

They rolled up the rugs and shoved back the chairs and Varia, watching them, saw them dancing slowly smoothly about the long room. Molly, her face tilted back dreamily, her cheeks rather pale, the young Englishman stiff but graceful, silent as the girl.

The clock on the mantel struck nine.

Molly tore herself out of his arms. "Oh, I shall have to ask you to go now," she begged. "You'll forgive me, won't you, but—her eyes were full of entreaty. Varia watched them as they went to the door."

When Molly came back, a few minutes later, her eyes were shining, her hands were like ice.

"How did you like him, Varia? Oh, but he's furious, furious! He says I'll have to make some explanation and I just had to shove him out of the door, because I told Jim to come at nine!"

They both turned to see Jim Cather on the threshold.

"Oh, Varia, this is nice," Jim said pleasantly. His long, dark face red from the cold.

In spite of the presence of Varia his eyes could not hide his feeling for Molly.

He threw himself down on the couch and the ash tray with a cigarette still smoking caught his eye. He looked at it for a moment, regretfully. "I say, you told me you weren't going to smoke any more for Mary," he said gravely.

Molly piated a frown in her dress, then she suddenly hid her hand for she had not changed engagement rings.

"I did say I wouldn't smoke for you," Molly answered.

She was wondering desperately how she could get across to the mantel and change her engagement rings without Jim's noticing.

Jim was frowning. There was something the matter, an atmosphere of tension that could not be hidden. They all three turned with relief when the maid at the door announced, "Something for you, Miss Molly," and she handed Molly a long white box with the gilt of the florist on the corner.

"Oh, yes," Molly said, trying to put it down as though it were unimportant.

"Why don't you open your flow-ers?" Jim frowned.

Molly, in despair, wondering which man had sent them, tore off the wrapping and, beneath the soft folds of tissue paper, saw an exquisite spray of lilies-of-the-valley, with a single lavender orchid.

The writing on the card she recognized as that of Rupert Hamlin.

The gloom in the room became more intense and Varia, between laughter and tears, rose to go.

"John's coming for you," Molly said, and then, forgetting herself, she added, "Oh, it must be so simple just to have one husband!"

Varia had her coat on when John ran up the brown stone steps of the old fashioned house of Dr. Stilwell's. As she kissed Molly good-bye, she whispered, "Good luck, but Molly said in a despairing voice, 'Aren't I got to go back to him and make some explanation!'"

As the door closed behind them and Varia walked beside John through the silent street, she lifted her face to the stars, like bits of crystal in the purple night sky.

"I had to tell you to come for me," Varia said softly.

"At least we are going to be friends," John asked.

Varia, as she answered yes, wondered if he knew how much she loved him—wondered if he were never going to understand—

She tore off her gloves, and they dropped on the table. She lifted her hands to her hat and took it off brushing back the curling hair from her forehead with a little weary gesture.

John, with his hands in his pockets, was walking about, looking at all their possessions, touching a table here, a jar there, nervously. He whistled tunelessly but the sound stopped as Varia cried, "John!"

He came over to her looking down into the white blue face from which the blue eyes looked tragically. He put both hands on her shoulders but Varia pulled herself away with flaming cheeks.

"John, we've made a mistake," she said avoiding his eyes.

"What?"

"It was my fault—I can't talk about it—now. You don't love me, John."

Varia, frowning, "Don't. I want to tell you now, I can stay here simply as a companion, a friend."

He frowned down at her.

The cabs were rising in her throat. She turned quickly so that he would not see and, going to her room, flung herself across the bed.

The total receipts for phosphate rock in 1920 were more than twice as much as in any other year. The average price per ton for the entire output was $6.11, as compared with $5.10 in 1919.

The value of the roofing slate sold was $2,524,000, as against $3,085,957 in 1919.—Bradstreet's.

AQUITANIA GIVEN LIVELY RECEPTION MAKING NEW YORK

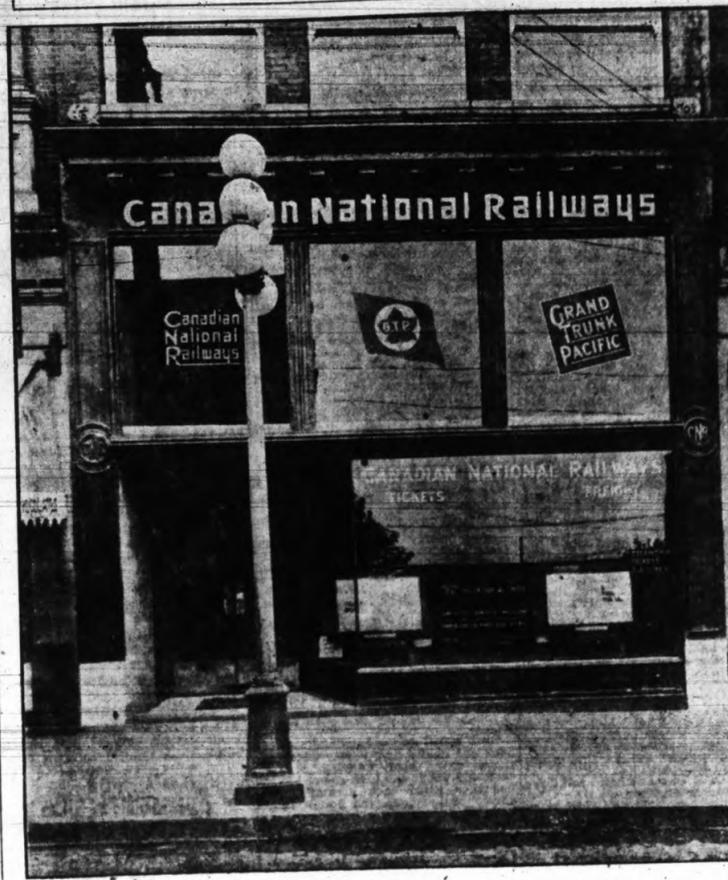

New York, May 21.—Police reserves and sympathizers of striking marine workers clashed last night at the Cunard Line piers during a street demonstration while the Aquitania docked. The sympathizers paraded in front of the piers with banners denouncing the liner's strikers, many of whom were clerks in the Liverpool office of the company who had taken the place of the strikers to enable the vessel to make the voyage. Stones were hurled at the police, who fired several shots. Before the reserves arrived the paraders severely beat a negro fireman. The disturbance was quelled by the time the Aquitania's passengers were ready to leave the pier.

PORT IS UTILIZED FOR TRANSHIPMENT OF ATLANTIC CARGO

Freighter Durban Maru to Reload Freight Here for New York via Panama

For the first time in history, Victoria is being utilized as a port of trans-shipment for freight consigned from the Orient to Atlantic coast ports by the all-water route. Some 200 tons of Oriental freight landed here by the liner Kashima Maru, it is understood, will be re-shipped aboard the N. Y. K. freighter Durban Maru for delivery at New York, instead of being sent overland by rail. The Durban Maru, which is now due at Seattle to discharge 1,000 tons of freight from the Orient, is expected to call here May 26 to take aboard the shipment which will be taken to New York by way of the Panama Canal. With the increased rail-freights the shipping companies are finding it in their interest to use the water course where possible with the result that the Panama Canal is being more largely used by the shipping operators for the delivery of through freights at seaport destinations, thus eliminating the rail haul.

NAVY MEN DEMAND DISTINCTIVE BADGE

Men Who Served Afloat in War Seek Same Emblem As Issued to Soldiers

Navvies men who served afloat in the Great War demand that their services be recognized by a distinctive badge of the design issued to the Army men. The matter was discussed at last night's meeting of the Esquimalt Naval Branch of the G. W. V. A. and will be brought up by the local delegates attending the Provincial convention next month. The badge, it is claimed, is not held in the same regard as the soldier badge. Over sixty navy men, inclusive of marines, were present at last night's meeting at the G. W. V. A. headquarters, and seven new members were taken into the organization. Best wishes for the success of the naval organization were extended in the evening.

SPECTATOR MAKING PORT NEXT WEEK WITH U.K. FREIGHT

Arizona Maru, Protesilaus and Makura Are Also Expected Here

According to information reaching the local agents the British freighter Spectator, of the Harrison Direct Line, which is now on the coast from the United Kingdom, is expected to make this port about May 26. The Spectator should be reported at San Francisco to-day, and after discharging part cargo will steam from the California port for Victoria direct. Another offshore arrival next week will be the Japanese liner Arizona Maru, of the Osaka Shosen Kaisha fleet, now inbound from the Orient. The Arizona Maru is looked for at this port May 25. The liner Arabia Maru, of the same fleet, is posted to sail outboard this day week. On Friday of next week the Blue Funnel liner Proteilaus is due to arrive from the Far East. This morning the Holt liner Tyndareus got away from the Outer Docks, laden with a full cargo for the Orient. A number of Chinese stevedores passengers boarded the ship here. The Canadian-Australasian liner Makura is approaching Honolulu and should dock at the Hawaiian port tomorrow. The Makura is scheduled to arrive here next Saturday.

SHE HAS OBTAINED COMPLETE RELIEF Winnipeg Young Lady Says Tanlac Overcame Her Troubles After Suffering Over Two Years

Miss Florence Campbell, a popular young lady residing at 380 River Avenue, Winnipeg, is now an enthusiastic witness to the wonderful merits of Tanlac. She says: "I certainly am a strong believer in Tanlac, for it gave me complete relief when all the other medicines I took for over two years never even helped me. My troubles started about two and a half years ago, when I had a bad case of influenza, with a slight touch of pneumonia, which kept me in bed for five weeks. When I finally got up I was almost too weak to stand, and it looked like I just couldn't regain my strength. "Then about a year ago I began to suffer from indigestion and got so I actually dreaded to eat on account of the misery that always followed. After meals I always had an aching in the pit of my stomach, and was often so sick I could hardly retain what I had eaten. I was nervous and restless and never got much sound sleep. Although I tried every imaginable kind of medicine I kept getting worse all the time. "But I saw so much about Tanlac I got a bottle and when I had finished that bottle I felt like a different person. I kept on with it and now I have a splendid appetite, never suffer from indigestion, and sleep fine at night. I have completely regained my strength and feel as well as I ever did in my life. I think Tanlac is just grand and am all the time telling my friends about it." Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell and other Druggists.

