THE FIRST MAIL CAR

DISTRIBUTING MAIL ON CAR INTRODUCED 50 YEARS AGO—GREAT SUCCESS

Fifty years ago Thursday, Aug. 27, the first railway mail car was given its official test. Two mice were responsible for the idea. Before that day the mail was distributed according to addresses at certain designated postoffices, which usually were the distributing points of whole states. It was slow and laborious work. At one of these distributing points, Green Bay, Mich., a pair of mice made their home in a pouch of mail that had lain in the postoffice for several days. When the pouch finally reached its destination, near the upper shores of Lake Superior, the receiving postmaster found not only the rodent homesitters, but also a large family of little mice. They had made beds of chewed-up letters. The postmaster reported the matter to the Chicago office and sent along the mice as an exhibit, which was received by George B. Armstrong, the assistant postmaster. To prevent a repetition of such an occurrence, Mr. Armstrong sought to speed up the mail service, and finally evolved the idea of having the mail distributed on the trains while in transit. The plan was ridiculed. One man declared: "The government will have to employ a regiment of men to follow the trains to pick up the letters that will be blown out of the cars."

However, the first postal car, an ordinary baggage car equipped with racks and pigeonholes, made its initial run from Chicago to Clinton, Ia., fifty years ago Thursday, Aug. 27. Today every nation in the civilized world is distributing a large part of its mail matter in railway mail cars. In the United States over 18,000 railway mail clerks are separating over 90 per cent of all the mail originating in this country and a large volume coming from foreign lands. They have separated in a single year nearly 23,000,000,000 pieces of mail matter, not including registered mail. They travel an aggregate distance of 500,000,000 miles every year on the 27,000 domestic transportation routes, having a combined mileage of 450,000 miles. The service has been raised to the highest point of efficiency today and the present ratio of errors in distribution has been reduced to one in 10,000 pieces of mail. The clerks are expected to distribute the mail so that there will be no handling in the postoffices of large cities, and to separate it into packages corresponding with each mail carrier's route in the cities. In the case of the largest cities they must separate it according to sections or substations. Considering the speed at which the clerks sort the mail, the swaying of the train running along at fifty miles an hour, the thousands of railway connecting points, the locations of over 60,000 postoffices in the United States, and the illegibility of addresses, it becomes a marvel how the mail clerk can work without a greater proportion of errors.

AMENDMENTS TO BE STUDIED

The recently organized legislative section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club bids fair to fill the long sought need of education in legislative matters. This section will meet every two weeks until Nov. 1st for the study of the amendments to be voted upon this fall. This coming Thursday, Sept. 17th, they will meet at the home of the curator, Mrs. Hutchinson, 200 Orange street, at 3 p. m. A copy of the amendments have been received from the state printer and many arguments pro and con have been prepared, which will make an interesting study. All members of the club invited.

SWAT THE FLY

Did it ever occur to you that the house fly does not perform a single useful purpose, but is a sure sign of nearby filth that should be removed; that it is the most dangerous insect known; that it is one of the principal carriers of typhoid, tuberculosis and other communicable diseases; that it perhaps adulterates more food, making it dangerous for the people to use, than all other agencies combined? Why not exterminate the fly?

It has been determined that Atlantic coast American shipyards could build sixty-two ships of 300 feet length in a year. The thing is to get these yards all working to their top-notch capacity.

The war scourged lands beyond the sea fairly quake beneath the tread of armies marching to human butchery. Our beloved state feels the tread of a mighty host of life savers intent on making California dry.

