FOREWORD

TO THE EXHIBITION COMMITTEE

GENTLEMEN :

It was with considerable surprise that last year, on the opening day of the First Combined Exhibition of the New York Water Color Club, and the American Water Color Society, I found my name in the Catalogue.

I am a retiring old lady and hate newspaper notoriety, but it was "thrust upon" me. Fortunately I subscribe to all the news-clipping agencies, and it was delightful to me to realize how heartily the Press had appreciated your efforts to give a fine Exhibition.

If I am not mistaken one Critic only seemed a little sarcastic—a certain Mr. — dear me, what was his name? Oh well, it doesn't matter. He said something about the show containing a larger amount of meritorious students' work than usual, but nothing to particularly attract the public.

I was glad he found it meritorious, but felt worried about the public, and so I put on my old bonnet and hurried straight to the Exhibition.

The Galleries were crowded with people I supposed to be the happy parents of the students, but learnt that they were not. They were the public attracted to the Exhibition by the splendid pictures it contained, and I gasped when I heard the salesman had earned $400 a week out of his commissions.

I just thought to myself, "It only proves Mr. what's-his-name doesn't know anything about the Public," and I looked round for a lovely little picture, and bought one by an artist whose name was unknown to me. One has to do more than merely talk about art. How can we get great artists unless we encourage small ones until they become great?

Hoping your next Combined Exhibition will be even more successful than the last. I remain,

Yours very truly,

HANNAH PIMERTON.