MORE HOUSING AID?

Dominion Government Likely to Continue Scheme As a Relief Measure For Returned Men.

Extension of the Federal housing scheme for returned soldiers for another year is forecast in a message from the Committee on Pensions to the G. W. V. A. branch here. Returned soldiers here aim to be able to abolish the G. W. V. A. relief fund by getting house-building started again. Under the scheme which came out at the end of the war, the Dominion Government, the Provincial Government and the City Council each advance one-third the cost of building a house to returned soldiers. The advances are repaid over twenty years by the returned soldier.

On May 9 a delegation representing the G. W. V. A. appeared before the committee and gave evidence on the unemployment situation in Toronto," says the message. "Following this the chairman had a conference with the Prime Minister, and was assured that the relief measure which was established last year by the Federal Government, granting one-third of disbursements for relief, would be continued. Furthermore, the chairman was also assured that the Department of Labor and the Soldiers' Settlement Board would be in close touch with the unemployment situation elsewhere in view of this attention of the two departments will be called respecting the representations made in your telegram."

The total score made will be counted for the competition, all members in good standing being eligible for the shooting. Five prizes have been donated for the affair the first being a Winchester Rifle, valued at $17. A fishing outfit will be given for the second prize, while the third, fourth and fifth will be met with a silver spoon suitably engraved. The boys of the W. J. R. C., numbering near the hundred mark, are taking a very keen interest in the weekly shoots, and this competition is assured of a well-packed list of contestants.

Final Performance To-night, After Week of Entertainment and Lectures

To the audience at the Chautauqua tent last night the Jess Coffey-Martha Miller Players presented a pleasing version of "The Rivets," Richard S. The Chautauqua circuit closes in this city to-day, with the final performance at 8.15 this evening. This afternoon the Scottish Canadian Concert Party presented a delightful programme of musical and popular song hits of the Land of the Thistle, while this evening the concert party will open the final performance in a like manner. "The Rivets," as a lightning artist of note, will hold the stage at the closing period, his ability with crayon and paper being remarkable. It is anticipated that the large gathering will be on hand to big farewell to the Chautauqua entertainers.

The band of the 16th Canadian Scottish under Bandmaster Leonard Turner, will turn out a strength of thirty for the Broom Festival Parade. It was hoped that the newly-formed 16th Battalion would be in a position to also participate in the parade, but the delay in obtaining the kits and other portions of the highland equipment from the Old Country has made it impossible for the regiment to take part.

The Battalion Rifle Association will hold a shoot on the morning of Tuesday at the Clover Point ranges. The turnout for this shoot will, no doubt, be the largest of the season, as the new issue of rifles has provided for each man having his own weapon.

Lacrosse Stars For Local Squad Arrive

Billie Fitzgerald and Seven Other Players Reached Victoria This Afternoon, All In Good Shape and Will Work Out At Once For Opening Game In Vancouver On Tuesday; Local Boys Ready.

Headed by Billie Fitzgerald, one of the brainiest home players ever developed, a band of eight Eastern lacrosse players arrived in this city this afternoon. This party constitutes the nucleus of the Victoria professional team which will compete with Vancouver and probably New Westminster for the championship of the new league formed by Con Jones.

The party which arrived to-day consisted of Billie Fitzgerald and his brother Tom; Eddie Powers, one of the star defense men of the East; Art Gayder, Larry Doran, Silver Spillen, Jimmie Collins and Bud Torphy.

GREAT LACROSSE STAR WHO ARRIVED TO-DAY

BILLIE FITZGERALD

Every man in the party has been prominent in Eastern lacrosse circles for some years. Billie Fitzgerald and Eddie Powers are the best known of the eight, having been in the public eye all over the Dominion for a decade or so.

Players Welcomed. The Easterners were met on their arrival from Vancouver by a number of local sportsmen who are interested in the Victoria team. The boys were taken to an hotel and plans are being made for an early practice so that the players may be in some kind of shape for the opening game in Vancouver on Tuesday next.

The arrival of the Fitzgerald party means that the Con Jones League is going to be a hot and exciting affair. The season opened it looked as though the same old crowd would hold sway on the coast again, but when Con Jones threw his hat into the ring he upset the apple-cart, peevishly in every way. Con just smashed up the little tea-party with a wicked uppercut when he signed most of the Terminals, who last year won the Minto Cup. Then when the Pacific Coast Lacrosse Association refused to allow Conrad to get into its circle the lacrosse king stepped out and formed his own league—it begins to look as if Con will have the drop on the other side as he has the prospects of making the last year's team.

Three-Cornered Race Wanted. As the Easterners race is needed, as it creates greater enthusiasm. The Pacific Coast Lacrosse League will not enlarge itself. Vancouver and Westminster will continue their rivalry. They will never consider Victoria.

Con Jones believes that Victoria, which was the home of many championship lacrosse teams in the early days, is just as good a lacrosse town as there is on the coast. He is prepared to give the place a fair trial at all events and has brought in some of the finest stars in the East to comprise the team.

The Victoria team will include at least five local boys. "Sugar" Macdonald, Bob McKay, Ernie Munro, Joe Mitchell and Bert Johnson will be given places. "Cotton" Brynjolfsson is still considering an offer from Jones.

No Manager Yet. The manager of the local squad has not been appointed yet, but Billie Fitzgerald will probably handle the team until an appointment is made. Fitzgerald is conceded by many to be the equal of Newy Lalonde in the East he is just as good a drawing card. Billie is a header player than Lalonde and a great man for making openings.

The Capitals will go into training right away and expect to be in fair shape to open the season in Vancouver on Empire Day. The Terminals will play their second game in the Terminal City on Saturday next and perform here for the first time on Wednesday, June 1.

Opening Game To-day. Vancouver, May 21.—New Westminster and the Terminals will open the professional lacrosse season here to-day when the local forces will be reorganized, lined up, including several Eastern players, will defend the Minto Cup, emblematic of the world's championship. The schedule calls for 16 games—nine here and seven at New Westminster.

It was announced last night that Joe Reynoldson would referee the Victoria Day game between Victoria and Vancouver in the Jones League. Reynoldson is one of the oldest lacrosse fans on the Lower Mainland and well versed in the game.

The Vancouverers are working out regularly. They had a fine practice last night. Ray Carter, defense star, who went over to the Terminals day before yesterday returned to the Vancouverians last night.

COLWOOD GOLFERS CAN PLAY AT OAK BAY LINKS. Members of the Colwood Golf Club have been granted the privileges of the Oak Bay course without green fees during the four days of championship play at Colwood. ## MARANVILLE GOES ON BATTING SPREE

Famous Rabbit Climbs to Second Place in National League Hitting Race

Heilmann Leads American, But Cobb and Sisler Are Coming Up Fast

Chicago, May 21.—"Rabbit" Maranville, of Pittsburgh, was on a batting rampage during the past week and went from tenth place to second to become the runner-up to Roger Heilmann, St. Louis star, who is topping the National League regulars in batting, despite the fact that he ran into a slump. Maranville's average is .385, compared with .358 for Heilmann, the National champion of last year dropped from .471 to .457.

George Kelly, of the Giants, who is competing with Babe Ruth, of the Yankees, in the major league race for home-run honors, hit only one four-bagger which brought his total up to eight, while the American League champion has an even dozen.

Bohne, of Cincinnati, leads the base-stealers with eight thefts. Other leading batters: Schantz, St. Louis, .364; Barber, Chicago, .356; Hargrave, Cincinnati, .354; Johnson, Brooklyn, .351; McHenry, St. Louis, .348.

The averages are of some players who participated in 15 or more games including games of last Wednesday.

Cobb Coming Back. A number of surprises are in store for the American League batters in the next few weeks. Tyrus Cobb pilot of the Tigers, is back in his old tricks with the willow and promises to make things interesting for one of his outfielders, Harry Heilmann, who is leading the league with an average of .464. Cobb's mark is .395. George Sisler, St. Louis star, is coming along fast and has moved from 37th to fourth place in two weeks. His average now is .380, one point behind Heilmann. The Alabama University star now playing first base for the world champions, Cleveland.

Find of the Season. Bob Falk, White Sox outfielder, who is declared to be the find of the season, is attracting considerable attention. Falk went from .293 a week ago, to .347 and is tied with Williams, of St. Louis, for tenth place. Ruth bagged three circuit drives.

Harris added a brace of bases to his stolen-base record and is showing the way with eight.

Other leading batters: Speaker, Cleveland, .378; Ruth, New York, .375; Menck, Boston, .375; Bassler, Detroit, .362; Tobin, St. Louis, .360.

ENDERBY WINS GAME. Enderby, May 21.—The home team defeated the Kelowna baseball nine in a league game here on Thursday afternoon, score 3 to 2.

Hitting Punch Turns In Another Nice Win

With Score Tied In Eighth Capitals Laced Ball For Three Runs and Won Opening Game From Yakima; Washington Was Entitled to Shut-Out But Team-Mates Could Not See It That Way and Booted Ball.

Victoria, 5; Yakima, 2. That old hitting punch which drags ball games out of the fire in the dying moments and caused the thrills to chase up and down one's back like the chills in December was again demonstrated by the Capitals at the Stadium yesterday afternoon. With the score tied in the eighth inning the Blankers took the plate, drove over three runs on two singles, a double and a home run and copped the opening tussle with Yakima.