GAVIN W. CRAIG LEADS

KERN COUNTY OFFICIAL COUNT SHOWS STRONG SENTIMENT FOR JUDGE CRAIG

The Gavin W. Craig Club headquarters this morning received a report of the official count from Kern county of the vote there on the office of presiding justice of the district court of appeal. This was the last county to be heard from. Judge Craig received the highest vote in ten out of the thirteen counties of the district. The strength of Gesner Williams is the surprise of this contest. It was thought by many that not having had previous judicial experience and not making an expensive or strenuous campaign his vote would be very light. He is a good third and defeated Conroy for second place in San Luis Obispo county. The vote by counties is as follows:

County	Craig	Conroy	Williams
San L. Obispo	2326	783	858
Kern	3989	2710	2072
Tulare	2503	2975	1792

GERMAN ARMY LOSING GROUND

Dispatches from France indicate that the movement of the allies has been so overwhelming against the Germans that they will not again try to establish a single line of resistance in the republic. And on the eastern frontier the kaiser's main support, the Austrians, have been meeting with calamitous reverses. The French have occupied the defenses which the Germans had constructed between Compiegne and Soissons and around Rheims. A significant bit of news from Berlin which passed the German censor was to the effect that the Austrian defenses were abandoned to the fate of the overwhelming Russian forces and many of the Austrian regiments lost all their officers.

COUNTRY STORE AT GLENDALE THEATER

Tonight the Glendale theater is again staging a "country store." This attraction took so well last Tuesday that in all probability the management will make a permanent feature of it. Mr. William Simons (Booster Billy) took the place of the storekeeper last Tuesday and has consented to do so again tonight. Those with coupons may receive anything from a sack of flour to a week's supply of tobacco and a pipe.

Tonight's program consists of the "Animated Weekly" of current events, a two-reel drama called "The Last of Their Race," in which Cleo Madison plays the leading part and depicts a Kentucky feud. There is also "A Princess For a Day," a one-reel drama, and "Could You Blame Her," a comedy in which a husband attempts to give his wife a dress for her birthday and has a difficult time doing it.

EDUCATION NOTES

Women are excluded from becoming rural letter carriers. Seventy-five per cent of the laws have to do with the home in some way.

Only six per cent of all the prisoners in the United States are women.

Nearly five thousand trained nurses are now enrolled in the American Red Cross.

Only 19.5 per cent of the women in this country over twenty-one years of age are single.

The best constructive work done on the Trans-Siberian railroad was in charge of a woman.

Recent statistics show that there are only four countries that do not show a decrease of births.

In the past ten years the Carnegie hero fund commission has made awards to fifty-four women for heroism.

Mothers are equal guardians with the father over children in Kansas, Colorado, California, Oregon and Washington.

A new field for woman's services is opening for college women who are thoroughly trained scientists, in government laboratories in Washington and in the health laboratories of the various cities.

Out of every 100 American girls between school and marriage, fifty are either assisting their mother in their own homes, making homes for their relatives or working for wages under some other home-maker.

MAP OF GLENDALE

One of the valuable features of the anniversary number of the Glendale Evening News will be a full-page map of the city of Glendale. This map has just been prepared by City Engineer Edw. Lynch and is worth what is charged for a copy of the 64-page edition. Arrangements are also being made to present on one of the pages a panoramic view of the city of Glendale. This view will also be of interest to every citizen in this community.

25 CENTS PER COPY

EXPENSIVE FEATURES RECENTLY ADDED MAKES THE RAISE NECESSARY

The price per copy for the anniversary number of the Glendale Evening News will be 25 cents instead of 15 cents, as previously published. Several very expensive new features are being added to the publication which makes it worth $1.00 per copy, but as the sole purpose of this special number is to advertise Glendale to the very best advantage, the selling price will be permanently fixed at 25 cents per copy.

Those of our citizens who have seen sample pages of this work of art declare it is cheap at 25 cents. Although 5000 copies are being printed, it is expected the supply will be exhausted long before all demands are supplied.

This change in price will not in any way affect the free distribution among our regular paid-in advance subscribers for the Evening News and the Tri-City Progress.

SONG OF THE "SQUIRT"

After (a Long Distance After) Tom Hood—By Samuel Parker

With clothing filthy and torn, with whiskers bushy and red (was cleanliness e'er on his shirt front borne; therefrom it had long since fled)—a loafer sat on a dry goods box, spitting and muttering said: "Work, work, work, these hands shall never do while I can obtain a pipe to smoke or a plug of the weed to chew." And he spits, spits, spits, from morning until night; spits, spits, spits beneath the moon's mild lige—spits, spits, spits when bright the starlight gleams—and sleepless falls asleep on his bunk spitting away in his dreams. And in his dream he dreams that by fate it is decreed that he is a big tobacco worm to exterminate the weed; and anyone would think from the usual size of the "gob" that he so frequently jams in his mouth he'd make it a very short job. Young ladies, just a word: Is this the man for you? Assuredly not! I hear you say. Can this report be true? Notice his listless air, measure his unkempt mien, branded all over with "I don't care" and rank with nicotine. Enough to turn any lady fair (unless she is able to stomach a bear—or anything wearing whiskers and hair) abominably sick. From habits that so debase, if you would set him free, I give any lady in the case the following recipe: A war on the "weed" at once declare (let use of liquors the same fate share); give him no smiles or favors rare; stand him off until he shall swear from his filthy habits henceforth to forbear. And my word for it, everywhere—he'll quit them double quick.

FIRE SIREN SAVES GIRL

ANAHEIM, Sept. 14.—Incessant blasts from the city's fire siren last Thursday evening frustrated a kidnaper and saved a beautiful eleven-year-old girl.

The little girl was stolen from in front of her home at 6:45 o'clock by a bicycle rider who carried her away on the handlebars of his wheel, covering her mouth with his hand to prevent her from calling for aid.

It is believed that the blowing of the fire siren frightened the kidnaper so that he left the girl along the road, where she was found by the searchers.

JOHNSON IN OCTOBER

Governor Hiram W. Johnson will speak to the people of Glendale in the interests of his candidacy for reelection about the middle of October. This visit to Glendale will be under the auspices of the Johnson-Eshleman Non-Partisan Club.

A LITTLE FARM

A little farm, well tilled,
Where sun and breeze caress you;
A goodly purse, well filled,
And rosy health to bless you
A tickling of the soil
With hoe or plow or harrow;
A day of honest toil,
A sweeter rest tomorrow.
A sun that ever shines
On broad productive acres;
The pungent scent of pines,
The salt from wild sea breakers;
A taste of fresh, sweet life,
Of sunshine, flowers and ranches;
An income, home, a wife,
And maybe olive branches;
A life of hope and health,
And heart to heart cemented;
With fortune, land and self,
And all the world contented.
Such is his happy lot,
Made up of sunny hours,
Who tills a garden plot,
'Mid California flowers.

BLUEBIRD PARTY

BRIDGE LUNCHEON GIVEN BY MRS. SHATTUCK NOVEL AND CHARMING

Bluebirds with wings outspread and bluebirds in repose were featured at the luncheon bridge party given by Mrs. Charles E. Shattuck in her attractive home, 821 South Central avenue, Monday of this week.

Guests for the occasion were members and substitutes of the Monday Auction Bridge Luncheon Club, and as old Father Time announced the hour of one, simultaneously did the charming hostess lead the feted ones into the dining-room, where an attractively set table awaited them.

Blue hydrangeas centered the handsome cloth and the same little "bluebirds" mentioned before were used as place card adornments and favors.

Auction followed and as holder of the highest score, Mrs. R. E. Hewes of Los Angeles received the only prize awarded.

Mrs. H. H. Faries, Mrs. Everette Barnes and Miss Myrtle Pulliam substituted for Mrs. C. M. Goode and Mrs. C. H. Woolsey, both of whom are out of the city. Besides Mrs. Shattuck, those who sat at the small tables were Mrs. O. E. Clemons, Mrs. J. Herbert Smith, Mrs. Frank B. McKenney, Mrs. Herman Paine, Mrs. D. H. Smith, Mrs. Willis M. Kimball, Mrs. C. O. Pulliam, Mrs. R. E. Hewes, Mrs. H. H. Faries, Mrs. Everette K. Barnes and Miss Myrtle Pulliam.