This was the second time in four games that the Capitals delivered an eleventh-hour punch which turned defeat into victory. In the opening game of the season Tacoma had a two-run lead in the ninth inning. The fans were leaving when the Capitals produced their hitting punch and sent home runs across the platter to win the game.

Washington Pitched Well. Johnnie Washington was entitled to a shut-out on his afternoon's work. He heaved nicely all the way and had his team mates not acted like a lot of cripples in the eighth the Crabapples would not have scored a run.

The Capitals gave Washington every chance to show what he possessed. In fact, they almost handed the game to the Raymond squad and had it not been for Washington's splendid work in the pinches the result might have been different.

Too Many Errors. In the eighth inning Church made a mess of Elliott's grounder, and Shannon followed this up by bouncing Hodges's liner. Washington did not like the looks of Lafayette's bat and walked him, filling the bases. The Crabapples were in great spirits for their clean-up hitter, Jensen, strutted to the plate. Jensen did the Casey stunt and struck out. Harrigan, who had been scratching the ball out of the infield and was an easy out at first.

In the seventh Washington also showed plenty of stuff. He had the bases filled but forced Eastley to ground out, retiring the side.

Eastley's Luck Was Out. Pat Eastley, the horseshoe king, who pitched ball here when a lot of through knot-holes at the games, didn't have his luck in his hip-pocket yesterday. He breezed up to the mound in seven innings with only two runs being scratched on him, but when the Capitals began to elude he didn't have anything that could stop a single. By ball to deep, which went for two bases and scored Shoats.

That Old Rally. In order to make up for their bad acting in the field in the first half of the eighth and ninth, the Capitals gathered runs as they went to bat. Church hit a hard ball to right field, but Jensen pulled it down and Anfinson's hard smash to short was handled by Elliott. With two men away Bankhead beat out an infield hit and Handley picked one of Eastley's slants for a home run. The ball cleared the "Drive Yourself Auto" sign in left center. This is the longest hit ever made by a player in the P. L. League.

The Capitals did not ease up. Dempsey rattled a single over second and Shoats chased him all the way home with a terrific slug. This ended the scoring, but enough runs had been scored to win the game. Washington was invincible in the ninth.

SWELL WHO REPLACED LATE RAY CHAPMAN, OF CLEVELAND, IS BEANED

Cleveland, Ohio, May 21.—The fatal accident which befell Ray Chapman, Cleveland shortstop last August, was recalled to the baseball fans here yesterday. While at bat in the fourth inning Joe Sewell, who replaced Chapman, was hit in the head by a ball thrown by Pitcher Naylor, of Philadelphia, Americans. The ball bounced high into the air after a blow which was heard throughout the stands, but Sewell finished the game, and except for a headache, suffered no ill effects.

Tacoma Goes Under. Vancouver, May 21.—With seven-teen hits and a 14 to 6 score, the Vancouver Beavers won a wild session of baseball from the Tacoma Tigers here yesterday. While Tacoma was charged with but five errors, their failure to take advantage of cut-off hits and runs was their undoing. Edwards, who worked the first four innings for Tacoma, pitched good ball, but lacked the support of his team. Both sides changed pitchers frequently.

GOLF for EVERYBODY W. J. Thompson. This is one of a series of fourteen articles by a well-known Canadian golfer, William J. Thompson won the Toronto and District championship in 1919 and 1920. In the latter year he was the fourth round in the American Amateur championship at Pittsburg. He is a Canadian amateur medalist, was the medalist in the tournament at Washington, and is one of the well-known Thompson brothers who, as a team, won several championships. He writes of his fascinations and problems, in a manner that novice and good player alike will understand and enjoy.

"MATCH AND MEDAL PLAY CONTRASTED". Medal play is somewhat different from match play. In the latter each hole is a little match in itself while in medal play the round must be considered in its entirety.

Medal play is the way the open championships are considered while the amateur title is decided by match play. Generally the former is a better test as it covers more holes and hence luck is naturalized or averaged to a greater degree than in match play and especially in this true in matches of 18 holes only.

I do not wish to enter into a discussion of the merits or demerits of the two methods here. It is a fact, that some players do better in medal play than they do in match play.

Two of the most striking examples on this continent are George S. Lyons, who won the low score five times out of seven attempts but did not win the championship once. Travers won the championship four times but never figured in the medal. Since then Lyons has won the championship twice but I do not think he has figured in the medal. Apparently he is a better medal player than he is a match player.

It is a noteworthy thing that the medal rarely wins the championship. This is so marked that a superstition has grown up that it is unlucky to win the medal. This is all in the way one looks at it but of those who believe in it, they win the medal, it certainly will sap some of their confidence.

There have been some outstanding exceptions. Hutton won both the medal and championship the year he won the American title. If I remember rightly Herron did the same thing in 1919.

However, if a player is anxious to win the tournament it would perhaps be better tactics to play well within himself and conserve much of his energy for the remainder of the games. If one is now more strenuous and if one is fortunate in going the whole way he will require all the nervous energy he possesses to relax too much, however, as there is always the odd chance of one coming a cropper as Ray almost did in the qualifying round of the recent American open. In the first round he took things so easily that he had to play almost par golf in the second round to get in whereas a little bad luck might have put him out of the running absolutely.

Another player for whom the medal running has been a bugbear is Oswald Kirkby. I hope I am not doing him an injustice but I am told that he has failed to qualify at three consecutive tournaments. He is a player of outstanding ability and is apt to take medal play into camp. But somehow medal play seems to "get his goat".

I think the reason why so many detest the medal competition is the knowledge that one hole played badly may spoil everything. This is a mighty spot makes a golfer anxious so that his shots are played too carefully and not naturally enough. In match play there is a sort of "devil may care" spirit. If one makes a mess of one hole the loss can be easily overcome. I know that is the way a lot of good match players feel and they seem to play better for it. For those whose attitude is absolutely ruinous, this is apt to make the round a number of disjointed holes. Instead of playing the game and trying to get one is apt to make his play conform to his opponent's. I know from experience that this is a bad thing. It is always distracting, and one should zealously guard against it except on rare occasions.

In medal play the game must be considered as a whole. Very few chances are to be taken. Usually the chances are of one who makes the most brilliant number of mistakes rather than the one who makes the most brilliant shots.

Sometimes it happens in a medal round that the player gets off to a bad start. This is irritating and in some instances upsetting. One begins to fret and worry and before long finds that he has worked himself into a nervous frenzy which unsettles the mental poise so necessary to good golf.

The wise golfer will look at the situation philosophically—glad that it is no worse and buoyed up with the thought that he is getting the bad shots out of the way. There are times when I admit that it requires perfect mental poise to do this, but unless one takes himself in hand quickly he is sure to go from bad to worse. The only cure for this is to relax the shots knowing that in the nature of things the average will not be unfavorable.

I remember playing in a medal competition when my partner took four putts on a short green and a seven. For the next hole I put my tee shot within 12 feet of the hole and then took four putts. It is sure not an assure soul, but I was watching my friend on the first hole go past and past and this reacted on me so that I went to the other extreme and got only half way then I went back to missed coming back and nearly missed again. Until quite recently I considered myself the worst putter in Canada and that is not far from the truth. I do not get on with my nerves but we both consoled each other and tried to take comfort in the thought (in a frail arm, an uncharitable one) that there are times when one must take chances. It may pay to be careful and sometimes as it would be fool-hardy to be anything else, but the man that usually gets there in golf as well as in business is usually the man who goes after things.

In conclusion my advice is—in medal rounds keep cool. Don't try so hard that your muscles get all tensed up which is so fatal to good golf. Try to play in your usual way. If you are nervous that usually gets there in golf as well as in business is usually the man who goes after things.

There is no more courageous match player than the veteran and ex-champion of Canada, George S. Lyons. He has won the Canadian championship no less than eight times. His style is more suited for match play than medal as the above testifies. He is a bold and aggressive player. He hits the ball a hearty wallop with every club and does not believe in taking an iron when a mashie will do. He takes plenty of chances. He tries for everything and frequently holes out from off the green.

These tactics are to be recommended in matches especially single ones, and that they are successful is evidenced by Mr. Lyons's victory over Bob Gardiner and Chick Evans—the former in the international and the latter in an exhibition game at Port Arthur. However, there are times when a somewhat individual style of the ordinary person might be well advised to try to strike a happy medium.

In contrast to Mr. Lyons's present "Canadian Champion, Charles Grier, has a style that is smooth and apparently effortless. It seems to me that he should do well in medal competitions. (Copyrighted by British Colonial Press, Limited.)

Carpentier Training By Methods Unique in Ring. Manhasset, N. J., May 21.—Large colored lithographs adorning the walls of the indoor gymnasium in Georges Carpentier's training camp are among the most interesting contrivances employed by Manager Descamps and Trainer Wilson to aid in bringing the champion of France into condition and keeping him there. On one wall is a large poster showing the Frenchman standing in triumph over Joe Eckert, at the knockout. At the other side of the ring Carpentier is shown after the victory being hoisted to the shoulders of admirers. Around the walls are other pictures of the European champion. Admittedly, he is not to be allowed to forget the slogan of the camp, which is that he is the greatest boxer in the world and sure to be the champion after the war.

PRINCESS
 There is an old saying that "rolling stones" gather no moss. Some one has added, "But they acquire a high polish," and this applies most appropriately to the play entitled "Rolling Stones" and playing at the Princess Theatre, for as an up-to-date comedy drama "Rolling Stones" is a highly polished gem of such brilliant cleverness that it simply sparkles, originality is apparent in every well written situation and its keen humor is only equalled by its strong human appeal and pathos. There is a lesson well worth learning in this brilliant play, and no one, without recalling the hero of "Rolling Stones," and struggling to his feet again to have another try, and knowing as he goes that the man who drops out of the race while he has an ounce of strength with which to stagger on may have missed the great prize, for "Success" is just around the corner.
 The next play to be produced is "Broadway and Buttermilk," by Willard Mack. This play is a real comedy drama which affords Miss Fiske excellent opportunity and in fact, the entire cast will be seen to advantage. The Wednesday night contest continues with a cash prize of $5 for the one guessing nearest the correct number of words spoken by Byron Allen in "Rolling Stones." The evening performance will take place at 8 o'clock. "Broadway and Buttermilk" will open Tuesday, May 24.