Mrs. D. H. Smith will be the next hostess and on Monday, September 28th, another delightful party will be enjoyed in the Smith home, 146 South Maryland avenue.

INFORMAL AFTERNOON

Miss Elizabeth Lange of 904 Dryden street was at home informally Monday afternoon to the St. Margaret Girls, who spent the afternoon at needlework and discussing plans for parties and social festivities to be enjoyed by this organization and their friends during the winter months. Light refreshments were served by the gracious hostess, who used roses and fern in attractive arrangements about the house.

MR. WHEELER COMING

Mr. H. A. Wheeler will address the voters of Glendale at the Union high school Friday evening, Sept. 18th, under the auspices of the Young People's Auxiliary of the Dry Federation. Mr. Wheeler is a most capable and interesting speaker of much note. You cannot afford to miss a single one of these series of meetings given by the Young People's Auxiliary, as there are many good speakers of note who will address us on the important issues before the voter today. Splendid music and other very special numbers will be a part of each program. Come and bring your friends Friday evening and watch for the program in later issue of this paper.

PAID WITH INTEREST

In Burnaby's "Travels in America in 1759" the following incident is related:

The captain of a British man-of-war cruising off the Massachusetts coast left his wife in Boston. On one of his visits to port she came down to the wharf to meet him, and she was publicly kissed by her loving spouse. This violation of the law was at once reported, and the captain was brought before the magistrate and sentenced to be publicly whipped. There was no getting out of it, and the captain submitted quite gracefully.

Just before the departure of his ship he gave an elaborate entertainment, to which all of the magistrates were invited. After the festivities were over and everyone had shaken hands with the captain and was going over the side the magistrates were seized by the arm and stripped to the waist. Each one was led to the gangway, where a vigorous boat-swain gave him thirtynine lashes on the bare back and then hustled him over into a boat amid the cheers of the whole ship's company.

LAST CALL

All photographs for cuts and all copy to be used in the anniversary number of the Glendale Evening News must be forwarded to The News office at once.

That the organ being set up in an Indianapolis church, said to be the oldest in the United States, and to have once spent three weeks at the bottom of the Cumberland river, has a remarkably fine tone does not speak so much for putting organs through the submerging process as for the thoroughness of organ building back in the eighteen-fifties.

A PLEASANT EVENING

CHICKEN DINNER IS WELL ATTENDED AND ENJOYED AT HOME OF A. D. HARTLEY

The members of Carnation Rebekah lodge, No. 257, certainly showed their appreciation of a chicken dinner with a large and jolly crowd which assembled at the residence of A. D. Hartley, Verdugo road, Saturday evening, September 12th.

The tables, being prettily decorated in pink and green, were placed under a huge pepper tree surrounded by many beautiful shrubs and flowers. Electric lights sparkled all around and made a brilliant fairy-land.

All the good things that accompany a chicken dinner were placed upon the tables, which fairly creaked under their burden. The members sat down to eat promptly at 8 o'clock. Oh, my! the appetites! The only regret was that the camera fiend was not around.

After dinner the evening was spent in games and other amusements that caused much merriment. Mrs. Ida Smith being the lucky member in winning the prize of a handsome pin.

At a late hour the delighted guests departed for home, avowing that they had never before enjoyed such a jolly time. Many and hearty were the thanks extended Sister and Brother Hartley for the gracious hospitality of their beautiful home.

INTERMEDIATE P. T. A. BOARD MEETING

The executive board of the Intermediate Parent-Teacher Association met Monday afternoon at the school, the president, Dr. Jessie A. Russell, presiding. A large amount of business was transacted and the date of the first meeting of the year was set for Friday evening, September 25th. This meeting will be in the nature of an informal reception in honor of the teachers and the following committees will have the affair in charge:

Decorations—Mrs. A. C. Brown, Mrs. Frank Thorpe and Mrs. H. G. Hemming.

Refreshments—Mrs. E. H. Wightman, Mrs. Nat Green, Mrs. Mary C. Edwads, Mrs. Herman Paine, Mrs. E. S. McKee, Mrs. W. H. McMaisters and Mrs. Fred Baker.

Program—Dr. Russell and Mrs. Brown.

Mrs. C. L. Peckham, chairman of emergency work, spoke at Monday's meeting of the great need for relief work among needy school children in Los Angeles, and as there are so few needy cases in Glendale, she suggested that the association assist in relief work there, first of course attending to any local cases that require attention or help.

Before the meeting closed for the afternoon Mrs. Peckham, Mrs. Inglede and Mrs. Brown were appointed as a committee to compile a list of the patrons of the school.

LOCAL PEOPLE ENJOY OUTING AT CAMP BALDY

Camp Baldy seems to be a favorite haunt for the pleasure seekers as well as those in search of rest. All summer long people from far and wide have gathered at this popular resort to bask in the joys and the rustic life thereof. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Webster and family of West Park avenue have just returned from there; also Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wattles of Glendale avenue, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Logan of Central avenue, accompanied by Mrs. H. Pettit and son Gordon, also of Central avenue, motored up for the week-end, and Mrs. Ed. M. Lynch and little daughter Jean of 907 Damasco court, together with Mrs. Jordan S. Neel of 1434 Hawthorne street, are up there now for the remainder of the week.

BRIEF BUT TO THE POINT

That meeting of the Los Angeles realty board held in the city Thursday indicated that even Los Angeles opinion is divided on the consolidation scheme to such an extent that the realty board will not go on record as either for or against it. During the discussion Senator Gates hit the nail on the head when he declared that under the consolidation plan in many counties "cities could take the very heart out of each county and leave fragments to take care of themselves." Mr. Gates could not have stated the case more fully nor more plainly than in the above brief statement.

TAKING CARE OF WEEDS

The board of trustees of the city of Glendale have up for consideration an ordinance which when adopted and enforced will keep the vacant lots clear of weeds. Every good citizen will welcome such an ordinance.

MOST VALUABLE LESSON OF THE WAR

Thoughtful people, we believe, will unquestioningly accept the opinion of a member of the general staff of the United States army at Washington that one of the greatest lessons to be taught by the present European conflict will be the unprofitableness of war. It is this consideration, indeed, that stimulates all lovers of international peace with patience; that inspires all friends of a common humanity with confidence. Let it be clearly and thoroughly realized by all governments and peoples that, no matter what the outcome may seem to be, war inevitably means loss; and one of the strongest incentives to its declaration and prosecution, if not the very strongest of them, will surely be removed.

It has been a settled belief in military nations for years—at once an obsession and a superstition—that war waged triumphantly means gain; that nations victorious in war are impelled onward and upward by newly-born impulses, aspirations and ideals; that prestige and power are wrested by the conquerors from the field of carnage. But is it not a tremendous gain for true progress to find a professional soldier saying that realization of the utter unprofitableness of war as a result of the present conflict may bring about the adoption of the plan for world peace—that of universal disarmament—proposed by the United States to its sister nations under Presidents Roosevelt and Taft and, practically, under President Wilson? The plan contemplates the organization of one naval fleet and one army for international control, direction and employment in the performance of the world's police duty. "No individual may now take the law into his own hands," points out the soldier referred to, "but must appeal to the courts, and police forces are maintained to insure the carrying out of that policy." So the nations, under the world peace plan would, like their individual citizens, be disarmed and would be encouraged and impelled to cultivate only the arts of peace and good will.

Public notice is hereby given that the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale on the 8th day of September, 1914, did, at its meeting on said day, adopt a Resolution of Intention, No. 736, to order the following improvement to be made, to-wit:

FIRST: That Oak Street from the Westerly line of Central Avenue to the Easterly line of Pacific Avenue, including all intersections of streets, be graded, oiled and macadamized in accordance with Map Number 167, Profile Number 50, and in further accordance with Specifications Number 21 for the paving with crushed rock, screenings and asphaltic oil of streets and avenues in the City of Glendale.