ROYAL VICTORIA
 Production of "Lessons in Love," said to be the best Constance Talmadge picture yet made was temporarily interrupted in New York when the star got married and went on a brief honeymoon.
 The picture, which will be the attraction at the Royal Victoria Theatre for the last time to-day, was but half finished when the studio was surprised by news of the wedding. Director Chet Withey had to wait a week before resuming work with the company.
 The ceremony took place at Green-wich, Conn., being performed by a justice of the peace, after which Miss Talmadge left with her husband, John Piatoglu, for a short honeymoon at Atlantic City.
 Their honeymoon was of necessity brief, as "Lessons in Love" had to be delivered to Associated First National Pictures, Inc. at an early date, and for that reason the star returned to work on it without any undue delay. And according to Director Withey, she did the very best work of her career.
 Mr. Piatoglu is a wealthy New York importer and exporter of cigars and cigarettes. He is 25 years old, tall, dark, and handsome. The Piatoglus have a suite at a New York hotel.
 Following production of "Lessons in Love" and the star's marriage, "Wedding Bells" was very appropriately selected as Miss Talmadge's next vehicle. Her marriage will in no way interfere with her plans of the future, according to announcement from the Talmadge studio where it was pointed out that recently the Talmadge sisters entered into a contract to make pictures for Associated First National releases for an additional three years.

DOMINION
 Millions of readers have read with delight Anna Sewell's wonderful book, "Black Beauty," and probably most of them have thought of it only as a remarkable and appealing work of fiction, as a matter of fact, the qualities of mind which made the production of this masterpiece possible were a faculty of them and never patient observation, a warm sympathy with the lives and feelings of the lower animals, and a power of effective literary expression.
 There are people who have admired and loved "Black Beauty" while thinking of a sort of pretty fairy story. These will wonder how horses could be made to act like the equine characters in "The Autobiography of a Horse" in putting the story into motion pictures. As a matter of fact, horses do not have to be made to do such things, for they do them all naturally, spontaneously. The qualities of an equine language, of course, is irrelevant. Every one who has intelligently observed horses for even one day knows that they do and manifest their feelings and thoughts to each other in some degree.
 On the other hand, Anna Sewell has her equine characters do things which no horse could be trained to do at command. Because of this, Director David W. Smith and the camera men had to spend weeks of thrilling interest woven by Mr. George Randolph Chester about Jessie Gordon, Harry Blomfield and other human friends and acquaintances of Black Beauty, is one of the most remarkable of Vitaphone's special productions.
 Thousands of questions have been asked as to how and in what manner "Black Beauty" was to be put into motion pictures. The best and most satisfactory answers will be given at the Dominion Theatre this week, when "Black Beauty" is seen on this screen.

PANTAGES
 A South African story by Cynthia Stockley serves as Ethel Clayton's latest Paramount vehicle, "Sins of Rosanne," which will be shown at Pantages Theatre Monday and Tuesday.
 Miss Clayton plays the most unusual film heroine seen in many moons. Saved from death as an infant by an old Malay woman, the daughter of a wealthy English widow living near the Kimberley diamond mines grows into womanhood imbued by the Malay with an insatiable craving for bright stones. This leads her into a diamond smuggling scheme in which she is the second place of a sinister jeweler. But romance enters her life and, after exciting adventures, she is freed from the Malay's influence and becomes her real self.
 "Sins of Rosanne" attracts by the unusual character of its story, and

COLUMBIA
 It was a good thing for the sport-loving public of this country that Tex Rickard was strong enough to brave the criticism hurled at him for staging the Dempsey-Brennan match at the Madison Square Garden on the night of December 14, and in addition to putting on the battle to have motion pictures taken of the contest.
 In the first place the contest proved that Dempsey is not the great "man killer" he is touted to be, that he is not invincible to the strength and courage of another batter in his class, and it also proved that Georges Carpentier will have a very good chance of annexing the world's heavyweight title when the two meet.
 Many of the experts, when they saw the course of cards which they had built for Dempsey come tottering down, at once shouted that he allowed Espinasse to stay for the sake of the picture, but the pictures themselves prove that the champion had to use every ounce of his great strength, and every bit of his speed, to avoid being dethroned, and this is very clearly shown in the second "sweated blood" fight.
 In the second stanza, one of the clearest pictures shown in the series, Dempsey was in bad shape, and it was only the great lack of ring generalship on the part of Brennan which saved him. It was his rare strength which enabled him to weather the storm for the succeeding ten rounds.
 Brennan was not put away with the rabbit punch. The ravings of the ring-side experts faded into whispers when they saw the pictures, which show clearly and distinctly the blow which put an end to the title hunting ambitions of Mr. Brennan. The fans who have missed seeing the actual battle will see the fracas in more detail and much clearer in the picture than any of the thousands who were able to get into historical Madison Square Garden on the night of December 14.
 The pictures are showing at the

GREK PLAY "DANAE" PROMISES BIG SUCCESS
 Local Organizations Will Assist in Popularizing Performance
 The producers of the Greek play "Danae" which will be given in the open air at the residence of George Bushby, St. Charles Street, on the evenings of June 27, 28 and 29, are asking the Rotary, Kiwanis and other organizations in Victoria to co-operate in making the affair a big success.
 It is believed to be the only open-air play ever put on in Victoria and a great deal of interest has been created in connection with the production. Vancouver and Seattle people having signified their intention of attending.
 It will be an unusual sight to witness scores of players in their Greek costume surrounded by the scenery that nature affords. People of all ages, from young children to the very aged, will appear in the play, which it is believed, will be attended by many hundreds of interested spectators.
 In a play of this sort weather conditions, of course, must be relied upon to a considerable extent for its success, and in this respect it is safe to say that everything will be entirely satisfactory as the time chosen for the production forms one of the most charming seasons of the year in Victoria.
 Splendid progress is being made with the play, the rehearsals proving very satisfactory. Miss Roberta Balcom is teaching some very pretty dances, for which the music is being arranged by Mrs. Gertrude Huntley Green, and Kenneth Angus will sing a song composed by himself.
 The stage will be set in beautiful surroundings, and Alex. McPhillips has just completed the immense sixty-foot curtain. Among the beautiful features of the play will be a beautiful ballet by Secchi, "Love Me or Not," which will be sung by R. B. McKenzie.

VARIETY
 Recently there has been no end of rumors going about the country that Douglas Fairbanks has got tired of real work and the producing of pictures, and—like the ninety-nine per cent. of all such stories, they have no foundation. "Doug" is happier in his new atmosphere than ever before, and when he was told that there were rumors that he was to retire from the screen, he just grinned and said: "Oh! such talk is preposterous." The Mark of Zorro" is Fairbanks' latest United Artists release which is to be the feature at the Variety Theatre to-day for the last time, and immediately after he had completed that picture he was hard at work on another, and was making arrangements for additional pictures that will be distributed by the United Artists.

IN AVIATION CIRCLES

Eddie Hubbard, the U. S. Aerial Mail pilot, has been keeping up a steady service during the last few days. He was over on Friday and Saturday of last week and again on Monday and Thursday of this week. He landed here on Friday afternoon with late mails from Seattle for the Katori Maru which left here in the morning, and sailed from here in the afternoon.

On Saturday he met the incoming Arabia Maru and took two bags of express letter matter from her, delivering them in Seattle some ten hours ahead of the vessel itself, making a difference of over twenty-four hours on the train service in distribution. On Monday the B. C. Air Station at Jericho Beach sent a flying boat, which landed here at 8.30 o'clock in the morning, while in the afternoon Hubbard was over again with his flying boat, both to meet the Empress of Russia—Hubbard to get his mails and the government machine to watch the liner on her trip up to Vancouver, in connection with the suspected drug traffic.

On Thursday morning, Hubbard came yet again to this port to meet the incoming Kaahima Maru, getting his allotment of mails and making a quick return voyage to the Sound city. Thanks to the excellent slip built for him by Rithet Consolidated Ltd., the U. S. aerial mail pilot glides down into the mouth of the harbor, takes his mail and gets away with a celerity that is the highest form of service.

Hubbard has been flying between Seattle and Victoria since October 1 last year when he secured the contract for the U. S. aerial mails. He has conducted to date what has proved to be one of the most successful of all aerial mail services in any country and in any part of the world, and without parallel in the United States and Canada. Hubbard is putting the sanity and dependability of careful flying into effect, not only on every day and in all weathers, and is perhaps one of the best known aeronautical men on this continent to-day.

The combined aerial mail service in the United States now totals 3,460 miles, covered every day. Some thirty-five cargo and mail planes are in the air every day. The flying distance, in round trips per day, totals roughly 8,000 miles. The longest air route is between New York and San Francisco with divisional points at Cleveland, Chicago, Omaha, Cheyenne, Salt Lake City and Reno. Between 10,000 and 40,000 letters are carried daily between divisional points on this route. In all nearly 100 machines are listed in the U. S. airmail service, which in spite of some very serious setbacks in its first two years of operation is now finding its feet more securely every day. Four German machines in use by the aerial postman crashed badly, and as a result the service has scrapped the remaining four captured machines which it had been allotted.

The day of the amphibious aeroplane has arrived. Aeronautical scientists have been experimenting for a considerable period on a machine that would take to both land and water kindly, if not at the same time, at least one after the other. The first stage in this progression was the detachable undercarriage, which was ably demonstrated in the trans-Atlantic attempts, where several of the machines dropped their undercarriages as soon as they got in the air, and at least one dropped it before it got in the air—unluckily.

Taking off from the waters of the Seine, in the heart of Paris the amphibious machine referred to, last week covered the distance between there and London in two hours, dropping down into the waters of the Thames at the Parliament Buildings, Westminster, and taxing gracefully up its slip on to dry land.

Before the aerial monster left the water, three undercarriage wheels were shot out from within its "vitals" and the amphibious creature gracefully and happily on to dry land. On board was General Sir Frederick Sykes, controller general of civil aviation in Great Britain and Laurent Eynac, under secretary of state for aviation in France, a new post by the way, that is a hopeful augury for the future of aviation in France.

"It was a speedy and successful flight," stated General Sykes, "and the machine responded admirably to all demands made upon her."

A London despatch this week gives an interesting idea of the spread of aerial routes in Europe, and gives a review of the aeronautical situation there that should be viewed, in careful thought, before a map before the full significance of the route in operation is brought home. It states: "Almost daily extension of passenger and mail service by air is rapidly making Europe a network of aerial transportation lines."

"Negotiations are now nearing completion for an airway from Berlin via Riga to Moscow, and when this service is completed it will be possible to travel by air from London to Moscow, a distance of nearly 2,000 miles.

"Berlin is connected with London by the Dutch service through Amsterdam. This Dutch branch also has inaugurated service between Paris and Amsterdam.

"The existing London-Paris service connects at Paris with the airway to Warsaw which goes by way of Strassbourg and Prague."

"The Franco-Russian Air Service Company, which is responsible for this airway, has obtained concessions from the Austrian and Rumanian Governments and hopes shortly to open an airway that will connect London through Paris with Constantinople."

If these routes are marked in red ink on a map of Europe the result will be a surprise, as the extent of the territory thus covered is almost the whole of the northwestern European continent, and these are not playthings—but commercial lines in business for gain.

Canada's Greatest Need

POPULATION.
By Thos. E. Sedgwick.

Many superficial observers are apt to remark that capital is needed more than people. These fail to observe how large a proportion of Canada's capital issues have been subscribed in the Dominion; how money always follows men from other countries where there is a surplus; and how population has converted Canada from a wilderness to a granary and a great market for the world's surplus capital in its raw state—muscle or brain.

As it is equally important to keep capital as far as possible in a new country, every effort should be made to encourage settlers to stay here when they have accumulated surplus wealth. Unless such efforts are made officially new settlers are wont to go home for a visit and sometimes they don't return, but they do bring back some of the surplus from the country. Others make filial remittances to help the older people at home. These leakages, although small, individually and collectively a large annual drain on the national wealth.

How much better would it be if persons established here were enabled to get out their surplus and friends to join them at reduced rates of passage, as is done in Australia and New Zealand. There the Government subsidizes approved persons to immigrate their friends provided they are willing and able to become responsible for their full maintenance and employment for the first year of their residence in the country. When necessary a guarantee that the obligation will be honored may be required, but such a guarantee is not the main object of a visit home is removed, and all money used for the maintenance of such nominees is spent in the country.

The absence of skilled artisans in any manufacturing industry often reduces the possible employment of less skilled workers. Australasian employers are at liberty in such cases to import their own skilled workers, but only ninety-four machines are allowed to supply them locally. Examples of the need of such key workers are numerous. A woolen mill and 400 vacancies, but only ninety-four machines are allowed to supply them locally. Examples of the need of such key workers are numerous. A woolen mill and 400 vacancies, but only ninety-four machines are allowed to supply them locally.

The export of cash to assist emigrants at home is another drain on the wealth of the Province. In several of the eastern provinces, branch homes are established in connection with orphanages in the Old Country. Their children are sent out from the mother institutions and they are distributed therefrom to approved homes where they can grow up as Canadians and the supply of their food and clothing, their education, supervision and other services afford a great deal of employment to Canadians. So far, 400 such children have been received in Canada and almost all have done well. None have, however, yet come to British Columbia.

The interests of labor every person pays out of Canada, who could be absorbed here, is a direct reduction in the employment of other Canadians. The interests of all the people are intertwined and thus identical. It is not merely the employment created by an increase of population, but the people so engaged require in their turn the services of others to supply their needs. If, however, they themselves are unemployed or underemployed their demands for such services have to be proportionally reduced.

For example, were Canada to be able to manufacture or produce the whole of the people's needs, the introduction of new arrivals would require the services of 200 persons to provide for their necessities. These 200 would afford employment to 100 more. The eventual arrival of 400 persons would thus secure the absorption of 800 persons. To protect further the interests of labor could not find sufficient employment to fifty or seventy-five per cent. of the assured permanent situations for which no suitable workers were locally available.

This interdependence was evidenced in a small country town. Sixteen of the leading tradespeople were seated together at the eastern table and "here is $10.00 I owe you. The recipient handed the bill over to a neighbor with the request that he would credit his account therewith. He again passed the bill to another with the same object. Eventually the $10 will find its abiding place after it had passed through accounts among the sixteen neighbors.

Advantages of Increased Population Some people still maintain that the people of a country are more prosperous in proportion to the density of its population. Provided they are scientifically introduced and placed out in proportion to the needs of the district, nothing could be further from the truth.

If it did apply, the natural corollary would be that Canada and other countries would benefit by a reduction in population. Yet the people propounding such an extraordinary doctrine show little or no inclination to increase the density of their own community by removing elsewhere. Would to God they did, as Canada is no place for fools.

The older inhabitants know how the country has progressed in direct proportion to the increase in her population and the same law will prevail in the future. In a population where more population there would be more freights and more passengers on the railways and this would release for further development. The sums which now have to be found by the Federal Treasurer to finance the Government lines of railways, the debt charges and other taxes per head could be reduced even to half their present pressure in proportion to the number of taxpayers. The permanence and increase of employment depend proportionately on the number of employers and consumers. As all the population are included therein, the more the people the greater the employment of all.

Everything listed in The Times classified ads but false teeth.

World-Recovery Sure If Germany Does Not Default

The start of real world recovery is seen by many in Germany's eleventh-hour acceptance of the terms imposed by the Allied Reparations Commission — unless Germany defaults on her agreement. By this submission—delayed until the shadow of French invasion lay black across the Ruhr valley—"a tremendous menace is lifted from the world," declares The New York Herald, which bids the nations rejoice "at the new prospect of peace, tranquility and stability."

A Paris dispatch quotes Thomas W. Lamont, the American banker, who, during the treaty negotiations, was financial adviser to the United States Government, as saying that German acceptance of the reparation programme means "salvation for Germany and a new era for the rest of Europe;" and The New York Daily News admonishes us that "this is an excellent time for the people of the United States of America to stop worrying and go back to work."

The leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST this week presents American public opinion on the effect that Germany's surrender will have upon the peace and future prosperity of the world. It also shows the total amount Germany must pay to the Allied nations, how it is to be paid and how it is to be divided.

VICTORIA DAY

Sixty Years Ago at Beacon Hill.
(By T. J. D.)

Few of the older residents remain, who attended the celebration of the birthday of the late Queen Victoria, which was celebrated at Beacon Hill Park, sixty years ago.

The late ex-mayor of Victoria, Thomas Harris, was the leader in all of the racing events, assisted by J. Howard of Esquimalt and a committee of officers of the Royal Navy and civilians.

All races were open to horses from any part of the coast, while no admittance fee was charged for seats in the grand stand, located on the side of the Park facing the waters of the straits. The grand stand, with the high starting building and weighing shed were alongside the track.

In the early days, there was a great deal of rivalry between the owners of race horses. Betting was indulged in, without restraint, while thousands of dollars were staked on the favorite horses of the Americans and Englishmen present. For weeks before, professional jockeys were seen, with blanketed horses, exercising the animals, and preparing them for the great event. In the numerous saloons, and club rooms, gamblers discussed the merits of the animals, and staked their money freely.

Crowds assembled at Beacon Hill before one o'clock on the afternoon of the holiday, while the owners led their respective animals around the paddock, awaiting the signal to saddle up and prepare for the first race. A colored man, named Pat Carter, would walk up and down the track, ringing a hand-bell. The portly starter, on a horse not much larger than himself, would gallop up and down the track, warning people to make room for the horses; Jim Laucelles and the other jockeys would unblanket their horses, and enter the weighing rooms, carrying their saddles with them, while attendants would sponge the mouths of the animals, and make all preparations for the first event on the programme. At the word, from the starter, the horses would make off towards Clover Point, rounding the foot of the hill in full sight of those on the summit. All races were keen and close. The owners of horses knew the respective merits of the animals they had to contend with. Thousands of dollars depended on horse and jockey and every effort was made, by man and beast to win the substantial prize.

Race after race would be carried out in quick succession, until the close of the afternoon's sport. During the evening a ball would be held in the Park Hotel, where proprietor Lyons catered to the guests. It was also usual to have a performance in the Theatre Royal, which then stood on Government Street, near the corner of Bastion Street. In the early days the Park was also used for all games of baseball, between the amateur teams. The Amity baseball team met with the best teams of the State of Washington, in games that attracted large numbers. Few of the people who engaged in the races and ball games are now living.

The races and ball games brought about match races and games which continued throughout the Summer months. Victoria was the sporting centre for the whole of the coast north of San Francisco. Money was plentiful, and large sums were wagered on the various events.

Making love is a game that two can play at, but when there are three it is hard work.

ROAD COURTESY AIDS MOTORISTS

Spirit of Kindly Feeling Adds Greatly to Joy of Country Motoring

One of the big pleasures of modern motoring lies in the fact that whether the trip is for 100 or 1,000 miles the motorist has every reason to feel sure that he will finish his journey without having to climb out of his car to undertake the disagreeable job of making repairs on the road.