SECOND: That a cement curb be constructed along both lines of the roadway of Oak Street from the Westerly line of Central Avenue to the Easterly line of Pacific Avenue, including returns at all street intersections, in accordance with Map Number 167, Profile Number 50, and in further accordance with Specifications Number 11 for the construction of cement sidewalks in the City of Glendale.

SECTION 2. All plans and profiles referred to in this Resolution are on file in the office of the City Engineer of said City. All Specifications referred to in this Resolution are on file in the office of the City Clerk of said City. Said plans, profiles and specifications are hereby referred to for a more particular description of said work and made a part hereof.

Bonds will be issued as provided for in Resolution No. 736. Reference is hereby made to said Resolution Number 736 for further particulars of said work. T. W. WATSON, City Manager and Ex-Officio Street Superintendent of the City of Glendale, 2512

"CURING" DISEASES

"What is a cure?" ask the editor of the London Lancet in reproving doctors for the loose way in which they use the word. "Nothing ever gets completely well," is an aphorism of a great medical philosopher. Only when the cause of a diseased condition has been removed, its effects neutralized and the organism protected against its activities in the future have we the right to speak of the "cure" of the patient, is the editor's opinion. Immunity conferred by such a cure, he says, may be only temporary. "Where a disease process is only limited or shut off and its further spread prevented, while the causal agent remains, we should speak of arrest, but not of cure. Where grave organic damage has occurred and function has been restored by vicarious activities, we should speak of the result as one of repair or compensation."

CLOTHING NEEDED

The great need for clothing for school children in Los Angeles has been brought to the attention of the Parent-Teacher association. Many little ones are being deprived of educational opportunities because of lack of necessary clothing. Our own community is especially fortunate in that very few needy ones live here, but in many of the homes of the city are many articles that are not needed here but would be of untold value to some family less fortunately situated. A call is made for clothing, especially children's hosiery, boys' clothing, from ages of 8 to 15 years, shoes and underwear. Please deliver at the intermediate school Friday afternoon or Saturday forenoon of this week or phone 648W and they will be called for.

MRS. C. L. PECKHAM,
Chairman of Emergency,
Intermediate School.

SPECIAL

The possibility of flour at $10 a barrel in the United States next winter will, among other things, serve to recall the fact that flour in the United States brought $20 a barrel fifty years ago next winter, and that the country bravely met and successfully passed even that crisis.

LIFE OF THE SUN

Adopting the well known hypothesis of Helmholtz, which attributes the production of the heat emitted by the sun to its contraction, an idea can be formed of the sun's duration. If one gives to the sun a coefficient of expansion intermediate between that of mercury and that of gas, one arrives at the conclusion that it has taken 1,000,000 to 3,000,000 years for the sun to contract to its present radius; in particular, it would have taken 10,000 years to contract from infinity to a radius twice its present radius. Finally, the sun will take 200,000,000 years to contract from its present radius to half that radius, and even then its temperature at the surface will be 3000 degrees.—Scientific American.

GAUDY BIRDS

For gay coloring the pitta ducinna of Borneo and Sumatra takes the lead among birds, its feathers being every color of the rainbow. The bird of paradise runs it close and is in addition a dainty dancer. One species of this bird digs a hole a foot in diameter, over which it places crossed sticks (as for a Scottish sword dance) and straws leaves and rubbish over them, thus forming ing a floor, on which it dances a pas seul. But the jacana and ypecaha, both species of the rail, can go one better, for besides being splendid little dancers, they provide their own music the while.

COUNTRY EDITORS ARE IMPOSED UPON

Carl D. Smith, editor of the Victor (N. Y.) Herald, at a recent meeting of the Western New York Newspapers' Association, read an interesting paper, from which the following is taken:

"Strange things happened in the towns of Western New York last week. A farmer went into a Calcedonia blacksmith shop and had his team shod all around. When the job was completed, he said to the blacksmith: 'Well, Bill, I have given you a nice little job. There's a tire on that wagon out yonder that needs setting. You'll throw that in, won't you?' And the blacksmith meekly said he would.