But now and then some mishap occurs, and a courtesy of the road that all motorists can extend with the little inconveniences to themselves in an offer of help to a fellow motorist whose car has become stranded such an offer is particularly timely if the scene of the mishap is some point whose remoteness from a garage would make it difficult to get assistance.

Owner Caught Unaware

Even the most careful owners are caught unaware at times and find themselves far from home and minus some tool that is essential in making a repair. For instance, not so long ago a man who prides himself on his equipment got a puncture on a lone road. He felt he had no cause for worry, for locked on the back of his car were two new tires ready for just such an emergency.

But when he went to get one of these tires he could not find the key to the lock. He was just getting ready to wreck the lock when a car drew up with an offer of assistance.

It happened that the good samaritan had a key that opened the lock, and put an end to the difficulty.

Many Women Unskilled

With a number of woman drivers rapidly increasing, some of them not skilled in coping with tire trouble or bad ignition there is an especial need for a chivalrous attitude on the part of experienced drivers. The women probably ought not to be driving at all unless they know enough about a car to be able to make simple repairs, but the fact remains that some are without the requisite knowledge. Moreover equal suffrage has not yet reduced the woman to the status of man to the point where the average male would be able to square himself with his conscience if he paid no heed to a woman in distress.

In order to extend an offer of this sort it is not necessary to go through a lot of formality, a mere wave of the hand frequently serves the purpose. But it is this spirit of kindly courtesy that adds to the joy of motoring and increases the pride of motorists in their class.

PUBLIC BODIES SUPPORT CLAIM TO CLASSIFICATION

Beach Drive, Saanich Peninsula, as Secondary Highway

Public bodies in Victoria have supported the claim of Saanich Municipal Council that Beach Drive in the Saanich Peninsula should be classified by the Government as a secondary highway and financial aid granted on that basis. It has been contended that ninety per cent. of the traffic over this drive comes from motorists outside of the district.

Beach Drive is one of the most popular and attractive motor drives in the district and in consequence of this the motor travel is exceedingly heavy. The Saanich Council recently appealed to the Government for a classification as a secondary highway and the Chamber of Commerce and the Victoria Automobile Club both of which organizations are affiliated with the Good Roads League of British Columbia and with the Canadian Good Roads Association, expressed themselves in favor of the contention.

At a meeting held in Cadboro Bay Hotel this week E. A. Pauline, M. P. for Saanich, informed those present that the Provincial Government would spend $1,500 to assist in the repairing of Beach Drive and Reeve Watson of Saanich stated that the municipally would appropriate a like sum for the purpose.

As a result of this improvement Beach Drive over the stretch to Elk Lake will be put in good condition for a period of at least two years and at the conclusion of this period the Government will again be asked to consider the classification of Beach Drive as a secondary highway.

Motorists will be pleased to learn of this satisfactory arrangement with respect to this much-used driveway.

Motoring In Sylvan Scenery of Island

brought out, the motorist is usually exonerated and the press gives this news a few lines. If the papers would show when the pedestrian is at fault and when the motorist is wrong this publicity would do a great deal towards wiping out much of the existing ill feeling between pedestrians and motorists. I am both a motorist and a pedestrian and I believe I can speak for both in making my plea for co-operation.

Better Planned Cities

"Finally I want to point out to you the vital importance of town planning in connection with street accidents. For instance, Toronto, with a population of 600,000 with over 30,000 motor cars, with thousands of wagons and street cars, has narrow roadways designed for the traffic of fifty years ago. A city with narrow streets breeds traffic accidents unless drastic action is taken. I believe we shall come to the question of taking the street cars off certain main thoroughfares and having one way street car lines on other streets. Above everything though, may I plead with you for your co-operation in this question of preventing accidents, and let me bespeak your hearty support of the Safety League's campaign."

SEDAN ACTS MUCH LIKE A SUBMARINE

A fiction-like accident in which a man and a woman in a closed sedan-type motor car plunged ten feet from a roadway into Sheepshead Bay in New York, were imprisoned in the car under six feet of water and were finally rescued by a mechanic, occurred recently, according to The New York Herald.

Benjamin Leffer, owner of the car, and his aunt, Mrs. Annie Lazarus, were riding along the embankment when Leffer lost control of the car which went over the bank, turned end over end until it struck the water and sank. The closed doors kept the water out for several seconds until Leffer was able to stand up in the car, which was lying on its side. Holding his aunt in his arms, he tried to open the door when water began to trickle into the car, but the pressure was so great that he could not.

Afraid to smash the glass lest they be drowned before they could crawl through the window, they waited while the water crept slowly higher and higher in the car. Then a face

Put CANADA On WHEELS Get More Done—in Less Time

That's Efficiency!

And greater individual efficiency is Canada's greatest need.

There is no other single factor that can bring this about as well as the use of more automobiles.

Then let us increase the Nation's manpower by the horse-power of motor cars!

That's what is meant by the slogan "Put Canada on Wheels." That is Overland's object in inducing present car owners to write letters on "What my car means to me."

By proving in this way the utility of the motor car—settling once and for all the fallacy that an automobile is a non-essential—it is hoped to arouse Canadians to the possibilities before this country. These possibilities can only be realized to the full, if the greatest possible use is made of the greatest modern aid to progress—motor car transportation.

If you own a car, you can help in this movement to "Put Canada on Wheels." And in doing so, your entry in Overland's big $5,000 contest may win you a handsome cash prize.

HURRY! CONTEST CLOSES JUNE 1st

We Will Pay $1000.00 for one Letter

You still have time to enter this contest—letters will be received up to June 1st.

But don't delay! Get an entry blank from your nearest Overland dealer or write to Contest Dept., Willys-Overland Limited, Toronto, Canada.

Keep your letter within 300 words. Don't mention your name or make of car in your contest letter. Put your name and address on a separate slip of paper.

The competition is open to Canadian owners of all makes, only those in the automobile business not being eligible.

- $1,000 for the best letter written by any Canadian automobile owner.
- $250 for the best letter from a farmer.
- $250 for the best letter from a doctor.
- $250 for the best letter from a commercial traveller.
- $250 for the best letter from a woman motorist.
- $100 EACH to TEN others.
- $50 EACH to TWENTY others.
- $25 EACH to FORTY others.

In all, 75 Awards, amounting to $5,000.00

As a result of this improvement Beach Drive over the stretch to Elk Lake will be put in good condition for a period of at least two years and at the conclusion of this period the Government will again be asked to consider the classification of Beach Drive as a secondary highway.

Motorists will be pleased to learn of this satisfactory arrangement with respect to this much-used driveway.

MOST ACCIDENTS OCCUR WHEN CARS AT A LOW SPEED

Pedestrians and Motorists Should Co-operate For Safety.

"Many accidents happen because people have not the point of view of other users of the roadway," said Mr. G. A. Hodgson, the 1920 president of the Ontario Motor League, and a member of the executive committee of the Ontario Safety League.

"If the motorist could get the pedestrian's point of view and the pedestrian the motorist's point of view, I am satisfied there would be fewer accidents and fatalities. Each should know the other has rights on the street and each should respect those rights. We need throughout the whole country a campaign of safety with a new slogan, 'Courtesy First'."

"Motorists pressed for years for increased speeds and were finally granted a speed of twenty miles in towns and cities and twenty-five in the open country. If it can be shown that this speed is a direct factor in causing accidents, organized motorists would be the first to ask for a reduction of the speed limits. Statistics show that most automobile accidents happen when the speed is less than fifteen miles per hour, and that speed is not really a factor in these accidents. Safety education is the great thing; people must be shown that accidents can be prevented and that better spirit of co-operation between all classes will bring about a real improvement in the situation. If a person alighting from a standing street car sees a motor approaching he should not take it for granted that the automobile will stop because of the law on the subject.

Cases of Skidding

"It is within the bounds of possibility that the driver of the motor may not have his car under proper control and the law will not stop a skidding automobile. On the other hand, it is up to the driver to study the situation continually on the street and be ready to stop the regulation six feet behind standing street cars. I am also opposed to the practice of some motorists of using the automobile horn as a form of harsh warning to 'get out of the way.' This has often the effect of making the pedestrian assert his rights and again we have the unnecessary feeling of antagonism and the lack of co-operation."

"I regret," continued Mr. Hodgson, "that all motorists are not responsible drivers. I believe that the organized motorists are careful users of our highways and that they will support all reasonable legislation. The existing regulations were brought about in the interest of safety. I feel satisfied that the pedestrian will have to be regulated in the congested areas of large cities, as traffic must be kept moving safely. The pedestrian who crosses at intersections and refuses to cross between blocks is helping to keep down the accident toll.

Value of Playgrounds Playgrounds enter largely into the question of traffic accidents, and I am of the firm opinion that money spent on playgrounds is money well invested. I am strongly opposed to the idea of setting apart certain streets as play areas at certain times of the day. The average child playing heedlessly on a protected street develops the idea that streets are safe and it is against human nature to think a child will play on one street and keep off another. For instance, if Mrs. Jones, who lives on a protected street, takes little Willie out to another section of the city where no street is set aside for play, it is unreasonable to expect him to stay off the roadway. Let us have larger playgrounds and more of them.

"We are told that three-quarters of the fatal accidents happen to children. I tell you no legislation in the law will control the child and make him responsible. The shock is no less severe if it is the child's fault. Every driver of a vehicle must use good judgment when children are on the road or even when they are likely to be there.

"Again, I think the press is a big factor in this matter of co-operation. Each motor fatality gets a prominent headline, 'Another Automobile Fatality.' The coroner's jury may bring in a true bill, but when the case goes before the courts and all the evidence is

EVERY OWNER ASKED TO DECORATE AUTO

Victoria Automobile Club Interested in May 24 Parade

Every automobile owner in Victoria who can find it possible to do so is asked to enter the decorated car contest which will form part of the parade on the morning of May 24, says Secretary R. R. Webb of the Victoria Automobile Club.