"Down at Lyon a man had an apoplectic fit. Hastily the doctor was summoned. He fixed up the patient who, regaining consciousness, said: 'Doc, while you are here you will give Tommy his school examination without extra charge, won't you?' And the doctor said, 'I will.'

"At Canadaigua a grocer selling a pound of tea was asked to throw in enough sugar for sweetening. He did it.

"And at Hamburg a lawyer drew a deed for a client and upon request drew a will also without the extra charge.

"You don't believe these things ever happened? Neither do I. You don't believe that they ought to happen? Neither do I.

"But in any old town which boasts a newspaper, last week, this week, and weeks without number, these things have happened:

"A farmer comes into a printing office and offers an auction bill. The printer fixes it up and names a price, and the farmer says, 'You'll give me a free notice in the paper, won't you?' He gets it, for the printer is a good fellow.

"Next comes the merchant with the copy for his display ad. 'Give me three or four readers, won't you?' he says as he turns away from the desk. He gets the readers for the publisher is a good fellow.

"Comes a committee with a scheme for the uplift of the community. Now the editor is a good citizen and earnestly desires that his town shall be a better place in which to live. But he has an idea about how much space he can afford to give the exploitation of the committee's hobby. You see there are many committees, and space is the publisher's stock of merchandise. But the committee thinks nothing less than a column will do, and gets it, for the newspaper man is, above all else, a good fellow.

"After these come other men who demand free space in the paper, the use of which will bring money to their own pockets or to the treasures of the cause, organization or church which they represent. Careless are they of the fact that it costs money to set type, that space is the publisher's one asset. Careless, too, apparently, is the publisher, for he gives, gives, gives. All the week long he is a good fellow until Saturday night, when, it may be, he stands off the help for a part of their pay. They don't call him a good fellow. But he is, and his failure to keep the ghost walking is a perfectly characteristic exhibition of what a good fellow amounts to in real business.

"The donations of a good fellow publisher to the community and its various citizens and organizations entitle him to a place in the front rank of philanthropists. The pity of it is that the good fellow publisher is ignorant of the fact that he is a philanthropist and the public never thinks of putting him in that class. Truly, he is a prophet without honor in his own country.

"I am persuaded, brethren, that we have done many things for many men for many times less than those things were worth. In our zeal for the welfare of mankind we have almost forgotten that we, too, are human and must eat, wear clothes and maintain a roof for shelter. It has been great to be foolish, but it has not paid."

THE FURIES

Greek mythology created some female deities who were supposed to inhabit the lower regions and visit the earth to avenge supposed wrongs and punish their enemies. Black sheep were sacrificed to them at night by the light of torches, and they were represented as horrid looking creatures wearing long, black robes, with snaky locks, bloodshot eyes and clawlike nails. Sometimes they had snakes or torches in their hair and carried scourges or sickles in their hands. The Greeks called these imaginary creatures Erinyes, and the Romans, adopting the same idea, called them furies. Vergil represents them as willing agents employed by the higher gods to stir up mischief, strife and hatred on the earth.—Philadelphia Press.

INHALING WATER

Undoubtedly a number of bathers who are drowned meet their deaths from cramp. Cramp is liable to seize anybody at any moment, and when it comes in deep water few swimmers have sufficient presence of mind to turn on their backs and wait quietly until the attack has departed. So they go under. But there is another danger quite as imminent as cramp, though it is probably less known. This is water inhaling. A swimmer or even a wader is always liable to inhale spray through his nostrils, which, passing through the pharynx and behind the epiglottis or windpipe guard, gets into the windpipe and causes death. As one would expect, water inhaling is almost wholly confined to the sea and very rarely occurs in fresh water. All the same, it may happen anywhere.

It looks now as though it will not be long before the auto service will do what the people of the country have failed to do—make the railway companies lower their fares. In every town where the auto service has been put on there is a noticeable falling off in the street car traffic. To meet this loss of business it is up to the railway people to lower their rates and give better service.