It is hoped that floats of all descriptions will be used. In former years some excellent displays were made in which the automobile played an important part. This year it is hoped that the automobile will be used for decorations with the Victoria Day celebrations.

The Victoria Automobile Club is doing all in its power to interest owners in taking part in this feature. The broom is now out in fine color and there is a plentiful supply to be had near at hand, so there can be no excuse for people failing to decorate their cars for the festival.

The club is appealing to every auto owner, whether member of the organization or not, to line up with a decorated car on Tuesday morning. At the same time there will be a good many of the club members in the parade, though it is not the intention to attend as a unit, as this would entail a good deal of waiting about to hold a position in the parade. For that reason motorists will fall in as they find it convenient.

A meeting of the directors of the club was held this week to discuss various matters and at the next general meeting, to be held shortly, the question of the club-outing will be discussed, it having been decided at the last general meeting that the first club tour should be held next month.

PLAN UNIFORM COLOR SIGNALS ON HIGHWAY

Red, Yellow and Green Signs For Wherever Traffic Warnings Are Needed

New York, May 14.—Installation of a national system of color signals for the control of motor traffic on national and state highways, similar to the standardized use of red, yellow and green in railroad systems, is suggested by highway officials of New Jersey, who have approved a bill for adoption of the plan in that state.

The bill, which contains measures approved by the committee on standards of the American Association of State Highway Officials, would have red signs to indicate first degree danger, such as railroad crossings, dead ends of roads, or lift bridges; yellow, indicating second degree danger at curves or grades, and green, showing moving or traffic danger, to be used only at road intersections.

Many national organizations interested in the move to reduce annual automobile tolls have expressed their endorsement of the bill's proposals.

Recent investigation, it is pointed out, shows that many leading American cities have failed to unite on a uniform use of color in highway signalling. Red, for instance, meaning first degree danger or an absolute stop signal in one town, is used in the next town at a place where green should be employed.

Two hundred American cities and towns are reported already to have adopted this color signal project and many more, highway officials believe, will fall in line the coming year.

ADJUST ANTI-GLARE

Some of the light diffusers or devices intended to redirect the rays of light are designed to be effective only when in a certain fixed position. Vibration may so loosen the glass in the rim that the glass will be permitted to creep around, in which case the whole scheme fails.

Not all headlights have means for anchoring the glass permanently, so it is a matter for the owner's attention to see that the glasses are properly fastened in place. If screws are used it might do to insert a lock washer under each one.

All the honey that a bee gathers during its life doesn't sweeten its sting.

THIS TABLE SHOWS TRUCK TIRE SIZES

The following table summarizes the proper size and style of tire to be recommended for use on trucks of various capacities. The tire sizes listed approximate those prescribed as original factory equipment, for trucks of the respective capacities by truck manufacturers. The listed sizes also conform to the load carrying requirements of the different capacity trucks. In using this table the nature of the work the truck is to perform is a factor that should determine for the user the proper tire to be used, if more than one tire is listed for the same capacity truck. Preceding classifications of truck uses should be utilized in determining this factor.

It must be borne in mind that the classifications respecting industrial uses of truck and tires given are very general. Under present conditions of roads, truck design, traffic and load limitations, hard and fast tire requirements cannot be laid down without the knowledge of conditions under which the vehicle will operate. Pneumatic tired trucks can be linked up with solid tired trucks in the same business, and by the intelligent use of both classes of equipment the transportation work as a whole speeded up.

$3,500,000,000 IS MOTOR SALES TOTAL

1920 Was Big Year in Automobile Production

New York, May 14.—All previous production, sales, export and registration records were passed by the automobile industry in 1920, according to statistics contained in Facts and Figures, 1921 edition, just issued by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce.

General prosperity and the increasing use of cars and trucks as economic transport units on farm and in industry are believed to be the leading factors in the increased business of the industry during the past year.

"The motor car has become an indispensable instrument in our political, social and industrial life," said President Harding in his first message to Congress on April 12. This statement which appears on the cover of the annual review of the industry, is the keynote of the 1921 edition, supported by many pages of research on the use of the car in many avenues of business. Three million motor vehicles are used by farmers, 100,000 by doctors, 20,000 are used by state governments, 10,000 by municipalities, 12,000 by rural schools, 4,000 by packing houses, several thousand by the Post Office Department and thousands more by telephone companies, salesmen, bus lines and other commercial and professional activities.

Sales of $3,500,000,000

The total wholesale business of motor vehicles, parts, tires and accessories in 1920 amounted to $3,504,814,820. This included car and truck sales of $2,252,927,678, parts and accessories of over $725,000,000 and tire replacement business of $526,750,000.

Automobile registration in the United States for 1920 totaled 9,311,295 or 22 per cent more than 1919.

RETARDED SPARK OVERHEATS AND DAMAGES A CAR

You have all seen the fellow who runs his "steaming" clanking car around town. It looks for all the world like a baby locomotive, but perhaps he does not know that this overheated condition injures the pistons, cylinders, bearings and all internal parts of the engine. Shortly he learns this for himself—after he has paid a big repair bill for information that could have been obtained from any instruction book.

If you run the car with the spark retarded, the engine will overheat and carbonize. A similar effect is caused by a crippled fan or an impeded water flow. If your engine overheats it is advisable to stop instantly and find the trouble. In an emergency a very wise thing to do is to pour an abundance of oil into the crank case. Your exhaust will smoke, but the additional oil will offer protection to the inside of the engine until relief is at hand.

Clean the belt occasionally and rid it of the oil and gummy matter. Hitch up your garden hose and send its spray through the openings in the radiator, which probably is clogged with mud. Do this from the engine side of the radiator; otherwise you may short circuit the electrical system. As a further precaution see that all hose connections are good and not partially closed on the inside, thereby retarding the water flow. This coating, though very slight, will retard radiation and cause trouble.

PROFESSOR BROAD WILL SPEAK HERE

Worshippers at St. Aidan's Presbyterian Church and at Gordon Head Presbyterian Church will have the privilege of listening Sunday to a well known Bible teacher in the person of Rev. Professor W. T. Broad, L.L.B., one of the delegates to the Methodist conference. After a strenuous life in the ministry and in the teaching profession in England, America and Canada, Prof. Broad, for health reasons, has retired to his fruit ranch in Summerland. There he continues his work as an expositor of Scripture and as a writer of a large adult class in the Union Church of interested Bible students. For seven years he was engaged with a band of translators on the 20th Century New Testament, the Gospel of St. John and the Epistle to the Colossians being his special work. As an expositor, of the Scripture he has few equals, his knowledge of Hebrew and Greek and his devotion to the inspired word making him a teacher of peculiar power. The services in St. Aidan's are at 11 and 7, and in Gordon Head at 8:15.

Church Parade.—The members of the Sons of England and Daughters of England will attend divine services at the First Congregational Church to-morrow evening. The pastor, Rev. W. D. Spence, will speak on the theme, "Sense of England—Sons of God—A Unique Relationship."

Girl Guides' Parade.—All Victoria Girl Guides are asked to meet on Sunday at 10:15 a. m. at headquarters, corner of Douglas Street and Pandora Avenue, to attend the annual Empire Day church parade, which will be held at Christ Church Cathedral. All Guides will wear full uniform.

BASIS FOR CHURCH UNION PROPOSED

Montreal, May 21.—A definite programme for church union between the Anglican and Presbyterian Churches was laid before the Montreal Presbytery at a special meeting yesterday when a report on conferences held for some months past between committees representing the churches concerned was presented.

"The document is regarded as historic since it represents the first successful effort to evolve a scheme on the lines of the Lambeth report.

The basis for union adopts the Lambeth Conference suggestions on faith and orders and accepts a Presbyterian form of commission to Anglicans and an Anglican form of commission for Presbyterians.

The Presbytery deferred discussion on this report to the next meeting on June 25.

STOCK MARKET CLOSES UNEVEN

(By Burdick Brothers, Ltd.)
New York, May 21.—The main factor surrounding the stock market to-day was the talk of further contraction in dividend disbursements, which caused the market to continue its downward trend. The talk has caused a subsidence in the outside buying for stocks at the moment. The absence of which support many issues reached new low levels for the day. The trade reviews in their previous issues in business and are looking forward to a marked improvement this fall.

Chicago.—Bullish sentiment was rampant and bearish factors which might otherwise have attracted attention were completely ignored. The advance was founded almost entirely on damage reports from the southwest. The reports in reality were repetitions of advice sent out by Mr. Ingalls when prices were high. The cash demand to take care of a reverse nature. The cash demand was slow and spot premiums were sharp. Lower, especially around the close when offerings were on a delivery basis. Shipping sales reports were not so good. The embargo reported some wheat worked to the Continent, but gave no quantitative idea of the amount. It was expected that foreign buyers would not follow the advance. Country offerings were very liberal and large receipts are expected next week. Should rains occur on Sunday, the market would be very liberal. The market has been weakened by short covering the past few days.

A Start in the Right Direction

The temptation to spend money in your pocket is greater than when your money is in a savings account in the bank. That margin of temptation may mark the difference between an opportunity to go into business later on or working for wages with nothing saved and nothing ahead, at the end of your working years.

PARKS TOUR SHOWS MANY BEAUTY SPOTS AROUND VICTORIA

Aldermanic Inspection Is Made of Resorts on Saanich Peninsula

Plans for various improvements at different parks and beaches were decided upon tentatively by the City Council during another of its visits to Mount Douglas, Elk Lake and other resorts yesterday afternoon. The Council members first visited Mount Douglas Park, where considerable improvements have been carried out this year. Clearing of a space on which motorists will be allowed to camp is proceeding at the base of Mount Douglas, and it is expected that the parking area will be ready within a few weeks. The park is beautiful beyond description at present. The party inspected the water supply at Cordova Bay and found it very satisfactory.

Elk Lake Bathing Beach.

When the party arrived at Elk Lake the other members agreed with Alderman A. E. Todd that a sandy bathing beach should be established on the shore of the lake. It was proposed that sand for this purpose should be brought to the lake shore from the hill to the east of it through a pipe. It was thought that a thin coating of sand along about a quarter of a mile of the shore would transform it into a bathing beach which would attract large crowds to the resort. The aldermen were agreeably surprised with the progress that has been made in the farming operations property there has been transformed into a well-kept farm and roads are being cut through the brush at various points. The party inspected the pavilion which Rotarians, Kiwanians and Gyros have constructed near the lake shore for the use of the Y. M. C. A. camp this summer. The pavilion is a large building supported by rustic timbers and very artistically designed. It is equipped with an enormous grate and kitchen, where cooking for the "Y" boys camp will be done.

Bad For the Geese.

Nearly five domestic geese were discovered. These birds are owned by the city and have gone wild after having been allowed to roam about at pleasure for several years. It was agreed that they should be caught and served up at the Old Men's Home some day soon. The aldermen said they probably would make an inspection of the home when the goose dinner was being served.

Filter Beds.

The big filter beds at Elk Lake have been filled with water and are now ready for the large crowds of bathers who. It is anticipated, will visit them soon. The filter beds form probably the largest swimming pools in the West.

On the return trip the aldermen visited the Rowlands' Farm property which is favored as a site for the new inter-municipal cemetery. Though they went over the area carefully the aldermen were unable to find any of the water or hard pan which they have been told makes the land unsuitable for cemetery purposes. In fact, it was generally agreed that the property would make an ideal cemetery.

A WOMAN'S HEALTH NEEDS GREAT CARE

When the Blood Becomes Watery a Breakdown Follows.

Every woman's health is dependent upon the condition of her blood. How many women suffer with headache, pain in the back, poor appetite, weak digestion, a constant feeling of weariness, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath, pallor and nervousness? Of course all these symptoms may not be present—the more there are the worse the condition of the blood, and the more necessary that you should begin to enrich it without delay. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a splendid blood-building tonic. Every dose helps to make better blood which goes to every part of the body and brings new health to weak responsive people. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are valuable to all women but they are particularly useful to girls of school age who become pale, languid and nervous. There can be neither health nor beauty without red blood which gives brightness to the eyes and color to the cheeks and lips. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up the blood as is shown by the experience of Mrs. Joe. E. Veniotte, West Northfield, N. S., who says: "For several years I was in a bad state of health. I was pale and nervous, my appetite was poor, and I suffered from many headaches and a feeling of oppression. I got so nervous that I was afraid to stay in the house alone. All this time I was taking medicine, but it only did me harm. I was growing weaker. Finally I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after using six boxes I felt much better. I had a better appetite, slept better and felt stronger. I continued taking the pills for a couple of months longer and now I am feeling as well as ever I did. I give all the credit to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and hope that my experience may be of benefit to some other weak woman."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50¢ per box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"VISIT YOUR SCHOOL" WAS POPULAR PLAN

May Parents Are Guests at City and District Schools

In connection with the campaign conducted by the School Board, parent teachers' associations, and educationalists of the city and district in "Education Week," parents of the pupils were invited to visit the schools at the various schools of the city and district. It was in fact, parents' day at the schools, fostered by the slogan of "Visit the Schools," advanced by the campaign committee, under Dr. Raynor, chairman of the School Board.

All over the city schools large numbers of parents spent the afternoon at the various institutions, and particular interest was taken in all phases of technical training, such as manual training, domestic science and other instruction of like nature. The pupils in the schools assembled and gave a very effective demonstration of the work which they were called upon to do, showing that much made reflecting unstinted credit on the capable instructors.

Some 25 people visited the display of manual training, sewing and drawing at the South School, under Principal A. A. Campbell. Like displays were in progress at the other school, where all visitors were made thoroughly welcome by S. J. Willis, Superintendent of Education; J. D. Gillies, assistant superintendent; W. H. M. May, Inspector; Chairman Dr. Melbourne Raynor, Mrs. Spafford and Mrs. Anderson, School Board.

Disapproval of the Provincial Government in not allowing civil servants their statutory increases was also expressed.

M'BRIDE MEN URGE SHIPBUILDING HERE

Also Protest Against Re-establishment Offices Being Moved Away

Members of the McBride Conservative Club at their meeting in Belmont House last night passed resolutions denouncing the Hon. Mackenzie King and other Eastern Liberals who have opposed the building of ships by the Dominion Government, and also protested against the removal from Victoria of returned soldier re-establishment offices.

The removal of the S. S. B. is likely to work a great hardship to the men who have taken up land under the Board on Vancouver Island, they said in one resolution. These men naturally must be in continual touch with the Board for some years, and this club cannot help but be in the best interests of these settlers to be compelled to transact their necessary business through offices on the Mainland.

Regarding the re-establishment offices, it was pointed out that the great help of the industry to business and labor, lumber manufacturers, farmers and other business interests independent of foreign shipping companies. It was also set out that it is essential that the Canadian National Railways should control a mercantile marine.

It was proposed that the McBride Club place on record our hearty approval of the Conservative policy in building the ships, and we further believe that it will ultimately result in greater prosperity to Canada, and further we condemn the action of the Liberal leaders in not supporting the policy of the Meighen Government, which is carrying on a policy that will enable Canada to build up a mercantile marine organization of the Dominion of Canada," the Club stated.

Alarm was expressed over the possibility of a reduction in the scale of war pensions, which are now said to be inadequate, in a resolution which said that "economy should not be made at the expense of disabled soldiers and dependents of the fallen."

VANCOUVER ISLAND NEWS

Sidney, May 21.—The Bazan Bay Brick & Tile Company, which was recently reorganized, is now working in good order with a staff of twenty-one, 66 per cent. white men. The company has an order on which it is now working of over 150,000 drain tiles of different sizes, in addition to the brick orders that are now in and others the firm expects to close the contracts for in a few days.

The company is arranging to manufacture roofing tile, flower pots and different shapes of hand-moulded bricks. The machinery should be live close to the plant. Mr. Morland recently built a new home for himself on the brick plant property. The company is capitalized at 10,000 and the executive is composed of the president and managing director, J. T. Reading; vice-president, James Sandbury and secretary, James Sandbury. Mr. Reading is also a director of the concern, and every one of the executive is also holding a position at the plant, being all experienced men in the brick-making business. As the building prospects improve the company looks forward to the future with optimism, and as the directors are both energetic and popular there seems no reason to doubt their success. The company is undertaking the construction of a wharf which will facilitate to a large extent the handling of the plant's output.

At James Island, Mr. King, of the Vancouver Pile-driving & Contracting Company, passed through Sidney on his way to Vancouver. Mr. King recently acquired the full control of the Vancouver Pile-driving and Contracting Company, and is now busily engaged on a big job at James Island for the Canadian Explosives Company, Limited. They have just finished the building of a wharf there and are now starting on a repair job to the big dock which will keep them engaged for another two or three weeks. Mr. King expects to be back from Vancouver in a few days.

Are you naturally attractive?

WHERE can you find a more pleasing picture than a group of young, healthy, vigorous girls playing tennis?

Alert, quick to think, and quick to act, their faces aglow with enthusiasm and radiant with health.

How many there are, however, among our growing girls of whom this cannot be said. You see them sitting on the side benches looking on, or lolling around in a listless, careless manner, and, as a rule, irritable and nervous.

Nature intended women to be strong, and healthy and happy as the day is long. MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS have proved so beneficial in such a multitude of cases, that they can be recommended without hesitation.

They give sound, restful sleep, tone up the nerves, make the heart beat regular and strong, create new red blood corpuscles, and impart that sense of buoyancy to the spirits that is only possible when enjoying mental and physical vigor.

Mrs. Fred Lee, Almonte, Ont., writes:—"My oldest daughter was so bad for over a year, with her heart and nerves, that she was compelled to give up her work. I was very discouraged about her, as I had her to two doctors, but they did not seem to do her much good. She could not sleep at night, would have to walk the floor, and felt as if she would go out of her mind. One day a friend told me to use Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and I cannot speak too highly of them. She used three boxes and is feeling fine, and started back to work again two months ago."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by

Members of the McBride Conservative Club at their meeting in Belmont House last night passed resolutions denouncing the Hon. Mackenzie King and other Eastern Liberals who have opposed the building of ships by the Dominion Government, and also protested against the removal from Victoria of returned soldier re-establishment offices.

The removal of the S. S. B. is likely to work a great hardship to the men who have taken up land under the Board on Vancouver Island, they said in one resolution. These men naturally must be in continual touch with the Board for some years, and this club cannot help but be in the best interests of these settlers to be compelled to transact their necessary business through offices on the Mainland.

Regarding the re-establishment offices, it was pointed out that the great help of the industry to business and labor, lumber manufacturers, farmers and other business interests independent of foreign shipping companies. It was also set out that it is essential that the Canadian National Railways should control a mercantile marine.

It was proposed that the McBride Club place on record our hearty approval of the Conservative policy in building the ships, and we further believe that it will ultimately result in greater prosperity to Canada, and further we condemn the action of the Liberal leaders in not supporting the policy of the Meighen Government, which is carrying on a policy that will enable Canada to build up a mercantile marine organization of the Dominion of Canada," the Club stated.

Alarm was expressed over the possibility of a reduction in the scale of war pensions, which are now said to be inadequate, in a resolution which said that "economy should not be made at the expense of disabled soldiers and dependents of the fallen."
